KANSAS CITY ROYALS 1999 MEDIA GUIDE

BBWAA Adds Three To Hall of Fame

Baseball's all-time strikeout artist, Nolan Ryan, and two members of the exclusive 3,000-hit club, George Brett and Robin Yount, were elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in balloting announced Tuesday, January 5, 1999, by the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

Ryan and Brett each were named on more than 98 percent of the record 497 ballots cast by 10-year BBWAA members. Ryan's 491 votes represented 98.79 percent of the electorate, the second highest plurality in history only to the 98.84 percent (425 of 430 ballots) of Tom Seaver in 1992. Brett's 488 votes constituted a 98.19 percent plurality, fourth on the all-time list behind Ty Cobb's 98.23 percent (222 of 226) in 1936. Ryan and Brett each surpassed the previous record vote total of 444 (of 460) by Mike Schmidt in 1995.

Since the first election in 1936, 29 players have been elected to the Hall of Fame in their first year of eligibility. Other than the inaugural Hall of Fame election in '36, 1999 is the first year in which a trio of first-year candidates were elected in one year. The last time as many as two first-year candidates were elected was 1989 when Johnny Bench and Carl Yastrzemski were enshrined together.

Hall of Fame Weekend 1999 will take place at The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, New York from July 24-26. The induction ceremony is set for Sunday, July 25, at 2:30 p.m. ET. There is no admission fee and the event will take place on the field adjacent to the Clark Sports Center, located on Susquehanna Avenue just one mile south of the Hall of Fame.

The annual Hall of Fame Game will take place on Monday, July 26 with the Royals playing the Texas Rangers. The venue for the 53rd annual event will once again be historic Doubleday Field with its 9,800 seating capacity. The game is scheduled to begin at 2:00 p.m. with pre-game festivities, including the always-popular home run hitting contest, scheduled to commence at 1:00 p.m.

George Brett Quotes

On being elected to the Hall of Fame: "Everyone who has ever played this game from Little League on up has a dream. And that dream is to someday make it to the Hall of Fame. And that's what makes this so special. You get awards and you play in front of a lot of people, and for five years after that you don't do anything. All of a sudden, you're remembered, not for something you did yesterday or last week or last month, but over an entire career. It is something special."

On living in Kansas City: "I grew up in California on the ocean, but I have lived in Kansas City since 1973. I married a girl from Kansas City and all three of our boys were born in Kansas City. I adopted this city because this city adopted me at an early age. That's one of the things I'm most proud of."

On Game 3 of the 1985 ALCS vs. Toronto: "If you could save one game that you'd be remembered for, that would be the game. Not the three-home run game in Yankee Stadium off Catfish Hunter because Thurman Munson hit one in the eighth, and we ended up losing."

On his biggest thrill -- winning the World Series: "It's the one thing I shared with 24 guys, from April to October, in the grind of the season every day. That was an extraordinary bunch of guys. It wasn't one of the better teams I played on, but it was one of the closest-knit."

On his favorite memory: "If there was just one memory, it'd be the 1985 World Series. Standing on the mound and hugging Bret Saberhagen after an 11-0 defeat of the St. Louis Cardinals to win our first World Championship...I can wear this ring proudly and say I was a world champion."

On the Royals-Yankees rivalry: "We hated each other. The Royals and Yankees hated each other. It was a great rivalry. To this day when I see Lou Piniella we talk about, 'God, I hated you guys.' We had fun and we had physical games. It was the way baseball was meant to be played."

On how he'd like to be remembered: "Prior to 1983, I was always remembered about the ailment I had in the 1980 World Series. Ever since 1983, I've been the pine tar guy. What would you rather be known as, in all honesty? I'd rather be known as a great ambassador of the game and a Hall of Fame ballplayer capable of poking fun at himself, a guy who still takes the game more seriously than he takes himself."

They Said It ...

"This tells us all and makes it very clear how lucky we were. Whether a teammate or a fan, we either got to play with or watch the best player of our time. From the day he graduated from high school and went through the minor leagues, he developed as a person and a player within the organization. He wore one uniform, one number and finished here. This is the culmination of a great career and whether you're a fan or teammate, you were privileged to have such a player playing in the city."

- Paul Splitteroff, former Royals pitcher and current Royals TV broadcaster

"He was always the guy - he was the clutch guy. Not only with the manager, coaches and his teammates, but the fans knew more often than not in a clutch situation he'd come through because he was so mentally tough and he accepted being that guy.

"His success in the playoffs and World Series in clutch situations really elevated him from the local to national scene. He had that national spotlight and stage to perform on. It's one thing to be in the post-season and on stage, but it's another to come through. A lot of guys have been on that stage, but few have produced as he did."

- Denny Matthews, Royals radio announcer

"George Brett has always been a Hall of Famer, both as a player and a person. From the day he started his career at Billings (Montana) through his last game, George's work ethic and determination was second to none. His hard-nosed style, charisma and ability to deliver in clutch moments made him the first superstar in Kansas City.

"George's accomplishments and contributions during the last 28 years remain everlasting throughout the organization and our community. The Royals organization is proud of the fact that George has been associated with the Royals since the onset of his professional career."

- Herk Robinson, Royals Executive Vice President and General Manager

"To the organization, he is the first to get some place (Hall of Fame) that no one has been before and that makes this brighter. That's taking the crown jewel and putting it in a great big jewelry box. When it came to national exposure, George Brett is synonymous with Kansas City more than any other player."

- Dennis Leonard, former Royals pitcher

"If you've ever played golf with him, you'd know he's so competitive that he can't stand to lose. He can't sit down and play a card game that he doesn't want to beat you. That's the way he played baseball. If he had to, he'd take it in his own hands and win the ballgame."

- Jamie Quirk, former Royals catcher and current Royals coach

"If there was one player I ever wanted to be like, it was George Brett."

- Robin Yount

They Said It ...

"He was clearly one of the best players of his generation, but he had a style that spanned the generations. He looked and carried himself like a baseball player and could have been at home in any era. He was the kind of guy who conveyed something to fans that's very important, which was that he thought of himself first and foremost as a baseball player. There was nothing in the world that he would rather be doing than playing baseball every day when he was on the field."

- Bob Costas, NBC broadcaster

"One of the most memorable things about George was the batting title in 1990. We were putting the pencil to the numbers to figure when was best to play George and sure enough, we were able to get it done. He was not only a friend, but he was one of the best players in the game. With the three batting titles, the championships and post-season play - whenever you needed anything done, everyone had confidence that he'd get it done. In fact, the first game I was managing, he hit a homer in the bottom of the 10th to win it."

- John Wathan, former Royals catcher and manager

"Trying to replace who may be the best third baseman to play the game wasn't an easy task. It was the biggest challenge of my career to replace George whenever he was unable to play. But one of the biggest thrills in my career was being able to say that I played when he couldn't play. It's just a memory that I'll keep the rest of my life - to play the same position at the same time on a team with a Hall of Famer."

- Greg Pryor, former Royals infielder

"Any time you can play with a Hall of Famer, then it is something special to remember. I've seen great players make great plays many times. But he was the greatest clutch hitter I've played with or against. He was an excellent hitter through hard work and played at the right time against great teams like the Yankees. He hit .390, won three batting titles and always seemed to be there at the right time with clutch hitting."

- Frank White, former Royals second baseman

"The greatest thing he taught me was on my first day in the big leagues - it was the hustle. He hit two one- hoppers to the pitcher and ran as hard as he could to first base. He set a great example for me to model my career. His hustle and desire - those were the little things that stood out for me. Plus he's one of the greatest hitters I've ever played with."

- Kevin Seitzer, former Royals third baseman

Under Kreamer, the foundation distributed more than $72 million in grants in 1997 for social, educational, artistic and health programs in Kansas City.

Royals Operating Officers

Spencer T. "Herk" Robinson Executive Vice President and General Manager

Herk Robinson begins his 30th year with the Kansas City Royals and his 9th season as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager.

During his stint as G.M., which began on October 10, 1990, Robinson has pushed for the Royals minor league pipeline to pump quality talent to the major league level, as it did in the 1970's thru mid-1980's.

In the last 9 years, Robinson and his staff have reshaped the organization's major and minor league operations. Under his guidance, the Royals have a re-dedication to scouting and signing amateur players, while continuing a strong player development program and improving the club through key trades and acquisitions. This hard work seems to be paying off as the organization's success has been rewarded in recent years. In 1994, the Royals were named Organization of the Year by Topps, Baseball America and USA Today. In 1995, Topps tabbed the Royals and New York Mets as co-winners of baseball's Organization of the Year award and the Royals finished second to the Oakland Athletics for the top spot in 1998.

Robinson's tenure with the Royals extends far beyond his current title. He and the late Joe Burke are the only Royals executives to have worked in virtually every aspect of the club's baseball and administrative operations. Robinson joined the club just after its inaugural season in December of 1969 as Assistant Scouting Director. He was steadily promoted up the Royals ladder as Director of Stadium Operations in 1973, Vice President in 1975 and Executive Vice-President for Administration in 1981. This well-rounded background makes him a solid leader for the Royals. Before joining the organization, Robinson worked for the Cincinnati Reds (1962-67) and Baltimore Orioles (1968).

Born June 25, 1940, Robinson attended the University of Miami (FL) and Washington University in St. Louis. He and his wife, Kathy, have 2 daughters, Ashley and Amanda.

◆ Jose experienced an up-and-down season, not unusual for a 23-year-old hurler at the big league level.

◆ finished the campaign with an 8-11 record and a 4.69 ERA...his ERA was identical to the one he posted in 1997 when he went 9-12.

◆ opened the season working out of the bullpen, an uncommon role for the left-hander, as each of his first 49 big league appearances came as a starter.

◆ first 13 appearances came in relief...was 0-1 with a 4.76 ERA in those contests, allowing 12 earned runs in 22.2 innings of work...also notched 3 "holds".

◆ 3 of 7 inherited runners scored, while 3 of 13 1st batters faced as a reliever reached base safely.

◆ tossed 8.2 scoreless innings of 5-hit relief from April 14-22.

◆ recorded his 1st big league save with 3.0 scoreless innings of 1-hit relief at Oakland on April 19.

◆ moved into the starting rotation on May 10 when Hipolito Pichardo went on the Disabled List.

◆ recorded an 8-10 record with a 4.68 ERA as a starter (152.0 IP, 156 H, 79 ER).

◆ the Royals were 13-12 in his 25 starts, supporting him with 115 runs, or an average of 4.6 runs/start...he notched 11 "quality" starts.

◆ in 8 of his losses as a starter the Royals were held to 2 or fewer runs.

◆ tagged with a loss in each of his first 3 starts as the Royals tallied just 5 runs in those contests.

◆ 1st win of the season was a route-going 5-hitter in a 4-0 win at Anaheim on May 27...it snapped a personal 6-game losing streak and was his 2nd career shutout.

◆ recorded the low-hit game of his career vs. Cleveland on July 3...carried a no-hitter for 5.2 innings and finished with a 2-hitter, but suffered a heart-breaking 2-1 loss, as both Indian hits, including the game-winner in the 9th, were solo home runs by Manny Ramirez.

◆ matched his career high with 9 strikeouts in a 6.1 inning stint at Oakland on July 15.

◆ lasted a career-low two-thirds of an inning in a 15-5 loss to Texas on July 21.

◆ held opposing batters to a .260 average...left-handers batted at a .217 clip (36-for-166), while right-handed hitters were 144-for-525, .274.

Pinch Hitter Rule

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. (If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up).

A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate he is a designated hitter only.

Designated Hitter Rule

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game, may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role. The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

No-Hitter Summary

Steve Busby, Jim Colborn and Bret Saberhagen are the only pitchers in Royals history to have hurled no-hitters.

Busby accomplished the feat on 2 occasions, the first coming at Tiger Stadium when he held Detroit hitless on April 27, 1973. He gave up 6 walks and struck out 4 as Kansas City won 3-0. His 2nd gem also came on the road on June 19, 1974 at Milwaukee's County Stadium where he blanked the Brewers, 2-0. It was in near perfect fashion as the only baserunner was George Scott, who walked to lead off the 2nd inning.

Colborn recorded the 1st no-hitter by a Kansas City pitcher in Kauffman Stadium on May 14, 1977, when he blanked the Texas Rangers, 6-0. It too was nearly a perfect outing as Colborn walked one batter and hit another while facing only 28 batters.

Saberhagen recorded his gem in Kauffman Stadium vs. the Chicago White Sox on August 26, 1991. He walked 2 and fanned 5.

California Angels ace Nolan Ryan recorded the 1st no-hitter in Kauffman Stadium on May 15, 1973. He struck out 12 and allowed only 3 base runners, all walks, in the 3-0 win, his 1st career no-hitter.

Royals Hall of Fame

The Royals Hall of Fame was established to honor individuals who have made exceptional contributions to the Royals organization.

To date, 16 people have been inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame. Outfielder Amos Otis and pitcher Steve Busby were inducted in the inaugural ceremony in 1986; Paul Splitteroff, Cookie Rojas and Dick Howser were inducted in 1987; Dennis Leonard and Hal McRae were added in 1989; while Fred Patek, Larry Gura and Joe Burke joined the select group in 1992. Owner Ewing Kauffman was the sole addition in the Silver Anniversary season of 1993, George Brett was added in 1994 and Frank White joined the Hall in 1995. Muriel Kauffman and John Mayberry joined the select group in 1996. Dan Quisenberry is the most recent inductee, as he was added in 1998.

Amos Otis' career with the Royals spanned 14 years (1970-1983) when he held down the starting centerfield spot. He compiled a solid .280 average in a Kansas City uniform with 193 home runs, 992 RBI and 340 stolen bases while winning 3 Gold Gloves and 5 All-Star nominations. He was the Royals Player of the Year three times (1971, '73 and '78).

Steve Busby was one of the Royals best pitchers and top competitors despite having his career shortened by a shoulder injury. From 1973-75 he averaged 18.6 wins, 260 innings and 177 strikeouts per season while establishing many club records. A 2-time All-Star, he's the only pitcher to toss no-hitters in each of his first two big league seasons.

Paul Splitteroff's big league career included action in 15 seasons from 1970-84. He was a mainstay on the staff from 1972-80 when he averaged nearly 15 wins and 220 innings per year. The big left-hander holds the Royals career records for wins, starts and innings pitched. In 1973 he became the first 20-game winner in Royals history.

Cookie Rojas brought eight-and-a-half years National League experience to the Royals in 1970 and his experience and leadership abilities were felt immediately with the young expansion team, providing a solid base for future championships. Rojas was named to the American League All-Star team four consecutive years (1971-74).

Dick Howser managed the Royals from August 31, 1981 to February 23, 1987 before losing a courageous battle to cancer on June 17, 1987. During Howser's regime, the Royals won 2 division titles and a World Championship in 1985. He compiled a 404-365 record (.525) while guiding the Royals. His uniform number 10 was the first number retired by the Royals.

HALL OF FAME

Dennis Leonard is the only 3-time 20-game winner in Royals history. The 3-time Royals Pitcher of the Year holds the club's career record for complete games and shutouts, and single season highs in starts, complete games, innings pitched and strikeouts. His 130 wins from 1975-81 were the most by a righthanded pitcher in the major leagues.

Hal McRae's hard-nosed, aggressive style of play set the tone for the Royals championship clubs. He spent 14 full seasons in a Royals uniform and was recognized as one of the AL's most prolific designated hitters. He was a 3-time All-Star, led the league in doubles twice and topped the loop with 133 RBI in 1982. He earned Royals Player of the Year honors in 1974 and '82.

Despite being the smallest player in the big leagues at 5-4, Fred Patek was a cornerstone of the early success of the franchise. He wore a Royals uniform from 1971-79, posting a .241 average in 1,245 games, earning a pair of All-Star game selections from his shortstop position. He led the league with 11 triples in 1971 and with 53 stolen bases in 1977.

Larry Gura logged a 111-78 record as a Royal, a 59 percent winning percentage, the top mark in club history. The crafty lefthander was a member of the 1980 American League All-Star squad and twice was selected as the Royals Pitcher of the Year (1978 and 1981). His career highs for wins came in 1980 and 1982 when he recorded 18 victories.

Under Joe Burke's guidance, baseball achieved its greatest success in Kansas City. He joined the club in 1973 and served as General Manager from 1974-1981. He was President of the club from that time until cancer took his life in 1992. He was named Major League Executive of the Year in 1976 and was named "Mr. Baseball" at the Kansas City Baseball Awards Dinner in 1978.

The strength and integrity of Ewing Kauffman's ownership was the cornerstone of success for the Royals during the club's first 25 years. Since purchasing the club as an expansion franchise in 1968, Mr. K's primary motivation was to provide winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citians. His leadership helped make the Royals one of baseball's most successful franchises.

HALL OF FAME

George Brett wrapped up a 20-year Hall of Fame career with the Royals in 1993. The 13-time All-Star and 8-time Royals Player of the Year is the club's all-time leader in every offensive category except stolen bases. He was an American League MVP, a Gold Glove Award winner and 3-time AL batting champion. His uniform number 5 will never be worn again.

Frank White was the defensive star for the Royals from 1973-90 as he won 8 Gold Gloves, an American League record for 2nd basemen. He was selected to the All-Star team 8 times, named the Royals Player of the Year in 1983 and 1986 and tabbed as the ALCS MVP in 1980. He is 2nd on the Royals career charts in hits, games and at bats and is 3rd in doubles and 4th in homers. White's number 20 has been retired.

Muriel Kauffman, the Royals First Lady, was the driving force behind Mr. K's decision to buy the Kansas City Royals. She was a member of the club's Board of Directors and served as a major impetus to the smashing success of the Royal Lancers. Away from the ballpark, she established the Muriel McBrien Kauffman Foundation to support and perpetuate the performing arts and to advance education, research and prevention in the health field.

John Mayberry was the Royals first true power hitter and probably the most impressive. He was a bomber in a lineup that featured speed and gap hitters. In 6 seasons in Kansas City he averaged 24 home runs and 94 RBI. He earned All-Star honors in both 1973 and '74 and became the club's first 30-home run hitter with 34 "taters" in 1975.

Dan Quisenberry's bullseye control, submarine-style delivery and quick wit made him a favorite among his teammates, media, peers and fans. He earned Royals Pitcher of the Year honors 4 times, was selected to the All-Star team on 3 occasions, led the American League in saves 5 times and was a 5-time winner of the American League Fireman of the Year award.

Retired Numbers

In a ceremony that took place on April 7, 1997 prior to the season's home opener, the Kansas City Royals unveiled a special display of the club's three retired uniform numbers. The number 10, worn by former manager Dick Howser; the number 5, worn by former third baseman George Brett; and the number 20, worn by former second baseman Frank White; had all previously been retired by the ballclub. From that date forward, the four-foot high solid bronze numbers will be displayed at Kauffman Stadium just below the message board in center field.

Art Stewart, who has been responsible for the discovery and subsequent signing of several current and former Kansas City Royals players, begins his 30th season with the Royals. He was named to the position of Senior Special Assistant to the General Manager on February 5, 1997.

A native of Chicago, Stewart served as the Director of Scouting from 1984-97. In addition, he held the dual responsibilities of Director of Scouting and Player Development for the 1986 campaign. Before joining the Royals' front office on November 1, 1984, he spent 16 years covering the Midwest as a Royals' scout.

The 1998 season was a season of awards for Art. In August the Royals new residence hall in the Dominican Republic was dedicated to Art for originating the Royals Dominican Republic program in February, 1986. He received an award "For Long Meritorious Service to Baseball" from colleagues and the Topps Company at the General Manager/Scouting & Farm Directors meetings in Naples, Florida. He received the Bing Devine Executive of the Year Award at the 2nd St. Louis Major League Scouts Hall of Fame Banquet. He capped off the year by being named "Mister Baseball" at the 26th Annual Kansas City Royals Awards Banquet.

Art began his career in professional baseball in 1953 as a territorial scout for the New York Yankees and was named the Midwest Scouting Supervisor in 1958, a post he held until joining the Royals in 1969. With the Yankees he signed 20-game winners Jim Bouton and Fritz Peterson, while the Yankees posted 10 World Series Championships in 17 years.

During his tenure as the Director of Scouting, the Royals were named the Major League Baseball Organization of the Year by Baseball America in 1994 and Topps in 1994 and '95.

Stewart has received numerous other awards during his 45 years in baseball including the initial Ewing M. Kauffman Scouting Award in 1970. He won the same award in 1983. He was also honored for "Meritorious Service to the Chicago Public High School Baseball League" in 1979 and presented an award in 1984 from the University of Illinois for outstanding contributions to baseball in the State of Illinois in 1984.

Art and his wife Donna reside in Lee's Summit, Missouri and have one daughter, Dawn.

Royals Radio and Television Networks

The Royals and their radio rightsholder, Entertainment Communications, Inc. (Entercom) are in the second year of a three-year contract. KMBZ-AM (980) in Kansas City is the Royals flagship station.

Entercom, the largest privately held "radio only" company in the nation, was founded in 1968 by Joseph M. Field who is CEO. Entercom operates radio stations in Kansas City, Sacramento, Tampa, Gainesville, FL, Portland, OR and Seattle, where its station KIRO has served as the flagship for Seattle Mariners Baseball and Seattle Seahawks football. KMBZ has carried the Royals in 25 of the club's first 31 seasons.

FOX Sports Midwest, a member of the FOX Sports Net family of regional sports networks, begins its third season as the television carrier of the Royals. The network carries a wide variety of sports teams and events including extensive Big 12 and Pac-10 packages, NHL and NBA games and college basketball from most major conferences in addition to several other Major League Baseball teams.

FOX Sports Midwest will televise 81 Royals games in 1999, the most ever in the franchise's history. The total includes both over-the-air and cable games and represents expanded coverage of both home and road games. The over-the-air package can be seen on local carriers KMBC (Channel 9/ABC) and KCWE (Channel 29/UPN).

The voices on the radio network include Denny Matthews and Ryan Lefebvre, while the television announce team features Bob Davis and Paul Splittorff.

Denny Matthews, who has seen more Royals games than anyone, will call the action on Royals radio for the 31st season. He was chosen from more than 300 applicants for the number 2 announcer position prior to the Royals initial season in 1969, then took over the number 1 job after the 1975 season. Matthews has also lent his play-by-play skills to the CBS Radio Network during portions of the regular season and during the 1982 and '85 World Series. The 1966 graduate of Illinois Wesleyan lettered in football and baseball for 3 years. He finished 8th in the nation (NAIA) in pass receiving in 1965. Dennis is an avid collector of sports publications and enjoys playing hockey.

Ryan Lefebvre begins his 1st season as the Royals radio broadcaster after serving 4 years as the Minnesota Twins broadcaster. Lefebvre, 28, was the "swingman" working both television and radio for the Twins on MSC, WCCO-TV and WCCO Radio. He also broadcast University of Minnesota football, men's hockey, women's basketball and volleyball on WCCO Radio and MSC. Lefebvre graduated from the University of Minnesota, where he was a 3-time all-Big Ten selection in baseball and established the school records for hits, triples and at-bats. He is the son of former big league player and manager Jim Lefebvre.

Don Free will begin his 14th year as the producer/engineer of the radio broadcasts. He and his wife, Sandy have 2 grown daughters.

RADIO & TELEVISION

Bob Davis enters his 3rd season as the play-by-play voice of the Royals Television Network. Davis, an 8-time winner of the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year award, has been the voice of the Kansas Jayhawks for the past 15 years and serves as the sports director for KMBZ-Radio. Prior to his stint with the Jayhawks, Davis spent 16 years announcing Fort Hays State games, earning a spot in the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. Davis has been the host of Royals pre- and post-game shows and did play-by-play for the Wichita Aeros from 1983-84. He has also been the radio voice for the NCAA women's Final Four basketball championships. He and his wife, Linda, have one son, Steven.

Paul Spittorff has worked each of the past 11 seasons as the analyst on the Royals Television Network. The Royals Hall of Famer and all-time winningest pitcher in club history has developed his broadcasting background since retiring in 1984 after pitching in the Royals organization since 1968. He has worked as a play-by-play announcer and analyst for collegiate football and basketball games and on the Royals pre-and post-game shows. He also handled the color commentary for ESPN during the 1985 season on the game-of-the-week and College World Series. Paul and his wife, Lynn, have a son and a daughter.

Kauffman Stadium

Ewing M. Kauffman

Adding age to its beauty, the Kansas City Royals play their 27th season at Kauffman Stadium in 1999.

Recognized throughout baseball as one of the game's most beautiful ballparks, Royals Stadium opened April 10, 1973 with the Royals defeating the Texas Rangers 12-1 before 39,464 fans. Since then, many exciting games have been contested, including the 1973 All-Star Game, 3 no-hitters, playoff games in 1976, '77, '78, '80, '81, '84 and '85 and 7 World Series tilts in 1980 and 1985. The facility was officially re-named in honor of Ewing M. Kauffman in a ceremony at the stadium on July 2, 1993. Since its opening, a total of 48,342,052 people have visited the stadium, including a record 2,477,700 in 1989.

Kauffman Stadium's unique features include a 12-story high scoreboard and a 322-foot wide water spectacular. The scoreboard contains 16,320 light bulbs, most of them on the 40 by 60 foot screen. The water spectacular is the largest privately funded fountain in the world.

Added in 1990 was a state-of-the-art Sony JumboTron color video display board installed on the left field hillside. Measuring 30 by 40 feet, its one of the largest video boards in the U.S. The top of the board features the Royals logo. In keeping with the architecture of the stadium, the existing water spectacular featuring cascading water now extends to the left field corner.

A grass playing field replaced the artificial surface at Kauffman Stadium prior to the 1995 season. The fences were also moved in 10 feet from bullpen to bullpen at that time and lowered from 12 feet to 9 feet.

Prior to the 1999 campaign, additional field level seating, known as "Crown Seats" and four dugout suites were added to enhance the stadium.

The re-naming of the stadium was appropriate in that it was the strength and integrity of Ewing M. Kauffman's ownership that provided the cornerstone for the Royals success. Kauffman purchased the club as an expansion franchise in 1968 with the primary and continuous motivation of providing winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citians. Kauffman, who founded Marion Laboratories in his mother's basement and built it into a diversified health care company with sales reaching nearly one billion dollars, possessed a sense of daring and an innate ability to motivate those around him. The club's even-handed philosophy bears the Kauffman stamp. Mr. K also gave much personal attention to the Kansas City community, an important philosophy that was inbred into the Royals organization and still remains today.

Among the awards Mr. Kauffman won for his leadership include the Kansas City Press Club's 1973 Man-of-the-Year, the "Mr. Baseball" honoree at the Kansas City Baseball Awards Dinner in 1976 and 1991 and induction into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame. He also received the Horatio Alger Award, the Golden Plate Award from the American Academy of Achievement, the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce "Kansas Citian of the Year" Award and the Distinguished Service Award from the American Legion. Mr. K passed away on August 1, 1993.
