EXECUTIVE PROFILES

LEWIS WOLFF

Owner and Managing Partner

Lew Wolff, one of the nation's leading real estate developers and hotel magnates, enters his seventh season as Owner and Managing Partner of the Oakland Athletics.

Heading a limited partnership group that purchased the A's on April 1, 2005, Wolff wasted little time in emblazoning his stamp on one of baseball's most successful and storied franchises. The very next season, the A's made their fifth postseason appearance in seven years in 2006, advancing to the American League Championship Series for the first time since 1992.

Since then, Wolff has worked tirelessly in exploring possible locations to build a much-needed new ballpark venue, as well as supporting GM Billy Beane's efforts in building a strong foundation for future championship teams through player development and acquisitions. According to many baseball experts, the young and talented A's are now on the threshold of another winning era in Oakland.

Wolff's impact on the Bay Area sports landscape is not limited to baseball. In May of 2006, he reached an agreement with Major League Soccer in an attempt to bring professional soccer back to the Bay Area. The expansion San Jose Earthquakes returned to action in 2008, playing their home games at Santa Clara University's Buck Shaw Stadium. Wolff and the Earthquakes ownership group continue to work on securing a soccer-only facility for the team in the South Bay.

Under Wolff's ownership, the A's continue to be one of the most community-minded organizations in all of sports. Last year alone, the A's Community Fund donated approximately $600,000 to various community programs. In 2006, the Wolff family, led by his daughter, Kari Wolff, implemented "Dinner on the Diamond," which has raised nearly $500,000 for the A's Community Fund since its inception. Lew is also an active participant in the A's Home Run Readers program.

The San Jose Mercury-News ranked Wolff first in its annual listing of the Bay Area's 25 Most Powerful Sports Figures in both 2006 and 2007.

In September 2008, the Silicon Valley Leadership Group also presented Wolff with its prestigious "Community Cornerstone Award." The award is given to "a Silicon Valley leader who has displayed a lifetime of impeccable ethics, business achievement and community engagement."

Along the way, the personable Wolff has made a favorable impression among those who follow the team on a regular basis with his easy-going, straight-forward manner and quick-witted humor.

Wolff is the founder of Wolff Urban Development and co-founder of Maritz-Wolff, entities that are involved in the development, acquisition and management of a wide range of commercial, office, parking and hotel properties in a number of California cities including San Jose, Los Angeles, Pasadena and Burbank to name a few.

Wolff's ownership interests in representative hotels and resorts include properties such as The Carlyle in New York City; Four Season Hotels in Houston, the Park Hyatt in Carlsbad; The Ritz-Carlton in St. Louis; Fairmont Hotels in San Jose and San Francisco; Rosewood managed hotels including The Mansion in Dallas, Little Dix Bay, Virgin Gorda, Inn of the Anasazi, Sante Fe plus other brands such as Marriott. In addition, Maritz Wolff has a 50 percent interest in the Dallas-based Rosewood Management Company, which owns and operates luxury hotels and resorts throughout the world.

Wolff began his career in real estate economics and appraisal in his hometown of St. Louis, Mo. before relocating to Los Angeles. In addition to his real estate analysis work, he also served as the President of the 20th Century Fox Realty & Development Company where he managed Fox's worldwide real estate activities.

Wolff is a former minority owner of the St. Louis Blues, the Golden State Warriors and the San Jose Missions, a now-defunct minor league baseball team. He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Wisconsin in Madison, a master's degree in business administration from Washington University in St. Louis and is also a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers (MAI).

In 2009, he was appointed to the Board of Directors of the new MLB Television Network, which launched in January 2009 with an unprecedented 50 million subscribers, and he continues to serve on the board of Major League Baseball's Enterprises, which oversees national television and radio contract negotiations, national sponsorship and licensing programs as well as the overall marketing of the industry. Wolff is a director and co-chairman of the NYSE Company, Sunstone Reit and a member of the Board of Directors of Century Bank, Los Angeles.

Lew resides in the Westwood section of Los Angeles with his wife, Jean. The Wolffs have three children and four grandchildren.

MICHAEL CROWLEY

President

Michael Crowley, one of the rising executives in professional sports today, enters his 14th year with the Athletics' organization and his 13th as team president. He was named to his current position Sept. 28, 1998 and his tenure as president equals the longest in Oakland history (since 1968).

A limited partner in the Athletics ownership group, Crowley is responsible for the overall day-to-day functioning of the Athletics' organization both on the business and baseball sides of the operation, working directly with owner and managing partner Lew Wolff.

In a dual role, Crowley also serves as managing director of the Major League Soccer's San Jose Earthquakes. He oversaw the Earthquakes' first-year launch in 2008, and he continues to spearhead the team's efforts to build a new state-of-the-art, soccer-only stadium in San Jose.

After spending three years in the San Jose office of Price Waterhouse and nine years with I.C.I./Fuller O'Brien Paints, Crowley joined the Athletics organization in July 1997 as vice president and chief financial officer. Considered a key figure in the A's resurgence as one of baseball's elite franchises, Crowley has been committed to fielding a championship caliber team with homegrown talent. He works closely with General Manager Billy Beane on key player decisions and issues relating to the baseball operations' overall objectives and philosophies.

Crowley developed a business model with goals and objectives designed to provide an affordable entertainment product on the field, as well as delivering the absolute highest levels of customer service to fans attending games at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. While Crowley stays involved with all aspects of the organization's business affairs, including finance, sales, marketing, public relations and community affairs, he has been at the forefront of building an outstanding team that continues to deliver premium value.

Crowley also serves on Major League Baseball's International Committee.

Crowley's leadership skills and business acumen have also served the A's well in their ongoing efforts to build a new ballpark in the near future.

The A's president also perpetuates the Athletics' tradition of commitment to the greater community. Under his leadership, the A's organization continues to be active in the Oakland community and surrounding areas. The Oakland A's Community Fund supports charitable organizations in their efforts to improve educational programs, aid the underprivileged, assist in crime prevention, service children, seniors and those who work to improve the quality of life throughout the Bay Area.

In 1999, Crowley and his wife, Kathy, played a key role in implementing Breast Cancer Awareness Day, which has raised $1.145 million for the American Cancer Society over the last 11 years. Crowley currently serves on the Bay Area's Board of Trustees of KIPP schools, which aims to create a respected, influential and nationwide family of schools that are successful in helping educationally underserved students develop the knowledge, skills and character to succeed in college and the competitive world beyond. He also served on the board of top business executives and community leaders which attempted to land the 2012 Summer Olympic Games in the Bay Area.

A native Californian, the 47-year old Crowley graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1985 with a degree in business administration with an emphasis in accounting. He earned his MBA from Duke's Fuqua School of Business in 1992. In November of 2002, Crowley was named one of Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal's "40 Under 40", honoring the nation's top sport executives under the age of 40.

Michael resides in Los Gatos, Calif. with his wife, Kathy, and their three children.

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

BILLY BEANE

Vice President, General Manager

Considered one of the most progressive and talented baseball executives in the game today, Billy Beane has molded the Athletics into a perennial postseason contender since assuming the general manager's duties shortly following the 1997 season.

Under Beane's watch, the A's have compiled a 1132-972 (.538) record over the last 13 seasons, which is the fourth-best record in the American League and sixth best in all of baseball during that time frame. The A's have won four American League West titles (2000; 2002-03; 2006) and secured one AL Wild Card spot (2001) during that span. His teams have posted 90 or more wins in six of the last 11 years. The A's five postseason appearances since the 2000 season are seventh most among all Major League teams, trailing only New York-AL (10), St. Louis (7), Atlanta (7), Boston (6), Los Angeles-AL (6) and Minnesota (6).

In addition, Oakland A's players have garnered numerous individual accolades during his tenure as general manager. Jason Giambi and Miguel Tejada earned American League Most Valuable Player awards in 2000 and 2002, respectively. Barry Zito was named the American League's Cy Young Award winner in 2002 while Bobby Crosby (2004), Huston Street (2005) and Andrew Bailey (2009) have all won AL Rookie of the Year honors.

Beane continually remolds a team that has posted one of the majors' best records over the last past decade. Over the years, his ability to land players such as Kevin Appier, Johnny Damon, Mark Ellis, Cory Lidle, Jermaine Dye, David Justice, Billy Koch, Justin Duchscherer, Keith Foulke, Ted Lilly, Ray Durham, Jose Guillen, Mark Kotsay, Octavio Dotel, Jason Kendall, Dan Haren and Jay Payton has proved instrumental in keying several playoff runs. The additions of Hideki Matsui, David DeJesus, Josh Willingham, Grant Balfour and Brian Fuentes this past off-season are the most recent examples of his GM handiwork.

During the past three years, Beane has also re-stocked the A's minor league system with elite prospects which will enable the team to sustain winning teams well into the next decade. Remarkably, Beane and Assistant GM David Forst have acquired 22 highly coveted young players by trading essentially eight Major League players (Nick Swisher, Rich Harden, Joe Blanton, Chad Gaudin, Matt Holliday, Orlando Cabrera, Haren and Kotsay) since the end of the 2007 season.

Under Beane, the A's have adopted an organizational philosophy that stresses plate discipline and pitchers who command the strike zone. Young players on the lowest-level minor league teams receive the same doctrine on developing a solid understanding of the strike zone and control pitching as do the players in the majors.

Beane's executive talents and the organization's baseball philosophy were the subject of Michael Lewis' best-selling book "Moneyball: The Art of Winningan Unfair Game," which opened the eyes of many of the top sports executives and business CEOs in the nation. The book has since been made into a full-length motion picture featuring Brad Pitt in the starring role, due to premiere this fall.

As a result, Beane remains in great demand on the national speaking circuit, where he regularly addresses top companies on his management approach of identifying and using undervalued assets to create and sustain a competitive edge. He also sits on the board of directors of several companies, including Easton-Bell Sports, ProTrade and NetSuite, Inc.

Beane was named The Sporting News' Executive of the Year in 1999 and earned Major League Baseball's Executive of the Year honors by Baseball America magazine following the 2002 season. In November of 2001, Beane was named one of Street & Smith's Sport Business Journal's "40 Under 40" list, honoring the nation's top 40 sports executives under the age of 40. In 2004, he was rated 16th on Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal's list of Baseball's Heavy Hitters.

Further demonstrating his eclectic tastes and unique interests, Beane was invited to speak at Rupert Murdoch's News Corp. management retreat in Pebble Beach, Calif. in 2006, an event that focused on issues such as volunteerism, technology and politics, and featured leaders and luminaries from around the world. Among the VIP who attended were British Prime Minister Tony Blair, Israeli Vice Premier Shimon Peres, former President Bill Clinton, former Vice President Al Gore, former House Speaker Newt Gingrich, former Harvard President Lawrence Summer and U2 lead singer Bono.

In 2008, Beane also collaborated with Gingrich and Sen. John Kerry in co-authoring an article in the New York Times offering possible remedies for the U.S. health care crisis.

Beane joined the A's front office staff in 1990 as the club's major league advance scout. In 1993, former A's President and General Manager Sandy Alderson promoted him to the assistant general manager's position when Walt Jocketty left the organization to accept the assistant general manager's job in Colorado. Alderson handed over his general manager's duties to Beane on October 17, 1997.

A first round draft pick (23rd overall) of the New York Mets in the 1980 June Free Agent Draft, Beane played six major league seasons as an infielder, outfielder and catcher for the Mets, Minnesota Twins, Detroit Tigers and Oakland A's. His final season in uniform was 1989 when he was a utility player on the A's World Championship team. Beane retired as an active player in the spring of 1990.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Beane attended Mt. Carmel High School and UC San Diego, where he studied economics. Billy and his wife, Tara, reside in Danville, Calif. with their twins, Brayden and Tinsley. His daughter, Casey, attends Kenyon (Ohio) College.

DAVID FORST

Assistant General Manager

David Forst begins his 12th season with the Athletics and his seventh as assistant general manager. He was appointed to his current position in February of 2004 after serving as an assistant to the general manager and coordinator of professional scouting. His primary duties include assisting Billy Beane in all player acquisitions, contract negotiations and player evaluations.

The 34-year old Forst graduated Cum Laude from Harvard University in 1998 with a bachelor of arts degree in sociology. He played baseball for the Crimson for four seasons and earned third team All-America honors as a senior in 1998. He also played for the Springfield (Ill.) Capitals of the Frontier League in 1998 and 1999.

A native of Encino, Calif., Forst resides in Berkeley, Calif. with his wife, Rebe, and son, Judah.

BILLY OWENS

Director of Player Personnel

Billy Owens begins his 13th season with the Athletics and his eighth as director of player personnel, where his responsibilities include providing input and recommendations for potential trades and free agent signings, along with evaluation in the area of amateur scouting.

Prior to moving into a front office position, Owens spent five seasons as a hitting coach in the A's minor league system, with stops at Southern Oregon (1999), Vancouver (2000-01) and Arizona (2002-03). In addition to his coaching duties, Owens also assumed scouting responsibilities as an area scout and was promoted to East Coast Scouting Coordinator in 2003.

A third round pick (72nd overall) by the Baltimore Orioles in the 1992 June Draft, Owens played seven seasons of minor league ball with the Baltimore (1992-96) and Houston organizations (1997-98) before joining the A's as an area scout.

A native of San Jose, Calif., Owens attended the University of Arizona, where he played both baseball and football. He was a football, basketball and baseball standout at Bellarmine College Preparatory and is a member of the school's hall of fame. Billy O makes his off-season home in Scottsdale, Ariz.

FARHAN ZAIDI

Director of Baseball Operations

Farhan Zaidi enters his seventh season with the A's, his third as director of baseball operations. His primary responsibilities include providing statistical analysis for evaluating and targeting players in the amateur draft, free agent and trade markets. He also assists on arbitration cases, minor league contracts and works closely with the coaching staff during the season in analyzing data from advance scouting reports.

Prior to joining the A's, Zaidi served as business development associate for Small World Media, the fantasy sports division of The Sporting News and also worked as a management consultant for the Boston Consulting Group.

Zaidi, 34, earned his bachelor of science degree in economics from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1998 and a Ph. D in economics from the University of California, Berkeley in 2001. He currently resides in Oakland.

KEITH LIEPPMAN

Director of Player Development

Keith Lieppman begins his 41st year with the A's and 20th season as the organization's director of player development, with responsibilities in the assignment, development and evaluation of players throughout the A's farm system, which consistently ranks among the best in the game. He also coordinates field instruction for the entire minor league system.

Lieppman's gilded reputation as one of baseball's finest personnel executives was further amplified last November when he received the Sheldon "Chief" Bender Award from Minor League Baseball for "distinguished service and being instrumental in player development" during his career.

Lieppman has managed on all levels of the A's minor league system, beginning in Modesto in 1980 and most recently with the Triple-A Tacoma Tigers from 1985-87. He also managed the Licey Tigres of the Dominican Winter League in 1986. He began his baseball career in 1971 as a minor league player for the A's.

Keith is a graduate of the University of Kansas with a degree in journalism. He resides in Prescott, Ariz. with his wife, Corinne, and twins, Burke and Lauren.

ERIC KUBOTA

Director of Scouting

Eric Kubota is in his 27th season with the Athletics organization and his 10th as director of scouting.

Kubota has overseen the club's last nine drafts that have produced dozens of players who have risen to the major leagues with various clubs, including current A's Andrew Bailey (2006), Dallas Braden (2004), Trevor Cahill (2006), Brad Kilby (2005), Cliff Pennington (2005) Landon Powell (2004), Tyson Ross (2008) and Kurt Suzuki (2004). Kubota's talents as an evaluator helped assemble the majority of the A's minor league system that has combined for a 3415-3119 (.523) record over the last nine seasons

Prior to assuming his current position, Kubota served as the club's supervisor of international scouting for three seasons, overseeing the scouting staff and player evaluations in the Dominican Republic and Venezuela.

Kubota, 46, began his baseball career in June of 1984 while he was an undergraduate at the University of California, Berkeley, spending the better part of six seasons working in the A's media relations department. In November of 1989, he joined the baseball operations staff as an assistant director of scouting, handling daily administrative duties of the scouting department, including preparation work for the Rule 4, Rule 5 and June drafts, compiling the team's prospect book and preparing statistical information.

He was elevated to Pacific Rim coordinator in November of 1996, where he acted as a liaison between the A's and Asian baseball teams in addition to his scouting duties in Northern California and Hawaii.

Eric graduated from Cal in 1986 with a bachelor of arts degree in political science. He resides in Rocklin, Calif. with his wife, Karen, and their two children.

TED POLAKOWSKI

Director of Minor League Operations

Ted Polakowski enters his 13th season as director of minor league operations and 29th in the organization. He oversees all aspects of the club's training facility in Phoenix as well as handling budgeting and purchasing responsibilities for the organization's entire minor league system. He also assists in the management of the A's baseball operation in the Dominican Republic.

Polakowski joined the A's organization in 1984 as an athletic trainer for the Idaho Falls affiliate. He also headed up training staffs in Pocatello (1985), Medford (1986-87) and with the A's team in the Arizona Rookie League (1988) before moving into administrative duties on a full time basis in 1989. He was promoted to his current position prior to the 1999 season.

A native of Somerville, N.J., Polakowski graduated from Arizona State in 1984 with a degree in health education and sports medicine. He currently resides in Mesa, Ariz. with his four children, Kimberly, Matthew, Krysta and Michael.

CHRIS PITTARO

Director of Professional Scouting

Chris Pittaro enters his 21st season in the Oakland organization, his fifth as director of professional scouting. He spent the previous six seasons as national field coordinator after serving as an area scout and national cross checker with the Athletics since 1991.

Drafted by the Detroit Tigers in the 1982 June First Year Player Draft, Pittaro made his major league debut with the Tigers in 1985, batting .242 in 28 games. He was traded to the Minnesota Twins in 1986 and spent parts of the '86 and '87 seasons on the Twins big league roster. He retired during the 1988 season.

Pittaro attended the University of North Carolina from 1980-82 before signing with the Tigers following his junior season. After he retired as a player in 1988, he enrolled in Rider College in New Jersey where he obtained a bachelor of science degree in finance in 1991, graduating Summa Cum Laude.

The 49-year old Pittaro is a native of Hamilton, N.J., where he still lives with his wife, Lisa. He has three children.

PAMELA PITTS

Director of Baseball Administration

Pamela Pitts enters her 30th season in the organization and 19th as director of baseball administration. Her responsibilities include managing the day-to-day business side of the baseball operations department, including governing all major and minor league staff contract administration, player records, waivers, payroll issues and transactions. She started her baseball career with the A's in November of 1981 as the minor league and public relations secretary. Pamela resides in Danville, Calif. with her husband, Dan Dunn.

GRADY FUSON

Special Assistant to General Manager

Grady Fuson, former Oakland Athletics' scouting director and one of the game's most respected scouts and baseball executives, returned to the A's last year as a special assistant to the general manager.

Fuson, who began his career as an area scout with Oakland in 1982, has now spent 20 seasons with the A's organization, including seven years as scouting director from 1995-2001. Prior to his current position with the Athletics, he served as vice president of scouting and player development with San Diego from 2006-09 after joining the Padres in 2005 as a special assistant to the general manager.

His first stint with the A's ended in 2002, when he joined the Texas Rangers as assistant general manager, spending three seasons in charge of the Rangers' scouting and player personnel.

Formerly the head baseball coach at the University of Puget Sound in Washington, Fuson was hired by the A's in 1982. During his tenure in Oakland, he played a prominent role in drafting such players as Eric Chavez, Tim Hudson, Mark Mulder and Barry Zito, which provided the impetus for the franchise to feature five playoff teams over a seven-year period from 2000-06.

ADMINISTRATION

JIM LEAHEY

Vice President, Sales and Marketing

Jim Leahey enters his fifth season with the Oakland Athletics as vice president, sales and marketing. He oversees the team's sales and marketing efforts, including ticket sales, premium seating sales and service, corporate partnerships, advertising, and promotions. Leahey is spearheading the organization's efforts to deliver exceptional value through an outstanding fan experience.

Prior to joining the A's, Leahey spent 14 years with Sony Corporation, working in a series of product development, marketing and general management roles. Spending time in Sony's US and global operations, he worked in Latin America as general manager and country manager of Sony Peru, and in the United States as general manager and vice president of the Peripherals and Enhancements (accessories) Group. Leahey joined the A's in December of 2006.

A native of Rhode Island, Leahey earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Brown University in 1988 and his master's in business administration from the Harvard Business School in 1993. Jim resides in Danville, Calif. with his wife, Kira, and their three children.

KEN PRIES

Vice President, Broadcasting and Communications

Celebrating his 21st season with the Athletics organization, Ken Pries was promoted to his current position of vice president, broadcasting and communications in March of 2000 after serving as the team's senior director for broadcasting and communications for the previous three years.

Pries oversees all of the A's television and radio matters, in addition to the club's community relations, public relations and Diamond Vision departments.

Pries is responsible for negotiating all of the team's broadcast agreements, which include the A's Radio Network, and television partnership with Comcast SportsNet California. The A's will televise over 145 games this year, all in High Definition.

Last season, the A's Community Fund distributed approximately $600,000 to various projects and made donations to over 1,500 various charities throughout Northern California. The annual A's Community Fund Golf Tournament, held at the Castlewood Country Club in Pleasanton, raised more than $125,000 and the 11th Annual Breast Cancer Awareness Day raised more than $70,000 for the American Cancer Society and the Northern California Cancer Center. The A's 11th Annual MUG Root Beer Float Day raised over $31,000 for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

Prior to joining the A's organization in 1991, Pries worked seven years with KSFO radio, where he was an executive producer for A's broadcasts, as well as Stanford football and men's basketball broadcasts. Before his KSFO stint, Pries served as a sports coordinator at KNBR radio from 1979-84, where he worked on the station's broadcasts of San Francisco Giants baseball games, along with University of San Francisco and Golden State Warrior basketball games.

A native of Alameda, Calif., Pries attended San Francisco State University, where he majored in broadcast communicational arts. He resides in San Ramon, Calif. with his wife and their two children.

DAVID RINETTI

Vice President, Stadium Operations

David Rinetti enters his 31st season with the A's organization and his 11th as vice president, stadium operations.

In his current position, Rinetti coordinates event management, oversees all game day employees, including ushers, security officers, ticket takers, parking attendants and grounds crew, and assists in all construction related issues at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. He is also the team's liaison with local law enforcement agencies and Major League Baseball's Security Department. In addition, Rinetti sits on the team's venue and design development committee that is responsible for developing a non-site specific prototype for a new baseball-only facility for the club.

The 46-year old Rinetti began his career with the A's in 1981, serving as stadium operations assistant, where he organized in-stadium promotions and giveaways. From 1987-93, he managed game day operations and maintenance of the A's luxury suites. In 1994, he was promoted to director of stadium operations and was elevated to vice president in March of 2000.

Rinetti also worked with Major League Baseball's Security Department at the 1995, 1998, 2007 and 2010 World Series, in addition to the 1998, 2002 and 2007 All-Star Games. He is also a member of the Major League Baseball Stadium Operations Advisory Committee.

A 1986 graduate of California State University, Hayward with a degree in business administration, Rinetti resides in Pleasanton with his wife, Adrienne.

KEITH WOLFF

Vice President, Venue Development

Keith Wolff enters his sixth year as vice president, venue development for the A's, while also retaining his position as president of Wolff Urban Development, a real estate development, acquisition and management company based in West Los Angeles and the Bay Area. In his role with the A's, he is responsible for the daily efforts in the team's quest to secure a baseball-only facility in the Bay Area.

Wolff has more than 20 years of experience within the real estate industry with an emphasis on hotel, office, industrial and retail project assets. He has an extensive background in all facets of commercial real estate, including property acquisition, entitlement, development, leasing, repositioning and disposition.

Wolff graduated magna cum laude from the University of the Pacific with a bachelor's of science degree in business administration. He received his master's degree in business administration from Harvard University in 1993.

PAUL WONG

Vice President, Finance

Paul Wong enters his 16th season with the Athletics organization and 11th as vice president, finance. SPORTS MEDICINE STAFF

NICK PAPARESTA

Head Athletic Trainer

Nick Paparesta enters his first season as the Oakland A's head athletic trainer. He served as the Tampa Bay Rays' assistant trainer the past three seasons.

Paparesta, a native of Fort Myers, Fla., spent five years in the Rays' organization. He joined Tampa Bay in 2006 as Minor League head trainer and rehabilitation coordinator, overseeing all Minor League trainers and rehabilitation with Minor League players in that role for two seasons. He was promoted to the Major League level in 2008 and was a member of Tampa Bay's American League championship team that year.

Prior to his stint with the Rays, Paparesta worked in the Cleveland Indians organization for 11 seasons, including four years with Triple-A Buffalo. He is a graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College in Berea, Ohio, and holds certifications by the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

WALT HORN

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Walt Horn returns for his fourth season as assistant athletic trainer for the A's. Horn began his professional baseball career with the A's in 1978 after graduating from Boise State University in December of 1977. He served as the club's Double A athletic trainer for six seasons, all in the Eastern League before being promoted to the Triple A club for the 1984 season. He remained with the A's Triple-A affiliates in Tacoma, Edmonton, Vancouver and Sacramento over the next 24 seasons in the Pacific Coast League. Walt earned Pacific Coast League Athletic Trainer of the Year four times during that period (1992, '96, '02 and '04). He was also the athletic trainer for two All-Star games (1993 and 2005). An Idaho native, Horn now resides with his wife, Stacy, in Mesa, Ariz. during the off season. They have two children, Kassandra and Cameron.

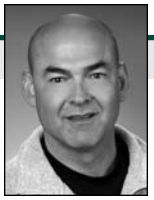

BRIAN SCHULMAN

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Brian Schulman enters his first season as an assistant athletic trainer with the A's after previously serving seven years at the University of California, Berkeley. At Cal, Schulman held the post of assistant athletic trainer from 2004-08 before being promoted to rehabilitation coordinator in 2009. During his stint as assistant athletic trainer, he oversaw the sports of baseball, men's water polo and women's soccer. Schulman also served previous internships with the San Francisco 49ers in 2003-04 and the Los Angeles Dodgers in 2000, as well as being a graduate assistant trainer at Fresno State in 2001-03. He holds a bachelor's degree in political science from UC Santa Barbara (2001) and a Masters in kinesiology from Fresno State (2003).

BOB ALEJO

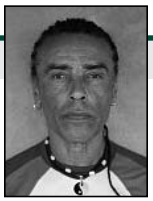

Director of Strength and Conditioning

With nearly 30 years of coaching experience, Bob Alejo returned to the Oakland A's in 2009 for a second stint as the Director of Strength and Conditioning. Previously, he served in a similar capacity from 1993-2001. In his role, he is responsible for all aspects of the organization's year-round physical preparation at both the major league and minor league levels. Prior to rejoining the A's in 2009, Bob was the Director of Strength and Conditioning at UC Santa Barbara from 2005-2008 during which time he was also a member of the 2008 U.S. Olympic Team as strength and conditioning coach for the Gold medal-winning men's beach volleyball team of Todd Rogers and Phil Dalhausser. From 1984-1993,

Alejo was the strength and conditioning coach at UCLA where he worked with 23 men's and women's teams. During his tenure in Westwood, the Bruins racked up 25 national championships and produced more than 100 All-Americans. An accomplished lecturer and author, Alejo is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (through the National Strength and Conditioning Association's Certification Commission) and holds the advanced NSCA Registered Strength and Conditioning Coach distinction. He has also been elected to three halls of fame: Chico State Athletics, Chico State Baseball (inaugural inductee) and the Chico Professional Baseball "Legends of the Diamond."

Ozzie Lyles enters his third season as the Oakland A's team massage therapist. He previously worked several years with many professional athletes, while also studying and practicing sport and medical massage since 1992. He was employed at Oakbay Chiropractic in Oakland from 2004-09 under the Oakland Raiders' team orthopedic surgeon, Dr. Warren Strudwick, and also has worked for Dr. Steve Isono, the Olympic and track and field orthopedic physician, in Emeryville. The Oakland, Calif. native also worked at Club One in Oakland.

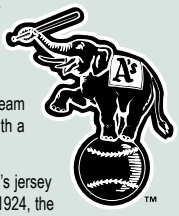

LARRY DAVIS

Coordinator of Medical Services

Larry Davis begins his 39th season with the A's organization and fourth as coordinator of medical services. He oversees and administrates all health and injury issues throughout the organization. Before his current post, Davis served 10 seasons (1998-2007) as the A's head trainer and 14 previous years (1984-97) as an assistant trainer for the big league club. A native of Tucson, Ariz., Davis attended the University of Arizona where he majored in physical education. He began his baseball career in 1973 as the head trainer, traveling secretary and equipment manager of the Tucson Toros, then Oakland's Triple-A affiliate. He remained in that capacity for 11 seasons as the affiliate moved to San Jose, Vancouver, Ogden and Tacoma. Larry makes his home in Mesa, Ariz. with his wife, Suzi.

THE A'S ELEPHANT

After helping form the American League in 1901, New York Giants manager John McGraw dismissed the A's with contempt by calling them "The White Elephants," implying Connie Mack should not by allowed to spend money without supervision. Mack defiantly adopted the White Elephant as the team insignia and in 1902, the Athletics won their first American League pennant.

The White Elephant remained the team's mascot and later that decade, made its first appearance on the A's team sweaters. In 1918, the Elephant saw its first game action when Mack had the pachyderm symbol (in blue with a white "A" inside) placed on the left sleeve of every player.

By 1920, Mack had fully adopted the Elephant as the team's symbol. The traditional "A" on front of the team's jersey was replaced by a blue elephant logo. After a few poor seasons, Mack decided change was in order. So, in 1924, the blue elephant was replaced by the traditional white elephant on the team's jersey and the A's played better ball for the next few years.

In 1928, Mack decided the elephant had worn out its brief welcome on the A's jersey fronts and replaced the logo with the familiar "A" on the uniform. The A's went on to win two World Championships and an AL crown in the next three years, although the resurgence was probably due more to the additions of Foxx, Simmons, Grove and Cochrane than the elephant's absence.

That was the last year for the elephant on the A's uniform until 1955, when the A's, now in Kansas City, added the patch to their uniform sleeves. However, when Charlie Finely purchased the team in the early 1960's, the elephant was once again sent packing and replaced by, of all animals, a mule.

Prior to the 1988 season, the A's brought back a new, more aggressive A's Elephant. In 1995, the traditional A's elephant was reincorporated into many of the team's promotional items and publications and is now a prominent feature on the A's uniform.

CLUBHOUSE AND STAFF

MICKEY MORABITO

Director of Team Travel

Mickey Morabito enters his 32nd season as the Athletics' director of team travel. He is responsible for arranging the transportation and accommodations of the team during spring training and the regular season, with additional responsibilities in spring training scheduling, payroll and ticketing. He has the second longest tenure with one club among active major league traveling secretaries. Morabito's career in professional baseball spans four decades, dating back to 1970 when he served as a batboy for the New York Yankees. He worked in the Yankees public relations department for seven seasons, working as an assistant from 1974-76 before taking over the director's duties in 1977. While with the Yankees, he managed the club's media relations efforts during the club's back-to-back World Championship seasons of 1977 and '78. Morabito joined the Athletics organization in the spring of 1980, handling dual roles as the club's director of public relations and traveling secretary. During his long career, he has been a part of six World Series teams, three with the A's and three with the Yankees. A native of Brooklyn, NY, Morabito attended Lafayette High School in Brooklyn and later earned his bachelor of arts degree in physical education from Hunter College in New York City. A fan of Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, fine dining and hockey, Mickey makes his home in Alameda and Manhattan Beach with his wife Barbara.

STEVE VUCINICH

Equipment Manager

A fixture in the A's organization ever since the club moved to Oakland in 1968, Steve Vucinich enters his 18th season as the club's equipment manager after serving as the visiting clubhouse manager from 1974-93. An Oakland native, Vucinich joined the A's organization as a ball boy in 1968 when the franchise relocated from Kansas City. From 1969-73, he served as an assistant in the home clubhouse before being named visiting clubhouse manager in 1974. Vucinich is a past president of the Major League Baseball Equipment Manager's Association and currently serves on the MLBMA's board of directors and as well as the advisory committee for Major League Baseball Properties. Vucinich graduated from St. Joseph's High School in Alameda and Chabot College in Hayward. An avid golfer, he makes his offseason home in Scottsdale with his wife, Valerie, and daughter, Kayla.

MIKE THALBLUM

Visiting Clubhouse Manager

The 2010 season marks Mike Thalblum's 31st season in the A's organization and his 18th as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began his baseball career when he was 13 years old, serving as a clubhouse assistant in the team's spring training clubhouse in Phoenix. In 1985, Thalblum relocated to Oakland to work in the visiting clubhouse with Steve Vucinich and then in 1992, moved across the hall to the home side where he worked with the late Frank Cienszczyk for two seasons. In 1994, he

Assistant Equipment Manager

Brian Davis, who first joined the Oakland A's as a batboy in 1991, is entering his 17th season as the club's assistant equipment manager. He is responsible for assisting Steve Vucinich in the day-to-day operation of the clubhouse, ranging from all equipment needs and meal planning, to occasionally travelling with the team on road trips. A native of Newark Calif., Davis is a graduate of Placer High School in Auburn Calif. and later attended both Chico State and Cal State Hayward. He is married and lives with his wife, Pam, and their two children—son, Owen, and daughter, Sophia—in Goodyear, Ariz.

CLAY WOOD

Head Groundskeeper

The 2010 season marks Clay Wood's 17th season as the head groundskeeper of the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum and his 22nd in the Athletics organization. Under his direction, the Coliseum's playing surface is considered by players to be among the best in the major leagues. Clay joined the A's organization in May of 1989 as part of the club's spring training field maintenance team. A native of Fort Worth, Tex., Wood earned his bachelor of science degree in marketing from Arizona State University. Woody and his wife, Lisa, make their home in Danville, Calif. with their son, Tyler, and daughter, Katie.

BOB MELVIN 6

MANAGER

Robert Paul Melvin

Named as A's interim manager, June 9, 2011

Birthdate: October 28, 1961

Birthplace/Resides: Palo Alto, California / New York, New York

Contract Status: Signed through 2011

Bob Melvin was named interim manager of the A's for the remainder of the 2011 season June 9. He replaced Bob Geren, who compiled a 334-376 (.470) record in four-plus seasons as manager. Melvin has a record of 493-508 (.493) in seven previous seasons as a Major League manager with the Seattle Mariners (2003-04) and Arizona Diamondbacks (2005-09). He is the 29th manager in franchise history and the 17th in Oakland history.

In his previous managerial stint, he guided Arizona to a 337-340 (.498) record in four-plus seasons. He was named manager of the D-backs Nov. 5, 2004 and led the club to a 77-85 mark in his first season, a 26-game turnaround from a franchise-worst 51-111 mark in 2004. After a 76-86 finish in 2006, Melvin was named National League Manager of the Year by the BBWAA in 2007 after guiding Arizona to a league-best 90-72 record. He also earned NL Manager of the Year honors from The Sporting News and the Negro League Baseball Museum's C.I. Taylor Legacy Award. The Diamondbacks followed up their NL West title with a second place finish in 2008, finishing 82-80. Melvin became the winningest manager in Arizona history that season when he earned his 304th win Aug. 14, surpassing Bob Brenly. He was ejected from a game twice during the 2008 season and has 19 career ejections as a manager. Melvin was relieved of his duties as D-backs manager May 8, 2009 after a 12-17 start.

Prior to being named A's manager, Melvin had rejoined the Diamondbacks as a special baseball advisor to President & CEO Derrick Hall in May of 2011, assisting the baseball operations department and other business divisions of the organization. He was a professional scout for the New York Mets in 2010.

Melvin began his managerial career in 2003 and guided to the Mariners to a 93-69 record in his rookie campaign, shattering the team record for wins by a first-year Mariners manager set by Lou Piniella in 1993 (82-80). His 93 wins also tied for the 15th-most by any rookie manager in Major League history. The Mariners then fell to 63-99 in 2004 and he left Seattle with a 156-168 (.481) record in two seasons.

Melvin began his coaching career as Manager Phil Garner's bench coach from 1999-2000, first with the Brewers in 1999 and then in 2000 with the Tigers. While with the Brewers, he also managed the Maryvale team in the Arizona Fall League in 1999. He then served as Bob Brenly's bench coach with the D-backs from 2001-02 when the club won back-to-back NL West titles and the World Series in 2001. Prior to those bench coach roles, he spent three seasons with Milwaukee in various capacities, serving as a scout in 1996, roving instructor in 1997 and as assistant to General Manager Sal Bando in 1998.

A 10-year Major League veteran, Melvin's playing career included stops in Detroit (1985), San Francisco (1986-88), Baltimore (1989-91), Kansas City (1992), Boston (1993), New York-AL (1994) and Chicago-AL (1994). He posted a .233 batting average with 35 home runs and 212 RBI while playing in 692 games.

The former catcher was drafted by Detroit as its first choice in the secondary phase of the 1981 January draft and hit .220 in 41 games in his rookie season of 1985. Melvin spent the next three seasons sharing the catching duties with Bob Brenly for the Giants and hit a career-high 11 home runs in 1987. After three seasons in Baltimore, he batted a career-high .314 in 32 games with Kansas City in 1992.

Melvin graduated from Menlo-Atherton High School in Menlo Park, Calif. in 1979 and later attended and played baseball at the University of California in Berkeley. He and his wife, Kelly, reside in Lower Manhattan, NY. Their daughter, Alexi, is a recent graduate of the prestigious Lee Strasberg Theater & Film Institute in New York.

BOB GEREN 17

MANAGER
Robert Peter Geren
Named as A's bullpen coach, November 13, 2002
Named as A's manager, November 17, 2006
Birthdate: September 22, 1961
Birthplace/Resides: San Diego, California / Danville, California
Contract Status: Signed through 2011

Bob Geren has compiled a 307-340 (.474) record in four seasons as manager of the Oakland A's. He was named the 28th manager in franchise history and the 17th in Oakland history on Nov. 17, 2006.

Geren guided Oakland to an 81-81 record and second-place finish in the American League West in 2010 after posting losing seasons in each of his first three years at the helm. He was also named to the coaching staff for the American League All-Star team last year. The A's used the disabled 23 times in 2010, which was second most in Oakland history, and the 23 players combined to miss an Oakland record 1,397 games. After employing an Oakland-record 54 players and tying the club record by using the disabled list 22 times in 2007 en route to a 76-86 record, the A's utilized 51 players in 2008 and set a new Oakland record by using the DL 25 times while finishing 75-86. The A's utilized 51 players again in 2009 and used the DL 17 times in a 75-87 season. Oakland has now used the DL 87 times during Geren's four seasons as manager – a total surpassed only by the Texas Rangers (98) – and has employed 129 different players.

Geren has been a member of the A's coaching staff for the last eight seasons, serving as the club's bench coach in 2006 after spending the previous three seasons as bullpen coach. He joined the A's organization in 1999 as manager of Single-A Modesto and spent the next three seasons (2000-02) at the helm of the Triple-A Sacramento River Cats. He also managed in the Boston Red Sox farm system for three seasons, guiding Utica of the New York-Penn League in 1995, the Red Sox Gulf Coast League team in 1996 and Sarasota of the Florida State League in 1998. His seven-year managerial record on the minor league level is 452-390, including a 319-253 record in the A's system.

He gained further managerial experience in the 2005 off-season, leading Escogido in the Dominican Winter League.

Geren was named the California League's Manager of the Year in 1999 after his Modesto club finished 88-52 and won both halves in the Northern Division of the California League. He then led Triple-A Sacramento to consecutive first place finishes in the Southern Division of the Pacific Coast League, as the River Cats posted a 90-54 record in 2000 and 75-69 mark in 2001.

A former catcher, Geren's professional playing career spanned 15 seasons, including five years in the major leagues with the New York Yankees and San Diego Padres. Originally a first round pick of the Padres in 1979, Geren was traded to the St. Louis organization prior to making his major league debut with the Yankees in 1988. He played four seasons with New York from 1988-91 and enjoyed his best season in 1989 when he batted .288 and hit a career high nine home runs. After spending the 1992 season in Boston's minor league system, Geren finished his playing career with San Diego in 1993. He owns a .233 career batting average in 307 Major League games.

A native of San Diego, Geren attended Clairemont High School. Bob and his wife, Pam, reside in Danville with their sons, Brett and Bobby. Bobby was drafted by the A's in the 36th round of the 2010 First-Year Player draft but did not sign and now attends Princeton University.

MIKE GALLEGO 3

THIRD BASE COACH

Michael Anthony Gallego

Named A's third base coach, October 22, 2008

Birthdate: October 31, 1960

Birthplace/Resides: Whittier, California / Phoenix, Arizona

Mike Gallego completed his second season as the A's third base coach in 2010, but it was his 14th season in the Oakland organization, which includes 12 years as a player.

Gallego joined the A's from the Colorado Rockies organization, where he spent nine seasons, including four as third base and infield coach on Clint Hurdle's major league staff, including a storybook 2007 season when they won the National League Pennant. Under his tutelage, the Rockies set a major league record for fielding percentage with a mark of .98925 in 2007. Shortstop Troy Tulowitzki led major league shortstops with a .987 fielding percentage that year and Todd Helton topped all National League first baseman with a .999 fielding percentage. Gallego joined the Rockies organization as a roving infield coordinator in 2000, a position he held until joining the major league coaching staff May 1, 2002. He returned to his minor league duties in 2003-04, before rejoining the major league staff in 2005. Gallego began his coaching career as Boston's minor league infield instructor in 1999.

Gallego's professional career began when the A's drafted him in the second round of the 1981 June draft out of UCLA. He made his major league debut with Oakland in 1985 and spent 13 seasons in the majors with Oakland (1985-91, 95), the New York Yankees (1992-94) and St. Louis Cardinals (1996-97). He is a .239 career hitter with 42 home runs and 282 RBI in 1111 games, including .232 in 772 games with the A's. A valuable utility infielder, he played in three straight postseasons with Oakland from 1988-90 and was a member of the 1989 World Champion A's. In 1993, he won the Good Guy Award from the New York Press Photographer's Association and New York Baseball Writers after enjoying his best season, batting .283 with 10 home runs and 54 RBI.

A native of Whittier, Calif., Gallego graduated from St. Paul High School (Santa Fe Springs, Calif.) and attended UCLA for three years before being drafted by the A's. He and his wife, Caryn, have twin sons, Nicholas and Joseph (12/29/88) and a daughter, Allison (12/12/90), and reside in Phoenix, Ariz.

GERALD PERRY 39

HITTING COACH

Gerald June Perry

Named A's hitting coach, October 20, 2010

Birthdate: October 30, 1960

Birthplace/Resides: Savannah, Georgia / Marietta, Georgia

Gerald Perry returns to Oakland in 2011 as the club's new hitting coach, a position he previously held with the A's in 2006.

Perry, hitting coach for Boston's Triple-A affiliate in Pawtucket last season, began his major league coaching career in Seattle under Manager Lou Piniella in 2000. During his three seasons there, the Mariners reeled off a 300-186 record (.617), including a 116-win playoff season in 2001 that set an American League record and tied the Major League mark (1906 Chicago Cubs) for most victories in a season. Perry, who enters his 28th season in professional baseball this spring, has also served as hitting coach with Pittsburgh (2003-05), Oakland and the Cubs (2007-09).

During the 10 major league seasons as a hitting coach, his teams have advanced to the playoffs five times, including Mariners teams that played in the ALCS Series in 2000 and 2001, and the 2006 A's club that also appeared in the ALCS.

In his second stint as hitting coach with Piniella, his 2008 Cubs ranked second in the National League in batting average (.278) and paced the NL in runs scored (855). The average was the franchise's highest mark in 71 years. That 2008 Chicago club also finished first in the National League and second in the majors with 636 walks. It marked the fifth time in which Perry helped an offense rank first or second in the league in walks (also 2000-02 with Seattle and 2006 with Oakland).

During his three-year stay in Seattle, the Mariners led the majors in on-base percentage (.357) and walks (2018), and paced the American League in batting average (.278) and runs scored (2648).

Besides last season, Perry previously spent three years in the Boston organization as a minor league hitting coach with Single-A Michigan (1997) and Triple-A Pawtucket (1998), and was the club's minor league hitting coordinator in 1999.

Originally an 11th round selection by Atlanta in the 1978 Draft, Perry played parts of 13 major league seasons with the Braves (1983-89), Kansas City Royals (1990) and St. Louis Cardinals (1991-95). A .265 lifetime hitter with 59 home runs and 396 RBI in 1,193 games, the Savannah, Ga. native was named to the National League All-Star Team in 1988 when he batted .300 with 29 doubles, eight homers, 74 RBI and 29 stolen bases for the Braves. The previous season, 1987, he set an Atlanta record with 42 stolen bases, the most by a full-time Major League first baseman since Rod Carew swiped 49 with Minnesota in 1976. When he finished his career in St. Louis, he left as the Cardinals' all-time leader in pinch hits (70).

Perry is a 1978 graduate of H.E. McCracken High School in Buffton, S.C. He and his wife, Tara, have three children, Portia, Falon and Gerald Jr.

RICK RODRIGUEZ 41

BULLPEN COACH

Ricardo Rodriguez

Named A's bullpen coach, November 12, 2010

Birthdate: September 21, 1960

Birthplace/Resides: Oakland, California / Folsom, California

Rick Rodriguez begins his first season on the A's coaching staff as bullpen coach but it is his 27th year in the Athletics organization. His tenure includes seven seasons as a player and 19 as a minor league coach.

Rodriguez has spent 10 of the previous 11 seasons (2000-02, 04-10) as the pitching coach at Triple-A Sacramento. The one exception was in 2003 when he managed the A's Single-A affiliate at Modesto to a 74-66 record and postseason appearance. Rodriguez' first coaching assignment came in 1992 with the A's affiliate at Scottsdale in the Arizona Rookie League. He spent the next two seasons with Southern Oregon of the Northwest League and also coached five seasons at Modesto from 1995-99.

Rodriguez was originally selected by Oakland in the second round of the 1981 June draft and spent seven seasons with the A's organization, including two in the majors with Oakland. He went 1-2 with a 6.61 ERA in three starts in 1986 and 1-0 with a 2.96 ERA in 15 relief appearances in 1987. Rodriguez also pitched for Cleveland (1988) and San Francisco (1990) in his big league career and compiled a 3-4 record and 5.73 ERA in 31 games, including eight starts. His playing career concluded in 1991 when he made three appearances for Triple-A Phoenix in the Giants' farm system.

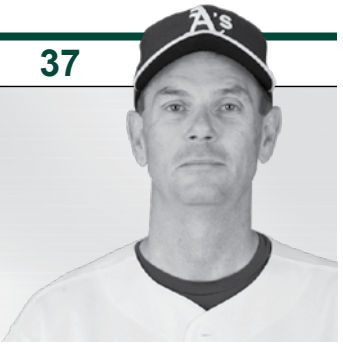

An East Bay native, Rodriguez was born in Oakland and graduated from Castro Valley High School in 1978. He attended Chabot Junior College in Hayward and the University of California, Riverside.

Rodriguez currently resides in Folsom, Calif.

RON ROMANICK 37

PITCHING COACH

Ronald James Romanick

Named A's bullpen coach, October 16, 2007

Named A's pitching coach, November 1, 2010

Birthdate: November 6, 1960

Birthplace/Resides: Burley, Idaho / Fountain Hills, Arizona

Ron Romanick begins his first season as the A's pitching coach in 2011 after spending three seasons on the A's major league coaching staff as bullpen coach.

Romanick joined the A's coaching staff in 2008 and assisted former pitching coach Curt Young in developing one of the best young pitching staffs in baseball over the past three seasons. During that three-year period, the A's have posted the best earned run average (3.95) and fewest home runs (444) in the American League, and ranked second in the AL in both shutouts (34) and lowest opponents' batting average (.254).

Romanick joined the Oakland organization in 1999 as the A's minor league roving pitching instructor and spent nine seasons in that role. He also served as a pitching coordinator in the Seattle Mariners organization for seven seasons (1992-98).

Romanick's major league career spanned three seasons (1984-86) with the California Angels, compiling a career record of 31-29 and a 4.24 ERA in 82 appearances, all starts. He made 33 starts for the Angels as a rookie in 1984 and posted a 12-12 record and a 3.76 ERA. Romanick followed up his rookie season with a 14-9 showing in 1985. After going 5-8 in 1986, he was traded to the New York Yankees organization and spent the 1987 season with Triple-A Columbus. He retired in 1988 after spending one year in the Milwaukee farm system.

Romanick pitched at Arizona State before being drafted by the Angels in the first round of the Secondary Phase of the 1981 January Draft.

A native of Bellevue, Wash., Ron makes his off-season home in Fountain Hills, Ariz.

JOEL SKINNER 38

BENCH COACH

Joel Patrick Skinner

Named A's bench coach, October 20, 2010

Birthdate: February 21, 1961

Birthplace/Resides: La Jolla, California / La Jolla, California

Joel Skinner, who previously served nine seasons (2001-09) on the Cleveland Indians' coaching staff, begins his first season as the A's bench coach in 2011.

Skinner, who managed Cleveland's Double-A affiliate Akron to a 71-71 record last season, served on the Indians' major league staff for nine years, including the 2001 and 2007 clubs that advanced to the postseason. The La Jolla, Calif. native was named third base coach in 2001 and held that position for parts of eight seasons (2001-05, 2007-09). He was named interim manager of the Indians midway through the 2002 season, posting a 35-41 record after replacing Charlie Manuel. Skinner also served as bench coach for Cleveland during the 2006 campaign.

Son of former major league outfielder Bob Skinner, who played 12 seasons with Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis, Skinner played 15 seasons in professional baseball prior to his coaching career, including nine years on the big-league level with the Chicago White Sox (1983-86), New York Yankees (1986-88) and Indians (1989-91). He registered a .228 batting average with 17 home runs and 136 RBI in 564 career games.

He was the youngest (41) manager in the majors the second half of the 2002 season, as he and his father (Phillies, 1968-69; Padres, 1977) became only the second father/son managerial tandem in Major League Baseball history. The elder Skinner played in three All-Star Games and was a member of the 1960 World Series championship Pirates team.

He logged seven seasons as a minor league manager, including three years in Akron (1998-99, 2010), and has notched a career winning percentage of .562 (519-404). Skinner guided five of his minor teams to the playoffs, earning Minor League Manager of the Year awards from Baseball America and The Sporting News after guiding Triple-A Buffalo to the International League championship in 2000. He also served as a coach on Team USA at the 2000 Futures Game. In 1998, he was named USA Today Baseball Weekly's "Manager of the Year" with Akron, and earned additional "Manager of the Year" honors in 1997 while at Kinston (Carolina League) and in 1995 with Watertown (New York-Penn League) after leading the Indians' Single-A teams to league titles. He spent the 1994 season as a roving catching instructor after retiring during the season.

Skinner was originally selected by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 36th round of the 1979 Draft and was later picked by the Chicago White Sox in the 1982 Compensation Draft. The former catcher spent the last three seasons of his playing career (1992-94) battling back from right shoulder surgery after the 1991 season.

The La Jolla, Calif. native played baseball and water polo at Mission Bay (Calif.) High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have three daughters, Kate, Erin and Tara, and one son, Cameron.

TYE WALLER 46

FIRST BASE COACH

Elliott Tyrone Waller

Named A's first base coach, December 21, 2006

Named A's bench coach, December 22, 2008

Named A's first base coach, October 20, 2010

Birthdate: March 14, 1957

Birthplace/Resides: Fresno, California / San Diego, California

Tye Waller returns to the first base coaching box in 2011 after spending the previous two seasons as bench coach. He was the A's first base coach in 2007 and split his duties between first base and third base in 2008. The 2010 season was Waller's fourth on the A's coaching staff and his sixth on a major league staff, as he was San Diego's bullpen coach in 1995 and first base coach in 2006.

Waller spent 19 years in the Padres organization, beginning in 1988 as a coach with the Padres rookie-level club in Spokane, Wash. He then served as the club's minor league outfield and base running instructor from 1989-93 before taking over the managerial duties at Spokane for the 1994 season. Following his one-year stint on the major league staff in 1995, Waller served as San Diego's coordinator of minor league instruction from 1997-99 and as director of player development from 2000-05.

Selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the fourth round of the 1977 First-Year Player Draft, Waller played 11 seasons professionally, including parts of four seasons in the majors. In his first season of professional ball, he batted .320 for Calgary and led the Pioneer League in hits, runs and RBI on his way to league MVP honors. He made his major league debut with the Cardinals in 1980 and appeared in five games for the Redbirds. He was traded to the Chicago Cubs in the off-season to complete a deal that sent Leon Durham and Ken Reitz to the Cubs for Bruce Sutter. He appeared in 30 games for the Cubs in 1981 and finished the season batting .268 with three home runs and 13 RBI. Waller was traded to the White Sox in December of 1982 and signed a free agent contract with the Astros in 1983. He appeared in 11 games for the Astros in 1987, his last season of professional ball.

A native of Fresno, Calif., Waller graduated from Hoover High School and attended San Diego City College for two years. Tye makes his off-season home in San Diego with his wife, Cynthia. The couple has four children—Elliott and triplets Todd, Terrence and Tiffany.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Was one of six players acquired from the Arizona Diamondbacks in the Dan Haren trade following the 2007 season and made his Major League debut with the A's in 2009 at the age of 21…has 18 career wins, which are third most in Oakland history by a pitcher before his 23rd birthday (Vida Blue 30, Trevor Cahill 28)…set an Oakland rookie record and led ML rookies with 150 strikeouts in 2009…was named American League Rookie of the Month in September, 2009…pitched in the 2008 All-Star Futures Game and for Team USA in the Summer Olympics in Beijing, China…was tabbed as the A's number one prospect by Baseball America following the 2008 season…was originally drafted by Arizona in the 2nd round of the 2006 draft but did not sign until September…made his professional debut in 2007 and ranked third in the Diamondbacks farm system in wins and ERA.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Lowered his ERA by more than a run from his rookie campaign of 2009 but two stints on the disabled list with elbow problems limited him to just 19 starts in 2010…was 7-6 with a 2.80 ERA after going 11-11 with a 4.06 ERA in his first season…tossed 112.1 innings and did not qualify for the league leaders…however, based on a minimum of 100 innings pitched, he ranked fifth in the American League in ERA…also ranked fourth in fewest home runs per nine innings (0.48), fifth in fewest walks per nine innings (1.76) and lowest run support (3.53), eighth in strikeout to walk ratio (3.41) and ninth in opponents slugging percentage (.353)…is now 15-10 with a 2.88 ERA in 36 starts since June 29, 2009…his ERA is second lowest among AL pitchers with 200 or more innings pitched over that span (Hernandez, SEA 2.33) and sixth lowest in the majors…opponents batted .257, which included .243 (80 for 329) by right-handed hitters and .299 (32 for 107) by left-handers…his career splits are .246 (203 for 826) against righties and .308 (89 for 289) against lefties…allowed all six of his home runs to righties…five came at home, five were hit in night games and five were with the bases empty…his opponents batting average dropped to .225 with runners in scoring position after yielding a .314 average with RISP in 2009…however, the opposition hit .315 when leading off an inning…received run support of one run or fewer in eight of his 19 starts and was 0-5 in those games…had a 7-1 record in his 11 starts with support of two runs or more…is now 0-14 in 20 career starts with zero or one run of support and 18-3 in 29 starts with at least two runs of support…tied for eighth in the AL with four pickoffs and now has eight in two seasons…the A's were 8-11 (.421) in his starting assignments and are 22-27 (.449) in his career…tossed six or more innings 14 times, allowed two runs or fewer 13 times and walked two batters or fewer in 18 of his starts.

OAKLAND: Did not allow a run in his first two starts of the season April 8 against Seattle and April 13 at Seattle to become the first starting pitcher in Oakland history (among pitchers who began the season with the A's) to start the season with two consecutive scoreless outings…the last Athletics pitcher to do it was Alex Kellner of the 1953 Philadelphia A's, who started the season with back-to-back complete game shutouts…was charged with the first wild pitch of his career in the game on the 13th, snapping a career-opening streak of 31 starts and 186.1 innings without a wild pitch…the streak of 31 consecutive starts without a wild pitch tied for sixth longest by a starter in Oakland history…agreed to terms April 16 on a four-year contract through the 2013 season with club options for 2014 and 2015…had his season-opening scoreless streak snapped at 14.0 innings in his third start, an 8-3 loss to Baltimore…that was the third longest season-opening streak by a starter in Oakland history and the longest since Matt Keough set the record with a 16.0 inning streak in 1980…was 1-1 with a 2.35 ERA in four starts before going on the 15-day disabled list April 27 retroactive to April 25 with left elbow inflammation and a proximal medial forearm strain…it was his first career stint on the DL…made one rehab start with Triple-A Sacramento May 24 against Nashville and had a no decision in the River Cats' 8-3 win (3.0 ip, 6 h, 2 r, 2 er, 1 bb, 1 so, 1 hbp)…was reinstated from the DL May 29 and had a win and a 2.35 ERA in two starts before returning to the DL with left elbow inflammation June 4…made four more rehab starts, going 0-0 with a 3.00 ERA in two starts with the A's affiliate in the Arizona Rookie League and 1-0 with a 3.48 ERA in two starts with Sacramento, before he was reinstated July 30…went 5-5 with a 2.98 ERA in 13 starts following his return…yielded a career-high tying 10 hits in 5.1 innings in a 6-1 loss July 30 at Chicago but picked up the win in his next start Aug. 4 against Kansas City...then had a career-high tying four-game losing streak from Aug. 10 to Sept. 1…went 0-4 despite a 3.21 ERA over that five-start span, receiving no run support three times, including Aug. 27 at Texas when he left after 2.0 innings with a mild hyper extension of his right knee…the 2.0 innings pitched matched his career low (June 3, 2010 at Boston)…then finished the season with a career-high tying four-game winning streak, posting a 2.18 ERA and holding the opposition to a .233 batting average over his final six starts…walked a season-high three batters Sept. 11 against Boston, snapping a 22-start streak dating back to Aug. 19, 2009 where he walked two batters or fewer…that was the second longest streak by a starting pitcher in Oakland history, falling four short of the record of 26 by Gil Heredia (April 10-Aug. 28, 1999)…went 3-1 with a 2.23 ERA and .237 opponents batting average in six starts in September…is now 7-1 with a 2.25 ERA (16 er in 64.0 ip) in 10 career starts in September and is 11-16 with a 3.94 ERA (98 er in 223.2 ip) in 39 starts the rest of the season.

CAREER

2009—Was one of two 21-year olds to spend the season in the A's starting rotation…set an Oakland rookie record with 150 strikeouts…led the A's pitching staff in strikeouts and wins (11) and finished second in starts (30)…compiled an 11-11 record and 4.06 ERA…led all Major League rookies in strikeouts…tied for third among American League rookies in games started, ranked fourth in innings pitched (175.1) and tied for fourth in wins…his strikeouts broke the previous Oakland rookie record of 141 set by Rick Langford in 1977…fell one short of the Oakland rookie record for wins…became the eighth Oakland rookie to make 30 or more starts…is one of four 21-year olds in Oakland history to win 10 or more games and his 30 starts tied for fifth most in Athletics history by a pitcher under the age of 22…was 3-7 with a 5.74 ERA, .304 opponents batting average and 13 home runs allowed over his first 13 starts…then went 8-4 with a 2.96 ERA, .237 opponents batting average and seven home runs over his final 17 starts, beginning June 29…his ERA from June 29 through the end of the season was fourth best in the AL…was charged with 15 unearned runs, which tied for the most in the AL…also ranked tied for fifth in grounded into double plays (24), tied for seventh in shutouts (1) and pickoffs (4), eighth in walks per nine innings (2.31) and strikeout to walk ratio (3.33), and 10th in strikeouts per nine innings (7.70)…received run support of one run or less in 12 of his 30 starts and his season run support of 4.62 was eighth lowest in the AL…was 11-2 in 18 starts with run support of two more…did not have a wild pitch and his 175.1 innings were the most in the majors among pitchers with no wild pitches…they were third most in Oakland history…allowed a .265 opponents batting average, which included a .247 mark against right-handed hitters and .313 against left-handers…yielded a .314 average with runners in scoring position, which was fifth highest in the AL…however, that marked dropped to .239 from June 29 through the end of the season…compiled a 7-4 record and 3.14 ERA in 17 starts on five or more days rest and was 4-7 with a 5.19 ERA in 13 starts on four days rest…did not commit an error in 29 total chances, all assists…since 1954, the only other pitchers to make at least 30 starts in a season without recording a putout are Randy Johnson (SEA, 1991) and Bob Veale (PIT, 1970)…tied for the lead among AL pitchers in double plays (5) and tied for fourth in assists…the A's were 14-16 (.467) in his starting assignments…tossed six or more innings 16 times, allowed two runs or fewer 11 times and walked two batters or fewer 25 times…was ranked number 7 on Baseball America's Top 100 Prospects lists entering the season…made the A's Opening Day roster at the age of 21 years and 64 days, making him the seventh youngest player on an Opening Day roster in Oakland history…was the losing pitcher in his Major League debut, a 5-4 A's loss to Seattle April 10…at the age of 21 years, 68 days, he became the seventh youngest pitcher in Oakland history to start in his debut…allowed five runs in 6.0 innings, with all five runs coming in the second inning…left his starts April 28 at Texas and May 4 against Los Angeles with a blister on his finger…went 0-4 over his first six starts, all A's losses…the only longer career-opening streak of consecutive starts in team losses in Oakland history was by Mike Morgan, who went 0-9 over his first nine career starts from June 11, 1978 to July 24, 1979…was 0-4 with a 6.03 ERA over the first six starts of his career before recording his first Major League win May 20 at Tampa Bay…yielded four runs on four hits and no walks in 6.0 innings in a 7-6 A's win…at the age of 21 years, 108 days, he became the sixth youngest pitcher in Oakland history to record his first ML win…tossed a complete game two-hit shutout in the A's 6-0 win at Boston July 6 (2 bb, 9 so)…at the age of 21 years, 155 days he became the fifth youngest pitcher in Oakland history to toss a shutout and the youngest since Mike Norris July 4, 1976 against Kansas City…did not allow a run over his next two starts, including July 19 against Los Angeles when he retired each of the first 20 batters he faced before Bobby Abreu singled with two outs in the seventh inning to break up the perfect game…became the second rookie in Oakland history to take a perfect game into the seventh inning (Mike Norris, June 28, 1976)…had a career-high 23.0-inning scoreless streak from July 6 to 24, which was the fourth longest scoreless streak by a rookie in Oakland history…finished July with a 2-1 record, 1.87 ERA and .168 opponents batting average in five starts…then went 1-2 with a 4.66 ERA in six starts in August…was named American League Rookie of the Month for September after going 4-0 with a 2.28 ERA in four starts…struck out a career-high 10 batters and tossed 6.0 shutout innings in a 2-1 win over Cleveland Sept. 18…lost his final start of the season Oct. 1 at Seattle, snapping his winning streak at a career-high four games.

2008—Combined for an 11-5 record and a 3.69 ERA in 20 games, 19 starts, with Single-A Stockton and Double-A Midland in his first season in the A's organization…also pitched for the United States team in the All-Star Futures Game at Yankee Stadium July 13 (1.0 ip, 1 h, 1 bb) and for Team USA in the Summer Olympics in Beijing, China…was 1-0 with a 4.97 ERA (12.2 ip, 13 h, 8 r, 7 er, 3 bb, 10 so, 2 hr) in two starts during the Olympics…was rated as the A's number one prospect and the fourth best prospect in the California League by Baseball America following the season…was also tabbed as having the Best Slider and Best Control in the magazine's Best Tools survey for A's prospects…with Stockton and Midland, he allowed a .237 opponents batting average, which included a .234 mark by right-handed hitters and .245 by left-handers…opponents hit .235 with runners in scoring position…struck out 118 and walked just 27, a strikeout to walk ratio of 4.4 to 1…averaged 10.1 strikeouts per nine innings…allowed eight home runs, six of which were solo shots…began the year at Stockton and was 9-4 with a 4.14 ERA in 14 games, 13 starts…tied for the team lead in wins despite spending just three months with the Ports…did not allow a run in four of his first six starts to start the season 5-1 with a 2.43 ERA…went 4-0 with a 1.82 ERA over his final five games, four starts, with Stockton…was named California League Pitcher of the Week, June 9-15…won both of his starts and allowed just one run in 14.0 innings, while striking out 16…was promoted to Midland June 24 and was 2-1 with a 2.61 ERA in six starts with the RockHounds…struck out a season high 12 in 6.0 innings in his first Double-A start June 26 at Arkansas…then tossed 3.2 shutout innings July 7 against Springfield and 1.1 scoreless, hitless innings July 11 at San Antonio before going to New York for the Futures Game July 13…returned to Midland and went 1-1 with a 1.93 ERA in two starts July 18 and 23 before joining Team USA for the Olympics…had a no decision Aug. 16 in a 5-4 win over Canada (5.2 ip, 9 h, 4 r, 3 er, 4 so)…then started and won in the Bronze Medal game Aug. 23 against Japan, an 8-4 win (7.0 ip, 4 h, 4 r, 4 er, 3 bb, 6 so)…made one final start for Midland Aug. 28, a no decision in a 6-4 win over San Antonio.

2007—Was Arizona's second round pick in 2006 but did not sign until Sept. 1, 2006…made his professional debut in 2007 and was a combined 11-7 with a 3.07 ERA in 23 games, all starts, with Single-A South Bend and Single-A Visalia…ranked third in the Diamondbacks farm system in wins and ERA…allowed a .270 opponents batting average, including .215 by left-handed hitters and .283 by right-handers…that mark dropped to .171 with runners in scoring position…struck out 125 in 120.1 innings, an average of 9.3 per nine innings…walked just 21 for a strikeout to walk ratio of 5.95 to 1…only one of those walks was issued to a left-handed hitter…walked two batters or fewer in all but one of his 23 starts…was 8-4 with a 2.21 ERA in 14 starts at South Bend and was a Baseball America Low Class A All-Star…was also named the number three prospect in the Midwest League by the magazine…tied for the Silver Hawks team lead in wins despite being promoted to Visalia June 21…compiled a 1.84 ERA in five starts in April, but was just 3-2…had a season best five-game winning streak over a seven-start stretch from May 10 to June 11 (1.67 ERA)…was 3-3 with a 4.85 ERA in nine starts with Visalia…made one postseason start for the Oaks and took the loss (4.0 ip, 3 h, 1 r, 1 er, 1 bb, 4 so, 2.25 ERA)…was traded to the A's on December 14 and was named Oakland's third best prospect by Baseball America.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Brett F. Is a .260 career hitter in 371 games and four seasons with Oakland…also has 211 walks for a .369 on-base percentage…has two full seasons (2008, 2010) and two partial seasons (2007, 2009)…led the American League in walks (110) in 2010 and ranked fifth in on-base percentage (.393)…batted .347 in 18 games with the A's in his Major League debut in 2007 and set an Oakland record by reaching base safely via hit or walk in each of the first 20 games of his career…was originally a first round draft pick of St. Louis in 2003 and spent two seasons in the Cardinals farm system as a catcher…was named to the Midwest League Postseason All-Star team at Single-A Peoria in 2004…was traded to the Oakland organization following the 2004 season in the Mark Mulder deal and was converted to first base…played for the United States team in the Futures Game July 10, 2005 at Comerica Park…missed most of the 2006 season after fracturing the radial head of his left elbow in a game against Iowa May 23.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Batted .273 with 10 home runs, 57 RBI and an American League-leading 110 walks…the walks fueled a .393 on-base percentage, which was fifth best in the AL…also ranked second in the league in pitches per plate appearance (4.39), tied for second in times on base (265), tied for fourth in sacrifice hits (12), seventh in games (159) and tied for ninth in triples (5)…led the A's in games, at bats (556), runs (79), hits (152), doubles (33), walks, on-base percentage and slugging percentage (.405), and tied for the lead in sacrifice hits…the slugging percentage is the lowest by a team-leader in Oakland history…the previous low was established in 2009 by Kurt Suzuki (.421)…the sacrifice hits were the most by an Athletic since A.J. Hinch had 13 in 1998, the most by a first baseman in Oakland history and the most by any Major League first baseman since Rod Carew had 16 for California in 1982…all 12 occurred over his first 99 games…had no sacrifice hits over his final 60 games, beginning July 30…stole seven bases, which led AL first basemen and were third most by a first baseman in Oakland history…they were the most since Don Baylor had 24 of his 52 steals in 1976 as a first baseman…led AL first basemen in games (157), games started (155), total chances (1492) and putouts (1404) but committed 10 errors, which tied for second most…his .993 fielding percentage was second lowest among AL qualifiers…had seven errors over his first 30 games (.976 fielding percentage) but just three over his last 127 contests (.998)…the games played, games started, total chances and putouts set Oakland records for a first baseman…the games were second most in Athletics history (Norm Siebern, 162 in 1962)…struck out 102 times, marking the 14th time in Athletics history a player has reached the century mark in walks and strikeouts in the same season…batted .310 with a .490 slugging percentage against left-handed pitching and .259 with a .372 slugging percentage against right-handers…hit nine of his 10 home runs on the road…has hit just six of his 26 career home runs in the Coliseum…also had nine home runs at night…hit .233 with runners in scoring position, including .181 with RISP and two outs…made a team-leading 149 starts hitting second…also hit third five times and sixth once…went 0 for 3 with two strikeouts as a pinch hitter and is now 1 for 13 (.077) with two RBI and eight strikeouts in his career in the pinch.

OAKLAND: Walked a Major League-leading 22 times during the spring, the most walks by an Athletic since spring stats were first available in 1991…the previous best was 17 by Mark McGwire in 1991…then walked three times in the opener, April 5 at Seattle…that tied the Oakland Opening Day record set by Sal Bando in 1975 and matched by Barton in 2008…had his first career four-RBI game April 8 against the Mariners…drove in seven runs over his first five games but then had a career long 16-game streak without a RBI from April 10 to 27…the streak ended when he homered April 28 at Tampa Bay, snapping a career-long 41-game homerless streak…it was his first home run since Sept. 11, 2009…

fractured the volar plate in the middle finger of his right hand April 25 against Cleveland but did not miss any games…homered in the 11th inning May 11 at Texas and added the game-winning RBI single in the 13th…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is the first Athletic to have a RBI hit in two different extra inning at-bats in the same game since Harry Simpson did it for the Kansas City A's June 12, 1956 in a 9-3, 15-inning win at Washington…had a career-high 11-game hitting streak from May 25 to June 4…hit .341 (14 for 41) during the streak…had a second 11-game hitting streak from Aug. 17 to 28 (16 for 39, .410)…hit safely in 15 consecutive road games from May 25 to June 16 (20 for 58, .345)…tied an Oakland record with three doubles June 26 against Pittsburgh (23rd time, last by Ryan Sweeney, Sept. 14, 2009)…added four RBI, becoming just the third player in Oakland history with three doubles and at least four RBI in a game (Sweeney and Ben Grieve, Sept. 3, 1997 vs. San Francisco)…was ejected from the game July 6 by home plate umpire Mike Winters after striking out in the fifth inning…it was his first career ejection…was ejected for a second time Sept. 12 by Hunter Wendelstedt after striking out to end the game against Boston…homered in the fifth inning July 10 against Los Angeles to snap a career-high tying 0 for 20 streak (also Sept. 8-16, 2008)...it also snapped a 34-game homerless streak…scored a career-high four runs Aug. 28 in Texas when he went 2 for 3 with a home run and two walks…set an Oakland record with five consecutive multi-walk games from Aug. 28 to Sept. 1…reeled off his best month of the season in August when he batted .311 with three home runs, nine RBI and 27 walks (.466 on-base percentage) in 27 games…boasted a .281 average entering September, but he hit .226 with no home runs and four RBI in 28 games in the month…then had his first career two-homer game and drove in a career-high six runs Oct. 1 at Seattle…hit a solo home run in the first inning, his first career grand slam in the second and added a RBI double in the sixth.

Is 25-35 with a 4.20 ERA in 91 career appearances, including 76 starts, in four seasons with the A's…tossed the 19th perfect game in Major League history May 9, 2010 against Tampa Bay…was 8-9 with a 3.89 ERA in 22 starts in 2009 before missing the final two months of the season with an injury…made his Major League debut with Oakland in 2007 and, after picking up the win in his debut, lost each of his final eight decisions…his debut came after appearing in just 10 games in 2006 because of a humoral defect in his left shoulder…was originally drafted by the A's in the 24th round of the 2004 draft…was named the A's Organizational Pitcher of the Year in 2005 after going 15-5 with a 3.52 ERA in 23 starts with Single-A Stockton and Double-A Midland.

Had one of the most memorable performances in Oakland history with his Mother's Day Perfect Game yet finished the season with an 11-14 record despite a 3.50 ERA…the ERA was sixth lowest in Oakland history among pitchers with a losing record and was the lowest since 1978 when Matt Keough went 8-15 with a 3.24 ERA and Rick Langford posted a 7-13 mark and a 3.43 ERA…the last Major Leaguer with an ERA of 3.50 or lower and a winning percentage of .440 or worse was Omar Daal, who was 8-12 with a 2.88 ERA for Arizona in 1998…had the fourth-lowest run support in the American League (3.60)…ranked fifth in the AL in fewest walks per nine innings (2.01) and had the eighth lowest opponents on-base percentage (.294)…also tied for the league lead in shutouts (2), tied for second in pickoffs (8) and ranked fourth in complete games (5)…now has 19 career pickoffs…since 2007, only Mark Buehrle (31) and Andy Pettitte (23) have more pickoffs...opponents were successful in just 1 of 3 (33.3%) stolen base attempts, which tied for the lowest percentage in the AL…has yielded just one stolen base over the last two years, while opponents are 4 for 11 (36.4%) off him in his career…tied for fifth in the AL in losses (14), becoming just the second A's pitcher over the last 12 years to lose at least 14 games (Greg Smith, 16 in 2008)…averaged 14.8 pitches per inning, which was third fewest in the AL…had career bests in nearly every category, including ERA, opponents batting (.249), opponents on-base percentage and opponents slugging (.373)…is now 19-23 with a 3.66 ERA over the last two seasons, with his ERA ninth lowest among AL pitchers with 300 or more innings over that span…opponents hit .249 in 2010, including .242 by right-handed hitters and .271 by left-handers…entered the season with a .295 mark against righties and .236 against lefties…yielded a .239 mark with runners in scoring position after entering the season with a .315 career mark with RISP…was 6-11 with a 4.15 ERA in 18 starts on four days rest and 5-3 with a 2.55 ERA in 12 starts on five days rest or more…yielded 48 of his 83 runs in the fifth through seventh innings…had a 2.18 ERA over the first four innings of a game and 5.70 from the fifth inning on…received run support of two runs or fewer in 17 of his 30 starts…had 17 runs of support in his 14 losses (83.1 ip, 1.84 RSA) and now has 36 runs of support in his 35 career losses (192.0 ip, 1.69 RSA)…is 2-32 in 45 career starts with support of two runs or fewer, compared to 22-3 in 31 starts with run support of three or more…has career run support of 3.62 (181 rs in 450.0 ip) as a starter…made 10 starts with Landon Powell as his catcher, a pairing that produced a 4-6 record with four complete games, two shutouts and a 2.75 ERA (22 er in 72.0 ip) in those starts, including the perfect game…was 7-8 with a 3.95 ERA (53 er in 120.2 ip) in his other 20 starts….was part of four double plays on defense, which tied for second among AL pitchers…the A's were 13-17 (.433) in his starting assignments and are 33-43 (.434) in his 76 career starts…tossed six or more innings in 22 of his 30 starts, allowed two runs or fewer 14 times and walked two batters or fewer 27 times.

OAKLAND: Struck out a career-high 10 batters in his first start of the season, April 6 against Seattle, but had a no decision in a 2-1, 10-inning loss…then won each of his next three starts to give him a career-high four-game winning streak dating back to July 31, 2009…allowed a career-high 11 hits in a 4-2 loss to Texas May 3…matched that hit total May 30 at Detroit and June 9 against Los Angeles…pitched the 19th of the 20 perfect games in Major League history May 9 against Tampa Bay (including Don Larsen's in the 1956 World Series)…it was the second by an Athletic and came 42 years and one day after Catfish Hunter did it against Minnesota May 8, 1968…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is the first pitcher to throw a perfect game against a team entering the day with the best record in the majors…it came in his 68th career appearance, which is third fewest among the 20 pitchers with a perfect game…was named American League Player of the Week for his effort…it was the sixth no-hitter by an Oakland Athletic, the first since Dave Stewart on June 29, 1990 against Toronto…Braden's came at the age of 26 years, 269 days, making him the second oldest pitcher to toss a no-hitter in Oakland history (Stewart was 33 years, 130 days)…it was the 11th nine-inning no-hitter in Athletics history…tossed 109 pitches, 77 for strikes…it was the first complete game of his career, snapping a career-opening streak of 52 consecutive starts without going the distance…that is an Oakland record, topping the previous mark of 51 by Todd Van Poppel from Sept. 11, 1991-Sept. 12, 1995…it was the fourth longest streak at any point in Oakland history…in fact, had tossed fewer than eight innings in each of his first 52 starts, which was the longest streak of consecutive starts of fewer than eight innings in Oakland history… in his first start following the perfect game, May 14 at Los Angeles, he retired the first two batters he faced to extend his consecutive batters retired streak to an Oakland record-tying 29 (also Hunter, May 3-8, 1968)…the streak ended on a two-out double by Abreu in the first inning but he retired 11 straight after that for a stretch where he retired 40 of 41 hitters…blanked the Angels on three hits over the first five innings to extend his scoreless streak to a career-high 16.0 innings…finished with a complete game seven-hitter, but was the losing pitcher in the A's 4-0 loss…of the 16 perfect games since 1922, only Len Barker followed with another complete game and he also lost…is the first A's pitcher to toss back-to-back complete games since Mark Mulder had three straight from May 9-21, 2004…the loss to the Angels began a five-game losing streak as he went nine starts following his complete game without a win…would not win again until July 25 against Chicago…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the nine consecutive starts without a win following a no-hitter or perfect game is the longest streak in major league history…the previous was eight by Mark Buehrle following his perfect game in 2009…posted a 4.10 ERA and allowed a .319 opponents batting average over the nine starts but received just 12 runs of support (2.05 RSA)…left consecutive starts early May 19 against Detroit (flu-like symptoms) and May 25 at Baltimore (sprained left ankle)…both times the problems were pre-existing conditions…went 1-4 despite a 3.15 ERA in six starts in May, tying for the AL lead in losses…the Twins' Danny Valencia stole second base in the second inning June 4, the first stolen base he allowed since Aug. 20, 2008, also against Minnesota (Punto)…had gone 229.2 innings without allowing a stolen base…was placed on the 15-day disabled list July 3, retroactive to June 23, with left elbow stiffness…it was his second career stint on the DL…made one rehab start for Single-A Stockton July 15, a no decision in the Ports' 10-9 win over Visalia (4.0 ip, 7 h, 3 r, 3 er, 1 bb, 4 so)…was 4-7 with a 3.83 ERA in 15 starts before the injury, then went 7-7 with a 3.19 ERA in 15 starts after he was reinstated July 20…logged a 3-2 record and a 2.19 ERA in five starts in August, ranking eighth in AL in ERA for the month…fired his second shutout of the season Aug. 28 at Texas, a four-hitter in a 5-0 A's win…tossed a career-high 120 pitches, becoming just the second Athletic pitcher with a shutout (or complete game) at Rangers Ballpark (Brett Tomko, Sept. 14, 2009)…then went 1-5 with a 4.42 ERA in six starts in September…became just the second A's pitcher since 1999 to lose five games in one month (Joe Kennedy, Sept., 2005)…tied for the AL lead in losses (Vargas, SEA)…lost his first four starts in September, including Sept. 12 against Boston when he issued a season-high four walks…that snapped a 20-start streak with two walks or fewer from May 3 to

Completed his sixth season in the Majors in 2010…hit .292 with 42 home runs and 214 RBI in 414 games in three seasons with Arizona from 2006-08 but has appeared in just 90 games over the last two years with a .218 average, three home runs and 30 RBI…has four stints on the disabled list over the last two years…in 2008, established career-highs in nearly every offensive category and was the ninth-hardest player to strikeout in the league, fanning once every 10.03 plate appearances…was honored by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA with the D-backs' Good Guy Award in a 2008 season that saw him split time between first base and left field…the D-backs' first-round pick in 2003, Jackson was named NL Player of the Week twice in 2008.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Combined to hit .236 with two home runs and 16 RBI in 60 games with Arizona and Oakland in a season that was interrupted by three stints on the disabled list…was on the Diamondbacks' DL from April 19 to May 7 with a strained right hamstring and the A's DL from July 1 to Aug. 15 with the same injury… was placed on the DL a third time Aug. 20 with a lower abdominal strain…had season-ending surgery for a sports hernia Sept. 1…now has four stints on the DL over the last two years…has a .218 average with three home runs and 30 RBI in 90 games over the last two seasons after hitting .292 with 42 home runs and 214 RBI in 414 games over the previous three seasons…had more walks (31) than strikeouts (27) for the third time in his six seasons…was 6-for-7 (85.7%) in stolen bases attempts and is 24-for-29 (82.8%) in his career…batted .346 (9 for 26) with runners in scoring position with Arizona and .125 (3 for 24) with RISP with the A's for a .240 mark overall…had a .316 average with RISP and two outs… hit both of his home runs in the seventh inning or later…batted .181 against a pitcher the first two times he saw him in a game, .396 with both of his home runs and nine of his 16 RBI after that…started 49 games in left field (34 with Arizona, 15 with Oakland) and three at first base (all with Arizona)…was also 1-for-6 (.167) with a strikeout as a pinch hitter and is now 7-for-49 (.143) in his career…hit .304 in 14 games batting first and .196 in 16 games hitting third.

ARIZONA: Was the Diamondbacks' Opening Day starter in left field…hit safely in 10 of his first 11 games, going 12-for-45 (.267) with a double and two RBI before he was placed on the 15-day disabled list April 19 with a strained right hamstring…went 3-for-11 (.273) with four runs, a home run and two RBI in a three-game rehab assignment with Triple-A Reno from May 5 to 7…was reinstated from the DL May 8 and hit safely in his first two contests to extend his hitting streak to a season-high nine games (11-for-37, .297)…however, hit .192 over his first 21 games following his return…doubled in six consecutive games from May 19-25, tying the Diamondbacks franchise record, which he accomplished twice previously… then went 1-for-18 over his next six contests to drop his overall batting average to .220…finished May with a .191 batting average…hit safely in eight of his final 10 games with the Diamondbacks (10-for-33, .303) from June 4 to 13…was batting .238 with 11 doubles, one home run and 11 RBI in 42 games with Arizona when he was traded to Oakland with cash considerations for minor league pitcher Sam Demel, June 15.

OAKLAND: Batted .228 with a home run and five RBI in 18 games with the A's...arrived during the game June 15 at Chicago (NL) and went 0-for-1 as a defensive replacement in left field that night…then started each of the next eight games (seven in left field, one at designated hitter), batting .345 (10 for 29) with two doubles and three RBI over his first nine games with the A's through June 23…went 2-for-16 (.125) over his next five contests…was batting .267 in 14 games overall with Oakland when he was placed on the 15-day disabled list July 5, retroactive to July 1, with a strained right hamstring…went 2-for-22 (.091) with three RBI on a seven-game rehab assignment with the A's affiliate in the Arizona Rookie League (Aug. 8-10), Single-A Stockton (Aug. 11-12) and Triple-A Sacramento (Aug. 13-15) before he was reinstated from the DL Aug. 16…homered in the seventh inning in his first game back that night against Toronto for the A's only hit and was the second player in Oakland history to homer for the A's only hit in a game (Ken Phelps, April 20, 1990 vs. Seattle)…matched his career-high with three walks, Aug. 17 against Toronto…started four games in left field, going 1-for-12 with five walks before he was placed back on the disabled list Aug. 20 with a lower abdominal strain…had surgery for a sports hernia Sept. 1 in Philadelphia…the surgery was performed by Dr. William Meyers…was transferred to the 60-day DL Sept. 13 and missed the remainder of the season.

2009—Played in 30 games prior to being diagnosed with Valley Fever, an ailment that cost him the rest of his season…hit a pinch-hit, three-run homer April 14 against St. Louis, the third pinch blast of his career and first homer in 230 at-bats…hit his third career walk-off hit in the 12th inning of a 5-4 win April 26 against San Francisco…placed on the 15-day disabled list May 12 with general illness, later diagnosed as Valley Fever…in an attempted comeback, played in three games for Single-A Visalia (0-for-10) before being shut down for the remainder of the season…following the season, played for Leones del Escogido in the Dominican Winter League…in 23 games, he hit .425 (31 for 73) with six doubles, two home runs, 16 RBI, 21 walks, and .561 on-base and .589 slugging percentages.

2008—Established career-bests in nearly every offensive category including batting average (.300), games played (144), at-bats (540), runs (87), hits (162), doubles (31) and triples (6)…was the ninth-hardest player to strikeout in the National League, fanning once every 10.03 plate appearances…honored by the Arizona chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America with the D-backs' Good Guy Award…started at first base in 53 of the team's first 65 games before making his first start of the season in leftfield on June 11 at New York…went back-and-forth between making starts in left field and at first base (13 starts at first, 11 in left) during a 25-game span from June 11-July 8 before settling in as the starting leftfielder at Washington July 9…started 64 of the final 72 games in left…earned NL Player of the Week honors twice; from April 14-20 after batting .480 (12 for 25) with 10 runs scored, two doubles, two triples, three home runs and 10 RBI and from July 21-27 after hitting .542 (13 for 24) with nine runs scored, two doubles, one triple, three home runs and seven RBI…got off to a hot start by batting .331 with 27 runs scored and 32 RBI in his first 37 games through May 14…tied a career-best with four hits, four RBI and three runs scored April 18 against San Diego…had two triples in the game…had his second career walk-off hit July 3 vs. Milwaukee, driving in two runs with a single to cap the D-backs six-run comeback victory in the ninth inning…hit in a season-high 11 straight games from July 22-Aug. 2, batting .422 with five doubles, a triple, three home runs and eight RBI during that stretch…also collected multiple hits in a career-high five straight games from July 22-27.

2007—Was the D-backs' Opening Day first baseman for the second straight year…hit a team-leading .308 after the All-Star break, collecting 15 doubles, 10 home runs and 34 RBI…his .555 slugging percentage and .371 on-base percentage ranked second on the team…strung together a season-high nine-game hitting streak from May 24-June 5, batting .417 with eight doubles, a home run and nine RBI…hit his second career pinch-hit home run on July 26 vs. Florida, a game-tying two-run shot in the seventh inning…on July 28 against Atlanta, he lined a 10th-inning single to score Chris Young and cap the D-backs third consecutive walk-off victory…made his first career appearance at third base Aug. 14 at Florida…hit .125 (1 for 8) with a RBI in three NLDS games against Chicago…batted .333 (3 for 9) with a run scored and RBI in three NLCS games against Rockies.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Has played for three teams in five Major League seasons…has at least 30 doubles, 15 home runs and 70 RBI in each of his last four seasons…led the A's in home runs (16) and tied for the lead in RBI (71) in his first season with Oakland in 2010…spent three seasons with San Diego from 2007-09…set the National League record for fielding percentage by a third baseman with a .990 mark in 2009…set a Padres single season record with 15 hit by pitches in 2008…tied the San Diego rookie record with 18 home runs in 2007…was originally drafted by Cleveland in the sixth round of the 2003 draft and made his Major League debut with the Indians in 2006…became the first player in ML history to hit a grand slam on the first pitch of his first career plate appearance, Sept. 2, 2006 at Texas.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Led the A's in home runs (16) and extra base hits (49), and tied for the team lead in RBI (71)…however, all three figures were the lowest totals over his four full seasons, as were his .247 batting average, .283 on-base percentage and .396 slugging percentage…had career-highs in doubles (32) and stolen bases (2)…the 16 home runs were the fewest by a team leader in Oakland history…the previous low was 17 by Mitchell Page in 1978, and Dwayne Murphy and Davey Lopes in 1983…the 71 RBI were second lowest by an Oakland team leader to Page's 70 in 1978…his .283 on-base percentage ranked fourth lowest in the American League and was the lowest by an Athletic since Scott Brosius had a .259 mark in 1997…hit .214 with runners in scoring position…was batting .266 at the All-Star Break but then hit .216 after the break, which ranked fifth lowest in the AL…combined for a .244 batting average in April and May, .303 in June and July, and .182 from Aug. 1 through the end of the season…batted .228 over the first six innings of a game, .289 with seven of his 16 home runs in the seventh inning or later…hit 11 of his 16 home runs on the road, 10 were solo shots…had eight first-pitch home runs, which tied for third most in the AL…24 of his 78 career home runs have come on the first pitch…had a .336 batting average when leading off an inning…hit .343 in 17 interleague games, compared to a .233 batting average against AL competition…now has a .320 (70 for 219) career average in interleague play…appeared exclusively at third base, where he made 140 starts…committed 12 errors for a .968 fielding percentage, which ranked fourth among the eight AL qualifiers at third base…had a career-high 278 assists…hit in every spot in the order from third through seventh…led the A's with 57 starts batting clean-up and 42 hitting fifth…batted .270 when hitting fourth, .220 from the five spot.

OAKLAND: Made his fourth consecutive Opening Day start at third base, his first with the A's…grounded into two double plays that day, tying the Oakland Opening Day record set by Scott Hatteberg in 2002 and also matched in 2010 by Ryan Sweeney…hit safely in 16 consecutive home games from May 8 to June 21 (24 for 64, .375), which tied for the third-longest home hitting streak in Oakland history…his fourth inning double May 12 at Texas was the 100th of his career…had a career-high 15-game hitting streak from May 31 to June 15…hit .458 (27 for 59) with three doubles, three home runs and 11 RBI during the streak…made his only pinch-hitting appearance of the season June 2 at Boston, hitting a solo home run off Papelbon in the ninth inning of a 6-4 A's loss…it was his first career pinch homer…is now a .333 (4 for 12) career hitter in the pinch with seven RBI…homered in three straight games for the first time in his career, June 2-4…singled off Fernando Rodney in the eighth inning June 7 against Los Angeles for his 500th career hit…had a career-best streak of five consecutive multiple hit games from June 8 to 12 (12-for-22, .545)…went 4-for-4 June 20 at St. Louis, his fifth career game of four or more hits…all five of those games have come on the road against NL teams…had two hits the next day against Cincinnati to lift his batting average to .293…then hit .200 over his final 73 games…batted .336 (36-for-

107) with five home runs in June, his best one-month figures in 2010…had a career-long 0-for-30 streak from June 25 to July 5…at the time, it was the longest hitless streak by an Athletic since Scott Brosius also had a 0 for 30 streak from Aug. 26-Sept. 19, 1995…set an Oakland record with five consecutive games with a grounded-into-double play from June 29 to July 3…the previous mark was four (three times, last by Scott Hatteberg from Sept. 13-16, 2005)…had his first walk-off hit as an Athletic with a RBI single in the bottom of the 10th inning July 20 against Boston…it was his fourth career game-ending RBI (three singles, one walk)…scored a career-high tying three runs July 31 at Chicago (fourth time)…went 6-for-53 (.113) over a 17-game stretch from Aug. 6 to 24 before going 9-for-20 (.450) with four multiple hit games over his next five games…finished August with a .206 batting average…missed 13 games from Sept. 6 to 20 with lower back spasm…returned Sept. 21, starting 11 of the A's final 13 games at third base…went 6-for-44 (.136) over that span, but two of the hits were home runs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Was originally drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the 17th round of the 2002 draft and made his Major League debut in 2005…went 7-9 with a 4.39 ERA in 65 games, including 12 starts, in two seasons with the White Sox before he was traded to Texas in a five-player deal following the 2006 season…compiled a 13-15 record and a 4.68 ERA in 45 games, 44 starts, with Texas from 2007 through 2009 but had four stints on the disabled list…has a 20-24 career record and a 4.56 ERA in 110 games, including 56 starts…ranked by Baseball America as the number three prospect in the White Sox organization prior to the 2006 season…named by Baseball America as a starting pitcher on the Minor League All-Star First Team in 2004 after leading all of Minor League Baseball with 202 strikeouts.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Was 4-2 with a 3.36 ERA in 11 games, nine starts, at Triple-A Oklahoma City in a season interrupted by right shoulder problems…had three stints on the DL with the RedHawks and was added to the Rangers' 60-day disabled list July 29…struck out 44 and walked just 11 in 56.1 innings…allowed a .234 opponents batting average, which broke down to .227 (22 for 97) against left-handed hitters and .240 (29 for 121) against right-handers…yielded six of his eight home runs to righties and six were solo shots…opponents batted .190 with runners in scoring position and .208 when leading off an inning…was 4-1 with a 1.99 ERA in seven games at home and 0-1 with a 6.89 ERA in four outings on the road…tossed 7.0 innings in each of his first four starts but would reach that mark just once over his final five starts…allowed two runs or fewer in six of his nine starts and walked two batters or fewer all nine times…made four starts for Toros del Este in the Dominican Winter League following the season and was 2-0 with a 1.96 ERA and .227 opponents batting average.

OKLAHOMA CITY: Spent most of the spring with Texas, going 1-3 with an 8.03 ERA in four spring training starts before he was optioned to Oklahoma City March 27…went 1-0 with a 2.51 ERA over his first four starts with the Red Hawks before he was placed on the disabled list April 26 with a right scapula stress reaction…was reinstated June 3 and made two relief appearances (2.0 ip, 3 h, 1 so) before returning to the DL June 8 with right shoulder inflammation…reinstated June 18 and had a no decision in a start June 19 at Nashville (2.0 ip, 3 h, 1 r, 1 er, 1 bb, 4 so) before returning to the DL June 22 with the same injury…was recalled by Texas July 29 and immediately added to the Major League 60-day DL…returned to Oklahoma City on a rehab assignment Aug. 20 and went 2-2 with a 4.56 ERA over his final four starts…picked up the win in his first start to lower his season ERA to 2.39 but then allowed a season-high nine runs in 5.0 innings in an 11-3 loss at Albuquerque Aug. 25…struck out a season-high nine in 7.0 innings Aug. 30 against Nashville…allowed just one run in that game for the win…made one postseason start Sept. 9 and was the losing pitcher in a 3-2 loss to Memphis in Game 2 of the first round of the playoffs (6.0 ip, 8 h, 3 r, 3 er, 1 bb, 4 so).

2009—Opened the year as the Rangers' number three starter and made every scheduled outing before getting diagnosed with a stress fracture in his right shoulder blade for the second time in three years…wound up missing nearly three months with Texas, as he was on the disabled list June 5-Aug. 31…spent the month of August on a rehabilitation assignment with Triple-A Oklahoma City and made five starts for the RedHawks…still managed to win a career-high seven games for the Rangers…went 7-4 with a 4.62 in 17 starts…opponents batted .255…compiled 5.92 ERA over first his first seven starts, despite a 3-1 record…then went 4-3 with a 3.79 ERA in his final 10 starts spanning his DL stint…of his 13 home runs allowed, nine were solo shots…enjoyed a 7.30 run support average, highest among any major league pitcher with at least 95.0 innings…made at least five starts and posted sub-4.00 ERA's in both May (3.79) and September (3.45)…tossed his first career complete game shutout in a 5-0 win over the Astros May 24 at Minute Maid Park in Houston…allowed nine hits and walked one while striking out six in a 124 pitch effort…it marked the first individual shutout ever by a Texas pitcher in Interleague play…was his first career complete game…established career highs for innings and pitches…it was just the fifth time in team history for a Texas pitcher to allow nine-or-more hits in a shutout, the first in over 15 years (last: Rick Helling, May 6, 1994 vs. Minnesota)…won a career-best four consecutive decisions over five starts from May 24-Sept. 8…took a no-decision in his 50th career start, an 8-6 Texas loss June 4 at New York (AL)…was placed on the disabled list the next day with a stress fracture in his right shoulder blade…was initially placed on the 15-day DL before getting transferred to the 60-day DL July 7…had a five-start rehab assignment with Triple-A Oklahoma City from August 8-27, working on no more than four days' rest at a time…went 0-1 with a 4.15 ERA, 22 strikeouts and nine walks over those five outings and 21.2 innings…was reinstated from the DL to the Rangers roster Sept. 1 and re-inserted into rotation after earning the win Sept. 1 vs. Toronto (G2) to cap a doubleheader sweep…also won next start Sept. 8 at Cleveland (G2) despite allowing five runs in 6.1 innings…was 0-2 with a 3.92 ERA in his final four starts despite not allowing a home run in that span.

2008—After being slotted for the season-opening rotation, suffered a setback with forearm inflammation in spring training and did not pitch for Texas until late August…recalled Aug. 23 and went 1-1 with a 4.09 in five games, all starts, for the Rangers before a strained flexor tendon in his right middle finger would end his season…battled right forearm inflammation throughout much of the spring and was placed on the 60-day disabled list with the injury March 30…spent the majority of the season's first three months at the Rangers' facility in Surprise, Arizona…did not begin throwing bullpen sessions until June 21…began a rehab assignment July 12…was activated from the disabled list Aug. 7 and optioned to Oklahoma…subsequently posted 13.0 shutout innings over his next two starts, going 1-0 with 11 strikeouts and just two walks…recalled Aug. 23 to join the Rangers…suffered what would eventually be diagnosed as a strained flexor tendon in his right middle finger during final start on Sept. 15 vs. Detroit, an injury which would end his season…exited that final start after throwing just seven pitches and facing two batters.

2007—Went 5-10 with a 4.87 ERA in 23 games, 22 starts, in his first season in the Texas organization…established career highs for starts and innings…allowed just nine home runs in 101.2 innings after yielding 30 in 151.2 innings over his first two seasons…made one rehab start for Oklahoma…averaged just 4.33 runs of support per nine innings, the lowest of any pitcher on the Texas staff with more than two starts…received two runs of support or less in 15 of his 22 starts, including no support on seven different occasions…was the Rangers' number three starter to open the season…made his lone relief outing April 25 at Cleveland, tossing 2.0 shutout innings…returned to the rotation April 29 at Toronto…left his start May 25 vs. Boston after 2.0 innings with a blister on his right middle finger, and did not pitch again until June 9 vs. Milwaukee…was on the DL June 10-July 1 with the blister problem…was activated for his start July 2 at Boston, taking the loss…was also on the DL Aug. 11-Sept. 10 with a stress fracture in his right shoulder blade…made three starts before being shut down for the season.

2006—Appeared in 53 games, including two starts, in his first full season in the major leagues…worked primarily out of the bullpen for the first time in his career…led all Sox relievers and ranked 10th in the American League with 75.1 relief innings…had eight strikeouts in winning his second start Sept. 27 at Cleveland…ranked by Baseball America as the number three prospect and having the best control in the White Sox organization prior to the season.

2005—Split the season between Chicago and Triple-A Charlotte…went 3-1 with a 1.69 ERA in seven games, five starts after being recalled from Charlotte for the final time Aug. 30, but was left off the postseason roster in favor of Orlando Hernandez…threw 7.2 scoreless innings for his first major league victory Aug. 30 in the second game of a doubleheader at Texas, allowing just two hits…won his final start Oct. 2 at Cleveland, eliminating the Indians from playoff contention…his 10 starts came over three stints with the Sox…ranked second in the International League in strikeouts…named IL Pitcher of the Week for the week of May 2-8.

2004—Named by Baseball America as a starting pitcher on the Minor League All-Star First Team, the number six prospect in the Carolina League and the number eight prospect in the South Atlantic League…led the entire minor leagues with 202 strikeouts while combining to go 17-6 with a 3.14 ERA in 27 starts with Single-A Kannapolis, Single-A Winston-Salem and Double-A Birmingham…won 12 consecutive decisions from June 15-Aug. 27…named to the SAL midseason All-Star Team…posted a season-high 16 strikeouts July 31 at Myrtle Beach…named Carolina League Pitcher of the Week for July 25-Aug. 1.

2003—Led the Pioneer League in innings (101.0) and strikeouts (125) at Great Falls (Rookie)…tied for the PL lead in complete games (one) and ranked second in wins (9)…averaged 11.1 strikeouts and 1.3 walks per nine innings…compiled an 8.3 to 1 strikeout-to-walk ratio…produced six double-digit strikeout games, including Aug. 29 vs. Billings when he fanned a season-high 13…named PL Pitcher of the Week for June 23-29.

2002—Ranked by Baseball America as the number 20 prospect in the Arizona League…led the AZL in strikeouts (79) and innings (78.1), tied for the lead in starts (14) and finished seventh in ERA (2.76).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Batted .271 with seven home runs and 31 RBI in 80 games with Oakland in 2010 after hitting .212 with four home runs and 21 RBI in 105 games with Cincinnati in 2008 and 2009…started at least one game at six different positions in 2010, including 45 at second base…made his Major League debut with Cincinnati in 2008…appeared at first base, second base, third base and shortstop with the Reds, with most of his action coming as a third baseman (61 games)…saw most of his minor league action at shortstop (169 games)…has a .289 (481 for 1662) career average, 56 home runs and 246 RBI in 438 minor league games…was the Reds' Minor League Hitter of the Year and a Florida State League Midseason All-Star in 2007 when he ranked eighth among all minor league players with 70 extra-base hits.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Filled the utility role for the A's in 2010 as he made 45 starts at second base, 10 at shortstop, five at third base, three at first base, three in left field and one at designated hitter before a stress fracture in his right ankle ended his season in mid-August…became the first Athletic to start at least one game at six different positions since Scott Brosius in 1995…batted .271 with seven home runs and 31 RBI in 80 games overall…entered the season with a .212 career average, four home runs and 21 RBI in 105 games over two seasons with Cincinnati…hit four home runs in 90 at bats against left-handed pitching, three in 165 at bats against right-handers…the home runs off southpaws were the first of his career…six of his seven home runs came on the road…batted .371 with a .426 on-base percentage when leading off an inning…hit .224 with runners in scoring position and is a .217 (26-for-120) career hitter with RISP…grounded into just one double play in 255 at bats…in the majors, only Seattle's Michael Saunders had more at bats with one GIDP or fewer (289)…was 3-for-10 (.300) with a triple, home run and two RBI as a pinch hitter…committed two errors on defense, both coming during his 14 games as a shortstop…did not make an error in 47 games at second base and has not committed an error in 53 career games at second…started games at every spot in the order except first, third and fourth…hit .474 in seven games batting ninth and .298 in 17 games hitting fifth.

OAKLAND: Was on an Opening Day roster for the first time in his three seasons in the majors…started 35 of the A's 37 games at second base from April 11 to May 21 while Mark Ellis was out with a strained left hamstring…hit .266 with three home runs and 15 RBI over that stretch…would make just 31 starts the rest of the way…drove in a career-high four runs April 11 at Los Angeles in his first start as an Athletic (second base)…also had a four-RBI game May 26 at Baltimore.…hit safely in a career-high tying six consecutive games from April 23 to 29 (10-for-22, .455)…that included his first career four-hit game April 27 at Tampa Bay…it was the 19th four-hit game by a player hitting ninth in Oakland history…finished April with a .305 batting average…went 2-for-2 with two walks May 2 at Toronto to boost his average to .323….then went 5-for-42 (.119) over his next 11 games to fall to .243…started all three games of the San Francisco series, May 21-23, at three different positions (second base, third base, left field)…his start in left on the 23rd was his first major league appearance in the outfield…it was his third professional appearance in the outfield as he played two games in left field for Double-A Chattanooga in 2007…hit his second career pinch hit home run June 12 at San Francisco, the 100th pinch hit home run in Oakland history…that capped a 20-game stretch from May 16 to June 12 where he batted .344 with three home runs and 10 RBI…went 0 for his next 17 following the pinch hit home run, which was the longest hitless streak of his career…snapped the hitless skid with a pinch-hit triple June 25 against Pittsburgh…it was just the second pinch hit triple by an Athletic over the last 14 years (Rajai Davis, Aug. 3, 2009 vs. Texas)…finished June with a .209 batting average but then hit .321 in July…batted .429

(15-for-35) with seven RBI over an 11-game stretch from June 25 to July 17 before going 6-for-33 (.182) over his next 11 games through Aug. 11…was placed on the 15-day disabled list Aug. 13, retroactive to Aug. 12, with a stress fracture in his right ankle…it was his first career stint on the DL…was transferred to the 60-day DL Sept. 10 and missed the remainder of the season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Had no Triple-A experience and just nine games at Double-A when he made the A's Opening Day roster in 2010…his debut came in his third professional season…pitched mostly in relief with the A's (26 games, two starts) after making 31 starts among his 33 professional appearances entering the season…is now 12-12 with a 4.08 ERA (82 er in 181.0 ip) in 39 games, 37 starts, in three seasons in the minors… was the A's second round selection in the 2008 draft…was named as the A's number six prospect by Baseball America following the 2009 season and fourth best following the 2010 season.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

The A's second-round pick in the 2008 draft made the Opening Day roster as a non-roster invitee and spent half of the season with Oakland…went 1-4 with a save and a 5.49 ERA in 26 games, including two starts, before he was optioned to Sacramento July 7…was 2-1 with a 3.55 ERA in six games, all starts, with the River Cats before he was shut down Aug. 10 with a strained right elbow…with the A's, he struck out 32 in 39.1 innings but also issued 20 walks (4.6 per nine innings)…had a 3.32 ERA over his first 11 appearances, a 7.52 ERA over his final 15 contests…allowed a .271 opponents batting average, including .258 (17-for-66) against left-handed hitters and .282 (22-for-78) against right-handers… surrendered three of his four home runs and issued 14 of his 20 walks to right-handers…opponents batted .323 with runners in scoring position…compiled a 2.49 ERA and .221 opponents batting average in 13 appearances in Oakland compared to a 9.17 ERA and .328 opponents average in 13 games on the road…yielded three of his four home runs on the road…went 0-2 with a 7.04 ERA in his two starting assignments and 1-2 with a 5.12 ERA in 24 relief appearances…yielded a .368 batting average to the first four hitters in the batting order, a .207 mark against the bottom five…allowed 4-of-10 (40.0%) inherited runners to score…first batters faced were 8-for-21 (.381) with three walks (.458 on-base percentage)… tossed two or more innings in nine of his 24 relief appearances…was named the A's fourth best prospect by Baseball America following the season…was also tabbed as having the Best Slider in the magazines' Best Tools survey for prospects.

OAKLAND: Was the only non-roster invitee to make the A's Opening Day roster…made his Major League debut in the sixth inning, April 7 against Seattle…struck out the first batter he faced (Rob Johnson) in tossing 2.1 scoreless innings (1 h, 1 bb, 2 so)…his debut came in his third professional season, 15 days before his 23rd birthday…had pitched just nine games above the Single-A level entering the season…made his second appearance April 11 at Los Angeles, logging 3.0 innings in the A's 9-4 win for his first career save…was credited with his first big league win May 11 at Texas in a game he was also charged with a blown save…entered the game in the 11th inning with a 6-5 lead but allowed a two-out RBI single to Borbon to tie the game…the A's then scored a run in the 13th and he retired three of four in the bottom of the inning for the win…struck out in the 12th inning to become the first A's pitcher to bat in a non-interleague game since Todd Stottlemyre also struck out Aug. 16, 1985 at Kansas City…made his first Major League start May 15 at Los Angeles after Justin Duchscherer was scratched minutes before first pitch…retired each of the first 11 batters he faced before allowing three straight hits, capped by a three-run home run by Morales…allowed a career-high three runs in 3.2 innings and was charged with his first career loss…started and lost again May 20 against Detroit, allowing three runs on a career-high seven hits in a career-high 4.0 innings…also struck out a career-high four…returned to the bullpen May 25, allowing two runs in each of his next three outings (1.2 ip, 3 h, 6 r, 6 er, 6 bb, 0 so, 32.40 ERA)… did not retire a batter in two of those outings, including June 1 at Boston when he was charged with the loss, his fourth in five games…then posted a 4.09 ERA and held the opposition to a .184 batting average over his final 10 games before he was optioned to Sacramento July 7.

SACRAMENTO: Walked 13 and struck out 30 in 25.1 innings in his Triple-A debut…allowed just one home run…opponents batted .253, including .241 (13 for 54) by right-handed hitters and .273 (9 for 33) by left-handers…allowed a .350 batting average to hitters leading off an inning…yielded five of his 10 runs in the fifth inning, as he posted a 2.08 ERA over the first four innings and a 12.27 ERA in the fifth…had made just two professional relief appearances before being used mostly as a reliever during his stay with Oakland…returned to the starters role with Sacramento, but never pitched more than 5.0 innings as he built up his pitch count…held the opposition to one run or less in four of his first five starts…including consecutive starts of 5.0 shutout innings of two-hit ball on both July 21 at Colorado Springs (2 bb, 7 so) and July 26 at Tacoma (3 bb, 8 so)…had a 2.21 ERA over his first five starts and then allowed five runs on eight hits in 5.0 innings Aug. 6 at Albuquerque…notched the win in that game, but it would be his final start of the season…was placed on the disabled list Aug. 10 with a strained right elbow.

CAREER

2009—Began his first full professional season at Single-A Stockton but earned a late season promotion to Double-A Midland and combined for a 10-10 record and a 4.09 ERA in 27 games, all starts…tied for fifth in the A's farm system in wins (10) and ranked seventh in ERA (4.09), strikeouts (113) and innings (136.1)…allowed a .233 opponents batting average, including .224 against right-handed hitters and .245 against left-handers…had a 1.38 strikeout to walk ratio (36 so, 26 bb) against lefties and 2.85 against righties (77 so, 27 bb)…opponents hit .216 with runners in scoring position and were 10 for 59 (.169) with RISP and two outs…compiled a 2.73 ERA over the first three innings of a game and a 5.97 ERA from the fourth inning on…tossed six or more innings in just eight of his 27 starts, allowed two runs or fewer 14 times and walked two batters or fewer 18 times…was named as the A's number six prospect by Baseball America following the season and was also tabbed as having the Best Slider…went 5-6 with a 4.17 ERA in 18 starts with Stockton…was 0-2 with a 4.40 ERA over his first three starts before being placed on the disabled list April 27 with a strained right shoulder…was reinstated May 5 and had no decisions and a 3.38 ERA in five starts in May…lost each of his first two starts in June to extend his season-opening losing streak to four games…picked up his first professional win June 12 at Visalia (5.2 ip, 3 h, 3 r, 3 er, 3 bb, 7 so)…compiled a season best four-game winning streak from June 30 to July 16 (2.19 ERA)…struck out a season high eight in 5.2 innings and combined on a three-hit shutout in a 5-0 win over Bakersfield, July 10…matched his strikeout best two starts later in his final Single-A start at Lancaster, July 21…was promoted to Midland the next day and posted a 5-4 record and a 3.96 ERA in nine starts with the RockHounds…tossed his first career complete game in his second Double-A start, a seven-inning seven-hitter in the first game of a doubleheader against Corpus Christi Aug. 1…however, was the losing pitcher in the RockHounds 4-0 loss…went 2-3 with a 6.33 ERA over his first five starts…then did not allow a run in three of his final four regular season starts, going 3-1 with a 1.17 ERA…made two postseason starts for the RockHounds and had a win and a 1.46 ERA…struck out 19 and walked just three in 12.1 innings.

2008—Was selected by the A's in the second round of the draft and was assigned to Single-A Kane County…went 0-1 with a 4.66 ERA in six games, four starts, for the Cougars…held the opposition to a .219 batting average, including .208 against right-handed hitters and .240 against lefties…allowed his only home run to a left-handed hitter and issued just one of his five walks against righties…opponents hit .186 with the bases empty and .267 with runners on…however, they were 0 for 7 with runners in scoring position and two outs…pitched 2.0 scoreless and hitless innings of relief and struck out two in his professional debut June 24 at Quad Cities…then had a no decision in his first starting assignment June 28 at Peoria (3.0 ip, 2 h, 1 r, 1 er, 3 so)…had a 1.80 ERA in two outings before he was placed on the disabled list June 29 with a strained right shoulder…was reinstated from the DL Aug. 13 and was 0-1 with a 5.65 ERA in four games, three starts, following his return…struck out a season high seven in 3.2 innings Aug. 24 at Clinton, but was the losing pitcher in the Cougars 3-1 loss.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Tyson William Ross was originally signed by A's scout Jermaine Clark…graduated from Bishop O'Dowd (Oakland, CA) High School in 2005…was named North Coast Section Player of the Year as a senior after going 12-1 with a 0.71 ERA and 130 strikeouts…was a member of the USA Junior National Team in 2004 and 2005…attended the University of California and was All-Pac-10 in 2007 and 2008… left Cal ranked third on the Bears' career strikeout list (271)…was part of the A's 2010 Community Caravan, which featured autograph sessions at a holiday party for Oakland elementary school children and an after school mentoring program and hosting a holiday shopping event for children from the Salvation Army Garden Center Shelter…supports various A's Community Fund events and initiatives.

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

2007 — Selected by the Philadelphia Phillies organization in the 5th round of the First-Year Player Draft. 2009 — Traded to the Toronto Blue Jays with pitcher Kyle Drabek and catcher Travis D'Arnaud in a three-team trade in which Toronto sent Roy Halladay to Philadelphia, Philadelphia sent Cliff Lee to Seattle and Seattle sent pitchers Phillippe Aumont and Juan Ramirez and outfielder Tyson Gillies to Philadelphia, December 16. Traded to the Oakland Athletics for infielder Brett Wallace, December 16.

JIM "CATFISH" HUNTER AWARD

In 2004, the Oakland Athletics implemented the Jim "Catfish" Hunter Award, which is given annually to an A's player whose play on the field and conduct in the clubhouse best exemplifies the courageous, competitive and inspirational spirit demonstrated by the A's late Hall of Fame pitcher.

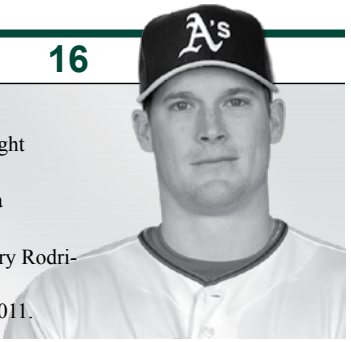

A native of Hertford, North Carolina, Hunter posted a 224-166 record to go along with a 3.26 ERA in his 15-year Major League career with the Kansas City/Oakland Athletics and New York Yankees. He holds Oakland's all-time career mark for wins (131) and won 20 or more games in five consecutive seasons (1971-75). In 1974, he won the American League's Cy Young Award after winning a career-high 25 games.

"Catfish" earned five World Series rings during his career and was 4-0 with one save in seven World Series appearances with the A's. An eight-time All-Star, he made his major league debut in 1965 with the Kansas City Athletics and did not miss a start until the 1977 season. He was inducted to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1987.

"Catfish" was diagnosed with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (Lou Gehrig's Disease) in September of 1998 and died of complications from the disease on September 9, 1999 at the age of 53.

Winners of the Jim "Catfish" Hunter Award include Tim Hudson (2004), Mark Ellis (2005; 07), Jason Kendall (2006), Mike Sweeney (2008), Kurt Suzuki (2009) and Ben Sheets (2010).

WASHINGTON: Was the Nationals' sixth Opening Day left fielder in as many years…hit his fifth career grand slam, a first-inning blast off Johan Santana, and drove in all five runs in a 5-2 win at New York (NL), April 11…collected the 500th hit of his career with a fourth-inning single off Yovani Gallardo, April 16…hit the game-tying solo homer in the seventh inning in a 5-4 win May 8 against Florida…one day later, he hit the game-winning solo shot in 3-2 decision over the Marlins…drove in at least one run in six consecutive games from May 22 to 28 and had four home runs and 11 RBI over that span…hit the game-ending solo home run off Cla Meredith in the 10th inning of a 4-3 win, May 23 against Baltimore…tied for second in the NL in home runs (7) and RBI (22) in May and hit .280 in 29 games…hit safely in a season-high seven consecutive games, June 3 to 10 (9 for 25, .360)…clubbed his 100th career home run June 22 against Kansas City, a solo shot off Anthony Lerew…added a pair of doubles in the game, a 4-3 Nationals win…in the midst of a Strasburg-Nolasco 0-0 pitchers duel, stroked an opposite-field three-run double in the sixth inning to trigger Washington's 4-0 win at Florida, July 16…was placed on the disabled list Aug. 16 with a left medial meniscus injury and had season-ending surgery Aug. 25…the surgery was performed by Dr. Wiemi Douoguih at Washington Hospital Center…was transferred to the 60-day DL Sept. 3.

2009—Hit 24 home runs in his first season with Nationals…began the season on the bench, but earned consistent playing time by the beginning of May…posted a .367 on-base percentage and matched his personal best with a .496 slugging percentage…joined Adam Dunn (38 home runs) and Ryan Zimmerman (33) to form the Nationals' second trio of 20-homer teammates…made MLB history by becoming just the 13th big leaguer and third National League player to hit two grand slams in the same game, July

27 at Milwaukee…went deep off Jeff Suppan and Mark DiFelice in the Nationals' 14-6 win…had eight RBI to set a Nationals (2005-present) single-game record and match the franchise single-game mark…established a new Nationals record with five multi-homer games…tied for seventh in the NL with 12 hit by pitches…from May 5-July 12, hit .340 with 15 doubles, 11 homers and 24 RBI in 50 contests…missed a week in early June with an illness, then went on bereavement list for a week in mid-June…went 11-for-26 (.423) with three doubles, three homers, 11 RBI and five walks in six games and was named NL Co-Player of the Week for the period ending Aug. 2…went 4-for-4 with two homers and six RBI to trigger a 15-6 victory, Aug. 25 at Chicago (NL)…scored five runs in that game to match the Nationals (2005-present) single-game club mark…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only five other players have gone 4-for-4 or better in a single game, yet posted more runs and more RBI than hits: Sean Casey (4-for-4, 6 RBI, 5 runs, May 19, 1999 at Colorado), Ken Griffey Jr. (4-for-4, 6 RBI, 5 runs, May 24, 1996 vs. New York-AL), George Foster (4-for-4, 7 RBI, 5 runs, April 25, 1977 at Atlanta), Rocky Colavito (4-for-4, 6 RBI, 5 runs, June 10, 1959 at Baltimore) and Lou Gehrig (4-for-4, 5 RBI, 5 runs, June 12, 1928 at Chicago-AL).

2008—Hit 15 long balls in 102 games in his final season with Florida, averaging a home run every 23.4 at-bats…was batting .341 with six home runs and 16 RBI in 25 games before missing 50 games due to a stint on the disabled list with a lower back strain…hit the first Opening Day homer of his career, March 31 against New York (NL) off Johan Santana…hit .409 with 4 home runs and 11 RBI during a career-best 12-game hitting streak, April 12-24…blasted two home runs, including a game-ending 10th-inning solo blast in a 6-5 win, June 30 against Washington…homered in four straight games for the first time in his career, Sept. 22-26.

2007—Had career highs with 75 runs, 32 doubles, 89 RBI, eight stolen bases and 144 games in his sophomore campaign…hit .345 with runners in scoring position, which ranked eighth in the National League…posted six RBI Aug. 23 at St. Louis…had 37 RBI after the sixth inning, which ranked fourth in the NL…hit two grand slams, including the first of his career Aug. 11 at New York (NL) off Guillermo Mota…hit Florida's only game-ending long ball of season May 10 against Los Angeles (NL)…laced the game-ending RBI single in the 10th inning July 1 against Florida and finished the game 5-for-5…posted a hit in six straight at-bats, June 30-July 1…doubled, tripled, homered and finished with four RBI, April 7 against Philadelphia…tied for eighth in the NL with a team-leading nine outfield assists.

2006—Fashioned a spectacular rookie campaign, hitting .277 with 28 doubles, 26 home runs, 74 RBI and 54 walks in 142 games with Florida…garnered Rookie of the Year consideration along with teammates Hanley Ramirez (winner), Dan Uggla and Josh Johnson and Scott Olsen…teamed with Uggla (27) and Mike Jacobs (20) to form the second trio of rookie teammates to hit 20 or more homers…the other trio was Gary Gaetti, Kent Hrbek and Tom Brunansky of the 1982 Twins…joined Uggla as only the second pair of rookie teammates to hit 25-plus home runs (Al Rosen and Luke Easter, 1950 Indians)…hit the game-ending two-run pinch hit home run, Aug. 1 against New York (NL)…endured a two-week stint on the disabled list with a sprained left hand…started two games at catcher.

2005—Dominated Triple-A for half of the season and was recalled by Florida in June…paced the Pacific Coast League with 19 home runs at time of promotion…hit .375 in September for the Marlins…spent two months on Florida's disabled list with a stress fracture in left forearm…with Albuquerque, hit .344 with six doubles, 12 home runs, 29 RBI and 20 walks in May and was named Florida's Organizational Player of the Month…was also Topps Minor League Player of the Month in May…earned PCL Player of the Week honors for the period ending June 12…hit .550 with three doubles, three home runs and eight RBI to earn the citation…was named a PCL Mid-Season All-Star and was selected to play in the XM Futures Game…however, his promotion to Florida precluded his participation in either contest.

2004—Hit 24 home runs for Carolina of the Double-A Southern League to earn his first taste of the big leagues…was recalled for the first time July 6 and made his Major League debut that night against Pittsburgh…went 2-for-2 with two walks in his second big league contest, July 7 against Pittsburgh…singled off Brian Meadows in the sixth inning for his first hit…blasted his first career homer, July 18 at Pittsburgh off Oliver Perez…following the season, was named a Double-A All-Star by Baseball America as a catcher.

2003—Was a Florida State League All-Star for the second consecutive season…hit 12 home runs in just 59 FSL contests…endured a couple of DL stints due to right knee inflammation…participated in the Arizona Fall League and hit .313 with three home runs and 11 RBI in 22 games with the Peoria Saguaros.

2002—Was a Single-A Florida State League All-Star with Jupiter and ranked among the FSL leaders in slugging (t-3rd, .487) and on-base percentage (t-5th, .394)…blasted 17 home runs or four more than the total posted in his first two professional seasons.

2001—With Kane County, earned Single-A Midwest League All-Star honors…stole a team-leading 24 bags in just 26 attempts (92.3%)…successfully swiped 23 consecutive bags from April 30-August 22.

2000—Began his professional career with a .400 on-base percentage thanks to 39 walks in 65 games with Utica of the short-season Single-A New York-Penn League.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Has a 2.51 ERA and 18 saves in 180 relief appearances over three seasons with the A's…pitched for the United States in the 2009 World Baseball Classic…made his Major League debut in 2008 and started his career with a 39.0-inning scoreless streak, which is a modern ML record to start a career, an American League rookie record and the Oakland record…was named to the Topps Major League All-Rookie team and the Baseball Digest Major League Rookie All-Star team in 2008…has been the epitome of perseverance during his six-year professional career, overcoming two skull fractures (2004, 2008) and an arm injury, and undergoing a transformation to submariner…began his career as a starter and was 33-17 with a 4.05 ERA in 78 games, 73 starts, over his first four years as a professional…converted to reliever in 2007 and was 14-3 with 10 saves and a 1.93 ERA in 69 minor league appearances from 2007-08…was originally drafted by Philadelphia in the 20th round of the 2003 draft but was released prior to the 2004 season and pitched in an independent league before signing with the A's organization June 18, 2004….was named to the Texas League Postseason All-Star team in 2006 after ranking second in the TL in ERA (3.37).

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Was 3-7 with a 3.26 ERA in 64 relief appearances…the losses were a career-high and tied for most among American League relievers…his .300 winning percentage ranked second lowest among AL relievers…had the highest ERA of his career and matched his career-high in wins and walks (28)…nine of the walks were intentional, which led all AL pitchers…yielded four home runs in 60.2 innings after allowing just four home runs in 133.0 innings over the first two seasons of his career…did not save a game for the first time in his three seasons…combined for a 2.19 ERA and .200 opponents batting average in 24 games in April and May, posted a 6.57 ERA and .339 opponents average in 15 games in June, and had a 2.66 ERA and .217 opponents average in 25 games over the final three months of the season…allowed a .241 opponents batting average, which broke down to .213 (35-for-164) against right-handed hitters and .317 (19-for-60) against left-handers…surrendered three of his four home runs to lefties…had 17 walks and five strikeouts against lefties, 11 walks and 36 strikeouts against righties…his career splits are .230 (101-for-440) with two home runs, 30 walks and 95 strikeouts against right-handers, .312 (82-for-263) with six home runs, 48 walks and 30 strikeouts against left-handers…opponents were 5-for-28 (.179) with runners in scoring position and two outs…first batters faced were 11-for-60 (.183) with three walks…allowed 7 of 31 (22.6%) inherited runners to score…had a 1.69 ERA and .195 opponents batting average in 33 appearances in Oakland, compared to a 5.02 ERA and .288 opponents average in 31 games on the road…now has a 1.82 ERA (21 er in 103.2 ip) in 95 career outings in Oakland and a 3.30 ERA (33 er in 90.0 ip) in 85 games on the road…allowed all four of his home runs on the road, at night and before the All-Star Break…three came with runners on base…all eight of his career home runs have come at night, six have been hit on the road and six have come with runners on base…did not yield a run in four games and 5.0 innings against New York and now has not allowed a run in 10 career appearances against the Yankees (12.0 ip).

OAKLAND: Issued a career-high tying two walks in his first outing April 5 against Seattle, his first of four two-walk games…allowed two unearned runs in the ninth and was tagged with the loss…worked in each of the first three games of the season…since 1995, the only A's pitcher to appear in each of the teams first three games was Keith Foulke in 2008, but that was the year the A's opened in Japan and had five days off between games two and three…the last prior to Foulke was Bill Taylor in 1994…allowed three runs at Seattle April 13 for his second loss of the season but did not allow a run in nine of his next 10 appearances (0.87 ERA, .125 opponents average)…compiled a 1.93 ERA in 13 appearances in May, winning each of his two decisions…tossed a season-high 2.1 scoreless innings May 29 at Detroit, his second career outing over 2.0 innings (3.0 vs. Kansas City, July 30, 2008)…was charged with the blown save in back-to-back outings June 27 against Pittsburgh and June 30 at Baltimore…had appeared in 39 of the A's 79 games through the end of June but pitched in just 25 of 83 games the rest of the way…committed the first error of his career Aug. 6 against Texas, snapping a career opening 163-game errorless streak…the error came on a pickoff attempt and he followed it up with a balk to force in a run…did not pitch again until Aug. 15, but started a season best 12-game, 11.1-inning scoreless streak that day which ran through Sept. 22…the scoreless streak fueled a 1.50 ERA in August but it came to an end Sept. 22 against Chicago when he allowed two runs in the ninth inning for the blown save and loss in a 4-3 decision…took the loss in three of his final four appearances…the three-game losing streak matches the longest of his career.

2009—Was 2-4 with seven saves and a 3.07 ERA in 69 relief appearances…allowed two home runs in 73.1 innings for an average of 0.25 per nine innings, the third lowest mark among American League relievers…led AL relievers and ranked second in the majors with 14 grounded into double plays (Affeldt, SF 18)…ranked third among AL relievers in most hits allowed (82) and had a .293 opponents batting average…that included a .265 mark against right-handed hitters and .336 against left-handers…had 10 walks and 40 strikeouts against righties and 18 walks and 14 strikeouts against lefties…opponents hit .384 with runners in scoring position…first batters were 19 for 64 (.297) with four walks and he allowed 12 of 31 (38.7%) inherited runners to score…converted 7 of 10 (70.0%) save opportunities…posted a 2.41 ERA in 37 appearances in Oakland and had a 3.90 ERA in 32 outings on the road…had a 4.44 ERA and .354 opponents batting average in 22 day games and a 2.39 ERA and .260 opponents average in 47 games at night…compiled a 1.86 ERA in interleague play…the opponents number four hitter was 3 for 31 (.097) off him…did not commit an error in 23 total chances, which were the second most chances among AL relievers with no errors…pitched for the United States in the World Baseball Classic and posted an 8.10 ERA (3.1 ip, 8 h, 3 r, 3 er, 1 bb, 1 hr, 1 hb) in four appearances…began the season as the A's closer and converted 4 of 5 save opportunities over his first nine games while compiling a 1.59 ERA…then allowed six runs on 10 hits in 3.0 innings over a three-game stretch from May 7 to 15…picked up his fifth save of the season May 20 at Tampa Bay but would have just one ninth inning save opportunity over his final 55 games…compiled a 1.03 ERA and a .234 opponents batting average over a 25-game stretch from June 20 to Aug. 21…opponents were batting .559 with runners in scoring position over his first 26 games and he had allowed 8 of 10 inherited runners to score…then yielded a .095 average with RISP and allowed just 1 of 14 inherited runners to score from June 20 to Aug. 21…had a season best 11.1-inning scoreless streak from June 20 to July 12…struck out a career-high four batters in 2.0 scoreless innings June 22 against San Francisco for his sixth save of the season…made his 100th career appearance Aug. 28 at Los Angeles but allowed a career-high four runs on a career-high five hits in 0.2 innings for the blown save and loss…finished the season with a 2.20 ERA over his final 16 games, beginning Aug. 29.

2008—Began his career with a 39.0 inning scoreless streak, which set three records and tied another…it set the modern (since 1900) Major League record to start a career (previously 25.0 by George McQuillan in 1907, PHI-N), the American League record for a rookie (37.0 by Hank Thormahlen in 1918, NYY), and the Oakland record (37.0 by Mike Torrez in 1976)…it tied the modern ML record for the longest single season streak by a reliever (39.0 by Al Benton in 1949, CLE)…the streak tied Christy Mathewson (NYG, 1901) for the second longest streak by an ML rookie and fell two innings short of the record of 41.0 set by Grover Alexander (PHI-N, 1911)…it equaled the longest by an AL pitcher in the designated hitter era (since 1973), matching Kenny Rogers' 39.0 inning streak with Texas in 1995…it was the third longest in Athletics history (53.0, Jack Coombs in 1910; 43.2, Rube Waddell in 1905)…had his ERA under 1.00 until his final outing of the season and finished the year with a 1.06 ERA, which was the lowest among all ML relievers (min. 50 ip)…using the 50 inning minimum, his ERA was sixth lowest in AL history since the earned run became an official stat in 1913…it was second lowest by an Athletic to Dennis Eckersley's 0.61 in 1990…compiled a 3-0 record in 47 games and converted 11 of 13 (84.6%) save opportunities and was named to the Topps Major League All-Rookie team and the Baseball Digest Major League Rookie All-Star team…led ML rookies in saves…took over as closer Aug. 8 and his 11 saves thereafter tied for third most in the AL during that final seven week period…opponents grounded into 20 double plays, which tied Texas' Josh Rupe for the lead among ML relievers…those were the most GIDP by an A's reliever since the statistic was tracked beginning in 1974…topped the previous mark of 17 by Jim Todd in 1975…averaged 3.02 GIDP per nine innings, which is the highest mark by any ML pitcher with 30 or more innings since 1974…allowed just two home runs in 59.2 innings for an average of 0.30 per nine innings, which ranked seventh lowest among AL relievers…struck out just 30 batters for an average of 4.53 per nine innings, which was fifth lowest among AL relievers…allowed a .236 opponents batting average, which included a .198 mark against right-handed hitters and .280 against left-handers…opponents hit .290 with the bases empty and .174 with runners on base…including .116 with runners in scoring position…first batters faced hit .250 and he allowed 5 of 22 (22.7%) inherited runners to score…did not allow a run in 41 of his 47 outings…began the season at Triple-A Sacramento and was selected by Oakland May 30…made his Major League debut the next day at Texas, allowed a RBI single to the only batter he faced (Kinsler) and then picked him off for his first ML out…according to Retrosheet, he became the 13th pitcher since 1956 to record his first ML out on a pickoff…is the second Athletic (Mike Norris April 10, 1975 against Chicago)…recorded his first ML win June 8 against Los Angeles when he tossed 1.2 scoreless innings…retired 19 consecutive batters from June 20 to July 7…tossed a career high 3.0 innings July 30 against Kansas City…recorded his first save Aug. 8 at Detroit by tossing 2.0 scoreless innings…posted a 2.55 ERA in 20 outings after taking over as closer Aug. 8…extended his scoreless streak to 39.0 innings with a scoreless eighth inning Aug. 14 against Tampa Bay but then allowed a RBI double to B.J. Upton in the ninth inning to end the streak…the double was the first extra base hit he allowed in his career and the 122-at bat streak without an extra base hit to start his career was the longest such streak since Cisco Carlos had a 145-at bat streak for the White Sox from 1967-68…converted each of his first nine save opportunities before he was charged with his first blown save Sept. 17 against Los Angeles…allowed a two-run home run to Mark Teixeira in the ninth inning to snap a career opening 41-game, 54.0-inning, 204-batter faced homerless streak…it was his first home run allowed as a professional since Sept. 3, 2006 against Frisco while pitching for Double-A Midland, snapping a streak of 110 games, 156.2 innings and 610 batters faced without home run in both the majors and minors…went 2-0 with a 0.37 ERA in 19 appearances with Sacramento and converted 8 of 10 (80.0%) save opportunities…did not allow a home run in 24.1 innings and struck out 20 while walking just four…allowed a .174 opponents batting average, which included a .118 mark against right-handed hitters and .257 against lefties.

2007—Pitched exclusively in relief for the first time since joining the Athletics organization and combined for a 12-3 record, two saves and a 2.41 ERA in 50 appearances with Double-A Midland and Triple-A Sacramento…did not allow a home run in 78.1 innings…the 12 wins led the A's farm system…walked 18 and struck out 62 for a strikeout to walk ratio of 3.4…allowed a .227 batting average, including .174 against right-handed hitters and .324 against left-handers…opponents hit .208 with runners in scoring position…allowed 8 of 28 (28.6%) inherited runners to score and converted 2 of 4 (50.0%) save opportunities…began the year at Midland and went 4-0 with a 1.14 ERA and one save in 15 appearances…was transferred to Sacramento May 25 and was 8-3 with a 2.96 ERA and one save in 35 appearances…tied for second on the River Cats pitching staff in wins…recorded his first professional save May 3 against Corpus Christi (2.0 ip, 3 h, 2 r, 1 er, 1 so)…did not allow a run in 20 of his final 26 outings with Sacramento and compiled a 1.47 ERA over that stretch…went 1-1 with two saves and a 2.45 ERA in five postseason appearances for the Pacific Coast League Champion River Cats (7.1 ip, 6 h, 3 r, 2 er, 2 bb, 6 so)…sustained a mild skull fracture in January 2008 during a freak offseason workout accident.

2006—Was named to the Texas League Postseason All-Star Team after going 9-6 with a 3.37 ERA in 23 games, 22 starts at Double-A Midland…ranked second in the TL in ERA…also went 0-1 with a 6.00 ERA in four starts with Triple-A Sacramento and was a combined 9-7 with a 3.71 ERA in 27 games, 26 starts…the ERA was fourth lowest in the A's farm system…allowed a .290 opponents batting average, which included a .289 mark against right-handed hitters and .292 against left-handers…allowed 15 of his 20 home runs against righties and 12 of his round trippers were solo shots…tied for the lead among TL pitchers in double plays (5)…began the season at Midland and went 2-0 with a 1.09 ERA in four starts in April…the two wins came in his first two starts April 9 at Frisco (1 r in 7.0 ip) and April 15 at San Antonio (1 r in 6.0 ip), earning him TL Pitcher of the Week honors for the week of April 6-16…was transferred to Sacramento July 12…was sent back to Midland Aug. 10 and went 2-1 with a 3.95 ERA over his final five appearances with the RockHounds.

2005—Spent most of the season at Single-A Stockton where he was 9-7 with a 4.66 ERA in 24 games, all starts…ranked second in the California League in strikeouts (144) and led CL starters in strikeouts per nine innings (9.19) and fewest walks per nine innings (1.28)…led the Ports in starts, innings pitched (141.0) and strikeouts…was promoted to Double-A Midland Aug. 15 and went 2-1 with a 6.86 ERA in four starts with the RockHounds…combined at both stops for an 11-8 record and a 4.94 ERA in 28 starts…led the A's farm system with 164 strikeouts and tied for fourth in wins…issued just 24 walks for a strikeout to walk ratio of 6.8…allowed a .291 opponents batting average, including .287 against left-handers and .294 against right-handers…went 4-1 with a 1.85 ERA over his final seven starts before his promotion to Midland…struck out a season high 10 Aug. 7 against Lake Elsinore…helped Midland to the Texas League Championship by going 1-0 with a 3.27 ERA in two postseason starts (11.0 ip, 12 h, 4 r, 4 er, 2 bb, 13 so).

2004—Was released by the Phillies organization March 28 and signed with Schaumburg of the independent Northern League…went 3-0 with a 1.50 ERA and .150 opponents batting in four starts for the Flyers…walked just one and did not allow a home run in 24.0 innings…was signed by the Oakland organization to a minor league contract June 18 and went 9-2 with a 3.90 ERA in 16 games, 15 starts, with Single-A Modesto…combined at both stops for a 12-2 record, a 3.40 ERA and a .241 opponents batting average in 20 games, 19 starts…during a California League playoff game, he was struck by a line drive above his right temple, fracturing his skull and keeping him in intensive care for six days.

OAKLAND ATHLETICS

2010 REVIEW

SEASON IN REVIEW

2010 RECAP: The A's finished the 2010 season with an 81-81 record, snapping a streak of three consecutive seasons with a losing record…it was the A's best mark since winning the American League West with a mark of 93-69 in 2006…were exactly .500 a total of 22 times after the All-Star Break and 33 times for the season, which is an Athletics record…the previous high was 23 in 1947…also played .500 ball over the final 88 games of the 2009 season, giving the A's a 125-125 record since June 29, 2009…2010 marked the second time in Oakland history the A's ended the season exactly .500 (also 1987)…finished in second place in the AL West, nine games behind Texas…that is the A's best finish over the last four years as they finished fourth in 2009 and third in 2007 and 2008…have now finished second or better in the West in nine of the last 12 seasons…the only major league teams with more first or second place finishes over that span are the Yankees (11) and Red Sox (10)…spent 25 days alone in first in 2010, eight days tied for first, 74 days in second, 12 days tied for second, 59 days in third and one day in fourth…tied for fifth in the AL Wild Card, 14 games behind New York…spent 33 of the first 60 days of the season with at least a share of first place in the AL West…moved into first after the third game of the season and remained there every day through May 1, despite posting a 13-12 record…peaked at 9-4 on April 17 and had a season best 2½ game lead…spent most of May in second place, falling as far back as four games on May 21, before a four-game winning streak from May 26 to 29 moved the A's back into first with a 27-23 record…were 29-26 following the conclusion of play June 3 and were tied for first with Texas…that would be the A's last day in first place in 2010 as they went 5-14 over a 19-game stretch from June 4 to 24 while Texas went 16-3…that put the A's a season high 11 games out of first entering play June 25…Oakland then went 43-35 from June 25-Sept. 23 while the Rangers went 40-40…were never closer than seven games nor farther back than 10 games over that stretch…a win in the first game of a four-game series with Texas Sept. 23 gave the A's a 77-75 record and put them seven games behind the Rangers with 10 games remaining…then lost a season-high six consecutive games before finishing the season with a four-game winning streak…were officially eliminated from the West in game 154 after being eliminated from the Wild Card in game 147.

PITCHING: The A's compiled a 3.56 ERA, which was the lowest mark in the American League and fourth lowest in the majors…it was also the lowest ERA by an A's team since 1990 (3.18) and it was third best by an AL team over the last 18 years (Toronto, 3.49 in 2008 and Seattle, 3.54 in 2001)…also led the AL in shutouts (17) and opponents slugging percentage (.379) and ranked second in opponents batting average (.245) and opponents on-base percentage (.313)…the 17 shutouts were third best by an A's team in the designated hitter era and were the most since the 2002 club had 19…topped the majors with 27 pickoffs…allowed the fewest doubles (232) and extra base hits (402) in the AL and the second fewest triples (17)…the triples were the fewest in Oakland history…had the second fewest wild pitches (42) and hit batters (38) in the AL…had 1431.2 innings pitched, which were third fewest in Oakland history in a non-strike season and the fewest since 1984 (1430.0)…the A's now have a 3.97 ERA since 2000, which is the best mark by an AL team over that span and third lowest in the majors behind the Braves (3.90) and Dodgers (3.92).

STARTING PITCHING: A's starting pitchers were 64-58 with a Major League-leading 3.47 ERA…that was the lowest ERA by an American League team since Boston had a 3.32 ERA in 1990 and the lowest by an A's team since 1989 (3.34)…it was more than a run lower than 2009's mark of 4.76 and it marked the first time the A's led the majors in ERA since 1974 (2.98)…also had the lowest opponents slugging percentage in the majors in 2010 (.373)…led the AL in opponents batting average (.243), ranked second in opponents on-base percentage (.307) and issued the fourth fewest walks (327)…Trevor Cahill led the A's with 18 wins and Gio Gonzalez had 15, marking just the third time in Oakland history the A's had two players under the age of 25 win at least 15 games (Mark Mulder and Barry Zito did it in 2001 and 2002)…it is just the 17th time in the post-World War II ERA a Major League team has done it…Gonzalez (33), Cahill (30), Anderson (19) and Mazzaro (18) combined to start 100 of the A's 162 games, making the A's the first AL team since the 1977 Milwaukee Brewers to have four starting pitchers under the age of 25 make at least 18 starts each…A's starters also led the AL in fewest extra base hits (270), doubles (158) and wild pitches (20) and tied for the lead with three complete game shutouts.

THE BULLPEN: The A's bullpen compiled a 3.75 ERA, which ranked sixth in the American League… converted 38 of 51 (74.5%) save opportunities, which was third best in the AL…the 13 blown saves tied for the fewest in the AL, but the save opportunities were third fewest and the saves tied for fourth fewest…also ranked fourth in the AL in opponents batting average (.248), fifth in on-base percentage (.325) and eighth in slugging percentage (.394)…held first batters faced to a .214 batting average, which was the third lowest mark in the AL…it was the lowest average by an A's team since 1989 (.199)…allowed 27.1% of inherited runners to score, which was fourth lowest in the AL…compiled a 17-23 (.425) record, which was the second lowest winning percentage in the AL and fourth lowest in Oakland history… it was the lowest by an A's team since 1986 (15-29, .341).

OFFENSE: The A's ranked ninth in the American League with a .256 batting average and .324 on-base percentage but their .378 slugging percentage was second lowest as was their .241 average with runners in scoring position…the average with RISP was the lowest by an A's team since 1997 (.239)…had the fourth fewest runs scored in the AL with 663, marking just the second time in the last 28 years the A's scored fewer than 700 runs in a non-strike season (had 646 in 2008)…averaged 4.09 runs per game, which was the seventh lowest figure in Oakland history…had 30 triples, which were the most by an A's team since 1987 (33)…that ranked sixth in the AL, which was the highest finish by an A's team since 1981 (5th)…placed fourth in the AL with 43 sacrifice hits, which were the A's most in a season since 1998 (58)…had 527 walks for the second consecutive season, which is the A's fewest in a non-strike season since 1985 (508)…were walked just 16 times intentionally, matching the 2009 A's for second fewest by a Major League team since the intentional walk became an official statistic in 1955…the only team with fewer than 16 is the 1961 Kansas City A's (10)…had the second fewest extra base hits in the AL with 415, which was the fewest by an A's team in a non-strike season since 1992 (385)…led the AL in reaching base on an error (60).

ON THE BASES: The A's stole 156 bases, which ranked third in the American League and the majors…it was the ninth best single season total in Oakland history and the most since the 1989 club had 157…were caught stealing just 38 times for a success rate of 80.4%...that led the AL and ranked second in the majors (PHI, 83.7%)…it was the second best mark in Oakland history (80.7% in 2008)…led the majors with 32 steals of third base…Rajai Davis (50), Coco Crisp (32) and Cliff Pennington (29) combined for 111 of the A's 156 stolen bases…those are the most steals by three Oakland teammates since 1983 when Rickey Henderson (108), Mike Davis (32) and Bill Almon (26) combined for 166…had two players with 30 or more steals for the first time since 1995 (Henderson and Javier) and three with 20 or more for the first time since 1992 (Henderson, Wilson and Blankenship)…had 18 different players steal a base, matching the 1998 club for most in Oakland history…had a 57-30 record when stealing at least one base and were 24-51 in games when they did not steal a base.

THE LONG BALL: The A's hit 109 home runs, which was second fewest in the American League (Seattle, 101) and third fewest in the majors (Houston, 108)…it was the fourth lowest total in Oakland history in a non-strike season and the fewest since the 1979 club hit 108…Kevin Kouzmanoff led the A's with 16 home runs and that was the fewest by a team leader in Oakland history…the previous low was 17 by Mitchell Page in 1978 and Dwayne Murphy and Davey Lopes in 1983…the last time the A's team leader finished with 16 or fewer home runs was in 1967 in Kansas City when Rick Monday led the club with 14…the A's number three hitters combined for a major league low seven home runs, which were the fewest in Oakland history.

DEFENSIVE DOINGS: The A's ranked fifth in the American League with a .984 fielding percentage, which was the sixth best mark in Oakland history…had the fifth fewest errors in the AL (99) but the errors led to the fourth most unearned runs (60)…this marked the sixth time in the last seven years the A's committed fewer than 100 errors…had a 52-35 record when going errorless and a 29-46 mark when making one or more errors.

HOME AND AWAY: The A's compiled a 47-34 (.580) record in Oakland compared to 34-47 (.420) on the road…had their best home mark since 2006 but posted a losing record on the road for the fourth consecutive season…the pitching staff had a 3.02 ERA at home compared to 4.13 on the road…led the American League in ERA at home and ranked third on the road…had the lowest home ERA by an AL team since 1992 (Milwaukee, 2.74)…allowed just 62 home runs at home, which was the fewest in the AL, and 91 on the road, which tied for second most…hit .261 at home and .252 on the road…ranked ninth in the AL in batting at home and eighth on the road…tripled 19 times at home to set a Coliseum record for triples in a season, breaking the previous mark of 18 in 1979…homered just 46 times at home, matching the 1979 club for second fewest in Oakland history (had 38 in 1968)…scored just 309 runs on the road for an average of 3.81 per game, which is fourth lowest in Oakland history and the lowest since the 1978 A's averaged 3.06 runs per game on the road…won 18 home series, lost six and split two compared to 10 road series wins and 16 losses.

NIGHT AND DAY: The A's posted a 35-21 (.625) record during day games compared to 46-60 (.434) at night…had the second best day winning percentage in the majors behind the White Sox (31-18, .633) but the fourth lowest mark at night in the American League…compiled a Major League-leading 3.03 ERA during the day and had a 3.84 ERA at night, which was third best in the AL…the A's day ERA was the lowest by an AL team since Minnesota in 1992 (2.89) and it ranked fifth lowest in Oakland history…hit .248 during the day and .260 at night.

THE DISABLED LIST: The A's used the disabled list 23 times, which was the second highest total in Oakland history to the record of 25 in 2008…the 23 players combined to miss an Oakland record 1397 games, an average of 60.7 per games per stint…the previous mark for games missed was 1259 in 2007…have now used the DL 87 times since the start of the 2007 season, which is second most in the majors over that span to Texas (98)…had at least five players on the DL all year and at least nine every day from July 1 through the end of the season…the season high was 11 from July 21-29, August 12-15 and August 20-21…have not had fewer than three players on the DL since the end of the 2006 season when they had one…three players missed the entire season (Devine, Meloan and Outman) and four players had two stints on the DL (Anderson, Crisp, Duchscherer and Jackson).

BEFORE AND AFTER THE BREAK: The A's went into the All-Star Break with a 43-46 record, the second consecutive season they had a losing record at the break (were 37-49 in 2009)…it marked the first time the A's have gone into the break with a losing record in back-to-back seasons since 1996-99 when it happened in four consecutive seasons…then went 38-35 after the break, marking the first time the A's finished over .500 after the break since 2006 (48-26)…led the majors with 91 stolen bases after the break…those were the most post-break steals by an American League team since 1993 (Toronto, 93) and the most by an A's team since 1983 (126).

MONTH BY MONTH: The A's finished the month of April with a 12-12 record…it marked the third time in the last six years Oakland finished April with exactly a .500 record (12-12 in 2005 and 2006)…the bullpen had just three save opportunities, their fewest in any month of 12 or more games since April, 1981 when they had just one…went 16-12 (.571) in May, just the second time in the last six seasons the A's finished May with a winning record…posted a 10-17 (.370) record in June, which was the third worst record in the American League (Baltimore and Toronto, 9-17)…it was the A's worst record in June since going 7-22 (.241) in 1986…walked just 67 times, which were the A's fewest walks in a month of 12 or more games since they had 60 in July, 1987…went 14-10 (.583) in July after going 29-49 (.372) in the month over the previous three seasons…finished August with a 13-15 record, their third consecutive losing August…led the majors in ERA (2.83) and opponents batting (.221) in August but were last in the AL in batting (.231), home runs (15) and slugging (.342)…the slugging percentage was the A's lowest in a month of 20 or more games since June of 1982 (.322)…also went 13-15 in September…led the majors with 36 steals in September, which were the A's most in a month since May of 1992 (39) and their most in September since 1980 (41).

IN THE PINCH: A's pinch hitters batted .236 (21 for 89) with three home runs, 18 RBI and 14 walks…tied for second in the American League in home runs and RBI, tied for third in walks and ranked fourth in batting…the batting average was the best by an A's team since 1999 (.270) and the home runs equal the A's combined total over the previous five seasons…Oakland is now batting .199 (196 for 983) in the pinch since 2000, which is the second lowest mark in the AL over that span (Baltimore, .193)…however, have 160 RBI, which is third most.

DESIGNATED HITTERS: A's designated hitters batted .246 with 15 home runs and 74 RBI…ranked eighth in the American League in RBI, 10th in batting and had the second fewest home runs…led the AL with 172 strikeouts, which set an Oakland record for designated hitters, breaking the mark of 170 established in 2009…those are the most strikeouts by an AL team since Texas had 178 in 1988…also ranked third in the AL in walks (75), sixth in on-base percentage (.338) and 11th in slugging (.386).

INTERLEAGUE PLAY: The A's went 8-10 (.444) in interleague play, their second consecutive season with a losing record against the National League (went 5-13 in 2009)…it was just the fourth time in 14 seasons of interleague play the A's finished with a losing record…are now 70-74 (.486) against the NL since 2003 but are 136-112 (.548) all-time, which is tied for the sixth best record in the majors…ranked fourth in the majors in 2010 with a 3.34 ERA in interleague and were 11th with a .267 batting average…hit just eight home runs, which tied for second fewest in the majors and was second fewest in Oakland history (6 in 2006).

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game, may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role. The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

RELIEF PITCHERS SAVE RULE

A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:
1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings

NINTH INNING COMEBACKS

Only once in Oakland history have the A's trailed by four or more runs heading into their last at bat and come back to win the game. On September 7, 2005, the A's trailed Seattle, 7-3, going into the bottom of the ninth at the Coliseum, but rallied for five runs in the inning for a 8-7 victory. The A's won the game when Eddie Guardado walked Nick Swisher with the bases loaded, scoring Jay Payton with the winning run. Prior to this contest, the last time the A's rallied from a deficit of four or more runs in their last at bat to win a game was on July 4, 1957 in the first game of a doubleheader against the Chicago White Sox. The A's trailed 4-0 heading into their last at bat, only to rally for five runs to pull out a 5-4 victory. Gus Zernial's single to left off Dixie Howell scored Hector Lopez and Joe DeMaestri with the tying and winning runs.

Note: For purpose of comparison, the National Baseball Hall of Fame uses "games played" and "games won" as the determining factors for position players and pitchers who played for more than one club during their careers. Based on that criteria, Willie McCovey, for example, is not counted among the Athletics 15 representatives.

ATHLETICS RETIRED NUMBERS

JIM "CATFISH" HUNTER 27

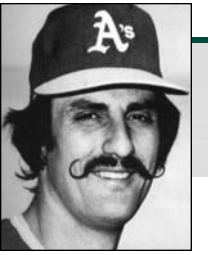

Pitcher

Born: April 8, 1946
Batted: Right
Hall of Fame Induction: 1987

Birthplace: Hertford, NC
Threw: Right

A control pitcher with a sneaky fastball, Catfish Hunter enjoyed a 15-year major league career with the Kansas City/Oakland Athletics and the New York Yankees…posted a 224-166 career record with a 3.26 ERA before arm trouble ended his career at the age of 33…holds Oakland's all-time career mark for wins (131)…won 20 or more games five consecutive seasons (1971-75), including his Cy Young Award-winning season of 1974 when he won a career-high 25 games… won five World Series rings, three with the A's and two with the Yankees…was 4-0 with one save in seven World Series appearances with the A's…signed a free agent contract with the Yankees in 1975 and helped New York to three straight pennants (1976-78)…was an eight-time All-Star…pitched a perfect game on May 8, 1968 against the Minnesota Twins…made his major league debut in 1965 with the Kansas City Athletics and did not miss a start until 1977…a good hitting pitcher, he batted .350 (36-for-103) in 1971 and had a .226 lifetime average with six home runs… nicknamed "Catfish" for effect by A's owner Charles O. Finley…soft-spoken and humble with a dose of country charm, he was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1987.

ROLLIE FINGERS 34

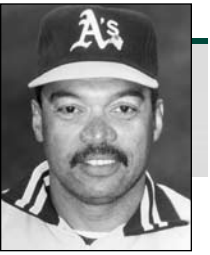

Pitcher

Born: August 25, 1946
Batted: Right
Hall of Fame Induction: 1992

Birthplace: Steubenville, OH
Threw: Right

Almost as famous for his handlebar mustache as his pitching, Rollie Fingers is one of the greatest relief pitchers in major league history…in his 17-year career spent with Oakland (1968-76), San Diego (1977-80) and Milwaukee (1981-85), the seven-time All-Star chalked up 341 saves to go along with a 114-118 career mark…made his ML debut in 1968 and began the 1969, '70 and '71 seasons as a starter, but finished all three seasons in the bullpen…became a full-time reliever in 1972, winning 11 games in relief and saving 21 to help Oakland to its first World Series appearance…saved 22 games and posted a 1.92 ERA in 1973…earned a win and two saves in the '74 World Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers…in 1975, pitched the final two innings of a four-pitcher no-hitter as he, Vida Blue, Glenn Abbott and Paul Lindblad combined to blank the California Angels, 5-0…signed a free agent contract with San Diego following the 1976 season and promptly led the National League in appearances (78) and saves (35)…posted a career high 37 saves for the Padres in 1978…returned to the American League in 1981 after being traded to Milwaukee and led the AL in saves with 28 to go along with a 1.04 ERA as the Brewers made their first-ever postseason appearance… captured both the Cy Young and Most Valuable Player Awards in 1981 after figuring in 55 percent of the Brewers victories…retired following the 1985 season… inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1992.

REGGIE JACKSON 9

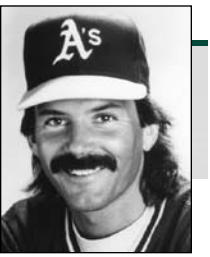

Outfielder

Born: May 18, 1946
Batted: Left
Hall of Fame Induction: 1993

Birthplace: Wyncote, PA
Threw: Left

Was originally selected by the Kansas City Athletics in the first round of the 1966 June Draft and played for 21 seasons in the Major Leagues, including nine seasons in Oakland (1968-75; 1987)…was a .262 career hitter with 563 home runs and 1702 RBI…named American League Most Valuable Player in 1973…appeared in 12 All-Star Games, 11 League Championship Series and five World Series…"Mr. October" played in five World Series (27 games) and was a part of four world championship clubs…earned World Series MVP honors in 1973 with Oakland and again in 1977 with New York…belted three home runs in Game Six of the 1977 World Series, all on the first pitch…once said, "Some people call October a time of pressure. I call it a time of character."…stole 228 bases in his career…finished among the AL Top 10 in home runs 13 times and led the circuit on four occasions…had 16 seasons of at least 20 home runs which ties an AL record…had six seasons of 100 or more RBI…when his number was retired on May 22, 2004, he ranked second on Oakland's career charts in home runs (268), double (230) and extra base hits (521)…became the eighth player to have his number retired by at least two teams and third to have two different numbers retired…inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1993.

DENNIS ECKERSLEY 43

Pitcher

Born: October 3, 1954
Batted: Right
Hall of Fame Induction: 2004

Birthplace: Oakland, CA
Threw: Right

Dennis Eckersley blazed a unique path to the Hall of Fame that most likely will never be repeated, beginning his career as a highly-touted starting pitcher before transforming into arguably the best closer the game has ever seen…from 1988 to 1992, Eck averaged 44 saves a season and helped the A's to four American League West crowns, three AL pennants and a World Series title in 1989…had 15 career postseason saves, including four when he was named 1988 ALCS MVP against Boston…was a six-time All-Star, including four times with Oakland (1988, 90-92)…earned both the American League Cy Young and Most Valuable Player Awards in 1992 after recording a league leading, career high and Oakland record 51 saves in 54 opportunities…finished his Oakland career as the Athletics career leader in saves (320)…tossed a no-hitter against California on May 30, 1977 as a member of the Cleveland Indians…ended his 24-year major league career with a record of 197-171 to go along with 390 saves and a 3.50 ERA…inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2004...had his number retired by the Oakland Athletics on August 13, 2005.

RICKEY HENDERSON 24

Outfielder

Born: December 25, 1958
Batted: Right
Hall of Fame Induction: 2009

Birthplace: Chicago, IL
Threw: Left

Rickey Henderson is one of the greatest leadoff hitters in baseball history…when his 25-year career concluded following the 2003 season, he was Major League Baseball's all-time leader in runs (2295), stolen bases (1406) and walks (2190)…he also banged out 3,055 hits, 297 home runs and 1,115 RBI with a .401 on-base percentage…he also hit 81 home runs leading off a game, still a ML mark…Henderson made his ML debut with Oakland in 1979 and had four stints with the A's (1979-84, 89-93, 94-95, 98)…he also played for both New York teams, San Diego, Boston, Los Angeles, Anaheim, Seattle and Toronto…Henderson was a 10-time All-Star and was named 1990 American League Most Valuable Player after batting .325 with 28 home runs, 61 RBI, 119 runs scored, 97 walks and 65 stolen bases…he set the ML single season stolen base record with 130 in 1982 and led the league in steals 12 times…inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2009…had his number retired by the Oakland Athletics on August 1, 2009…at the time, he was Oakland's all-time leader in games (1704), at bats (6140), runs (1270), hits (1768), doubles (289), triples (41), walks (1227) and stolen bases (867).

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

WALTER A. HAAS, JR.

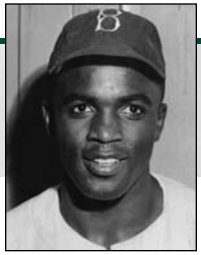

Owner/Managing General Partner 1980-95

Born: January 24, 1916

Birthplace: San Francisco, CA

One of the most beloved owners in the history of the Athletics organization, Walter A. Haas, Jr. purchased the A's from Charles O. Finley in 1980, saving the team from potentially moving out of the area…during his 15-year ownership period, the A's won one World Championship (1989) and captured three consecutive American League pennants (1988-90)…team broke franchise attendance records each of those seasons, attracting a record 2.9 million fans to the Coliseum in 1990…long considered one of the top business and civic leaders in the United States, Haas headed some of the finest corporations in the country, including Levi Strauss, Bank of America, United Air Lines and the Pacific Telephone Company…former A's slugger Mark McGwire once described Haas as "the nicest man who has ever been put on this earth"…the A's paid tribute to his ownership reign on September 17, 1995 on Haas Family Tribute Day, when an honorary jersey was retired…Haas passed away on September 20, 1995.

JACKIE ROBINSON 42

Second Baseman

Born: January 31, 1919
Batted: Right
Hall of Fame Induction: 1962

Birthplace: Cairo, GA
Threw: Right

Jackie Robinson burst onto the scene in 1947, breaking baseball's color barrier and bringing the Negro leagues' electrifying style of play to the majors…quickly became baseball's top drawing card and a symbol of hope to millions of Americans…led the Dodgers to six pennants in his 10 seasons…dominated games on the base paths, stealing home 19 times while riling opposing pitchers with his daring baserunning style…was named National League MVP in 1949, leading the loop in hitting (.342) and steals (37), while knocking in 124 runs…passed away on October 24, 1972 in Stamford, Conn…was named to Major League Baseball's All-Century Team…number 42 was retired by every Major League team in 1997.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP YEARS

1910 World Champion Philadelphia Athletics

1910: Finished with a 102-48 record and outdistanced the New York Highlanders by 14.5 games in the American League standings… defeated the Chicago Cubs in five games to win the first of five World Championships in Philadelphia…102 wins set a new American League record…opened the season in Washington in a game attended by President William Howard Taft, who honored the game by throwing out the first ball, setting a precedent which was followed by each of his successors until the Senators left Washington following the 1971 season…the pitching staff, headlined by Jack Coombs, Chief Bender, Cy Morgan and Eddie Plank, finished with a 1.79 ERA… Coombs emerged as the ace of the pitching staff and finished with a 31-9 record and a 1.30 ERA, including 13 shutouts…compiled a 46-inning scoreless streak during the season…the infield of Stuffy McInnis, Eddie Collins, Jack Barry, and Frank Baker would become known as the "$100,000 Infield"…won the first three games of the World Series before the Cubs took game four, 4-3 in 10 innings…Coombs won his third game of the series in Game 5, out pitching Mordecai Brown to lift the A's to their first world title.

1911: Dominated the American League for the second straight season, finishing with a 101-50 record…defeated the New York Giants in six games to capture a second straight world championship…offense was paced by Eddie Collins, Frank Baker, John "Stuffy" McInnis, Eddie Murphy and Bris Lord…Baker captured the American League home run title with 11 round trippers, earning him the nickname "Home Run" Baker…clinched the pennant on Sept. 26 with an 11-5 win over Detroit at Shibe Park, as Baker hit two doubles and two home runs…faced the New York Giants in the World Series in a rematch of the 1905 Fall Classic, won by the Giants…Christy Mathewson and Chief Bender square-off in Game 1, just as they did in the 1905 Series finale…a run-scoring double by New York's Josh Devore in the seventh inning breaks a 1-1 tie as the Giants capture the first game…the A's won Game Two, 3-1, behind the pitching of Eddie Plank and a home run by Baker…A's took a 2-1 lead in the series by winning Game Three, 3-2 in 11 innings at the Polo Grounds…after heavy rains forced postponement of the series for a week, the A's captured Game Four at Shibe Park, 4-2, as Bender outdueled Mathewson…the Giants staved off elimination by winning Game Five at the Polo Grounds, 4-3 in 10 innings…the A's routed the Giants, 13-2 in Game Six to capture their second straight World Series title.

1913: The Athletics post a 96-57 regular season record and outdistanced Washington by six and a half games to reclaim the American League pennant…defeated the New York Giants in five games to capture its third World Series title in four years…moved into first place in April and stayed atop the AL standings the rest of the way…Jack Coombs, three years removed from a 31-win season, missed the entire campaign with typhoid fever…Chief Bender (21-10), Eddie Plank (18-10), Boardwalk Brown (17-11), Byron "Duke" Houck (14-6) and rookie "Bullet" Joe Bush (14-6) anchored the pitching staff… the "$100,000 Infield" turned in another solid season…Frank Baker hit .336 to go along with an American League-best 12 home runs and 117 RBI…Stuffy McInnis hit .324 with 90 RBI, Collins finished with a .345 average while Barry batted .275…the Athletics and Giants split the first two games of the series before the A's win Games Three, Four and Five to capture their third World Series title.

1929: Behind a high-powered offense that featured six .300 hitters and the league's best pitching staff paced by Lefty Grove and George Earnshaw, the A's finish with a 104-46 record and capture the American League pennant by 18 games over the New York Yankees…defeat the Chicago Cubs in five games to win their fourth World Series title…the championship is the culmination of a long journey back to the top of the baseball world for Connie Mack's club…after winning the 1914 pennant, the A's spent the next seven seasons in the AL cellar before finishing seventh in 1922…A's finished sixth in 1923, fifth in '24, second in '25, third in '26 and second in '27 and '28 before winning the pennant in 1929…Al Simmons leads the American League with 157 RBI and finishes second with a .365 batting average…Jimmie Foxx hits .354 with 33 home runs while catcher Mickey Cochrane finishes with a .331 average…Bing Miller (.335), Jimmy Dykes (.327) and Mule Haas (.313) also top the .300 mark for the season…Earnshaw (24-8, 3.29) and Grove (20-6, 2.81) combine for 44 wins.

1930: After posting a 102-52 regular season record, the Athletics successfully defend their World Championship by defeating a hard-nosed St. Louis Cardinal team in six games…offensively, Al Simmons leads the AL with a .381 average to go along with 36 home runs…Jimmie Foxx hits .335 and his 37 home runs rank tied for third in the league behind Babe Ruth (49) and Lou Gehrig (41)…Mickey Cochrane finishes the year with a .357 average…Lefty Grove posts a 28-5 record to go along with a 2.54 ERA while George Earnshaw finishes with a 22-13 record and a 4.44 ERA….the 1931 Athletics won a franchise record 107 games, but were denied a third straight championship after losing to the St. Louis Cardinals in a seven-game World Series…after finishing second in 1932 and third in 1933, the A's would average 92 losses a season for the next 21 years before relocating to Kansas City for the 1955 season.

1972: The Swingin' A's finished with a 93-62 regular season record and held off the Chicago White Sox to capture a second straight American League West title…defeated the Detroit Tigers in five games in the American League Championship Series to advance to the World Series, where they defeated the heavily-favored Cincinnati Reds in seven games…the pitching staff, led by Jim "Catfish" Hunter (21-7), Ken Holtzman (19-11), John "Blue Moon" Odom (15-6) and closer Rollie Fingers (11-9, 21 saves), finished second in the American League with a 2.58 ERA…a contract dispute forced Vida Blue, who won both the AL Cy Young Award and league MVP honors a year before, to miss spring training and he did not make his first start until May 28th…led by Mike Epstein (26) and Reggie Jackson (25), the A's led the American League with 134 home runs…Jackson tore a hamstring muscle in the fifth game of the ALCS vs. Detroit and was sidelined for the World Series…Gene Tenace, who hit just .225 with five home runs during the regular season, hits a then-Fall Classic record four home runs to go along with a .348 average to earn World Series MVP honors.

A total of 36 players, managers and executives in the Hall of Fame spent some of their professional careers with the Philadelphia/Kansas City/Oakland Athletics, including 2010 Inductee Whitey Herzog, who played for the team in Kansas City in 1958-1960. Fourteen of the 36 spent the majority of their careers in an Athletics uniform, including Frank Baker (1908-1914), Chief Bender (1903-1914), Mickey Cochrane (1925-1933), Dennis Eckersley (1987-1995), Rollie Fingers (1968-1976), Jimmie Foxx (1925-1935), Lefty Grove (1925-1933), Rickey Henderson (1979-1984, 1989-1993, 1994-1995, 1998), Catfish Hunter (1965-1974), Reggie Jackson (1967-1975, 1987), Connie Mack (1901-1950), Eddie Plank (1901-1914), Al Simmons (1924-1932) and Rube Waddell (1902-1907). For a complete list of Philadelphia/Kansas City/Oakland Athletics in the Hall of Fame, visit the "Hall of Famers" team pages at www.baseballhall.org.

NOTABLE ATHLETICS ARTIFACTS IN COOPERSTOWN

- Spikes worn by Dallas Braden during his perfect game against the Tampa Bay Rays May 9, 2010, along with a ball and a score sheet from the game.
- Ball pitched by Brad Ziegler on July 27, 2008, to record the out that set the mark for most innings pitched at the beginning of a major league career without allowing a run, and his spikes from the record-setting streak.
- Prototype ticket book for 2008 season.
- Jersey worn by pitcher Tim Hudson during the 2004 season.
- Ball hit by Scott Hatteberg for a game-winning home run in Oakland's AL record 20th straight win, in September 2002.
- Lineup card from American League-tying 19th consecutive win, in September 2002.
- Ball and glove from Randy Velarde's unassisted triple play on May 29, 2000; it was the 10th in history.
- Bat used by Mark McGwire in 1996 when he hit 52 home runs.
- Oakland A's cap worn by Dennis Eckersley on May 24, 1995, during his 300th career save.
- Spikes worn by Rickey Henderson while breaking Lou Brock's single-season stolen base record in 1982.
- Ball from Vida Blue's no-hit game on Sept. 21, 1970.
- Ball from Catfish Hunter's perfect game on May 8,1968.

MINOR LEAGUE FIELD STAFF

GREG SPARKS

Minor League Roving Hitting Instructor

Greg Sparks enters his eighth season as the organization's minor league roving hitting instructor. He previously served as a manager in the A's minor league system for six years, compiling a 359-352-1 record during that span. Sparks managed at Midland in 2003, Single-A Modesto from 2000-02 and Single-A Southern Oregon of the Northwest League from 1998-99. He earned co-manager of the year honors in 1999 while with Southern Oregon. Sparks joined the A's organization as a coach at Single-A Visalia in 1997.

Originally a fifth-round January draft pick of the San Diego Padres in 1984 out of Mesa Community College, Sparks' playing career spanned 12 seasons and took him to 16 different cities in nine Major League organizations. He also played for an independent team and the Mexico City Tigers. He was in the San Diego farm system for three seasons before signing with the A's organization as a free agent prior to the 1987 campaign. His only two stops at the Triple-A level came in 1991 and 1992, when he played 55 games for Buffalo and 23 games for Toledo, respectively. Sparks concluded his playing career in 1995 in the Atlanta farm system.

Sparks makes his offseason home in Phoenix, Ariz.

GIL PATTERSON

Minor League Roving Pitching Instructor

Gil Patterson returns for his fifth season as the A's minor league roving pitching instructor. Patterson previously served as the pitching coach for the Yankees affiliate in the Gulf Coast Rookie League for two seasons and served as the pitching coach for Triple-A Columbus in 2005. Patterson joined the Toronto Blue Jays in 2001 as the bullpen coach and served as their pitching coach from 2002-04. He spent the previous four seasons with the Arizona Diamondbacks as their minor league pitching coordinator.

Patterson originally joined the Oakland organization in 1991, coaching in the Arizona Rookie League in Scottsdale. He coached for the A's Single-A affiliate in Madison from 1992-93, Single-A West Michigan in 1994 and the Rookie League Scottsdale A's in 1995 before serving as the roving minor league pitching instructor in 1996. He began his coaching career in Triple-A Columbus and Single-A Oneonta with the New York Yankees organization in 1984.

Patterson was the Yankees first selection of the secondary phase of the 1975 June draft. He made his professional debut in 1975 with Single-A Oneonta, leading the New York-Penn League in strikeouts (97). Patterson tossed a no-hitter on June 28, 1976 with Double-A West Haven before being promoted to Triple-A Syracuse. He opened the 1977 season in Syracuse before making his Major League debut with the Yankees at age 21. He appeared in 10 games (six starts) with the eventual World Series champions in 1977 while posting a 1-2 record and 5.45 ERA. Patterson suffered a torn rotator cuff and spent considerable time on the disabled list in 1978 and 1979. He pitched in the Yankees minor league system in 1980-81 and the San Francisco Giants organization in 1982 before having career-ending "Tommy John" surgery following spring training in 1983. In total, Patterson underwent eight operations during his career.

Patterson makes his offseason home in Odessa, Fla. with his wife, Jan. The couple has four children — Brandy, Raquel, Kyle and G.T.

JUAN NAVARRETE

Minor League Roving Infield Instructor

Juan Navarrete enters his eighth season as the A's minor league roving infield instructor after serving two years as the organization's minor league roving hitting instructor. Navarrete spent the previous seven seasons as a minor league manager and compiled a 390-338 record during that span. In his first two seasons as a manager for the A's Arizona Rookie League team (1995-97), he earned manager and co-manager of the year honors after guiding the team to first- and second-place finishes, respectively. Navarrete was promoted to Single-A Modesto in 1998 and took over the managerial duties at Single-A Visalia in 1999, where he guided the Oaks to playoff appearances in two of his three seasons.

A former infielder, Navarrete's playing career spanned 21 years (1970-90). He spent the majority of his career with the Saltillo Saraperos of the Mexican League as a player (1970-71; 78-82) and as a player-manager (1983-85). Navarrete was an eight-time all-star and a member of Saltillo's 1980 championship squad. He also played six seasons in the Montreal organization (1972-77). Navarrete spent his winters in the Mexican-Pacific Winter League (1972-90) and is among the all-time leaders in various statistical categories. In 1998, Navarrete was inducted into the Mexican Baseball Hall of Fame.

Navarrete makes his home in Saltillo, Mexico with his wife, Maria, and two daughters, Airam and Ana.

RON PLAZA

Minor League Roving Instructor

Ron Plaza begins his 29th season as the A's minor league roving instructor. He joined the Oakland organization in 1983 after 14 years in the Cincinnati Reds organization. Plaza was the Reds minor league roving instructor from 1970-77 before serving on the Major League coaching staff for six seasons (1978-83). He managed on various levels in the Cardinals chain from 1963-68, and was named Florida State League manager of the year in 1967. In 1969, he worked as a base coach for the Seattle Pilots.

A former infielder, Plaza played in the St. Louis Cardinals minor league system for 12 seasons (1951-62), including six years on the Triple-A level.

Plaza makes his offseason home in St. Petersburg, Fla.

SACRAMENTO RIVER CATS

DARREN BUSH

Manager

Darren Bush enters his first season as manager at Sacramento, having managed Midland the past two years. He led Midland to Texas League championship appearances both seasons, winning the title in his first season. Bush previously served in the same capacity with Stockton for two seasons, guiding the team to a California League title in 2008.

Bush first joined the Athletics in 2005 as hitting coach at Stockton, a role he served in for two years. Prior to his stay in Stockton, Bush managed independent teams, spending 2004 with Quebec, 2003 with Berkshire and 2002 with Yuba-Sutter.

A former catcher, Bush spent three seasons in the minor leagues with San Diego (1999-2000) and Philadelphia (2001). Prior to signing as a minor league free agent in 1998, he played three seasons in the Frontier League.

Bush resides in Dunedin, Fla. during the offseason.

SCOTT EMERSON

Pitching Coach

Scott Emerson enters his ninth season as a pitching coach in the A's organization, his first with Sacramento after serving in the same capacity with Midland for four seasons. He spent the previous four seasons with the organization's Single-A affiliates, spending 2005-06 with Stockton and the 2003-04 seasons with Modesto. Emerson previously served in the same role for three seasons in the Pittsburgh Pirates farm system, spending two seasons with the Rookie League club at Bradenton (2000-01) before moving to Single-A Williamsport in the New York-Penn League (2002).

Emerson was selected by Baltimore in the 40th round of the 1991 June draft. He played parts of four seasons in the Orioles farm system before being traded to Boston during the 1995 campaign. He was a 10-game winner with Single-A Albany in 1993 and retired as a player following the 1998 season.

Emerson and his wife, Jill, make their offseason home in Rockingham, N.C.

TODD STEVERSON

Hitting Coach

Todd Steverson returns to Sacramento after spending two seasons as the A's first base coach. Prior to joining the Major League coaching staff, Steverson spent the previous four seasons managing in the A's farm system, compiling a 297-264 (.529) record.

Steverson joined the A's organization in 2004 as hitting coach for their short-season Single-A affiliate at Vancouver. He was named manager at Single-A Stockton in 2005 and guided the Ports to a 78-62 record and playoff appearance. Steverson returned to Stockton in 2006, then spent one year at Double-A Midland in 2007 before moving to Triple-A Sacramento. His River Cats compiled an 83-61 record and won their second consecutive Triple-A and Pacific Coast League championships in 2008. Steverson began his coaching career in the St. Louis Cardinals farm system and spent five seasons with Potomac (1999; 2001-02), Peoria (2000) and Palm Beach (2003), all Single-A affiliates.

Steverson played professionally for seven seasons, including two seasons in the Major Leagues with Detroit (1995) and San Diego (1996). He compiled a .256 batting average, two home runs and six RBI in 31 games, including 30 with the Tigers and one with the Padres. Steverson was drafted by St. Louis in the sixth round out of Culver City (CA) High School in 1989, but did not sign and attended Arizona State University. Three years later, he was a first-round pick (25th overall) of Toronto and spent three seasons in the Blue Jays farm system before he was selected by Detroit in the Rule 5 draft. He concluded his playing career at Triple-A Memphis in 1998.

Steverson makes his offseason home in Phoenix, Ariz., with his wife Theresa, daughter Joya and son Jaryn.

MIDLAND ROCKHOUNDS

STEVE SCARSONE

Manager

Steve Scarsone enters his first season as manager at Midland after holding the same position with Stockton and Kane County in 2010 and 2009, respectively. He previously logged managerial stints with Single-A South Bend (2001) and Single-A Lancaster (2002).

Scarsone played seven seasons as a Major League utility infielder with Philadelphia (1992), Baltimore (1992), San Francisco (1993-96), St. Louis (1997) and Kansas City (1999). He had his best season in 1995, batting .266 with 11 home runs and 29 RBI for the Giants. Scarsone was originally drafted by Philadelphia in the 2nd round of the 1986 draft. He played six seasons in the minors before making his Major League debut with the Phillies in 1992.

Scarsone makes his offseason home in Scottsdale, Ariz. with his wife, Becki. The couple has two children – a daughter, Leah, and son, Ty.

DON SCHULZE

Pitching Coach

Don Schulze, a former first-round pick (1980, Cubs), begins his first season as pitching coach with Midland. He previously served in the same capacity with Stockton (2009-10) and Kane County (2007-08). Schulze made his coaching debut with the A's entry in the Arizona Rookie League in 2006.

The former Major League pitcher compiled a 15-25 record and 5.47 career ERA while playing for the Cubs (1983-84), Indians (1984-86), Mets (1987), Yankees (1989) and Padres (1989). From 1990-92, Schulze pitched for the Orix Blue Wave in Japan. He then closed out his career in 1993 with Minnesota's Triple-A affiliate.

Schulze makes his offseason home in Dixon, Ill. with his wife, Jeanne, and daughters, Sarah and Madeline.

TIM GARLAND

Hitting Coach

Tim Garland enters his first season as the Midland hitting coach after spending four seasons in the same role with Stockton. He made his coaching debut in 2006 at Kane County.

Garland played 15 seasons as a minor league outfielder after being drafted by the New York Yankees in 1989. He advanced as far as Double-A with the A's affiliate in Midland in 1999 after spending time with New York (1989-92), San Francisco (1996-98) and Baltimore (1998). He played in the independent leagues during the 1994-95 seasons.

After his one-year stint at Midland, Garland spent the next three seasons splitting time between the Mexican League and independent leagues, compiling a .308 batting average while playing for Campeche (2000), Tabasco (2001) and Reynosa (2002) in the Mexican League. He closed out his career playing for various independent league teams through the 2004 season.

Garland makes his offseason home in Danville, Va.

STOCKTON PORTS

WEBSTER GARRISON

Manager

Webster Garrison enters his first season as the Stockton manager after spending the past two years as hitting coach with Midland.

Garrison has managed various teams in the A's minor league system for five years and has compiled a career record of 334-302 (.525). He led Kane County and Visalia to the playoffs in 2003 and 2002, respectively. Garrison also spent two years as manager at Midland (2004, 2008). He began his managerial career with Vancouver in 2001.

A second-round selection of the Toronto Blue Jays in the 1983 June draft, Garrison spent seven seasons of his 16-year playing career in the Blue Jays farm system. He signed with the Oakland organization as a free agent on April 4, 1991 and batted a career-best .303 with seven home runs and 73 RBI for Triple-A Tacoma in 1993. Garrison then spent the next two seasons at Triple-A Colorado Springs before returning to the A's organization in 1996. He made his Major League debut with the A's on August 2, 1996 and appeared in five games. He spent the 1997 season at Triple-A Edmonton and 1998 season at Double-A Huntsville before assuming a role as player-coach in 1999.

Garrison makes his offseason home in his hometown of Marrero, La.

CRAIG LEFFERTS

Pitching Coach

Former Major League pitcher Craig Lefferts enters his ninth season as a pitching coach in Oakland's minor league system, his first with Stockton. He previously spent seven seasons with Vancouver (2004-2010) and one season with Midland (2003). Additionally, Lefferts served in the same capacity at Double-A Tennessee (2000-02) and Medicine Hat (1999) in the Toronto Blue Jays system.

In his 12-year Major League career, Lefferts compiled a 58-72 record with a 3.43 ERA, which included stints with the Cubs, Padres, Giants, Orioles, Rangers and Angels. A ninth-round selection by the Cubs in 1980, Lefferts made his major league debut with Chicago in 1983. In 1984, Lefferts posted a career-best 2.13 ERA for the National League West Division champion Padres and tossed 10 scoreless innings in six postseason appearances. He was the winning pitcher in the final two NLCS games against Chicago and earned the save in the Padres only World Series victory against Detroit.

In 1987, Lefferts made 44 appearances for San Francisco, including three scoreless outings in the NLCS against St. Louis. In 1989, he matched Gary Lavelle's team record for saves by a left-handed pitcher with 20 and appeared in five postseason games, making two appearances in the NLCS versus Chicago and three against the A's in the World Series. After recording 23 saves in 1991, he was converted to a starter in 1992 and finished with a 13-9 record to go along with a 3.69 ERA in 27 starts for the Padres. Lefferts retired after making 30 appearances for the California Angels during the 1994 season.

Lefferts and his wife, Wendy, reside in Anthem, Ariz. with their five children, Brock, Brady, Taylor, Tanner and Lindsay.

BRIAN MCARN

Hitting Coach

Brian McArn enters his first season as hitting coach at Stockton after serving in the same capacity for the last six seasons at Sacramento. He was also the hitting coach for Midland in 2004, and spent the previous six years with Single-A Modesto of the California League.

Prior to joining the A's organization, McArn spent one season as the hitting coach for the Single-A Vermont Expos in the New York-Penn League. McArn began his coaching career at American River Junior College in Sacramento, where he served as an assistant coach.

Selected in the 26th round of the 1991 June draft, McArn spent two seasons in the A's organization before injuries ended his career in 1992.

McArn makes his off-season home in Elk Grove, Calif.

JIMMY ESCALANTE

Pitching Coach

Jimmy Escalante begins his first season as Burlington pitching coach after previously holding the same position for two years apiece with Kane County (2009-10) and the Arizona A's (2007-08).

Escalante, who was selected by Baltimore in the 1996 draft, spent three years in the Orioles farm system (1997-99) and the 2000 campaign in the Angels chain after being acquired in the Rule 5 minor league draft in 1999. In addition, he pitched two years in the independent leagues, spending the 2002 season with the Sonoma County Crushers and 2005 with the Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks.

Escalante resides in Woodside, Calif. with his wife, Michele, during the offseason.

HAAS PRATT

Hitting Coach

Haas Pratt enters his first season as hitting coach at Burlington after spending the last three years in the same capacity with Kane County.

Pratt spent four years as an infielder in the A's minor league system, playing with Rookie League Arizona (2004), Single-A Vancouver (2005), Single-A Stockton and Triple-A Sacramento (2006) and Single-A Kane County (2007). He was selected in the 30th round of the June 2004 draft out of Arkansas.

Pratt resides in Arvada, Co. with his wife, Kera.

VERMONT LAKE MONSTERS

RICK MAGNANTE

Manager

Rick Magnante enters his first season as manager at Vermont after spending the past five seasons at the helm with Vancouver. He has managed in the minor leagues for a total of eight years, and also managed the South African national team in the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006.

In addition, Magnante has also served as an area scout for the A's since 1996. He is credited with signing Barry Zito and Bobby Crosby, among other players. He was the recipient of the Southern California Scouts Association Scout of the Year Award and the A's Dick Bogard Memorial Award in 2001 and 2003, respectively.

Magnante, who began his career in professional baseball with the Cleveland Indians in 1969, has also held managerial positions in the Detroit Tigers minor league system (1987-89) as well as with the Novara Serie A team of the Italian Professional League (1990).

Magnante resides in Van Nuys, Calif. He has two sons, Bobby and Daniel.

JOHN WASDIN

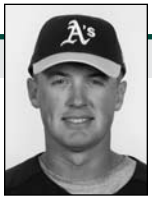

Pitching Coach

John Wasdin begins his first season as pitching coach at Vermont, his first career coaching assignment.

Wasdin, a former A's first round draft choice (25th pick overall) in the 1993 draft, played 12 seasons in the Major Leagues with Oakland (1995-96), Boston (1997-2000), Colorado (2000-01), Baltimore (2001), Toronto (2003), Texas (2004-06) and Pittsburgh (2007). His best season came in 1999, when he went 8-3 with a 4.12 ERA in 45 games for the Red Sox. Wasdin also spent the 2008 season in the minor leagues, and pitched in Japan in both 2002 and 2009.

CASEY MYERS

Hitting Coach

Casey Myers enters his first season as hitting coach with Vermont after serving in the same role in Vancouver the past two years. He began his coaching career as a player-coach with Midland in 2008. Selected by the A's in the ninth round of the 2001 June draft, he compiled a .291 career batting average over eight seasons in the A's minor league system.

Myers makes his offseason home in Phoenix, Ariz.

OAKLAND'S 20-GAME WINNING STREAK

During the 2002 season, the Oakland Athletics set an American League record by winning 20 consecutive games from August 13 to September 4. It was the third longest winning streak in the Major Leagues since 1900 and was the longest in 67 years. The streak broke the previous American League record of 19 set by the 1906 Chicago White Sox (Aug. 2 to 23) and matched by the 1947 New York Yankees (June 29 to July 17). The streak also bettered the previous Athletics franchise record of 17 set in 1931 (May 5 to 25) as well as the previous Oakland record of 14 set in 1988 (April 23 to May 9). The A's outscored the opposition 141-65 during the streak and trailed in just 10 of the 180 innings. Here's a game-by-game look at Oakland's American League-record 20-game winning streak.

ARIZONA A'S

MARCUS JENSEN

Manager

Marcus Jensen begins his third season as manager of the Arizona A's after spending two years as the hitting coach.

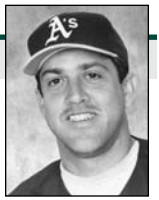

Jensen, a former catcher, was drafted by San Francisco in the 33rd round of the 1990 June draft. He spent the first six years of his career playing at various levels in the Giants minor league system before making his Major League debut on April 14, 1996. He compiled a .184 batting average while playing in 145 career games with San Francisco (1996-1997), Detroit (1997), Milwaukee (1998; 2002), St. Louis (1999), Minnesota (2000), Boston (2001) and Texas (2001). He spent the 2003 season with the Yankee's Triple-A affiliate before closing out his career playing for various independent league teams from 2004-2006. In addition, Jensen was a member of the 2000 U.S. Olympic team that defeated Cuba for the gold medal.

Jensen makes his off-season home in Scottsdale, Ariz. with his son, Marcus.

ARIEL PRIETO

Pitching Coach

Ariel Prieto enters his third season as pitching coach of the Arizona A's.

A former A's first round draft selection (5th pick overall) in the June 1995 draft, Prieto spent five seasons with Oakland (1995-2000) and one campaign with Tampa Bay (2001). He was the A's Opening Night starter in 1997, recording a career-high 22 starts and team-best six wins that season. The right-handed pitcher spent stints on the disabled list each season before undergoing multiple surgeries in 1998 and missing all of the 1999 season due to injury. He compiled a 15-24 record and 4.85 ERA in 70 career appearances, 60 starts. From 2003-05, Prieto played in the minor leagues. He was with a winter league team in Mexico in 2006.

Prieto is a graduate of Fajardo University in the Isle of Pines, Cuba. He was a member of the Cuban National team from 1990-94, where he set the national team record for strikeouts in one game when he fanned 20 at Nicaragua in 1990.

A native of Havana, Cuba, Prieto makes his offseason home in Miami, Fla. with his wife, Janet, and daughters, Ariel and Melanea.

JUAN DILONE

Hitting Coach

Juan Dilone is in his second stint (third season) as hitting coach for the Arizona A's. He also held the position in 2004 before spending four seasons as coordinator of Dominican instruction. He previously served as hitting coach at Visalia (2002) and Vancouver (2003).

Dilone signed a free agent contract with Oakland in 1990 and spent six seasons (1991-94; 96-97) in the A's farm system. A former infielder, Dilone spent his final two seasons at Single-A Modesto, where he batted a career-best .265 with 14 home runs in 1996.

A native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, Dilone makes his offseason home in Higuey, Dominican Republic.

MISCELLANEOUS

OAKLAND-ALAMEDA COUNTY COLISEUM

The Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum plays host to concerts, conventions and other large gatherings in addition to serving as the home for the Oakland Athletics and Oakland Raiders.

The A's have used the facility to their advantage over the years, posting the fifth best home record (579-393, .596) in the Major Leagues over the last 12 seasons. In 2003, the A's set an Oakland record for home wins as they finished with a 57-24 (.704) record in the Coliseum, marking the most home wins in franchise history since 1931 when the Philadelphia Athletics went 60-15 at home. In addition, two of the A's World Championships have been clinched on the Coliseum's turf. The Coliseum's exceptional sight lines, fine weather and sizable staging areas have all contributed to its popularity among performers, promoters and the Bay Area public.

The facility is conveniently located adjacent to I-880 with two exits (Hegenberger Road/66th Avenue) leading directly to the complex. Along with the Oracle Arena, which is located adjacently, it is the only major entertainment facility with a dedicated stop on the Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) system. The Oakland International Airport is less than a two-mile drive from the Coliseum with shuttle service to several local hotels and restaurants.

In October of 1995, the Coliseum began a one-year, $120 renovation project that added 22,000 new seats, 90 luxury suites, two private clubs and two state-of-the-art scoreboards.

The first crowd filled the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum on Sept. 8, 1966, when the AFL's Oakland Raiders played the Kansas City Chiefs. The adjacent arena celebrated its grand opening on Nov. 9, 1966, when the Oakland Seals met the San Diego Gulls in hockey. In the ensuing 44 years, the facility has hosted every conceivable event in the entertainment industry. Audiences numbering nearly 100 million have made the Coliseum and Arena the premier entertainment facilities in Northern California.

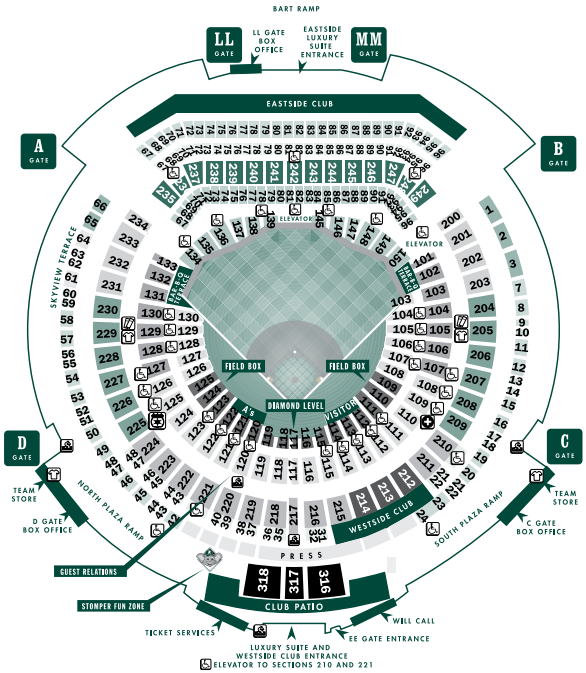

The Coliseum is currently one of only two stadiums in the country that houses both a MLB and NFL team, the others being Sun Life Stadium in Miami, Fla. (Marlins and Dolphins).

ATHLETICS BIGGEST COMEBACK

On July 20, 2009, the A's set an Oakland record by overcoming an eight-run deficit to win. Trailing Minnesota 12-2 entering the bottom of the third inning, the A's scored three times in the third, twice in the fourth and seven times in the seventh to win 14-13. The all-time Athletics record is also the Major League record, set by the Philadelphia A's on June 15, 1925 against Cleveland. The A's trailed by 12 runs in that game and scored 13 times in the bottom of the eighth to win 17-15.

MEDIA INFORMATION AND POLICIES

WORKING PRESS CREDENTIALS: Credentials will be issued only to legitimate media. Season credentials will be issued to those news agencies that cover the Athletics on a daily basis. Requests for daily credentials must be made by the affiliation's editor, producer or director on official company letterhead 24 hours in advance of the game. All credentials are non-transferable. All members of the media must be on assignment. No freelance journalists will be credentialed. Please submit all credential requests to Debbie Gallas, media services manager.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Photo passes will be issued to photographers on assignment from legitimate news gathering organizations and representatives licensed by Major League Baseball. The Oakland A's will not issue credentials to freelance photographers. Priority in all photo areas will be granted to news organizations on deadline and those holding season credentials. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products. Any other use of photographs will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

ON-LINE CREDENTIALING POLICY: Media credentials for on-line media services will be granted only to those agencies licensed by Major League Baseball (MLBAM, News Digital Media and ESPN Internet Ventures) to provide "real-time" accounts and descriptions of A's home games; or to those on-line services that are part of a national newsgathering agency; reach a broad audience; produces original content; has an established record of producing original content; and employ full-time journalists. This policy is encouraged by Major League Baseball and allows the Oakland Athletics to maintain quality control in the press box and clubhouses.

ROVING CAMERAS: Television cameras are prohibited from roving in the stands at all times. For the comfort of fans, interviews are to be conducted on the concourse and not in the stands while the game is in progress.

PRESS WILL CALL: Starting two-and-a-half hours before game time, credentials may be picked up at Press Will Call located on the Plaza Level between the Stadium and the Arena. Prior to that, credentials may be picked at the Ticket Services Office located in the Coliseum across the plaza from the A's executive offices.

CLUBHOUSES: The Athletics clubhouse is located on the third base side and the visitors' is located on the first base side. Access can be obtained by taking the press elevator to the first floor or through the door on the right near the end of the hall after you enter through the North Press Gate. Only credentialed media with clubhouse access will be admitted. TV cameras and photographers are not allowed in the clubhouse prior to the game and only TV cameras are permitted in the clubhouse following the game (no still photographers). The A's clubhouse is open to the media three and one-half hours prior to the game and then will close during the A's posted batting practice time. The clubhouse will then reopen at the conclusion of batting practice and will close one hour prior to game time. The clubhouse will open no earlier than five minutes or no later than 10 minutes following the game. At times, certain additional restrictions may be imposed. Please do not lounge in the clubhouse at any time. The break area, the trainer's room and the umpire's dressing room are off limits to the media. If a comment or interpretation from the umpire crew chief is needed, a pool reporter may be assigned.

FIELD ACCESS: Only credentialed media with field access will be allowed onto the field. All media must clear the field immediately following batting practice. Only newspaper and magazine photographers will be allowed on the field level during the game.

POST-GAME PROCEDURES: Manager Bob Geren will be available to the media in the media interview room immediately after the conclusion of the game. Please ask any questions of the manager related to the game during this post-game session. Following Geren, the A's PR staff will bring the team's starting pitcher into the interview room followed by any star players in a victory. Also, please be respectful of those members of the media who are on deadline when directing questions to the manager and players. Once again, please do not lounge in the clubhouse or attempt to conduct full-length interviews after a game.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Non-rightsholders are permitted to transmit live reports from Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum prior to and after every game. Live television shots by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air and the game is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out-of-town reports are allowed to give inning or half-inning updates. Reports must be confined to between-innings only, limited to 60 seconds in length, and limited to six per game. A violation of these Major League Baseball guidelines may result in the revocation of credentials.

CELLULAR PHONES: The use of cellular phones for radio interviews is prohibited on the field or in the clubhouse. All phone interviews must be arranged through the Athletics Public Relations Department.

FLIP CAMS: No flip cams are allowed in the A's clubhouse.

SCOUTS: Major League scouts are not allowed to scout from the press box during the game. However, scouts are welcomed in the press box prior to first pitch to pick up game information.

PRESS BOX: The press box and all broadcast positions are located on the loge level. Access is by the press elevator only. The first base side of the press box is reserved for print media while the third base side is reserved for electronic media. The press box is a working area. Cheering and loud conversation will not be permitted. The Oakland A's prohibit any person under the age of 18 from entering the press box on game days without prior approval from the A's public relations department. Guests are not allowed in the press box without prior approval from the A's Public Relations Department.

PRESS LOUNGE: The press lounge is located behind Section 117 (level one from the press elevator). It opens two hours prior to the game and closes at game time. The charge is $10.00 and meal tickets are available for purchase in the lounge. Media members must be properly credentialed for admittance into the dining room.

PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICE: The Oakland Athletics Public Relations Office is located within the team's executive offices on the east side of the Coliseum Arena. The offices are located directly across the plaza from the Ticket Services Office.

PRESS BOX SERVICES: Game notes, statistics, starting lineups and other pertinent news releases from both teams are available on the first base side of the press box for working press and scouts only. Post-game notes and the game's box score will be available shortly after the conclusion of the game. Information guides for all clubs are available upon request from a member of the A's public relations staff in the press box.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouses. Any violation of this policy will result in immediate revocation of the credential and bar future use.

TELEPHONES, WIFI SERVICE: Phone lines in the main press box may be ordered by calling Doug Tsang of AT&T at (510) 334-4175. Additionally, complimentary WiFi service is available in the press box.

TICKETS: All requests for media complimentary tickets must be made to Debbie Gallas at least 48 hours prior to game time. When available, tickets may be picked up at Press Will Call. There is a limit of two tickets per game.

ATHLETICS ON THE AIR

KEN KORACH

Radio Play-by-Play

The 2011 season marks Ken Korach's 20th year in the American League, his 16th season with the A's, and his sixth as the team's lead radio announcer.

In the long history of the A's in Oakland, only the legendary Bill King has spent more years doing radio play-by-play for the team.

Korach began his baseball career in 1981, when he worked the first of two seasons with the Redwood Pioneers of the California League. He also spent five full seasons broadcasting in the Pacific Coast League, in 1986-87 for Phoenix and 1989-1991 for Las Vegas.

Korach was hired by the Chicago White Sox in 1992 and he spent four years with the Sox, working mostly weekend games.

Korach began his broadcasting career at KTOB Radio in Petaluma in 1980, and he was hired as a sports anchor and voice of San Jose State football by KCBS Radio in San Francisco in 1985. He spent 22 seasons broadcasting college basketball and 14 seasons of college football for Sonoma State University, San Jose State and UNLV, where he spent 12 seasons as the voice of the Runnin' Rebels on radio and television.

Korach was inducted into the Nevada Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2003, was the 2001 Nevada Sportscaster of the Year, and his 1986 KCBS broadcast of the San Jose State-Fresno State football game was voted the top play-by-play performance that year for California and Nevada by the Associated Press Radio and Television Association.

Korach's national work includes broadcasting selected major league games for ESPN Radio in 2009, and several bowl games, including the Peach and Senior Bowls. Ken made his acting debut last year, playing himself in the Moneyball movie, which is scheduled for release in September 2011.

Korach's charitable work includes the establishment of Ken Korach's A's Winning for the Community, which raised over $50,000 for the high school baseball programs in Oakland, including Ken's personal donation of $15,000. Korach was honored with a proclamation by the Oakland School Board in 2009, and he currently serves on the advisory board for the Oakland Tech High School Field of Dreams.

Ken is a graduate of UC Santa Barbara and lives in Henderson, Nev. in the off-season with his daughter, Emilee, and wife Denise, the director of baseball administration for the Las Vegas 51s of the PCL.

VINCE COTRONEO

Radio Play-by-Play

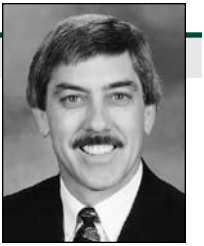

Vince Cotroneo begins his sixth season in the A's radio booth, where he again will work with broadcast partners Ken Korach and Ray Fosse in continuing the team's tradition of broadcasting excellence.

Prior to joining the A's, Cotroneo spent six seasons (1998-2003) as an announcer on the Texas Rangers broadcasts, where he partnered with Eric Nadel on the Rangers Radio Network. He also worked a handful of games on the television side during the 2002 season. Cotroneo joined the Rangers broadcast team in 1998 after spending seven seasons (1990-96) with the Houston Astros.

A 22-year broadcasting veteran, Cotroneo began his career with the Single-A Lynchburg Mets in 1984. He spent the next three seasons with the Double-A El Paso Diablos in the Milwaukee system before moving onto the Triple-A Iowa Cubs for the 1988 season. In his only season with Iowa, he was selected as the National Association's Minor League Announcer of the Year. Cotroneo joined the Astros organization the following season and was the radio voice of the Tucson Toros for two seasons (1989-90) before landing his first Major League job with the Astros in 1991.

A 1983 graduate of the University of Central Florida, Cotroneo and his wife, Veronica, have three children, Dominic, Olivia and Sophia.

RAY FOSSE

Radio and Television Analyst

Ray Fosse, former two-time major league all-star catcher and Emmy Award-winning broadcaster, celebrates his 26th consecutive season on radio and his 23rd season in the television booth as the A's game analyst.

Fosse, a 12-year major league veteran, played for the Cleveland Indians, Oakland A's, Seattle Mariners and Milwaukee Brewers, compiling a .256 batting average with 61 home runs. A native of Marion, Ill., Fosse attended Southern Illinois University, and was Cleveland's No. 1 draft pick in 1965. He made his major league debut with the Tribe in 1967 and spent the next six seasons in Cleveland. Fosse enjoyed his most productive season in 1970 when he batted .307 with a career-high 18 home runs and 61 RBI. He was named the American League All-Star catcher, received the Rawlings Gold Glove as the best defensive catcher in the American League, and was voted Co-Man of the Year with Sam McDowell that season.

In 1971, Fosse was named starting catcher for the American League All-Star Team and received his second Rawlings Gold Glove. He was traded to the Oakland A's in 1973, and played for the 1973 and 1974 World Champions in Oakland. In 2002, Fosse was voted one of the 100 greatest players in Cleveland Indians' history.

Ray and his wife, Carol, were married April 4, 1970, and reside in California and Arizona, where they are active in several charitable organizations. They have two daughters, Nikki and Lindsey, and one grandson, Matthew.

GLEN KUIPER

Television Play-by-Play

Glen Kuiper begins his eighth season in the A's television booth as the club's lead play-by-play voice.

Kuiper has covered the Bay Area baseball scene for Comcast SportsNet since 1992, serving as pre-game host and fill-in play-by-play announcer for both A's and Giants telecasts. He has also worked on Comcast SportsNet's Golden State Warrior and San Jose Sharks telecasts, along with numerous collegiate assignments. He has also handled sideline reporting duties for select National Football League games on Fox. Kuiper has won seven Northern California Emmy Awards for his coverage of Bay Area Sports teams.

Glen is the youngest brother in a talented broadcasting family. His oldest brother, Duane, is a long-time member of the San Francisco Giants announcing team while older brother, Jeff, produces the Giants Comcast SportsNet Bay Area telecasts.

Kuiper graduated from San Francisco State University with a bachelor's degree in broadcasting. He also attended the University of New Orleans and spent three years in the minor leagues. A native of Racine, Wis., Kuiper resides in Danville, Calif. with his wife, Amanda and two children, Jack and Annette.

A'S TELEVISION AND RADIO

COMCAST SPORTSNET CALIFORNIA: The Oakland Athletics entered into a long-term agreement with Comcast SportsNet California in 2009. Under the new contract, over 145 A's games are televised exclusively on the Northern California cable outlet with Glen Kuiper and Ray Fosse calling the action. For the first time in club history, the A's began airing all games in High Definition, beginning in 2010. CSNCA will also produce a pre- and post-game show for every telecast.

XTRA SPORTS 860 AM: The Oakland Athletics and XTRA Sports 860 AM are in the second year of a 10-year contract for the station to serve as flagship of the A's Radio Network. XTRA Sports 860 AM, a San Francisco-based station featuring a daily talk format, will broadcast all 162 regular season games, plus 17 Spring Training games. The 50,000-watt signal will provide a clear and consistent broadcast throughout the Bay Area and Northern California.

OAKLAND A'S IN THE COMMUNITY

Community FUND

The Oakland Athletics organization, in conjunction with the A's Community Fund, strives to make a positive impact in the Bay Area and Northern California. A's players, coaches, and front office employees, together with fans and sponsors, are committed to meeting the social, cultural and educational demands in the community. The A's host numerous fundraising events, implement several educational programs and support various organizations that reach out to people of diverse backgrounds throughout the community.

Information regarding Oakland Athletics community programs can be found online at oaklandathletics.com. Requests for donations and player appearances must be submitted in writing and addressed to the following: Oakland Athletics, Community Relations Department, 7000 Coliseum Way, Oakland, CA 94621.

OAKLAND A'S COMMUNITY FUND: The Oakland A's Community Fund supports more than 1,500 charitable organizations through monetary contributions and donated auction items in its efforts to support charitable organizations in improving the quality of life for people throughout the Bay Area. The Fund supports endeavors to improve educational programs, aid the underprivileged, assist in crime and drug prevention, promote health awareness, and champion children and senior welfare. The A's Community Fund believes in the need to invest in the community's future by donating approximately $600,000 annually to various community programs.

A'S BREAST CANCER AWARENESS DAY: The A's host a Breast Cancer Awareness Day each year to raise funds for breast cancer education and research. Funds are raised through commemorative pins and caps, an A's autographed quilt raffle and sponsor support. Pre-game ceremonies include the formation of a symbolic human pink ribbon on the field by over 500 Bay Area survivors, the release of white doves as a symbol of hope and a presentation of the "Gift of Faith" grant, which donates $5,000 annually to a local breast cancer charity in memory of the late longtime KTVU news reporter, Faith Fancher. Over the past 12 years, the A's have raised over $1 million for breast cancer education and research.

MUG ROOT BEER FLOAT DAY: Each year the A's and Pepsi host MUG Root Beer Float Day to raise funds for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Proceeds are raised through the sale of root beer floats, tips given to "celebrity scoopers," the sale of autographed mugs and a silent auction of sports memorabilia. Since 2003, the A's have raised over $300,000 for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation through MUG Root Beer Float Day.

HOME RUN READERS PROGRAM: The A's Home Run Readers program encourages teachers to establish reading goals for their students based on each child's individual reading level. As incentives, A's players, coaches, mascot Stomper and A's staff visit participating schools to congratulate the students and to encourage them to continue reading, both inside and outside of the classroom. Students who participate in the program attend the game on Home Run Readers Day as guests of the A's.

"MATHLETICS" PROGRAM: The "Mathletics" program is a unique program designed to stress the importance of students utilizing math in their daily lives. The A's design and distribute workbooks to participating schools which use simple formulas for calculating statistics of A's players. Students who complete their workbooks correctly and submit the answer sheet to the A's receive two ticket vouchers. In addition, one school that demonstrates outstanding participation in the program receives a visit from an A's player. The "Mathletics" program is sponsored by Ross Dress For Less and Comcast SportsNet California.

GREEN STAMPEDE HOMEWORK CLUB: Before select A's home games, volunteers from local public schools offer tutoring for at-risk students at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. Students who attend the study group are rewarded with tickets to that night's game and if they attend all eight sessions they receive a visit from an A's player.

WELLS FARGO SCHOOL SUPPLY DONATION AND EDUCATOR FUND PROGRAM: This program collects school supplies at every A's Friday home game at A's Guest Relations behind Section 119 to benefit local schools in need. Fans who donate a new school supply, worth $5 or more, receive a two-for-one Field Level ticket voucher for a future A's game. At the end of the season, collected supplies will be donated to various schools in the East Bay and the children may receive a visit by the A's mascot Stomper. In addition, throughout the season the A's will honor local teachers for their dedication to education in a special on-field pre-game ceremony and Wells Fargo will provide additional funding to those schools.

TAKE THE FIELD WITH THE A'S: Prior to select home games, members of local baseball and softball teams accompany A's players as they take the field, stand with them during the National Anthem and receive an autographed baseball.

LITTLE LEAGUE DAYS: Members of organized youth baseball programs are offered discounted group ticket prices to attend one of the two designated Little League Days with the A's. Little Leaguers (age 14 and under) attend a pre-game festival and participate in the on-field parade that honors youth baseball. A's Little League Days are sponsored by Chevy.

A'S DINNER ON THE DIAMOND: This annual dinner with A's players and their families is hosted by A's Owner and Managing Partner Lew Wolff and his daughter Kari Wolff with proceeds benefitting the Oakland A's Community Fund and a designated local charity. The A's Dinner on the Diamond is sponsored by the Wolff and Fisher families.

A'S AMIGOS: The A's Amigos program gives Hispanic children the opportunity to hear an A's player speak about the importance of education, sportsmanship and hard work. In addition to a pre-game visit, each child receives a game ticket and an A's cap. The A's Amigos program is sponsored by XFINITY, Home of the Most Live Sports.

LITTLE A'S: Each year, over 10,000 children from low to moderate-income families are treated to A's games and receive a Bank of America water bottle and family passes to the Oakland Zoo. The Little A's program is sponsored by Bank of America and supported by Clorox and the Oakland Zoo.

HOLIDAY PARTY: The A's Community Fund, Round Table Pizza and the Oakland Zoo host an annual holiday party for local school children. Current and former A's players are present to sign autographs and distribute gifts to each child. The holiday festival features an animal presentation in the Wildlife Theater by the Oakland Zoo, lunch, face painters, arts and crafts, and a visit by Santa and the A's mascot Stomper.

HOLIDAY CARAVAN: During the offseason, current and former A's players and the A's mascot Stomper make stops around the Bay Area during the A's Holiday Caravan. The caravan features visits to schools, hospitals, shelters, meet-and-greets and appearances at holiday parades and malls and other public places.

TICKET PURCHASE PROGRAM: Oakland A's players, the A's Community Fund and corporate sponsors purchase and donate thousands of game tickets to various charitable and non-profit groups each season.

SILENT AUCTION: The A's Community Fund holds silent auctions of various sports memorabilia behind section 120 on all Saturday and Sunday home dates. The A's Community Fund donated a portion of the proceeds to designated charitable groups as a silent auction partner on selected dates throughout the season.

FIELD RENOVATIONS: The A's Community Fund, in partnership with the Good Tidings Foundation, renovates a local baseball or softball field in order to provide local youth a state-of-the-art facility. Over the past few years, the A's and the Good Tidings Foundation renovated the baseball and softball fields at Washington High School in Fremont, Rickey Henderson Baseball Field located at the Arroyo Viejo Recreation Center in East Oakland and Bambino Field at the Greenman Field Baseball Complex.

A'S COMMUNITY FUND GOLF CLASSIC: This annual tournament pairs participants with A's players, former players, coaches and A's staff for a day of golf at one of the Bay Area's top courses. The event, sponsored by Chevron and State Roofing Systems of San Leandro, features breakfast, tee prizes, an awards dinner banquet and live and silent auctions of sports memorabilia and other prizes. All proceeds benefit the Oakland A's Community Fund.
