2012 AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

The Detroit Tigers made history in 2012, posting an 88-74 record to claim the American League Central Division title for the second consecutive season, marking the first time in franchise history that the club has won back-to-back division titles. It also marked the first time the Tigers made it to the post-season in consecutive seasons since back-to-back World Series berths in 1934 and 1935.

The division title was hard fought with the Tigers trailing by as many as six games at various points throughout the season. The club was three games back on September 18, but posted an 11-5 record over the final 16 games of the season to finish with a three-game lead over the Chicago White Sox.

The post-season began with an American League Division Series matchup against the Oakland Athletics. The Tigers won the first two games at Comerica Park behind brilliant pitching from both Justin Verlander and Doug Fister. The Athletics won the next two in Oakland, setting up a decisive Game Five matchup with Verlander on the mound for the Tigers. Verlander authored a signature performance in Game Five, limiting the Athletics to four hits and striking out 11 in a brilliant shutout that sent the Tigers to the American League Championship Series for the second consecutive season.

The Tigers faced the New York Yankees in the American League Championship Series in a rematch of the 2011 American League Division Series. This time the Tigers would take the series in a sweep, never trailing at any point during the four-game set. The sweep gave the Tigers a berth in the World Series for the 11th time in club history.

The Tigers matched up with the San Francisco Giants in the World Series. The Giants won all four games of the series, completing the sweep as the Tigers struggled to generate any offense against San Francisco pitching.

Manager Jim Leyland was at the helm for the Tigers for the seventh consecutive season, guiding the team to the playoffs for the third time in his career. He became just the second manager in franchise history to lead the team to the post-season on three occasions, joining Hughie Jennings, who guided the club to the World Series in three straight seasons from 1907-09. He also recorded his 600th victory with the Tigers during the season, becoming the third manager in franchise history to record 600 wins, joining Sparky Anderson and Hughie Jennings.

Miguel Cabrera was the driving force behind the Tigers offense, compiling one of the greatest seasons in major league history en route to winning the Triple Crown and the American League Most Valuable Player award. Cabrera batted .330 with 44 home runs and 139 RBI to lead the league in all three categories. The batting title marked the second consecutive season Cabrera has topped the American League in hitting, becoming the first Tigers player to win back-to-back batting titles since Ty Cobb did so in three consecutive seasons from 1917-19. In addition to leading the league in batting average, home runs and RBI, he also led the league with 377 total bases, 84 extra-base hits and a .606 slugging percentage, while he finished second with 109 runs scored and 205 hits and fourth with a .393 on-base percentage.

Cabrera was flanked in the Tigers offense by first baseman Prince Fielder, who batted .313 with 30 home runs and 108 RBI in his first season with the Tigers. Fielder finished the season second in the American League with a .412 on-base percentage, while he finished fifth with 108 RBI, sixth with 85 walks, tied for sixth with a .313 batting average, finished seventh with a .528 slugging percentage, tied for ninth with 182 hits and finished 10th with 307 total bases. He was exceptionally durable for the Tigers, playing in all 162 games and extending his consecutive games played streak to 343 games dating back to the 2010 season, marking the longest active streak in the major leagues.

Center fielder Austin Jackson provided the spark at the top of the Tigers lineup, establishing career highs with a .300 batting average, 16 home runs and 66 RBI. Jackson topped the American League with 10 triples, while he tied for fifth with 103 runs scored and tied for eighth with a .377 on-base percentage.

Justin Verlander was again the leader of the Tigers pitching staff, posting a 17-8 record, 2.64 ERA and 239 strikeouts. He topped the American League with 238.1 innings pitched, 239 strikeouts and six complete games, while he finished second with a 2.64 ERA, .217 batting average against, 7.25 hits per nine innings and 3.98 strikeouts per walk, tied for third with 9.0 strikeouts per nine innings and tied for fourth with 17 wins. Verlander nearly won his second consecutive American League Cy Young Award for his efforts, finishing a close second to Tampa Bay Rays lefthander David Price. Verlander continued his dominance in the post-season with a 3-1 record, 2.22 ERA and 29 strikeouts in four starts.

Fellow starter Max Scherzer compiled the finest season of his career, posting a 16-7 record, 3.74 ERA and 231 strikeouts in 32 starts. He led the American League with 11.1 strikeouts per nine innings, while he finished second with 231 strikeouts and tied for sixth with 16 wins.

Doug Fister was a key to the Tigers starting rotation, rebounding from two stints on the disabled list to post an 8-4 record and 2.67 ERA in 15 starts following the all-star break.

Much like Fister in 2011, Anibal Sanchez was a key acquisition that helped propel the Tigers into the post-season. Acquired by the Tigers from the Miami Marlins prior to the trading deadline, Sanchez posted a 3-3 record, 2.15 ERA and 44 strikeouts over his final eight starts with the Tigers. He also posted a 1.77 ERA and 18 strikeouts over 20.1 innings pitched during three starts in his first career post-season action.

MIGUEL CABRERA WINS FIRST TRIPLE CROWN IN BASEBALL SINCE 1967

The Triple Crown is one of the most hallowed achievements in all of baseball. It embodies the combination of skills that only the elite hitters in baseball history have possessed; the ability to hit for average, hit for power and maintain consistent production over the course of an entire season. Miguel Cabrera is one of those elite hitters and in 2012 he etched his name into the record books by leading the American League with a .330 batting average, 44 home runs and 139 RBI to become the first Triple Crown winner in baseball since 1967.

His Triple Crown marked the 14th time since 1900 a player has accomplished the feat and Cabrera is the 12th player to win the Triple Crown during that time. The previous 11 players to win the Triple Crown since 1900 have all been inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, four finished their career with more than 500 home runs and three finished with more than 3,000 hits. The list of Tigers players to accomplish the feat is even shorter as Cabrera is just the second player in franchise history to win the Triple Crown, joining Ty Cobb, who did so in 1909.

The accolades continued for Cabrera following the completion of his Triple Crown quest. He virtually swept the awards circuit, including being named the American League Most Valuable Player by the Baseball Writers Association of America. He became the first Tigers position player to win the Most Valuable Player since Hank Greenberg did so in 1940. Cabrera is the fourth position player in franchise history to win the award, joining Greenberg, Charlie Gehringer and Mickey Cochrane. Cabrera joined Justin Verlander, who won the award in 2011, to mark the first time the Tigers have featured Most Valuable Player winners in consecutive seasons since Hal Newhouser won the award in both 1944 and 1945.

In addition to his Most Valuable Player honor, Cabrera also earned 2012 Player of the Year and American League Outstanding Player in voting by his peers in the Players Choice Awards. He was named the 2012 MLB Player of the Year by The Sporting News, while also bringing home the Hank Aaron Award as the American League's top hitter and a Silver Slugger Award as the top offensive third baseman in the American League.

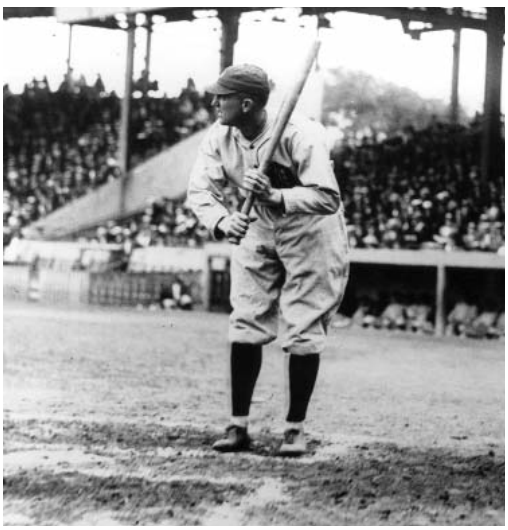

All of the hardware was well deserved after a season that produced a combination of numbers not seen in baseball in many decades. In addition to leading the league in batting average, home runs and RBI, he also led the league with 377 total bases, 84 extra-base hits and a .606 slugging percentage, while he finished second with 109 runs scored and 205 hits, fourth with a .393 on-base percentage and seventh with 40 doubles. Cabrera is the first player in baseball to hit at least .330 with 205-or-more hits, 40-or-more doubles, 44-or-more home runs and 139-or-more RBI since Joe Dimaggio did so for the New York Yankees in 1937. It was just the eighth time in history a player had reached all of those plateaus in the same season as Cabrera joined Dimaggio, Lou Gehrig, Jimmie Foxx and Hack Wilson as the only players to accomplish the feat.

Nap Lajoie Becomes the First AL Triple Crown Winner in 1901

Nap Lajoie was a dominant offensive force with the Philadelphia Athletics in the inaugural season of the American League in 1901. He led the league with an American League record .422 batting average, 14 home runs and 125 RBI to become the first modern day Triple Crown winner. He also led the league with 145 runs scored, 48 doubles, a .459 on-base percentage and .639 slugging percentage.

Lajoie won the Triple Crown in his first season with the Philadelphia Athletics and would leave the club early the next season to sign with the Cleveland Bronchos, the team that would eventually become the Cleveland Indians. He nearly claimed a second Triple Crown while playing for Cleveland in 1904 as he topped the league with a .376 batting average and 102 RBI, but finished 10th with five home runs. He would win another batting title in 1910, but never led in either home runs or RBI after the 1904 season.

Ty Cobb Becomes First Tigers Triple Crown Winner in 1909

Ty Cobb was just 22 years old and in his third full season at the major league level when he broke through to win the Triple Crown in 1909. He had won the batting title each of the previous two seasons, but established new career highs with a .377 batting average and nine home runs to lead the league in 1909, while also leading the league with 107 RBI.

In addition to leading the league in all three Triple Crown categories, Cobb also topped the league with 116 runs scored, 216 hits, 76 stolen bases, a .431 on-base percentage and .517 slugging percentage.

Cobb threatened to win the Triple Crown three other times in his career, topping the American League in batting average and RBI in 1907, 1908 and 1911. He narrowly missed winning the Triple Crown in both 1907 and 1911 as he finished second in the league in home runs, while he finished sixth in home runs in 1908.

Rogers Hornsby Wins NL Triple Crown in 1922 and 1925

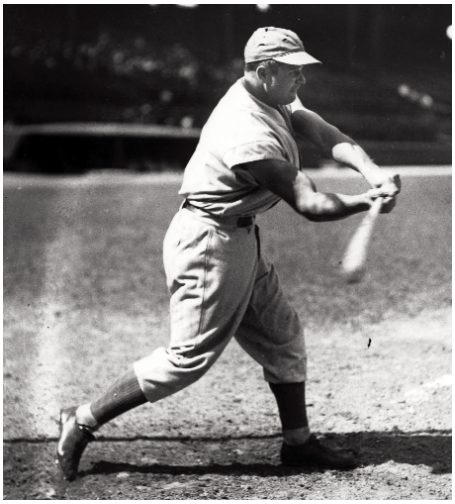

St. Louis Cardinals second baseman Rogers Hornsby was already one of the top hitters in the majors in 1922 when he won the first modern day Triple Crown in the National League. The 1922 season marked the first time Hornsby topped the .400 mark, finishing the season with a .401 batting average to lead the National League, while also leading with 42 home runs and 152 RBI to claim the Triple Crown.

In addition to leading in the three Triple Crown categories, Hornsby topped all National League players with 141 runs scored, 250 hits, 46 doubles, a .459 on-base percentage, .722 slugging percentage and 450 total bases.

Hornsby would repeat the feat in 1925 to become the first player in history to win multiple Triple Crowns. He led the National League with a .403 batting average in 1925, while also leading the league with 39 home runs and 143 RBI. He also led the league with a .489 on-base percentage, .756 slugging percentage and 381 total bases. He won the newly-created Most Valuable Player award for his efforts, becoming the second player in the National League to receive the award.

Hornsby had multiple close calls prior to winning his first Triple Crown and nearly won it in three consecutive seasons. He topped the National League in both batting average and RBI in 1920 and 1921, finishing sixth in home runs in 1920 and second in 1921 before breaking through to win his first Triple Crown the following season.

Jimmie Foxx Clubs 48 Home Runs to Win the Triple Crown in 1933

Jimmie Foxx, the burly slugger known as Double X, compiled huge numbers during the 1933 season to win the Triple Crown as a first baseman with the Philadelphia Athletics. Foxx batted .356 to lead the American League, while also leading the league with 48 home runs and 163 RBI to earn his second consecutive Most Valuable Player award.

The 1933 Triple Crown was almost the second of his career as he nearly accomplished the feat in 1932. Foxx led the American League in 1932 with 58 home runs and 169 RBI, but finished second in the league with a .364 batting average. Foxx missed out on the batting title that season by three points, trailing the .367 mark by former Tigers slugger Dale Alexander. He made a later bid for a second Triple Crown with the Boston Red Sox in 1938. He led the league that year with a .349 batting average and 175 RBI, but finished second with 50 home runs.

Chuck Klein Joins Foxx and Wins NL Triple Crown in 1933

Philadelphia Phillies outfielder Chuck Klein batted .368 with 28 home runs and 120 RBI to lead the National League in all three categories and win the Triple Crown in 1933. He joined Jimmie Foxx from the Philadelphia Athletics in winning the award in 1933, marking the only time in history that both leagues featured Triple Crown winners in the same season and even more noteworthy that one city featured both winners.

In addition to leading the league in the Triple Crown tallies, he also led the league with 223 hits, 44 doubles, a .422 on-base percentage, .602 slugging percentage and 365 total bases. In spite of his Triple Crown, Klein would fall short of his second consecutive Most Valuable Player award, finishing second to New York Giants hurler Carl Hubbell.

Klein flirted with a Triple Crown two seasons before in 1931 as he led the league with 31 home runs and 121 RBI, but finished fourth with a .337 batting average. He never again led the league in any of the Triple Crown categories after accomplishing the feat in 1933.

Lou Gehrig Wins AL Triple Crown in 1934

After a 25-season drought between the previous two Triple Crown winners, the American League posted consecutive winners for the first time in history when first baseman Lou Gehrig of the New York Yankees followed Foxx and accomplished the feat in 1934. Gehrig batted .363 with 49 home runs and 165 RBI to lead the league in all three categories and win the only Triple Crown of his career.

In addition to leading the league in batting average, home runs and RBI, Gehrig also led the league with 154 games played, a .465 on-base percentage, .706 slugging percentage and 409 total bases. In spite of the Triple Crown and his prodigious numbers, Gehrig finished fifth in the Most Valuable Player voting. He trailed three Tigers players in the voting, catcher Mickey Cochrane, who won the award, second baseman Charlie Gehringer, who was second, and pitcher Schoolboy Rowe, who was fourth.

Gehrig posted two other seasons that nearly resulted in a Triple Crown. He led the American League with 174 RBI in 1930, but finished second with a .379 batting average and 41 home runs. He topped the American League with 46 home runs and 184 RBI the next season in 1931, but finished fifth in the league with a .341 batting average.

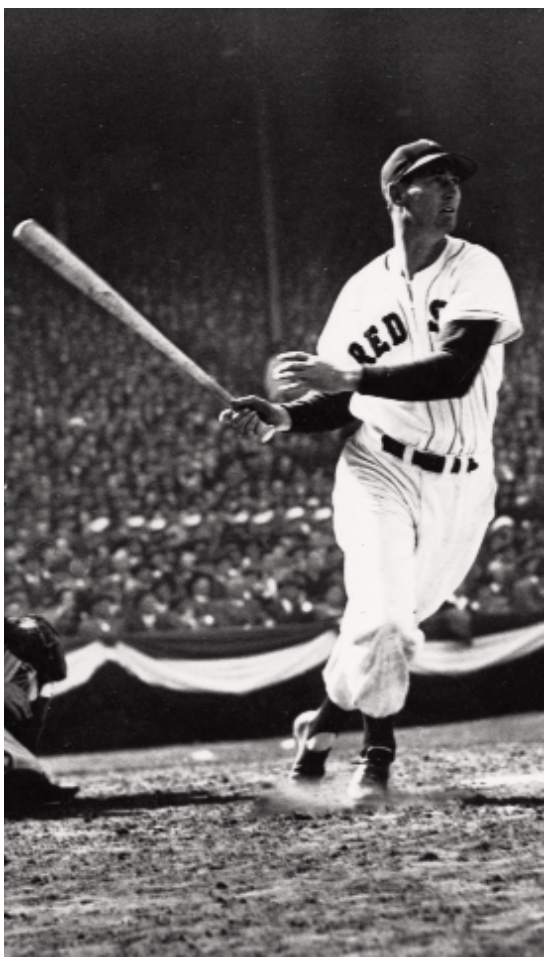

Joe Medwick Becomes Third National League Triple Crown Winner in 1937

St. Louis Cardinals outfielder Joe Medwick became the third player in National League history and the second player in franchise history to win the Triple Crown in 1937. Medwick led the National League with a .374 batting average, 31 home runs and 154 RBI to earn the Triple Crown.

He also led the National League with 156 games played, 111 runs scored, 237 hits, 56 doubles, a .641 slugging percentage and 406 total bases. His efforts were rewarded with National League Most Valuable Player honors, winning a close vote that saw him edge Chicago Cubs catcher Gabby Hartnett by just two points.

Medwick led the National League in RBI for three consecutive seasons from 1936-38, but never led the league in more than one of the Triple Crown categories aside from his 1937 season.

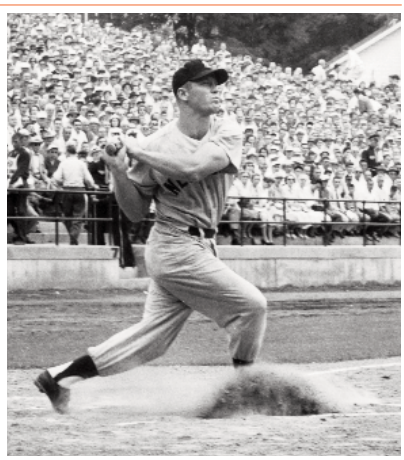

Ted Williams Wins Triple Crowns in Both 1942 and 1947

Legendary Boston Red Sox outfielder Ted Williams is regarded as one of the greatest hitters in baseball history and by winning the Triple Crown in both 1942 and 1947 he joined Rogers Hornsby as the only pair of hitters in major league history to win multiple Triple Crowns.

Williams batted .356 with 36 home runs and 137 RBI in 1942 to lead the American League in all three categories and win the first Triple Crown of his career. He also led the league with 141 runs scored, 145 walks, a .499 on-base percentage, .648 slugging percentage and 338 total bases. In spite of his tremendous season, Williams would finish second in American League Most Valuable Player voting, trailing New York Yankees second baseman Joe Gordon. Williams missed the next three seasons serving in the military during World War II. He returned to play in the 1946 season and posted his second career Triple Crown the very next season. Williams batted .343 with 32 home runs and 114 RBI in 1947 to lead the league in all three categories. He also led the league with 125 runs scored, 162 walks, a .499 on-base percentage, .634 slugging percentage and 335 total bases. He would again finish second in American League Most Valuable Player voting, this time finishing second to Yankees outfielder Joe Dimaggio.

Williams had three near-misses in addition to his two Triple Crowns, leading the league in batting average and home runs in 1941, but finishing fourth in RBI. He finished second in all three Triple Crown categories in 1946. He led the league in home runs and RBI in 1949, but finished second in batting average.

Mickey Mantle Wins AL Triple Crown in 1956

Mickey Mantle was a 24-year-old superstar outfielder for the New York Yankees when he won his only career Triple Crown in 1956. He was coming off a season where he had led the American League with 37 home runs, marking the first time he had led the league in any of the Triple Crown categories. He followed up by leading the league with a .353 batting average, 52 home runs and 130 RBI to win the Triple Crown. In addition to leading the league in batting average, home runs and RBI, Mantle also topped the league with 132 runs scored, a .705 slugging percentage and 376 total bases. He was rewarded with the first of two consecutive American League Most Valuable Player awards, receiving all 24 first place votes in a lopsided decision.

Mantle would lead the league in home runs twice more in his career, but 1956 marked his only career batting title and RBI title.

TRIPLE CROWN HISTORY

Frank Robinson Wins AL Triple Crown in 1966

Frank Robinson was a superstar outfielder with 10 seasons at the major league level in the National League when he was traded from the Cincinnati Reds to the Baltimore Orioles following the 1965 season. He had already won a Rookie of the Year award and a Most Valuable Player award during his career, but had never led the league in any of the Triple Crown categories prior to 1966. Robinson changed all of that in 1966, batting .316 with 49 home runs and 122 RBI to lead the American League in his first season with the Orioles. He also led the league with 122 runs scored, a .410 on-base percentage, .637 slugging percentage and 367 total bases to earn American League Most Valuable Player honors, receiving all 20 first place votes.

The 1966 season marked the only time Robinson led the league in any of the Triple Crown categories, although he did finish second in batting average, third in RBI and fourth in home runs in his second season with the Orioles in 1967.

Carl Yastrzemski Wins American League Triple Crown in 1967

Just one year after Frank Robinson won the American League Triple Crown, Boston Red Sox outfielder Carl Yastrzemski accomplished the feat again in 1967. The lefthanded hitting slugger batted .326 with 44 home runs and 121 RBI to top the league in all three categories and become the second player in Red Sox history to win the Triple Crown.

In addition to leading the league in all three Triple Crown categories, Yastrzemski led the league with 112 runs scored, 189 hits, a .418 on-base percentage, .622 slugging percentage and 360 total bases. He was rewarded with the American League Most Valuable Player for his efforts. He would remain the last Triple Crown winner in the major leagues until Cabrera snapped the drought in 2012.

Yastrzemski won the batting title again in 1968, but it marked the last time he led the league in any of the Triple Crown categories.

- Conceptualized and funded the redesign of the new High Definition video board and suite renovations at Comerica Park following the 2011 season.
- Under his stewardship, the Tigers have made two World Series appearances; captured two American League Championships; and are currently two-time defending American League Central Division champions, the only time in franchise history this feat has been accomplished.
- Ilitch's acquisition of the Tigers on August 26, 1992 was the culmination of a long association with the club that saw him originally sign a minor league player's contract with the organization in his early 20s.
- Ilitch's playing career was cut short due to a knee injury during his fourth season playing minor league baseball.
- Founded Little Caesars Pizza in 1959 with his wife, Marian…Little Caesars, which is one of the top international pizza chains with restaurants on four continents, celebrated its 50-year anniversary on May 8, 2009.

- Also purchased Olympia Arenas, Inc. (renamed Olympia Entertainment in 1996), which manages several restaurants, sports and entertainment venues in the Detroit area.
- While many businesses were leaving Detroit's urban center, the Ilitches in 1987 purchased the neglected Fox Theatre, a 1928 landmark on the famous Woodward Avenue...with great effort, the building was restored to its original splendor and was reopened with 5,000 seats in 1988…it is now among the highest grossing theatres of its size worldwide.
- In 1989, the family further committed its efforts to reviving Detroit's downtown by relocating its suburban Little Caesars headquarters to the Fox Theatre's adjacent 10-story office building…since then, the area around the Fox and Comerica Park has seen significant development, including the Ilitch-owned City Theatre and Hockeytown Café.
- Created Olympia Development in 1996 to promote development in downtown Detroit.

- In 2008, Ilitch was rated the number one owner in professional sports by Turnkey Sports and Entertainment.
- In 2010, Ilitch was voted the most effective team owner in the NHL by a Sports Business Journal survey.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

CENTERING ON FRUSTRATION

Of the 55 home runs, 32 have been hit by a Tigers player. Billy McMillon became the first Tigers player to accomplish the feat in the first inning off Boston's Rolando Arrojo on September 16, 2000.

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first major league Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.

The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by three and one-half games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the major leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

TRAMMELL AND WHITAKER SET AL RECORD

Former Tigers Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker, who played together from 1977-95, established an American League record in 1995 with 1,918 appearances as teammates. Trammell and Whitaker, who played shortstop and second base, respectively, broke the old American League mark of 1,914 held by Kansas City third baseman George Brett and second baseman Frank White. The major league mark for appearances by two players as teammates is 2,015, held by third baseman Ron Santo and outfielder Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs, who played together from 1960-73.

ALL-STAR GAME HISTORY

July 8, 1941
American League 7, National League 5

Detroit hosted the ninth all-star game at Briggs Stadium on July 8, 1941. The game was attended by nearly 55,000 fans and they were rewarded as the American League squad rallied from a 5-2 deficit with one run in the eighth inning and four runs in the ninth to defeat the National League. The comeback was capped by a three-run home run off the facing of the right field roof by Hall-of-Famer Ted Williams. Williams would later characterize the home run as one of the most exciting moments of his career. Arky Vaughan led the National League offense in the loss, becoming the first player in all-star history to hit two home runs in a game while adding a single and four RBI.

Three Tigers players were selected to play in the contest, including first baseman Rudy York, catcher Birdie Tebbetts and righthanded pitcher Al Benton. York was the only Tigers player to appear in the game, finishing 1x3. The American League squad was managed by Tigers skipper Del Baker while Tigers coach Merv Shea served as one of the coaches.

The 1941 All-Star Game also marked the first time brothers had appeared together in a Midsummer Classic. Joe and Dom DiMaggio both appeared in the game for the American League with Joe finishing 1x4 with three runs scored and an RBI and Dom finishing 1x1 with an RBI.

July 10, 1951
National League 8, American League 3

Briggs Stadium hosted the 18th all-star game on July 10, 1951 as the Midsummer Classic was again played in Detroit. Over 52,000 fans were in attendance and witnessed a home run barrage as the National League squad thumped an all-star record four roundtrippers to defeat the American League 8-3 and claim their second consecutive victory for the first time in all-star history. The American League chipped in two home runs to raise the game total to six, establishing a new all-star record.

Ralph Kiner drilled a two-run homer for the National League in the eighth inning, which made him the only player in history to homer in three consecutive all-star games. Stan Musial also established a new all-star record by being caught stealing twice.

The Tigers were represented by third baseman George Kell, outfielder Vic Wertz and righthanded pitcher Fred Hutchinson. Kell started the game at third base and drilled a solo home run while Wertz started the game in right field and also connected for a solo roundtripper. Hutchinson worked three innings in the loss, allowing three runs on three hits while issuing two walks.

July 13, 1971
American League 6, National League 4

The all-star game returned to Detroit on July 13, 1971 as the best players in baseball flocked to Tiger Stadium for the 42nd Midsummer Classic. The American League squad hit three home runs to take the 6-4 victory and snap an eight-game losing streak. Reggie Jackson provided the memorable moment when he crushed a Dock Ellis delivery off the light tower in right field for a two-run homer.

The National League hit three home runs as the two teams matched an all-star record with a combined six home runs, all by Hall-of-Fame players (Hank Aaron, Johnny Bench, Roberto Clemente, Jackson, Harmon Killibrew, Frank Robinson).

Frank Robinson was named as the game's most valuable player after finishing the game 1x2 with a home run and two RBI. Robinson's home run made him the first player in all-star history to hit a home run for both the American and National League.

The Tigers were represented by first baseman Norm Cash, catcher Bill Freehan, outfielder Al Kaline and lefthanded pitcher Mickey Lolich. Cash started at first base and finished 0x2, while Freehan started behind the plate and went hitless in three trips to the plate. Kaline entered the game playing right field in the sixth inning and finished the game 1x2 with a run scored. Lolich worked the final two innings, allowing one run on one hit, while striking out one.

American League 7, National League 5

The all-star game made its return to Detroit and first visit to Comerica Park on July 12, 2005 for the 76th Midsummer Classic. The American League jumped out to an early 7-0 lead and held on for the 7-5 victory. The victory was the eighth consecutive for the American League and raised their record to 3-1 in all-star games played in Detroit.

Miguel Tejada led the American League offensive attack with a two-run homer and played solid defense at shortstop to earn the game's most valuable player award. David Ortiz was the only player in the game to collect multiple hits, finishing 2x3 with a pair of singles and an RBI.

Andruw Jones led the National League offense with two runs scored, a home run and two RBI. Derrek Lee, Moises Alou and Luis Gonzalez each chipped in with doubles to round out the offensive attack for the National League.

Mark Buehrle started for the American League and worked two scoreless innings to earn the victory. John Smoltz allowed a solo home run to Tejada to take the loss. Mariano Rivera struck out Morgan Ensberg to end the game and earn the save.

The Tigers were represented by catcher Ivan Rodriguez, who was named to his 12th all-star team. Rodriguez entered the game behind the plate in the fifth inning and finished 0x1 with a walk in his two trips to the plate.

TIGERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

TY COBB — CF, 1905-26

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1936
Ht./Wt.: 6-1/175
Born: 12/18/1886 in Narrows, GA
Full Name: Tyrus Raymond Cobb
Nickname: "The Georgia Peach"
Batted/Threw: L/R
Died: 7/17/61 in Atlanta, GA

Perhaps the greatest player in baseball history, there is little doubt that Ty Cobb, called a "Genius in Spikes," was the greatest competitor the game has ever seen.

- Received seven more votes than Babe Ruth when elected as one of the five original members of the Hall of Fame... garnered 98.2 percent of the vote, the highest percentage ever until Tom Seaver was elected with 98.8 percent in 1992.
- Owns the highest lifetime batting average (.367) in major league history.
- Major league record 4,191 career hits stood for almost 60 years and single-season major league record of 96 stolen bases in 1915 stood for nearly 50 years.
- Held the major league record for career runs scored (2,245) for 75 years until Rickey Henderson surpassed the total during the 2001 season.
- Also ranks second all-time in triples (297) and fourth in doubles (724) and stolen bases (892)...his triples total is second only to Tigers teammate Sam Crawford.
- Batted .400-or-better three times (.420, 1911; .410, 1912; .401, 1922), tied for most in major league history...one of just two players (Rogers Hornsby) who played their entire career after 1900 to accomplish the feat.
- Chalmers Award winner (American League Most Valuable Player) in 1911 after batting a career-high .420.
- From 1907-20, won the league batting title in 12 out of 14 seasons.
- Drove in more than 100 runs seven times, mostly during the dead-ball era, and from 1907-11, led the league in RBI in four of the five years.
- Captured the 1909 Triple Crown, pacing both major leagues in batting average (.377), home runs (9) and RBI (107), en route to leading the Tigers to the last of his three World Series appearances.
- Led the Tigers to consecutive American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- Following a 22-year career with the Tigers, including six seasons (1921-26) as player-manager, played his final two seasons as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics.
- Did not wear a uniform number as they were not used by the Tigers until the 1930s.

MICKEY COCHRANE — C, 1934-37

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1947
Ht./Wt.: 5-10/180
Born: 4/6/1903 in Bridgewater, MA
Full Name: Gordon Stanley Cochrane
Nickname: "Black Mike"
Died: 6/28/62 in Lake Forest, IL

One of the finest backstops the game has ever produced, Mickey Cochrane took over a fifth-place Tigers club as player-manager in 1934 and immediately led Detroit to back-to-back American League pennants and its first World Series Championship in 1935.

- Named the 1934 American League Most Valuable Player after leading the Tigers to their first American League pennant in 25 years.
- The following season, led the Tigers to their first-ever World Series title, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the ninth inning in Game Six to defeat the Chicago Cubs at Navin Field.
- Of that title-clinching game, Cochrane later said, "It was my greatest day in baseball."
- In May of 1937, after homering off the Yankees' Bump Hadley, Cochrane was beaned in the right temple by a Hadley fastball and remained unconscious for 10 days before finally pulling through...although he continued as Tigers manager for part of the following season, he never played again.
- Known as one of the best batsmen ever to play catcher, posting a lifetime .320 batting average and hitting better than .300 in a season nine times in his career.
- Acquired by the Tigers from the Philadelphia Athletics following the 1933 season in exchange for Johnny Pasek and $100,000 after taking part in three pennant-winners...helped the 1929 A's, regarded as one of the greatest teams in baseball history, to the World Series title.
- Also named American League Most Valuable Player in 1928 with the Athletics...spent a total of nine seasons with the A's after coming up to the big leagues in 1925.
- Despite spending just four of his 13 major league seasons in a Detroit uniform, Cochrane entered the Hall of Fame in 1947 as a Tiger.
- Wore uniform No. 3 while playing for Detroit.

SAM CRAWFORD — RF, 1903-17

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1957
Nickname: "Wahoo Sam"

Batted/Threw: L/L
Born: 4/18/1880 in Wahoo, NE
Died: 6/15/68 in Hollywood, CA
Full Name: Samuel Earl Crawford

Although he spent most of his career in the shadows of the great Ty Cobb, his teammate in the Tigers outfield for 13 seasons, "Wahoo Sam" Crawford carved his niche in baseball history as its most prolific triples hitter ever.

- Led the league in three-baggers six times, once in the National League with Cincinnati and five times in the American League with Detroit...five times he hit more than 20 triples in a season en route to his career record of 309.
- Is the all-time leader in triples, legging out 309 for his career.
- A lifetime .309 hitter known as one of the hardest hitters of the dead-ball era.
- Led the American League in RBI three times, runs scored once and doubles once.
- Finished his career just 39 hits short of 3,000.
- Batted .314 and led the league with 104 RBI and a career-high 26 triples in 1914 and finished runner-up to Philadelphia's Eddie Collins for the Chalmers Award (American League Most Valuable Player).
- Helped the Tigers to consecutive American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- His nickname derived from his hometown of Wahoo, NE.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1957.

CHARLIE GEHRINGER — 2B, 1924-42

Born: 5/11/1903 in Fowlerville, MI
Died: 1/21/93 in Bloomfield Hills, MI
Full Name: Charles Leonard Gehringer

Known for his quiet efficiency, Michigan native Charlie Gehringer was not only the best fielding second baseman of his time, but he also hit for power and average...Ty Cobb, who managed the Tigers during Gehringer's first three seasons, called him, aside from Eddie Collins, "the greatest second baseman (he) ever saw."

- Batted over .300 in 13 of his 16 full seasons, had 200-or-more hits seven times and posted a lifetime batting average of .320.

HANK GREENBERG — 1B, 1930-46

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1956
Ht./Wt.: 6-3/210
Born: 1/1/11 in New York, NY
Full Name: Henry Benjamin Greenberg
Nickname: "Hammerin' Hank"
Batted/Threw: R/R
Died: 9/4/86 in Beverly Hills, CA

A fearsome run producer and home run hitter, "Hammerin' Hank" Greenberg made the most of a career interrupted by four years of military service during World War II and another season lost to injury to capture two American League Most Valuable Player awards and a pair of World Series titles.

- Rapped a Tigers record 63 doubles, just four short of the major league mark, in 1934 in his second full season in the majors as the Tigers won their first pennant in 25 years.
- Unanimous selection as American League Most Valuable Player in 1935 after leading the league with 36 homers and 170 RBI as the Tigers won their first World Series title, defeating the Chicago Cubs.
- Suffered a broken wrist just 12 games into the 1936 season after beginning the campaign batting .348 with 16 RBI.

STEARNES' STAR SHINES AT HALL OF FAME

Norman "Turkey" Stearnes, a standout slugger for the Detroit Stars of the Negro League, earned his spot in baseball history as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2000. Stearnes, a gifted outfielder and powerful hitter, played for the Stars from 1923-30 and in 1937, and he also played with several other Negro League teams. Legendary Negro League player Satchel Paige was quoted as saying that "Turkey Stearnes was one of the greatest hitters we ever had...he was as good as anybody who ever played baseball."

Following his successful career in baseball, Stearnes and his wife, Nettie, stayed in Detroit. Stearnes could almost always be found at Tigers home games before he passed away on September 4, 1979 at the age of 78. Nettie Stearnes and the Stearnes' family, friends and former teammates were tireless in their efforts to have Turkey's accomplishments rightfully recognized with the sport's highest honor. In 2000, Turkey Stearnes' legacy was finally given its due recognition with his induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame.

SPARKY'S LEGACY HONORED AT COOPERSTOWN

On July 23, 2000, former Tigers manager Sparky Anderson took his place amongst baseball's best as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Anderson was voted in during his first year of eligibility for the honor.

Anderson completed his managerial career after the 1995 season with a Tigers-record 1,331 victories. His total record of 2,194-1,834, including nine seasons and two World Championships as manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was good enough for a .545 career winning percentage.

Only the fourth manager in baseball history to manage 4,000 games, Anderson is the only manager to hold the career victory record for two different franchises. Additionally, he was the first manager to lead teams from both leagues to a World Series title and to record 100 victories in one season in both leagues.

The Tigers retired Anderson's number 11 as part of a ceremony on June 26, 2011.

The Detroit Tigers Olde English 'D' is one of the most revered emblems in Major League Baseball. It was first stitched on the away uniform in 1904, only three years after the team had joined the newly formed American League. The following year, the Olde English 'D' was stitched on the home uniform as well and also appeared on the baseball cap. Through the years the 'D' has undergone various stylizations, but the pride this symbol brings to the team and its fans has been constant.

LOWRY REMEMBERED WITH TIGERS MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Detroit Tigers family suffered a tragic loss during the 1997 season when Jamestown Jammers manager Dwight Lowry collapsed and died suddenly at his home in Jamestown, NY, on July 10.

Shortly after Lowry's death, the Tigers renamed their annual Player Development Man of the Year Award in his honor.

Lowry, who was 39 at the time of his death, had been tabbed the club's inaugural Player Development Man of the Year in 1996 after leading the Single A Fayetteville Generals to a second-half division title and a South Atlantic League post-season berth.

Lowry was in his fourth season as a manager in the Tigers minor league system and he had also spent parts of four seasons as a player with Detroit, including the 1984 World Championship campaign. Lowry is survived by his wife Pamela and children Sesilie, Amanda and Zachary.

DAVE HUPPERT

Lakeland Manager

Huppert returns for his third season with the Tigers organization in 2013 to serve as the manager at Single A Lakeland. He guided the Flying Tigers to the Florida State League's championship in 2012.

Prior to joining the Tigers organization, he managed 23 seasons at the minor league level with the Milwaukee Brewers (1986-91), Chicago White Sox (1993-98), Florida Marlins (1999-2001), Montreal Expos (2002-04) and Philadelphia Phillies (2006-10). He led Single A Lakewood to the South Atlantic League championship in 2006 and Single A Clearwater to the Florida State League championship in 2007.

Additionally, he served as the bullpen catcher for the White Sox in 1992 and was the third base coach for the Washington Nationals in 2005.

Huppert has been tabbed his league's manager of the year twice during his career, earning the honor in the California League in 1988 and the Florida State League in 2001.

He saw action at the minor league level with the Baltimore Orioles (1977-83), Minnesota Twins (1981) and Brewers (1984-86). Huppert saw action at the major league level with the Orioles in 1983 and Brewers in 1985.

HOW THEY BECAME KNOWN AS "TIGERS"

Research reveals the nickname "Tigers" was first applied to the Detroit club in 1895. Baseball historians had long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. However, George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the nickname because he had his players wear black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

It appears, though, that it was actually an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press who originated the Tigers nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. Previously, the team had simply been called "Detroit," "the Detroits," sometimes the "Wolverines" and at times the "Creams."

On April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read, "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called the club the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, The Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895, careful research disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had ever used "Tigers."

SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

Joker Marchant Stadium and TigerTown Spring Training Home of the Detroit Tigers

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2013 for their 77th season in Lakeland and their 48th at Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966. In January 2001, the Tigers agreed to extend their relationship with Lakeland for 16 additional years.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000 and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects beginning in the early 1970s brought the capacity to 7,100 and the recently completed renovation project upped the capacity to 9,000. Previous renovations have included the addition of lights that allowed the first night game to be played in Lakeland in 1972 and a food and picnic court that was added in 1994 to increase the fan appeal of Joker Marchant Stadium.The recent $11 million renovation project has transformed the park into a state of the art facility that features luxury suites, a second tier concourse level, new seating areas, an outfield seating berm, as well as brand new individual seats with cupholders and improved seating for handicapped fans. The improvements continued to the exterior of the park with the extensive use of Mediterranean style architecture. The press box has been improved and expanded, a new practice field has been added, as well as four new indoor batting cages.

Adjacent to the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is TigerTown, the Tigers minor league training site since 1953. A three-story dormitory provides housing for 190 players and coaches. It was dedicated in 1971 and named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. A new administration building, cafeteria and recreation center were constructed in 1993 to complete the TigerTown renovation.

Several changes were also made to the clubhouse building at Marchant Stadium during the 1997-98 off-season. Three executive offices and a large suite were added to the complex as well as offices for both the home and visiting managers. The locker room and laundry areas were also expanded at that time.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and City of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a major league baseball team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers all-time record at Marchant Stadium is 374-294-21 and 3,358,130 fans have paid to see Tigers Grapefruit League games since the park opened.

Fetzer Hall and TigerTown Facilities

While the Tigers major league club has trained in Lakeland since 1934, the organization's minor league affiliates have called Lakeland home since 1953. The move to the TigerTown facility in 1953 was aided by the use of barracks that were originally part of the Lodwick School of Aeronautics, a British training school for aviation cadets during World War II. The school closed in August, 1945 and was converted to a city airport, which was later named Lodwick Field. The barracks from the former training school allowed the team to provide room and board for players throughout Spring Training.

The original setup at Lodwick Field boasted four diamonds, a fieldhouse, recreation room and a dining hall, which was said to have served nearly 16,000 meals during Spring Training in 1953. The field provided the club with an all-encompassing facility that could serve the needs of the minor league system during Spring Training. When the facility opened in 1953, the club owned three minor league affiliates and had working agreements with four other clubs. The 1953 Detroit Tigers Press Book stated that 200 rookies would be given the opportunity to display their wares in the first minor league spring training held at what is now the TigerTown complex.

Player housing on site at the TigerTown complex continued in the barracks through the 1970 season, when the club, in conjunction with the City of Lakeland, began construction on Fetzer Hall at a cost of $425,000. Touted as boasting the last word in construction with air conditioning, controlled heating and carpeted rooms, the dormitory was designed to house nearly 200 players and coaches during the baseball season.

The facility was completed during the summer of 1970 and dedicated in 1971. It was named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. The Tigers added an administration building, cafeteria and recreation center in 1993 to expand the TigerTown facility.

Fetzer Hall and the surrounding facilities underwent a $1 million renovation prior to the 2008 season. The renovation upgraded the dormitory rooms, lounge areas, recreational areas and the cafeteria. Each room is equipped with a flat screen television and high-speed Internet access. Lounge areas feature large screen televisions and couches for players to relax.

Each room in Fetzer Hall is named for a different part of Tigers history. Rooms on the first floor are named after Tigers Hall of Fame players. Rooms on the second floor are named after noteworthy Tigers coaches and managers and the third floor rooms are named after different parts of TigerTown history.

What began as simple housing accomodations in former military barracks has given way to a facility that helps provide players with many of the comforts of home while allowing them to stay in close proximity to top notch training facilities. The advancement from Lodwick Field and military barracks to the current TigerTown facility and Fetzer Hall has helped the Tigers maintain one of the top minor league headquarters in baseball.

COMERICA PARK INFORMATION

Comerica Park
Home of the Detroit Tigers

Comerica Park is home to the Detroit Tigers, a charter member of the American League and one of the storied franchises in the history of Major League Baseball. The opening of the park on April 11, 2000 ushered in a new era of baseball in Detroit that features a multi-faceted fan experience in one of the premier venues in professional sports. Comerica Park was designed with fans in mind and provides a one-of-a-kind experience for fans of all ages.

AN URBAN VILLAGE

Comerica Park is rooted at the center of an urban village that includes shops, restaurants, offices, the neighboring Ford Field, Fox Theatre and other attractions. Buildings of varying sizes and heights make up this village of outbuildings which houses many of the service facilities surrounding the park. Roughly 70,000 square feet of retail space is included and another 36,000 square feet is dedicated to Tigers offices. The result blends into the surrounding street life of Foxtown. Comerica Park provides a beautiful view of the Detroit skyline which is highlighted by the Renaissance Center, Detroit Athletic Club and many Detroit landmarks.

THE CONCOURSES

The concourses are among the most generous of any facility. The minimum width of the main concourse is 40 feet, with wider concourses in many areas. The upper concourse is approximately 34 feet wide. Concourses at old Tiger Stadium were between 17 and 27 feet on the lower level, 11 feet behind the last row of the lower deck and 11 feet in the upper level.

THE WALK OF FAME

Touring the main concourse, fans are taken through time on a tour of baseball and lifestyle history. The concourse is divided into a chronology of Tigers history. Decade monuments covering two decades each are placed along the concourse, towering from floor to ceiling and featuring artifacts from each era.

CONCESSIONS FACILITIES AND FOOD COURT

Typical ballparks have a point of sale (register) for every 200 fans; Comerica Park abbreviates the wait with one point of sale for every 125 fans. Among the many tantalizing food options are the “Brushfire Grill” barbecue area behind third base and the “Big Cat Court” food area behind first base, with a wide range of snacks, sandwiches, frozen treats and other great munchies.

THE SCOREBOARD

One of the newest and most stunning features at Comerica Park is the massive High Definition LED video board in left field. The Daktronics board measures approximately 48 feet high and 127 feet wide and utilizes the latest in LED technology, offering excellent clarity and contrast of video images. In addition to the main board, a five-foot high and 100-foot wide LED display is positioned beneath the main board to provide pitcher statistics and other information. The state-of-the-art technology continues on top of the board with a script Tigers logo which utilizes LED technology to allow the lettering to change color and be animated for special events throughout the season.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT

In the middle of the food court, a merry-go-round is available for the young and young-at-heart, with patrons riding atop tigers instead of horses. Behind the "Brushfire Grill" barbecue area stands a baseball-themed ferris wheel. The stunning fountain above center field synchronizes music and light to spraying fountains of water.

SEATING LEVELS AND CAPACITIES

There are approximately 23,000 seats in the lower bowl of Comerica Park and 2,000 in the two suite levels. There are roughly 11,000 in the main upper deck. From just past first base to the right-field foul line there is a section with 4,000 seats that does not have a suite level. The upper deck in this level is approximately 15 feet lower and closer to the field than the main upper deck.

PREMIUM SEATING AREAS

Comerica Park features four premium seating areas. Located at the upper rows of the lower bowl, the Tiger Den resembles the fashionable boxes at old-time sporting venues with movable chairs. A private lounge is available for patrons. The first five rows of the upper bowl have been designated as club seats, and patrons have access to the Club Lounge. Another premium seating area is located in the lowest rows of the lower bowl, called On-Deck Circle seats. Additionally, there are two levels of suites, which includes several party suites that are available for individual game rental.

Beginning shortly after the park opened in 2000, fantastic fireworks displays have been held on select weekends throughout the season, adding unrivaled value and fun to an already exciting product.

SPECIAL NEEDS ACCESS

Comerica Park complies with all guidelines of the ADA. In completing the facility, the Tigers worked extensively with organizations including The Paralyzed Veterans of America's Michigan Chapter and the Michigan Commission for the Blind to ensure accessibility for all fans and a great baseball experience for guests who enter Comerica Park.

THE TEAM

The design team of HOK Sport and the Detroit-based Smith, Hinchman and Grylls served as architects for Comerica Park, while Huber, Hunt & Nichols, Inc., Turner Construction Company and White Construction Company joined forces to form Hunt-Turner-White as construction management team. Private financing accounts for more than 60 percent of Comerica Park, with partners including the Tigers and a bank syndicate led by Sumitomo Bank, Limited, Societe General, First Chicago NBD, Provident Bank of Maryland, First of America Bank, Standard Federal Bank and Michigan National Bank. Public financing participants include the Michigan Strategic Fund (infrastructure), City of Detroit Downtown Development Authority and Wayne County.

Moments in Comerica Park History

Comerica Park is entering its 14th season as the home of the Detroit Tigers. Despite such a short history, Comerica Park has seen many exciting moments that are part of the fabric of Detroit baseball history.

MIDSUMMER CLASSIC RETURNS TO MOTOWN

The first marquee Major League Baseball event to take place at Comerica Park was the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. It marked the fourth all-star game in Detroit and the first since 1971. The American League defeated the National League 7-5 behind home runs from Mark Teixeira and Miguel Tejada. In the home run derby, Bobby Abreu set a major league record by belting 24 home runs in the first round and 41 home runs over the course of the contest.

PLAYOFF BASEBALL COMES TO COMERICA PARK

After clinching the American League Wild Card during the regular season and opening the 2006 playoffs at Yankee Stadium, the first playoff game in the history of Comerica Park was played on October 6, 2006. The Tigers defeated the Yankees 6-0 and went on to win five of the six games held at Comerica Park during the 2006 playoffs.

MAGGLIO ORDONEZ BELTS HISTORIC HOME RUN TO SEND TIGERS TO THE FALL CLASSIC

Tigers right fielder Magglio Ordonez stepped to the plate in the bottom of the ninth inning with the score tied at three in Game Four of the 2006 American League Championship Series. He belted a Huston Street delivery into the Detroit sky for a game-ending three-run home run that propelled the Tigers to the club's first World Series berth since 1984.

WORLD SERIES BASEBALL AT COMERICA PARK

The Tigers have appeared in the World Series twice since Comerica Park opened in 2000. The Tigers split two games with the St. Louis Cardinals in the 2006 World Series and lost both games to the San Francisco Giants in the 2012 World Series at Comerica Park.

VERLANDER FIRES SIXTH NO-HITTER IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

Justin Verlander fired the sixth no-hitter in franchise history on June 12, 2007 in a 4-0 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the first no-hitter at Comerica Park and the first no-hitter by a Tigers pitcher in Detroit since Virgil Trucks on May 15, 1952 at Briggs Stadium.

TIGERS IN THE COMMUNITY

Detroit Tigers in the Community

The Detroit Tigers organization, its owners, management, players and coaches are committed to providing a caring, enduring presence in our community and believe in the need to invest in our region's future. Through the Detroit Tigers Foundation and our community affairs initiatives, the club supports thousands of deserving individuals and organizations in the greater Detroit area with a focus on youth, education and recreation.

DETROIT TIGERS FOUNDATION

Established in 2005, the Detroit Tigers Foundation is an affiliate of Ilitch Charities, a 501(c)(3) public charity. The mission of the Foundation is to enhance lives through the game of baseball. Since its inception, the Foundation has awarded over $7 million in grants, Tigers tickets and scholarships with a focus on youth, education and recreation. For more information on the Foundation and the team's charitable activities visit www.detroittigersfoundation.com.

PLAY BASEBALL DETROIT

A love of baseball runs deep in the veins of greater Detroit. The Detroit Tigers do their part to carry on this beloved tradition by developing young athletes in our community through Play Baseball Detroit. Play Baseball Detroit includes a host of initiatives to engage children in baseball, such as equipment donations, field maintenance, school rallies, baseball skills clinics, competitive tournaments and an online team registration program. Play Baseball Detroit is funded by the Detroit Tigers Foundation and has served over 50,000 youth since 2008.

GLOVES FOR KIDS

Together with CBS Radio partners and FOX Sports Detroit, the Tigers call upon our community to donate gently-used baseball/softball equipment to support youth leagues in our community. Since the program's inception, the Gloves for Kids program has collected and distributed more than 10,000 pieces of equipment.

TINY TIGERS

Tiny Tigers is a Tee Ball and Junior Baseball program in partnership with Think Detroit PAL for children ages 4-8. Since 2008, Tiny Tigers has served nearly 3,000 youth.

BASEBALL FUNDAMENTALS
The Baseball FUNdamentals program is designed to build children's excitement about baseball. The program includes in-school baseball and softball instructional sessions during gym class and community skills clinics with Tigers coaches and training staff.

DETROIT TIGERS HOMETOWN CHAMPIONSHIP
A signature event, the Detroit Tigers Hometown Championship is a three-day baseball and softball tournament for Detroit area youth ages 6-19. The tournament is designed to showcase the area's best talent as well as refurbished youth baseball and softball fields in Detroit.

TEAM TIGERS
An online registration and reward program, Team Tigers has served over 15,000 Tee Ball, youth baseball and youth softball players since 2008. By registering online at tigers.com, teams receive resources and tools to help them succeed, including game and practice equipment, team wristbands and a best practices manual on field maintenance and fundraising.

50/50 RAFFLE
The 50/50 raffle program was developed in 2008 in an effort to create awareness and raise funds in partnership with select local charities while enjoying an evening at Comerica Park. Since its inception, the 50/50 raffle has raised nearly $450,000 to support local charities including the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society and the American Diabetes Association.

VERLANDER'S VICTORY FOR VETERANS
For each of his home starts, Justin Verlander hosts Veterans from the John D. Dingell Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Detroit and the Veterans Affairs Ann Arbor Healthcare System. These Veterans sustained injuries or illness in Iraq during Operation Iraqi Freedom or in Afghanistan during Operation Enduring Freedom. The Veterans, along with their families, cheer on the Tigers from the comfort of Verlander's personal luxury suite. Veterans receive a personalized welcome letter from Verlander, while all guests receive a Verlander's Victory for Veterans T-shirt and are welcomed on the scoreboard during the game.

AUTOGRAPHED MEMORABILIA DONATION PROGRAM
Each year, nearly 1,500 charitable organizations benefit from in-kind donations from the Tigers, including autographed memorabilia, unique experience packages and luxury suites.

TICKET DONATION PROGRAM
Each year the Tigers organization donates over 100,000 tickets to groups throughout Michigan, northern Ohio and southern Ontario, Canada to allow charitable and other deserving groups the opportunity to enjoy Tigers baseball at Comerica Park.

DETROIT TIGERS ARMED FORCES GAME BALL DELIVERY

On select home games, the Detroit Tigers invite a member of the Armed Forces currently serving a tour of duty or recently returned from deployment to deliver the game ball to the pitcher's mound as a means to honor the dedication of the men and women who are currently serving our country. The service member is announced to Comerica Park and welcomed as the official game baseball is delivered to the pitcher's mound.

WILLIE HORTON SCHOLARSHIP

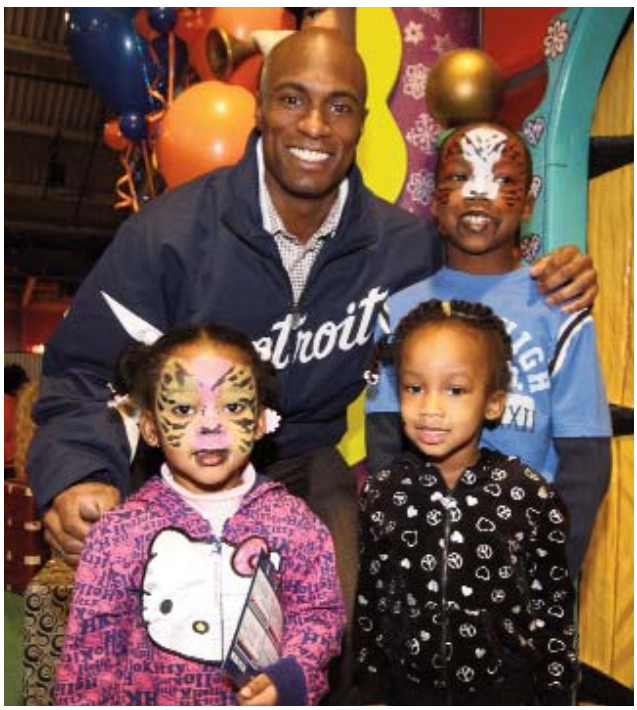

The Tigers established the Willie Horton Scholarship in 2001, in honor of Willie Horton's accomplishments and contributions to the greater Detroit community. This scholarship, funded by the Detroit Tigers Foundation, is awarded annually to a graduating senior from Northwestern High School in Detroit, Horton's alma mater.

EDUCATION AND SAFETY

The Detroit Tigers are proud to maintain a wide variety of programs focused on education and safety including Safety Patrol Day, Aquafina Perfect Attendance Day, Gang Resistance Education and Training Day (G.R.E.A.T.) and the Jackie Robinson Memorial Art, Essay and Poetry Contest. Safety Patrol Day, a program in existence for nearly 60 years, awards Tigers tickets to students for their service to their classmates, while Perfect Attendance Day awards Tigers tickets to area middle school students with perfect attendance during a school semester. The G.R.E.A.T. program rewards students in the spring for setting goals and understanding how gangs and youth violence negatively impact their lives. The Detroit Tigers Jackie Robinson Art, Essay and Poetry Contest invites middle and high school students to create poems, essays and works of art to honor the athlete who broke the barrier of segregation in baseball, and a social activist who fought for equal opportunities beyond the playing field.

PLAYER PARTICIPATION

The Player Participation program is the cornerstone of the Tigers community involvement. Each season, hundreds of charitable organizations benefit from the dedication of Tigers players and coaches. Tigers community participation includes reading with students, visiting youth groups, conducting baseball clinics, visiting hospitals, autographing memorabilia for fundraising events and much more.

TIGERS WINTER CARAVAN

For a few special days each January, you won't find the Detroit Tigers at Comerica Park. The team, along with coaches, broadcasters and front office staff hit the road for the Tigers Winter Caravan to visit fans across the state of Michigan. The Tigers Winter Caravan is a series of community events designed to reconnect Tigers baseball with its local fan base. Simultaneously, the Tigers Winter Caravan aims to support numerous communities and Michigan-based organizations by linking Detroit Tigers players, coaches, broadcasters and members of the front office to charitable and noteworthy causes.

TIGERS DREAMS COME TRUE

Throughout the season, the Tigers organization grants the wishes of Tigers fans of all ages with special needs or suffering with a life-threatening illness by inviting these fans and their families to watch batting practice from the field and meet a Tigers player or coach.

TIGERS WIVES

The Tigers Wives are not afraid to roll up their sleeves and make a real difference in our community. From participating in the Komen Detroit Race for the Cure to serving lunch on the Salvation Army Bed and Bread Truck to brightening the days of patients being treated at local pediatric hospitals, the Tigers Wives enjoy supporting the community that cheers for their husbands.
