Peter A. Magowan

PRESIDENT AND MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

Major League owners approved the sale of the Giants to an investment group headed by Peter Magowan on December 9, 1992. At that time, the longtime San Francisco resident became the president and managing general partner of the team he had rooted for since his boyhood days in New York City. He and his ownership group also saved the team for thousands of other Bay Area baseball fans by preventing the Giants from completing a proposed move to Tampa Bay, Florida which would have taken National League baseball out of Northern California.

The purchase of the Giants was one more in a long line of business successes for the 50-year-old Magowan, who has spent 24 years with Safeway, Inc. For the last 12, he has acted as the chairman and chief executive officer of the multi-billion dollar supermarket entity.

Magowan joined Safeway in 1968 as a real estate negotiator based in Washington, D.C. He later became a store manager before moving to Houston as Safeway's first district manager there. Subsequent assignments included stints as the retail operations manager in Phoenix and the vice president and division manager in Tulsa. In 1976 he went to Toronto and oversaw the company's international operations, which then included 450 stores in Canada, the United Kingdom, West Germany and Australia. In 1978, Magowan returned to San Francisco as a regional manager. He was elected a director in May, 1979 and in January, 1980 he was named chairman and CEO. In March, 1988 he assumed the additional title of president.

A native of New York City who moved West with his family about the same time the Giants moved West to San Francisco, Magowan graduated from Stanford University in 1964 and received a master's degree from Oxford. He also completed two years of further post-graduate work at the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies.

In addition to his duties with Safeway, Magowan serves on the boards of Chrysler Corporation, The Vons Companies and the Food Marketing Institute, and was previously a director of the Giants (for 11 years from 1981 through mid-1992) and the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. He is also a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and the Advisory Council of the School of Advanced International Studies of Johns Hopkins University and a public member of the Hudson Institute. He is a former member of the Business Roundtable and the National Chamber of Commerce.

Magowan and his wife, Debby, reside in the Pacific Heights area of San Francisco.

Bob Quinn

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Bob Quinn is a man recognized throughout the game of baseball as one of the leading evaluators of talent and builders of a solid organizational philosophy. He was tabbed by Peter Magowan as the Giants' senior vice president and general manager on December 1, 1992.

Quinn came to the Giants following a three-year stint as vice president and general manager of the Cincinnati Reds. After joining the Cincinnati organization on October 13, 1989, he orchestrated transactions during his initial season that brought the Reds such players as reliever Randy Myers, infielders Hal Morris and Bill Doran, and outfielders Glenn Braggs and Billy Hatcher. His initial Reds team in 1990 was in first place every day of the season en route to a World Championship; Quinn was recognized for his feats by being chosen Major League Executive of the Year by The Sporting News in a poll of his peers.

After the Reds slipped to a 74-88 mark in an injury-riddled 1991 season, Quinn strengthened his club last year by trading for such outstanding talents as Greg Swindell, Tim Belcher, Bip Roberts, Dave Martinez and highly-regarded prospect Willie Greene. The Reds rebounded to post a 90-72 record in 1992 and challenge the Braves for the NL West title before finishing in second place.

A native of Boston, Quinn, 54, began his career in baseball administration following his graduation from Marquette University in 1958. After a three-year stint as business manager for the Class C Northern League's Eau Claire Braves, he spent six years in private business. He returned to baseball as GM of the Reading Phillies in 1967-68 (including a 1967 season that saw him named The Sporting News' double-A Executive of the Year) and GM of the Omaha Royals in 1969-70. He became Milwaukee's director of minor league operations in 1971, and in 1973 he began a 12-year stint with Cleveland that saw him rise to the position of vice president of player development and scouting.

In September, 1986 he joined the New York Yankees as assistant VP of baseball administration. He was promoted to vice president the next month and named general manager of the Yankees in June, 1988. He held that position until going to Cincinnati.

Quinn's grandfather, J.A. Quinn, was GM of four Major League teams, while his father, John, held the GM position with the Milwaukee Braves for 23 years and with the Philadelphia Phillies for 13. His brother, Jack, is president of the St. Louis Blues hockey team, while his sister, Margo, is married to Baltimore Orioles GM Roland Hemond.

Quinn and his wife, Kathryn, were married in 1960 and have two sons, Mike and Bob.

Laurence M. Baer

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Larry Baer was a key facilitator in the development and implementation of the 1992 effort to keep the Giants in San Francisco. He is an executive with experience in sports, marketing, television, film and politics, and was named executive vice president of the Giants on December 1, 1992.

Baer, 35, is responsible for the overall administrative functioning of the Giants organization; he works closely with the senior vice presidents on both the baseball and business sides. Baer was also charged by Peter Magowan with responsibility for the new stadium plan, which is seen as the cornerstone for the Giants' long-term success in the Bay Area.

He came to the Giants from CBS-TV in New York, where he had served as a special assistant to the network's chairman, Laurence Tisch, since 1990.

A fourth-generation San Franciscan and lifelong Giants fan, Baer graduated from The City's Lowell High School before matriculating to U.C. Berkeley. While a senior at Berkeley in 1978, he convinced then-Oakland A's owner Charlie Finley to turn his team's radio rights over to the Cal station and served as the A's play-by-play voice for 23 games before Finley reached an agreement with another Bay Area station.

Following his graduation from Cal, Baer served briefly as the marketing director for the San Francisco Pioneers of the Women's Professional Basketball League. He joined the Giants in 1980 as the club's marketing director.

In his three years with the Giants, Baer helped direct the highly-applauded Croix de Candlestick campaign, and he developed a number of other successful promotional days and events. In 1983 he left the Giants to attend Harvard Business School.

After receiving his MBA from Harvard, Baer returned to the Bay Area. He spent the next five years working for KPIX-TV in San Francisco and its parent company, Group W, before joining Tisch at CBS.

Baer and his wife, Pamela, were married in 1990 and reside in San Francisco.

Pat Gallagher

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Pat Gallagher has been with the Giants since 1976. He is in his twelfth year supervising non-baseball business for the club, including advertising, promotions, public relations, community development, sales and marketing affairs, season and group ticket sales, retail operations and stadium operations.

As supervisor of all the club's business affairs, Gallagher is responsible for Candlestick Park's "new look" for baseball, both in park design and a commitment to customer service.

Gallagher has directed some of the most significant projects in the Giants' San Francisco history: the marketing of "Humm Baby," the "You Gotta Like These Kids" and "Hang In There" campaigns; the world famous "Croix de Candlestick" buttons, awarded to those who brave Candlestick Park in an extra-inning night game; the new logo and uniforms, which debuted in 1983, and the 55th All-Star Game in 1984.

Under Gallagher's tutelage, the Giants marketing campaigns have won numerous awards, including several for Major League Baseball Marketing Excellence, San Francisco Advertising Club "Best of the West" honors and two national awards: A "Clio" and an "Effie" for effective advertising.

Gallagher is active in Major League Baseball business affairs and serves on the board of Major League Baseball Properties as well as the National League Scheduling Committee. He is also on the board of directors for PASS: Promoting Achievement in School through Sports.

A former executive with Marine World/Africa USA and Sea World theme parks, Pat, along with his wife, Joan, are also very active in a variety of local, civic and charitable endeavors including Big Brothers/Big Sisters of the Peninsula.

A native of Chicago, Pat grew up in San Diego, and later attended San Diego State University. He and his wife have a son, Murphy, and a daughter, Katie. They make their home in Atherton, California.

Brian Sabean

ASSISTANT TO THE GM AND VICE PRESIDENT OF SCOUTING AND PLAYER PERSONNEL

Brian Sabean takes on the role of Assistant to the General Manager and Vice President of Scouting and Player Personnel for the Giants in 1993. He assists Bob Quinn in the day-to-day baseball operation of the Major League team and oversees the scouting and player personnel areas.

Sabean, prior to accepting this position with the Giants in January, had been in the New York Yankees organization since January, 1985. He served the Yankees as a scouting supervisor in Florida (1985) and Florida/Georgia (1986), scouting director (April, 1986 to August, 1990), and vice president of player personnel/scouting (August, 1990 until December 1992). During his tenure in New York, the Yankee organization saw 39 original signings placed on 40-man rosters for 1992, including 21 that saw Major League action.

A native of Concord, New Hampshire, Sabean graduated from Concord High School in 1974 and Eckerd College (St. Petersburg, Florida) in 1978. Sabean served as an assistant baseball coach at St. Leo College in St. Leo, Florida in 1979 and Tampa University from 1980 to 1982. He was then promoted to head coach at Tampa from 1983 - 1984.

Sabean, 36, and his wife Barbara, have three sons, Colin, Sean and Brendan.

Giants Community Fund

While the Giants on the field pursue their ultimate goal of winning the World Series, the team off the field, the Giants Community Development team, is just as dedicated to its goal of a championship-caliber community development program, bringing the spirit of Giants baseball to our surrounding Northern California neighborhood. The Giants Community Fund is a giant step toward the goal of a stronger, more productive community effort. The Fund was established three years ago as a non-profit organization that makes it possible for the Giants to assist various youth-oriented programs, community projects and issues throughout the Bay Area.

This includes designated needs of playgrounds, boys' and girls' clubs, special schools, recreation centers and handicapped organizations. The Fund is supported by contributions from IBM's Tale of the Tape program, the Candlestick messageboard, the Giants' annual Golf Classic and Play Ball Luncheon and auctions of sports memorabilia, as well as individual donations.

The Giants Fund board of directors, which includes Manager Dusty Baker, has met several times in the past year to disburse grants totaling $160,000 to dozens of organizations, including: The Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame, United Cerebral Palsy of San Francisco, Chinatown Youth Center, St. Johns Education Threshold Center, the Peninsula Boys and Girls Club and the Richmond Police Athletics League.

For information on the Giants Community Fund or any other Community Development Programs, call (415) 330-2514.

Tony Siegle

VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION AND OPERATIONS

Tony Siegle is a veteran of 27 years in baseball, having worked with the Astros, Brewers, Phillies, Padres and Angels. Siegle was named Giants director of minor league operations on August 24, 1990 and was promoted to his current position last December. He now supervises all Giants Major League contract and player administration, and oversees the minor league operations and the development of players throughout the farm system.

Following a stint as an officer in the United States Navy, Siegle joined the Phillies in 1969 as director of stadium operations, and moved to Milwaukee in 1970 as an administrative assistant in the minor league and scouting departments. He was the Brewers' farm director from 1975-79, an assistant to the general manager in Houston from 1979-82 and an executive assistant in baseball operations for the Phillies in 1982-83 before being named Philadelphia's vice president of baseball administration in October, 1983. He was vice president of player personnel for the Padres from May through December, 1989, and was working as a special assignment scout for the California Angels before joining the Giants.

Siegle, 53, is a graduate of the University of Miami (FL). He and his wife, Cynthia, have four children and reside in Berkeley.

Bob Hartsfield

COORDINATOR OF SCOUTING

Bob Hartsfield, a veteran of more than 41 years in baseball, was appointed coordinator of scouting on January 20. He is responsible for coordinating the club's scouting efforts at the Major League, minor league, college, high school and international levels.

Prior to accepting this position, Hartsfield, 60, had been a player, scout and manager throughout his 41 years in professional baseball. A former infielder, he played 11 years in the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves and Los Angeles Dodgers organizations. He became a scout in 1963 with the Chicago Cubs organization after a knee injury ended his playing career.

Hartsfield has scouted for more than 30 seasons on the amateur, professional and Major League levels. His first managerial experience was with the San Francisco organization in 1974 at class-A Decatur. He also managed with the Giants organization in 1975-76, with the Cubs organization from 1977-81, the Houston Astros organization from 1983-85 and most recently with the Jacksonville team in the Seattle Mariners organization in 1992.

Hartsfield, a native of Atlanta, Georgia, graduated from West Fulton (Atlanta) High School and later attended Georgia State University. He has also served as a college basketball referee for 25 years, working for the ACC, SEC, Metro, Sun Belt and the Ohio Valley conferences and has worked three NCAA tournaments.

Jack Hiatt

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Jack Hiatt is in his second year as director of player development for the Giants. He spent the previous two seasons assisting then-director Carlos Alfonso, one year as a roving catching instructor (1989) and one campaign (1988) as the manager of the Giants' rookie league club in Pocatello, Idaho. Jack is chiefly responsible for the assignment, development and evaluation of players throughout the Giants' minor league system.

A catcher and first baseman during his playing days, Hiatt played for the Angels, Giants, Expos, Cubs and Astros during a career that included 483 games from 1964-72. During that period, he posted a .251 average with 22 home runs and 154 RBIs.

Prior to joining the Giants' player development staff, Hiatt worked as a coach and manager in the Chicago Cubs, California Angels and Houston Astros organizations, including a stint as a Major League coach with Chicago in 1981.

Jack and his wife, Sheralyn, reside in Sedona, Arizona.

Willie Mays

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Former Center Fielder

Nickname: Say Hey

Birthdate: May 6, 1931

Birthplace: Westfield, Alabama

Batted: Right Threw: Right

Height: 5-11 Weight: 185

GIANTS CAREER...Regarded by many baseball experts as the best all-around player ever to grace a baseball diamond, Willie Mays was a brilliant fielder, hitter, and base runner...1951 - Willie first appeared in the big leagues on May 25, when he was brought to New York after a .477 season at Minneapolis...after going hitless in his first 12 at-bats, a discouraged Mays begged manager Leo Durocher to send him back to the minors, but Durocher replied, "You're my center fielder if you don't get a hit the rest of the season"...Mays responded to his manager's confidence and blasted his first of 660 career home runs on May 28 off Boston's Warren Spahn...he helped the Giants win the pennant with his .274 average, 20 homers and 68 RBIs in 121 games, and earned the National League Rookie of the Year award...1952 - Willie was off to a slow start when he entered the Army...1954 - returned to pro baseball in grand style, capturing the N.L. batting title (.345) and the MVP award after belting 41 home runs and 110 RBIs, again leading the Giants to a pennant...in the first game of the World Series against the Cleveland Indians on September 29 at the Polo Grounds, Mays made what was perhaps the most unbelievable catch ever in Series competition...in the eighth inning with Larry

Doby at second and Al Rosen on first, the Indians' Vic Wertz hit a tremendous drive to deep center at the Polo Grounds; Mays raced to a spot some 460 feet from home plate, stuck his glove into the air and came down with the ball, making the catch over his left shoulder; he fired the ball back into the infield and kept the runners in check, saving the game for the Giants, who went on to beat the Indians in four straight...in a poll taken by The Sporting News, a majority of sports writers cited this catch as the most exciting play of 1954 in any sport, and today many still say it was the most spectacular catch of all time...the 1954 season also marked the first of 24 straight appearances for the N.L. in the All-Star game...1955 - Willie slugged his first of eight career grand slams off Clem Labine at Brooklyn, June 29, and hit a second HR off Labine later in the game...led the N.L. in homers (51) and became the first Major Leaguer to hit 50 or more homers in a season and steal 20 bases (24) ...1956 - Willie became the sixth player in history (and the first in the N.L.) to hit 30 or more home runs (36) and steal 30 or more bases (40)...1957 - with 35 homers and 38 thefts, he became the first player to make the "30/30 club" twice...1958 - in his first season in San Francisco, Willie forever endeared himself to the fans, batting .347, setting a club record for most hits in a season (208), and finishing second in the league MVP voting to Ernie Banks...1959-knocked in the game-winning run in the 1959 All-Star classic with a triple in a 5-4 win over the American League...1960 - set an S.F. record for most triples in a season with 12 and led the National League in hits (190)...1961 - Mays became the sixth player in history to smash four home runs in a game on April 30, against Milwaukee, collecting eight RBIs in a 14-4 rout of the Braves...May 13, for the third time in his career, he smashed a grand slam and a home run in the same game, in the third and fifth innings off Milwaukee's Bob Buhl...in an 8-5 win Willie set off his own fireworks at Candlestick Park on July 4, when he hit his 300th career home run off the Cubs' Jack Curtis...1962 - a bountiful year for Say Hey...Willie led the N.L. in home runs (49) and had personal highs in runs (120) and RBIs (141)...Mays returned to the Polo Grounds on June 1, smacking a homer in his first plate appearance, and receiving a standing ovation from 53,000 fans in a 9-6 romp of the Mets...in Willie's first five seasons in San Francisco (1958-62) he batted .318 and collected 943 hits, 181 home runs and 567 RBIs...1963 - Mays' 400th career home run came on August 27, a bases-empty shot off the Cardinals' Curt Simmons...1964 - Willie was named captain of the Giants and played first, shortstop and third, marking the first time in his career that he played anywhere but the outfield...1965 - another MVP season for Mays, the only Giant other than Carl Hubbell in 1933 and 1936 to win two of these coveted awards...his 500th career home run came off Don Nottebart at Houston on September 13...it was his 47th round-tripper of the season, on the way to collecting 52 for the Major League title...1966 - Mays passed all home run hitters, except Babe Ruth, with number 535 off the Cardinals' Ray Washburn on Aug. 17, at Candlestick...1968 - Willie won his 11th Golden Glove award...1969 - slugged his 600th career home run off Mike Corkins of San Diego Sept. 22, in a 4-2 win...named Player of the Decade (1960-69) by The Sporting News...1971 - his 3000th career base hit came on July 18, off Montreal's Mike Wegener at Candlestick, in a 10-1 win...at age 40, in his last full season with the Giants, Mays led the N.L. in walks (112), stole 23 bases, and sparked the Giants to their second pennant with his play in the first half of the season...finished the year at .271 with 18 homers and 61 RBIs...his last home run in a San Francisco uniform came on September 26, connecting off Steve Blateric at Cincinnati, his 646th career shot...

PRO CAREER...1972 - Mays was traded to the New York Mets May 11, for Charlie Williams and cash...in his debut for the Mets on May 14, in a game against the Giants at Shea Stadium, Willie received a thunderous ovation with his fifth-inning home run to break a 4-4 tie...reached base 14 out of the next 27 trips to the plate, with three game-winning hits and two home runs, but he showed signs of age as the year wore on, finishing at .250...1973 - he appeared in just 66 games, played in the World Series against Oakland, then retired on October 24...RECORDS/ACHIEVEMENTS...Mays was in the Opening Day lineup all 15 seasons with San Francisco...he is the Giants franchise leader in games played (2857), at-bats (10,477), runs (2011), hits (3187), doubles (504), home runs (646) total bases (5907) and extra base hits (1289)...led the N.L. in slugging percentage in 1954, 1955, 1957, 1964-65...led in total bases in 1955, 1962, 1965...led in stolen bases from 1956-59...led N.L. outfielders in double plays 1954-56, 1965...was voted to The Sporting News' All-Star Major League teams in 1954, 1957-60, the N.L. All-Star teams from 1961-66 and the N.L. All-Star fielding teams 1958-1968...in his career with the Giants, New York and San Francisco, Willie played 22 seasons (although losing almost two years to military service) and batted .300 or more ten times, had 100 or more RBIs ten times, scored 100 or more runs 12 consecutive times, had 20 or more doubles 16 times, and hit 30 or more home runs 11 times...had a .307 average in the mid-season classic, with three homers, three triples, two doubles, 20 runs and nine RBIs...set an N.L. record with two or more homers in a game 63 times...Willie was the most prolific home run hitter of his generation, with 300 or more home runs and 300 or more stolen bases...his 660 career homers ranks third all-time, trailing only Hank Aaron (755) and Babe Ruth (715)...

PERSONAL/MISC...In 1950, the Giants sent scout Eddie Montague to inspect a first baseman, Alonzo Perry, of the New York Cubans in the Negro League, in a game against the Birmingham Black Barons...Montague, however, quickly spotted Mays, a speedy, agile 19-year old outfielder for the Barons, with quick hands, a great arm and a powerful bat...Montague forgot about Perry and arranged a deal with the Barons, paying $14,000 for Mays' contract...Willie was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1979, his first year of eligibility, the ninth player to make it in his first try...had his uniform number (24) retired by the Giants...joined the Giants staff in 1986 as a special assistant to the President and General Manager, symbolizing the pride and passion of Giants baseball...dons his #24 uniform every year at the Giants Spring Training camp in Scottsdale and works as an inspirational coach...keeps an active schedule throughout the year as a Giant emissary, visiting the Giants minor league teams, where he brings his heroic aura to young players, greets fans and signs autographs for hours on end...makes a number of appearances on behalf of the club at a variety of civic and charitable events throughout the Bay Area, including the annual Giants Fund Golf Classic...in 1986, he hosted his own five-minute KNBR radio show which aired before every Giants game...from 1986-89, Willie was a regular guest as a color commentator with Joe Morgan and Duane Kuiper on GiantsVision telecasts...in 1990, worked alongside Kuiper on several SportsChannel broadcasts, offering his unique and colorful commentary...also serves as a public relations executive for Bally's Resorts, among other business interests, and is active on the card show circuit...he and his wife, Mae, make their home in Atherton...

GIANTS CAREER...Willie was one of the most respected and feared batsmen in baseball...1959 - he exploded into the Majors on July 30, going 4-for-4 in his debut against the Phillies' ace Robin Roberts with two triples and two singles...hit .354 that season in 52 games, slugged 13 home runs and captured the Rookie of the Year award...1960 - began the season with seven home runs in his first 15 games, then tailed off badly and was hitting .244 when optioned to Tacoma briefly in July...1961 - rebounded with a fine season, batting .271 with 18 home runs and 50 RBIs in 101 games...1962 - fired a Fourth of July salute with two homers and seven RBIs in the first game of a doubleheader against the Mets in an 11-4 win...batted .293 that year and hit a tremendous homer off the Yankees' Ralph Terry in the second game of the World Series...in Game 7 on October 16 at Candlestick, he lined out to Bobby Richardson in the bottom of the ninth with the winning run in scoring position to end the series...1963 - his outstanding power became evident when he tied Hank Aaron for the home run title (44)...hit a pair of two-run homers off Art Mahaffey on July 12 in a 7-5 loss at Philadelphia, making him the number one home run hitter among Giants left fielders with 25...extended his 24-game hitting streak on July 19...hit three home runs off the Mets in the first four innings during a 13-4 runaway on September 22...1964 - hit three home runs on April 22 in an 8-6 victory at Milwaukee...1966 - Willie led the club in game-winning hits in 1966 (15)...1967 - although hampered throughout the season with injuries, he managed to set a club record for most grand slams in a season, all three coming off left-handed pitching...1968 - on May 4, he became the Giants' career grand slam leader, slugging his eighth off Larry Jaster of St. Louis...1969 - the most spectacular season in his brilliant career...had a 16-game hitting streak, May 23-June 11, during which he batted .453, smashed 11 round trippers and 21 RBIs...in the All-Star game on July 23, he homered twice to lead the Nationals to a 9-3 win and won the Arch Memorial Award as MVP...led the Giants in game-winning hits (16) and set a Major League record with 45 intentional bases on balls...became the fifth player in M.L. history to earn back-to-back home run and RBI titles (36 HRs, 105 RBIs in 1968; 45 HRs, 126 RBIs in 1969)...finished fifth in the N.L. in batting (.320)...for his achievements in 1969, Willie won the MVP award and was named The Sporting News Player of the Year...1970 - although this was a season of injuries for Mac (he suffered from a chronic knee condition, blurred vision and shoulder and hip injuries), he still blasted 39 home runs and 126 RBIs, leading the Giants in both categories, and set a club record for most bases on balls in a season (137)...1971 - submitted to surgery on his ailing left knee...led the league in walks (64), while appearing in just 105 games...hit a pair of home runs in a losing cause to Pittsburgh in the 1971 League Championship Series...1972 - suffered a spiral fracture of his right arm in a collision with Johnny Jeter of San Diego and was out of action for six weeks...1973 - "Stretch" was traded to the Padres with Bernie Williams for Mike Caldwell on October 25...1976 - was sold to Oakland in August then opted for free agency at the end of the season...1977 - came into Spring Training with the Giants as a non-roster player without a contract...made the club and proved there was still a lot of life left in his bat...Willie set two records on June 27 in a 14-9 win over the Reds...hit two home runs in one inning, and is only one of two players ever to do so twice in a career (Andre Dawson did it in 1978 and 1985)...one of the homers was his 17th career grand slam, making him the all-time National League leader in that category...his 18th career grand slam came on August 1 off Montreal's Mike Wegener...one of Willie's biggest thrills came on September 18, Willie McCovey Day at Candlestick Park...after going 0-for-3, he smashed a long single to left center in the ninth with two on and two out, scoring Derrel Thomas with his game-winning hit and providing a storybook finish to his day...led the club that season in home runs (28), RBIs (86) and game-winning hits (15) and was named Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News and UPI...also won the Hutch Award, an honor given to the player who overcomes adversity and displays the character and competitive instincts of former Cincinnati Red Fred Hutchinson...1978 - Willie appeared in just 108 games that season after suffering two injuries, but hit his 500th career home run off Jamie Easterly, July 1 at Atlanta...1979 - missed the 1979 Opening Day lineup for the first time as a Giant since 1962...hit career home run 512 on June 9 off the Pirates' Grant Jackson, passing Mel Ott as the top left-handed home run hitter in the National League...1980 - hit his 521st and final home run on May 3, a 385-foot shot off Montreal's Scott Sanderson in the fourth, which moved him into a tie on the all-time list with boyhood idol Ted Williams...Mac retired from the game he loved on July 6 and had his uniform number 44 retired during Willie McCovey Weekend in September...

PRO CAREER...1955 - Willie began his career with Sandersville, led Georgia State League first basemen in double plays (73) and led the league in RBIs (113) and putouts (897)...1959 - was batting .372 at Phoenix when brought to San Francisco, and led the Pacific Coast League in home runs (29) while appearing in just 95 games...1974 - as a Padre, Mac set a club record for most home runs (22) and RBIs (63) by a lefty...1975 - broke his own record with 23 homers and 68 RBIs...RECORDS/ACHIEVEMENTS... Willie is one of 22 players to have performed in four different decades...he is tied for 10th on the all-time home run list with Ted Williams (521)...one of the most destructive hitters of his era...the Reds introduced a drastic defensive shift to right field in an attempt to curb McCovey's power...was a six-time nominee to the N.L. All-Star squad...he is the top home run hitter among first basemen (439, with 82 coming as a pinch hitter or outfielder) and has the most home runs at Candlestick Park (237)...established M.L. record for most seasons as a first baseman (22)...

PERSONAL/MISC... Willie was signed as a free agent by Giant scout Alex Pompey in 1955...Named chairman of the annual Willie McCovey March of Dimes Charity Golf Tournament in 1979...serves as a roving ambassador of Giants pride, dedication and greatness...performs a variety of community services and speaking engagements, media appearances and other special assignments...has appeared at the Giants' Spring Training camps to provide tips and inspirational advice to veterans and rookies alike...in 1986 Willie was enshrined in the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown...he became the 194th member of the Hall, and only the 16th to be elected in his first year of eligibility...returns to Candlestick at the close of every season to present the Willie Mac Award, established in his name in 1980 and given to the Giants player who best exemplifies the spirit and leadership consistently shown by Stretch throughout his 22-year career...through 1992, he had presented the prestigious award to Jack Clark, Larry Herndon, Joe Morgan, Darrell Evans, Bob Brenly, Mike Krukow, Chris Speier, Jose Uribe, Dave Dravecky, Steve Bedrosian, Robby Thompson and Mike Felder in special on-field, pre-game ceremonies...has worked as vice president of sales for the Ramallah Co., a wholesale linen firm in Napa, California since 1980...is an accomplished amateur golfer...Willie has a daughter, Allison, and resides in Woodside...

Brewington Honored with the Third Bill Parese Award

Jamie Brewington, the Giants' 10th selection in the June, 1992 draft, has been selected as the third recipient of the Bill Parese Award, established in 1990 in honor of the Giants' Oklahoma-based scout who passed away in December 1989.

The honor is awarded annually to the first-year professional who exemplifies the spirit, work ethic and pride that Bill Parese showed every day of his life.

Playing for Everett in the Northwest League, Brewington posted a 5-2 record with a 4.33 ERA in 15 games (11 starts).

Tony Spires won the initial Bill Parese Award in 1990, while Frank Charles was honored in 1991.

Contract Status: Signed through 1993

1992 SEASON...underwent surgery on March 19 to remove a benign growth from his #10 rib and began the season on the DL...was activated April 17 and made his first start the next day, going 5 innings and picking up a victory over the Reds at Candlestick...was 4-2 in his first 7 starts, but dropped 12 of 16 decisions from that point on...did not receive much support, as teammates scored a total of 29 runs in his 14 losses, including 3 shutouts...run support while he was in the game (2.81 per 9 innings) would have been worst in the NL but was 8 innings short of qualifying...only victory during a string of 8 starts from May 24-June 30 was a complete game 2-hit shutout over the Astros at Candlestick June 7...that appearance was the 100th of his career...tied an ML record in the 9th inning of that contest when he became the 16th NL pitcher (25th ML) to strike out the side on 9 pitches...was ejected from his June 18 start vs. the Padres at Candlestick, along with Giants coach Dusty Baker, Padres players Fred McGriff and Jose Melendez and Padres coaches Bruce Kimm and Ron Ogelsby, when he hit McGriff with a pitch following Gary Sheffield's grand slam in the 4th inning...was suspended for 4 games for his part in the ensuing fight, and served that suspension from June 26-29...picked up his 300th career strikeout July 10...tied for 3rd in the league with 14 losses...allowed the league's 6th-highest number of HRs (18), including 2 slams (Gary Sheffield on June 18, Eddie Murray on June 2) in his 23 outings on the year, after giving up 13 HRs in 202 innings in 1991...gave up 3 homers to left-handed hitters after allowing just 2 career HRs by lefties prior to 1992...allowed lefties a .261 average, after holding them to a career .188 mark in his previous 2+ years in the big leagues...tied with Bud Black for the NL-high with 7 balks, committed 6 in 373.2 career innings prior to 1992...twice walked a career-high 7 batters in a game (in 5.1 inning stints May 29 at Pittsburgh and June 13 vs. Houston)...felt soreness in his left elbow while warming up for his scheduled start at St. Louis September 4...was scratched from that start, diagnosed with inflammation of his left ulnar nerve and elbow and did not pitch for the remainder of the season...

PRO CAREER...1991 - began the year in the bullpen, going 0-3, 4.79 in 13 relief appearances before getting his first start May 12 vs. the Mets...allowed 1 run in 5 innings and had no decision in that game, threw 8 shutout innings without a decision in his next start (May 17 vs. Montreal)...went 8 innings May 28 for the victory over Cincinnati, snapping an 8-game losing streak dating back to August 8, 1990...was 4-9, 4.22 in 28 appearances (13 starts) through July 16...won 6 straight decisions over his next 11 starts, and went 9-6, 2.94 (34er, 104ip) in his final 16 starts...had 2 hits including his first ML home run (off Wally Whitehurst) July 25 vs. the Mets at Candlestick...threw 8 innings of 5-hit ball at Pittsburgh August 24, before returning to SF the next day to await the birth of his first child...hurled a 2-hit shutout over the Dodgers October 5 at Candlestick to eliminate Los Angeles from the NL West race...13 wins led the team and were the most by a Giants lefthander since Vida Blue won 14 in 1980...also led team with 139 strikeouts, the most by a Giants pitcher since Mike Krukow fanned 178 in 1986...allowed just .86 hits per inning pitched (10th in NL)...held left-handed batters to a .169 mark, lowest in the NL...ranked 5th in the NL in groundball/fly ball ratio at nearly 2 to 1, tied for 6th in the NL with 20 GDPs induced...opposing baserunners were just 8-for-20 with him on the mound, the 2nd lowest mark in the NL...2.71 ERA at home was 6th best in Senior Circuit...1990 - began spring as the Giants lefthanded closer, but was sent to Phoenix April 4 after going 0-2 with a 13.50 ERA in 3 exhibitions...went 0-2, 8.64 in his first 3 triple-A starts, but went 5-3, 2.97 in his last 8 games before being recalled May 30 when Rick Reuschel was disabled...won his first 6 decisions, including a pair of shutouts...took a no-hitter into the 9th June 13 at San Diego...was perfect through 5 before Benito Santiago reached on a strikeout/wild pitch...lost the no-hit bid on Mike Pagliarulo's leadoff single in the 9th...faced just 28 batters and fanned a career-best 9 during the 1-hitter, his first ML complete game...had a scoreless streak of 22.2 innings from June 9-29...had a no-hitter for 6.2 innings July 14 at St. Louis before Tom Pagnozzi's 2-out single in the 7th...ended up giving up just 2 hits but taking a 2-1 loss...allowed just 2 hits in a complete game 2-1 win over LA August 4 at Candlestick...went on the disabled list August 22 after pulling a muscle in his rib cage the previous night...was reinstated September 6, allowed 2 runs in 9.2 innings (1.94) over 7 relief appearances, before getting a final start against the Atlanta Braves October 1...1989 - last player sent down in Spring Training...had a 1.31 ERA in his final 6 starts for Phoenix before his 1st recall, including back-to-back complete games in a 5-1 win over Las Vegas and a 1-0 loss at Portland...recalled June 19...made a pair of relief appearances before getting a start June 30 vs. Chicago...went 7 innings at Pittsburgh in his next start July 5 and earned his 1st Major League victory...in that game, allowed a run on 2 walks, a hit and a sac fly in the 1st inning, but followed that with 6 shutout frames...optioned back to Phoenix August 2...recalled September 1...beat the Dodgers in relief September 20 at Candlestick...allowed just 2 hits in 9 innings during his 4 appearances in September...at Phoenix, ranked 5th in the Pacific Coast League in ERA...was involved in 3 1-0 games, losing 2...1988 - started the year at Shreveport, pitched 14 innings with 12 strikeouts before allowing a run...was 5-1, 1.19 after his 1st 9 outings...promoted to Phoenix in mid-June...fanned 10 in 7.1 2-hit shutout innings at Tacoma July 15...promoted to the Giants in September, suffered the loss in his ML debut, a September 5 start against the Padres at Candlestick...1987 - finished 2nd in the Midwest League in ERA...ran off 6 straight wins in 6 starts from June 4-July 7, allowing just 2 earned runs in 44.1 innings for an 0.41 ERA during that string...fanned 12 in a complete-game win vs. Burlington May 3, 11 in a 7-0 shutout at Beloit June 9...named to the Midwest League All-Star squad...1986 - split the season between starting and relief assignments for Clinton...2nd on the staff with 21 starts, 3rd with 131 innings...contributed a pair of saves out of the bullpen...1985 - starter and reliever on Everett's Northwest League championship squad in his initial pro season...2nd on the club in saves, despite just 10 relief appearances...

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Giants #2 selection in the June, 1988 draft. Signed by scout Andy Korenek.
- On disabled list August 27-September 18, 1992 with a broken left ring finger.

CAREER HIGHS

- Most Hits: 2 (4 times) last: August 21, 1992 vs. Pittsburgh
- Most RBIs: 1 (4 times) last: September 21, 1992 at San Diego
- Most Home Runs: 1, September 21, 1992 at San Diego
- Career Grand Slams: None
- Longest Hitting Streak: 2 (2 times) last: August 20-21, 1992

Rules of Interest

PLAYER LIMITS: 40, until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25, until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

QUALIFYING MARKS: To qualify for the batting championship a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances (3.1 per scheduled team game). To qualify for earned run average leadership a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched (1 per scheduled team game).

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: The individual fielding champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

- (1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;
- (2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;
- (3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING ON BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks, and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches, and sacrifice flies.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

TRADES: Trades can be made without restriction from the first day following the close of the championship season to August 1. From August 1 to the close of the season, Major League waivers are required.

WAIVERS: Waivers must be acquired for an outright assignment of a player to a minor league club. Players claimed on waivers are available in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after the start of the season. Otherwise, in reverse order of standings at close of preceding season.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE:

- is credited for each day the player appears on an active roster or Major League disabled list or suspended list.
- in the case of a player called up from the minor leagues, is credited beginning with the date he physically reports.
- in the case of a Major League player who is traded and reports in the normal course, service is not interrupted.
- in the case of a player sent down to the minor leagues, is credited through the date of the assignment.
- in the case of a player who is unconditionally released, is credited through the date waivers were requested.
- in the case of a player designated for release or assignment (MLR 2), is credited after the designation, through the date of the actual assignment or the request for unconditional release waivers.

- for a player who appears on his club's opening day roster, is credited as the earliest scheduled opener, without regard to the actual opening date of his own club.
- is credited at the rate of 172 days per "year," though the season is actually 182 days long.
- is not credited during any period or periods of optional assignment totaling 20 days or more during a single season.

RELIEF PITCHERS' SAVE RULE: A pitcher is credited with a Save when he meets all three of the following conditions: 1) he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and, 2) he is not the winning pitcher, and, 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or, b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or, c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

ROOKIE RULE: The Baseball Writers Association of America considers a player a rookie unless during the previous season or seasons he has a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues, or, b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club, excluding military service and time on the disabled list, during the 25-man limit. The 25-player limit is in effect from Opening Day through August 31.

DAY GAME/NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game.

DISABLED LISTS: REGULAR DISABLED LIST — The 15 day list may be used for as many players as needed, with the same recertification procedure as in the past. EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST — No maximum number of players on list at one time. Minimum period of inactivity-sixty (60) calendar days. Players placed on this list after August 1st shall remain there for the balance of the season. Day 1 is following player's last game appearance. Reinstatements may be made after day 15 (for the "15-day list") and after day 60 (for the "emergency disabled list").

FREE AGENCY (RE-ENTRY): Six years of Major League Service are required to be eligible for free agency.

- A player has 15 days from the first day following the World Series to file for free agency.
- By December 7, former club must offer to arbitrate or on January 8 former club becomes ineligible to sign the player. (Ineligible club regains eligibility the following May 1.)
- If club and player proceed to arbitration, maximum salary cut rules do not apply. Player who accepts former club's offer to arbitrate is not subject to repeater rights limitations.

SALARY ARBITRATION:

- Players are eligible after three years of Major League Service. The top 17% of two-year players by service time are also eligible. Maximum cut rules do not apply if in immediately preceding year player won arbitration increase of over 50%.
- Arbitrator is officially instructed to give particular attention for purposes of comparison to salaries of players with Major League Service no more than one annual service group higher than player who is arbitrating.

FREE AGENT (AMATEUR): One selection meeting shall be conducted each year in June to be known as the "Summer Meeting."

- Major League Clubs shall select in reverse order of their league standing at the close of the preceding season (determined by the percentage of games it won). No club may transfer to another club its right to select.
- A selected player shall be placed on a club's Negotiation List and shall remain thereon until the start of the Closed Period (the seven days preceding the Summer Meeting) of the next selection meeting, unless at an earlier date he (1) signs a contract (2) is removed because he was not eligible for selection (3) becomes a College Player by entering or returning to college.
- A club may not transfer its Negotiation Right to any other club.

Giants Alumni Association

It was August 26, 1990 when the San Francisco Giants announced the establishment of the first official Giants Alumni Association to bring former players, the Giants organization, Giants fans and the community closer together on a continuing basis.

Citing the rich and colorful history of the Giants' franchise, Giants management emphasizes the importance of staying in touch with Giants players after they move on. The Giants Alumni Association, headquartered in the Giants Community Development Department, allows the ballclub to preserve the traditions and memories associated with the team through the years, while encouraging Giants of the past to become involved with the club's current activities as much as possible.

When the Alumni Association was born just three years ago, the Giants had contacted more than 200 former Giants in 32 states and two foreign countries. That total has now grown to nearly 640 alumnus contacted, in 45 states and several more foreign countries. Some 108 alums still reside in California.

Through the Giants efforts, along with Giants historian Duane Garrett, we have accounted for almost all of the 1300 men on the all-time roster dating back to 1883. This list includes the New York and San Francisco Giants managers, and the San Francisco coaches and clubhouse staff. It does not include any currently active major or minor league players.

Members of the Giants Alumni Association receive official membership cards, a periodic newsletter, "Traditions," devoted to the association and its activities, special merchandise discounts and certain other Giants services.

The Alumni Association staff is continuing its research and gathering data on our members to include them in future alumni events, community service projects and various public relations programs as well.

The Annual Giants Community Fund Golf Classic reunites alumni on a yearly basis, as the association continues to grow. Former Giants who live in the Northern California region are often called upon to promote the team through clinics, speaking engagements and autograph sessions. They participate in charitable events and support a variety of Giants Community Development programs. The Alumni Association office is located at Candlestick Park, San Francisco, CA, 94124, telephone 415/330-2453.

Candlestick Park Ground Rules

1. A ball hitting either foul pole or the attached screens above the black ring painted on the poles is a home run. A ball hitting foul pole below black ring or hitting top of fence and bounding onto playing fields is in play. A fair ball bounding into stands or over fence is a two-base hit.
2. A thrown ball that goes behind the backstop screen is one base, if it was thrown by the pitcher from the rubber. All other overthrows are two bases.
3. A ball going over fence under the screen attached to foul poles is a home run.
4. A ball that hits the fence of the dugouts or bat racks is in play. A ball that goes into the dugout is out of play.
5. A ball that goes into the bullpens is in play.
6. A ball hitting any part of the stands beyond the top of the right field fence and bounding back onto the field is a home run.

Evolution of Candlestick Park

Ground Breaking

1959—Official construction begins at Candlestick Point in a cove at the south-eastern edge of San Francisco.

Stadium Named

1959—The new home of the Giants is officially named "Candlestick Park" in a balloting among fans. More than 15,000 entries were submitted.

Opening Day

1960—After two years of playing at Seals Stadium in downtown San Francisco, the Giants' opening day at Candlestick is April 12.

Seating Capacity

1960—The open-end stadium seats 42,500 fans.

1972—Construction to enclose the stadium is completed and seating capacity is expanded to 58,000 for baseball.

1989—Removal of rails in Lower Box seats expands capacity for baseball to over 62,000.

Playing Surface

1960—Natural grass.

1971—Artificial turf is installed in the outfield, the infield (except the infield skin), and foul territory.

1972—Artificial turf installed to cover infield skin (except sliding areas).

1979—Natural grass replaces artificial turf.

1981—Infield skin width reduced three feet.

Field Dimensions

1968—Foul lines extended to 335 feet.

1982—Center field moved in to 400 feet and right-center moved in to 365 feet.

1993—Right foul line moved in to 328.

Outfield Fence

1960—10 feet high.

1975—Raised to 12 feet.

1993—Lowered to 8 feet.

1974—Lowered to 8 feet.

1982—Lowered to 9 feet.

Candlestick's JumboTRON

Candlestick Park's video display board made its debut on Opening Day in 1987 as part of the stadium's $30 million renovation project. The centerpiece of the $4.5 million ensemble is the Sony JumboTRON, a 24-by-32 foot video screen, which is the first of its kind ever installed in an American baseball stadium. The board is composed of more than 100,000 Trini-lites, each the size of a deck of playing cards. Every Trini-lite has three color emitting sections—red, blue, and green—and requires eight watts of power. The picture is supplied by three cameras, behind home plate and at the end of each dugout, as well video feeds from telecasts within the stadium and satellite coverage of other games and events. A complete state-of-the-art video editing suite is fully equipped to produce highlights, features and special effects.

San Francisco Giants Broadcast Information

The Giants are entering a new era in broadcasting this season, bringing some familiar radio and television personalities to Giants telecasts.

With satellite delivery of more than 100 telecasts on KTVU and SportsChannel Pacific, and full coverage of the 162-game regular season schedule on KNBR radio and the Giants Radio Network, the Giants continue to expand their listening and viewing audience.

1993 marks the fourth year of the Giants' affiliation with the cable network SportsChannel, which this year will handle all of the production duties for the top-rate telecasts Giants fans are accustomed to. Beginning with its presentation of Candlestick's Opening Day excitement, SportsChannel will air 45 home games and 10 road games in 1993. Returning to cable to call the action will be Hall of Famer Joe Morgan. Former Giant Mike Krukow will also handle occasional SportsChannel broadcasting assignments when Morgan has network commitments.

Back for a 32nd year as the flagship station for the Giants is KTVU (Channel 2), scheduled to air 40 road games and seven home games over the Giants Television Network, which includes stations in Reno, Sacramento, Salinas-Monterey and Fresno-Visalia.

On the radio dial it's the Bay Area sports leader KNBR-68 (AM), the 50,000 watt powerhouse entering its 14th year as the Giants flagship station. KNBR will broadcast all 162 regular season games as well as 13 Spring Training contests. Hank Greenwald returns as the play-by-play voice, along with Ted Robinson, who's making his return to Bay Area radio.

Hank Greenwald returns for the fifth straight year as the Giants play-by-play voice on KNBR (680 AM). Hank was the voice of the Giants from 1979-86 before departing for a two-year stint broadcasting for the New York Yankees. A 1957 graduate of Syracuse University, Hank has done radio play-by-play for the University of San Francisco Dons basketball, Syracuse football, Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League and the Golden State Warriors. Hank has also served as the press box public address announcer for the last ten Super Bowls.

Ted Robinson, a veteran sports broadcaster well-known to Bay Area fans as a former Warriors announcer and KCBS radio sports director, joins the Giants broadcast team for 1993. Robinson, who had been the Minnesota Twins television voice since 1987, will work with Greenwald on KNBR radio broadcasts and share announcing duties in the KTVU and SportsChannel booths as well. A New York native who attended Notre Dame, Robinson has broadcast Notre Dame football and basketball, University of Minnesota basketball and a variety of CBS Sports coverage. He was with KCBS from 1982 to 1988 before leaving to join the Twins.

Joe Morgan is back for his eighth year as the play-by-play anchor of the Giants cable telecasts, his ninth as a Major League broadcaster since his retirement as an active player in 1984. The Hall of Fame second baseman begins his fourth year with SportsChannel, having spent the previous four seasons on GiantsVision. Morgan began his announcing career with the Cincinnati Reds in 1985, and has also announced games for NBC and ESPN's College World Series. Joe worked on selected ABC "Monday Night Baseball" telecasts, and was the color analyst for the 1988 American League Championship Series and the 1989 World Series, both on ABC. Morgan is a member of ESPN's primary announcing team in this, their fourth year of baseball.

Russ Hodges	1969-1970

Note: Hodges also broadcasted New York Giants games from 1949-57.

Mike Krukow is beginning his third season in the television broadcast booth, substituting for Joe Morgan, who has occasional network commitments. Krukow's career in the Major Leagues spanned 14 years and three teams: the Chicago Cubs (1976-81), Philadelphia Phillies (1982) and San Francisco Giants (1983-89), where his enthusiasm both on and off the field made him a fan favorite. Krukow retired after the 1989 season with a 124-117 career record (3.90 ERA). He has since gone into restaurant management, owning and operating This Old House, Spyglass, Rose's Landing and Sea Venture, all in the San Luis Obispo area.

At press time, the Giants new Spanish-language flagship station was yet to be named.
