ROBERT J. PERA

CHAIRMAN AND CONTROLLING OWNER

On Oct. 31, 2012, the Memphis Grizzlies announced that the sale of the team to a group led by Robert J. Pera had been formally completed. Pera, founder and CEO of Ubiquiti Networks, a publicly-traded next-generation communications technology company, officially assumed control as Chairman and Controlling Owner of the Grizzlies.

"The Grizzlies are here to stay in Memphis," Pera said following the purchase. "We are thrilled to assume ownership of the Grizzlies. We see enormous potential and understand the role the Grizzlies play in bringing Memphians together. We are committed to building a winning team with a best-in-class organizational culture, finding new and creative ways to engage with our fans, and making a positive and meaningful difference in the community."

Since assuming control of the team, Pera has continued to transform the Memphis Grizzlies' identity into a world-class organization. In Pera's first season as chairman and controlling owner, the Grizzlies experienced unprecedented success on and off the court, winning a franchise-record 56 games and advancing to the 2013 Western Conference Finals, the club's first-ever trip to the conference finals. Following their playoff run, the Grizzlies were named the best overall professional sports franchise in North America in ESPN The Magazine's 2013 Ultimate Standings.

Pera is the Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Ubiquiti Networks, Inc., a global communications technology company based in Silicon Valley. Ubiquiti designs and develops wired and wireless Internet protocol systems and services for businesses, carriers, and educational markets. Pera launched Ubiquiti in 2005 with the initial goal of providing long-range wireless connectivity to bring Internet to underserved communities. Today Ubiquiti's communication systems have connected millions of people to the Internet and have powered profitable operator businesses around the globe in creating a multi-billion dollar industry that has successfully bridged the digital divide on a global scale.

In March 2005, Pera started Ubiquiti in a 650 square foot office and just $30,000 of savings — without investors, advisors, lawyers or board members. He saw an opportunity to enhance existing 802.11 WiFi technology to solve the last-mile problem which often leaves underserved and rural areas of the world without Internet access. Since its beginning, the company has been profitable, with growth funded entirely organically by its own earnings.

Ubiquiti went public on the NASDAQ Exchange in October 2011 and has been one of the fastest growing companies in Silicon Valley. In its last fiscal year, the company had earnings of $102.59mm on $353.52mm of sales resulting in industry-leading operating margins of better than 35 percent while employing upwards of only 100 people, mostly engineers.

Pera has developed a unique business model which embraces the openness of the Internet and connects customers to each other and to Ubiquiti's engineers. Combined with the company's disruptive price/performance technology platforms, the model creates a highly loyal and enthusiastic community of operators who have seen their businesses flourish under this partnership. Ubiquiti's official community forum (<http://forum.ubnt.com/>), a web-based platform with more than 135,000 registered users, is one of many online sites that link Ubiquiti operators and engineers together. Thousands of members use the forum daily to ask questions and share innovations.

With more than 70 percent of Ubiquiti's sales coming from emerging countries, Ubiquiti's community of grass roots operators has connected millions of people to the Internet in some of the most remote regions in the world. Ubiquiti aggressively protects its intellectual property, including its patents, copyrights, trademarks and trade secrets, and the encryption of its products, to establish and safeguard its valuable intellectual property and worldwide brand recognition.

Pera has received numerous accolades and widespread media recognition including 2012, top 10 "Young and Powerful CEOs under 40" and top 10 "Youngest Billionaires in the World." Pera, who takes a salary of $1 a year and no equity compensation, works to keep Ubiquiti closely connected to its customer base. His personal blog (<http://www.rjpblog.com>) offers insight to customers and fellow entrepreneurs.

Pera grew up in San Carlos, California, near Silicon Valley, where his enthusiasm for computers and entrepreneurship was evident early in life. His mother gave him his first computer at age seven, and by age 16 he was operating his own computer services company.

Pera earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Japanese Language, a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering and a Master of Science degree in Electrical Engineering, all from the University of California, San Diego. Upon graduating, he accepted a position as a hardware engineer at Apple where he worked until leaving to launch Ubiquiti in 2005.

JASON LEVIEN

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

As Chief Executive Officer, Jason Levien has leadership responsibility over Memphis Basketball, LLC, which operates the Memphis Grizzlies and FedExForum. In this role, Levien leads the entire organization and serves as an Alternate NBA Governor. Since his appointment to the position on Nov. 4, 2012, Levien has been the driving force behind many of the changes that have shaped the Grizzlies into a world-class organization both on and off the court.

In one of his major decisions, Levien announced the monumental additions of versatile executive Stu Lash as director of player personnel and basketball development, basketball analytics pioneer and ESPN writer John Hollinger as vice president of basketball operations to help guide the Grizzlies in an intuitive, forward-thinking direction.

With a roster including 2013 Defensive Player of the Year Marc Gasol, two-time NBA All-Star Zach Randolph, NBA steals leader Mike Conley, two-time First-Team All-Defense member Tony Allen, and Olympic gold medalist Tayshaun Prince, the Grizzlies set a franchise record with 56 wins in the regular season and advanced to the 2013 Western Conference Finals, another first for the organization.

Levien played a significant role in building upon the team's success from the 2012-13 season, promoting lead assistant coach and minor league coaching legend Dave Joergert to head coach and re-signing Allen to a multi-year contract during the offseason. Combined with other key acquisitions such as power forward Ed Davis and two-time NBA champion and fan favorite Mike Miller, Levien has established and maintained a core group for the current and future success of the franchise.

Levien has been instrumental in improving the overall fan experience at FedExForum. Additionally, the Grizzlies caravanned to five regional locations during the offseason, including Nashville, St. Louis, Little Rock, Jackson, Miss. and Jackson, Tenn. The team has secured greater television distribution in St. Louis, Little Rock and southern Kansas and has seen new and increased corporate sponsorship from its partners.

The Grizzlies' signature grit-and-grind has been ingrained in the Memphis community, and the team's meaningful impact in the region was recognized nationally when ESPN The Magazine ranked the Grizzlies the best overall professional sports franchise in its 2013 Ultimate Standings, the publication's annual survey that measures how much the organization gives back to fans and combines fan surveys across a comprehensive range of issues. Memphis became the fourth NBA franchise ever to top the overall list and joined other past winners such as the San Antonio Spurs, Oklahoma City Thunder, Detroit Pistons, Green Bay Packers, Indianapolis Colts, New Orleans Saints and Los Angeles Angels.

Levien is the founder of a firm specializing in investments in sports and media properties and is General Partner of the Major League Soccer (MLS) team DC United, where he serves on the Board of Governors.

Levien is a former co-owner of the Philadelphia 76ers. Previously, Levien ran a sports agency where he represented professional athletes, coaches, teams, leagues, and sports and media executives. His tenure representing NBA players spanned more than a decade, during which time he represented multiple first round draft selections as well as high-profile free agents. Levien also spent two seasons as an executive with the NBA's Sacramento Kings.

An attorney, Levien worked at law firms Williams & Connolly and Greenberg Traurig LP. He served as a law clerk on the United States Court of Appeals for the 4th Circuit and taught as an adjunct professor at the University of California Berkeley Law School and at the University of Michigan. Levien served as an editor of the Michigan Law Review while earning his law degree and master's in public policy from the University of Michigan. He later was awarded a fellowship at Harvard Law School.

Levien is a graduate of Pomona College, where he was a member of the basketball team.

CHRIS WALLACE

GENERAL MANAGER

One of the most respected executives in the league, Wallace enters his seventh season as general manager of the Memphis Grizzlies. During his tenure, Wallace has helped assemble one of the NBA's most tenacious on-court units, and the Grizzlies have experienced unprecedented postseason success, beginning with a first-round series victory over the top-seeded San Antonio Spurs and a seven-game conference semifinal series with the Oklahoma City Thunder during the 2011 Playoffs.

Well-traveled and well-connected, Wallace has served seven NBA franchises since 1986 and has worked with five former NBA Executive of the Year winners, including Red Auerbach, Danny Ainge, Bucky Buckwalter, Geoff Petrie and Jerry West. In addition, he has worked alongside Basketball Hall of Fame members Billy Cunningham and Pat Riley. Before coming to Memphis, he spent the previous 10 seasons as the general manager of the Boston Celtics. In his role with the Celtics, Wallace had a hand in all basketball-related decisions, including free agent signings, trades and draft preparations.

Prior to becoming the Celtics' general manager, Wallace was director of player personnel for the Miami Heat. The Heat won a franchise-record 61 games in 1996-97 and Wallace is credited with discovering many of the Heat's players. Wallace was promoted to that position after four years as a scout for the Heat.

Before joining the Heat, Wallace worked in various scouting capacities for the Portland Trail Blazers, Denver Nuggets, Los Angeles Clippers and New York Knicks. He also worked as a draft consultant for the United States Basketball League (USBL). Wallace has also served on the selection committee for the prestigious Nike/ABCD and Converse ABCD national high school camps, evaluating scores of future college and NBA stars.

Wallace, an avid basketball fan before breaking into the NBA, got his start in basketball in 1981 when he founded the award-winning Blue Ribbon College Basketball Yearbook. Sports Illustrated named Wallace as one of the most influential members of the college basketball media in 1991. He has also served as an expert witness in basketball-related litigation and is also a member of the Board of Directors at the Touchdown Club of Memphis.

A native of Buckhannon, W.Va., Wallace and his wife, Debby, have a son, Truman.

JOHN HOLLINGER

VICE PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

John Hollinger enters his second season with the Memphis Grizzlies as vice president of basketball operations. Best known for his work at the forefront of basketball's analytics movement, Hollinger is the inventor of advanced stats such as Player Efficiency Rating (PER), Offensive Efficiency, Defensive Efficiency and Pace Factor, as well as several other tools that analyze and forecast team and player performance.

With the Grizzlies, Hollinger's analytics background is vital in analyzing personnel decisions such as trades, draft, free agency and salary cap management. He's also spearheading the development of the Grizzlies' analytics infrastructure, while maintaining a hand in more traditional basketball functions such as scouting and player development.

Before coming to the Grizzlies, Hollinger was an NBA columnist for ESPN.com for eight years. His daily "PER Diem" column was a mainstay of their coverage, while analytic tools he developed such as Power Rankings, Playoff Odds and Draft Rater became key elements of the site. Hollinger also covered major events such as the Finals, All-Star Game and playoffs, and created annual scouting reports for every player and team in the league, developed a Twitter following of over 125,000 fans at @johnhollinger, and contributed chats, video and radio while at ESPN. He also appeared periodically on TV programs such as "Numbers Never Lie."

From 2002-05, Hollinger authored four annual editions of the Pro Basketball Forecast – first known as the Pro Basketball Prospectus – a book with stats and reports on every player and team in the league. Those reports were later folded into his scouting reports for ESPN.com.

Hollinger's books were the first to introduce his PER formula to a national audience. PER is a rating of a player's per-minute statistical performance that Hollinger developed to make player comparisons easier, and has become a widely used standard over the past decade. His also developed several other statistics that are now in wide use today, including Rebound Rate, Usage Rate, Pure Point Rating, Game Score, and Estimated Wins, and used similarity scores and regression analysis to forecast player performance and analyze draft prospects.

While writing his books, Hollinger covered the NBA as an editor and writer for SI.com from 2002-05. He also authored a column for the New York Sun newspaper three days a week. Prior to joining SI.com, he was the sports editor for Oregonlive.com.

Hollinger first gained notoriety as the creator of Alleyoop.com, a Web site devoted to basketball analytics that he created in 1996. At Alleyoop.com, Hollinger first developed several of his statistical formulas, as well as publishing articles on the league and his advanced stats, and his work gained nationwide recognition.

Hollinger is a native of New Jersey, where he played on his high school basketball team. He graduated from the University of Virginia with degrees in economics and environmental science. Hollinger lives in Memphis with his wife Judy.

STU LASH

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL & BASKETBALL DEVELOPMENT

Stu Lash enters his second season with the Grizzlies as director of player personnel and basketball development.

Named to his position shortly after the start of the 2012-13 season, Lash came to Memphis after serving as Vice President of Basketball for Lagardere Unlimited, a position he had held since 2009. While at Lagardere, Lash had an integral part in contract negotiations, scouting potential clients, pre-draft preparations and client marketing.

Lash spent four years (2002-06) with the Denver Nuggets, working with the front office and coaching staffs and serving as the scouting and video coordinator. His responsibilities in Denver included draft analysis, scouting efforts, scouting schedules and upcoming game preparation. Lash was a key component to scouting and evaluating draft prospects.

A graduate from the University of Massachusetts in Amherst, Lash and his wife, Rebie, have one son, Alexander.

DAVE JOERGER

HEAD COACH

One of the most successful minor league head coaches of all-time, Dave Joerger was named the 12th head coach in Memphis Grizzlies history on June 27, 2013.

Backed by five championships in seven years as a head coach on the minor league level and six years as an assistant coach on the Grizzlies' sidelines, Joerger has helped orchestrate the Grizzlies' greatest successes in both the regular season and the postseason. Memphis set franchise records for regular season winning percentage and recorded second-place finishes in the Southwest Division, club bests, in each of the past two seasons, both of which Joerger served as the lead assistant. The Grizzlies also have made three consecutive playoff appearances, upsetting the top-seeded San Antonio Spurs in the opening round of the 2011 Playoffs, the team's first playoff series victory, and advancing to the 2013 Western Conference Finals two years later.

Since his initial hire prior to the 2007-08 season, Joerger has shaped the Grizzlies' identity into an NBA-best defensive unit that led the league in points allowed (89.3) during the 2012-13 campaign. Memphis has improved its defensive rating in every season with Joerger on the bench, including a second-place finish last season.

Featuring three members of the 2012-13 NBA All-Defensive Teams, including leading vote-getter Tony Allen (First Team), 2012-13 NBA Defensive Player of the Year Marc Gasol (Second Team) and reigning NBA steals leader Mike Conley (Second Team), Memphis has generated 2,105 steals over the past three seasons, 180 more than any other NBA team over that span. The Grizzlies paced the league in both steals per game and forced turnovers during the 2010-11 and 2011-12 seasons.

Before earning his first NBA assistant coaching job with the Grizzlies, Joerger gained fame as head coach of the 2007 NBA Development League Champion Dakota Wizards. Dakota's 2007 championship marked Joerger's fifth as a head coach after winning one International Basketball Association (IBA) title and three more in the Continental Basketball Association (CBA). Joerger owns two CBA Coach of the Year Awards (2002, 2004) and a head coaching record of 232-117 (.665) in the minor leagues.

After finishing his playing career at Moorhead State, Joerger got his start as Dakota's general manager when the franchise was a member of the IBA. He received his first opportunity on the sidelines as an assistant coach during the 1997-98 season. After three years as an assistant, Joerger succeeded Duane Ticknor (now a Grizzlies assistant) as head coach and led the Wizards to the 2001 IBA Championship. The Wizards moved to the CBA the following season, where Joerger led them to CBA titles in 2002 and 2004.

During the summer of 2004, Joerger became head coach of the Sioux Falls Skyforce and proceeded to win the 2005 CBA Championship, his fourth title in five years, giving him more minor league championships than other notable minor-league-turned-NBA head coaches Phil Jackson, George Karl, Flip Saunders and Eric Musselman combined. Joerger returned to Dakota, now in the D-League, in 2006 and guided the Wizards to a league-best 33-17 record (.660) before winning his second championship with the organization.

An excellent teacher of the game, Joerger had 18 of his players called up to the NBA from 2003-07.

Joerger and his wife, Kara, are the parents of two daughters, Alli and Kiana. Very active in the Memphis community, Joerger participates in Grizzlies team events supporting St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and sits on the board for National Junior Tennis and Learning (NJTL). His family is a member of First United Methodist Church.

ELSTON TURNER

ASSISTANT COACH

Elston Turner enters his first season as an assistant coach with the Memphis Grizzlies, his 17th season on the NBA sidelines after serving as an assistant for the Phoenix Suns (2011-13), Houston Rockets (2007-11), Sacramento Kings (2000-06) and Portland Trail Blazers (1996-00).

Similar to his role during his playing career, Turner often has been tabbed to preach defense on potent offensive ball clubs as a coach, notably spending 14 years under offensively-minded head coach Rick Adelman in Houston, Sacramento and Portland. Working under Adelman, Turner was part of two Western Conference All-Star coaching staffs (2001, 2003).

Turner's career coaching responsibilities have included handling the team's game plan, individual skill work with players and advance scouting. He served as head coach of the Rockets' summer league team and spent his final two seasons in Sacramento as the lead assistant. Turner's coaching career began in the Continental Basketball Association (CBA) as an assistant coach for the Quad City Thunder and as a player/coach for the Chicago Rockers in 1994-95.

Drafted by the Dallas Mavericks in the second round (43rd overall) of the 1981 NBA Draft, Turner developed a reputation as a tenacious defender, averaging 4.7 points, 2.7 rebounds and 1.8 assists in 505 games (97 starts) over eight seasons with the Dallas Mavericks (1981-84), Denver Nuggets (1984-86, 1988-89) and Chicago Bulls (1986-88). Following his NBA career, he played parts of five seasons in the CBA and three years in Europe in Spain, Italy and Greece.

A native of Knoxville, Tenn., Turner played four seasons at Ole Miss, where as a senior he teamed with current Grizzlies TV analyst Sean Tuohy to lead the Rebels to the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1981. The university honored Turner's collegiate achievements by inducting him into the Ole Miss-M Club Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000.

Turner and his wife, Louise, have one son, Elston Jr., and one daughter, Taylor. Elston, Jr. garnered First Team All-SEC honors last season as a senior guard for Texas A&M and led the Aggies with 17.5 points per game.

DUANE TICKNOR

ASSISTANT COACH

A veteran of the minor league coaching circuit, Duane Ticknor enters his first season as an assistant coach with the Memphis Grizzlies. Ticknor rejoins head coach Dave Joerger, this time on the Grizzlies sidelines, after Joerger served as an assistant under Ticknor for one season (1999-00) with the International Basketball Association's (IBA) Dakota Wizards.

Ticknor spent last season as head coach of the NBA Development League's Fort Wayne Mad Ants, guiding the club to a 27-23 record (.540) and an appearance in the 2013 D-League Playoffs. Before his stint in Fort Wayne, Ticknor worked two seasons as an assistant coach for the D-League's Sioux Falls Skyforce (2009-11), two seasons as head coach of the Dakota Wizards (2007-09) and one season in South Korea (2011-12).

He also spent time in the Continental Basketball Association (CBA) as head coach of the Gary Steelheads (2002-05) and as an assistant for the Rapid City Thrillers (1989-92) and in the IBA as head coach of the Black Hills Posse (1995-99), Dakota Wizards (1999-00) and the Siouxland Bombers (2000-01).

A four-time IBA Coach of the Year (1996-98, 2000), Ticknor led his teams to the IBA Finals three times and won the 1997 IBA Championship with Black Hills.

Ticknor and his wife, Mary, have one son, David. The Vermillion, S.D. native graduated from the University of South Dakota.

GRIZZ

TEAM MASCOT

Now in his 19th season, Grizz, the mascot of the Memphis Grizzlies, has remained a furry fan favorite among members of Grizz Nation, so much so that he was named the 2011 NBA Mascot of the Year as voted by his peers. Born in Vancouver, Canada in 1995, Grizz can always be relied upon to electrify audiences with dramatic dunks and signature shenanigans.

In celebration of the Grizzlies' historic 10th Season in Memphis in 2010-11, Grizz re-introduced his equally popular alter-ego Super Grizz as a nod to the organization's first seasons in the Bluff City. Donning an updated mask and cape, Super Grizz encouraged fans to Believe as the team earned its first postseason berth since 2006 and advanced to the Western Conference Semifinals in thrilling fashion.

Memphis has proven to be the perfect natural habitat for Grizz, who often stars in schools throughout the Mid-South as part of a variety of community initiatives. When not rallying fans at FedExForum or making appearances around town, Grizz is often found at St. Jude encouraging children in their battle against cancer, an issue near to Grizz's heart after his own defeat of the disease in 2008. If you would like Grizz to make an appearance at your special event please contact us at 901.205.1416.

GRIZZ GIRLS

DANCE TEAM

The Grizzlies players aren't the only athletes on the court at FedExForum. With their fast-paced dance moves and exciting routines, the Grizz Girls rock FedExForum at every home game. Throughout the season, these dancers entertain arena audiences with high-energy dance routines that keep the crowd excited during timeouts, between quarters and selected halftime intermissions.

Away from the arena, the Grizz Girls add a special touch to the Grizzlies community and around the world. The Grizz Girls have taken their act international in the last three offseasons, spreading the excitement of the NBA to Hong Kong as part of NBA Madness 2011, Mexico as part of the 2012 NBA Rafaaga Experience China and Taiwan as part of NBA Madness 2012. They returned to China this past summer as part of the NBA's 2013 International Talent Grassroots program and participated in NBA 3X in Seoul, South Korea. With their infectious personalities and athletic ability, the Grizz Girls also share their love of dance throughout the community with their dance clinics for kids and their weekly GirlPlay adult dance classes.

From the Blues to Rock to Hip Hop, the Grizz Girls dazzle crowds with exciting routines to a variety of music. Under the direction of choreographer Tamara Moore, they continue to keep fans guessing what they will tackle next. To have the Grizz Girls at your upcoming event or party or more information on clinics and classes, call 901.205.1411 or visit grizzlies.com for more information.

AT A GLANCE

THE DON POIER MEDIA CENTER

On January 21, 2005, the Memphis Grizzlies suffered a tremendous loss when the team's play-by-play announcer, Don Poier, passed away at the age of 53. Poier was known as "the Voice of the Grizzlies," serving as a radio and television announcer since the team's inception in Vancouver in 1995.

He brought to Grizzlies broadcasts knowledge of the team and passion for the game that was second to none. His legacy to the franchise was secured in April 2005 when the team named the media suite at FedExForum the Don Poier Media Center. A banner was also hung from the rafters in his honor.

When the Grizzlies moved to Memphis from Vancouver in 2001, Poier immediately became a fixture in Memphis. Fans who had never heard him call a game before instantly fell in love with his style. He was the team's biggest supporter, yet was unafraid to tell the truth if the team was playing poorly.

His catchphrases, which he always came up with on the spot, never failed to make listeners chuckle. His signature phrase, 'Only in the movies and in Memphis,' was used regularly during the 2003-04 season as the team embarked on its amazing 50-win season and first playoff appearance. As one of the original Grizzlies, no one was more excited to be a part of that season's magical ride than Don Poier, who had been through the highest of highs and lowest of lows with the Grizzlies. But Poier's contributions in the broadcast booth were only the tip of the iceberg of a life that touched so many.

His wife, Barb, came to every Grizzlies home game and became as much a fixture at the arena as her husband.

Don and Barb derived great pleasure from their blended family, which included Don's three daughters, Barb's five children and 10 grandchildren. Although these were the immediate members of Poier's family, by no means were they the only members.

Anyone who worked for the Grizzlies organization was a member of the Poier family. He made a point of introducing himself to everyone he didn't know. His large family grew to thousands as he recruited each fan who listened to his distinctive booming voice.

His spirit and generosity also extended to the community. Poier was a fixture at Grizzlies community events, attending dozens of events on behalf of the Grizzlies every year. He was a member of the Bellingham Boys and Girls Club in Washington State, and hosted a summer golf tournament in his home state of Washington.

Poier's memory will always be treasured by his Grizzlies family.

The Grizzlies honored Don Poier, "The Voice of the Grizzlies," by naming the media center in FedExForum after him.

Mission Statement

Our ambition is to create a better future for all young people in the Memphis metropolitan region. Through a focus on philanthropy, community investment, education and sports development initiatives, the Grizzlies organization is actively building a "Greater Memphis" off the court as well as on.

Community Outreach

The Memphis Grizzlies invest in communities throughout the Mid-South by providing quality services, programs, events and in-kind donations that support the needs of area hospitals, schools and non-profits. During the 2012-13 season, the Grizzlies supported over 450 local and regional organizations through its Donations In-Kind and Tickets for Kids programs. In addition, the Grizzlies host several seasonal programs, which include events such as the Grizzlies Annual Canned Food Drives presented by ACH Food Companies, Inc. to benefit the Mid-South Food Bank, Grizzlies Holiday Toy Drive benefitting MIFA's Holiday Hope Chest, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital's Thanks and Giving and Hoops for St. Jude campaigns, NBA Fit Week activities, Black History Month on-court recognitions, Grizzlies Go Green Week, and the Annual Tip-Off Luncheon and Grizz Gala, both supporting Grizzlies House at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. The Grizzlies also help support Grizzlies House at St. Jude through proceeds from online and in-arena auctions. The online auctions feature one-of-a-kind Grizzlies memorabilia and experiences that fans can bid on by simply visiting grizzlies.com. The in-arena auctions feature autographed memorabilia from past Grizzlies players and teams.

Marc Gasol visited with children at St. Jude in February 2013

The Grizzlies auxiliary group, Lady Bears, works closely with the Community Investment and Basketball Operations Departments to support outreach initiatives throughout the Mid-South community. Members are comprised of women who play a significant role in the lives of Grizzlies players, coaches, basketball operations and ownership staff. This past season the Lady Bears hosted a Thanksgiving dinner at the Salvation Army's Purdue Center of Hope in November for the fourth straight year. The ladies, along with coaches, players and other family members, served Thanksgiving dinner to homeless women and children. The Lady Bears also provided the children with backpacks, hats and gloves. The Lady Bears returned to the Purdue Center of Hope in January to help the families get a the new year off to a healthy start with Zumba classes and fitness activities for all. Lady Bears continued to contribute to the Mid-South Community throughout the season by participating in hospital visits, toy drives, the Family Fitness Challenge and Go Green Week events.

Education

The NBA's Read to Achieve Program is the most extensive educational outreach initiative in the history of professional sports. Read to Achieve is designed to encourage our community's youth to develop a life-long love for reading and to promote the value of reading and literacy. Since the Grizzlies moved to Memphis from Vancouver in 2001, players, coaches and staff members have been actively involved in Read to Achieve by reading to students at area schools. Each season, the Grizzlies partner with International Paper to host a Read to Achieve Celebration at FedExForum. The Celebration rewards the top 100 readers from each school participating in the Memphis Grizzlies Reading Challenge. The Reading Challenge is a literacy initiative that encourages elementary age students to read six books in six weeks. The Grizzlies' Read to Achieve program touches the lives of nearly 25,000 Mid-South students through the Grizzlies Reading Challenge and Read to Achieve Assemblies. In addition to the Read to Achieve Program, the Grizzlies host the Stay in School Challenge presented by Lucite International to help encourage middle school students to increase their attendance rates by attending school regularly.

For the third consecutive year, the Memphis Grizzlies offered area high school students the opportunity to participate in the Grizzlies Poetry Slam, presented by Southwest Tennessee Community College. High school students were encouraged to compose and perform original works of poetry based on the theme "Be Great!" for a chance to win a trip to New York City and a full two-year scholarship to Southwest Tennessee Community College.

Memphis Grizzlies players Mike Conley and Quincy Pondexter, along with actor and author Hill Harper, Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance (MassMutual) and Memphis City Schools hosted a financial literacy forum for Memphis youth at FedExForum. Middle school aged students from Memphis City Schools were transported to FedExForum to participate in the event designed to educate them about managing their money at an early age.

Sport Development

The Grizzlies' sport development initiatives include Healthy Home Court, the Dribble Parade and Midnight Basketball, all aimed at creating a healthier Mid-South by increasing access to healthy options, educating individuals about healthy life choices and inspiring individuals to make healthy decisions.

During the 2012-2013 season the Grizzlies partnered with Memphis City Schools to provide a free healthy breakfast to all high school students, created a fun and safe P.E. room at LaRose Elementary, renovated the basketball courts at South Side Park and helped four families adopt life-changing healthy habits as part of the Family Fitness Challenge.

In addition, the Grizzlies visited more than a dozen schools and summer camps to bring the message that all Memphians should be active as a family at least sixty minutes each day in order to live a happier, more successful and longer life.

Following the 2012-2013 season the Memphis Grizzlies Healthy Home Court initiative was recognized by the President's Council on Sports, Fitness and Nutrition with the receipt of the Community Leadership Award, making the Memphis Grizzlies the first professional sports team to receive this designation.

For more information on any Memphis Grizzlies community investment, education, or sport development initiative, please visit the Community section at grizzlies.com.

MEMPHIS GRIZZLIES CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

Recognized widely for its innovative approach to community building, the Foundation arm of the organization has distinguished itself a leader – locally and nationally – in youth outreach. The Grizzlies Foundation's dedication to the Memphis community was honored last summer with the prestigious 'Sport Team of the Year' Award at the 2012 Beyond Sport Summit, one year after being selected as a finalist in the category. The Grizzlies Foundation was also the recipient of the Steve Patterson Sports Philanthropy Award, presented by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, in 2007.

Since 2001, the Grizzlies Foundation (and the Grizzlies Charitable Fund, which preceded the Foundation) has donated over $30 million to Memphis area nonprofit organizations and schools. Tens of thousands of children and families have directly benefited from these funds, resulting in new facilities and programs, including those for Memphis Athletic Ministries, Girls Incorporated of Memphis, Facing History and Ourselves, the Soulsville Foundation, MIFA, STREETS Ministries, Memphis PREP Program and ArtsMemphis.

Beyond the cash contributions, the Grizzlies Foundation creates long-term partnerships with all agencies that receive funding. With ongoing, hands-on involvement, significant outcomes are achieved.

Grizzlies TEAM UP Youth Mentoring Initiative

Based on research that shows how the presence of even one mentor can help a young person achieve academically, develop resiliency establish goals and avoid risky behavior, the Grizzlies have now become an award-winning leader in this space, successfully building a comprehensive community-wide initiative that has engaged thousands of individuals and dozens of organizations in youth mentoring in the Memphis area.

This approach includes volunteer mentor recruitment, training and retention programs and activities; program manager networking, training and consulting; Corporate Mentoring program design and development; and vast partnership development and public awareness-building.

In 2011, the Grizzlies Foundation launched Grizzlies TEAM Mentoring, a school-based model for mentoring that matches teams of three mentors to groups of nine students. Teams meet weekly, exploring topics ranging from leadership and civic engagement to health and financial literacy. Currently the program serves 200 students in four Memphis public charter schools.

The Grizzlies Foundation also facilitates corporate engagement in mentoring, ranging from employee volunteer programs to event-based corporate sponsorships. These efforts bring both human and financial resources to the mentoring community and enable Grizzlies TEAM UP and its partners to serve far more youth.

In addition, the Grizzlies Foundation is home to the Grizzlies Mentoring Alliance (formerly the Memphis Mentoring Partnership), an affiliate of MENTOR/The National Mentoring Partnership, which offers services and resources to support and sustain quality mentoring programs in the Greater Memphis region.

As the "hub" for youth mentoring in the Mid-South, any individual or organization interested in mentoring will find the resources and guidance necessary to get involved in a meaningful, lasting way. For more information, visit www.GrizzliesTeamUp.org or email mentor@grizzlies.com.

Memphis Grizzlies Preparatory Charter School

The Grizzlies opened Grizzlies Preparatory Charter School, a public middle school for boys located in Downtown Memphis on July 30, 2012. Educating young men in grades six to eight, Grizzlies Prep prepares all students to excel academically and demonstrate integrity. Within a rigorous and structured middle school, students become equipped for success in high school, college and life.

Community members now have opportunities to volunteer at Grizzlies Prep as tutors and mentors. For more information, visit www.grizzliesprep.org.

FEDEXFORUM

FEDEXFORUM

FedExForum was delivered on time and on budget to the City of Memphis.

The $250 million FedExForum opened on time and on budget in September 2004, and has since come to be known as the premier arena in the NBA and in North America. It is home to the NBA's Memphis Grizzlies and the University of Memphis Tigers men's basketball team, and in the nine basketball seasons since FedExForum opened, the arena has played host to nine NBA Playoff series, including the 2013 Western Conference Finals, six Conference USA Men's Basketball Tournaments (2005-09, 2012), the 2009 NCAA South Regional Men's Division I Basketball Tournament, the 2010 NCAA South Regional Women's Division I Basketball Tournament. This spring, FedExForum will host the inaugural 2013 American Athletic Conference Men's Basketball Tournament and the 2013 NCAA Regional Men's Division I Basketball Tournament.

Last season, FedExForum saw another strong year, hosting over 100 arena events and over 100 private meeting events that took advantage of some of the unique meeting and function spaces throughout the arena. The professional operation at FedExForum resulted in it being named one of three finalists for the International Association of Venue Managers (IAVM) Venue Excellence Award in the category of arenas in July 2012. This season looks like another great year with some exciting new events coming to Memphis!

FedExForum has already played host to many concerts of chart-topping stars including: Paul McCartney, the Rolling Stones, Elton John, Eric Clapton, Justin Timberlake, George Strait, Kenny Chesney, Tim McGraw and Faith Hill, John Mayer, Carrie Underwood, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Taylor Swift, Miley Cyrus, Kid Rock, Alicia Keys, Foo Fighters, Michael Bublé, Usher, Justin Bieber, Bon Jovi and AC/DC among other A-List acts that have played FedExForum.

Additionally, Memphis and FedExForum have become a premier location for major boxing events having already hosted seven World Championship Boxing events, four concert rehearsals and tour openings as well as many major family shows like the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus, Disney on Ice, Monster Jam and Motocross, World Wrestling Entertainment, Cirque du Soleil and Professional Bull Riders. FedExForum also helped lead the initiative to legalize mixed martial arts in the state of Tennessee, leading to UFC 107 being held at FedExForum in December 2009.

FedExForum has become more than just an arena. It has achieved the goals set by Grizzlies ownership, management and community leaders and has become the new front porch for Memphis, a place where people can come together. Since the arena opened in September 2004, millions of fans have enjoyed a basketball game, concert or event at FedExForum. Additionally, FedExForum has become synonymous with unprecedented "Fans First" service, a principle which led to the Grizzlies and FedExForum being ranked No. 1 overall in the "Bang for the Buck" category in ESPN The Magazine's 2011 Ultimate Standings (No. 9 franchise overall), a composite ranking of all 122 franchises across the four major professional sports in North America (MLB, NBA, NFL, NHL). The Grizzlies were selected as the best overall professional sports franchise in North America in ESPN The Magazine's 2013 Ultimate Standings.

So what is it about FedExForum that has the city, the NBA and fans buzzing?

There are five seating levels in the arena, with wide concourses making navigating the building easy. There are over 100 points of sale for concession stands, meaning expedited service. There are four full-service restaurants, with three offering service to Premium Seat Holders: Opus, a fine dining restaurant overlooking the court; the Blue Note Lounge, where fans can get a cocktail and a light meal before or during the game and enjoy the new standing ledge; and the Lexus Lounge, where fans can watch the Grizzlies run onto the court from the locker room.. There is also the Legends Lounge, a patio area overlooking Beale Street where fans can meet and greet before and after every game, and a Courtside Lounge just off the floor, exclusive for courtside seat holders. Each of those spaces is also available to rent for private functions during non-game or event times.

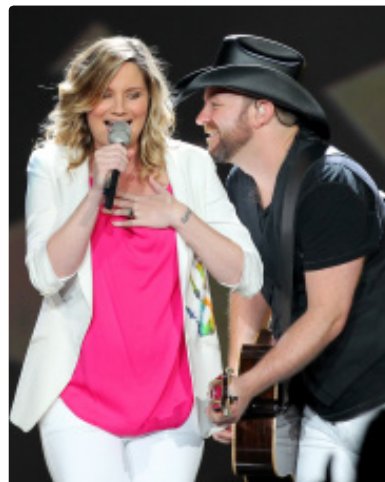

All of the food in FedExForum is provided by Levy Restaurants, the leader in sports and entertainment venue dining, and fans experience selection and quality beyond anything they've ever had at a sporting event. Whether it's a Memphis favorite such as Charlie Vergos' Rendezvous ribs, something more exotic, or traditional fare like hamburgers, every fan can find something to satisfy their appetite. In 2011, FedExForum was chosen by readers of Memphis Sport Magazine for Best Concessions at any Mid-South venue.

Once in their seats, the first thing fans notice is the massive videoboard. Designed by Daktronics, the center-hung scoreboard provides fans with live video, instant replays and information on ten large, digital full-color displays, including four dedicated scoring sections. The scoreboard is one of the biggest in the NBA, measuring approximately 22 feet high by 38 feet in diameter. The unique design of the main center-hung scoreboard includes two 360-degree full-color rings of LED on the top and bottom of the scoreboard. Four additional video displays, in vertical configuration, flank the main video screens and dedicated scoring sections.

To complement the center-hung video and scoring displays, additional LED displays are prominently featured around the seating bowl. One 360-degree ring of light encircles the entire seating bowl, mounted on the Terrace Level fascia. A second large display curves 270 degrees around the Club Level fascia. The four LED rings comprise one of the largest amount of linear feet of LED in any arena in the United States. FedExForum is also equipped with a state-of-the-art sound system, as well as acoustic technology, making the sound in the arena crystal clear.

Before, during and after games, fans can buy the latest merchandise and Grizzlies gear in the Grizzlies Den team store, located in the Grand Lobby and at several boutique stores throughout FedExForum. The store is also open on non-game days from 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. Monday – Friday and 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. on Saturday. Playoff hours are 9 a.m. – 6 p.m. Monday – Friday and 9 a.m. – 5 p.m. on Saturday. One of the most unique features of FedExForum is the music theme that is prevalent throughout the arena. Luxury Suite holders have their name engraved on a record outside their suite, and lyric sheets from famous Memphis songs appear prominently on the walls. Concessions and restaurants are named with uniquely Memphis music themes and areas of the arena concourses are divided into sponsored zones highlighting musical genres like Rock 'n' Roll, the Blues, Gospel, Memphis Music Today and more.

FedExForum is also home to the Rock 'n' Soul Museum on the street level of the administration building. The Rock 'n' Soul Museum traces the roots of rock and roll and soul music in Memphis, offering visitors a self-guided tour of Memphis music from the early 20th century into the 1970s. The Rock 'n' Soul Museum is one of only two Smithsonian Institution exhibits not located in Washington, D.C.
