NEW OWNERSHIP

Bill Giles, who began his baseball career as a summer-time employee of the Cincinnati Reds while in college in the mid 1950s, advanced to the President of the Phillies. Giles' group purchased the team from the Carpenter family on Oct. 29, 1981.

The Giles group, which is a limited partnership entitled "The Phillies", consists of Bill as the general partner and five other entities as limited partners:

- A subsidiary of Taft Broadcasting Company, a publicly held corporation that owns seven television stations, including WTAF (Channel 29 in Philadelphia), 12 radio stations, five amusement parks and companies involved in the production and distribution of entertainment programming. Taft, headquartered in Cincinnati, is listed on the New York Stock Exchange and has the biggest investor in the group. Charles S. Mechem Jr., is Chairman of the Board.
- J.D.B. Associates, a partnership of which John Drew Betz is the limited partner and Robert D. Hedberg is the general partner. Betz is the Chairman Emeritus of Betz Laboratories, Inc., a company primarily engaged in industrial water treatment and related specialty chemicals areas. Hedberg is a financial consultant.
- Tri-Play Associates, a partnership of three brothers—Alexander K. Buck, James Mahlon Buck Jr. and William Clifton Buck—who are the principal executive officers of TDH, Inc. and TDH Capital Corporation, private venture capital investment companies.
- Fitz Eugene Dixon, Jr., the civic leader who is Chairman of the Board of Temple University and Widener College, and the former owner of the Philadelphia 76ers.
- Mrs. Rochelle Levy, a well-known Philadelphia artist and member of the Board of Moore College of Art. Mrs. Levy's husband is Robert P. Levy, chief executive officer of DRT Industries, a mini-conglomerate primarily engaged in the storage of bulk liquids and in various leisure-recreational activities.

None of the partners own as much as 50 percent of the partnership.

The Phillies will move their over-the-air free television rights from WPHL (Channel 17) to Channel 29 for a nine-year period beginning in 1984.

WILLIAM (BILL) GILES

William Yale "Bill" Giles, the new President of the Philadelphia Phillies, is a career baseball man.

Born in Rochester, New York on September 7, 1934, Bill is the son of the late Warren C. Giles, former General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds and President of the National League from 1951-1969.

Giles started his baseball career in the front office of the Reds, also working in the Cincinnati minor league system in 1960. He joined the new Houston franchise in 1962 where he handled the combined role of Traveling Secretary and Publicity Director. He then moved up to Director of Public Relations and Promotions in 1964 and Vice President in 1967.

When the Phillies were preparing their move from Connie Mack Stadium to Veterans Stadium, Giles was hired by Bob Carpenter as the team's Vice President, Business Operations.

He was named the Phillies Executive Vice President in 1972 thus becoming the Phillies Chief administrative officer filling in for ownership in its absence.

He was the club's chief representative in community affairs, plus sales, promotions, stadium operations, public relations, tickets, merchandising, radio and television, scheduling and cancellation and postponement of games.

Known for his imaginative promotions and creative methods of delivering the season's first ball, Giles is widely identified with the transformation of the Phillies into one of professional sports top franchises.

Bill and his wife, the former Nancy Kirwin whom he married in 1956, make their home in Villanova. They have three sons, Michael, 22, a graduate of Lafayette College; Joseph, 19, presently a sophomore at Cornell majoring in Hotel Administration, and Chris, 16, a sophomore at Episcopal Academy.

PAUL OWENS

The Philadelphia Phillies have become one of the most respected and formidable organizations in professional baseball both on and off the field. One of the main reasons is the excellent input of Paul Owens, the Phillies Vice President, General Manager.

Owens took over the role of General Manager from longtime baseball man John Quinn on June 3, 1972, and began transforming the Phillies from sixth place finishers to contenders to eventual champions.

With Danny Ozark at the helm and Owens supplying the talent, the Phillies won Philadelphia's first "title" since 1950 when they captured the first of three consecutive Eastern Division Championships in 1976.

Paul Francis Owens, 55, was born on February 7, 1924 in Salamanca, N.Y. He began his professional career as a first baseman in the St. Louis Cardinals chain in 1951. He was playing for Olean, N.Y., and won the Pony League batting championship with an amazing .407 average. He also played in 1952 before staying out of professional baseball in 1953 and 1954.

Owens returned in 1955 as the playing-manager of the Olean club. He was manager there for three seasons winning two more batting titles, (.368 in 1956 and .407 in 1957) before concluding his minor league managing career with Bakersfield, CA, in 1958 and 1959.

"The Pope," as he is known by his many friends, then began a scouting career moving from his native New York State to the West Coast where his territory included Southern California, Arizona, New Mexico, Western Colorado and Southern Nevada.

On May 22, 1965, he was promoted to the head of the Phillies minor league system, a position he held until he succeeded Quinn. Then on July 10, 1972, he replaced Frank Lucchesi as the Phillies field manager finishing the season with a 33-47 record.

His next move was to hire Ozark and move back upstairs to build the ballclub that would become a National League powerhouse.

In August of 1979 he replaced Ozark with Dallas Green and his confidence paid off as Dallas led the Phillies to the team's first World Championship in 1980.

In November of 1981, he named former Phillies catcher Pat Corrales to succeed Dallas Green as Phillies field manager.

Owens is a 1942 graduate of Salamanca High School. He spent three years in the service, two years in Europe during WW II as a sergeant in a U.S. Army engineering company. While in the service he met Marcelle Leclercq and they were married in Liege, Belgium on February 23, 1946.

After returning to the states, he enrolled at St. Bonaventure University graduating with a B.S. Degree in Physical Education in 1951. He was inducted into the St. Bonaventure Hall of Fame in February of 1977.

Paul and Marcelle, who make their home in Sewell, N.J., are the parents of two sons, Danny 31 and Pat 32. They have five grandchildren, Paulette (4-14-74); Caroline (6-14-76); Geoffrey (3-1-78); Andy (2-12-79) and Kevin (6-1-80).

DAVE MONTGOMERY

David Paul Montgomery is the Phillies new Executive Vice-President. He assumed the duties of the day to day business operations of the Phillies when Bill Giles became President of the club following the sale of the franchise by the Carpenter family.

Montgomery, 35, joined the Phillies in February, 1971, as a member of the Sales Department under Giles. He then progressed to positions of Director of Marketing and Director of Sales before elevation to his present position.

A Philadelphia native, Dave is a graduate of Penn Charter and the University of Pennsylvania (1968) where he majored in history. He then went on to receive a MBA from the Wharton School graduating in December, 1970.

He has always enjoyed coaching football and prior to coming to the Phillies as a full time employee, coached at Germantown Academy and for the Little Quakers, a connection he still maintains.

Dave and his wife, the former Lyn Sagendorph, make their home in the Wyndmoor section of Philadelphia.

TONY SIEGLE

Tony Siegle, 41, is the Phillies new Executive Assistant working with General Manager Paul Owens and Minor League Director Jim Baumer on player personnel matters.

He comes to the Phillies from Houston with a vast baseball background that includes positions with the Milwaukee Brewers and both the Phillies and Astros earlier in his career.

A native of Trenton, N.J., Siegle began his sports career as a part-time employee with Houston in 1965 as a member of the original scoreboard crew under the leadership of Bill Giles. He later was named Assistant to the Director of Expositions and Conventions of the Houston Sports Association and served in that capacity until October, 1969.

When Giles left Houston for Philadelphia, Siegle went with him where he spent a year as the Phillies Director of Stadium Operations. He then joined the Brewers as Administrative Assistant in the farm and scouting department in October, 1970. During his stay with Milwaukee, he worked with Baumer, then the Brewers General Manager.

Tony moved to Houston for the second time on August 10, 1979 when he was named Assistant to the General Manager succeeding John Mullen who was named General Manager of the Atlanta Braves.

Siegle is a graduate of the University of Miami, Miami (FLA.) where he earned a degree in Business Administration graduating in 1961. He is married, his wife's name is Carole and they have two children, Amy Beth and Andrew.

JIM BAUMER

Jim Baumer brings to the Phillies front office a vast background in scouting and player development.

He was an infielder in pro baseball from 1949 through 1967 before turning to scouting and then a front office career with the Milwaukee Brewers.

A shortstop, Baumer was signed to a bonus contract by the Chicago White Sox out of Broken Arrow, Okla., in June of 1949. He went right to Class B baseball and finished his first pro season hitting .400 in eight games with the White Sox. His playing career was interrupted in 1952 and 1953 by the U.S. Army.

Baumer returned to minor league baseball in 1954 and played in the states through 1962. He had a brief stint with the Cincinnati Reds in 1961. From 1963 through 1967, he played in Japan with the Fukuoka Lions.

His scouting career began with Houston in 1968. Following four years with the Astros, he became the special assignment scout with the Milwaukee Brewers. Baumer then began moving up the ladder, becoming the Director of Scouting (1973), Director of Player Development and Scouting (1974) and General Manager (1975-1977).

He is credited with signing infielder Robin Yount with the Brewers.

Baumer first joined the Phillies organization in 1978 as a special assignment scout. His duties included covering the major league clubs which train in Arizona, cross-check scouting of high school and college free agent players, the Phillies minor league farm system and major league clubs on the west coast.

During September, 1980, he and Wilbur (Moose) Johnson scouted the Kansas City Royals, New York Yankees and Baltimore Orioles in anticipation of the World Series.

Baumer was elevated to Director of the Minor Leagues and Scouting on Nov. 6, 1980, replacing Howie Bedell.

Born Jan. 29, 1931, Jim married the former Kathy Kraft on March 13, 1981, in a Clearwater, Fla. ceremony. They make their home in Paoli, Pa.

DID YOU KNOW

Steve Carlton of the Phillies and Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers share the modern National League record for most wins by a lefthander in one season, 27. Koufax did it in 1966, Carlton six years later.

JERRY CLOTHIER

Girard (Jerry) S. Clothier is the new Vice President of Finance, having assumed that position in February.

Born in Claymont, Del., Oct. 1, 1945, Clothier graduated from Swarthmore High School in 1963. Four years later, he received a B.A. degree in Accounting from the University of Delaware.

Since graduation from Delaware, Clothier spent three years in the U.S. Navy, received an M.B.A. from the Wharton School and worked in various levels for Price Waterhouse. Before joining the Phillies, Clothier was in management advisory services with Price Waterhouse.

He is married to the former Sherry Riggs. They have two daughters, Amy (1/19/75) and Kelly (9/4/78). The Clothiers lived in Philadelphia until last August when they moved to Dallas, Texas. They returned to Philadelphia shortly after assuming his new duties with the Phillies.

Dean of the National League PR men is Larry (The Baron) Shenk, who is in his 19th year with the Phillies.

Shenk, Vice President and Director of Public Relations, joined the Phillies in October, 1963. He's a graduate of Myerstown (Pa.) High School and Millersville (Pa.) State College, where he received a degree in elementary education.

Following graduation, Shenk began a journalism career as a general reporter with the Lebanon (Pa.) Daily News in 1961. He became a member of the sports staff of the Wilmington (De.) News-Journal in Jan. of 1963 and then joined the Phillies 10 months later.

A 10-year employee of the Baltimore Orioles, Pastore came to the Phillies in February of 1976.

Jack, his wife Martie and daughters Patricia and Stacy make their home in Wallingford, PA.

HUGH ALEXANDER

When it comes to seniority in scouting, Hugh Alexander, the Phillies Special Assignment Scout, is the leader without much doubt.

Alexander, who has spent nine of his 11 years with the Phils in his present capacity, has been a big league scout since 1938.

Signed as an outfielder out of 11th grade by the Cleveland Indians in 1935, Alexander spent one and a half years in the minors before being called up to the majors. A righthanded hitter with power and speed, his career was wiped out by an accident while working at an oil well. His left hand was severed.

The accident occurred Dec. 6, 1937, following his half-season with the Indians. Cleveland made him a fulltime scout the following year and he's been at it ever since then.

His very first signing for the Indians was pitcher Allie Reynolds.

After 14 years with Cleveland, he moved over to the White Sox for four years and the Dodgers for 15 before joining Paul Owens in 1971.

Born in Buffalo, Mo., 7/10/17, Hugh resides in Clearwater, Fla., with his wife, Lois.

SCORING RULES ACTION FOR 1982

ERA COMPUTATION CHANGED: In the future, earned run averages will be figured on the basis of actual total innings pitched (including fractional innings). Rule 10.22 had previously called for the rounding off of innings.

ENFORCING RULE 10.13(3): While no rule change was made at the 1981 Winter Meetings, the League Offices will be asked to emphasize to official scorers that they should feel free to enforce Rule 10.13(3) which allows the charging of an error to a fielder receiving a throw on the bounce if that throw is judged not to have taken an "unnatural bounce." It is felt some players (particularly shortstops) are unfairly charged with certain errors which should have been handled by the person receiving the throw (many times a first baseman), especially on an artificial surface.

RULE ON RAIN-HALTED GAMES

Two rule changes concerning suspended games and protested contests are in effect.

Rules 4.11 and 4.12 were altered creating suspended games instead of reverting to a prior inning when rain forces the umpires to terminate play under certain circumstances.

If a game is called while an inning is in progress and the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score or take the lead, the game will be considered suspended rather than ended.

The rule on protested games (4.19) now reads: "Even if it is held that the protested decision violated the rules, no replay of the game will be ordered unless, in the opinion of the league president, the violation adversely affected the protesting team's chances of winning the game."

PHILLIES HISTORY

The first game in National League history was played in Philadelphia in 1876, the Philadelphia Athletics facing Boston on April 22 at 25th and Jefferson Streets. The Philadelphia entry, however, didn't last the season and so the Quaker City was without representation in the National League until 1883. Alfred J. Reach purchased the Worcester, Mass., club and moved it to Philadelphia, adopting "Phillies" as the official team name, a takeoff on Philadelphia or Philly.

The Phillies' initial game was a 4-3 loss to the Providence Grays, before 1,200 at Recreation Park, 23rd Street and Ridge Pike. Bob Ferguson managed the Phils in that first game, May 1, 1883.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which was later to become known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 jammed the park for the first game on April 30 and saw the Phillies maul the New York Giants, 19-10.

One of baseball's biggest disasters struck the Phillies in 1903. Twelve persons were killed and 232 injured when the left field bleachers collapsed after fans had climbed to the top row to get a better view of a near-by fire.

The Phillies' owner in 1910, Horace Fogel, started a personal campaign with the press to change the name of his club. "The name Phillies is too trite and Quakers (as they were sometimes called) stands for peaceful people who will dodge a fight. We're not going to be that way. We're going to fight. Why don't you fellas call the club the 'Live Wires'," Fogel pleaded of the press. His efforts went for naught.

Baker Bowl, which had a short right-field line (280 feet) and a rather deep left field (341) became the site of the World Series in 1915 as the Phillies won their first league title. The Boston Red Sox, however, took the World Series, four games to one.

In 1927, the Baker Bowl wooden bleachers again gave way, and the Phillies, through the graces of Philadelphia Athletics' owner John Shibe, were invited to play at Shibe Park until the necessary repairs could be made. "I remember our first game in Shibe Park very well," recalled the late owner Gerry Nugent. "It was the day Lindbergh arrived in Paris."

Back to Baker Bowl went the Phillies, who played the first Sunday baseball game in Philadelphia there in 1934, losing to Brooklyn, 8-7.

The Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park on July 4, 1938 after 51 years at Baker Bowl. The Phils lost the first game to Boston, 10-8, but came back behind the pitching of Claude Passeau to win the nightcap, 10-2.

Late in 1943, the Phillies were sold to R. R. M. Carpenter, Jr. Between Reach and Carpenter, nine others owned the club. To stimulate interest in the club, a contest was conducted to find a nickname for the Phillies. For 1944 and 1945, the club was known as the Blue Jays, although they still maintained the official "Phillies" title.

Seven years after Carpenter took over, the Phillies rose to become National League champions, second time in club history. Again, the World Series crown eluded them, as the New York Yankees swept the series, 4-0.

Bob Carpenter, after 29 years as the club president, moved up to Chairman of the Board on Nov. 22, 1972. He was succeeded by his son, Ruly Carpenter, as president.

After 32½ seasons in Shibe Park-Connie Mack Stadium in which the Phillies won 1,195 and lost 1,328, the club moved into the spectacular new Veterans Stadium for the 1971 season.

The Philadelphia Athletics won the first game at Shibe Park, 8-1, over Boston on April 12, 1909. The Phillies won the park's finale, 2-1 over Montreal on Oct. 1, 1970, a 10-inning battle.

In the first game played in the 56,731 seat Veterans Stadium, the Phillies defeated the Montreal Expos 4-1 on April 10, 1971.

The Carpenter era with the Phillies came to an end on Oct. 29, 1981, when they sold the club to a group headed by Bill Giles.

DID YOU KNOW

The biggest inning in Phillies history came in the sixth inning against the Cubs, July 21, 1923, the first game of a double-header, when they scored 12 times.
