IN REMEMBRANCE

1930-1987

Thomas Stephen Morgan, one of the original Los Angeles Angels, died this past January following complications from a stroke.

Morgan, 56, performed for the New York Yankees, Kansas City Athletics, Detroit Tigers, Washington Senators and Angels during his 12-year career. Nicknamed the "Plowboy" during his playing career, Morgan compiled a 67-47 lifetime mark with a 3.61 ERA. He participated in three World Series with the Yankees (1951-55-56).

In three seasons with the Angels, he was 13-4 with 20 saves, including an 8-2 mark and 2.36 ERA in 1961. Morgan also served as pitching coach for California from 1972-74 and again from 1981-83.

Most recently a minor league pitching coach in the Atlanta Braves' organization, Morgan had previously served as pitching coach with San Diego. He was frequently credited by Nolan Ryan and Randy Jones as significantly contributing to their success.

Morgan is survived by his wife Wanda, two children, Holly and Tom, two grandchildren, a sister and two brothers.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

He grew up in Oklahoma with the legendary Dizzy Dean . . . As a 19-year-old shortstop, he received a tryout with the St. Louis Cardinals' Tulsa farm club. However, he declined the opportunity to play professional ball because his job as a radio telegrapher paid more . . . Indeed, Gene Autry's obsession with baseball began long before his unexpected purchase of an American League franchise in the winter of 1960 . . . Following his acquisition, it took Autry 19 years to enjoy his first championship campaign. In all, he has experienced three Western Division titles in the last eight years; his only void being a California Angels appearance in a World Series . . . "I wouldn't say it has been an obsession with me but, yes, I want to win," says California's Chairman of the Board in regard to an A.L. pennant. "If you don't go in there with the idea of winning, you'd better get out of the game and let somebody else get in it that does want to win. There are 26 owners in major league baseball, and if you ask any of them if they would like to win a World Series . . . everyone will say that's what it's all about" . . . During a career which has spanned more than five decades in the entertainment industry, Autry has been the recipient of numerous awards ranging from an "Honorary Brigadier General" in the California Air National Guard's 146th Tactical Airlift Wing to an "Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree" from Pepperdine University . . . In January of 1986, he was also honored by the noted Touchdown Club in Washington D.C. with the "Hubert T. Humphrey Award," the organization's highest achievement . . . However, Autry's proudest distinction probably occurred on Oct. 3, 1982 when the Angels players retired uniform No. 26 in his honor, the gesture being symbolic of Autry's participation as the club's 26th player . . . Autry's career has encompassed all facets of the business — from radio and recording artist to motion picture star, television personality, broadcast executive and major league baseball owner . . . Among his career achievements are: 95 films, 2,000 recordings (200 of which he wrote himself) and more than 40 million records sold . . . He received the first gold record ever awarded (Autry totaled nine gold records overall) . . . He was also presented the first platinum record and became the first star to endorse a product — a mail-order guitar . . . His current holdings include ownership of four radio stations — KMPC and KUTE, Los Angeles; KVI and KPLZ, Seattle — plus the Angels . . . Autry also owns a music publishing company, a ranch in California and the Gene Autry Hotel in Palm Springs . . . He was elected to the Country Music Hall of Fame in Nashville in 1969 and has served on its board of directors for many years . . . In 1970, Autry was elected to the Nashville Songwriters Hall of Fame . . . Orvon Gene Autry was born on Sept. 29, 1907 on a small grain farm in Tioga, Texas . . . As a teenager, Autry became a telegrapher and a chance meeting with Will Rogers led him to pursue a radio career which eventually led to Hollywood in 1934 . . . He was voted top box office western star for eight consecutive years and three times was among the Top 10 in all categories, placing fourth in popularity behind Mickey Rooney, Spencer Tracy and Clark Gable . . . His radio show "Melody Ranch," was a weekend listening tradition for more than 16 years on CBS . . . As television became more prominent, Autry was quick to enter the medium . . . He became the first major motion picture star to make the transition and to produce and star in a series made exclusively for television — "The Gene Autry Show" . . . His initial intent during those St. Louis winter meetings of 1960 was to find a team to broadcast . . . He not only wound up with a club to broadcast on KMPC, but also found himself the baseball owner of the expansion Los Angeles Angels.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

On September 1, 1984, California Angels owner Gene Autry named Mike Port to succeed E.J. (Buzzie) Bavasi as general manager of the Angels . . . The promotion was a fitting end to an unusual ascension through the baseball ranks . . . A Class-A second baseman for the San Diego Padres' Key West club in 1969, Port was given his walking papers as a player and promoted to the position of general manager by then San Diego minor league director Peter Bavasi, one of Buzzie's four sons . . . Recalls Port: "When I went into Peter's office and he told me the news of my release, I said, 'How can you release me? I just went six for seven.' Peter said, 'Very easily. Just like this.' He ripped a piece of paper off his pad, wrote my release on it and handed it to me." A day later, Peter offered Port the GM position . . . Needless-to-say, Port has made the most of the opportunity . . . From his position at Key West, Port served a similar post at Lodi (California League) in 1970-71 before joining the Padres' front office as Promotions Director in 1972 . . . Entered area of player contracts as Minor League Director the following year . . . Remained in that post until joining Angels as Director of Player Personnel in November of 1977. At that time, Port's responsibilities included organization of the Angels' five-club minor league system, overseeing the scouting department and negotiating player contracts on both major and minor league levels . . . Was named Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer, January 19, 1980 . . . In his two years in the capacity of Senior Vice President and General Manager, Port has been instrumental in helping to guide the Angels to a second-place finish (one game behind Kansas City) in the A.L. West in '85 and a Western Division title in '86, the organization's third crown in the past eight years . . . Says Port of his contributions: "The only objective we failed to realize in 1986 was a World Series appearance. In that regard, everyone in the organization is aware we left a job undone. However, we would be remiss if we were to overlook the strides and accomplishments we made in 1986. Transition, in any capacity, is a difficult process. On a baseball level, where success is measured strictly in terms of wins and losses, transition usually results in inefficacy. To the credit of Owner Gene Autry, Manager Gene Mauch, his coaching staff, our players and our fans, we were able to overcome our transitional obstacle. And because of that, hopefully 1987 will translate into a brighter season for the California Angels." . . . Port was born July 24, 1945 in Los Angeles . . . Attended Fallbrook High (north of Escondido, CA), and Santa Clara and California Western University (now called United States International University) . . . Majored in Business Administration.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION

JIM WILSON, 37, begins his fourth year as the Angels' Senior Vice President of Finance & Administration . . . Was originally appointed post in April of 1984 . . . Graduate of DePaul University . . . Became a Certified Public Accountant in 1973 . . . Served as audit manager for Arthur Young & Company and for Mattel Electronics, Inc. . . . Was named Director of Accounting & Finance and later vice president and controller for Mattel Electronics prior to earning title of Vice President/ Finance with Angels . . . Native of Chicago . . . Resides in Fullerton with wife Elinor and children Jeff, Todd and Jill.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT MARKETING

JOHN W. HAYS is in his fourth season as Senior Vice President of Marketing . . . Responsible for all marketing functions, including Season and Group ticket sales, advertising, promotions, public/community relations, special events and broadcasting commitments . . . Spent 20 years in advertising agency business in New York and San Francisco, with BBDO, KM&G, and Lynch & Rockey . . . Was president of his own outdoor vacation travel firm . . . University of Washington graduate . . . Holds B.A. degree in Communications . . . Former Seattle disc jockey and San Francisco newspaper columnist . . . He and wife Nancy reside in Yorba Linda.

VICE PRESIDENT PUBLIC RELATIONS

TOM SEEBERG embarks on his second season in the capacity of Vice President, Public Relations . . . Association with the game of baseball spans four decades . . . Began career as a statistician for the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League in 1957 . . . Has been affiliated with five pennant winners — Los Angeles of 1959, '63, '65 and '66; Cincinnati of 1970 . . . And three division titles — the Angels of 1979, '82 and '86 . . . Begining his 16th year with California . . . Originally hired in November of 1971 as the club's Community Coordinator . . . Promoted to Director of Publicity in 1975, serving in that capacity until 1985 . . . Resides in Anaheim Hills with wife Marilyn.

ANGELS ORIGINAL PLAYER DRAFT

The Angels drafted a total of 28 players from the existing American League clubs on December 14, 1960. Owners of the new Los Angeles and Washington clubs as well as their recently appointed front office and field bosses—General Manager Fred Haney and Manager Bill Rigney of the Angels and General Manager Ed Doherty and Manager Mickey Vernon of the Senators—attended the session held in the league offices.

A price of $75,000 was set on the players to be picked and both of the new clubs were required to select 28. The players were picked by categories, starting with pitchers, then catchers, infielders and outfielders. A toss of the coin determined which club had first choice in each group, and then they alternated. Haney won the toss for three positions—all but for outfielders.

Besides the 28 regular selections by both clubs, Los Angeles bought two players from the special minor league pool at $25,000 apiece and Washington grabbed three. Thus, the Angels paid $2,150,000 for their 30 players and the Senators shelled out $2,175,000 for their 31 in the unprecedented distribution.

Following is the order in which the Angels players were selected:

1. Eli Grba, p, NY

ANAHEIM STADIUM

DESIGN — Three-level structure SEATING CAPACITY — 64,573 PARKING FACILITIES — Approximately 15,000 automobiles STADIUM AREA — 140 acres FOUL LINES — 333 feet BULLPENS — 362 feet LEFT AND RIGHT FIELDS — 370 feet CENTER FIELD — 404 feet OUTFIELD FENCE HEIGHT — 8 feet

Anaheim Stadium was built with "Convenience, Comfort and Courtesy," in mind. Narrow foul territory areas and quickly rising decks keep spectators on top of the action. Gradually inclined ramps and escalators, wide aisles and seats and helpful ushers make entrance and egress as uncomplicated as possible.

Three surrounding freeways, 26 entrance lanes from three streets and 28 exit lanes with wide adjacent surface streets make Anaheim stadium one of the most accessible in baseball. Completion of the Orange "57" Freeway has made a significant improvement as did the Santa Ana Freeway overpass on State College Boulevard, which was completed in 1977.

Major stadium tenants include the Angels and the Rams. Both the Angels and Rams have signed 35-year contracts through 2001 and 2015, respectively.

Anaheim Stadium was completed in 1966 by the Del E. Webb Company after an August 31, 1964 groundbreaking at a cost of $24 million, including the giant A-frame scoreboard which rises 230 feet. The board was the source of the stadium's nickname — "The Big-A."

The Big-A underwent construction in 1979 for additional seating to accommodate the Rams. The facility, now completely enclosed, seats 65,158 for baseball and more than 70,000 for football. The seating capacity prior to construction was 43,250.

A video scoreboard, built by Stewart-Warner (who created the Big-A board), was installed in 1980 on the facade of the left-center field roof. The Big-A board has been preserved and moved to the edge of the parking lot adjacent to the Orange Freeway behind the right field area.

A total of 106 executive style boxes, ranging in price from $16,000 to $50,000, were added to surround the rear of the Club Level. In addition to the Stadium Club, there are several private dining areas designed for groups — the new Locker Room, the Grand Slam Room, the Terrace Pavilion and the Football Press Box.

The Football Press Box is located on the View Level while the Baseball Press Box is on the Club Level.

Additionally, a new sound system and metal halide lamps were installed.

1986 NOTES

JOHN McNAMARA

California captured the season series for the second consecutive season, 7-5 . . . It marked the first time in the history of the club the Angels had accomplished the feat in successive campaigns . . . California outscored the Red Sox 57-41 and outhit them 107-96 . . . Three of California's losses were to ROGER CLEMENS who limited the Angels to eight runs in 26 innings while compiling a 2.42 ERA in his three starts . . . The Angels recorded just 13 hits in that span while striking out 24 times against the league's Cy Young and MVP winner . . . Taking away those numbers, the remainder of the Sox staff posted a 5.11 ERA (81 IP-46 ER) . . . The two clubs played just one extra-inning contest and it was perhaps the most exciting game of the series . . . With two outs in top of 12th of a 4-4 tie in Fenway July 10, Angels rallied for three runs and a 7-4 lead . . . The Red Sox battled back as well, scoring four runs for the win . . . WALLY JOYNER led the offensive attack for California in '86 with three home runs and 12 RBI . . . Six of his 14 hits were for extra-bases . . . BRIAN DOWNING (.375) and BOBBY GRICH (.357) sported the highest averages . . . The offense was supported by solid pitching throughout the series as the staff compiled a 2.98 ERA (108 IP-36 ER) . . . DON SUTTON paved the way with two wins in as many starts and a 0.69 ERA . . . He surrendered just one walk in his 13 innings of work . . . Despite limiting Boston to a .226 average (19/84), MIKE WITT was 1-2 in three starts with a 2.66 ERA.

JIM FREGOSI

The Angels captured their third consecutive season-series from the White Sox and their fourth in the last five years . . . GARY PETTIS paced California with a .326 (14/43) average and six stolen bases . . . BRIAN DOWNING led the squad with eight RBI, while RUPPERT JONES and DOUG DeCINCES belted a pair of home runs each . . . The Angels hit only .228 (99/435) as a team vs. Chicago, their lowest figure against A.L. opposition in 1986 . . . Besides PETTIS, the only players to boast better than .300 averages vs. Chicago were DARRELL MILLER (.400, 2/5) and JACK HOWELL (.300, 3/10) in limited action . . . In the pitching department, no one totaled more than one win, while TERRY FORSTER and DONNIE MOORE notched two saves apiece . . . The club's two most effective starters were JOHN CANDELARIA (1-0 in one appearance), who held the White Sox to one hit in 21 at bats (.048 average), and DON SUTTON (1-0 in two appearances with an 0.60 ERA), who limited Chicago to a .132 (7/53) team batting average . . . Chicago was paced by the hitting of RON HASSEY, who batted at a .458 (11/24) clip . . . JOE COWLEY (2-0, 1.00 ERA) was Chicago's top hurler, including a 3-1 no-hit performance, Sept. 14.

SPARKY ANDERSON

California captured the season series from Detroit (7-5) for the second consecutive season, the first time in club annals it has accomplished that . . . The Angels captured four-of-six at home and split six games in Tiger Stadium . . . The two teams combined for 30 home runs, California hitting 14 of those . . . While the Angels finished with a sluggish .246 overall average, they were led by vastly improved DICK SCHOFIELD's .324 average (12/37), three home runs and 13 RBI, all club-leading figures . . . The highlight of the series occurred Aug. 29 at Anaheim Stadium . . . Trailing 12-5 in ninth, Angels rallied to 12-9 with two outs and bases loaded. . . . Behind on the count to WILLIE HERNANDEZ, 0-2, SCHOFIELD slugged his third career grand slam for dramatic win . . . MIKE WITT was the lone pitcher to record two wins vs. Tigers, finishing 2-0 with a 0.53 ERA (17 IP-1ER) . . . Each of California's three come-from-behind wins came on successive days, Aug. 28-30 at home, two of those ending with ninth-inning home runs . . . DARRELL EVANS (4 HR), ALAN TRAMMELL (3) and LOU WHITAKER (3) provided much of Detroit's offense . . . WHITAKER led the Tigers with 14 RBI . . . Detroit finished with a 4.63 team ERA . . . Of the 12 pitchers California faced, eight had an ERA of 4.50-or-higher.

1986 NOTES

LOU PINELLA

One of GENE MAUCH's goals in 1986 was to match up better vs. New York after a 3-9 finish in 1985 . . . The Angels did just that, finishing with a 7-5 record (4-2 at home & 3-3 on road) . . . It marked the fourth time in the past five seasons California has won four-of-six in Anaheim . . . The improvement was drastic . . . In 1986 the .251 average and 63 runs scored far exceeded the '85 totals of .197 and 37 . . . The Angels also reduced their errors by 10 (17-7) and grounded into just four double plays . . . Six Angels compiled six-or-more RBI while DOUG DeCINCES and GEORGE HENDRICK led the club with three home runs apiece . . . HENDRICK, who hit .343, also led the team in runs scored with 11 . . . Pitching was not a factor for either side in the series, California finishing at 5.03 and New York at 4.40 . . . The two combined for 129 runs or 10.8 per contest . . . Home runs proved a big element in the series with the Yankees slugging 16 to California's 13 . . . MIKE WITT was the mainstay for California with a 3-0 record, two complete games, one shutout and a 3.08 ERA . . . He fanned 21 in 26.1 innings . . . The Yankees hit just .226 (21/93) against him . . . CHUCK FINLEY gained his first major league win June 2 at home . . . New York was paced by the .439 average, three home runs and 11 RBI of MIKE EASLER along with 10 RBI each from DON MATTINGLY (.327) and MIKE PAGLIARULO . . . The latter connected for five home runs vs. California . . . Second baseman WILLIE RANDOLPH hit .405 (17/42) with six RBI and a club-leading nine runs . . . Yankees recorded team average of .280 . . . Starters JOE NIEKRO and DENNIS RASMUSSEN were tagged for a combined 31 hits and 25 runs in 34 combined innings in addition to seven home runs . . . The Yankees were guilty of committing 21 errors.

1986 NOTES

JIMY WILLIAMS

For only second time in the 10-year history of the series the two teams completed season deadlocked at six games apiece . . . Toronto won four-of-six in Anaheim with the Angels winning a similar total at Exhibition Stadium . . . Four of California's wins were come-from-behind efforts, the same figure recorded in 1985 . . . Rookie WALLY JOYNER hit Toronto pitching for a .370 average (17/46) with two home runs and 14 RBI . . . He connected for his first career grand slam May 8 vs. JIM ACKER at the Big A . . . RICK BURLESON was equally as effective with a .457 average (16/35) . . . ROB WILFONG enjoyed his finest offensive production against Toronto with 10 RBI . . . WILFONG finished with two doubles, two triples and a home run against the Blue Jays . . . RUPPERT JONES led the club with three home runs . . . California's all-time stolen base leader GARY PETTIS swiped five bases in as many attempts. . . . Three California pitchers registered double figures in strikeouts — MIKE WITT (15), KIRK McCASKILL (14) and DON SUTTON (12) . . . Despite impressive ERAs from the starting staff — CANDELARIA (3.38), SUTTON (3.32), McCASKILL (2.70) and WITT (2.93), the Angels were hampered by an ineffective bullpen resulting in an overall 4.21 team ERA . . . 14 different Angels recorded at least one RBI . . . Toronto's pitching overall fared no better than California's, totaling a 4.63 overall ERA . . . The staff was led by JIM CLANCY (2-1 & 1.66 ERA), MARK EICHHORN (1-1 with one save and a 2.08 ERA) and JOE JOHNSON (0-0 & 0.00 ERA in 6.1 innings) . . . DAVE STIEB was tagged for 18 hits and 13 runs in 13.2 innings and DENNIS LAMP 18 hits and eight runs in 10.1 innings . . . The Blue Jays allowed 4.1 walks per nine innings in the series . . . GEORGE BELL (.319, 4 HRs & 10 RBI) was the prime catalyst for Toronto with JESSE BARFIELD (.359) and WILLIE UPSHAW (.409) providing further damage.

GENE AUTRY WESTERN HERITAGE MUSEUM BREAKS GROUND

On Nov. 12, 1986, the first shovel of dirt was turned toward the construction of the $25 million Gene Autry Western Heritage Museum to be located in the Pine Meadows section of Griffith Park in Los Angeles.

Scheduled for completion in June of 1988, the museum will be one of the most comprehensive in regard to Western American history. Some of the museum artifacts to be displayed will include: a saddle from Buffalo Bill Cody, a Teddy Roosevelt ranch rifle, a Wyatt Earp revolver, a Frederick Remington bronze, "The Bronco Buster," and a selection of historical spurs and cowboy equipment.

The museum is a California non-profit public benefit organization established by the Autry Foundation.

ATTENDANCE

For the seventh time in the last eight years, Angels' fans topped the two million mark in home attendance when a total of 2,655,892 enthusiasts entered the Anaheim Stadium turnstiles. Only during the strike-abbreviated season of 1981 did the Angels fail to hit the coveted two-million figure.

California has attracted an average home attendance of 2,406,392 during the eight-year stretch — tops in the American League.

In 1982 the Angels set an all-time A.L. record attendance of 2,807,360 and established a club mark of 1,897,660 for attendance away from home.

California enjoyed its best single game home attendance figure when 64,406 witnessed the first A.L.C.S. game at Anaheim Stadium on October 5, 1982 (vs. Milwaukee).

During the ensuing 1983 campaign, the top two regular season crowds in club history were set when 63,132 watched the Angels host Kansas City, July 4, and 63,073 viewed the April 23 game against Baltimore.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the line-up cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role.

The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEWS: No inning of an American league night game can start after 1:00 a.m., local time. Any inning started prior to 1:00 a.m. can be completed. Curfews shall be waived for the final game of the season between two teams in each of the cities.

DEFINITION OF NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 6:00 p.m. (i.e. 6:01 p.m., or later), will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:00 p.m., and is delayed by rain or for any other reason, it will be considered a day game.

However, both games of a twi-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same date and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day and one night game, and will not be included in doubleheader statistics.

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: A batting champion must have 502 or more actual plate appearances. (The equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.) If, however, there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at bats, then the player shall be awarded the batting championship.

EARNED-RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the earned-run championship a pitcher must pitch 162 or more innings and have the lowest earned-run average.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: A fielding champion must appear in 108 games at his position, except a catcher, who must appear in 81 games.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction.)

DETERMINING ON BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

"SAVE" RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
  (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
  (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
  (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

EARNED-RUNS RULE: The determination of earned-run is as follows:

'An earned-run is a run for which the pitcher is held accountable. In determining earned-runs, the inning should be reconstructed without the errors and passed balls; and the benefit of the doubt should always be given to the pitcher in determining which bases would have been reached with errorless play.'

Until 1969, the reliever could not be charged with an earned-run if he entered the game after the side could have been retired but for an error, no matter how many runs he subsequentlay gave up in that inning. Now, runs scored by batters who reach base off the reliever are charged as earned on that pitcher's record. They are not, however, charged as earned against the team as a whole. Therefore, a discrepancy may occur between the total earned-runs charged against a team and the sum total of the earned-runs charged against the individual pitchers of that team.

DETERMINING A "MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR": 172 days constitute a full year in the major leagues.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATION: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-man limit (excluding time in military service).

DISABLED LISTS: REGULAR DISABLED LIST: Maximum number of players on list at any one time — three (3). Minimum period of activity — twenty-one (21) days. Players may not be placed on the Regular Disabled List earlier than fifteen (15) days prior to the start of the Championship Season. SUPPLEMENTAL DISABLED LIST: Maximum number of players on list at one time — two (2) of which no more than one (1) may be a pitcher. Minimum period of inactivity fifteen (15) days. SPECIAL DISABLED LIST: Maximum number of players on list at any one time — one (1). Minimum period of inactivity — thirty (30) calendar days. Placements on this list are limited to Clubs who have two (2) players on the Supplemental Disabled List, and three (3) players on the Regular Disabled List, and subsequently incur an injury or ailment to a player whose estimated disability will exceed twenty-one (21) days, yet be less than sixty (60) days. EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST: Maximum number of players on list at one time — no limit. Minimum period of inactivity — sixty (60) calendar days. Players placed on this list after Aug. 1st shall remain there for the balance of the season.

1987 REGULATIONS

The "trading deadline" is July 31. Waivers are required for any inter- or intra-Major League assignment during the period beginning Aug. 1 and ending at 5 p.m. EST the day after the end of the season. During other 10 months of year no waivers are needed. Outright assignments to the National Association are from the 31st day of each season until Aug. 31; during this period, ordinary waivers are required. However, from Sept. 1 until the 30th day of the following season, special waivers are required.

The club must tender a special waiver request specifying that waivers are requested for the purpose of outright assignment to the National Association. The claiming period, as with other waivers, is three business days, and an assignment pursuant to special waivers must be completed by 2 p.m. EST the seventh day after the waivers were secured.

New waiver periods are from Nov. 11 through the 30th day of season; the 31st day of season through July 31 and Aug. 1 through Nov. 10. The waiver request deadline is now 2:00 p.m. Eastern Time. "Special waivers" and waivers for the purpose of unconditional release may both be requested during the closed period, Oct. 10-Nov. 10.

SPRING TRAINING

Gene Autry Park was officially dedicated March 1, 1984. The three-diamond complex in Mesa, Ariz. serves as the spring home of the California Angels and later, for the club's minor league affiliates. In addition, the Angels' Arizona Instructional League entry plays its home games at Gene Autry Park.

California is the only major league team to have two spring training sites. The Angels remain headquartered in the Mesa area through the early portion of Cactus League play (California has 14 games scheduled in Arizona) before switching sites to Palm Springs, Calif. and the start of a 13-game schedule at Angels Stadium.

The Angels' varsity is scheduled to open camp when pitchers and catchers report February 20. The team remains in Arizona through March 19.

Since the inception of the organization in 1961, California has played at Angels Stadium. The facility was formerly called the Polo Grounds until switching to the current name in 1964.

On December 19, 1965, the Angels signed an agreement to hold spring training in Holtville, Calif., located approximately 10 miles east of El Centro. The club spent from 10 days to two weeks at the newly built four-diamond grounds from 1966 through 1979 before returning on a full-time basis to Palm Springs in 1980.

In 1982 and 1983 California divided spring headquarters between Casa Grande, Ariz. and Palm Springs.

The Angels defeated the Chicago Cubs, 8-3, in the club's first exhibition game on March 11, 1961 at the Polo Grounds.
