Major-League Baseball Security Measures

Major League Baseball and the White Sox have established the following guidelines for the safety and enjoyment of guests attending games at U.S. Cellular Field in 2004:

- Guests may bring in food in small, clear (see-through) plastic bags.
- One sealed plastic bottle of water, one liter or less in size, will be permitted per person. For guests with children, sealed juice boxes are permitted.
- Bags 16" x 16" x 8" and smaller will be permitted. No bags larger than that size will be allowed. All bags will be searched. Briefcase and bag check facilities will not be available.
- Bottles, cans and other beverages or hard-sided coolers of any kind will not be permitted.

Fans are urged to utilize public transportation. The CTA Red Line stops near the ballpark at 35th Street. Because of various road construction projects in the city and suburbs, fans are encouraged to arrive early.

OFFICERS

JERRY REINSDORF
Chairman

Jerry Reinsdorf begins his 24th season as chairman of the Chicago White Sox, the second-longest ownership tenure in franchise history behind club founder Charles Comiskey (1901-31) and the third-longest among current Major League Baseball owners. During Reinsdorf's 23 seasons as chairman of the White Sox, the club has captured American League division championships three times, including an AL Central title in 2000. The Sox also won division titles in 1983 and 1993 and were in first place in 1994 at the conclusion of the strike-shortened season.

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Reinsdorf has been active in the affairs of baseball. He currently is serving a fourth four-year term on Major League Baseball's Executive Council. Reinsdorf also served a four-year term as chairman of baseball's Ownership Committee and for seven years was a member of the board of directors of the Player Relations Committee, Inc. He is co-chairman of the Equal Opportunity Committee and remains a member of the Legislative, Labor Policy, Realignment, Long-Range Labor Planning and Relocation committees. He was a member of the American League Presidential Search Committee, which named Gene Budig in June 1994, the Expansion Committee, which designated the last two expansion teams, and the Strategic Planning Committee. Reinsdorf is a member of the board of MLB Properties, as well as MLB Advanced Media, L.P., the interactive media company of Major League Baseball, responsible for creating and maintaining the Web sites of each club and MLB.com.

During his career in professional sports, Reinsdorf, who also is chairman of the Chicago Bulls, has been responsible for the construction of two new sports facilities in Chicago, Comiskey Park (1991), now U.S. Cellular Field, and the United Center (1994).

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in professional sports in March 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls, the team has captured six World Championships for Chicago (1991-93, '96-98). In addition to initiating the building of new Comiskey Park, Reinsdorf spearheaded construction of two major facilities for the Bulls. The United Center, home for the Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks, opened for the 1994-95 season, and the Bulls began using the Sheri L. Berto Center, their state-of-the-art training facility, in 1992. Each winter since 2000, the White Sox and the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority have undertaken offseason renovations to U.S. Cellular Field to improve the ballpark experience for Sox fans. A fully renovated U.S. Cellular Field is expected in time for Opening Day 2005.

Both of Reinsdorf's sports franchises are active contributors to the Chicago community through a variety of efforts, including Chicago White Sox Charities and CharitaBulls. He has played a critical role in the development of the west side area surrounding the United Center and is responsible for introducing an innovative reading program to the Chicago Public Schools system. This program, supported by Chicago White Sox Charities, has improved reading levels for many inner city school children by as many as two grades. Through the new Chicago Bulls/Chicago White Sox Training Academy, which opened in 2001, and outreach efforts such as White Sox Training Centers and Chicago Bulls Basketball Schools, Reinsdorf's franchises promote sports to youth while instilling a love of the game in future fans.

Reinsdorf was the 1997 recipient of the Order of Lincoln Award, and his many contributions to the community have been recognized by such organizations as the Interfaith Organizing Project, the American Academy of Achievement, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, the Trial Lawyers Club of Chicago, the Chicago Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame, the National Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame and the Chicago Sports Hall of Fame. In addition, he is the recipient of the Chicago Park District's 1990 Chicagoan of the Year Award, the 1992 PUSH Bridgebuilder Award, the National Italian-American Friendship Award, Northwestern University's Award of Merit and the U.S. Air Force American Spirit Award. Reinsdorf was awarded the Ellis Island Medal of Honor in 1993 and the 1997 Mayor's Medal of Honor.

In 1998, he was honored with the Guardian of Children Award from the Jewish Council for Youth Services. As chairman of the White Sox, he was instrumental in initiating Chicago White Sox Charities, the arm of the baseball organization that raises funds for cancer research, children's and senior programs. Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities has twice conferred its Hallmark Award to Reinsdorf in recognition of his efforts.

In addition to his sports interests, Reinsdorf is an attorney, a certified public accountant, a specialist in real estate securities, a registered mortgage underwriter and a certified review appraiser. In December 1987, Reinsdorf completed employment as chairman of the board of a real estate investment firm he co-founded in the early 1970s and sold to American Express. Currently, he is a partner in Bojer Financial, Ltd., a land investment company. He is a former member of the board of directors of Shearson Lehman Brothers, Inc. and the Northwestern University Law School Alumni Association and is presently a trustee of Northwestern University. He is a director of LaSalle National Bank, is on the board of Equity Office Properties and has served on the boards of numerous other corporations and charities.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y. on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University in Washington D.C. and earned a law degree from Northwestern University after moving to Chicago in 1957. Reinsdorf and his wife, Martyl, have four children and seven grandchildren.

EDDIE EINHORN
Vice Chairman

Eddie Einhorn begins his 14th year as vice chairman of the White Sox, continuing his involvement with chairman Jerry Reinsdorf while also devoting time to his sports and television interests. Prior to becoming vice chairman, Einhorn was the club's president and chief operating officer for 10 years.

Einhorn has been a member of Major League Baseball's Schedule Format Committee, the Professional Baseball Association Committee, Player Development Committee and was a member of the Television Committee from 1992-95. He was one of the key architects of The Baseball Network, Major League Baseball's joint broadcasting venture. Einhorn's Cooperstown Baseball World, a sports camp complex for kids in Oneonta, N.Y., begins its fifth summer in 2004.

Recognized as the architect of baseball's first billion dollar-plus television contract, Einhorn was instrumental in negotiating Major League Baseball's 1990 deal with CBS-TV and ESPN.

In 1989, Einhorn was appointed television consultant to the United States Olympic Committee and was responsible for a 200-hour Olympic television package that debuted in 1990. He is currently television consultant for the United States Figure Skating Association and the International Skating Union, the governing bodies for figure skating throughout the world. In that capacity, he helped engineer the first amateur/professional sanctioned skating competitions. Einhorn also serves on the board of directors of the Chicago Bulls.

Prior to joining law school classmate Jerry Reinsdorf in 1981 to head the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox, Einhorn was the executive producer of the "CBS Sports Spectacular." At CBS, he was responsible for over 200 hours of programming per year and won an Emmy Award for "The Gossamer Albatross, Flight of Imagination" in 1980.

Einhorn was the founder and chairman of TVS Television Network, the leading syndicator of sports programming in the 1970s, which helped give rise to the popularity of college basketball on television. TVS celebrates its 40-year anniversary in 2004, and Einhorn is writing a book on the evolution of "March Madness" by tracing his early days of television basketball in the 1960s to the present through interviews with many of the people responsible for this growth, including John Wooden and Dick Enberg.

Einhorn has received many awards and honors over the years, most notably being honored recently by his hometown of Paterson, N.J. with the Mayor's Award for civic contribution. He currently serves on the board of the Kidney and Urology Foundation, a project close to his heart.

Einhorn was born on January 3, 1936 in Paterson, N.J. and holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Einhorn and his wife, Ann, have two children: Jennifer, who is senior coordinator of special events for Major League Baseball, and Jeff, who lives in Los Angeles, recently produced "Winning Ugly: Twenty Years Later," a retrospective video about the 1983 American League West Champion White Sox.

HOWARD PIZER
Executive Vice President

Howard Pizer has primary responsibility for White Sox business and administrative operations, as well as the club's legal matters. The longtime business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to create new Comiskey Park, now U.S. Cellular Field. He utilized this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, the state-of-the-art facility which opened for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks season. Pizer also played a key role in negotiating the club's new partnership with U.S. Cellular.

In addition to setting organization-wide administrative policies and procedures, Pizer established uniformity in corporate-wide computerization and was instrumental in initiating an employee relations program. He also is responsible for the overall relationship between Illinois Sportservice, the White Sox concessionaire, and Levy Restaurants in conjunction with the operation of The Stadium Club and Diamond Suites. Beginning in 1999, Pizer has spearheaded the club's ongoing efforts to constantly improve the ballpark experience for fans attending a White Sox game at U.S. Cellular Field.

Pizer lends his organizational ability to the board of directors of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities; Special Children's Charities, the fundraising arm of Chicago Special Olympics; and Near West Side Development Corp. , which is working to spur affordable housing and economic development on Chicago's near west side. Pizer also serves as vice president and secretary for Chicago White Sox Charities.

Born on October 23, 1941, in Chicago, Ill., Pizer is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is also a magna cum laude graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Pizer and his wife, Sheila, have two children: Jacqueline and Rachel; and three grandchildren.

KEN WILLIAMS
Senior Vice President/General Manager

Ken Williams begins his fourth season as the club's general manager. Williams became the 11th general manager in Chicago White Sox history on October 24, 2000, replacing Ron Schueler, who had been the longest-tenured general manager in the American League. The White Sox have gone 250-236 (.514) with two second place and one third place finish under Williams, who enters the 2004 season already ranked seventh in tenure among American League general managers.

Williams hired former White Sox All-Star shortstop Ozzie Guillen as the club's 37th manager on November 3, 2003. Guillen, who played for the White Sox from 1985-97, becomes the first Venezuelan native to manage a major league baseball team.

Since becoming general manager, Williams has made several aggressive moves impacting the major-league roster. This offseason, the White Sox signed Yakult Swallows star Shingo Takatsu, Japan's all-time saves leader, who is the first Japanese player on the White Sox. In 2003, Williams signed free agent pitcher Esteban Loaiza, who went on to win 21 games and started the 2003 All-Star Game at U.S. Cellular Field.

During his tenure, Williams also has acquired Roberto Alomar (2003), Bartolo Colon (2003), Carl Everett (2003), Billy Koch (2003-present), Damaso Marte (2002-present), Miguel Olivo (2002-present), Scott Schoeneweis (2003-present), Scott Sullivan (2003) and David Wells (2001) via trade, has signed Sandy Alomar Jr. (2001-present), Jose Canseco (2001), Tom Gordon (2003), Kenny Lofton (2002) and Jose Valentin as free agents, and also has signed current Sox Mark Buehrle, Koch, Paul Konerko, Carlos Lee and Magglio Ordonez to multiyear contracts.

In his position, Williams is responsible for all baseball operations decisions, including major-league and minor-league personnel and scouting. He is the first African-American general manager in Chicago sports history and the third in major-league history, following Bill Lucas (Atlanta, 1979) and Bob Watson (Houston, 1994-95/Yankees, 1996-97). From 2001-03, Williams and Jerry Manuel formed the first African-American general manager/manager tandem in major-league history.

Williams served as the club's director of minor league operations from 1995-96 and was promoted to vice president of player development for four additional seasons (1997-2000). Under his direction, the White Sox were named 2000 Organization of the Year by Baseball America, USA Today and Howe SportsData.

In 1999, the Sox farm system again contributed heavily to the major-league club as 13 Sox players made their debuts during the season (11 debuted in 1998). The Sox used 19 rookies during the season, ending the campaign with seven first-year players from the farm system (13 in 1998). Two White Sox affiliates reached postseason in 1999, with Class AAA Charlotte winning the International League title before losing in the Triple-A World Series in five games to Vancouver, and Class A Burlington captured the Midwest League crown. Advanced Rookie Bristol won the Appalachian League title in 1998.

Williams has spent 23 seasons in professional baseball and 20 with the White Sox in a variety of capacities, including player, scout and special assistant to the chairman. Williams served as the director of minor league operations/special assistant to the chairman from November 1995 until becoming vice president of player development in 1997. After his playing career ended, he joined the club in November 1992 as a scout, specializing in the inner cities and was named special assistant to White Sox chairman Jerry Reinsdorf in 1994. In that capacity, Williams was involved in the overall operation of the entire White Sox organization. He also worked at SportsChannel in 1995 as a studio analyst on White Sox telecasts.

Williams is active in the organization's outreach programs within the community. He has played a crucial part in the White Sox introducing the Direct Instruction program to the Chicago Public Schools system and takes an active role in the club's community relations initiatives. Williams is on the board of Athletes Against Drugs and the Proviso Leyden Council for Community Action.

A former outfielder with the White Sox (1986-88), Detroit (1989-90), Toronto (1990-91) and Montreal (1991), Williams appeared in 451 career major-league games. Williams was a lifetime .218 hitter (252-1,157) with 27 home runs and 119 RBI. His best season came as a rookie in 1987, when he hit .281 with 11 home runs and 50 RBI for the White Sox. Williams originally was selected by the Sox in the third round of the June 1982 free agent draft.

Born on April 6, 1964 in Berkeley, Calif., Williams attended Stanford University, where he played football. Williams and his wife, Jessica, have five children: Temeka, Dedrick, Ken Jr., Kyle and Tyler. The family resides in Chicago.

ROB GALLAS
Senior Vice President, Marketing and Broadcasting

Rob Gallas begins his 15th season with the White Sox after joining the club in September 1989. Gallas and the Sox marketing department have consistently focused on promoting fan-oriented programs that create an enhanced baseball experience for Sox fans throughout U.S. Cellular Field. In 2004, the club's integrated marketing focus continues to be on kids, families and fun at the ballpark.

The White Sox drew 1,939,594 fans (23,946 per game) to U.S. Cellular Field in 2003, the eighth-highest total in franchise history and second-highest since 1993 (behind the 2000 Central Division championship season). The Sox increase of over 260,000 fans last season was the third-largest in the American League behind Anaheim and Kansas City. The team enjoyed six sellouts in 2003.

Gallas directed the club's marketing efforts as the Sox closed old Comiskey Park in 1990, opened new Comiskey Park in 1991 and enjoyed one of the best attendance decades in franchise history as the team drew nearly 20 million fans to Comiskey Park in the 1990s (19,777,566 for an average of 1,977,757 fans per season). Eight of the club's top 10 season attendance marks have come since 1990, and the team's eight sellouts in 2000 were the most in club history.

Sox marketing efforts have introduced fan-focused and fun events like Kids Sundays, Family Mondays with half price admission, "Pepsi Half-Price Tuesday's," "Dog Day," "Elvis Night" and FUNdamentals, the in-park baseball skills area just for kids.

Gallas also is responsible for the club's relationship with its broadcast partners, WGN-TV, FOX Sports Net, WCIU-TV and ESPN Radio 1000. Gallas oversees the club's advertising campaigns which over the years have included celebrity spots, Bo Jackson's "Hip Season Ticket Plan," spoofs on names featuring the club's players, a summer action thriller movie trailer and the highly regarded "The Kids Can Play" and "Come Ready To Play" campaigns that combined the team's on-field approach with the fun options available to Sox fans at the ballpark.

The White Sox logo and uniforms, unveiled at the end of the 1990 season, consistently have kept the Sox near the top of Major League Baseball in merchandise sales. At the same time, a strong effort is being made to help fans interact with the team's players through events like SoxFest, the weekend baseball celebration held at the end of January, Kids Sundays, with autograph sessions for kids, and White Sox Day at the annual Taste of Chicago.

As president of Chicago White Sox Charities, Gallas heads the club's efforts to "give back" to the Chicagoland community through Chicago White Sox Charities and Sox community relations efforts. He also is a board member for Chicago Youth Centers, Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities and the Chicago Museum of Broadcast Communications.

Gallas began his career as a news and sportswriter with newspapers in the Midwest, including a stint from 1976 to 1983 as the White Sox beat writer for the Chicago suburban Daily Herald newspaper chain. He received the Jacob Scher award for investigative reporting in 1975 and in 1980 captured UPI's Illinois Newspapers Best Sportswriting Award. Before joining the White Sox, he held the position of group manager of marketing communications and services for a division of Baxter Healthcare Corporation.

Subject to Change

TIM BUZARD
Vice President, Administration & Finance

As vice president of administration and finance for the White Sox, Tim Buzard is directly responsible for the club's accounting, ticket office, human resources, data processing and public relations departments. Buzard oversees the Chicago Bulls/Chicago White Sox Training Academy, located in Lisle, Ill., which celebrated its grand opening in 2001. The state-of-the-art facility offers professional baseball, softball and basketball instruction to kids of all ages, from beginners to professional athletes.

Prior to his promotion to vice president of administration and finance, Buzard served as vice president of finance for 12 years and controller for five years. Upon his arrival in 1981, his top priority was developing a detailed budget and long-term accounting plan. He initiated the automation of the accounting department and assisted in an organization-wide computerization project. Buzard also has initiated new cash management and comprehensive risk management systems, which reduced risk exposures and costs for the franchise.

Buzard spent much of the 1993 season as a member of Major League Baseball's Chief Financial Officers' Committee studying revenue sharing and has played a major role in the implementation of baseball's new revenue-sharing agreement. Buzard has overseen a ticket office customer service campaign, the development of a human resources department with the White Sox and is responsible for the organization's integrated approach to communications. He currently is a member of the Major League Baseball non-uniformed Personnel Pension Plan Committee.

Buzard graduated in 1978 from the University of Illinois with a degree in accounting and became a certified public accountant in 1981. He served as a senior accountant for Ernst & Whinney for three years prior to joining the Sox.

Buzard was born on September 13, 1955 in Evanston, Ill. He and his wife, Sandra, have two children: Jacqueline and Kevin. The Buzard family resides in Highland Park, Ill., where he is actively involved in coaching youth baseball.

LARRY MONROE
Vice President, Free Agent and Major League Scouting

Larry Monroe enters his 10th season as the club's vice president of free agent and major league scouting after serving as White Sox vice president of scouting and minor league operations from 1990-94. Monroe was named to his present position on October 10, 1994.

A former right-handed pitcher for the White Sox, Monroe brings 29 years of experience in the White Sox organization as a player, scout, minor-league instructor and coach. He served as both a special assistant to the general manager and major-league scout before taking over vice president duties.

In December 2003, Monroe's book, "Best-Kept Secrets of Major League Pitching," was published by Coaches Choice. The book, filled with tips, drills and photographs illustrating proper pitching mechanics, is intended to help teach coaches, parents and pitchers of any age the keys to avoiding injuries and maximizing their personal potential.

Monroe enhances the club's scouting efforts during the season and his experience allows him to assist general manager Ken Williams in evaluating potential player moves.

A graduate of Forest View High School in Arlington Heights, Ill., Monroe received all-conference baseball honors three times and all-area baseball honors twice. He was the White Sox No. 1 selection in the June 1974 free agent draft and made his major-league debut with the White Sox on August 23, 1976 in Detroit, where he pitched two scoreless, hitless innings.

Monroe was born on June 20, 1956 in Detroit, Mich. He is married to Jaine and has three children: Taylor, Allison and Grant, and two stepchildren: Alexandra and Rachael.

TERRY SAVARISE
Vice President, Stadium Operations

As vice president of stadium operations, Terry Savarise is directly responsible for all aspects of the operation of the ballpark, including the over 2,000 employees who staff U.S. Cellular Field on game days. He was responsible for the planning and construction of the new ballpark, which opened in 1991. Savarise has overseen offseason remodeling efforts for 2001-2003, as well as this offseason's dramatic changes to the upper deck of the ballpark. Savarise handled the layout and design of all aspects of the ballpark, including the state-of-the-art features in the Diamond Suites, The Stadium Club, press box and clubhouses.

Entering his 23rd season with the Sox, Savarise also serves as senior vice president of operations for the United Center, home of the Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks. Savarise handled all design and construction aspects of the state-of-the-art multipurpose arena. He also coordinated the installation and operation of the 1996 Democratic National Convention at the United Center.

Savarise spearheaded the design and construction of Tucson Electric Park, the White Sox spring training facility and stadium in Tucson, Ariz., which opened in the spring of 1998. He worked closely on the design and construction of Ed Smith Stadium and Sports Complex in Sarasota, Fla., which served as the club's spring training and minor-league headquarters from 1989-97. In addition, he assisted in the development of L.P. Frans Stadium, home of the White Sox former Class A affiliate in Hickory, North Carolina.

Prior to joining the Sox, Savarise served an internship with the Cleveland Cavaliers of the National Basketball Association in their All-Star Game season (1980-81). He is a member of the Arena Managers' Association and the International Association of Auditorium Managers and has served on the board of directors of the Stadium Managers' Association.

RICK HAHN
Assistant General Manager

Rick Hahn joined the Chicago White Sox on November 28, 2000 and begins his fourth season with the club in 2004. He was promoted from Director of Major League Administration to Assistant General Manager in February 2002.

Hahn's primary responsibilities include assisting General Manager Ken Williams in all player acquisitions and contract negotiations, as well as with the day-to-day operations of the baseball department. Williams credits Hahn with negotiating multiyear contracts with current White Sox players Mark Buehrle, Paul Konerko, Billy Koch, Carlos Lee, Esteban Loaiza and Magglio Ordonez.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Hahn spent just over two years as an associate at Steinberg, Moorad & Dunn, a sports agency based in Newport Beach, Calif. that represents over 150 athletes from Major League Baseball, the National Football League and the National Basketball Association.

Hahn, a native of Winnetka, Ill. and a graduate of New Trier High School, graduated from the University of Michigan in 1993, the Harvard Law School in 1996, and Northwestern's Kellogg Graduate School of Management in 1998. Hahn and his wife, Jean, have one child, Jake. The family resides in Chicago.

ROLAND HEMOND
Executive Advisor to the General Manager

One of the most respected and experienced executives in baseball, Roland Hemond rejoined the Chicago White Sox as executive advisor to General Manager Ken Williams on November 30, 2000.

Hemond, a three-time winner of Major League Baseball's Executive of the Year award, brings over 50 years of professional baseball experience to his position, including 23 seasons as a general manager with the White Sox (1971-85) and Baltimore Orioles (1988-95) and five seasons as a senior executive vice president with the Arizona Diamondbacks (1996-2000).

Hemond advises and assists Williams and represents the White Sox in a number of ways. Not only a valuable asset to the baseball department, he is a nationally recognized ambassador of the game and a highly sought after speaker. Hemond's professionalism, friendliness and willingness to contribute ideas and advice are attributes unmatched in the industry.

In 2003, Hemond was honored with the prestigious "Branch Rickey Award," presented by the Rotary Club of Denver to individuals in baseball who contribute unselfishly to their community and who are strong role models for others. He was the first non-uniformed person to receive the 12-year-old award.

During his first stint with the White Sox, Hemond was named executive of the year in 1972 and 1983. The 1972 Sox, featuring Hemond acquisition Dick Allen and manager Chuck Tanner, went 87-67 for the franchise's first winning record in five seasons. The 1983 club went 99-83 and won the American League West Division title by 20.0 games, then a record for largest winning margin.

While with Baltimore in 1989, Hemond was tabbed executive of the year for the third time after the Orioles improved 32.5 games from the previous season. The 1992 Orioles made a 22.0-game improvement in the standings. Hemond left Baltimore after the 1995 campaign to work with the expansion Diamondbacks.

During his tenure with the White Sox and Orioles, Hemond negotiated 135 trades involving 428 players.

Hemond was honored by Minor League Baseball for his longtime dedication and service to the game as the 2001 "King of Baseball. " Hemond's baseball career began in 1951 as a front office member of the Eastern League's Hartford Chiefs. He also worked with the Boston/Milwaukee Braves from 1952-60 before being hired as scouting and farm director of the Los Angeles Angels in 1961.

Hemond remained in that capacity until joining the Sox in 1970. At the same time, the White Sox hired Tanner, who had served as manager of the Angels Class AAA team in Hawaii while Hemond was with California. The Hemond/Tanner tandem proved potent, as the Sox finished third and second in their first two seasons with the Sox. While with the Sox, Hemond worked for three different ownership groups, John Allyn, Bill Veeck and Jerry Reinsdorf. Hemond left the Sox in 1985 and spent two years working for the Commissioner's office in New York before joining the Orioles.

Hemond is president of the Association of Professional Ballplayers of America (APBPA), a non-profit organization that helps former and current players and baseball personnel in need. He had served as first vice president of the APBPA for the last three years. Along with Dennis Gilbert and scouts Dave Yoakum (White Sox) and Harry Minor (Mets), Hemond helped found the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation to provide assistance to long-time scouts who are in need of special support.

Hemond is a native of Central Falls, R.I. He and his wife, Margo, have five children: Susan, Tere, Robert, Jay and Ryan, and three grandchildren: Taylor, Natalie and Zane. Margo's father is John Quinn, a former

Roland Hemond Award

In January 2003, Jerry Reinsdorf and the Chicago White Sox announced the creation of the Roland Hemond Award in honor of those who are dedicated to bettering the lives of others through extraordinary personal sacrifice. The first recepient was Dr. Julian Lopez of Las Vegas, who donated a kidney to White Sox vice chairman Eddie Einhorn in October 2002. Dr. Lopez, a father of three, had treated Einhorn in the past and the two maintained a friendship. When Dr. Lopez learned of Einhorn's need, he quickly volunteered his own kidney. "This award serves as a tribute to Roland Hemond and was created to celebrate his lifetime commitment and selfless service to the community," said Reinsdorf. "Roland has dedicated himself for more than half a century to bettering the lives of those around him. He is a true inspiration."

major-league general manager for 28 years. Her brother Bob served stints as general manager of the Yankees, Cincinnati Reds and San Francisco Giants, and her brother Jack was president of the NHL's St. Louis Blues after serving as general manager for the Pacific Coast League's Hawaii Islanders and Vancouver Mounties. Hemond's son, Bob, is part owner of the Class AAA Sacramento River Cats of the Pacific Coast League. The Hemonds reside in Phoenix and Chicago.

DUANE SHAFFER
Senior Director of Player Personnel

Duane Shaffer begins his 33rd season with the Chicago White Sox after serving the organization as a player, coach, roving instructor, manager, scout, supervisor and scouting director since 1969.

His current responsibilities include assisting General Manager Ken Williams with evaluating the major league club, special assignment scouting, assisting with player development evaluation and overseeing the club's amateur and professional scouting coverage. Shaffer was the White Sox scouting director for 10 seasons (1991-2000) before serving as senior director of scouting in 2001. He was promoted to senior director of player personnel in February 2002.

Shaffer was honored with the Scout of the Year award in 1987, when the Sox selected pitcher Jack McDowell in the first round. During his tenure, the White Sox have selected Mark Buehrle as a draft and follow in the 38th round of 1998 and took Stanford standout Joe Borchard with the 12th pick of the first round in 2000.

Shaffer's only three seasons away from the White Sox since 1969 were spent on the west coast, first as national crosschecker with the American League Champion Oakland A's in 1988 and then as a special assignment scout for the California/Anaheim Angels in 1989-90.

Shaffer, a right-hander, pitched at Garden Grove (Calif.) High School and also attended Golden West Junior College. He was an 11th-round pick by the Sox in the June 1969 draft. Shaffer is married to Nancy Cox, and the couple has one son: Josh, a shortstop in the White Sox organization, daughters Andrea and Sarah, and three grandchildren. He resides in Anaheim Hills, Calif. and Bolingbrook, Ill.

DAVID WILDER
Director of Player Development

David Wilder begins his first season in the White Sox organization as director of player development. In his position, Wilder oversees the entire minor-league department and player development staff. He originally was hired by the White Sox as a special assistant to General Manager Ken Williams on November 5, 2003 before assuming his current role on December 8.

Wilder spent the last four seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers, working as a special assignment scout in 2003 after serving as vice president of player personnel from 2000-02. In that capacity, Wilder was the primary talent evaluator for the Brewers at both the major and minor league levels, oversaw their scouting and player development systems and directed the organization's professional scouting staff. In 2000, he served as a member of the United States Olympic Baseball team's selection committee, helping assemble a club that won the gold medal at the Summer Games in Sydney, Australia.

Prior to joining the Brewers organization, Wilder was the assistant general manager for the Chicago Cubs during the 1999 season after spending the 1996-98 seasons as the Cubs farm director. Before joining the Cubs, he worked five seasons (1991-95) with the Atlanta Braves in various capacities, including assistant director of scouting and player development in 1995.

Wilder played seven seasons in the minor leagues as an outfielder with Oakland and the Cubs before retiring as a player in 1989. He began his player development career with the A's in 1990 as both a scout and coach with Class A Medford of the Northwest League.

Wilder earned a bachelor's degree in management from St. Mary's College in California. He is single and resides in Scottsdale, Ariz.

DAN FABIAN
Director of Baseball Operations Systems

Dan Fabian begins his 19th season with the White Sox and fourth as director of baseball operations systems. In addition to working closely with General Manager Ken Williams in analyzing potential major-league roster moves (trades, waiver claims, etc.), Fabian oversees the processing of scouting information (including advance, amateur and professional reports), as well the club's video coaching efforts, and also supports the baseball department with statistical research.

Fabian worked the 1986-88 seasons as an intern in the White Sox public relations department before serving as the club's broadcast coordinator for two seasons (1989-90). He then spent two seasons as the manager of community relations (1991-92) before moving to the baseball department, where he worked as a scouting and player development administrator from 1993-96.

Fabian was promoted to assistant director of scouting/minor-league operations following the 1996 campaign and served in that capacity until his promotion to his present post in November 2000.

Fabian, a native of Park Ridge, Ill., graduated from Maine South High School in 1984 and from the University of Notre Dame in 1988. He spent four years as a student assistant in the Notre Dame sports information office. Fabian's father, Dan, was a longtime employee and eventual general manager of WGN Radio. Fabian and his wife, Nina, reside in Naperville, Ill.

GRACE GUERRERO ZWIT
Director of Minor League Administration

Entering her 22nd year with the Chicago White Sox, Grace Zwit oversees the major league club's day-to-day operations involving the team's six minor-league affiliates.

Hired by Roland Hemond and Dave Dombrowski in 1982 as an assistant in the player development/scouting departments, Zwit was named assistant minor league administrator in 1986 and assistant to the director of scouting in 1990. In 1997, she was named assistant director of scouting/minor league administration under Ken Williams and Duane Shaffer. She was promoted to her current title in 2000.

As the liaison with minor league affiliates, Zwit coordinates all expenditures and payroll for the club's player development staff, professional and amateur scouts and roving instructors, minor-league players and the players, coaches and scouts at the club's Dominican Academy in Moca, Dominican Republic.

Zwit acts as the club's liaison to the Minor League Baseball and the Commissioner's Office of Major League Baseball on all minor-league transactions, including minor-league contracts, player development contracts, outright assignments, releases, reserve lists and six-year free agents. She also works with the director of player development to organize spring training, monitor minor-league rosters and prepare the minor-league player guide. Zwit oversees the immigration process for minor and major-league players, coordinates English instruction and cultural assimilation courses for the club's Hispanic players and manages Spanish language instruction for the staff.

Born and raised on south side of Chicago, Zwit is a graduate of Maria High School. She and her husband, Jim, have two sons: Vincent and Christian, and two stepchildren: Jennifer and Jeffrey. They live in LaGrange Park, Ill.

DENNIS GILBERT
Special Assistant to Chairman Jerry Reinsdorf

Dennis Gilbert, a top agent in baseball before his early retirement in January 1999, joined the Chicago White Sox as special assistant to Chairman Jerry Reinsdorf on November 28, 2000.

Gilbert assists the White Sox in contract negotiations, as well as consulting on other baseball-related issues. Always active within the baseball community, Gilbert, along with Roland Hemond and scouts Dave Yoakum (White Sox) and Harry Minor (Mets), created the Professional Scouts Foundation in January 2003. The foundation, which this offseason held a fundraising dinner featuring Willie Mays, Tom Lasorda and other baseball notables, provides support to scouts who have been in baseball at least 25 years but may have fallen on financial hard times due to illness, retirement or the non-renewal of their contracts.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Gilbert was involved in building a top-flight baseball stadium at Southwest College in south central Los Angeles that serves as the home field for Major League Baseball's RBI program (Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities). The ballpark, Dennis Gilbert Field, celebrated its Opening Day on January 20, 2002. He continues his successful insurance practice in Beverly Hills, Calif.

After building his insurance business, Gilbert began his career as an agent in 1980 when he represented Hall of Famer George Brett. Gilbert added clients Bret Saberhagen, Danny Tartabull and Jose Canseco and then formed the successful Beverly Hills Sports Council. His client list included Barry Bonds, Bobby Bonilla, Mike Piazza and Curt Schilling, among others.

Gilbert played minor league baseball for four years and also has scouted in the Los Angeles area. He remains a longtime season-ticket holder for the Los Angeles Dodgers and Anaheim Angels.

Gilbert and his wife, Cinthia Vereen, reside in Hidden Hills, Calif. The couple has three children: Ashlee, Shannon and Hailey.

DAVE YOAKUM
Special Assistant to General Manager Ken Williams

Dave Yoakum enters his 13th season with the White Sox, serving as special assistant to the general manager. Yoakum, who was hired by former Sox general manager Ron Schueler as a special assistant following the 1991 season, works directly for General Manager Ken Williams on special assignment scouting of other major league clubs.

A former infielder in the Detroit Tigers system (1966-70), Yoakum has worked as a coach, instructor, scouting supervisor or major-league scout for over three decades. Following his playing career, Yoakum was a player/coach in the Houston Astros organization (1971), a scouting supervisor/infield instructor for the Astros (1972), a scouting supervisor/infield instructor for the New York Yankees (1974-76), a scouting supervisor/minor league instructor with the Toronto Blue Jays (1977-80) and a major league advance scout for the Blue Jays (1981-91).

During his minor-league playing career, Yoakum was a teammate of four future major-league managers: Cito Gaston, Gene Lamont, Jim Leyland and Stump Merrrill. In his 32 seasons as a scout, Yoakum has worked for executives Tal Smith, Pat Gillick, Schueler and Williams.

In January 2003, Yoakum, along with Dennis Gilbert, Roland Hemond and fellow scout Harry Minor (Mets), created the Professional Scouts Foundation. The foundation will provide support to scouts who have been in baseball at least 25 years but may have fallen on financial hard times due to illness, retirement or the non-renewal of their contracts.

Yoakum was born in Middlesboro, Ky. on December 15, 1946 and graduated from New Albany (Ind.) High School. He resides in Orlando with his wife, Nina Wheeler, daughter Anna, son Dax and stepson Mark.

Aging Gracefully

With two new major-league ballparks opening in 2004, U.S. Cellular Field now ranks as the 15th-oldest ballpark in baseball. U.S. Cellular Field, which has undergone dramatic renovations each of the last four offseasons, opened on April 16, 1991 when the White Sox played the Detroit Tigers. Since that date, Baltimore (1992), Texas (1994), Cleveland (1994), Colorado (1995), Atlanta (1997), Arizona (1998), Seattle (1999), Houston (2000), San Francisco (2000), Detroit (2000), Milwaukee (2001), Pittsburgh (2001), Cincinnati (2003), Philadelphia (2004) and San Diego (2004) have all opened new ballparks.

Viva La Mexico

With 21 victories in 2003, Esteban Loaiza tied Fernando Valenzuela (21-11 in 1986) for the most wins by a Mexican-born pitcher. Loaiza became just the third Mexican pitcher to win 20 games in one season, joining Valenzuela and Teddy Higuera (20-11 in 1986). In addition, he ranks among the all-time leaders in strikeout-to-walk ratio (1st, 3.70), quality starts (T1st, 27), strikeouts per 9.0 IP (4th 8.23), strikeouts (T5th, 207) and ERA (8th, 2.90).

Honor Roll

- Sox first 20-game winner since Jack McDowell (22-10) in 1993
- First Sox pitcher to lead AL in strikeouts since Early Wynn (179) in 1958
- First Sox pitcher to start All-Star Game since Early Wynn in 1959
- First Sox pitcher with 20 wins/sub-3.00 ERA since Jim Kaat in 1974
- His 21 wins tied Fernando Valenzuela (21-11 in 1986) for most wins ever by Mexican-born pitcher
- 27 of 34 starts (79.4 percent) were quality, the highest percentage by a Sox pitcher since 1974
- AL Pepsi Pitcher of the Month for April and AL Pepsi Pitcher of the Week for 4/21-27

Loaiza By The Numbers In 2003

- Finished second behind Toronto's Roy Halladay in the Cy Young Award balloting, marking the 20th time a White Sox pitcher has received votes for the award ... Loaiza became the first Sox pitcher to receive votes since Keith Foulke (1.0) in 1999 and the highest Sox finisher since Jack McDowell won the award in 1993.

- Was attempting to become the fourth pitcher in White Sox history to win the Cy Young Award, joining Early Wynn (1959), LaMarr Hoyt (1983) and Jack McDowell (1993) ... a look at how Sox pitchers have fared in the Cy Young Award voting:

Pitcher	Year	Place	Pts.
Esteban Loaiza	2003	2nd	63.0
Keith Foulke	1999	T9th	1.0
Alex Fernandez	1996	T6th	1.0

LaMarr Hoyt	1983	1st	116.0
Rich Dotson	1983	4th	9.0
Britt Burns	1981	8th	2.0
Jim Kaat	1975	5th	7.0
Goose Gossage	1975	7th	2.0
Wilbur Wood	1973	5th	3.0
Wilbur Wood	1972	2nd	58.0
Wilbur Wood	1971	3rd	23.0
Joel Horlen	1967	2nd	2.0
Early Wynn	1959	1st	13.0
Dick Donovan	1957	2nd	1.0

- Became the seventh pitcher (11th time) in White Sox history to win 20 games and the first since Jack McDowell went 22-10 in 1993 ... since 1976, Loaiza, McDowell (twice), LaMarr Hoyt (24-10 in 1983) and Rich Dotson (22-7 in 1983) are the only Sox pitchers to win 20 games.

- With 207 strikeouts, became the first Sox pitcher since Early Wynn (179 in 1958) to lead the American League in that category and the first since Alex Fernandez (200 in 1996) to record at least 200 in one season ... 207 strikeouts rank eighth in franchise history and are the highest total since Tom Bradley fanned 209 in 1972.

- His 21 victories tied Fernando Valenzuela (21-11 in 1986) for the most wins by a Mexican-born pitcher ... became just the third Mexican pitcher to win 20 games in one season, joining Valenzuela and Teddy Higuera (20-11 in 1986) ... his 90 career wins are tied with Ismael Valdes for third among Mexican pitchers, trailing Valenzuela (173) and Higuera (94) ... Valenzuela (1981) is the only pitcher from Mexico to win the Cy Young Award.

- Also ranked among the American League leaders in quality starts (T1st, 27), strikeouts per 9.0 IP (2nd, 8.23), wins (T2nd), ERA (3rd, 2.90), average with runners in scoring position (3rd, .192), hits per 9.0 IP (4th, 7.79), slugging (4th, .350) and on-base percentage (5th, .286), baserunners per 9.0 IP (5th, 10.4), starts (T5th, 34), IP (6th, 226.1) and winning percentage (T7th, .700) ... led the league in ERA most of the season.

- Established career highs in every category ... 21 wins were 10 more than his previous best of 11 (1997 and 2001), his 207 strikeouts were 85 more than his best of 122 (1997), and his 226.1 IP were 30.0 more than his best of 196.1 (1997).

- Was named to his first All-Star Team, earning the starting nod at the Midsummer Classic on 7/15 at U.S. Cellular Field ... became the first Sox pitcher to start the All-Star Game since Early Wynn in 1959, throwing 2.0 scoreless IP ... also was the first pitcher to start the game in his home park since Boston's Pedro Martinez in 1999.

- 79.4 percent (27-34) of his starts were quality, the highest percentage by a Sox starter since at least 1974 ... his 27 quality starts tied for the most in Sox history by a pitcher (since at least 1974) and tied Fernando Valenzuela (1984) for the most ever by a Mexican pitcher.

- Went 10-5 with three no decisions when pitching after a White Sox loss ... ended Sox losing streaks of four games (once), three (twice), two (twice) and one (five times) ... was 4-0 with a 1.19 ERA (6 ER/28.2 IP) combined vs. Boston, Toronto and New York, the three highest-scoring teams in the AL ... allowed 17 hits, walked six and struck out 26 vs. those teams.

- Allowed two earned runs or less in 21 of 34 starts and fewer hits than IP 19 times ... lasted at least 7.0 IP 21 times ... lost a pair of 1-0 games and left with the lead in three of his four no decisions (was tied in the other ND).

Double Up

Magglio Ordonez ranks fourth in the major league with 201 doubles since 1999, an average of slightly more than 40 per season. Ordonez is one of three players in baseball to hit at least 40 doubles in each of the last three seasons, joining Montreal's Orlando Cabrera and St. Louis' Albert Pujols, and the only player in White Sox history to accomplish the feat. His 46 doubles in 2003 were a career high and tied for the third-highest total in franchise history, three short of Albert Belle's club record set in 1998.

White Sox Minor League Players Of The Year

The White Sox feature four players in the organization who have been named the Minor League Player of the Year. Jon Rauch received the honor from both Baseball America and The Sporting News in 2000 after going 16-4 with a 2.66 ERA (49 ER/166.0 IP) and 187 strikeouts in 26 starts between Class A Winston-Salem and Class AA Birmingham. The 6-11 right-hander joins Sandy Alomar Jr. (1988-89), Frank Thomas (1990) and Paul Konerko (1997) as recipients of the award. Alomar Jr. was tabbed by The Sporting News at Class AAA Las Vegas (San Diego) in 1988 and again by Baseball America and The Sporting News at Las Vegas the following season. Thomas was honored by Baseball America at Birmingham in 1990, while Konerko was cited by Baseball America, Baseball Weekly and Howe SportsData at Class AAA Albuquerque (Los Angeles) in 1997.

1999 Draft Haul

The White Sox 1999 draft yielded six players ranked among Baseball America's Top 33 Prospects. The Sox selected pitchers with 14 of their 15 picks that year. Six pitchers from that draft class will be in major-league camp this spring: RHP Matt Ginter (first round), RHP Dan Wright (second), RHP Jon Rauch (third), LHP Josh Stewart (fifth), LHP Dave Sanders (sixth) and LHP Corwin Malone (ninth). RHP Matt Guerrier, selected in the 10th round, was traded to Pittsburgh in March 2002 in the deal that brought Damaso Marte to the Sox. RHP Joe Valentine, a 26th-round pick in 1999, was part of the December 2002 deal that brought closer Billy Koch from Oakland to Chicago.

Finishing What You Start

According to research by Baseball Digest, 34 different pitchers (44 times) since 1900 have earned a decision in each game he pitched (minimum 20 contests). Two different White Sox pitchers, Ted Lyons and Monty Stratton, make the list. Lyons went 12-10 in 22 games in 1941 and 14-6 in 20 games in 1942, while Stratton was 15-9 with two saves in 26 games in 1938.

Frank Thomas From 1991-98

Frank Thomas is the only player in major-league history to bat .300 or better with at least 20 home runs, 100 RBI, 100 walks and 100 runs scored in seven consecutive seasons, a string that ended in 1998. In 1995, Thomas became the first player in history to accomplish that feat over five straight years, and in 1994 he joined Lou Gehrig (1929-32, 34-37) and Ted Williams (1946-49) as the only players to reach those totals four consecutive seasons (Note: Williams accomplished the feat from 1941-42 and 1946-49, missing 1943-45 due to World War II). Thomas has averaged .319 with 33 home runs, 112 RBI, 103 runs scored and 115 walks over his nine full seasons in the major leagues.

... combined with Magglio Ordonez (126) to drive in 269 runs, breaking the franchise record of 266 set by Zeke Bonura (138) and Luke Appling (128) in 1936 ... led team with 57 multihit games and 34 multiRBI outings ... reached the 100 RBI, 100 walks and 100 runs scored plateau for the ninth time in 10 full seasons, third-most in baseball history behind Babe Ruth (12) and Lou Gehrig (11) ... hit .354 (40-113) with 12 home runs and 39 RBI at first base and .330 (150-467) with 30 home runs and 102 RBI as the designated hitter ... recorded 36 home runs, 92 runs scored and 111 RBI after changing his batting stance on 5/24 vs. New York ... hit 11 first-inning home runs ... batted .333 (104-312) with 26 home runs and 75 RBI in the first half but was left off the All-Star Team ... ranked among the AL leaders at the break in multiple categories, including home runs (T2nd), total bases (5th, 201), slugging (5th, .644) and on-base percentage (6th, .442), runs scored (6th, 66) and RBI (eighth) ... his 26 homers were the second-highest first-half total in club history and his 75 RBI were fourth ... also led the league with a .471 (24-51) average vs. left-handers at the break ... was named AL Player of the Week for 4/3-9 and the post break period of 7/13-16, the 11th and 12th weekly honors of his career ... batted .330 (32-97) with 12 home runs and 28 RBI in June ... 12 home runs matched career monthly best (also 5/94) and tied for third-most in franchise history ... hit .340 (33-97) with seven homers and 24 RBI in July ... led the AL with nine home runs in August and ranked third with 30 RBI ... his 30 RBI also set a club record for the month ... went 0-9 in the ALDS vs. Seattle ... hit grand slams on 4/26 vs. Baltimore (Sidney Ponson) and 9/11 vs. Detroit (Nelson Cruz), upping his career total to seven ... hit career-high 42nd home run on 9/11 vs. Detroit ... drew a walk on 9/2 vs. Anaheim to reach 100 runs scored, 100 RBI and 100 walks for the ninth time in his career, third-most in major-league history behind Ruth (12) and Gehrig (11) ... drove in 100th run on 8/10 vs. Seattle, the eighth time in nine seasons he has reached that milestone ... hit 448-foot homer on 7/17 vs. Milwaukee ... matched career high with six RBI on 7/15 vs. St. Louis ... became Sox all-time RBI leader on 7/14 vs. St. Louis with a two-run homer off Garrett Stephenson, breaking Luke Appling's 50-year old club record of 1,116 ... Thomas set the record in 1,459 games compared to 2,422 for Appling ... hit his 336th career double on 7/3 at Kansas City to move past Nellie Fox into second in Sox history (Luke Appling, 440) ... went 4-5 with two home runs on 6/21 vs. Cleveland, his first multihomer game since 4/18/98 at Toronto ... hit first career pinch-hit home run on 6/7 at Cincinnati, a two-run shot in the sixth that gave the Sox a 4-3 lead and led to a three-game sweep ... scored 1,000th career run on 6/6 at Cincinnati, joining Harold Baines, Barry Bonds, Fred McGriff, Mark McGwire and Cal Ripken as the only active players with 300 home runs, 1,000 runs scored, 1,000 RBI and 1,000 walks ... collected 1,610th hit on 5/13 vs. Minnesota, moving past Ozzie Guillen into sole possession of fifth place in Sox history ... began the season with an 11-game hitting streak (.478, 22-46), his second-longest to open a season (15 in 1996).

■ 1999: Batted above .300 (.305) for the eighth time in nine seasons, a 40-point improvement from 1998 ... season was cut short due to an injury to his right ankle which eventually required surgery ... appeared in a career-low 135 games (not counting the 1994 strike-shortened season) ... for the first time in his career, did not rank among the AL Top 10 in a major offensive category ... tied for fifth in the AL in intentional walks (13) ... last appearance came as pinch hitter on 9/6-1 at Texas ... underwent season-ending surgery on right ankle on 9/13 ... team podiatrist Dr. Lowell Scott Weil removed a spur from the ankle, a corn from his small toe and performed several other minor podiatric procedures ... became the eighth player in Sox history to amass 1,500 hits on 6/24 vs. Minnesota ... compiled a career-long 21-game hitting streak from 5/24-6/15 (.402, 33-82) ... streak tied for the ninth-longest in Sox history ... average was as high as .365 on 5/15 ... collected 1,000th RBI on 6/6 vs. Pittsburgh ... drew 1,000th walk on 4/17 at Kansas City, the ninth active player to accomplish the feat ... hit 300th career home run on 8/7 at Oakland ... reached base safely in 115 of 135 games ... was hitting .327 (91-278) with 11 home runs and 51 RBI through June ... reached base safely in 69 of first 75 games ... hit .274 (57-208) with four home runs and 26 RBI after 7/1 ... batted .346 (65-188) with eight home runs and 32 RBI as a first baseman and .281 (83-295) with seven home runs and 45 RBI as a designated hitter ... hit 300th career double on 6/18 vs. Baltimore ... hit 315th career double on 8/19 vs. Anaheim to move past Harold Baines into third place in Sox history ... was 4-5 on 6/1 at Toronto, his first four-hit game since 7/20/97 at Baltimore ... hit two first-inning home runs ... first-inning double on 5/3 at Anaheim was 588th extra-base hit, breaking Luke Appling's club record ... reached the record in only 1,253 career games ... played in 1,359th game on 8/23 at Tampa Bay to move past Sherm Lollar into 10th place in Sox history ... started 49 games at first base.

■ 1998: Reached the century mark in runs (109), RBI (109) and walks (110) despite hitting a career-low .265 ... it marked the eighth consecutive season he has hit at least 20 home runs (29 in 1998), with at least 100 runs scored, RBI and walks ... eight successive seasons with at least 20 home runs is a club record ... drove in at least 100 runs for the eighth straight season ... only Al Simmons (1924-34) owned a longer streak to start a career ... ranked second in the AL in walks (110), third in sacrifice flies (11), fourth in plate appearances (712), ninth in games played (160) ... reached base 271 times, fifth in the league ... saw 2,896 pitches, second to Oakland's Rickey Henderson (2,903) ... his 585 at-bats and seven stolen bases were career highs ... batted .277 vs. right-handers but just .226 vs. lefties ... entered 1998 with a lifetime .370 average vs. lefties ... on-base percentage against right-handers was .396, eighth

Sox Switch-Hitting Home Runs

Jose Valentin is one of four players in White Sox history to homer from both sides of the plate in the same game and the only player to do it more than once (three times). Valentin accomplished the feat for the third time with the Sox on July 30, 2003 at Kansas City, hitting a pair of homers off right-hander Runelvys Hernandez and a solo shot off lefty Jeremy Affeldt. On August 13, 2002 at Texas, he hit his sixth career grand slam off lefty Dennys Reyes and added a solo shot off right-hander Todd Van Poppel to match his career high of six RBI. He first accomplished the feat with the Sox on September 30, 2000 vs. Kansas City when he homered off right-handed starter Blake Stein and lefty Scott Mullen. Outfielder Ken Henderson was the first player in Sox history to homer from both sides of the plate on August 29, 1975 at Baltimore (off LHP Ross Grimsley and RHP Wayne Garland). Tim Raines repeated the trick on August 31, 1993 at New York (off LHP Sterling Hitchcock and RHP Rich Monteleone). Brian Simmons preceeded Valentin on September 26, 1998 at Kansas City (off RHP Brian Barber and LHP Allen McDill).

career high with four hits on 6/8 vs. Kansas City ... hit .387 (12-31) during a nine-game hitting streak from 6/27-7/9 ... notched his 500th career hit on 8/27 at Arizona (Andy Benes) ... had one hit from 7/29-8/21 ... made 110 starts at shortstop (21 errors) ... played for Mayaguez in the Puerto Rico Winter League.

■ 1997: Stole a career-high 19 bases (matched in 2000) ... hit .293 (48-231) on the road compared to an AL-worst .208 (48-231) at home ... 15 of 17 homers came against right-handers ... grounded into double plays just 5.1 percent of the time, ninth-best in the American League ... compiled a 10-game hitting streak (.371, 13-35) from 5/23-6/1 ... also hit in nine straight games from 7/2-14 ... started the season in a 2-20 (.100) slump before fracturing the middle finger on right hand while attempting to bunt on 4/13 vs. Toronto ... was on the 15-day disabled from 4/14-5/5.

■ 1996: Set career highs in virtually every offensive category, including home runs (24) and RBI (95) ... grounded into four double plays in 135 situations (3.0 percent), the best ratio in the AL ... drove in four runs three times ... hit third career grand slam on 7/18 vs. Kansas City ... batted .248 against left-handers, up from .133 in 1995 ... hit his first two career homers against lefties ... after committing 15 errors in 1995, led all major-league shortstops with 37 ... hit .277 with 12 home runs, 57 RBI and 50 runs scored in the first half ... compiled a then career-high, 12-game hitting streak from 6/17-30 (.426, 20-47) ... went 4-6 with a home run and career-high four runs scored on 4/2 at Anaheim ... twice collected four hits.

■ 1995: His ratio of grounding into double plays was the best in the AL ... was limited to pinch-running duty in September after breaking a finger on his throwing hand while diving into a base on 8/21 at Kansas City ... hit game-winning grand slam in the ninth on 6/21 at Toronto ... recorded first career multihomer game on 6/10 vs. Cleveland off Orel Hershiser ... collected four hits on 5/20 at Texas.

■ 1994: Named Brewers Rookie of the Year ... his 11 home runs were the most by a Brewers middle infielder since Dale Sveum hit 25 in 1987 ... all 11 homers were hit left-handed ... hit first career grand slam on 7/20 vs. Kansas City (Tom Gordon) ... twice drove in four runs ... led AL shortstops with 20 errors.

■ 1993: Was recalled from Class AAA New Orleans on 9/3 ... made his first major-league start (at shortstop) on 9/5 at Seattle ... collected his first hit on 9/8 at Kansas City, a single off Hipolito Pichardo ... hit his first career home run on 9/15 vs. New York, a three-run shot off Rich Monteleone.

■ 1992: Was recalled by the Brewers on 9/11 ... made major-league debut on 9/17 at Boston, scoring as a pinch-runner in the eighth inning ... played his first game in the field on 9/18 vs. Baltimore ... was 0-3 with an error in his first major-league start (third base) on 10/4 at Oakland.

Roberto Clemente Award

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team. For the past three seasons, Jose Valentin was the White Sox recipient of this award.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Robert Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who understand the value of helping others.

A Panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith and Cal Ripken Jr.

John Hancock Financial Services, a company that has long recognized the obligation to the community, is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the Roberto Clemente Award.

SoxFest

SoxFest is the White Sox annual three-day convention held at the Hyatt Regency Chicago that offers fans the opportunity to meet their favorite current and former White Sox players. SoxFest visitors also can visit the White Sox Kids' Corner, purchase genuine White Sox merchandise and baseball memorabilia from the White Sox Garage Sale and receive free skills instruction from Sox players and White Sox Training Academy instructors. Nearly 12,000 fans attended the 12th annual convention in 2004 as current and former Sox players and staff signed more than 26,000 autographs and Chicago White Sox Charities raised more than $100,000, a record for the event. SoxFest 2005 will be held from January 14-16 at the Hyatt Regency Chicago.

Windy City Classic

For the fifth straight season, the White Sox and Cubs will play a pair of three-game series in 2004, on June 25-27 at U.S. Cellular Field and July 2-4 at Wrigley Field. Since interleague play began in 1997, the White Sox hold a 20-16 edge, although the Cubs have outscored the Sox by a 183-170 margin. The South Siders are 11-7 at home and 9-9 at Wrigley Field. The Sox took two of three games, both at home and at Wrigley Field. The White Sox drew 135,445 fans on June 27-29, the third-largest turnout for a three-game series at U.S. Cellular Field. It marked the third straight season in which the White Sox and Cubs established a three-game series attendance record at U.S. Cellular Field. In addition, the crosstown series has drawn the top 12 regular-season crowds in U.S. Cellular Field history, including a record 46,027 on June 28, 2002. Including postseason, exhibition, spring training and regular-season games, the Sox own a 141-95-6 edge.

Four Of The Top 10 Batting Leaders

The Chicago White Sox have finished with four of the league's Top 10 batters twice in franchise history, in 1945 and again in 1960. The feat has occurred just 23 times in Major League history (last by the Chicago Cubs in 1988). In 1945, Tony Cuccinello (2nd, .308), Johnny Dickshot (3rd, .302), Wally Moses (6th, .295) and Oris Hackett (8th, .293) finished among the American League's Top 10. In 1960, Al Smith (2nd, .315), Minnie Minoso (3rd, .311), Roy Sievers (6th, .295) and Nellie Fox (9th, .289) accomplished the feat.

A Midsummer Classic

The White Sox hosted Major League Baseball's 74th All-Star Game on July 15, 2003 at U.S. Cellular Field, with the American League staging a dramatic, come-from-behind 7-6 victory over the National League. The NL held a 6-3 lead before the AL staged a late rally, highlighted by Hank Blalock's (Texas) game-winning two-run homer off Eric Gagne (Los Angeles). It was the only blown save suffered by Gagne during the 2003 season. Anaheim's Garret Anderson captured the Century 21 Home Run Derby, defeating St. Louis' Albert Pujols in the finals.

Arms Race

The White Sox ranked fourth in the American League in 2003 with a 4.17 ERA, trailing only Oakland (3.63), Seattle (3.76) and the Yankees (4.02). That figure is down from their 4.53 ERA in 2002 when they finished eighth in the AL. In addition, the Sox ranked third in the AL with a club-record 1,056 strikeouts, .253 opponents average, 12 complete games and .404 opponents slugging percentage. The Sox 12 complete games were their highest total since 1995.

There's No Place Like Home

The White Sox went 51-30 (.630) at U.S. Cellular Field in 2003, the third-best home winning percentage in the American League behind Oakland (57-24, .704) and Boston (53-28, .654). The 51 wins set a club record at the new park, breaking the previous mark of 50 set in 1992. The Sox 130 home runs at home ranked second in the major leagues behind Texas (140) and were two short of the club record set in 2002. Chicago has gone 574-442 (.565) in 13 seasons at the new park, the third-best record in the AL behind the Yankees (612-403, .603) and Seattle (572-436, .567).

Long Ball

The White Sox (2000-03) are one of three teams in major-league history to hit at least 200 home runs in four consecutive seasons, joining Seattle (1996-99) and the Yankees (2000-03). The Sox hit a club-record 220 home runs in 2003, fourth-most in the American League, and ranked second in baseball with 130 at home, two off the club mark set in 2002. Five Sox players hit at least 20 home runs in 2003, with Joe Crede at 19 and Paul Konerko at 18. Carlos Lee hit a career-high 31 homers, Jose Valentin matched his career best of 28, and Frank Thomas hit 40-plus homers for the fifth time in his career.

That's A Winner

Magglio Ordonez recorded the final out of the 74th All-Star Game on July 15, 2003 at U.S. Cellular Field, becoming the fifth player in major-league history to accomplish that feat in his home ballpark. Ordonez, playing right field, caught Rafael Furcal's (Atlanta) fly ball at the warning track to preserve a 7-6 victory for the American League. The list of All-Stars recording the final out in their home park, courtesy of Retrosheet:

White Sox 2003 Attendance Notes

■ The White Sox drew 1,939,611 fans in 2003 (23,946 per game), the eighth-highest total in franchise history and second-highest since 1993 (behind 2000) ... the Sox increase of 262,683 fans from 2002 was the third-largest in the American League behind Anaheim (+755,533) and Kansas City (+456,859).

■ The White Sox drew 1,243,318 fans over their final 43 home dates, an average of 28,914, and 417,844 fans attended September home dates, their highest total for the month since 1993 ... their total of 342,814 walk-up sales this season was the highest total since the club began tracking that figure in 1998.

■ The Sox drew more than 30,000 fans to 20 home dates, including six sellouts (6/28-30 vs. Cubs, 8/4-5 vs. Kansas City and 9/19 vs. Kansas City).

■ The White Sox have drawn 7,330,476 fans over the past four seasons ... since the new park opened in April 1991, the Sox have drawn 25,105,683 fans, an average of 1.93 million per season.

1906 World Series

CHICAGO WHITE SOX 4
CHICAGO CUBS 2

Recap: The White Sox, dubbed the "Hitless Wonders" for their lack of offensive punch, defeated the heavily favored Cubs, winners of a major-league record 116 games, in what was billed as the Trolley Car Series ... the Sox batted a league-low .230 during the regular season, were shut out 16 times and hit just seven home runs ... conversely, the Cubs fielded the legendary infield of Joe Tinker, Johnny Evers and Frank Chance, and featured the National League's top pitcher in future Hall of Famer Mordecai "Three Finger" Brown ... the Sox pitching staff posted a league-best 32 shutouts, with ace Ed Walsh recording a league-best 10 followed by Doc White and Frank Owen with seven apiece ... despite hitting only .198 in the series, the pitching staff stymied the Cubs offense, compiling a 1.67 ERA (10 ER/54.0 IP) while allowing only 27 hits (.196 average).

Game 1: White Sox 2, Cubs 1
October 9 at West Side Grounds

WP: Altrock LP: Brown Save: None
Time: 1:45 Att: 12,693 HR: None

Recap: Nick Altrock outdueled Mordecai "Three Finger" Brown as the White Sox captured the series opener, 2-1 ... a pair of errors by the North Siders led to both Sox runs ... Frank Isbell's RBI single in the sixth inning gave the White Sox a 2-0 lead, but after a wild pitch in the bottom of the frame brought the Cubs within a run, Altrock fired blanks the rest of the way ... the game was played amid snow flurries and freezing temperatures.

Game 2: Cubs 7, White Sox 1
October 10 at South Side Park

Cubs	0	3	1	0	0	1	0	2	0	—	7

WP: Reulbach LP: White Save: None
Time: 1:58 Att: 12,595 HR: None

Recap: On another frigid afternoon, Ed Reulbach threw a one-hitter, and the Cubs offense broke out for 10 hits and seven runs as they evened the series at a game apiece ... the Cubs stole seven bases and knocked Sox starter Doc White (four unearned runs) out of the game after 3.0 IP ... the White Sox were held hitless by Reulbach until Jiggs Donahue's single in the seventh inning ... two Sox errors led to five unearned runs.

Game 3: White Sox 3, Cubs 0

WP: Walsh LP: Pfiester Save: None
Time: 2:10 Att: 13,667 HR: None

Recap: Ed Walsh threw a two-hit shutout with 12 strikeouts, and George Rohe hit a three-run triple in the sixth inning to lead the Sox to a 3-0 victory ... Walsh yielded a single and double in the first but held the Cubs hitless the rest of the game ... Cubs starter Jack Pfeister loaded the bases with no outs in the sixth but then retired the next two batters before giving up Rohe's game-winning hit down the left-field line.

Game 4: Cubs 7, White Sox 1
October 12 at South Side Park

Cubs	0	3	1	0	0	1	0	2	0	—	7

WP: Brown LP: Altrock Save: None
Time: 1:36 Att: 18,385 HR: None

Recap: In a reversal of Game 1, "Three Finger" Brown got the best of Nick Altrock as the Cubs again evened the series with a 1-0 victory ... Brown held the White Sox hitless through 5.2 IP before settling for a two-hitter ... the Cubs manufactured the game's only run in the seventh inning on a single, two sacrifice bunts and another single.

Game 5: White Sox 8, Cubs 6
October 13 at West Side Grounds

White Sox	1	0	2	4	0	1	0	0	0	—	8
Cubs	3	0	0	1	0	2	0	0	0	—	6

WP: Walsh LP: Pfiester Save: White
Time: 2:40 Att: 23,257 HR: None

Recap: In a depature from the pitching-dominated performances of the first four games, the White Sox outlasted the Cubs despite committing six errors ... Frank Isbell tied a World Series record with four doubles, scored three runs and drove in two ... Recap: Cy Young Award winner LaMarr Hoyt threw a complete-game, five-hitter as the White Sox took the opener of the ALCS ... Hoyt, who was 24-10 in the regular season, carried a shutout into the ninth inning before running into his only real trouble of the day ... with two outs, Dan Ford doubled and Cal Ripken followed with an RBI single ... Hoyt then induced the next batter, Eddie Murray, to ground into a game-ending force out ... he did not issue a walk and struck out four ... Rudy Law was 3-5 with a double and run scored, and Tom Paciorek went 2-4 with an RBI and run scored ... the game included a 42-minute rain delay in the bottom of the fourth.

Recap: In the first playoff game hosted by the city of Chicago since the 1959 World Series, Baltimore exploded for 11 runs to reverse the trend of pitching duels ... Eddie Murray, hitless in his previous 29 plate appearances dating to the 1979 World Series, hit a three-run homer off Rich Dotson in the first inning ... Murray finished with four runs scored, Cal Ripken was 2-4 with three runs scored, and John Lowenstein drove in two ... Dotson, a 22-game winner in the regular season, allowed six runs in 5.0 IP ... the Orioles collected just eight hits but four Sox pitchers combined to issue nine walks ... Baltimore starter Mike Flanagan gave up one run on five hits over 5.0 IP before leaving with stiffness in his knee, but Sammy Stewart held the Sox scoreless on one hit over the final 4.0 IP for the save ... Rudy Law (2-4) posted his third straight multihit game, and Vance Law drove in the Sox lone run with a second-inning single.

Recap: The White Sox and Orioles hooked up in one of the more memorable pitching duels in postseason history, with Tito Landrum breaking a scoreless tie in the 10th inning with a solo homer off Britt Burns to clinch the series for Baltimore ... Burns matched scoreless frames with Baltimore pitchers Storm Davis and Tippy Martinez through nine innings before Landrum hit Burns' 150th pitch of the afternoon through a stiff wind into the left field stands ... Salome Barojas replaced Burns and gave up two more runs to account for the final margin ... Davis threw 6.0 scoreless IP for the Orioles, and Martinez went the final 4.0 IP to earn the win ... the White Sox left 10 men on base, stranding at least one runner in each inning but the first ... Chicago squandered a prime scoring chance in the seventh ... with runners on first and second and one out, Julio Cruz hit a single to left field with lead runner Vance Law being stopped at third base ... Jerry Dybzinski, the runner on first, overran second base and was caught in a rundown ... during the rundown, Law broke for home but was tagged out in a collision at the plate ... Rudy Law, the Sox leading hitter in the series (.389), then struck out to end the threat ... Cruz finished 3-3, and Harold Baines was 2-4.

HISTORY

White Sox Starting Pitchers In The All-Star Game

Right-hander Esteban Loaiza became just the third pitcher in White Sox history (fifth time) and first since Early Wynn in 1959 to start an All-Star Game when he took the mound on July 15, 2003 at U.S. Cellular Field. Loaiza went 2.0 scoreless IP, allowing just one one hit with one strikeout but did not factor in the decision. He joins Wynn (1959) and Billy Pierce (1953, 1955-56) as the only Sox pitchers to start the Midsummer Classic.

ALL-STAR GAMES

The 2003 All-Star Game, Major League Baseball's 74th, was the fourth Midsummer Classic hosted by the Chicago White Sox and the eighth overall in the city of Chicago. Hank Blalock of Texas hit a game-winning, two-run homer off Eric Gagne of Los Angeles in the eighth inning to give the American League a 7-6 victory before a crowd of 47,609. It was the only blown save charged to Gagne during the 2003 season. Anaheim's Garret Anderson was named Most Valuable Player after going 3-4 with a double, home run and two RBI.

WHITE SOX ALL-STAR GAME FACTS

■ Old Comiskey Park was the site of the inaugural All-Star Game in 1933, the 1950 contest and the 1983 game, played on the golden anniversary of the 1933 classic. The 1933 game, won by the American League, 4-2, was the first event of its kind in professional sports. The 1950 game was the first contest televised nationally by a network, and the 1983 game was played 50 years to the day of the first Midsummer Classic in 1933. Wrigley Field played host in 1947, twice in 1962 and again in 1990. The American League holds a 3-1 edge in games hosted by the White Sox.

■ Eighty-two different White Sox players (159 times) have been named All-Stars since 1933. Nellie Fox, with 12, tops all White Sox players, while Billy Pierce, with seven, leads all Sox pitchers in appearances. The top five White Sox players in All-Star appearances: Fox, Luis Aparicio (7), Luke Appling (7), Pierce, Sherm Lollar (6) and Minnie Minoso (6).

■ July 6, 1933 — The first All-Star Game is played at Comiskey Park with the AL winning, 4-2.

■ July 11, 1950 — The All-Star Game returns to Comiskey Park. The National League records a 4-3, 13-inning decision. Ewell Blackwell earns the victory. NBC becomes the first network to televise the game, with 48 stations carrying the broadcast to an estimated 10 million viewers. Jack Brickhouse handles broadcasting duties.

■ July 13, 1960 — Seven White Sox players, including manager Al Lopez, represent the AL All-Stars in the Midsummer Classic at Yankee Stadium. The White Sox and Yankees each send seven players, most among AL teams. Pittsburgh sends eight for the NL, which hits four home runs en route to a 6-0 win.

■ July 6, 1983 — Old Comiskey Park plays host to the golden anniversary All-Star Game, 50 years to the day after the first Midsummer Classic in 1933. The AL wins, 13-3, behind Fred Lynn's grand slam.

■ July 9, 1991 — Carlton Fisk becomes the oldest player in All-Star Game history to collect a hit when the 11-time All-Star singles at age 43 years, seven months and 13 days.

■ July 11, 1995 — Frank Thomas becomes the first White Sox player to homer in an All-Star Game when he connects off Cincinnati's John Smiley in the fourth inning at The Ballpark in Arlington.

■ July 11, 2000 — In Atlanta, James Baldwin becomes the fifth White Sox pitcher to win an All-Star Game, joining Edgar Smith (1941 at Detroit), Early Wynn (1958 at Baltimore), Ray Herbert (1962 at Wrigley Field) and Jack McDowell (1993 at Baltimore).

■ July 10, 2001 — Magglio Ordonez goes 2-3 with a home run at the All-Star Game in Seattle, becoming the second player in Sox history to homer in the Midsummer Classic.

■ July 9, 2002 — Mark Buehrle and Paul Konerko make their first All-Star appearances in the Midsummer Classic in Milwaukee. Buehrle, the first Sox lefthander to make the team since Wilson Alvarez in 1994, allows one run on two hits over 2.0 IP. Konerko ties the All-Star Game record with two doubles, going 2-2 with two RBI. The contest ends in a tie, 7-7 after 11 innings for just the second time in history (last, 7/31/61 at Fenway Park).

■ July 15, 2003 — Esteban Loaiza, Carl Everett and Magglio Ordonez represent the White Sox at the All-Star Game at U.S. Cellular Field. Loaiza becomes the first Sox pitcher since Early Wynn in 1959 to start a Midsummer Classic. Loaiza allows just one hit over 2.0 scoreless IP but does not figure in the decision. Everett and Ordonez each go 0-1, but Ordonez, making his fourth All-Star appearance, records the final out in the AL's come-from-behind 7-6 victory.

Esteban Loaiza acknowleges the U.S. Cellular Field crowd after throwing 2.0 scoreless IP at the 74th All-Star Game.

Team Of The Century

Two-time MVP Frank Thomas led all voting as the White Sox announced the franchise's 27-player "Team of the Century" on September 30, 2000, commemorating 100 years of White Sox baseball. Thomas, who received 10,822 votes, was followed by Joe Jackson (9,293), Luke Appling (9,234), Carlton Fisk (8,866) and Nellie Fox (8,727). Al Lopez, who went 840-650 (.562) in 11 seasons as Sox manager from 1957-65 and '68-69, was selected as the All-Century Manager.

Ten of the 27 players are Hall of Famers, including the recently inducted Fisk, and six played during the Go-Go Sox era of the 1950s. Thomas is the only Team of the Century members still active with the Sox. More than 200,000 votes were cast on 18,500 in-stadium and online ballots during the month-long voting.

Minnie Minoso

Orestes "Minnie" Minoso played 12 seasons with the White Sox covering five separate stints and four decades, batting .298 (1,963-6,579) with 186 home runs and 1,023 RBI from 1951-57, '60-61, '64, '76 and '80. Minoso became the first African-American player in franchise history when he made his major-league debut on May 1, 1951 vs. the Yankees, homering off Vic Raschi in his first at-bat. A six-time All-Star with the Sox, he ranks among the career franchise leaders in virtually every offensive category. Minoso's uniform No. 9 was retired by the Sox in 1983, and he still works with the club as a community relations representative.

Fewest Fielding Chances By A Sox First Baseman

On April 27, 1930, Sox first baseman John "Bud" Clancy played the entire game at St. Louis without a putout or assist. He shares the American League record for fewest fielding chances at first base in a nine-inning game with Oakland's Gene Tenace, who equaled Clancy on September 1, 1974.

White Sox Turnaround

The White Sox 1990 record of 94-68 (after finishing 69-92 in 1989) was the largest one-year turnabout in club history, eclipsing the 1970-71 revival when the Sox improved from 56-106 to 79-83.

Consecutive Winning Seasons

The White Sox posted 17 consecutive winning seasons from 1951-67, the third-longest string in baseball history behind the New York Yankees (39 from 1926-64) and Baltimore Orioles (18 from 1968-85).

White Sox Score In Every Inning

In a 12-8 win vs. Boston on May 11, 1949, the White Sox scored a run in every inning. The Sox scored once in the first, second, fourth, sixth and seventh innings; twice in the third and fifth and three times in the eighth.

The Big Hurt

With a .347 average in 1997, Frank Thomas became just the second player (third time) in White Sox history to win the American League batting title. Luke Appling won batting crowns for the Sox in 1936 (.388) and 1943 (.328). At 6-foot-5 and 275 pounds, Thomas also became the largest player ever to win a batting title. Dave Parker (1978-79) and John Olerud (1993) each were listed at 6-foot-5 when they led the league in average, while Parker and Andres Galarraga (1993) each weighed 235.

Four Home Runs In One Inning

The White Sox tied a club record (second time) with four home runs in one inning on May 3, 2000 vs. Toronto. Mark Johnson hit a two-run shot, and Jose Valentin, Frank Thomas and Paul Konerko later added back-to-back-to-back home runs in the sixth inning. Frank Thomas, Harold Baines, Robin Ventura and Chad Kreuter were the first to accomplish the feat when they each homered in the eighth inning of a 12-1 victory vs. Milwaukee on May 26, 1996.

Note: The White Sox remain the last major-league team to open a season with a scheduled doubleheader, scoring 6-5 and 12-4 victories at Oakland on April 7, 1971. The A's had started their season two days earlier at Washington. The Sox won two other Opening Day doubleheaders (1971 on the road and 1982 at home). Both resulted from inclement weather.

Minor League Rehabilitation Facility

The Chicago White Sox and Catawba College in Salisbury, N.C. are in the second year of an agreement that allows the club to utilize the school's facilities to help rehabilitate major and minor league players during the summer. Catawba College, an NCAA Division II school with 1,000 students, features a newly-constructed $3.2 million athletic fieldhouse, an athletic training complex for 17 sports, a weight room, running track and indoor batting cages. Scott Takao, the White Sox minor league rehabilitation coordinator, supervises the rehab programs for injured Sox minor leaguers and those returning after surgery. White Sox major-league players also may utilize the facility during rehabilitation assignments. Three of the six Sox minor-league affiliates — Class AAA Charlotte, Class A Winston-Salem and Class A Kannapolis — are located within 75 miles of the facility.

Triple Plays

The last triple play turned by the White Sox came on June 6, 1996 at Boston's Fenway Park. With Joe Magrane pitching, Mo Vaughn and Jose Canseco both walked. Tim Naehring grounded to White Sox third baseman Robin Ventura, who stepped on third base to force out Vaughn. Ventura threw to second base where Ray Durham forced out Canseco, and Durham's relay throw to first baseman Frank Thomas beat Naehring.

Nathan Durst Wins Third Annual "George Bradley Scout of the Year Award"

Nathan Durst, the Midwest Scouting Supervisor with the Chicago White Sox, is the recipient of the George Bradley Scout of the Year Award for his efforts in 2003. The award, which previously had been part of the organization's annual Lubin honors, was renamed for Bradley, the longtime baseball executive, scout for the White Sox and special assistant to general manager Ken Williams, who passed away suddenly in September 2001. Ed Pebley and Gary Pellant shared the award for the 2002 season, and John Tumminia won the inaugural honor in 2001.

U.S. Cellular Field

U.S. Cellular, a Chicago-based wireless service provider, and the Chicago White Sox signed a naming rights agreement on January 31, 2003, that created the opportunity to pursue dramatic, fan-focused renovations and improvements to the ballpark, now named U.S. Cellular Field. The renovations for 2004 include removing eight rows and 6,600 seats from the upper deck and adding ironwork and a flat roof designed to cover 13 of the 21 rows. A fully renovated U.S. Cellular Field is expected to be ready by Opening Day 2005.

The terms of the 23-year agreement include $68 million paid over 20 years. The White Sox also extended their lease with the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority (ISFA) for 15 additional years, through 2025.

"U.S. Cellular and the White Sox have forged a unique partnership that will provide the resources for major design changes to the ballpark that will benefit every White Sox fan," said Jerry Reinsdorf, chairman of the White Sox. "Our goal is to transform U.S. Cellular Field and to provide a fun, family-oriented atmosphere for our fans. As a local company committed to its customers in the Chicagoland area, U.S. Cellular is the right partner to make this a reality."

A major difference between the U.S. Cellular Field partnership and other agreements is that the naming rights revenue provided by this partnership allows ISFA and the White Sox to make major changes to the ballpark in order to improve the fan experience.

"The Chicago White Sox have played an important and very visible role in this community for more than 100 years," said John E. Rooney, president and CEO of U.S. Cellular. "We are extremely proud of U.S. Cellular's Chicago roots. Our company's participation in a dramatic makeover of this great ballpark is exciting because it directly benefits White Sox fans and the City of Chicago."

One of the renovations finished for 2004 is a major design change to the upper deck. All previous renovations to the ballpark have been in response to feedback from fans or have resulted from advances made in design since the park opened.

"Our goal is to create a world-class ballpark that reflects the City of Chicago," said Reinsdorf. "We will continue to improve the intimacy, feel and character of the ballpark over the next two years. Fans have responded very positively to previous renovations, so we look forward to unveiling the new version of U.S. Cellular Field in 2005."

Ballpark Renovations

The 2004 season marks the fourth straight in which renovations to the ballpark will be made in time for Opening Day. A year-by-year breakdown of the specific renovations made since 2001:

2001 ($8 million)

- Nearly 2,000 seats added along the foul lines in front of existing seating
- Bullpens relocated to allow fans to see pitchers warming up
- Former bullpen areas filled with new seats
- Two-tiered terrace seating area added outside Bullpen Sports Bar
- Outfield seating area extended to the fence
- Dimensions of the outfield fence changed to 330 (LF), 377 (LCF), 400 (CF), 372 (RCF) and 335 feet (RF)

2002 ($13 million)

- Vertical screen installed behind home plate
- Multi-tiered batter's eye built in center field
- Main concourse upgraded with brick façade, stainless steel counter tops and decorative lighting
- Club level concourse enclosed and carpeted, with heat/air conditioning and comfortable seating areas throughout

2003 ($20 million)

- Full-color, high-resolution 28 x 53 foot video screen added to center field scoreboard
- Two 300-foot-long, five-foot-high video LED "ribbon" boards added along the upper deck façade
- Design upgrades consistent with the lower deck finished on outfield and upper deck concourses
- Fan deck, featuring food and beverage service in an elevated patio-like atmosphere, built on center field concourse
- Outfield steel framework and underside of upper deck canopy roof painted dark gray
- Concrete in the seating areas and on pedestrian ramps stained gray

2004 ($28 million)

- Eight rows and 6,600 seats removed from the top of the ballpark's upper deck
- Sloped canopy-style roof replaced by flat roof
- Upper deck concourse enclosed by a translucent wall and upgraded consistent with changes made to main concourse
- Tiered seating levels added to the center field Fan Deck
- Outdoor balcony added to the Lower Terrace Suite

Conference & Learning Center

In mid November 2001, the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority (ISFA) and the Chicago White Sox announced the Grand Opening of the Conference & Learning Center, a state-of-the-art conference center that features the latest in communication and presentation technology.

"This facility is unique and state-of-the-art," said White Sox senior vice president of marketing and broadcasting Rob Gallas. "Not only does it offer the latest in presentation capabilities, but it also enables ISFA and the White Sox to expand our community outreach programs to include thousands of students and tourists who visit the ballpark.

"In addition," Gallas said. "The Conference & Learning Center provides a tremendous business opportunity for Chicago's corporations to host meetings, seminars and training sessions just steps away from a Major League Baseball field."

The facility, a joint partnership between ISFA and the White Sox, was designed by Campbell Tiu Campbell, Inc. and built by the joint venture of Walsh/Riteway. Audio/visual consultation and implementation was handled by Swiderski Electronics Inc.

The Conference & Learning Center offers users full-service catering by Levy Restaurants, a fully-equipped business center and on-site parking. It is available year-round for half- and full-day rentals. In addition to Chicago Public School programs, the center will be available for use by local non-profit organizations, businesses and community groups. Non-profit, civic and municipal organizations can use the Conference & Learning Center for reduced or no cost.

"Beyond the entertainment provided by baseball's on-the-field activities, this facility allows ISFA and the Chicago White Sox to offer students unique educational opportunities that will allow them to benefit from the experience and knowledge of the organization, its staff and its supporters," said Alexander R. Lerner, chairman of Illinois Sports Facilities Authority.

The Conference & Learning Center features a large amphitheater-style auditorium with a seating capacity of 160, a meeting room that seats 60 and two board rooms for groups of 8 to 12. The large auditorium features individual consoles at each seat, providing direct audio and data connections, an advanced overhead document display system and computer signal inputs for projection or plasma display. The larger auditorium will serve as the postgame media interview room and provide a space for large press conferences.

Comcast Forms Cable Network With Chicago Blackhawks, Bulls, Cubs And White Sox

Comcast Cable, in conjunction with the Chicago Blackhawks, Bulls, Cubs and White Sox, have announced the formation of Comcast SportsNet Chicago, a new 24-hour regional sports network serving Chicago-area sports fans. The cable provider and the four sports teams will jointly own the network, which will launch on October 1, 2004.

Comcast SportsNet Chicago will carry a total of 248 regular season games, as well as pre and postseason contests. The agreement provides that each team will offer the network the same number of regular season games required under its previous cable television agreement, including:

- 95 White Sox games
- 72 Cubs games
- 42 Bulls games
- 39 Blackhawks games

Comcast SportsNet Chicago will be the cable and satellite television provider for each team, and will include games offered in HDTV. Beginning October 1, 2004, the network will be available in approximately 1.5 million homes in the Chicagoland Area on Comcast's expanded basic package, the cable provider's most popular level of service in the region. Comcast will manage the network's daily operations and sales.

Baseball Terminology

Disabled Lists

There are two disabled lists — the 15-day DL and the 60-day DL. Players on the 60-day DL do not count against a club's 40-man roster limit. Players may be placed on the disabled list starting with the day following the last day on which they appeared in a game and may be placed on the DL, retroactively, up to a maximum of 10 days. While on the DL, players may be assigned to a minor league club for the purposes of an injury rehabilitation assignment for a maximum of 20 days (30 days for pitchers).

Options

When a player is on a club's 40-man roster and assigned to the minor leagues (except for while on an injury rehabilitation assignment), a player is on "option assignment." In most cases, a player has three options, which means the player can be on optional assignment during three different seasons (under certain limited circumstances, some players may be eligible for a fourth option). Regardless of how many times a player is optioned and recalled during a single season, the player is only charged with one option during that season — that is, there is no limit on how many times a player may be optioned during a given year. Once all of a player's options have been used, the player must clear irrevocable waivers before being sent to the minors at any subsequent point in their career.

Waivers

Fundamentally, waivers are permission from the other major league clubs for a requesting club to make a specific roster move. The type of waiver requested by a club depends upon the type of move the club wishes to undertake.

Major League Waivers (Revocable): Required any time (i) a club wishes to option a player for whom at least three years has passed since that player has made their major league debut or (ii) a club wishes to assign a player to another major league club following the July 31st non-waiver trade deadline. Major league waivers are "revocable" which means if another club enters a claim on a Player the requesting club may either (i) revoke the request and not make the contemplated roster move or (ii) allow the claiming club to receive the player in exchange for the waiver claim fee (either $20,000 or $25,000 depending upon the Player).

Unconditional Release Waivers (Irrevocable): Required any time a club wishes to release a player from his contract. The affected player is removed from the 40-man roster at the time of the request and may be claimed by any club willing to assume the player's contract for a $1.00 waiver claim fee. Unconditional release waivers are "irrevocable" which means should another club claim the player, the club who requested the waivers looses the player to the claiming club. If the player is unclaimed, the player becomes a free agent eligible to sign with any other club and the requesting club owes the player termination pay as mandated by the terms of the player's contract and/or the collective bargaining agreement.

Special Waivers or Outright Waivers (Irrevocable): Required any time a club wishes to (i) assign a player to the minors who is out of options or (ii) remove a player from their 40-man roster. These waivers are "irrevocable" which means should another club claim the player, the club who requested the waiver looses the player to the claiming club. If the player is unclaimed, the requesting club may "outright" the affected player to the minors which removes the player from the club's 40-man roster and assigns the player's contract to a minor league affiliate. Under certain limited circumstances, a player who has been outrighted may have the right to declare free agency in lieu of accepting assignment to the minor league club.

Designated For Assignment

When the active roster limit and/or the 40-man roster limits of a particular club have been reached, and the club wishes to acquire via trade, sign as a free agent, or reinstate from the DL an additional player, the club may designate for assignment a player currently on the 40-man roster. The club then has ten days to either trade, outright to the minors or release the designated player. Once designated, the player no longer counts against the club's active or 40-man roster limits.

Recalled vs. Contract Purchased

If a player is on the 40-man roster, he is recalled. If not, then his contract is purchased from the minor-league team. A player must be added to the 40-man roster when his contract is purchased.

Rule 5 Draft

A player not on the major-league 40-man roster is eligible for the Rule 5 Draft if:

1. The player was 18 or younger when he first signed a pro contract and this is the fourth Rule 5 Draft since he signed.
2. He was 19 or older when he first signed a pro contract and this is the third Rule 5 Draft since he signed.

How To Figure

Batting Average

Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits (H/AB).

Earned Run Average

Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched (ERx9/IP)

Slugging Percentage

Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at-bat. At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction (TB/AB).

On-Base Percentage

Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies (H+BB+HBP/AB+BB+HBP+SF).

Fielding Percentage

Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors; PO+A/PO+A+E).

Magic Number

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Items Of Interest

Roster Limits

A team may have 40 players on its roster until Opening Day, when the number of active players must be reduced to 24 or 25 (not including disabled players) until September 1, at which time the roster again increases to the maximum of 40.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streak

A consecutive game hitting streak shall not end if all the players's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit by pitch, defensive interference of a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall end if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Major League Service

A full year of service in the major leagues constitutes 172 days.

Day/Night Game

Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a twi-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Rookie Qualifications

A player shall be considered a rookie, if:

1. He has less than 130 at-bats or 50.0 innings pitched in the major leagues during a previous season or seasons, and
2. He has not accumulated more than 45 days on a major league roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in the military or on the disabled list).

Save Rule

A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets the following three conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
   c. he pitches effectively for at least three innings

Batting Championship Qualifications

To qualify a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances (3.1 for each of the 162 scheduled games). If however, there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at-bats, then the player shall be awarded the batting championship.

ERA Championship Qualifications

To qualify a pitcher must have at least 162.0 innings pitched and have the lowest ERA.

Medical Glossary

AC Joint — Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) — A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anti-Inflammatory — Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arthrogram — X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscopy — A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Bone Scan — An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Cartilage — Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together.

CAT Scan — Use of a computer to produce a cross-sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Concussion — Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion — An injury to muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Debridement — Removal of non-healthy tissues and foreign material from a wound or burn to prevent infection and permit healing.

Disc — A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fibering which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion for the spinal column.

Fracture — Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gadolinium MRI — The chemical gadolinium is injected into the joint being studied so as to enhance the diagnosis of the structure under investigation.

Glenoid — Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

Groin — Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hematoma — Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hyperextension — Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Impingement Syndrome — Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder. The most common (throwing) arm injury, which represents many pathologies and generall involves supraspinatus overuse.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidale) — The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edge or lip-like structure.

Ligament — Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone, or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) — Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) — Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Meniscus — Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) — A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Rotator Cuff — Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome — A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress. The four stages are: 1) tendenitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff 2) fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation 3) a partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm and 4) a complete tear of 1 cm or more.

Sprain — Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Strain — Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture — A hairline-type break in a bone caused by overuse.

Tendon — Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Ulnar Nerve — Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound — An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Media Services

The Chicago White Sox Public Relations staff would like to welcome you to another exciting season of White Sox baseball at U.S. Cellular Field. The following are media guidelines for the 2004 season. Please feel free to contact any member of the Public Relations Department with requests, questions or concerns at any point. We look forward to working with you throughout the 2004 season.

Credentials: Proper credentials must be displayed at all times. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies that have contacted the public relations department at least 24 hours in advance. Media Will Call is located at Gate 4, Window 10, which opens two hours prior to game time. Earlier credential pick up should be arranged with Vivian Stalling in advance.

Please note: Transferal of working press credentials or autograph requests by working media will result in termination of privileges for the individuals involved.

Full-Season Credentials: Full-season credentials for all White Sox games at U.S. Cellular Field are available to all accredited daily newspaper, area radio and television reporters who cover the Sox on a regular basis. All requests should be submitted in writing or via fax to: Scott Reifert, Director of Public Relations, Chicago White Sox, 333 W. 35th Street, Chicago, IL 60616, Fax: 312-674-5116

All full-season credentials require a photo. When approved, media may stop by U.S. Cellular Field to have photo taken. Full-season credentials will not be issued without photo I.D.

Daily Credentials: All other media outlets will be credentialed on a per-game basis. A letter from an editor, sports director or assignment editor on letterhead is required at least 24 hours in advance. All letters may be faxed to the above number.

Photo Requests: Requests for photos from accredited newsgathering agencies or other baseball clubs should be sent via email to the attention of Ron Vesely in the public relations department at rvesely@chisox.com. Verification of accreditation may be required.

Admission: Enter U.S. Cellular Field at Gate 4 (Administrative Offices). Television crews that park in the back of the ballpark enter through the loading dock. A Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card or Chicago White Sox credential is necessary for admittance. Please note: Media may be asked to show a photo ID prior to entering the park. All bags entering U.S. Cellular Field will be searched. We appreciate your cooperation and apologize in advance for any inconvenience.

Broadcast Booths: Take the elevator to Level 2, proceed to the Press Box, and take the stairs to the broadcast booths. There are seven broadcast booths: Booth 1 (Reserved), Booth 2 (Home TV), Booth 3 (Visiting TV), Booth 4 (Home Radio), Booth 5 (Visiting Radio), Booth 6 (Reserved), Booth 7 (Reserved).

Clubhouses: Credentials must indicate clubhouse access. Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the White Sox clubhouse (third base side) is to the left and the visitors' clubhouse (first base side) is to the right. The clubhouses will be opened to the media 3 1/2 hours prior to game time. The clubhouses will be closed to the media 45 minutes prior to the game and between games of a doubleheader. Following the game, the White Sox clubhouse will be opened to the media no later than 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room, and players' lounge are closed to the media at all times.

Dark Rooms: Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the dark rooms are to the right beyond the entrance to the Umpires' Clubhouse.

Elevators: Two elevators are located to the right after entering Gate 4. Proper credentials are necessary for access to the elevators. Take either elevator to Level 2 for the Press Box, Level 3 for the Bards Room (dining room) or Level 5 for the Upper Photo Boxes (Sections 524 and 540).

Field: Credentials must indicate field access. The field and dugouts must be cleared following pre-game batting practice and infield drills. Postgame live shots can be done from the warning track areas immediately in front of the first and third base photo boxes. However, postgame interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without special permission, until 10 minutes after the last out.

Game Tickets: Limited complimentary tickets are available to the media on a first come-first served basis. You may request up to four tickets for a game. You must fax a written request to the public relations department at least 24 hours in advance. If complimentary tickets for a given game are unavailable, we can help you purchase tickets with a credit card. Tickets may be picked up at Gate 4, Window 10.

Interview Procedures: Please contact the Chicago White Sox public relations department to schedule any interviews requiring special arrangements or special requests. Any media requesting a specific interview with a member of the front office staff should do so through a member of the White Sox public relations department.

Media Dining: Meals are served in the Bard's Room on all home game days. Bard's Room privileges are available only to those media with BBWAA cards, White Sox Full Season passes or daily credentials. Meals are served from two hours prior to all home games until game time. There will be a $7.00 charge for all meals. Hamburgers and hotdogs will be available in the Press Box for $3.00 from first pitch until two hours into the game.

Media Guides: Media Guides are available in the Press Box and can be obtained from a White Sox public relations representative.

Parking: Limited parking for the media is available in Lots C and G, as designated on the parking pass. Daily parking is available by contacting Vivian Stalling in the public relations department before 12:00 p.m. on weekdays and before 2:00 p.m. on Friday for the weekend.

Photo Areas: Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the third base photo box is to the left and the first base photo box is to the right. Upper photo boxes are available near Sections 524 and 540. Still photographers are not allowed in the tunnel behind home plate or in the clubhouses, without special permission.

Postgame Interview Room: Approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game, manager Ozzie Guillen and selected players (when possible) are available in the postgame interview room. Guillen also provides answers in Spanish. The Interview Room is located across the service tunnel from the visiting clubhouse. Interviews are broadcast into the press box and a multbox is available for TV/radio use. The Postgame Interview Room feed is available to media not on site through Norlight Teleport Chicago (call Jesse Mix at 847-674-7476). Asian media may obtain feeds through Broadcast Resources Inc. at www.broadcastresources.com.

Press Box: Take the elevator to Level 2. The Press Box contains 120 seats, a work room, telephones for credit card or 800 calls and a dining area. No food or drink may be taken from the Press Box.

Rosters, Lineups, Game Notes and Statistics: All media materials are available prior to each home game outside the public relations office and in the lower level of the press box. Boxscores, play-by-play reports and postgame notes/quotes are available in the Press Box after the game.

Television Minicam Crews: WBBM (2), WMAQ (5), WLS (7), WGN (9), WFLD (32), CLTV and FOX Sports Net will be allowed to park two vehicles each at the rear of the ballpark near the Players' Lot (corner of 35th Street and Wentworth Avenue). Crews parking in this area enter the stadium with their equipment via the loading dock. Please note: security personnel may search vehicles and request identification from camera and truck crews. Access to the field is via the first and third base photo boxes off the service tunnel. Access to photo boxes on the upper concourse is via the freight elevator in the left field corner of the stadium.

Pregame interviews must be done on the field. Per Major League guidelines, no game action can be shown during a live shot. Use of lights in the stadium during the game is prohibited. Proper credentials are necessary for access to the clubhouses. Following the game, interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without special permission, until 10 minutes after the final out.

Roving through the stands and concourses is prohibited without prior arrangements with the White Sox. Likewise, field level access during the game is limited to the first and third base photo boxes.
