EXECUTIVES

DAVID MONTGOMERY

General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer

David Montgomery's first association with the Phillies was as a young fan growing up in Philadelphia, attending hundreds of games at Connie Mack Stadium. He realized every baseball fan's dream when he started working for the club in 1971 just in time for the opening of the new Veterans Stadium.

After graduating with an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, Montgomery began his career in the Phillies Sales Office selling season and group tickets. He advanced to positions as marketing director and then director of sales before becoming executive vice president after the 1981 season.

He was elevated to chief operating officer in 1992. In 1994, Montgomery was designated as co-general partner and acquired an ownership interest in the team. On June 20, 1997 he succeeded Bill Giles as general partner, president and chief executive officer.

Montgomery's association with the Phillies from Connie Mack to Veterans Stadium has now extended to Citizens Bank Park, which opened to very positive reviews in April of 2004. Under his leadership and watchful eye, the Phillies constructed new state-of-the-art facilities in both Philadelphia and Clearwater, Fla., with the 2004 opening of Bright House Networks Field, the home of Phillies Spring Training and the Clearwater Threshers.

During his 37 years in the game, Montgomery has been active in a wide range of areas for Major League Baseball. He is presently vice chair of the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Enterprises (formerly MLB Properties). He also serves on MLB's Schedule Committee and is a member of MLB's Labor Policy Committee.

Locally, Montgomery is an active alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania where he served as a trustee. He is a member and past chair of the policy board of WXPN Radio -- 88.5FM, the university's member-supported radio station. He also serves on the university's Board of Overseers of the Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts.

In addition to his Penn activities, Montgomery serves on the boards of Need in Deed, a non-profit service-learning organization working with children in Philadelphia public schools, and the Philadelphia Sports Congress. He is a past board chairman of both the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and the Woodlynde School, a private K-12 school in Strafford, Pa.

In February 2007, Montgomery was one of Need in Deed's 20th Anniversary honorees in recognition of his 16 years of service on the organization's board. Montgomery also serves as a co-chair of the "Get in the Game" fundraiser for Philadelphia Futures, a program that helps inner-city students achieve their dream of a college education. PAL will present Montgomery and the Phillies with the Police Athletic League Award in May 2008 in appreciation of his and the ballclub's longtime support of PAL and commitment to Philadelphia youth.

Under Montgomery's leadership, the Phillies continue to broaden their community outreach, supporting hundreds of charities and non-profit groups through contributions and other assistance provided by Phillies Charities, Inc., the club's charitable arm. Two keystones of the Phillies' charitable endeavors are the Phillies Phestival, held each season in support of the ALS Association - Greater Philadelphia Chapter, and the annual Phillies Holiday Dinner, prepared and served by front office staff, at the Bethesda Project's "Our Brother's Place," a homeless facility in North Philadelphia.

The ballclub is also very active on the education front with the sponsorship of "Be A Phanatic About Reading" and Phillies Fundamentals, youth programs aimed at combining fun and learning with baseball. In addition, Philadelphia's boys and girls are learning about the game and playing baseball through the Phillies-sponsored RBI and Rookie League programs.

Montgomery was born June 26, 1946, and grew up in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia. He is a graduate of the William Penn Charter School (1964) where he received the Alumni Award of Merit in 2005 and the University of Pennsylvania (1968) where he majored in history. He received his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the fall of 1970.

David and his wife Lyn make their home in the Wyndmoor section of Philadelphia. They have three children, Harry, Sam and Susa, and one granddaughter, Elizabeth.

OWNERSHIP

The Phillies is a limited partnership. David Montgomery is the general partner, with complete management authority. There are four limited partners:

- Claire S. Betz
- Tri-Play Associates, a firm comprised of three brothers, Alexander K. Buck, J. Mahlon Buck Jr. and William C. Buck. They are the principal executive officers of TDH Capital Corporation, a private venture capital investment company.
- Double Play, Inc., affiliated with fifth generation Philadelphia-based family businesses. John S. Middleton is its chairman.
- Giles Limited Partnership, Bill Giles' family partnership.

None of the partners owns as much as 50 percent of the partnership.

BILL GILES
Chairman

Baseball has been Bill Giles' life. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was president and general manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and president of the National League (1951-69). Bill's mother died when he was nine so he spent long hours and a lot of days with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati. Bill's first job in baseball came when he was around 14 years of age. It wasn't a glamorous position, as he did all kinds of odds and ends in the Cincinnati Reds' public relations department.

Giles has held a variety of positions with two National League teams, Houston and Philadelphia. He's served on numerous committees in baseball and has been one of Philadelphia's most visible community activists. Currently chairman of the Phillies, Bill was appointed honorary National League president early in the 2001 season, the first father-son combination at that level in baseball history. Bill represents the NL at the All-Star Game and postseason play. The appointment by Commissioner Bud Selig is a testimony of Bill's stature in the game. He is also a member of the Veterans Committee of baseball's Hall of Fame.

Following graduation from Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45s. While in Houston, Giles served as traveling secretary, publicity director, director of public relations and promotions and vice president. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as vice president, business operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to executive vice president.

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group that purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained president of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to chairman. In the summer of 2001, Giles was nominated to serve as honorary president of the National League.

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: chairman emeritus of the board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past president of the Boy Scouts of America and the Corporate Alliance for Drug Education; on the board of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League, Rotary Club and the visitors boards of the Temple University Medical School and Temple University Journalism School.

He has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996), Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc.; the American Heart Association's Man of the Year; and the Team Leadership Award from the Tug McGraw Foundation (2006).

Born in Rochester, N.Y., on September 7, 1934, Giles resides in Villanova, Pa., with his wife Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Michael and his wife Nanette have twins, daughter Lowell (Lowie) and son William (Will). Joe and his wife Paula have four children, Caroline, Dana, Molly and Max. Chris and his wife Amy have two children, Eliza and Warren.

Giles recently wrote a book about his baseball career currently available in most bookstores and on the internet entitled Pouring Six Beers at a Time: And Other Stories from a Lifetime in Baseball.

DAVID BUCK
Senior Vice President, Marketing and Advertising Sales

David Buck, a lifelong Phillies fan with over 20 years of experience with the club, was promoted to senior vice president, marketing and advertising sales, in February of 2007. In this role, David oversees the Phillies marketing department, encompassing advertising sales, events, fan development, broadcasting, video services, advertising, merchandising and promotions.

Prior to his promotion, David was vice president of advertising sales for eight seasons. He oversaw the transition from Veterans Stadium to Citizens Bank Park from a sponsorship perspective, and helped conceive and implement the strategy of bringing all advertising elements (television, radio, signage, print and promotions) under the control of the Phillies. Additionally,

David led the club's team that secured the 25-year naming rights partnership with Citizens Bank.

Born May 15, 1964 in Abington, Pa., David attended Springfield High School and graduated from Lafayette College in 1986 with a BA in history. He stays connected to Lafayette by hosting students each off-season in an externship program. He also serves on the board of directors of the Please Touch Museum, a children's museum located in Philadelphia. David and his wife Nancy live in Broad Axe, Pa., with their three children, Andrew, Katie and Jake.

JERRY CLOTHIER

Senior Vice President, Business and Finance

Jerry Clothier joined the Phillies in 1982 and currently serves as senior vice president, business and finance.

He then served three years in the U.S. Navy as a supply officer from 1967 to 1970 and later attended the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, receiving his MBA in finance in 1973. From 1973-81, Jerry worked for Price Waterhouse and was admitted to the firm's partnership in 1981.

Jerry serves as a trustee to the Pension Committee of the Major League Baseball Players Benefit Plan, as a member of the University of Delaware Visiting Committee on Athletics and as a member of the Free Library of Philadelphia Board of Trustees.

2007

- Went to spring training with BAL
- Missed entire season due to a torn right rotator cuff
- Had surgery on 3/20/07 (Dr. David Altcheck) on both his right rotator cuff and his right elbow

2006

- Finished 2nd on BAL's staff – behind Erik Bedard – in wins and starts and was 3rd in innings
- Reached double figures in wins for the 4th time in 8 seasons
- T-3rd in the AL with a career-high 3 CG
- Had 18 quality starts, 11 in his 19 starts before the All-Star break and 7 in his 11 starts after the break
- Pitched 6.0 or more innings 19 times, 7.0 or more innings 13 times and 8.0 or more 7 times
- Had 9 wins at the All-Star break and, with Erik Bedard, became the first pair of BAL pitchers with at least 9 wins in the first half since 1997, when Jimmy Key (12), Scott Erickson (11) and Mike Mussina (10) did it
- Was placed on the DL, 8/4 (retroactive to 7/26) with right elbow tendinitis
- Pitched on 3 days rest twice, 5/28 at LAA (ND, 5.1 IP, 4 ER) and 7/2 at ATL (L, 5.0 IP, 4 ER), the first time in his career he had done so
- Hit his first career HR, 6/17 at NYM; the first HR by a BAL pitcher since Roric Harrison did it in the final game of the 1972 season, the last year before the AL adopted the designated hitter

2005

- NYM went 17-11 in his 28 starts and he allowed 3 ER or fewer in 19 of them
- Went 6-4, 3.66 ERA in 16 home starts
- Began the season on the 15-day DL (strained right pectoral muscle); made 1 rehab start with St. Lucie (3.0 IP, 4 SO)

2007 REVIEW

2007 TEAM NOTES

NL EAST CHAMPS

For the first time since 1993, the Phillies made the playoffs, winning the National League East Division championship on the final day of the season. It was the team's seventh division title and ninth first-place finish. At 89-73, the Phillies fell one win shy of the NL lead (90 by ARI and COL) and had their most wins since going 97-65 in 1993.

TAKING A BITE OUT OF THE BIG APPLE

The Phillies went 12-6 in 2007 against the New York Mets, which included an 8-game winning streak to end the season. During the 8-game win streak, the Phillies hit .301 (86-286) with 16 home runs and 50 runs scored (6.25 runs/game). The Phils' pitching staff posted a 3.53 ERA (29 ER, 74.0 IP) and held the Mets to 30 runs (3.75 runs/game) and a .239 average. The Phillies relievers had a 2.79 ERA (9 ER, 29.0 IP) - including a 0.76 ERA (2 ER, 23.2 IP) in 7 of the 8 games - and held Mets hitters to a .156 average. The Mets relievers compiled an 8.17 ERA (23 ER, 25.1 IP) and allowed a .318 average in the 8 games.

M*A*S*H UNIT

Garcia, Lieber and Madson each had two separate stints on the DL.

TURNSTILE TRAFFIC

For the third time in Phillies team history, the club finished with over 3 million in attendance at 3,108,325. The other years were the NL pennant-winning season of 1993 (3,137,674) and 2004 (3,250,092), the first year at Citizens Bank Park. The Phillies finished the 2007 season with 24 sellouts and 38 crowds of over 40,000.

THE COMEBACK KIDS

The Phillies led all major league teams with 48 come-from-behind wins this season. The Mariners, Rangers and Rockies were all tied for 2nd with 45 each. They overcame one-run deficits 21 times, two runs 14 times, three runs eight times, four runs four times and six runs once.

Their 138 steals were 2nd-best in the National League (Mets - 200) and 4th-best in all of Major League Baseball. Michael Bourn went 18-for-19 (94.7%) in stolen base attempts. ## BORN TO RUN

For the second season in a row, the Phillies led the National League in runs. They scored 892 runs, the 8th-highest total in club history and the most in one season by the Phillies since 1930, when they scored 944 runs. Jimmy Rollins led the NL and finished second among all MLB players with 139 runs. Only Alex Rodriguez scored more (143).

PINCH ME

The Phillies led all major league clubs with 57 pinch RBI and tied for 3rd-most pinch home runs (9). On May 28 at ARI, Greg Dobbs hit the 300th pinch home run in Phillies history and on September 16, he hit a pinch grand slam, the first GS of his career. Other pinch home runs this season came from Ryan Howard (GS), Jayson Werth (2), Russell Branyan, Tadahito Iguchi and Shane Victorino.

Greg Dobbs led all MLB players with 18 pinch RBI, a record for a Phillies player since pinch-hitting statistics began being kept.

TRIPLE DIPPIN'

For the first time since 1964, the Phillies turned two triple plays in a season (they turned 3 in 1964). The first came on April 21 at CIN, when Abraham Nunez (3B), Chase Utley (2B) and Wes Helms (1B) turned one on David Ross and the other came September 12 vs COL, when Greg Dobbs (3B) and Utley (2B) combined on a line drive by Matt Holliday.

BALANCE OF POWER

For the first time in Phillies history, the team had five players with 20 or more home runs: Ryan Howard (47), Pat Burrell (30), Jimmy Rollins (30), Aaron Rowand (27) and Chase Utley (22). They also came within one RBI of having five players with 90 or more RBI for the first time in club history (Aaron Rowand finished with 89).

PITCHERS' ROULETTE

The Phillies used a club-record 28 different pitchers in 2007. The previous record of 27 had been set by the 2000 club, which lost 97 games. Seven of the 28 pitchers made their major league debuts: RHP Joe Bisenius, RHP Anderson Garcia, LHP J.A. Happ, RHP Yoel Hernandez, RHP Kyle Kendrick, RHP Zack Segovia and LHP Mike Zagurski.

UNITED NATIONS

On July 28, 2007, Tadahito Iguchi became the first Japanese-born player in the 125-year history of the Phillies franchise. The 2007 Phillies had representatives from seven different countries/territories on their major league roster (including DL'ed players). Represented were Canada (Pete Laforest and Scott Mathieson), the Dominican Republic (Antonio Alfonseca, Jose Mesa, Abraham Nunez and Francisco Rosario), Japan (Iguchi), Panama (Carlos Ruiz), Puerto Rico (J.C. Romero), Venezuela (Freddy Garcia) and the United States.

SAVING THE DAY

The Phillies set a club record with nine different pitchers notching a save in 2007. The previous record of eight was done by the 1969 and 1976 teams (the save became an official stat in 1969). Brett Myers led the club with 21 saves and he was followed by Antonio Alfonseca (8), Tom Gordon (6), Clay Condrey (2), J.D. Durbin (1), John Ennis (1), Ryan Madson (1), Jose Mesa (1) and Francisco Rosario (1). Condrey, Durbin and Rosario all picked up their first major league saves.

STRONG ARMING

With 39 outfield assists, the Phillies led all National League teams and finished second among all major league clubs, behind only Tampa Bay (42). It was the most outfield assists by the team since 2001, when they had 43. Individually, Aaron Rowand led the team with 11, Shane Victorino had 10, Jayson Werth had nine, Pat Burrell had eight and Chris Roberson had one.

VS LEFT-HANDERS

Even though they went 26-26 (.500) when facing a left-handed starting pitcher in 2007, the Phillies finished 20-11 (.645) in their last 31 games vs a left-handed starter. In those games, the opposing starter had a 7.24 ERA (126 ER, 156.2 IP).

ROOKIES RISING

In 2007 the Phillies used 10 rookie pitchers, who combined to go 18-11 (.626). Their 18 wins were tied for the 3rd-highest total among National League teams and highest for any playoff team. The Reds led the league with 21 rookie wins, the Nationals had 19 and the Astros also had 18. Kyle Kendrick led all NL rookies with 10 wins.

THE HOT CORNER

For the first time in Phillies history, three players started 50 or more games each at third base. Greg Dobbs (57), Wes Helms (53) and Abraham Nunez (51) became the first threesome in franchise history to accomplish the feat. Russell Branyan (1) was the only other player to make a start at third base for the Phillies last year. Also, 2007 marked only the second time in club history that three players even appeared in 50 games each at third base. The other year was 1969, when Deron Johnson, Rick Joseph and Tony Taylor all played 50 games each at third base, but did not all start 50 games.

AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF PHILADELPHIA BASEBALL

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

While the Cincinnati Red Stockings of 1869 are recognized as the first all-salaried team, Philadelphia's earliest team, the Athletics, followed soon after in 1870. The next year, the National Association was formed and the Athletics joined that league.

When the Association disbanded in 1876, several of the stronger teams formed the National League, as it is still known today. The charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals, Louisville Grays and the Philadelphia Athletics.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5, before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until 1883. Following the 1882 NL season, Alfred J. Reach, a former player and Philadelphia sporting goods founder, purchased the Worcester (MA) franchise along with attorney Col. John I. Rogers and moved it to Philadelphia. During their final year in the NL, the Worcester club was known as the Brown Stockings.

Starting a ball club from scratch, the new owners named the team "Phillies," a takeoff on the team's geographic roots, "Philly." The Phillies are the oldest, continuous, one-name, one-city franchise in all of professional sports.

Since none of the players from the Worcester team were part of the sale, the first Phillies roster was made up of ex-minor league players and players from other NL teams. The team finished last, 17-81-1, and total attendance was a reported 55,992.

FIRST GAME

History shows the Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, at 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which over 1,800 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 117 million spectators have attended games in the city.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

The Phillies had to share the Philadelphia baseball scene when the American League was formed in 1901. One of the eight teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack.

The Athletics enjoyed more success than the Phillies and thus were more popular. The A's won six pennants in their first 15 years while the Phillies could muster just one.

That first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games.

While the A's had a strong run in the 1930s (three pennants, including two straight World Championships in 1929-30), the Phillies floundered. Outfielder Chuck Klein led an awesome attack but an awful pitching staff kept the Phillies from winning.

Baker Bowl began to deteriorate physically when some wooden bleachers gave way in 1927, forcing the Phillies to play a few games at Shibe Park, the home of the A's. Finally, after 51 years at Baker Bowl, the Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park on July 4, 1938, splitting a doubleheader with Boston, a 10-5 loss and a 10-2 win.

While the A's remained stable under the Shibe family, ownership of the Phillies seemed to change constantly. From 1903 to 1943, the club had ten different owners.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington, Del., bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but usage began to drop off in the following years and the Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system.

The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team nicknamed the Whiz Kids won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Robin Roberts won 20 games that season, the first of six straight 20-win seasons. Center fielder Richie Ashburn started a streak of hitting over .300 for seven straight years, including two batting titles. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four straight games.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

The A's, meanwhile, began to slide. After finishing last in 1954, their 11th eighth-place finish in 23 seasons, the A's were sold and moved to Kansas City. Once again, Philadelphia was a one-team baseball town.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's owner/manager in 1953. But it's worth noting that as early as 1953, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened on April 10, 1971, with the Phillies defeating the Montreal Expos, 4-1.

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as President in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Under Manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, October 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, executive vice president under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to the World Series for the fourth time by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

From generation to generation, fans' heroes change. Players such as Alexander, Klein, Roberts, Ashburn, Carlton and Schmidt will always be remembered, but new heroes emerged from the 1993 team. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season. Lenny Dykstra was second in the MVP race; Terry Mulholland, John Kruk, Darren Daulton and Dave Hollins were All-Stars, but this was a total team effort.

This team didn't have one nickname such as the Whiz Kids or Wheeze Kids. They had many names because they were a group of athletes who became Phillies through shrewd moves by General Manager Lee Thomas.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Their spring training neighbors, the Toronto Blue Jays, were the opponents. Jim Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic.

A very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on September 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils.

In 2004, the Phillies moved into Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark. Citizens Bank Park hosted its first postseason games during the 2007 National League Division Series and will be the site of many more memories to come.

Phillies baseball is more than wins and losses. It involves people.

People who were Hall of Famers during the early years of the franchise... Harry Wright, Ed Delahanty and Sam Thompson.

People who reached fans, first on the airwaves, and later on television... Gene Kelly, By Saam, Ashburn, Bill Campbell, Harry Kalas, Andy Musser and Chris Wheeler.

Oh yes. There's one more important figure in Phillies history... Phillie Phanatic, the big green furry creature who made its debut as the team's mascot on April 25, 1978. As with the 125-year-old baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a tradition.

ALL-TIME ROSTER

Includes all players who have participated in one or more official National League games with the Phillies from 1883-2007... a total of 1,829 players. The most common names in Phillies history have been Miller (14), Johnson (11), Smith (11) and Jones (9).

JACKIE ROBINSON

1B • 2B • 3B • OF

Commissioner Bud Selig announced that all teams would retire this number in 1997 during the 50th anniversary of Robinson becoming the first African American to play in Major League Baseball... Robinson made his debut in 1947 with the Brooklyn Dodgers, who retired his number following his 1972 death... In 1987, the National League Rookie of the Year Award was renamed after Robinson... Former pitching coach Galen Cisco was the last Phillie to wear the number, in 1997. Trailing, 2-0, the Phillies scored three in the top of the eighth only to have the Astros tie it, 3-3, in the bottom of the ninth. Pete Rose bowled over catcher Bruce Bochy to score the winning run in the 10th inning. The series was tied, 2-2, with one game to go.

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies organization.

Bill Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was president and general partner until 1997 when he became chairman.

Larry Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball with the Phillies. He also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system before his death in 2007.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

JOHN VUKOVICH AWARD

Started in 2007, the John Vukovich Award is presented annually to an instructor in the Phillies organization that embodies the characteristics of the award's namesake: loyalty, dedication, competitiveness, knowledge, honesty and a terrific work ethic.

"Vuk" took great pride in wearing a baseball uniform and playing the game the right way. His dedication to the game and the Phillies was endless.

He spent 30 of his 41 years as a member of the Phillies organization. With 17 years on the coaching staff, he is the longest tenured coach in team history and one of the most respected persons to ever wear a Phillies uniform.

WALL OF FAME

The tradition of honoring alumni of both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics began in 1978 at Veterans Stadium in a 200 Level display originally called the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame. Former Phillies continue to be honored at Citizens Bank Park in the Wall of Fame display located in the Memory Lane section of Ashburn Alley. Toyota is the sponsor of Memory Lane and the Wall of Fame.

Phillies players with five or more years of service are eligible. In addition, position players require a minimum of 700 games, while pitchers need a minimum of 180 games to be eligible. Managers and coaches need four or more years of service.

All candidates must be retired for three years before they can be eligible for the 15-man ballot. Consideration is given to longevity, ability, contributions to the Phillies and baseball, character, plus special achievements.

REMEMBERING THE A'S

From 1978 through the final year of the Vet, 2003, members of the A's were also selected yearly. The A's were a member of the American League in Philadelphia from 1901 through the 1954 season when the franchise was moved to Kansas City.

A total of 25 former A's were part of the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, starting with Connie Mack, their long-time manager/owner who was inducted posthumously in 1978.

A large statue of Connie Mack once stood at Connie Mack Stadium on the south side of Lehigh Avenue. During the 1971 inaugural season at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies relocated the statue to the corner of Broad Street and Pattison Avenue. The Phillies moved it again during the final construction stages of Citizens Bank Park in March of 2004.

Mack's statue is located on the west side of Citizens Bank Way. Names of the 25 A's players who were honored at the Vet's Hall of Fame display have been added to Mack's statue so that fans will forever remember the A's.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster and National League President, has been presented annually since 1978. Each award recipient is presented with a certificate during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Long-time Phillies broadcaster By Saam received the award in 1990 and was joined in 2002 by his former broadcast partner, Harry Kalas.

J.G. TAYLOR SPINK AWARD

The Philadelphia media are also represented in the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Former Philadelphia Inquirer baseball writer Allen Lewis (1981), Ray Kelly of the Philadelphia Bulletin (1988), and Bus Saidt from The Trentonian and Trenton Times (1992) won the J.G. Taylor Spink Award. The award, named after the founder of The Sporting News, has been voted upon annually by the Baseball Writers' Association of America since 1962 and honors a baseball writer (or writers) "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing."

PHILLIE PHANATIC

HT: 6 feet; WT: 300 pounds, mostly fat

AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978

BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands

EYES: White eyeballs, black pupils, purple eyelashes and blue eyebrows

SKIN: Bright green fur

PHYSICAL DEFECTS: Overweight, clumsy feet, extra-long beak, curled-up red tongue, gawking neck, slight case of body odor.

Named after the team's fanatical fans, the Phanatic was created out of one of the weekly staff meetings of the Phillies marketing department after the 1977 season. From that humble beginning, the beloved mascot made it all the way to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., where in 2002 it became part of a permanent exhibit. The Phanatic received another honor in 2008 when it was recognized by Forbes Magazine as the #1 sports mascot.

Tom Burgoyne, the current Phanatic, actually began his fanatical career as Raymond's back-up in 1989 and then joined the Phillies promotional staff in 1990. He has made world-wide appearances with Major League Baseball International, including Japan (1997, 1998 and 2002) and Australia (1997 and 1999). ## PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

The Phillies organization takes great pride in giving back to the community. Off the field, the Phillies have been a team to count on for decades through their efforts of reaching out to those in need.

Phillies Charities, Inc. serves as the fundraising arm of the Phillies organization and donates to dozens of non-profit organizations each year. At the annual Phillies Phestival in 2007, Phillies Charities helped raise over $720,000 for the ALS Association of Philadelphia, which is the club's primary charity. Since adopting ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) in 1984, the Phillies and Phillies Charities have raised over $9.4 million for ALS research and patient services. Also, Phillies Charities raised an additional $206,000 in 2007, most of which was donated through its Discretionary Fund to local, non-profit organizations.

Among the groups that benefited from the Phillies and Phillies Charities are the American Heart Association, Black Alliance for Educational Options, Philabundance, Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, Boy Scouts of America, the Junior Baseball Federation, Police Athletic League, Boys & Girls Clubs, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Philadelphia Futures, Spanish-Speaking Council of Philadelphia, Arthritis Foundation of Philadelphia and Philadelphia Reads.

The Phillies are proud of their rich history of player and staff community involvement over the years. Jamie Moyer was named the 2007 winner of the Phillies Community Service Award for his contributions to the community last season. Additionally, Pat Burrell, Greg Dobbs, Adam Eaton, Ryan Howard, Ryan Madson, Jimmy Rollins, Chase Utley and Shane Victorino were among the many current Phillies who donated time and money to a variety of charities.

Not to be overlooked are the players' wives, who also volunteer their time and efforts to raise dollars for various charities. In 2007, the wives hosted two charity events that raised a combined $64,000 for the Linda Creed Breast Cancer Foundation and the Pennsylvania SPCA. Additionally, the wives play a significant role in the Phillies Phestival each year.

Phillies front office employees also annually give of their time, money and efforts in several ways. Virtually the entire front office staff volunteers to work the annual Phillies Phestival for ALS. The staff also prepares and serves a holiday dinner for the homeless each year, gives to the United Way and participates in numerous charity events.

Education and literacy are at the forefront of the Phillies' community efforts. "Phillies Phundamentals" is an after-school program started by the club in January 2001 which runs year-round in several inner-city recreation centers. The program, which targets at-risk children, uses baseball concepts to make learning fun for kids. Additionally, children from the program are brought to a Phillies game and get the opportunity to meet a player. In the fall of 2004, the Phillies started the popular "Be A Phanatic About Reading" program, which reaches thousands of elementary students in Philadelphia public schools.

The Phillies annually support many education-based programs, including Major League Baseball's "Breaking Barriers," the Philadelphia Free Library Reading Program, the Philadelphia School District reading program and the Multiple Sclerosis READaTHON. Also, the "Phillies Harmony Fan Club," which was started in January 2003, uses baseball to provide recreational and educational activities for physically and mentally disabled children and adults.

For the past 14 years, former Phillies pitcher Dickie Noles has been an invaluable member of the organization, speaking annually to thousands of school-aged children on the dangers of drugs and alcohol and the importance of education. A certified drug and alcohol counselor, Noles visits dozens of schools each year.

The Phillies are also committed to providing the underprivileged youth of Philadelphia the opportunity to play organized baseball through the Rookie and RBI League programs. Rookie and RBI Leagues are designed not only to encourage inner-city children (from ages 6-18) to play baseball, but also to teach them the value of teamwork and sportsmanship. Combined, the programs involve more than 7,000 boys and girls yearly, making it one of the largest RBI and Rookie League programs in the country. In addition, the Phillies also initiated and host three local amateur baseball tournaments. The Carpenter Cup is designed to give exposure to the top tri-state area high school baseball and softball players while the Liberty Bell Classic is an annual Division I college tournament. The Giles Cup, started in 2001, is a tournament for Division II colleges.

Jamie Moyer was the Phillies Community Service Award winner for 2007. He received his award from former Phillies outfielder Garry Maddox prior to a game last September.

If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m. it will be considered a night game. Two-night doubleheaders shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 1/2 or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d)... A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

-The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

-The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

YEAR OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

QUALIFYING MARKS

Fielding Championship: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

RAIN RULES

The right to postpone the playing of a game is vested in the home club with the exception of the final series between two clubs beginning on or after June 1, at which time the responsibility shifts to the Umpire-in-Chief. Once a game has started, the Umpire-in-Chief has sole authority to determine if a game should be suspended, when it can be resumed or if it should be terminated because of bad weather or unfit playing conditions. The Official Playing Rules provide that when a game has been temporarily suspended, umpires must wait at least 30 minutes before calling the game.

Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.
