RUDY TERRASAS WINS JOE MACKO AWARD

Longtime Rangers scout Rudy Terrasas is the 2003 recipient of the Joe Macko Award. The award was instituted in 2001 to honor long and meritorious service by a member of the Texas Rangers baseball operations department. Terrasas joined the organization as an area amateur scout in 1988, became the Midwest Scouting Supervisor in 1993, and has been a professional scout since 1996, currently serving as a Special Assignments Scout. Joe Macko won the inaugural award in 2001 and longtime Rangers major league player and coach and minor league manager Bobby Jones was the 2002 recipient.

THOMAS O. HICKS CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD AND OWNER

Thomas O. Hicks enters his sixth season as Chairman of the Board and Owner of the Texas Rangers. The club has captured two American League West Division titles in Mr. Hicks' five years as team owner and won a franchise record 95 games in 1999.

Mr. Hicks, age 57, is Chairman of the Board of Hicks, Muse, Tate & Furst Incorporated ("Hicks, Muse"), a Dallas-based private investment firm formed in 1989 specializing in leveraged acquisitions. Since its formation, Hicks, Muse has successfully raised over $12 billion of private equity funds, has consummated over $50 billion of leveraged acquisitions, and has been one of the most active private investment firms in the country. The firm has emerged as the nation's largest active investor in the broadcast industry, with significant ownership in Clear Channel Communications, Inc. and LIN Television.

Mr. Hicks serves as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Southwest Sports Group, Inc., a Dallas-based sports entertainment company that encompasses the Rangers, the National Hockey League's Dallas Stars, the Mesquite Championship Rodeo, and Southwest Sports Realty, which is responsible for the development of the property around The Ballpark in Arlington among its projects.

SSG is a one-half owner of Center Operating Company, which constructed and operates the American Airlines Center and the Frisco RoughRiders, who begin play as the Rangers' Texas League affiliate this spring. The firm is also co-developer of the Victory project in downtown Dallas with Hillwood Development Company and the new sports-entertainment center in Frisco that includes Dr Pepper/Seven-Up Ballpark and a new practice facility and training headquarters for the Stars. In addition, Southwest Sports Group is a joint venture partner with Fox Sports and Colorado Studios in Lone Star Mobile Productions.

Mr. Hicks is also a Director of Clear Channel Communications, Inc., and serves as a Director of Home Interiors & Gifts, Inc. Viasystems Group, Inc., and Yell. He serves on the Board of Directors of Crow Family Holdings as well as the JPMorgan Chase National Advisory Board.

Mr. Hicks is a former member of the University of Texas System Board of Regents and also has served as Chairman of the University of Texas Investment Management Company which manages the $13 billion University of Texas Permanent University Fund and Long Term Funds.

Mr. Hicks purchased the Dallas Stars in February, 1996 and serves as the team's Chairman of the Board and as the club's representative on the NHL Board of Governors. The Stars were the 1998-99 Stanley Cup Champions, won the NHL's Presidents' Trophy for the best regular season record in both 1997-98 and 1998-99, and have captured five consecutive Division titles. During the 1998-99 season, the team established franchise records with 51 wins and 114 total points.

Mr. Hicks serves on the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Advanced Media, the internet-based subsidiary of Major League Baseball.

Mr. Hicks graduated with an MBA from the University of Southern California in 1970 and a BBA from the University of Texas in 1968.

Mr. Hicks has strong ties to the community and has provided continuing support to numerous organizations, including United Way, Goodwill, The Dallas Museum of Art, The Dallas Symphony Orchestra, The Science Place at Fair Park, the Austin Street Shelter Ministries, and the Happy Hills Farm for Boys. He was honored as the recipient of the 2000 Henry Cohn Humanitarian Award for the Anti-Defamation League. Mr. Hicks has also been a past recipient of the Father of the Year Award. In addition, he has held charity board memberships with United Way, Special Camps for Special Kids, and was the 1996 co-chair of the Dallas Jewish Coalition for the Homeless "Vogel Alcove" project.

Mr. Hicks is the father of six children, and he and his wife, Cinda, reside in Dallas.

OWNERSHIP

Thomas O. Hicks officially became the fifth owner in the history of the Texas Rangers on June 16, 1998, when his transaction from the investor group headed by Rusty Rose and Tom Schieffer was completed. Mr. Hicks' agreement to purchase the Rangers was announced on January 7, 1998, and was unanimously approved by the 30 Major League owners in an ownership meeting on June 10, 1998 in Seattle. Under the transaction, Mr. Hicks acquired the Texas Rangers, the lease to The Ballpark in Arlington, and 270 acres of land.

MICHAEL J. CRAMER PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Michael J. Cramer is President and Chief Operating Officer of Southwest Sports Group, LLC, Southwest Sports Realty, Inc., both privately held companies, and the Texas Rangers. In his role as Rangers President, Mr. Cramer directly oversees all aspects of the team, reporting to owner Tom Hicks.

Southwest Sports Group owns and operates the Rangers, the Dallas Stars, the Dr Pepper StarCenters and the Mesquite Championship Rodeo. SSG was formed in 1998 after the purchase of the Texas Rangers by Mr. Hicks. The company also is a partner with Fox Sports and Colorado Studios in Lone Star Mobile Productions and is a one half owner with Mandalay Sports Entertainment of the Texas League's Frisco RoughRiders, which begin play this spring.

Southwest Sports Realty is developing the land surrounding The Ballpark in Arlington, the Victory project (in partnership with Hillwood, a company controlled by H. Ross Perot, Jr.) in downtown Dallas, and the sports-entertainment complex, hotel and convention center in Frisco, TX. That project includes the beautiful new Dr Pepper/Seven-Up Ballpark, home of the RoughRiders, the Dallas Stars training headquarters and practice facility that opens this summer, and other office, residential and entertainment developments around the sports complex.

JOHN HART EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL MANAGER

John Hart begins his second season as General Manager of the Texas Rangers after being appointed to the position on November 1, 2001. This is his 12th consecutive season as a major league general manager, the second longest span of any current executive behind Atlanta's John Schuerholz, who is in his 13th year running the Atlanta Braves.

The off-season was a busy one for the Rangers, with the hiring of manager Buck Showalter, the acquisition of Einar Diaz and Ryan Drese from Cleveland, and the signings of major league free agents Aaron Fultz, Doug Glanville, John Thomson, Ugueth Urbina, Ismael Valdes, and Esteban Yan.

Before joining the Rangers, John spent the previous 13 years with the Cleveland Indians, the last ten as Executive Vice President and General Manager after his appointment on September 18, 1991. In that decade (1992-2001), the Indians were 870-681, a .561 winning percentage that ranked as third best in the majors in that span. After not advancing to post-season play since 1954, Cleveland captured six American League Central Division titles (1995-99; 2001) and two A.L. pennants (1995 and 1997).

The Indians are one of just three teams since divisional play began in 1969 to win as many as five straight division titles, and the Tribe played in front of sellout crowds for every game at Jacobs Field for nearly six years from 1995-2001.

John was honored as the Major League Executive of the Year by The Sporting News in both 1994 and 1995, joining George Weiss of the New York Yankees (1950-52) and Bing Devine of the St. Louis Cardinals (1963-64) as the only recipients of the award in consecutive years. Cleveland's player development system was also honored during John's tenure. Producing players such as Bartolo Colon, Brian Giles, Manny Ramirez, C.C. Sabathia, and Jim Thome, Cleveland earned Baseball America's Organization of the Year Award in 1992 and was named the best minor league system in a poll by The Sporting News in 1996.

John joined the Cleveland organization as a Special Assignment Scout in 1989 and served as the Tribe's interim manager for the final 19 games of that season, compiling an 8-11 record. He spent the next two seasons as the Indians Director of Baseball Operations before succeeding Hank Peters as General Manager.

He began his career in 1969 as a catcher in the Montreal organization, playing three seasons. After a successful stint as a high school baseball coach in the Orlando, Florida area, John rejoined the Orioles as a minor league manager in 1982, winning Appalachian League manager of the year honors that season in Bluefield. He had a 436-334 mark in overall six seasons as an Orioles minor league skipper and captured International League manager of the year honors at Rochester in 1986. During that span, John also managed Estrellas in the Dominican Winter League for three years. He was the Orioles' major league third base coach under Cal Ripken, Sr. and Frank Robinson in 1988 before joining the Indians.

Born in Tampa, Florida on July 21, 1948, John played baseball, football, and basketball at Winter Park (FL) High School, graduating in 1966, and was elected to the school's athletic hall of fame in 2002. He went on to catch at Seminole Junior College, earning all-American honors in 1969. John graduated from the University of Central Florida in 1973, majoring in history and physical education.

John and his wife of 32 years, the former Sandi DeVorak, have a daughter Shannon. The Harts reside in Dallas and also have a home in Windermere, Florida.

10 WALKS/10 STRIKEOUTS

BOBBY WITT achieved the unique combination of 10 walks and 10 strikeouts in the same game when he defeated Oakland on September 1, 1990. In 7 innings, he walked 10 and fanned 10 while posting a 3-2 victory.

It is believed that this has been accomplished by an individual pitcher just four previous times in major league history. California's NOLAN RYAN had 10 walks and 19 strikeouts in a 13-inning no decision on June 14, 1974 vs. Boston. Cincinnati's JIM MALONEY pitched a 10-inning no-hitter on Aug. 19, 1965 at Chicago with 10 walks and 12 strikeouts in the 1-0 victory. BOB FELLER of Cleveland walked 11 and struck out 13 in a 13-inning, 4-3 defeat to Detroit on Aug. 7, 1941. JOHNNY LUSH also accomplished the feat in 1906 while pitching for the Philadelphia Phillies.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD, PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1970, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known as "The Commissioner's Award") which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award, now sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer, was killed in a plane crash New Years Eve, 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua.

Early in the season, each team will be asked to submit three candidates to MLB. A local panel formed by John Hancock Financial Services and made up of local community representatives will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Alan H. (Bud) Selig, will then select a winner from the list of 30 nominees. The winner of the Roberto Clemente Award will receive a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock will also make a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity.

Past winners include Jim Thome (2002), Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Sammy Sosa, Willie Mays, Lou Brock, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr., Kirby Puckett and others.

John Hancock is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the title sponsor of The John Hancock All-Star FanFest, an interactive "Baseball Heaven on Earth" held in conjunction with MLB's All-Star Game.

Players with at least three years of professional service who are not protected on a team's major league roster are eligible for selection by another club for $50,000.00 ($25,000.00 through 1984). If the player selected does not make the opening day major league roster, he must be offered back to his original club for one-half the draft price. Texas selections:

Four Texas players have been selected in the major league draft, including two this past offseason: infielder Jose Morban was selected in Round 1 by Minnesota and outfielder Rontrez Johnson was picked in the 2nd round by Oakland. The only other Rangers to be selected were first baseman Tom Robson by the New York Yankees in 1975 (retired due to injury prior to 1976 season) and righthanded pitcher Melvin Brabazon by Pittsburgh in 1997 (returned to Texas prior to 1998 season).

In addition, Texas acquired outfielder Ricky Williams from the Montreal Expos on December 15, 1998 for an undisclosed amount of cash. Williams was selected by the Philadelphia Phillies organization in the Rule 5 draft December 14, 1998. Williams is currently on Texas' restricted list.

2002 TEXAS RANGERS SEASON IN REVIEW

FINAL OVERALL RECORD: 72-90 (.444)

Fourth in A.L. West Division, 31 games behind Oakland

Home: 42-39 Road: 30-51

ATTENDANCE: The Rangers finished with a home attendance of 2,352,447 in 80 dates at The Ballpark in Arlington. It marked the 7th consecutive year and the 13th time in the last 14 seasons (beginning 1989) that Texas has topped the 2 million mark in home attendance. In the last 14 years, only 3 other major league clubs have reached 2 million as many times: Baltimore (14), Los Angeles (14), and Boston (13). The Rangers' home average of 29,406 was 6th highest in the American League, but the team's lowest since 1995 (27,582). Texas' home figure was 453,952 less than the 2001 total, the 4th largest decrease in the majors behind Milwaukee (-841,348), Pittsburgh (-651,133), and Cleveland (-558,583). It was the biggest single season decrease in club history.

Texas had 12 crowds of 40,000 or more and drew at least 30,000 on 35 occasions. The team set a regular season single game record with a crowd of 49,617 on opening day, April 5 versus Anaheim, one of three sellouts in 2002. In nine years at The Ballpark in Arlington, the Rangers have had a total regular season attendance of 24,005,945 in 696 dates for an average of 34,492.

On the road, Texas drew 2,251,033 in 79 dates, an average of 28,494 that ranked as the A.L.'s 4th highest. The largest road crowd was 53,944 on August 24 at Yankee Stadium in New York.

BATTING: Texas had a .269 (1510-5618) team batting average in 2002, 6th best in the American League but the squad's lowest since 1995 (.265). The Rangers topped the majors with 2558 total bases, 561 extra base hits, 230 home runs, and a .45532 slugging percentage. The team tied for 2nd in the A.L. in sacrifice hits (48), ranked 5th in runs (843) and walks (554), and placed 6th in hits (1510) and on-base percentage (.338). It marked Texas' 7th consecutive season with at least 800 runs. The Rangers had the 3rd fewest stolen bases in the league (62), the lowest total in a full season in team history.

The club hit .266 (788-2965) with 109 homers and 428 runs in 86 games (4.98 runs/game) in the 1st half and had a .272 (722-2653) mark with 121 homers and 454 runs in 76 games (5.97 runs/game) after the all-star break. Texas reached a season high of .273 for 4 straight days from July 7-10 with the lowest average being .251 on May 10. The Rangers led the A.L. in home average with a .284 (782-2756) mark at The Ballpark in Arlington. The team tied the Chicago White Sox for the majors' highest home run total at home (132) and ranked 3rd in the majors in runs scored in a home park (474) behind Colorado (498) and the White Sox (477). Texas had a .254 (728-2862) road average, 7th in the league with 98 homers, the A.L.'s 4th most, and 369 runs. Club's monthly highs were a .296 (281-948) average and 157 runs, both in August.

Due to injuries, the Rangers had just 3 players with the 502 plate appearances necessary to qualify for the batting title: RAFAEL PALMEIRO, ALEX RODRIGUEZ and MICHAEL YOUNG, the fewest by the Rangers in a season since 1985 (3).

COME-FROM-BEHIND WINS/CLOSE GAMES: The Rangers came from behind to win 40 times in 2002, the most since 1999 (45). Of that total 17 came in the 7th inning or later, Texas rallied from a 6-run deficit to win on 3 occasions: April 25 vs. Toronto; July 4 against Tampa Bay; and Aug. 29 vs. Baltimore. The squad had a lead at some point in an eventual defeat on 46 occasions, losing after a 5-run advantage 3 times. Overall, the team was 23-37 in contests decided after the 6th inning, 60-5 when leading after 8 innings, and 2-74 when trailing after 8 frames. The squad scored the winning run in its final at bat on 20 occasions.

The Rangers won at home in the bottom of the 9th or later 7 times and lost 14 contests on the road in "sudden death", the latter being the most in the major leagues. The 21 total "walk-off" decisions were also the highest number in the majors ahead of Montreal and Tampa Bay (20 each). Texas was 18-26 in one-run games, the 3rd most losses in the league, and was 13-18 in contests decided by 2 runs.

DAYS IN EACH POSITION: First (0); Second (1); Third (17); Fourth (162). This was the 1st season since 1987 that the Rangers did not spend a single day in 1st place. Beginning May 25, the squad was in 4th position for the season's final 126 days.

DAYS OF WEEK: Sunday: 8-17; Monday: 6-9; Tuesday: 8-17; Wednesday: 17-8; Thursday: 13-8; Friday: 11-14; Saturday: 9-17.

DAY/NIGHT: Texas was 57-69 at night and 15-21 in day games. It marked the 5th consecutive year that the club has been under .500 in the daytime. The Rangers lost their last 5 day contests beginning Sept. 14.

DESIGNATED HITTERS: Rangers' dh's combined to bat .255 (148-581), 10th in the A.L. and the team's lowest average since 1997 (.253). The dh corps produced 23 homers and 79 RBI.

RAFAEL PALMEIRO saw the most time in the dh role, hitting .275 (53-193) with 12 homers and 32 RBI. Others with more than 60 at bats were RUSTY GREER, .247 (21-85), 6 RBI; MIKE LAMB, .310 (22-71), 2 HR, 7 RBI; and CARL EVERETT, .266 (17-64), 5 HR, 16 RBI.

Club's longest errorless stretch was 5 games on 2 occasions, Aug. 13-18 and Sept. 5-9 with just 2 miscues in a 13-game span, Sept. 2-13. Team had a season high 4 errors on August 22 at Boston. Texas had just 21 total errors at 2nd base (11) and shortstop (10), the fewest of any A.L. club.

The Rangers ranked 7th in the A.L. with 152 double plays. The squad also turned the 4th triple play in team history on April 14 vs. Seattle, one of 2 TPs in the A.L. in 2002. Texas permitted the 5th fewest unearned runs in the league (58).

HOME/ROAD: The Rangers were 42-39 at The Ballpark in Arlington, the 5th consecutive year with a home record of .500 or better. Team was 14-8-3 in 25 home series. Texas was 30-51 away from home, its 2nd fewest road victories in a full season since 1986 and the 4th fewest in the league. It marked the 2nd straight year that the Rangers have had the majors' most home runs. The last team to accomplish that feat was Seattle, which led the majors from 1997-99. The only other time that Texas has topped the majors and the A.L. in home runs was 1993.

The Rangers hit 132 homers at The Ballpark in Arlington, tying the White Sox for the most at home in 2002 and matching the 7th highest home total in major league history. Texas' 98 road homers were 4th most in the A.L. behind New York (115), Boston (100), and Minnesota (99).

A-ROD AND RAFFY: ALEX RODRIGUEZ (57) and RAFAEL PALMEIRO (43) combined for 100 homers in 2002, just the 5th time in history a pair of teammates reached the century mark:

Club won 6 of its final 8 contests vs. the N.L. starting June 19. Texas was 3-6 at home, its fewest interleague wins ever at The Ballpark in Arlington while setting a club mark for road victories at 6-3. The Rangers are 52-52 in 6 seasons of interleague play.

Club lowered its era from 5.71 in 2001, the biggest improvement (-.56) in the American League and matching the 4th largest in the majors behind Pittsburgh (-.82); Montreal (-.71); San Francisco (-.64), and tying Los Angeles (also -.56). Of that number, 27 were pitchers, 2 more than the previous team mark of 1992 and 2001. The club was 5th in the majors in total players used behind Cleveland (59), San Diego (59), Detroit (57), and Kansas City (52) and 4th in pitchers employed behind the Padres (37), Indians (31), and Tigers (30). The Rangers used 12 rookies: JUAN ALVAREZ, JOAQUIN BENOIT, HANK BLALOCK, RANDY FLORES, REYNALDO GARCIA, TRAVIS HAFNER, JASON HART, BEN KOZLOWSKI, COLBY LEWIS, RYAN LUDWICK, KEVIN MENCH, and JASON ROMANO. Of that group, Blalock, Flores, Garcia, Hafner, Hart, Kozlowski, Lewis, Ludwick, and Mench all made their major league debuts. Texas used 129 different batting orders and employed 10 different leadoff hitters, one shy of the club record set in 1992.

STREAKS: The Rangers won a season high 8 consecutive games from June 19-25, the team's longest winning streak since 9 victories in a row, July 18-27, 1999. That tied the 3rd longest streak in team history and was the 8th of at least 8 straight wins. Club also captured 6 games in a row, April 27-May 3. Texas' longest losing streak in 2002 was 8 games, July 14-20, its longest since 9 straight defeats, June 6-15, 2000. The Rangers also dropped 6 consecutive games, Sept. 13-18.

WINS: At 72-90 (.444), the Rangers compiled the 8th lowest winning percentage in team history and the 2nd lowest in the last 14 seasons (beginning 1989). Texas has now had 3 consecutive records of below .500, the 2nd longest streak in the club's existence to 4 in a row from 1982-85. This marks the 1st time that the Rangers have ever had 3 straight last place finishes. The squad was 39-47 in the 1st half and 33-43 after the all-star break. The season's best record was a game under .500 3 times: 0-1 on April 1; 18-19 on May 12; and 19-20 on May 15, the 1st time since 1985 that Texas has not been at .500 at any point in a season. Team was last at the .500 mark at 10-10 on April 22, 2001. Club was a season high 18 games below .500 on 6 occasions, the last being the final mark of 72-90. The Rangers' biggest deficit in the standings was also the final mark of 31 games behind Oakland.

Texas went 25-16 (.610) against the A.L. East, its best winning percentage in that division since 1996 (.677). The team was 18-27 (.400) vs. the A.L. Central and 20-38 (.345) against the A.L. West, its lowest winning percentage in its own division since 1994 (.267).

RANGERS 1999 DIVISION SERIES ROSTER

PITCHERS (11):	John Burkett, Tim Lincecum, Jeff Fassero, Rick Helling, Esteban Loaiza, Mike Morgan, Danny Patterson, Aaron Sele, Mike Venafro, John Wetteland, Jeff Zimmerman.
CATCHERS (2):	Ivan Rodriguez, Gregg Zaun.
INFELDERS (7):	Luis Alica, Royce Clayton, Mark McLemore, Rafael Palmeiro, Jon Shave, Lee Stevens, Todd Zeile.
OUTFIELDERS (5):	Juan Gonzalez, Tom Goodwin, Scarborough Green, Rusty Greer, Roberto Kelly.

THE RANGERS were swept by the Yankees in the American League Division Series for the second straight year and have lost nine consecutive post-season games, all versus New York in Division Series play, since winning Game 1 of the 1996 DS at Yankee Stadium. That represents the longest losing streak ever in Division Series play, the previous record being seven straight defeats for Houston in 1981 (3), 1997 (3) and 1998 (1).

Texas is 1-9 (.111) lifetime in post-season play, all against the Yankees in the 1996, 1998 and 1999 Division Series. The .111 winning percentage is the lowest in Division Series play among all teams with at least one DS victory. The Royals, Cubs and Giants are all 0-3 lifetime in the Division Series.

CONSECUTIVE POST-SEASON LOSSES: The Rangers' nine straight defeats represents the fifth longest post-season losing streak in major league history. The longest streaks:

Consecutive Losses	Team	Series
13	Boston	'86 WS (last 2); '88 LCS (all 4); '90 LCS (all 4); '95 DS (all 3)
11	Philadelphia (NL)	'15 WS (last 4); '50 WS (all 4); '76 (all 3)
10	Milwaukee/Atlanta	'58 WS (last 3); '69 LCS (all 3); '82 LCS (all 3); '91 LCS (1st)
10	Kansas City	'80 WS (last 2); '81 DS (all 3); '84 LCS (all 3); '85 LCS (1st 2)
9	TEXAS	'96 DS (last 3); '98 DS (all 3); '99 DS (all 3)

BATTING: The Rangers batted just .152 (14-92) in the three games against New York, the third lowest team average in Division Series play and the fifth lowest figure in any post-season series:

Average	AB	H	Games	Team	Series
.141	92	13	3	TEXAS	1998 Division Series
.142	120	17	4	Los Angeles	1966 World Series
.146	157	23	5	Baltimore	1969 World Series
.147	95	14	3	Los Angeles	1996 Division Series
.152	92	14	3	TEXAS	1999 Division Series

Texas' 14 hits in the series matched the second-lowest total ever for a post-season series of any length. The Rangers had just 13 hits in the three-game 1998 Division Series versus New York, and Los Angeles produced 14 hits in three games against Atlanta in the 1996 Division Series. In three lifetime post-season series (10 games), the Rangers have a .184 (60-326) average with seven home runs and 18 runs scored.

FEW RUNS: Texas scored only one run in the three games versus the Yankees, a fourth inning home run by Juan Gonzalez in Game 2 at Yankee Stadium. It marked the second consecutive post-season series in which the Rangers had tallied just one run as the club's lone run in the three-game 1998 Division Series against the Yankees also came in Game 2 at New York. One run is the lowest run total ever in a post-season series of any length, the previous fewest being two twice. The Rangers went 25 scoreless innings in post-season play between the runs in Game 2 in 1998 and 1999, and the club did not score in the final 14 frames in the 1999 DS.

There have been five shutouts since the start of Division Series play in 1995, and the Rangers have been blanked in four of those. The only other shutout was Cleveland's 5-0 win over Boston in Game 2 of the 1995 Division Series.

1999 A.L. DIVISION SERIES (CTD.)

Game 1 – October 5, 1999

at New York (8), Texas (0) – Yankees lead series, 1-0

Texas manages just two hits, both by Ivan Rodriguez, as New York's Orlando Hernandez combines with Jeff Nelson on a game one shutout of the Rangers. Texas draws seven walks in the contest, six off Hernandez, but goes 0-for-4 with runners in scoring position.

Aaron Sele (0-1) holds Texas close, allowing three earned runs in the first five innings, but a four-run sixth by the Yankees puts the game away, sparked by a three-run homer by Bernie Williams off Mike Venafró. Williams finishes the game with six of New York's seven rbi in the game.

at New York (3), Texas (1) – Yankees lead series, 2-0

Texas takes a 1-0 lead in the fourth inning on a solo homer by Juan Gonzalez, but the club fails to drive in a run with men at second and third base and no outs in the fifth, allowing New York to remain within a run before collecting three unanswered scores.

After hits from Roberto Kelly and Lee Stevens lead off the 5th inning, Mark McLemore, Royce Clayton and Rusty Greer fail to collect an rbi, stranding both runners.

Rick Helling strikes out 8 batters in 6.1 innings, but gives up the eventual game-winning run on an rbi double Ricky Ledee in the 7th inning.

Game 3 – October 9, 1999

New York (3), at Texas (0) – Yankees win series, 3-0

Darryl Strawberry's 3-run 1st inning home run proves the difference as the Yankees eliminate the Rangers for the third time in the last four seasons.

Esteban Loaiza pitches 7.0 strong innings, allowing just five hits, but Texas manages just 5 hits as Roger Clemens, Jeff Nelson and Mariano Rivera combine for the win. Texas cannot advance a runner past second base in the game. The Rangers lose their ninth straight post-season win since the club's only playoff victory in their first-ever post-season contest in 1996.

Texas finishes the series with 14 hits, one more than the 1998 team post-season total.

RANGERS 1998 DIVISION SERIES ROSTER

PITCHERS (11):	John Burkett, Tim Lincecum, Tony Fossas, Eric Gunderson, Rick Helling, Xavier Hernandez, Esteban Loaiza, Danny Patterson, Aaron Sele, Todd Stottlmyre, John Wetteland.
CATCHERS (2):	Bill Haselman, Ivan Rodriguez.
INFELDERS (7):	Luis Alica, Domingo Cedenio, Will Clark, Royce Clayton, Mark McLemore, Lee Stevens, Todd Zeile.
OUTFIELDERS (5):	Rusty Greer, Juan Gonzalez, Tom Goodwin, Roberto Kelly, Mike Simms.

ROSTER NOTES: Of the 25 players who appeared on the Rangers' Division Series roster in 1996, only seven were on the 1998 post-season roster: pitchers John Burkett and Danny Patterson; catcher Ivan Rodriguez; infielders Will Clark and Mark McLemore, and outfielders Juan Gonzalez and Rusty Greer. Burkett had been acquired from Florida in August and Patterson, who pitched in just 7 regular season games, was an injury replacement for Kevin Gross. The other 5 spent all of 1996 with the team. Of the 25 players on the 1998 post-season roster, 16 had previously participated in post-season play.

THE RANGERS fell to 1-6 lifetime in post-season play, all versus New York, following their three straight losses to the Yankees in the 1998 A.L. Division Series and dropped six straight since winning Game 1 of the 1996 Division Series versus New York. At the time, it matched Los Angeles (0-6) for the longest losing streak ever in Division Series play. Of the Rangers' six losses to the Yankees in post-season play and in 1996 and 1998, five were by one (2) or two (3) runs.

BATTING: The Rangers hit just .141 (13-92) in the three games against New York, the lowest team batting average ever in a post-season series, Division, LCS, or World Series. The two previous lowest club figures were both by the Los Angeles Dodgers, .142 (4 games) in the 1966 World Series versus Baltimore and .147 (3 games) in the 1996 Division Series against Atlanta. The 13 total hits for Texas were also the fewest ever in a post-season series, the previous low being 14 for Los Angeles in the 1996 Division Series against Atlanta (3 games). The Rangers were the 13th team since 1928 not to hit a home run in a single post-season series (World Series-2; LCS-8; DS-3), the last being Los Angeles in 1996 Division Series vs. Atlanta.

FEWEST RUNS SCORED IN ANY SERIES HISTORY: Texas scored just one run in the three games, an RBI single by Ivan Rodriguez scoring Juan Gonzalez in the fifth inning of Game 2, the fewest runs ever in a post-season series of any length. The Rangers matched that total in the 1999 Division Series. The previous low was 2, by Los Angeles in the 1966 World Series against Baltimore (4 games) and by Kansas City in the 1981 Division Series (played that year due to split season) versus Oakland (3 games).

PITCHING: Texas had a 3.24 era (9 er/25 ip) in the three games against New York. The 9 runs allowed by the Rangers in the three games matched the fewest ever issued by a losing team in any post-season series. The Chicago Cubs allowed just 9 runs in losing to the Boston Red Sox in six games in the 1918 World Series and Pittsburgh surrendered just nine runs to Cincinnati in a three-game series loss in the 1970 NLCS.

The ten combined runs by the Rangers and Yankees were the fewest ever in a post-season series, the previous low being 12 by Cincinnati (9) and Pittsburgh (3) in the three-game 1970 NLCS. Texas' starters combined for a 4.05 era (9 er/20 ip) while the bullpen pitched five scoreless frames.

Todd Stottlmyre hurled an 8-inning complete game in the 2-0 loss at New York in Game 1, the Rangers' second lifetime post-season complete game. John Burkett went the route to defeat the Yankees, 6-2 in Game 1 of the 1996 D.S. in New York. Rick Helling's nine strikeouts in Game 2 were the most ever by a Rangers' pitcher in a post-season game. John Wetteland pitched a scoreless inning in Game 3.

1998 A.L. DIVISION SERIES GAME RECAPS

Game 1 – September 29, 1998

at New York (2), Texas (0) – Yankees lead series, 1-0

Todd Stottlemire issues just two runs on six hits in an eight-inning complete game, but the Rangers manage just five hits and do not advance a runner past second base. David Wells and Mariano Rivera combine on the shutout. Wells allows no more than one baserunner in any inning except the seventh, when he strikes out Mike Simms with men on first and second to end the inning.

Stottlemire allows both runs in the second inning, when Jorge Posada walks and advances to third on Chad Curtis' double. Scott Brosius singles home Posada, and Curtis scores when Brosius is caught in a rundown on a stolen base attempt.

Game 2 – September 30, 1998

at New York (3), Texas (1) – Yankees lead series, 2-0

The Rangers fall behind, two games to none, producing just five hits for the second straight night. Andy Pettitte works seven innings, allowing three singles. Ivan Rodriguez drives in Juan Gonzalez with a single in the fifth inning which turns out to be Texas' lone run of the series. Jeff Nelson throws 0.2 innings, and Mariano Rivera works 1.1 frames for the save, striking out Will Clark with a runner on base to end the game.

Rick Helling gives the Rangers another strong performance, striking out nine and allowing three runs in six innings. All three runs score on a pair of homers, a solo shot by Shane Spencer in the second inning and a two-run blast by Scott Brosius in the fourth.

New York (4), at Texas (0) – Yankees win series, 3-0

The Yankees sweep the Rangers in three games to move on to the American League Championship Series. Texas extends its post-season losing streak to six games before a sellout crowd of 49,950 at The Ballpark in Arlington. With New York ahead, 4-0 in the sixth inning, the game is halted for three hours, 12 minutes by rain.

Like Helling in Game Two, Aaron Sele pitches well but is victimized by the long ball. He hurls five shutout innings before Paul O'Neill hits a solo homer to left with one out in the sixth. Later that inning, Shane Spencer cracks a three-run bomb to give the Yankees a 4-0 edge.

The Rangers collect only three singles in the game, with David Cone working 5.2 shutout frames (two hits) before the lengthy rain delay sidelines him. Three Yankees relievers complete the shutout, not allowing a runner past second base until there are two outs in the ninth inning. Mariano Rivera gets Will Clark on a ground ball to second base to end the series.

THE RANGERS lost the final three games of their Division Series with the Yankees...It was the first time in Division Series history that a team won the opener, then lost the next three games...The Yankees won the first two games of their 1995 series with Seattle before dropping the final three contests...Texas had the lead at some point in all four games and scored first in the last three contests...The Rangers had a lead into the eighth inning in Games 2 and 3 and were tied after six innings in Game 4.

BATTING: The Rangers hit .218 (31-142) in the four-game series, .213 (23-108) in the final three games...From the fifth inning on, the club hit just .145 (11-76) with two runs scored in the four games, going 3-31 in that situation over the final two contests.

PITCHING: The Rangers had a 3.55 era (15 er/38 ip) in the four games...Starters were 1-1, 3.76 (11 er/26.1 ip) in the four starts, while the bullpen was 0-2, 3.08 (4 er/11.2 ip)...The relievers failed in both save opportunities.

JUAN GONZALEZ led the Rangers with a .438 (7-16) batting average, five homers and nine rbi in the four games...Without Gonzalez, the Rangers batted .190 (24-126) with one homer and seven rbi...A summary of Gonzalez' accomplishments:

- Homered in all four games, the second player in major league history ever to homer in four straight games of a single post-season series...The other was San Francisco's Jeffrey Leonard, who went deep in four consecutive games of the N.L.C.S. vs. St. Louis, October 6-7-9-10, 1987.
- His five total homers in the series matched the most ever in a single post-season series with New York's Reggie Jackson in the 1977 World Series against Los Angeles and Seattle's Ken Griffey, Jr. in the 1995 Division Series vs. New York...The total was one shy of the overall record for home runs in a single post-season, shared by Pittsburgh's Bob Robertson in 1971, Philadelphia's Len Dykstra in 1993, and Griffey, Jr. in 1995.
- His nine rbi were one shy of the Division Series record, accomplished by Seattle's Edgar Martinez in 1995 vs. New York.
- Had a 1.375 slugging percentage, the highest ever in either a Division or League Championship Series of any length...Post-season record in any series is 1.727 by New York's Lou Gehrig in the 1928 World Series.
- His 22 total bases tied the record for most ever in a post-season series of four games with New York's Babe Ruth in the 1928 World Series vs. St. Louis and Los Angeles' Steve Garvey in the 1978 N.L.C.S. vs. Philadelphia.
- Was the only Ranger to hit safely in all four games.
- Hit two homers in Game 2 on October 2 at Yankee Stadium, the ninth time that a player had hit two homers in a Division Series game...See the complete, updated list on page 213.
- With five homers in the post-season, had 52 total in 1996, the 19th player in American League history with 50 or more total homers in a season, including the post-season.
- In 1996 vs. New York, posted a .509 (27-53) average with 10 homers and 25 rbi in 14 games...Against the Yankees' lefthanders (Jimmy Key, Andy Pettitte, Dale Polley, Kenny Rogers), batted .706 (12-17) with five homers and 11 rbi.

JOHN BURKETT went the route to defeat New York in Game 1, 6-2...It was the first complete game victory for a starter in the two years of Division Series play.

ATTENDANCE: Game 3 at The Ballpark in Arlington attracted 50,860, the second largest crowd in history for professional baseball in Arlington behind 50,920 for the 1995 All-Star Game...Game 4 drew 50,066, which ranks third.

SERIES BRIEFS: Mike Stanton had not allowed an earned run in 24.1 consecutive innings over 21 post-season appearances before Bernie Williams homered in the ninth inning of Game 4...The Rangers used eight pitchers in Game 4, tying the record for any post-season game, the fourth time it had been accomplished and third time in a nine-inning game...San Francisco later tied the record in Game 2 of the 1997 Division Series on October 1, 1997 vs. Florida...Gonzalez and Ivan Rodriguez each had two multi-hit games in the series with Rodriguez going 5-8 in the final two games in Arlington.

1996 A.L. DIVISION SERIES GAME RECAPS

Texas (6), at New York (2) – Rangers lead series, 1-0

John Burkett throws a complete game in his 1st career post-season appearance as the Rangers win their playoff debut at Yankee Stadium. Down 1-0, Texas erupts for 5 runs on a pair of homers in the 4th off loser David Cone. Juan Gonzalez starts the scoring with a 3-run shot, and Dean Palmer adds a 2-run blast. Mark McLemore contributes an RBI single in the 6th to complete the scoring.

Burkett allows 10 hits but issues just one walk. The Yankees load the bases with 2 outs in the 6th, but Derek Jeter pops out to 1st base to end the threat. Burkett allows just 2 baserunners after that, ending the game by getting Wade Boggs to fly out to left.

at New York (5), Texas (4), 12 innings – Series tied, 1-1

The Rangers let a 4-1 lead slip away, allowing the winning run to score on Dean Palmer's throwing error with none out in the 12th inning as New York evens the series at 1-1. Juan Gonzalez drills 2 homers off Andy Pettitte, a solo shot in the 2nd and a 3-run blast in the 3rd to give Texas its 4-1 edge. He becomes the 9th player to homer twice in a Division Series game. After his 2nd homer, the Rangers manage just 5 singles over the final 8 innings.

Ken Hill allows 2 runs on 4 hits through 6 innings, but hits Jim Leyritz with a pitch to start the 7th. Joe Girardi, pinch running for Leyritz, scores on Charlie Hayes' sacrifice fly off Dennis Cook to cut the lead to 4-3. In the 8th, Jeff Russell gives up a leadoff single to Bernie Williams, who scores on Cecil Fielder's single, tying the game.

Texas picks up 4 hits in the 3 extra innings but leaves 6 men on base in that span. New York is hitless in the extra frames until Derek Jeter starts the 12th with a single off loser Mike Stanton. After Tim Lincecum draws a walk, Palmer makes a wide throw on Charlie Hayes' sacrifice bunt, allowing Jeter to score from 2nd.

New York (3), at Texas (2) – Yankees lead series, 2-1

As happened 9 times during the regular season, the Rangers take a lead into the 9th inning and lose the game. Darren Oliver allows a Bernie Williams solo homer in the 1st, then yields just 3 singles over the next 7 innings. But trailing 2-1, Derek Jeter and Tim Lincecum start the 9th with back-to-back singles to chase Oliver. Mike Henneman allows a sacrifice fly by Williams and a 2-out rbi single by Mariano Duncan to give the Yankees a 3-2 lead. Texas gets the tying run to 3rd with 2 outs in the 9th, but John Wetteland strikes out Darryl Hamilton to save the game.

Juan Gonzalez homers for the 3rd straight game to tie the score at 1-1 in the 4th, and Ivan Rodriguez puts the Rangers ahead with an rbi double in the 5th off Jimmy Key. Texas again struggles with the New York bullpen, managing just one single in the final 4 frames. A crowd of 50,860 attends the 1st post-season game at The Ballpark in Arlington.

New York (6), at Texas (4) – Yankees win series, 3-1

The Yankees advance to the A.L.C.S. by overcoming a Rangers lead for the 3rd straight game. Texas goes up by a 4-0 score on Juan Gonzalez' solo homer in the 3rd, but the Rangers are held to 2 singles after that point. Gonzalez joins Jeffrey Leonard (with San Francisco in 1987 N.L.C.S.) as the only players ever to homer in 4 consecutive post-season games. His 5 homers tie the major league record for home runs in a playoff series, along with Seattle's Ken Griffey, Jr. (1995 A.L. Division Series) and the Yankees' Reggie Jackson (1977 World Series).

Bobby Witt becomes the 1st Texas starter not to last 6 innings, allowing 3 runs in just 3.1 ip. The Rangers tie a post-season record by using 8 pitchers in the game. Roger Pavlik allows a Bernie Williams homer in the 5th and an rbi single by Cecil Fielder with 2 out in the 7th to take the loss in relief. David Weathers throws 3 scoreless innings to win in relief for the Yankees. John Wetteland strikes out Dean Palmer with runners on 1st and 2nd to end the game before 50,066 at The Ballpark in Arlington.

POST-SEASON

HALL OF FAME GAME SUCCESS

The Rangers remained undefeated in the Hall of Fame Classic, the annual exhibition game held at Doubleday Field the Monday following Hall of Fame Induction Ceremonies. Participating in the contest for the fourth time in team history, the Rangers defeated the Kansas City Royals, 1-9, on July 26 in Cooperstown, New York.

Despite the game being called after 8.0 innings due to rain, the Rangers totaled seven home runs in the contest, including two by game MVP Jason Grabowski, who joined the major league club for the exhibition. The two clubs combined to hit 10 home runs, tying a Hall of Fame Game record for most home runs in the classic. Another minor league leaguer, left-handed pitcher Juan Moreno, pitched 2.1 shutout innings in relief for the win. Ranger catcher Gregg Zaun provided the game's most memorable moment, stepping out of the batter's box in an at bat against Kansas City pitcher Jeff Austin to "call his shot" to the right field bleachers. On the next pitch, Zaun homered into the rightfield seats.

Texas is 4-0 in Hall of Fame Classics, having previously won the contest in 1986, 1979 and 1973.

NINE PLAYER TRADE EQUALS THIRD LARGEST

On November 2, 1999, the Texas Rangers and Detroit Tigers completed a nine-player trade with the Rangers receiving Frank Catalanotto, Francisco Cordero, Bill Haselman, Gabe Kapler, Justin Thompson and Alan Webb in exchange for Juan Gonzalez, Danny Patterson and Gregg Zaun.

The transaction equaled the third largest in franchise history. On December 18, 1980, the Rangers sent Brian Allard, Rick Auerbach, Ken Clay, Jerry Finch, Jerry Don Gleanon and Richie Zisk to Seattle for Larry Cox, Rick Honeycutt, Willie Horton, Mario Mendoza and Leon Roberts.

On January 10, 1978, Texas received Mike Heath, Sparky Lyle, Larry McCall, Dave Rajsich and Domingo Ramos from the New York Yankees in exchange for Juan Beniquez, Mike Griffin, Greg Jemison, Paul Mirabella and Dave Righetti in a ten-player deal.

In 1988, the team also made a nine-player trade sending Luis Benitez, Pablo Delgado, Paul Kilgus, Mitch Williams, Steve Wilson and Curtis Wilkerson to the Chicago Cubs on December 5 in exchange for Drew Hall, Jamie Moyer and Rafael Palmeiro.

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

Oddibe McDowell is the only player in Rangers' history to hit for the cycle (single, double, triple, and home run in same game), accomplishing that feat on July 23, 1985 against Cleveland at Arlington Stadium. McDowell doubled in the 1st inning, singled in the 3rd, and tripled in the 4th off starter Neal Heaton, added another single in the 6th off Jeff Barkley, then achieved the milestone with a solo homer off Tom Waddell with 2 out in the 8th.

Five opponents have hit for the cycle against the Rangers:

In addition, Texas was just the 7th team to have a trio with both 200 hits and 100 runs scored in a year.

HISTORIC HOMER

On June 30, 1997, at Dodger Stadium, Texas pitcher Bobby Witt belted a solo home run off Ismael Valdes in the sixth inning of a 3-2 Rangers win. It was the first homer by an American League pitcher in a regular season game since Baltimore's Roric Harrison went deep on October 3, 1972 (1st game) at Cleveland. In Game 4 of the 1974 World Series, Oakland's Ken Holtzman homered against the Dodgers. Witt hit the first home run by a Rangers pitcher since the franchise moved to Texas in 1972. The most recent homer by a pitcher in the franchise had been by Pete Broberg of the Washington Senators on September 19, 1971 vs. Boston at RFK Stadium.

RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

RANGERS' RETIRED UNIFORM — NUMBER 34

The first uniform number to be retired in Texas Rangers history was the number 34 worn by pitcher Nolan Ryan from 1989-93. The team held a retirement ceremony on Sunday, September 15, 1996, before the Rangers played the Milwaukee Brewers before a sellout crowd of 45,941 at The Ballpark in Arlington.

Ryan signed with Texas as a free agent on December 7, 1988. He went on to finish his career in Arlington as baseball's all-time strikeout leader with 5,714. Among the feats he accomplished with the Rangers were his 300th victory (July 31, 1990 at Milwaukee); his 5,000th strikeout (Oakland's Rickey Henderson on August 22, 1989 at Arlington Stadium); his sixth no-hitter (June 11, 1990 at Oakland); and his seventh no-hitter (April 26, 1990 vs. Toronto at Arlington Stadium). He was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility on January 5, 1999 and was enshrined into the Hall on July 25, 1999.

The seven-time All-Star was honored on Nolan Ryan Appreciation Day at Arlington Stadium on Sunday, September 12, 1993. His final major league appearance was September 22 at Seattle. He is the only player in major league history to have his number retired by three different teams (also California—1993 and Houston—1996).

BASEBALL'S RETIRED UNIFORM — NUMBER 42

On April 15, 1997, Major League Baseball retired the number 42 worn by Hall of Famer Jackie Robinson, the first African-American player in the major leagues. That date marked the 50th anniversary of Robinson's major league debut with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947.

The Rangers held a retirement ceremony for the number 42 prior to a game with the Los Angeles Dodgers on September 2, 1997 at The Ballpark in Arlington. Six players and three coaches had worn the number 42 for Texas. In 1997, outfielder Marc Sagmoen switched to number 37 on April 16 in recognition of the retirement of 42.

The complete list of "42s" for the Rangers: Nellie Fox, coach (1972); Jackie Moore, coach (1973-76; 1993-94); George Medich, pitcher (1978-79); Wayne Terwilliger, coach (1981-85); Keith Creel, pitcher (1987); Scott Coolbaugh, third baseman (1989-90); Dan Smith, pitcher (1992); Dennis Cook, pitcher (1995-96); Marc Sagmoen, outfielder (1997).

On Aug. 31, '88 vs. Minnesota, he retired the side in order in the 9th inning with a strikeout in the Rangers' 10-1 loss. He also pitched vs. the Twins on May 20, '89, allowing 4 hits and 4 runs in 1.2 ip, including a 3-run homer to Randy Bush in a 19-3 loss. DH Jose Canseco pitched the 8th inning in a 15-1 loss at Boston on May 29, 1993, issuing 3 runs on 2 hits with 3 walks in a 33-pitch inning.

Scott Sheldon faced one batter while becoming the 3rd player in major league history to play all 9 positions in one game on Sept. 6, 2000 at Chicago's Comiskey Park. He struck out Jeff Liefer in the 8th inning.

TRIPLE PLAYS

BY RANGERS (4)

August 8, 1977 vs. Oakland at Texas: With Roger Moret pitching, Mitchell Page and Rich McKinney walked to open the fifth inning. Manny Sanguillen hit a grounder to third baseman Toby Harrah, who stepped on third to force Page, threw to second baseman Bump Wills, who forced McKinney, and threw to first baseman Mike Hargrove to get Sanguillen. The Rangers won, 3-0.

June 17, 1999 at New York: With Aaron Sele pitching, Tino Martinez and Paul O'Neill each singled to start the inning, giving New York runners at first and second base with no outs. Chili Davis hit a liner to second baseman Mark McLemore, who flipped the ball to shortstop Royce Clayton to double off Martinez at second. Clayton threw the ball to first baseman Lee Stevens to triple-off Paul O'Neill as both runners were moving on contact. The Rangers won, 4-2.

August 5, 2001 at Boston: With Rob Bell pitching, Brian Daubach led off bottom of fourth inning with a walk and advanced to second on Chris Stynes' single. Scott Hatteberg lines out to shortstop Alex Rodriguez, who throws to second baseman Randy Velarde to double up Daubach at second. Velarde then tags Stynes to complete the triple play. Boston won, 10-7.

April 14, 2002 vs. Seattle at Texas: With Kenny Rogers pitching, Ruben Sierra doubled to lead off the top of the 4th inning and John Olerud followed with an infield single, advancing Sierra to 3rd. Ron Wright, in just his 2nd major league at bat, hit a ground ball back to Rogers, who threw to shortstop Alex Rodriguez to force Olerud at 2nd base. Sierra was then caught in a rundown between 3rd and home, Alex Rodriguez to catcher Ivan Rodriguez to 3rd baseman Hank Blalock to Rogers, who applied the tag. Rogers then threw to second baseman Michael Young, who tagged out Wright attempting to advance to 2nd base to complete the triple play. Seattle won the game, 9-7.

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the 1-6-2-5-1-4 triple play was the most touches (people handling the ball) on a triple play in the majors since August 29, 1969, when Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs hit into a 3-6-5-1-4-7 TP vs. Atlanta. The 6 Braves participating in order were Orlando Cepeda, Gil Garrido, Clete Boyer, Pat Jarvis, Felix Milan, and Rico Carty.

BY OPPOSITION (6)

August 13, 1972 vs. Kansas City at Texas: With Dick Drago pitching, the Rangers had Dick Bosman on second and Elliott Maddox on first in the bottom of the third inning. Toby Harrah hit a chop in front of the plate, and catcher Ed Kirkpatrick threw to third baseman Paul Schaal to force Bosman. Schaal then relayed to second baseman Cookie Rojas, covering first, to get Harrah. When Maddox tried to go from first to third on the play, he was thrown out at third on Rojas' return throw to Schaal. The Rangers won, 13-4.

June 10, 1979 at Baltimore: With Dennis Martinez pitching, the Rangers had Pat Putnam on first and Al Oliver on second in the top of the sixth inning. With runners going on the pitch, Buddy Bell hit a line drive to third baseman Doug DeCinces, who threw to second baseman Rich Dauer to double off Oliver. Dauer then relayed to first baseman Eddie Murray to get Putnam and complete the triple play. Baltimore won, 5-4.

June 23, 1979 at Oakland: With Craig Minetto pitching, the Rangers had Billy Sample on first and Oscar Gamble on second in the top of the fourth inning. John Grubb hit a soft liner to third baseman Wayne Gross, who was ruled to have made the catch by umpire Bill Kunkel. However, Rangers third base coach Frank Lucchesi, thinking the ball had been trapped, waved the runners for first and second. Gross, attempting to double Gamble off second, threw the ball into centerfield, but centerfielder Tony Armas retrieved the ball and threw to shortstop Dave Chalk in time to double Gamble off second. Armas then took the ball from Chalk and ran over to first base to catch Sample off the bag for the third out. Armas had an assist and putout on the triple play. The Rangers won, 8-5.

July 28, 1979 vs. Boston at Texas: With Dennis Eckersley pitching, the Rangers had Buddy Bell on first and John Grubb on third in the bottom of the first inning. Al Oliver hit a sinking liner towards right, and both runners, thinking the ball would drop, started to advance. However, second baseman Jack Brohamer made a diving catch and threw to first baseman Bob Watson to double Bell off first. Watson then relayed to third baseman Butch Hobson, who stepped on third to get Grubb and complete the triple play. Boston won, 1-0.

May 22, 1981 at Seattle: With Jerry Don Gleaton pitching, John Grubb and Pat Putnam walked to lead off the eighth inning. With both runners going on the pitch, Mario Mendoza hit a line drive to shortstop Rick Auerbach, who stepped on second to double off Grubb. Auerbach then threw to first baseman Bruce Bochte to catch Putnam for the third out. The Rangers won, 6-2.

June 1, 1991 vs. Seattle at Texas: With Randy Johnson pitching, Mario Diaz and Gary Pettis walked to lead off the second inning. Brian Downing hit a grounder to third baseman Edgar Martinez, who stepped on third to force Diaz, then threw to second baseman Harold Reynolds to force Pettis. Reynolds made the relay to first baseman Pete O'Brien to get Downing. Seattle won, 12-8.

PASSED BALLS

In 2001, Texas catchers committed just two passed balls, tying 1999 for the fewest in franchise history. Two passed balls in a season marked the fewest in the majors by one club since San Diego permitted two passed balls in 1992.

The Rangers set a single season major league record by committing 73 passed balls in 1987, surpassing the old mark of 49 by the 1959 Baltimore Orioles. Of the 73, 65 came with CHARLIE HOUGH on the mound, 46 in his final 21 starts and 25 in his last 11 outings. GENO PETRALLI had 35 total passed balls (32 with Hough on the mound), three more than the previous major league record accomplished by J.C. MARTIN of the Chicago White Sox in 1965. DON SLAUGHT had 20 (17 catching Hough), and MIKE STANLEY committed 18 (16 with Hough) as that trio comprised the A.L.'s top three catchers in passed balls. All three broke the Rangers' record for passed balls for an individual catcher, set by JIM SUNDBERG in 1980 (17). The Rangers had three passed balls in a game four times, four and five twice each, and six once. Petralli's six passed balls on August 30 at Detroit tied the major league record for one game set by HARRY VICKERS of the Cincinnati Reds on October 4, 1902. Geno also had four passed balls in the seventh inning on August 22 versus Chicago, matching the big league mark established by RAY KATT of the New York Giants on September 10, 1954.

PALMEIRO FIRST RANGER TO WIN OUTSTANDING DESIGNATED HITTER

Rafael Palmeiro won the Outstanding Designated Hitter award in 1999, the first Texas Rangers player to ever win the award, which has been presented annually since 1973. He also became the first player in the history of the award to be named the Outstanding Designated Hitter in the same season to win a Gold Glove, capturing the latter award for his efforts at first base. It also marked the first outstanding DH award for Palmeiro.

In 1999, Palmeiro led DH's with 100 or more at bats in home runs (37), rbi (115), and slugging percentage (.620). His 37 homers were the most ever for a DH, surpassing the mark of 35 set by Oakland's Dave Kingman in both 1984 and 1986. In 128 games at DH, Palmeiro hit .321 (147-458) with 24 doubles, one triple and 75 runs scored. The four-time All-Star had a .420 on-base percentage and was tops among all DH's with 284 total bases and six sacrifice flies.

*Started

In 1972 infielder Toby Harrah was named to the squad as a replacement for injured Luis Aparicio, but Harrah was injured and replaced by Bobby Grich.

NOTES: Alex Rodriguez was elected as the A.L.'s All-Star starting shortstop for the third consecutive year and fifth time in the last six seasons (replaced due to injury in 2000). Rodriguez played the first five innings at short and struck out in both of his plate appearances in the July 9 game at Milwaukee, an 11-inning 7-7 tie. Rodriguez has fanned in each of his last four All-Star at bats since homering in 1998 at Colorado.

Ivan Rodriguez, who was injured for much of the first half of 2002, finished second in the balloting at catcher behind New York's Jorge Posada and missed his first midsummer classic since 1991. He had started nine straight All-Star Games beginning 1992, tying Johnny Bench for the most consecutive catching starts in All-Star history and the third most overall ever for a backstop.

In addition to Alex and Ivan Rodriguez, the Rangers have had five other elected All-Star starters: outfielder Jeff Burroughs in 1974, shortstop Toby Harrah in 1976, outfielder Richie Zisk in 1978, 2nd baseman Julio Franco in 1989, and outfielder Juan Gonzalez in 1998. In addition, Ruben Sierra started in the outfield in 1989 and Rafael Palmeiro was the starting designated hitter in 1999, both in the lineup due to injuries by Jose Canseco. Kevin Brown is the only Ranger pitcher to ever start an All-Star Game, winning the 1992 game, and Nolan Ryan became the oldest All-Star winner ever with his victory in relief in 1989. John Wetteland owns the lone All-Star save by a Ranger, in 1999. The only Rangers rookies to ever make the All-Star team are catcher Jim Sundberg in 1974 and pitcher Jeff Zimmerman in 1999.

Five Texas managers have served as All-Star coaches: Whitey Herzog in 1973, Billy Martin in 1975, Pat Corrales in 1979, Bobby Valentine in 1988, and Johnny Oates in 1995 and 1997.

ROBERT (BOBBY) OLIVER JONES

OKLAHOMA REDHAWKS MANAGER

 Resides: Tulsa, OK; Married: Debbie.

Bobby Jones returns to Oklahoma City in 2003 for a second straight year at the helm for the RedHawks. Despite losing several players to the big league club and injuries in 2002, Jones skipped the club to the playoffs. He also managed the franchise in 1993-94. Jones is in his 16th season as a coach or manager in the Texas organization, including spending the 2001 campaign as a coach on the big league staff. In 14+ seasons as a Rangers minor league manager, has compiled an 907-935 record, the most games and victories in organization history. With a 486-511 record at the helm with Tulsa, Jones has most wins of any skipper in Drillers franchise history.

Bobby began his managerial career in 1988 after a 21-year playing career. His teams have reached the playoffs in seven of his 14 full seasons as manager. Jones guided Charlotte of the Florida State League to the FSL Championship in his second managerial season in 1989. He has also advanced teams to the playoffs three times in his last four full seasons as a manager, including winning the Texas League title in 1998.

Jones appeared in 314 major league games in parts of nine seasons from 1974-86, playing with Texas and California as an outfielder. He owns a career major league average of .221 with 20 homers and also holds the Rangers' career record with 42 pinch-hits. He also played for the Chunichi Dragons of the Japanese League in 1979 and 1980.

Bobby graduated from Elkton (MD) High School in 1967. He served 14 months in Vietnam from December of 1969 to February of 1971 and is deaf in his right ear as a result of being section chief in a 105 millimeter howitzer group. Bobby married the former Deborah Hogue on Nov. 11, 1994.

Andy begins his third season as a pitching coach in the Rangers' system, his first with Clinton. He spent the last two seasons with Savannah of the South Atlantic League, his only other campaigns as a coach on the pro level. The major league veteran played 10 seasons with three different organizations from 1982-1991. Andy was taken by the Padres as the fifth overall selection in the 1978 June draft. LEE TUNNELL

PITCHING COORDINATOR

Lee returns to the Texas organization for his seventh consecutive season, first as Rangers' pitching coordinator. He spent the last three seasons as the pitching coach with Oklahoma. Lee joined the Rangers in 1997, making his professional coaching debut at Pulaski. In 1998, Tunnell served as the pitching coach at Charlotte, earning a promotion to Tulsa to serve as pitching coach for the Drillers the following year.

Lee pitched six seasons in the major leagues with Pittsburgh (1982-85), St. Louis (1987) and Minnesota (1989). He was 22-28 with one save and a 4.23 era in 132 career games/66 starts, making two relief appearances for the Cardinals in the 1987 World Series. Lee played in Japan from 1991-93 and pitched for the Colorado organization (New Haven and Colorado Springs) in 1994 and with the Detroit organization (Toledo and Mexico City) in 1995. Originally a second round selection in the 1981 June draft, Tunnell played three years at Baylor University in Waco, TX. He also attended Liberty College in Lynchburg, VA.

Lee, 42, resides in Round Rock, TX with his wife, Bea, and four children. He also owns a television production company in Austin.

RALPH DICKENSON

HITTING COORDINATOR

Ralph joins the Texas organization as the club's organizational hitting coordinator. Prior to coming to Texas, Ralph was the hitting coordinator for the Montreal Expos organization in 2002 and Los Angeles Dodgers in 2001. Dickenson spent eight seasons in the Milwaukee Brewers organization from 1992-2000, where he was a minor league manager (1992-94), hitting coordinator (1995-96), field and hitting coordinator (1997) and field coordinator (1998-00). Ralph first coached professionally from 1988-92 as a minor league manager and hitting coordinator in the Seattle organization. Dickenson also coached collegiately at New Mexico, Washington State and Western Washington University.

Ralph played at Mesa Junior College and Arizona State University before being drafted by the Minnesota Twins organization in 1969, where he played in parts of 5 seasons (1969-74). Ralph and his wife Pat have four children: David, Elizabeth, Rich and Scott. They reside in Gilbert, AZ.

GREG RIDDOCH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Greg was named defensive coordinator for the Texas Rangers in December. Prior to joining Texas, Greg was Director of Player Development in 2000-01 for the Milwaukee Brewers and led the Brewers Minor League system. Riddoch was in uniform as the third base coach for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in 1998-99 and managed the San Diego Padres from 1990-92. He also worked in San Diego's baseball operations department as the Associate Director of Player Development and Scouting as well as the Director of Instruction and Minor League Field Coordinator in 1986. Riddoch has been in professional baseball since 1967 when he was a minor league player in the Cincinnati Reds organization. He played through 1971 when he retired to become a junior high school teacher. Riddoch also worked for the Reds organization, where he was a Minor League manager from 1973-81. He then became scouting supervisor in Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska and Wyoming from 1981-83. After spending two seasons as the Assistant Director of Player Development and Scouting for the Reds, he became the Director of Player Development in 1985.

Riddoch, 58, has a Masters Degree in Educational Administration from Colorado State University, and was inducted to the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 1999. Greg resides in Estes Park, Colorado with his wife Linda. The couple has two sons, Rory and Raleigh, and a grandson, Avery.

JIM SUNDBERG

CATCHING COORDINATOR

Jim begins his second season as the Rangers' catching coordinator. He returned to baseball in 2002 when he coordinated several community programs for the Frisco RoughRiders. Jim retired at the end of the 1989 season following a 16-year major league career with the Rangers, Milwaukee, Kansas City and the Chicago Cubs. One of the top defensive catchers in major league history, Sundberg won six Gold Glove Awards and was a three-time American League All-Star. Sundberg spent 11 1/2 seasons with the Rangers and still ranks among the club's all-time leaders in games (1st, 1512), at-bats (4th, 4684), hits (5th, 1180) and triples (2nd, 27). Jim was a member of the 1985 World Champion Kansas City Royals, scoring the winning run with a head-first slide in the Royals' memorable Game 6 win over St. Louis. He spent just one season in the minor leagues during his entire playing career, with Pittsfield in 1973. Jim was an All-American at the University of Iowa in 1972, leading the Hawkeyes to the Big 10 championship and their lone College World Series appearance. After making tremendous efforts in the community during his playing days, the Rangers placed Jim's name on their community service award beginning in 1989. Jim has most recently started companies manufacturing sports training products and conducting motivational speeches. He co-wrote the book How to Win at Sports Parenting with his wife. Jim also was the analyst on Rangers' television games from 1990-95.

Jim married the former Janet Naugle on July 3, 1970. The couple has three children, Aaron James (2/12/72), Audra Janette (7/17/76) and Briana Nicole (4/8/83).

RANGERS' TELEVISION AND RADIO INFORMATION

TELEVISION

Fox Sports Net is in its fourth season as the rightsholder for all Texas Rangers telecasts. Fox Sports Net signed a 15-year agreement with the Southwest Sports Group for the Rangers cable television rights in September, 1999 and a 10-year deal with SSG for the over-the-air broadcast rights in March, 2000.

The Rangers will have 75 over-the-air local telecasts on the 2002 schedule, 10 on KDFW FOX 4 and 65 on its sister station kdfi27. Fox Sports Net will carry 80 games on regional cable and satellite television. Fox Sports Net also syndicates a package of select Rangers games to television and cable television systems in outer markets.

Production facilities for all Rangers home games and a number of away telecasts are provided by Lone Star Mobile Television Partners, a production company owned and operated by Southwest Sports Group, Fox sports Net, and Colorado Studios.

Nationally, the Rangers have two scheduled appearances on Saturday's Fox Game of the Week and will be seen twice in the first half of the season on ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball package.

JOSH LEWIN

JOSH LEWIN begins his second season as the television play-by-play announcer for the Texas Rangers. Lewin will be in the booth for 140-145 Rangers' telecasts while continuing to be involved with working regional games for the Fox Saturday Baseball Game of the Week. Josh spent the previous four seasons calling Detroit Tigers games on Fox Sport Net Detroit. Prior to that, he was a member of the Chicago Cubs WGN-TV broadcast team in 1997 and did radio games for the Baltimore Orioles in 1995 and 1996. He has been a part of Fox' Saturday national baseball coverage since 1996 and announced games for Fox Sports Net's Baseball Thursday package from 1998-2001. He has worked numerous other events for Fox and Fox Sports Net, including National Football League and National Hockey League regional telecasts, Conference USA football games, CCHA hockey contests, and college basketball telecasts. Josh was also the radio voice of Michigan State University basketball for the 2000-2001 season. He filled in on Dallas Stars broadcasts in the 2001-02 season after Ralph Strangis was injured in an auto accident and broadcast radio games for Southern Methodist University's men's basketball team this past off-season. Lewin began his broadcasting career at the age of 16 with the Rochester Red Wings, Baltimore's class AAA farm club in the International League. During his stint in Baltimore, he was also Sports Director of the Orioles' flagship station, WBAL Radio. Lewin was named Rochester's Sportscaster of the Year in 1993 and was the 2000 recipient of the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association's Ty Tyson Award as the region's top sports broadcaster. A 1990 graduate of Northwestern University, Josh, his wife, Dana, and their two children, daughter Kelsey and son Coby, reside in Southlake.

TOM GRIEVE

TOM GRIEVE is in his ninth season as the analyst in the Rangers' television booth. Grieve debuted on Prime Sports broadcasts in 1995. He was the Rangers' Vice President and General Manager from September, 1984-September, 1994 and has been with the Washington/Texas franchise for nearly 34 of his 35 years in professional baseball. Grieve was the Senators' first round pick in the October, 1966 free agent draft after an outstanding high school career in his hometown of Pittsfield, Massachusetts. He played in the majors with the Senators, Rangers, Mets, and Cardinals from 1970-79 and had a major league career average of .249 with 65 homers and 254 rbi in 670 games. Grieve was the Rangers' player of the year in 1976 with career bests of 20 homers and 81 rbi. He joined the Rangers' front office as director of group sales in 1980, became assistant director of player development in 1981, and was promoted to director of player development after the 1982 season. Tom and his wife, Kathy, have three children, all accomplished athletes. Tim (31) pitched in the Kansas City and Arizona organizations and is now a Texas scout for the Detroit Tigers. Ben (27) is an outfielder with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays and was the American League's 1998 Rookie of the Year with the Oakland A's. Ben was the second pick in the nation in the 1994 June draft. THE BALLPARK IN ARLINGTON - FACTS & FIGURES

On April 1, 1994, a new era for the Texas Rangers began with the opening of The Ballpark in Arlington. The beautiful baseball-only facility serves as the centerpiece of a 270-acre complex which solidifies Arlington, Texas as an entertainment giant in the Southwest.

The Ballpark in Arlington, completed in just 23 months, is a state-of-the-art building with the utmost in customer convenience. Yet, the 49,115-seat open-air ballpark was designed and built with tradition and intimacy in mind, containing features such as a granite and brick facade, exposed structural steel, an asymmetrical playing field, and a home run porch in right field. Texas architecture is featured throughout, from the outer facade to the Lone Stars in the concourses and on the seat aisles.

This unique complex also includes a baseball museum, a children's learning center, and a four-story office building within the ballpark and a youth baseball park, a 12-acre lake, and parks and recreation space on the perimeter. Total cost of the project was approximately 191 million dollars.

LOCATION

The Ballpark in Arlington is located a quarter mile southeast of the old Arlington Stadium site at the corner of Randol Mill Road and Ballpark Way (formerly Stadium Drive). Parking lots and the other complex features surround the park. The Ballpark in Arlington and the entire complex is easily accessible from Interstate 30, which is adjacent to the north side of the site. Nolan Ryan Expressway, constructed in honor of baseball's all-time strikeout king, runs north to south on the west side of the ballpark and serves as a major access road through the complex.

SIZE

The Ballpark in Arlington contains approximately 1,400,000 square feet. The Ballpark measures 114 feet from street level to the top of the roof canopy.

BRIEF HISTORY

The agreement between the Rangers and the City of Arlington, Texas to build a new ballpark was announced on October 24, 1990. Actual construction began on April 24, 1992. The ballpark was named on September 28, 1993. The first game was an exhibition contest between the Rangers and New York Mets on April 1, 1994 with the first regular season game played on April 11, 1994 between the Rangers and Milwaukee Brewers.

PLAYING FIELD

Natural Grass: The playing surface of The Ballpark in Arlington consists of Bermuda Tif Sport. The turf was grown at Thomas Brothers Grass in San Antonio and was laid in strips in October, 2000. Drainage lines are laid every 15 feet over the entire field. The playing surface is then covered by 4-5 inches of pea gravel and 14-15 inches of sand mixture as the field has the capacity to drain 9-10 inches of water per hour. The field's irrigation system allows the entire outfield to be watered from one station, producing 750 gallons per minute or 50,000 gallons per hour, as compared to 18,000 gallons per hour in Arlington Stadium. The tarp for the field is mounted on a hydraulic lift and is stored below ground down the left field line, preventing any sight problems.

Field Dimensions: As indicated above, the outfield dimensions are asymmetrical, a feature common to ballparks constructed in the early 20th century. From home plate to the left field foul pole is 332 feet with an increase to 390 feet in the left field power alley. Straightaway center field measures 400 feet, then moves to the deepest point, 407 feet, approaching right center. The Rangers' bullpen comes into play in right field as a 381-foot power alley juts out to 377 feet at the right corner of the bullpen. There is again a dramatic decrease in distance in the right field corner as the foul pole sits just 325 feet from home plate.

The outfield fences are eight feet in center and right fields and 14 feet in left. The playing surface is 22 feet below street level.

According to studies done before construction, the prevailing winds are south-southeast. The effect of the wind is greatly reduced by the fact that the ballpark is completely enclosed by a four-story office building in center field. In addition, a giant windscreen, measuring 42 by 430 feet, was installed on the roof of the office building to further minimize the wind.

Close To The Field: The proximity of the fans to the action is among the closest in the major leagues. The first row of seats on the first and third base sides (near side of dugouts) are just 56'8" from home plate (compared to 64 feet at Arlington Stadium) while the first row of seats on each side (far sides of dugouts) is just 44 feet from first and third bases, respectively. The distance from the screen behind the plate to home plate is 60 feet, and the first row of seats in the left and right field corners is 9'5" from the foul poles.

Dugouts/Bullpens: Both the first (home) and third (visitors) base dugouts are 68 feet in length. Dugouts at Arlington Stadium were 51 feet on the 1st base side and 52 feet on the 3rd base side. The Rangers' bullpen is parallel to the playing field in right center in front of the home run porch. The visitors' bullpen is located between the left field reserve and bleacher sections in left center field. Both bullpens are five feet above the playing field level for easy identification of pitchers warming up.

Foul Poles: The yellow foul poles down each line were taken from Arlington Stadium.

SEATING

The overall seating capacity of The Ballpark in Arlington is 49,115 seats on five levels. All of the seats in the ballpark are angled towards home plate as the seating bowl cranks in towards the field down both the left and right field lines to provide better sightlines.

The actual seats are green plastic chairs measuring from 18-22 inches in width. Most of the seats in the ballpark contain cupholders. There is a special feature on aisle seats in the park, a Texas Lone Star that is similar to the ones that adorn both the outer facade and concourses.

There are five levels of seating at The Ballpark: lower deck, lower suites, club level, upper suites, and upper deck. There is also an upper and lower deck in the home run porch in right field, and bleacher seating in center field.

Club Level: This is a premium seating area with wider seats (22"). The club level, with its white paneling and black and white tiled floors, stretches around the entire length of the seating bowl with direct access to both the lower and upper suite levels. There are numerous food and beverage establishments on this level open only to club level patrons and suite holders.

Suites: There are 120 suites, 48 on the lower level and 72 on the upper level, with sizes ranging from 8 to 22 seats. Each suite bay (containing two suites) is named for one of baseball's all-time star players. All 67 of the legends are enshrined in Baseball's Hall of Fame, including Nolan Ryan. Sepiatone murals of the legends are located outside each suite.

There is one large function suite location on both the lower and upper levels. These areas can be subdivided for smaller groups as well.

Home Run Porch: This two-tiered seating area in right field is very reminiscent of traditional older ballparks with its steel columns and overhead roof. Overhead fans were installed for both the lower and upper home run porch to provide more comfort. Another unique feature is a small section of seats located in the right field corner, where the fans actually view the playing field through an opening in the outfield fence.

Bleachers: The bleacher seating is located on either side of the batters' eye in center field. The bleacher seats are comprised of some of the actual bench seating from the general admission areas in Arlington Stadium.

Wheelchair Seating: There are in excess of 475 spaces for wheelchairs in The Ballpark in Arlington, and they are located throughout the ballpark in all seating areas. In addition, spaces are included to allow fans in wheelchairs to sit with friends or family members. There is also access to specially designed restrooms, ticket windows, and concession stands.

CONSTRUCTION

The interior of the ballpark consists of four levels:

Service Level: A below ground service level extends from the right field corner to the end of the left field seats. It houses the clubhouses, maintenance, and concession storage areas while providing vehicle access to the field in the left field corner. In addition to the Rangers' and visitors' clubhouses, there are weight rooms and batting tunnels for both teams. An auxiliary clubhouse area was also constructed for special events.

Main Concourse: The massive main concourse, serving the lower deck, is comprised of two areas. The outer concourse, measuring 70 feet high, runs in a square around the park and contains the entrance gates and ramps to the upper levels. Iron gates were used to close the lower arches. An inner concourse, measuring 35 feet high, runs in the shape of the seating bowl and contains the concessions and entries to the lower deck seating. The white walls and green structural steel trusses with Texas Lone Stars provide a spectacular background.

Club Concourse: As mentioned above, the club concourse stretches around the lower seating bowl and provides direct access to the lower and upper suite levels.

Upper Concourse: The open-air upper concourse runs from the right field line to the left field side of the office building and provides access to the upper deck. Concession stands are under cover in areas under the upper deck seating. Huge baseball-shaped light fixtures ring the perimeter of the upper concourse. The average slope of the upper deck is approximately 32 degrees. Red handrails are also installed throughout the upper deck.

Structure: A lower and upper set of concrete arches comprise the outer walls of The Ballpark in Arlington. The exterior facade of the ballpark consists of "Sunset Red" granite from quarries in Marble Falls, Texas, along the lower arches and approximately 840,000 "Ranger Red" bricks on the upper arches. To highlight the Texas architecture, there are 35 steer heads and 21 Lone Stars, made of cast-stone, erected above the upper arches around the entire ballpark. Another feature is a series of murals depicting Texas scenes, and those are located between the lower and upper arches on the outer facade.

The structural type above grade in The Ballpark in Arlington is exposed structural steel, painted "Ranger Green". The lower deck seating is cast-in-place concrete, and the club and upper deck seating are structural pre-cast concrete risers. A steel roof canopy runs the entire length of the upper deck.

Access: The entrances to The Ballpark in Arlington are located in the four corners of the structure, First Base, Home Plate, Third Base, and Center Field. Four ramps and eight escalators serve all levels.

SCOREBOARDS

The scoreboard system in The Ballpark in Arlington provides fans with an incredible amount of information to add to their enjoyment of the game. The system includes the following:

- Main scoreboard on roof of home run porch in right field. The board includes a full color Sony JumboTRON video board, measuring 24 by 32 feet which will provide high quality video highlights and animation. The right field scoreboard area also contains a 16'8" by 72' game-in-progress board, and four advertising panels measuring 24' by 16'8". That board is framed in a steel structure with a lone star at the top.

- Black and white matrix message board, measuring 27 by 29 feet is located on roof of office building in straightaway center field. This board provides statistical and other general information. Two 27' by 13'1" ad panels flank that board.

- Manual scoreboard, where scores of all other major league games in progress are posted inside the board by an attendant, who receives his information via a SportsTicker machine in the board. The manual scoreboard is located on the left field wall, measuring 10 by 90 feet, is similar to the one that highlights the left field "Green Monster" at Boston's Fenway Park.

- SportsTicker board, measuring 4'9" by 66', is located on upper wall under Diamond Club in left field. Up to the minute scoring updates from other major league games are posted on this board.

- Two auxiliary scoreboards, measuring 5'10" by 60' are mounted on the ballpark's facing below the lower suite level on the first and third base sides.

The game-in-progress board, center field message board, SportsTicker board, and auxiliary scoreboards were designed and manufactured by Daktronics, Inc. of Brookings, South Dakota. The equipment is operated by a network of control computers designed to produce the most comprehensive statistics package and animation.

CONCESSIONAIRE/FOOD AND BEVERAGE SERVICE

Sportservice Corporation handles the general food and beverage concessions for the ballpark as well as food and beverage service for the Diamond Club, private suites, and the press dining facility. Sportservice, which has its headquarters in Buffalo, New York, was awarded a ten-year contract on September 7, 1993.

There are a total of 75 fixed concession stands on the three concourses, compared to 40 total at Arlington Stadium. Beverages are dispensed to the concession stands by a central beverage distribution system which travels from the service level to the stands over some 30 miles of tubing.

The Diamond Club and Bullpen Grill are located in left field. This location seats approximately 500 on four tiers and has a spectacular view of the field from full length windows above the left field reserved seats. The Bullpen Grill is open for public dining before the game. The Diamond Club also contains space for meetings and other functions and is available on non-game days.

The Gold Club opened in 2000. The 7,500 square foot club is located on the mezzanine level between sections 122-130 behind home plate. Season ticket holders with Gold Club privileges can enjoy the game from this completely enclosed, air-conditioned area. The club, complete with full bar service, video monitors and food service, is open before, during and after each game. The lounge in front of the Gold Club consists of 72 soft-leather recliner seats. The seats are sold on a season ticket basis only.

In addition, a sports grill operated by T.G.I. Friday's was built behind the upper home run porch in right field. Friday's Front Row Grill is open year round and also affords a full view of the playing field.

AMENITIES

- Legends of the Game Baseball Museum, a 17,000 square foot exhibit of over 1,000 baseball artifacts from the 19th century to the present day. Included are over 135 items on loan from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, New York, the largest collection ever loaned by that organization. The Museum is located in The Ballpark in Arlington, behind the right field home run porch.

- A 225-seat auditorium and theater, located in the Legends of the Game Baseball Museum.
- Children's Learning Center, a 7,000 square foot area with numerous interactive exhibits for youngsters.
- Dr Pepper Youth Ballpark, a natural grass facility with seating for 650 in a grandstand designed in similar fashion to the The Ballpark in Arlington. Dimensions are for youth leagues and a variety of youth games and activities take place in the facility, which is located just north of the The Ballpark in Arlington.
- A 12-acre lake which was named for late Rangers broadcaster Mark Holtz in September, 1997, with adjoining park and recreational space. Linear park named for Arlington Mayor Richard Greene. Picnic area in the complex named after former Tarrant County Commissioner Punch Wright.
- Natural grass amphitheater located northwest of The Ballpark in Arlington.

OTHER FEATURES

Office Building: One of the signature features of The Ballpark in Arlington is the four-story office building that encloses the structure from left center to right center fields. The office building has 35,000 square feet on each level. The first floor includes retail shops and ticket windows, the second and third floors are leased for commercial office space, and the Rangers' executive offices occupy the fourth floor. The side of the building facing the playing field consists of floor to ceiling glass on each floor with balconies stretching the entire length of the structure on the top three levels. Steel trusses also adorn the building. The roof of the office building contains a total of eight ad panels around the center field scoreboard.

Parking: Nine different parking lots surround The Ballpark in Arlington. Each lot is letter-coded and is also named for a different Texas historical figure involved in the era of the Republic of Texas in the 1830's and 1840's.

Walk Of Fame: A brick walk, ranging from 18 to 70 feet in width rings the entire perimeter of The Ballpark in Arlington. The Rangers' Walk of Fame is divided into panels featuring each year the club has been in Texas (starting 1972) with the entire roster from each season included on bricks framing each panel. Each panel consists of 2,600 bricks. Fans are also able to purchase bricks for inscription in the year of their choice.

Sound System: There are over 1,200 speakers for the public address system at The Ballpark in Arlington. Those are distributed evenly throughout the park as no fan is more than 75 feet from a speaker. In Arlington Stadium, the speakers were all located in center field.

Greene's Hill: The natural grass batter's eye in centerfield was named for former Arlington Mayor Richard Greene in November, 1997.

Statues in Vandergriff Plaza: Two men who played enormous roles in the history of the Texas Rangers franchise are honored with full size bronze statues in Vandergriff Plaza. Statues of Tom Vandergriff and Nolan Ryan were dedicated in 1997. The statues were produced by noted sculptor Toby Mendez of Washington County, Maryland.

Coca-Cola Sports Park: The Coca-Cola Sports Park is a completely interactive experience that is located in Vandergriff Plaza. Featuring a wiffle ball park and two t-ball cages, games, activities and special events, the Sports Park provides family fun for kids of all ages.

COST

The revised cost of the overall project is approximately 191 million dollars. The financing was derived from 135 million dollars in bonds issued by the Arlington Sports Facilities Development Authority with the remaining equity raised through the sale or lease of luxury boxes and seat options in the new ballpark, loans guaranteed by the Rangers, the concessions contract with Sportservice and city street funds.

Annual debt service for the municipal bonds is provided by public-private sharing. That is comprised of a 3.5 million dollar rental payment from the Rangers and a one-half cent City of Arlington sales tax. The sales tax was approved in an Arlington municipal election by a 65% majority on January 19, 1991, and expires once the debt is retired.

The Rangers have a lease with the City of Arlington, and the club maintains and operates the entire facility.

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN TEAM

Design Architect: David M. Schwarz Architectural Services of Washington, D.C. was the design architect on the project. Schwarz was selected from among 17 architects who originally made presentations in August, 1991. He has been involved in a number of projects in Texas including the Bass Performance Hall, Cook-Fort Worth Children's Medical Center and Sundance West, also in Fort Worth. His imaginative design of the park reflects a traditional look of older ballparks and includes a major Texas influence.

Architect of Record: HKS, Inc. The Dallas-based firm, which was founded in 1939, has grown to become the fifth largest architectural firm in the country, and has executed commissions for over nine billion dollars of structures in 39 states and seven foreign countries.

HISTORY OF ARLINGTON STADIUM (1965-93)

Professional baseball has had a long and glorious history in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, but it was the construction of a stadium in Arlington, Texas that led to the region joining the major leagues.

Both Dallas and Fort Worth entered organized baseball in 1886 and were Texas League rivals for most of the next 72 years. The Dallas entry moved to a park in Oak Cliff in 1919, and remained at that site through several reconstruction efforts, becoming Burnett Field in 1948. Fort Worth's ballpark was built on the east side of Main St. in 1926, called LaGrave Field. It was rebuilt after a fire in 1949.

Burnett and LaGrave Fields were the sites of countless memorable games over the years, but major league baseball was the ultimate goal, and area leaders knew the two cities would have to join together to make this a reality. In 1959, both Dallas and Fort Worth left the Texas League and combined to put a franchise in the class AAA American Association. That year, plans for a park to serve both cities in Arlington were first advanced, when the co-owners of the area's American Association franchise, J.W. Bateson and Amon Carter, Jr. envisioned a team in the projected Continental League.

With that in mind, in the fall of 1959, the Texas Legislature authorized the formation of a Bi-County Sports Committee empowered to issue $9.5 million in revenue bonds for the construction of a major league stadium pending voter approval, which took place.

American League expansion a year later ended plans for the third major league, and delays for the new stadium occurred. The options on the stadium site in Arlington were permitted to expire. But the efforts of Arlington Mayor Tom Vandergriff, who had a key role in bringing the Washington Senators to Texas in the fall of 1971, brought the stadium project back to life. In April, 1964, Vandergriff, chairman of the Sports Committee, sponsored a Tarrant County bond election which authorized construction of the stadium and provided for purchase of the land by the county. The 137-acre tract was located just north of the former Arlington Downs race track and just south of the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike in what was known as the Great Southwest Industrial Development Complex.

Construction began in November, 1964, and despite weather delays, Turnpike Stadium was dedicated on April 23, 1965, when the Dallas-Fort Worth Spurs played their Texas League home opener. The 10,600-seat ballpark cost $1.5 million and was built as the nucleus of a major league stadium, designed for expanded seating capacity to as many 50,000-55,000 with bleachers and a second deck. Parking was provided for 2,500 cars with potential expansion to 10,000. The stadium was built in a natural bowl, with a playing surface 40 feet below the surrounding ground, which was projected at the time to save millions of dollars in excavation costs.

As the efforts to bring major league baseball to Arlington intensified, Vandergriff knew an expansion of Turnpike Stadium was vital to show the area's interest to prospective big league franchises. This became possible in early 1970, when the City of Arlington, with approval of its residents via an election, purchased the stadium from Tarrant County and began an expansion. Turnpike Stadium was enlarged to seat 21,000 for the 1971 Texas League season with an expansion of seats down the left and right field lines.

A dream was realized on September 22, 1971, when American League owners voted to transfer the Washington Senators franchise to Arlington, Texas for the 1972 season. That required further expansion to meet American League stadium capacity requirements. Bleacher and outfield seats were built from foul line to foul line, increasing capacity to 35,694. Other facilities were also upgraded, including additional field lighting, the building of new press facilities, and the construction of a 200 by 60 foot scoreboard behind the left field stands. That board was highlighted by a 60 by 60 foot area in the shape of the state of Texas. Field dimensions set for 1972 were: 330 feet down the left and right field lines, and 400 feet to straightaway center.

The ballpark was renamed Arlington Stadium, and after a players' strike cancelled the original April 6 opener, the Texas Rangers defeated the California Angels, 7-6, in the first major league regular season game ever in Arlington on April 21, 1972 before a crowd of 20,105. Arlington Stadium recorded its first capacity crowd on June 27, 1973, when Houston high school sensation and the nation's top draft pick, lefthander David Clyde made his professional debut for the Rangers, pitching five strong innings against Minnesota.

Arlington Stadium underwent numerous changes over the years. The Rangers' home clubhouse was located behind the centerfield seats through the 1972 season, when a new building was constructed behind first base. The seating was expanded to 41,284 after the 1977 season with the construction of the upper deck, known as the plaza.

A $12 million improvement took place prior to the opening of the 1984 campaign. A wall extending 30 feet above the top of the outfield bleachers was constructed from foul line to foul line, a distance of 1,100 feet, and featured state-of-the-art video and scoreboards. This wall drastically reduced the effects of the swirling crosswinds blowing into the park as home run production increased from 78 in 1983 to 125 in 1984.

In addition, 54 additional luxury suites were built on two levels, an auxiliary press box, dark rooms, a gift shop, and concession stands were added, and seating was expanded in the lower box seat areas to increase stadium capacity to 43,508. Some seat alterations in 1990 lifted Arlington Stadium to 43,521.

The Rangers assumed full authority over the stadium from the City of Arlington in August, 1983 and purchased the ballpark from the City in November, 1987.

The natural grass, open air stadium remained primarily a baseball-only facility over the years. The only regular non-baseball tenant was the University of Texas-Arlington, which played its football games at Arlington Stadium in 1972 and 1973.

When it finally closed its doors at the end of the 1993 season, Arlington Stadium had been the site of 1,750 A.L. games with nearly 32 million people in attendance for those contests. The demolition of Arlington Stadium was completed in the fall of 1994. The site is now used as parking for The Ballpark in Arlington.

RANGERS IN THE COMMUNITY

TEXAS RANGERS BASEBALL FOUNDATION

The Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation makes a difference to thousands in the community. Established in 1991, the Foundation is a non-profit organization that supports community endeavors in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex. Much of the Foundation's work is directed towards youth activities, through the building of youth baseball parks, by creating and maintaining a number of youth incentive programs, and by providing an extensive program to award college scholarships to area students.

The Foundation is funded by a number of Texas Rangers' special events and activities as well as corporate and personal contributions. To receive more information about the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation, please call (817) 273-5287.

MAJOR FOUNDATION PROGRAMS

Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation Scholarships: In continued support of the educational dreams of area students, the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation awarded eight students with college scholarships in 2002, bringing the total to 92 scholarships since the program began in 1992. Recipients may receive up to $2,000 per year for four years based on financial need. To be eligible, the student must be an employee, or child of an employee, of the Texas Rangers Baseball Club or Sportservice.

Texas Rangers / Wells Fargo Rookie League: The Texas Rangers/Wells Fargo Rookie League had its annual tournament at the Dr Pepper Youth Ballpark July 15 - July 27, 2002. More than 200 children made up 14 teams from elementary schools representing Arlington, Dallas, Grand Prairie and H-E-B. Founded in 1993, the Rookie League promotes self-confidence, self-discipline and self-esteem through participation in sports. The program also supports parental involvement in both educational and recreational aspects of children's lives. Wells Fargo has been instrumental in the development of the Rookie League by donating $40,000 annually to fund the program. As a result, all uniforms, bats, balls and gloves are provided to the teams, which consist of 15-20 students per team.

Texas Rangers Summer Academy: For the sixth straight year, 200 students were treated to a unique educational experience through the Texas Rangers Summer Academy. The Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation and the Fort Worth Independent School District funded the four-week program, which consists of 50 fifth grade students per week. Students are selected based on achievement and improvement in academics, attendance and citizenship. The Summer Academy utilizes not only baseball but also a number of different subjects. Programs are held at The Ballpark in Arlington, 150 Years Museum, Cattle Raisers' Museum, River Legacy Living Science Center, Sid Richardson Collection of Western Art and the University of Texas at Arlington. The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department also teach the students about Texas fish biology at the Mark Holtz Lake. Using Texas history as a theme, a group of experienced teachers developed a specially designed curriculum. The programs cover written communication, arts and crafts, nature/science, social studies and sports.

Texas Rangers Youth Ballparks: The Texas Rangers have built seven youth ballparks throughout the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex since 1993. Texas Rangers officials began the program in order to give back to the community for their support. In addition, the Youth Ballparks are a way to give children in lower socio-economic neighborhoods a place to play ball. The ballparks are the Texas Rangers Youth Ballpark (River Oaks), Texas Rangers Youth Ballpark (Dallas), Will Clark Texas Rangers Youth Ballpark (Fort Worth), Juan Gonzalez Texas Rangers Youth Ballpark (Oak Cliff), Ivan Rodriguez Texas Rangers Youth Ballpark (Forth Worth), the Johnny Oates Texas Rangers Youth Ballpark (West Dallas) and the Royce Clayton Texas Rangers Youth Ballpark (Lancaster). A Rusty Greer Youth Ballpark is currently in the planning stages in Frisco.

Richard Greene Scholars and Scholarships: Students in the Arlington School District (AISD) can qualify to receive the Richard Greene Scholarship. The club has pledged $1 million to fund the unique scholarship program, named for former Arlington Mayor Richard Greene, for 20 years. The program began in 1998. As part of the program, five juniors in AISD are named Richard Greene Scholars and are assigned a community mentor. The students meet with the mentor during their senior year and together they work on the skills necessary for the student to become an effective leader. To date, 25 outstanding students have been named Richard Greene Scholars.

Texas Rangers / Wells Fargo Teens on the Ball: The Texas Rangers Teens on the Ball program focuses on three components - college preparation, career exploration and volunteering. With support from Wells Fargo in the amount of $10,000, the Rangers are able to identify and promote area high school juniors and seniors who excel in the classroom, are college bound and are interested in community service. Teens on the Ball members meet with professionals in various careers and industries in order to increase their knowledge of the wide variety of career choices available to them and the educational requirements necessary for those choices. The teens have visited with individuals from the Arlington Fire Department, Southwest Transplant Alliance and the Medical Center of Arlington. To assist in developing well-rounded individuals, the teens participate in a number of community-sponsored and club related volunteer efforts, such as the Rangers' Habitat for Humanity project.

A NEW SPRING TRAINING FACILITY—SURPRISE, ARIZONA

After 42 years in the state of Florida, the Rangers franchise has moved its major and minor league spring training facility to Surprise, Arizona, which is located northwest of Phoenix in Maricopa County. The complex, which the Rangers share with the Kansas City Royals, is located on a 132-acre site and opened in September for Texas' Arizona Instructional League program.

Facts and figures on the Surprise Recreation Campus:

—The teams will play their home games at Surprise Stadium, a beautiful new 10,714-seat ballpark. Surprise Stadium includes a lower seating bowl, an upper level with 529 club seats, six suites, and adjoining party decks, and seating for approximately 3,000 on the outfield berm. The main access into Surprise Stadium is through center and left field entries.

—The stadium also includes a complete merchandise store and a 1,500 square foot visitor's clubhouse.

—Field dimensions of Surprise Stadium are 350 feet down the left and right field lines, 379 feet to left and right center, and 400 feet to straightaway center. The outfield fences are eight feet high. The playing surface is Tifway 419 natural grass. The Rangers will always use the first base dugout with the Royals on the third base side.

—Public parking is located on the left and right field sides of Surprise Stadium off North Bullard Ave. Parking is $4.00 per vehicle.

—Both the Rangers and Royals have six full practice fields and a half field for use by the major and minor league teams. Each team has one full field with lights with that field having the exact dimensions of its home park (The Ballpark in Arlington for the Rangers; Kauffman Stadium for the Royals). Four of the fields for each team are in a cloverleaf configuration with an observation tower centrally located that will be used primarily for the minor leagues. There is also a conditioning field for both clubs. Each of the team's practice facilities will also include indoor and outdoor batting cages and pitching mounds.

—The Rangers' clubhouse and office complex is located down the right field line with the Royals' facilities down the left field line. Each clubhouse complex is approximately 37,000 square feet with separate major and minor league facilities. Each clubhouse has direct tunnel access to the main stadium. Each team also has a private parking lot for players and staff.

—The facility is owned and maintained by the City of Surprise. The complex was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata, and Kassabaum (HOK), which previously designed two-team spring training facilities in Jupiter, Florida and Peoria and Tucson, Arizona. Builder of the complex is Barton Malow HOK.

—The $45 million facility was constructed by funds approved with the passing of Proposition 302, a 30-year funding plan which generates funds for sports, recreation, and tourism in Maricopa County. The proposition was passed by County voters on November 7, 2000, a week after the Rangers announced plans to open negotiations with the City of Surprise. The agreement on a 20-year lease between the Rangers and Surprise was announced on March 23, 2001 with the groundbreaking ceremony taking place on May 21, 2001. The facility was dedicated on December 7, 2002.

—In addition to the baseball complex, the Surprise Recreation Campus also includes the Surprise Regional Library, Aquatic Center, Surprise Recreation Center, and a Community Park.

Prior to locating in Surprise, the Washington/Texas franchise held spring training camp in Pompano Beach, Florida from 1961-86 and Port Charlotte, Florida from 1987-2002.
