MAKING A DIFFERENCE IS A SLAM DUNK!
Cleveland Cavaliers Community Relations Efforts

The Cleveland Cavaliers are committed to making a positive impact in the lives of children and families in Northeast Ohio. Throughout the year, the team supports a full roster of community outreach initiatives that address important social issues with an emphasis on *education, youth and family services, health and wellness, volunteerism and entrepreneurship.

Each year the Cavaliers are able to reach more than 100,000 children in Cleveland and across several counties in Northeast Ohio through the team's many programs. Several of those focus on the importance of education at all levels, kindergarten through high school: the Cavs coordinate reading initiatives in schools through "Read to Achieve;" recognize hardworking teachers and students with "Head of the Class," "All-Star Kids" and "Straight 'A' All-Stars;" and partner with FirstMerit Bank to award college scholarships.

Understanding the positive influence they can have on our youth, Cavs players and coaches make an average of 200 community appearances each year, ranging from hospital visits, to serving meals to the less fortunate, to distributing toys during the holidays. Many days after practice at Cleveland Clinic Courts, players and coaches can be found leading kids through basketball clinics and even practicing yoga with them, thanks to the team's "Fit as a Pro" initiative.

The Cavs are also proud to have designed, built and opened 15 "Reading & Learning Centers" and "Learn & Play Centers" since 2004, as well as six "Legacy Projects" since 2008. The Reading & Learning and Learn & Play Centers provide children with better access to books and technology and improve the quality of organizations' literacy and educational programming. The Legacy Projects give families safer places to live, learn and play.

The Cavs also provide the opportunity for many children and families to attend home games every year. The team donates approximately 10,000 tickets per season to organizations that include local charities, non-profits and schools. In total, the Cavs organization donates more than 27,000 tickets each year for events at Quicken Loans Arena, including Lake Erie Monsters and Cleveland Gladiators games, as well as various family shows. The Cavs also provide items and unique experiences to benefit these organizations through auctions and raffles.

The Cavaliers Youth Fund, a fund of the Cleveland Foundation, supports programs for children, families and young adults in the areas of education, health, recreation, employment, entrepreneurship and life skills. Since 1994, CYF has distributed grants totaling more than $22 million to deserving organizations. The Cavaliers have also provided more than $18 million in community gifts and contributions for a number of non-profit groups, including Flashes of Hope and the United Way of Greater Cleveland. In total, the Cavs have committed a total of $40 million in community, civic and charitable giving.

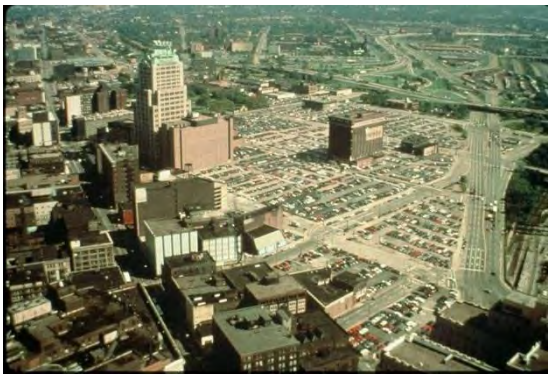
Quicken Loans Arena, A Promise That Keeps On Giving

In October of 1994, a new era of sports and entertainment began in Northeast Ohio when Quicken Loans Arena (then Gund Arena) opened its doors in the heart of downtown Cleveland and the NBA Cleveland Cavaliers came back home after 20 seasons in suburban Richfield. Fast forward 20 years later and Quicken Loans Arena and the Cavaliers have lived up to the promise of being a world-class attraction and an essential building block for the economy of all of Northeast Ohio . . . .

Before and After: The Gateway District



Thanks to a unique public/private partnership between civic and business leaders and with the support of Cuyahoga County voters, in 1990 the decision was made to build Quicken Loans Arena and Progressive Field (then Jacobs Field), home to the MLB Cleveland Indians, side-by-side on the former Central Market site in downtown Cleveland. The project formed a centerpiece of the Gateway development, to be known as the Gateway District.

The Central Market site, located on the southern end of the city, was a desolate part of downtown and perhaps the area of highest disinvestment. Logistically, it was the entry way into Cleveland that consisted of primarily empty commercial buildings and underutilized surface parking lots, with only six full service restaurants and no hotels or residential properties.

Today, the Gateway District is a vibrant live, work and play destination. It is now the focal point of downtown Cleveland and has been the beneficiary of over $1 BILLION in completed, underway or funded retail, residential and hotel development. The Gateway District consists of 21 residential properties, seven hotels, and over 70 full-service restaurants and eateries that service it's nearly 2,000 residents and five million visitors each year. In addition, four properties are under construction or in design/development for additional housing, hotel and retail.

The Q is now one of the oldest arenas in the NBA and the Cavaliers organization has now privately invested over $375 million in The Q since the arena opened in 1994. This includes covering 100% of all costs and expenses at The Q, including all capital expenses, repairs/maintenance and operations for the past 22+ years (since the day the arena opened). In addition, for the last 12 years the Cavaliers have paid for all of Gateway Economic Development Corporation's (the arena's landlord for the Cuyahoga County) expenses as well (including the property tax Gateway pays) by splitting that cost with the Cleveland Indians. It is also noteworthy that none of the original 20 years of "sin tax" funding went to The Q. That was used almost entirely on the football and baseball stadiums. (Whereas funds from the recently extended sin tax 2.0 in 2014 addresses major capital projects that are landlord obligations of the lease for each of the three pro sports facilities in downtown Cleveland. At The Q, those major capital items included the new HD video scoreboard system and upcoming roof replacement project.)

The First 20 Years, Just the Beginning

For two decades, Quicken Loans Arena (The Q) has provided Cleveland with a modern day sports and entertainment venue that spurred an era of dramatic economic growth and renewal. The Q hosts close to 200 events and welcomes more than two million guests each year. It is a must-stop venue for major concert tours and family shows, and in addition to the Cavaliers, is home to the American Hockey Leagues' Lake Erie Monsters, the American Football Leagues' Cleveland Gladiators and the Mid-American Conference Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments.

For the city of Cleveland, the economic impact of having a world-class sports and entertainment venue that draws millions downtown annually has been significant. In 2015 alone, the direct spending attributable to arena and team operations is estimated to total over $180 million within the county. In addition, The Q generates:

- Over $34 million of tax revenue annually (city, county and state).
- Over $10 million a year in admissions tax revenue direct to the City of Cleveland.

As a result, this equates to over $200 million in direct spending and tax revenue, funding city and county services that help create a vibrant downtown. In addition, much in part to the arena's state-of-the-art amenities and accommodations, Cleveland has become a competitor for attracting events of national and international interest, which infuses millions of dollars into the economy and shines a global spotlight on the city.

The list of credits include hosting the 1997 NBA All Star Game, 2007 & 2015 NBA Finals, the 2007 NCAA Women's Final Four, the 2000 and 2009 United States Figure Skating Championships, the second and third rounds of the 2011 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championships, participating venue for the 2013 Senior Games, opening ceremony for the 2014 Gay Games, and the 2015 NCAA Men's Regional Championship and the upcoming 2018 NCAA Wrestling Championships. This summer, as the site for the 2016 Republican National Convention, Cleveland and Quicken Loans Arena will be on the largest domestic and international stage for perhaps the most prestigious event the city has ever hosted.

Twenty years later, the vision of what building a world-class arena in downtown Cleveland would mean to the city and the region has become a reality that keeps on giving. Quicken Loans Arena continues to serve its community.

Quicken Loans Arena and the Cleveland Cavaliers have lived up to the promise of being an essential building block for the economy of all of Northeast Ohio. Over the past 20 years of the arena's operation, it is estimated that The Q and the Cavaliers have generated a cumulative economic impact of:

$3.0 billion in direct spending;
$4.8 billion in total output;
$2.4 billion in earnings;
$106.1 million admissions tax (as of March 2016)
An average of 2,400 jobs supported; and,
$540 million in state and local tax revenues.

Just in 2015, it is estimated that The Q and the Cavaliers have generated a cumulative economic impact of:

$182 million in direct spending;
$288 million in total output;
$151 million in earnings;
$10 million admissions tax;
3,500 jobs supported; and,
$34 million in state and local tax revenues.

2015-16 Cavaliers Fan Engagement Metrics

Economic Impact: According to a study by Convention Sports & Leisure (CSL), the local economic impact of the 2016 Cavaliers playoff run will generate an estimated $3.6 million per game.

On the BrinQ of History!: The Cavaliers continued to pack every game at Quicken Loans Arena to sold-out capacity (20,562) during the 2015-16 regular season with an average attendance of 20,562 fans (843,042 in total attendance in 41 home games), tied for the best attendance in franchise history. This season's home attendance average ranks second in the NBA behind the Chicago Bulls, who have a larger arena capacity. The Cavs have recorded 92 consecutive sellouts at The Q to date, including the 2014-15 regular season and playoffs.

NBA's Top Overall Draw: The Cavaliers were not only the hottest ticket in Cleveland this season – but across the entire NBA. On the road, the team was a major attraction playing to 31 of 41 sellout crowds with an average road attendance of 18,910 fans, ranking third in the league behind the Los Angeles Lakers (19,173) and Golden State Warriors (19,134). The Cavaliers combined home and road average attendance of 19,736 fans during the 2015-16 season was second in the NBA, behind the Chicago Bulls (20,010) and third in franchise history, behind only the 2014-15 (19,738) and 2009-10 (19,881) season.

The Digital Age: The Cavaliers are committed to fan engagement across multiple digital platforms and continue to explore new ways to give an ever-growing digital audience exclusive access to the Wine & Gold both on and off the court. Here's a look at the continued growth of Cavaliers digital:

- Cavs.com, the comprehensive team website for all things Cavaliers, continues to be one of the NBA's most viewed sites. From July 2015 through March 2016, the team's site had nearly 32 million page views and was visited over 11 million times by fans across the globe.
- During the 2015-16 season, Cavaliers digital focused on providing exclusive video content to Cavs.com, highlighting the team both on and off the court. In result, video content on the site was streamed by fans over five million times through nine months (July 2015 – March 2016).

Getting Social: The Cavaliers thriving social community recently surpassed 10 MILLION subscribers across Twitter (@Cavs), Facebook (Facebook.com/cavs), Instagram (@Cavs) and Sina Weibo, a Chinese micro-blogging platform. The team ranks in the top 10 of the NBA in terms of average number of total followers across the four platforms, and its number of subscribers have more than tripled since the conclusion of the 2013-14 season. Specifically on Weibo, the Cavaliers followers have grown 391% year-over-year (Oct. 2014 – Oct. 2015) and the account consistently ranks as the best in the league in terms of engagement.

As Seen on TV: The Cavaliers appeared on 32 nationally televised broadcasts this year, up three from a year ago during the 2014-15 season. Cleveland appeared on ESPN 10 times, TNT and NBA TV eight times, and six times on ABC.

Broadcasting Bonanza: During the 2015-16 season, fans across the country were tuning into Cavs games at a record rate:

- Through 82 locally and nationally broadcast games on FOX Sports Ohio (FSO), TNT, ESPN, NBATV, WUAB and ABC this season, the Cavaliers have an overall local TV average rating of 10.4, equating to approximately 388,000 people watching each game locally, a 7 percent increase over last season's average of 9.8.
- FOX Sports Ohio, the official TV home of the Cavaliers, carried the maximum amount (70) of Cavs games eligible for local broadcast during the 2015-16 regular season. The Cavs 70 games on FSO averaged a rating of 9.3, a 19 percent increase over last season's average of 7.8.
- Serving the rapidly-growing Northeast Ohio Hispanic market, the Cavaliers broadcast all games in Spanish on 87.7 FM La Mega. Led by veteran broadcaster, Rafael Hernandez Brito, the Cavs are one of only six NBA teams to provide Spanish coverage of all home and road matchups live from the site of the game.

The World is Watching: Fans across the globe are tuning in to the Wine & Gold. Based on a geographical report spanning the entire season, 2015-16 Cavaliers games are broadcast in 192 countries (out of 196 countries in the world) and 13 territories throughout the world. On the web, 26 percent of traffic to Cavs.com comes from international users and 181 countries have had visitors on the team's site. Top countries (other than the United States) by visitors include: Philippines, Canada, Australia, Israel, United Kingdom, Brazil, Germany, France and Taiwan.

#AllForOhio: The Cavaliers took the show on the road with a #AllForOhio preseason campaign designed to connect with Wine & Gold faithful cheering throughout the Buckeye State. The team played sold-out preseason games during the 2015-16 season at two in-state university venues: Xavier's Cintas Center in Cincinnati and Ohio State's Schottenstein Center in Columbus.

Cavaliers Technology

HUMONGOTRON: The four-sided scoreboard is one of the largest center-hung screens in any arena in the country. It features enormous HD video displays that are tilted and uniquely curved to provide optimal viewing angles for all fans in the arena. (Two sideline screens measure 31.50' high x 56.69' wide and feature greater-than-HD video. The two high-resolution baseline screens measure 29.92' high x 33.07' wide)

In addition, the recently installed arena control system for the scoreboard and related LED displays allows for full integration of live video, team and player statistics, social media information, fan messages, closed captioning of arena announcements, and more.

LED DISPLAYS: The Q is illuminated with a grand total of more than 11,682 square feet of LED displays in the arena's seating bowl.

SOUND SYSTEM: The arena's sound system provides fans with cutting-edge clarity that replicates touring concert ability. The system features advanced audio digital processing, six line array speaker clusters and additional speakers under Humongotron.

3-D COURT PROJECTION: The team's award-winning game presentation features Quince Imaging's innovative projection image mapping technology. Using powerful media servers, the technology transforms the court into a giant three-dimensional video screen. The Cavs are one of only five NBA teams to have this technology.

iBeacon

BEACON TECHOLOGY: The Cavaliers feature Gimbal beacon technology, a location and proximity-based mobile engagement platform, inside The Q. The beacons provide fans with engaging messaging directly to their mobile devices as they travel throughout the arena. For example, beacons are located at every entrance of The Q to prompt fans to view an interactive "fan guide" on their mobile device as they enter the arena. The guide provides fans with helpful and interesting information for the game, including: contests and promotions to watch for during the event, articles related to the night's matchup, a map of popular destinations inside The Q, and much more.

CAVS MOBILE APP: The Cavaliers teamed up with Yinzcam, an interactive technology company, to develop the dynamic Cavs mobile application. The app provides an immersive experience for fans, giving them unparalleled access to the Cavs, anywhere, anytime - all in the palm of their hand. The free official app is available for download via the Apple App Store and Google Play Store and is compatible on all Apple and Android smartphone and tablet devices. For fans in-arena who are connected to The Q's FREE Wi-Fi network, the Cavs app will showcase a multitude of captivating second-screen features, including:

- Live play-by-play coverage, enhanced game-tracking stats, extended box scores, in-game shot charts and heat maps for each team through the GameTracker feature
- Quick replays of all Cavalier possessions from multiple angles on the court
- Following the game, fans will have the opportunity to relive their game day experience with video highlights and postgame interviews.
- A portal that gives fans in Wine & Gold United, the team's official membership club, the ability to manage their membership, quickly connect with their designated rep and add to their in-arena member experience.

SOCIAL MEDIA ZONE: Before the 2015-16 season, the Cavs debuted the #LiveAtTheQ Social Media Zone, a state-of-the-art digital headquarters created to provide a gathering space for fans to interact with the team and each other. Located on the main concourse of The Q, The Social Zone features (1) 84" 4K touch-enabled digital display flanked on either side by (2) 46" portrait display touch-screens. The displays are ripe with social content captured from fans in the arena and around the world. The Cavs are the first team in the NBA to introduce user-generated social content to a physical in-arena digital centerpiece.

MOBILE CHARGING STATIONS:

Created by GoCharge, there are 22 mobile charging stations located throughout The Q. Each location is equipped with 12 universally compatible cables, capable of charging iPhone, Android and most other mobile and tablet devices for FREE. Additionally, each charging station features eight USB ports and four standard AC outlets that double as tables so fans can stay connected while taking a break from the on-court action.

2015-16
Cleveland Cavaliers
Season Review

CLEVELAND CAVALIERS 2015-16 SEASON NOTES

ON TOP OF THE EAST: Cleveland finished the 2015-16 regular season with a 57-25 record, their best mark since the 2009-10 season (61-21). The Cavs clinched the top seed in the Eastern Conference after a 109-94 win over Atlanta on April 11. It marked the 3rd time in team history the Cavs finished with the best regular season record in the conference (2008-09 & 2009-10).

- CENTRAL CROWN: For the second straight season, Cleveland secured the Central Division title after defeating Denver, 124-91, on March 21. It marked their 5th Central Division title in franchise history (1975-76, 2008-09, 2009-10, 2014-15). Also in the win over the Nuggets, the Cavs reached the 50-win mark for 9th time in team history (1988-89, 1991-92, 1992-93, 2005-06, 2006-07, 2008-09, 2009-10 & 2014-15).

2016 PLAYOFFS: The Cavaliers will be making a playoff appearance for the 20th time in team history. Cleveland is 84-84 all-time in the postseason, including 54-30 (.643) at home. Since 2006, the Cavs are 33-12 during the playoffs at Quicken Loans Arena. The Cavaliers clinched a playoff spot after a 109-103 win in Orlando on March 18.

DRAINING THREES: In 2015-16, the Cavs averaged a franchise-high 10.7 three-pointers made per game (2nd in NBA).

- 10 OR MORE: Cleveland made at least 10 three-pointers on 51 occasions this past season, including 15 triples or more 11 times.
- NBA-BEST: Cleveland connected on at least 10 or more three-pointers in a NBA-record tying and franchise-high 16 straight games (March 9-April 5) (Golden State also had a streak of 16 games during the 2015-16 season).
- ANOTHER RECORD: With 880 three-pointers in 2015-16 (2nd-most in NBA), the Cavs set a franchise single-season record, breaking the 2014-15 mark (826). The record was broken on April 5 at Milwaukee. Their 880 threes were the 5th-most for a single season in NBA history. Cleveland also had the most triples in the Eastern Conference for the 4th time in team history (1980-81, 1989-90, 2014-15).
- POURING IN MARCH: The Cavs set a franchise record for three-pointers in a month, connecting on 194 triples in March. The previous record was 184 in March 2015.
- THE EDGE: The Wine and Gold made 2.8 more threes per game than their opponent (10.7 to 7.9).
- HIT THE MARK: Cleveland tied their franchise record with 19 three-pointers at Chicago on April 9.
- TRIPLE-THREAT: In a 117-103 win over Orlando on Nov. 23, both Kevin Love and J.R. Smith hit six three-pointers, becoming the 2nd pair of Cavs players to ever accomplish that feat in the same game. The only other time two Cavs players knocked down six treys in the same game was March 5, 1996 vs. Seattle (Dan Majerle 6, Danny Ferry 6) (Elias).

CAVALIERS KEY DATES

October 27 – The Cleveland Cavaliers opened up the 2015-16 campaign in Chicago. LeBron James tallied a double-double, recording 25 points, 10 rebounds and five assists in 36 minutes. In his first game as a Cavalier since the 2010-11 season, Mo Williams had 19 points, seven assists four rebounds in 37 minutes.

October 28 – The Cavaliers got their first win of the season, defeating the Memphis Grizzlies 106-76, which marked their largest victory over the Grizzlies in team history. Mo Williams surpassed Craig Ehlo (381) for 7th most three-pointers in Cavaliers history. Tristan Thompson moved past Jim Chones (1,040) for 8th place in offensive rebounds in franchise history.

October 30 – The Wine and Gold beat the Miami Heat, 102-92, in their home opener in front of a sellout crowd. Kevin Love registered his second double-double of the season with 24 points, a game-high 14 rebounds and five assists in 33 minutes.

November 2 – In a 107-100 win over Philadelphia, LeBron James became the 20th player in NBA history to reach 25,000 career regular season points, as well as the youngest player to do so (30 years, 307 days) with his alley-oop dunk at the 8:07 mark of the fourth quarter. He also moved past Zydrunas Ilgauskas (3,568) for 2nd in Cavs history in defensive rebounds with his second defensive board of the night.

November 6 – The Cavaliers beat the Philadelphia 76ers for the second time in the same week, winning 108-102. In the win, LeBron James became the 20th player in league history to make 9,000 career field goals after tallying game highs of 31 points on 12-22 (.545) shooting and a season-high tying 13 assists in 36 minutes.

November 8 – In the Cavs' 101-97 win over the Indiana Pacers, LeBron James surpassed Jerry West (9,016) for 19th place on the NBA's all-time field goals made list. Tristan Thompson passed Phil Hubbard (1,051) for the 7th-most offensive rebounds in Cavaliers history. Kevin Love finished with 22 points, a season-high 19 rebounds and three blocks, becoming the first Cavs player to reach those numbers since Jan. 11, 2008 when LeBron James had 31 points, 19 rebounds and three blocks vs. Charlotte.

November 10 – Kevin Love hit his 600th career regular season three-pointer in a 118-114 win over the Utah Jazz. Cleveland also made a season-high 33 free throws.

November 13 – After a 90-84 victory against the New York Knicks at Madison Square Garden, the Cavaliers sit at an 8-1 record, which ties their best start after nine games in team history. LeBron James finished with 31 points and six assists in 39 minutes, which marks the 9th time James has scored 30 or more points at Madison Square Garden in his career, tying him with Kobe Bryant for the most such games by any active visiting player (ESPN Stats & Info).

November 14 – Kevin Love notched his 300th career double-double against the Milwaukee Bucks in a double overtime contest, finishing with 24 points and 12 rebounds.

November 19 – Against Milwaukee, Tristan Thompson appeared in his 300th consecutive regular season game, joining Jim Chones (361), Austin Carr (351) and Danny Ferry (301) as the fourth player in Cavaliers history to play in 300 straight regular season games.

2015 PLAYOFFS RECAP

LAST YEAR'S POSTSEASON: The Cavaliers made their 19th playoff appearance in team history after the 2014-15 season. In this playoff run, the Cavs advanced to the NBA Finals for the second time in franchise history (2007) and lost 4-2 to Golden State. Cleveland finished the postseason with a 14-6 record. The team's 14 playoff wins also set a franchise record. En route to the NBA Finals, the Cavs swept Boston in the First Round (4-0), defeated Chicago in the Semifinals (4-2) and knocked off Atlanta (4-0). The Cavs all-time postseason record sits at 84-84, including 54-30 at home.

GAMES OF THE CENTURY: Including the 2014-15 regular season and postseason, the Cavs played at least 100 games for the second time in franchise history. The team finished with 102 games played, tying the Cavs' highest mark set in 2006-07.

2015 PLAYOFF NOTES: Below are team highlights from the 2015 NBA Playoffs.

- FIRST FINALS WIN: The Cavs garnered their first NBA Finals win in franchise history after taking a 95-93 overtime victory over Golden State in Game 2 on June 7, 2015. It was the 11th overtime game in Cavs postseason history (7-4) and 3rd of the 2015 playoffs. Cleveland also became the 1st team in league history to win a Finals game playing without its second and third leading scorers from the regular season (Kyrie Irving/Kevin Love). (Elias)
- LONG DISTANCE MARK: From May 14-26, 2015, Cleveland hit at least 10 three-pointers in five straight postseason games for the first time in franchise playoff history.
- 30-POINT WIN: The Cavs defeated the Atlanta Hawks 118-88 in Game 4 of the Eastern Conference Finals on May 26, 2015, which ties their largest margin of victory in franchise playoff history. The team also had a 30-point win over Washington on April 21, 2008 (116-86).
- TENACIOUS D: The Cavs allowed just .419 shooting from the field in the 2015 postseason. In the semifinals, Cleveland held Chicago to just .401 shooting, including under .400 shooting in each of the final four contests. The four consecutive games holding an opponent to under .400 shooting set a franchise playoff record.
- BLOCK PARTY: The Cavs swatted 6.4 shots per game in the playoffs, including two games with 10 or more blocks (10 on 4/21/15 vs. BOS & 12 on 5/12/15 vs. CHI).
- GLASS CONTROL: In Game 6 of the NBA Finals, Cleveland outrebounded Golden State 56-39, led by three players with double-digit boards (James-18, Thompson-13 and Timofey Mozgov-12). The last time three Cavs had 12-plus rebounds in a playoff game was 4/30/1992 at New Jersey (Daugherty 14, Nance 13, Williams 13).

SWISH SETS FRANCHISE PLAYOFF 3-POINT RECORD: In Game 1 of the Eastern Conference Finals at Atlanta on May 20, 2015, J.R. Smith set a Cavaliers playoff record for three-pointers in a game after going 8-12 (.667) from beyond the arc, while tallying a postseason career-best 28 points, eight rebounds, three assists, one steal and one block in 36 minutes off the bench. Smith's eight three-point field goals were the 2nd-most by a non-starter in an NBA playoff game (Jason Terry hit 9 3FGM against LAL on 5/8/2011).

BIG SHOW FOR MOZGOV: Timofey Mozgov registered his 4th double-double of the 2015 postseason after finishing with a career-high (regular season and postseason) 28 points on 9-16 (.563) shooting from the field, a 10-12 (.833) mark from the free-throw line, 10 rebounds (six offensive) and one steal in 33 minutes during Game 4 against the Warriors on June 9, 2015. Mozgov became the first Cavaliers center to tally 28 points and 10 rebounds in a postseason game since Brad Daugherty on April 23, 1992 (40 pts/16 rbs vs. New Jersey). (Elias)

KYRIE'S PERFORMANCE: Before his injury, Kyrie Irving scored in double figures in 12 of 13 career playoff games, including seven 20-point performances during the 2015 Playoffs. He also shot a team-high .450 (27-60) from the three-point line.

- In Game 1 of the NBA Finals at Golden State on June 4, 2015 Kyrie Irving had a strong all-around game with 23 points, seven rebounds, six assists, and a playoff career-high four steals and two blocks in 44 minutes. Irving is the first NBA player to total at least 23 points, seven rebounds, six assists, four steals and two blocks in a playoff game since May 2, 2000 when Chris Webber accomplished that feat against the Lakers (23 pts/13 rebs/8 asts/4 stls/7 blks).
- BLOCKS AND POINTS: Kyrie Irving swatted at least one shot in 10 of his 13 playoff games, while also scoring 56 points in his first two playoff contests as a Cavalier (April 19-21, 2015). Only LeBron James (58 points in 2006) scored more points in his first two playoff games wearing a Wine and Gold jersey.
- EFFICIENT GAME: In Game 2 against Chicago on May 6, 2015, Irving had 21 points on just nine field goal attempts, becoming the first Cavaliers player since Daniel Gibson in Game 6 of the 2007 Eastern Conference Finals versus the Pistons to record 20 or more points on nine or fewer field-goal attempts in a playoff game (Gibson-31 points on 9 FGA).

DOIN' THE DIRTY WORK: In his first career postseason, Tristan Thompson is averaging 10.8 rebounds (2nd highest on the team), to go along with 9.6 points on a team-best .558 shooting and 1.2 blocks in 36.4 minutes per game. As a starter (last 15 games), he had nine double-doubles and is averaging 10.6 points on .549 shooting, 12.1 rebounds and 1.3 blocks in 39.2 minutes.

- THIRD TIME EVER: In the Game 6 victory against Chicago on May 14, 2015, Thompson had 13 points, 17 rebounds (six offensive) and two blocks in 40 minutes of work. He became just the third Cavs player to put up at least 13 points, 17 rebounds and two blocks in a playoff game in team history (Brad Daugherty on 5/9/93 vs. NJ and Zydrunas Ilgauskas on 4/30/07 vs. WAS).
- BIG WHEN IT COUNTS MOST: During the 2015 NBA Finals against Golden State, Thompson averaged 13.0 rebounds to go along with 10.0 points and 1.0 block in 41.2 minutes per game. He grabbed double-digit rebounds in all six Finals games, posting four double-doubles, including a playoff career-best 19 points on 6-11 (.545) shooting, 10 rebounds, two steals and two blocks in 40 minutes at Golden State in Game 5 of the NBA Finals on June 14, 2015.

ROAD SHOW: Cleveland went 7-3 on the road in the 2015 postseason, winning five of their seven victories on the road by at least eight points. Away from home, the Cavs have held their foes to 92.0 points on .411 shooting from the field and .278 from beyond the arc.

- ECF: After winning the first two games in Atlanta during the Eastern Conference Finals, the Cavaliers became just the 9th team in NBA history to go on the road and win the first two games of a series, the winner of which would advance to the NBA Finals. But the Cavs became only the second of those nine teams to earn each of those victories by at least eight points, with the other such instance coming in the 1947 playoffs, in the first season of the Basketball Association of America, the forerunner of the NBA. In 1947, the playoff format called for the regular-season champions from the East and the West (the Washington Capitols and the Chicago Stags, respectively) to meet in a best-of-seven series, with the winner advancing to the Finals against the survivor of playoff competition involving four other teams. The Stags won the first two games of the series over Red Auerbach's Capitols in Washington, 81-65 and 69-53, and took the series, four games to two. (Elias Sports Bureau)

OSCAR-WORTHY PERFORMANCE: LeBron James started in all 20 games during the Cavs' NBA Finals run in the 2015 Playoffs, recording an NBA-high 14 double-doubles (three triple-doubles) and averaging 30.1 points, a career-high 11.3 rebounds, a career-high 8.5 assists, 1.7 steals and 1.1 blocks in 42.2 minutes per game. He joined Oscar Robertson as the only players in league playoff history to average at least 30.0 points, 11.0 rebounds and 8.0 assists in a single postseason.

MOVIN' UP THE LADDER: James also moved up in several postseason all-time rankings throughout the playoffs:

- On 4/19/15 vs. BOS in Game 1: Passed Michael Jordan (1,022) for 9th in career postseason assists and passed Derek Fisher (272) for 11th in career postseason steals.
- On 4/21/15 vs. BOS in Game 2: Passed Jerry West (4,457) for 7th in career postseason scoring.
- On 4/23/15 at BOS in Game 3: Passed Robert Horry (276) for 10th in career postseason steals and tied Clyde Drexler (278) for 9th in steals.
- On 4/26/15 at BOS in Game 4: Passed Kobe Bryant (1,040) for 8th in playoff assists, Shaquille O'Neal (1,168) for 6th in free throws made and Clyde Drexler (278) for 9th in steals.
- On 5/4/15 vs. CHI in Game 1: Passed Scottie Pippen (1,048) for 7th in career playoff assists.
- On 5/8/15 vs. CHI in Game 3: Passed Tony Parker (1,059), Steven Nash (1,061) and Larry Bird (1,062) for 4th all-time in career playoff assists.
- On 5/12/15 vs. CHI in Game 5: Passed Jason Kidd (237) for 9th all-time in career playoff three-pointers made.
- On 5/14/15 vs. CHI in Game 6: Passed Tim Duncan (1,202) for 5th all-time in career playoff free throws made.
- On 5/20/15 at ATL in Game 1: Passed Jerry West (1,622) for 7th all-time in NBA postseason history in field goals made.
- On 5/22/15 at ATL in Game 2: Passed Jerry West (1,213) for 4th all-time in career playoff free throws made.
- On 5/24/15 vs. ATL in Game 3: Passed Karl Malone (4,782) for 6th all-time in career postseason scoring and Jason Kidd (11) for 2nd all-time in playoff triple-doubles.
- On 5/26/15 vs. ATL in Game 4: Passed Maurice Cheeks (295) and Larry Bird (296) for 7th all-time in career postseason steals.
- On 6/14/15 at GSW in Game 5: Passed Jason Kidd (302) for 6th all-time in career postseason steals, passed Michael Jordan (7,474) for 10th and Bill Russell (7,497) for 9th on the NBA's all-time postseason minutes list.
- On 6/16/15 vs. GSW in Game 6: Passed Karl Malone (1,269) for 3rd all-time in free throws made; also passed Malone (1,743) for 6th place on the career playoff field goals made, and passed Magic Johnson (7,538) and Wilt Chamberlain (7,559) for 7th all-time in playoff minutes played.

MORE ON LEBRON'S 2015 POSTSEASON: In the 2015 Playoffs, LeBron James ranked among the top playoff leaders in points (30.1, 2nd), rebounds (11.3, 4th), assists (8.5, 3rd), steals (1.7, 13th), 14 double-doubles (1st) and three triple-doubles (tied-1st).

- BIG IN FINALS: In the 2015 NBA Finals, James recorded five double-doubles (two triple-doubles) and averaged 35.8 points, 13.3 rebounds, 8.8 assists and 1.3 steals in 45.7 minutes.

- FIRST IN FINALS HISTORY TO…: James became the first player in Finals history to lead the series in points, rebounds and assists; became the first player to produce two triple-doubles with 30 or more points in one Finals series; first player to lead all players in points, rebounds and assists; and first player to post at least 20 points, 12 rebounds and eight assists in five straight games (Games 2-6).

- MR. 5,000: With James' 12th point in Game 6 of the NBA Finals, he became just the sixth player in NBA history to score 5,000 career playoff points, joining Michael Jordan, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Kobe Bryant, Shaquille O'Neal and Tim Duncan.

- 40 PTS IN TRIPLE-DOUBLE: James scored 40 points as part of his triple-double in Game 5 of the 2015 NBA Finals against the Warriors (14 rebounds, 11 assists). Only three other players scored 40 points in a playoff triple-double: Oscar Robertson (twice in 1963), Jerry West (1969), and Charles Barkley (1993). West was the only player other than James to do so in an NBA Finals, doing so with 42 points with 13 rebounds and 12 assists in a Game 7 loss to the Celtics. (Elias Sports Bureau)

- MULTIPLE TRIP-DUBS IN FINALS: James was the first player to produce two triple-doubles with 30 or more points in one Finals series (2015). And including a 32-point triple-double with the Heat in the 2013 Finals, he now has three triple-doubles with 30-plus points in Finals competition, matching the total for all other players in the shot-clock era. (Jerry West, James Worthy, and Charles Barkley had one each.) James has been responsible for the last six triple-doubles in NBA Finals games. That ties the record set by Magic Johnson, who turned in six consecutive Finals triple-doubles from 1980 to 1985.

- FIRST TIME FOR HIM: LeBron James tallied 40 points, 12 rebounds, a game-high eight assists, four steals and two blocks in 46 minutes in Game 3 against the Warriors in The Finals. It was the first time in James' playoff career that he put together that stat line.

- GAME 2 DOMINANCE: During Game 2's 95-93 win at Golden State on June 7, 2015, James registered his 13th career playoff triple-double with game highs in points (39), rebounds (16) and assists (11), becoming the first player in NBA playoff history to reach those totals. It was James' 5th triple-double in his NBA Finals career (now has 6), which only trails Magic Johnson (8) for the most all-time in the Finals. James also became the 2nd player in NBA Finals History with at least 35 points, 15 rebounds and 10 assists, joining James Worthy in 1988.

- THE OUTRIGHT WAY: James has been his team's outright leader in points, rebounds and assists in 37 postseason games. The Elias Sports Bureau notes that's the most all time, 24 more than the player with the next-most, Larry Bird with 13. In Game 2 of the 2015 NBA Finals, James became the 2nd player to produce outright game highs of points, rebounds and assists during the NBA Finals, joining Shaquille O'Neal, who did so at Los Angeles in the Lakers' Game 2 victory over the Nets in 2002 (40 points, 12 rebounds and eight assists). James also repeated this feat when he tallied outright game highs in points, rebounds and assists in Game 5 and Game 6 of the 2015 NBA Finals.

- ECF: In the Eastern Conference Finals against Atlanta, James averaged a near triple-double: 30.3 points, 11.0 rebounds, 9.3 assists and 2.0 steals in 38.3 minutes per game. No other player in league history has ever averaged at least 30.0 points, 10.0 rebounds and 9.0 assists in a playoff series.

- RARE AIR: In the Game 3 win over Atlanta in the ECF on May 24, 2015, LeBron James collected his first triple-double of the 2015 playoffs (12th in postseason career) after recording game-highs of 37 points, 18 rebounds (career-high eight offensive) and 13 assists, to go along with three steals in 47 minutes. James became the first player in NBA postseason history to put together a stat line of at least 37 points, 18 rebounds and 13 assists. The last player to have that stat line in any game was Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain (53 points, 32 rebounds and 14 assists), who did it in a regular season contest against Los Angeles on 3/18/68.

  - Also in the Game 3 win versus the Hawks in the ECF, James earned his 12th triple-double of his playoff career, surpassing Jason Kidd's total of 11 and moving into 2nd place all-time, behind Magic Johnson, who had 30. James achieved the triple-double with his 10th assist with 3:49 remaining in the third quarter. No NBA player had produced a triple-double within the first three quarters of a playoff game since Chris Paul, playing for the Hornets against the Lakers, did that in 2011. No NBA player had earned a triple-double so early in a game since 2009, when Rajon Rondo achieved it with 6:15 to play in the third quarter, playing for the Celtics against the Bulls.

- BULLS EYE: In the six games against Chicago in the Eastern Conference Semifinals, LeBron James averaged 26.2 points, 11.0 rebounds and 8.8 assists to go along with five double-doubles. He became the first player since Magic Johnson in 1991 to finish a series with averages of 25 points, 10 rebounds and eight assists. (Elias)

- 38-12-6-3-3 & ZERO TURNOVERS: In Game 5 of the Semifinals against Chicago, James registered 38 points, 12 rebounds, six assists, three steals, three blocks and zero turnovers in 41 minutes. James became just the third player in NBA postseason history to record at least 35 points, 10 boards, five assists, three steals and three blocks in a playoff game, joining Dwayne Wade (at Dallas 6/20/2006) and Elvin Hayes (vs. Buffalo 4/20/1975). Since the league began recording turnovers in 1977-78, James is the only NBA player in playoff history to record that stat line while also having zero turnovers. It was the 3rd time that James scored at least 35 points and did not commit a turnover in a playoff game (38 pts against Pistons in 2009 and 35 pts vs. Celtics in 2011). No other active NBA player has more than one such game in the playoffs.

- JAMES' BUZZER-BEATER: In Game 4 of the 2015 Eastern Conference Semifinals at Chicago on May 10, 2015, LeBron James drained a 21-foot baseline jumper as time expired to give the Cavs an 86-84 victory. It was James' third career playoff buzzer-beater, the most by any player in the past 15 years. He also has the same number of game-winning buzzer-beaters in the playoffs as Michael Jordan had in his career. Overall, James has four career game-winning buzzer-beaters (1/23/09 at GSW).

- POINTS IN BUNCHES OVER BOSTON: In the First Round series against Boston, James averaged 27.0 points, 9.0 rebounds, 6.5 assists, 2.3 steals and 1.5 blocks in 43.0 minutes per game. With 108 total points in the series, James has scored 831 career postseason points against the Celtics. The only other players to score at least 800 playoff points against Boston are Wilt Chamberlain (1,260), Jerry West (1,254) and Elgin Baylor (1,036).

Media Relations

MEDIA INFORMATION

The Cleveland Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team welcomes you to the 2016 NBA Playoffs. It is our goal to provide a professional and productive working environment. To assist in your coverage of the Cavaliers, please note the following:

CREDENTIALS: You must have a Cavaliers credential (season or single-game) to be admitted to Quicken Loans Arena, and your credential must be visibly worn at all times. Credentials should be requested through the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team.

If you have already received a season credential from us, it will be honored for the first three rounds of the 2016 NBA Playoffs. Please remember that your credential must be clearly displayed at all times upon entry of Quicken Loans Arena.

Single-game credentials must be requested to Cherome Owens via e-mail at cowens@cavs.com for each game NO LATER later than 5:00 p.m. the day before a game (5:00 p.m. on Friday for weekend and Monday games). Due to the volume of requests, this policy will be more strictly enforced than during the regular season.

Your credential does not guarantee a seat. Season and single-game credentials are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from Quicken Loans Arena and the forfeiture of the credential. No autographs are allowed during media access periods.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: All members of the media must enter Quicken Loans Arena through the media entrance, which is located on the east side of the arena (across from Gateway East Garage) and opens three hours prior to game time. A photo ID is required to obtain your single-game credential.

If you are coming out of the Gateway East parking garage, crossing East 6th Street, you will see the Cavaliers Team Shop and main box office entrance. The media gate is located just to the left (south) of the Team Shop. Several available options for parking are in close proximity to The Q.

MEDIA WORKROOMS: During the playoffs, there will be two separate media workrooms in addition to a work area for photographers. All print media members who regularly cover the team should use their existing workspace located on the event level. The media workroom for additional media members is located in the press conference area on event level. The photography work room is also positioned on the event level near the press conference area.

Media workspace will open three hours before game time and remain open until the last member of the media is finished working. In order to provide the proper working environment, friends, relatives or guests of the media will not be permitted access to the media workrooms.

TELEPHONES: A limited number of telephones are provided for general use in both media workrooms. Individuals using those phones should make all calls on a collect, third-person or credit card basis. If you would like to order your own phone line, please contact the Basketball Communications Team.

SERVICES: A pregame meal will be available to working media at the cost of $10.00. Meals will be available starting two and a half hours prior to tipoff.

SEATING: Working media seats are located in Section C126, the Section 128 platform, Section 130 and Section 133 (additional locations may be added for later rounds). All locations are equipped with electrical power. These seats are assigned and members of the media should sit in their respective assigned seats for the game. While our team attempts to provide seating for members of the media generally in the same area for each game, seats may be moved for a specific game based on availability and other factors.

All full season and single-game credentialed media members must e-mail Cherome Owens at cowens@cavs.com for each game NO LATER than 5:00 p.m. the day before a game (5:00 p.m. on Friday for weekend and Monday games) to request a seat in the media seating areas. All seats will be on a reserved basis.

Media members who are not granted a seat will be able to watch the game on the TVs in the media room locations on Level 1.

TV AND RADIO: Visiting television broadcast positions will be courtside, adjacent to the visitors' bench. Radio broadcast positions will be in the "Joe Tait Perch" (radio booth) in Section C126. If statisticians are desired, please make arrangements with the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team at least 24 hours before game time. All requests for pregame or postgame interviews should be directed to the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: For media utilizing photography, if you are granted a photo lane for a playoff game, you are required to wear one of the photo arm bands provided by the Cavaliers Basketball communications team.

Per NBA league-wide regulations, very limited space is available at each end of the court for photographers and will be specifically assigned by the NBA and the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team. In some instances, outlets that had a floor spot during the regular season will either be moved to the concourse level or need to share a spot with other outlets. Photographers are asked to keep off of the side courts and to be considerate of the ticket holders seated directly behind them.

Also, photographers are asked to wear rubber-soled shoes to protect the basketball floor and must have rubber lens shades for their cameras.

Additional photographer spots will be assigned in designated areas of Sections 128 and 106.

PLAYER/COACH AVAILABILITY: Practices/Shootarounds: In general, the final 30 minutes of practice are open to the media with interviews afterward. To confirm practice/shootaround times, please contact the Basketball Communications Team at (216) 420-2350 or cmr@cavs.com. Typically, shootarounds will be held at Cleveland Clinic Courts for the Cavaliers and Quicken Loans Arena for visiting teams.

Pregame: In accordance with NBA policy, the Cavaliers' and visitors' locker rooms will be open to members of the media 75 minutes before each game for a 30-minute period. The Cavaliers' locker room is located at the northeast corner of Quicken Loans Arena, while the visitors' locker room is located on the east side of Quicken Loans Arena.

Postgame: Locker rooms will be open approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of each game. Cavaliers Head Coach Tyronn Lue will do his postgame interviews in the press conference area. In addition, at least one player from each team will be available in the press conference area.

CELL PHONE USE IN LOCKER ROOMS: Per NBA policy, media members are not permitted to place cell phone calls in the locker room.

PARKING: Complimentary media parking is very limited and round-by-round parking passes will be assigned. For those media members who receive parking privileges for any round, the media parking area will be located in the Gateway East garage. Due to space limitation, if you had complimentary media parking during the 2015-16 regular season, it does not guarantee parking in the postseason.

 Attention television stations: If you park on the Gateway Plaza between The Q and Progressive Field without the proper parking permit, your vehicle could be towed. **

TRANSPORTATION: There is public transportation via Rapid Transit Authority (RTA) to Quicken Loans Arena, with bus service to the arena, as well as RTA service (from Cleveland Hopkins Airport) to Tower City. There is a covered, underground walkway from Tower City to Quicken Loans Arena.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team at (216) 420-2350 (The Q) or (216) 420-2464 (Cleveland Clinic Courts).

2016 PLAYOFFS SEATING LOCATIONS

To find your seating location for the game, please see any one of the seating charts located throughout The Q. Seating charts are available outside the media workroom on Level 1, outside the media workroom in the 'high-bay' area located near the media dining area (northwest corner of the arena on Level 2), in each media seating section or from anyone on the Cavaliers Basketball Communications Team.

To Section C126: Access to this section is off the fourth floor of the arena. Head down the stairs in the vomitory marked C125/C126 and the seating area is in the first three rows of the section on the right.

To Section 128: Access to this section is off the third floor of the arena by entering the section 128/130 vomitory. The media section will be on your left. It is also accessible by taking the stairs up section 128 (off the floor) and then entering the section 128/130 vomitory on the third floor.

To Section 130: Access to this section is off the third floor of the arena by entering the section 128/130 vomitory. The media section will be in the top half of the section on the right. It is also accessible by taking the stairs up section 128 (off the event floor) and then entering the section 128/130 vomitory on the third floor.

To Section 133: Access to this section is off the third floor of the arena by entering the section 131/133 vomitory. The media section will be in the top half of the section on your right. It is also accessible by cutting through the court boxes off of the event level and taking the stairs up section 100 and 133. The media section will be on your right.

One of the three elevators located on the third and fourth floors on the east side of The Q will be reserved for media.
