BUSINESS OPERATIONS

CATIE GRIGGS

PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Catie Griggs was named the President of Business Operations for the Baltimore Orioles in July 2024. The first female President of Business Operations in team history, she oversees all aspects of the business operations for both the Orioles and the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network (MASN).

Prior to joining the Orioles, Griggs spent three years with the Seattle Mariners as their President of Business Operations, managing all aspects of the Mariners business operations including investments to improve technology, operations, and fan experience at T-Mobile Park. In addition, she led the charge as T-Mobile Park became the first venue to host both MLB All-Star Week (2023) and the NHL Winter Classic (2024) within a calendar year. Combined, the two events generated over $80+ million in revenue for the city of Seattle and directly engaged more than 300,000 fans.

Before joining the Mariners, Griggs spent the previous four years (2017-2021) helping build Atlanta United into one of the premier Major League Soccer franchises. She was Chief Business Officer, overseeing all aspects of the Atlanta United front office. Prior to Atlanta United, she was with Futures Sport & Entertainment, as well as Turner Broadcasting. During her career, Griggs has been honored by the Sports Business Journal both as a Game Changer (2017), an annual award that honors female leaders, and 40 Under 40 (2022), an annual award recognizing the best young talent in sports business.

A North Carolina native, Griggs received her BA from Dartmouth College (NH) and her MBA from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth. Griggs lives in Baltimore with her husband, Justin, and two children.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

KERRY R. WATSON — EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Kerry R. Watson, Jr. was named the club's Executive Vice President, Public Affairs in September 2023. In his role, Watson oversees the club's government affairs and community development, including the Orioles Charitable Foundation. Prior to this year, he also oversaw communications and creative content for the team.

Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent nearly seven years in executive positions at MGM Resorts International, including the last three years as MGM's Regional Vice President of Government Affairs. At MGM, Watson significantly grew the company's positive impact on local communities where MGM has a footprint, with specific attention to supplier diversity and job creation. Additionally, Watson led or supported efforts to pass sports betting legislation in Maryland, North Carolina, Virginia, and Massachusetts. Raised in Maryland, Watson previously served as a Governmental Relations Consultant for Alexander & Cleaver, an Annapolis-based lobbying and law firm, and prior to that, as a Senior Advisor to Prince George's County Executive Rushern Baker.

Before embarking on his career in government affairs, Watson had a 20-year career with the Prince George's County Police Department.

MARK FINE — CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER

Mark Fine joined the Orioles as Chief Marketing Officer in February 2025. In this role, he leads the marketing, communications, and creative content departments for the club.

Fine previously served as the Chief Marketing Officer for Professional Bull Riders (PBR), the largest bull riding organization in the world, from August 2023 to January 2025. There he oversaw all aspects of marketing including live events, content, and digital, and he was a contributor to parent company Endeavor's broader network of sports and entertainment properties, working out of UFC's corporate headquarters in Las Vegas.

During his tenure, PBR saw a supercharged fan base grow to its largest number ever of nearly 80 million people across the United States. PBR finished the 2024 calendar year hosting 1.43 million fans, a record for the organization. Before coming to PBR, Fine was CEO of the expansion National Lacrosse League's Las Vegas Desert Dogs, co-owned by hockey legend Wayne Gretzky, and was named the 2022-23 National Lacrosse League Executive of the Year after completing the team's first season with industry-leading marketing, sales and community-oriented initiatives.

Prior to joining PBR, Fine spent two years with the NBA's Brooklyn Nets as Vice President, Team Marketing, leading the team to tremendous fan and social media growth. The Nets were recognized by Sports Business Journal in 2021 with a nomination as Best in Sports Social Media, and the team was named by GQ as the Most Stylish Team in Professional Sports. Fine spent six years with the New York Mets from 2013-2019 as Executive Director, Marketing, where he launched fan engagement campaigns to encourage children to attend their first baseball game by age eight and spearheaded a groundbreaking collaboration with Marvel Entertainment, recognized by MLB.com in 2017 as the Best Promotion in Major League Baseball. Fine also worked in live event marketing for the world famous Harlem Globetrotters for over four years, and at Comcast Spectacor with roles at the Frederick Keys Baseball Team (MD), Wells Fargo Center (PA), and Chartway Arena (VA).

Fine, a native of Baltimore and American University (D.C.) graduate, was a Baltimore Orioles public relations intern during the 1999 and 2000 seasons and was the Assistant to the Official Scorer at National Baseball Hall of Famer Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game in October 2001. Fine, his wife Kim, son Max (17), and daughter Mallory (15) are excited to return to their hometown of Baltimore.

KAMAAL JONES — CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER & GENERAL COUNSEL

Kamaal Jones was named Chief Legal Officer and General Counsel for the Orioles in January, a role in which he will lead all in-house legal and compliance operations for the club.

Jones is a seasoned attorney and trusted business partner with extensive experience supporting senior executives and owners on a variety of sophisticated legal and business matters, including commercial real estate, sales and partnerships, corporate governance, information security, and intellectual property.

Jones previously worked for Monumental Sports & Entertainment, the owner of the Washington Wizards, Capitals, and Mystics, and operator of Capital One Arena in Washington, D.C. As Senior Vice President and Associate General Counsel, Jones served as a thought leader, providing practical and actionable guidance to senior leaders across the organization's business and arena operations.

Prior to joining Monumental, Jones spent 10 years at Booz Allen Hamilton addressing complex business and legal issues. Jones also previously worked at Washington, D.C. law firms WilmerHale and Venable LLP, principally on commercial real estate transactions.

A native of Silver Spring, Md., Jones earned his BA from the University of Pittsburgh and JD from Harvard Law School (MA). In 2024, Jones received certification from McKinsey & Company's Black Executive Leadership Program. Jones currently lives in Chevy Chase, Md,. with his wife Erin and sons Cameron (17), and Christian (13).

DON ROVAK

CHIEF REVENUE OFFICER

Don Rovak joined the Orioles as the Chief Revenue Officer this January. In his role, he focuses on revenue generation and customer service for the ticketing and corporate sales teams in both Baltimore and Sarasota, Fla., creating local economic impact for the city, state, and surrounding area.

Rovak joined the Orioles after completing his 17th year with AMB Sports and Entertainment, a company comprised of the National Football League's Atlanta Falcons, Major League Soccer's Atlanta United FC, Mercedes-Benz Stadium, Atlanta Drive GC, and PGA TOUR Superstore. With AMB Sports and Entertainment, Rovak's responsibilities included Mercedes-Benz Stadium events, private events, and Falcons and Atlanta United ticket sales, service, and ticket operations departments.

Rovak led the team that brought in some of the country's top events to Mercedes-Benz Stadium. On the team side, they sold out Mercedes-Benz Stadium for all Falcons games and United matches since its opening in 2017. He revolutionized benefits for season ticket members, including offering free tickets for road games, best-in-class ticket flexibility seating programs, and member pre-parties, among other enhancements. Under his supervision, in all seasons for Atlanta United, the team finished first in season tickets, group sales, and overall attendance. Additionally, Atlanta United holds many of the top single-match attendance records in their short lifespan.

Originally from St. Louis, Mo., Rovak served as Vice President of Marketing & Ticketing for the Memphis Redbirds, Triple-A affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals. While there, the Redbirds opened AutoZone Park and annually ranked first or second in minor league baseball attendance. A graduate of Indiana University, he and his wife, Corrie, have two sons: Jared, a freshman at the University of Alabama, and Dustin, a junior in high school.

KATE SKIDMORE

CHIEF HUMAN RESOURCES OFFICER

Kate Skidmore joined the Orioles as Chief Human Resources Officer in February 2025, leading all human capital and talent strategies across the organization.

Skidmore joins the Orioles after serving as the Human Resources Business Partner, Vice President at Capital One since January 2019. In her role there, she led HR for US Card, Customer Services and Strategy for over 16,000 employees, overseeing and directing the prioritization and delivery of HR solutions to the business, including people strategy, culture and belonging, organizational efficiency, workforce planning, and succession management.

Prior to joining Capital One, she was the Vice President of Human Resources for the National Basketball Association, where she consulted with NBA, G League, and WNBA teams on best practices to create inclusive and diverse workplaces through recruiting, retaining, developing, and deploying talent. Skidmore also served as the Director of Human Resources for the National Football League Players Association from 2011-14, a role in which she was responsible for creating a high-performing HR operations function in the areas of employee relations, talent and performance development, talent acquisition, total rewards, and engagement for employees of the NFLPA, NFL Players, and The Trust.

A native of Woodsville, N.H., Skidmore received her bachelor's degree from Brown University (RI) and her Master of Professional Studies degree in Human Resources from Georgetown University (DC).

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

JENNIFER GRONDAHL SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

Jennifer Grondahl was named the club's Senior Vice President of Communications in October 2024 after previously serving as the Senior Vice President of Community Development & Communications since October 2019, a role in which she oversaw the organization's community and philanthropic initiatives, as well as the Orioles Charitable Foundation. In her current role, Grondahl focuses on building and maintaining relationships with partners, community leaders, civic organizations, fans, and the media to enhance the club's community outreach efforts. She also oversees the organization's player and family relations and alumni relations programs.

Grondahl joined the Orioles organization in February 2018 as the Director of Corporate & Community Partnerships for Sarasota Operations. Prior to joining the Orioles, she served as President of the YMCA Foundation of Sarasota, as Founder/President of Maestro Marketing & Events, where she provided strategic communication services for numerous corporations, nonprofits, and individuals, and as the Executive Director of the American Cancer Society.

Grondahl is a member of the Sarasota Chamber of Commerce Board of Trustees and serves as a mentor for college students pursuing careers in the communications field. She previously served on the Tourism, Entertainment, and Culture Committee of the Greater Baltimore Committee. She was a founding member of Sisterhood for Good, the largest women's giving circle of the Manatee Community Foundation. She has also acted in leadership capacities for many charitable organizations in the Sarasota region, including Junior League of Manatee County, Rotary Club of Lakewood Ranch, and PACE Center for Girls.

Grondahl graduated from Bethany College (WV) with a bachelor's degree in political science, and received her certificate in fundraising management from Indiana University's Lilly Family School of Philanthropy in 2016. She currently resides in Baltimore, Md., and Bradenton, Fla., with her husband, Paul.

TROY SCOTT SR. VICE PRESIDENT, OPERATIONS & GUEST EXPERIENCE

Troy Scott was named the club's Senior Vice President of Ballpark Operations and Fan Experience in March 2024. He joined the Orioles in June 2018 as the Vice President of Ballpark Operations. In his current role, Scott oversees all aspects of Oriole Park's operation, including the B&O Warehouse. He drives the strategic and operational initiatives of the ballpark, including security, events, and guest experience.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Scott served as the Vice President of Stadium Development and Operations for D.C. United Soccer for five years. During that time, he was responsible for all aspects of the nearly-completed D.C. United soccer stadium. Before that, he spent 16 years with Events D.C.

Scott is a member of the Stadium Manager's Association and the International Association of Venue Managers. He resides in the Baltimore area with his wife and their two children.

LISA TOLSON SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF PEOPLE OFFICER

Now in her 40th year with the club, Lisa Tolson was named to her current role of Senior Vice President and Chief People Officer in September 2023. She began her career with the organization in group sales before transitioning to finance and eventually finding a permanent home in human resources. She served as the Director of Human Resources for 18 years from 2000-18 and was promoted to Vice President in August 2018 before expanding to her current position.

In her role, Tolson oversees recruiting efforts and promoting the Orioles' culture and mission to deliver on key objectives, one of which includes fueling the local economy through employment opportunities, and gives her oversight of all aspects of the team's human resources functions.

Tolson received her Professional in Human Resources (PHR) certification through the Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM) in 2001 and her SHRM-CP in June 2015. She serves on the Board of Directors for the Brandon Tolson Foundation, which offers support to families after the sudden and tragic loss of a child.

Tolson resides in Phoenix, Md. with her husband, Patrick. They have two children, Paige and Chad, and two grandchildren.

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

MIKE ELIAS — EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Elias was named the Orioles' Executive Vice President and General Manager on November 16, 2018. He is entering his 19th season in Major League Baseball and seventh with the Orioles.

During his tenure, Elias has worked quickly to revamp the Orioles' player development system, revitalize the club's international scouting presence, and expand the team's analytics department. As a result of these dedicated efforts, the franchise is now flush with young talent and positioned for longstanding competitiveness in the American League East. Over the last three seasons, the Orioles (275-211) are tied for the second-best record in the AL and fourth best in MLB with the New York Yankees, behind only the Dodgers (309-177), Braves (294-192), and Astros (284-201). The Orioles' farm system retained the top spot in the 2024 midseason rankings by Baseball America and ESPN, marking the third straight year that they have been ranked as the best farm system in baseball by these two outlets.

Under Elias' leadership, the 2024 Orioles finished 91-71, the third-best record in the AL and seventh best in MLB, securing back-to-back playoff berths for the fourth time in team history, joining 1996-97, 1973-74, and 1969-71 (3). The 91 victories marked the first time the Orioles won 90 or more games in consecutive seasons since 1982 (94) and 1983 (98). The club also secured its third consecutive winning season for the first time since 2012-14.

Baltimore's 2024 roster included homegrown players drafted and developed during Elias' tenure, including All-Stars Gunnar Henderson, Adley Rutschman, and Jordan Westburg. Elias and his team acquired pitchers Kyle Bradish, Yennier Cano, Seranthony Domínguez, Zach Eflin, Cade Povich, and first baseman/outfielder Ryan O'Hearn via trades, and pitcher Albert Suárez via free agency. Elias-era selections Colton Cowser, Heston Kjerstad, Jackson Holliday, and Coby Mayo all opened the year ranked among MLB Pipeline's Top 100 prospects, joining Baltimore's roster and making positive contributions throughout the year.

Over the past three years under Elias, the Orioles have seen sustained success. The 2022 Orioles finished with an 83-79 record, a 31-win improvement from 2021, and made a Postseason push, becoming the last team eliminated from playoff contention in the final week of the season. The 2022 campaign marked the O's first winning season since 2016, and their .512 winning percentage, a .191 increase from 2021, was the largest increase in winning percentage from 2021 to 2022 in MLB and one of the more dramatic year-over-year improvements in the history of the sport. Since the start of 2022, the Orioles' .564 road winning percentage is the second best in the AL and the fourth best in MLB, trailing only the Dodgers (.605), Astros (.595), and Braves (.580). Orioles pitchers set a franchise record in 2023 with 1,431 strikeouts before following that up with 1,380 strikeouts in 2024, the second most strikeouts by an Orioles pitching staff in club history. The 2024 Orioles clubbed 235 home runs, the third most in a single season in franchise history and the most since 2017 (232).

In addition to their improvement at the major league level, the Orioles rapidly ascended in annual MLB organizational talent rankings, moving from the bottom third before Elias' arrival to as high as first or second overall by each of Baseball America, ESPN, FanGraphs, and MLB Pipeline in 2022 and 2023. In 2024, even after the promotion of several Top 100 prospects, including Colton Cowser and 2022 No. 1 overall pick Jackson Holliday, the Orioles maintained a top-three MLB farm system according to midseason rankings from Baseball America and MLB Pipeline. In addition, the Orioles have had at least one player either win or finish in the top three in Rookie of the Year voting in each of the last three seasons: Cowser, 2024 – 2nd, Henderson, 2023 – 1st, Rutschman, 2022 – 2nd. Baltimore also became the first organization in Baseball America history to have three consecutive No. 1 prospects entering the season beginning with Rutschman ('22), Henderson ('23), and Holliday ('24). The Orioles' top-ranked player development system currently boasts several other players who rank among the very best prospects throughout the minor leagues.

Elias and his team have continued their work to establish and expand the club's international scouting efforts. Over the past six years, they have signed record-breaking classes, including an organization-high 27 players in both 2022-23 and 2019-20, and some of baseball's top prospects, including catcher Samuel Basallo. Signed in 2021, Basallo opened the 2024 season with Double-A Bowie, earning a Futures Game selection before finishing the year at Triple-A Norfolk. He is ranked by Baseball America as the No. 1 prospect in Baltimore's system, and by both Baseball America and MLB Pipeline as the No. 14 overall prospect in baseball. Under Elias' direction, the Orioles also broke ground on their brand new state-of-the-art Dominican Academy, which officially opened in January 2024. The 22.5-acre complex includes three full fields, a sports turf agility field, batting and pitching tunnels, administrative buildings, dormitories, and educational facilities.

In recognition of his success, Elias was voted the 2023 MLB Executive of the Year, the official award bestowed by MLB resulting from voting among the 30 clubs, the Sporting News 2023 MLB Executive of the Year as voted on by fellow AL and NL executives, and the 2023 Baseball America Executive of the Year.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

Before joining the Orioles, Elias served as Assistant General Manager, Player Acquisition with the Houston Astros. Throughout his seven years in Houston, he helped to shape an Astros roster that produced back-to-back 100-win seasons, a World Series Championship, two American League Championship Series appearances, and two division titles. He was an integral part of building one of baseball's top-ranked farm systems that routinely served to furnish talent for the major league roster and drafted several of the game's current young superstars. Elias joined the Astros in 2012 as a special assistant to the General Manager and was a key contributor to Houston's top-ranked First-Year Player Draft by Baseball America. That year, he was named the club's Director of Amateur Scouting, a role in which he served as one of the organization's top talent evaluators. In 2016, he was promoted to Assistant General Manager, Scouting and Player Development, overseeing player development, minor league operations, and the draft. Additionally, he led international scouting efforts for the club beginning in August 2017.

Prior to joining the Astros, Elias spent five seasons as a scout with the St. Louis Cardinals, including over a year as the club's Manager of Amateur Scouting. During his time with the Cardinals, the club produced a consistently top-ranked farm system and won the 2011 World Series.

Elias, 42, is a native of Fairfax County, Va., where he attended Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology. A 2006 graduate of Yale University (CT), he was a four-time letter winner as a left-handed pitcher for the Bulldogs baseball team. He and his wife, Alexandra, reside in Baltimore with their daughter, Evelyn, and son, Samuel.

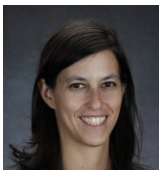

SIG MEJDAL — VICE PRESIDENT & ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Sig Mejdal was named the Orioles' Vice President and Assistant General Manager, Analytics on November 21, 2018. In his role, Mejdal oversees all aspects of the club's growing analytics efforts while assisting and advising Executive Vice President and General Manager Mike Elias in all manners of Baseball Operations decisions. Mejdal is entering his 21st season in Major League Baseball and seventh with the Orioles.

Before joining the Orioles, Mejdal served as Special Assistant to the General Manager, Process Improvement with the Houston Astros. In this role, Mejdal supported the development, implementation, and monitoring of improvement initiatives throughout the organization. Mejdal joined the Astros in 2012 and organized the team's analytics department from its inception. He spent his seven years in Houston contributing to a variety of efforts across baseball operations, ranging from data and player analysis, to the amateur draft, and the major league team. He was a key asset in the process that helped the Astros improve their season record by more than 50 wins between 2013 and 2017, while also drafting more Major League players than any other team during his tenure. During his time, the Astros won a World Series Championship, made two American League Championship Series appearances, and won two AL West division titles.

Prior to joining the Astros, Mejdal worked for the St. Louis Cardinals for seven seasons, spending his final season as the team's Director, Amateur Draft Analysis. During his time with the Cardinals, he was an integral part of the draft decision-making processes that led to the selection of more major league players than any other organization in that time frame. His professional baseball career began as a Quantitative Analyst for the Cardinals in 2005.

Mejdal, a California native, earned bachelor's degrees in mechanical engineering and aeronautical engineering from the University of California, Davis, as well as master's degrees in operations research and cognitive psychology from San Jose State University (CA). Prior to beginning his baseball career, he worked for NASA as a biomathematician. He and his wife, Arati, reside in Baltimore.

EVE ROSENBAUM — ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Eve Rosenbaum joined the Orioles organization in November 2019 as the club's Director of Baseball Development, and was promoted to Assistant General Manager in June 2022. In her role, she oversees roster management, transactions, and financial planning, as well as the major league staff, major league medical services, and major league operations. Rosenbaum also plays a key role in all player evaluation and acquisition decisions across the pro and amateur markets, and assists with all matters of baseball operations departmental management.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Rosenbaum spent five seasons in the Houston Astros organization, most recently serving as the club's Manager of International Scouting. She also worked for the National Football League from 2012-15 as a Junior Rotational Program Member and as Manager of Business Intelligence and Optimization.

Rosenbaum is a native of Bethesda, Md. and attended Harvard University (MA). She earned a bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in philosophy, and was a catcher on the Crimson varsity softball team. In November 2021, Rosenbaum was inducted into the Greater Washington Jewish Sports Hall of Fame. She was named to the Baltimore Sun's 25 Women to Watch in 2023. She currently resides in Baltimore.

KOBY PEREZ — VP, INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING & OPERATIONS

Koby Perez enters his seventh year with the club and his second as the Vice President, International Scouting and Operations after being promoted in October 2023.

Perez oversees all aspects of the Orioles' international scouting operations and management of the club's bonus pool, while also assuming supervision of operations at the Orioles' training academy in the Dominican Republic and serving as the organization's primary executive contact for all levels of Latin American player personnel business.

During his tenure, Perez has presided over four of the team's most historic international signing classes. He guided the organization to the two largest signing classes in club history in 2019-20 and 2022-23, landed the first seven-figure signings in 2020-21 (Samuel Basallo and Maikol Hernández), and signed the two highest-paid international players in team history in 2021-22 (Braylin Tavera) and 2022-23 (Luis Almeyda). Basallo competed across three minor league levels in 2023, finishing the year at Double-A Bowie. He is ranked by Baseball America as the No. 14 prospect in baseball and the No. 1 prospect in Baltimore's system.

Perez was instrumental in the development of the club's new state-of-the-art training academy in Guerra, Dominican Republic, which officially broke ground in October 2021 and opened in January 2024. The 22.5-acre complex is home to the Orioles' regional facility for Caribbean, Central, and South American player development operations, and includes three full fields, a sports turfed agility field, batting and pitching tunnels, administrative buildings, dormitories, and educational facilities.

He joined the organization in January 2019 following five seasons in the Cleveland organization, first as an International Crosschecker for two years and later as their Director of Latin American Scouting. Perez has worked in professional baseball since 2006, working for the St. Louis Cardinals (2006-08), Philadelphia Phillies (2009-13), and Cleveland Indians (2014-18).

Born in Tamayo, Dominican Republic, Perez grew up in North Bergen, N.J. He played for two seasons in the Red Sox organization from 2002-03 and in the Independent Atlantic League from 2003-05.

Perez received his bachelor's degree in recreation and sports management from Florida International University. He currently resides in Elkridge, Md., with his wife, Johanna, and their children, Pamela and Koby (KJ).

MATT BLOOD — VP, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT & DOMESTIC SCOUTING

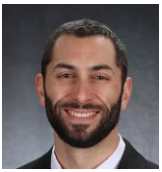

Matt Blood joined the Orioles organization as the Director of Player Development in September 2019 and was promoted to Vice President, Player Development and Domestic Scouting in October 2023. His duties include overseeing the Orioles' player development and domestic scouting operations, including staff recruitment and development, implementation of player development strategies and programs throughout the entire minor league system, and First-Year Player Draft operations.

During his tenure, the Orioles have ascended organizational farm system rankings, including retaining their spot at the top in the 2023 midseason rankings by Baseball America, ESPN, and MLB Pipeline, marking the second straight year that they have been ranked as the best farm system in baseball by these three outlets. Baltimore became the first organization to rank No. 1 in five straight MLB Pipeline farm system rankings. The Orioles top-ranked player development system also currently boasts several players who rank amongst the very best prospects throughout the minor leagues.

Blood has 13 years of major league experience and has spent 17 years in professional and amateur baseball. Prior to joining the Orioles, Blood served as the Director of Player Development for the Texas Rangers for the 2019 season. He also worked for the St. Louis Cardinals as an area scout from 2009-15 and served as the Team Director for USA Baseball's 18U National Team from 2016-18.

Blood graduated from the University of North Carolina in 2007 with a degree in economics. He resides in Baltimore with his wife, Allison, and their two children, Henry and Ben.

MIKE SNYDER — VICE PRESIDENT, PRO SCOUTING

Mike Snyder enters his 17th year with the Orioles and his first as Vice President of Pro Scouting after being promoted in October 2024, following one season as the Senior Director of Professional Scouting. In this role, he will continue to oversee the club's pro scouting and player analysis across the majors, minors, and Asian professional leagues, as well as assisting with contract negotiations, 40-man roster construction, player transactions, and departmental hiring.

Snyder previously served as the club's Director of Pro Scouting (2020-23), Director of Pacific Rim Operations & Baseball Development (2015-19), Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2013-14), Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development (2012), Baseball Operations Assistant and International Scout (2010-11), and Baseball Operations Intern (2009). In his time with the Orioles, he has had active involvement in the amateur draft, international scouting, compliance, contracts, and salary arbitration, in addition to his pro scouting leadership that has contributed to several impact acquisitions.

Snyder graduated with honors from Princeton University (NJ) in 2008 with a degree in economics, and he received his master's degree in applied and computational mathematics from Johns Hopkins University (MD) in 2019.

A native of Milton, Mass., Snyder and his wife, Lindsay, reside in Frederick, Md. with their two children.

FORREST HERRMANN — DIRECTOR, PITCHING DEVELOPMENT

Forrest Herrmann enters his fourth season with the Orioles and first as Director of Pitching Development. In his role, he oversees minor league pitching and assists the major league coaching staff as well as both the scouting and sports science departments.

Herrmann joined the organization in 2022 as a pitching coach with High-A Aberdeen. He spent 2023 as Double-A Bowie's Pitching Coach, also serving as a Pitching Coach in the Arizona Fall League. Most recently, he spent the 2024 season as the Lower-Level Pitching Coordinator. Since he joined the organization, he's had consistent involvement with the Amateur Draft and throughout the front office.

Prior to joining the Orioles, he worked in the Cincinnati Reds organization as their Minor League Pitching Coach with Single-A Daytona (2021), and Minor League Pitching Coach (2020). In 2019, he was a Pitching Strategist with the Seattle Mariners, assisting with player development special projects. From 2016-18, he served in various roles at Premier Pitching Performance, a private baseball facility in St. Louis.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Herrmann graduated from the University of Evansville with a major in business management. He and his wife, Gianna, currently reside in Baltimore.

BRENDAN FOURNIE — SR. DIRECTOR, BASEBALL STRATEGY & OPERATIONS

Brendan Fournie begins his fourth season with the Orioles and first since being promoted to Senior Director of Baseball Strategy & Operations. Fournie joined the club in November 2021 and most recently served as the Director of Baseball Strategy. Fournie oversees baseball economic research, advance scouting, and salary arbitration, while advising the baseball operations team on roster management, transactions, and contracts.

The 2025 season marks Fournie's 10th season in Major League Baseball. Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent six seasons with the Houston Astros, beginning his career in 2016 as a baseball operations apprentice. He was promoted to Coordinator, Baseball Operations in 2017 and Manager, Baseball Operations in 2018 before being named the club's Senior Manager of Player Valuation and Economics in 2020, a role he held until joining Baltimore.

A native of Columbia, Ill., Fournie attended the University of Missouri and received dual bachelor's degrees in finance and sport management. He received his master's degree in sport management from the University of Florida, where he also minored in statistics and entrepreneurship.

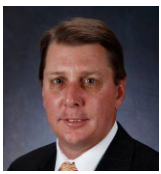

DI ZOU — SR. DIRECTOR, BASEBALL SYSTEMS & ANALYTICS OPERATIONS

Di Zou enters his ninth season with the Orioles, and his first as Senior Director, Baseball Systems & Analytics Operations. He previously served as the Director of Baseball Systems for the last three seasons. In his role, he oversees development of internal baseball operations information systems and contributes to various initiatives related to baseball technology and analytics.

Zou was hired in 2017 as a Developer of Baseball Systems, a role he held for three years, before being promoted to Manager of Baseball Systems. Prior to joining the Orioles, he worked as a software engineer at various tech companies, including the Army Research Lab, BoxTone, Bridgestone, and HubSpot, where he focused on application development and data engineering.

Zou is a graduate of the University of Maryland with a degree in mathematics. He resides in Ellicott City, Md., with his wife and daughters.

KENT QUALLS — DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

Kent Qualls enters his 13th year as the Director of Minor League Operations for the Orioles. He oversees the administration of the Orioles Player Development department, minor league affiliate relationships, the Dominican Academy, and winter ball assignments. His responsibilities also include handling major league and minor league contracts and negotiations, player transactions, salary arbitrations, and rules compliance.

Qualls has 28 years of professional baseball operations experience at the professional level. He spent eight years with the Boston Red Sox from 1995-2002, working as Director of Player Development and Director of Baseball Operations. He also spent eight seasons with the Montreal Expos from 1987-94, rising to Director of Minor League Operations for the organizations. Additionally, Qualls served for 10 years as the Director of the Dan Duquette Sports Academy in Hinsdale, Mass.

A graduate of the University of Kentucky, Qualls and his wife, Irene, have two children: Kyle and Chloe. They reside in Woodbine, Md.

ANTHONY VILLA — DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Anthony Villa was named the club's Director, Player Development in October 2023 after serving as the club's Minor League Hitting Coordinator during the 2023 season. In his current role, Villa works with Matt Blood, Vice President, Player Development and Domestic Scouting, to oversee the Orioles' player development operations.

Villa's responsibilities include staff recruitment and development, as well as implementation of player development strategies and programs throughout the entire minor league system.

Villa also served as the Lower Level Hitting Coordinator (2022) and Florida Complex League Hitting Coach/Complex Level Hitting Coordinator (2021). He joined the Orioles organization as the Aberdeen IronBirds Hitting Coach ahead of the 2020 season and helped at the Alternate Site after the cancellation of the minor league season due to COVID-19.

Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent the 2019 season as a player/coach in the Texas Rangers system. He was originally selected by the Chicago White Sox in the 19th round of the 2016 First-Year Player Draft and played three professional seasons in Chicago's farm system.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

GERARDO CABRERA — DIRECTOR, LATIN AMERICAN SCOUTING

Gerardo Cabrera was named the club's Director, Latin American Scouting in October 2023. In his role, Cabrera leads the Latin America scouting process and manages the organization's scouts in that area.

He joined the organization in 2019 as a Dominican Republic Scouting Supervisor (2019-2021) before being promoted to Latin American Scouting Supervisor in 2021. He previously served in various roles in the amateur scouting process with the New York Mets in the Dominican Republic from 2009-19.

Cabrera was involved in the signing of current O's minor leaguer Samuel Basallo as well as current big leaguers Rafael Montero (HOU), Amed Rosario (WSH), Andres Giménez (TOR), Francisco Alvarez and Ronny Mauricio (NYM), and Endy Rodríguez (PIT).

He left the Dominican Republic after high school to play baseball at Miami Dade College in Miami. He was drafted in the 28th round in 2003 by the White Sox after his Freshman Year. He did not sign that year but after his sophomore year he returned to Dominican Republic and signed as a free agent with Cincinnati Reds.

He played professionally in the Cincinnati Reds organization from 2005-08 after playing at Miami Dade College (FL). Cabrera received his bachelor's degree in accounting from Universidad O & M (DR) in 2004. He resides in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic with his wife, Belgica, and their three children, Jadhir, Harmony, and Hanna.

MICHAEL WEIS — DIRECTOR, DRAFT ANALYTICS

Michael Weis enters his seventh season with the Orioles and his first as Director, Draft Analytics. In his current role, he oversees statistical evaluation of players for the amateur draft and provides analysis on various projects throughout the organization.

Weis was hired in 2019 as a Data Scientist, a role he held for three years before being promoted to Senior Data Scientist, Draft Evaluation. Prior to joining the Orioles, he worked as a Data Scientist at several companies, including AT&T, Hilti, and Copart where he utilized data to drive decision making.

Weis is a graduate of Texas Christian University with a bachelor's degree in mathematics with an actuarial concentration. He received his master's degree in business analytics from the University of Texas at Austin.

Raised in Fort Worth, Texas, he and his wife, Emily, reside in Towson, Md., with their two sons, Hudson and Caden.

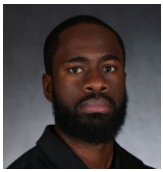

RYAN HARDIN — DIRECTOR, PRO PLAYER ANALYTICS

Ryan Hardin enters his seventh year with the Orioles and his first as Director, Pro Player Analytics. In his current role, Hardin oversees quantitative analysis for professional baseball, providing insights on player evaluation, acquisitions, and game strategy.

Hardin was hired in 2019 as a Baseball Analytics Data Scientist, a role he held for three years before being promoted to Senior Data Scientist, Pro Player Evaluation. Prior to joining the Orioles, he worked as Baseball Operations Intern with the Oakland Athletics.

Hardin is a graduate of Amherst College (MA) where he was member of the Varsity Baseball Team and received bachelor's degrees in economics and classics.

WILL ALLI — DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Will Alli enters his fourth season in the Orioles organization, and his first as Director of Minor League Strength & Conditioning following three seasons as the Minor League Strength & Conditioning Coordinator.

Alli oversees the Strength & Conditioning Department, focusing on the physical development of minor league players into major league prospects. He leads collaborative efforts with nutrition, mental skills, sport science, and biomechanics staff to create a unified development system, and emphasizes a holistic training environment rooted in evidence-based evaluations and interdisciplinary staff collaboration. Alli champions long-term athletic development, ensuring players are prepared for the demands of major league competition.

Alli received his Master of Science degree in kinesiology from Indiana University and bachelor's degree in business administration from Brock University (Ontario). He currently resides in Baltimore with his wife, Chelsea, and their son Liam.

COMMUNITY

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

Under the leadership of the new ownership group, the Orioles organization remains deeply commited to the community. Since 1993, the Orioles and the Orioles Charitable Foundation have donated more than $30 million to countless organizations throughout the Birdland community. The organization's commitment to Strengthening Our Community and Empowering Our Youth is evident by the many ongoing programs that the Orioles continue to implement year-round.

STRENGTHENING OUR COMMUNITY

COMMUNITY BOOTHS

Throughout the season, community booths are located on the concourse to help local nonprofit organizations enhance public awareness for their causes, giving them the opportunity to share their mission and secure funding. The Orioles hosted 15 local organizations at the ballpark in 2024.

BIRDLAND COMMUNITY HEROES

The Birdland Community Heroes program, presented by BGE, honors and recognizes community heroes who inspire us through their spirited commitment to extend a hand in charity, service, hope, and harmony. The Orioles recognized eight community heroes in 2024. In honor of their recognition, the Orioles Charitable Foundation made a $5,000 donation to each hero's selected organization.

Among those recognized were community members from all walks of life, occupations, and backgrounds in fields that care for, serve, teach, protect, and improve the lives of others, around the corner or around the globe, who are most in need.

COMPLIMENTARY TICKETS

Throughout the 2024 season, the Orioles donated more than 31,000 tickets to local community groups and nonprofit organizations through the MLB Commissoner's Community Initiative program.

HIGH-FIVE TICKET FUNDRAISING PROGRAM

The High-Five Ticket Fundraising Program allows nonprofit and community organizations to sell tickets for an Orioles game to their supporters and earn money for their organization. Throughout the 2024 season, the High-Five fundraisers sold roughly 20,000 tickets helping nonprofits, schools, and sports teams raise over $100,000.

HEROES CORNER

Heroes Corner, presented by The Good Feet Store, serves as a way to give back and show appreciation to local frontline workers and volunteers, including healthcare workers, teachers, and community members. As part of the initiative, the Orioles donated more than 1,160 total tickets to 20 different community groups during the 2024 season. Heroes were also thanked during an in-game welcome and featured on the Oriole Park video board and on the MASN broadcast.

IN-KIND DONATIONS

In order to support community groups, the Orioles provide in-kind donations annually, contributing to fundraising and awareness efforts for charity events. In 2024, the Orioles donated autographed memorabilia and promotional items to nonprofit organizations, with a total value exceeding $36,000. These contributions helped organizations generate funds through silent auctions and other fundraising initiatives.

SPECIALTY AUCTIONS

The Orioles hosted two specialty auctions to benefit specific community and club initiatives this past year. Together, more than $25,000 was raised to benefit Youth Emotional Support (YES), the ALS Association, I AM ALS, and the Orioles Charitable Foundation.

EMPOWERING OUR YOUTH

ADOPT-A-SCHOOL

In 2024, the Orioles announced the launch of their Adopt-A-School campaign, endorsed by Baltimore City Public Schools in support of Harlem Park Elementary Middle School, an educational institution for more than 440 students and staff serving Pre-K through eighth grade in West Baltimore. The partnership marked a significant milestone for both the Baltimore Orioles and Harlem Park Elementary Middle School as they joined forces to strengthen community ties and promote youth development. Through this initiative, the Orioles stand as a committed partner in making a meaningful impact on students' lives and learning for years to come.

Harlem Park Elementary Middle School is a local institution dedicated to academic excellence and community enrichment. Harlem Park strives to equip their students with a growth mindset, build emotional regulation, and engage in strategic instruction to tackle academic and social challenges.

As part of the Adopt-A-School campaign the Orioles hosted several impacful events and initiatives thoughout the year:

City Connect x Harlem Park Fridays: During every Friday home game of the 2024 season, the Orioles spotlighted 10 Harlem Park Elementary Middle School students and staff members, including them in pregame and in-game activations. The attendees were provided complimentary tickets, food vouchers, and an oppoortunity to meet players during batting practice.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

Teacher Appreciation: Recognizing the dedication of Harlem Park's educators, the Orioles expressed gratitude through special events and gifts, honoring their invaluable contributions to shaping young minds.

Nike Play Ball Day: Part of the MLB league wide initative, the Orioles brought the spirit of baseball to the school by organizing a fun-filled day of sports and teamwork, inspiring students to stay active and engaged.

Classroom Preparation: In support of Harlem Park teachers, the Orioles assisted in setting up classrooms and provided a $12,000 donation to assist with purchasing school supplies and classroom neccesities for the new school year, ensuring a welcoming and organized learning environment for students.

Graduation Ceremonies: Celebrating student achievements, the Orioles provided support and recognition during graduation events, highlighting the importance of education and perseverance.Community Garden Project: In collaboration with Harlem Park students, staff, and local volunteers, the Orioles helped plant a community garden, fostering environmental stewardship and providing a hands-on learning experience.

Welcome Back to School Celebration: The Orioles warmly welcomed students and staff back to school with a day of activities, giveaways, and words of encouragement to kick off the academic year.

First Pitches: Two students from Harlem Park had the opportunity to throw the first pitch at Opening Day and Kids Opening Day, creating unforgettable memories and inspiring their peers.

Postseason: The team generously provided 10 tickets and 10 food vouchers to Harlem Park students and staff, giving them the opportunity to attend both Game 1 and 2 of the American League Wild Card Series against the Kansas City Royals.

Winter Coat Donation: In partnership with T.Rowe Price, the Orioles provided all 430 Harlem Park Elementary Middle School students with coats, hoodies, and other winter accessories. Recognizing that warmth is a fundamental need, the goal of this event is to ensure that no student goes without the warmth they need to attend school comfortably and safely.

The Adopt-A-School program is grounded in the belief that unwavering support and solid opportunities can play a pivotal role in accelerating student and school success. Together, the Baltimore Orioles and Harlem Park Elementary Middle School are building a foundation of hope, resilience, and shared commitment to the future of West Baltimore's youth.

COLLEGEBOUND FOUNDATION

The Orioles committed $5 million to the CollegeBound Foundation in support of the next Baltimore renaissance. The CollegeBound Foundation empowers students form Baltimore City Schools to successfully pursue and complete a college degree or other post-secondary option. As part of the initiative and in addition to the College Completion Program and scholarships, the Orioles provide year-long paid internships to former Baltimore City students and current College Completion Program scholars. Additonally, the Orioles are providing their adopted school, Harlem Park Elementary Middle School, with an academic college and career advisor with the assistance of the CollegeBound Foundation.

ORIOLES HEALTH & FITNESS CHALLENGE

In 2016, the Orioles and Sarasota County Schools launched the Orioles Health & Fitness Challenge to encourage healthy lifestyles among middle school-aged children. Since its inception, more than 32,000 students in 10 county schools have participated in the program. Participating students receive an Orioles T-shirt, complimentary food vouchers for the Orioles Fit Grill at Ed Smith Stadium, and two Orioles tickets for the Spring Training home opener.

The program was developed in partnership with Health Fit Powered by Sarasota Memorial to teach students about the importance of physical fitness, healthy eating, and tobacco-free living. During this year's five-week program, students in grades six through eight participate in a variety of health and fitness challenges led by Sarasota County Phys Ed teachers.

NIKE REVIVING BASEBALL IN INNER CITIES (RBI) PROGRAM

As part of the Major League Baseball youth initiative, the Baltimore Orioles Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) program has been inspiring underserved Baltimore City and Baltimore County youth to play baseball and softball since 1989. In 2024, the program consisted of 622 players and 40 teams. Games were played from June 1 through the second week of August as part of the Nike RBI program supported by Giant Food. The Orioles provided each player with Nike jerseys and hats, and each team that registered for the program was provided with three dozen baseballs or softballs and scorebooks for game play. The Orioles also provided catchers gear and baseball gloves.

Each RBI Division Championship team was recognized on the field prior to an Orioles game and featured on the video board during the game. While on the field, they were presented with trophies and got their picture taken with Orioles Manager Brandon Hyde and the Oriole Bird.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

Orioles Jr. RBI Program
The Orioles sponsored Gardenville, Northwood, and Hamilton Little Leaguers during the Jr. RBI season, where over 450 players ages 5-12 participated during the 2024 season. The Orioles also provided custom jerseys and hats to players in the program. To celebrate the completion of the Jr. RBI season, the club hosted an end-of-season party prior to an Orioles game in July, where participants enjoyed a pregame picnic and received a game ticket and a goodie bag.

CARDBOARD TO LEATHER EQUIPMENT COLLECTION

The Orioles and the Oriole Advocates held two "Cardboard to Leather" equipment collections at the ballpark during the 2024 season. Overall, nearly 16,000 pieces of equipment were collected and distributed to youth in underserved neighborhoods of Baltimore City and the Dominican Republic.

LEAGUE OF DREAMS BEEP BASEBALL CLINIC

The Orioles are committed to helping children with mental and/or physical challenges enjoy baseball. Last year, Orioles employees, alumni, the Oriole Bird, and Nike RBI athletes, supported by Giant Food, volunteered with League of Dreams to host a clinic at the Maryland School for the Blind. Volunteers took part in the clinics, assisting students with impaired vision in using adaptive equipment to play baseball. The clinics included teaching the fundamentals of hitting, fielding, throwing, and baserunning.

ORANGE & BLACK GIVES BACK

Each year, the Orioles employee volunteer program, Orange & Black Gives Back, completes monthly service projects in the Birdland community. These efforts are focused on organizations that support holistic development for youth, as well as nonprofits that strengthen the community by addressing food insecurity and other economic and environmental obstacles.

Orange & Black Gives Back completed 19 volunteer opportunities throughout 2024 in Baltimore and Sarasota, totaling nearly 950 hours of service. Some of those projects included volunteering at Harlem Park Elementary Middle School, The Loading Dock, Maryland Book Bank, Meals on Wheels of Central Maryland, Parity Homes, the Franciscan Center in Baltimore, The Movement Team, The Baltimore Station, Maryland Food Bank, and The Food Project.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc. is a unique nonprofit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates are in their 61st year of "Promoting and Stimulating Interest in Baseball." Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section of the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and established the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1977.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Communications and Community Engagement Departments. The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do, instead serving as volunteers that constantly demonstrate the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

NICOLE SHERRY — SENIOR DIRECTOR OF FIELD OPERATIONS

Sherry begins her third season as senior director of field operations after being promoted to the position in January 2023. She spent the 2021 and 2022 seasons as director of field operations after serving as Orioles head groundskeeper for 14 seasons from 2007 to 2020. The 2025 campaign marks Sherry's 22nd season with the Orioles organization overall. From 2001-03, she served as the Orioles assistant head groundskeeper before spending three seasons (2004-06) with the Double-A Trenton Thunder (New York Yankees).

She returned to the Orioles organization in November 2006, becoming just the second woman ever to serve as the head groundskeeper with a major league team. Sherry and Heather Nabozny, who has been with the Detroit Tigers since 1999, are the only female head groundskeepers in Major League Baseball. According to the Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA), there have been approximately 10 women who have held the position of head groundskeeper in the history of professional baseball.

Sherry was the first female head groundskeeper in Eastern League history when she was named to that post for the Trenton Thunder in February 2004, and twice was runner-up for the Eastern League's top groundskeeping award. In 2006, the Thunder honored her with a bobblehead, depicting her riding a tractor.

In February 2016, Sherry was named the recipient of the Mary Pickersgill Award for Women's Leadership in Business by the Star-Spangled Banner Flag House. Established in 2012, the award honors a woman who demonstrates leadership in her community, exemplifies innovation in her chosen field, and has the power to inspire others. She was also named the 2019 recipient of the prestigious Dick Ericson Founders' Award, which is awarded annually to a STMA member who effectively manages sports fields and their facility, exhibits the qualities of a true team leader, and who positively impacts the sports turf industry. Sherry, along with MLB and Discovery Education, has worked with local schools to introduce students to a variety of intriguing science and STEM concepts related to her job as director of field operations.

A native of New Castle, Del., Sherry graduated from the University of Delaware with a degree in agriculture. She worked for several golf courses in Delaware and with the University of Delaware's Research and Education Center, testing new herbicides, prior to joining the Orioles in 2001 as the assistant head groundskeeper.

Sherry resides in Eldersburg, Md., with her son, Tyson.

FRED TYLER — HOME CLUBHOUSE/EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Fred Tyler enters his 54th season with the Orioles and fourth as home clubhouse and equipment manager after being promoted to the position in December 2021. Tyler played baseball at Bel Air (MD) High School, Harford Community College (MD), and Towson University (MD). As a senior at Bel Air High, Tyler was named the All-Harford County shortstop, while the All-Harford County pitcher that year was an Aberdeen High School right-handed pitcher named Cal Ripken, Jr.

Tyler lives in Arnold, Md., with his wife, Debbie. The couple has a son, Sean Duffy Tyler, and two grandchildren, Isabella and Brayden. Tyler is one of 11 children, including his older brother Jim, who serves as the Umpires' Attendant.

JIM TYLER — UMPIRES ATTENDANT

Jim Tyler begins his 64th year working for the Orioles and his 13th season as the umpires' attendant. Tyler ran the home clubhouse from 1979 to 2012 after serving seven years as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began working in the Orioles clubhouse in 1962.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he graduated from Baltimore City College (MD) High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium, where the Orioles played for 39 years. Tyler is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who has also worked for the Orioles. Tyler has two children: Lauren and Joshua, and three grandchildren: Luke, Tessa, and Jack.

ANDREW GUINART — VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Guinart (gin-NART) begins his fourth season as the visiting clubhouse manager after being promoted to the position in December 2021. He has worked in the Orioles home clubhouse during Spring Training and the regular season since 2012 after initially starting as a bat boy. He joined the club in 2010 after the relocation of Spring Training facilities to his hometown of Sarasota, Fla., where he worked in the major league clubhouse during Spring Training and assisted with minor league clubhouse operations during the summer months. Guinart began working in professional baseball in 2007 at the age of 14 with the Cincinnati Reds during their major league Spring Training and Class-A season. He was born and raised in Sarasota, Fla., with his parents, Oscar and Lisa, and two older brothers, Daniel and David. He graduated high school from the Sarasota Military Academy. 2024 NOTES

- Attended major league Spring Training with Houston and pitched in five Grapefruit League games; optioned to Triple-A Sugar Land on March 14; recalled on April 2 and made one appearance with Houston before being optioned on April 4; was designated for assignment on August 6 and released on August 9
- Went 2-0 with a 6.50 ERA (26 ER/36.0 IP) on 28 hits (2 HR), 42 walks, and five hit batters with 42 strikeouts in 36 relief appearances with Triple-A Sugar Land
- Made his lone major league appearance on April 3 vs. Toronto, completing 1.0 scoreless inning on one walk with one strikeout
- Posted a 2-0 record with a 4.32 ERA (8 ER/16.2 IP) in 16 home games with Triple-A Sugar Land compared to a 8.38 ERA (18 ER/19.1 IP) in 20 away games; also held opposing hitters to a .127 batting average (7-for-55) at home compared to a .292 (21-for-72) line on the road

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2023: Pitched in 23 games for the Royals across two stints, from Opening Day to April 13 and July 5 to August 22, and had career-high 8.84 ERA (18 ER/18.1 IP) with 21 strikeouts but also 19 walks and a .261/.438/.435 slash line (18-for-69, .872 OPS)...Broke camp with the club for the second straight season and remained in the bullpen through April 12, but was optioned after allowing six runs and recording just two outs on April 10 at Texas...Made his first major league start as the opener on August 11 vs. St. Louis, and pitched a scoreless first inning despite three walks and a hit batter...Made 32 appearances in Triple-A, where he went 1-5 with two saves, a 4.70 ERA (16 ER/30.2 IP), 48 strikeouts, and 32 walks.

2022: Made 68 of his 69 appearances in 2022 with the Royals, falling one game shy of Scott Barlow for the team lead in appearances...His 68 appearances ranked second among rookie relievers to Oakland's Domingo Acevedo (70) and Coleman's 68.0 innings trailed only Texas' Brock Burke (82.1 IP); also finished eighth among rookie relievers in ERA (2.78) and ninth in strikeouts (71)...On July 7 at Houston, he struck out Yordan Alvarez on a 100.1 mph fastball with two on in the seventh, and escaped the frame without allowing a run...Had a stretch of 32 appearances from July 6 to September 25 in which he pitched to a 1.36 ERA (5 ER/33 IP)...Finished the season with a career-best 26.0-inning homerless streak dating back to the last home run he allowed on July 1 at New York-AL (Anthony Rizzo).

2021: In his first full year in the Royals organization, he reached Triple-A and recorded 93 strikeouts in 57.2 innings (14.5 K/9); his 14.5 strikeouts per nine innings rate ranked second among Royals minor league pitchers...Made his first appearance on a major league roster in September 2021...Added to the MLB roster on September 20...Made five appearances down the stretch, posting a 1.42 ERA (1 ER/6.1 IP)...Made his MLB debut on September 21 at Cleveland, tossing a scoreless seventh inning...Earned his first MLB strikeout on September 25 at Detroit (Niko Goodrum).

2020: Did not play due to the minor league season being canceled because of the COVID-19 pandemic.

2019: Went 4-3 with one save and a 3.18 ERA (12 ER/34.0 IP) on 32 hits (2 HR), 17 walks, and one hit batter with 39 strikeouts in 27 games pitched (2 GS) between the AZL Padres 1, Full-Season A Fort Wayne, and Advanced-A Lake Elsinore.

2018: Made 18 relief appearances between Short-Season A Tri-City and Full-Season A Fort Wayne, going 1-2 with four saves and a 3.18 ERA (8 ER/22.2 IP) on 20 hits, 11 walks (2 IBB), and two hit batters with 29 strikeouts.

AMATEUR: Went undrafted out of high school and went on to attend Missouri State from 2016 to 2018, where as a sophomore he led the team with eight wins and posted a Missouri Valley Conference-best 106 strikeouts in 99.1 innings, leading the Bears to a conference regular season title and an NCAA Regional title...As a junior at Missouri State in 2018, he went 10-2 in 17 outings with 129 strikeouts in 102.2 innings.

PERSONAL: Graduated from Potosi (MO) High School, where he earned All-State honors as a senior in both baseball and basketball...Coleman, who is now listed at 6-foot-5, scored more than 2,300 points on the court, breaking a 45-year old school record.

• Voted AL Outstanding Rookie by fellow players; marks the third Oriole in four years to earn the honor, joining Gunnar Henderson (2023) and Ryan Mountcastle (2021)

• Finished second in the AL Rookie of the Year voting, five points behind New York-AL's Luis Gil; joins Gunnar Henderson (1st, 2023) and Adley Rutschman (2nd, 2022) as Orioles who have won or finished runner up in the BBWAA AL Rookie of the Year voting the last three seasons

• Was a finalist for the left field AL Gold Glove Award along with Cleveland's Steven Kwan and New York-AL's Alex Verdugo

• Led AL rookies and ranked third among MLB rookies with 4.0 fWAR

• Paced AL rookies and tied for the MLB rookie lead in home runs with San Diego's Jackson Merrill; is the third Oriole rookie in the last four seasons to hold the MLB rookie homer title, joining Gunnar Henderson (28, 2023) and Ryan Mountcastle (33, 2021); is the 10th rookie in O's history with 20 homers (last: Henderson, 2023) and the ninth with 20+ doubles and 20+ homers (last: Henderson, 2023)

• Ranked among AL rookies in runs scored (1st), total bases (1st, 223), extra-base hits (1st, 51), slugging percentage (2nd), walks (2nd), doubles (3rd), RBI (3rd), OPS (3rd, .768), and hits (5th)

• Hit his first two MLB home runs on April 11 at Boston, a solo blast off Garrett Whitlock in the fifth inning and a three-run shot in the 10th inning off Isaiah Campbell; became the seventh player since the team moved to Baltimore in 1954 to hit his first two career home runs in the same game, and first since Ryan Mountcastle on August 30, 2020 at Toronto's Sahlen Field in Buffalo; also became the first O's rookie to homer in extra innings since Austin Hays hit an inside-the-parker in the top of the 10th on August 11, 2020 at Philadelphia

• Tallied 10 RBI in a three-game series from April 9-11 at Boston, the most by an Oriole at Fenway Park in team history; according to MLB.com's Sarah Langs (@SlangsOnSports), he became the seventh player since RBI became an official statistic in 1920 to drive in at least 10 runs in a three-game series (or shorter) as a visitor at Fenway, joining Reggie Jackson (15 RBI in 1969), Vic Wertz (12 RBI in a two-game series in 1957), Junior Felix (11 RBI in 1989), Raimel Tapia (10 RBI in 2022), Giancarlo Stanton (10 RBI in 2021), and Jose Canseco (10 RBI in 1994)

• Launched a go-ahead two-run home run in the eighth inning of a tie game on June 12 vs. Atlanta after entering as a defensive replacement in the top half of the inning

• Recorded a hit in a career-high 17 straight games from July 19 to August 4; marked the longest hitting streak by an Oriole since Austin Hays in 2021 (also 17, 8/24-9/11) and tied for the longest by an O's rookie with Trey Mancini in 2017 (also 17, 9/11-29)

• Hit two home runs in a game at home for the first time in his career on September 20 vs. Detroit

• Batted .400/.429/.800 (18-for-45) in the first 17 games through April 17, .180/.281/.336 (38-for-211) in the next 71 games through July 14, then .267/.337/.477 (65-for-243) in his final 65 games after the All-Star break; hit 12 home runs after the break, leading AL rookies

• Launched two career leadoff home runs on July 29 (G2) vs. Toronto (off Bowden Francis) and August 9 at Tampa Bay (off Zack Littell)

• Hit back-to-back home runs with Jordan Westburg on April 21 at Kansas City and James McCann on June 25 vs. Cleveland

• Slashed .284/.358/.527 (78-for-275) with 15 home runs against the starting pitcher and .192/.276/.348 (43-for-224) with nine homers against relievers

• Led the Orioles with 11 Outs Above Average, per Statcast; eight of those have come in left field, second most in MLB behind Toronto's Daulton Varsho (10)

• Made his Postseason debut on Game 1 of the ALWC vs. Kansas City on October 1; collected his first playoff hit in the second inning, a single off Cole Ragans; finished 1-for-7 in the series, starting both games in left field

• Was hit in the left hand in the fifth inning of Game 2 on October 2; was replaced in the top of the seventh inning and tests later revealed a fracture; had sugery on October 15, performed by Dr. Donald Sheridan in Phoenix, Ariz.

ACQUIRED: From the Tampa Bay Rays in exchange for RHP Jackson Baumeister, OF Matthew Etzel, and OF Mac Horvath, July 26, 2024

2024 NOTES

- Acquired by the Orioles along with cash considerations from the Tampa Bay Rays in exchange for RHP Jackson Baumeister, OF Matthew Etzel, and OF Mac Horvath on July 26; began the season with Rays; placed on the 15-day Injured List with lower back inflammation on May 20, retroactive to May 19; reinstated from the IL on June 5; placed on the 15-day IL on August 20 with right shoulder inflammation, retroactive to August 17; reinstated from the IL on September 1
- Went 5-2 with a 2.60 ERA (16 ER/55.1 IP) with 51 hits (8 HR) and 11 walks with 47 strikeouts in nine starts after joining the O's at the trade deadline; was 10-9 with a 3.59 ERA (66 ER/165.1 IP) combined between Baltimore and Tampa Bay
- Finished with a 3.5 percent walk rate, ranked in the 98th percentile, per Statcast
- Did not allow more than three runs in any of his nine starts after joining the O's
- Won his first five starts to begin his Orioles career, joining Jack Harshman (1958) as the only Orioles to win each of their first five appearances with the club; he's the first to win each of his first five with all of them being starts and the first Oriole to win each of his first five starts with the team since Ben McDonald (7/21-8/13/90)
- Pitched against Toronto in his last start with the Rays on July 24 at Rogers Centre and his first with the Orioles on July 29 (G1) at Oriole Park; became the first Oriole (since 1954) and the first MLB pitcher to make back-to-back starts against the same opponent with different franchise since Andrew Cashner (BAL & BOS against TOR) in 2019, per the Elias Sports Bureau
- Retired the first 15 batters in a row in his first start off the IL on September 1 at Colorado; tied the longest he's taken a perfect game in his career, along with May 1, 2018 at Miami (w/ PHI); the 5.0 perfect frames to start the game were tied for the longest perfect game bid by a visiting pitcher in Colorado in Rockies history, along with San Francisco's Livan Hernandez (5/17/08) and Tim Lincecum (9/24/10); allowed one run on four hits and a walk with a season-high nine strikeouts in 7.0 innings
- Walked a career-high five batters in his final start of the regular season on September 25 at New York-AL
- Started Game 2 of the ALWCS vs. KC, allowing one run on four hits, one walk, and one hit batter with three strikeouts across 4.0 innings pitched; marked his 12th career Postseason appearance

2024 NOTES

• Spent the entire season on the active roster for the second straight year
• Batted .281/.364/.529 (177-for-630) with 31 doubles, seven triples, 37 home runs, 118 runs scored, 92 RBI, 78 walks (1 IBB), seven hit-by-pitches, and 21 stolen bases in 159 games
• Finished fourth in the American League MVP voting with 229 points, the best finish by an Oriole since Manny Machado (also 4th) in 2015 and the most points since Chris Davis (232) in 2013
• Voted the Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole by members of the local media for the second straight season; became the 14th Oriole to earn the honor multiple times and the eighth to do so in at least two straight seasons, along with Adam Jones (2011-12), Eddie Murray (5, 1981-85), Rafael Palmeiro (1995-96), Jim Palmer (1972-73), Boog Powell (1969-70), Cal Ripken, Jr. (1990-91), and Frank Robinson (1966-67)
• Was the O's nominee for the MLBPAA Heart and Hustle Award
• Set the O's record for home runs by a shortstop, surpassing Cal Ripken, Jr. (1991) and Miguel Tejada (2004), who both hit 34
• Finished fifth in MLB with 8.0 fWAR, the best mark by an O's player since Cal Ripken, Jr. set the club record with 10.6 in 1991; he's the fifth Oriole (seventh occurrence) to finish with an fWAR of at least 8.0, along with Ripken, Jr. (3x; 10.6, 1991; 9.8, 1984, & 8.5, 1983), Brooks Robinson (8.1, 1964), Frank Robinson (8.2, 1966), and Jim Gentile (8.0, 1961)
• Also ranked among AL leaders in walks (3rd), runs scored (4th), triples (T-4th), total bases (T-4th, 333), hits (6th), home runs (6th), extra-base hits (T-6th, 75), OPS (7th, .893), on-base percentage (8th), and slugging percentage (8th)
• His 118 runs scored were the most by an Oriole since Roberto Alomar set the club record with 132 in 1996; tied for the fourth-highest run total in O's history (since 1954) with Al Bumbry (1980), trailing Alomar, Frank Robinson (122, 1966), and Cal Ripken, Jr. (121, 1983)
• Has scored 100 runs in back-to-back seasons, becoming the sixth Oriole to do so, along with Manny Machado (2, 2015-16), Adam Jones (2, 2012-13), Brian Roberts (3, 2007-09), Brady Anderson (2, 1995-96), and Ripken, Jr. (3, 1983-85)
• Started the All-Star Game for the AL at shorstop, the first Oriole to do so since Machado in 2018; participated in the Home Run Derby and hit 11 first-round homers, but was eliminated
• Hit 10 leadoff homers, second in MLB behind Philadelphia's Kyle Schwarber, who set the MLB record with 15; the 10 were the second most by an Oriole in one year behind Brady Anderson (12) in 1996
• Became the youngest player in MLB history to hit 10 home runs before May 1; the 10 homers before May were tied for the second most in Orioles history (since 1954) with Frank Robinson (1969), behind only Brady Anderson (11, 1996)
• Won AL Player of the Month in March/April; slashed .291/.356/.624 (34-for-117) with three doubles, three triples, 10 home runs, 25 runs scored, 24 RBI, eight walks, and six stolen bases in 29 games; tied for the MLB lead in homers, led the AL in slugging and total bases (73), and tied for second in the AL in triples, extra-base hits (16), and runs scored
• Launched two home runs onto Eutaw Street (6/2 vs. TB & 8/14 vs. WSH)
• Homered in four straight games from May 17-20 for the first time in his career
• Hit safely in a career-high 14 straight games from June 6-21; slashed .361/.435/.721 (22-for-61) during that stretch
• Had a career long 36-game on-base streak from May 22 to June 29, the longest by an O's batter since Nick Markakis' 38-game streak from July 5 to August 18, 2009; the streak was tied for the second longest in 2024 with Philadelphia's Alec Bohm, behind New York-AL's Aaron Judge (37 G)
• Notched a season-high four hits on July 19 at Texas, tying a career best (3x, 7/6/23 at NYY & 8/20/23 at OAK)
• Won AL Player of the Week on August 8, his second such honor (6/11/23)
• Tripled to break up a no-hitter with two outs in the ninth inning off Tyler Holton on September 13 at Detroit

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

SEASON NOTES

AND THAT'S A WRAP: The Orioles completed the 2024 regular season with a 91-71 record, finishing in second place in the American League East, 10.0 games ahead of the third-place Red Sox and 3.0 games behind the first-place Yankees...Finished with the seventh-best record in MLB...The O's secured their third consecutive winning season for the first time since 2012-14.

TAKE OCTOBER: The O's clinched their second consecutive Postseason berth for the first time since 1996-97 with a 5-3 win over the Yankees on September 24 at Yankee Stadium...The Orioles clinched home-field advantage in the AL Wild Card round with their victory over the Twins on September 28 at Target Field...Marked the 15th playoff berth in Orioles history (since 1954).

OPENING STATEMENT: The Orioles began their 71st season on March 28 with an 11-3 win over the Los Angeles Angels in front of a sellout crowd of 45,029 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards...Marked the O's first Opening Day at home since March 29, 2018 vs. Minnesota (2,191 days)...Baltimore's 11 runs were the second most on Opening Day in team history (since 1954), trailing only the 13 runs scored on April 5, 1982 vs. Kansas City...The O's have won 11 of their last 14 Opening Days, including wins in eight straight season openers from 2011-18.

SWEEPLESS NO MORE: With a three-game sweep at the hands of the Cardinals from May 20-22 in St. Louis, the Orioles had their streak of 106 consecutive regular-season series of at least two decisions (no ties) without being swept snapped; it marked the longest streak in team history and third longest in MLB history, behind the 1942-44 St. Louis Cardinals (124) and 1906-09 Chicago Cubs (115)...The O's had not been swept in a regular-season series of at least two games since May 13-15, 2022 at Detroit (0-3)...They were swept by the Rangers in three games in the 2023 ALDS.

AL BEAST: The Orioles went 32-20 (.615) against AL East foes for the second consecutive year, tied for the seventh-best winning percentage against the division in club history, behind 47-29 (.618) in 2014 and 1979, 49-29 (.628) in 1980, 58-32 (.644) in 1969, 58-31 (.652) in 1977, and 61-29 (.678) in 1970...The Birds won the season series against the Blue Jays (7-6), Rays (9-4), Red Sox (8-5), and Yankees (8-5)...Prior to the series against the Yankees from July 12-14 (1-2) in Baltimore, the Orioles had gone 22 straight sets against AL East opponents without a series loss dating back to 2023, going 16-0-6 in series play during that time and 49-23 (.681) overall...It was the longest streak by a team against its own division without a series loss since divisions were introduced in 1969, per the Elias Sports Bureau.

THE SKIPPER: Orioles Manager Brandon Hyde completed his sixth season as Baltimore's skipper with a 91-71 record, his third consecutive winning season and second consecutive managerial Postseason berth...Collected his 400th managerial win on September 19 vs. San Francisco, joining Earl Weaver (1,480), Buck Showalter (669), Paul Richards (517), and Hank Bauer (407) as the only managers with 400 wins in an O's uniform...Managed his 800th game with the Orioles on July 9 vs. Chicago-NL, joining Weaver (2,541), Showalter (1,353), and Richards (1,063) as Orioles managers to reach 800 career games...He was named the 20th manager in Orioles history prior to 2019.

HOMER HAPPY: The Orioles hit 235 home runs, their third most in team history, trailing 1996 (257) and 2016 (253)... The 235 homers trailed only the Yankees (237) for the most in MLB...The O's hit 200 home runs for the 13th time in team history...Baltimore led the majors in homers through the end of July but ranked tied for 11th in Major League Baseball from the beginning of August until the end of the season...With Jordan Westburg's solo home run in the second inning on June 22 at Houston, it marked the 21st consecutive game in which the Orioles had homered, the longest such streak in team history...The streak ended at 22 games.

START ME UP: The Orioles starting rotation finished with a 3.77 ERA (369 ER/881.1 IP), ranking fifth in MLB behind the Mariners (3.38), Royals (3.55), Braves (3.58), and Tigers (3.69)...Marks the second-best rotation ERA by Baltimore since 1985 behind 2014 (3.61).

SET THE TONE: The Birds hit 13 leadoff home runs, the most in a single season in club history and second in MLB behind the Phillies (15)...Gunnar Henderson hit 10 of those, second most in one season by an Oriole behind Brady Anderson, who hit all 12 in 1996; Colton Cowser (2) and Jordan Westburg (1) had the other three for the O's.

MEET ME ON EUTAW STREET: O's hitters blasted six home runs onto Eutaw Street, tied for the most in ballpark history with the 2016 club...Nine total home runs landed onto Eutaw Street this season, six by Orioles and three by opponents, tied for the second most in ballpark history with 2012 (4 by Orioles, 5 by opponents), trailing only the 11 hit in 2013 (3 by Orioles, 8 by opponents).

AIN'T LIFE GRAND: The Orioles launched seven grand slams on the season, their most since 1998 (7)...Five different players connected on grand slams (Gunnar Henderson, Jackson Holliday, Heston Kjerstad, Adley Rutschman, Anthony Santander), their most since 2015 (5: Steve Clevenger, Chris Davis, Steve Pearce, Nolan Reimold, Jonathan Schoop).

FIRST THINGS FIRST: The Orioles allowed 59 total runs in the first inning, the second fewest in baseball, trailing only the Mets (57)...It's the fifth-lowest first-inning total by the Orioles in a full season in team history (since 1954) and the best mark by the club since 1981 (58).

LIFE BEGINS AT 40: Anthony Santander hit his 40th home run of the season on September 9 at Boston, becoming the eighth Oriole (ninth occurrence) to hit 40 home runs in a season and the first Major League Baseball switch hitter to do so since 2006...His 44 home runs on the year were the seventh most in a single season by an Oriole and the most by a switch hitter in Orioles history...Is one of four switch hitters in MLB history to reach 44 home runs, joining Mickey Mantle (2x), Lance Berkman, and Chipper Jones.

TOP GUNN: Gunnar Henderson launched his 35th home run of the season on September 4 vs. Chicago-AL, setting the record for the most home runs in a single season by an Orioles shortstop in franchise history...His 37 home runs on the season were the most while playing shortstop in MLB since Cleveland's Francisco Lindor in 2018 (37); San Diego's Fernando Tatis Jr. hit 42 in 2021, but only 34 came while he was playing shortstop.

HAPPY HOLLIDAYS: Jackson Holliday launched a grand slam onto Eutaw Street for his first major league home run on July 31 vs. Toronto...Became the third player in O's history (since 1954) whose first big league homer was a grand slam, joining Fritz Connally (4/19/85 at TOR) and Frank Baker (9/28/73 vs. CLE), and the first Major League Baseball player to do since Chicago-NL's Alexander Canario (9/19/23 vs. PIT)...At 20 years, 240 days old, he became the youngest player in team history to hit a grand slam; he also became the first Oriole and second player in Oriole Park history to hit his first career home run onto Eutaw Street, joining Houston's Robbie Grossman (7/31/13).

FOUR ORDERS OF TATERS: Anthony Santander hit his fourth career grand slam and second of the season (5/5 at CIN) in the eighth inning on August 23 vs. Houston, a go-ahead shot to put the Orioles up, 6-5, in the eighth inning... Marked the first go-ahead grand slam by an Oriole in the eighth inning or later since Pedro Alvarez on April 6, 2018 at New York-AL (14th, tied 3-3), the first when trailing in the eighth inning or later since Manny Machado on August 18, 2017 vs. Los Angeles-AL (9th, down 7-5), and the first when down by exactly three runs in the eighth inning or later since Luke Scott on May 13, 2010 vs. Seattle (8th, down 5-2).

BURNES, BABY, BURNES: Corbin Burnes logged a career-high 10 consecutive quality starts from April 26 to June 16, the longest streak by an Oriole since Jeremy Guthrie in 2007 (also 10, 5/8-6/26)...His 2.47 ERA through his first 22 starts of the season was the lowest ERA by an O's starting pitcher in such a span since Jim Palmer (2.20) in 1975, and the lowest mark for a pitcher through his first 22 starts to begin an Orioles career.

EVERYBODY HOME: In the sixth inning on March 30 vs. Los Angeles-AL, the Orioles scored nine runs before recording an out, becoming the first team to do so since the Arizona Diamondbacks in the fifth inning on September 9, 2022 at Colorado, per the Elias Sports Bureau...The O's had not scored nine-or-more runs in an inning before recording an out since at least 1957...Marked their most runs in an inning since also scoring nine in the bottom of the eighth on September 8, 2021 vs. Kansas City.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

TIE GAMES

The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and eight others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect. Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-3, Milwaukee Brewers-1, and Texas Rangers-1.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

2024 PLAYER DEVELOPMENT AND SCOUTING AWARDS

The Orioles named INF Coby Mayo as the Brooks Robinson Minor League Player of the Year and RHP Brandon Young as the Jim Palmer Minor League Pitcher of the Year.

In his second season with Triple-A Norfolk, Mayo proved himself as one of the premier prospects in all of Major League Baseball. Across 87 regular-season games with the Tides in 2024, Mayo slashed .293/.369/.574 (99-for-338) with 23 doubles, three triples, 22 homers, 61 runs scored, 67 RBI, 39 walks, and four stolen bases. Those numbers earned Mayo a spot on the All-MiLB Prospect First Team as well as Baseball America's Minor League and Triple-A All-Star rosters. The Orioles called Mayo up to the major league roster for the first time in his career on August 2. He would appear in six major league games during his first stint with the Orioles and recorded his first hit on August 14, against the Washington Nationals before being optioned the following day. During the month of April, Mayo was named the O's Minor League Player of the Month after slashing .330/.400/.652 (38-for-115) with six doubles, two triples, nine home runs, 21 runs scored, 25 RBI, and 12 walks across 28 games. Entering the 2025 season, Mayo is ranked as Baseball America's No. 29 overall prospect and the top 3B prospect in the league according to MLB Pipeline (No. 14 overall). Mayo was drafted in the fourth round of the 2020 First-Year Player Draft out of Stoneman Douglas (FL) High School.

Young had a breakout season across 27 games (24 GS) with Triple-A Norfolk (20 G, 18 GS) and Double-A Bowie (7 G, 6 GS), posting a 5-6 record with a 3.57 ERA (44 ER/111.0 IP), allowing 102 hits, 49 total runs, eight home runs, two hit batters, and 37 walks with 132 strikeouts. Young earned a promotion to Triple-A Norfolk on May 28, and finished the season with a 5-3 record and a 3.44 ERA (34 ER/89.0 IP), allowing 81 hits, 39 total runs, seven home runs, and 33 walks with 96 strikeouts while holding opponents to a .241 batting average. Among Orioles minor leaguers with at least 90.0 innings pitched, he ranked third in strikeout-to-walk ratio (21.6), fourth in WHIP (1.23), sixth in ERA, and sixth in strikeouts per nine innings pitched (10.95). Young was originally signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Orioles on June 14, 2020, out of the University of Louisiana at Lafayette; He was ranked as the Orioles No. 18 overall prospect in 2024 according to MLB Pipeline.

Latin America Coordinator of Instruction Samuel Vega was named the winner of the Cal Ripken, Sr. Player Development Award for his work developing the organization's next wave of international prospects. Vega has served in his current role since 2022 and has been a driving force in establishing the O's brand-new state-of-the-art Dominican Republic training facility. Under Vega's instruction, several players on the Orioles Dominican Summer League team received league-wide accolades for their play, including outfielder Jordan Sanchez and right-handed pitchers Kevin Velasco and Adrian Heredia. This past season, the DSL Orioles Orange clinched a playoff berth for the first time under Orioles General Manager Mike Elias, which is a testament to the work Vega and the other coaches have done at the Dominican Republic Academy. In addition, 12 of the Orioles' Top 30 prospects were international signees, the most since Elias joined the organization in 2019.

Area scout Donovan O'Dowd was named the Jim Russo Scout of the Year, which is named after the legendary Orioles scout who spent 33 years working for the O's beginning with their move from St. Louis in 1954. O'Dowd joined the Orioles in 2019 and has become a vital piece of the Orioles' scouting operations ever since. O'Dowd scouts primarily in the Northeast region, ranging from Virginia to Maine. Some of his recent signees include two of the Orioles top three draft picks from the 2024 First-Year Player Draft, Griff O'Ferrall (Virginia) and Ethan Anderson (Virginia), as well as undrafted free agents Trey Gibson (Liberty) and TT Bowens (Central Connecticut State).

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC BASEBALL ACADEMY

On January 16, 2024, the Orioles officially opened their new state-of-the-art Baltimore Orioles Dominican Republic Baseball Academy. The 22.5-acre complex is home to the Orioles' regional facility for Caribbean, Central, and South American player development operations, which includes three full fields, a sports-turf agility field, batting and pitching tunnels, administrative buildings, dormitories, and educational facilities. The complex houses more than 100 players, coaches, and staff, providing dormitory-style rooms and entertainment spaces, and features three classrooms and a computer lab, which provides on-site learning and an education plan for each player, as well as a dining room that offers daily nutritious meals.

The project was led by landowner and developer Brian Mejia of Brison SRL. The Orioles were represented by renowned Dominican academy architect, José Mella. Mella is considered one of the foremost training facility architects in the Dominican Republic and has designed around half of the current academies in the DR today.

Among those in attendance for the opening ceremony were Dominican Republic President Luis Abinader, Dominican Republic Vice Minister of Sports Elvis Duarte, and Dominican Republic Commissioner of Baseball Junior Noboa, along with Orioles Executive Vice President and General Manager Mike Elias, Orioles Vice President of International Scouting and Operations Koby Perez, and 2023 AL Manager of the Year Brandon Hyde. In addition to the several dignitaries in attendance, 2023 Mariano Rivera AL Reliever of the Year Félix Bautista, along with Orioles alumni including National Baseball Hall of Famer Vladimir Guerrero Sr., Hanser Alberto, Daniel Cabrera, Nelson Cruz, Radhames Liz, Melvin Mora, and Ubaldo Jiménez, also attended the ceremony.

ORIOLES IN THE INTERNATIONAL MARKET

Since Executive Vice President and General Manager Mike Elias and Vice President, International Scouting and Operations Koby Perez joined the organization in the 2018-19 offseason, the Orioles have completely revitalized the club's international scouting presence.

During that time, Baltimore has signed two of the largest signing classes in club history in 2019-20 and 2022-23, landed the team's first seven-figure signings in Samuel Basallo and Maikol Hernández in 2020-21, set the franchise record for a bonus given to an international player in Braylin Tavera in 2021-22, and broke that record with the signing of Luis Almeyda in 2022-23. Eleven of the current top 30 O's prospects according to Baseball America are international players signed by the organization, including Basallo (MLB No. 13, O's No. 1), Keeler Morfe (O's No. 14), Luis De León (O's No. 15), Leandro Arias (O's No. 18), Stiven Martinez (No. 19), Aron Estrada (O's No. 21), Thomas Sosa (O's No. 22), Jordan Sanchez (O's No. 23), Joshua Liranzo (O's No. 25), Elvin Garcia (O's No. 27), and Jose Pena (O's No. 28).

HOMER'S ODYSSEY

Jonathan Villar hit his 21st home run of the season on September 11, 2019, against Los Angeles-NL off of LHP Caleb Ferguson. The homer, a three-run shot in the seventh inning that gave the O's a 5-2 lead, was the 6,106th of the 2019 Major League season, surpassing the previous single-season record of 6,105 home runs in 2017. The bat that Villar used to hit the historic home run was sent to the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS

Of the 131 home runs hit onto the Eutaw Street promenade since Oriole Park opened in 1992, Orioles batters have hit 64, including 11 by both Chris Davis and Anthony Santander, the most by an individual. Jason Giambi's three are the most by an opposing player. Santander's four Eutaw Street home runs in 2021 are a single-season ballpark record. He also slugged the 100th Eutaw Street home run in the history of Oriole Park at Camden Yards on June 29, 2019. A season-high 11 homers landed on Eutaw Street in 2012. Luke Scott's blast on July 19, 2008 was the only walk-off Eutaw Street home run in park history until August 11, 2019, when Rio Ruiz clubbed a two-run home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Orioles their first walk-off win of the season. On July 31, 2024, Jackson Holliday became the first Oriole and second player in ballpark history to hit his first career home run onto Eutaw Street, joining Houston's Robbie Grossman on July 31, 2013.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

GENERAL: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 274-254, in their 70-year regular season history...The Orioles have also hit three Postseason grand slams (one on the road and two in Baltimore - one at Memorial Stadium [McNally 1970] and Oriole Park [Bonilla 1996])...They have a 161-140 advantage in Baltimore during the regular season, including an 85-71 edge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

A BIG MONTH: Manny Machado hit three grand slams in August of 2017, becoming the 10th player in Major League Baseball history, and the first in Orioles history, to hit three grand slams in one calendar month.

TWO IN ONE INNING: Steve Clevenger and Nolan Reimold each slugged a grand slam in the bottom of the eighth inning on September 11, 2015, the first set of teammates to each hit a grand slam in the same inning since Carlos Beltran and Cliff Floyd of the New York Mets on July 16, 2006 vs. Chicago-NL.

THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Rangers combined to hit three grand slams on August 6, 1986 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium...Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit fourth-inning grand slams for the Orioles.

TWO IN ONE GAME: An Oriole has hit two grand slams in the same game three times...Chris Hoiles hit a pair of grand slams on August 14, 1998, at Cleveland...Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among four players who have done it in consecutive at bats...Gentile hit slams in the first and second innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961, while Robinson did so in the fifth and sixth innings at Washington on June 26, 1970.

GENTILE HIT FIVE IN 1961: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit five grand slams in 1961...The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with six grand slams in 1987 and Cleveland's Travis Hafner matched the record in 2006.

POSTSEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellas and Dave McNally are the only MLB pitchers to hit a grand slam in Postseason play, and both did it in 1970 with the Orioles...Cuellas connect in Game 1 of the ALCS off the Twins' Jim Perry, the first grand slam by a pitcher in LCS history...McNally hit his in Game 3 of the World Series off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium.

GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up six grand slams as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler...Pappas gave up nine overall in his career, for the sixth-highest total of career grand slams allowed in Major League history...Jake Arrieta, Scott McGregor, Dave McNally, Alan Mills, Jesse Orosco, and Chris Ray are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing four apiece...Jim Palmer never allowed a grand slam in 558 games spanning 3,948.0 innings.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS

Although the Orioles have not had one in the past 39 seasons, Baltimore pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons, including 23 in the past 55 years (starting in '68), more than any other Major League club. The A's (17), Yankees (16), Cardinals (13), Dodgers (13), Red Sox (13), Astros (12), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Tigers (11), Cubs (10), and Twins (10) are the only other teams with 10-or-more since 1968.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau, becoming the second foursome in the history of Major League Baseball to have achieved the feat, joining a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21.

Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19, 1980, en route to a team-record 25 victories. Three other Orioles hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: Dave McNally (August 25) and Mike Cuellar (August 27) in 1971, and Jim Palmer (August 20) in 1975.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore (1954 through 1967), was left-hander Steve Barber in 1963.

GOLD GLOVE AWARDS

The Gold Glove Award was initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league.

Gold Glove totals by each team: Cardinals 98, ORIOLES 72, Yankees 68, Braves 60, Reds 55, Pirates 51, Red Sox 50, Phillies 48, Dodgers 47, Giants 46, Cubs 45, Twins 45, Mariners 44, Tigers 43, Guardians 41, Rangers 41, Angels 40, Royals 40, White Sox 40, Astros 31, Rockies 28, Athletics 27, Blue Jays 27, Padres 24, Expos/Nationals 23, Mets 20, D-backs 19, Brewers 13, Marlins 12, and Rays 9.

A total of 18 Orioles have won Gold Gloves, with 17 winning multiple times, led by Brooks Robinson, who is tied with pitcher Jim Kaat for second place all-time with 16 Gold Gloves. Greg Maddux is first all-time with 18 Gold Gloves. Manny Machado is the last Oriole to win multiple Gold Gloves, earned his second honor in 2015 (also 2013).

Orioles winners include: Paul Blair and Mark Belanger (eight each); Adam Jones, Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich, and Mike Mussina (four each); J.J. Hardy, Davey Johnson, and Eddie Murray (three each); Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Manny Machado, Nick Markakis, Rafael Palmeiro, Cal Ripken, Jr., and Matt Wieters (two each), and Ramón Urías. Alomar won a total of 10 Gold Gloves in his career, Aparicio won nine total, Mussina seven total, and Palmeiro three total.

SILVER SLUGGER AWARDS

The Silver Slugger Award was initiated at the end of the 1980 season by Hillerich & Bradsby, the maker of Louisville Slugger bats, to honor the best offensive player at each position by a vote of managers and coaches around the league.

A total of 16 Orioles have won Silver Sluggers, with three winning multiple times, led by Cal Ripken, Jr., with eight. Anthony Santander (OF) is the last Oriole to earn a Silver Slugger, doing so in 2024. Gunnar Henderson (UT) and Adley Rutschman (C) earned their first career Silver Sluggers in 2023. Henderson became the first Orioles rookie to earn the honor and first O's player to win a Silver Slugger at the utility position, which was introduced in 2022. Of the 24 Silver Sluggers in O's history, 11 have been won by a shortstop.

Orioles winners include: Cal Ripken, Jr. (eight); Eddie Murray and Miguel Tejada (two each); Roberto Alomar, Chris Davis, J.J. Hardy, Gunnar Henderson, Aubrey Huff, Adam Jones, Melvin Mora, Cedric Mullins, Rafael Palmeiro, Adley Rutschman, Anthony Santander, Mickey Tettleton, and Mark Trumbo (one each).

ALL-STAR GAME

DYNAMIC DUO: At the 2024 All-Star Game in Arlington, RHP Corbin Burnes and C Adley Rutschman became the first pair of teammates to form the starting battery at the All-Star game since 2016, when San Francisco's Johnny Cueto (P) and Buster Posey (C) did so in San Diego, and the first for the AL since 2006, when Detroit's Kenny Rogers (P) and Iván Rodríguez (C) did so in Pittsburgh. It marked the first time in Orioles history that it happened.

ROOKIE SENSATIONS: RHP Yennier Cano was named to the 2023 American League All-Star team in Seattle, one of four Orioles (RHP Félix Bautista, OF Austin Hays, & C Adley Rutschman)...According to Stats Perform, Cano became the sixth rookie in O's history (since 1954) to be named to the All-Star team, joining LHP John Means (2019), C Andy Etchebarren (1966), RHP Chuck Estrada, 1B Jim Gentile, and INF Ron Hansen (1960).

HE MEANS BUSINESS: LHP John Means was named to the 2019 American League All-Star team as the lone Orioles representative...He became the first homegrown O's starter to make the All-Star team since Hall of Famer Mike Mussina in 1999 in Boston.

DOUBLE-PLAY DUOS: In 2005, INF Brian Roberts and INF Miguel Tejada became the first Orioles teammates to start in the All-Star Game since INF Roberto Alomar and INF Cal Ripken, Jr. each started in 1998...They were the third 2B-SS tandem from the same team to start for the AL since fan balloting returned in 1970, joining New York's INF Willie Randolph and INF Bucky Dent in 1981 along with Alomar and Ripken in 1996.

CAL'S FINALE: INF Cal Ripken, Jr., playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the third inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field...Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles-NL's RHP Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish...It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking INF Brooks Robinson's AL mark; he technically started at shortstop after Texas' INF Alex Rodriguez 'pushed' him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning...With the 2001 home run, he became the oldest player (40) to homer in an All-Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play.

OLDEST AND YOUNGEST: Ripken's appearance in the 2001 All-Star Game in Seattle made him, at 40 years and nearly 11 months, the oldest Oriole to take part in an All-Star Game...Harold Baines was 40 years and 4 months old when he made his sixth and final American League All-Star team with the Orioles in 1999 at Boston's Fenway Park...The youngest Oriole selected to an AL All-Star team was pitcher Jerry Walker, who was 20 years and 5 months old when he was named to the pitching staff for the second of two All-Star games played in 1959...Walker started and went 3.0 innings on the mound in the game, which was played at the Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum.

MOST MOST VALUABLES: Oriole players have won six All-Star Game MVP Awards (now known as the Ted Williams Most Valuable Player Award), tied with the San Francisco Giants for the most among all teams since the award's inception in 1962...Cal Ripken, Jr. was a two-time winner (1991 at Toronto, 2001 at Seattle)...Other Orioles to win the award are Brooks Robinson (1964 at St. Louis), Frank Robinson (1971 at Detroit), Roberto Alomar (1998 at Colorado), and Miguel Tejada (2005 at Detroit)...Ripken is one of five players to win two All-Star Game MVP Awards, along with Willie Mays, Steve Garvey, Gary Carter, and Mike Trout.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: INF Cal Ripken, Jr. was elected to start 18 years (13x at SS, 5x at 3B), 17 of those by fan vote...He was unable to play because of injury in 2000...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are 3B Brooks Robinson (4x); 2B Roberto Alomar and OF Adam Jones (3x); 1B Boog Powell, OF Frank Robinson, and INF Manny Machado (3x at 3B, 1x at SS); and C Terry Kennedy, 2B Bobby Grich, OF Ken Singleton, 1B Eddie Murray, OF Brady Anderson, 2B Brian Roberts, SS Miguel Tejada, 1B Chris Davis, SS J.J. Hardy, and DH Nelson Cruz.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: SS Miguel Tejada's home run in the 2005 game at Detroit was the seventh overall by an Oriole in an All-Star Game...INF Cal Ripken, Jr. also hit two home runs in All-Star Games, in 1991 (July 9 at Toronto off RHP Dennis Martínez, two on) and 2001 (July 10 at Seattle off RHP Chan Ho Park, solo)...The others were by 3B Brooks Robinson (July 11, 1967 at Anaheim off RHP Fergie Jenkins, solo); OF Frank Robinson (July 13, 1971 at Detroit off RHP Dock Ellis, one on); OF Ken Singleton (August 9, 1981 at Cleveland off RHP Tom Seaver, solo); and 2B Roberto Alomar (July 7, 1998 at Colorado off RHP Trevor Hoffman, solo).

BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th Midsummer Classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958 and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Oriole Park in 1993...On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher LHP Billy O'Dell retired the final nine batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...Baltimore's C Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 14 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game...In its second year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever All-Star Week, including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993... The game drew 48,147 fans...INF Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...RHP Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game...FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration...Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout...OF Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and OF Ken Griffey, Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the Home Run Derby.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

HOME RUN DERBY

RUTSCHMAN FLIPS A SWITCH: Adley Rutschman participated in the 2023 T-Mobile Home Run Derby at T-Mobile Park in Seattle, the closest MLB ballpark to his hometown of Sherwood, Ore., and the first MLB park he ever visited...With his father, Randy, pitching, the switch-hitter homered 20 times left-handed in the initial three-minute period in the first round before hitting seven home runs from the right side during the 30-second bonus round...Rutschman fell to Chicago White Sox slugger Luis Robert Jr., who hit 28 homers.

MANCINI'S EPIC PERFORMANCE: Trey Mancini finished as the runner-up in the 2021 T-Mobile Home Run Derby at Coors Field in Colorado behind New York Mets slugger Pete Alonso, who repeated as champion...Mancini, the No. 6 seed, defeated Oakland's Matt Olson (No. 3 seed) in the opening round of the bracket-style format, 24-23, setting a franchise record for the most home runs in a single round...He then defeated Colorado's Trevor Story (No. 7 seed), 13-12, in the semifinals, before falling to No. 5 seed Alonso, 23-22, in the championship round...Mancini's 59 total home runs are the most hit by an Orioles batter in Home Run Derby history...Mancini's pitcher for the Derby was Notre Dame Fighting Irish baseball team assistant coach Chuck Ristano, who also threw to Mancini when he captured the 2012 Big East Home Run Derby.

ORIOLES DERBY WINNERS: A last-minute replacement to the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada set records at the time for home runs in one round (15) and overall (27) to win the contest...He was the second Oriole to win the derby, joining Cal Ripken, Jr., who hit 12 homers at Toronto's SkyDome in 1991.

ORIOLES DERBY PARTICIPANTS: After totaling 28 home runs prior to All-Star Week, Gunnar Henderson participated in the 2024 T-Mobile Home Run Derby at Globe Life Field in Arlington, but was eliminated after belting 11 opening-round homers... Mark Trumbo competed in the 2016 T-Mobile Home Run Derby at Petco Park in San Diego...Trumbo, the No. 1 seed, defeated Corey Seager in the opening round, 16-15, before falling to No. 5 seed and eventual champion Giancarlo Stanton of the Miami Marlins in the semifinals, 17-14...A No. 5 seed in the 2015 Home Run Derby at Great American Ball Park in Cincinnati, Manny Machado was defeated by the Dodgers' Joc Pederson (No. 4 seed) in the first round of the bracket format, 13-12... In 2014, Adam Jones was selected by captain Jose Bautista to represent the AL at Target Field in Minneapolis...After blasting four in the first round, Jones was ousted by Yoenis Cespedes in the second round, finishing with seven home runs total... After leading the majors in homers at the break, Chris Davis took part in the 2013 Home Run Derby at Citi Field in New York, finishing fourth...In addition to winning the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada also took part in the 2006 Home Run Derby in Detroit after declining to participate in the 2005 contest, instead bowing to David Ortiz to represent the Dominican Republic in the revised United States vs. the World format...Rafael Palmeiro also participated in the 2004 Home Run Derby with Tejada, advancing to the semifinals and finishing third with 14 home runs, as well as the 1998 Home Run Derby at Coors Field in Colorado...B.J. Surhoff appeared in the 1999 Home Run Derby at Fenway Park in Boston... Brady Anderson appeared in back-to-back Home Run Derby contests: in 1996 at Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia and 1997 at Jacobs Field in Cleveland...Mickey Tettleton participated in the 1989 Home Run Derby at Anaheim Stadium...Cal Ripken, Jr. and Eddie Murray represented the Orioles in the inaugural Home Run Derby in 1985 at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis...After his win in 1991 at The Skydome in Toronto, Ripken was unable to repeat as Derby champion in the 1992 Home Run Derby at Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego.

POSTSEASON

The Orioles clinched a Wild Card berth in 2024, marking consecutive Postseason appearances for the first time since doing so in 1996 and 1997...Baltimore won the American League East with a league-high 101 wins in 2023, advancing to the Postseason for the first time in six years...Texas swept the O's in the AL Division Series, 3-0, and went on to win the first World Series in franchise history...Baltimore advanced to the playoffs three times over a five year span (2012-16)...The O's earned a berth in the 2016 AL Wild Card Game, where they fell to the Toronto Blue Jays, 5-2, in 11 innings...For the first time since 1997, the Orioles won the AL East in 2014...The Birds swept the Detroit Tigers in the ALDS, 3-0, facing the previous three AL Cy Young award winners at the time (RHP Max Scherzer '13, LHP David Price '12, RHP Justin Verlander '11) before falling to the Kansas City Royals in the ALCS, 4-0...The Orioles advanced to Postseason play in 2012 for the first time since 1997, winning the AL Wild Card Game over Texas in Arlington before losing to the New York Yankees in the ALDS, 3-2...Baltimore reached the playoffs in consecutive seasons in 1996-97, the first time making back-to-back Postseason appearances since 1973-74...In both 1996 and 1997, the Orioles won in the ALDS before losing in the ALCS...In 1997, they beat the Seattle Mariners, 3-1, in the Division Series before losing to the Cleveland Indians, 4-2 in the ALCS...In 1996, they topped the Cleveland Indians, 3-1, in the Division Series and fell to the eventual World Series Champion New York Yankees, 4-1, in the ALCS.

2014

The Orioles finished the season with the second-best record in Major League Baseball at 96-66 and their first American League East division title since 1997. The Birds would draw the American League Central division champion Detroit Tigers in the ALDS, and faced the AL's last three Cy Young Award winners at the time in Max Scherzer, Justin Verlander, and David Price. The Orioles won each of the first two games in Baltimore and took the first game in Detroit to sweep the series 3-0 and advance to the ALCS to take on the Kansas City Royals.

The Orioles dropped each of the first two games in Baltimore to the Royals. The series then shifted to Kansas City where the Royals would pull out 2-1 wins in both Games 3 and 4 to complete the sweep of Baltimore and eliminate the Orioles.

2024

The Orioles finished the season with a 91-71 record, clinching the American League's top Wild Card seed and securing consecutive Postseason berths for the first time since 1996 and 1997. The Birds would play host to the Kansas City Royals in the team's first Wild Card matchup under the new format, which was adopted in 2022. Baltimore dropped both games, scoring one run across the series and extending their Postseason losing streak to 10 straight.

BASEBALL HISTORY IN BALTIMORE

1872 – The Lord Baltimores, the city's first professional team, began play in the National Association. In their inaugural game on April 18 in Washington, they beat the Olympics, 16-0. In their home opener on April 22, before 3,500 fans at Newington Park (on Pennsylvania Avenue below Baker Street), they beat the New York Mutuals, 14-9. The team folded in its third season as a rival franchise, the Maryland Base Ball Club, turned from amateur to professional and took its place in the league through 1874. By 1875, the National Association itself had folded.

1882 – A newly formed Lord Baltimores team made its debut in the American Association, a new rival to the National League. A year later, the franchise moved to newly built Oriole Park (on the southwest corner of what is now Greenmount Avenue and 25th Street) and adopted the name "Orioles," the first time that Maryland's state bird was used as a nickname in association with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

1884 – Two more Baltimore teams were formed. One, also named the Orioles, played in the new Union Association; by mid-season they were transferred to Lancaster, Pa., and the league folded after one season. The other, the Monumentals, became a charter member of the Eastern Association, which would become today's International League, but the team broke up after a mere 13 games.

1892 – Baltimore joined the National League. Games were played at Union Park, a 12,000-seat stadium at the northeast corner of Barclay and 25th Street.

1894-1896 – With innovative Ned Hanlon as manager, the scrappy Orioles won three straight National League pennants, led by future Hall of Famers John McGraw, Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley, Willie Keeler, and Hughie Jennings.

1899 – With most of their star players having been sold to Brooklyn, the Orioles finished their eighth season before folding. There would be no professional team in Baltimore as the new century dawned.

1901 – A new Baltimore Orioles team joined the upstart American League, with John McGraw as manager and an overflow crowd of 10,371 at Opening Day. The Orioles played two seasons in Baltimore before folding. The league awarded a new team to New York to fill the vacancy. That team, the Highlanders, eventually became the New York Yankees.

1903 – A minor league team using the name Baltimore Orioles joined the Eastern League. They were in existence for nine seasons, playing at American League Park, at York Road and 29th Street. The team won the league pennant in 1908 under second-year manager Jack Dunn.

1912 – The minor league Orioles joined the International League. They were a part of the league for the next 42 seasons until Major League Baseball returned.

1914 – A second Baltimore team, the Terrapins (named for an edible type of turtle common to the state of Maryland), entered the newly formed Federal League. The league folded after just two seasons. The team played at Terrapin Park, built on the west side of Greenmount Avenue between 29th and 30th street; two years later, Jack Dunn bought the ballpark and renamed it Oriole Park.

1914 – Jack Dunn, owner, general manager, and manager of the International League Orioles, signed 19-year-old George Herman Ruth out of a Baltimore orphanage. Oriole players kid Dunn about his "babe," and a nickname was born. By July, Babe Ruth was sold to the Boston Red Sox.

1919-1925 – The Orioles, led by Dunn, won a record seven straight International League titles. For five of those years (1920-24), future Hall of Famer Lefty Grove led the pitching staff, going 108-36.

1920s-40s – The city fielded two teams in the Negro Leagues - the Elite Giants and the Black Sox. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella each played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to Major League careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

1944 – After winning the International League title, the Orioles beat Louisville of the American Association to win the Junior World Series. It wasn't easy, however; a fire in the early morning hours of July 4 destroyed Oriole Park, led the team to use Municipal Stadium, a football facility on 33rd Street. One game of the Junior World Series drew 52,833 paid fans, outdrawing each of the World Series games in St. Louis between the Browns and Cardinals and attracted interest from teams in the Major Leagues and professional football.

1953 – The Orioles, owned by Jack Dunn III, played their final season in the International League. After two votes failed, on September 29, American League owners approved the sale of the financially struggling St. Louis Browns franchise to a Baltimore-based consortium led by attorney Clarence W. Miles and brewery owner Jerold C. Hoffberger.

BACK IN THE MAJORS

1954 – Playing in renovated Municipal Stadium (later called Memorial Stadium), Baltimore returned to the Major Leagues and the Orioles returned to the American League after 52 years. After splitting two games in Detroit to begin the season, the Orioles returned to Baltimore by train – arriving, ironically, at Camden Station, just a few yards from the current ballpark – and a lengthy parade through the streets prior to their home opener on April 15. They beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-1, but went on to a 54-100 season.

NOVEMBER 18, 1954 – In a trade that took two weeks to complete, the Orioles and Yankees swapped 18 players as new manager/general manager Paul Richards laid the groundwork for the coming years. The Orioles received 11 players, including catcher Gus Triandos, outfielder Gene Woodling, and Willie Miranda, first in a long line of outstanding defensive shortstops.

1955 – Brooks Robinson was signed; he made his major league debut on September 17 but did not establish himself as the regular third baseman and future Hall of Famer until 1959.

JULY 8, 1958 – Memorial Stadium hosted its first and only All-Star Game. The Orioles' Billy O'Dell retired the last nine batters to preserve a 4-3 win for the American League.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1958 – Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm hurled the first no-hitter in Orioles history, beating the Yankees 1-0 at Memorial Stadium. Two years later, manager Paul Richards introduced the "big mitt" designed to help catchers cut down on passed balls and wild pitches from Wilhelm's knuckleball.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1963 – Steve Barber became the first 20-game winner in club history, beating the Angels, 3-1, in California.

JUNE 1965 – Jerry Hoffberger, whose family was among the original group of owners of the Orioles when it moved to Baltimore, took control of the ballclub as majority owner. He led the club for 14 years, during which the Orioles went to the Postseason six times.

DECEMBER 9, 1965 – The Orioles made arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds for Milt Pappas and two players acquired earlier in the week, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson. New GM Harry Dalton completed the trade, which had begun a month earlier by his predecessor, Lee MacPhail, Jr.

MAY 8, 1966 – Frank Robinson hit the only fair ball ever to leave Memorial Stadium, a shot over the left field bleachers measured at 465 ft. The Orioles later commemorated the event with a flag at the top of the bleachers where the ball left the park, simply saying "HERE."

SEPTEMBER 22, 1966 – Twenty-year-old Jim Palmer pitched a complete game as the Orioles clinch their first American League pennant with a 6-1 win at Kansas City. Palmer won 268 games and three Cy Young Awards in a 19-year career with the Orioles on his way to the Hall of Fame.

1966 – "Would You Believe Four Straight?" The Orioles stunned the baseball world by sweeping the favored Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series. Frank Robinson won the American League triple crown (.316-49-122). Frank, Brooks Robinson, and Boog Powell finished 1-2-3 in the American League MVP voting.

1968 – Longtime minor league manager Earl Weaver was added to the coaching staff at the beginning of the season and, on July 11, was named manager of the Orioles. He went on to post a 1,480-1,060 record in 17 seasons before being elected to the Hall of Fame.

1969-71 – Pitching, three-run homers, and defense stamp Weaver's Orioles, as they captured three straight American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series. Brooks Robinson earned the nickname "Hoover" from future teammate Lee May after showing off his defensive skills in the 1970 series triumph over the Reds.

1973-74 – The Orioles won back-to-back AL East titles, giving them five division titles in six years. However, they were beaten by Oakland in the American League Championship Series both years.

JUNE 15, 1976 – Hank Peters, in his first year as Orioles general manager, began to remake the club with a 10-player trade with the New York Yankees. Future Orioles Hall of Fame members Scott McGregor, Tippy Martinez, and Rick Dempsey came from the Yankees; catcher Elrod Hendricks, who later will be traded and return twice more, was among those sent to New York.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1977 – Memorial Stadium was filled with 51,798 fans on "Thanks, Brooks Day," celebrating the end of the third baseman's 23-year career, all with the Orioles.

JUNE 22, 1979 – Doug DeCinces' two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning capped a monumental comeback against Detroit and gave birth to "Orioles Magic."

1979 – The Orioles won the American League pennant for the fifth time and took a 3-1 lead over Pittsburgh in the World Series, but the Pirates' "fam-i-lee" came back to win the last three games and the World Championship.

NOVEMBER 1, 1979 – American League owners approved the August sale of the Orioles to Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams. The purchase ended both local and public ownership of the club.

AUGUST 10, 1981 – Cal Ripken, Jr. made his major league debut, scoring the winning run as a 12th-inning pinch-runner vs. Kansas City at Memorial Stadium.

1981 – The Orioles' 59-46 record was the best in the American League, but not good enough for the playoffs. Following a mid-year strike, baseball decided to play the season in two halves and the Orioles finished second to New York and Milwaukee in the two halves.

OCTOBER 1-3, 1982 – The Orioles, three games behind Milwaukee with four games to play heading into a final weekend series with the Brewers, took the first three games at Memorial Stadium to force a tie for first. The Brewers spoiled the comeback with a 10-2 win in the season finale. Earl Weaver, who two months earlier had announced retirement at the end of the season, was saluted by 51,462 fans in an emotional celebration and farewell following the game.

1983 – The Orioles lost the first game of the American League Championship Series before coming back to beat the Chicago White Sox in three straight games. They lost the World Series opener to the Philadelphia Phillies before coming back to win four straight for their third World Championship. Cal Ripken, Jr. was named AL MVP (.318-27-102) in a close race over teammate Eddie Murray (.306-33-111).

1988 – The Orioles lost a major league-record 21 consecutive games to start the season.

MAY 2, 1988 – Returning home to Memorial Stadium with a 1-23 record, the Orioles played before 50,402 fans on a Monday night. In a dramatic pre-game announcement, Governor William Donald Schaefer announced that Orioles owner Edward Bennett Williams and the Maryland Stadium Authority agreed on a 15-year lease for a new ballpark to be constructed at Camden Yards for the 1992 season.

DECEMBER 1988 – Investor Eli S. Jacobs bought the Orioles from the estate of Edward Bennett Williams, who passed away in August.

1989 – "Why Not?" was the rallying cry of the young Orioles, who improbably led the AL East into September. They eventually lost at Toronto on the next-to-last day of the season, giving the Blue Jays the division crown.

OCTOBER 6, 1991 – After 38 years, the Memorial Stadium era ended as the Orioles played their last game on 33rd Street. Cal Ripken, Jr. – who added his second MVP Award to the All-Star Game MVP trophy he won mid-season – hit into a game-ending double play, but the 7-1 loss to Detroit did not diminish an emotional "Field of Dreams" celebration afterward as more than 100 former Orioles returned in uniform to take their old positions one last time before 50,700 fans.

APRIL 6, 1992 – Oriole Park at Camden Yards ushered in a new era of "retro ballparks" and the Orioles beat the Indians, 2-0, on Rick Sutcliffe's complete game. The ballpark, on the western edge of downtown, helped revitalize the neighborhood and earned wide acclaim for its architectural design and fan-friendly features.

JULY 13, 1993 – Oriole Park hosted the city's second All-Star Game, following a week-long "All-Star Fan Fest," the first of its kind.

AUGUST 2, 1993 – Baltimore attorney Peter Angelos led a group of investors – most of whom were Baltimoreans – in buying the Orioles at an auction from Eli S. Jacobs. American League owners approved the sale on October 4.

SEPTEMBER 6, 1995 – The Iron Man topped the Iron Horse: Cal Ripken, Jr. surpassed a record once thought unbeatable, playing in his 2,131st consecutive game to pass Lou Gehrig's all-time record. Ripken's homer in the game helped beat the Angels, 4-2.

1995 – The Orioles drew 3,098,475 fans in the strike-shortened season to lead the American League in attendance for the first time in their history. They went on to lead the league in attendance for four straight years.

SEPTEMBER 6, 1996 – Future Hall of Famer Eddie Murray, who returned to the club in a mid-season trade with Cleveland, hit his 500th career home run into the right field seats at Camden Yards.

1996 – A major league-record 10 different Orioles hit at least 10 home runs during the season as the Orioles broke the New York Yankees 35-year-old mark for home runs by a team. The Orioles advanced to the playoffs as the Wild Card team, finishing second in the AL East. They beat Cleveland in the American League Division Series before the Yankees ended the Orioles Postseason hopes in the ALCS.

1997 – The Orioles went wire-to-wire to win the AL East. They beat Seattle in the Division Series before falling in six games to Cleveland in the ALCS.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1998 – Cal Ripken, Jr. ended his consecutive game streak at 2,632, sitting out the Orioles' final home game of the season at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees. Ryan Minor started in his place at third base.

APRIL 15, 2000 – Cal Ripken, Jr. singled at Minnesota's Metrodome off Hector Carrasco for his 3,000th career hit, the first Oriole and 24th player to reach that milestone.

OCTOBER 6, 2001 – Having announced in May his plans to retire at season's end, Cal Ripken, Jr. played his last game as an Oriole before 48,807 fans at Camden Yards. His 21-year career resulted in a first-ballot election to the Hall of Fame.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

JULY 31, 2006 – The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, a regional television channel owned primarily by the Orioles, began 24-hour programming. The network is the rightsholder for both Orioles and Washington Nationals games.

NOVEMBER 12, 2008 – The Orioles unveiled their new road uniform with a script "Baltimore" across the chest. The Orioles' road uniform had featured a script "Orioles" across the chest since 1973.

OCTOBER 5, 2012 – The Orioles and Rangers met in the first American League Wild Card "play-in" game at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington. The Orioles won 5-1 to advance to the ALDS, where they fell in five games to the Yankees.

2013 – Chris Davis homered for the 51st time on September 17 at Boston, breaking Brady Anderson's club record set in 1996. Davis added two more before season's end, finishing with 53. The Orioles finished with a .991 fielding percentage, the best in major league history.

SEPTEMBER 16, 2014 – With an 8-2 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays, the Orioles secured their ninth AL East Division title in team history, marking the third time the club had clinched in Baltimore, the first time since 1979, and the first division clinch with a win in Baltimore since 1969.

OCTOBER 5, 2014 – The Orioles swept the Detroit Tigers with a 2-1 victory in Game 3 of the American League Division Series to advance to the ALCS for the first time since 1997, where they fell to the Kansas City Royals in four games.

APRIL 29, 2015 – Citing the need for local resources to be better utilized during a period of unrest in Baltimore, the Orioles played an unprecedented game without fans against the Chicago White Sox after closing the contest to the public. The Orioles went on to win, 8-2.

JUNE 16, 2015 – Seven different Orioles combined to slug a club record eight home runs against the Philadelphia Phillies, surpassing the previous club mark of seven. Chris Davis' fourth inning blast was his seventh career home run to land on Eutaw Street, the most such home runs in Oriole Park history by an individual player. He hit his eighth career Eutaw Street home run on August 14, 2015 vs. Oakland, and has 11 career Eutaw Street home runs.

JUNE 28, 2015 – In the second game of a doubleheader against Cleveland, the Orioles recorded their 5,000th regular season victory in club history.

AUGUST 1, 2015 – Outfielder Gerardo Parra became the 1,000th player to appear in a game for the Orioles since the team moved to Baltimore in 1954.

OCTOBER 4, 2016 – The Orioles advanced to Postseason play for the third time in five seasons, and met the Toronto Blue Jays in the American League Wild Card Game. The Blue Jays defeated the Orioles, 5-2, in 11 innings at Rogers Centre.

AUGUST 5, 2017 – The Orioles reached 10,000 regular season home runs in Orioles history (since 1954) against Detroit, when Tim Beckham connected for a solo home run in the eighth inning off of Edward Mujica.

2018 – The Orioles finished the season with a franchise-worst 115 losses, posting a record of 47-115 (.290) and 61 games behind first-place Boston.

2019 – The Orioles finished the season with over 100 losses for the second consecutive year, posting a record of 54-108 (.333) and 49 games behind first-place New York-AL. On June 3, the Orioles selected catcher Adley Rutschman from Oregon State University with the No. 1 overall selection of the 2019 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. On July 25 at Los Angeles-AL, Stevie Wilkerson became the first position player to record a save since the save became an official statistic in 1969.

2020 – Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Orioles played a 60-game regular season schedule, the fewest in the club's history.

2021 – Following the pandemic-shortened season, fans returned to Oriole Park at Camden Yards for the first time in 557 days for the club's home opener on April 8. After missing the entire 2020 season battling stage III colon cancer, Trey Mancini took the field to a standing ovation from the Birdland faithful. Cedric Mullins went on to become the first player in Orioles history (since 1954) to record 30 home runs and 30 stolen bases in a single season.

2022 – Adley Rutschman broke the record for doubles by an O's rookie and by an Orioles catcher in one season, while Anthony Santander tied an MLB record by homering from both sides of the plate in the same game four times in a single year. On July 17, Jackson Holliday became the third No. 1 overall selection by Baltimore in club history when he was drafted out of Stillwater (OK) High School.

2023 – The Orioles clinched their first AL East Division title since 2014 and advanced to the Postseason for the first time since 2016. Brandon Hyde won BBWAA AL Manager of the Year after leading the O's to the best record in the AL and became only the second manager in team history with 100 wins in a season. Gunnar Henderson set franchise rookie records with 66 extra-base hits, 100 runs, and a .489 slugging percentage, earning unanimous BBWAA AL Rookie of the Year in the process. Executive Vice President and General Manager Mike Elias was named MLB Executive of the Year. The pitching staff set a club record with 1,431 strikeouts.

2024 – The Orioles secured consecutive Postseason berths for the first time since doing so in 1996 and 1997. With a 91-71 record, it also marked the first time the Orioles had 90 wins in back-to-back seasons since 1982 (94) and 1983 (98). Gunnar Henderson set the Orioles single season home run record for a shortstop with 37 homers, breaking the previous mark of 34 set by Cal Ripken, Jr. (1991) and Miguel Tejada (2004).

ORIOLES IN THE NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

There are currently six players and/or managers enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y. as Orioles (induction year in parenthesis):

Cal Ripken, Jr., SS (2007)
Eddie Murray, 1B (2003)
Earl Weaver, Manager (1996)
Jim Palmer, RHP (1990)
Brooks Robinson 3B (1983)
Frank Robinson OF (1982)

In 2007, Cal Ripken, Jr. received 98.53 percent of the vote total (537 of the 545 ballots cast) by eligible members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. At the time, it was the third-highest percent of the vote total in the history of the Hall of Fame, behind only Tom Seaver (98.84% in 1992) and Nolan Ryan (98.79% in 1999).

All five players to be inducted into the Hall of Fame as Orioles were elected in their first year of eligibility (Earl Weaver was selected as a manager by the Veterans Committee).

Additionally, there are 17 other modern-day players, managers, and front office executives with ties to the Orioles organization that have been inducted into the Hall of Fame (induction year in parenthesis):

Mike Mussina, RHP (2019)
Harold Baines, OF (2019)
Lee Smith, RHP (2019)
Vladimir Guerrero, RF (2018)
Jim Thome, 1B (2018)
Tim Raines, Sr., LF (2017)
John Schuerholz, Executive (2017)
Roberto Alomar, 2B (2011)
Pat Gillick, Executive (2011)

Whitey Herzog, Manager (2010)
Dick Williams, Manager (2008)
Lee MacPhail, Executive (1998)
Reggie Jackson, RF (1993)
Hoyt Wilhelm, RHP (1985)
Luis Aparicio, SS (1984)
George Kell, 3B (1983)
Robin Roberts, RHP (1976)

In addition to the 12 former Orioles players that have been inducted as members of other organizations, three executives and two managers that have spent time with the Orioles have also been enshrined in Cooperstown:

Pat Gillick, who played for the Orioles as a minor leaguer and later served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1995-98, was elected by the Veterans Committee and was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2011.

Dick Williams, who had three different tenures as a player with the Orioles in the late 1950s and early 1960s, was named a 2008 inductee to the Hall of Fame as a manager after managing 21 years in the Major Leagues with six different teams, winning four league titles and two world championships.

Lee MacPhail, who served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1959-65, was inducted into the Hall of Fame as an executive by the Veterans Committee in 1998. His son, Andy, would serve as the President of Baseball Operations with the Orioles from 2007-11.

Whitey Herzog was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame as a manager, but played for the Orioles from 1961-62.

John Schuerholz, a member of the Orioles front office from 1966-68, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame by the Today's Game Era Committee as part of the 2017 class. Schuerholz currently serves as vice chairman, emeritus of the Atlanta Braves and spent 26 years as a Major League Baseball general manager from 1982-2007 with the Kansas City Royals and Braves.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

FIve former Orioles broadcasters have won the Ford C. Frick Award, presented annually to a broadcaster for major contributions to baseball:

Jon Miller (2010)
Herb Carneal (1996)
Bob Murphy (1994)
Chuck Thompson (1993)
Ernie Harwell (1981)

NATIVE MARYLANDERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Currently, 11 members of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum have been born in Maryland: Harold Baines (Easton), John Schuerholz (Baltimore), Bowie Kuhn (Takoma Park), Cal Ripken, Jr. (Havre de Grace), Vic Willis (Elkton), Al Kaline (Baltimore), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Frank "Home Run" Baker (Trappe), Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing), and George Herman "Babe" Ruth (Baltimore).

Additionally, of the 11 members of the Hall of Fame to be born in Maryland, five once played for the Orioles. Cal Ripken, Jr. (1981-2001) and Harold Baines (1993-95, 1997-99, 2000) played for Baltimore, while Frank "Home Run" Baker (1907), Lefty Grove (1920-24), and Babe Ruth (1914) all played for the International League Orioles.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

BALTIMORE TIES TO THE HALL OF FAME

Along with the modern-day Orioles in the Baseball Hall of Fame, several other players and managers with Orioles connections throughout Baltimore's rich baseball heritage have been enshrined in Cooperstown, N.Y. (induction year in parenthesis):

Wilbert Robinson, Manager (1945)
Rogers Hornsby, 2B (1942)
Wee Willie Keeler, OF (1939)
John McGraw, Manager (1937)
George Herman "Babe" Ruth, OF (1936)

HALL OF FAME GAME

The Orioles made their sixth scheduled appearance in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown's Double Day Field on May 14, 2007. It turned out to be the last Hall of Fame Game played; the 2008 game between the Padres and Cubs was rained out, and the game was discontinued after that. The Orioles went 3-2 in Hall of Fame Games, with one postponed by rain. The results:

1998 - Orioles 7, Toronto Blue Jays 1
1990 - Orioles vs. Montreal Expo (ppd, rain)
1967 - Orioles 3, Cincinnati Reds 0
1961 - LA Dodgers 6, Orioles 2

ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates, and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates, and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75 percent of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years, but ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least three years. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

Last inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame were former Orioles outfielder Nick Markakis, former hitting coach and first baseman/designated hitter Terry Crowley, and longtime former Orioles scout Dick Bowie in 2024. Markakis spent the first nine years of his 15-year career in Baltimore after being selected with the seventh overall pick of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft. He ranks among the all-time Orioles leaders in doubles (6th, 316), hits (7th, 1,547), extra-base hits (8th, 473), runs (9th, 749), and RBI (10th, 658). He won two of his three career Gold Gloves in right field with the O's (2011 & 2014). His .994 fielding percentage ranks first all-time among MLB right fielders. He was voted Most Valuable Oriole in 2007 after leading the team in average (.300), slugging (.485), OPS (.848), home runs (23), doubles (43), RBI (112), and hits (191).

Crowley had a 15-year playing career, mostly as a first baseman/designated hitter and pinch hitter. He spent 12 seasons with the Orioles and also played for Atlanta, Cincinnati, and Montreal. He was the first designated hitter in Orioles history on April 6, 1973. He appeared in three World Series as a player, two with the Orioles and one with the Reds, winning a title with each club. He also won a ring as hitting coach of the World Champion Twins in 1991. After stepping down as hitting coach following the 2010 season, Crowley continued to work in an advisory capacity with the Orioles through 2018.

The Orioles Hall of Fame currently has 60 former players, coaches, and managers.

"WILD BILL" HAGY AWARD

On August 20, 2007, the Orioles lost one of their most passionate fans with the passing of William G. "Wild Bill" Hagy. Leading cheers from "The Roar from 34" at Memorial Stadium, "Wild Bill" became a Baltimore institution, contorting his body to spell out "O-R-I-O-L-E-S" from the upper deck – and sometimes coming down to lead the crowd in cheers from atop the dugout.

Upon his passing, the Orioles and the Oriole Advocates announced the creation of an award to honor the team's top fans, to be named The Wild Bill Hagy Award. The award will expand the Orioles Hall of Fame categories to include fans who have demonstrated an exceptional commitment in support of the team in the tradition of Wild Bill, who rooted for the club year in and year out. Appropriately, Hagy was named the first recipient of the award.

On July 28, 2020, Mossila "Mo" Gaba was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame as the second-ever recipient of The Wild Billy Hagy Award. The Orioles honored Mo as one of the most passionate and devoted fans in franchise history.

Mo, who passed away the night of his election to the Hall of Fame, began calling in to 105.7 The Fan's sports programming in 2015 at the age of nine. Unbeknownst to his mother, Sonsy, he would call in on afternoons when he got home from school to share his unparalleled knowledge of Baltimore sports with local fans and radio listeners. Despite losing his eyesight due to a malignant tumor when he was just nine months old and enduring four different battles with cancer throughout his life, his infectious laughter and enthusiasm quickly captured the hearts of local sports fans, making him a Baltimore celebrity and a household name.

Mo regularly made appearances at Orioles games and events, including in 2017, when he threw out the ceremonial first pitch as part of Kids' Opening Day, and in 2019, when his "Play Ball!" call on Kids' Opening Day officially marked the start of a new season. After inspiring countless fans and Baltimoreans with his positivity, PressBox recognized Mo as the 2019 Sportsperson of the Year.

Mo's positive energy was constant throughout every battle and brought the entire city of Baltimore together in the face of ongoing crisis. His unwavering positivity and kindness were qualities every Baltimorean aspires to emulate. Mo Gaba impacted more people in his 14 years than most people do in an entire lifetime, and the Orioles are honored to forever celebrate him as a member of the Orioles Hall of Fame.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ball club, the community, or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager, and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during the Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

The most recent winner of the Herb Armstrong Award was Dick Bowie in 2024. Bowie joined the Orioles as an associate scout in 1958 and was made a full-time area scout in 1968. He served 13 years as a full-time scout and was also Mid-Atlantic supervisor from 1978 until his passing on August 31, 1981. Bowie recommended the team sign Orioles Legend and National Baseball Hall of Famer Cal Ripken, Jr. as an infielder, while others who scouted him viewed him only as a pitcher. He also discovered Orioles Hall of Famer Al Bumbry playing college basketball and signed Larry Sheets, among more than 100 other players. Bowie was named to the inaugural class of the Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame in 1990.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE

Infielder Gunnar Henderson was voted the winner of the 2024 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award. He is the 14th Oriole to earn the honor multiple times and the eighth to do so in at least two straight seasons, along with Adam Jones (2011-12), Eddie Murray (5, 1981-85), Rafael Palmeiro (1995-96), Jim Palmer (1972-73), Boog Powell (1969-70), Cal Ripken, Jr. (1990-91), and Frank Robinson (1966-67).

Henderson slashed .281/.364/.529 (177-for-630) with 31 doubles, seven triples, 37 home runs, 118 runs, 92 RBI, 78 walks (1 IBB), and 21 stolen bases in 159 games. He led the Orioles in batting average, on-base percentage, slugging percentage, OPS (.893), runs scored, hits, doubles, triples, extra-base hits (75), and total bases (333). He ranked among American League leaders in walks (3rd), runs scored (4th), total bases, (T-4th), triples (T-4th), hits (6th), homers (6th), extra-base hits (T-6th), OPS (7th), on-base percentage (8th), and slugging percentage (8th). His runs scored are tied for the fourth most by an Oriole all-time with Al Bumbry (1980) and the most by an Oriole since Roberto Alomar set the club record with 132 in 1996. He is the sixth player in O's history (since 1954) to score 100 runs in back-to-back seasons after scoring exactly 100 times in 2023, joining Brady Anderson (2, 1995-96), Jones (2, 2012-13), Manny Machado (2, 2015-16), Ripken, Jr. (3, 1983-85), and Brian Roberts (3, 2007-09). His 10 leadoff home runs ranked second in MLB behind Philadelphia's Kyle Schwarber (15) and were the second most in a single season in Orioles history (since 1954), trailing only Anderson's 12 in 1996. He became the fourth Oriole with a 30/20 season, joining Cedric Mullins (2021), Machado (2015), and Anderson (1996).

On September 4th, Henderson blasted his 35th home run of the season, setting the franchise record for the most home runs in a single season by an Orioles shortstop in franchise history. The previous record of 34 homers was held by Ripken, Jr. (1991) and Miguel Tejada (2004).

The Alabama native led the O's and ranked fifth in MLB with an 8.0 Fangraphs Wins Above Replacement (fWAR). That was tied for the sixth highest in team history and the best mark since Ripken, Jr. set the club record with 10.6 in 1991. His 9.1 Baseball Reference WAR (bWAR) was the third best by an Oriole in a season behind Ripken, Jr. (11.5 in 1991; 10.0 in 1984).

The 23-year-old infielder appeared in 159 games, all at shortstop. His five Defensive Runs Saved were second on the Orioles, according to Sports Info Solutions. He was the best O's baserunner with three Runner Runs, a metric designed to evaluate the performance of runners taking extra bases, per Statcast.

Henderson was selected AL Player of the Week for the period of September 2-8, the second such award of his career.

The MVO Award was initiated when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. The award is named in honor of the late Lou Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Baltimore Sun for 27 years. The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the Orioles on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994. Fourteen players - Murray (seven), Ripken, Jr. (four), Brooks Robinson (four), Jones (three), Palmiero (three), Robinson (three), Ken Singleton (three), and Chris Davis, Henderson, Stu Miller, Palmer, Powell, Roberts, and Tejada (two) - have won the award more than once.

EARL WEAVER

4

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl Weaver currently ranks 26th in victories and his .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks eighth on the all-time list of those who managed 10-or-more seasons in the Majors.

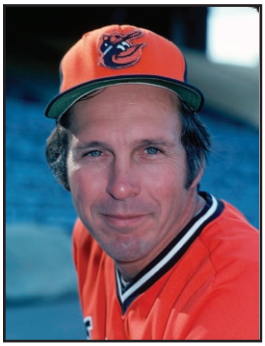

Weaver was a minor league second baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as a first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won six AL East titles, four AL pennants, and one World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Weaver's Orioles won 100 games or more five times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors three times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended one game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1½ years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as a manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Weaver passed away on January 19, 2013, at age 82. His widow, Marianna, lives in Pembroke Pines, Fla.

BROOKS ROBINSON

5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive Opening Day games. He won the American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and holds the record for most Gold Gloves by a position player with 16. His election to Baseball's Hall of Fame (in his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Robinson played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken, Jr. among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases, and extra-base hits. In addition to his American League MVP Award in 1964 and his World Series MVP Award in 1970, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in 1960, 1962, 1964, and co-winner in 1971 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an American League player in 1977. In 2016, Robinson was honored at the annual Rawlings Gold Glove Award ceremony with a Lifetime Achievement Award. In 2020, he was awarded the Bob Feller Act of Valor Award for his integrity and honorable service as an Ordnance Parts Specialist in the Army National Guard in response to the Vietnam War.

Robinson holds six Major League fielding records and seven American League records for third basemen, including 2,697 putouts. He is 16th on the all-time list of games played (fourth in the AL) and fourth in games played with one team.

He served as a Special Advisor and Community Liaison for the Orioles from 2018 until his passing on September 26, 2023, at age 86.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Robinson is survived by his wife, Connie, and four children.

CAL RIPKEN, JR.

8

Baseball's all-time Iron Man, Cal Ripken, Jr. spent his entire 21-year career with the Orioles and was inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2007 in his first year of eligibility. He is one of only 12 players in history with both 400 HR and 3,000 hits, along with Hank Aaron, Adrián Beltré, Miguel Cabrera, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Rafael Palmeiro, Albert Pujols, Alex Rodriguez, Dave Winfield, and Carl Yastrzemski. In 2001, his final season, he was elected to his 19th All-Star Game, breaking the AL record for most times as an All-Star – a record previously held by Brooks Robinson. He earned two All-Star Game MVP Awards (1991 and 2001), two American League MVP Awards (1983 and 1991), American League Rookie of the Year honors (1982), two Gold Gloves, and eight Silver Slugger awards, all at shortstop.

Ripken broke the said-to-be-unbreakable record for consecutive games played set by Lou Gehrig, passing Gehrig's mark of 2,130 games on September 6, 1995. Ripken went on to play in 2,632 consecutive games before sitting on September 20, 1998.

Following the 1999 season, he was named as one of two shortstops (with Ernie Banks) on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, selected by fans and an expert panel. Extremely active in community endeavors, he won the Roberto Clemente Award (1992) and the initial Bart Giamatti Caring Award (1990), among many other honors.

Following his legendary playing career Ripken entered the business world and enjoyed tremendous success. Having divested from two successful businesses, his energy is squarely on the Orioles and his family's non-profit, the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation. The Ripken Foundation was established in 2001 in honor of the Ripken family patriarch, Cal Ripken, Sr. Since its inception, the foundation has reached more than 13 million young people across the country. In the last year alone, the foundation has impacted 1.4 million at-risk youth in 43 states, Washington, DC and the U.S. Virgin Islands. They achieve this through impactful programs such as Badges for Baseball, the construction and donation of multi-purpose Youth Development Parks that give kids safe places to play and learn, and the creation of STEM Centers and corresponding curriculum in elementary and middle schools nationwide. The Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation works with 824 youth partners and law enforcement agencies engaged in 331 cities and towns as well as 40,000 coaches, law enforcement officers, teachers, volunteers, and other mentors. The foundation has opened 644 fully operational STEM Centers in 25 states and D.C., impacting nearly 300,000 youth with the help of over sixteen thousand mentors and teachers and 118 Youth Development Parks in 27 states. In 2015, Ripken was named Major League Baseball Special Advisor on Youth Programs and Outreach by Commissioner Robert D. Manfred and since 2007, Cal has served as a Special Envoy to the US State Department. In that role, has made goodwill trips to China, Japan, Nicaragua and the Czech Republic. Prior to the 2024 season, Ripken helped usher in the next chapter of Orioles baseball, joining the club's ownership group led by David M. Rubenstein.

Ripken lives in Annapolis, Maryland with his wife, the Honorable Laura Ripken, a judge in the Appellate Court of Maryland.

FRANK ROBINSON

Frank Robinson's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all time in numerous statistical categories. He hit 586 home runs, 10th on the all-time list. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player (1966-71), coach (1979-80 and 85-87), manager (1988-91), and assistant general manager (1991-95).

The trade that brought Robinson from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the American League and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series four times in his six seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the 1971 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Robinson was the National League Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and was the first player to win MVP honors in both leagues (1961 NL, 1966 AL), a feat matched by Shohei Ohtani in 2024 (LAD) and 2021 (LAA). He played in 14 All-Star Games and was MVP of the 1971 Midsummer Classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in Major League history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. In addition to the Indians (1975-77), he managed the San Francisco Giants (1981-84), the Orioles (1988-91), and the Montreal Expos-Washington Nationals (2002-06).

Robinson was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 1982. On February 2, 2015, Robinson was named by Baseball Commissioner Robert D. Manfred, Jr. as Senior Advisor and the new Honorary President of the American League.

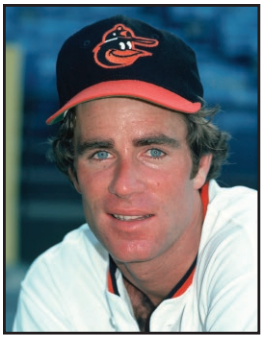

Robinson passed away on February 7, 2019, at the age of 83. His widow, Barbara, lives in Los Angeles.

JIM PALMER

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim Palmer won 268 games in a 19-year career, all with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a four-year span (1973, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is fourth on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched in the live-ball era (1920-present).

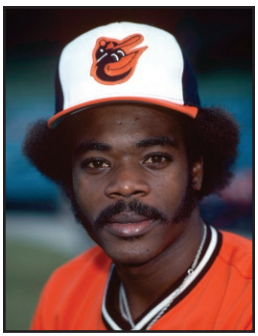

Palmer won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only six pitchers who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a nine-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of three decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 postseason appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the American League's starting pitcher four times.

Palmer was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 30th season as an analyst on Orioles televised games and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN. On January 12, 2012, Palmer was awarded the Player Lifetime Achievement Award by the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation.

Palmer and his wife, Susan, live in Corona del Mar, Calif. with their son, Spencer. His oldest daughter, Jamie, lives in Cotuit, Mass., with her husband, Paul. Palmer's younger daughter, Kelly, lives in Trophy Club, Texas, with her husband, David, and their twins, Maxine and Henri.

EDDIE MURRAY

33

Eddie played 12½ of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Murray, Hank Aaron, Miguel Cabrera, Willie Mays, Rafael Palmeiro, Albert Pujols, and Alex Rodriguez are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits.

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 Major League seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in modern-day history and ranks 10th all-time in RBI. Murray was named to eight All-Star teams, seven as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better seven times, including five times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' "triple crown" five times, leading the club in average, homers, and RBI. He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, the second most in history behind Pete Rose. He also appeared in 2,413 games as a first baseman, the most by a first baseman in Major League history.

Murray broke in as the American League Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole seven times (twice sharing the award with Ripken).

He currently serves as a Special Advisor and Community Liaison for the Orioles.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Murray's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the New York Mets, Cleveland Indians, and Los Angeles Angels, and was an Orioles coach for four seasons, 1998-2001. He also served as the hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians and Los Angeles Dodgers. A three-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the Major League record for games played and career assists by a first baseman. Murray has two daughters, Jordan and Jessica, and lives in his hometown of Los Angeles.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

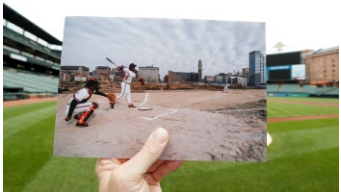

THE BALLPARK THAT FOREVER CHANGED BASEBALL™

When Oriole Park at Camden Yards (OPACY) opened on April 6, 1992, a new era of Major League Baseball began. The park was brand new, but still old-fashioned. State-of-the-art, yet quaint. At less than a day old, it was already a classic.

OPACY inspired a generation of ballpark construction. No longer would communities across America build multipurpose stadiums devoid of character, surrounded by vast parking lots. Ballparks would now be created to nestle neatly into existing and historic neighborhoods and play key roles in the revitalization of urban America.

Oriole Park is unique, traditional, and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the Upper Deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural turfgrass are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900s.

In the 33 years that have followed, OPACY has been one of the leading catalysts for year-round tourism in Baltimore and Maryland. The downtown attraction has welcomed more than 78 million fans, including individuals from all 50 states and more than 100 countries. The city of Baltimore and the entire state of Maryland have derived more than $10 billion in economic impact from fans who have attended Orioles games over the last 33 seasons, as well as from the millions more who have participated in major concerts, festivals, meetings, tours, and community events that have been held at the ballpark.

OPACY captured the nation's attention from day one and in the seasons that followed has served as the standard by which all new ballparks are measured. Citizens of Baltimore and across the Mid-Atlantic region, as well as Orioles fans everywhere, should take great pride in the fact that their team makes its home in The Ballpark That Forever Changed Baseball™. In December 2023, the Orioles agreed to a partnership with the State of Maryland, Governor Wes Moore, and the Maryland Stadium Authority that will keep the Orioles at Camden Yards for thirty more years. The deal represents the commitment by the Orioles organization to the City of Baltimore, the fans, and the desire to reinvigorate the area in and around the ballpark and the downtown corridor.

Designed by the architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata + Kassabaum (HOK), with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA), the construction of the Oriole Park at Camden Yards was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began on June 28, 1989, in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the city's Inner Harbor and only two blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary slugger, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street and Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park.

OPACY QUICK FACTS

Seating Capacity: 44,487
Equal Access Seats: More than 400
Parking Capacity: Approximately 4,000
Ground Breaking: June 28, 1989
Project Cost: $110 million
First Game: April 6, 1992
Surface: 100% Kentucky bluegrass
Elevation: 16 feet below sea level

FIELD DIMENSIONS:
Left Field Pole: 333 feet
Left Field: 373 feet
Center Field: 410 feet
Right Center: 373 feet
Right Field: 318 feet
Height of Left Field Wall: 8 feet
Height of Right Field Wall: 21 feet

BALLPARK ENHANCEMENTS: Prior to the 2025 season, the Orioles adjusted the measurements of the left field wall, moving it in by 11 feet in left field and as much as 21 feet in left center field, with varied increments at different points along the wall. The wall was also lowered by five feet in left field and six feet, one inch in left center field. Prior to the 2022 season, the Orioles adjusted the measurements of the left field wall, pushing it back as much as 30 feet in varying increments at different points in the wall, and raising the height by approximately five feet.

In an effort to enhance one of the most unique fan experiences in all of professional sports, prior to the 2025 season, the Orioles expanded the Bird Bath Splash Zone to include both Sections 84 and 86. Located in leftcenter field, the Bird Bath Splash Zone debuted in Section 86 on May 12, 2023. An idea that came directly from the players in the clubhouse, the Bird Bath Splash Zone played off the team's on-field extra-base hit and home run celebrations with Mr. Splash hosing down fans at key moments in the game.

Prior to the 2023 season, the Orioles retail partner, Fanatics, officially overtook all in-venue retail locations, including a revamp of the Orioles Team Store located on Eutaw Street.

In a continued effort to create the most family-friendly atmosphere in sports, the Orioles extended protective netting at OPACY down each foul line to near each foul pole in August 2019. Protective netting was also extended to near the foul poles at Ed Smith Stadium prior to the start of 2020 Spring Training.

The natural surface of the warning track, installed in 2013 to replace the original rubberized warning track from 1992, is composed of crushed stone, matching the color of the brick that appears throughout the ballpark and on the Warehouse.

FOOD & BEVERAGE: The Orioles introduced the Birdland Value Menu prior to the 2025 season. The menu features more than 12 food and drink items, including adult beverages, with 11 of those items priced at $5 or less. The Birdland Value Menu was created to allow for a more affordable experience at the ballpark.

Prior to the 2023 season, the Orioles announced a new partnership with Levy, the market leader in creating unforgettable hospitality experiences at sports and entertainment venues, to create "Brick & Whistle Food Co.," providing fans with a one-of-a-kind, exclusive hospitality experience that is synonymous with the historic Baltimore Orioles brand. The partnership includes incorporating iconic tastes of Baltimore and the Chesapeake Bay, upgrading technology to allow faster and frictionless checkout options, and new culinary training opportunities for up-and-coming hospitality talent.

LEED CERTIFICATION: In 2018, after a multi-year effort of research and enhancements, the U.S. Green Building Council awarded OPACY with the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold Certification for an existing building. The accompanying B&O Warehouse was also awarded with LEED Silver.

B&O WAREHOUSE BUILDING: Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate and houses office space for the Orioles as well as banquet facilities and the ballpark's central kitchen. Built between 1898 and 1905, the Warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1,016 feet and is only 51 feet wide.

WAREHOUSE LIGHTS: Throughout the year, the Orioles show their support for numerous causes by lighting the lights on the front of the Warehouse in specific colors, including rainbow colors to show support for LGBTQ+ community during Pride Month, among others.

EUTAW STREET: The ballpark and Warehouse are separated by a 60-foot wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street, which gives access to the Orioles Team Store, concession locations, and various plaques and displays, including markings for every home run ball to hit Eutaw Street.

FOUL POLES: Both the left and right field foul poles are the original poles used while the Orioles played at Memorial Stadium.

SEAT FEATURES: Every aisle seat in the park includes a reproduction of the 125-year-old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890s, a National League team that won consecutive pennants from 1894-96.

ATTENDANCE INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE MILESTONES: The Orioles celebrated two attendance milestones in 2008. The first came on August 19, 2008, as the O's welcomed Kevin Gracie, a law school student from Ellicott City, Md., as their designated 50 millionth fan to attend a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Opened in 1992, Oriole Park was the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50-million fan milestone in the history of baseball, a record that stood until the San Francisco Giants broke the mark at AT&T Park during the 2015 season. In its first 17 seasons, Oriole Park at Camden Yards hosted the third-most fans in baseball, trailing only Dodger Stadium and Yankee Stadium.

Less than a week later, on August 23, 2008, the 100 millionth fan in franchise history (since 1954) entered the gates at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Velma Greene, a middle school teacher from Harpers Ferry, W. Va., was designated as the milestone fan. In 71 seasons and 5,246 regular season dates between Memorial Stadium and Camden Yards, 128,426,711 fans have watched the Orioles play in Baltimore.

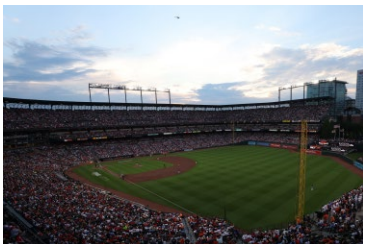

The Orioles have drawn a total of 78,581,123 fans in 2,530 regular season dates in 33 seasons at Oriole Park, surpassing the total attendance from 1954 through 1991 at Memorial Stadium. In 38 seasons at the old ballpark on 33rd Street, the club drew 49,845,588 in 2,716 dates, an average of 18,353 fans per game. The O's have averaged 31,060 fans per game in 2,530 dates at Oriole Park.

2024: On Wednesday, September 4, the Orioles surpassed 2 million fans at Oriole Park at Camden Yards for the first time since 2017. The club saw eight regular season sell outs and 2,281,129 total fans, their most since 2016.

2023: Postseason baseball returned to Oriole Park in 2023, hosting Games 1 and 2 of the ALDS on Saturday, October 7, and Sunday, October 8. Both games were sellouts, totaling 92,925 fans across the weekend. During the regular season, the club saw six sellouts, with the largest crowd coming for the home opener on Friday, April 7 (45,017) and second-highest on Saturday, August 5 (44,326).

COVID-19 IMPACT: To begin the 2021 season, Oriole Park opened at 25 percent capacity to comply with the City of Baltimore's health and safety mandates related to the COVID-19 pandemic. OPACY returned to full capacity on June 1, staying that way for the remainder of the season. In order to prioritize the health and safety of the team, staff, and fans during the global COVID-19 pandemic, fans were not permitted at Oriole Park during the 2020 season.

LARGEST 3-DATE CROWD: The August 10-12, 2007, series against the Boston Red Sox shattered the attendance record for a three-date series at Oriole Park at Camden Yards by more than 2,000 fans. A total of 146,786 fans attended the three games, topping the previous mark of 144,784 set August 21-23, 1998 vs. Cleveland.

"QUICKEST TO" MILESTONES:
3 million—66 home dates ('93, '97 & '98)
2 million—43 home dates ('94)
1 million—22 home dates ('94)

AMONG THE MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the AL in total or average attendance until 1995, then did so for four consecutive years. The team has drawn three million or more fans in nine of the 32 non-strike shortened or pandemic-shortened seasons at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd for a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards was 4,965 on September 8, 2021, against the Kansas City Royals. The smallest crowd ever for an Orioles home game was on August 17, 1972, when only 655 fans attended an afternoon make-up game against the Chicago White Sox at Memorial Stadium.

ZERO FANS: Fans were not permitted at any regular season Major League Baseball game during the 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to the 2020 season, on April 29, 2015, the Orioles played a game against the Chicago White Sox at Oriole Park, which was closed to the public. The game was not considered in tallying the total season attendance and the date was not included in the average per game attendance.

ENTERTAINMENT

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN & THE E STREET BAND: The Orioles welcomed Bruce Springsteen & The E Street Band on Friday, September 13, 2024, for the third-ever major concert at Oriole Park at Camden Yards as part of the band's international tour. The concert, which was originally scheduled for fall 2023, was postponed due to illness.

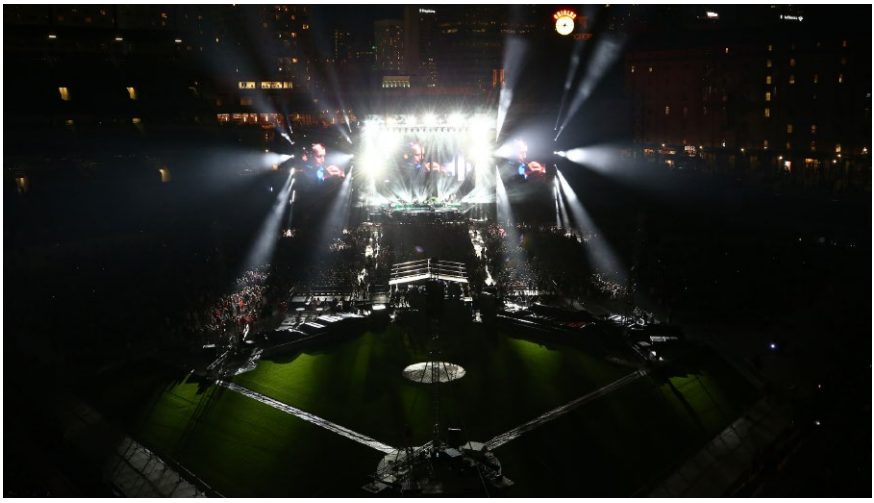

PAUL McCARTNEY: The Orioles hosted singer-songwriter Paul McCartney for the second-ever major concert at Camden Yards on Sunday, June 12, as part of his 2022 GOT BACK tour. Presented by AEG and Orioles Entertainment, the performance to a sold-out crowd was McCartney's first Baltimore concert in nearly 60 years, as he last visited Charm City in 1964 during The Beatles' first North American tour.

BILLY JOEL: The 2019 Birdland Summer Music Series was headlined by Rock & Roll Hall of Famer and music legend Billy Joel. Billy Joel's July 26 show marked the first ever concert at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The Summer Music Series also featured Friday Fireworks & Women of Country Music, as well as Saturday Roof Deck Sessions during home games.

As part of the 2019 Birdland Summer Music Series and the Orioles' commitment to empowering our youth and strengthening our community, fans had the opportunity to share their love of music by making a voluntary donation to benefit Baltimore-based arts and music education organizations. The Orioles matched up to $10,000 in fan donations, with all proceeds benefiting the Orioles Charitable Foundation's Athletes and Artists Play for Kids Educational Scholarship Fund. The Athletes and Artists fund raised more than $400,000 and benefited organizations like Girls Inc., Baltimore School for the Arts, Jubilee Arts, and the YMCA.

DISPLAYS THROUGHOUT ORIOLE PARK

ORIOLES HALL OF FAME: Located at the north end of the Warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown, N.Y. at the National Baseball Hall of Fame. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famers' likeness and a brief description of their accomplishments.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS: Four-foot monuments, located at the north end of the Warehouse honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Cal Ripken, Jr. (8), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22), and Eddie Murray (33).

ORIOLES LEGENDS PARK: In celebration of the 20th anniversary of OPACY in 2012, the Orioles unveiled larger-than-life bronze sculptures of the six Orioles who have their numbers retired and are National Baseball Hall of Fame members. The sculptures, created by renowned Maryland sculptor Antonio Tobias "Toby" Mendez, are located in Orioles Legends Park.

MID-ATLANTIC SCOUTS HALL OF FAME: A tribute to baseball scouts over the years, plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

MARYLAND STATE ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME: The names of Marylanders who left their mark in athletic endeavors and have been inducted into the state's Athletic Hall of Fame are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

CAL RIPKEN, JR. SEAT: To honor Ripken's 278th career homer, hit on July 15, 1993, which surpassed Ernie Banks' MLB record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (previously Section 86, Row 4, Seat 10) with an orange seat.

EDDIE MURRAY SEAT: To honor Murray's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996, off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row 7, Seat 23).

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the locations where home runs cleared the right field gate. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, team, distance the ball traveled, and date the home run was hit.

BIRDLAND MURALS: In partnership with PNC Bank, the Birdland Murals series highlights Baltimore's vibrant arts community and allows Orioles fans to experience the incredible talents of several local artists.

Last year, the Orioles and PNC debuted a prominent mural downtown on the west side of the Baltimore Convention Center. The new mural celebrates the vibrant culture, fascinating history, distinctive neighborhoods, and remarkable people of Baltimore, allowing Orioles fans and community members to enjoy the extraordinary skills of various local artists. The mural was created by Maryland Institute College of Art (MICA) graduates, Jessie Unterhalter and Katey Truhn.

The Orioles unveiled two murals in 2023, both located in the ballpark. The first was created by SHAN Wallace, an award-winning visual artist, photographer, and educator in East Baltimore. The vinyl mural located on the concourse behind home plate depicts scenes from Baltimore's iconic neighborhoods, while blending in elements form the team's City Connect uniforms. The second mural features block lettering of "BMORE" with a heart representing the "O" in front of a brightly colored background, intended to evoke joy, happiness, excitement, and fun, while the many bright colors represent the diversity of Baltimore City life.

In 2022, the Orioles added an Oriole Park mural, located near Legends Park and the Bullpen Picnic Area, created by globally renowned artist Logan Hicks. The mural depicts a bustling Eutaw Street, celebrating the more than then-74 million fans and visitors Oriole Park at Camden Yards has brought to downtown Baltimore since the ballpark opened in 1992. An additional mural lives in the Waverly neighborhood, near the location of Memorial Stadium. Created by Thomas Evans, a.k.a. Detour, and Nether, this mural celebrates the Orioles' connection to the Waverly community.

Two murals were added as part of the project in 2021, including a tribute to some of the most iconic figures in Baltimore's Negro Leagues History, which was designed by West Baltimore-native Ernest Shaw in collaboration with Open Walls Baltimore curator Gaia. The second was a two-wall mural by local graffiti writer Adam Stab, depicting baseball scenes with the Oriole Bird swinging a bat, playing catch, and cheering. The Negro Leagues History mural can be found in Legends Park, while Stab's artwork is located under the video board between the center field bleachers and Eutaw Street.

In 2019, the first year of the partnership, the Orioles selected local female artists to showcase the city's arts community through the creation of larger than life murals throughout Oriole Park. The female-led projects were part of the Orioles' yearlong celebration of women's equality and girls' empowerment in honor of the 100th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment in August 2020.

PLAQUES AT ORIOLE PARK: In ceremonies prior to Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Ripken, Sr. It is inscribed: "Cal Ripken, Sr. Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the game's greatest teachers. Coach, manager, and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, 'Senior' dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached. He preached 'perfect practice, makes perfect' and stressed the importance of being prepared, learning the 'right way' and playing to the best of one's ability every inning of every game. We will always remember his devotion to the Orioles, his love of the game, and his many lessons…"

In honor of Earl Weaver's induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, a silver "4" and plaque identifying Weaver's years as manager was added to the Orioles' dugout wall in July 1996, near where the manager traditionally stands.

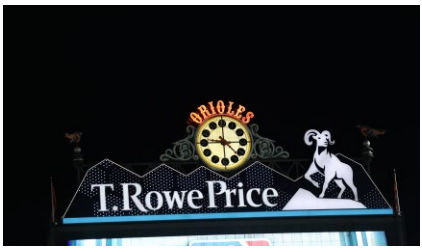

Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance on August 17, 1999, passing Dennis Eckersley for the major league record for most games pitched. In honor of his accomplishment, the Orioles installed a plaque with Orosco's uniform number, 47, above the bench in the bullpen.

Prior to the start of the 2024 season, the Orioles renamed the press box, "The Jim Henneman Press Box," in honor of the dean of Orioles sportswriters. A beloved fixture in the Orioles' press box since 1958 as both a writer and scorer, "Henny" has been a friend and mentor to countless people in the Baltimore sports community. In honor of this recognition, the Orioles installed a plaque designating "The Jim Henneman Press Box" in the press box.

Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years; the late Monica Pence Barlow, the Orioles' public relations director and a member of the organization for 14 years; the late Vernon Joiner, longtime press box supervisor; the late John Steadman, former sports editor and columnist; and longtime Orioles public relations director, Bob Brown. Additionally, a plaque in the first base camera well honors longtime team photographer Jerry Wachter.

A plaque in the umpires' tunnel is dedicated to the memory of Ernie Tyler, who for 48 years served as the Umpires' Attendant for the Orioles. Tyler, whose sons Fred and Jim still work for the Orioles, dedicated his life to his job, at one time working 3,819 consecutive games.

T. ROWE PRICE SIGN: The Orioles and Baltimore-based T. Rowe Price announced their new partnership in June 2024. As part of the partnership, which also included the Orioles first-ever jersey patch, a T. Rowe Price sign was placed atop the centerfield scoreboard. The sign sits 171.2' above the field and measures 76' 5" wide by 20' 8" tall and weighs 2.85 tons. It is made up of more than 5,000 LED lights and has countless variations which the Orioles use to enhance their fan experience. The sign also features a big horned ram, the official mascot of T. Rowe Price.

ORIOLES CITY CONNECT

There is no one storyline that defines Baltimore. We are a 3,000,000-strong metropolis that will never stop being a small town of neighborhoods and individuals who truly reflect us. Unveiled in May 2023, this Orioles uniform attests to the power of our diverse narratives, aspiring individualism, and our collective journey.

Baltimoreans draw strength from the many stories, moments, victories, and tragedies that have defined our 294-year multi-layered history. A proud, gritty, outspoken community - from Sparrows Point to Park Heights to Hopkins Plaza, the Dundalk Marine Terminal to Mount Vernon, Timonium to Tide Point, and Little Italy to Liberty Heights - that reflects the creativity and resourcefulness of the next generation of Baltimoreans, one whose parents and grandparents poured the steel, repaired the ships, founded the finest universities and greatest hospitals, welcomed the world's immigrants, and integrated the lunch counters.

And so, this O's uniform celebrates the vision this hometown and hometown team share of a colorful and color blind, vibrant, and open community that celebrates our differences and defends equal access to our fundamental American freedoms.

There is no "quit" in this place, and when adversity comes, we just start another rally.

ORIOLES CITY CONNECT

CITY OF FIRSTS: If you know our history, then you know Baltimore has pioneered many of America's finest innovations. From historical artifacts and industry to institutions and ideas, the desire to create change is in our blood. Nothing is ever surface level with us; we always dig deep. So it comes as no surprise we are the first MLB team to design the inside of our jersey.

BALTIMORE ACROSS THE CHEST: Baltimore stretches fearlessly across the front of the jersey. We're not hiding behind a catchy nickname, and we don't shy away. We are Baltimore. The bold typeface is inspired by the Globe Collection and Press at Maryland Institute College of Art (MICA) and our homegrown arts scene. The speckled details and imperfections represent the shared grit the Orioles and the Baltimore community possess.

THE UNIFORM: From the outside, it looks all black and white. But there's always more to our story. In art, black doesn't exist without color. You can't see what you're not looking for.

Threaded from the artistic tapestry of our city, the palette is like our people: colorful, vibrant and quirky. Whether it's our iconic rowhomes, egg custard or skylite snowballs, steamed crabs, lemon sticks or salt boxes, Fifi the poodle or pink flamingos, the Ravens or the O's, our colors run deep here in Baltimore.

NEIGHBORHOODS: The pattern is a representation of the neighborhoods that shape our City. From the corner stores and barber shops to the schools and the everyday working people in our neighborhoods - it's the neighborhoods that helped build us to be the proud Baltimoreans we are today. The greyscale exterior represents the surface level view people have of the City. Look deeper and you'll find the colorful interior, inspired by Baltimore's arts culture, that highlights the vibrancy of the City. So, roll up your sleeves, dig into our culture, and come see what we're all about.

THE SLOGAN: Originally penned by Baltimore-based poet and author Kondwani Fidel, "You Can't Clip These Wings" is a melody that arises from the depths of Baltimore's baritone. It's a breathing rhythm that exemplifies the city's perseverance. It is an embodiment of our pride and lets everyone know that Baltimore is all we got, and Baltimore is all we need. "You Can't Clip These Wings" will ignite hope inside of you, forever reminding that through calm waters or high winds, you will reach the shore. It reminds you why you started the journey in the first place, and what you endured to get here.

It doesn't matter what neighborhood you come from, we're all cut from the same cloth - one way or another. You Can't Clip These Wings is what will keep us forever flying to new heights.

THE SCRIPT B: Pulled from the Baltimore script logo on our road jerseys, this B represents the love we have for our city. Our sleeve patch also features the new script B logo emblazoned atop the neighborhoods pattern, further reinforcing our neighborhoods' significance to the city.

JIM HENNEMAN PRESS BOX

In January 2024, the Baltimore Orioles announced that the press box at Oriole Park at Camden Yards will forever be named the "Jim Henneman Press Box" in honor of longtime Baltimore sportswriter and official scorer, Jim Henneman.

A Baltimore native, Henneman began his writing career with the Baltimore News-American (then News-Post) in 1958 before being named public relations director of the Baltimore Bullets in 1968, a position he held until 1973. He returned to the News-American as an Orioles beat writer until 1979, when he moved to The Evening Sun and The Baltimore Sun on the Orioles beat from 1980-95, including a year as the Baseball Writers' Association of America (BBWAA) president in 1984.

He served as the primary official scorer at Orioles home games from 1997-2019, and is the author of "60 Years of Orioles Magic," the Orioles' 60th anniversary book published in 2015.

Henneman remains a fixture in the Oriole Park press box, working as a columnist for PressBox Online and serving as a base of knowledge for all that enter.

Henneman attended Loyola University Maryland (then Loyola College in Maryland) and Calvert Hall College High School. At Calvert Hall, he was a standout pitcher and competed against future National Baseball Hall of Famer and Southern High School star Al Kaline. He also worked in the clubhouse for the International League Orioles at Memorial Stadium, three and a half blocks from his home in the Ednor Gardens neighborhood. At 18 years old, he attended the Orioles' home opener on April 15, 1954, in which they defeated the White Sox, 3-1, in front of 46,354 fans at Memorial Stadium to mark Baltimore's return to the Major Leagues after 52 years.

Henneman has four children, 10 grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: All media credential requests must be submitted through Major League Baseball's online credentialing system. Credentials will be issued in accordance with the Baltimore Orioles Credential Policy and are non-transferable. All requests for single-game credentials must be submitted at least 24 hours in advance of first pitch. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times. Credentialed media must adhere to the policies implemented by the Baltimore Orioles. Failure to comply may lead to credentials being revoked and/or denial for future media access. Any credentials that are not picked up or are canceled by an organization will force the Orioles PR department to re-evaluate the outlet's status and possibly deny any future requests. Credential requests sent via email or after the deadline will not be completed or approved. Any questions regarding credentials should be sent to mediacredentials@orioles.com.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: Media must enter the ballpark via Gate E, which is located on the southwestern side of Oriole Park to the left of Home Plate Plaza. Gate E opens 4.5 hours before first pitch for night games, and 3.5 hours before first pitch for day games. Credential pick-up is located at Gate E. Credentials will only be released on an individual basis and to those with a government-issued photo ID. All bags and equipment are subject to search upon entry and at other points as deemed necessary.

PARKING: Media parking in Lot A is available on a first-come, first-served basis, with overflow parking located in Lots B/C off Lee Street. All media approved for daily credentials will automatically be added to the parking list. Media must give their name and show a photo ID to the parking attendant. BBWAA members are asked to email Orioles PR (mediacredentials@orioles.com) at least 24 hours in advance when covering a game to reserve a parking space.

NO AUTOGRAPHS: Media are forbidden from seeking autographs at any time. Any media member found in violation of this rule will have their credential revoked.

PRESS BOX: The Jim Henneman Press Box is located on the Lower Press Level (2nd floor). Broadcast booths are located on the Upper Press Level (3rd floor) and are reserved for rightsholders or other entities as assigned by the Orioles PR department. Media are required to follow the prioritized seating positions located on seating charts throughout the press box. Television outlets and still photographers may not film or shoot from the press box without prior permission from the Orioles PR department. Media members are required to adhere to the press box seating chart posted throughout the Jim Henneman Press Box.

FIELD ACCESS: Media must enter and exit the field through the umpires' tunnel. The field is open to media from the time Home Plate Plaza opens until 45 minutes before game time, with the exception of special first pitch ceremonies that have been announced as open to media. Media wishing to be on the field for a pregame ceremony not announced as open to media must receive approval from the Orioles PR department. Media must remain on the warning track and between the two dugouts at all times, and are not allowed on the playing field under any circumstance.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: Only media with MLB, BBWAA, or properly marked, team-issued credentials have access to the clubhouses. Media may only enter the clubhouse through the auxiliary media door and may not use the main clubhouse entrance. Video cameras are permitted in the Orioles clubhouse prior to and after the game, but are restricted to tight interview shots in front of players' lockers. Tripods and still photography are not permitted without prior permission from the Orioles PR department. The Orioles clubhouse will open each day for media access prior to batting practice and again approximately 10 minutes after the final out. Updates and exact timing will be announced via X, formerly known as Twitter, @OriolesPR. Media are only permitted within the locker room area of the clubhouse. The trainers' area, players' lounge, batting cages, kitchen, showers, and access hallways are off-limits to media at all times. Cell phones may only be used to record audio while in the clubhouse. Cell phones are not allowed to be used to take photo or video in the clubhouse. Media may not use cell phones to disseminate information via text, email, or any form of social media while in the clubhouse, or during the Manager or General Manager's media availability. The use of smart glasses by the media to record audio/video, take photos, and/or disseminate information is not permitted within Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

CELL PHONES: Cell phones may only be used to record audio while in the clubhouse. The use of cell phones to disseminate information via text, email, or any form of social media while in the clubhouse will result in the credential being revoked and ejection from the ballpark. Cell phones may not be used to capture photo or video in the clubhouse at any time. Violators will lose clubhouse privileges.

INTERVIEWS: Phone, in-studio, or sit-down interviews must be arranged through the Orioles PR department by emailing oriolespr@orioles.com. Media are not to contact players directly and may not conduct interviews on the field during stretch or batting practice without prior permission from the Orioles PR department. Failure to comply may lead to credentials being revoked.

MANAGER AVAILABILITY: Manager Brandon Hyde will meet with media in the Interview Room prior to each game and again approximately 10 minutes following the end of the game. Any changes to the manager's media availability will be announced on X, formerly known as Twitter, via @OriolesPR.

PHOTOGRAPHER INFORMATION

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are not permitted on the field at any time during the game. Photo wells are located at each end of the home and visiting dugouts, and camera positions are assigned by the Orioles photography department. Photographers may work from the stands as long as they are not obstructing the view of fans and are not permitted in the first four rows behind home plate. Additionally, photographers are able to utilize the overhangs located on the first and third base sides on the Club Level. A work room for photographers is located adjacent to the press box on Lower Press Level. Press box seats should be reserved for working media. Once the game has started, photographers may use the entrances/exits outside of the first and third base photo wells. No still photographs are permitted in either clubhouse without permission from the Public Relations Department of each team.

Please note: policies are subject to change in accordance with health and safety protocols. Contact Orioles PR with any questions.

TELEVISION

MASN, the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, has been the exclusive television home for all Baltimore Orioles games since 2007. An independent regional sports network, MASN is owned by the Orioles and Washington Nationals, and provides unmatched access to the action on the field and inside the game.

Every Orioles game is televised in high-definition on one of the network's two channels, MASN and MASN2, with exception to nationally televised games. MASN and MASN2 air throughout an exclusive territory that covers a seven-state region from Harrisburg, Pa. to Charlotte, N.C. All of MASN's cable, satellite, and fiber-optic distributors carry MASN and MASN2 on a consistent channel throughout the season (visit MASNsports.com for local listings).

Fans can follow MASN via @masnOrioles on X, formerly known as Twitter, on Facebook at facebook.com/masnorioles, and via @masnOrioles on Instagram. Roch Kubatko covers the team year-round on MASNsports.com and can be followed on X at @masnRoch.

RADIO

Hearst's 98 Rock FM & WBAL NewsRadio AM/FM serves as the flagship station of the six-state, 30-plus station Orioles Radio Network. Fans can hear extensive coverage of all regular season games, including pre- and postgame shows, as well as select Spring Training contests throughout the Orioles Radio Network.

The Orioles' radio rights returned to 98 Rock & WBAL NewsRadio in 2022, which have served as the broadcast home for the Orioles for 45 of the Orioles 72 years in Baltimore, most recently from 2010-14.

In 2010, the Orioles entered a multi-year partnership with WSBA Radio to serve as their affiliate in York, Pa. In addition, members of the military stationed overseas have the opportunity to listen to Orioles games on the American Forces Radio Network.

2025 ORIOLES BROADCAST TEAM

The 2025 Baltimore Orioles Broadcast Team is made up of Kevin Brown, the voice of the Orioles and lead play-by-play announcer for the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, Ben McDonald and National Baseball Hall of Famer and Orioles Legend Jim Palmer, as lead television analysists, Geoff Arnold, Brett Hollander, and Ben Wagner as primary play-by-play broadcasters on the Orioles Radio Network, and Rob Long and Melanie Newman as O's Xtra hosts for MASN. Orioles Hall of Famer Brian Roberts and former pitcher Dave Johnson will also provide analysis for MASN throughout the season.

GEOFF ARNOLD
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Geoff Arnold is in his sixth season as the primary radio play-by-play announcer for the Orioles Radio Network, also calling games on MASN. The 2025 season marks Arnold's 13th in professional baseball, including 11 in the Orioles organization, having previously served as Director of Public Relations and Broadcasting for the Frederick Keys, Baltimore's former Class A-Advanced affiliate, from 2014-20. Prior to joining the Orioles, Arnold called games for Kansas City's Class A-Advanced affiliate, the Wilmington Blue Rocks, and Texas' Double-A affiliate, the Frisco RoughRiders.

Arnold also made frequent appearances across multiple ESPN and regional sports networks broadcasting college football, basketball, baseball, and Olympic sports.

He graduated from Dickinson College (PA) in 2010 and currently resides in Maryland with his wife, Sian.

KEVIN BROWN
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Kevin Brown is in his seventh season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team and his fourth as the primary television play-by-play announcer for MASN. Brown began his tenure with the Orioles in 2019 as one of the club's play-by-play announcers on the Orioles Radio Network, while making select appearances on MASN.

The Orioles and Brown reached a multi-year contract extension in 2024, ensuring he will remain the voice of the team's television broadcast on the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network.

In addition to his work with the Orioles, Brown has served as a play-by-play announcer for ESPN since 2015. This past season, he was named the play-by-play announcer for ESPN's alternate Statcast edition of Sunday Night Baseball. Brown has called the Women's College World Series, the championship event in college softball, since 2021, and currently broadcasts college basketball throughout the fall and winter. His time at ESPN has also included work on college football and hockey, high school football and Little League baseball on TV, plus the MLB postseason on ESPN Radio.

From 2011-17, Brown worked for the Syracuse Chiefs, the Triple-A affiliate of the Washington Nationals, serving as the Assistant Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations from 2011-14, and Director from 2015-17, where he was the lead voice of the team, calling radio and television broadcasts. His first Major League broadcasts included games for the Nationals in 2017 and Toronto Blue Jays in 2018.

Brown graduated from the Newhouse School at Syracuse University (NY) in 2011 and currently resides in Baltimore with his wife, Brianne, daughter, Emma, and dog, Shep.

BRETT HOLLANDER
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Brett Hollander is in his sixth season as an in-game contributor on both MASN and the Orioles Radio Network, appearing across both platforms as a play-by-play announcer, sideline reporter, and pre- and postgame host.

A lifelong Baltimore resident, Hollander began covering the Orioles in 2008 for CBS Radio. He joined WBAL Radio in 2010 as the host of Sportsline and anchored the then-flagship station's Orioles coverage from 2011-14. Hollander has extensively covered Baltimore sports, ranging from collegiate athletics to the Ravens and Orioles, and has appeared on various local stations including on WBAL-TV and 98 Rock FM. He was named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year in 2015.

Hollander graduated from Dickinson College (PA) in 2007 and currently resides in Baltimore with his wife, Erin, and two daughters, Mae and Violet.

ROB LONG
REPORTER

Rob Long is in his seventh season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team, serving as an in-game contributor and pre- and postgame show host for the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network. Long made his MASN debut in 2009. In addition to his work with the Orioles, Long serves as a host of the "Big Bad Morning Show" on 105.7 The Fan.

Prior to his career in broadcasting, Long served as a police officer in South Carolina and was a member of the United States Air Force. A Baltimore native, Long is also the head coach of the Rosedale Christian Academy women's basketball team.

He currently resides in Essex, Md., and is the proud father of three children, Brionna, Robbie, and Stephania.

BEN McDONALD
COLOR ANALYST

Ben McDonald joined the Orioles talent lineup full-time in 2018 after spending eight years as a regular contributor on O's broadcasts, having made select appearances on the MASN and the Orioles Radio Network since 2010.

The former right-handed pitcher spent seven of his nine Major League seasons with the Orioles from 1989-95 after being selected by Baltimore with the first overall pick in the 1989 First-Year Player Draft. His career started on a high note, throwing a four-hit shutout in his first career start. He went on to win 40 games over three years and threw more than 200 innings in a season three times, including once with the Milwaukee Brewers. He finished his career with an overall record of 78-70, including 58-53 with the O's. In addition to his Major League baseball career, McDonald won a gold medal in the 1988 Olympics, picking up two wins for Team USA, and won the prestigious Golden Spikes Award in 1989, given annually to the top amateur baseball player in the nation. McDonald was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008 after finishing his career at LSU with a 29-14 record, 3.24 ERA, and 373 career strikeouts.

McDonald's broadcasting career began in 2001 as a color analyst for Louisiana State University Baseball, his alma mater. In addition to his work with the Orioles, McDonald serves as a color analyst for ESPN and the SEC Network, including covering the Men's College World Series and the 2024 MLB Wild Card Series.

McDonald currently resides in Denham Springs, La., with his wife, Nicole. The couple have two children, daughter Jorie and son Jase.

MELANIE NEWMAN
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Melanie Newman is in her sixth season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team. She serves as a play-by-play announcer for the Orioles Radio Network and appears on MASN as an in-game reporter and host of the pre- and postgame shows.

Since becoming the first female play-by-play announcer in Orioles history in 2020, Newman has continued to break barriers. On July 21, 2021, she was part of the first all-female broadcast team for a Major League Baseball game, when the Orioles faced the Tampa Bay Rays on YouTube's "MLB Game of the Week." Two months later on September 29, Newman joined Jessica Mendoza in the booth for the first all-female MLB broadcast on ESPN.

Newman has been calling professional baseball games for 11 years. She previously served as the announcer for Boston's Advanced-A affiliate Salem Red Sox, where she was a part of the first all-female booth in professional baseball, Texas' Double-A affiliate Frisco RoughRiders, and Arizona's Double-A affiliate Mobile BayBears. She also served as a media communications coordinator for the Arizona Fall League.

In addition to her work in Major League Baseball, Newman serves as a host for MLB Network and has made appearances on ESPN, the ACC Network, and BBC. Her work has included serving as a sideline reporter for the World Axe Throwing League, ACC men's and women's championship events, the Big South Conference, and FBS Bowl Games.

Newman graduated from Troy University (AL) in 2013 and currently resides in the Baltimore area with her husband, Andrew, and their cats, Dwight and Angela.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

2025 ORIOLES BROADCAST TEAM

JIM PALMER
COLOR ANALYST

National Baseball Hall of Famer and Orioles Legend Jim Palmer is in his 33rd season as a color analyst with MASN. The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Palmer spent his entire career with Baltimore after signing with the club in 1963.

Palmer made his major league debut in 1965 at 19 years old. One year later, he became the youngest pitcher in major league history to throw a shutout in the World Series, beating Sandy Koufax in Game 2. The Orioles would go on to sweep the Dodgers for the first World Series Championship in franchise history. Palmer was a member of all three of the Orioles' World Series Championship teams and went 8-3 with a 2.61 ERA in 17 Postseason games. He was the first pitcher in Major League Baseball history to win a World Series in three different decades.

Palmer is known for being one of baseball's premier pitchers in the 1970s, throwing more innings and recording more wins than any other American League pitcher during the decade. Among his numerous accomplishments include a no-hitter against Oakland in 1969, and never giving up a grand slam or allowing back-to-back home runs in his career.

He finished his career with a 268-152 record with a 2.86 ERA and 2,212 strikeouts. An eight-time 20-game winner, Palmer led his league in innings pitched four times, wins three times and ERA twice. He was named an All-Star six times, including four starts, and is a four-time Gold Glove Award winner.

Palmer was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990. He currently resides in Palm Beach, Fla., with his wife, Susan, and stepson, Spencer.

BEN WAGNER
PLAY-BY-PLAY

Ben Wagner enters his second season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team, and his eighth year in Major League Baseball, serving as a play-by-play announcer for the Orioles Radio Network and the primary play-by-play backup on MASN.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Wagner was a play-by-play announcer for the Toronto Blue Jays, making appearances on both radio and television. He also handled radio and television broadcast duties for Toronto's Triple-A affiliate, the Buffalo Bisons, from 2007-17.

Wagner got his start in professional baseball with Philadelphia's Class-A Affiliate, the Jersey Shore BlueClaws, in 2004. He graduated from Indiana State University where he served as the sports director at WISU Radio for three years, broadcasting baseball, football, and basketball.

In addition to his work with the Orioles, Wagner calls college basketball. He currently resides in Baltimore.

THE VOICE OF ORIOLE PARK

ADRIENNE ROBERSON
PA ANNOUNCER

Adrienne Roberson is entering her fifth season as the public address announcer for the Baltimore Orioles. She became the first female voice of Oriole Park when she was named to the position full-time at the start of the 2021 season, and is the fourth active female PA announcer in Major League Baseball. The 2025 season marks Roberson's 24th in professional baseball after spending 18 years as the voice of the Bowie Baysox, the organization's Double-A affiliate. During that time, Roberson made several appearances as a guest public address announcer for the Orioles, including Mother's Day Weekend celebrations from 2015-19. She began her career with the Knoxville Smokies, the Double-A affiliate of the Toronto Blue Jays, where she spent two seasons.

Roberson has also spent the last 11 years as a PA announcer for Georgetown University Athletics, announcing men's lacrosse, football, women's basketball, soccer, and volleyball games. Away from sports, Roberson records audiobooks and voiceovers and works for Archbishop Spalding in Severn, Md., as their Attendance Coordinator. Fans can also hear Roberson on the video game, "MLB The Show 25."

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Roberson received her Bachelor of Science in Communication, Broadcasting, and Sports Management from the University of Tennessee-Knoxville in 1997. She currently resides in Baltimore.

"SARASOTA'S CROWN JEWEL"

The 2025 season marks the Orioles 16th year of holding Major League Spring Training operations at Ed Smith Stadium. "Sarasota's Crown Jewel" was fully renovated in 2011, complete with four practice fields, one practice half-field, a clubhouse, indoor batting cages, pitching mounds, stadium field lights, an electronic scoreboard, concession facilities, locker rooms for umpires, tournament office hub, press box, expansive concourse areas, and ample parking. Its modern amenities, mixed with historical Florida architecture, have helped Ed Smith Stadium truly become "Birdland South."

2025 SPRING TRAINING SCHEDULE

ORIOLES IN SARASOTA FAST FACTS

- According to a recent independent analysis commissioned by Sarasota County, the Orioles' economic impact in the state of Florida has topped more than $762 million since 2015.

- Since moving year-round operations to Sarasota in 2010, the Orioles have donated more than $4.4 million in cash and in-kind contributions to the community.

- In a 2018 study conducted for USA TODAY, ReviewTrackers, a data-mining firm in Chicago, found Ed Smith Stadium as the top venue among Major League Baseball Spring Training sites in both Florida and Arizona, tracking how fans felt about the facility itself, food and drink offerings, and the overall experience for fans and families.

- More than 160,000 players, families, and spectators have participated in various youth baseball tournaments and games at Ed Smith Stadium and the Buck O'Neil Baseball complex since 2013, averaging 27,000 visitors each year.
