OWNERSHIP GROUP

PETER HOLT

CHAIRMAN

Rolling up his sleeves and taking a simple, hands-on approach is nothing new to San Antonio Spurs Chairman Peter M. Holt. The President and CEO of the San Antonio-based Holt Companies, which own Caterpillar dealerships in South Texas and Ohio, Holt believes in leading by example through his values-based management philosophy. And, leadership is in the Holt bloodlines – the Spurs Chairman is the great-grandson of Benjamin Holt, inventor of the first crawler-tractor and a founder of Caterpillar, Inc.

Another Holt business tenet is corporate responsibility in supporting community projects, and that leads to one of the primary factors in his decision to invest in the Spurs - a desire to keep the team in San Antonio and operating successfully.

And, in the last several years, Holt has seen this "community project" succeed in extraordinary ways.

In June 1999, Holt joined with hundreds of thousands of gleeful Spurs faithful in celebrating the team's first NBA (and World) Championship.

The following November, the Spurs Chairman and the community celebrated again. On the very night the team received their championship rings – on November 2, 1999 – Bexar County voters overwhelmingly approved an initiative to build a new community arena. The SBC Center – the new home to the Spurs and the San Antonio Livestock Exposition, as well as hundreds of community events – broke ground in August 2000 and is slated to open in October of 2002.

Holt is especially proud of the SBC Center project, as it was a true community partnership, involving the Spurs, Bexar County, the San Antonio Livestock Exposition and the Coliseum Advisory Board. "The SBC Center is custom-made for San Antonio," says Holt. "And it will have something for everyone."

A Peoria, Ill. native, who lived in San Antonio as a child before moving to Corpus Christi, Holt bought into the Spurs in 1996 and became Chairman of the Board in July of that year. He and his wife, Julianna Hawn Holt, are now the franchise's principal owners.

The Holt family's history in San Antonio began in 1933, when Peter's great uncle, William K. "Bill" Holt, moved to San Antonio to start a Caterpillar dealership. He had no heirs, so B.D. Holt (Peter's father) got involved in the business. In 1961, B.D. Holt moved to Corpus Christi and started his own Caterpillar dealership.

After high school in Corpus Christi, Peter Holt went into the U.S. Army, serving two years, including a one-year tour of duty in Vietnam. He ended his military duty as a Sergeant E5 with a Silver Star and three Bronze Stars for Valor and a Purple Heart for wounds received.

Peter re-joined his father in the Holt Companies in 1983 in Corpus Christi. In September 1987, Peter and his father purchased Holt Machinery Co. in San Antonio, reuniting the original Caterpillar dealership that Bill Holt started in 1933. Not one for formalities and pretense, he offices in a San Antonio corporate headquarters building made of metal corrugated siding and dubbed "The Barn."

With a long commitment to community service, Holt is the current Chairman of the United Way of San Antonio and Bexar County. He is a member of the World Presidents' Organization, sits on the board of the San Antonio Council on Drug and Alcohol Abuse and is a trustee of the Palmer Drug Abuse Program. A strong supporter of international trade, Holt is a board member of Free Trade Alliance-San Antonio, as well as the San Antonio Economic Development Foundation. He also serves on the corporate board of Chase Bank-San Antonio.

Holt – a Spurs season-ticket holder since 1988 – is proud of the franchise's history of commitment to the San Antonio community. His support runs the gamut from the United Way to the Spurs Foundation's efforts with the Fannie Mae Foundation's Home Team Partnership – helping to build and refurbish homes for purchase by persons with low-to-moderate incomes – to the Spurs Drug Free Youth Basketball League.

Since becoming part of the ownership group, Holt has encouraged the Spurs players and staff to become involved in the community of San Antonio. In fact, the Spurs were named the winner of the 2000 Pro Team Community Award presented by the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame. The annual award recognizes the leader among professional sports franchises in basketball, baseball, football and hockey that best demonstrates outstanding community involvement and acts as a catalyst for community pride and spirit.

"I'm very proud of the time and effort our players give to this city," he says. "This is a great group of people who mean a lot to San Antonio on and off the basketball court."

But with all the notoriety that being Chairman of a NBA franchise brings, Holt remains grounded in the values which govern how he "does business."

"Working with volunteers on a community project, or with the Spurs players and staff, or within the Holt Companies, it's always the same," he says. "Treat people fairly and honestly, and the amount you can accomplish with others is far greater than anything you can do by yourself."

BASKETBALL STAFF

GREGG POPOVICH

HEAD COACH AND GENERAL MANAGER

For Gregg Popovich, basketball is a passion. But it's not his only passion. He is just as proud of the Point of Light Award he received from President George Bush as he is of the 1999 Championship ring he earned with the Spurs.

As the Spurs Head Coach and General Manager, Pop has had a profound impact on the city of San Antonio. The city will never forget the 1998-99 season when the Spurs captured the NBA Championship. After posting a 37-13 record during the regular season, the Spurs compiled a 15-2 record in the 1999 post-season to capture the only title in the Spurs 28-year history. Over 350,000 fans packed the city's Riverwalk on June 26, 1999 for the team's victory parade, which was done in San Antonio style – players, coaches, owners, front office staff and, of course, the team's Baseline Bums floating along the river on barges under the hot Texas sun.

But Pop has touched the community of San Antonio off the court as well. The Spurs/Pizza Hut Drug-Free Youth Basketball League was started by Pop – when he was an Assistant Coach with the Spurs – and Frank Martin back in 1991. Today the league plays at 75 locations in and around San Antonio. Over 20,000 boys and girls – ages 7 to 16 – played in the league in 2000-01. And prior to each game, each participant takes the Drug-Free League pledge, promising to remain drug and alcohol free while showing good sportsmanship and fair play. In February of 1992, President Bush awarded a Daily Point of Light Award to the Spurs Drug-Free League.

Of course given his background, it is no surprise that Gregg Popovich has a balance in his life. A 1970 graduate of the United States Air Force Academy with a degree in Soviet Studies, Pop also has a master's degree in Physical Education and Sports Sciences. He played four seasons at the Air Force Academy and as a senior was the team's captain and leading scorer. Following his graduation in 1970, Pop served his five-year military commitment. During that time he toured Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union as a member of the U.S. Armed Forces Team. Pop was selected to represent the U.S. on the national A.A.U. Team touring the Soviet Union and in 1972 was the captain of the Armed Forces team, which won the A.A.U. Championship. In addition, he earned an invitation to the 1972 U.S. Olympic Team Training Camp.

Once his playing days were over, Pop returned to the Air Force Academy as an Assistant Coach. He spent six years at Air Force during which time he also obtained his master's degree from the University of Denver.

In 1979, he was named the Head Coach at Pomona-Pitzer in Claremont, California. He spent the next eight seasons at Pomona-Pitzer. During the 1985-86 season he led the team to its first conference championship in 68 years and to a birth in the NCAA Division III Tournament. While at Pomona he was an active member of the school's academic community, working as an Associate Professor, chairing the college's Student Life committee, serving on the Women's Commission and even – for one year – living in a dorm with his family.

Pop moved to the NBA in July of 1988 when he joined the Spurs as an Assistant Coach as a member of Larry Brown's staff. Pop spent the next four seasons in San Antonio for a Spurs team that won a pair of Midwest Division titles. In the summer of 1992, Pop was named an Assistant Coach on Don Nelson's staff with the Golden State Warriors. He spent the next two seasons with the Warriors before re-joining the Spurs in the summer of 1994.

Pop was named the Spurs GM on May 31, 1994. Since that time, the Spurs have used the draft, trades and free agency to put together the current team. In fact, David Robinson is the only player still on the Spurs roster from when Pop was named General Manager.

Named the Spurs Head Coach on December 10, 1996, Pop has a career regular season mark of 221-139 (.614). He is the Spurs all-time leader in victories and his career winning percentage of .614 ranks 10th all-time among NBA coaches with at least 200 victories. Twice in his four full seasons with the Spurs he has led San Antonio to the NBA's best regular season record. In addition, Pop has a career playoff winning percentage of .628 (27-16) in his four post-season appearances. His .628 mark in the post-season ranks fifth in NBA history.

In addition to the Spurs Drug-Free League, Pop is involved in several other charities including Roy Maas' Youth Alternatives, the Kids Sports Network, and the San Antonio Food Bank. Pop and his wife of 25 years, Erin, team up to offer their time and caring for staff, players, families and the community of San Antonio. They have been blessed with two children, Micky and Jill.

SAM SCHULER

VICE PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Sam Schuler was promoted to the position of Vice President of Basketball Operations during the summer of 1999. His free agent finds and evaluation of talent have been instrumental in keeping San Antonio among the NBA's elite franchises.

Schuler joined the Spurs in the summer of 1994 after spending the previous six seasons as the Director of Player Personnel with the Golden State Warriors. While with the Warriors, he earned league-wide respect by putting together a string of successful mid to late first round draft picks with Tim Hardaway, Tyrone Hill and Latrell Sprewell.

Schuler got his start on the high school level, spending 20 years as a high school coach and physical education instructor. After 17 years at Oak Creek High School in Oak Creek, Wisconsin, he joined the Milwaukee Bucks as a Scout in 1985, as a member of Don Nelson's staff. After spending three seasons with the Bucks he joined Nelson as an Assistant Coach with the Warriors in 1988. He spent one season on the sidelines with the Warriors before being promoted to the team's Director of Player Personnel position.

A 1965 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse, Schuler is a native of Blanchardville, Wisconsin. He and his wife Jean – who was a long-time employee of the Milwaukee Bucks – have three adult children, Kimberly, Scott and David.

R.C. BUFORD

VICE PRESIDENT/ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Now in his second stint with the Spurs, R.C. Buford has continued to see his titles and responsibilities grow since rejoining the franchise in the summer of 1994. Originally hired as the team's Head Scout, Buford was named the Spurs' Director of Scouting in the summer of 1997. He received another promotion in the summer of 1999, being named Vice President/Assistant General Manager.

Buford began his coaching career at the University of Kansas in 1983. During his five seasons at Kansas, the Jayhawks advanced to the NCAA Tournament each year, reaching the 1986 NCAA Final Four and winning the 1988 NCAA Championship.

In the summer of 1988 Buford moved to the NBA, joining the Spurs as an Assistant Coach as part of Larry Brown's staff. He spent four seasons as an assistant with the Spurs, including the 1989-90 and 1990-91 seasons when the Spurs captured back-to-back Midwest Division titles. He remained with the Spurs through the 1991-92 season.

He then joined Larry Brown as the first assistant with the Los Angeles Clippers. During their tenure, the Clippers enjoyed their best seasons in Los Angeles, posting back-to-back winning seasons and playoff appearances.

Buford served as an Assistant Coach with the University of Florida during the 1993-94 season. The Gators enjoyed the greatest year in school history, culminating in Florida's first NCAA Final Four appearance.

Buford played at Texas A&M University and Oklahoma State before receiving his degree from Friends University.

Buford's wife, Beth, is a former player on the LPGA Tour. They are both active with the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. Beth is a member of the Board of Directors while R.C. serves as an honorary member of the Board. R.C. also serves as a Board Member for Roy Maas' Youth Alternatives. They have two children – a son, Chase, and a daughter, C.C.

HANK EGAN

ASSISTANT COACH

With over three decades of coaching experience, Hank Egan brings a great deal of knowledge to the Spurs staff as the team's number one Assistant Coach. Prior to joining the Spurs in August of 1994, he spent 23 seasons as an NCAA Division I Head Coach.

A 1960 graduate of the Naval Academy with a bachelor's degree in engineering, Egan got his coaching start in 1966 as an Assistant Coach at the Air Force Academy. In 1971, he was named the Head Coach at Air Force and remained in that position until 1984 when he became the Head Coach at the University of San Diego. He spent 10 seasons as the Head Coach at San Diego before joining the Spurs.

In his collegiate coaching career, Egan posted a 304-311 record. He was named the West Coast Conference Coach of the Year following both the 1985-86 and 1986-87 seasons. During the 1986-87 campaign he led USD to a 24-6 mark and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. That season his squad posted the best opponent field goal percentage in the country, limiting opponents to a .401 mark from the field while giving up just 60.3 points per contest.

During his collegiate career Egan established himself as one of the top defensive coaches in the country. He was the alternate coach to USC's George Raveling for the 1984 U.S. Basketball Team and was one of the coaches at the 1984 Olympic tryouts.

Egan and his wife Judy now call San Antonio home and both are active members of the community. The couple has two children, John and Kelly, and five grandchildren.

MIKE BUDENHOLZER

ASSISTANT COACH

Now in his sixth season as an Assistant Coach with the Spurs, Mike Budenholzer is an NBA veteran despite being only 32-years-old. He first joined the Spurs in the summer of 1994 as the team's Video Coordinator and served in that position for two seasons before being named an Assistant Coach.

A four-year letterman in both basketball and golf at Pomona-Pitzer, Budenholzer was named the Outstanding Senior Athlete at Pomona College in 1992-93. During the 1993-94 season, he played professionally in Denmark for the Vejle Basketball Klub, averaging a team-high 27.5 points per game. During that time he also got his start in the coaching business, serving as the Head Coach of the Denmark Women's First Division Team.

Budenholzer received a first-hand lesson in coaching at an early age as his father, Vince, spent 25 years as a high school and college basketball coach in Arizona before retiring in 1997.

A native of Holbrook, Arizona, Budenholzer is the youngest of seven children. He has a bachelor's degree in Politics, Philosophy and Economics from Pomona College. He and wife Mary Bet have a son, William Vincent, and a daughter, Savoia Elizabeth (Libby).

MIKE BROWN

ASSISTANT COACH/DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Entering his second year with the Spurs and 10th season in the NBA is Mike Brown. He was named the team's Assistant Coach/Director of Player Development on August 25, 2000. Brown has also served as head coach of the Spurs squads in the 2001 Shaw's Pro Summer League in Boston and the Rocky Mountain Revue in Salt Lake City.

The 31-year-old Brown began his NBA career with the Denver Nuggets in 1992, where he spent five seasons, first as the team's Video Coordinator and then as a scout. He joined the Washington Wizards staff in 1997 and served there three years, as an Assistant Coach under Bernie Bickerstaff during the 1997-98 and 1998-99 seasons before becoming the team's Professional Scout in the summer of 1999.

Brown is a 1992 graduate of the University of San Diego with a degree in business. He played two seasons of basketball at USD after spending two years at Mesa Community College. He and his wife Carolyn have two sons, Elijah and Cameron.

BASKETBALL STAFF

JOE PRUNTY

ASSISTANT COACH/VIDEO COORDINATOR

Joe Prunty is now in his sixth year with the Spurs and second season as Assistant Coach and Video Coordinator. He is also the team's NBA Advanced Scout and has served the last three seasons as either head coach or assistant coach for the Spurs summer league teams in Boston and Utah.

Prunty spent four seasons coaching at the high school level in San Diego, working three years at the University of San Diego High School and one season at St. Augustine High School before first joining the Spurs in the summer of 1996 as Assistant Video Coordinator. In April of 1997, he was named Assistant Coach at the University of San Diego before returning to San Antonio as the Spurs Video Coordinator prior to the start of the 1997-98 season. He was promoted to Assistant Coach/Video Coordinator during the summer of 2000.

The 32-year-old native of Sunnyvale, California played two years of college basketball at De Anza Junior College and earned a bachelor's degree in Speech Communications from California Poly San Luis Obispo in 1991.

LANCE BLANKS

HEAD SCOUT

Lance Blanks joined the Spurs in September of 2000 and was named the team's Head Scout on June 29, 2001. A former first round draft pick of the Detroit Pistons, Blanks spent two years in private business before returning to the NBA with the Spurs.

After helping the University of Texas to the Elite Eight in the 1990 NCAA Tournament, Blanks was the 26th overall pick of the 1990 NBA Draft. He played two seasons with the Pistons and one with the Minnesota Timberwolves before spending one season in the CBA and three in Europe, where he played in Germany and led teams in Hungary and Cyprus to league championships.

Born in Del Rio, Blanks earned Texas "Mr. Basketball" honors in 1985 at McCullough High School (now The Woodlands) in The Woodlands.

The 35-year-old Blanks and his wife, Renee, have two daughters, Riley and Bryn. His father, Sid, played eight years in the NFL for Houston, Washington and New England and his cousin, Larvell, played nine seasons of major league baseball with Atlanta, Cleveland and Texas.

The 25-year-old Presti arrived in San Antonio after graduating from Emerson College in Boston, where he earned a bachelor's degree in Communications, Politics and Law. He became the first Rhodes scholar nominee in the history of the school. As a member of the basketball team, Presti served as team captain his junior and senior seasons, earned All-Academic honors three times and was twice selected to the Great Northeast Athletic Conference All-Tournament team.

RUSS BOOKBINDER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/ BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Russ Bookbinder serves as the Spurs Executive Vice President of Business Operations. Now in his 14th season with the Spurs, Bookbinder manages the Spurs' day-to-day business operations.

The Spurs have enjoyed tremendous growth in attendance, broadcasting, sponsorship support and community awareness during Bookbinder's leadership. During the 2000-01 season the Spurs achieved a league leading average attendance mark of 22,273 fans attending home games in the Dome. That average increased to 31,961 for the Spurs seven home playoff games last season. The Spurs have been just as prosperous over the airwaves, establishing one of the most extensive broadcast programming operations in the NBA, which includes a regional radio and television network covering the South Texas area. For the past five seasons the Spurs have managed a successful program to attract fans from Austin and the San Antonio-Austin corridor by opening an office and launching marketing campaigns in the Capitol City.

Upon his arrival in San Antonio, Bookbinder created a community relations department and the non-profit Spurs Foundation, an organization designed to give back to the community. Since its formation in 1988 the Foundation has generated over $4.5 million for area youth programs. In addition, he has worked with area school superintendents to establish several programs to motivate students in the areas of self-worth, attendance and drug and substance abuse education. The Spurs' Project GOAL received the 1994 Human and Civil Rights Award from the Texas State Teacher's Association.

During the past five years Bookbinder has worked with the Spurs Management team to help design the new SBC Center, which will seat 18,500 for basketball and is scheduled to open in the fall of 2002. He is also coordinating the efforts to attract and develop new sports franchises for the SBC Center. In addition, he has worked with the San Antonio Sports Foundation and UTSA to create the Coalition for Women's Basketball, whose mission is to help educate and develop fans for women's basketball. The CWB successfully hosted a game in San Antonio featuring the USA Women's Olympic Basketball team vs. Canada, which attracted 9,000 supporters to Freeman Coliseum. The new coalition will also support the efforts of the San Antonio Local Organizing Committee for the 2002 NCAA Women's Final Four® and the campaign to attract a WNBA franchise to the Alamo City.

Born and raised in Miami – and a 1974 graduate of the University of Florida – Bookbinder started his career in the sports business in 1976 as the Western Regional Manager for Professional Sports Publications. He has 21 years of experience in the NBA, serving in top management positions with the Dallas Mavericks, San Diego Clippers and Denver Nuggets. Prior to joining the Spurs, Bookbinder was the Director of Corporate Development for Raycom Sports.

RICK PYCH

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/ FINANCE & CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER/SBC CENTER

Rick Pych has been with the Spurs franchise since 1993 and is currently Executive Vice President of Finance and Corporate Development for the Spurs. In that role he continues to lead all of the financial, corporate and operational activities on behalf of team ownership.

Currently his main focus is the Spurs future new home – the SBC Center. He is the Chief Development Officer for the SBC Center (Arena Project Developer, L.L.C.), and oversees all aspects of its development, including all contract negotiations, arena design, project construction, franchise and construction financing and initial operations for the new facility.

Pych first brought the need for a new Spurs playing facility to focus back in 1995. However, at that time Texas law did not allow any public funding for a sports arena. A coalition of Texas professional sports teams, including the Spurs, came together and was successful in passing legislation in 1997 that provided public funding mechanisms for development of municipal sports facilities. Although the Spurs initially failed in 1998 in a bid to build a new arena in northeast San Antonio, the citizens of Bexar County passed a referendum in November of 1999 to provide public financial support for the construction of a multi-purpose community arena that would be home to both the San Antonio Livestock Exposition and the Spurs.

Pych has worked on a development, financial and operating plan for the SBC Center since the efforts for a new facility began back in 1995. He has coordinated a team of architects and Spurs personnel since 1998 in formulating the design for the SBC Center. From July of 1999 through August of 2000, he led the negotiations with Bexar County, the Coliseum Advisory Board, and the San Antonio Livestock Exposition in finalizing the development and operating agreements for the SBC Center. Pych also negotiated a $90MM load with a syndicate of banks which provided a funding source for the Spurs contribution to the project as well as refinancing existing franchise debt. He now spends the majority of his time acting on behalf of the Spurs ownership in managing the development and construction of the SBC Center.

From 1993 until being named Executive Vice President in January of 2000, Pych handled all accounting, tax, legal and technology matters as Chief Financial Officer for the Spurs. Additionally, his responsibilities included player salary cap, cash management and insurance issues.

Pych has 26 years of financial and business management experience. He started his career in public accounting with what is now PriceWaterhouseCoopers. He next spent over 10 years in international trade and investment banking prior to acting as Executive Vice President of Finance and Marketing for the U.S. Olympic Festival on behalf of the United States Olympic Committee.

As a member of the Board of Directors of the San Antonio Sports Foundation since 1989, Pych has been active in San Antonio's successful efforts to contract and stage major amateur and professional sporting events. The Foundation's work landed the U.S. Olympic Festival in 1993, the 1995 National Senior Olympics, the 1997 NCAA Regional Basketball Tournament, the 1998 and 2004 NCAA Final Four® and the 2002 NCAA Women's Final Four®. He now serves on the Finance Committee of the Local Organizing Committee in the current effort to bring the 2007 Pan Am Games to San Antonio.

The Connecticut native has a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Fairfield University. He is a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Financial Executives Institute. He has served on boards or committees of various charitable and non-profit organizations.

His wife, Marilou, who is also a Certified Public Accountant and is the Director of Finance for SONY Semiconductor Company of America. They have lived in San Antonio since 1987 and have a 15-year-old son, Zack, who is an aspiring hockey player and currently attending The Hotchkiss School in Lakeville, Connecticut. Pych likes to spend his spare time participating in various sports and other outdoor activities. He also enjoys traveling to visit family and friends and to follow his son's academic and athletic pursuits.

SPURS IN THE COMMUNITY

"A team that does more community service...than most charitable organizations..." Sport, June, 2000

Winner of the 2000 Pro Team Community Award from the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame

A great basketball club is more than a collection of superb athletes – it is a partner with its community, solving problems, creating opportunities and enhancing the quality of life. We all benefit when kids succeed in school, when we have an educated workforce, when families are strengthened, when neighborhoods are safe, when there is affordable housing and when everyone takes the time and responsibility to make our community an even better place to learn, live and work.

The Spurs Family has been a partner with San Antonians for 28 years and we are truly dedicated to this community. We take tremendous pride in actively serving South Texas – a diverse area with diverse needs – through financial support, recreational and educational programming, publicity and the personal involvement of Spurs management, players (current and former), coaches and the Spurs Coyote. We strive to be a catalyst for community spirit and pride through our organization's myriad of community activities and our nonprofit arm, the Spurs Foundation.

We are honored to be your friends and neighbors and are proud to have so many supporters who have joined with us in our mission. For every assist on the court, the Spurs try to make twice as many in the community. That's a stat that makes the entire organization proud!

THE SPURS FOUNDATION

Created in 1988, the nonprofit 501(c)(3) Spurs Foundation was established to generate goodwill and financial support for economically, emotionally and/or physically disadvantaged youth in South Texas. The Spurs Foundation's volunteer board includes fans, community leaders, former Spurs players and representatives from the corporate and civic sectors.

SPURS
FOUNDATION

Since its inception in 1988, the nonprofit Spurs Foundation has donated nearly $5 million in cash and in-kind contributions to deserving South Texas children through organizations that provide basic, recreational and medical needs. During the 2000-01 season, the Spurs Foundation donated $700,000 in cash toward youth programming, grants, scholarships and charity tickets.

In addition to corporate and individual donations, the Spurs Foundation is supported by three major annual fundraisers: the Spurs Scramble Charity Golf Tournament presented by Body Solutions, the Tip-Off Luncheon presented by Southwest Airlines and the Tux 'N Tennies Dinner and Auction presented by Southwestern Bell and Southwest Business Corporation. The entire Spurs team and coaching staff participate in all three of these events.

Annually, proceeds from fundraising efforts enable the Spurs Foundation to: fund the Spurs/Pizza Hut Drug-Free Youth Basketball League (presented by Ultramar Diamond Shamrock) for 20,000 boys and girls ages 6 -17; donate more than 18,000 Spurs tickets to underprivileged youth; donate more than 28,000 new books to San Antonio children; award more than $100,000 in grants to area children's charities and more than $20,000 in scholarships to area high school seniors; construct 10 brand new affordable homes for first time buyers through the "Home Team" partnership, and partner with David Robinson to recognize student accomplishments of all kinds through Mister Robinson's Neighborhood of Achievers.

Spurs Foundation Grants

Each year since its inception in 1988, the Spurs Foundation has awarded grants to nonprofit organizations seeking funding for programs for disadvantaged youth in South Texas. The successful 2001 grant disbursement included $112,000 to 43 different San Antonio and South Texas area charities. Additionally, four of the local nonprofit children's organizations are selected by the Spurs Foundation's volunteer Board of Directors to become Spurs Foundation "featured youth charities." During the 2001-02 season, the following youth organizations will receive year long publicity in addition to their grants: Boysville, Cancer Therapy and Research Center, Texas Burn Survivors Society and Warm Springs Rehabilitation Foundation.

Spurs Foundation's Annual Grant Application Process

Organizations that are exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the IRS code and assist economically, emotionally and/or physically disadvantaged youth may apply for a Spurs Foundation grant, annually reviewed by the Spurs Foundation Board of Directors. Applications for 2002-03 Spurs Foundation grants will be available in November 2001 and can be obtained by calling (210) 554-7762, sending a request by fax to (210) 554-0950 or downloading from the Spurs web site at www.spurs.com. The Spurs executive offices must receive all grant applications by Friday, February 22, 2002. Grants will be awarded in June 2002.

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT THROUGH EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMING & RECOGNITION

More than 110,000 incentives, such as books, tickets, certificates, scholarships, t-shirts and player visits are awarded through the Spurs Education Programs each season to inspire a myriad of student achievements.

The San Antonio Spurs have a strong commitment to supporting a quality education for our community's children. We continue to provide incentive-based programs that are easy for teachers to implement in their classrooms and support existing school curriculum. We strive to promote academic success, writing development, parental involvement, and most importantly for the 2001-02 season, reading and literacy.

READ TO ACHIEVE

For the 2001-02 season, the NBA has implemented an exciting new initiative devoted to children's literacy – READ TO ACHIEVE. This new initiative will unite the NBA's leading assets to promote the value of reading and online literacy, as well as encouraging families and adults to read regularly with young children.

In San Antonio, the Spurs will implement READ TO ACHIEVE through our educational programming, read aloud events with Spurs players and coaches, Spurs home game programming and getting more books into the hands of kids to help build a lifelong love of reading! It is especially important for San Antonio to embrace literacy because the 15.05 percent illiteracy rate in our community is higher than that of Texas or the United States as a whole (Source: U.S. Census Bureau, 1990). The Spurs, like First Lady Laura Bush, want kids to "learn to read and then read to learn!"

Free Books to First Grade Classrooms

In November, The Spurs Foundation and Scholastic, Inc. will partner to donate a set of early reader books to every first grade classroom in Bexar County. These early readers, otherwise known as "BOB books," were developed as a step-by-step, book-by-book program to guide children through the early stages of reading. Additionally, an assortment of hardback titles will be given to every elementary school library, courtesy of the Spurs Foundation and Scholastic, Inc. Through this donation, more than 14,000 books will be given to approximately 1,200 first grade classrooms in Bexar County.

Spurs/Southwestern Bell Slam Dunk Reading Challenge

Third, fourth and fifth graders will have the opportunity to participate in a friendly reading competition to win 4,800 Spurs game tickets, courtesy of Southwestern Bell and/or one of three "Reading Time-Out" read aloud events with Spurs players. The Slam Dunk Reading Challenge supports children in becoming "independent" readers by challenging them to set aside their own special time to read, and encouraging them to choose their own reading materials. In addition, this program is designed to involve parents in their children's reading interests.

"What'cha Reading"

The Spurs and Whataburger created the "What'cha Reading" program to reward more than 25,000 students for success in reading. Every student who earns the What'cha Reading achievement certificate receives a coupon good for one free Justaburger, small fries and small drink and has the opportunity to enter a raffle to win one of the following prizes: dinner, limousine service and four floor seats at a Spurs game; a Reading Time-Out with a Spurs player for their class and four Spurs suite passes for four people to a 2001-02 Spurs home game.

Spurs/Texas Jeep Dealers Take a Player to School Essay Contest

For the fifth year, Texas Jeep Dealers and the Spurs will hold an essay contest for elementary students, and one lucky student with the "A+" essay will win the grand prize and take a Spurs player with him or her to school.

Spurs/Southwestern Bell High Five Readers

A new program for the 2001-02 season, Spurs/Southwestern Bell High Five Readers, presented by H-E-B Grocery Stores, City Public Service and KTFM 102.7, encourages students from kindergarten to 12th grade to exercise their minds and imaginations by spending more of their free time reading and encouraging others to get excited about reading too! To participate, students can either spend time reading on their own or read aloud to younger students. The High Five Readers program includes a chance to win a pair of upper level tickets to the High Five Readers Celebration held at the Spurs vs. Boston Celtics game on March 16, 2002. More than 10,000 upper level tickets will be awarded through this program.

Spurs/Southwestern Bell Book Stores

At four selected home games, the Spurs/Southwestern Bell "Book Store" will open for young Spurs fans. The first 1,000 children through the door will receive a "Spurs Book Buck" to "purchase" one brand new Scholastic book at this in-arena book store, held at the Spurs Southwestern Bell FANFiesta.

Spurs/Southwestern Bell Give Kids Their Favorite Books

During the 2001-02 Spurs season, Spurs players will host on court book exchanges, courtesy of Southwestern Bell, with children randomly selected from the audience at various Spurs home games. Each child selected to participate in these book exchanges will receive a copy of a player's favorite childhood book.

ADDITIONAL EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMING:

Mister Robinson's Neighborhood of Achievers

For the 12th season, more than 1,500 students from San Antonio and Austin schools will be recognized for a variety of achievements and will be awarded with a pair of Spurs tickets in "Mister Robinson's Neighborhood", a Mister Robinson's Neighborhood t-shirt and an achievement certificate. David Robinson and the Spurs Foundation purchase the game tickets, and H-E-B Grocery Stores is an additional program sponsor. Austin public schools will also participate in the Mister Robinson's Neighborhood of Achievers program, which is funded in part by the sponsors listed above, as well as various Austin-based companies.

Spurs and UPS Support Parental Involvement

In its third successful year, 41 parents will receive the Spurs/UPS Parent(s) of the Game award, one at each of the Spurs 41 home games during the 2001-02 season. This program was developed as a way for kids to express, through writing, their thanks for having supportive parents or guardians who are great role models and actively involved in their lives and education. All honored parents receive four Spurs game tickets and a commemorative award. Additionally, the parents are recognized as the official "Parent(s) of the Game" on the Spurs arena JumboTRON scoreboard.

Spurs and Nortel Networks Applaud Bexar County Teachers

The Spurs and Nortel Networks recognize that America's future depends on teachers, and acknowledge that the exceptional teachers from Bexar County are at the forefront of our many school successes. The Spurs and Nortel Networks publicly applaud the teachers whose efforts go above and beyond the call of duty for their students. This season marks the ninth year that 41 more exceptional public school teachers will be recognized at Spurs games for their commitment to education.

Dads Get Involved with their Kids-Through Art!

This art contest, presented by City Public Service, encourages dads to become more involved in the lives of their children, and reminds adults that children who enjoy the emotional and social support of a father figure are dramatically more successful in school. Fifty-two students will win a pair of tickets to go to a Spurs home game with their dads. Two grand prize works of art will be displayed at the Alamodome. Two schools will each receive $250 to purchase art supplies.

Spurs Foundation Awards $20,000 in College Scholarships

Each year, the Spurs Foundation awards 15 college-bound high school seniors with scholarships totaling $20,000, three of which are $3,000 memorial scholarships: the Angelo Drossos Memorial Scholarship, the Colonel Maury Holden Memorial Scholarship and the Craig Martin Memorial Scholarship. Angelo Drossos was one of the original owners of the Spurs and remained in the majority ownership position until 1988 when he sold the franchise to Red McCombs. Col. Holden was the Spurs treasurer for 20 years, the secretary/treasurer of the Spurs Foundation and a longtime friend of the Spurs family. Craig Martin is the late son of Frank Martin, co-founder of the Spurs/Pizza Hut Drug-Free Youth Basketball League. Through the Spurs Foundation City Public Service Bright Light Scholarship Program, $1,000 scholarships are awarded to 10 graduating Bexar County high school seniors, selected for their academic achievement, school/community leadership, teacher recommendations and evaluation of their personal narrative. Additionally, two $500 scholarships are awarded annually to two Bexar County high school graduates who have competed on the state level in one of the University Interscholastic League (UIL) Academic Contests and met additional Texas Interscholastic League Foundation (TILF) requirements.

Never Be Absent

Because attending school is fundamental to achieving academic success, for the fourth year, the Spurs Foundation, International Bank of Commerce, H-E-B Grocery Stores and City Public Service will continue the Never Be Absent program as a tool for teachers and principals to reward students who maintain outstanding school attendance. Two students (one boy and one girl) from every Bexar County public and private school will have the opportunity to participate and will receive a pair of Spurs game tickets, a t-shirt and achievement certificate for "Never Being Absent!"

Looking for Cool Kids!

The Spurs and City Public Service are looking far and wide for "Cool Kids!" Nominated by teachers and principals, Cool Kids have talents in areas such as music, art, community involvement, leadership, academics, sports, computers, drama, etc. Each Cool Kid selected will be featured on an episode of the "Coyote Clubhouse" airing locally on KRRT and receive four tickets to a Spurs home game!

Spurs and SBC's Math Challenge

The Spurs and SBC's Math Challenge was developed to challenge 5th grade students' math skills with fun problems that relate to the construction of the SBC Center. Students who meet the "challenge" receive a pair of Spurs tickets to a 2001-02 preseason home game.

GROWING HEALTHIER KIDS THROUGH POSITIVE RECREATION

Drug-Free Youth Basketball League

In its 12th successful season, the Spurs/Pizza Hut Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, honorarily chaired by Spurs forward Malik Rose and presented by Ultramar Diamond Shamrock, will offer more than 20,000 at-risk youth the opportunity to play basketball, improve their athletic skills and learn the importance of team work, cooperation, sportsmanship and discipline in a drug-free and safe environment. The non-school eight-week league targets youth ranging in age from seven to 16 from less affluent city neighborhoods.

In 1991, after noticing a lack of anti-drug recreational programs, Spurs Head Coach and General Manager Gregg Popovich and Kids Sports Network President Frank Martin created the League. Today, Drug-Free League basketball teams play at 75 locations, and are supported by 32 organizations throughout South Texas. Every player wearing the Drug-Free League uniform must play at least one quarter of each game and recite the Drug-Free Pledge out loud before the game. Additionally, the Spurs will honor a number of Drug-Free Youth Basketball League teams with the Spurs/City Public Service Good Sports Award for their positive attitudes and fair play.

Good Sportsmanship Touted – Respect for Self, Others and the Game

In 2001-02, the Spurs and IHOP Restaurants, with support from Christus Santa Rosa Hospital, will reward students for their physical fitness and good sportsmanship. In its third year, this program will provide 31,000 achievement certificates with a coupon for a complimentary kids meal at IHOP to Bexar County elementary schools' physical education teachers to reward deserving students.

Spurs Basketball Camps

Each summer, girls and boys eight years and older can attend full or half day Spurs Basketball Camps. An overnight camp is also offered for boys 10 and older. Each week-long camp's focus is on basketball fundamentals and the Spurs winning attitude. Camp instructors include area college and high school coaches with instructional visits from current and former Spurs players and coaches. For more information, call the camp hotline at 1-800-688-SPUR or (210) 554-7794.

"Home Team" Sold Signs in 59 Yards

The 2001-02 season will mark the ninth year of the Spurs and Fannie Mae Foundation's "Home Team" partnership, developed to educate the general public on how to obtain their dreams of home ownership, as well as revitalize area neighborhoods. Each season, support is provided to local community development corporation, Neighborhood Housing Services, whose mission is to improve the quality of life for underserved neighborhoods. Annually, grants from the Fannie Mae and Spurs Foundations go toward the construction of affordable housing in San Antonio. To date, the Home Team program's efforts have resulted in 59 new or renovated homes that have been made available to low- to moderate-income homebuyers. In addition, each season, Spurs staff, coaches, players and alumni team members volunteer in the construction efforts of at least two of the 10 homes built annually.

Tim Duncan's "Bowling for Dollar$" Charity Bowl-A-Thon

In the 2000-01 season, Tim Duncan's second annual "Bowling for Dollar$" Charity Bowl-A-Thon again helped to "strike out" cancer with more than $120,000 raised to help fund local awareness campaigns and cutting-edge research for breast and prostate cancer, as well as fund mobile mammographys and diagnostic follow up for uninsured women through the San Antonio Metropolitan Health District and the American Cancer Society. Duncan's crusade to cure and eliminate cancer, and his charity with cancer-related issues has heightened awareness about this disease throughout San Antonio and South Texas. Tim Duncan's mission has proved that he is selfless – he is both a World Champion athlete and a champion of the heart.

THE ALAMODOME

The Alamodome – which opened on May 15, 1993 – is unlike any other stadium in the world due to its design and versatility. The facility has a cable-suspended roof, a retractable seating system, a flexible floor grid system, formal entries and large food court areas.

The Spurs moved into the Alamodome prior to the start of the 1993-94 season.

But the Alamodome is used for more than the Spurs. With the addition of the Alamodome, the city of San Antonio has become a major player in the sports world. The first major sporting event in the Alamodome was the U.S. Olympic Festival-'93, which took place in July of 1993.

Since that time the Dome has played host to some of the biggest events in the sporting world including the 1996 NBA All-Star Game and the 1998 NCAA Final Four. In addition, the Alamodome has hosted numerous NCAA football and basketball games, NFL games, NHL games, world-championship boxing matches and concerts. San Antonio and the Dome also serve as the home of the annual Sylvania Alamo Bowl.

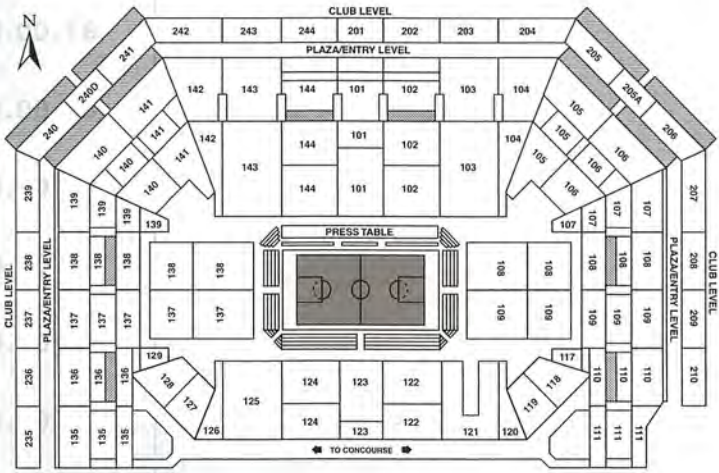

For Spurs games, the Alamodome holds 20,557 on a nightly basis. In addition, for selected games, the Spurs open the upper level of the facility, pushing capacity to over 34,000. In its basketball configuration the Alamodome features 32 luxury suites and a section of over 3,500 club level seats.

The total cost of the Alamodome was $186 million and, thanks to a half-cent sales tax that was in effect from 1989-94, the Dome is completely debt free.

SPURS TICKETS

Individual game tickets can be purchased in person at the Spurs Ticket Office located in the Southwest corner of the Alamodome. Tickets can also be purchased at all Ticketmaster Ticket Centers as well as the Spurs Shop, located at 600 East Market Street. To order single game tickets by phone call Ticketmaster at (210) 223-DUNK.

For information on Spurs season tickets, special group rates and other special ticket packages please contact a Spurs Account Executive at (210) 554-7787.

SBC CENTER

The SBC Center, future home of the San Antonio Spurs, is rising out of the ground and taking its place on the San Antonio skyline.

With season ticket sales for the inaugural season already underway, SBC Center construction moves forward under the watchful eye of Rick Pych, Spurs executive vice president of finance and chief development officer for the SBC Center. Celebrating its one-year construction anniversary in late August, the new state-of-the-art arena will open for the Spurs 2002-03 season.

Planned as a state-of-the-art venue for sports and family entertainment, the structure will be home to both the Spurs and the San Antonio Livestock Exposition. Its "ranch tech" design will reflect the South Texas community and the SBC Center's major users. It will be a "full service" facility with a number of restaurants fitting all tastes and over 7,000 on-site parking spaces. The various seating configurations will accommodate groups anywhere from 2,000 to 18,500 patrons.

"We think the SBC Center will be a perfect complement for the San Antonio area in terms of both size and versatility," says Spurs Chairman Peter Holt. "Its seating capacity is perfect for a wide variety of activities and the building's technological capabilities will be second to none."

2000-2001 SEASON NOTES

BEST IN THE BIZ: For the fourth time in franchise history San Antonio compiled the NBA's best overall record during the regular season... the Spurs sported a 58-24 record in 2000-01... the Spurs also had the league's best record in 1994-95 (62-20) and 1995-96 (59-23) while sharing the best record honor with Utah (at 37-13) in the shortened 1999 season when San Antonio went on to win the NBA Championship.

FAN-TASTIC: The 2000-01 season marked the first time in franchise history San Antonio led the NBA in home attendance... the Spurs drew 913,175 fans to 41 regular season home games for an average of 22,273 fans per game... the franchise record for Spurs home attendance was set during the 1994-95 season when 920,413 came to the Alamodome during the regular season, an average of 22,449.

HOME SWEET DOME: The Spurs compiled a 33-8 record at the Alamodome last season, which was the best homecourt record in the NBA along with Sacramento... San Antonio won its first eight home games of the 2000-2001 season before losing to New York on 12/7... the franchise record is 22 consecutive wins at home, from 3/27/98 (last 13 games of the 1998-99 season) to 12/9/99 (first nine games of 1999-00).

SHARP SPURS: The 2000-2001 edition of the Spurs ranked among the best teams in franchise history in terms of wins over an 82-game season... following is a listing of the top San Antonio teams by winning percentage, noting that nine of the Top 10 have been in the David Robinson era:

Season	Record	Playoff Result	Season	Record	Playoff Result

1989-90:	56-26 (.683)	Western Conf. Semifinals	1977-78:	52-30 (.634)	Eastern Conf. Semifinals

a-best record in NBA; b-tied with Utah for best record in NBA

DIVISION EXCELLENCE: Since San Antonio entered the NBA prior to the 1976-77 season, the Spurs have captured nine Midwest Division titles and 11 NBA division titles... only the Los Angeles Lakers have won more NBA division titles (13) during that span... in addition to the 2000-01 season, the Spurs won the Midwest Division in 1981, 1982, 1983, 1990, 1991, 1995, 1996 and 1999 and won the Central Division title in 1978 and 1979.

POP AT THE TOP: With an 86-79 victory over Houston on 12/19, Gregg Popovich moved to the top of San Antonio's all-time victory list, passing Doug Moe's total of 177 wins as head coach of the Spurs... Popovich also passed Moe for most games as head coach of the Spurs with a total of 360... Moe had served as head coach in 312 games for San Antonio... the Spurs 107-104 victory at Dallas on 2/24 marked career win No. 200 for Popovich... he joined Jerry Sloan (Utah), Pat Riley (Miami), Rudy Tomjanovich (Houston), Jeff Van Gundy (New York) and Flip Saunders (Minnesota) on the list of active coaches who have at least 200 victories for their current organization... among active NBA coaches, only Phil Jackson (.741), Riley (.692) and Sloan (.636) have a better winning percentage overall than Popovich's .614 (221-139).

RECORDS OF NOTE: The Spurs, who have been noted for their defense in the Gregg Popovich era, set a franchise record for fewest points allowed in a season during 2000-01... San Antonio opponents scored just 7,250 points (88.4 ppg) to set the record previously held by the 1997-98 Spurs squad, which allowed 7,260 points (88.5 ppg) on the year... last year's edition of the Spurs also made 40.7% (445-1094) of its three-point field goals to set a team season record... San Antonio was the only NBA team last season to shoot at least 40% from three-point range.

SPURS AMONG LEAGUE LEADERS: The 2000-01 Spurs featured a balanced inside-outside offensive attack and a stingy defense to rank at or near the top of the NBA in several statistical categories... the Spurs led the league in three categories overall and were among the NBA's top 12 in several others... the Spurs finished first in the league in blocked shots (7.02 bpg), 3-point FG% (.407) and tied for first in defensive 3-point FG% (.329)... San Antonio ranked second in defensive FG% (.419), third in points allowed (88.4 ppg), fourth in FG% (.465), ninth in rebounding (44.0), ninth in assists to turnovers (1.55), ninth in assists to turnover ratio (1.55) and 12th in scoring (96.2 ppg).

WORTH MENTIONING: With 66 double-double games in 2000-01, Tim Duncan led the NBA in double-doubles for the third time in his four seasons... he also claimed the double-double title for the 1997-98 and 1998-99 seasons and finished second in 1999-2000... Duncan was the only Spur to top the 40-point mark in a game last season, scoring 42 vs. the Sacramento Kings on 4/12... it marked his third career 40-plus game with all three of those performances achieved at the Alamodome... David Robinson finished the regular season 90 points shy of George Gervin as the Spurs all-time leading scorer in NBA only games... Gervin amassed 19,383 over his NBA career and totaled another 4,219 points while the Spurs played in the ABA... Robinson passed the 19,000-point plateau on 3/9 at the Los Angeles Lakers ... Robinson ended last season ranked No. 30 on the NBA's all-time scoring list with 19,293 points and No. 35 on the NBA's all-time rebounding chart with 9,342 to rank as one of only 15 players in NBA history among the top 35 on both the NBA's all-time scoring and rebounding lists... the Spurs compiled a 33-9 record after Terry Porter entered the starting lineup at point guard on 1/27 at Utah... Porter had started a total of 37 games over the previous four years combined playing for Minnesota, Miami and San Antonio and had not been in the starting lineup more than 40 times in a season since the 1992-93 campaign, when he started in 81 regular season games.

NBA COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

The NBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on reading and youth programs. Each year the league, its players and its teams donate millions of dollars and hundreds of hours to charities and community outreach programs. Through its extensive outreach programs, team foundations, and public service announcements, the NBA is deeply involved in addressing a variety of important social issues in its communities.

Read to Achieve is a year-round program designed to help young people develop a life-long love for reading that will reach an estimated 50 million children a year. It is the most extensive educational outreach initiative in the history of professional sports. In addition to a $100 million a year promotional campaign, the effort includes the annual donation of more than 200,000 books through a variety of reading events and book fairs, as well as the development of essay contests and on-line programs.

With the support of long-time national partners such as RIF and Scholastic Inc., Read to Achieve will create Reading and Learning Centers throughout North America in an effort to provide access to reading materials and technology to young people everywhere. These centers are modeled after the work done at the Eastern Branch of the Boys & Girls Club in Washington, D.C., that was unveiled during All-Star 2001. In addition, a wide variety of reading timeouts, book distribution events, book fairs, reading programs, essay events and on-line programs are being developed for the upcoming season.

Integral components of the program are national and local All-Star Reading Teams comprised of current and former NBA and WNBA players and other members of the NBA family, who promote reading efforts through in-arena events, Public Service Announcements, and community appearances throughout the year.

In recognition of the community outreach of our players, the league has established the Hometown Hero of the Month Award, which honors players whose efforts in the community are truly outstanding. To honor the NBA Player that reflects the passion that the league and its players have for their communities, all 29 NBA teams nominate a player for the Hometown Hero of the Month Award which is presented 12 times a year.

Awarded annually at the conclusion of each league's regular season, the NBA and WNBA Sportsmanship Awards recognize players who embody the spirit of sportsmanship. The NBA makes a $25,000 donation on behalf of the NBA Sportsmanship Award honoree, and a $10,000 donation on behalf of each of the three divisional awardees, to the high school of their choice. In addition, the NBA will recognize National Sportsmanship Day with local events throughout North America.

The NBA also supports the efforts of Prevent Child Abuse America, the Martin Luther King Holiday, Black History Month, Gallaudet University, and the Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Fund.

KEY DATES IN HISTORY

OCTOBER 10, 1973

In the first game in San Antonio history, the Spurs fell to the San Diego Conquistadors 121-106 in the HemisFair Arena...Rich Jones led the Spurs in scoring with 25 points...the Spurs lost their first four games before claiming their first win on 10/16/73 when they beat the Virginia Squires 116-106.

JANUARY 30, 1974

After a month of fighting, Angelo Drossos pulled off the biggest deal in Spurs history, purchasing George Gervin from the Virginia Squires...the transaction wasn't a simple one due to legal battles between the Spurs, the Squires and the ABA League Office...in fact, at one point, the 21-year-old Gervin went into hiding for a week as the three parties battled it out...in the end Drossos and the Spurs won, and the rest, as they say, is history.

JANUARY 28, 1975

On this date the city of San Antonio hosted the 1975 ABA All-Star Game...on the West squad were three Spurs, George Gervin, James Silas and Swen Nater...but the East team dominated the game, posting a 151-124 win in front of 10,449 in the HemisFair Arena...the coaches that night were Kevin Loughery and Larry Brown.

OCTOBER 22, 1976

The Spurs made their NBA debut, beating the 76ers 121-118 in Philadelphia...Billy Paultz paced the Spurs with 27 points...also making his NBA debut that night was Julius Erving of the Sixers...later in the week, on 10/27/76, the Spurs played their first NBA game in the HemisFair Arena, beating Phoenix 115-106 behind a 41-point effort by Larry Kenon...the Spurs finished their first NBA season with a 44-38 record and a trip to the playoffs.

APRIL 9, 1978

George Gervin set an NBA record scoring 33 points in the second quarter as the Spurs fell to New Orleans 153-132 in the final game of the regular season...earlier in the day David Thompson had scored 73 points and entering the game Gervin knew that he needed to score 58 points to edge out Thompson for the 1978 NBA scoring title...Gervin came through...he had 53 at halftime and finished the game with 63 points - despite sitting out the fourth quarter - to claim his first scoring title.

APRIL 15, 1983

Spurs announced their All Decade Team...on the squad were George Gervin, Artis Gilmore, Mike Mitchell, James Silas and Mark Olberding...the Iceman was named the Spurs Player of the Decade...the same night Artis Gilmore scored his 20,000th career point.

FEBRUARY 28, 1984

The Spurs retired the number 13 worn by James Silas...it was the first number ever retired by the Spurs franchise and Silas earned the honor...in his career he appeared in 618 games, scoring 10,290 points and handing out 2,406 assists...Silas – who was an original Spur – enjoyed his best season in 1975-76 when he averaged 23.8 points, 5.4 assists and 4.0 rebounds...his career was cut short by a knee injury that he suffered in November of 1976.

MAY 17, 1987

The Spurs won the NBA Draft Lottery in New York...Bob Bass was on hand with a lucky Red Chameleon...the good luck charm worked as the Spurs beat out six other teams and won the number one pick in the 1987 Draft, which they used to select All-Star center David Robinson.

DECEMBER 5, 1987

On this night the Spurs retired the number 44 jersey worn by George Gervin...15,786 were on hand to pay tribute to the greatest player in Spurs history...in his 12 seasons with the Spurs, the Iceman scored 23,602 points and led the NBA in scoring four times.

KEY DATES IN HISTORY

Red McCombs purchased the Spurs for $47 million, becoming the first principal owner of the franchise ...the transaction took place after months of negotiations between McCombs and the Spurs original majority owner, Angelo Drossos.

NOVEMBER 4, 1989
In his first NBA game rookie center David Robinson led the Spurs to a 106-98 win over the Lakers in front of a crowd of 15,868 in the HemisFair Arena...Robinson didn't miss a beat despite the fact that he had spent the two previous years serving as a Navy ensign, stationed at King's Bay, GA...the Admiral finished the game with 23 points and 17 rebounds.

MARCH 26, 1993
On this date a group of 22 investors purchased the franchise from Red McCombs...the two leaders of the group were Bob Coleman and Robert McDermot...the original deal was struck on 2/19/93 between the group and McCombs, then a month later the move – with some minor changes – was approved by the NBA League Office.

MAY 20, 1993
The end of an era...after calling the HemisFair Arena home for 20 years the Spurs played their final game in the Arena falling to the Suns 102-100 in Game 6 of their Western Conference Semifinal series...in those 20 seasons, the Spurs played 893 regular season and playoff games in the Arena, attracting 9,383,257 fans.

MAY 23, 1995
On this date the NBA announced its 1994-95 Most Valuable Player - Mr. David Robinson...the Admiral led the Spurs to a 62-20 record - the best mark in the NBA in 1994-95 - and became the first player in San Antonio history to win the award...Robinson was among league leaders in five categories: scoring, rebounding, blocked shots, steals and field goal percentage.

FEBRUARY 11, 1996
One of the most exciting weekends in San Antonio history was capped with the 46th Annual NBA All-Star Game...a crowd of 36,037 packed the Alamodome and saw the East defeat the West 129-118 despite solid efforts from Spurs All-Stars David Robinson and Sean Elliott...the entire 1996 NBA All-Star Weekend was a hit as, for three days, the eyes of the world were focused on the Alamo City.

MAY 6, 1996
In Springfield, Massachusetts, George Gervin was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame...the Iceman is the only Spur ever to be elected to the Hall of Fame...the honor is one that Gervin deserves...in his 14-year professional career he scored 26,595 points which is the eighth highest total in history.

MAY 17, 1997
Ten years after winning the 1987 NBA Draft Lottery, the Spurs won the 1997 Lottery and the right to select Wake Forest star Tim Duncan...winning the lottery was one of the few bright spots for the Spurs during the 1996-97 season...they limped through the year without David Robinson and others, finishing with a 20-62 mark.

MARCH 20, 1998
On this date the Spurs retired the number 00 of point guard Johnny Moore...in his nine seasons with the Spurs, Moore appeared in 519 games, averaging 9.4 points and 7.4 assists per game...Moore – whose career was cut short by Desert Fever – joined George Gervin and James Silas becoming just the third player in Spurs history to have their number retired by the franchise.

JUNE 25, 1999

1973-74 SEASON NOTES

- The San Antonio Spurs were formed in the summer of 1973 when the Dallas Chaparrals of the ABA were sold to a group of San Antonio investors and moved to the Alamo City.
- Original ownership group was made up of 27 individuals, led by John Schaefer, Red McCombs, Art Burdick and Angelo Drossos.
- The first game in franchise history was a 121-106 loss to the San Diego Conquistadors on 10/10/73 in front of 5,879 fans in the HemisFair Arena... the Spurs starting five that night were Rich Jones, Goo Kennedy, Bob Netolicky, Joe Hamilton and James Silas.
- In November the Spurs obtained Swen Nater from the Virginia Squires in exchange for cash and draft picks... Nater was the Spurs leading rebounder in both 1973-74 and 1974-75.
- On 1/30/74 - in perhaps the biggest move in franchise history - the Spurs purchased George Gervin from the Virginia Squires... the Iceman went on to play in 11 straight All-Star Games for the Spurs.

1974-75 SEASON NOTES

- The City of San Antonio hosted the 1975 ABA All-Star Game... a crowd of 10,449 was on hand in the HemisFair Arena as the East beat the West 151-124 on 1/28/75... the Western squad featured three Spurs - George Gervin, Swen Nater and James Silas.
- During the off-season Angelo Drossos was named Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and John Begzos was named the Spurs General Manager.
- On 12/13/74 the Spurs hired Bob Bass as their Head Coach, replacing Tom Nissalke.
- George Gervin established himself as a true star... during the regular season he was 7th in the ABA in scoring, averaging 23.4 ppg, and was also among league leaders in rebounds and blocks... Gervin was named to the All-ABA Second Team and appeared in his second ABA All-Star Game... but Gervin's big breakthrough came in the post-season when Bob Bass moved Iceman from small forward to two-guard... Gervin averaged 34.0 ppg in the series vs. Indiana and the rest, as they say, is history.
- On 2/5/75 George Gervin scored 51 points as the Spurs beat Memphis 143-119... Gervin's 51 points that night is the Spurs franchise record for the most points scored in an ABA game.

1975-76 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs made a pair of big moves prior to the start of the season... on 6/3/75 the Spurs sent Swen Nater to the New York Nets for Larry Kenon... in a related move on the same day the Spurs obtained Mike Gale from the Nets for cash... then on 9/8/75 the Spurs sent Chuck Terry, Rich Jones, Bobby Warren and Kim Hughes to the Nets in exchange for Billy Paultz... the moves paid off as both Kenon and Paultz were ABA All-Stars during the 1975-76 campaign.

- James Silas - the Spurs leading scorer and playmaker during the season - broke his right ankle in the first game of their playoff series with the Nets... the injury put a damper on a great season for Silas... he was the first Spur ever named to the All-ABA First Team... he finished the season ranked sixth in the ABA in scoring, fourth in FG percentage, fourth in FT percentage, fifth in assists and ninth in steals.

- The Spurs ranked second in the ABA in attendance, averaging 8,003 fans per game... the highlight was a then-record crowd of 11,717 who watched a 112-109 loss to the Nets on 11/15/75.

- As a team the Spurs shot an incredible .815 (1905-2337) from the free throw line during the 1975-76 season... five Spurs shot .800 or better from the line... James Silas led the way with a .872 mark, George Gervin shot .862, Allan Bristow had a .848 mark, Coby Dietrick was .829 and Mike Gale shot an even .800.

1977-78 SEASON NOTES

- During the summer of 1977, the roof at the HemisFair Arena was raised to accommodate 6,000 new seats.
- The Spurs got off to a slow start as injuries sidelined James Silas (knee), George Karl (knee) and Mike Gale (ankle)... after starting 16-14 the Spurs got hot at midseason to claim their first NBA Division Title... at one point, the Spurs posted 18 wins in a 22-game period.
- Both George Gervin and Larry Kenon were named starters in the 1978 NBA All-Star Game which was played in Atlanta on 2/5.
- George Gervin turned in one of the greatest single game performances in franchise history on 4/9 in New Orleans... going into the final day of the season Gervin and David Thompson were battling for the NBA Scoring Title... Thompson had played earlier in the day and appeared to claim the title as he poured in 73 points... but Gervin wasn't ready to concede the title... by halftime of the Spurs-Jazz game, Ice had 53 points - thanks to 33 points in the second quarter, which still stands as the most points ever scored in a single quarter... the Spurs lost the game 153-132 but Gervin finished with 63 points and claimed his first of four NBA Scoring Titles.

1979-80 SEASON NOTES

- Prior to the season, the Spurs purchased the contract of Kevin Restani from Milwaukee... the Spurs also obtained guard Johnny Moore from Seattle... but Moore - who appeared in 519 regular season games with the Silver and Black - was released during the preseason and didn't see his first action with the Spurs until the 1980-81 season.
- The Spurs spent the entire season battling to stay above the .500 mark... on 3/1 Bob Bass replaced Doug Moe as Head Coach.
- On 1/16 the Spurs sent Billy Paultz to Houston in exchange for John Shumate.
- Once again, George Gervin was the big gun for the Spurs... he was named the MVP of the 1980 NBA All-Star Game as he had 34 points and 10 rebounds in the contest ... on 1/8 vs. Denver, Gervin exploded for 53 points, which is the most points ever scored in the HemisFair Arena, where the Spurs played from '73-74 through '92-93... and, of course, the Iceman won his third straight NBA Scoring Title, averaging a career-best 33.1 points per game.

1980-81 SEASON NOTES

- Prior to the season, the Spurs named Stan Albeck Head Coach.
- The Spurs, the Houston Rockets and the expansion Dallas Mavericks were all placed in the Midwest Division in the Western Conference.
- The Spurs were busy in the off-season... draft picks Reggie Johnson and Michael Wiley were instant contributors for the Spurs... after being waived the previous season, Johnny Moore was re-signed and led the team in assists in his first NBA season... and finally, to add experience and size, the Spurs signed free agent George Johnson and obtained Dave Corzine in a trade with Washington.
- "The Bruise Brothers" were officially born on 12/30 as the Spurs handed out free posters which featured George Johnson, Dave Corzine, Kevin Restani, Paul Griffin, Mark Olberding and Reggie Johnson.
- George Johnson became the first Spur to win an NBA Blocked Shots title, averaging 3.39 blocks per game... he put his name in the Spurs record-books on 2/24 vs. Golden State... in the Spurs 131-126 win Johnson set a pair of Spurs franchise records - the most blocks in a game, with 13, and the most blocks in a half, with 11 in the second.

- The end of an era came in June as the Spurs sent James Silas - the last original Spur and team captain - to Cleveland... Silas spent nine years in San Antonio and is one of just three players in franchise history to have had their jersey retired.
- The Spurs started the season with a 9-1 mark and held the top spot in the Midwest Division the entire season.
- On 12/24 the Spurs obtained Mike Mitchell and Roger Phegley from Cleveland in exchange for Ron Brewer and Reggie Johnson.
- In a record-setting game on 3/6 the Spurs posted a 171-166 triple-overtime win over Milwaukee in the HemisFair Arena... the 171 points by the Spurs is a club record for the most points scored in a game and the 337 points scored by both teams is the second highest combined point total in NBA history.
- Three different Spurs won individual statistical titles in the league... George Gervin captured his fourth NBA scoring title, averaging 32.3 ppg... George Johnson won his second consecutive blocked shots title, averaging 3.12 bpg... and second-year guard Johnny Moore led the NBA in assists, averaging 9.6 assists per contest.

- Cotton Fitzsimmons was named Head Coach in May.
- The Spurs welcomed several new faces during the season... first round draft pick Alvin Robertson was an instant contributor as a rookie... guard John Lucas was traded to Houston on 10/4/84... then in December the Spurs made four deals in a 10-day period: Mark McNamara was sent to Kansas City for Billy Knight... Jeff Cook was obtained from Cleveland in exchange for Edgar Jones and cash... Marc Iavaroni was acquired from the Sixers for a draft choice... and, finally, Fred Roberts was shipped to Utah for a pair of second round picks.
- Mike Mitchell led the team in scoring, averaging 22.2 ppg... this broke a streak of eight straight seasons in which George Gervin had led the Spurs in scoring... Mitchell and Gervin both hit point plateaus during the season... Mitchell scored his 10,000th career point vs. Cleveland on 11/10 and Iceman scored his 25,000th point on 2/22 at Phoenix.
- Johnny Moore finished the season ranked third in the NBA in assists, with 10.0 apg, and ranked second in the league in steals, with 2.79 spg... Moore turned in one of the best games of his life vs. Golden State on 1/8 when he finished with 26 points, 13 assists, 11 rebounds and 9 steals.
- The Spurs set a franchise record, shooting .513 percent from the field during the 1984-85 season.

1985-86 SEASON NOTES

- During the off-season there was a major debate as to whether the Spurs would continue to play in the HemisFair Arena or move to the Freeman Coliseum.
- An era ended on 10/24 as the Spurs traded George Gervin to Chicago in exchange for David Greenwood.
- Tragedy struck the Spurs on 12/26 when point guard Johnny Moore was hospitalized with Desert Fever... the sickness ended the season for Moore and cut his promising career short... after contracting the disease Moore returned to play in 112 games with the Spurs, but never regained the form he had shown in his early days.
- Alvin Robertson was the Spurs bright spot during the 1985-86 season... the second-year guard led the NBA in steals, averaging 3.67 per contest... he set NBA records for the most steals in a single season, with 301, and for the highest steals-per-game average, with 3.67 spg... he recorded one of four quadruple-doubles in NBA history finishing with 20 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals vs. the Suns on 2/18.

1987-88 SEASON NOTES

- The biggest day of the season occurred during the summer and happened off the court... on 6/22 the Spurs used the number one pick in the 1987 NBA Draft to select David Robinson of the Naval Academy... on the same day the Spurs shipped aging center Artis Gilmore to Chicago in exchange for a second-round selection in the 1988 Draft.
- Robinson signed a contract with the Spurs on 11/6 and - before beginning his two-year tour with the Navy – the Admiral witnessed the Spurs lose to the defending NBA Champion Lakers 133-124.
- The Spurs paid tribute to George Gervin on 12/5 as his #44 jersey was retired by the franchise, joining James Silas as the second player in Spurs history to have his number retired.

1988-89 SEASON NOTES

- On 5/28 Red McCombs became full owner of the Spurs, purchasing the team from his fellow investors for $47 million... one of McCombs first moves was to fire Bob Weiss and hire Larry Brown as Head Coach.
- The Spurs finished the season with a 21-61 record... the Spurs were just 3-38 on the road during the year and set a club record with 20-straight losses on the road.
- A total of 22 players suited up for the Spurs during the season and Greg Anderson was the only player to appear in all 82 games for the Spurs.
- Rookie Willie Anderson was one of the few bright spots for San Antonio... he was named to the NBA All-Rookie First Team and he became the first Spur rookie ever to lead the team in scoring, averaging 18.6 points per game... Anderson was the runner-up in Rookie of the Year voting behind Mitch Richmond of the Kings.

1989-90 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs made several moves during the off-season and assembled a new-look team for the 1989-90 season... on 5/28 the Spurs obtained All-Star forward Terry Cummings from Milwaukee in exchange for Alvin Robertson... in the 1989 NBA Draft the Spurs selected forward Sean Elliott with the third overall choice... and on 8/28 the Spurs sent Johnny Dawkins and Jay Vincent to the Sixers in exchange for Maurice Cheeks, David Wingate and Christian Welp... in addition, Caldwell Jones and Zarko Paspalj were signed as free agents... of course the biggest addition was David Robinson, who completed his two-year Navy commitment... in all nine new faces were on the Spurs 1989-90 roster.

- All the moves worked as the Spurs set what was an NBA record at the time for the biggest turnaround between two seasons, increasing their win total by 35 over the 1988-89 campaign (56 wins vs. 21 in '88-89).

- David Robinson was named the NBA Rookie of the Month each month of the season, joining Ralph Sampson as only the second player in NBA history to claim a clean sweep of the Rookie of the Month award. (Tim Duncan also accomplished the feat during the 1997-98 season).

- The Spurs made one final big move during the season, sending Mo Cheeks to the Knicks in exchange for Rod Strickland on 2/21... on the same day the Spurs traded guard Vernon Maxwell to the Rockets for cash.

1990-91 SEASON NOTES

- During the off-season, the Spurs picked up Paul Pressey and Sidney Green via trades and Dwayne Schintzius, Tony Massenburg and Sean Higgins in the 1990 NBA Draft.
- David Robinson was the top vote-getter in the Western Conference and earned the starting center spot in the 1991 NBA All-Star Game... Robinson led the NBA in rebounding, becoming the first Spur ever to capture an NBA Rebounding Title.
- The Spurs 55-27 record could have been better, but guard Rod Strickland missed 21 games after breaking his hand in a fight and in the 21 games he missed, the Spurs were just 10-11.
- The Spurs got win number 1,000 in franchise history on 2/26 with a 102-101 overtime win over Portland.
- Terry Cummings scored his 15,000th point on 4/5 at Chicago.

1991-92 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs obtained forward Antoine Carr from the Kings on 9/23 in exchange for Dwayne Schintzius... in December the Spurs signed a pair of free agents - Donald Royal and Vinnie Johnson - and waived two popular players - Avery Johnson and Jud Buechler.
- After missing the first six weeks of the season due to a contract dispute, Rod Strickland joined the Spurs on 12/23.
- Following a rough stretch in December and January, Vice President of Basketball Operations Bob Bass replaced Larry Brown as Head Coach.
- On 3/21, in just his third season with the Spurs, David Robinson passed George Gervin and became the Spurs all-time career leader in blocked shots.
- The Spurs season came to a grinding halt when David Robinson went down with a torn ligament in his left thumb... Robinson underwent surgery on 4/1 and missed the final 14 games of the season... with Robinson and Willie Anderson out of the line-up the Spurs were swept by the Suns in the First Round of the playoffs.

1992-93 SEASON NOTES

- Under new Head Coach Jerry Tarkanian the Spurs started the season 1-4... the Tarkanian era didn't last long... on 12/18 - with the team posting a 9-11 record - Tark was fired... 24 hours later he was replaced by John Lucas... the team responded by winning 24 of their next 28 after the coaching change.
- The Spurs also made some changes on the court... point guard Avery Johnson was signed as a free agent on 11/19 and on 12/9 the Spurs obtained J.R. Reid from Charlotte in exchange for Sidney Green and a first round draft choice... other new faces included Dale Ellis and Lloyd Daniels.
- Both David Robinson and Sean Elliott represented the Spurs in the 1993 All-Star Game.
- The Spurs closed a part of their history-books on 5/20 when they fell to the Suns 102-100 in Game Six of the Western Conference Semifinals... the game was the last one the Spurs would ever play in the HemisFair Arena, their home since they moved to San Antonio in the summer of 1973.

1993-94 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs parted with a pair of popular players prior to the start of the season... Avery Johnson left the team as a free agent, signing with the Warriors, and Sean Elliott was traded to Detroit for Dennis Rodman.
- David Robinson and Dennis Rodman made NBA history, as for the first time in league history a pair of teammates led the NBA in scoring and rebounding respectively... Robinson captured the scoring title, averaging 29.8 ppg, while Rodman won his third straight rebounding title, averaging 17.3 rpg.
- On 3/19 vs. Sacramento, Dale Ellis made history as he became the first player in professional basketball history to make 1,000 three-pointers.
- David Robinson ended the season with a bang... in the final game of the 1993-94 campaign, he scored a Spurs franchise record 71 points at the Clippers on 4/24... Robinson is just the fourth player in NBA history to score 70 or more points and his total was the highest since the 1978 season... thanks to the 71-point effort, Robinson edged out Shaquille O'Neal to claim his first NBA Scoring Title... 1995-96 SEASON NOTES

- The 1996 All-Star Game was held in San Antonio... the East beat the West 129-118 in front of 36,037 in the Dome... Michael Jordan - in his first All-Star Game since 1993 - was the MVP, finishing with 20 points in 22 minutes... for the Western squad David Robinson had 18 points and 11 rebounds in 23 minutes and Sean Elliott finished with 13 points in 22 minutes.

- The Spurs finished the month of March with a perfect 16-0 record, matching the '71-72 Lakers for the best month ever recorded in NBA history... the Spurs perfect month was part of a franchise-record 17 game winning streak which went from 2/29-4/2... during the streak the Spurs matched a club record by winning eight straight games on the road.

- Avery Johnson and Vinny Del Negro finished with the best assist-to-turnover ratio among any starting backcourt in the NBA... AJ and Vinny combined for a 3.74-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio... Johnson's personal assist-to-turnover ratio of 4.05-to-1 was the best among any starter in the league.

- David Robinson and Chuck Person both hit a pair of major milestones during the season... on 3/14 vs. the Heat, Person connected on the 1,000th three-pointer of his career, becoming just the fourth player in history to hit the 1,000 mark... then, on 4/15 at Portland, Robinson became just the 10th player in NBA history to record 2,000 career blocks.

1996-97 Season notes

- Injuries were the big story for the Spurs all season, as 11 different players missed games due to injury... Chuck Person (82), David Robinson (76), Charles Smith (63), Sean Elliott (43), Dominique Wilkins (19), Will Perdue (17), Monty Williams (16), Vinny Del Negro (10), Vernon Maxwell (10), Avery Johnson (6) and Carl Herrera (5) combined to miss a total of 347 games due to injuries... a total of 20 players suited up for the Spurs and the team used 24 different starting lineups.

- The Spurs were 3-15 when Gregg Popovich replaced Bob Hill as Head Coach on 12/10/96... the Spurs finished the season with a 20-62 mark, the worst record in franchise history... for just the fourth time in their NBA history, the Spurs failed to qualify for the playoffs.

- One of the bright spots was the play of 37-year-old forward Dominique Wilkins... signed as a free agent before the start of the season, Wilkins averaged 18.2 points and 6.4 rebounds in 30.9 minutes in 63 games... he finished the season with 26,534 career points, which placed him in seventh place on the NBA's all-time scoring list.

1997-98 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs set an NBA record for the largest single season turnaround, posting a 56-26 mark - a 36 game improvement over their 20-62 record during the 1996-97 season ... the Spurs broke the old NBA record for a single season turnaround of 35 games, a mark set by the Spurs during the 1989-90 season.

- Tim Duncan enjoyed an impressive rookie season, averaging 21.1 points, 11.9 rebounds and 2.51 blocks per game ... he was the NBA Rookie of the Year, after being named the NBA Rookie of the Month all six months ... in addition, he earned a spot on the All-NBA First Team and the All-Defensive Second Team.

- After appearing in just six games during the 1996-97 season due to injuries, David Robinson returned to All-Star form during the 1997-98 campaign ... he appeared in 73 games, averaging 21.6 points, 10.6 rebounds and 2.63 blocks per contest ... Robinson joined Tim Duncan as a member of the 1998 NBA All-Star team ... in addition, he was named to the All-NBA Second Team and the All-Defensive Second Team.

- Tim Duncan and David Robinson became just the eighth set of teammates in NBA history to both average 20-plus points and 10-plus rebounds ... since 1970 the feat has been accomplished just four times ... in addition to Duncan and Robinson, other 20-point, 10-rebound teammates since that time have been Ralph Sampson and Hakeem Olajuwon (Houston in '84-85), Charles Barkley and Moses Malone (Philadelphia in '85-86) and Alonzo Mourning and Larry Johnson (Charlotte in '92-93).

1998-99 SEASON NOTES

- The Spurs defeated the Knicks 4-1 in the 1999 Finals to claim the first NBA Championship in the team's 26-year history ... the Spurs rolled through the playoffs with a 15-2 mark, the second highest winning percentage in NBA history ... at one point the Spurs recorded 12 straight wins, setting an NBA record for the most consecutive victories in a single post-season ... Tim Duncan was the Finals MVP, averaging 27.4 points and 14.0 rebounds in 45.8 minutes in the five-game series ... the Spurs became the first former ABA team to advance to the NBA Finals and are just the ninth team in NBA history to win the title in their first appearance in the Finals ... the Spurs clinched their title on June 25 in Madison Square Garden when Avery Johnson hit an 18-foot jumper from the corner with 47.0 seconds left ... the basket gave the Spurs a 78-77 lead and was the final point scored in the game.

- After the NBA lifted its lockout in early January, the league played a shortened 50-game schedule ... after starting the season with a 6-8 record, the Spurs were 31-5 (.861) over their final 36 games to finish with a 37-13 mark, the best record in the NBA ... during their 31-5 run the Spurs were 17-1 in the Alamodome ... in the middle of the run Tim Duncan was named the NBA Player of the Month in March and Gregg Popovich was named the NBA Coach of the Month in April.

- For the second consecutive season the Spurs set an NBA record for the lowest opponent field goal percentage ... for the season opponents shot a mere .402 (1,631-4,061) from the floor vs. the Spurs ... the Spurs broke their own record, which they set during the 1997-98 season, holding opponents to a .411 mark from the field.

- The Spurs started the season with a franchise best 14-3 mark ... the team then struggled through an 11-12 stretch before finishing the season 28-14 ... but, on 4/11 at Sacramento, Tim Duncan suffered a torn left lateral meniscus ... the injury eventually required surgery and forced him to miss the remainder of the regular season and the playoffs ... without Duncan, the Spurs fell to the Suns in four games in the First Round of the 2000 Playoffs in a series that saw Malik Rose and Jerome Kersey also go down with injuries.

- The biggest story of the season was Sean Elliott ... Elliott underwent a kidney transplant on 8/16/99 ... he spent the first half of the season as the Spurs television analyst ... then on 2/1 he was cleared to return to practice and the next day joined his team on the court ... after almost six weeks of practice, he was removed from the injured list on 3/14 ... that night he made NBA history, becoming the first player to return to action after an organ transplant ... Elliott was a surprise starter and finished with 2 points in 12 minutes vs. the Hawks in front of a crowd of 26,708.

- Avery Johnson became the Spurs all-time leader in assists on 12/7 at Indiana, passing Johnny Moore who handed out 3,865 assists in his nine seasons with San Antonio ... Johnson finished the season with 4,237 assists with the Spurs.

- David Robinson also hit several milestones during the 1999-2000 season ... on 12/18 at Denver, he played in his 710th game with the Spurs to pass George Gervin to become the team's all-time NBA leader in games played ... then on 2/18 vs. Houston, he recorded seven steals to become the Spurs all-time leader in steals, passing Alvin Robertson ... also during the season Robinson scored his 17,000th career point (vs. Washington on 12/11) and his 18,000th career point (vs. Sacramento on 4/5).
