Dodger Rookies of the Year

Dodger pitcher Hideo Nomo became the Dodgers' fourth consecutive N.L. Rookie of the Year and the team's 15th overall after being named the 1995 R.O.Y. by The Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA).

Today, the award is named after Jackie Robinson in recognition of the great Brooklyn star and first recipient of the award. The Dodgers are the only M.L. team to have four consecutive winners, also doing so from 1979-82.

The Yankees and Orioles are tied for second with 7 awards each. The 1986-88 Oakland A's are the only other team to have won the award three straight years.

Peter O'Malley
President

The 1996 season marks Peter O'Malley's 27th year as president of the Los Angeles Dodgers. Appointed on March 17, 1970, he holds the distinction as the longest active president in Major League Baseball. This season also marks the 47th year of the O'Malley family's ownership of the club. The late Walter O'Malley served as president of the Dodgers from 1950-1970.

During Peter O'Malley's tenure as president, the Dodgers have enjoyed tremendous success, finishing first or second 18 times in 26 years. O'Malley began his career with the Dodgers in 1962, when he was named Director of Dodgertown, the Dodgers' spring training camp in Vero Beach, FL. He was appointed president and general manager of the Spokane Indians, the Dodgers' Triple-A farm club of the Pacific Coast League in 1965. O'Malley moved to Los Angeles in 1967 when he was named vice president of stadium operations. Two years later, he was appointed executive vice president.

O'Malley studied at LaSalle Military Academy in Oakdale, NY. He majored in Business Law at the Wharton School of Business and Finance at the University of Pennsylvania and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics in 1960.

O'Malley has enthusiastically supported international baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. The Los Angeles Dodgers have sent players and coaches to many countries and hosted numerous baseball exchanges both at Dodgertown in Vero Beach, FL and in Los Angeles. O'Malley has played an active role in developing baseball and goodwill in Korea, Japan, People's Republic of China, Mexico, Nicaragua, Chinese Taipei, Russia and the Dominican Republic. The tradition will continue in 1996 when the baseball team from Hanyang University in Korea trains at Dodgertown, becoming the first Korean university to train in the United States. At the invitation of O'Malley, Dodgertown has previously served as the host site for 10 professional baseball teams from Asia which include Japan's Tokyo Giants (1961, 1967, 1971, 1975 and 1981), Japan's Chunichi Dragons (1988) and Korea's Samsung Lions (1985, 1992, 1993 and 1995). The first amateur team invited to Dodgertown was Japan's Waseda University in 1994.

O'Malley is also committed to involvement in the Los Angeles community. He is a director of the Los Angeles World Affairs Council, and holds memberships on the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles-Guangzhou (People's Republic of China) Sister City Association, the Music Center of Los Angeles County Board of Governors, the Board of Directors of The Tidings newspaper, the Amateur Athletic Foundation and the Police Memorial Foundation. He became the first president of a non-Korean privately held Los Angeles company to join the Korean American Chamber of Commerce of L.A. on July 28, 1993.

He is also president of the Little League Baseball Foundation, and a Director of the Jackie Robinson Foundation in New York. In 1991, O'Malley was honored as the Corporate Executive of the Year by the United States Baseball Federation. In 1992, he received the first distinguished Little League Ambassador Award at the 19th International Congress of Little League Baseball in Boston, and at the 1994 American Baseball Coaches Association, he was honored with "The Uncommon Service to Baseball" award.

Fred Claire
Executive Vice President

Fred Claire begins his 28th season with the Dodgers and his 10th in charge of player personnel decisions. The Dodger general manager is the dean of the current National League GM's with the longest continuous active service time and second in the major leagues behind Sandy Alderson of the Oakland A's. Appointed in April 1987, Claire has helped revive the Dodgers' player development system. Under his tenure, the past four N.L. Rookies of the Year, Eric Karros, Mike Piazza, Raul Mondesi and Hideo Nomo, have advanced through the Dodger minor leagues as part of an impressive core of 27 homegrown players now listed on the Dodgers' 40-man roster. No other team has produced four consecutive Rookie of the Year winners. His player personnel moves in 1995 led to the National League West title and earned the Dodgers' The Sporting News' selection as "Organization of the Year."

In Claire's second season as head of player personnel, the Dodgers won the 1988 World Championship with several key players he acquired, including Kirk Gibson, Mickey Hatcher, Rick Dempsey, Alfredo Griffin, John Shelby and Tim Belcher. Following the season, Claire was named as The Sporting News "Executive of the Year." Claire became the fifth Dodger executive in history to win the honor, joining Larry MacPhail (1939), Branch Rickey (1947), Walter O'Malley (1955) and Buzzie Bavasi (1959).

Appointed to executive vice president in October 1982, Claire became the Dodgers' first executive vice president since Peter O'Malley served in the same capacity during the 1969-70 seasons.

Claire joined the Dodgers in 1969 as the director of publicity. He was appointed vice president, public relations and promotions in February 1975. Under Claire's leadership, the public relations and marketing departments received the Diogenes Award for ethics in marketing by the Sales and Marketing Executives Association of Los Angeles and the Dodgers were saluted for achievements in marketing by Major League Baseball and the Advertising Club of Los Angeles. Claire received the Robert O. Fishel Award in 1986, an award presented annually to a Major League Baseball executive for public relations excellence.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Claire spent 12 years in the newspaper field as a sports editor, columnist and baseball writer with the Long Beach Press-Telegram, the Pomona Progress Bulletin and the Whittier News. Claire is a 1957 graduate of San Jose State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism. He also holds an Associate of Arts degree from Mt. San Antonio College and has been honored by the college as an outstanding alumnus. Claire also attended El Camino College and in January 1989 was named the college's first alumnus of the year. In January 1990, Claire received the Award of Honor from the American Baseball Coaches Association. Claire has served Major League Baseball as a member of the Board of Directors of Baseball Properties, as a member of the Broadcast Advisory Group, and as a member of the Baseball Operations Committee.

LASORDA CELEBRATES 20TH SEASON WITH DODGERS...

- The 1996 season marks Lasorda's 20th season as manager of the Dodgers and his 47th year in the Dodger organization...his lifetime managerial record is 1,558-1,404.
- Prior to becoming the Dodger skipper, he served 11 years as a player, four years as a scout, eight years as a minor league manager and four years as a Dodger coach (1973-76)...1996 also marks Lasorda's 51st year in professional baseball, as he first played with Concord in 1945.
- Named the Dodger manager on Sept. 29, 1976 as longtime manager WALTER ALSTON announced his retirement after managing the Dodgers for 23 years...Lasorda trails only Alston in length of service (23 to 20 years) and wins (2,040 to 1,558) as a Dodger manager.
- Lasorda has a .526 winning percentage (1,558-1,404), ranking him 24th on the all-time list for managers with over 1,000 wins.
- In 19 years at the Dodger helm, Lasorda has guided his team to two World Championships, four N.L. pennants and has been atop the Western Division eight different seasons.
- As he begins his 20th season as the Dodger manager, he becomes only the fourth manager in major league baseball history to manage one team 20 or more years, the others being CONNIE MACK (50 seasons with Philadelphia), JOHN MCGRAW (31 seasons with the New York Giants and WALTER ALSTON (23 seasons with the Dodgers)...both MACK and MCGRAW were also owners of their teams.

THE DEAN WITH THE TEAM...

- Lasorda is the "dean" of active major league managers for consecutive service (19 seasons) and has spent his entire managerial career with the Dodgers.
- His 1,558 wins are the most of any active manager and 14th overall... DICK WILLIAMS is 13th on the list with 1,571 wins...FRED CLARK is 12th with 1,602 wins, RALPH HOUK is 11th with 1,619 wins, BILL MCKECHNIE is 10th with 1,896 and GENE MAUCH is 9th with 1,902.
- Has managed a total of 2,964 major league games, which also is the most among active managers and is 13th overall...he moved into sole possession of 13th place on September 30, 1995 when the Dodgers defeated the Padres at San Diego, 7-2, to clinch the division title...he is 36 games shy of 3,000 games managed and needs 60 games in 1996 to pass DICK WILLIAMS (3,023) and move into 12th on the all-time games managed list.
- Lasorda's 19 years as Dodger manager ranks first among all active coaches in professional sports (baseball, basketball, football and hockey).
- In Lasorda's 19 years as manager of the Dodgers, there have been more than 184 major league managerial changes.

IN THE RECORD BOOKS...

- Won his 1,500th career game as a manager on June 7, 1995, a 7-1 win against Montreal at Dodger Stadium.
- Won his 1,400th career game as a manager on Aug. 15, 1993, a 4-2 win against San Diego at Dodger Stadium.
- Managed his 2,500th game on Aug. 17, 1992 vs. San Francisco, a 2-0 victory at Dodger Stadium.

- Won his 1,000th game as a Dodger skipper in a 4-0 victory on Aug. 21, 1988 vs. Montreal...became the 38th manager in major league history to record 1,000 victories.

POSTSEASON ACTION...

- The Dodgers qualified for postseason play in 1995, the seventh time in Lasorda's 19 seasons, and he lost a one-game playoff in 1980, meaning 42% of the seasons he has managed, the Dodgers have played more than the regularly scheduled season.
- He has managed 61 postseason games, second only to CASEY STENGEL's 63 postseason games managed.
- Lasorda has managed in four World Series (1977, 1978, 1981, 1988), six League Championship Series (1977, 1978, 1981, 1983, 1985, 1988) and two Division Series (1981, 1995).
- The Dodgers have split the four World Series skippered by Lasorda, winning in 1981 and 1988.
- He has managed the Dodgers to a 4-2 record in LCS play and is tied with WHITEY HERZOG for the most LCS games managed in baseball at 30...he also holds the major league record by managing the Dodgers to 16 wins in LCS games.

MANAGING THE ALL-STARS...

- Lasorda has guided the N.L. All-Stars on four occasions: 1978, 1979, 1982, 1989 and served as a coach in 1977, 1983, 1984, 1986 and 1993.
- He is 3-1 in All-Star Games managed.

MANAGER OF THE YEAR AWARDS...

- Lasorda garnered several postseason accolades following the 1988 season, being named N.L. Manager of the Year by Baseball America and Co-Manager of the Year by The Sporting News.
- Was United Press International and Associated Press Manager of the Year in 1977.
- Also earned AP Manager of the Year honors in 1981.

RALLIES DODGERS TO 1995 WESTERN DIVISION TITLE...

- Led the Dodgers to 17 wins in the final 25 games of the 1995 season to overtake the Colorado Rockies and win the Western Division title... the Dodgers were 5.0 games out on July 25 (41-41), then finished the season on a 37-25 roll.
- The season came to an abrupt halt in the Division Series as they lost all three games to the Central Division champion Cincinnati Reds.

LASORDA LEADS 1988 TEAM TO TITLE...

- Lasorda guided the underdog Dodgers to the World Championship over the Oakland A's (4-1).
- Also, guided the Dodgers to a seven-game National League Championship Series triumph over the New York Mets, a team that had defeated the Dodgers 10 out of 11 times during the regular season.

THE FIRST TWO YEARS...

- In 1977, Lasorda became only the 19th manager in major league history to win a league title in the first year of managing in the majors.
- Repeated the league title in 1978 and thus became only the second manager in N.L. history to win league titles in his first two full years of managing...the only other to do it in the N.L. was St. Louis' GABBY STREET in 1931...A.L. managers to accomplish the feat are Detroit's MICKEY COCHRANE, Washington's BUCKY HARRIS, New York's RALPH HOUK, Detroit's HUGHIE JENNINGS and Baltimore's EARL WEAVER.

1981 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP...

- The Dodgers had the best record in baseball (36-21) in the first half of the 1981 season and finished with the third best overall mark (63-47).

THE OTHER SEASONS...

- Los Angeles finished the strike-shortened 1994 season with a 58-56 record, good for a 3.5 game lead over the San Francisco Giants in the first season of the new divisional alignment.
- The 1993 Dodgers made an 18-game improvement in the standings over 1992, tied with Seattle for the third best increase in the majors... San Francisco was first with a 31-game improvement and Philadelphia was second with a 27-game increase in the standings.
- The 1992 Dodgers suffered through a multitude of injuries and finished with a 63-99 record.
- In 1991, the Dodgers finished with a 93-69 record and battled the Atlanta Braves for the N.L. West title, until being eliminated the 161st game of the season...the 93 wins represent the second time in four seasons that a Lasorda-managed team has posted at least 90 wins.
- The 1990 Dodgers were unable to catch the fast-starting Cincinnati Reds, but did make a race of the West by notching the best record in the N.L. after the All-Star break (47-34) earning a second-place finish ...Lasorda finished third in the Manager of the Year balloting by the Baseball Writers Association of America.
- 1989 was a letdown after a storybook 1988 campaign as the Dodgers finished fourth (77-83)...the 1986 and 1987 seasons were disappointments, as the Dodgers had identical records of 73-89.
- In 1985, the Dodgers won the West and took a 2-0 lead on St. Louis in the NLCS, only to lose in six games.
- The Dodgers finished in fourth place in 1984 with a 79-83 record.
- The Dodgers won the West in 1983, but lost in four games to the Philadelphia Phillies in the NLCS, a team they had beaten 11 times in 12 games during the regular season.
- The Dodgers set an all-time National League record of 3.6 million in attendance in 1982, but finished in second place, one game behind Atlanta.
- In 1980, Lasorda's team battled back in the last three days of the season, sweeping a three-game series from the first-place Houston Astros to force a one-game playoff...the Dodgers lost the playoff game at home to the Astros, 7-1...only four teams in the majors had a better record than the Dodgers (Houston, New York Yankees, Baltimore Orioles and Kansas City Royals).
- Riddled by injures in 1979, the Dodgers suffered through a 36-57 first half that saw the club 17.5 games out of first place, only to rebound and finish with a 43-26 record and a .623 second half, second only to the World Champion Pittsburgh Pirates (52-25).

THE MINOR LEAGUES...

- In Lasorda's eight years of managing in the minors, he won five pennants.
- Spent his first four seasons with Pocatello and Ogden of the Pioneer League and he had a pennant winning club the last three years.
- In three seasons as the manager of Spokane of the Pacific Coast League (1969-71) his club never finished lower than third.

- In 1970 Lasorda was voted the "Minor League Manager of the Year" award by The Sporting News as his team won by 26 games.
- Lasorda managed at Albuquerque (AAA) in 1972 and his team finished in first place with a 92-56 record...they went on to win the Pacific Coast League championship three games to one over Eugene.
- Some of the players that Lasorda managed in the minors and sent on to the major leagues include: BILL BUCKNER, RON CEY, JOE FERGUSON, STEVE GARVEY, TOM PACIOREK, LARRY HISLE, CHARLIE HOUGH, VON JOSHUA, DAVEY LOPES, DOUG RAU, BILL RUSSELL and STEVE YEAGER.

LASORDA'S PLAYING CAREER...

- Lasorda's career as a major league pitcher consisted of two seasons with the Dodgers (1954 and 1955) and one year with Kansas City (1956) ...he pitched in four games for the 1955 Dodgers, the first Dodger team ever to win a World Championship.
- He pitched in a total of 26 games and compiled a record of 0-4, all the decisions with Kansas City.
- The southpaw once struck out 25 batters in a 15-inning game while pitching for the Schenectady Blue Jays against Amsterdam in 1948.
- He holds the all-time International League record for career wins at 125 for the Montreal Royals.

- In 1987, Lasorda and SPARKY ANDERSON were named recipients of the first Milton Richman Memorial Award by the Association of Professional Baseball Players of America.
- Lasorda and his wife, Jo, reside in Fullerton.
- Currently involved in plans to build a gymnasium and youth center in North Orange County in memory of their son, Tom Jr.
- Received the Humanitarian Award from the Philadelphia BBWAA chapter in January 1993.

DODGERS HISTORICALLY PROFIT FROM AMATEUR DRAFT

David C. Thomas, a product manager for AMP Incorporated in Greensboro, N.C., published a study of the major league amateur draft for The Baseball Research Journal. He focused on "the players that a given team drafts, signed or unsigned, and ranks the team's drafting performance based on the players' cumulative lifetime major league results in key statistical categories." Thomas broke down the rankings by draft years, decades, and for the overall draft period of 1965 through 1989. After setting up a point system that awarded one point for divisional champs, three points for league champs, and five points for World Series champs, he was able to calculate and rank a team's postseason performance as well. After reviewing the results of the analysis, he found that "the best drafting teams of the 1960's, 1970's, and 1980's were the Dodgers, the Expos, and the Mets, respectively, with the Dodgers holding the best overall results during the entire draft period."

- Was named the National League "Rookie of the Year" on November 9 by the Baseball Writers' Association of America...he finished with 118 total votes, ahead of Atlanta's CHIPPER JONES who finished with 104...he became the team's 15th winner, more than twice as many as any other club...the Cincinnati Reds are second in the N.L. with six...he is also the team's fourth consecutive Rookie of the Year winner joining ERIC KARROS (1992), MIKE PIAZZA (1993) and RAUL MONDESI (1994)...the Dodgers are the only team to have four consecutive winners, accomplished twice, also from 1979-1982 (RICK SUTCLIFFE, STEVE HOWE, FERNANDO VALENZUELA, STEVE SAX).
- Was signed by the Dodgers as a free agent on February 13, 1995, after retiring from Japanese professional baseball following the 1994 season ...he became the first Japanese-born player to join a major league team after playing professionally in Japan's Central or Pacific Leagues.

- Made his major league debut on May 2 at San Francisco in a 4-3 Giants win in 15 innings...he lasted 5.0 innings and did not allow a run in a no-decision...he would collect no-decisions in his next four starts as well, tying him with BOB MOOREHEAD of the 1962 Mets and DAVE OTTO of the 1988 A's for most consecutive no-decisions when starting a career.
- Got his first major league win on June 2 at Dodger Stadium against the New York Mets, pitching 8.0 innings and allowing one run on two hits.
- He struck out 16 batters in his June 14 start vs. Pittsburgh and established a Dodger franchise record for most strikeouts by a rookie pitcher...the previous strikeout high was 15 by KARL SPOONER for Brooklyn in 1954 and the Los Angeles Dodger record was held by BILL SINGER (1967)...the all-time rookie record is 18 in a game pitched by BILL GULLICKSON of the Expos in 1980.
- His 236 strikeouts are a new Dodger rookie record, passing DON SUTTON who had 209 in 1966...the major league record is held by DWIGHT GOODEN who recorded 276 for the Mets in 1984 and also went on to be named the National League Rookie of the Year...there are only 13 players who have collected 200 strikeouts in their rookie season, and Nomo is now number three on that all-time list.
- He fanned 50 batters in four consecutive starts (June 14-29), a new Dodger record, passing SANDY KOUFAX who collected 39 strikeouts in a four-game stretch three different times, the last being August 1, 5, 10, 14, 1965.
- He struck out 13 or more batters in a game five times this season and fanned 10 or more men 11 times this season...SANDY KOUFAX is the only other Dodger to have struck out 10 or more in a game eight or more times.

1995 FINAL DODGER NOTES

Dodgers Win The Wild West: The Dodgers won the Western Division for the first time since 1988, when they went on to win the World Series... this is the Dodgers' eighth time winning the division since entering it ...the other seasons were 1974, 1977, 1978, 1981, 1983, 1988 and 1995...in 1994 the Dodgers were the division leaders as well.

Their Winning Ways: Since the 1993 season, the Dodgers are 136-122 (.527 winning percentage) after having been 144-180 (.444 winning percentage) in 1992-93...in 1993 the Dodgers were at the .500 mark for the season...they then improved to two games over .500 last season and again improved to 12 games over .500 this season...the Dodgers and the Cincinnati Reds are the only two teams in the majors to win the division this season after leading their divisions last season.

He Held'em Hitless: Dodger starter RAMON MARTINEZ threw the 19th Dodger no-hitter in franchise history, blanking the Florida Marlins 7-0 on July 14 at Dodger Stadium...the 19 no-hitters are the most of any other major league team...the Braves are next in the N.L. with 14 (San Francisco with 12; Chicago with 10) and the Chicago White Sox lead the A.L. with 14...Ramon was the only pitcher to throw a no-hitter in 1995 and the first since KENNY ROGERS of the Texas Rangers, did so July 28, 1994 vs. the California Angels in a 4-0 win...Martinez became the 203rd pitcher in major league history to leave an opponent hitless, the 110th in National League history...nine no-hitters have been tossed at Dodger Stadium, the last by KENT MERCKER for the Atlanta Braves on April 8, 1994 in a 6-0 win...Martinez was named National League Player of the Week after the landmark event.

The Night The Fans Gave Away The Giveaways: The Dodgers lost to the St. Louis Cardinals on August 10 at Dodger Stadium, but never finished the 9th inning...the umpires called the game a Dodger loss by "forfeit" due to Dodger giveaway baseballs being thrown on the field...the last Dodger forfeit before this was July 18, 1916 when Brooklyn defeated the Chicago Cubs in the 10th inning because the Cubs' pitcher accused the Dodgers of stealing signs...the last major league forfeit before this incident was July 12, 1979 (Disco Demolition) at Chicago, when Detroit defeated the White Sox...the last N.L. forfeit was July 18, 1954, when Philadelphia defeated St. Louis at St. Louis, 8-1, after the Cards try to stall for an ending due to darkness.

Not Enough Tape: The Dodgers blasted five home runs June 22 vs. San Francisco, four of which were over 400 feet in length...MIKE PIAZZA's first inning homer was measured at 455 feet, BILLY ASHLEY's second inning shot traveled 408 feet, TIM WALLACH's fourth inning home run was 403 feet and ERIC KARROS' second shot in the eighth inning was an estimated 412 feet...the Dodgers also collected five home runs on June 17 at Chicago.

20-20-20 Vision: Dodgers MIKE PIAZZA (32), ERIC KARROS (32) and RAUL MONDESI (26) each collected over 20 home runs this season...they became the first Dodger trio to do so since HUBIE BROOKS (20), KAL DANIELS (27) and EDDIE MURRAY (26) in 1990...Mondesi is the first Dodger to have 20 or more stolen bases and home runs in a season since KIRK GIBSON had 25 home runs and 31 stolen bases in the 1988 World Championship season.

The Birthday Wish: Dodger skipper TOMMY LASORDA turned 68 years young on Sept. 22, when the Dodgers defeated the San Diego Padres 6-5...the Dodgers have now won nine of the last 10 games played on Tommy's birthday, including 6-straight wins...overall the Dodgers are now 9-7 on his date of birth.

But Who's Counting: The Dodgers played their 16,000th game in franchise history on May 19, 1995 at Dodger Stadium...unfortunately, they lost that milestone event, 7-3, to the Chicago Cubs.

Off To A Running Start: Dodger right fielder RAUL MONDESI began the season by stealing 17 consecutive bases without being caught, before thrown out by CHARLES JOHNSON of the Florida Marlins in the second inning of the July 16 game at Dodger Stadium...he had an 18-consecutive stolen base streak in 1994.

Saved By The Worrell: Dodger closer TODD WORRELL became the Dodgers' all-time single season franchise leader in saves with his 29th save of the season in a 4-2 win over the San Francisco Giants at Dodger Stadium on Sept. 20...he passed JAY HOWELL, who had 28 in 1989 for the previous high mark...with his 32 saves, Worrell has now saved 30 or more games in four different major league seasons...before 1995, Worrell's last season to do so was 1988, when he had 32 with the St. Louis Cardinals.

When The Ballots Were All Counted: Five Dodgers were selected to represent the National League at the 1995 All-Star Game in Texas...those selected were catcher MIKE PIAZZA, pitcher HIDEO NOMO, outfielder RAUL MONDESI, shortstop JOSE OFFERMAN and pitcher TODD WORRELL...this was the first All-Star appearance for Mondesi, Offerman and Nomo...Nomo became the first Japanese-born player ever to be selected to the All-Star Game and was the N.L.'s starting pitcher...it was Worrell's second selection (1988) and the third-straight selection for Piazza...the five All-Stars is the most for a Dodger team since having six on the 1991 squad (RAMON MARTINEZ, BRETT BUTLER, MIKE MORGAN, EDDIE MURRAY, JUAN SAMUEL and DARRYL STRAWBERRY).

The Turnstiles Need Some "WD-40": The Dodgers finished the 1995 season with a total attendance of 2,766,251...1995 was the 23rd consecutive season that the franchise has drawn over 2-million fans...the Dodgers have broken the 3-million mark in 10 different seasons, however, this was a shortened season...the team drew it's one millionth fan of the season on June 28 vs. San Diego and its two millionth fan on Aug. 16 vs. Chicago...the Dodgers averaged 38,420 fans per game.

With The "In" Crowd: Dodger first baseman ERIC KARROS is the first Dodger first baseman to collect 30 home runs and 100 RBI in a single season since STEVE GARVEY did so in 1977 with 33 home runs and 115 RBI...his 104 RBI are the most by a Dodger first baseman since Garvey had 106 in 1980 (110 in 1979, 113 in 1978).

Mighty Mike: Dodger catcher MIKE PIAZZA hit two home runs in a game six times in 1995 and 11 times in his career...he hit 21 of his 32 homers on the road and all of his multi-homer games came on the road as well.

What a June: HIDEO NOMO was named National League Player of the Month for June, when he was 6-0 with a 0.94 ERA (57.1 IP/6 ER)... he became the first rookie pitcher to go 6-0 since TOM BROWING in 1985...he won his next decision on July 15 vs. Florida, giving him a team-high 7-game winning streak.

Two Youngsters, Too Good: Dodger rookie HIDEO NOMO and 21-year-old right-hand pitcher ISMAEL VALDES were nearly perfect in June ...combined, the two were 11-1 with a 1.65 ERA (98.1 IP/18 ER) with 97 strikeouts and just 29 walks...the two had five complete games and three shutouts.

Sooooooo Close: HIDEO NOMO pitched a complete game, one-hit shutout at San Francisco on Aug. 5...the only hit he allowed was to ROYCE CLAYTON in the seventh inning, an infield hit to shortstop ...he fanned 11 and walked three in the 3-0 Dodger win.

Remarkable Rookie Wins N.L. Award: Dodger rookie HIDEO NOMO won the N.L. Rookie of the Year Award as he had 236 strikeouts and set a new Dodger franchise rookie record for strikeouts in a season...DON SUTTON held the old mark with 209 in 1966...the major league rookie record is held by DWIGHT GOODEN, who recorded 276 for the New York Mets in 1984 and went on to be named the N.L. Rookie of the Year...here's a look at the performances of FERNANDO VALENZUELA in his "Rookie of the Year" season of 1981 and of rookie Hideo Nomo through his 28 games in 1995.

A Taste Of Perfection: The Dodgers experienced a streak of perfection when they won a season-high six consecutive games from June 21-26 ...during that span, they batted .290 (58-for-200) with three doubles, one triple and 14 home runs.

Your Work Has Been Duly Noted: Dodger players were named National League Player of the Week seven times this season, the most since the award's inception in 1973...Dodger catcher MIKE PIAZZA won the award twice (May 2-7 and Aug. 21-27), ERIC KARROS won twice (July 24-30 and Aug. 7-13), RAUL MONDESI won April 25-30, RAMON MARTINEZ won July 10-16 and HIDEO NOMO won June 19-25...Nomo was also named the National League Player of the Month for June.

BROOKLYN AND LOS ANGELES ALL-TIME ROSTER

Brooklyn, an incubator of baseball in the pre-Civil War era, had such strong clubs as the Atlantics, Eckfords and Excelsiors and didn't take to professional baseball until joining the American Association in 1884. The AA champs of 1889 had so many newlyweds on the roster they were known as the Bridegrooms. The club moved into the National League the following year and became dubbed the Trolley Dodgers because of the maze of streetcar tracks in the borough. The name, shortened to Dodgers, became permanent, although during the managerial tenure of Ned Hanlon (1899-1905) it was changed to Superbas, and in Wilbert Robinson's reign (1914-1931) the team was often referred to as the Robins. But the name Dodgers is associated with some of baseball's all-time greats.

HOME RUNS HIT AT DODGER STADIUM ON THE LOGE LEVEL

Only four players have ever hit a home run on the Loge Level (the second level) at Dodger Stadium. Frank Howard was the first to do it for the Dodgers in the 1963 World Series. Howard hit it eight rows up in the fourth game on Oct. 6 and it was estimated at 420 feet down the left field line. The second player to do it was New York Mets' Dave Kingman on June 4, 1976. Kingman hit three home runs in the game and drove in eight runs. He was the first player to hit three home runs in a game against the Dodgers since Willie Stargell did it on June 24, 1965. He later duplicated the feat on May 14, 1978. The third player to reach the Loge Level was Cincinnati's Dave Parker. Parker hit it down the right field line on June 6, 1984. On Sept. 17, 1987 in first game of a doubleheader, Nick Esasky became the fourth player to reach the Loge Level with a solo shot six rows back down the left field line.

Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears on the shoulder.

Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together.

Cat Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Contusion – An injury to muscle and tissue caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone, or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to reach this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Medial – Pertaining to or near the middle.

Stadium Information

DODGER STADIUM CELEBRATES ITS 35TH SEASON

The Dodgers are celebrating their 35th season at Dodger Stadium and they will begin the 1996 season with a brand new, state-of-the-art grass field. Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT), which has been called the most advanced natural turf system in operation, replaced the Dodger Stadium field which had been in place since the stadium first opened in 1962.

"The entire field had not been replaced since Dodger Stadium opened," said Doug Duennes, Dodger Director, Stadium Operations. "The new technology that is being offered is extraordinary, and we believe that it was time to make a change. Our stadium deserves a change that will be pleasing to both our fans and ballplayers."

Prescription Athletic Turf, created and installed by the Motz Group, based in Cincinnati, OH, uses the latest agronomic and engineering technology to manage field moisture through controlled drainage and irrigation. The 100,000 square feet of bermuda grass was grown on pure sand, beneath which a vacuum chamber that is attached to a drain line matrix that is laid over a water-tight plastic barrier that forcibly extracts water during heavy rains. New moisture gauges monitor the field's water level in coordination with a microprocessor which controls drainage functions. A newly installed computer controller has the ability to reverse the senario and subirrigate when the sand's moisture reading drops below the optimal level.

The Motz Group began excavating the field on Nov. 29, 1995 and will have the field ready for play for the exhibition game with the California Angels on March 30. Dodger Stadium became the third facility to utilize the new PAT technology (Joe Robbie Stadium, Miami, FL, and University of Virginia's Scott Stadium, Charlottesville, VA), and close to 30 facilities are presently enjoying the older PAT version.

The 1996 season is a special one for the Dodgers as it marks the ceremonial 35th season of Dodger Stadium. The Dodgers will play their 3,000th regular season home game when they host the 1995 World Champion Atlanta Braves on April 8 in the Dodgers home opener.

For more than three decades, the beauty of Dodger Stadium has awed spectators. To the south is a breathtaking view of downtown Los Angeles; to the north and east are the green, tree-lined Elysian hills; beyond are the purple San Gabriel Mountains.

Dodger Stadium seats 56,000 and has parking for 16,000 autos on 21 terraced lots adjacent to and at about the same elevations as the five different seating levels. Although it is 34 years old, there are few stadia which look newer or are better maintained. The stadium is kept in immaculate condition by a full-time grounds crew and maintenance staff. More than 3,400 trees cover the 300 acres of beautiful landscape, which is maintained by a full-time staff of seven gardeners.

Inside, 90,138,474 million fans have watched Dodger games at Dodger Stadium over the 34 years, an average of more than 2.6 million fans per season. Dodger fans have witnessed 2,690 regular season games at Dodger Stadium, including a 1,547 – 1,143 (.575) record posted by the Dodgers. In 1978, Dodger Stadium became the first ballpark to host more than 3 million fans in a single season as 3,347,845 people attended Dodger games that year.

Following another 3 million attendance year in 1980, the Dodgers set the all-time Major League season attendance mark in 1982 with 3,608,881. Toronto, Colorado and Atlanta have since topped that mark, but the Dodgers can also boast seasons of more than 3 million in attendance in 1983, '84, '85, '86, '90, '91 and '93. The 1991 attendance of 3,348,170 was the fourth-highest total ever in the National League. Six of the top 10 single-season attendance figures in the N.L. have been recorded at Dodger Stadium.

Dodger Stadium is the only privately-financed stadium built since the construction of Yankee Stadium in 1923. When the late Walter O'Malley and architect Emil Praeger designed this home for the Dodgers, they set the stage for baseball's most popular and beautiful showplace. The fun started on April 10, 1962, when the stadium's gates first opened. The next day, April 11, the Dodgers defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 6-2, for their first win in their new home. That year, 2,755,184 viewed games at the new ballpark.

Since then, Dodger Stadium has hosted eight World Series. The Dodgers have won World Championships in 1963, '65, '81 and '88; National League pennants in 1966, '74, '77 and '78; and N.L. Western Division crowns in 1983, 1985 and 1995.

Although baseball is the only sport played at Dodger Stadium, the park has been the site of numerous momentous events, including the Major League All-Star Game in 1980. Dodger Stadium was the home of the 1984 Olympic Games baseball competition. At that time, it marked baseball's greatest involvement in the Olympics, as eight teams competed in the exhibition tournament.

The Olympic spirit returned to Los Angeles again in 1991, as Dodger Stadium hosted the Opening Ceremonies for the United States Olympic Festival. Later in the summer, the stadium showcased the top amateur baseball players from around the world in the second annual International Baseball Association World All-Star Game.

Pope John Paul II celebrated Mass at Dodger Stadium on Sept. 16, 1987. Entertainers such as The Beatles, The Bee Gees, Elton John, Simon and Garfunkel, Michael Jackson, David Bowie, Genesis, Eric Clapton and U2 have also performed at the stadium. One of the world's greatest entertainment events was staged at Dodger Stadium in 1994 when internationally renowned tenors Jose Carreras, Placido Domingo and Luciano Pavarotti reunited for a spectacular concert performance "Encore – The Three Tenors" with conductor Zubin Mehta.

In addition to those events, Los Angeles has hosted Major League Baseball at its finest. Through 34 glorious years, some of the game's most memorable moments have taken place at Dodger Stadium.

DODGER STADIUM RAINOUTS

The Los Angeles Dodgers have been rained out 15 times at Dodger Stadium since 1962. The Dodgers have not been rained out at home since the 1988 season when the Dodgers were rained out on three consecutive days against the San Diego Padres (April 19-21) for the first time since moving to Dodger Stadium. Prior to 1976, the Dodgers were washed out only once — on April 21, 1967, vs. the St. Louis Cardinals. The 1967 rainout ended a streak of 737 consecutive games at Dodger Stadium without a postponement. The second rainout on April 12, 1976, stopped a string of 724 straight games. The Dodgers begin the 1996 season with a streak of 607 games without a rainout at Dodger Stadium.

DODGERS OPEN BASEBALL ACADEMY IN VENEZUELA

The Dodgers opened a baseball academy in Venezuela in 1995. The Dodgers share a field with a local company in the city of San Joaquin. A mile from the field is a facility which houses and feeds the players who are part of the academy. At the present time all players are Venezuelans. They have daily workouts and play in a winter league where they face other teams run by major league clubs. The camp is directed by Dodger scout Camilo Pascual.

RULES OF INTEREST

Player Limits: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until Sept. 1, when it again becomes 40.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits. Highest batting average and 502 or more at-bats qualifies for the batting championship.

Determining an Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched. Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched qualifies for the pitching championship.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total number of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining On Base Percentage: Add the total number of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining Percentage of Games Won and Lost: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Consecutive Hitting Streaks: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

Consecutive-Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Trading Regulations: Players are available on waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after the start of the season; otherwise in reverse order of standings at close of the preceding season.

Trading Deadline: The trading deadline is July 31. Waivers are required for any inter-or intra- Major League assignment during the period beginning Aug. 1 and ending at 5 p.m. (East Coast time) the day after the end of the season. During the other 10 months of the year, no waivers are needed. The waiver periods are: Nov. 11 to 30th day of season; 31st day of season to July 31; and Aug. 1 to Nov. 10.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Determining a "Major League Year": 172 days constitute a full year in the major leagues.

Night Game: Any game that is scheduled for a 5:00 p.m. (local) start or later.

DIAMOND VISION

The Dodgers installed an entirely new state-of-the-art 875-square-foot (25' by 35') video display system in 1991 that utilizes a higher resolution screen and advanced graphics to show replays, statistics and highlights of game action. The Dodgers' Mitsubishi Diamond Vision Mark III is virtually the same size and shape as the previous model, which was the first of its kind in existence when it debuted at Dodger Stadium on July 8, 1980 when the Dodgers hosted the 51st All-Star Game. The updated version, however, provides greater efficiency and improved picture quality.

The control room, located in the press box area, has also been remodeled to feature the most modern broadcast equipment in existence. The production and editing facility utilizes three cameras, five video tape machines and high-tech special effects equipment. A team of 11 people is required to operate the system throughout each game.

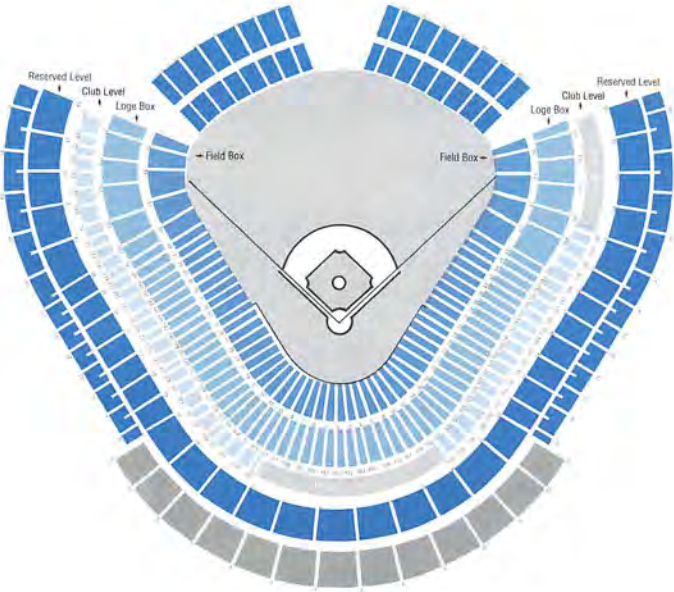

Specially produced entertainment segments and news about the Dodgers, other major league teams and events throughout the world is also featured on the new screen.

Mitsubishi has been an innovator of video board systems for stadiums throughout the world, and the Dodgers have taken advantage of its technology to improve the popular Dodger Stadium landmark, re-creating larger-than-life action above left field.

The scoreboard above right field and the auxiliary scoreboards behind first and third bases has also been replaced with models manufactured by Fair-Tron. Although electronically modernized, they are exact replicas.

THE TOP 50 NATIONAL LEAGUE ATTENDANCE MARKS

The 1995 season marked the 23rd straight season in which the Dodgers totaled at least two million home fans in a season (1973-95). The Dodgers have reached the two million mark 31 times – the most by any Major League team. The Dodgers established a National League record in 1982 with 3,608,881 fans and also had the then third largest total ever in 1991 with 3,348,170 guests. The National League implemented a new system to count fans in 1993 and the Rockies recorded the largest single season total in Major League history with 4,483,350 fans in their first major league season.The Dodgers hold the National League record for most three million plus fans in a season having done it 10 times including in 1978 (3,347,845), 1980 (3,249,287), 1983 (3,510,313), 1984 (3,134,824), 1985 (3,264,593), 1986 (3,023,208) and 1990 (3,002,396). The Dodgers became the first team to play before five million fans total – home and road – in 1978 as the total reached 5,494,204. The Dodgers have since accomplished this figure 12 more times as they have attracted a record 5,859,072 fans in 1982 as well as 5,747,526 in 1983, 5,311,656 in 1980, 5,069,383 in 1984, 5,205,941 in 1985, 5,099,954 in 1986, 5,135,610 in 1988, 5,113,671 in 1989, 5,119,253 in 1990, 5,835,578 in 1991, 5,834,250 in 1993 and 5, 347,425 in 1994.

The Dodgers have averaged more than 2.5 million fans a season since coming to Los Angeles in 1958. The Dodgers hit the million mark in 22 dates in 1981, the two million mark in 46 dates in 1982 and the three million mark in 67 dates in 1982 – all three established then Major League records. Through the 1992 season, attendance in the National League counted the number of fans in attendance, and the American League counted total tickets sold. Both leagues currently count total tickets sold. The top 50 National League home attendance marks:

CARDENAS (Continued)

In 1981, Cardenas worked the Spanish broadcasts for the Texas Rangers and served as program manager for a Houston Spanish radio station, a position he held until he rejoined the Dodgers. His player interviews during the 1988 World Series were heard nationally over the Univision National Network of Spanish language TV stations. In 1959, Rene announced his first playoff series when the Dodgers beat the Milwaukee Braves for the National League championship and his first World Series in Los Angeles, when the Dodgers beat the Chicago White Sox. In 1960, he broadcast his first All-Star Game for The Gillette Cavalcade of Sports in San Francisco. In 1992, Cardenas was honored with a prestigious award by the Nicaraguan government for his part in the development of baseball in Nicaragua and throughout the world. Rene's grandfather, Adan Cardenas (president of Nicaragua from 1884-87), helped sponsor the beginning of baseball in Nicaragua in 1891. His uncle, Adolfo Cardenas, was on the first team.

RADIO BROADCASTS: All Dodger games may be heard over the Dodger radio network. Vin Scully, Ross Porter and Rick Monday call all the action over KABC (790 AM). Jaime Jarrin and Rene Cardenas handle the play-by-play for all games in Spanish on KWKW (1330 AM).

Monday led Arizona State to the 1965 NCAA Championship and earned All-America and College Player of the Year honors. The Kansas City Athletics chose him as the first player ever in the initial Major League Draft in 1965. He made his major league debut in 1966 and spent six seasons with the A's and five seasons with the Chicago Cubs. In 1977, he joined the Dodgers, and in eight seasons, helped them to a World Championship and three N.L. pennants. Overall, he compiled a .264 career batting average with 241 home runs and appeared in five League Championship Series and two All-Star Games. Monday is best remembered for two special moments: On April 25, 1976 at Dodger Stadium while playing center field for Chicago, he ran into left field to rescue the American flag from a possible burning by a pair of protestors. In 1981, Monday delivered the game winning-home run in Game 5 of the N.L. Championship Series to send the Dodgers to the World Series.

Last year, Monday received the 1995 William A. (Bill) Shea Distinguished Little League Graduate Award which is given to a major league baseball player or an individual who best exemplifies the spirit of the Little League Baseball program.

JAIME JARRIN "The Spanish Voice of the Dodgers," Jaime Jarrin embarks on his 38th season covering the team, dating back to 1959. He has been the No. 1 man in the booth since 1973. Jaime Jarrin was honored in his native Ecuador in January 1992 with the highest medal of honor to non-military personnel, the La Gran Cruz al Merito en El Grado de Comendado. In 1990, he was named by Hispanic Business Magazine as one of the Top 100 Influential Hispanics in the United States. He was the first Latin American to win The Golden Mike Award in 1970 and 1971.

Jarrin was in charge of all Spanish radio coverage and production of the 23rd Olympic Games in Los Angeles in 1984. He has traveled the globe broadcasting world championship boxing matches, calling over 30 title bouts for radio and television throughout Latin America. Jarrin is also a member of the CBS Hispanic Radio Network, broadcasting the All-Star Game, League Championship Series and World Series. He is vice president, News and Sports, of Lotus Broadcasting Corp., whose station KWKW is the flagship station of the Dodgers' Spanish radio network.

Jarrin studied philosophy, letters, journalism and broadcasting at Central University of Ecuador in Quito. Jarrin's son, Jorge, "The Captain," covers traffic for both English and Spanish language radio stations in Los Angeles.

RENE CARDENAS A pioneer on the Dodgers' first Spanish language broadcasts from 1958-61, Rene Cardenas begins his 19th season and second tour of duty in the Dodgers' Spanish broadcast booth. He rejoined the club in 1982 and was reunited with Jaime Jarrin, with whom he had worked in his earlier stint with the Dodgers. Cardenas left the team after the 1961 season to become the director of the Spanish network and all broadcast operations for the Houston Astrodome. After 15 years of handling Spanish broadcasts for the Astros, Cardenas returned to his native Managua, Nicaragua, where he worked in radio and television as well as serving for a time as sports editor of La Prensa, the largest newspaper in Nicaragua. He announced baseball and covered various championship boxing matches throughout the world. Because of political unrest in Nicaragua, Cardenas and his wife, Jilma, were forced to flee the country in 1979 and returned to Houston.

ROSS PORTER Now in his 20th season as a member of the Dodger broadcast team, Ross Porter set a major league record for the longest consecutive play-by-play by one announcer when he called the action of a 22-inning game between the Dodgers and Expos on Aug. 23, 1989. He worked the six-hour and 14-minute game alone in Montreal. Since the first broadcast of a major league game in 1922, there have been only six games longer than 22 innings. Porter's broadcast was the only time one person has announced that many innings. For that broadcast, Porter was honored with a Special Achievement Award by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association.

Porter broadcast the 1977 and 1978 World Series on CBS Radio to a worldwide network of more than 600 stations, broadcast the 1988 World Series for Dodger flagship station KABC and announced the 1984 National League Championship Series for the CBS Radio Network. Prior to joining the Dodgers in 1977, Porter spent 10 years as a sportscaster for KNBC-TV in Los Angeles, winning many honors for his nightly programs, including an Emmy. A play-by-play announcer since he was 14, Porter is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma. He broadcast NFL games for NBC-TV for seven years and currently broadcasts college games. During the offseason, Porter hosts Dodger Focus on KABC. Porter is the only announcer to broadcast the games of a World Series champion (Dodgers, 1981 and 1988) and an NCAA basketball champion (UNLV, 1990). Porter also has one of the 24 votes to determine the winner of the Jim Thorpe Award, given annually to the top defensive back in college football. He is the host of KABC Dodgertalk pre- and postgame shows for which he earned the Tom Harmon Award for Radio Sports Anchor in 1992 by the SCSBA and the Radio Talk Show Host award by the SCSBA for 1992 and 1993.

RICK MONDAY Rick Monday begins his third full season as a Dodger broadcaster. Monday joined the Dodger broadcast team in July 1993. Monday will also serve as weekend host for KABC Radio's Dodger talk show. Monday began his active broadcasting career as sports anchor on KTTV (Channel 11) in Los Angeles from 1985-88. He also worked on the Dodger cable television games and hosted the pregame show, Dodger Central, for which he was nominated for an Emmy Award in 1988. In that same year, he served as commentator for the College World Series championship game on CBS. In 1989, he moved to the San Diego Padres calling play-by-play and providing color commentary on radio and television for four seasons.

VIN SCULLY

One of the most recognizable personalities in sports broadcasting, Vin Scully, the voice of the Dodgers, holds the longest service and the longest consecutive service of any current major league broadcaster for one team.

Scully began his broadcasting career at Fordham University announcing Fordham baseball, basketball and football games over the school's radio station. He was also a Fordham outfielder for two seasons. Just a year after graduating from college, Scully joined the Dodger broadcasting team in Brooklyn in 1950, merging with Hall of Fame announcer Red Barber and Connie Desmond.

Scully is a master of the English language and a favorite of Dodger fans, who in 1976, voted him the "Most Memorable Personality" in L.A. Dodger history. From New York to Los Angeles and everywhere in between, Scully has covered many of baseball's thrilling games, moments and achievements. Among them are:

- Three perfect games. (Don Larsen-1956, Sandy Koufax-1965, Dennis Martinez-1991)
- 17 no-hitters.
- Johnny Podres' shutout of the Yankees in Game 7 of the 1955 World Series giving the Dodgers their first World Championship.
- The Dodgers' first game in Los Angeles in 1958.
- 18-strikeout games by Sandy Koufax in 1959 and 1962 and Ramon Martinez in 1990.
- The Yankee-Dodger exhibition game honoring Roy Campanella before a major league record 93,103 fans in the Los Angeles Coliseum.
- The Dodgers' playoff win in 1959 over the Milwaukee Braves and World Series victory over the Chicago White Sox to give them their first World Championship in L.A.
- The Dodgers sweeping the New York Yankees in the 1963 World Series.
- L.A. Dodger World Championship teams of 1959, 1965, 1981 and 1988.
- Don Drysdale's scoreless inning streak in 1968.
- Hank Aaron's 715th career home run in 1974.
- Orel Hershiser's 59 consecutive scoreless innings in 1988.
- Kirk Gibson's dramatic game-winning home run in Game 1 of the 1988 World Series.
- The rookie seasons of Fernando Valenzuela and Hideo Nomo.

In addition to his work on Dodger baseball, Scully announces the World Series for the CBS Radio Network. He has broadcast 12 World Series and six All-Star Games for television. He worked for NBC for seven years covering baseball and golf and has recently begun working with ABC Sports.

Scully's play-by-play descriptions have earned him numerous honors and accolades. His most coveted was in 1982 when he joined his mentor, Red Barber, in the broadcast wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame as he was selected as the recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. In January 1995, Scully received the William J. Slocum Award for his long and meritorious service. Here are some other honors which he has received:

- Named outstanding sportscaster in the nation four times by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.
- Named California Sportscaster of the Year 21 times, including 1995.
- Inducted into the American Sportscasters Hall of Fame in 1992.
- "Look" Magazine Award for outstanding coverage of the 1959 World Series.
- "Broadcaster of the Year" in 1984 by the Southern California Broadcasters Association.

THE DODGERS' SPRING HOME

DODGERTOWN

P. O. Box 2887 • 4001 26th Street • Vero Beach, FL 32961-2887 • Phone (407) 569-4900

The Dodgers celebrate their 49th season at Dodgertown in Vero Beach, Florida this year, including the 43rd season at Holman Stadium.

It was in 1948 that the Dodgers set up camp in Vero Beach at the invitation of local businessman Bud Holman, after whom Holman Stadium is named. Holman's brainstorm came after the United States government turned over a naval air station to the city of Vero Beach following World War II.

Vero Beach needed a tenant for the facility and the Dodgers were looking for a spring home after leading a nomadic existence. In the spring of 1948, the former naval air station grounds and barracks were invaded by 600 players from the Dodger organization.

The players who spent that long-ago spring at Dodgertown, as it came to be known almost from the outset, would not recognize the facility today. Replacing the old barracks is a modern 90-unit villa. Also, a 23,000- square-foot administration building was constructed on the site of the former headquarters building in 1974. The structure includes a major league clubhouse, minor league clubhouse, medical department, dining room and kitchen, main lobby, canteen, recording studio, photo dark room, interview room, stadium club lounge, media working area, two trainers' rooms, two equipment rooms and two laundry rooms.

In 1990, Dodgertown unveiled a newly constructed 15,000-square-foot multi-purpose building, housing four indoor batting tunnels, an exercise room containing the latest in training equipment, a video room to be used by Dodger instructors for a teaching area and baseball administrative offices for Dodger executives during spring training. These offices are also used as meeting rooms for the conference center the rest of the year.

The Dodgers play their exhibition games at Holman Stadium, dedicated in 1953, which has a capacity of 6,500. The Brooklyn Dodgers played their first game at this site against the Philadelphia A's on March 11, 1953. In addition to Holman Stadium, there is a row of outdoor batting cages and six practice fields, four full fields and two half fields.

Even the recreation facilities at Dodgertown have undergone radical change since that initial spring. Two golf courses – an 18-holer called Dodger Pines Country Club and a nine-hole layout called Dodgertown Golf Club – outline the complex. The Pines' clubhouse is complete with locker rooms, dining room, lounge and pro shop.

Dodger personnel also have the use of a swimming pool, four all-weather tennis courts, a game room and a theater in which different movies are shown each night.

Dodgertown, the only privately owned training camp in the country, also includes a 70-acre citrus grove, 45 residences on the golf course perimeter and a conference center. Since 1965, the Dodgers have purchased 450 acres from the city of Vero Beach.

Besides Dodger spring training, Dodgertown is a conference center managed by Harrison Conference Centers. The conference center is designed to provide the proper environment for business meetings and the most intensive learning objectives. There are 20 specially-designed meeting rooms, featuring the latest in audio-visual equipment. The recreation program includes golf, tennis, baseball, swimming, basketball, volleyball and jogging trails. Dodgertown accommodates up to 180 conferees. The facility has more than 250 employees.

This spring, Hanyang University from Seoul, Korea, will train at Dodgertown, becoming the first Korean amateur team to train in the U.S. In 1993, the baseball team from Waseda University in Japan trained for two weeks at Dodgertown, marking the first time an amateur baseball team had been invited to Spring Training by the Dodgers.

Last year, the Samsung Lions from Korea made their fourth visit to Dodgertown to join the Dodgers in spring training while preparing for their season in Korea.

Nine professional teams from Asia have trained during the spring at Dodgertown and the Dodgers were the first major league team to host a team from Korea in spring training.

The Dodgers have also entertained representatives from all over the globe, including hosting the Nigerian National Youth Team in 1992.

Dodgertown has been utilized by numerous NFL teams including the Philadelphia Eagles in 1995, to prepare for postseason games. The Eagles join such teams as the Chiefs, Bills, Saints, Patriots, Browns and Packers, who have all utilized the facilities for training. After Hurricane Andrew devastated the Florida coast in 1993, Dodgertown became the home to the University of Miami football team prior to its regular season opener. In 1995, the Ohio State Buckeyes trained at Dodgertown prior to the Citrus Bowl in January. The Dodgers also hold a rookie camp in June at Vero Beach prior to the newly drafted players reporting to their assigned teams.

Dodgertown also provides the setting for two adult fantasy baseball camps, one held in November and the second in February that feature instruction by former Dodger greats and Hall of Famers.

The 1996 season will be the 17th year that Holman Stadium has served as the summer home of the Vero Beach Dodgers of the Class A Florida State League. The 1991 Vero Beach Dodgers set the club attendance record with a total of 95,300 fans in 63 home games. This total is remarkable since Vero Beach (population 17,350) is one of the smallest towns in America with a professional baseball club. The Vero Beach Dodgers hosted the 1991 Florida State League All-Star Game at Holman Stadium.

DODGERS CHOSEN FOR GREATEST L.A. SPORTS MOMENT

Kirk Gibson's dramatic pinch-hit home run in Game 1 of the 1988 World Series was selected by a group of 5,000 local experts as the greatest moment in Los Angeles sports history. Along with Gibson's homer, 11 other Dodger moments were on the "100 Greatest Moments" list: Sandy Koufax's 1965 perfect game; the move from Brooklyn to Los Angeles in 1958; Jackie Robinson breaks the color barrier in 1947; Roy Campanella's tribute at the Coliseum in 1959; Dodgers' 1959 World Series title; Maury Wills' major league stolen base mark; Don Drysdale's consecutive scoreless inning streak; Orel Hershiser surpassing Drysdale's scoreless streak; Bob Welch striking out Reggie Jackson in the 1978 World Series; rookie Fernando Valenzuela leading the team to the 1981 World Championship and the Dodgers sweeping the Yankees for the 1963 World Championship.

DODGERTOWN...THE PERFECT TRAINING SITE FOR, FOOTBALL?

Dodgertown played host to the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles this year, January 1-6, as they prepared for their postseason games. The Eagles join a list of numerous teams from the NFL who have chosen Dodgertown in the past for their postseason training site. The list includes the Green Bay Packers, Cleveland Browns, New England Patriots, Kansas City Chiefs and the Buffalo Bills. Dodgertown has also hosted the New Orleans Saints for preseason (mid 1970's to mid 1980's), as well as the Ohio State Buckeyes and the Miami Hurricanes.
