LEAGUE RULES AND GAME OFFICIALS

LEAGUE RULES

THE NATIONAL BASKETBALL ASSOCIATION will adhere to the current college playing rules with the following exceptions:

1. All games will be played in four 12 minute periods.

2. Each player is permitted six personal fouls.

3. All technical fouls charged to player for unsportsmanlike conduct shall also be charged as a personal foul.

4. The free-throw lane is to be bounded by two lines 12 feet apart.

5. Any player who is fouled and injured and cannot attempt his foul shot and must be removed from the game for a substitute cannot re-enter the game. His substitute is to be selected by the opposing coach.

6. If a double-foul occurs, and participating players thereby incur a sixth personal foul, such players shall attempt the foul shot before leaving the game.

7. No zone defense is allowed.

8. When a team is reduced to five eligible players, these players must finish the game, except in case of injury. Anyone of the last five players in the game, upon committing his sixth personal foul, shall be penalized by a technical foul in addition to the personal foul. The same penalty shall be imposed for any additional personal fouls committed after the sixth personal foul. An injured player who must be replaced can be replaced only by the last player who was put out of the game.

9. During the last two minutes of a regulation game, there shall be a jump ball after each successful free throw or in the case of two free throws, after the second attempted free throw, if successful. The jump shall be between the fouled player and the player whom the fouled player was playing immediately prior thereto.

10. The spaces now designated by the figures H and V alongside the free throw lane shall be occupied by two players of the defensive team with the other players alternating on both sides of the free throw lane.

11. The areas forty feet from each end line and parallel to the end lines are considered the forecourt of the team whose basket is located therein, the balance of the court being considered that team's backcourt. If a player is in absolute control of the ball in his backcourt and is fouled, this foul calls for two free throws. The offensive team must bring the ball into its offensive zone within the ten seconds required previously for bringing the ball past midcourt.

NATIONAL BASKETBALL ASSOCIATION
1952-53 RECORDS

If any one feature of the National Basketball Association 1952-53 season were to be selected for special comment, it would be the accuracy in field goal shooting. Field goal accuracy soared to an all-time peak.

The league produced new individual champions in all departments of play. Three of the titles were copped by Philadelphia's sophomore-sensation, Neil Johnston. Johnston won the coveted scoring championship, and added field goal marksmanship and "work-horse" awards to his trophy shelf. Bill Sharman of Boston was elevated to the foul shooting throne, Bob Cousy of Boston gained the assists award and the campaign saw George Mikan of Minneapolis leading in board control.

Composite figures comparing the circuit's seven seasons follow:

	Games	FG Pct.	FT Pct.	PF Ave.	Ave. Pts.
1952-53 Season	352	37.0	71.6	28.7	82.5
1951-52 Season	330	36.7	73.5	26.9	83.7

1946-47 Season	331	27.9	64.1	20.8	67.8

THIRD N.B.A. ALL-STAR GAME

The Western Division All-Stars finally broke the two-year monopoly of the East in the Annual All-Star game, winning last year's classic, 79-75.

The game was basketball at its best—by the best. Giant George Mikan, his usual superlative self, was the guiding light in the West victory, winning most valuable player acclaim from the assembled scribes and radio 'casters, nosing out Fort Wayne's Andy Phillip for the honor.

Mikan barrelled in 22 points for individual scoring honors and the rest of the West scoring was evenly divided. Boston's terrific trio, Easy Ed Macauley, Bob Cousy and Bill Sharman paced the Eastern stars in their attack with 18, 15 and 11 points each.

At a critical point in the closing minutes, Rochester's Bob Davies strung together seven straight points to help the West ice the verdict.

New York's Joe Lapchick and Minneapolis' John Kundla, also finalists in the final league playoffs, were the respective coaches of the All-Star clubs.
