JERRY D. MCMORRIS

Chairman, President & Chief Executive Officer

If ever a case study were done on the importance of local ownership, the model would be Jerry McMorris and his partners for the accomplishments achieved during the 1993 season. A trucking executive by trade, McMorris applied the skills that made NationsWay (formerly NW Transport) the largest privately held motor carrier in the nation, to that of sitting in the owner's chair for the Colorado Rockies. Needless to say, it was not only the most successful first year in professional sports history, the 1993 season ranked as one of the top sports stories in the nation.

In 1959, at the ripe age of 19, Jerry McMorris assumed the Presidency of Westway Motor Freight, Inc., a company that his family purchased, and at the time was operating three trucks between Denver and Golden, CO. Today NationsWay has more than 10,000 equipment units and employs over 2,000 people in Colorado, with another 3,500 employees throughout the U.S. and Canada.

During the course of his leadership with the Rockies, McMorris has maintained the same calm demeanor on a daily basis regardless of the situation that arises. A "people" person by nature, Jerry and his wife, Mary, can be found in their seats behind the Rockies dugout on a daily basis cheering on the ballclub and interacting with the thousands of fans who made the trek to Mile High Stadium. A firm believer in doing what is right, he has ingrained that quality into everyone in the Rockies' organization.

Appreciative of the unprecedented fan support in 1993, McMorris and the other Rockies owners wanted to give back to the fans, and did so by allowing Bob Gebhard and the baseball staff to immediately begin upgrading the product with the off-season signings of Andres Galarraga, Ellis Burks, Walt Weiss, Howard Johnson, Mike Harkey and Marvin Freeman.

The baseball world did not take long to respect the abilities of the "rookie" owner, placing McMorris on the Player Relations Committee, in addition to the committee that is dealing with Congress and Federal Legislation.

A 1962 graduate of the University of Colorado School of Business, he is a former member of the Young Presidents' Organization, and is a member of the Chief Executives Organization and the World Business Council. In addition, he is a board member of the American Trucking Association and the Western Highway Institute. McMorris is a former Chairman of the Colorado State University Foundation, and currently serves on the CU Foundation Board of Directors. He is also on the Board of Directors of the very successful National Western Stock Show. He was named the 1993 Colorado Business Leader of the Year, and was the 1992 Master Entrepreneur of the Year. He is also a member of the Institute of American Entrepreneurs.

Jerry owns Timnath Farms and the Phantom Lake Ranch and Cattle Company, with his agricultural interests based in Northern Colorado. He and wife, Mary, have three children, Mike, Scott and Kelly. Jerry and Mary reside at Timnath Farms in Timnath, Colorado.

JOHN MCHALE, JR.

Executive Vice President
Operations

It was a particularly satisfying inaugural season by the Rockies for John McHale, because it marked the culmination of years of work that began when he was a member of the Denver Baseball Commission from 1984-89. During the early months of the franchise, McHale worked directly with Bob Gebhard, overseeing the club's major league, minor league, scouting and player development operations. He has since had his responsibilities expanded to supervise all aspects of the business operations, including sales and marketing. He is also a member of Major League Baseball's Operations Committee.

McHale practiced law in Colorado since 1981 prior to joining the Rockies, most recently with the firm of Miller & McCaren, P.C. His work was concentrated in the areas of litigation, labor relations, and employment law. From 1985 through 1992, his practice included assistance to Tal Smith in preparing and presenting salary arbitration cases for major league clubs.

Aside from his seat on the Denver Baseball Commission, McHale was also a member of the Denver Metropolitan Major League Baseball Stadium District board from 1989-1991. He served as counsel to the Montreal Expos' organization in 1975, and had worked in their minor league system during the summer months from 1969-72.

He graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1971, Boston College Law School in 1975, and received a Master of Laws degree from Georgetown University Law Center in 1982.

He and wife, Sally, have two sons, Duncan and Will, and recently added a daughter to the family, Frances, born last October 9. The McHale family resides in Boulder.

BOB GEBHARD

Senior Vice President
General Manager

The foundation of the Colorado Rockies was started long before the first players took the field in Tucson prior to the 1993 season. It began in September, 1991, when Bob Gebhard was named the Senior Vice President/General Manager of one of the newest franchises in baseball. The outline of his responsibility was simple, build a major league baseball team, a minor league organization and scouting system from scratch, and have it prepared to compete in the National League within 18 months after accepting the job. The task of accomplishing that was enormous. Somehow though, the veteran of two other organizations, was able to put a representative team on the field, and has since worked feverishly to upgrade the original product.

Prior to the selection of the first player, Gebhard had to assemble a baseball staff whose expertise would cover every phase of the game. He then spent the entire 1992 baseball season fulfilling every fan's dream, by visiting every major league venue, but he did so to scout all 26 established clubs in preparation for the expansion draft. Prior to drafting the players who would become members of the first team in Colorado Rockies' history, he had to name a manager, and the extensive and exhaustive search culminated on October 27, 1992, with the naming of Don Baylor.

Prior to the start of the expansion draft, he took a chance on a free agent first baseman who had crossed his path while Gebhard was working in the Montreal organization. That first baseman was Andres Galarraga, and he ended up becoming the first expansion player in history to win a batting title. It was then time to assemble the first team to represent the Rocky Mountain time zone. Within minutes after the conclusion f the expansion draft, Gebhard announced a trade with the Milwaukee Brewers for outfielder Dante Bichette. He also took a chance on a free agent pitcher named Bruce Ruffin, who was a mainstay in the bullpen in the second half of the '93 season. These are olls of the dice that have paid immediate dividends for the Rockies.

The 1993 Rockies were not expected to be contenders, but there were expectations of improvement as the season wore on. After a 13-game losing streak was halted on August 8, the Rockies posted the third best record in the National League through the remainder of the season. A large part of that success was because Gebhard drafted players and hired a manager who did not know the definition of the word "quit."

Not being a quitter was personified during his playing days, as Gebhard parlayed average stuff for a pitcher into an 11-year career, that included three different stints in the big leagues. His leadership abilities were obvious to those in the Montreal organization, who named him a player/coach in their chain for 1974-75, then promoting him o Minor League Field Director and pitching coach for the next six years. He spent the 1982 season on the big league coaching staff, then served as Director of Minor League clubs through 1986 before joining the Minnesota Twins' front office, the same organization that had originally made Gebhard a 15th round draft choice in the first-ever June raft in 1965.

It was with the Twins that he experienced the ultimate in success, winning the World Series title in both the 1987 and 1991 seasons. Gebhard started with the Twins in 87 as the Director of Major League Personnel, then assumed the role of Vice President, layer Personnel the following year.

A native of Lamberton, MN, he earned 16 letters while playing four sports in high school, then took his athletic career on the road to the University of Iowa, where he co-captained the baseball team and also played basketball.

Gebhard and wife, Nancy, have three children, daughters, Angie and Jenny, and son, Casey, and reside in Littleton, CO.

Walt Jocketty

Assistant General Manager/ Player Personnel

One of the newer members of the Baseball Operations staff, Walt Jocketty joined the Rockies on July 1, 1993, after serving for 10 seasons as the Director of Baseball Administration for the Oakland A's. He was named to his current position of Assistant General Manager/Player Personnel when Randy Smith departed the Rockies to become General Manager of the San Diego Padres.

Jocketty, 42, in his 20th season of professional baseball, 14 of those with the Athletics. He also had five years of administrative experience with the Iowa Oaks.

His major league association began in March, 1980, when he was hired by Charlie Finley as Oakland's Director of Minor League Operations and Scouting. He was instrumental in overhauling the A's minor league system that would eventually produce standouts like Mark McGwire, Jose Canseco and current Rockie shortstop, Walt Weiss.

Jocketty also brings experience in baseball's financial matters, player trades, arbitration cases and contract negotiations, all phases of the business end of baseball that are necessary in his role here.

A native of Minneapolis, MN, earning a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of Minnesota in 1974. Walt and wife, Sue, have two children, Ashley and Joey.

DICK BALDERSON
Director of Player Development

Dick Balderson joined the Rockies on August 7, 1992, after serving a variety of front office roles since joining the executive side of baseball in April, 1976. His responsibilities with the Rockies include all minor league player development, procuring players for the system via minor league free agency, and structuring the farm system and their clubs. He had a particularly busy "off-season" last winter, adding clubs in Asheville and New Haven, as the Rockies' organization has caught up with the established clubs now owning six minor league affiliates.

Prior to joining Colorado, Balderson spent four years in the Chicago Cubs' organization, beginning in 1988 as Director of Scouting, then was promoted two years later to Vice President of Scouting and Player Development.

The 47-year old former minor league pitcher began his front office career as Assistant Farm Director of the Kansas City Royals in 1976. In 1980, he was promoted to Director of Minor League Operations, then to Director of Scouting and Player Development a year later. After 10 seasons with the Royals, he headed to Seattle, serving as Vice President of Baseball Operations from October, 1985 to 1988.

Prior to his minor league pitching stint with the Kansas City organization, Balderson played collegiately for the Richmond Spiders.

He and wife, Marcia, have two children, son, Brett (13), and daughter, Melissa (8).

PAT DAUGHERTY
Director of Scouting

It has been anything but dull for Pat Daugherty since joining the Rockies in 1992. His responsibilities include assembling and organizing a scouting staff throughout the U.S. and Latin America, then hitting the road to scout and evaluate amateur talent for the June and Rule V drafts.

In two June drafts, Daugherty and his staff have signed 73 of the 110 players selected, including 37 of 60 in the 1993 session. The Rockies inked their top 14 picks of '93, and 28 of the first 29. In 1992, the initial June draft in club history, Colorado was the only organization to sign its first 25 choices and put 40 of 50 under contract. Pitching has been the dominate position in Daugherty's first two drafts, selecting 33 last year, after picking 25 hurlers in '92.

Daugherty joined the Rockies after six seasons as the Scouting Supervisor for the Montreal Expos. In 1990, he also served as manager of the Jamestown club in the New York-Penn League. It was not unusual for him to work two jobs at a time, because while coaching at Indian Hills Community College in Centerville, IA, for 17 years, he spent the last 10 of those seasons also working as a manager or coach in the Expos' chain. His professional baseball career began in 1972 as manager at Cocoa Beach in the Gulf Coast League. He remained on the field for both the Expos and Indian Hills C.C. until '81, when he was named Field Director of Player Development for Montreal.

His collegiate coaching career at Indian Hills began in 1965 after eight seasons as a high school coach in Iowa. He has a distinguished list of amateur baseball honors, including his induction into the Simpson College Hall of Fame, Iowa Coaches Hall of Fame and the National Junior College Hall of Fame.

Daugherty has a B.A. from Simpson College and earned his M.A. at Drake University. He and wife, JoAnn, have four children, daughters, Mary Beth, Ann and Peggy, and son, Mike.

Paul Egins

Assistant Director of Player Development

The title may have changed in a year, but the responsibilities have grown for the 30-year old Georgian. Originally tied in with both Scouting and Player Development, the organization has outgrown its early stages and now Paul Egins is dedicating all of his time to the developmental side. He works closely with Dick Balderson in the procurement of minor league players, administering the minor league affiliates that have now grown to six, and keeping all members of the baseball operations department abreast of what's happening on a daily basis down on the farm.

This is the same role he held with the Atlanta Braves prior to the Rockies making him one of the first hires on the baseball staff. While with the Braves, he was involved with two straight National League Championship clubs (1991-92), while assisting the man simply known as "The Hammer." Egins first joined Atlanta's front office as the Assistant to the Director of Player Development and Scouting, working directly under home run king Hank Aaron.

Prior to joining the Braves staff in Atlanta, Egins spent two seasons as the team trainer for the Burlington Braves in the Midwest League. It was not his first experience as a trainer, also working in that role at the University of Georgia and Florida A&M University.

Egins received a B.S. from the University of Georgia in 1986, majoring in Biology. His graduate work at Florida A&M was in Sports Administration. He is single and resides in Denver.

Jay Darnell

Assistant Director of Scouting

Jay Darnell was the most recent addition to the full-time baseball staff, though he was not a stranger to the organization when placed in this role last October 14. Originally hired by the Rockies on October 1, 1992, he was the administrator of spring training operations during the Rockies first-ever camp in Tucson. His responsibilities were of a supervisory capacity over the renovation of Hi Corbett Field and the surrounding practice fields, and the daily operation of the Tucson facility. Upon completion of the exhibition season, he returned to Denver with the team and worked as the video coordinator during the regular season.

Though young in years, the 28-year old Darnell has been in professional baseball for six years, beginning in 1988 as an administrative assistant with the first-year Colorado Springs Sky Sox. From there he joined the Montreal organization, serving as the Assistant General Manager of their West Palm Beach club in the Florida State League. He was also the coordinator of the Winter Instructional League in West Palm that included clubs from the Expos, Braves, Twins and Mets.

His new role with the Rockies includes working closely with Pat Daugherty, organizing the June Free Agent Draft, assisting in the supervision of all scouting personnel, and scout free agent prospects throughout Colorado.

A 1983 graduate of Fairview High School in Boulder, Darnell, then attended Johnson County Community College in Overland Park, KS, where he played baseball. He completed his college education with a B.S. in Marketing from the University of Colorado in 1988. He and his wife, Jill, make their home in Littleton.

PETER DURSO

Director of Team Travel

In his 19th year in the majors, the last 15 i his current role, Peter's responsibilities cove every phase of the travel arrangements for the Rockies throughout the course of the season. He not only secures all airline transportation, Durso's role assures the members of the traveling party of ground transportation in each National League city, hotel rooms and keys are ready upon arrival and the dispensing of meal money to each player and staff member.

He also has the monumental task of organizing travel plans and housing needs for players and staff during the six-week stay in Tucson for spring training.

The 43-year old baseball veteran started with the Montreal Expos in 1976, then changed provinces for 3 years to work for the Toronto Blue Jays, before returning to the Expos in 1980. He joined the Chicago Cubs as their Director of Travel in 1986, where he remained before coming to Colorado after the 1992 season.

Raised in a sports environment, Peter's father, Joe Durso, is a longtime writer for the New York Times. Peter and his wife, Barbara, reside in Lakewood.

MIKE SWANSON

Director of Public Relations

Mike Swanson enters his 21st season in professional sports, joining the Rockies as Public Relations Director during the start-up period in March, 1992. Prior to moving to Colorado, Swanson was the chief researcher for ESPN's Major League Baseball coverage in 1991. From 1984-90, he was on the Media Relations staff of the San Diego Padres, serving as the Director in '90. His P.R. career began at age 19, when he worked for the Kansas City Royals staff from 1973-78.

A "number cruncher" in his early years, Swanson has had the good fortune to work virtually every major sporting event in the nation as a television statistician. He spent four seasons with the NFL team of Pat Summerall and John Madden, in addition to working NCAA and NBA basketball. His statistical career started in 1977, when he was offered a position as the booth statistician for Keith Jackson on ABC's College Football telecasts. He served ABC for five years, including several stints with the Monday Night Football crew, before heading to CBS, when they secured the NCAA Basketball package in 1981. All totaled, Swanson had the best seat in the house at six Final Fours, four Super Bowls, four NFC Championship Games, six Cotton Bowls and three NBA Championships. He has also done basketball and football work for Turner Sports.

Despite the experiences in the TV booth, baseball has been a first love for Swanson since his days at Municipal Stadium in the early '60's, when his mother worked for the old Kansas City A's. The 39-year old bachelor attended Longview Community College and the University of Kansas.

HAROLD R. ROTH
Senior Vice President - Chief Financial Officer

Hal, who joined the Rockies in August, 1993, serves as the Chief Financial Officer and is responsible for overseeing the financial reporting, accounting, tax and treasury functions of the Rockies Baseball Club. He also serves as the Senior Vice President-Finance & Treasurer for NationsWay Transport Service, Inc.

Prior to joining the Rockies and NationsWay, Hal was a partner with the public accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand, where he specialized in taxation. Roth holds a B.A. degree from Albion College, an M.B.A. and J.D. from the University of Denver, and LL.M (in Taxation) from New York University. He is also a C.P.A.

Hal and his wife, Connie, have two sons and reside in Englewood.

CLARK WEAVER
Senior Vice President - Corporate Counsel

Clark joined the Rockies in October, 1992, after working for the Hamilton Oil Corporation, when he then handled all of the legal affairs for a publicly-held energy company with its principal assets located in the United Kingdom sector of the North Sea.

A former quarterback at Stanford University, Weaver's responsibilities with the Rockies includes supervision of Community Relations and Publications, in addition to his legal expertise.

A 1969 graduate of the Colorado School of Law, and '64 graduate from Stanford in Political Science. Clark and his wife, Martha, have two daughters and reside in Denver.

DAVID GLAZIER
Vice President - Sales and Marketing

David joined the Rockies in the sales and marketing department in August, 1991, and in a short time has watched his responsibilities grow to Vice President of Sales and Marketing. He oversees all aspects of sales and marketing functions of the Rockies, in addition to television advertising and corporate sponsorships. He is also responsible for the broadcasting department and staffing the television operation.

A former executive with WLWT-TV, the flagship station of the Cincinnati Reds, David has also worked in the American League office and for the Chicago White Sox. He and wife, Julie, and daughters, Jennifer and Mallory, reside in Highlands Ranch.

MICHAEL KENT
Vice President - Finance

Michael has been with the Rockies since January, 1992, moving to Colorado after serving as the Controller for the Philadelphia Phillies. He joined the Phils in 1982, after providing accounting services to small businesses for the firm of Deloitte Haskins and Sells.

With the Rockies, Kent is responsible for developing and implementing all controls for accounting, budgeting and operations. The 36-year old earned a B.S. degree in Accounting from Villanova (PA) University in Philadelphia.

Michael and his wife, Mary, and son, Jonathan, and daughter, Laura, reside in Highlands Ranch.

PAUL JACOBS
General Counsel

Paul serves the Rockies as General Counsel, but he played a vital part in securing the franchise for this region, long before the first game was played. His primary responsibility in the early going was to structure and organize the Colorado Baseball Partnership and process the application for entry into the National League.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Jacobs practiced law with Holme, Roberts & Owen for 24 years and was a Senior Partner, specializing in business, real estate and sports law.

Paul graduated magna cum laude from both Tufts University, earning an Economics degree, and the University of Denver College of Law. A Denver resident, he is a Director of the Anti-Defamation League and a member of the Budget and Finance Committee for Rose Medical Center. He and his wife, Carole, have four children.

MURPH'S LAST STOP...

Dale Murphy joined the Colorado Rockies two days prior to the start of the regular season, then appeared in 43 games for the Rockies before announcing his retirement on May 27. He finished with a lifetime .265 average, collecting 2,111 hits and is currently 27th on the all-time home run list with 398.

The 37-year old outfielder put the wraps on a tremendous 17-year major league career that began in 1976 with the Atlanta Braves. Originally Atlanta's first selection in the '74 June draft, he played for 15 seasons with the Braves, earning consecutive Most Valuable Player honors for his 1982 and 1983 seasons. At age 27, he became the youngest player to claim the awards in back-to-back seasons. Murphy hit at least 36 home runs each year from 1982-85, and hammered a career high 44 in 1987, while batting .295.

Originally a catcher, then first baseman, Murphy found a home in the outfield in 1980, earning his first of seven trips to the All-Star Game that season. He finished his career with five Gold Gloves for his defensive excellence. A steady name on the line-up card, Murphy enjoyed a streak of 740 consecutive games from 1981-86.

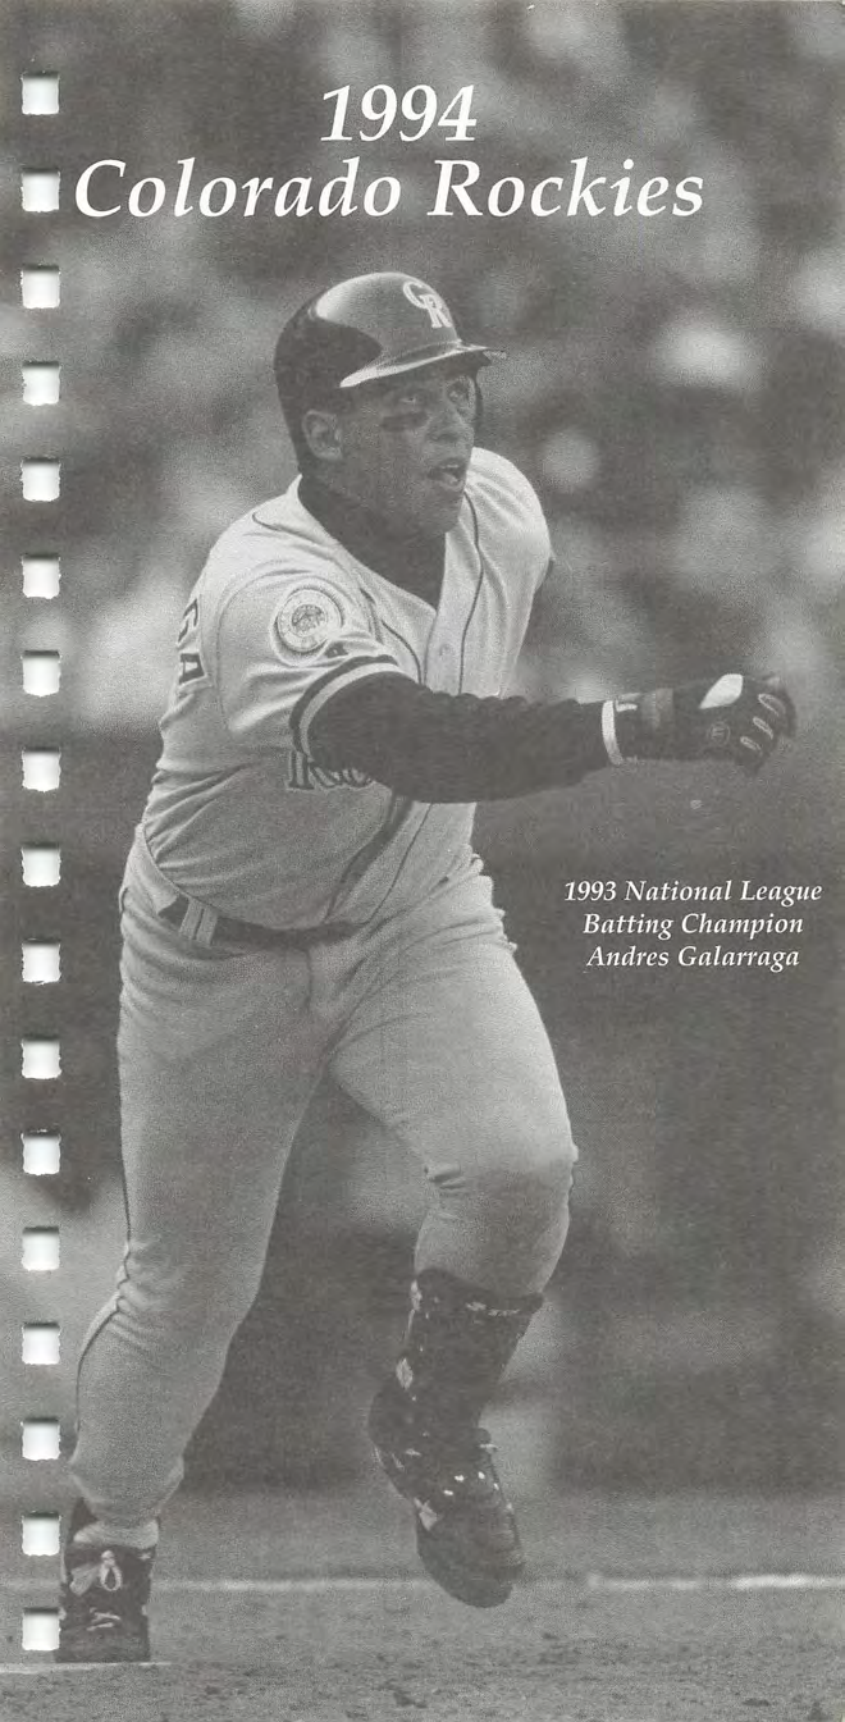

He was traded to the Philadelphia Phillies on August 3, 1990 with pitcher Tommy Greene in exchange for one-time Rockies' hurler Jeff Parrett, infielder Victor Rosario and outfielder Jim Vatcher.

A father of seven sons and one daughter, Dale and wife Nancy reside in Grantville, GA. His on-field accomplishments were equally matched with his off-field activities and dedication to the community. He has served as the Honorary Chairman for seven different charitable organizations, including the "65 Roses Club", the March of Dimes and the Make-A-Wish Foundation. Last year, he was chosen as the one baseball representative on the selection committee for the World Sports Humanitarian Hall-of-Fame. For his community involvement, Murphy was named the 1987 Sports Illustrated "Athletes Who Care—Sportsman of the Year" and was the winner of the 1985 Roberto Clemente Award.

1994 Colorado Rockies

1993 National League Batting Champion Andres Galarraga

THE MANAGER

25 DON BAYLOR

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 225
Age: 44 (Turns 45 on June 28)
Born: June 28, 1949 in Austin, TX
Residence: LaQuinta, CA

MANAGERIAL CAREER: His first-ever test at the helm was purely that, a test of fortitude and patience, but in the end, his 1993 club would win more games than any previous National League expansion team and fall just 3 wins shy of the all-time record...the club also won more home games (39) than 6 other major league clubs in 1993, a total that ranked 2nd on the all-time expansion list to the 1962 L.A. Angels, who won 46 home games...the eventual success was a laborious process that began in spring training, when 63 hopefuls attended the initial workout in Tucson...it was a mixture of veterans, rookies, previously injured and individuals wanting one last shot at the big time, that Baylor and his staff had to sift through to form the first club in team history...the true test of Baylor's patience showed in late-July, when the club was in the throes of a 13-game losing streak, but at the conclusion of that stretch, the Rockies would find themselves playing some of the best baseball in the majors...the streak was snapped on August 8 in San Diego, then the club reeled off 6 straight wins, including a record setting 4-game sweep of Los Angeles in Dodger Stadium...that sweep marked the first time in history that an expansion team took 4 in a row in an established club's park, while also giving the Rockies confidence in their abilities for the first time...after August 7, Baylor's bunch posted the 3rd best record in the league, going 31-21, trailing only Atlanta and Montreal in winning pct. in that span...in September, the Rockies won 17 games, the most in that month by any expansion team, and that total matched the most wins ever recorded in any month by a first-year expansion club...it wasn't easy in the early going for the rookie skipper, who would eventually use 136 different lineups through the course of the season, attempting to define a batting order and roles for his newly established club...it took 46 players and 88 roster moves to finally assemble the club that finished the season in Atlanta...for his efforts in '93, Baylor finished tied with Texas' Kevin Kennedy for 5th in the balloting for Manager-of-the-Year.

COACHING CAREER: Prior to being named manager of the Rockies on October 27, 1992, Baylor had served as a hitting coach for 3 years...his coaching career began in 1990, when he served for 2 seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers, then joined the St. Louis Cardinals for the 1992 season...he spent the 1989 season as a special assistant to the general manager for the Brewers, his first year after retiring as a player.

PLAYING CAREER: Baylor had a distinguished 19-year major league career, that concluded with 3 consecutive trips to the World Series from 1986-88...winning followed him throughout his career, as he played for 7 division champions with 5 different clubs...it all began in 1970, at the age of 21, he appeared in 8 games for the Baltimore Orioles...by the summer of '72, he would be a mainstay in Earl Weaver's lineup through the 1975 season...prior to the start of the '76 season, Baylor was involved in one of the blockbuster trades of the '70's, going to the Oakland A's with Mike Torrez and Paul Mitchell in exchange for Reggie Jackson, Ken Holtzman and Bill Van Bommel...Baylor chose free agency after one season with the A's, but remained on the West coast, signing with the California Angels...if he wasn't already established, he would become one of the game's premier players while in Anaheim...his best overall campaign was 1979, when he earned the A.L. Most Valuable Player award, while the Angels won their first of 2 Western Division titles...he also garnered The Sporting News A.L. Player-of-the-Year award...he finished that season with a .296 average, 36 home runs, and a league leading 120 runs scored and 139 RBI...he remained with the Angels until signing as a free agent with the N.Y. Yankees prior to the '83 season...he remained in pinstripes until the spring of 1986, when he was dealt to the Boston Red Sox for designated hitter Mike Easler, and was the final piece of a successful puzzle that put the BoSox in the World Series that fall...they lost the Fall Classic in 7 games to the Mets, then on August 31, 1988, Baylor was traded for a player to be named to Minnesota, and he completed the climb to the pinnacle, winning the World Championship with the Twins...it was here that Bob Gebhard, who was an executive with the Twins at the time, had his first experience with Don Baylor and knew he would make an excellent big league manager someday...the Twins released Baylor in December, but 2 months later, he was signed by the Oakland Athletics, and to continue a trend, he went to the World Series with the A's, though they lost in 6 games to the Dodgers...during his playing career, Baylor accumulated 338 home runs, ranking 49th best on the all-time list, and 1,276 RBI, the 64th best total all time...he also has the distinction of being hit by more pitches in major league baseball history, taking it on the chin, shoulder, knee, ribs, etc., 267 times, shattering the A.L. record of 189, which was held by Minnie Minoso, and the N.L. mark of 243, originally held by Ron Hunt...Baylor had double figures in hit by pitches in 14 different seasons, including the A.L. single-season mark of 35 in 1986.

PERSONAL: Don Edward Baylor...he and wife, Becky, make their off-season home in LaQuinta, CA...he has a son, Don, Jr., who is a student at Georgetown University...a native of Austin, TX, he was a standout high school baseball and football player at Stephen F. Austin H.S., but then-University of Texas football coach, Darrell Royal, made Baylor's athletic choice for him...the veteran coach would not let the young athlete play both sports at U.T., so Baylor decided to sign a professional contract with the Baltimore Orioles in 1967, which turned into a prosperous move for the sport of baseball...he did attend Miami-Dade Junior College (FL), and Blinn Junior College (TX)...when not in uniform, Baylor is one of the more active community representatives of baseball...while playing for the Angels, he established the "65 Roses Club," a charitable organization to assist the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation...for the last 15 years, he has hosted an annual golf tournament in Southern California to raise money for the foundation, putting $130,000 in its coffers last year to raise the all-time total to over $6 million...Baylor was the 1985 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, symbolic of the player that best exemplified the qualities of the late Pittsburgh outfielder, both on and off the field...he also does charitable work in the Denver area for the Ronald McDonald House, and has spent a portion of each off-season as a member of the Winter Caravan.

THE COACHING STAFF

36 LARRY BEARNARTH

Pitching Coach

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 220

Age: 53 (Turns 54 on Sept. 11)

Born: Sept. 11, 1940 in New York, NY

Residence: Seminole, FL

COACHING CAREER: "Bear" is in his second season serving as pitching coach...his initial year was a true test of patience, as 36 pitchers reported to Tucson for the opening of spring training...from that group 11 pitchers were selected to represent the first staff in club history, but before the 1993 season was complete, a total of 25 hurlers would see game action, including 15 different starters, while a total of 18 pitchers posted at least one win...one of the tougher chores throughout the first year was defining roles for members of the staff, but as the year progressed and roles took shape, wins began to come with more frequency, while the staff ERA dropped...for example, the bullpen entered the All-Star break with a 7.18 ERA, but the turnarounds of Darren Holmes and Steve Reed and the addition of Bruce Ruffin to the relief corps, gave the bullpen a 4.36 mark over the second half of the year...that included a 2.58 relief ERA during August...all totaled, the bullpen posted 30 wins, tying Bearnarth's old club, the Montreal Expos, for most in the National League...1993 was also the second time in his major league coaching career that the Bear had to "play hurt," suffering an ankle fracture at mid-season that limited his mobility, but not his coaching ability...he had suffered a fractured right cheekbone during 1989, when on July 8, he was hit by a Rex Hudler line drive.

Prior to the Rockies inaugural year of game action, Larry spent the 1992 season scouting the majors as special assistant to Bob Gebhard, assisting in the preparation for the MLB Expansion Draft...when not scouting, Larry instructed the newest members of the Rockies' organization who were selected when the club participated in its first June free agent draft...he was named major league pitching coach on October 29, 1992, two days after Don Baylor was chosen as the first manager in club history...regarded as one of the top pitching instructors in the game, Bearnarth joined Colorado after a 20-year stint in the Montreal organization (1972-91), the last 7 seasons with the major league club...his most satisfying campaign with the Expos came in 1990, when his pitching staff won the N.L. ERA title (3.37), ranking 2nd only to the A.L. Champion Oakland A's...while the then "Nasty Boys" in Cincinnati were gaining the national exposure, Bear's pitching staff quietly tied the Reds with 50 saves, led the N.L. in lowest opponents batting average (.245) and fewest wild pitches (27)...this all came after 3 of the 5 starters from '89 had left via free agency, as he worked with 22 different pitchers in 1990, including 9 rookies...his '88 staff established a Montreal club record with a 3.08 ERA...the 1987 corps won the Rolaids bullpen of the year honors with a 29-14 mark and 50 saves...he had first opportunity to coach on the big league level in 1976, when at the age of 35 he was the Expos' pitching coach...excluding that season, he served as their minor league pitching instructor, 1972-75 and 1977...Bearnarth worked as a manager in the organization from 1978-81, then returned to minor league pitching coach duties (1982-84).

PLAYING CAREER: Bear had a 10-year professional pitching career before being hired by Montreal on December 1, 1971...he spent 9 seasons in the New York Mets' organization (1962-70) and his final year was with the Milwaukee Brewers (1971)...he totaled a 13-21 career record in 173 big league games.

PERSONAL: Lawrence Donald (Larry) Bearnarth...he and wife, Barbara, have four children, daughters Karin and Kristin, and sons Larry and Rik...Bearnarth is a 1958 graduate of St. Peter's H.S. in Staten Island, NY, and a '62 grad from St. John's University where he played college basketball for the legendary Lou Carnasecca...an English literature major, he once authored a story from the winter leagues for Sport Magazine.

24 DWIGHT EVANS

Batting Coach

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 205

Age: 42 (Turns 43 on November 3)

Born: November 3, 1951 in Santa Monica, CA

Residence: Lynnfield, MA

COACHING CAREER: The 1994 season is Dwight's first major league coaching job after serving last year as the minor league roving hitting instructor for the Chicago White Sox...aside from his duties at the batting cage, Evans will also be in charge of honing the skills of the Rockies outfielders.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER: Evans retired from active duty as a player in 1992 after 20 major league seasons, the first 19 of which patrolling rightfield for the Boston Red Sox, before closing out his career in 1991 with the Baltimore Orioles...a lifetime .272 hitter, "Dewey" finished with 385 career homers and 1,384 RBI, ranking 29th and 46th on the respective all-time lists...he was one of only 19 players in major league history to homer at least once in 20 consecutive seasons...Evans' career totals of 2,687 games and 941 extra-base hits finished 18th and 27th on the all-time list, respectively... known also for having an excellent eye at the plate, on 3 occasions he led the American League in walks and finished 20th on the all-time base on balls list with 1,391...Dwight's best overall year in the majors came after his 35th birthday, when he batted .305 with 34 homers, 123 RBI and a league leading 106 walks with the Red Sox in 1987...during the decade of the 1980's, Evans collected 605 extra-base hits, more than any other major league player during that 10-year span...he teamed with Don Baylor in 1986-87 with the Red Sox, participating in the World Series against the Mets in 1986...in '86, Evans etched his name in the record book for a baseball oddity, becoming the first player ever to hit the first pitch of a major league season for a home run, going deep off Detroit's Jack Morris on April 7...even with the impressive offensive career, Evans established himself as a superb defensive outfielder, possessing one of the best throwing arms in the game...an 8-time Gold Glove winner, only Hall-of-Famers Roberto Clemente, Willie Mays and Al Kaline won more Gold Glove honors among outfielders since the award was established in 1957...Dewey finished his career with 157 outfield assists, including a career-high of 15 on three different occasions (1975-'76-'79),...he had a career fielding mark in the outfield of .987 (4,587 total chances and 59 errors).

PERSONAL: Dwight Michael Evans...he and wife, Susan, have two sons, Timothy Scott (2-14-73) and Justin Dwight (3-29-77), and daughter, Kirstin Ann (11-30-75) and reside in Lynnfield, MA...selected as a 3rd baseman-outfielder in the 5th round of the 1969 June draft by the Red Sox, Evans played in 2,505 games with Boston, the most ever played with the same club during the draft era (1965-present)...he was team MVP as a 3rd baseman at Chatsworth High School in Los Angeles, where he also spent a couple of seasons as a flanker on the football team.

29 RON HASSEY

Bench Coach

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 205

Age: 41

Born: February 27, 1953 in Tucson, AZ

Residence: Tucson AZ

COACHING CAREER: Ron is in his second season as a member of the coaching staff...he opened the 1993 season stationed at first base, then at mid-year, moving into the dugout to assist manager Don Baylor...Hassey's responsibilities include working with the catchers, and compiling the hitting and defensive charts that are used during the course of games.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER: Joining the Rockies staff was his first coaching stint after a 14-year playing career that ended after the 1991 season...he spent the 1992 season working as an advance scout for the New York Yankees, one of 6 different major league clubs that he performed for during his career...he retired as a player following the 1991 season, closing out a major league career that began in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians...he is the only catcher in major league history to catch 2 perfect games..."Hass" was behind the plate on May 15, 1981, when Cleveland's Len Barker was perfect against the Toronto Blue Jays, then in his final active season, called the pitches for Dennis Martinez when the then-Expo hurler retired all 27 Los Angeles batters he faced on July 28, 1991 in Dodger Stadium...during his playing career, Ron's longest stint with one club was from 1978-84 as a member of the Indians, originally signing with them in 1976...he also logged major league time with both the Chicago Cubs and White Sox, the Yankees, Oakland and the Expos...with Oakland,

Hassey made consecutive visits to the World Series (1988-89), teaming with Don Baylor in 1988…Ron was 2-for-8 in the '88 series against the Dodgers, but due to unusual circumstances, did not get an AB vs. the Giants in '89…throughout that season, he was Bob Welch's designated catcher, with Welch going 16-7 when Hassey was calling signals…he was slated to be behind the plate for Game #3 of the Fall Classic, however, the Bay area earthquake cancelled that opportunity…he was involved in one of the bigger trades during the 1984 season, that sent Hassey, Rick Sutcliffe and George Frazier to the Chicago Cubs from Cleveland in exchange for Mel Hall, Joe Carter, Don Schulze and Darryl Banks, June 13…that trade helped propel the Cubs to their first Eastern Division title.

PERSONAL: Ronald William (Ron) Hassey…he and wife, Jennifer, have a son, Brad, and two daughters, Kimberly and Dana…they reside in his native Tucson, AZ, making for an easy spring training commute to Hi Corbett Field, where the Rockies train…Hassey was a 1972 graduate of Tucson High School, then remained in town to attend the University of Arizona, where he enjoyed a stellar collegiate career, while earning a degree in Public Administration…an All-American, he was a member of the 1976 squad that won the national championship…he also played on the 1974 and '75 USA teams and participated in the 1976 Pan American Games…his father, Bill, was an outfielder in the N.Y. Yankees' organization from 1949-52.

COACHING EXPERIENCE:
First Base and Bench Coach - Colorado Rockies — 1993

41 BILL PLUMMER

Special Instructor

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 200

Age: 46 (Turns 47 on March 21)

Born: March 21, 1947 in Oakland, CA

Residence: Phoenix, AZ

COACHING/MANAGING CAREER: Plummer is in his second season in the Rockies' organization, working last year as a minor league coach in the chain before joining Colorado for the final month of the season, replacing bullpen coach, Rick Mathews…prior to joining the Rockies, he had worked for 15 seasons in the Seattle organization, finally getting a shot at managing the big league club in 1992…that stint lasted just one year as the Mariners posted a 64-98 ledger…prior to taking the managerial chores, Plummer served on the major league coaching staff from July 14, 1988 to the point that he was named the skipper, working in various roles, including 3rd base coach and bullpen coach…his coaching career began in 1979 as a player-coach at Spokane, then he started a minor league managerial career in San Jose the following season…he managed at Wausau in 1981, winning a Midwest League title, then was moved to the big league coaching staff for the first time in 1982-83…Plummer returned to minor league managing from 1984-88, before returning to Seattle.

PLAYING CAREER: A catcher by trade, Plummer's playing career began in 1965 in the St. Louis organization…he went to the Cubs' organization in 1967 and made his major league debut a year later…as was the case throughout a large portion of his playing career, he served in a backup role to one of the most durable catchers in the game, Randy Hundley, in 1968…Plummer appeared in just 2 games, as Hundley set a major league record with 160 games caught…"Plum" was traded to the Cincinnati chain prior to the start of the '69 season, but that spelled doom for playing time because he was stationed behind future Hall-of-Famer, Johnny Bench…in 1970-71, he received All-Star honors at Indianapolis, then got the call to "The Show" from 1972-77 as a backup to Bench…while sitting the bench behind Bench, he was the part of the Big Red Machine of the mid-70's, winning a pair of World Championships (1975-76)…both of the home runs he hit during the '74 season came in the same game off the newly-elected Hall-of-Fame pitcher, Steve Carlton…in 1976, he filled in for 2 months for Bench, who was hobbled with injuries, and batted .305 during that period…Plum had a career-high 7 RBI in a game vs. St. Louis on July 5, 1976…he was released by the Reds in the spring of '78 and signed a minor league contract with Seattle.

PERSONAL: William Francis (Bill) Plummer…he and new bride, Shelly, were married on February 5th, and they make their home in Phoenix, AZ…Bill has two daughters from a previous marriage, Gina and Tricia…he was a graduate of Anderson (CA) Union High School, playing baseball, basketball and football…he then attended Shasta College and Sacramento State College…his father, William L. Plummer, also had a tie with Seattle, pitching for its PCL club in the 1920's, and his uncle, Earl (Red) Baldwin, was a catcher in the PCL from 1917-31.

23 DON ZIMMER

Third Base Coach

Ht: 5-7 Wt: 195

Age: 62

Born: January 17, 1931 in Cincinnati, OH

Residence: Treasure Island, FL

MANAGERIAL/COACHING EXPERIENCE: A veteran of 45 years of professional baseball, 34 in the majors and 13 as a manager, Zim is in his second season as a member of the coaching staff, first full year stationed at third base…he started the '93 campaign as the bench coach, but at mid-season, manager Don Baylor made the switch by placing Zimmer in familiar territory at third base…one of Baylor's wishes when he was named manager of the Rockies, was to have a veteran baseball man assisting him, and he found that person with the hiring of Zim…prior to joining the Rockies, Zimmer served as a coach for the Boston Red Sox in 1992, the same club he managed from 1977-79… while at the helm in Boston during the late-70's, his clubs posted 3 straight 90+ win seasons…he followed that by managing at both Texas (1981-82) and the Chicago Cubs (1988-91), with coaching stops in between with the Yankees (1983 and 1986), the Cubs (1984-86) and San Francisco (1987)…he was the third base coach in the N.L.C.S. for both Chicago in '84 and the Giants in '87, and was there for the BoSox in the '75 World Series…he also held coaching jobs at Montreal (1971) and San Diego (1972), also managed the Padres for 2 seasons…his '89 Cubs team earned him N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors by the BBWAA (23 of 24 first place votes).

PLAYING CAREER: An infielder by trade during his playing days, Zim's career began in the Dodger system in 1949…in 1953, he was leading the American Association in homers (23) and RBI (63) at St. Paul when he was hit in the head by a pitch thrown Jim Kirk of Columbus on July 7, forcing Zimmer to miss the remainder of the season…his big league career started in 1954, and was a 12-year stint that included stops with the Dodgers, Cubs, Mets, Reds and Washington Senators…Zimmer was the Dodgers starting second baseman in the deciding game of the 1955 World Series, won by Johnny Podres, 2-0 over the Yankees…he missed the second half of the '56 season, when he was again hit by a pitch, this time fracturing his cheekbone…he added new meaning to the term "utility player," playing second, third, shortstop, the outfield and even catching 35 games during his career…last year was not his first taste of expansion baseball, as Zimmer was drafted by the Mets in 1961 and was their opening day third baseman in 1962…his playing career ended in Japan in 1966 with the Toei Flyers…in 1960, his first game with the Cubs, Zimmer homered off Don Drysdale before 67,500 fans in the L.A. Coliseum…his first major league at bat in 1954 was a triple off Philly's Curt Simmons, and his first American League at bat in 1963 was a 2-run homer for the Senators…all totaled, he played in 1,095 major league games, hitting .235 with 91 homers.

PERSONAL: Donald William (Don) Zimmer…he and wife, Soot, have two children, son, Thomas, and daughter, Donna…Don and Soot were married at home plate in Elmira, NY, on August 16, 1951…he and former Kansas City and Chicago Cub manager Jim Frey, attended Western Hills High School together in Cincinnati, playing on the same baseball and basketball squads…Zim managed the MLB All-Star team that traveled Japan after the 1990 season…known for his aggressive style as a base coach, Zimmer demonstrated those traits as a player, when in 1950 he swiped home plate 10 times while playing for Hornell of the Pennsylvania-Ohio-New York League.

BEHIND THE SEAMS

DAVE CILLADI
Head Athletic Trainer

Dave's first year in the training room for the Rockies was a busy one, but he and assistant Tom Probst had an exceptional year getting players back on the field after what seemed to be crippling injuries. Andres Galarraga was the most publicized of the "walking wounded" during the initial year, but the rehabilitation techniques of Cilladi had the "Big Cat" back in the lineup after a minimum number of days with both the hamstring tear and ligament damaged knee. In fact, the rehab was timed well enough to get Galarraga the necessary plate appearances to secure the first batting title by a first year expansion team player.

Dave joined the Rockies from the Chicago Cubs, where he had worked on the major league level since 1986. He began in that organization in 1985 at Peoria, the Class A affiliate. He was a 1984 graduate of Penn State University, serving as trainer for the Nittany Lions' football, basketball and gymnastics teams.

In January, Cilladi traveled to Holland and the Czech Republic with Major League Baseball International to assist with a series of clinics involving current major league managers and coaches. It was not Dave's first athletic visit to foreign soil, as he toured Europe during the summer of 1984 as athletic trainer for the Athletes in Action basketball team.

Cilladi is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Illinois Athletic Trainers Association and the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Association. He is single and resides in Lakewood.

TOM PROBST
Assistant Athletic Trainer

Tom enters his third season as a member of the organizational training staff, his second season with the big league club. He spent the 1992 season working the June mini-camp with original draft choices, then followed the majority of that group to Bend, OR, to serve as trainer for the first team in Rockies' history, a club that was managed by fellow Minnesotan and current first base coach, Gene Glynn. The '92 season marked a return to professional baseball training for T.P., who originally spent 5 seasons in the Montreal organization beginning in 1985. He followed that with 3 years as Chief Physical Therapist of the Sports Medicine department at Bethesda Memorial Hospital in Boynton Beach, FL.

A native of Minnesota, he attended Brainerd High School, then earned a degree in Physical Education from Mankato State University in 1981. In '88, he received a B.S. in Physical Therapy from Florida International University in Miami.

Tom and wife, Gina, were wed prior to the start of the '93 season and reside in Lakewood.

DAN MCGINN
Clubhouse and Equipment Manager

Dan's first year in the Rockies clubhouse was a busy one for Dan, as 46 different players wore the Colorado uniform in the inaugural season, meaning a lot of number, name and locker changes for the first-year equipment manager. He joined the Rockies after 9 seasons in the Minnesota Twins clubhouse as assistant equipment manager.

His responsibilities vary during the course of the season, ordering every piece of equipment, in addition to contacting every player signed during the winter months inquiring about their individual needs in shoes, bats and uniform sizes. "Chico" is also in charge of making sure all equipment and luggage is packed and transported properly to spring training, as well as to every N.L. city during the regular season. He also assembles an equipment room staff that includes an assistant and the bat boys who work every home game at Mile High Stadium, in additon to providing clean uniforms every time the club takes the field, and making sure the players are properly fed after each contest.

The 27-year old Minnesota native was a 2-year basketball letterman at Minnetonka High School. Dan and wife, Jane, reside in Englewood, CO.

DR. WAYNE GERSOFF
Orthopedic Surgeon

Dr. Wayne Gersoff is in his second season as one of the two physicians to tend to the ballclub, his role including that of orthopedic surgery. No stranger to athletic medicine, he is the Director of Sports Medicine and Assistant Professor of Orthopedic Surgery at the University of Colorado Sports Medicine Clinic.

An avid sports fan, when not assisting the Rockies, Dr. Gersoff is on the sidelines at all University of Colorado football games, home and away, as he serves the Buffaloes' athletic program as their orthopedic surgeon. He has also worked with the United States Olympic Ski Jumping and Ice Hockey teams, as well as being the medical director for the Colorado Winter Games.

Dr. Gersoff is a graduate of State University of New York and Yale's New Haven Hospital.

DR. ALLEN SCHREIBER
Internist

Dr. Schreiber is also in his second season as a member of the Rockies' medical staff, splitting time with Dr. Gersoff between spring training and all home games at Mile High Stadium. He has a wealth of internal medicine knowledge, currently the Assistant Clinical Professor of the Department of Medicine, Division of Gastroenterology at the University of Colorado Medical School.

When not assisting the Rockies, Dr. Schreiber can be found at "Big Mac" tending to the Denver Nuggets' medical needs as their team physician.

He graduated Cum Laude in 1973 from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, MD, then graduated from New York Medical College in 1976, earning the Sam Spiegal Award as Valedictorian, and the David Spiro Award for excellence in Pathology.

MIKE SHEPARD
Bullpen Catcher

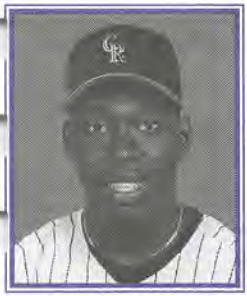

Mike Shepard is in his second season as the bullpen catcher for the Rockies. He is no stranger to baseball in the Rocky Mountains, graduating in 1992 after a catching career at the University of Denver.

His responsibilities seem simple enough with the title"bullpen catcher," but he is called upon to throw batting practice to any early hitters prior to their regularly scheduled time in the cage, then take his turn on the mound during each pre-game batting practice session. When not throwing, he warms up any pitchers who need to get in extra work, then remains in the pen during the course of the game to get any pitchers ready for game action.

A native of Pomona, CA, Mike graduated in 1987 from Los Altos (CA) High School.

THE PLAYERS

51 IVAN ARTEAGA RHP

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 220 B/T: L/R

Age: 21 (Turns 22 on July 20)

Born: July 20, 1972 in Puerto Cabello, VZ

Residence: Puerto Cabello, VZ

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired with pitcher Rod Pedraza from the Montreal Expos in exchange for infielder Freddie Benavides, January 7, 1994.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: His first year of playing summer baseball in the U.S., with his only previous experience on the mainland in 1992 in the Florida Instructional League...the '93 season began at Burlington of the Midwest League, where the more familiar he got with the league, the better his season went...he did not get past the 4th inning in any of his first 3 starts, but on May 5 at South Bend, he tossed a 7.0 inning complete game, allowing just 3 hits and a walk, while fanning 9 in his first pro win...in his remaining 17 starts, he struck out 7 or more hitters on 9 occasions, including a season-best 10 in 7.1 innings vs. Quad City on June 15...he was very effective during July, going 2-1 in 5 starts, allowing just 7 earned runs in 35.0 innings for a 1.80...overall in his last 12 starts at Burlington, Arteaga gave up 12 earned runs in 56.1 innings for a 1.92 ERA, splitting 4 decisions in that span...he finished the year with 4 starts at West Palm Beach, going 0-3 against Florida State League competition.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Did not play in the U.S., but worked out with the Expos' Venezuelan Baseball Academy, because his eligibility in the Dominican League had expired...he did participate in the Florida Instructional League, where he was impressive enough to earn a spot on the Expos' 40-man roster...pitched at Magallanes of the Venezuelan Winter League, splitting time between starting and relief. 1991—1st year as a pitcher after originally signing as a 1st baseman, and led the Dominican League in ERA (1.91) and was tied for 1st in complete games (3). 1990—Final year as a position player, he matched his .241 average of the previous season, while leading the Dominican League in walks received (52). 1989—Signed with the Expos as a 1st baseman, hitting .241 in 25 games in the Dominican League.

PERSONAL: Ivan Jose Arteaga...he is single and makes his off-season home in his native Puerto Cabello, VZ...he was raised a fan of his current teammate and former Expo, Andres Galarraga... Arteaga was signed as a non-drafted free agent on May 11, 1989.

10 DANTE BICHETTE OF

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 235 B/T: R/R

Age: 30 (Turns 31 on November 18)

Born: November 18, 1963 in West Palm Beach, FL

Residence: Palm Beach Gardens, FL

M.L. Service: 4 years, 133 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Milwaukee Brewers in exchange for Kevin Reimer, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: His first look at National League pitching provided with career bests in virtually every offensive category, including batting (.310), runs (93), hits (167), doubles (43), triples (5), homers (21) and RBI (89)...a fractured hand kept him out of the lineup for the final 21 games of the year, but he still finished 3rd in the league in doubles, 4th in extra-base hits (69) and 6th in slugging pct. (.526)...the injury occurred on September 15, when he was hit by Houston's Doug Jones during a game in Denver...he had hit safely in 6 straight at the time of the injury, but it did not prevent Bichette from establishing an expansion player record for runs scored in a season, as he pinch ran and scored in the final home game Sept. 26 vs. Cincinnati to finish with 93 runs...he was voted the Rockie-of-the-Month for July, hitting .324 (33-for-102) with 7 homers, 28 runs scored and 21 RBI in 26 games...he closed that month by hitting 5 homers and driving in 11 in the last 11 games of July, adding 6 doubles in that span for a slugging pct. of .872 (41 total bases in 47 at bats)...Bichette had 47 multi-hit and 22 multi-RBI games...he posted back-to-back 4-hit games on June 12 & 13 in Mile High vs. Houston, which included a short-lived club record 7 consecutive hits...that record was broken 2 days later by Andres Galarraga, who picked up 9 straight hits...Bichette's longest hitting streak was a 10-gamer (July 28-August 6), hitting .432 (16-for-37) with 4 homers and 10 RBI...he also had 7 hitting streaks of 7 games or more, including a trio of 8-game streaks and a 9-gamer...he had a game-winning homer at Philadelphia off Roger Mason in the 13th inning on August 23...it was one of the few he hit that held up, with 7 other homers coming after the 5th inning to either tie the game or put the Rockies ahead, but on each occasion the opposition ended up with the win...with one swing of the bat Bichette achieved a trio of "firsts" for the Rockies, driving in and scoring the first run, while hitting the first homer in club history, a 7th inning solo shot off the Mets' Bret Saberhagen on April 7 in Shea Stadium...just 2 days earlier in the first game in club history, he was the first Rockie to get hit with a pitch, when he was nailed by Doc Gooden in the 3rd inning...defensively, his reputation for possessing one of the strongest arms continued with the Rockies, finishing 3rd in the N.L. with 14 outfield assists.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Completed his 2nd season with the Brewers setting then-career highs in average, hits and doubles, all of which were re-established in 1993 with the Rockies...did swipe 18 bases which still ranks tops in his career...was hitting as high as .326 on August 2 before a late-season tailspin dropped his average...hit over .300 in each of the first 4 months of the season, his best being June, batting at a .338 clip (26-for-77) with 10 doubles and 19 RBI...hit just 5 home runs compared to 15 in 1990 and 1991...had 4 hits in a game on 3 occasions, tying his previous career high...tied a Milwaukee club record, scoring 4 runs in a game on June 28 at Baltimore...hit .346 with 2 outs and a runner on 3rd...outstanding defensively, made only 2 errors in 196 chances, with 6 assists, while playing exclusively in rightfield. 1991—Was a member of the Angels in spring training, but was traded to Milwaukee on March 14 for designated hitter Dave Parker...was the Brewers Opening Day rightfielder in Texas... hit 15 home runs for the 2nd consecutive season...was named the A.L. Player-of-the-Week for the final week of the regular season...he finished the year with a career-best 12-game hitting streak...had a career-high 5 RBI on June 6 vs. Oakland, the same day of his only career grand slam...went 5-for-10 (.500) with 11 RBI when batting with the bases loaded...defensively, led the Brewers with 14 outfield assists. 1990—Played in 109 games for the Angels, setting a then-personal best in home runs (15)...despite part-time play, ranked 5th in the A.L. in outfield assists with 12...had a 2-homer game on July 14 at Toronto...established career-best with 4 hits on Sept. 6 at NY. 1989—Hit .388 in spring training with 4 homers and 17 RBI to earn spot in the Opening Day lineup...received the Angels' Fred Haney Memorial Award for outstanding rookie in spring training...hit first big league homer on April 9 off Seattle's Steve Trout...optioned to Edmonton (AAA) on June 19 after 39 games...was recalled on Sept. 1...totaled 48 major league games, but still ranked 2nd on club to Devon White in outfield assists with 6. 1988—Opened the season at Edmonton and established defensive trademark with PCL leading 22 outfield assists...hit .267 in 132 games at Edmonton, then was recalled to the Angels on Sept. 5...first major league hit came Sept. 7 off Kansas City's Floyd Bannister. 1987—Spent entire season at Edmonton, hitting .300, but missed 2 months with fractured finger on right hand. 1986—Split the season between Palm Springs (A) and Midland (AA)...was named to the mid-season California League All-Star team, then was promoted to Midland on June 23...named co-winner, with pitcher Willie Fraser, of the Kenny Myers Award, given annually to the minor league player judged best in the Angels' organization. 1985—Played for Quad City leading the Midwest League in game-winning RBI (13). 1984—Signed as a 17th round selection in the June draft and reported to Salem...hit .232 in 64 games.

PERSONAL: Alphonse Dante Bichette...he and wife, Marianna, have a son, Dante, Jr., and reside in Palm Beach Gardens, FL...graduated from Jupiter (FL) H.S. in 1982...played baseball at Palm Beach Junior College, leading his club to the state tournament...a 17th round pick in the 1984 June draft, he began his pro career as a third baseman...he and Marianna donated 5,000 tickets during the 1993 season to area youth and non-profit organizatons, and to the Denver Fire Dept...in addition, the couple worked with the Denver "Just Say No" organization, a charity that focuses on keeping youths off drugs.

19 WILLIE BLAIR RHP

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 182 B/T: R/R

Age: 28 (Turns 29 on December 18)

Born: December 18, 1965 in Paintsville, KY

Residence: Lexington, KY

M.L. Service: 2 years, 161 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the eleventh pick in the first round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Houston Astros, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: His first full year on a big league roster had a little bit of everything from a pitching perspective for Blair...he opened the campaign in long relief, posting a 1-0 record and 4.50 ERA in 20 appearances...by mid-May, he was part of the starting rotation, getting his first opening assignment on May 18 in San Diego...he responded well, but was not rewarded with a decision, working 9.0 innings allowing just 7 hits and a run, with a career-high 8 K's...he left with the game even at 1-1, as the Rockies pushed across a run in the 11th for the victory...Blair ran into a pair of hot hurlers his next 2 times out, dropping back-to-back shutouts at Los Angeles and at home to Philly...it was Ramon Martinez who blanked the Rockies, 4-0 on May 23, then Terry Mulholland fired a 6-0 gem in Mile High Stadium on May 29...Blair avenged the loss to Mulholland a week later in Philly, taking a 2-1 victory over the southpaw...in that affair, Blair became the only Rockie starter to carry a shutout into the 9th inning of a game...his first career complete game was a milestone win for the Rockies, when on August 12, he defeated Los Angeles and Orel Hershiser, 4-1, completing a 4-game sweep in Dodger Stadium, the first time an expansion club had done that to an established team... though he was 4-10 as a starter, the offensive production was way down during the setbacks, with the Rockies scoring just 14 runs in the 10 defeats...working in the starting rotation took its toll on Blair, and on August 24 in Philadelphia, he suffered a right elbow injury that prohibited him from game action for 2 1/2 weeks...upon his return, he was forced to work out of the bullpen to not overtax the arm...Blair closed the year with 8 relief appearances, allowing just 1 earned run over the last 7.2 innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992— Opened the season with Tucson, where he stayed until a June 12 recall and made N.L. debut 2 days later vs. S.F. in relief...followed that with 4 consecutive starts, losing each through July 4...picked up first N.L. victory in relief appearance on July 9 vs. New York, tossing 6.0 scoreless innings on 4 hits, the 2nd longest relief outing in the league in '92...pitched well in relief role, posting a 4-2 mark and 2.68 ERA in 21 outings (12 ER in 40.1 IP)...won 3 straight decisions from August 22-Sept. 14...pitched well in the Astrodome, compiling a 2.48 ERA (10 ER in 36.1 IP), compared to a 5.31 mark on the road...picked up first major league hit on August 12 off the Giants' Buddy Black. 1991—Acquired by the Astros from Cleveland on December 10, with catcher Eddie Taubensee in exchange for Kenny Lofton and Dave Rohde...opened season at Colorado Springs, then was recalled by the parent club on May 14...made just 2 appearances with the Tribe before being optioned back to AAA on May 22...returned to the major league roster to stay on August 17...had a pair of 8-inning performances, beating the White Sox (August 23) and Twins (Sept. 4)...posted 9-6 mark at Colorado Springs, splitting time between starting and bullpen...won last 6 decisions as a starter before recall to majors. 1990—Earned spot on Toronto staff out of spring training and made major league debut on April 11, with 2.0 innings of relief vs. Texas...that outing earned him the distinction of being the 200th player to appear in a major league game in a Blue Jay uniform...his first month of big league duty saw a 1.17 ERA in 5 games and opposing batting average of .192...first major league start was no decision on May 11 at Skydome vs. California, going 6.0 innings with a run on 4 hits...lost first 5 major league decisions...first victory came in relief role on July 1 against Oakland...was acquired by Cleveland on November 6 in exchange for Alex Sanchez. 1989—Spent the entire year at Syracuse, going 5-8 in 19 games (17 starts) with a 3.97 ERA... missed over a month at mid-season with an ulnar collateral ligament strain...fired a 2-hitter and a 3-hitter during the season. 1988—Opened the season on the D.L. after undergoing knee surgery on March 30...hurled in 4 games for Dunedin (A), going 2-0 with a 2.70 ERA before being promoted to Knoxville (AA)...made 34 appearances for Knoxville (9 starts), going 5-5 with a 3.62 ERA... it marked the first time he had been used as a starter in his pro career. 1987—Led Dunedin in games (50) and saves (13)...ranked 4th in the Florida State League with 45 games finished. 1986—The MLB expansion draft was not the first time he was the 11th selection, being the 11th pick of the Blue Jays in the '86 June draft...made his pro debut for St. Catharines in the NY-Penn League, going 5-0 with 12 saves and a 1.68 ERA in 21 games...fanned 55 in 53.2 IP, while walking just 20...allowed 3 ER in last 41.0 IP (14 outings) and was named club's MVP.

PERSONAL: William Allen Blair...he and wife, Trina, and daughter, Paige (9-23-91) make their home in Lexington, KY...he was an all-Conference performer at Morehead State (KY) University in 1985...he was a graduate of Johnson Central (KY) H.S., playing baseball and basketball...Willie returned to the Denver during the off-season to participate in the Winter Caravan that traveled throughout Colorado.

46 KENT BOTTENFIELD RHP

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 237 B/T: R/R

Age: 25 (Turns 26 on November 14)

Born: November 14, 1968 in Portland, OR

Residence: Royal Palm Beach, FL

M.L. Service: 1 year, 36 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Montreal Expos in exchange for pitcher Butch Henry, July 16, 1993.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Split the year between the Rockies and Montreal Expos, but was very familiar with the fan support in Colorado prior to the trade, though it wasn't on his side...he was the Opening Day hurler in Denver against the Rockies on April 9, losing an 11-4 decision, and the man who surrendered the home run to Eric Young to start the bottom of the first inning...fortunately for Bottenfield, he earned a part of revenge a week later, tossing 8.2 innings on April 16 in Montreal to defeat the Rockies, 3-2 for his first win of the year, beating the pitcher, Butch Henry, that he would later be traded for...he made 23 appearances (11 starts) with the Expos prior to the trade to Colorado, posting a 2-5 mark and 4.12 ERA, then was shipped to the Rox on July 16...used exclusively as a starter after the trade, his first outing was in Florida on July 19, a 6.0 inning stint in which he gave up 3 runs over 6.0 innings, losing a 3-1 decision...Bott's next start resulted in his first win as a Rockie, a 5.0 inning stint in a 9-8 win over the Cardinals in Mile High...he recorded the first complete game of his big league career on August 10 in Los Angeles, allowing 7 hits and 2 runs in a 4-2 victory, the 2nd game of a 4-game sweep of L.A. in Dodger Stadium...fortunately for Rockies' brass, Bottenfield did not have an attendance clause in his contract...his first 4 starts in Mile High Stadium totaled 294,283 patrons, an average of 73,570...he was on the hill on April 9 for Montreal, when the Rockies had a record-setting gathering of 80,227, then in his first 3 starts at home with Colorado, the stadium had 71,784 vs. St. Louis, and 72,208 vs. San Francisco on successive Saturday's, each time breaking the all-time N.L. record for a night game...the "smallest" crowd he played in front of through 4 starts was 70,064 vs. the Mets on August 22...a solid hitting pitcher, he was a .269 batter with the Rockies (7-for-26) with 3 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Finally earned a shot at major league duty after 7 full seasons in the Expos' farm system...posted a 12-8 record and 3.43 ERA in 25 games for Indianapolis (AAA), though on July 11, the record stood at 2-6...he responded by winning 10 of next 12 decisions...Bott combined last 14 outings in AAA for a 10-2 mark and 2.75 ERA, working over 7.0 innings per start...finished year tied for league lead in victories...had a fast-paced initiation to the majors due to Montreal's necessity for doubleheaders on 3 consecutive days in L.A. in early July...the scheduling problem was caused by a trio of postponements in May, when civil unrest rocked the Los Angeles area...with the Expos' need for 6 starters in 3 days, Bottenfield assured himself a chance by reeling off 4 consecutive wins at Indy...he was activated between games of a twinbill on July 6, matching up against Orel Hershiser...Bott went 4.2 innings, allowing a hit and walking 5 in a no decision effort...after 3 hours and 30 minutes of big league duty, he was optioned back to Indy where he remained until a September 1 recall...1st major league win came on October 3, a 3-1 triumph at Wrigley Field...his 1st big league hit was Sept. 18 off the Mets' Mark Dewey in Shea Stadium...Bott also earned a save during his 1st stint in the majors, going 4.0 innings on Sept. 3 in Atlanta...while in the minors, Kent was involved in the decision in 77% of his games (136 decision in 177 games). 1991—1st taste of AAA action, working the entire year at Indy, going 8-15 in a club leading 27 starts, while tying for the top spot in the league with 5 complete games...was involved in the decision in 23 of 27 starts...had a 1.08 ERA over last 3 starts of year, allowing just 11 hits in 25.0 innings. 1990—Rebounded from tough year in '89, to post a 12-10 mark in 28 starts at Jacksonville (AA)...was involved in a pair of baseball rarities in a 10-day span in June...Bott tossed a no-hitter vs. Orlando on June 16, winning 1-0...on June 25, he hit an inside-the-park grand slam vs. Charlotte in a 12-2 win, while tossing 8.0 innings of 5-hit ball. 1989—Struggled through a rough season at Jacksonville, going 3-17, setting a Southern League record for losses in a season...was involved in the decision in 20 of 25 starts, while allowing less than a hit per-inning pitched. 1988—Finished 3rd in the Florida State League with 4 shutouts, and 4th in complete games (9) and innings pitched (181)...had a stretch of 5 consecutive complete games from June 3-29. 1987—Made 26 starts at Burlington, posting decisions in 22 of those (9-13), while completing 6 and throwing 3 shutouts. 1986—Signed as a 4th round pick in the June draft and reported to Bradenton, posting a 5-6 ledger in 13 starts.

PERSONAL: Kent Dennis Bottenfield...he and wife, Pamela, reside in Royal Palm Beach, FL...he was a 1986 graduate of James Madison High School in his native Portland, OR...a 3-sport letterman, participating in baseball, football and basketball...Kent was a 1st team All-City pitcher for 3 years, and 2nd team All-City hoopster, and 1st team All-City defensive end during his senior year...tossed a no-hitter during his sophomore season...brother, Kevin, played in Montreal's minor league system as a catcher/3rd baseman in 1986...Bott enjoys playing the piano and writing contemporary Christian music...he and Danny Sheaffer teamed up with Gene Glynn during the winter to tour Colorado, Wyoming, South Dakota, Montana, Nebraska as part of the Rockies Winter Caravan.

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 205 B/T: R/R

Age: 29 (Turns 30 on September 11)

Born: September 11, 1964 in Vicksburg, MS

Residence: Denver, CO

M.L. Service: 6 years, 158 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 30, 1993.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Hit .275 playing regularly in rightfield for the A.L. West champion White Sox...his 146 games played was the 2nd highest total in his career, and most since playing in 152 contests in 1990 with the Red Sox...finished 3rd on the club with 74 RBI, while his 17 homers ranked 4th best, despite not homering in the regular season after August 31...in 1992, White Sox rightfielders combined to hit just 6 homers and drive in 47...11 of his roundtrippers were solo shots, and the White Sox posted a 13-3 mark in games that Burks went deep...he had a 10-game hitting streak in late-August, hitting .389 (14-for-36) in that span...was much stronger in the first half, hitting .295 with 11 homers and 45 RBI at the All-Star break...collected grand slams #7 & #8 of his career during the year, taking Kenny Rogers deep in Arlington Stadium on May 16, then hitting one with the bases juiced on June 26 off Seattle's Erik Hanson...the homer in Texas on May 16 was the 100th roundtripper of his career and gave him 6 RBI in a game for the 2nd time in his career...Burks batted in 5 different spots in the order for Gene Lamont, including leadoff, 2nd, 4th, 5th and 6th...he played in 20 games in centerfield, making the rest of his starts in right...he batted .304 in 6 games of the A.L.C.S., with a homer and 3 RBI...the home run came in game #5 at Toronto...by joining Colorado, his 3 major league teams have been both Sox and the Rox.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Final year with the Red Sox was cut short after a season-ending back injury put the skids on the year on June 24 at Detroit...he hit .255 with 8 homers and 30 RBI in 66 games, which included 62 starts in centerfield...was a .310 hitter during the first 11 games in May...hit his 6th career grand slam on May 20 vs. Seattle, a game-winning blast off Mike Schooler, snapping a 2 1/2 year absence from the bases loaded homer. 1991—Tied his career best with a 15-game hitting streak from May 7-26...had 6 home runs during June, including 3 in a 2-game span at Seattle on June 10-11...missed some playing time in May with a right hamstring injury, then tendinitis in both knees limited his time in July...appeared sparingly in last 23 games after a bulging disc was discovered in his back. 1990—Was ranked among the A.L. Top 10 in 7 different offensive categories...selected to the A.L. All-Star team, but missed the game with a hamstring pull...named the A.L. Player-of-the-Week on Sept. 3...played in a career-high 152 games, including 143 starts in centerfield...led the BoSox in homers with a career-best 21, while batting in 6 different spots in the batting order...tied a major league record by homering twice in the 4th inning on August 27 at Chicago...had a career-high 62 extra-base hits...won his 1st Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence, was named to the Silver Slugger team, and named an outfielder on The Sporting News All-Star team. 1989—Became the 1st Red Sox player to swipe 20 or more bases in 3 straight seasons since Tommy Harper (1972-74)...he did so despite missing 63 games due to injuries to both shoulders...season ended when a collision in Oakland caused a moderate shoulder separation on Sept. 6...at the time of the collision, he had tied his career best with a 15-game hitting streak...hit 5th career grand slam on August 27 vs. Detroit. 1988—Led the Red Sox with 25 stolen bases and posted a career-high 92 RBI...hit a pair of grand slams (June 15 vs. New York and July 27 at Texas)...drove in 4 runs on 5 occasions, and had a 5-RBI contest on July 17 vs. Kansas City...established his career-best hitting streak at 15 games (May 22-June 7)...season started late (April 12), due to arthroscopic surgery in spring training to remove bone chips in his right ankle...started 139 games, all in centerfield...was a member of the Major League All-Star team that toured Japan, hitting 2 homers during the visit. 1987—Started the year at Pawtucket (AAA), but after just 11 games was recalled on April 29...made major league debut the next day in Seattle...had a "career" game on June 10 at Baltimore, going 3-for-4 with 2 homers, including a grand slam and 7 RBI...homered 7 times in June, then followed that by hitting .319 in July...swiped a club best 27 bases, the most by a Boston rookie since Tris Speaker stole 35 in 1909...was the first Boston rookie and 3rd Red Sox player overall to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases in the same season...tied a major league rookie mark with 2 grand slams (May 25 vs. Cleveland and June 10 at Baltimore)...was named to the Baseball Digest and Topps All-Rookie teams. 1986—Spent the entire year at New Britain (AA), leading the team in homers (14), runs (70), AB's (462) and total bases (194)...swiped 31 bases and was the starting centerfielder in the Eastern League All-Star Game. 1985—First taste of AA ball, batted .254 at New Britain, tying for 2nd in the Eastern League with 25 doubles. 1984—Began to show the capability of hitting grand slams, with 2 of his 6 homers coming with the bases juiced while playing for Winter Haven...led the club with 29 stolen bases. 1983—Was Boston's 1st pick in the 1st round (20th player overall) of the now-defunct January Free Agent Draft...started pro career in Elmira, scoring 30 runs in 52 games.

PERSONAL: Ellis Rena Burks...he and wife, Dori, have two daughters, Carissa Renee (4-20-89) and Elisha Rae (10-27-91)...Ellis played for a year at Ranger (Texas) Junior College, earning All-State honors as an outfielder...he attended Everman (Texas) High School, earning All-Region honors as both a shortstop and pitcher during his senior season...born in Vicksburg, MS, and raised in Texas, he and Dori made the move to the Rocky Mountain region shortly after signing with the Rockies, purchasing a home in Cherry Hills.

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 185 B/T: R/R

Age: 26 (Turns 27 on July 4)

Born: July 4, 1967 in Oaxaca, MX

Residence: Oaxaca, MX

M.L. Service: 1 year, 70 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the seventh pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Atlanta Braves, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: He entered his first full year of big league duty as the #2 shortstop on the depth chart behind Freddie Benavides, but became an everyday player in early-May, when Benavides went down with a knee injury...Castilla responded by hitting .400 (24-for-60) in May, before falling victim to an injury himself...prior to suffering a 2nd degree ankle sprain on May 19 in San Diego, he had assembled a then-club record 12-game hitting streak, in which he hit .477 (21-for-44)...he provided some late-April fireworks, by establishing a club record with a pair of triples vs. Florida on April 25, then 2 nights later hit his first major league homer, a solo shot at home against Chicago's Dan Plesac...after his stint on the D.L., Castilla batted .262 in 21 games in June, but on June 3, combined with Danny Sheaffer to set another club standard...the 2 of them each posted 5 RBI in a 15-5 win at home over the Reds, as Castilla set a club record with 10 total bases, and tied club marks with 4 runs scored and 2 homers...his offensive success tailed off in July, hitting just .167 (9-for-54) during the month...through July, all 18 of his RBI had come in Mile High Stadium, but the switch was made on August 1, and 11 of his last 12 driven in came away from home...his first road RBI was a 2-run homer in Riverfront Stadium off the Reds' Tim Pugh on August 2...all totaled, he was a .305 hitter in Denver, compared to a .206 mark on the road...Castilla finished the year tied for 8th in the N.L. with 7 triples, with 6 of those triples coming his his first 42 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Hit .252 in 127 games for Richmond with 29 doubles, 7 homers and 44 RBI...started the year slowly at the plate, hitting as low as .205 in mid-June, but gradually raised his average, batting .297 over the last 2 months with 14 doubles and 27 runs scored...he was a .320 hitter in August (32-for-100)...hit safely in 15 of the last 16 games of the year at a .407 clip (24-for-59) with 11 runs scored...appeared in 9 games in September for Atlanta, hitting .250 (4-for-16) with a double and RBI...it was his 2nd straight September recall to the big leagues. 1991—performed on 3 levels during the year beginning at Greenville (AA)...he batted .270 in 66 games for the AA Braves, with 7 homers and 44 RBI...was then promoted to AAA and hit .225 in 67 games for Richmond, again hitting 7 homers while driving in 36...made major league debut in September, appearing in 12 games, going 1-for-5 with a run scored. 1990—His contract was purchased on March 29 from Saltillo of the Mexican League...made his United States professional debut with Sumter (A), hitting .268 in 93 games and earning a spot in the South Atlantic League All-Star Game...was promoted to Greenville, and hit .235 in 46 games... combining the 2 leagues, he totaled 13 homers and 69 RBI in 140 games.

MEXICAN LEAGUE: Played for 3 seasons in the Mexican League, his best year coming at Saltillo in 1989, hitting .307 in 128 games with 25 doubles, 13 triples, 10 homers and 58 RBI...teamed in 1988-89 with fellow Rockies' mate Armando Reynoso.

PERSONAL: Vinicio Soria (Vinny) Castilla...he is single and resides during the off-season in Oaxaca, MX...he is a 1985 graduate of Carlos Gracida Institute, earning baseball M.V.P. honors...he then attended Benito Suarez University.

49 SCOTT FREDRICKSON RHP

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 215 B/T: R/R
Age: 26 (Turns 27 on August 19)
Born: August 19, 1967 in Manchester, NH
Residence: San Antonio, TX
M.L. Service: 77 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the eighth pick in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the San Diego Padres, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: His first effort above AA, Fredrickson opened the season at Colorad Springs, working out of the pen...after a pair of saves in 5 appearances for the Sky Sox, he received his first major league promotion on April 26...he made 9 trips out of the bullpen in his first stint with the Rockies, the lone decision being an 8-7 loss at home to Atlanta on May 8...after a May 19 appearance at San Diego, he was optioned back to AAA, but the stay would be a brief one, spending just 1 days with Colorado Springs before returning to the majors for a longer stint...he had 16 relief ou ings during his 2nd tour with the Rockies and things appeared to be going well, as he had a 5-appearance span in which he pitched 4.2 innings allowing just 2 hits...then it unraveled vs. Chicago on July 5, when he was touched for 4 runs on 4 hits, without retiring a batter...he wound up getti ing tagged for runs in 5 of his last 6 outings with the Rockies and was optioned back to Colorad Springs on July 24...he finished the campaign earning saves in his last 2 outings for the Sk Sox...through August 2 in AAA, Fredrickson posted a 1.32 ERA, allowing just 2 earned runs in 13.2 innings, but from that point, he surrendered 14 earnies in his last 12.2 frames.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Went 4-7 with 5 saves and a 3.19 ERA in 56 relief appearance at Wichita (AA)...had an excellent 2nd half, allowing only 1 earned run in last 23 appearances, a spa of 28.2 innings (0.31 ERA) to lower his season ERA from 5.04 to 3.19...included in that stretch was 26.0 consecutive innings without allowing an earned run...continued his excellent pitching in the post-season, allowing no runs in 7.1 innings (4 games) with a save...it marked the 3rd time in as many seasons he pitched for a league champion. 1991— Split the year between Waterloo and Hig

Desert (A)...was outstanding during the 1st half at Waterloo, allowing just 5 earned runs in 38.1 innings for a 1.17 ERA in 26 games, including 40 K's...opposing batters averaged just a .179 mark...finished at Waterloo with a 3-5 ledger and 6 saves...was promoted to the California League, going 4-1 with 7 saves and a 2.31 ERA in 23 outings. 1990—Signed as San Diego's 14th round selection and reported to Spokane...went 3-3 with 8 saves and a 3.28 ERA in 26 games...made his only professional start while at Spokane... struck out 61 batters in 46.2 innings.

PERSONAL: Scott Eric Fredrickson...he and wife Becky make their off-season home in San Antonio, TX...he was an '85 graduate of Converse Judson (TX) H.S...pitched collegiately at the University of Texas in Austin...had a 0.89 ERA during his senior season with the Longhorns...Scott works as a pharmacist during the off-season.

44 MARVIN FREEMAN RHP

Ht: 6-7 Wt: 222 B/T: R/R

Age: 30 (Turns 31 on April 10)

Born: April 10, 1963 in Chicago, IL

Residence: Country Club Hills, IL

M.L. Service: 5 years, 15 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, October 29, 1993.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Appeared in 11 games before being placed on the 15-day disabled list on June 4 with a right bicep strain...on July 9, he was transferred to the emergency 60-day D.L. and was not recalled from his rehab stint until August 6...upon his return to the Braves, Freeman gave up 3 earned runs in 10.2 innings of work with 13 K's...he fanned 5 straight hitters from August 19-21...wound up with a 2-0 road record and 0.00 ERA, pitching in 11 games away from Atlanta covering 13.2 innings...one of his road victories took place in Mile High Stadium, May 7, when he worked 3.1 frames of relief against the Rockies, allowing just 2 hits with a pair of K's, in taking a 13-5 decision.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Won 1 more game (7), than his career big league total entering the season...started strong, allowing 2 earned runs in 11.1 innings from April 10-28, a 1.59 ERA in 9-game span...struggled over next 10 outings, then was diagnosed with tendinitis in right shoulder, forcing stint on disabled list...after August 2, was touched for just 3 earned runs in final 23.1 innings of work for a 1.16 ERA covering 24 outings...appeared in 3 games of the N.L.C.S. vs. Pittsburgh, allowing 6 earnies in 3.2 innings...did not appear in World Series vs. Toronto. 1991—1st full year of big league duty, posting a 3.00 ERA in 34 games while working in middle relief...best stretch was from May 22-August 3, allowing 5 earned runs in 33.2 innings for a 1.34 ERA...lone win was July 16 vs. Chicago with an inning of relief...was placed on D.L. for remainder of year on August 22, suffering from bulging disc in lower back...had successful surgery on August 31. 1990—Pitched for 4 different clubs during course of season, including the Phillies and Braves in the majors, while getting first taste of full-time relief duty...started the year at Scranton-Wilkes Barre (AAA) for Phils, going 2-4 in 7 games before May 16 recall to Philly...earned 1st major league save on May 24 vs. Braves, almost 2 months to the day he would be traded to Atlanta...appeared in 16 games for Phillies, then was dealt on July 23 for relief pitcher Joe Boever...began Braves' portion of career at Richmond (AAA), going 2-3 in 7 games, then was promoted for good on Sept. 1...posted 1-0 mark with Atlanta, allowing just 3 earned runs and 7 hits over 15.2 innings, limiting the opposition to a .130 average in 9 games. 1989—Appeared in just 6 games all year, 5 at Scranton, and 1 for the Phillies...made 2 starts at Scranton in April, then was promoted to Phils...lasted just 3.0 innings in an April 24 start at Houston, then left game with inflamed right shoulder due to strained quadriceps muscle...was played on D.L. for duration of the season the next day, but did make a trio of rehab starts in August for Scranton. 1988—Split the year between Maine (AAA) and Philly...was 5-5 in 18 games (14 starts) at Maine, including a 7.0 inning no-hitter at Richmond on July 28...was out 32 days (June 13-July 14) with a strained right shoulder...made 11 starts for Phillies after being recalled on August 8, going 2-3. 1987—Strained right shoulder surfaced, forcing stint on D.L. at Reading (AA) on July 2...prior to being sent to AA, struggled through 0-7 ledger in 10 starts at Maine...after resting shoulder, was 3-3 in 9 starts at Reading. 1986—Earned the Paul Owens Award, giving annually to the top minor league pitcher in the Phils' chain...led Reading in wins (13), starts (27), innings (163.0) and strikeouts (113)...start total ranked tied for 1st in Eastern League, while wins ranked 2nd and K's were 3rd...big league debut was on Sept. 16 vs. Pittsburgh, a 3.0 inning stint with no decision...notched 1st M.L. win and the birth of only child on Sept. 21...while working 7.0 innings in New York, allowing just a hit and an earned run in victory, his wife, Arnetta, was giving birth to their daughter, Paris. 1985—Split the year between Clearwater (A) and Reading...was 6-5 in A-ball, with 3 shutouts...was not as successful at AA, going 1-7 in 11 starts. 1984—Signed with the Phils as the 2nd pick in the 2nd round of the June draft, and reported to Bend (OR), going 8-5 in 15 starts.

PERSONAL: Marvin Freeman...he and wife, Arnetta, have a daughter, Paris (9-21-86), who was born on the night of his first major league win...Marvin was a 1981 graduate of Chicago Vocational High School...while attending high school, he was employed by the John Norwood Lee violin bow-making company, handshaping and finishing concert quality violin bows...following his prep career in Chicago, Freeman was selected by Montreal in the 9th round of the June draft, however, he chose to attend Jackson (MS) State University.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the San Diego Padres in exchange for pitcher Denis Boucher, March 21.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Acquired late in spring training from the Padres and opened the year at Colorado Springs...was recalled from AAA on May 13 after a hamstring injury sidelined Andres Galarraga...Gainer etched his name in the major league baseball record book the 1st time he stepped to the plate in a big league uniform...he homered on the 1st pitch of his 1st at bat, taking Tim Pugh's delivery to rightfield in Riverfront Stadium on May 14, becoming the 12th player in history to homer on the 1st pitch...the feat marked the 1st time it had occurred in the N.L. since Chuck Tanner did it on April 12, 1955...Gainer's blast was the 66th time ever, 37th in the N.L., that a home run was hit on a 1st-ever at bat in the majors...the remainder of his initial stint with the club was not as easy as the 1st pitch, with Jay batting .172 (5-for-29) before being returned to Colorado Springs on May 27... upon completion of the year at AAA, he was recalled for the remainder of the season, homering twice in a pinch hit role...one of the late-season homers was a grand slam, the 2nd pinch slam by a Rockie, matching Jim Tatum's feat of May 4 at Chicago...Gainer's blast came in Denver on Sept. 20, hammering Doug Brocail's pitch into the South Stands in the 4th inning vs. San Diego...his time at Colorado Springs ended with a .294 mark in 86 games, while driving in 74 runs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—For the 3rd time in as many pro seasons, he was a member of a league championship team, taking the Texas League title as a member of the Wichita Wranglers...it marked the 3rd straight year he teamed with current Rockie, Scott Fredrickson, who was also a member of those title clubs...Jay hit 23 homers, 2nd best in the league, while batting .261 with 67 RBI in 105 games...he earned a spot on the league All-Star team, homering once every 16.4 AB's, and ranking 3rd in the league with a .481 slugging pct...he was a .318 hitter with 2 homers and 8 RBI in the 7 post-season games. 1991—Led the California League in homers (32) and RBI (120) while playing for High Desert...he was selected to both the mid-season and post-season league All-Star squads, as the Mavericks captured the California League championship. 1990—A 24th round pick in the June draft by the Padres, Gainer led the Northwest League in batting (.356), hits (100), slugging pct. (.537) and shared the top spot with 21 doubles...he also finished 2nd in homers (10) and RBI (54), earning a spot on the All-Star team, while Spokane went on to the league title.

PERSONAL: Jonathan Keith (Jay) Gainer...he has a daughter, Jamara (10-27-89) and makes his off-season home in Ellensburg, WA...he was a 1984 graduate of Rutherford High School in Springfield, FL, then remained local to play baseball at Gulf Coast Community College...Jay then moved on to the University of South Alabama in Mobile.

14 ANDRES GALARRAGA INF

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 245 B/T: R/R

Age: 32 (Turns 33 of June 18)

Born: June 18, 1961 in Caracas, VZ

Residence: Caracas, VZ

M.L. Service: 8 years, 46 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 16, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: An extraordinary year for the "Big Cat," as he dominated National League pitching in winning his first batting title and in the process became the first expansion player to accomplish the feat, as well as the first Venezuelan to lead his league in hitting…his .370 average tied Tony Gwynn's 1987 mark as the highest in the N.L. since 1948, when Stan Musial batted .376 for the Cardinals…Galarraga's average was the highest by a righthanded hitter in the majors since 1939, when Joe DiMaggio hit .381, and the highest by a righty in the N.L. since Joe "Ducky" Medwick hit .374 in 1937…he led the league in multiple-hit games (56), despite missing 41 contests due to a pair of injuries…he also finished 2nd in the loop in slugging (.602) and 6th in on-base pct. (.403), though he walked just 24 times, with half of those intentional…he went 2 consecutive games without a hit on only 5 occasions, and just once did he go more than 2 games…he was named the first All-Star Game representative in club history, hitting .391 at the time of the break…Galarraga was twice named the N.L. Player-of-the-Month (June & September), the only 2-time winner in the league in 1993…it was not as easy as it may have appeared, as he overcame 2 different disabling injuries and still managed to collect enough plate appearances to qualify…he opened the year by hitting .412 in April (35-for-85) with 4 homers and 25 RBI, then was hitting .395 on May 9, when he suffered a slightly torn right hamstring on a slide into 3rd base…the Cat missed 17 games, but came back from the injury even hotter than when he left…he batted .494 (42-for-85), while hitting safely in 21 of the next 23 games and raised his season mark to .427 by June 23…during that stretch, he posted back-to-back 4-hit games on June 14-15 vs. Los Angeles, and collected 9 straight hits over 3 games, falling just 1 hit shy of the N.L. record…he also homered in 3 consecutive games from June 12-14…he wound up with a .420 average in June (42-for-100), with 6 homers and 21 RBI in earning the vote of the national media for the first of his 2 league monthly honors…his season average remained at the .400 mark as late as July 5...his second trip to the D.L. was caused by a 2nd degree sprain of his right knee on July 24 and shelved the first baseman for 24 games...Galarraga returned to the lineup on August 21 and played for the remainder of the year sporting a knee brace...his offensive production picked up again in September, as he batted .361 during the final month, with 5 homers, 19 runs scored and 23 driven to earn his 2nd league monthly honor...he was also a 3-time winner of the Rookie-of-the-Month award, as voted by the Denver area media...he ranked 4th in the N.L. in RBI ratio, driving in a run every 4.8 at bats...based on the estimates of the IBM "Tale of the Tape" promotion, Galarraga's 22 home runs had an average distance of 418 feet, the furthest in the majors, with the longest a 473-foot blast on July 6 in Mile High Stadium off Florida's Charlie Hough...Galarraga had arthroscopic surgery performed on his right knee on October 6.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—After 13 seasons in the Montreal organization, he was traded on November 25, 1991, to the St. Louis Cardinals in exchange for pitcher Ken Hill...began the '92 year as the Opening Day first baseman for the Redbirds, however, suffered a broken right wrist when he was hit by a pitch in the 2nd game of the year (April 7)...he spent 44 days on the D.L., then had an 11-game rehab assignment in Louisville before returning to regular duty on May 22...despite returning to the lineup, his bat was slow coming around, hitting just .189 through July 19, however, from that point the season turned around...hit safely in 9 of 10 games at a .425 clip (17-for-40), with 7 runs scored, 3 homers and 8 RBI...closed the season hitting .301 (47-for-156) in the final 45 games, with 8 homers and 29 RBI to raise his season average 45 points...known as the "Big Cat" for his defensive prowess, he committed just 3 errors during that 45-game stretch. 1991—Started the season slowly, then once the bat began to turn around, an injury incapacitated him for the entire month of June...was hitting .184 through the first 2 weeks of the season, but went on a month-long tear that raised his season average 105 points to .289...batted .342 (26-for-76) during the hot streak, but then was sidelined for 36 games with a left knee injury that required being scoped below the kneecap on June 8...finished the season strong, compiling a slugging pct. of .459 with 13 RBI after Sept. 1...of his last 19 hits, 9 went for extra bases, including 5 home runs...defensively, he had a 34-game errorless streak during the year. 1990—Hit at least 20 home runs for the 3rd straight season, while driving in 87 runs...hit 2nd career grand slam on August 21 vs. New York...earned his second consecutive Gold Glove with a career-best .993 fielding pct. 1989—Though the average tailed off from previous seasons (.257), still strong in run production, hitting 23 homers and driving in 87...hit first career grand slam on August 27 at San Francisco...had 10-game hitting streak in mid-July, batting .395 in that span...excelled defensively, earning the first of 2 consecutive Gold Gloves. 1988—Led the N.L. in hits (184) and doubles (42), while batting a then-career best .305, while earning his first trip to the All-Star Game...named All-Star 1st baseman by both Baseball America and USA Today...finished in the league's Top 10 in 12 different offensive categories...was named N.L. Player-of-the-Week on 3 different occasions, including back-to-back weeks (May 23-June 5)...had only career 5-hit game on July 2 vs. Atlanta...of his 29 homers, 20 came before the All-Star break...18 of his HR's either tied the game or gave Montreal the lead...became the 2nd Montreal player to post consecutive 90-RBI seasons (Rusty Staub, 1970-71). 1987—Started the year hitting in the #3 spot in the batting order, but after being moved to the #5 spot on May 2, hit safely in 16 of 17 games at a .426 clip (26-for-61), including a .672 slugging pct., and career-high 14-game hitting streak. 1986—Hampered by injuries during his rookie season, still managed a .271 mark in 105 games...pulled muscles in right rib cage kept him on the disabled list from July 10-August 19...hit safely in 18 of 19 games after returning from the injury. 1985—First season on the AAA level, named the American Association Rookie-of-the-Year, hitting .269 with 25 homers and 87 RBI for Indianapolis...he was such a threat at the plate, he even drew a bases-empty intentional walk during the year...was recalled to Montreal on August 23, and collected first major league hit the next day of L.A.'s Rick Honeycutt...hit first big league homer on Sept. 21 at St. Louis, then hit second 2 days later at Wrigley Field. 1984—Earned Southern League M.V.P. honors with .289 average, 27 homers and 87 RBI at Jacksonville. 1983—Batted .289 at West Palm Beach in 104 games, missing 25 games due to beaning. 1982—Connected for double figures in home runs (14) for first time as a pro...finished with .281 mark at West Palm Beach. 1981—Appeared in 47 games at Jamestown (A), hitting .260. 1980—Second year at Calgary (Rookie), hitting .263, 49 points better than previous season there. 1979—Signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Expos' organization on January 19...made professional debut at age 18 with West Palm Beach, playing in 7 games before dropping down to Calgary, where he batted .214 in 42 games.

PERSONAL: Andres Jose Galarraga...he and wife, Eneyda, have two daughters, Andria (12-27-85), and Katherine (8-16-91), and reside in Caracas, VZ...he attended Enrique Felmi H.S. in Caracas...Andres spent a large part of his off-field time in '93 providing leadership in the Hispanic community of Denver.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the tenth pick in the first round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Chicago Cubs, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Posted his best career average, hitting .290 in 86 games, but could not avoid injury, missing 60 contests at mid-season due to hand surgery...the injury originally occurred on September 20, 1992, while he was playing for the Cubs...he then reinjured his left hand during a game with the Rockies on June 4 at Philadelphia, eventually requiring the removal of his hamate bone...Girardi returned to the lineup in August, and by the 25th of the month, was the everyday #2 hitter...he batted .324 (45-for-139) in 37 games in the 2nd spot in the order, scoring 22 times and driving in 12...his ability to move runners was evidenced by his 12 sacrifice bunts, tying for 5th best in the league among non-pitchers...he closed the year by batting .317 over the final 2 months, scoring 21 runs and driving in 14...his longest hitting streak of the year was a 7-gamer from April 24-May 1, which began with a 4-hit game vs. Florida, the 1st of his career...he batted .344 (11-for-32) during the streak...fittingly, his 1st home run with the Rockies took place in Wrigley Field against the organization he had spent his entire career with, taking a Jose Guzman pitch out to right-center on May 4...defensively, Girardi finished the year 23-for-76 (30%) throwing out base thieves, but had a stretch from Sept. 11-18, when he tossed out 6 straight...he ended the year by throwing out 8 of the last 12 who attempted to run.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Batted .270 in 91 games for the Cubs, including 86 games behind the plate (70 starts)...best offensive stretch was May 1-13, when he batted .458 (11-for-24) with 9 walks...batted .325 during a career-high 11-game hitting streak from July 17-August 10...went 5-for-10 in a pinch hitting role...only home run of the year was May 8 off Cincy's Jose Rijo, Girardi's first since June 10, 1990...behind the plate, he tossed out 38.4% of the runners attempting to steal (28 of 73)...finished the year with a .991 fielding pct., committing 4 errors in 424 total chances...season came to an abrupt end on Sept. 20, when he broke the hamate bone in his left hand. 1991—Appeared in only 21 games for the Cubs, missing the majority of the season with a lower back strain...made 3 starts before going on disabled list on April 17...remained on the D.L. until August 6, including a rehab assignment to Iowa from July 23-August 6...in first game back with the Cubs on August 7, suffered broken nose in home plate collision with Philly's John Kruk...made 18 appearances (11 starts) after being activated, going 8-for-38 (.211)...first-ever pinch hitting appearance was a success, a 2-run single vs. St. Louis on Oct. 5. 1990 —Hit .270 in 133 games as Cubs' regular catcher...lone home run came June 10 off current teammate Bruce Ruffin, then with the Phillies...hit .476 in a 13-game stretch from July 3-22, going 20-for-42...stole 8 bases, the most by a Cubs' catcher since Gabby Hartnett's 10 in 1924...pegged 33.3% of the runners attempting to steal (38-for-114)...ranked 2nd among N.L. catchers with 61 assists. 1989—First rookie to start on Opening Day for the Cubs since Randy Hundley in 1966...singled in first major league at bat off Philly's Floyd Youmans...had 6 hits in first 12 at bats...was optioned to Iowa on May 1 and recalled June 13, playing 32 games at AAA, his first-ever stop at that level...while at Iowa, hit for the cycle on June 6 vs. Toledo...upon his return, hit first big league homer on June 29 in San Francisco off Jeff Brantley...tossed out 38% of the runners attempting to steal (21-of-56)...was named to Baseball Digest's rookie All-Star squad. 1988—Hit .272 at Pittsfield (AA), but had season cut short after separating left shoulder in a home plate collision on August 7...led all Eastern League catchers in caught-stealing pct., throwing out 47% (55-of-117)...led league catchers in fielding pct. (992), putouts (448), assists (76) and total chances (528), committing only 4 errors...played in Eastern League All-Star game. 1987—Hit .280 in 99 games at Winston-Salem, with professional best 8 homers and 46 RBI...was selected to both the mid-season and post-season Carolina League All-Star squads...threw out 44% of potential base thieves (53-of-121), 2nd best in the league...led league catchers in total chances (661), putouts (569) and assists (74). 1986—Signed as a 5th round choice out of Northwestern University...made pro debut in hometown of Peoria in the Midwest League, hitting .309 in 68 games, highest among league catchers.

PERSONAL: Joseph Elliott Girardi...he and wife, Kim, reside in Lake Forest, IL...Joe graduated with a degree in Industrial Engineering from Northwestern in 1986...he was twice named all-Big Ten, and earned academic all-America honor three times...he graduated from Spalding Institute in Peoria in 1982, earning all-state honors in baseball...he and Kim were both very active in the Denver community during their initial year with the Rockies, making several appearances at Children's Hospital, in addition to their work with other area charitable organizations.

27 MIKE HARKEY RHP

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 235 B/T: R/R

Age: 27 (Turns 28 on October 25)

Born: October 25, 1966 in San Diego, CA

Residence: Chino Hills, CA

M.L. Service: 4 years, 31 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, January 6, 1994.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Reached the double figure victory total for the 2nd time in his career, posting a 10-10 ledger with a 5.26 ERA in 28 games for the Cubs...it was a rollercoaster season for the young righthander, who debuted with a 6-0 win at Atlanta on April 14, working 7.1 scoreless innings...he ended up winning his first 3 starts, extending his personal winning streak to 7 games dating back to 1992...he was 6-3 with a 4.44 ERA at the All-Star break, but slumped a bit in the 2nd half, going 3-7 with a 6.01 ERA in 15 post-break starts...Harkey's ERA was blown out of proportion in his final 2 starts, surrendering 12 runs in 3.1 innings vs. the Cards and Dodgers...he handled both expansion clubs well, going 4-1 with a combined 2.00 ERA against the Rockies and Marlins...vs. Colorado, he won the Cubs' first-ever game at Mile High Stadium, a 6-3 decision on April 26, giving up 3 runs in 6.0 innings...he won again in Denver on July 5, scattering just 5 hits and a run in 8.0 innings of action in a 10-1 victory...Harkey then dominated the Rockies in Wrigley Field on July 17, fanning a season-high 6 batters with 8.0 shutout innings in a 5-1 win...on August 12 at Florida, he fired his first complete game in nearly 3 years, posting a 5-1 win over the Marlins (last CG was August 17, 1990, 7-0 over Atlanta)...he opened the year on the D.L. until his April 14 start, affording him the opportunity to make a rehab appearance for Orlando (AA), stemming from his ruptured patellar tendon of the left knee on Sept. 6, 1992...he also had D.L. time in '93 from June 13-July 5 with right shoulder biceps tendinitis.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Finally rebounded from long injury rehabilitation program, by working his way through the system and finishing the year with a 4-0 mark and 1.89 ERA in 7 starts for the Cubs...had undergone arthroscopic surgery on right shoulder on May 2, 1991, repairing torn labrum (cartilage)...saw first game action since injury on May 20, throwing 44 pitches in an extended spring game...remained in extended spring program until June 4, then began 1st rehab assignment 5 days later with Peoria (Midwest League), going 1-0 in 2 starts...then went to Iowa (AAA) on June 20, posting an 0-1 mark in 4 starts...completed minor league rehab stint with a July 15 start for Charlotte in the Southern League...was reinstated to big league roster on July 20, and jumped right into the fire, going 5.1 innings, allowing an earned run on 4 hits at Cincinnati, his first game action since April 26, 1991...posted first big league win since August 17, 1990, winning at Houston on July 26, 8-5 with 6.0 frames of action...won a trio of consecutive starts from August 9-20, but left the last contest with a strained right groin, thus forcing him out of his next scheduled start...final outing of year came on Sept. 1 vs. L.A., because prior to Cubs' game on Sept. 6, he suffered a ruptured patellar tendon in his left knee that required surgery the next day. 1991—Made only 4 starts, going 0-2 before injuring right shoulder in April 26 outing at Cincinnati, leaving game after 3.0 innings...prior to injury, had a career-high 7 K's on April 21 at Pittsburgh...had shoulder scoped on May 2 and missed remainder of year. 1990—Was named N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year by The Sporting News, after a 12-6 season with a 3.26 ERA in 27 starts...the win total was the most by a Cubs rookie since Rich Nye won 13 games in 1967...had the 10th lowest opponents batting avg. in league with a .234 mark...1st big league win came on April 14 at Pittsburgh, 4-1...carried a no-hitter into the 8th inning at San Diego on April 26, but former Cub farmhand, Phil Stephenson, led off the 8th with a home run, forcing Harkey to settle for 3-1 win...tied a M.L. record for a pitcher in 4th inning of start vs. L.A. on May 23, recording all 3 putouts...had only major league shutout on August 17 vs. Atlanta in Wrigley Field, limiting the Braves to 3 hits in 7-0 win...was placed on D.L. from May 29-June 13 with tendinitis in right shoulder, then developed stiffness in same area after Sept. 5 start and missed rest of season. 1989—Had an injury plagued season, making just 12 starts for Iowa...injured right shoulder in spring training, and opened the year on the D.L....did not pitch until April 30, then suffered an injured right knee on June 25 at Syracuse, requiring surgery to repair a tear of lateral cartilage. 1988—Earned USA Today's Minor League Player-of-the-Year honors, combining Iowa and Pittsfield for a 16-4 record and 2.41 ERA...was 9-2 at Pittsfield (AA) with a 1.37 ERA in 13 starts, which included a 4-1, 1.22 month of May, as he was named the Eastern League's Player-of-the-Month...posted 14 K's on June 24 at Glens Falls, and earned the honor as starting pitcher in the Eastern League All-Star game...was promoted to AAA, going 7-2 with a 3.55 ERA in 12 starts...in just 2nd AAA outing, he tossed a 1-hitter in a 2-0 win at Omaha on July 11...was named the top prospect in the American Association by Baseball America...was promoted to Chicago in September, but was winless in 3 decisions (5 starts), with a 2.60 ERA...he did not allow a homer in 34.2 innings...major league debut came in the 2nd game of a doubleheader vs. Philadelphia, working 6.0 scoreless innings before being touched for 3 runs in the 7th...he was not involved in the final outcome. 1987—Made pro debut at Peoria, making 12 starts, going 2-3 with a 3.55 ERA...also made late-season appearance for Pittsfield, working 2.0 innings in his only professional relief outing.

PERSONAL: Michael Anthony (Mike) Harkey...he and wife, Nichole, and children, Michael, Jr., (10-11-88), and Cory (6-17-90), reside in Chino Hills, CA...he was a 1984 graduate of Ganesha High School in Pomona, CA, then was drafted in the 18th round of the June draft by San Diego...he chose not to sign and attended California State University-Fullerton for 3 years...fanned 125 batters in 129.0 innings during his sophomore year, then earned 3rd team All-America honors during his junior season...was the 4th player taken in the 1st round of the June draft in 1987.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired with pitcher Bruce Hurst from the San Diego Padres in exchange for pitchers Andy Ashby and Doug Bochtler, and catcher Brad Ausmus, July 26, 1993.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: A tale of 2 seasons during the course of '93 for Harris...he opened the year with San Diego, posting a 10-9 record and 3.67 ERA in 22 starts for the Padres...success didn't come as often after being acquired by the Rockies in a 5-man trade on July 26...he finished the year going 1-8 in 13 starts for Colorado with a 6.50 ERA...his lone win with the Rockies occurred on August 21 in the 1st game of a doubleheader vs. the Mets in Mile High Stadium, a 4-3 triumph in which he traveled 7.0 innings allowing 3 runs and 4 hits...pitched very well in Los Angeles on August 9, allowing 2 runs on 6 hits over 8.0 innings, a game the Rockies won, 3-2 in 11 innings...prior to moving to Colorado, Harris had 4 complete game victories with San Diego, including back-to-back route-going efforts on May 14 vs. San Francisco and May 19 vs. the Rockies...the next time he met Colorado, June 18, he again went all the way, taking a shutout into the 9th inning at Mile High, before Charlie Hayes put the Rockies on the board with a leadoff homer...a durable hurler, Harris took the Padres into the 7th inning or further in 12 consecutive starts from May 29-July 25, posting a 6-3 record in that span, with a 3.08 ERA...had a season-high 8 strikeouts on July 15 vs. Philly...he surrendered a league-high 33 home runs...closed the year on a 5-game losing slide over 8 starts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Pitched well early in the year, posting a 2.06 ERA in 5 starts while splitting a pair of decisions...twice in that span, he departed with 4-run leads in the 9th inning and did not get a decision...he then dropped 3 of next 4 decisions, ending up on the D.L. on June 8 with back pain...he returned to the hill on June 21 in San Francisco, but after just 2.0 innings of work, suffered a fractured right middle finger while attempting to bunt...did not pitch again until a trio of minor league rehab assignments that began on August 7...dropped 4 straight decisions upon his return, but ended year strong...knocked off Braves on Sept. 25, 1-0, giving up just 5 hits in 7.2 IP, with 8 K's...final start was 3-2 win in Houston, allowing a run on 3 hits in 7.0 frames on October 1. 1991—1st full-time taste of starting on the big league level, working as the starter in all 20 of his outings...entered year with 9 starts in 132 previous major league games...was 1-1 with a 2.30 ERA after 2 starts, but after 1st pitch of game on April 22 in San Francisco, left with sore right elbow, and was on D.L. from April 23-July 4 with tendinitis...in just 2nd start after returning, July 14, he tossed 7.0 hitless innings vs. the Mets before surrendering leadoff single to Mackey Sasser, ending up with 2-1 win...on August 10 & 15, he became 1st Padre hurler in history to notch back-to-back 1-0 victories, beating Cincinnati and Atlanta similarly in consecutive starts...it was the 1st time the feat had been accomplished in the majors since Orel Hershiser in 1988. 1990—Did not start a game for 1st time in pro career, working 73 games in relief, 3rd most in the N.L....had a stretch of 16.0 consecutive scoreless innings from July 30-August 18, allowing 8 hits in that span...2nd major league hit was a triple off Jeff Brantley on June 19 at Candlestick Park, the 1st triple by a Padre pitcher since Dave Dravecky in 1985. 1989—Named the Padres' Rookie-of-the-Year, going 8-9 with 6 saves and 2.60 ERA...was used mainly in relief, coming out of the pen 48 of 56 appearances...was given starting assignments due to injury to Eric Show...lost first 3 tries, but then posted back-to-back wins at L.A. and vs. Houston...1st major league hit came on August 19 @ Montreal off Dennis Martinez. 1988—Went 9-5 for Las Vegas (AAA), as they won the PCL title...was named to the AAA All-Star team , fanning 3 men in an inning of work in Buffalo...finished 2nd in PCL in strikeouts with 147...made big league debut on Sept. 25, winning a 9-1 decision over Houston, scattering 4 hits and 3 walks, while fanning 11, the most by a Padre hurler in '88, and still stands as his career high. 1987—Earned minor league Pitcher-of-the-Year honors for the 2nd straight season...his best work began in late-May, when he began a 7-1 stretch, while posting a 1.77 ERA...wrapped up the regular season with a no-hitter in Wichita vs. Midland, walking 7 and fanning 6...he topped the Texas League in complete games (7) and was 2nd in K's (170)...won 2 of 3 starts in the post-season, fanning 30 in 26.2 innings in leading Wichita to the Texas League crown. 1986—Won his initial Padres' minor league Pitcher-of-the-Year honor, posting a 13-7 mark with a 2.63 ERA in 27 starts for Charleston...led the South Atlantic League in innings (191.1) and ranked 2nd in ERA (2.63), strikeouts (176), complete games (8) and starts. 1985—Signed as a 10th round selection in the June draft, and started his pro career with Spokane...fanned 90 men in 87.1 innings.

PERSONAL: Gregory Wade (Greg) Harris...he is single and recently moved his off-season home to Las Vegas, NV...he attended Jordan Matthews High School in Siler City, NC, earning All-Conference honors in baseball...he was drafted out of Elon College in 1985, then completed his degree there in Business Finance in '87...he joined fellow hurler, Willie Blair, during January to tour Colorado, Kansas and Wyoming as part of the Rockies 2nd annual Winter Caravan.

48 RYAN HAWBLITZEL RHP

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 170 B/T: R/R

Age: 22 (Turns 23 on April 30)

Born: April 30, 1971 in West Palm Beach, FL

Residence: Lake Worth, FL

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the sixth pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Chicago Cubs, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Another in a long line of farmhands who got their first taste of AAA action in '93, Hawblitzel was one of the few who did not make the trip to Denver during the summer, spending the entire campaign with Colorado Springs...he made 29 appearances, all but one coming in a starting role, going 8-13...he led the staff in starts, innings pitched (165.1), and tied for 2nd in wins...oddly enough, his best outing of the year resulted in a loss, bringing a whole new meaning to the term "heartbreaker"...at Vancouver on July 27, Hawblitzel retired the first 18 men he faced, had a no-hitter through 9.0 innings and entered the 10th deadlocked in a 0-0 game...the Canadians picked up a run on 2 hits in the 10th to take a 1-0 decision...he was involved in a pair of combined shutouts, his initial start at Portland on April 11, working 6.0 scoreless innings in a win, then at Las Vegas on May 17, tossing 6.2 frames of scoreless ball...he had a pair of 3-game losing streaks, while posting just one winning stretch of 2 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1993—Made 28 starts for Charlotte (AA) of the Southern League, going 12-8 with a 3.76 ERA...after dropping his first start, went on a 4-game winning streak...best month was July, going 3-1 with a 2.75 ERA in 5 starts...made 14 starts both at home and on the road with similar ERA's, 3.74 and 3.78, respectively, however, was 8-2 in Charlotte and 4-6 away from home...best outing was June 2 vs. Carolina, a 2-hit shutout, facing 2 men over the minimum. 1991—Had a superb year at Winston-Salem (A), leading the Carolina League in wins (15) and winning pct. (.882), losing only twice in 20 starts...fanned 103 hitters in 134.0 innings and posted a 2.42 ERA, good for 2nd best in the league...was the starting pitcher in the Carolina League All-Star Game...finished the year making 5 starts at Charlotte, going 1-2 with a 3.21 ERA. 1990—Signed as the Cubs' 2nd round choice in the June draft...finished 2nd in the NY-Penn League in starts (14).

PERSONAL: Ryan Wade Hawblitzel...he resides in West Palm Beach, FL...graduated in 1990 from John I. Leonard High School in Ft. Lauderdale, playing on a trio of championship teams...he was selected to be on the Florida Athletic Coaches All-Star team.

PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL REACHES MIILESTONE

Major League Baseball and its 28 clubs are celebrating the 125th anniversary of professional baseball during the 1994 season. The first professional team, the Cincinnati Red Stockings, was formed in 1869. Prior to that season, the game was played on an amateur basis only.

As part of this year's festivities, MLB Properties has designed a special 125th anniversary logo. The logo that also adorns the front of the 1994 Rockies Media Guide, is a variation of the Major League Baseball logo created for baseball's centennial celebration in 1969.

Throughout the season, MLB and the clubs will celebrate the anniversary through various events and ceremonies. The Rockies join the other 27 clubs wearing a commemorative patch on their sleeves and specially licensed products will be available.

13 CHARLIE HAYES INF

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 224 B/T: R/R

Age: 28 (Turns 29 on May 29)

Born: May 29, 1965 in Hattiesburg, MS

Residence: Hattiesburg, MS

M.L. Service: 4 years, 128 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the second pick in the first round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the New York Yankees, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: A lifetime .250 hitter entering the '93 season, Hayes put together a "career" year, posting a .305 average, with a team leading 45 doubles, 25 homers and 175 hits...his 98 RBI matched Andres Galarraga for club-high honors, while his double total led the N.L...he finished 3rd in the loop in extra-base hits (72) and 8th in total bases (299)...Hayes' double and hit totals were the most-ever by an expansion team player, while the RBI mark tied Galarraga for that honor...had a season-high 11-game hitting streak in June, batting .452 (19-for-42) with 4 homers and 13 RBI, finishing the month with a .381 mark...he was named the N.L. Player-of-the-Week for Sept. 13-19, batting .385 (10-for-26) with 7 runs, 5 doubles, 2 homers, 9 RBI and an .808 slugging pct...he was the 2nd Rockie to secure the weekly award, matching Galarraga's June honor...Hayes established a club record with 3 doubles in a 6-4 win over Houston on Sept. 15...he homered twice on July 26 vs. Atlanta, hitting a solo shot off Greg Maddux, then adding a grand slam off Jay Howell, the 2nd bases loaded homer of his career...he also matched his career best in RBI with 5, originally set on August 28, 1991 vs. Houston...had his 3rd career 4-hit game on June 12 vs. the Astros...not affected by "triskadekaphobia," the fear of the #13...while wearing that number on his back, it was on Friday the 13th in Houston that Hayes hit a 3-run, game-winning homer in Houston off reliever Doug Jones, giving the club a 5-3 triumph and extending the season-high winning streak to 6 games...played in all 81 games at Mile High Stadium, batting .338 at home...set a club record with 3 stolen bases on June 22 vs. Cincinnati...he did not go more than 2 consecutive games without a hit after August 6...was a .462 hitter (6-for-13) with the bases loaded, including 2 doubles, a homer and 13 RBI...he batted .313 with runners in scoring position (46-for-147) with 12 doubles, 9 homers and 57 RBI...led the club in starts, making 151 at 3rd base...was sidelined for the first 2 1/2 weeks of exhibition games in Tucson with a ligament tear in his right thumb that occurred in an intra-squad game on March 3.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Joined the New York Yankees on February 18, as the "player-to-be-named" in a January 8 deal with the Phils for pitcher Darrin Chapin...his 18 home runs and 142 games played were the most by a Yankee 3rd baseman since Mike Pagliarulo in 1987...in fact, over the 1990-91 seasons, 10 Yankee third basemen combined for 18 home runs...started the year strong, hitting .325 in April while not committing an error during the month...season average took a tumble at the start of the second half with an 0-for-15 beginning, however, turned that around with a .274 August that included 13 RBI...on August 5 he had the first multi-homer game of his career, hitting a pair vs. Cleveland...a head-first slide into home plate on Sept. 1 at Milwaukee cost Hayes the next two weeks due to a stretched ligament in the little finger of his left hand...upon returning from the injury, he hit .327 for the remainder of the season...a solid glove at the hot corner, he tied Chicago's Robin Ventura for the A.L. lead in double plays with 29...his 13 errors on the year were 2nd fewest in the A.L. among third basemen with at least 300 chances...committed just 3 errors in 68 games at Yankee Stadium...he was 5-for-18 (.278) with 13 RBI when hitting with the bases loaded...29 of his 66 RBI (44%) came with 2 outs. 1991—Had a career-best 12-game hitting streak (May 3-15)...finished strong in final 34 games of the year, hitting .302 with 6 homers and 20 RBI in that span...his first career grand slam was on August 28 vs. Houston's Ryan Bowen, also posting a career-best 5 RBI for the first time...he matched his career-high with 4 hits on Sept. 20 at Pittsburgh...defensively, Charlie finished 4th among N.L. third basemen with a .958 fielding pct. 1990—Led the Phillies with 158 games played during his first full major league season, finishing 3rd among N.L. third basemen in fielding (.957)...his 20 errors on the year were 2 fewer than he committed in 1989, when he played just 85 games...his 324 assists tied for the most in the majors...he had a 34-game errorless streak from May 27-July 5...he snared Gary Carter's line drive to closeout Terry Mulholland's no-hitter against the Giants on August 15...it was only fitting that Charlie would make the final play since he was dealt with Mulholland and Dennis Cook from San Francisco to the Phils on June 18, 1989, in exchange for Steve Bedrosian and a player to be named (Rick Parker)...Hayes homered in 3 straight games from July 26-28 at Pittsburgh...his first career 4-hit game took place on July 17 at Atlanta. 1989—Charlie started the year in AAA at Phoenix (PCL), then was recalled for limited duty (1 start, 2 PH) in early May...eventually returned to Phoenix, where he was hitting .284 in 61 games at the time of the trade to Philadelphia...Hayes reported to Scranton (AAA) and went 11-for-27 (.407) in his first 7 games, earning a quick promotion to the majors where he has since remained...he finished the season as the Phillies everyday third baseman, hitting .258 in 84 games (79 starts)...on July 28, he homered off Pittsburgh's Rick Reed into the leftfield upper deck at The Vet, only the 34th time it had been done...Charlie homered in 3 straight games from July 28-30. 1988—Hayes spent the entire minor league season at Phoenix, hitting .307 in 131 games, with 7 homers and 71 RBI...he was promoted to San Francisco in September, going 1-for-11 in 7 games...the lone hit, his first as a major leaguer, was a single off Jim Deshaies on Sept. 17 at Houston...he made his major league debut 6 days earlier against the Astros, starting in leftfield. 1987—Charlie had an outstanding year at Shreveport (AA) in the Texas League...he led the club in virtually every offensive category, at bats (487), runs (66), hits (148), homers (14) and RBI (75)...his .934 fielding pct. and 334 total chances led all Texas League third sackers. 1986—His first taste of AA at Shreveport produced a .247 mark in 121 games with 5 homers and 45 RBI...he led T.L. third baseman with 27 double plays. 1985—Hit .283 in 131 games at Fresno (A) of the California League...he was voted the Most Popular Player by the fans...Hayes led all Cal League third basemen in fielding pct. (.949) and putouts (100). 1984—Batted .245 in 116 games at Clinton (A) of the Midwest League. 1983—Signed with the Giants' organization after being selected in the 4th round of the June free agent draft...he hit .261 in his first pro test, however, played in just 34 games before missing the remainder of the season due to injury.

PERSONAL: Charles Dewayne Hayes...he and wife, Gelinda, have two sons, Charles, Jr. (11-26-83), and Tyree (8-8-88), and reside in Hattiesburg, MS...a 3-sport star at Forrest County Agricultural H.S. in Brooklyn, MS, and was named all-state in baseball and basketball in '83...a member of the Hattiesburg team that played in the Little League World Series in Williamsport, PA, in 1977...he and Gelinda donated 5,000 tickets to Rockies home games during the 1993 season for underprivileged youth and non-profit organizations, including 250 tickets to the Denver Fire Department.

Age: 27 (Turns 28 on April 25)

Born: April 25, 1966 in Asheville, NC

Residence: Fletcher, NC

M.L. Service: 3 years, 3 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the third pick in the first round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Milwaukee Brewers, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: His 1st season as a "stopper" on a club, Holmes started slowly, but by the end of the campaign finished tied for 9th in the N.L. in saves with 25 (29 opportunities)...the initial save in club history was his on April 23 in Denver vs. the Marlins...season began with just 2 saves through 1st 9 appearances, and was optioned to Colorado Springs on May 5 with a 17.19 ERA...he was dominant while performing for the Sky Sox, appearing in 3 games (2 starts), allowing no earned runs with a hit, walk and 9 K's in 8.2 innings...he returned to the majors 12 days later and was outstanding the rest of the way, compiling a 2.43 ERA in his last 53 outings, surrendering 16 earned runs in 59.2 innings, posting a 3-1 mark and 23 saves...he earned Rockie-of-the-Month honors for August, earning saves in 9 consecutive outings, allowing an earned run in his 1st and last outing of the month for a 1.35 ERA, with 12 K's...he closed the year by not allowing an earned run in his last 11 performances, a span of 13.2 consecutive scoreless innings...combined the final 2 months of the campaign for a 2-0 record and 15 saves with a 1.32 ERA (4 ER in 27.1 IP), including 15 K's...after starting the year going 3-for-6 in save situations, Holmes finished by making good on 22 of the last 23 tries...his strikeouts to 9-inning ratio was 8.10, 2nd on the staff to Bruce Ruffin...was most impressive on the road, allowing opposing hitters just a .185 average (20-for-108)...recorded 2 saves in 3 outings against eventual league champion Phillies, retiring all 8 men faced...in 2 outings vs. the Giants, he retired all 8 men faced, 5 via the strikeout...5 of the first 8 runners he inherited crossed the plate, but none of the last 5 on the year scored.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Split the first 2 months sharing time between Milwaukee and Denver (AAA), before settling with the Brewers on May 29 for the remainder of the year...during a pair of stints with the Zephyrs, he earned 7 saves in 12 appearances, allowing 2 ER in 13.0 innings for a 1.38 ERA...with the Brewers, he compiled a 4-4 mark, with 6 saves and a 2.55 ERA in 41 relief outings...he worked in a set-up role for the majority of the season, at times serving as a closer...only 6 of 35 inherited runners crossed the plate when he was on the mound (17%), tops among Milwaukee relievers...3 of his 6 saves came in the final 2 weeks of the season while the Brewers were chasing division leading Toronto...allowed only 1 earned run in the last 2 months, covering 17 outings and 20.2 IP for a 0.44 ERA...his post All-Star break numbers included a 2-1 record in 21 appearances, with all 6 of his saves and a 1.93 ERA. 1991—Made just 1 relief appearance with Denver before being recalled on April 12 due to an injury to Ron Robinson...he made an impressive A.L. debut 2 days later, striking out 6 in a 3.0 inning stint at Toronto...a month later, May 16, he earned his first major league save with 4.0 innings of relief at Minnesota...was disabled in July (hamstring), then slowed to previous form, allowing 17 earned runs in next 11.2 innings (8 games) as his season ERA rose to 5.79 by August 6...as was the case in '92, he finished strong by allowing 1 earned run in his last 15.2 innings (9 games) for a 0.57 ERA...that stretch included a 6-game, 10-inning scoreless streak. 1990—Spent the majority of the season in Albuquerque (AAA) of the PCL, making 56 relief appearances for the Dukes, going 12-2 with 13 saves and a 3.11 ERA...he fanned 99 men in 93.2 innings...it was the first time since 1985 that he had been used exclusively as a reliever...his outstanding minor league season earned a September promotion to the Dodgers, where he made 14 relief appearances...made major league debut on Sept. 1 at Montreal, with a pair of scoreless innings...was traded on December 20 to the Brewers in exchange for catcher Bert Heffernan. 1989—Splitting the season between San Antonio (AA) and Albuquerque, he was used mainly as a starter...he was 5-8 with a 3.83 ERA for San Antonio in 17 games (16 starts), while earning a save in his lone relief appearance...after moving to AAA, the going was a bit tougher, posting a 1-4 mark and 7.45 ERA in 9 games (8 starts)...combined, he fanned 112 men in 149.0 innings. 1988—Spent the majority of the campaign with San Luis Potosi (Mexican League), going 9-9 in 23 games (all starts) with a 4.64 ERA...he posted the first 100+ strikeout season of his career with 110 in 139.0 innings...finished the year with one start at Albuquerque. 1987—Pitched for the third straight season at Vero Beach, going 6-4 with a 4.52 ERA in 19 starts. 1986—Made just 11 appearances (10 starts) for Vero Beach, going 3-6 with a 2.92 ERA.. he fanned 59 hitters in 64.2 innings. 1985—Had 33 outings for Vero Beach, all in relief, going 4-3 with a 3.11 ERA and 2 saves. 1984—Selected 16th in the June free agent draft by the Dodgers and assigned to Great Falls...went 2-5 with a 6.65 ERA in 18 games (6 starts).

PERSONAL: Darren Lee Holmes...he and wife, Kathy, have one daughter, Courtney (5-8-89) and reside in Fletcher, NC...he was a 1984 graduate of T.C. Robertson H.S., participating in baseball, football and wrestling...he was named Wester, NC, Male Athlete of the Year in 1983.

20 HOWARD JOHNSON OF

Ht: 5-10 Wt: 195 B/T: S/R

Age: 33 (Turns 34 on November 29)

Born: November 29, 1960 in Clearwater, FL

Residence: Poway, CA

M.L. Service: 10 years, 129 days

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Opened the season stationed at 3rd base, starting 51 of the Mets' 1st 56 games, before having to go on the D.L. with a viral infection in early-June...after a slow start at the plate, he upped his average 113 points to .264 after hitting safely in 10 of 11 games...on May 4-5, he reached base safely in 8 consecutive plate appearances (4 hits and 4 walks), falling 1 shy of the Mets club record...moved into 2nd place on New York's all-time RBI list, passing Ed Kranepool, when his 2-run homer on May 7 off Florida's Charlie Hough gave HoJo 616 career RBI...had a 6-game hitting streak going at the time of viral ailment that sidelined him until July 2...he swiped career base #200 on July 4 vs. San Francisco...suffered a season-ending thumb injury against the Dodgers on July 22, undergoing surgery to repair the broken thumb on July 28...he left the Mets as the all-time leader in games played at 3rd base (836), while ranking 2nd all-time in homers (192), RBI (629), stolen bases (202), extra-base hits (429), runs (627) and doubles (214)...he finished 3rd on the Mets' charts in total bases (1,823), 5th in games played (1,154), 5th in at bats (3,968) and 6th in hits (997).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—After averaging 154 games in each of the previous 5 seasons, injuries took their toll in '92 limiting him to 100 games...had a left shoulder injury and injuries to both knees, but played through those ailments...season ended on August 2, when it was diagnosed that he had fractured his right wrist in Philly on July 28...underwent arthroscopic surgery on August 25 in New York to repair his left shoulder, had both knees cleaned (piece of degenerated tendon removed from left knee and right knee scoped to repair small meniscal cartilage tear), and wrist was placed in a cast, though no surgery was required...while playing, he tied a career-high with 5 RBI at Montreal on April 19 (2nd career 5-RBI game)...established career mark with thefts in first 5 games of year...wound up with 22 SB's in 100 games...hit 200th career homer on April 26 in Philly off Andy Ashby, swiped 200th career base on May 3 in Atlanta...with that theft, became 16th player in history with 200 HR's/200 steals, and at the time, the 6th active player (Andre Dawson, Ryne Sandberg, Darryl Strawberry, Robin Young and Dave Winfield). 1991—Had the best individual "power" season in Mets' history, establishing a club record with 117 RBI, while tying the club standard with 108 runs scored and hitting 3rd most homers (38)...homer & RBI totals topped the N.L., the 3rd Met to lead the league in HR's (D. Kingman, 1982 & D. Strawberry, 1988), and first-ever to lead in RBI...also led N.L. with 15 sacrifice flies and 76 extra-base hits...first switch-hitter in N.L. history to lead in RBI, and matched Ripper Collins (1934 with St. Louis), as only switch-hitters to lead in homers...joined 30-30 club for 3rd time in career, swiping 30th base on October 1...hit a club record 5th grand slam on June 18 vs. Cincy's Tom Browning, and became 1st Met to hit a bases loaded homer from both sides of the plate...it was his 6th career G.S. (1 with Detroit), but 1st hitting from the right side...recorded multi-homer games on August 31 at Cincy and Sept. 4 vs. Houston...homered from both sides of the plate in Aug. 31 game, matching Lee Mazzilli's club mark set in 1978...earned 2nd trip to the All-Star Game...recorded 1,000th career hit on Sept. 18 off Chicago's Greg Maddux... became Mets' all-time leader in games played at 3rd base, playing in 710th on June 26, passing Wayne Garrett...ended season with 30 straight starts in the outfield...named to the N.L. Silver Slugger team. 1990—Reached 20-20 mark in HR's & SB's for 4th straight year...started 89 games at 3rd base, but tookover chores at short after Kevin Elster had season-ending shoulder surgery...hit 5th career grand slam on June 13 (1st game) at Chicago off Les Lancaster, capping 5-run, 9th inning in a 15-10 New York win...had arthroscopic surgery on left shoulder on October 15. 1989—Set club record in doubles (41) and total bases (319)...became the 3rd player in major league history to hit 30 homers and steal 30 bases more than once in his career...named to his 1st All-Star Game, and was chosen the starting 3rd baseman after Mike Schmidt, who received the most votes, announced his retirement...N.L. Player-of-the-Month for June, hitting .340 with 11 homers and 24 RBI...finished 5th in N.L. Most Valuable Player balloting with 153 points...named the N.L.'s 3rd baseman on the Associated Press and The Sporting News All-Star teams...also selected to The Sporting News Silver Slugger squad. 1988—Had hits in 7 consecutive at bats from Sept. 8-9, including a 5-for-5 game at Chicago on Sept. 8, then getting a single and homer in first 2 AB's the next day in Montreal...had a stretch of at least 1 RBI in 7 straight games from June 28-July 3...made 109 starts at 3rd base and 34 at shortstop...underwent arthroscopic surgery to repair a slight cartilage tear in his right shoulder on October 29. 1987—Joined the 30-30 club for the 1st time, hitting 36 home runs and stealing 32 bases...he and Darryl Strawberry became the first pair of 30-30 teammates in baseball history... established the N.L. record for homers by a switch-hitter with 36, breaking Ripper Collins 1934 mark with the Cardinals (HoJo broke his own record again in 1991)...his 36 homers and 99 RBI established Mets' club records for 3rd basemen...he had an inside-the-park homer at Pittsburgh on Sept. 20 off Mike Bielecki. 1986—He sustained a hairline fracture on the right forearm when he collided with Lenny Dykstra in a game on June 1 vs. San Francisco, and was out until June 23...made 1st major league start in leftfield vs. the Pirates at Shea Stadium on October 5...when he appeared in the World Series vs. Boston, he became the 27th player in major league history to play for a World Championship team in both leagues. 1985—1st of 9 seasons with the Mets, making debut on August 9, becoming the 78th 3rd baseman in club history. 1984—Appeared in 116 games for the Tigers, but had just 1 at bat in the World Series vs. San Diego after not participating in the ALCS vs. Kansas City...was traded to the Mets on December 7 in exchange for pitcher Walt Terrell. 1983—Started the season on the Tigers' big league roster, but was optioned to Evansville on May 27...suffered broken right index finger on June 1, then re-fractured the finger on June 24 and underwent corrective surgery, sidelining him for the season. 1982—Started the year at Evansville, but was recalled to majors for 1st time on April 13, making major league debut the next day at Toronto...was optioned back to AAA on May 6...upon return to big leagues, had a 12-game hitting streak from Sept. 20-October 2...had pinch hit homer on Sept. 23 off Baltimore's Storm Davis.

PERSONAL: Howard Michael Johnson...he and wife, Kim, have two daughters, Shannon Leigh (8-16-84) and Kayla Mae (7-12-91), and a son, Glen (7-2-88), and make their off-season home in Poway, CA...Howard graduated from Clearwater High School in 1978, then attended St. Petersburg Junior College...instead of spending 9 seasons playing in Flushing, NY, with the Mets, he had an opportunity to play in the Bronx with the Yankees, but did not sign with them after being selected in the 23rd round of the '78 June draft...he did ink a pact with the Tigers' chain as Detroit's 1st pick in the secondary phase of the January draft...he participated in the Rockies Winter Carvan last January, visiting Denver, Colorado Springs, Grand Junction and Salt Lake City.

45 CURTIS LESKANIC RHP

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 188 B/T: R/R

Age: 25 (Turns 26 on April 2)

Born: April 2, 1968 in Homestead, PA

Residence: Pineville, LA

M.L. Service: 89 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the seventh pick in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Minnesota Twins, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Pitched for 3 different clubs during the year, including a pair of major league stints with the Rockies...the season began in Wichita (AA), on loan to the San Diego chain since the Rockies did not have a AA club in their 1st year...he was 3-2 with a 3.45 ERA in 7 starts for Wichita, then was promoted to Colorado Springs on May 20...a little over a month later, Leskanic was making his 1st of 2 stops with the big league club...he made his major league debut on June 27 at San Francisco, going 7.0 innings allowing 5 runs (4 earned), on 7 hits and 3 walks in a 5-0 loss to Bill Swift...he posted his lone big league win on July 8 vs. Florida in Mile High, going 6.2 innings allowing just a hit, a run and 2 walks with a season-high 5 K's in 3-2 victory...the lone hit off Leskanic was by opposing hurler Pat Rapp...after 6 straight starts, he went to the bullpen for 7 outings before being optioned back to AAA...he was recalled to the Rockies on Sept. 3, getting a start 4 days later in Montreal...he went 6.0 frames allowing 3 hits and fanning 4, before leaving the game with a 3-0 lead due to stiffness in his right shoulder...the Expos posted 4 runs in the final 3.0 innings to get the win...also experienced some stiffness in his shoulder after 5.0 innings in his next start and was moved to the bullpen for his final 3 outings of the year.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Was traded at the close of spring training with Oscar Munoz from the Cleveland organization to Minnesota in exchange for Paul Sorrento...made 23 starts (26 outings) for Orlando (AA), before being promoted to Portland (AAA) to finish the year...while at Orlando, he led the staff in K's (126) and innings pitched (152.2), while his win total (9) ranked 2nd best...after winning first 2 decisions, he went into tailspin of 6 consecutive losses...came back in 2nd half to post victories in 5 of last 6 decisions...finished season with Portland, going 1-2 in 5 outings (3 starts)...while playing at Orlando, he teamed with Jayhawk Owens. 1991—Pitched at Kinston (A) and was tied with Ryan Hawblitzel for the Carolina League lead in victories with 15, the most of any hurler in the Cleveland chain...he was 2nd in the loop in starts (28) and 8th overall in ERA (2.79), fanning 163 batters in 174.1 innings...again finished season strong with wins in 6 of last 7 decisions. 1990—Began pro career with Kinston, going 6-5 in 14 starts, including wins in last 4 outings...in season finale, walked none and fanned 14 in win over Peninsula.

PERSONAL: Curtis John Leskanic...he and wife, Susan, reside in Pineville, LA...he graduated from Steel Valley (PA) H.S. in 1986, then pitched at Louisiana State University, where he earned all SEC honors...originally an 8th round selection of Cleveland in the 1989 June draft.

M.L. Service: 4 years, 128 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent, October 26, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Reported to Tucson as a non-roster invitee, but his chances at making the club out of camp were halted when he suffered a broken left foot on a foul ball in a March 4 intrasquad game...upon healing the injury, Liriano started the year at Central Valley due to an overcrowded infield at AAA, and was hitting .364 thru 6 games when he was promoted to the majors on May 6, as Freddie Benavides underwent arthroscopic knee surgery...during his 1st stint with the club, Liriano batted .257 with a homer and 6 RBI, before being shipped to Colorado Springs on June 13...his 1st homer for the Rockies occurred on May 25 off Pete Harnisch in the Astrodome, his 1st major league roundtripper since April 20, 1989, while a member of the Toronto Blue Jays...following the AAA season, he returned to the Rockies, but only because Benavides went down with another injury...it turned out to be a great break for Liriano, who put together a career-best 10-game hitting streak in which he batted .447 (17-for-38) with 4 doubles, a triple and 11 runs scored...tied his career best with 4 hits on Sept. 17 vs. Los Angeles, the 4th time he accomplished the feat, but 1st time since May 20, 1989, at Chicago while playing for the Blue Jays...he closed the year by hitting .346 after his recall with 6 doubles, 3 triples, a homer, 9 RBI and 22 runs scored...his home run at SF on Sept. 29, was the 1st to open a game for Colorado since Eric Young's blast to start the home opener.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Spent the year at Colorado Springs (AAA), hitting .305 in 106 games...hit safely in 32 of the first 39 games of the year, including a 13-game hitting streak that was followed a month later with a season-high 15-game streak...played second, short and third during the year, committing just 9 errors in 383 chances. 1991—Was released out of spring training by the Twins' organization, but signed with Omaha (AAA)...hit .274 in 86 games with the Royals and had contract purchased by the major league club for the remainder of the season...went 9-for-22 (.409) for Kansas City in September. 1990—Started the year with Toronto, hitting .212 in 50 games, then was traded to Minnesota with Pedro Munoz for John Candelaria on July 27...hit .254 in 53 games for Twins. 1989—Was the everyday 2nd baseman for the Blue Jays, spoiling a pair of potential no-hitters during the year...had a 9th inning triple on April 23 to break up Nolan Ryan's no-hit bid in Toronto, then 5 days later, had a pinch hit double in the 9th to ruin Kirk McCaskill's chance in Anaheim...hit .429 during the A.L.C.S. vs. Oakland. 1987—Made M.L. debut vs. Seattle on August 25, singling in first at bat off Mike Moore...hit first major league homer on August 30 off Oakland's Dave Leiper.

PERSONAL: Nelson Arturo Liriano...he and wife, Milvia, have two children, Cindy (11-28-88) and Jesse (11-9-91) and make their off-season home in his native Puerto Plata, D.R...he was a 1982 graduate of Fabio A. Mota High School, where he lettered in both baseball and basketball...he has also had a pair of brothers who played professionally in the Cleveland and Oakland organizations.

8 ROBERTO MEJIA INF

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 183 B/T: R/R

Age: 21 (Turns 22 on April 14)

Born: April 14, 1972 in Hato Mayor, DR

Residence: Hato Mayor, DR

M.L. Service: 81 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the second pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Los Angeles Dodgers, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: After never appearing above the Class A level prior to '93, a solid showing in spring training and equally solid work at AAA, had Mejia as the starting 2nd baseman with the Rockies after the All-Star break...he posted a .390 mark thru 2 weeks of spring training and earned himself a shot at the starting job in Colorado Springs...he batted .299 in 77 games for the Sky Sox, hitting 14 homers while driving in 48...those figures earned him a spot on the AAA All-Star squad that competed in Albuquerque...upon completion of that contest, he was summoned to the big leagues for the 1st time, making his initial start on July 15 in Chicago...Mejia's 1st big league hit was the next afternoon, a double off the Cubs' Jose Guzman...of his 1st 11 hits, 8 went for extra bases (4 doubles, 3 triples and a homer)...the homer came on July 23 in Denver off St. Louis' Allen Watson, while also setting a career-best with 4 RBI...opened August with a 1-for-17 slide, which included 10 strikeouts, 5 in one game on August 9 in L.A...the next night in Dodger Stadium, he snapped out of it with his 1st career 4-hit game...Mejia homered off Atlanta's Tom Glavine in his final at bat of the season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Spent his second season as a pro playing in Vero Beach of the Florida State League (Class A)...a rollercoaster year at the plate that started strong with a .357 mark in the opening month (25-for-70) with 7 doubles and 11 runs scored...May was a different story, batting just .190 in 11 games (8-for-42)...he rallied in June again, hitting .288 before tailing off over the last 2 months. 1991—First taste as a professional came at Great Falls in the Pioneer League (Rookie)...in 23 games, he posted a .262 average with a pair of homers and 14 RBI.

PERSONAL: Roberto Antonio Mejia (Diaz)...he is single and resides in his native Hato Mayor, D.R...he signed as a non-drafted free agent with the L.A. Dodgers on November 21, 1988, and spent the next 2 seasons playing for Santo Domingo in the Dominican League...he has attended Colegio Adventista in his homeland.

Age: 23 (Turns 24 on November 2)

Born: November 2, 1970 in Oakland, CA

Residence: Oakland, CA

M.L. Service: 89 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the second pick in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Toronto Blue Jays, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: His 1st season as a full-time reliever, Moore began the year in Central Valley (A), making 8 appearances and allowing just 1 earned run in 12.0 innings, a 0.75 ERA, while posting 2 saves...he was then promoted to Colorado Springs on April 30, where he remained until his 1st of 2 recalls to the Rockies on July 8...it was a brief, but effective stint in the majors, staying for just 3 days prior to the All-Star break, but earning a victory in his big league debut on July 9 in St. Louis, working 0.2 of an inning...he was recalled again to Colorado on July 24, remaining with the big league club thru the end of the season...best stretch came in early August, when he had 5.1 hitless innings over 4 outings, and did not give up an earned run in 6 straight outings, dropping his ERA to a season-low 1.93...twice worked both ends of a doubleheader, August 6 at San Diego and August 21 vs. New York...fell on tough times late in the year, allowing 12 earned runs in his last 4 outings, a span of 4.0 innings of work.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Began the season in the starting rotation for Knoxville (AA) in the Southern League, but after going 2-8 through 14 starts, he was moved to the bullpen for the first time in his pro career...was not involved in a decision during his first 10 relief stints, but finished the year with a 3-2 ledger out of the pen...best stretch came during the last 2 months, posting a 2.78 ERA in 13 outings, after having a 6.35 ERA through the first 4 months of the campaign. 1991—Pitched for Dunedin (A), leading the staff with 25 starts and 115 strikeouts...finished 4th in the Florida State League in innings pitched (161). 1990—Had outstanding year at Quad City (A), leading the Midwest League in wins (16), tying for 3rd in starts (27) and finishing 5th in K's (160)...had season-high 14 strikeouts on August 14, allowing no earned runs and 3 hits in 7-inning stint vs. Springfield...traded after the season to the Toronto Blue Jays' organization with Devon White and Willie Fraser in exchange for Junior Felix, Luis Sojo and Ken Rivers on December 2. 1989—Assigned to Bend (A) after signing, going 2-5 in 14 starts, fanning 74 hitters in 81.0 innings.

PERSONAL: Marcus Braymont Moore...he resides in his native Oakland, CA...he was originally drafted in the 17th round by the California Angels in the 1989 June free agent draft.

43 MIKE MUÑOZ LHP

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 196 B/T: L/L

Age: 28 (Turns 29 on July 12)

Born: July 12, 1965 in Baldwin Park, CA

Residence: South Lake, TX

M.L. Service: 2 years, 19 days

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Season started with Detroit, working out of the Tigers' bullpen for 8 appearances, covering 3.0 innings, generally facing lefthanded hitters...after refusing an outright to the minors, he declared free agency and signed a minor league contract with the Rockies on May 14...he made 40 relief appearances for Colorado Springs, earning 3 saves while allowing just 7 earned runs in 37.2 innings for a 1.67 ERA...he was purchased by the big league club on August 22, and earned a win just a couple of hours after his arrival in Denver, taking a victory over the Mets on the strength of a Freddie Benavides homer...his lone defeat with the Rockies was on Sept. 12 at Pittsburgh, giving up a 9th inning, game-winning homer to Al Martin, the only roundtripper he surrendered in 21 appearances with Colorado...Muñoz struck out the side in an inning of work vs. San Diego on Sept. 20...finished the season with 4 straight hitless outings, allowing a walk while striking out 4.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—First full season of major league duty, he made 65 appearances for the Tigers, pitching in mostly one-batter faced situations...was outstanding vs. lefthanded hitters, allowing just 14 hits in 73 at bats (.192)...surrendered just 4 earned runs after June 22, a span of 23.2 innings in 38 games for a 1.52 ERA...earned 1st major league victory at Toronto on June 18...knotched 1st big league save at Texas on August 15...surrendered 3 homers on the year, the last 2 coming in one game on June 10 vs. Cleveland...stranded 31 of 42 inherited runners. 1991—Started the year at Toledo (AAA), giving up just 1 earned run in 22.2 innings, a span of 12 games to open the year...earned recall to majors on June 18, making 6 relief appearances for the Tigers...he was returned to Toledo on July 16. 1990—Began the year with Albuquerque, but was purchased by the ig league club just 5 days into the season...made 8 relief appearances for the L.A. Dodgers, then was returned to AAA on May 11...appeared in 49 games for Albuquerque, then was traded to Detroit on September 30 in exchange for pitcher Mike Wilkins. 1989—Was the top lefthander used in the Albuquerque bullpen, making a club-high 60 appearances...went 5-1 with a 2.04 ERA in his last 39 utings of the year...gave up just 2 homers during entire AAA season, but oddly enough, the 1st ajor league batter he faced, Jeff Richardson, homered on September 6 in Cincinnati. 1988—Excelled at San Antonio (AA), appearing in 56 games, going 7-2 with 14 saves and a 1.00 ERA...save total ranked tied for 4th in Texas League...had a stretch of 27.0 consecutive scoreless innings at mid-season, and was named to the T.L. All-Star squad...selected by Baseball America as the 7th best prospect the league. 1987—Had his 1st taste as a reliever, after opening the year with 12 starts for akersfield...gave up just 5 earned runs in last 39.2 innings of work (1.13 ERA). 1986—Pro debut was with Great Falls, going 4-4 in 14 starts.

PERSONAL: Michael Anthony Muñoz...he and wife, Lee Ann, have a daughter, Kailey Ann (0-9-91)...Mike is a graduate of L.A.'s Bishop Amat High School, earning All-City honors as a junior nd senior...he then attended Cal Poly Pomona, where he was named 1st team NCAA Division II All-America...during his junior season, Muñoz won his last 10 decisions as Cal Poly Pomona finished 2nd in the Division II World Series.

17 DAVID NIED RHP

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 188 B/T: R/R

Age: 25 (Turns 26 on December 22)

Born: December 22, 1968 in Dallas, TX

Residence: Denver, CO

M.L. Service: 1 year, 34 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the first pick in the first round of the major league expansion draft from the Atlanta Braves, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: His career with the Rockies began as the first player taken in the 1992 expansion draft, and the "firsts" continued into the inaugural season of the club...Nied was the first hurler in a spring training game, then was named to start the first regular season game in club history, April 5 against the Mets in Shea Stadium...the long awaited initial game for the Rockies resulted in a 3-0 loss to Doc Gooden, where Nied went 5.0 innings allowing 6 hits and 2 runs...his next start was a 9-5 win over the Expos in Mile High Stadium, a triumph that started a 3-game winning streak...the middle victory in the stretch was his first major league complete game on April 15 avenging his Opening Day loss to Gooden, 5-3...the streak concluded with an 11-2 win in St. Louis on April 21, where he carried a shutout into the 8th inning before surrendering a 2-run homer to Ray Lankford...things went south after that win, as Nied dropped 6 straight decisions over a 7-start stretch...he was named to start an exhibition game at Colorado Springs on June 3, an opportunity to get in some work, but it turned into a disasterous afternoon when he suffered a slight tear in his ulnar collateral ligament which required over 2 months of rest...he was allowed to begin throwing on the side in late-August, then 91 days after the injury, Nied made the first of 4 minor league rehab starts on August 19 in Central Valley, working 4.0 innings...he then made a trio of starts for Colorado Springs before being deemed healthy enough to return to the Rockies...his first post-injury start in the majors took place on Sept. 12 in Pittsburgh, working 3.2 innings allowing 4 hits and a run throwing 54 pitches...the 6-game losing streak that had been alive since the injury was snapped the next time out, Sept. 17 in Mile High Stadium, going 5.0 shutout innings in earning a 12-3 win over the Dodgers, the same night the Rockies broke the 4,000,000 mark and the MLB all-time season attendance record...he followed that win with a 2nd straight outing of 5.0 shutout innings, this time vs. San Diego, posting an 11-3 victory at home over Andy Benes...the streak continued to 14.0 consecutive scoreless innings before losing a 6-4 decision at Candlestick Park on Sept. 28...Nied's initial experience in a Colorado uniform was on March 6 in Tucson, when he worked 3.0 frames in the exhibition opener vs. San Francisco, posting a 7-2 win over the Giants.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—First action on the AAA level, he led the International League in both wins (14) and strikeouts (159) while pitching at Richmond...tied for the league lead in complete games (7), including a pair of shutouts...his 2.84 ERA ranked 4th best in the loop, while the opposition managed a .233 average against...won 10 of 13 decisions by June 28...he allowed only 1 earned run in first 19.0 innings of the year with 22 K's...finished strong, completing 4 of last 7 starts...had back-to-back starts, July 25 and July 30, combining for no runs on 4 hits and 5 walks with 16 K's in 17.0 innings...his outstanding minor league numbers earned him a promotion to the Atlanta club in late-August, helping the Braves clinch their 2nd straight N.L. West crown...was a member of the 25-man post-season roster, but did not appear...posted a 3-0 mark and 1.17 ERA in 6 outings (2 starts) with Atlanta...during his brief stint with the Braves, he worked 23.0 innings allowing just 10 hits, 3 earned runs and walks with 19 strikeouts, while opponents hit .130. 1991—Opened the year at Class A Durham, going 8-3 in 13 games (12 starts) with a 1.56 ERA, fanning 77 hitters in 80.2 innings, while allowing just 46 hits, 14 earned runs and 23 walks...opposing hitters managed a .162 average while he pitched for Durham...he was then promoted to Greenville (AA), where he won 7 of 10 decisions with a 2.41 ERA in 15 starts...struck out 101 hitters and walked only 20 in 89.2 innings in AA...all totaled in '91, had 178 K's in 170.1 innings. 1990—For the second straight season he opened the season at Durham (Carolina League), only to finish at Burlington (Midwest League)...at Durham, he was 1-1 with a 3.83 ERA in 10 starts...he then went to Burlington, going 5-3 in 10 games (9 starts). 1989—Began the season at Durham, going 5-2, but with a 6.63 ERA and an opposing batting average of .303 in 12 starts prompting a move to Burlington...he was 5-6 in 13 games (12 starts) in the Midwest League, fanning 73 hitters in 80.0 innings of work with a 3.83 ERA. 1988—First pro season was spent with Sumter in the South Atlantic League...he made 27 starts while going 12-9 with a 3.76 ERA...he led the staff in wins and K's, striking out 133 men in 165.1 innings.

PERSONAL: David Glen Nied...he and the former Malissa Murray were married last October and now make their home in Denver...a Texas native, where he was an '87 graduate of Duncanville High School, earning all-state honors in both baseball and football...while playing football, David was the quarterback and his main focus was to handoff to current Pittsburgh running back Barry Foster...Nied was Atlanta's 14th choice in the 1987 June free agent draft.

32 JAYHAWK OWENS C

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 213 B/T: R/R

Age: 25

Born: February 10, 1969 in Cincinnati, OH

Residence: Sardinia, OH

M.L. Service: 95 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the twelfth pick in the first round of the major league baseba expansion draft from the Minnesota Twins.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: His first year of experience above the AA level, Owens started the season in Colorado Springs and was hitting .325 with 28 RBI thru 37 games, when he was recalled to the big leagues for the first time due to a hand injury to Joe Girardi...his first big league at bat was on June in Philadelphia and resulted in a base hit off of Curt Schilling...that hit started a 6-game hitting strea.. in which the rookie receiver batted .474, with 2 doubles, 6 runs scored and 3 RBI...had a career-best 3 hits and 3 RBI on June 12 vs. Houston...hit his first big league homer on June 25 at Candlestick Park off the Giants' Bryan Hickerson...July was a tough month for Owens, struggling thru an 0-for-21 skid before busting out on July 25 vs. St. Louis...in that outing, he became the 4th Rookie to hit 2 home in a game, the 5th time overall it had been done...the homers came exactly one month after his first big league roundtripper...Jayhawk was optioned back to Colorado Springs on August 11 to complete the AAA season...he was recalled again on Sept. 6, but had only 1 at bat thru the end of the year.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—First season as a catcher, after spending previous two cam paigns as an outfielder...caught at Orlando (AA) of the Southern League, hitting .267 in 102 game with 24 doubles, while teaming with Curtis Leskanic...swiped 10 bases, marking the third straight year of double figure thefts... started the season strong, hitting .350 in April (21-for-60) with 8 doubles...was hitting .303 on June 1, when he hit a slump that witnessed a .171 mark during the month...was hit by 11 pitches. 1991—His play was limited to just 65 games at Visalia (A) due to a bro ken left hand that occurred in a car accident prior to the start of the season...despite limited playin time, managed 17 doubles, 6 homers and a pro-best 33 RBI. 1990—Signed with the Twins' organization as a second round selection in the June draft and was assigned to Kenosha (A)...batted .236 overall, however, was particularly effective at home, hitting .294 with 5 homers and 21 RBI...was hit by 13 pitches during initial season.

PERSONAL: Claude Jayhawk Owens...he is single and resides in Sardinia, OH...a 1987 grad uate of Glen Este H.S. in Cincinnati, lettering in baseball, basketball and football...he also attended Middle Tennessee State University...was originally drafted by the Boston Red Sox out of high school, however, chose to attend college.

ALL-STAR BALLOTING SPONSORED BY TEXACO

Texaco will be the presenting sponsor of All-Star fan balloting for the 1994 All-Star Game at Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh.

More than 12,000 Texaco-branded outlets in the U.S., Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico will participate as primary voting locations for fans wishing to cast ballots for the National and American League All-Star teams.

Customers visiting participating Texaco stations will also have the opportunity to enter a sweepstakes for numerous baseball-related prizes. In addition to Texaco-branded outlets, All-Star fan balloting will be conducted at select retail outlets that carry Texaco motor oil products and at all 28 Major League stadiums and more than 100 minor league parks. More than 60 million ballots will be circulated during the balloting period this spring.

The All-Star Game will be played on July 12 and telecast on NBC.

28 LANCE PAINTER LHP

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 194 B/T: L/L

Age: 26 (Turns 27 on July 21)

Born: July 21, 1967 in Bedford, England

Residence: Lakewood, CO

M.L. Service: 54 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the fourth pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the San Diego Padres, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: First action above the AA level, Painter rode a solid spring camp to a role in the starting rotation at Colorado Springs...he went 4-2 with a 2.16 ERA thru 7 starts at AAA, including a pair of complete games...he was recalled for the first time on May 17 and 2 days later made his major league debut in a start against his former organization in San Diego...he traveled 4.1 innings in a 7-3 loss to the Padres, surrendering 12 hits and 6 runs...on May 30, Painter retired 12 of the first 13 Phillies he faced, including the first 7, but he gave up 3 homers in the 5th inning and was saddled with his 2nd loss in 3 starts...he was optioned back to AAA on June 2 after giving up 26 hits and 18 earned runs in 14.1 innings...his second stint with the Rockies would be a different story, returning to the majors on August 27, with a different uniform number, caused by the acquisition of Bruce Hurst, who took the #47...this time around, with the #28 on his back, Painter earned his first major league victory on August 29 in New York, going the distance in a 6-1 win over Frank Tanana, scattering 5 hits...he also picked up a win in his next start on Sept. 4 vs. Pittsburgh, earning a 10-4 decision with 7.0 innings of work...all totaled, in his second stint of the season, Painter was 2-0 with a 2.96 ERA, allowing 8 earnies in 24.1 innings...while working in Colorado Springs, he was chosen to the AAA All-Star team that competed in Albuquerque, but he did not get in the game.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Was 10-5 with a 3.53 ERA in 27 starts for Wichita (AA) of the Texas League, fanning 137 while walking just 55 in 163.1 innings of work...opened the season winning first 3 decisions and 5 of first 7...had season-high 11 K's on July 30 in win at Arkansas...tossed complete game shutout during playoff series against Shreveport. 1991—Posted a 14-8 record with a 3.30 ERA in 28 starts at Waterloo, leading all Class A pitchers with 4 shutouts...he fanned 201 hitters in 200.0 innings, with 7 complete games, placing him 2nd in the league in each category, while his win total ranked 4th...won M.V.P. honors for Waterloo, as well as a spot on the Midwest League All-Star team. 1990—Signed as a 25th round selection of the Padres in the June draft and reported to Spokane (A)...it was his first exposure to the bullpen as a pro, appearing in 23 games, 22 of which were in relief...he went 7-3 with a 1.51 ERA, striking out 104 men and walking just 15 in 71.2 innings, a 6.9 to 1 ratio...opposing hitters managed just a .174 average against the southpaw.

PERSONAL: Lance T. Painter...he is single and now makes his off-season home in Lakewood, CO...Lance was a 1985 graduate of Nicolet (WI) H.S., where he tossed a perfect game during his senior season of baseball...from there he attended the University of Wisconsin...it was while pitching for the Badgers that he caught the eye of then-San Diego scout Al Hargesheimer, now a scout for the Rockies.

35 MARC PISCIOTTA RHP

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 240 B/T: R/R

Age: 23 (Turns 24 on August 7)

Born: August 7, 1970 in Edison, NJ

Residence: Charlotte, NC

M.L. Service: None

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: In just his 3rd professional season, Marc worked fulltime out of the bullpen, combining time between Augusta and Salem...the year started where the '92 campaign ended, in Augusta, where he made 34 relief appearances, posting a 5-2 mark with 12 saves and a 2.68 ERA...through May 30, he had pitched in 20 games, giving up just 6 earned runs in 29.0 innings for 1.86 ERA...from April 26-May 22, he posted saves in 7 of 10 trips to the hill...he was promoted to the Southern League, where at Salem he dominated in the early going, and wound up with 12 saves in 20 appearances...Pisciotta did not allow an earned run in his first 11 outings, a span of 10.0 innings while earning 6 saves...the season ended with him earning a save in both games of a doubleheader on September 3 vs. Winston-Salem.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—He spent his 2nd year in pro ball playing in Augusta, GA, just up the road from his hometown of Marietta...went 4-5 in 20 games, 12 starts, with a 4.54 ERA. 1991—Signed as a 20th round pick in the June draft by the Pirates...was 1-1, with 8 saves at Welland, allowing just 1 earned run in 34.0 innings for a sparkling 0.26 ERA.

PERSONAL: Marc George Pisciotta...he and wife, Traci, make their winter home in Charlotte, NC...a graduate of Walton High School in Marietta, Marc then remained in the Atlanta area, playing collegiately for 3 years at Georgia Tech University...he was the winning pitcher for the 1983 team from Georgia that won the Little League World Series, 3-1 over the Latin American entry in Williamsport, PA.

39 STEVE REED RHP

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 202 B/T: R/R

Age: 28

Born: March 11, 1966 in Los Angeles, CA

Residence: Arvada, CO

M.L. Service: 1 year, 14 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the fourth pick in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the San Francisco Giants, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Spending the majority of the year in the majors, Reed finished 2nd on the club in wins (9) and appearances (64)...the sidearming reliever appeared in 75 total games in '93, also pitching in 11 contests for Colorado Springs...earned his first win of the year on April 23 in Mile High Stadium in the first-ever meeting between the Rockies and Marlins, working 3.1 innings of 1-hit relief...despite that outing, Reed had compiled a 10.50 ERA through his first 11 appearances and was optioned to AAA on May 12...much like Darren Holmes' brief appearance with Colorado Springs, Reed made 11 appearances for the Sky Sox, posting 7 saves and fanning 10 in 12.1 innings of relief while not allowing an earned run...he was summoned back to Colorado on June 14 and allowed just 3 earned runs in his first 24.0 innings back in the majors from June 14-July 19, for a 1.13 ERA...the stretch included 9.2 consecutive scoreless innings over a 7-game span...Reed posted his first big league save on July 11 vs. St. Louis fanning 4 of the 6 men he faced in 2.0 innings...the roller-coaster ride continued, when Reed went through a 5-game period in which he allowed at least 1 run...that stretch was snapped when he started another scoreless string, this one of 11.0 innings over an 8-outing period from July 30-August 15...he twice pitched out of bases loaded, nobody out situations, with the Rockies posting a victory in each time...in Los Angeles on August 9, he pitched out of a sacks full jam in the 10th inning, and ended up with a 3-2 victory...then on Sept. 11 at Pittsburgh, the Rockies were clinging to a 3-2 lead, when Reed worked out of a 6th inning bases full situation and prevented any runs from crossing the plate...7 of his 9 wins took place in Mile High Stadium, but his road ERA was an impressive 1.60 (6 ER in 33.2 IP), the 5th best road ERA by an N.L. hurler with 30.0 or more road innings...he gave up just 4 runs in non-expansion stadiums, allowing 2 runs in Montreal, and 1 each in Pittsburgh and Atlanta...all of the remaining runs he surrendered came in either Mile High Stadium or Florida's Joe Robbie Stadium...he posted a 2-0 mark vs. Cincinnati, giving up just 7 hits in 10.0 innings (.194 average)...he inherited 42 baserunners, with 9 crossing the plate.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Earned Rolaids Relief Man-of-the-Year honor for the 17-league National Association (minor leagues) with 129 points, earning a combined 43 saves, breaking the previous mark of 41 by Mike Soper (1991) and Mike Perez (1987)...ranked 3rd in both the PCL and Texas League in saves, despite spending only half a season in each circuit...began the year at Shreveport (AA), posting 23 saves in 27 appearances with a 0.62 ERA (2 ER in 29.0 IP), while not walking a batter...gave up just 18 hits in 103 at bats for an average against of .175...was promoted to Phoenix on June 15 and earned saves in first 3 appearances and 8 of first 10 outings...also posted rescues in last 5 games and 12 of final 15...made major league debut on August 30 vs. Cubs...did not allow a run in first 6 big league outings...earned first major league win on October 2 at Cincinnati. 1991—Began at Shreveport, going 2-0 with a 0.83 ERA and 7 saves in 15 outings...was promoted to Phoenix on May 21...led the Firebirds in appearances with 41. 1990—Spent the entire year at Shreveport, leading the club in ERA (1.64) and ranking 3rd in appearances (45). 1989—Pitched the majority of the season for Clinton (A) appearing in 60 games, going 5-3 with a 1.05 ERA and 26 saves, while opposing hitters batted .171...named to league All-Star team...made a pair of relief appearances for San Jose at the end of the season. 1988—Signed as an undrafted free agent with the Giants on June 24 and reported to Pocatello (Rookie) for his pro debut...went 4-1 with a 2.54 ERA and 13 saves, earning Pioneer League Rolaids Relief Pitcher-of-the-Year honors...was also named to league All-Star team.

PERSONAL: Steven Vincent (Steve) Reed...he and wife, Terry, made their off-season home in Arvada, CO, and entered spring training expecting their first child in March...Steve is a graduate of Chatsworth (CA) High School and attended Lewis & Clark (ID) College.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the third pick in the third round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Atlanta Braves, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Despite opening the year on the AAA roster, Reynoso made his debut with the big league club on April 30 and ended the winningest pitcher on the staff, tying 5 past hurlers for 2nd most wins by an expansion team pitcher, just 1 victory shy of the all-time mark…he made an immediate impression, going the distance in Florida on the day of his recall, his first career complete game, posting a 6-2 win…he scattered 6 hits and 2 runs (1 earned) with 2 walks and 4 K's… his 2-2 mark and 3.32 ERA in May earned him Rookie-of-the-Month honors, with each victory a complete game…in fact, his 4 complete games on the year came in his first 5 victories…Reynoso twice recorded a career-high of 8 strikeouts, each time in route-going efforts vs. the Giants (May 10 in Denver and June 26 at San Francisco)…he became the streak stopper of the starting staff, with 11 of his 12 wins coming after a Rockies loss, and of his 7 no decisions, the Rockies eventually won 6 of those contests…the only club loss in his no decisions came in the first on May 20 at San Diego, the Padres eventually taking a 5-4, 11-inning affair…his 3-game winning streak in Sept. over Houston, Los Angeles and Cincinnati in the final homestand, matched David Nied for longest win streak by a starter…his final win of '93 came in the last home game of the year vs. Cincinnati, as he defeated the Reds, 12-7, with 70,069 looking on…Reynoso was 7-3 in his 11 Mile High Stadium starts…he led the club with 8 pickoffs, the highest total by an N.L. righthanded hurler…the victims included Bip Roberts, Tony Gwynn, Brett Butler, Gregg Jefferies, Deion Sanders, Cory Snyder, Marquis Grissom and Juan Samuel…Reynoso's first major league hit was a home run on May 10 in Denver off the Giants' Trevor Wilson…he hit a 2nd home run on August 28 in Shea Stadium off Bobby Jones, a 6th inning, 3-run shot, that propelled the Rockies to a 7-5 win…on the hill, Reynoso surrendered 22 homers, the first 14 coming with no one aboard, and a total of 19 solo shots...prior to joining the big league club, he posted a 2-1 record in 4 starts for Colorado Springs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Spent 2nd full year on the AAA level, going 12-9 with a 2.66 ERA in 28 games (27 starts) at Richmond...combined June and July for a 7-0 mark in 11 starts, allowing just 12 earned runs in 73.2 innings for a 1.47 ERA...from July 18-28, went 3 consecutive starts without allowing an earned run, a span of 22.0 innings...was promoted for the 2nd straight year to Atlanta in September, going 1-0 with a 4.70 ERA in 3 games (1 start) for the N.L. Champs. 1991—Was 10-6 with a 2.61 ERA at Richmond earning a spot on the AAA All-Star team...made 19 starts in 22 outings, firing 3 complete game shutouts...had contract purchased from Richmond on August 8 and won major league debut 3 days later with 6.0 shutout innings of 2-hit ball against Houston...also won his next start on August 16 at San Diego (7.0 IP, 6 H, 2 ER, 5 K's)...the majors got their first look at his outstanding move to 1st base, evidenced by 6 pickoffs in 4 starts from August 16-31, with 5 coming in 1st inning. 1990—Was signed by the Braves as a free agent from the Mexican League on August 15...went 3-1 in 4 games (3 starts) for Richmond with a 2.25 ERA.

MEXICAN LEAGUE: Posted a 20-3 mark and 2.60 ERA in 27 starts for Saltillo in 1990...had 12 complete games, including 5 shutouts and fanned 170 batters in 200.2 innings...tossed a 7-inning no-hitter against Monterrey...in 3 seasons for Saltillo, was a combined 44-23 with 29 complete games and 9 shutouts...teamed for 2 seasons with current Rockies' infielder Vinny Castilla.

PERSONAL: Martin Armando Reynoso (Gutierrez)...he and wife, Yolanda, have a daughter, Alejandra (11-3-89), and son, J. Armando (3-16-93) and reside in Jalisco, MX...a 1984 graduate of Escuela Secundavia Mista del Estado in his native Lagos de Moreno Jalisco , Mexico...upon graduation from high school, Armando played semi-pro baseball in Mexico until joining the Saltillo club in 1988.

Age: 30 (Turns 31 on October 4)

Born: October 4, 1963 in Lubbock, TX

Residence: Austin, TX

M.L. Service: 7 years, 5 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent to a minor league contract, December 8, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Made the club as a non-roster invitee and earned the assignment of starting the 2nd game in club history at New York, losing a 6-1 decision...he was jockeyed between starting and relief during the first couple of months, making 6 starts, going to the pen for 4 outings, then starting 6 of the next 7 games...he posted back-to-back starts on June 8 @ Pittsburgh and June 13 vs. Houston...the win over the Astros was his best performance as a starter, fanning the first 5 men he faced in the game, winding up with 8 K's over 6.2 innings in a 9-1 win...from July 1 thru the end of the year, Ruff remained in the bullpen, making 42 relief appearances, going 3-1 with 2 saves and a 2.40 ERA in that span, limiting opposing hitters to a .208 average...a weird "break" made him almost unhittable after August 18...on that night, he was nailed on the left foot by a line drive off the bat of Philly's Darren Daulton...thru that date, Ruff had a 4.77 ERA with a 4-5 ledger and no saves...after suffering a fractured toe on the play, he finished the year by going 1-0 with 2 saves and a 1.25 ERA spanning 43 men in 36.0 innings...immediately following the injury, he retired 18 consecutive men and did not give up a hit in his next 10.0 innings of action...he established a club record with 16.0 consecutive scoreless innings from August 23-Sept. 9...his save on Sept. 11 vs. Pittsburgh was Ruff's 1st since July 31, 1988 vs. Chicago...his 2nd save of the year was one of the most dominating pitching performances by a Rockies' hurler all year...in the 1st game of a doubleheader vs. Houston on Sept. 14 in Mile High, he went 4.0 innings of relief, with 9 of the 12 outs coming via the strikeout...that relief stint established a club record for K's in a game and tied his all-time best that was set twice previously, each time as a starter...his 8.11 K's per 9-innings was the best ratio on the staff, as he set a career-high with 126 strikeouts, breaking his previous best of 93 set in 1987 with Philly, despite pitching 65.0 fewer innings in '93...he did not allow an ER in 19 of his last 22 outings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—His only American League action witnessed a 1-6 mark and 6.67 ERA in 25 games (6 starts) for Milwaukee...the lone win was on April 8, a 9-5 triumph over Minnesota...after 21 games with Brewers, was 1-3 with 6.65 ERA then sent to Denver on July 1...pitched well for the Zephyrs, going 2-0 with a 1.25 ERA in 3 starts, including a streak of 16.0 straight shutout innings at the time of his recall on August 5 back to Milwaukee...his best outing for the Brewers came 7 days later in Anaheim, though a 2-1 loss, he went all the way allowing 4 hits and 2 runs while tying a career best with 9 K's...dropped 3 straight decisions and was optioned back to Denver on August 31...won his only start after return to AAA finishing season with a 3-0 mark and 1.94 ERA in 4 starts. 1991—Was traded to the Brewers on December 11 in exchange for infielder Dale Sveum...began the season at Scranton-Wilkes Barre, going 4-5 in 13 starts, with a complete game...was recalled to Philadelphia on June 8, making 5 straight relief appearances...had an emergency start on June 21 vs. Houston and went 8.0 innings allowing 3 hits and no runs for a combined shutout, earning 2 month stint in rotation...he tossed 3rd career shutout on July 20 at San Diego, allowing just 2 hits while fanning 6. 1990—Was used as a starter in 25 of 32 appearances...struggled through 6-game losing streak...established career-high with 9 strikeouts on June 5 at St. Louis. 1989—Made 23 starts (24 outings) for Phils, going 6-10 with a 4.44 ERA...was sent to Scranton-Wilkes Barre after just 2 starts, but went 5-1 in AAA and was recalled on June 2. 1988—Began the year in the starting rotation for Philly, but after 15 outings was moved to the bullpen...finished with a career-high 55 appearances and the first 3 saves of his pro career. 1987—Set career highs in wins (11), starts (35), innings (204.2) and K's (93). 1986—Was tied for the Eastern League lead in wins (8) and ranked 2nd in strikeouts (68) when he was brought up by the Phils on June 24 to replace Steve Carlton in the rotation...made major league debut 4 days later in St. Louis...first big league win came on July 3 vs. Cincinnati before a crowd of over 60,000 at The Vet...Phillies were 15-6 in his 21 starts...finished 9-4 with 6 complete games and was named the starting pitcher on TOPPS Rookie team. 1985—Signed as a 2nd round choice by the Phillies in the June draft...was a compensation pick for Pittsburgh's signing of Sixto Lezcano...went 5-5 in 14 starts at Clearwater with a 2.88 ERA.

PERSONAL: Bruce Wayne Ruffin...he and wife, Melissa, have two sons, Chance (9-8-88) and Hunter (7-8-91), and reside in Austin, TX...a graduate of J.M. Hanks H.S. in El Paso, TX, lettering in baseball and football...then attended the University of Texas (Austin), where he was a member of the 1983 College World Series champions, teaming with future major leaguers Roger Clemens and Calvin Schiraldi...he was also a member of the 1984 & '85 teams that fell went to Omaha, but fell short of winning the title...Ruff joined teammate Howard Johnson and manager Don Baylor on a leg of the Winter Caravan, traveling through Colorado, Utah and Arizona.

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 202 B/T: R/R

Age: 32 (Turns 33 on August 2)

Born: August 2, 1961 in Jacksonville, FL

Residence: Mt. Airy, NC

M.L. Service: 1 year, 107 days

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: The epitomy of patience, Sheaffer made 12 years of toiling in the minor leagues payoff in 1993, spending the entire year with the major league club and becoming a major contributor to the Rockies first-year success...he entered the year with just 107 major league days of service, getting part-time duty with Boston and Cleveland, but in '93 he appeared in 82 games for the Rockies, batting .278 with 4 homers and 32 RBI...when he started behind the plate on April 15 vs. the Mets, it was his first appearance in the majors since July 7, 1989, at Seattle when he was with the Indians...his first homer as a Rockie occurred on May 20 at San Diego off Kerry Taylor, Sheaffer's first long ball in the bigs since April 9, 1987, when he homered off Milwaukee's Mike Birkbeck in his 2nd major league at bat...Sheaffer had a 7-game hitting streak from June 15-26, hitting .333 (9-for-27) in that span with 4 runs scored and 8 driven in...his most memorable individual day was June 23 vs. Cincinnati, when he and Vinny Castilla each established a club record by driving in 5 runs apiece...he hit a game-winning homer off St. Louis' Lee Smith on July 9, capping a 3-run, 9th inning rally, as the Rockies took a 5-4 decision in Busch Stadium...he was a .340 hitter in July (17-for-50) with 2 homers and 10 RBI in 19 games...Sheaffer posted a pair of 8-game hitting streaks late in the year, August 6-21 and August 30-Sept. 20...his playing time diminished after mid-August, when Joe Girardi returned from the D.L...Danny closed the year by hitting .318 (7-for-22) in the final month... behind the plate, he tossed out 13 of 37 (35%) potential base thieves, including 7 of the last 14.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Playing for Portland (AAA), he recovered from a slow start (.222 in April) to hit .342 over the next 2 months raising his season mark to .316...hit safely in 13 of 16 games in early-May, with 10 of those being multiple-hit efforts...had similar stretch in June, hitting safely in 18 of 20 games...played 3 different positions, catching the majority of the time, but also seeing action in the outfield and at first base. 1991—Proved his versatility in '91, playing behind the plate, at first base, the outfield and third base...finished with a .303 mark in 93 games...had a 5-for-5 contest on August 26 vs. Calgary. 1989—His second brief stint in the majors occurred in '89, appearing in 7 games for the Indians, going just 1-for-16. 1987— Danny appeared in 25 contests for Boston, going 8-for-66 at the plate during his first taste of big league duty after 6 seasons in the minors...his major league debut came on April 9, 1987, at Milwaukee, picking up a single in first at bat off Mike Birkbeck...Sheaffer then homered next time up vs. Mike Birkbeck.

PERSONAL: Danny T. Sheaffer...he and wife, LaDonna, have a son, Daniel Jordan (7-17-90) and reside in Mt. Airy, NC...Danny was a 1979 graduate of Redland High School in Lewisberry, PA, where he was the school MVP in baseball, while earning All-State honors...he then attended Clemson University, playing baseball for 2 seasons, which included a trip to the College World Series in 1980...Danny was originally signed by the Boston Red Sox in 1981, while his brother, Jeff, played in the Montreal chain in 1986..."Sheaff" joined teammate Kent Bottenfield, and coach, Gene Glynn on a tour through Wyoming, Nebraska, South Dakota, Montana and Colorado, as part of the 2nd annual Rockies' Winter Caravan last January.

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 197 B/T: R/R

Age: 26

Born: January 21, 1968 in Wabash, IN Residence: Wabash, IN

M.L. Service: 80 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the twelfth pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Philadelphia Phillies, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Opened the season at Colorado Springs, but was given an opportunity to perform on the big league level at mid-season, spending 1 1/2 months on the roster...he was recalled from the Sky Sox on May 31, after posting a 3-2 record and 3.52 ERA in 17 relief appearances at AAA, including 5 saves...he had a feast or famine stint with the Rockies, not allowing a run through his first 6 relief appearances, limiting the opposition to a .122 batting average (5-for-41),

While earning a win and a save...the win was at home on June 12, an inning of relief in a 14-11 triumph over the Astros, while the rescue occurred 4 days earlier in Pittsburgh, when he pitched 4.0 innings of hitless relief in a 4-1 Colorado win...unfortunately, a visit to Denver by the L.A. Dodgers reversed Shepherd's mound fortunes and disrupted the remainder of his major league stint in '93... He was finally touched for 3 earned run on June 15 against L.A., then the next night, did not retire a man, surrendering 3 runs on 3 hits...prior to his departure from the game, both teams got together on the field and for Shepherd's part in the ruckus, he was hit with a 7-day suspension...upon his return to action, things did not get much better, as he was tagged for 9 earned runs over his next 6 outings (5.2 innings), and was returned to Colorado Springs on July 16...his struggles continued at AAA, giving up 29 earned runs in his last 22.2 frames.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—After never working above Class A in 6 seasons, he completed the climb by starting at Birmingham (AA) in the Chicago chain, and finishing the year in the big leagues with the Phillies...went 3-3 with 7 saves and a 2.14 ERA in 40 relief appearances at Birmingham, while the opposition managed just a .195 average...pitched in Southern League All-Star Game...was traded to Philadelphia for infielder Dale Sveum on August 10 and reported to Reading (AA)...appeared in 4 games at Reading, 3 starts, going 0-1 with a 2.78 ERA, then had contract purchased by Phillies for first major league duty...went 1-1 in 12 relief appearances, picking up a pair of saves...first big league win was September 8 at The Vet against the Mets with 3.0 relief innings...first save was 6 days later against the Expos with 2.0 scoreless innings. 1991—Started year at South Bend, going 1-2 with a 0.51 ERA and 10 saves in 31 games...fanned 38 in 35.1 innings, while hitters compiled a .145 average against him...went to Sarasota and posted 1-1 ledger in 18 games with 2 saves and 2.72 ERA. 1990—Pitched in relief for 24 games at Watertown, going 3-3 with a 2.48 ERA...went to Reno and started 5 games, going 1-4 with a 5.40 ERA. 1989—Used as a starter at Baseball City, going 1-7 in 11 games (10 starts)...moved to Kinston and was 1-2 with a 2.86 ERA in 8 games (2 starts). 1988—Was 7-3 in 16 starts for Augusta, then went 2-3 in 8 games (5 starts) at Salem. 1987—Posted a 5-2 mark in 17 games (13 starts) at Watertown...had only professional shutout during the year. 1986—Made pro debut at Bradenton (Rookie) and went 0-4 in 8 games (2 starts).

PERSONAL: Keith Wayne Shepherd...he and wife, Adriann reside in Wabash, IN...he was originally the 11th round choice of Pittsburgh in the 1986 June draft...he was later signed as a free agent by the Chicago White Sox organization prior to the start of the 1991 season.

11 DARRELL SHERMAN OF

Ht: 5-9 Wt: 160 B/T: L/L

Age: 26 (Turns 27 on December 4)

Born: December 4, 1967 in Los Angeles, CA

Residence: Lynwood, CA

M.L. Service: 49 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired on waivers from the San Diego Padres, November 18, 1993.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Opened the season on the major league roster with San Diego as an extra outfielder...he was used sparingly, starting in 13 of the 37 games he played...was hitting .222 on May 22, and was optioned to Las Vegas (AAA), where he remained for the rest of the season...played in 82 games for the Stars, hitting .265, playing centerfield the majority of the time...Sherman doubled in his first major league at bat on April 8 at Pittsburgh, his only extra-base hit with San Diego...unfortunately, he picked up just 2 more hits over his next 13 at bats, a span of 14 games, before going 2-for-4 in a start at Shea Stadium on April 24...after his option to AAA, Sherman swiped 20 bases in 30 attempts, including 15 of his first 19 tries...he didn't put together any extended hitting streaks, but from July 16-August 5, he did hit safely in 15 of 17 contests at a .296 clip (20-for-67).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—The year began with him in spring training with the Orioles, as he was selected in the Rule V draft from San Diego...he was returned to the Padres on March 27, when he did not make the 25-man Baltimore roster...wound up splitting time between Las Vegas (AAA) and Wichita (AA), combining the 2 classes for an overall average of .307 with 52 stolen bases...hit .332 with 60 runs scored in 64 games at Wichita, swiping 26 bases (33 attempts)...despite participating in just 64 games, he earned team MVP honors...at AAA, he was a .286 hitter, stealing 26 bases in 71 games...had a 15-game hitting streak with Las Vegas, after putting together 14 & 12 games streaks with Wichita...finished the year with 21 outfield assists, including 14 with Las Vegas.

991—The toughest player to strikeout in both AA & AAA, fanning just once every 21.1 AB's with Wichita...he was on base in 114 of 126 starts, including 49 of the first 51 games...from May 30 thru the end of the year, he batted .311...hit 1st pro home run on August 17 vs. El Paso, snapping a streak of 1,189 at bats without going deep...he then homered again the next day and hit his 3rd 3 days later. 990—Finished 2nd in the California League in stolen bases with 74, ranked 3rd in runs (97) and 5th walks (89), while playing for Riverside...was named the league All-Star team, then got 1st taste of AAA, playing in 4 games. 1989—Signed as a 6th round pick in the June draft and led the Northwest League in runs (70) and stolen bases (58) while playing for Spokane...the theft total was the 5th highest season total in league history.

PERSONAL: Darrell Edward Sherman...he and wife, Kelly, were married during the recent off-season and make their home in Lynwood, CA...he is a graduate of Lynwood High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and football...he then attended Cerritos Junior College in 1987-88, teaming with Pittsburgh's Brian Hunter and the Marlins' Bret Barbarie...Sherman then attended Long Beach State, where in 1989 he was named team MVP, swiping 39 bases in 43 attempts and batted .370 to help his club earn a berth in the NCAA College World Series in Omaha, NE.

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 224 B/T: R/R

Age: 26

Born: January 27, 1968 in Ft. Wayne, IN

Residence: Tucson, AZ

M.L. Service: 1 year, 36 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the eleventh pick in the second round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Boston Red Sox, November 17, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: A frustrating year for the rookie catcher, who was still attempting his comeback from off-season elbow surgery...the original operation took place in November, 1992, but he had to have a bone spur removed from the right elbow during spring training that further delayed his progress...his rehabilitation assignments began in Central Valley (A) on May 28, where he hit .304 in 6 games with 3 homers and 11 RBI, including a grand slam...he was transferred to Colorado Springs on June 3, but was forced back on the disabled list on June 17...when activated off the D.L., Wedge was optioned to Colorado Springs where he appeared in 38 games for the Sky Sox, getting work both behind the plate and at 1st base...he joined the Rockies for the first time on September 6, and made his first appearance 11 days later, delivering a pinch-hit single off the Dodgers' John DeSilva...used primarily in that role, going 2-for-8, he did make one start behind the plate...his lone RBI with the Rockies was a pinch-hit single off Cincy's Bobby Ayala on September 24.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Began season at Pawtucket (AAA), hitting .299 in 65 games with 11 homers and 40 RBI...he was promoted to the Red Sox on August 19, appearing in 27 games, but only 5 behind the plate due to an injured right elbow...was productive at the plate, mainly as a D.H. during his brief big league exposure, hitting 5 homers and driving in 11...started as D.H. on August 21 at Fenway Park and hit a 2-run homer off Seattle's Shawn Barton...made first start at catcher the next day, going 2-for-2 with 2 walks and 2 runs scored...4 of his 5 homers came off left-handed pitchers...had surgery to repair right elbow during off-season. 1991—Injury riddled season that saw him play for 4 different clubs...started at Pawtucket, hitting just .138 in first 22 games, but was bothered by strained muscle in right forearm...was moved to New Britain (AA) and appeared in 2 games before injuring right knee that required surgery...after returning from disabled list, went to Winter Haven on a rehab assignment appearing in 8 games...was moved back to Pawtucket on July 21 and hit .286 in final 31 games...had contract purchased by Red Sox on Sept. 17 and made first major league appearance as a pinch hitter on October 5, singling off Milwaukee's Chris George. 1990—Caught 103 games at New Britain, hitting .227 with 5 homers and 47 RBI...hit grand slam on August 9 in Williamsport. 1989—Signed with the Red Sox as a third round choice in the June draft...started the short season at Elmira (A), hitting .234 in 41 games with 7 homers and 22 RBI...was promoted to New Britain and caught 14 games...highlight of year was a home run on July 24 when playing for Boston in the Hall of Fame game in Cooperstown.

PERSONAL: Eric Michael Wedge...he is single and spent the off-season living in Tucson, AZ...he was an '86 graduate of Northrop H.S in Ft. Wayne, IN...then attended Wichita State University (1987-89), hitting .380 in 83 games during his senior season as W.S.U. went 68-16 and won the College World Series...led the NCAA in walks (88) and total bases (106), finished 2nd in RBI (99), runs scored (98) and tied for 2nd in homers (23)...was one of 9 finalists for the '89 Golden Spikes Award...named 1st team All-America by Collegiate Baseball, and 2nd team All-America by Baseball America...also honored as the Missouri Valley Conference Player-of-the-Year.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Enjoyed his first completely healthy year since 1988, playing in all but 4 games for the Marlins...a 2nd inning triple off L.A.'s Orel Hershiser in the first game in club history (April 5), was the first extra-base hit and drove in the first 2 runs in team history...he also had the Marlins first sacrifice fly on April 17 at Houston...while starting 149 games, the most in his career, Weiss established career bests in hits (133) and walks (79)...the walk total ranked 10th in the N.L., with 13 of them intentional, 4th most in the league...he was the 5th toughest hitter to double up, hitting into just 5 DP's in 500 AB's (1 every 100.0)...only N.L. homer came in Wrigley Field on June 14 vs. Jose Guzman...he was hitting .300 as late as June 27, but fell into a 15-for-80 slide that dropped his season mark considerably...May was his best month, hitting .333 (28-for-84) with 5 doubles, a triple, 5 RBI and 12 walks...collected his 500th career hit on August 21, a single off the Giants' Scott Sanderson in Candlestick Park...defensively, he ranked 2nd behind Gold Glove winner Jay Bell of Pittsburgh in fielding pct. among shortstops with a .977 mark (15 errors in 650 total chances)...from June 22-Sept. 3, a stretch of 64 games, Weiss committed just 3 errors in 238 chances.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Missed the first 51 games of the year with Oakland due to a strained rib cage muscle that occurred during an exhibition game in the final week of spring training...after a 4-game rehab stint at Tacoma, he tripled vs. Boston in his first big league at bat of the season...was a .300 hitter in first 40 at bats after his return, hitting safely in 8 of 10 games...ended up starting 96 of the A's final 111 games...had a 20-game errorless streak form June 22-July 16, a span of 92 total chances...was 1-for-6 (.167) with a run and 2 stolen bases in the ALCS vs. Toronto. 1991—Appeared in 40 games during the first 2+ months of the season, but on June 6, he tore ligaments in his left ankle while running out a ground ball in Oakland, sidelining Weiss for the remainder of the season...had a career-best 9-game hitting streak from May 7-16, batting .400. 1990—Appeared in 138 games for the Athletics, establishing then career highs in runs (50), hits (118), walks (46) and stolen bases (9)...his post-season activity was cut short, when in the 2nd game of the ALCS, he collided with current teammate, Ellis Burks, while attempting to turn a double play at Fenway Park...he suffered minor cartilage damage to his left knee that was arthroscopically repaired on October 22...on the year, Weiss committed just 12 errors in 137 games at shortstop, 3 fewer than his Rookie-of-the-Year season in 1988. 1989—As was the case the in '90, turning the double play caused his first career knee injury in 1989...he was injured on May 17 vs. the Yankees, forcing a June 2 operation to repair the problem...after missing 65 games due to the surgery, he returned to the lineup on July 31, and shared time at short with Mike Gallego...homered twice in a game on April 5 vs. Seattle...started 3 of the 5 games of the ALCS vs. Toronto, going 1-for-9...was the starting shortstop in all 4 World Series contests against the Giants, belting his 1st post-season homer in Game #1 in Oakland. 1988—Selected both the BBWAA and The Sporting News American League Rookie-of-the-Year...committed just 15 errors as the everyday shortstop, including 1 after July 8...had a streak of 58 consecutive errorless games from July 9-September 20...hit 1st big league homer on May 15 at Baltimore off Mark Williamson...added only career grand slam to date on July 10 at Detroit off Mike Trujillo...was a .250 hitter on the year, but .281 after August 1...was a .333 hitter (5-for-15) vs. Boston in his 1st ALCS, driving in the winning run with a single off Lee Smith at Fenway Park in Game #2...struggled in the World Series vs. the Dodgers, going 1-for-16. 1987—Opened the year at AA, but found himself in the majors on July 12, filling in for the injured Tony Phillips...made big league debut that day, but was caught stealing in a pinch running role...was returned to minors and remained until September roster expansion...picked up 1st big league hit on September 26 vs. Chicago...started the last 8 games of the season due to injury to Alfredo Griffin, committing 1 error in 39 chances...was hitting .285 with 23 stolen bases at Huntsville (AA) at the time of his brief recall to the majors...was optioned to Tacoma after quick big league visit, hitting .263 in 46 games. 1986—Opened the year at Madison (A), hitting .301 in 84 games, then was promoted to AA, and hit .250 in 46 games at Huntsville. 1985—Split the year at both Pocatello and Modesto after being the A's first selection in the June draft, the 11th overall player taken...hit .310 in 40 contests at Pocatello, but just .197 in 30 games at Modesto.

PERSONAL: Walter William (Walt) Weiss...he and wife, Terri, have a son, Blake (12-18-86) and make their off-season home in Danville, CA...Walt was a 1982 graduate of Suffern High (NY), then became a Tar Heel, playing baseball at the University of North Carolina...he switched his uniform number from #7 to #22, because he was a childhood fan of former Miami Dolphin, Mercury Morris...by joining the Rockies, he is the first player to play for the 2 most recent National League expansion entries.

M.L. Service: 1 years, 67 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected as the sixth choice in the first round of the major league baseball expansion draft from the Los Angeles Dodgers, November 17, 1993.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: The first batter in club history, Young was the starting 2nd baseman on Opening Day in New York, grounding out on a bunt attempt off the Mets' Dwight Gooden…E.Y. erased the memory of that first at bat on the road with one of the more memorable moments of the first season of major league baseball in Denver…leading off the bottom of the first inning in Mile High Stadium in the first home game, Young hammered a 3-2 pitch from then-Expo hurler Kent Bottenfield, over the fence in left-center, bringing the record crowd of 80,227 to its collective feet…he was on base 5 times in the home opener, going 4-for-4 with a walk, and quickly established a club record with 4 runs scored in the 11-4 win over Montreal…oddly enough, he would not homer again until the final home game of the season, when on Sept. 26, he hit roundtrippers in consecutive at bats off Cincinnati's Johnny Ruffin and Scott Service…Young opened the year as the everyday 2nd baseman, but the emergence of rookie Roberto Mejia forced E.Y. to move to the outfield after the All-Star break, a position he played while at Rutgers University…he finished the season strong at the plate, hitting safely in 18 of the last 20 games at a .400 clip (30-for-75) with 17 runs scored and 13 RBI…he put together a career-best 12-game hitting streak from Sept. 9-22, hitting .449 (22-for-49), including a 4-hit game vs. San Diego on Sept. 22, his first 4-hit effort since the home opener…he also reached base safely in 12 consecutive plate appearances (8 hits and 4 walks) from Sept. 19-24, with the streak ending on a sacrifice fly…his 42 stolen bases on the year marked the 3rd highest total by an expansion player behind the Marlins' Chuck Carr and former K.C. Royal Pat Kelly...Young scored 82 runs, the 5th best total of an expansion player, matching Roman Mejias' total with the 1962 Colt 45's...he tied Charlies Hayes' club record with 3 steals in a game on Sept. 19 vs. Los Angeles...E.Y. had a 9-game hitting streak from May 8-18, batting .385 (15-for-39)...he was the 6th toughest hitter to strike-out in the N.L., fanning just once every 13.8 plate appearances...he committed 15 errors in 74 games at 2nd base, but after the move to the outfield, made 3 miscues in 47 starts...he started 8 games in centerfield and 39 in left.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Started the year at Albuquerque, hitting .337 in 94 games with 61 runs scored and 28 stolen bases...in 4 minor league seasons, he totaled 215 stolen bases, an average of 53.8 per season...his first taste of major league action came on July 30, going 2-for-4 in his debut against San Diego, a 6-5 Dodger victory...posted first 3-hit game on August 15 vs. S.F....it was also against the Giants he hit the first home run of his career, a Sept. 18 clout off Buddy Black...Young was 6-for-7 in stolen bases after joining the Dodgers...he also proved to be a contact hitter, fanning 9 times in 132 AB's, or once in every 14.7 at bats...in 23 games during September, Eric batted .375 (21-for-56), including a 6-game streak in which he hit .524 (11-for-21). 1991—Had an excellent year at San Antonio, leading all of AA, the Dodger minor leaguers with 71 stolen bases, a total that was good for 4th among all minor league players...he led his club in runs scored (82) and hits (129), while tying for the lead in walks (67)...had an RBI single in the AA All-Star Game...after the AA season, he appeared in one game at Albuquerque, going 2-for-5. 1990—Set a Vero Beach record with 75 stolen bases in leading his club to the Florida State League title...finished the year with a .287 mark and 101 runs scored...he led the team in runs, hits (132), doubles (23) and triples (7). 1989—Batted .330 for Kissimmee and stole 41 bases in 56 games...was the team leader in stolen bases, hits (65) and walks (33).

PERSONAL: Eric Young...he has a son, Eric, Jr....E.Y. spent a majority of this past winter in Denver...he is a graduate of Rutgers University, where he was an all-conference player and team MVP...E.Y. was also a member of the football team while attending Rutgers...Eric attended New Brunswick (NJ) H.S., earning all-state honors in baseball, football and basketball...for the second straight off-season, E.Y. traveled the region as part of the Rockies' Winter Caravan, joining Steve Reed and Walt Weiss on a tour through Colorado.

1994 NON-ROSTER INVITEES

6 JASON BATES INF

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 170 B/T: S/R

Age: 23

Born: January 5, 1971 in Downey, CA

Residence: Norwalk, CA

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a 7th round selection in the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: It was a weird, but prosperous year for the second year pro from the University of Arizona...he was not originally on the list of invitees to spring training, but with an abundance of early injuries to infielders, he was asked to report to Tucson prior to the opening of minor league camp...he parlayed that invitation into a .304 exhibition average, with an on-base pct. of .467 in 10 games...instead of going to Central Valley, where he was originally slated to go, Bates found himself on the AAA club in Colorado Springs for the entire season...it was a rollercoaster ride offensively for the young shortstop, hitting above the .300 mark in April, June and August, but in May and July, his average hovered near the .200 mark...he closed the year by batting .330 in August, with 14 RBI...all totaled, Bates hit .267 in 122 games, playing 112 of those at shortstop, and 7 contests at 2nd base...he also accomplished a feat that will sit well with Rockies' manager Don Baylor, as Bates led the PCL in being hit by pitches with 10.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Signed from the first June draft that the Rockies participated in, Bates had a solid year at Bend, OR, hitting .286 in 70 games, while working as the everyday shortstop...he led all Northwest League shortstops in fielding and earned a spot on the All-Star squad...he was named by Baseball America as the 7th best prospect in the league.

PERSONAL: Jason Charles Bates...he was a 1989 graduate of Esperanza H.S. in Anaheim, CA, then played collegiately at the University of Arizona in Tucson, just a couple of miles from the spring training site of the Rockies.

55 JORGE BRITO C

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 190 B/T: R/R

Age: 27 (Turns 28 on June 22)

Born: June 22, 1966 in Moncion, DR

Residence: Athens, AL

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 3, 1992.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Jorge had a very brief stint with Huntsville (AA) in the Oakland chain in '93, missing the majority of the year with a broken hand...the injury occurred prior to the start of the season, and he did not see his first action until June 23...he was used primarily as a designated hitter, getting behind the plate late in one game...he would up batting .278 (10-for-36) in 18 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Brito has had an 8-year minor league playing career that encompassed virtually every stop in the Athletics' organization, except Oakland...it began in 1986 at Medford, where he was for 2 years, then traveled to Modesto, Tacoma, Huntsville, and Madison ...his best year at the plate was the '90 season at Huntsville, where he batted .268 in 57 games.

PERSONAL: Jorge Manuel Brito...he and wife, Wendy, have a daughter, Ana (6/3/91) and reside in Athens, AL...a native of the Dominican Republic, he was a 1985 graduate of Academia La Trimitaria in Santo Domingo.

38 JOHN BURKE RHP

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 215 B/T: S/R

Age: 24

Born: February 9, 1970 in Durango, CO

Residence: Highlands Ranch, CO

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a first round selection of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: John's second year as a professional began in Central Valley, where he posted a deceptive 7-8 record, because despite being sub-.500 in record, he tied for 2nd in the California League in ERA (3.18) and ranked 3rd in strikeouts (114), though he left for AAA with a month to go in the season...his work with the Class-A Rockies did not go unnoticed, because he was named to the league All-Star team, and was selected by Baseball America as the top prospect in the California League...his best strikeout stretch was in consecutive starts against Bakersfield on June 30 & July 5, when he fanned 12 men in a complete-game effort on the road, then came back with 11 K's in a 7.0 inning no decision...he shined in his AAA debut at Vancouver on July 30, resulting in a win over the Canadians...Burke went 6.0 scoreless innings allowing just 2 hits and a walk with 8 strikeouts...he followed that outing with 7.0 innings of 4-hit, 1-run work at Colorado Springs vs. Tucson, though he was not involved in the decision...his year ended with back-to-back wins at home over Phoenix and at Las Vegas, working 8.0 and 7.0 innings, respectively.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: It was a storybook beginning for the young righthander, drafted by his hometown major league club in the first round of the 1992 June draft, but it took a while for the story to unfold...Burke was sidelined for the first few weeks of his pro career with a sore pitching arm, but he managed 10 starts at Bend (OR), going 2-0 with a 2.41 ERA...a home run in his pro debut on July 3, was the only tally he surrendered in his first 18.0 innings of work, a span of 5 starts...he was limited to just 5.0 innings in any outing to protect the arm.

PERSONAL: John C. Burke...he and wife, Elizabeth, reside in Highlands Ranch, CO...the first-ever choice in the June draft, Burke played collegiately at the University of Florida, where he left as the all-time strikeout leader with 305 in 260.1 innings...he was originally selected in the first round of the 1991 draft by Houston, but declined to sign and returned to the Gators...he was a 1989 graduate of Cherry Creek High School in Englewood, CO.

12 JACK DAUGHERTY INF-OF

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 190 B/T: S/L

Age: 33 (Turns 34 on July 3)

Born: July 3, 1960 in Hialeah, FL

Residence: San Diego, CA

M.L. Service: 4 years, 44 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, January 7, 1994.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Daugherty wore a trio of uniforms during the '93 season, starting with Tucson of the PCL and finishing the year with the Cincinnati Reds...he appeared in 15 games for the Toros, and was hitting .417 while playing 1st base...the Astros brought him to the majors, where he appeared in just 5 games, then was returned to Tucson...though he did not keep up a .400 average, Daugherty was hitting .390 at the time he joined the Reds...he wound up playing in 46 games for Cincy, appearing in 28 of those as a pinch hitter...when in the lineup, he played in the outfield, and in 16 games in the lineup, he was a .345 hitter (10-for-29)...his lone 2 homers while with the Reds came in successive games at Riverfront Stadium, July 18 vs. Florida, and the next night vs. the Cubs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Signed originally as a free agent in 1983 by the Oakland A's, Daugherty makes the Rockies his 6th organization...he has had several stints with big league clubs, but an assortment of injuries have prevented him from full-time duty...in 1992 with the Rangers, he suffered a strained ligament in the right thumb that forced D.L. time beginning on June 1...he was involved in an oddity on Sept. 25 vs. Seattle, getting a putout in all 3 outfield positions, despite not entering the 16-inning game until the 9th...on 3 different occasions in 1991, Daugherty fell victim to aches and pains...it started with strained ligaments in his left index finger in spring training that carried over into the early portion of the regular season...he returned to action and was seeing playing time until a collision with infielder Jeff Huson on June 4 in KC, forced Daugherty to return to the D.L. with a bruised left thigh and right hip...after 3 rehab games at Oklahoma City in late-June, he was reactivated on June 22 in Chicago and the next day it was determined that it just wasn't going to be his year, as he suffered from appendicitis and underwent an appendectomy on June 24, thus returning to the D.L....he returned to Okla. City for a rehab assignment in August and was activated by the Rangers on Sept. 1...Daugherty played in more games in 1990 than any other big league year, appearing in 125 games for Texas...he led the A.L. in pinch-hit appearances (55) and pinch-hit at bats (45), established club records...he finished the year with a .300 average, and became the first Ranger to hit .300 in consecutive seasons (100 or more at bats) since Al Oliver in 1980-81...Daugherty had the only multiple-homer game of his career on July 8, going deep on successive at bats off Boston's Roger Clemens and Jeff Reardon, also snapping a personal streak of 91 homerless games...in 1987, he was named to the AAA All-Star team, while playing 1st base for Indianapolis and hitting .312 in 117 games...he also got his first taste of big league action, a brief 11-game stint with Montreal, where he was used exclusively as a pinch hitter...first major league hit came off Chicago's Greg Maddux on October 2...was the Florida State League Player-of-the-Year in 1985, hitting .316 in 133 games at West Palm Beach, including a league leading 87 RBI...had an exceptional year in 1984, leading the Pioneer league in batting (.402), runs (77), hits (104), doubles (26) and RBI (82), while playing for Helena.

PERSONAL: John Michael (Jack) Daugherty...Tucson is no stranger to him during spring training, because he played collegiately at the University of Arizona for 2 seasons, leaving with a .343 career average...prior to that, he played for 2 years at Mesa College in San Diego, earning 2nd team all-conference in 1980...played baseball and basketball at Kearny High School in suburban San Diego, graduating in 1978...Daugherty was the 1991 recipient of the Harold McKinney Good Guy Award from the Dallas-Ft. Worth chapter of the BBWAA.

1 TRENT HUBBARD OF

Ht: 5-8 Wt: 180 B/T: R/R

Age: 27 (Turns 28 on May 11)

Born: May 11, 1966 in Chicago, IL

Residence: Houston, TX

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Re-signed as a free agent, December 3, 1993.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Went to spring training as an invitee in the first Rockies camp, and wound up on the AAA roster in Colorado Springs...started slowly at the plate, hitting just .204 on May 3, but turned up the heat and went on a 9-game hitting streak that was just a preface of the offensive output to come...from May 7 through the end of the year, Hubbard would never go more than 2 straight games without getting a hit, and only on 5 occasions in the final 97 contests, would his slump consist of 2 games...he was a .412 hitter in part-time play in June (21-for-51), but in July, hit .339 (39-for-115) in regular duty...in a 4-game series at home vs. Tacoma (July 4-7), he went 10-for-19 (.526), with 7 runs scored, 2 doubles, a homer and 6 RBI...his season ended with a 15-game hitting streak alive in which he batted .429 (27-for-63), with 6 doubles, 2 triples, 2 homers, 12 runs scored and 12 driven in...a true utility man, Hubbard played 95 games in the outfield, 8 at 2nd base, at 3rd base and a game at shortstop.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Started the '92 season in a part-time role, but wound up the every-day 2nd baseman for Tucson, the AAA club for Houston, hitting .310 on the season, with a .297 or better average in 5 of the 6 months...had only 70 at bats through May, but began playing regularly the next month and took advantage, hitting .336 in a 28-game span...he had a pair of 12-game hitting streaks during the season...during his first 3 seasons as a pro (1986-88), he was the team MVP each year...his 39 thefts during the 1991 season were 3rd most in the Houston minor league chain.

PERSONAL: Trent Hubbard...he and wife, Angela, make their off-season home in Houston, TX...a native of Chicago, IL, he was a graduate of South Shore High School...he then attended Southern University in Baton Rouge, LA, majoring in Business Management, while playing baseball...while playing college baseball, he was in the middle of a dramatic division clinching play against arch-rival Grambling University...with none out in the 9th inning and Southern clinging to a 2-1 lead, Grambling had runners on 1st and 3rd...the next hitter hit a line drive to Hubbard at 3rd base, who caught it, stepped on the bag and fired to 1st to complete a game-ending, division-clinching triple play...Hubbard is a cousin for former Buffalo Bills all-pro running back, Joe Cribbs.

33 CHRIS JONES OF

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 205 B/T: R/R

Age: 28 (Turns 29 on December 16)

Born: December 16, 1965 in Utica, NY

Residence: Cedar Rapids, IA

M.L. Service: 1 year, 163 days

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Came to spring training as a non-roster invitee and opened the regular season in Colorado Springs...batted .280 with 12 homers and a .583 slugging pct. in 46 games at AAA, and had his contract purchased by the Rockies when Dale Murphy retired in May...Jones was the first Rockie to have a pair of 2-homer games, the 1st coming on June 6 in Philly, taking Curt Schilling and Tim Mauser deep on consecutive plate appearances...he duplicated the feat on June 22 vs. Cincinnati, homering off John Smiley and Milton Hill, again on consecutive trips to the plate...all 4 of those homers were 2-run shots and gave Jones a career-best 4 RBI in each game...had a flair for the dramatic against a trio of the top relievers in the league during a 7-day period in July...it began on July 3, when Jones capped a 3-run 9th inning rally off Chicago's Randy Myers with a game-winning hit, then followed that 4 days later by beating out an infield hit with 2 outs in the 9th off Florida's Bryan Harvey to give the Rockies a 6-5 win...he climaxed the stretch by hitting a 2-run, 9th inning homer on July 9 in St. Louis off Lee Smith, tying the game and setting the table for Danny Sheaffer's game-winning homer 2 batters later...he finished July by hitting .320 (24-for-75) with 13 RBI...closed '93 with a 5-game hitting streak, going 6-for-12 (.500), tying his longest streak of the year (June 4-9)...he was a .364 pinch hitter (8-for-22) with 2 triples and 8 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1992—Split time between Houston and Tucson (AAA) of the PCL...appeared in 54 games for the Astros, hitting .190, with a homer and 4 RBI...was a .324 hitter in 45 games for the Toros, with 3 homers and 28 RBI...had a 14-game hitting streak in August with Tucson, 8 of which were multiple-hit games, raising his average from .259 to .342. 1991—Reached the major league level for the first time with Cincinnati after 7 minor league seasons...was recalled on 5 different occasions during the year, appearing in 52 games...singled in his first major league at-bat vs. Chicago on April 27...enjoyed a hot streak in June going 13 for 20 (.650), while hitting safely in 7 of 10 games...was still optioned back to Nashville (AAA) on July 3, only to be recalled again 8 days later...hit his first big league homer off Tim Crews in Los Angeles on September 16 and followed 2 days later with a pinch-hit shot off Trevor Wilson in San Francisco. 1990—Spent the entire season at Nashville where he reached career bests in both games (134) and doubles (23). 1988—Hit .271 with 20 doubles and 61 RBI in helping Chattanooga to the Southern League title. 1986—Played for Cedar Rapids (A), hitting 20 homers and driving in 78, while swiping 23 bases.

PERSONAL: Christopher Carlos Jones (Chris)...he and wife, Crystal, and son, Chris, Jr., reside in Cedar Rapids, IA...an '84 graduate of Liverpool (NY) H.S., where he played baseball, basketball, and football...was a two-time All-State selection at quarterback.

52 MIKE KINGERY OF

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 185 B/T: L/L

Age: 33

Born: March 29, 1961 in St. James, MN

Residence: Atwater, MN

M.L. Service: 4 years, 95 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 3, 1993.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: His first full year back in the minor leagues since 1985, Kingery played for the same club in '93 that he had in '85, the Omaha Royals...the veteran outfielder batted .263 in 116 games for the Royals, with 10 homers and 41 RBI...by hitting .323 and .312 in May and June, respectively, his season average peaked at .287, but a .205 month of July brought his season mark down...he closed the year by hitting safely in 9 of the last 10 games, including a season-best 8-game hitting streak...during that stretch, Kingery had his best single game of the year, hitting a pair of homers in the first game of a doubleheader at home vs. New Orleans, driving in 3...he played 106 games defensively, playing all 3 outfield positions with regularity.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Kingery made the 1992 Opening Day roster of the Oakland A's, but went just 3-for-28 (.107) in 12 games and was outrighted to Tacoma, spending the remainder of the year on the AAA roster...he finished 14th in the PCL in hitting with a .306 mark...he worked the other side of the bay in 1991, spending the majority of the season with San Francisco, used primarily as a pinch hitter or late-inning defensive replacement...he managed just 110 at bats in 91 games, but led the Giants' pinch hitters in at bats (44), hits (11), RBI (7) and walks (8)...he was released by the Giants on October 6, but signed by the A's on December 12...in 1990, Kingery refused an outright assignment from Seattle to Calgary, therefore became a free agent and signed a AAA contract with the Giants' affiliate in Phoenix...his contract was purchased by the big club on May 29, and he proved it was the right move, by going 7-for-13 with 7 RBI in his first 10 games with the Giants...had a career-best 10-game hitting streak (Sept. 19-October 1), despite getting just 1 or 2 at bats in 5 of the 10 games...finished the year with a career best .295 average, and a .353 mark with runners in scoring position...had a couple of brief stints with the Mariners in 1989, the first time in July when Ken Griffey, Jr. was placed on the disabled list...he was also a September recall after the PCL playoffs...

he began the 1988 season platooning in centerfield with the Mariners, but was outrighted to Calgary on July 15...he was recalled again in September...his only full year of major league duty was in 1987 with Seattle, when he batted .280 in 120 games for the M's...Kingery posted a team-high 15 outfield assists...he hit his lone career grand slam off California's Kirk McCaskill on August 2 at the Big A... he opened the 1986 campaign on the Omaha roster, hitting .332 through 79 games, then received his first call to the big leagues on July 7, reporting to Kansas City after 6 1/2 years in the minors...he debuted with a 2-for-4 performance vs. Baltimore...Kingery's first big league homer came off Cleveland's Ken Schrom on July 18...he had a pair of 4-hit games, including a 4-for-5 performance on Sept. 23 in the Metrodome, on Mike Kingery Day...he was traded to Seattle as part of a 5-player deal on December 10.

PERSONAL: Michael Scott (Mike) Kingery...he and wife, Christy, have three daughters, Rachel, Anna and Michelle and make their off-season home in Atwater, MN...he was a 4-sport letterman at Atwater High School, graduating in 1979, then was signed that August by the Royals as a non-drafted free agent...Kingery earned an Associate's Degree from Wilmar (MN) Community College, and has also attended St. Cloud State University.

Ht: 5-7 Wt: 170 B/T: R/R

Age: 24

Born: March 16, 1970 in Wilmington, NC

Residence: Southport, NC

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a 25th round selection in the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Earned an invitation to spring training after being selected the Rockies' Minor League Player-of-the-Year, the first player to get the automatic invitation...the versatile 2nd year pro played both the outfield and 2nd base for Central Valley, but did not let it affect his offensive production, hitting .292 in 127 games, while leading the California League in sacrifice bunts with 12...he also swiped 60 bases in 79 attempts, the most thefts in the Rockies' organization in '93...his season average was hovering in the .220's, before a 9-game hitting streak began on June 10, in which he batted .405 (15-for-37)...from that point, only twice did McCracken go 2 consecutive games without collected at least one hit...he finished the campaign red hot with a 13-game hitting streak, batting .389 (21-for-54), with 12 runs scored and 9 driven in...he played 82 games in the outfield for the Rockies, 28 at 2nd base and also served as the DH when necessary.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: The 711th player taken in the 1992 June draft, McCracken reported to Bend (OR), hitting .280 in 67 games, while swiping 18 bases...he was getting limited playing time during the early portion of the season, but an injury to regular 2nd baseman Craig Counsell, gave McCracken the opportunity to show his wares...his season average was standing at .212, when he decided to begin switch-hitting...he went on a 2-week tear, batting .531 and earning consecutive Northwest League Player-of-the-Week honors.

PERSONAL: Quinton Antoine McCracken...he makes his off-season home in Southport, NC...he was a 1988 graduate of South Brunswick High School (NC), lettering in baseball, basketball, football and track, winning a state title in baseball during his senior season...he took the baseball and football skills down "Tobacco Road" playing both sports at Duke University in Durham, NC...he was a defensive back during the fall and 2nd baseman in the spring,...his '89 gridiron squad won the ACC championship...while playing both sports, he majored in Political Science/History and earned his degree in the 4 years he attended Duke...Quinton spent his "off-season" playing for Maui of the Hawaii Winter League, batting .258 in 46 games.

Residence: La Crescenta, CA

M.L. Service: 38 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 3, 1993.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Played for a trio of PCL clubs during the season, but it wasn't until he departed Arizona that turned his offensive production around...Mota started the year with Tucson, but logged just 3 games and 6 at bats, before signing with Phoenix 2 weeks into the season...things weren't much more encouraging with the Firebirds, as he batted .169 in 29 games, before signing with Colorado Springs on June 18...that was when he picked it up with the bat, finishing the year by hitting .344 in 70 games for the Sky Sox, while playing mainly in the outfield, but getting some work on the infield...Mota found his offensive stroke by June 23 and posted hitting streaks of 7, 12, 8, 8 and 10 games, respectively through the end of the season...his best stretch was at the conclusion of the year, when he batted .444 (20-for-45) during his 10-game streak, including 10 hits in the last 17 at bats of the stretch.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: He appeared in 96 games for Tucson in 1992, hitting .240 with 33 runs scored and 32 driven in...the 1991 season was a milestone for Andy and the rest of the Mota family, an he was recalled to the Astros on August 30...with that trip to the big leagues, he joined brother, Jose (San Diego), as the first of Manny Mota's sons to play in the majors...Andy hit .299 in AAA, just missing the .300 mark for the 3rd time in 4 years...he was hitting .302 on August 26, but went 2-for-11 just prior to his recall to Houston...first major league hit came off the Met's Frank Viola on Sept. 2 in Shea Stadium...just 2 nights later at Shea, he took a Terry Bross pitch deep for his lone big league homer...he led Columbus in batting with a .286 mark in 1990, despite missing the final month with a broken left thumb...it marked the 3rd consecutive year he led his club in hitting...he was selected the MVP of the Southern League All-Star game for his defensive play at 2nd base... Mota won the NY-Penn League batting title in 1988 with a .351 mark, and the Florida State League crown in 1989 with a .319 average...each time he also led the league in hits and was named to their respective All-Star teams.

PERSONAL: Andres Alberto (Andy) Mota...he and wife, Barbara, and daughter, Vanessa (12/15/91) and stepson, David (7/1/85), reside in LaCrescenta, CA...he was a 1983 graduate of Calasanz H.S. in the Dominican Republic, then attended Golden West Junior College...from there he went to Cal-State Fullerton, and in 1987, Andy was the PCAA batting champion, while his club won the league title...he was also selected the Scholar Athlete-of-the-Year in '87...originally drafted by the Kansas City Royals in the 6th round of the 1985 June draft, he transferred to Cal-State Fullerton to complete his collegiate commitment...his father, Manny, had a distinguished major league career with San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Montreal and the L.A. Dodgers, where he is still employed as a coach...he has 3 brothers who are all active in pro ball: Gary in the Astros' chain, Jose and Domingo, who are both playing in the Kansas City system.

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 205 B/T: R/R

Age: 22 (Turns 23 on April 7)

Born: April 7, 1971 in Russellville, KY

Residence: Russellville, KY

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as the 2nd round selection of the 1992 June Free Agent Draft.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Continued his quick climb up the ladder, only to have a mid-season injury put a halt to what was becoming a very successful second year of pro ball...he opened the campaign at Central Valley, posting a 3-2 record in 11 starts...he was dominating early, allowing just 3 earned runs in his first 5 starts, a span of 28.0 innings for a 0.96 ERA...he had just a 1-0 record to show for his early work, but in none of his first 5 starts did he allow more than 4 hits, while limiting the opposition to just one hit on 2 occasions...in his last 4 starts at Central Valley, he went 8.0 innings on 3 outings, then 7.0 frames in his last start, fanning 36 men in 31.0 innings...he left the California League with 72 K's in 69.2 innings and it was off to AAA...he was cruising along at Colorado Springs, with a 3-0 record in 4 starts, when on June 30, while warming up in the bullpen, he felt a twinge in his right shoulder...on July 26, Thompson had his shoulder scoped by Dr. Wayne Gersoff at University Hospital in Denver, repairing some minor fraying of the labrum...prior to the injury, Thompson went the distance twice in 4 outings for the Sky Sox, including his AAA debut on June 8 at home vs. Edmonton, scattering 6 hits and 2 runs (1 earned) with a walk and 6 K's...though his time in Central Valley was brief, Baseball America selected him the 5th best major league prospect in the California League.

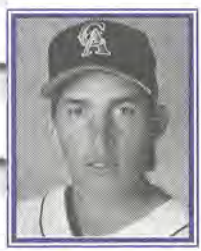

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: The Rockies second choice in their initial June draft, he went to Bend (OR), and posted an 8-4 ledger in 16 starts...he started the historical first game in organizational history on June 16 in Bend, fanning 6 and allowing 5 hits and a run in 5.0 innings...he was not the pitcher of record that night, but Thompson went on to win 3 in a row to open his pro career...he led the Northwest League in strikeouts (102), innings (106.1), complete games (4) and tied for first in starts (16), and was named by Baseball America as the starting righthander on their All-Star squad.

PERSONAL: Mark Radford Thompson...he makes his off-season home in Russellville, KY, where he was a 1989 graduate of Logan County High School, lettering in baseball, football and basketball...he then attended the University of Kentucky in Lexington, where he was a 3-year letterman in baseball...in '91, Thompson earned SEC Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for his performance against league rival, LSU.

Born: October 7, 1963 in Oakland, CA

Residence: Mesa, AZ

M.L. Service: 27 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 3, 1993.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Appeared in 105 games at Vancouver of the PCL, playing the majority of the time at 1st base...started the year slow, batting just .190 during April, but quickly turned that around by posting a .322 mark in May (38-for-118), including a pair of homers and 19 RBI...that month included a stretch where Van Burkleo hit safely in 13 of 14 games at a .426 (23-for-54) with 14 RBI...had a season-high 10-game hitting streak in June and by late-July, he received his first call in 12 professional years to the majors, albeit, 5 of those seasons were spent in Japan...his lone stint in the big leagues lasted just 12 games, batting .152 (5-for-33) with a homer...he was returned to Vancouver, where he finished the year with a 6-game hitting streak.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: He returned from a 5-year stint in Japan to play at Edmonton in 1992, the AAA affiliate of the Angels...he wound up tied for 3rd in the PCL in homers (19), 4th in RBI (88), and 5th in runs (83) and extra-base hits (54)...had a stretch of 5 homers in as many games from July 28-August 2...also hit a pair of grand slams, July 28 at Vancouver, and August 14 vs. Calgary...was only the 3rd player in Edmonton history to hit 15 homers and steal 15 bases...after playing half of the 1987 season with Midland (Texas League), Van Burkleo headed east, the Far East to be exact, signing a contract with the Seibu Lions...he remained with Seibu through the 1990 season, then signed with the Hiroshima Carp for the 1991 campaign before returning to the U.S...while with Seibu, he led his club to the Japan Championships in 1988, and was selected the Player-of-the-Year, compiling a .268 average with 38 homers and 90 RBI...originally signed by the Milwaukee organization as a free agent in 1981, he was released by the Brewers in 1984 and went to the Alaskan League to play for Fairbanks...it was there he was spotted by the Angels and signed a contract to return to pro ball and finish out the season with Peoria (A).

PERSONAL: Tyler Lee (Ty) Van Burkleo...he and wife, Christine, have two children, Brittany and Cameron and make their off-season home in Mesa, AZ...he was a 1981 graduate of Chatsworth (CA) High School, the same school that the Rockies' Steve Reed prepped a few years later...Van Burkleo then attended Los Angeles Valley College until he was inked to a pro contract by the Brewers.

53 BRUCE WALTON RHP

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 195 B/T: R/R

Age: 31 (Turns 32 on December 25)

Born: December 25, 1962 in Bakersfield, CA

Residence: Bakersfield, CA

M.L. Service: 129 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 3, 1993.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: Was a non-roster invitee to spring training with Montreal and made the Opening Day roster, but appeared in just 4 games for the Expos before he was sent to Ottawa (AAA)...by joining the Rockies' organization, he becomes the 2nd hurler who pitched against Colorado in the first major league game in Mile High Stadium to end up with the Rox...Kent Bottenfield was the starter on April 9 in Denver, and Walton pitched the final 2.0 innings of that affair...Walton was outstanding while pitching for Ottawa, working as a stopper for the Lynx, giving up just 5 earned runs in 42.2 innings for a 1.05 ERA, while going 4-4 with 16 saves...he did not surrender an earned run through 16 outings for Ottawa, and only 2 earnies crossed the plate in his first 29 trips to the hill, putting a 0.55 ERA on the board...he then went to Tucson, appearing in 13 games for the Toros, again as the stopper, and went 2-0 with 7 saves and a 1.80 ERA...his combined minor league numbers for '93 included a 6-4 ledger with 23 saves in 53 games with a 1.25 ERA, allowing 8 earned runs in 57.2 innings with 11 walks and 54 K's.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Spent the majority of 1992 with Tacoma (AAA), going 8-2 with 8 saves and a 2.77 ERA in 35 outings (7 starts)...he did get some playing time with the Oakland A's, joining the big league club from August 13-31, making 7 relief appearances...after 6 minor league seasons, Walton got his first shot at the majors in 1991 and made the trek to Oakland on 4 different occasions, appearing in a total of 12 games...made his big league debut in Yankee Stadium on May 11, then earned his only major league victory on June 6 at Milwaukee, despite being victimized by a grand slam...during the minor league portion of the '91 season, he wound up tied with John Wetteland for 2nd in the PCL with 20 saves...his best overall season in the minors was 1986, when he went 13-7 at Modesto in 27 starts with 4 complete games.

PERSONAL: Bruce Kenneth Walton...he and wife, Holly, have twin daughters, MacKenzie and Nicole (11/5/91) and reside in Bakersfield, CA...he was a 1981 graduate of North High School in Bakersfield, lettering in baseball and basketball...he then attended the University of Hawaii for 3 years before signing as a 16th round pick of the Oakland A's in 1985...while pitching for the Rainbows, he was named a College Freshman All-American.

3 HERM WINNINGHAM OF

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 190 B/T: L/R

Age: 32 (Turns 33 on December 1)

Born: December 1, 1961 in Orangeburg, SC

Residence: Orangeburg, SC

M.L. Service: 7 years, 163 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 9, 1993.

1993 HIGHLIGHTS: This was the first season since 1983 that Winningham didn't log any major league time, spending the entire year in the International League but splitting it between Pawtucket and Norfolk…he was a .257 hitter at Pawtucket, playing rightfield for the Red Sox, then hit at a .250 clip while roaming centerfield for Norfolk…oddly enough, his best day of the year with Pawtucket was against Norfolk on June 13, as Winningham went 4-for-4 with a homer, 4 runs scored and 3 driven in.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: A veteran of 4 different major league clubs, his last big league duty was in 1992, when he spent the entire year with Boston, the only time he has played in the American League…he appeared in 105 games for the BoSox, but 40 of those were in a pinch-hit role, as he led the club in pinch at bats (38), hits (12) and RBI (3), while hitting .316 off the bench…it marked the 2nd straight year he excelled in a pinch hitting role, when in 1991, Winningham was the 2nd best pinch hitter in the National League, hitting .394 (13-for-33) for the Reds…he appeared in 98 games for Cincinnati, but made just 32 starts, 31 of those in centerfield…he had batted .280 in 26 games in August and was playing more often in early-September, when he suffered a right knee injury that was scoped on Sept. 10…he hit a career-high .256 in 1990 with Cincy, appearing in 84 games…he tied a career-high with 4 hits on August 15 in St. Louis, including a major league record tying 3 triples in a 12-inning game…the 3rd triple broke a 1-1 tie in the 12th and led Cincy to a 3-1 win over the Cards…had an 8-game hitting streak from August 30-Sept. 9…he started 2 games in the N.L.C.S. vs. Pittsburgh, going 2-for-4, with a double, run scored and stolen base in a 2-1 win in Game #2…he drove in a run with a sacrifice fly in his start in Game #5…in the World Series, he replaced an injured Billy Hatcher in Game #4, and executed a 2-strike bunt single in the 8th inning, as the Reds scored twice off Dave Stewart to sweep the series in 4 games, with a 2-1 win…Winningham scored the winning run on a Hal Morris sacrifice fly…in 1989, he was hitting .372 thru play of May 14, then went into an 0-for-19 tailspin that led to a stint on the D.L. with an injured left hamstring…he began the 1988 season with Montreal, but was traded on July 13 to Cincy in a 5-player swap…he hit safely in 12 of his first 13 starts for the Reds, batting .315 in that span…hit his first big league homer on April 12, 1985, at Wrigley Field off the Cubs' Dennis Eckersley…Winningham made his major league debut with the Mets on September 1, 1984, in the first game of a doubleheader at Shea Stadium against San Diego…he picked up his first big league hit in the nightcap of the twinbill, a run scoring double off Eric Show.

PERSONAL: Herman S. (Herm) Winningham, Jr…he and wife, Jane, have a son, Kevin (12/19/91) and reside in Orangeburg, SC…Herm was a 1979 graduate of Orangeburg High School, playing baseball, basketball and football...he then attended DeKalb (GA) South Community College in 1980-81, and was voted Junior College Player-of-the-Year in '81...he was drafted on 3 earlier occasions, by Pittsburgh in 1979 (June), Milwaukee in 1980 (January) and Montreal in '80 (June), but chose not to sign each time...finally signed with the Mets as their first pick in the secondary phase of the January, 1981 draft.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A YEAR MAKES!!!

A year ago when the Rockies reported to their first-ever camp in Tucson, 63 players hit the field in February, from which 25 were selected to represent the region to open 1993. Of the 63 players, 36 were pitchers and 23 were non-roster.

When the Rockies reported to Tucson in 1994, 53 players were in uniform, including just 23 hurlers and 17 non-roster invitees.

A LOOK BACK... 1993 IN REVIEW

Manager Don Baylor joins his ball-club in a "Thank You" lap around Mile High Stadium following the final home game of '93.

BASEBALL IN THE ROCKIES... A LOOK BACK AT '93

The first season of baseball in the Rocky Mountain Region seized the attention of the entire nation, as the Colorado Rockies spent the 1993 campaign making headlines both on and off the field. Manager Don Baylor's club produced the most wins ever by a National League expansion team in its first year of operation, taking 67 victories, just three shy of the all-time expansion mark set in 1961 by the Los Angeles Angels. The Rockies won more games at home, 39, than six other major league clubs in 1993, and finished second in expansion history to the '61 Angels, who posted 46 home victories.

Over the final seven weeks of the season, the Rockies went 31-21, a .596 winning percentage, the third best mark in the National League after August 7.

At the plate, Colorado finished third in the N.L. in batting with a .273 mark, but was the most impressive home hitting club, batting .306 in Mile High Stadium. The Rox were fourth in runs scored (758), first in triples (59), third in doubles (278) and third in stolen bases (146). The club also performed well in close games, going 26-20 (.565) in games decided by just one run, while posting the best winning pct. in the league in extra-inning affairs, going 8-4 (.667).

The offense established first-year expansion records in average, runs scored, hits, doubles, triples and RBI. Individually, Rockies' names were prominent among the leaders in virtually every offensive category for an expansion club:

While the play of the club improved as the season progressed, one of the most watched stories by the nation was the frequency with which fans passed through the turnstiles of Mile High Stadium. It was a story that began on April 9, when a record 80,227 fans jammed the park for the first home game in club history, then continued the trek at a pace that would eventually shatter 11 different attendance records.

The three-game series with Montreal that opened the home schedule, totaled 212,475 fans, breaking a record that had stood for 45 years. That opening weekend record would again be broken by fans of the Rocky Mountain region when San Francisco came to town in late-July. At the end of the season, Cleveland regained its old three-game series record by less than 600 fans, when the Indians played their final weekend in Cleveland Stadium.

The Rockies' assault on the attendance record book began with a season ticket base of 28,627, that represented 35 different states, Washington D.C., Puerto Rico and Canada. Throughout the 1993 season, the Rockies received mail order or group ticket requests from all 50 states.

The next page contains the complete list of attendance records that now belong to the fans of the Mountain Time Zone.

ROCKIES BASEBALL — A POPULATION EXPLOSION

The season total 4,483,350 fans who witnessed the first year of baseball in the Rockies, surpassed the population of 31 states, the District of Columbia and 24 different countries, based on figures provided by the 1992 census.

The final home game crowd of 70,069 on September 26, passed the state of Minnesota, whose total population was listed at 4,480,000. The day before, the Rockies passed their 24th country in population, Libya, who checked in a 4,353,000.

The complete list of countries included: Albania, Armenia, Central African Republic, Congo, Costa Rica, Ireland, Jamaica, Jordan, Kyrgyzstan, Laos, Latvia, Lebanon, Liberia, Libya, Lithuania, Moldova, Mongolia, New Zealand, Nicaragua, Norway, Panama, Puerto Rico, Singapore and Uraguay.

All totaled, Rockies' baseball was watched by over 7.1 million fans over 158 dates during the inaugural year, a per game average of 45,123.

OPENING DAY, 1993

Shea Stadium, April 5

Andres Galarraga laces a single in the second inning off Dwight Gooden, the first hit in Rockies' history, April 5, 1993 at Shea Stadium. Despite the 3-0 loss in the inaugural battle, the wait for Major League Baseball in the Rocky Mountain region was over, and the club would return from New York to a hero's welcome later in the week.

New York Mets 3, Colorado Rockies 0

The day that an entire time zone awaited finally occurred on a crisp, bright day in the Big Apple, but it was the arm of Dwight Gooden that dampened the spirits of the first game in Colorado Rockies' history, with a convincing 3-0 win before a Mets opening day record crowd of 53,127 in Shea Stadium. The day began with the traditional introductions on each base line, and the gathering of fans who have made a fad out of being unkind to the opposition, ingratiated the Rockies with polite applause as each player was introduced. The intros began with a solid ovation for manager Don Baylor, who had spent a portion of his career on the other side of town in Yankee Stadium.

Once the festivities were concluded and the realism of the first season was finally underway, it was Gooden's dominance that took center stage. Eric Young, who would make history later in the week at home, led the game off by taking a strike, then eventually making the first out on a bunt attempt. It would be that kind of day, as Gooden fired the 22nd shutout of his illustrious career.

Lost, but not forgotten in the moment, was rookie David Nied, who had made history 4 1/2 months earlier when he was the first player taken in the expansion draft that was conducted just a cab ride away from Shea Stadium in midtown Manhattan the previous November. Nied didn't pitch poorly, allowing just 2 runs over 5.0 innings, but Gooden was in only one jam, a bases loaded situation in the 3rd inning, that he escaped without harm.

Appropriately, the first hit in club history was a leadoff single in the 2nd inning by Andres Galarraga, who had 2 hits on the day to start his successful quest for the first batting title of his career. Despite 2 losses in New York, a hero's welcome awaited the Rockies on the first trip "home," and even for the fans in the region who had waited a lifetime, it was well worth the wait.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HIGH

Mile High Stadium, April 9, 1993

SHOT HEARD 'ROUND THE ROCKIES — Eric Young rounds first base after leading off the bottom of the first inning with a homer off Montreal's Kent Bottenfield, sending the record crowd of 80,227 into a frenzy. The Rockies cruised to their first win in history, an 11-4 triumph over the Expos.

Colorado Rockies 11, Montreal Expos 4

Talk about a storybook beginning. Sure, the Rockies had to open their franchise on the road and dropped a pair of games in New York, but that didn't matter to the fans in the Rocky Mountain region, who had waited a lifetime for a major league team they could call their own.

A parade through the streets of Denver, then a large gathering for batting practice on Thursday, prefaced what would be one of the most memorable days in modern sports history in the State of Colorado. An all-time major league baseball record crowd of 80,227 jammed Mile High Stadium on April 9, and not long after Colorado's own Dan Fogelberg wrapped up the National Anthem, the assemblage was treated with a moment they will talk about for years to come.

Bryn Smith worked through the top of the first inning unscathed, setting the stage for Eric Young's at bat, the first Colorado Rockie to step to the plate in Mile High. On a 3-2 deliver from then-Montreal hurler and current Rockie, Kent Bottenfield, Young hit a drive to the gap in left-center, and at 3:17 p.m., the Rockies enjoyed their first-ever lead, as the ball landed untouched in the East Stands. Colorado would score 4 times in the opening inning, with Charlie Hayes adding a homer to left.

The Rockies pounded out 18 hits in coasting to an 11-4 victory. The veteran Smith, tossed 7.0 shutout innings, scattering 6 hits, and earned the first win in club history. Young,who wouldn't homer again until the home finale in September, when he hit 2 more, finished the day going 4-for-4 with 4 runs scored and 2 RBI.

At 5:48 p.m., the Rockies had their first victory and the first breath of major league life had been taken in the Mountain Time Zone.

NEW YEAR BRINGS NEW DIVISIONAL LOOK

Major League Baseball has altered the look of the division races and post-season play for the 1994 season. It marks the first change in the sytem since the advent of divisional play in 1969, when the National and American Leagues were divided into four divisions.

Beginning this season, there will be three divisions in each league, with the winner of its respective division assured a post-season berth. Additionally a wild card team will qualify for post-season, determined by the best record among second place finishers.

This change will institute an extra round of post-season activity, with the wild card team playing one of the division winners, and the remaining division champs taking on each other in best-of-five series'. The next tier of playoffs will decide the league champion, and will be a best-of-seven series, to be followed immediately by the World Series. The new alignment:

GOING, GOING, GONE...

Mile High Stadium ranked second in the majors, first in the National League, for home run frequency, with a total of 184 blasts departing the yard during its first year of major league competition. Tiger Stadium in Detroit was the biggest nightmare for pitchers in the majors, with 202 baseballs not returning to action.

Yankee Stadium in the Bronx ranked third on the list, while the next closest park in the N.L. was the Friendly Confines of Wrigley Field.

Of the 184 home runs hit in Mile High over the course of the initial season, just 23 (13%) of them landed in the South Stands, 6 by the Rockies and 17 by the opposition.

The complete list for '93:

ROCKIE OF THE YEAR

The award goes to the minor league player who had the most outstanding season, not only from a statistical standpoint, but also acknowledging improvement, character and commitment to his ballclub. A prerequisite for winning this award is to be named pitcher/player of the month at least one time during the year. The Rockie of the Year will earn an automatic invite to spring training for the following season. This honor is voted upon by the Rockies' Baseball Operations staff.

The winners:

Mark Thompson, RHP
Bend

1993
Quinton McCracken, OF

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

GLOSSARY OF MEDICAL TERMS

The following glossary provides definitions of terms that are used during the course of the season by medical staff members of the baseball organizations. This glossary is provided by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. (The numbers 1-21 correspond with the charts on pages 193 and 194 representing common baseball injuries.)

A.T.,C—Athletic Trainer Certified: athletic trainers with this designation have passed t certification exam administered by the National Athletic Trainers' Association (N.A.T.A.).

1 AC Joint—Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abrasion—Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess—An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetra ing wound or laceration.

Adhesion—Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic—Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is requir for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids—Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic—Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigo ous exercise.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome—Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

2 Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL)—A primary stabilizing ligament within the center the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tea of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 month of rehabilitation.

3 Anterior Talofibular Ligament—A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (later ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory—Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibupr fen.

Arteriogram—A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram—X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope—An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy—A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration—The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy—To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis—Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion—The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

4 Baker's Cyst—Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid tha has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

5 Bennett's Fracture—A fracture and dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal, t thumb.

Bone Scan—An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Bruise—The discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlyi tissues.

Bursa—A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Calf—Large muscle located at the back of the shin that includes the gastrocnemius and t soleus muscles and is connected to the heel by the Achilles tendon. This is responsible for fo plantar-flexion and is instrumental in jumping.

Capsule—An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage—Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing toget er and grating.

CAT Scan—Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Cervical Vertebrae—Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse—A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleedin No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture—Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia—Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the patella, which can occur in any patellofemoral injury.

Clavicle—The collar bone.

Coccyx—The "tail bone"; a group of four vertebrae that are fused together, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Colles' Fracture—A fracture of the distal end of the radium with the lower end being displaced backward.

Computed Tomography (CT)—Method of visualizing the body's soft tissues. Using x-rays ...th the beam passing repeatedly through the body part, the CT scans while a computer calculates tissue absorption at each point scanned.

Concentric Muscle Contraction—A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and ...ontracts to move a resistance.

Concussion—Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, ...derate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Congenital—Existing before birth; to be born with.

Conjunctivitis—Inflammation of the membrane lining the eyelids and covering the eyeball.

Contractures—Abnormal, usually permanent contraction of a muscle due to atrophy of ...uscle fibers, extensive scar tissue over a joint, or other factors.

Contusion—an injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Costochondral—Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryotherapy—A treatment with use of cold.

Cyst—Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Debridement—Removal of non-healthy tissues and foreign material from a wound or burn to prevent infection and permit healing.

Degenerative Joint Disease—Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament—Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the ...ot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less ...equently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle—Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral—A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc ...nsists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion ...d shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation—Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction—An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension ...d contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; of times referred to a "negative" ...ntraction in weight training.

Eccymosis—Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema—Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion—Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. ...mmonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS)—An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electrolyte Drink—Fluid for replacing electrolytes.

Electromyogram (EMG)—Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis—Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride—"Cold spray" or "freeze", a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site ...produce a local, mild anesthesia.

External Rotation—Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Fascia—A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissue.

Fat Percentage—The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can ...calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing ...ectrical impedance.

Femur—Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula—Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility—The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Fracture—Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb—Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glenohumeral—The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus ...d labrum. The type of joint that allows 360-degree motion, a "ball and socket" joint.

Glenoid—Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

Grade One Injury—A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tis...e may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury—A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury—A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some ...ses totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Groin—Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hammer Toe—Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle than the remaining digits of the same toe.

Hamstring—Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps—Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion—Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to head and humidity.

Heat Stroke—Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Hematoma—Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hot Pack—Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus—Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy—Treatment using water.

Hyperextension—Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band—A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Impingement Syndrome—Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder. The most common (Throwing) arm injury, which represents many pathologies and generally involves supraspinatus overuse.

Inflammation—The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

Intermittent Compression Pump—Therapeutic modality that uses an air pump to send air into a sleeve worn over an injury, on an intermittent basis, in order to disperse edema and break up swelling at the injury.

Internal Rotation—Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Interosseus Membrane—Uniting membrane between the tibia and fibula that forms a collagenous fibrous tissue. It has two functions: to serve as an origin for many of the muscles of the lower leg, and to transmit stress from the tibia to the fibula.

Isokinetic Exercise—Form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of limb movement is controlled by a pre-set limiting machine, such as Cybex or Biodex.

Isometric Contraction—Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is no appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle stays the same.

Isotonic Contraction—A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part, as in lifting a weight.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidule)—The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edge or lip-like structure.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL)—Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Ligament—Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone to bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae—Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI)—Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Malleolus—Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint; the lateral malleolus is fibula and the medial malleolus is the tibia.

Mallet Finger—Injury of the finger tip in which the extension tendon is avulsed off the distal phalanx.

Maximal Aerobic Power (MAX VO 2)—The maximal volume of oxygen consumed per unit of time.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL)—Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Meniscectomy—An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus—Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals—Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals—Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Morton's Neuroma—Involves the nerves and is usually the result of a trauma to the foot, causing inflammation and sharp pain, usually between the third and fourth toes.

Morton's Toe—A hereditary condition in which the second toe is longer than the first toe. This can cause mechanical imbalances which produce pain with weight bearing.

Myositis—Inflammation of the muscle.

Myositis Ossificans Traumatica—A benign ossification, usually following severe trauma to a large muscle mass.

N.A.T.A.—National Athletic Trainers' Association. The certifying and governing body of the athletic training profession.

Neuritis—Inflammation of a nerve.

Olecranon Process—Bony projection of the ulna at the tip of the elbow.

One Repetition Maximum—The maximum amount of weight that can be lifted by the player in a particular exercise at one time. This is used as a strength testing technique.

Orthotic—Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or ability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dessicans—A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Parasthesia—Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella—The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as rease the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

17 Patella Tendinitis—Inflammation of the patellar ligament; also known as "jumper's knee."

PBATS—Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society; the governing body of athletic ners in professional baseball.

18 Peroneal Muscles—Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for evert- ing the ankle. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx—Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural in phalanges.

Phlebitis—Inflammation of a vein.

Phonophoresis—The technique of driving whole molecules of medication with ultrasound.

Plantar Fascia—the tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plantar Fasciaitis—Inflammation of the plantar fascia; associated with overuse of acute foot injury.

Plantarflexion—Ankle motion such that the toes are pointed toward the ground.

Plica—Fold of the tissue in the joint capsule and common result of knee injury.

Pneumothorax—A collection of air or gas in the pleural space causing the lungs to collapse.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL)—A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that pro- vides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee it. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 nths of rehabilitation.

Progressive Resistance Exercise (PRE)—An approach to exercise whereby the load or resis- tance to the muscle is applied by some mechanical means and is quantitatively and progres- sively increased over time.

Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation (PNF)—An approach to therapeutic exercise ed on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

19 Quadracep Muscles "Quads"—A group of four muscles on the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography—Taking of x-rays.

Radium—Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Referred Pain—Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Rotator Cuff—Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres nor and subscapularis.

20 Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome—A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress. ne four stages are: 1)tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff, 2)fiber dissociation in the tendon with a permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation, 3)A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm, and 4)a complete tear of 1 cm or more.

SC Joint—Sternoclavicular joint; articulation of the collarbone with the sternum.

Sacroiliac—Junction of the sacrum with the hip bone.

Sacrum—Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula—Shoulder blade.

Sciatica—Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside he leg.

Sciatic Nerve—Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint—A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or nor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Soft Corn—A corn, softened by moisture, that is found beneath the toes rather than on the upper surface of the toe.

Spleen—Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood lls.

Spondylitis—Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis—Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis—Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain—Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of tch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum—The breast bone.

Strain—Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture—A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-Ray—A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maxi- mum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching—Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue struc- tures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation—Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can urn to its normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid—Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.

Synovitis—Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

Talus—The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate—A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation in working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals—Group of six bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Tendinitis—Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overu or sudden injury.

Tendon—Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow—General term for lateral elbow pain.

Tenosynovitis—Swelling of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated stra or trauma.

Thoracic—Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulates with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome—A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extre ity common in throwing.

Tibia—Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph—A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea—The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS)—An electrical modality that send mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process—Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius—Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and should 21 Triceps—Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna—Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wri

Ulnar Nerve—Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

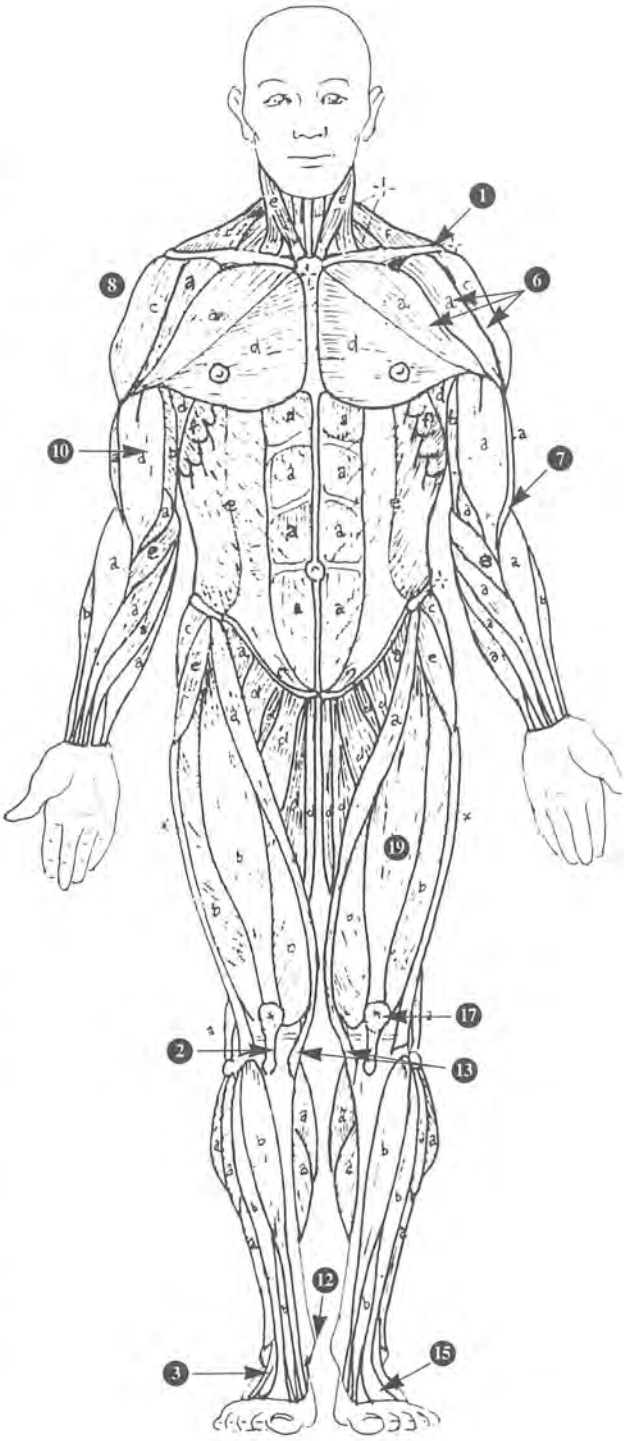

Ultrasound—An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator int the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

COVERING THE ROCKIES

"Television reporter" Eric Young gets the scoop from the National League batting champ.

ROCKIES ON THE AIR

RADIO

WAYNE HAGIN

Wayne is in his second year of providing the play-by-play call of Rockies' baseball on 85/KOA radio. A native of Denver, he has been broadcasting major league baseball for a dozen years, beginning with the Oakland A's. He has also been mikeside with the San Francisco Giants and Chicago White Sox.

A former collegiate baseball player at San Diego State University, Hagin's playing career as a youth also included a trip to the American Legion World Series in 1974.

His broadcasting career has included work with ESPN's college basketball coverage Big 10 basketball and Pac-10 hoops. One of the original SportsCenter anchors for ESPN when they opened their doors in Bristol, CT, in 1979, Wayne has also done some duty locally for Prime Network.

Hagin, 38, was raised in San Jose, CA. He and his wife, Valerie, have two sons Austin, and the newest arrival, Taylor, born last December 7. They make their home in Highlands Ranch.

JEFF KINGERY

In his second season at the baseball microphone for 85/KOA radio, Jeff is no stranger to the sports fans of the Rocky Mountain region. Prior to joining the Rockies' broadcast team, he was the Voice-of-the-Nuggets for 11 seasons at KOA. Though a staple on Nuggets' games for those 11 years, it was a lifelong dream achieved when he was named one of the play-by-play voices of the Rockies.

He originally came to Colorado to broadcast baseball, and was behind the mike when the Denver Bears won the league championship in 1981. In 13 years at KOA, Jeff lists Eric Young's heroics on opening day and in the home finale last year, as two of his most memorable moments.

Besides his work in baseball and basketball, Kingery is also an auto racing enthusiast, and has covered events for ESPN and Prime Network.

Away from the booth, he spends his "off" time working with Easter Seals and the Denver Dumb Friends League. He and wife, Meryl, and two dogs and cat, make their home in Englewood.

Charlie Jones Dave Campbell

CHARLIE JONES

Charlie is in his second season describing the action on the television side of Rockies' baseball. The veteran sportscaster has worked virtually every major event in his announcing career, and the 1994 will be his 35th year at the microphone for NFL football, and 30th at NBC Sports. Known for his gridiron work, Jones also spent 16 years on NBC's Baseball Game-of-the-Week, and worked for a couple of seasons with the Cincinnati Reds and a year with the California Angels.

Aside from his describing all of the "Mile High Moments" last year, his broadcasting credentials include all phases of amateur and professional sports, including the Summer Olympics, nine different collegiate bowl games, college basketball, Wimbledon, golf, track and field, and boxing to just scratch the surface.

Charlie was also part of the announce crew of the first Super Bowl between Green Bay and Kansas City in 1967, the first AFL Championship, the first Senior Skins Game, the first NBC Sports World, the first World Cup Gymnastics, and the first multi-national athletic event in China, the 1980 Beijing Invitational Track and Field meet.

DAVE CAMPBELL

Dave may be in his first year describing the action for the Rockies, but he has had years of experience on both the local and national levels. The former major league infielder comes to Colorado after spending the last four seasons as an analyst on nationally televised games for ESPN. Aside from his regular weeknight game assignments, he filled in on occasion on the Sunday Night Game-of-the-Week, and made the trek to Bristol, CT, on a weekly basis to work on the set of the "Baseball Tonight" studio show. He was also assigned to provide on the scene coverage of both the League Championship Series and the World Series.

His baseball broadcasting career began in 1978, when he left the field as a minor league manager, and joined Jerry Coleman in the radio booth with the San Diego Padres. He and Coleman provided the play-by-play call for the Padres for 11 seasons, including the 1984 campaign that culminated in a National League Championship for San Diego. Campbell left the Padres after the '88 season and joined ESPN shortly thereafter.

He had an eight-year major league playing career that started in 1967 with the Detroit Tigers and ended in 1974 with Houston. He also played for four seasons with the Padres and had a brief stint with St. Louis.

An alum of the Univeristy of Michigan, he captained the 1964 team and was a member of the '62 NCAA Championship club. He and wife, Diane, have two married daughters, Courtney and Shelby.

THE BASEBALL NETWORK TAKES TO THE AIR IN '94

A landmark venture is taking placing during the 1994 Major League aseball season, as The Baseball Network begins its first year of operation. Formed among MLB, ABC and NBC, The Baseball Network is responsible for coordinating all of the elements of network-television's arrangements.

This marks the first time a major U.S. sports league or organization has ected to take control of its national television package, managing the on-air production, advertising sales and corporate sponsorship of the sport.

Both ABC and NBC renew their partnership with Major League Baseball ter a four-year absence, with the result being more baseball shown in rime-time on network television than ever before. The two networks shared the MLB network package from 1976-89. This venture also marks the return to baseball microphones the talents of Bob Costas at NBC, and Al lichaels of ABC, each of whom have an immense amount of baseball oroadcasting experience.

Costas, a five-time Emmy Award winner, will lead NBC's announcing crew, after working on their "Game-of-the-Week" package from 1983-89. He ill also call the play-by-play of the '94 regular season telecasts, the All-Star Game and the League Championship Series.

Michaels, a two-time Emmy Award winner, will be the play-by-play oice of regular season action, the Divisional Playoffs and the 1994 World eries. Also known for his skills in the Monday Night Football booth, and calling the memorable Olympic Hockey Gold Medal victory in 1980 in Lake Placid, he has described the action of six previous World Series'.

NBC's baseball heritage dates back to 1947, and their return to MLB ction will commence with the 65th All-Star Game scheduled for July 12 in Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium. From there, the network of the peacock will telecast regular season action for six consecutive Friday nights, beginning August 26. NBC will then cover both the National and American League Championship Series.

ABC's first stint of '94 comes on Saturday, July 16, with the first of six consecutive weeks of prime-time televising. They will then broadcast the ewly-created Divisional Playoffs and the 91st edition of the World Series.

A key component to The Baseball Network is the prime-time setting of all network telecasts in 1994. All regular season telecasts on NBC and ABC are scheduled on evenings when school in not in session the following orning, to cater to the younger viewing audience.

Additionally, all weekend post-season telecasts, including Games 1-2 and 6-7 of the World Series will air at 7:00 p.m. (Eastern Time).

Regionalization is also another key to The Baseball Network plan, with iewers getting an opportunity to watch the most meaningful game in their market. For the fans with major league clubs, the regionalization plan virtually ensures that the games involving the hometown club will be show local-.

Finally, the network plan is to take the viewer around the country to see action from other key games being played. During all NBC and ABC telecasts, viewers will have the opportunity to look in on other games, particularly if a baseball record is on the verge of being set.

COLORADO ROCKIES

PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPARTMENT

DIRECTOR - PUBLIC RELATIONS — Mike Swanson
ASSISTANT TO THE DIRECTOR - PUBLIC RELATIONS — Coley Brannon
ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT - PUBLIC RELATIONS — Karin Bearnarth
STAFF ASSISTANT - PUBLIC RELATIONS — John Kehl

The staff of the Colorado Rockies would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to Denver and the Rocky Mountain Region. The 1993 season ranked as one of the most exciting sports stories, not only in this region, but the entire United States. We thank you for your tremendous coverage during our first year and look forward to accommodating your needs in future seasons. Following are the Public Relations policies for the 1994 season. If there are any requests or questions, do not hesitate to ask any member of our staff and will make every effort to fulfill your needs.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: These will be issued to those who do not qualify for season credentials. These consist of freelance writers, weekly and monthly publications for special coverage. Daily credentials will also be issued to area Radio & TV stations when the need arises for extra pre-game personnel (i.e. live shots, etc.), and daily newspapers who have had last-minute changes in coverage. These requests may be made via FAX on letterhead, only if that news source is already on file with the P.R. office. All daily requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance of the game to be covered.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: These will be issued to those photographers on assignment for legitimate newsgathering organizations and those representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Photographers for licensees will only be granted daily passes. Priority in all photo areas will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. No freelance photographers will be granted credentials. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products. Any other use of photographs taken will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Should the need arise for an autograph request, notify the Public Relations Department and we will attempt to accommodate. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and future access.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: All credentials will list specific locations in the stadium where access is permitted. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. All media will be required to sign in at the clubhouse entrance. The clubhouse will close 50 minutes prior to first pitch each day, and there may be times where the clubhouse must close earlier for team meetings. Generally, no more than a 10-minute "cooling off" period is applied after games. Manager Don Baylor will make his office available for a brief period of time between games of doubleheaders. Access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined by the visiting club's policies.

FIELD ACCESS: All members of the media with field access provided on their credential will be allowed to conduct interviews during specified times prior to the beginning of the game. The field must be clear of media at the same time the clubhouses are closed, 50 minutes prior to the beginning of the game. Due to the unusual arrangement of the clubhouse locations, media should be alert at all times when entering the field via the leftfield gate and move as quickly as possible towards the area behind the batting cage. At no time is the media permitted in fair territory and must stay behind the first and third base bags. These precautions are for the safety of all involved while batting practice is in progress.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Non-rightsholders are permitted to transmit live reports from the stadium prior to and after every game. All television live shots must be done in designated areas outside the clubhouse due to space limitations or on the warning track area outside either dugout. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or the game is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out of town reports are allowed to give the score of the game during the half innings, however, at no time can they file reports once an inning is underway. Any violations of these policies will result in revocation of credentials.

ROVING CAMERAS: At no time will local television stations be permitted to use a camera light in the seating area of the stadium. Should a light come on, the game will be stopped by the umpiring crew. Separate credentials will be available for "roving" the stands prior to and during games. Interviews are to be conducted either on the concourse, or between innings, not while the game is in progress.

WORKING PRESS BOX: The main press box behind home plate has limited seating, therefore, beat writers from both participating club's have first priority. Remaining media will be seated in the auxiliary press box down the first base line. At no time will guests be permitted in either press box.

PRESS DINING: The press dining room is located behind the auxiliary press box on the first base side. Pre-game meals for the media will be served from 2 hours prior to game time through the first inning. Snacks and soft drinks will be provided in both press facilities throughout the game. Media members must have proper credentials to be admitted to the dining room.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Colorado Rockies provide a limited number of Charge Call phones in each press box. Should media members feel there are not enough lines available, they should investigate installing their own line for use during the season.

To order your own press box phone for the season or your visit to Mile High Stadium, the US West Representative in Denver is Ginger Florence (303) 787-0225.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: To win a batting title a player must have 502 or more actual plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the ERA title a pitcher must have at least as many innings pitched as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest ERA.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: The individual field champion shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION—If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

(NOTE—These figures DO NOT determine the Gold Glove winners at the end of the season. Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.)

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during previous season or seasons, he has:

(1) Exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or

(2) Accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and

(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or

(b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on original date of this game.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take that number and divide it by the total innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

BASEBALL IN THE ROCKIES
A century old tradition

While the 1993 major league season brought national recognition to this time zon... in and around baseball, to the natives it was just another step for the National Pastime as far as Denver and the surrounding community is concerned.

The nicknames, ballparks and players that have crossed Denver's path have be numerous and colorful. From the Denvers to the Skyscrapers, to the Grizzlies, Bears a Zephyrs, to name a few.

From Broadway Park to Merchants Park to Bears Stadium to Mile High, and soon to Coors Field.

From Joe Tinker, Dutch Leonard, Jack Hendricks and Babe Adams to more reco nizable figures as Bob Howsam, Bobby Richardson, Tony Kubek and Billy Martin, to the modern-day names of Barry Larkin, Rob Dibble, Tim Wallach, Andre Dawson, Tim Raines, Gary Sheffield and, yes, even Joey Meyer.

All of those people combined to start a tremendous baseball tradition that was au mented last April 9, when the Rockies played host to their first National League oppo nent in Mile High Stadium. The club did not let the faithful down, dispatching the Montreal Expos by an 11-4 count and officially beginning yet another chapter of "Baseball in the Rockies".

The history began innocently enough with the advent of the Western League ... 1886, and fittingly the "Denvers" were crowned the first league champion. After the arrival of the initial Western League franchise, baseball was an off-and-on occurence over the next 60 years, with the game becoming a permanent fixture in 1947.

During the period prior to the '47 season, Denver did not consistently have profe sional baseball, but when it was in business the area saw some outstanding players.

The 1900 Grizzlies had a young shortstop by the name of Joe Tinker, who would later become one-third of the famous double play combination on Chicago's North Sid the trio of Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance. Pitcher Charles "Babe" Adams arrived on t scene just a handful of years later and posted a 23-12 record in 1907, then left Denver for a 19-year major league career.

In 1910 a true success story took place in the dugout, when Jack Hendricks took ov the managerial duties for four seasons. His club won 102 games in the first year, yet d not win a pennant; so to prevent that from happening again, his clubs won 314 games the next three years, including a still-standing Denver record 111 victories in 1911. Needless to say, Hendricks' teams won the pennant in each of those seasons.

In fact, Hendricks was so sure that he had the best minor league team in baseball, challenged the Double-A champion Minneapolis Millers to a post-season series an won. He followed that by inviting Oakland, champions of the PCL, to do battle, but when Oakland declined, Hendricks proclaimed the Bears were "champions of all the minors."

The 1932 season witnessed the loss of Western League clubs for both Denver a Pueblo. Professional baseball would not return to Denver for 15 seasons, however, when it did come back it was stronger than ever.

After one season back in the pro ranks, the Howsam family bought the ballclub. L by Bob Howsam, his father, Lee, and brother, Earl, the group led the way to build a ne ballpark to replace the termite infested Merchants Park. The city of Denver turned over dump land at West 20th Avenue and Clay Street, clearing the way for Bears Stadium, the site where Mile High Stadium currently stands.

The new stadium opened in August, 1948, with 10,000 seats and has been expan ing ever since.

The 1952 season was anything but uneventful, as Denver broke a 39-year pennant drought when the Bears knocked off Pueblo for the title. The entire season of baseball came down to a passed ball in the bottom of the 10th inning giving the Bears the t umph.

That season also witnessed a one-year wonder, when the Bears experimented with "Strike Zone Uniforms." The idea was simple: To help umpires recognize the strike zone more precisely with a different color running from the arm pits to the knees. The un forms were worn periodically, but the players convinced management that they look ridiculous, thus relegating them to permanent storage.

Denver finally became a Triple-A city in 1955, when the American League's Philadelphia A's moved to Kansas City, thus allowing the Howsam's to purchase t then homeless New York Yankees' minor league affiliate for $90,000.

The Yankees tabbed an untried Ralph Houk to manage the AAA club, a position the venerable field general would hold for 20 years in the majors with the Yankees, Detroit Tigers and Boston Red Sox.

Talk about talent, try these future major league names on for size: Bobby Richardson, Tony Kubek, Ryne Duren, Whitey Herzog, Ralph Terry and Darrell Johnson just to name a few, however, they were unable to win a pennant in either of the two seasons they were together. Houk did manage a playoff victory in 1957, before moving up to the majors to take over for the amazing Casey Stengel in 1961.

The first AAA champions in Denver history were the 1960 Bears, piloted by Charlie Metro. In a time before "Bo knowing something" was in vogue, this season was a case of "Bo knowing RBI" as a young player named Bo Osborne and teammate Steve Boros each drove in 119 runs during the '60 season.

From 1963-68, the Bears were members of the Pacific Coast League. The '68 entry was the affiliate of the Minnesota Twins, managed by a fiery former infielder named Billy Martin, and led offensively by Graig Nettles and Bob Oliver.

Known previously as Bears Stadium, this venue opened in 1948 with 10,000 seats, but has since gone through a series of expansions to get to its current capacity of over 76,000. The 1994 season will be the last time baseball is played at this site.

The Bears returned to the American Association in 1969, where all remaining Denver franchises remained through the 1992 season. From 1970-83, the Bears established themselves as a championship franchise, winning five league crowns and three other division titles.

Denver fans of the '80's showed their baseball allegiance by attending games in record numbers. In fact, in 1982 a Fireworks Night crowd of 62,666 rushed the turnstiles to establish a minor league record that may never be broken. Still, the major league decision makers did not take notice, not realizing that just 11 years later the first big league franchise of this time zone would average over 57,000 per opening.

The fans who visited Mile High Stadium in the '80's saw some outstanding future major leaguers, watching a remarkable 1980 club that went 92-44 with the likes of Tim Raines and Tim Wallach. All Raines did was lead the league with a .354 average and 77 stolen bases, while scoring 105 runs. Add to that a season in which Wallach hit 36 home runs with 125 RBI, it's no wonder the Bears won 68% of their games.

Under new ownership, the Zephyrs were on the Denver scene in 1985, as an affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds. Talk about a who's who of future stars; Eric Davis, Kal Daniels, Paul O'Neill, Barry Larkin, Chris Sabo and even an unknown fireballer by the name of Rob Dibble, displayed their wares in Denver before heading off to prominent major league careers.

The Z's joined the Milwaukee Brewers' chain in '87 and have remained there since, playing last year in New Orleans, LA. The next to last season of minor league baseball confirmed what Denver fans knew all along, that people couldn't wait for a major league club to call their own. What would happen if the National League expanded to the Rocky Mountain region? Well, the Rockies sold over 28,000 season tickets in their inaugural season, and have already surpassed the 30,000 mark entering the final year in Mile High Stadium.

Upon conclusion of the '94 campaign, another chapter of baseball in this region will be completed, as the Rockies move into their new quarters at 20th & Blake, and next April, a National League umpire will once again provide the call of "Play Ball," but he'll say it in the newest palace to grace major league baseball, Coors Field.

COLORADO ROCKIES
Baseball Club Chronology

1985

Aug. 8 - Baseball's new Basic Agreement permits the National League to expand by two teams to match the American League's 14 teams.

1987

Oct. 31 - U.S. Senators from eight states, including Colorado Sen. Tim Wirth, announce they have formed a Congressional Task Force to investigate the possibility of expansion.

1989

June 15 - Baseball says it will announce a timetable for N.L. expansion within 90 days after the completion of a new Basic Agreement between the players and owners.

1990

March 17 - A new Basic Agreement is reached between the owners and players.

June 14 - The N.L. releases its timetable for the addition of two expansion teams for the 1993 season.

Aug. 14 - Denver area voters pass a 0.1% sales tax to finance construction of a new baseball stadium if a franchise is awarded.

Aug. 23 - Colorado Governor Roy Romer's Baseball Advisory Committee designates Colorado Baseball Partnership to spearhead the formation of the ownership entity to acquire Denver's National League franchise.

Sept. 18 - The N.L. Expansion Committee hears presentation from the Denver ownership group.

Dec. 18 - The N.L. unveils its short list of six potential sites: Denver, South Florida, Tampa-St. Petersburg, Orlando, Buffalo, and Washington, D.C.

1991

Jan. 25 - Denver's baseball ownership group launches season ticket drive, requiring a refundable deposit of $50 per seat.

March 13 - The Denver Metropolitan Major League Baseball Stadium District formally chooses a site at 20th and Blake Streets for a traditional major league ballpark if Denver is awarded a team.

March 15 - Colorado Baseball Partnership announces that the proposed baseball park will be named Coors Field.

March 26 - The N.L. Expansion Committee visits Denver.

June 5 - The N.L. announces that a decision on the two finalists will be postponed indefinitely. Baseball's Ownership Committee wants more time to review the six applicants.

June 6 - Commissioner Fay Vincent announces that both leagues will share the $190 million expansion fee and that both will contribute players in the expansion draft.

June 10 - Vincent announces Denver and South Florida are the two applicants chosen by the N.L. Expansion Committee.

June 12 - Major league owners meet in Santa Monica, Calif. After National League owners ratify the Expansion Committee's recommendation, American League owners delay the process by asking for more time to work out "internal differences."

June 28 - The two leagues and the Major League Baseball Players Association compromise: A.L. teams will protect extra players in each draft round. Only eight A.L. teams will have to give up three players; the other six will give up players only in the first two rounds. With the agreement, a final expansion vote, via telephone conference call, is scheduled for July 5.

July 5 - Major league owners unanimously approve Denver and South Florida as baseball's two newest franchises. Colorado Baseball Partnership announces that the team will be called the Colorado Rockies and unveils the team logo.

Feb. 14 - KOA Radio (850 AM) signs a five-year broadcasting agreement to become the radio voice of the Rockies.

March 2 - Tucson, Arizona is selected as the Rockies' official spring training home starting in 1993. The agreement between the Rockies and the Pima County Sports Authority calls for the club to play its spring training games at Hi Corbett Field, the former Cactus League home of the Cleveland Indians.

March 19 - The club announces its 1993 ticket prices, seating locations, and season ticket packages. Also announced is the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation commitment to provide a minimum of 150,000 tickets free of charge in 1993 to children and families within the region involved in activities aligned with the Foundation's objectives.

April 16 - KWGN-TV (Channel 2) in Denver signs a five-year agreement to become the exclusive over-the-air television broadcaster of Rockies games in the Denver Metro Area.

April 22 - Rockies announce that baseball fans throughout the Rocky Mountain Region have committed to buy 24,168 season tickets for the club's 1993 inaugural season, placing the club fourth among all Major League Baseball teams for 81-game season ticket plans.

June 1 - John Burke, a pitcher from the University of Florida and a native of Englewood, Colo., is selected by the Rockies in the first round of the MLB Free Agent Draft, making him the club's first-ever draft selection. The 6-4, 220-pound righthander, the 27th player selected overall in the draft, signs a contract with the Rockies the same day.

June 6 - Rockies conduct first tryout camp in club history at the University of Denver baseball field.

June 16 - The first game in the history of the Rockies organization is played in Bend, Oregon, between the Bend Rockies and Boise Hawks (Class A, Northwest League). With the Rockies trailing 4-1 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Bend catcher Will Scalzitti hits a grand-slam to propel his club to a dramatic 6-4 win.

July 4 - The Rockies unveil their traditional-style 1993 uniforms (home, away, and Sunday alternate) at the Team USA-Team Cuba baseball game at Mile High Stadium before 61,165 fans. Included on the home uniform is purple pinstripes, making the Rockies the first team in major league history to feature purple stripes. The club's road uniform is gray and the Sunday alternate jersey is black. The Rockies also announce that the team's logo has been refined. The arc of the logo is switched from silver to black to emphasize the word "COLORADO". Additionally, the ball is increased in size and seams are added.

July 13 - The Rockies announce that the club has signed 40 of the 50 players selected in the June Free Agent Draft. The 40 signees represent the highest total among the 28 MLB clubs which participated in the draft. The Rockies are also the only club in the majors to sign all of their first 25 draft selections.

Aug. 5 - Major League Baseball announces specifics on the Expansion Draft, scheduled to take place November 17 in New York City at the Marriott Marquis Hotel. ESPN also announces it will televise the 6 1/2-hour event live.

Sept. 2 - Jerry McMorris, Oren Benton and Charles Monfort acquire 100% of the interests in the Rockies previously owned by non-Coloradoans and assume control of the franchise.

Oct. 16 - Groundbreaking for Coors Field takes place at 20th & Blake Streets.

Oct. 27 - Don Baylor named the first manager in Rockies history.

Nov. 9 - Colorado Baseball Partnership completes acquisition of franchise by the paying of a $95 million franchise fee. Shortly thereafter, the Rockies acquire pitcher Travi Buckley from the Montreal Expos in exchange for "Player to be Named" (Mat Connolly) in first trade in club history.

Nov. 16 - The Rockies sign free agent first baseman Andres Galarraga to a one-year con tract.

Nov. 17 - The Rockies select David Nied from the Atlanta Braves to open the MLB Expansion Draft in New York City. At the same time, over 20,000 fans fill Currigan Hall in Denver to watch to building of a major league franchise. All totaled, 72 players we selected by both the Rockies and Florida Marlins. Upon conclusion of the draft, Colorado trades drafted players Kevin Reimer and Jody Reed for outfielder Dante Bichette and pitcher Rudy Seanez, respectively.

Jan. 26 - The Rockies announce a restructuring of the front office, with Jerry McMorris taking over the roles of Chairman, President and C.E.O. of the ballclub, Oren Benton and Charles Monfort are named Vice Chairmen.

Feb. 18 - Pitchers and catchers reported to Tucson, AZ for spring training and worked out the following day.

Feb. 23 - Position players reported to camp and the first full squad work out took plac on the 24th.

March 6 - The Rockies won their first spring training game, 7-2 over San Francisc David Nied gets the start and pitches out of a jam in the 1st inning by striking out Barr Bonds. The club's first selection in the Expansion Draft pitched 3.0 innings and earned the win in the Rockies' debut.

April 5 - The first regular season game in Colorado Rockies' history is played at She Stadium in New York. The Mets and Dwight Gooden are too much for the Rockies, however, nothing could dampen the excitement of the historic day.

April 8 - Denver and the Rocky Mountain Region welcome their ballclub with a parad through the streets of the city. Thousands of fans line 17th Street and Broadway, the travel to Mile High Stadium to watch the first home batting practice of their new major league team.

April 9 - Major League Baseball is finally a reality in the Rocky Mountain Region as th Rockies hosted the Montreal Expos in the home opener. Eric Young led off the bottom of the 1st inning with a dramatic home run off Kent Bottenfield, bringing the record set ting crowd of 80,227 to their feet. Colorado cruised to an 11-4 victory and 37-year old Bryn Smith records the first win in franchise history, throwing 7.0 innings of shutou ball.

May 9 - Lydia McKee is identified as the 1,000,000th fan through the gates at Mile High Stadium. Ironically, the mother of two is recognized on Mother's Day. The Rockies reac the million mark in attendance in just 17 home dates, breaking the previous best of 21 set by the '92 Toronto Blue Jays.

May 14 - Jay Gainer hits a home run on the first pitch of his first major league at-bat. H becomes only the 12th player in history and 5th in the National League to homer on the first pitch seen in the big leagues .

May 27 - Dale Murphy retires from the game after a 17-year career.The Rockies salute him with a pre-game ceremony five days later before a home crowd of 45,741 Management presented him with a framed jersey that he wore with the Rockies, a bronzed statue of a boy and his ball glove and a Stetson 30X cowboy hat to always remind him of the time he spent in the Rocky Mountains. His teammates met him on th mound and presented him with a Colorado Rockies leather jacket.

June 3 - David Nied has to leave an exhibition game against AAA Colorado Springs with a torn ulnar colatteral ligament in his right elbow. He is forced to sit out the next 91 games.

June 6 - Andres Galarraga is named National League Player-of-the-Week.

June 13 - The Rockies beat the Houston Astros 9-1 to take all three games of the series, completing the first sweep in franchise history.

June 20 - Given that the 1,000,000 mark in attendance was surpassed on Mother's Day, it is only appropriate that on Father's Day, the 36th home date, the 2,000,000 plateau would be passed. The Rockies also reach this mark faster than any team in history, again breaking the '92 Blue Jays old mark of 41 dates.

July 1 - Andres Galarraga is named National League Player-of-the-Month for June.

July 25 - Andres Galarraga strains his right knee in a colission going after a foul ball. The Rockies lose the game in 11 innings and begin a 13-game losing streak, the longest skid of the year.

July 28 - The Rockies surpass the 3,000,000 mark in attendance in only 53 home dates. Once again, the club is the fastest to reach the milestone, breaking the '92 Blue Jays mark of 61 dates.

Aug. 8 - The Rockies beat the San Diego Padres 5-2, ending the losing skid at 13 games. From this day forward, the Rockies would play the third best baseball in the National League, going 31-21 in the final 52 games.

Aug. 12 - The Rockies complete a four game sweep of the Dodgers in Los Angeles. It marks the 1st time in history that an expansion club has swept a 4-game series at an established club's ballpark.

Aug. 13 - Charlie Hayes hits a 3-run homer in the 9th inning to give the Rockies a 5-3 victory in Houston and extend their winning streak to a season best 6 games.

Aug. 21 - Andres Galarraga returns to the lineup for the first game of a doubleheader after missing 24 games due to injury. The Rockies swept a pair from the Mets, marking the first doubleheader victory in franchise history.

Aug. 29 - After starting the month 0-7, the Rockies pick up their 14th win in August behind Lance Painter's 1st career complete game. The club would finish the month just two games shy of .500 at 14-16.

Sept. 13 - Following a 91 degree day for the Broncos on Sunday, a cold front moved in overnight and the Monday night Rockies game with the Houston Astros was officially snowed out.

Sept. 17 - The Rockies surpass the 4,000,000 mark in attendance and break the all-time single season attendance record in 71 home dates. David Nied gets his first win in almost 5 months, 12-3 over the Dodgers.

Sept. 19 - Rockies third baseman Charlie Hayes is named National League Player-of-the-Week.

Sept. 26 - The final attendance tally is 4,483,350, shattering the previous single season attendance record. The Rockies give their fans a going away present, beating the Cincinnati Reds 12-7. Eric Young had not hit a home run since he led off the home opener, but finds away to hit two more in the home finale.

Oct. 1 - Andres Galarraga earns his 2nd National League Player-of-the-Month award, taking top honors for September.

Oct. 3 - The Rockies fall to the western division champion Atlanta Braves on the final day of their inaugural year, but, finish with the most wins ever by a National League expansion club. Andres Galarraga wins the batting title becoming the first expansion player to accomplish the feat. He is also the first Venezuelan native to claim a league batting title.

Nov. 2 - The Rockies and Denver Stadium District agree to expand Coors Field to seat approximately 50,000.

Nov. 19 - The Rockies sign free agent Howard Johnson to a one-year contract with a club option for 1995.

Dec. 1 - Free agent outfielder Ellis Burks agrees to a three-year contract.

Dec. 6 - The Rockies re-sign free agent first baseman Andres Galarraga to a four-year deal.

1994

Jan. 6 - The Rockies sign free agent pitcher Mike Harkey to a one-year contract.

Jan. 7 - Free agent shortstop Walt Weiss agrees to a two-year deal and becomes the first player to appear on the roster of both '93 expansion teams.

Jan. 13 - The Rockies announce a slight change in the uniforms. Responding to fans' wishes, players names are placed on the back of the home jerseys. The road uniform goes to a solid purple "Rockies" across the front.

Jan. 31 - The Rockies establish a 1.5 million dollar after-school program for Denver's middle schools.

ROCKIES IN THE COMMUNITY

While the first season of major league baseball caught the eye of the community and the entire region, the Rockies never lost sight off the field of the importance of staying in tune with their fans.

During the course of the season, players and staff members could be found during a homestand at one of several area ball fields providing the youth of the area with Rockies' Rookie League clinics, helping to teach the fundamentals of baseball, while also promoting sportsmanship. The Rockies also donated tickets to the members of the Denver Parks and Recreation Leagues to give to the kids as incentive reward to those players who work hard to improve, in addition to the youngsters who help with the Boys & Girls Clubs.

The Rockies donated 38 complete sets of catchers' equipment, 96 dozen baseballs, softballs and safety balls, 125 batting helmets, 100 bats, 22 t-ball tees and 1250 T-shirts and caps to the Denver Parks and Recreation.

As the season progressed, players Charlie Hayes and Dante Bichette each donated 5,000 tickets to underprivileged, at risk youth, and youth baseball programs. Also included in their individual ticket programs, were 250 tickets earmarked for the Denver Fire Department.

During the winter months, the Rockies were visible throughout the community, but nothing was more heartwarming than the Christmas Visit to Children's Hospital. Senior V.P./General Manager Bob Gebhard donned the Santa Claus outfit, and with the help of players/elves Ellis Burks, Lance Painter and Steve Reed, presented Rockies' gifts to the patients.

January marked the second annual Colorado Rockies/NationsWay/ Coors Winter Caravan, this year traveling through 22 cities and 8 states over a two-week stretch. Don Baylor led a contingent that included front office personnel and players Howard Johnson, Bruce Ruffin, Steve Reed, Eric Young, Greg Harris, Willie Blair, Kent Bottenfield, Danny Sheaffer, Walt Weiss and Gene Glynn, on a goodwill tour through hospitals, shopping malls, banquets, and TV and radio shows that began in Denver and ventured out as far as Billings, MT, Salt Lake City and Tucson.

Prior to the start of spring training, the Rockies made a $1.5 million donation to the Denver Public School District to help assist the city in keeping sports related activities open after regular school hours for the students.

COLORADO ROCKIES FOUNDATION

The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation is a non-profit corporation formed to support youth-related educational and charitable activities in the Rocky Mountain region. The Foundation was organized almost immediately after the area was awarded this major league franchise on July 5, 1991, and it emphasizes programs for underprivileged and at-risk youth through projects concerning Drug/Alcohol Awareness, Literacy and Educational Values, and Youth Baseball Development.

Within these guidelines, the Foundation developed the "Catch-A-Kid" program, designed to allow kids, kindergarten through eighth grade, in the six-county Denver metro area to participate in the arrival of major league baseball. Students are encouraged to write an essay entitled, "What Major League Baseball Means To Me." The students are then awarded baseball gloves in school assembly programs, where the importance of staying in school and off drugs is stressed by a speaker for the Foundation.

Area sports personality, Irv Brown, and former major league hurler, Mark Knudson, conduct assembly programs throughout the area. Known for his upbeat look at the world, Brown leads an instructional and motivational program aimed at elementary school children.

The Foundation donated 150,000 tickets to underprivileged youth and their families during the Rockies inaugural season, and there are more where those came from. As part of the ticket give-away program and the assembly programs, the Foundation gives every child at a host school a coupon redeemable for two free tickets to a designated home game.

Radio personality and Rockies' spokesperson, Irv Brown, entertains kids at one of the many school assemblies the club participated in during 1993. The school assembly program is just one of many activities the Colorado Rockies Foundation is involved with in the Denver community.

ROCKIES MEET THEIR FANS

Pitcher Armando Reynoso gives some pitching tips to a group of younsters at an area Rockies' Rookie League clinic.

Bruce Ruffin and Don Baylor spend a minute with a patient at a hospital in Tucson during a stop on the Winter Caravan.

Sportsmanship and teamwork personifies the Rockies' Rookie League.

80,227 fans stand for the playing of the National Anthem prior to the first pitch of the initial home game in Rockies' history. Colorado defeated the Montreal Expos, 11-4.

MILE HIGH STADIUM

The 1994 season is the final year for baseball in venerable Mile High Stadium, with Coors Field nearing completion in time for the 1995 campaign. Located in southwest downtown Denver, Mile High Stadium has been the outdoor home for professional sports since 1948, when constructed as Bears Stadium.

The original structure included the current lower level west and north stands. The south stands were added in 1963 to accommodate the Denver Broncos of the then American Football League. In 1967 the City and County of Denver assumed ownership and management of the facility. Additions to the stadium continued through the years, with the final upgrade coming in 1977 with the addition of the movable east stands bringing capacity to over 76,000.

The east stands are a unique structure, with 21,000 seats that can be moved to convert from baseball to football in 10 hours, then reverse the process back to baseball configuration in 12 hours. Last season, the Rockies and Broncos had home games on consecutive days on 3 different occasions.

The east stands are 450 feet long, 200 feet deep, 13 stories tall and weigh nine million pounds. At each of the 46 stand support points are clusters of three or four forty-ton capacity water bearings which are used to lift the stands off their permanent supports and allow them to float. Once the stands are lifted and the pressure within the diaphragm equals the supported weight, then water escapes around the bottom of the diaphragm to provide a lubricated surface on which the stands are moved.

The water used is pumped from a 60,000 gallon storage tank and is recirculated throughout the system. The stands move at a rate of two feet per minute, thus the entire 145 feet move can take place in less than two hours.

NEXT STOP — COORS FIELD

Sunday, October 2, is scheduled to be the final regular season appearance for the Colorado Rockies in Mile High Stadium, because when the 1995 season commences, home will be approximately two miles away in a spectacular setting called Coors Field. Groundbreaking for the new venue took place on October 16, 1992, at 20th and Blake in Denver's lower downtown historical district, and construction is right on schedule for the new baseball palace.

Originally scheduled for 43,800 seats, the record crowds of the 1993 season convinced Rockies' ownership to request, at the club's expense, an enlarged version of the original plans. The updated park will now hold 50,000 fans, including 63 luxury boxes and 4,500 club level seats. It is an open-air facility with natural grass. Asymmetrical in design, it will be 347-feet down the leftfield line, 350-ft. to the rightfield corner and 415-ft. to straightaway center. There will be matrix and color replay boards in leftfield, and a hand operated "Out-of-Town" scores board in the rightfield fence.

Coors Field has been designed by HOK Sport of Kansas City, MO, the same designers of new Comiskey Park in Chicago, and the highly acclaimed Oriole Park at Camden Yards in Baltimore.

The new "Home of the Rockies" has been financed by the taxpayers of the Denver Metropolitan Major League Baseball District and leased to the Colorado Rockies. Although the District will own the stadium, all operating and maintenance costs will be paid by the Rockies. Total cost of the project is approximately $160 million.

The model of Coors Field, which will be on display throughout the region during the upcoming season, looks at the future home of the Rockies from the 20th & Blake side.

A sellout crowd watches the first exhibition game in club history under the Arizona sun, as the Rockies host the San Francisco Giants. Colorado posted a 7-2 win on the memorable afternoon.

TUCSON, ARIZONA... SPRING HOME OF THE ROCKIES

The Rockies second year in major league baseball starts the same way as the inaugural season, with a six-week stint in sunny Tucson, AZ. Currently the summer home of the Tucson Toros of the Pacific Coast League, the Rockies were treated to a multi-million dollar facelift of Hi Corbett Field before they began their initial camp.

When the players hit the five-field complex last year, 63 players were in uniform including 36 pitcher, each with hopes of becoming members of the first major league team in the Mountain Time Zone's history.

The renovation of the facility included a new press facility, modern major league clubhouse along the first base side, and new administrative offices in the rightfield corner. Prior to the start of spring training '94, the new minor league clubhouse was expanded to hold another 60 lockers for future big league stars. The original facelift also included the upgrading of restrooms, concession stands and the addition of batting cages and pitching mounds.

This facility has been the home of major league spring training for 47 years, with the Cleveland Indians training here prior to the arrival of the Rockies. This is also where several movies have been filmed, including the 1988 production of "Major League".

THE SPRING OF '93

A lot of pomp and circumstance surrounded the Rockies ' Shea Stadium for the first regular season game in club history, but the first time the club took the field as a group before paying customers, was March 6 in Hi Corbett Field, and won a 7-2 decision from the San Francisco Giants.

The game was witnessed by 7,726 on that sunny, Saturday afternoon, the first of five sellouts in Hi Corbett Field last spring. the Rockies wound up with 113,072 fans entering the ard during spring training, a per game average of 6,651 ver 17 dates.

That win in the opener also got the ballclub off to a winning start that would eventually wind-up with the Rockies oing 18-14-1, claiming the fictional "Cactus League" crown. The 18 victories ranked as the most ever by a first-year expansion club in spring training, surpassing Houston's 17 umphs in 1962.

The Rockies seemed comfortable with their Tucson surroundings, posting a 10-6-1 mark in Hi Corbett Field during the first year.

Spring training is just that, an opportunity for teams to prepare for the rigorous regular season schedule. But for the fans of this first-year club, they got a glimpse of what it oked like with their team atop the standings.
