CREDENTIALS: Appropriate credentials are required for access to The Center and should be kept visible at all times. A limited number of season credentials are issued each season to outlets that plan to cover the 76ers on a game-by-game basis. A single-game credential allows the same access and privileges as a season pass. In accordance with NBA rules, all season passes must include a photo headshot of the approved individual. Media members wishing to cover a single game must contact the Philadelphia 76ers Public Relations staff by noon the day before the intended game. Passes are issued on a space-available basis for all single-game requests. Credentials will be left at the Press Entrance (located on the North side of the Main Concourse Level) and can be picked up three hours prior to tip-off on game nights.

ENTRANCE: Media members attending a 76ers game at The Center should enter the building through the Press Entrance, located on the North side of the Main Concourse Level.

PARKING: Media members wishing to cover a single game, and requiring parking, must contact the Philadelphia 76ers Public Relations staff at least 48 hours prior to game day. Media members attending 76ers games should park in Lot F, located along the 11th Street side.

MEDIA ROOM: The media room is located at the Northeast corner of the Event Floor Level. Appropriate credentials are required for media room access. The media room consists of a dining facility, working stations and wireless internet access. Food, game notes, media kits and working space are available to the media during the course of an event. Food and beverages are served three hours before tip-off time. Refreshments are available during the game. A nominal fee of $10 is charged for a pre-game meal.

SEATING: Home and visiting television as well as home and visiting radio will be seated in section 112. All other media will be assigned seats on the baseline (section 118) on a space-available basis.

STILL & VIDEO PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photo work space is limited and your cooperation is appreciated. Still and video photographers are limited to the baselines at each end of the court. In accordance with the NBA policy, no hard-back chairs are permitted courtside and all photographers must keep clear of all designated escape lanes. Rubber lens shades are required for all still photographers who are credentialed to shoot a 76ers game.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: The locker rooms are located on the west side (Broad Street) of the Event Level. In accordance with NBA policy, the 76ers locker room will be open 90 minutes prior and close 45 minutes prior to tip-off. Following a ten-minute cooling off period, the locker room will open after the game has been completed. Only credentialed media are allowed in the locker room and no autographs are permitted. All media members are asked to have their passes visible at all times while in The Center.

GAME NOTES & STATS: Game notes for both teams will be available in the press room three hours prior to tip-off. Play-by-play, quarterly boxes, halftime boxes, final notes and quotes will all be disseminated electronically throughout the game night.

PRACTICES & SHOOTAROUNDS: 76ers practices are held at the Philadelphia 76ers Training Complex located in Camden, NJ. Parking is available across from the practice facility on South Front St. and Harbour Blvd. Please contact the Philadelphia 76ers PR department for a temporary parking pass if driving to practice.

FRONT OFFICE

DARYL MOREY

President of Basketball Operations

Daryl Morey is entering his first season as President of Basketball Operations for the Philadelphia 76ers. Morey oversees all areas of the 76ers basketball operations department. Morey joins the organization after 14 seasons with the Houston Rockets, 13 of which were spent as general manager.

With Morey as general manager, Houston compiled a 640-400 (.615) record, the second-best of any NBA team during that span. Among executives with at least 1,000 games of experience, Morey's record stands as the fifth-best in league history; a top-five that also includes the likes of R.C. Buford and Jerry West. Between 2007-20, Morey's teams never had a losing season, winning 50-plus games eight times and qualifying for the postseason on 10 occasions. The Rockets' eight straight playoff appearances, including multiple trips to the Western Conference Finals, represent the longest streak in the NBA.

Over the years, Morey played a part in bringing several All-Star-caliber players to Houston through trades and free agency, including James Harden, Kyle Lowry, Dwight Howard, Chris Paul and Russell Westbrook. In 2017-18, Morey earned Executive of the Year honors, while Harden was named MVP, following a franchise best 65-17 regular season.

Prior to joining the Rockets as assistant general manager in 2006, Morey served three years as Sr. Vice President of Operations for the Boston Celtics. Originally from Ohio, Morey is a graduate of Northwestern University and also holds an MBA from MIT where he serves as the co-chair of the school's annual Sports Analytics Conference.

ELTON BRAND

General Manager

Elton Brand is entering his third season as General Manager of the Philadelphia 76ers. Under Brand, the 76ers have compiled a 94-61 (.606) regular-season record and twice qualified for the postseason. Philadelphia is 62-14 (.816) at home over Brand's two seasons as general manager, including a league-best 29-2 (.935) mark at The Center last season.

Over his tenure, Brand has retooled the 76ers roster surrounding franchise cornerstones Joel Embiid and Ben Simmons. In 2019, He orchestrated a draft-night trade to acquire defensive stalwart Matisse Thybulle and a trade-deadline swap to bring a talented scorer in Tobias Harris to Philadelphia, both of whom played key roles for the 2019-20 76ers. Brand also signed Simmons to a five-year contract extension, keeping the dynamic, young talent with the 76ers through the 2024-25 season. In 2018-19, his first season as general manager, he made several moves, bolstering a team that won 51 games and held a 31-10 record in home games. The 31 home wins were Philadelphia's most in a season since 1989-90.

Brand's success as general manager comes following a 17-year playing career, during which he spent parts of five seasons playing for the 76ers. Prior to assuming the GM role with the 76ers, Brand spent the 2017-18 season in the same capacity with the Delaware Blue Coats (NBA G League), a role in which he oversaw all personnel moves related to the 76ers G League franchise. Following his retirement from the NBA, Brand spent the 2016-17 season with the 76ers as a player development consultant. Overall, Brand played in 1,058 NBA contests (868 starts) over 17 seasons with Chicago, the Clippers, Philadelphia, Dallas and Atlanta, making two All-Star appearances (2002 and 2006). He posted averages of 15.9 points, 8.5 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.7 blocks per game, while shooting .500 percent from the field and .736 percent from the free-throw line in 33.0 minutes per game. His 1,828 blocks place him 22nd all-time in NBA history.

In addition to his role within 76ers basketball operations, Brand is an active community ambassador, serving on the boards of both the Sixers Youth Foundation and Philadelphia Film Society. He sponsors young people through the Urban Affairs Coalition's Summer Youth Employment Program, which provides paid summer job opportunities and support to youth ages 14-18. The six-week program includes career exposure, on-the-job mentoring and professional development. Brand recently completed the High-Potential Leaders program at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, where he worked closely with Wharton's leadership experts and other high potentials from around the world in a dynamic, interactive environment.

Drafted after his junior season out of Marquette by the Atlanta Hawks in the second round (No. 31 overall) of the 1983 NBA Draft, he played the first eight years of his career with Atlanta, setting the Hawks' single-season assists record with 823 in 1986-87 and ended his stint with the team as the franchise's all-time assist leader with 3,866.

A product of Proviso East High School in Maywood, Illinois, Rivers earned the nickname "Doc" from former Marquette coach Rick Majerus when he wore a "Dr. J" T-shirt to a summer basketball camp.

Rivers played for the United States at the 1982 World Championship of Basketball, leading the U.S. to a silver medal and earning tournament MVP honors after averaging a team-best 18.6 points per game. During the summer of 2001, he served as an assistant coach for the USA Men's Basketball Team at the Goodwill Games in Brisbane, Australia, that captured the Gold Medal.

Rivers earned a pre-law/political science degree from Marquette in 1985 and was honored by the Pro Basketball Writers with the 1990 J. Walter Kennedy Basketball Citizenship Award. Following the 1999-2000 season, Rivers was named Male Coach-of-the-Year at the Rainbow Sports Awards, which reflect not only accomplishments in the sports industry, but also the grace, dignity, commitment and humanity each individual exemplifies. Scott O'Neil is the Chief Executive Officer of Harris Blitzer Sports & Entertainment, an organization with the mission of building passionate, high-performing teams that inspire people to enhance the communities where its teams live, work, play and win.

O'Neil is responsible for the organization's leadership, strategic vision, operations and global ambitions, including the pursuit and acquisition of sports, entertainment and consumer-facing properties. He is the acting Chief Executive Officer over all properties within the organization's portfolio and under the ownership of Managing Partners Josh Harris and David Blitzer, including: the Philadelphia 76ers (NBA), the New Jersey Devils (NHL), Prudential Center, a top five-ranked performance venue in the U.S. located in Newark, New Jersey; Dignitas, an internationally renowned esports organization which includes Clutch Gaming, the NBA 2K League's 76ers Gaming Club, the Sixers Innovation Lab, the GRAMMY Museum Experience Prudential Center, the Delaware Blue Coats (NBA G League), and the Binghamton Devils (AHL). He is an acting Co-Managing partner for Elevate Sports Ventures, a sports and entertainment agency created in partnership between HBSE, Live Nation | Ticketmaster, the San Francisco 49ers and Oak View Group.

With more than 20 years of experience in the NBA, NHL and NFL, O'Neil has earned a reputation as a leader of leaders and is one of the most connected, dynamic and driven executives in the industry today. Previous executives whom he has mentored and managed run many of the top organizations in sports and entertainment today; those he currently manages are poised to lead the industry into the next generation.

O'Neil's reputation for authentic leadership, unparalleled drive to innovate, and emphasis on the importance of corporate culture has placed him at the forefront of the industry vanguard. In merely six years overseeing operations for the properties in HBSE's portfolio, O'Neil led the Philadelphia 76ers to sign the first jersey patch sponsorship in "Big Four" sports history; construct the most technically advanced training complex in professional sports, the Philadelphia 76ers Training Complex; establish an industry-leading Innovation Lab, and become the first U.S. professional sports franchise to acquire a world-renowned esports team. In that same period, under O'Neil's ambitious and aggressive leadership, Prudential Center has become a top seven and top five most-played venue in the U.S. and the world by Billboard and Pollstar, respectively, and welcomes over 1.75 million fans and event attendees through its doors annually.

O'Neil's belief that those who steward iconic sports and entertainment brands have the responsibility and privilege to use those platforms to mentor the next generation of leaders and make the world a better place is the driving force behind HBSE's community engagement initiatives.

Recognizing the important role HBSE's properties play within its communities, O'Neil's employees individually volunteer 76 hours of service annually in the communities where their fans and patrons live, work and play, resulting in more than 30,000 hours of dedicated community service each year. The Philadelphia 76ers' charitable endeavor, the Sixers Youth Foundation, has additionally raised more than $1 million for Philadelphia-area youth last year alone and is leveraging sports to help children in need.

A former President of Madison Square Garden Sports, O'Neil was the key architect in some of the largest venue sponsorship deals in history while overseeing iconic sports properties including the New York Knicks (NBA) and New York Rangers (NHL). 76ERS LEADERSHIP

CHRIS HECK

President, Philadelphia 76ers

As President of the Philadelphia 76ers, Chris Heck oversees all day-to-day business operations for the team. Tasked with the goal of rejuvenating the sales and branding operations for one of sports' most-storied franchises, Heck endeavored to fuse the legendary 76ers heritage with the spirit of the new Philadelphia fan. As the 76ers earned its second consecutive playoff berth following a successful 2018-19 season, the team, with Heck at the helm, led the NBA in attendance for the first time in its history. Since the start of the 2017-18 season, the 76ers have sold out over 100 consecutive home games.

Under his supervision, Heck led the 76ers to a No. 1 ranking in overall season ticket member fan base, the largest in the NBA. The 76ers have become the hottest ticket in the league as demand has grown the team's Club 76 season ticket waiting list to over 15,000. One of the Eastern Conference's top contenders entering the 2019-20 season, Heck has seen the 76ers triple its local television ratings since 2005. This season, the 76ers will play on national television in nearly half of the team's games, and nearly all broadcasts are available internationally, across 24 countries.

Heck's in-house marketing and content team has been recognized with numerous national awards and achievements. Most recently the team was named Sports CLIO Awards "2020 Team of the Year" and took home six additional CLIO Awards including Silver CLIO Awards for the "Phila Unite Jordan 1's" in the Premium Item category and the "Classic Edition" in the Packaging category. They were also awarded three Bronze CLIO Awards for the "Jordan 1's" in the Social Media category, the "76ers Crossover Art Exhibition presented by Reebok" in the Branded Entertainment/Events category, and the "2019-20 Classic Edition" in the Brand Identity Design category. The team was also was named to the CLIO "Short List" for the 76ers Crossover Art Exhibit. Additionally in 2020, they took home Hashtag Sports' "Best Use of Culture" Award for the "Phila Unite Jordan 1's" campaign and were named to the 2020 Short List for "Best Use of Culture" with the Crossover Art Exhibit. In addition to seven CLIO Awards, the marketing team received three American Marketing Awards including Gold for the "Classic Edition," Integrated Brand Identity Campaign, Silver for the "What is Philly?" City Edition Voice Over, and another Silver for the "Classic Edition" Photography. The Mid-Atlantic Emmy's honored the team in 2019 with its first-ever Emmy in the category of Sports Feature.

The 76ers, with Heck's foresight, have built one of the best content teams in all of sports. The @sixers Instagram account boasts over two-million followers, the most of any professional sports team in Philadelphia, while the team's Twitter account was named the best in the NBA by Complex magazine in 2018. Across all platforms, the team's social media accounts have garnered over nine-million followers, earning nearly 45 million engagements between 2017 and 2018 alone. The 76ers' recent uniform launches, including the debuts of the 2017-18 and 2018-19 City Editions, generated over 11 million impressions combined, while the 1.9 million impressions on the 2019-20 Classic Edition launch set a new record for the most ever by a 76ers post.

With Heck's guidance, the 76ers sold the five largest partnerships in franchise history, increased corporate partnerships by 30 percent annually and established Patriot Partner and Training Complex founding partnerships. Further, the 76ers now have partners internationally in Europe, Australia and China as the team's brand continues to grow across the globe. Through Heck's leadership, the 76ers secured the first jersey patch sponsorship in "big four" sports history and developed an industry-changing ticketing platform with partner StubHub.

Across his time with the team, Heck has played a critical role in the development of the Philadelphia 76ers Training Complex, home to the Sixers Innovation Lab, where he holds a seat on the Lab's Board of Governors. Heck also spearheaded the 76ers' G League franchise, the Delaware Blue Coats', rebrand and integration into Wilmington, along with the development of their home arena, the all-new 76ers Fieldhouse, which opened in early 2019. During Heck's tenure, he also launched 76ers Gaming Club, the 76ers' NBA 2K League team. 76ers GC has the winningest record in the first two years of the league.

Under Heck's watch, the 76ers has been named one of the most innovative companies in the world by Fast Company, as the team was the first in the U.S. to secure a jersey patch partnership, venture into esports and launch a domestic sports betting partnership. In the fall of 2019, Heck's 76ers also held the first-ever 76ers Crossover: Art Exhibition, presented by Reebok. The team partnered with third-party Conscious Basketball to curate an art exhibition, featuring the "creative crossover between 76ers basketball and art." The free, four-day Art Exhibition displayed more than 200 pieces produced by artists from 11 different countries, showcasing the history of Philadelphia 76ers basketball.

Among other accolades, the 76ers has also been named one of the "50 Best Companies to Sell For" by Selling Power magazine with Heck leading the way. Heck has also seen the rise of the Sixers Youth Foundation Gala, which has been held each of the past four years, generating over $5 million in fundraising for the Foundation. Heck currently sits on the board of directors for the Sixers Youth Foundation.

Prior to the 76ers, Heck served as President of Business Operations for the New York Red Bulls (MLS), and with the NBA as Senior Vice President in the league's renowned team marketing and business operations arm where he advised NBA teams on ticket sales and service, sponsorship development and marketing, managed the NBA's Canadian business and oversaw all business and marketing for USA Basketball's Senior Men's and Women's National Teams.

Heck has held senior positions with Villanova Sports Properties, the Miami Heat and Philadelphia Eagles. Named to Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 list in 2008, Heck holds a bachelor's degree from Villanova University and has served as an Adjunct Professor at Columbia University. He and his wife, Mary Beth, have three children and reside in Chadds Ford, Pennsylvania.

COMMUNITY

2020-21 SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY PLATFORMS

The 76ers believe that by fostering a bold and gutsy attitude, and nurturing devotion and commitment to a productive goal, young people can achieve their own personal greatness. Any endeavor they choose to pursue can be honed, crafted and developed. We are committed to creating positive change in the lives of young people living in the Delaware Valley, both in the classroom and on the court.

The motto we encourage for all youth involved in our programs is: "I won't let others predict my future — I will invent my future, I will create my success."

OUR VISION
The 76ers envision communities where all children have the opportunity to create, pursue and realize their dreams, and live productive lives.

OUR MISSION
To use the power of our sport and the influence of our brand to coach and mentor the next generation of leaders and innovators.

OVERVIEW
Our social responsibility efforts consist of three pillars: the Sixers Youth Foundation, the Wilt Chamberlain Memorial Fund and the Community Relations initiatives of the Philadelphia 76ers.

OUR PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES

SIXERS YOUTH FOUNDATION

The Sixers Youth Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization committed to using the power of our sport and the influence of our brand to inspire future generations in the communities where our fans live, work and play. We partner with nonprofit organizations to help build on their strengths, to support existing strategies and to inspire and nurture new approaches intended for all youth to thrive. This is done through investments in organizations that serve young people across three core focus areas: Academic Enrichment, Access to Quality Play and Safe Play Spaces.

WILT CHAMBERLAIN MEMORIAL FUND

The Wilt Chamberlain Memorial Fund encourages and supports the college and career pursuits of high school students with financial need in the Greater Philadelphia Area.

Since 2005, the Memorial Fund has awarded more than 80 scholarships in Wilt Chamberlain's honor to area high school seniors, who not only embody the Hall of Famer's values of hard work and ambition, but also demonstrate a commitment to helping and serving others. The Memorial Fund is committed to making a difference in the lives of youth and young adults, and helping them create their own legacy, just like its namesake throughout his life.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Through a strategic Community Relations effort, the 76ers connect to fans and communities by investing resources in ways that are inspiring, engaging and informative. Events and activities are designed to support the academic achievements as well as the healthy mindsets and behaviors we want our young fans to develop and cultivate. The five pillars of our core community work include:

- Diversity & Inclusion
- Health & Wellness
- Education & Mentorship
- Military & Frontline Support
- Community Assist

Highlighting this work are the 10,000+ volunteer hours provided by our employees, players and coaching staff throughout the season.

PROGRAMS & INITIATIVES

AUTISM INCLUSION

The 76ers are dedicated to providing the most sensory-inclusive environment for all fans during each and every home game. In conjunction with NBA partner KultureCity, complimentary sensory kits, that provide tools and resources for those who may be overwhelmed by the in-game experience, are available for checkout at both of The Center's guest services locations. 76ers and Center staff members are trained at the beginning of the season on how to best respond to fans' sensory needs. The team's Autism Inclusion program culminates at the annual Autism Inclusion Night in which those pioneering inclusion for all are celebrated. 1978-1991

2017-PRESENT: 2017 brought on an updated look for the Philadelphia 76ers, with the unveiling of the teams new Icon Edition (Blue), Association Edition (White), Statement Edition (Red) uniforms. The new Icon and Association uniforms introduced a hard-red drop-shadow behind the iconic "PHILA" lettering and player numbers. The new designs also include the words "Brotherly Love" embroidered in gold on the bottom of each jersey, drawing inspiration from the Greek translation for "Philadelphia." The Statement uniform displays "Sixers" in cursive across the uniform's chest plate. The cursive writing serves as a salute to the signing of the Declaration of Independence. 2017 also ushered in the 2 ½ -by-2 ½ -inch StubHub jersey patch as part of the team's first jersey sponsorship, the first of its kind in major American sports history. The StubHub patch appears on every 76ers jersey.

2015-2017: On June 18, 2015, the Sixers revealed new home (white), road (blue) and alternate (red) uniforms which were designed using elements from different eras in franchise history. "PHILA" is emblazoned across the chest of the home and road jerseys as a homage to the 1966-67 Championship team. The alternate red jersey has "SIXERS" sprawled across the front, to honor the 1982-83 Championship team. All three uniforms are decorated with a column of stars down each side in the fashion of the 1976-77 uniforms. Each jersey also has the phrase "PHILA TOUGH" sewn into the waist-level hem, visible only to the players prior to being tucked in 2009-2015: Prior to the 2009-10 season ,the Sixers re-designed their uniform to feature the team's new primary "76ers basketball" logo with the red, white and blue color scheme. Trimmed in blue and red, the team will wear white uniforms with blue lettering and red numbers at home. On the road, the team will wear red uniforms, trimmed with blue and white, that feature white lettering and numbers. In the summer of 2010, the uniforms underwent some minor revisions, including blue piping added around the neck and shoulders among other aesthetic details. The Sixers also debuted an alternate blue uniform in the 2012-13 season opener.

2007-2009: Both the Sixers home and road jerseys underwent a bit of a facelift in the summer of 2007. Influenced by the secondary red road uniform, which was introduced the previous season, the home and road designs featured a refined red taping stretching from the jersey to the shorts. The material itself was also completely overhauled, as the new fabric was adidas clima-cool flatback mesh on the front with open-holed metallic stretchair fabrication on the back and in key venting zones through the front of the shoulders.

2007-2009: During the 2006-07 season, the 76ers unveiled a new second road uniform with red as the predominant color accented by the team's other official colors of white, blue, black, silver and gold. Produced by adidas, the jerseys featured a new "PHILA" wordmark across the front in a design similar to the team's primary logo, as well as blue and white stripinng around the V-neck. The red shorts are adorned with the Sixers secondary logo above a blue accent on the side of the left leg.

1999-2006: Philadelphia added a new second road uniform during the 1999-00 season. The blue jersey sports a stylish new cut that's full of tradition from the great Sixers teams of the 1960's and 1970's. Trimmed in red and black, the jersey featured the "SIXERS" wordmark on the front with white numbers trimmed in red.

1997-2007: Prior to the 1997-98 season, the Sixers unveiled a completely new look including the first major logo change since becoming the Philadelphia 76ers in August of 1963. In keeping with the traditional red and blue, the logo was "modernized" by adding silver, gold and black. For the first time in franchise history, the Sixers wore black uniforms on the road. Trimmed in red and gold, the jersey that features the word "SIXERS" on the front with white numbers trimmed in red on the back. At home, a white jersey features black numbers trimmed in red.

1994-1997: This uniform was actually a throwback to the classic Sixers look. Designed by Lucy Loeb, the front featured "SIXERS" in a more ornate block lettering. This garb was white with red and blue trim at home and red with white and blue trim on the road.

76ERS UNIFORM HISTORY

1971-1976

1966-1970

1991–94: The Sixers uniform was redesigned by Champion Products and was a departure from the classic Sixers uniform. The design featured multicolored stars against a royal blue field that curved up from shorts to the jersey. The background of the away uniform remained red.

1978–91: The NBA begins to regulate uniform changes more closely. A rule is installed by the league requiring teams to use an exclusive outfitter and alert the NBA one year in advance of a design change. This uniform becomes the Sixers' hallmark, with the numeral surrounded by stars on the shorts. The road color returned to red. The uniforms were manufactured first by Wilson, then by Sand Knit. The 76ers played more games in this uniform (1,066) than any other in the history of the franchise.

1977–1978: The lettering on the jersey was readjusted, with home uniforms lettered in blue and outlined in white and red, while away uniforms were royal blue with white lettering in red trim.

1976-1977: Another one-shot uniform surfaced, this time with a theme. In honor of the Bicentennial, the team turned to the cursive lettering and trim numerals of the 1970-71 season. The new uniforms were designed by Pat Williams, Al Domenico, Billy Cunningham and Sonder Levitt Advertising.

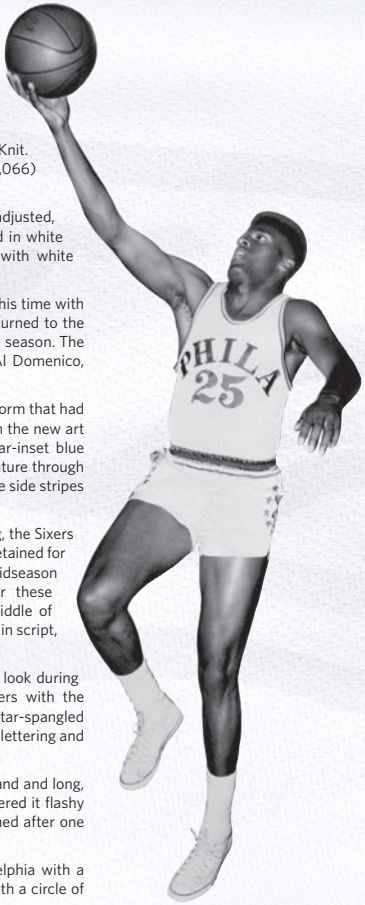

1971-76: SonderLevitt Advertising designed a uniform that had a much longer lifespan than its predecessor. With the new art deco-like lettering, the uniforms retained the star-inset blue side stripe, a graphic element that remained a feature through the 70's. Away uniforms were royal blue with white side stripes and stars.

1970-71: With its red-in-blue and cursive lettering, the Sixers next official home uniform (the old red garb was retained for away games), did not please Sixers suppliers. Midseason trades meant impossible turnaround times for these custom-sewn, flowing script uniforms. In the middle of the season a switch is made and "Seventy Sixers", in script, replaces "PHILA" on the front of the uniform.

1966-70: The Sixers went to the straightforward look during their first championship run. Simple block letters with the traditional "PHILA" on the front replaced the star-spangled banner look. Road uniforms became red with blue lettering and white trim.

1965-66: A two-tone uniform with a high waistband and long, baggy trunks was introduced. The players considered it flashy and uncomfortable to play in and it was abandoned after one season.

1963-65: The Sixers opened their run in Philadelphia with a Betsy Ross-inspired uniform (below). Adorned with a circle of stars on both the shorts and the back of the jersey surrounding the player's number, the stars quickly became a hallmark of the Sixers uniforms. The road uniform was dark blue with red lettering and numbers. Midway through the '64-65 season the style of the letters and numbers was changed.

 Early draft records are incomplete, so until 1956 players are listed alphabetically.*

Beginning in 1957, the draft is recorded round-by-round. To enable teams to take advantage of the regional popularity of college stars, they were given the option of forfeiting their first-round pick and instead selecting, before the start of the draft, a player from the franchise's immediate georgraphical area. These "territorial picks," as they were know, are not factored in to the overall selection count of the draft. The territorial option was in effect through 1965.
