LARRY WALKER #33

2020 BASEBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

BORN DECEMBER 1, 1966 IN MAPLE RIDGE, BC, CANADA | BATS/THROWS: L/R

LARRY WALKER
NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME
CLASS OF 2020

"With thanks and appreciation to the Baseball Writers Association of America, it is time to reveal the results of the 2020 election.

"Tonight we are pleased to announce the addition of two new members to the Baseball Hall of Fame fraternity. Our first electee was a five-tool player respected for his instincts in all phases of the game. Today, Larry Walker becomes the first position player and second Canadian-born member of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Throughout a distinguished 17-year career, the pride of Maple Ridge, Canada, recorded a .313 batting average, .400 on-base mark and a .565 slugging percentage. Larry was a product of the talented Montreal Expos player development system. For a decade he excelled with the Colorado Rockies, receiving National League Most Valuable Player votes in six of his seasons in Denver. Larry finished with St. Louis, his veteran influence helping the Cardinals to a pair of postseason appearances and a World Series berth in 2004. One of the premier defensive right fielders of his time, Larry finished with 154 outfield assists and was a seven-time Gold Glove recipient. From 1997 through 2001, he recorded four seasons with a batting average of .350 or higher. The National League MVP in 1997, Larry also collected three batting titles, five All-Star selections and three Silver Slugger awards.

"Larry, we look forward to seeing you in Cooperstown."

- Tim Mead, President, National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum
January 21, 2020

Larry Walker became the first player in Rockies history to be elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame after receiving 76.6 percent of the vote in his 10th and final year on the BBWAA ballot. He is the seventh player in the modern voting era (since 1966) to be elected in his final year of eligibility, and the third player over the past four years to be elected in his 10th and final year on the ballot, joining Tim Raines (2017) and Edgar Martinez (2019).

After receiving 54.6 percent of the vote in 2019, Walker's 22.0-percent jump to 76.6 percent was the largest year-to-year percentage increase to earn election to the Hall of Fame in the modern voting era.

Born on Dec. 1, 1966, in Maple Ridge, B.C., Canada, Walker played parts of 17 Major League seasons from 1989-2005, including parts of 10 seasons with the Rockies (1995-2004). In his career, he batted .313 (2,160-for-6,907) with 1,355 runs, 471 doubles, 62 triples, 383 home runs, 1,311 RBI, 230 stolen bases and 913 walks. As a Rockie, Walker batted .334 (1,361-for-4,076) with 297 doubles, 44 triples, 258 home runs, 848 RBI, 126 stolen bases and 584 walks. He ranks first in Rockies history in batting average, on-base percentage (.426) and slugging percentage (.618). He ranks second, behind Todd Helton, in runs, hits, doubles, home runs and RBI.

In 1997, Walker became the only player in Rockies history to win the National League Most Valuable Player Award, after leading the Major Leagues with a .720 slugging percentage, a 1.172 OPS and 409 total bases. His 49 home runs that season led the National League, and remain tied with Todd Helton's 2001 total for the most single-season home runs in Rockies franchise history.

Walker was named a National League All-Star five times (1992, 1997-99, 2001) and earned seven Gold Gloves in right field (1992-93, 1997-99, 2001-02), in addition to his three Silver Sluggers (1992, 1997, 1999). Additionally, he was a three-time NL Batting Champion (1998-99, 2001) as a member of the Rockies.

Prior to signing with Colorado before the 1995 season, Walker played parts of six seasons with the Montreal Expos (1989-94) and batted .281 (666-for-2,366) with 368 runs, 147 doubles, 16 triples, 99 home runs, 384 RBI across 674 games. After his 10 years with the Rockies, he concluded his Major League career with parts of two seasons for the St. Louis Cardinals (2004-05), where he batted .286 (133-for-465) with 95 runs, 27 doubles, two triples, 26 home runs, 79 RBI, six stolen bases and 65 walks across 144 games.

WALKER'S CAREER TIMELINE

1985: Made his debut for the Short-Season Utica Blue Sox, after signing with Montreal as a non-drafted international free agent on Nov. 14, 1984.

1986: Hit 33 home runs and recorded 90 RBI across 133 games for Single-A Burlington.

1987: Named a Southern League Post-Season All-Star with Double-A Jacksonville.

1988: Missed the entire season with a right knee injury sustained playing winter ball in Hermosillo, Mexico.

1989: Made his Major League debut for the Expos on Aug. 16 vs. San Francisco, making the start in right field.

1990: Finished seventh in NL Rookie of the Year voting in his first full Major League season.

1991: Led the NL with a .338 batting average in the second half of the season.

1992: Named an All-Star for the first time, earned his first career Rawlings Gold Glove and Louisville Silver Slugger.

1993: Recorded his first 20/20 season after hitting 22 home runs and stealing 29 bases.

1994: Batted .322 (127-for-395) and led the NL with 44 doubles over the strike-shortened season.

1995: Signed with Colorado as a free agent on April 8, batting .306 (151-for-494) with a career-high 36 home runs and 101 RBI.

1996: Colorado's Opening Day center fielder, splitting time between center (54 games) and right field (33 games) in what was his final season as a regular center fielder.

1997: Became the first Rockies player to win the NL Most Valuable Player Award, receiving 22 of 28 first-place votes.

1998: Won his first career batting title after batting .363 (165-for-454), making him the first Canadian-born player to win a batting title in the modern era.

1999: Led the Major Leagues with a career-high .379 batting average (166-for-438), becoming the fifth player since Ted Williams' .406 season in 1941 to bat .379 or better in a season.

2000: Limited to 87 games after being placed on the disabled list twice.

2001: Earned his third batting title in four seasons, after batting .350 (174-for-497) in his fourth career All-Star season.

2002: Played his then franchise-record eighth season for the Rockies and eclipsed the 100-RBI plateau for the fifth time in his career.

2003: Made his then franchise-record eighth Opening Day start for the Rockies and played 143 games for Colorado, his most since playing 153 in 1997.

2004: Traded to St. Louis on Aug. 6 in exchange for three Minor League players (RHP Jason Burch, LHP Luis Martínez, LHP Chris Narveson).

2005: Played 100 games for the Cardinals in his final Major League season, batting .289 with 66 runs, 20 doubles, one triple, 15 home runs, 52 RBI, 41 walks and two stolen bases.

ROCKIES ON WALKER

"I know I speak for the whole Rocky Mountain Region in congratulating Larry for his election into the Hall of Fame. Larry blessed our region for 10 seasons and we feel extremely fortunate to be a part of his incredible career. Congrats, Larry." - Rockies Owner/Chairman & CEO Dick Monfort

"Larry Walker was, hands down, the best athlete I ever played with. He could have been a Hall of Famer in any sport he played. I'm glad I had a chance to play with and learn from one of the best to ever play the game." - Former Rockies teammate Todd Helton

"Larry is a pioneer and a role model for all baseball players from Canada. He continues to give back to the sport by coaching the national teams. His induction is a very big deal for those of us around the game north of the border and is a great way to start off the new wave of talent that is on its way to the big leagues." - Former Rockies pitcher Jeff Francis

"It is a proud, proud day for Larry Walker and his family. And the entire Rockies organization couldn't be happier for him as well. Not only was Larry one of the most talented players to ever wear a Rockies jersey, he was one of the elite all-around players of his generation. With his true five-tool talent and remarkable athleticism, Larry often made the game look easy. Now he will rightly take his place in the Hall as one of the very best outfielders that baseball has ever had, which is a fitting cap on his great career." - Rockies General Manager Jeff Bridich

Richard L. Monfort

Owner/Chairman & Chief Executive Officer

Dick Monfort is in his 23rd season with the Rockies franchise and continues in his role as owner/chairman and chief executive officer for the club. A Colorado native, Monfort and the Colorado Rockies Ownership Group have established the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club as a leading enterprise in the Rocky Mountain Region in both sports and business. The organization's impact can be seen in its many contributions to the community, whether through benevolent outreach in the areas of youth sports and health, or in the development of young sports-minded professionals.

Brothers Dick and Charlie Monfort have done extensive community outreach through their family-directed Monfort Family Foundation. In September 2004, the Monfort Family Foundation gifted $10 million to Children's Hospital Colorado for the construction of a new medical facility in Aurora, Colo. The oncology floor of the new hospital is named in memory of Rick Wilson, a cousin of the Monfort family. The foundation is a longtime provider of funding and endorsement for the Boys & Girls Clubs in Metro Denver and Weld County. Also active in higher education, the Monfort family supports the Monfort School of Business at the University of Northern Colorado and the Monfort Excellence Fund at Colorado State University; both impact students, faculty and the Northern Colorado community through scholarships for exceptional students and support of outstanding faculty. Other organizations that have benefited from the Monfort family's years of philanthropic work include CU Cancer Center, Craig Hospital, United Way, the Denver Art Museum and Habitat for Humanity.

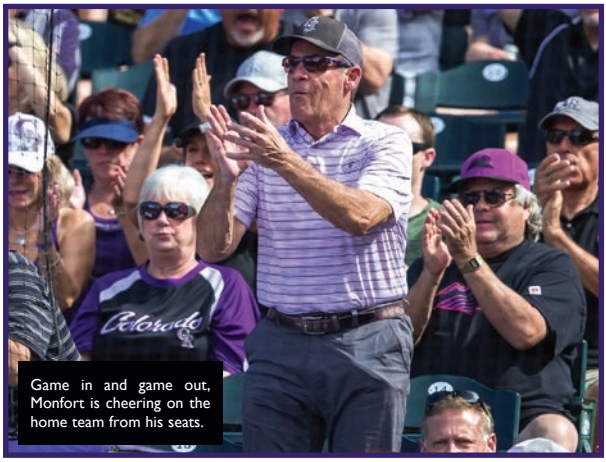

Monfort congratulates Rockies employees receiving commendations in a pregame onfield ceremony.

Individually, Monfort was the 2008 recipient of the United Way of Weld County Humanitarian of the Year Award—an award his father, Kenny Monfort, received twenty years earlier.

Monfort is currently the Chairman of the University of Northern Colorado Board of Trustees and the Chairman of the Board of Directors of University of Colorado Health.

Monfort spent 25 years in the cattle business, primarily with his family's company. In 1987, he was named president of Monfort of Colorado, Inc., a subsidiary of ConAgra, and in 1991 became president and CEO of ConAgra Red Meats. After retiring from ConAgra in 1995, he helped launch the Montera Cattle Company in 1996.

More recent projects include the McGregor Square development currently under construction across the street from Coors Field. Slated to open January 2021, McGregor Square will encompass 655,000 square feet of residential and commercial space, creating a vibrant, year-round complement to Coors Field, with something for everyone. Three separate buildings will surround a 29,000 square foot open content plaza, with the buildings housing 112 private residences, a 176-room hotel, restaurants, retail stores, commercial office space and multiple entertainment spaces.

A 1976 graduate of the University of Northern Colorado, Monfort has a bachelor's degree in business management. In May 2012, Colorado State University President Tony Frank awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters to Monfort in recognition of his significant contributions to Colorado industry and higher education. Also, in May 2014, he was awarded an honorary Doctor of Business Administration in Entrepreneurship by Johnson & Wales University.

Monfort has three children: daughter Dr. Lyndsey Grae M.D., eldest son Walker (wife Lauren) works in Rockies corporate partnerships and son Sterling in Rockies scouting operations. Dick currently resides in Denver with his wife Karen.

Charles K. Monfort
Owner/General Partner

Charlie Monfort, owner/general partner, is a club founder and has been one of the Rockies' managing general partners since 1992.

Brothers Dick and Charlie Monfort have done extensive community outreach through their family-directed Monfort Family Foundation. In September 2004, the Monfort Family Foundation gifted $10 million to Children's Hospital Colorado for the construction of a new medical facility in Aurora, Colo. The oncology floor of the new hospital is named in memory of Rick Wilson, a cousin of the Monfort family. In addition, the family funded a display of artwork, photography and Rockies memorabilia to enhance the seventh floor of the hospital. The foundation is a longtime provider of funding and endorsement for the Boys & Girls Clubs in Metro Denver and Weld County. In 2012, they matched dollar for dollar on fans' collected contributions for Coloradoans devastated by summer wildfires. Also active in higher education, the Monfort family supports the Monfort School of Business at the University of Northern Colorado and the Monfort Excellence Fund at Colorado State University; both impact students, faculty and the Northern Colorado community through scholarships for exceptional students and support of outstanding faculty. Other organizations that have benefited from the Monfort family's years of philanthropic work include CU Cancer Center, Craig Hospital, United Way, the Denver Art Museum and Habitat for Humanity.

Charlie was named president of Monfort International Sales Corporation in 1988, and under his guidance, it became one of the largest beef exporters in the world and the leading exporter of beef products to Asia. In 1990, Monfort became president of ConAgra Refrigerated Foods International, Inc., which consolidated Monfort International Sales Corporation with all of ConAgra's international refrigerated foods companies. Charlie resigned from ConAgra in late 1997 in order to concentrate on his leadership role with the Rockies.

Monfort has a bachelor's degree in marketing & business management from the University of Utah (1982) and served as president of Kappa Sigma Fraternity. He currently serves on the Special Olympics Board of Directors, is a member of the Advisory Board for the University of Utah and is an active supporter of the Denver Dream program.

Monfort continues to make his home in Greeley, Colo., and has four children: son Kenny, daughter Ciara and twins, son Lucas and daughter Danica.

Colorado Rockies Officers

Greg Feasel
Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer

Greg Feasel is in his 25th year with the Colorado Rockies and 10th as chief operating officer. In this role, Feasel manages all aspects of the organization's business operations, including all revenue areas, customer service, ticket sales and operations, corporate partnerships, communications, marketing, broadcasting, community affairs, merchandising, promotions, special events, private suites and party facilities, information systems, human resources, ballpark operations and capital improvements.

Feasel joined the Rockies prior to the 1996 season, after serving as a division director of sales and marketing for Coca-Cola Enterprises, where he was responsible for all revenue areas and key accounts while overseeing the day-to-day operations of a distribution and sales center. Feasel is also a former educator in Texas and Colorado.

A graduate of Abilene Christian University, Feasel was inducted into the school's Sports Hall of Fame in 2005. Along with his brother, Grant, he was also selected for the ACU All-Century Team in 2005. Feasel was a professional football player from 1983–87, and his career included time with the Green Bay Packers, San Diego Chargers and the Denver Gold in the United States Football League.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Rockies, Feasel is also active in the community. He currently serves as a board member of the Downtown Denver Partnership/Denver Civic Ventures Board, VISIT DENVER and is executive director of the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation.

Hal Roth
Executive Vice President

Hal Roth is in his 28th year with the Colorado Rockies. He is currently an executive vice president of the club and serves as the chief financial officer and chief legal officer of the general partner, having previously served in the same capacity for the Rockies. He also currently serves as a trustee of Major League Baseball's Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Plan, as well as a member of the MLB Insurance Committee.

Prior to joining the club, Roth was a partner with the public accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand for 19 years, 1975-93, where he specialized in taxation. He holds a bachelor's degree from Albion College, an M.B.A. and J.D. from the University of Denver and an L.L.M (in Taxation) from New York University. Roth is also a certified public accountant (inactive) and a member of the Colorado Bar.

Roth has served on a variety of charitable boards, including the Colorado Council on Economic Education, Colorado Children's Chorale, the Colorado Neurological Institute and Seniors, Inc. He is currently an advisor to DECA, a high school business program, and serves as a Director of COPIC, an insurance company. Roth's hobbies include golf, skiing and hiking in Colorado and Wyoming. Hal and his wife Connie reside in Englewood, Colo., and have two sons, Rory (wife Lisa) and Reilly, and his grandchildren, Penelope and Rowan.

Jeff Bridich
Executive Vice President - General Manager

The 2020 campaign is Jeff Bridich's sixth season as the general manager of the Colorado Rockies after being named to the position on Oct. 8, 2014. After four years as a senior vice president, he was promoted to executive vice president following the 2018 season. 2019 marked his 15th season in a leadership role within the Rockies' baseball operations department.

Prior to his promotion to GM, he served as the Rockies' senior director of player development from December 2011-October 2014. He joined the Rockies' front office in December 2004 as manager of Minor League operations and held the position of senior director of baseball operations from 2006 to 2011. Bridich came to Colorado after working in the Office of the Commissioner for Major League Baseball from 2001-04. In that role, he worked closely with each Major League team in areas pertaining to Minor League contracts and transactions.

A graduate of Harvard University in 2000, the Milwaukee native played four seasons as a catcher and outfielder for the Crimson, serving as a tri-captain his senior year.

Jeff and his wife Sarah reside in Denver, Colo. They have two children.

Jill Campbell
Vice President - Communications & Marketing

This is Jill Campbell's 28th season with the Rockies, sixth as vice president of communications & marketing. Campbell oversees all aspects of the club's public relations and media relations functions, advertising, marketing, publications, photography and social media.

Campbell began her career with the Rockies in the fall of 1992 and has served in a variety of business, ticketing, marketing and advertising roles with the organization, including senior director of advertising, marketing, publications and social media prior to her promotion to vice president in November 2014. She has been instrumental in designing and developing the club's print and broadcast advertising campaigns, social media strategies, marketing programs, special events like Rockies Fest and the Caravan, a variety of organizational publications, including the monthly Rockies Magazine, as well as overseeing baseball and business communications/PR functions for the organization.

Born in Santa Clara, Calif., and raised in St. Louis, Mo., Jill earned a bachelor's degree in English at UCLA, while working in entertainment publicity and on staff at UCLA's Daily Bruin newspaper.

Rolando Fernandez
Vice President - International Scouting & Development

This is the 28th season for Rolando Fernandez with the Rockies organization and sixth as vice president of international scouting & development. He previously served as the senior director of international scouting. Fernandez oversees all aspects of international scouting, player development and day-to-day operations.

In 2005, Fernandez was honored as the Rockies' Herb Hippauf Scouting Award recipient, presented annually to the individual that exemplifies loyalty, dedication, honesty and a commitment to doing what is in the best interest of the Colorado Rockies. Prior to his current role, he spent four seasons as the roving Latin American coordinator and, in 1999, was named the Rockies' Player Development "Man of the Year."

Prior to heading up the Rockies' international scouting efforts, Fernandez also coached the Rockies' Arizona Rookie League club from 1994-97, and the High-A Visalia affiliate for half of the 1993 season. Before joining the Rockies, the former outfielder played three years in the Chicago Cubs organization. Fernandez was drafted by the Cubs in the 1990 First-Year Player Draft.

A 1990 graduate of Northwestern State University of Louisiana, Fernandez has a bachelor's degree in advertising. Rolando is married to Kim Velazquez and has two daughters, Sofia Camille and Adriana.

Brian Gaffney
Vice President - General Counsel

Brian Gaffney is in his third season with the Colorado Rockies, his second as vice president, general counsel. Prior to his promotion to vice president, Gaffney was the Club's general counsel. Gaffney is responsible for all legal aspects and functions of the Club, including corporate governance, drafting and negotiating contracts and managing litigation.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Gaffney was a partner with the law firm of Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. in Denver for over 10 years, where he specialized in corporate mergers and acquisitions, real estate, bankruptcy, restructuring and commercial finance law. He is admitted to practice law in Colorado and Texas (inactive) in a variety of courts, including the Colorado Supreme Court, the United States District Court for the District of Colorado, and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. While in private practice, Gaffney was named Colorado Super Lawyers® Rising Star four times (2014-17). Gaffney is a member of the State Bar of Colorado, the Denver Bar Association and the Sports Lawyers Association.

Gaffney is a member of the Board of Directors for the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame and the National Football Foundation (Colorado Chapter), and has been involved with a variety of charitable organizations, including the Rocky Mountain Stanford Alumni Association, the Global Down Syndrome's Dare to Play Camp and the Boys and Girls Club of Denver.

Born and raised in Phoenix, Ariz., Gaffney holds a bachelor's in political science, with honors, from Stanford University (2003), a master's in political sociology from Stanford University (2004), and earned his J.D., with honors, from University of Texas at Austin (2007). Gaffney was also a four-year letterman in football at Stanford University, where he was a linebacker and a member of teams that won the 1999 Pac-10 Championship and played in the 2000 Rose Bowl and the 2001 Seattle Bowl. He was also the Special Teams Player of the Year in 2003.

Brian and his wife Abby reside in Highlands Ranch, Colo., and have four children: Molly, Mason, Nolan and Tobin.

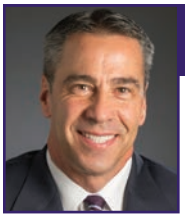

Kevin Kahn
Vice President/Chief Customer Officer - Ballpark Operations

This season is Kevin Kahn's 27th with the Rockies and 20th as vice president of ballpark operations. In December 2003, the club named Kahn its first-ever chief customer officer, charging him with the responsibility of overseeing the Coors Field Customer Service Committee, a diverse group of Rockies and partner employees whose sole purpose is to continually strive for and uphold the highest standards of service provided by the Rockies and Coors Field service partners for all of the club's employees, guests and sponsors. Kahn also directs all aspects of ballpark operations, including the club's partnership with the Coors Field food service provider, Aramark. He is also a member of Major League Baseball's Security & Facility Management Advisory Committee.

Prior to being named vice president, Kahn was senior director of Coors Field operations from 1997-2000. He was the director of stadium services his first three seasons with the club. Kahn has been involved with professional baseball for 38 years, previously working for the Oakland Athletics from 1981-93. He started as an operations assistant before being named director of stadium operations in 1987. He spent his last seven seasons with the A's in that capacity.

The Oakland, Calif., native graduated from Bishop O'Dowd High School. He went on to receive his bachelor's degree in business administration from California State University-Hayward.

Kevin has two children, Haley and Kyle, and resides in Highlands Ranch, Colo., with his wife Lisa.

Jim Kellogg
Vice President - Community & Retail Operations

Jim Kellogg was named vice president of community and retail operations on Jan. 1, 2006. Overall, this is his 27th season with the Rockies organization.

Kellogg is responsible for directing the Rockies' retail operations as well as heading the community affairs department. He works directly with players and coaches as the liaison between the organization and the community. His community work is a reflection of the Rockies' contributions to youth education and health. His duties include overseeing the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation, in addition to overseeing the Rockies Dugout Stores, Coors Field retail and club archives.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Kellogg spent eight years with Mercantile Stores. He serves on the board of directors for the Lower Downtown District, Inc., is the current chairman of the Children's Hospital Colorado Foundation's Corporate Leadership Council and sits on the Board of Denver Sports.

A graduate of Denver's J.K. Mullen High School, Kellogg attended Colorado State University and received his bachelor's degree from Regis University in 1987. Jim and his wife Cheli reside in Highlands Ranch, Colo. They have a son Danny (wife Elizabeth) and a daughter Amanda (husband Austin).

Michael Kent
Vice President - Chief Financial Officer

One of the original Rockies officers, Michael Kent joined the organization in January 1992. He is in his 29th year with the club.

Kent is in contact with every department in the organization, assisting them with financial planning and budgeting. He is responsible for financial reporting, cash management, club insurance and benefits. Kent came to Colorado after a decade with the Philadelphia Phillies (1982-91), where he served as controller. Prior to joining the Phillies, he worked in the Long Island, N.Y., office of Deloitte Haskins & Sells, providing accounting services to small and growing businesses.

He attended Villanova University and graduated with a degree in accounting in 1979. Michael and his wife Mary have five children: Jonathan, Laura (husband Branden), Timothy, Bryan and Nicole. The family resides in Highlands Ranch, Colo.

Sue Ann McClaren
Vice President - Ticket Sales, Operations & Services

Sue Ann McClaren joined the Rockies in October of 1992 and was responsible for beginning the ticket sales department for the new expansion team. This included hiring a staff, developing policies and managing the sales of all tickets before the inaugural season. The 2020 season is her 28th year with the club and her 43rd in Major League Baseball, McClaren was named vice president on Dec. 1, 1995, becoming the Rockies' first female officer.

McClaren served as director of ticket sales in 1993, during which the Rockies set Major League records for highest attendance in a single game, night game, three-game series and single season. Colorado led the Majors in attendance for each of its first seven seasons of existence (1993-99) and has drawn more than 79 million since 1993.

Prior to joining Colorado, McClaren worked for 15 years in the sales department with the St. Louis Cardinals, who won three NL pennants and one World Series title during that time. She was director of ticket sales with the Cardinals before joining the expansion Rockies. Sue Ann is a graduate of William Woods College in Fulton, Mo.

Walker Monfort
Vice President - Corporate Partnerships

This is Walker Monfort's sixth year as the club's vice president of corporate partnerships and his 11th working in a full-time capacity for the Colorado Rockies,

Monfort is responsible for the oversight and management of the club's revenue generated through sponsorship of the Rockies, including oversight of the club's promotions department, in-game entertainment and RockiesVision production.

Monfort officially joined the Rockies front office on a full-time basis in December 2009, after four years of work in a part-time capacity in several departments across the organization. From 2005-08, Monfort worked summers on the grounds crew, in the visiting clubhouse, in the ticket office and on the gameday promotions team. From 2009-13, Monfort worked in the baseball operations department with a focus on the Rockies' Minor League operations and player development. In 2014, Monfort was appointed director of corporate partnerships, which led to a promotion to vice president of the department. Monfort is co-chairman of the board of advisors for ACE Scholarships, an organization focused on providing financial resources to ensure quality education for kids.

Monfort, 33, graduated from Colorado State University in December 2009. He earned a bachelor's degree in journalism and a minor in business administration. Walker is a product of Eaton (Colo.) High School, and he and his wife Lauren currently reside in Denver, Colo.

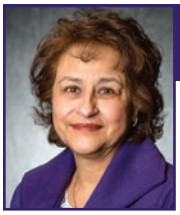

Bill Schmidt
Vice President - Scouting

Bill Schmidt began his direction of the scouting department on Oct. 1, 1999. He was named vice president of scouting on Jan. 2, 2007.

Schmidt, 60, joined the Rockies from the Cleveland Indians, where he served four seasons (1995-99) as a national crosschecker. Before that, Schmidt supervised the Southern California, Arizona and Nevada regions for the New York Yankees (1988-95). He worked for the Major League Baseball Scouting Bureau from 1987-88, after launching his scouting career with the Cincinnati Reds (1982-84). All told, Schmidt has over 30 years of scouting experience. His first job out of college was as head baseball coach at his alma mater, Magnolia High School, in Anaheim, Calif. He also assisted at Santa Ana Junior College (1982-84) and Arizona State University (1985). Professionally, he coached in the Pioneer League for the Reds (1984) and Brewers (1986), before his three seasons coaching the Yankees' New York-Penn League club (1991-93).

At the 2019 Baseball Winter Meetings, Schmidt was honored with the West Coast Scout of the Year Award, and in January of '19, he was one of six scouts to receive the Legends in Scouting Award at the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation annual gala.

Schmidt has a master's degree from Azusa Pacific and a bachelor's degree from Cal. State, Long Beach. Bill and his wife Linda have two sons, Andrew and Matthew.

Elizabeth Stecklein
Vice President - Human Resources

One of the Rockies' first employees, Liz Stecklein was hired in December 1991 and is in her 15th year as vice president of human resources. She was named to the position on Jan. 1, 2006. Prior to that, she was director of personnel and administration (1995-98) and senior director of human resources (1998-2005).

Stecklein oversees all human resources matters for the organization. Prior to joining the Rockies, Stecklein spent 20 years in employee relations for Exxon Company, USA, before the company's relocation. Stecklein is a graduate of Denver's Cathedral High School.

Liz and her husband Steve have two children, Stephen and Kristin, and six grandchildren.

Assistant General Manager - Baseball Ops./Assistant General Counsel

Zack Rosenthal serves as assistant general manager of baseball operations and assistant general counsel. This year is his sixth season in his current role and 15th with the Rockies.

Rosenthal joined the Rockies in 2006 as an intern in player development, after interning for the Boston Red Sox in Fenway Affairs and working as an account manager with the Oakland Athletics. After his internship with the Rockies, Rosenthal was hired as a baseball operations assistant and assistant general counsel, a post he held for four seasons, before serving as the club's director of baseball operations and assistant general counsel for five seasons.

In his current role, Rosenthal assists General Manager Jeff Bridich with contract matters, player transactions, payroll management, salary arbitration, statistical analysis, Major League roster oversight, rules administration, advanced scouting, as well as team operations, daily budgeting and capital expense management, and all legal matters involving the baseball operations department. Additionally, as the club's assistant general counsel, he assists with business matters, litigation and other legal issues as needed.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in mass communication from the University of California, Berkeley, Rosenthal earned his J.D. at Boston University School of Law, as well as his master's degree in communications from Boston University College of Communication.

Zack and his wife Kara were married in October 2007, and they currently live in Denver, Colo., with their daughter, Preston.

Jon Weil

Assistant General Manager - Player Personnel

The 2020 campaign is Jon Weil's 25th year in professional baseball. He is in his 15th season with the Rockies.

Promoted to his current role in November of 2014, Weil assists General Manager Jeff Bridich in player personnel acquisitions and oversees both the Rockies' Major League and Minor League scouting efforts. Additionally, he evaluates the Major League club and Minor League system, while also evaluating players for acquisition.

Weil served as the Rockies' director of professional scouting from 2010-14, after being promoted from manager of professional scouting, a role he served in for two years. In 2012, he was awarded the Herb Hippauf Scouting Award, presented annually to the individual that exemplifies loyalty, dedication, honesty and a commitment to doing what is in the best interest of the Colorado Rockies.

Prior to working in professional scouting, Weil was the Rockies' manager of Minor League operations for two years, assisting in the operations of the player development department. Weil came to the Rockies after spending nearly five years as an area scout for the Kansas City Royals, where his territory included Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky. His baseball career began while working as a Florida Marlins bat boy in 1996 and 1997, the year they won the World Series title. In 1998 and 1999, he interned in Florida's player relations and scouting departments, then went on to complete MLB's Scout Development Program in 2000.

A native of Hollywood, Fla., Weil graduated from Hollywood Hills High School in 1996. In 2000, he earned a bachelor's degree in business management from the University of Florida, graduating with honors. Subsequently, he received a master's degree in sports management from Nova Southeastern University.

Jon and his wife Laura reside in Denver, Colo., with their daughters, Anabella and Kendall.

Zach Wilson

Assistant General Manager - Player Development

Zach Wilson was promoted to assistant general manager of player development in January 2019. He is in his 19th season with the Rockies organization. Previously, Wilson spent five seasons as the senior director of player development.

Wilson began his baseball career with the Rockies' amateur scouting department, where he spent nine seasons, rising to assistant director. In 2010, Wilson was recognized with the Herb Hippauf Scouting Award, presented annually to the individual that exemplifies loyalty, dedication, honesty and a commitment to doing what is in the best interest of the Colorado Rockies.

In January 2011, Wilson was promoted to assistant director of player development, working closely with then senior director of player development and current Executive Vice President & General Manager Jeff Bridich. In his current role, Wilson oversees all aspects of the Rockies player development department.

A former collegiate second baseman at Indiana-Purdue University at Fort Wayne, Wilson was inducted into its Athletic Hall of Fame in February 2016. He earned his bachelor's degree in business from Indiana University.

Doug Bernier

Major League Data & Game Planning Coordinator

Doug Bernier moves to the role of Major League data & game planning coordinator after serving two seasons as a professional scout for the Rockies in 2018 and 2019. Bernier was a longtime professional player and Rockie, originally signed by the organization as a non-drafted free agent in 2002, making his Major League debut at Coors Field with the Rockies in 2008.

His career spanned 16 years, playing for the Rockies, Yankees, Pirates, Twins and Rangers organizations, reaching the Major League level with both the Rockies and Twins.

In his current role, Bernier will work closely with the Rockies research and development team, coaches and players to aggregate and interpret data. He will also assist players and coaches in the day-to-day gathering, evaluating and utilization of data to improve individual and team performance.

Born in Santa Maria, Calif., Bernier attended St. Joseph High School and graduated with his bachelor's degree from Oral Roberts in 2003.

Bernier and his wife Sarah have three daughters: Kinsley (8), Avery (5) and Addison (1). He and his family reside in Littleton, Colo.

Peter Bourjos

Advance Scout

Peter Bourjos was named a Major League advance scout for the Rockies in January 2020, after a 14-year professional playing career. He played the outfield at the Major League level with the Angels, Cardinals, Phillies, Rays and Braves.

In his big league career, Bourjos made nine straight Opening Day rosters (2011-19). In 2011, he became the first player in Angels' history to record at least 25 doubles, 10 triples, 10 home runs and 20 steals in a single season, while his 11 triples were tied for the most in the American League.

Bourjos joined Chris Warren in working closely with the coaching staff in delivering field scouting information on upcoming Major League opponents.

Bourjos is a graduate of Notre Dame High School in Scottsdale, Ariz., where he currently makes his home with his wife Ashley and three children. His father, Chris, a former Major League player himself, is currently a professional scout with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Irma Castañeda

Assistant to Executive Vice President & General Manager

In her 24th season with the Rockies, Irma Castañeda serves as the assistant to Executive Vice President and General Manager Jeff Bridich. She is in her sixth year in baseball operations and second in her current role.

Castañeda began working in baseball in 1985 for Milwaukee's Double-A affiliate, the El Paso Diablos. During the 1995 All-Star FanFest in Arlington, Texas, she served as an event manager, and in 1996, she worked as a ticketing trainee with the Atlanta Braves Triple-A affiliate, the Richmond Braves. In September 1996, Castañeda was hired part-time in the Rockies call center before becoming a full-time employee in the group sales department. In May 2001, she was named assistant to the director of communications/public relations and eventually assistant to the vice president of communications/public relations.

A 1996 graduate of the University of Texas, Castañeda majored in sport management with a minor in business administration. She worked in the sports information department during her time at Texas. Born and raised in El Paso, Texas, Irma lives in Morrison, Colo., and has two daughters, Larissa and Tatiana.

Vinny Castilla

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Vinny Castilla is a club original and one of the most popular players in franchise history; 2020 marks his 13th season as special assistant to the general manager.

Castilla, a native of Oaxaca, Mexico, was selected by the Rockies in the 1992 Expansion Draft, playing for Colorado's inaugural club in 1993 and being named to the All-Star team twice over the course of eight seasons with the Rockies organization. Castilla ranks among the Rockies career top-10 leaders in games, at-bats, runs, hits, doubles, home runs, RBI, extra-base hits and total bases.

Vinny currently lives in Denver with his wife Samantha and three sons, Marco, Daulton and Cristian.

Doug Chadwick

Director - Mental Skills Development

Doug Chadwick is in his fifth season with the Rockies and his first as the director of mental skills development.

In his current role, Chadwick develops, teaches and supervises the performance focused mental skills education for Minor League and Major League players and staff. He is a certified Mental Skills Consultant (CMPC) by the Association of Applied Sports Psychology (AASP) and a member of the Board of Directors of the Professional Baseball Performance Psychology Group.

Prior to joining the Rockies organization, Chadwick was a field artillery officer in the United States Army before retiring as the director of the Center for Enhanced Performance (CEP) at West Point following 20 years of active service. His service also included multiple combat tours in Iraq as well as faculty assignments at West Point, and he was awarded the Bronze Star two times. Chadwick also assisted in developing the mental skills education used throughout the U.S. Army.

Chadwick graduated with a bachelor's degree from the U.S. Military Academy, where he was the starting offensive guard on Army's nationally ranked football team in 1996. He received his Master of Arts in applied economics from University of Oklahoma and a Master of Science in Kinesiology (Sport Psychology) from Cal State Fullerton. Chadwick is also a graduate of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College. He earned his Ph.D. in higher education from the University of Georgia's Institute of Higher Education.

Doug and his wife Dr. Heather Chadwick, a professor at Charleston Southern, have two daughters: Emma (17) and Leah (10). They reside in Mount Pleasant, S.C., during the offseason.

Ty Coslow

Special Assistant - Player Personnel

Ty Coslow, an original Rockies hire, is in his 29th season with the club and sixth in his current role. Coslow's career began as an associate scout with the Montreal Expos in 1988, before becoming one of original Scouting Director Pat Daugherty's first hires with the Rockies in 1992. In his current role, Coslow evaluates professional players on special assignment and assists in player personnel acquisitions.

From Louisville, Ky., Coslow was an area scouting supervisor for 10 seasons before being promoted to Midwest crosschecker in 2002. After three seasons, he was promoted to national crosschecker, a post he held for five seasons. In 2010, Coslow moved over to the professional scouting department, where he scouted opposing organizations for professional acquisitions. Coslow was awarded the Pat Daugherty Scout of the Year Award in 1997 in recognition of scouting excellence. He was also awarded the Herb Hippauf Scouting Award in 2006, presented annually to the individual that exemplifies loyalty, dedication, honesty and a commitment to doing what is in the best interest of the Colorado Rockies. Over the course of his scouting career, Coslow has signed Rockies great Todd Helton as well as big leaguers Mark Thompson and Clint Barmes, among others. Ty and his wife Kim reside in Louisville, Ky., and have two daughters, Courtney and Morgan.

Domenic Di Ricco

Director - Baseball Operations

Domenic Di Ricco is in his second year as the Colorado Rockies director of baseball operations. He joined the Rockies in December 2014 after serving in the Office of the Commissioner for Major League Baseball from 2013-14, working closely with each team on waivers, rules and transactions.

Di Ricco, 32, is primarily involved in Major League operations, and assists the general manager in matters of rule compliance, player contracts, waivers, roster management and statistical analysis. In addition, he provides support in salary arbitration and free agent acquisitions.

A 2009 graduate of Cornell, the San Francisco Bay Area native played four seasons as an outfielder for the Big Red, serving as a co-captain his senior year. He went on to play one year professionally for the Rio Grande Valley White Wings of the United Baseball League.

Paul Egins

Senior Director - Major League Operations

A Rockies original hire, Paul Egins officially joined the club on Oct. 30, 1991. In his current role, Egins, 56, coordinates the Rockies Spring Training operations, Major League team travel, player relations and has special scouting assignments. The Columbus, Ga., native was promoted to director of Major League operations on Nov. 16, 2000, after serving as director of player development from 1997-99. In 2018, Egins was the recipient of the Rocky Mountain Chapter SABR award for Lifetime Achievement in Baseball and was named the Major League Baseball Don Davidson Memorial Award Traveling Secretary of the Year, which was voted on by his peers.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Egins worked for the Atlanta Braves from 1988-91, finishing his time there as assistant to the director of player development and scouting. He also spent two seasons as the team trainer of the Burlington Braves in the Midwest League, and in a similar role at both the University of Georgia and Florida A&M.

Born Sept. 22, 1963, Egins received a bachelor's degree in biology from the University of Georgia in 1986, with graduate work at Florida A&M in sports administration. Paul currently resides in Denver, Colo.

Evan Eshleman

Analyst - Baseball Research & Development

Evan Eshleman joined the organization in March 2017. This is his fourth season as an analyst with the Rockies.

Eshleman, 25, works in the baseball research and development department and is responsible for statistical analysis and report creation to assist front office personnel at the amateur and professional levels. He works closely with other members of the front office to support player evaluation and acquisition, salary arbitration and analysis, and data retrieval.

A Denver native, Eshleman graduated from Chatfield High School in 2013, then went on to attend the University of Denver, where he graduated in 2017 with a bachelor's degree in business information and analytics.

Chris Forbes

Assistant Director - Player Development

Chris Forbes joined the Rockies in 2007 and is in his sixth year in player development, his second as the assistant director.

As assistant director of player development, Forbes assists Assistant General Manager of Player Development Zach Wilson in all aspects of the Minor League system. Prior to moving to the front office in 2015, he spent the previous eight years as an area scouting supervisor.

In his time in the amateur scouting department, Forbes was the area scout in several parts of the country. He began his tenure scouting southern Texas, moving from there to the Pacific Northwest, and spent five years scouting Arizona, Utah, New Mexico and Las Vegas. Forbes' scouting skills earned him the Pat Daugherty Scout of the Year Award in 2011.

Forbes previously held several coaching positions at the collegiate level, including stints at Kansas State and Northern Colorado. Chris, his wife Lisa, and their children, TJ and Madison, currently reside in Englewood, Colo.

Marc Gustafson

Senior Director - Scouting Operations

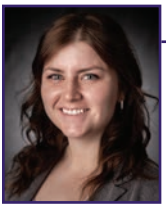

Marc Gustafson has been with the Rockies for 27 years, serving in both the scouting and player development departments. He was named senior director of scouting operations on Sept. 15, 2011.

Gustafson was previously in player development, rising to the level of senior director before moving to the scouting department. Prior to joining the front office, he was a trainer in the Rockies' Minor League system for five years.

In his current role, Gustafson supervises all amateur scouting personnel, manages the day-to-day operations of the scouting department, organizes the annual First-Year Player Draft in June, and evaluates other talent as assigned throughout the spring, summer and fall.

Born Sept. 14, 1969, Gustafson lettered in football, baseball and basketball at Eaton (Colo.) High School. His great grandparents immigrated to Eaton and his family has lived there for four generations. He went on to play baseball at Doane University in Crete, Neb. Gustafson graduated from Colorado State, earning a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science.

Marc, his wife Amy and their two sons, Jack and Charlie, reside in Broomfield, Colo.

On the baseball side, Obernauer leads the club's statistical and advanced data analysis in the amateur scouting department as part of the MLB First-Year Player Draft preparations. Obernauer provides additional research and oversees long-term projects in the amateur and international scouting departments, while also advising and providing research in Major League salary arbitration. Additionally, he assists the club's general counsel in carrying out any necessary legal functions, including business, contractual and litigation matters.

Obernauer earned his undergraduate degree from Yale University and his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School. He joined the Rockies after two years at Proskauer Rose LLP in New York, N.Y., where he worked on corporate matters with the firm's sports law group.

Trevor Patch

Director - Baseball Research and Development

Trevor Patch is in his ninth season with the Rockies organization, his second as the director of the baseball research and development department.

Patch leads the team responsible for internal software development and proprietary analytical models to assist with player personnel decisions at the amateur and professional levels, along with managing the Major League advance scouting process. In addition, he assists the general manager and baseball operations staff with player transactions, payroll management, salary arbitration, roster management and free agent acquisitions.

A native of Louisville, Colo., Patch attended Peak to Peak Charter School before continuing to college, where he competed in NCAA golf and completed the AmeriCorps program. He graduated from Colorado State in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in mathematics with a concentration in statistics. He then earned his master's degree in data science from Northwestern University in 2016.

Tom Probst

Senior Director - Medical Operations & Special Projects

Tom Probst, who began his Rockies career in 1992, is in his ninth season as the club's senior director of medical operations and special projects after six years as the club's director of medical operations.

In his current role, Probst oversees all medical personnel at both the Major and Minor League levels, as well as the organization-wide workers compensation program. He has also been instrumental in overseeing the club's facilities projects, including Salt River Fields at Talking Stick in Scottsdale, Ariz., the Rookie League club transition to Grand Junction and the Dominican academy complex in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic.

An original hire when the team began Minor League play in 1992, Probst joined the Rockies after five years in the Montreal Expos organization. Probst served as athletic trainer for Colorado's first group of draftees at a June 1992 mini-camp and was the athletic trainer for the first team in organizational history, the Bend Rockies. He went on to work in the Major League training room for the Rockies for the next 12 seasons, first as assistant athletic trainer (1993-98), then as head athletic trainer, beginning on Oct. 27, 1998. In 2003, he and current Head Athletic Trainer Keith Dugger were named Major League Training Staff of the Year by their peers. That same year, Probst was selected to represent the National League as one of its trainers at the All-Star Game in Chicago. Following the 2004 season, he toured Japan with the Major League Baseball All-Stars.

Probst is treasurer for the Executive Board of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS), a position he also held in 2004. An active member of PBATS, Probst was the NL representative for the organization in 2002 and 2003, and he was asked to speak in Nagoya, Japan in December 2004. Probst has been a member of the MLB Workers Compensation Quality Council since 2005, and most recently has assisted MLB with development of the Electronic Medical Records System and Injury Surveillance System, and he has participated in the EMR Advisory Committee.

Probst has a degree in physical education from Mankato State University (1981) and a bachelor's degree in physical therapy from Florida International University (1988).

Abi Sislo

Data Engineer - Baseball Research and Development

Abi Sislo is in her second season with the Rockies as a data engineer in the baseball operations department.

Prior to her current stint in baseball, Sislo spent the previous four years interning for various companies in data and programming. Most recently, she was a UI/UX design intern for the Bank of Oklahoma.

Born and raised in Siloam Springs, Ark., Sislo attended Siloam Springs High School and went on to attend the University of Tulsa, where she earned her bachelor's degree in mathematics with minors in computer science and economics.

Abi currently resides in Denver, Colo.

He previously served as the coordinator of Minor League operations for five years. Working alongside Zach Wilson and Chris Forbes, he assists in all aspects of the department and is responsible for the administrative tasks within the Rockies' Minor League operations.

This is Stender's seventh year as a full-time member of the Rockies front office, which followed two years of part-time work between the ticketing and player development departments. He was the recipient of the 2017 P.J. Carey Player Development award and was recognized as the organization's Employee of the Month in September 2015.

Stender graduated from the University of Colorado in May 2011. He earned a bachelor's degree in business marketing and finished at the top of his class in CU's Business of Sports Certificate Program. Stender attended ThunderRidge High School in Highlands Ranch, Colo., playing baseball and basketball.

Chris Warren

Advance Scout

A former Rockies draft pick, Chris Warren is in his 16th season as the club's Major League advance scout. He works closely with the coaching staff and players on breaking down upcoming opponents and developing strategy.

Warren was drafted by the Rockies in the 20th round of the 1999 First-Year Player Draft by the Rockies. He played six seasons with the organization, including 2001 when he played under former Rockies coach Dave Collins at Salem, helping the Avalanche win the Carolina League Championship. The middle infielder retired after spending the 2003 season at Double-A Tulsa.

A graduate of Cedar Shoals High School in Athens, Ga., Chris attended Howard University in Washington, D.C.

Mark Wiley

Director - Pitching Operations

Mark Wiley is in his eighth season as the Rockies director of pitching operations. In his current role, Wiley is responsible for overseeing the organization's pitching efforts, from draft preparation to the Minor League clubs to the big league team. Wiley was with the Rockies previously, from 2006-07, as a special assistant to player development, and in 2000 as director of player personnel.

Wiley has 51 seasons in professional baseball, including 20 as a player and Minor League coach, 17 as a Major League pitching coach and 14 seasons in the front office. He made his Major League coaching debut in 1987 with the Baltimore Orioles before becoming the pitching coach for the Cleveland Indians (1988-91 and 1995-98), guiding the Indians pitching staff to the lowest ERA in the American League in 1995 and 1996. Prior to returning to the Rockies in 2013, Wiley worked in the Marlins organization as the special assistant to the general manager (2010-12) and pitching coach (2005, 2008-09). Wiley's playing career spanned 11 seasons in professional baseball, including two years in the Major Leagues, appearing with Minnesota in 1975, and San Diego and Toronto in 1978.

A graduate of Cal Poly Pomona, Wiley was inducted into the Broncos Hall of Fame in February 2016. Mark and his wife Jo Ann have two children, son Clint and daughter Kristen.

MANAGER

Opening Day Age: 62
Born: June 30, 1957 in San Mateo, Calif.
Residence: Castle Pines, Colo.
Managing Experience: 12 Years
Named Manager: Nov. 7, 2016

COACHING CAREER: Bud Black enters his fourth season as manager of the Colorado Rockies, his 13th season overall as a Major League manager … is the seventh manager in Rockies franchise history.

- Has gone 249-238 as the Rockies manager, the only manager in franchise history with a winning percentage above .500 … his 487 games managed are the fifth-most in franchise history.
- Led the Rockies to consecutive postseason appearances in 2017 and 2018, the first time the Rockies reached the playoffs in back-to-back seasons in franchise history.
- Named a National League Manager of the Year finalist in 2017 and 2018.
- Spent the 2016 season as special assistant to the general manager for the Los Angeles Angels.
- Prior to joining the Angels front office, Black spent eight seasons and part of a ninth (2007-2015) as the manager of the San Diego Padres, where his 649 managerial wins are second most in Padres history.
- Named National League Manager of the Year in 2010, after guiding the Padres to a 90-72 record and a second-place finish in the National League West.
- Served as the pitching coach for the Angels for seven seasons (2000-06) … during his tenure, the Angels advanced to the playoffs three times and were the 2002 World Series champions.
- Previously spent four years in the Cleveland Indians organization as both a special assistant to the general manager (1996-97, 1999) and as a pitching coach for Triple-A Buffalo (1998).

PLAYING CAREER: Played in parts of 15 seasons with Seattle (1981), Kansas City (1982-88), Cleveland (1988-90, 1995), Toronto (1990) and San Francisco (1991-94).

- Drafted by the Seattle Mariners in the 17th round of the 1979 First-Year Player Draft.
- Over his 15 seasons in the Major Leagues, he went 121-116 with a 3.84 ERA … made his Major League debut on Sept. 5, 1981 as a member of the Seattle Mariners.
- Was the starting pitcher for the Royals during the "Pine Tar Game," July 24, 1983.
- Won a career-high 17 games in 1984, with a career-low 3.12 ERA, a career-high eight complete games and an American League-best 1.128 WHIP.
- Made 33 starts for the 1985 World Series Champion Kansas City Royals, including one start and one relief appearance in the World Series.

PERSONAL: Harry "Bud" Ralston Black … he and his wife Nanette (Nan) have two daughters, Jamie Davis (Andy) and Jessie, and one granddaughter, Harper … Bud and Nan reside in Castle Pines, Colo., during the season.

- Born in San Mateo, Calif., Black is a graduate of Mark Morris High School in Longview, Wash.
- Attended and played two seasons of college baseball at Lower Columbia Junior College (1976-77) in Longview … went on to play two seasons at San Diego State University (1978-79), where he earned his bachelor's degree in finance and became a 1992 inductee into the SDSU Aztec Hall of Fame.
- At SDSU, Black was a teammate of Hall of Famer Tony Gwynn.

STU COLE

THIRD BASE COACH

COACHING CAREER: The 2020 season is Stu Cole's 25th with the Rockies organization, his eighth year as the Major League third base coach.

- Cole also assists in handling infield instruction at the Major League level … during Cole's tenure, two Rockies infielders have won multiple Gold Gloves: DJ LeMahieu (2014, 2017-18) and Nolan Arenado (2013-19).
- Prior to joining the Rockies' Major League staff, Cole was the manager at Triple-A Colorado Springs for parts of four seasons (2009-12) … promoted to manage the Sky Sox in the middle of the 2009 season, replacing Tom Runnells after Runnells was named the Rockies' Major League bench coach.
- Has 12 years of experience as a manager in the Minor Leagues, with a 794-830 (.489) record … prior to joining the Sky Sox, Cole was the manager of the Double-A Tulsa Drillers beginning in 2006 … he led the Drillers to a first-half North Division title with a 41-29 record in his first season … prior to managing the Drillers, Cole was at the helm of Colorado's High-A Visalia Oaks for four seasons.
- In 2003, he guided Visalia to a league and organizational-best 79-61 record (.564), en route to being named California League Manager of the Year.
- Prior to his managerial jobs, Cole spent six years as a Minor League coach, all with Colorado.

PLAYING CAREER: A former infielder, Cole played nine seasons of professional baseball, his last three with the Rockies' Triple-A affiliate in Colorado Springs, from 1993-95.

- Made his Major League debut Sept. 5, 1991 at Chicago-AL and played nine games for the Royals that year … collected his first and only Major League hit Sept. 13, 1991, a 12th-inning single off Mariners pitcher Mike Jackson.
- Cole began his professional career in 1987, after being selected in the third round of the First-Year Player Draft by Kansas City.

PERSONAL: Stu and his wife Maria make their home in Charlotte, N.C. … they have two children, Stu Jr. and Victoria, and two grandchildren.

- Attended the University of North Carolina at Charlotte before being drafted.

Brian Brown joins the Colorado Rockies this season as the new assistant to the culinary nutritionist. Brown has received an associate degree from the Art Institute in Atlanta, Ga., while pursuing certifications in nutrition and sports nutrition through the ISSA program.

Brown began his culinary career at age 18, working under the Fifth Group Restaurants company in Atlanta at Bold Catering and Design. He was there for six years, working his way up to event chef manager. Brian then went on to be one of the head chefs for the visiting clubhouse at SunTrust Park during its inaugural year, and then the head chef for the Rockies' Spring Training facility at Salt River Fields in Scottsdale, Arizona.

3,000 HITS

On Aug. 7, 2016 at Coors Field, Miami Marlins outfielder Ichiro Suzuki recorded his 3,000th Major League hit in the seventh inning off Rockies left-handed pitcher Chris Rusin. Ichiro became the 30th player in Major League history to reach the milestone and was the third Major Leaguer to reach 3,000 hits against the Rockies. The Houston Astros' Craig Biggio reached 3,000 hits on June 28, 2007 at Minute Maid Park off Aaron Cook. San Diego's Rickey Henderson reached the milestone on Oct. 7, 2001 at Qualcomm Stadium off John Thomson.

Colorado Rockies Grounds Crew

Mark Razum

Head Groundskeeper

Mark Razum is in his 26th season as head groundskeeper for Coors Field, and his 42nd year in the profession. Razum and his staff have built one of the best playing surfaces in professional sports at the corner of 20th and Blake.

"Raz" recently completed a two-year term as president of The Association of Major League Baseball Groundskeepers. In 1998, Razum's peers named him the Turf/Grass Professional of the Year, an award presented by the Rocky Mountain Turf/Grass Association. He was recognized, in part, for the star design he and his staff cut into the Coors Field grass for the 1998 All-Star Game.

Prior to joining the Rockies in October 1994, Razum served six years as head of the Oakland Athletics' grounds crew at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, where players voted the field the best in the American League for three consecutive seasons (1992-94). He spent seven years in charge of spring surfaces for Oakland (1984-89) and the California Angels (1982-84). His groundskeeping career began in 1978 at Municipal Stadium in his native Cleveland, Ohio.

SWITCH-HIT HOME RUNS

Two Rockies have homered from both sides of the plate in a single game. Aaron Miles accomplished the feat on April 14, 2004 vs. Arizona. Dexter Fowler is the most recent player to hit home runs from both sides, Sept. 5, 2011, also vs. Arizona.

- Combined for 0.2 innings of work over four appearances, allowing 13 runs on no hits with seven hit batters, nine walks and one strikeout … was released on June 18.
- Missed two months of the season, April 3-June 3, with a shoulder injury.

2013: Sent to Double-A Portland to begin the season … made two appearances for Boston and was later acquired off waivers by Chicago-NL on Sept. 4.
- Across 13 games, went 0-1 with Portland while posting a 6.39 ERA (12.2 IP, 9 ER).
- Placed on the seven-day disabled list June 6 with a left hip strain that kept him out for the remainder of the season.
- Elected free agency from Chicago-NL on Dec. 2.

2012: Posted a career-high five wins over his two stints with the Red Sox, pitching primarily as a starter prior to his June 5 option to Triple-A Pawtucket … was recalled on Aug. 30 and finished the season as a reliever.

(BARD, continued)

- Made his first career start in his 193rd Major League appearance on April 10 … as a starter, went 4-6 with a 5.30 ERA (54.1 IP, 32 ER) across 10 starts … went 1-0 with a 16.20 ERA (5.0 IP, 9 ER) across seven appearances out of the bullpen.
- Allowed a career-high nine home runs and walked a career-high 43 batters, while striking out a career-low 38.
- Posted an ERA of 3.70 (24.1 IP, 10 ER) at home, compared to his 7.97 (35.0 IP, 31 ER) mark away from Fenway Park.
- Earned a decision in all 10 of his starts, the longest such streak by a Red Sox pitcher to begin a career since Tom Bolton's 11 consecutive decisions, Aug. 3, 1989-Aug. 18, 1990.

2011: Made 25 consecutive scoreless appearances, May 27-July 31, establishing a new Red Sox record.

- Ranked fifth among AL relievers in appearances (70) and opponent batting average (.179), while his 74 strikeouts ranked seventh.
- Allowed 5 of 34 inherited runners to score (14.7 percent), the fourth-lowest among qualifying AL relievers … it was the second-best mark for any Red Sox reliever (min. 30 IR) since 1995, behind Jonathan Papelbon's 13.3 percent mark (4-for-30) in 2008.
- His .136 (15-for-110) batting average against right-handers was the fourth-best among AL pitchers with at least 100 batters faced.
- Hitters went 0-for-12 with bases loaded against him.

2010: Earned the Fireman of the Year Award from the Boston Chapter of the BBWAA after tying for third among AL relievers with 76 strikeouts.

- Struck out at least one batter in 51 of his 73 games.
- Became the first Boston reliever to pitch at least 70.0 innings while recording an ERA under 2.00 since Dick Radatz in 1963 (132.1 IP, 1.97 ERA).
- Saved a career-high three games: May 19 vs. Minnesota, June 8 at Cleveland and June 18 vs. Los Angeles-NL.

2009: Made his Major League debut on May 13 at Anaheim and led Major League rookie relievers with 11.49 strikeouts-per-nine innings … also made his postseason debut in the ALDS at Anaheim.

- His SO/9 rate was the third-best ratio among AL rookie relievers since Ken Brett's 12.04 mark in 1921.
- Also ranked among AL rookie relievers in strikeouts (63, fourth), opponent batting average (.228, eighth), games pitched (49, seventh) and innings pitched (49.1, ninth).
- His 63 strikeouts tied Hideki Okajima (2007) for fourth among Red Sox rookie relievers since 1921, behind Dick Radatz (143 in 1962), Jonathan Papelbon (75 in 2006) and Ken Brett (70 in 1970).
- Pitched 2.0 scoreless innings in his Major League debut on May 13 at Anaheim and struck out his first batter faced (Mike Napoli).
- Struck out five consecutive batters on May 29 at Toronto, making him the first Red Sox rookie to strike out five straight since Casey Fossum on Aug. 27, 2002 vs. New York-AL.

2008: Named Boston's Minor League Pitcher of the Year, splitting time between High-A Greenville and Double-A Portland in his second professional season.

- Pitched more than one inning in 33 of 46 combined appearances, including 11 consecutive games, April 6-May 7, with Single-A Greenville.
- Garnered Red Sox Minor League Pitcher of the Month honors for April after pitching 20.0 scoreless innings and going 1-0 with an organization-best 32 strikeouts over 10 appearances … his scoreless streak stretched to 22.0 innings and 11 outings before he surrendered two runs on May 7 against Rome.
- Promoted to Double-A Portland on May 17 and struck out at least one batter in 29 of his 31 appearances with the Sea Dogs.

2007: Started 22 games between High-A Lancaster and Single-A Greenville in his first professional season.

- Made five starts for Lancaster, April 6-27, before being placed on the disabled list on May 2 with an elbow strain.

2019: An All-Star for the fourth time (third consecutive), and became the eighth player in Rockies history to be named an All-Star three years in a row.

- Converted to right field, where he played 135 games … ranked first in the NL, second in MLB, batting .385 (42-for-109) with runners in scoring position.
- Finished among NL leaders in extra-base hits (81-T3), doubles (42-4th, career high), hits (182-4th), triples (7-T4), runs (112-5th), batting average (.314-6th), slugging percentage (.576-7th), and OPS (.940-8th).
- Tied for second in the Majors in 4+-hit games (five) and led in 3+-hit contests (21).
- Hit a go-ahead, three-run home run in the 16th inning on Sept. 24 at San Francisco, tied for the latest home run by inning in franchise history (also: Nolan Arenado, Sept. 15, 2015 at Los Angeles-NL).
- Slashed .379/.435/.739 in 66 home games, reaching base safely in 58.
- His six leadoff home runs tied for third in the NL … his 36 career leadoff home runs rank ninth in MLB history (fourth among active players), third in the NL behind Jimmy Rollins (46) and Craig Biggio (53).
- Became the sixth player in Rockies history with four or more consecutive seasons of 25 or more home runs, joining Arenado, Dante Bichette, Vinny Castilla, Andres Galarraga and Todd Helton.
- Had at least three hits in six straight home games June 13-28, the longest home hitting streak of its kind in Major League history.
- NL Player of the Month for June, his second career Player of the Month honor … ranked first in the NL in batting average (.412), first in slugging percentage (.835) and first in runs scored (30) … ranked second in home runs (10), tied for second in hits (40) and fifth in RBI (25).

(BLACKMON, continued)

- Named the NL Player of the Week for the week ending June 16, his sixth career Player of the Week honor … his six Player of the Week Awards are tied with Arenado, Bichette and Helton for the most in franchise history … batted .568 (21-for-37) with 12 runs scored, four doubles, one triple, six home runs and 15 RBI over the week … according to Elias, he became the fourth player since 1900 to log at least 20 hits and five home runs over a seven-game span, joining Tim Salmon (1994), Bill Terry (1932) and Al Simmons (1932).
- Reached base in his first 32 home games (April 5-July 3) … hit safely in 28 straight home games, (April 18-July 3), the third-longest home hitting streak in club history.

2018: Signed a six-year contract with the Rockies, including two player options, on April 4.

- Started in center field all four postseason games … went 2-for-15 (.133) with one run, one RBI and one walk.
- Led the NL with 119 runs, his second straight season leading the National League in runs … tied for fourth in the league with a team-high 182 hits, and finished tied for seventh with 51 multi-hit games.
- Recorded his third straight season with at least 100 runs scored and 25 home runs … joined Willie Mays and Duke Snider as the only NL center fielders with three consecutive 100/25 seasons.
- Hit for his first career cycle, the ninth in Rockies history, in the 162nd game of the season … first cycle in the 162nd game of the season in Major League history.
- His 17-game hitting streak Sept. 8-25 tied for the longest hitting streak in the National League in 2018, and was the longest by a Rockies player since Carlos González's 19-game streak in 2016.
- Hit his first career walk-off home run on July 25 vs. Houston in the 3-2 Rockies win … it was his second career walk-off RBI (also: Sept. 1, 2014 vs. San Francisco).

2017: Became the first center fielder to win the National League Batting Title since Willie McGee with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1990.

- Won his second consecutive Silver Slugger Award after leading the Major Leagues in hits (213), runs (137), triples (14) and total bases (387).
- Set career highs in batting average (.331), games (159), runs, hits, triples (14), home runs (37), total bases, RBI (104), walks (65), on-base percentage (.399) and slugging percentage (.601).
- Set a Major League record with 103 RBI from the leadoff position, surpassing Darin Erstad's previous mark of 100 set with the Angels in 2000.
- His 86 extra-base hits were the third most by a leadoff hitter in Major League history and the highest ever by an NL leadoff hitter.
- His 383 total bases from the leadoff position were also the most all-time … his 37 home runs were the third most all-time by a leadoff hitter, trailing Alfonso Soriano's 38 in 2002 with the Yankees and 39 in 2006 with the Nationals.
- His 68 multi-hit games were a franchise record and the most in the NL since 2004 (Mark Loretta, Juan Pierre).
- Named the National League Player of the Month in May, after batting .359 with 24 runs, six doubles, five triples, six home runs and 22 RBI … led the NL in hits, batting average and triples, tied for the lead in extra-base hits and finished fifth in RBI … his 42 hits tied the club record for hits in the month of May.
- Named the National League Player of the Week for May 22-28, after hitting .400 (12-for-30) with three home runs, 12 RBI, six runs scored, a double, a triple, and a stolen base over seven games.
- Voted by the fans as the starting center fielder for the NL in the All-Star Game, his second career All-Star selection and first career start … participated in the Home Run Derby and hit 14 home runs.

2016: Won his first career Silver Slugger after setting then-career highs in runs (111), hits (187), home runs (29), RBI (82), batting average (.324), on-base percentage (.381) and slugging percentage (.552).

- Led NL outfielders in batting average, slugging percentage, hits and runs.
- His 29 home runs as a leadoff hitter were the most in Major League Baseball and the most in the National League since Alfonso Soriano and Hanley Ramirez hit 29 and 32 home runs, respectively, in 2008 … the 29 home runs were tied for the seventh most by a leadoff hitter in NL history (now tied for ninth).
- Led MLB with 10 leadoff home runs … became the fifth player in Major League history to record double-digit leadoff home runs in a season, the third in National League history (Alfonso Soriano, 12, 2007; Bobby Bonds, 11, 1973).
- Hit five home runs in the three-game series at Philadelphia, Aug. 12-14, the most in a three-game series by a Rockies player and tied for the most in any series in franchise history (Todd Helton, Aug 13-15 vs. Montreal, five-game series).

2015: His 43 stolen bases were third in the Majors behind Miami's Dee Gordon (58) and Cincinnati's Billy Hamilton (57).

- His 43 stolen bases ranked third in the NL and were the fifth most in a single season in club history … fourth player in Rockies history to steal 40 or more bases in a season (sixth time overall) … first Rockie to steal 40 or more bases since Willy Taveras stole 68 in 2008.
- Tied for the team lead in games (157), while leading the Rockies in triples (9) and on-base percentage (.347).
- Hit six leadoff home runs, four on the road and two at home.
- Eight assists in center field tied for most among NL center fielders.

- Voted to the All-Star team via the player vote … went 0-for-2 in the game and played center field as a reserve.
- Played the majority of the season as the Rockies' leadoff hitter … led all NL players from the leadoff spot in RBI (69) and was second in home runs (19).
- On the Rockies' Opening Day roster for the first time in his career, and made the start in the Rockies' home opener, April 4 vs. Arizona … went 6-for-6 with three doubles, one home run, five RBI and four runs … the six hits tied a Rockies record originally set by Andres Galarraga (6-for-6, July 3, 1995 vs. Houston) … became the 10th player since 1920, when RBI became an official statistic, to go 6-for-6 or better with that many RBI and runs scored in a game.
- Had three games of 5-for-5 or better … went 5-for-5 July 12 vs. Minnesota and 5-for-5 Sept. 17 vs. Los Angeles-NL … according to Elias, he was the fifth player since 1900 to record at least three games of 5-for-5 or better, joining Hall of Famers Ty Cobb (1922), Tris Speaker (1923), Stan Musial (1948) and Tony Gwynn (1993), plus Ichiro Suzuki in 2004.

2013: Split the season between Triple-A Colorado Springs, where he began the campaign, and the Rockies.

- Played in 82 games for the Rockies, batting .309 (76-for-246) with 35 runs, 17 doubles, two triples, six home runs, 22 RBI, seven walks, and seven stolen bases in seven attempts.
- His nine doubles in September were tied with teammate Todd Helton for the fifth most in the NL.

2012: Began the season on the 15-day disabled list with turf toe in his left big toe, then spent the first four and a half months in the Minors prior to his recall from Triple-A on Aug. 18.

- Batted .289 (83-for-287) with 23 doubles, four triples, six home runs and 37 RBI in 76 Minor League games between Short-Season Tri-City and Triple-A Colorado Springs.

2011: Made his Major League debut June 7 at San Diego and played in 27 games for the Rockies in his first big league stint.

- Hit his first career home run July 1 vs. Kansas City off Joakim Soria, a pinch-hit home run on his 25th birthday.
- Finished the season on the 60-day disabled list with a right foot fracture suffered July 7 at Atlanta while rounding second base.

2010: Spent the entire season at Double-A Tulsa as the club's regular center fielder, batting .297 (100-for-337) with 22 doubles, four triples, 11 home runs and 55 RBI in 86 games.

- Missed nearly all of the first two months of the season due to injury and did not make his 2010 debut until May 31 at Frisco.

2009: Played his entire second professional season with High-A Modesto in the California League.

- Led the Nuts in batting average (.307), RBI (69), stolen bases (30) and runs scored (30).

2008: In his first professional season, led Short-Season Tri-City with a .338 (98-for-290) batting average.

- Named to the Northwest League Post-Season All-Star team … named the 10th-best prospect in the Northwest League after the season by Baseball America … also tabbed by the same publication as the Rockies' 10th-best prospect.

HUMIDOR

The humidor was implemented at Coors Field in 2002 per MLB's approval and it remains under MLB's management/oversight. The humidor is a temperature and humidity-controlled environment with settings that mirror the distribution warehouse in the Midwest from which the baseballs are shipped to all 30 teams. The humidor keeps the baseballs within MLB specifications for weight and measurement. Chain of custody procedures for the baseballs are maintained by the MLB Authenticator: The MLB Authenticator meets the Umpire's Room Attendant at the humidor, watches him put the baseballs in the ball bag, escorts the attendant with the balls to the Umpires Room and then to the dugout; the Authenticator is positioned in the dugout during the game next to the ball bag.

- Career-long, six-game losing streak across an 11-start span, April 29-July 30 … snapped the streak on Aug. 4 vs. San Francisco, a 6-3 Rockies win (5.0,4,2,2,1,5).
- The losing pitcher in the second game of the July 24 doubleheader at Washington, despite not allowing an earned run across six innings … seventh starter in Rockies history, first since Drew Pomeranz on July 1, 2012, to lose a game after working six or more innings and allowing no earned runs.
- Allowed a career-high 25 home runs … his 2.16 home runs per nine innings rate was the fifth highest in the Majors, the highest rate in the NL.
- Went 2-4 with a 9.25 ERA (47.2 IP, 49 ER) in 10 starts at home.

2018: Finished fourth in National League Cy Young Award voting after going 17-7 with a 2.85 ERA (202.1 IP, 64 ER), the second Rockies pitcher to finish in the top five in Cy Young Award voting (also: Ubaldo Jiménez, third, 2010).

- His 2.84 ERA was the lowest in a full season in franchise history and the fourth lowest in the NL in 2018 … it was the second lowest in franchise history among ERA qualifiers, trailing Marvin Freeman's 2.80 ERA (112.2 IP, 35 ER) in the strike-shortened 1994 season.
- Started the National League Wild Card game at Wrigley Field on three days rest, pitching 6.2 shutout innings … allowed four hits with one walk and six strikeouts … only pitcher in franchise history to pitch at least six scoreless innings in a postseason game.
- His 202.1 innings pitched ranked fifth in the National League, the first Rockies pitcher to reach 200 innings pitched in a season since Ubaldo Jiménez in 2010 (221.2 IP).
- His 24 quality starts were fourth in the NL and tied for second in franchise history with Ubaldo Jiménez in 2009.

(FREELAND, continued)

- His 17 wins tied for the second most in franchise history and tied for fourth in the NL … most wins by a Rockies pitcher since Jiménez won a franchise-record 19 games in 2010.
- Finished the season with 173 strikeouts, the ninth most in franchise history.
- Induced a National League-leading 24 double plays.
- Went 10-2 with a 2.40 ERA (93.2 IP, 25 ER) in 15 starts at home, the lowest home ERA in franchise history and tied for the most wins.
- Finished the season on an eight-game winning streak over an 11-start span from Aug. 6-Sept. 28, tied for the second-longest streak in franchise history, the longest since Ubaldo Jiménez won a franchise-record nine straight in 2010 … posted a 2.18 ERA (70.1 IP, 17 ER) with 11 straight quality starts over that span, the fourth longest quality start streak in franchise history.
- The Rockies went 23-10 in his 33 starts, including 12-2 in the second half … the Rockies went 10-1 in his final 11 starts of the season.
- Went 9-1 with a 2.49 ERA (86.2 IP, 24 ER) in 14 starts after the All-Star break, the lowest second-half ERA by a Rockies starting pitcher in franchise history … nine wins were tied for the most in the NL and tied for the second most after the All-Star break in franchise history.
- Went 7-5 with a 3.23 ERA (108.2 IP, 39 ER) in 18 starts on the road … went 5-1 with a 2.66 ERA (67.2 IP, 20 ER) with eight quality starts over his last 11 road starts.
- Limited left-handed hitters to a .185 batting average, including a .100 batting average (5-for-50) with no extra-base hits allowed in the second half of the season.

2017: Made his Major League debut on April 7, starting the home opener in his hometown vs. Los Angeles-NL and was on the roster for the entire season.

- His 11 wins tied for the most among Major League rookies … also ranked third in innings pitched (156.0), fifth in ERA (4.10, min. 15 starts) and seventh in strikeouts (107) among all Major League rookies.
- His 11 wins tied for the fourth most among rookies in franchise history … his 4.10 ERA was the fourth lowest by a rookie in franchise history, the lowest since Jhoulys Chacin set the franchise record for rookies in 2010 (3.28).
- Was 9-7 with a 3.77 ERA (107.1 IP, 45 ER) in 18 starts prior to the All-Star break … went 2-4 with a 4.81 ERA (48.2 IP, 26 ER) in 15 appearances, 10 starts, in the second half.
- Scored upon in two of five relief appearances with a 2.84 ERA (6.1 IP, 2 ER) … first career relief appearance on July 15 at New York-NL, and four relief appearances in July.
- Went 6-8 with a 3.72 ERA (87.0 IP, 36 ER) in 19 appearances, 16 starts, at Coors Field … the 10th-lowest home ERA in franchise history among all pitchers, the second lowest by a Rockies rookie (Denny Stark, 3.21 in 2002).
- In the last game prior to the All-Star break on July 9, took a no-hit bid through 8.1 innings before allowing a hit to Melky Cabrera with one out in the ninth inning … it was the longest no-hit bid in Denver in franchise history and the second-longest in any ballpark in Rockies history, behind Ubaldo Jiménez's no-hitter in Atlanta in 2010.
- Hit his first professional home run May 21 at Cincinnati, a solo home run off Bronson Arroyo … also recorded a double in the game.

2016: Made his Double-A and Triple-A debuts, and was named an MiLB.com Organization All-Star.

- Assigned to Double-A Hartford on April 6 and made his Double-A debut April 7 against Richmond, pitching five innings and allowing one run on four hits with one walk and three strikeouts.

MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUT	FIRST ML WIN
5/30/15 with TEX vs. BOS	5/30/15 with Tex vs. BOS

2019: Made a career-high 12 starts and a career-high-tying 14 appearances across four stints in his first season with Colorado.

- Contract selected from Triple-A Albuquerque on June 25 and started that night at San Francisco, his first Major League appearance since 2016 … became the first pitcher to start for the Rockies that made his debut for another team since Tyler Chatwood in 2017, a span of 382 games … also became the first pitcher signed as a free agent to start for the Rockies since Kyle Kendrick in 2015.
- The Rockies lost each of his first nine starts and each of his first 10 appearances from June 25-Sept. 3 … went 0-6 with a 7.29 ERA (42.0 IP, 34 ER) over that span … first pitcher in franchise history to have the team lose each of his first eight starts … it was the longest such streak in MLB since the Reds lost each of Cory Reed's first 14 starts, June 18, 2016-Sept. 4, 2018 … snapped the streak with a win vs. St. Louis on Sept. 10.
- Went 2-0 with a 1.65 ERA (27.1 IP, 5 ER) in five appearances (four starts) in September and posted the fourth-lowest ERA in the National League that month.
- Made his second relief appearance of the season Sept. 22 at Dodger Stadium and earned a win … pitched five innings and allowed two unearned runs on two hits with one walk and eight strikeouts … the eight strikeouts were a career high and the second most by a Rockies reliever in franchise history (most: nine, Bruce Ruffin, Sept. 14, 1993, game one vs. Houston).

2018: Made two rehab stints with the AZL Rangers and Spokane Indians.

- Appeared in three games, two starts, allowing two hits across 10.0 innings with eight strikeouts.

2017: Missed the entire 2017 season due to Tommy John surgery.

2016: Spent a majority of the season with Triple-A Round Rock, posting a 4.70 ERA (138.0 IP, 72 ER).

- Made three starts for the Rangers, going 0-2 while allowing 13 runs (10 ER) over 10.1 IP.

2015: Made his Major League debut on May 30 with Texas.

- Threw a complete-game shutout on June 5 vs. the Kansas City Royals, his second career start, allowing three hits with two walks and two strikeouts.

RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Ranks fifth in club history with 670 career strikeouts and seventh with 43 wins
- His .714 home winning percentage (25-10) since 2015 ranks seventh among Major League pitchers and third in the National League … only Jorge De La Rosa (.726; 53-20) has a higher home winning percentage among all Rockies pitchers with 300 or more innings in Denver
- Only Pedro Astacio (15) has more double-digit strikeout games in franchise history than Gray's 14
- Only pitcher in franchise history to have three games of 12 or more strikeouts … also has four games in his career with double-digit strikeouts and no walks, the most such games in team history
- Fifth pitcher in Rockies history to make consecutive Opening Day starts (2017, 2018)
- In 2016, set the Rockies' rookie single-season record for strikeouts with 185
- Set a Rockies and Coors Field record with 16 strikeouts in his first career complete-game shutout, Sept. 17, 2016 vs. San Diego

MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUT	FIRST ML WIN
8/4/15 vs. SEA	5/13/16 vs. NYM

2019: Recorded at least 10 wins for the fourth consecutive season, the first player in franchise history to record double-digit wins in four straight seasons.

- Joined Jorge De La Rosa as the only Rockies pitchers with four total seasons with double-digit wins.
- Struck out at least 150 batters for the third time in his career (183 strikeouts in 2018, 185 in 2016), matching Ubaldo Jiménez (2008-10) and Pedro Astacio (1998-2000) for the most seasons with at least 150 strikeouts in franchise history.
- Moved into fifth place in franchise history with 670 strikeouts … passed Aaron Cook (558) and Jason Jennings (622) … also moved into seventh place in franchise history with 43 wins, passing Steve Reed (33), Tyler Chatwood (34), Jamey Wright (35), Jhoulys Chacín (38) and Kevin Ritz (39).
- Allowed a home run in 16 consecutive starts July 31, 2018-April 16, the longest streak in franchise history and the third longest string in Major League history … snapped the streak with six scoreless innings April 21 vs. Philadelphia.
- Struck out a season-high 10 batters two times, in his first start of the year, March 31 at Miami, and on June 13 vs. San Diego … his 14 career double-digit strikeout games are one short of Pedro Astacio's franchise record … did not issue a walk vs. the Padres, his fourth career start with no walks and at least 10 strikeouts, passing Astacio and Jiménez for the most in franchise history.
- Made his first career relief appearance on June 16 vs. San Diego … entered the game in the ninth inning and issued two intentional walks before walking in the go-ahead run.
- Placed on the 60-day injured list on Aug. 21 (fractured left foot) and missed the remainder of the season after undergoing surgery on Aug. 22.

2018: Made his second career Opening Day start, becoming the fifth pitcher in franchise history to start on Opening Day in consecutive years.

- The Rockies won nine consecutive starts from June 22-Aug. 22, which tied a franchise record set by Ubaldo Jiménez in 2010 for consecutive team wins in starts by a single pitcher.
- Pitched seven or more innings while allowing two or fewer earned runs in four consecutive starts July 14-Aug. 5 … it was the longest such streak since Ubaldo Jiménez pitched a franchise-record seven such games in succession, May 3-June 6, 2010.
- Optioned to Triple-A Albuquerque on June 29 and made two starts with the Isotopes, going 1-0 with a 3.38 ERA (10.2 IP, 4 ER), four walks and 13 strikeouts … allowed four hits and one home run.
- Went 2-0 and allowed two or fewer runs over seven or more innings pitched in each of his first four starts after being recalled on July 14 … 4-2 with a 4.68 ERA (73.0 IP, 38 ER) with 22 walks and 58 strikeouts in 13 starts in the second half, after going 8-7 with a 5.44 ERA (99.1 IP, 60 ER), 30 walks and 125 strikeouts in 18 starts in the first half.

(GRAY, continued)

2017: Made his first career Opening Day start, and his first career postseason start in the National League Wild Card Game at Arizona.

- On the Opening Day roster for the first time after beginning 2016 on the disabled list (abdominal strain).
- Made three starts to begin the season, allowing six runs across 12.1 innings (4.38 ERA), before being placed on the disabled list on April 14 (broken bone, left foot).
- Went 5-1 with a 3.13 ERA (46.0 IP, 16 ER), 13 walks and 41 strikeouts at home, and 5-3 with a 4.06 ERA (64.1 IP, 29 ER), 17 walks and 71 strikeouts on the road.
- Allowed three or fewer earned runs in 13 consecutive starts to end the season, the second-longest single-season streak by a Rockies starter in franchise history (longest: Ubaldo Jiménez, 14 games, 2010) … Gray went 7-3 with a 2.64 ERA (78.1 IP, 23 ER), 16 walks and 80 strikeouts over that span.
- Started the National League Wild Card game at Arizona … allowed four runs on seven hits in 1.1 innings pitched, the shortest start of his career.

2016: Spent his first full season in the Major Leagues, going 10-10 with a 4.61 ERA (168.0 IP, 86 ER) while setting a Rockies rookie single-season record with 185 strikeouts.

- Earned his first career win on May 13 vs. New York-NL, after allowing two runs on five hits with eight strikeouts in seven innings pitched.
- Recorded 16 quality starts, the second-most on the Rockies in 2016 (Chad Bettis with 17), and the most ever in a single season for a Rockies rookie.
- Pitched his first career complete-game shutout Sept. 17 vs. San Diego, allowing four hits and no walks with a Rockies and Coors Field record 16 strikeouts … struck out six batters in succession between the second and third innings to set a record for the most consecutive strikeouts for a Rockies pitcher … he struck out four batters in the second inning, the fourth time in Rockies history that four opponents struck out in one inning.
- His strikeouts per nine innings rate of 9.91 led all Major League rookies, ranked sixth in the Majors overall, and was the highest single-season rate in Rockies history.
- Struck out 10 or more batters in six starts, the second-most double-digit strikeout games in a single season in Rockies history … only Pedro Astacio had more games in a season (seven in 2000) … became the first Rockies rookie with multiple games of 10 or more strikeouts in franchise history.
- Combined for 26 strikeouts between Sept. 17 vs. San Diego and Sept. 23 at Los Angeles-NL to set a new franchise record for strikeouts over two consecutive games.
- Began the season on the 15-day disabled list with an abdominal strain and was reinstated on April 22.

2015: Made his Major League debut on Aug. 4 against Seattle, and received no decision after allowing three runs (two earned) through four innings pitched.

- Earned no decisions in his first seven Major League starts, which according to the Elias Sports Bureau, tied a Major League record (Al Levine) for the most starts without a decision to begin a career.
- Allowed two or fewer earned runs in each of his first three starts (2.40 ERA, 15.0 IP, 4 ER) … allowed 14 total runs across his next three outings, Aug. 21-Sept. 2, before allowing no runs at San Diego and two runs at Los Angeles-NL in two subsequent starts.

2014: Spent his first full professional season at Double-A Tulsa, making 24 starts for the Drillers.

- Went 6-3 with a 3.39 ERA (69.0 IP, 26 ER), 18 walks and 61 strikeouts in 13 starts prior to the All-Star break, en route to being named a Mid-Season Texas League All-Star.
- Following the season, was named the Rockies' #1 prospect and baseball's 11th-best prospect by MLB.com, and ranked the Rockies' #2 prospect by Baseball America.

2013: Pitched for Rookie Level Grand Junction and High-A Modesto, after being selected third overall by the Rockies in the 2013 First-Year Player Draft.

- In his first week in High-A, was named Cal League Pitcher of the Week … he was again named Cal League Pitcher of the Week for the week of Aug. 26.
- Following the season, Baseball America ranked him as the top prospect in the Rockies farm system and the pitcher with the best fastball … MLB.com named him the 14th best prospect in baseball.

HOFFMAN'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

– 2014: Selected by Toronto in the first round (ninth overall) of the First-Year Player Draft.
– 2015: Acquired by Colorado from Toronto along with RHP Miguel Castro, RHP Jesus Tinoco and SS José Reyes in exchange for RHP LaTroy Hawkins and SS Troy Tulowitzki, July 28.
– 2018: Placed on the 10-day disabled list (right shoulder inflammation), March 29; sent to Minors for rehabilitation (Lancaster), April 10; reinstated from the 10-day disabled list and optioned to Minors (Albuquerque), April 28.

UBALDO'S NO-NO

On April 17, 2010 at Turner Field, Ubaldo Jiménez pitched the first no-hitter in Rockies history.

- Jiménez's line: 9.0 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 6 BB, 7 SO, 31 batters faced.
- Jiménez threw the first no-hitter in Colorado's 2,703rd game.
- Entering the game, four existing teams in MLB had not thrown a no-hitter: Colorado (est. 1993), Tampa Bay (est. 1998), San Diego (est. 1969) and New York-NL (est. 1962).
- Prior to this no-hitter, the deepest a Colorado pitcher had gone into a potential no-hitter was Jason Jennings, who went 6.2 innings without giving up a hit on Aug. 1, 2002 at Pittsburgh.
- Jiménez threw a career-high 128 pitches, one more than his previous high (127 pitches, June 12, 2009 vs. Seattle); he threw 72 strikes and his fastball averaged 96.8 mph.
- Jiménez faced 31 consecutive batters without allowing a hit.
- When he reached 83 pitches, Jiménez had thrown 42 balls and 41 strikes, but he did not walk any batters after the fifth inning.
- Jiménez is the sixth Dominican player to throw a no-hitter—entering the 2017 season, this is tied with Venezuela for the countries with the most no-hitters other than the U.S.

GERMÁN MÁRQUEZ

RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Since 2017, ranks among National League leaders in strikeouts (552, 7th), starts (90, 7th), innings (532.0, 8th), wins (37, 8th) and winning percentage (.617, 10th)
- Ranks seventh in franchise history with 567 strikeouts … tied with Jhoulys Chacín for ninth place with 38 victories
- Pitched the first one-hit complete-game shutout in franchise history, April 14, 2019 at San Francisco
- Set a single-season franchise record with 230 strikeouts in 2018 (previous: Ubaldo Jiménez, 214 in 2010), the fourth-most strikeouts in the National League
- He (2018) and Mike Hampton (2001-02) are the only pitchers in club history to win a Silver Slugger Award
- Named National League Pitcher of the Month for September 2018 (2.14 ERA)
- Led all Major League rookies with 147 strikeouts and 14 quality starts in 2017
- Second pitcher in club history named to the Topps All-Star Rookie Team (also: Jason Jennings, 2002)
- Recorded his first career win on Sept. 21, 2016 at 21 years, 212 days of age, becoming the second-youngest Rockies player to earn his first career win (youngest: Jamey Wright, 21 years, 206 days)

MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUT	FIRST ML WIN
9/8/16 at SD	9/21/16 vs. STL

2019: At the time he was placed on the injured list on Aug. 26, led the National League with 174.0 innings pitched, was tied for fifth with 12 wins and ranked ninth with 175 strikeouts.

- Made 28 starts before being placed on the 10-day injured list on Aug. 26 with right arm inflammation … missed the remainder of the season.
- Moved into seventh place in franchise history with 567 strikeouts … began the season in 12th place, passing Curtis Leskanic (415), Adam Ottavino (452), Brian Fuentes (470), Jhoulys Chacín (514) and Aaron Cook (558).
- Also moved into a tie with Chacín for ninth place in franchise history with 38 wins … entered the season with the 21st-most victories.
- In his final seven starts after July 15, went 4-0 with a 3.68 ERA (44.0 IP, 18 ER), seven walks and 47 strikeouts.
- Pitched at least eight innings four times, the most eight-frame outings since Chacín had four in 2013.
- Went 8-4 with a 4.45 ERA (127.1 IP, 63 ER) and 125 strikeouts in 20 starts in the first half, tied for the most first-half strikeouts in franchise history (also: Jon Gray, 2018).
- Three of Colorado's four losing streaks of five or more games were snapped with Márquez earning the win in a quality start (April 14 at San Francisco, July 21 at New York-AL and Aug. 11 at San Diego) … in those three games, he combined to allow five runs over 24.0 innings of work (1.88 ERA), with four walks and 19 strikeouts … pitched eight or more innings in two of those games (Aug. 11 and April 14).
- Streak of 22.2 innings without issuing a walk from the second inning of his start on July 21 through the first inning of his start at San Diego on Aug. 11 was tied for the second-longest single-season streak in franchise history, and the longest streak for a starting pitcher in franchise history.
- Pitched his first career complete-game shutout on April 14 at San Francisco, allowing one hit with one hit batter and nine strikeouts … took a no-hitter into the eighth inning, before allowing a one-out single to Evan Longoria … it was the first one-hit complete-game shutout in franchise history … his game score of 94, per Baseball Reference, was one point short of Jon Gray's franchise record of 95 set on Sept. 16, 2016 (CGSO, 4 H, 16 SO).
- Took a perfect game into the sixth inning on April 30 at Milwaukee, the second time in the month that he took a perfect game through at least five innings … per Elias, became the first pitcher in franchise history to have two games in which he was perfect through five innings in one season, let alone one month, and the first pitcher in MLB to have two such games in one month since Max Scherzer in June 2015.

- Allowed a career-high 11 runs on 11 hits over 2.2 innings on July 15 vs. San Francisco in the first game of a doubleheader.
- On July 21 at Yankee Stadium, became the first NL pitcher to work seven or more innings and allow two runs or fewer at Yankee Stadium since Madison Bumgarner in 2016 … only the third NL pitcher to work seven or more frames and allow three or fewer hits since the ballpark opened in 2009.
- Batted .234 (11-for-47) with four doubles, one triple and 11 RBI … led all pitchers with 11 RBI, tied for the lead with four doubles and ranked tied for sixth with 11 hits … his 11 RBI were tied for the second most by a pitcher in a single season in franchise history, the most since Jason Jennings had 11 in 2002.
- Had a five-game hitting streak from May 5-31, the first Rockies pitcher with a five-game streak since Mike Hampton in 2001.
- Batted .500 (6-for-12) with nine RBI in May, the most RBI by a pitcher in any month since the St. Louis Cardinals' Rick Wise had nine RBI in August 1973 … recorded at least one RBI in four straight games, May 5-26, the second pitcher in franchise history with a four-game RBI streak (Brian Bohanon, Aug. 11-27, 2000) and the first Major League pitcher with a four-game RBI streak since Yovanni Gallardo from July 31-Aug. 17, 2012.
- Signed a five-year contract extension on April 6 that covers the 2019-23 seasons with an option for 2024.

2018: His single-season franchise record 230 strikeouts (previous: Ubaldo Jiménez, 214 in 2010) ranked fourth in the National League.

- Finished with a 3.77 ERA, the eighth-lowest ERA in Rockies history for a single season … his .241 batting average against ranked sixth all-time.
- His 2.95 road ERA (106.2 IP, 35 ER) ranked eighth in the NL … tied for sixth in the NL with eight road wins … his .203 (79-for-390) opponents' batting average against on the road ranked ninth in the league.
- Recorded 12 straight quality starts from July 29-Sept. 26, tying for the second-longest single-season streak in club history … Ubaldo Jiménez had a 14-start streak to begin the 2010 season and a 12-start streak in 2009.
- Only the second Rockies pitcher (Mike Hampton, 2001-02) in franchise history to win a Silver Slugger Award … led all Major League pitchers with 18 hits, a .300 batting average and a .350 slugging percentage.
- His 18 hits were the most by a pitcher since Zack Greinke recorded 19 hits in 2013, and the most by a Rockies pitcher since Hampton (21) and Jason Jennings (19) in 2002.
- Named National League Pitcher of the Month for September, after going 3-1 with a 2.14 ERA (33.2 IP, 8 ER), five walks and 48 strikeouts … became the third pitcher in Rockies history (fourth time) to earn Pitcher of the Month honors (also: Ubaldo Jiménez, April & May, 2010 and Shawn Chacon, April 2003).
- His 49 strikeouts from Aug.19-Sept.10 tied for the club record for most over a five-game span (Astacio, May 8-29, 2000) … his 44 strikeouts from Aug. 25-Sept. 10 were the most over a four-game span in club history … his 33 strikeouts Aug. 25-Sept. 4 were the most over a three-game span.
- Struck out 11 or more batters in three consecutive starts from Aug 30-Sept. 10, the first player in franchise history to strike out 11-plus in consecutive starts … accomplished the feat a second time Sept. 21-26 … only the fourth Rockies pitcher to record double-digit strikeouts in back-to-back-games (Jon Gray, Jorge De La Rosa, Pedro Astacio) … three-straight starts with 10-plus strikeouts, one start short of matching Pedro Astacio's club record set May 8-24, 2000.
- Recorded 13 strikeouts on Aug. 30 at San Diego, tied for the third-most in franchise history, the most for a Rockies pitcher since Jon Gray's 16-strikeout performance vs. the Padres on Sept. 17, 2016 … fifth pitcher in franchise history to strikeout out at least 13 batters (Gray, Ubaldo Jiménez, Shawn Chacon, Darryl Kile).
- Tied a modern Major League record (since 1900) by striking out the first eight batters of the game vs. the Philadelphia Phillies on Sept. 26 … matched the Astros' Jim Deshaies (Sept. 23, 1986) and the Mets' Jacob deGrom (Sept. 15, 2014) … before the modern era, Mickey Welch of the New York Gothams started a game with nine consecutive strikeouts on Aug. 28, 1884 … the eight straight strikeouts were also a franchise record for consecutive strikeouts in a single game and tied the franchise record for strikeouts vs. consecutive batters faced (also: Justin Miller, three games, Sept. 7-11, 2015) … finished with 11 strikeouts in the game to raise his season total to 221, which surpassed Ubaldo Jimenez's club record of 214, set in 2010.
- Pitched an immaculate inning (nine pitches, three strikeouts) in the fourth inning on Aug. 8 vs. Pittsburgh, the second Rockies pitcher to accomplish the feat (also: Rex Brothers, June 14, 2014 at San Francisco) and the first pitcher to accomplish the feat at Coors Field.

2019: Appeared in 45 games out of the bullpen, his fewest games since 2015 as a member of the Tampa Bay Rays.

- Made his 500th career appearance on July 17 vs. San Francisco … among left-handed relievers since 2010, ranks sixth with 522 appearances and fourth with 497 strikeouts.
- Allowed 17 of 26 inherited runners to score, a 65.4 percentage that was the highest in the Majors (min. 25 inherited runners) … 17 runners scored tied for the third most in MLB and were the most in the NL.
- Made two appearances to begin the season before being placed on the injured list on April 2 with a sprained left knee … reinstated May 17.
- After reinstatement, did not allow a run in his first eight appearances and was scored upon three times in his first 18 games through June 28 (1.00 ERA) … posted a 1.35 ERA (20.0 IP, 3 ER) prior to the All-Star break.
- Posted a 2.91 road ERA (21.2 IP, 7 ER) with three walks and 14 strikeouts … scored upon once in 12 road outings in the first half.
- Allowed a career-high tying two home runs twice (has allowed two home runs five times in his career) … his two home runs allowed on Aug. 12 vs. Arizona was his only time allowing two home runs at home.

2018: Fifth season, all since 2012, making 60 or more appearances.

- Scored upon 22 times in 61 games … allowed runs three times over his last 14 games.
- Pitched two scoreless innings May 26 vs. Cincinnati, his second outing of two scoreless innings (also: May 17 at San Francisco) … his longest outings since Aug. 24, 2014 at Toronto with Tampa Bay.
- Earned his second win on Aug. 10 vs. the Dodgers with his longest scoreless stint (1.2 innings) since working two frames with no runs May 26 vs. Cincinnati.
- Earned the save on June 21 vs. the Mets, the 45th of his career and first since Aug. 27, 2017 at Atlanta.
- Allowed three hits and two earned runs over his first 10.1 innings across 11 games from March 30-April 22.

2017: Appeared in 62 games, his most since 2014.

- Scored upon 13 times … limited opponents to a .224 batting average (47-for-210).
- Pitched 0.1 inning in the NL Wild Card Game, his sixth career postseason appearance and his first since 2013 with Tampa Bay.
- Went on the 10-day disabled list from July 30-Aug. 6 with a mid-back strain.
- Posted a 2.70 ERA (36.2 IP, 11 ER) with nine walks and 44 strikeouts in 38 appearances prior to the All-Star break … allowed one run in 12 innings with one walk and 18 strikeouts across 11 appearances in May.
- His 14-inning scoreless streak from May 14-June 14 was the longest by a Rockies reliever in 2017.
- Went 0-2 with a 5.23 ERA (20.2 IP, 12 ER) in 24 appearances after the All-Star break … allowed three runs over 8.1 innings (3.24 ERA) in eight appearances in August … had a 8.2 inning scoreless streak over eight games from Aug. 15-Sept. 4.
- Career-high-tying four strikeouts June 25 vs. the Dodgers, his most since Sept. 2, 2012 at Baltimore.

(McGEE, continued)

2016: Made 57 relief appearances in his first season with the Rockies.
- Became the first pitcher in franchise history to record a save in five consecutive games, May 11-17.
- Converted the save in all three games vs. the Mets, May 13-15, becoming the seventh Rockies pitcher with a save in all three games of a series.
- Was 2-0 with eight saves in nine opportunities and a 2.91 ERA (21.2 IP, 7 ER) in 29 road relief appearances.
- Placed on the 15-day disabled list June 11 with left knee inflammation … reinstated July 2 after making two rehab appearances with High-A Modesto June 28 and June 30, where combined to work two innings with a win and two strikeouts.
- Was 2-0 with a 3.05 ERA (20.2 IP, 7 ER) in 28 appearances after the All-Star break.

2015: Limited to 39 games with the Tampa Bay Rays due to a pair of injuries, his fewest appearances since 2011.
- Spent a total of 71 games on the disabled list over two stints … placed on the disabled list April 5 to recover from left elbow surgery in the offseason … placed on the disabled list a second time Aug. 20 with a torn meniscus in his left knee.
- In his final appearance, Oct. 3 vs. Toronto, passed Joel Peralta for the Rays record with his 297th appearance.
- From May 29-July 24, made 21 consecutive scoreless appearances, tied with Fernando Rodney (2012) for the second-longest streak in Rays history behind J.P. Howell's 24 straight scoreless appearances in 2012 … it was the third-longest streak in the American League in 2015.

2014: Appeared in a career-high 73 games for the Rays, serving as the primary closer for the final three and a half months of the season.
- Led the Rays bullpen and set career highs in saves (19), ERA (1.89), strikeouts (90) and innings pitched (71.1).
- Ranked among the American League's top 10 relievers in games pitched (tied for fifth), strikeouts (seventh) and ERA (ninth).
- Among American League left-handed relievers, tied for first in games pitched, fourth in saves, second in innings pitched, second in strikeouts, third in ERA and second in opponents slugging percentage … his ERA set a Rays record for a left-handed reliever, breaking his own mark of 1.95 in 2012.
- Led the American League and set a Rays record by allowing only 10 percent of his inherited runners to score (three of 30).
- Recorded a strikeout in 19 straight appearances from July 6-Aug. 19, a Rays club record for a reliever.

2013: Made 71 appearances for the Rays, the 10th-most appearances in the American League.
- Tied for second among American League left-handed relievers in appearances and ranked fourth with 75 strikeouts.
- Pitched to a 2.31 ERA (50.2 IP, 13 ER) over his final 56 appearances.
- Earned his first career save on July 11 vs. Minnesota.
- Appeared in a club-high four postseason games, three of them scoreless, but took the loss in Game 4 of the ALDS vs. Boston as the Rays were eliminated.

2012: Pitched his first full season in the Major Leagues, going 5-2 with a 1.95 ERA (55.1 IP, 12 ER) in 69 games.
- Of his 69 appearances, 60 of them were scoreless outings.
- His 1.95 ERA ranked third among American League relievers and seventh in the Majors … among left-handed relievers, he ranked first in the AL and third in the Majors.
- Held opposing right-handed hitters to a .098 batting average (11-for-112) with one home run … the .098 mark remains the lowest by any left-handed pitcher (min. 100 AB) since 1974.
- His 6.64 strikeout-to-walk ratio (73 strikeouts, 11 walks) ranked second among AL relievers, fourth in the Majors and first among all lefty relievers.

2011: Made his first Opening Day roster and served two stints with the Rays in his first full season as a reliever.
- Was on the active roster from Opening Day through April 30, and July 15 through season's end … spent the remainder of the season with Triple-A Durham.
- Earned five wins out of the bullpen, four in September, tops among Major League rookies … the mark tied David Price (2010 and 2012) for the club record for wins in September.
- Recorded his first Major League win on Aug. 10 vs. Kansas City.
- Made his postseason debut in Game 2 of the ALDS at Texas … retired his first batter, Craig Gentry, on a bunt attempt, and hit Mitch Moreland with a pitch before being removed.

2010: Made his Major League debut in September, after transitioning to the bullpen with Triple-A Durham.
- Made his Major League debut on Sept. 14 vs. New York-AL, allowing one run on three walks in 0.1 innings pitched … did not allow a run in his next seven appearances through the end of the season.
- Became one of only nine pitchers in history to not allow a hit over his first six Major League appearances.
- Began the season with Double-A Montgomery, where he made 19 starts before his Aug. 7 promotion.

(McGEE, continued)

2009: Made 16 starts between Single-A Charlotte and the Rookie Level Gulf Coast League Rays after spending the first three months of the season recovering from Tommy John surgery.
- None of his starts were longer than three innings … worked a total of 30 innings and struck out 40 batters.

2008: Made 15 starts for Double-A Montgomery, before tearing the ulnar collateral ligament in his left elbow June 22.
- Held opponents to a .230 batting average in his 15 starts.

2007: Led the Rays organization with 175 strikeouts, fourth most among all Minor Leaguers, while pitching for High-A Vero Beach and Double-A Montgomery.
- Averaged 11.25 strikeouts per nine innings pitched, sixth best in the Minors.
- Despite an early-August promotion to Montgomery, led the Florida State League with 145 strikeouts, including 74 in his last 50.2 innings at Vero Beach … was named a Baseball America High Class A All-Star and a Mid-Season and Post-Season All-Star in the Florida State League.

2006: Led the Midwest League and the Rays organization with 171 strikeouts for Single-A Southwest Michigan.
- Named a Mid-Season and Post-Season All-Star in the Midwest League.

2005: Finished second in the New York-Penn League with 89 strikeouts for Short-Season Hudson Valley.
- Trailed only teammate Wade Davis (97) in strikeouts.

2004: Named Pitcher of the Year for Rookie Level Princeton in his professional debut.
- Led the staff with five wins and tied for the team lead with 53 strikeouts … did not turn 18 until Aug. 6.

PERSONAL: Jacob Daniel McGee … resides in Tampa, Fla., during the offseason, with his wife Morgan and daughter Rowen.
- Jake and Morgan spend their wedding anniversary on Christmas Eve providing gifts to local foster families.
- Was actively involved with the Tampa-based Pediatric Cancer Foundation, participating in their annual fashion show and shaving his head for their "Fortune Favors the Bald" campaign, later visiting the young patients who walk the runway with him, accompanied by his wife Morgan … while with the Rays, was involved with the Children's Dream Fund (Rays on the Runway).

HIGH SCHOOL/COLLEGE: Graduated from Edward C. Reed High School in Sparks, Nev.
- Was offered a baseball scholarship to UNLV but chose to play professionally after being drafted by the Rays in 2004.

FINAL OVERALL RECORD: 71-91 (.438)
Fourth in NL West, 35.0 game behind Los Angeles
Home: 43-38 Road: 28-53

THE 2019 ROCKIES went 71-91 (.438) in 2019 and finished in fourth place in the NL West. It was their first time not advancing to the postseason and their first time finishing below .500 since 2016 (75-87, .463). The .438 winning percentage was the lowest since posting a .420 (68-94) winning percentage in 2015.

The Rockies spent three days tied for first place, 24 days in second place, eight days tied for second place, seven days in third place, five days tied for third place, 36 days in fourth place, 13 days tied for fourth and 66 days in fifth place.

The Rockies went 32-44 (.421) against NL West opponents, tied with 2001 and 2015 for the eighth-lowest in-division winning percentage in franchise history.

HOME/ROAD: Colorado went 43-38 at home and 28-53 on the road. The .346 road winning percentage was tied for the fifth-lowest in franchise history, and the worst since a franchise-low .259 winning percentage on the road in 2014 (12-60). Colorado's final series win on the road came June 24-26 in San Francisco, as they went 8-30 away from home over the remainder of the season.

DAYS OF WEEK: The Rockies went 13-14 in Sunday games, 8-8 in Monday games, 8-17 in Tuesday games, 10-13 in Wednesday games, 9-8 in Thursday games, 15-12 in Friday games and 8-19 in Saturday games. The Rockies played four games that fell on holidays, and they went 2-2 in those contests.

EXTRA INNINGS: The Rockies went 10-6 in extra innings in 2019, their second-most extra-innings wins in franchise history (won 11 games in extras in 2007). They went 6-2 at home in extra frames, while posting a 4-4 record on the road.

INTERLEAGUE PLAY: The Rockies went 8-12 in Interleague Play in 2019, snapping a two-year streak over which they finished above .500 against the Junior Circuit.

The .400 Interleague winning percentage was tied for the ninth-lowest in franchise history and was the lowest since the Rockies went 5-15 (.250) against American League opponents in 2015.

Nolan Arenado's .416 Interleague batting average and 29 RBI led the Major Leagues, while his nine home runs were tied for first. Both the home run and RBI totals were new Rockies Interleague records.

PLAYERS USED/ROOKIES: Colorado used 50 players during the 2019 season, the most since using 51 in 2015. They used 41 players in 2017 and 2018, their fewest in a full season in franchise history. 2019 also saw the usage of a franchise-record 31 pitchers (previous record: 30, two times, last: 2015). That figure includes two position players who took the mound (Ian Desmond and Mark Reynolds).

Nine Rockies made their debut in 2019 (Yonathan Daza, Phillip Diehl, Josh Fuentes, Rico Garcia, Sam Hilliard, Peter Lambert, Dom Nuñez, Brendan Rodgers, Jesus Tinoco). It was the most debuts since the 2016 Rockies had 12 players appear in the Majors for the first time.

BATTING: The Rockies as a team finished with a .265 batting average (1,502-for-5,660), the sixth-lowest batting average in franchise history (their .256 batting average in 2018 was the lowest in franchise history), but the highest in the National League on the season. They ranked first in the NL with 323 doubles and 41 triples, second with a .456 slugging percentage, third with 1,503 strikeouts, fourth with 835 runs, seventh with a .326 on-base percentage, eighth with 224 home runs and 12th with 489 walks.

Their 224 home runs were the second most in franchise history (most: 239 in 1997), while their 323 doubles ranked sixth and were the most since the club hit 325 doubles in 2006.

At home, Colorado batted .300 (855-for-2,852), the highest home batting average in MLB. They ranked first in the NL with 500 runs at home, 178 doubles, 30 triples, a .362 on-base percentage and a .522 slugging percentage.

On the road, the Rockies batted .230 (647-for-2,802), the sixth-lowest road batting average in franchise history (batted a franchise-low .225 on the road in 2018) and the lowest in the NL. They scored 335 runs on the road for the second consecutive season, which ranked 14th in the NL. Their 92 road home runs were tied for the second-most in franchise history and were the most since they also hit 92 home runs on the road in 2009 (tied for 13th in the NL).

Nolan Arenado finished the season among NL leaders in hits (185-3rd), total bases (343-3rd), RBI (118-T4), batting average (.315-5th), slugging percentage (.583-5th), home runs (41-T5), and OPS (.962-5th). Both his batting average and on-base percentage were new career highs.

Arenado became the second Rockies player in franchise history to have three seasons with at least 40 home runs, joining Vinny Castilla (1996-98). Arenado, Castilla, Eddie Mathews and Mike Schmidt are the only third basemen (min. 75% of games at the position) to have three 40-home run seasons.

Charlie Blackmon ranked first in the NL, second in MLB, batting .385 (42-for-109) with runners in scoring position. He finished among NL leaders in extra-base hits (81-T3), doubles (career-high 42-4th), hits (182-4th), triples (seven-T4), runs (112-5th), batting average (.314-6th), slugging percentage (.576-7th) and OPS (.940-8th). Blackmon tied for second in the Majors in 4+-hit games (five) and led in 3+-hit contests (21). At home, he slashed .379/.435/.739 in 66 home games, reaching base safely in 58. In the second half of the season, he hit .295 (39-for-132) away from Coors Field.

Blackmon became the sixth player in Rockies history with four or more consecutive seasons of 25 or more home runs, joining Arenado, Dante Bichette, Vinny Castilla, Andres Galarraga and Todd Helton.

Trevor Story set new career highs in runs (111), batting average (.294) and on-base percentage (.363). He hit 35 home runs, making him the first shortstop in Major League history to begin his career with four consecutive seasons of 20 or more home runs.

Story finished among NL leaders in runs (111-6th), extra-base hits (78-5th), doubles (38-T5), stolen bases (23-8th), hits (173-9th), total bases (326-T9) and slugging percentage (.554-10th).

He became the first Rockie with multiple seasons of at least 30 home runs and 20 stolen bases (five Rockies players had one such season, most recently Carlos González in 2010), and became the second shortstop in Major League history with multiple 30/20 seasons, joining Alex Rodriguez (1998-99). Additionally, Story became the third Rockies player with multiple 20-steal and 20-home run seasons in club history (also: Dante Bichette, Carlos González) as well as the first Rockies shortstop with consecutive years of 15 or more steals.

STARTING PITCHING: The Rockies' pitching staff accumulated a 5.56 ERA (1,448.2 IP, 895 ER) with 589 walks and 1,264 strikeouts. Their ERA was the third-highest for a single season in franchise history, and the highest since posting a franchise-high 6.01 ERA (1,429.0 IP, 955 ER) in 1999. The 1,264 strikeouts were the third-most in franchise history (their 1,409 strikeouts in 2018 were their most ever), and ranked lowest in the National League and fourth lowest in MLB.

Opponents batted .277 (1,576-for-5,692), which ranked 15th in franchise history for a single season (opponents batted a franchise-low .250 in 2018). Their 1.49 WHIP also ranked 15th in franchise history, following a franchise-best 1.31 WHIP in 2018.

Rockies starters went 45-62 with 701 strikeouts. They pitched 849.0 innings, which ranked fourth-fewest in the NL and in franchise history. The 5.87 starters ERA (842.1 IP, 549 IP) was the second-highest in franchise history behind 1999's 6.19 figure (935.1 IP, 643 ER).

Colorado's starting pitchers logged 46 quality starts, the second-fewest in franchise history (27 quality starts in 2012) and the second-fewest in the NL (Milwaukee's 34 quality starts were fewest).

RELIEF PITCHING: Rockies relievers went 26-29 (.473) and compiled a 5.14 ERA (606.1 IP, 346 ER), which was the sixth-highest in franchise history. Their 606.1 relief innings were the fifth-most in the NL and the second-most in franchise history … their 563 strikeouts were the fourth-fewest in the NL.

The bullpen recorded 28 saves, tied for the third-fewest in franchise history, the second fewest in the NL and the fewest since recording a franchise-low 24 saves in 2014. Their 54.9 save percentage was the lowest in the NL and the fifth lowest in franchise history.

Scott Oberg ranked third in ERA (2.25) among all National League relievers, tied for seventh in wins (seven) and 14th in opponent's batting average (.196). The ERA was the lowest for a Rockies reliever in a single season since Rex Brothers' 1.74 ERA (67.1 IP, 13 ER) in 2013.

Oberg went 5-0 with four saves and a 1.71 ERA (31.2 IP, 6 ER) in 28 appearances at home. He did not allow a home run at home, the second pitcher in franchise history to make at least 25 appearances at Coors Field without allowing a home run (Boone Logan, 2016), and limited opponents to a .191 batting average at Coors Field.

Since 2017, his 3.23 ERA (173.0 IP, 62 ER) is the lowest amongst all Rockies relief pitchers.

FIELDING: Colorado committed 97 errors and posted a .984 fielding percentage, their lowest fielding percentage since 2016, when they posted a fielding percentage of .982.

Nolan Arenado ranked first among National League third basemen in total chances per nine innings (3.12), assists per nine innings (2.30), fielding percentage (.920) and zone rating (.827). Trevor Story ranked first among NL shortstops with 2.98 assists per nine innings, second with 4.40 total chances per nine innings and a .987 fielding percentage. He also ranked second with 17 defensive runs saved and 2.4 defensive WAR.

Tony Wolters ranked third in the NL with 20 runners caught stealing and second with a 68.8 stolen-base percentage. He had a 106-game errorless streak that was snapped Aug. 19 at Arizona (streak began on Aug. 16, 2018), the second-longest errorless streak for a catcher in club history (longest: Chris Iannetta, 157 games, June 22, 2007-May 23, 2009), and the second-longest to start a season at 86 total games (Iannetta played 100 errorless games in 2008 in the middle of his errorless streak that spanned three seasons). Wolters ranked first among all Major League catchers with a 2.0 defensive WAR.

INJURED LIST: The Rockies had 25 injured list stints (22 players) in 2019, including six 60-day placements. It was their most stints on the injured list since 2016, when they also had 25.

All five starters in the Rockies' Opening Day rotation were on the injured list for most of September. Tyler Anderson (left knee surgery) was placed on the 60-day IL on May 22. Chad Bettis, who was moved to the bullpen in April, was placed on the IL on Aug 17 and moved to the 60-day IL on Aug. 27 (hip surgery). Jon Gray was placed on the 60-day IL on Aug. 21 (fractured left foot). Kyle Freeland was placed on the 10-day IL on Aug. 22 (strained left groin) and was the only member of the group to pitch again, making two starts on Sept. 21 at Los Angeles-NL and Sept. 26 at San Francisco. Germán Márquez was placed on the 10-day IL on Aug. 26 (right arm inflammation).

ALL-STARS: The Rockies sent four players to the 89th MLB All-Star Game in Cleveland, tied with 2017 for the most All-Star selections in franchise history and the first time that four position players were sent. Nolan Arenado started at third base for the National League and went 0-for-2, while David Dahl recorded a base hit in his first career All-Star at-bat. Trevor Story, an All-Star for the second consecutive season, went 0-for-2. Charlie Blackmon hit a solo home run, his first All-Star Game hit in his fourth All-Star Game appearance. He joined Todd Helton, Carlos González and Trevor Story as the only Rockies to hit a home run in an All-Star Game.

Arenado is tied with Todd Helton and Larry Walker for the most All-Star fan selections (three) and the most total All-Star selections (five) in Rockies history. He joined Scott Rolen (2002-05), Mike Schmidt (1979-84) and Matt Williams (1994-96) as the only National League third basemen to be voted as starters in at least three straight seasons.

IN-SEASON AWARDS: Rockies players combined for four NL Player of the Week honors and one NL Player of the Month nod.

Nolan Arenado was named Player of the Week for the week ending May 26, his sixth career Player of the Week honor that tied him with Dante Bichette and Todd Helton (Charlie Blackmon would win his sixth later in the season) for the most in franchise history. He batted .538 (14-for-26) with seven runs, two doubles, four home runs and nine RBI over that week, with multiple hits in all six games and home runs in the final three games of the week.

The following week, Trevor Story earned his fourth career Player of the Week honor after slashing .524/.583/1.048 with nine runs scored, 11 hits, three doubles, one triple, two home runs and seven RBI.

Charlie Blackmon was named the NL Player of the Week for the week ending June 16, his sixth career Player of the Week Award, tying him with Arenado, Dante Bichette and Todd Helton for the most in franchise history. He batted .568 (21-for-37) with 12 runs scored, four doubles, one triple, six home runs and 15 RBI over the week.

Daniel Murphy won Player of the Week for the abbreviated first week following the All-Star break, ending on July 14. Murphy went 8-for-12 with five runs, three doubles, two home runs and five RBI over a three-game series vs. Cincinnati including a four-hit game on July 13.

Blackmon was named the National League Player of the Month for June, his second career Player of the Month Award (also: May 2017) and the first Player of the Month Award for a Rockies player since Nolan Arenado in July 2017. He led all NL players in the month of June with a .412 batting average, a .835 slugging percentage and 30 runs scored. Blackmon ranked second with 10 home runs, tied for second with 40 hits and ranked fifth with 25 RBI. He became the third player in franchise history to bat at least .410 with an .835 slugging percentage-or-better and 10-or-more home runs in a single month, joining Todd Helton (May 2000) and Larry Walker (March/April 1997).

END OF SEASON AWARDS: Nolan Arenado won his seventh consecutive Gold Glove in 2019, becoming the first Rockies player to ever win the award for seven consecutive seasons. The seven Gold Gloves for Arenado are the most for any one player in franchise history. He is the 16th infielder (1B, 2B, 3B, SS) in Major League history to win at least seven Gold Gloves and the ninth infielder to win at least seven consecutive Gold Gloves (sixth in the National League). The last infielder to win seven straight awards was Omar Vizquel, who won nine consecutive awards at shortstop in the American League from 1993-2001. The last National League player to win seven consecutive Gold Gloves was Ryne Sandberg, who won nine straight awards at second base from 1983-1991.

Additionally, Arenado was awarded his third consecutive Rawlings Platinum Glove Award for the best overall defender in the National League. He is the first player to ever win the award in three consecutive seasons.

Trevor Story won his second consecutive Silver Slugger Award, making him the 10th player in Rockies history to win multiple Silver Sluggers. He is the second Rockies shortstop to earn the honor multiple times, after Troy Tulowitzki won the award in 2010-11.

ATTENDANCE: The Rockies had a home attendance mark of 2,993,244 in 2019, the second-best total since 2001. The average attendance at Coors Field was 36,954, which ranked fourth in the National League and sixth in MLB.

SIRIUS-XM ALL-STAR FUTURES GAME:
- LHP Ben Bowden

PLAYER HIGHLIGHTS:

Ben Bowden - Promoted from Double-A Hartford on July 20 … across 22 games for the Isotopes, went 1-3 with a 5.88 ERA (26.0 IP, 17 ER), 17 walks and 37 strikeouts.
- Pitched in the All-Star Futures Game on July 7 in Cleveland … was the eighth Isotope in franchise history to be selected to a Futures Team (last: Ryan McMahon, 2017).

Noel Cuevas - Played in 60 games for the Isotopes with a .278 (57-for-205) batting average.
- Recorded his first career cycle on April 10 at Reno … it was the eighth cycle in Isotopes history, the first on the road … tied an Isotopes single-game record with 14 total bases (also: Brett Caroll, July 18, 2007).

Yonathan Daza - Recorded a team-leading .364 batting average, which surpassed the team record set in 2005 by Joe Dillon (.360) … his batting average ranked third in the PCL … hit safely in 71 of 89 games with a team-high 49 multi-hit games.

Jairo Díaz - Recorded a team-high six saves … posted a 0.45 ERA (20.0 IP, 1 ER) across 16 appearances.
- Had a 19.0-inning scoreless streak from April 5 through his May 22 callup to the Rockies.

Josh Fuentes - Played in 101 games, posting a .254 (102-for-402) batting average … hit a career-high 17 home runs.
- Was called up to the Majors on April 6 and made his debut that night … optioned April 13.

Sam Hilliard - Hit a career-high and team-leading 35 home runs, tied for the second-most in team history and the most by an Isotope during the Rockies era.
- Stole 22 bases and became one of three players in Minor League Baseball with 30 home runs and 20 stolen bases … became the second Isotope ever to reach the 20/20 mark (also: Joc Pederson, 2014).

Sam Howard - Compiled a 3.91 ERA (50.2 IP, 22 ER) across 42 appearances for the Isotopes.
- From May 27 to Aug. 19, posted a 0.79 ERA (22.2 IP, 2 ER) across 23 appearances.
- First save of his professional career on Aug. 15 at Las Vegas.

Jeff Hoffman - Led the team with 98 strikeouts, his third time in four seasons leading the team in strikeouts … finished the season with 364 career strikeouts with the Isotopes, surpassing John Ely (320 from 2010-12) for the Isotopes all-time record.

Tim Melville - Won a team-best 10 games … his win total ranked seventh in Isotopes history, the most since Ryan Carpenter also won 10 in 2017 … led the club with 96.1 innings pitched and pitched at least five innings in 16 of his 18 appearances.

Roberto Ramos - Led the club with 105 RBI, 127 games played and 61 walks … one of five Isotope players to record a batting average over .300 on the year.

Elliot Soto - Established career highs in runs (79), hits (125), total bases (197), doubles (22), triples (10), home runs (10), RBI (50), stolen bases (eight), batting average (.305), on-base percentage (.380), slugging percentage (.480) and OPS (.860) … was one of nine Minor League players and one of two in the PCL to record double digits in doubles, triples and home runs.

Drew Weeks - Had three multi-home run games, one of which included an inside-the-park home run … joined Hector Luna (May 31, 2009 vs. OKC) as the only Isotope to hit a traditional home run and an inside-the-park home run in the same game … he also became the only Isotope to hit two home runs in the same inning (solo homer and grand slam, July 11 at ELP).

Pat Valaika - Established an Isotopes team record with five multi-home run games … had a career-high .320 (112-for-350) batting average in 84 games with Albuquerque.
- Recorded a career-high 22 home runs.

CYCLES

Rockies Cycles (9)

Dante Bichette
June 10, 1998 vs. Texas Rangers (W, 9-8, 10 inn.) - After going hitless in his first two at-bats, Bichette doubled, homered, tripled and hit the game-winning 10th inning RBI single.

Neifi Perez
July 25, 1998 vs. St. Louis Cardinals (W, 5-2) - Perez doubled, tripled, singled and then homered on a 0-1 pitch in the seventh inning.

Todd Helton
June 19, 1999 vs. Florida Marlins (W, 10-2) - Helton cycled in only four trips to the plate; he doubled, singled, homered and tripled off the right-field wall in the seventh.

Mike Lansing
June 18, 2000 vs. Arizona Diamondbacks (W, 19-2) - Lansing's cycle is believed to be the fastest in Major League history, by completing it in four-innings: triple, home run, double, single.

Troy Tulowitzki
August 10, 2009 vs. Chicago Cubs (W, 11-5) - Tulowitzki hit a home run, single, double and triple to become the first shortstop in MLB history to go 5-for-5 (or better) and have at least seven RBI in the same game.

Carlos González
July 31, 2010 vs. Chicago Cubs (W, 6-5) - González hit a single, triple, double and walk-off home run to become the fourth player to complete the cycle on a walk-off home run.

Michael Cuddyer
August 17, 2014 vs. Cincinnati Reds (W, 10-6) - Cuddyer hit a triple, home run, single and double to become the 30th player in MLB history with multiple cycles and the third player in MLB history with a cycle in each league, joining Bob Watson and John Olerud.

Nolan Arenado
June 18, 2017 (Father's Day) vs. San Francisco Giants (W, 7-5) - Arenado hit a triple, single, double and walk-off home run to become the fifth player in Major League history to complete the cycle on a walk-off home run. It was the first cycle to be completed with the batter's team trailing in Major League history.

Charlie Blackmon
September 30, 2018 vs. Washington Nationals (W, 12-0) - Blackmon led off the game with a triple, then hit a home run, single and double to become the first player in Major League history to cycle in the 162nd game of the season.

Opponents Cycles (10)

John Mabry
May 18, 1996 vs. St. Louis Cardinals (W, 9-8) - Mabry was the 15th Cardinal to hit for the cycle and the first since 1964 (Ken Boyer) to do it in natural order (single, double, triple, homer).

Craig Biggio
April 8, 2002 vs. Houston Astros (L, 4-8) - Biggio became the sixth player in Astros history to hit for the cycle—single, triple, homer, double—and he accomplished the feat in the Rockies' 2002 home opener.

Fred Lewis
May 13, 2007 vs. San Francisco Giants (L, 2-15) - Lewis hit a double, home run, triple and single to become the fourth player in Major League history to hit his first career home run as part of a cycle.

Pablo Sandoval
September 15, 2011 vs. San Francisco Giants (L, 5-8) - Sandoval became the 25th player in Giants history to hit for the cycle—homer, single, double, triple—and the fourth Giants third baseman to hit for cycle.

Scott Hairston
April 27, 2012 vs. New York Mets (W, 18-9) - This was the 10th cycle in Mets history—single, home run, triple, double—and Hairston's four hits tied his career high.

Shin-Soo Choo
July 21, 2015 vs. Texas Rangers (L, 0-9) - Collecting a career-high-tying four hits, Choo hit a double, home run, single and triple for the eighth cycle in Rangers franchise history.

Matt Kemp
August 14, 2015 vs. San Diego Padres (L, 5-9) - For the first cycle in Padres history, Kemp recorded his first-ever cycle with a two-run homer in the first inning, a single in the third, a double in the seventh and triple in the ninth.

Wil Myers
April 10, 2017 vs. San Diego Padres (L, 3-5) - The second cycle in Padres history and the first in MLB during the 2017 season, Myers hit a single, double, home run and triple. He had previously fallen a triple short of the cycle seven different times in his career.

Trea Turner
April 25, 2017 vs. Washington Nationals (L, 12-15) - Turner hit his first career cycle and collected a career-high seven RBI in the game, hitting a single, double, home run and triple.

Trea Turner
July 23, 2019 vs. Washington Nationals (L, 1-11) - For the second time in three seasons, Trea Turner cycled against the Rockies, becoming the fourth player in Major League history to cycle twice against the same team. For this second cycle, Turner hit a home run, single, triple and finished with a double.

GAME 163, 2007

On Oct. 1, 2007, the Rockies vs. San Diego Padres matchup at Coors Field marked the seventh one-game playoff in Major League history. In the tiebreaker, Colorado took its first lead of the game into the sixth inning, battling back from a 5-3 deficit heading into the third inning. With the Rockies leading 6-5 with two outs in the eighth inning, Matt Holliday's miscue in left field allowed the Padres to score the tying run, pushing the game into extra innings. It stayed knotted at six until San Diego broke the tie with a Scott Hairston two-run home run off Jorge Julio in the 13th inning. With an 8-6 lead, the Padres called on Trevor Hoffman to try and seal a victory for San Diego. With their backs against the wall and the Rockies' season on the line, Kazuo Matsui led off the bottom half of the frame with a double and then scored on Troy Tulowitzki's two-bagger to bring the Rockies within a run. Holliday followed with a first-pitch triple, scoring Tulowitzki to tie the game at eight. The Padres chose to intentionally walk Todd Helton in order to face Jamey Carroll with Holliday and the winning run on third. Carroll hit the first pitch he saw from Hoffman to right field, where Brian Giles caught the ball and threw home to try and cut down Holliday. Holliday tagged from third and, diving head first into home plate, narrowly beat Giles' throw to win the game, 9-8 in 13 innings, taking them to the postseason.

LOW-RUN GAMES AT COORS FIELD

After no 1-0 games over the park's first 10 years, there have now been 10 1-0 contests at Coors Field since 2005. The first came on July 9, 2005, when the Rockies beat the Padres 1-0. It happened in the 847th regular season game in the facility's history; according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the 846 total contests without a 1-0 game is the longest span of any park in Major League history. The previous record was 635 games, held by the Philadelphia Athletics of the American Association from 1882 to 1891. On Sept. 14, 2008 vs. Los Angeles, the Rockies defeated the Dodgers 1-0 in 10 innings; this game was scoreless through nine innings—a first in Coors Field history. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, that game was the first game ever played at either Mile High Stadium or Coors Field that was scoreless at the end of the ninth inning (previously at Coors Field: 0-0 after eight innings on June 11 vs. San Francisco). The Rockies played 1,257 previous games in Colorado in their history, the longest streak of home games without a 0-0 score through nine innings for any team since the Athletics played 1,615 straight home games in which at least one team scored before extra frames; the A's streak lasted more than 20 years (June 22, 1947 through Sept. 3, 1967), spanning the club's relocation from Philadelphia to Kansas City.

Feb. 26 – In a press conference at Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, the Rockies announce that they have signed Nolan Arenado to an eight-year contract.

April 4 – Dick Monfort announces that the Rockies' multi-use development at 20th and Wazee will be named McGregor Square in honor of the Rockies' late president, Keli McGregor.

April 14 – Germán Márquez throws the first one-hitter in franchise history, shutting out the San Francisco Giants in a 4-0 Rockies win at Oracle Park.

June 13-16 – The Rockies and San Diego Padres combine for 92 runs to set a Major League record for the most combined runs scored in a four-game series in Major League history. Colorado scored 48 runs in the series, while the Padres scored 44.

History of Baseball in Denver

Although Major League Baseball did not arrive until 1993, professional baseball in the Rocky Mountain Region can be traced back to 1886 with the advent of the Western League. The Denver Bears were crowned the first league champions and baseball in the Mile High City would go on to become an off-and-on occurrence over the next 60 years, with the game becoming a permanent fixture in 1948.

Built in 1948, Mile High Stadium was known as Bears Stadium until 1969. Denver finally became a Triple-A city in 1955, when the American League's Philadelphia A's moved to Kansas City, thus allowing the Bears' owners, the Howsam family, the opportunity to purchase the then-homeless New York Yankees' Minor League affiliate for $90,000. The Yankees tabbed an untried Ralph Houk to manage the Triple-A club and were led by the likes of Bobby Richardson, Tony Kubek and Ralph Terry. The first Triple-A champions in Denver history were the 1960 Bears, piloted by Charlie Metro.

When the Broncos became a charter member of the American Football League in 1959, the south stands (8,100 seats) and portable east stands (9,616 seats) were added to give a capacity of 34,657 for football. The Broncos began play in 1960.

From 1963-68, the Bears were a member of the Pacific Coast League. The 1968 entry was the affiliate of the Minnesota Twins, managed by the fiery Billy Martin and led by Graig Nettles and Bob Oliver.

After Denver voters turned down a stadium bond issue to build an all-purpose metropolitan stadium in 1967, a non-profit group began a fund-raising drive with the goal of purchasing the stadium for the city. In February 1968, the group bought the stadium from Rocky Mountain Empire Sports for $1.8 million and presented it to the city. A 16,000-seat upper deck was immediately constructed over the west stands, raising the capacity to over 50,000. In December 1968, the stadium was renamed Denver Mile High Stadium. Further expansion of Mile High began in 1975 and was completed in 1977. Voters passed a $25 million bond issue in 1974 to expand the stadium from its capacity of 51,706 to 75,100. The construction of 60 Penthouse Suites atop the west stands brought the stadium to its final capacity of 76,098 in 1986.

The Bears moved to the American Association in 1969, which would stand as the home of all of the remaining Denver franchises until 1992. From 1970-83, the Bears established themselves as a championship franchise, winning five league crowns and three division titles. Graced by future big league stars such as Tim Wallach and Tim Raines, the Bears drew record crowds night after night, including a 1982 Fireworks Night crowd of 65,666, which established a Minor League record.

Under new ownership, the Zephyrs came to Denver in 1985, as an affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds. The likes of Eric Davis, Paul O'Neill and Barry Larkin displayed their talents in Denver before moving on to prominent big league careers.

The Z's joined the Milwaukee Brewers chain in 1987 and remained a Brewers affiliate until 1992. One of the most memorable moments in the Zephyrs' tenure at Mile High was a 582-foot home run by Joey Meyer into the upper deck of the east stands. One seat in the all-blue section was painted orange to signify Meyer's towering blast. John Jaha later sent one near Meyer's homer, just a few feet to the left. Gary Sheffield and Greg Vaughn were some of the other fan favorites of the more recent Zephyr clubs.

Mile High Stadium on Opening Day, April 9, 1993

When Major League owners unanimously approved Denver and South Florida as baseball's two newest franchises on July 5, 1991, not only did that date mark the birth of the Rockies but also the end of over 100 years of Minor League baseball in Denver.

A Major League record crowd of 80,227 packed Mile High for the first home game in Rockies franchise history, April 9, 1993 vs. Montreal. Eric Young hit a home run to lead off the bottom of the first inning as the Rockies cruised to an 11-4 victory, signifying the beginning of big league baseball in the Rocky Mountain region.

After drawing 4,483,350 in the 1993 inaugural season, the Rockies were on pace to shatter that mark in 1994, averaging 58,598 through 56 home dates, which would have put the season ending mark at 4,687,840, if it were not for the strike that ended the 1994 season in August. In those first two seasons at Mile High, the Rockies had 52 occasions when better than 60,000 paid to watch baseball; 21 times the crowd eclipsed 70,000.

The Rockies moved into Coors Field in 1995 after shattering nearly every attendance mark in the books. In 135 dates at Mile High, the Rockies drew 7,701,861 fans, an average of 57,051 per game.

Demolition of Mile High was completed in March 2002. On Aug. 29, 2006, the Rockies and the Rocky Mountain Chapter of SABR unveiled a plaque commemorating Bears/Mile High Stadium, and a home plate made of steel was placed on the exact location of home plate at Mile High, which is currently in a parking lot adjacent to the Broncos' new home.

2020 MEDIA POLICIES

WORKING MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Season and daily credentials are issued with the intention that they will be utilized by the working media in order to provide coverage of the Colorado Rockies at Coors Field. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation's editor, producer or director. It is the responsibility of the requesting affiliation to confirm story assignment and subsequent approval/ denial of access to the game in question. The Colorado Rockies credential websites and blogs on a case-by-case basis. Media affiliates wishing to apply for credentials for the 2020 season must do so through Major League Baseball's online credentialing system at credentials.mlb.com. Please contact Abby Sanders with any credential issues and/or questions.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

Season and daily photo credentials are issued only to photographers on assignment for legitimate news-gathering organizations and representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Requests must follow the procedure outlined above for "Working Media Credentials." The Rockies do not credential freelancers or any photographers without a specific assignment as outlined by an affiliate's editor, producer or director. All flash photography is prohibited at Coors Field. Please be advised that priority in all photo bays will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. All mono and tripods are permitted pregame or postgame on the field, but not during the game. Any use of photographs taken other than for news-gathering purposes or MLB officially licensed products will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

ROVING CAMERAS

INTERNET MEDIA

Only licensees of Major League Baseball Enterprises have exclusive rights to simulate accounts, descriptions or pitch-by-pitch reproductions of Major League Baseball games on the Internet. No transmission by any other media, specifically including the Internet and any other online network, of any information about the game, including (but not limited to) any account, description, picture, video, audio, reproduction or other information concerning any MLB game will be permitted to originate from inside the ballpark (including from a camera feed already positioned within the ballpark). Reproduction of such accounts without a license from Major League Baseball

Enterprises is a violation of the policies of MLB and the Colorado Rockies. A breach in such policy will result in revocation of credentials, and may be subject to litigation.

WORKING PRESS BOX

Seating in the lower press box (located behind home plate on the LP level) is prioritized by daily print media, visiting media relations departments, visiting beat writers, and radio and television representatives not on the air during games. The upper press box (located behind home plate on the Club Level) consists of two television booths and four radio booths for live broadcasts. Keeping with MLB and club policy, no person under 18 is permitted into either press box area on game days. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited from the working press boxes (upper and lower) prior to and during the game. The press boxes are equipped with wireless Internet capabilities.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

Members of the media must have a specific working purpose to gain admittance to the clubhouse. Per Major League Baseball Regular Season Club/Media Regulations, "visitors in the clubhouse, including accredited media members, should conduct themselves in a professional manner. Clubhouses are work places. Clubhouse business should be conducted as expeditiously as possible with a minimum of disruption of regular game routines. Members of the media should not excessively linger in the clubhouse when not interviewing players." Should any media member need access to a specific player or staff member, please contact a member of the Rockies Communications Department. There shall be no seeking of autographs and no touching or removing of equipment or personal items from lockers. Media should not sit on clubhouse furniture, read newspapers or magazines or sample food spreads.

SOCIAL MEDIA

In accordance with MLB Regular Season Club/Media Regulations, media are not permitted to use cellular phones, laptops, texting devices or similar portable equipment in the clubhouse dressing area at any time, whether they are being used to make personal calls, send emails, texting, or scrolling the Internet and/or social media, including Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, etc. Media are allowed to use cellular devices to record audio and video interviews. Still photography, without permission from the Rockies Communications Department, is prohibited in the clubhouse at all times, with the exception of a photograph of the posted game lineups. Additionally, under club rules, the use of social media in the dugout, interview room or in the clubhouse while conducting media interviews or during scheduled interview sessions is strictly prohibited.

PREGAME SCHEDULE

The Rockies clubhouse opens a minimum of 3 1/2 hours prior to the game, pending first pitch time, and closes at the beginning of batting practice. The clubhouse will reopen approximately 10 minutes after the game. Clubhouse times are as follows (subject to change):

First Pitch	Clubhouse Times
1:10 p.m.	Opens at 10:00 a.m. until start of BP
2:10 p.m.	Opens at 11:00 a.m. until start of BP
6:10 p.m.	Opens at 2:10 p.m. until start of BP
6:40 p.m.	Opens at 2:40 p.m. until start of BP
7:10 p.m.	Opens at 3:40 p.m. until start of BP

Access to the visiting Coors Field clubhouse will be determined by the visiting club's policies.

MANAGER BUD BLACK AVAILABILITY

Rockies Manager Bud Black will be available to the media before and after each game, in addition to special requests. His pregame briefing is held in the dugout at the start of stretch, prior to batting practice, both on the road and at home; this will be 2-3 hours prior to first pitch. At home, Black's postgame press conference is held approximately 10 minutes after the game in the interview room (Rox Room), located on the Lower Level, down the first-base line from the Rockies' home clubhouse entrance. On the road, Black is available in the visiting manager's office inside the visiting clubhouse.

RADIO INTERVIEWS

The use of cellular phones for radio interviews while on the field and in the clubhouse is strictly prohibited without being prearranged with the Rockies Communications Department.

FIELD ACCESS

All members of the media with credentials allowing them access onto the field may conduct interviews at specific times prior to the start of the game. There is no field access from behind home plate. Members of the media with home clubhouse access may reach the dugout and field via the steps leading to the home dugout when the clubhouse is open. However, when the Rockies clubhouse is closed, all media should enter and exit the field via the tunnel adjacent to the visiting dugout. The field must be cleared 50 minutes before the beginning of the game. At no time are media permitted in fair territory or anywhere down the line from the first or third base bags. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited from the field at all times. Members of the media are prohibited from standing, photographing or conducting interviews from the circle of dirt surrounding the cage while batting practice is in progress.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS

Affiliations not licensed by MLB, and non-rights holders of the Colorado Rockies and MLB (television, radio and Internet sites) are prohibited from providing live telecasts, radio broadcasts, game simulations, pitch-by-pitch accounts, as well as from using live or taped material originating from inside the ballpark during a period commencing with AT&T SportsNet going on the air pregame and ending with the conclusion of the game. Additionally, live transmissions will not be permitted until the conclusion of the club's rights holder's (radio or television) postgame programming. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out-of-town reports are permitted to give inning or half-inning score updates; however, at no time can they file reports while play is in progress.

LIVE IN-GAME RADIO REPORTS

No radio entity is allowed to file live in-game reports from a ballpark hosting a game in which Major League Baseball's national radio rights holder, ESPN Radio, is broadcasting. The ESPN Radio window of exclusivity begins 15 minutes prior to first pitch and concludes 15 minutes after the game, or when ESPN Radio completes its broadcast, whichever comes first. In addition, in order to protect the club's local rights holders, the following guidelines are recommended for all non-ESPN Radio games: Reports are defined as non play-by-play reporting of scores and game highlights, including scene setters, game-in-progress updates and postgame summaries. No entity other than club and national rights holders are permitted to broadcast play-by-play at any time. Reports must be limited to segments of 30-60 seconds each and must be confined to between innings only. Reports will be limited to six per game. Radio stringers must notify clubs of their plans to do live reports from the ballpark and confirm an approved location. The suggested sequence per media outlet is as follows: Scene Set / 2nd Inning / 4th Inning / 6th Inning / 8th Inning / Postgame summary.

MEDIA DINING

A media dining room is located adjacent to the working press box on the Lower Press level of Coors Field, and is available to credentialed members of the media who have access to the working press box. Meals are $12.

AUTOGRAPHS

Credentialed members of the media are strictly prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Officials will revoke credentials from violators immediately, with no exceptions.

Rockies Radio Network

Jack Corrigan

Radio Announcer - KOA

With more than 2,700 Rockies broadcasts under his belt, Jack Corrigan is excited about his 18th season in Denver and his 35th in Major League Baseball. Corrigan came to Colorado after 17 years in the Cleveland Indians television booth. In addition to his work in baseball, Corrigan has been involved with play-by-play and color commentary for the Cleveland Cavaliers telecasts in the NBA and spent more than fifteen years as the lead announcer for college football and basketball games for the Atlantic Coast Conference, Ivy League, Mid-American Conference and Patriot League, among others.

A native Clevelander, Jack is a graduate of St. Ignatius High School and Cornell University, where he played football for four seasons while earning a B.A. in History. He received a master's degree in communications from Kent State University, and his thesis—on NFL Films—is in the archives at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is involved with his own video company that has produced more than 75 projects for sports entities and other commercial and non-profit organizations.

In the summer of 2005, Jack published his first novel, Warning Track, a book about an aging baseball player dealing with the lure and repercussions of supplement use. His second novel is titled Night of Destiny: 24 December 1944. It is a fictionalized account of an incident in World War II that involved his late father, Judge John V. Corrigan. Hit and Run, a sequel to Warning Track, is awaiting publication while being considered as a movie or television series.

Jack and his wife, Lisa, have been married 43 years and they have two children. Megan, a graduate of Mercyhurst University, and her husband John live in Colorado with their sons, James and Daniel. Michael, a Loyola Marymount University graduate, and his husband Eric work in Chicago, where he is in charge of publicity and branding for The Tie Bar Company. Jack, a prostate cancer survivor, is active with the Prostate Cancer Foundation and other local groups in increasing awareness and raising funds for research. He is on the Board of Directors for Boys Hope/Girls Hope, a privately-funded non-profit organization that helps at-risk children. Jack has served as a volunteer assistant football coach at Regis Jesuit High School in Denver for more than 10 years, after filling a similar position in Cleveland at Saint Ignatius High School for 20 seasons.

Mike Rice

Radio Announcer - KOA

Rice has been covering Colorado sports since 1991, including calling play-by-play for various teams at the University of Colorado and University of Northern Colorado.

Since 2002, he has been with Rockies flagship station KOA serving in a number of sports roles, including primary Rockies fill-in announcer over the last several seasons, studio host for the Denver Broncos and anchor for morning sportscasts. He is also currently the KOA Sports Director.

A native of San Rafael, Calif., Rice got his start in radio while in college at the University of California, Berkeley.

A trusted voice in Colorado journalism for more three decades with a friendly and engaging style, Mike enjoys traveling and photography, and always has his camera at the ready.

He resides in Denver, Colo. with his wife, Anne, and two sons, EJ and Will.

Drew Goodman

Play-by-Play Announcer - AT&T SportsNet

Drew Goodman, one of the most versatile broadcasters in sports, is in his 19th year calling Colorado Rockies games.

For 10 years (1994-2004), Goodman was the TV play-by-play announcer for Denver Nuggets telecasts, and from 2002-04, he was one of a few broadcasters to regularly call action for telecasts of two professional teams in the same year, annually logging more than 190 games between the Rockies and Nuggets. Prior to becoming the Rockies TV play-by-play voice in 2002, he worked select MLB national games for FSN and FX, and hosted the "Rockies Pregame Report" and "Rockies Weekly."

His work in football has been extensive, including stints calling the NFL for both NBC and FOX. He has called college football and basketball for FOX Sports Net, FX, ESPN, PAC 12 Network and AT&T SportsNet over the last thirty years and continues those duties at the conclusion of the baseball season. His work has not been limited to just the major sports, as he has covered everything from the ATP Tour to track and field to World Cup skiing. Between 2012 and 2014, he co-hosted one of the top-rated radio shows in Denver for 104.3 The Fan, and hosted the "Charlie Blackmon Show" for the station. He is a 13-time winner of Colorado Sportscaster of the Year as voted by his peers in the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters, and additionally has won several Emmy awards for his work. In the spring of 2019, his book If the Walls Could Talk-Colorado Rockies was released, detailing stories from many Rockies players, managers and front office people in Goodman's two decades around the club.

A native of New York, Goodman received his bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca College in 1985. He and his wife Kristi's most important endeavor is raising their three baseball players, Jacob, Zachary and Gabriel.

Jeff Huson

Color Analyst - AT&T SportsNet

In 2006, Jeff Huson embarked on a new career in baseball, serving as television analyst for the Colorado Rockies. When not working in the booth, Huson's insights about the game are a welcome contribution during the Rockies pregame and postgame shows on the network.

The former University of Wyoming baseball star played 15 years in professional baseball, including 12 years as a utility player with the Montreal Expos, Texas Rangers, Baltimore Orioles, Milwaukee Brewers, Seattle Mariners, Anaheim Angels and Chicago Cubs. He also served as a roving infield instructor with the Chicago Cubs organization, working with Major League prospects from the Triple-A level to the Dominican Republic League from 2001-05.

He played shortstop at Wyoming 1984-85, after transferring from Glendale (Ariz.) Community College. In 2015, Huson was officially inducted into the University of Wyoming Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2017, Jeff was also inducted into the Glendale Community College Hall of Fame.

A native of Sedona, Ariz., Huson and his family have resided in Parker, Colo., for the past 23 years. Jeff and his wife Wendy are both graduates of the University of Wyoming and have three children: Lindsay, Kyle and Cody. They welcomed their first grandchild in March 2016, a granddaughter named Tatum, and welcomed their second granddaughter, Parker, in November 2018.

Ryan Spilborghs

Color Analyst - AT&T SportsNet

Ryan Spilborghs joined the Rockies television broadcast team in 2014. As a former National League Champion with the Rockies in 2007, Spilborghs provides a unique perspective on the broadcasts in his roles as game analyst alongside play-by-play man Drew Goodman, as well as sideline reporter.

Spilborghs is also a host on MLB Network Radio, and has served as emcee at numerous charity events in the Denver area.

A Santa Barbara, Calif. native, Spilborghs was recruited to play baseball at the University of California - Santa Barbara, where he was a two-time Big West selection. After being selected in the seventh round of the 2002 MLB First-Year Player Draft by the Rockies, he spent six seasons as an outfielder for the team, doing his part to advance the 2007 and 2009 Rockies teams to the postseason. One of his most memorable achievements came against the Giants in late August of 2009, when he hit the first walk-off grand slam in Rockies team history.

AT&T SportsNet Rocky Mountain

Jenny Cavnar

Host/Reporter - AT&T SportsNet

Jenny Cavnar is the host of the Rockies Pregame Report and Toyota Postgame Show and also serves as sideline reporter and play-by-play for select games. This year marks the four-time Emmy® Award winner's 14th season covering MLB.

Cavnar made baseball history in 2018 as the first woman to call play-by-play for a Major League Baseball game in 25 years. In 2015, she was the first female to provide analysis for a series of National League games in the radio booth.

Born and raised in Aurora, Colo., Cavnar returned home to join AT&T SportsNet, after spending eight years on the west coast lending her talents to ESPN, Fox Sports West, CBS College Sports and as the host of the San Diego Padres pregame and postgame shows (2007-2011).

Cavnar is a graduate of Smoky Hill High School and Colorado State University. Her love of baseball comes from her father, Steve Cavnar, a Colorado High School Baseball Hall of Fame coach. Cavnar resides in Denver with her husband Steven and their two-year old son, Vincent.

Marc Stout

Host/Reporter - AT&T SportsNet

Marc Stout has been a versatile part of Rockies' TV broadcasts since 2007.

Stout moved to Denver in 1995 after a five year radio stint in Buffalo, N.Y., where he was part of the Buffalo Bills radio network and was co-host of the 97 Rock morning show.

In Denver, Stout's on-air work in radio has been extensive with 850 KOA, KBPI and 103.5 The Fox. He has also been on the sidelines for the Broncos' radio network, called play-by-play for Colorado Crush AFL games on the radio, Colorado Rapids games on TV, as well as play-by-play and sideline reporting for numerous Mountain West Conference football and basketball games.

Cory Sullivan

Analyst - AT&T SportsNet

Cory Sullivan joined the AT&T SportsNet team in 2014 and serves as the Pregame and Toyota Postgame analyst throughout the season.

Sullivan was drafted in the seventh round of the 2001 First-Year Player Draft by the Colorado Rockies and played seven Major League seasons with the Rockies, Mets and Astros, while also spending time in the Dodgers and Phillies organizations. Sullivan made his Major League debut on April 4, 2005, and was a member of the 2007 National League Champion Rockies.

Originally from Pittsburgh, Pa., Sullivan graduated from North Allegheny High School before attending Wake Forest University, where he graduated with a degree in psychology and political science. In 2001, he won the Arnold Palmer Award at Wake Forest for the male athlete of the year.

Cory and his girlfriend Jaclyn McFadyen reside in Evergreen, Colo., with their daughter Riley Sullivan.

Rockies Spanish Radio- KNRV

Salvador Hernandez

Play-by-Play Announcer - 1150 /96.1 FM

Salvador Hernandez was born in Parral, Chihuahua, Mexico. He has 35 years of experience working in media, mostly broadcasting baseball and basketball games. In 2005, he broadcasted the Caribbean Series for 25 radio stations in Chihuahua, Mexico. Hernandez has been doing the Spanish play-by-play for the Colorado Rockies for the past eight seasons, including 2020. In 2015, he earned the Award of Excellence in sports coverage. In 2016, Hernandez received a Certificate of Merit, and in 2018, he received the Award of Excellence for Best Sports Coverage regardless of language with KNRV, an award that is given by the Colorado Broadcasters Association.

Hernandez started playing baseball at the age of five, mainly as a pitcher and first baseman. Later, he combined the practice of the sport with the broadcasting.

Currently, Hernandez is the general manager of KNRV 1150 AM/96.1 FM in Denver, a post he has held for the last eight years. He is also a sports columnist for several newspapers in the Denver metro area. Salvador has a son, Sebastian, who plays baseball for his high school team. Last season, Sebastian made his debut broadcasting baseball for KNRV.

Carlos Valdez

Play-by-Play Announcer - 1150 AM/96.1 FM

Carlos Valdez was born and raised in Mexico City and moved to the United States when he was 22 years old. Upon moving to the U.S., he began working in the restaurant industry, and by 1989, he had opened his own bakery in the San Fernando Valley, Calif.

Valdez played baseball for two years and then decided to be a spectator of the sport, earning some income by taking notes on the sports teams for a local newspaper in California.

He left California and came to Colorado in 2000. For more than nine years, Valdez has been the co-host of "Jueves Deportivo," a weekly sports show that is broadcast on KNRV. He continued with his bakery business in Colorado, and today, he and his family enjoy serving the Aurora community with fresh Mexican bread.

In the last three years, Valdez has dedicated more time to sports broadcasting by doing play-by-play announcing at baseball and football games. He is part of KNRV's staff that won the Award of Excellence for Best Sports Coverage in 2018.

INAUGURAL SALT RIVER FIELDS ATTENDANCE RECORDS

The Colorado Rockies, Arizona Diamondbacks and Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community set the all-time Major League Baseball Spring Training attendance record by drawing 359,308 fans to Salt River Fields at Talking Stick in its inaugural season in 2011. Peoria Sports Complex held the previous MLB record for a two-team facility when the Seattle Mariners and San Diego Padres drew 230,146 fans in 2008.

Overall, the D-backs and Rockies sold out 21 of 33 games at Salt River Fields in 2011, including a stretch of 10 consecutive sellouts from March 12-20. The D-backs and Rockies also had the top two attendance averages in the Cactus League in 2011. Following the 2011 season, BallparkDigest.com named Salt River Fields at Talking Stick its Ballpark of the Year.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Rockies in the Community

The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation

Since the organization's inception in 1993, the Colorado Rockies have demonstrated a passionate commitment to their philanthropic mission of positively impacting the community through corporate investment and active outreach. The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation is the charitable arm of the organization tasked with the mission to support underprivileged and at-risk youth through programs for youth baseball and softball, education, literacy, drug and alcohol-abuse awareness and prevention.

Since 1993, the CRBC Foundation has granted over $30 million to agencies, organizations and programs that support the foundation's mission. In addition, the Rockies take pride in hosting members of the community at Coors Field, having donated close to two million tickets to numerous non-profit organizations throughout the region.

50/50 Raffle

Beginning Opening Day 2018 and running at all Rockies home games throughout the season, the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation has hosted the Metropolitan State University of Denver's Alumni Association in their 50/50 Raffle. This program is the newest addition to the Colorado Rockies community initiatives and it will continue for the 2020 season. During each Rockies home game, volunteers sell 50/50 raffle tickets throughout Coors Field, through the seventh inning. The winning ticket is drawn during the eighth inning and one lucky fan goes home with half of the jackpot for that game.

Rockies Youth Baseball Initiatives

The Colorado Rockies Youth Baseball Initiative encompasses a wide range of programs designed to inspire and cultivate a love of baseball and softball among local youth. These programs place an emphasis on health and activity through baseball and softball, and give opportunities for children to work with and learn from professional Rockies coaches and players. Programs that are under the initiative cater to a wide range of ages, socio-economic circumstances and physical abilities. Some of these programs have sprung from long-standing local relationships.

In 2007, the Rockies adopted the Boys & Girls Clubs Owen Branch, located in West Denver, and have since played host to club members at annual baseball/softball skills clinics and other events. Over the past year, the Rockies also hosted baseball/softball events with: Big Brothers Big Sisters of Colorado, National Sports Center for the Disabled, Girls Inc. of Metro Denver, Buckley Air Force Base and Fantasy Camp for Kids. The Rockies also host the Youth Baseball Camp and Youth Softball Camp at Coors Field annually, which helps raise money for the Rockies Foundation while providing a fun and unique camp experience.

And since 2001, the Rockies have hosted High School Baseball Games at Coors Field in March and April. For participating schools throughout the state of Colorado, these games provide a lucrative fundraising opportunity through ticket sales that has averaged $25,000-$35,000, which has been used to benefit their school's athletic program, facilities, equipment or whatever they choose. In 2020, the Rockies will host 14 games at Coors Field.

RBI Program

The Rockies are proud participants in Major League Baseball's RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) Program. Established in 1989, RBI's mission is to assist financially disadvantaged families and communities in engaging youth in physical and mental activity by offering them an opportunity to play in summer baseball and softball leagues at no cost to their families.

The Rockies run a total of 39 teams within three divisions: seniors baseball (ages 16-18), juniors baseball (ages 13-15) and softball (18 and under). In 2018, 20 area schools in Aurora, Commerce City, Denver, Lakewood and Thornton participated in the program. The season runs from late May through mid-July and culminates with a final tournament. The Greater Denver RBI Program has had over 600 participants each year.

Colorado Rockies "Make an Impact" Program

"Make an Impact" is a character education initiative that complements preexisting PBS (Positive Behavior Support) programs with an on-site "Rockies School Rally." This school-wide assembly is designed to entertain students while teaching them the importance of staying in school, refusing drugs, respect and getting involved within their own communities. The 45-minute interactive program is designed for grades K-6 and features recorded player messages as well as a visit from Rockies mascot Dinger. Since 2006, the Make an Impact assembly program has been presented at over 350 schools and has reached close to 155,000 students.

Coors Field Tours

The Rockies offer year-round guided tours of Coors Field, giving fans the chance to see what occurs behind the scenes at one of the premier venues in all of American sports. Over 19,000 people took a tour of Coors Field in 2019, raising over $140,000 for the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation.

The Care & Share Program

The Care & Share Program is an initiative that gives children living with serious illnesses the opportunity to be special guests at Coors Field prior to and during a Rockies home game. Participants in the program are invited to spend time on the field during batting practice, where they are able to meet and receive autographs from Rockies players. Participants are selected through a collaboration with the Make-A-Wish Foundation and Children's Hospital Colorado.

Rockies Wives

Each season, wives and girlfriends of Rockies players and coaches give back to the Colorado community by participating in various fundraising and awareness programs, as proud representatives of the Rockies organization.

CRBC Foundation at Spring Training

The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation is committed to community outreach throughout the year in the Rocky Mountain Region, and that commitment extends to their home away from home during the spring. With the move to the spectacular Salt River Fields at Talking Stick complex in 2011, the Rockies have the unique opportunity to collaborate with the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community (SRPMIC) on several projects with organizations that directly contribute to the quality of life for all people in the community.

Of particular interest to the Rockies are projects that allow baseball to positively impact the lives of children who are at risk. Efforts to prevent substance abuse, increase literacy and educational achievement and promote good citizenship among community youth are crucial to the Rockies' charitable mission. With that interest as a guide, the Rockies have hosted and participated in several SRPMIC events. Each year since they relocated to Scottsdale, the Rockies have been involved with the youth of the SRPMIC by hosting baseball/softball clinics, "Make an Impact" school visits, equipment drives and physical fitness events.

The Colorado Rockies are proud to share in the cultural diversity, rich history and artistic values of the Pima and Maricopa tribes. The organization looks forward to many years of shared experiences and events that can make a difference in the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community.

GROUND RULES

Foul Poles: Ball hitting any part of foul pole screen down left or right-field lines is a HOME RUN.

Canvas (Tarp): Ball remaining behind or underneath canvas is given ONE BASE on pitch, TWO BASES on throw by fielder, TWO BASES on batted ball, otherwise in play. Fielder can catch a ball while standing on canvas.

Right-Field Manual Scoreboard: Ball going into the scoreboard, either on the bounce or the fly is given TWO BASES.

A TO Z: FAST FACTS

CAPTAIN'S DECK: Located on the Mezzanine Level (above Sections 201-203), the Captain's Deck has a center-field view of the game from a semi-enclosed party area with a full-service bar, concessions and televisions. The Captain's Deck is available to groups, individuals and walk-ins, subject to availability.

CLUB LEVEL: The Wells Fargo Club Level is the second level of the ballpark, featuring in-seat beverage service in the outdoor seats, as well as an interior concourse filled with upgraded bars and food stations along with traditional concessions. The Club Level also houses several cases of Rockies artifacts behind home plate for fans' enjoyment.

INFINITI CLUB: This premium seating area is located directly behind home plate. Ticket holders in this area have a private entrance, access to a private restaurant and lounge and complimentary dining in both the restaurant and their seats.

KID-FRIENDLY AREAS:

- The Arrow Electronics Interactive Area is located behind the bullpens on the Main Concourse at Gate A. Fans may purchase game tickets at the kiosk in the area, and skills games include pitching and batting experiences suitable for all ages.
- There are two playgrounds for younger fans: One is located under the center-field Rockpile seating deck, just off the Main Concourse, and is available during all games (as well as prior to games when it isn't reserved for picnics); the other is located in the left-field corner on the Main Concourse.
- Buckaroos is a kid-friendly concession stand with size-appropriate portions of ballpark favorites, located in the left-field corner on the Main Concourse.
- The best place to meet Dinger, the Rockies' mascot since 1994, is at his daily autograph session, which starts at the top of the third inning and ends by the middle of the fourth inning. It is located on the Main Concourse right below the Rockpile in center field. Dinger's schedule is very busy, so make sure to get in line early for the best chance to meet this lovable purple triceratops.

MOUNTAIN RANCH CLUB: The MRC is a full-service restaurant and bar located in the right-field corner on both the Club and Suite Level, offering premium open-air seating around spacious granite half-moon tables with personal televisions, as well as indoor tables and bar space. Tables of two or four are sold on a seasonal basis and may also be available on a limited basis for single-game purchase. Tickets include food and beverage credit which can be used in the restaurant and at concession and novelty locations throughout Coors Field. Guests can access the Mountain Ranch Club via the elevator behind Section 114, or through the private entrance behind Section 214 on the right-field side of the Wells Fargo Club Level.

THE ROCKPILE: The Rockies started the Rockpile seating area at Mile High Stadium in 1993 as an area where kids (age 12 and under) and seniors (age 55 and older) could always buy affordable tickets (some as low as $1), and that tradition has carried on to this day at Coors Field. Located in center field, this bleacher section is sold in advance and, for most games, a limited number of Rockpile tickets are held for sale day of game at the Rockpile Ticket Office next to Gate A (limits apply).

THE ROOFTOP: The Rooftop is a two-tiered, 38,000 square foot destination in the outfield upper deck, providing panoramic views of downtown Denver and the Front Range. The Rooftop is open to all Coors Field guests. Along with premium bar/eateries like the Coors Light Silver Bullet Bar, Smashburger and Jack Daniel's Terrace Bar, The Rooftop also has numerous televisions, live pregame entertainment and group party areas for rental: Shane Co.bana (40-60 people), Jack Daniel's Terrace Loft (40-60 people), Jack Daniel's Pregame Deck (150-300 people, pregame only). Individual standing room tickets for The Rooftop are available for purchase starting at $16, which includes $6 in concession and/or merchandise credit.

SOUVENIRS: In addition to nine portable stands throughout the ballpark, Coors Field offers three merchandise stores. The 7,000-square foot Diamond Dry Goods retail store is located on the first-base side of the Main Concourse. The Diamond Dry Goods Store honors Season Ticket Holder discounts and exchanges, if items were purchased at a Colorado Rockies Dugout Store (non-ballpark locations at Rockies.com/dugoutstores). The Club Level Store is located behind home plate on the Club Level. The New Era Store, located in the left-field corner on the Main Concourse, offers a complete collection of New Era hats and apparel for everyone. Finally, the Authentics Kiosk, located on the Main Concourse behind Section 147, sells game-used collectibles from each home game, as well as autographed merchandise. All items are authenticated under the auspices of MLB Authentication.

SUITE LEVEL: Located on the third level of Coors Field, there is a wide variety of experiences available on

COORS FIELD SCOREBOARD

In 2018, the Colorado Rockies unveiled a new scoreboard with a uniquely Colorado Rockies shape, as the top of the scoreboard features a mountain cutout reminiscent of the Club's mountain logo. Some facts about the scoreboard: it measures 8,369 square feet, 258% larger than the former Coors Field scoreboard; it is equivalent in display size to 784 60-inch televisions and features a total of 6.8 million LEDs.

the Suite Level: individual game Party Suites, individual and package Infield Suites, Season Suites and conference rooms.

SUSTAINABILITY: The Colorado Rockies work hard to help keep Colorado and the environment green and clean. Two ways they do this every game are through recycling and solar panels. In a typical year, the Rockies recycle many used materials, such as batteries, electronics, construction debris, fryer grease, glass, plastics, paper, cardboard, oil and pallets, and they compost food, grass clippings and shrubbery. In total, the Rockies divert over 316 tons from the landfill in one season alone. Also, in partnership with Xcel Energy, the Rockies installed solar panels on the Rockpile in 2007. These solar panels produce over 14,000 kilowatt hours of energy each year, enough to power the Rockpile board during games.

TOYOTA LAND CRUISER CLUB: This premium seating area is located behind home plate on the Lower Press Level, next to the press box. Ticket holders in this area have a private entrance and access to a lounge with food and bar service.

WARNING TRACK PARTY ROOM: The Warning Track Party Room is located at field level under the manual out-of-town scoreboard with a unique view from right field. The area may be accessed via the Gate A elevator, and the rental provides a fully catered buffet for groups of 30 to 90 people.

DINGER

THE COLORADO ROCKIES' OFFICIAL MASCOT

Born April 16, 1994 at Mile High Stadium, Dinger begins his 26th season as the official mascot of the Rockies, making visits to schools, hospitals and wherever he is called throughout the Rocky Mountain Region. For information and special appearance bookings, e-mail Dinger@rockies.com.
