IN MEMORIAM

For 53 years, Jim Fregosi made the world of Major League Baseball a better place. Whether as a player for 18 years, a manager for 15 years or in other roles, Jim was a larger than life figure with a booming personality and everyone knew when he walked into a room. A six-time All-Star shortstop, Jim brought his many talents to the California Angels, New York Mets, Pittsburgh Pirates and Texas Rangers. Off the field, he shared his baseball acumen with the St. Louis Cardinals, San Francisco Giants and most recently the Atlanta Braves. As a manager, he was praised for being a father figure to players on the Angels, Chicago White Sox and Toronto Blue Jays, but perhaps his biggest impact came in Philadelphia. Jim guided the Phillies for six years (1991-96), including that magical summer of 1993, when the team that had finished last the year before made it all the way to Game 6 of the World Series. To a man, almost every player on that club called him the best manager they'd ever played for. Dave Hollins, his third baseman on the 1993 team, may have summed up Jim Fregosi best, calling him "a man's man, a player's manager, but most importantly, a great friend."

DAVID MONTGOMERY

General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer

David Montgomery's first association with the Phillies was as a young fan growing up in Philadelphia, attending hundreds of games at Connie Mack Stadium. He realized every baseball fan's dream when he started working for the club in 1971, just in time for the opening of the new Veterans Stadium.

After graduating with an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, Montgomery began his career in the Phillies Sales Office selling season and group tickets. He advanced to positions as marketing director and then director of sales before becoming executive vice president after the 1981 season.

He was elevated to chief operating officer in 1992. In 1994, Montgomery was designated as co-general partner and acquired an ownership interest in the team. On June 20, 1997, he succeeded Bill Giles as general partner, president and chief executive officer.

Montgomery's association with the Phillies from Connie Mack to Veterans Stadium has moved to Citizens Bank Park, which opened in April 2004. Under his leadership, the Phillies constructed new state-of-the-art facilities in both Philadelphia and Clearwater, Fla., with the 2004 opening of Bright House Networks Field, the home of Phillies Spring Training and the Clearwater Threshers.

During his 43 years in the game, Montgomery has been active in a wide range of areas for Major League Baseball. He is presently vice chair of the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Enterprises (formerly MLB Properties) and is a member of MLB's Executive Council. In addition, he serves on the board of MLB Network. Montgomery is also a member of MLB's Schedule Committee and Labor Policy Committee as well as the Commissioner's Special Committee for On-Field Matters.

Locally, Montgomery remains an active alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania where he served as a trustee. He currently serves on the university's Board of Overseers of the Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts. He is a past member and former chair of the policy board of WXPN Radio -- 88.5FM, the university's member-supported radio station. In October 2009, Montgomery received the Penn Alumni Award of Merit in recognition of his dedication and service to the university.

In addition to his Penn activities, Montgomery is the current chairman of the Philadelphia Sports Congress and is a member of the board of directors of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce. He also serves on the board of Need in Deed, a nonprofit service-learning organization working with children in Philadelphia public schools. He is a past board chairman of both the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and the Woodlynde School, a private K-12 school in Strafford, Pa.

PAL presented Montgomery and the Phillies with the Police Athletic League Award in May 2008 in appreciation of his and the ballclub's longtime support of PAL and commitment to Philadelphia youth. In June 2009, Montgomery and the Phillies received the Vision for Philadelphia Award from Philadelphia Hospitality. Montgomery represented the ballclub in May 2012 when the Phillies were honored as community champions by the Alzheimer's Association Delaware Valley Chapter. He continues to serve, along with H.F. "Gerry" Lenfest, as an honorary co-chair for the Children's Scholarship Fund Philadelphia's Campaign for 10,000 Children. In 2013 the Children's Scholarship Fund Philadelphia recognized the Phillies as their Corporate Citizen of the Year. Montgomery also serves as a co-chair of the annual "Get in the Game" fundraiser for Philadelphia Futures, a program that helps inner-city students achieve their dream of a college education.

Under Montgomery's leadership, the Phillies continue to broaden their community outreach, supporting hundreds of charities and nonprofit groups through contributions and other assistance provided by Phillies Charities, Inc., the club's charitable arm. Two keystones of the Phillies' charitable endeavors are the Phillies Phestival, held each season in support of the ALS Association – Greater Philadelphia Chapter, and the annual Phillies Holiday Dinner, prepared and served by front office staff, at the Bethesda Project's "Our Brother's Place," a homeless facility in North Philadelphia.

The ballclub is also very active on the education front with the sponsorship of "Be A Phanatic About Reading" and Phillies Phundamentals, youth programs aimed at combining fun and learning with baseball. In addition, Philadelphia's boys and girls are learning about the game and playing baseball through the Phillies-sponsored RBI and Rookie League programs.

Montgomery grew up in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia. He is a graduate of the William Penn Charter School (1964) where he received the Alumni Award of Merit in 2005 and the University of Pennsylvania (1968) where he majored in history. He received his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the fall of 1970.

David and his wife Lyn make their home in the Wyndmoor section of Philadelphia. They have three children, Harry, Sam and Susa, one granddaughter, Elizabeth, and one grandson, Cameron.

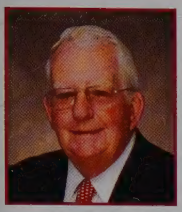

OWNERSHIP

The Phillies is a limited partnership formed in 1981. None of the longtime partners owns as much as 50% of the partnership. David Montgomery is the general partner, with complete management authority.

BILL GILES
Chairman

Baseball has been Bill Giles' life. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was president and general manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and president of the National League (1951-69). Giles spent much of his childhood with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati and got his first job in baseball as a teenager doing all kinds of odds and ends in the Reds' Public Relations Department.

From that inauspicious beginning, Giles went on to establish his own impressive baseball career. He has held various positions with two National League teams, Houston and Philadelphia, and served on numerous committees in baseball while being one of Philadelphia's most visible community activists. Currently chairman of the Phillies, Giles was appointed honorary National League president early in the 2001 season, the first father-son combination at that level in baseball history. His appointment by Commissioner Bud Selig is a testimony of his stature in the game. In January 2010, he was given the Bud Selig Executive Leadership Award for lifetime achievement in baseball from the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation. Giles is also a member of the Veterans Committee of baseball's Hall of Fame.

Following graduation from Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45s. While in Houston, Giles served as traveling secretary, publicity director, director of public relations and promotions and vice president. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as vice president, business operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to executive vice president.

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group that purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained president of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to chairman. In the summer of 2001, Giles was nominated to serve as honorary president of the National League, a role in which he represents the NL at the All-Star Game and postseason play.

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: chairman emeritus of the board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past president of the Boy Scouts of America and the Corporate Alliance for Drug Education; on the boards of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, the Police Athletic League and the Salvation Army; and a member of the Union League, Rotary Club and the visitors boards of the Temple University Medical School and Temple University Journalism School.

He has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996), Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc.; the American Heart Association's Man of the Year; the Team Leadership Award from the Tug McGraw Foundation (2006); Crescent Award from Rosemont College (2010) and Man of the Year by Chamounix (2010).

Born in Rochester, N.Y., Giles resides in Villanova, Pa., with his wife Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Michael and his wife Nanette have twins, daughter Lowell (Lowie) and son William (Will). Joe and his wife Paula have four children, Caroline, Dana, Molly and Max. Chris and his wife Amy have two children, Eliza and Warren.

Giles wrote a book about his baseball career entitled Pouring Six Beers at a Time: And Other Stories from a Lifetime in Baseball and co-authored a new book about the business of baseball entitled Bill Giles and Baseball, which will be available this spring.

EXECUTIVES

DAVID BUCK
Senior Vice President, Marketing and Advertising Sales

David Buck, a lifelong Phillies fan with over 25 years of experience with the club, was promoted to senior vice president, marketing and advertising sales, in February of 2007. In this role, David oversees the Phillies marketing department, encompassing advertising sales, events, fan development, broadcasting, video services, advertising, merchandising and promotions.

Prior to his promotion, David was vice president of advertising sales for eight seasons. He oversaw the transition from Veterans Stadium to Citizens Bank Park from a sponsorship perspective, and helped conceive and implement the strategy of bringing all advertising elements (television, radio, signage, print and promotions) under the control of the Phillies. Additionally, David led the club's team that secured the 25-year naming rights partnership with Citizens Bank.

Born in Abington, Pa., David attended Springfield High School and graduated from Lafayette College in 1986 with a BA in history. He stays connected to Lafayette by hosting students each offseason in an externship program. He also serves on the board of directors of the Please Touch Museum, a children's museum located in Philadelphia, on the board of Hobbs & Towne, Inc., an executive search firm specializing in the clean tech, alternative energy and sustainability fields, and is a member of the St. Joseph's University Sports Marketing Advisory Board.

David and his wife Nancy live in Broad Axe, Pa., with their three children, Andrew, Katie and Jake.

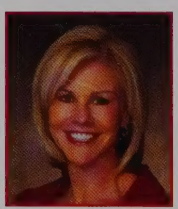

MICHAEL STILES
Senior Vice President, Administration and Operations

Michael Stiles was hired by the Phillies as vice president for administration and operations in April 2001. He became a senior vice president on February 1, 2007.

As an attorney since 1971, Michael Stiles held significant positions in public service for almost 30 years, most recently serving from 1993 until 2001 as the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. He also spent 10 years as an elected trial judge in the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County and 12 years as a trial attorney and supervisor in the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office, the last two of which he served as first assistant district attorney.

Born in Philadelphia, Michael obtained his undergraduate degree in political science from the University of Pennsylvania and his law degree, with honors, from Villanova University School of Law. He is the past chairperson of the Woodlynde School Board of Directors, and a former member of the board of directors of United Way for Southeastern Pennsylvania and the board of trustees of Thomas Jefferson University. He presently serves as a member of the executive board for the Committee of Seventy.

Michael and his wife Leslie live in the East Falls section of Philadelphia. They have two adult children, Jacqueline and Eric; three grandchildren, Jack, Whitney and Cole; and a golden retriever, Mulligan.

BONNIE CLARK
Vice President, Communications

Bonnie Clark joined the Phillies in April 2008 as vice president, communications. In her role, she oversees baseball communications, player relations, community outreach, publicity, crisis and issues management, business communications, creative services and publications. She is also part of the committee that coordinates the club's social media initiatives. Since joining the club, Bonnie has focused on extending the Phillies brand beyond traditional media relations boundaries of sports press and securing exposure for the franchise on the Food Network, Bravo, Discovery and other mainstream media outlets.

Prior to joining the Phillies, Bonnie worked for multi-media retailer QVC for close to nine years where she served as director of corporate affairs and vice president of public relations. In her role there, she was responsible for creating public relations and media relations strategies that increased awareness and enhanced the brand. She also spearheaded all crisis and issues management for the company.

Before QVC, Bonnie worked with Tierney Communications in Philadelphia where she served as associate vice president for the agency's consumer public relations division and was responsible for developing and implementing communications strategies for consumer clients. She also held various positions of increasing responsibility with Golin/Harris Communications in Philadelphia and at New York agencies M. Silver Associates and Ogilvy & Mather Public Relations, where she developed and implemented public relations campaigns for industry leaders and internationally respected consumer brands.

Bonnie graduated from Delaware Valley High School in Milford, Pa., where she was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2013. She received her bachelor's degree in journalism from West Virginia University in 1986.

RUBEN AMARO JR.

Senior Vice President & General Manager

Ruben Amaro Jr. was named senior vice president & general manager on November 3, 2008, after 10 years as assistant GM under Pat Gillick (2006-08) and Ed Wade (1999-2005). In his first four years as GM, the Phillies won three NL East division titles, one NL pennant and had the best record in the National League at 373-275 (.576), trailing only the New York Yankees in all of baseball (390-258, .602)

Over a two-year span (2010-11), Ruben constructed a team that had the best records (97-65 & 102-60, respectively) in the major leagues. Prior to 2010, the Phillies had never posted the best record over the course of a major league season.

In his first year as GM, the Phillies won the National League pennant, making it to the seventh World Series in club history, and the team's 93 wins were the most in 16 years (97 wins in 1993). Following the season, Ruben was named Executive of the Year by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association (PSWA) and the Phillies were honored as both the Team of the Year by the PSWA and Organization of the Year by Baseball America.

Adhering to an old-school philosophy that pitching and defense wins games, in his first two years on the job, Ruben acquired via trade and free agency four 20-game winners – Pedro Martinez, Cliff Lee (twice), Roy Halladay and Roy Oswalt. Three of the four – Martinez, Lee and Halladay – combined for six Cy Young Awards.

Born and raised in Philadelphia, Ruben was a batboy for the Phillies from 1980-83 when his father, Ruben Sr., a former shortstop with the club, was first base coach. He is a 1983 graduate of the William Penn Charter School, where he played both baseball and soccer. In 1987, he earned a BS degree in human biology from Stanford University and was a member of the 1987 NCAA Baseball Championship team.

After being selected by the Angels in the 11th round of the 1987 draft, Ruben made his major league debut with the club in 1991. Following that season, he was traded to his hometown Phillies, where he spent five of his final seven big league seasons (1992-93, 96-98). His only time away was 1994-95, when he played for Cleveland. Ruben played for both the 1993 NL Champion Phillies and the 1995 AL Champion Indians. In 1996, he ranked third among NL pinch-hitters with a .387 average. Following the 1998 season, Ruben moved into the Phillies front office as assistant general manager.

During his 10 years as assistant GM, Ruben was involved in 40-man roster decisions and major league free agent contract negotiations, including those players eligible for salary arbitration. He also aided in the decision-making process of major league players and staff, including trades, player movements and hirings.

The Amaro family (Ruben Jr., his father Ruben Sr. and his late grandfather Santos) were the 2001 winners of the Al Dia Latino Legends Award, given annually to a Hispanic player(s) in Phillies history. In addition to that honor, Ruben Jr. was inducted into the All-American Amateur Baseball Association Hall of Fame in July 2008. He is also a co-founder of the Richie Ashburn Foundation, which provides free baseball camps for 1,100 underprivileged children in the Delaware Valley and awards grants for area schools and colleges. In addition, he serves on the board for the Philadelphia chapter of the YMCA.

Ruben was born in Philadelphia, Pa., and currently lives in Yardley. He has two daughters, Andrea and Sophia. He and his father are the only father-son combination to ever play for the Phillies.

PAT GILLICK

Senior Advisor to the President/General Manager

Pat Gillick moved into his current position in November of 2008 after fulfilling his three-year contract as senior vice president & general manager of the Phillies and building the club into back-to-back NL Eastern Division Champions (2007-08) and 2008 World Champions. The championship was the third of his 27-year career as a major league general manager and the second in the history of the Phillies franchise.

On December 6, 2010, Pat was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame by the Expansion Era Committee. He became just the fourth individual elected whose career has been defined nearly exclusively as a team architect, joining Ed Barrow, Branch Rickey and George Weiss. Overall, he became the 32nd major league executive to be enshrined in the Hall of Fame. He was inducted on July 24, 2011, along with Roberto Almoar and Bert Blyleven. Pat was also named to the advisory board for SABR (Society for American Baseball Research) in the fall of 2011.

Prior to being named GM of the Phillies on November 2, 2005, Gillick held the same position with the Blue Jays (1978-94), Orioles (1996-98) and Mariners (2000-03). His career record as a GM stands at 2,276-1,993 (.533), including at least 91 wins in six of his final nine seasons. His resume includes two World Series championships (1992-93) and five AL East titles (1985, 1989, 1991-93) with Toronto, one AL East title (1997) and one wild card berth (1996) with Baltimore, one AL West title (2001) and one wild card berth (2000) with Seattle and one World Series championship (2008) and two NL East titles (2007-08) with Philadelphia. Pat's records with each team were 1,352-1,297 (.510) in Toronto, 265-221 (.545) in Baltimore and 393-255 (.606) in Seattle. During his four years in Seattle (2000-03), no team in Major League Baseball had a better record. With Philadelphia, his record was 266-220 (.547).

The 2014 season marks Pat's 57th in professional baseball. From 1963 through 1976, he held numerous front office positions with the Astros and Yankees, including assistant farm director, regional scouting coordinator, director of scouting and coordinator of player development and scouting.

In August of 1976, Pat was named the vice president of player personnel for the expansion Toronto Blue Jays, becoming the franchise's first general manager at age 38. His title was changed to vice president of baseball operations on November 24, 1977, and then executive vice president, baseball, on September 24, 1984.

Pat stepped down as Blue Jays GM after the 1994 season and served as a consultant to the team in 1995.

Following the 1995 season, Pat had a brief retirement before being hired as Baltimore's GM on November 27, 1995. In his first two seasons with Baltimore – 1996-97 – the Orioles advanced to the ALCS.

When his three-year contract with Baltimore expired after the 1998 season, Pat accepted a position as the chair of the 1999 Pan Am Games baseball team steering committee.

On October 25, 1999, he was hired by Seattle as executive vice president & general manager, baseball operations. Once again, as in Baltimore, Pat's teams advanced to the ALCS in his first two years (2000-01), including tying a major league record with 116 wins in 2001.

Prior to joining the Phillies, Pat had spent the previous two seasons (2004-05) with Seattle as special consultant to the executive VP/GM.

Pat was born in Chico, Calif. In 1954 – at age 16 – he graduated from Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks, Calif., where he played baseball and football. He enrolled at the University of Southern California in the fall and graduated in 1958 at the age of 20 with a bachelor's degree in business. Pat pitched at USC and was a member of the NCAA College World Series championship team in 1958.

Pat and his wife Doris reside in Seattle, Wash. The couple has one daughter, Kimberley.

Prior to joining the Orioles, he spent 11 seasons in a similar capacity with the Tampa Bay Rays, which he joined as director of baseball administration on July 27, 1995, only four months after the franchise was awarded and two and a half years before the organization would field a major league team. In 2000, the Mariners' minor league system posted the highest winning percentage in organized baseball. At the conclusion of the season, the Topps Company recognized them as the Organization of the Year.

Benny joined the Mariners in March 1987 as a part-time scout. He was promoted to full-time scout in 1988 and then to midwest scouting supervisor (1989-91). CELEBRATING THE TOP MOMENTS AT CITIZENS BANK PARK

September 27, 2008 – The Phillies turn a game-ending, division-clinching double play to secure their second straight NL East title.

2013 SEASON RECAP

Philadelphia went 73-89 (.451), marking their first losing season since 2002 (80-81)… The Phillies had posted a .500 or better record in each of their previous 10 seasons (2003-12), which matched the longest such streak in team history (other: 1975-84)… Philadelphia finished in 4th place in the NL East, 23.0 games behind the Atlanta Braves, which was their worst finish in both place and games back since the 2000 season (5th place, 30.0 games back)… The Phillies used 51 different players on their roster (26 position players, 25 pitchers), the most for the club in the last 13 seasons (2000, also 51 players)… Philadelphia had 16 different players spend time on the disabled list for a total of 18 stints… Overall, the team batted .248 with 140 home runs and 610 runs scored… Phillies pitchers combined for a 4.32 ERA (27th among all ML clubs), which included a 4.41 ERA for the starters and a 4.13 ERA for the relievers.

MANAGERIAL CHANGE

On August 16, the Phillies announced a managerial change, replacing Charlie Manuel with third base coach Ryne Sandberg (on an interim basis)… Manuel, 69, spent nearly nine seasons (2005-13) at the helm of the Phillies and went 780-636 (.551), guiding the club to more wins than any other manager in franchise history… Under his stewardship from 2007-11, the club won five consecutive National League East Division titles, two NL pennants and a World Series championship… Also in that timeframe, the Phillies posted the best record in the NL (473-337) and 2nd-best record overall in Major League Baseball, trailing the New York Yankees (478-332) by only five games… In the postseason, Manuel's Phillies teams went 27-19 (.587)… On August 12, 2013, Manuel became the 59th manager in major league history to notch 1,000 wins… Prior to being named manager for the 2005 season, Manuel spent two years (2003-04) working for the Phillies as a special assistant to then-GM Ed Wade.

SANDBERG NAMED MANAGER

On September 22, the interim tag was removed and Ryne Sandberg was named the 52nd manager of the Philadelphia Phillies, signing a three-year contract through 2016 with a club option for 2017… After taking over the helm as interim manager on August 16, Sandberg and the Phillies went 20-22 (.476) in their final 42 games… Sandberg spent the previous six years as a manager in the minor leagues for single-A Peoria (2007-08), double-A Tennessee (2009), triple-A Iowa (2010) and triple-A Lehigh Valley (2011-12)… "Ryno" was named 2010 Manager of the Year for the Pacific Coast League and 2011 Minor League Manager of the Year by Baseball America.

SECOND-HALF SWOON

At the All-Star break, the Phillies were an even 48-48 on the season, trailing the Atlanta Braves by only 6.5 games in the NL East standings… In the second half, however, Philadelphia went 25-41 (.379), which was the 2nd-worst winning percentage among all NL teams (CHI, .348, 24-45)… Over that stretch, the Phillies ranked 27th in the majors in team batting average (.235), 28th in slugging % (.357), 29th in walks (177) and on-base % (.298) and last in hits (517)… Phils pitchers ranked 28th in the majors in both ERA (4.73) and opponent's average (.271) in the second half as well.

TURNSTILE TRAFFIC

The Phillies reached the 3-million mark in home total attendance for the 7th straight season (2007-13) and averaged over 30,000 per game at home for the 10th year in a row (2004-13)… Overall, Philadelphia ranked 4th in the NL and 8th in MLB in both total home attendance (3,012,403) and average home attendance (37,190) in 2013… In the NL, only the Los Angeles Dodgers (3,743,527), St. Louis Cardinals (3,369,769) and San Francisco Giants (3,369,106) drew more.

WALK IT OFF

The Phillies had 12 walk-off wins in 2013, their most since the 1991 season (13)… Among all MLB clubs, Philadelphia tied for 2nd in walk-off wins with CIN and SF, trailing only ARI and TB, who each had 13… The Phillies recorded five walk-off wins over a stretch of 13 home games from August 18 through September 7 (8/18 vs LAD, 8/21 & 8/22 vs COL, 8/23 vs ARI, 9/7 vs ATL).

IN A PINCH

In 2013, the Phillies finished tied for 1st in the NL in pinch hits (52)… Their pinch-hitters also ranked T-3rd in the NL in game-winning RBI (7), T-4th in doubles (10) and go-ahead RBI (7), 5th in average (.222), T-5th in total bases (76) and 7th in RBI (29).

HOME IS WHERE THE HEART IS

The Phillies went 43-38 (.531) at Citizens Bank Park, marking the 12th time in the last 13 seasons that the club finished with a winning record at home (exception: 2012, 40-41)… The club ranked 4th among all NL teams at home in HR (84) and extra-base hits (235), 5th in runs (344) and runs/game (4.25), 6th in triples (18) and 8th in doubles (133)… Phils pitchers finished 12th in the NL in home ERA (4.08) and 13th in opponent's average (.254).

ROAD RAGE

Philadelphia finished 30-51 (.370) in their 81 road games, ending a streak of nine straight seasons in which the Phillies posted a record above .500 on the road (2004-12)… Their .370 road win percentage ranked 26th among all major league clubs… After the All-Star break, the Phillies did not win a single road series (0-9-1), going 8-24 in their 32 road games, which was the worst road win % in MLB (.250)… During that period, Philadelphia scored a ML-low 87 runs on the road while batting just .222 (29th in MLB)… Additionally, Phils pitchers posted a 5.63 ERA (165 ER, 264.0 IP) and allowed a .301 opponent's batting average on the road in the second half, both worst in the majors.

STARS AND PINSTRIPES

Two Phillies were selected to the 2013 National League All-Star Team: OF Domonic Brown and LHP Cliff Lee… Brown was selected by his peers via the player ballot in what was his first career All-Star nod… In the first half of the season, Brown batted .273 with 16 doubles, 23 home runs and 67 RBI in 95 games… He struck out in his only at-bat of the All-Star Game and played 4.0 innings in left field… Lee was named to the team by NL manager Bruce Bochy after going 10-3 with a 2.86 ERA in 19 starts before the break… It was his 4th career All-Star selection (2008, 2010-11, 2013) and 2nd as a Phillie… Lee pitched the 5th inning and allowed 1 ER on 2 hits (19 pitches, 13 strikes) in the AL's 3-0 win at Citi Field in New York.

LOUISVILLE SLUGGISH

Philadelphia completed the 2013 season with a run differential of -139, worst in the NL (outscored 749 to 610)… Their 610 runs scored ranked T-26th among all MLB teams and were the club's fewest in a single season since 1988 (597 runs)… Only MIA (513), CWS (598) and CHI (602) scored fewer… The Phillies also finished 20th in MLB in hits (1,355), 21st in average (.248) and slugging % (.384), T-21st in extra-base hits (427), 23rd in HR (140), 24th in on-base % (.306) and T-26th in runs/game (3.77).

SHUTOUT SEASON

The Phillies were shut out 15 times in 2013, their most in a single season since 1989 (16 SHO)… Philadelphia's 15 shutouts were tied for 4th-most in the majors with MIN, trailing only MIA (18), ATL (17) and CHI (16).

QUALITY CONTROL

Philadelphia's pitching staff threw 91 quality starts in their 162 games (56.2%), tied for 5th-most in the NL and tied for 9th-most in the majors… The Phils went 57-34 (.626) as a team in those 91 starts… Since the beginning of the 2011 season, the Phillies have thrown 10 more quality starts than any other team (2nd: CIN, 288)… The Phils finished T-2nd with 99 quality starts in 2012 and they led the majors with 108 quality starts in 2011.

COMING UP SHORT

Phillies starting pitchers threw 5.0 innings or less 51 times in 162 total games (31.5%), their most in a single season since 2006 (54 times)… Philadelphia went 9-42 (.176) as a team in those 51 games with a 10.09 starter's ERA (228 ER, 203.1 IP)… In each of the previous two seasons (2011-12), Philadelphia's starters threw 5.0 innings or less only 30 times in their 162 games (19%).

ROOKIES RISING

The Phillies had 15 different rookies appear in at least one game in 2013, the most for the club since 1997 when they had 16 different rookies over the course of the season… Philadelphia's 2013 rookie class included catchers Cameron Rupp and Steven Lerud, infielder Cody Asche, outfielders Cesar Hernandez, Darin Ruf and Steve Susdorf, and pitchers Phillippe Aumont, Tyler Cloyd, Justin De Fratus, Luis Garcia, Ethan Martin, Jonathan Pettibone, J.C. Ramirez, Mauricio Robles and B.J. Rosenberg.

ONE FOR THE RECORD BOOKS

On August 24, 2013, the Phillies played their longest game (in terms of time) in franchise history… The 18-inning affair, a 12-7 loss to the Arizona Diamondbacks, lasted seven hours and six minutes, marking the longest time of game in MLB since the Astros outlasted the Dodgers, 5-4, on June 3, 1989, in a 22-inning game that lasted seven hours and 14 minutes… It was also the longest time of game in franchise history for the Diamondbacks (previous: 5:53 on 5/29/10 at SF)… The Phillies used 10 relief pitchers in the contest for a combined 17.1 innings, setting a new club record for relief innings in a single game… The last ML team to get 17.1 IP from their relievers in a single game was the Milwaukee Brewers in a 25-innning affair with the White Sox on May 8, 1984 (also 17.1 IP)… Philadelphia was forced to use OF Casper Wells and INF John McDonald as relief pitchers in the game, marking the first time a ML team used two position players as relief pitchers in the same game since April 17, 2010, when the Cardinals used INF Felipe Lopez and OF Joe Mather against the Mets… The last such game for the Phillies occurred on July 22, 1945 at Wrigley Field when they sent both 1B Jimmie Foxx and OF Rene Monteagudo to the mound.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

The city had several teams of different nicknames as far back as the 1860s, including a team called the Athletics in the National Association, a league that folded in 1875. Several of the stronger teams, including the Athletics, formed the National League, as it is still known today. The other charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals and Louisville Grays.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5, before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until 1883. Following the 1882 season, the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings were disbanded. The NL wanted a team in Philadelphia so a franchise was awarded to Alfred J. Reach, a former player and Philadelphia sporting goods founder, and attorney Col. John I. Rogers.

Starting a ballclub from scratch, the new owners named the team "Phillies," because they wanted the club to be identified with the city of Philadelphia. The Phillies endure as the oldest, continuous, one-nickname, one-city franchise in all of professional sports, an extraordinary tradition.

Alfred Reach

FIRST PHILLIES GAME

The Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, at 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,934 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 138 million spectators have attended games in the city.

Since none of the players from the Worcester team were part of the sale, the first Phillies roster was made up of ex-minor league players and players from other NL teams. The team finished last, 17-81-1, and total attendance was a reported 55,992.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 12,500). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

Starting in 1901, the Phillies shared the Philadelphia baseball scene as the American League was formed. One of the eight AL teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack. Initially, the A's were more successful and popular. A little more than a half-century later, the team was moved to Kansas City, leaving the Phillies as Philadelphia's lone major league ballclub.

Pat Moran

The Phillies' first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former reserve catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games. Woodrow Wilson became the first President to throw out the first ball at a World Series game. The historic moment took place prior to Game 2, Oct. 9, 1915, in Philadelphia.

Alexander was one of three Hall of Famers on the 1915 pennant-winners. Left-handed pitcher Eppa Rixey and shortstop Dave "Beauty" Bancroft were the others.

The A's, under the stability of one owner, the Shibe family and later Mack, continued to do well, winning back-to-back World Championships in 1929-30. The Phillies, meanwhile, struggled for years under numerous owners, but had a star in outfielder Chuck Klein. The future Hall of Famer began a brilliant career with the Phillies in 1928.

Baker Bowl, once a magnificent ballpark, began to deteriorate. Following 51 years in that park, the Phillies moved to Shibe Park, the home of the A's, on July 4, 1938. In 1953, Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's longtime manager. Following 11 eighth-place finishes in 23 seasons, the A's left town after the 1954 season. The Phillies continued to play their home games in Connie Mack Stadium through 1970.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington, Del., bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as the Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but usage began to drop off in the following years and the Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system. The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team nicknamed the Whiz Kids won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four games. The Whiz Kids had two players that would eventually be enshrined in Cooperstown, pitcher Robin Roberts and outfielder Richie Ashburn.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

As early as that year, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened on April 10, 1971, with the Phillies defeating the Montreal Expos, 4-1.

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as club president in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Led by manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, October 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, executive vice president under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to their fourth Fall Classic by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1983 NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

The next time the Phillies found themselves in the playoffs was 1993, under manager Jim Fregosi. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic. However, a very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Toronto Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

CITIZENS BANK PARK OPENS

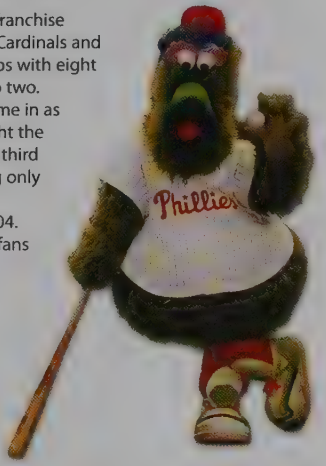

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on September 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils. The following season, the Phillies moved into Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark. The outfield concourse was christened "Ashburn Alley," named after the Phillies' beloved Hall of Fame outfielder and broadcaster.

After four second-place finishes, the Phillies won the NL East in 2007, their first division title in 14 years. With Charlie Manuel at the helm, the Phillies overcame a seven-game deficit with 17 regular-season games left to play to edge the Mets on the last day of the season. However, they were swept in the first round of the playoffs by the Colorado Rockies.

The following year the Phillies cemented their place in history by winning their second World Championship. After defeating the Milwaukee Brewers in the Division Series and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Championship Series, Brad Lidge's strikeout of Tampa Bay's Eric Hinske on October 29, 2008, started the biggest block party in the history of Philadelphia. Two days later, the parade down Broad Street was attended by an estimated 2 million fans. After a stop at Lincoln Financial Field, it culminated with an unforgettable on-field ceremony at Citizens Bank Park, where the Phillies were a perfect 7-0 in the playoffs.

In 2009, the Phillies made their second straight World Series appearance, a first in franchise history. It was the club's fifth appearance in the Fall Classic in 30 years, matching the Cardinals and Braves for the most in the NL during that period of time. The Yankees, who led all clubs with eight World Series appearances in the same time frame, defeated the Phillies, four games to two.

The Phillies recorded a franchise-record 102 victories in 2011 and for the second time in as many seasons, they led the majors in wins, a first in club history. That year also brought the team's run of consecutive division titles to five, tied with the Oakland Athletics for the third longest streak in the Divisional Era (since 1969) among all major league teams, trailing only the Yankees (9) and Braves (14).

Fan support at Citizens Bank Park has been strong since the ballpark opened in 2004. Through their first 10 seasons at the ballpark, the club drew better than three million fans eight different times, including the record-setting mark of 3,680,718 in 2011. Highlighting that run of was a streak of 257 consecutive regular-season sellouts – a National League record – at Citizens Bank Park from July 7, 2009 to August 6, 2012.

Homegrown talent was instrumental in the 1950 pennant-winners and the great 1976-83 era. That same formula has provided Phillies fans with the recent run of excellence. Jimmy Rollins, Chase Utley, Ryan Howard, Carlos Ruiz and Cole Hamels are all products of the Phillies scouting and player development department.

One other talented homegrown character is the Phillie Phanatic, who debuted on April 25, 1978. As with the baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a Philadelphia tradition.

ALL-TIME ROSTER

Includes all players who have participated in one or more official National League games with the Phillies from 1883-2013, a total of 1,934 players. The most common names in Phillies history have been Miller (14), Johnson (11), Smith (11) and Jones (9).

PHILLIES VS. CINCINNATI REDS

(Phillies win series, 3 games to 0)

Game 1 - October 6

In his postseason debut, Roy Halladay became the second pitcher in MLB history to throw a no-hitter in the playoffs in a 4-0 win over Cincinnati. Halladay narrowly missed throwing his second perfect game of the calendar year as he walked one batter, Jay Bruce, in the fifth inning. After taking a 1-0 lead in the first inning, the Phillies extended their lead in the second on an RBI single by Halladay and a two-run base hit by Shane Victorino. The win was the Phillies' seventh consecutive victory in Game 1 of a postseason series, tying the National League record.

Philadelphia took a 2-0 series lead in a wild, 7-4 victory at Citizens Bank Park. The series appeared to be heading to Cincinnati tied at one game apiece when the Reds took a 4-0 lead into the bottom of the fifth inning. The Phillies offense, however, responded and cut Cincinnati's lead to one (4-3) after six. In the seventh, Philadelphia plated three unearned runs to take the lead and the game. Reds outfielder Jay Bruce lost a fly ball hit by Jimmy Rollins in the lights with runners on first and second which allowed both runners to score. Five of the seven runs scored by the Phils were unearned and both teams combined to commit six errors in the game, which set a League Division Series single-game record.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Greg Luzinski received the award in 1978 and Garry Maddox in 1986. Other past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken Jr.

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Bill Giles

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies organization.

Bill Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was president and general partner until 1997 when he became chairman.

Larry Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball with the Phillies. He also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system before his death in 2007.

WALL OF FAME

The tradition of honoring alumni of both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics began in 1978 at Veterans Stadium in a 200 Level display originally called the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame. Former Phillies continue to be honored at Citizens Bank Park in the Wall of Fame display located in the Memory Lane section of Ashburn Alley. Toyota is the sponsor of Memory Lane and the Wall of Fame.

Phillies players with five or more years of service are eligible. In addition, position players require a minimum of 700 games, while pitchers need a minimum of 180 games to be eligible. Managers and coaches need four or more years of service.

All candidates must be retired for three years before they can be eligible for the 15-man ballot. Consideration is given to longevity, ability, character, and contributions to the Phillies and baseball, plus special achievements.

REMEMBERING THE A'S

From 1978 through the final year of the Vet, 2003, members of the A's were also selected yearly. The A's were a member of the American League in Philadelphia from 1901 through the 1954 season when the franchise was moved to Kansas City.

A total of 25 former A's were part of the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, starting with Connie Mack, their longtime manager/owner who was inducted posthumously in 1978.

A large statue of Connie Mack once stood at Connie Mack Stadium on the south side of Lehigh Avenue. During the 1971 inaugural season at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies relocated the statue to the corner of Broad Street and Pattison Avenue. The Phillies moved it again during the final construction stages of Citizens Bank Park in March of 2004.

Mack's statue is located on the west side of Citizens Bank Way. Names of the 25 A's players who were honored at the Vet's Hall of Fame display have been added to Mack's statue so that fans will forever remember the A's.

I worked for 7 years for two Major League organizations. When my son was diagnosed with Asberger's Disease his daily therapy sessions made it impossible to continue working. Recently divorced, I had nowhere else to turn for my mortgage, my bills or his therapy. A friend suggested that I contact B.A.T. about my situation. B.A.T. stepped in to help us get back on our feet.

TOM McCARTHY

Tom McCarthy is in the seventh year of his second tour of duty with the Phillies doing television play-by-play. In his first stint with the club he spent five seasons (2001-05) as the host of the pre- and post-game radio shows, while also doing radio play-by-play. He also hosted his own weekday afternoon-drive show on ESPN Radio 920 AM, which concentrated on local sports. He spent the 2006-07 seasons as a radio broadcaster with the New York Mets on WFAN before returning to the Phillies in November of 2007.

A graduate of The College of New Jersey (BA degree in communications), Tom spent six seasons with the Trenton Thunder, the former double-A affiliate of the Boston Red Sox. He was hired as director of public and media relations in 1993 and promoted to assistant general manager in 1996, while also working as one of the team's broadcasters, doing play-by-play on radio and television for CN8.

After the 1999 season, Tom left the Thunder to pursue a full-time career in broadcasting, creating the first local-driven show on ESPN Radio 1680 AM. He also used to work national shows for ESPN Radio.

Tom has done extensive broadcasting for collegiate sports in his career. He currently does NFL games for FOX, basketball and college football play-by-play for CBS College Sports Network (formerly CSTV) and NFL and college basketball games for Westwood One, after three years of doing the NFL with Sports USA Radio. Previously, he worked as the radio voice of the Saint Joseph's University men's basketball team (2004-09) and the play-by-play voice for Rutgers University football (2001-03), as well as Princeton University football (1995-2000) and men's basketball (1995-2003).

In 2000, Tom earned a Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award for his work on CN8 and is a two-time winner (2002 & 2004) of the Achievement in Radio Award for Best Local Sports Coverage. He also received the Radio/TV Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association in January 2007 and the Good Guy Award in 2009. He was inducted into the Trenton Baseball Hall of Fame in the summer of 2011 and had the radio booth at Trenton's Waterfront Park named after him. Last year, he was named the Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

Tom was born in Jersey City, N.J. He and his wife Meg live in Allentown, N.J., with their two sons, Patrick and Tommy, and two daughters, Maggie and Kerri.

JAMIE MOYER

Jamie Moyer joined the Phillies broadcast team in February 2014 after a 25-year major league career that saw him pitch until age 49. He spent five seasons (2006-10) with the Phillies, helping the club win four division titles, two National League pennants and a World Championship in 2008. His previous broadcast experience came in 2011 as an in-studio baseball analyst with ESPN while he recovered from Tommy John surgery.

A native of Souderton, Pa., and diehard Phillies fan, Jamie attended St. Joseph's University and was on hand for the Phillies World Series parade in 1980, watching his idol, Hall of Famer Steve Carlton, ride a float down Broad Street.

Jamie finished his on-field career at 269-209 with a 4.25 ERA in 696 games (638 starts) after being drafted by the Chicago Cubs in 1984. He was a two-time 20-game winner and was selected to the American League All-Star team in 2003, the same year he won the Roberto Clemente Award, an annual honor given to a player who combines strong play in the field with equally strong work in the community.

Off the field, Jamie and his wife Karen founded The Moyer Foundation in 2000, which supports programs that directly serve critical needs of children in severe distress. The Moyer Foundation created and funds Camp Erin, the largest network of free bereavement camps in the country for children and teens who are grieving a significant loss, and Camp Mariposa, for children affected by addiction in their families. Since its inception, the foundation has raised millions of dollars to help support hundreds of different programs that help children in distress in a variety of ways. The Moyer Foundation has offices in Philadelphia, Pa., and Seattle, Wash.

Jamie, Karen and their eight children live in San Diego, Calif.

MATT STAIRS

Matt Stairs returned to the Phillies in February of 2014 as a TV color analyst. A member of the Phillies' 2008 World Series Champions, Matt spent two seasons (2008-09) with the club during his 19-year major league career. He will always be most remembered by Phillies fans for his two-out, two-run pinch home run in Game 4 of the 2008 National League Championship Series at Dodger Stadium that gave the Phillies a 7-5 lead and eventual win.

After being signed by the Montreal Expos as an amateur free agent in 1989, Matt played for 12 major league teams in 13 different cities (Expos and Nationals), which is a major league record for position players, and finished his career with a .262 batting average, 265 home runs and 899 RBI in 1,895 games.

Following his playing days, Matt worked as an in-studio analyst for the New England Sports Network (NESN) and co-hosted programming on MLB Network Radio for Sirius/XM. In June 2012, Matt was inducted into the New Brunswick Sports Hall of Fame.

SCOTT FRANZKE

Scott Franzke made his Phillies debut in 2006, when he was named the pre- and post-game host for Phillies radio broadcasts and did radio play-by-play in the middle innings. In 2007, he took over as the main play-by-play commentator for Phillies radio broadcasts, working with Larry Andersen. The duo was honored at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, winning for Best Live Sports Event Coverage in 2007 and 2008. In addition, Scott was the winner of the 2010 Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year Award, given by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

A graduate of Southern Methodist University (SMU) in 1994 with a degree in broadcast journalism, Scott began his radio career as a talk show host with Prime Sports Radio, a national all-sports radio network based in Dallas. He worked for two seasons as the part-time pre- and post-game host for his hometown Texas Rangers (1997-98) before becoming the voice of the Kane County Cougars, a single-A affiliate of the Florida Marlins (1999-2001). In 2000, Scott covered the Summer Olympics in Sydney, Australia for Sporting News Radio. He spent four years (2002-05) in his second stint with the Rangers as the full-time studio host of the pre- and post-game shows and fill-in play-by-play announcer, winning the 2003 Katie Award for Best Radio Play-by-Play Sportscast from the Press Club of Dallas.

Scott was born in Dallas, Texas. He lives in Philadelphia with his wife Lori, son Gus, twin daughters Loretta and June, and their two dogs.

LARRY ANDERSEN

The 2014 season is Larry Andersen's 17th season in the booth serving as a color analyst for the Phillies' radio broadcasts.

Larry began his broadcast career with the Phillies in 1998. He had been offered a position on the Houston Astros' broadcast team in 1997 when Larry Dierker moved from the booth to become manager, but opted instead to become pitching coach for the Phillies' triple-A affiliate at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. In 2008 he and his partner Scott Franzke won for Best Live Sports Event Coverage at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, the second straight year they won that category.

A former relief pitcher who played 25 years of professional baseball, including 17 seasons in the major leagues with the Indians (1975-79), Mariners (1981-82), Phillies (1983-86; 93-94), Astros (1986-90), Red Sox (1990) and Padres (1991-92), Larry was 40-39 with 49 saves and a 3.15 ERA in 699 career games (1 start). In 1987, he pitched 101.2 innings, all in relief, and in 1989-90, he posted ERAs below 2.00 – 1.54 ERA in 1989 and 1.79 ERA in 1990.

Larry is famously known as being traded from the Astros to the Red Sox for Jeff Bagwell in August of 1990. He pitched in two World Series with the Phillies in 1983 and 1993 and in two League Championship Series, with Houston in 1986 and Boston in 1990. Larry holds the Phillies' club record for longest consecutive scoreless streak by a reliever (32.2 IP), set in 1984. It is also the third-longest among all Phillies pitchers, trailing Grover Alexander's 41.0 scoreless innings in 1911 and Cliff Lee's 34.0-inning streak in 2011.

After graduating from Interlake High School in Seattle, Wash., in 1971, he was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in the 7th round and made his major league debut with them in 1975. Following his playing career, Larry spent three seasons as a minor league pitching coach, first with double-A Reading (1995-96) and then Scranton (1997).

Born in Portland, Ore., Larry has two daughters, Angie and Tania, and one son, Chase. He and his wife Kristi live in Philadelphia.

JIM JACKSON

Jim Jackson is in his eighth season hosting the pre- and post-game shows on the Phillies Radio Network. In 2010 he added some play-by-play responsibilities and other broadcast assignments. He is also known to local sports fans as the television voice of the Philadelphia Flyers hockey team, having spent the past 21 years as the club's play-by-play broadcaster, two years on radio and the last 19 on television.

An eight-time Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award winner for sports play-by-play, Jim joined the Flyers organization in 1993 after serving as the radio voice of the Utica Devils (American Hockey League) for six seasons. In all, he has been involved in hockey play-by-play for over 20 years at various levels.

Jim has previous experience in baseball play-by-play. He was the radio voice of the Utica Blue Sox of the New York-Penn League from 1986-93 and spent the summer of 2005 broadcasting the Trenton Thunder in the Eastern League. In August of 2006, Jim was the television voice of the Cal Ripken World Series on the Outdoor Life Network. In addition, he has served as a part-time host on 610 WIP Sportsradio, authored a book, Walking Together Forever: The Broad Street Bullies, Then and Now, and provided the call for college football, basketball and lacrosse during his career. 2014 MEDIA INFORMATION

BALLPARK ENTRANCE

All media should enter Citizens Bank Park at the Staff & Media Entrance located on Darien Street (east side of the ballpark).

CLUBHOUSES

Both clubhouses are on the Service Level (visiting, third base side; Phillies, first base side). The Service Level is one level below street level (Main Concourse). Shortly after entering the Staff & Media Entrance, there is a stairway on the right side that accesses the Service Level. Or, see ELEVATOR.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM

The Media Interview Room is also on the Service Level located behind home plate between the two clubhouses. Press conferences, as well as the manager's post-game media conference, will be held in this room.

PRESS BOX

The Press Box, including broadcast booths, Press Dining Room, Media Workroom and library, is located on the Hall of Fame Club Level behind home plate.

ELEVATOR

An elevator dedicated to the media is located behind home plate. After entering the ballpark at the Staff & Media Entrance, turn left on the Main Concourse and walk toward home plate. Look for the "Media Only" sign on the Main Concourse. This elevator will access the Service Level (clubhouses, Media Interview Room, field) and Press Box (Level 2).

STAIRWAY

A stairway is adjacent to the media elevator and can be used to access all levels.

FIELD ACCESS

Access to the field for all media is through a field level entrance adjacent to the visiting team's third base dugout. This runway can be accessed via a hallway located between the elevator and Media Interview Room on the Service Level. Media seeking to return to the Press Box during batting practice or any other time when the Phillies clubhouse is closed are required to use this entrance to return to the media elevator. The field and dugouts will be cleared of all non-uniformed personnel 45 minutes prior to game time. Phillies rules prohibit children (15 or under); MLB rules prohibit friends. We thank you for your cooperation.

Please note: Media are asked to avoid standing on the grass.

PHOTO WORKROOM

The Photo Workroom is located on the Service Level behind home plate in the hallway that leads to the third base field entrance. Still photographers have field level positions at the outfield end of both the third base and first base dugouts.

MEDIA WORKROOM

Located behind the broadcast booths is a Media Workroom that contains a fax machine, copier and supplies, plus a workstation for the visiting PR representative. All media notes will be reproduced in this room pre-game. A complete baseball library providing numerous publications for research purposes is located adjacent to the workroom. See a Baseball Communications representative for access to the workroom and library. Please keep in mind the Media Workroom is to be used for reference purposes only.

CREDENTIALS

Working press credentials or Baseball Writers Association of America credentials are required in order to gain access to the ballpark and other locations (field, clubhouses, Media Interview Room, Press Box and Press Dining Room).

LOST CREDENTIALS

Those members of the media who lose a Phillies credential will be asked to make a $25 donation to Phillies Charities, Inc., prior to being issued a new credential.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

Both clubhouses will open to the media three and one half hours prior to the start time of that day's game and will close when the club takes the field for team stretch/batting practice in accordance with Major League Baseball regulations. Media needing interviews when the clubhouse is not open should make arrangements with a Baseball Communications representative.

Members of the media are welcome when the clubhouses are open. Please keep in mind the clubhouse is open for media business purposes, not for lounging or socialization. Both teams appreciate your cooperation.

Cell phones: According to a Major League Baseball directive, members of the media must have cell phones turned off upon entering the clubhouse.

MANAGER AVAILABILITY

The manager is available following every Phillies home game in the Media Interview Room. For 7:05 p.m. games, the manager is available in the Phillies dugout at 4:00 p.m. There is no formal pre-game availability on day games.

PRESS BOX SEATING

Some seats in the three-row Press Box are permanently assigned. Check the seating diagram posted daily in the Press Box area. Radio and TV media members occupy the first base end of the Press Box; print media the home plate end. Please keep in mind the Press Box is a working area, not a spectator location. Children and friends are prohibited.

2014 MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA DRESS CODE

In accordance with a MLB directive, media covering games and MLB events are asked to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects their respect for their colleagues, the teams and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and the Phillies, as well as MLB, expect members of the media to adhere to a business casual dress code. In that regard, media members are requested to follow these guidelines:

- Flip-flops are not permitted in clubhouses.
- Jeans should be clean, neat and presentable (e.g., ripped jeans should be avoided).
- T-shirts bearing offensive, disrespectful or inappropriate messages are not permitted.
- Clothing bearing MLB club logos should not be worn in the press area.
- Clothing should be appropriate for a business casual work environment. The following are some non-exclusive examples of apparel that should be avoided:
  - ★ Sheer or see-through clothing
  - ★ Excessively short skirts, dresses or shorts (e.g., cut more than 3-4 inches above the knee)
  - ★ Tank tops, muscle shirts, one-shouldered or strapless shirts
  - ★ Clothing exposing bare midriffs or visible undergarments

We ask all members of the media to respect these guidelines. MLB will consider appropriate actions in those cases in which the guidelines are violated.

INTERNET/PHONE

Wireless internet is available throughout the Press Box area and in the Photo Workroom. There is an ample supply of complimentary high-speed ethernet lines available in the Press Box as well as in the Photo Workroom. If needed, ethernet cables are available to purchase on-site for $10 (cash only) at each home game. There is also an ample supply of pool phones available in the Press Box. If you would like to purchase your own dedicated private line in the Press Box or Photo Workroom, analog lines are available to purchase for an annual fee of $150 per line (restricted to credit card, collect, calling card, or 800 number calls).

PRESS DINING ROOM

Located behind the Press Box, the Press Dining Room opens one and a half hours prior to game time. The meal price is $10 and food will be served until 30 minutes after the start of the game. The beverage area will be open during and after the game. Children and friends are prohibited.

SMOKING

By City of Philadelphia ordinance, smoking is only permitted in designated areas in the vicinity of the Third Base Gate and Left Field Gate.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 ½ or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d)… A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEAR OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

QUALIFYING MARKS

Batting Championship: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at-bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

Pitching Championship: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

Fielding Championship: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

Rookie: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when:
(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
(b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.
No more than one save may be credited in each game.

Consecutive-Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Waivers: Major league waivers must be secured for all major league trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes. No waivers are required to trade a major league player at any other time.

RAIN RULES

Prior to the start of a game, the right to play is vested in the home club. Once lineup cards have been exchanged, the Umpire-In-Chief shall have the sole authority to determine whether and when play shall be halted and whether and when play shall resume. He shall not call the game until at least 30 minutes after he has suspended play. He may continue the suspension as long as be believes there is any chance to resume play. The Crew Chief shall at all times try to complete a game. His authority to resume play following one or more suspensions of as much as 30 minutes each shall be absolute and he shall terminate a game only when there appears to be no possibility for completing it.

For series that begin on or after September 1, during the final series of the season between two clubs in the home ballpark of each club – even if the game has not yet begun – MLB's Executive VP of Baseball Operations (or his designee) shall be the sole authority as to whether or not a game shall be started because of unsuitable weather or the unfit condition of the playing field.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average: Divide at-bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

Slugging Percentage: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

On-Base Percentage: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifices).

Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

The Phillies family – from the players, coaches and their wives to the alumni, ballgirls and front office staff – takes great pride in giving back to the community. The entire Phillies organization teams up annually to host a variety of special events and fundraisers, serve dinners to feed the homeless and hold clothing drives and auctions. Additionally, the Phillies donate game tickets, autographed memorabilia and merchandise to support local charitable organizations and fundraisers.

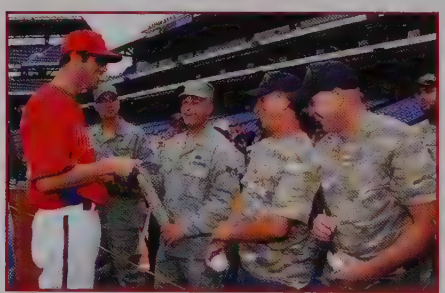

Phillies
AT BAT IN OUR COMMUNITY

Phillies Charities, Inc. is the charitable arm of the Phillies organization, serving Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware as well as areas near the Phillies' minor league affiliates. Phillies Charities annually supports the Bethesda Project homeless shelter, Philadelphia Futures and the Police Athletic League of Philadelphia. Due to strong fan support, fundraisers including the Phantastic Auction, 50/50 Drawings and memorabilia auctions contribute largely to the Phillies Charities Grant Fund. Through a year-long campaign, grants are annually awarded to primarily local charitable organizations serving a wide variety of needs. In 2013, approximately $2 million in grants was distributed to dozens of deserving organizations. The Greater Philadelphia Chapter of the ALS Association has been the Phillies' and Phillies Charities, Inc.'s official charity since 1984. In the 30 years since the partnership began, and 25 years of the Phillies Phestival, over $14.3 million has been raised to help fund patient services and research in the fight against ALS (also known as Lou Gehrig's disease). This year's Phillies Phestival will be held on May 19.

The Phillies are proud of the contributions that individual players make each year in the community. These include visits with patients, outreach to hundreds of children's groups and events through their own foundations benefitting the Philadelphia community as well as communities nationally and globally. Manager Ryne Sandberg and several players have developed charitable ticket programs for children and community groups spanning nearly every home game. Each ticket program provides participants with game tickets, concessions and merchandise.

- This season Manager Ryne Sandberg is introducing Sandberg's Squad, a ticket program to benefit local pediatric hospitals. Ryne and his wife Margaret also support hunger initiatives including the Phans Feeding Families campaign and Philabundance.

- Cole Hamels and his wife Heidi founded The Hamels Foundation to enhance academic opportunities for children. They have given to educational causes throughout the country and established a primary school in Malawi, Africa. Much of the foundation's attention focuses on aiding Philadelphia public schools and thus far more than $700,000 in grants has been donated to more than 20 deserving schools. To aid their charitable efforts the Hamelses hold several fundraisers, including a Diamonds and Denim event in Philadelphia. In addition to their commitment to education, the couple supports local military personnel and their families by hosting them at games during the season through their Hamels' Heroes charitable ticket program.
- Ryan Howard supports disadvantaged youth locally and in his hometown of St. Louis. With wife Krystle, Ryan formed The Ryan Howard Big Piece Foundation which is dedicated to improving the lives of children by promoting academic and athletic development. Through the foundation they created the Ryan Howard Reading Challenge, a K-3 literacy-based program to engage students in reading. Additionally, Ryan actively supports the Police Athletic League (PAL) of Philadelphia by visiting PAL Centers, hosting fundraisers and supporting the renovation of two PAL youth baseball fields. He also meets with PAL children during the season as part of his Howard's Sluggers charitable ticket program.

- Kyle Kendrick continues his work with children and adults living with autism and Down syndrome through his Kendrick's Krew charitable ticket program that launched last season.
- Cliff Lee actively supports The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia throughout the year by visiting patients as well as hosting hundreds of patients and their families at games through his Lee's VIPs charitable ticket program.
- Closer Jonathan Papelbon supports Philadelphia youth with his Papelbon's Pen program that launched in 2012. During batting practice Jonathan meets with local children residing in foster care.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

- Jimmy Rollins, through the Rollins Family Foundation, has raised more than $200,000 by hosting a variety of fundraisers including bowling tournaments and themed galas with proceeds donated to the Arthritis Foundation of Eastern PA and Prevent Child Abuse Pennsylvania. Since 2002 Jimmy has supported the Philadelphia Reads summer reading program by honoring top readers for their dedication to literacy and in 2007 he began his JRoll's Aces charitable ticket program to reward students in disadvantaged areas excelling in the classroom.

- Catcher Carlos Ruiz supports Philadelphia Futures which helps low-income students achieve their dream of a college education. He headlines the organization's Get in the Game charity bowling tournament that raised $160,000 in 2013. His ticket program, Chooch's Chicos, benefits local Latino children and organizations.
- Chase Utley has been a longtime supporter of the Pennsylvania SPCA and uses The Utley Foundation to advocate against animal cruelty by educating children on the proper treatment of animals. The foundation partnered with the Philadelphia Mural Arts program for the past three years to create animal-focused educational murals. He annually holds fundraisers to benefit the PSPCA and this season, with the support of his teammates, is creating a Phillies Pet Calendar to raise additional dollars for the organization. Since 2006 Chase has purchased a full-season ticket plan and donates the tickets to patients at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and St. Christopher's Hospital for Children. In 2013 he was honored for his dedication to giving back to the community with the Phillies Community Service Award and was the club's Roberto Clemente Award winner.

The players' wives are also committed to giving back and lend their time and efforts to support local charities. They annually meet with ALS patients and participate in the Phillies Phestival. They have raised over $220,000 for the Pennsylvania SPCA, primarily through the annual Save a Pet at the Park event that highlights pet adoption and the need to end animal cruelty. The wives have also supported Covenant House Pennsylvania, a shelter for homeless teens, through various fundraisers including the sale of a charity cookbook. Additionally, the wives updated a baby play area and young mothers' and girls' lounge at the shelter. Each year, the wives team up with front office staff to purchase and deliver new backpacks filled with school supplies to children residing at the People's Emergency Center and Valley Youth House. The wives also spearhead in-game fundraisers each season such as autographed Mystery Ball sales and Pro-Pack memorabilia auctions. In addition to the aforementioned charities, the wives have recently worked with The Food Trust, Mothers United Through Tragedy, Prevent Child Abuse PA, Camp No Worries and Women Against Abuse.

Education and literacy are at the forefront of the Phillies' community efforts. Since 2004 Be a Phanatic About Reading presented by Comcast has encouraged over 850,000 children in kindergarten through eighth grade to read for a minimum of 15 minutes a day to improve literacy and comprehension skills. Through his program the Phanatic visits nearly 30 schools excelling in reading each academic year and honors top and improved readers during the annual Be a Phanatic About Reading literacy night at the ballpark. In addition to the literacy visits, the Phanatic makes more than 400 donated community appearances annually. Run through schools, after-school programs and summer camps, Phillies Phitness presented by NovaCare Rehabilitation encourages children in kindergarten through high school to take steps toward a healthy future through exercise and smart food choices. Since it was introduced in the summer of 2011, over 125,000 children have already started on their fitness path. Phillies Phundamentals is an after-school/summer camp program that makes learning fun by using the theme of baseball to teach and reinforce academic skills. Started by the club in January 2001 and run in nearly 20 inner-city recreation centers, Phillies Phundamentals educates over 2,500 children aged 6-13 annually. For the past 13 years the work of area educators is highlighted during Teacher Appreciation Night and the Teacher All-Stars program, presented by GDF SUEZ, that recognizes 10 area teachers going above and beyond.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Also acting as ambassadors for the Phillies both on and off the field are the Phillies Ballgirls, comprised of educated, athletic and energetic young women. In 2013 they made over 150 community appearances, including visits to help further the Phillies' commitment to develop youth baseball and softball and the hosting of the annual Youth Softball Clinic for over 200 female athletes aged 7-15. The Jr. RBI Leagues sponsored by Citizens Bank and RBI Leagues sponsored by Turkey Hill Dairy provide underprivileged youth aged 5-18 in the Greater Philadelphia area the opportunity to play organized baseball and softball by teaching game rules as well as instilling the values of teamwork and sportsmanship. Combined, the programs, which provide uniforms and equipment, engage more than 8,000 boys and girls annually, making it one of the largest Jr. RBI/RBI League programs in the country.

Phillies fans are incredibly supportive of the work being done in the community and many charitable efforts are made possible by their generosity. Over the course of the 2013 season, fans took part in many collections held at Citizens Bank Park to benefit local nonprofits. Fans donated large quantities of food to benefit Philabundance through a number of food drives including the annual Phans Feeding Families campaign, new and gently used books to benefit local literacy organizations, helped collect hundreds of pieces of baseball equipment for Pitch In For Baseball, donated toys for the animals of the Pennsylvania SPCA and were a big part of putting smiles on the faces of countless children by donating toys that were distributed to the Police Athletic League, People's Emergency Center and The Drueding Center.

PHILLIE PHANATIC

HT: 6 feet; WT: 300 pounds
AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978
BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands

Named after the team's fanatical fans, the Phanatic was created out of one of the weekly staff meetings of the Phillies marketing department after the 1977 season. From that humble beginning, the beloved mascot made it all the way to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., where in 2002 it became part of a permanent exhibit.

The Phanatic was also recognized by Forbes Magazine as the #1 sports mascot in both 2008 and 2011.

Often featured on sports highlight shows, the Phanatic moved into prime time with an appearance on the NBC television show 30 Rock. In December 2011, he made a successful journey back to his homeland of the Galapagos Islands, where he explored the islands and interacted with the native wildlife.

The original person in the costume was David Raymond, a graduate of Newark (DE) High School and the University of Delaware (1979), BA degree in physical education. In his 16 years, Raymond missed just eight games.

Tom Burgoyne, the current Phanatic, actually began his fanatical career as Raymond's back-up in 1989 and then joined the Phillies promotional staff in 1990. He has made worldwide appearances with Major League Baseball International, including Japan (1997, 1998 and 2002) and Australia (1997 and 1999). Tom has written two Phillies books and 12 children's books and developed a reading program (Be A Phanatic About Reading) that encourages kids to read every day.

The 48-year-old is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a BS degree in marketing. He and his wife Jennifer have three sons, Andrew, Daniel and Matthew.

SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

BRIGHT HOUSE FIELD

"If there is a gold standard among Grapefruit League ballparks, it is Clearwater's Bright House Field. It is the standard by which older ballparks are evaluated and new ballparks are planned. It's not the biggest or the most historic, but on virtually every level it's the nicest, and it works very well on a functional level: you never, ever feel crushed or crowded, even when you're queuing up for parking or an entrance to the ballpark. We really can't think of a better time at a spring training game than to spend the afternoon at Bright House Field." – springtraningonline.com

Fans certainly have enjoyed spending the afternoon at Bright House Field since it first opened 10 years ago. As the Phillies entered their 11th spring at their Clearwater home, total attendance stood at 1,270,369.

Of that total, 113,037 were there in the first year, easily breaking the spring record (94,811 in 1994) at Jack Russell Memorial Stadium where the Phillies trained starting in 1955. Attendance for the first year there was a meager 16,832.

The Phillies first moved to Clearwater in 1947, replacing the Cleveland Indians who moved to Tucson, Ariz. Athletic Field, with a seating capacity of 3,000, was their first home. The previous spring, the Phillies trained in Miami Beach, Fla. Because of World War II travel restrictions the Phillies trained close to home in 1943 (Hershey, Pa.) and 1944-45 (Wilmington, Del.).

Only the Detroit Tigers have been in a Florida location longer, holding camp in Lakeland since 1934. The Tigers clobbered the Phillies, 13-1, in their first Clearwater game, March 11, 1947, before a paid crowd of 1,766 and lost the first game at Jack Russell Stadium, 4-2, on March 10, 1955, before 4,209.

In 2004, the Phillies also opened a new home in Philadelphia, Citizens Bank Park. No other ballclub ever unveiled two ballparks in one year.
