JEANIE BUSS

GOVERNOR

As Governor, Jeanie Buss oversees all aspects of the Los Angeles Lakers organization, working closely with both President of Business Operations Tim Harris and Vice President of Basketball Operations and General Manager Rob Pelinka. In 2020, Buss became the first female Governor to win an NBA Championship, as, under her leadership, the Lakers tied a league record with their 17th title.

Representing the team on the NBA's Board of Governors, Buss is currently a member of the NBA Advisory and Finance Committee, NBA Africa and serves on the NBA Labor Committee, which successfully agreed to a new collective bargaining agreement with the NBA Players Association in 2023.

Buss serves as an Honorary Trustee of the University of Southern California, her alma mater, and on the Board of LA2028, the group overseeing the return of the Olympics to Los Angeles in 2028. She is a co-host of Lakers All-Access, a yearly event presented by the LA Sports and Entertainment Commission (LASEC), a nonprofit organization which draws events and attractions to Los Angeles and sits on the board of the LASEC. In 2018 Buss received the prestigious Salvation Army's Sally Award for her and the Lakers efforts to benefit the organization.

In 2023 Buss won an Emmy Award for executive producing Legacy: The True Story of the LA Lakers a 10-part docuseries which aired on Hulu and Disney +. Buss is also currently involved with leading the revival of WOW – Women of Wrestling, which returned to television screens in 2022.

Buss is a strong advocate for mental health and wellness and was recently a guest speaker at Wisdom of Wellness WOW 2023, UCLA mental health summit hosted by Oprah Winfrey. Buss sits on the board of the Shaquille O'Neal Foundation and supports Baby2Baby, Canine Companions for Independence, Wags and Walks among her many other charitable endeavors, while also working internally with the Lakers Youth Foundation to raise money for Southern California Youth charities.

Jeanie recently wed actor and comedian Jay Mohr and is stepmother to his 12-year-old son Mackie Mohr.

ROB PELINKA

VP, BASKETBALL OPERATIONS & GENERAL MANAGER

After six full seasons with the Lakers, Vice President of Basketball Operations & General Manager Rob Pelinka has transformed the team DNA, constructing a roster and staff that earned the franchise their 17th NBA championship in 2020.

Pelinka helped make one of the most significant free agent signings in team history in 2018 when the Lakers added four-time NBA MVP LeBron James, following that with a franchise-altering trade that brought eight-time NBA All-Star Anthony Davis to Los Angeles. With other key additions, Pelinka had assembled a championship contender. L.A. went on to clinch the top seed in the Western Conference, the franchise's 24th Pacific Division title and the team's first championship since 2010 by defeating Portland, Houston, Denver and Miami in the 2020 NBA Playoffs.

During the 2022-23 season, Pelinka reshaped the roster with moves that helped propel the Lakers to the Western Conference Finals. In January, he added dynamic forward Rui Hachimura to the young core. Pelinka followed that transaction at the trade deadline, acquiring 2019 All-Star D'Angelo Russell along with versatile defender Jarred Vanderbilt. After their successful run in the 2023 postseason, Pelinka got to work improving the roster in pursuit of championship basketball. Pelinka retained valuable members of the roster in re-signing Hachimura, Austin Reaves and Russell. In free agency, the Lakers brought in point guard Gabe Vincent, following his run to the 2023 NBA Finals with the Miami Heat, and bolstered the team's depth with the signings of sharpshooters Taurean Prince and Christian Wood, and recent lottery picks Jaxson Hayes and Cam Reddish. The offseason also saw the team select Jalen Hood-Schifino and Maxwell Lewis in the 2023 NBA Draft, while the team signed Colin Castleton, Alex Fudge and D'Moi Hodge to two-way contracts. Anthony Davis and Jarred Vanderbilt also agreed to contract extensions ahead of the 2023-24 season as the Lakers look to win the 18th championship in team history.

Off the court, Pelinka has reignited the Lakers commitment to player development by launching the Lakers Genius Talks, a series of life-skills discussions for Lakers players led by luminaries such as Denzel Washington, Kendrick Lamar, Allyson Felix, Dwayne Johnson and Elon Musk.

In his role, Pelinka coordinates all day-to-day functions of the Basketball Operations Department, helping to manage personnel decisions, contract negotiations, salary cap strategies and scouting. He oversees and collaborates with his staff on all offseason activities, including the draft process, summer league, free agency and training camp.

Pelinka joined the Lakers after spending the greater part of two decades representing many of the NBA's top players as an agent. Named by Forbes as one the Top 10 Sports Agents in the World, Pelinka's experience gives him a unique, player-centric perspective of the NBA landscape that has helped shape the core values for the franchise.

The Lake Forest, Ill., native earned his business degree from the Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan with high honors in 1993, before receiving his law degree, cum laude, from the University of Michigan Law School in 1996. While on campus at Michigan, Pelinka was a member of the 1989 NCAA National Championship basketball team, taking part in three NCAA Final Fours (1989, 1992, 1993) for the Maize & Blue. In 1993, Pelinka was named the NCAA Walter Byers Male Student-Athlete of the Year. Upon graduation, Pelinka practiced corporate law in Chicago and then embarked on a successful career as a sports agent, representing some of the all-time greats and many future NBA Hall-of-Famers, including the Lakers own Kobe Bryant.

Pelinka, 53, makes his home in Newport Beach with his wife, Dr. Kristin Pelinka, his son, Durham (15), and his daughter, Emery (13). Pelinka's off court interests include trail running, mountain biking, reading and spending as much time with his kids as his work schedule permits. Pelinka and his family take great joy serving in leadership capacities at The Exceptional Families Ministry of Mariners Church in Irvine, CA, and at The Painted Turtle Camp in Lake Hughes, CA. Pelinka is also a proud member of the Mamba & Mambacita Sports Foundation Board of Directors.

PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

TIM HARRIS

Overseeing Los Angeles Lakers business-related endeavors and marketing efforts for 24 years, Tim Harris brings more than 34 years of combined experience to the organization, currently serving as President of Business Operations. Responsible for the Lakers' day-to-day business operations, Harris oversees the team's sponsorship, ticketing, broadcast, marketing, game entertainment, media relations and community relations departments. Harris negotiated one of the largest regional TV deals in all of sports when the franchise struck a long-term partnership with Spectrum SportsNet in 2011 and is the team's driving force behind its radio partnership with 710 ESPNLA. Harris is also responsible for spearheading the Lakers' UCLA Health partnership, which led to the completion of the state-of-the-art UCLA Health Training Center in 2017. Recent career highlights for Harris include leading the negotiations to secure Bibigo as the team's first-ever global marketing partnership, one of the most lucrative partnerships in the NBA, and being honored with the prestigious 'Cult Brand of the Year' award at The Gathering of Cult Brands in 2019.

Adding to his extensive scope of responsibilities, Harris serves as a Lakers Alternate Governor and represents the club at team president meetings.

Beginning his career working for Dr. Jerry Buss in 1990, Harris was tasked with promoting and marketing the team's arena at the time, The Great Western Forum. By 1995, after much success in his role, Harris would become Vice President of Marketing for the building. Following the sale of the Forum in 1997, Harris was responsible for managing the Lakers transition out of Inglewood to the brand-new STAPLES Center as well as the new team training facility. At the conclusion of the club's move, Harris was brought on board to focus his efforts strictly on the Lakers, originally serving as Vice President of Sales and Marketing.

A standout soccer player at UCLA, Harris played four seasons as goalkeeper (1980-83), earning second team All-American honors in 1983 and finishing his career ranked third on the school's career victories list. He was later named to the UCLA Athletic Department Hall of Fame as one of the school's 25 all-time greatest athletes. Harris, who graduated from UCLA with a degree in sociology, went on to play five years professionally (1984-89), including three for the Dr. Buss-owned Los Angeles Lazers of the Major Indoor Soccer League. He was also a member of the United States Men's National Soccer Team in 1985.

An Inglewood native, Harris currently resides in Manhattan Beach with his wife Choel and their three children: Jude (18), Dane (16) and Gage (12).

JOSEPH MCCORMACK

Joseph McCormack is the Senior Vice President, Finance, and CFO for the Lakers.

In his position, McCormack is involved in all aspects of planning, budgeting, administration, development, governance and strategic initiatives for the organization and controlling ownership held by the various Buss family trusts.

McCormack joined the Lakers on Dec. 12, 1988, when he was hired by Dr. Jerry Buss. Prior to that we worked at PricewaterhouseCoopers as a certified public accountant.

A Short Hills, N.J., native with family ties to Wilson, Wyo., McCormack earned his accounting degree from Providence College.

McCormack and his wife, Catherine, reside in Manhattan Beach and have two adult children (son Jack and daughter Ellen, who is married to Max), and two grandchildren (Bernard and Rose).

CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER, GENERAL COUNSEL & CHIEF INTEGRITY

DAN GRIGSBY

Dan Grigsby is the Chief Legal Officer, General Counsel & Chief Integrity Officer of the Los Angeles Lakers and its subsidiaries and affiliates. Grigsby first began representing the Lakers as outside counsel in May of 1981 and moved in-house with the Lakers in April of 2014 after having practiced sports and entertainment law with several nationally and internationally recognized law firms for over 30 years. He served as the principal outside legal counsel for the Lakers since 1990 when his former partner, mentor and friend, Jim Perzik, became the first in-house General Counsel for the Lakers.

In his capacity as Chief Legal Officer, General Counsel & Chief Integrity Officer, Grigsby oversees and is responsible for all legal matters for the Lakers, the South Bay Lakers (the Lakers' NBA G League team), the Los Angeles Lakers Youth Foundation, Lakers Gaming (the Lakers' NBA 2K team), and the other subsidiaries and affiliates of the Los Angeles Lakers.

Grigsby grew up in Southern California and is a sixth generation Californian. Grigsby received his undergraduate degree in Political Science from UCLA and his law degree from Whittier College School of Law. He lives in Pacific Palisades with his wife Karen, has three adult children and five grandchildren who all live in the areas, and is a life-long Lakers fan.

VICE PRESIDENT, RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT

JOEY BUSS

Serving as the Vice President of Research and Development for the Lakers, Joey Buss is responsible for exploring new technologies and strategies for business and basketball development. Buss is also in charge of the South Bay Lakers, the NBA G League franchise owned and operated by the Lakers. Entering his 17th season as President/CEO of team's minor league affiliate, Buss is responsible for overseeing the SB Lakers business and basketball operations for the team.

Buss and Senior Director of Pro Personnel Nick Mazzella work closely with Rob Pelinka and Coach Darvin Ham to construct the Lakers Summer League and Training Camp rosters, while managing all two-way contracts, G League Call-Ups and assignment player decisions. The 2018 Summer League roster they constructed won the first six games in Las Vegas, en route to a second-straight championship game birth after taking home the 2017 Las Vegas Summer League Championship.

Behind the leadership of Buss, the SB Lakers franchise has established itself as one of the G League's top producers of NBA players, along with developing 27 assignment players for the Los Angeles Lakers, former South Bay Lakers have earned 47 NBA call-ups. South Bay has won the division three times, making two trips to the G League Finals. College standouts Colin Castleton and Alex Fudge of Florida and D'Moi Hodge of Missouri will join the team during their rookie seasons on two-way contracts, suiting up for both Los Angeles and South Bay.

Prior to assuming his current position with the South Bay Lakers, Buss spent a year preparing for his role as Lakers alternate governor, working closely with both Jeanie Buss and Tim Harris. Not long after becoming an alternate governor, Buss accepted the Larry O'Brien Trophy on behalf of the organization after the Lakers defeated the Orlando Magic in the 2009 NBA Finals.

After graduating from the University of Southern California, Buss served as a coaching associate for the Lakers during the 2006-07 season and got his first glimpse into the business of basketball at the age of 20, when he held a summer internship in the basketball operations department of the nearby Los Angeles Sparks for the 2004 and 2005 seasons.

Away from the court, Buss and his wife Dr. Nicole Buss reside in Rancho Palos Verdes with their sons Benjamin and Oliver. Dr. Nicole Buss earned her doctorate degree in Occupational Therapy at USC and serves on the Board of Directors for Town & Country Nursery School.

ASSISTANT GM / DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

JESSE BUSS

Jesse Buss begins his ninth season in the role of Assistant General Manager/ Director of Scouting. In his role, Buss oversees all scouting-related matters for the Lakers and has an essential role in the drafting of players for the franchise.

At the helm of the teams' scouting efforts, Buss orchestrates the schedules for the scouting staff, and maintains a rigorous scouting schedule himself, ensuring well-informed and thorough decisions can be made on all draft eligible prospects each year. Throughout the year, Buss works closely with Vice President of Basketball Operations and General Manager Rob Pelinka to help identify various ways to best upgrade the roster including via trades and free agency. During the summer months, Buss and Manager of Scouting Operations and Strategy Moses Zapata manage the pre-draft workout process, which allows Buss and his staff to take a closer look at potential draft prospects.

Prior to his promotion, Buss served as the Lakers' director of scouting from 2012-15. Originally joining the organization in 2006, Jesse spent two seasons as a basketball operations assistant, where he wrote scouting reports in addition to his local scouting duties. He went on to serve as a scout from 2008-11, working domestically and internationally, and then as scouting coordinator for the 2011-12 season, overseeing all scouting operations.

The youngest son of the late Dr. Jerry Buss, Jesse grew up in San Diego and is a Dodgers, Rams, Chargers and Kings fan. Buss resides in Bel-Air with his wife, Sarah, and sons Ashton and Jaden, where he also acts as the coach of his son Jaden's basketball team.

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL AFFAIRS

KURT RAMBIS

Kurt Rambis has been the Lakers' Director of Basketball Affairs since 2020, after spending the previous two seasons as the organization's Senior Basketball Advisor. Rambis plays a key role in assembling each roster, including the NBA Championship-winning team in 2019-20. He previously spent 16 years in various coaching and front office roles within the organization.

Following a decorated playing career, during which he won four NBA Championships with the Lakers, Rambis initially entered the coaching ranks as an assistant on Del Harris' staff for four-plus seasons (1994-1999). Twelve games into the 1998-99 season, Rambis took over as the Lakers' interim head coach, compiling a 24-13 record and leading the team to the Western Conference Semifinals. He worked in the team's front office – first as an advisor and then as assistant general manager – in the 2000 and 2001 seasons, both of which culminated in NBA Championships for the Lakers. Rambis returned to the sidelines and joined head coach Phil Jackson's staff for seven seasons (2001-04, 2005-09) and for half of the 2004-05 season under interim head coach Frank Hamblen. Over that time, Rambis helped guide the Lakers to four more NBA Finals appearances (2002, 2004, 2008, 2009), with the team winning NBA Championships in 2002 and 2009.

Rambis served as head coach of the Minnesota Timberwolves from 2009-11 and from 2014-18 was associate head coach of the New York Knicks, including a stint as interim head coach in 2016.

A graduate of Santa Clara University with a B.S. in psychology, Rambis signed with the Lakers prior to the 1981-82 season and, as a player, helped the club to NBA titles in 1982, 1985, 1987, 1988. Rambis would later play for the Charlotte Hornets, Phoenix Suns and Sacramento Kings.

Rambis and his wife Linda reside in Manhattan Beach, Calif., and have three children: Jesse, Jordan and Ali.

Most recently, Bertka was honored as the 2019 recipient of the Tex Winter Lifetime Achievement Award from the National Basketball Coaches Association, an honor recognizing extraordinary contributions to the sport throughout a career by building a body of work that has had a positive and powerful impact on the NBA coaching profession.

Serving as an assistant coach under nine Lakers head coaches dating back to 1981, Bertka brings a wealth of experience to the position, including coaching Laker big men Wilt Chamberlain, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Vlade Divac, Shaquille O'Neal, and Andrew Bynum. His talent as a scout and experience in player personnel matters make him an excellent resource for the team's basketball operations staff.

Bertka became the first full-time scout in league history when the Lakers hired him in 1968. When Head Coach Bill Sharman took over the team in 1971-72, Bertka began working with players while also adding advance scouting duties. That team would later go on a 33-game winning streak – a still-standing professional sports record – en route to an NBA title, giving Bertka his first ring. In 1974, he left the Lakers to become the first general manager of the New Orleans Jazz and also had an initial ownership stake in the franchise through his company, Invest West Sports.

In 1981, Pat Riley became head coach of the Lakers and brought Bertka back as his first assistant. Together, the duo constructed what came to be known as the Lakers "Showtime" era, guiding the team to seven NBA Finals appearances in nine seasons and winning four NBA titles (1982, 1985, 1987, 1988). Bertka remained as an assistant coach with the Lakers for two decades, later winning back-to-back championships under Head Coach Phil Jackson (2000, 2001). Following his final season on the Lakers bench in 2001, Bertka transitioned to a primary role as a scout, a position in which he served through the 2011-12 season while winning three more NBA titles. He continues to advise the Lakers as a basketball consultant in the scouting department.

Bertka has twice served as interim coach of the Lakers, coaching two games during the 1993-94 season and one game while replacing Del Harris in 1998-99. He holds a 2-1 career record as an interim head coach, and his 1999 coaching appearance made him the oldest person to ever coach an NBA game at the age of 71.

The Santa Barbara native is also well known for founding Bertka Views, one of the most successful college scouting services in the country, which he and his wife, Solveig, operated from 1961-1995. Throughout that time period, many of the nation's premier college basketball programs utilized Bertka Views as their sole scouting service. Adding another feather to his cap during the summer of 1992, Bertka served as a scout for the United States' Olympic basketball team at the European Qualifying Tournament in Zaragoza, Spain. Additionally, Bertka hosted Sports With Bertka, his own radio show in Santa Barbara that won three Golden Mike Awards in the 1970's.

In 1989, Bertka enjoyed the dual distinction of being inducted into each of his hometowns' respective Hall of Fames; In May of that year he was inducted into the Santa Barbara Sports Hall of Fame and just five months later in October, he was inducted into the Summit County (Ohio) Sports Hall of Fame, where he grew up as a child. In January of 2004, Bertka was inducted into the Kent State University Sports Hall of Fame and most recently, was an inaugural inductee into the Santa Barbara Basketball Court of Champions in June 2014.

PUBLIC ADDRESS ANNOUNCER

LAWRENCE TANTER

Entering his 41st season as the Public Address Announcer for the Lakers, Lawrence Tanter is the longest-tenured PA announcer in franchise history and second-longest tenured in NBA history. Beginning in 1982 at the Great Western Forum and continuing to the present Crypto.com Arena, he has provided the vocal soundtrack to more than 1,600 games from his familiar seat at center court, including four NBA All-Star games, 14 NBA Finals series, and nine NBA Championships. His mild demeanor coupled with his smooth delivery are unique to the NBA, ranging from the dissonant tone sensed in his voice with lines such as "Too Many Steps" to the cool declaration of "The Laker Girls."

Born in Chicago, Ill., Tanter was a member of an Illinois state championship team while at Thornton High School. He later played at the University of Dubuque in Iowa.

Tanter's role with the Lakers happened almost by chance. After developing a fandom for the team upon moving to Los Angeles in 1972, Tanter – a radio veteran by trade – began to envision a potential role as the voice that would bring the game to the fans in the stands. What started as a tiny thought eventually blossomed into the most notable role of his career when Jamaal Wilkes, a friend at the time, referred him to the team's public relations staff. Tanter, seeking any opportunity, sent in tape of his voiceover work, only to hear back one month later about an opening in the position that he has now held for four decades.

A jazz historian and enthusiast, Tanter is a veteran of more than 40 years of work at numerous radio stations throughout the Los Angeles area. He has interviewed over 500 recording artists, written liner notes for 20 albums, narrated several video games, including some voiceover on the NBA2K franchise, and done voice-overs for more than 6,000 commercials.

Retired from radio since 2011, he spends his free time gardening at his home or staying active in his community. For almost 20 years he has regularly visited senior living facilities to speak with senior citizens about jazz. On these trips, Tanter oftentimes brings books or albums to aid in his talks, adding that "it's another avenue to keep their minds and souls active." He is also involved with his local block club, where he aids elderly citizens in painting their fences, cutting their grass, or completing other work around their homes.

SIDELINE REPORTER

MIKE TRUDELL

Entering his 16th season with the Lakers and 11th as the team's sideline reporter, Mike Trudell will maneuver around the court and locker room for Spectrum SportsNet alongside play-by-play voice Bill Macdonald and analyst Stu Lantz.

Trudell also serves as the team's beat reporter for Lakers.com, as he has since the 2008-09 season as a full-time member of the team's traveling staff. He added sideline TV duties for road games during the 2010-11 campaign and has been the sideline reporter for all locally televised Lakers games since the inaugural Spectrum SportsNet season of 2012-13. He also fills in as a host at the network, and makes appearances as an analyst for studio shows, as for the occasional L.A. Sparks game on Spectrum. He has worked as a game analyst for several Sparks contests in 2022 and 2023.

Since 2019-20, Trudell has filled in to call several Lakers games on ESPN L.A. 710 for radio play-by-play voice John Ireland, with analyst Mychal Thompson. Trudell also worked as a sports talk radio host at ESPN L.A. 710 from 2013-19 alongside Thompson ("Thompson and Trudell"). Additionally, he has filled in for Thompson as the analyst on radio broadcasts for several seasons

Trudell also handles play-by-play duties for the South Bay Lakers for a few G League games each season, alongside analyst A.C. Green.

Like the Lakers, Trudell came to Los Angeles from Minnesota, where he was the reporter for Timberwolves.com from 2006-08. He also worked for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings and Baltimore Ravens, the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe and was a play-by-play announcer for the University of Minnesota's women's soccer team, in addition to several high school sports teams.

Trudell is a 2004 graduate of Northwestern University's Medill School of Journalism in Evanston, Ill., outside of Chicago, with a double major in history. He played Big Ten varsity soccer and also honed his broadcast skills at the campus TV (NNN) and radio (WNUR) stations.

Raised in Lake Minnetonka, Minn., Trudell currently resides in Redondo Beach with his wife, Annie, identical twin boys Jett and Talan, son Riggs, and French Bulldog Lyla.

IN THE COMMUNITY

340 NBA Cares
341-342 Community Initiatives

NBA CARES

NBA Cares is the league's global social responsibility program that builds on the NBA's mission of addressing important social issues. NBA Cares programs and participants have provided more than 5 million hours of hands-on service and created more than 1,300 places where kids and families can live, learn or play in communities around the world. Internationally, NBA Cares has created more than 320 places where kids and families can live, learn or play in 40 countries and territories. NBA Cares works with internationally recognized youth-serving programs that support education, youth and family development, and health-related causes, including Thurgood Marshall College Fund, Special Olympics, YMCA of the USA, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, UNICEF, the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Share Our Strength and GLSEN.

For more information about the NBA's latest community outreach efforts, please visit www.cares.nba.com.

LAKERS YOUTH FOUNDATION

The Los Angeles Lakers Youth Foundation is a registered 501(c)3 organization and the official team charity of the Los Angeles Lakers. The Foundation's mission is to help underserved youth develop their potential by providing positive experiences and resources in education, health and wellness, and sports. The Foundation also awards grants to other charities that support youth through direct services and programs in these areas.

COURT REFURBISHMENTS

The Lakers Youth Foundation is committed to providing youth access to quality programming and safe places to learn and play. Every season the Lakers Youth Foundation provides several basketball court refurbishments in the Los Angeles community. The new courts provide a safe place for youth to pursue healthy exercise and sports.

The Foundation has refurbished 40+ basketball courts throughout Los Angeles and Hawaii. These projects allow us to build professional quality basketball courts for the youth in our community. Each court refurbishment includes state of the art upgrades to the court, baskets, and overall appearance. The goal is to replicate the Lakers practice court so the youth can play the Lakers way.

BUSS FAMILY & THE LAKERS

During his lifetime, as a result of his considerable charitable efforts, Dr. Jerry Buss was honored by a wide range of organizations that included City of Hope, NAACP, the B'Nai B'rith, United Negro College Fund, United Indian Development Association, National Organization of Women, Boys and Girls Clubs of America, Muscular Dystrophy Association, the Los Angeles Human Relations Commission, Heart of Los Angeles Youth and Special Olympics of Southern California. Following in their father's footsteps, the Buss family's philanthropic and community support is as diverse as the community in which they live and work.

The Lakers and the Lakers Youth Foundation annually donate hundreds of thousands of dollars, tickets, merchandise, and autographed items to support countless neighborhood schools, charities, and youth groups as well as non-profit organizations that attend to the needs of communities in Southern California.

EDUCATION

The Lakers support several education-focused programs. The Lakers Literacy League is a free program for teachers intended to foster the joy of literacy in youth grades K-5 through engaging Lakers-themed challenges and creative projects. Teachers register their classrooms to receive a monthly newsletter with access to three main activities per month. Eligible members of the League then have the opportunity to win prizes for their entire class. To learn more or join the Lakers Literacy League, visit www.lakers.com/community/literacy-league.www.lakers.com/community/literacy-league.

NBA Math Hoops, presented by Comerica Bank, is a community program and curriculum featuring a web-based game that allows students to learn and practice fundamental math skills with the use of real statistics from their favorite NBA players. Program content is developed in line with Common Core State Standards and 21st Century Learning Skills, and has been shown to improve students' foundational math and social-emotional skills, resulting in a comprehensive experience for all.

CAMP LAKERS

Camp Lakers, presented by UCLA Health, is committed to providing young players with the ultimate Lakers experience. For over 20 summers, campers have learned the Laker way at Camp Lakers, honing their basketball skills and discovering the importance of hard work, teamwork, dedication, and sportsmanship, on and off the court.

Each day special Lakers guests and staff visit Camp to meet and speak with the campers. On the last day of the week, the campers take a field trip to the Lakers facility to see for a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to play where the Lakers practice.

CHICK HEARN NIGHT

Chick Hearn Night has been celebrated at the Lakers home game closest to Chick's birthday every season since his passing in 2002. On Chick Hearn Night, the annual Chick Hearn Memorial Scholarship is presented to help two aspiring sports journalists pursue their dreams.

LAKERS "TEAM UP"

The Lakers Team Up program echoes the team's commitment to the community and gives Lakers staff the opportunity to get out of the office and give back to the community in a hands-on way. Once a month, Lakers staff participate in a volunteer event that supports the core pillars of Lakers Community Relations. These events are designed to make a positive impact in the community and encourage LA residents of all ages to volunteer and engage in community service projects.

GRANTING WISHES

In collaboration with wish-granting organizations, the Los Angeles Lakers regularly provide game tickets and arrange player meetings for children and adults facing life-threatening medical conditions. Over the past 20 years, the Lakers have granted over 400 special wishes for children and adults from all over the United States, Canada, and as far away as Israel and the Netherlands.

JUNIOR LAKERS

Junior Lakers is the Los Angeles Lakers official youth basketball initiative. With Junior Lakers, the Lakers and the Lakers Youth Foundation work with Los Angeles youth to develop fundamental basketball skills, teamwork, sportsmanship and community involvement, with positive adult supervision. The Lakers impact over 130,000 L.A. youth basketball players across multiple Junior Lakers Leagues with after-school programs including the Boys & Girls Club and LA's Best, presented by UCLA Health, as well as Playworks and After-School All Stars.

LAKERS YOUTH FOUNDATION IN-ARENA AUCTION

Lakers' fans have the opportunity to support the Lakers Youth Foundation and take home Lakers memorabilia at every home game. During each home game, the Lakers Youth Foundation will host a live auction at halftime. Items will be on display at Crypto.com Arena on the main concourse outside of Guest Services. Items range from current players including LeBron, AD and Reaves to Lakers Legends like Kareem and Magic. Proceeds raised at the live auction directly go towards the grants that the Lakers Youth Foundation awards each season, including the Quarterly Grant, YOU Grant and In The Paint Artist Grants.

HEALTH AND FITNESS INITIATIVES

The Lakers are dedicated to helping their fans live a healthy lifestyle. To emphasize the importance of health and fitness, the Lakers sponsor programs that reward local students for being active about their health.

The Lakers Youth Foundation is proud to offer local organizations the opportunity to host a free basketball clinic and fitness clinics for children in their neighborhood. The clinics are designed to promote youth basketball, be interactive, make physical fitness fun, and teach kids how to stay active and healthy.

A SEASON OF GIVING

The annual Lakers "Season of Giving," presented The annual Lakers "Season of Giving," presented by East West Bank, consists of several events centered around the holidays intended to bring joy and cheer to local underserved communities. The 2022 "Season of Giving" kicked off in November at the Frank Hotchkin Memorial Training Center where 200 guests were treated to a Thanksgiving Feast, followed by the annual Turkey Giveaway at the Salvation Army LA Red Shield Community Center. The "Season" rounded out with a Holiday Party for Kids, celebrating our young fans with Lakers holiday cheer. Current and former Lakers players join the events to interact with the community and provide a memorable holiday experience for all.

COMPLIMENTARY GROUP TICKETS

Each year, the Lakers and the Lakers Youth Foundation donate several thousand tickets to Southern California non-profit organizations so that their members may enjoy a game together. Often, the complimentary group ticket is the non-profit member's first opportunity to see a Lakers game. Ticket requests can be made online at Lakers.com/community/giving.

MILITARY APPRECIATION

The Lakers and Pechanga Resort Casino created the "Hoops for Troops" program in 2015 to honor those who serve and sacrifice for our country. Hoops for Troops basketball clinics offer the chance for U.S. Armed Forces servicemembers around Southern California to receive tips from Lakers legends on shooting, passing and ball-handling skills, as well as some friendly competition.

MENTORSHIP

The Lakers celebrate the power of mentorship through several programs, including activities that pair staff with local high school youth to provide career advice and inspiration for the students as they navigate and prepare for their futures. The Lakers also host a Mentor Night and mentor-themed basketball clinics to provide opportunities for mentors and mentees to build relationships.

BUILDING BRIDGES WITH BASKETBALL

Through a combination of civic engagement, voter education, digital inclusion initiatives, and internal programs, the Lakers are committed to being an anti-racist organization. Building Bridges with Basketball uses the sport to unite members of the LAPD with the surrounding community. The Black Action Network, an employee resource group, works to build inclusiveness and provide cultural opportunities for staff, including monthly Courageous Conversations around social injustices. This summer, the Lakers hosted three interns from Fisk University through the NBA's HBCU Fellowship program. These programs, among many others, are part of the Lakers' dedication to making profound anti-racist change in the Los Angeles community.

LAKERS TECHNOLOGY ROOM LEGACY PROJECT

To top off the Lakers' 22-23 season, the Lakers and NBA Cares worked together to renovate a technology room at the Salvation Army LA Red Shield Community Center, located less than a mile from Crypto.com Arena. The Lakers turned the outdated tech room into a technology and STEM mecca, complete with a 3D printer and a virtual reality station, that provides a safe, stimulating, and comfortable environment for community center members to study, relax, and build meaningful relationships.

SOUTH BAY LAKERS

The South Bay Lakers enter their 17th season in the NBA G League in 2023-24 as they look to remain one of the most successful franchises in league history. Since the establishment of the organization, South Bay has been at the forefront of the NBA's minor league movement. The team has cemented itself as a top producer of NBA-ready talent, totaling 48 NBA Call-Ups and developing 26 Lakers assignment players since the team's inaugural season in 2006-07.

During his second season as South Bay head coach, Miles Simon led the team to another outstanding season. The squad posted a 34-16 (.680) combined record in the Showcase Cup and regular season, the third-highest winning percentage in South Bay Lakers history. The team also secured a playoff berth for the second consecutive season, however they fell in the first round to the Rio Grande Valley Vipers, 122-124.

PRIMARY LOGO

Two-way guard Scotty Pippen Jr. made an immediate difference with his ability to score and create for others, averaging 22.2 points, 5.3 assists and 3.7 rebounds per game. Fellow two-way player Cole Swider also made a tremendous impact on offense, averaging 15.9 points and 4.7 rebounds while shooting 43.6 percent from 3-point range. Los Angeles Lakers second round draft pick Max Christie also spent some time with South Bay this season. The former Michigan State Spartan played 18 games (five starts), averaging 14.1 points, 5.1 rebounds and 2.2 assists per game. Nate Pierre-Louis made as much of a difference off the court as he did on it; The second year South Bay Laker was the recipient of the Jason Collier Trophy for the Kia NBA G League Sportsmanship Award. The trophy came back to El Segundo for the second consecutive year after South Bay Lakers legend Andre Ingram won the honor for the 2021-22 season.

South Bay had two NBA Call-Ups this season. Jay Huff, the NBA G League Defensive Player of the Year, signed a two-way deal with the Washington Wizards and guard Shaq Harrison signed a 10-day contract with the Portland Trail Blazers.

Following the departure of Miles Simon, South Bay will look to build on last season's success new head coach Dane Johnson. Johnson spent the last six seasons on the South Bay coaching staff, including one season as associate head coach (2022-23), four seasons as an assistant coach (2017-20, 2021-22) and one year as a coaching assistant (2016-17). Additionally, the Columbus, Ohio, native has served as an assistant coach for the Los Angeles Lakers' summer league team, including the 2017 squad that went on to win the championship

LAKERS GAMING

Since then, the league has expanded to 25 teams, 22 of which are affiliated with NBA teams. LAST SEASON AT A GLANCE

Lakers Gaming wrapped up their fifth season in 2023. The team did not qualify for the playoffs in 3-on-3 or 5-on-5 formats, but the organization continues to be one of the most successful franchises in the entire league off the court. Lakers Gaming finished in the top five in revenue generated and social impressions, showing that the Lakers fan base continues to show immense support.

Lakers Gaming's standout performer this year was Ryan "Ryan1of1" Harris. The guard averaged 22.2 points and 6.3 assists while shooting above 40.0 percent from 3-point range this season. Head Coach Brian "Nacho" Traynor will look to rally the squad in his third season next year.

SECONDARY LOGO

As the first NBA team to ever dance on the hardwood, the Laker Girls are back for their 45th season.

It was the great Dr. Jerry Buss who knew a court had the power to be transformed into a stage. He was inspired by the collegiate look and spirit that existed at USC and UCLA in the late 1970s. So, he brought his vision to life by uniting former song leaders from both universities to form the first-ever Laker Girls squad in 1979 — the rest was history.

The most glamourous dance group in the NBA quickly became stars across the country — and then the world. Their style, charisma, and moves inspired trends in the music industry as well as the rest of the NBA to follow their lead and form dance teams of their own.

The Laker Girls have evolved into a team comprised of equal parts glamour and fierceness. As iconic as they will always be, each year is original — from all angles.

With the position considered a part-time job, each member of the Laker Girls is also involved in academic pursuits, theatrical & dance careers, or non-entertainment careers. But every year, each member of the team arrives with a fierce determination and unfaltering dedication to transform the floor into a stage and reinforce what it means to be a part of the Lakers. The 2023-24 squad is here and ready to bring the energy.

Beyond the dance floor, the Laker Girls have become ambassadors for the organization and NBA worldwide. While active in the local community with multiple appearances throughout the season at many non-profit and charitable functions, the Laker Girls have also been chosen to represent the NBA globally on the continents of Asia, Europe, and Australia. And the squad supports and visits our military troops in places abroad including Italy, Bosnia, Korea, Japan, Israel, and Sarajevo.

Dr. Jerry Buss brought 10 rings and the Laker Girls to Los Angeles. It's been over four decades and both teams are still integral parts of the city to this day.
