Peter A. Magowan

PRESIDENT AND MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

Recognized as one of Major League Baseball's most progressive leaders, Peter Magowan enters his fourth season as the Giants' president and managing general partner. A resident of San Francisco for nearly 40 years and a life-long baseball enthusiast, Magowan has been the driving force behind the revitalization of a Giants' franchise steeped in tradition.

In an 11th-hour effort, Magowan and a group of civic-minded San Franciscans saved the Giants from relocating to Tampa Bay in December 1992. The successful rescue had special meaning for Magowan, a New York native who moved to San Francisco with his family about the same time as the Giants moved West in 1958.

Then last December, Magowan unveiled a revolutionary plan to build a new 42,000-seat ballpark at China Basin which will further ensure successful Major League Baseball in San Francisco well into the 21st Century. The Giants' president, determined to eliminate any public taxpayer assistance, announced at a Dec. 21 media conference that the new baseball park would be the first privately-financed Major League ballpark in more than 30 years.

Magowan's aggressive and innovative management style, as well as his well-known business acumen, has earned him recent assignments on some of Major League Baseball's most influential committees—labor relations and strategic planning.

Since assuming the club's reins in 1993, Magowan has been the recipient of many community awards. The San Francisco Business Times, in recognition of his efforts to keep the Giants in San Francisco, named Magowan their 1993 Bay Area Business Executive of the Year. In addition, he and other team investors were honored by the Commonwealth Club of California with the prestigious 1993 Distinguished Citizens Award.

In recognition of the Giants becoming the first professional sports team to stage a benefit game for AIDS, Magowan was presented a Special Achievement Award for Outstanding Leadership and Commitment to HIV/AIDS Awareness at the 7th Annual AIDS Update Conference last year. It marked the first time a sports team had received such an honor. The Giants' "Until There's A Cure Day," which will be held for a third straight year at Candlestick Park in 1996, has attracted more than 80,000 spectators and raised more than $250,000 for local and national AIDS research, education and care/services.

Magowan has spent 28 years with Safeway, Inc., including the last 15 as its chairman of the board. On April 30, 1993, he moved his office to Candlestick Park, stepping down as Safeway's CEO to devote more time to his new position as president and managing general partner of the Giants. He also serves on the boards of the Chrysler Corporation, Caterpillar Inc. and Vons Companies.

A 1964 Stanford graduate with a degree in American literature, Magowan received his masters degree in politics, philosophy and economics from Oxford University. He also completed two years of additional post-graduate work at the Johns Hopkins School of Advance International Studies.

He and his wife Debby live in San Francisco.

Laurence M. Baer

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

An executive with experience in sports, marketing, television, film and politics, Baer was named executive vice president of the Giants on Dec. 1, 1992. Nearly two years later on Sept. 9, 1994, Baer also became a limited partner of the team's ownership group, San Francisco Baseball Associates.

A key facilitator in the development and implementation of the 1992 effort to keep the Giants in San Francisco, the 38-year-old Baer is responsible for the overall day-to-day functioning of the Giants' organization. He works closely with both senior vice presidents, who oversee the baseball and business aspects of the operation. He is also a member of Major League Baseball's Television Committee which signed a new, unprecedented $1.7 billion, five-year over-the-air and cable television agreement with FOX Network, NBC, ESPN and Fox Sports/Liberty Media Cable Joint Venture beginning in 1996.

For the past three years, Baer has been the key person behind the Giants' plan for a new ballpark at China Basin, near downtown San Francisco. He has led the task force developing plans for an April 2000 Opening Day in the new ballpark.

Baer oversaw many of the initial changes within the Giants' organization when new ownership came aboard in 1993. He has successfully negotiated new television (KTVU), Cable TV (SportsChannel), radio (KNBR) and concession (Volume Services) contracts as well as a new lease at Candlestick Park which started in 1995.

Baer has directed the Giants' intensified efforts in community affairs, including 1994's nationally-recognized Until There's A Cure Day, the first staged by a professional sports team that benefitted AIDS organizations. This benefit has now become an annual Giants fundraiser.

A fourth generation San Franciscan, Baer graduated from Lowell High School and earned Phi Beta Kappa honors at the University of California in 1980. Following his graduation from Cal, he joined the Giants as the club's marketing director.

During his initial three-year stint with the Giants, Baer helped direct the highly-acclaimed "Croix de Candlestick" campaign, among other successful promotional events. In 1983, he left the Giants to attend Harvard Business School, followed by a four-year tenure at KPIX-TV in San Francisco. He finally returned to the Giants in December, 1992 from CBS, Inc. in New York, where he had served as special assistant to the the network's chairman, Laurence Tisch, since 1990.

He received the prestigious "Sports Torch of Learning Award" by the Scopus Society of the American Friends of The Hebrew University in 1995, an award which recognizes exceptional American leaders in the field of sports. Baer serves on the Board of Governors of the Commonwealth Club of California, the Board of Letters and Sciences at the University of California, the Board of the San Francisco Convention and Visitors Bureau and the Board of Columbia Park Boys Club.

Baer and his wife, Pam, were married in 1990 and reside in San Francisco with their two sons, Joshua and Jonathan.

Robert E. Quinn

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Bob Quinn, recognized throughout baseball as one of the leading evaluators of talent and builders of a solid organizational philosophy, was tabbed by Peter Magowan as the Giants' senior vice president and general manager on Dec. 1, 1992.

During his three-year tenure as general manager, the Giants have posted a .534 winning percentage (225-196) and posted an all-time record 103 victories in his first season in San Francisco in 1993. He has secured the core of the team through the 1997 season, locking up Barry Bonds, Matt Williams, Glenallen Hill and Rod Beck to multi-year deals. In addition, this past off-season he acquired All-Star Shawon Dunston, Stan Javier, Allen Watson, Rich DeLucia and Doug Creek. Quinn wrapped up the busy winter by successfully signing Cuban national team pitcher Osvaldo Fernandez, who was courted by at least nine Major League clubs.

Quinn is a third-generation baseball executive: his grandfather, J.A. Quinn, was the general manager for four Major League teams, and his father, John, held the same post with the Braves for 23 years and with the Phillies for another 13 seasons. His brother-in-law is Roland Hemond, former general manager of the Baltimore Orioles and currently senior executive vice president of baseball operations for the expansion Arizona Diamondbacks and his brother Jack Quinn is the president and CEO of the St. Louis Blues of the National Hockey League.

A native of Boston, Quinn began his career in baseball administration following his graduation from Marquette University in 1958, where he was co-captain of the track team and after being named an All-State outfielder with the semi-pro Alpine (TX) Cowboys. His rise up the baseball ranks took him through the Braves, Phillies and Royals minor league organizations, before he became Milwaukee's director of minor league operations in 1971. In 1973 he began a 12-year stint with Cleveland that saw him rise to the position of vice president of player development and scouting.

In September 1986, he joined the New York Yankees as assistant vice president of baseball administration. He was promoted to vice president the next month and named general manager of the Yankees in June 1988. He held that position until moving to Cincinnati in October, 1989 where he took over as vice president and general manager of the Reds. Quinn served there for three years, building a World Championship team in 1990. Following the 1990 campaign, Quinn was chosen as the Major League Executive of the Year by The Sporting News.

Quinn and his wife, Kathryn, were married in 1960 and live in Redwood Shores, CA. They have two sons, Mike and Bob and one grandson.

Patrick J. Gallagher

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT,
BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Pat Gallagher, who has risen from director of marketing to a senior vice president during his 20-year tenure with the Giants' organization, supervises non-baseball business for the club. His responsibilities include the areas of advertising, promotions, public relations, community development, sales and marketing affairs, season and group ticket sales, retail operations, licensing and stadium operations.

Gallagher has been responsible for Candlestick Park's "new look" for baseball, both in the park design and in improved customer service. He also instituted the last two uniform and logo changes for the team, including the return in 1994 to the traditional style of the glory 1950s and 1960s.

To meet the increased demands of fans for merchandise, Gallagher oversaw the addition of new dugout stores in The Embarcadero in San Francisco and in Sacramento in the Market Square Mall last year.

Formerly an executive for the Marine World/Africa USA and Sea World theme parks, Gallagher joined the Giants in 1976 as marketing director. He was promoted to director of marketing and business affairs in 1979, then became vice president of business operations in 1981. He was named a senior vice president in 1987.

Under Gallagher's direction, Giants' marketing campaigns have won numerous awards, including several for Major League Baseball Marketing Excellence, San Francisco Advertising Club's "best of the West" honors, and two national awards: a "Clio" and an "Effie" for effective advertising.

Gallagher is active in Major League Baseball business affairs and serves on the board of Major League Baseball Properties as well as the National League Scheduling Committee.

He is a past president for the Big Brothers/Big Sisters of the Peninsula. In addition, he was a founding member of the California AIDS Education and Support Foundation in 1989, contributing to the In Concert Against AIDS campaign, which generated more than $500,000 for local programs, as well as the team's ground-breaking Until There's A Cure Day in 1994. Gallagher continues to serve as an advisory board member for the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame. He is also an active speaker for various marketing groups around the country.

Pat and his wife, Joan, have a son, Murphy, and a daughter, Katie. The Gallaghers make their home in Palo Alto.

Brian Sabean

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT,
PLAYER PERSONNEL

Brian Sabean begins the first year in his newly-promoted role as senior vice president, player personnel, after having spent the previous three years as assistant to the general manager and vice president of scouting and player personnel.

In expanding his duties, the 39-year-old Sabean will continue to oversee minor league development and scouting but also will have increased involvement on the Major League level, reporting to General Manager Bob Quinn. He will work on Major League player evaluation, roster moves, player contracts and trade discussions.

During the past three seasons, Sabean and his staff have helped sign and produce many outstanding prospects including over 20 players on the current 40-man roster. He also oversees a farm system that in 1995 saw three of the organizations five affiliates qualify for the playoffs, including a Shreveport club that produced the best record in minor league baseball (88-47).

Prior to accepting his position with the Giants in January 1993, Sabean had worked in the New York Yankees' organization since 1985. He served the Yankees as a scouting supervisor in Florida (1985) and Florida/Georgia (1986). He was promoted to director of scouting in 1986. He was further elevated to vice president of player development/scouting in 1990.

A native of Concord, N.H., Sabean graduated from Concord High School in 1974 and Eckerd College (St. Petersburg, Fl.) in 1978. Sabean served as an assistant baseball coach at St. Leo College in St. Leo, Fla. in 1979 and Tampa University from 1980 to 1982. He was then promoted to head coach at Tampa in 1983, holding that post for two years, compiling a 61-36 record and first-ever school appearance in an NCAA regional tournament in 1984.

Sabean and his wife, Barbara, have four sons—Colin, Sean, Brendan and Darren—and reside in Belmont.

Jorge Costa

VICE PRESIDENT,
STADIUM OPERATIONS/
SECURITY

Jorge Costa enters his eighth year with the Giants, supervising stadium operations, security, maintenance and construction projects at Candlestick Park. In addition, he is the team liaison with the Giants' concessionaire, Volume Services, and the San Francisco Recreation and Park Department.

Costa oversees all full-time operations staff and event personnel, including security. He is the Giants' liaison with the San Francisco Police Department, California Highway Patrol and other local, state and federal law enforcement agencies. Costa's pioneering of the T.E.A.M. (Techniques for Effective Alcohol Management) program at Candlestick Park for alcohol management concepts in the City of San Francisco and public assembly industry has earned him the prestigious "Life Savers" Public Safety Award from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. This past year Costa was named one of four National Honorees to receive the Nationwide Insurance "On Your Side" Highway Service Award for his efforts in promoting Traffic Safety Day and Youth Recognition Day. His adoption of the Designated Driver Program has served to greatly decrease alcohol related incidents both at Candlestick Park and on the highways. He has been honored by the American Academy for Pediatrics for his commitment to the prevention of drinking and driving, has received the California Highway Patrol Commissioner Award for Traffic Safety Programs, the Isiah Nelson Public Service Award given by the San Francisco Police Officers Association and Major League Baseball, is a member of the National T.E.A.M. Coalition and is the honorary chairman of the California Association of Highway Safety Leaders.

Costa is a member of the Green Seal Environmental Organization and through his leadership, the Giants have adopted an extensive recycling program.

Last season marked the debut of the ferry service from Alameda and Tiburon to Candlestick Park, a culmination of years of work by Costa to provide an alternate source of transportation. The service, which sold out both games in 1995, will be expanded in 1996.

Improvements to the stadium, including the construction and remodeling of the dugouts, bleachers, field level seats and out-of-town scoreboard, were all overseen by Costa.

He previously served as Commissioner Peter Ueberroth's West Coast liaison for stadium operations and security and was chief of operations at the Oakland Coliseum for eight years. In 1994, Costa served as a security and operations consultant for the World Cup at Stanford Stadium. Costa has also worked as a security and operations consultant for Major League Baseball International's exhibition games in Monterrey, Mexico in 1991 and 1993 and Barcelona, Spain in 1992. Last year he consulted for the Carlos Baerga Celebrity Softball game in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

John F. Yee

VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

John Yee joined the Giants' staff in January 1992, to oversee all the Giants' fiscal policies and procedures, the accounting staff and financial aspects of the operation. Yee has since assumed additional duties, overseeing human resources, management information systems (MIS), business administration, and also has played a major role in the private financing plan for the team's proposed new ballpark.

Before joining the Giants, the 44-year-old Yee spent the previous eight years as vice president of finance and administration for the San Francisco Convention and Visitors Bureau. Prior to that, he was with the international construction firm of Guy F. Atkinson and Company, working both in the firm's headquarters and abroad.

Yee serves as a board member and treasurer of Wu Yee Children Services, a child-care advocacy group. In addition, Yee is a board member of Jazz In the City, sponsors of the San Francisco Jazz Festival.

A graduate of San Francisco State University, Yee resides in San Francisco with his wife, Catherine.

Giants Join Information Highway with Giants Virtual Dugout

The San Francisco Giants joined the electronic community in 1995 when it launched its World Wide Web site on the Internet, called "The Giants Virtual Dugout."

The Giants came on-line May 19, 1995, becoming only the second Major League Baseball team to produce a World Wide Web site, joining the Seattle Mariners.

Produced in cooperation with Sun Microsystems, the Web is ideal for announcing upcoming events and providing immediate access.

Giants' fans are able to use the "Virtual Dugout" to access such items as:

- * Roster information with biographies and photos of all players
- * Updated statistics and game notes used by the media
- * Ticket sales to all 1996 Giants games at Candlestick Park
- * Correspondence with Giants' players and coaches
- * An on-line catalog of Giants merchandise
- * Giants' community calendar
- * Giants Magazine excerpt and subscription information

To access the San Francisco Giants Virtual Dugout, the site is located at URL "<http://www.sfgiants.com>".

Ned Colletti

DIRECTOR OF MAJOR LEAGUE ADMINISTRATION

Ned Colletti enters his 2nd year with the Giants, his 1st season on a full-time basis. He came to the organization prior to the 1995 campaign, serving as a special consultant for baseball operations and administration. His current responsibilities include assisting in contract negotiations, player procurement, waiver and rule compliance, and serving as the chief liaison between the club and the Commissioner's Office.

Prior to joining the Giants' organization, Colletti was with the Chicago Cubs from 1982 through 1993. He served the first nine years in the media relations department, being honored in 1990 as the Robert O. Fishel Award winner for public relations excellence. In December of 1990, he became the director of baseball administration and in 1992 was elevated to vice president, baseball administration.

The Chicago native graduated from Northern Illinois University in 1976. He spent six years as a sportswriter before joining the Cubs, covering Big Ten Conference football and basketball and the National Hockey League. He was inducted into the Triton College Sports Hall of Fame in January 1993, entering at the same time as Kirby Puckett and Lance Johnson.

Ned and his wife, Gayle, have 2 children (Lou and Jenna), and divide their time between Chicago and the Bay Area.

Dick Tidrow

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

A former American League Rookie Pitcher of the Year and 13-year Major League veteran, Dick Tidrow enters his 3rd season with the Giants, his 1st in his current position. He came to the organization prior to the 1994 campaign, serving as the club's Major League scout for the American League. His current responsibilities continue to involve scouting the A.L., as well as conferring with Bob Quinn and Brian Sabean on all potential player acquisitions.

Prior to joining the Giants' organization, Tidrow served as a scout with the New York Yankees from 1985 through 1993.

The former right-handed pitcher, nicknamed "Dirt" because of his basic, hard-nosed approach to the game, enjoyed parts of 13 years in the majors from 1972-84. He was honored as The Sporting News A.L. Pitcher of the Year as a starter with the Cleveland Indians in 1972, while also capturing pennant and World Series rings as a reliever with the Yankees in 1976 and '77, respectively. He later pitched for the Cubs, White Sox and Mets, matching Charlie Smith as the only 2 players to have ever played for both New York and Chicago teams in their careers. His lifetime numbers show a 100-94 record with 55 saves and a 3.68 ERA.

The San Francisco native graduated from Mt. Eden High School in 1965 and Chabot Junior College in 1967, both located in Hayward, CA. Tidrow played baseball and basketball in high school and college. He was selected in four different drafts, including by the Giants in June 1966, finally signing with Cleveland in 1967.

Dick and his wife, Mari Jo, make their home in Lee's Summit, MO.

Bob Hartsfield

COORDINATOR OF SCOUTING

Bob Hartsfield, a veteran of more than 45 years in baseball, enters his fourth year as coordinator of scouting. He is responsible for coordinating the club's scouting efforts at the Major League, minor league, college, high school and international levels.

Prior to accepting this position, Hartsfield had been a player, scout and manager in a 45-year professional baseball career. A former infielder, he played 11 years in the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves and Los Angeles Dodgers organizations. He became a scout in 1963 with the Chicago Cubs organization after a knee injury ended his playing career.

Hartsfield has scouted for more than 33 years on the amateur, minor league and Major League levels. His first managerial experience was with the San Francisco organization in 1974 at Class-A Decatur. He also managed in the Giants' organization in 1975-76, in the Cubs' minor league system from 1977-81, the Houston organization from 1983-85 and most recently with Jacksonville in the Seattle system in 1992.

Hartsfield, a native of Atlanta, Ga., graduated from West Fulton (Atlanta) High School and later attended Georgia State University. He has also served as a college basketball referee for 25 years, working for the ACC, SEC, Metro, Sun Belt and Ohio Valley conferences as well as working for three NCAA tournaments. Hartsfield resides in Woodstock, Ga.

Jack Hiatt

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Jack Hiatt, a former Giants' player, is in his sixth season as the team's director of player development. Prior to this assignment, Hiatt spent the previous two seasons assisting then-director Carlos Alfonso, one year as a roving catching instructor (1989) and one campaign (1988) as the manager of the Giants' rookie league club in Pocatello, Id. Jack is chiefly responsible for the assignment, development and evaluation of players throughout the Giants' minor league system.

A catcher and first baseman during his playing days, Hiatt played for the Angels, Giants, Expos, Cubs and Astros during a career that included 483 games from 1964-72. During that period, he posted a .251 average with 22 home runs and 154 RBI.

Prior to joining the Giants' player-development staff, Hiatt worked as a coach and manager in the Cubs, Angels and Astros organizations, including a stint as a Major League coach with Chicago in 1981. Jack and his wife, Sherlyn, reside in Sedona, Ariz.

Willie Mays

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

Regarded by many experts as the best all-around player in baseball history, Willie Mays returned to San Francisco in 1986 as a special assistant to the president, a position he has now served with the Giants for nine seasons.

In 1993, in one of his first public statements after assuming ownership of the team, Giants President and Managing General Partner Peter Magowan announced that the franchise was signing Mays to a lifetime contract. "Willie Mays is the greatest Giant of them all, and he belongs here," said Magowan.

In his current front-office capacity, the 64-year-old Mays keeps an active schedule throughout the year as a Giant emissary. He visits the Giants' minor league teams, where he brings his heroic aura to young players, greets fans and signs autographs. The Westfield, Ala. native also makes appearances on behalf of the club at a variety of civic and charitable events throughout the Bay Area, including the annual Giants Community Fund Golf Classic, the San Francisco Food Bank and the Whitney Young Child Development Center in Hunter's Point. In addition, his job duties include a visit every year to the Giants' Spring Training camps, where he dons his familiar No. 24 uniform and works as an inspirational coach.

As a player, Willie enjoyed an extraordinary 22-year Major League career. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1979, his first year of eligibility (the ninth player to make it on his first try). Mays' uniform number has been retired by the Giants, as he remains the franchise leader in games played (2,857), at-bats (10,477), runs (2,011), hits (3,187), doubles (504), home runs (646), total bases (5,907) and extra base hits (1,289). He was voted an All-Star 11 times, was a .302 lifetime hitter, and his 660 career home runs still rank third all-time behind Hank Aaron (755) and Babe Ruth (715).

Mays also serves as a public relations executive for Bally's Resorts. He and his wife, Mae, make their home in Atherton.

300 Home Run—300 Stolen Base Club

Barry Bonds needs just 8 more home runs to reach 300 home runs. With 340 career stolen bases, he will join the select 300 home run-300 stolen base club.

Orlando Cepeda

COMMUNITY REPRESENTATIVE

Orlando Cepeda, recognized nationally for his humanitarian efforts as an ambassador for baseball and the San Francisco Giants, begins his seventh season as a community representative for the team.

In his current role, the "Baby Bull" is involved in many worthy causes. He visits inner-city schools in the Bay Area and throughout the United States, speaking to "at-risk" children about the dangers of drugs and alcohol. Cepeda, along with fellow ex-Giant great Vida Blue, has been a featured speaker for the Giants' HIV/AIDS Awareness Program for middle and high schools in the San Francisco Unified School District. The 57-year-old Ponce, P.R. native also serves as the honorary spokesman for the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of America, participates in Athletes Against AIDS, visits several hospitals and homeless shelters each year, and autographs and distributes free books to low-income children as part of the Reading is Fundamental (RIF) program in San Francisco's Mission District. Cepeda has helped raise more than $10,000 for baseball equipment for the Roberto Clemente Latin American Athletic Club's baseball league in the Mission District. He also participates in the Annual Toy Drive for disadvantaged children in San Francisco.

A lifetime .297 hitter with 379 home runs and 1,364 RBIs during his 17-year playing career with the Giants, Cardinals, Braves, A's, Red Sox and Royals, Cepeda hit the first Major League home run ever on the West Coast when he clubbed a homer against the Dodgers in his very first Major League game April 15, 1958. He went on to win 1958 Rookie of the Year honors, the 1966 Comeback Player of the Year award, the 1967 NL Most Valuable Player trophy and 1973 Designated Hitter of the Year laurels. He appeared in three World Series, was an 11-time All-Star and hit over .300 nine times in his career.

On Oct. 3, 1993, Cepeda was inducted into the Puerto Rico Sports Hall of Fame. Nineteen ninety-three was a bittersweet one for Orlando, however, as he missed being voted into the Baseball Hall of Fame by an eyelash. Garnering 335 votes in his 15th and final year on the baseball writers ballot, he missed making the Hall by only seven votes—the fifth-narrowest margin in history. He will be eligible again for the Hall of Fame in one year, when a Veterans Committee composed of both sportswriters and former players cast their vote. Of the 18 retired players who have hit more than 300 home runs and batted over .295 for their career, only Cepeda is not in the Hall of Fame.

In 1995, Cepeda was named by the Spanish language television network, Univision, as an "Immortal of the Sport" and selected by Latinos in the Major Leagues Magazine as an all-time legendary player.

Orlando and his wife, Miriam, reside in Suisun City. They have four sons, Orlando Jr., Hector, Malcolm and Ali Manuel. Malcolm was a 13th-round pick by the Royals in the June 1993 free-agent draft.

Vida Blue

COMMUNITY REPRESENTATIVE

One of the most popular athletes in Bay Area sports history, Vida Blue enters his sixth year as a community representative for the Giants.

Blue, who enjoyed an illustrious 17-year Major League career which included stints with the A's (1969-77) and Giants (1978-81, 1985-86), plays a major role in San Francisco's community-outreach program. The 46-year-old Mansfield, La. native makes numerous speaking appearances on behalf of the team, acts as a liaison to the Giants Alumni Association, and is involved in a variety of other charitable events, clinics, media appearances, golf outings and community caravans. He visits hospitals throughout Northern California, speaks at various schools about drug and alcohol abuse, and appears as Santa Claus at the Bayview Hunter's Point "Black Christmas Celebration" each year.

Blue serves as commissioner of the "Junior Giants" youth baseball program, which includes youngsters aged 8-14 throughout the Bay Area. The program is endowed by the Giants Community Fund.

In addition, he and Orlando Cepeda speak regularly to students in San Francisco's middle and high schools as part of the Giants' HIV/AIDS Awareness Program.

Originally a second-round draft choice by the Kansas City A's in 1967, Blue proved to be one of the game's most dominant pitchers of his era. He reached the coveted 20-win plateau three times during his career, and was the author of one no-hitter (vs. Minnesota Sept. 21, 1970), five one-hitters, four two-hitters, seven three-hitters and 27 four-hitters during his tenure. In 1971, he posted a 24-8 record and league-best 1.82 ERA and eight shutouts for Oakland, earning both the American League MVP and Cy Young awards.

A four-time All-Star, Blue became the first pitcher in history to start an All-Star Game for both leagues when, as a Giant, he drew the opening assignment for the 1978 contest in San Diego. He finished his Major League career with a record of 209-161, 3.26 ERA, 143 complete games and 37 shutouts.

He was inducted into the Bay Area Sports Hall of Fame in 1995.

As a senior at DeSoto High School in Mansfield, Blue once struck out all 21 batters he faced in a seven-inning perfect game. He attended Southern University in Shreveport, La. before signing with the A's in 1968.

Blue and his wife, Peggy, live in Sonoma with her son, Samuel (12), and their daughters, Alexis (5), Valerie (4), twins Sallie and Evelyn (2). Vida also has a son, Derrick (24).

Behind the Scenes

Dr. William Straw DIRECTOR OF MEDICAL SERVICES

1996 is Dr. Straw's eleventh season with the Giants. A native of Denver, Straw received his medical degree from the University of Colorado in 1975. Straw serves as the president of the Association of Major League Baseball Team Physicians. Along with Drs. Campbell and King, he practices at the Palo Alto Medical Foundation. Straw and his wife, Ann, have four children and reside in Los Altos.

Dr. Warren D. King CONSULTANT-ORTHOPEDICS

Dr. King begins his fifth year of providing orthopedic surgical services for the Giants. An associate of the Palo Alto Medical Foundation since 1991, King also serves as an orthopedic consultant to the NHL's San Jose Sharks and U.S. Soccer Federation. A graduate of the University of Southern California School of Medicine, he and his wife, Margie, have three children and reside in Redwood City.

Dr. Donald R. Bunce CONSULTANT-ORTHOPEDICS

Dr. Bunce begins his first season as an orthopedic consultant for the Giants. The former Rose Bowl football hero at Stanford University also serves as team physician at his alma mater. He obtained his medical degree from Stanford in 1977 and later completed his internship and orthopedic residency at Stanford Hospital. An assistant clinical professor at Stanford, Bunce has practiced at the Palo Alto Medical Clinic since 1982 and is chairman of the department of sports medicine at the Palo Alto Medical Foundation. The former honorable mention All-American was drafted by the Washington Redskins and played one year of professional football in Canada. The 1972 Rose Bowl MVP has a daughter, Mikele, and a son, Cameron, and resides in Portola Valley.

Dr. K. Gordon Campbell CONSULTANT-ORTHOPEDICS

Dr. Campbell is in his 22nd season with the San Francisco Giants. Campbell obtained his medical degree from Stanford University in 1955. He practices orthopedics in the department of sports medicine at the Palo Alto Medical Foundation and is a clinical professor of surgery at Stanford University. A native of San Francisco, Campbell and his wife, Joan, reside in Palo Alto.

Dr. Charles Pascal DENTIST

Dr. Pascal has provided emergency and routine dental care for the Giants for the past 17 years. Pascal received his dental degree from the University of the Pacific School of Dentistry in 1970. His practice of general and restorative dentistry is located in San Mateo. A native of Los Angeles, Pascal and his wife, Beth, have three children and reside in Hillsborough.

Stan Conte REHABILITATION COORDINATOR

A well-respected sports physical therapist, Conte begins his third year as rehabilitation coordinator for the Giants after having served the previous three years as the club's physical therapy consultant. A 1978 graduate of California State University, Northridge and UCLA Hospitals and Clinics, Conte has served as director of rehabilitation at several sports medicine physical therapy clinics he has founded in the Bay Area. Well known to professional athletes, Conte has treated three-time Super Bowl MVP Joe Montana and World Decathlon record-holder Dan O'Brien. Conte and his wife, Nancy, have two children, Nick and Alison, and reside in San Carlos.

Mark A. LetendreHEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Letendre enters his eleventh year as the Giants' head athletic trainer, after eight years with the New York Yankees organization. The native of Manchester, N.H. graduated in 1978 from the University of Maine at Orono, earning a B.S. degree in physical education and health. He has been a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association since 1979 and is an active member of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. He was honored to serve as a National League trainer for the 1994 All-Star team in Pittsburgh and the 1987 All-Star squad in Oakland. Letendre serves on the board of directors of the Scottsdale Boys and Girls Club and Arizona Baseball Charities and is a member of the Scottsdale Charros. In addition to his duties as head trainer, he serves as a consultant to HEALTH SOUTH Rehabilitation Corp. Letendre, his wife Judy, and their two daughters, Alyssa and Shannon, make their home in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Barney NugentASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Nugent begins his 20th year in professional baseball and his fourth year as the Giants' assistant athletic trainer. The Chelsea, Mass. native has worked at all levels of professional baseball, with stints in the Philadelphia Phillies and Boston Red Sox organizations. Nugent has been honored as the "International League Trainer of the Year" as well as "Minor League Trainer of the Year" in 1992 by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. He earned his bachelor's degree from Curry College in Milton, Mass., and his masters of science at Indiana State University at Terra Haute, Ind. Nugent and his wife, Denise, reside in Foster City.

Reggie Younger Jr.DIRECTOR OF TRAVEL

Younger Jr. enters his second year as the club's director of travel. Younger is only the fifth travel coordinator for the Giants since the club moved west in 1958. A 1983 broadcasting communications/journalism graduate of Weber State University, Younger is responsible for handling the team's travel and road-hotel accommodations during Spring Training and the regular season. Younger previously worked in a number of capacities with the club, including ticket sales, marketing and stadium operations. He and his wife, Marcia, reside in Richmond.

Mike MurphyEQUIPMENT MANAGER

"Murph" has been a fixture with the Giants since the team moved West in 1958. The San Francisco native is in his 39th season with the Giants and 17th as equipment manager. Murphy began his career in professional baseball as a bat boy for the San Francisco Seals (AAA) from 1954-57, before becoming the Giants' bat boy for the 1958-59 seasons. He became the visiting clubhouse attendant in 1960 when the Giants moved to Candlestick, a job he held until his promotion in 1980. Murphy and his wife, Carole, live in San Bruno.

Harvey HodgerneyVISITING CLUBHOUSE

Hodgerney has spent 16 seasons with the Giants, the past ten as the visiting clubhouse man. The Cleveland, Ohio native has lived in the Bay Area for the last 35 years, owning and operating a body and fender shop in South San Francisco before coming to the Giants. Hodgerney is also in charge of the visitors' locker room for the San Francisco 49ers. Harvey and his wife, Penny, have two children and two grandchildren. The Hodgerneys reside in San Bruno.

Commitment To The Community

Instituting many unique and innovative programs, the San Francisco Giants boast one of the premier community outreach programs in the Bay Area. The Giants have set a new standard for Major League Baseball, becoming the first team to boast a 100 percent participation program, whereby every player, coach and uniformed staff member is actively involved with at least one Northern California non-profit organization. The Giants are also the first sports team to stage a benefit game ("Until There's A Cure Day") to support the battle against AIDS.

In addition, the Giants provide more than $500,000 annually to help fund after-school sports programs in San Francisco's middle schools and high schools. Each year, the team also provides approximately $200,000 in funding through the non-profit Giants Community Fund to equip and administer "Junior Giants" youth baseball leagues throughout Northern California, placing more than 6,000 youngsters on the field rather than on the street. In addition, the Giants have renovated neighborhood baseball fields and conducted AIDS awareness visits in the public schools, while their highly-acclaimed "Giant in the Community" program honors unsung citizens who devote themselves to improving the lives of others.

Giants Community Fund

The Giants Community Fund is a non-profit organization that raises funds and distributes them to deserving community organizations that make a difference in the lives of people throughout the Bay Area. In the past five years, the Giants have donated over $600,000 in grants to many organizations, such as the Bernal Heights Community Center, Center for Handicapped Children and Teens, Chinatown Youth Center, Coalition of Agencies Serving the Elderly, Hamilton Family Center, Independent Housing Services, Lighthouse for the Blind and Visually Impaired, Raphael House, Recreation Center for the Handicapped and the Visitacion Valley Community Center. Grant applications are available by contacting the Giants Community Development Department at (415) 330-2636.

"Until There's A Cure" AIDS Benefit

In 1994, the Giants became the first ever professional sports team to host an AIDS benefit game, "Until There's A Cure Day". The Giants repeated the effort in 1995. Over 80,000 fans participated in the benefit games and approximately $250,000 was raised and distributed to local AIDS organizations. The Giants have received numerous national awards for their leadership in the battle against AIDS.

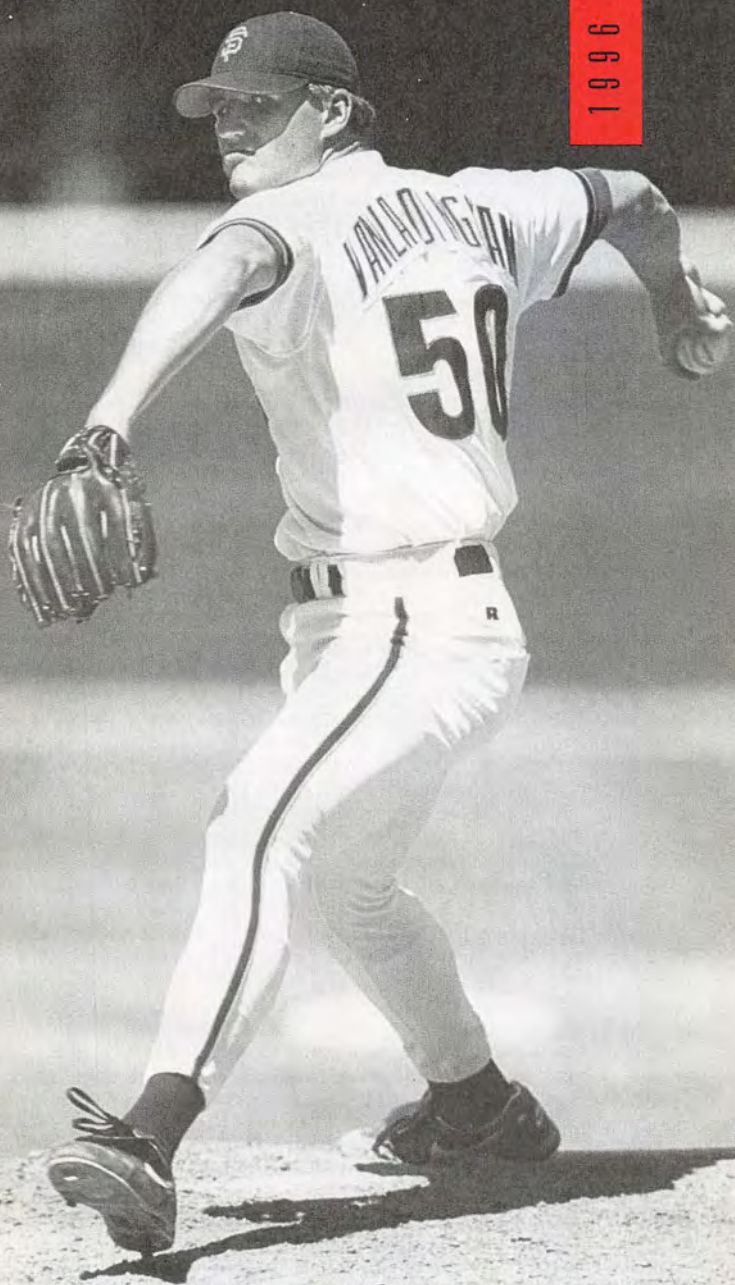

Junior Giants Youth Baseball Program

The Giants fund and administer a youth baseball program for over 6,000 children in Northern California. The largest program is in San Francisco, where over 1,000 youth participate in Junior Giants programs at parks in the Western Addition, Bayview and Mission Terrace neighborhoods. The program is designed to give inner city and rural youth an opportunity to play organized baseball. The Giants supply uniforms and equipment, and work with local recreation departments and police activities leagues to administer the program.

Giant in The Community Program

The Giant in the Community program rewards local neighborhood leaders who devote themselves to community service. Nine winners were selected during the 1995 season: David Jaramillo, Gaylon Logan, Jr., Barbara Neal, Fatima Carter, Chris Gross, Diane Jones, Clifford Cook, Norma Tecson, and Rev. Harry Chuck. Each winner was honored at a Giants game and profiled on KTVU-Channel 2 and in the San Francisco Independent newspaper. Nomination forms are available for the next phase of the program in Tuesday editions of the Independent and by contacting the Giants Community Development Department at (415) 330-2444.

Rod Beck

PITCHER (RH)

Nickname: Shooter

Birthdate: August 3, 1968

1996 Opening Day Age: 27

Birthplace: Burbank, California

Bats: Right Throws: Right

Height: 6-1 Weight: 236

M.L. Service: 4 years, 63 days

How Obtained: Acquired from Oakland in exchange for Charlie Corbell March 23, 1988.

Contract Status: Signed through 1997
(Signed 2-year deal prior to 1996 season)

CAREER...has emerged as one of top closers in game today...over last 3 years, Beck has registered 109 saves...that total trails only Lee Smith (113) and

Randy Myers (112) during that period...tied Gary Lavelle (1974-84) for Giants' franchise all-time save lead with his 127th Sept. 29, 1995 at Colorado in his final appearance of season...recorded his 33rd save of the year (and 11th consecutive) in that outing, working perfect 9th inning in SF's 10-7 come-from-behind victory over Rockies...has led SF in saves for last 4 years, becoming only 5th Giants pitcher to accomplish that feat...Scott Garrelts was last to lead club in saves 4 straight years from 1985-88...Ace Adams (1941-45) and Frank Linzy (1965-69) are only Giants to pace club in 5 consecutive seasons...was successful on 33 of 43 save attempts in 1995, 74 of his last 84 and 104 of 115 dating back to 1993...has career save percentage of 87.6%, having converted 127 of 145 lifetime save opportunities dating back to his rookie year of '91...

1995 SEASON...ranked 3rd in National League with 33 saves, trailing only Chicago's Randy Myers (38) and St. Louis' Tom Henke (36), however, suffered a league-high 10 blown saves...made a team-high 60 appearances, marking 2nd consecutive year he's led staff in outings (48 games in 1994)...recorded his 30th save of year Sept. 15 at Pittsburgh, marking 2nd 30-save season of his career (also in 1993 — registering franchise-best 48)...has posted 3 consecutive 20-save campaigns (1993-95)...was successful on 17 of his last 19 save chances (over 22 outings), yielding only 5er in 21.2ip (2.08 ERA) after July 29...prior to his final 22 outings, had yielded 15er in 5.2ip (18.42 ERA) over his previous 8 appearances (from July 9-28)...was unscored upon in 11 of his last 12 outings, yielding only 2 earned runs over 11.2 innings pitched...recorded his career-high 5th win of year Aug. 10 vs. Pittsburgh, working 1.1 perfect frames in SF's 8-7 triumph over Pirates...registered his 100th career save May 26, becoming only 55th pitcher to reach century mark since statistic began in 1969...it took 9 days for him to nail No. 100, as he had blown 3 straight save opportunities May 19, 20 & 23...became 4th youngest pitcher to record 100 saves in his career, accomplishing feat at 26 years and 296 days...youngest to 100 was Gregg Olson who registered mark at 25 years and 204 days (in 1992)...had his Major League-record streak of successful save opportunities snapped at 41 straight May 3, yielding 4 runs and 5 hits in 9th inning of SF's 7-6 defeat vs. LA (after entering in final frame with 4-3 advantage)...prior to May 3, his last blown save was Aug. 15, 1993 at Chicago...his 41 straight saves are believed to be ML record, surpassing Oakland's Dennis Eckersley who recorded 40 consecutive in 1991-92 (Elias Statistical Bureau does not keep records for most consecutive saves over multiple seasons)...

1994...was NL Rolaids Relief Champion with 80 points...selected to NL All-Star Team for the 2nd straight season...was late addition to squad when Cincinnati's Jose Rijo was scratched from NL team due to injury...was successful on 28 consecutive save opportunities, eclipsing the old NL mark of 24 he set in 1993...earned 13 saves in last 17 appearances, yielding only 2 earned runs in 18.2 innings (0.96 ERA) during that stretch...his 28 saves overall ranked 2nd in the league behind NY's John Franco (30)...carved out 10 saves and 1.20 ERA (2er, 15.0ip) in 14 appearances after All-Star Break...recorded saves in each game of SF's 3-game sweep of Cubs at Wrigley Field just prior to work stoppage...only weakness of '94 was long ball, serving up 10 HRs, which led to 14 of his 15 earned runs (6 solo, 4 2-run blasts)...5 of 10 HRs surrendered came in extra innings, with 4 of them game-winners...save No. 18 occurred July 9, vaulting him ahead of Randy Moffitt (83, 1972-81) for sole possession of CAREER... enters his 5th season of professional baseball...made big league debut as September call up for Giants in 1995...has hit better than .300 in 3 of his 4 professional campaigns...has played on 5 levels in Giants' organization in 4 years...became only 6th Nicaraguan native to play in majors, following Dennis Martinez (1976 - present, Baltimore, Montreal and Cleveland), Tony Chevez (1977, Baltimore), Al Williams (1980-84, Minnesota), David Green (1981-87, St. Louis and San Francisco) and Porfirio Altamirano (1982-84, Philadelphia and Chicago Cubs)...Green played for Giants in 1985...he and Green are only everyday players out of this group as all others are pitchers...met Martinez on visit to Cleveland's Jacobs Field during Giants' off-day in Pittsburgh last September...

1995 SEASON...had contract purchased from triple-A Phoenix Sept. 5, marking his 1st appearance in ML uniform...made his 1st 6 ML starts in final week of the season, hitting safely in each (11-for-29, .379), while batting leadoff and playing CF...he moved into lineup after Deion Sanders left club to have arthroscopic surgery on his left ankle...drilled his 1st ML HR Sept. 29 at Colorado off Mike Munoz to cap off 5-run 9th inning in SF's 10-7 come-from-behind victory...posted career-high 3-hit games twice in last week...went 3-for-5 with 2 runs, double and RBI Sept. 28 at Colorado and came back with another 3-for-5 outing Sept. 30 at Coors Field...collected his 1st ML hit Sept. 11 at St. Louis off Mark Petkovsek as pinch hitter...made ML debut Sept. 5 vs. Montreal, grounding out as pinch-hitter in 8th off Greg Harris...prior to his recall, had spent entire season at Phoenix...finished with .306 batting average, 6 home runs, 10 stolen bases and 32 RBI in 111 games for Firebirds, all in outfield or as pinch-hitter...tied for Firebirds' lead in triples (6), while finishing 2nd in runs scored (70), 3rd in home runs (6) and 4th in hits (115)...posted minor league career-high 5 hits Aug. 9 vs. Tacoma...he finished evening, going 5-for-7 and 4 runs scored...led Phoenix with 31 multi-hit games and finished triple-A season with 5-game hitting streak...

1994...posted a career-high .315 mark during his 1st campaign at the double-A level with Shreveport...bypassed San Jose, making jump from single-A Clinton...aside from his average, also set career-best in games (125), at-bats (454), hits (143) and doubles (32)...1993...spent his 1st full professional season with Clinton and helped guide club to Midwest League's Championship Series...ranked 9th among ML outfielders, appearing in 112 contests in outfield...finished 2nd on team with .301 mark, behind Chad Fonville's .306 tally...his average was good enough for 5th on circuit...scored 84 runs to pace Clinton, tying for 3rd in the league...his career-high 42 stolen bases were 5th highest total in SF organization, 2nd only to Fonville's 52 at Clinton...grounded into just 1 double play in 349 at-bats...1992...opened his professional career at short-season Everett, where he had lowest batting average of his career (.236)...appeared in 64 games...had 10 doubles, 17 RBI and 17 stolen bases...

PERSONAL...graduated from Bell (CA) High School in 1988...attended L.A. Harbor (Wilmington, CA) Junior College and Lewis & Clark (Lewiston, ID) State College...was all-state at L.A. Harbor and All-American at Lewis & Clark...moved to United States from Nicaragua when he was 12...married (Allison Burk, September 18, 1993)...resides in Mesa, AZ...

Contract Status: Signed through 1998
(signed a 6-year contract prior to 1993 season)

CAREER...5-time All-Star and 5-time Rawlings Gold Glove winner...seized place in Major League history in 1993 by becoming 1st player ever to win league Most Valuable Player Award (BBWAA) for 3rd time in 4 seasons when he garnered 24 1st-place votes and 372 points en route to 1993 NL MVP trophy...joins Jimmie Foxx ('32,'33 and '38), Joe DiMaggio ('39,'41 and '47), Stan Musial ('43, '46 and '48), Roy Campanella ('51, '53 and '55), Yogi Berra ('51, '54 and '55), Mickey Mantle ('56, '57 and '62) and Mike Schmidt ('80, '81 and '86) as 1 of only 8 players in baseball history to win MVP award 3 times...previously named MVP with Pittsburgh in 1990 and 1992, barely losing out to Terry Pendleton in '91 (274-259)...if 2 voters had reversed their votes for 1st and 2nd in '91, Bonds would have won an unprecedented 4 awards, not to mention 4 in a row...became 5th National Leaguer and 10th player overall to win MVP awards in successive seasons in 1993 (last was Dale Murphy in 1982-83)...1st-inning theft of 2nd base July 26, 1994 was the 300th of his career...with SB, became only 6th player in ML history to hit 250 HRs and steal 300 bases in his career...others: Willie Mays (660 HRs/338 SBs), Bobby Bonds (332/461), Joe Morgan (268/689), Andre Dawson (435/314) and Vada Pinson (265/305)...Barry and his father, Bobby, represent ultimate show of power and speed in a father-son pair...Barry (292) and Bobby (332) hold ML mark for HRs by a father-son combo with 624...the two also hold same distinction for stolen bases with 801 thefts combined (Bobby 461, Barry 340)... holds the longest consecutive games played streak in National League, having appeared in 230 straight contests...streak dates back to May 7, 1994 vs. Los Angeles, with him appearing in starting lineup 227 times (missed 1 start in 1995) during stretch...only Baltimore's Cal Ripken (2,153), Chicago's Frank Thomas (259), Detroit's Travis Fryman (250) and Chad Curtis (241) have longer streaks...in 1995, became 1st Giant to hit 30 home runs and steal 30 bases in season since his father Bobby did it in 1973...reached that distinction with 30th theft Sept. 22 vs. Colorado, accomplishing 30-30 feat for 3rd time in his career (also in 1990 and '92 with Pittsburgh)...only other Giants to reach 30-30 were Bobby in 1969 and '73 and Willie Mays in 1956 and '57...Bobby reached mark 5 times, including 1975, '77 and '78...30-30 feat has been accomplished 17 times in NL (10 players) and 24 times in majors (14 players)...

1995 SEASON...led National League in walks (120) and on-base pct. (.431) while ranking amongst leaders in runs (2nd —109), home runs (4th —33), RBI (6th — 104), total bases (5th — 292), slugging pct. (5th — .577), extra base hits (tied for 3rd — 70) and outfield assists (tied for 4th — 12)...was leading NL vote-getter for All-Star Game, receiving 1,392,130 votes (BAL's Cal Ripken led ML with 1,698,524)...marks 2nd time he had been the NL's leading vote-getter (also in 1993), 4th consecutive year elected starter (also 1992-94) and 5th time he had made squad (also in 1990)...was major reason Giants remained in playoff hunt until final weeks of season, despite loss of All-Star third baseman Matt Williams for 68 games...when Williams was in lineup, Bonds hit .305 (82-for-269) with 16 home runs and 52 RBI while drawing 53 free passes in 75 games...in the 68 games Williams was not in starting lineup, the 3-time NL MVP continued to produce runs, clubbing 17 home runs and driving in 52 runs...however, Bonds was not given many opportunities to hit, drawing 67 walks, an average of 0.97 free passes per game...he also hit .282 (67-for-237) over that span...became 1st Giant to hit 30 home runs and steal 30 bases in a season since his father Bobby did it in 1973...slugged his 30th homer of year Sept. 21 vs. Colorado off Joe Grahe, marking 4th straight year and 5th time in his career he has done so...also marked 50th time in franchise history a Giant has reached 30-HR plateau...of his 33 HRs on year, 17 tied game or gave SF lead, 13 came in 7th inning or later, and 6 occurred in 9th...posted his 5th 100-RBI campaign in last 6 years...his .294 mark was his lowest since he hit .292 in 1991 with Pittsburgh, when he finished close 2nd in the NL MVP balloting to Atlanta's Terry Pendleton...1995 and 1991 are only years in 1990s that he's hit lower than .300...led NL in intentional walks for 4th straight year, drawing 22...since 1992, opposition has placed him on 1st base via intentional free pass 115 times...was amongst senior circuit's top run producers, ranking 5th in home run ratio with a HR every 15.3 at-bats (33 HR, 506 AB)...produced RBI every 4.9 at-bats (104 RBI), good enough for 6th in National League...once again proved to be Giants' top hitter in clutch, batting at .325 clip (38-for-117) with 7 doubles, 3 triples, 4 home runs and 46 RBI with runners in scoring position...with his steal of 2nd June 28 vs. Colorado, Barry and his father, Bobby, established the ML record of 783 stolen bases by a father-son combination, held previously by Maury (586) and Bump (196) Wills...opened season 0-for-11 over his 1st 5 games...rebounded with season-high 10-game hitting streak May 1-11...in month of May, he hit .330 (34-for-103) with 4 HRs and 21 RBI in 26 games...hit .306 (30-for-98) for month of June, which had been his slowest month over previous 3 years ('94—.266; '93—.280; '92—.244)...in those 3 seasons, has rebounded for strong July's ('94—.358; '93—.308; '92—.313)...in July 1995, he posted .304 average (28-for-92) with 9 home runs and 22 RBI...he also drew 30 bases on balls during July, as he missed Matt Williams hitting behind him...with bases-clearing double in 8th June 7 vs. New York, he collected his 14th career 4-hit game and tied his season-high with 4 RBI...slugged 9th HR of the year June 8 vs. New York off Dave Mlicki, marking 600th combined HR for Barry and his father Bobby (332)...slugged 3 game-winning HRs in 6-game span from June 30 through July 6...blistered San Diego for 2 HRs, 5 RBI in a 4-for-5 effort June 30, including dramatic 1-out, 3-run, game-winning HR in bottom of 9th off Trevor Hoffman that lifted SF to 7-6 victory...was 25th time in ML career he had hit pair of HRs in game...marked 2nd time of year and 15th time in ML career he garnered 4 hits...defeated Cincinnati twice with HRs...hammered solo blast off Xavier Hernandez in 8th July 3 for 8-7 win...delivered 3-run, 9th-inning drive off Jeff Brantley to complete SF's 3-run comeback July 6...went 0-for-3 for victorious NL club at All-Star Game...struggled through worst August of his career, hitting .204 (19-for-93) with 4 home runs and 18 RBI...however, he did draw 26 walks and was hit by pitches 3 times for .393 on-base pct...slugged a pair of HRs Aug. 18 in Philadelphia, marking his 3rd 2-homer game of year and 27th multi-HR game of his career...over final 13 games of season, he went 19-for-44 (.432 with 5 HRs, 12 walks) to snap 8-for-38 (.211) stretch over his previous 9 contests...despite his strong finish, was 53-for-194 (.273) over final 56 games (dating back to Aug. 1), as his average dropped 14 points over 56 contests (from .308)...however, he did have a .484 on-base pct. (53h,47bb,4hb in 215 plate appearances) over 56-game span...

1994...despite playing with bone spur in right elbow suffered in early May, was projected to post power numbers greater than 1993's MVP season before players' strike wiped out final 7 weeks of '94 campaign...after 113 games, was on pace to hit 52 HRs and drive in 114 runs (had NL-high 46 HRs and 123 RBI in '93)...finished 4th in the NL MVP balloting...named to The Sporting News, Associated Press and Baseball America Post Season All-Star squads...earned a NL Silver Slugger Award, representative of one of the NL's top outfielders...was voted to his 3rd straight start (4th overall appearance) in the All-Star Game...earned his 5th straight Gold Glove...NL managers ranked him the 2nd-best hitter and defensive outfielder in Baseball America's 1994 midseason poll...ranked among NL's top 10 in 11 individual categories, including 1st in walks (74) and intentional walks (18); 3rd in HRs (37), slugging pct. (.647) and outfield assists (10, tied); 4th in runs scored (89); 5th in total bases (253); 6th in stolen bases (29) and 9th in RBI (81)...batted .408 (40-for-98) with 14 HRs, 27 RBI, 29 runs scored, 16 walks and 11 stolen bases (14 att.) over 26 games after All-Star Break...slugged 37th and final HR of season Aug. 7 at Houston, giving him 6 HRs in his final 10 contests...finished with flurry, hitting .347 (60-for-173) with 22 HRs and 43 RBI over his last 45 games...homed in 10 of his last 25 games (14 HRs total) and 17 of his last 45 games (22 HRs total)...clubbed 3 HRs in game for 1st time in ML career Aug. 2 vs. Cincinnati, going 4-for-5 with single and 4 RBI...was 1st Giant to hit 3 HRs in game since Kevin Mitchell turned trick at Pittsburgh May 25, 1990...last Giant to belt 3 at 'Stick was Darrell Evans vs. Houston, June 15, 1983...he and Matt Williams (43), despite strike-shortened season, were 3rd-most prolific HR tandem in SF history, combining for 79 HRs to trail 91 by Willie Mays (52) and Willie McCovey (39) in '65 and 86 by Orlando Cepeda (46) and Mays (40) in '61...also batted .388 (40-for-103) with 14 HRs and 28 RBI in 27 contests with Darryl Strawberry, batting 2 slots behind him in 5th hole...batted .342 (67-for-196) with 22 HR and 47 RBI in 55 road games...with 29 SBs, joined Darren Lewis (30) and Royce Clayton (23) in the 20-SB club, marking 1st time Giants have featured trio of 20-SB men since 1919 (George Burns 40, Ross Youngs 24, Benny Kauff 21)...HR off Shawn Boskie at Philadelphia July 18 was his 28th of year and 250th of ML career...launched pair of HRs in July 15 and July 16 games in Montreal, marking 1st time in ML career he's had back-to-back 2-HR contests...had 5 multi-HR games in '94...grand slam off Armando Reynoso May 9 was 3rd of his career, 2nd vs. Colorado and 2nd as a Giant...16 of his 37 HRs either tied a game or gave SF the lead...Pittsburgh and St. Louis were the only parks where Bonds didn't go the distance in 1994...had CAT scan performed on right elbow May 5, which revealed bone chips...suffered injury May 4 on pitch by NY's Eric Hillman that struck him under protective guard...underwent successful surgery to remove bone chip Sept. 23 at Menlo Park's Recovery Inn, with team physician Warren King performing operation...1993...named the Associated Press Major League Player of the Year and also voted to the UPI and The Sporting News NL All-Star teams and the Associated Press Major League All-Star team...his .336 average was higher than any of the other 27 NL players who have won the homer and RBI titles in the same season since 1937...joined Joe Medwick, Al Simmons, Ted Kluszewski and Ernie Banks as the only players ever to hit 2 doubles in an All-Star Game...won his 4th straight Gold Glove...his average, RBI, HRs and runs scored (129) were all career highs...became the 1st player to lead the NL in both slugging and on-base percentage since Mike Schmidt in 1981...Elias Sports Bureau's computer rankings, which are used to determine compensation to teams for free agents, ranked Bonds No. 1 in the majors with a 98.765 rating (on a scale of 100) based over 2 years ('93 and '92)...next highest were Atlanta's Greg Maddux (97.679) and Chicago's Frank Thomas (96.667)...won the prestigious 1993 S. Rae Hickok Award as the nation's top professional athlete...hit .333 over his final 16 pressurized games of the season with 6 homers, 7 doubles, 21 RBI and an .860 slugging percentage...came to the Giants during the Winter Meetings as the biggest free agent signing in sports history...was 1993's leading vote-getter in fan balloting (3,074,603 votes) for the 64th All-Star Game, becoming only the 2nd Giants player to accomplish that feat (Will Clark also led in 1989)...also marked the 3rd straight year he has made the All-Star squad and the 2nd year in a row he has been elected a starter...was among league leaders in almost every offensive category, including 4th in average (.336), 1st in home runs (46), 1st in RBI (123), 1st in slugging percentage (.677), 1st in on-base percentage (.458) and 2nd in runs scored (129)...his average, home run and RBI totals would have been good enough to capture the NL Triple Crown in 5 of the last-7 years (1992, '91, '90, '87 and '86)...baseball hasn't had a triple crown winner since Carl Yastrzemski in '67 and the NL hasn't had one since Joe "Ducky" Medwick in '37...his .677 slugging percentage was the highest in franchise history...slugged his 40th HR of the season Sept. 2 in Atlanta, becoming only the 14th player in franchise history to accomplish that feat (Kevin Mitchell had been the last with 47 in 1989)...his 123 RBI marked his 4th straight year with 100 RBI or more and established a new career-high (previous high was 116, set in 1991)...his 46 HRs also surpassed his previous career high of 34, set in 1992 with Pittsburgh...homered twice in a game 7 times in the year...combined with Matt Williams to hit back-to-back HRs twice on Aug. 15 at Chicago, becoming the 1st duo to accomplish that feat since Gary Sheffield and Fred McGriff hit back-to-back HRs in consecutive innings vs. Houston in San Diego Aug. 6, 1992...the accomplishment was later equaled by McGriff and David Justice on Aug. 25 at Candlestick vs. the Giants...the 2nd of Bonds' and Williams' back-to-back HRs proved game-winners in a 9-7, 11-inning contest vs. the Cubs...also became the 1st player in franchise history to hit over 30 HRs in his 1st season as a Giant...21 of his 46 HRs either tied the game or gave SF the lead (8 tied/13 the lead)...was walked intentionally a ML-leading 43 times in the season, the 2nd-highest total for a season in ML history...the all-time mark is 45, set by ex-Giant Willie McCovey in 1969...failed to reach base in a game only 16 times in his 156 starts on the year...scored 5 runs on Aug. 4 at San Diego, tying the SF franchise mark set by Willie Mays twice in 1964...stole 3 bases Aug. 20 vs. Florida, marking 1st Giant to steal 3 bases in a game since Darren Lewis Sept. 16, 1991...also marked 5th straight year and 7th season overall that he has stolen at least 20 bases...matched his then-career high with 6 RBI July 8 in Philadelphia, going 3-for-5 with 2 HRs in the game...earned NL Player of the Month honors for April (.431, 7 HRs, 25 RBI)...1992...won 2nd NL MVP award in 3 years...ranked among the NL leaders in average (T6th), home runs (2nd with a career-high 34), RBI (4th), walks (1st), intentional walks (1st with 32, breaking Roberto Clemente's Pirates club mark), runs (1st), doubles (T9th), stolen bases (9th with 39), on-base percentage (1st), slugging percentage (1st), extra base hits (1st) and home run ratio (1st, 1 every 13.9 at-bats)...named NL Player of the Month for April (.317, 7 HRs, 17 RBI in 18 games)...was a member of the NL All-Star team for the 2nd time in his career and elected a starter for the 1st time...went 7-for-14 with 13 walks, 4 homers, 7 RBI and 10 runs scored during the 1st week of September to grab NL Player of the Week honors...was placed on the DL for the 1st time in his career on June 15 after straining a muscle in his right side...reinstated July 3 after missing 18 games...appeared in 1,000th career game Sept. 22 at St. Louis...drove in 500th run July 12 vs. Cincinnati...hit .473 during a career-high 15-game hitting streak from Sept. 12-26...won his 3rd straight Rawlings Gold Glove Award...hit .261 with a HR in 7 games in the NLCS vs. Atlanta...1991...finished 2nd to Pendleton in the NL MVP voting...ranked 3rd in the NL with 13 outfield assists...shared NL Player of the Week honors with Will Clark for week ending July 14...2nd in the NL in sacrifice flies and intentional walks...RBI ratio of 1 every 4.4 at-bats was the best in the majors...1990...won the National League Most Valuable Player Award from the BBWAA, also the Major League Player of the Year Award from The Sporting News...named to NL All-Star team for the 1st time...became the 2nd player in ML history to hit 30 home runs and steal 50 bases in the same season (Eric Davis of Cincinnati in 1987 was the other)...led NL with a .565 slugging percentage, ranked 2nd in walks and 3rd in stolen bases...tied for lead in outfield assists with 14...was named NL Player of the Week for April 23-29 and Player of the Month for July...1989...appeared in a career-high 159 games...finished 2nd in NL with 14 outfield assists...1988...was 42-for-121 (.347) leading off the 1st inning with 8 home runs...named NL Player of the Week April 11-17...injured his left knee June 17 at St. Louis, undergoing arthroscopic surgery Sept. 28...1987...opened the year in center field but switched to left on May 30...homered in 4 straight games (total of 5 HRs) Aug. 18-21...1986...hit .311 in 44 games at Hawaii before his contract was purchased by the Pirates May 30...led NL rookies in homers, RBI, stolen bases and walks...1st ML hit was a double May 31 off Rick Honeycutt of the Dodgers...hit 1st ML home run June 4 off Craig McMurtry at Atlanta...1985...began pro career at Prince William after being chosen in the 1st round (6th overall pick) of the draft by Pittsburgh...named Carolina League Player of the Month for July...

BASEBALL BLOODLINE...current Giants' hitting coach Bobby Bonds is his father...he and his father hold the all-time father-son HR record with 624 (Bobby 332/Barry 292)...Bobby played 14 years in the Majors, including 7 with the Giants (1968-74)...Barry and Bobby are 2 of only 6 players in ML history to enjoy multiple 30-HR, 30-steal seasons...the senior Bonds is the only person ever to hit 30 HRs and steal 30 bases 5 times during a career...the 2 have also accounted for 8 Gold Glove awards (Barry 5, Bobby 3)...by the age of 4, Barry was a regular visitor to Candlestick Park, as his mother, Pat, would drive him and his brother, Rickey (now 30), to the stadium on game days and they would play catch with Barry's godfather, future Hall-of-Famer Willie Mays...the Bonds children would also shag flies and run around the clubhouse...his father attended Barry's games at the San Carlos (CA) Little League and later at Serra High, but he seldom sat in the stands for fear of stealing the crowd's attention, instead parking his car behind some trees...Barry's younger brother, Bobby, Jr., is currently a prospect in the San Diego Padres' minor league system...

How Obtained: Giants #10 selection in June 1992 draft.
Contract Status: Signed through 1996

CAREER...seeking to make his 1st Major League Opening Day roster in just his 5th professional season...considered one of Giants' top pitching prospects after reeling off 14-7 combined mark with both SF and Shreveport in 1995...skipped triple-A level in 1995, sailing from double-A Shreveport to San Francisco's rotation...has posted a 35-17 mark over 3-1/2 minor league campaigns...

1995 SEASON...made jump from double-A to big leagues, proving to be one of Giants' most reliable starters down the stretch...won his last 2 starts of year to tie William VanLandingham for 2nd on club with 6 wins, behind Mark Leiter's team-high 10...worked into 6th inning in each of his 1st 8 ML starts and 10 of his 13 outings, yielding 3 earned runs or less in 8 of 13 starts...was recalled from double-A Shreveport July 23 to fill both roster and rotation spots vacated by Mark Portugal, who was shipped to Cincinnati July 21 in SF's 8-player trade with Reds...won his ML debut July 24 at Florida, as Giants rolled to 8-3 victory...surrendered 3 runs on 6 hits over his 7.0-inning start...following Greg Colbrunn's HR in 2nd, settled down to retire 9 of next 11 batters before Charles Johnson launched solo blast to left in 5th...shared spotlight, as Deion Sanders also made his Giants' debut...outdueled Tom Glavine in Giants' 3-2 victory over Atlanta July 30 at Candlestick...surrendered solo runs in 2nd and 4th innings, while limiting Braves to 4 hits over his 6.0 innings...collected his 1st ML hit with bunt single off Glavine...suffered his 1st loss Aug. 5 vs. Los Angeles, when Hideo Nomo handcuffed Giants on 1 hit in a complete game 3-0 shutout victory...Royce Clayton broke up Nomo's no-hit bid with single to short with 2 outs in 7th...recorded career-high 7 strikeouts Aug. 21 at New York, while not factoring in final decision of SF's 5-4, 11-inning defeat...registered his 3rd win in 4 career decisions in Aug. 15 start vs. St. Louis, as SF posted a 4-2 win at Candlestick...pitched SF to 2-1 victory at Montreal Aug. 26 with his finest outing as big leaguer...after surrendering lead-off home run to Rondell White, settled down to allow just 1 more hit over his 7.0-inning stint...retired 18 of last 21 batters and left with 2-1 advantage after Matt Williams drilled solo blast in 6th...dropped his 1st decision in 6 outings Aug. 31 vs. Philadelphia as SF was shut out, 6-0...allowed only 1 run, which scored on wild pitch...was lifted for pinch hitter in 7th and the bullpen yielded 5 runs over final 2.0 frames...won his last 2 starts, both vs. Colorado, after struggling in his 3 previous starts when he went 0-2 with 12.33 ERA (16er, 11.2ip)...had posted 2-1 mark with 2.36 ERA (7er, 26.2ip) over 4 outings from Aug. 15-31...posted his 1st shutout appearance in his big league career Sept. 23 in Giants' 2-0 victory over Colorado...weaved his way out of trouble (4 walks and a hit batter) over 1st 4 innings, before posting perfect frames in 5th and 6th innings...was lifted for pinch hitter in the 6th and SF took a 1-0 lead on Mark Carreon's pinch-hit RBI single...in his final outing Sept. 28, he powered Giants to 12-4 victory in opener of the Colorado series that would decide NL West championship...blanked Rockies on 3 hits over 1st 4.0 innings, while SF jumped out to 9-0 advantage...yielded 4 runs over next 1.1 frames, but secured win...helped his own cause with run-scoring single in 5th...proved to be adept with bat, hitting at .217 clip (5-for-23) with 1 RBI and 4 sacrifices for year...in 16 starts for double-A Shreveport, he was 8-3 with 3.08 ERA (30er, 88.1ip)...was Captains' top winner prior to his promotion, leading eventual Texas League Champions to the 1st half title...pitched in Arizona Fall League following the season...went 0-2 with a 7.85 ERA in 5 starts for Scottsdale before being shut down for the winter...

1994...split season between Clinton and San Jose...pitched a combined 129.0 innings over 23 starts, posting a 9-7 mark and 4.67 ERA...had a late start, missing most of Spring Training due to his mother's death...started the campaign at Clinton and fanned 62 in 53.0 innings, while compiling a 2-4 mark and 4.92 ERA in 10 games...lost his first 4 decisions, before beating Burlington May 25...struck out 9 in 6 innings...got his 2nd win June 14 vs. Ft. Wayne...at San Jose, went 7-3 with a 3.20 ERA in 13 games...won his first SJ start, going 6 innings vs. Stockton June 27...fired 6 innings of 1-hit ball in a 7-2 win over Riverside July 8...went 6-2 with a 2.47 ERA in his first 9 starts in the second half...1993...spent the entire campaign with single-A Clinton...helped lead the Giants to the Midwest League Playoffs...logged career-highs in wins (13), games (26) and innings (133.2)...1992...joined the Everett club after being the Giants' #10 selection...went 5-2 with a 4.33 ERA in 15 games...won the Bill Parese Award, which is presented annually to the first-year athlete who exemplifies spirit, work ethic and pride...

PERSONAL...graduated for J.H. Rose (Greenville, NC) High School in 1989...attended Virginia Commonwealth University...his father, Jim, Sr., played offensive line for the Oakland Raiders in 1971...single...resides in Greenville, NC...

Contract Status: Non-roster invitee

CAREER... joins Giants as free agent non-roster invitee, having spent his 1st 9 years in professional baseball with Philadelphia Phillies' organization...has seen Major League action last 2 years, working in combined 24 games out of Phils' bullpen...

1995 SEASON... made Phillies' Opening Day roster, breaking camp with the big club for 1st time in his career...however, was optioned to triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre May 15 when rosters were reduced from 28 players to 25...expanded rosters were result of shortened Spring Training due to labor dispute the previous year...made just 4 relief appearances with Phils, posting no record with 6.14 ERA...hampered by arm troubles while at Scranton, making just 14 appearances (1-2, 4.35 ERA) while being on Disabled List from June 26-August 8...was recalled not to report by Philadelphia Sept. 9...

1994...saw his 1st Major League action, appearing in 20 games for Phillies after beginning the year at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre...posted 1.04 ERA over his 1st 8 appearances at Scranton before having his contract purchased April 29 when Larry Andersen went out with an injury...made his ML debut May 3 vs. San Diego, however worked just 0.1 inning prior to being ejected after hitting 2 batters in brawl-marred contest...posted 0-2 record with 4.46 ERA for big club, suffering losses May 10 at Atlanta and May 28 vs. Houston... was optioned back to Scranton July 23 when Ben Rivera, Lenny Dykstra and Dave Hollins were all reinstated from DL...remained with Red Barons through conclusion of their season, not returning to majors due to baseball strike in mid-August...
1993...advanced to triple-A level for 1st time, working in 30 games (13 starts) at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre after beginning season with 4 starts at double-A Reading...combined for 8-8 record with 4.25 ERA over career-high 34 appearances...had 2.55 ERA in his last 13 relief outings at Scranton and earned his 1st career save...
1992...split his season between Reading and single-A Clearwater, posting combined 3-4 record with a 3.53 ERA over 23 appearances (19 starts)...struggled early as he was 0-0 with a 9.24 ERA through 7 appearances (6 starts) at Reading...eventually was dropped down a level on May 28...however, rebounded strong as he finished with 3-4 mark and 1.86 ERA over 16 games (13 starts) with Clearwater...
1991...made his 1st appearance at double-A level, ranking 3rd in Eastern League while leading Reading with 11 wins...saw his fortunes reverse from year before, posting 11-5 mark with 4.84 ERA over 20 starts...however, did miss over month of action while on Disabled List, missing time from May 29-July 2...
1990...pitched entire season at Clearwater, battling through year with 4-14 record and 4.88 ERA...however, was tied for team lead in starts (26) while ranking 2nd in innings pitched (131.0) and strikeouts (90)...did not receive much support as the club ranked 12th out of 14 teams in hitting and posted 50-87 record overall...
1989...split his time between single-A clubs Clearwater and Spartanburg, going combined 7-10 with 3.95 ERA in 27 starts...his 159.1 innings are career high...
1988...spent entire campaign at Spartanburg, posting his finest professional season with 11-6 mark and 2.30 ERA over 25 starts...named to South Atlantic League All-Star team, finishing 5th in circuit for ERA...fired no-hitter vs. Augusta Aug. 18...honored as Paul Owens Award winner for best pitcher in Phillies minor league system...
1987...made his pro debut with rookie-league Utica, breaking in same year with current-Giant Kim Batiste and Padres starter Andy Ashby...

PERSONAL...1987 graduate of Springfield (Montgomery County, PA) High School, where he earned All-League and All-Area honors in baseball and basketball...attended University of Delaware where he was given basketball scholarship...single...resides in Erdenheim, PA...

CAREER...returned to San Francisco last season after spending previous 3 seasons with New York Mets and Pittsburgh Pirates...looking to rebound from injury-plagued 1995 season...expected to play vital role in Giants' bullpen...was originally 23rd round selection by Giants in June 1987 draft...

1995 SEASON...unfortunately, had his season cut short by stress fracture of 9th rib on his right side that put him on Disabled List for 80 games (June 16-Sept. 12)...was touched for his 1st runs of 1995 campaign May 2, yielding 3 runs in the top of 15th inning which broke open 0-0 deadlock between SF and LA...had retired the 1st 2 batters in 15th, while also pitching scoreless frames in 13th and 14th...finished with pitching line of 2.2ip,5h,3r,3er,1bb,4so...the Giants eventually rallied for 4-3, 15-inning victory...entered May 2 contest having worked 3.2 shutout frames over his 1st 3 appearances on the year...bagged 1st win of the year May 26 at NY, tossing 1.2 scoreless innings and seeing Rod Beck earn his 100th career save...worked career-high 4.2 innings June 8 vs. NY, saving the bullpen after entering game with only 1 out in 1st inning...also set a career mark with 7 strikeouts, while yielding only 3 hits and 1 run...was placed on 15-day Disabled List June 18 (retroactive to June 16) with stress fracture of 9th rib on his right side...was transferred to emergency 60-day Disabled List July 19 to make room for Sergio Valdez on 40-man roster...was reinstated from 60-day DL prior to Sept. 13 contest at St. Louis...to accommodate him on 40-man roster Luis Aquino was released...made his 1st appearance that evening, a scoreless inning, after not working since June 15 (at CHI)...made 6 appearances after coming off the Disabled List (0er, 7.1ip), including 3.0 scoreless frames in 2 outings over the final weekend set at Colorado...over those 6 outings, he allowed only an unearned run Sept. 16 at Pittsburgh...yielded runs in only 7 of his 27 outings on the year, while retiring 20 of 27 1st batters faced...was particularly tough against right handed batters, checking them with .195 mark (16-for-82) with no home runs...however, LHH hit at .389 clip (14-for-36) with 2 home runs...

1994...spent first full season in majors, working out of Pittsburgh bullpen...his 45 appearances ranked second on Pirates behind Ravelo Manzanillo (46)...set career highs in nearly every category: wins (2), games (45), innings (51.1) and strikeouts (30)...surrendered just one earned run in his first 10 outings (9.1 ip,

0.96er)...singled off Chicago's Jose Bautista on May 8 for his 1st Major League hit...was 2-0 with a 1.26 ERA in 14 games before going on the Disabled List May 12 (retroactive to May 9) with a muscle strain in his left side...reinstated on May 24...was charged with 1 earned run in his next 8 appearances and had an ERA as low as 1.14 on June 10...tallied his only save on June 4 at Colorado...gave up 4 earned runs in 1.2ip on June 14 at Montreal and 3 earned runs in 1.0ip on June 24 at New York...was 0-1 with a 5.85 ERA in his final 23 appearances...was 1-for-2 in save situations and allowed 13 of his 47 inherited runners to score...had a 0.98 ERA (18.1ip, 2er) in 16 days games and a 5.18 ERA (33.0ip, 19er) in 29 night games...1993...pitched in Pittsburgh's extended Spring Training program in Bradenton, FL. before being assigned to triple-A Buffalo on June 11...was 6-for-9 in save situations with the Bisons and allowed just one of his 14 inherited runners to score...was not charged with an earned run in 18 appearances (22.1ip) between June 17-July 27...was named Buffalo's Pitcher of the Month for July after going 2-0 with 6 saves and a 1.26 ERA in 12 appearances...recalled by Pittsburgh on July 31...did not surrender a run in his 1st 4 games with the Pirates (5.0ip)...registered his 1st Major League save on August 5 at Chicago...was charged with just 1 earned run in his first 11.0 innings with Pittsburgh...was 1-0 with 4 saves and a 1.59 ERA in 12 appearances for the Pirates during the month of August...picked up 6 of his 7 saves on the road...was 7-for-12 in save situations with Pittsburgh and allowed 4 of his 12 inherited runners to score...1992...spent most of the season with the Mets' triple-A club Tidewater, but also had 4 different stints with the big club...posted his 2nd big league win on September 15 at Chicago...his longest outing of the season was a three-inning stint at Pittsburgh on August 5...allowed 1 run in 15 innings over 8 outings for New York between Aug. 10-Sept. 15...also had a string of 9.2 scoreless innings between Aug. 10-Sept. 6...1991...began the season with the Giants' triple-A club at Phoenix...was claimed on waivers by the Mets on May 6...spent the remainder of the season with Tidewater...shared the International League lead for victories (12)...1990...began the season with double-A Shreveport...earned a promotion to Phoenix on June 21 after putting together a 1.88 ERA in 33 games...went a combined 3-8 with a 2.23 ERA and 18 saves in 52 games with the 2 clubs...made his Major League debut vs. Philadelphia on Aug. 24...went unscored upon in his 1st 5 ML appearances (6.1ip) and was charged with a run in just 4 of his 14 appearances with the Giants...earned his 1st Major League win on Aug. 24 vs. San Diego...1989...chosen to the California League All-Star team after helping San Jose to the league title...also named the team's MVP...his 30 saves set the San Jose club record and a CL record for a single season...1988...spent the entire year with Clinton and the Midwest League in ERA (1.43)...1987...began his professional career with Everett and helped the club to the Northwest League Western Division title...

CAREER... has been tabbed as one of Giants' top pitching prospects after making his Major League debut for San Francisco as Sept. call-up in 1995... came to San Francisco from Seattle Mariners May 20, 1995 in exchange for Salomon Torres... made his big league debut at 22 years old, youngest Giant since Torres... after not having 1st round pick in 1991 draft, Giants acquired 3 through trades in 1995... Estes, 11th overall pick in that draft, is joined by 1B David McCarty, who was 3rd pick of draft and LHP Allen Watson, 21st selection... SF selected LHP Steve Whitaker in supplemental round with its 1st selection in 1991...

1995 SEASON... made formidable climb from single-A to majors, 1st Giant to accomplish feat since LHP Rafael Novoa in 1990... pitched for 5 different clubs on season, beginning campaign at single-A Wisconsin (Appleton) in Seattle Mariners organization... after being traded to Giants in May, pitched for single-A San Jose, double-A Shreveport and capped year with September call-up to big club... was acquired (along with IF Wilson Delgado) from Seattle May 20 in exchange for RHP Salomon Torres... made his ML debut Sept. 16 at Pittsburgh, starting in place of injured William VanLandingham and suffering loss in SF's 10-2 defeat vs. Pirates (5.1ip, 4h, 5r, 5er, 3bb, 5so)... began outing striking out both Jacob Brumfield and Jay Bell on called strikes to open his ML career... posted perfect innings in 1st, 3rd, 4th and 5th, taking 2-1 advantage into 6th... however, Pirates used double, infield single and 2 walks to knock him out of game, trailing 3-2... left with bases loaded, later seeing all 3 runners score... posted 5 strikeouts over his first 3.0 frames... made total of 3 ML starts, suffering losses in each outing... however, was particularly impressive during 1st 4.0 innings of each start, yielding only 3 earned runs over combined 12.0 innings pitched (2.25 ERA)... also absorbed losses Sept. 22 vs. Colorado (6-1, 5ip, 7h, 5er) and Sept. 27 vs. San Diego (4-2, 7ip, 5h, 4r, 3er)... his outing Sept. 27 proved his longest, as he worked 7.0 frames in a 4-2 setback vs. the Padres, including the 1st 4.0-scoreless innings... was given limited run support during his brief time with San Francisco, as Giants scored only 5 runs over 3 outings... was recalled by Giants Sept. 13, joining club that evening in St. Louis... his recall followed completion of the Texas League Playoffs... compiled

7-1 mark with 2.14 ERA (22er, 92.1ip) over 18 appearances (including 1 playoff start) for 4 minor league clubs this year...held opponents to .186 batting average (60-for-322) while yielding only 4 HRs in 92.1 innings...joined Giants' Midwest League club at Burlington following the May 20 trade...made 4 starts for the Bees and etched 4.11 ERA (7er, 15.1ip) while not recording decision...earned quick promotion to single-A San Jose June 14, posting a 4-1 mark with 2.15 ERA (9er, 37.2ip) over 7 starts...was named the California League Pitcher of the Week for June 25-July 1, while also being an Honorable Mention CL All-Star despite making only 7 starts with the junior Giants...continued his rapid ascent in SF's organization with an early Aug. call-up to double-A Shreveport...made 4 starts with the Captains in the regular season, going 2-0 with a 2.01 ERA (5er, 22.1ip)...in his last outing on Sept. 1, got Shreveport off to a good start in the Texas League Championship Series by securing a 1-0 victory over Midland in Game 1...worked 7.0 innings, allowing only 5 hits and 2 walks while fanning 9 Angels...over his final 3 outings with Shreveport, including the TL Playoffs, finished with a 2-0 mark and 0.90 ERA (2er, 20.0ip) while striking out 18 and walking only 6...marked the 1st winning campaign of his 5-year minor league career...his 7 regular-season victories are career-high, surpassing his 5-win total in 1993 with Appleton...

1994...began his 4th year in the Seattle organization on the Disabled List with an injured left shoulder...underwent arthroscopic surgery to have bursa tissue removed from left shoulder on April 19; surgery was performed by Dr. Lewis Yocum in Los Angeles...began rehab assignment with Peoria on June 24 and pitched 3.0 innings of shutout ball at the Brewers...after 3 starts, was moved to Appleton on July 6 and pitched in relief that night vs. Kane County...returned to Peoria the next day...struck out season-high 11 and allowed just 1 earned run on 2 hits in 6.0 innings on July 10 vs. Padres, but was saddled with the loss...was activated from DL July 19 and assigned to Appleton...after 1 start, was placed on DL July 25 with strained left shoulder...was activated Aug. 15 and struck out 9 in 5.0 innings on Sept. 2 at Beloit in final appearance of the season...participated in Arizona Instructional League and posted a 2.42 ERA in 7 games...1993...spent the season at single-A Appleton...campaign was cut short on Aug. 19 when he was placed on the DL with a strained left shoulder...was named the #6 prospect in the Mariners organization by Baseball America...1992...returned for his 2nd stint with Bellingham...won 3 straight from July 9-31, compiling a 2.78 ERA over 5 games during the streak...1991...agreed to terms with the Mariners July 9 and began his professional career with Bellingham in the Northwest League...struck out 7, but received no decision in 7-4 win vs. Yakima during annual Kingdome game on Aug. 15...held opposing hitters to a .218 mark (27-for-124)...led the NL in balks (10)...was named the #3 Northwest League prospect by Baseball America...

PERSONAL...graduated from Douglas (Minden, NV) High School in 1991...threw 4 career no-hitters in his career at Douglas...as a senior, was 8-2 with a 0.80 ERA...in 62 innings, allowed just 15 hits and 27 walks while striking out a school-record 141...was named the Nevada State Player of the Year in 1991...accumulated a 4.0 GPA at Douglas HS and was offered a full scholarship to Stanford...single...resides in Gardnerville, NV...

CAREER...embarks on his 8th professional campaign and 2nd at the big league level...spent most of 1995 campaign with San Francisco...became 1st San Francisco Giants rookie pitcher to win his 1st 5 decisions...the only other 1st-year SF hurlers to open with as many as 4 straight victories are Jim Duffalo in 1961 and Juan Marichal in 1960...ML record for consecutive wins to start career is 12, held by Hooks Wiltse (1904 Giants) and Butch Metzger (1974 Giants and '75-76 Padres)...originally signed by Cincinnati as free agent after going through all-comers tryout at Riverfront Stadium in 1989...

1995 SEASON...logged his 1st year in big leagues...despite his success in the won-loss column (5-1), was 3rd worst in NL in terms of allowing inherited runners to score with 44.8% coming home (13-of-29)...his 5.50 ERA was also 3rd-worst relief mark in senior circuit...was recalled April 28 from triple-A Phoenix, replacing William VanLandingham who landed on DL with rib cage injury...made his ML debut April 30, pitching 1.2 innings (1h,1er,1bb,1so) in SF's 10-3 loss to Marlins...was touched for solo home run by his 2nd batter faced (Mario Diaz), but otherwise pitched, retiring 5 of his 7 hitters overall...posted his 1st ML victory May 2, getting credit for win after SF plated 4 runs in the bottom of the 15th inning to overcome 3-0 deficit vs. LA...had entered with 3 runs across and 2 outs in top of inning, walking 1 before retiring final out in frame...earned 2nd win of his career June 6 vs. New York, tossing 2.0 scoreless frames in 2-1 triumph...entered game with SF trailing 1-0, but Rikkert Faneyte delivered pinch-single in 9th to plate Royce Clayton with game-winner...saw his ERA jump from 3.86 (6er, 14ip) to 6.35 (12er, 17.0ip) after yielding 10 hits and 6 earned runs over 3.0 innings over 2 outings on June 8 (vs. NY) and 10 (vs. Montreal)...notched 3rd win of season June 30 vs. San Diego, working out of 2-on, 1-out jam in 9th inning with 0.2 scoreless innings...SF trailed 6-4 entering bottom of 9th, but Barry Bonds' 3-run HR in final at-bat gave SF 7-6 victory...notched his 4th win without defeat July 13 in the 2nd half opener vs. Houston, working scoreless 11th and 12th innings before SF snatched 6-5 triumph with run in the bottom of 12th...ran his record to perfect 5-0 July 16, as SF posted 7-6, 14-inning win over HOU...worked pair of scoreless frames, registering win on J.R. Phillips' leadoff HR in 14th inning...3 of his 5 wins came in extra frames...was unscored upon in 13 of 15 outings (17.1 ip, 5er) from June 11-July 16, seeing his ERA drop from 6.35 to 4.46...was optioned July 19 to make room for Sergio Valdez on roster...had worked 5 of previous 6 days prior to his option...was recalled July 29 from Phoenix to take the roster spot of Luis Aquino (strained right pectoral muscle)...twirled 3 scoreless appearances (3.0ip) with Firebirds during his option to Phoenix (from July 20-28)...suffered his 1st career loss Aug. 18 in Philadelphia, surrendering 4 runs on 3 hits (2 HRs) and 2 walks in 1.0 inning of work...entered in relief of Terry Mulholland with SF up 6-4 and 2 outs in 5th, yielding 2-run homer to his 1st batter faced (Charlie Hayes)...made 17 appearances after being recalled for the 2nd time on July 29...however, struggled as he yielded 12 earned runs in 15.2 innings pitched (6.89 ERA) over 17 outings...closed out the campaign with 2 scoreless outings (1.2ip), snapping stretch which saw him yield runs in his previous 2 games (4er, 1.1ip) and 9 of his previous 12 appearances (11.2ip, 11er)...

1994...pitched at the triple-A level for the 1st time in his career, spending the entire campaign with Phoenix...was 3rd on the Firebirds with 7 victories, seeing action both as a starter (11 outings) and reliever (16 appearances)...earned his 1st triple-A win April 28, throwing 2 innings of scoreless relief vs. Calgary...won his first 5 decisions, a streak that ran from April 28-May 24...left the game in the 1st inning with shoulder stiffness June 19 at Tacoma after giving up 3 runs on 1 hit and 1 walk...missed 41 games due to tendinitis in right shoulder, spending time on the DL from June 21-August 2...came out of the bullpen after returning from the DL...earned his 7th win Aug. 8 vs. Edmonton with 2 scoreless innings of relief...his 2 saves were his first since 1991 at Charleston...1993...spent the entire season with double-A Chattanooga of the Reds organization...compiled a 12-8 mark with a 3.62 ERA in a Southern League-leading 28 starts...logged a career-high 166.2 innings...1992...set career highs in wins (14) and strikeouts (144) with single-A Cedar Rapids...went 14-8 with a 2.72 ERA...1991...returned to single-A Charleston, where he appeared in 45 games, all in relief...earned the first two saves of his professional career...also set a career best in ERA with a 2.41 ERA while striking out 79 in 71 innings...1990...spent the year with single-A Charleston, where he split time between the rotation (16 starts) and the bullpen (14 appearances)...went 6-5 with a 4.07 ERA...1989...began his professional career at rookie-league Plant City after signing as a free agent...registered a 4-1 slate with a 3.18 ERA...

PERSONAL...graduated from Lloyd (Erlanger, KY) High School in 1986...earned All-Conference and All-Region honors in his senior year...attended Northern Kentucky University...pitched a combined no-hitter vs. Lindsey Wilson while at Northern Kentucky in 1987...signed as a non-drafted free agent in 1989...married (Toni Gilmore, Nov. 19, 1994)...resides in Florence, KY...

Contract Status: Signed through 1996

CAREER...emerged as San Francisco's top starter in 1995...joined Giants just prior to Extended Spring Training, signing as non-roster free agent April 7...along with Todd Benzinger, became 1st non-roster invitee to make Giants Opening Day roster since Mark Carreon in '93...SF marked his 1st National League and 4th big league club, as he was previously with California, Detroit and New York Yankees...made just 1 relief appearance in 1995 after making 96 in previous 5 years...owns 38-38 lifetime mark with 4.35 ERA and 3 saves...has battled back from serious shoulder problems that sidelined him from 1986-88...was signed by then-Yankees' GM Bob Quinn and assistant Brian Sabean after tryout at Yankee Stadium Sept. 29, 1988...rattled off 23-18 record for Detroit from 1991-93...his brother, Al, has pitched in the Majors for 9 years with Toronto and New York Yankees, and signed with Florida over the winter...

1995 SEASON...proved Giants' workhorse on year, leading staff in 5 different categories including wins (10), starts (29), innings pitched (195.2), strikeouts (129) and complete games (7)...was only SF hurler not to miss a turn in rotation, with only Terry Mulholland getting as many as 20 starts (24)...also added relief appearance in final game of year at Colorado, after having gone 6.2 innings in start only 2 days previously...had 7 of Giants' 12 complete games on year, ranking 2nd in NL behind only Atlanta's Greg Maddux (10)...is 1st SF hurler to go distance 7 times in season since Rick Reuschel (7) in 1988...registered 2-hitter (July 26 vs. Cincinnati), 3-hitter (Aug. 16 vs. St. Louis) and trio of 4-hitters (June 4 vs. Philadelphia, Aug. 22 vs. New York and Aug. 27 vs. Montreal), all besting career-lows entering season...was brilliant in his 1st 9 outings after All-Star Break (July 17 through Aug. 27), going 6-2 with 1.71 ERA (14er, 73.2ip) and 5 CGs while fanning 60 and walking just 17...held opponents to .198 average (47-for-259) over 9 starts...had 3 consecutive complete games Aug. 16, 22 and 27, marking 1st time an SF hurler has accomplished the feat since Don Robinson July 28, Aug. 4 and 9, 1989...had arguably best game of his career July 26 vs. CIN, posting 4-1, 2-hit triumph over Pete Schourek and Reds...carried perfect game into 6th inning...Bret Boone broke up perfection, leading off 6th with clean single to left-center...faced only 1 over minimum before Ron Gant clubbed home run to open 8th...despite his strong season, suffered through career-high 5-game losing streak from June 9 through July 16...during losing skid, posted 5.18 ERA (23er, 40.0ip) over 7 outings...earned his career-high 10th victory Sept. 19 at Los Angeles, posting 7-2 triumph over Dodgers...yielded only 2 runs on 6 hits over 7.2 frames while besting Hideo Nomo...won his Giants' and NL debut in club's home opener April 28 vs. Florida, moving up in original rotation due to disablement of William VanLandingham (left rib cage strain)...combined with Mark Dewey, Jose Bautista and Rod Beck to shut out Marlins on 2 hits in 4-0 victory...marked SF's lowest-hit game since Bill Swift and Kevin Rogers combined on 1-hitter June 17, 1993 at CIN...singled off Colorado's Omar Olivares May 10 for 1st Major League hit, driving in pair of runs for his 1st big league RBI...tossed 1st ML shutout June 4 vs. Philadelphia, limiting Phils to then career-low 4 hits...retired final 14 hitters en route to only 4th (9-inning) complete game of his career...his last 9-inning stint had occurred almost 2 years to day earlier on June 3, 1993 vs. White Sox (with Detroit)...led all NL pitchers in hit batsmen, plunking 17 on year...marked 2nd straight year he has led a league in HBPs, also leading the AL in 1994 with 9...had most pickoff throws among NL hurlers, making 218 on the year...ranked 9th for successful pickoffs, registering 4 on season...

1994...began Spring Training with Detroit...signed with California to non-guaranteed Major League contract March 19, following his release from Tigers March 16...was placed on Angels' 40-man roster March 22...split season as starter and reliever, completing campaign with 4-7 ledger with 2 saves and 4.72 ERA (95.1 ip, 50 er) in 40 games (7 starts)...entered season with 1 career save in 63 relief appearances...his 40 appearances set career standard...placed in starting rotation from outset of the season...1st start came April 9 in Milwaukee, 5 days after death of his son Ryan...limited Brewers to 2 runs in 6.0 ip and got no decision in Angels' 6-4 victory...1st win as Angel came in his 2nd start April 14 vs. Toronto, 6-4 decision...as starter, he finished 2-3 with 5.15 ERA (43.2 ip, 25 er), compared to 2-4 record and 4.35 mark (51.2 ip, 25 er) as reliever...his 1st 7 appearances came as starter, with last coming May 14 at Seattle...tied for 1st in A.L. in hit batsmen (9) with Minnesota's Scott Erickson and Boston's Aaron Sele...reached his total in 95.1 innings of work, while Erickson and Sele logged 144.0 and 143.1 innings, respectively...registered his 1st save July 10 at New York (0.1 ip)...marked his 1st save since June 30, 1991 vs. Cleveland when he was with Detroit...his other 1994 save came July 31 at Texas (1.2 ip)...retired 24-of-33 first batters faced as reliever...2-of-8 hits yielded in that situation were home runs...allowed just 3-of-25 inherited runners to score (12%), lowest in A.L...1993...spent season with Detroit, starting year in bullpen...moved to starting rotation and then back to 'pen before injury to right shoulder cut his season short...was on Disabled List from Aug. 8 - Sept. 1...underwent successful arthroscopic surgery Sept. 15...made 5 relief appearances, going 1-1 at start of season...made 1 start with no decision before making 3 more relief appearances...then made 12 straight starts, going 5-4 over that span...had 5-game winning streak, May 18 - June 8...went 5-4 with 4.48 ERA in 13 starts...was 1-2 with 5.34 mark in 14 relief outings...1992...split time between bullpen (21 appearances) and rotation (13 starts)...started campaign in bullpen, going 2-1, 2.95 ERA in 18.1 ip before moving to starting rotation...was 5-3, 4.94 ERA in 14 starts before sustaining groin pull that knocked him out of action and out of rotation...completed 6 innings in 6 of 14 starts...aggravated sore groin in his last start at California July 23...was placed on 15-day DL Aug. 3-24...would make 10 more appearances out of bullpen...finished season 3-2 with 2.65 ERA and no saves in relief...notched Detroit's 1st win of the campaign at Cleveland, April 13...1991...acquired by Tigers from Yankees March 29 in exchange for infielder Torey Lovullo...moved into starting rotation in mid-July and stayed there for balance of season...was 9-7 overall, 7-6 as starter...was named to Topps ML Rookie All-Star Team...came north with team from Spring Training only to be optioned to Toledo on morning of Opening Day when Detroit signed Pete Incaviglia...was recalled from Toledo April 25...tossed 6.2 ip, longest relief outing by Tiger in 1991, vs. Kansas City July 11...won 6 straight starts from Aug. 1- Sept. 1...was 5-0 with 2.93 mark in 30.2 ip in Aug...registered 1st big league complete game with 8-3 win over Baltimore on Sept. 30...1990...enjoyed two 1990 stints with Yankees, including ML debut at Texas July 24...in initial outing, he popped up Pete Incaviglia to end bases-loaded threat...earned 1st big league win in 1st start, July 31 vs. Detroit...began season at Columbus...was purchased from Clippers July 23...was International Pitcher of Week June 10-16...was optioned to Columbus Aug. 6 and recalled to NY Sept. 9...1989...was signed by Yankees as free agent, Sept. 29, 1988 after 3 years of inactivity...began at single-A Fort Lauderdale...moved to Columbus May 9...fanned 70 in 90 innings for Clippers...1988...was released by Baltimore June 13 after having undergone surgery on right shoulder 3 times over 17-month period: June, 1986; Nov., 1986; Nov., 1987...first and last surgeries were arthroscopic...1987-86...did not pitch due to shoulder injuries...1985...split campaign between double-A Charlotte and single-A Hagerstown in Baltimore chain...

M.L. Service: None

How Obtained: Giants #15 selection in the June 1993 Draft.

Contract Status: Signed through 1996

CAREER...young, switch-hitting third baseman who has hit at-least .300 at every stop in Giants' chain except for his .298 mark at Phoenix in 2nd half of 1995...his .303 career batting average over 3 minor league seasons, combined with his amazing walk-to-strikeout ratio of 1.7:1 (217 bb, 131 so), speaks volumes for his reputation as polished hitter with good idea of strike zone...

1995 SEASON...embarked on his 3rd professional campaign, debuting at double-A level with Shreveport...played in 88 games for Captains, starting 87 (85 at 3B, 2 at SS)...posted solid .309 mark to go with 56 runs, 16 doubles, 2 triples, home run and 39 RBI...boasted team-high .407 on-base percentage while drawing 53 free passes and striking out only 36 times...hit .579 (11-for-19) with 4 doubles and 5 RBI in 5 games from April 18-22...hit at .542 clip (13-for-24) with 4 RBI over 6-game stretch from July 13-19...provided solid glove work for Shreveport, committing only 5 defensive miscues in 88 games...was promoted to triple-A Phoenix in mid-July and went 7-for-14 in his 1st 3 games before slumping into 1-for-17 tailspin...hit safely in 13 straight games from Aug. 18-Sept. 3, hitting .404 with 6 doubles, 2 homers and 6 RBI to raise his average from .250 to .297...

1994...finished 2nd on single-A San Jose with .302 batting average...moved over to 3B, playing 119 contests at hot corner while also making 4 starts at 2B and 1 at SS...paced California League with .435 on-base percentage, drawing league-high 103 free passes...his walk total was highest of any single-A player in country...also led CL with 9 triples...led minors with 13 walks through April 13...hit .370 in April but cooled to .266 mark in May...was selected to California League All-Star Game as reserve and went 0-for-2...hit 2 homers and drove in 3 runs in 5-4 loss at Modesto Aug. 26...1993...began his professional career at rookie-league Everett...was plagued by sore elbow early in campaign but rebounded to claim everyday 2B job, appearing in 50 games and 4 more at SS...tied for 4th in Northwest League with .300 mark...paced circuit with .425 on-base percentage, working 42 walks and fanning only 17 times from his lead-off position...

PERSONAL...graduated from DeSmet (St. Louis, MO) High School in 1989...attended Southwest Missouri State (Springfield, MO) University...single...resides in Maryland Heights, MO...

Birthdate: February 26, 1967

1996 Opening Day Age: 29

Birthplace: Cincinnati, Ohio

Bats: Right Throws: Right

Height: 6-6 Weight: 226

M.L. Service: 1 year, 77 days

How Obtained: Acquired from Cincinnati with Deion Sanders (OF), John Roper (RHP), David McCarty (IF) and Ricky Pickett (LHP) for Mark Portugal (RHP), Dave Burba (RHP) and Darren Lewis (OF) July 21, 1995.

Contract Status: Signed through 1996

CAREER...serves as set-up man in the Giants' bullpen...retired 20 of 28 1st batters faced in 1995...enters his 11th professional campaign and 6th at big league level...looking to make his 1st Opening Day roster...San Francisco is his 5th organization after logging stints with Philadelphia, Montreal, Cincinnati and Colorado...also pitched in Japan for Chunichi in 1991...

1995 SEASON...assumed the role as set-up man upon joining Giants, appearing in team-high 28 games from July 22 through the end of season...had 17 scoreless outings over his 28 appearances with SF, stranding 13 of 18 inherited runners and retiring 20 of 28 1st batters faced...finished strong, posting 2.66 ERA (6er, 20.1ip) over his last 17 appearances which lowered his season ERA 1.03 points (from 4.22)...his 3 victories with SF matched his ML total entering the campaign...posted his 1st victory in Giants' uniform Aug. 24 at Montreal, marking his 1st ML win since Aug. 2, 1994 (at Candlestick vs. Giants as member of the Reds)...also got credit for wins Sept. 15 at Pittsburgh and Sept. 29 at Colorado...was equally stingy vs. right-handed and left-handed hitters while with SF, yielding only .179 average against RHH (12-for-67, 4 HRs) and just .171 mark vs. LHH (6-for-35, 0 HRs)...however, his strikeout-to-walk numbers were much better vs. righties as he fanned 26 and walked only 7 compared to 13 base on balls to 4 strikeouts vs. lefties...suffered his 1st loss as a Giant July 23 at Houston, surrendering deciding run on Derrick May's broken bat single to CF in the 10th inning...made his SF debut the day before (July 22), tossing 1.0 scoreless frame in SF's 7-6 defeat vs. the Astros...was closer for Reds' triple-A affiliate Indianapolis to begin season, posting a 4-1 record with 18 saves and a 2.18 ERA in 36 relief appearances...was leading Roloids Fireman competition for the American Association at time of his trade to Giants...

1994...went to Spring Training with Cincinnati, but began season at Indianapolis...appeared in 40 games for Indians, going 5-5 with 13 saves...recalled to Reds July 21...pitched next day at Chicago, taking loss after yielding game-winning home run...suffered his 2nd loss July 27 vs. Houston, yielding 4 runs (3 earned) over 1.0 inning...rebounded to earn his 1st win of year Aug. 2 at San Francisco...struck out 4 Giants...1993...spent 1st 2 months of season with triple-A Indianapolis, going 4-2 with 2 saves and 4.45 ERA in 21 games...was placed on Indianapolis Disabled List from May 15-22 with right elbow tendinitis...called up Cincinnati June 19 but did not pitch before he was designated for assignment next day...was claimed on waivers by Colorado on June 28 and made 3 relief appearances for Rockies (0-0, 9.64 ERA)...the Rockies tried to send him to minors, but Reds claimed him on waivers and he returned to Reds July 7...made memorable debut in Cincinnati uniform on July 10 at Pittsburgh, pitching 3 perfect innings in relief and recording victory as Reds came from behind to win, 10-7...was his 1st ML win...had a 1.85 ERA (5er, 24.1ip) over his 1st 12 games as Red from July 10-Aug. 21...collected 1st big league hit off Orel Hershiser Aug. 7 at Los Angeles...earned his ML save Sept. 4 vs. Philadelphia...collected save #2 vs. Houston on final day of the season...1992...returned to Montreal organization and started campaign at triple-A Indianapolis farm team, going 2-0, 0.74 in 13 relief appearances...was called up to Montreal on May 22 and pitched in 5 games for Expos, striking out 11 batters in 7.0 innings...was assigned outright to Indianapolis June 9, but opted for free agency and signed with Reds' triple-A Nashville club on June 12...spent remainder of the season with Sounds...was named American Association Pitcher of the Week for Aug. 16-22 (0-0, 0.00, 7.0ip, 0er, 12 so)...1991...signed with Montreal as free agent and opened season with triple-A Indianapolis as starter...ranked 4th in the American Association for ERA (2.97)...was named the AA Pitcher of the Week for June 30-July 6 after going 2-0 with a 2.00 ERA...had his contract sold to CAREER... unquestionably finest 2nd baseman in history of San Francisco Giants... 11-year Major League veteran looks to rebound from 2 injury-marred campaigns... has appeared in just 130 of 259 games last 2 years (an average of 65.0 per season), after having played in 1,111 contests over his 1st 8 ML campaigns (138.9 per season)... his start at 2B April 26 was his 10th consecutive Opening Day call... only 3 other Giants have started more consecutive openers in franchise history: Willie Mays (19, 1954-72), Met Ott (18, 1929-46) and Willie McCovey (11, 1963-73)... is the all-time leader among SF 2nd basemen in career games (1,241), ABs (4,385), runs (636), hits (1,139), 2Bs (227), 3Bs (38), HRs (114), RBI (437) and SBs (101)... he's only 1 of 2 SF players to play at least 125 games in 8 or more seasons (other is Willie Mays, 11 years, 1958-68)... a 2-time All-Star and Gold Glove winner in 1993... is last Giant to hit for cycle April 22, 1991 vs. San Diego to become 6th SF player to accomplish feat...

1995 SEASON... for 2nd straight year, had his season shortened and finally ended due to shoulder surgery... had season-ending arthroscopic surgery on his left rotator cuff/shoulder Sept. 23... the procedure, performed by Giants' team physician Dr. Warren King at Recovery Inn in Menlo Park, repaired slight tear in rotator cuff area... in 1994, had season-ending surgery on his right rotator cuff/shoulder July 8... originally suffered left shoulder injury Aug. 31 vs. Philadelphia at Candlestick, diving for ball hit in hole between 1st and 2nd base off bat of Mickey Morandini... last played Sept. 13 at St. Louis, when he aggravated Aug. 31 injury... finished on season-high 7-game hitting streak, batting at .385 clip (10-for-26) over 7 contests... however, was just 23-for-110 (.209) over his last 30 games, snapping 18-for-56 (.321) stretch over his previous 17 contests... hit 5 home runs over his last 20 contests, including his 8th of year Sept. 2 vs. New York (off Paul Byrd)... slugged pair of home runs Aug. 18 in PHI (solo blast off Tyler Green and 2-run shot off Paul Fletcher), marking 4th time in his career he has hit 2 HRs in game and 1st time since Sept. 13, 1993 vs. Chicago... was on Disabled List earlier in year, having missed action from May 26-June 9 due to strained left groin muscle... prior to going on DL, was 1-for-24

(.042) over his last 8 games which snapped 17-for-58 (.293) start over his 1st 15 contests of season...started 21 of SF's 1st 27 games, showing no ill signs of his right shoulder problems which cost him most of 1994...however did miss 3 games May 4-6 (in series at San Diego) due to strained right quadriceps muscle suffered May 3 vs. LA...slugged dramatic 15th-inning, game-tying, 3-run homer May 2 vs. LA (off Greg Hansell), 2-out blast that knotted the game at 3-3...LA had scored 3 times in the top of the frame to unlock 14-inning scoreless duel, while SF later added another run in 15th on Matt Williams' RBI-double for a 4-3 victory...began year errorless over his 1st 44 games and 221 chances, finishing with only 3 miscues in 422 chances on season...

1994...on heels of his finest season ever in 1993 with .312 average, 19 home runs and 65 RBI, he endured his most frustrating Major League campaign in '94...missing 74 games due to 2 stints on Disabled List, finally underwent arthroscopic rotator cuff surgery July 8 to repair his injured right shoulder...despite missing most of the season, Thompson is widely respected throughout the NL, being voted the Best Defensive 2nd Baseman by the circuit's managers in Baseball America's midseason survey...was limited to 35 games, 129 at-bats, 2 homers, 7 RBI and a career-low .209 average (27-for-129) in a nightmarish season for Giants' leader...was originally placed on 15-day DL May 12 (retroactive to May 9) due to recurring soreness in right shoulder...went on rehab assignment with triple-A Phoenix from June 21-24, then recalled by SF June 25...returned to 15-day DL July 6 (retroactive to July 5) for same shoulder ailment, which prohibited him from swinging bat pain-free...following surgery, was moved to 60-day emergency DL Aug. 6 to make room on 40-man roster for pitcher Kent Bottenfield...despite injury, still sparkled in field with .989 fielding percentage (2 errors, 67 putouts, 121 assists) and 24 double plays in 35 starts at 2nd base...1993...produced the finest year by a 2nd baseman in San Francisco Giants history...established career highs in average (.312), home runs (19) and RBI (65)...set the SF franchise mark for RBI by a 2nd baseman, eclipsing the old record of 63 by Tito Fuentes in 1973, and matched his own SF franchise mark for HRs for 2nd baseman...earned his 1st Rawlings Gold Glove award and was voted the NL's top 2nd baseman by both The Sporting News and UPI...was named to the NL All-Star team for the 2nd time in his career, but, also for the 2nd time, was unable to participate in the game due to injury...attended the gala event, but was replaced on the roster by the Cardinals' Gregg Jefferies because of a left quadriceps injury...had a 21-game hitting streak from May 8-June 1, establishing a career-high and matching the Expos' Delino DeShields for the longest in the NL on the year...the streak was also the Giants' longest since Jack Clark hit in a SF franchise-record 26 consecutive games in 1978...belted 2 home runs in a game both June 23 (vs. the Padres) and 24 (vs. the Rockies) at Candlestick, marking the 1st multi-homer games of his career...later homered twice a 3rd time Sept. 3rd at St. Louis...homered in 5 straight games Aug. 20-24...HR streak was 1 game shy of the club record of 6, set by Willie Mays in 1955 for the NY Giants...collected the 1,000th hit of his career Aug. 15 in Chicago (off Mike Morgan) and 100th career HR Aug. 23 vs. Atlanta (off Steve Avery)...also provided one of the biggest clutch hits of the year, hammering a game-winning, 2-out, 2-run home run off Marlins' ace Bryan Harvey in the 9th inning of the Giants' 7-6 win Aug. 22 vs. Florida...named NL Player of the Week for Aug. 16-22, going 9-for-25 (.360) with a double, 4 home runs, 7 RBI and 7 runs scored...was involved in 95 double plays on the year, 2nd among NL 2nd basemen (behind Atlanta's Mark Lemke with 100)...was looking to lead NL 2nd basemen for a 4th straight year, which would have made him the 1st player to accomplish the feat since Bill Mazerowski led NL 2nd basemen 8 straight seasons from 1960-67 with Pittsburgh...collected 5 hits on 2 different occasions, including a 5-for-5, 3 RBI night June 12 vs. Chicago and a 5-for-5, 2-homer performance June 27 vs. the Rockies...was on the DL from July 5-21 with the previously mentioned quadricep injury...also missed time the last week and a half of the year, suffering a broken left cheekbone after getting struck with a pitch Sept. 24 by the Padres' Trevor Hoffman...courageously started the Giants' final game of the season in LA, coming back only 8 days after his beaming...1992...started games in the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 5th and 6th lineup spots on the year...tied for 4th in the league with 8 hit by pitches...played in a career-low 128 games, after appearing in at least 132 each of his 1st 6 seasons...tied for 2nd in the NL (among 2nd basemen) with 15 errors...batted .353 in 20 games in April before going on the DL April 29 with a strained muscle in his left rib cage...was reinstated May 22...hit just .164 (20-for-162) over his 1st 38 games after his return and saw his season average drop to .232 by July 5...singled off Anthony Young at New York June 2 for his 800th career hit...played in his 900th game June 21 vs. the Padres...hit 5 home runs that either tied a game or gave the Giants a lead during the season...handed Pirates rookie knuckleballer Tim Wakefield his 1st ML loss with a tie-breaking 3-run HR at SF Aug. 21...started a pair of games in the No. 3 spot Sept. 4 and 5, the 1st 2 career starts in that spot...1991...led team with a career-high 63 walks...batting average after the 6th inning of .313 (45-for-144) was 10th best in the NL...among NL 2nd basemen, ranked 1st with 98 double plays and 320 putouts, 4th with a .985 fielding percentage...voted by teammates as Willie Mac Award winner...batted leadoff in 18 of the Giants' 1st 21 games...hit just .238 through his 1st 18, including a pair of 4-hit contests...hit for the cycle April 22 vs. the Padres, becoming the 6th SF player to accomplish that feat...had 2 doubles and a homer May 25 at Atlanta...homed off Andy Benes July 6 at Candlestick for his 700th career hit...played 800th game July 29 vs. Montreal...homed on his birthday (May 10 vs. the Mets), his wife's birthday (June 22 vs. Chicago) and his daughter's birthday (July 20 at Montreal)...homed off Bryn Smith Aug. 26 to break the SF mark for HRs by a 2B (his 16th)...finished with 19 (old mark was 15 by Thompson in 1990 and by Bill Madlock in 1978)...bothered by a cracked bone in hand over the last month...had average up to .278 before mustering just 10 hits in his last 60 ABs...1990...went 3-for-4 with a double and home run in the season opener at Atlanta...hit a 2-run tie-breaking homer in the 8th inning at Montreal May 5 and a 2-run 11th-inning homer vs. the Expos at Candlestick

How Obtained: Signed by Elvio Jimenez as a free agent April 6, 1990.

Contract Status: Signed through 1996

CAREER...one of Giants' top pitching prospect who pitched at 3 levels in San Francisco chain in 1995, including his Major League debut...completed his 6th professional campaign after signing as an undrafted free agent in 1990...since 1992, has pitched in relief in 119 of 145 outings after starting in 22 of his 1st 26 professional appearances in 1990 and 91...

1995 SEASON...made his Major League debut in 1995, completing successful climb after beginning season at double-A Shreveport...pitched for 3 separate clubs on year, combining for 4-4 record with 2.33 ERA (108.1ip,88h,28er,34bb,88so) and 7 saves in 51 appearances (3 starts) at Shreveport, triple-A Phoenix and San Francisco...had 2 different stints with Giants, coming up in mid-July and then again in Sept....was initially with SF from July 18-25, appearing in 3 games during that 8-day period (0-0, 7.36 ERA, 3.2ip,3h,3er)...made his ML debut July 18 vs. Florida, entering with 2 runners on base and SF trailing 7-2 in 8th inning...stranded both runners, striking out his 1st batter faced (Chris Hammond) and retiring side on groundout...stranded runners proved important, as SF later tied game in 9th at 7-7 (however eventually lost in 14 frames, 12-10)...was recalled 2nd time from Phoenix on Sept. 1, working 8 times over final month of season (0-1, 7.70, 11.0ip,16h,7er)...finished his ML campaign strong, yielding only 3 earned runs in 9.0 innings (3.00 ERA) over his final 6 appearances with SF...suffered his 1st ML loss Sept. 3 vs. New York, making his 1st appearance after his 2nd recall...yielded 4 runs in 7th and 8th innings, which snapped 6-6 tie in SF's 11-6 loss vs. Mets...began season with eventual Texas League-champion Shreveport, posting then league-leading 1.27 ERA, with 3-2 record and 5 saves over 22 appearances (3 starts)...was selected to Tex-Mex Mid-Season All-Star Team (June 11 & 12), appearing in 1 game (1ip,0r) for TL squad in its 2-game set vs. Mexican League All-Stars...was called up to Phoenix June 27, appearing in 18 games with Firebirds (all in relief) over 2 separate stints...

1994...spent campaign at single-A San Jose, appearing in 36 games...posted career-high 8 wins, while making career-standard 17 starts...his victory total trailed only Marino Castillo and Edwin Corps' 10 win totals...his 123.2 innings also set a new high, and ranked 2nd on the SJ club...paced the Giants with 116 strikeouts...had no-hitter for 7.0 innings, but left after 7.1 innings in SJ's 15-1 win at Modesto July 28...registered 9 strikeouts, but walked 6 in that outing...had also pitched 6.0-scoreless innings in his previous start...1993...spent entire season at single-A Clinton...was workhorse out of bullpen, making 35 appearances totaling 90.1ip...was 4-7 with 3 saves and 3.99 ERA...was his 1st appearance at a full-season club in the organization after having spent part of 1992 at San Pedro of Dominican Summer League and splitting rest of the summer between Everett and Scottsdale...4 of his 7 losses came in consecutive appearances July 26-Aug. 6...earned his 1st save July 14 with 3.1 scoreless innings at Appleton...last 2 saves were impressive 4.0 inning efforts...won game #1 of Divisional Championship Series Sept. 4 vs. Springfield...1992...pitched at 3 different levels on year...opened season with the Giants Dominican Summer League club, going 3-2 with 1.61 ERA in 14 games...was promoted to rookie-league team in Scottsdale, where he did not allow an earned run in 6 relief appearances...posted 3-1 ledger, while fanning 14 in 14.2 innings...earned promotion to single-A Everett...appeared in 3 games for Northwest League Giants, going 0-1 with 1.42 ERA...1991...spent whole season at rookie-league Scottsdale, going 2-3 with 5.68 ERA in 13 games...1990...began his professional career with Dominican Summer League team after signing as free agent...made 12 starts and 1 relief appearance (during which he wrapped up save)...had 2 complete games, while compiling a 5-4, 3.48 mark...

PERSONAL...graduated from Aliro Paulino (Nizao Bani, DR) R.D. in 1989...his brother, Efrain, pitched for Cleveland in 1990 and 1991, compiling 1-1 record with 2.73 ERA...his other brothers, Ramon and Francisco, also played organized baseball...his cousin is fellow Giants pitcher Sergio Valdez...married (Marta Ramirez)...1 daughter (Karin, April 15, 1993)...resides in Nizao Bani, DR...

How Obtained: Signed as a free agent Jan. 2, 1995.
Contract Status: Signed through 1996

CAREER...embarks on his 15th professional season and 9th at Major League level...pitched for San Francisco final 2-and-a-half months of 1995 season, after starting year at triple-A Phoenix...enters his 2nd year in Giants' organization following his free agent signing in January, 1995...SF was his 5th Major League club, as he has also seen ML experience with Montreal, Atlanta, Cleveland and Boston...was only 17 when he signed his 1st pro contract with Expos in 1983...

1995 SEASON...had his contract purchased from Phoenix July 19, going 6-7 with a 4.45 ERA in 18 starts for Firebirds...at time of his promotion, he led 'Birds in starts (18), complete games (2), strikeouts (64) and innings pitched (109.1)...made pair of relief appearances in his 1st 2 contests with Giants, making his SF debut July 20 in Houston (3.1ip,3h,2r,1er)...made his 1st SF start July 28 vs. Atlanta, getting call in place of William VanLandingham who was scratched only 3 hours prior to game time due to tightness in his right shoulder...was brilliant in his 1st start for Giants, however had no decision in SF's eventual 6-2 defeat vs. Braves...opened contest with 5 perfect innings, finally yielding single to open 6th inning...led 2-0 through 6.0 innings and 2-1 entering 9th, but SF 'pen was tagged for 5 runs in final frame to spoil his 8.0-inning, 3-hit performance...started his final 11 outings, posting 4-5 record with 4.96 ERA (34er, 61.2ip)...SF was 5-6 over 11 contests...in 31 career starts, owns 10-15, 5.89 ledger (112er, 171.0ip)...his 4 victories are his highest win total since he won 6 for Cleveland Indians in 1990...posted his 4th victory in Sept. 21 start vs. Colorado, 5-3 SF victory...worked 7.0 solid innings in affair, yielding only 7 hits and 3 earned runs...1 of runs allowed came on solo pinch-hit home run by John VanderWal in 7th, his 26th PH of year which broke ML record for most in season...had 2-game winning streak Sept. 2-8, during which he posted 2.81 ERA (5er, 16.0ip)...was his longest winning streak since his career-high 3-game string, set Sept. 4-19, 1990 (with CLE)...tossed 1st ML complete game Sept. 2 vs. New York...had his previous turn skipped due to off-day and was working on 7 days rest...responded by tossing 4-hitter at Mets, which included stretch where he retired 15 straight from 2nd through 7th...retired 5 of final 6 batters, and used 9th-inning double play to avoid trouble...posted his 1st ML win since May 31, 1991 in his Aug. 13 start vs. Chicago, registering a 6-3 triumph over Cubs...held 5-1 lead through 5th inning, yielding only 4 hits and unearned run up to that point...however, had off-speed pitch plunk Shawon Dunston in left shoulder leading off 6th...Dunston charged mound and precipitated bench-clearing brawl...Valdez received cut under left eye during skirmish, while Dunston was ejected, and was lifted after next 2 batters reached safely...2 of 3 runners scored, but SF 'pen shut down Cubs to ensure his victory...also had bench-clearing trouble in his start Aug. 24 at Montreal (5-3 SF victory), having pitch ride inside to Tony Tarasco (again in 6th inning) and having Expos' right fielder attempt to charge him despite not getting hit by pitch...Tarasco was stopped by Kirt Manwaring midway between home plate and pitching mound, and was subsequently ejected...in 2 instances, he was found innocent of any wrongdoing while Dunston and Tarasco both received fines and suspensions...

1994...spent season with Boston organization...opened campaign with single-A Sarasota...posted 1-2 record with 4.31 ERA in 5 outings for Florida State League club...was promoted to triple-A Pawtucket May 6...spent majority of season with International League team, pitching in relief and as spot starter...made 13 appearances, including 1 start, going 3-2 with 1.46 ERA...held opponents to .214 batting average...did not surrender earned run in his last 18.0 innings for Pawtucket, while not allowing walk in his final 22 frames...had his contract purchased by Boston June 16...made Red Sox debut June 16 at Cleveland, retiring only batter faced (Wayne Kirby) to maintain Boston's 5-4 lead...made 8 short relief appearances in June, with longest outing coming June 30 vs. NY, working 2.0 innings...made his only start for Sox July 9 vs. Seattle, taking loss after yielding 5 runs on 8 hits over 4.1 ip...was designated for assignment to Pawtucket July 15...went 4-4 with 2.89 ERA (20er, 62.1ip) in 13 outings to close out season...1993...spent majority of season with triple-A Ottawa...went 5-3 with 3.12 ERA in 30 games...was placed on DL April 24-May 16...contract was purchased by Montreal May 21...made 4 relief appearances (3.0ip, 3er, 1hr), before returning to Ottawa June 15...1992...started at triple-A Indianapolis after going to Major League Spring Training as non-roster invitee...went 4-2 in 13 outings, including 8 starts for Indians...was promoted to Montreal June 27 when Steve Lyons was released...did not allow earned run in his 1st 7 relief stints, covering 9 innings...finished with 2.41 ERA in 27 games, allowing 37 baserunners in 37.1 innings...1991...played most of season with

CAREER...regarded as one of SF's bright young pitching prospects...has compiled 14-5 mark in 2 Major League seasons...remains undefeated at home, running his career mark to 9-0 with 2.45 ERA (38er, 116ip) over 17 starts at Candlestick...also kept his daytime mark unblemished, having posted 12-0 ledger with 3.12 ERA (54er, 155.2ip) over 24 lifetime outings under sun...tied with Kurt Dressendorfer for longest last name in history of Majors (Dressendorfer last played with Oakland in 1991)...VanLandingham, who prefers formal name William over Bill, surpasses Dressendorfer with longest full name in ML history...shortest name in ML history (1st and last): former Pirate Ed Ott...

1995 SEASON...struggled with nagging injuries, beginning season on Disabled List and ending campaign unable to pitch after mid-Sept...however, still managed to register 6 wins, good enough to tie Jamie Brewington for 2nd most on staff behind Mark Leiter's 10 victories...was hampered initially by left side strain and finally by groin strain...missed 38 games due to intercostal strain in his left side (rib cage area), being placed on 15-day DL April 28...first noticed soreness in his side during workout at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium on April 25, day before Giants opened 1995 season vs. Braves...had been scheduled starter for SF's home opener April 28 vs. Florida...had his season ended following his Sept. 10 outing vs. Chicago, suffering strained left groin muscle while running out sacrifice bunt...worked just 5.0 innings in contest, however was credited with his 6th win on year in SF's 8-7 triumph over Cubs...also had to be scratched from his scheduled July 28 outing vs. Atlanta, having to miss start due to tightness in his right shoulder...despite his ailments, was effective enough to yield only 2 earned runs or less in 11 of his 18 starts on year...over 32 career starts past 2 seasons, has limited opposition to 2 earned runs or less 20 times...saw his 1st action of year in rehabilitation start with single-A San Jose May 30, blanking High Desert over 6.2 innings to claim victory...turned in solid 7.0-inning effort in his 1995 ML debut June 6 vs. New York, however had no decision in SF's eventual 2-1, 10-inning victory...retired 10 of his 1st 11 batters (4 by strikeout) before Jeff Kent led off 5th with solo HR to left...was winless over his 1st 5 starts on campaign, going 0-2 with 4.94 ERA (15er, 27.1ip) over 5 outings...turned his season around in his 5th start June 25 at Los Angeles, working his 1st ML complete game (8.0 innings) while striking out career-best 10 batters...however, was charged with loss as SF fell 3-2 to Dodgers...yielded his runs early, being tagged for solo HR by Raul Mondesi in 2nd and 2 more tallies in 3rd (1 unearned)...yielded only 3 hits on evening...registered his 1st win in his 6th start July 1 vs. San Diego, fanning 8 and walking none over 7.2 innings of 4-1 triumph over Padres...went 6-1 with 3.40 ERA (36er, 95.1ip) over his final 13 starts on campaign, beginning with his July 1 victory vs. SD...collected his 1st win after 4 consecutive no decisions in Giants' 15-1 rout of Dodgers Aug. 4 at the 'Stick...despite allowing only 1 unearned run over 7.0 innings, the game will be remembered for his 1st ML home run off Tom Candiotti knuckleball in 2nd inning...over his final 14 starts, he dramatically improved his stamina...in those starts, he averaged 7.1 innings (103.1ip)...in his 1st 18 career starts, he was lasting just more than 5.1 innings

(97.2ip)...his 3.22 ERA (37er, 103.1ip) over his final 14 outings marked significant improvement over 4.15 mark (45er, 97.2ip) in his 1st 18 career starts...

1994...leaped from double-A Shreveport into Major League spotlight, joining Giants May 19 and reeling off team's best winning percentage with 8-2 record...if he had qualified among National League leaders, his .800 percentage would have ranked 2nd-best to Colorado's Marvin Freeman (.833, 10-2)...his 8 wins were most by Giant rookie since Frank Williams went 9-4 in 1984...SF record for most wins by rookie pitcher is 15, accomplished by John Montefusco in 1975 (15-9)...was perfect in day games, posting 7-0 mark with 2.64 ERA (64.2ip, 19er) in '94...won 5 of last 6 decisions, including 5-2 verdict in SF's season finale Aug. 10 at Chicago (6.0ip, 8 H, 1 R, 1er)...rattled off consecutive victories over Philadelphia (3-2), Montreal (6-4), Los Angeles (12-5) and Colorado (9-4) from July 9-31, tying Bill Swift and Mark Portugal for longest winning streak (4) of year...yielded 2 earned runs or less in 10 of his 14 Major League starts...best outing of year was July 17 in Montreal, earning victory while hurling hitless baseball through 1st 7.1 innings...yielded leadoff walk to Rondell White to open game, then proceeded to retire next 22 batters...had 5-0 lead entering 7th inning, when no-no was spoiled on opposite-field double by Lenny Webster...was lifted after walking the next batter (Mike Lansing)...threw 103 pitches, 65 for strikes, and added his 1st career hit (clean single to right field off opposing starter Jeff Fassero)...started ML career with 3 straight wins, marking 1st time rookie SF pitcher had done so since Jim Duffalo opened 4-0 in his 1st year in 1961...made his 1st ML start May 26 in San Diego, recording his initial ML victory in Giants' 5-3 triumph...was making start in place of disabled Bill Swift and was matched up against Padres' ace Andy Benes...made ML debut May 21 at Wrigley Field, working 3.2 innings of 1-run relief...began year in Texas League with double-A Shreveport, being used strictly as starter with Captains and sporting 4-3 record with 2.63 ERA over 8 outings (51.1ip, 41 H, 21 R, 16er, 11 BB, 45 SO, 4 HR)...named 1 of Texas League's top 5 prospects by Baseball America...sent down by SF to AAA Phoenix just before players' strike Aug. 11...1993...spent the majority of the year at single-A San Jose, tying California League lead in wins (14)...that mark tied for Giants' organizational best...in addition, led CL in Ks (171)...struck out 10 or more hitters 5 times last summer...3-time Howe Sportsdata Player of the Week: May 9-15 (after he twirled his first-ever complete game, a 3-hitter, with 11 Ks and just 1 BB); July 25-31 (a 7-inning performance, with 8 SO, 3 H, 0 R); and Aug. 22-28 (2-0, 15ip, 10 H, 2er, 8 BB, 20 SO)...nearly no-no'ed High Desert, Aug. 24, when he carried a hitless performance into the 9th (was removed after giving up 2 singles, but got the win)...5 of his 8 losses came with 2 or fewer runs to support him...promoted to AAA Phoenix Aug. 31...in his lone start vs. Portland, Sept. 3, took a perfect game into the 6th, but then allowed 8 hits and 6 runs and was tagged with the loss...rewarded for his fine work at San Jose with a late-season promotion to AA Shreveport...1992...split time between single-A Clinton and San Jose...control improved over '91 campaign but still struggled, compiling 0-1, 5.67 record in 10 Clinton games and a 1-3, 5.57 mark in 6 Cal League starts...1991...began his pro career at short-A Everett, after being chosen no. 3 by Giants in the June amateur draft...tied for team lead in wins (8)...led Everett in strikeouts (86-in-77ip) and opponents' batting average (.217)...also led Northwest League in walks (79)...named the #10 NWL prospect by Baseball America...

A GIANT IN THE COMMUNITY...loans his time to help with San Francisco Library Summer Reading Program...

PERSONAL...1988 graduate from Battle Ground Academy in Franklin, TN...also attended University of Kentucky...single...lives in San Francisco, CA...

CAREER...young southpaw appears to be ticketed for spot in rotation...25-year-old will team with William VanLandingham (25) and Jamie Brewington (24) as one of younger starting rotations in Majors...was 21st player taken in June, 1991 draft, joining teammates David McCarty (3rd pick) and Shawn Estes (11th) as 1st rounders from that draft which San Francisco acquired through trades in 1995...provides potent offensive threat from No. 9 slot in order, owning .270 career ML mark, including National League-leading .417 showing in 1995...

1995 SEASON...experienced up-and-down season for St. Louis, looking brilliant at times...led Cardinals' starters in wins with 7...club was 8-10 in his 18 starts, averaging 3.7 runs per game...surrendered 17 home runs, including 14 to RHH...held opposing LHH to .200 mark, but righties hit at .302 clip...combined for 10.1 scoreless innings in 2 relief appearances...became 1st Cardinal batter (minimum 20 at-bats) to ever bat over .400...hit .417 (15-for-36) with 4 doubles and 5 RBI...his .417 mark was highest by St. Louis batter since 1939 when Curt Davis hit .381...went 1-1 with 10.95 ERA in 1st 3 starts and was bumped to bullpen during Cards west coast trip in mid-May...was optioned to triple-A Louisville following May 15 game when rosters were trimmed from 28 players to 25...made 2 starts at Louisville before being recalled May 31...was 2-0 with 0.69 ERA in his 2 starts for triple-A Redbirds...following recall, made just 2 starts for Cards before biceps tendinitis placed him on DL from June 7-July 8...was combined 1-2 with 3.38 ERA in 3 injury rehab starts with double-A Arkansas and Louisville...won 1st start after returning from DL, 3-2 win vs. Florida July 8...worked 6.2 innings and allowed 1 run on eight hits...didn't allow earned run 3 straight games from July 29 - Aug. 11 as he lowered his ERA from 7.91 to 5.25...worked 6.2 scoreless innings in relief of Danny Jackson Aug. 11 at SD...had his scoreless innings streak snapped at 16.2 frames when surrendered HR in 4th inning of Aug. 18 win vs. Atlanta...fanned career-high 8 Aug. 23 vs. Cincinnati, but suffered 3-1 loss to David Wells...pitched what was likely best game of his career Sept. 2 at Houston, as he (8.0ip) and Tom Henke tossed 4-hit shutout at Astros...was 2-0 with 0.00 ERA in 2 starts (15.0ip) vs. Houston...

1994...experienced ups and downs...won his 1st 2 decisions, while Cards won in 3 of his 1st 4 starts...snapped personal 7-game losing streak dating to Aug. 14, 1993 with 9-8 win vs. Los Angeles April 14...was ejected after 1.1 innings of May 22 start at Florida after hitting Orestes Destrade with pitch that preceded a bench-clearing brawl...had allowed 7 runs, including 3 homers prior to ejection...drew 8-game suspension, which he served June 25-July 3...snapped 7-start winless string with 3-1 victory vs. San Francisco June 3...won his 2nd consecutive start June 8 vs. Cincinnati...won 3rd straight decision June 24 at Chicago, allowing 1 run in 7.0 innings...run in 3rd inning ended scoreless string of 17.1 innings...lowered his ERA 2.84 points before losing July 4 vs. Houston...picked up 6th and final win of season July 10 at Atlanta, allowing 1 run in 7 innings...issued club-high 53 walks...held LHH to .227 mark, but RHH hit .300 with 12 homers...led Cardinal pitchers with 5 RBI and 7 sacrifice bunts...1993...1 of 3 rookies to join Cards' pitching staff when he was purchased from Louisville July 7...was 5-4 with 2.91 ERA in 17 starts for Louisville...at time of his call-up, ranked 3rd in American Association in ERA (2.91) and 2nd with 86 strikeouts...made ML debut in July 8 start vs. Atlanta, winning 7-1...allowed 1 run on 4 hits in 6 innings...rattled off wins in each of his 1st 6 decisions, as Cardinals won each of his 1st 8 starts...was 1st Cardinals' rookie since Luis Arroyo (1955) to begin career with 6-0 mark...suffered 1st ML loss in Cards' 17-4 drubbing by San Diego Aug. 24...lost final 7 decisions and Redbirds went 2-6 in his last 8 starts...collected 1st ML hit Aug. 4 vs. Florida off Richie Lewis...had 2 doubles and RBI in Aug. 19 win vs. San Diego, his 1st career extra base hits...1992...split time between single-A St. Petersburg, double-A Arkansas and Louisville as he rapidly moved through Cardinals' farm system...didn't spend enough time at any 1 stop to qualify for league-leading honors, however, his combined ERA would have led Texas League and American Association and would have been 3rd in Florida State League...won 8 of his last 9 decisions...1991...drafted in 1st round as compensation from Toronto for signing of Ken Dayley...started pro career at single-A Hamilton, Ontario...was 1-1 with 2.52 ERA in 8 games...in his last 2 starts at Hamilton, went 11 innings allowing 2 unearned runs on 3 hits, while striking out 11...earned promotion to single-A Savannah, where he was 1-1 in 3 starts...

PERSONAL...graduated from Christ the King (Middle Village, NY) High School in 1988...only played baseball his senior year and was named New York City Player of Year...played guard on nationally-ranked HS basketball team...attended New York Institute of Technology, where he earned All-American and All-Region honors in baseball...as designated hitter, ranked 5th in nation among college hitters in 1991...grew up idolizing Ron Guidry...single...resides in Middle Village, NY...

How Obtained: Giants #1 selection (3rd overall) in the June 1986 draft.

Contract Status: Signed through 1998
(signed a 5-year contract prior to 1994 season)

CAREER...arguably premier all-around 3rd baseman in Major Leagues...has hit 191 home runs in the 1990s to combine with Barry Bonds' 208 as the most prolific HR tandem on one team over that period with 399...3-time Gold Glove winner (1991, '93 and '94) and 3-time All-Star (1990, '94 and '95)...has 225 career HRs to rank 5th on Giants' all-time franchise list (4th on the SF ledger), only 1 short of Orlando Cepeda's 226...only other players to have more HRs in Giants' uniform are Willie Mays (646), Mel Ott (511) and Willie McCovey (469)...also ranks 5th on SF all-time RBI chart with 647, 9th in doubles at 163 and at-bats with 3,735 and 10th in hits with 970...through the Giants' 1st 16 games in 1995, had hit 62 home runs over Giants' last 160 games (his last 157) dating back to 1993...during his 10-year big league career, has won Major League home run title (43 in '94) and National League RBI crown (122 in '90) and set all-time NY-SF franchise records for home runs (43) and RBI (122) by 3rd baseman...

1995 SEASON...completed 1st .300 campaign of his ML career, however had perhaps his most frustrating season due to foot injury that forced him to miss nearly half the season from early June through mid-Aug...was still able to lead club in average (.336) and slugging percentage (.647), while ranking 3rd in home runs (23) and RBI (65)...chalked up his 6th consecutive 20-home run season...had his season derailed after fracturing 2nd metatarsal bone in his right foot on foul tip off Paul Quantrill pitch June 3 vs. Philadelphia...singled later in at-bat, however was removed after running to 2nd base on grounder by Mark Carreon...was placed on 15-day Disabled List and underwent surgery June 4, procedure performed by team physicians Drs. Warren King and Gordon Campbell at Recovery Inn in Menlo Park, in which pins were placed in foot to repair displaced fracture...had 2 different rehabilitation assignments with single-A San Jose...played 4 innings for San Jose in July 24 rehab assignment, going 1-for-2 with 2-run HR...however, experienced pain and swelling following day and had hard cast placed on foot (from July 25 through Aug. 10)...returned to San Jose Aug. 13-17, marking his 2nd rehab assignment...finished 1-for-9 in 3 games on 2nd rehab stint with junior Giants...was activated from DL prior to Aug. 19 game in PHI, having missed 68 games from June 4 through Aug.18...over 68 contests, SF was 28-40 and dropped from 0.5-game lead in NL West (20-16) to 7.5 games out and in last place...at time of his injury, was leading NL in batting avg. (.381), HRs (13), RBI (35), hits (50), X-base hits (23), total bases (101) and slugging pct. (.754)...also was NL 3rd base leader in fielding pct. at .982 (23 putouts, 84 assists, 2 errors)...was NL's Player of Month for May after hitting .405 (45-for-111) with 7 2Bs, 1 3B, 12 HRs, 31 RBI, .811 slugging percentage and .451 on-base percentage...his average, HRs, RBI and slugging percentage led all NL hitters for May...selected starting 3rd baseman on NL All-Star Team, but did not play in contest due to his injury...marked 2nd time he had been elected starter (also in 1994) and 3rd time he had been All-Star (also chosen as reserve in 1990)...saw his 1st ML action in 11 weeks Aug. 19 in PHI, grounding out as pinch-hitter in 8th inning off Ricky Bottalico...made his 1st start since being activated Aug. 20 in PHI, swinging at 1st pitch thrown to him by Jeff Juden and slugging left field upper-deck home run to lead off 2nd inning...finished contest 2-for-4 with an HR, HBP and RBI...struggled upon his return from DL, hitting just .167 (7-for-42, 1 HR, 3 RBI, 11 KOs) over his 1st 13 games back through Aug. 31...however, finished season as he began, hitting at .346 pace (37-for-107, 10 HRs, 27 RBI) over his last 28 contests (hitting safely in 23 of the 28)...was even more impressive over his final 16 games, going 26-for-62 (.419) with 4 2Bs, 6 HRs and 14 RBI...hit safely in team-high 12 straight games from April 28 through May 10, hitting at .408 pace (20-for-49) over 12 contests...his 2-HR performance May 19 vs. St. Louis marked 3rd time he had accomplished feat over 12-day period and 21st time in his career...along with May 19, also slugged 2 HRs in game May 9 in Denver and May 12 vs. Pittsburgh...teamed with Barry Bonds for back-to-back homers twice on season, May 30 at Montreal and Sept. 5 vs. Montreal... Giants' All-Star tandem also went deep in same game May 28 at New York to give them 3 on season and 20 over last 3 seasons (10 times in 1994 and 7 in 1993)...slugged grand slam Sept. 9 at Chicago off Frank Castillo, marking 5th slam of his career and 1st since July 17, 1990...had 4 hits in game 3 times on campaign, matching his personal best...has collected 4 hits in contest 8 times in his career...was SF's top hitter vs. left-handed pitchers on season, hitting at .377 clip (20-for-53, 6 HRs, 16 RBI) against southpaws...

1994...enjoyed most prolific home run season of Major League career, launching 43 round-trippers in Giants' strike-shortened 115-game season...that figure led Major Leagues and also put him on pace to equal Roger Maris' all-time single season mark of 61 homers in 1961...pace would have easily surpassed both NL mark of 56 (Hack Wilson, 1930) and franchise record of 52 (Willie Mays, 1965)...was voted the NL's starting 3rd baseman for the All-Star Game at Pittsburgh, marking 2nd All-Star appearance (also named as reserve on 1990 squad)...finished second in the NL MVP voting, finishing 191 points behind Houston's Jeff Bagwell...named to The Sporting News, Associated Press and Baseball America's Post Season All-Star squads... earned 3rd Gold

Hall of Fame Infield

The entire infield of the 1924 Giants are now members of the Hall of Fame. When Travis Jackson was inducted in August, 1982, he completed the talented quartet that received baseball's highest honor. That 1924 New York Giants club recorded a 93-60 record en route to a National League Pennant.

Pos.	Player	(Career with N.Y.)	1924 Stats	Inducted
1B	George Kelly	(1915-17, 1919-26)	.324, 136 RBI's	1973
2B	Frankie Frisch	(1919-26)	.328, 121 runs	1947
SS	Travis Jackson	(1922-36)	.302	1982
3B	Freddie Lindstrom	(1924-32)	.287	1976

Four other members of that club also made it to the Hall of Fame — manager John McGraw (inducted 1937), rookie first baseman Bill Terry (inducted 1954), right fielder Ross Youngs (inducted 1972), and center fielder Hack Wilson (inducted 1979).

Shreveport Captains (AA)

Shreveport was the winningest team in minor league baseball in 1995, compiling an 88-47 mark and a .652 winning percentage. For the third time in the 1990's, Shreveport was the champion of the Texas League. The Captains clinched the title Sept. 11 when they defeated the Midland Angels 5-1 to win the Texas League Championship Series 4 games to 1. The Captains were led by four Texas League All-Stars, including Steve Bourgeois (1995 Texas League Pitcher of the Year, 12-3, 2.79 ERA), Edwin Corps (13-6, 3.86 ERA), Jacob Cruz (OF, .297, 33 2B, 13 HR, 77 RBI), and Jay Canizaro (2B, .293, 12 HR, 60 RBI). The Captains had two pitchers, Jamie Brewington and Carlos Valdez, and an infielder, Rich Aurilia, promoted to the Major Leagues, while 6 other players moved up to Triple-A Phoenix.

San Jose (A)

San Jose, the California League Northern Division Champion, featured a pitching staff that churned out a team ERA (3.05) which was nearly one run less than their nearest league rival, Keith Foulke (13-6, 3.50 ERA), who ranked second in strikeouts and third in victories among California League pitchers, and Bobby Howry (12-10, 3.54 ERA), were both All-League selections. In the outfield, San Jose offered three speed merchants in Armando Rios (.293, 34 2B, 75 RBI, 51 SB), Dante Powell (.248, 20 HRs, 70 RBI, 43 SB), and Chris Singleton (.277, 33 SB). Powell and Rios were named California League All-Stars.

Burlington (A)

The Bees finished up their season with a 54-81 record. Although it was a disappointing mark, the Bees showcased Jesse Ibarra, who was named the Midwest League's Most Valuable Player and Top Ten Runner-Up for 1995 Minor League Player of the Year by USA Today Baseball Weekly. He was second in average (.330), first in home runs (34), and second in RBI (96) among league hitters. He also led the league in on-base percentage (.434), slugging percentage (.636), and extra base hits (65). His .636 slugging percentage was not only the best in the MWL, but was tops in all of the minor leagues. Along with his hot bat, Ibarra was named Baseball America's Best Defensive First Baseman.

Giants Minor League Field Staff

Ron Perranoski — Coordinator of Minor League Pitching

Enters his second season as the coordinator of minor league pitching after serving the previous 14 years as pitching coach for the Los Angeles Dodgers... Earlier held a similar post with Los Angeles, serving as minor league pitching instructor from 1973-80... During his 14-year tenure as the Dodgers' Major League pitching coach from 1981-94, the L.A. staff ranked first or second in earned run average in the National League nine times... His 1982 (3.26), 1983 (3.10), 1985 (2.96), 1989 (2.95) and 1991 (3.06) staffs led the Major Leagues in ERA... Enjoyed a brilliant 13-year career as a relief pitcher with the Dodgers, Twins, Tigers and Angels... Posted a 79-74 record with 2.79 ERA and 179 saves in 737 appearances during his ML tenure, leading the National League in games pitched in 1962 (70) and 1963 (69), and tying for the NL lead in 1967 (70)... Ranks second in saves (101) and fourth in appearances (457) on the Dodgers' all-time list... Led the National League in winning percentage (.842) in 1963, recording a 16-3 mark with a 1.67 ERA and 21 saves... Pitched in three World Series for the Dodgers ('63, '65, '66) and coached in two World Series for Los Angeles ('81 and '88), and pitched in two American League Championship Series with Minnesota ('69 and '70)...

Eugene Clines — Coordinator of Minor League Hitting

Begins his second year as coordinator of minor league hitting after serving as hitting coach for the Milwaukee Brewers in 1993-94... Has served as a Major League coach for 10 years and as a minor league hitting instructor for six additional seasons... Prior to his stint with Milwaukee, he held ML hitting coach positions with Seattle (1989-92) and Houston (1988)... Spent three years as first base coach with the Chicago Cubs (1979-81)... Served as minor league hitting instructor in the Astros organization for six seasons (1982-87)... Posted a .277 lifetime batting average in 10 seasons as a Major League outfielder with Pittsburgh (1970-74), New York Mets (1975), Texas (1976) and Chicago Cubs (1977-79)... Played in three National League Championship Series with the Pirates ('71, '72 and '74) and on one World Series championship club ('71)... His best season came in 1972, when he hit .334 in 107 games but lacked the necessary plate appearances to qualify for the batting title...

Keith Bodie — Coordinator of Instruction

Returns as the Giants coordinator of instruction where he will be minor league camp coordinator, overseeing the Giants' mini camps and Spring Training... Spent last season as manager of the Triple-A club... Spent the previous three years as manager of Seattle's Triple-A Calgary team... Previously managed with the Giants' Clinton club in 1989... In 1991, led Calgary to the Northern Division 2nd-half crown... That '91 club went on to beat Portland in the PCL playoffs and advanced to the PCL Championship before falling to the Tucson Toros, 3-2... First joined the Seattle organization in 1990 as skipper of Single-A San Bernardino... Also spent three years in the Houston Astros' system, managing three different clubs to divisional titles (Auburn, 1986; Asheville, 1987; and Osceola, 1988)... Served as a coach in the Astros' system at Tucson (1985) and Auburn (1984)... Originally was third-round draft pick of the New York Mets in 1974... Candlestick Park Ground Rules

1. A ball hitting either foul pole or the attached screens above the black ring painted on the poles is a home run. A ball hitting foul pole below black ring or hitting top of fence and bounding onto playing fields is in play. A fair ball bounding into stands or over fence is a two-base hit.
2. A thrown ball that goes behind the backstop screen is one base, if it was thrown by the pitcher from the rubber. All other overthrows are two bases.
3. A ball going over fence under the screen attached to foul poles is a home run.
4. A ball that hits the fence of the dugouts or bat racks is in play. A ball that goes into the dugout is out of play.
5. A ball that goes into the bullpens is in play.
6. A ball hitting any part of the stands beyond the top of the right field fence and bounding back onto the field is a home run.

Evolution of Candlestick Park

Ground Breaking

1959—Official construction begins at Candlestick Point in a cove at the south-eastern edge of San Francisco.

Stadium Named

1959—The new home of the Giants is officially named "Candlestick Park" in a balloting among fans. More than 15,000 entries were submitted.

Opening Day

1960—After two years of playing at Seals Stadium in downtown San Francisco, the Giants' opening day at Candlestick is April 12.

Seating Capacity

1960—The open-end stadium seats 42,500 fans.

1972—Construction to enclose the stadium is completed and seating capacity is expanded to 58,000 for baseball.

1989—Removal of rails in lower box seats expands capacity for baseball to over 62,000.

1994—Newly installed seats throughout the stadium increases capacity to 63,000.

Playing Surface

1960—Natural grass.

1971—Artificial turf is installed in the outfield, the infield (except the infield skin), and foul territory.

1972—Artificial turf installed to cover infield skin (except sliding areas).

1979—Natural grass replaces artificial turf.

1981—Infield skin width reduced three feet.

1994—New field boxes reduce foul territory nine feet in the homeplate to backstop area—six feet for other field box additions.

Field Dimensions

1961—Foul lines shortened to 330 feet, power alleys to 365 feet in left-center and 375 feet in right-center. Center field moved in to 410 feet.

1968—Foul lines extended to 335 feet.

1982—Center field moved in to 400 feet and right-center moved in to 365 feet.

1993—Right foul line moved in to 328 feet.

Outfield Fence

1960—10 feet high.

1975—Raised to 12 feet.

1993—Lowered to 8 feet.

1974—Lowered to 8 feet.

1982—Lowered to 9 feet.

San Francisco Giants Broadcast Information

The Giants' 1996 season will be well chronicled, thanks to satellite delivery of more than 100 telecasts on KTVU and SportsChannel Pacific, and full coverage of the 162-game regular season schedule on KNBR radio and the Giants Radio Network.

Back for a 35th year as the flagship station for the Giants is KTVU (FOX - Channel 2), scheduled to air 55 games over the Giants Television Network. The KTVU telecast team will be Ted Robinson, who is entering his fourth season, along with former Giants' 20-game winner Mike Krukow. Joining the announcing team will be legendary broadcaster Lon Simmons, who was the voice of the Giants from 1958-73 and 1976-78.

Emmy award winning SportsChannel returns for its seventh year of televising Giants' games. The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences recognized SportsChannel for its coverage of Giants games with a local Emmy Award last year for "Best Live Sports Production". SportsChannel will air a minimum of 56 games. Former Giants' infielder Duane Kuiper handles play-by-play, joining Krukow on these telecasts. Simmons will also team with Kuiper on a limited number of SportsChannel games.

On the radio dial, the Giants can again be heard on the Bay Area sports leader KNBR-680 (AM), the 50,000-watt powerhouse which enters its 17th year as the Giants' flagship station. KNBR will broadcast all 162 regular season games. Hank Greenwald, sporting a streak of over 2,500 consecutive games broadcast, returns as the play-by-play voice, teaming with Robinson, Krukow and Kuiper.

Hank Greenwald, one of baseball's most respected announcers, returns for the eighth straight year and the 16th season overall as the Giants play-by-play voice on KNBR (680 AM). Hank was the voice of the Giants from 1979-86 before departing for a two-year stint with the New York Yankees radio team. A 1957 graduate of Syracuse University, Hank has done radio play-by-play for the University of San Francisco Dons basketball, Syracuse football, Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League and the Golden State Warriors. Hank also serves as the press box public address announcer for the Super Bowl. Hank and his wife, Carla, reside with their two children, Doug and Kellie, in San Francisco.

Ted Robinson, a veteran sports broadcaster who previously served as the Warriors announcer and KCBS radio sports director (1982-88), joined the Giants broadcast team in 1993. Robinson is teamed with Greenwald on KNBR radio broadcasts and is the lead announcer in the KTVU booth. The former television voice of the Minnesota Twins from 1988-92, Robinson also provided commentary on NBC's Baseball Game of the Week from 1986-89 and has appeared on CBS Radio's Baseball Game of the Week since 1985. A New York native who attended Notre Dame, Robinson has broadcast U.S. Open Tennis on USA Network and the NCAA Basketball Championship for CBS Sports. The voice of the University of California basketball the last three seasons, Robinson and his wife, Mary, and two children, Annie and Patrick, live in Atherton.

Mike Krukow is beginning his sixth season in the broadcast booth, and his third full season in the radio booth. He is the third voice on KNBR (joining Greenwald and Robinson) and teams with Robinson on KTVU and Kuiper on SportsChannel. Krukow's career in the Major Leagues spanned 14 years and three teams: the Chicago Cubs (1976-81), Philadelphia Phillies (1982) and San Francisco Giants (1983-89). A 20-game winner for the Giants in 1986, Krukow retired after the 1989 season with a 124-117 career record (3.90 ERA). Krukow resides in San Luis Obispo with his wife, Jennifer and their five children, Jarek, Baker, Tessa, Chase and Weston.

Duane Kuiper returns for his third year in the SportsChannel broadcast booth with Mike Krukow and is teamed with Hank Greenwald in the KNBR booth. His ninth year overall on SportsChannel telecasts, Kuiper provided commentary for the Giants from 1987-92 and served a one-year stint in the Colorado Rockies broadcast booth. The former infielder spent the last four years of his career with the Giants, following seven with the Cleveland Indians. After retiring in 1985, Kuiper provided commentary on Giants radio and TV broadcasts through the end of that season, and had his own radio show on KNBR from 1982-85. A graduate of Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, IL, Kuiper and his wife, Michelle, reside in Danville with their two children, Cole and Dannon.

Lon Simmons, an institution in the Bay Area, returns to the team where his major league broadcast career began. When the Giants moved West in 1958, Simmons and legendary broadcaster Russ Hodges teamed to form one of the top announcing teams in the game. Simmons will split his time on KTVU-TV and SportsChannel. He will also participate on selected pre- and post-game shows on KNBR. The Southern California native was the radio voice of the Giants from 1958-73 and again from 1976-78. During his first stint with the Giants, Simmons built his reputation as a two-sport announcer, also serving as the play-by-play voice of the San Francisco 49ers from 1957-80 and 1987-88. For the past 14 years Lon has been the play-by-play announcer for the Oakland A's. The former three-sport high school star athlete signed a professional contract with the Philadelphia Phillies, but an injury cut short his promising pitching career after just two seasons in the minor leagues. A resident of Alameda, Lon is single.

Spanish Broadcasters

For the fourth straight year, Spanish-speaking Giants fans in the Bay Area can tune into KIQI-AM Radio (1010 AM, San Francisco), which will broadcast all Giants home games and selected road contests.

The KIQI broadcast team will include play-by-play veterans Amaury Pi-Gonzalez and Julio Gonzales, and station president/colorman Rene De La Rosa.

Amaury Pi-Gonzalez, an on-air broadcaster in the Bay Area for 26 years, begins his second season as the Giants Spanish play-by-play voice on KIQI (1010 AM). Pi-Gonzalez, who also currently handles the play-by-play chores for all Golden State Warriors games on KIQI, previously served as the Spanish voice of the Oakland A's for 17 seasons and as the sports anchor at KSTS-TV (Telemundo) in San Jose from 1990-94. Born in Cuba, Pi-Gonzalez moved to Florida in 1961, attending the University of Miami and broadcasting on Miami's WFAB Radio. He has covered the World Series, the Super Bowl, boxing, basketball and soccer for Spanish radio. From 1985-87, he was also a member of the CBS Spanish Radio Network, covering baseball's Championship Series and World Series. Pi-Gonzalez and wife, Gail, reside in Fremont.

Julio Gonzales, one of the game's best-known Spanish language play-by-play voices, begins his sixth season of broadcasting Giants baseball. The Nicaraguan native first became affiliated with Giants broadcasts in 1988, and has since called the play-by-play action from 1989-90 and again from 1993 to the present. Prior to joining the Giants' Spanish broadcasting team, Gonzales was the Spanish-language voice of the Oakland A's. He first came to the United States at the age of 11 and received his broadcasting training from City College of San Francisco and San Francisco State University. Has traveled to Nicaragua with Dennis Martinez and Orlando Cepeda to conduct baseball clinics and distribute baseball equipment to needy children. Gonzales and his wife, Leda, reside in South San Francisco.

Rene De La Rosa, who serves as president of KIQI, is one of the pioneers of Spanish language baseball broadcasting in the Bay Area. De La Rosa, who displays a special expertise in his favorite sport of baseball, enters his fourth straight year as producer and colorman for KIQI's Giants broadcasts. The Cuban native has lived in the Bay Area for more than 20 years and was instrumental in the community effort of 1992 that made it possible to keep the Giants in San Francisco. De La Rosa and his wife, Vickie, reside in San Francisco.

Rules of Interest

PLAYER LIMITS: 40, until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25, until Sept. 1, when it again becomes 40.

QUALIFYING MARKS: To qualify for the batting championship a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances (3.1 per scheduled team game). To qualify for earned run average leadership a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched (1 per scheduled team game).

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: The individual fielding champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

- (1) a catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;
- (2) an infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;
- (3) a pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches, and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAKS: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance alone shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

TRADES: Trades can be made without restriction from the first day following the close of the championship season to Aug. 1. From Aug. 1 to the close of the season, Major League waivers are required.

SPECIAL WAIVERS: Waivers must be acquired for an outright assignment of a player to a minor league club. If more than one team claims a player, he will be awarded based on the reverse order of standings at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after the start of the season. Otherwise, in reverse order of standings at close of preceding season.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE:

- is credited for each day the player appears on an active roster or Major League disabled list or suspended list.
- in the case of a player called up from the minor leagues, is credited beginning with the date he physically reports.
- in the case of a Major League player who is traded and reports in the normal course, service is not interrupted.
- in the case of a player sent down to the minor leagues, is credited through the date of the assignment.
- in the case of a player who is unconditionally released, is credited through the date waivers were requested.
- in the case of a player designated for release or assignment (MLR 2), is credited after the designation through the date of the actual assignment or the request for unconditional release waivers.

- for a player who appears on his club's opening day roster, is credited as the earliest scheduled opener without regard to the actual opening date of his own club.
- is credited at the rate of 172 days per "year," though the season is actually 182 days long.
- is not credited during any period or periods of optional assignment totaling 20 days or more during a single season.

RELIEF PITCHERS' SAVE RULE: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: (1) he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and (2) he is not the winning pitcher, and (3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or, (b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or, (c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

ROOKIE RULE: The Baseball Writers Association of America considers a player a rookie unless during the previous season or seasons he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues, or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club, excluding military service and time on the disabled list during the 25-man limit. The 25-player limit is in effect from Opening Day through Aug. 31.

DAY GAME/NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game.

DISABLED LISTS: REGULAR DISABLED LIST — The 15-day list may be used for as many players as needed with the same recertification procedure as in the past.

EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST — No maximum number of players on list at one time. Minimum period of inactivity: 60 calendar days. Players placed on this list after Aug. 1 shall remain there for the balance of the season. Day 1 is following player's last game appearance. Reinstatements may be made after day 15 for the 15-day list and after day 60 for the emergency disabled list.

FREE AGENCY (RE-ENTRY): Six years of Major League Service are required to be eligible for free agency.

- A player has 15 days from the first day following the World Series to file for free agency.
- By Dec. 7, former club must offer to arbitrate or on Jan. 8 former club becomes ineligible to sign the player. (Ineligible club regains eligibility the following May 1.)
- If club and player proceed to arbitration, maximum salary cut rules do not apply. Player who accepts former club's offer to arbitrate is not subject to repeater rights limitations.

SALARY ARBITRATION:

- Players are eligible after three years of Major League Service. The top 17% of two-year players by service time are also eligible. Maximum cut rules do not apply if in immediately preceding year player won arbitration increase of over 50%.
- Arbitrator is officially instructed to give particular attention for purposes of comparison to salaries of players with Major League Service no more than one annual service group higher than player who is arbitrating.

FREE AGENT (AMATEUR): One selection meeting shall be conducted each year in June to be known as the Summer Meeting.

- Major League Clubs shall select in reverse order of their league standing at the close of the preceding season (determined by the percentage of games won). No club may transfer to another club its right to select.
- A selected player shall be placed on a club's Negotiation List and shall remain thereon until the start of the Closed Period (the seven days preceding the Summer Meeting) of the next selection meeting, unless at an earlier date he (1) signs a contract, or (2) is removed because he was not eligible for selection, or (3) becomes a College Player by entering or returning to college.
- A club may not transfer its Negotiation Right to any other club.
