EDDIE CHILES
Chairman of the Board
President
Chief Executive Officer

Eddie Chiles has the Texas Rangers Baseball Club "Coming Alive."

Mr. Chiles is a staunch believer in — and a prime example of — free enterprise. He is a firm advocate of getting involved. This belief in the American Free Enterprise System and advocacy for getting involved has been carried to millions of Americans via his radio and television messages.

His involvement with the Rangers since he officially assumed command last April 29 has been no tentative, part-time venture. He observed, then acted incisively.

"We are dedicated to providing the baseball fans of this area with a winning team and a first class operation," Mr. Chiles said.

He has implemented that concise statement with action designed to thrust the Rangers to the top. He has supervised the sensible segmenting of the club's activities, instituting sweeping changes in both areas, by placing Samuel G. Meason in charge of business operations and Eddie Robinson in charge of baseball operations.

Plans to enlarge and refurbish Arlington Stadium have been announced. Nautilus equipment has been installed in an expanded clubhouse which also features a new players' lounge. A physical fitness consultant and a physical fitness instructor, who will travel with the team, have been appointed.

There has been a fresh and exciting approach to baseball as a business, innovative in concept yet realistic and pragmatic in design. There has been, and will continue to be, increased community involvement. There has been a strong commitment to new techniques in marketing under the direction of newly elected Vice President James T. Medick.

The driving force behind it all is Mr. Chiles, enthusiastic and aggressive at age 70. He has stabilized the Rangers through fiscal responsibility and has established the peppy pace of progress which infiltrates the ranks of his employees.

He's an energetic man who cannot tolerate inefficiency, but he also is an outgoing, friendly man who invites ideas. He believes in delegating responsibility and providing authority to accomplish the mission but firmly expects results and accountability. His standards and objectives are high.

He has fought the tough battle. It was 42 years ago when he started his own business, The Western Company of North America, of which he is Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer. That was after he had been a merchant seaman at $29.50 a month, after he had worked as a roughneck and roustabout in the Texas oil fields, after he had hitchhiked to the University of Oklahoma to work his way through the University and receive a degree in petroleum engineering.

He struck out on his own at age 29, in Seagraves, Texas, in 1939. He had three employees, two trucks and a lot of determination. The Western Company of North America now has 5,000 employees worldwide and does business in the $500 million range annually.

The company serves the petroleum industry with technical knowledge and operations required in the discovery and production of oil and gas. These services are fracturing, acidizing and cementing. Since 1969 the company also has performed contract drilling operations offshore with mammoth submersible drilling vessels and jackup rigs in the Gulf of Mexico, the North Sea, the Gulf of Alaska, the Mediterranean Sea, the Arabian Gulf and off the coast of western Africa.

Mr. Chiles has received a multitude of honors and awards from all segments of America in appreciation of his leadership and accomplishments in his many fields of endeavor. Mr. Chiles considers it his civic responsibility to encourage political candidates at every level of the American governmental process, lending moral and financial support.

He's a man who goes all out. He's going all out to get the Texas Rangers Baseball Club into a lasting position of prominence as well as pride for the community it represents.

With the Rangers, he is involved.

MANAGER
ZIMMER, Donald William (Don)
No. 23

Born: Cincinnati, Ohio, January 17, 1931 (50) 5-9½ 200 Batted and threw righthanded. Former shortstop, second baseman, third baseman, catcher and outfielder. Lives in Treasure Island, Florida. Married Jean Carol Bauerle. Children: Thomas 6-30-52 and Donna 3-14-54.

The Texas Rangers' 1981 commitment, "Coming Alive," has been entrusted on the field to new manager Don Zimmer. New to the Metroplex, perhaps, but regarded throughout baseball as a winner, as a dedicated individual who reports to work hours before his athletes appear, as a direct and firm fellow who tempers discipline with consideration, as a warm person with a sense of humor.

Executive Vice President Eddie Robinson explored the field exhaustively in a six-week search for a manager last fall. Zimmer's name kept coming back to him from trusted sources throughout baseball. Meetings with Don intensified Robinson's interest and Zimmer was named manager of the Rangers on November 12.

Of his former manager, General Manager Haywood Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox said, "The man has been with us for seven years and he's never given less than 100 per cent. I don't believe we're going to find a better baseball man than Zimmer."

Zimmer managed three full seasons and parts of two others for the Red Sox. In those three full years his clubs averaged 96 wins (287-197, .593). Overall with Boston his record was 412-308, .572. He also managed the San Diego club for two years and his entire managerial career in the major leagues is a highly creditable 526-498, .514.

"Zimmer's years as a player not only reflected the aggressive, hustling attitudes he exemplifies in managing, but also indicated the ability to 'bounce back' from adverse circumstances," Robinson said. "In 1953 and 1956 Zimmer incurred serious injuries which could have ended his playing career. His dedication to the game has been the secret to his success as a player and as a manager."

Don managed in the minor leagues at Knoxville, Buffalo, Key West and Indianapolis and has been third base coach for the Montreal Expos, Padres and Boston.

Zimmer launched his professional career as a shortstop in the Brooklyn Dodgers' system in 1949. In 1953 he was leading the American Association with 23 home runs and 63 runs batted in at St. Paul when he was struck on the head by Jim Kirk of Columbus on July 7. He missed the remainder of the year.

He had to overcome another potential career-ending injury when he got a cheek bone fracture on June 23, 1965, on a pitch from Hal Jeffcoat of Cincinnati, again being disabled for the remainder of the season.

But Don also has experienced elation. He was the second baseman in the final game of the 1955 World Series, when Johnny Podres defeated the New York Yankees, 2-0, for the Dodgers.

On October 10, 1961, Zimmer was selected by the New York Mets from the Chicago Cubs in the National League expansion draft. He later was with the Washington Senators for three years.

Zimmer's experience, hustle, aggressiveness and dedication is the foundation for the 1981 Texas Rangers' "Coming Alive" commitment.

PLAYERS

BABCOCK, Robert Ernest (Bob)
No. 46 P

Born: New Castle, Pennsylvania, August 25, 1949 (31). 6-5 210 B-R T-R Single. Attended Beaver County Community College. Lives in New Castle, Pennsylvania.

1980 SEASON: Recalled from Charleston on May 25, Bob received his first pro decision on June 8 as he was a 5-4 loser to Kansas City. With the score tied 3-all in the 9th, Bob served up a two-out, two-run homer to George Brett. He lost again, 7-6, to Toronto on June 14, but quickly notched his first pro victory two days later. After putting down a KC rally in the 8th inning at Royals Stadium, Bob's teammates erased a 3-0 deficit by erupting for six runs on eight hits in the top of the 9th. Sparky Lyle preserved the victory for his seventh save. Babber's longest outing of the season was a three-inning stint against the California Angels on May 27 (2H 1R 1E 0B 2K). His shortest appearance came the day before as he fired his first pitch behind Dan Ford for a wild pitch and was ejected by home plate umpire Bill Haller. That was the same game Buddy Bell, John Grubb and Bruce Kison were also thrown out. Had a stretch of 7.2 innings from August 24 to September 13 when he didn't allow an earned run (5 appearances).

CAREER/MAJORS: Made his debut July 22, 1979, with the bases loaded, two out and Amos Otis approaching the plate for Kansas City. He preserved the 5-5 deadlock as Otis bounced into a fielder's choice.

CAREER/MINORS: Has had 29 saves the last two seasons at the Triple-A level — 15 at Tucson in '79 and 14 last season at Charleston. At the same time, he also had an 11-6 record.

BELL, David Gus (Buddy)
No. 25 3B

Born: Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, August 27, 1951 (29). 6-2 185 B-R T-R Married. Attended Xavier University and Miami University. Lives in Arlington, Texas.

1980 SEASON: Had an outstanding year despite missing two games with a pinched nerve in his back, 20 games with a pulled muscle in his rib cage and 11 games with a pulled hamstring in his right leg. He also saw limited action — pinch-hitting — in nine other games due to the pulled hamstring. During those 42 games, the team had a record of 16-26. Buddy registered the longest hitting streak of his career from June 24 to July 17 when he hit safely in 21 straight contests. What makes the accomplishment even more significant is the fact the streak began on the day he was activated off the 15-day disabled list because of the pulled muscle in the rib cage — June 24. During the streak, he was named American League Player of the Week twice. He batted .385 for the week of June 23-29 and .500 for the week of July 10-13. Had the first

5-hit game of his career on August 1 at Arlington Stadium in a 7-5 win over the Boston Red Sox. He went a perfect 5-for-5 (all singles) with two RBI. Had highest batting average with men in scoring position, among the regulars — .361 (53-147). Slugged two homers in a game four times last season, twice against the Minnesota Twins. His .329 batting average was a new career-high and ranked sixth in the American League. Buddy's 17 home runs were second only to Al Oliver and Richie Zisk, who had 19, while his 10 game-winning RBI finished second to Oliver's 16. His .980 fielding percentage was the highest among regular third basemen in the league and earned him his second straight Gold Glove. He received the most votes of anyone at any position. Buddy wound up making only eight errors in 409 chances. Was named to the All-Star team for the second time in his career.

CAREER/MAJORS: Earned his first Gold Glove in 1979. Also established seven career-highs in his first season as a Ranger that year — 89 runs, 200 hits, 42 doubles, 18 home runs, 101 RBI, 670 at-bats and 162 games. Leads the Rangers with 16 career 4-hit games. His first homer came with the bases loaded against Baltimore on April 22, 1972. Had a pinch triple in the 1973 All-Star game and was named to the 1975 squad but declined the honor. Has averaged 17 home runs and 92 RBI in first two seasons with Rangers. Played outfield in rookie year for Indians.

CAREER/MINORS: Selected in the 16th round of the 1969 June free agent draft by the Cleveland Indians. Was named the Rookie of the Year in the American Association in 1971 while playing for Wichita.

BUTCHER, John David (John) No. 29

P

Born: Glendale, California, March 8, 1957 (24). 6-4 190 B-R T-R Single. Graduated Yavapai Junior College. Lives in Tucson, Arizona.

1980 SEASON: Called up from Charleston on September 2, John was thrust into his first big league start six days later when scheduled starter Fergie Jenkins was suspended by Commissioner Bowie Kuhn. Butcher went the distance and twirled a masterful six-hitter to beat the Oakland A's, 6-2. He allowed only two earned runs while walking three and striking out five. John was rocked for both runs in the first inning and settled down, allowing only three hits over the last eight frames. He went on to drop his next three decisions to California (10-1), Oakland (6-4) and Minnesota (1-0) before rebounding to win his last two — both against Seattle, 4-1, and 11-6. The first inning proved to be a stumbling block in most of his starts as he displayed a 9.00 ERA in the initial frame and a 3.07 the remainder of the game. In his 1-0 defeat by the Twins on September 22, Butch allowed only one earned run on three hits and sure enough, the run came in the first inning. Most effective pitch is his slider.

CAREER/MINORS: Led the International League last season with 14 complete games for the Charleston Charlies. He also displayed fine control as he walked only 50 batters in 152 innings of work. His 10 victories topped the Charleston staff and matched his career high. John also won 10 for Asheville in 1978.

COMER, Stephen Michael (Steve) No. 11 P

Born: Minneapolis, Minnesota, January 13, 1954 (27). 6-3 205 B-S T-R Married. Attended the University of Minnesota. Lives in Arlington, Texas.

1980 SEASON: Made four starts — losing two, winning one with one no-decision — before being bothered by a sore shoulder which would plague him for the remainder of the season. He beat the Detroit Tigers, 10-5, on April 29 while scattering nine hits in 5.1 innings of work. However, on his next start May 4 at Arlington Stadium, Steve lasted only .1 of an inning against the Baltimore Orioles before departing with a sore shoulder. After retiring leadoff man Al Bumbry on a ground out, he gave up three hits, including a two-run homer by Ken Singleton, and he plunked Eddie Murray. He wound up losing, 9-5. He missed four starts before getting the call again on May 21 at Arlington Stadium. Steve worked 4 innings against the California Angels and permitted 4 runs (all earned) on six hits. He departed trailing, 4-0, but didn't figure in the decision of the 9-8 defeat. Steve appeared again on May 24 at Oakland in a relief role. He worked .2 of an inning and was pulled because of soreness in the shoulder. The following day he was placed on the 21-day disabled list and wasn't activated until June 28, when he started against Minnesota at Arlington Stadium. Steve hurled five innings and allowed an earned run on two hits while picking up the 11-3 victory. He made four other starts — three no-decisions and a loss — but was still bothered by the sore shoulder. He was optioned to Tulsa on July 28 in hope that he could work out his problem there. Steve flew back and forth from Arlington for his three starts with the Drillers. He won his first game and then lost the next two and finished with a 6.28 ERA. He was recalled on August 15 and placed on the 21-day disabled list again. He finally came off the list in late September but didn't see any more action. Steve was 1-2 in the instructional league at Sarasota, Florida. He allowed 15 earned runs in 28.1 innings for a 4.77 earned run average.

CAREER/MAJORS: His 17 victories in 1979 were tops on the staff and fifth-best in the American League. His 3.68 ERA was also lowest among the Ranger starters. Won six games with one no-decision during a stretch in the '79 season from June 27 until August 1. Owned the American League champion Baltimore Orioles in '79 with three wins in three starts, including one shutout and a sterling 0.75 ERA. Had a career-high seven strikeouts against the Birds on July 17, 1978 — his first big league starting assignment. Though he didn't notch the win, Steve worked nine scoreless innings, allowing only four hits. Reggie Cleveland took over and was a 2-0 winner in 11 innings. Comer's first 15 appearances in '78, his first season in the majors, were all in relief as he compiled an impressive 0.90 ERA before the start on July 17. Relies on control and an effective change up that he throws at five different speeds.

CAREER/MINORS: Completely overlooked in the 1976 June Free Agent Draft when 786 hopefuls were selected. Was picking up scrap lumber on a construction crew in Minnesota when the word got out that the Rangers needed pitching help for their rookie team in Sarasota, Florida. Accepted an invitation and that's when the Cinderella story began as he registered a 7-2 record and 0.90 ERA.

Married.

1980 SEASON: Larry played in 105 games for Seattle in 1980, his major league high, and set a Mariner club fielding record with his .993 percentage, the same as compiled by the Rangers' Jim Sundberg, who won a Gold Glove due to appearing in more games and handling more chances. Had a career high four runs batted in against Baltimore on June 14.

DARWIN, Danny Wayne (Danny) No. 44

P

Born: Bonham, Texas, October 25, 1955
(25). 6-3 190 B-R T-R Married. Attended Grayson County Junior College (Denison, Texas). Lives in Denison, Texas.

1980 SEASON: Started season as a reliever, was shifted to starting rotation when Steve Comer developed a sore shoulder and moved back to relief work to strengthen bullpen. Danny evolved into a real stopper as he came in during sticky situations and got the big strikeout by serving up a steady diet of fastballs. Set a club record with eight straight victories from May 22 to August 9. His first win on May 22 was a 12-6 decision over the California Angels at Arlington Stadium. Came on in relief of Jon Matlack and picked up the victory with 6.1 innings of brilliant shutout work. He allowed only six hits while striking out a career-high 10 batters. Next appearance was a start in Anaheim as he worked 6.1 innings against the Angels but didn't figure in the decision of the 6-5 victory. He allowed three runs (two earned) on six hits while walking two and striking out six. Started again on June 1 and was a 7-3 winner over the Oakland A's at Arlington Stadium (8.2IP 12H 3R 2ER 3BB 4K). Then misfortune struck as Danny fractured the knuckle on his right little finger while coming to the aide of teammate Mickey Rivers in a scuffle with fans outside Chicago's Comiskey Park on June 4. He was placed on the 21-day disabled list the following day and activated on June 26. Danny notched the first of eight saves two days later when he preserved an 11-3 victory for Steve Comer against Minnesota. He hurled 2.1 scoreless innings and continued to operate out of the bullpen from then on. Had a stretch from August 3 to 16 when he fanned 15 of 28 batters in eight innings of relief work over a five-game span. Struck out eight in 3.1 innings of work against Detroit on August 16 and whiffed seven in 4.1 innings against Minnesota on July 4.

CAREER/MAJORS: Summoned from Tucson in 1979 after getting off to a 6-6 start for the Toros, Danny was a spot starter and long reliever. He made 20 appearances with six starts. His first three appearances were starts as he beat Oakland and Baltimore but came away with a no-decision against California. Danny's lone complete game came in a 14-3 rout of Cleveland on August 5, 1979, when he limited the Indians to four hits. Made his major league debut on September 24, 1978, by striking out the first four Seattle batters he faced. He went on to strike out seven in six innings and gain a 4-3 win with relief help from Jim Umbarger.

CAREER/MINORS: Ignored by everybody in the January, 1976 draft, Darwin attracted some 30 scouts when he pitched for Grayson Junior College against Ranger Junior College in May. Though he was wild and roughed up for nine runs in 3.2 innings, he was signed by the Rangers for a sizeable bonus. Was 6-3 with Asheville that season, then 13-4 at Tulsa with a 2.51 ERA before dipping to 8-9 with Tucson in '78. His four shutouts for the Drillers in 1977 tied him for the Texas League lead.

1980 SEASON: Made 13 relief appearances before being bothered by a sore shoulder. He was placed on the 21-day disabled list on July 11 and never was removed. Adrian's lone victory came on May 26 in Anaheim. He was a 6-5 winner over California in a game which saw four players ejected — Buddy Bell, Bob Babcock, John Grubb and Bruce Kison. Adrian worked one scoreless inning. His longest outing was a six-inning stint against Baltimore on May 4. Devine allowed the Birds only one earned run on five hits while striking out three but didn't figure in the decision of the 9-5 loss. His last appearance came on July 3 at Minnesota when he worked two innings against the Twins (2H 3R 1ER 1BB).

CAREER/MAJORS: Best season came as a Ranger in 1977 when he compiled an 11-6 record with 15 saves and a 3.57 ERA. Has always been utilized as a spot starter and long reliever.

CAREER/MINORS: Doctors advised him to return to school and forget baseball after an arm injury in 1974. However, he elected to try surgery and the arm came to life in the spring of 1975. In senior year at Ball High School in Galveston, he compiled 134 strikeouts in 88 innings, with an 0.87 ERA.

ELLIS, John Charles (John)
No. 9

C-1B

Born: New London, Connecticut, August 21, 1948 (32). 6-2 210 B-R T-R Married. Attended Mitchell Junior College (New London, Connecticut). Lives in East Lyme, Connecticut.

1980 SEASON: Was hampered by traumatic neuritis in his right thumb most of the season. The severe bone bruise curtailed his home run production and cut down on his power. John hit only one long ball all season and it didn't come until August 30th in Kansas City. He ripped Larry Gura for a three-run shot in the first inning of a 7-5 win. Thumb was causing so much discomfort that he was placed on the 21-day disabled list from June 9th to 30th. Stole three bases last season, matching his career total. Made only two errors all season from his first base position. Batted .395 with runners in scoring position with 17 hits in 43 at-bats.

CAREER/MAJORS: Experienced a horrifying injury to his left leg early in 1976 in Boston. After helping the team to eight straight victories with a hefty .419 batting average, John experienced a disastrous slide into second base on May 9 at Fenway Park. He sustained a broken left leg, a dislocated ankle, torn ligaments, and his career looked gloomy. John battled back, though, and went through a punishing rehabilitation program. His first 16 hits during the '79 season produced 16 runs batted in. On June 7 that season, he also ripped a double and two homers at Milwaukee to thump across six runs and tie a club record. Had a career-high 14 home runs and 68 RBI in 1973 while with the Cleveland Indians.

CAREER/MINORS: Batted .345 his last two seasons on the Triple-A level. Began the '68 season at Ft. Lauderdale (A) and jumped all the way to Syracuse (Triple-A) on August 27. Sparkled in his debut, going six-for-eight in his first game with the Chiefs. Went on to hit .348 in his 13 games with Syracuse.

Born: Arno, Virginia, October 18, 1943 (37) B-R T-R 5-10 210 Lives in Kirkland, Washington, Married.

1980 SEASON: Willie was plagued by injuries with the Mariners last season. Was bothered by extremely sore and callused hands and was on the disabled list from June 22 until August 15 and again from August 22 until September 15. His eight home runs gave him a career total of 325, good for 39th spot on the all-time list, one back of Bobby Bonds. He needs seven hits to reach the 2,000 level.

CAREER/MAJORS: Enjoyed his most productive season in the majors with the Mariners in 1979 with 180 hits, 81 runs, 106 runs batted in and 646 times at bat while not missing a game. Was selected as Seattle's Most Valuable Player, voted the American League's Comeback Player of the Year and the Outstanding Designated Hitter of the Year. Prior to that he last batted in 100 runs in 1966 and the gap of 12 seasons between 100-RBI years is the longest in major league history. He has belted nine grand slams. Back for his second tour with Texas.

CAREER/MINORS: Homered into the upper deck at age 16 while playing in a high school game at Tiger Stadium in Detroit and was signed by the Tigers in August, 1961. Received trials with Detroit in 1963 and 1964, then put in 12 straight years with the Tigers starting in 1965, after swatting 28 homers with Syracuse in 1964.

HOUGH, Charles Oliver

P

Born: Honolulu, Hawaii, January 5, 1948
(33). 6-2 190 B-R T-R Married. Lives in Brea, California.

1980 SEASON: Purchased from Los Angeles Dodgers on July 11 last season, Charlie performed yeoman duty, appearing in 16 games as a starter, long reliever and short reliever. Registered the first complete game of his career in less than three weeks with the Rangers after failing to do so with the Dodgers in 10 years. Started and went the distance in a 4-3 loss to the Baltimore Orioles on July 29 at Arlington Stadium (8H 4R 3ER 4BB 8K). Also went the route in his only other start when he blanked Toronto, 8-0, on August 26 at Exhibition Stadium. Charlie permitted only five hits while walking two and striking out nine. His knuckleball danced by American League hitters as he struck out 47 in 61 innings. Longest outing as a reliever was a 6.2 inning stint against Kansas City on August 18 at Arlington Stadium. He allowed 2 runs (1 earned) on four hits but didn't figure in the decision of the 6-3 defeat. Worked two scoreless innings against Cleveland on July 12 in his Texas debut.

CAREER/MAJORS: Credits Dodger manager Tom Lasorda and longtime Dodger scout Goldie Holt for saving his baseball career in 1969 when he came up with a sore arm and the two men taught him to throw the knuckleball. Later refined it on the advice of Hoyt Wilhelm and Jim Brewer. Made an impressive major league debut by striking out Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell with the bases loaded and with a fastball, yet. Posted 18 saves in the first three months of the '77 season and finished with a career-high 22. Started his first game in '77 and hurled five scoreless innings against the San Francisco Giants on September 28 to notch the victory. Also hit his first and only home run that season.

HOUGH continued

CAREER/MINORS: Three-time Pacific Coast League All-Star pitcher from 1970 through 1972. First season with knuckler was 1970 and he had his best year ever with a 12-8 record, 1.95 earned run average and Pacific Coast League-leading 18 saves while with Spokane.

JENKINS, Ferguson Arthur
(Fergie) No. 31

Born: Chatham, Ontario, Canada, December 13, 1943 (37). 6-5 210 B-R T-R Married. Lives in Blenheim, Ontario, Canada.

1980 SEASON: Was a season of milestones for the Canadian pitcher as he became only the fourth pitcher in history to win 100 games in each league and the 29th pitcher to register his 250th career victory. Notched his 100th win in the American League with a 3-2 decision over Baltimore on May 3 at Arlington Stadium (9I 8H 2R 2ER 8K). Only Cy Young, Jim Bunning and former teammate Gaylord Perry also have accomplished the feat. Picked up his 250th victory about three weeks later in Oakland. Fergie handcuffed the A's on two hits to post a 3-1 win while walking three and striking out eight on May 23. Established a new strikeout high as a Ranger by whiffing 13 Chicago White Sox batters in a 2-1 loss at Arlington Stadium on July 15. His previous high had been 10 (10 times). His career-high is 14 while with the Chicago Cubs. Was 4-1 in his five starts in June last season, including two wins over Seattle and one each over Milwaukee and Toronto. The loss came on June 15 at Exhibition Stadium. Ironically it was Ferguson Jenkins Day as Jenkins was honored for being Canada's greatest baseball player and for receiving the Order of Canada, a medal bestowed for outstanding humanitarian achievement. After the ceremonies, Fergie was roughed up for five runs (all earned) on eight hits and dropped a 5-3 decision to the Blue Jays.

CAREER/MAJORS: Has averaged two walks per nine innings over 15 full seasons. Has compiled 47 career shutouts and amassed 2,899 strikeouts to rank him seventh on the all-time list. Figured prominently in turning the Rangers around in 1974. He won 25 games that year, when the Rangers topped the million mark in home attendance for the first time, and became competitive with a second place finish. Has won 20 or more games seven times. Jim Palmer is the only active pitcher who has accomplished that feat eight times. Was named Comeback Player of the Year in 1974. Received the Cy Young Award in '71 for a 24-13 record plus 2.77 earned run average. Also named the Sporting News National League Pitcher of the Year in '71. Tied the major league record for most 1-0 games lost in a season with five in 1968. Led the National League in complete games with 20 in '67, 24 in '70 and 30 in '71. His 29 complete games in 1974 were tops in the American League. Has been named to the National League All-Star team three times — 1967, 1971 and 1972. Has 88-64 record as a Ranger.

CAREER/MINORS: Compiled a 43-26 record in four seasons in the minors.

* Traded to Chicago Cubs with Outfielders Adolpho Phillips and John Herrnstein for Pitchers Bob Buhl and Larry Jackson, April 21, 1966.

 Traded to Texas for Infielders Bill Madlock and Vic Harris, October 25, 1973.

 Traded to Boston for Outfielder Juan Beniquez and Pitchers Steve Barr and Craig Skok, November 19, 1975.

* Traded to Texas Rangers for Pitcher John Poloni and cash, December 14, 1977.

Fergie Jenkins has been the only Ranger pitcher to bat since the designated hitter rule was adopted in 1973. The Rangers did not use a designated hitter in the final game of the 1974 season against the Twins at Minnesota. Jenkins batted twice against Jeff Hughes, struck out and singled. Thus the Rangers' pitching staff is batting .500 for the past eight years.

In their nine-year history the Texas Rangers have pitched 110 shutouts and they have had 96 shutouts pitched against them. They started with an 8-27 deficit in 1972, but in the last eight years they have shown a 102-69 profit.

Fergie Jenkins leads the Rangers with 17 shutouts. Bert Blyleven had 11 and Gaylord Perry 10.

JOHNSON, Bobby Earl (Bobby) No. 8 C

Born: Dallas, Texas, July 31, 1959 (21). 6-3
195 B-R T-R Single. Lives in Dallas, Texas.

1980 SEASON: A youngster with all the tools, Bobby continued to show he's a power hitter as he socked 25 doubles, 13 homers and knocked in 70 runs for the Tulsa Drillers. He saw action with Triple-A Charleston for the last two weeks of the season. Bobby crashed two homers and drove in five runs for the Drillers in a 6-5 win over Shreveport on June 28. In fact, it was his two-run blast in the seventh that iced the victory. His hitting carried over into the Florida Winter Instructional League where he batted .304 (35-115) with two homers and 20 runs batted in.

CAREER/MINORS: Was named to the Topps Class A All-Star team in '79 when he slugged 27 homers and collected 84 RBI for Wausau. He's the nephew of Chicago Cubs' legendary Ernie Banks.

JOHNSON, John Henry (John) No. 38 P

Born: Houston, Texas, August 21, 1956
(24). 6-2 190 B-L T-L Married. Lives in El Verano, California.

1980 SEASON: After posting a sparkling 1.23 earned run average for 14.2 innings of work in seven games at spring training, John was shipped to Plant City and wound up pitching for Charleston at the Triple-A level. Made 11 starts for the Charlies before switching to relief and discovered his niche. Was 2-8 with a 4.55 ERA for 61.1 innings as a starter, but had a 1-1 record and sterling 2.25 ERA as a reliever. Got the call from the big league club in early July when the bullpen caved in. John came on and struck out 10 of the first 29 batters he faced in five appearances. Registered his first save with 1.1 innings of no-hit work against the Yankees on July 11 at Arlington Stadium. His longest outing was on August 25 when he went three innings against Toronto and notched his second save in a 5-1 win over the Blue Jays. John had two other saves — both against his former teammates at Oakland.

CAREER/MAJORS: Made Ranger debut on June 19, 1979, in Anaheim as he struck out 10 California Angels in five innings before departing with an ailing ankle. Was credited with a 2-1 victory as Jim Kern notched the save. Had the most wins of any A's pitcher in 1978 with 11 and was named to the Topps All-Rookie All-Star team. Involved in the deal that sent Vida Blue to San Francisco. John made his major league debut on April 10, 1978 as he blanked Seattle, 1-0, in the season opener at Oakland Coliseum.

CAREER/MINORS: Launched his career in the San Francisco system and after a slow start he compiled a 27-4 record with Cedar Rapids and Fresno in 1976 and 1977.

KAINER, Donald Wayne (Don) No. 43

Born: Houston, Texas, September 3, 1955 (25). 6-2 200 B-R T-R Married. Attended the University of Texas. Lives in Houston, Texas.

1980 SEASON: Called up from Charleston on September 2, Don started three games and pitched well enough to win all three but didn't figure in the decision of any. Made his big league debut on September 6 at Milwaukee as he worked an inning against the Brewers and was roughed up for an earned run on four hits. Received his first starting assignment on September 20 and worked 7.1 strong innings against California. Departed with a 4-0 lead but the bullpen couldn't hold on and Charlie Hough was a loser in relief. Kainer allowed one earned run on eight hits while walking three and striking out five. He left with a 3-1 lead in his next start on September 25 at Seattle, but again the relief corps faltered and he came away empty-handed. A pair of errors also opened the gate for two unearned runs after he had departed (5.1I 3H 3R 1ER 1BB 1K). He started the last game of the season on October 5 against Seattle but left with the score tied 2-all (6I 7H 1R 1ER 5BB 4K).

CAREER/MINORS: Walked only 46 in 138 innings at Charleston last season, and his 2.87 earned run average ranked ninth in the International League. It was also the lowest on the Charlies' pitching staff. Good control pitcher with an effective slider. Don was signed out of the University of Texas by Joe Klein.

KERN, JAMES LESTER (Jim) No. 34

Born: Gladwin, Michigan, March 15, 1949 (32). 6-5 205 B-R T-R Married. Attended Delta Junior College (University Center, Michigan) and Michigan State University. Lives in Arlington, Texas.

1980 SEASON: Injuries and a heavy dose of bad luck combined to make the '80 season a forgettable one for Jim. He truly made the transformation from Dr. Jekyll to Mr. Hyde. The year before, he had been the premier relief pitcher in the American League with a 13-5 record, 29 saves and sparkling 1.57 earned run average. However, he finished the '80 campaign with a 3-11 slate, only two saves and a bloated 4.83 ERA. Things just didn't get off on the right foot for him as he blew out his elbow against Atlanta near the end of spring training and it plagued him through the early part of the season. His fastball just didn't have the zip it had in '79. Kernie picked up a win and save in his first four appearances, but then he was saddled with three losses in his next five outings and eight defeats in 16 appearances. After battling back from the elbow problem, Jim was bothered by a pinched nerve in his neck in late July. Then on August 9 he was hit in the mouth while warming up on the sidelines at Arlington Stadium. He decided to watch a foul ball after throwing a pitch and the return throw struck him in the mouth. The cut required nine stitches and because he hit his head after falling back across the mound, he suffered a concussion and temporary amnesia. After the incident, Jim was quoted as saying he was afraid to take his boat out fishing on Lake Arlington because he thought it would sink. He went on the disabled list in mid-August and wasn't removed until September 15, but he never appeared in another game. Made his last appearance on August 17 at Tiger Stadium as he worked an inning against Detroit (3H 1R 1ER 1BB 1K).

CAREER/MAJORS: Registered his 500th strikeout last year when he fanned Jim Spencer on April 13 at Arlington Stadium. Has 539 strikeouts in only 602 innings in the majors. Won the Rolands Relief Man Award in the American League in '79, edging Minnesota's Mike Marshall after a season-long struggle. Ten of his first 11 decisions with the Rangers in '79 were victories. He also had 29 saves that season establishing a new team record. Broke into the majors as a starter and made his first appearance on September 6, 1974. Dropped a 1-0 toughie to the Baltimore Orioles and Mike Cuellar. Registered his first major league victory on May 21, 1975, as he beat Frank Tanana and the California Angels, 3-2. Emerged as one of the game's best relievers in '76 with a 9-6 relief mark, 15 saves and a 2.36 ERA. Made Sporting News American League All-Star team in '79.

CAREER/MINORS: Struck out 776 in 773 innings during his six years in the minors. Pitched a seven-inning no-hitter for Reno against San Jose on May 29, 1971, and was a 2-0 winner. Named American Association Pitcher of the Year in '74 after posting a 17-7 record with Oklahoma City. His 17 victories and 220 strikeouts in 189 innings led the league, while his 2.52 ERA was second-best. Selected by American Association managers for the Allie Reynolds award as Most Valuable Pitcher. Struck out 182 in 166 innings for San Antonio in '73 and was selected to the Texas League All-Star team.

LEWALLYN, Dennis Dale (Dennis) No. 28 P

Born: Pensacola, Florida, August 11, 1953 (27). 6-4 195 B-R T-R Married. Attended Chipola Junior College (Marianna, Florida). Lives in Pensacola, Florida.

1980 SEASON: Came to the Rangers in mid-September on the heels of an outstanding campaign at the Triple-A level with Albuquerque. Dennis posted a 15-2 record with 24 saves and a sparkling 2.13 earned run average. He was named the Pacific Coast League Most Valuable Player for his efforts. However, he was not called up by the Dodgers and on September 13 was traded with cash to Texas for Shortstop Pepe Frias. Lewallyn made his Ranger debut on September 17 at Arlington Stadium as he worked 2.2 innings of relief in a 6-4 loss to the Oakland A's. Dennis was nicked for an earned run on two hits while walking one and striking out two. He made three other appearances before the season ended. Probably will be used in long relief this year.

CAREER/MAJORS: Has spent parts of six seasons in the majors and appeared in 23 games. Owns a career mark of 4-3 with one save and a 3.36 ERA. Has made three starts. His first big league victory was an 8-1 decision over Bob Owchinko and the San Diego Padres on October 1, 1976.

CAREER/MINORS: Selected by the Dodgers in the first round of the secondary phase of the 1972 January free agent draft. Was assigned to Daytona Beach of the Florida State League, where he posted an 11-6 record with six complete games and a 3.70 ERA. Progressed steadily through the Dodger organization and has spent the last six seasons at Albuquerque. Tied for Pacific Coast League lead with three shutouts in '75.

Born: Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada, March 17, 1956 (25). 6-0 175 B-R T-R Single. Lives in Pittsfield, Massachusetts.

1980 SEASON: After jockeying around at various positions, Rick seems to have found a home in the outfield as he turned in his second fine season at that position. Also had a good year with the bat as he cracked 20 doubles and 14 homers while driving in 65 runs. He finished second in all three categories on the Charleston team. His 113 hits were second only to Mike Richardt. Showed some speed while stealing 12 bases for the Charlies. CAREER/MINORS: Signed out of high school by Joe Lewis. Rick has worked his way up the Ranger minor league ladder. Had his best season in '79 when he batted .306 with 22 homers and 84 runs batted in for the Tulsa Drillers. Lisi also socked 32 doubles and rapped out 133 hits. Led Gulf Coast League third basemen with 39 putouts in 1974. In '75, he had the highest fielding percentage among third basemen in the Western Carolinas League with a .904 mark. Also led the league that year in most times being hit by a pitch with 13.

Born: West Chester, Pennsylvania, January 19, 1950 (31). 6-3 200 B-L T-L Married. Attended the University of Pittsburgh and West Chester State College. Lives in Arlington, Texas.

1980 SEASON: Rebounded nicely from surgery to remove floating bone debris in his left elbow. Jon allowed only two earned runs in his first three starts, covering 26.1 innings for an impressive 0.68 earned run average. He received a no-decision on opening day, April 10, after working nine scoreless innings against the Yankees and then he beat Cleveland 3-0 and Detroit 3-2. Was not expected to last more than seven innings per outing, but lasted into the ninth inning on 10 occasions and was second on the team with eight complete games. Jon stopped George Brett's

30-game batting streak on August 19 at Arlington Stadium. He posted one shutout last year to boost his career total to 29. He was 6-5 at Arlington Stadium and 4-5 on the road last year and overall has a fondness for his home park, where he has a 21-9 record. He is 9-18 on the road.

CAREER/MAJORS: Went from 7-15 and a 4.21 earned run average with the New York Mets in 1977 to 15-13 and a 2.30 ERA with the Rangers in 1978. In his final exhibition outing on April 1, 1979, he was warming up to face Kansas City at Pompano Beach. It was to be a tuneup for his opening day assignment at Detroit, but Jon threw down the resin bag, felt pain as he did, and that was his last appearance until May 1. He pitched only 85 innings and submitted to surgery by Dr. Frank Jobe in Los Angeles late in the season. Matlack was voted National League Rookie Pitcher of the Year in 1972 by The Sporting News after posting a 15-10 record and a 2.32 ERA. He pitched a one-hitter against Houston on July 10, 1973, and another against St. Louis on June 29, 1974. He also has pitched a pair of two-hitters. Jon led the National League with seven shutouts in 1974 and tied for the lead with six in 1976 while with the Mets.

CAREER/MINORS: Signed out of Henderson High School, West Chester, Pa., by Ollie Vanek in 1967, pitched only five innings in the Eastern League with Williamsport and had an 0-1 record with a 14.40 ERA. Then he got rolling. He had a 50-31 mark in the minors the next four years, winning promotion to the Mets in 1971.

MEDICH, George Francis (Doc) P

No. 33

Born: Aliquippa, Pennsylvania, December 9, 1948 (32). 6-5 227. B-R T-R Married. Graduate of University of Pittsburgh. Lives in Allison Park, Pennsylvania.

1980 SEASON: Led the Rangers with 14 victories and he just knew it was going to be a good year following the first inning of his first start against Cleveland at Arlington Stadium on April 14. He gave up a grand slam to Jorge Orta in the first inning as the Indians scored four runs. But in the bottom of that inning Jim Sundberg climaxed a six-run splurge by the Rangers with a grand slam off Rick Waits and Medich and the Rangers carried on to win, 7-4. During one stretch from late May to mid-June the Rangers won eight and lost 15, with Medich accounting for four of the wins. Won seven of his first 10 decisions and at that point on June 18 he had won 17 and lost seven since June 24, 1979.

CAREER MAJORS: He was 2-0 against Boston last season and now is 10-4 lifetime vs. the Red Sox, with the last nine of those triumphs coming in a row. He last lost to them August 4, 1974, when he was with the New York Yankees and Luis Tiant was with Boston. A resident in general surgery at Pittsburgh's Allegheny General Hospital, Doc twice has been forced to practice his profession prior to games, administering cardiopulmonary resuscitation to heart attack victims and saving their lives. Started the 1979 season with an 0-3 record and an 8.27 earned run average out of the bullpen. Has been a starter since, with a 20-11 record. Won 49 games in three years with the Yankees and was outstanding as a rookie in 1973, when he had a 14-9 mark with a 2.95 ERA. He was a 19-game winner in 1974, when he won five straight complete games in July.

CAREER MINORS: Signed by a former pitcher, Randy Gumpert, and made it to the Yankees after an 11-3 season, with a 1.44 ERA, with West Haven of the Eastern League in 1972.

Born: Galesburg, Illinois, May 18, 1951 (29). 6-0 195 B-R T-R Married. Attended the University of Iowa. Lives in Arlington, Texas.

1980 SEASON: Established a new career-high with 10 home runs. He socked five against the Baltimore Orioles, including four at Memorial Stadium. Sunny also won his fifth consecutive Gold Glove award and continued to show why many think he is the finest receiver in the majors. Jim had a .993 fielding percentage, highest of any regular at his position. His 17 passed balls were tied with Lance Parrish for the league lead, but Jim was charged with nine of them while knuckleballer Charlie Hough was on the mound. Batted .309 with men in scoring position (38-123). He was two-for-three as a pinch-hitter, enjoyed four-hit games against Baltimore and California to bring his career total up to four. Crashed his second career grand slam off Rick Waits on April 14 at Arlington Stadium to pace the Rangers to a 7-4 win over the Cleveland Indians. His 63 RBI were two shy of his personal best and ranked fourth on the team behind Al Oliver, Buddy Bell and Richie Zisk. When he took his position behind the plate on September 2nd, Sunny appeared in his 1,000th game as a Ranger, enabling him to pass Toby Harrah as the all-time leader in that department. His 19 career triples give him the Rangers lead in that category. Batted .341 for the month of July (29-85), .313 for April (15-48) and .300 for May (27-90). Was batting as high as .312 on June 4th.

SUNDBERG continued

Batted safely in 22 straight games in 1978 when he was named to the Sporting News American League team in balloting by players. In his seven-year career with the Rangers, Sunny has picked off 29 runners at first, 13 at second base and one at third. Was beamed by California's Don Aase on June 26 of the '79 season and kept in the hospital for observation. Returned to the lineup and went on a tear as he rapped out nine hits in his first 18 at-bats for a hefty .500 marker. Led American League catchers in total chances with 909 in 1975, 822 in 1976, 909 in 1977 and 936 in 1980. Established American League record for highest fielding percentage by a catcher in a season with a .995 mark in 1979. Tied the league record for most games by a catcher in a season with 155 in '75. Led the league with 76 assists last season to give him the record for most seasons leading the league in assists by a catcher with five. Led American League catchers in doubleplays with 15 in 1974 and 11 in 1976. Tied the major league record for most assists by a catcher in an inning with three on September 3, 1976 (fifth inning). Also tied the record for the fewest errors by a catcher with four in '79.

CAREER/MINORS: Played only one year at the Double-A level before being called up to the big leagues.

WHITEHOUSE, Leonard Joseph (Len) No. 15 P

Born: Burlington, Vermont, September 10, 1957 (23) B-L T-L 5-11 175. Lives in Burlington, Vermont. Single.

1980 SEASON: Split his time with Tulsa and Charleston and finished with an overall record of 11-11 while demonstrating durability.

CAREER/MINORS: Was signed by Scout Joe Branzell on Christmas Day, 1976, after Branzell had seen Whitehouse pitch in a semipro game at Clearwater, Fl. Branzell met Len and his father in a snowstorm at the Montpelier, Vt., airport. They agreed to terms and Branzell caught the last plane out before the airport was closed. The Rangers' brass feel he rapidly is polishing the rough edges. Has an average fast ball, needs to improve the off speed pitches in order to make it to the majors.

WILLS, Elliott Taylor (Bump) No. 1

Born: Washington, D.C., July 27, 1952 (28)
5-9 177 B-L&R T-R Attended Arizona State University. Lives in Arlington, Texas. Married.

1980 SEASON: Set a club record by scoring 102 runs. Went 4-for-4 vs. Boston on May 5 and batted .347 vs. the Red Sox. Hit an inside-the-park homer, the only one at Arlington Stadium by a Ranger in nine years, off Baltimore's Jim Palmer on July 30. Blasted his first career grand slam off Sammy Stewart at Baltimore on July 19. Pulled a thigh muscle on August 29 and was out for three weeks, then dislocated the little finger of his left hand on October 2. Made good on 34 of 43 attempts to steal. Improved perceptibly afield, participating in 112 double plays, tied for second in the league.

CAREER/MAJORS: He has stolen 149 bases in four years in the majors, an average of 37 a season. Has had nine four-hit games, with Detroit the only two-time victim. His 52 stolen bases in 1978 is a Ranger club record. Named to the Topps and Baseball Digest major league rookie teams in 1977. That year he participated in a baseball rarity. On August 27 at Yankee Stadium Toby Harrah socked an inside-the-park homer off Ken Clay. On Clay's next pitch Wills did the same thing. Bump has three inside-the-parkers.

CAREER/MINORS: Wills was the Rangers' No. 1 choice in the January, 1975, draft and never made them regret it. Batted .307 with Pittsfield, Ma., in 1975 and .324 with Sacramento, Ca., in 1976, to merit rapid elevation. He is the son of Maury Wills, Seattle manager.

Last year the Charlies, managed by Tom Burgess, finished with a 67-71 record (fifth) and were in contention for a playoff berth until the next to the last day of the season . . . All-Star Mike Richardt led the club with a .279 batting average, 21 doubles, 13 triples and 12 home runs . . . - AA The Tulsa Drillers of the Texas League were 75-61 under Wayne Terwilliger, who moves up to coach for the Rangers this season, with Tom Burgess taking over . . . TRIPLE PLAYS

The Rangers have been involved in five triple plays in their nine year existence - one by them and four against them.

The only Texas triple play materialized on August 8, 1977, in the second game of a doubleheader with Oakland at Arlington Stadium . . . Roger Moret opened the fifth inning by walking Mitchell Page and Rich McKinney . . . Manny Sanguillen then slapped a grounder to Toby Harrah, who stepped on third base and fired to Bump Wills, who made the force, then relayed to Mike Hargrove at first base . . . The Rangers won, 3-0.

The first triple play against the Rangers came in their first season in Texas, on August 13, 1972, with Kansas City pulling it off under unusual circumstances . . . With Dick Bosman on second base and Elliott Maddox on first, Harrah tapped in front of the plate . . . Catcher Ed Kirkpatrick threw to Paul Schaal for the force on Bosman at third . . . Schaal's throw to Cookie Rojas, covering first base, nailed Harrah . . . When Maddox tried to race from first to third on the play he was out on Rojas' return throw to Schaal . . . The Rangers won, 13-4.

Texas was a three-time victim in 1979 . . . On June 10 at Baltimore, with runners going from first and second bases, Buddy Bell lined sharply to Doug Decinces and the resulting triple play was a snap . . . Baltimore won, 5-4 . . . On June 23 at Oakland there was mass confusion after John Grubb hit a soft liner at Third Baseman Wayne Gross with runners on first and second . . . The ball was trapped and Third Base Coach Frank Lucchesi waved madly for Oscar Gamble to come on over to third base and for Billy Sample to move from first to second . . . Lo and behold, Umpire Bill Kunkel ruled the ball had been caught on the fly, so Gross attempted to throw to second, only to throw into centerfield . . . Out there, Tony Armas retrieved the ball and tossed to Shortstop Dave Chalk for the out at second . . . Then Armas came in, took the ball from Chalk and ran over to first base to catch Sample off for the third out . . . Thus, the centerfielder got an assist and a putout on a triple play . . . Texas won anyway, 8-5.

There was another dilly at Arlington Stadium on July 28 against Boston . . . Grubb was on third base and Bell on first when Al Oliver hit a loop to right . . . It seemed impossible that the ball would be fielded, so both runners took off . . . Jack Brohamer, Red Sox second baseman, made the impossible play, sprawling to achieve the grab . . . He recovered and threw to First Baseman Bob Watson, who then fired to Butch Hobson at third . . . Too bad, for Dennis Eckersley carried on to defeat Fergie Jenkins, 1-0.

No Ranger ever has hit for the cycle — a single, double, triple and home run in the same game.

It has been accomplished twice against the Rangers, both times in 1972.

On August 29 that year, in the first game of a doubleheader, Bobby Murcer of the New York Yankees struck out in the first inning against Mike Paul, then tripled and doubled off Paul. He added a single against Paul Lindblad and a home run off Steve Lawson. New York won, 7-6.

Cesar Tovar, then with Minnesota, achieved the feat on September 19. He hit a triple, single and double off Dick Bosman and capped it off with a home run off Paul Lindblad. The Twins won, 5-3.
