ON THE COVER: Members of the 2023 World Champion Texas Rangers are shown in a graphic created by the club's marketing department.

In their 63rd year since the expansion Washington Senators were formed in 1961 and 52 seasons after the move to Arlington Stadium in 1972, the Texas Rangers captured Major League Baseball's ultimate prize in 2023. Texas' 90-72 regular season record matched Houston for the best in the AL West Division, but the Rangers first playoff spot since 2016 was as a Wild Card team due to the Astros' advantage in the regular season head-to-head tiebreaker.

Texas then went 13-4 over four playoff series in a 30-day span, winning the World Series in five games over the Arizona Diamondbacks. Of their 17 playoff games, 11 came on the road, and all were victories, the most in playoff history. The 13 overall victories tied the 2020 Los Angeles Dodgers for the most wins in a single Postseason.

A review of the exciting and memorable Postseason of 2023.

GAME 1 October 3 at Tropicana Field | Rangers 4, Rays 0 | Texas leads series 1-0

As the AL's second-seeded Wild Card team, the Rangers opened the Postseason with a best of three series against the 99-63 Rays, with all games to be played in St. Petersburg. In the club's first playoff game since October 9, 2016, Jordan Montgomery, Aroldis Chapman, and José Leclerc blanked Tampa Bay on 6 hits, 4-0, Texas' first playoff shutout since Game 4 of the 2011 World Series. Montgomery worked 7.0 innings with no walks and 5 strikeouts to become the 3rd Ranger ever with at least 7.0 shutout innings in a Postseason game. 21-year-old Evan Carter went 2-for-2 with a pair of walks to become the youngest player in MLB history to reach 4+ times in a Postseason debut. The win snapped a 6-game playoff losing streak for Texas.

GAME 2 October 4 at Tropicana Field | Rangers 7, Rays 1 | Texas wins series 2-0

The Rangers won their first Postseason series since the 2011 ALCS with a 7-1 victory to complete a two-game sweep. Texas received another stellar starting performance as Nathan Eovaldi allowed just 6 hits and one run with no walks and 8 strikeouts over 6.2 innings. Josh Sborz and José Leclerc held the Rays scoreless over the last 2.1 innings. A 4-run 4th inning included homers by Adolis García and Evan Carter. Corey Seager and Josh Jung each had 3 of Texas' 13 hits. Jung, Marcus Semien, and Seager each doubled in the 6th to plate the team's final 2 runs as Jung became the first Ranger ever with both a double and triple in a Postseason game.

SERIES NOTES

With the pair of victories, Texas increased its active playoff winning streak at Tropicana Field to 7 games. Evan Carter, 3-for-4 with 3 walks and a HBP in the 2 games, reached base safely in his first 6 career Postseason plate appearances, the 2nd longest such streak in MLB playoff history.

GAME 1 October 7 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards | Rangers 3, Orioles 2 | Texas leads series 1-0

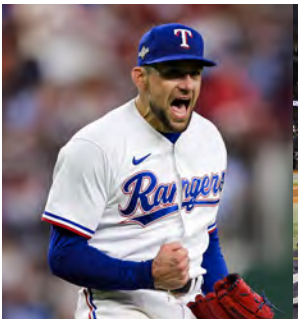

The Rangers opened the best of five ALDS with a 3-2 win over the Orioles, who posted an AL best 101 regular season victories. For the 3rd straight game, Texas scored first with a pair of runs on 5 hits in the 4th inning, then added a final run on Josh Jung's homer in the 6th. Starter Andrew Heaney permitted 2 hits and a run in his 3.2 innings, and Dane Dunning followed with a 2,0-inning stint to earn the win. Four relievers blanked the O's on one hit over the final 3.2 frames. Eight of the 9 Texas batters had one hit each. Jung extended his RBI streak in the Postseason to 3 games, longest by a Ranger since Mike Napoli in 2011.

GAME 2 October 8 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards | Rangers 11, Orioles 8 | Texas leads series 2-0

Texas jumped out to a 9-2 lead and held on, 11-8 to win its 4th straight playoff game on the road. The Rangers joined the 2020 Astros and 2023 Diamondbacks as the only teams to win 4 in a row to open a Postseason, all away from home. The club sent 10 men to the plate while scoring 5 times in the 2nd inning and added 4 runs in the 3rd as Mitch Garver joined Nelson Cruz (Game 2 of 2011 ALCS) as the only Rangers with Postseason grand slams. Jordan Montgomery was not nearly as effective as in his ALWC start as he allowed 9 hits and 5 runs in 4.0+ innings before giving way to Cody Bradford, who worked 3.2 scoreless frames for the win. Baltimore scored 3 times in the 9th before José Leclerc recorded the final out. Garver drove in 5 total runs, tying the club playoff mark, and Corey Seager became the first player ever with 5 walks in a Postseason contest.

GAME 3 October 10 at Globe Life Field | Rangers 7, Orioles 1 | Texas wins series 3-0

Playing at home for the first time since September 24, Texas finished a 3-game sweep of Baltimore with a 7-1 victory in its first playoff game ever at Globe Life Field. Nathan Eovaldi won his 2nd straight playoff start with a 5-hit, 1-run, 7-strikeout performance. The Rangers led, 6-0 after 2 innings as Corey Seager (solo) and Adolis García (3-run) both went deep. Nathaniel Lowe accounted for the final Texas run with a 6th inning homer. José Leclerc retired the final 4 batters over 1.1 innings to clinch the Rangers' 3rd ever trip to the ALCS.

SERIES NOTES

The Rangers became the 13th team in MLB history to open a single Postseason with 5+ wins while tying the club's longest overall playoff win streak. In the series, Josh Jung was 5-for-12 (.417), and Mitch Garver was 4-for-10 with a team best 7 RBI. Corey Seager's 9 walks established a LDS record, and his 11 BB through the first 5 playoff games were the most ever. Nathan Eovaldi had no walks and 15 strikeouts in his starts in the ALWC and ALDS, just the 4th time in Postseason history a pitcher had recorded no walks and 15+ K over a 2-start span.

GAME 1 October 15 at Minute Maid Park | Rangers 2, Astros 0 | Texas leads series 1-0

For the first time in LCS history, 2 teams from the same state met in the best of 7 series. The Lone Star Series-Postseason Style opened in Houston with a 2-0 Rangers victory. Once again Jordan Montgomery was outstanding, allowing just 5 hits in 6.1 scoreless innings, and Josh Sborz, Aroldis Chapman, and José Leclerc held the Astros hitless over the last 2.2 frames. The Rangers touched Justin Verlander for single runs in the 2nd inning on Jonah Heim's RBI single and 5th inning on a homer by Leody Taveras, who had 2 of the club's 6 total hits. Heim extended his playoff hitting streak to 6 games, Evan Carter's 2nd inning double made him the youngest player in MLB history with at least 5 extra base hits in his first 6 career playoff games.

GAME 2 October 16 at Minute Maid Park | Rangers 5, Astros 4 | Texas leads series 2-0

The Rangers scored 4 times off Framber Valdez in the 1st inning and held on for a 5-4 win to improve their record in three Postseason series to 7-0. Texas had 5 singles and was aided by 2 Valdez errors in taking the 4-0 lead. Jonah Heim's 3rd inning homer made it 5-1, but the club was blanked over the final 6 frames. Nathan Eovaldi improved to 3-0 in the Postseason as he allowed 3 runs and fanned 9 over 6.0 innings. José Leclerc walked the first 2 batters he faced in the 8th but then recorded 4 straight outs for his 3rd save of the Postseason. Marcus Semien was the only Ranger with 2 hits in the game.

GAME 4 October 19 at Globe Life Field | Astros 10, Rangers 3 | Series tied 2-2

The Astros won for the 2nd straight night with a 10-3 victory to tie the series at 2 games apiece. Starter Andrew Heaney recorded just 2 outs while allowing 4 hits and 3 runs in the 1st inning. The Rangers tied the game on Adolis García's 2-run homer in the 2nd inning and Corey Seager's solo blast in the 3rd to knock Astros starter José Urquidy out of the game. But Houston plated 4 runs off Dane Dunning and Cody Bradford in the top of the 4th, and the Astros bullpen went on to work 6.2 scoreless frames. García and Seager each had 2 hits for the Rangers.

GAME 5 October 20 at Globe Life Field | Astros 5, Rangers 4 | Houston leads series 3-2

José Altuve's 3-run homer in the top of the 9th inning gave Houston a 5-4 win, a sweep of the 3 games in Arlington, and a 3-2 advantage in the series. The Rangers tied the game at 1-1 on a Nathaniel Lowe solo homer in the 5th before the Astros scored once in the 6th. Adolis García then homered for the 2nd straight night with a 3-run blast in the bottom of that inning. García was hit by a Bryan Abreu pitch in the 8th, resulting in ejections for both players and the 2 benches emptying. The drama continued in the 9th when a single by Yainer Diaz and a walk to Jon Singleton brought Altuve to the plate. He put Houston ahead with his 26th career playoff homer. Ryan Pressly completed a scoreless 2 innings to finish the comeback victory.

GAME 6 October 22 at Minute Maid Park | Rangers 9, Astros 2 | Series tied 3-3

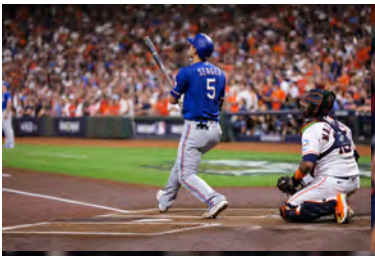

The Rangers utilized strong pitching and the long ball to pound the Astros, 9-2 and force a 7th and deciding game. After Houston scored in the 1st, Mitch Garver's 2nd inning solo homer and Jonah Heim's 4th inning 2-run blast gave Texas a lead it would not relinquish. The club broke it open with a 5-run 9th inning highlighted by Adolis García's grand slam which came after he had fanned in each of his 4 previous plate appearances. It marked the 3rd straight game in which García had gone deep. Garver was 3-for-4 and finished a triple shy of the cycle. Nathan Eovaldi set the club record with his 4th win in a single Postseason, issuing 5 hits and 2 runs over 6.1 innings.

GAME 7 October 23 at Minute Maid Park | Rangers 11, Astros 4 | Texas win series 4-3

For the 3rd time in franchise history, Texas advanced to the World Series with an 11-4 win in Game 7. Adolis García, who was selected as the ALCS MVP, was 4-for-5 with homers in the 3rd and 8th innings and 5 RBI as he tied Rangers playoff game records for hits, homers, and RBI. Corey Seager went 3-for-5 with his 2nd homer of the series and Nathaniel Lowe also went deep. Jordan Montgomery pitched 2.1 scoreless innings in relief of starter Max Scherzer to improve to 3-0 in the Postseason. José Leclerc recorded the final out on a Kyle Tucker groundout to Marcus Semien as Texas improved to 8-0 on the road in the 2023 playoffs. It was the 1st Game 7 win in franchise history.

SERIES NOTES

The road team won all 7 games of the 2023 ALCS, just the 2nd best of 7 series ever when that has occurred (2019 WS—Washington and Houston). The Rangers joined the 1996 Yankees as the only teams to earn victories in the first 8 road games of a single Postseason and tied for the longest overall away streak in one playoff year. ALCS MVP Adolis García batted .357 (10-28) with 5 homers and 15 RBI in the 7-game series. His RBI total was the most in any single Postseason round in MLB history, and he became the 1st player to drive in a run in 6 straight games within a Postseason series. Nathan Eovaldi and Jordan Montgomery each went 2-0 in the series.

GAME 1 October 27 at Globe Life Field | Rangers 6, Diamondbacks 5 (11 innings) | Texas leads 1-0

The opener of the 119th World Series featured one of the fall classic's most memorable games of the last several decades. Hosting a series opener for the first time in the 2023 Postseason, the Rangers came back for a thrilling 6-5, 11-inning win over the Diamondbacks. Texas jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the bottom of the 1st inning before Arizona scored 3 times off Nathan Eovaldi in the 3rd. Texas tied it in the bottom of the frame before Arizona scored once each in the next 2 innings. The score remained 5-3 into the bottom of the 9th when Corey Seager tied the game with a one-out 2-run homer off Paul Sewald. And 2 innings later, Adolis García connected off Miguel Castro for the 17th walk-off homer in a World Series game, just the 4th in Game 1. That blast gave García homers in 5 straight games, matching the 2nd longest such streak in playoff history, and 22 RBI in the Postseason, most ever in MLB. The Rangers' only other playoff walk-off victory had been Game 2 of the 2011 ALCS vs. Detroit.

GAME 2 October 28 at Globe Life Field | Diamondbacks 9, Rangers 1 | Series tied 1-1

Arizona evened the series with 16-hit 9-1 victory, the most hits that Texas allowed in the 2023 Postseason. Jordan Montgomery sustained his first defeat of the playoffs, issuing 9 hits and 4 runs over 6.0+ innings. The Rangers had just 4 hits with their lone run coming on a Mitch Garver homer in the 5th inning. Diamondbacks starter Merrill Kelly limited the Rangers to 3 hits and a run over 7.0 innings. It also marked the largest margin of defeat for Texas in the 2023 Postseason.

GAME 3 October 30 at Chase Field | Rangers 3, Diamondbacks 1 | Texas leads series 2-1

The Rangers improved to 9-0 on the road in the Postseason with a 3-1 win in Arizona's first home World Series game since 2001. Texas scored all 3 of its runs in the 3rd inning on a Marcus Semien RBI single followed by Corey Seager's 2-run homer. It was Seager's 5th long ball of the 2023 playoffs and 5th career in the World Series, most of any shortstop all-time. Starter Max Scherzer permitted 2 hits in 3.0 shutout innings, and Jon Gray then held Arizona scoreless over the next 3.0 frames to earn the victory. Evan Carter was 2-for-3 in the cleanup spot to extend his playoff on-base streak to all 15 games in 2023, tying Elvis Andrus (2010) for the longest Postseason on-base streak in team history.

GAME 4 October 31 at Chase Field | Rangers 11, Diamondbacks 7 | Texas leads series 3-1

Texas jumped out to a 10-0 lead after 3 innings and survived an Arizona comeback to move within one game of a World Series title. The Rangers scored 5 runs in the 2nd with Marcus Semien's triple and Corey Seager's home run driving in 2 runs apiece. Texas added 5 more in the top of the 3rd inning with the key hits being a 2-run double by Travis Jankowski, who was starting in place of the injured Adolis García, and 2-run homer by Semien. The Rangers became the first team ever to score 5+ runs in consecutive innings of a World Series game. Starter and winner Andrew Heaney permitted just 4 hits and a run in 5.0 innings before the Diamondbacks scored 6 times off the Rangers' bullpen in the final 2 frames. Semien was the 3rd player ever with a triple, homer, and 5+ RBI in a World Series game, and Josh Jung went 3-for-5.

GAME 5 November 1 at Chase Field | Rangers 5, Diamondbacks 0 | Texas wins World Series 4-1

For the first time in the 63-year history of the franchise, the Texas Rangers won the World Series with a 5-0 shutout of the Diamondbacks to earn the championship in 5 games. Starters Nathan Eovaldi and Zac Gallen each pitched 6.0 scoreless innings before Mitch Garver's RBI single off Gallen in the 7th gave the Rangers a 1-0 lead. That remained the score until the 9th when Texas added 4 runs, the big blow being a 2-run homer by Marcus Semien. Josh Sborz completed a 2.1 inning scoreless outing with a perfect 9th to earn his first Postseason save. At exactly 8:00 p.m. Arizona time, Sborz fanned Ketel Marte on a 2-2 pitch to record the final out and start the celebration. Eovaldi issued 4 hits in his scoreless 6.0 inning outing to become the first pitcher in MLB history to win 5 starts in a single Postseason. Semien and Seager each had 2 hits in Game 5.

SERIES NOTES

Corey Seager won the 2023 Willie Mays World Series MVP Award after hitting .286 (6-21) with 3 homers and 6 RBI in the 5 games. He previously earned that honor with the Dodgers in 2020 and became just the 4th player ever with a pair of World Series MVP honors, joining Sandy Koufax ('63; '65), Bob Gibson ('64; '67), and Reggie Jackson ('73; '77). Josh Jung batted .350 (7-20), and Marcus Semien had a .292 (7-24) average with 2 homers and 8 RBI. The franchise's 62-year World Series drought was 6th the longest ever in history. It was the first World Series to end in 5 games since the Red Sox defeated the Dodgers, 4-1 in 2018. Bruce Bochy earned his 4th World Series championship to tie for 3rd most all-time and joined Sparky Anderson and Tony La Russa as managers to win the Fall Classic in both leagues. For the third consecutive year, Will Smith was on the World Series-winning team following his titles with the Braves in 2021 and the Astros in 2022. The first player to ever accomplish that feat. The Rangers were the 5th team ever to play errorless baseball in a World Series.

POSTSEASON 2023
NOTES

The Rangers finished its 2023 playoff run at 13-4, tying the 2020 Dodgers for the most wins ever in a single Postseason. Texas was 11-0 on the road, the longest away win streak in Postseason history, whether in a single year or spanning multiple seasons. The club's 30 Postseason homers tied the 2020 Dodgers for 2nd most ever behind the 2020 Rays (34). Four Texas regulars had a .300 or better batting average for the Postseason: Adolis García at .323 (20-62); Corey Seager at .318 (21-66); Josh Jung at .308 (20-65); and Evan Carter at .300 (18-60). García's 22 RBI and Carter's 9 doubles were both the most ever in a single Postseason. Carter also reached base safely in all 17 of his playoff games, the longest such streak ever to begin a Postseason career. Mitch Garver ranked 2nd on the club with 14 RBI in 14 games. Nathan Eovaldi was the 4th pitcher to record 5 overall victories in a single Postseason, joining Randy Johnson (2001), Francisco Rodriguez (2002), and Stephen Strasburg (2019). José Leclerc's 13 appearances in the 17 games tied for 3rd most all-time. Josh Sborz posted a 0.75 ERA (1 ER/12.0 IP) in his 10 outings.

THE 2024 MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL ALL-STAR GAME COMES TO ARLINGTON

The Texas Rangers and the City of Arlington will host the 2024 All-Star Game presented by Mastercard on Tuesday, July 16 at Globe Life Field.

Baseball's 94th Midsummer Classic will culminate five days of All-Star events, most of which will take place at several venues in the Arlington Entertainment District.

This marks the second time that the Rangers will host the All-Star Game, and it will be the first at Globe Life Field, the club's home since 2020. The Ballpark in Arlington held the 1995 Midsummer Classic, in which the National League earned a 3-2 victory led by Jeff Conine's go-ahead pinch-hit home run in the eighth inning. The Senators/Rangers franchise also hosted a pair of All-Star games in Washington, 1962 (1st Game) and 1969.

In addition to the Midsummer Classic, Globe Life Field will host the HBCU Swingman Classic, presented by T-Mobile & powered by the MLB-MLBPA Youth Development Foundation on Friday, July 12, the All-Star Futures Game and All-Star Celebrity Softball on All-Star Saturday on Saturday, July 13, and the T-Mobile Home Run Derby on Gatorade All-Star Workout Day on Monday, July 15. In addition, Capital One PLAY BALL PARK, which features interactive baseball activities, autograph sessions, and many other features, will take place at Choctaw Stadium and adjacent facilities from July 13-16.

With the Rangers winning the 2023 American League pennant, the 2024 AL All-Star team will be managed by Texas skipper Bruce Bochy with assistance from his coaching staff. This marks just the third time that a defending World Series champion has hosted an All-Star Game, the 1934 New York Giants at the Polo Grounds, and the 1939 New York Yankees at the original Yankee Stadium.

The National League was no-hit for the first 5.2 innings, but made the most of its three hits with three solo home runs to earn the victory. The NL's three hits marked the fewest total for a team that won the Midsummer Classic since the American League won with three in 1952.

Randy Johnson, Kevin Appier and Dennis Martinez held the NL hitless until Craig Biggio homered off Martinez with two outs in the sixth. That cut the AL's lead in half, since Frank Thomas had belted a two-run homer off John Smiley in the fourth.

Mike Piazza tied the game in the seventh with a solo shot off Kenny Rogers. Jeff Conine entered the game to pinch-hit for DH Ron Gant in the eighth and delivered the definitive hit – a solo home run off Steve Ontiveros. The 410-foot shot earned Conine the All-Star MVP Award.

Hideo Nomo of the Los Angeles Dodgers started the game for the NL. Nomo, the first Japanese player to appear in the All-Star Game, was the first rookie pitcher to start the All-Star Game since Fernando Valenzuela in 1981. He allowed just one hit in two innings of work and struck out Kenny Lofton, Edgar Martinez and Albert Belle.

The 1995 All-Star rosters featured 17 players who have been inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame: National League—Craig Biggio, Tony Gwynn, Barry Larkin, Greg Maddux, Fred McGriff, Mike Piazza, Ozzie Smith (DNP due to injury); American League—Roberto Alomar, Wade Boggs, Ken Griffey, Jr. (DNP due to injury), Randy Johnson, Edgar Martinez, Kirby Puckett, Cal Ripken, Jr., Iván Rodríguez (photo at right), Lee Smith. # RAY C. DAVIS

MANAGING PARTNER & MAJORITY OWNER

Ray Davis is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Avatar Investments, L.P. ("Avatar"), a family-owned diversified investment company. Prior to Avatar, Mr. Davis spent over 30 years working and holding various leadership roles in the energy industry. In 1994, he co-founded Energy Transfer Partners (ETP), which was then taken public in 2004. He was Co-Chief Executive Officer and Co-Chairman of the Board of Directors until his retirement in 2007. He also served as Co-Chairman of the Board of Directors of Energy Transfer Equity (ETE) from the time of its initial offering until retirement.

Mr. Davis is Managing Partner and Majority Owner of the Texas Rangers and is the Chairman of the team's Board of Directors. Since he became a Principal Owner in August 2010, the Rangers have advanced to postseason play six times, won four A.L. West Division titles and three A.L. pennants and captured the first World Series Championship in the 63-year history of the franchise in 2023.

The Rangers' three A.L. championships since 2010 are the second most of any team behind four for the Houston Astros.

Mr. Davis has presided over a period of unprecedented growth in the franchise from a business and community perspective. Globe Life Field, a 1.25 billion dollar facility with a retractable roof and state-of-the art amenities, opened in March 2020. In its four years of existence, Globe Life Field has hosted not only Texas Rangers home games but also numerous major sports and entertainment events, including three rounds of Major League Baseball's 2020 postseason, the 2020 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, the 2023 and 2024 American Rodeo, college baseball and football, and concerts featuring many of the music industry's top performers. The Rangers' former home, Choctaw Stadium, has been reconfigured as an outdoor multipurpose sports and entertainment venue and has been the home of over 250 events in the last four years.

In November 2022, it was announced that Globe Life Field and Arlington, Texas will host the 2024 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, which will culminate five days of special events on Tuesday, July 16.

Globe Life Field and the reconfigured Choctaw Stadium complement and enhance several other major development projects in the Arlington Entertainment District that have been completed since 2018, including Texas Live! (August 2018), Live! by Loews-Arlington Hotel (September 2019), Spark Arlington Coworking (January 2023), and Loews Arlington Hotel and Convention Center (February 2024).

Other major facilities in the District will be opening over the next two years, and those include One Rangers Way, a luxury residential community that will be the first of its kind in Arlington, and the National Medal of Honor Museum.

Under Mr. Davis' watch, the Rangers have aggressively promoted the game of baseball through the construction of Texas Rangers Youth Academy in West Dallas and the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation's completion of a multi-million dollar endowment that will provide community programs and assistance for years to come. The Rangers have also made a major commitment in facilities for its player development program, completing construction on both a state-of-the-art baseball academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic and a baseball housing and meeting facility adjacent to the organization's Surprise, Arizona complex in the last several years.

Mr. Davis has been active in Major League Baseball during his tenure with the Rangers, serving on the MLB Executive, Labor, and Competition Owners Committees.

Mr. Davis has offices in Dallas and at Globe Life Field. He resides in North Texas with his wife, Linda, and has three adult children, who live in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. His interests include ranching, bird hunting and reading.

TEXAS RANGERS OWNERSHIP HISTORY

Rangers Baseball Express LLC completed its purchase of the Texas Rangers Baseball Club and related assets from Texas Rangers Baseball Partners on August 12, 2010. The group is the sixth owner in the history of the Texas Rangers. Ray C. Davis serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors for the investor group.

Rangers Baseball Express LLC submitted the high bid for the club in a United States Bankruptcy Court auction held on August 4-5, 2010 in Fort Worth, Texas. The new ownership group was approved in a unanimous vote of Major League Baseball owners at the MLB quarterly meeting on August 12, 2010 in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

CHRIS YOUNG

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Chris Young joined the Texas Rangers as Executive Vice President & General Manager on December 4, 2020. The 44-year-old Young assumed leadership of the Rangers' entire baseball operations group on August 17, 2022.

The franchise's 63-year drought without a World Series Championship ended on November 1, 2023, when the Rangers defeated the Arizona Diamondbacks in the fifth and deciding game of the Fall Classic. That concluded an historical postseason run that saw Texas go 13-4 in the A.L. Wild Card, Division and League Championship Series and the World Series, including an 11-0 record on the road.

Young is the first former Major League player to win the World Series in a head baseball operations role since Kenny Williams of the Chicago White Sox in 2005. He is also the first individual to earn a World Series crown as both a player (Kansas City in 2015) and a General Manager/Baseball Operations Chief since Johnny Murphy, who pitched on seven championship teams with the New York Yankees (1932, 1936-39, 1941, 1943) and won the Fall Classic as the General Manager with the New York Mets in 1969.

After hiring three-time World Series champion Bruce Bochy as the Rangers' manager in October 2022, Young fortified Texas' starting pitching with the free agent signings of Jacob deGrom, Nathan Eovaldi, and Andrew Heaney last winter. Young's midseason additions via trade of pitchers Aroldis Chapman, Jordan Montgomery, Max Scherzer, and Chris Stratton also played a key role in Texas' improvement from 68 to 90 regular season victories in 2023.

The Rangers also received significant contributions from a number of home-grown players including third baseman Josh Jung and outfielders Evan Carter and Leody Taveras. In recognition of the team's overall on-field accomplishments, Baseball America selected the Rangers as its 2023 Organization of the Year, Texas' first such honor since 1989.

A veteran of 13 Major League seasons as a right-handed pitcher with five clubs, Young is the ninth General Manager in Rangers history and joins Eddie Robinson (1976-82) and Tom Grieve (1984-94) as former MLB players to hold that position. He joins Boston's Craig Breslow, Seattle's Jerry Dipoto and Chris Getz of the Chicago White Sox as the only former Major Leaguers to currently oversee baseball operations for a MLB organization.

Prior to joining the Rangers, Young spent three years working for Major League Baseball and was promoted to Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations in February 2020. In that role, he oversaw the On-Field Operations and Umpiring Departments and served as the league's principal liaison to Major League managers regarding play on the field. He worked on the application of playing rules and regulations, on-field standards and discipline, pace of play and other special projects.

Young posted a 79-67 record with a 3.95 ERA in 271 games/221 starts with Texas (2004-05), San Diego (2006-10), New York Mets (2011-12), Seattle (2014), and Kansas City (2015-17). Originally selected by Pittsburgh in the third round of the 2000 MLB draft, he was traded to Montreal in December 2002 and then to Texas in April 2004. The right-hander made seven starts in his first Major League action in 2004 and was selected as the Rangers Rookie of the Year in 2005, leading the staff in starts (31) and strikeouts (137) and ranking second in wins (12) and innings (164.2).

Traded to San Diego in January 2006, he posted the National League's lowest opponents' batting average in both 2006 and 2007 and was a member of the 2007 N.L. All-Star Team.

Hampered by injuries for much of the next six seasons, Young matched his career high with 12 wins in 2014 at Seattle and was named as the A.L. Comeback Player of the Year by MLB and The Sporting News.

Young spent his final three big league seasons with Kansas City, winning 11 games for the 2015 World Champion Royals. He pitched 15.2 innings throughout K.C.'s Postseason run, working 3.0 innings of hitless relief en route to the win in a 14-inning victory over the New York Mets in Game 1 of the World Series. In 2018, he went to spring training with San Diego but was released at the end of March and retired as an active player.

Young starred in both baseball and basketball over two seasons each at Princeton University, earning Ivy League Rookie of the Year honors as a 6'10" center in basketball and a pitcher in baseball in 1999, the first male athlete in Ivy League history to win those honors in two sports. He was 9-1, 1.64 in his two years for the Tigers baseball team and finished with 801 points, 350 rebounds, and 142 blocked shots while starting all 60 basketball games from 1998-2000.

He graduated from Princeton in 2002 with a BA in politics after beginning his pro baseball career. Young wrote his senior thesis on the impact of the life of Hall of Famer Jackie Robinson on racial stereotypes. He is a native of Dallas and a 1998 graduate of Highland Park High School where he earned All-State honors in both basketball and baseball in his senior year. Young was inducted into the HPHS Athletic Hall of Fame in April 2023 and had his baseball number retired by the school in January 2024.

Chris resides in Dallas with his wife Liz, daughter Catherine, and sons Scott and Grant. Liz' father, Dick Patrick has been an executive with the NHL's Washington Capitals since 1982 and currently serves as Team Chairman and Vice Chairman of Monumental Sports & Entertainment. Her great grandfather, NHL Hall of Famer Lester Patrick was a longtime coach and General Manager of the New York Rangers.

TEXAS RANGERS RULE 5 DRAFT HISTORY, 1971-2023

The Rangers have selected 19 players in the Major League Baseball Rule 5 Draft, which takes place annually at the winter meetings, since the franchise moved to Texas after the 1971 season. Additionally, Texas has acquired 5 other players via trade on the day of the Rule 5 Draft. Players with at least three years of professional service who are not protected on a team's major league roster are eligible for selection by another club for $100,000.00 ($25,000.00 through 1984). If the player selected does not make the opening day major league roster and remain there for the duration of the season, he must be offered back to his original club for one-half the draft price. ## 2023 TEXAS RANGERS ALL-STAR SELECTIONS

The Rangers had 6 All-Stars for the 2023 Midsummer Classic on July 11 at Seattle's T-Mobile Park. It was just the 3rd time in franchise history for the club to feature at least 6 All-Stars (8-2012, 6-2010, 6-2023). The club had 4 fan-elected starters (Jonah Heim-C, Marcus Semien-2B, Josh Jung-3B, Corey Seager-SS) and 2 were selected via player voting (Nathan Eovaldi-SP, Adolis García-OF). García, who was tabbed to start in right field after injuries to Aaron Judge and Mike Trout, joined the Rangers' 4 fan-elected players to give Texas 5 ASG starters in 2023.

According to Elias Sports Bureau, the 2023 Rangers became just the 5th team in All-Star history (beg. 1933) to have 5 position player starters (Heim/Semien/Jung/Seager/García) in an ASG. The others: 1939 Yankees, 1956 Reds, 1957 Reds, and 1976 Reds.

In Nathan Eovaldi's scoreless 2nd inning, Texas had 6 players on the field. Research by Elias Sports Bureau indicates that it was the 1st time for one MLB club to have 6 players on the field at the same time in an ASG since 1951. The Brooklyn Dodgers had 6 players on the field in top of 8th inning for the 1951 ASG played at Detroit's Briggs Stadium (would become Tiger Stadium in 1961): Don Newcombe-P, Roy Campanella-C, Gil Hodges-1B, Jackie Robinson-2B, Pee Wee Reese-SS, Duke Snider-CF.

UP THE MIDDLE MVP CANDIDATES

Rangers SS Corey Seager (2nd) and 2B Marcus Semien (3rd) both finished in the top 3 of the 2023 American League Most Valuable Player Award voting by the Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA). The Rangers had never registered 2 of the top 3 in A.L. MVP voting, as club previous best had two of the top five on three occasions: 1974, 1999, 2012. Last year marked the first time for any Texas player to be a finalist for one of the three BBWAA awards since Yu Darvish finished 2nd in A.L. Cy Young voting in 2013.

It was the first time a Ranger had been a finalist for A.L. MVP since 2012, when Adrián Beltré (3rd) and Josh Hamilton (5th) were among the 5 finalists that year. Seager's 2nd-place MVP finish marked the best for a Texas player since Hamilton won the honor in 2010.

SEASON IN REVIEW

Rangers second baseman Marcus Semien started all 179 games in the regular season and postseason for the 2023 World Series champions, setting a single-season Major League record for starts by any player.

2023 WORLD SERIES CHAMPIONS

FINAL OVERALL RECORD: 90-72 (.556)

Tied For 1st Place in AL West Division with Houston (Tiebreaker gave Houston AL West title)

Home: 50-31 | Road: 40-41

WORLD SERIES CHAMPS: The Texas Rangers were the 2023 World Series Champions, beating the Arizona Diamondbacks 4-games-to-1 in last year's Fall Classic. It marked the 1st World Series championship in Washington/Texas franchise history (since 1961), ending a 62-year drought. The 62-year drought without a title was the 2nd-longest active span in MLB behind only Cleveland (75 years including 2023). Texas had been one of 6 active MLB franchises to have never won a World Series (now COL, MIL, SD, SEA, TB). Since debuting in 1961 as the Washington Senators, the Rangers were the oldest active MLB/NBA/NFL/NHL franchise that had never won a championship. That distinction now belongs to the Minnesota Vikings, who played their first game roughly 5 months after the Senators did in 1961.

The Rangers finished with an 11-0 in road games in the 2023 postseason, the most away wins ever by a team in a single postseason (previously 8 by 1996 NYY/2019 WAS). The Rangers' longest regular season road win streak?: 9-0 in both 1977 and 2013. The Rangers' 2 postseason home wins en route to a World Series title were the fewest for any champion since 1983 (2-BAL).

BACK TO GOOD: The Rangers lost 102 games in 2021 and 94 games in 2022. The 102 losses were the most in MLB history by a team winning the World Series 2 years later. Previous high was 101 losses in 2 years prior to WS wins by the 1914 Braves and 1969 Mets. Texas had the lowest winning pct in the year prior to winning a World Series (68-94, .420) of any team in MLB history. The Rangers became the 1st team in MLB history to finish 25+ games under .500 one year and win the World Series in the following year. Club's 196 combined losses in the two seasons prior to winning the World Series are the most in MLB history.

WILD CARD: Texas made the 2023 postseason as the 2nd of 3 American League Wild Card teams, finishing with the 5th seed out of 6 A.L. playoff teams. It was the team's ninth trip to the postseason, second as a Wild Card entry (also 2012, lost one-game Wild Card series on 10/5/12 vs. BAL). Club also won A.L. West titles in the other seven seasons: 1996, 1998, 1999, 2010, 2011, 2015, and 2016. The Wild Card berth snaped a 6-year drought without appearing in the postseason. The team had three trips to the playoffs in the franchise's first 49 years (1961-2009), each of those three in the first 38 seasons after moving to Texas, and have now made it six times in 14 years.

The Rangers finished with a 90-72 record, tied with Houston for first place and best record in the A.L. West, but club was left with a Wild Card slot due to the head-to-head tiebreaker with the Astros (TEX was 4-9 vs. HOU in 2023). Club's tie for first place in the West came after finishing 38.0 games behind Houston in 2022.

Texas clinched a postseason berth with a win on Sept. 30 at Seattle in its 161st game, matching the latest in a season for the club to go before securing a spot in the playoffs (also game no. 161 in 1996). Team lost game no. 162 on Oct. 1 at Seattle with a chance to clinch the division title.

WINS AND LOSSES: The Rangers went 90-72 (.556) last season to finish tied for first place in the A.L. West with Houston. A head-to-head tiebreaker was used to decide the division, and Houston was awarded the division based on winning the season series with Texas, 9-games-to-4. The record still snapped a span of 6 straight losing seasons, the most consecutive sub-.500 campaigns in Texas history. Team had just one losing season in prior 8 years from 2009-16.

The team's .556 winning percentage was T3rd-best in the A.L. and T6th-best in MLB, this after finishing in the A.L.'s bottom four in 3 straight years 2020-21-22. It is T7th-best record in franchise history, best since a 95-67 (.586) mark in 2016. The club's rise of +.136 in win pct. from 2022 (.420) to 2023 (.556) ranks as the 3rd-best in Rangers history (+.173 in 1974, +.152 in 1986), and was highest jump in MLB in 2023. From 2020-22, Texas had the 3rd-lowest win pct. in MLB at .391 (150-234), ahead of only PIT (.370, 142-242) and WAS (.380, 146-238).

Rangers' 90 wins rank T7th in club history, most since 2016 (96). It is just the 9th year of 90+ wins in Texas history, with 7 of those 9 instances leading to postseason appearances. In 2021-22, Texas lost 90+ games in consecutive seasons for the 3rd time in team history.

Team finished in at least a tie for first place in the A.L. West for the 1st time since division titles in 2015-16, this after finishing 38.0 games back of Houston in 2022. Last year marked just the 3rd time the Rangers had ever entered game no. 162 with a chance at a division title, also in 2012 (loss at OAK) and 2015 (win vs. LAA - Cole Hamels CG). Club's largest deficit all season was 3.0 GB for 5 straight days from 9/6-10, and biggest advantage was a 6.5-G lead in West after win on 6/23 at NYY. Texas had sole possession of the A.L. West lead for 9 straight days from 9/22-30, as Houston tied for the division lead on the season's last day (10/1).

The Rangers opened the year with a 4-4 start, then posted MLB bests with a 36-16 (.692) mark from 4/9-6/6 and a 26-9 (.743) run from 4/28-6/6, bringing season record to 40-20 through June 6. The stretch took Texas to 20 games above .500 for the first time since the end of the 2016 campaign. Rangers were 12-19 (.387) from 6/7 through the All-Star break, 3rd-lowest win pct. in the A.L. in that span and 6th-lowest in MLB, as club was 52-39 at the break. Club was 72-48 (.600) through 8/15, the best 120-game start to a season in franchise history, season-best 24 games above .500 with the 4th-best record in MLB. It was just the 6th season in franchise history to reach at least 24-over (also 1977, 1999, 2011, 2012, 2016). From 2020-22, club had spent one day in a season with a winning record (10-9 on 8/15/20), and had not been above .500 at any point in a full season since 8/11/19 (59-58). Club did not dip below .500 all season, as low point was at 4-4 (.500) after loss 4/8 at CHC.

ATTENDANCE: The Rangers finished with a home attendance of 2,533,044 for 81 dates, an average of 31,272. It ranked 7th in the A.L./16th in MLB in both overall and average home attendance. It was the Rangers' highest attendance since 2016 (2,710,402) and represented an increase of 521,683 over 2022 (2,011,361), a 25.9% rise in attendance from last year. The increase in overall and average (6,441) attendance represented the 5th-best rises in MLB from 2022 to 2023, trailing only PHI (+775,869), CIN (+642,532), BAL (+568,431), and CLE (+538,198).

Rangers hosted 15 sellouts in 2023, 10 more than the 5 recorded in Globe Life Field's first 2 years with fans at the venue (3-2022, 2-2021). Club produced 7 sellouts in a span of 13 home games from June 30-July 23 last season, including each contest in a 4-game series June 30-July 3 vs. HOU. Research indicated it was the first time in Texas history to sell out each home game in a 4-G series, dating back to club's arrival in Arlington in 1972. The attendance total of the 4-game series against the Astros was 158,070, a record for any series at GLF since it opened in 2020, surpassing previous facility record from a 4-game set Oct. 3-5, 2022 vs. NYY (133,347).

Rangers drew 48 crowds of 30,000-or-more, including the top 12 figures in Globe Life Field history, 3 of which exceeded 40,000: 7/22 vs. LAD (40,738), 7/1 vs. HOU (40,380), and 4/29 vs. NYY (40,027). The lowest home attendance for the year came on Monday, 4/3 vs. BAL (15,867).

The Rangers have now topped the 2 million mark in home attendance in 14 straight, 26 of the last 27 and 32 of the last 34 years in which fans were permitted beginning 1989 (excluding 2020).

BASERUNNING: Texas finished with 79 stolen bases last season, the 2nd-lowest total in the A.L. and the 4th-lowest figure in MLB's first year with the new "two-disengagement" rule: 57-SF, 72-LAA, 76-COL, 79-TEX. Texas had led MLB with 128 stolen bases in 2022, just 3rd time in club history to lead Majors in steals (1972, 2019, 2022). Club was 79-for-98 (80.6%) in steal attempts, the 6th-best percentage in the A.L. Had A.L.-low 98 steal attempts, the 2nd-lowest total in the Majors (SF-73).

BATTING: Texas finished with a batting slash line of .263/.337/.452/.790 (1470-5595), leading the American League in all 4 categories for the 1st time in franchise history. The .263 BA was 2nd-highest in MLB to ATL, which led Majors in all 4 slash categories (.276/.344/.501/.845), including the highest SLG in baseball history. It was the team's highest batting average since 2012 (.273) and 1st time to lead the A.L. since 2011 (.283), this after posting 5 of the 6 lowest batting averages in team history in a span of 5 full seasons from 2017-22. Club finished 3rd in Majors in OBP/SLG/OPS to ATL and LAD (.257/.340/.455/.795). It was the 1st time to ever lead the A.L. in OBP, 1st time to lead in SLG since 2008. The .790 OPS was highest since 2011 (.800), nearly 100 points higher than in 2022 (.696).

Rangers led the A.L. with 881 runs, 3rd-most in MLB (947-ATL, 906-LAD), and the 6th-highest figure in franchise history: 945 in 1999, 940 in 1998, 928 in 1996, 901 in 2008, 890 in 2001. Over club's 1st 60 games through 6/6, Texas had a MLB-high 386 runs (6.4 R/G). It was the most runs in franchise history through the 1st 60 games of a season, most by any ML club since 2001 Rockies (386 R). From 6/7-end of season, Texas had 495 R in final 102 G (4.9 R/G).

Batters led Majors with 26 games with 10+ runs and 6 games with 15+ runs, both franchise records. Club had 16 G with 10+ R through 6/7, tied for most such games over the 1st 60 G of a season in the modern era beg. 1901 (also 1901 STL, 1936 NYY, 1999 SEA). Led A.L. with 69 games with 10+ hits, 2nd in MLB (77-ATL).

Rangers led the A.L. in hits (1470) for the 1st time since 2012. Also led the league with 577 extra-base hits, the 5th-highest total in club history: 605 in 2008, 600 in 2005, 595 in 2001, 584 in 2004. Club's A.L.-best 2531 total bases ranked 2nd in MLB (ATL-2803), 1st time to lead A.L. in that category since 2008. Batters had A.L.-leading 2122 times on base. Team's 326 doubles were 2nd-most in MLB (BOS-339) and 4th-most in franchise history: MLB-record 376 in 2008, 357 in 2006, 330 in 2000.

Even with all the offensive production, the Rangers led the A.L. with 599 walks, 3rd-most in MLB to SD (653) and LAD (644). It was the 5th-highest walks total in Rangers history to 1996 (660), 1978 (624), 1975 (613), and 1999 (611). Team's 1416 strikeouts were just 9th-most in A.L. and 14th-most in MLB.

Texas faced a position player on the mound on 10 different occasions this season, tying the single-season MLB record set by the 2021 Braves. Of the 10 instances, 9 came before the end of June. The record covers the Expansion Era (since 1961), as Elias Sports Bureau feels there is there is too much uncertainty in earlier periods on players' roles to clearly define records in this "category".

CLUTCH HITTING: Texas batted .275 (388-1412) with runners in scoring position, 3rd-best in the A.L. and 4th in MLB: BAL-.287, TB-.285, LAD-.276, TEX-.275. Over the 1st 60 G thru 6/6, Texas batted .337 (191-567) with RISP, highest in MLB at that point and 44 points better than the next-closest team (COL-.293). In the final 102 contests beginning 6/7, Texas hit .233 (197-845) with RISP, the 4th-lowest figure over that span in MLB: NYY-.211, OAK-213, LAA-.230.

CHALLENGES: The Rangers were successful on 12 of 29 (41.4%) in manager challenges using instant replay review in 2023, MLB's 10th year using comprehensive instant replay. Texas used just 5 manager challenges after the end of July, last on 9/16 vs. CLE. Club had a single challenge in the month of August.

COME-FROM-BEHIND WINS/CLOSE GAMES: TThe Rangers posted 39 come-from-behind wins in 2023, most by the Rangers since 49 in 2016. Club's largest comeback win came after trailing by 6 runs on 6/18 vs. TOR, team's largest comeback since overcoming a 6-run deficit on 8/19/19 vs. LAA (won 8-7 in 11 innings).

The Rangers won at home in the bottom of the 9th-or-later on four occasions in 2023: 4/11 vs. KC, 6/5 vs. STL, 7/17 vs. TB, and 9/3 vs. MIN. The 4 instances were one better than 2022 (3).

RANGERS WALK-OFF WINS IN 2023 (4)

| DATE | OPPONENT | SCORE | FINAL PLAY |
|---|---|---|---|
| April 11 | Kansas City | 8-5 | Jonah Heim 3-run HR in 10th |
| June 5 | St. Louis | 4-3 | Nathaniel Lowe RBI single in 9th |
| July 17 | Tampa Bay | 3-2 | Mitch Garver PA run-scoring wild pitch in 9th (P. Fairbanks) |
| Sept. 3 | Minnesota | 6-5 | Adolis García solo HR in 9th |

Texas lost 39 times after having the lead at some point, as club held a lead in 39 of 72 losses (54.2%). Club's largest lead in a loss a 6-run edge on 4/25 at CIN (led 6-0 thru 6 innings), a 7-6 defeat in which Reds scored 7 unanswered runs.

The team suffered 10 walk-off losses, T8th-most in Rangers history and most since 2013 (10). Those 10 losses: 4/24 at CIN, 4/26 at CIN, 5/5 at LAA, 5/12 at OAK, 7/24 at HOU, 8/13 at SF, 8/21 at ARI, 8/27 at MIN, 8/30 at NYM, 9/28 at SEA. In the 10 defeats, there were 3 walk-off home runs: Nick Senzel on 4/26 at CIN, Brent Rooker on 5/12 at OAK, and Patrick Bailey on 8/13 at SF.

Rangers finished with a 14-22 (.389) record in one-run games, 3rd-lowest win pct. in MLB to SD (.281, 9-23) and CWS (.388, 19-30). This followed a season in which club had MLB-low .300 win pct. (15-35) in one-run games in 2022. Club's 36 one-run games were 3rd-fewest in Majors (31-LAD, 32-SD), T2nd-fewest ever for Texas in a full season (31 in 2018, 36 in 1998/2023).

DAYS IN EACH POSITION: First (160); Second (15); Third (11); Fourth (0); Fifth (0). Texas finished T1st in the A.L. West with Houston, and the Astros were awarded the division title on a tiebreaker. It is the team's best division finish since winning the West in 2015 and 2016, as team had finished the year in 3rd, 4th, or 5th place for 6 straight seasons from 2017-22. Club secured a spot in the postseason in game no. 161 on 9/30 at SEA, then lost a chance at the division title with a 1-0 defeat on 10/1 at SEA in game no. 162.

Team spent 160 of 186 days in the 2023 season in 1st place. Club was alone or tied atop the division for 148 of the season's 1st 149 days from 3/30-8/26, with sole possession of 1st place for 111 consecutive days from 5/6-8/24. Also had sole possession of 1st for 9 straight days from 9/22-30 before Houston tied the Rangers on the season's final day.

This year's A.L. West marked the 2nd time in the "no tiebreaker games" era for a division to end the year in a tie, also the 2022 N.L. East (ATL over NYM on head-to-head record).

DAY/NIGHT: Texas was 35-24 (.592) in day games and 55-48 (.534) at night. Had Majors' 4th-best record in day tilts to only TB (.614, 43-27), BAL (.614, 35-22), and PHI (.597, 37-25). Club's night record was 10th in MLB. Rangers were 21-7 (.750) over 28 day games through 6/18, including 8 straight wins 5/7-27, then went 14-17 (.452) in final 31 day tilts to finish the year. The 8-game win streak was longest day run since a franchise-record 10-0 span 5/22-6/26/16.

DELAYS: Texas did not endure a single postponement in 2023, this after 3 postponements and 4 total doubleheaders in 2022. The club's last rainout was on 6/6/22 at CLE. Last doubleheader was on 10/4/22 vs. NYY, with last road twinbill on 9/12/22 at MIA.

The 10/4/22 twinbill against the Yankees was just the 2nd doubleheader ever at Globe Life Field, the 1st split DH, and the 1st DH to feature a pair of 9-inning games. The only other DH at GLF came on 9/12/20 vs. OAK, splitting a pair of 7-inning contests at an empty park in the pandemic season.

Since taking both ends of a DH on 9/8/09 at CLE, Texas has gone 1-3-12 in team's last 16 twinbills, lone DH sweep in that span coming on 6/8/19 vs. OAK. Rangers are 7-3-14 in 24 overall twinbills (day/night or split) since dropping both games to Yankees on 5/3/07 at Globe Life Park. Over the last 29 seasons beg. 1994, the Rangers have gone 15-9-20 in doubleheaders (day/night or split).

Each of the last two postponements in Arlington have not been weather related, as game on 8/27/20 did not take place following a decision to postpone by the A's players. The previous Arlington postponement on 7/1/19 vs. LAA came in the aftermath of the death of Angels pitcher Tyler Skaggs. The last postponement in Arlington due to weather was on 4/17/16 vs. Baltimore.

EJECTIONS: Of the Rangers' 8 ejections this season, 4 were by Bruce Bochy and 3 came in a single game: 6/15 vs. LAA. The ejections of Bochy, Mike Maddux, and Marcus Semien by Ramón De Jesús marked 1st time for multiple Rangers to be ejected in the same game since 7/25/21 at HOU (Brock Holt, Chris Woodward by Tim Timmons).

EJECTIONS IN 2023 (8)

| Game (Inn.) | Player/Coach | Umpire | Game (Inn.) | Player/Coach | Umpire |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 4/15 at HOU (B7th) | Bruce Bochy | Erich Bacchus | 6/20 at CWS (B8th) | Bruce Bochy | D.J. Reyburn |
| 6/15 vs. LAA (T8th) | Marcus Semien | Ramón De Jesús | 7/8 at WAS (T8th) | Adolis García | Gabe Morales |
| 6/15 vs. LAA (T8th) | Mike Maddux | Ramón De Jesús | 7/26 at HOU (T5th) | Marcus Semien | Dan Bellino |
| 6/15 vs. LAA (T8th) | Bruce Bochy | Ramón De Jesús | 9/19 vs. BOS (T7th) | Bruce Bochy | Ben May |

EXTRA INNINGS: Texas played just 10 extra-inning games in 2023, going 2-8 (1-2 at home, 1-6 on the road). It was the 3rd-lowest win pct. in MLB and T2nd-fewest wins in '23, joining HOU (1-8) and SD (2-12). The only road win was on 6/23 at NYY, with walk-off losses in the other 6 away games. Only home win was 4/11 vs. KC. Rangers lost 5 straight in extras to end the year.

TEXAS RANGERS RETIRED NUMBERS

Five former Texas Rangers have had their uniform numbers retired in the ultimate honor bestowed by the organization: Nolan Ryan (1996), Johnny Oates (2005), Iván Rodríguez (2017), Adrián Beltré (2019) and Michael Young (2019). The number 42, worn by Jackie Robinson, was retired by all Major League clubs in 1997.

The numbers of these six individuals are displayed on the left field brick columns at Globe Life Field. In addition, shadow box displays commemorating the five Rangers are located on the interior columns on the outfield Main Concourse.

On April 15, 1997, Major League Baseball retired the number 42, worn by Hall of Famer Jackie Robinson, the first African-American player in the Major Leagues. That date marked the 50th anniversary of Robinson's Major League debut with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947. The Rangers held a retirement ceremony for the number 42 prior to a game with the Los Angeles Dodgers on September 2, 1997, at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington. Six players and three coaches had worn the number 42 for Texas. In 1997, outfielder Marc Sagmoen switched to number 37 on April 16 in recognition of the retirement of 42. The complete list of "42s" for the Rangers: Nellie Fox, coach (1972); Jackie Moore, coach (1973-76; 1993-94); George Medich, pitcher (1978-79); Wayne Terwilliger, coach (1981-85); Keith Creel, pitcher (1987); Scott Coolbaugh, third baseman (1989-90); Dan Smith, pitcher (1992); Dennis Cook, pitcher (1995-96); Marc Sagmoen, outfielder (1997).

The first uniform number to be retired in Texas Rangers history was the number 34, worn by pitcher Nolan Ryan from 1989-93. The team held a retirement ceremony on Sunday, September 15, 1996, before the Rangers played the Milwaukee Brewers before a sellout crowd of 45,941 at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington. Ryan signed with Texas as a free agent on December 7, 1988. He went on to finish his career in Arlington as baseball's all-time strikeout leader with 5,714. Among the feats he accomplished with the Rangers were his 300th victory (July 31, 1990, at Milwaukee); his 5,000th strikeout (Oakland's Rickey Henderson on August 22, 1989, at Arlington Stadium); his sixth no-hitter (June 11, 1990, at Oakland); and his seventh no-hitter (May 1, 1991, vs. Toronto at Arlington Stadium). He was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility on January 5, 1999, and was enshrined in the Hall on July 25, 1999. The seven-time All-Star was honored on Nolan Ryan Appreciation Day at Arlington Stadium on Sunday, September 12, 1993. His final Major League appearance was September 22 that year at Seattle. He is the only player in Major League history to have his number retired by three different teams (also California in 1993 and Houston in 1996).

The Rangers retired the number 7, worn by catcher Iván "Pudge" Rodríguez, in a pregame ceremony on August 12, 2017. The honor came 13 days after Rodríguez' induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, New York, on July 30, 2017. Rodríguez was the 52nd player to be elected by the members of the Baseball Writers Association of America in his first year on the ballot, joining Johnny Bench, who was elected in 1989, as the only first-ballot catchers so honored. Overall, he was the 18th catcher to join the National Baseball Hall of Fame, the 10th selected in BBWAA voting. Rodríguez is one of eight players who wore a Texas Rangers uniform to be elected to the Hall of Fame and joins Ryan as the only Hall of Famers with a Rangers cap adorning their plaques. With the Rangers, Rodríguez batted .304 with 217 home runs and 842 RBI in 1,507 games. He ranks second on the team's all-time list with 1,747 hits, 352 doubles and 490 multi-hit games; ranks third in home runs; and ranks fourth in games, runs (866), triples (28), RBI, total bases (2,806), and extra base hits (597). He was elected to the Texas Rangers Hall of Fame in 2013. Following his retirement, he joined the Rangers as special assistant and is in his tenth year in that role.

On August 31, 2019, the Rangers officially retired the uniform number 10 of infielder Michael Young in a pregame ceremony. Young was the fifth Ranger to have his uniform number retired by the Club, the second to receive the honor in the final year of Globe Life Park in Arlington (also Adrián Beltré). Young, who re-joined the Rangers as special assistant to the general manager in November 2014, retired in January 2014 after an outstanding 13-year Major League career. Acquired by Texas from the Toronto Blue Jays in July 2000, Young played in a team record 1,823 games from 2000-12. He captured Rangers Player of the Year honors five times, matching Juan Gonzalez for the most in team history, and was selected to the A.L. All-Star team at three different positions. Young batted .300 or better seven times – a Club record – including six seasons with at least 200 hits. He won the A.L. batting title in 2005 and was the MVP of the 2006 All-Star Game at Pittsburgh. Young is the only player in All-Star Game history with two game-winning hits in his team's final at-bat (2006 and 2008). He is the Washington/Texas all-time leader in games, hits (2,230), runs (1,085), doubles (415), triples (55), total bases (3,286), at-bats (7,399), and multi-hit games (651) and ranks third in RBI (984) and extra base hits (647) while batting .301 with 177 homers. Young was a starter at all four infield positions in his Rangers career, earning a Gold Glove at shortstop in 2008. Overall, Young batted .300 with 185 homers and 1,030 RBI in 1,970 games with the Rangers (2000-12), Phillies (2013) and Dodgers (2013).

BELTRÉ 29

The number 29 of third baseman Adrián Beltré was retired by the Rangers in a pregame ceremony on June 8, 2019. He became the fourth Ranger to have his uniform number retired by the team, and the honor followed his retirement as an active player at the end of the 2018 season. Elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility on Jan. 23, 2024, Beltré produced a brilliant 21-year Major League career with the Dodgers (1998-2004), Mariners (2005-09), Red Sox (2010) and Rangers (2011-18). At the time of his retirement, he ranked among the all-time leaders in doubles (11th, 636), games (14th, 2,933), total bases (14th, 5,309), extra base hits (14th, 1,151), hits (15th, 3,166), RBI (21st, 1,707), and home runs (30th, 477). Beltré had the most career hits of any non-U.S. native in history. The only other players ever to have at least 3,166 hits and 477 home runs are Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray and Albert Pujols. In his eight seasons with the Rangers, Beltré batted .304 with 199 homers and 699 RBI in 1,098 games. He was a four-time selection as Rangers Player of the Year while batting at least .300 five times. His .332 average as a Ranger at Globe Life Park in Arlington was the highest in the 26-year history of the park.

OATES 26

On Saturday, August 6, 2005, the Texas Rangers Baseball Club retired the number 26 in honor of late manager Johnny Oates before a 10-3 victory against the Baltimore Orioles. A crowd of 34,632 gathered at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington to watch the ceremony. Oates became the 14th full-time manager of the Club on Oct. 14, 1994. He spent six seasons at the helm, from 1995-2001, leading the Rangers to their first three division titles and Postseason appearances in franchise history, in '96, '98 and '99. In 1996, Oates shared the American League Manager of the Year Award with Yankees skipper Joe Torre, and in 1999 he led the team to a then-record 95 wins. In his five seasons in Arlington, Oates compiled a record of 506-476 and a .515 winning percentage. On August 2, 2003, the organization honored Oates by inducting him into the inaugural class of the Texas Rangers Baseball Hall of Fame. Known for his steady leadership and strong values, Oates passed away on Christmas Eve 2004.

TEXAS RANGERS BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

The Texas Rangers Baseball Hall of Fame was created in 2003 to honor those individuals who have excelled for the franchise both on and off the field. Through 2022, 26 individuals have been inducted.

Under a process instituted in 2009, which is comprised of all living Texas Rangers Baseball Hall of Fame inductees, veteran members of the media, and Rangers club officials, meets to consider individuals based on their playing contributions. Individuals in a non-playing capacity are also considered for induction by the Rangers organization.

To be considered for Texas Rangers Baseball Hall of Fame selection, former players must have spent a minimum of four seasons in a Texas uniform and be retired as an active player for a minimum of one year.

THREE MILLION FANS IN A SEASON

There have been two instances in Washington/Texas franchise history of home attendance surpassing the 3 million mark in a single season: 2012 and 2013. The club's two-year total of 6,638,553 in 2012-13, as well as average attendance of 40,727 in that span, both ranked 4th in the majors behind only Los Angeles-NL, New York-AL, and San Francisco.

The Rangers drew 3,460,280 fans for 81 home dates in 2012, the highest single-season figure in franchise history and the first time to ever surpass the 3 million mark. Club records were established with 38 sellouts and 59 crowds of at least 40,000. The team saw 3 separate streaks of at least 5 straight sellouts in 2012 after never having more than 4 sellouts in a row prior to that season. The Rangers reached the 3 million mark for the first time on September 13, 2012 in home date no. 71. The team surpassed 1 million that year on May 27 (home date no. 23) and 2 million on July 23 (home date no. 46), both besting the previous records to those milestones by four dates. Texas recorded sellout no. 22 on June 24, 2012 (home date no. 35), surpassing the previous mark of 21 sellouts in 1994. In 2012, the Rangers sold out a club-record 9 consecutive home dates from April 23-May 13, and also saw 5 straight sellouts both May 16-27 and June 29-July 7. For the entire 2012 season, the Rangers saw just 2 crowds of less than 30,000 in Arlington.

PASSED BALLS

The Rangers set a single-season major league record by committing 73 passed balls in 1987, surpassing the old mark of 49 by the 1959 Baltimore Orioles. Of the 73, 65 came with Charlie Hough on the mound, 46 in his final 21 starts and 25 in his last 11 outings. Geno Petralli had 35 total passed balls (32 with Hough on the mound), three more than the previous major league record accomplished by J.C. Martin of the Chicago White Sox in 1965. Don Slaught had 20 (17 catching Hough), and Mike Stanley committed 18 (16 with Hough) as that trio comprised the A.L.'s top three catchers in passed balls. All three broke the Rangers' record for passed balls for an individual catcher, set by Jim Sundberg in 1980 (17). The Rangers had three passed balls in a game four times, four and five twice each, and six once. Petralli's six passed balls on August 30 at Detroit tied the major league record for one game set by Harry Vickers of the Cincinnati Reds on October 4, 1902. Geno also had four passed balls in the seventh inning on August 22 vs. Chicago, matching the big league mark established by Ray Katt of the New York Giants on September 10, 1954.

TRIPLE PLAYS

BY RANGERS (8)

AUGUST 8, 1977 VS. OAKLAND: With Roger Moret pitching, Mitchell Page and Rich McKinney walked to open the fifth inning. Manny Sanguillen hit a grounder to third baseman Toby Harrah, who stepped on third to force Page, threw to second baseman Bump Wills, who forced McKinney, and threw to first baseman Mike Hargrove to get Sanguillen. The Rangers won, 3-0.

JUNE 17, 1999 AT NEW YORK: With Aaron Sele pitching, Tino Martinez and Paul O'Neill each singled to start the inning, giving New York runners at first and second base with no outs. Chili Davis hit a liner to second baseman Mark McLemore, who flipped the ball to shortstop Royce Clayton to double off Martinez at second. Clayton threw the ball to first baseman Lee Stevens to triple-off Paul O'Neill as both runners were moving on contact. The Rangers won, 4-2.

AUGUST 6, 2001 AT BOSTON: With Rob Bell pitching, Brian Daubach led off bottom of fourth inning with a walk and advanced to second on Chris Stynes' single. Scott Hatteberg lined out to shortstop Alex Rodriguez, who threw to second baseman Randy Velarde to double up Daubach at second. Velarde then tagged Stynes to complete the triple play. Boston won, 10-7.

APRIL 14, 2002 VS. SEATTLE: With Kenny Rogers pitching, Ruben Sierra doubled to lead off the top of the fourth inning and John Olerud followed with an infield single, advancing Sierra to third. Ron Wright, in just his second major league at-bat, hit a ground ball back to Rogers, who threw to shortstop Alex Rodriguez to force Olerud at second base. Sierra was then caught in a rundown between 3rd and home, Alex Rodriguez to catcher Ivan Rodriguez to 3rd baseman Hank Blalock to Rogers, who applied the tag. Rogers then threw to second baseman Michael Young, who tagged out Wright attempting to advance to second base to complete the triple play. Seattle won the game, 9-7.

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the 1-6-2-5-1-4 triple play was the most touches (people handling the ball) on a triple play in the majors since August 29, 1969, when Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs hit into a 3-6-5-1-4-7 TP vs. Atlanta. The six Braves participating, in order, were Orlando Cepeda, Gil Garrido, Clete Boyer, Pat Jarvis, Felix Milan and Rico Carty.

MAY 20, 2009 AT DETROIT: With Matt Harrison pitching, Brandon Inge doubled to lead off the bottom of the fourth inning and Ryan Raburn followed with a walk. Gerald Laird hit a line drive to second baseman Ian Kinsler, who threw to shortstop Elvis Andrus to double up Inge at second. Andrus then tagged Raburn to complete the triple play. Detroit won, 5-3.

AUGUST 16, 2018 VS. LOS ANGELES-AL: With Ariel Jurado pitching, the bases loaded, and no outs in the 4th inning, David Fletcher hit a sharp one-hop liner to a diving Jurickson Profar at third base. Profar stepped on 3rd base to force out Eric Young Jr., then tagged Taylor Ward, who had wandered off the bag. Profar then threw to Rougned Odor at 2nd base to force out Kole Calhoun and complete the triple play. According to STATS LLC, the 5-4 triple play marked the first 3-out play in MLB without the batter being retired since 6/3/1912 when the Brooklyn Dodgers did so against the Cincinnati Reds. Texas won, 8-6.

APRIL 20, 2022 AT SEATTLE: With Dane Dunning pitching and runners on 1st and 2nd base in the bottom of the 1st inning, Jesse Winker hit a line drive that was caught by Nathaniel Lowe, who stepped on 1st base to retire Ty France before throwing to shortstop Corey Seager at 2nd base to force out Adam Frazier and complete the first triple play in MLB in 2022. Seattle won, 4-2.

SEPTEMBER 20, 2022 VS. LOS ANGELES-AL: With John King pitching and runners on 1st and 2nd base in the top of the 6th inning, Max Stassi hit a ground ball to third baseman Josh Jung. Jung stepped on third base to retire Mike Ford and threw to second baseman Marcus Semien to force pinch-runner Magneuris Sierra. Semien threw to first baseman Nathaniel Lowe to retire Stassi and complete just the 2nd around-the-horn triple play in Rangers history (also 8/8/77 vs. OAK). The Angels won, 5-2.

It marked the first-ever triple play at Globe Life Field, and gave Texas multiple triple plays in a season for the first time in club history. Texas was involved in 3 of the 6 triple plays in MLB in 2022, turning the first and last such plays in the Majors for the year.

BY OPPOSITION (8)

AUGUST 13, 1972 VS. KANSAS CITY AT TEXAS: With Dick Drago pitching, the Rangers had Dick Bosman on second and Elliott Maddox on first in the bottom of the third inning. Toby Harrah hit a chop in front of the plate, and catcher Ed Kirkpatrick threw to third baseman Paul Schaal to force Bosman. Schaal then relayed to second baseman Cookie Rojas, covering first, to get Harrah. When Maddox tried to go from first to third on the play, he was thrown out at third on Rojas' return throw to Schaal. The Rangers won, 13-4.

JUNE 10, 1979 AT BALTIMORE: With Dennis Martinez pitching, the Rangers had Pat Putnam on first and Al Oliver on second in the top of the sixth inning. With runners going on the pitch, Buddy Bell hit a line drive to third baseman Doug DeCinces, who threw to second baseman Rich Dauer to double off Oliver. Dauer then relayed to first baseman Eddie Murray to get Putnam and complete the triple play. Baltimore won, 5-4.

JUNE 23, 1979 AT OAKLAND: With Craig Minetto pitching, the Rangers had Billy Sample on first and Oscar Gamble on second in the top of the fourth inning. John Grubb hit a soft liner to third baseman Wayne Gross, who was ruled to have made the catch by umpire Bill Kunkel. However, Rangers third base coach Frank Lucchesi, thinking the ball had been trapped, waved the runners from first and second. Gross, attempting to double Gamble off second, threw the ball into centerfield, but centerfielder Tony Armas retrieved the ball and threw to shortstop Dave Chalk in time to double Gamble off second. Armas then took the ball from Chalk and ran over to first base to catch Sample off the bag for the third out. Armas had an assist and putout on the triple play. The Rangers won, 8-5.

JULY 28, 1979 VS. BOSTON: With Dennis Eckersley pitching, the Rangers had Buddy Bell on first and John Grubb on third in the bottom of the first inning. Al Oliver hit a sinking liner towards right, and both runners, thinking the ball would drop, started to advance. However, second baseman Jack Brohamer made a diving catch and threw to first baseman Bob Watson to double Bell off first. Watson then relayed to third baseman Butch Hobson, who stepped on third to get Grubb and complete the triple play. Boston won, 1-0.

MAY 22, 1981 AT SEATTLE: With Jerry Don Gleaton pitching, John Grubb and Pat Putnam walked to lead off the eighth inning. With both runners going on the pitch, Mario Mendoza hit a line drive to shortstop Rick Auerbach, who stepped on 2nd to double off Grubb. Auerbach then threw to first baseman Bruce Bochte to catch Putnam for the third out. The Rangers won, 6-2.

JUNE 1, 1991 VS. SEATTLE: With Randy Johnson pitching, Mario Diaz and Gary Pettis walked to lead off the second inning. Brian Downing hit a grounder to third baseman Edgar Martinez, who stepped on third to force Diaz, then threw to second baseman Harold Reynolds to force Pettis. Reynolds made the relay to first baseman Pete O'Brien to get Downing. Seattle won, 12-8.

APRIL 22, 2016 AT CHICAGO-AL: With Jose Quintana pitching, Mitch Moreland hit a bases-loaded line drive to rightfielder Adam Eaton that would result in a 9-3-2-6-2-5 triple play on which all 3 baserunners had difficulty responding to whether the ball would be caught. Ian Desmond was retired when overrunning the bag in his return to first base. Prince Fielder was then caught off third base for the last out. It was the first triple play by a Texas opponent in nearly 25 years, and the first against the Rangers in a road game in almost 35 years since May 22, 1981 at Seattle.

AUGUST 22, 2022 AT MINNESOTA: With Sonny Gray pitching, Marcus Semien singled and Corey Seager followed with a walk to open the 4th inning. Nathaniel Lowe lined out to first baseman Jose Miranda, who stepped on first base to retire Seager and threw to shortstop Carlos Correa, who recorded a reverse forceout on Semien. It was the first time the Rangers had ever seen triple plays both for and against the team in a single season. Texas won, 2-1.

THE RANGERS BEFORE TEXAS

The current Texas Rangers franchise originated on October 26, 1960, when the American League awarded an expansion franchise to Washington, D.C. That followed the transfer of the original Washington franchise to Minnesota after the 1960 season. The expansion Senators played in Washington from 1961-1971 before moving to Texas after the 1971 season.

THE TEXAS RANGERS

On Nov. 23, 1971, club owner Robert E. Short announced the franchise he moved from Washington D.C. would be named the Texas Rangers. The inaugural game was supposed to be played on April 6, 1972, but was postponed by a players' strike. The Rangers lost to the California Angels, 1-0, on April 15 in the team's first game. In the first home game on April 21, 1972, the Rangers defeated the Angels 7-6 at Arlington Stadium.

THE 30-RUN GAME

Texas (30) at Baltimore (3) - August 22, 2007 (Game 1)

On Aug. 22, 2007, at Baltimore's Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the Rangers established a modern day record by scoring 30 runs in the first game of a doubleheader. Below is a list of various records and notes associated with this historic contest. Special thanks to Elias Sports Bureau for their assistance with this compilation. All notes are updated through the end of the 2023 season.

- The Rangers' 30 runs are the most in any game in modern major league history (beginning 1900), one more than 29 runs by the Red Sox (June 8, 1950 vs. StL-AL), White Sox (April 23, 1955 at KC), and Braves (Sept. 9, 2020 vs. MIA). It was the 9th time ever in baseball history for a team to score 30 runs (beginning 1876). Rangers' previous club record for runs scored was 26, on April 19, 1996 vs. Baltimore.

| 08/22/2007 (1) | Texas | 30 | at Baltimore | 3 |

- The 27-run margin of victory is the largest in the modern era (since 1900) of Major League Baseball.
- The Rangers' 29 hits remain a club record, 6 more than previous mark of 23 hits, done twice: April 2, 1998 vs. Chicago-AL and June 24, 2004 vs. Seattle (18 innings). The 29 hits were 2 shy of matching the modern record of 31, done by Milwaukee on Aug. 28, 1992 vs. Toronto. Club had 27 hits on July 25, 2011 vs. Minnesota, which ranks as the 2nd-most in team history.
- Rangers' 65 plate appearances matched AL record for a 9-inning game, also done by Milwaukee on Aug. 28, 1992 vs. Toronto. Figure was one shy of modern major league record of 66 PA's by Philadelphia on Aug. 25, 1922 vs. Chicago.
- The Rangers' 57 at-bats tied the AL record for a 9-inning game, also done by Milwaukee on Aug. 28, 1992 vs. Toronto and Toronto on July 22, 2022 at Boston. The major league record for at-bats in a 9-inning game is 58, by the New York Giants twice, both on Sept. 2, 1925 vs. Philadelphia and July 11, 1931 vs. Philadelphia.
- The 49 total bases for Texas are a club record, 5 more than next-best mark of 44 total bases on May 21, 2005 vs. Houston.

MULTIPLE INNINGS OF 9-OR-MORE RUNS IN A GAME, MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

| DATE | TEAM | R | | OPP. | R | INNINGS |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| May 2, 1901 | Boston-AL | 23 | at | Philadelphia-AL | 12 | 2,3 |
| Aug. 25, 1922 | Chicago-NL | 26 | vs. | Philadelphia-NL | 23 | 2,4 |

| Aug. 22, 2007 (1) | Texas | 30 | vs. | Baltimore | 3 | 6 (9), 8 (10) |

- Rangers had 10 hits in the 6th inning, matching club record done one other time: May 17, 2001 vs. Cleveland (2nd inn.).
- Club's 21 singles were 3 more than previous team record of 18 (done 4 times).
- Team's 30 RBI are a major league record, although the statistic has only been tracked since 1920. Previous mark was 29 RBI by Boston-AL on June 8, 1950 vs. St. Louis-AL.
- The 5 runs scored by both David Murphy and Jarrod Saltalamacchia matched a team record. Saltalamacchia established a Rangers rookie record with 7 RBI in a game. Ramon Vazquez also had a career-high 7 RBI.
- It is the only time that 2 players on same team had 7 or more RBI in the same game since Aug. 19, 1962, when Yankees' Mickey Mantle (7) and Elston Howard (8) pulled the trick.
- The Rangers were the first team with 4 players (Metcalf, Byrd, Saltalamacchia, Vazquez) with 4 RBI or more in the same game since a Phillies quartet (Rose, Maddux, Schmidt, Boone) did so on May 17, 1979 at Wrigley Field. That game was a 23-22 win for Philadelphia over the Cubs. Only instances since were by the Mets (6/27/12 at CHC), the Dodgers (8/2/18 vs. MIL), the Blue Jays (7/22/22 at BOS), and the Angels (6/24/23 at COL).
- It was the first time for Texas to have 2 grand slams in one game (Byrd and Metcalf) since July 4, 2004 at Houston (Mark Teixeira and Hank Blalock).
- Texas also won the 2nd game of the doubleheader 9-7, as the 39 runs scored by the Rangers in the twinbill is an American League record and a major league record for the modern era. Previous mark was 36 runs by Detroit vs. St. Louis-AL on Aug. 14, 1937. The NL record is 43 by Boston vs. Cincinnati on Aug. 21, 1894.
- The 33 combined runs was a club record until the Rangers' 19-17 defeat (36 total runs) on Aug. 12, 2008 at Boston.
- The 40 hits in a doubleheader remains a team record, 10 more than previous mark (30, Aug. 22, 1980 vs. Milwaukee).
- The 38 combined hits in the game matches a club record, also done June 28, 1996, Texas (16) at Seattle (22) and equaled on July 25, 2011, Minnesota (11) at Texas (27).
- Travis Metcalf's 8 RBI tied a Rangers record for RBI in a doubleheader, also done previously by Toby Harrah on June 25, 1976 vs. Chicago-AL, and by Bobby Bonds on June 23, 1978 vs. California.

- The Rangers had 6 All-Stars for the 2023 game in Seattle, just the 3rd time in franchise history to feature at least 6 All-Stars (8-2012, 6-2010, 6-2023). The 2023 Rangers became just the 5th team in ASG history (beg. 1933) to have 5 position player starters, joining the 1939 Yankees, 1956 Reds, 1957 Reds, and 1976 Reds.
- In 2019, Joey Gallo became just the 21st player in ASG history to hit a home run in his first AS at-bat, the 19th to do it in his 1st AS plate appearance.
- Yu Darvish (2012-13-14) became the 2nd A.L. pitcher to ever be an All-Star in as many as his 1st 3 ML seasons (rookie status in year one), joining Jonathan Papelbon in his 1st 4 years with Boston (2006-09).
- A Texas player had a hit in 10 straight All-Star Games with a plate appearance from 2003-12, the lone exception being 2007, when Michael Young (Rangers' only All-Star that year) did not play. Beginning in 1998, a Ranger has had a hit in 15 of the last 21 All-Star Games (Alex Rodriguez was 0-for-2 in 2002, Nelson Cruz was 0-for-1 in 2013, Adrián Beltré walked in lone PA in 2014, Ian Desmond was 0-for-1 in 2016, no player appeared in 2017).
- For the 2012 game in Kansas City, the Rangers set club records with: 8 total All-Stars, 5 position player selections, 3 pitcher selections, and 3 elected starters. It gave the Rangers the most active All-Stars (8) for one club since the 2004 Yankees (8).
- Adrián Beltré became the first Ranger ever elected to start an All-Star Game at third base in 2012 (although there had been 3 previous starts by Rangers at third base). Also in 2012, Mike Napoli joined Ivan Rodriguez (9) as the only Rangers to start a Classic behind the plate.
- In 2012, Yu Darvish became the 4th Rangers rookie selected, joining Jim Sundberg (1974), Jeff Zimmerman (1999), and Neftali Feliz (2010).
- The Rangers had at least one All-Star starter for 15 consecutive seasons from 1992-2005.
- Adrián Beltré (2, 2011-12), Josh Hamilton (5, 2008-12), Alex Rodriguez (3, 2001-03), and Ivan Rodriguez (9, 1993-2001) are the only Rangers to start more than one AS game.
- Michael Young is the only player with 2 game-winning RBI in the 9th inning or later in All-Star Game history dating to 1933 (2006 and 2008).
- Hank Blalock hit a game-winning, 2-run pinch HR off Eric Gagne in the bottom of the 8th inning to give the A.L. a 7-6 win in 2003 at Chicago's U.S. Cellular Field. He became the 12th player to homer in his first All-Star at-bat.
- Juan Gonzalez (1993) and Ruben Sierra (1989) won the Home Run Derby. Josh Hamilton finished second despite a record showing in 2008, and Nelson Cruz took second in 2009.
- Nolan Ryan became the oldest All-Star winner ever with his relief victory in 1989.
- Kevin Brown is the only Ranger pitcher to ever start an All-Star Game, winning the 1992 game.
- Six Texas managers have served as coaches in an All-Star game: Whitey Herzog - 1973, Billy Martin - 1975, Pat Corrales - 1979, Bobby Valentine - 1988, Johnny Oates - 1995, 1997, Ron Washington - 2007.
- In 1972 infielder Toby Harrah was named to the squad as a replacement for injured Luis Aparicio, becoming the first Ranger All-Star, but Harrah was injured and replaced by Bobby Grich.

RANGERS HITTING FOR THE CYCLE (10)

ODDIBE MCDOWELL (7/23/85) — Oddibe McDowell was the first player in Rangers' history to hit for the cycle, accomplishing that feat on July 23, 1985 vs. Cleveland at Arlington Stadium. McDowell doubled in the first inning, singled in the third and tripled in the fourth off starter Neal Heaton. He added another single in the sixth off Jeff Barkley and achieved the milestone with a solo HR off Tom Waddell in the eighth.

MARK TEIXEIRA (8/17/04) — On August 17, 2004 at Rangers Ballpark against Cleveland, Teixeira became the 2nd player in Rangers history to hit for the cycle in a game, the first in over 19 years. Teixeira struck out in the first inning and doubled in the third off Tribe starter Cliff Lee. He homered in the fourth inning and tripled in the fifth off Cleveland reliever Rick White. Teixeira completed his cycle with a seventh inning single off reliever Cliff Bartosh before being removed for a pinch runner. Notes: At the time, was the 14th switch-hitter in ML history to hit for the cycle, and had 2 hits from each side of the plate in his cycle, just the 3rd known switch-hitter to do so (no info for Otis Clymer).

GARY MATTHEWS JR. (9/13/06) — On September 13, 2006 at Comerica Park in Detroit, Gary Matthews Jr. became the 3rd player in Texas Rangers history to hit for the cycle in a game. He went 4-for-4 with 3 runs and 3 RBI, becoming the first Rangers player to hit for the cycle on the road. Matthews singled in the first inning, doubled in the second, and tripled to center field in the fourth off Tiger starter Justin Verlander. He completed the cycle in the rare "natural order" with a solo home run off LHP Mike Maroth on the first pitch to lead off the top of the sixth inning. Matthews became just the 14th player in major league history and seventh in the A.L. to hit for the cycle in natural order (1B, 2B, 3B, HR). Became the 19th switch-hitter in major league history to hit for the cycle.

IAN KINSLER (4/15/09) — On April 15, 2009 at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington, Ian Kinsler became the 4th player in team history to cycle in a game against Baltimore. He went 6-for-6 with 5 runs, 4 RBI, and 13 total bases, becoming the first player in the modern era (since 1900) to have a 6-hit cycle in a 9-inning game. Kinsler doubled in the first inning, homered in the third, and singled in the fourth off starter Mark Hendrickson. He singled again in the fourth off Radhames Liz, tripled in the sixth off Brian Bass, and doubled again in the eighth off Matt Albers. Notes: Established a club record for hits in a 9-inning game, and also matched club records for extra-base hits (4) and runs scored (5) in a single game…historic game occurred on Jackie Robinson Day throughout MLB, as he wore a nameless no. 42 jersey for the contest.

BENGIE MOLINA (7/16/10) — On July 16, 2010 at Fenway Park in Boston, Bengie Molina became the 5th player in team history to cycle. Molina singled in the second and doubled in the fourth off starter Felix Doubront. He then hit a grand slam in the fifth off Fernando Cabrera and tripled in the eighth off Ramon Ramirez to complete his cycle. He left the game with tightness in his right quadriceps after the triple. It was one of 4 cycles in the majors that season, the only one by an A.L. player. Notes: It was the 15th time a catcher has hit for the cycle, the first Ranger and first catcher ever with a cycle vs. the Red Sox…he was the 9th player, 8th since 1900, and first catcher ever with a grand slam as part of a cycle…was named A.L. Player of the Week for his efforts.

ADRIÁN BELTRÉ (8/24/12) — On Aug. 24, 2012 at Rangers Ballpark against Minnesota, Adrián Beltré posted his second career cycle, the other coming with Seattle on Sept. 1, 2008 in Arlington. He became the first player in the modern era to cycle in the same park as both a home and visiting player. Beltré tripled in the first, doubled in the second, and homered in the fifth off starter Samuel Deduno. He then singled in the seventh off Kyle Waldrop to complete his cycle. Notes: Became just the second player in MLB history to have a 3-HR game and cycle in the same week, joining Joe DiMaggio in 1948…it was the first cycle by an A.L. player since Bengie Molina for Texas in 2010.

ALEX RIOS (9/23/13) — On Sept. 23, 2013 at Rangers Ballpark against Houston, Alex Rios recorded his first career cycle. Texas starter Derek Holland tossed a complete-game shutout in the 12-0 win. Elias Sports Bureau noted it was only the 5th time in a 100-year span for teammates to have a cycle and shutout in the same game, first instance since the 1998 A's (Jimmy Haynes/Mike Blowers). Rios had an RBI double in the first and infield single in the 3rd, both off starter Jordan Lyles. He hit a solo homer in the 5th, and triple to right-center in the 6th, both off David Martinez.

SHIN-SOO CHOO (7/21/15) — On July 21, 2015 at Coors Field against Colorado, Shin-Soo Choo recorded his first career cycle in the Rangers' 9-0 win. It was the 3rd time for a Texas batter to cycle in a shutout win, accounting for a 3rd consecutive instance. Choo doubled in the 2nd inning and homered in the 4th inning off Rockies starter Kyle Kendrick, then singled in the 5th inning against Yohan Flande. After grounding out versus Flande in the 7th, Choo led off the 9th with a triple against Rex Brothers to complete his cycle.

ADRIÁN BELTRÉ (8/3/15) — Adrián Beltré became just the 4th player in MLB history with 3 career cycles (also Long John Reilly, Bob Meusel, Babe Herman) when he completed the feat on August 3, 2015 vs. Houston. Each of his 3 cycles came in Arlington, the only player ever to cycle 3 times in one park. He became the first batter with multiple cycles in a Texas uniform (also 8/24/12 vs. MIN). Beltré tripled in the first inning off starter Lance McCullers and doubled in the 2nd inning off Josh Fields. He also singled in the 3rd inning and homered in the 5th off Mike Fiers, becoming just the 6th player in the expansion era (since 1961) to hit for the cycle by the end of the 5th (credit Elias). It was the Rangers' 2nd cycle in a span of 2 weeks, the first time in club history with multiple cycles in a single season.

CARLOS GOMEZ (4/29/17) — Carlos Gomez registered his second career cycle on April 29, 2017 vs. Los Angeles-AL (also 5/7/08 at CWS), becoming just the fifth player in history to go at least 8 years between cycles (credit Elias). The others were Joe Cronin (1929-40), Joe DiMaggio (1937-48), George Brett (1979-90), and Chris Speier (1978-88). He doubled in the 1st inning, singled in the 3rd, and tripled in the 5th frame, all off Halos starter Jesse Chavez. He then hit a first-pitch home run off reliever Jose Valdez in the 7th, becoming the 4th Ranger ever with a 4-PA cycle (also Molina, Beltré in 2012, and Rios).

PITCHERS AND THE LONG BALL

On June 30, 1997, at Dodger Stadium, Texas pitcher Bobby Witt belted a solo home run off Ismael Valdez in the sixth inning of a 3-2 Rangers win. It was the first homer by an AL pitcher in a regular season game since Baltimore's Roric Harrison went deep on October 3, 1972 (G1) at Cleveland. In Game 4 of the 1974 World Series, Oakland's Ken Holtzman homered against the Dodgers. Witt hit the first home run by a Rangers pitcher since the franchise moved to Texas in 1972. The most recent homer by a pitcher in the franchise had been by Pete Broberg of the Washington Senators on September 19, 1971 vs. Boston at RFK Stadium.

Yu Darvish hit a home run on Aug. 24, 2016 at Cincinnati's Great American Ball Park off Tim Adleman in the fifth inning for the second and most recent long ball by a Texas pitcher. It snapped the Rangers' 19-year home run drought for pitchers, which had been the fifth-longest among all MLB clubs. Ian Desmond followed Darvish's blast with another home run, the first instance of an A.L. club hitting back-to-back home runs involving a pitcher since Tampa Bay on June 4, 2000 at New York-NL (Felix Martinez and Esteban Yan).

PITCHERS AT THE PLATE

When the designated hitter rule was in place from 1973-2021 (excluding 2020), 11 Rangers pitchers batted in a regular season American League game (listed below). Included in this list is an at-bat by David Murphy, who started in left field and ended the game as a pitcher on June 4, 2013 at Boston. While the DH rule was in place, Rangers pitchers combined to bat .125 (52-415) with 11 doubles, 2 triples, 2 home runs and 20 RBI (including Murphy).

| PITCHER | DATE | OPPONENT | SITUATION | RESULT |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Ferguson Jenkins | 10/2/74 | at Minnesota | batted 9th in order | 1-2 with a single |
| Bobby Witt | 7/19/87 | vs. New York | pinch-hitter | strikeout |
| Jeff Russell | 9/5/88 | vs. Oakland | pinch-hitter | fly out |
| Kevin Brown | 8/9/90 | at Cleveland | pinch-hitter | groundout |
| Mike Jeffcoat | 8/2/91 | at Milwaukee | DH in field | RBI double |

Aaron Sele was 19-11 in 1998, joining Jim Bibby (19-19 in 1974) as the club's lone 19-game winners. The club record for wins by a left-hander is 18, a figure reached by both Kenny Rogers in 2004 and Matt Harrison in 2012.

The Rangers' first visit to a National League park occurred on June 17, 1997, when Texas played at Coors Field in Colorado. The Rangers defeated the Rockies 10-8 in 11 innings. John Burkett was the first Texas pitcher to start a game in the batting order against a National League club. He singled in his first at-bat.

HOME RUN RECORDS IN 2005

In an 18-3 victory over Houston on May 21, 2005, the Rangers established a club record with 8 home runs. It marked just the 10th time since divisional play began in 1969 that a team had hit 8-or-more home runs in a game, the first ever in interleague play, and was just the 15th team ever with 8-or-more homers in a single game. Texas hit club-record 4 home runs in the 2nd inning, tied for the most ever by a team in one inning of an interleague contest. All 4 Texas home runs in that 2nd inning came with 2 outs, just the 2nd time in American League history for a team to hit 4 home runs with 2 outs in a frame (also Boston, 4th inning on 7/18/98 at Detroit). With Houston's 2 home runs in the game, 9 different players homered, matching the A.L. record for individuals from both teams with at least one home run. The Rangers had 7 different players homer in the contest, matching an American League record (4th time). Texas would match the 8-homer record on June 30, 2005 in an 18-5 win over LA of Anaheim.

A MAJOR LEAGUE FIRST

The Rangers-Cubs game on June 18, 2002 at Wrigley Field marked the first time in major league history that as many as four players with 400 career home runs had appeared in the same game. The foursome consisted of Juan Gonzalez and Rafael Palmeiro from Texas, and Fred McGriff and Sammy Sosa of Chicago-NL.

GOLD GLOVES WITH POWER

In 2002, Alex Rodriguez became just the 4th player in major league history to hit 50-or-more home runs in a season while also earning a Gold Glove Award. Rodriguez belted 57 homers, the most ever by a Gold Glover, and recorded a .987 fielding percentage (10 E/741 TC). The others to do it were Willie Mays (1965 for San Francisco), Ken Griffey Jr. (1997 and 1998 for Seattle), and Andruw Jones (2005 for Atlanta).

FIVE WITH 25 HOME RUNS

In 2011, the Rangers featured 5 players with at least 25 home runs. It matches the 3rd-most 25-homer players by any club in major league history, also tying the club record that was first reached by the Rangers in 2005. There have been 18 teams in baseball history with at least 5 different 25-homer players in a season, but the Rangers (2005 and 2011), Red Sox (1977 and 2003), White Sox (2002 and 2012), Orioles (1996 and 2016), Reds (1956 and 2017), and Yankees (2009, 2018, and 2019) are the only franchises to do it twice.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

FRISCO ROUGHRIDERS (AA)

CARLOS CARDOZA | MANAGER

BORN: JAN. 19, 1987 IN SAN JUAN, PR RESIDES: WACO, TX

Cardoza returns to manage for his second season in Frisco in 2024, following a 2023 campaign in which he skippered the RoughRiders to a 64-73 (.467) finish. 2024 will mark the San Juan, Puerto Rico native's eighth season as a manger in the Texas farm system, having compiled a lifetime 376-280 (.573) managerial record with the Dominican Summer League Rangers (2016-18), Arizona Complex League Rangers (2019), Down East (2021), Hickory (2022), and Frisco (2023).

Originally slated to lead the organization's Low-A club in 2020 (Hickory), Cardoza instead coordinated camp and managed a group of prospects in the Fall Developmental League, with both Rangers entries combining to post a 29-10-5 record. In 2019, he led the AZL Rangers to their second league championship in club history after directing extended spring training activities in Surprise, Ariz.

Prior to moving stateside, his DSL Rangers clubs posted a 141-71 (.665) record while twice reaching the league championship series. In 2018, he oversaw all field activities in the Dominican Republic, with both DSL teams winning their divisions and reaching the postseason for the first time in team history.

The Puerto Rico native joined the organization in July 2015 and coached a group of Texas prospects in the Dominican Parallel League. Cardoza was hired by Texas following two years as the head coach at his alma mater, Decatur High School in Georgia. Cardoza played two years at Georgia State University and two years at Armstrong Atlantic State, where he was a gold glove second baseman and All-Peach Belt Conference choice. He also played a year of professional baseball in the Puerto Rican Federation League. His grandfather, Carlos Cardoza Montalvo, also played in Puerto Rico.

GLOBE LIFE FIELD

The Texas Rangers made the move to a beautiful new ballpark in 2020. Globe Life Field, which was built as a public-private partnership between the City of Arlington and the Rangers, is not only the team's home but also a multipurpose sports and entertainment venue that includes capabilities for hosting numerous local, regional, and national events.

With the Rangers' 2023 World Series Championship, Globe Life Field has now hosted two Fall Classics in its four years of existence. The facility was the location of the 2020 neutral site World Series between the Los Angeles Dodgers and Tampa Bay Rays.

Globe Life Field will also be the host to Major League Baseball's 94th All-Star Game on July 16, 2024.

Globe Life Field and the reconfigured Choctaw Stadium complement and enhance several other major development projects in the Arlington Entertainment District that have been completed since 2018, including Texas Live! (August 2018), Live! by Loews-Arlington Hotel (September 2019), Spark Arlington Coworking (January 2023), and Loews Arlington Hotel and Convention Center (February 2024).

Other major facilities in the District will be opening over the next two years, including One Rangers Way, a luxury residential community that will be the first of its kind in Arlington, and the National Medal of Honor Museum.

Globe Life Field is the third home park for the Texas Rangers. After moving to Texas for the 1972 season, the franchise played at Arlington Stadium through 1993. The Ballpark in Arlington, which was later known as Ameriquest Field, Rangers Ballpark, and ultimately Globe Life Park in Arlington, was the team's home from 1994-2019.

LOCATION: The street address for Globe Life Field is 734 Stadium Drive, Arlington, TX 76011, a tribute to the jersey numbers of two Rangers' Hall of Famers Ivan Rodriguez (#7) and Nolan Ryan (#34). It is located on a 13-acre site just south of Choctaw Stadium on property that was previously parking for that ballpark. Globe Life Field is bordered by Randol Mill Road on the north, Stadium Drive on the east, Cowboys Way on the south, and Johnson Creek on the west.

HISTORY: The Rangers and the City of Arlington announced the master agreement for a new ballpark partnership on May 20, 2016, with unanimous approval for the agreement coming from the Arlington City Council on May 24, 2016. Arlington's ballpark bonds to finance the project were approved by voters in a City referendum on November 8, 2016. The Rangers and Globe Life And Accident Insurance Company (Globe Life) announced an extension of their naming rights partnership that established Globe Life Field as the name for the new ballpark on August 24, 2017. The official groundbreaking for Globe Life Field took place on September 28, 2017, with construction being completed in less than 30 months. Globe Life Field was originally scheduled to open with a Chris Stapleton concert on March 14, 2020, and the Rangers first regular season game on March 31, 2020. With the suspension of all public events in mid-March due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the first public event was the graduation of Irving's Jack E. Singley Academy on May 29, 2020. The Rangers first regular season game was played on July 24, 2020 versus the Colorado Rockies.

COST: The project cost for Globe Life Field was approximately $1.25 billion. The master agreement for this public-private partnership calls for a 50-50 split between the Texas Rangers and the City of Arlington, with the City's financial contribution capped at $500 million. The City's contribution will be funded by a ½ cent sales tax, 2% hotel tax, and a 5% car rental tax. The Texas Rangers' original 30-year lease on the City-owned Globe Life Park in Arlington was set to end in 2024. With the new master agreement, the Rangers' partnership with Arlington extends until January 1, 2054.

SIZE: Globe Life Field measures 1.8 million square feet, 400,000 square feet more than Globe Life Park. At its highest point, GLF is 230 feet from the playing field to the top of the retractable roof. Each exterior side measures 785 by 815 feet. The park has six entry points, the Northwest, TXU North, Comerica Northeast, Southeast, Toyota Southwest, and two VIP entries on the West side.

RETRACTABLE ROOF: The 5.5 acre retractable roof is one of the most prominent features of Globe Life Field and provides shade and cooler temperature 365 days a year, keeping the average temperature at approximately 72 degrees. It is the largest single-panel operable roof in the world and weighs 24 million pounds. The roof is comprised by a white rubber membrane on the north and south sloped planes, and the flat center is covered with 223 clear panels made of ETFE (ethylene tetrafluoroethylene), a transparent plastic polymer related material, allowing for natural light to fill the entire facility. The roof structure consists of five steel trusses and tie-in steel between each truss, and its construction required 19,000 tons of steel. The roof can open in approximately 12 minutes. Globe Life Field is the 12th full-time park in MLB history with either a fixed roof or retractable roof. On that list, eight of the 12 are now active ballparks, with seven of those eight being retractable roof stadiums (lone fixed dome is Tropicana Field). MLB games have also been staged at Japan's Tokyo Dome in 2000, 2004, 2008, 2012, and 2019.

OPEN AND SHUT IN 2023: Of the 81 regular season games at Globe Life Field in 2023, 11 were played with the roof open, with Texas going 7-4 in those contests. The roof was also open for ALCS Game 4, a 10-3 Houston victory.

PLAYING FIELD: Synthetic Grass: Globe Life Field features a specially designed synthetic grass playing surface that was provided by Shaw Sports Turf with installation completed by Texas-based Paragon Sports Constructors. The choice to go with Shaw Sports Turf was rooted in data, and supported by extensive research as it relates to player safety. The goal was not to only have the highest performing synthetic grass but also to have the highest performing surface for baseball. GLF's playing surface is the B1K natural system, which employs a natural, sustainable infill called Geofill. The system results in excellent ball surface and player surface interaction. B1K is a dual fiber turf system comprised of Shaw's high-performance Strenexe® XD slit film and Bolt® monofilament. This system provides excellent durability and functionality by minimizing the infill from "splashing," maintaining adequate infill levels across the field. The Bolt fiber provides realistic ball roll, friction, and natural grass aesthetics. The Geofill infill used in the system is made of coconut husks and fibers, which is a rapidly renewable resource. The infill requires much less water than natural grass.

A concrete subsurface is the base of the turf system, which is extremely flat to accommodate the turf system, its buildup and layers, a drainage mat, and a shock-resistant mat. The infield and warning track will be clay surfaces, There is also a retractable mound for easy storage during non-baseball events on the field.

The original turf field was replaced with a similar installation in March 2024.

FIELD DIMENSIONS: The distances from home plate to the outfield walls were designed to honor the five Rangers whose numbers have been retired by the club. In addition, the distances in the left field and right field power alleys recognize two early seasons in Rangers' history.

GLOBE LIFE FIELD DIMENSIONS

Left Field Power Alley: 372 feet (Rangers' first year in Arlington--1972)
Center Field (straightaway): 407 feet (Ivan Rodriguez' #7)
Deepest Distance of Park (both left and right of straightaway CF): 410 feet (Michael Young's #10)
Right Field Power Alley: 374 (The Turnaround Gang, 57 to 84 wins--1974)
Right Field Line: 326 feet (Johnny Oates' #26)

In addition, there is a distance marker in left field at 334 feet from home plate to recognize Nolan Ryan's #34. The distance from home plate straight back to the wall of the Field Suites is 42 feet, which honors Jackie Robinson's #42.

The outfield walls are eight feet in height except for in front of the two bullpens (six feet) and in right-center field (10 feet). The batter's eye structure in centerfield is 120 feet in length and 40 feet high.

The Rangers' bullpen is situated in right field with the visiting bullpen in left field. Texas' dugout is on the first base side, and the visiting team utilizes the third base dugout. The playing field orientation (line from home plate to pitcher's mound to second base) at Globe Life Field runs East Northeast as opposed to East Southeast at both Arlington Stadium and Globe Life Park.

With Globe Life Field's retractable roof closed, the distance from home plate to the bottom of the roof truss is 193', 10", and the distance from second base to the bottom of the roof truss is 210', 6". The bottom of the right field video board, which measures 58 feet high and 150 feet long, will be 131". 4" from the warning track.

SEATING: The overall capacity of Globe Life Field is 40,518 on seven seating levels. The facility was designed to bring fans "closer to the action" from every seat. The distance from the main concourse to the field is just 160 feet, compared to 174 feet at Globe Life Park. The distance from the upper concourse to the field is just 184 feet, compared to 207 feet at Globe Life Park.

Globe Life Field gives fans not only up-close and interesting vantage points to watch the game but also spectacular views, both inside and outside of the ballpark. Fans walking along the main concourse can enjoy a 360-degree unobstructed view of the field, and that is also the case on the majority of the upper concourse.

Transparent building materials appear all around Globe Life Field to create the ballpark's wide-open views and let in natural light. In addition to panels of ETFE, in the roof, there are other translucent panels around the ballpark, and glass can be found on all four sides of the ballpark. The park provides a unique seating experience for all fans. Globe Life Field features some of the top premium seating in Major League Baseball. There are 12 field suites located directly behind home plate as well as low-level club seating down both the first and third base lines.

The park has 71 long-term Founders, Legacy, and Classic Suites and 16 Party Suites that can accommodate from 30 to 420 individuals. The Lexus Home Plate Club, American Airlines First Base Dugout Lounge, Germania Insurance Third Base Lounge, Balcones Speakeasy, and First Base Club provide numerous food and beverage options for premium seat holders.

Seats in all levels at Globe Life Field measure at least 20 inches in width as compared to 18 inches in Globe Life Park. The tread widths of the seating bowl are also wider than at the old park, measuring 34 inches in the lower bowl and 33 inches in the upper deck.

MATERIALS: A number of different materials, the majority of which were produced in Texas, that reflect the elements of form and structure, transparency, and landscape, were used on interior and exterior construction of Globe Life Field. These include:

Steel – Irwin Steel – Justin, Texas
Brick – Acme Brick – Denton, TX
Curtainwall System – OldCastle – Alba, Texas
Masonry Veneer – ACME – Denison, Texas
Precast Walls – Enterprise – Corsicana, Texas
Limestone – Mezger – Lampasas, Texas
Granite – Coldspring - Cold Spring, Minnesota
Three Layer ETFE – Vector-Foiltec - Germany
All Metal Panels – Centria - Sheridan, Arkansas
Insulated Translucent Panels – CPI Daylighting - Lake Forest, Illinois

One of the best architectural features at Globe Life Field are the brick arches that run along the ballpark's north façade. These arches are reminiscent of the exterior of Globe Life Park.

VIDEO BOARDS: There are two main video boards at Globe Life Field. The largest board towers over right field and measures approximately 58 feet high by 150 feet wide. The display in left field measures 40 feet high by 111 feet wide. Together, the two video boards provide fans with 13,000 square feet of entertainment and information. These displays feature a total of 5.2 million pixels for high-resolution images and it would take 1,220 60-inch televisions to cover both displays.

Both outfield boards are capable of variable content zoning allowing each to show one large image or to be divided into multiple zones to show any combination of live video, instant replays, up-to-the-minute statistics, graphics, and sponsorship messages.

There is also a centerfield video board that measures 80 feet high by 20 feet wide to provide additional information, including out-of-town scores. The modules for this display were previously utilized in the left field video board at Globe Life Park.

Spanning the length of the seating fascia from foul pole to foul pole, a ribbon display measures 2.5 feet high by 925 feet long. On the suite level fascia, a ribbon display measures 3.5 feet high by 211 feet long. Two displays using 6-millimeter line spacing are installed on the field level suite fascia behind home plate.

Daktronics of Brookings, SD has continued its long relationship with the Rangers to provide Globe Life Field's LED displays and approximately 1,400 LCD for an IPTV (Internet Protocol Television) system. The LED displays and all LCDs will be fully integrated using Daktronics Show Control System.

The public address booth at Globe Life Field is located on the main concourse behind home plate, a first for current Major League ballparks. The booth has glass walls so fans are able to view and interact with Rangers Executive Vice President, Ballpark Entertainment & Productions Chuck Morgan, who has also served as the club's public address announcer since 1983.

OUTSIDE GLOBE LIFE FIELD The Rangers pay tribute to their history outside the gates of Globe Life Field. Statues of Nolan Ryan and Tom Vandergriff, which were dedicated in the centerfield plaza at Globe Life Park in 1997, were relocated prior to the start of the 2020 season. The Ryan statue was placed in the large Rangers Plaza area which is adjacent to the park's North entrance and Texas Live!. The 100,000 square foot plaza also includes an interactive water feature that measures 60 feet, 6 inches in diameter, the same distance from a pitching rubber to home plate.

The Vandergriff statue, which honors the man who was responsible for bringing the Rangers franchise to North Texas, Arlington Mayor Tom Vandergriff, was relocated outside Globe Life Field's Northeast entrance. That area also features Going to the Series, a statue which depicts Neftali Feliz and Bengie Molina embracing after the Rangers defeated the New York Yankees in Game 6 at the 2010 ALCS to advance to their first World Series. This statue was originally dedicated in Rangers Plaza in August 2018.

A new addition in 2020 was a seven-foot statue of Hall of Fame catcher Ivan Rodriguez outside the Southwest entrance, which appropriately enough, is the access behind home plate.

The entryway to the Northeast entrance features the plaques of the first 24 members inducted into the Texas Rangers Baseball Hall of Fame, which was created in 2003.

In addition, there are plaques honoring former Tarrant County Commissioner C.H. "Punch" Wright, former Arlington Mayors Richard Greene and Jeff Williams, and Vandergriff outside the Northeast entrance. Wright joined Vandergriff in the efforts to build the original Turnpike Stadium in Arlington in the 1960's, Greene was a catalyst in the building of The Ballpark in Arlington in the early 1990's, and Williams was instrumental in the effort to build Globe Life Field.

THE BALLPARK DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION TEAM Nationally renowned sports and entertainment design firm HKS was the architect for Globe Life Field. HKS, which has its main headquarters in Dallas, served as architect-of-record on then The Ballpark in Arlington (now Globe Life Park in Arlington), which opened in 1994. Manhattan Construction Company was the project's General Contractor after previously serving in that role for The Ballpark in Arlington. Approximately 5,000 individuals over the 30 months worked almost six million man hours to build Globe Life Field.

CHOCTAW STADIUM

Choctaw Stadium, which was the home of the Texas Rangers from 1994-2019, now serves as a multi-purpose event venue operated by the Rangers.

The Texas Rangers home for 26 seasons from 1994-2019, Globe Life Park in Arlington hosted 2,081 regular season and 25 playoff games, including the 2010 and 2011 World Series. Major League Baseball's 66th All-Star Game was played there on July 11, 1995, and the first Interleague Game in MLB history featured the Rangers hosting the San Francisco Giants on July 12, 1997.

When the Rangers and New York Yankees closed the baseball life of Globe Life Field on September 29, 2019, a total of 66,005,370 fans had attended regular season and postseason season games at the venue.

Following the 2019 baseball season, Globe Life Park in Arlington was reconfigured from a baseball to a multi-purpose facility. In August 2021, the Rangers and Choctaw Casinos & Resorts expanded its partnership to include a naming rights agreement for the facility to be called Choctaw Stadium going forward.

Since the spring of 2020, Choctaw Stadium has been the site of UFL pro football (2024), XFL pro football (2020/2023), Major League Rugby (2022-24), MLS Next Pro soccer (2020-24), and more than 120 college and Texas UIL high school football games (2020-23). Additional sports and entertainment events are scheduled throughout the year.

Choctaw Stadium is maintained by the Texas Rangers with all events operated under the oversight of REV Entertainment.

Details of the Choctaw Stadium 2019 repurposing:

PLAYING FIELD: The football field and soccer pitch were built to run north and south along what was previously the first base/right field side of the park. The third base dugout and the lower 18 rows of the third base seating bowl (approximately 6,000 total seats) were removed to accommodate the north end of the field. The south end zone of the field begins approximately 50 feet out from the front row of the Home Run Porch in order to improve sightlines on the south side. The first base dugout remains with the tunnel being used for access to the home locker rooms. A tunnel was constructed in the north end zone for access to the visiting and officials locker rooms.

FIELD SURFACE: The playing surface is synthetic grass field provided by Shaw Sports Turf with installation completed by Paragon Sports Constructors. The Rangers also utilized a state-of the art synthetic grass field in Globe Life Field. The permanent field surface is unmarked to allow for seamless field conversion. The appropriate field lines are added for each event.

ADDITIONAL SEATING: While the current first base bowl provides the majority of the seating on the west side of the field, a permanent seating structure was constructed on the field's east side in the area that was previously left field, the visiting bullpen, and the left field reserved seating area. Approximately 4,000 seats were added below the left field club level. The new configuration provides access to rest rooms and concessions on Vandergriff Plaza.

LOCKER ROOMS: The former Texas Rangers clubhouse on the first base side was renovated to accommodate approximately 60 football players in the main dressing area. Two new auxiliary locker rooms were built in the area that previously housed the Rangers' and visiting batting cages. Each locker room can accommodate up to 80 players. This allows for the hosting of multiple events and teams on the same day.

SBL Architecture of Arlington, which has its offices at Choctaw Stadium and has been involved in many of the facility's renovations over the years, designed the reconfiguration of the park. The project's general contractor was Manhattan Construction, which built The Ballpark in Arlington in the early 1990's as well as the new Globe Life Field.

SIZE AND AMENITIES: Choctaw Stadium contains approximately 1,400,000 square feet. The park measures 114 feet from street level to the top of the roof canopy. The facility also includes a four-story office building within the stadium and the 12-acre Mark Holtz Lake on the perimeter. One of the signature features of Choctaw Stadium is the four-story office building that encloses the structure south and east quadrants. The office building has 35,000 square feet on each level. Spark Arlington, a collaborative coworking community, opened in January 2023 and occupies 30,000 square feet on the second and third floors. Six Flags Entertainment Corporation has its corporate offices to the fourth floor, which was previously occupied by the Texas Rangers. The Arlington Convention & Visitors Bureau moved its offices to street level space in Choctaw Stadium in the spring of 2022. Heresay Arlington, a restaurant and lounge located in the former All You Can Eat space on the fourth floor opened for business in February 2023 and a Starbucks location opened on the west concourse in September 2023.

THE BALLPARK IN ARLINGTON HISTORY: In 1994 a new era for the Texas Rangers began with the opening of The Ballpark in Arlington. The facility was completed in just 23 months. The 48,114- seat open-air park was designed and built with tradition and intimacy in mind, containing features such as a granite and brick facade, exposed structural steel, an asymmetrical playing field, and a home run porch in right field. Texas architecture is featured throughout, from the outer facade to the Lone Stars in the concourses and on the seat aisles.

The agreement between the Rangers and the City of Arlington, Texas to build a new ballpark was announced on October 24, 1990. Actual construction began on April 24, 1992. The ballpark was originally named The Ballpark in Arlington on September 28, 1993. The first game was an exhibition contest between the Rangers and New York Mets on April 1, 1994 with the first regular season game played on April 11, 1994 between the Rangers and Milwaukee Brewers.

From May 7, 2004 until March 18, 2007 the ballpark was named Ameriquest Field in Arlington as a part of an agreement between the Texas Rangers and Ameriquest Mortgage Company. The agreement ended and the company returned the naming rights to the team on March 19, 2007 with the facility being renamed Rangers Ballpark in Arlington. On February 5, 2014, the Rangers and Globe Life Accident and Insurance Company announced a partnership that renamed the facility Globe Life Park in Arlington.

The revised cost of the overall project was approximately 191 million dollars. The financing was derived from $135 million in bonds issued by the Arlington Sports Facilities Development Authority with the remaining equity raised through the sale or lease of luxury boxes and seat options in the new ballpark, loans guaranteed by the Rangers, the concessions contract with Sportservice and city street funds. Annual debt service for the municipal bonds was provided by public private sharing. That is comprised of a $3.5 million rental payment from the Rangers and a one-half cent City of Arlington sales tax. The sales tax was approved in an Arlington municipal election by a 65 percent majority on January 19, 1991, and expired when the debt was retired in November, 2001. The Rangers have a lease with the City of Arlington, and REV Entertainment maintains and operates the entire facility with the reconfiguration.

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN TEAM: Design Architect: David M. Schwarz Architectural Services of Washington, D.C. was the design architect on the project. Schwarz was selected from among 17 architects who originally made presentations in August 1991. He has been involved in a number of projects in Texas including the Bass Performance Hall, Cook-Fort Worth Children's Medical Center, Sundance West, and most recently Dickies Arena, all in Fort Worth. His imaginative design of the park reflects a traditional look of older ballparks and includes a major Texas influence. Architect of Record: Dallas-based HKS, Inc..

ARLINGTON STADIUM (1965-1993)

Arlington Stadium served as the home of the Texas Rangers from 1972-1993.

Professional baseball has had a long and glorious history in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, but it was the construction of a stadium in Arlington, Texas that led to the region joining the major leagues.

Both Dallas and Fort Worth entered organized baseball in 1886 and were Texas League rivals for most of the next 72 years. The Dallas entry moved to a park in Oak Cliff in 1919, and remained at that site through several reconstruction efforts, becoming Burnett Field in 1948. Fort Worth's ballpark was built on the east side of Main St. in 1926, called LaGrave Field. It was rebuilt after a fire in 1949.

Burnett and LaGrave Fields were the sites of countless memorable games over the years, but major league baseball was the ultimate goal, and area leaders knew the two cities would have to join together to make this a reality. In 1959, both Dallas and Fort Worth left the Texas League and combined to put a franchise in the class AAA American Association. That year, plans for a park to serve both cities in Arlington were first advanced, when the co-owners of the area's American Association franchise, J.W. Bateson and Amon Carter, Jr. envisioned a team in the projected Continental League.

With that in mind, in the fall of 1959, the Texas Legislature authorized the formation of a Bi-County Sports Committee empowered to issue $9.5 million in revenue bonds for the construction of a major league stadium pending voter approval, which took place.

American League expansion a year later ended plans for the third major league, and delays for the new stadium occurred. The options on the stadium site in Arlington were permitted to expire. But the efforts of Arlington Mayor Tom Vandergriff, who had a key role in bringing the Washington Senators to Texas in the fall of 1971, brought the stadium project back to life. In April, 1964, Vandergriff, chairman of the Sports Committee, sponsored a Tarrant County bond election which authorized construction of the stadium and provided for purchase of the land by the county. The 137-acre tract was located just north of the former Arlington Downs race track and just south of the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike in what was known as the Great Southwest Industrial Development Complex.

Construction began in November, 1964, and despite weather delays, Turnpike Stadium was dedicated on April 23, 1965, when the Dallas-Fort Worth Spurs played their Texas League home opener. The 10,600-seat ballpark cost $1.5 million and was built as the nucleus of a major league stadium, designed for expanded seating capacity to as many 50,000-55,000 with bleachers and a second deck. Parking was provided for 2,500 cars with potential expansion to 10,000. The stadium was built in a natural bowl, with a playing surface 40 feet below the surrounding ground, which was projected at the time to save millions of dollars in excavation costs.

As the efforts to bring major league baseball to Arlington intensified, Vandergriff knew an expansion of Turnpike Stadium was vital to show the area's interest to perspective big league franchises. This became possible in early 1970, when the City of Arlington, with approval of its residents via an election, purchased the stadium from Tarrant County and began an expansion. Turnpike Stadium was enlarged to seat 21,000 for the 1971 Texas League season with an expansion of seats down the left and right field lines.

A dream was realized on September 22, 1971, when American League owners voted to transfer the Washington Senators franchise to Arlington, Texas for the 1972 season. That required further expansion to meet American League stadium capacity requirements. Bleacher and outfield seats were built from foul line to foul line, increasing capacity to 35,694. Other facilities were also upgraded, including additional field lighting, the building of new press facilities and the construction of a 200 by 60 foot scoreboard behind the left field stands. That board was highlighted by a 60 by 60 foot area in the shape of the state of Texas. Field dimensions set for 1972 were: 330 feet down the left and right field lines, and 400 feet to straightaway center.

The ballpark was renamed Arlington Stadium, and after a players' strike cancelled the original April 6 opener, the Texas Rangers defeated the California Angels, 7-6, in the first major league regular season game ever in Arlington on April 21, 1972 before a crowd of 20,105. Arlington Stadium recorded its first capacity crowd on June 27, 1973, when Houston high school sensation and the nation's top draft pick, left-hander David Clyde made his professional debut for the Rangers, pitching five strong innings against Minnesota.

Arlington Stadium underwent numerous changes over the years. The Rangers' home clubhouse was located behind the centerfield seats through the 1972 season, when a new building was constructed behind first base. The seating was expanded to 41,284 after the 1977 season with the construction of the upper deck, known as the plaza.

A $12 million improvement took place prior to the opening of the 1984 campaign. A wall extending 30 feet above the top of the outfield bleachers was constructed from foul line to foul line, a distance of 1,100 feet, and featured state-of-the-art video and scoreboards. This wall drastically reduced the effects of the swirling crosswinds blowing into the park as home run production increased from 78 in 1983 to 125 in 1984.

In addition, 54 additional luxury suites were built on two levels, an auxiliary press box, dark rooms, a gift shop, and concession stands were added, and seating was expanded in the lower box seat areas to increase stadium capacity to 43,508. Some seat alterations in 1990 lifted Arlington Stadium to 43,521.

The Rangers assumed full authority over the stadium from the City of Arlington in August 1983 and purchased the ballpark from the City in November, 1987.

The natural grass, open air stadium remained primarily a baseball-only facility over the years. The only regular non-baseball tenant was the University of Texas-Arlington, which played its football games at Arlington Stadium in 1972 and 1973.

When it finally closed its doors at the end of the 1993 season, Arlington Stadium had been the site of 1,750 AL games with nearly 32 million people in attendance for those contests. The demolition of Arlington Stadium was completed in the fall of 1994. The National Medal of Honor Museum, a spectacular new exhibit building scheduled to open in 2024, is currently being constructed on the Arlington Stadium site.

RANGERS IN THE COMMUNITY

Established in December 1991, the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation is dedicated to improving the lives of those in the community, especially children, military, first responders, and their families, through meaningful programming and partnerships focused on education, health, and athletics.

Throughout its 30-plus-year history, the Rangers Foundation has donated over $70 million to support the community and continues to expand its reach, impacting millions of people through grants, grass-roots programming, donation events, and much more.

The Texas Rangers MLB Youth Academy in West Dallas was completed in Dec. 2017.

YOUTH BASEBALL & SOFTBALL

TEXAS RANGERS MLB YOUTH ACADEMY AT MERCY STREET SPORTS COMPLEX, presented by Toyota

Opened in West Dallas in December 2017, the Texas Rangers Youth Academy facility features five outdoor fields, batting cages, bullpens, and the Globe Life Training Center, which houses an indoor field, retractable cages, classrooms, offices, locker rooms, and a weight room.

The Texas Rangers Youth Academy provides free year-round baseball and softball instruction to athletes ages 7-18, summer ball through Major League Baseball's Nike RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) League, and dozens of travel and development opportunities for its athletes.

With help from several community partners, Academy families also have access to educational programs, family services, food and supplies distributions, and more.

Since opening their doors, more than 100,000 athletes have participated in Academy programs, and more than 115 have committed to playing college baseball and softball.

NIKE RBI LEAGUE

As part of Major League Baseball's Nike RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) program, the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation gives youth from underserved and diverse communities the opportunity to play baseball and softball while teaching the value of teamwork.

The Texas Rangers Youth Academy's free summer-long Nike RBI League features dozens of teams competing in the junior and senior baseball and softball divisions, with opportunities to compete in All-Star tournaments and access college scholarships.

GLOBE LIFE TEXAS RANGERS BASEBALL AND SOFTBALL GRANT PROGRAM

Globe Life and the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation, with help from Bally Sports Southwest, partner annually to provide baseball and softball grants to nonprofit programs across Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, New Mexico, and Arkansas. This grant program is designed to support the growth of baseball and softball by providing funding for field renovations, equipment needs, uniforms, and league development for teams throughout the five-state territory.

Since its inception in 2012, the program has donated nearly $1 million to more than 125 organizations.

MIRACLE LEAGUE AND BASEBALL FANTASY CAMPS

Since 2005, the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation has partnered with the Miracle League of DFW and Miracle League of Southlake.

The Foundation assisted in constructing the Doug Inman Miracle League Field at Arlington's Randol Mill Park and Southlake's Miracle Lague Field and continues to support Miracle League programming through in-kind donations and experiences for the children, including a Fantasy Camp with funding provided by Baseball Fantasy Camps for Kids, LLC.

EDUCATION

TEXAS RANGERS BASEBALL FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS

The Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation provides high school and college students scholarships through the following programs: Richard Greene Scholars, Mark Holtz Scholarships, Johnny Oates Scholarships, Young Family Scholarships, and Rangers Nike RBI Scholarships.

The Foundation has funded over $4.2 million in college scholarships to date. Additionally, Major League Baseball recognized the Rangers Foundation's Richard Greene Scholars program in 2018 with the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence.

LEADING OFF, presented by Globe Life

In partnership with Globe Life and the Arlington Independent School District, the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation implemented the Leading Off program, which every year sees 60 8th-grade students from across Arlington participate in workshops and community service events to create a passion for servant leadership. In 2023, a pilot program was added in Fort Worth ISD.

CHARLEY PRIDE FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM presented by The Roland Parrish Foundation

To honor the late Charley Pride and create a more diverse and inclusive ball club, the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation established the Charley Pride Fellowship Program in 2021.

Each year the Foundation hires, trains, and supports five Charley Pride Fellows as they rotate through three different departments within the Texas Rangers front office. The paid 10-week internship opportunity creates a launching pad for college students from diverse backgrounds to benefit them should they choose to pursue a career in sports.

HEALTH

MEDICAL CITY HEALTHCARE FITNESS ALL-STARS

The Medical City Healthcare Health and Fitness All-Stars Program offers a series of instructional videos designed to supplement the fifth-grade physical education curriculum in Arlington ISD and Fort Worth ISD.

In each lesson, Rangers Captain and Medical City Healthcare professionals teach students tips to maintain a physically and mentally healthy lifestyle.

JUST KEEP LIVIN PROGRAM

In 2011, the Rangers Foundation launched a one-of-a-kind, innovative partnership with the Just Keep Livin Foundation, founded by Matthew and Camila McConaughey. This after-school program at Sam Houston, Pinkston, and Eastern Hills High Schools encourages students to improve their physical and mental health through exercise, teamwork, gratitude, and positive life choices.

MILITARY AND FIRST RESPONDERS

HOME BASE FOR HEROES

Thanks to the generosity of The 1687 Foundation, the Home Base for Heroes wall recognizes service men and women at Globe Life Field by allowing families to submit photos of their active military service member, veteran, first responder, or frontline healthcare worker and search for their hero at the Home Base for Heroes interactive display adjacent to the Grand Slam Team Store in centerfield.

FACES OF FREEDOM, presented by American Airlines

Each month the Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation and American Airlines honor active or retired members of the Armed Forces during Rangers home games. Honorees receive game tickets, exclusive Globe Life Field experiences, and a trip for themselves and a guest to Washington D.C.

Nominate a hero at rangers.com/facesoffreedom.

SEATS FOR SERVICE MEMBERS

The Texas Rangers Baseball Foundation and American Airlines partner annually to fly San Diego-based servicemen and women to the DFW Metroplex for an all-expense-paid two-day trip, which includes attending a Rangers game at Globe Life Field.

LEGACY PROJECTS

The Texas Rangers Foundation in 2022 established its 50th Anniversary Legacy Grant Program to continue impacting the North Texas community for decades to come. The program saw $500,000 divided equally between five deserving organizations— Adaptive Training Foundation, Arlington ISD Education Foundation, Artes de la Rosa, C5 Texas, and Traffick911.

In 2023, the Rangers Foundation and Major League Baseball partnered on their first of several Legacy initiatives designed to positively impact the cities hosting MLB Jewel Events. To commemorate the team's 2023 World Series appearance, a sizable donation was presented to local nonprofit Mission Arlington Mission Metroplex to benefit its medical clinic expansion.

In 2024, the Rangers Foundation will partner with MLB once again on several All-Star Legacy projects, the first being the renovation of Arlington's historic Senter Park into the MLB and Texas Rangers All-Star Legacy Park & Corey Seager Batting Cages, which broke ground in January. Several more All-Star Legacy projects will be announced leading up to July.

LEADERS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Foundation is supported through the generosity of Rangers owners, coaches, corporate partners, and individual donors, including Rangers players.

In addition to their generous financial donations, Rangers players and coaches also donate autographed items and their time, furthering the Foundation's mission to support the DFW community and beyond.

SURPRISE, ARIZONA
SPRING TRAINING HOME OF THE TEXAS RANGERS

2024 will mark the 22nd season that the Texas Rangers have held their Major and Minor League Spring Training in Surprise, Arizona, the longest span in club history. Texas trained in Pompano Beach, FL from 1972-86 (15 years) and in Port Charlotte, FL from 1987-2002 (16 years). Pompano Beach was also the spring home of the expansion Washington Senators from 1961-71.

The complex in Surprise, which is located northwest of Phoenix in Maricopa County, is shared by the Rangers and Kansas City Royals and is located on a 132-acre site. It opened in September of 2002 for Texas' Arizona Instructional League program.

The Rangers Arizona baseball complex building comprises approximately 49,500 square feet that houses clubhouse, training, medical, and dining facilities for both the Major and Minor League operation. There is also 3,600 square-foot multi-purpose meeting facility adjacent to the complex building.

Rangers Village, a baseball housing and meeting facility, opened in January 2020.

The Rangers and Royals play their home games at Surprise Stadium/ Billy Parker Field, a beautiful 10,714- seat ballpark. Surprise Stadium includes a lower seating bowl, an upper level with 530 club seats, six suites, and adjoining party decks, and seating for approximately 3,000 on the outfield berm.

Field dimensions of Surprise Stadium are 350 feet down the left and right field lines, 379 feet to left and right center, and 400 feet to straightaway center. The outfield fences are eight feet high. The Rangers utilize the first base dugout with the Royals on the third base side.

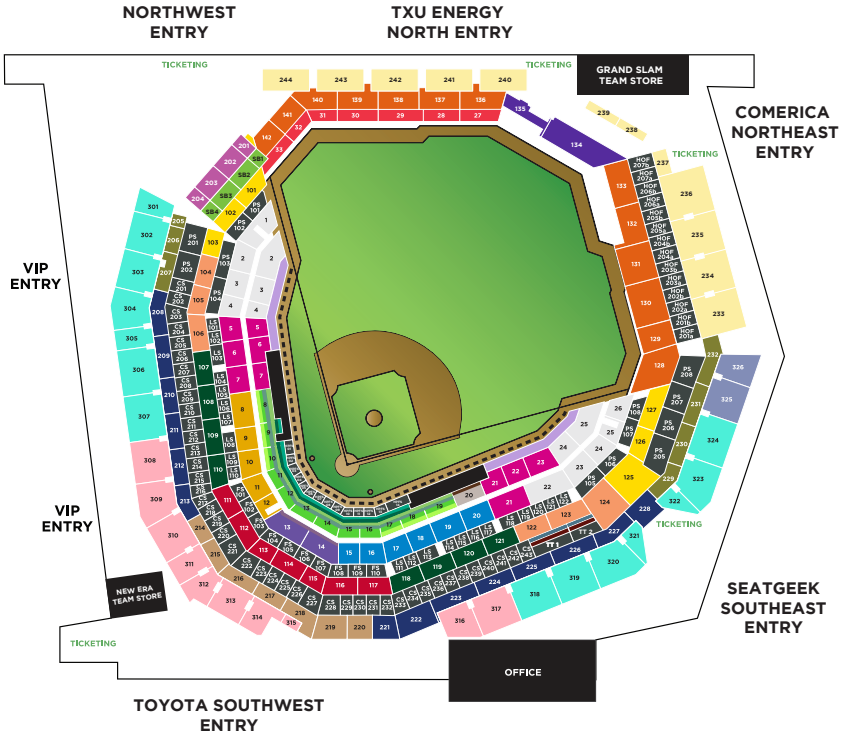

Both the Rangers and Royals have six full practice fields and a half field for use by the major and Minor League teams. Each team has one full field with lights with that field having the exact dimensions of its home park (Globe Life Park in Arlington for the Rangers; Kauffman Stadium for the Royals). Four of the fields for each team are in a cloverleaf configuration with an observation tower centrally located.

The facility is owned and maintained by the City of Surprise and was originally constructed by funds approved with the passing of Proposition 302, a 30-year funding plan which generates funds for sports, recreation, and tourism in Maricopa County. The proposition was passed by County voters on November 7, 2000, a week after the Rangers announced plans to open negotiations with the City of Surprise. The agreement on a 20-year lease between the Rangers and Surprise was announced on March 23, 2001 with the groundbreaking ceremony taking place on May 21, 2001. The facility was dedicated on December 7, 2002. Both teams agreed to a seven-year extension of the lease through 2029 in 2015.

Rangers Village, a baseball housing and meeting facility opened in January 2020. The multi-story, 68,280 square-foot facility includes housing for Rangers' organizational players and staff as well as classroom and meeting space. It will be utilized throughout the year for spring training, extended spring, Arizona rookie league, instructional league and other baseball programs.

Rangers Village is located directly across from the Rangers' baseball complex and Surprise Stadium. It consists of a two-story common area building which is attached to a three-story residential building. The common area measures 12,753 square feet and includes a lobby/ reception, dining area, recreation room, and outdoor patio space on the first floor. The second floor of the common area houses an auditorium, classrooms, and fitness area. The residential building measures 53,527 square feet and includes 36 units that can house up to 180 individuals at one time.
