1946 Ford Station Wagon

1966 Ford Country Squire—new Magic Doorgate standard

Look how Ford has improved the breed!

Remember the tailgate-liftgate?

It was around for a long time until the one-piece tailgate made it obsolete. And now Ford makes things even better for wagon owners. On today's Ford wagons, the tailgate is a 2-way doorgate. It opens like a door for people and it drops like a conventional tailgate for loading cargo. A great idea—the latest in a long list of great ideas that have made Ford America's Station Wagon Specialist.

For 1966, Ford Dealers offer you a choice of 13 wagons in 4 sizes—big, luxurious Fords, handsome Fairlanes, thrifty Falcons and versatile Falcon Club Wagons. See your Ford Dealer—he's a wagon specialist, too.

Cincinnati Hall of Fame . . .

Cincinnati Reds' fans, through the Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, have been voting former Red players into the Cincinnati Hall of Fame, beginning in 1958. Twenty-five former Red players or managers are now members.

The qualifications for election are that the individual must have played at least three years with the Reds and that he is no longer active as a player in professional baseball. The same holds true for a manager.

The judging is done on what he did for the Reds alone.

On Thursday, July 15, 1965 on "Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce-Hall of Fame Night" at Crosley Field, five more members were enshrined into the Reds' Hall of Fame. They were Johnny Temple, Wally Post, Larry Kopf, Red Lucas and Manager Fred Hutchinson (posthumously).

The Reds' Manager

DON HEFFNER

Popular, articulate, knowledgeable Don Heffner of Arcadia, California, is the new manager of the Cincinnati Reds. The 54-year-old 5-11, 155-pound former major league second baseman signed a two-year contract to manage the Reds on October 26, 1965.

"I'm very happy Don is with us again," declared DeWitt. "We looked over the field of available managers and those who applied, and believe he is the best man for our club."

"He knows the players and he knows the National League," DeWitt continued. "At his age and with his managerial experience he has the maturity to get the best out of the players. He did a fine job of helping in the development of our players when he managed San Diego in 1962 and 1963 and as a result knows most of our personnel. He is an aggressive manager. He's an excellent baseball man and I have great respect for Don. I gave him his first job as a manager when I had the St. Louis Browns and he went to a very small league to start out and has worked his way up."

Don Heffner

Don Heffner

The highly-elated Heffner beamed "It's one of the biggest thrills of my life. It's something to be offered a big-league managing job by a man I've thought a lot of for more than 27 years."

Donald Henry Heffner was born February 8, 1911 at Rouzerville, Pa., and now lives in Arcadia, California with his wife, Dorothy.

Heffner broke into pro ball as an infielder in 1929 and played in the major leagues with the New York Yankees in 1934, part of 1935, all of 1936 and 1937; the St. Louis Browns in 1938 through 1942, and in 1943 with the Browns and Philadelphia Athletics; and with Detroit in 1944.

He was on the Los Angeles roster in the Coast League in 1944-45-46 but did not report, but finished up his active play in 1947, playing in one game for Aberdeen.

He was a member of the World Champion New York Yankees of 1936-37 and was co-leader in fielding (.977) among American League second basemen in 1940.

Heffner began managing in 1947 with Aberdeen where he had a first place finish. He had another first place club in 1948 with Globe-Miami; piloted Elmira (7th) in 1949; and had a fourth place club at San Antonio in 1950 where he won the playoffs and the Dixie Series.

Don managed Baltimore in 1952 (6th) and 1953 (4th); San Antonio in 1954 (tie for 5th) and 1955 (2nd); Reading (3rd) in 1956; and Mobile (5th) in 1957.

He served as a coach for the Kansas City Athletics from 1958 through 1960; coach for the Detroit Tigers in 1961; managed San Diego to a pennant in 1962 and a third place finish in 1963 (missed by a percentage point of tying for the Western Division title); and coached for the New York Mets, 1964-65.

The Heffners have a married daughter, Dorothy, who lives with her husband, Anthonie Voogd, in Pasadena, California. He is a lawyer in Los Angeles.

"Waite Hoyt Day," sponsored by the Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, was held at Crosley Field on Sunday, September 5, with the fans honoring Waite for his 24 years of broadcasting the Reds' games. Waite had announced that the 1965 season was his last as a play-by-play broadcaster of the games.

ITALIANS IN SPRING TRAINING WITH REDS' FARM CLUBS

Four prominent Italian baseball figures will be present in the Reds' Minor League Training Camp at Tampa, Florida in 1966.

Guilio Glorioso, the Reds' scout in Italy, will again be on hand in the Reds' Minor League Training Camp and will bring with him Giancarlo Mangini, Manager of the CBS Milano Team; Ivan Cavazzano, 19-year-old catcher; Massamo Monelli, 18-year-old right-hand pitcher from Milan; and Pietro Monaco, 21-year-old infielder.

Glorioso believes that by having these men participate in an American spring training camp they will be more qualified to instruct the young Italian players upon their return to Italy.

This program, in its second year of operation, is being run in conjunction with the Italian Government.

Reno DeBenedetti, Reds' West Coast Scout, has spent the past two summers in Italy scouting, managing and instructing Italian clubs. The results of DeBenedetti's first trip produced Alberto Rinaldi, infielder, who was signed to a minor league contract by the Reds and played in the Cincinnati Farm System during 1965.

Glorioso feels Italian baseball has made great progress and hopes that with more knowledge and instruction, baseball can become a major sport in Italy.

REDS SIGN AUSTRALIAN YOUNGSTER

Neil Page

Neil Page, 21-year-old left-hand pitcher, will be the first Australian player ever signed by the Cincinnati Reds' organization as he reports to the Reds' Minor League Training Camp with the Buffalo club on March 22. Page is signed to a Tampa contract.

A trip made to Australia in the fall of 1962 by Assistant General Manager Phil Seghi was instrumental in the signing of Page. Seghi became acquainted with Ross Straw, who is considered "Mr. Baseball" by the Australians. Straw later saw Page perform and recommended that he be signed by the Reds.

Page, a six-foot, 196-pounder, pitched three no-hitters in a two-year span for the Australians.

The youngster is looking forward with great enthusiasm to coming to the United States and competing in professional baseball.

THE TRADITIONAL "OPENING GAME" . . . SCENES AT THE 1965 OPENER

Opening Day in Cincinnati is a festive event that has captured nationwide interest. In no city in the country is there the holiday spirit that prevails in Cincinnati on "Opening Day."

Along with the traditional packed house, the Reds receive extended coverage from members of the press-radio-television, especially throughout Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana and West Virginia.

Many cities are famed for their particular celebration—New Orleans' Mardi Gras, New York's St. Patrick's Day Parade, St. Louis' Veiled Prophet Parade, Tampa, Florida's Gaspiralla Day, Inauguration in Washington, Philadelphia's Mummers, etc. But none is more universally accepted than Cincinnati's Opening Day.

Other cities have tried to copy Cincinnati's Opening Day but they have been unsuccessful. There is no substitute for genuineness. No promotion can create a duplicate of Cincinnati's Opening Day tradition.

THE 1965 OPENING GAME

The Reds lost the 1965 opener to Milwaukee at Crosley Field, 4-2, on Monday, April 12 before 28,467 fans. Temperature was sixty degrees.

Tony Cloninger was the winner as he set the Reds down with two hits going the route. Jim O'Toole was the loser as he gave up seven hits and also went the full distance.

Reds scored in third on Harper's walk with one out; Pinson safe on error and Robinson's sacrifice fly.

Braves scored three in top of sixth. Alou singled and Mathews and Torre homered.

Reds scored one in the bottom of sixth on Johnson's home run.

Torre completed the scoring for the day with an eighth inning home run.

Waite Hoyt was the winning pitcher in the 1935 and 1936 Opening Games here. Waite was pitching for Pittsburgh at the time.

Any fan, as was the practice last year, who makes a clean catch of a ball hit into the stands on the fly at Crosley Field during a regular game, will receive an Honorary Contract with the Cincinnati Reds.

An usher will take the fan's name and address and the fan will receive his or her "Honorary Cincinnati Contract" through the mail.

The 1965 Opener was Pres-Gen. Mgr. Bill DeWitt's 49th Opening Game in baseball and his 50th consecutive year in organized baseball. He missed the opener the first year, starting to work after the opener had been played.

OPENING GAME DATA

Of the 81 "Openers," (including 1965) Cincinnati has won 36 and lost 45. The largest crowd ever to attend a Red opener at Crosley Field was 35,747 as the Reds edged Pittsburgh, 6-5, in 1924.

All the Reds' openers have been played in Cincinnati with the exception of the 1887 game. Heavy rainfalls over a period of days washed out the Reds' entire opening series.

The club finally took a boat trip to Louisville and opened the season with a game in the Falls City.

While every other "opener" has been played in Cincinnati, the Reds on two occasions had the game postponed but both times the game was subsequently played in Cincy.

In 1894, the Reds were scheduled to open against Chicago in Cincinnati on Thursday, April 19. Ohio's Governor William McKinley, later the nation's President, was to throw out the first ball. But the contest was rained out and when it was postponed, McKinley had to change his plans. As a result, he missed the action in Cincinnati the following day.

The 1913 opener in Cincinnati with Pittsburgh was postponed three times before it was finally played in Cincy on April 12.

The National League long has recognized that Cincinnati is unique as an opening-day town. Other teams alternate between opening at home and on the road, but year after year, the Reds open at Crosley Field. When it is Cincinnati's turn to open on the road, the league permits the Reds to open up a day early at home.

Probably the luckiest Opening Day for the Reds occurred in 1945 when they beat Pittsburgh, 7-6, in 11 innings.

A home run hit by the Pirates' Jim Russell in the fifth with two on was called void. Frank Zak, on second base for the Pittsburgh club, had called time to tie his shoelace.

Bucky Walters didn't hear time called and pitched to Russell. Umpire Ziggy Sears called Russell back to the batter's box.

The stars of the game were Hod Lisenbee, a 44-year-old pitcher, who relieved Bucky, and center fielder Dain Clay.

Lisenbee pitched two scoreless innings, receiving credit for the win. Lisenbee never won another game the remainder of the season.

Clay drove in five runs, four of them with a bases-loaded homer. Clay never hit another home run that season. In fact, it was Clay's first home run in a three-year major league career.

PITCHER JOSEPH HENRY "Joe" NUXHALL (NUXX-all)—BORN July 30, 1928 (37) at Hamilton, Ohio. BATS—Left. THROWS—Left. HEIGHT—6-3. WEIGHT—230. ANCESTRY—German. MARRIED—Donzetta Houston, October 4, 1947. CHILDREN—Two sons. WINTER ADDRESS—5756 Lindenwood Lane, Fairfield, Ohio. HOW OBTAINED—Originally Reds Farm System and purchased July 21, 1962 from San Diego.

You have to go a long way back and do considerable researching to find a case which parallels the great comeback of "Hamilton Joe" Nuxhall, the Reds' lefthand pitcher.

Since his purchase from the then Cincinnati farm club, San Diego, on July 21, 1962, Joe's contribution has to be ranked as one of the most amazing comebacks in the annals of baseball.

When Nixhall pitched two-thirds of an inning for Cincinnati back on June 10, 1944, almost two months before his 16th birthday, he became the youngest player ever to appear in a major league game.

It was then back to the minors for the well-liked "Nux" and he struggled for years before he finally made it back, making the Reds' Varsity in 1952, the first of his nine full, consecutive seasons with the Reds.

Big Joe had some fine years with the Reds during that time, 12-5 for the 1954 Red team; 17-11 in 1955 and leading the league with five shutouts; and 13-11 in 1956.

Joe was traded on January 24, 1961 to Kansas City for John Tsitouris and John Briggs. He was 5-8 for Kansas City in 37 games in 1961 but after that season his wanderings started.

In the spring of 1962 Joe trained with Baltimore; was with Los Angeles Angels from April 9 to May 15 (no decisions in five games); and went with the Reds' San Diego farm club on May 19, 1962.

Nuxhall posted a 9-2 record at San Diego and the Reds brought him up in July of 1962. He was 5-0 the rest of that year with the Reds.

In 1963 he was 15-8 and 9-8 in 1964. He was 11-4 in 1965 and his arm injury in the first part of September proved a big blow to the Reds' chances.

Since his return from San Diego, Joe has won 40 and lost 20 for the Reds in writing his great comeback.

Joe and his wife, Donzetta, live in Fairfield, Ohio with their two sons.

OUTFIELDER VADA EDWARD PINSON—BORN August 11, 1938 (27) at Memphis, Tennessee. BATS—Left. THROWS—Left. HEIGHT—5-11. WEIGHT—180. ANCESTRY—Negro. MARRIED—Jacqueline Garibaldi, February 20, 1960. CHILDREN—Three daughters and a son. WINTER ADDRESS—Oakland, California. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Cincinnati Farm System.

Vada Pinson, 27-year-old mercury-footed centerfielder for the Reds, posted another fine season in 1965 to add to his illustrious major league career and continued to establish himself as one of the best all-around ballplayers in the major leagues today.

Pinson batted .305 in 159 games with 204 hits, 97 runs scored, 34 doubles, ten triples, 22 home runs, 21 stolen bases in 29 attempts and 94 runs-batted-in.

Vada had the longest batting streak in the league for 1965—27 straight which started on September 3 and went through the rest of the season. Pinson made 42 hits in 113 tries for .372 during the hot streak. This 27-game streak tied the Reds' all-time record set by Edd Roush in 1920 and 1924. Vada hit a grand slam homer off Bob Sadowski at Milwaukee on June 27, 1965 (2nd game).

Pinson went to bat 669 times and he tied the N.L. record for "most years, 600 or more at-bats" (SEVEN). He set a N.L. record for "most CONSECUTIVE years, 600 or more at bats." (SEVEN)

He also led the outfielders in fielding with a mark of .981.

Pinson was consistent in 1965, hitting .307 at day and .303 at night; .319 at home and .290 on the road; .296 before the All Star Game and .314 after the All Star.

Vada hit Houston pitching for .389; N.Y. for .392; Phils, .321; and San Francisco, .316.

His best months were May (.372), August (.297) and September (.345).

Vada, after seven full seasons and part of an eighth, has a lifetime N.L. batting average of .302 which is seventh best of all the players active today. He has compiled full season averages of .316; .287; .343; .292; .313; .266 and .305.

Pinson has made over 200 hits on three different occasions and twice has driven in 100 or more runs.

In 1959, his first full season with the Reds, Vada led the Cincy club in batting with .316; led the majors in doubles (47) and runs (131); tied a major league record for making "200-or-more hits" in first full season in majors (205) and was named to the N.L. All Star Game team.

In 1960 he was on the All Star Game team again as he batted .287.

He greatly aided the Reds pennant club in 1961 with a .343 average, runner-up in the league. Before missing the May 31, 1962 game, Vada played in 508 consecutive games.

ARTHUR RADTKE, President

SECOND BASEMAN PETER EDWARD "Pete" ROSE—BORN April 14, 1941 (24) at Cincinnati, Ohio. BATS—Both. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—5-11. WEIGHT—190. ANCESTRY—Irish. MARRIED—Karolyn Ann Englehardt, January 25, 1963. CHILDREN—Daughter, Fawn. WINTER ADDRESS—1133 Gilsey Drive, Cincinnati, Ohio. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Cincinnati Reds Farm System.

Pete Rose, 24-year-old switch-hitting second baseman, had a tremendous season for the Cincinnati Reds in 1965.

Pete was the starting second baseman for the N.L. in the All Star Game and played the entire game. He was picked as the second baseman for both the AP and UPI All Star Major League teams for 1965 and named the second baseman on The Sporting News National League All Star team. Pete also was sixth in the voting for the N.L. "Most Valuable Player" award.

Pete led the Reds in batting with a mark of .312 in 1965; led the major leagues with 209 hits; scored 117 runs; hit 35 doubles, eleven triples and eleven home runs. Pete also drove in 81 runs batting in the second position most of the year. He also led off.

Rose played in all the Reds 162 games which tied a major league record for most games played in, season, by a second sacker. Pete, Ron Santo and Billy Williams were the only players in the N.L. to participate in all their teams' games.

The hustling Rose hit .323 on the road and .300 at home; .299 before the All Star and .326 after the All Star.

Pete batted .338 against Houston .299 against L.A., .378 vs. N.Y., .438 vs. the Phils and .324 against San Francisco. He had a 17-game batting streak from July 17 through August 1st.

Pete was also steady in his monthly batting figures: April, .328; May, .299; June, .258; July, .386; August, .314; September, .293 and October, 3 games, .400.

To say that Rose successfully made the big jump from the Class A Sally League to the National League in 1963 is putting it mildly.

The youngster opened the season at second for the '63 Reds but after the April 16th game was benched after going 3 for 23. He was back in the lineup to stay on April 27 at Houston and went on to bat .273 for the season in 157 games, leading the Reds in runs scored with 101.

THE SPORTING NEWS and the Baseball Writers both rewarded his fine play with his selection as "National League Rookie of the Year for 1963."

He was signed by Cincinnati Scouts Buzz Boyle, Buddy Bloebaum and Cliff Polking. His dad, Pete, was a great amateur athlete in Cincinnati.

JIM MALONEY

Jim Maloney pitching his ten-inning no-hitter, 1-0 over the Cubs at Chicago, August 19, 1965.

Jim Maloney's pitching in 1965 was full of drama.

In his first start of the season, Jim pitched a one-hitter at Milwaukee, winning 2-0, as Dennis Menke singled to lead off the eighth inning for the lone Brave hit.

On June 14 at Crosley Field, Jim had a no-hitter for ten innings over the New York Mets. Johnny Lewis homered leading off the eleventh and Roy McMillan singled with one out and Maloney was the loser, 1-0, on an eleven-inning two-hitter.

On August 19 in the first game of a doubleheader at Chicago, Maloney pitched a ten-inning no-hitter, winning, 1-0.

Jim had another two-hitter, on September 25, at Houston, winning 1-0.

Maloney was 20-9 for the season (2nd "20-game season" for him); tied for consecutive wins on Red staff with five; had the club's best ERA, 2.54; had the most shutouts, 5; had the most strikeouts for the season, 244; and most strikeouts one game, 18 (June 14).

In 1963 Maloney was 23-7 for the Reds. He struck out 265 batters for a new Cincy record breaking the mark of 233 set by "Noodles" Hahn in 1901. He also struck out eight men in a row that year on May 21, 1963, which tied major league and N. L. record, and set a Red mark. He struck out 16 that night which tied Hahn's all-time mark for one game.

In 1964 Maloney was 15-10 for Cincinnati, striking out 214 in 216 innings in 31 games and compiling a 2.70 ERA.

Jim pitched for the N. L. in the 1965 All-Star Game.

During 1965 he tied a N.L. record for "Most strikeouts in extra inning games"—18, June 14, vs. N.Y., 11 innings, and tied major league records for "Pitching longest no-hit game, 10 innings, August 19 vs. Cubs and for "Pitching 10 hitless innings, game, June 14 (2-hits in 11th).

OUTFIELDER-FIRST BASEMAN RICHARD MARTIN "Marty" KEOUGH (KEY-oh)—BORN April 14, 1934 (31) at Oakland, California. BATS—Left. THROWS—Left. HEIGHT—6-0. WEIGHT—181. ANCESTRY—Scotch-Irish. MARRIED—Sharon Davis, October 9, 1954. CHILDREN—Son and three daughters. WINTER ADDRESS—808 Mountain View Drive, Lafayette, California. COLLEGE—USC and Mt. Sac. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Trade, December 15, 1961, from Washington, with John Klippstein, to the Reds for Bob Schmidt and Dave Stenhouse (San Diego Roster).

Popular and personable Marty Keough completed his fourth season with the Cincinnati Reds in 1965. The six-foot, 181-pound lefthander came to the Reds in a trade on December 15, 1961 from Washington along with Johnny Klippstein for Bob Schmidt and Dave Stenhouse (San Diego roster).

Marty, who was born in Oakland, California and makes his home in Lafayette, California, is an ideal team player who does an equally fine job in the outfield or at first base.

Following a fabulous career, at Pomona, Calif. High School, Marty received a reported $90,000 bonus to sign with the Boston Red Sox in 1952.

Keough comes from a tremendously athletic family. His father, Zeke, was considered the greatest athlete in Pomona history until Marty came along. His Dad was a four-sport star at Pomona and pitched for the U. of California.

Marty's mother, Eleanor, was a high school tennis star and then played second base on a girls' softball team which beat the then national champions, 11-0.

He also has three brothers, Joe, Tom and Art, who were prominent in sports.

Marty was the King of athletics at Pomona High though. The City even had a day named in his honor.

Keough, before graduating in 1952, played football (tailback), baseball (pitcher, outfielder) and basketball; made such honors as All-Southern California; Southern Cal. Player of the Year in football in 1951 and baseball, 1952, and was on the High School All America (football) team in 1951.

In his senior year Marty led Pomona to the championship netting 1,309 yards running and 1,480 passing. He scored 26 touchdowns and passed for eight more.

Keough, who is Vice President of the Ruth Hicks Investment Corporation, broke into pro ball in 1952 at San Jose where he batted .289 and upped that mark to .330 the following season and 28 stolen bases. Marty's other minor league background included a .292 figure with Louisville in 1954 and .303 in 1955; and marks of .315 and .285 for San Francisco (PCL) in 1958 and 1959.

Keough saw service with Boston in parts of 1956 and 1957 and was with the Red Sox all year in 1958 and 1959.

On June 13, 1960 he was traded to Cleveland and on December 14, 1960 he was drafted by Washington for $75,000 in the Expansion Draft.

SHORTSTOP LEONARDO LAZARA "Leo" CARDENAS (CARR-duh-nus)—BORN December 17, 1938 (27) at Matanzas, Cuba. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—5-10. WEIGHT—158. ANCESTRY—Cuban. MARRIED—Gloria Jackson, September 2, 1958. CHILDREN—Son and three daughters. WINTER ADDRESS—3988 President Drive, Cincinnati, Ohio. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Cincinnati Farm System.

On August 19, 1965, little Leo Cardenas blasted a tenth-inning home run off Larry Jackson and this proved to be the winning run as Jim Maloney pitched a 1-0, tenning no-hitter over the Cubs. This was an example of how Cardenas made his hits count in 1965.

The 27-year-old 5-10, 158-pounder made some of the "biggest" hits of the season for the Reds. He continued his sparkling play in the field and was named to the N.L. All Star Game team. He was also the winner of the Rawlings Gold Glove Award which he won by being picked by the league players for THE SPORTING NEWS. He was named the best fielding shortstop in the N.L. for 1965. Many competent baseball observers feel there is none superior in all-around ability at that position in the N.L.

Cardenas (CARR-duh-nus) batted .287 in 156 games for the 1965 Reds with eleven home runs and 57 RBIs. He also played in the 1964 All Star Game for the National League.

Cardenas led the N.L. in "intentional bases-on-balls" in 1965 with 25 and he tied a major league record for "most 2-base hits, inning." He did this on first game of May 2, 1965 vs. New York.

Leo was consistent for the 1965 Reds, batting .297 at day and .280 at night; .282 at home and .291 on the road; .285 before the All Star Game and .289 after the Classic.

Leo batted .391 against the L.A. Dodgers; .296 vs. Phils; and .318 off St. Louis pitching.

His best months were June (.308) and July (.354).

As a 17-year-old in 1956, Leo hit 23 home runs for Tucson, batted .316 and was named to the All Star team.

He was the shortstop at Savannah in 1957, batting .255 with ten homers and 63 RBIs.

As a 145-pounder in 1958 at Savannah he was one of the fanciest fielders in the history of the Sally League. He batted .267 with 13 homers and was on the All-Star team.

Leo was called "Mr. Automatic" around the International League in 1959 with Havana as he led the shortstops in fielding and played in the league's All-Star Game. He hit .254 with 13 home runs.

In 1960 Cardenas performed brilliantly for Jersey City where he batted .288 and was sensational in the field. The Reds recalled Leo on July 24, 1960. He also appeared in 48 games with the Reds in 1960.

In his first full season with the Reds, 1961, Cardenas batted .308 in 74 games as the Reds copped the pennant and he played in the World Series. His double was a real talking-piece for a long time. In the series against the Yankees his drive would have gone out of the park if it hadn't ticked the right side of the scoreboard.

Cardenas played in 153 games for the 1962 Reds, hitting ten home runs and driving in 60 while batting .294.

He was in 158 games in 1963 with a .235 average and in 1964 played 163 games, batting .251.

A GOOD PLACE TO EAT

PITCHER MILTON STEVEN PAPPAS (PAPP-us)—BORN May 11, 1939 (26) at Detroit, Michigan. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-3. WEIGHT—214. ANCESTRY—Greek. MARRIED—Carole Tragge, February 15, 1960. CHILDREN—Have one daughter and one son. WINTER ADDRESS—2119 Eastham Rd., Timonium, Md. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Trade, December 9, 1965, with Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson for Frank Robinson.

Although he was never a 20-game winner, Milt Pappas spent eight good years with the Baltimore Orioles. He never had a losing season and won more games (110), pitched more shutouts (26), more complete games (82) and more innings (1,632) than any other Oriole, active or retired.

Pappas, along with Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson, came to the Reds on December 9, 1965 in exchange for Frank Robinson.

Milt picked up 13 victories in 1965 to give him an eight-year 110-74 record. He was also with the Orioles in 1957 but was involved in no decisions. Pappas led the Oriole staff in innings pitched (221), complete games (9) and shutouts (3) and his 2.60 earned-run-average was easily the best of his career.

Pappas started the all-star game for the American League last summer but was not involved in the decision.

Pappas, whose name in Greek means Miltiades Stergios Papastedgios, was signed by Baltimore after graduating from Cooley High in Detroit. The youngster was sought after by 18 clubs.

Jim McLaughlin, the present Reds Farm Director, was Farm Director of Baltimore at the time.

Although he was directly out of high school, Pappas started pitching for Baltimore. Later he was sent to Knoxville where he pitched only eleven innings (0-0) in three games before rejoining the Orioles (1957).

Pappas has always been blessed with good control. In 1958, at a tender age, he only walked 48 in 135 innings.

In his eight full seasons since his 1957 debut, Milt has posted won-lost marks of 10-10, 15-9, 15-11, 13-9, 12-10, 16-9, 16-7, 13-9.

Although only 26 years old in 1965, Pappas won his 100th game on May 13 at Cleveland. Milt was one of just seven hurlers active in A.L. at end of season with 100 or more victories. Others: Ralph Terry, Whitey Ford, Pete Ramos, Camilo Pascual, Hoyt Wilhelm and Dick Donovan.

Milt, for the second straight season, failed to hit a home run. He has eleven lifetime home runs.

In compiling a 110-74 record in the American League he posted these lifetime marks against each club: Boston, 8-8; California, 8-5; Chicago, 17-5; Cleveland, 16-11; Detroit, 12-10; Kansas City, 15-12; Minnesota, 16-9; New York, 10-13 and Washington, 8-1. The Minnesota record includes records against Washington club before transfer to Minnesota.

His father and mother are Greek immigrants and Milt grew up in Detroit where his father owned a grocery store. He has two brothers, Gus, a mechanical draftsman, and Perry who was signed by the Yankees as a pitcher.

In 1964 he pitched a one-hitter against the Twins on September 2 at Minnesota. Only hit was Versailles' 2-out single in eighth, Milt winning, 2-0.

In 114 games John batted .267 with 17 home runs and 51 runs-batted-in. He was picked on the National League squad for the All Star Game in 1965. He was also selected in 1963 and 1964.

During the off-season, John, an Ohio State engineering graduate, works as an engineer for the General Electric Company in Evendale, Ohio. John is with the Nuclear Materials and Propulsion Operations of GE as a ceramics engineer and is in training as a sales engineer.

John had 5 for 11 as a pinch hitter in 1965 for a .455 mark, including one home run. He batted .343 against Chicago; .354 vs. New York; .375 against Phils pitching; .302 off San Francisco; .316 in the month of September; and .281 after the All-Star Game. John caught Jim Maloney's no-hitter against the Cubs on August 19, 1965.

Back in 1961 Edwards had an earlier call-up than anticipated when the Reds brought him up from Indianapolis in the midst of a hectic pennant race. He was brought up on June 26, 1961 and batted .186 in 52 games. He kept improving as the season progressed and he was a big help in the pennant drive. He led the Reds in batting in the World Series with .364.

After the 1961 season he played for the Reds' entry in the Florida Winter League. Edwards batted .255 for the 1962 Reds in his first full season with eight home runs and 55 RBIs in 133 games.

John really came into his own in 1963 as he played in the All-Star Game; was selected on THE SPORTING NEWS All-Star team as the catcher; led the N.L. catchers in fielding (.995); most putouts (1,008); total chances (1,101); games caught in (148); and tied for most double plays participated in by a catcher (16). His total chances and putouts were major league records. He batted .259 with 67 RBIs and eleven home runs.

In 1964 John hit .281 for the Reds with 55 RBIs in 126 games. For the second successive year he played for the N.L. in the All Star Game and for the second straight season was named as the catcher on THE SPORTING NEWS All-Star N.L. Fielding Team (catcher).

Edwards was signed by Scouts Paul Florence and Buzz Boyle on November 23, 1958. As a sophomore John batted .305 for Ohio State. He graduated in 1963 from Ohio State with a B.S. Degree, Ceramic Engineering, attending from 1956-63.

John prepped in the Reds' farm system at Visalia, Nashville and Indianapolis. He is the Reds' Player Representative.

THIRD BASEMAN DERON ROGER "Big D" JOHNSON—BORN July 17, 1939 (26) at San Diego, California. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-2. WEIGHT—209. ANCESTRY—Irish-Swede. MARRIED—Lucille De Maria, October 20, 1962. CHILDREN—Son, Deron. WINTER ADDRESS—222 West Grape Street, San Diego, California. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Purchased, San Diego, October 12, 1963.

Deron Johnson, 26-year-old from San Diego, California, had one of the finest seasons at third base in 1965 ever posted by a custodian of the Cincinnati hot corner.

The righthanded slugger played 159 games for the Reds at third base in 1965 after playing first base in 1964.

Deron had 30 doubles, seven triples, 32 home runs, led the majors with 130 runs-batted-in, had 317 total bases and batted .287. His home runs and RBIs set new records for a Cincinnati third baseman. He tied for the N.L. lead with ten sacrifice flies.

Johnson was named as the third baseman on THE SPORTING NEWS N.L. All Star team for 1965. He was fourth in the balloting for "N.L. Most Valuable Player for 1965" with 108 points. He was second in voting for both the A.P. and UPI Major League All Star teams at third base.

Deron batted .299 after the All-Star Game; hit Houston pitching for a mark of .338; N.Y. .303; Phils, .338 and St. Louis, .333.

After hitting .250 the month of April, Johnson posted these monthly figures: .283 in May; .296 in June; .295 in July; .288 in August; .284 in September and .357 in three games in October.

In the spring of 1963, Wm. O. DeWitt, President of the Reds, engineered a deal whereby the Reds organization purchased Deron Johnson from Portland.

Deron was labeled "another Mickey Mantle" after he tore the Nebraska State League apart in his pro debut in 1956. The youngster, playing in 63 games, led the league in runs, 70, total bases, 167, home runs, 24 and RBIs, 78, as he batted .329, and made the All Star team as an outfielder. He hit 24 or more homers in each of his first five seasons in the minors as he was an All Star outfielder for Binghamton in 1957 (.303 and 102 RBIs); made All Star team with Richmond in 1958, playing outfield and third base (.260 and 103 RBIs); and was third base-outfielder for Richmond in 1959 (.279 and 90 RBIs); and in 1960 was again third base-outfielder for Richmond (.245 and 92 RBIs); and also played in six games for the Yankees.

He was with the Yanks in 1961 but on June 14 was traded to Kansas City with Art Ditmar for Bud Daley. He was in 96 games for the Yanks and K.C. that season.

After the 1961 season, Deron served a second hitch in the Army and didn't rejoin the A's until August of 1962, getting into only 17 games that season before the season ended.

In 1963, after the Reds' San Diego affiliate purchased his contract that spring, Deron led the Coast league with 33 home runs, drove in 91 runs and batted .277 and was named on the All Star team as the first baseman. He was sidelined for the season on Sept. 1, 1963 with a broken left hand as the result of being hit by a pitched ball.

Johnson played 140 games for the 1964 Reds, mostly at first base, socked 21 home runs and drove in 79 runs while batting .273.

Deron was named "San Diego's Pro Star of the Year for 1965."

PITCHER SAMUEL JOSEPH "Sammy" ELLIS—BORN February 11, 1941 (25) at Youngstown, Ohio. BATS—Left. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-1. WEIGHT—181. ANCESTRY—English. MARRIED—Lynn Claustre, June 18, 1964. CHILDREN—Daughter, Tammy. WINTER ADDRESS—11712 15th St., Tampa, Florida. COLLEGE—Mississippi State College (2 years) 1959-61. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Cincinnati Reds Farm System.

Sammy Ellis, fireballing 25-year-old righthander for the Reds, became a "20-game winner" for the first time in his young career as he posted a 22-10 record for the 1965 Cincinnati club. Ellis was in 44 games and struck out 183 in 264 innings.

Ellis won the most games on the Cincinnati staff (22); tied for longest win streak (5); started the most games (39); completed the most games (15) and pitched the most innings (264).

Sammy defeated San Francisco and Philadelphia each three times without a defeat and posted a 3-1 mark over each of the following: Houston, Milwaukee and New York.

His monthly output was April, 3 wins, no losses; May, 4-2; June, 5-1; July 2-3; August, 3-2; September, 4-2; and October, 1-0.

In 1964, his first full season with the Reds, Ellis recorded one of the most brilliant jobs of relief pitching ever recorded. His great clutch pitching was one of the most important factors in the Reds going into the final day of the season fighting for the pennant.

Ellis posted a 10-3 mark for the 1964 season and a 2.58 ERA in 52 games and five starts. As a starter in 1964 he was 3-2 in five games.

In relief Sammy was 7-1, saved eleven other games, pitched in 47 and a total of 83 innings, and struck out 90 while posting an incredible 1.62 earned-run-mark.

Sam married the beautiful Lynn Claustre during the season on June 18, 1964. They have a daughter.

Cincinnati Scout Jimmy Bragan signed Sammy to an Indianapolis contract on June 1, 1961 for a sizable bonus. He was 10-3 for Columbia in 16 games with a 1.89 ERA, striking out 129 batters in 114 innings and was 0-0 in one game in 1961 with Indianapolis.

Despite only part of a season in pro ball, Ellis displayed so much pitching potential in spring training in 1962 that he opened the season as a member of the Reds' staff.

After hurling in five games (1-2), Sam was optioned to San Diego where he was 12-6 and pitched a no-hitter for San Diego on August 14, 1962 over Tacoma, 4-0, at San Diego.

He rejoined the Reds after the 1962 Coast League season ended and pitched in three more games, beating the Phils for a 2-2 mark for the Reds in '62. He struck out 27 batters in 28 innings for the Reds.

In 1963 Sammy led the Pacific Coast League in ERA with a 2.62 mark for San Diego. He was 12-10 as he fanned 192 batters in 192 innings. He pitched for Caracas in the Venezuelan League after the 1963 season.

PITCHER JOSEPH RICHARD "Joey" JAY—BORN August 15, 1935 (30) at Middletown, Connecticut. BATS—Both. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-4. WEIGHT—228. ANCESTRY—Austrian-Polish. MARRIED—Lois Burgen, October 19, 1954. CHILDREN—Have son and four daughters. WINTER ADDRESS—Spencer, West Virginia. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Trade, December 15, 1960, from Milwaukee with Juan Pizarro for Roy McMillan.

Joey Jay, 30-year-old righthander, pitched his fifth season for the Cincinnati Reds in 1965. The husky, 6-4, 228-pounder has posted season won-lost totals for the Reds of 21-10 in 1961; 21-14 in 1962; 7-18 in 1963; 11-11 in 1964 and 9-8 in 1965.

In 1965 Jay was 3-0 vs. Chicago; 1-0 vs. Houston; 2-0 against the Phils; 1-0 vs. San Francisco; and 3-1 in the month of June. He was 7-7 as a starter and 2-1 in relief.

Joey was Milwaukee's first "bonus player" as he signed in 1953. He spent 1953 and 1954 with Milwaukee and in July of 1955 was optioned to Toledo.

He pitched briefly with Milwaukee in 1957 but came up to stay with the Braves in 1958, the first of three full seasons with the Braves before moving to the Reds.

On December 15, 1960 Jay came to the Reds from the Braves along with Juan Pizarro in exchange for Roy McMillan.

In 1961 Joey posted his 21-10 season and became the Reds' first "20-game winner" since Ewell Blackwell (22-8) turned the trick for Cincinnati in 1947.

Jay was named "National League Pitcher of the Year—1961" by the UPI, Joey that season dropped his first three 1961 decisions as his mates failed to score a single run while he was on the mound during these three losses. The handsome hurler then proceeded to win eight straight decisions as he played a big part in the Reds capturing the National League pennant.

Joey, reportedly the first Little Leaguer to make the Major Leagues, defeated the Yankees in the second game of the 1961 World Series at Yankee Stadium.

He was also named to the N.L. All Star Game Team in 1961.

Jay, who is a switch-hitter, backed up his great 1961 season with another brilliant season in 1962 as he posted a 21-14 record.

OUTFIELDER TOMMY "Tom" HARPER—BORN October 14, 1940 (25) at Oak Grove, Louisiana. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—5-10. WEIGHT—164. ANCESTRY—Negro. MARRIED—Bonnie Jean Williams, October 6, 1962. WINTER ADDRESS—1324 67th Street, Berkeley, California. COLLEGE—San Francisco State College, 1958-60. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Cincinnati Reds Farm System.

Tommy Harper, 25, began fulfilling the many predictions made for his baseball potential as he batted .257 in 159 games in 1965, played a good leftfield, led the National League in scoring runs with 126, hit 18 home runs, drove in 64 and stole 35 bases and was caught stealing only six times. Tommy batted .362 against St. Louis, getting 25 for 69 with ten RBIs. He batted .452 against Cardinal hurling at St. Louis (14 for 31).

The mercury-footed Harper was signed by the Red organization on May 28, 1960. He reported to Topeka where he hit .254 in 79 games, drawing 76 walks and stealing 26 bases.

Harper trained with the Reds in 1961 (on Varsity roster) before going to Topeka where he was sensational. His .324 batting average, 15 home runs and a league-leading 136 walks were instrumental in his being named "The Most Valuable Player in the Three Eye League." He led the league in runs (131), triples (11) and stolen bases (31). He was second in batting and he topped the second sackers in fielding with a mark of .963.

Tommy played with the Reds entry in the Florida Winter Instructional League after the 1961 season and impressed with his versatility, playing second, third and the outfield.

Despite only one full season in pro baseball, Harper opened up as the Reds' third baseman in 1962 after Gene Freese suffered his ankle injury in spring training.

However, when Manager Fred Hutchinson felt the youngster was pressing a little he was sent to San Diego on 24-hour recall on April 15 after Tommy had played in six games.

Harper proceeded to tear the Coast League apart with a .333 batting mark. Tommy hit 26 home runs, stole 22 bases, had 24 doubles and eight triples along with 84 runs-batted-in.

Harper led the Coast League in scoring runs (120), and bases on balls (105) and was elected to the All-Star Team as the third baseman.

The managers in the Coast League voted "Harp" "the best major league prospect (not including pitchers) in the league for 1962," "the best rookie," and runner-up to teammate Chico Ruiz for "the fastest runner in the league."

He had a fine rookie season for Cincinnati in 1963 as he was in 129 games, hit ten home runs, drove in 37 and batted .260 as the Reds rightfielder. Tommy also played six games for the 1962 Reds at third base.

In 1964, as the Reds leftfielder, Harper led the Reds in stolen bases with 24, being caught only three times. He batted .243 as a sophomore.

PITCHER WILLIAM JOHN "Bill" McCool—BORN July 14, 1944 (21) at Batesville, Ind. BATS—Right. THROWS—Left. HEIGHT—6-2. WEIGHT—208. ANCESTRY—Irish. SINGLE. WINTER ADDRESS—29 Edgewood Dr., Lawrenceburg, Indiana. HOW OBTAINED—Cincinnati Reds Farm System.

Billy McCool, in his sophomore season of 1965 had a record of 9-10 in 62 games, all but two in relief. The hard-throwing 21-year-old lefty struck out 120 in 105 innings. He has 18 "saves." He was 9-8 in relief and 0-2 as a starter.

Among his 18 "saves" were four against Houston, three against both San Francisco and St. Louis, and two each over Milwaukee and New York. He had one over Chicago, Los Angeles, Phils and Pittsburgh.

He posted ERA's of 2.25 over both Los Angeles and Milwaukee and 2.70 against Pittsburgh.

The 6-2, 208-pound McCool had a fine freshman season in 1964 for the Reds, appearing in 40 games with three starts. Billy won six, lost five, had 89 innings pitched, walked 29 and struck out 87 in 89 innings while posting an outstanding 2.42 ERA. He was named "National League Pitching Rookie of the Year" by THE SPORTING NEWS.

Manager Fred Hutchinson and Pitcher Coach Jim Turner, and later, Acting Manager Dick Sisler, nursed the youngster along very nicely. As he increased his effectiveness he increased his appearances and finally his fine hurling reached the stage where he became one of the first to be called upon in difficult situations.

McCool began his pro career in 1963 at Tampa where he had a 5-13 pitching record with a fine 2.01 earned-run-average when he was promoted to the Pacific Coast League.

"Cool Bill's" record was very deceiving as he struck out 165 in 148 innings for Tampa and the Tarpons were shutout seven times when McCool pitched.

Billy was moved up to San Diego on August 14, 1963. On August 22 he pitched the final three innings for the Padres against the Reds in an exhibition game and proceeded to retire nine straight men, striking out four.

In the Coast League Bill won three starts and on the final day of the hectic pennant race added a victory in relief to give him a 4-0 mark for San Diego. He had a 1.04 ERA for San Diego.

Reds Scouts Buzz Boyle and Cliff Polking signed McCool on September 14, 1962 to a 1963 contract.

McCool was a basketball guard, a football tackle, and a baseball pitcher for Lawrenceburg, Indiana High School before graduating in 1962. He compiled an outstanding 18-2 record in baseball and had three no-hitters in high school.

He owns a drug store along with his brother-in-law in nearby Lawrenceburg, which is about 20 miles from Cincinnati.

McCool went into the Army for training as a Reservist and went on the military list as of Nov. 5, 1965.

PITCHER JAMES JEROME "Jim" O'TOOLE—BORN January 10, 1937 (29) at Chicago, Ill. BATS—Both. THROWS—Left. HEIGHT—6-0. WEIGHT—205. ANCESTRY—Irish. MARRIED—Betty Jane Wall, July 2, 1960. CHILDREN—Two sons and three daughters. WINTER ADDRESS—1010 Lanette, Cincinnati, Ohio. COLLEGE—U. of Wisconsin (2 years) 1956-58. HOW OBTAINED—Cincinnati Reds Farm System.

While 1965 wasn't one of Jim O'Toole's normal big victory production seasons for the Reds, his career record with the Cincinnati club has established the 28-year-old southpaw as one of the best hurlers in the National League.

In five seasons, starting with 1960, and prior to 1965, Jim posted won and lost records of 12-12 in 1960; 19-9 in 1961; 16-13 in 1962; 17-14 in 1963; and 17-7 in 1964. This five-year period of fine hurling definitely established the well-liked Irishman among the elite lefthanders in the league. Jim was 3-10 for the 1965 Reds in 29 games and 22 starts.

Jim, who attended the U. of Wisconsin, was named "Minor League Player of the Year" for 1958 as he won 20 and lost eight for Nashville in his first pro season. He was also in one game (0-1) for the Reds that year.

O'Toole spent the entire 1959 season with the Reds, only his second year in pro ball, and was 5-8 but won three of his last four decisions.

In 1960 Jim was 12-12 for the Reds, winning six of his last ten decisions. He married Betty Jane Wall on July 2nd of that season (1960).

The six foot, 205-pounder was tremendous for the 1961 pennant-winning Reds. He won eight straight to finish the season; eleven of his last 12; and 13 of his last 15 while posting a 19-9 mark. He started the first game of the 1961 World Series against the Yankees.

O'Toole, in 1962, was 16-13 for the Reds. On July 18, 1962 he was 8-11 and then won eight of his last ten decisions.

Jim was 17-14 for the 1963 Reds and was the starting pitcher for the N. L. in the All Star Game.

He was the winning pitcher for the Reds in the 1961 and 1963 Opening Games.

Jim and his wife, own a home in Cincinnati where they reside with their two sons and three daughters.

PITCHER JACK EDWARD BALDSCHUN (BALD-schun)—BORN November 16, 1936 (29) at Greenville, Ohio. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-0. WEIGHT—190. ANCESTRY—German. MARRIED—Charlotte Dawn Kolbe, April 10, 1958. CHILDREN—Son and daughter. WINTER ADDRESS—1308 Angora Ave., Yeaton, Pa. COLLEGE—Miami Univ. (Oxford, Ohio) 2 years. HOW OBTAINED—Trade December 9, 1965 with Milt Pappas and Dick Simpson for Frank Robinson.

One of the busiest and best relief pitchers in the National League for the past five seasons has been Jack Baldschun, 29-year-old righthander who relies on a screwball for his most effective pitch.

Baldschun, who was born in Greenville, Ohio and now makes his home in Yeaton, Pa., led the National League pitchers in games pitched in (65) his first season in the majors with the 1961 Phillies. He has continued to be a busy pitcher with such season totals for appearances since 1961 of 67, 65, 71 and 65 in 1965.

In his five full seasons with the Phils, Baldschun pitched in 333 games, all in relief which is the Phils' record. He broke the previous relief pitching of Jim Konstanty when he made his 292nd appearance on June 7, 1965.

The 65 games he pitched in during 1965 was second high in the National League. He had victory totals in his five Phil seasons of 5-3; 12-7; 11-7; 6-9 and 5-8. He posted earned-run-marks of 3.87; 2.95; 2.29; 3.13; and 3.82.

He was credited with "saving" 48 games during his five Phillie seasons, 17 in 1964 and 14 of these came on the road.

Baldschun graduated from Greenville High (Ohio) in 1954 where he lettered in baseball, basketball and track. He also attended Miami University at Oxford, Ohio for two years and played baseball.

Jack considers his most interesting experience to be the two games against the N. Y. Mets in August, 1962. In both games he retired the side after coming in with the bases loaded and no outs, with no runs scoring in either game.

Baldschun broke into pro ball with Thibodaux in 1956 where he was 10-10 and in 1957 was 10-15 with Wausau.

In 1958 Jack divided his time between Savannah (0-0); Albuquerque (4-5); and Visalia (1-0).

In 1959 Jack was 6-2 in 26 games with a 2.90 ERA for Topeka.

He pitched for Nashville (1-0) and Columbia (12-9) in 1960.

Baldschun was drafted from the Cincinnati organization on November, 1960 by the Phils.

On December 7, 1965 Jack was traded by the Phils to Baltimore for Jackie Brandt and Darold Knowles.

CATCHER-FIRST BASEMAN DONALD STEPHEN "Don" PAVLETICH (Pav-LET-ick)—BORN July 13, 1938 (27) at Milwaukee, Wisconsin. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—5-11. WEIGHT—214. ANCESTRY—Creation. MARRIED—Delores Wilhelm, October 24, 1959. CHILDREN—Son and two daughters. WINTER ADDRESS—3059 South 95th Street, West Allis, Wisconsin. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Cincinnati Farm System.

Catcher-first baseman Don Pavletich had a fine season for the 1965 Reds despite several injuries. The 27-year-old righthand hitter compiled a .319 batting mark in 68 games and 191 at-bats. Don had eight home runs and drove in 32 markers.

"Pav" also did a fine job of pinch-hitting, getting four for eleven (.364).

Pavletich hit .299 prior to the All Star game and .368 after the Classic. In August Don batted .425 with 17 for 40 in 14 games.

On July 10 he pulled a rib muscle and re-injured it again in his next appearance on July 25. His next appearance was August 6.

On September 1 he strained a muscle on the right side while batting. His previous injury was on the left side. He didn't play again until September 20 and his absence was a blow to the Reds.

Pavletich, a very modest and likeable youngster, was signed on August 14, 1956 by the Cincinnati Reds to a bonus contract for the 1957 season. The Reds had to go all-out to land the services of this highly-touted youngster amidst terrific competition. Phil Seghi and Dale McReynolds scouted him.

Don played in one game in 1957 with the Reds and on May 13, 1957 was inducted into U.S. Army and served until February 14 of 1959.

He was in one game with the 1959 Reds and 69 at Topeka where he batted .277 with 12 home runs and 50 RBIs. He was hampered by a bad shoulder.

In 1960 he began at Columbia but was bothered by the shoulder and was sent to Topeka. Doctors advised Red officials that overhand throwing from the catching position was the reason his arm never healed properly. They felt he would be able to throw from first base, using a sidearm delivery that wouldn't hurt his arm while it was mending. Don appeared in 89 Topeka games, playing 86 at first and hit .284 with ten homers and 65 RBIs.

Don really came into his own in 1961 at Indianapolis, batting .295, driving in 78 runs and hitting 22 home runs while being named to the All Star team. He played 64 at first and caught in 72 games.

In 1963 Don was in 30 games with San Diego (.289) and 71 with Cincinnati (.208).

He started the 1964 season with the San Diego club where he blasted Coast League pitching for a mark of .302 in 71 games and in 34 games with the Reds hit .242.

1937- everything happened!

Cincinnatians remember '37 for many things: the flood, Black Sunday...and, on the lighter side, rowing a boat in Crosley Field itself. MacGregor remembers 1937 for another reason: that is the year the Reds began wearing baseball uniforms by MacGregor. And they've been wearing them ever since. Everything that bears the MacGregor name wears well.

PITCHER JOHN PHILLIP TSITOURIS (suh-TOUR-is)—BORN May 4, 1936 (29) at Monroe, N.C. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-0. WEIGHT—188. ANCESTRY—Greek. MARRIED—Dorothy Keziah, January 1, 1959. CHILDREN—Two sons and a daughter. WINTER ADDRESS—Rt. 4, Austin Rd., Monroe, N.C. HOW OBTAINED—Trade from Kansas City, January 25, 1961, with John Briggs for Joe Nuxhall.

John Tsitouris was in 31 games for the 1965 Cincinnati Reds and posted a 6-9 record. This was John's third full season as a Red and he also was in four games at the tail end of the 1962 season.

In 1964 Tsitouris (suh-TOUR-is) was 9-13 in 37 games and in 1963 he was 12-8 with a 3.16 ERA in 30 games.

Tsitouris, a very aggressive competitor, broke into pro ball in 1954 with Valdosta.

In 1957 he appeared in two games (1-0 for Detroit).

John was in one major league game (0-0) for Kansas City in 1958 and in 1959 was with Houston (American Association) and 4-3 in 24 games with Kansas City.

In 1960 Tsitouris was 0-2 in 14 games with Kansas City. He was out of action for two months due to a broken jaw received while pitching batting practice.

He was 9-8 at Indianapolis in 1961.

John had an excellent season at San Diego in 1962 with a 13-8 record and a 2.92 ERA as he helped the Padres win the Coast League pennant. He was named to the league's All-Star Game and was picked as San Diego's Most Valuable Pitcher. He was also named as the pitcher on the Coast All-Star team.

Tsitouris was called up to Cincinnati after San Diego's season ended and appeared in four games. He pitched a brilliant shutout over Philadelphia on the last day of the season in 1962 to post a 1-0 record with Cincinnati.

John was quite a pitcher around his home town of Monroe, N. Carolina. Tsitouris reportedly pitched four consecutive no-hitters in amateur play. He was signed to his first pro contract by the Detroit Tigers.

In 1956 John was 13-6 with Augusta and posted a 1.51 earned-run-mark which was the lowest ever posted in the South Atlantic League at that time.

The Reds obtained Tsitouris on January 25, 1961 from Kansas City along with John Briggs in exchange for Joe Nuxhall. Now Nuxhall and Tsitouris are teammates.

Perez (puh-REZ) hit two pinch-hit home runs; connected for a grand slammer on April 13 off Denny Lemaster (Milw.); hit .412 against Houston; .355 vs. Milwaukee; .324 off Pittsburgh pitching; .444 in the month of April; and batted .362 in the month of July.

On June 27 he hit a home run over the left field bleachers off Osinski in Milwaukee, reportedly the first time it had ever been done.

In "Clutch Clouters" statistics compiled by Irv Greenberg for THE SPORTING NEWS, Perez (although he only batted 281 times) was the Reds' top clutch hitter knocking in eight winning runs. In this compilation, these were not mere "insurance runs" that later proved the deciding margin after the opposition narrowed the final score, but actual tie-breaking or come-from-behind winning runs that stood up the entire game. The leader in the N.L. had 14.

Six of Perez' came on home runs.

Tony had a great year with San Diego in 1964, blasting 34 home runs and driving in 107 while batting .309 in 124 games. He missed part of the Padres season when he was called up by the Reds on July 24 and remained until going back to San Diego on option on August 23. Tony returned again to the Reds on September 20.

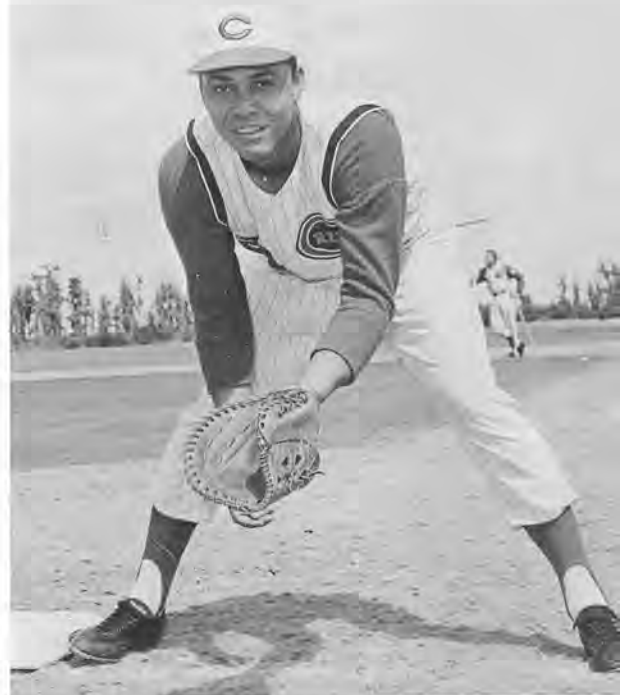

His sensational play was rewarded with his selection as "The Most Valuable Player in the Pacific Coast League for 1964." He was also the biggest vote getter for the league's All Star team but since he received votes at first base and also third base, Tony was named as the utility man on the All-Star team.

He broke into pro ball with .279 at Geneva in 1960; and in 1961 at Geneva led the league in hitting with .348.

OUTFIELDER MELVIN DOUGLAS "Mel" QUEEN—BORN March 26, 1942 (23) at Johnson City, New York. BATS—Left. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-1. WEIGHT—190. ANCESTRY—Dutch-English. WINTER ADDRESS—10553 Semore, Bellflower, California. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Cincinnati Farm System.

Twenty-three-year old Mel Queen, he of the authoritative bat and the explosive throwing arm, played for San Diego in 1965 in 139 games and finished up the season with the Reds, appearing in five games. Mel also played for Cinco Estrellas in the Nicaraguan Winter League after the 1965 season. He batted .275 with 14 homers for San Diego and was hitless in three trips for the Reds.

In 1964 Mel spent the entire season with Cincinnati. In 48 games he batted .200 but flashed a brilliant potential.

Mel, in 1963, was "the top major league prospect (other than pitchers) in the Pacific Coast League and the outfielder with the best throwing arm" selected by the managers.

With the Padres in 1963, Mel was in 134 games, clouted 25 home runs, drove in 78 and batted .260. Pulled tendons in his right hand delayed him at the outset of the season.

Son of Mel Queen, former Yankee and Pittsburgh pitcher, Mel was signed on June 19, 1960 by the Reds after encountering considerable opposition for his services.

Mel played five games at Seattle, nine at Topeka before going to Palatka, in 1960, his first pro season. At Palatka he batted .257 in 53 games with 33 RBIs while playing third base.

Mel trained with the 1961 Reds and was optioned to Topeka where in 129 games as a third sacker had 14 homers, 88 RBIs and a .266 mark. After the 1961 season Queen played for the Reds in the Florida Winter Instructional League and Manager Jack Casini played him both in the infield and outfield. Mel led the Three I League third basemen in assists (228) and chances accepted in 1961 (310).

Switching to the outfield in 1962, Mel hit .275 in 137 games at Macon with eleven home runs and 93 RBIs.

PITCHER THOMAS EUGENE (Teddy) DAVIDSON—BORN Oct. 4, 1939 (26) at Las Vegas, Nevada. BATS—Right. THROWS—Left. HEIGHT—6-0. WEIGHT—192. ANCESTRY—German. MARRIED—Mary Sharp, November 12, 1962. CHILDREN—Two daughters. WINTER ADDRESS—515 De Armond Place, Santa Maria, California. COLLEGE—Allan Hancock College (Santa Maria), 1958. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Cincinnati Farm System.

Teddy Davidson, 26-year old, six-foot, 192-pound lefthand pitcher, was recalled by the Reds from San Diego on July 22 and immediately stepped into the difficult relief roles and gave a great account of himself.

He did a real fine job for the Reds and got some real good hitters out consistently. Eddie Mathews of the Braves said: "The guy didn't fall apart out there after some bad breaks. You say he's only 26. He pitches like a guy who is a lot older. Sure has a lot of poise."

Before his recall to the Reds, Davidson was 6-5 for San Diego in 35 games, with a 3.62 ERA in 92 innings.

With the Reds, Teddy posted a brilliant 2.22 ERA in 24 games and 69 innings and posted a 4-3 record.

Teddy has excellent minor league credentials.

He notched a splendid 2.35 ERA to lead the league with Palatka in 1960 as he posted a 9-5 record.

Ted was with Columbia (0-0) and Topeka (13-7) in 1961, with Macon in 1962 was 9-4 with a fine 2.17 ERA.

Davidson was with Macon again in 1963 where he was 6-4 with a 2.15 ERA in 35 games.

He had a fine season with San Diego in 1964. Ted was 7-7 with a brilliant 2.15 ERA in 56 games and was recalled on September 20, 1964 by the Reds but saw no National League action that season.

Davidson couldn't make his high school baseball team as a freshman nor as a sophomore but played his last two years.

CATCHER JIMMIE GOODWIN "Jim" COKER (KOH-ker)—BORN March 28, 1936 (29) at Holly Hills, South Carolina. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—5-10. WEIGHT—193. ANCESTRY—Dutch-Irish. MARRIED—Nel Rey Daws, October 10, 1959. CHILDREN—Have daughter. WINTER ADDRESS—Throckmorton, Texas. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Purchased from Denver, August 23, 1964.

Jim Coker, the very likeable catcher for the Cincinnati Reds, has done a fine job since his purchase from Denver of the Pacific Coast League on August 23, 1964. The 5-10, 193-pound righthand hitter had batted .277 for Denver in 112 games with 16 home runs and 70 runs-batted-in at the time the Reds acquired him. He tied for the catching position on the Coast All-Star team in 1964.

With Cincinnati, in eleven games in 1964, Jim batted .313. He continued to be an asset in 1965 as he delivered in timely fashion on most of the occasions when he was called upon.

Jim batted .246 in 24 games for the 1965 Reds.

Coker spends the off-season working as a rancher on his father-in-law's ranch in Throckmorton, Texas. He would like to become a rancher someday.

The 1962 season saw Jim with Philadelphia in five games as he was in military service most of the year. He went to the Baltimore Orioles on November 21, 1962. He had been with the Phils briefly in 1958, 1960 and 1961.

Shortly after his move to Baltimore, Jim was traded on December 15, 1962 to San Francisco with Jack Fisher and Billy Hoelt for Mike McCormick, Stu Miller and John Orsino.

OUTFIELDER CHARLES WESLEY "Charlie" JAMES—BORN December 22, 1937 (28) at St. Louis, Missouri. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-1. WEIGHT—201. ANCESTRY—Italian. MARRIED—Jo Denty, February 1, 1958. CHILDREN—Daughter and son. COLLEGE—Attended Missouri University 1955-58; B.S. in Electrical Engineering from Washington University at St. Louis (working on Masters Degree in Electrical Engineering at Washington U. 1958-61). HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Trade, December 14, 1964, from St. Louis with Roger Craig, to Reds for Bob Purkey.

Handsome and likeable Charlie James put his first year in with the Cincinnati Reds in 1965 after coming to the Reds on December 14, 1964 from St. Louis, along with Roger Craig, for Bob Purkey.

James broke into pro ball in 1958 at Houston with 104 runs-batted-in.

He played briefly with the Cards in 1960 and full-time in 1961-62-63-64. He was a member of the 1964 World Champion Cardinal team.

The 28-year-old James attended the University of Missouri, 1955-58, and Washington University of St. Louis, 1958-61, receiving a B.S. in Electrical Engineering from Washington U. At the present time he is working on his Masters Degree at Washington University while he is teaching there during the off-seasons. His teaching job may some day be a full-time profession for the well-respected James when his baseball days are over. He is now in his fourth winter as an electrical engineering instructor.

James, who was a star halfback at Missouri University, in the middle of his third year took advantage of the bonus rule revision by taking a substantial bonus from the St. Louis club to play professional baseball. Another reason he decided to play baseball was a seriously injured thigh the previous fall.

The New York Giants football team drafted James and they thought so much of him they kept after him to play football several years after he was playing pro baseball. He was third in the nation in pass receiving in 1956.

Charlie was an All-State back for Webster Groves (Missouri) High and the entire backfield of Webster Groves was so good they enrolled as a unit at Missouri U.

OUTFIELDER RICHARD C. "Dick" SIMPSON—BORN July 28, 1943 (22) at Washington, D.C. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-4. WEIGHT—176. ANCESTRY—Negro. MARRIED. WINTER ADDRESS—696 San Juan Ave., Venice, Cal. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Trade, from Baltimore with Milt Pappas and Jack Baldschun, for Frank Robinson, Dec. 9, 1965.

In 1965 Dick Simpson was with Seattle and California Angels. He was in 149 games for Seattle where he batted .301 with twelve triples, 24 homers, 29 stolen bases and 79 RBIs.

He was in eight games with the Angels (.222).

Simpson was a standout baseball, basketball and track star at Venice (Calif.) High School, making All-League in baseball.

At Santa Monica (Calif.) Junior College, he high-jumped 6-7 and broad-jumped 25-3 for a school record and reportedly ran the hundred in 9.5.

He was signed out of the first Angels' Tryout Camp in February of 1961.

Simpson, who resembles Ernie Banks in size and swing, batted .288 for Statesville in 1961 with 15 home runs and 64 RBIs in 88 games.

In 1962 set a club record for home runs for San Jose with 42 as he batted .315 and drove in 113 markers. He was also in six games with the Angels that year (.250). On the final day of the 1962 season at Cleveland, Simpson won the 75-yard-dash, running away from other contestants headed by pitcher Pedro Ramos who is reputed to be one of baseball's fastest runners.

In 1963 Dick was sidelined by illness and injury nearly half of the season at Hawaii. Bothered by a throat infection, Dick hit only .232 for Hawaii with seven homers in 89 games.

The fleet-footed youngster got another chance in 1964 but after batting only .140 in 21 games he went back to Hawaii. Still bothered by his chronic throat ailment he blasted 16 home runs in 105 games and batted .243.

That winter Simpson had his tonsils removed and he began to gain weight.

He trained with the Angels in 1965 but opened the season with Seattle where he had a fine start.

On December 2, 1965, California traded Simpson to Baltimore for Norm Siebern.

THIRD BASEMAN HIRALDO SABLON "Chico" RUIZ (roo-EEZ)—BORN December 12, 1938 (27) at Santa Domingo, Cuba. BATS—Both. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-0. WEIGHT—173. ANCESTRY—Cuban. MARRIED—Isabel Suarez, October 7, 1961. CHILDREN—Have two daughters. WINTER ADDRESS—7227 Friars Road West, San Diego, California. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Cincinnati Farm System.

Speedy, flashy, Chico Ruiz ran into misfortune during the 1965 season with the Reds after four fine Triple A seasons. On August 25, at Milwaukee, Chico broke his left ankle sliding into third base and was out for the remainder of the season. Prior to his injury, Ruiz (roo-EEZ) had appeared in 29 games, batting 18 times for a .111 average.

The very likeable and personable youngster proved very valuable as a pinch-runner. In 1964 Chico started the season with the Reds and on May 12 was optioned to San Diego. He was recalled by the Reds on July 24. For the season, Ruiz was in 77 games in 1964, batting .244 for the Reds in 311 at-bats. He stole eleven bases in 14 tries.

With San Diego in 1964, Ruiz was in 72 games, batting .314 and stealing 19 bases in 24 tries.

Red Scout Buzz Boyle made a prediction back in 1961 which has proved accurate. Boyle said "Chico Ruiz will play a lot of major league baseball someday. He is outstanding as a fielder; does a good job in throwing, running, stealing bases, and he can do everything required of a major leaguer."

In 1963 Ruiz led San Diego in batting with .298. The six-foot, 168-pound switch-hitter led the league in stolen bases, 50; was named co-winner, along with Bobby Klaus, of the "San Diego Most Valuable Player Award for 1963" and was named to the Coast All-Star team as the third baseman. Chico, because of injuries on the club, played 88 games at third base, 51 at short, and six in the outfield. The league managers voted Ruiz "the fastest player in the Coast League" in 1963.

The 27-year-old Ruiz led the California League in stolen bases with 61 for Visalia in 1959; the Sally League with 55 for Columbia in 1960; the American Association with 44 for Indianapolis in 1961; the Coast League with 40 for San Diego in 1962; and the Coast League again in 1963 with 50 for San Diego.

SHORTSTOP TOMMY VANN HELMS—BORN May 5, 1941 (24) at Charlotte, North Carolina. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—5-10. WEIGHT—175. ANCESTRY—German-Indian. SINGLE. WINTER ADDRESS—123 Homestead Village, Charlotte, North Carolina.

Tommy Helms, 24-year-old shortstop for the Cincinnati Reds, is a throwback to the hard-nose, hungry athlete.

"When you talk about Tommy Helms," said his San Diego manager, Dave Bristol, "you've got to say he's a kid who came to beat you. Tommy has good baseball instincts, good hands, gets the ball away quick, has good range and you'll never find him sleeping in the field. He is strictly for the team."

Former Cincinnati Red star Grady Hatton, now manager of Houston's Oklahoma City farm club in the Pacific Coast League, is one of Helms' biggest supporters.

"Helms is a leader," said Hatton. "He's a great guy on a ball club. Because of his intangibles, he can help a team even when he's not hitting."

Tommy, a consistent .300 hitter in Triple A, batted sensationally for the Reds after reporting August 27, 1965. Tommy opened with the Reds and was "0 for 2" for Cincinnati when he was optioned to San Diego on May 11. He batted .381 for the season with the Reds, getting 16 for 42.

"The advance notices on Helms are all right. He's a tremendous player," said Manager Bobby Bragan of Milwaukee.

Helms batted .319 for the San Diego Padres in 1965 after getting off to a very slow start. He was batting only .139 after 39 appearances for the Padres.

In 1963 he got off to slow start for San Diego as he injured right hand prior to season, batting .225.

In 1964 Helms was third in PCL batting with .309 for San Diego; was named PCL All-Star shortstop; selected San Diego club's Most Valuable Player; was runner-up for PCL Most Valuable Player award won by Tony Perez. After the 1964 season he played for Magallanes in Venezuelan Winter League. This past off-season played for Magallanes again.

He was scouted and signed to a Savannah contract on June 22, 1959 by Red Scout Paul Campbell with Phil Seghi and Paul Florence aiding in the signing.

MISS FRANCES LEVY RETIRES FROM REDS

Gracious, charming and competent Miss Frances Levy retired from her position as Secretary to the General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds on December 31, 1965.

Miss Levy, one of the most valued and trusted employees in the history of the Cincinnati club, completed thirty-six years of association with the Reds.

During this time she has served as Secretary to five General Managers: Sidney Weil, Larry MacPhail, Warren Giles, Gabe Paul and Wm. O. DeWitt.

She started in 1930 when her brother-in-law, Sidney Weil, bought the club and offered her the opportunity to be Secretary. Before that she had been a Secretary to the late Judge Frank Wood.

The Reds captured three pennants during Miss Levy's association, 1939, 1940, and 1961.

"It's extremely difficult to single out any favorites as there were so many fine persons connected with the club but I guess I'd have to lean to Frank McCormick as my favorite player and Bill McKechnie as my favorite manager," Frances admitted.

Frances saw three Red no-hitters and lists Johnny Vander Meer's first no-hitter in 1938 as "the most thrilling game I ever saw."

Miss Levy was associated with nineteen Cincinnati managers: Dan Howley, Donie Bush, Bob O'Farrell, Burt Shotten, Chuck Dressen, Bobby Wallace, Bill McKechnie, John Neun, Bucky Walters, Luke Sewell, Earle Brucker, Rogers Hornsby, Buster Mills, Birdie Tebbetts, Jimmy Dykes, Mayo Smith, Fred Hutchinson, Dick Sisler and Don Heffner.

Art Shamsky, 24-year-old lefthanded outfielder, had a fine season in his rookie major league season in 1965 with the Cincinnati Reds.

The 6-1, 172-pounder batted .260 for the year in 64 games and 96 at-bats.

The St. Louis native was especially effective as a pinch-hitter. Art batted .289 as a pinch-hitter in 50 times called upon. He had 13 for 45 officially with a double, a triple and two home runs, eight runs-batted-in and three bases on balls.

Phil Seghi, then Farm Director, signed Shamsky to a contract in September of 1959 (Topeka contract) after Cincinnati won out for his services over an enthusiastic group of major league bidders. Shamsky worked out with the Reds in St. Louis and Cincinnati and Seghi signed the hard-hitting youngster at University City, Missouri.

He showed signs of things to come when he blasted a home run his first time at bat in pro ball at Geneva where he hit for a .271 mark that season with 18 homers and added 86 RBIs. He led the N.Y.-Pa. outfielders in assists with 24 and was named to the All-Star team.

In 1961 at Topeka Art hit for a .288 figure with 15 home runs and 66 runs chased across.

At Macon in 1962 the youngster was on the Disabled List for seven weeks. In the first 13 games he had hit six home runs and then injured his hand. He came back to play later in the season and played a total of 81 games with 16 home runs and 47 RBIs and batted .284.

In 1963 with San Diego Art batted .267 with 18 home runs and 68 RBIs.

He had his second consecutive fine season with San Diego in 1964. Art, who married Rande Morose in June of 1963, batted .272 with 25 round-trippers and 69 RBIs.

LEE MAY

FIRST BASEMAN LEE ANDREW MAY—BORN March 23, 1943 (22) at Birmingham, Alabama. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-3. WEIGHT—200. ANCESTRY—Negro. MARRIED—Terrye Perdue, January 18, 1962. CHILDREN—Have two daughters. WINTER ADDRESS—2413 Tempest Drive, Birmingham 11, Alabama. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Cincinnati Farm System.

Lee May, one of the best prospects in all baseball, had a tremendous season with the San Diego Padres as he tore the Pacific Coast League apart. Padre manager Dave Bristol considered May one of the finest major league prospects he has seen in nine years of managing.

Before reporting to the Reds on September 1, the righthanded May, playing in 143 games, blasted 32 doubles, seven triples, 34 homers, chased around 103 runs and batted .321 along with leading the league with 327 total bases. After joining the Reds on September 1st, May appeared in five games, going hitless in four trips.

May's superlative play won him "Most Valuable Player on the Padres" honor; the "Most Popular Padre", voted by the fans; named by a poll of the managers as "the most dangerous hitter in the Coast League," and he was tied as the first baseman on the league's All-Star team.

As a youngster in the Reds' farm system, May had a tendency to uppercut the ball. It was a tip from Manager John "Red" Davis at Macon which helped May tremendously. Davis suggested that he go into a slight crouch to avoid uppercutting the ball. Davis managed May two seasons; in 1963 at Rocky Mount and in '64 with Macon.

"May could hit a ball out of any park," declared Davis. "Lee doesn't have to swing hard but he was wasting all his natural power uppercutting the ball while trying to swing too hard. The crouch keeps him from coming up off the ball."

The tremendously-built, 6-3, 200-pounder was signed by Red Scout Jimmy Bragan who Lee credits with "giving me the opportunity and encouragement." Lee also calls Manager Davis a "wonderful manager."

May broke in with Tampa (.260) in 1961 in 26 games; batted .260 again in 1962 in 89 games with ten home runs and 65 runs-batted-in; hit .263 and 18 homers and 80 runs-batted-in in 1963 at Rocky Mount; at Macon in 1964 blasted 25 home runs, drove in 110, which led the league, batted .303 and was named to the All-Star team.

Lee played winter ball for Valencia in Venezuela this past winter.

GUS GIL

SECOND BASEMAN THOMAS GUSTAVO "Gus" GIL—BORN April 19, 1939 (26) at Caracas, Venezuela. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—5-10. WEIGHT—180. ANCESTRY—Venezuelan. SINGLE. WINTER ADDRESS—Urb Urdaveta Veneda 15 No. 1, Caracas, Venezuela. HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Cincinnati Farm System.

In a poll of the Pacific Coast League managers, Gus Gil was selected as "the best defensive second baseman in the Coast League for 1965." In his second season with the Padres, Gus batted .256 in 145 games. In 1964 he hit .305 in 125 games for San Diego and was named to the 1964 Coast League All Star team.

In 1965 Gil paced the Coast League second basemen in putouts (389) and double plays (106).

One of Gil's best boosters is Dave Bristol the Reds Coach. Gus played for Bristol two seasons at Macon; in the Venezuelan Winter League; and at San Diego for two seasons.

"Gus does a fine job," declared Bristol. "He played a lot of second base for us and he can do an outstanding job at third base. They tell me he is also impressive at short.

"The youngster has quick hands, has style all his own and handles the double play ball well," continued Bristol.

"He is one of the best second sackers in the game at the off-balance throw to any base," declared Bristol.

Gil, who is a very quiet youngster and goes about his job in a very efficient manner, broke into the Reds farm system at Geneva in 1959 (.267) and in 1960 played nine games with Seattle and in 119 for Missoula hit .313. He added a .269 figure at Columbia in 1961.

Gus performed brilliantly for Macon in 1962 (.276) and at Macon again in 1963 (.277) before going with San Diego in 1964 and 1965. He was with the Reds from September 20 on during the 1964 season but didn't see any action.

Gus played winter ball this past off-season with Valencia in Venezuela.

PITCHER DANIEL ANTHONY "Dan" NEVILLE (NEV-ull)—BORN April 6, 1941 (24) at Covington, Kentucky. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-3. WEIGHT—202. ANCESTRY—German-Irish. MARRIED—Rosemarie Pollock, February 10, 1962. CHILDREN—Have son, David. WINTER ADDRESS—1910 East Noel Street, Tampa, Florida. COLLEGE—University of Kentucky (1 semester, 1959). HOW OBTAINED BY REDS—Cincinnati Farm System.

In 1965 righthander Dan Neville pitched in 36 games for San Diego of the Pacific Coast League with all but seven in relief. He posted a 4-3 record in 74 innings and a 3.65 earned-run-mark. This was the second season with the Padres for Neville.

In 1964 Eddie Leishman, the San Diego General Manager, called Neville "the best all-around athlete on the 1964 San Diego club." Leishman said "Dan can run, throw, field hit, etc., and is a very good competitor."

Cincinnati Scouts Buzz Boyle and Cliff Polking signed Dan to a contract. In 1961, with Tampa of the Florida State League, Neville posted a great 1.94 ERA to lead the league and had a 15-4 won-lost mark despite a bad arm. Dan was subsequently put on the Disabled List and was out for most of the season.

"I was sent to doctors in Cincinnati, when I hurt my arm, and they felt I shouldn't throw for a year and I was naturally very discouraged and gave a lot of thought to quitting. Phil Seghi, who was the Farm Director then, saw that my salary continued but there wasn't anything for me to do in Tampa," recalls Danny.

"Johnny Vander Meer," continued Dan, "helped me restore my confidence and gave me some exercises to strengthen my arm. Then he told me I could have the job of clubhouse boy if I wanted it. So I remained with Tampa club handling clubhouse chores.

With the arm still bothering him in 1962, Neville was on the Disabled List the greater part of the season but managed to pitch in ten games with a 3-0 record and a 1.44 ERA.

Following the 1962 season Neville pitched for the Reds' Florida Winter Instructional League team and according to Seghi was "throwing bullets."

Dan then was on his way. He was 13-9 with Macon in 1963; and 14-11 with San Diego in 1964 when he came up to the Reds on September 20 for the remainder of the season but didn't see any action.

Dan was born in Covington, Ky., and attended Covington Catholic High. He also attended the U. of Kentucky for one semester. Makes his home in Tampa, Florida.

The Swedish Osteen, who was signed by Scout Ray Baker, graduated from Putnam City High (Oklahoma City) in 1961. He lettered in baseball, basketball and track. In his senior year Darrell pitched three no-hitters, helped lead his club to runner-up spot in the State tourney and was named Oklahoma City's Prep Player of the Year. Ran the 880 in track. TOM FRONDORF

LEN BOEHMER

PITCHER THOMAS ALBERT "Tom" FRONDORF—BORN August 1, 1944 (21) at Cincinnati, Ohio. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-5. WEIGHT—210. ANCESTRY—German. SINGLE. WINTER ADDRESS—3016 Brookview Drive, Cincinnati, Ohio. COLLEGE—Attends Xavier U. (Cin., O.) in off-seasons. HOW OBTAINED—Cincinnati Reds Farm System.

Tom Frondorf asked to be placed on the Restricted List, which was granted, and he will not count on the Reds' active player roster until he comes out of school in June.

The good and rabid fans of the Cincinnati Reds may soon have another local favorite to cheer for at Crosley Field if righthand pitcher Tom Frondorf continues his fine progress.

The 21-year-old, 6-5, 210 pound youngster of German descent, had a fine year for Knoxville where he was one of the top hurlers in the Southern League in 1965, posting a 16-7 record, a brilliant 2.79 earned-run-average; and posted a league leading four shutouts. He tied for the league leadership in wins with 16 (with teammate Darrell Osteen).

Tom pitched in 31 games and struck out 149 in 190 innings while walking 56 and allowing 164 hits.

On June 21, 1965, the Reds "borrowed" Frondorf from Knoxville to pitch in the exhibition game at Crosley Field for the Reds vs. Washington. The Reds won, 6-3, with Frondorf pitching the last three innings, giving up four hits and three runs, walking two and striking out three. The Senator had home runs by Willie Kirkland and Bob Chance. The youngster displayed fine poise and gave a good account of himself.

After six years of Knothole ball, Frondorf was a fine athlete at Cincinnati Elder High (baseball pitcher, football end and basketball center) before graduating in 1962. He received a trophy for best ERA (0.95) at Elder; was baseball Captain; helped win the State championship and pitched a no-hitter. He was the Most Valuable lineman in football at Elder in 1960. He had a 10-2 record in baseball.

Tom also starred for Bentley Post (17-3 record for 1961-62, including two no-hitters) and averaged nine strikeouts per game for Elder and Bentley for three seasons.

The modest, likeable youngster was signed by Red Scout Buzz Boyle and went to Tampa in 1963. He pitched in only eleven games because of an injury and was 1-2 with a 2.85 ERA. Tom was backing up the pitcher during batting practice and was bending over to pick up a ball and was struck by a batted ball. He spent a week in the St. Petersburg Hospital (where the club was playing); stayed around Tampa for about three weeks; then was sent to Cincinnati. He had the braces and wires removed and returned to pitching the last three weeks.

He was 10-8 for Tampa in 1964 in 24 games with a fine 2.51 earned-run-average, striking out 167 in 140 innings.

Tom, who attends Xavier University in Cincinnati during the off-seasons, trained with the Reds in 1965 while on the Knoxville roster. He is a bachelor.

MARRIED—Sharon Donnel-son, December 18, 1962. CHILDREN—Have son, Jeffrey, born Sept. 19, 1963. WINTER ADDRESS—1825 East Dale, Springfield, Missouri. COLLEGE—Attended Arizona State U, Tempe, Arizona, 1962-63. HOW OBTAINED—Drafted Dec. 2, 1963, from Rochester (1st year player); drafted by Houston, November 30, 1964, off San Diego roster; returned to San Diego March 29, 1965.

On June 21, 1965, 21-year-old Phil Henderson received "the greatest thrill" of his life. The Cincinnati Reds "borrowed" the 21-year-old, 6-2, 220-pound lefthander from their Knoxville affiliate in the Southern League to pitch for the Reds in an exhibition game at Crosley Field against the Washington club of the American League on June 21, 1965.

The Reds won the game, 6-3, with Henderson, the winner, going the first six innings, allowing one hit, one walk, nine strikeouts and no runs. Tom Frondorf finished for the Reds.

At one stage young Henderson retired 15 Senators in a row. He struck out nine, seven coming in a row. Henderson, who had a 2-6 mark at Knoxville at the time, walked the first man he faced and the next Senator to reach base was Doug Camilli, who singled to lead off the sixth.

Henderson was 6-10 for Knoxville for the 1965 season.

Henderson, from Springfield, Missouri, pitched for Aberdeen (0-0) in three games and Bluefield (4-2) in 12 games in 1963.

The Reds organization obtained Phil by drafting him on December 2, 1963 from Rochester (1st year player draft). He was 11-6 for the Reds' Newport News farm club in 1964, striking out 154 in 149 innings.

Houston drafted Henderson off the Reds' San Diego farm club roster on November 30, 1964 ($25,000) and returned him to San Diego after spring training, on March 29, 1965.

Phil graduated from Hillcrest High in Springfield, Missouri in 1962. He compiled a 9-1 record in 1962 as he was All-Conference and struck out 85 batters in 41 innings. His ERA was 0.00. He also won two basketball letters and two football letters. Phil was All-Southwest Missouri guard in 1962 in football.

He won the Most Valuable Player Trophy in Legion Ball at the Western Zone Tourney at Trenton, Mo. in 1962.

Henderson, who is married and the father of a son, Jeffrey, won freshman numerals as a pitcher at Arizona State U. at Tempe in 1963.

PHIL HENDERSON

PITCHER DAVID WILLIAM "Dave" GALLIGAN—BORN February 10, 1943 (22) at Norwich, Conn. BATS—Right. THROWS—Right. HEIGHT—6-2. WEIGHT—205. ANCESTRY—English-Irish. MARRIED—Bernadette Sayko, April 6, 1961. CHILDREN—Have son and daughter. WINTER ADDRESS—18 Oneca St., Norwich, Conn. COLLEGE—Attended Univ. of Connecticut (pre-law) 1960-65. HOW OBTAINED—Farm System.

Back in January of 1962 a baseball future looked very dim to young Dave Galligan after two years of pro baseball. He had just been released by Portsmouth who told him the parent organization was going to operate with fewer minor league clubs and as a result some young players had to be released.

Here's where the foresight of President Wm. O. DeWitt and Assistant General Manager Phil Seghi (then Farm Director) enter the picture.

Galligan wrote DeWitt a letter concerning a job. Something about the youngster's sincerity impressed the Reds' owner and he turned the letter over to Seghi.

Seghi checked reports on Galligan in the Reds' files and was interested in one by Red Scout Jack Cassini. A phone call followed and Cassini stated that "The youngster had a real good arm."

Seghi then phoned Galligan and following a lengthy talk informed the youngster that he would hear from the Reds.

Later Seghi had his assistant at the time, Art Perkins, make Galligan an offer and the righthander accepted it and reported to the Reds' Minor League Training Base in Tampa, Florida in 1962.

With Geneva in 1962, Dave was 7-6 in 16 games with 98 strikeouts in 99 innings.

With Cedar Rapids in 1963 Galligan was 13-7 in 23 games with 195 strikeouts in 170 innings, and in 1964 was 17-8 for Macon in 31 games with 168 strikeouts in 209 innings.

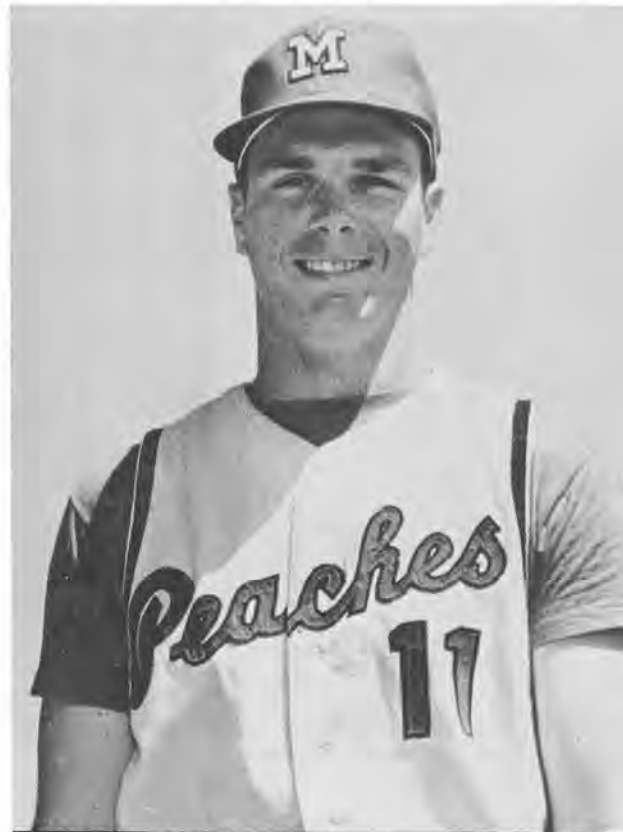

In 1964 the Reds borrowed Galligan from Macon for one night as they flew him to Cincinnati to pitch in the Reds' exhibition game with the Chicago White Sox. Galligan pitched the last two innings against the White Sox.

He was on the Reds' roster and slated for spring training in 1965 but asked permission to stay in school at the U. of Connecticut to take Economic courses.
