DETROIT Tigers

A CENTURY OF BATTING CHAMPIONS

ORDONEZ JOINS ELITE GROUP OF TIGERS

Magglio Ordonez delivered one of the greatest statistical seasons in Detroit Tigers history in 2007. Ordonez won the American League batting title with a .363 batting average, while also leading the league with 54 doubles and finishing second with 216 hits and 139 RBI. He reached statistical landmarks not reached by a Tigers player in decades. His .363 batting average was the highest by a Tigers player since Charlie Gehringer batted .371 to win the American League batting title in 1937. The 216 hits were the most by a Tigers player since George Kell finished with 218 in 1950 and his 54 doubles marked the most by a Tigers player since Kell collected 56 doubles in 1950. His 139 RBI were the most since Rocky Colavito collected 140 in 1961. It was during that 1961 season that Norm Cash batted .361 to win the batting title, the last batting title by a Tigers player prior to Ordonez achieving the feat in 2007. While it had been over 40 years since the last Tigers batting title, Ordonez joined an elite group of Tigers players that comprise the club's rich history of top hitters.

TY COBB: THE ORIGINAL BATTING CHAMP

A history of Tigers batting champions would be incomplete without the most prolific batting champion in baseball history. Ty Cobb batted .350 during the 1907 campaign for the Tigers, helping lead the club to its first World Series berth. Cobb won the batting title running away that season, outpacing teammate Sam Crawford by 27 points to become the franchise's first batting champion. The 1907 season kicked off a remarkable run in which Cobb won nine consecutive batting titles. Over that nine-season stretch, Cobb batted .376 and collected nearly 1,800 hits. He finished second in the batting race to Cleveland's Tris Speaker in 1916, but rebounded to win the batting title again in each of the next three seasons. Following his run of 12 batting titles, Cobb batted .389 in 1921, but finished second to teammate Harry Heilmann. Cobb topped the .400 mark for the third time in his career in 1922, but again finished second as St. Louis' George Sisler batted .420 to lead the league. Cobb's 12 batting titles mark the most by a single player in modern baseball history.

HEILMANN CONTINUES THE REIGN

Cobb's reign of batting titles ended after the 1919 season, but it didn't take long for another Tigers player to step up and continue the Tigers dominance at the top of the American League batting race. Harry Heilmann pounded 237 hits and batted .394 in 1921 to win his first American League batting title and the 13th batting title in franchise history. He batted .403 in 1923 to claim his second batting championship and added two more titles with a .393 batting average in 1925 and .398 batting average in 1927. Heilmann won all four batting titles with batting averages of .390-or-better and is tied with Cobb and Rogers Hornsby for the most seasons since 1900 with a batting average of .390-or-better. He finished in the top five in the American League batting race two other times during his career and his .342 career batting average ranks 12th on the all-time list. His four batting titles rank second to Cobb in franchise history.

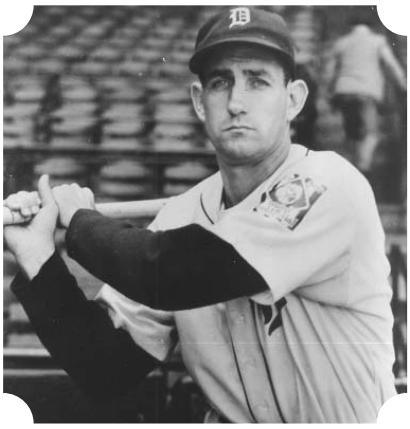

MANUSH WINS 1926 AL BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP

In the midst of Heilmann's four batting titles, outfielder Heinie Manush batted .378 in 1926 to win the American League batting title, edging the Yankees' Babe Ruth who finished the season with a .372 batting average. Manush joined Cobb and Heilmann during a remarkable run in which the Tigers claimed the batting title in 17 of the first 27 seasons in the American League through 1927. The 1926 season marked Manush's only career batting title, although he totaled five other top-five finishes in the batting race after departing the Tigers organization following the 1927 season.

GEHRINGER TOPS THE IRON HORSE

After Heilmann's batting title in 1927, the Tigers would have to wait another decade for a batting champion. Charlie Gehringer became the fourth batting champion in club history in 1937, finishing the season with a .371 batting average and 209 hits en route to winning the American League Most Valuable Player Award. Gehringer's .371 batting average outpaced the Yankees' Lou Gehrig, who finished second in the league at .351. Despite nearly 3,000 career hits and a .320 career batting average, 1937 marked Gehringer's only batting title. He finished in the top five in the American League batting race four other times in his career and batted over .350 three times. Gehringer recorded a second-place finish with a .356 batting average in 1934 with Gehrig winning the batting title after finishing the season at .363. Additionally, Gehringer finished fifth in both 1933 and 1935.

KELL EDGES TED WILLIAMS IN 1949

George Kell became the fifth batting champion in club history in 1949, edging one of the greatest hitters in baseball history to earn the crown. Kell batted .343, narrowly topping Boston's Ted Williams by a fraction of a point to earn his only career batting championship. Kell finished in the top five in batting in the American League during six of his seven seasons with the Tigers, including the partial seasons with the club in 1946 and 1952. He finished second in the batting race to Boston's Billy Goodman in 1950, while leading the American League with 218 hits. He led the American League again in 1951 with 191 hits, while finishing third in the batting race.

KALINE WINS AMERICAN LEAGUE BATTING TITLE IN 1955

In just his second full season at the major league level, Al Kaline finished the 1955 season with a .340 batting average to earn the American League batting title. At age 20, Kaline became the youngest player ever to lead the American League in hitting. Kaline also led the American League with 200 hits and 321 total bases in 1955, recording career bests in both categories. The 1955 season marked his only batting title, but Kaline finished in the top five in the American League batting race six other times during his career. He finished second to teammate Harvey Kuenn in 1959 and second to teammate Norm Cash in 1961. Kaline also finished second to Boston's Carl Yastrzemski in 1963.

KUENN TOPS AMERICAN LEAGUE IN HITTING BEFORE BEING DEALT

After finishing third in the batting race in two of the previous three seasons, Harvey Kuenn batted .353 in 1959 to win his only career batting title. Kuenn outpaced teammate Al Kaline for the batting title and led the American League with 42 doubles in 1959 before being dealt to the Cleveland Indians at the beginning of the 1960 season in exchange for American League home run champion Rocky Colavito. The trade marked the only time in major league history that the current batting champion has been traded for the current home run champion.

CASH COMBINES AVERAGE AND POWER FOR FANTASTIC 1961 SEASON

Norm Cash entered his fourth major league season in 1961 with 22 career home runs and 128 career hits. He ended the 1961 season with one of the most prolific single-season outputs in club history. He batted .361 to win the American League batting title, while belting 41 home runs and collecting 132 RBI. The 41 home runs are the most ever by a Tigers batting champion, while his 123 walks rank first among Tigers batting champions. His 132 RBI rank fifth among Tigers batting champions.

ORDONEZ AND BEYOND

The Tigers held two of the top three spots in the American League batting race in 2007 with Placido Polanco finishing third with a .340 batting average. The Tigers also acquired Edgar Renteria from the Atlanta Braves, who finished fourth in the National League with a .332 batting average in 2007 and Miguel Cabrera from the Florida Marlins, who finished eighth in the National League with a .320 batting average. The Tigers enter the 2008 season with 23 American League batting titles, second-most in American League history, trailing only the Boston Red Sox with 24.

MICHAEL ILITCH

OWNER/DIRECTOR

A leader in the diverse fields of sports, entertainment and business development, Michael Ilitch enters his 16th full season as Owner/Director of the Detroit Tigers.

- Was a driving force behind the creation of the Tigers spectacular new home, Comerica Park, and contributed more than 60 percent of the financing for the $300 million facility.
- Served a key role in designing the new ballpark, bringing years of entertainment experience to the efforts that resulted in many of the features that make Comerica Park unique.
- Founded Little Caesars Pizza in 1959 with his wife, Marian…today, Little Caesars is one of the top international pizza chains with restaurants on five continents...in 2006 introduced a Little Caesars veterans program offering qualified honorably discharged and disabled veterans a Little Caesars franchise with significant reductions in fees.
- Ilitch's acquisition of the Tigers on August 26, 1992 was the culmination of a long association with the club that saw him originally sign a minor league player's contract with the organization in his early 20's.
- Ilitch's playing career was cut short due to a knee injury after he batted .340 in his third season with the minor league club.
- Committed to business ventures in their hometown Detroit, the Ilitches purchased the Detroit Red Wings in 1982 and have built them into an elite NHL powerhouse with three Stanley Cup titles in the last 10 years.
- Also purchased Olympia Entertainment, the management company for Joe Louis and Cobo Arenas.
- While many businesses were leaving Detroit's urban center, the Ilitches in 1987 purchased the neglected Fox Theatre, a 1928 landmark on the famous Woodward Avenue...with great effort, the building was restored to its original splendor and was reopened with 5,000 seats in November of 1988…in recent years, it has been the second-highest grossing theatre in the country, trailing only the famed Radio City Music Hall in New York.
- In 1989, the family further committed its efforts to reviving Detroit's downtown by relocating its suburban Little Caesars headquarters to the Fox Theatre's adjacent 10-story office building…in recent years, the area around the Fox and Comerica Park has seen significant development, including the Ilitch-owned City Theatre and Hockeytown Café.
- Created Olympia Development, L.L.C. to focus on projects in downtown Detroit…in 1999 Ilitch Holdings, Inc. was formed to provide the family's primary business interests in the food, sports and entertainment industries with technical and professional services.
- Ilitch has received Presidential Citations from three separate United States Presidents -- Bill Clinton, George H.W. Bush and Ronald Reagan for feeding the hungry through his Love Kitchen.
- Ilitch has been honored by many for his tireless efforts in Detroit and surrounding communities with many awards, including the Distinguished Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Service Award from the Michigan Department of Health for promoting and demonstrating exemplary performance in advancing principles of human rights, equality and positive social change and most recently received a Shining Light Regional Cooperation Award for exemplary regional leadership.
- In 2003, Ilitch was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame...he was inducted into both the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame and U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2004.

SHEFFIELD HEADS TOWARD 500 HOME RUN CLUB

Gary Sheffield enters the 2008 season with 480 home runs during his major league career, 20 shy of reaching the 500 home run club. At the start of the 2008 season, only 23 players have clubbed 500-or-more home runs in major league history. Sheffield would be the first player to reach 500 career home runs while playing for the Tigers.

Manny Ramirez, along with Sheffield, are two closest active players to joining the 500 home run club in 2008. Ramirez enters the season with 490 home runs during his career.

CENTERING ON FRUSTRATION

Of the 1,250 home runs hit at Comerica Park in its first eight seasons, just 28 have cleared the center field wall. The eight-foot, six-inch center field wall runs from left-center field to the out-of-town scoreboard right below Comerica Park's giant water feature. Of the 28 home runs, 14 have been hit by a Tigers player. Billy McMillon became the first Tiger to accomplish the feat in the first inning off Boston's Rolando Arrojo on September 16, 2000. ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jamie Moyer; Jim Thome; Curt Schilling; Al Leiter; Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

WALKING-OFF WITH THREE WINS

The Tigers ended three straight games June 26-29, 2004 with walk-off home runs by Eric Munson, Carlos Pena and Dmitri Young, marking the first time the club has done so in three consecutive games since September 17-19, 1998. During that three-game stretch, Damion Easley homered in the first and third games while Tony Clark accomplished the feat in the middle game. Additionally, Pena's walk-off grand slam on June 27 versus Arizona was the first by a Tigers player since Lou Whitaker connected off Cleveland's Derek Lilliquist on June 21, 1994.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR LEAGUE BATTING AND PITCHING TITLES

A batting champion is determined each season in each league by the highest batting average (number of hits divided by the number of at bats) based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, which may include walks, sacrifices and hit by pitch.

The pitching champion is determined in each league by the lowest earned run average (number of earned runs multiplied by nine, then divided by innings pitched) with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

DETROIT TIGERS YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first major league Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.

The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by three and one-half games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the major leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

ALL-STAR GAME HISTORY

ALL-STAR GAMES IN DETROIT

JULY 8, 1941
AMERICAN LEAGUE 7, NATIONAL LEAGUE 5

Detroit hosted the ninth All-Star Game at Briggs Stadium on July 8, 1941. The game was attended by nearly 55,000 fans and the fans were rewarded as the American League squad rallied from a 5-2 deficit with one run in the eighth inning and four runs in the ninth to defeat the National League. The comeback was capped by a three-run home run off the facing of the right field roof by Hall-of-Famer Ted Williams. Williams would later characterize the home run as one of the most exciting moments of his career. Arky Vaughn led the National League offense in the loss, becoming the first player in all-star history to hit two home runs in a game while adding a double and four RBI.

Three Tigers players were selected to play in the contest, including first baseman Rudy York, catcher Birdie Tebbetts and righthanded pitcher Al Benton. York was the only Tigers player to appear in the game, finishing 1x3. The American League squad was managed by Tigers skipper Del Baker while Tigers coach Merv Shea served as one of the coaches.

The 1941 All-Star Game also marked the first time brothers had appeared together in a midsummer classic. Joe and Dom DiMaggio both appeared in the game for the American League with Joe finishing 1x4 with three runs scored and an RBI and Dom finishing 1x1 with an RBI.

JULY 10, 1951
NATIONAL LEAGUE 8, AMERICAN LEAGUE 3

Briggs Stadium hosted the 18th All-Star Game on July 10, 1951 as the Midsummer Classic was again played in Detroit. Over 52,000 fans were in attendance and witnessed a home run barrage as the National League squad thumped an all-star record four round trippers to defeat the American League 8-3 and claim their second consecutive victory for the first time in all-star history. The American League chipped in two home runs to raise the game total to six, establishing a new all-star record.

Ralph Kiner drilled a two-run homer for the National League in the eighth inning, which made him the only player in history to homer in three consecutive All-Star Games. Stan Musial also established a new all-star record by being caught stealing twice.

The Tigers were represented by third baseman George Kell, outfielder Vic Wertz and righthanded pitcher Fred Hutchinson. Kell started the game at third base and drilled a solo home run while Wertz started the game in right field and also connected for a solo round tripper. Hutchinson worked three innings in the loss, allowing three runs on three hits while issuing two walks.

ALL-STAR GAMES IN DETROIT

July 13, 1971
American League 6, National League 4

The All-Star Game returned to Detroit on July 13, 1971 as the best players in baseball flocked to Tiger Stadium for the 42nd Midsummer Classic. The American League squad pounded three home runs to take the 6-4 victory and snap an eight-game losing streak. Reggie Jackson provided the memorable moment when he crushed a Dock Ellis delivery off the light tower in right field for a two-run homer.

The National League also drilled three home runs as the two teams matched an all-star record with a combined six home runs, all by Hall-of-Fame players (Hank Aaron, Johnny Bench, Roberto Clemente, Jackson, Harmon Killibrew, Frank Robinson).

Frank Robinson was named as the game's most valuable player after finishing the game 1x2 with a home run and two RBI. Robinson's home run made him the first player in all-star history to hit a home run for both the American and National League.

The Tigers were represented by first baseman Norm Cash, catcher Bill Freehan, outfielder Al Kaline and lefthanded pitcher Mickey Lolich. Cash started at first base and finished 0x2 while Freehan started behind the plate and went hitless in three trips to the plate. Kaline entered the game playing right field in the sixth inning and finished the game 1x2 with a run scored. Lolich worked the final two innings, allowing one run on one hit, while striking out one.

American League 7, National League 5

The All-Star Game made its return to Detroit and first visit to Comerica Park on July 12, 2005 for the 76th Midsummer Classic. The American League jumped out to an early 7-0 lead and held on for the 7-5 victory. The victory was the eighth consecutive for the American League and raised their record to 3-1 in All-Star Games played in Detroit.

Miguel Tejada led the American League offensive attack with a two-run homer and played solid defense at shortstop to earn the game's most valuable player award. David Ortiz was the only player in the game to collect multiple hits, finishing 2x3 with a pair of singles and an RBI.

Andruw Jones led the National League offense with two runs scored, a home run and two RBI. Derrek Lee, Moises Alou and Luis Gonzalez each chipped in with doubles to round out the offensive attack for the National League.

Mark Buehrle started for the American League and worked a pair of scoreless innings to earn the victory. John Smoltz allowed a solo home run to Tejada to take the loss. Mariano Rivera struck out Morgan Ensberg to end the game and earn the save.

The Tigers were represented by catcher Ivan Rodriguez, who was named to his 12th all-star team. Rodriguez entered the game behind the plate in the fifth inning and finished 0x1 with a walk in his two trips to the plate.

TIGERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

DETROIT TIGERS IN NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

TY COBB — CF, 1905-26

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1936
Ht./Wt.: 6-1/175
Born: 12/18/1886 in Narrows, GA
Full Name: Tyrus Raymond Cobb
Nickname: "The Georgia Peach"
Batted/Threw: L/R
Died: 7/17/61 in Atlanta, GA

Perhaps the greatest player in baseball history, there is little doubt that Ty Cobb, called a "Genius in Spikes," was the greatest competitor the game has ever seen.

- Received seven more votes than Babe Ruth when elected as one of the five original members of the Hall of Fame... garnered 98.2 percent of the vote, the highest percentage ever until Tom Seaver was elected with 98.8 percent in 1992.
- Owns the highest lifetime batting average (.367) in major league history.
- Major league record 4,191 career hits stood for almost 60 years and single-season major league record of 96 stolen bases in 1915 stood for nearly 50 years.
- Held the major league record for career runs scored (2,246) for 75 years until Rickey Henderson surpassed the total during the 2001 season.
- Also ranks second all-time in triples (295), fourth in doubles (724) and fourth in stolen bases (892)...his triples total is second only to Tiger teammate Sam Crawford.
- Batted .400 or better three times (.420, 1911; .409, 1912; .401, 1922), tied for most in major league history...one of just two players (Hornsby) who played their entire career after 1900 to accomplish the feat.
- Chalmers Award-winner (AL MVP) in 1911 after batting a career-high .420.
- From 1907-20, won the league batting title in 12 out of 13 seasons.
- Drove in more than 100 runs seven times, mostly during the dead-ball era, and from 1907-11, led the league in RBI in four of the five years.
- Captured the 1909 Triple Crown, pacing both major leagues in batting average (.377), home runs (9) and RBI (107), en route to leading the Tigers to the last of his three World Series appearances.
- Led the Tigers to consecutive AL pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- Following a 22-year career as a Tiger, including six seasons (1921-26) as player-manager, played his final two seasons as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics.
- Did not wear a uniform number as they were not used by the Tigers until the 1930s.

MICKEY COCHRANE — C, 1934-37

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1947
Ht./Wt.: 5-10/180
Born: 4/6/03 in Bridgewater, MA
Full Name: Gordon Stanley Cochrane
Nickname: "Black Mike"
Died: 6/28/62 in Lake Forest, IL

One of the finest backstops the game has ever produced, Mickey Cochrane took over a fifth-place Tiger club as player-manager in 1934 and immediately led Detroit to back-to-back American League pennants and its first World Championship in 1935.

- Named the 1934 league MVP after leading the Tigers to their first AL pennant in 25 years.
- The following season, took the Tigers to their first-ever World Series title, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the ninth in Game 6 to defeat the Chicago Cubs at Tiger Stadium.
- Of that title-clinching game, Cochrane later said, "It was my greatest day in baseball."
- In May of 1937, after homering off the Yankees' Bump Hadley, Cochrane was beaned in the right temple by a Hadley fastball and remained unconscious for 10 days before finally pulling through...although he continued as Tiger manager for part of the following season, he never played again.
- Known as one of the best batsmen ever to play catcher, posting a lifetime .320 batting average and hitting better than .300 in a season nine times in his career.
- Acquired by the Tigers from the Philadelphia Athletics following the 1933 season in exchange for Johnny Pasek and $100,000 after taking part in three pennant-winners...helped the 1929 A's, regarded as one of the greatest teams in baseball history, to the World Series title.
- Also named AL MVP in 1928 with the Athletics...spent a total of nine seasons with the A's after coming up to the big leagues in 1925.
- Despite spending just four of his 13 major league seasons in a Detroit uniform, Cochrane entered the Hall of Fame in 1947 as a Tiger.
- Wore uniform No. 3 while playing for Detroit.

DETROIT TIGERS IN NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

SAM CRAWFORD — RF, 1903-17

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1957
Nickname: "Wahoo Sam"
Ht./Wt.: 6-0/190
Batted/Threw: L/L
Born: 4/18/1880 in Wahoo, NE
Died: 6/15/68 in Hollywood, CA
Full Name: Samuel Earl Crawford

Although he spent most of his career in the shadows of the great Ty Cobb, his teammate in the Tigers outfield for 13 seasons, "Wahoo Sam" Crawford carved his niche in baseball history as its most prolific triples hitter ever.

- Led the league in three-baggers six times, once in the National League with Cincinnati and five times in the American League with Detroit...five times he hit more than 20 triples in a season en route to his career record of 312.
- Is the all-time leader in triples, legging out 309 for his career.
- A lifetime .309 hitter known as one of the hardest hitters of the dead-ball era.
- Led the American League in RBI three times, runs scored once and doubles once.
- Finished his career just 39 hits short of 3,000.
- Batted .314 and led the league with 104 RBI and a career-high 26 triples in 1914 and finished runner-up to Philadelphia's Eddie Collins for the Chalmers Award (AL MVP).

STEARNES' STAR SHINES AT HALL OF FAME

Norman "Turkey" Stearnes, a standout slugger for the Detroit Stars of the Negro League, earned his spot in baseball history as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2000. Stearnes, a gifted outfielder and powerful hitter, played for the Stars from 1923-30 and 1937, and also played with several other Negro League teams. Legendary Negro League player Satchel Paige was quoted as saying that "Turkey Stearnes was one of the greatest hitters we ever had...he was as good as anybody ever played ball."

Following his successful career in baseball, Stearnes and his wife, Nettie, stayed in Detroit. Stearnes could almost always be found at Tigers home games before he passed away on September 4, 1979 at the age of 78. Nettie Stearnes and the Stearnes' family, friends and former teammates were tireless in their efforts to have Turkey's accomplishments rightfully recognized with the sport's highest honor. In 2000, Turkey Stearnes' legacy was finally given its due recognition with his induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame.

SPARKY'S LEGACY HONORED AT COOPERSTOWN

On June 23, 2000, former Tigers manager Sparky Anderson took his place amongst baseball's best as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Anderson was voted in during his first year of eligibility for the honor.

Anderson completed his managerial career after the 1995 season with a Tigers-record 1,331 victories. On the all-time victory list, Anderson's 2,194 total wins ranks third behind only Hall of Famers John McGraw and Connie Mack. His total record of 2,194-1,834, including nine seasons and two World Championships as manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was good enough for a .545 career winning percentage, which ranks 23rd all-time.

Only the fourth manager in baseball history to manage 4,000 games, Anderson is also the only manager to hold the career victory record for two different franchises, to record 100 victories in one season in both leagues, and manage teams from both leagues to a World Series title.

FOUR GRAND SLAMS IN A MONTH MATCH CLUB RECORD

Curtis Granderson, Carlos Guillen, Craig Monroe and Ivan Rodriguez all connected for a grand slam in April of 2007. The four in a month matched the club record established in June of 1968 when Mickey Stanley connected for one grand slam and Jim Northrup belted three grand slams.

Tigers teams have connected for three grand slams during a single month 13 times in franchise history.

LOWRY REMEMBERED WITH TIGERS MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Detroit Tigers family suffered a tragic loss during the 1997 season when Jamestown Jammers manager Dwight Lowry collapsed and died suddenly at his home in Jamestown, NY, on July 10.

Shortly after Lowry's death, the Tigers renamed their annual Player Development Man of the Year Award in his honor.

Lowry, who was 39 at the time of his death, had been tabbed the club's inaugural Player Development Man of the Year in 1996 after leading the Single A Fayetteville Generals to a second-half division title and a South Atlantic League post-season berth.

Lowry was in his fourth season as a manager in the Tigers minor league system, and he had also spent parts of four seasons as a player with Detroit, including the 1984 World Championship campaign. Lowry is survived by his wife Pamela and children Sesilie, Amanda and Zachary.

2007 TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE RECAP

The Tigers eight minor league affiliates, including the club's team in the Dominican Summer League and Venezuelan Summer League, combined to post an overall record of 454-380, a .544 winning percentage. Detroit was fifth among all 30 major league organizations with the .544 winning percentage.

- Four of the Tigers eight minor league affiliates advanced to their respective league playoffs. West Michigan captured the Midwest League's championship for the second straight season, while Toledo, Erie and Oneonta were all eliminated in the first round.
- Erie first baseman Jeff Larish and West Michigan lefthanded pitcher Duane Below were selected as the Tigers Minor League Player and Pitcher of the Year, respectively. Larish led the Eastern League with 28 home runs and 101 RBI, while he finished fourth with a .515 slugging percentage. Below topped all Midwest League pitchers with 160 strikeouts, while he tied for the lead with 13 wins and finished fourth with a 2.97 ERA.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE INSTRUCTORS

MIKE ROJAS

Field Coordinator

The 2008 season will mark Mike Rojas' fifth season in the Tigers organization, his first as the minor league field coordinator. He was slated to serve as the organization's minor league catching coordinator in 2007, but he assumed the managerial role at Triple A Toledo after Larry Parrish was sidelined all season following surgery. Rojas guided the Mud Hens to the International League playoffs as the club finished with an 82-61 record.

Rojas served as the manager of Single A Lakeland during the previous two seasons (2005-06), after spending the 2004 season as the manager at Single A Oneonta.

He was selected the Florida State League's manager of the year in 2005 after leading Lakeland to the league's best overall record and first-place finishes in both halves of the season. Additionally, Rojas was named the best managerial prospect in the league by Baseball America.

Rojas managed in the Cincinnati Reds organization during both the 1999 and 2000 seasons at Single A Rockford and Double A Chattanooga, respectively.

He served as a manager at Single A Auburn (1997) and Single A Quad City (1998) in the Houston Astros organization following four seasons (1992-95) as a manager in the Chicago White Sox organization. Rojas managed the Gulf Coast League White Sox for three seasons (1992-94) and Single A Hickory for one (1995).

Following four seasons as a minor league catcher with the Oakland A's (1983-84) and Toronto Blue Jays (1985-86), Rojas retired and joined St. Thomas University in Miami as an assistant coach in 1987. He served in that position until joining the White Sox organization in 1992.

Rojas is the son of former major league player and coach Cookie Rojas.

KEVIN BRADSHAW

Infield Coordinator

Kevin Bradshaw assumes the role of minor league infield coordinator in 2008 after spending the past 14 seasons as a manager in the Tigers system, including the 2007 season with Single A Lakeland.

Bradshaw managed the North Shore Honu in the Hawaii Winter League following the 2007 season, guiding the club to a 26-12 record and the league's championship.

He spent three seasons (2004-06) as the manager of the Gulf Coast League Tigers, leading the club to a North Division title in 2006. Prior to his three-year stint with the Gulf Coast League Tigers, he spent two seasons as the manager at Double A Erie (2002-03).

Named the 2000 Dwight Lowry Award winner as the Tigers Player Development Man of the Year, Bradshaw led the 2000 Gulf Coast League Tigers to a second-place finish in the Eastern Division with a record of 34-26. In 1999, he led Single A Oneonta to within a single game of the New York-Penn League playoffs in its first year as a Detroit affiliate.

Bradshaw has spent his entire baseball career with the Detroit organization, managing for 14 seasons, coaching for five seasons and playing four years as a Tigers farmhand. He began his coaching career in 1990 with the Double A London squad when the team went on to win the Eastern League title. During the next four seasons Bradshaw coached four different teams; Bristol in 1991, Toledo in 1992, Lakeland in 1993 and Trenton in 1994.

As a player, Bradshaw worked his way up to the Triple A level before a torn achilles tendon prompted him to retire. Prior to his retirement, he played four seasons in the minor leagues, compiling a .241 lifetime average.

TOBY HARRAH

Hitting Coordinator

Toby Harrah returns for his fifth season as the minor league hitting coordinator, a position he previously held with the Tigers organization for two seasons (1997-98).

In 2003, he served as a coach for the Fort Worth Cats, an independent league club in the Central League. Harrah was the Colorado Rockies bench coach under Buddy Bell for three seasons (2000-02) after spending the 1999 season as the Cincinnati Reds roving minor league hitting instructor.

Harrah joined the Tigers organization in 1997 after one season as the third base coach with the Cleveland Indians in 1996. He joined the staff in Detroit as the hitting coach on July 31, 1998, after Larry Herndon was dismissed.

He was named the International League's manager of the year in 1995 after leading Triple A Norfolk of the New York Mets organization to an 86-56 record.

Harrah spent eight seasons (1987-94) as a manager, coach and hitting instructor in the Texas Rangers organization following his retirement in 1986. Harrah managed Triple A Oklahoma City in 1987-88 before joining the Rangers major league coaching staff as the first base coach in 1989. After three seasons as the first base coach, Harrah was named the bench coach for the 1992 season. He served as the club's interim manager during the second half of the 1992 season following the firing of Bobby Valentine on July 9 and the club finished 32-44 during his tenure. Harrah spent his final two seasons in the Texas organization as a roving minor league hitting instructor.

A four-time all-star (1972, 1975-76, 1982) during his 17-year major league career, Harrah finished with a .264 batting average and 195 home runs. He saw action with the Washington Senators (1969, 1971), Rangers (1972-78, 85-86), Indians (1979-83) and New York Yankees (1984) during his career.

Harrah was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1988.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE INSTRUCTORS

JON MATLACK

Pitching Coordinator

The 2008 season marks Jon Matlack's 13th season as a coach in the Detroit organization, his 12th in his current role as the minor league pitching coordinator.

In 1996, he served as pitching coach for the Tigers, his first coaching assignment in the majors, before being reassigned late that season and named roving pitching instructor in 1997.

From 1988-95, Matlack served as a minor league pitching coach for the Chicago White Sox and San Diego Padres, spending 1995 with Triple A Las Vegas.

A lefthanded pitcher, Matlack enjoyed a 13-year major league career with the New York Mets and Texas Rangers. He was voted the National League Rookie of the Year in 1972 and was a three-time all-star selection (1974-76).

In 1973 with the Mets, he tied a NLCS record for fewest hits allowed in a game when he fired a two-hit shutout versus the Reds. In the 1973 World Series against Oakland, Matlack made three appearances with a 2.16 ERA.

BRIAN PETERSON

Performance Enhancement Instructor

Brian Peterson joined the Tigers organization as the performance enhancement instructor in 2003. The 2008 season marks Peterson's 27th season in professional baseball.

Prior to his appointment as the Tigers performance enhancement instructor, Peterson worked nine seasons in the Marlins organization from 1993-2001. During his tenure with the Marlins, he served as the pitching coach for Single A Kane County from 1993-97 and Double A Portland in 1998 before being named the performance enhancement instructor from 1999-2001.

His coaching career began with Kansas City's Double A affiliate in Memphis during the 1990-91 seasons as the club's pitching coach. In 1992, he was the pitching coach with Salt Lake, an independent team in the rookie Pioneer League.

Peterson has a master's degree in counseling psychology from the University of South Dakota.

GENE ROOF

Outfield/Baserunning Coordinator

Gene Roof begins his 23rd consecutive season in the Tigers organization in 2008. He will serve as the minor league outfield/baserunning coordinator, a role he returned to in 2001 after last holding the position early in the 1997 season.

In 2000, Roof managed Double A Jacksonville and led the Suns to the East Division title in the second half of the season. The Suns advanced to the Southern League Championship Series, narrowly being defeated by the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx. He managed Triple A Toledo from 1997-99 after he took over as the Mud Hens manager in June of 1997 when Glenn Ezell left the team to undergo heart surgery. Before taking over for Ezell, Roof had served as the minor league outfield/baserunning coordinator since 1996.

Prior to his appointment as the minor league outfield/baserunning coordinator, Roof spent four seasons from 1992-95 as Detroit's major league first base coach. His Tigers roots run even deeper as Roof spent one season as the manager for Double A London (1991) and two seasons at Single A Fayetteville (1989-90).

As a player, Roof enjoyed a brief major league career, playing in parts of three seasons for the St. Louis Cardinals (1981-83) and Montreal Expos (1983). He collected a base hit in his first major league plate appearance on September 5, 1981, off the Dodgers Jerry Reuss. Baseball is in the Roof family, as Gene is one of five brothers to play professional ball. His brother Phil played 15 years as a major league catcher.

Roof's eldest son, Shawn, signed with the Tigers after being selected in the 33rd of the 2007 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

MILLER, ZIELINSKI EARN MINOR LEAGUE AWARDS

In 1996, two longtime members of the Detroit Tigers organization were recognized nationally for their distinguished service to the game of baseball.

Audrey Zielinski, a veteran of more than 50 years with the Tigers Minor League Department, was named the Rawlings Woman Executive of the Year by the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (NAPBL).

Also in 1996, Dave Miller, a longtime member of the Tigers front office, was presented with the TOPPS Award for the long and meritorious service to the game of baseball.

LARRY PARRISH

Toledo Manager

After serving as a major league scout for the Tigers from 2000-02, Larry Parrish returned to the dugout as the manager at Triple A Toledo in 2003 and guided the Mud Hens to the International League's championship in both 2005 and 2006. He garnered league manager of the year honors in 2005, in addition to being named the minor league manager of the year by The Sporting News.

He was sidelined for the entire 2007 season after undergoing surgery on his left ankle. Mike Rojas replaced Parrish during the 2007 season, serving as the Mud Hens manager.

Parrish joined the Tigers coaching staff when the roster expanded during September in both 2003 and 2004 and managed the club during Alan Trammell's two-day absence to attend his mother's funeral in 2003. He led Detroit to wins in both games over the Kansas City Royals.

Served as Detroit's interim skipper in September of 1998, before being hired as the club's manager for the 1999 season. Originally joined the Tigers major league coaching staff as bench coach in 1997.

Parrish spent the first half of the 1994 and 1996 seasons, as well as all of 1995 as Detroit's minor league roving hitting instructor, interrupted by stints as manager at Toledo and Double A Jacksonville in the second half of the 1994 and 1996 seasons, respectively. He led Jacksonville to a division title in 1996, and ultimately the Southern League championship.

He joined the Tigers organization as the manager at Single A Niagara Falls in both 1992 and 1993, leading the Rapids to the New York-Penn League championship in 1993 after earning a berth in the post-season as the wild card winner.

A two-time all-star selection, he hit .263 with 256 home runs during a 15-year career with Montreal, Texas and Boston.

HOW THEY BECAME KNOWN AS "TIGERS"

Research reveals the nickname "Tigers" was first applied to the Detroit club in 1895. Baseball historians had long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. However, George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the nickname because he had his players wear black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

It appears, though, that it was actually an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press who originated the Tiger nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. Previously, the team had simply been called "Detroit," "the Detroits," sometimes the "Wolverines" and at times the "Creams."

On April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read, "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called the club the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, The Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895, careful research disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had ever used "Tigers."

SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

Joker Marchant Stadium and Tigertown
Spring Training Home of the Detroit Tigers

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2008 for their 72nd season in Lakeland and their 43rd at Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966. In January 2001, the Tigers agreed to extend their relationship with Lakeland for 16 additional years.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000 and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects beginning in the early 1970s brought the capacity to 7,100 and the recently completed renovation project upped the capacity to 9,000. Previous renovations have included the addition of lights that allowed the first night game to be played in Lakeland in 1972 and a food and picnic court that was added in 1994 to increase the fan appeal of Joker Marchant Stadium. The recent $11 million renovation project has transformed the park into a state of the art facility that will feature luxury suites, a second tier concourse level, new seating areas, an outfield seating berm, as well as brand new individual seats with cupholders and improved seating for handicapped fans. The improvements continued to the exterior of the park with the extensive use of Mediterranean style architecture. The press box has been improved and expanded, a new practice field has been added, as well as four new indoor batting cages.

TIGERS SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

Adjacent to the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is Tigertown, the Tigers minor league training site since 1953. A three-story dormitory provides housing for 190 players and coaches. It was dedicated in 1971 and named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. A new administration building, cafeteria and recreation center were constructed in 1993 to complete the Tigertown renovation.

Several changes were also made to the clubhouse building at Marchant Stadium during the 1997-98 off-season. Three executive offices and a large suite were added to the complex as well as offices for both the home and visiting managers. The locker room and laundry areas were also expanded at that time.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and city of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a major league baseball team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers all-time record at Marchant Stadium is 327-267-14 and 2,720,565 fans have paid to see Tigers Grapefruit League games since the park opened.

COMERICA PARK INFORMATION

COMERICA PARK
HOME OF THE DETROIT TIGERS

Comerica Park is home to the Detroit Tigers, a charter member of the American League and one of the most storied franchises in the history of Major League Baseball. The opening of the park on April 11, 2000 ushered in a new era of baseball in Detroit that features a multi-faceted fan experience in one of the premier venues in professional sports. Comerica Park was designed with fans in mind and provides a one-of-a-kind experience for fans of all ages.

AN URBAN VILLAGE

Comerica Park is rooted at the center of an urban village that includes shops, restaurants, offices, the neighboring Ford Field, Fox Theatre and other attractions. Buildings of varying sizes and heights make up this village of outbuildings which houses many of the service facilities surrounding the park. Roughly 70,000 square feet of retail space is included and another 36,000 square feet is dedicated to Tigers offices. The result blends into the surrounding street life of Foxtown. With no upper deck outfield seats, Comerica Park provides a beautiful view of the Detroit skyline which is highlighted by the Renaissance Center, Detroit Athletic Club and many Detroit landmarks.

THE CONCOURSES

The concourses are among the most generous of any facility. The minimum width of the main concourse is 40 feet, with wider concourses in many areas. The upper concourse is approximately 34 feet wide. The general standard for concourses in existing ballparks is 32 feet in width. Concourses at old Tiger Stadium were between 17 and 27 feet on the lower level, 11 feet behind the last row of the lower deck and 11 feet in the upper level.

THE SCOREBOARD

Comerica Park features a massive scoreboard that helps keep fans informed and entertained throughout every Tigers game. The face of the structure, in fact, is equivalent to the size of the face of the Fox Theatre Office Building facing Woodward Avenue (180' wide). The structure includes one video screen (42'x24'), one large black and white matrix board with the line score (64'x34'), and a color matrix board (42'x24').

Prior to the 2007 season, the Tigers added digital signage to enhance the fan experience at Comerica Park. The digital signage included an upgraded out-of-town scoreboard in right field and over 900 feet of animated fascia signage. The fascia signage can be used for advertising and is also utilized to provide information throughout the game.

COMERICA PARK

THE WALK OF FAME

Touring the main concourse, fans are taken through time on a tour of baseball and lifestyle history. The concourse is divided into a chronology of Tigers history. Decade monuments covering two decades each are placed throughout the concourse, towering from floor to ceiling and featuring artifacts from appropriate eras.

CONCESSIONS FACILITIES AND FOOD COURT

Typical ballparks have a point of sale (register) for every 200 fans; Comerica Park abbreviates the wait with one point of sale for every 125 fans. Among the many tantalizing food options are the "Brushfire Grill" barbecue area behind third base and the Big Cat Court food area behind first base, with a wide range of snacks, sandwiches, frozen treats and other great munchies.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT

In the middle of the food court, a merry-go-round is available for the young and young-at-heart, with patrons riding atop tigers instead of horses. Behind the Brushfire Gill stands a baseball-themed ferris wheel. The stunning General Motors fountain above center field synchronizes music and light to spraying fountains of water.

SEATING LEVELS AND CAPACITIES

There are approximately 23,000 seats in the lower bowl of Comerica Park and 2,000 in the two suite levels. There are roughly 11,000 in the main upper deck. From just past first base to the right-field foul line there is a section with 4,000 seats that does not have a suite level. The upper deck in this level is approximately 15 feet lower and closer to the field than the main upper deck.

PREMIUM SEATING AREAS

Comerica Park features four premium seating areas. Located at the upper rows of the lower bowl, the Tiger Den resembles the fashionable boxes at old-time sporting venues with movable chairs. A private lounge is available for patrons. The first five rows of the upper bowl have been designated as club seats, and patrons have access to the Club Lounge. Another premium seating area is located in the lowest rows of the lower bowl, called On-Deck Circle seats. Additionally, there are two levels of suites, which includes several party suites that are available for individual game rental.

The Tiger Club, open on a membership basis, features approximately 20,000 square feet of entertaining space. There is seating for 300 overlooking the playing field in right field, a bar for 200, a cigar bar and banquet facility.

THE CHEVROLET CHAMPIONS CLUB

The Chevrolet Champions Club, open on a membership basis, combines the perks of luxury seating with an open and relaxed lounge atmosphere. The Champions Club opened in 2006 and is located on the suite level down the left field line.

GATED ENTRANCES

There are three main gated entrances to Comerica Park, each featuring attractions on a grand scale. Among the features are immense 80-foot high baseball bats framing the gates, tiger sculptures and Pewabic tile accents.

SPECIAL NEEDS ACCESS

Comerica Park complies with all guidelines of the ADA. In completing the facility, the Tigers worked extensively with organizations including The Paralyzed Veterans of America's Michigan Chapter and the Michigan Commission for the Blind to ensure accessibility for all fans and a great baseball experience for guests who enter Comerica Park.

COMERICA PARK STATUES

Comerica Park features larger-than-life sculptures of six Tigers legends that overlook the field from the left field concourse. The sculptures feature Ty Cobb, Charlie Gehringer, Hank Greenberg, Willie Horton, Al Kaline and Hal Newhouser. They were designed by renowned sculptor Omri Amrany and were cast in stainless steel.

FANTASTIC FIREWORKS

Not only is Comerica Park known for explosive action on the field, but also explosive action in the skies above. Beginning shortly after the park opened in 2000, fantastic fireworks displays have been held on select weekends throughout the season, adding unrivaled value and fun to an already exciting product.

THE TEAM

The design team of HOK Sport and the Detroit-based Smith, Hinchman and Grylls served as architects for Comerica Park, while Huber, Hunt & Nichols, Inc., Turner Construction Company and White Construction Company joined forces to form Hunt-Turner-White as construction management team. Private financing accounts for more than 60 percent of Comerica Park, with partners including the Tigers and a bank syndicate led by Sumitomo Bank, Limited. Societe General, First Chicago NBD, Provident Bank of Maryland, First of America Bank, Standard Federal Bank and Michigan National Bank. Public financing participants include the Michigan Strategic Fund (infrastructure), City of Detroit Downtown Development Authority and Wayne County.

COMERICA PARK

MOMENTS IN COMERICA PARK HISTORY

Comerica Park is entering its ninth season as the home of the Detroit Tigers. Despite such a short history, Comerica Park has seen many exciting moments that are part of the fabric of Detroit baseball history.

MIDSUMMER CLASSIC RETURNS TO MOTOWN

The first marquee Major League Baseball event to take place at Comerica Park was the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. It marked the fourth all-star game in Detroit and the first since 1971. The American League defeated the National League 7-5 behind home runs from Mark Teixeira and Miguel Tejada. In the home run derby, Bobby Abreu set a major league record by belting 24 home runs in the first round and 41 home runs over the course of the contest.

PLAYOFF BASEBALL COMES TO COMERICA PARK

After clinching the American League Wild Card during the regular season and opening the 2006 playoffs at Yankee Stadium, the first playoff game in the history of Comerica Park was played on October 6, 2006 at Comerica Park. The Tigers defeated the Yankees 6-0 and went on to win five of the six games held at Comerica Park during the 2006 playoffs.

MAGGLIO ORDONEZ BELTS HISTORIC HOME RUN TO SEND TIGERS TO THE FALL CLASSIC

Tigers right fielder Magglio Ordonez stepped to the plate in the bottom of the ninth inning with the score tied at three in Game Four of the 2006 American League Championship Series. He belted a Huston Street delivery into the Detroit sky for a game-ending three-run home run that propelled the Tigers to the club's first World Series berth since 1984.

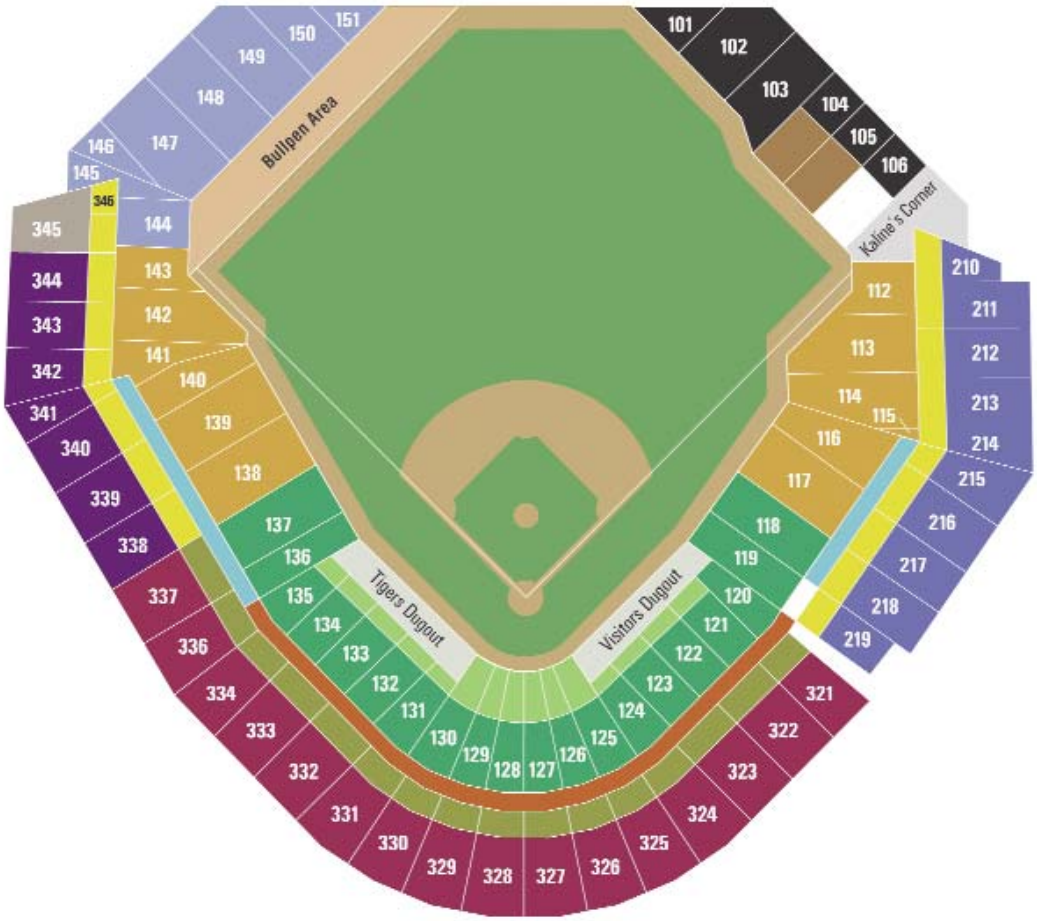

WORLD SERIES BASEBALL AT COMERICA PARK

The Tigers hosted the St. Louis Cardinals in Game One of the 2006 World Series on October 21, 2006. The Tigers lost Game One 7-2, but bounced back to defeat the Cardinals 3-1 in Game Two to record the first World Series victory in Comerica Park history.

VERLANDER FIRES SIXTH NO-HITTER IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

Justin Verlander fired the sixth no-hitter in franchise history on June 12, 2007 in a 4-0 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the first no-hitter at Comerica Park and the first no-hitter by a Tigers pitcher in Detroit since Virgil Trucks on May 15, 1952 at Briggs Stadium.

TIGERS IN THE COMMUNITY

Detroit Tigers in the Community

The Detroit Tigers organization, its owners, management, players and coaches are committed to providing a caring, enduring presence in our community and believe in the need to invest in our community's future. Through the Detroit Tigers Foundation and our community affairs initiatives, the club supports thousands of deserving individuals and organizations in the greater Detroit area with a focus on youth, education and recreation.

DETROIT TIGERS FOUNDATION
Established in 2005, the Detroit Tigers Foundation is a division of Ilitch Charities, a 501(c)(3) public charity. The mission of the Foundation is to enhance lives through the game of baseball. In 2007, the Foundation awarded more than $185,000 in grants and mini-grants while investing $215,000 in scholarship endowments, totaling over $400,000 in cash giving. In addition, the Foundation awarded over $1 million worth of Tigers tickets to charitable organizations that could not have otherwise afforded to see the Tigers play at Comerica Park. For more information on the Foundation and the club's charitable activities visit www.detroittigersfoundation.com.

AUTOGRAPHED MEMORABILIA DONATIONS
Each year, nearly 2,000 charitable organizations benefit from in-kind donations from the Tigers including autographed memorabilia, unique experience packages and luxury game suites.

WILLIE HORTON SCHOLARSHIP
The Tigers established the Willie Horton Scholarship in 2001, in honor of Willie Horton's accomplishments and contributions to the greater Detroit community. This scholarship, funded by the Detroit Tigers Foundation, is awarded annually to a graduating senior from Northwestern High School in Detroit, Horton's alma mater.

TIGERS IN THE COMMUNITY

ORDONEZ FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP
Created by Tigers outfielder Magglio Ordonez and his wife Dagly, the Ordonez Family Scholarship awards an annual scholarship to a student from Southwest Detroit. Established in 2008, the Ordonez Family Scholarship is awarded to a graduating senior who shows strong community leadership and academic achievement.

GLOVES FOR KIDS
As financial hardships cause a shortage of baseball equipment, youth baseball in Detroit suffers. Together with CBS Radio partners, the Tigers called upon our community to donate gently-used equipment to support six inner-city baseball programs from Southwest Detroit. In 2007, the Gloves for Kids program collected over 1,000 pieces of equipment that benefited over 400 young ball players.

TIGERTOWN
Detroit became "TigerTown" last summer, as over 80 four-foot tall tiger sculptures were displayed in the streets of metro Detroit. Local artists decorated the sculptures for the TigerTown fundraiser, hosted by the Detroit Tigers Foundation and the Children's Charities Coalition.

EDUCATION AND SAFETY
The Detroit Tigers are proud to maintain a wide variety of programs focused on education and safety including Safety Patrol Day, Perfect Attendance Day, Gang Resistance Education and Training Day (G.R.E.A.T.) and the Jackie Robinson Memorial Art, Essay and Poetry Contest. Safety Patrol Day, a program in existence for nearly 50 years, awards Tigers tickets to students for their service to their classmates, while Perfect Attendance Day awards Tigers tickets to area middle school students with perfect attendance during a school semester. The G.R.E.A.T. program rewards students in the spring for setting goals and understanding how gangs and youth violence negatively impact their lives. In the Jackie Robinson Memorial Essay, Art and Poetry Contest middle school students are invited to create original poems, essays and works of art to honor the athlete who broke the barrier of segregation in baseball, and a social activist who fought for equal opportunities beyond the playing field.

TIGERS IN THE COMMUNITY

PLAYER PARTICIPATION

The Player Participation program is the cornerstone of the Tigers community work. Every season, dozens of area organizations benefit from the dedication and caring of Tigers players and coaches. The work includes reading with students, visiting youth groups, conducting baseball clinics, visiting hospitals, serving as chairmen or spokesmen, appearing in public service announcements and much more.

BATTING FOR KIDS

The Detroit Tigers organization hosts an annual event known as Willie Horton's Batting for Kids in which over 350 children ages six through sixteen participate in a baseball skills competition promoting the enrichment of inner-city youth and recreational sports. The event, sponsored in part by the Detroit Tigers Foundation, benefits Don Bosco Hall, a human services agency founded in 1954 to respond to the needs of children and families within the metropolitan Detroit area. The skills competitions include baserunning, throwing accuracy and hitting. Following the event, winners are recognized in an on-field ceremony with Willie Horton prior to a Tigers game.

TIGERS WINTER CARAVAN

The goal of the Winter Caravan is to personally connect Detroit Tigers players, coaches, broadcasters and front office staff members to our fans while supporting community events and charitable causes during a two-day bus tour. The Caravan provides an opportunity for Tigers media partners and broadcast outlets to promote Tigers baseball and the team's commitment to its community. Whether spending time at a children's hospital, elementary school, fan festival, or banquet, the caravan embodies the magic of Tigers baseball, connecting Tigers fans with their baseball heroes during the cold Michigan winter.

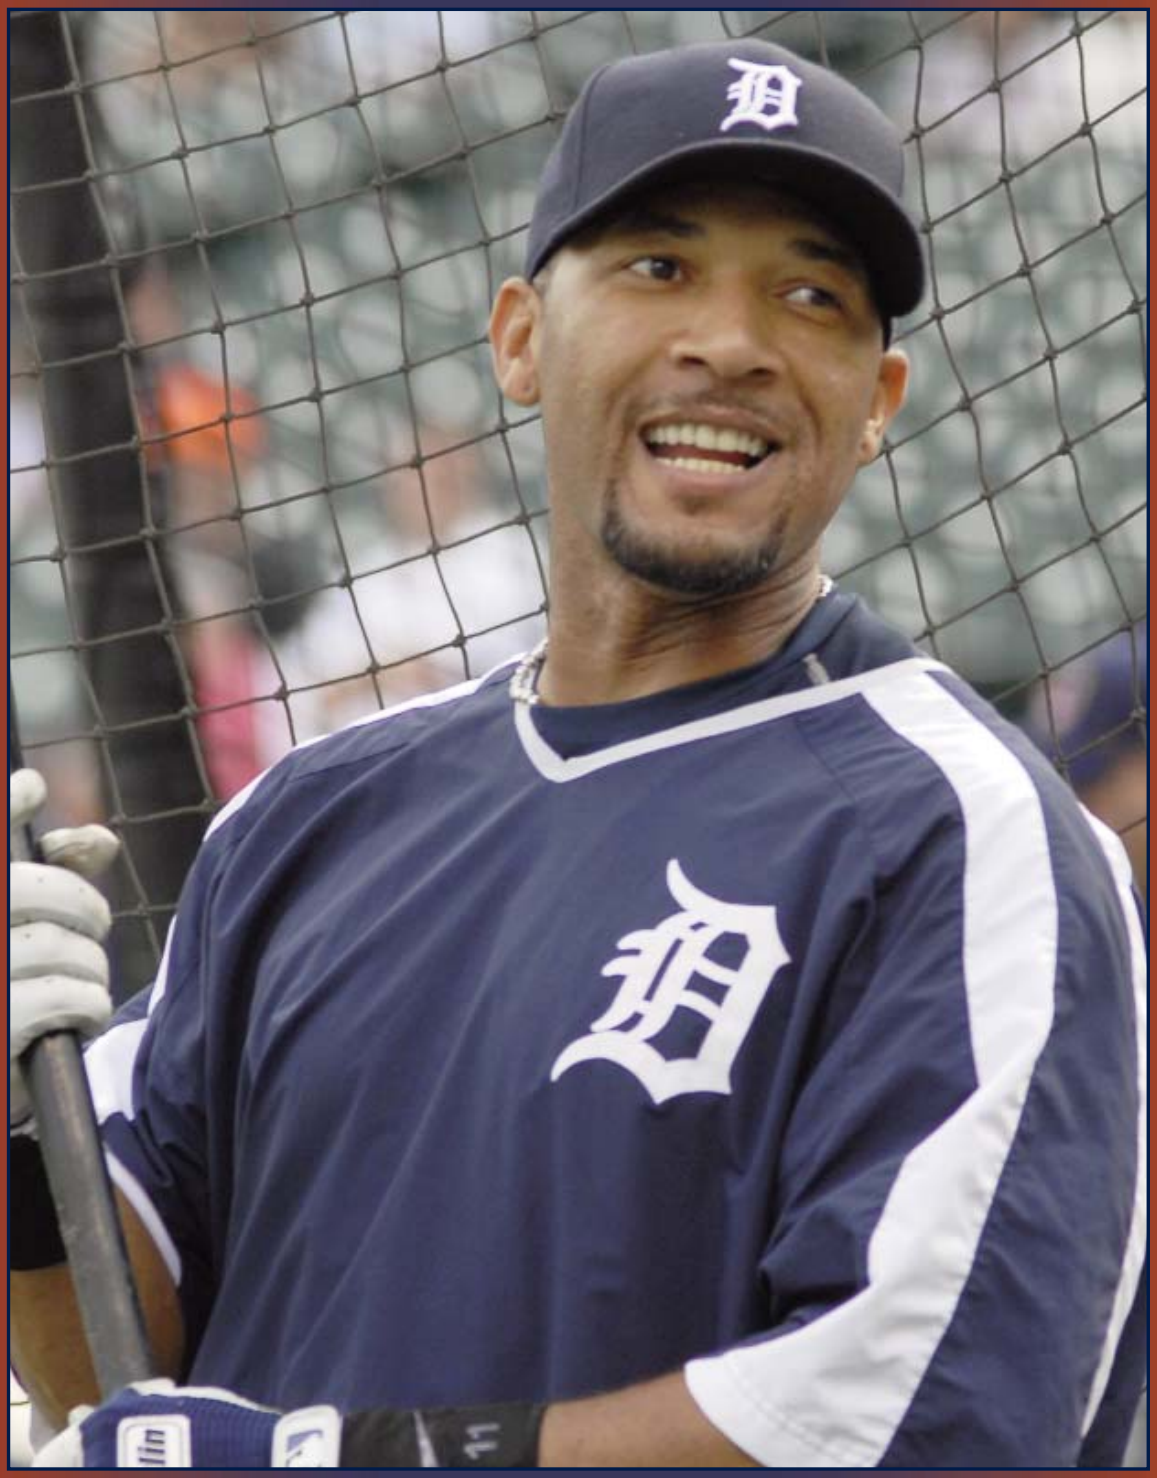

DREAMS COME TRUE

Throughout the season, the Tigers grant the wishes of Tigers fans of all ages with special needs or serious illness. Individuals and groups are invited to view batting practice on the field and meet Tigers players and coaches.

TIGERS WIVES

The Tigers Wives aren't afraid to roll up their sleeves and make a real difference in our community. From participating in the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure to serving ice cream as celebrity scoopers, the Tigers Wives enjoy supporting the community that cheers for their husbands. In 2007, in addition to hosting a party for more than 80 children from the American Cancer Society, the Wives also helped collect school supplies and jeans through Operation School Bell and raised nearly $4,000 for the Detroit Tigers Foundation in the first annual My Favorite Things on-line auction.
