BOB LURIE

Chairman

As he enters his 17th season as the chairman of the San Francisco Giants, Bob Lurie remains as committed as ever to seeing his team accomplish the ultimate baseball goal of winning a World Series, while continuing in his efforts to have the Giants play in a state-of-the-art stadium in the Bay Area.

With five winning seasons, a pair of division titles and a World Series appearance over the last six years, Lurie has built his baseball organization to the same successful level that his other business endeavors have enjoyed. On September 18, 1985, Lurie ushered in the new era of Giants baseball by naming Al Rosen as the organization's president and his third general manager. Rosen brought in field manager Roger Craig, and just two short years later the Giants went from last place to first place in the National League West and came within one win of the World Series. After remaining in contention late into the summer of an injury-riddled 1988 campaign, the team rebounded in 1989 to win its second N.L. West crown in three years and soundly defeat the National League East Champion Chicago Cubs four games to one in the League Championship Series.

His desire to win has been shown time and again throughout his years with the Giants. In his time he has provided the direction and the resources to build a top flight organization in today's highly competitive Major League marketplace.

In January the goal of getting a stadium built moved closer, when the Giants and the city of San Jose announced an agreement in principle for the construction of a new ballpark designed specifically for baseball.

Just the eighth owner the Giants have had in their 110 years of existence, Lurie assumed a majority interest in the team on March 2, 1976 and became the sole owner of the club in 1978. A well-respected member of baseball's ownership fraternity, Lurie has served on a number of Major League and National League committees. Known for his ability to build a solid front office and staff, Lurie has overseen the assembling of an off-field staff renowned as one of the best in professional sports.

Born in San Francisco, Lurie is a vigorous participant in a wide variety of civic and charitable affairs. In addition to his duties with The Lurie Company and his chairmanship of the Giants, he is the president of the Louis R. Lurie Foundation and serves on several boards of directors. In 1989 he served as the chairman for the prestigious Victor Awards. An avid golfer, he regularly competes in the AT&T Pro-Am and many other tournaments throughout the year.

Bob and his wife, Connie, make their home in San Francisco.

AL ROSEN

President and General Manager

In the six-plus years since Al Rosen was hand-picked by owner Bob Lurie to be the club's president and general manager, he has done nothing but enhance his reputation as one of the game's top executives, a man who can build an organization from the bottom up, and who is not afraid to do anything necessary to put his team in a position to win.

In Rosen's tenure the Giants have enjoyed a National League Pennant, two division championships, five winning seasons, all-time franchise home and road attendance records, the revival of a farm system geared towards the production of solid Major League talent, vastly expanded community services and a host of other accomplishments that have brought the organization recognition and praise throughout the industry, the Bay Area and the nation.

This past off-season saw Rosen orchestrate transactions geared towards rebuilding his pitching staff. He headed off to last December's Winter Meetings with that goal, and returned with proven M.L. veterans Bill Swift and Mike Jackson, and a pair of promising youngsters, Dave Burba and Rafael Quirico.

Prior to the 1991 campaign he signed lefthanders Dave Righetti and Bud Black, giving him baseball's all-time lefty save leader and one of the game's most consistent starters, inked two-time N.L. batting champion Willie McGee and traded for highly-regarded prospects Darren Lewis and Johnny Ard.

In 1990 Rosen agreed to long-term deals with several Giants stars, including Will Clark, Robby Thompson and Scott Garrelts, and signed free agent right fielder Kevin Bass to a three-year deal. In 1988 he signed free agent leadoff man Brett Butler to a two-year contract. In 1987, he engineered trades for Kevin Mitchell, Don Robinson, Rick Reuschel, Dave Dravecky and Craig Lefferts and was recognized as Major League Executive of the Year by The Sporting News, United Press International and Baseball America.

Immediately after being named to his new post on September 18, 1985, Rosen began the turnaround of the Giants by choosing Roger Craig as his field manager. The success of Rosen and Craig's new dynamic approach was evident in short order, as the Giants went from losing 100 games in 1985 to an N.L. West title in 1987 and an N.L. pennant in 1989.

Recognized for his talent and dedication as a player, Rosen also brought those qualities to the front office. After spending his entire 10-year M.L. career in Cleveland (1947-56), Rosen put in 20 years with the brokerage firm of Bache and Co. He was vice president of the firm's Cleveland office when he returned to baseball in 1978 as president of the N.Y. Yankees. In 1980 he took a similar position with the Astros, which he held until joining the Giants in 1985.

A lifetime .285 hitter (192 HRs, 717 RBIs), Rosen was a four-time All-Star and a unanimous pick as the A.L. MVP in 1953, after hitting .336 and leading the league in home runs (43), RBIs (145), runs (115), total bases (367) and slugging percentage (.613). He was twice the A.L. leader in HRs and RBIs.

A Leap Year baby, Rosen was born February 29, 1924 in Spartanburg, South Carolina and raised in Miami, where he picked up the nickname "Flip" playing sandlot ball. Al and his wife, Rita, make their home in San Francisco. They have five children - Robert, Jimmy, Gail, David and Andy.

RALPH NELSON

Vice President/Assistant General Manager

Ralph Nelson is in his 17th year with the Giants, and his seventh as the top baseball administrative member of Al Rosen's cabinet.

Nelson is responsible for player contract negotiations, facilitates player transactions and acquisitions, and supervises all baseball operations departments, including player development, scouting and travel, along with the Major League training and clubhouse staffs.

Nelson joined the Giants as a publicity intern in 1976. He was named traveling secretary and statistician in 1980 and minor league administrator in 1983. After supervising a complete restructuring of the Giants farm and scouting systems, he was named to his current position by Rosen following the 1985 campaign.

A native of Harvey, Illinois, Nelson was raised in the Santa Clara Valley. He earned his bachelor's degree in journalism from San Jose State University in 1976. During the off-season, Nelson officiates college basketball games for several conferences, including the Pac-10. Nelson resides in Sunnyvale.

BOB KENNEDY

Vice President, Baseball Operations

A longtime colleague and teammate of Al Rosen, Kennedy is one of baseball's senior statesmen, with more than four decades of experience as a player, manager and executive. Now in his seventh year with the Giants as Rosen's top baseball adviser, Kennedy scouts top Major League talent and lends his expertise to Rosen on decisions affecting trades, player acquisitions and development, scouting and administration.

Prior to coming to the Giants, Kennedy served as Rosen's right-hand man for four years in Houston, where he advised Rosen in trade discussions and scouted players throughout the Major Leagues. The general manager of the Chicago Cubs from 1977-81, he has also been an executive with the Seattle Mariners (1976), St. Louis Cardinals (1969-76) and Cleveland Indians (1959-1961). A native of Chicago, Kennedy served as manager of the Cubs from 1963 to 1965 and was the first skipper of the Oakland Athletics when the franchise moved West in 1968. He compiled an overall managerial record of 264-278, with his best mark of 82-80 as manager of the 1963 Cubs.

Bob enjoyed a successful Major League career with the White Sox, Indians (where he was a teammate of Rosen's), Orioles, Tigers and Brooklyn Dodgers finishing with a career batting average of .254 with 63 home runs and 514 RBIs. Primarily an outfielder, he also saw action at third base and first, before joining the service as a World War II pilot with the Marine Corps (1942-45).

Kennedy and his wife, Claire, have five children—Terry (a 13-year Major League veteran), Bob, Jr., Colleen, Christine and Kathleen, and 14 grandchildren. The Kennedys reside in Mesa, Arizona.

BOB FONTAINE

Vice President, Scouting Operations

Bob Fontaine, another of the game's most venerable and best-known figures, celebrates his 51st year in professional baseball in 1992, dating back to the signing of his first contract in the Brooklyn Dodgers' system in 1941. Fontaine is entering his twelfth season with the Giants, his fifth in his current role of directing the Giants' vast scouting staff.

After eight years in uniform, Fontaine became one of the legendary Branch Rickey's youngest scouts and protégés, before entering the armed forces in 1943. Bob was an assistant consultant to the general at Marana Air Force Base in Tucson, Arizona, from 1943 until 1946. In 1950, he followed Rickey to Pittsburgh, where he spent the next 18 years, before joining the expansion San Diego Padres in 1969. By 1977, Fontaine had become San Diego's general manager, a post he held until he joined the Giants after the 1980 season. Fontaine is perhaps best known for spotting such luminary talent as Willie Stargell, Dave Winfield and Ozzie Smith and being directly responsible for the drafting of Will Clark, Matt Williams and Robby Thompson.

A native of San Jose, Fontaine attended Bellarmine High School prior to signing with the Dodgers. He and his wife, Laura, reside in Poway, California. They have six children - Sandra, Carol, Nancy, Lori, Bobby and Rick, and 10 grandchildren.

DAVE NAHABEDIAN

Director of Scouting

Dave Nahabedian is in his ninth year with the Giants, his third in his current role supervising the Giants' Major League and worldwide free agent scouting efforts. "Naha" first joined the Giants as an administrative assistant in baseball operations in 1982-83, then left to become the assistant basketball coach at Chapman College for two years before returning as assistant director of minor leagues and scouting in 1986. He was the director of minor league operations until August, 1990, when he moved into his current role.

Born in Fairfax County, Virginia, Naha was raised in Orange County, California, where he graduated from Tustin High School in 1977. Dave attended San Francisco State University where he majored in physical education, while also serving as an assistant basketball coach for two seasons. Naha, 32, is single and resides in Burlingame.

TONY SIEGLE

Director of Minor League Operations

Tony Siegle, a veteran of 26 years in baseball with the Astros, Brewers, Phillies, Padres and Angels, was named Giants director of minor league operations on August 24, 1990. He supervises the administration of the minor league operations and oversees the development of players throughout the farm system.

Following a stint as an officer in the United States Navy, Siegle joined the Phillies in 1969 as director of stadium operations, and moved to Milwaukee in 1970 as an administrative assistant in the minor league and scouting departments. He was the Brewers' farm director from 1975-79, an assistant to the general manager in Houston from 1979-82 and an executive assistant in baseball operations for the Phillies in 1982-83 before being named Philadelphia's vice president of baseball administration in October, 1983. He was vice president of player personnel for the Padres from May through December, 1989, and was working as a special assignment scout for the California Angels before joining the Giants.

Siegle, 52, is a graduate of the University of Miami (FL). He and his wife, Cynthia, have four children and reside in Berkeley.

JACK HIATT

Director of Player Development

Jack Hiatt takes over the role of director of player development for the Giants in 1992, after spending the past two seasons assisting previous director Carlos Alfonso, one year as a roving catching instructor (1989) and one campaign (1988) as the manager of the Giants' rookie league club in Pocatello, Idaho. In his new role, Jack is chiefly responsible for the assignment, development and evaluation of players throughout the Giants' minor league system.

A catcher and first baseman during his playing days, Hiatt played for the Angels, Giants, Expos, Cubs and Astros during a career that included 483 games from 1964-72. During that period he posted a .251 average with 22 home runs and 154 RBIs.

Prior to joining the Giants' player development staff, Hiatt worked as a coach and manager in the Chicago Cubs, California Angels and Houston Astros organizations, including a stint as a Major League coach with Chicago in 1981.

Jack and his wife, Sheralyn, reside in Sedona, Arizona.

COREY BUSCH

Executive Vice President

Corey Busch is in his 14th year with the Giants and his 10th as the club's top executive for oversight and administration of all non-playing departments, including club operations, fiscal affairs, government relations, broadcasting and stadium matters. He was formerly a press secretary to the late San Francisco Mayor George Moscone and served as his aide when Moscone was State Senator. Busch, 42, is active in a variety of San Francisco civic and political affairs.

He is a graduate of the University of California, Los Angeles. Corey and his wife, Anne, have two children and make their home in Atherton.

PAT GALLAGHER

Senior Vice President

Pat Gallagher has been with the Giants since 1976 and is in his 11th year supervising all of the club's sales and marketing affairs, including the Giants advertising, promotions, season and group ticket sales and retail operations. He is a former executive with Marine World/Africa USA and Sea World theme parks. Gallagher is active in Major League Baseball business affairs and serves on the board of Major League Baseball Properties. Pat, along with his wife, Joan, is also very active in a variety of local, civic and charitable endeavors.

A native of Chicago, Pat attended San Diego State University. He and his wife, Joan, have two children and reside in Atherton.

JORGE COSTA

Vice President, Stadiums Operations/Security

Jorge Costa is in his fourth year with the Giants supervising operation and maintenance of Candlestick Park's facilities and stadium security. He oversees all full-time operations staff and event personnel including security. He also serves as the Giants liaison with all law enforcement agencies and the MLB security department. Jorge was awarded the prestigious public service award by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration for pioneering leadership and adopting TEAM (Techniques for Effective Alcohol Management). He was honored by the American Academy of Pediatrics for his commitment to the prevention of drinking and driving, and is the honorary chairman of the California Association of Highway Safety Leaders.

He previously served as the Commissioner's West Coast liaison for stadium operations and security and was chief of operations at the Oakland Coliseum for eight years. A native of Portugal, Costa is a 1973 graduate of St. Mary's College in Moraga. Jorge and his wife, Donna, reside in Belmont.

DUFFY JENNINGS

Vice President, Public Relations

Duffy Jennings, now in his 12th season with the Giants and the fifth in his current position, oversees the club's media relations, communications, community services, and publications departments.

Jennings, 44, came to the Giants as publicity director in 1980, following a 13-year career as a prize-winning news reporter and editor for the Chronicle.

A native San Franciscan, he attended Lowell High School, City College of S.F. and San Francisco State University. Duffy and his wife, Faye, have two children and make their home in Foster City.

ARTHUR SCHULZE

Vice President, Ticket Operations

Arthur Schulze is the Giants' front office dean, having served the club for 37 years. He directs all of the daily ticket operations, including the sale, distribution and accounting of tickets and supervision of the ticket-selling staff, and coordinates ticket sales through the Giants Dugout Stores, outside concessionaires and the Giants' groupsales office.

A native New Yorker, Schulze earned his undergraduate degree from St. Joseph's College in New York and served in the Coast Guard from 1951 to 1953 prior to joining the Giants' ticket staff at the Polo Grounds in 1955. Arthur and his wife, Martha, have two children. They reside in San Mateo.

JOHN YEE

Vice President, Finance/Administration

John Yee joined the Giants staff in January, 1992 to oversee all the Giants fiscal policies and procedures, the accounting staff and financial aspects of the retail operations.

Yee, 40, spent the last eight and a half years as vice president of finance and administration for the San Francisco Convention and Visitors Bureau. Prior to that he was with the international construction firm of Guy F. Atkinson and Company, working both in the firm's South San Francisco office and abroad.

A graduate of San Francisco State University, Yee resides in San Francisco with his wife, Catherine.

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

FORMER CENTER FIELDER

NICKNAME: Say Hey

BIRTHDATE: May 6, 1931

BIRTHPLACE: Westfield, Alabama

BATTED: Right    THREW: Right

HEIGHT: 5-11    WEIGHT: 185

GIANTS CAREER ... Regarded by many baseball experts as the best all-around player ever to grace a baseball diamond, Willie Mays was a brilliant fielder, hitter, and base runner...1951 — Willie first appeared in the big leagues on May 25, when he was brought to New York after a .477 season at Minneapolis...after going hitless in his first 12 at bats, a discouraged Mays begged manager Leo Durocher to send him back to the minors, but Durocher replied, "You're my center fielder if you don't get a hit the rest of the season"...Mays responded to his manager's confidence and blasted his first of 660 career home runs on May 28 off Boston's Warren Spahn...he helped the Giants win the pennant with his .274 average, 20 homers and 68 RBIs in 121 games, and earned the National League Rookie of the Year award...1952 — Willie was off to a slow start when he entered the Army...1954 — returned to pro baseball in grand style, capturing the N.L. batting title, (.345) and the MVP award after belting 41 home runs and 110 RBIs, again leading the Giants to a pennant...in the first game of the World Series against the Cleveland Indians on September 29 at the Polo Grounds, Mays made what was perhaps the most unbelievable catch ever in series competition... in the eighth inning with Larry Doby at second and Al Rosen on first, the Indians' Vic Wertz hit a tremendous drive to deep center at the Polo Grounds; Mays raced to a spot some 460-feet from home plate, stuck his glove into the air and came down with the ball, making the catch over his left shoulder; he fired the ball back into the infield and kept the runners in check, saving the game for the Giants, who went on to beat the Indians in four straight...in a poll taken by The Sporting News, a majority of sports writers cited this catch as the most exciting play of 1954 in any sport, and today many still say it was the most spectacular catch of all time...the 1954 season also marked the first of 24 straight appearances for the N.L. in the All-Star game...1955 — Willie slugged his first of eight career grand slams off Clem Labine at Brooklyn, June 29, and hit a second HR off Labine later in the game...led the N.L. in homers (51) and became the first Major Leaguer to hit 50 or more homers in a season and steal 20 bases (24) ...1956 — Willie became the sixth player in history (and the first in the N.L.) to hit 30 or more home runs (36) and steal 30 or more bases (40)...1957 — with 35 homers and 38 thefts, he became the first player to make the "30/30 club" twice...1958 — in his first season in San Francisco, Willie forever endeared himself to the fans, batting .347, setting a club record for most hits in a season (208), and finishing second in the league MVP voting to Ernie Banks...1959 — knocked in the game-winning run in the 1959 All-Star classic with a triple in a 5-4 win over the American League...1960 — set an S.F. record for most triples in a season with 12 and led the National League in hits (190)...1961 — Mays became the sixth player in history to smash four home runs in a game on April 30, against Milwaukee, collecting eight RBIs in a 14-4 rout of the Braves...May 13, for the third time in his career, he smashed a grand slam and a home run in the same game, in the third and fifth innings off Milwaukee's Bob Buhl...in an 8-5 win Willie set off his own fireworks at Candlestick Park on July 4, when he hit his 300th career home run off the Cubs' Jack Curtis...1962 — a bountiful year for Say Hey...Willie led the N.L. in home runs (49) and had personal highs in runs (120) and RBIs (141)...Mays returned to the Polo Grounds on June 1, smacking a homer in his first plate appearance, and receiving a standing ovation from 53,000 fans in a 9-6 romp of the Mets...in Willie's first five seasons in San Francisco (1958-62) he batted .318 and collected 943 hits, 181 home runs and 567 RBIs...1963 — Mays' 400th career home run came on August 27, a bases-empty shot off the Cardinals' Curt Simmons...1964 — Willie was named captain of the Giants and played first, shortstop and third, marking the first time in his career that he played anywhere but the outfield...1965 — another MVP season for Mays, the only Giant to win two of these coveted awards other than Carl Hubbell in 1933 and 1936...his 500th career home run came off Don Nottebart at Houston on September 13...it was his 47th round-tripper of the season, on the way to collecting 52 for the Major League title...1966 — Mays passed all home run hitters, except Babe Ruth, with number 535 off the Cardinals' Ray Washburn on Aug. 17, at Candlestick...1968 — Willie won his 11th Golden Glove award...1969 — slugged his 600th career home run off Mike Corkins of San Diego Sept. 22, in a 4-2 win...named Player of the Decade (1960-69) by The Sporting News...1971 — his 3000th career base hit came on July 18, off Montreal's Mike Wegener at Candlestick, in a 10-1 win...at age 40, in his last full season with the Giants, Mays led the N.L. in walks (112), stole 23 bases, and sparked the Giants to their second pennant with his play in the first half of the season...finished the year at .271 with 18 homers and 61 RBIs...his last home run in a San Francisco uniform came on September 26, connecting off Steve Blateric at Cincinnati, his 646th career shot...

PRO CAREER ... 1972 — Mays was traded to the New York Mets May 11, for Charlie Williams and cash...in his debut for the Mets on May 14, in a game against the Giants at Shea Stadium, Willie received a thunderous ovation with his fifth-inning home run to break a 4-4 tie...reached base 14 out of the next 27 trips to the plate, with three game-winning hits and two home runs, but he showed signs of age as the year wore on, finishing at .250...1973 — he appeared in just 66 games, played in the World Series against Oakland, then retired on October 24...RECORDS/ACHIEVEMENTS ... Mays was in the Opening Day lineup all 15 seasons with San Francisco...he is the Giants franchise leader in games played (2857), at bats (10,477), runs (2011), hits (3187), doubles (504), home runs (646) total bases (5907) and extra base hits (1289)... led the N.L. in slugging percentage in 1954, 1955, 1957, 1964-65...led in total bases in 1955, 1962, 1965... led in stolen bases from 1956-59...led N.L. outfielders in double plays 1954-56, 1965...was voted to The Sporting News' All-Star Major League teams in 1954, 1957-60, the N.L. All-Star teams from 1961-66 and the N.L. All-Star fielding teams 1958-1968...in his career with the Giants, New York and San Francisco, Willie played 22 seasons (although losing almost two years to military service) and batted .300 or more ten times, had 100 or more RBIs ten times, scored 100 or more runs 12 consecutive times, had 20 or more doubles 16 times, and hit 30 or more home runs 11 times...had a .307 average in the mid-season classic, with three homers, three triples, two doubles, 20 runs and nine RBIs...set an N.L. record with two or more homers in a game 63

GIANTS HOLD RECORD WITH FIVE HOMERS IN ONE INNING

The Giants have twice hit five home runs in one inning, a Major League record. On August 23, 1961, five San Francisco Giants homered in a 12-run, ninth-inning explosion against the Cincinnati Reds. Orlando Cepeda, Felipe Alou, Jim Davenport, Willie Mays and John Orsino all homered at Crosley Field. That tied the record set by the New York Giants on June 6, 1939 (fourth inning) vs. Cincinnati and later tied by the Philadelphia Phillies on June 2, 1949 (eighth inning) vs. Cincinnati. The only American League team to hit five HRs in an inning was Minnesota on June 9, 1966 vs. Kansas City.

WILLIE MAYS continued

times...Willie was the most prolific home run hitter of his generation, with 300 or more home runs and 300 or more stolen bases...his 660 career homers ranks third all-time, trailing only Hank Aaron (755) and Babe Ruth (715)...

PERSONAL/MISC ... In 1950, the Giants sent scout Eddie Montague to inspect a first baseman, Alonzo Perry, of the New York Cubans in the Negro League, in a game against the Birmingham Black Barons...Montague, however, quickly spotted Mays, a speedy, agile 19-year old outfielder for the Barons, with quick hands, a great arm and a powerful bat...Montague forgot about Perry and arranged a deal with the Barons, paying $14,000 for Mays' contract...Willie was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1979, his first year of eligibility, the ninth player to make it in his first try...had his uniform number (24) retired by the Giants...joined the Giants staff in 1986 as a special assistant to Al Rosen, symbolizing the pride and passion of Giants baseball...wears his #24 uniform every year at the Giants Spring Training camp in Scottsdale and works as an inspirational coach...keeps an active schedule throughout the year as a Giant emissary, visiting the Giants minor league teams, where he brings his heroic aura to young players, greets fans and signs autographs for hours on end...makes a number of appearances on behalf of the club at a variety of civic and charitable events throughout the Bay Area, including the annual Giants Fund Golf Classic...in 1986, he hosted his own five-minute KNBR radio show which aired before every Giants game...from 1986-89, Willie was a regular guest as a color commentator with Joe Morgan and Duane Kuiper on GiantsVision telecasts...in 1990, worked alongside Kuiper on several SportsChannel broadcasts, offering his unique and colorful commentary...also serves as a public relations executive for Bally's Resorts, among other business interests, and is active on the card show circuit...he and his wife, Mae, make their home in Atherton...

grand slam, making him the all-time National League leader in that category... his 18th career grand slam came on August 1 off Montreal's Mike Wegener...one of Willie's biggest thrills came on September 18, Willie McCovey Day at Candlestick Park...after going 0-for-3, he smashed a long single to left center in the ninth with two on and two out, scoring Derrel Thomas with his game-winning hit and providing a storybook finish to his day...led the club that season in home runs (28), RBIs (86) and game-winning hits (15) and was named Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News and UPI...also won the Hutch Award, an honor given to the player who overcomes adversity and displays the character and competitive instincts of former Cincinnati Red Fred Hutchinson...1978 — Willie appeared in just 108 games that season after suffering two injuries, but hit his 500th career home run off Jamie Easterly, July 1 at Atlanta...1979 — missed the 1979 Opening Day lineup for the first time as a Giant since 1962...hit career home run 512 on June 9 off the Pirates' Grant Jackson, passing Mel Ott as the top left-handed home run hitter in the National League 1980 — hit his 521st and final home run on May 3, a 385-foot shot off Montreal's Scott Sanderson in the fourth, which moved him into a tie on the all-time list with boyhood idol Ted Williams...Mac retired from the game he loved on July 6 and had his uniform number 44 retired during Willie McCovey Weekend in September...

PRO CAREER ... 1955 — Willie began his career with Sandersville, led Georgia State League first basemen in double plays (73) and led the league in RBIs (113) and putouts (897)...1959 — was batting .372 at Phoenix when brought to San Francisco, and led the Pacific Coast League in home runs (29) while appearing in just 95 games...1974 — as a Padre, Mac set a club record for most home runs (22) and RBIs (63) by a lefty...1975 — broke his own record with 23 homers and 68 RBIs...RECORDS/ACHIEVEMENTS ... Willie is one of 22 players to have performed in four different decades...he is tied for 10th on the all-time home run list with Ted Williams (521)...one of the most destructive hitters of his era...the Reds introduced a drastic defensive shift to right field in an attempt to curb McCovey's power...was a six-time nominee to the N.L. All-Star squad...he is the top home run hitter among first basemen (439, with 82 coming as a pinch hitter or outfielder) and has the most home runs at Candlestick Park (237)...established M.L. record for most seasons as a first baseman (22)...

PERSONAL/MISC ... Willie was signed as a free agent by Giant scout Alex Pompey in 1955...Named chairman of the annual Willie McCovey March of Dimes Charity Golf Tournament in 1979...serves as a roving ambassador of Giants pride, dedication and greatness...performs a variety of community services and speaking engagements, media appearances and other special assignments...has appeared at the Giants' Spring Training camps to provide tips and inspirational advice to veterans and rookies alike...1986 was also the year Willie was enshrined in the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown...he became the 194th member of the Hall, and only the 16th to be elected in his first year of eligibility...returns to Candlestick at the close of every season to present the Willie Mac Award, established in his name in 1980 and given to the Giants player who best exemplifies the spirit and leadership consistently shown by Stretch throughout his 22-year career...through 1991, he had presented the prestigious award to Jack Clark, Larry Herndon, Joe Morgan, Darrell Evans, Bob Brenly, Mike Krukow, Chris Speier, Jose Uribe, Dave Dravecky, Steve Bedrosian and Robby Thompson in special on-field, pre-game ceremonies...has worked as vice president of sales for the Ramallah Co., a wholesale linen firm in Napa, California since 1980...is an accomplished amateur golfer...Willie has a daughter, Allison, and resides in Woodside...

CHARLES HONORED WITH SECOND BILL PARESE AWARD

Frank Charles, the Giants 15th selection in the June, 1991 draft, has been selected as the second recipient of the Bill Parese Award, established in 1991 in honor of the Giants' Oklahoma-based scout who passed away in December, 1989.

The honor is awarded annually to the first year professional who exemplifies the spirit, work ethic and pride that Bill Parese showed everyday of his life.

Playing for Everett, Charles ranked 4th in the Northwest League in both average (.318) and home runs (9). He was moved up to San Jose for the California League playoffs.

Tony Spires won the initial Bill Parese Award in 1991.

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS: 40, until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25, until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

QUALIFYING MARKS: To qualify for the batting championship a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances (3.1 per scheduled team game). To qualify for earned run average leadership a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched (1 per scheduled team game).

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: The individual fielding champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

- (1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;
- (2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;
- (3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at bat (at bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING ON BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks, and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches, and sacrifice flies.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

TRADES: Trades can be made without restriction from the first day following the close of the championship season to August 1. From August 1 to the close of the season, Major League waivers are required.

WAIVERS: Waivers must be acquired for an outright assignment of a player to a minor league club. Players claimed on waivers are available in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after the start of the season. Otherwise, in reverse order of standings at close of preceding season.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE:

- is credited for each day the player appears on an active roster or major league disabled list or suspended list.
- in the case of a player called up from the minor leagues, is credited beginning with the date he physically reports.
- in the case of a major league player who is traded and reports in the normal course, service is not interrupted.
- in the case of a player sent down to the minor leagues, is credited through the date of the assignment.
- in the case of a player who is unconditionally released, is credited through the date waivers were requested.
- in the case of a player designated for release or assignment (MLR 2), is credited after the designation, through the date of the actual assignment or the request for unconditional release waivers.
- for a player who appears on his club's opening day roster, is credited as the earliest scheduled opener, without regard to the actual opening date of his own club.
- is credited at the rate of 172 days per "year", though the season is actually 182 days long.
- is not credited during any period or periods of optional assignment totaling 20 days or more during a single season.

RELIEF PITCHERS' SAVE RULE: A pitcher is credited with a Save when he meets all three of the following conditions: 1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and, 2) he is not the winning pitcher, and, 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or, b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or, c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

ROOKIE RULE: The Baseball Writers Association of America considers a player a rookie unless during the previous season or seasons he has a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues, or, b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club, excluding military service and time on the disabled list, during the 25-man limit. The 25-player limit is in effect from Opening Day through August 31.

DAY GAME/NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game.

DISABLED LISTS: REGULAR DISABLED LIST: The 15 day list may be used for as many players as needed, with the same recertification procedure as in the past.

EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST: No maximum number of players on list at one time. Minimum period of inactivity-sixty (60) calendar days. Players placed on this list after August 1st shall remain there for the balance of the season. Day 1 is following player's last game appearance. Reinstatements may be made beginning Day 16 or 61 repetitively; after minimum period has expired player at any time.

FREE AGENCY (RE-ENTRY): Six years of Major League Service are required to be eligible for free agency.

■ A player has 15 days from the first day following the World Series to file for free agency.

■ By December 7, former club must offer to arbitrate or on January 9 former club becomes ineligible to sign the player. (Ineligible club regains eligibility the following May 1).

■ If club and player proceed to arbitration, maximum salary cut rules do not apply. Player who accepts former club's offer to arbitrate is not subject to repeater rights limitations.

SALARY ARBITRATION:

■ Players are eligible after three years of Major League Service. The top 17% of two-year players by service time are also eligible. Maximum cut rules do not apply if in immediately preceding year player won arbitration increase of over 50%.

■ Arbitrator is officially instructed to give particular attention for purposes of comparison to salaries of players with Major League Service no more than one annual service group higher than player who is arbitrating.

FREE AGENT (AMATEUR): One selection meeting shall be conducted a year in June to be known as the "Summer Meeting."

■ Major League Clubs shall select in reverse order of their league standing at the close of the preceding season (determined by the percentage of games it won). No club may transfer to another club its right to select.

■ A selected player shall be placed on a club's Negotiation List and shall remain thereon until the start of the Closed Period (The seven days preceding the Summer Meeting) of the next selection meeting, unless at an earlier date he (1) signs a contract (2) is removed because he was not eligible for selection (3) becomes a College Player by entering or returning to college.

■ A club may not transfer its Negotiation Right to any other club.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

- AC Joint — Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.
- Abduct — Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.
- Abrasion — Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.
- Abscess — An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.
- Adduct — Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.
- Adhesion — Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.
- Aerobic — Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.
- Anabolic Steroids — Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).
- Anaerobic — Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.
- Anaphylactic Shock — Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.
- Anterior Compartment Syndrome — Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.
- Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) — A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
- Anterior Talofibular Ligament — A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.
- Anti-Inflammatory — Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.
- Anteriogram — A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.
- Arthrogram — X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.
- Arthroscope — An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.
- Arthroscopy — A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.
- Aspiration — The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.
- Atrophy — To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.
- Avascular Necrosis — Death of a part due to lack of circulation.
- Avulsion — The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.
- Baker's Cyst — Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.
- Bone Scan — An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.
- Brachial Plexus — Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.
- Bruise — A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.
- Bursa — A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur; then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and a bone.
- Capsule — An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.
- Cartilage — Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.
- CAT Scan — Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.
- Cellulitis — Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.
- Cervical Vertebrae — Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.
- Charley Horse — A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.
- Colles' Fracture — A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.
- Concentric Muscle Contraction — A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.
- Concussion — Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.
- Contusion — An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.
- Cortical Steroids — Used to suppress joint inflammation.
- Costochondral — Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.
- Cryokinetics — Treatment with cold and movement.
- Cryotherapy — A treatment with the use of cold.
- Cyst — Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.
- Degenerative Joint Disease — Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.
- Deltoid Ligament — Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.
- Deltoid Muscle — Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.
- Disc, Intervertebral — A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.
- Dislocation — Complete displacement of joint surfaces.
- Eccentric Muscle Contraction — An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.
- Eccymosis — Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.
- Edema — Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY continued

Effusion — Accumulation of fluid, or the knee itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) — An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG) — Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis — Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride — "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fat Percentage — The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur — Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula — Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility — The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise — General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Fracture — Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb — Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glycogen — Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury — A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury — A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury — A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual loss of function.

Hamstring — Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps — Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion — Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke — Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup — Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma — Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hot Pack — Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus — Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy — Treatment using water.

Hyperextension — Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band — A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Inflammation — The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Internal Rotation — Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Lesion — Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament — Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae — Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) — Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Meniscectomy — An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus — Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also know as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals — Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals — Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Myositis — Inflammation of a muscle.

Necrotic — Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene — Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heal retention to the area.

Neuritis — Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic — Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Parathesia — Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella — The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis — Inflammation of the patellar ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."

Patellofemoral Joint — Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalacia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles — Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the ankle. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx — Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis — Inflammation of a vein.

Plica — Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) — A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadriceps Muscles "Quads" — A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography — Taking of x-rays.

Radius — Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction — Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain — Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Retraction — The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff — Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome — A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm or more.

Sacrum — Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula — Shoulder blade.

Sciatica — Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the side of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve — Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint — A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sorbothane — An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) — Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spleen — Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis — Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis — Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis — Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain — Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causing various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum — The breast bone.

Steroids — Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic Steroids or cortical steroids.

Strain — Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture — A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-Ray — A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching — Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation — Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Talus — The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate — A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals — Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneal, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) — The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis — Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon — Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow — General term for lateral elbow pain.

Thoracic — Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome — A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia — Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph — A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea — The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) — An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process — Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius — Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps — Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna — Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve — Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound — an electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Vagus — Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus — Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction — Decrease of local blood flow.

Vasodilation — Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out" — Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of abdominal contusion.

Wrist — The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetrum, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma — The cheekbone.

GIANTS IN THE WORLD SERIES

Since the World Series began in 1903, the Giants have participated in 16 World Series, winning five World Championships (1905, 1921, 1922, 1933 and 1954). In 1904, the Giants won the National League crown, but the World Series was not played. The Giants also won National League titles in 1888 and 1889. Here's a game-by-game look.

HALL OF FAME INFIELD

The entire infield of the 1924 Giants are now members of the Hall of Fame. When Travis Jackson was inducted in August, 1982, he completed the talented quartet that received baseball's highest honor. That 1924 New York Giants club recorded a 93-60 record en route to a National League Pennant.

POS.	PLAYER	(Career with N.Y.)	1924 STATS	Inducted
1B	George Kelly	(1915-17, 1919-26)	.324, 136 RBIs	1973
2B	Frankie Frisch	(1919-26)	.328, 121 runs	1947
SS	Travis Jackson	(1922-36)	.302	1982
3B	Freddie Lindstrom	(1924-32)	.287	1976

Four other members of that club also made it to the Hall of Fame—manager John McGraw (inducted 1937), rookie first baseman Bill Terry (inducted 1954), right fielder Ross Youngs (inducted 1972), and center fielder Hack Wilson (inducted 1979).

Candlestick Park Ground Rules

1. A ball hitting either foul pole or the attached screens above the black ring painted on the poles is a home run. a ball hitting foul pole below black ring or hitting top of fence and bounding onto playing fields is in play. A fair ball bounding into stands or over fence is a two-base hit.
2. A thrown ball that goes behind the backstop screen is one base, if it was thrown by the pitcher from the rubber. All other overthrows are two bases.
3. A ball going over fence under the screen attached to foul poles is a home run.
4. A ball that hits the fence of the dugouts or bat racks is in play. A ball that goes into the dugout is out of play.
5. A ball that goes into the bullpens is in play.
6. A ball hitting any part of the stands beyond the top of the right field fence and bounding back onto the field is a home run.

EVOLUTION OF CANDLESTICK PARK

GROUND BREAKING

1959—Official construction begins at Candlestick Point in a cove at the south-eastern edge of San Francisco.

STADIUM NAMED

1959—The new home of the Giants is officially named "Candlestick Park" in a balloting among fans. More than 15,000 entries were submitted.

OPENING DAY

1960—After two years of playing at Seals Stadium in downtown San Francisco, the Giants' opening day at Candlestick is April 12.

SEATING CAPACITY

1960—The open-end stadium seats 42,500 fans.

1972—Construction to enclose the stadium is completed and seating capacity is expanded to 58,000 for baseball.

1989—Removal of rails in lower box seats expands capacity for baseball to over 62,000.

PLAYING SURFACE

1960—Natural grass.

1971—Artificial turf is installed in the outfield, the infield (except the infield skin), and foul territory.

1972—Artificial turf installed to cover infield skin (except sliding areas).

1979—Natural grass replaces artificial turf.

1981—Infield skin width reduced three feet.

FIELD DIMENSIONS

1960—Foul lines: 330 feet. Power Alleys: 365 feet (left-center) and 375 feet (right-center). Center Field: 410 feet.

1968—Foul lines extended to 335 feet.

1982—Center field moved in to 400 feet and right-center moved in to 365 feet.

OUTFIELD FENCE

1960—10 feet high. 1975—Raised to 12 feet.

1974—Lowered to 8 feet. 1982—Lowered to 9 feet.

CANDLESTICK'S JumboTRON

Candlestick Park's video display board made its debut on Opening Day in 1987 as part of the stadium's $30 million renovation project. The centerpiece of the $4.5 million ensemble is the Sony JumboTRON, a 24-by-32 foot video screen, which is the first of its kind ever installed in an American baseball stadium. The board is composed of more than 100,000 Trini-lites, each the size of a deck of playing cards. Every Trini-lite has three color emitting sections—red, blue, and green—and requires eight watts of power. The picture is supplied by three cameras, behind home plate and at the end of each dugout, as well video feeds from telecasts within the stadium and satellite coverage of other games and events. A complete state-of-the-art video editing suite is fully equipped to produce highlights, features and special effects. The Giants also operate JumboTRON and the message board for Forty-Niners football games.

SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS BROADCAST INFORMATION

Giants Television-Radio

The Giants can be well seen and heard in 1992, with satellite delivery of more than 100 telecasts on KTVU and SportsChannel Pacific, and full coverage of the 162-game regular season schedule on KNBR radio, KLOK Spanish Radio and the Giants Radio Network.

This season marks the third year of the Giants' affiliation with the cable network SportsChannel. Beginning with its presentation of Candlestick's Opening Night excitement, SportsChannel will air 55 Giants games in 1992. Returning to the cable waves to call the action are Joe Morgan and Duane Kuiper.

Kuiper also joins Ron Fairly and Hank Greenwald on 42 road and 8 home telecasts over KTVU Channel 2 and the Giants Television Network, which includes stations covering Reno, Sacramento, Salinas-Monterey and Fresno-Visalia. This is KTVU's 31st year as the Giants' flagship television station and both KTVU and SportsChannel telecasts are produced by the San Francisco Giants Broadcast Services Department.

On radio, Hank and Ron team up for all 162 regular season games, as well as 13 exhibition contests from Arizona. KNBR-AM (680 AM), the 50,000 watt powerhouse, is entering its 13th year as the flagship of the Giants Radio Network, which stretches from Fresno to Oregon and from Honolulu to Reno.

Hank Greenwald returns for the fourth straight year as the Giants play-by-play voice on KNBR and KTVU. Hank was the voice of the Giants from 1979-86 before departing for a two-year stint with the New York Yankees radio team. A 1957 graduate of Syracuse University, Hank has done radio play-by-play of University of San Francisco Dons basketball, Syracuse football, Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League and Golden State Warriors. Hank has also served as the press box public address announcer for the last nine Super Bowls.

Ron Fairly returns for his sixth year in the Giants radio booth. The former first baseman-outfielder had spent the previous eight years calling the action for the California Angels radio and cable broadcasts, following his retirement from active playing in 1978. Fairly's Major League career spanned 21 years with six teams and he appeared in four World Series and two All-Star games.

Joe Morgan is back for his seventh year as the play-by-play anchor of the Giants cable telecasts, his eighth as a Major League broadcaster since his retirement as an active player in 1984. The Hall of Fame second baseman begins his third year with SportsChannel, having spent the previous four seasons on GiantsVision. Morgan began his announcing career with the Cincinnati Reds in 1985, and has also announced games for NBC and ESPN's College World Series. Joe worked on selected ABC "Monday Night Baseball" telecasts, and was the color analyst for the 1988 American League Championship Series and the 1989 World Series, both on ABC. Morgan is a member of ESPN's primary announcing team in this, their third year of baseball.

Duane Kuiper returns for his sixth season as Morgan's partner in the cable both (second with SportsChannel), and his fifth year as a member of the KTVU broadcast team. The former infielder spent the last four years of his career with the Giants, following seven with the Cleveland Indians. After retiring in 1985, Kuiper provided commentary on Giants radio and TV broadcasts through the end of that season. From 1982-1985, he hosted the "Duane Kuiper Show," a post-game feature on KNBR radio.

SPANISH RADIO

Spanish-speaking Giants fans in the Bay Area can tune into KLOK-AM (1170 AM), which will broadcast all Giants home games and selected road contests for the fourth year in a row.

With an output of 50,000 watts, KLOK is the most powerful Spanish-language flagship station in Giants history. With a station in Salinas carrying the Spanish broadcasts, Hispanic fans in Monterey County can follow the Giants as well.

Tito Fuentes will team with a new broadcast partner in 1992. At press time, the new KLOK play-by-play announcer was yet to be named.

Fuentes is in his twelfth season on the Giants Spanish-language broadcast crew, handling pre-game, post-game and color commentary chores for KLOK. A former Major League second baseman who played for the Giants from 1965 through 1974, Tito also played with San Diego, Detroit, and Oakland. A .268 hitter over his 13-year career, he was voted the second baseman on the Dream Team for the Giants' first 25 years by San Francisco fans in 1982.
