2015 MEDIA GUIDE

On the Cover:

The 2015 Houston Astros Media Guide represents historic achievements by two Astros stars, past and present. Craig Biggio, the first Hall of Famer in franchise history, and Jose Altuve, the first batting champion in franchise history.

On July 26, 2015, Biggio will be the first player inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame as an Astro. The moment will be a culmination of Biggio's outstanding 20-year career, all in an Astros uniform, which saw him tally 3,060 hits, 668 doubles and 285 hit by pitches, a modern-day Major League record. His hit total ranks 21st all-time in Major League history and he is the only player in history to reach all four of the following milestones: 600 doubles, 250 homers, 3,000 hits and 400 stolen bases.

The 2014 batting title was the capstone on a historic season for Altuve, who also led the AL in hits and stolen bases, becoming just the second player since 1946 to lead his league in those three categories in the same season. Altuve's 225 hits also set a new franchise record, topping the mark of 210 hits set by the Astros icon he shares this year's media guide cover with, Craig Biggio.

BIGGIO: HALL OF FAME

CRAIG BIGGIO

HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2015

On Jan. 6, 2014, National Baseball Hall of Fame President Jeff Idelson announced that Astros great Craig Biggio was among four players elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2015.

Biggio will become the first player in history to go into the Hall of Fame as a Houston Astro, with his induction into Cooperstown set for July 26.

Joining Biggio in the 2015 Hall of Fame Class are pitchers Randy Johnson, Pedro Martinez and John Smoltz. Jeff Bagwell, Biggio's former teammate, received 55.7% of the vote in what was his fifth year on the ballot. Hall of Fame voters consist of members of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

In his 20 Major League seasons (1988-2007) in an Astros uniform, Biggio, who currently serves as a special assistant to the general manager for the Astros, was one of the top players of his era, excelling at catcher, second base and in the outfield. The seven-time All-Star played a vital role in the most successful run in franchise history, which included six postseason appearances in a nine-year span and a National League Pennant.

Biggio is one of just 28 players in Major League history to reach 3,000 hits, and is also one of just 14 players in Major League history to reach both 1,000 extra-base hits and 3,000 total hits, joining a list that includes Hank Aaron, Stan Musial, Willie Mays, Carl Yastrzemski, Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, George Brett, Cal Ripken Jr. and Pete Rose (Biggio is only the second player that was primarily a middle infielder to accomplish this feat, joining Ripken). It is noteworthy that Biggio played 12 of his seasons (1988-99) in the pitcher-friendly Astrodome.

In his career, Biggio tallied 3,060 hits, which ranks 21st all-time in Major League history, and 11th all-time among right-handed hitters. Additionally, his 3,060 hits rank fifth all-time in National League history among right-handed hitters. In 2,850 career games, Biggio hit .281 with 668 doubles, 291 home runs, 1,175 RBI, 1,161 walks, 414 stolen bases and 1,844 runs scored, the latter ranking 14th all-time and seventh in NL history. His 668 doubles are the most in Major League history by a right-handed hitter and rank fifth all-time among all hitters. Biggio also holds the NL record for career leadoff home runs with 53 and the modern Major League record for being hit by a pitch (285).

Biggio is also one of just 10 players in the modern era to reach the 3,000-hit plateau while playing for the same team. His 3,060 hits are more than 138 current Hall of Famers, including Babe Ruth, Ted Williams, Lou Gehrig, Jimmie Foxx, Mickey Mantle, Joe DiMaggio, Reggie Jackson, Ryne Sandberg, Yogi Berra, Roberto Clemente, Brooks Robinson and Frank Robinson.

Additionally, Biggio is the only player in MLB history to reach all four of the following milestones: 600 doubles, 250 homers, 3,000 hits and 400 stolen bases, and is one of just three players all-time to reach 3,000 hits, 200 homers and 400 steals, joining Hall of Famers Paul Molitor and Rickey Henderson.

BIGGIO: HALL OF FAME

Craig Biggio and Jeff Bagwell

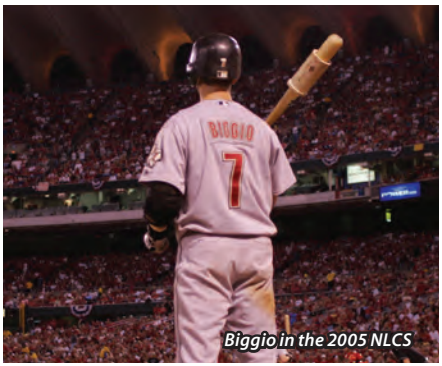

On the Astros all-time lists, Biggio is tops in games, at-bats, hits, runs, doubles, extra-base hits and total bases, ranks second in RBI and stolen bases and third in home runs.

BIGGIO BY THE NUMBERS

- 3,060 career hits rank 21st all-time in MLB history, 11th among RHH in ML history and fifth all-time in NL history among RHH. Is one of just 28 players in ML history to record 3,000 hits.
- Is the only player in MLB history to reach all four of the following milestones: 600 doubles, 250 homers, 3,000 hits and 400 stolen bases.
- Is one of just 14 players in ML history to reach both 3,000 hits and 1,000 extra-base hits. Joins a list that includes: Hank Aaron, Stan Musial, Willie Mays, Carl Yastrzemski, Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, George Brett, Eddie Murray, Dave Winfield, Cal Ripken Jr. and Pete Rose (Biggio is just the second player who was primarily a middle infielder to accomplish this feat, joining Ripken).
- His 668 doubles are a MLB record for a RHH and rank fifth all-time among all hitters.
- Is one of 35 players in ML history to reach 1,000 career extra-base hits.
- 1,844 runs scored ranks 14th in ML history and seventh in NL history.
- Is one of just 10 players in the modern era to reach the 3,000-hit plateau while playing all of his games with the same team.
- In 1998, joined Tris Speaker (HOF) as the only players to collect 50-or-more doubles and 50-or-more stolen bases in the same season.
- His 285 HBPs rank first all-time in modern MLB history. His 53 leadoff home runs are a NL record and rank third all-time in MLB history.
- One of only three players to reach 3,000 hits, 200 homers and 400 steals, joining Hall of Famers Paul Molitor and Rickey Henderson.
- One of eight players all-time with 100 career steals of third base (107).
- One of the most versatile players in ML history: Reached 40+ doubles seven times and 50+ doubles twice; Stole 30+ bases five times; Scored 100+ runs eight times; Reached 20+ home runs eight times.

ACCOLADES

- Five Silver Slugger awards, one as a catcher, four as a second baseman, latter ranks tied for third for the position.
- One of five players to win Silver Slugger award at multiple positions, joining Albert Pujols, Gary Sheffield, Bobby Bonilla and Miguel Cabrera.
- Seven All-Star appearances (voted the starter at second base in four straight seasons, 1995-98).
- Became first player ever to be named an All-Star at both catcher (1991) and second base.
- Four-time Gold Glove winner (ranks T-7th all-time among second basemen).
- Had his No. 7 jersey retired by the Astros on Aug. 17, 2008.
- 2004 inductee into both the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame and the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

The 2015 Hall of Fame Induction Class

THE ASTROS REMEMBER

DAVE BERGMAN: This February, the Astros and the entire baseball community lost former 17-year Major Leaguer Dave Bergman at the age of 61…a native of Evanston Ill., Bergman played four seasons with the Astros (1978-81), and appeared in four games for the Astros in the 1980 National League Championship Series…he spent the majority of his career with the Detroit Tigers (1985-92), where he was a key member of their World Series Championship club in 1984…Bergman was extremely well liked by his friends and teammates, and was a mainstay in the Detroit community following his playing career…Bergman became a central figure in Michigan youth baseball and also served as a board member for the Joe Niekro Foundation, which supports patients and families, research, treatment and awareness of brain aneurysms.

CHRIS DUNCAN: The Texas sports community lost journalist Christopher Duncan on Sept. 8, 2014, at the age of 43…the skilled writer achieved his dream by becoming a sports journalist after studying at Indiana University's distinguished Media School of Journalism, where he also worked as a beat writer for the Indiana Daily Student…after graduating in 1993, Duncan was employed by the Times of Northwest Indiana before moving to the Associated Press, where he would remain for 20 years… Duncan covered the Houston Astros, Rockets and Texans; the 2004 Olympic Games and numerous runnings of the Kentucky Derby; Division I sports programs including Texas A&M, Duke, North Carolina, Louisville and Kentucky; several PGA tournaments and countless other sporting events… he mentored many young journalists, instilling confidence on how to handle any situation, and his rapport and close relationships with athletes, coaches and team management helped him share fascinating stories with sports fans around the world.

ALEX HERO: Tragically, the Astros Media Relations department lost a friend and colleague in Alex Hero, the team's Media Relations intern, who passed away suddenly on Thanksgiving, 2014…although he was only 23 years old, Alex accomplished a great deal…while attending the The Hill School, he was Class President, winner of the Award for Excellence in Leadership and captain of his soccer and baseball teams…a 2014 graduate of Amherst College, Alex helped lead the Amherst baseball team to four record-setting seasons…in November, he applied to the prestigious Columbia Journalism School, to which he no doubt would have been accepted…Alex's life was defined by emotion…he was passionate about sports, fought for fairness and railed against injustice, cherished his many friends and teammates, and, most of all, was lovingly devoted to his father, mother and sister…Alex was an energetic, bright young man who had a constant smile on his face…while his life ended much too soon, we are thankful that we had the opportunity to know him…in a very short period of time, he touched all of us in a profound way… sadly, we must say goodbye to our friend, but we do so realizing that we are all better off having known him.

RUSS KEMMERER: A member of the 1962-63 Colt .45s, Russell Kemmerer passed away on Dec. 8, 2014, in Indianapolis, Ind…Kemmerer pitched in 53 games across his two seasons with the Astros, the last two Major League seasons of his nine-year big league career (1954-63)... after retiring from the game, Kemmerer went on to pastoring, coaching and authoring careers before his passing at the age of 84...Kemmerer's professional career spanned 14 years, in which he spent time with the Boston (1951-57), Washington (1957-60), Chicago-AL (1960-62) and Houston (1962-64) franchises.

GORDY MACKENZIE: On Tuesday, Aug. 12, 2014, the Astros organization lost veteran minor league coach, scout and friend Gordy MacKenzie at the age of 77... MacKenzie first joined the Astros as a minor league instructor (1999-2001) and later returned to the organization as a scout from 2004-08 before joining the Astros Gulf Coast League's coaching staff where he served until 2014...MacKenzie's distinguished career in baseball began in 1956 when he was signed as an amateur free agent by the Kansas City Athletics...MacKenzie, a catcher, made his Major League debut on Aug. 13, 1961, almost 53 years to the day of his passing...this past August, players at every level of the Astros system wore high socks in memory of MacKenzie, who was known throughout the organization for his honesty, straightforward assessment of players, and signature high socks.

WALT MATTHEWS: The Houston Astros lost longtime scout and pillar of the organization Walt Matthews at the age of 79 on April 28, 2014...the Astros observed a moment of silence in memory of Matthews at Minute Maid Park prior to the game the following day...Matthews, a native of Ashdown, Ark., served the organization as a scout, minor league manager and minor league player from 1961-2012, and his 50-plus years of continuous service mark the most in franchise history... Matthews was credited with helping many young players, most notably an 18-year-old Joe Morgan, with whom he played at Durham in 1963...as a result of racial slurs and threats from opposing fans that season, Morgan intended to quit the team, but with Matthews encouragement and support stayed the course and ultimately became one of the most prolific and memorable players in baseball history...after a two-year stint as a manager in Houston's minor league system (1966-67), Matthews was promoted to talent scout in 1967, and during his distinguished career developed a reputation as one of the top scouts in the game...Matthews was seen as larger than life by his peers, as a mentor to many young scouts and as a great friend.

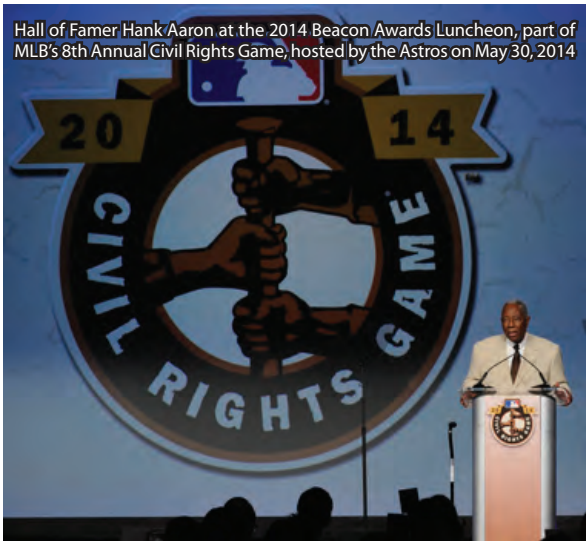

JOE PITTMAN: Last June, the Astros lost former player, scout and Houston native Joe "Shoes" Pittman at the age of 60...those that played with Joe knew him as a fun and enthusiastic individual who brought energy to the ballclub... Pittman was an infielder drafted by the Astros in 1975 and played for the Major League club for two seasons (1981-82)... he also played in the Majors for San Diego (1982) and San Francisco (1984)... he later served as a scout for the Astros from 1988-2003, which included a stint as a minor league instructor in 1996.

ASTROS IN THE COMMUNITY

ASTROS COMMUNITY RELATIONS

OVERVIEW

The Community Relations and Foundation departments manage a wide variety of community and charitable programs. While our community efforts are widespread, our team charity's strategic focus is on serving at-risk youth, supporting inner city youth baseball and honoring members of our nation's military and veterans. For more information on the Astros community programs, please visit www.astros.com/community or www.astros.com/foundation.

ASTROS AUTOGRAPHED ITEMS

The Astros' commitment to our community includes assisting qualified local 501(c)(3) nonprofits with their fundraising efforts through in-kind donations, including autographed items, tickets or ballpark related in-kind experiences. All requests must be made online. Information is available at www.astros.com/community.

ASTROS PLAYER, ALUMNI AND FRONT OFFICE APPEARANCES

Astros players, alumni, owners and executives make a select number of appearances throughout the year. Businesses and groups who wish to request an appearance by an Astros player, alumnus or front office member should complete and submit an appearance application at least four to six weeks prior to the proposed event. The application should include detailed information on the event including specific date, time, exact location of the appearance, how many people will be in attendance and the purpose of the event. The Astros online appearance request forms are available at www.astros.com/community.

On Jackie Robinson Day (April 15), young ballplayers from the Astros Urban Youth Academy took the field with the Astros starting lineup for the National Anthem

THE ASTROS FOUNDATION

The Astros Foundation, the official 501(c)(3) team charity of the Houston Astros, seeks to harness the passion of baseball fans to support youth baseball and softball programs serving at-risk children and teens. Our cornerstone initiatives include the Community Leaders program, the Astros Urban Youth Academy and the Astros RBI and JrRBI programs.

The Astros Foundation also supports our nation's military and honors those who have selflessly served our country. Throughout the season, we work to honor our military members, past and present, and provide opportunities for families of active-duty military members to enjoy a ballgame.

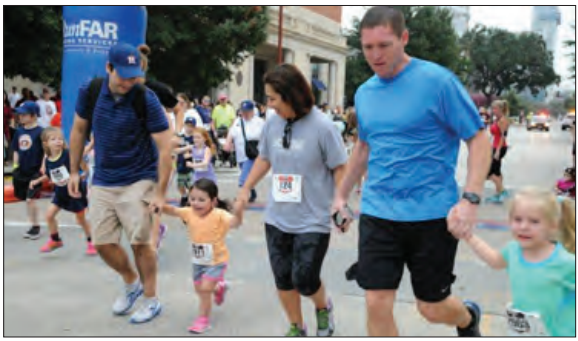

During the 2014 season, the Astros Foundation hosted three events to engage fans, sponsors and the community in order to raise funds for the foundation's cornerstone programs and other key initiatives. Hundreds of Astros fans attended the second annual Picnic in the Park. The sold out event featured an autograph session with 2014 Astros players, a picnic buffet that fans enjoyed on the outfield grass of Minute Maid Park and fun activities for all ages.

The Astros Foundation and the Houston Police Foundation partnered to host the Badges & Bases H-Town Run Down. The 10K, 5K and Kids Fun Run all finished inside the ballpark. All participants and supporters were treated to a special post-race party featuring Houston Police Department displays and equipment, local food trucks and live music.

ASTROS COMMUNITY LEADERS

The Community Leaders program provides newly renovated baseball and softball fields to Houston-area children through an $18 million investment in city-owned public parks over a five-year period. Developed by Astros Owner Jim Crane, the Community Leaders initiative is in collaboration with the City of Houston, local corporations and the Astros Foundation. All renovations and additional safety features are funded by the Community Leaders program at no cost to taxpayers.

To date, 18 fields in seven parks have been renovated with additional refurbishments currently underway. The program also includes year-round field maintenance and currently serves more than 1,200 children. Additional features include player and coaching clinics, complimentary tickets to Astros games, equipment and special visits from Astros players and front office personnel.

The result of these efforts is an immeasurable positive impact throughout the Houston community.

ASTROS URBAN YOUTH ACADEMY
2800 VICTORY DRIVE, HOUSTON, TX 77008

The Astros Urban Youth Academy (UYA) provides free baseball and softball instruction, life skills training and academic support to at-risk youth in Houston. The UYA is home to the Astros Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) and JrRBI programs, baseball and softball summer camps and clinics. Additionally, UYA experienced staff members provide mentoring, leadership development and assistance with the college application process.

Organized in 1989, Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) is a Major League Baseball program that provides young athletes an opportunity to combine athletics and academics. In 2014, the Astros girls softball and senior boys teams advanced to the RBI World Series.

GRAND SLAM FOR YOUTH BASEBALL

The Astros Foundation and Minute Maid partner in a multi-layered initiative designed to bring the benefits of our nation's pastime to the young people of Greater Houston through the Grand Slam for Youth Baseball (GSFYB) program. GSFYB has helped more than 50,000 children and teens through the free youth baseball program, a college scholarship program and educational initiatives at the Astros Urban Youth Academy. ASTROS 2015 CARAVAN AND FANFEST

The 2015 Houston Astros Caravan presented by Academy Sports + Outdoors hit the road on Tuesday, Jan. 20 to connect with Astros fans throughout Houston and central and south Texas. The 14-city community outreach tour gave Astros players, alumni and broadcasters an opportunity to engage with and thank fans for their unwavering support. The Caravan also engaged with local first responders, stopped at several different community centers and visited military facilities. There were also several opportunities for fans to get autographs from Astros players at select Academy Sports + Outdoors stores.

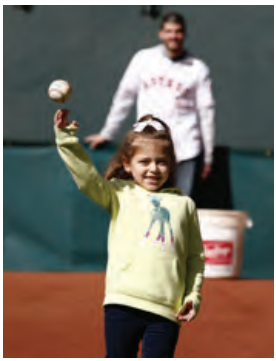

Astros FanFest concluded the week-long Caravan at Minute Maid Park on Saturday, Jan. 24 with activities for all ages including autograph sessions with many current and former players, swings in the Astros batting cages, running the bases, bullpen throwing sessions, an interactive kids zone, fan forums with front office staff as well as current and former players, a vendor expo and mechanical bull riding. Additionally, Houston Methodist conducted a blood drive at Minute Maid Park during the event. The majority of FanFest proceeds benefitted the Astros Foundation's programs for at-risk children and teens.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

2013: Orbit made his triumphant return prior to the 2013 season following a 12-year hiatus after serving as the Astros official mascot during the 1990-1999 seasons. If 2013 proved anything, it was that Orbit didn't rest on his laurels during his 12-year space-cation… he was just winding up! Within the first few months of 2013, Orbit won the inaugural "Mascot Madness" contest by Big League Stew and even scaled the side of the Four Seasons hotel in downtown Houston! Once the season began, Orbit's game day performances received quite a bit of attention, garnering national recognition from ESPN, MLB Network, CBS Sports, and Yahoo! Sports. But Orbit didn't stop there – his Big and Bright Friday Night Fireworks performances became the stuff of legend, paying tribute to everyone from Michael Jackson to the Backstreet Boys. Off the field, Orbit rang in an impressive 275 community appearances in his first year back in Houston, performing at birthday parties, corporate events, community festivals, charity functions, and everything in between! Having solidified his place back home in H-town for good, Orbit turned his sights to 2014…

NOTES

- HE'S KIND OF A BIG DEAL: Orbit was named the 2014 Best Mascot by GameOps.com… Orbit was the only mascot selected by MLB to tour Japan during the 2014 MLB Japan All-Star Series.
- Favorite foods: Moon Pies, astronaut ice cream, BBQ and breakfast tacos
- Favorite movies: E.T., Men in Black, Star Wars
- Favorite book: The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy
- Favorite colors: Blue and orange… and green
- Favorite dance move: The moonwalk
- Likes: Hugs, high fives, stars and Astros fans
- Dislikes: Black holes, evil emperors

2014: As successful as Orbit's inaugural season was, it proved to be nothing more than batting practice for what became known as the "Season of Orbit" by MLB.com. Orbit kicked off 2014 with a high-profile by participating in the BP MS 150, a 180-mile bike ride from Houston to Austin hosted by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. On the field, Orbit's humorous routines included interaction with several of MLB's top players, including All-Stars Jose Bautista, Adrian Beltre and Mike Trout as well as Major Leaguers Coco Crisp and David Ortiz. These creative stunts earned him numerous appearances and mentions on several national media outlets, including ESPN, Fox Sports and MTV. Orbit's hijinks eventually caught the attention of SportsCenter, who put in the call to have Orbit star in his very first "This Is SportsCenter" commercial. As if the national exposure wasn't enough, soon Orbit took his act across the globe, being selected as the only mascot to represent Major League Baseball's All-Star team in the 2014 Japan All-Star Series, a seven-game, 12-day trip to Japan in November which stopped in Osaka, Tokyo, Sapporo and Okinawa. Orbit was soon recognized for his efforts both on and off the field, being nominated twice for the Greatness in Baseball Yearly Awards (GIBBYs) by MLB.com and eventually being named the 2014 Best Mascot by GameOps.com, becoming the first MLB mascot to win the award in its 14-year history among all professional and collegiate sports leagues in North America. Having now caught the attention of baseball fans around the world, Orbit is looking forward to bringing even more signature shenanigans and hilarious hijinks in 2015 and for many light-years to come!

JIM CRANE

OWNER & CHAIRMAN

Jim Crane with legends Reggie Jackson and Nolan Ryan

On Nov. 17, 2011, when Major League Baseball unanimously approved the purchase of the Houston Astros by a group headed by Houston businessman Jim Crane, a new era of Astros baseball began.

As the new Owner and Chairman, Jim Crane hit the ground running upon taking control of the Astros by immediately putting his plan to rebuild the franchise into place. As a highly successful businessman in Houston and former standout college pitcher, Jim has the credentials to make the Astros a winning team both on and off the field.

From the start, Jim has been clear about his goals: to make the Astros a ballclub that can have sustained success at the Major League level by building a top-notch farm system, and to provide Astros fans with an outstanding experience at Minute Maid Park.

As a Houstonian, Jim shares the same passion for the Astros as their fans and is dedicated to bringing those fans the World Series championship they deserve.

The Astros have also supported several of MLB's diversity initiatives under Jim's leadership. In May of 2014, the Astros hosted MLB's eighth annual Civil Rights Game and ancillary activities, a series of events developed by MLB to pay tribute to those who fought for equal rights for all Americans both on and off the field. The Astros also hosted the 2013 Diversity Summit, MLB's sports employment and business opportunity career and trade fair, as well as the 2012 and 2013 Urban Invitational, a nationally-televised collegiate baseball tournament designed to give HBCUs and their baseball programs national exposure. Houston also hosted the 2013 Breakthrough Series, a collegiate and professional scouting showcase featuring a diverse group of some of the top high school players in the country.

The Early Years

Jim hails from St. Louis, Mo. where he became a loyal, spirited fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. As a teenager, he caddied for members of the Cardinals team at local golf clubs and parked cars for patrons at Cardinals games. Jim was impressed by the caring, family atmosphere on the Cardinals team and the team's close ties with the local community. He has carried these values forward throughout his life in business, philanthropic and personal relationships.

Passion for the Game

As a young man, Jim put his innate passion for baseball into action at Central Missouri State University (now the University of Central Missouri), where he was a standout pitcher for the Mules from 1973-76 under the late, revered coach, Robert Tompkins. He had a four-year record of 21-8 with an earned-run average of 2.42, and ranks first in career complete games (23), first in career shutouts (7) and third in career strikeouts (215). Jim still holds the Mules' single-game strikeout record with 18, and in 1997, was inducted into the Central Missouri State University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Jim was the primary underwriter of a $1.2 million renovation in 1998 of the old Mules Field on the University of Central Missouri campus. On Jan. 21, 1998, the facility was renamed the James R. Crane Stadium/Robert N. Tompkins Field in honor of Jim and his beloved coach. Jim continues to contribute to the college annually to provide athletic scholarships for Mules baseball. At the annual NCAA convention in San Diego in January of 2014, Jim served as a keynote speaker and was also honored as a member of the NCAA 40th Anniversary Tribute Team for Division II athletes.

Jim earned a Bachelor of Science degree in industrial safety from Central Missouri State University in 1976. This led to a loss-control job evaluating commercial risks for an insurance company and then a move to Houston in 1982, where he entered the freight forwarding business.

Success in the Business World

In March of 1984, at the age of 30 and with $10,000 borrowed from his sister, Jim founded Eagle USA Airfreight (EGL, Inc.). In his first office located in Houston with a sole employee, Jim handled the loading and trucking himself. The company made money in its first month, and Jim ultimately built it into an organization of more than 10,000 employees with 400-plus facilities in 139 countries. EGL was named one of Houston's "Best Places to Work," and reached No. 599 on the Fortune 1000 list during Jim's tenure. Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. The company was acquired in an LBO transaction in August 2007.

In August of 2008, Crane formed Crane Worldwide Logistics (CWL), a premier global provider of customized transportation and logistics services. CWL continues to grow rapidly with experienced members of Crane's management team and sales force at the helm.

Jim is the owner of Champion Energy Services, which ranks in the top five nonutility-affiliated retail electric providers in the United States and among the top 20 retail electricity companies in the nation and is also CEO and President of Crane Capital Group, Inc.

Jim's love of baseball is unabated, and he has added the game of golf to his athletic endeavors. He acquired the Floridian, a private golf resort in Palm City, Fla. in 2010.

Giving Back

As Astros Owner and Chairman, Jim has embraced the opportunity to give back to the City of Houston and beyond. One of his first initiatives was the creation of the Astros Community Leaders program, which is a collaboration between the Houston Astros, Houston-based corporations, the City of Houston, Mayor Annise Parker and the Houston Parks and Recreation Department. This ambitious endeavor will contribute approximately $18 million to the city over a five year period to refurbish youth baseball and softball fields in disadvantaged neighborhoods throughout the city. Additional features include player and coaching clinics, complimentary tickets to Astros home games, equipment and special visits from Astros players and front office personnel. As of early 2015, 18 different fields have opened at Diez, Sunnyside, Moody, Ingrando, Melrose, Hidalgo and Denver Harbor Parks as part of the Community Leaders program.

Jim personally developed the Community Leaders program, which offers corporations the opportunity to partner with the Astros and the Astros Foundation to become part of a team that will improve several city neighborhoods through the game of baseball.

"Baseball was very important to my own development," Jim said. "Playing baseball made me a lot more confident and comfortable in my ability to achieve things. I'd like to be able to help more kids get the opportunities I had through baseball."

REID RYAN

PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Reid Ryan enters his second full season with the Astros after being named the club's President of Business Operations on May 17, 2013. Reid, 43, is one of the youngest team presidents in the game and brings enthusiasm and energy to the organization, while also providing a wealth of experience working in professional baseball.

From day one, Reid has emphasized the importance of the fan experience and has made it a personal mission to openly engage with the Astros fan base. At nearly every home game, Reid can be found in the stands, speaking with Astros fans on a personal level. Within a few weeks of starting his new position and making his rounds through the ballpark, Reid used that fan feedback to make some changes. He followed up on a specific request to have the ballpark opened earlier in order to give fans access to Astros batting practice, which is now stadium policy. Whether he's in the ballpark on game days or on the Community Leaders ball fields participating in youth baseball and softball clinics with local at-risk children and teens, Reid takes pride in being an active member of the Houston community.

Before joining the Astros, Reid was the founder and CEO of both the Corpus Christi Hooks and the Round Rock Express minor league franchises, both of which are perennially lauded as two of the top franchises in minor league attendance, stadium satisfaction and franchise value. Shortly after coming on board in Houston, Reid continued to affect positive change by bringing the Corpus Christi Hooks into the fold as an owned and operated affiliate of the Houston Astros. The Round Rock Express remains the Triple A affiliate of the Texas Rangers.

Reid's history with Texas baseball goes back decades. During the 1980s, Reid was a bat boy for the Astros while his father and Hall of Famer Nolan was an All-Star pitcher in the Astrodome. He later pitched at the University of Texas and TCU, playing a part in two Southwest Conference Titles (Texas '91, TCU '94). Reid went on to pitch in the minor leagues for two seasons (1994-95) in the Rangers system after being selected in the 17th round of the June 1994 Draft.

Reid with his father, Nolan Ryan

A long-time respected member of minor league baseball's leadership group, Reid has maintained his ownership interests in the Pacific Coast League's Round Rock Express. He currently serves as the Texas League (Corpus Christi Hooks) Board of Trustees representative and is the Finance Chairman for minor league baseball.

Reid is involved in several other business ventures including R Bank, a Texas-based community bank chartered in Round Rock, Texas, for which he serves as a founding board member and organizer. Reid is an active member in the Houston chapter of Young Presidents Organization and a member of Second Baptist Church Houston. His passions include spending time coaching and watching his kids play youth sports. He and his wife Nicole are the proud parents of one son, Jackson (15), and two daughters, Victoria (13) and Ella (10). The Ryan family lives in Houston.

JEFF LUHNOW

GENERAL MANAGER

Jeff Luhnow was named the 12th General Manager in Astros franchise history on Dec. 7, 2011. Since Luhnow took over the baseball operations functions, the Astros player pipeline has become one of the best in the industry and the results are beginning to take root at the Major League level.

In 2014, the Houston Astros team finished with 19 more victories than in 2013, the second largest season-over-season improvement in franchise history and the second highest in MLB in 2014. Luhnow signed Scott Feldman and acquired Collin McHugh prior to the 2014 season and these two pitchers, along with farm system product Dallas Keuchel, helped turn the starting rotation from a weakness in 2013 into a strength in 2014. Acquired via trade in 2013 by Luhnow, Chris Carter slugged 37 home runs and led an offense that finished with the third most home runs in the AL. Jose Altuve, signed to a long-term extension by Luhnow during the 2013 season, had a career year which resulted in the first batting title in franchise history to compliment an AL stolen base title. The bright spots in the 2014 bullpen were Luhnow's acquisitions of Chad Qualls, Tony Sipp, Josh Fields and Kevin Chapman that should all play important roles in 2015 and beyond.

To build on this improvement and get back to Houston's winning ways, Luhnow and his front office team have made several acquisitions to bolster a young and promising core of players this offseason. Luke Gregerson (originally drafted by Luhnow in St. Louis) and 2014 All-Star Pat Neshek provide quality arms and veteran leadership to the back end of the bullpen. Jed Lowrie (acquired by Luhnow in 2011 and traded in 2013) returns to add offense and leadership to the infield. Catcher Hank Conger was acquired via trade with the Angels and should help the club both defensively and offensively.

The Astros pipeline of young players has been improving since Luhnow's arrival and is now considered among the best in baseball. Top prospects brought in via trade by Luhnow include Josh Hader, Colin Moran, Max Stassi, Asher Wojciechowski, Alex White, Kyle Smith and Gonzalo Sanudo. Top prospects drafted under Luhnow's watch include Carlos Correa, Mark Appel, Brett Phillips, and Tony Kemp among others.

Luhnow spent eight years with the St. Louis Cardinals prior to joining the Astros as Vice President of Baseball Development (2003-2005), Vice President of Player Procurement (2005), and Vice President of Scouting and Player Development (2006-2011). During much of his time with the Cardinals, he oversaw the scouting, international, and player development functions of the club that brought in many players instrumental to the 2011 World Series victory, the 2012 NLCS team and the 2013 World Series team. Of the 25 players on the Cardinals 2013 World Series roster, 16 were drafted while Luhnow oversaw player development and scouting.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Jeff founded Archetype Solutions, where he served as President and COO. His background also includes stints as General Manager and Vice President of Marketing at Petstore.com, and five years with the global management consulting firm of McKinsey and Company.

Jeff is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania with dual Bachelor of Science degrees in economics and engineering. He also earned his MBA from Kellogg Graduate School of Management at Northwestern University. Jeff is a U.S. citizen, but was born and spent more than 15 years in Mexico City, Mexico, and is fluent in Spanish.

He and his wife, Gina, reside in Houston. Jeff has three children, Elizabeth, Jeffrey and newest addition Henry.

NOLAN RYAN

EXECUTIVE ADVISOR

Nolan Ryan, one of the most decorated pitchers in Major League Baseball history, enters his second season with the Astros organization as the club's Executive Advisor. In his current role, Nolan serves as an advisor to Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane, General Manager Jeff Luhnow and his son, President of Business Operations Reid Ryan. Nolan brings over 45 seasons of baseball experience as a player and executive to the ballclub.

Throughout his storied career, Nolan has achieved success in baseball both on and off the field. As a pitcher, he was one of the best ever, tallying 324 career wins in his Major League record 27-year career while establishing all-time records in strikeouts (5,714) and no-hitters with seven (also threw 12 one-hitters). A native of nearby Alvin, Texas, Nolan signed with the Astros prior to the 1980 season and would pitch for nine seasons (1980-88) in Houston, his most for any club. Prior to his arrival, the Astros had not made the postseason in their history. However, in his nine seasons, Houston made the playoffs three times (1980, 1981, 1986), falling just shy of the NL Pennant in both 1980 and 1986. On July 25, 1999, Ryan was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in what was his first year of eligibility.

After retiring as a player following the 1993 season, Ryan worked in the Texas Rangers front office before returning to the Astros front office in February 2004. In his four years as Special Assistant to the General Manager, he assisted the baseball operations staff in a variety of areas on the Major and minor league levels. In his first two seasons back with Houston, the Astros enjoyed great success, falling one game shy of winning the NL Pennant in 2004 before capturing the pennant in 2005 to become the first team from Texas ever to play in a World Series.

Most recently, Nolan served as CEO and President of the Texas Rangers and was part of the team's ownership group. He oversaw baseball and business operations for the franchise and was a member of the Board of Directors. Under Nolan's leadership, the Rangers had the highest per-game attendance increase in the Majors from 2008 to 2009 and the third largest increase from 2009 to 2010. The club established single-season home attendance records in 2011 and 2012, surpassing the 3 million mark for the first time in franchise history in 2012. His influence on baseball operations helped the Rangers to three consecutive postseason appearances, including consecutive American League championships in 2010 and 2011.

Nolan compiled a career 324-292 record with a 3.19 ERA in 807 appearances in an unprecedented 27 seasons with the New York Mets (1966; 1968-71), California Angels (1972-79), Astros (1980-88), and Rangers (1989-93). The eight-time All-Star owned or shared 53 Major League records. He is fifth in lifetime innings (5387.0), tied for seventh in shutouts (61), and tied for 13th in victories while his 773 starts are second only to Cy Young (815).

In his nine seasons with the Astros, Nolan posted a 106-94 record with a 3.13 ERA in 1854.2 innings over his 282 starts. He holds the franchise records for career strikeouts in an Astros uniform (1,866) and ERA in a single season (1.69 in 1981). He represented Houston in the All-Star Game twice (1981, 1985) and also clinched both of his NL pitching titles in an Astros uniform (1981, 1987). The club retired his number, 34, in 1996.

Off the field, The Nolan Ryan Foundation built the Nolan Ryan Center for Continuing Education at Alvin Community College, a facility which opened in 1996. He also sponsors the Nolan Ryan Scholarship Fund at Alvin Community College.

Nolan and his wife, Ruth, were married on June 26, 1967, and have three children: Robert Reid (11/21/71), Nolan Reese (1/21/76), and Wendy Lynn (3/22/77). Nolan and Ruth have seven grandchildren.

Nolan was born on Jan. 31, 1947, in Refugio, Texas. His family moved to Alvin when he was six weeks old, and he remained an Alvin resident until 2003, when the Ryans moved to Georgetown.

ASTROS FRONT OFFICE

DAVID STEARNS

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

The 2015 season will mark David Stearns' third with the Houston Astros. In his current role, David, 30, assists General Manager Jeff Luhnow in all baseball operations capacities including player evaluations, player transactions, and contract negotiations and helps oversee the Astros' scouting, player development, and analytics departments.

Prior to joining the Astros, David served as the Director of Baseball Operations for the Cleveland Indians from 2011-2012. Stearns spent 2008-11 working in the MLB Office of the Commissioner, where he most recently held the position of Manager, Labor Relations. In that role, he assisted in the salary arbitration process, handling uniform player contracts and was a member of MLB's negotiating team for the recently completed Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Before joining the MLB Central Office, David worked in the Baseball Operations Departments of the New York Mets, Pittsburgh Pirates and the Arizona Fall League. He is a 2007 graduate of Harvard University.

JAY EDMISTON

DIRECTOR, FLORIDA OPERATIONS

Jay Edmiston began his career with the Houston Astros in 1986 as a batboy, and continues his tenure with the organization as the Director of Florida Operations in 2015. Jay's responsibilities include coordination of player and staff travel to and from affiliate clubs, management of clubhouse operation for all Florida programs, coordination of player and staff housing for all Florida programs and complex security, among other duties.

Jay has served the Astros organization in several different capacities over the years, including as Assistant Director of Baseball Operations (2005-2009), Minor League Administrator (2002-2005), General Manager of the Martinsville Astros (2001-2002) and GM of the Kissimmee Cobras (1999-2000). Prior to those positions, Jay assisted in the clubhouse and served as an equipment manager.

MIKE ELIAS

DIRECTOR, AMATEUR SCOUTING

Mike Elias joined the Astros in January 2012 as a special assistant to General Manager Jeff Luhnow, and in August of that year, was named Director of Amateur Scouting. As one of the organization's key talent evaluators, Mike has contributed significantly to the acquisition of young talent that has accelerated during Luhnow's tenure. His involvement and leadership in the organization's amateur draft efforts have helped to rapidly elevate the Astros' talent pipeline to one of the very best in baseball. Mike also periodically assists in the club's professional and international scouting operations.

Mike, 32, began his scouting career with the St. Louis Cardinals in 2007 as an area scout and was promoted to Manager of Amateur Scouting in 2010. While with the Cardinals, he signed and scouted several Major League players and contributed to the development of a scouting department and draft process that supported one of baseball's top farm systems.

Mike is a graduate of Yale University, where he was a left-handed pitcher on the varsity baseball team, earning four letters. He and his wife, Alexandra, reside in Houston.

KEVIN GOLDSTEIN

DIRECTOR, PRO SCOUTING

Kevin Goldstein joined the Astros on Aug. 31, 2012 and was named Director of Pro Scouting in January 2014.

Kevin oversees the Astros pro scouting efforts, which includes comprehensive scouting of both minor league and Major League players across the 30 MLB clubs as well as independent leagues and foreign professional leagues.

In addition to his duties in pro scouting, Kevin also assists in both international and amateur scouting efforts, while consulting with the baseball operations staff on both free agent signings and potential trades.

Prior to joining the Astros, Kevin developed a reputation as one of the top specialists in scouting and player development for several years as a national writer for Baseball Prospectus and ESPN.

Kevin resides in Dekalb, Ill., with his partner Margaret and children Cameron (20) and Xander (23). He is an active supporter of animal causes, and owns four rescued pets with a dog and three cats.

QUINTON MCCRACKEN

DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Quinton McCracken was named Astros Director of Player Development on Oct. 19, 2012, and enters his third full season with the Houston club.

McCracken oversaw another solid year developmentally across all of the Astros affiliate clubs in 2014. Two teams, the Class A Advanced Lancaster JetHawks and Class A Short Season Tri-City ValleyCats made postseason play, with Lancaster winning the 2014 California League Championship and Tri-City finishing second in the New York-Penn League, losing in the NYPL Championship Series.

Quinton, 44, spent two seasons working in the Arizona Diamondbacks front office as their Assistant Director of Player Development. In that role, he worked with all aspects of Arizona's minor league system and served as a liaison between the Major League club and their minor league affiliates.

Quinton enjoyed a 12-year Major League playing career (1995-2006) as a speedy outfielder, which included stints with the Rockies, Devil Rays, Twins, D-backs, Mariners and Reds. In 999 Major League games, he hit .274 with 21 home runs, 244 RBI and 89 stolen bases.

Quinton was a 25th-round selection out of Duke University in the 1992 June draft. While at Duke, he starred in baseball while earning his degree in political science and history.

He and his wife, Maggie, reside in Houston with their son, Isaiah.

DIRECTOR, DECISION SCIENCES

Sig Mejdal was named the Director of Decision Sciences for the Houston Astros on Jan. 3, 2012. In his role, Sig helps the Baseball Operations Department evaluate players by reading and extracting various forms of data from scouting reports, medical reports, minor league statistics, and other information.

Prior to joining the Astros, Sig worked for the St. Louis Cardinals from 2005-11, most recently as Director of Amateur Draft Analytics. During his time with St. Louis, Sig was involved with modeling, analysis, and data-driven decision making throughout all levels of the organization. He was a key contributor in the draft decision processes that led to the selection of more Major League players than any other organization during that time frame.

Earlier in his career, Sig worked at Lockheed Martin in California and for NASA. He earned two engineering degrees at the University of California at Davis and later completed advanced degrees in Operations Research and Cognitive Psychology/Human Factors at San Jose State University.

Sig, who currently resides in Houston, has been active in baseball statistics and analytics since earning his membership in the Society for Baseball Research (SABR) while in grade school.

OZ OCAMPO

DIRECTOR, INTERNATIONAL

Oz Ocampo joined the Astros organization in August 2012 and begins his third season as the Director of International. Oz oversees all aspects of the international program, including player signings, scouting, player development, and day-to-day operations, while also assisting in building the Houston Astros brand worldwide.

Some of the notable international Astros players signed under his tenure include RHP Franklin Perez, RHP Albert Abreu, LHP Junior Garcia, 3B Wander Franco, SS Miguelangel Sierra, SS Wilson Amador, SS Joan Mauricio, and SS/CF Osvaldo Duarte.

Oz, 31, has several years of experience working in baseball operations in the United States and internationally, starting in 2004 as an intern for the Major League Baseball office in the Dominican Republic. With the St. Louis Cardinals organization, Oz held a number of roles as the Dominican Academy Administrator and Coordinator of Latin American Scouting (2005-2007), Manager of Amateur Scouting and Midwest Area Scout (2007-2008), and Coordinator of International Player Development (2009). After graduating from business school, Oz returned to the Major League Baseball Commissioner's Office, where he most recently held the position of Specialist, International Baseball Operations.

Oz received a bachelor's degree from Georgetown University and an MBA from Columbia Business School. He is fluent in Spanish and semi-conversational in Tagalog and Portuguese.

Oz and his wife, Adrivel, reside in New York, NY.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE G.M.

Newly elected Hall of Famer and longtime Astros icon Craig Biggio is in his eighth season as a special assistant to the General Manager. In this role, Craig works in several areas, including with the baseball operations staff in its Major and minor league player development programs with special emphasis on instruction, the amateur draft and scouting, and Major and minor league talent evaluation. Additionally, Craig participates in the club's community development program.

On Jan. 6, Craig Biggio became the first player in Astros history to earn induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame after receiving 82.7 percent of the total votes from the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

The franchise career leader in hits, games played, runs scored, and at-bats, Craig retired at the end of the 2007 season following a stellar, 20-year career, all with the Astros. His No. 7 was retired by the ballclub on Aug. 17, 2008.

He finished his career with 3,060 hits, 668 doubles, 291 home runs, 1,175 runs batted in, and a .281 career average in 2,850 games played. He remains the franchise leader in several categories, including hits, doubles, games played and runs scored (1844).

A first-round selection by Houston in the June 1987 draft, Craig became the first Astro to reach the 3,000-hit plateau with a seventh-inning single against Colorado's Aaron Cook on June 28, 2007 at Minute Maid Park. His 3,060 hits rank 20th all-time, and his 668 career doubles are the most of any right-handed hitter in Major League history and rank fifth all-time.

Craig's 20 seasons with Houston are a franchise record, and he also made a club-best 19 consecutive Opening Day starts. He is also the only player in Major League history to reach all of the following milestones: 600 doubles (668), 250 home runs (291), 2,700 hits (3,060), and 400 stolen bases (414). Craig and Cal Ripken Jr. are the only middle infielders (only 13 players all-time) to collect 3,000 hits and 1,000 extra-base hits.

Craig was named to a franchise-record seven National League All-Star teams, received five Silver Slugger Awards, four Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and was a member of six Astros playoff teams. Craig holds National League records for leadoff home runs with 53 (ranks second all-time) and for hits in interleague play with 201. He also led all players during the 2005 postseason with 18 hits.

Additionally, Craig was the 2007 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, a prestigious honor bestowed upon one Major League player each season by Major League Baseball and the Clemente family recognizing community service. Craig has been actively involved with the Sunshine Kids throughout his career, a support organization for children with cancer and their families.

Craig and wife Patty reside in Houston and have two sons, Conor and Cavan, and one daughter, Quinn. In 2010, Craig coached his sons' St. Thomas High School baseball team to the Texas Class 5A state championship. Both Conor, a senior outfielder, and Cavan, a sophomore infielder, play for the University of Notre Dame.

ASTROS FRONT OFFICE

ENOS CABELL

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE G.M.

Enos Cabell is in his 11th season as a special assistant to the General Manager after being named to the post on Nov. 17, 2004. He had been serving as a consultant since joining the Astros front office on July 29, 2004. Enos assists General Manager Jeff Luhnow and the Astros scouting department in evaluating the Astros Major and minor league players, along with other projects and assignments within the scouting area.

During his 15-year Major League playing career, Enos played for the Astros from 1975-80 and 1984-85 and is in the top 10 in franchise history in several categories. In 1978, he was named the team's MVP after setting club records in at-bats (660) and games (162) and tallying a then-record 195 hits, which ranked third in the National League. He currently ranks tied for eighth on the club's all-time list in stolen bases (191) and tied for sixth in career batting average (.281).

Enos stole more than 30 bases for four straight seasons (1976-1979) while with Houston. In 1,688 career big league games from 1972-86, he hit .277 (1647x5952) with 60 home runs and 596 RBI. He started 149 games at third base for the 1980 National League West Champion Astros and played on two other division-winning clubs, the 1974 Baltimore Orioles and the 1985 Los Angeles Dodgers.

From 1991-94, Enos provided analysis on Home Sports Entertainment telecasts of Astros home games and from 1991-96, he hosted the weekly call-in show, Astros Report, on KCOH Radio. He was a member of the Texas Southern University's Board of Regents from 1995-2001 and served as interim athletic director for the school in 2000.

Enos is a graduate of L.A. Harbor Junior College in San Pedro, Calif., where he was an all-conference selection in baseball. He is a cousin of former Major Leaguers Dick Davis and Ken Landreaux. He and his wife, Ruby, make their home in Missouri City, Texas. Enos has three sons, Marcus, Stephen and Cordell.

ROGER CLEMENS

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE G.M.

The 2015 season is Roger Clemens' third as a special assistant to the General Manager for the Astros. In his current role, Roger works with Astros pitchers on both the Major League and minor league levels, providing instruction and player evaluation. He will spend time in uniform during Spring Training in the Astros Major League and minor league camps.

The Rocket was one of the best pitchers in Major League history during an outstanding 24-year career, which included a record seven Cy Young Awards, two World Series Championships, 11 All-Star nods, and two pitching triple crowns. His 354 career wins rank ninth all-time while his 4,672 strikeouts are third all-time. He also hurled 46 shutouts and 118 complete games while posting a 3.12 ERA.

Roger came out of retirement to play for Houston, his adopted hometown, from 2004-2006. During his two and a half seasons with the Astros, he collected his seventh Cy Young Award, won the 2005 NL ERA title, and helped take the Astros to their first-ever World Series. In 2004, at the age of 42, Roger became the oldest pitcher in MLB history to win the Cy Young Award, the seventh of his career, after posting an 18-4 record with a 2.98 ERA.

His 2005 season was one of the best of his 24-season career; he posted a 1.87 ERA, the lowest in the Major Leagues that year as well as of his entire career, and was named to the 2005 NL All-Star team. On Oct. 9 of that year, Roger made his first relief appearance since 1984, entering as a pinch-hitter in the 15th inning of Game 4 of the NLDS versus the Atlanta Braves. That final game of the series was the longest postseason game in MLB history, going 18 innings, and Roger closed it out with three scoreless innings to help move the Astros to the NL Championship Series.

Clemens' career spanned four teams in four cities, including AL rivals the New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox. In his third season with the Red Sox (1986), The Rocket was named AL MVP and All-Star MVP, and earned his first Cy Young Award with a 24-4 record while leading the Red Sox to the AL Pennant. In the two years he spent with the Toronto Blue Jays (1996-97), he won two pitching triple crowns (most wins, lowest ERA, and most strikeouts) as well as two more Cy Young Awards. Roger spent the following four years with the Yankees, and in 1999 and 2000, helped them to two World Series Championships. In 2003, Roger clinched his 300th win and his 4,000th strikeout in the same game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals. In 1999, he was named to the Major League Baseball All-Century team after collecting over 600,000 of the fan votes, and was one of only four players active at the time.

Roger and his wife, Debra, live in Houston and have four sons: Koby, Kory, Kacy, and Kody.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

2015 marks Allen Rowin's ninth season with the Houston Astros organization, and his third season serving as the Assistant Director of Player Development.

Allen directs the development and implementation of the Astros organization's Player Development curriculum, and plays a lead role in the active roster management of Astros' nine minor league teams. He is directly involved in minor league player contract negotiations and all related player support activities. Allen's other responsibilities include supporting the Latin American scouting staff, Dominican Republic complex operations, and the domestic and international player development staff. He also oversees immigration matters for the Astros organization.

Allen earned his MBA in Sports Business Management at San Diego State University in 2006, after graduating from the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) with Bachelor's Degrees in Spanish and political science. He is fluent in Spanish, and studied at the University of Granada in Spain for a year through UCLA. Allen first joined Major League Baseball as a Community Relations Intern for the San Diego Padres in 2006. In 2007, he joined the Astros organization, and his many contributions in baseball operations have included overseeing the building of the Astros' Dominican Republic baseball complex that opened in 2010.

A native of San Diego, Allen currently resides in Houston with his wife Maura. He is an active member of the Houston community, and supporter of the Big Brothers, Big Sisters organization.

MIKE FAST

ANALYST, BASEBALL DEVELOPMENT

Mike Fast joined the Astros organization on Feb. 1, 2012. In his role within the Decision Sciences department, he develops information systems for baseball operations and helps apply these systems to player evaluations and player transactions. He also supports the Major League coaching staff, player development, and scouting staff with information and analysis.

Prior to joining the Astros, Mike was an author for Baseball Prospectus, where he developed a large following and a reputation as a statistical expert, conducting several unique, in-depth studies. He was previously an author for The Hardball Times and MVN.com.

Mike also worked for 17 years as a semiconductor engineer, most recently with Advanced Micro Devices. A graduate of the University of Oklahoma with a degree in engineering physics, Mike and his wife, Lori, reside in Kingwood, Texas with their four children.

DAN O'NEILL

MANAGER, TEAM OPERATIONS

The 2015 season will be Dan O'Neill's third as the Astros Manager of Team Operations, a position to which he was named in November of 2012. Dan is responsible for Major League team operations, including travel and team services. He also oversees the Astros Clubhouse, Video, Florida Operations and Advance Information departments.

Previously, Dan spent seven years in the hedge fund industry with Mesirow Advanced Strategies, Inc., a global multi-strategy hedge fund of funds, and as partner and Chief Operating Officer of Oak Street Capital Management, LLC, a long/short equity hedge fund, in Chicago, Ill. Dan holds a B.A. from the University of Illinois and an MBA from the University of Chicago Graduate School of Business. He was a four-year varsity letter winner for the Fighting Illini baseball team as an outfielder and was named First-Team All-Big Ten in 1998. He was selected by Philadelphia in the 1999 Major League June draft and played two seasons in the Phillies minor league system.

A native of Champaign, Ill., Dan currently resides in The Woodlands, Texas, with his wife, Jillian, and four children Cali (10), Caden (7), Declan (5) and Emma (5).

MARCEL BRAITHWAITE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Marcel Braithwaite, who joined the Astros on Nov. 30, 2012, enters his third full season with the ballclub. As the Senior Vice President of Business Operations, Marcel runs the operational side of the organization. He oversees eight different departments, including IT, Stadium Operations and Engineering, Safety and Security, Event Services, Guest Services, Aramark, Merchandising and Retail Operations, and Procurement. As an operator that likes to roll up his sleeves, Marcel is involved in the daily meetings and coordination of each department and manages the Aramark contract and partnership in a similar, hands-on fashion.

Marcel began his career in the logistics industry as a driver with Aeronet Worldwide in 1993, and finished his tenure as Operations Manager. He then joined Eagle Global Logistics in 1995 as an operations agent. Over the course of his career, Marcel worked his way up to senior leadership positions, most recently in the role of Vice President of the Program Management Office, Americas for CEVA Logistics. In that position, he managed the shared services group responsible for third party vendor services to the company, as well as large scale strategic and transformational projects throughout the Americas driving shareholder value.

Born in the Netherlands, Marcel is fluent in Dutch and has lived all over North America, including in Canada, Seattle, southern California and now Texas.

MATT BRAND

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

Matt Brand joined the Houston Astros organization in 2011. In his role as Senior Vice President of Corporate Partnerships, Matt and his team work closely with key corporate partners to develop innovative advertising and marketing solutions, specifically focusing on how corporations can activate their brands most effectively. Matt also leads the business development team for Special Events at Minute Maid Park and the adjoining conference center.

Prior to coming on board with the Astros, Matt spent 25 years in the supply chain industry, holding various executive sales leadership positions specializing in the retail, automotive, and energy sectors. While with Eagle Global Logistics, he served as Vice President of Sales for Asia-Pacific, living in both Hong Kong and Singapore.

Matt currently serves on the board of the Make-A-Wish Foundation for the Texas and Gulf Coast Region and the Baylor Sports Management Advisory Board. Matt also served on the General Motors (GM) Supplier's Council and was a member of the Petroleum Equipment Suppliers Association (PESA).

Matt was raised in Selah, Wash., and played baseball at both Yakima Valley Community College and at Lewis & Clark State College.

He and his wife, Casey, have two sons, Josh and Jake, and make their home in Houston.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE

Jonathan joined the Astros in April 2004 and enters his second season as Senior Vice President of Finance. In his role, Jonathan oversees the financial operation of the organization and meets with the Club's Board of Directors on a quarterly basis to discuss financial results and organizational strategy. During his tenure, Jonathan has been involved with several organizational initiatives which include technology system implementations, contract negotiations, stadium construction projects and most recently the Astros Bowling for Bright Futures project. This charitable campaign raised over $20,000 for Programa de Apoyo Comunitario Futuro Vivo, an organization in the Dominican Republic that helps local children gain access to an education.

Prior to joining the Astros, Jonathan spent five years with the National Hockey League headquarters based in New York City. During his tenure at the NHL, Jonathan was involved in several league endeavors including five All-Star games, the NHL's participation in the 2002 Olympic Games, several international exhibition games as well as the planning and support for the 2004 World Cup of Hockey. Jonathan was also an active member of the NHL's Diversity Task Force.

Jonathan is a Certified Public Accountant and gained experience in public accounting as an auditor for Deloitte & Touche in Chicago, Ill. He earned his undergraduate degree in sports management from Springfield College and his MBA from Northeastern University.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BROADCASTING & ALUMNI RELATIONS

The 2015 season is Jamie Hildreth's 29th with the Astros franchise.

A 40-plus-year veteran of Houston radio, Jamie was named Senior Vice President of Broadcasting and Alumni Relations in January 2014. In this role, Jamie provides leadership on the Houston Astros affiliate relations efforts, with emphasis on outreach and expansion of the network's scope, establishing and maintaining effective relationships with key broadcast partners and overseeing radio and television broadcasts including all ancillary programming. Jamie will also develop and direct all Astros alumni programs and initiatives to cultivate greater historical ties with the organization, as well as remain the primary Astros contact for several key corporate partner accounts.

Jamie was previously named to the post of SVP of Premium Sponsorships in May of 2007, where he was responsible for the management of the Astros premium accounts. He also served as Vice President of Sales and Broadcasting in 1999 and was the Astros Director of Broadcasting starting in July of 1987.

Jamie's radio career in Houston has spanned roles from sales to management, including sales manager of KTRH Radio from 1984-87 before joining the Astros. He was also the general manager of KTRM/KALO in Beaumont, Texas, and was sales manager of 104 KRBE in Houston from 1972-78. Jamie received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Houston with a major in radio and television.

ASTROS FRONT OFFICE

JASON HOWARD

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, TICKET SALES & STRATEGY

Jason Howard enters his fourth season with the Houston Astros in 2015. In his position as Senior Vice President of Ticket Sales and Strategy, Jason oversees all ticket sales, service, and operations efforts as well as the business strategy and analytics departments for the club.

Driven by the organization's vision to better serve Season Ticket Holders and grow the fan base, Jason has led an expansion that tripled the number of relationship-based ticket sales and service representatives since his arrival as Vice President of Ticket Sales & Services just after Opening Day in 2012. Additionally, Jason helped implement the organization's increase in fan surveys, panels, and other feedback channels to ensure better communication, perspective, and relationships between the fan base and the club. These efforts have shown early returns as the 2013 season represented the first year-over-year growth in Season Ticket base and total attendance since the 2006-2007 seasons following the Astros' World Series appearance.

Jason joined the Astros from the Arizona Diamondbacks, where he most recently served as the organization's Vice President of Business Development from 2010-12. In that position, Jason was responsible for creating, teaching, improving and managing revenue generating tactics across the Corporate Partnerships, Marketing, Community Affairs, Baseball Outreach and Spring Training departments while continuing to oversee the club's Season Ticket and Inside Sales efforts. Prior to his stint as Vice President with the D-backs, Howard was the Director of Season Ticket and Inside Sales over three seasons as part of the leadership team that oversaw an organization record in new Season Ticket revenue in 2008. In addition, more than 80 percent of the Inside Sales representatives he managed over that period were developed into senior sales and service positions throughout the professional sports industry.

Jason began his career in Indianapolis with Pacers Sports & Entertainment (2004-07), where he got his start in the industry as an Inside Sales representative before being promoted to Season Ticket Account Executive and eventually Manager of Inside Sales for the NBA's Indiana Pacers.

Jason is a 2004 graduate from Cedarville University in Ohio, where he majored in sport management. He and his wife, Mandi, reside in Spring with their daughter, Braelyn, and son, Braxton.

ANITA SEHGAL

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING & COMMUNICATIONS

Anita Sehgal joined the Astros as Senior Vice President, Marketing and Communications in January 2015 and is in her first season with the ballclub. In her current role, Anita oversees all marketing, media and communications functions and provides strategic brand and communication leadership for the ballclub's marketing, media, business, foundation, and community initiatives.

Prior to joining the Houston organization, Anita spent over 20 years in various strategic marketing functions with organizations including FGL Sports, Best Buy and most recently Academy Sports + Outdoors. She joined Academy Sports + Outdoors in Feb. 2009 and served as Senior Vice President, Marketing and Advertising until July 2014. Prior to holding that post, Anita spent four and a half years with Best Buy Canada as Director, Customer Experience. She also spent four years with Canada's largest sporting goods retailer, The Forzani Group, Ltd. as their Director of Marketing.

Anita received a bachelor's degree in business administration with a specialization in marketing and human resources from the University of Regina in Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada.

She is an avid sports fan who embraces the local culture, climate and cuisine wherever she travels or resides.

Anita is also a member of the Sports, Sponsorship, and Sales Advisory Board for Baylor University and an executive committee board member of Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Houston.

TWILA CARTER

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, ASTROS FOUNDATION & COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Twila Carter enters her second season as Executive Director of the Astros Foundation and Community Relations. She made the transition to baseball in 2011 with Jim Crane's purchase of the Astros franchise and has worked with The Crane Group in various capacities since 1998.

Prior to her current role, Twila served as the project manager for many of the recent Minute Maid Park renovations, including the Diamond Club, Union Station, Astros team stores, Astros Clubhouse and the Community Leaders Program. Twila has overseen the development of numerous projects for Crane Capital Group, including the building of the Crane Worldwide headquarters which opened in April of 2012.

Twila has held numerous elected and appointed positions with several service and community organizations. She was named the 2014 Kingwood Women of Achievement for Community Service and received the 2013 State Community Service Award from the Texas Daughters of the American Revolution.

A resident of Kingwood, TX, Twila has two sons, Justin (26) and Travis (24).

GENE DIAS

VICE PRESIDENT, MEDIA RELATIONS

Gene Dias joined the Astros as Media Relations Director in February of 2009 and now enters his second season as Vice President of Media Relations in 2015. Prior to joining the Houston organization, he spent close to 20 years with the Philadelphia Phillies in both Media and Community Relations.

In his current role, Dias oversees all baseball and business-related media relations efforts and leads the Astros communications team in developing strategies for the ballclub's business, marketing, foundation, and community public relations initiatives.

From 1989 to 2008, Dias worked for the Phillies, first as an intern in the ticket sales office before joining the Media Relations staff full-time. After serving as Media Relations Manager, he was promoted to Director of Community Relations in 2000 where he was instrumental in creating a number of community-based programs and events, many of which are still in place today. Gene also helped to grow the club's footprint in the community through increased media coverage and by increasing the dollars raised for the club's charity. He was also successful in increasing the player's community involvement and was a member of the Phillies Charities, Inc. Board of Directors. In 2003, the Phillies received the prestigious Philadelphia Sports Congress Community Service Award for the first time. Prior to joining the Phillies, Dias worked as a sports editor for Associated Newspapers in Stoughton, MA.

Throughout his career in baseball, Gene has worked with Major League Baseball, assisting with the media relations duties at several World Series, League Championship Series and All-Star Games.

Gene received his Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism from the University of Massachusetts where he was a member of the varsity baseball team. He and his wife Kandee live in Kingwood, TX with their two children, son Maxwell (14) and daughter Sydney (9).

MICHAEL DILLON

VICE PRESIDENT, STRATEGY & ANALYTICS

Michael Dillon joined the Astros organization in June of 2012 and now enters his third full season with the ballclub. In his role as VP of Strategy and Analytics, Mike utilizes research and data analytics to develop a deeper understanding of the Astros fan base in order to provide a meaningful fan experience both inside and outside of the ballpark. Mike also works with the Astros Ticketing, Premium Sponsorship, Business Operations and Community Relations departments to optimize revenue and coordinate organization-wide efforts.

Prior to joining the Astros, Mike was a management consultant at Bain & Co., where he worked on a variety of projects in diverse industries, including consumer packaged goods, financial services and technology.

Mike spent his entire academic career at Harvard, where he received his Bachelor of Arts in Government, law degree, and MBA. Originally from Sharon, MA, Mike now resides in the Rice Village area of Houston.

ASTROS FRONT OFFICE

BOBBY FORREST

VICE PRESIDENT, STADIUM OPERATIONS

Bobby Forrest was named the club's Vice President of Stadium Operations in January 2007. He originally joined the Astros franchise on Jan. 2, 1995, as a member of the engineering department. Bobby was subsequently promoted to Engineering Supervisor in 1997, Engineering Manager in 1999, and Senior Director of Engineering and Maintenance in 2003. He is responsible for all building operations, which includes the Engineering, Groundskeeping, Guest Services and Security and Parking departments. Bobby also played a key role in the club's move from the Astrodome to its current home, Minute Maid Park, prior to the 2000 season.

Bobby is a member of the International Association of Assembly Managers, the Stadium Managers Association, the NFPA and serves as Vice President of the Association of Retractable Roof Operators World Wide.

Bobby has three children, Bobby, Chelsey and Kyle. He and his wife, Tiffani, live in Houston.

MARIAN HARPER

VICE PRESIDENT, FOUNDATION DEVELOPMENT

The 2015 season marks Marian Harper's 24th with the Astros. As VP of Community Relations, she helps manage programs and fundraising for the Astros Foundation, the official team charity of the Astros. She was instrumental in the development of the Astros Urban Youth Academy, a cornerstone program of the Astros Foundation.

Marian also assists with the team's community relations efforts, which includes organizing the Astros wives programs as well as utilizing her extensive knowledge of local non-profit organizations and her dedication to the Houston community. Marian also works to further develop the Astros Alumni Association.

Marian serves on the board of directors for the Downtown Management District Board and the Ensemble Theatre. She is a graduate of Leadership Houston and was honored with the prestigious Jimmy Wynn Toy Cannon Award for exceptional community service at the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame induction ceremony in 2007.

A native of Pittsburg, Texas, Marian started with the Astros in 1992 and rose through the ranks, starting as a promotions coordinator for the Marketing and Sponsorship departments, then as Director of Community Relations working with players, alumni, fans, businesses and non-profit leaders. Over the past decade, Marian has been a key executive for all the team charities' fundraising and outreach initiatives.

VIVIAN MORA

VICE PRESIDENT, HUMAN RESOURCES

Vivian L. Mora joined the Astros organization in June of 2013. In her role, Vivian is responsible for all human resources functions, including aligning HR strategy with business objectives, talent and performance management, succession planning, talent acquisition, compensation and benefits, training and development and employee relations.

Prior to joining the Astros, Vivian was the founder and managing partner for Mora & Associates, an executive search and human capital consulting firm based in Katy, Texas. Before launching Mora & Associates, Vivian served in various leadership roles including almost eight years as the Vice President of Human Resources for the Houston Rockets and Toyota Center, a multi-purpose entertainment venue which serves as the home of the Houston Rockets. Prior to this position, she led the human resource function for Texas-based HEB Grocery Company's Houston Retail Support Center through several growth years. She has also held progressive positions in the energy and the printing industries with Constellation Energy, Entergy Corporation and with RR Donnelley.

Mora's educational background includes a Masters of Social Science concentrating in sociology with a minor concentration in economics from the University of Mississippi and a Bachelor of Science in marketing from Jackson State University. She holds the highest level of human resources certification as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) and serves as an expert source for Reuters Insights and Focus HR.

Vivian has also served as a conference speaker for HR Houston, TLNT, the International Ticketing Association (INTIX), the Greater Houston Area Ticketing Association (GHATA) as well as HR Southwest. She is affiliated with the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) and HR Houston, and is a member of the Executive Board for Girls Inc. of Greater Houston as well as a member of Rotary International.

DOUG SECKEL

VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE

The 2015 season will be Douglas Seckel's fourth with the Astros as the Vice President of Finance.

Before coming on board with the Astros, Doug was treasurer for the Crane Capital Group assisting with financial management for the various Crane companies. Prior to joining the Crane Capital Group in 2010, Doug was Deputy Director of Finance for the City of Houston, Texas responsible for accounting, auditing, cost analysis and federal grants. From 1989 to 2007, Doug was controller, treasurer and CFO of Eagle Global Logistics as company revenues grew from $9 million to $3.2 billion and had an instrumental role in taking the company public in 1995. Prior to 1989, Seckel held various accounting and auditing positions for several state and local governments.

Seckel is a graduate of the University of Missouri with a major in accounting. He and his wife Lucy reside in Houston, Texas and have a daughter Sara and son Sam.

JOSE CRUZ

COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

The 2015 season is Jose Cruz' 32nd with the Houston Astros, having spent five years as a special assistant to the general manager and the previous 13 seasons (1997-2009) as a coach for the Major League club. In his second year as a community outreach executive, Jose makes public appearances on behalf of the team and acts as an ambassador for the organization.

As an outfielder, the two-time All-Star had an 18-year Major League career, playing for the Cardinals (1970-74), Astros (1975-87) and Yankees (1988). Nicknamed "Cheo", Jose is an Astros icon and held franchise records in games, at-bats, hits, total bases and triples at the time of his retirement after the 1988 season. His 80 career triples remain the franchise record.

Jose holds the distinction of being involved with all nine of the Astros postseason appearances, three as a player (1980, '81 and '86) and six as a coach (1997-99, '01, '04-05). He was the Astros Team MVP four times and hit .300 six times in his career while stealing 317 bases.

Jose's uniform No. 25 was retired by the Astros on Oct. 3, 1992, along with former teammate Mike Scott's No. 33. They were the third and fourth numbers retired by the team. In 1999, Jose was selected by a panel of experts as one of the three outfielders on the franchise's All-Astrodome team. In 2003, he was inducted into the Texas Baseball hall of Fame.

Jose and his wife, Zoraida, make their home in Houston and have four children: Jose Javier, Jose Cheito, Shakira and Jose Enrique. His son, Jose Jr., was the first-round selection (third player overall) of the Seattle Mariners in the 1995 June free agent draft. Jose Jr. graduated from Bellaire (TX) High School and attended Rice University. He led Bellaire to the number one national ranking by USA Today and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award while at Rice.

ASTROS FRONT OFFICE

LARRY DIERKER

SPECIAL ADVISOR TO THE PRESIDENT

On May 19, 2002, the Astros retired the No. 49 of franchise icon Larry Dierker. In over 50 years of service to the organization, Larry has served as an outstanding pitcher, front office member, broadcaster and successful on-field manager. He now enters his second full season in his role of Special Assistant to the President.

In 13 seasons on the mound with Houston from 1964-77, Larry won 137 games, which is third in team history. He owns the franchise records for innings pitched, starts, complete games and shutouts. A two-time All-Star, Larry pitched the fifth no-hitter in franchise history on July 9, 1976.

After one season in the front office and 18 as a broadcaster, Larry became only the sixth manager in Major League history to win a division crown in his first season. In five seasons as the club's skipper from 1997-2001, he won four division titles ('97, '98, '99, '01). His 1998 team won a franchise-record 102 games, earning Larry NL Manager of the Year honors. His .553 (448-362) career winning percentage as a manager is tops in franchise history.

JIMMY WYNN

COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

Jimmy Wynn spent the first 11 seasons of his 15-year Major League career with the Houston franchise from 1963-73, the first two as a member of the Colt .45's. In his current role as a community outreach executive, Jimmy is an active member of the Houston community, working closely with the Astros Community Relations department and the Astros Foundation.

On June 24, 2011, the Astros and Minute Maid officially dedicated the Jimmy Wynn Training Center, a new, state-of-the art baseball facility located at the Astros Urban Youth Academy in North Houston. The $500,000 indoor facility measures 4,431 square feet and includes batting cages, pitching mounds, locker rooms and showers. The facility, which was funded by Minute Maid's Grand Slam For Youth Baseball program and The Astros Foundation, is available for youngsters of all ages at no cost to their families.

As a player, despite his small frame (5'9"), Jimmy boasted enormous power and a strong throwing arm, earning him the nickname "The Toy Cannon." He ranks among the top 10 in almost every significant Astros career hitting category and led the franchise in hits (1,291), home runs (223), and RBI (719) when he left the club after the 1973 season.

In 1967, the slugging center fielder finished second in the National League in home runs (37) while posting 107 RBI. He also became the first Astro to hit three home runs in a game. As a member of the 1974 Dodgers, Jimmy smashed 32 home runs with 108 RBI, finishing in fifth place for the National League Most Valuable Player Award. He also homered for LA in the 1974 World Series vs. Oakland. Jimmy was a two-time All-Star, making the NL squad in both 1967 and 1974.

Jimmy's No. 24 was officially retired by the Astros on June 25, 2005. He and his wife, Marie, reside in Rosharon, Texas.

MANAGER

Full Name: Andrew Jay Hinch
Opening Day Age: 40
Bats/Throws: Right/Right
Born: 5/15/74 in Waverly, IA
Resides: The Woodlands, TX
Major League Coaching Career: Manager, Arizona Diamondbacks (2009-10); Manager, Houston Astros (2015-present).

The Houston Astros named A.J. Hinch as the 18th manager in franchise history on Sept. 29, 2014.

Hinch brings a diverse background to the Astros managerial post, having more than 20 years of playing, managing and front office experience in Major League Baseball.

This is his second managerial position, having served as Arizona's manager for parts of two seasons from 2009-10. At the time of his appointment, Hinch was 34 years old, by far the youngest manager in the Major Leagues. While his hiring by Arizona was considered unconventional at the time, Hinch's hire paved the way for many other first-time managers to get their shots at skippering for the first time at the Major League level, including current managers Brad Ausmus (DET), Mike Matheny (STL), Robin Ventura (CWS) and Walt Weiss (COL).

Five years later, at 40-years-old and now the manager of the Houston Astros, Hinch ranks as the second-youngest manager in the Major Leagues, behind only Kevin Cash (TB) at 37 years old.

Between his managerial posts, Hinch worked with the San Diego Padres where he most recently served as the club's Vice President and Assistant General Manager for three years (2011-14). In that role, Hinch oversaw all aspects of the club's professional scouting and medical departments, while assisting with the club's roster composition, player acquisitions, talent evaluations and contract negotiations.

Prior to joining a front office, Hinch played parts of seven Major League seasons with Oakland (1998-2000), Kansas City (2001-02), Detroit (2003) and Philadelphia (2004-05). A former catcher, Hinch played in 350 career Major League games after a wildly successful collegiate career at Stanford.

At Stanford, Hinch established himself as one of the best catchers in school history. A three-time All-

American and All-Pac10 team selection, Hinch earned Pac10 Player of the Year honors twice. In 1996, Hinch led the Cardinal to the College World Series and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, given annually to the best collegiate player in the country. Hinch still ranks among the top 10 all-time in seven statistical categories for Stanford, including games played (229, ninth), batting average (.351, seventh), hits (305, fourth), doubles (58, sixth), triples (15, fifth) and RBI (191, sixth). He led the Cardinal in hitting three times in four years, including an impressive .381 mark in 1996.

For his achievements on the field and his contributions to the school, Hinch was inducted into the Stanford University Athletics Hall of Fame on Oct. 11, 2014. During his time in Palo Alto, Hinch earned his Bachelor of Science in psychology in 1996 and was a member of the 1996 bronze medal-winning U.S. Olympic Baseball Team.

He was drafted three times as an amateur, in the second round of the 1992 draft out of high school by Chicago (AL), in the third round of the 1995 draft by Minnesota and in the third round of the 1996 draft by Oakland, before signing with the Athletics after his senior season at Stanford.

Hinch, who retired as a player after the 2005 season, joined Arizona's front office one month after retirement and was eventually named the team's Director of Player Development. He held that role until being named the Diamondbacks manager in 2009.

BENCH COACH

Full Name: Thomas Brad Hillman
Bats/Throws: Right/Right
Born: 1/4/63 in Amarillo, TX
Resides: Liberty Hill, TX
Major League Coaching Career: Manager, Kansas City Royals (2008-10); Bench Coach, Los Angeles Dodgers (2011-13); Bench Coach, Houston Astros (2015-present).

The Houston Astros named Trey Hillman as the club's bench coach on Oct. 17, 2014.

Hillman joins the Astros from the New York Yankees, where he served as a special assistant in Major and minor league operations in 2014. Prior to joining the Yankees, Hillman spent the 2003-13 seasons as a manager and bench coach in the Majors and in Japan.

He began that run with a five-year stint (2003-07) managing the Hokkaido Nippon-Ham Fighters in Japan, leading the club to a championship in 2006 and three total playoff appearances (2004, 2006-07). After the Nippon-Ham Fighters championship, Hillman was named the 2006 Japan "Sportsman of the Year" by the Foreign Sportswriters of Japan. His success earned him a job managing the Kansas City Royals, a position he kept for three seasons (2008-10), before becoming the Los Angeles Dodgers bench coach for another three years (2011-13).

Prior to managing in Japan, Hillman spent 13 years managing and coaching at the minor league level in the Yankees system (1989-2001), and also served as Director of Player Development for one season with the Rangers (2002). He began his career as a coach in 1989 with Class A Prince William before landing his first managerial job with Class A Oneonta in 1990 at the age of 27.

His coaching, managerial and front office careers followed a three-year playing career as a middle infielder and third baseman in the Indians minor league system from 1985-87. He followed that up with a two-year stint (1987-88) as a scout for Cleveland.

Hillman is a graduate of the University of Texas-Arlington, where he was an All-Southland Conference infielder for three seasons. He is also a member of the UT-Arlington Hall of Fame and the Southland Conference Hallof Fame and is a Distinguished Alumni Honoree at UTA.

Hillman resides in Liberty Hill, Texas, with his wife Marie. The couple has two children, son T.J. and daughter Brianna.

DAVE HUDGENS 51

HITTING COACH

Full Name: David Mark Hudgens
Bats/Throws: Left/Left
Born: 12/5/56 in Oroville, CA

Dave Hudgens was named the Houston Astros hitting coach on Oct. 17, 2014.

This marks his fourth stint as a Major League hitting coach, which included the last four seasons with the New York Mets (2011-14). His other two stints came with Oakland for the 1999 season and then again with the A's from 2003-05. Hudgens and Astros manager A.J. Hinch crossed paths in Oakland in 1999 as Dave coached A.J. in what was his second Major League season.

Hudgens' coaching career dates back to 1985, when he managed Rookie Level Pocatello in the Pioneer League at the age of 28. He would manage four years (1985-88) in the Oakland organization before joining Houston as a roving hitting instructor in the Astros system for seven seasons (1989-95).

Hudgens returned to Oakland in 1996 and spent the next 10 years (1996-2005) serving as Oakland's assistant director of player development (1996-98, 2000-02) or Major League hitting coach (1999, 2003-05), spending two stints in each position.

After his succesful 10-year run with Oakland, Hudgens joined the Cleveland organization and served as the Indians field coordinator for five years (2006-10) before his most recent stint with the Mets.

Hudgens has also managed parts of six seasons (2009-14) in the Venezuelan Winter League, all with Caracas, guiding them to playoff appearances in five seasons, including winning a VWL Championship in the 2009-10 season.

His coaching days followed a six-year playing career (1979-84) with the Oakland and Cleveland organizations, which included a stint in the Major Leagues with Oakland in 1983.

BRENT STROM 53

PITCHING COACH

Full Name: Brent Terry Strom
Bats/Throws: Right/Left
Born: 10/14/48 in San Diego, CA
Resides: Tucson, AZ

Brent Strom was named to his current position with the Astros on Oct. 22, 2013, in what is his third Major League stint as a pitching coach. He was originally the Astros pitching coach in 1996, and then later joined the Royals Major League staff as pitching coach for two seasons (2000-01).

Prior to rejoining the Astros, Strom, who has close to 35 years of coaching experience, spent six seasons (2008-13) with the St. Louis Cardinals organization, serving as their minor league pitching coordinator (2012-13) and as a minor league pitching instructor (2008-11).

Strom first joined Houston's organization in 1989, serving as a minor league pitching instructor for seven seasons (1989-95) before being elevated to Major League pitching coach in 1996. Prior to originally joining Houston, he spent time as a minor league coach with the Los Angeles Dodgers (1981-86) and as a pitching coordinator with the San Diego (1997) and Montreal/Washington organizations (1998-99, 2002-06).

His coaching career followed a professional pitching career that spanned from 1970-81, which included parts of five Major League seasons with New York-NL (1972), Cleveland (1973) and San Diego (1975-77). He also pitched two minor league seasons in the Astros system (1979-80).

Prior to playing professionally, Strom attended the University of Southern California, helping lead the Trojans baseball team to two NCAA championships. In 1970, he was a First Team All-American in his final season at USC. His professional career began after he was drafted third overall in the secondary phase of the 1970 draft by the New York Mets. The secondary phase was designated for players who had been drafted and had not signed. Strom holds the distinction of being just the second person ever to have Tommy John surgery.

Strom is a member of the International Sports Group (ISG), a non-profit organization founded to grow the game of baseball across the globe. He's been participating in ISG clinics overseas for over 15 years, with this offseason's clinic being held in Paris, France. Strom has also recommended other Astros coaches to join ISG, including the Astros Double A Hitting Coach Dan Radison, who participated in a clinic in Sweden this offseason.

Brent and his wife, Carrie, reside in Tucson, Ariz. Carrie was crowned Mrs. America in 1979, representing New Jersey. The couple has two English bulldogs, Macie Mae and Bebe.

RICH DAUER 48

FIRST BASE COACH

Full Name: Richard Fremont Dauer
Bats/Throws: Right/Right
Born: 7/27/52 in San Bernardo, CA
Resides: Littleton, CO
Major League Coaching Career: Third Base Coach, Cleveland Indians (1990-91); Third Base Coach, Kansas City Royals (1997-2002); Bench Coach, Milwaukee Brewers (2003-05); Third Base Coach, Colorado Rockies (2009-12); First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2015-present).

Rich Dauer was named the Houston Astros first base coach and infield instructor on Oct. 17, 2014.

Prior to joining Houston, Dauer spent two seasons (2013-14) as manager for the Double A San Antonio Missions in the Padres organization. In 2013, his first year as manager of the Missions, Dauer received Texas League Manager of the Year honors en route to leading the club to the Texas League Championship title. He was also the recipient of the Padres 2013 Jack Krol Award for contributions to player development.

The former 10-year Major League infielder (all with the Orioles) has 15 years of Major League coaching experience, including four seasons as third base coach for the Rockies (2009-12), three seasons as Ned Yost's bench coach with Milwaukee (2003-05), six seasons as third base coach for the Royals (1997-2002) and two seasons as third base coach with Cleveland (1990-91).

In addition to his Major League coaching experience, Dauer has served as a minor league manager, coach and roving infield instructor in the Cleveland (1988-89), Baltimore (1992) and Kansas City (1993-96) organizations.

Dauer is one of a select few players to have won both a World Series and College World Series title, as he was a member of the 1983 Baltimore Orioles Championship club and two national championship teams at the University of Southern California (1973-74). Following his 1974 season, Dauer was a first round selection (24th overall) by Baltimore.

A resident of Littleton, Colo., he and his wife, Chris, have three children: Casey, Kelsey and Katie.

GARY PETTIS 10

THIRD BASE COACH

Full Name: Gary George Pettis
Opening Day Age: 57
Bats/Throws: Switch/Right
Born: 4/3/58 in Oakland, CA
Resides: San Clemente, CA
Major League Coaching Career: First Base Coach, Chicago White Sox (2001-02); First Base Coach, New York Mets (2003-04); First Base Coach, Texas Rangers (2007-12); Third Base Coach, Texas Rangers (2013-14); Third Base Coach, Houston Astros (2015-present)

Gary Pettis was named the Astros third base coach and outfield and baserunning instructor on Oct. 17, 2014.

Prior to joining the Astros, Pettis spent the last eight seasons (2007-14) on the Major League coaching staff of the Texas Rangers. He spent his last two seasons with the Rangers as their third base coach after spending six seasons as the club's first base coach. Over those eight years, Pettis also served as the club's outfield and baserunning instructor. Under his watch, the Rangers ranked third in the Majors with 760 steals from 2009-14, trailing only Kansas City (794) and Tampa Bay (791).

Pettis also served on the Major League staffs of the New York Mets (2003-04) and Chicago White Sox (2001-02) as first base and outfield coach. Pettis began his coaching career as a roving minor league instructor in the Angels (1995) and White Sox (1997-2000) organizations, and later had a two-year stint as Milwaukee's Triple A hitting instructor from 2005-06.

The former outfielder was a five-time Gold Glove winner during his 14-year Major League career with the California Angels (1982-87), Detroit Tigers (1988-89, 1992), Texas Rangers (1990-91) and San Diego Padres (1992). He amassed 354 career steals and stole at least 40 bases five times during his career, which included a pair of 50-steal seasons. His Gold Gloves came in 1985, 1986, 1988, 1989 and 1990, which made him the fifth player in Major League history to win a Gold Glove with three different teams.

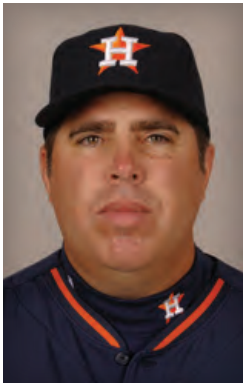

Pettis makes his offseason home in San Clemente, Calif., with his wife Peggy. The couple have two daughters, Paige and Shaye, and two sons, Kyler and Dante. Dante is a sophomore wide receiver at the University of Washington, where he was the Huskies primary punt returner as a true freshman in 2014. Gary's nephew, Dante's cousin, is Austin Pettis, wide receiver for the San Diego Chargers.

CRAIG BJORNSON 52

BULLPEN COACH

Full Name: Craig Michael Bjornson
Born: 2/14/69 in Tucson, AZ
Major League Coaching Career: Bullpen Coach, Houston Astros (2012, 2014-present).

Craig Bjornson was named the Astros bullpen coach on Oct. 22, 2013. He also served as the Astros bullpen coach in 2012 before spending the 2013 season as the organization's roving pitching instructor.

Bjornson, a former pitcher in the Astros minor league system, has 18 years of experience in professional baseball. He started his coaching career as a pitching coach for the Vermont Expos in 1999. Since then he's also spent time working in the Kansas City, Washington, Los Angeles (NL) and Colorado organizations (2000-11) as a pitching coach at the minor league level.

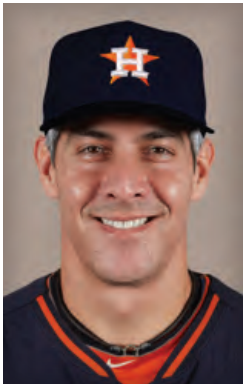

He also spent four seasons as pitching coach for the Occidente Pastora de los Llanos of the Venezuelan Winter League (2000-03).

Bjornson, a southpaw, pitched in high school for the Tucson High Badgers, a club that won the 1987 Arizona State Championship. He went on to Junior College at Arizona Western in Yuma, Ariz., and played for head coach John Stratton, a mentor to Bjornson. Following his time at Arizona Western, Bjornson transferred to Nicholls State University in Thibodeau, La., and later was signed by the Astros as a non-drafted free agent in 1991. His signing scout, Clark Crist, later coached Bjornson when he pitched for the Auburn Astros of the New York-Penn league. He pitched three seasons in the Astros farm system from 1991-93, making 81 appearances (27 starts), while posting a 3.0 walks per 9.0 innings ratio, a 5.7 strikeouts per 9.0 ratio and an overall 3.82 ERA. He pitched at Quad Cities in his final season (1993).

Bats/Throws: Switcht/Right
Born: 5/19/68 in El Paso, TX
Resides: Gilbert, AZ
Major League Coaching Career: Assistant Hitting Coach, Houston Astros (2015-present).

Houston named former Astros catcher Alan Zinter the club's assistant hitting coach on Nov. 4, 2014.

Zinter spent the last three seasons as Cleveland's minor league hitting coordinator (2012-14) after serving as a hitting coach in Arizona's minor league system from 2008-11.

A former first-round pick by the Mets in the 1989 draft (24th overall), Zinter played in parts of two Major League seasons with the Astros (2002) and Diamondbacks (2004), and spent a total of 19 seasons in the minor leagues (four with Houston). He had to wait more than a decade to make his big league debut on June 18, 2002, at MIL, and would later hit his first home run and collect his first Major League hit as a pinch-hitter with the Astros on July 1, 2002, in his sixth at-bat as a Major Leaguer and 4,706th as a professional.

Zinter was born in El Paso, Texas, and played collegiately at the University of Arizona, where he earned All-Amercan honors as a junior. He also was a member of Team USA in 1988.

NATHAN LUCERO

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

The 2015 season marks Nathan Lucero's 23rd with the Astros organization and his seventh as the head athletic trainer for the Major League club. Prior to his current position, Lucero served two seasons (2007-08) as the assistant strength and conditioning coordinator for the Astros. This followed a five-year stint (2002-06) as the club's minor league strength and conditioning coordinator. Before assuming that role, he spent two seasons as an athletic trainer with Round Rock (2000-01) and earned Texas League Trainer of the Year honors in 2000. Before joining Round Rock, he worked for the GCL Astros (1993-94), Quad Cities (1995-97), Kissimmee (1998), and Jackson (1999).

Lucero is a 1993 graduate of New Mexico State University. He and his wife, Janet, have two daughters, Isabella Feliz (13) and Sophia Rose (10).

REX JONES

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Rex Jones has spent his entire athletic training career in the Astros organization. He earned his call to the big leagues in 1994 after spending 16 years in the club's minor league system. From 1988-93, he was the organization's director of minor league athletic trainers.

Jones started his career in 1978 with the Class A Daytona Beach club, while working toward a bachelor's degree in physical education from Missouri State University. He was head trainer for the Double A Columbus Astros from 1979-83 during which he was named the 1982 Southern League Trainer of the Year and served as the 1983 Southern League All-Star Game trainer. Following the All-Star Game, he was promoted to the Triple A Tucson Toros to finish out the 1983 season.

Jones earned his master's degree from Central Missouri State. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and is licensed as an athletic trainer in the state of Texas. Additionally, Jones is a member of the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association, and the Greater Houston Athletic Trainers Society. In 2004, he served as a trainer for the National League All-Star team and was the club's assistant trainer for the 2005 World Series club.

He and his wife, Annie, have three children, Megan, Laura and Jeremiah.

JAMES READY

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

James Ready joins the Astros organization for his first season as a Major League assistant athletic trainer. He comes to Houston from the Phillies, where he served as Philadelphia's minor league training and rehabilitation coordinator for three years (2012-14). In that role, he oversaw the Phillies' minor league athletic trainers and worked in conjunction with the Major League training staff to coordinate rehabilitation assignments.

Prior to joining the Phillies, Ready spent five years (2007-11) on the Arizona Diamondbacks player development staff. While with the Diamondbacks, Ready was the athletic trainer for Visalia (A) in 2007, Mobile (AA) in 2008 and then Reno (AAA) for his final three seasons (2009-11). He also served as the trainer for the Arizona Fall League champion Phoenix Desert Dogs in 2008. Before his time in Arizona, James worked as a PBATS intern for the Detroit Tigers in 2003.

He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in athletic training from Central Michigan University in 2005 and a master's degree in kinesiology from Louisiana State University in 2007.

James was born in Cando, N.D. and currently resides in Pearland, Texas, with his wife Nathalie.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

The 2015 season will be Jake Beiting's third as Astros strength and conditioning coach. Throughout the year, Beiting provides Astros players with guidance on weight-training, conditioning and nutrition. He also runs all offseason workouts at Minute Maid Park.

A member of the Professional Baseball S&C Coaches Society (PBSCCS), Beiting was voted onto the executive board this offseason and will serve as the society's secretary for the 2015-16 seasons.

Prior to joining Houston, he served as the Cleveland Indians minor league strength and conditioning coordinator for five seasons (2008-12). In the position, Beiting worked with players at the Indians Spring Training complex in Goodyear, Ariz., which included working with Major League players during the offseason.

He began his career in professional baseball working as an intern in the Cleveland Indians weight room in 2004-05, and later was named strength coach for the Gulf Coast League Indians minor league club in 2007.

Beiting earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from John Carroll University in 2006 and later his master's degree in exercise science from the University of South Florida in 2008. While at John Carroll, Beiting played one year of football, serving as the club's fullback and long snapper, and lettered in track and field for two years as a javelin thrower.

He and his wife, Maggie, have two young sons, Maxwell and Charlie.

BULLPEN CATCHER

Javier Bracamonte enters his 15th season as the Astros bullpen catcher. He joined the organization in 2001 after five years of giving private baseball lessons. Bracamonte has taken part in three MLB All-Star Games, throwing batting practice during the Home Run Derby competition.

A former shortstop and second baseman, Bracamonte played at the New York Yankees' Venezuelan Academy from 1988-90, which made him just the third Venezuelan to sign a professional contract after serving as a bat boy at an academy.

Born in Caracas, Venezuela on Nov. 11, 1969, he now resides in Houston, Texas, with his daughter, Jaelyn (8), and son, Gustavo (28).

KATSUMI OKA

MASSAGE THERAPIST

Katsumi Oka is in his eighth season as a massage therapist for the Houston Astros. Prior to joining the Astros, he had spent the last 15 years as the director of the Ichigaya Branch of the Miyagawa Bonesetter's Office in Hyogo, Japan. Before taking over as the director, he spent 10 years with the office as a certified professional massage therapist.

Oka is a graduate of the Meiji School of Oriental Medicine in Osaka, Japan, and is a native of Hyogo, Japan.

CARL SCHNEIDER

CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Carl Schneider is in his fifth season as clubhouse manager and his 27th overall with the Astros organization. In 1989, Schneider joined the Astros as a bat boy and also handled clubhouse duties during the baseball season. He joined the home clubhouse staff full time in 1995. While with the Astros, Schneider has worked six Astros playoff runs, the 2004 MLB All-Star Game and the 2005 World Series. He has also worked the 1998 and 2003 All-Star Games in Colorado and Chicago (AL), respectively.

A Texas native, Schneider currently resides in Houston with his wife, Emilie, and their sons Zachry (14), Max (3) and daughters Amie (9) and Madyson (5).

STEVE PERRY

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

The 2015 season will be Steve Perry's 37th year with the Astros organization, and his 27th as visiting clubhouse manager. Over the years, Perry has developed a fine reputation in Major League Baseball for his work. He is a three-time winner (2000, 2008-09) of the Pete Sheehy Clubhouse Award (Clubhouse Manager of the Year), which is given out annually to a home and visiting clubhouse manager. The award is voted on by his peers within the MLB Clubhouse Manager's Association.

He also earned the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service to Baseball Award in 2013, named by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Steve joined the Astros as a bat boy at the start of the 1979 season, but by the All-Star Break was promoted to an assistant in the visiting clubhouse. He was named visiting clubhouse manager in 1989, and has filled that role ever since. During his Astros tenure, Steve has worked four All-Star games and six postseason runs.

Steve is fluent in Spanish, having spent several years of his childhood in South America after his father was relocated there for his job. He and his wife, Jessica, reside in Houston with their daughters, Nicole and Amanda.

DAN BERGSTROM

SR. DIRECTOR
MAJOR LEAGUE FIELD OPERATIONS

Dan Bergstrom is in his 12th season with the Astros. Despite the challenges of working in a ballpark with a roof and the intense Houston summer heat, Bergstrom and his crew maintain one of the most attractive playing fields in Major League Baseball.

The Texas Turfgrass Association named the playing surface at Minute Maid Park as the "2013 Baseball Field of the Year." The award is given annually to a successful and progressive baseball grounds crew. Minute Maid Park was chosen as the winner based on several criteria, including overall quality of the playing surface and unique challenges overcome by the grounds crew.

During his MLB career, Bergstrom has worked more than 900 games, including the 2004 MLB All-Star Game as well as the Astros 2004-05 postseason runs. Bergstrom holds the distinction of working the first World Series game ever played on Texas soil in 2005.

The Astros have also used Bergstrom's expertise outside of Minute Maid Park. He has traveled to Astros facilities in Kissimmee, the Dominican Republic, and several of Houston's minor league affiliates to assist in playing surface renovation. He also played a significant role in the construction of the fields at the Astros Urban Youth Academy.

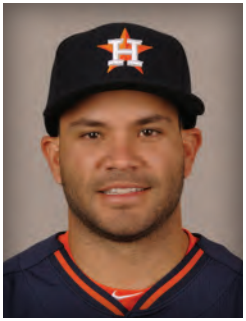

Bergstrom also volunteers to help build fields for youth organizations, and was instrumental in a successful field renovation project with RBI Austin that originated at the MLB Groundskeepers meetings in Austin in 2011. Additionally, he has served as president of three statewide turfgrass associations in his career, including the Kentucky Turfgrass Council, the Nebraska Sports Turf Managers Association, and the Texas Sports Turf Managers Association. In January 2015, Bergstrom was elected to the Board of Directors for the Sports Turf Managers Association.

Bergstrom earned a bachelor's degree in horticulture (turfgrass specialty) from Iowa State University. He and his wife, Krista, reside in Spring, Texas, and enjoy fostering rescued dogs in their home.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- The two-time All-Star, 2014 American League batting champion and 2014 AL Silver Slugger Award recipient is entering his fifth Major League season...owns a .302 (630x2083) batting average with 122 doubles, 21 homers, 131 steals and a .340 on-base percentage in 514 career Major League games...made his Major League debut on July 20, 2011 vs. WSH as a 21-year-old.
- His 402 hits over the last two seasons are more than any other Major Leaguer...sits directly ahead of IF Miguel Cabrera (384 hits)...is tied for the Major League lead in stolen bases over that span (91) with OF Jacoby Ellsbury.
- Has compiled 630 hits and 131 stolen bases in his four Major League seasons...only seven other players in MLB history reached those totals within their first four big league seasons: OF Ichiro Suzuki (2001-04), OF Juan Pierre (2000-03), IF Roberto Alomar (1988-91), OF Vince Coleman (1985-88), OF Willie McGee (1982-85), IF/OF Gene Richards (1977-80) and IF/OF Ben Chapman (1930-33).
- Since 2011 (the year of his MLB debut), leads the Majors in batting average against left-handed pitchers (.347, 188x542)...led the Majors with a .414 (63x152) average vs. southpaws in 2014, which also ranked second in franchise history for a single season behind IF Jeff Bagwell's .457 (48x105) mark set in 1994.
- Is one of just three players in Astros history to record 30+ doubles and 30+ stolen bases in three consecutive years, joining OF Enos Cabell (1977-79) and OF Jose Cruz (1977-79).
- Had a historic 2014 season in which he led the Majors in hits (225) and batting average (.341) while becoming the first player in franchise history to win a batting title...set an Astros franchise record for hits in a single season, surpassing IF Craig Biggio (210 hits in 1998), while also posting single-season franchise records in multi-hit games (69), three-hit games (24) and singles (168) (all tops in MLB in 2014).
- In 2014, became just the second player in Major League history to compile 225 hits, 47 doubles and 56 steals in a single season, joining OF Ty Cobb, who did so in 1911 (248 hits, 47 doubles, 83 steals)...his 225 hits were the most by a second baseman in a single season since IF Charlie Gehringer posted 227 hits in 1936 for Detroit...marked the most hits by a right-handed hitter since Paul Molitor also consecutive successful stolen base attempts from May 17-July 19, 2014...tied a franchise record set by OF Carlos Beltran in 2004...on June 18, 2014 at WSH, recorded his 500th career hit with a 9th-inning single...marked his 426th career game, making him the fastest player to reach 500 career hits with the Astros franchise...OF Cesar Cedeno set the previous record in 1973, as he needed 427 career games to reach 500 hits...with three hits in the Astros 3-1 win on June 20 at TB, became the first Major Leaguer to reach 100 hits on the season...reached 100 hits with his second hit of the night, in his 298th at-bat, becoming the first Astros player to reach 100 hits before his 300th at-bat of a season since 2008, when IF/OF Lance Berkman got to the century mark in his 277th at-bat...set a club record by recording a steal in seven straight games from June 24-30, 2014... banged out two hits, scored two runs and stole two bases in the Astros 6-1 win on June 26 vs. ATL...by reaching the 30-steal mark that game, became the fourth player in Astros history with at least 100 hits and 30 stolen bases before the All-Star break in one season...the other Astros to do it were OF Cesar Cedeno in 1974 (112 hits, 36 steals), OF Billy Hatcher in 1987 (101, 33) and OF Michael Bourn in 2011 (104, 35)...went 3x5 with two stolen bases on June 30 vs. DET, giving him a four-game streak with multiple hits and stolen bases...no other player in baseball's modern era (1900 to date) has had a four-game streak with at least two hits and two steals in each game...finished the month of June with a .411 batting average and 17 stolen bases...marked the most stolen bases for any Major League player who batted .400 or better in a month since July of 1992, when OF Brett Butler, then with the Dodgers, batted .442 with 18 stolen bases...OF Rickey Henderson batted .416 with 22 steals for the Yankees in June of 1985, but before Butler and Henderson, the last to do it was OF Ty Cobb, who batted .430 with 20 steals in September of 1911 (Elias)... became the first player in the All-Star era (since 1933) to record 130 hits and 40 steals before the All-Star Break...hit .335 in the first half, finishing two points behind IF Adrian Beltre (.337) for the first half batting title...entered the 2014 All-Star Game in the 5th inning at second base and ultimately drove in IF Alexei Ramirez on a sacrifice fly to deep left field in his only plate appearance...became just the fifth Astros player ever to record an RBI in an All-Star Game...also IF/OF Lance Berkman (2002, 2006, 2008), IF Craig Biggio (1995-96), OF Cesar Cedeno (1973, 1976), IF Lee May (1972)...tied a career high with four hits and hit his first career grand slam on Aug. 18 at BOS...was the only grand slam hit by an opposing player at Fenway Park during the season...became the first Astros player to record four hits and a grand slam in the same game since IF Jeff Bagwell did so on April 9, 2004, at MIL...from Aug. 30-Sept. 2, recorded back-to-back four hit games, becoming the first Astro to do so since IF/OF Lance Berkman in 2008...recorded hits in six straight at-bats over that stretch, the most by an Astro since OF Brandon Barnes in 2013...extended his hitting streak against the Athletics to 23 games with a 1x4 performance on Sept. 7 at OAK...marks the longest hitting streak any Astros player has had against any one team in the history of the franchise...IF/OF Lance Berkman held the previous record with a 21-game hitting streak against the Rockies from 2004 to 2008... from Sept. 10-17, recorded multiple hits in seven straight games...marked the longest multi-hit game streak by an Astro since IF/OF Lance Berkman also went seven straight from May 3-10, 2008...only two Astros in club history had multi-hit game streaks longer than seven games: OF Billy Hatcher (9g, April 12-21, 1987) and OF Jesus Alou (9g, Sept. 1-11, 1969)...posted a career-long, 14-game hitting streak from Aug. 23-Sept. 7...was the Astros longest hitting streak of the season...entering the final game of the season (Sept. 28 at NYM), held a .003 point advantage over the Tigers DH Victor Martinez for the AL batting title... went 2x4 on the day to secure the title with a .341 (225x660) average, directly ahead of Martinez' .335 (188x561) mark...named the Astros Team MVP by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA...was the Astros nominee for Major League Baseball's Hank Aaron Award...also named the Astros recipient of the Heart and Hustle Award, presented by the MLB Players Alumni CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Was drafted by Houston with the 10th overall pick in the 2008 draft out of Stanford...has played in 400 games, including 335 starts at catcher, in his Major League career.
- Is one of three catchers in club history to post two seasons with double digit home runs...also C Alan Ashby (1982, 1987) and C John Bateman (1963, 1966)...is the only catcher in Astros history to post back-to-back double-digit home run seasons.
- His 40 career homers rank fourth in club history for a catcher...needs one homer to tie C Brad Ausmus (41HR) for third place on the list...also ranks seventh in Astros history in games played at catcher (358g) behind franchise icon Craig Biggio (428g).
- Has been one of the top catchers in the American League over the last two seasons...among all AL backstops since 2013, ranks first in doubles (53), tied for first in homers (29), second in extra-base hits (84), third in hits (198), runs (96) and RBI (100), fourth in walks (74) and fifth in slugging percentage (.439).
- Was an American League All-Star, a two-time AL Player of the Week and was named the Astros Team MVP by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA in 2013...had one of the greatest offensive seasons by a catcher in Astros history, setting single-season club records by a catcher in doubles (35), homers (18), runs scored (63), extra-base hits (54), SLG (.485), multi-hit games (33) and OPS (.835)...became the second catcher in club history to be named an All-Star (also Biggio in 1990) and the third Astro in franchise history to earn multiple POTW awards in the same season (also, IF/OF Lance Berkman in 2008 and IF Jeff Bagwell in 1994).
- Made his first career Opening Day start on April 6, 2012, vs. COL, going 0x2 with two walks...went on to play in 87 games for the Astros in 2012 after missing the entire 2011 season while recovering from a torn right ACL and a tear in his medial meniscus.
- Made his Major League debut on June 22, 2010, vs. SF, and ended up starting 57 games behind the plate for Houston that season...this capped off a successful year in the minor leagues, highlighted by a run of reaching base safely in 32 consecutive

- After graduating from Castro Valley High School in California, was orginally selected by Boston in the 43rd round of the 2005 draft...did not sign, opting to attend Stanford from 2006-08.
- In 2008, his junior year at Stanford, hit a team-leading .376 with 14 home runs and 73 RBI en route to being named to the All Pac-10 team...helped Stanford to the College World Series in 2008 and was named the team's MVP...drafted by Houston with the 10th overall pick in the first round of the 2008 draft...signed by Astros scout Joe Graham.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- The 12th overall pick in the 2007 draft has hit .233 (294x1261) with 48 doubles, two triples, 42 homers and 152 RBI in 357 career Major League games over four seasons with Florida (2011) and Houston (2012-14).
- Has clubbed 42 homers in his 340 games with the Astros from 2012-14...ranks fifth all-time in home runs hit by an Astros third baseman...needs nine homers to catch IF Bob Aspromonte (51 HR) for fourth place on the list.
- Is one of four players in Astros history with 40 homers before his age-25 season...the others were OF Cesar Cedeno (103 HR, 1970-75), IF/OF Rusty Staub (57 HR, 1963-68) and OF Jimmy Wynn (49 HR, 1963-66).
- Has hit 37 homers with 134 RBI over the last two seasons...the only Astros player with more homers and RBI over that span is IF/OF Chris Carter (66HR/170RBI)...became the first Astros third baseman to post back-to-back double-digit home run seasons since IF Geoff Blum from 2008-09.
- Has had multiple noteworthy late-inning homers in his career...hit a game-tying, 9th-inning two-run homer off RHP Grant Balfour in a 5-4 win on July 23, 2013 vs. OAK, which snapped Balfour's streak of 44 consecutive successful save chances...hit a three-run homer in the top of the 9th inning off LHP Aroldis Chapman on Sept. 7, 2012, at CIN which pushed the Astros to a 5-3 win...the homer halted Chapman's streak of 27 consecutive successful save opportunities.

NOTES

- Graduated from Chatsworth High School (CA) in 2007 where he was a Rawlings First-Team All-American...over his career he compiled the most hits (179) and RBI (188) in school history...had his jersey retired by his alma mater on Feb. 4, 2012.
- At Chatsworth HS, played on the same side of the infield with Mike Moustakas, currently with the Kansas City Royals, with Dominguez manning third base and Moustakas playing shortstop...both players were drafted in the first round in 2007, with Moustakas going second overall and Dominguez going 12th overall.
- Selected by the Florida Marlins in the first round (12th overall) of the June 2007 draft...signed by Marlins scout Tim McDonnell.
- Matt grew up in Van Nuys, Calif., which is a suburb of Los Angeles, where his father, Fernando, is a copy editor on the Los Angeles Times Sports Desk.
- Was originally added to a Major League 40-man roster in September 2011 while with Florida.
- Acquired by Houston in July of 2012 in the trade that sent IF/OF Carlos Lee to Miami...currently signed to a one year contract that runs through the 2015 season.

- In 2013, his age-23 season, became the youngest Astros player to hit 21+ homers in a season since OF Cesar Cedeno hit 26 in 1974...the only other Astro to hit 21+ homers before turning 24 was OF Jimmy Wynn (22 HR in 1965)...Cedeno did it three times before turning 24...among Astros third basemen all-time, his 21 homers ranked tied for seventh for a single season...the last Houston third-baseman to hit 21+ homers was current Astros minor league instructor Morgan Ensberg in 2006 (23 HR)...Dominguez finished eighth in home runs among Major League third basemen in 2013.
- Recorded his first career hit, a single off RHP R.A. Dickey, on Sept. 7, 2011 vs. NYM in his first career start.
- Was ranked as the top prospect in the Marlins organization heading into 2011 and the No. 4 prospect heading into 2012 by Baseball America.
- Twice named the "Best Defensive Third Baseman" in his league by Baseball America (Southern League - 2011; Florida State League - 2009)...was a 2010 Southern League Postseason and Midseason All-Star, and was named the MVP of the 2010 Southern League All-Star Game after hitting two homers in the game...named a Florida State League Midseason All-Star in 2009.

NOTES

- Was originally signed by Chicago (NL) as a 16-year-old non-drafted free agent from Venezuela on Nov. 23, 2005...signed by Cubs scout Hector Ortega.
- Was taken by Boston with the 10th overall selection in the 2011 Rule 5 Draft...three picks later, the Astros selected RHP Marco Duarte with the first selection in the Triple A phase...the Astros and Red Sox traded these two picks for each other.
- Was one of two Rule 5 draftees that spent the 2012 season on the Astros 25-man roster (also RHP Rhiner Cruz)...since 2009, Houston has had five Rule 5 Draft picks stick with the Major League club for an entire season: also LHP Wesley Wright (2008), RHP Aneury Rodriguez (2011) and RHP Josh Fields (2013).
- Was arbitration eligible for the first time in his career this offseason...is signed to a one-year contract that runs through the 2015 season.

four career games...the last Astro to do so prior to Marwin was OF Kenny Lofton in his MLB debut on Sept. 14, 1991, vs CIN.

- Hit his first MLB homer on May 14, 2012, at PHI, which came as a pinch-hitter, off RHP Joe Blanton...was the first of two Astros players to hit their first MLB homer as a PH during the season (also, OF Brandon Barnes)... prior to the 2012 season, the last Astro to hit his first ML homer as a PH was IF Mark Saccomanno on Sept. 8, 2008.

2014: Played in a career-high 103 games with Houston with 76 starts (64 at SS, 6 at 3B, 5 at 2B, 1 in LF)... became the first Astro to start games at those four positions in one season since IF/OF Brian Bixler (2012)... tallied 285 at-bats, 81 more than his previous high set in 2013, and set career-highs in almost every offensive category...the switch-hitter batted .333 (13x39) against lefties, and all six of his homers came off righties... made his third straight Opening Day roster and spent the entire season on the active MLB roster for the first time in his career...shared time at shortstop with IF Jonathan Villar and IF Gregorio Petit...played left field, right field and third base on April 11 at TEX...only other player in club history to play those three positions in the same game was IF/OF Bill Spiers on Sept. 21, 1999, at PIT...notched four hits and an RBI on May 26 at KC, marking a career high in hits in a game...the last Astros shortstop to record four hits in a game was IF Angel Sanchez on April 12, 2011, vs. CHC...went 2x4 in a start on July 1 vs. SEA (one hit off RHP Hisashi Iwakuma)... has gone 7x12 (.583) with a homer and an RBI against RHP Hisashi Iwakuma in his career...marks his most career hits against any Major League pitcher...became a career .328 (20x61) hitter with five homers, seven RBI and a 1.004 OPS against the Mariners...hit a double in each of his last two starts, on Sept. 23 and Sept. 27...11 of his 15 doubles of the season came in his last 43 games.

2013: The 24-year-old played in 72 games with Houston...primarily played shortstop (53g) but also saw time at second base (10g) and third base (4g)...all four of his homers came off righties...made his second straight Opening Day roster and split time at shortstop with IF Ronny Cedeno until he was optioned to Triple A on June 24...played in 44 games with Triple A Oklahoma City and was recalled back to Houston on Aug. 14... remained in Houston through the end of the season where he served as the backup shortstop to IF Jonathan Villar...on April 2 vs. TEX, broke up RHP Yu Darvish's perfect-game bid with two outs in the 9th inning by hitting a single up the middle...hit .262 (45x172) with 10 doubles and 15 RBI in 44 games with Triple A OKC... following the season, played for Zulia in the Venezuelan Winter League and hit .297 (22x74) with nine RBI in 23 games.

2012: The 10th overall selection in the 2011 Rule 5 Draft spent the entire 2012 season with the Astros on the Major League roster...hit .234 (48x205) across 80 MLB games, making 38 starts at shortstop, six at third base and four at second base...remained on the Astros roster the entire season other than a couple of stints on the Paternity List (April 27-30) and the Disabled List (June 8-July 15)...his DL time was accrued while recovering from a bruised right heel...also missed more than two weeks (Aug. 31-Sept. 19) of games with a left ankle sprain...started at shortstop for Houston on Opening Day, April 6, 2012, vs. COL...also started the first six games of the season at the position while IF Jed Lowrie began the year on the Disabled List...hit his first MLB homer on May 14 at PHI, which came as a pinch-hitter, off RHP Joe Blanton...was the first of two Astros players to hit their first MLB homer as a PH during the season (also, OF Brandon Barnes on Aug. 13 vs. CHC)... prior to the 2012 season, the last Astro to hit his first ML homer as a PH was IF Mark Saccomanno on Sept. 8, 2008...went 3x4 with three runs scored on April 9 vs. ATL (his fourth career game)...is one of three Astros all-time to record three-or-more hits and three-or-more runs scored in the same game within his first four career games...the last Astro to do so was OF Kenny Lofton in his MLB debut on Sept. 14, 1991, vs CIN...hit .290 (27x93) with a .353 on-base percentage over a 29-game stretch from May 25-Aug. 6, 2012...had a career day on July 29 vs. PIT, going 3x5 with two doubles and three RBI, helping to snap an Astros 12-game losing streak...hit .333 (13x39) with one homer and 10 RBI in his 13 games on his injury rehab assignment with Triple A OKC...after a slow start to the spring, posted a .304 (7x23) average with five walks in his last 10 games, which helped him earn a spot on the Major League roster...was selected by BOS in the Rule 5 Draft before being traded to Houston in exchange for RHP Marco Duarte...even though he was acquired in a trade, his Rule 5 status still applied...following the season, played in 18 games for Caracas in the Venezuelan Winter League.

MINOR LEAGUES:

2011: Returned to Double A Tennessee at the onset of the season, appearing in 64 games and hitting .301 (65x216) before being promoted to Triple A Iowa...combined to hit .288 (119x413) with four home runs and 39 RBI in 124 games at the two levels...posted a .324 (47x145) line with two homers and 14 RBI against lefties and a .269 (72x268) mark against right-handed pitchers...while with Tennessee, played mostly shortstop (45g) and second base (15g), but did see action in two games in the outfield...after his promotion played almost exclusively at shortstop, appearing in 54 games at the position, while committing only four errors for a .983 fielding percentage (4E/239TC)...following the season, played for Caracas in the Venezuelan Winter League, hitting. 292 (49x168) with 17 RBI in 42 games...2010: Returned to Class A Advanced Daytona for the first 23 games of the season before being promoted to Double A Tennessee...combined to hit .251 (98x390) with four homers and 46 RBI at the two stops...played almost exclusively at shortstop with Tennessee, appearing in 81 games at the position and two games in the outfield...following the season,

2013: Was acquired by the A's from Houston in February and batted .290 with 45 doubles, two triples, 15 home runs and 75 RBI in 154 games…set an Athletics record for doubles by a switch-hitter and an Oakland record for hits by a switch-hitter (175)…equalled IF Brent Gates' Oakland record for batting average by a switch-hitter, established in 1993…the doubles ranked second in the American League (IF Manny Machado, BAL 51), second in Oakland history and tied for seventh in Athletics history…fell two short of the Oakland record of 47 set by IF/OF Jason Giambi in 2001…prior to 2013, he had not appeared in more than 97 games in any of his five seasons in the Majors…in addition to games played, he posted career highs in batting average, on-base percentage (.344), at-bats (603), runs (80), hits (175), doubles, RBI, walks (50), extra-base hits (62) and strikeouts (91)…led the A's in at-bats, hits, doubles and grounded into double plays (17)…tied for second in the AL with 17 games of three or more hits, which was the fifth highest total in Oakland history…the switch-hitter batted .307 (67x218) when hitting right-handed compared to .281 (108x385) when batting left-handed…hit 14 of his 15 home runs off righties…batted .303 on the road and .300 with runners in scoring position…hit .297 in his 119 games as a shortstop…led AL shortstops in slugging percentage (.472), doubles (40) and extra-base hits (54), ranked second in batting average, third in RBI (66) and tied for third in home runs (13)…had a .320 batting average with nine walks (.393 on-base percentage) in 20 interleague games…started 150 games, including 115 at shortstop, 23 at second base and 12 at designated hitter…committed 16 errors in 119 games overall at shortstop for a .962 fielding percentage…the fielding percentage was the lowest among Major League shortstops and sixth lowest in Oakland history…it was the lowest since IF Alfredo Griffin in 1985 (.960)…hit .240 in 13 games at designated hitter and was 0x3 with a walk and three strikeouts as a pinch hitter…led the A's with 68 starts batting third and 48 starts hitting second…started games at every spot in the order except eighth and ninth.

2012: Hit a career-high 16 home runs in his first season with the Astros…led the club in walks (43) and ranked second in home runs…the home runs were third among all National League shortstops and second in Houston history to IF Dickie Thon's 20 in 1983…also ranked second among NL shortstops with his .436 slugging percentage…traditionally a stronger performer while batting right-handed, reversed that trend in 2012, posting a .265 average while batting left-handed and a .184 mark against lefties…played 93 games, including 90 starts at shortstop, posting a .980 fielding percentage at the position…had the best fielding percentage among NL shortstops with 90 or more games and ranked seventh in the Majors…finished his season by not committing an error in his final 31 games (116 total chances)…also began his season with a 23-game errorless streak before committing his first error on May 9 against Miami…began the season on the Disabled List and missed the first six games of the season with a sprained right thumb…activated April 13…sustained a sprained right ankle, which placed him on the DL for a second time from July 15-Aug. 11…missed 52 team games in that stretch…hit home runs in three consecutive games from June 7-9, becoming the first Astros shortstop to do so since IF Andujar Cedeno from April 9-12, 1994…combined to play in six minor league games while on injury rehab assignments, including four playoff games…appeared in games for Double A Corpus Christi and Class A Advanced Lancaster during their playoff runs in September.

2011: Had a career-high four triples in 88 games in a season that included a trip to the Disabled List…saw action at all four infield positions with 49 games at shortstop, 33 at third base, four at first base and one at second base…hit .330 against left-handed pitching, the seventh-best mark in the American League among players with at least 115 plate appearances against lefties…hit an AL-best (min. 50 PA) .368 in April and led Boston with a .574 slugging percentage, which was 10th best in the AL during the month…placed on the 15-day DL with a left shoulder strain June 17…played in five rehab games with Triple A Pawtucket and was activated from the DL on Aug. 8…hit .270 in 55 games before the trip to the DL and .221 after…began a 5-4-3 triple play in game two of a doubleheader on Aug. 16 vs. Tampa Bay…it was just the second triple play turned by Boston since 1980 and the club's first since SS

2010: Started the season on the DL with mononucleosis but set Major League career-bests with a .287 average with nine home runs in 55 games after joining the Red Sox in July...missed Boston's first 94 games on the Disabled List...activated on July 21 and played in 55 of the club's last 68 tilts, including 45 starts…was placed on the 15-day DL on March 26 and transferred to the 60-day DL on April 14...made 24 starts at second base (28 total games) and 21 at shortstop (23), including 19 starts at short over the club's last 24 contests…also appeared in seven games at first base, his first action at the position at the Major League level, and one at third base...knocked his nine home runs in just 171 at-bats, more than doubling his combined total of four homers over 328 previous ML at-bats from 2008-09…23 of his 49 hits went for extra bases...after his activation from the DL on July 21, led AL middle infielders (min. 10 PA) in on-base percentage (.381), slugging (.526) and OPS (.907) and ranked in that group in extra-base hits (T-2nd, 23) and homers (T-3rd, 9)…posted a career-high, nine-game hitting streak from Aug. 4-21 (.357, 10x28) and a career-high, 16-game on-base streak, July 26-Aug. 21 (.347, 17x49, 11 BB)...hit his first career walk-off home run to lead off the bottom of the 11th inning on Aug. 21 off Toronto's RHP Casey Janssen…reached base safely in 23 consecutive starts from Aug. 27-Sept. 29, including seven starts at second base and 16 at shortstop in that time… notched his first career multi-homer games with two long balls in wins on both Sept. 14 at SEA and Oct. 3 vs. NYY.

2009: Limited to 32 games with the big league club due to two trips to the Disabled List…made an Opening Day roster for the first time in his career...appeared at second base (2g), third (4g) and short (26g) for the second straight season...made his first career Opening Day start on April 7 vs. TB (1x4)...placed on the 15-day DL on April 12 with a left wrist sprain…underwent an ulnar styloid excision and arthroscopic ligament repair on that wrist on April 21…reinstated from the DL on July 8 and optioned to Class A Short Season Lowell...recalled by the Sox from Triple A Pawtucket on July 18 but appeared in only 14 games before returning to the DL on Aug. 7 with ulnar neuritis in his left wrist…reinstated on Sept. 8...belted his first career grand slam off RHP Chris Perez on the final day of the regular season, Oct. 4 vs. CLE…combined to go 17x84 (.202) with three homers and 11 RBI in 26 minor league games between Pawtucket, Portland and Lowell, including 18 rehab outings...played in all three of Boston's ALDS games vs. LAA but made no starts.

2008: Saw his first Major League action, playing most of the year with the Red Sox...finished among American League rookie leaders in sacrifice flies (T-1st, 8), doubles (5th, 25), triples (T-6th, 3), walks (8th, 35) and extra-base hits (10th, 30)...collected 46 RBI, second most ever for a Red Sox rookie switch-hitter behind IF/OF Reggie Smith's 61 in 1967...hit .338 (27x80) right-handed...played with a non-displaced fracture in his left wrist for much of the season...appeared in 49 games (45 starts) at shortstop, 45 at third base (22 starts) and three at second base (two starts)…became just the second switch-hitter ever to play at least 30 games at both shortstop and third base in his first Major League season, joining IF Carlos Baerga (1990)...set a Major League record for rookie shortstops by handling 155 chances without an error...tallied 154 errorless chances to start his career before a miscue at third base on Aug. 26 at NYY (G2)...was a non-roster invitee to Spring Training and accompanied the team to Japan before opening the year at Triple A Pawtucket...selected to the ML roster when IF Mike Lowell went on the DL on April 10...started at third base in his big league debut on April 15 at CLE…knocked a two-run single off LHP Rafael Perez in the 7th inning for first hit…finished the game with three RBI, which was the most by a Red Sox in his first Major League game since IF Merl Combs also had three on Sept. 12, 1947...hit safely in his first eight tilts with an at-bat, tallying a .357 clip (10x28) through April 26…stretch matched second longest for Sox player to begin a Major League career since at least 1920 behind only nine-game runs by OF Ted Williams (April 20- May 4, 1939) and IF Shea Hillenbrand (April 2-12, 2001)...connected for his first Major League homer off LHP Glen Perkins on May 10 at MIN...optioned to Pawtucket on May 11 and rejoined Boston on July 12 after an injury to IF Julio Lugo…started 57 of the club's final 64 games...led all rookies with 21 doubles after All-Star Break…ranked fourth among AL rookies with 39 RBI during that span...knocked a game-winning solo homer in the 11th inning on Aug. 24 at TOR to give Boston a 6-5 victory...played a big role in the 2008 postseason...made eight starts at shortstop and played in nine of Boston's 11 postseason games overall…hit .207 (6x29) with two RBI over the nine contests…was second on the club with a .364 clip (4x11) in the ALDS vs. LAA…hit safely in each of his three ALDS games, including a walk-off, RBI single in the 9th inning of Game 4 to give the Sox a 3-2 win and clinch the series, 3-1…lined a two-out pitch from RHP Scot Shields into right field to score OF Jason Bay from second base…became just the fourth rookie ever to end a postseason series with a walk-off hit…was 2x18 (.111) with an RBI in six ALCS games vs. TB.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- The 11-year veteran is in his second stint with Houston after spending six seasons (2008-13) with seven different ballclubs...was drafted by the Astros in the second round of the 2000 draft and pitched for the club for four seasons after making his Major League debut in 2004...was an integral part of the Astros bullpen that carried the club to a National League Championship series in 2004 and a World Series appearance in 2005.
- Has made 721 relief appearances in his career, going 46-42 with 70 saves and a 3.76 ERA (296ER/708.2IP)...has held opponents to a .265 (713x2694) batting average in his career...has made at least 50 appearances in each of the last 10 seasons (2005-14)...the only other MLB pitcher to match those marks in that span is LHP Matt Thornton.
- Since 2004, ranks second in the Majors in appearances (721) and relief innings (708.2), behind only Francisco Rodriguez (735g/743.2IP)...leads all relievers in wins (46) over that time span...ranks fourth among active pitchers in games pitched (721).
- Ranks eighth on the club's all-time appearance list with 320, jumping 12 spots on the list in 2014...enters 2015 just 25 games behind RHP Larry Dierker (345) for seventh all-time in appearances.
- In 2014, returned to the closer role for the first time since 2010 with Arizona...led all Major League relievers in walks per 9.0 innings with his mark of 0.88 (5BB/51.1IP)...struck out 43 batters, which was good for the third-highest strikeout to walk ratio (8.60) among MLB relievers in 2014.
- Had a resurgent 2013 season with Miami after reworking his mechanics...posted a career-best 2.61 ERA (18ER/62IP) and the highest groundball percentage (77.7%) of his career...his GB% ranked fifth in the National League in 2013...according to PITCHf/x, posted his highest average fastball velocity (94.7 mph) since 2007.
- Has pitched in 17 postseason games with the Astros (2004-05) and Rays (2010)...pitched particularly well in the 2005 World Series with Houston, giving up just one run in 5.1 innings (1.69 ERA) across three outings...picked up his only postseason victory in Game 4 of the 2005 NLCS after throwing a perfect 7th inning in the Astros 2-1 victory over the Cardinals.
- Was still considered a rookie in 2005...ranked second among NL rookies in relief innings (79.2) and wins (six)...his 77 games pitched ranked third all-time in Astros history by a rookie for a single season.
- Was named the 2004 Astros Rookie of the Year by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA...went 4-0 with a 3.55 ERA (13ER/33IP) in 25 games after making his MLB debut on July 22, 2004, at ARI.

NOTES

- Graduated from Narboone HS in California where he pitched in the Class 3A state finals at Dodger Stadium in 1995 and 1996.
- Went on to attend Los Angeles Harbor College (Wilmington, Calif.) where he was an all-conference pitcher and was voted his team's most valuable pitcher...was drafted by the Blue Jays in the 52nd round of the 1997 draft but did not sign.
- Opted to attend the University of Nevada (Reno, Nev.) and earned All-Big West Conference honors in 1999 and 2000...was drafted by the Astros in the second round of the June 2000 draft and was signed by Astros scout Gene Wellman.
- IN THE COMMUNITY: In August of 2014, joined in on the #SaveRaelyn campaign, which aims at raising awareness for Rhabdomyosarcoma, a rare cancer of the soft tissue...he did so in hopes of raising funds for the disease, which affected a four-year-old girl named Raelyn, a daughter of a family friend.
- Became the first player in Astros history with a last name that began with the letter 'Q'...he and C Humberto Quintero played together from 2005-07 becoming just the second set of battery mates in Major League history with last names that begin with Q...C Jamie Quirk and RHP Paul Quisenberry were the first as both were Royals teammates from 1979-82 and 1985-87.
- Is in the second year of a two-year contract that runs through the 2015 season...the contract also includes a club option for 2016.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- The six-year veteran joined the Astros on a one-year contract this offseason in what was his first time through free agency...enters the 2015 season having played in 793 Major League games, including 689 starts (679 in CF, 6 in RF, 4 in LF).
- Has been one of the top offensive center fielders in the American League over the last three seasons (2012-14), ranking third in home runs (57) and RBI (171)...trails only Adam Jones (92 HR, 282 RBI) and Mike Trout (77 HR, 235 RBI) in those categories...also ranks fourth in slugging (.440) and fifth in doubles (67).
- Homered in a career-high four consecutive games from Sept. 13-18, 2013, the longest run of his career...homered in back-to-back games seven times that season.
- Had a couple of memorable home runs in the 2010 season, including his first career grand slam on his 24th birthday (Aug. 11 at CIN), becoming the fifth player in MLB history to hit his first grand slam on his birthday...also hit a 483-foot home run at KC (June 27), the longest by any NL player in 2010...was named the National League Player of the Week (May 31-June 6) in 2010, after hitting .500 with three HR and nine RBI.
- Spent his entire rookie season of 2009 with the Cardinals...would end up leading all rookies in games played (147), while finishing second in homers (16), and fourth in RBI (52), runs (72), hits (119), doubles (22) and multi-hit games (32) that season.
- Was named the Cardinals top prospect by Baseball America three times in his minor league career, entering the 2007-09 seasons...spent his final minor league season in 2008 with Triple A Memphis, where he was selected to both the Futures Game and the Team USA Olympic rosters, but could not play in either due to injury.
- Had an impressive 2007 season at Double A Memphis and was named the Cardinals Minor League Player of the Year for a second-straight season (2006-07)...was named to the First Team Minor League All-Star team as an outfielder and to the Double A All-Star team by Baseball America...his 29 homers, 93 runs and .551 slugging percentage led the Texas League...selected to play in the Texas League All-Star Game and was also named to the Texas League Postseason All-Star Team...played in the Futures Game during the Major League All-Star Break in San Francisco...was also selected to the Team USA roster that won the gold medal in the 2007 Baseball Federation World Cup in Chinese Taipei...was one of three players named as the tournament's Best Three Outfielders.
- Climbed to High A ball in his second professional season en route to being named Cardinals Minor League Player of the Year in 2006...led all Cardinals farmhands with 85 RBI and was selected to play in the Midwest League All-Star Game that season.

NOTES

- Grew up and still resides in Phenix City, Ala., where he was a member of the 1999 Little League World Series U.S. Championship Team...that team lost to Hirakata Little League of Osaka, Japan, in the championship game of the 53rd LLWS.
- Graduated from Russell County HS (AL) and led his club to the National Championship his senior season (2005)...broke Bo Jackson's Alabama state single-season record with 24 home runs in 2005...selected by St. Louis in the first round of the 2005 draft with the 28th overall selection...signed by Cardinals scout Scott Nichols...the 2005 Cardinals draft was the first orchestrated by current Astros General Manager Jeff Luhnow, making Rasmus Luhnow's first career selection in the draft.
- His brother, Cory, a right-handed pitcher, was the 38th overall selection in the supplemental round of the 2006 draft by Atlanta...he made 30 appearances for the Angels last season...their father Tony was a 10th-round draft pick by Anaheim in the 1986 draft and is now the head coach at Russell County High School.
- Signed a one-year contract for the 2015 season with the Astros on Jan. 20, 2015.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- A dynamic combination of power and speed, Springer enters 2015 looking to build off a 2014 Major League campaign in which he hit 20 home runs with 51 RBI in just 78 games with Houston...finished just one home run shy of tying the franchise record for home runs by a rookie (Lance Berkman, 21 in 2000)...started 70 games in right field and seven in center field.
- Was off to a spectacular start to his Major League career in 2014 before being derailed by a left quad strain in July...in his first full month at the MLB level, earned Major League Baseball's Rookie of the Month for May...his highlights in the month included tying a franchise record by scoring five runs on May 24 at SEA...he also went 4x4 with five runs scored, three RBI, two doubles, a home run and a walk on May 26 at KC, becoming the first player in franchise history to reach all of those marks in a single game...he became the first rookie in franchise history to homer in four straight games (five total homers from May 21-26) and hit seven homers over a seven-game span from May 21-29, joining Rudy York (with Detroit from Aug. 22-27, 1937) as the only rookies in MLB history ever to hit seven homers over a seven-game stretch (Elias).
- Had one of the greatest seasons in minor league history in 2013...hit 37 homers while stealing 45 bases combined between Triple A Oklahoma City and Double A Corpus Christi that season...became the first Astros minor leaguer ever to hit 30+ homers while recording 30+ stolen bases...became the first minor leaguer to reach the 30-30 plateau since Oakland's Grant Desme in 2009...fell just three home runs shy of reaching the 40-40 mark, which hasn't been accomplished in minor league baseball since 1956.
- Also in 2013, named Minor League Baseball's Offensive Player of the Year and the Astros Minor League Player of the Year...was one of just nine position players named to Baseball America's Minor League All-Star Team, and was also named to MLB.com's All-Prospect Team...received 2013 Texas League Player of the Year honors and was a Midseason and Postseason All-Star...received the award despite getting a promotion to Triple A at the start of the second half of the season...named the MVP of the 2013 Texas League All-Star Game (2x3, 2HR, 3RBI)...along with IF Carlos Correa and IF Delino DeShields, represented the Astros at the 2013 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game at Citi Field in New York,

NOTES

- Graduated from Avon Old Farms High School in New Britain, Conn. where he also played soccer...drafted by Minnesota in the 48th round following his senior season, but did not sign and went on to attend the University of Connecticut.
- Played three seasons with the Huskies before being drafted by Houston with the 11th overall selection in the June 2011 draft...became the highest drafted Husky in school history after setting career records for runs scored (220) and home runs (46)...signed by Astros scout John Kosciak.
- Was named a 2011 First Team All-American by Perfect Game USA, Louisville Slugger and the NCBWA...named a 2011 Second Team All-American by Baseball America...was also a Dick Howser Trophy and Golden Spikes Award semifinalist in 2011.
- Hit at least .337 in his three seasons at Connecticut...other career highlights: 2011 All-Big East First Team, 2010 All-Big East Second Team, 2009 Big East Rookie of the Year (first ever Husky to receive the award), 2009 Silver Slugger All-American.
- Both of his parents attended UConn...his father, George II, played in the 1976 Little League World Series...his mother, Laura, is a former gymnast...George took gymnastics lessons when he was 18 months old up until he was 12 and can still do a back flip.
- IN THE COMMUNITY: Was named the Stuttering Association for the Young (SAY) spokesperson in September of 2014 by the non-profit organization...Springer is one of 70 million people with a stutter, including approximately one in every 100 adults.
- Added to the Astros 40-man roster on April 16, 2014...is signed to a one-year contract that runs through the 2015 season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Thatcher begins his first season with the Astros after signing a minor league contract with the club on Feb. 13...with the exception of a 16-game stint with the Angels at the end of the 2014 season, has pitched his entire eight-year Major League career in the National League...at the onset of the 2015 season, ranked seventh among active left-handed pitchers in the NL with 346 appearances.
- Since his MLB debut in 2007, is sixth in the Majors in inherited runners scored pct. (20.4, min. 150 IR)…ranks fourth among active players, trailing only Randy Choate (17.3), Javier Lopez (19.7) and Sergio Romo (19.8).
- Has limited left-handed hitters to a .230 average (101x439) with 11 home runs in his career.
- Working as a left-handed specialist, has made 228 career appearances that were less than 1.0 full inning...since his debut season of 2007, ranks fifth in the Majors in that category.
- Set a San Diego franchise record by not allowing a home run in 67 straight appearances, from June 13, 2009-June 28, 2010...had the streak snapped by Adam Dunn on July 7, 2010, at WSH.
- Made his Major League debut on July 26, 2007 at Minute Maid Park and tossed 1.0 scoreless inning...struck out Morgan Ensberg to start the inning before inducing ground outs by Jason Lane and Eric Bruntlett.
- Advanced all the way to Double A in 2006, just his third professional season and his second in affliated minor league baseball...played for North Shore in the 2006 Hawaiian Baseball Winter League and was named an All-Star after posting a 0.73 ERA (2ER/24.2IP) in 14 outings.

NOTES

- Graduated from Kokomo HS in Indiana and went on to attend Indiana State from 2001-04...ranks third on the Sycamore's all-time saves list with 14, three behind his father, Phil (1977-80)…owns a tie for the school's single-season record in appearances (33 in 2002) and ranks second in ERA over a single season (1.73 ERA in 2002, min. 40.0 IP).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Infielder enters his sixth professional season and will be in Major League camp for his second consecutive Spring Training with the Astros.
- Has posted some of the lowest strikeout rates in the minors since his arrival to pro ball in 2010...in 502 career games, has struck out just 122 times in 2125 plate appearances (5.74%)...has also posted a career .306 (577x1883) batting average with 123 walks and a .362 on-base percentage.
- In his minor league career, has played in 326 career games at second base, 85 games at shortop, 54 games at third base, 12 in center field and 10 in left field.
- Spent his entire 2014 season at Triple A Oklahoma City and continued his trend as an extreme contact hitter, striking out just 26 times in 519 plate appearances...averaged just one strikeout per 19.96 plate appearances, making him the second-hardest player to strike out in all of the minors (Willians Astudillo, Low-A Lakewood - 23.25 PA/K)...between Aug. 1-29, went 119 consecutive plate appearances without striking out...also made PCL history by setting a new single-season record in the modern era with 21 sacrifice hits.

NOTES

- Originally signed by Cincinnati as a 16-year-old non-drafted free agent out of Venezuela on Feb. 23, 2010...signed by Reds scout Jose Fuentes.
- Played two seasons in the Reds organization before being traded to the Cubs along with LHP Travis Wood and OF Dave Sappelt in exchange for LHP Sean Marshall.
- After two and a half years in the Cubs system, the Astros acquired Torreyes on July 2, 2013, in exchange for two international bonus pool slots...because the bonus pool slotting system was instituted for the 2013 season, and Torreyes was dealt on the first day trades were possible, he became the first player in Major League history to be dealt straight up for international pool space.
- Added to the Astros 40-man roster on Nov. 20, 2014 and signed to a one-year contract for the 2015 season...this year is his second time to be invited to Major League Spring Training, as he was an NRI in 2014.

- Was acquired by the Astros in 2013 after the club traded international signing pool space to the Cubs...was sent to Double A Corpus Christi, and at 20 years old was one of the three youngest players in the Texas League...hit .278 (42x151) with six walks and 14 strikeouts in 38 games with the club, posting a .969 fielding percentage (3E/98TC) in 23 games at shortstop.
- Tabbed by Baseball America as the No. 13 prospect in the Reds organization in 2012, and the club's No. 22 prospect in 2011.
- In his first full season in the United States in 2011, earned Baseball America Low Class A All-Star honors...hit .356 (99x278) with a .398 OBP in 67 games that season with Class A Dayton.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- The right-handed starting pitcher will be making his fifth straight appearance at a Major League Spring Training, with his third different MLB organization: Cleveland (2011-NRI), Colorado (2012), Houston (2013-15).
- In his Major League career, has a ground ball to fly ball ratio of 1.72 (258 GB, 150 FB) in 33 career appearances, 30 starts.
- Missed the 2013 season after having Tommy John surgery on his right elbow in April.
- Was rated the No. 2 prospect by Baseball America in the Indians system prior to the 2011 season.
- Was named the Indians Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2010 (Bob Feller Award).

2014: Opened up the regular season on the Major League Disabled List while recovering from April 2013 Tommy John surgery...returned to the mound for Triple A OKC on May 22 and tossed 1.0 scoreless appearance, his first appearance in the regular season since Sept. 30, 2012, while pitching for the Rockies...made his first four appearances with the RedHawks on a Major League rehab assignment before being activated from the DL and optioned to OKC on May 31...worked out of the bullpen in his first 15 appearances before entering the rotation on July 9...finished his year making 10 starts, including a solid August in which he went 2-1 with a 4.03 ERA (13ER/29IP) in five starts...worked a season-high 7.0 innings (2ER) on Aug. 16 at Sacramento, tossing 102 pitches in the RedHawks 7-2 win...in his next outing, on Aug. 21 vs. El Paso, tossed a season-high 104 pitches in 6.2 innings, while fanning nine hitters (3ER).

NOTES

- Played four years as a pitcher and shortstop at D.H. Conley (NC) High School, graduating in 2006...earned Third-Team High School All-American honors from Baseball America...led Conley to the 2006 state 3A title and earned MVP honors in the state tournament...also helped team to 2005 state 4A crown...played four years of basketball as a point guard...drafted by Los Angeles (NL) in the 14th round of the June 2006 draft but did not sign.
- Elected to attend the University of North Carolina, where he majored in sports administration...completed the 2009 season, his junior year at UNC, going 8-4 with a 3.87 ERA (46ER/107IP) with 121 strikeouts and 44 walks while holding opponents to a .233 average in 16 starts for the Tarheels, who advanced to the College World Series...following the season, he was named to the ACC First-Team for the second consecutive season…prior to the draft, was ranked as the sixth-best prospect, fourth-best pitcher, in the entire 2009 draft by Baseball America...selected by Cleveland with the 15th overall selection in the June 2009 draft.
- Has two brothers, Travis, a sheriff's deputy in Greenville, N.C., and Brandon, a materials engineer in Baltimore, Md.
- Originally added to a Major League 40-man roster by Cleveland on April 30, 2011...acquired by Houston from Colorado at the 2012 Winter Meetings as part of the return in the Wilton Lopez trade...is signed to a one-year contract that runs through the 2015 season.

2012: Began the season with Triple A Colorado Springs and made five starts before being called up to the Rockies...made 10 starts for the Rockies before being optioned back...he returned to the Rockies on Aug. 2 and finished the season with Colorado, making 10 starts before being moved to the bullpen where he made three relief appearances...posted a 2.09 ground ball/fly ball ratio (180 GB, 86 FB) in his 23 appearances, 20 starts...made seven starts in August after being recalled on Aug. 2...in those seven starts he had a record of 0-1 with a 4.03 ERA (13ER/29IP) with 17 walks, 21 strikeouts and an opponents average of .248 (28x113)... the Rockies went 5-2 in his seven starts despite supporting him with just 10 runs over his 29.0 innings (3.10 RSA)...his .248 opponents average in that span was the second-lowest among all Rockies starters while his 21 punch-outs were tied for most among starters.

2011: Made 10 starts in the Majors for his first MLB action...he recorded three starts as a Cleveland Indian and seven starts as a member of the Colorado Rockies after being traded...was traded to the Rockies at the trade deadline in the deal that sent RHP Ubaldo Jimenez to Cleveland...at the time of the trade, White was on the 60-day Disabled List with right middle finger soreness...was reinstated from the Disabled List on Aug. 23 after four rehab starts, going 1-1 with a 1.65 ERA (3ER/16.1IP), a walk, 10 strikeouts and a .172 opponent average... in his last rehab start for the Drillers on Aug. 18, allowed just three hits and one walk with four strikeouts while tossing 7.2 scoreless innings in the victory...was a non-roster invite to the Indians Spring Training in 2011...began the year with Triple A Columbus where he made four starts before having his contract selected to the Majors by the Indians on April 30...entered the season rated the No. 2 prospect in the Indians system (47th overall prospect in the minors) by Baseball America...in his four starts with Triple A Columbus before his MLB debut, went 1-0 with a 1.90 ERA (5ER/23.2IP), five walks and 28 strikeouts, all in April.

MINOR LEAGUES:

2010: Had an outstanding season in his first professional campaign and was named Indians Minor League Pitcher of the Year (Bob Feller Award) for his efforts…went a combined 10-10 with a 2.45 ERA (41ER/150.2IP) in 26 games/25 starts between Class A Advanced Kinston and Double A Akron…led the organization in innings (150.2), was second in ERA (2.45), sixth in strikeouts (117) and tied for fourth with 10 wins…began the year with Kinston going 2-3 with a 2.86 ERA in eight starts (14ER/44IP) before being promoted to Double A Akron…in 18 games/17 starts with the Aeros, went 8-7 with a 2.28 ERA (27ER/106.2IP)…his 2.28 ERA would have led the Eastern League, but he did not qualify…following the season he was ranked by Baseball America as the eighth-best prospect in the Eastern League…went at least 5.0 innings in 23 of 26 starts on the year and 22 of his final 23...went 11 of 12 starts from May 28-July 29 with Akron where he went at least 5.0 innings and allowed one earned run or less in 11 of those starts…allowed two earned or less in 15 of his 18 games with Akron…combined on the year he limited hitters to a .220 (123x559) average... lefties hit just .211 (56x265) off him.

2014 CALIFORNIA LEAGUE CHAMPION LANCASTER JETHAWKS

BACK TO TITLETOWN

The Lancaster JetHawks closed out a stellar season by winning the 2014 California League Championship Series by defeating Visalia, 3-2, in a best-of-five game series. The club tore through the playoffs, going 6-2 in their eight games en route to their second championship title in the last three seasons.

A number of JetHawks players played big roles in the club's title run. RHP Tyler Brunnemann earned CAL League Championship Series MVP honors after earning the victory in the deciding game of the series with three perfect innings of relief (six strikeouts). The 40th round pick in 2013 was lights out in the postseason, posting a 1.35 ERA with 12 strikeouts in 6.2 relief innings.

Astros Minor League Player of the Year OF Brett Phillips hit .324 with a .378 OBP in the postseason. Headlining the club's postseason rotation were RHP Vincent Velasquez (1-0, 3.00 ERA, 13 SO, 12 IP) and LHP Kent Emanuel (1-1, 3.00 ERA, 2 BB, 12 IP). RHP Lance McCullers made one postseason start, but it was a big one. The hard-throwing right-hander tossed 6.0 shutout innings and scattered seven hits to pick up the victory in Game 2 of the Championship Series.

In the regular season, the JetHawks received tremendous performances from IF Carlos Correa (.325, 6 HR, 57 RBI), Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year LHP Josh Hader (9-2, 2.70 ERA, 112 SO) and OF Teoscar Hernandez (.294, 33 2B, 8 3B, 17 HR, 20 SB).

MINOR LEAGUE COORDINATORS/INSTRUCTORS

FIELD COORDINATOR

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 5TH

Paul Runge returns for his fifth consecutive season as the Astros minor league field coordinator. The former Major League infielder has helped oversee an Astros system that has ranked third among all 30 organizations in winning percentage over the last three seasons (1378-1195, .536).

Prior to joining the Astros in 2011, Runge compiled 14 years of minor league managerial experience in Atlanta's farm system. While managing the Rookie Level Danville Braves, Runge led the team to four first place finishes in the Appalachian League (2005-07, 2009), including two championship titles (2006, 2009). He was twice named Atlanta's Minor League Manager of the Year (2006, 2009) and Appalachian League Manager of the Year (2007, 2009).

Prior to his six-year stint in Danville, Runge spent an additional eight seasons managing at various stops in Atlanta's organization from 1993-2001. He has also managed in the Arizona Fall League (1997) and the Australian Winter League (1994-95).

The former shortstop's playing career began in 1979 when Atlanta selected him in the ninth round of the draft out of Jacksonville University. Runge played in parts of eight Major League seasons with Atlanta (1981-1988) and played 10 seasons in the minors with the Braves (1979-84, 86-87), Padres (1989) and Blue Jays (1990) organizations.

DYAR MILLER

PITCHING COORDINATOR

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 3RD

Dyar Miller enters his third consecutive season as the Astros minor league pitching coordinator, and his 31st season working in player development. The former Major Leaguer joined the Astros in 2013, a year after serving as bullpen coach for the 2012 NLCS runner-up St. Louis Cardinals. Prior to that, Miller spent four seasons (2008-11) as the Cardinals minor league pitching coordinator. Miller joined the coaching ranks in 1985 and has worked in baseball as either a player, coach, instructor or coordinator for 47 consecutive seasons.

Miller's pitching career lasted 17 seasons (1968-84), which included nine Major League seasons with four different MLB clubs (Baltimore, California, Toronto, New York Mets). In his seven seasons in the Majors, he produced a career 23-17 record with 22 saves and a 3.23 ERA in 251 games as a reliever.

The Batesville, Ind. native is a graduate of New Point High School (IN) and Utah State University, where he played baseball and basketball. He served in the United States Air Force Reserve from 1968-74.

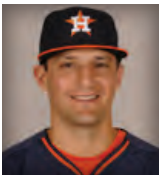

In 2001, Miller was named the recipient of the George Kissell Award for excellence in player development, and in January of 2007 was inducted into the Indiana Baseball Hall of Fame.

Miller currently resides in Indianapolis, Ind. with his wife Bertha Jo. They have a blended family of six children and twelve grandchildren. During the offseason, Dyar is involved in church functions and the American Legion, and mentors young pitchers.

JEFF ALBERT

HITTING COORDINATOR

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 3RD

Jeff Albert enters his third season in the Astros organization and his second as the club's hitting coordinator. Albert joined the Astros organization in 2013 and served as the club's roving hitting instructor after spending the previous five seasons (2008-12) as a hitting coach in the Cardinals minor league system.

Albert began his coaching career as a hitting coach at Class A Short Season Batavia in 2008, where he helped guide the club to a championship as the MuckDogs offense was shut out just once all season. From Batavia, he was promoted to Class A Advanced Palm Beach where he spent four seasons as the club's hitting coach (2009-12).

Albert graduated from Butler University, and then played professionally in the independent leagues. He went on to earn a Master's degree in Exercise Science at Louisiana Tech University where he was involved in various baseball training and research studies, as well as strength and conditioning work with the school's baseball and softball teams. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), and runs swingtraining.net, which is a site dedicated to baseball training and analysis.

RALPH DICKENSON

ROVING HITTING INSTRUCTOR

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 3RD

Ralph Dickenson is entering his third season with the Astros organization and his first as roving hitting instructor. Last season, Dickenson joined the Astros Major League staff as assistant hitting coach following a year as the club's minor league hitting coordinator. Dickenson has been an instructor at the professional or collegiate level for 37 seasons, serving as a manager, hitting instructor, field coordinator and hitting coach during his career.

Prior to joining the Astros, Dickenson spent three seasons as a hitting coach in the Toronto Blue Jays system at Double A New Hampshire (2010) and Class A Advanced Dunedin (2011-12). Overall in his career, he has spent 20 seasons as a minor league hitting coordinator or instructor, with stints in the Brewers, Dodgers, Rangers, Yankees and Nationals organizations.

Dickenson had success in his first professional stint as a manager for Class A San Bernardino (SEA), posting a 157-127 record in two seasons (1988-89). Dickenson also managed the Rookie Level Arizona League Brewers for three seasons (1993-95).

He was originally drafted by San Francisco in the 30th round of the 1968 draft, but did not sign. He signed with Minnesota after being selected in the supplemental first round of the 1969 draft. Dickenson ended up being a two-way player throughout his six-year minor league career, seeing duty as an outfielder (368 games) and as a pitcher (134 games/20 starts).

Dickenson played college baseball at both Mesa Community College in Colorado, and at Arizona State University, where he was a member of the Sun Devils 1969 NCAA Championship team. Following his playing career, Dickenson held collegiate managerial positions at Western Washington University, Washington State University and the University of New Mexico.

Ralph and his wife, Patricia, reside in Tempe, Ariz. They have one daughter, Elizabeth, and three sons, Rich, David and Scott.

DOUG WHITE

ROVING PITCHING INSTRUCTOR

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 3RD

The 2015 season will be Doug White's second as Houston's roving pitching instructor. White joined the organization in 2013 as pitching coach for the Class A Short Season Tri-City ValleyCats. During his time with Tri-City, White helped lead the ValleyCats to the New York-Penn League championship title, and managed a pitching staff that led their league in walks per 9.0 innings (2.2) while finishing second in total strikeouts (619).

Prior to joining the Astros in 2013, White spent five seasons as a pitching coach in the Cardinals minor league system. From 2009-12, he was with Rookie Level Johnson City, and prior to that was the pitching coach for the 2008 New York-Penn League champion Batavia MuckDogs. White's 2011 Johnson City staff led the Appalachian League in WHIP and combined for the second-best ERA in the league en route to capturing back-to-back Appy League championships.

White was also a pitching coach for manager Jack Clark at Mid-Missouri of the Independent Frontier League in 2004 and was the extended Spring Training and Gulf Coast League pitching coach for the Expos in 2003.

White has extensive experience as a pitching instructor and is the founder of "Passion for Pitching", which is housed in Southern California. White is a 2002 graduate of Arizona State University and is a certified Zhealth specialist focused on enhancing movement patterns in his athletes. During the offseason, he resides in San Diego, CA where he spends most of his time surfing.

ADAM EVERETT

INFIELD INSTRUCTOR

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 11TH

Adam Everett is set to return for his third consecutive season as the Astros infield instructor. Last year, Everett was added to the Major League coaching staff on Sept. 1 where he served as interim bench coach for interim Astros manager Tom Lawless. Under Lawless and Everett, the Astros posted an 11-13 record in September.

Everett began his coaching career in 2013 with the Astros, in a position that was newly created during the 2012 offseason. In his current role, he works with both the Major League team as well as the organization's minor league players and staff, focusing on the development of infielders. Everett attends portions of Major and minor league spring training and visits affiliates and the Major League club several times throughout the season.

A veteran of 11 Major League seasons (2001-11), Everett started his big league career with Houston where he manned the shortstop position for parts of seven seasons (2001-07). One of the top defensive players in the Major Leagues, Everett made just 85 errors in 827 career games for a .976 fielding percentage.

In 2005, Everett appeared in 152 games for the National League Champion Astros and started at shortsop in all 14 games that postseason, including four starts in the World Series. His .990 fielding percentage (7 E, 688 TC) in 2006 marks the best by a shortstop in franchise history for a single season, and ranked second in the NL that year. Everett's .979 combined fielding percentage from 2003-06 ranked third in the NL in that span.

Following his playing career, Everett joined the Cleveland front office in 2012 as a special assistant to baseball operations. His career in professional baseball began after he was selected by the Red Sox in the first round of the 1998 draft out of the University of South Carolina.

MINOR LEAGUE COORDINATORS/INSTRUCTORS

MARK BAILEY

CATCHING INSTRUCTOR

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 25TH

Former Astros catcher and Major League bullpen coach Mark Bailey enters his 17th season as a coach or instructor in the Astros organization, and his first as a roving catching instructor. Last season, Bailey served as a developmental specialist/catching coach with the Class A Advanced California League Champion Lancaster JetHawks. Prior to his year with the JetHawks, Bailey was the catching coach at Double A Corpus Christi in 2013 after the Astros created the position during the offseason.

Bailey has been a mainstay in the Astros organization since beginning his coaching career as a hitting coach with the Class A Advanced Kissimmee Cobras in 1998. He has spent a total of seven seasons as a hitting coach in Houston's system, and from 2002-09 spent eight seasons as the Astros Major League bullpen coach where he helped guide the club to the NLCS in 2004 and the World Series in 2005.

Bailey played in parts of seven seasons in the Major Leagues with Houston (1984-88) and San Francisco (1990, 1992), and was part of the Astros NL Western Division championship team in 1986. His best season came in 1985 for the Astros, where he played in 114 games and hit .265 with 10 homers and 45 RBI.

Bailey was drafted by Houston as an infielder in the sixth round of the 1982 draft out of Southwest Missouri State, but converted to catcher in the minors. At SMS, he was a three-year letterman in both baseball and basketball. He was also a two-time Division II All-American and set career records with 146 RBI and 16 game-winning RBI.

Mark and his wife, Mary Pat, have a son, John Patrick.

MORGAN ENSBERG

MINOR LEAGUE SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT COACH

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 13TH

Morgan Ensberg returns to the Astros for his third season and his second as the club's minor league special assignment coach. In his current role, Ensberg travels throughout the Astros system to instruct fielders and work with the club's minor league players. He joined the professional coaching ranks in 2013 as the infield coach at Class A Advanced Lancaster, where he helped lead the club to an 82-58 record and both the first and second half South Division titles in the California League. The former third baseman played eight seasons in the Majors, which included his first seven seasons with the Astros (2000, 2002-07) and stints with the Padres (2007) and Yankees (2008).

Ensberg was a key member of the 2005 Astros club that made it to the World Series, and the 2004 club that advanced to Game 7 of the National League Championship Series. His best season came in 2005, where he was an All-Star and Silver Slugger, and finished fourth in the National League MVP voting after hitting .283 (149x526) with 30 doubles, 36 homers, 101 RBI and a .945 OPS (.388 OBP/.557 SLG). He was also named the Astros 2005 MVP by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA during that historic 2005 season. In 2004, he was honored by the BBWAA as the Astros recipient of the Darryl Kile 'Good Guy' Award.

Following his playing career, Ensberg returned to the University of Southern California in 2010 to finish his degree in finance while also serving as an undergraduate assistant coach for the school's baseball team. He then moved on to be an assistant coach at the University of California, San Diego in 2012. Ensberg has served as a college baseball analyst for ESPN, and from 2011-12 was the co-host on SiriusXM's MLB Roundtrip radio show.

The California native received his B.B.A. in finance from the Marshall School of Business at the University of Southern California, where he played for the school's baseball team from 1995-98. During his three-year playing career at USC, he hit .331 with 40 home runs and 149 RBI and is the only Trojan to have a 20-homer, 20-stolen base season. He was a member of two College World Series teams, including the 1998 National Championship squad. His 40 home runs rank tied for fifth all-time at USC.

GARY RUBY

PITCHING ADVISOR
YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 9TH

Gary Ruby begins his ninth season with the Astros organization and his first as the club's pitching advisor. Ruby will now be based out of the Astros complex in Kissimmee, Fla., where he will work with the organization's pitchers. Ruby has spent parts of the last three seasons as pitching coach with Double A Corpus Christi, and has been a pitching coach in Houston's system since joining the organization in 2007. In 2013, Ruby was named the Texas League Coach of the Year after his pitching staff led the Texas League in innings pitched (1255.0) and wins (83), while ranking second in walks per 9.0 innings (2.7).

Ruby joined the franchise following six seasons as the minor league pitching coordinator for the Pittsburgh Pirates (2001-06). Before working with the Pirates, he spent four seasons in the Philadelphia organization (1998-2001), two in Cleveland's system (1996-97) and nine with the Angels (1987-95). Ruby also served as a coach in the Dominican Winter Leagues for three offseasons from 2011-13.

Ruby attended Arizona State University and the University of Tampa. He played three years in the Cleveland Indians farm system after being selected in the 22nd round of the June 1969 draft.

BRENDAN VERNER

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR
YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 3RD

Brendan Verner returns to the Astros for his third season as the organization's strength and conditioning coordinator after joining the club in 2013. Prior to his time with the Astros, Verner served as the assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at the minor league level for San Diego from 2011-12.

Verner spent two seasons as Cleveland's assistant strength and conditioning coach at the Major League level from 2007-08, where he assisted in coordinating the strength and conditioning evaluations of all minor league and Major League players. He also spent four years working as a strength and conditioning coach in the Cleveland and Pittsburgh minor league systems.

Verner graduated from Cleveland State University in 2007 with a Master of Arts in Exercise Science, and received his Bachelor of Arts degree in P.E. and exercise science in 2004 from John Carroll University. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS), a registered strength and conditioning coach (RSCS) and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

FRESNO PDC: The Astros and Grizzlies are beginning a two-year Player Development Contract that runs through the 2016 season. Fresno is now the ninth Triple A affiliate in Astros history, joining Oklahoma City, Round Rock, New Orleans, Tucson, Charleston, Memphis, Iowa and Denver.

2014 SEASON: In their final season as the Astros Triple A affiliate, the Oklahoma City RedHawks went 74-70, posting their third consecutive winning season.

YOUNG GUNS: At an average age of 23.7 years, the 2014 Oklahoma City RedHawks were the youngest team in the Triple A Pacific Coast League. The Astros Double A affiliate, the Corpus Christi Hooks, were also the youngest team in their league in 2014 with an average age of 23 years.

P-TUCK: OF Preston Tucker hit .309 with six homers, 42 RBI and an .856 OPS over his final 52 games with Oklahoma City. The 2012 seventh round pick hit .282 with 35 doubles, 24 home runs, 94 RBI and an .834 OPS between OKC (73g) and Double A Corpus Christi (65g) in 2014, becoming the first Astros minor leaguer since OF Jason Lane (2000-01) to record consecutive 30-double, 20-homer, 90-RBI seasons.

RISING FROM THE ASHES: Over his last eight games of the season, RHP Asher Wojciechowski went 4-2 with a 3.26 ERA (17ER/47IP), 38 strikeouts and 10 walks. Wojciechowski's season was delayed until May due to a lat strain.

SCLAFANI'S STREAK: IF Joe Sclafani reached base safely in each of his last 45 games to end the 2014 season. His on-base streak marks the longest in the Pacific Coast League since IF Jake Elmore reached base safely in 46 straight games in 2012.

SEE BALL, HIT BALL: IF Ronny Torreyes posted the fourth-lowest strikeout rate (5.0%, 26SO/519PA) among all minor leaguers while hitting .298 in 2014. He also set a Pacific Coast League record with 21 sac bunts.

FRESNO GRIZZLIES STAFF

TONY DEFRANCESCO

MANAGER, FRESNO

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 5TH

Tony DeFrancesco enters his fifth season with the Astros organization as the club's Triple A manager, his 21st season as a minor league manager and his 31st as a player, coach or manager in professional baseball. Under DeFrancesco's leadership, which began in 2011, the Astros Triple A clubs have gone 263-244 (.519) while posting a winning record in each of the last three seasons. In 2013, DeFrancesco led Triple A Oklahoma City to the club's first division title since 2010 with 82 wins, which paced the Pacific Coast League and marked the second-most in RedHawks history for a single season.

While DeFrancesco has been the Astros Triple A manager since 2011, on Aug. 19, 2012, he was named the interim manager of the Astros Major League club. Over the Astros final 41 games of the 2012 season, DeFrancesco steered the club to a 16-25 overall record and a 15-15 finish over the final month of the season.

Prior to joining the Astros in 2011, DeFrancesco spent eight seasons in the Athletics organization, serving seven seasons as manager for Triple A Sacramento (2003-07, 2009-10) and one season as the A's Major League third base coach (2008). During his run with Sacramento, he guided the team to six first-place finishes in the Pacific Coast League Southern Division and three PCL Championships (2003-04, 2007). He was named the PCL Manager of the Year and Sporting News Minor League Manager of the Year in 2003 after the River Cats posted a 92-52 regular season record while going 6-0 in the postseason en route to the championship title. Overall, he owns a 1363-1197 (.532) record in the minor leagues, including an 852-678 (.557) mark in the PCL.

Prior to joining Sacramento in 2003, DeFrancesco managed nine seasons (1994-2002) at four different levels in Oakland's minor league system. He made his managerial debut in 1994 with the Arizona League Athletics and spent the next two seasons as the skipper of Class A Short Season Southern Oregon. He spent the 1997-98 seasons at Class A Advanced Visalia where he guided the Oaks to consecutive playoff appearances in the California League. DeFrancesco then managed Double A Midland from 1999-2002. Prior to his first minor league managerial post in 1994, he served as a coach with Southern Oregon and as a roving catching instructor for two seasons.

A catcher during his playing career, DeFrancesco played eight seasons in the minor leagues for the Boston (1984-87) and Cincinnati (1988-91) organizations. The 1981 graduate of Suffern High School (NY) played for three seasons at Seton Hall University.

ARTHUR "ACE" ADAMS

PITCHING COACH, FRESNO

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 1ST

Arthur "Ace" Adams joins the Astros organization for his first season as pitching coach at Triple A Fresno. Adams comes to the Astros from the Cardinals organization, where he spent the last seven seasons as a pitching coach in the club's minor league system. Most recently, he served as pitching coach at Class A Advanced Palm Beach for two seasons (2013-14) following stints as pitching coach for Class A Quad Cities (2012, 2008-09) and Class A Short Season Batavia (2010-11).

Adams began his career in baseball as a batting practice pitcher in the Red Sox organization for three seasons (1984-86) while also serving as a defensive coordinator. Adams also coached at the collegiate level, serving as the pitching coach at Dartmouth (1984), Harvard (1985), Brandeis (1986-89) and the University of Michigan (1989-96). He landed his first professional coaching assignment with the Expos as the organization's pitching coach at Class A Advanced Jupiter from 1998-2001.

In 2002, he remained with Jupiter as pitching coach when the club began its affiliation with the Florida Marlins organization, and guided the Hammerheads pitching staff to a Florida State League-leading 3.41 ERA and playoff berth. Adams then went on to work as a pitching coach in the Red Sox organization for four years with Class A Short Season Lowell (2003), Class A Augusta (2004), Class A Advanced Wilmington (2005) and Double A Portland (2006).

Adams was drafted by the Cardinals in the 20th round of the 1971 draft but elected to attend the University of Michigan, where he was named All-Big 10 in 1973. The left-handed pitcher signed with the Pirates in 1974.

Adams and his wife Wendy reside in Longmeadow, Mass., with their daughter, Abigail.

LEON ROBERTS

HITTING COACH, FRESNO

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 6TH

Former Major Leaguer Leon Roberts returns for his fourth season as the Astros Triple A hitting coach after spending five consecutive seasons with the Atlanta Braves organization, including four seasons as the club's minor league hitting instructor (2008-11). The 2015 season will be Roberts' 38th working in baseball as either a player, coach, manager or coordinator.

As the minor league hitting coordinator for the Braves, he was responsible for developing the hitting program implemented by all Braves affiliates, as well as evaluating and monitoring the progress of all minor league hitters in the organization.

In his first stint with Atlanta, Roberts served as the organization's minor league hitting coordinator (1994-98), after managing the organization's Class A Macon (1994) and Class A Advanced Durham (1992-93) clubs. During those eight years with Atlanta, Roberts also helped the organization's Major League hitters during September and October of their multiple postseason runs, which included one World Series Title (1995), three total World Series appearances (1992, 1995-96), and six total NLCS appearances (1992-93, 1995-98).

In addition to his time with the Braves, which spanned a total of 13 years, Roberts served various roles with the Cincinnati, Detroit and Tampa Bay organizations. In 2007, Roberts returned to Atlanta for his second stint with the organization as the club's hitting coach at Triple A Richmond. From 2001-06, he spent six seasons as the hitting coordinator in the Cincinnati Reds organization and prior to that, was the Major League hitting coach for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays for two seasons (1999-2000).

Roberts owns a career minor league managerial record of 412-420 (.495) with the Detroit (1986-88) and Atlanta (1992-94) organizations. The former outfielder played 11 Major League seasons with six different teams (Detroit, Houston, Seattle, Texas, Toronto and Kansas City) from 1974-84. Roberts was drafted by the Tigers in the 10th round of the 1972 draft out of the University of Michigan. During his final year at Michigan in 1972, Roberts led the Big Ten with a .367 batting average and was an All-Big Ten first selection.

Leon and his wife, Pam, reside in Arlington, Texas. They have a daughter, Sabrina, and their son, J.D., spent over three years in the Atlanta and Cincinnati minor league systems.

JEFF MURPHY

DEVELOPMENTAL SPECIALIST, FRESNO
YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 3RD

Jeff Murphy begins his third season with the Astros, and his second season as a developmental specialist with the Astros Triple A affiliate. In his current role, Murphy focuses on overseeing the development of the Astros catchers at the Triple A level. He joined the organization in 2013, where he spent the season as a catching instructor and bullpen catcher for the Astros Major League club, a position he held for 12 seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals organization (2000-11).

During his time with the Cardinals, Murphy was a part of the 2006 and 2011 World Series Championship clubs and the 2004 NL Championship team. He joined the Major League staff in 1997 before taking over the instruction of catchers in 2000.

Prior to becoming a coach, Murphy spent five seasons (1992-96) as a catcher in the Cardinals minor league system after being selected in the 19th round of the 1992 draft out of the University of Nebraska.

He and his wife, Leah, reside in Marthasville, MO with their son, Hunter (19), and daughters, Sadie (15) and Lilly (9).

BRYAN BACA

ATHLETIC TRAINER, FRESNO
YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 9TH

Bryan Baca enters his ninth season with the Astros organization and his first as athletic trainer for the Astros Triple A affiliate. Baca spent the last two seasons as the athletic trainer for the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks (2013-14) following a two-year stint with Class A Advanced Lancaster (2011-12) and a three-year stint with Class A Short Season Tri-City (2008-10). Baca joined the Astros organization in 2007 as the athletic trainer at Rookie Level Greeneville.

A native of Santa Fe, NM, Baca is a graduate of New Mexico State with a bachelor of science degree in athletic training. Prior to joining the Astros, he worked for the Santa Fe Roadrunners of the North American Hockey League.

TREY WIEDMAN

STRENGTH COACH, FRESNO
YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 4TH

Trey Wiedman is set to begin his fourth season with the Astros and his first as the organization's strength coach at the Triple A level. Wiedman has worked his way up the Astros system, starting as the strength and conditioning coach for Class A Lexington in 2012 before moving up to Double A Corpus Christi for two seasons from 2013-14.

Wiedman received his bachelor of science degree from the University of Memphis, where he was also a four-year letter winner on the baseball team. He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), a Registered Strength and Conditioning Coach (RSCC) and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

Wiedman is currently pursuing his master's degree in kinesiology from A.T. Still University.

ASTROS PURCHASE HOOKS: In 2013 the Houston Astros purchased the Corpus Christi Hooks baseball club from Ryan-Sanders Baseball LLC. The Hooks are one of four minor league affiliates owned and operated by the Astros, joining the Rookie Level Greeneville Astros, Gulf Coast League Astros and Dominican Summer League Astros.

TONY TERRIFIC: IF Tony Kemp, who split his season between Corpus Christi and Class A Advanced Lancaster, led the minors in runs scored (121) while finishing tied for fifth in hits (167) and 12th in OBP (.411). Kemp was also stellar defensively and was rewarded for his efforts by receiving a 2014 Rawlings Gold Glove Award for defensive excellence at second base.

STRETCH RUN: Last year's No. 1 overall pick in the draft, RHP Mark Appel, had a strong finish to 2014. Over his seven outings at Double A, Appel went 1-2 with a 3.69 ERA and 38 strikeouts.

SHIRLEY BIRD: Prior to getting promoted to Triple A, LHP Tommy Shirley ranked second in the Texas League in ERA (1.88, 18ER/86.1IP). The left-hander went 7-3 with 78 strikeouts and just 17 walks en route to Hooks Pitcher of the Year honors, and was also named a Texas League Midseason and Postseason All-Star.

COMMAND CENTER: RHP Brady Rodgers (120.2 IP, 87 SO, 19 BB) led the Texas League in walks per 9.0 innings (1.42) and strikeout to walk ratio (4.58). Among Texas League pitchers with at least 90.0 innings, RHP Jordan Jankowski (108 IP, 120 SO, 26 BB) ranked first in strikeouts per 9.0 innings pitched (10.00) while RHP Kyle Smith (95.1 IP, 96 SO, 25 BB) ranked second. Jankowski (3.58 ERA) also did not allow a run over 20.0 consecutive innings from Aug. 8-Sept. 1.

RODNEY LINARES

MANAGER, CORPUS CHRISTI

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 18TH

Rodney Linares returns to the Astros organization for his 18th season, and his first as manager at Double A Corpus Christi. Linares has spent the last three seasons as manager at Class A Advanced Lancaster, where he helped guide the club to two California League Championship titles (2012, 2014) while also earning California League Manager of the Year honors in 2012. Linares has spent time at nearly every stop in the Astros minor league system since his first coaching position in 1999, and the 2015 season will be his ninth consecutive as a manager in the Astros organization.

Under Linares, the JetHawks posted a winning record in each of their three seasons, combining for a 234-186 (.557) record and two consecutive first place finishes in the South Division.

Linares entered the coaching ranks in 1999 as a coach and scout for the Astros Dominican Republic operations following a two-year playing career in the Detroit (1997) and Houston (1998) minor league systems. He remained in that role through the 2004 season before becoming the hitting coach at Class A Lexington from 2005-06. Linares then spent three seasons as manager at Rookie Level Greeneville (2007-09) and two seasons as manager at Lexington (2010-11).

Linares has also managed in the Arizona Fall League (2012) and in the Dominican Winter League (2009, 2011). The former infielder was originally signed by the Tigers as a non-drafted free agent in 1997.

Linares and his wife, Rosanna, have two children, Steven and Ryan, and reside in San Pedro de Macoris, DR. His father, Julio, is the Astros Senior Advisor for Latin American Development and has been with the organization since 1973.

DOUG BROCAIL

PITCHING COACH, CORPUS CHRISTI

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 11TH

Doug Brocail begins his first season as the full-time pitching coach at Double A Corpus Christi after spending much of 2014 as the Hooks interim pitching coach. The veteran of 16 Major League seasons was named Special Assistant to the GM and Senior Pitching Advisor prior to the 2014 season, following a stint as the Astros Major League pitching coach from 2011-13.

During his time as the Astros pitching coach that started in mid-June of 2011, Brocail oversaw one of the youngest pitching staffs in the Majors, with 18 different pitchers seeing their MLB debuts under his supervision. Prior to joining the Major League coaching staff, Brocail was a special assistant to the GM for two seasons (2010-11).

As a right-handed pitcher, Brocail compiled a 52-48 record with a 4.00 ERA in 626 appearances (42 starts) with nine saves in parts of 16 Major League seasons (1992-2009) with the Padres, Astros, Tigers and Rangers. His .633 (38-22) winning percentage in his final 12 seasons (1998-2009) was the second-highest among Major League relievers in that span (min. five decisions).

Brocail had three stints with the Astros, posting a 15-14 record in 151 games (11 starts) with a 4.24 ERA and three saves. In 2008, his 47 appearances in the first half were the most in club history by a right-hander. He finished that season at 7-5 in 72 appearances, reaching career bests in games and wins at the age of 42.

Brocail was All-State in football, basketball and baseball at Lamar High School in Colorado, where he tossed three no-hitters and fanned 156 batters in 76 innings to win Colorado Pitcher of the Year honors in 1985.

He and his wife, Lisa, reside in Missouri City, Texas, and have five daughters: Taylor, McKinzie, Madisyne, Camdyn and Parker Elisabeth.

DAN RADISON

HITTING COACH, CORPUS CHRISTI

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 3RD

Dan Radison begins his first season as hitting coach at Corpus Christi and his third in the Astros organization. Last season, Radison served as a special assistant in player development where he traveled throughout the Astros minor league affiliates while also spending time with the Major League club. Radison joined the Astros organization in 2012 as a special assistant to General Manager Jeff Luhnow before taking over as the club's first base coach on Aug. 19 of that season. In 2013, Radison spent the entire year as the assistant hitting coach on Houston's Major League staff.

Radison has more than 30 years of professional experience as a player, Major League coach, minor league manager and coordinator. Prior to joining the Astros, he spent two seasons as first base coach for the Washington Nationals (2010-11) and three seasons as the St. Louis Cardinals minor league hitting coordinator (2007-09). In 2007, he received the Cardinals George Kissell Award for excellence in player development. Radison also managed 12 seasons in the minor leagues between 1984 and 2006, compiling a 622-552 (.530) overall record with three division titles and one league championship.

Radison was drafted as a catcher by the Cardinals out of Southern Illinois University in the 10th round of the 1972 June Draft. He went on to play 200 games across three seasons in the Cardinals farm system, reaching Triple A Tulsa in 1974. He began his baseball coaching career in 1977 as associate head coach at Broward Community College (FL), where he spent three seasons (1977-79). He then had coaching stints at the University of Georgia (1978-80) and Old Dominion University from 1981-83.

Radison's first minor league managerial position came in 1984 at Rookie Level Kingsport. In 1986, he was named the Class A Appalachian League Manager of the Year after guiding Johnson City to a 44-22 record en route to winning the division title. He also earned a division title the following season at Johnson City (1987). Radison later managed for three seasons (1990-92) at Double A Albany, where he earned a division title in 1991 and the Eastern League Championship in 1992. His most recent managerial stint was in 2006 at Johnson City.

Radison is a 1968 graduate of Columbia (IL) High School, where he earned the Pentzler Award for baseball in 1968 and basketball in 1967 and '68. He has a bachelor's degree in health education from Southern Illinois University and earned his master's degree in counseling from Nova Southeastern University (FL).

DEVELOPMENTAL SPECIALIST, CORPUS CHRISTI

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 7TH

Tom Lawless enters his seventh consecutive season with the Astros and his first as the Hooks developmental specialist. In his current role, Lawless will focus on overseeing the development of the Astros infielders at the Double A level.

Last season, Lawless served a multitude of roles throughout the organization, and on Sept. 1 was named the interim manager of the Astros Major League club. Under Lawless, the Astros posted an 11-13 record in September. Also in 2014, Lawless served as interim manager for the Triple A Oklahoma City RedHawks from the beginning of the minor league season through May 26 while Tony DeFrancesco was on medical leave.

The Pennsylvania native has 35 years of experience in baseball and has been with the Astros organization since 2009, when he was named manager for Class A Lexington. Lawless then moved on to manage at Class A Advanced Lancaster (2010) and Double A Corpus Christi (2011) before serving as a roving infield instructor (2012) and infield coach at Triple A Oklahoma City (2013). In 2012, Lawless finished the season as the interim manager at Triple A Oklahoma City while Tony DeFrancesco was promoted to the Majors to serve as the Astros interim manager.

Lawless has served as a manager, coach and instructor in the minor leagues for the California Angels, New York Mets, St. Louis Cardinals, San Diego Padres and Baltimore Orioles. Prior to joining the Astros, he was the minor league roving infield/baserunning instructor for the Orioles for three seasons (2006-08).

In 2002, he spent the season working for the Office of the Commissioner of Major League Baseball as an on-field operations assistant under the supervision of former Astro Bob Watson. He also served as a coach for China during the 2008 Olympic Summer Games.

Lawless began his coaching career in 1992 as a minor league infield/baserunning instructor for two seasons in the California Angels system. In 1994, his first season as a manager, Lawless led the Class A Cedar Rapids Kernels to the Midwest League Championship.

The former infielder played eight seasons in the Majors for Cincinnati, Montreal, St. Louis and Toronto and was traded from the Reds to the Expos for Major League Baseball's all-time hits leader Pete Rose in 1984. He played in one World Series for St. Louis and hit a three-run homer off Frank Viola in a 7-2 Cardinals' win in Game 4 of the 1987 World Series.

Lawless is a graduate of Strong Vincent High School (PA) and the Behrend College of Penn State University with a degree in political science. He and his wife of 33 years, Cheryl, have three daughters; Jessica, Samantha and Hillary and reside in St. Louis, MO.

GRANT HUFFORD

ATHLETIC TRAINER, CORPUS CHRISTI

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 8TH

Grant Hufford enters his eighth season as an athletic trainer in the Astros system and his first with Double A Corpus Christi after spending the 2013-14 seasons with Class A Advanced Lancaster. In 2013, Hufford was named the California League Trainer of the Year.

Hufford joined the Astros organization in 2008 as the athletic trainer at Rookie Level Greeneville where he spent three seasons (2008-10). Following his stint in Greeneville, he was promoted to Class A Lexington where he served two seasons as the club's athletic trainer (2011-12).

Prior to joining the Astros, Hufford worked for the Lawrence Orthopedic Surgery Clinic in Lawrence, Kan. While in Lawrence, he served as the Athletic Trainer at Baldwin High School.

Hufford received his bachelor's degree from Benedictine College. Grant and his wife, Jennifer, and daughter, Genevieve, reside in Merriam, Kan.

MARK SPADAVECCHIA

STRENGTH COACH, CORPUS CHRISTI

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 3RD

Mark Spadavecchia returns to the Astros for his third season, and his first as the strength and conditioning coach at Corpus Christi. Spadavecchia joins the Hooks from the Class A Advanced Lancaster JetHawks, where he was the strength coach for two seasons from 2013-14.

Prior to joining the Astros, Spadavecchia was the strength and conditioning intern for Florida State University's baseball, track, swimming and volleyball teams. During fall of 2012, he also served as the head strength and conditioning coach at John Paul II High School (FL).

Spadavecchia got his start in professional baseball in 2010 as a strength and conditioning intern with the Milwaukee Brewers. He received his bachelor of science degree in health services from Marquette University in 2011, majoring in exercise science with a minor in marketing. While at Marquette, he served as a research assistant. In 2013, Spadavecchia earned his master of science degree in sports sciences from Florida State University.

Spadavecchia is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

LANCASTER PDC: The Astros and JetHawks extended their Player Development Contract through the 2016 season. For the last three years, Lancaster has been the winningest organization in the California League, posting a 233-182 (.561) combined record since 2012.

2014 SEASON: The JetHawks won the California League Championship title in 2014 by defeating Visalia, 3-2, in a best-of-five game series. It marked Lancaster's second championship title in the last three seasons. The JetHawks went 6-2 in the postseason en route to the title.

THE ASCENDANT: SS Carlos Correa was named baseball's No. 2 prospect by MLB.com and No. 3 prospect by ESPN.com following a standout season at Lancaster. The 19-year-old hit .325 with 16 doubles, six homers, 57 RBI, 20 steals and a .926 OPS in 62 games before sustaining a season-ending ankle injury. Prior to the injury, Correa was leading all California League shortstops in fielding percentage.

PITCHER OF THE YEAR: After going 10-3 with a 3.28 ERA and 136 strikeouts in 27 combined games between Corpus Christi and Lancaster, LHP Josh Hader was named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year. With Lancaster, Hader went 9-2 en route to California League Pitcher of the Year honors. Prior to his promotion to Double A, the 20-year-old southpaw was leading the California League in ERA (2.70) and WHIP (1.10) while ranking third in strikeouts (112).

GLOVEWORK: 2B Tony Kemp and C Roberto Pena, who both saw significant playing time with Lancaster last season, received 2014 Rawlings Gold Glove Awards for defensive excellence at their positions.

STAT SHEET STUFFER: OF Teoscar Hernandez had a breakout 2014 season between Lancaster (96g) and Corpus Christi (23g). The 21-year-old ranked tied for ninth in all of the minors with 67 extra-base hits (37 doubles, 9 triples, 21 homers) while hitting .292 with 85 RBI and an .897 OPS (.362 OBP/.535 SLG) between the two clubs.

THE BEST AROUND: JetHawks General Manager Will Thornhill was named the California League Executive of the Year in 2014.

LANCASTER JETHAWKS STAFF

MANAGER, LANCASTER

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 17TH

Omar Lopez begins his 17th season in the Astros organization, and his first as manager at Lancaster. Lopez has spent the last two seasons as manager of the Class A Quad Cities River Bandits, and in 2013 led the club to the Midwest League Championship title after an 81-57 finish in the regular season. Lopez has served as a manager in the Astros system for Rookie Level Greeneville (2011-12), the Gulf Coast League Astros (2009-10) and the Venezuelan Summer League Astros (2008). He has been with the Astros organization since 1999.

Lopez was named the Manager of the Year in the Venezuelan Professional Baseball League for the 2014-15 season after guiding the Caribes de Anzoategui to a league-best 39-24 regular season record and an LVBP Championship title in what was his first year as the club's manager. The 38-year-old Lopez was the youngest manager in the league and became just the third manager in the history of the Caribes club to win the prestigious award.

In 2010, Lopez earned the Astros Player Development Man of the Year award as he was credited with guiding the organization's Spanish-speaking prospects through their first year of professional baseball in the United States. Prior to starting his managerial career in 2008, Lopez served as a hitting and infield instructor in the Astros Venezuelan program and as a full-time scout for the Astros from 1999-2007. While in Venezuela, Lopez was one of the scouts who recommended that the Astros sign Jose Altuve, who was a 16-year-old free agent at the time.

A native of Valencia, Venezuela, Lopez played three seasons of minor league baseball with the Chicago White Sox (1996-97) and Arizona Diamondbacks (1998). He played his first professional season with Rookie Level Bristol in 1996, leading the club in walks over 55 games. In 1997 at Bristol, the third baseman hit .276 with 23 RBI while setting career highs in almost every category. He finished his career in 1998 with Arizona's Class A affiliate at South Bend.

DON ALEXANDER

PITCHING COACH, LANCASTER

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 22ND

Don Alexander returns for his fourth consecutive season as Lancaster's pitching coach, and his sixth season overall with the JetHawks. In 2011, he spent the season as Double A Corpus Christi's pitching coach, and prior to that served as Lancaster's pitching coach from 2009-10. Alexander previously spent four seasons on the coaching staff at Class A Short Season Tri-City (2005-08).

Alexander started his professional coaching career in the Astros organization at Class A Auburn in 1990. He spent the next seven seasons in the Astros system, which included stints at Class A Quad Cities, Class A Asheville, and with the Gulf Coast League Astros. From 1997-99, he was the Double A pitching instructor with the Padres organization. Alexander was also a pitching coach in the Cincinnati system from 1999-2000.

A longtime pitching instructor at the San Diego School of Baseball, Alexander played collegiate ball at the University of San Diego from 1976-80. He served as pitching coach at San Diego Mesa College for six years and was an associate scout for the Astros from 1986-89.

DARRYL ROBINSON

HITTING COACH, LANCASTER

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 7TH

Darryl Robinson enters his seventh consecutive season as the JetHawks hitting coach, a position he has held since 2009. In 2013, Robinson was named the California League Coach of the Year after his JetHawks led the minors in runs (976), walks (669), on-base percentage (.384) and OPS (.853).

The former infielder played in the minor leagues for seven seasons in the Royals system (1986-1992), and also played in the independent leagues in parts of five seasons (1993, 1995-98). He was originally drafted by Kansas City in the second round of the June 1986 draft.

Robinson is a graduate of Whitney-Young High School in Illinois and currently resides in Woodbury, Minn.

RAMON VAZQUEZ

DEVELOPMENTAL SPECIALIST, LANCASTER

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 3RD

Ramon Vazquez returns to the JetHawks for his second season as the club's developmental specialist focusing on infielders. The former Major League infielder joined the Astros in 2014 in what was his first career professional coaching position.

Vazquez played professionally for a total of 18 years, including nine seasons in the Major Leagues with the Mariners (2001), Padres (2002-04), Red Sox (2005), Indians (2005-06), Rangers (2007-08) and Pirates (2009). In 2009, Vazquez played for Puerto Rico in the World Baseball Classic. Vazquez played at Triple A Round Rock with Houston in 2010.

Vazquez was originally selected in the 27th round of the June 1995 draft by the Mariners after attending Indian Hills Community College in Centerville, Iowa. He is currently the president of the "Juntos Dando la Mano" foundation in Puerto Rico.

MICHAEL RENDON

ATHLETIC TRAINER, LANCASTER

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 5TH

Michael Rendon begins his first season as the athletic trainer at Lancaster and his fifth with the Astros organization. Last year, Rendon was the athletic trainer at Class A Quad Cities following two seasons as athletic trainer with Class A Short Season Tri-City (2012-13). In 2011, Rendon landed his first position with the Astros as athletic trainer at Rookie Level Greeneville.

Prior to joining the Astros, Rendon worked for the Southern Illinois University Clinical Experiences, assisting with the rehabilitation and treatment of injured student athletes. Rendon also completed two internships with the athletic training staff for the Springfield Cardinals, the Double A affiliate for St. Louis.

A 2010 graduate of the Southern Illinois University, Rendon earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training. He currently resides in Du Quoin, Ill.

TAYLOR RHOADES

STRENGTH COACH, LANCASTER

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 2ND

Taylor Rhoades returns to the Astros organization for his second season as a strength and conditioning coach, and his first with the JetHawks. Last year, Rhoades joined the Astros as the strength and conditioning coach for the Class A Short Season Tri-City ValleyCats.

Rhoades, who played on the baseball team at Bowling Green State University, spent six months working as a graduate assistant in the university's strength and conditioning department, where he worked mainly with the Olympic sports athletes. Rhoades also spent two summers working with the Class A Kane County Cougars of the Midwest League.

QUAD CITIES PDC: The Astros signed a two-year extension on their Player Development Contract with Quad Citites. The agreement between the two clubs will now run through the 2016 season.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR: OF Brett Phillips was named the Astros Minor League Player of the Year after hitting .310 with 60 extra-base hits (29 doubles, 14 triples, 17 homers), 23 steals and a .905 OPS between Lancaster and Quad Cities despite being one of the youngest players in A-ball at 20 years old. The 2012 sixth-round pick played a key role in Lancaster's championship run, as he hit .324 with three doubles, four RBI and a .378 OBP in eight playoff games. While with Quad Cities, he was leading the Midwest League in slugging while ranking second in OPS and total bases.

ARMS RACE: RHP Michael Feliz struck out 111 batters in 102.2 innings in his full-season debut with Quad Cities. LHP Chris Lee, a fourth round pick by the Astros in 2011, posted a 3.66 ERA and an 8-6 record. Knuckle-baller LHP Blaine Sims went 4-4 with a 3.40 ERA and 47 strikeouts in 55.2 innings.

HR CHASE: IF Chase McDonald finished tied for sixth in the Midwest League in homers (16) while hitting .279. McDonald also posted an .844 OPS, which ranked fourth in the Midwest League.

BIG BATS: After being selected by the Astros in the 2014 draft, both IF A.J. Reed and IF J.D. Davis had strong professional debuts with Quad Cities. Reed, who won every major collegiate award in 2014, played in 68 total games with Quad Cities (34g) and Tri-City (34g), posting a combined .289 average with 20 doubles, 12 homers, 54 RBI and an .898 OPS. Davis also spent time with both the River Bandits and ValleyCats, but with Quad Cities clubbed nine doubles with eight homers and a .303 batting average.

QUAD CITIES RIVER BANDITS STAFF

MANAGER, QUAD CITIES

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 5TH

Josh Bonifay begins his first season as manager at Quad Cities after spending the last two years as manager at Rookie Level Greeneville. Bonifay, who joined the Astros in 2011 as Greeneville's hitting coach, was named the Appalachian League Manager of the Year in 2013 after leading the club to a 38-30 record (second-best record in franchise history) and a berth in the Appalachian League Championship Series. Bonifay became the second Greeneville manager ever to win the Applachian League Manager of the Year Award, joining Tim Bogar, who received the honor during the club's inaugural season in 2004.

An eight-year minor league veteran, Bonifay began his coaching career as a player/coach in the Pirates organization (2007-09) before joining the Astros in 2011. He served as hitting coach for Greeneville in 2011, and spent the 2012 season as hitting coach for Class A Lexington. While with the Legends, Bonifay was named to the South Atlantic League Postseason All-Star Team as a coach.

Bonifay played in 812 minor league games in his career, which included a stint with Double A Corpus Christi in 2006. He was originally selected by the Pirates out of UNC-Wilmington in the 24th round of the June 1999 draft. He posted a .284 batting average with 133 homers and 516 RBI in his career.

A native of Asheville, NC, Bonifay is the son of former Pittsburgh Pirates general manager and current Reds special assistant to the general manager Cam Bonifay. Josh and his wife, Tiffany, reside in Cornelius, NC and had their first child (Cora) in July of 2014.

DAVE BORKOWSKI

PITCHING COACH, QUAD CITIES

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 9TH

Former Major Leaguer Dave Borkowski begins his third season as Quad Cities pitching coach after serving as Class A Lexington's pitching coach from 2011-12 and Rookie Level Greeneville's pitching coach in 2010. He also served as pitching coach for Peoria in the Arizona Fall League during the fall of 2013.

Borkowski enjoyed a 15-year professional playing career, making 181 Major League appearances (21 starts) across seven combined seasons with Detroit (1999-2001), Baltimore (2004), and Houston (2006-08). His first professional season was in 1995 after being selected in the 11th round of the June 1995 draft by Detroit.

In 264 career minor league games, Borkowski was 79-70 with a 3.85 ERA and six saves.

HITTING COACH, QUAD CITIES

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 10TH

Joel Chimelis begins his 10th season in the Houston Astros organization and his third as hitting coach for Quad Cities. Chimelis served as the hitting coach for Double A Corpus Christi in 2012 after spending the 2011 season with Class A Lexington. Prior to that, he spent five years (2006-10) as the hitting coach for the Tri-City ValleyCats. Before joining the Astros, Chimelis spent two years (2004-05) on the coaching staff of the Class A Savannah Sand Gnats in the Montreal Expos/Washington Nationals organization.

A former infielder, Chimelis was selected by Oakland in the 11th round of the 1988 draft. He was traded to the San Francisco Giants in 1991 and spent the 1996 season in the New York Mets organization. Chimelis reached the Triple A level in the Giants system, playing for Phoenix from 1992-95, and was called up to the Majors during the 1995 season. During his 14-year minor league career, he also enjoyed stints in Mexico, Puerto Rico, Taiwan, Korea and Canada.

Born in Brooklyn, NY, Chimelis played baseball at Howard Junior College in Big Spring, Texas, and played for the University of Texas in 1988. He was named to the 1988 NCAA Central Region team with the Longhorns.

Joel and his wife reside in Florida. He is the father of three girls.

TIM GARLAND

DEVELOPMENTAL SPECIALIST, QUAD CITIES

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 3RD

Tim Garland returns to the Astros for his third season, and his first as a developmental specialist with the Quad Cities River Bandits. Garland, who spent the last two seasons as hitting coach at Double A Corpus Christi, will focus on the development of the River Bandits outfielders, as well as the baserunning for all players on the club.

Prior to joining the Astros, Garland served as hitting coach for Double A Midland for two seasons from 2011-12. The 15-year minor league veteran made his coaching debut in 2006 with Class A Kane County before moving to Class A Advanced Stockton, where he served as hitting coach from 2007-10.

Drafted by the New York Yankees in 1989 out of Pensacola Junior College, Garland owned a career .281 batting average in 1,356 minor league games. He tallied 1,445 hits, 41 home runs, 471 RBIs and 388 stolen bases in his career. Garland spent four seasons as a Yankee farmhand, reaching the Carolina League before moving to the independent ranks. He played under Astros great Jose Cruz in 1994 as a member of the Texas-Louisiana League's San Antonio Tejanos. The following year, Garland hit .301 with 20 doubles, nine home runs, 44 RBIs and 37 steals in 96 games for Rio Grande Valley, managed by former Houston catcher and current Astros broadcaster Alan Ashby.

Signed by San Francisco as a free agent in 1996, Garland spent parts of three seasons in the Giants system. Garland batted .304, swiped 116 bases and totaled 343 hits over two campaigns with Class A San Jose. He hit safely in 23 consecutive games in 1996, establishing a club record which stood until 2011. Garland still holds the San Jose Giants single-season records for steals (65) and hits (172), both achieved in 1997.

Garland finished the 1998 season in the Orioles system before being picked up by the Athletics. He played for the 1999 Double A Midland RockHounds, the first season of their Oakland affiliation, batting .289 with six home runs, 55 RBIs and 28 stolen bases.

After his stint with the A's, Garland logged three years in the Triple A Mexican League, suiting up for Campeche, Tabasco and Reynosa. He hit .308 with 90 runs, 24 doubles, five homes, 49 RBIs and 37 steals south of the border.

During his career, the well-traveled outfielder also made stops at Long Island (Atlantic League), Winnipeg (Northern League Central), Amarillo (Central League), Sioux City (Northern League Central), Nashua (Atlantic League), Atlantic City (Atlantic League) and Jackson (Central League) before calling it a career in 2004.

Garland currently resides in Danville, Va.

ATHLETIC TRAINER, QUAD CITIES

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 4TH

Corey O'Brien begins his fourth season with the Astros organization and his first as the athletic trainer at Quad Cities. O'Brien spent the 2014 season as the athletic trainer at Class A Short Season Tri-City following a two-year stint as trainer at Rookie Level Greeneville (2012-13). Prior to joining the Astros, he served as the athletic trainer for the Joliet Slammers, an Independent Professional Baseball team in the Frontier League. While with the Slammers, O'Brien was a part of a championship team that won the Frontier League Cup in the team's inaugural season.

O'Brien attended the University of Wisconsin – Eau Claire, where he earned his bachelor of science degree in athletic training. In the summer of 2008, he worked as an intern athletic trainer for the Rochester Honkers of the Northwoods League. In the spring of 2009, O'Brien had the opportunity to attend Spring Training with the Minnesota Twins as an intern athletic trainer. After completing his undergraduate study in 2009, he went on to attend Delta State University where he served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer working primarily with the baseball team, while also earning his master's degree in health, physical education and recreation.

DWAYNE PETERSON

STRENGTH COACH, QUAD CITIES

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 2ND

Dwayne Peterson returns to the Astros for his second season as a strength and conditioning coach, and his first with the River Bandits. Last year, Peterson served as the strength and conditioning coach for Greeneville.

Prior to joining the Astros, Peterson completed strength and conditioning internships with Northern Kentucky University and with the College of Mt. St. Joseph, where he was responsible for the school's baseball strength and conditioning program.

Peterson is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) as well as a USA Weightlifting (USAW) Level 1 Sports Performance Coach. He is a 2013 graduate of Northern Kentucky University, where he received his bachelor of science degree in exercise science.

TRI-CITY PDC: The Astros and ValleyCats extended their Player Development Contract through the 2016 season. The ValleyCats have been the Astros Class A Short Season affiliate since 2002, and since 2012 Tri-City has posted more wins than any Class A Short SEason club by going 139-83 (.626).

2014 SEASON: After closing out the regular season with their third consecutive Stedler Division title, the ValleyCats advanced to the New York-Penn League Championship Series for the fourth time in the last five seasons.

BACK ON THE SCENE: RHP Joe Musgrove was named the MVP of the ValleyCats after going 7-1 with a 2.81 ERA (24ER/77IP), 67 strikeouts and 10 walks in 15 games (13 starts). The 2011 first round pick was acquired by the Astros in the 10-player trade with Toronto in 2012. Musgrove, 21, finished tied for second in the New York-Penn League in strikeouts, third in innings and WHIP (0.96), and eighth in ERA. In the postseason, Musgrove went 1-0 with an 0.69 ERA (1ER/13IP), one walk and 15 strikeouts.

OBP MACHINE: Selected by the Astros in the 13th round of the 2014 draft out of Belmont, C Jamie Ritchie led the New York-Penn League with a .455 on-base percentage while hitting .331 in 47 games.

PINPOINT CONTROL: RHP Derick Velazquez gave up just two walks in his 23.0 innings with Tri-City this season. The right-hander struck out 24 batters while posting a 1.57 ERA (4ER/23IP) and a .217 opponents' average. Velazquez was a seventh round pick in the 2014 draft out of Fresno State University.

POWER AND SPEED: 2014 first round pick OF Derek Fisher was an integral part in Tri-City's postseason run, batting .303 (46x152) with nine extra base hits, 18 RBI, 17 steals and a .378 on-base percentage in 41 games with the ValleyCats.

ED ROMERO

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 8TH

Former Major Leaguer Ed Romero returns for his third stint as manager of Tri-City and his 40th season working in professional baseball as either a player, manager, coach or instructor. Romero has led Tri-City to the New York-Penn League Championship Series in each of the last two seasons, including a league championship title in 2013.

Romero has served as a manager or coach for 22 seasons, including seven with the Astros organization. He previously spent two seasons as manager of the Astros Gulf Coast League affiliate (2011-12) and one season as manager for the Rookie Level Greeneville Astros (2010). Romero spent two seasons with the Astros Major League club as the third base coach (2008) and bench coach (2009).

Prior to joining the Astros organization, Romero spent three seasons with the Florida Marlins (2005-07) as the organization's roving infield coordinator and eight years as a minor league manager and instructor with Milwaukee. He spent five of his eight years with the Brewers as the club's minor league infield instructor (1997, 1999-2000, 2003-04) and served as manager at Double A El Paso (1998), Double A Huntsville (2001) and Triple A Indianapolis (2002). In 2001, Romero led Huntsville to a share of the Southern League Championship.

Romero's coaching career started with the San Diego Padres organization, where he spent five seasons as a Class A manager and one as a minor league infield coordinator (1991). He has also managed seven seasons in the Puerto Rican Winter League (1994, 1996-98, 2000, 2003-04).

From 1977-90, Romero played in 730 Major League games for four clubs: Milwaukee (1977-85, 1989), Boston (1986-89), Atlanta (1989) and Detroit (1990). A native of San Juan, Puerto Rico, he played in four American League Championship Series with Milwaukee (1981-82) and Boston (1986-88). He also played in the World Series for the Brewers in 1982 and for the Red Sox in 1986.

Romero and his wife Ivonne have two children, Eddie Jr., who is the Director of International Scouting for the Red Sox, and Ariana K.

CHRIS HOLT

PITCHING COACH, TRI-CITY

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 2ND

Chris Holt returns to the Astros organization for his second season as Tri-City's pitching coach. Holt joined the organization following two years as an associate scout with the Baltimore Orioles (2012-13). The former minor league pitcher served as pitching coordinator at the American Baseball Institute from 2011-13 and was a pitching instructor at The Winning Inning from 2013-14. Holt was the Dean and P.E. teacher for the Academy of Business and Leadership Education in St. Augustine, FL from 2008-11.

In 2004, Holt lived in Europe where he taught baseball to school kids during their physical education classes.

Holt also served as an assistant coach for his alma mater, Flagler College, from 2004-07. He was drafted by the Pirates in 2002 and pitched one season at the Class A Short Season level in the Pittsburgh system (2002).

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 3RD

Russ Steinhorn returns to the Astros for his third season as the ValleyCats hitting coach. Steinhorn joined the professional coaching ranks in 2013 after spending the 2012 season as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Delaware State University baseball team.

While with Delaware State in 2012, Steinhorn played a key role in directing the team's offensive and defensive strategies, and helped see the club to a 40-17-1 record. The Hornets led all of Division I baseball in 2012 with 152 hit by pitches (Louisville was the next closest team with 115) and posted the second highest on-base percentage (.423) in the NCAA.

Before joining Delaware State, Steinhorn spent the 2011 season at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, where he was in charge of the outfielders along with assisting the pitchers and hitters. He was also a camp coordinator, and assisted with recruiting, academic advisement, travel and scheduling. Prior to his stint at UNCG, Steinhorn coached for two seasons (2009-10) at Delaware State.

Steinhorn has served coaching positions with the Allegany County Nitros in the New York Collegiate Baseball League and at his alma mater, Edgewater High School in Orlando, FL.

A 2008 graduate of Southeastern University, Steinhorn earned his bachelor's degree in middle grades mathematics education with a minor in religious studies. He also owns a master's degree in sports administration from Delaware State.

JOHN GREGORICH

ATHLETIC TRAINER, TRI-CITY
YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 2ND

John Gregorich returns to the Astros for his second season, and his first as Tri-City's athletic trainer. Last season, Gregorich served as Rookie Level Greeneville's athletic trainer and was named the 2014 PBATS Appalachian League Athletic Trainer of the Year. Prior to joining the Astros, Gregorich was a sports medicine intern for the Cleveland Indians (2013), and in 2012 interned with the Class A Lake County Captains of the Indians organization where he assisted the training staff. Gregorich also served as a graduate student football athletic trainer for the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga during the 2012 football season.

Gregorich received his Masters of Science degree in athletic training from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga in 2013. He received his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Bellarmine University in Louisville, KY.

JAMES McNICHOL

STRENGTH COACH, TRI-CITY
YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 3RD

James McNichol returns to the Astros for his third season and his first at Tri-City. Last season, McNichol served as the strength and conditioning coach at Class A Quad Cities, following a stint as the GCL Astros strength coach in 2013. Prior to joining the Astros, McNichol worked for the National Basketball Academy in Orlando, FL for four years.

McNichol received both his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Central Florida, where he majored in sports & fitness, and applied exercise physiology, respectively. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS).

2014 SEASON: Greeneville finished in fourth place in their division with a 32-34 record.

APPY LEADER: RHP Agapito Barrios led the Appalachian League with a 2.09 ERA (13ER/56IP), going 5-0 with 11 walks and 46 strikeouts. The 20-year-old native of Panama was signed by the Astros in 2010.

BIG BROCK: Standing at 6-foot-8, 240 pounds, RHP Brock Dykxhoorn had a strong debut in the Astros system after being selected in the sixth round of the 2014 draft. A native of Ontario, Canada, Dykxhoorn struck out 36 batters while walking eight in his 31.1 innings. He received Appalachian League Pitcher of the Week honors on Sept. 2 after striking out 10 batters in 5.0 innings in his final start of the season.

CATALYST: CF Jason Martin was named the Greeneville Astros Team MVP after hitting .274 (45x164) with eight steals and a .363 on-base percentage in 42 games as the club's primary leadoff hitter. An eighth round pick by the Astros out of Orange Lutheran High School in 2013, Martin was promoted to Class A Short Season Tri-City for his final 21 games of the year.

GOING YARD: C Jacob Nottingham, a sixth round pick by the Astros in 2013, led Greeneville with five homers as a 19-year-old.

MOUNDMEN: The Greeneville Astros received a number of strong pitching performances this season. Hard-throwing LHP Reymin Guduan struck out 58 batters in his 44.1 innings pitched. 2013 10th round pick LHP Austin Nicely put up a 3.88 ERA (21ER/48.2IP) in his first season out of the complex leagues. 6-foot-5, 241 pound RHP Devonte German went 1-2 with a 3.94 ERA (21ER/48IP) and 33 strikeouts in his second season with the Astros organization (2013 11th round pick). A 34th round selection by the Astros in 2014, RHP Joshua James posted a 2.72 ERA (12ER/39.2IP) with 45 strikeouts and 15 walks.

GREENEVILLE ASTROS STAFF

LAMARR ROGERS

MANAGER, GREENEVILLE

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 1ST

Lamarr Rogers joins the Astros organization for his first season as Greeneville's manager. Rogers has 21 years of experience in professional baseball as both a player and coach, and has spent the last 16 years with the St. Paul Saints Professional Baseball Club of the Independent Northern League.

From 2004-14, Rogers served as the Saints hitting coach and third base coach, helping to lead the club to a 2004 Northern League Championship, four appearances in the league's championship series and seven total playoff appearances. In 2009, Rogers assumed the role of director of the Saints and the Saints Sports Academy in addition to his coaching duties. As director, Rogers oversaw all day-to-day business operations of the academy. He joined the Saints in 1999 as the club's assistant coach and first base coach, a position he held through 2003.

Rogers was selected by Colorado in the 49th round of the 1992 draft and played four seasons in the Rockies system (1992-95) before getting selected by the Detroit Tigers in the Triple A Phase 1996 Rule 5 Draft. Rogers went to Spring Training with the White Sox in 1997 before playing two seasons with the St. Paul Saints (1997-98). In his six seasons in the minors and the Independent Leagues, Rogers hit .288 (570x1981) with 128 steals and a .399 on-base percentage in 560 games.

Rogers graduated from Long Beach State University in 1993, where he was a business major with a minor in televison/broadcasting communications. Rogers was an All Big West and All Regional Team selection in 1991 and 1992, a Cape Cod Summer League All-Star in 1990 and 1991, and a College World Series All-Star in 1991.

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Calif., Rogers currently resides in Burnsville, Minn., with his wife Heather and their four children: Anya (15), Lamarr II (11), Cole (9) and Ava (5).

JOSH MILLER

PITCHING COACH, GREENEVILLE

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 9TH

Josh Miller is entering his third season as Greeneville's pitching coach. Miller spent two years (2011-12) as a pro scout for the Astros before beginning his coaching career with Greeneville in 2013. Miller played in the minor leagues for seven seasons in the Phillies (2001-2003) and Astros (2005-08) organizations, and also spent time in the independent leagues (2004-05, 2009-10).

Miller was originally drafted by Philadelphia in the 32nd round of the June 2001 draft out of North Carolina State University. During his 10 combined seasons in the minors and independent leagues, Miller posted a 67-55 record and a 4.01 ERA.

CÉSAR CEDEÑO

HITTING COACH, GREENEVILLE

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 28TH

Former Major Leaguer and Astros legend César Cedeño returns to the Astros organization for his fourth season as Greeneville's hitting coach. In 2012, Cedeño joined the Astros in a full-time capacity for the first time since 2001.

The former outfielder played 12 seasons (1970-81) with the Astros, collecting five Gold Glove Awards while appearing in four All-Star games. During his 17-year Major League career, Cedeño played with the Astros, Reds (1982-85), Cardinals (1985) and Dodgers (1986), and hit .285 (2087x7310) with 436 doubles, 60 triples, 199 homers, and 550 stolen bases in 2006 career games. In 1970, Cedeño finished fourth in the National League Rookie of the Year voting after hitting .310 with 21 doubles and 17 steals in his debut with Houston. Cedeño received MVP votes in five seasons (1972-74, 1976, 1980) and stole 50 bases or more in six consecutive seasons (1972-77). Signed by Houston as a 16-year-old non-drafted free agent out of the Dominican Republic, Cedeno set club records for total bases, slugging percentage and steals in a season during his tenure with the Astros.

Following his playing career, Cedeño served as a coach or instructor for the Houston organization for 10 seasons (1990-94, 1997-2001). Prior to being named Greeneville's hitting coach in 2012, his last full-time coaching stint was in 2009 with the Washington Nationals.

2014 SEASON: The Gulf Coast League Astros ended the season with a 28-32 record and a fourth place finish in the GCL East standings.

GIG 'EM: After sharing the SEC lead in starts in 2014, RHP Daniel Mengden was selected by the Astros in the fourth round of the 2014 draft. Mengden ended up pitching in four games in the GCL, striking out 11 batters with no walks in his 6.1 innings.

MAKING THE LEAP: RHP Francis Martes was part of a trio of high-upside prospects (also OF Jake Marisnick and IF Colin Moran) that the Astros acquired in the RHP Jarred Cosart trade with the Marlins at the 2014 trade deadline. After joining the Astros, Martes went 1-1 with an 0.82 ERA (1ER/11IP) and 12 strikeouts in four games (three starts). After the season, the 19-year-old was tabbed by Baseball America as the No. 19 prospect in the Gulf Coast League.

TOP PERFORMER: 19-year-old OF Alexander Melendez won two Player of the Month awards in 2014 after hitting .343 (47x137) with 20 steals and a .430 OBP between the GCL, Greeneville and Quad Cities. In 30 games in the GCL, Melendez hit .351 (34x97) with 17 stolen bases.

YOUNG GUN: In what was his age-18 season in 2014, IF Kristian Trompiz made his debut in the U.S.A. with the GCL Astros, hitting .317 (20x63) with five steals and a .405 on-base percentage. The shortstop received two promotions during the year, ending his season at Class A Short Season Tri-City.

2014 SEASON: In 2014, the Astros added a second Dominican Summer League team, joining the Orioles, Rangers and Yankees as the only MLB organizations with multiple teams in the DSL. The DSL Astros Blue club finished the season at 35-34, while the DSL Astros Orange posted a 31-39 record.

ALL-STARS: The Astros had three All-Stars in the DSL this year, with IF Frankeny Fernandez, IF Connor MacDonald and RHP Erasmo Pinales receiving the honors. In what was his first professional season, Fernandez finished sixth in the DSL with 35 stolen bases while hitting .300 (73x243) with a .407 on-base percentage between the DSL Astros Blue and Orange clubs. MacDonald, an Australian native, hit .328 (42x128) with two homers, 24 RBI and a .903 OPS in 35 games in the DSL. Pinales went 3-1 with a 2.13 ERA (17ER/71.2IP), 18 walks and 63 strikeouts in 15 games (14 starts) between the DSL Astros Orange and Blue clubs.

SHORTSTOP ON THE RISE: SS Joan Mauricio had an excellent first season in pro ball after signing with Houston on July 2, 2013. Mauricio finished tied for sixth in the DSL with nine triples while hitting .275 with a .376 on-base percentage and a .444 slugging percentage. The 18-year-old earned a promotion to the Gulf Coast League at the end of July, where he finished the season.

LIGHTS OUT FROM THE LEFT: LHP Salvador Montano finished second in the DSL with 87 strikeouts while going 7-3 with a 2.24 ERA (16ER/64.1IP). The 2014 season was Montano's first as a professional.

YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 20TH

Carlos Alfonso enters his second season with the Astros organization as the club's international development coordinator, and his 20th with the organization overall. Alfonso returned to the Astros in 2014 following an eight-year stint with the Rays organization, serving as a special assistant for one season (2013) and the club's director of international operations for seven years (2006-12). The 2015 season will be his 48th working in professional baseball as either a player, coach, manager or front office member.

Alfonso began his coaching career with the Astros organization in 1977, and served as either a coach or manager in Houston's system until 1986. Among his managerial stops with the Astros were Class A Daytona Beach (1979-81), Double A Columbus (1985) and Triple A Tucson (1986).

Following his time with Houston, Alfonso spent 19 seasons with the San Francisco organization, including 11 seasons on the Giants Major League coaching staff (1992, 1996-2005). From 1986-92, Alfonso served as the Giants Director of Minor League Operations and Player Development, and in 1995 was the club's Coodinator of Latin American Operations. From 1993-94, Alfonso served as the Giants Triple A manager in Phoenix. He has spent six total seasons managing in winter ball.

Originally drafted by the Astros in the 10th round of the 1968 draft as a catcher/infielder, Alfonso converted to a full-time pitcher in 1971, ultimately playing nine seasons in the minors with Houston (1968-75) and Cincinnati (1976), and six seasons of winter ball in Latin America. On the mound, Alfonso went 39-35 with a 3.71 ERA in 234 career minor league appearances.

Alfonso attended the University of South Florida and Florida International University. He holds a second degree black belt in taekwondo.

CHARLIE ROMERO

MANAGER, DSL ASTROS
YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 2ND

Charlie Romero returns for his second season as a manager for the DSL Astros. A veteran of 30 years in professional baseball, Romero has managed 17 seasons and over 1,000 games in the DSL in his career, with his clubs posting a 683-483 (.586) overall record. Romero joined the Astros in 2014 from the Angels, where he ran the organization's Dominican Baseball Academy and spent 26 total seasons as either a player, coach or manager with the club.

In 2010, Romero won the Angels "Preston Gomez Minor League Manager of the Year Award", and in 2005 was named the DSL Manager of the Year. Romero led the 2011 DSL Angels to their first ever DSL Championship title, and has steered five clubs to division titles (2011-12, 2007-08, 2005). In addition to serving as a manager, Romero also served as a hitting coach at various levels in the Angels minor league system, including Rookie Level Mesa (1991-93), Class A Cedar Rapids (1994, 1996), Rookie Level Butte (1997) and Rookie Level Boise (1998).

Romero played professionally as a switch-hitting outfielder for six seasons after getting signed by the Blue Jays in 1985. Romero ended up playing three seasons in the Toronto system (1985-87) and three seasons in the California Angels minor league system (1988-90). In 1985, Romero competed as a sprinter on the Olympic track qualifying team for the Dominican Republic. He resides in La Romana, Dominican Republic and has two children (Charlie and Charleen).

LATIN AMERICAN HOME OF THE HOUSTON ASTROS

GUERRA, SANTO DOMINGO, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

The Houston Astros celebrated their 25th season in the Dominican Republic on May 10, 2010, with the Grand Opening of the new Astros Latin American Home in Guerra, Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic.

The Astros have had a presence in the Dominican Republic since 1985 when the club operated out of the Estrellas Winter League Stadium in San Pedro de Macoris. From 1987-2009, the Astros home in the Dominican Republic was at Ingenio Santa Fe where numerous future Major Leaguers played.

The new complex consists of two-and-a-half baseball fields, six pitching mounds, batting cages and an observation tower, along with other amenities. A two-story building contains locker rooms, manager and coaches offices, administrative offices, a dining room, full-service industrial kitchen, weight room, player and staff living accomodations, and a player entertainment room. In addition to developing young players and their baseball skills, the Astros new Latin American home also helps develop their educational skills and features a computer lab and classrooms.

The complex is located a half-mile from the new Tampa Bay and Los Angeles Dodgers facilities and in the same general area as other Major League Dominican Academies.

LATIN AMERICAN HOME STAFF

CARIDAD CABRERA

SUPERVISOR, LATIN AMERICAN OPERATIONS
YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 6TH

Caridad Cabrera enters her sixth season with the Astros after joining the organization in January of 2010. Cabrera oversees all aspects of the Astros Latin American operations in addition to overseeing the administrative aspects of Houston's Dominican academy.

Cabrera holds a master's degree in business administration from Instituto Tecnologico de Santo Domingo, as well as an engineering degree in computer systems from Universidad Dominicana O & M.

ALL-STAR FUTURES GAME

2014 SIRIUSXM ALL-STAR FUTURES GAME

2014 SEASON IN REVIEW

2014 CLUB NOTES

IMPROVEMENTS: The Astros finished the 2014 season 70-92, which is a 19-win improvement over their record in 2013 (51-111)...the 19-win improvement was the second-best in the Majors.

Highest Win Difference, 2013 to 2014

American League	MLB
1. LAA: +20	1. LAA: +20
2. HOU: +19	2. HOU: +19
3. SEA: +16	3. SEA: +16
4: BAL: +11	4. MIA: +15

SPINNING RECORDS: With their 19-win improvement from 2013 to 2014, the Astros posted their second-best turnaround in franchise history...below are the top three year-to-year improvements in franchise history:

Year 1	Year 2	Improvement
2000 (72-90)	2001 (93-69)	+21
1997 (84-78)	1998 (102-60)	+18

HINCH HIRED: On Sept. 29, a day after the season finale, the Astros named A.J. Hinch as the 18th manager in franchise history...Hinch brings more than 20 years of playing, managing and front office experience in Major League Baseball to the Astros organization...this is his second managerial post, as he served as Arizona's manager for parts of two seasons from 2009-10...Hinch also played parts of seven Major League seasons with Oakland, Kansas City, Detroit and Philadelphia...a former catcher, Hinch played in 338 career Major League games after being selected in the third round of the 1996 draft...Hinch joins the Astros from San Diego, where he most recently served as the club's Vice President and Assistant General Manager for three years (2011-14).

DOWN THE STRETCH: The Astros went 13-13 in their last 26 games and 19-19 in their last 38...Houston played close to .500 baseball over the last two-plus months (since July 28), posting a 28-29 record in their last 57 games.

WINNING MONTHS: The Astros posted winning records in May (15-14) and August (15-14) this season...these were the first winning months posted by the Astros since the 2010 season (July, August, September).

MIDSEASON CHANGE: On Sept. 1, the Astros named Tom Lawless interim manager after Bo Porter was relieved of his duties...additionally, Adam Everett was added to the ML coaching staff, replacing Dave Trembley as bench coach...under Lawless, the Astros posted an 11-13 record in September...Lawless had been serving as the organization's infield coach at Double A Corpus Christi.

ASTROS NAME COACHING STAFF: The Astros named their coaching staff for the 2015 season on Oct. 17...pitching coach Brent Strom and bullpen coach Craig Bjornson will return in their same roles as last season...they will be joined by:

- Bench Coach: Trey Hillman
- Hitting Coach: Dave Hudgens
- Third Base Coach: Gary Pettis
- First Base Coach: Rich Dauer

FOUR MONTHS: Over a four-month span, from May 11-Sept. 15, the Astros played one game under .500 baseball, posting a 56-57 record in 113 games.

RIGHT DIRECTION: The Astros finished the season 70-92 and in fourth place in the AL West...this marked the club's best record since posting a 76-86 record in 2010.

BBWAA AWARDS: The Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) announced their annual awards for the 2014 season:

- Astros MVP: Jose Altuve
- Astros Pitcher of the Year: Dallas Keuchel
- Astros Rookie of the Year: Collin McHugh
- DK Good Guy Award: Scott Feldman
- Houston Area (non Astro) Player of the Year: Anthony Rendon, Washington Nationals
- Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award: Jamie Hildreth, Astros Senior VP of Broadcasting and Alumni Relations

START ME UP: Astros starters posted a combined 2.44 ERA (44ER/162IP) in their last 26 games (beginning on Aug. 30)...Houston went 13-13 overall in those 26 games.

MLB STARTERS ERA (Since Aug. 30)

1. Washington - 2.32 (48ER/186IP)
2. Houston - 2.44 (44ER/162IP)
3. Baltimore - 2.55 (50ER/176.2IP)

2014 CLUB NOTES

SPEED AND POWER: Among American League teams, the Astros ranked second in stolen bases (122) and third in home runs (163)...they are the only team this season to reach both of those stolen base and home run totals...prior to this season, the Astros had reached both of those totals only twice, the 1998-99 seasons... their 163 home runs were the most since 2008 (167) and the 11th-highest total in franchise history.

ICE CREAM SUNDAYS: The Astros completed their season with a 14-12 record on Sundays, having won four of their last five Sunday games.

Most Astros HR - Pre All-Star Break

1. 2001 - 134	3. 2003 - 108
2. 2000 - 127	4. 2014 - 103

LEAGUE LEADERS: 2B Jose Altuve led the American League in batting average (.341), hits (225) and steals (56), while LHP Dallas Keuchel led the AL in complete games (5).

Last Astro to lead league in:

- Batting average: never prior to 2014
- Hits: OF Jose Cruz (189) tied for NL lead in 1983
- Steals: OF Michael Bourn (52) in 2010
- Complete games: never prior to 2014

ODDS AND ENDS ON THE BUMP: Astros starting pitchers posted their best collective ERA (3.82) since the 2005 World Series club's rotation (3.46)... Houston finished second in the AL in GB/FB ratio (1.56)...the club's starters led the AL in GB/FB ratio (1.66)...the club's starters ranked second in the AL in home runs allowed per 9.0 innings with an 0.78 mark (84HR/970IP)...marked the best HR/9 produced by an Astros starting pitching staff since 1993 (0.75, 87HR/1049.1IP).

SILVER BOOT: The Astros won the season series against the Rangers, 11-8, securing the Silver Boot Trophy...this included a 7-3 record in their three series at Minute Maid Park...this marks the first time that Houston has won the season series with the Rangers since 2006 (4-2).

WHERE IT STARTS: The six Astros pitchers that completed the season in the rotation were all solid over the last couple months of the season...here is how they ended:

- Keuchel - seven consecutive quality starts
- Feldman - seven consecutive quality starts
- McHugh - seven straight winning decisions
- Oberholtzer - Houston went 9-8 in his final 17 starts
- Peacock - 2.12 ERA over his final six starts
- Tropeano - allowed a .241 opponent's BA over first/final four MLB starts

THREE MAKE MLB DEBUTS: RHP Nick Tropeano made his Major League debut on Sept. 10 at SEA as a starter, becoming the third Astros pitcher to do so this season...here's how the three Astros starters fared while making their Major League debuts:

Pitcher	Date	Result
N. Tropeano (4ER/5IP)	9/10 at SEA	W 5-2
J. Buchanan (5ER/4.1IP)	6/21 at TB	L 0-8
R. Owens (5ER/5.2IP)	5/23 at SEA	L 1-6

HOME SWEET HOME: The Astros finished their season with a 38-43 record at home, a 14-win improvement over last year's home record (24-57)...the Astros started 3-9 at home (through April 25) and finished with a 35-34 record over their last 69 home games...their 38 wins at Minute Maid Park this season are the club's most since 2010 (42-39).

TRADE RECAP: On July 31, the Astros completed a six-player trade with the Marlins prior to the trade deadline...in the deal, the Astros acquired OF Jake Marisnick, IF Colin Moran, RHP Francis Martes and a 2015 Competitive Balance Round A pick...in return, the Astros traded RHP Jarred Cosart, IF Kiké Hernandez and OF Austin Wates.

ROAD WARRIORS: The Astros posted 6-4 and 3-2 records on consecutive road trips from May 19-June 10, giving them back-to-back winning trips for the first time since 2010: Aug. 20-29 (6-4), Sept. 3-8 (4-2)...over that span, Houston went four straight road series without losing a series (two wins, two splits) for the first time since opening up the 2004 season without losing a road series in each of their first six series (five wins, one split).

SPOILER ALERT: From Aug. 19 through Sept. 21, the Astros played 27 of 31 games against playoff-contending teams…in those 27 games, Houston went 14-13… the 27 games included matchups with the Yankees (2-1), A's (3-3), Angels (3-2), Indians (2-5) and Mariners (4-2).

SERIES WINS: The Astros won four straight series, beating the Rangers (3-1), Angels (2-0), Athletics (2-1) and Mariners (2-1) from Aug. 28-Sept. 10… this marks the first time that Houston has won outright four straight series since the Astros won five straight from May 29-June 14, 2009.

SERIOUS BUSINESS: The Astros went seven straight series without a series loss from May 22-June 12…the last time they went seven straight series without losing one was April 3-26 of 2006 (6 series wins, 1 tie).

2015 SCHEDULE: The Astros will open their 2015 schedule with a three-game series against the Cleveland Indians, with Opening Day set for Monday, April 6, at Minute Maid Park…while Houston will host all American League clubs in the regular season, the Astros also have home series with the Dodgers and Giants from the National League West…Houston will conclude their 2015 season with a three-game series at Arizona, which will be the second consecutive season in which the Astros finish the year with an Interleague series…Houston played the Mets in New York for the final series in 2014.

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR: 2B Jose Altuve was named an All-Star for the second time in his career via the player vote…Altuve, who was also a member of the NL All-Star team in 2012, is one of three Astros second basemen to make an All-Star team (also, Joe Morgan, Craig Biggio).

THIEVERY: 2B Jose Altuve had a run of 28 successful stolen base attempts from May 17-July 19…this tied a franchise record set by Carlos Beltran in 2004… the last Major Leaguer with a 28-steal run without being caught was 2B Daniel Murphy (2013-2014).

CALL TO THE HALL: On Jan. 6, 2015 the National Baseball Hall of Fame announced that 2B Craig Biggio was elected into the 2015 Class along with LHP Randy Johnson, RHP Pedro Martinez and RHP John Smoltz…Biggio, who is now the first player in franchise history elected into the Hall of Fame, received 82.7% of the vote in what was his third year on the ballot…1B Jeff Bagwell, who was on the ballot for the fifth time, received 55.7% of the vote (75% required).

FIVE TO JAPAN: 2B Jose Altuve, IF Chris Carter, OF Dexter Fowler and RHP Jose Veras were named to the Major League Baseball All-Star Team, which traveled to Japan this offseason…the 2014 Japan All-Star Series featured MLB All-Stars traveling to Japan in November to play a five-game series against "Samurai Japan" (Japan's National Team)…joining the four players in Japan was Astros mascot Orbit, who was the only MLB mascot invited on the trip.

BATTING TITLE SECURED: 2B Jose Altuve became the first player in franchise history to win the batting title with a .341 (225x660) average…he finished immediately ahead of Detroit's DH Victor Martinez and his .335 (188x561) average…entering the final game of the season, Altuve held a .003 point advantage and secured his title with a 2x4 day.

ASTROS BATTING TITLE: Prior to 2B Jose Altuve's historic season, the Astros (in existence since 1962) were one of four teams in the Majors to never win a batting title, joining Milwaukee (1969), Arizona (1998) and Tampa Bay (1998)…now the Oakland (1952), Cleveland (1954) and Philadelphia (1958) franchises have gone the longest without a batting champ.

ALTUVE IN THE ALL-STAR GAME: After entering the 2014 All-Star game at second base in the top of the 5th, 2B Jose Altuve got his one plate app. in the bottom of the 5th and hit a sacrifice fly, which extended the American League lead to 5-3…Altuve is just the fifth Astros player to record an RBI in an All-Star Game, joining Lance Berkman (2002, 2006, 2008), Craig Biggio (1995-96), Cesar Cedeno (1973, 1976) and Lee May (1972).

ALTUVE'S HISTORIC SEASON: Below is a list of the milestones that Jose Altuve reached in 2014:

- with 225 hits, 47 doubles and 56 steals, is one of two Major League players to reach those totals in one season in MLB history, also Ty Cobb in 1911 (248 hits, 47 doubles, 83 steals).
- his 225 hits were the most by a second baseman since Charlie Gehringer posted 227 hits in 1936 for the Detroit Tigers.
- with 225 hits, set the single-season franchise hit record, which had been set by Craig Biggio (210 hits in 1998)...was just the second player in franchise history to reach 200 hits.
- set the single-season record for hits by a Venezuelan-born player...the previous record was set by Magglio Ordonez (216) in 2007...his 56 steals tied as the third-most by a Venezuelan.
- posted franchise records with 69 multi-hit games, 24 three-hit games and 168 singles (all tops in MLB).
- finished the season leading the AL in batting average (.341), hits (225) and stolen bases (56)...became the first player to lead his league in those categories since Ichiro Suzuki in 2001 (.350, 242 H, 56 SB)...prior to Suzuki, the last player to do so was Snuffy Stirnweiss with the 1945 Yankees (per Elias).
- posted the most hits in a single season by a right-handed hitter since Paul Molitor also had 225 in 1996.
- became the first Major League player in 97 years with four straight multi-steal games (from June 26-29) and just the third player in baseball's modern era (since 1900) to accomplish this...the first two were Bill Dahlen (1904) and Ray Chapman (1917).

ON THE DEFENSIVE: 2B Jose Altuve committed his first error of the season on May 28 at KC, which snapped an 88-game errorless streak (421 total chances), which is a franchise record per Elias...the previous record was held by 2B Rafael Landestoy (78g, 1980).

I'LL TAKE TWO: Chris Carter recorded seven multi-homer games this season and now has 10 in his career (all as an Astro)...his seven multi-homer games in a single season are a franchise record, surpassing Lance Berkman's previous record of six, set in 2006.

ALTUVE'S AWARDS: In addition to his Team MVP Award, Altuve won the Silver Slugger Award for AL second basemen and MLB.com's GIBBY (Greatness in Baseball Yearly Award) for Breakout Everyday Player of the Year...for his off the field activity, Altuve was the Astros nominee for MLB's Hank Aaron Award and was also named the Astros recipient of the Heart and Hustle Award, presented by the MLB Players Alumni Association... additionally, he was named one of three finalists as the AL's Most Outstanding Player in the Players Choice Awards.

HALL OF FAME EXHIBIT: At the request of the Hall of Fame, 2B Jose Altuve donated several items to the Hall in 2014, including the bat he used when recording his final hit of the season, the franchise record 225th hit...he also donated his cleats that were used when stealing two bases in four straight games, as he the first player to do so since 1917.

TWO-PLUS: 2B Jose Altuve recorded multiple hits in seven straight games from Sept. 10-17, the Astros longest multi-hit game streak since Lance Berkman also went seven straight from May 3-10, 2008...only two Astros in franchise history have had multi-hit game streaks longer than seven games: Billy Hatcher (9g, 1987) and Jesus Alou (9g, 1969).

QUICKEST TO 500: 2B Jose Altuve reached 500 career hits on June 18 at WSH with a 9th-inning single...that was his 426th career game, making him the fastest player to reach 500 career hits with the Astros franchise...below are the quickest Astros to 500 hits:

Games	Hits	Player	Year
426	501	Jose Altuve	2014
427	501	Cesar Cedeno	1973
451	500	Terry Puhl	1980

CARTER NAMED POTW: IF/OF Chris Carter was named the AL Player of the Week for the week of Aug. 11-17...during the week, Carter hit .321 (9x28) with four home runs and nine RBI with a .750 slugging percentage and a 1.083 OPS...among AL players during the week, Carter led the league in home runs, RBI and total bases (21), while ranking second in slugging and tied for fourth in hits.

2014 CLUB NOTES

CC'S BUFFET: From July 1 thru the end of the season, Chris Carter led the Majors in home runs (24), ranked second in slugging (.564), tied for second in RBI (58) and seventh in OPS (.906).

SINCE JULY 1 - MLB

Home Runs	Slugging	RBI
1. Carter-24	1. Werth-.568	1.Gonzalez-66
2. Bautista-20	2. Carter-.564	T2.Carter-58

NEAR PLAYER OF THE MONTH: DH Chris Carter did not win AL Player of the Month for August, but did make a serious run at it after leading the Majors in home runs (12) and slugging (.626) while finishing second in RBI (29) in the month...his home run total was the second-highest by a player in a month this season (Edwin Encarnacion-16 HR in May)...Detroit's DH Victor Martinez earned the AL Player of the Month honors.

Astros Records For August

Most HR	Most RBI
T1. 12 - C. Carter (2014)	1.34 - J.Bagwell (2000)
T1. 12 - J. Bagwell (2000)	2.29 - C.Carter (2014)
T1. 12 - T. Wigginton (2008)	3. 28 - 4 players tied

ROOKIES OF THE MONTH: For the first time in franchise history, the Astros had two different players win the American League Rookie of the Month in the same season: OF George Springer (May) and RHP Collin McHugh (September)... prior to this season, only three Astros players had won the National League Player of the Month: OF Hunter Pence (May 2007), RHP Kirk Saarloos (July 2002) and RHP Roy Oswalt (August 2001).

SINGLETON INKED: On June 2, the Astros recalled 1B Jon Singleton and agreed to terms on a five-year contract (2014-18) with three club option years (2019-21)...Singleton hit .267 with 14 home runs, 43 RBI and 42 walks with a .397 OBP and a .941 OPS in 54 games with Triple A Oklahoma City this season.

MAY ROOKIE OF THE MONTH: RF George Springer was named the AL Rookie of the Month for May...for the month, Springer led all AL rookies in home runs (10), RBI (25), runs (22), and slugging (.647) while hitting .294...his 10 home runs in May rank tied for third all-time in Major League history for home runs in May by a rookie...the last Major League rookie to club 10 or more home runs during the month was Mark McGwire in 1987 (15 HR are a MLB record).

MCHUGH FLAWLESS IN SEPTEMBER: En route to being named the AL Rookie of the Month in September, RHP Collin McHugh won all four of his starts in the month, finishing with a 4-0 record and a 1.59 ERA (5ER/28.1IP)...he recorded 25 strikeouts and just one walk in September and led all Major League rookies in ERA, opponents' average (.150, 15x100), WHIP (0.56) and strikeout to walk ratio (25.00), while ranking tied for first in wins.

STALKING PUMA: Despite playing in just 78 games this season, OF George Springer hit 20 home runs, just one home run shy of tying the franchise rookie record for home runs in a single season... although he fell short of the single-season record, Springer did set franchise rookie records for home runs (19) and RBI (50) prior to the All-Star Break

BIG JON: With his homer on June 12 vs. ARI, Jon Singleton became just the second player in club history to reach four home runs in his first 11 career games...J.D. Martinez (2011) was the first.

#VOTEKEUCHEL: LHP Dallas Keuchel was one of five players named to the Final Vote ballot for the AL All-Star team, but ultimately did not end up making the squad...prior to 2014, the Astros had two players make the Final Vote ballot: OF Carlos Lee (2008) and RHP Roy Oswalt (2005, 2007)...Oswalt won the fan vote in 2005.

YOU'RE GROUNDED: Astros starter LHP Dallas Keuchel finished the season with a 3.63 ground ball to fly ball ratio, which led the Majors by a wide margin...RHP Tyson Ross (SD) ranked second in the Majors with a 2.81 ratio... since that stat started being tabulated in 1987, only three pitchers have posted a higher ground ball to fly ball ratio in a single season other than Keuchel: RHP Brandon Webb (2005-06), RHP Derek Lowe (2003, 2006) and RHP Kevin Brown (1997).

KEUCHEL'S GEMS: Over three straight starts from May 13-25, LHP Dallas Keuchel tossed two complete games and went 8.2 innings in his other start... the last Astros pitcher to go at least 8.2 innings in three straight starts was RHP Darryl Kile (June 22-July 3, 1993)...Kile also had two complete games and an 8.2-inning start in his run...the last Major Leaguer to do so was LHP Cliff Lee from June 16-28, 2011 (three consecutive shutouts).

ROOKIE RANKINGS: Among Major League rookies, RHP Collin McHugh ranked first in ERA (2.73)(min. 150IP), third in strikeouts (157), fifth in innings pitched (154.2) and tied for fourth in wins (11)...in Astros rookie history, McHugh ranked second in ERA, third in strikeouts and tied for fourth in wins.

KEUCHEL WINS GOLD GLOVE: LHP Dallas Keuchel won the American League Rawlings Gold Glove Award, beating out finalists LHP Mark Buehrle and RHP Felix Hernandez...Keuchel is the first pitcher in franchise history to win a Gold Glove, and the eighth player overall.

WORKHORSE: LHP Dallas Keuchel led the AL in complete games with five, which were the most by an Astros southpaw since Mike Hampton tallied seven complete games in 1997...Keuchel is the first Astro in franchise history to lead their league in complete games...his 200.0 IP ranked fifth in the AL.

KEUCHEL WINS AL PLAYER OF THE WEEK: LHP Dallas Keuchel won the American League Player of the Week Award for the week of May 19-26... Keuchel made two starts in the week, posting a 2-0 record with a 1.02 ERA (2ER/17.2IP)...he became the first Astros pitcher to win a Player of the Week Award since RHP Roy Oswalt from Sept. 1-7, 2008.

JUST SHY: RHP Collin McHugh finished his season with 154.2 innings pitched, just 7.1 innings shy of qualifying for the ERA title...among AL pitchers with at least 150 innings pitched, McHugh ranked fourth in opponents batting avg. (.208), sixth in ERA (2.73) and seventh in SO/9IP ratio (9.14).

2014 CLUB NOTES

PITCH EFFICIENCY: In his Astros debut on April 22 at SEA, RHP Collin McHugh needed just 89 pitches to record 12 strikeouts in 6.2 innings pitched...there have been just four other pitchers in Major League history who have struck out 12+ batters while throwing 89 pitches or less: Dillon Gee (2013), Greg Maddux (2000), Matt Perisho (1999) and Mark Guthrie (1995).

OBIE-WON: LHP Brett Oberholtzer lasted 5.0 or more innings in each of his first 14 career Major League starts, which ties a franchise record, from July 31, 2013-April 19, 2014...RHP Mark Lemongello also went 5.0+ innings in each of his first 14 Major League starts from 1976-77...Oberholtzer's streak is the longest by a lefty in franchise history.

EXCLUSIVE COMPANY: With his Opening Day start, RHP Scott Feldman became just the second pitcher in history to make Opening Day starts for both the Astros and Rangers...Feldman made his first career Opening Day start while with the Rangers on April 5, 2010, vs. TOR, a 5-4 Rangers win (7 IP, 3 ER, ND)...Hall of Famer Nolan Ryan also made Opening Day starts for both clubs.

TWO SERVINGS: On June 8 at MIN, both DH Chris Carter and 1B Jon Singleton hit their first career grand slams...this marked the second time in franchise history that the Astros hit two grand slams in the same game...the last time it happened was on July 30, 1969, when Jimmy Wynn and Dennis Menke each hit grand slams in the 9th inning of the first game of a doubleheader against the Mets.

FAMILY MATTERS: Astros LHP Kevin Chapman matched up against his cousin OF Matt den Dekker, who was also his youth, high school and college teammate at the University of Florida...for the first time in their Major League careers, the two faced each other on Sept. 26 at NYM, with Chapman issuing a walk to den Dekker...prior to that game, the two had matched up in Spring Training over the last two seasons, with Chapman recording two strikeouts and allowing a triple in den Decker's three plate appearances.

QUALLS CALL: Closer RHP Chad Qualls led all Major League relievers with a 0.88 walks per 9.0 innings ratio (5BB/51.1.IP)... he struck out 43 batters this season, good for the third-highest strikeout to walk ratio (8.60) among MLB relievers...in franchise history, ranks as the second-lowest single-season walks per 9.0 innings ratio by an Astros reliever (RHP Wilton Lopez, 0.67 in 2010).

MLB Leaders (Qualifying Relievers)

BB/9IP	SO/BB Ratio
1. Qualls (HOU) - 0.88	1. Doolittle (OAK) - 11.13
2. Uehara (BOS) - 1.12	2. Uehara (BOS) - 10.00
3. Doolittle (OAK) - 1.15	3. Qualls (HOU) - 8.60

TONY TERRIFIC: LHP Tony Sipp retired the first 21 batters he faced this season, from May 2-22...he did that in a span of six apps., in which he punched out 11 batters in 7.0 innings of work.

* Sipp is the first pitcher in Astros history to not allow a baserunner in his first five apps. with the club, and the first Astro to not allow a baserunner in his first five apps. to start a season.
* the last ML pitcher to retire the first 20-or-more batters he faced with one club was the Rockies Tim Harikkala (first 22) in 2004 (Elias).

QUICKIES: The Astros and Yankees game on Aug. 21 at NYY lasted 2:07, which is the shortest game in the history of the new Yankee Stadium, which opened in 2009...it was also the shortest Astros game since a 2:02 contest on July 19, 2012, at SD (1-0 loss)...in the contest, both starters tossed complete games, with RHP Brandon McCarthy (0ER/9IP) besting LHP Dallas Keuchel (3ER/8IP)...this marked the first time in an Astros game in which both starting pitchers went the distance since Aug. 23, 2005, at SD (RHP Roger Clemens vs. RHP Jake Peavy, a 2-0 Padres win).

NEWBIES: Seventeen players on the Astros Opening Day roster were acquired over the past two seasons (2012-13)... eight Astros players made their debuts on an Opening Day roster this season: LHP Kevin Chapman, RHP Jarred Cosart, OF Robbie Grossman, OF L.J. Hoes, OF Marc Krauss, LHP Dallas Keuchel, LHP Brett Oberholtzer and SS Jonathan Villar.

2014 CLUB NOTES

PLAYING THE FIELD: Twice this season, LHP Tony Sipp played the outfield, making an appearance in right field on June 9 vs. ARI and in left field on June 15 vs. TB...in both cases, Sipp faced a batter, moved to the field, and returned to the mound...this marked Sipp's first career ML appearances in the outfield (played outfield while at Clemson University)... also marked the fourth time in franchise history a pitcher made an appearance in the outfield...also LHP Wesley Wright (2011, 2012) and RHP Scott Elarton (1999).

SEPTEMBER CALL-UP: RHP Nick Tropeano was one of five September call-ups, but the only without prior Major League experience...he would make his Major League debut on Sept. 10 at SEA and earn the win after tossing 5.0 innings, while allowing two runs...Tropeano had a stellar year at Triple A Oklahoma City, where he posted a 9-5 record and a 3.03 ERA (42ER/124.2IP) in 23 games (20 starts) for the RedHawks...he was a Pacific Coast League All-Star and led the league in ERA, WHIP (0.99) and opponents' batting average (.202).

LANCE AND ROY: On April 5, the Astros celebrated the careers of Lance Berkman and Roy Oswalt, who both officially retired as Astros...Hall of Fame broadcaster Milo Hamilton served as the emcee for the pregame ceremony during which each player received a cowboy hat and a rocking chair.

HILDRETH NOMINATED FOR TEXAS RADIO HOF: Astros SVP of Broadcasting and Alumni Relations Jamie Hildreth was nominated for induction into the Texas Radio Hall of Fame…a 40-plus year veteran of Houston radio, Hildreth has been with the Astros organization for 28 seasons…Hildreth's radio career in Houston began in 1970 at KXYZ, continued with KRBE and KTRH and served as general manager for KTRM/KALO radio in Beaumont…in his current role with the Astros, Hildreth provides leadership on the club's radio and television affiliate relations efforts, with emphasis on outreach and expansion of the network's scope while overseeing both the radio and television broadcasts.

CAPTAIN'S HONOR: The Astros recognized Yankees SS Derek Jeter during a pregame ceremony on April 2...RHP Roger Clemens and LHP Andy Pettitte, both former teammates of Jeter and former Astros, took part...the Astros presented Jeter with a Stetson cowboy hat, a custom set of Lucchese cowboy boots and a custom Titleist golf club set.

CARDENAS A FINALIST FOR FRICK AWARD: Spanish broadcasting pioneer Rene Cardenas was named as one of 10 finalists for the prestigious Ford C. Frick Award, the National Baseball Hall of Fame announced on Oct. 3...the Hall of Fame's Frick Award is presented annually for excellence in broadcasting...Cardenas was on the airwaves for parts of six decades (1958-2008), while spending time with the Astros, Dodgers and Rangers organizations…this marks Cardenas' fourth nomination for the Frick Award, the others coming in 1993, 2010 and 2011.

HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR: On Sept. 18, Astros Spanish broadcaster Alex Treviño was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor...Treviño just finished his 19th season as an Astros Spanish Radio broadcaster...he joined the broadcast booth in 1996 and has called more than 3,000 Astros games, including six postseason appearances and the 2005 World Series run...prior to joining the broadcast staff, Treviño spent 13 seasons in the Majors, primarily as a catcher, including the 1988-90 seasons with the Astros.

ANOTHER HALL FOR MILO: On Aug. 10, Milo Hamilton was inducted into the Des Moines Sunday Register's Iowa Sports Hall of Fame...it marks the sixth Hall of Fame for Hamilton, who won the Ford C. Frick Award in 1992... the 87-year-old Hamilton, who is an Iowa native, joined the Astros radio broadcast for home Sunday games this season for his "Milo's Memories" feature.

2014 DAY-BY-DAYS*

MCHUGH'S CONTROL ON DISPLAY: RHP Collin McHugh didn't allow a run or a walk and struck out 12 batters in the Astros 5-2 win on April 22 at SEA…prior to McHugh, the last Astros pitcher to fan 12 hitters without allowing a run or walk in a game was LHP Randy Johnson, who fanned 16 Pirates on Aug. 28, 1998.

MCHUGH'S HISTORIC START: RHP Collin McHugh fanned seven batters in 8.2 innings to earn his second victory in as many tries as the Astros beat the A's on April 27 at OAK…McHugh, who whiffed 12 batters in his Astros debut on April 22 at SEA, is the third pitcher to win his first two games with Houston and register 19 or more strikeouts in the process…RHP J.R. Richard (in 1971) and LHP Randy Johnson (in 1998) both won their first two games for the Astros while accumulating 20 strikeouts each.

LUCKY NUMBER 11 FOR 'STROS: 3B Matt Dominguez's walkoff single on May 15 vs. TEX gave the Astros a 5-4 victory…it also raised Houston's hit total for the game to 11, which marked the fifth consecutive game that the Astros had exactly 11 base hits…the streak for Houston marked the first time in franchise history that the Astros have had the same number of base hits in five consecutive games within a single season.

KEUCHEL'S STRONG MAY: LHP Dallas Keuchel pitched a complete-game four-hitter in the Astros' 4-1 win on May 26 at SEA…that improved Keuchel's record to 6-2 and he became the first Astros pitcher with six victories by the end of May since RHP Roy Oswalt in 2007.

SPRINGER CLUBS SIX HR IN SIX GAMES: OF George Springer's two-run home run in the 1st inning on May 28, his sixth homer in his last six games, propelled the Astros to a win at KC…over the last 25 seasons, only three other rookies have hit six home runs over a six-game span: OF David Justice (1990), OF Nick Markakis (2006) and OF Ryan Braun (2007)…prior to Springer, no Astros rookie had ever hit six home runs over a six-game span and the last Houston player to do that was 3B Morgan Ensberg in 2006 (7 HR over six-game span).

RECORD SEVEN HOMERS IN SEVEN GAMES FOR SPRINGER: Astros rookie OF George Springer hit his seventh home run in his last seven games in Houston's 3-1 win on May 30 vs. BAL… Springer is only the second rookie in Major League history to hit seven home runs over a seven-game span in one season…Rudy York accomplished the feat for the Tigers in August 1937.

SINGLETON HOMERS IN DEBUT: The Astros 22-year-old 1B Jon Singleton hit a home run on June 3 vs. LAA in his Major League debut, after the Cardinals OF Oscar Taveras, age 21, went deep in his debut earlier in the week…no other players age 22 or younger have hit home runs in their Major League debuts within three weeks of each other.

KEUCHEL KING OF THE ROAD: LHP Dallas Keuchel threw 6.0 scoreless innings on June 6 at MIN to improve to 6-0 in road games on the season…he became the second Houston pitcher to win his first six road starts of a season, joining RHP Darryl Kile, who won his first six in 1996.

CARTER WALKS OFF AFTER TWO-HOMER NIGHT: DH Chris Carter, who homered twice on June 11 vs. ARI, hit a walkoff home run off RHP J.J. Putz in the 10th inning of the Astros 5-4 win on June 12 vs. ARI…Carter is the first Houston player and the first designated hitter ever to hit a game-ending homer one game after going deep twice.

ALTUVE FIRST TO 100 HITS: 2B Jose Altuve had three hits and became the first Major Leaguer to reach 100 hits this season in the Astros 3-1 win on June 20 at TB…he reached 100 hits with his second hit of the night, in his 298th at-bat, becoming the first Astros player to reach 100 hits before his 300th at-bat of a season since 2008, when Lance Berkman got to the century mark in his 277th at-bat.

2014 DAY-BY-DAYS*

ALTUVE'S PROLIFIC FIRST HALF: 2B Jose Altuve banged out two hits, scored two runs and stole two bases in the Astros 6-1 win on June 26 vs. ATL…by reaching the 30-steal mark that game, he became the fourth player in Astros history with at least 100 hits and 30 stolen bases before the All-Star Break in one season…the other Astros to do so are Cesar Cedeno in 1974 (112 hits, 36 steals), Billy Hatcher in 1987 (101, 33) and Michael Bourn in 2011 (104, 35).

ALTUVE STREAKING: 2B Jose Altuve went 3x5 with two stolen bases on June 30 vs. DET, giving him a four-game streak with multiple hits and stolen bases… no other player in baseball's modern era (1900 to date) has had a four-game streak with at least two hits and two steals in each game.

ALTUVE STEALS THE SHOW IN JUNE: 2B Jose Altuve finished the month of June with a .411 batting average and 17 stolen bases…that's the most stolen bases for any Major League player who batted .400 or better in a month since July of 1992, when Brett Butler, then with the Dodgers, batted .442 with 18 stolen bases…Rickey Henderson batted .416 with 22 steals for the Yankees in June of 1985, but before Butler and Henderson, you have to go back more than 100 years to find the next guy to hit .400 in a month with 17-or-more steals: Ty Cobb batted .430 with 20 steals in September 1911.

NEW SHERIFF: The Astros posted an 8-3 home win on Aug. 9 vs. TEX to extend their winning streak to seven games versus their intrastate rivals, outscoring them 53-24…the Astros hadn't outscored any opponent by that large a margin (+29) over seven straight games, all wins, since dominating the Reds by a margin of 56-to-22 (+34) from August 2004-April 2005.

CARTER BLASTS CLUTCH HOMER: DH Chris Carter, who had struck out in each of his first four plate appearances, hit a tie-breaking three-run home run off a 3-0 pitch from RHP David Robertson in the 9th inning of the Astros 7-4 win on Aug. 19 at NYY…no player had hit a go-ahead home run in the 9th inning or later after having previously struck out in each of four or more plate appearances that game since the Blue Jays Alex Gonzalez on May 1, 2001, at OAK.

FELDMAN BLANKS RANGERS: RHP Scott Feldman tossed a three-hit shutout against his former teammates as the Astros slipped by the Rangers, 2-0, on Aug. 30 vs. TEX…it had been four years to the day since the last time an Astros pitcher threw a complete-game shutout in which he allowed three-or-fewer hits; on Aug. 30, 2010, LHP J. A. Happ blanked the Cardinals, 3-0, allowing only two hits.

HOLY BERKMAN, BATMAN: 2B Jose Altuve extended his hitting streak against the Athletics to 23 games with a 1x4 performance on Sept. 7 at OAK…that marks the longest hitting streak any Astros player has had against any one team in the history of the franchise…Lance Berkman held the previous record with a 21-game hitting streak against the Rockies from 2004 to 2008.

ROOKIE COMBO: In the Major League debut of RHP Nick Tropeano on Sept. 10 at SEA, C Max Stassi also made his first career start at catcher…this marked the third time in franchise history that the Astros had a pitcher and catcher make their first career starts at those positions in the same game…in all three instances, the Astros/Colt .45s were victorious.

Pitcher/Catcher	Date	Result

2014 DAY-BY-DAYS*

TROPEANO'S IMPRESSIVE DEBUT: RHP Nick Tropeano made the Seawolves of Stony Brook University proud as he came away with a victory in his Major League debut for the Astros on Sept. 10 at SEA…Tropeano is the third Stony Brook alum to pitch in the Major Leagues, joining Joe Nathan (who also won his Major League debut) and Tom Koehler.

KEUCHEL DISPLAYS DIVISIONAL DOMINANCE ON ROAD: The Astros put an end to the Angels 10-game winning streak as LHP Dallas Keuchel led Houston to a 6-1 victory on Sept. 14 at LAA, while holding the Halos hitless until the 7th inning…Keuchel went 5-0 with a 2.94 ERA in seven road starts against opponents from the AL West in 2014, with two wins at Anaheim, two at Seattle and one at Texas.

COLLIN CARD: RHP Collin McHugh went on a solid run over nine starts from Aug. 1-Sept. 15, posting a 6-0 record and a 1.50 ERA (10ER/60IP), while allowing two runs or less in each start…the only other Houston pitchers to fashion nine-game streaks of that type within a single season are RHP Larry Dierker (11g, 1969), RHP Nolan Ryan (9g, 1983) and RHP Mike Scott (14g, 1986).

KEUCHEL MASTERS M'S AGAIN: LHP Dallas Keuchel defeated the Mariners for the third time in 2014 as the Astros eased to a 10-1 victory on Sept. 20 vs. SEA…Keuchel joined RHP Sonny Gray as the only pitchers to down Seattle three times in 2014…for the Houston lefthander, it was his 12th win of the season, during which he reached the 200-inning mark and lowered his ERA below 3.00… he became the first Astros pitcher to reach 12 wins and 200 innings in a season in which he produced a sub-3.00 ERA since RHP Roy Oswalt did it in 2006.

MCHUGH EXTENDS WALKLESS STREAK: RHP Collin McHugh, who picked up his 11th win of the season on Sept. 15 vs. CLE, allowed a walk to Logan Morrison with one out in the 5th…prior to that walk, McHugh had gone 133 consecutive batters without issuing a walk.

MCHUGH'S SEESAW SEASON: RHP Collin McHugh won his seventh straight decision on Sept. 21 vs. SEA…McHugh, who lost six straight decisions before embarking on his winning streak, was the only Major League pitcher with both a winning streak of seven or more games and a losing streak of six or more games this season…McHugh is the first rookie to do so since official rules defining a player's rookie status went on the books in 1958.

CIVIL RIGHTS GAME: On May 30, the Astros hosted MLB's 8th Annual Civil Rights Game, developed to pay tribute to those who fought for equal rights both on and off the field…the Astros also hosted the 2014 Beacon Awards Luncheon where MLB honored football and film star Jim Brown, music industry pioneer Berry Gordy and literary icon, the late Dr. Maya Angelou as the 2014 Beacon Award winners…other esteemed guests during the weekend included Hall of Famer Hank Aaron, boxing legend George Foreman, internationally-acclaimed violinist Miri Ben-Ari and MLB executives including Frank Robinson and Commissioner Bud Selig…guest artist Aloe Blacc performed before the teams took the field where the Astros and Baltimore Orioles wore Negro League replica uniforms in honor of the event… the Astros represented the Houston Eagles, the only Negro League team from Texas, as they defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 2-1.

COMMUNITY LEADERS PROGRAM: The Astros Community Leaders program has now opened 18 renovated fields at seven different parks, sponsored by Halliburton (Diez Park), Schlumberger (Sunnyside Park), Calpine (Moody Park), Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Texas (Ingrando Park), National Oilwell Varco (Melrose Park), Occidental Petroleum (Denver Harbor Park) and Lexus/Friedkin Group (Hidalgo Park)…the program, jumpstarted by Owner and Chairman Jim Crane, is investing $18 million in city-owned public youth baseball and softball fields in disadvantaged areas of Houston over the course of five years.

ASTROS RBI GOES TO THE WORLD SERIES: In its full first year as an Astros-run program, Astros RBI sent both the girls softball team and the senior boys baseball team to the RBI World Series in Dallas…also, Astros RBI participant Justin Scott was an RBI for RBI $5,000 Scholarship Recipient for demonstrating academic achievement, leadership skills and financial need…he plans to attend the University of Houston to major in geology, volunteers as a baseball coach and is a junior staff member at his local Boys and Girls Club.

TWO EARN SCHOLARSHIPS: Pablo Salazar and Evian Benjamin, both currently seniors in high school, became the first two members of the Astros Urban Youth Academy to be offered college baseball scholarships…Salazar, a shortstop and right-handed pitcher, was offered a scholarship by the University of Arkansas at Little Rock, and Benjamin, a center fielder, received his offer from Sam Houston State…both players have committed to their respective colleges.

CLUB LEVEL RENOVATIONS: In October, the Astros began renovating the Mazda Club Level and upper deck areas of Minute Maid Park in a continuing effort to improve the fan experience this offseason…the improvements seek to elevate the quality of concessions and food service available in the ballpark as well as bring the game to the fans, no matter where they are…the entire Mazda Club Level will receive a wall-to-wall makeover with new flooring and paint, the food and beverage stands will be repositioned to allow fans a clear view of the field from various points on the concourse and the general infrastructure of many of the new concession stands will be renovated to allow for fresher, higher quality food and beverage products.

ORBIT RIDES IN MS150: Astros mascot Orbit participated in the 30th Annual BP MS 150 Houston-to-Austin Bike Ride on April 12-13…the annual two-day fundraising event hosted by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society supports programs and services that directly impact families and individuals affected by MS as well as critical MS research to end the disease…Orbit was the first mascot to ever complete the entire BP MS 150.

HEART & HUSTLE: The MLBPAA named 2B Jose Altuve the Astros 2014 Heart and Hustle Award winner…this esteemed award honors active players who demonstrate a passion for the game of baseball and best embody the values, spirit and tradition of the game…Altuve was also named the Astros winner in 2012.

IN THE COMMUNITY

BADGES & BASES H-TOWN RUN DOWN: Hundreds of runners took to the streets in front of Minute Maid Park to participate in the first annual Badges & Bases H-town Run Down…the Astros Foundation and the Houston Police Foundation teamed up to host the inaugural Kids Fun Run and 10K/5K, which raised thousands of dollars to benefit the two hosting foundations…all races began in front of Union Station and finished inside the ballpark…several special guests attended the race, including Astros legend Craig Biggio, Hall of Fame broadcaster Milo Hamilton, HPD Chief Charles McClelland, Astros mascot Orbit and HPD mascot Officer K9…after the races, all participants and supporters were invited to a post-race party, which featured local food trucks and entertainment for all ages including live music from the Zach Emery Band.

PICNIC IN THE PARK: The Astros Foundation hosted hundreds of Astros fans for the second annual Picnic in the Park on Father's Day, June 15…fans were treated to an air-conditioned picnic in the outfield of Minute Maid Park as well as autograph sessions with the entire 2014 Astros roster of players…Owner Jim Crane, President Reid Ryan and GM Jeff Luhnow also attended in the event…the charitable fundraiser raised thousands of dollars for the Astros Foundation's Urban Youth Academy.

JACKIE ROBINSON DAY: The Astros joined the rest of MLB in celebrating Jackie Robinson Day on April 15, which commemorates the day Robinson broke the color barrier 67 years ago…all players throughout baseball wore Jackie's retired #42, the only number retired by any major professional sports league, in tribute to his legacy…young ballplayers from the Astros Urban Youth Academy took the field with the Astros starting lineup for the National Anthem and were treated to a special pregame reception with Astros players including Chris Carter, Dexter Fowler, L.J. Hoes and members of the Astros coaching staff.

CASTRO NAMED CLEMENTE NOMINEE: Jason Castro was named the Astros nominee for the 2014 Roberto Clemente Award…each club nominates one player to be considered for the Roberto Clemente Award in an effort to pay tribute to Clemente's achievements and character by recognizing current players who truly understand the value of helping others.

SPRINGER NAMED SPOKESPERSON: OF George Springer was named the Stuttering Association for the Young (SAY) spokesperson in September by the non-profit organization…Springer is one of 70 million people with a stutter, including approximately one in every 100 adults…for more information on Springer's participation or on the Stuttering Association for the Young, please visit www.SAY.org.

BIGGIOS HOST SUNSHINE KIDS PARTY: Craig and Patty Biggio treated the Sunshine Kids to a memorable baseball experience at Minute Maid Park… the children and their families played on the field with Biggio and joined him for lunch in the Diamond Club…the children also received autographs from Craig and an Astros goodie bag…this was the 23rd year the Biggios hosted the Sunshine Kids party at the ballpark.

RETIRED ASTROS NUMBERS

1962-1963 BORN: 9/17/30 IN CHICAGO, IL B: R T: R

Jim Umbricht broke into the professional ranks with the Milwaukee Brewers farm system in 1953 and was traded to Pittsburgh for outfielder Emil Ranko on April 6, 1959. He was purchased by the Houston Colt .45s in the 1961 National League player pool for $50,000 from Pittsburgh. Umbricht opened the season with the Colts and was one of the top relief pitchers in the National League. He posted a 4-0 record with a 2.01 ERA that year. He then made a remarkable comeback after a cancer operation in mid-March of 1963 and was once again one of the league's leading relievers with a 4-3 record and 2.61 ERA. Umbricht died April 8, 1964 at the age of 33. His number, 32, was officially retired on April 12, 1965.

40 • DON WILSON

1966-74 BORN: 2/12/45 IN MONROE, LA B: R T: R

Don Wilson is the only player to throw two no-hitters while wearing a Houston uniform. He pitched a no-hitter on June 18, 1967 vs. Atlanta (2-0) and May 1, 1969 at Cincinnati (4-0). Wilson established the club record for single-game strikeouts (18) on July 14, 1968 vs. Los Angeles. He compiled a 103-92 record in nine seasons with the Astros and won a career-high 16 games twice in 1969 (16-12), and 1971 (16-10). He was named to the 1971 All-Star team. Wilson died on January 5, 1975 and his number, 40, was officially retired on April 13, 1975.

RETIRED ASTROS NUMBERS

1975-87 BORN: 8/8/47 IN ARROYO, PR B: L T: L

Jose "Cheo" Cruz ranks in the top 10 in every significant Astros career hitting category. He was the team's most valuable player four times (1977, 1980, 1983, 1984) and named a National League All-Star twice (1980, 1985). He started his career in the St. Louis organization but did not blossom until he was acquired by the Astros in 1975. Cruz made three trips into postseason play with the Astros, batting .400 in the 1980 NLCS against the Phillies and hitting .300 six times in his career. Cruz currently serves as a community outreach executive for the club. He previously served as the Astros' first base coach for 13 seasons from 1997-2009. His number, 25, was officially retired on Oct. 3, 1992.

33 • MIKE SCOTT

Mike Scott is still remembered for doing the impossible: on Sept. 25, 1986, he became the first pitcher ever to throw a no-hitter in a clinching situation when he shut down San Francisco 2-0 to wrap up the NL West title. Scott, who began his career with the New York Mets, was 110-81 with a 3.30 ERA as an Astro from 1983-90, winning the Cy Young Award in 1986 when he led the Majors in strikeouts (306), innings pitched (275.1) and ERA (2.22). He will also be remembered for his feats in the 1986 NLCS. Scott twice beat the New York Mets, limiting them to one run in 18 innings and striking out 19 batters. He became the first player from a losing team to win NLCS MVP honors. In 1989, he became Houston's fourth 20-game winner when he posted a 20-10 record. His number, 33, was officially retired on Oct. 3, 1992.

The all-time strikeout king and 1999 inductee to the Baseball Hall of Fame played nine seasons for the Astros after signing as a free agent on Nov. 19, 1979. He helped the Astros to their first National League West Division title in 1980. He tossed his fifth career no-hitter on Sept. 26, 1981 against Los Angeles and posted one of the best post-World War II ERAs (1.69) in helping Houston to the second half title. On April 27, 1983, he surpassed Walter Johnson as baseball's all-time strikeout king when he fanned former Houston Astros manager and Montreal infielder Brad Mills. He led the league with a 2.76 ERA in 1987 despite an 8-16 record. He led the league in strikeouts in 1987 (270) and 1988 (228). Ryan made two All-Star appearances while wearing a Houston uniform (1981, 1985) and was the owner of 53 Major League pitching records upon his retirement. His number, 34, was retired on Sept. 29, 1996. Ryan was hired as an executive advisor to the club on Feb. 11, 2014.

On May 19, 2002, the Astros retired the number 49 of franchise icon Larry Dierker. In 40 years of service to the organization, Dierker served as a player, front-office member, broadcaster, and manager. In 13 seasons on the mound with Houston, he won 137 games, second only to Joe Niekro in team history. He owns the franchise records for innings pitched, starts, complete games, and shutouts. A two-time All-Star, Dierker pitched the fifth no-hitter in franchise history on July 9, 1976. After one season in the front office and 18 as a broadcaster, Dierker became only the sixth manager in Major League history to win a division crown in his first season. In five seasons as the club's skipper from 1997-2001, he won four division titles, and the 1998 team won a franchise-record 102 games, allowing Dierker to earn NL Manager of the Year honors. Dierker currently serves as a special assistant to Astros President Reid Ryan.

RETIRED ASTROS NUMBERS

1963-73 BORN: 3/12/46 IN HAMILTON, OH B: R T: R

Jimmy Wynn spent the first 11 years of his 15-year Major League career with the Houston franchise, the first two as a member of the Colt .45's. Despite his small frame (5'9"), Wynn boasted enormous power and a strong throwing arm, earning him the nickname "The Toy Cannon." He ranks among the Top 10 in almost every significant Astros career hitting category and led the franchise in hits (1,291), home runs (223), and RBI (719) when he left the club after the 1973 season. In 1967, the slugging center fielder finished second in the National League in home runs (37) while posting 107 RBI. He also became the first Astro to hit three home runs in a game. As a member of the 1974 Dodgers, Wynn smashed 32 home runs with 108 RBI, finishing in fifth place for the National League Most Valuable Player Award. Wynn remains an active member of the Houston community and currently works as a community outreach executive for the club. His number, 24, was officially retired on June 25, 2005.

5 • JEFF BAGWELL

On Aug. 26, 2007, the Astros retired the No. 5 worn by first baseman Jeff Bagwell during his 15-year career with the team. Bagwell is the franchise's career leader in home runs with 449 and in RBI with 1,529, and he is the only Astro to win the National League Most Valuable Player Award, having done so in 1994 after hitting .368 with 39 home runs and 116 RBI. Bagwell is also the only player in franchise history to win the NL Rookie of the Year award, capturing the honor in 1991. One of the most respected players and leaders in recent Major League memory, Bagwell's mark on the Astros franchise is indelible, from his play on the field to his impact on the younger Astros in the clubhouse. He also earned NL Silver Slugger Awards three times (1994, 1997, 1999) and one Rawlings Gold Glove Award (1994), and the four-time All-Star is the only Astro with six consecutive 100-RBI seasons. Bagwell was the Astros Opening Day first baseman for 15 consecutive seasons, and his 2,314 hits rank second in franchise history.

On Aug. 17, 2008, the Astros retired the No. 7 worn by second baseman Craig Biggio during his 20-year career with the team. Biggio is the franchise's career leader in runs scored (1844) and hits (3060) and is the only player to reach the 3,000-hit plateau while wearing an Astros uniform. At the time of his retirment, he ranked 20th in Major League history in that category and was one of only nine players to reach the milestone while playing his entire career with the same team. Biggio also leads the franchise in doubles with 668. In 1998, Biggio joined Hall of Famer Tris Speaker as the only players in the 20th century to collect 50-or-more doubles and 50-or-more stolen bases in the same season. He followed his 1998 campaign by hitting 56 doubles in 1999, becoming just the sixth player in MLB history to have back-to-back 50-double seasons. Biggio has played more games (2850) than any other player in franchise history and has been hit by more pitches (285) than any player in modern MLB history (since 1900). A seven-time All-Star, Biggio received five Silver Slugger Awards and four Gold Gloves. He is the only player in Major League history to make the All-Star team at both catcher and second base. Biggio played in a franchise record 20 seasons with the club, including 19 consecutive Opening Day starts (1989-2007). He remains a member of the Astros organization as a special assistant to the general manager.

RETIRED ASTROS NUMBERS

On April 15, 1947, Jackie Robinson debuted at first base for the Brooklyn Dodgers, becoming the first African American in the 20th century to appear in a Major League Baseball uniform. He broke the color barrier, and quickly became one of the league's stars and a symbol of hope to millions of Americans. Known for his daring baserunning, Robinson stole home 19 times, and helped the Dodgers win the pennant in six of his 10 seasons. In 1949, he was named the National League MVP after batting .342 with 37 steals and 124 runs. And, in 1962, he became the first black player elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. To mark the 50th anniversary of his historic achievement, Major League Baseball dedicated the 1997 season to Robinson and retired his number, 42, throughout the league. Robinson died Oct. 24, 1972, at the age of 53.

1986 A Silver Anniversary season turns golden as the Astros win their second NL West title...Rookie skipper Hal Lanier guides the team to a club-record 96 regular season wins...Lanier earns Manager of the Year notice from four different press associations after the season...right-hander Mike Scott becomes Houston's first ever Cy Young Award winner, leading the league in ERA (2.22) and strikeouts (306), and winning 18 games for the second straight year.

HOUSTON MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

1987 Houston finishes the season with the third-highest attendance total in baseball (1,909,902)...Nolan Ryan leads the Majors in strikeouts with 270 and ties for the lead in ERA with a 2.76 mark...Mike Scott is named the NL starter for the All-Star game and throws 2.0 scoreless innings.

1988 Houston wins its 2,000th game, 6-3, over San Diego on Opening Night... Mike Scott comes within one out of his second career no-hitter on June 12 vs. Atlanta...Bob Knepper tosses a one-hitter on Sept. 21 vs. the Braves.

1989 Mike Scott becomes the fourth Houston pitcher to win 20 games and wins his second Astros MVP award...the Astros win 10 straight on the road from May 7-31 to set a club record...their 10-game winning streak from May 26 to June 4 tied another club mark...Glenn Davis hits a career-high 34 homers.

1990 Danny Darwin had a league-leading 2.21 ERA, becoming the third Houston pitcher in five years to lead the NL in ERA...Franklin Stubbs sets club mark for left-handers with 23 home runs...Houston ties a league record by playing in 27 extra-inning games...on May 17, Eric Anthony becomes the first Astro to hit an upper deck home run since 1970.

1991 Jeff Bagwell becomes the Astros first BBWAA Rookie of the Year after hitting .294 with 15 homers and a club rookie record of 82 RBI...Craig Biggio leads the club in hitting for the second straight year (.295) and joins Pete Harnisch on the NL All-Star team.

1992 Despite a grueling 26-day road trip made necessary when the Astrodome played host to the Republican National Convention, the Astros rallied in the second half to post the club's first non-losing season since 1989... Craig Biggio became the first player ever to make the All-Star team at both catcher (1991) and second base (1992)...Doug Jones was also named to the All-Star team and set the club single-season record with 36 saves.

1993 The club established several franchise offensive records including batting average (.267), homers (138) and doubles (288)...paced by Craig Biggio's career-high 21 round-trippers, seven Houston players totaled double figures in homers for the first time in club history...Mark Portugal set a club record by winning his final 12 decisions...Darryl Kile posted a nine-game win streak and tossed the ninth no-hitter in Astros history on Sept. 8 against New York.

1994 Jeff Bagwell became the first Houston player ever to win the NL Most Valuable Player award...Bagwell was a unanimous selection for only the third time in league history after batting .368 and setting club records with 73 extra base hits, 39 homers and 116 RBI...Bagwell earned All-Star honors along with Craig Biggio, Ken Caminiti, Doug Drabek and rookie John Hudek...Rookie skipper Terry Collins guided the club to a 66-49 mark, one-half game behind Cincinnati, before a players' strike ended the season on Aug. 12.

1995 The Astros took the chase for the NL's first-ever Wild Card playoff berth to the final day of the season before finishing one game behind Colorado... Craig Biggio was voted the NL's starting second baseman in the All-Star Game and slugged a solo homer...he later was voted team MVP and won a second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award.

1996 A two-and-a-half game lead at the end of August slipped away and denied Houston a shot at the NL Central title... the Astros suffered through an 8-17 September, which included a nine-game losing streak to fall out of the playoff chase...Jeff Bagwell slugged 31 homers and set single season records with 48 doubles and 120 RBI...Derek Bell knocked in 113 runs, marking the first time ever the club had two 100-plus RBI players in the same season...Craig Biggio collected his third consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award...Shane Reynolds won 16 games, while he and Darryl Kile each topped the 200-mark in strikeouts.

1997 The Astros captured their first-ever NL Central title and their first division title in 11 years...Jeff Bagwell banged 43 homers and swiped 31 bases to become Houston's first "30-30" man...Craig Biggio became the first player in Major League history to have not grounded into a double play in a 162-game season...fans select Bagwell and Biggio to play in the 1997 All-Star Game...Darryl Kile won a team-high 19 games and was also selected to the All-Star Team...Larry Dierker became one of only six skippers in Major League history to win a division title in his first year as manager.

HOUSTON MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

1998 The Astros won their second consecutive NL Central title en route to a franchise-best 102-win season...Larry Dierker was voted NL Manager of the Year by the BBWAA and Baseball America...General Manager Gerry Hunsicker was voted The Sporting News Executive of the Year...Biggio and Moises Alou were selected to represent the Astros in the 1998 All-Star Game in Denver...Biggio broke Cesar Cedeno's record for the most runs scored by an Astro... he and Alou each received Silver Slugger Awards for their offensive contributions...five Astros starting pitchers, including Randy Johnson who was acquired just minutes before the July 31 non-waiver trading deadline, finished the season with double figures in wins.

1999 The Astros bid adieu to the Astrodome in dramatic fashion, clinching their third straight NL Central title...the pitching staff produced two 20-game winners for the first time in club history in Mike Hampton (22-4) and Jose Lima (21-10)...Hampton and Jeff Bagwell were both a recipient of the Silver Slugger Award...four Astros were selected to represent the National League in the 70th annual All-Star Game (Bagwell, Hampton, Lima, Billy Wagner)... Wagner was the recipient of the 1999 Rolaids Relief Man Award.

2000 History was made as the doors of sparkling-new Minute Maid Park opened for the first time on March 30 before an exhibition game with the New York Yankees...a record 3,056,139 fans passed through the turnstiles during the Astros inaugural season at their new ballpark...Houston finished the season at 72-90 to mark the club's first sub-.500 season since 1991...Bagwell ended the 2000 season having logged 310 career homers and became only the 87th Major Leaguer to reach the 300-homer plateau...Shane Reynolds was named to the All-Star team, marking his first career selection to the Mid-Summer Classic.

2001 The 2001 season went right down to the wire as the Astros clinched their fourth division title in five years with a 9-2 win over the Cardinals on Oct. 7 in St. Louis...play stopped throughout the sports world following the tragic terrorist attacks on September 11; the regular season was extended a week....Moises Alou, Billy Wagner and Lance Berkman represented the Astros at the 72nd Mid-Summer Classic...Jeff Bagwell became the sixth player in MLB history to have 30 homers, 100 RBI and 100 runs scored in six consecutive seasons...manager Larry Dierker resigned and was replaced by former Red Sox skipper Jimy Williams...the Astros were named Organization of the Year by SportsTicker, Topps, Baseball America and Baseball Weekly...Brad Ausmus received a Gold Glove award for defensive excellence at his position.

2002 By Houston standards, the 2002 season was a disappointment after the Astros finished with an 84-78 record... Wade Miller and Roy Oswalt combined for 34-13 on the year while stringing together 12- and nine-game winning streaks, respectively...Astros hurlers threw 10 shutouts at home to contribute to a 47-34 record at home...in May, the Astros retired Larry Dierker's No. 49 in a pregame ceremony...Lance Berkman represented the Astros at the 2002 All-Star game...Houston's ballpark was re-christened Minute Maid Park when the Astros announced an agreement with the local beverage giant for naming rights on June 5...Brad Ausmus won his second consecutive Gold Glove Award.

2003 Houston ended the season in second place, one game behind the division champ Chicago Cubs...on June 11 at Yankee Stadium, six Astros pitchers combined to no-hit the Yankees for the 8-0 win: Roy Oswalt, Pete Munro, Kirk Saarloos, Brad Lidge, Octavio Dotel and Billy Wagner...it was the first time in ML history that a team used five or more pitchers in throwing a no-hitter...Wagner recorded a career-high and franchise-record 44 saves on the season and represented the team at the All-Star game...Jeriome Robertson set the franchise record for a rookie with 15 wins, leading all ML rookies.

2004 Minute Maid Park hosted the 2004 All-Star Game...Roger Clemens came out of retirement and returned to his hometown to pitch - he won his first nine decisions, and on May 5, he claimed the No. 2 slot on the all-time strikeout list with his 4,137th career strikeout... on May 8, Craig Biggio collected his 2,500th career hit...the Astros acquired outfielder Carlos Beltran on June 24, who finished with a combined 38 home runs and 42 stolen bases between Houston and Kansas City...four Astros were named All-Stars: Clemens, Beltran, Lance Berkman, and Jeff Kent...on July 14, Phil Garner replaced Jimy Williams as manager...Houston claimed the NL Wild Card and won their first postseason series, defeating the Atlanta Braves in Game 5 of the NLDS...the NLCS was pushed to Game 7 before St. Louis defeated Houston...Clemens claimed his unprecedented seventh Cy Young Award.

HOUSTON MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

2005 The Astros advanced to the World Series for the first time in franchise history after defeating the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-2, in a rematch of the 2004 NLCS...the Chicago White Sox went on to sweep the Astros in four games to claim their first World Series since 1917...the Astros hosted the first World Series game in the state of Texas, and Game 3 on Oct. 25 turned into the longest in World Series history as the White Sox won in 14 innings, 7-5...Houston won the NL Wild Card for the second season in a row, finishing in second place in the NL Central Division with a record of 89-73...the Astros won the longest game in postseason history, defeating Atlanta in the NLDS, 7-6, in 18 innings after a Chris Burke solo home run in the bottom of the 18th, while Roger Clemens tossed 3.0 scoreless innings of relief...the club started the season with a 2-21 record on the road, and overcame a 15-30 record on May 24 to become the first team since the 1914 Boston Braves to make the postseason after falling to 15 games under .500...on June 29, Craig Biggio was hit by a pitch for the 268th time of his career, setting the modern Major League record...Roger Clemens returned to the Astros for a second year and finished 13-8 with a career-best 1.89 ERA...Roy Oswalt posted his second consecutive 20-win season, finishing 20-12 with a 2.94 ERA...Andy Pettitte won 17 games and recorded a career-low 2.39 ERA...for the second season in a row, four Astros were named to the All Star squad: Clemens, Oswalt, Brad Lidge and Morgan Ensberg...Ensberg set career-highs in home runs and RBI, and took home the National League Silver Slugger Award at third base...Willy Taveras made the jump from Double A to the Majors and led all NL rookies in hits, runs and stolen bases...Taveras also led the Majors with 70 infield hits and 29 bunt singles.

2006 The Astros finished 82-80, in second place, 1.5 games behind the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals, giving Houston its sixth consecutive winning season...Lance Berkman made his fourth All-Star appearance and set the single-season franchise record with 136 RBI...Roy Oswalt won the ERA crown with a 2.98 mark, while winning 15 games...he was the runner-up in the NL Cy Young Award voting...Adam Everett recorded the fourth-best fielding percentage by a shortstop in Major League history, holding down a .990 mark at the position...the Astros finished .500 or better for the 14th time in 15 years and their second-place finish marked the 12th time in 13 years that the club had claimed first or second place in the NL Central.

2007 The Astros finished 73-89, the club's lowest winning percentage since 2000 (.451), in fourth place in the NL Central and 12.0 games behind the division-winning Chicago Cubs...the Astros drew 3,000,000 fans to Minute Maid Park for the fourth time in franchise history...OF Carlos Lee was named team MVP after driving in a career-best 119 runs...Hunter Pence became the first rookie in Major League history to lead a league in hitting at the All-Star Break (.342)...Pence set Houston franchise rookie records in doubles, extra-base hits, hitting, and slugging...on June 28, franchise icon Craig Biggio reached the 3,000-hit plateau, all collected in an Astros uniform...on Sept. 20, Ed Wade was named the club's new General Manager, replacing Tim Purpura...just eight days later on Sept. 28, Wade and the Astros promoted interim manager Cecil Cooper to the club's full-time managerial position...Cooper was originally named interim manager on Aug. 27, replacing Phil Garner.

2008 The club finished 86-75, in third place in the NL Central and 11.0 games behind division-champion Chicago... Houston finished 3.5 games behind Milwaukee in the NL Wild Card race and was not eliminated from playoff contention until the season's 159th game...Jose Valverde led the National League with 44 saves and tied Billy Wagner's franchise single-season saves record, previously set in 2003...Roy Oswalt went 17-10 and won 10 of his last 12 starts...Houston pitchers compiled 13 shutouts, leading National League staffs...in May, Lance Berkman won the NL Player of the Month Award after enjoying a 50-at-bat span in which he hit .620 (31x50)...Berkman led the league with a .345 average with runners in scoring position and tied for the league lead with 46 doubles...the Astros committed 67 errors, the fewest errors for any team in National League history, anchored by shortstop Miguel Tejada.

HOUSTON MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

2009 The Astros played well through their first four months of the season, topping out at 49-46 and just 1.0 game out of first place on July 22...three new Astros emerged as stars, including center fielder Michael Bourn, right fielder Hunter Pence and left-handed starter Wandy Rodriguez...Bourn was named the Astros team MVP and was awarded a Gold Glove for his defensive work in the field...he became the first Astros center fielder to win a gold glove since Cesar Cedeno won the award in five straight seasons from 1972-76...he was also named as the recipient of the Cool Papa Bell Award from the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum after leading the National League in stolen bases...Pence was elected to his first career All-Star Game and led all Major League outfielders with 16 outfield assists...he also became the first right fielder in club history to record consecutive 25+ homer seasons...Rodriguez had a career year, leading the Astros pitching staff with a 14-12 record and a 3.02 ERA in 33 starts...other major contributors included Lance Berkman, Carlos Lee and Ivan "Pudge" Rodriguez, who became the first trio of teammates in MLB history to reach their 300th career home run in the same season...Pudge also contributed to the record books by setting a new MLB record for games caught in a career when he caught in his 2,227th game on June 17 at TEX.

2010 The Astros finished with a record of 76-86 and in fourth place in the NL Central...despite their disapointing record the Astros showed steady improvement under first-year manager Brad Mills...the team got off to a tough start, losing their first eight games of the season, marking the second-slowest start in franchise history (0-9 in 1983)...the club bottomed out on May 31, dropping to 17-34 and in last place in the NL Central...this is where Mills was impressive, guiding the club to a 59-52 record through the remaining four months of 2010...a major part of the Astros upswing can be credited to the Astros starting pitching staff and the addition of hitting coach Jeff Bagwell, who joined the club at the All-Star Break...a trio of hurlers in Brett Myers, Wandy Rodriguez and Bud Norris had an impressive run over the final two months of the season (16-6, 2.90 ERA) despite missing a key cog to previous Astros rotations: Roy Oswalt...Oswalt, along with first baseman Lance Berkman were both dealt in midseason trades that returned Major League pitchers J.A. Happ and Mark Melancon and infielder Brett Wallace...the trades seem to energize the club and open up opportunities for Myers and rookie Chris Johnson to impress...a free agent signing in the offseason, Myers was the steady force for Houston in 2010, beginning his campaign with a franchise record-setting 32 consecutive starts of 6.0-or-more innings...Johnson earned the Astros rookie of the year after leading all Major League rookies in batting average (min. 300 ABs)...for the second consecutive year, center fielder Michael Bourn would win a gold glove and lead the National League in stolen bases.

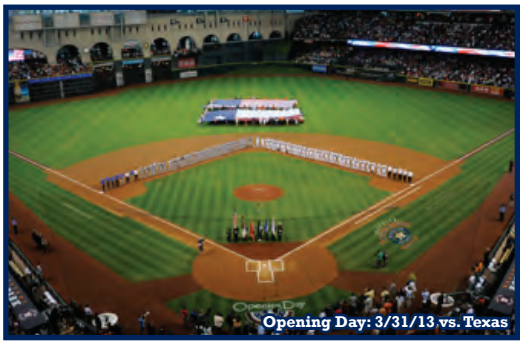

2011 The Astros 2011 season can be described by one word: change...after departing with veterans Lance Berkman and Roy Oswalt in 2010, the Astros continued their rebuilding efforts in 2011, this time dealing CF Michael Bourn, 2B Jeff Keppinger and RF Hunter Pence midseason for a return of 10 prospects...with the exodus of three starters, the club got a chance to witness the Major League values of 2B Jose Altuve, RF Brian Bogusevic and LF J.D. Martinez...all three turned in impressive months as the club's starters at the vacated positions...no young player impressed more than Martinez, who posted 28 RBI in August, his first full month in the Majors...LHP Wandy Rodriguez had another solid campaign, winning 11 games on a team that lost 106 games on the season...following the year, the club was officially purchased by Houston businessman Jim Crane, who appointed George Postolos as President and CEO...Crane and Postolos made their first significant hire in Jeff Luhnow, who became the 12th general manager in club history.

2012 Under new management the Astros continued to rebuild in 2012...the Astros traded their veteran players in exchange for young prospects in order to build a pipeline of young talent that would allow them to compete for a championship in the future...the Astros acquired 10 prospects in trading veterans Carlos Lee, Brett Myers, Wandy Rodriguez and Chris Johnson during the season…2B Jose Altuve shined after leading the club in runs, hits, doubles, triples, extra-base hits (45) and stolen bases while posting a .340 on-base percentage...Altuve was the lone Astro to be named to the All-Star Team in 2012…OF Justin Maxwell led the club in homers with 18 in his first season as an Astro...Maxwell was claimed off waivers from the Yankees… RHP Lucas Harrell had a breakout rookie season as he led the club in wins, innings pitched and starts... Harrell went 11-11 in 32 outings for the Astros...Tony DeFrancesco replaced Brad Mills on an interim basis after Mills was let go during the season...on Sept. 27, the Astros announced that Bo Porter would serve as the club's new manager for the 2013 season.

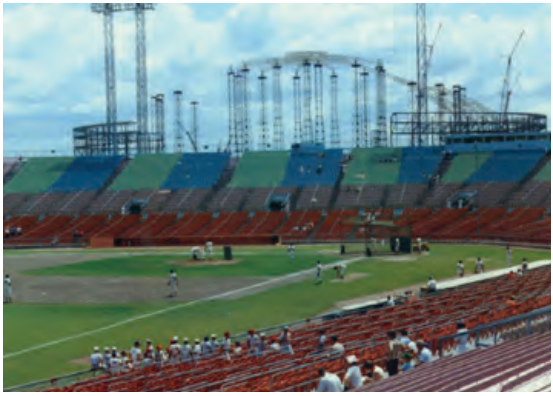

HOUSTON MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

2013 You could almost say the Astros 2013 season was a year of firsts…2013 was the Astros' inaugural season as an American League club after spending their first 51 seasons (1962-2012) in the National League…the Astros were the first team in Major League history to move from the NL to the AL…they made their AL debut by defeating the Texas Rangers, 8-2, at Minute Maid Park on MLB Opening Night on March 31…2013 was also the first season for new Astros' President Reid Ryan…Ryan, the son of former Astro and Hall of Fame pitcher Nolan Ryan, was previously the President and CEO of Ryan-Sanders Baseball, which owned and operated the Astros' Double A affiliate Corpus Christi Hooks…the Astros went on to purchase the Corpus Christi Hooks on Sep. 30…the 2013 season was also the first season at the helm for Manager Bo Porter…Porter, who turned 41 on July 5, was the youngest manager in MLB…the Astros continued their efforts to rebuild in 2013…they had 14 players make their Major League debut, and had the youngest roster at the end of the season with an average age of 26…many of the Astros biggest moments of the season were highlighted by rookies as well…RHP Jarred Cosart became the first pitcher in franchise history to throw 8.0 shutout innings in his Major League debut (July 12, at TB)…Cosart finished the season making 10 starts with a 1.95 ERA, which led the AL in that span…rookie LHP Brett Oberholtzer made a big impact in 2013 as well…finishing the season in the rotation, Oberholtzer finished with a 2.24 ERA in 10 starts, which was first among AL southpaws and second in the AL overall in that span...rookie OF Brandon Barnes also went on to have one of the finest offensive performances of the season…on July 19 vs. SEA, Barnes hit for the cycle, finishing 5x5...Barnes became the seventh different Astros player to hit for the cycle and the first since Luke Scott on July 28, 2006 vs. ARI...in his third year, catcher Jason Castro had the best offensive season by a catcher in franchise history…Castro was the first Astros catcher to make the All-Star team since Craig Biggio in 1991…Castro set club records for a catcher in several categories, including HR (18), doubles (35), SLG (.485), and OPS (.835)…Castro also became the first Astros player to win two Player of the Week awards in one season since Lance Berkman in 2008, and he also finished second among AL catchers in WAR (4.5) behind Joe Mauer (5.4)…in his first full season in the majors, 3B Matt Dominguez finished second on the club in HR (21) and RBI (77)…Dominguez became the youngest Astro to hit 21 HR in a season since Cesar Cedeno hit 26 HR in 1974.

Opening Day: 3/31/13 vs. Texas

2014 In 2014, owner Jim Crane and general manager Jeff Luhnow's long-term vision for the Astros began to take shape on the field...Houston won 70 games, besting their 2013 total by 19 games, the second largest year-to-year improvement in team history...the organization's commitment to cultivating top young talent paid dividends at the Major League level, as a core of young stars, including Jose Altuve (24), George Springer (25), Dallas Keuchel (26), and Collin McHugh (27) emerged, leading an Astros club that was the youngest in the MLB (average Opening Day age: 26.8 years)...despite suffering a season-ending hamstring injury on July 19, Springer blasted 20 home runs, one shy of the Astros rookie record...he also earned AL Rookie of the Month honors in May after becoming only the second rookie player in baseball's modern era to hit seven home runs over a seven-game span...All-Star 2B Jose Altuve and 1B Chris Carter produced two of the finest offensive seasons in the Majors in 2014...in a historic campaign, Altuve led all of Major League Baseball in hits and batting average (.341) en route to the Astros first ever batting title...he also led the American League in steals with 56, becoming only the second Major Leaguer since 1945 to lead his league in batting, hits and stolen bases in the same season, and the first to reach 220+ hits (225), 40+ doubles, and 50 +stolen bases in one season since Ty Cobb in 1917...Altuve established a new single-season franchise record for hits (225), surpassing Craig Biggio's mark of 210 in 1998...his 225 hits were the most in a season for a second baseman since Charlie Gehringer (227) in 1936 and the most ever for a Venezuelan-born player...Carter finished with the second-most home runs in baseball (37)...on the mound, rookie Collin McHugh and breakout star Dallas Keuchel delivered spectacular campaigns...Keuchel, who was awarded the Gold Glove, ended the season 12-9 with a 2.93 ERA and 200.0IP...McHugh's 2.73 ERA ranked sixth in MLB among starters and first among rookies (minimum 150 IP)...the outlook for the future provides even greater cause for optimism...even with the graduation of many top prospects, the Astros loaded farm system only appears to be getting stronger...Houston's system was ranked third in baseball and the team's minor league clubs produced 27 All-Stars, two gold glove winners and seven of MLB.com's top 100 prospects...in addition, the Astros stockpiled the second, fifth and 32nd overall picks in the 2015 MLB draft...following the season, on September 29, the Astros named former MLB catcher and manager A.J. Hinch as the 18th manager in franchise history.

ASTROS STADIUM HISTORY

Colt Stadium served as the home to Houston's first Major League Baseball franchise: the Colt .45s. The outdoor, single-deck facility was constructed as a temporary home until a domed stadium would be completed. It was in operation for three seasons, from 1962-1964, and was witness to two no-hitters, both by the Colts: Don Nottebart in 1962 and Ken Johnson in 1963. High heat and humidity moved many games to late afternoon starts and pushed the National League to lift its ban on Sunday night games. It was located in what is now the Astrodome's north parking lot.

By the time the Astrodome opened on April 9, 1965, for an exhibition game between the Houston Astros and New York Yankees, it was already heralded as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." The largest structure of its kind and the world's first multi-purpose domed stadium, the Astrodome came to symbolize the futuristic home of professional sports in America. In honor of Houston's significance to the country's space program, it was appropriately named the Astrodome, and to maintain the theme, the Colt .45s were proudly renamed the Astros. AstroTurf was developed and installed to start the 1966 campaign after natural grass was unsuccessful. It served as the Astros home for 35 seasons.

ASTROS FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually by the Baseball Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

HARRY KALAS (Astros broadcaster from 1965-1970)

Harry Kalas, longtime announcer for the Philadelphia Phillies, was the 2002 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. A native of Naperville, Ill., Kalas graduated from the University of Iowa in 1959 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Speech, Radio, and Television. The affable broadcaster was drafted into the military on graduation day and spent the following two years in Hawaii with the U.S. Army. In 1961, he served as sports director of radio station KGU and also began broadcasting for the Pacific Coast League's Hawaii Islanders as well as the University of Hawaii. An original member of the Astros broadcast team in 1965, he called games for Houston until 1970. In 1971, he moved to the Phillies broadcast booth, where he shared the microphone with Hall of Fame outfielder Richie Ashburn for 26 seasons. Kalas was honored as Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year 18 times. He also broadcast Big Five basketball and Notre Dame football. Kalas, revered for his uncanny ability to connect with his listeners, whether on radio or television, called more than 5,000 Phillies games. His passion for the game was unsurpassed, and his powerful, soothing voice was a summertime tradition throughout Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey.

GENE ELSTON* (Astros broadcaster from 1962-1986)

Gene Elston's baseball broadcasting career spanned 47 years, primarily as a radio announcer. The 2006 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, delivered baseball to a new legion of fans as the lead voice of the expansion Houston Astros for 25 years, from their beginnings as the 1962 Colt .45s, through their 1986 National League West Division championship. While his voice became a beacon to fans in Texas and the Southwest, Elston's broadcasting responsibilities also included numerous national assignments. Elston broke into radio as a high school basketball broadcaster in 1941 in Fort Dodge, Iowa. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he returned to the small midwest stations he knew so well. His break came in 1945 when he handled color commentary for the National Football League's Cleveland Rams. His entry into baseball came in 1946, when Elston was hired to call games for the Waterloo White Hawks of the Three I League. Three years later, he was named play-by-play for Des Moines of the Western League. In 1954 he made the major leagues as the number two man for the Chicago Cubs. In 1958, Elston was chosen to work with Bob Feller for Mutual's Game of the Day, which aired over 350 stations across the country, a position he held through 1960. In 1961, as baseball was expanding, he was the first announcer to handle play-by-play duties for the Houston franchise. He went on to work the CBS Radio Game of the Week from 1987-1995 and CBS postseason games from 1995-1997. A Texas Baseball Hall of Fame inductee, Elston also created a unique scorebook, Gene Elston's Stati-Score Baseball Scorebook, and has authored two books, including the 2001 release, A Stitch in Time: A Baseball Chronology, 1845-2000.

MILO HAMILTON* (Astros broadcaster from 1985-2012)

Milo Hamilton, the 1992 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, has broadcast major league baseball for well over 40 years. His big league on-air career has included stops with the St. Louis Browns (1953), St. Louis Cardinals (1954), Chicago Cubs (1956-57 and 1980-84), Chicago White Sox (1962-65), Atlanta Braves (1966-75), Pittsburgh Pirates (1976-79), and Houston Astros (1985-2012). It is no coincidence that he has probably been behind the microphone for more historic baseball events than any other announcer. His smooth style appeals to his listeners and his knowledge of the game has earned him the respect of his peers. Among the milestones he has broadcast are Hank Aaron's 715th home run, Ernie Banks' fifth grand-slam of the 1955 season, seven no-hitters and Roger Maris' 61st homer (recreated on Western Union ticker). He was also on the Cardinals' broadcast crew when Stan Musial hit his record-breaking fifth home run in a doubleheader and he was doing the play-by-play 18 years later when San Diego's Nate Colbert duplicated Musial's feat. Wherever he has been, Hamilton has involved himself in fund-raising activities, and over the years he has helped raise over $1,500,000 for local charities. Born in Fairfield, Iowa, on Sept. 2, 1927, Hamilton graduated from the University of Iowa with a degree in radio speech. Milo has shared the broadcast booth with numerous other Frick Award winners, including Jack Brickhouse, Bob Elson, Harry Caray and Jack Buck.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

Each season, the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor, located on the club level at Minute Maid Park, inducts a current or former Houston media member who has made significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through their work in journalism or broadcasting.

ANITA MARTINI (inaugural, 2007 inductee)

The inaugural inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor was the late Anita Martini, a pioneer in the sports media field. Martini, a native of Galveston, was a pioneer for women in sports journalism. Martini began her career with Houston radio station KTRH during the 1960s and became the nation's first woman sports anchor in the early 1970s, at Houston television station KPRC. In 1974, she challenged Major League Baseball for the right to join her male colleagues in the clubhouse for post-game interviews with the players. Martini won her fight when she interviewed Jimmy Wynn in the Los Angeles Dodgers clubhouse after a game at the Houston Astrodome. By the 1980s, she was hosting one of the first call-in sports shows on Houston AM radio station KPRC. She died of cancer in 1993 at the age of 54. Martini also is an inductee of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (2008 inductee)

Elston broadcast Major League Baseball games in Houston for 25 years as the Voice of the Astros from 1962-1986. He was behind the microphone for the first game in franchise history on April 10, 1962, when the Colt .45s defeated the Chicago Cubs. Elston was the first play-by-play broadcaster for the Houston franchise, and a generation of baseball fans received their introductions to both the Astros and Major League Baseball by his broadcasts. Elston broadcast baseball for 47 years, beginning with Waterloo of the Triple I League in 1947. After nine seasons broadcasting minor league baseball, Elston made his Major League debut with the Chicago Cubs in 1954. He also called the Mutual "Game of the Week" from 1958-60 and the CBS Radio "Game of the Week" from 1987-97. In 2006, Elston was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his significant and lasting contributions to the game of baseball through his work in broadcasting. Among the highlights of Elston's career with the Astros included calling eight of the team's no-hitters, two Astros NL Western Division Championships (1980, 1986), and Nolan Ryan breaking Walter Johnson's all-time strikeout record in 1983. He was inducted in the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1993.

NEIL HOHLFELD (2009 inductee)

Hohlfeld covered the Houston Astros as the beat writer for the Houston Chronicle from 1979 until 1995. He served as president of the Houston chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America in 1993. In 1996, Hohlfeld went on to cover other sports, including Texas A&M athletics and NASCAR, through 2006 before assuming an editing assignment for the Chronicle. In 2007, he returned to his first love as a baseball analyst for FS Houston's pre- and post-game shows. Hohlfeld graduated from the University of Missouri with a Bachelor of Journalism in 1973 and began his career in Hannibal, Mo. He worked for the Chicago Tribune from 1974-79 before joining the Chronicle in 1979. Hohlfeld passed away on July 19, 2008 at the age of 56. He was honored by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA as the recipient of the 2008 Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award.

MICKEY HERSKOWITZ (2010 inductee)

Herskowitz was one of Houston's original beat writers and columnists, having covered the team since its inception in 1962. He wrote for both the Houston Post and Houston Chronicle. A graduate of the University of Houston, at age 26, Herskowitz became the nation's youngest sports editor of a major newspaper and later received international recognition for his coverage of the terrorist tragedy at the 1972 Munich Olympics. He was the first writer to win national first place awards in three Associated Press categories in one year, 1968. In addition to his journalism career, Herskowitz has authored books on historical figures, such as Gene Autry, Nolan Ryan, Paul "Bear" Bryant and Prescott Bush. He was also the ghostwriter of several autobiographies, including Dan Rather and Mickey Mantle. A former Marine, he has been inducted into the Houston Chamber of Commerce Hall of Fame, and received the national Headliners Award for excellence in sports writing. Herskowitz is also a former executive with the American Football League; a New York magazine editor; an original partner in the Houston Rockets; and a journalism professor at Sam Houston State University. He was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

BILL BROWN (2011 inductee)

The 2014 season will be Bill Brown's 28th season as a play-by-play announcer for the Houston Astros. Brown, also known as "Brownie," joined the Astros in 1987 after working as senior producer and anchor of the Financial News Network's SCORE program. Prior to that assignment, he was the sports director of the Sports Time Cable Network, which televised select Reds, Royals and Cardinals games. He spent one year with HSE in Pittsburgh and was the television voice of the Cincinnati Reds from 1976-82. Brown, who began his broadcast career on radio at 18 years old, graduated from the University of Missouri in 1969 and became a U.S. Army broadcast specialist, working as a sportscaster for the Armed Forces Vietnam Network in Saigon from 1970-71. After leaving the service in 1971, Brown completed one semester of graduate school at Central Missouri State College in 1971 and then earned a job at WLWT-TV in Cincinnati. Brown has broadcast for two teams in the World Series, the 1976 Reds and the 2005 Astros. He also called Craig Biggio's historic 3,000th hit in 2007, as well as many other memorable moments during both his Astros broadcasting tenure and overall broadcasting career. Brown was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame on No.v 12, 2004.

MILO HAMILTON (2012 inductee)

Hall of Fame broadcaster Milo Hamilton spent a total of 59 seasons broadcasting Major League Baseball, which ranks as the second-longest broadcasting career in the game's history. A member of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame, Hamilton has also been recognized by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, having won the Ford C. Frick Award in 1992. As an Astros broadcaster, he called many of the greatest moments in franchise history, including Nolan Ryan's 4,000th strikeout in 1985, the final out of Mike Scott's dramatic, division-clinching no-hitter in 1986, the Astros historic, six-pitcher, combined no-hitter at Yankee Stadium in 2003, the Astros 2005 Game 6 NLCS clincher, and Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit in 2007. Prior to joining Houston, Hamilton had already established himself as a top broadcaster in the game, having called Hank Aaron's historic 715th home run on April 8, 1974. His career accomplishments also include calling games at 59 Major League ballparks, being behind the mic for 11 no-hitters and broadcasting for the Pirates during their 1979 World Series championship season. At the conclusion of the 2012 campaign, he retired from his position as "The Voice of the Astros", having established himself as one of the all-time great broadcasters in Major League Baseball history.

RENE CARDENAS (2013 inductee)

Cardenas, a native of Managua, Nicaragua, started his professional baseball broadcast career with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1958, becoming one of the first members of a Spanish radio broadcast team in the history of Major League Baseball. In the coming years, Cardenas further made history as a pioneer, as he and his team became the first Spanish radio broadcast team to call a World Series (1959) and an All-Star Game (1961). Cardenas was brought into the Houston organization by Judge Roy Hofheinz in 1962 as the Director of the Spanish Division for the Colt .45's, and stayed with the Astros through 1975. He also spent time with the Texas Rangers organization, where he started their very first Spanish radio broadcast. Following his time in Arlington, Cardenas returned to LA where he did Spanish radio and TV broadcasts for the Dodgers in the 1980s. Cardenas returned to Houston in 2000 where he began writing for the club. He returned to Spanish radio broadcast in 2007 and in 2008, became a television broadcaster for the team. He now writes for La Prensa, as well as the Astros Gameday Magazine and La Voz. Among his many honors are a place in both the Texas Rangers and former LA Dodgers Walks of Fame, and three nominations for the Ford C. Frick award in 1993, 2010 and 2011.

ALEX TREVINO (2014 inductee)

Alex Treviño became a distinguished member of the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Thursday, Sept. 18, 2014, in what was his 19th year in the Astros Spanish radio booth .He joined the broadcast team in 1996 and has called over 3,000 Astros games and six postseason appearances, including the 2005 World Series run. As of 2014, his 19 seasons in the broadcast booth were the second-most in franchise history by a Spanish broadcaster, trailing only Orlando Sanchez Diago's 21 years. Prior to joining the broadcast staff, Treviño spent 13 seasons in the Majors, primarily as a catcher, including the 1988-90 seasons with the Astros. He also spent time with the Mets, Reds, Braves, Giants and Dodgers in his Major League career. Treviño finished his playing career in the Mexican League, playing three seasons (1993-95) in his hometown of Monterrey, Mexico. Treviño was a member of the 1972 Pony League World Series championship team, which hailed from Monterrey. He later would become one of seven Mexican-born players to play for the Astros, and was inducted into the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum Hall of Fame in 2003.

ELITE COMPANY

Jeff Bagwell hit 43 home runs and stole 31 bases in 1997. He also hit 42 HR with 30 SB in 1999. Bagwell joins Barry Bonds as the only two players in Major League history to record as many as two 40HR/30SB seasons. Jeff is also the only first baseman in Major League history with a "30-30" season, thanks to his efforts in 1997 and 1999.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER • CY YOUNG • ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Jeff Bagwell is the only player in franchise history to win the Jackie Robinson National League Rookie of the Year and the NL Most Valuable Player. Astro pitchers have captured the NL Cy Young Award twice, Mike Scott in 1986 and Roger Clemens in 2004. Listed below are all Astros who finished in the top 10 of the NL MVP voting or received consideration in one year for the circuit's Cy Young and Rookie of the Year honors.

HOUSTON'S FIRST HOME RUNS

The first home run ever hit by a Houston player in the National League came on Opening Day in 1962, April 10. Roman Mejias connected off Chicago pitcher Don Cardwell in the third inning with two men on base. Mejias also homered off Al Lary in the eighth inning with two more men on to account for the third Colt .45s home run of the game. Hal Smith had hit one in the third inning.

ASTROS HOME RUNS IN HOUSTON

On May 11, 1998, Jeff Bagwell hit his 98th Astrodome home run off the Marlins' Livan Hernandez to put the first baseman one ahead of outfielder Jimmy Wynn, whose 97 Houston homers were the most by any player in the history of the franchise. Bagwell eventually hit 126 home runs in the Astrodome before the Astros moved to Minute Maid Park in 2000. Wynn hit 93 of his roundtrippers in the Astrodome and four in Colt Stadium during his 11-year career which lasted from 1963-73. And, speaking of Colt Stadium, the record for Houston homers in that facility stands at 21 by Bob Aspromonte.

1. Jeff Bagwell 234
2. Lance Berkman..... 153
3. Craig Biggio..... 143
4. Jimmy Wynn 97
5. Carlos Lee.....74
6. Glenn Davis 72
7. Morgan Ensberg.....65
8. Cesar Cedeno 64
9. Doug Rader 63

MORE THAN JUST A GAME.

ATLANTA 1 GAME

The Astros knocked Atlanta out of the playoffs for the second season in a row as Houston won the 2005 NLDS in four games. Chris Burke and Roger Clemens emerged as the heroes of clinching Game 4, the longest in postseason history. In the bottom of the 18th inning, Burke snapped a 6-6 tie and won the game with a solo home run, ending an eight-inning scoreless streak by both teams. Clemens earned the win after pitching three scoreless innings, on three day's rest in his first relief appearance in 21 years. Lance Berkman socked an eighth-inning grand slam to bring the Astros within one run, and with two outs in the bottom of the ninth, Brad Ausmus sent the contest into extra-innings with a game-tying solo home run. The decisive Game 4 lasted a postseason-record five hours and 50 minutes and the teams used an NLDS-record 42 combined players.

A five-run outburst in the eighth inning made Game 1 a blowout in the Astros favor, as Houston took a 1-0 series advantage with a 10-5 win. Morgan Ensberg led the attack with five RBI and three hits while Andy Pettitte earned the win. Craig Biggio doubled and scored three times as the Astros banged out 11 hits.

Atlanta secured its only win in Game 2 as the Braves scored five times off losing pitcher Roger Clemens in a 7-1 contest. Brian McCann hit a three-run homer and Adam LaRoche belted a two-run double as the Braves evened the series at one game apiece. John Smoltz allowed one run over seven innings and set a Major League record with his 15th postseason win.

Roy Oswalt pitched into the eighth inning of Game 3 and earned the win as the Astros took a 2-1 lead in the series. Houston set an NLDS record with seven doubles, including three by Craig Biggio, tying a postseason record. Mike Lamb broke a 2-2 tie in the third inning and put the Astros ahead for good with his third career postseason home run.

ST. LOUIS . . . . . 2 GAMES

Houston advanced to its first World Series after 44 years as the Astros defeated the Cardinals 4-2 in the 2005 NLCS. Roy Oswalt earned MVP honors as he picked up wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6. Oswalt allowed only two runs in the series, going 2-0 with a 1.29 ERA and 12 strikeouts in 14 innings. Craig Biggio led the Astros with eight hits in the series and Chris Burke led the team with five runs scored.

Game 6 was decided in St. Louis, with Oswalt allowing three hits over seven innings to earn the win. Houston had 11 hits, including a home run by Jason Lane, in the 5-1 clinching game. Brad Ausmus went 3x4 in the contest and finished with a .318 NLCS average.

In Game 5, the Astros led 4-2 in the ninth and were on the verge of advancing to the club's first World Series when Albert Pujols smashed a three-run home run off Brad Lidge, giving the Cardinals a 5-4 comeback win. The blast by Pujols forced Game 6 and gave Lidge his first career postseason loss after going 1-0 with six saves to start his October career. Lance Berkman gave the Astros the lead in the seventh with a three-run home run off Chris Carpenter before St. Louis mounted its comeback.

St. Louis won the opening game of the series by a score of 5-3, but the Astros bounced back with wins in Games 2, 3 and 4 to take a 3-1 advantage overall. Reggie Sanders shined for the Cardinals in Game 1, with a home run and two RBI, as Andy Pettitte took the loss. Oswalt earned the win and Chris Burke homered in Game 2 as the Astros knocked off St. Louis 4-1. Brad Lidge earned a two-inning save and struck out three of the seven batters he faced.

Roger Clemens allowed two runs over six innings and was the winning pitcher in Game 3. Mike Lamb led the Astros offense, going 2x4 with a double, a home run, two RBI and two runs scored. Astros batters managed 11 hits and Lidge nailed down his second save of the series.

After trailing 1-0 in the fourth inning, the Astros battled back to win Game 4, 2-1. Jason Lane tied the contest at one with a solo home run in the fourth and Morgan Ensberg put the Astros ahead with a sacrifice fly in the seventh. Chad Qualls entered in the seventh and earned the win with a perfect inning of work. Lidge closed out the game and picked up his third save of the series.

HOUSTON . . . . . .0 GAMES

National League Champions for the first time in club history, the Houston Astros fell short in their first World Series appearance against the Chicago White Sox. For the series, the Astros were outscored just 20-14 in four games, marking the lowest run-differential in a World Series sweep since 1950. Two of the four games were decided by two runs and two were decided by a lone run, including the series finale. In Game 4, World Series MVP Jermaine Dye, singled home the game's only run in the eighth inning to make the score 1-0. Brandon Backe battled through seven scoreless frames, but Brad Lidge took the loss, falling to 0-2 in the World Series.

Roger Clemens had to exit Game 1 in the second inning with a left hamstring strain as the Astros lost 5-3. Mike Lamb homered and Lance Berkman tied the game early with a two-run double, but Joe Crede put the Sox ahead for good with a home run in the fourth. Jose Contreras nailed down the win for Chicago and Bobby Jenks earned his first save of the series.

Game 2 was decided in the bottom of the ninth inning on a Scott Podsednik home run. With the game tied at six and the Astros two outs away from forcing extra innings, Podsednik hit a home run off Lidge, giving the White Sox a 2-0 lead in the series. Morgan Ensberg homered in the second and Berkman drove in two runs to stake the Astros to a 4-2 advantage, but Houston lost its lead on Paul Konerko's seventh-inning grand slam.

After five hours and 41 minutes and 14 innings, the Astros lost the longest game (time; tied in terms of innings) in World Series history by a score of 7-5. The Astros spotted Roy Oswalt four runs in the first three innings, but Oswalt was unable to hold the lead as the White Sox rallied for five runs in the fifth. Jason Lane hit a home run and drove in two, including the tying run off Dustin Hermanson in the eighth. Chad Qualls tossed three innings of scoreless relief before Ezequiel Astacio allowed Geoff Blum's game-winning homer in the 14th. The Astros pitching staff had gone eight consecutive innings without allowing a run.

ALL-STAR GAME #39 | ASTRODOME, HOUSTON | JULY 9, 1968

The 1968 All-Star Game reflected overpowering pitching. The two leagues combined for only eight hits and just one run, marking the first 1-0 contest in the history of the Midsummer Classic. The lone run – by the National League – was scored in the first inning on a single, an error, a wild pitch, and a double play.

Playing for the injured Pete Rose, Willie Mays led off in the bottom of the first and singled to left field. In a failed pick-off at first, Luis Tiant's (CLE) throw went wild, advancing Mays to second. Curt Flood (STL) was then walked, and a fourth-ball wild pitch moved Mays to third. First baseman Willie McCovey (SF) grounded into a double play, but Mays took advantage to score the only run of the game.

With the victory, the NL stretched its winning streak to six. The six-man NL pitching staff held the AL to just three hits, as Tom Seaver (NYM) tossed five strikeouts late in the game and Juan Marichal pitched two perfect innings. Nine pitchers in the game did not allow a single walk.

Los Angeles left-hander Fernando Valenzuela fanned five consecutive batters to tie Carl Hubbell's 52-year-old All-Star record, but the National League's pitching triumphs weren't enough as the American League recorded the 3-2 victory on two home runs.

The NL pitching staff sat down 12 total batters, but the AL's Roger Clemens (BOS) had a strong night of his own. He tossed three perfect innings which included just three balls and 21 strikes. The AL bats came through at the same time as second baseman Lou Whitaker (DET) followed a Dave Winfield (NYY) double with a two-run shot off Dwight Gooden (NYM) in the second. In the seventh inning, Frank White (KC) came in to pinch-hit for Whitaker, knocking an 0-2 pitch from Mike Scott (HOU) over the left-center field wall to seal the AL's second All-Star win in the 1980s.

ALL-STAR GAME #75 | MINUTE MAID PARK, HOUSTON | JULY 13, 2004

The American League displayed its offensive prowess early, scoring six runs in the first inning en route to a 9-4 win over the National League in the third All-Star Game played in Houston and the first at Minute Maid Park.

Astros right-hander Roger Clemens, who also started the 1986 All-Star Game in Houston, allowed six runs and five hits in suffering the loss. Clemens allowed two first-inning homers, to Manny Ramirez (BOS) and Alfonso Soriano (TEX). Mark Mulder (OAK) pitched two innings and allowed one run to earn the win. Soriano was named the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing 2x3 with three RBI. Soriano was the first leading vote-getter to also earn MVP honors in the same season.

The National League cut the lead to 7-4 with a three-run fourth, including an RBI double by Edgar Renteria (STL) and a two-run double by Albert Pujols (STL). David Ortiz' (BOS) homer against Carl Pavano (FLA) in the sixth ended the game's scoring.

The AL pitching staff held the NL scoreless through the final five innings, thanks to scoreless efforts from Javier Vazquez (NYY), Ted Lilly (TOR), Joe Nathan (MIN), Tom Gordon (NYY), Francisco Rodriguez (ATL), and Mariano Rivera (NYY).

The American League won its seventh consecutive victory, not counting the 2002 tie at Miller Park in Milwaukee. The NL remained winless since 1996.

The 2015 season marks the Astros 31st Spring Training at Osceola County Stadium, the fifth-longest tenure in the Majors at a Florida spring home.

The Astros have been training at OCS since 1985, when they moved from their previous location in Cocoa, Fla.

When it opened, the complex was hailed as the best of its kind in Florida, and its unique "cloverleaf" design has served as a blueprint for many teams as they built new spring facilities. The stadium and complex has been more than the Astros Spring Training home for the past 30 seasons, it has also played host to many local civic events.

In 2009, the complex also became the home venue of the newly-affiliated Gulf Coast League Astros.

The current lease agreement will keep the Astros in the upgraded Kissimmee facility thru at least 2016. Houston first conducted Spring Training in Apache Junction, Ariz. (1962-63), before moving to Cocoa in 1964.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

To comply with security measures implemented by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros, all media will be required to follow the following procedures upon entering Minute Maid Park and while covering the game.

When entering Minute Maid Park, please be prepared to:

- enter the ballpark at the VIP/first base, located in the Diamond Lot near the intersection of Preston and Hamilton Streets.
- provide photo identification and sign in at the media entrance.
- allow bags to be searched upon entering the ballpark.

While covering the game, please be prepared to:

- clearly display working credentials at all times.
- allow bags and equipment cases to be randomly searched if requested by ballpark security officials.
- observe credential regulations as set forth by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros. Only those individuals with the proper credentials will be admitted in the clubhouses, on the field and in the press box.

All 2015 season credentials – whether issued by Major League Baseball, the BBWAA, or the Astros – will bear photographs. Scout Identification cards will also require photos.

- Houston Astros season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering agencies that cover the Astros on a daily basis. Daily passes will be issued to approved media members who do not qualify for season credentials and who meet Major League Baseball's policies for media access. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer or director, via the online credential system at least 48 hours in advance of the game being requested. CREDENTIALS MUST BE DISPLAYED IN A VISIBLE MANNER AT ALL TIMES.
- ALL credential requests, whether season or daily, must go through MLB's online credential system. This will also be the process for Astros regular season, Spring Training and American League Division Series credential applications.
- Daily credentials will be available at the VIP/first base entrance, located in the Diamond Lot near the intersection of Preston and Hamilton Streets, four hours prior to first pitch.
- No spouses, guests or children of media members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable.
- Credentialed media are also prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations will result in the immediate revocation of the credential.
- Credentials may be revoked at any time without cause.

MEDIA SERVICES

PARKING: Working media may park in the B and C lots at Minute Maid Park with their photo season credential or BBWAA credential. Contact the Astros media relations department at (713) 259-8900.

MAIN PRESS BOX: The press box and broadcast booths are located on the Club Level and are accessible from the press box elevator and the elevator at the VIP/first base entrance prior to the opening of gates, and after the game. The press box stairs and escalator on the main concourse (third base side) are available at all times.

MEDIA DINING ROOM: Located on the Club Level just behind the broadcast booths. There is a $12 charge per meal. Media dining is open for service two-and-a-half hours prior to first pitch to accredited members of the media. Spouses/children are not allowed in media dining room.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CLUBHOUSES: Both clubhouses are located on the Service Level and are accessible by the press box elevator or stairs. The Astros clubhouse is located on the first base side of the ballpark, while the visiting teams and umpires are on the third base side. Pre- and postgame access rules are those issued by Major League Baseball. Clubhouses are open three-and-one-half hours before game time and close once the team takes the field for batting practice when the team hits outside. When the team does not hit outside, club uses discretion on when to close the clubhouse.

FIELD: All media must leave the field 45 minutes prior to the first pitch. No person will be allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges (i.e., club pass, photo pass).

PHOTOGRAPHERS/PHOTO WELLS: In-game access is limited to still photographers and rightsholders broadcasting the game. There are four photo wells, located on either side of both the home and visiting dugouts. All photographers must remain in the photo wells while the game is in progress. Photographers are only permitted to change location between innings. No ball -- in play or dead -- should be handled by anyone other than a ballboy.

PRESS CONFERENCE ROOM: The press conference room is located on the Service Level across from the home clubhouse down the first-base side.

NOTES: Game notes, updated Major League statistics, lineup sheets and other pertinent media information will be available near the media entrance of the press box on the Club Level two hours prior to first pitch. Box scores, play-by-play sheets and post-game notes will be available in the same area after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES: Media guides are available upon request in the press box from club media relations representatives and are available online at the MLB Pressbox website.

TELEPHONES: Some credit card-only phones are available for media use in the main press areas.

WI-FI: Wireless Internet access is available in Minute Maid Park. Contact the media relations department for details.

ASTROS ON THE WEB: The official website of the Houston Astros is www.astros.com. The site is updated daily with news, statistics, game notes, feature stories and minor league information. The Major League Baseball website, www.mlb.com, can also be accessed via www.astros.com. The Astros also offer a Spanish website, www.astrosdehouston.com. The site features daily news coverage of the team as well as feature stories from international sports writers.

MLB PRESSBOX: With approved registration, media members gain electronic access to numerous Major League Baseball resources by logging onto www.mlbpressbox.com (on the official MLB website). Some of the information on this site includes: public relations contacts; daily statistical updates; daily game notes; current and archived press releases; media guides; press kits; credential language and media regulations; and historical information about MLB and its entities. In addition, this site provides media the opportunity to download HD quality video, hi-resolution logos for MLB and information on special events for all 30 clubs, as well as headshots of players, coaches, umpires and select executives. All media covering the Astros register on the MLB Pressbox site, and all media credential requests for Astros games are now handled through MLB Pressbox.

MEDIA INFORMATION

ADVISOR TO THE OWNER, 'VOICE OF THE ASTROS'

Milo Hamilton returns to the Astros in his role as Advisor to the Owner in 2015, and will do a limited schedule of appearances for the ballclub. He is already one of the all-time great broadcasters in Major League history, and was inducted into his sixth Hall of Fame in 2014.

- He is entering his 70th year on the air, and has been broadcasting Major League Baseball since 1953. In history, his 59 years in the Major Leagues is second only to Vin Scully's 65. Previous Major League experience included stops with St. Louis, the Chicago Cubs and White Sox, Atlanta and Pittsburgh. He served as the play-by-play announcer of the 1979 World Champion Pirates and the 2005 National League Champion Astros.
- In July of 2005, Milo elected to work home games only beginning in 2006. He joined the Astros in 1985.
- Milo hosted the offseason live talk show, "Astroline," which features current and former players as guests, from 1988-2014.
- SIX HALLS OF FAME: Milo earned the industry's highest honor, receiving the Ford C. Frick award in 1992 from the Baseball Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1994, the Radio Hall of Fame on Nov. 18, 2000, the Texas Radio Hall of Fame in 2002, the Iowa Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame in Jan. 2011 and the Iowa Sports Hall of Fame in 2014.
- MORE ACCOLADES: Milo was presented with the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America on Feb. 8, 2001. In 2002, he received the March of Dimes (AIR) Award in Radio "Lifetime Achievement Award." On Jan. 21, 2005, he was honored with a Lifetime Achievement Award from the RBI Foundation and was honored by the TBHOF in 2005 with the Jimmy Wynn Toy Cannon Award for his many charitable endeavors. On April 8, 2009, Hamilton Street, along the East side of Minute Maid Park, was dedicated "Milo Hamilton Way" in his honor, and he was named "2009 King of Baseball" by Minor League Baseball at the 2009 Winter Meetings Banquet in Indianapolis, Ind. Milo was honored by the Astros for 65 years in baseball with the creation of the Milo Hamilton Scholarship on Sept. 1, 2010. In November 2010, he became the first two-time winner of Interfaith Charities' "Mr. Sportsman" award (also in 1991) and also won the "Spirit of Giving" award from the Wesley Foundation.
- THE CALLS: Milo called 11 no-hitters, Ernie Banks' five grand slams in a season, Stan Musial's five homers in a doubleheader (a feat San Diego's Nate Colbert duplicated with the Padres against Atlanta in 1972), Roger Maris' 61st homer in 1961 and Henry Aaron's historic 715th in 1974. Since joining the Astros, he also called Nolan Ryan's 4,000th strikeout in 1985, Barry Bonds' Major League record tying 70th home run in 2001, the Astros' historic six-pitcher, combined no-hitter in June 2003 and Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit in 2007. In 2004, he was on the mic for Roger Clemens' 4,137th career strikeout, passing Steve Carlton for second on the all-time list. His calls of Chris Burke's 18th-inning, game-winning home run in Game 4 of the 2005 NLDS and the last out in Game 6 of the 2005 NLCS, sending the Astros to their first World Series, will be immortalized in franchise history.
- His list of baseball-related honors dates back to 1962 when he was named Chicago's Sportsman of the Year by B'nai Brith. He was the winner of the inaugural Allen Russell Award for distinguished achievement in 1996 and the inaugural 1997 RBI Foundation honor for his charitable work, and received the Great Communicator Award from the Press Club of Houston in 2000.
- Milo has helped raise more than $50 million for various charities as master of ceremonies at auctions, including: March of Dimes, Epilepsy Association, City of Hope, American Cancer Society, Leukemia Society of America and Astros Foundation. In all, Milo has worked with more than 18 charitable organizations throughout the Houston area.
- He also has considerable experience broadcasting a wide variety of sports, including Kentucky Wildcats basketball, the Chicago Bulls and DePaul Blue Demons. His Texas ties also extend to broadcasting Southwest Conference basketball.
- Milo co-authored the book Making Airwaves, 60 Years at Milo's Microphone, published by Sports Publishing LLC in 2006.
- In Nov. 2009, Hamilton's first audio CD titled, "A Commemorative Tribute: MIlo Hamilton A Call to Remember" was released.
- Born in Fairfield, Iowa, Milo graduated from the University of Iowa with a degree in radio speech. He began his baseball broadcasting career in the Three I League in Davenport, Iowa in 1950.
- Milo and his wife Arlene celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on April 6, 2002. Arlene passed away in Feb. 2005. The couple had two children, Patricia Joy, who passed away in June of 2006, and Mark ('Muggsy').

- Prior to joining the Astros, Ashby had been calling games on radio and television for the Toronto Blue Jays for six seasons (2007-12).
- Ashby's hiring marks a return to Houston for the popular former Astros player and radio broadcaster. Ashby spent 11 of his 17 Major League seasons as a catcher with the Astros from 1979-89, during which he was a part of three postseason teams. From 1998-2006, Ashby worked as the Astros color analyst on radio alongside Hall of Famer Milo Hamilton.
- Prior to his broadcasting career, Ashby served as a coach and minor league manager in the Astros farm system. As part of the club's 50th anniversary celebration in 2012, Ashby was named to the Astros All-Time 25-man roster. Previously, he was named to the All-Time Astrodome team in 1999, and in 2000 was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.
- Ashby compiled a career average of .245 with 90 home runs and 513 RBI in 1370 games, and caught three no-hitters (Ken Forsch, Nolan Ryan, Mike Scott).
- Ashby currently resides in Houston, which has been his home since 1979. He is married to wife Kathryn, is the father of six children and proud grandfather of 17 grandchildren.

GEOFF BLUM

TV BROADCASTER

Geoff Blum returns for his third season with the Astros TV broadcast team in 2015. Blum, who recently retired after 14 Major League seasons as an infielder (1999-2012), made the transition from the playing field to the broadcast booth in 2013.

- During his playing career, Blum had two stints with the Astros, totaling five seasons in Houston (2002-03, 2008-10).
- A switch-hitter, Blum was known as one of the top pinch hitters and utility players in the game, appearing at all four infield positions for nine straight seasons (2000-08). He appeared in the postseason in three seasons (2005-06, 2011).
- In 2005, he hit a go-ahead solo home run in the 14th inning in Game 3 of the World Series to become the 30th player to homer in his first World Series at-bat.
- Geoff and his wife, Kory, have four daughters: Mia Lea and triplets Ava, Audrey and Kayla.

FRANCISCO ROMERO

SPANISH RADIO BROADCASTER

Francisco Romero enters his eighth season of play-by-play on the Astros Spanish radio network.

MLB GUIDELINES FOR THE MOVEMENT OF RETRACTABLE ROOFS

- The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the home club.
- If the game begins with the roof open: it shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club, after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.
- The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
- Once the roof is closed during a game, it shall not be re-opened.
- If the game begins with the roof closed: it may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied to opening the roof during a game.
  - > The roof may only open once during a game.
  - > The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion.
  - > The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
  - > The opening of the roof shall only commence between innings.

MINUTE MAID PARK

MINUTE MAID PARK

The 2015 season marks the 16th season of baseball at Minute Maid Park. The venue has hosted numerous special events, including the 2004 All-Star Game and Home Run Derby, the 2005 World Series, the 2014 Civil Rights Game, major concert events, weddings, graduations and galas.

The year 2000 saw something the grand old game of baseball had not experienced since 1964 — a Major League team in Houston playing on natural grass outdoors. While clear skies and real grass were welcome additions for fans, the Bayou City hardball-faithful also enjoyed another first, Minute Maid Park's 242 foot-tall retractable roof. More than 3 million fans embraced the new ballpark in its inaugural season. Since then, the club has welcomed more than 34 million visitors during the facility's 14-season tenure.

Minute Maid Park has become a welcome home for the Houston Astros and has ushered in a new era of Major League sports in the city. With the downtown ballpark, Houston continues to stand on the forefront of modern stadium construction that began with the club's previous home – the Astrodome. The park's retractable roof brought open-air baseball to Houston for the first time in 35 years, and the natural grass field and classic architecture provided the opportunity of capturing the same atmosphere from the great ballparks of baseball's golden age.

Approval of the ballpark, however, was not limited to the applause of the fans. Less than one calendar year after its opening, Minute Maid Park had already been recognized on local, state and national levels with several awards. The following are the first three major awards with which the new home of the Astros were honored:

- Greater Houston Preservation Alliance, 2000 Good Brick Award. The President's Award was presented to former owner Drayton McLane, the Astros and the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority for the renovation of the 1911 Union Station building. The Good Brick Awards are presented annually in recognition of leadership and excellence in historic preservation.
- Most Outstanding Civil Engineering Project. This honor came from the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), a professional organization that represents the vast majority of civil engineers.
- National Honor Award for Engineering Excellence. This national recognition for engineering excellence came from the American Consulting Engineers Council (ACEC). This honor stamped Minute Maid Park as one of the top 24 engineering projects among all buildings and civil works projects nationally.

LOCATION: Minute Maid Park is located at 501 Crawford Street on the northeast end of downtown Houston. Situated near the George R. Brown Convention Center and BBVA Compass Stadium, the ballpark is located one block west of U.S. 59 and is bound by Congress Avenue on the north, Texas Avenue on the south, Crawford Street on the west and Hamilton Street on the east.

HISTORY: The idea for a public-private financing drive for a downtown Houston ballpark was conceived in 1996. Fourteen leading Houston companies joined together to form the Houston Sports Facility Partnership. The Partnership agreed to provide a $35 million interest-free loan with no repayment due until 10 years of ballpark operation had passed. With the Partnership's initial commitment, the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority had the support it needed to present a ballpark proposal to the public in November 1996. Voters approved the $250 million project.

MINUTE MAID PARK

ALL-STAR GAME: In 2004, Minute Maid Park played host to the 75th Major League Baseball All-Star Game. More than 350,000 people participated in All-Star Week activites, which included the Futures Game, the Legends/Celebrity Softball Game, and the Home Run Derby - all of which took place at Minute Maid Park - in addition to the John Hancock All-Star Fan Fest. The week culminated with the All-Star Game and a 9-4 American League win over the National League squad. Four Astros played for the National League squad, including the NL starting pitcher Roger Clemens, Carlos Beltran, Jeff Kent and Lance Berkman.

FIRST GAMES: The Houston Astros and New York Yankees played an exhibition game on March 30, 2000, with Houston winning 6-5. The Astros hosted the Philadelphia Phillies in the first official regular-season game on April 7, 2000, with Philadelphia winning 4-1.

ARCHITECT: The Architect of Minute Maid Park was HOK Sports Facilities Group, along with Construction Manager Brown & Root Services, a business unit of Halliburton Company.

THE NAME: On June 5, 2002, the Houston Astros and The Minute Maid Company announced that they had expanded their relationship to create a long-term marketing and community partnership. The multi-year partnership agreement included naming rights for the downtown ballpark, rechristening the field "Minute Maid Park."

The partnership agreement also stipulated that the popular Minute Maid Squeeze Play attraction at the ballpark will continue for the length of the 28-year agreement, along with pouring rights for products of The Coca-Cola Company, ongoing advertising and marketing programs, and a commitment by Minute Maid to support youth baseball programs in the Houston area.

The Minute Maid Company is an operating unit of The Coca-Cola Company and the flagship of its worldwide fruit beverage business. The Minute Maid Company has been headquartered in Houston since 1967.

Houston's downtown ballpark was originally named Enron Field on April 7, 1999, and was renamed Astros Field on Feb. 27, 2002, by an agreement between the Houston Astros and Enron Corporation.

SIZE: The building dimensions cover 28.97 acres of gross square footage, a total of 1,263,240 square feet. The height is 93 feet to the last seating tread, equivalent to a nine-story building.

TRAIN: A replica of a 19th century locomotive (circa 1860) and linked coal tender is a fan favorite. The train provides an architectural icon which combines sight, sound and motion for a dynamic entertainment and celebration feature. It also provides a link to the past for Houston and the Union Station site. The train was designed by Uni-Systems and built by SMI & Hydraulics, which also provided the transporters for the retractable roof. Weighing close to 50,000 pounds, the train runs some 800 feet along the low roof track on the west side of the ballpark.

MINUTE MAID PARK

UNION STATION: According to HOK's design platform, the most literal tie between Houston's past and its new ballpark is a physical line to Union Station. On March 2, 1911, Houston's second downtown Union Station, rebuilt at a cost of $500,000, opened its doors for the first time. In the 101 years since, it has served as an epicenter of the city's population growth, been a catalyst for commercial evolution, and become an identifying landmark within the downtown skyline.

Houston was once described as "Where 17 Railroads Meet the Sea". An article in a 1913 issue of "The Rotarian" called Houston the "City of First Consideration" and "The Largest Manufacturing City in the Southwest." Union Station was at the center of it all, the hub of a strong industrial municipality that specialized in oil, rice, sugar and lumber. The historic landmark has also served as a shelter for hurricane refugees and has been visited by Presidents of the United States.

Trains with names such as Acadian, Argonaut, Katy Flyer, California Special, Lone Star, Orleanean and Pioneer made hundreds of stops at Union Station during its active period (1911-1974). Other trains with monikers such as Sam Houston Zephyr, Southerner, Sunset Limited, Sunshine Special, Texas Chief, Texas Eagle, Texas Rocket and Valley Eagle routinely picked up passengers there as well.

The first-floor Great Hall still includes much of Union Station's original architectural work. It currently serves as a general reception area for guests, functions as an event space, and houses the Astros team merchandise shop. Each Astros fan who enters Minute Maid Park through Union Station retraces the steps of passengers who boarded trains in another era.

Today, the conference rooms and event spaces occupying the second and third floor of the renovated Union Station at Minute Maid Park (open 365 days a year) are named after the trains listed above. They are honored as both a tribute to hardworking rail personnel and in remembrance of Union Station's historic importance.

The Houston Astros executive offices occupy the fourth and fifth floors of the building. The sixth floor houses the Roof Deck and Club House at Union Station, where groups of up to 100 people can watch Astros baseball with scenic views of downtown Houston as a backdrop.

Though it sat vacant for a quarter century from 1974-1999, the former transit hub has re-taken its rightful place on the Houston skyline, now serving as the gateway to Astros baseball and remaining an important landmark in downtown Houston.

PLAYING FIELD: Three wall heights, various angles in the corners and power alleys, a 10-degree, uphill slope – "Tal's Hill"– for a center field warning track, and a flag pole in the field of play, create unique sources for any ball that gets past an outfielder.

Featuring Platinum TE Paspalum grass, the playing surface covers 2.5 acres. The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet of PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 51 irrigation heads help make the job for Senior Director, Major League Field Operations Dan Bergstrom and his staff much easier.

All grassed areas of the playing field are also constructed to USGA golf green construction specifications, allowing for excellent drainage and a growing media which is ideal for maintaining high-performance turfgrass.

SOUNDS: More than 400 speaker cabinets are scattered throughout the seating areas and almost 1,000 are found along the concourses. The speakers are distributed throughout the ballpark to have cabinets as close to the fans as possible.

THE ROOF: Architects from the HOK Sports Facilities Group recommended early on that a retractable roof would be appropriate for the Texas climate. Since building the first retractable-roof ballpark – the Skydome in 1989 – designers have crafted several kinds of retractable roofs. Some, for instance, open only over a small central section. The roof at Minute Maid Park, however, retracts completely off the ballpark to reveal the largest open area of any retractable roofed baseball stadium in existence today. A total of 50,000 square feet of glass in the west wall of the retractable roof gives fans a view of the Houston skyline, even when the roof is in the closed position.

Uni-Systems provided the technical expertise to design the best roof structure for Minute Maid Park. Mechanized roof panels open and close in 14-20 minutes. The roof moves back and forth an estimated 160 times a year, a distance of 14.6 miles. To cover the ballpark, steel panels roll in sequence along tracks on the east and west sides of the stadium. When the roof is open, the southern and northern panels, each of which measures 537 by 120 feet and weighs 1,905 metric tons, rest at the north end below the large middle section with its dimension of 589 by 242 feet and a weight of 3,810 metric tons. Designers determined the roof's shape – lower side panels flanking the high center panel – by tracking a batted baseball's hyperbolic flight path. Forged steel wheels, 140 in total, measuring 35 inches in diameter transport the three roof panels.

CONCESSIONS: Prior to the 2014 season the Astros and their exclusive food and beverage partner, Aramark, unveiled a $1.8 million renovation to Minute Maid Park's main concourse, featuring eight new food and beverage concepts. As part of the transformation to enhance the dining experience, the Astros and Aramark completely overhauled the look and feel of the stands by re-branding each concept with a new name and menu, adding more vibrant signage and lighting, and introducing contemporary color schemes and decor. With the 2014 extension of the Astros and Aramark partnership, future enhancements will continue to incorporate fan feedback and market research into the development and design of new menu concepts and dining options throughout Minute Maid Park. In addition, they will explore new and unique ways to showcase Houston's cuisine and culinary talent, such as local top chef Bryan Caswell who has partnered with Aramark the past three seasons to bring his signature menu items to Minute Maid Park.

TECHNOLOGY: Following the 2010 season, the Houston Astros installed two new, high-definition video boards and a large ribbon board at Minute Maid Park in time for the start of the 2011 Major League Baseball season. The new primary video board is located in right field and measures 54 feet high and 124 feet wide (approximately 6,695 square feet), making it the third-largest board of its kind in the Major Leagues when installed. The Astros previous video board that had been in the ballpark since its inception in 2000 was 26 feet high and 45 feet wide. Additionally, the Astros have the largest video board in the Major Leagues featuring 1080i display format. A smaller video board, measuring 24 feet high by 40 feet wide, was installed in left field, and a ribbon board, stretching from foul pole to foul pole and more than 1,000 feet long, was also added. A speed pitch board and an old-fashioned, manually-operated scoreboard keep fans on top of the action in the ballpark and in every other big league venue. When it opened in 2000, Minute Maid Park was the first major sports facility to feature a closed-captioning board for the hearing impaired. Daktronics, one of the world's largest suppliers of electronic boards, is the company responsible for the Astros new boards. The new state-of-the-art HD video board high atop Minute Maid Park provides fans with award-winning special video features and effects created by Astros Productions that is unlike anything in Major League Baseball.

MAZDA CLUB LEVEL RENOVATIONS

During the 2014-15 offseason, the Houston Astros renovated the Mazda Club Level and upper deck areas of Minute Maid Park in a continuing effort to improve the fan experience. The improvements made to both areas seek to elevate the quality of concessions and food service available in the ballpark as well as bring the game to the fans, no matter where they are.

As the official naming rights partner of the Mazda Club Level, Mazda will also continue to showcase brand new models, including the Mazda6 mid-size sedan, the Mazda3 compact sedan and five-door, and the Mazda CX-5 compact SUV on the concourse of the Mazda Club Level.

Working with the team's hospitality partner Aramark, the entire Mazda Club Level recieved a floor-to-ceiling makeover, including new flooring and paint. The food and beverage stands are repositioned to allow fans a clear view of the field from various points on the concourse, and the general infrastructure of many of the new concession stands were renovated to allow for fresher, higher quality food and beverage products.
