NICK J. MILETI

Nick Mileti is a very lucky person. He has had the opportunity to do many things in his life, including founding the Cavaliers in 1970.

A native Clevelander, Nick graduated from Corlett, Moses Cleveland, John Adams High School, Bowling Green University and the Ohio State University College of Law.

Professionally he has had three notable careers — Law, Elderly Housing Consulting, and, of course, Sports and Entertainment.

In regard to the latter, you know that Nick has taken the fans of Northeast Ohio from the Arena to the magnificent Coliseum, kept the Indians in town and expended a fortune in time and money in professional hockey.

He is now immersed in the affairs of the NBA on both a wide spectrum and specifically on the Cavaliers. Nick has served on the Ad-Hoc Committee, which was responsible for curbing violence, and ultimately made rule changes and instituted the use of three referees. Nick now serves on three major NBA Committees — expansion, television (which renewed their contract with CBS providing greater revenue over the next four years); and, is chairman of a new committee formed to enhance the image of the NBA.

Although he has won innumerable awards and citations, he has one final sports goal: WIN AN NBA CHAMPIONSHIP!

JIM BREWER

6-9 — 220 — Forward — No. 52
COLLEGE: Minnesota, 1973
HIGH SCHOOL: Proviso East, Maywood, Illinois
BIRTHPLACE: Maywood, Illinois
BIRTHDATE: December 3, 1951 AGE: 26
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: Cleveland — 5 years
HOW ACQUIRED: First round selection in 1973 college draft
WIFE: Patsy
CHILDREN: James D. Brewer, Jr. (Born June, 1978)

PLAYING STYLE: Recognized throughout the NBA as one of the league's top defensive forwards, Brewer made the NBA All-Defensive Team as a second team pick in 1976 and 1977. Brewer is a rugged offensive rebounder who understands the intricacies of the game and plays it with intelligence and intensity. He possesses good speed and ball handling ability for a big man.

LAST SEASON: The Cavaliers' All-Time leading rebounder had a disappointing season in 1977-78. For the first time since joining the Cavaliers, he failed to lead the team in any statistical category.

THIS SEASON: The Cavaliers are hoping that Brewer will once again be able to provide the type of rebounding that terrorized NBA foes in seasons past. The reemergence of Brewer as a top board man will be an invaluable asset to a front line that already ranks as one of the finest in the NBA. A strong performance by Brewer will play a major role in helping the Cavaliers attain their fifth season of 40 or more victories.

PERSONAL: The man known to Cavaliers faithful as "Brew" became a proud father for the first time this past summer when wife Patsy gave birth to a son, James D. Brewer, Jr. The soft-spoken and unpretentious crowd favorite was recruited out of high school by Bill Fitch for his Minnesota Golden Gopher team. Brewer played on the 1972 United States Olympic Team and was the second player chosen in the NBA Draft the following year. An intense individual who enjoys reading and playing golf in his spare time, Brewer worked with local youngsters this past summer in the Sohio Summer Basketball Clinics. He received a degree in sociology from Minnesota. Brewer is a vegetarian. Jim also participated in the Akron Summer Recreation League.

AUSTIN CARR

6-4 — 200 — Guard — No. 34
COLLEGE: Notre Dame, 1971
HIGH SCHOOL: Mackin High, Washington, D.C.
BIRTHPLACE: Washington, D.C.
BIRTHDATE: March 10, 1948 AGE: 30
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: Cleveland — 7 years
HOW ACQUIRED: First round selection in 1971 college draft.

PLAYING STYLE: Austin Carr possesses the ability to quickly put points on the board. Carr is an unselfish player who is willing to do whatever is necessary to help the team win.

LAST SEASON: For the second consecutive year, Carr played in all 82 regular season games and both playoff games against New York. Carr's 12.3 scoring average in 1977-78 gives him seven consecutive seasons in double figures — more than any other Cavalier. Carr became Walker's steady running mate in the backcourt after Frazier was injured and averaged 16.5 points in the final 23 games of the campaign. Austin's playoff average of 17.5 points was his finest ever as a professional.

THIS SEASON: Once again Austin Carr will play a major role in the Cavs' quest for a fourth consecutive playoff berth. Carr's maturity as a top-notch veteran and his outstanding offensive ability will again help to give the "wine and gold" a first class backcourt combination.

PERSONAL NOTES: Carr was the first player selected in the 1971 NBA Draft. He is the only player on the current roster to have represented the Cavs in the NBA All-Star Game (1974 in Seattle). In 1972 he became the first Cavalier selected for the NBA All-Rookie Team. Prior to enrolling at Notre Dame, Carr lettered in basketball, baseball, and cross-country at Mackin High School in Washington, D.C. and captained his baseball and basketball teams in prep school. Carr is the Cavaliers' All-Time Leader in free throws made (1,300) and free throws attempted (1,697) and ranks second on the list for most games played (476), most field goals attempted (7,480), most field goals made (3,331), most minutes played (14,694), most personal fouls (1,011), most points (7,962), most assists (1,453), and highest scoring average (16.7). Soft spoken and always smiling, Carr is called "A.C." by his teammates. At the conclusion of the 1977 season, he was selected by the media as the Cavs' Most Valuable Player. This season Austin was one of three finalists for the Walter Kennedy Citizenship Award which is presented annually to a deserving player, coach or assistant coach for his participation in community affairs. Carr is an enthusiastic practitioner of vegetarianism. This past summer, Austin spent much of his spare time working on his golf game.

JIM CHONES

6-11 — 220 — Center — No. 22
COLLEGE: Marquette, 1972
HIGH SCHOOL: St. Catherines, Racine, Wisconsin
BIRTHPLACE: Racine, Wisconsin
BIRTHDATE: November 30, 1949 AGE: 28
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: New York Nets, Carolina Cougars (ABA), Cleveland — 6 years
HOW ACQURIED: Obtained rights from Los Angeles in exchange for Cavaliers' first round pick in 1975. May 17, 1974
WIFE: Elores
CHILDREN: Kareeda (2 years)

PLAYING STYLE: Jim Chones has proven to be an aggressive, strong rebounder. He is a good outside shooter which enables him to be effective at the strong forward spot as well as in the pivot. Chones always comes ready to play and works well within the team concept. Durability is another word which describes the big man from Marquette — in the last three years he has failed to miss a regular season game.

LAST SEASON: The 1977-78 campaign could well have been Chones' finest season as a professional. Chones led the Cavaliers in games played (82), average minutes played (35.4), minutes played (2,906), field goals made (525), offensive rebounds (219), defensive rebounds (625), total rebounds (844), rebound average (10.3), and disqualifications (4). He became the first Cavalier since Jim Brewer (1975-76 season) and only the third player in Cavalier history to average double figures in both total rebounds and points. Chones was selected by local fans to receive the "Sixth Player Award" sponsored by WJKW-TV and Arthur Treacher's. He was the only Cavalier to start all 82 regular season and both playoff games. Chones started the first 40 games of the season at center and the last 42 games at forward averaging 15.8 points in the pivot and 14.3 points at forward.

THIS SEASON: Versatile Jim Chones enters his fifth season as a Cavalier. Chones' experience and proven leadership will be important factors in the success of the 1978-79 Cavaliers.

PERSONAL: Chones began his professional career in 1972 with the New York Nets in the ABA after signing as a hardship case out of Marquette. The following year he played with the Carolina Cougars. Since joining the Cavaliers at the start of the 1974-75 season he has proven to be a valuable and cooperative team member and in 1975 and 1976 he was chosen Most Valuable Player by the local media. This past season he won the "Sixth Player Award" as the Cavs' unsung hero. An excellent athlete, Chones ran both the high and low hurdles and played defensive end on his high school football team. While at Marquette he was a member of the Warriors' NIT Championship team of 1970. He started on the U.S. team in the Pan American Games in 1972 and was voted Most Valuable Player in the Martin Luther King All-Star Game that same summer. On the local scene, Chones donates much of his time to working with mentally retarded youngsters. As a result of his work in this area he was the Cavaliers' 1977 nominee for the NBA's Citizenship Award. This past summer he played in the Akron Summer Recreation League.

WALT FRAZIER

6-4 — 210 — Guard — No. 10
COLLEGE: Southern Illinois University '67
HIGH SCHOOL: David T. Howard, Atlanta, GA.
BIRTHPLACE: Atlanta, Georgia
BIRTHDATE: March 29, 1945 AGE: 33
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: New York, Cleve.—11 yrs.
HOW ACQUIRED: Obtained rights from New York in exchange for rights to Jim Cleamons, 10/8/77
PLAYING STYLE: An outstanding defensive player, Frazier was named to the NBA All-Defensive Team seven times. Frazier is capable of providing the leadership on the court necessary to make the Cavaliers a winner.
LAST SEASON: October 25th was homecoming for Frazier in New York and he responded with 28 points, eight rebounds, five steals and four assists in helping the Cavaliers defeat the New York Knicks 117-112 in a thrilling overtime contest. However, what promised to be another fine season for the man known as "Clyde" was dampened by a sprained fifth metatarsal on his left foot suffered against the Chicago Bulls on February 20th which put an end to his inaugural season with the Cavaliers. Nevertheless, he managed to finish tenth among the league leaders in free throw percentage at .850.
THIS SEASON: Everyone in the Cavalier camp is hoping that Frazier will shake the injury bug and return to his early season form.
PERSONAL: Scored his 15,000th point as a professional last season against the Knicks on December 22nd. One of pro basketball's most complete players, Frazier became the Knicks' top draft choice in 1967 after leading Southern Illinois to the NIT Championship and capturing MVP honors in the process. In 1970 and 1973, he was instrumental in leading the Knicks to the NBA Championship. During his ten year career with the Knicks, he played in seven consecutive NBA All-Star Games and was named MVP in the 1975 contest. A quiet individual, Frazier practices yoga and meditation for relaxation.

TERRY FURLOW

6-4 — 190 — Guard — No. 25
COLLEGE: Michigan State '76
HIGH SCHOOL: Flint Northern, Flint, Michigan
BIRTHPLACE: Camden, Arkansas
BIRTHDATE: October 18, 1954 AGE: 24
RESIDENCE: Flint, Michigan
PRO EXPERIENCE: Philadelphia, Cleveland — 2 years
HOW ACQUIRED: Obtained from Philadelphia in exchange for future draft choices, October 3, 1977

PLAYING STYLE: Furlow is a versatile performer who can play both the big guard and small forward positions. This fine pure shooter possesses a picture perfect jump shot. He has the ability to hit the basket from the twenty-foot range, and consistently does so. Furlow is not afraid to challenge the opposition's larger forwards with a drive to the hoop. He is blessed with excellent speed.

LAST SEASON: In his first appearance in a Cleveland uniform (against Boston during the exhibition season), Furlow scored 11 points in 18 minutes, hitting 5 of 8 shots from the floor and 1 of 1 from the line. The future for Furlow appeared bright and full of promise. However, Furlow suffered viral attacks prior to the start of the regular season and did not see action until December. Once in the lineup, he soon became a fan favorite with his ability to score points in quick succession. Against New Orleans (2/7/78) he set a team and Coliseum record with ten consecutive free throws in one quarter.

THIS SEASON: Furlow's scoring ability will be a most welcome addition to a Cavalier team that ranked fourth in the league on defense but only nineteenth on offense. Many knowledgeable basketball observers believe that he can become one of the top guards in the circuit. A continuation of last year's performance would certainly be a step in that direction.

PERSONAL NOTES: Furlow enjoyed a brilliant college career at Michigan State where he became the Spartan's all-time leading scorer with 1,777 points in 100 games for a 17.8 average. He was the third leading scorer in the nation as a senior, averaging 29.4 points per game and was named to several All-American teams. In 1976 he was the first round draft choice of the Philadelphia 76ers and the 12th player chosen in that year's NBA Draft. Furlow did not make his high school varsity at Flint Northern until his senior year but led his team to the state title. He is especially proud of the fact that the junior varsity and varsity teams at Flint Northern never lost a game while he was in the lineup. A pleasant, intelligent, and articulate person, Furlow majored in economics. Once again, Terry and his close friend Campy Russell operated a basketball camp at Hillsdale College in Michigan. They also conducted a camp locally at John Carroll University. Furlow is an excellent singer and in his spare time he enjoys listening to music, playing backgammon, and fishing. He participated in the Akron Summer Recreation League.

JOHN LAMBERT

6-10 — 225 — Forward/Center — No. 24
COLLEGE: University of Southern California, 1975
HIGH SCHOOL: Berkeley High, Berkeley, California
BIRTHPLACE: Berkeley, California
BIRTHDATE: January 14, 1953 AGE: 25
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: Cleveland — 3 years
HOW ACQUIRED: First round selection in 1975 college draft

PLAYING STYLE: At 6-10, Lambert can play either the forward or center position. He is an aggressive and determined performer who always gives 100% on the floor.

LAST SEASON: Lambert continued to make noticeable progress on the road to becoming a fine professional player. Once again Lambert enjoyed his most productive season since coming to Cleveland as the Cavaliers' first round draft choice in 1975. He established a personal mark for games played in a season (76), played more minutes (1,075) than in his first two years combined (888), made more field goals (142) than in his first two years combined, and also surpassed his two year totals in field goals attempted (336 vs. 267), offensive (125 vs. 99), defensive (199 vs. 157), and total rebounds (324 vs. 256), personals (169 vs. 129), steals (27 vs. 24), blocked shots (50 vs. 30), points (311 vs. 282), and scoring average (4.1 vs. 2.4). Season highs were established for field goals made (27), field goals attempted (48), and assists (38).

THIS SEASON: The Cavs will be looking for help at the forward position this season and Lambert could be the man that they call on for assistance. The 1978-79 campaign could also be the most rewarding for Lambert if he continues to progress as in previous seasons.

PERSONAL NOTES: Lambert was an All-American prepster at Berkeley High School in Berkeley, California and was twice selected Northern California Player of The Year. As a senior at USC he shot .557 (151/271) from the floor to set a Trojan record that still stands. The high point of his collegiate career came at the Aloha Classic in Hawaii during the spring of 1975, when during a three game tournament, he scored 55 points (18.3 avg.), and led the field with 45 rebounds (15.0 avg.) enroute to leading his team to the title. He was named to the All-Tournament team along with David Thompson (N.C. State), Gus Williams (USC), Lionel Hollins (Arizona State), and Junior Bridgeman (Louisville); all future NBA performers. Lambert earned a B.A. Degree in public relations from USC where he had a 3.7 scholastic average. In recognition of his outstanding athletic and scholastic achievement, he was awarded the USC Gimbel Award for excellence in athletics and academics. He has appeared in numerous television programs. In the past John has spent much of his spare time in the summers working with local youngsters in the Sohio Youth Basketball Clinics. He is active on the local and national scene promoting organizations such as the Police Athletic League, the Soap Box Derby, the National Benevolent Association, and wheelchair basketball. This past summer he hosted Pete Franklin's popular sports talk show on WWWE Radio.

MICHAEL "Campy" RUSSELL

6-8 — 215 — Forward — No. 21
COLLEGE: Michigan, 1974
HIGH SCHOOL: Pontiac Central High, Pontiac, Michigan
BIRTHPLACE: Jackson, Tennessee
BIRTHDATE: January 12, 1952 AGE: 26
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: Cleveland — 4 years
HOW ACQUIRED: First round selection in 1974 college draft

PLAYING STYLE: Russell is one of the great pure shooters in the game and has a fall away jumpshot that is almost impossible to stop. He is appropriately known as "Mr. Moves" for his twisting and turning moves to the hoop. A fine offensive player, who is well on his way to becoming one of the NBA's top forwards, Russell is constantly working to overcome his reputation as a mediocre defensive player.

LAST SEASON: Like "Old Man River", Campy Russell just keeps rolling along and Bill Fitch and the Cavalier faithful couldn't be happier. For the third consecutive season Campy went over the 1,000 point plateau in scoring. He led the Cavaliers in field goals attempted (1,168), free throws attempted (469), free throws made (352), turnovers (206), points (1,398), scoring average (19.4), and high game (38). He also established personal highs for minutes played (2,520), field goals made (523), field goals attempted (1,168), free throws made (352), free throws attemped (469), offensive (154), defensive (304), and total rebounds (458), rebound average (6.4), assists (278), steals (88), points (1,398), and scoring average (19.4). In 72 games he scored in double figures 67 times. Russell also led the Cavs in scoring during the playoffs with a 27.5 average.

THIS SEASON: As one of the main cogs in the Cavalier machine, Campy Russell will be heavily counted upon for his scoring ability. Perhaps one of the most underrated forwards in the league, this could also be the year that Russell receives the recognition that he so richly deserves. Wouldn't it be nice to see him play before his hometown fans at the 1978 NBA All-Star Game in Pontiac?

PERSONAL NOTES: Russell was Cleveland's first pick in the 1974 draft and the first hardship case ever taken by the Cavaliers. At the University of Michigan he earned All-American honors and was instrumental in leading the Wolverines to the Big Ten Crown and an NCAA Mideast Regional berth in 1974. He was named to the national All-Rookie team as a college freshman. One of ten children, Russell has six brothers and three sisters, and was named after former baseball great Roy Campanella by his father, a great baseball fan. Although he is no relation to former Michigan and professional star Cazzie Russell, his older brother Frank saw action in the NBA with the Chicago Bulls six years ago. Campy is an avid "shutter bug" who would like to build his own darkroom. This past summer he ran a basketball camp at Hillsdale College in Michigan with Terry Furlow and also conducted a camp at John Carroll University with Terry. Over the summer he participated in the Akron Summer Recreation League.

BOBBY "Bingo" SMITH

6-6 — 195 — Forward — No. 7
COLLEGE: Tulsa, 1969
HIGH SCHOOL: Melrose High, Memphis, Tennessee
BIRTHPLACE: Memphis, Tennessee
BIRTHDATE: February 26, 1946 AGE: 32
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio
PRO EXPERIENCE: San Diego, Cleveland — 9 years
HOW ACQUIRED: Selected from San Diego in 1970 expansion draft.
WIFE: Mary CHILDREN: Monique (13), Andre (3½)

PLAYING STYLE: Smith is a real team player doing whatever is necessary for the team to win. He is a consistent, durable player who always gives 100% on the court. "Bingo" and the rainbow jumper have become synonymous in Cleveland. Smith also has the ability to contain the opposition defensively.

LAST SEASON: The ageless "Bingo" Smith completed his ninth NBA season and his eighth as a Cavalier playing in all 82 regular season and both playoff games. For the fifth consecutive season he averaged double figures in scoring (10.3).

THIS SEASON: Once again "Bingo" will be back manning the small forward slot, swishing his rainbow jumper from the outer reaches of The Coliseum. The experience and leadership of this proven veteran will be counted upon during the 1978-79 campaign. Smith is capable of helping as both a starter and coming off the bench.

PERSONAL NOTES: Smith is the only Cavalier to play with the team since it entered the league in 1970. The Cavaliers selected him in the 1970 expansion draft from San Diego, who picked him in the first round of the 1969 draft after a fine career at Tulsa. He is the Cavaliers' all-time leader for most games played (640), most field goals made (3,788), most field goals attempted (8,400), most minutes played (17,436), and most points (8,634). His 41 points against Washington on November 6, 1974 is a personal high and a Capital Centre record for a visitor. In the second game of the 1976 playoffs he hit a long-range jumper with mere seconds remaining to give Cleveland an 80-79 win in one of the most dramatic finishes in NBA playoff history. In his spare time he plays golf for relaxation and shoots in the 70's. A tremendously popular player with the local fans, "Bingo" spent the past summer teaching basketball fundamentals to area youngsters in Sohio's Youth Basketball Clinics, participated in the Akron Recreation League.

ELMORE SMITH

7-0 — 250 — Center — No. 3
COLLEGE: Kentucky State, 1971
HIGH SCHOOL: Ballard-Hudson, Macon, GA.
BIRTHPLACE: Macon, Georgia
BIRTHDATE: May 9, 1949 AGE: 29
RESIDENCE: Rancho Palos Verdes, CA.
PRO EXPERIENCE: Buffalo, Los Angeles, Milwaukee, Cleveland — 7 years
HOW ACQUIRED: Obtained from Milwaukee with Gary Brokaw in exchange for Rowland Garrett and Cleveland's first round draft picks in 1977 and 1978, January 14, 1977
WIFE: Jessica
CHILDREN: Jennifer (5) Tracy (2) Adrianne Kellie (7 months)

PLAYING STYLE: Elmore Smith is undoubtedly one of the top shot blockers in the NBA and certainly an intimidating force on defense. He has proven that he can hold his own with the league's top pivotmen. Smith has a soft shooting touch and possesses good accuracy from the field.

LAST SEASON: After becoming a fulltime starter in January, Smith showed that he was a force to be reckoned with. In a February game with Portland he held Bill Walton to eight points and in the process broke a string of thirty-nine consecutive games in double figures for the big redhead. In the forty-one games that Smith started for the Cavaliers, he averaged 17.6 points, 11.7 rebounds, 2.6 blocked shots, and shot .504 from the field. Among the league leaders in blocked shots, Smith was ranked eighth. He was voted Most Valuable Player by the local media last season.

THIS SEASON: Smith proved last year that he was well on his way to becoming one of the NBA's top centers. This year could be the year that he finally arrives after an NBA odyssey that has included stops at Buffalo, Los Angeles, Milwaukee and finally Cleveland.

PERSONAL NOTES: Smith began playing basketball during his senior year at Ballard-Hudson High in Macon, Georgia. At Kentucky State he made numerous small college All-American teams and was instrumental in leading the Thorobreds to consecutive NAIA titles in 1970 and 1971. As a senior he set an NCAA small college record of 799 rebounds in addition to averaging 25.5 points and 8.6 blocked shots per game. He shot .592 from the field. Smith made the NBA All-Rookie Team in 1972 and was runner-up to Portland's Sidney Wicks for Rookie of The Year honors. During the 1973-74 season he led the NBA in blocked shots with a 4.9 average and set a league record for blocked shots in a game with 17 against Portland. Enjoys playing backgammon in his spare time.

CLARENCE "Foots" WALKER

5-11 — 172 — Guard — No. 14
COLLEGE: West Georgia, 1974
HIGH SCHOOL: Southampton High, Southampton, Long Island, New York
BIRTHPLACE: Southampton, Long Island, N.Y.
BIRTHDATE: May 21, 1951 AGE: 27
RESIDENCE: Southampton, Long Island, N.Y.
PRO EXPERIENCE: Cleveland — 4 years
HOW ACQUIRED: Third round selection in 1974 college draft

PLAYING STYLE: Even though "Foots" is one of the smaller players in the league, he plays with the intensity, desire and aggressiveness of a man twice his size. "Foots" is a good passer. His quickness makes it possible for him to make important steals and penetrate to the basket. A good leader, Walker can effectively run the team on the court.

LAST YEAR: Walker led the team in assists (453) and steals (176). He became the Cavaliers' all-time leader in steals during the 1977-78 campaign and set a Cavalier single game record with eight thefts against the Knicks at New York (10/25/77). Walker also established new personal highs for minutes played (2,496), field goals made (287), field goals attempted (641), free throws made (159), free throws attempted (221), offensive (76), defensive (218), and total rebounds (294), rebound average (3.6), assists (453), personal fouls (218), steals (176), blocked shots (24), points (733), and scoring average (9.0). Walker's 176 steals in a single season is also a Cavalier record.

THIS YEAR: The 1977-78 campaign was definitely the finest season in Walker's four year professional career. In 1978-79 the Cavaliers will count on "Foots" for leadership in the backcourt. As point guard he will spend a great deal of time quarterbacking the team.

PERSONAL: Walker was a high school All-American and was voted "Player of the Year" in New York at the conclusion of his senior year. He led his team to three straight titles and 73 consecutive wins, while breaking the school's scoring mark held by Carl Yastrzemski. At Vincennes, Indiana Junior College he and Bob McAdoo now of the New York Knicks led the team to a perfect 34-0 record and a national championship. In two seasons at West Georgia he scored 1,276 points for 20.9 average and set a school single season record for assists with 415 during his junior year. He concluded his college career by being selected MVP in the 1974 NAIA Tournament and was named to the NAIA All-American Team. His nickname "Foots" was given to him by an uncle who noticed that Clarence wore size 11 shoes at the age of five. In his spare time he enjoys bicycling. This past summer "Foots" played in the Bob McAdoo Summer League at Guilford College in Greensboro, North Carolina and also in the Akron Summer Recreation League. "Foots'" team in the McAdoo League won the team championship for the fifth consecutive year.

ROOKIES

MIKE MITCHELL

6'7½" — 215 — Forward — No. 30
COLLEGE: Auburn University, 1978
HIGH SCHOOL: Price High School, Atlanta, Georgia
BIRTHPLACE: Atlanta, Georgia BIRTHDATE: January 1, 1956
RESIDENCE: Atlanta, Georgia PRO EXPERIENCE: Rookie
HOW ACQUIRED: First round selection in 1978 NBA College Draft

Mike Mitchell leaves Auburn University as the school's all-time leading scorer and rebounder.

The 6'7½" forward led the Southeastern Conference in scoring with a 24.9 avg., gaining him Coaches' All-SEC honors for the third consecutive season. Mitchell was an Associated Press and United Press International All-SEC selection, and won Most Valuable Player honors in the Sugar Bowl Classic and Marshall Memorial Invitational.

While in eighth grade, Mike lived in Cleveland and was taught to sew by an aunt. He made most of his own clothes and also utilized his favorite hobby to make clothes for his teammates.

Mitchell made High School All-American at Price High in Atlanta, Georgia. In 1975 he made Basketball Weekly's five man All-American freshman team. He is characterized as extremely mobile with a good medium range touch. Also a good boardman, Mike has worked extra hard in past season to improve his defense. He married his college sweetheart this past September.

HARRY DAVIS

6'7" — 220 — Forward — No. 40
COLLEGE: Florida State, 1978
HIGH SCHOOL: Cathedral Latin, Cleveland, Ohio
BIRTHPLACE: Cleveland, Ohio BIRTHDATE: January 27, 1956
RESIDENCE: Cleveland, Ohio PRO EXPERIENCE: Rookie
HOW ACQUIRED: Second round draft choice in 1978 NBA Draft.

Harry Davis was the Metro-Conference Player of the Year in 1975-76 and 1977-78. As a senior he led the Seminoles to a berth in the NCAA Mideast Regional, and was chosen Florida State's Most Valuable Player, an honor he also received in his sophomore season.

In the spring of 1977 he played with the USA-Metro Conference All-Stars in the International Cup Series, stopping in Moscow.

A graduate of Cleveland Cathedral Latin, Davis sported a remarkable .585 career shooting percentage from the floor while averaging 14 points a game in his four year college career. He is very adept at going to the basket and is a sound defensive player.

KEN HIGGS

6' — 185 — Guard — No. 1
COLLEGE: Louisiana State University
HIGH SCHOOL: Owensboro High School
BIRTHPLACE: Owensboro, Kentucky BIRTHDATE: January 31, 1955
RESIDENCE: Owensboro, Kentucky PRO EXPERIENCE: Rookie
HOW ACQUIRED: Third round selection in 1978 NBA Draft.

Higgs holds the NCAA record for most assists in a season and career. Higgs' abilities were demonstrated in matchups with current pro players. Tiger coach Dale Brown glowed, "He has devoured some great players scoring 44 points off Tate Armstrong, 31 off Gus Williams, and 35 off Eddie Johnson. I wouldn't be shocked if he were a better pro than college player. I'm surprised he lasted into the third round. Only Pete Maravich and Bob Pettit scored more points in their L.S.U. careers than did Higgs."

Higgs was a High School All-American at Owensboro (Ky.) High School, and made second team All-Southeastern Conference in his junior and senior campaigns. He is considered a fine defensive player.

CAVALIERS RETIRE THURMOND'S NUMBER 42

An illustrious career came to an end prior to the start of the 1977-78 campaign. After 14 years of running up and down the courts of the National Basketball Association, Nate Thurmond, one of the greatest players in the history of professional basketball and one of the finest gentlemen in the world of sports, hung up his sneakers for the final time.

A native Ohioan, Thurmond played his high school basketball at Akron's Central High School. He was a standout at Bowling Green State University, where he was an All-American. The venerable Thurmond began his pro career in 1963 when he was chosen by the San Francisco Warriors in the first round of the NBA draft.

Although he played only 128 games in a Cavalier uniform, less than two complete seasons, his impact upon his teammates and the team's success can never be measured. When Thurmond joined the team in November 1975, following a trade with the Chicago Bulls, the Cavs had posted a record of six wins and eleven losses. However, with Thurmond subbing in the pivot position, the Cavs completed the last 65 games of the season with a 43-22 mark enroute to their first playoff appearance and a Central Division Title. After an injury sidelined Jim Chones prior to the Eastern Conference Championship Series with Boston in 1976, he took over as the team's starting center.

The 1976-77 campaign was most disappointing for the Cavs' elder statesman. A knee injury suffered in a February game at Houston prevented him from completing his first full season as a Cavalier. After undergoing an operation to repair the damaged knee, a determined and intense Thurmond began an extensive rehabilitation program and amazed the team doctors when he returned to action against the Washington Bullets in the playoffs. His appearance in the lineup was a highly emotional moment for the team and the Cavalier faithful.

In the 1976-77 season Thurmond was the only active player in the league to have accumulated over 14,000 career points and 14,000 career rebounds.

He was voted into seven NBA All-Star Games as a member of the San Francisco/Golden State Warriors. An outstanding defensive player, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar once picked Thurmond as his toughest defensive opponent.

On December 18, 1977 the Cavaliers held a special Nate Thurmond Night. As part of the ceremonies Thurmond's number 42 was retired. This season, Thurmond will handle the color on the Cavaliers' television games.
