BEYOND FOOTBALL: ATLANTA FALCONS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Atlanta Falcons create a winning team off the field by building a strong bond in the community. Each year the club typically logs more service hours and makes more community appearances than most other NFL teams. Through the Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation, the team contributes more than $1 Million annually to improve fitness and reduce youth obesity in the state of Georgia. Players, coaches, cheerleaders, associates and the Atlanta Falcons Women's Association all contribute to making a meaningful difference in the lives of others.

ATLANTA FALCONS YOUTH FOUNDATION

Established in 1985, the Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation (AFYF) serves as the philanthropic arm of the Atlanta Falcons. Since Arthur Blank acquired the club in 2002, AFYF has grown to be the largest owner-funded foundation in the National Football League, providing more than $20 million in grants to non-profit organizations across Georgia. AFYF seeks to reduce childhood obesity and improve youth fitness and has a special interest in helping school-age children living in Atlanta and Gainesville neighborhoods designated as Falcons Fitness Zones. Working closely with the NFL Play 60 campaign, Let's Move, and national organizers such Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and PreventObesity.net, AFYF makes grants to increase the time kids spend in physical activity and increase access to healthy, affordable food.

AFYF's 2012 grants included: A three-year, $96,000 grant to The Good Samaritan Health Center is helping launch new healthy cooking and nutrition education programs serving patients of the clinic, located in the English Avenue neighborhood, and the surrounding community. In addition, a three-year, $225,000 grant to HEALing Community Center is providing families from the 30314, 30318 and 30311 ZIP codes with nutrition education, cooking classes, access to healthy foods and "Food is Medicine" prescriptions through a new Nutrition Prescription Program. With a three-year, $400,000 grant, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Hall County is expanding its Falcons Fitness Zone programming to serve 4,400 young people during the school day and during after-school hours and summers. The Clubs will partner with five elementary schools to strengthen P.E. classes in support of Governor Nathan Deal's Georgia SHAPE initiative, including administration of the annual FitnessGram assessments that test students' strength, flexibility and aerobic capacity. A $50,000 grant to After-School All-Stars Atlanta is expanding its innovative gardening program , "Project CHEW", to 15 after-school sites reaching 1,200 middle school students in City of Atlanta recreation centers and the City of Refuge. A five-year $250,000 grant to the U.S. Soccer Foundation's Soccer for Success after-school youth development program is providing nearly 700 kids at the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Atlanta (BGMCA) with 90 minutes of exercise, three days per week for 24 weeks.

ATLANTA FALCONS FIRST DOWN FOR FITNESS PRESENTED BY KIMBERLY-CLARK PROFESSIONAL, THE EMPLOYEES OF MARSH & MCLENNAN AGENCY AND PUBLIX SUPERMARKETS

In its seventh year, the Atlanta Falcons First Down for Fitness program presented by Kimberly-Clark Professional, the employees of Marsh & McLennan Agency and Publix Supermarkets is designed to challenge students in grades three through seven to participate in fitness activities and lead a healthy lifestyle. In collaboration with the American Heart Association, the Southeast United Dairy Industry Association and the NFL's "Play 60" campaign, this incentive based program rewards participants for being active at least 60 minutes a day, five days a week for three months. In 2012, nearly 52,000 students and 244 teachers in the state of Georgia and two teachers and 950 students in Mexico participated in the program.

FALCONS FITNESS FLAG CREW

During each Atlanta Falcons home game, 60 participants are selected to assist in unfurling a 40 yard by 40 yard Atlanta Falcons flag as a part of the Atlanta Falcons game day experience right before kickoff. These participants are made up of schools, military bases, youth football teams and civic/non-profit organizations. The Atlanta Falcons Fitness Flag Crew offers individuals the opportunity to partake in pre-game aerobic activities led by the Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders and an on-field rehearsal. By the conclusion of each experience, participants log nearly two miles of walking.

ATLANTA FALCONS TRAINING CAMP YOUTH WEEKEND

Hundreds of young fans participated in Atlanta Falcons Training Camp Youth Weekend during the first weekend of camp. Activities were open to children ages 17 and under and held one hour before each open practice. In 2012, Youth Weekend included: daily autograph sessions with Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders, "Look Like A Pro" where children had the chance to try on authentic Atlanta Falcons equipment, receiving a choice of a mini football or pom-pom for wearing a football jersey, cheerleading uniform or Atlanta Falcons colors at the "Rise Up" booth, "Football Flurry" which allowed young fans the chance to win autographed footballs and "Helmet and Jersey Frenzy" which allowed young fans a chance to win autographed jerseys or mini helmets.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Atlanta Falcons conduct Gatorade Junior Training Camps in schools and parks across Georgia with a special emphasis on introducing youth to the fundamentals of football through basic drills as well as exposure to hydration maintenance. In 2012, over 100 camps were conducted across the state of Georgia and an estimated 25,000 children had the opportunity to participate.

RISE UP AND SHARE

Since 2003, the Rise Up and Share program provides an opportunity for Atlanta Falcons players to connect directly with military groups, youth groups and non-profit organizations throughout the State of Georgia. Through the Rise Up and Share program, a player or player's foundation purchase 20 season tickets and t-shirts for a charity group. In 2012, 18 Atlanta Falcons players participated in this program.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

This season marked the 14th year of the NFL and United Way's partnership and celebration of Hometown Huddle. On this day, all 32 teams around the league participate in several community and volunteer activities. The Atlanta Falcons are the only team in the NFL whose entire 53-man roster and practice squad participates alongside several

COMMUNITY HONORS DINNER

Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders and members of the Atlanta Falcons Women's Association to make surprise appearances at nine different locations around metro Atlanta. Six stops included United Way-affiliated schools where the players and cheerleaders delivered new sports equipment and promoted physical fitness as part of the NFL's "Play 60" initiative, made an additional stop at a local Publix Super Market and the Atlanta Falcons Women's Association prepared and served lunch to the homeless at Crossroads Community Ministries. In 2012, the Atlanta Falcons encouraged fans to get out and volunteer in various community service opportunities offered on RISEUPATLANTA.com. Of the various opportunities available, the Atlanta Falcons Rookie Club sponsored by UnitedHealthcare of Georgia made a surprise visit to assist volunteers at Books for Africa.

PLAYER APPEARANCES

During the 2012 season, the Atlanta Falcons players participated in over 745 appearances and logging more than 3,500 hours around the state of Georgia. Visits included a fishing excursion with wounded military veterans, a visit to Dobbins Air Force Base to thank military personnel for their service, a special Thanksgiving luncheon for students at the International Community School in Decatur and Tony Gonzalez and the Atlanta Falcons Rookie Club sponsored by UnitedHealthcare of Georgia treating 40 children from the Atlanta Mission to a holiday shopping spree at a local Wal-Mart. Additional visits throughout the year included the entire roster celebrating Hometown Huddle by participating in community service all over metro Atlanta, surprise school visits, Atlanta Falcons Gatorade Junior Training Camps, hospital visits and serving meals to the homeless during the holidays.

HISPANIC HERITAGE

FALCAN FOOD DRIVE

As a standing tradition, each year the Atlanta Falcons partner with the Atlanta Community Food Bank for the annual FalCan Food Drive. In 2012, nearly 90 schools throughout the state of Georgia participated in the FalCan Food Drive School Challenge and collected nearly 62,000 pounds of canned goods and/or non-perishable food items over a four week period for the opportunity to win exciting prizes. From October 15 through November 15, fans had the opportunity to donate to the FalCan Food Drive through an easy online donation system. Including the online donations, the efforts of the FalCan Food Drive School Challenge and the Food for Sharing Program 307,911 pounds of canned goods and/or non-perishable food items were collected for the community.

BALL BOY MENTORING PROGRAM

In its eleventh year, the Ball Boy mentoring program has provided opportunities for teenage boys from the Boys and Girls Club of Hall County to assist the Atlanta Falcons equipment staff and interact with players during training camp and throughout the season. Atlanta Falcons players serve as mentors to these young men through regular meetings that provide boys the opportunity to talk to the players about schoolwork, home life and other things that may be affecting their lives.

ATLANTA FALCONS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The 2012 season was filled with several events and opportunities for the Atlanta Falcons Women's Association. Over the course of the season members had major roles in the following initiatives: Hometown Huddle, Fish Arts and Crafts with Challenged Child & Friends at the Georgia Aquarium and sorting toys at the Toys for Tots warehouse.

TOYS FOR TOTS

As a standing tradition, fans supported the Atlanta Falcons Toys for Tots drive prior to the Atlanta Falcons vs. New York Giants game on Sunday, December 16 in record fashion. With donations of over 1,000 toys and more than $20,000, together the Atlanta Falcons and the U.S. Marine Corps were able to provide deserving families with special toys during the holiday season.

TOYS FOR TOTS

FREDDIE FALCON

The official mascot of the Atlanta Falcons, makes approximately 300 appearances each year all over the state of Georgia. Appearances include school shows, pep rallies, parades, children's hospital visits, birthday parties and Valentine's Day deliveries. Freddie has two school shows: one is called PLAYBook for Fitness that promotes healthy living and incorporates important components of the NFL's Play 60 campaign; and the other is Sack Your CRCT, which encourages students to prep for their CRCT (Criterion-Referenced Competency Test) in the spring. For more information on these school shows or any other appearances please contact Freddie@falcons.nfl.com or visit www. atlantafalcons.com/Freddie. Also, you can follow Freddie Falcon on Twitter or Like him on Facebook.

COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK AWARD

The Atlanta Falcons Community Quarterback Award honors volunteers in the state of Georgia (ages 13 and over) who exemplify leadership and dedication to bettering their communities. Many organizations rely on quality volunteers to create and facilitate programs that benefit countless lives throughout Georgia. The Community Quarterback Award is designed to recognize and reward these volunteers. . Each month during the 2012 season, September through December, an Atlanta Falcons Community Quarterback of the month winner was selected by a panel of civic and non-profit leaders. Each winner received a $1,000 grant from the NFL Foundation to support the organization served. The Community Quarterback MVP was announced at the annual Community Honors Dinner and received an additional $4,000 grant from NFL Foundation.

FALCONS JR CHEERLEADERS

ATLANTA FALCONS JUNIOR CHEERLEADERS

In 2012, girls ages 5-16 had the opportunity to cheer for their home team by participating in the Atlanta Falcons Junior Cheerleaders program. Participants of the program receive many great things including: a game day uniform, pom poms, a practice t-shirt, three instructional clinics taught by the Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders and a tailgate party on performance day. Nearly 300 girls performed in front of tens of thousands of fans during halftime of a Falcons home game. Participants also helped support Rally 4 Quarters 4 Research, a change collection program, in which all proceeds directly benefit childhood cancer research. The girls collected nearly $900 that helped support the Rally Foundation for Childhood Cancer Research.

ADMINISTRATION

ARTHUR BLANK

OWNER & CHAIRMAN

Championship pedigrees in the National Football League are earned through hard work, attention to the smallest details, and a burning desire to continuously raise the bar.

Atlanta Falcons Owner & Chairman Arthur Blank not only understands these facts of life in today's NFL, he embraces them.

Driven by the tireless pursuit of a Super Bowl championship for the city of Atlanta and his Falcons, Blank, now in his 12th season as an NFL owner, has shaped his club into one of the most successful organizations in professional sports both on and off the field.

Taking control of a franchise in 2002 that had made the playoffs just six times over 36 seasons (17 percent), the Falcons have now become perennial post-season contenders, earning playoff berths in 6 of his 11 years as owner (55 percent), including consecutive playoff appearances in the last three seasons. Since 2008, the Falcons not only recorded its first back-to-back winning seasons, but have a streak of five consecutive winning seasons, leading the NFC in number of wins during the same period (56).

Atlanta's 31-18 victory over the Detroit Lions in a nationally-televised game on FOX late in 2012 marked the 100th career victory for Blank as owner of the Falcons. His club would go on to post a 13-3 record en route to earning their first playoff victory since 2004 with a thrilling 30-28 come-from-behind win over the Seattle Seahawks in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game at the Georgia Dome.

Blank's Falcons have enjoyed unprecedented success since the 2008 season when he hired the dynamic duo of General Manager Thomas Dimitroff and Head Coach Mike Smith. Dimitroff was a long-time scout and talent evaluator for the New England Patriots; Smith was a career assistant coach in the college and, more recently, professional ranks with Baltimore and Jacksonville.

Several NFL observers publicly wondered whether Blank had gambled on the rookie tandem. Five years later, Blank's calculated gamble is a prototype for a number of other NFL clubs that have followed Atlanta's model to recalibrate their football front offices.

Atlanta's sound formula of drafting and acquiring skilled players who are then groomed by a veteran coaching staff has produced a Falcons team that will enter the 2013 season with high expectations.

"The currency of the NFL is winning," Blank said. "We've won a lot of games, but they are steps toward our ultimate goal. Our ultimate goal is to have a parade down Peachtree Street with the Lombardi Trophy in hand."

To accomplish this goal, Blank has empowered and supported Dimitroff and Smith, who have turned the Falcons into one of the NFL's top teams. Since 2008, the Falcons hold a 32-15 record (.681 winning percentage) against teams on their 2013 schedule. Several national sports publications have predicted the Falcons will once again be one of the League's most dominate teams in the 2013 season based on the club's productive offseason, which included solid moves in the draft and free agency.

Dimitroff, who earned Executive of the Year honors from Sporting News in two of his first five seasons as Atlanta's general manager, is the supremely talented personnel point man for an organization whose roster is filled with current Pro Bowl players and future All-Pro performers. Dimitroff and his astute personnel department have built Atlanta's roster through the draft, bolstering it with a series of strategic player acquisitions in free agency and through trades.

As proof, franchise cornerstones selected through the draft since 2008 include QB Matt Ryan, WR Julio Jones, LB Sean Weatherspoon, LT Sam Baker, S Thomas DeCoud and S William Moore. Ryan, Jones, DeCoud, and Moore were all named to the NFC's Pro Bowl team in 2012.

It's a roster built to last. Of the 46 players selected in the draft from 2008 through 2012, a remarkable 34 draftees remain on the Falcons roster entering the 2013 season, and 39 – or 85 percent – remain active players in the NFL.

Whether it is selecting players in the draft or acquiring them through free agency, the Falcons believe in being collaborative.

"Thomas and Mike work very well together," Blank said. "These two men may not always have the same opinions, but they share a common vision of success for our club. Combined with team President & CEO Rich McKay, who provides strong support to Thomas and Smitty and heads up our front office operations, we have a strong leadership team that is second to none in the League."

Atlanta's players are led by Coach Smith, the fiery head coach who in 2012 became the first coach in franchise history to reach 50 wins – and the third fastest since the NFL merger in 1970 to reach 50 wins – accomplishing the feat in 71 games. Smith is a three-time Coach of the Year winner from Sporting News (2008, 2010, and 2012) and a two-time Coach of the Year recipient from the prestigious KC 101 Club following the 2008 and 2010 seasons. His 56-24 regular season record is the fifth-best mark in the NFL since 2008.

Smith's 56 wins in his first five seasons are also the second-most among any first time head coach in NFL history, behind only George Seifert (San Francisco, 62-18, 1989-1993). Aided by core principles built around playing fundamentally sound football in all three phases of the game, the Falcons, since 2008, have posted a 44-2 record in games where they lead at halftime, and a 42-1 record in contests where they hold the lead at the beginning of the fourth quarter.

One of Smith's key elements to being a relevant franchise year after year is winning at home. Since 2008, the Georgia Dome has become a "House of Horrors" for visiting NFL clubs as the Falcons have produced a dominating 33-7 home record (.825 winning percentage), the best home record in the NFC and tied with the Baltimore Ravens for the second-best record in the NFL.

The sustainability and relevance of the Falcons has provided numerous opportunities for the franchise and city of Atlanta to be showcased on national television. During the 2013 season, the Falcons will be spotlighted in five prime time national games, adding to the four national games played in each of the past two seasons.

BLANK'S NFL SUCCESS

Atlanta's success under Blank isn't all that surprising or unexpected. The Falcons have become a model franchise in the eyes of the national media based on winning games on the field and being good citizens in the community off the field. Both of those factors speak directly to Blank's focus and leadership.

ARTHUR BLANK

"I see the inner-workings of many NFL teams during my travels covering the League," said ESPN National NFL Columnist Ashley Fox. "The Falcons are one of the best run franchises in the entire NFL and it all starts with Mr. Blank. He scored big when he hired Thomas Dimitroff and Mike Smith, who have turned the Falcons into consistent winners. The Falcons are among the NFL's elite because Arthur Blank gets it."

Blank understands that consistency is at the forefront of becoming a perennial winner in the ultra-competitive world of the NFL. He also knows that in spite of all of the success his club has enjoyed over the past five seasons, there sometimes will be setbacks.

"Nobody was happy with the result of our final game of the 2012 season," Blank said. "We had a great season, but we came up short. The NFL isn't easy. It's a tough league, but our coaching staff and our players are up to it. We've had a very productive offseason, and I think we'll be a better team in 2013 than we were in 2012."

NEW ATLANTA STADIUM

Even as the Falcons prepare for the 2013 season, Blank and his front office leadership team are preparing for the long-term future of the club. Early in 2013, the Falcons reached an agreement with the Georgia World Congress Center Authority and the city of Atlanta for the construction of a new multi-purpose stadium that will be located in downtown Atlanta.

The state-of-the-art facility is being designed by 360 Architecture and its joint venture partners, and will be constructed by the Holder Hunt Russell Moody joint venture.

"Our goal for the new Falcons stadium is to re-imagine the entire game day experience and create a stadium that will become an iconic destination for sports fans and visitors from all over the world," 360 Senior Principal Bill Johnson said.

Construction for the retractable roof stadium will begin in 2014, and the Falcons will begin playing in the new stadium in the 2017 season. In addition to Falcons games, the new stadium will host other events currently held in the Georgia Dome, as well as potentially host new marquee events such as the Super Bowl, FIFA World Cup, and the College Football National Championship Game – all of which are significant economic impact generators for the city and state.

"Governor Deal and Mayor Reed have a vision that provides for the long-term health and prosperity of our city and state," Blank noted. "We appreciate the spirit of collaboration demonstrated by these two men, along with a host of other government and community leaders, in building a successful public-private partnership that will benefit the city, region, and state for many years to come."

COMMITMENT TO FANS

Whether it's The Home Depot – the company Blank co-founded and led until his retirement as co-chairman in 2001 – or the Atlanta Falcons, Blank has always subscribed to the idea of hiring the best and brightest people and providing an environment for collaboration, creativity, and continuous improvement.

Blank also understands people and he believes that listening is what matters most. Whether it is customers, fans, players, coaches, or associates, Blank listens, seeks to understand, and responds to all of them and expects all of his associates to do the same.

"Winning is a critical element of the game day experience for our fans," Blank said. "However, it's important that we offer everything our fans need from the time they leave their driveway to the time they arrive in ours. We want to make the total game day experience for our fans the best in the NFL."

The Falcons' "Rise Up" mantra provides a centerpiece. Four years ago, Blank challenged a team of his front office leadership staff to create a new standard and tradition for the Falcons brand and to put in place innovative brand policies designed to expand the club's overall image both in Atlanta and nationally. What Blank's team came up with is the successful "Rise Up" campaign that was introduced by A-list Hollywood actor Samuel L. Jackson.

The campaign, which focuses on a team, an organization, a fan base, and a community rising up together to try to win a championship, was unveiled in the spring of 2010. Jackson's impassioned call for Atlanta and the Falcons to "Rise Up" together quickly became a rallying cry, as well as a show of solidarity inside and outside the Georgia Dome.

Since its introduction in 2010, the campaign elements have expanded to include local celebrities; government, civic and sports industry leaders; and Falcons fans. The 2013 season will bring a new and exciting twist to "Rise Up" as the Falcons respond to fans' strong desire to continue the tradition.

COMMITMENT TO COMMUNITY

One of the hallmarks of Blank's philosophy is giving back to the community. The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation and Atlanta Falcons have a long history of investing in projects that help others in need, enhance neighborhoods, and improve the quality of life throughout Atlanta.

Since its inception in 1995, The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation has granted nearly $300 million to non-profit organizations, with approximately $200 million of the total focused on metro Atlanta, including the Vine City and English Avenue neighborhoods near the Georgia Dome and the new stadium.

Blank has publicly committed to making further significant investments in these communities. Earlier this year, the Blank Foundation announced plans for the creation of the Blank Foundation Neighborhood Prosperity Fund for the purpose of igniting positive change and improving the quality of life in the neighborhoods surrounding the new stadium. This fund will seek to co-invest with an additional $15 million committed to the neighborhoods by Invest Atlanta, the economic development authority for the City of Atlanta.

The Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation invests in innovative approaches to improve youth fitness and reduce childhood obesity across Georgia. Since 2002, the foundation has awarded more than $20 million in grants to more than 900 non-profit organizations. In 2005, the Falcons Youth Foundation launched its Falcons Fitness Zones where, through grant partners, the Foundation engages more than 10,000 kids a year in more than one million hours of physical activity.

Additionally, Atlanta Falcons players, coaches, cheerleaders, and associates remain among the most active community citizens in the NFL, contributing an average of 3,000 hours of their collective personal time each season. Much of this time is spent participating in Atlanta Falcons community relations programs and initiatives, which support a variety of issues and activities, including health and fitness, the development of youth/prep football, breast cancer awareness, combating hunger, outreach in underserved communities, and salute to service.

'It's important to the franchise and it's important to me that everyone associated with our organization embraces our commitment to the community," Blank said. "Not only do I want our players to perform on the field, I want everyone to be good citizens in the community, as well."

One of the most important days of the year for Blank's Family of Businesses is All Associates Day – a day when associates from across Blank's various businesses come together to tackle designated community projects in the Metro Atlanta area.

Earlier this year, Blank and approximately 180 of his associates gathered at KIPP WAYS Academy in the Washington Park community of Atlanta for a day of painting and landscaping. In addition, they participated in Atlanta Habitat for Humanity's "Brush With Kindness" program, repairing and painting the exteriors of five homes in the English Avenue neighborhood.

Blank's other businesses, which include PGA TOUR Superstore and Mountain Sky Guest Ranch, also support the communities surrounding their locations through non-profit grants and community outreach.

Blank's dedication and commitment to the community can also be traced back to his days at The Home Depot. During his tenure, the company donated more than $113 million to the communities it served. In addition, associates provided hundreds of thousands of hours of personal volunteer time on various charitable and community activities.

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

A native of Flushing, N.Y., Blank attended Stuyvesant High School in Manhattan, where he competed on the football, baseball, and track teams. He received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration with Distinction from Babson College, where he was active in a variety of extracurricular activities. He co-founded The Home Depot in 1978 and retired from the company as Co-Chairman in 2001. At the time of his retirement, The Home Depot was a component of the Dow Jones Industrial Average and one of Fortune magazine's "Global Most Admired Companies." During Blank's last year as CEO of the company, The Home Depot ranked first in social responsibility in an annual survey conducted by Harris Interactive, Inc.

Blank is recognized throughout the nation for his personal and professional achievements. In 2012, he received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from the University of Georgia. In 2011, he was the recipient of the Freeing Voices, Changing Lives Award from the American Institute for Stuttering. In 2010, he was recognized by the Council for Quality Growth for his philanthropic endeavors as well as his significant contributions to economic development and quality of life.

In 2008, Blank received an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from the University of South Carolina-Bluffton. In 2006, he was named a Distinguished American by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, which annually recognizes an individual who has utilized his or her talents to attain great success in business, private life, or public service.

Also in 2006, Blank was inducted into the Junior Achievement U.S. Business Hall of Fame, and was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities from Furman University. In 2005, he was named National Entrepreneur of the Year by Ernst & Young. In 2003, for the second time in three years, Blank was named Georgia's Most Respected CEO by Georgia Trend magazine, and in 2002 he was inducted into Georgia State University's Business Hall of Fame. Among other previous honors, Babson College inducted Blank into its Academy of Distinguished Entrepreneurs in 1995 and conferred on him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree in 1998.

Blank serves on a number of boards including the Board of Trustees of The Carter Center, Inc.; the Board of Trustees of The Cooper Institute; and the boards of Cox Enterprises, Inc., and Staples, Inc.

Blank has six children and three grandchildren. A strong believer in work-life balance, Blank still makes time daily for working out and spending time with his family.

RICH MCKAY

PRESIDENT & CEO

Falcons President & CEO, Rich McKay is entering his 10th season with the Atlanta Falcons. After serving the first eight years as President of the Atlanta Falcons, McKay was promoted to President and CEO of the club by Owner and Chairman Arthur M. Blank on September 1, 2011.

McKay's long-term involvement in the NFL includes many notable achievements. He played pivotal roles in two successful stadium negotiations (Atlanta and Tampa Bay), he was the General Manager and chief football architect for a Super Bowl championship team in Tampa Bay (XXXVII), he has served as an active participant within the NFL's committee system to help advance the game and the NFL's business and was substantially involved in the Collective Bargaining Agreement negotiations which led to the current multi-year agreement signed in 2011 with the NFL and the NFL Players Association.

McKay has been a member of the NFL's Competition Committee for the past 20 years. He became Co-Chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee in 1998 and on March 1, 2011, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell named McKay Chairman of the committee which is comprised of NFL head coaches and League executives who study the game and recommend rules changes and modifications to ensure player safety while promoting competitiveness among all 32 of the League's franchises.

For the past eight years, McKay has served on the NFL Management Council Working Group of League executives that helps advise on collective bargaining issues. During the 2011 off-season, McKay played a pivotal role in helping to negotiate a new Collective Bargaining Agreement with the players that resulted in labor peace for the next eight years.

"Of all of the club executives, Rich had the most sustained and substantial involvement," said NFL Executive Vice President/General Counsel Jeff Pash. "We had a lot of club people who were involved in many phases of our planning, but Rich had the most direct ongoing involvement in the negotiations."

McKay, working very closely with Mr. Blank, recently reached an agreement with the Georgia World Congress Center, the Atlanta City Council, and Invest Atlanta on key terms for the construction of a new stadium for the Falcons that will be located in downtown Atlanta.

Construction for the new Falcons stadium will begin in 2014. The state-of-the-art facility will be designed by 360 Architecture based in Kansas City, Missouri, and be constructed by Atlanta-based Holder Construction Company partnering with Hunt Construction Group, Inc., H. J. Russell & Company and C.D. Moody Construction Company. The Falcons will begin playing in the new stadium in the fall of 2017.

McKay's career as of one of the top front office executives in all of professional sports began as Tampa Bay's General Counsel in 1986 before rising to General Manager of the Buccaneers in 1994.

McKay played a pivotal role in the construction of Raymond James Stadium – Tampa Bay's state-of-the-art, open-air facility which hosted Super Bowl XXXV in 2001 and Super Bowl XLIII in 2009. McKay, along with Buccaneers Co-chairmen Bryan and Joel Glazer, negotiated the terms of the lease of Raymond James Stadium.

In the spring of 2008, McKay assisted Falcons Owner & Chairman Arthur Blank in the hiring process that landed Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff and Head Coach Mike Smith.

Since those hirings, the Falcons have compiled a 56-24 regular season record which is the second-best mark in the NFL over that five-year span behind the New England Patriots, who have posted a 60-20 record since 2008.

McKay's 22 seasons as an NFL executive have been marked by several significant highlights:

- During 13 seasons as an NFL General Manager, McKay was the football architect who built six teams that reached the NFC playoffs, three that reached the NFC Championship Game and one team that won a Super Bowl title. His overall record as an NFL General Manager was 112-96 with a winning playoff record of 6-5.

- McKay worked with three different NFL head coaches who guided their respective teams to the NFC Championship Game (Tony Dungy 1999 with Tampa Bay; Jon Gruden 2002 with Tampa Bay; and Jim Mora 2004 with Atlanta).

- McKay's personnel scouting acumen was a successful formula which produced 59 players that played in the Pro Bowl during his time as an NFL General Manager. Tampa Bay's 41 Pro Bowl selections between 1997 through 2002 were the most in the NFL. To put it into perspective, the Buccaneers only had 19 Pro Bowl selections in the first 21 years of their history leading up to 1997.

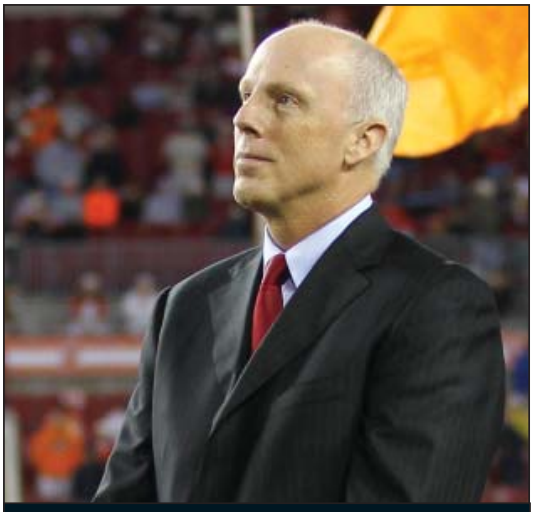
- McKay's first pick ever as an NFL GM in 1995 was DT Warren Sapp, now an in-studio analyst for NFL Network and his second pick (also in 1995) was LB Derrick Brooks, an 11-time Pro Bowler for the Buccaneers who serves as a guest analyst for ESPN's First Take and Sirius Satellite radio. Sapp and Brooks combined to make 18 Pro Bowl appearances during their tenures with the Buccaneers. Both players were named to the NFL's Top 75 Draft Picks of all time by NFL Network in 2011. Sapp was voted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame earlier this year during his first year of eligibility and will be enshrined in Canton, Ohio on August 3.

- As a GM, nine of McKay's top former lieutenants have risen through the ranks to sit in the General Manager's chair at other NFL franchises. The men currently occupying those roles in the NFL include Ruston Webster (Tennessee Titans), Mark Dominik (Tampa Bay Buccaneers), Les Snead (St. Louis Rams), Phil Emery (Chicago Bears) and John Idzik (New York Jets).

- While many of the players McKay drafted developed into NFL stars on the field, several have been Pro Bowl performers from a charitable standpoint, as well. Atlanta Falcons Limited Partner Warrick Dunn, whom McKay drafted in 1997, was the recipient of the 2004 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year award. This award is presented annually to the NFL's most philanthropic player. Derrick Brooks was also a co-recipient of the award in 2000.

- Arguably one of the brightest moments of McKay's distin-guished NFL career took place in sunny San Diego, California on January 26, 2003 when he completed the overhaul of the Buccaneers – long considered one of the worst franchises in professional sports. Tampa Bay's 48–21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII vaulted the Buccaneers from the basement of professional sports to the top of the NFL universe.

- McKay was the 2005 recipient of the Jack Horrigan Award. This award is presented annually by the Pro Football Writers of America to the club or League office executive who is the most helpful and coop–erative with the local and national news media that report on the NFL.



RICH MCKAY

The McKay family is arguably one of the most influential families in football with substantial roots in both the collegiate and professional game. Rich's late father, the legendary John McKay, led the University of Southern California Trojans to four National Championships in 16 seasons. Rich's older brother J.K. McKay, an executive in the USC athletic department, was a starting wide receiver for the Trojans and was part of two national championship teams (1972 & 1974) and played in three Rose Bowl games while playing for his father. Between the three McKay's, they have won six National Championships, participated as a player or coach in 12 Rose Bowls, participated as a coach, player or team executive in six NFL Conference Championship Games, won two National Collegiate Coach of the Year Awards, won one XFL Championship as a General Manager, won one Super Bowl Championship as a General Manager and had two draft picks selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Lee Roy Selmon – the first pick for John McKay as a NFL Head Coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1976 and Warren Sapp – the first pick for Rich McKay as an NFL General Manager in 1995).

Coach McKay's legacy was honored last year with the opening of the $70 million, 110,000 square-foot new Athletic Center at USC named The John McKay Center. The center opened during the summer of 2012 and serves as the home of all USC athletics. Coach McKay had also previously been inducted into the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Ring of Honor as its second member in 2010.

Rich earned his Bachelor's degree in Economics in 1981 from Princeton University. He graduated from Stetson's

College of Law in 1984 and clerked for two years for Tampa's U.S. District Judge William Terrell Hodges. McKay worked at the Tampa law firm of Hill, Ward, and Henderson, P.A., from 1986-1992 where he served as General Counsel for the Buccaneers.

Born March 16, 1959 in Eugene, Oregon, McKay grew up in Los Angeles and Tampa, graduating from Tampa's Jesuit High School.

As an avid long distance runner, Rich has participated in and finished two New York City Marathons, an Atlanta Marathon, and in March of this year completed the Los Angeles Marathon.

McKay and his wife, Terrin, have two sons; Hunter, a 2012 graduate of Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama who is now employed in the Sports Information Office at Kennesaw State University in Kennesaw, Ga., and John, a junior at USC in Los Angeles.

THOMAS DIMITROFF

GENERAL MANAGER

The Atlanta Falcons have won more games than any other team in the NFC since 2008 (56-24), and General Manager Thomas Dimitroff is the architect of a roster that has become one of the most competitive in the NFL. He and co-team builder, Head Coach Mike Smith, have built the Falcons into one of the most consistent franchises over the last five seasons.

Dimitroff has been named Executive of the Year by Sporting News two times (2008 & 2010) during his five seasons in Atlanta. In the draft, he has selected franchise cornerstones QB Matt Ryan, WR Julio Jones, LB Sean Weatherspoon, LT Sam Baker, S Thomas DeCoud and S William Moore and he has added key veterans via free agency and trades like TE Tony Gonzalez, RB Steven Jackson, DE Osi Umenyiora, and CB Asante Samuel to shore up key positions.

Since his first day on the job, Dimitroff has brought the philosophical approach of building through the draft and supplementing with free agency. With the help of his scouting department, Dimitroff has made the Atlanta Falcons the class of the NFL when it comes to keeping and growing the players a team drafts. Since 2008, the Falcons rank second in the NFL in draft retention (73.9 pct.). From 2008 through 2011, Atlanta selected 46 players in the draft and an astonishing 34 draftees remained on the roster entering the 2012 season. Also during that time, 39 of the Falcons 46 selections are active players in the NFL (84.8 pct.), which is the seventh best mark in the League since 2008.

Atlanta's 2013 offseason was full of moves to fill needs along the offensive and defensive sides of the ball. Dimitroff and the Falcons front office were systematic with their approach and did not rush into free agency. His patience paid off as the Birds landed Jackson and Umenyiora prior to the draft.

A two-time All-Pro selection, Jackson is the NFL's leading rusher among active players with 10,135 yards. He is the only active player with more than 10,000 career yards and just the 27th player in NFL history to achieve that milestone. Additionally, he is one of just 14 running backs in NFL history to total 10,000 rushing yards and 3,000 receiving yards.

Umenyiora, a two-time Super Bowl champion and two-time Pro Bowl defensive end, has tallied 430 total tackles (155 solo) with 75 sacks, 31 forced fumbles, and 13 fumble recoveries in 129 games over his 10-year career. Since 2003, Umenyiora's 75 career sacks rank ninth in the NFL.

Dimitroff's calculated, yet aggressive tactics on draft day came into play once again during the 2013 Draft. Since arriving in Atlanta, the Falcons have made at least one trade during the draft and that approach continued this year. Atlanta held the 30th pick in the first round, but they knew the player they coveted would not make it past the 23rd selection. Dimitroff called one of his former lieutenants and now General Manager of the St. Louis Rams, Les Snead who held the 22nd pick. The trade allowed the Falcons to acquire CB Desmond Trufant from the University of Washington. Trufant was the player Atlanta had their sights set on the entire time, but Dimitroff knew they would have to be aggressive to make sure they obtained their target.

"We knew who we were targeting. We knew who we were going after," Dimitroff said immediately following selecting Trufant. "That's part of our deal as an organization that we research properly and know the needs of the other team. Lionel Vital and his staff have done a great job of knowing the needs of other teams. We thought there were a number of teams in the back stretch of the first round that would be targeting corners. Again, we weren't going to run the chance of running the risk of not having a guy like this on our team. That's why we made our move."

Dimitroff's astute moves to acquire talent have helped produce 56 wins since 2008, four playoff appearances, two NFC South Division crowns and a trip to the NFC Championship game in 2012. Last season, the Falcons continued to produce on the field by securing the NFC's top seed with a 13-3 record en route to their third consecutive playoff appearance and fourth in five seasons.

One of his goals when he arrived in Atlanta was to make this franchise a relevant and sustainable organization, and in just five seasons at the helm, Dimitroff and his group have continued to build and improve upon the foundation that was laid in 2008. Since 2008, the Falcons have posted a NFC-best 56-24 regular season record, which is the second highest win total in the NFL and they are the only team to post five consecutive winning seasons in the NFC over that same time period (11-5, 9-7, 13-3, 10-6, 13-3). Despite the team's success since his arrival, the determined and driven Dimitroff is not going to allow the Falcons to become complacent and he understands that there is still a lot that needs to be accomplished.

Following the 2011 campaign, Dimitroff and Smith both knew there was a lot of work that needed to be done to get where they ultimately wanted to get this team.

"Personally I have little patience for football teams who don't step onto the field with fiery passion. We have talked about that since the time we arrived here in 2008," said Dimitroff at the team's 2011 season ending press conference. "That is what Mike Smith is about. It's definitely what I am about and I know it's what Arthur Blank is about. We' are vehemently opposed to sitting back and being a hesitant football team."

Dimitroff's statement at the end of the 2011 season coupled with his drive to excel and Coach Smith's guidance on the field propelled the Falcons to an NFC-best 13-3 record in 2012. Prior to the 2012 Draft, Dimitroff made another aggressive move to help fill a need on the roster. The Falcons did not have a first round selection, but Dimitroff did not let that deter him from adding an impact player to the fold. As the Draft approached, he reached out the Philadelphia Eagles to see if there was any way he could re-unite with former New England Patriots CB Asante Samuel. The move was made to acquire the four-time Pro Bowl corner and two-time Super Bowl Champion on April 25, 2011 when the Falcons sent a seventh round selection to the Eagles for Samuel. The move paid dividends immediately as Samuel started 15 games and tallied 39 tackles, a team-high 19 passes defensed and five interceptions in his first season with the Falcons.

Samuel was not the only Dimitroff acquisition that led the Birds to the NFC Championship Game for the first time since 2004. Atlanta had three players voted to the Pro Bowl last season and all three were acquired by Dimitroff. His first ever draft pick, QB Matt Ryan, future Hall of Fame tight end Tony Gonzalez and 2011 first round draft pick Julio Jones all made the Pro Bowl and also played key roles in the Falcons securing their first playoff victory in the Dimitroff and Smith regime.

QB Matt Ryan, the third overall selection in the 2008 Draft, flourished under the guidance of Offensive Coordinator Dirk Koetter in their first season together. Ryan set career and franchise single-season highs in passing yards (4,719), attempts (615), completions (422), touchdown passes (32) and completion percentage (68.6) while starting all 16 games. He also helped guide the Falcons offense to the seventh ranked passing attack (292.0 ypg) in the NFL and the sixth ranked scoring offense (26.2 ppg) in the NFL. Ryan earned his second Pro Bowl appearance last season while leading Atlanta to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 2004.

Despite suffering a first round playoff loss to the New York Giants in 2011, Atlanta's 2011 regular season was filled with memorable moments and significant accomplishments. Ryan produced a solid season by setting at that time the franchise record for passing yards (4,177) in addition to throwing 29 touchdowns and a finishing the season with a 92.2 passer rating. Ryan's record setting performance was joined by RB Michael Turner and WR Roddy White also entering the pages of Falcons history. Turner broke RB Gerald Riggs' franchise record of 48 rushing touchdowns, with two scores against Tampa Bay in Week 17, giving him 50 as a Falcon. "The Burner" also led the NFC in rushing yards with 1,340 yards and added 11 touchdowns on the season.

In each season since ascending to the General Managers position in Atlanta, Dimitroff has astutely engineered key moves and deftly drafted a solid nucleus of players to bolster the Falcons roster.

In his first year on the job, he landed Ryan in the draft and added Turner, a two-time Pro Bowler in free agency. Heading into the 2009 season, the perception was the Falcons needed a pass catching tight end. Dimitroff answered the bell once again by orchestrating a trade with the Kansas City Chiefs to obtain the most prolific tight end in NFL history and future Hall of Famer, Tony Gonzalez. After finishing 9-7 in 2009, the fanbase wanted help on the defensive side of the ball and Dimitroff and his staff brought in former Defensive Rookie of the Year CB Dunta Robinson and selected OLB Sean Weatherspoon with the 19th pick, in addition to drafting defensive tackle Corey Peters in the third round (83rd overall).

Dimitroff did not rest on his laurels during the 2011 Draft. His philosophy of addressing the needs of the team and being aggresive if the organization believes it is the right move was put on display once again. Atlanta held the 27th overall pick entering the draft. While most thought Dimitroff would stay put and take the best player available at 27, he had a different thought. Dimitroff reached out to the Cleveland Browns, who held the number six pick, in hopes of landing an impactful player to help the team. With Dimitroff's keen sense for the draft and talent evaluation, the Falcons manufactured a trade with the Browns and selected University of Alabama wide receiver Julio Jones with the sixth pick.

In 2010, Atlanta's 13-3 mark was spearheaded by Ryan. He set then career highs in passing attempts (571), touchdowns (28), yards (3,705), completion percentage (62.5), quarterback rating (91.0) and set a franchise record for completions (357). His performance earned him his first Pro Bowl appearance and was joined by eight of his teammates. Ryan enjoyed the company of defensive end John Abraham, tackle Tyson Clabo, tight end Tony Gonzalez, cornerback Brent Grimes, fullback Ovie Mughelli, running back Michael Turner, specialist Eric Weems and wide receiver Roddy White in Hawaii. The Falcons roster, which Dimitroff and his staff devote countless hours into also produced four players who earned All-Pro honors in 2010. Abraham and White were each All-Pro first team selections, while Mughelli and Turner garnered second team recognition.

GM Thomas Dimitroff & CB Desmond Trufant

Dimitroff's forward thinking and aggressive but calculated nature has allowed the Falcons to be players in the free agency market each year, and the 2010 offseason was no different. He knew he wanted to upgrade the defense and Dimitroff and his staff wasted little time in doing so.

With an eye towards improving a young Falcons secondary, Dimitroff targeted and signed talented five-year veteran cornerback Dunta Robinson from the Houston Texans two days after free agency opened. An Athens, Georgia native, Robinson brought a veteran presence and a stalwart reputation back home with him. His impact was felt throughout the defense as DE John Abraham collected 13 sacks and the corner opposite of Robinson, Brent Grimes, posted a franchise-high 23 passes defensed and tied for the team lead in interceptions with five.

The Robinson signing allowed Dimitroff important flexibility when entering his third draft. Dimitroff enjoyed another successful needs-based draft in 2010, selecting speedy, playmaking outside linebacker Sean Weatherspoon from Missouri with the 19th overall pick in the first round. Additional picks included defensive tackle Corey Peters (Kentucky) and offensive lineman Michael Johnson (Alabama), as well as offensive lineman Joe Hawley (4th round, UNLV), cornerback Dominique Franks (5th round, Oklahoma), wide receiver Kerry Meier (5th round, Kansas), and safety Shann Schillinger (6th round, Montana). Weatherspoon and Peters have proved to be strong players since 2010. Last season, Weatherspoon tallied 114 tackles, six tackles for loss, four passes defensed, three sacks, one interception, one fumble recovery and one forced fumble in 13 games. Peters missed the first six games of the 2013 season, but still produced 20 tackles, one forced fumble and one pass defensed.

Although the Falcons have produced some impressive accomplishments in his first four years on the job, for the architect behind the transformation of the new look Falcons, it is not enough. Dimitroff strives for so much more.

Every move Dimitroff makes is well-thought out and calculated and forward-thinking with one goal in mind. Assembling the best football team he can is paramount in his daily thought process and he's aggressively determined to get the Falcons to the next level.

That inherent, tireless drive is one of the main reasons why Dimitroff has been so successful throughout his 20-plus years in the NFL. A product of the championship producing ways in New England, Dimitroff is all about building a winner who is able to compete at the highest level each and every season. He has an acute ability to not only focus on the team's needs of the present, but to plan for a sustainable future for the franchise. These traits are what many around the NFL respect about Dimitroff, but none more than his head coach.

"Thomas is one of the most forward thinking guys I have ever been around," said Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith. "As coaches, we are always thinking week to week and personnel guys have timelines that are much further down the road. Thomas' forethought, in terms of personnel moves, is his strength. As a coach, you're worried about Sunday, but he is looking out for the long term future of the organization, which is impressive. His vision on how to put this team together is the most impressive thing about him."

The 2009 Atlanta Falcons capped off their first back-to-back winning seasons in the history of the franchise with a 20-10 victory at Tampa Bay in the season finale. For long-time Falcons fans, this was quite a monumental feat. But for Dimitroff and his staff, this was just another block in the foundation for this young Falcons team.

Before the 2009 season kicked off, Dimitroff went looking for another target for Ryan and the Falcons offense to improve their efficiency when he traded for future Hall of Fame tight end Tony Gonzalez of the Kansas City Chiefs on the eve of the 2009 draft. Gonzalez delivered in a big way with 83 receptions, second-best on team, and six touchdowns, including the game-winner at the New York Jets on a fourth down with 1:38 remaining. Gonzalez was also a positive and winning presence in the Falcons locker room. He possesses the type of leadership qualities Dimitroff looks to add to the roster each season.

Part of Dimitroff's master plan also includes adding other veterans when needed to shore up his units. For example in 2009, he signed savvy veteran players like linebacker Mike Peterson and cornerback Brian Williams. Peterson finished second on the team with 140 tackles, starting all 16 games, while Williams supplied a punch to the secondary for the first five starts to the season before being lost with a knee injury.

When he feels he needs to make a move to bolster the roster or retain core players, the decisive Dimitroff doesn't stand idle for very long. He extended the contract of veteran wide receiver Roddy White prior to the start of the '09 regular season. White responded with another stellar campaign that landed him in his second straight Pro Bowl with a team leading 85 catches for 1,153 yards and a career-best 11 touchdowns.

The momentum from the Gonzalez trade and the other free agent acquisitions carried over a week later as Dimitroff completed the second draft of his tenure with the '09 selections of defensive tackle Peria Jerry, safety William Moore, cornerback Christopher Owens, defensive end Lawrence Sidbury, tackle Garrett Reynolds, defensive tackle Vance Walker and linebacker Spencer Adkins. Despite missing most of their rookie seasons, the selections of Jerry and Moore payed dividends in 2010. Jerry continued to recover from his injury, and recorded two sacks, four tackles for loss and one pass defensed. Moore started 15 games at safety and tied for the team lead in interceptions (five) while adding 108 tackles, eight passes defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. The two will look to continue to improve in 2012.

In 2008, Dimitroff's first move was signing talented free agent running back Michael Turner from San Diego. Turner fittingly exploded onto the scene as a full-time starter for the first time in his career, finishing with 1,699 rushing yards with a club record 17 touchdowns on his way to his first Pro Bowl, while finishing second in MVP voting.

Dimitroff's initial '08 draft was a windfall, delivering franchise quarterback Matt Ryan, the consensus NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, starting left tackle Sam Baker, starting middle linebacker and All-NFL rookie selection, Curtis Lofton, and eventual starting free safety Thomas DeCoud. His adept choices also included solid contributors in wide receiver Harry Douglas and defensive end Kroy Biermann.

Dimitroff's belief that the NFL draft is a major building block to establish a team's foundation for years to come has been the impetus for the Falcons' winning ways since 2008.

His first five drafts reaped huge benefits as 17 out of 37 picks have started at least one game and 28 rookies have been active on game day since 2008. Eight rookies have started on opening day from the first five draft classes under Dimitroff.

All of these major moves prove Dimitroff will do whatever it takes to make the Falcons roster better whenever he sees the opportunity. His timely maneuvers have helped the Falcons post a notable 56 victories over the past five seasons, which is the second highest total in the NFL from 2008-12.

Dimitroff directs all aspects of football operations with the Falcons and working with Head Coach Mike Smith has final authority over all personnel decisions related to the signing of free agents, the selection of players in the draft, trades, and related decisions. He will also handle coordinating other football-related activities with Coach Smith.

Dimitroff has earned his climb up the NFL mountain to General Manager by working his way through the scouting trails as a combine/BLESTO Scout, an Area Scout, National Scout, and College Director of Scouting.

His father was a big influence on his life. Tom Dimitroff was a high school, college, and pro coach turned NFL scout (and a former NFL quarterback for the old Boston Patriots). Other key influences that have also helped shape Dimitroff's philosophy today and aided in his rise to his current post include Kansas City Chiefs General Manager Scott Pioli and New England Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick.

The younger Dimitroff took a genuine desire for scouting players to the ultimate level early in his life. He became the Canadian Scouting Coordinator for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL in 1990 as his first taste into the world of scouting. In 1992, he moved on to World League of American Football, where he scouted all NFL, CFL and World League rosters while tracking player transactions for the NFL's developmental league.

Dimitroff's career aspirations brought him to the NFL and the Detroit Lions where he became a College Scout in 1994. It was in his years as Scout for the Lions that he was introduced to Atlanta for the first time (living in the Virginia Highlands area) while evaluating the Southeastern part of the country. From there, Dimitroff made his way back to Cleveland in 1998 as a College Scout for the Browns for four years before landing in New England in 2002.

During his five years as the Director of College Scouting in New England (2003-07), he was responsible for overseeing area scouts who evaluate all of the nation's college prospects while scouting and tracking the development and availability of drafted players. The Patriots had a 77–17 overall record in Dimitroff's tenure and they won the Super Bowl in the 2003 (XXXVIII) and 2004 (XXXIX) seasons while making a historic march on a perfect 2007 regular season. Many of the players responsible for New England's history-making NFL-best 16–0 regular season record in 2007 were scouted, evaluated, and later drafted during Dimitroff's time. Some of those players include: cornerback Ellis Hobbs III, center Dan Koppen, guard Logan Mankins, running back Laurence Maroney, safety Brandon Merriweather, cornerback Asante Samuel, defensive end Ty Warren, tight end Ben Watson, nose tackle Vince Wilfork and cornerback Eugene Wilson.

"I think there are two ingredients in being a talent evaluator," said long-time, respected NFL personnel executive Ernie Accorsi. "You have to learn under top people, which Thomas has done from his father to a championship organization in New England. But you also need that indefinable instinct to see talent. That can't be taught. You can be a good evaluator without it, but not a great one. Thomas has that instinct."

Dimitroff captained his college team as a defensive back at the University of Guelph (Canada) from 1987–1989. He was born in Barberton, Ohio, in 1966. Thomas and his wife, Angeline, have one son, Mason, and live in Atlanta.

GREG BEADLES

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF ADMINISTRATION & CFO

The 2013 season marks 19 years of dedicated service for Greg Beadles with the Atlanta Falcons.

Beadles' responsibilities have grown over the years beyond overseeing financial operations of the club to include the facilities, travel and logistics departments. He is a key liaison with the NFL League Office and the Georgia Dome. His primary focus over the last few years has been the team's new stadium efforts supporting President & CEO Rich McKay in negotiations with state and city officials and the overall development of the $1 billion project slated for completion in 2017.

His career began in the League as an intern with the Falcons in 1995 and has progressed with positions of increasing responsibility in the finance department.

After assisting in the sale of the team to Owner & Chairman Arthur Blank in 2002, he was promoted to Vice President of Finance. Beadles added the CFO title after the 2003 season and was named Senior Vice President in 2011. In 2013, he was promoted to Executive Vice President of Administration.

Beadles is the son of a 40+ year college basketball coach and thus has been immersed in sports his entire life. He grew up traveling with his father on road trips and recruiting visits and gained valuable insight into the world of sports through those experiences. Greg also played sports as a youth and progressed to the college level where he played a year of small college basketball before transferring to Louisiana State University to begin his career focus on business.

Beadles earned a Bachelor's of Science in Accounting from LSU in 1991 and a Masters of Science in Sports Administration from Georgia State University in 1995. He has also attended the prestigious NFL Executive Management Program at Stanford University in 2007.

The 44-year-old holds a CPA license from the state of Georgia. He started his career in business with a public accounting firm in Baton Rouge, Louisiana before moving on to labor as an international staff accountant with Offshore Pipelines, Inc. out of Houston, Texas.

The Atlanta Business Chronicle named Beadles its "CFO of the Year" in 2012 for his work with education related initiatives. He is founding chairman for both Dominion Classical Christian Academy in Lawrenceville, Ga. and Arete Scholars Fund, a non-profit that provides K-12 scholarships for low-income children throughout Georgia. He also serves as a board member of the CFO Council at Georgia State University.

Greg and his wife, Jill, reside with their four children, Ella, Grant, Evie and Hudson in Dacula, Georgia.

In this capacity, Moss is responsible for community initiatives, player outreach and youth football programming. She assumes this position after three years of serving as the Manager of Event Marketing for the Falcons and one year as Program Officer for the Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation. Prior to her role with the Falcons, Moss was the Assistant Director of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship and Final Four.

Before working with the NCAA, she served as the Assistant Director of Championships/Marketing for Conference USA. Moss earned her B.S. in Speech Communications at the University of Texas. She also holds a M.A. in Corporate Communications from DePaul University. Moss and her husband, Cory, reside in Smyrna, Georgia with their son, Kellen, and daughter, Kolby.

REGGIE ROBERTS

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL COMMUNICATIONS

Reggie Roberts begins his 22nd season in the National Football League and his 10th as the team's Vice President of Football Communications in 2013. He serves as the day-to-day spokesman for the Falcons on all football and non-football matters, and is responsible for coordinating all media and football communications coverage for the team. Additionally, Roberts is the club's liaison between local, national and international print and electronic media, and the main club contact with the television and radio networks that broadcast Falcons games.

Roberts, who joined the Falcons in September of 2004, comes to Atlanta with a long history in the NFL at both the league and club levels. The veteran football communications specialist, who is also a former award-winning sports journalist, spent seven seasons at league headquarters in New York City where he was Director of Information for the National Football Conference from 1990 to 1996.

Following the 1997 season, Roberts and his communications staff received the coveted Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Writers of America. The award is presented annually by the PFWA to the NFL's top public relations/football communications staff. It marked the first time in franchise history the Buccaneers football communications staff had ever received the award. The Buccaneers were also a finalist for the award in both 1999 and in 2000 and the Falcons have been finalists for the award in each of the past five seasons (2008-12).

Roberts was president of Double R Communications, Inc., a national sports public relations and communications company from 2002–2004. His clients included a dozen NFL players as well as the NFL, The Champions Fund, Family First, Kaos Sports, the University of South Florida Athletic Department, and Hill and Knowlton, USA.

During seven seasons with the NFL office, Roberts was the Public Relations Director and primary league office contact for the 15 NFC teams. Additionally, he coordinated media operations at seven NFC Championship Games, seven Super Bowls (XXV-XXXI), and three Tokyo American Bowl Games in Tokyo, Japan. Roberts has also been selected as a member of the NFL's Football Communications staff for 14 Super Bowls (XXV-to-XXXVI, XL, XLI).

Roberts was a recipient of the 2012 Fritz Pollard Alliance Foundation Salute to Excellence Award. The award is presented to persons who display outstanding performance through the year either on the field or in front offices in the National Football League.

In 2006, Roberts completed the prestigious NFL Managers Training Program located at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business in Palo Alto, California.

Before joining the NFL in 1990, Roberts spent four-and-half years as a sports reporter with the Austin American-Statesman newspaper in Austin, Texas where he won two Associated Press Sports Editor awards.

Roberts graduated from the University of Louisiana at Monroe in 1986 with a Bachelors of Arts degree in journalism.

Roberts is native of Alexandria, Louisiana. He and his wife, Wendy, live in Snellville, Georgia with their two sons, Reid Alexander and Chase Matthew.

JIM SMITH

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES & MARKETING

Jim Smith begins his second season as the club's Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing following his promotion to the post on June 1, 2012.

Smith, who spent six seasons as the club's Vice President of Marketing (2004-09) before being promoted to Vice President/Chief Marketing Officer in 2010, heads up one of the most creative and talented marketing and sales teams found anywhere in professional sports.

He recently worked with the NFL Office in New York City on a comprehensive brand review that created a new standard for the Falcons brand and put in place innovative brand policies to enhance and expand the club's overall image both in the Atlanta market and nationally. In conjunction with this study, Smith developed the award winning "Rise Up" campaign which includes an inspiring television commercial featuring Hollywood star and "A-list" actor Samuel L. Jackson.

The campaign, which focuses on a team, an organization, a fan base, and a community rising up together to try win a championship, was unveiled in the spring of 2010 to impressive reviews and culminated with a television spot featuring Jackson's impassioned speech for Atlanta and the Falcons to "Rise Up" together. Jackson's motivating, emotional words also became a pre-game rallying cry and popular fixture for Falcons fans on the team's Jumbotron when it was shown just before kickoff at each home game. It became an instant hit for fans and Falcons players alike as the club posted a 7-1 record at the Georgia Dome.

Under Smith's direction, the Falcons capitalized on the team's success and Rise Up momentum to set an all-time franchise record for season ticket sales and sponsorship sales for the 2013 season. Additionally the club is on pace to sellout all the Georgia Dome club seats and solidify the Dome Field advantage the Falcons have enjoyed.

In addition to the Rise Up and sales successes, Smith's service staff, event marketing staff and digital media staff was recognized numerous times in 2012 by the NFL for their best practices in creating a fun, entertaining and service focused environment on game days while delivering a truly unique social media experience 365 days a year for Falcons fans throughout the country.

In his new role as the club's chief's ticket sales and service officer, Smith is responsible for the sales and service of all Falcons tickets which include season tickets, group tickets, and hospitality programs. Smith also oversees ticket operations, ticket services, and the Falcons fan services department that work closely with the club's critically important season-ticket holders.

Smith and his sales team are also responsible for selling Falcons premium seat inventories at the Georgia Dome which includes suites, club seats, super suites, and the Falcons Owner's Club.

Over the past 11 seasons, the Falcons have sold out 110 of 112 games in the Georgia Dome which at one point included a franchise-record 55 games in-a-row sold out streak. The current streak stands at 52 consecutive games heading into the 2013 season.

Some of Smith's other critical day-to-day responsibilities entail maximizing local and national revenue opportunities by managing all brand affinity, inventory, including stadium assets, broadcast rights, team marketing rights, new media, and event marketing. Smith and his partnership sales teams have increased the Falcons' local sponsorship and broadcast revenues by more than 300% since 2003, and his impressive work in the Atlanta marketplace has resulted in several new partnerships with companies like Ford Motor Company, Verizon, NAPA, Russell, Quikrete, and SunTrust. Smith's new media team has received national acclaim for its use of emerging technology and social media to provide fans unprecedented access to the Falcons organization.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Smith spent five successful seasons as General Manager and then President/ General Manager of the Major League Soccer's Columbus Crew. During his stint with The Crew, Smith captured 2001 MLS Executive of the Year honors by his peers and followed-up that award by overseeing the organization's first-ever championship the following season winning the 2002 U.S. Open Cup title.

Before his positions with The Crew, Smith was a member of the athletic department at Ohio State University, serving as Associate Athletic Director for Marketing and Communications. At OSU, Smith was responsible for the direction and coordination of eight department heads in the areas of marketing, athletic communications, publications, external relations, merchandise sales, premium seat services, video services and concessions.

Smith was the Director of Live Event Marketing for the World Wrestling Federation before his move to OSU. He also worked as the Coliseum Director at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas. Born Dec. 5, 1965, the Milford, Conn. native earned a Bachelor's of Science degree in Radio, TV, and Film at Northwestern University and a Masters of Arts in Sports Management at Ohio State. He and his wife, Polly, live in Suwanee, Georgia with their three daughters, Rachel, Courtney, and Emily, and son, Daniel.

TIM ZULAWSKI

VICE PRESIDENT OF SPONSORSHIP SALES & SERVICE

Tim Zulawski enters his 11th season with the Falcons. As Vice President of Sponsorship Sales and Service, Zulawski leads the Falcons initiative to develop and maintain corporate partnerships with local, regional and national corporations. This includes overseeing day to day activities associated with promotional rights, television, radio, print and digital advertising, custom experiences, hospitality and the sale of annual signage rights at the Georgia Dome.

During his time in Atlanta, Zulawski has helped the team secure a number of valuable corporate partnerships with numerous companies. Prior to coming to the Falcons, Zulawski worked for Palace Sports and Entertainment in charge of negotiating sponsorships for the Tampa Bay Lightning, Tampa Bay Storm and the St. Pete Times Forum. His NFL career started in public relations with the Buffalo Bills as a high school senior. A native of Buffalo, New York, Zulawski holds a Management Information Systems degree from SUNY in Fredonia and a Master's degree in Sports Management from Springfield College. Tim and his wife Erika are active members in the Atlanta community through numerous immigration related organizations and the Big Brothers & Big Sisters program of Metro Atlanta.

COACHES

MIKE SMITH

HEAD COACH

Coaching in today's NFL requires a keen understanding of your players as well as the ability to manage the delicate ecosystem of an NFL locker room filled with veteran stars, promising rookies, hardscrabble journeymen, and off the street free agents.

Atlanta Falcons head coach Mike Smith has taken all of those different and diverse personalities and backgrounds and smoothly melded them into an aggressive, attacking-style unit that can quick-strike opponents with the long ball on offense and one that can keep enemy offenses off the scoreboard with a rugged defense.

For those who know Smith, it's not all that surprising that his Falcons have posted a winning record in each of the past five seasons.

But one key question arises?

How has a first-time head coach in the deliriously popular National Football League managed to carve out those five consecutive winning seasons en route to posting the best record in the National Football Conference since 2008?

"I'm a firm believer that you win in the locker room first," said Smith, the Daytona Beach, Florida native who is the oldest of eight children. "If you can win in the locker room first, your chances of winning on the field greatly increase."

Smith is certainly all about the team.

He protects his players with fierceness, but all of his guys know that the Falcons are going to do things the right way every time all the time.

"Smitty is our leader," said Falcons Pro Bowl QB Matt Ryan. "He sets the tone as to how we are going to do things. He's got an open door policy where he will take in all of the information, but at the end of the day, he's going to make the call. We respect that. We all understand that."

Since becoming Atlanta's head coach in 2008, Smith has established his team as one of the NFL's most consistent performing franchises that seemingly always finds itself in the National, playoff discussion reserved only for the League's elite teams.

During Smith's impressive five-year run, the Falcons have compiled a 56-24 regular season record, which is the second-best mark in the NFL during that time, and has captured two NFC South Division titles.

Smith's accomplishments in his first five seasons as Atlanta's head coach are unprecedented in team history and are among the best in the NFL when measured against his coaching counterparts.

He became the first coach in franchise history to produce back-to-back winning seasons (2008-09), and in 2012, Smith became the first coach in team history to lead his team to three consecutive playoff appearances (2010-12).

The affable Smith – known as "Smitty" to his players and coaching staff -- led the Falcons to an NFC-best 13-3 mark in 2012, securing the team's third straight playoff berth. The Falcons also hosted the NFC Championship Game in the Georgia Dome for the first time in the franchise's 47-year history.

Additionally, the Falcons became the first NFC team to earn the conference's top seed twice in three seasons (2010 & 2012) since the Philadelphia Eagles posted the NFC's best record in three straight seasons from 2002-04. For his efforts, Smith was named the Sporting News Coach of the Year for the third time in five seasons (2008, 2010 & 2012). Smith's 56 wins are the most in the NFC and are the most by any Falcons head coach in team history during his first five seasons. In addition, Smith's 56 wins in his first five seasons as a head coach are the second-most among any first-time head coach in NFL history.

Atlanta's .700 winning percentage is the highest in team history over a five-year period and is also the second-best percentage in the League.

Smith's steady hand at the helm includes a strong emphasis on establishing a true home field advantage and that philosophy has produced an astounding 33-7 home record and .825 winning percentage during his tenure, the second-best mark in the NFL over the last five seasons.

One of Smith's basic coaching philosophies centers on his team displaying sustainability. He wants his Falcons to be able to maintain a certain level of performance, not just each season, but from game to game, quarter to quarter, and play to play.

Smith's overall coaching philosophy is one based on starting fast in all three phases of the game. Perhaps that explains why his Falcons have amassed a 42-10 record in games where they score first. Coupled with core principles built around playing fundamentally sound football, Smith's disciplined teams have displayed a knack for holding onto leads and closing out the opposition.

Smith's troops have posted a 44-2 record in games where the Falcons lead at halftime (since 2008). Atlanta also owns a 42-1 mark in contests where the Birds hold the lead at the beginning of the fourth quarter since 2008.

Smith, one of the top defensive minded coaches in all of pro football, teaches a rugged and physical approach to defense, which has produced the third-stingiest group in the NFC in points allowed since 2008 at 20.1.

Also, the Falcons defense has been tough when closing out halves and games in the last three seasons by allowing just 17 points in 53 possessions in the final two minutes of either half.

During the 2012 season, Smith became the first coach in franchise history to reach 50 wins and the third fastest head coach since the AFL-NFL merger to reach 50 wins, accomplishing the feat in 71 games.

Additionally, the Falcons were among the best in the NFL last season in scoring offense and scoring defense – finishing seventh and sixth in the NFL in both categories, respectively. Atlanta averaged 26.1 points per game on offense; the Falcons defense surrendered 18.7 points per game in 2012.

From a team perspective, the Falcons lit up the NFL during the 2012 season. QB Matt Ryan earned his second trip to the Pro Bowl after setting franchise records for passing yards (4,719), attempts (615), completions (422), consecutive passes without an INT (272), completion percentage (NFL-best 68.6), touchdown passes (32), and 300-yard passing games (7).

TE Tony Gonzalez earned his 13th career Pro Bowl selection after becoming the first tight end and eighth player in NFL history to record 100 career touchdown receptions.

WR Roddy White recorded his franchise record sixth consecutive 1,000-yard season in 2012 while teammate Juilo Jones – who earned his first trip to the NFC Pro Bowl game – set a franchise record with 182 receiving yards in the NFC Championship Game.

In 2011, the Falcons defense ranked second in the NFL in red zone efficiency (78.7 pct.) and finished sixth in the NFL in rushing defense (97.0 ypg).

The Falcons' special teams units have also excelled through Smith's emphasis and direction by finishing in the top 10 in NFL rankings in each of the past five seasons.

Under the guidance of Smith, the Falcons posted a

Impressive Resume

Since 2008, Smith has racked up an impressive list of accomplishments and accolades while leading the Falcons to five consecutive winning seasons and four playoff berths.

Smith's Accomplishments

- Sporting News Coach of the Year in 2008, 2010 and 2012.
- KC 101 Club NFC Coach of the Year in 2008 and 2010.
- Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year in 2008.
- .700 winning percentage - highest in club history through five seasons.
- 56 wins - Falcons all-time wins leader.
- Second best home record in NFL history in his first five seasons as a head coach.
- Second most wins in team history in a single season (13 - 2010 & 2012).
- Under coach Smith, the Falcons are the only NFC team to post winning records in each of the last five seasons (2008-12).

10-6 record and earned their second consecutive playoff berth in 2011. The playoff berth marked the third time in four seasons Atlanta has reached the playoffs under Smith.

The Birds wrapped up the 2011 campaign in record-setting fashion, as QB Matt Ryan, RB Michael Turner and WR Roddy White all established new franchise bests. Ryan broke the franchise record for passing yards in a single-season after eclipsing QB Jeff George's mark of 4,143 yards set in 1995.

Ryan finished the 2011 season with 4,177 yards, 29 touchdowns and a 92.9 quarterback rating, all career highs at the time. Turner broke RB Gerald Riggs' franchise record of 48 rushing touchdowns, with two scores against Tampa Bay in Week 17, giving him 50 as a Falcon.

"The Burner" also led the NFC in rushing yards with 1,340 yards and added 11 touchdowns on the season.

White also got in on the action when he became the Falcons all-time leading receiver with 7,374 career receiving yards, breaking Terance Mathis' old mark of 7,349 yards. The ninth-year receiver out of UAB also finished the season with 100 receptions and became the first player in team history to record multiple 100-catch seasons.

Atlanta also produced two Pro Bowlers in 2011 as White and TE Tony Gonzalez were each named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. The selection was the 12th for Gonzalez.

In 2010, Smith guided the Falcons to the second-most wins in a season in team history, the top record in the NFC with a 13-3 mark and an NFC South Division crown. The 13 victories also secured the number one seed in the Conference for only the second time in franchise history and the Division title was just the fourth ever for the team in 45 years in the League (and first since 2004).

His club's eight-game winning streak during the 2010 campaign was the second longest ever in team annals. The Falcons also were the only team in the League to rank in the top 5 in both scoring offense (25.9 points) and scoring defense (18.0 points allowed) and boasted an NFL-high as well as a franchise-best nine players who were named to the Pro Bowl.

For all the milestones achieved in 2010, Smith earned the prestigious Sporting News NFL Coach of the Year and the KC 101 Club's NFC Coach of the Year award for a remarkable second time in three seasons.

In 2009, Smith's club captured their final three games of the season, including two victories on the road to secure a winning record and the first back-to-back winning seasons in team history.

His club's hard-fought three-game winning streak at the end of the 2009 campaign to secure a winning season was especially impressive considering the Falcons faced the fourth-toughest schedule in the NFL and five of the team's seven losses came against playoff teams. Smith's Falcons also lost nine key starters for at least one game because of injury (and a total of 45 games of missed action overall) but still continued to display the kind of resolve that is characteristic of Smith-coached teams since he took over in Atlanta.

Under Smith's determined leadership in 2008, the Falcons enjoyed one of the biggest turnarounds that the NFL has ever witnessed. The seven-win swing going from 4-12 to 11-5 is tied for the fourth-best mark (at +7 wins) in the League for a rookie head coach since 1978.

Smith's 11 victories are tied for the top mark with five other head coaches for the best record for a rookie head coach taking over a team that finished below .500 the previous season. And only three rookie head coaches in NFL history had more wins in their first campaign on the sidelines than Smith.

Smith's firm guidance in 2008 allowed the Falcons to make several improvements from the previous season, which included points per game average, rushing yards per game average, passing touchdowns to interception ratio and fewest sacks allowed. He had his team ready to play in every game in 2008 as the Falcons were tops in the League in first quarter points scored and registered a streak of holding opponents in 12 of 15 games to under 20 yards rushing in the opening quarter of games.

The shrewd drafting of quarterback Matt Ryan and astute free agent signing of running back Michael Turner were two aggressive moves that paid immediate dividends and laid a solid foundation.

For his coaching efforts in 2008, Smith earned Associated Press and Sporting News 2008 NFL Coach of the Year honors, as well as NFC Coach of the Year by the respected KC 101 Club.

Smith boasts a strong coaching background that includes 13 NFL seasons and 33 total years in football. His defensive track record has witnessed a remarkable amount of success as he helped guide the Baltimore Ravens to a Super Bowl XXXV Championship in 2000 as a defensive assistant coach and led the Jacksonville Jaguars defense to top 10 rankings in several categories (overall defense, points allowed and rushing defense) during his time as the club's defensive coordinator (2003-2007).

With Smith's help, the Jaguars had the sixth-most wins in the NFL (from 2004-07) with 40 victories. From 2003–2007, Smith led Jacksonville's defensive unit, which ranked fourth in overall defense (296.6), third in offensive points allowed (16.1) and fifth in rushing defense (99.3) from 2003–2006.

In his last season in Jacksonville in 2007, the Jaguars rushing defense continued that trend as the unit ranked sixth in the AFC, holding opponents to 100.3 yards per game. The Jaguars defense under Smith's direction also finished 12th in the NFL in total defense in '07.

In 2006, Jacksonville ranked second in the League in total defense (283.6), which was the highest mark for the franchise in its history. The Jaguars defense also contributed to a team-record 20 interceptions and allowed an NFL-low 11 points per game on their home turf.

During Smith's five seasons in Jacksonville, three defensive players garnered six Pro Bowl selections, which included defensive tackle Marcus Stroud (2003–2005), defensive tackle John Henderson (2004, 2006) and cornerback Rashean Mathis (2006). Smith also coached the likes of defensive end Bobby McCray, who became just the fourth Jaguar to record at least 10 sacks in 2005. Smith contributed to three winning seasons in Jacksonville (2004–2005, 2007) as the team reached the playoffs for the sixth occasion in franchise history in 2007 and defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in an AFC Divisional Playoff game on the road at Heinz Field.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Smith spent four seasons with the Baltimore Ravens and was the Defensive Assistant/Defensive Line Coach from 1999–2001, which included the team's 2000 Super Bowl winning season. The Ravens defense set an NFL 16-game record by allowing only 165 points en route to the team's first NFL championship.

In 2002, Smith served as Baltimore's Linebackers Coach. That season, the Ravens featured All-Pro linebacker Ray Lewis and Pro Bowl linebacker Peter Boulware, who recorded 57 tackles, seven sacks for a loss of 51 yards, one interception and four passes defensed in his finest NFL season under Smith's tutelage. Before joining the NFL ranks, Smith spent 12 seasons at Tennessee Tech from 1987–1998. He was the Golden Eagles' Defensive Coordinator for the last three seasons as the team finished in the top 10 in the nation in total defense (1997 and 1998). He joined the Tennessee Tech staff as the Defensive Line Coach and then served as the Special Team Coordinator from 1988 to 1995. Prior to his last season with the Golden Eagles, Smith was promoted to Assistant Head Coach on top of his Defensive Coordinator duties.

Smith played college football at East Tennessee (1977–1981) and was named defensive MVP twice at his position. He led the team with a school record 186 tackles as a senior. Smith was born on June 13, 1959.

Smith, his wife Julie, and their daughter, Logan, live in Suwanee, Georgia.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Dirk Koetter is entering his second season as the Falcons offensive coordinator in 2013. In his initial season with Atlanta, the Birds offense soared to new heights. Last season, Koetter's offense ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in a number of categories, including third down effeiciency (45.1 pct, 2nd), scoring efficiency (44.0 pct., 2nd), red zone points scored (317, 3rd), red zone scoring efficiency (90.5 pct., 6th),first downs per game (21.4, 6th), scoring offense (26.2, 7th) and passing offense (292.0, 7th).

The production of the Falcons offense and NFC-best 13-3 record led to TE Tony Gonzalez, WR Julio Jones and QB Matt Ryan all earning Pro Bowl berths. Gonzalez enjoyed his most productive season since joining the Falcons in 2009 by catching 93 passes for 930 yards with eight touchdowns en route to his 13th Pro Bowl appearance. Second-year wide receiver Julio Jones experienced a breakout year in 2012. Jones set career-best in receptions (79), receiving yards (1,198) and touchdowns (10).

The combination of Jones and WR Roddy White proved to be the NFL's top receiving duo in the NFL in 2012. White led the team in receiving yards (1,351), while also hauling in 92 catches with seven touchdowns. Jones and White became the first Falcons teammates to post 1,000 receiving yards in the same season since wide receivers Tony Martin and Terance Martin in 1998. It also marked the fourth time in team history two players have eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark in the same season. Jones and White's totals for the 2012 season made them the most productive wide receiver tandem in the NFL and combined to post a league-high 2,549 yards.

Sixth-year signal caller Matt Ryan flourished under the guidance of Koetter in their first season together. Ryan set career and franchise single-season highs in passing yards (4,719), attempts (615), completions (422), touchdown passes (32) and completion percentage (68.6) while starting all 16 games. The combination of Koetter and Ryan guided the Falcons offense to the seventh ranked passing attack (292.0 ypg) in the NFL and the sixth ranked scoring offense (26.2 ppg) in the NFL. Ryan earned his second Pro Bowl appearance last season while leading Atlanta to the NFC Championship game for the first time in team history since 2004.

KOETTER'S COACHING BACKGROUND

Koetter was hired prior to the start of the 2012 season because of his expertise in the passing game. He has 30 years of coaching experience, including five seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-11). He also brings with him 22 years of coaching expertise on the college level, including nine seasons as a college head coach (Arizona State, 2001-06 and Boise State, 1998-2000).

During the 2010 campaign, Koetter led an offense that saw RB Maurice Jones-Drew lead the NFL in rushing with 1,606 yards on 343 carries. In five seasons in Jacksonville, he coached four different players to the six Pro Bowl selections, including Jones-Drew who earned three trips to the Pro Bowl.

Through Koetter's first four years with the Jaguars the team's offense ranked 13th in the NFL in total yards (338.6 per game), sixth in rushing (134.2), fifth in third-down conversions (43.0%), fifth in average per rush (4.5), ninth in fewest giveaways (101) and fifth with only 52 interceptions thrown.

From 2002-06, the Jaguars did not have an offensive player voted to the Pro Bowl. In just four seasons, Koetter coached four different players who have earned a total of five Pro Bowl selections during his stint as offensive coordinator. Running back Maurice Jones-Drew and tight end Marcedes Lewis were both named to the Pro Bowl in 2010.

In his first season with the Jaguars, Koetter directed a record-breaking season by the offense as the unit set franchise records for points (411, 25.7 avg.), touchdowns (50), touchdown passes (28) and yards per play (5.6). The Jaguars ranked seventh in the NFL in offense (357.4), tied for the second-highest ranking in franchise history, totaled 400-plus yards in a team-record seven games and scored 24 or more points in 10 consecutive games for the first time in team history. Quarterback David Garrard in his first season as the starter ranked third in the NFL with a 102.2 passer rating and threw an NFL-low three interceptions. Garrard threw for a career-high 3,620 yards in 2008 including the first two 300-yard games of his career and set the single-season franchise record with 23 touchdown passes in 2010 despite missing two games.

Koetter led Arizona State to four bowl games in his six seasons and finished with a 40-34 record. While also serving as offensive coordinator, Koetter helped the Sun Devils average nearly 30 points per game over six seasons and the team was ranked in the top 20 in the nation in passing offense in five of his six seasons.

Koetter molded Arizona State's all-time leading passer in Andrew Walter, its top career receiver in Derek Hagan and the top tight end in school history in Zach Miller. Walter, who played his final three seasons under Koetter, left as the Pac-10's career leader for touchdown passes with 85, surpassing John Elway who threw for 77 touchdowns at Stanford from 1979-82. Hagan, who was a third-round draft pick of the Miami Dolphins in 2006, finished with a school-record 14 100-yard receiving games. Miller finished the 2006 season as the school's all-time leader in receptions and receiving yards for a tight end and was one of three finalists for the John Mackey Award.

In 2005, ASU finished second in the nation in total offense, averaging 519.1 yards per game and third in the nation with 373.4 passing yards per game. In 2004, Koetter led ASU to a 9-3 record and finished the season ranked 19th in the Associated Press Poll. After finishing 4-7 in his first season at ASU, Koetter directed the program to an 8-6 mark in 2002 and a berth in the Holiday Bowl.

Prior to taking over ASU, Koetter spent three seasons as head coach at Boise State where he compiled a 26-10 mark and two consecutive bowl victories. He was a two-time Big West Coach of the Year honoree and two-time conference champion.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Koetter played four seasons at Idaho State (1978-81) as the team won a Division I-AA national championship. He graduated in 1981 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and earned a master's degree the following year in athletic administration. Following his graduation, he became head coach at age 23 at Highland High School, where he compiled a career record of 19-4 and won the 1984 state championship.

Koetter spent the 1985 season as offensive coordinator at San Francisco State and from 1986-88 as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Texas El-Paso. Prior to taking over at Boise State, Koetter served as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Missouri from 1989-93 and offensive coordinator at Boston College (1994-95) and Oregon (1996-97).

Koetter, 54, and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Kaylee and Kendra, and two sons, Derek and Davis.

MIKE NOLAN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Mike Nolan enters his second season as the Falcons defensive coordinator in 2013. In his first season at the helm of Atlanta's defense, the Falcons finished fifth in the NFL in scoring defense (18.7 ppg.), fifth in turnovers forced (31), fifth in red zone scoring defense (46.1 pct) and fifth in interceptions (20) as the Birds secured their second division title in the last three seasons.

His defense helped lead the Falcons to an NFC-best 13-3 record and the number one seed in the NFC playoffs. Nolan's scheme cut over three points per game off the Falcons scoring defense from 2011 (21.9 ppg.) to 2012 (18.7 ppg.). Last year, Nolan's defense faced three Super Bowl winning quarterbacks at the Georgia Dome, Drew Brees, Peyton Manning and Eli Manning, and combined to allow them to throw a total of one touchdown and 10 interceptions en route to a 3-0 record.

Nolan's defense was sparked by the young safety tandem of Thomas DeCoud and William Moore, who each earned their first Pro Bowl selections last year. DeCoud finished 2012 with 89 tackles, nine passes defensed, a team-high six interceptions and one fumble recovery. The fifth-year safety out of California accounted for seven of Atlanta's 31 takeaways in 2012. His safety-mate, Moore, posted a career year in Nolan's defense. Moore recorded a career-high 105 tackles, eight passes defensed, four interceptions, four tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery, while earning NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance vs. the Saints in Week 13.

Under the guidance of Nolan, the Falcons defense also witnessed the emergence of a new leader, linebacker Sean Weatherspoon. The fourth-year linebacker out of Missouri embraced his new leadership role and flourished on the field by posting a career-high 114 tackles, six tackles for loss, four passes defensed, three sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery in 13 games.

Nolan is one of the most respected defensive minds in the NFL. He enters 2013 with 15 years of experience as a coordinator and has spent a total of 26 years in the NFL coaching ranks. The Falcons mark the seventh team he has been a coordinator for over his coaching career: Atlanta (2012-13), Miami (2010-11), Denver (2009), Baltimore (2002-04), the New York Jets (2000), Washington (1997-99) and the New York Giants (1993-96).

Nolan joined Atlanta after spending the last two seasons as the Miami Dolphins defensive coordinator. In 2011, the Dolphins boasted the third best run defense in the NFL, allowing just 95.6 yards per game and 3.7 yards per carry. His defense also collared 41 sacks, which tied for 10th in the League and allowed the sixth fewest points per game at 19.6. The Dolphins also ranked seventh in the third-down percentage (33.8) and sixth in red zone defense, holding opponents to a 44.2 touchdown percentage inside the 20-yard line.

In 2010, Nolan's defense ranked among the league's top ten in overall defense (6th, 309.3 ypg), pass defense (8th, 209.3 ypg) and run defense (7th, 100.1 ypg). The Dolphins defense was one of just five units in the NFL to accomplish that feat.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Nolan served as the defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos. Under his tutelage in 2009, Denver's team defense improved to seventh overall in the NFL after a 29th place finish in 2008. Denver's pass defense was equally impressive, finishing third overall in the NFL, allowing 186.3 yards per game.

Prior to his stint with the Broncos, Nolan served as the San Francisco 49ers' head coach from 2005-08, following in the footsteps of his father, Dick, who coached that club for eight seasons from 1968-75 and had an 11-year NFL head coaching career. The 49ers were one of the NFL's most consistent teams in stopping the run during Nolan's four years with the club, ranking fourth in the league in yards per carry allowed (3.9) during that period. Offensively, San Francisco's 4.3-yard rushing average over Nolan's four years was the eighth-best mark in the NFL.

Nolan served three years as Baltimore's defensive coordinator from 2002-04 before becoming the 49ers head coach. His group tied for the NFL lead in takeaways (106) while ranking fifth in the league in both points per game allowed (18.8) and third down percentage (34.7). Five Baltimore defenders earned a total of nine trips to the Pro Bowl, and Nolan instructed back-to-back AP NFL Defensive Players of the Year in Ray Lewis (2003) and Ed Reed (2004). After spending his first year (2001) in Baltimore as wide receivers coach, Nolan replaced Marvin Lewis as the club's defensive coordinator in 2002. He coached one of the league's youngest defenses in 2002, helping the Ravens post a franchise record and an AFC-high 25 interceptions while placing sixth in the league in opponent passer rating (73.4).

Nolan became the NFL's youngest defensive coordinator in 1993 when the Giants hired him for that position at age 33. He spent eight consecutive seasons as an NFL defensive coordinator with the Giants (1993-96), Redskins (1997-99) and Jets (2000). In his first year as a defensive coordinator with the Giants in 1993, Nolan's defense allowed an NFL low 12.8 points per game for the best mark by the club in 44 seasons.

Nolan's NFL coaching career began with the Broncos in 1987 as their special teams/linebackers coach, a position he held with the club through the 1992 campaign. He was a part of three teams that won the AFC West and helped the Broncos reach the Super Bowl during the 1987 (XXII) and '89 (XXIV) seasons.

Following a stint in the Broncos' 1981 training camp as a defensive back, Nolan began his coaching career as a graduate assistant that year at his alma mater, the University of Oregon.

He was a three year starter at safety for the Ducks after beginning his collegiate playing career as a walk-on. Nolan landed his first full-time coaching job at Stanford University as its linebackers/ defensive backs coach in 1982 and worked there for two years before serving in the same capacity at Rice University from 1984-85.

He spent 1986 as the linebackers coach for Louisiana State University before moving into the NFL coaching ranks with the Broncos in 1987.

A native of Baltimore, Nolan and his wife, Kathy, have four children: Michael, Christopher, Laura and Jennifer.

KEITH ARMSTRONG

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Now entering his sixth season as the Falcons Special Teams Coordinator, Keith Armstrong's special teams units have been a staple of the Falcons success over the last five seasons. His teams have proven to be one of the most consistent units in the NFL over his first five years in Atlanta and his coverage units have finished in the top 10 each seasons. Since 2008, Armstrong's punt return coverage group ranks second in total return yards (970) and second in punt return average against (7.3 yards per return). His kickoff coverage unit ranks in the top 10 since 2008 as well, allowing 22.1 yards per kickoff return on 289 attempts, while also posting the seventh most touchbacks during that time (137).

The Birds special teams have been guided by Armstrong since 2008 and Falcons kickers have reaped the benefits of his coaching. The Falcons kicking game has been at or near the top under Armstrong and rank sixth in the NFL in field goal percentage since 2008 (86.1 pct.) and have produced the fifth most points in the NFL (625) over that same period of time.

Last season, Atlanta's kicking game was propelled by kicker Matt Bryant and punter Matt Bosher as the Falcons posted a 13-3 record and won their second NFC South Division crown since 2010. Bryant produced another solid season in 2012, by connecting on 33 of 38 field goals, all 44 PATs and tallied a career and franchise single-season high 143 points. Bryant not only set the franchise mark for points in a season, he also set a new franchise mark for most field goals made in a season (33). Under the watchful eye of Armstrong, Bryant has managed to be amongst the most accurate kickers in the NFL since 2009. Bryant has connected on 95 of 108 field goal attempts (88.0 pct.), which ranks third in the NFL over that time and has also posted a Falcons franchise-best 40 consecutive field goals made from 2011 (30) to 2012 (10). Bryant kicked three game-winning field goals in 2012, including a 49-yard field goal against the Seahawks in the Divisional Round of the playoffs. He has connected on six game-winning field goals since joining the Falcons.

Under the tutelage of Armstrong, second-year punter Bosher became one of the most productive punters in team history. In 2012, Bosher set career and franchise highs in net punting average (40.7 avg.), gross punting average (47.5 avg.) and most touchbacks on kickoffs in a single-season (45). In his first two seasons, Bosher has also set the franchise marks in career punting average (44.9 avg.) and career net punting average (39.7 avg.). The sixth round selection in 2011 has become one of the Falcons top special teams weapons under Armstrong in just two seasons. Since becoming the Falcons punter in 2011, Bosher and Atlanta's coverage unit ranks second in the NFL in return average against (6.9 yards per return).

Atlanta's kickoff and punt return teams continued to flourish under Armstrong. The Falcons ranked 10th in the NFL in average starting field position (29.0 yard line) in part to Atlanta's return game. On the flipside, Armstrong's coverage troops managed to help the Falcons rank fifth in opponents average starting field position (25.5 yard line) in 2012.

In 2011, Armstrong used two rookies to propel his coverage units in LB Akeem Dent and Bosher. Dent, a linebacker out of the University of Georgia, led the Falcons in special teams tackles (19) and Bosher finished the season with the highest single-season net punting average for a rookie in Falcons history (38.9 net yards per punt).

Armstrong's staple on special teams was veteran kicker Matt Bryant.. Bryant finished 27 of 29 on field goal attempts and made all 45 PATs. For the second straight year, Bryant led the Falcons in scoring (126) and his 93.1 field goal pct. marked the third best single-season field goal percentage in team history.

His special team units were a big contributor to the Falcons winning the NFC South division title and posting the best record in the NFC with a 13-3 mark in 2010.

Armstrong's troops led the League in some key categories such as kickoff return average (28.5), opponents starting field position (22.2) on kickoffs, overall opponent field position (24.3), opponent's field goal percentage (65.2%) and fewest penalties (seven). Atlanta's special teams also finished fifth in punt return average (12.1), fourth in field goal percentage (90.3%), eighth in punts downed inside the 20 (29-tied with Arizona).

In 2010, WR/KR Eric Weems became the first Falcons player in team history to score touchdowns on both a kickoff return (102) and punt return (55) in the same season under Armstrong's direction. The 102-yard return at Tampa set a new team record and sparked a come-from-behind 28-24 victory in Week 13. The key play earned Weems NFC Special Teams Player of the Week, and combined with the 55-yard punt return score against Carolina in the regular season finale he captured NFC Special Teams Player of the Month (December) honors as well.

Through Armstrong's steady influence, Weems was voted to the Pro Bowl by his peers to become the first Falcons special teamer to be afforded such honors since Allen Rossum in 2004. He also garnered All-NFL accolades by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America.

Among his notable achievements with the Falcons, Armstrong's punt coverage team boasted an NFL record-low 43 opponent punt return yards allowed in 2008 and a first place ranking in opponent starting field position on kickoffs (21.4 average start) in 2009.

In 2008, Atlanta ranked second in opponents starting field position, eighth in kickoff coverage, eighth in field goals made and first in points allowed on returns. Kickoff returner Jerious Norwood notched 1,311 yards on 51 attempts for a 25.7 average, which was good enough for the fourth-highest mark in the NFC.

The 47 year-old native of Levittown, Pa. joined the Falcons following seven seasons in the same capacity for the Miami Dolphins. The 19-year NFL coaching veteran was instrumental in 2007 in helping punt returner Ted Ginn, Jr. finish fourth in the AFC with a 9.6 return average. The average was also the 10th best mark in the entire NFL among all punt returners. With Armstrong's coaching, K Jay Feely connected on 21 of 23 field goals for 91.3 percent, which ranked second in the League just behind Pittsburgh's 92.0 percentage mark.

From 2001-2006, the Dolphins finished in the top eight in the NFL in punt return defense all but one season under Armstrong's positive direction. During that same time frame, Miami opponents averaged 6.1 yards per punt return, including a 4.5-yard mark in 2001 when they led the League in the category, and a 4.9-yard average (third in NFL) in 2005. In 2003, the Dolphins ranked first in the NFL in opponents' average starting field position with a 25.0-yard line mark and finished second in the same category in 2006 with a 24.9 figure. Over that same time period, the Dolphins special teams under Armstrong's leadership only surrendered just one punt or kickoff return for a touchdown, which was tied with Dallas for the fewest number in the League.

Prior to landing in Miami, Armstrong served in the same role with the Chicago Bears from 1997-2000. In 2000, Chicago's special teams unit ranked fourth in the NFL in punt return defense, allowing an average of just 7.0 yards per return. In his four seasons with the Bears, Chicago's special teams ranked in the top 10 in the League in punt return average, punt coverage and kickoff coverage twice in each category.

Armstrong earned his start in the NFL with Atlanta in 1994 as Safeties Coach. In 1996, he was promoted to run the entire secondary. Before his full-time positions in the NFL, he was part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program during training camps with the New York Jets (1991), Dallas Cowboys (1992) and Chicago Bears (1993).

Armstrong coached his way through the collegiate ranks before joining the NFL. He garnered four letters as a running back and defensive back at Temple University from 1983-1986 before joining the school as a graduate assistant in 1987.

Armstrong then joined the University of Miami as the Defensive Backs and Special Teams Coach for one season (1988) before coaching the wide receivers at the University of Akron (1989). His last two stops in college before joining the Falcons came at Oklahoma State as the Secondary Coach from 1990-1992 and Notre Dame as the Linebackers and Special Teams Coach in 1993.

GERALD BROWN

RUNNING BACKS

Gerald Brown returns for his sixth season as the running backs coach in 2013. Under Brown's guidance, the Falcons have had one of the top running games over the last five years and will look to continue to be an added dimension to the Falcons offense in 2013. In Brown's five seasons in Atlanta, he has helped produce Pro Bowl berths for RB Michael Turner (2008, 2010) and FB Ovie Mughelli (2010).

For the first time since coming to Atlanta, Brown will have a new feature back in the backfield. In the offseason, Atlanta signed 10-year veteran Steven Jackson. In 2012, he rushed for 1,042 yards with four touchdowns, giving him eight straight seasons with more than 1,000 rushing yards. A two-time All-Pro selection, Jackson is the NFL's leading rusher among active players with 10,135 yards. He is the only active player with more than 10,000 career yards and just the 27th player in NFL history to achieve that milestone. Additionally, he is one of just 14 running backs in NFL history to total 10,000 rushing yards and 3,000 receiving yards.

The Falcons rushing attack was led by a two-headed monster comprised of Turner and Jacquizz Rodgers in 2012. For the fifth consecutive season Turner led the Falcons in rushing with 800 yards on 222 carries with 10 touchdowns. Rodgers, the second-year back out of Oregon State, produced his most productive season by tallying 362 yards on 94 attempts with one touchdown.

In 2012, Atlanta's backfield also paid dividends in the passing game as well. Under the guidance of Brown, the Birds backs combined to haul in 106 passes for 760 yards and three touchdowns. Rodgers was most dangerous weapon in the passing game as he recorded career highs in catches (53), receiving yards (402) and added one touchdown. His 53 receptions ranked fourth on the team. Running back Jason Snelling continued to excel in the passing game under Brown. He finished the season with 31 receptions for 203 yards and one touchdown as a situational back.

Under the leadership of Brown, Turner was one of the best and most consistent backs in the NFL. From 2008 to 2012, Turner ranked third in the NFL in rushing yards (6,081) and second in touchdowns (60). He finished his Falcons career as the franchise's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (60), total touchdowns (61), most career 100-yard games (27), and most touchdowns in a single-season (17). He also finished ranked second in rushing yards (6,081) and 1,000-yard seasons (three) in team annals.

In 2011, Brown guided Turner to his second consecutive 1,300-plus yard season as he led the NFC in rushing with 1,340 yards. Turner also posted his fourth consecutive season with 10 or more touchdowns (11). Under the tutelage of Brown, the Falcons backfield saw the emergance of Rodgers. Rodgers finished second on the team in rushing yards (205) while adding 188 receiving yards on 21 catches with one touchdown.

In 2010, the Falcons backfield provided a perfect balance to the passing attack. With Turner, Jason Snelling and Mughelli spearheading Atlanta's ground game, the Falcons rushed for 1,891 total yards with 14 touchdowns. For the third consecutive season, Turner led the the Falcons in rushing. He carried the ball 334 times for an NFC-high 1,371 yards with 12 touchdowns and his performance garnered him his second Pro Bowl nod of his career.

Following up his solid performance in 2009, Snelling produced another productive season in 2010. Snelling led all running backs with a career-high 44 catches, which was third on the Falcons, for a career-high 303 yards with three touchdowns. He also added 324 rushing yards on 87 carries with two touchdowns to help out the ground game. Snelling was also selected as NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts against the Arizona Cardinals (9/19) when he compiled 129 yards on 24 carries with one touchdown. He also added 57 yards on five catches and one touchdown, totaling a career-high 186 all-purpose yards.

Brown's diligent work with running back Jason Snelling and Snelling's emergence as a solid contributor to fellow runner Michael Turner was one of the highlights of the Falcons offense in 2009. When Turner was forced out from the lineup due to injury for five games, Snelling picked up his game, establishing new career-highs in carries (142), and rushing yards (613), while hauling in 30 receptions, for 259 receiving yards and five total touchdowns. Snelling topped off his best season as a pro with a career-best 147 rushing yards in the season finale win at Tampa Bay.

Although Turner was limited to 11 games played, he was a force when healthy due to Brown's positive influence. Turner scored 10 touchdowns and finished with a team-leading 871 yards for a personal-best (as a full-time runner) 4.9 yards per carry average.
Brown's first year in charge of Falcons running backs in 2008 was also Turner's first shot at being a full-time starter in the NFL. Both experiences proved to be very successful. Turner finished second in the League behind Adrian Peterson in Minnesota (by just 61 yards) with 1,699 rushing yards and set a franchise record with 17 rushing touchdowns. The 1,699 yards is the third-best season total all-time in Falcons annals.

Under Brown's leadership, Turner's breakout year also included eight, 100-yard rushing games with a pair of impressive 200-plus yard contests. In his first game in a Falcons uniform, Turner shattered the team record for rushing yards in a game with 220 in a victory over the Detroit Lions. Turner finished second in the NFL in MVP voting, earned a Pro Bowl nod for the first time in his career, and captured NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors three times.

Before coming to Atlanta, Brown's coaching career spanned 22 years, including the previous six seasons at Indiana University.

Brown's coaching performance at Indiana in his first five seasons earned him the Assistant Head Coach title on top of his duties as Special Teams Co-Coordinator and Running Backs Coach in 2007. The Hooisers ranked third in the Big Ten in scoring offense in 2007 (31.7 points per game) while the team logged 157.4 rushing yards per game. With an assist from Brown, Indiana kicker Austin Starr led the conference in field goal percentage with a 91.3 mark (21 of 23). In 2006, Marcus Thigpen led the nation in kickoff return average (30.1) while the university led the nation in the category in 2004.

In Brown's first five seasons at IU, Hoosier running backs averaged 1,549 rushing yards per season. In his first year (2002), Indiana gained 1,398 yards despite not having a running back with more than 90 career carries entering the '02 campaign. In 2003, BenJarvus Green Ellis became the seventh true freshman in Indiana history to rush for 100 yards in a game and just the third freshman to eclipse the 200-yard plateau in a single-game.

Prior to his stint at Indiana, Brown served as the Running Backs Coach for the Memphis Maniax of the XFL. Under Brown, the Maniax led the XFL in total offense, finishing second in rushing offense while averaging over 100 yards per game.

Brown calls the state of Tennessee home as the Sweetwater native spent his first 17 years of coaching in the state following his graduation from Memphis State University in 1982. For 10 seasons (1989-98), he was an assistant coach at Tennessee Tech University, serving in a capacity of roles including: Wide Receivers Coach, Special Teams Coach and Quarterbacks Coach with the Golden Eagles.

Tennessee Tech pieced together two of its best seasons while Brown was a member of the staff. From 1992-1993, the Golden Eagles posted a 15-7 overall record and a 13-3 mark in the Ohio Valley Conference. Brown also received two minority coaching fellowships with the New York Jets (1990) and the Miami Dolphins (1996). During those internships, he worked with some of the NFL's best receivers, including Al Toon, Rob Moore and Terence Mathis of the Jets and Fred Barnett, O.J. McDuffie and Charles Jordan of the Miami Dolphins.

In 1983, Brown got his coaching start at the University of Tennessee where he began as a graduate assistant. In 1984, he became an administrative assistant and served as the Volunteers' scout and computer analyst. Brown was part of a Tennessee coaching staff for six seasons (1983-1988) and worked with seven All-America selections, including Reggie White, Tim McGee and Anthony Miller.

Brown played as a wide receiver from 1979-1981 at Memphis State University and graduated as a scholar-athlete in 1982 with a bachelor's degree in marketing/transportation.

Brown and his wife, Jill, have one daughter, Caitlin.

MARK COLLINS

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Mark Collins returns for his fourth season with the Falcons after a successful foray in the college ranks. In addition to his Defensive Assistant duties, Collins will also continue to assist Ray Hamilton with the defensive line.

Last season, Collins' efforts with the defensive line helped lead the Falcons to a 13-3 record, the NFC South Division title and the number one seed in the NFC playoffs. The defensive line produced 20.5 of the team's 29 sacks in 2012, in addition to logging 44 tackles for loss. Defensive tackle Jonathan Babineaux put together another solid season with the assistance of Collins. Babineaux led all interior defensive linemen with 42 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, five passes defensed, 3.5 sacks, one interception and one forced fumble in 16 games.

In 2011, Collins' work with the defensive line allowed the Birds to hold opponents to an average of 97 rushing yards per game, which was the sixth-best in the League. Atlanta held eight of its 16 opponents to under 100 rushing yards, including four of its last eight games, and stopped the opposition in the backfield 41 times last year.

Prior to his arrival in the NFL, Collins was an assistant coach, working with the safeties for the University of Louisiana-Monroe in 2009. He coached two All-Sun Belt selections in safeties Greg James and James Truxillo. The Warhawks defense allowed an average of 236.9 passing yards a game while totaling 13 interceptions during his lone year at the Monroe, Louisiana school.

Collins served as a graduate assistant at the University of Georgia in 2007. During his stay in Athens, the Bulldogs enjoyed an 11-2 season and a No. 2 ranking in the final Associated Press poll. Georgia won its last seven contests of the season, which included a 41-10 victory over Hawaii in the Sugar Bowl.

In 2006, Collins served as the Linebackers Coach for Georgia Southern University and also worked with the special teams and was the camp and clinic director. At GSU, Collins coached AFCA first-team All-America selection John Mohring.

A graduate of East Tennessee State University, Collins joined the coaching staff of his alma mater in 1999 and served in a variety of roles, including Outside Linebackers Coach, Defensive Line Coach, Special Teams Coordinator and Assistant Defensive Backs Coach. Following four seasons at ETSU, Collins was hired by the University of Michigan where he was part of two Big Ten Championships and back-to-back trips to the Rose Bowl. He worked with the team's linebackers as well as the offensive linemen during his two seasons in Ann Arbor, Mich.

JOE DANNA

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Joe Danna enters his second season as the Falcons defensive backs coach. Danna is responsible for working alongside Secondary Coach Tim Lewis on a daily basis coaching the safeties and corners.

In 2012, Danna's help with the safeties paid off as the young tandem of Thomas DeCoud and William Moore, each earned their first Pro Bowl selections. DeCoud finished 2012 with 89 tackles, nine passes defensed, a team-high six interceptions and one fumble recovery. The fifth-year safety out of California accounted for seven of Atlanta's 31 takeaways in 2012. His safety-mate, Moore, posted a career year in Nolan's defense. Moore recorded a career-high 105 tackles, eight passes defensed, four interceptions, four tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery, while earning NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance vs. the Saints in Week 13.

Prior to arriving in Atlanta, he served two years as the Miami Dolphins Assistant Defensive Backs Coach. Danna has 15 years of coaching experience, including five years of NFL experience. While with Miami, Danna assisted in producing one of the top secondary units in the NFL. Under his guidance, the Dolphins pass defense ranked eighth in the NFL in 2010.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Danna spent two seasons with the Atlanta Falcons as a defensive assistant (2008-09). Danna was a four-year letter winning wide receiver at Central Michigan University (1995-98) and remained with the Chippewas following his playing career to serve as a student assistant (1999) and then as a graduate assistant (2000). Following a season as graduate assistant at the University of Georgia (2001), Danna returned to his alma mater where for the next four seasons he served as wide receivers coach (2002, 2005) and safeties coach (2003-04). Following his tenure at Central Michigan, he spent the next two seasons as the defensive backs coach at Georgia Southern (2006) and James Madison (2007) before joining the Falcons in 2008.

Danna earned his bachelor's degree in elementary education and social studies with a language arts minor from Central Michigan.

The Midland, Michigan native and his wife, Nicole, have two sons, Luke and Zack, and a daughter, Lindsey.

PAUL DUNN

OFFENSIVE LINE

A 30-year coaching veteran, Paul Dunn is entering his sixth season with the club.

Last season, Dunn's offensive line group helped lead the Falcons to a NFC-best 13-3 mark and one of the most productive offensive seasons in team history. The offensive line was anchored by fifth-year left tackle Sam Baker. Baker returned from injury in 2012 and was credited with only giving up 3.5 sacks according to STATS Inc. in 16 games. His 3.5 sacks allowed ranked tied for third in the NFL amongst tackles that started all 16 games.

Dunn's group of offensive lineman also assisted in producing two 1,000-yard receivers (Roddy White, 1,351 & Julio Jones, 1,198) and allowing quarterback Matt Ryan to have a career-year and earn his second Pro Bowl appearance. In 2012, Ryan set franchise and personal bests in passing yards (4,719), attempts (615), completions (422), consecutive passes without an interception (272), completion percentage (68.6), touchdowns (32), most consecutive completions (22) and most 300-yard games in a season (seven).

In 2011, Dunn's offensive line paved the way for record breaking performances by RB Michael Turner and Ryan. Turner became only the second running back in franchise history to record back to back 1,300-yard seasons and only the third back to log three seasons of 1,300+ rushing yards in team annals. Dunn's offensive line also helped protect Ryan as he threw for a then franchise single-season record 4,177 yards and a then career-high 29 touchdowns.

Dunn's diligent work with the offensive line continued to be a bright spot for the Falcons offense in 2010. Some of the offensive accomplishments achieved through the strong play of the line included setting a team record for most first downs in a season with 353 and scoring the third-most points in club history with 414.

The team's offensive line also helped the Birds rank third in the NFL in time of possession (32:15), third down conversions (46.7%) and scoring efficiency (scoring on 70 of 178 possessions).

A proud moment for Dunn in 2010 came when former tackle Tyson Clabo was named to the Pro Bowl to become the first offensive lineman afforded such honors since 1998. With Clabo's addition, the Falcons totaled an NFC-high six Pro Bowlers on offense.

Through the solid blocking of Dunn's offensive line, QB Matt Ryan threw for 3,705 yards and 28 touchdowns. In addition, White broke the club record for receptions in a season with a League-high 115 and Turner pounded his way to another Pro Bowl with an NFC-best 1,317 rushing yards.

In 2009, Atlanta's offensive line blocked for a passing attack that totaled 3,571 net passing yards, the sixth-highest total in team history (at that time) and the highest mark since the 1996 season. The Falcons also averaged 4.2 rushing yards per carry behind the stout line as Atlanta produced a 9-7 record and back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in franchise history.

In Dunn's first campaign in 2008, the offensive line set a franchise record for the fewest sacks allowed in a season with just 17 (allowing one sack per every 25.5 plays). The following season the trend continued as the unit totaled an average of one sack per every 21.1 plays in 2009, which was the second-best mark for a season in club annals.

In 2008, the offensive line paved the way for the NFL's second ranked rushing offense (152.7 yards per game) and Pro Bowl running back Michael Turner. Turner ranked second in the NFL in rushing (1,699 yards), marking the third-highest rushing total in Falcons history. Under the guidance of Dunn, the offensive line also assisted Turner crossing the goal line a franchise-high 17 times and passing the 200-yard plateau on two occasions. The Falcons' offensive line also provided time for NFL Rookie of the Year QB Matt Ryan as he threw for 3,440 yards (on 265 of 434 passing) with 16 touchdowns.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Dunn served as the Offensive Line Coach (2005-2007) for the University of Pittsburgh Panthers, his alma mater. In 2007, Pitt's offensive line opened holes for freshman running back LeSean McCoy to rush for 1,328 yards while breaking freshman records in touchdowns (14) and points (90), which were previously held by Tony Dorsett. McCoy has developed into a Pro Bowl running back for the Philadelphia Eagles. The offensive line also paved the way for LaRod Stephens-Howling who currently serves as a running back and kick returner for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Before returning to Pittsburgh, Dunn was the Running Game Coordinator and Offensive Line Coach for the Kentucky Wildcats from 2003-04.

Dunn also registered a five-year coaching stint at Kansas State University as the Running Game Coordinator and Offensive Line Coach. During Dunn's tenure, the Wildcats ranked among the nation's top five in scoring four times, including a national-best 48 points per game in 1998. Dunn coached four Kansas State players who earned All-America honors, including first-team honoree Nick Leckey who played for the New Orleans Saints. Additionally, Ryan Lijia earned All-Big 12 honors and was a starting guard for the Super Bowl Champion Indianapolis Colts during the 2006 season. Dunn also guided running back Darren Sproles, who is a current running back for the New Orleans Saints. Sproles graduated ranked 11th on the all-time college rushing yards list and sixth in all-purpose yards.

Dunn earned his coaching start at Pittsburgh as a graduate assistant in 1983. A three-year letterman during his collegiate career at Pitt (1978-82), Dunn was a member of four teams that finished in the Top 10, including two that finished second in at least one major poll. He played with former Falcons number one draft pick Bill Fralic. The Panthers went 11-1 in three consecutive years (1979- 81), including the 1980 campaign when Pitt was named the nation's top team by the New York Times. Four of his collegiate teammates; QB Dan Marino, OL Russ Grimm, LB Ricky Jackson and DE Chris Doleman are members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Dunn and his wife, Melody, have been married 28 years and have three children, two daughters, Katlyn and Kelsey, and one son, Casey.

RAY HAMILTON

DEFENSIVE LINE

A 27-year veteran of the NFL as both a player and coach, Ray Hamilton embarks on his sixth season as a key member of the Falcons defensive coaching staff.

Prior to the start of the 2013 season, Hamilton's defensive line received several new pieces. The Falcons added two-time Super Bowl champion and two-time Pro Bowl defensive end Osi Umenyiora. Umenyiora has tallied 430 total tackles (155 solo) with 75 sacks 31 forced fumbles and 13 fumble recoveries in 129 games over his 10 year career. Since 2003, Umenyiora's 75 career sacks rank ninth in the NFL. He was named a First Team All-Pro by the Associated Press in 2005 and a Second Team All-Pro in 2010. Atlanta also added two defensive ends in the Draft by selecting Malliciah Goodman out of the Clemson in the fourth round and Stansly Maponga from TCU in the fifth round.

Last season, Hamilton's defensive line proved to be play an important role in the Falcons NFC-best 13-3 record and appearance in the NFC Championship game. The production of the D-Line helped Atlanta rank fifth in the NFL in scoring defense (18.7 ppg.), while holding opponents to 20 points or less on nine occasions.

With the guidance of Hamilton, Jonathan Babineaux had one of his most productive seasons while splitting time between defensive tackle and defensive end. Last season, Babineaux recorded 42 tackles, with 3.5 sacks. According to STATS Inc., he ranked second among defensive tackles with 8.5 tackles behind the line of scrimmage. Since he was drafted by the Falcons in 2005, his 49.5 stuffs are the most by any defensive tackle.

In the Falcons Divisional Round playoff win over Seattle, the Seahawks held the ball at the Atlanta six-yard line with 25 seconds on the clock in the first half. Following two incomplete passes and a penalty, Babineaux busted through the line and sacked QB Russell Wilson, which allowed the clock to run out and kept Seattle off the scoreboard. He finished the game with three tackles, one sack, one tackle for loss and one quarterback hit.

After seven seasons in Atlanta, DE John Abraham was released following the 2012 season. Under the tutelage of Hamilton, Abraham continued to etch his name in the NFL and Falcons record books. He led the team again in sacks with 10 in 2012, and Abe's total of 54.5 sacks since 2008 with the aide of Hamilton's coaching is the fourth-highest total in the entire NFL. Abraham finished his Falcons career as the NFL's active leader in sacks (122.0) and second in Falcons' history in sacks (68.5). "The Predator" also entered into select company with Hamilton's guidance when he grabbed two sacks at Carolina in week 14 in 2010 to make him the 25th player in NFL history to record 100 or more sacks in a career.

Hamilton's adept work with the defensive line helped the Falcons post the sixth-best rushing defense in the League in 2011, surrendering just an average of 97 yards per game. His hard-working linemen had a hand in holding eight of their opponents under 100-yards rushing, including four of the last eight games, to help clinch a playoff berth down the stretch. The Falcons defense also ranked second in the League in red zone efficiency (at 78.7 pct.). With Hamilton's line playing an important role, the defense since 2008 has been the third stingiest in the NFC in points allowed at 20.1.

DT Corey Peters has developed nicely under the watchful eye of Hamilton. Peters has turned into a solid starter in his three-years on the job after entering the League as a third-round draft pick in 2010. Peters has started 28 of 39 games and has tallied 94 tackles, four sacks, four passes defensed, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble. The former Kentucky star also managed to pick off his first NFL pass to clinch a win over Carolina in 2011.

Hamilton's crew up front helped the Falcons defense finish 10th in the League and fifth in the NFC in rush defense in 2010. Also, they held opponents to 18 points a game to rank fifth in the NFL and third in the NFC in that category. The Falcons red zone defense was the fifth toughest among all teams, allowing only 23 touchdowns on the season.
In 2009, Hamilton's committed efforts with defensive tackle Jonathan Babineaux paid off as Babs compiled a career-best season. He set personal-bests in sacks with a team-leading six, tackles with 58, and fumble recoveries with a pair in 16 starts.

"Sugar Bear's" strong line play in '09 allowed the Falcons defense to finish 10th in the NFL against the rush and surrender just one 100-yard rusher all season. Atlanta's defense also enjoyed a productive streak of 10 consecutive quarters without allowing a touchdown.

In 2008, Hamilton's plan for Abraham worked to perfection as he totaled a franchise record and career-high 16.5 sacks. Under the direction of Hamilton, the defensive line recorded 31 of the team's 34 sacks on the year.

Prior to coming to the Falcons, Hamilton was the Defensive Line Coach in Jacksonville from 2003-07. The Jaguars defense ranked fourth in the NFL during that time in yards per game (300.1) and fourth in scoring defense (18.2). The defensive line also posted 180 sacks in that same time frame led by Pro Bowlers Marcus Stroud and John Henderson.

During the 2007 campaign, Jacksonville's defense ranked sixth in the AFC in points allowed per game (19.0) while ranking fifth in the conference in rushing defense (100.3). The Jags also held opponents to 17 points or less in 10 of 16 games, which tied for the most in the NFL with three other teams.

In 2006, Hamilton guided defensive end Bobby McCray who developed into one of the AFC's top pass rushers as he led Jacksonville with a career-high 10 sacks.The defensive line combined for 29.5 sacks, ranking fourth in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per game.

Prior to joining Jacksonville, Hamilton spent two seasons as the Defensive Line Coach for the Cleveland Browns from 2001-02. In his first season with Cleveland, the Browns tied for fourth in the AFC with 43 sacks. For three seasons, Hamilton served as New England's defensive line coach from 1997-99 and joined the New York Jets staff in 2000. His 1998 defensive line tallied 25 of the team's 36 sacks, the seventh-best total in the NFL.

In 1995, Hamilton joined the Jets in his first stint with the team as the Defensive Line Coach. He coached defensive end Hugh Douglas, who was named the 1995 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. From 1993-94, Hamilton was a member of the Los Angeles Raiders where he developed Chester McGlockton and a defensive line that combined for 83 sacks in his two seasons with the Silver & Black.

Hamilton spent his only season in the collegiate ranks with the University of Tennessee in 1992 as the Defensive Line Coach, following stints as the Defensive Line Coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1991) and the Head Coach of the Bay State Titans (1990), a semi-pro team that featured defensive tackle Eric Swann (the sixth overall choice in the 1991 NFL Draft).

Hamilton began his coaching career in 1985, spending five seasons as an Assistant Defensive Line coach with the New England Patriots. He helped the Patriots reach their first AFC Championship title and a Super Bowl XX appearance.

A 14th-round draft choice by the Patriots, Hamilton was a fixture on the New England defensive line from 1973-81 while establishing rookie records with seven sacks. He went on to start a team record 110 consecutive games and currently ranks fifth on the Patriots' all-time sack list with 54.

Hamilton was born in Omaha, Nebraska and raised in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He graduated from Oklahoma with a degree in business and was named an all-conference selection as a defensive tackle in both his junior and senior seasons. Hamilton received a master's degree in public administration in 1977 from Suffolk University while playing for the Patriots. Hamilton and his wife, Phyllis, have two sons, Kadar and Damon.

PAT HILL

OFFENSIVE LINE

Pat Hill begins his second season as the Falcons offensive line coach. Hill and Coach Paul Dunn work closely together as they develop the offensive line and help protect QB Matt Ryan and open running lanes for the ground attack.

In Hill's first season with the Falcons the offensive line proved to be a pillar of stability. In 16 games, Atlanta started only two different offensive line combinations. The offensive line assisted in the Falcons NFC-best 13-3 record and posting the second most total yards in team history (5,906), in addition to recording the third most first downs in a single-season (342). Atlanta's offense also registered the third highest point total in a single season in 2012 (419) behind the offensive line.

Under the guidance of Hill, the Falcons offensive line saw the emergence of fifth-year left tackle Sam Baker and rookie guard Peter Konz. Baker returned from injury in 2012 and was credited with only giving up 3.5 sacks according to STATS Inc. in 16 games. His 3.5 sacks allowed ranked tied for third in the NFL amongst tackles that started all 16 games. Konz, a second round draft pick (55th overall) in 2012, was thrust into a starting role when Garrett Reynolds was lost for the season in Week 6. He started the final 10 games of the regular season and both playoff games. In 2013, Konz will make the transition to center, his natural position, under the coaching of Hill.

Together wtih Paul Dunn, the group of offensive lineman also assisted in producing two 1,000-yard receivers (Roddy White, 1,351 & Julio Jones, 1,198) and allowing quarterback Matt Ryan to have a career-year and earn his second Pro Bowl appearance. Jones was also named to his first Prow Bowl for his efforts.

Hill came to the Falcons after spending 15 seasons (1997-2011) as the head coach at Fresno State University where he led the Bulldogs to a 112-80 overall record and went to 11 bowl games. Hill led Fresno State to 15 wins over BCS teams during the last decade, which is the highest win total of any non-BCS team in the nation. The Bulldogs won the WAC championship in 1999 and during Hill's tenure the program consistently played one of the countries toughest non-conference schedules. He also produced the most Academic All-WAC players in school history over his 15 seasons.

Hill's stamp on the Fresno State football program is undeniable. After 15 years, the Bulldog program was nationally recognized for its success in all areas: wins and bowl games appearances, academic achievement, and character of the young men who came through the program. Under Hill, the program received national attention and was recognized as a premier program.

Hill's program grew accustomed of being in the national spotlight. Never was it brighter than in 2001, when Hill guided the program to unprecedented heights - 11 wins, a bowl invitation, a top 10 ranking, wins over Wisconsin, Colorado and Oregon State, another record-setting attendance mark and a Sports Illustrated cover story.

Prior to joining the Bulldogs, Hill spent five seasons as an assistant offensive line/tight ends coach in the NFL. Hill joined the Cleveland Browns in 1992 and spent four seasons (1992-95) in the organization, coaching tight ends and offensive line in addition to working in the personnel department evaluating players. While there, he formed a life-lasting friendship with New England Patriots head coach Bill Belichick, whom Hill credits for teaching him with a structure that has proven successful. In 1996, he became the offensive line/tight ends coach for the Baltimore Ravens before going on to become the head coach of Fresno State in 1997.

the University of Arizona as Dick Tomey's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in 1990 and '91. In just his first season, the Wildcats went 7-5 and played in the Aloha Bowl. Both seasons, the 'Cats finished in the top five of the Pac-10 in rushing offense, averaging nearly 200 yards per game on the ground.

Hill was the Bulldogs' recruiting coordinator from 1984-89. During that six-year stint as the recruiting coordinator and line coach under former head coach Jim Sweeney, Hill contributed at a championship level. In addition to the conference crowns and bowl victories, the Bulldogs saw 14 players drafted by NFL teams. Fresno State's 1985 team was the only unbeaten Division I-A squad in the country, finishing the season 16th in the polls. Hill's offensive line also provided the pass protection and run blocking for an offensive unit that averaged 32 points per game over those six seasons, including a nation-leading 41 points per game in '85.

Hill began his coaching career as offensive line coach at Los Angeles Valley College from 1974-76, helping the Monarchs to a state junior college championship in 1975. He then served as offensive line coach at Utah from 1977-80 under Wayne Howard; was offensive line coach and offensive coordinator at UNLV from 1981-82 under Tony Knapp; and was offensive coordinator with the Calgary Stampeders of the CFL in 1983 under Jack Gotta.

A 1973 graduate of UC Riverside, Hill was a three-time all-conference center, earning All-America honors as a senior. He was inducted into the UC Riverside Hall of Fame in 1989. It was at UC Riverside where he crossed paths with Ron McBride, then a UCR assistant and formerly the Utah head coach, who helped steer Hill into a football coaching career.

Hill and his wife, Cathy, have three children and one grandchild, Copper Patrick. Their eldest, Michael, ismarried and is the head coach and Hoover High School in Fresno, CA. . Zak is waiting to be admitted to medical school and Matt is finishing his degree in Phycology at the University of Georgia. Hill was born Dec. 17, 1951, in Los Angeles.

TIM LEWIS

SECONDARY

Now entering his fourth season as the Falcons secondary coach, Tim Lewis' influence and mark has been put on Atlanta's defensive backfield. Since 2011, Atlanta's defense ranks sixth in the League in interceptions (39) and seventh in passes defensed (169).

Under the guidance of Lewis in 2012, Atlanta's secondary felt the presence of 10-year NFL veteran CB Asante Samuel. Samuel started 15 games and led the Falcons in passes defensed (19) and finished second in interceptions (five). His 19 passes defensed ranked fifth in the NFL and were the third highest total in his career. With the assistance of Lewis, Samuel notched his 50th career interception in Atlanta's season finale against Tampa Bay in 2012. According to STATS LLC., Samuel is the second fastest cornerback to reach 50 career regular season interceptions, accomplishing the feat in 146 games. Only Lem Barney notched 50 interceptions in fewer games (114).

The 2012 season also saw the emergence of CB Robert McClain and safeties William Moore and Thomas DeCoud. McClain, the second-year corner out of Connecticut, burst onto the scene and tallied 65 tackles, 10 passes defensed, two fumble recoveries, one tackle for loss and one interception in 15 games. DeCoud finished 2012 with 89 tackles, nine passes defensed, a team-high and career-high six interceptions and one fumble recovery. The fifth-year safety out of California accounted for seven of Atlanta's 31 takeaways in 2012. His safety-mate, Moore, posted a career year under Lewis' tutelage. Moore recorded a career-high 105 tackles, eight passes defensed, four interceptions, four tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery, while earning NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance vs. the Saints in Week 13.

Atlanta continued to remake their secondary during the 2013 Draft. The Falcons selected four defensive backs in the draft, including CB Desmond Trufant (22nd overall), CB Robert Alford (60th overall), S Kemal Ishmael (243rd overall) and S Zeke Motta (244th overall). Lewis will be charged with helping mold this group of young players into contributors and possibly starter for the Falcons in 2013 and the seasons to come.

In 2011, the back-end of the Falcons defense was spearheaded by DeCoud who set a then career-high in interceptions (four); he also finished third on the team in tackles (108). In his second season with the Falcons, CB Dunta Robinson put together his most complete performance. The eight-year veteran finished fourth in tackles (64), tied for second in interceptions (two) and third in passes defensed (nine).

In his first season in Atlanta, Lewis made an immediate impact in the Falcons secondary in 2010. One of the many areas where his presence was strongly felt was in the rapid development of CB Brent Grimes.

Lewis' meticulous work with Grimes vaulted the former small school product from Shippensburg from a potential starter in the preseason into a spot on the NFC Pro Bowl squad. Grimes emerged through Lewis' help to set a new team record for passes defensed in a season (23). He was targeted 113 times by opposing quarterbacks and fought through that barrage to emerge as a dependable starter in a revamped Falcons secondary. Grimes showcased his talents and made Lewis proud by picking off a pass in the Pro Bowl.

Through the steady direction supplied by Lewis, Grimes and safety William Moore tied for team lead with five interceptions. Grimes was named NFC

Defensive Player of the Week (15) after he caused two turnovers, including an interception, along with five passes defensed, to help the Falcons notch a 34-18 win at Seattle. Moore finished third on team in tackles with a career-high 108.

Lewis brings 19 years of NFL coaching experience to the Falcons secondary. Lewis is known around the League for his expertise in the coverage and pressure package fields as he has served as either a Defensive Backs Coach or Defensive Coordinator throughout his entire coaching tenure.

Lewis began his pro career serving as the Pittsburgh Steelers Defensive Backs Coach for five seasons (1995-99) before being named Defensive Coordinator over the next four years. His defense ranked seventh overall in his first season as coordinator and jumped to lead the League in total defense in 2001. In 2002 and 2003, his unit also finished in the NFL's top 10, giving him four-consecutive top-10 finishes as a Defensive Coordinator. Lewis coached the likes of cornerback Rod Woodson in Pittsburgh for two seasons (1995-96). In '96, the Hall of Famer contributed with six interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and 19 passes defensed.

Following his coaching stint with the Steelers, Lewis spent three years as Defensive Coordinator with the New York Giants. In 2005, his defense did not allow a touchdown in a span that covered 15 quarters and 53 opponent possessions. During his three-year tenure, the Giants ranked sixth in the NFC in opponents passing yards per attempt average (6.79) and second in the conference in opponent passing plays of 25-plus yards allowed. In 2004, New York ranked fifth in the NFC in total defense allowing an average of 339.8 yards per game.

Lewis' coaching career started as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M in 1987 under Jackie Sherrill, who was his coach as a player at the University of Pittsburgh.

Following two seasons with the Aggies, he spent four years (1989-92) as the Defensive Backs Coach at Southern Methodist University. After his stint in Dallas at SMU, Lewis joined legendary coach Johnny Majors at his alma mater for two seasons at the University of Pittsburgh.

Lewis was the 11th overall pick in the 1983 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers. He played four seasons for the Packers and twice led or shared the team lead in interceptions before his career was cut short due to a neck injury suffered in the third game of the 1986 season against the Chicago Bears. He finished his career with 16 interceptions in 51 games, including a 99-yard interception return for a touchdown against the Rams on November 18, 1984 to set a Packers record.

Tim's brother, Will, is the Direcotr of Pro Scouting for the Kansas City Chiefs. TIm and his wife, Shawn, have two daughters, Erin and Chelsea, and a son, Bryce.

GLENN PIRES

LINEBACKERS

Glenn Pires will begin his sixth season as the Falcons linebackers coach in 2013. The 2013 campaign marks his 18th season overall in the NFL. Since 2008, Pires' linebackers have helped Atlanta become the second stingiest unit in the NFC in points allowed (19.8 ppg).

Last season, Atlanta's linebacker corps was paced by the direction of Pires. His starting linebackers, Sean Weatherspoon, Stephen Nicholas and Akeem Dent combined to tally 309 tackles, 16 tackles for loss, 10 passes defensed, five sacks, two interceptions, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Under the tutelage of Pires, the Falcons defense also witnessed the emergence of a new leader in Weatherspoon. The fourth-year linebacker out of Missouri embraced his new leadership role and flourished on the field by posting a career-high 114 tackles, six tackles for loss, four passes defensed, three sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery in 13 games.

Pires' work also helped Dent, a second-year linebacker from the University of Georgia; develop into a solid starter for the Falcons defense. As a rookie in 2011, Dent collared 19 special teams tackles, but he was called on as a starter in 2012. He took to the challenge and with the help of Pires posted 79 tackles, five tackles for loss, and two passes defensed. Nicholas also produced a career-year last season as he collared a career and team-high 116 tackles, five tackles for loss, four passes defensed, two sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

In 2011, Pires' crew of hard-working linebackers enabled the Falcons defense to finish sixth in the League in rush defense, allowing opponents to an average of just 97 yards per contest. Atlanta's defense held eight of its 16 opponents to under 100 yards rushing, including four of its last eight games. This gritty defense also stopped opponents to the tune of just 37 scores in trips to the red zone for a 78.7 percentage, second-best red zone efficiency in the entire NFL in 2011.

Last season, through the direction of Pires, two of his linebackers were atop the leader board in the tackling department. Weatherspoon was one of those leaders and has grown tremendously in two-years with the help of Pires. Weatherspoon racked up a career-high 127 tackles, with 86 solos, including double-digit stops in six games and added three sacks in 16 starts. As a rookie in 2010, the former number one pick out of Missouri ended up with 52 tackles in 11 games and showed glimpses of the consistent player he would become.

From 2009-2010, through the excellent coaching of Pires, the linebackers helped the Falcons defense rank 10th in the NFL in rushing defense, yielding 105.9 and 106.8 yards per game, respectively. The 2009 defense allowed just one 100-yard rusher the entire season and the Birds also enjoyed a productive streak of 10 consecutive quarters without allowing a touchdown.

In his first season in 2008, Pires' relentless work with Curtis Lofton allowed the first-year player to earn All-Rookie honors from Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly as he finished with the second most tackles by any rookie with 108.

Prior to landing in Atlanta, Pries worked five seasons (2003-07) with the Miami Dolphins and coached such players as Pro Bowlers Zach Thomas and Joey Porter along with the talented Channing Crowder. Pires started his tenure with the Dolphins as the Assistant Defensive Line coach from 2003-04 and coached Pro Bowl defensive ends Jason Taylor and Adewale Ogunleye.

Before joining the Dolphins, Pires spent each of the previous two years (2001-02) as Linebackers Coach with the Detroit Lions. He got his start in the NFL coaching ranks tutoring the linebackers with the Arizona Cardinals in 1996 while spending the next five seasons at that post.

A four-year letterman as on offensive lineman at Springfield College (Massachusetts), Pires earned his bachelor's degree in education from the school in 1980. He started his coaching career as an assistant coach at Melrose High School (Massachusetts). In 1983, he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant for Syracuse University before moving on to Dartmouth College where he served as the Defensive Line/Linebackers Coach from 1985-88. Pires returned to Syracuse in 1989 and coached the Orange defensive line for two seasons before handling outside linebackers from 1991- 94. His last stop in the collegiate ranks came at Michigan State University where he coached outside linebackers and handled recruiting duties in 1995.

A native of New Bedford, Mass., Pires and his wife, Lynn, have one daughter, Jackie and one son, Michael.

TERRY ROBISKIE

ASSIT. HEAD COACH/WRs

Terry Robiskie's experience in the NFL spans over three decades, and one of the most respected wide receiver coaches in the NFL, will continue to tutor the Falcons wide receivers for a sixth season in 2013. He will also assume assistant head coach duties in 2013, after being promoted in the offseason.

Robiskie's tireless efforts with WR Roddy White have allowed White to emerge as one of the top wide receivers in the NFL. White is in the midst of one of the most impressive runs by any receiver in NFL history. He finished the 2012 regular season with 92 catches for 1,351 yards, becoming just the fifth player in NFL history to record three consecutive seasons with 90+ receptions and 1,200+ yards (2010-12). White joined WR Marvin Harrison (1999-2002), WR Tory Holt (2002-05), WR Jerry Rice (1993-96) and Chad Johnson (2003-05) as the only players to accomplish the feat. By accomplishing this feat, White also became the sixth receiver in NFL history to record six consecutive seasons with at least 80 catches and 1,000 receiving yards (2007-12).

Under the watchful eye of Robiskie, White has also soared up the Falcons record books and currently sits atop in almost every category. White is currently the Falcons all-time leader in receptions (622) and receiving yards (8,725) and ranks third in career receiving touchdowns (52). He also played in four straight Pro Bowls under Robiskie (2008-12) and only three other Falcons in team history have performed in more in consecutive seasons. Since Robiskie took over coaching the Falcons wide receivers in 2008, White has boasted 480 catches, third overall in the NFL and tops in the NFC over that time span. White's 43 touchdowns since that time are tied for second-most in the League.

Last season, Robiskie's duo of White, and second-year receiver, Julio Jones were the best in the NFL according to statistics. White and Jones combined for an NFL-best 2,549 receiving yards on 171 catches with 17 touchdowns. White led the Falcons in receiving yards (1,351) while hauling in 92 receptions, while Jones posted career highs in receptions (79), receiving yards (1,198) and touchdowns (10). Jones earned his first Pro Bowl nod for his performance, marking the fifth straight season the Falcons have had a wide receiver voted into the Pro Bowl under Robiskie.

White and Jones teamed to make the Falcons one of just four teams in the NFL with two 1,000-yard receivers in 2012. They were the first Falcons teammates to post 1,000 receiving yards in the same season since WR Tony Martin (1,181) and Terance Mathis (1,136) each accomplished the feat in 1998. It also marked the fourth time in team history two players have eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark in the same season. In a Week 9 win over the Dallas Cowboys, White and Jones each tallied over 100 receiving yards, marking the third time that the duo as recorded 100 yards each in a single game. Jones and White accomplished the feat twice in 2011. Overall, the Falcons have had two receivers go over 100 yards in the same game 14 times in franchise history.

Through Robiskie's help in 2011, the former UAB product hauled in a team-high 100 receptions for 1,296 yards and eight touchdowns. White's performance garnered him his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl berth. And through the collective play of Robiskie's receivers, the Falcons offense established a team record for net yards gained with 6,026.

The veteran coach also tutored talented rookie Julio Jones in 2011. Under Robiskie's direction, Jones enjoyed the best season by a Falcons rookie receiver with 54 receptions for 959 yards and an NFL rookie-high of eight scores, including a streak of touchdown catches in each of the final four games. Jones' fantastic rookie campaign also included five, 100-yard receiving games with a season-high of 138 yards on the heels of a sterling 80-yard touchdown at Indianapolis in Week 9.

The 2011 season also witnessed the return of another Robiskie pupil with tons of potential in Harry Douglas. Douglas hauled in a personal-best 39 catches for 498 yards and one score after sitting out 2009 with a knee injury.

In 2010, White set career and franchise highs in receptions (115) and receiving yards (1,389), in addition to adding 10 touchdown grabs. White tallied five 100-yard receiving games on his way to his third consecutive Pro Bowl selection. Under Robiskie's watchful eye, White became the first Falcon wide receiver to record at least 80 catches and 1,100-plus yards in four consecutive seasons.

Robiskie's constant work with White enabled the veteran to haul in 85 catches for 1,153 yards with a career-high 11 touchdowns en route to his second career Pro Bowl nod in 2009. His 210-yard receiving day at San Francisco set a new club record and his 90-yard touchdown grab that day was the third-longest in team history. Robiskie's receivers also collectively helped the offense post the second-most total first downs in a single-season in team history with 330.
Robiskie's unit in 2008 aided the ground game with their solid downfield blocking as Falcons runners totaled 2,443 yards rushing with a 152.7 per game average. Running back Michael Turner earned his first Pro Bowl with 1,699 yards rushing and a franchise record 17 rushing touchdowns.

With Robiskie's excellent coaching in '08, White produced his first Pro Bowl invitation by breaking the Falcons' single-season receiving yardage record with 1,382 yards. In the process, he became the first receiver in team history to post back-to-back 1,200-plus yard seasons. White also set a career-best with seven 100-yard receiving games. He led the NFL in the all-important category of third down receiving yards (516) while finishing second in the League in third down catches (29).

Robiskie's extensive resume includes stints as Offensive Coordinator and interim Head Coach on two occasions during his time in the League. Prior to coming to Atlanta, Robiskie served as the Wide Receivers Coach with the Miami Dolphins.

Before his stopover in Miami, Robiskie spent six years with the Cleveland Browns where he served in three different roles. In 2001, he joined the Browns as the team's Wide Receivers Coach and guided Kevin Johnson to a 1,000-yard campaign, which included nine touchdowns. In 2004, he was promoted to Offensive Coordinator and went on to serve as Cleveland's interim Head Coach for the final five games of that season. He earned a victory in a 22-14 decision in the season finale on January 2, 2005 against the Houston Texans. Robiskie oversaw Browns wide receivers in his final two seasons with the team from 2005-06.

From 1994-2000, Robiskie served as the Wide Receivers Coach (1994-98) and Passing Game Coordinator (1999-2000) for the Washington Redskins. He was also named Washington's interim Head Coach for the final three games of the 2000 campaign, earning his first NFL victory as a Head Coach in a 20-3 win in the season finale against Arizona. In Robiskie's seven years with the Redskins, there were five different individual 1,000-yard receiving seasons, including one each by Michael Westbrook (1,191) and Albert Connell (1,132) in 1999. With Robiskie as the Passing Game Coordinator in 1999, QB Brad Johnson was voted to the NFC Pro Bowl squad.

Robiskie earned his start in the NFL with the then Los Angeles Raiders in 1982 where he coached with the team for 12 seasons. During that time, he served in a variety of roles with the Silver & Black, including Assistant Special Teams Coach (1982-84), Assistant Running Backs Coach (1985-87), Tight Ends Coach (1988) and Offensive Coordinator (1989-1992). As the Offensive Coordinator, Robiskie guided the powerful running back duo of Bo Jackson and Marcus Allen, who combined to rush for 1,380 yards in 1990. The team made seven playoff appearances, won four division titles and defeated the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVIII during Robiskie's tenure.

A native of Edgard, La., Robiskie lettered four years as a running back at LSU. As a senior in 1976, he was named the Southeastern Conference MVP and his likeness is up on the wall of the Superdome as a member of the New Orleans Sports Hall of Fame. In 2012, he was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame. The Raiders selected him in the eighth round of the 1977 NFL Draft. He went on to play the next three seasons with the team (1977-79) before joining the Miami Dolphins in 1980 where he spent two years.

Robiskie and his wife, Cynthia, have three sons, Brian, Andrew and Kyle. Brian, a former wide receiver at Ohio State, plays for the Detroit Lions. Andrew was signed as a college free agent by the Oakland Raiders and Kyle is a junior at Western Illinois.

CHRIS SCELFO

TIGHT ENDS

Chris Scelfo is a 27-year veteran of the coaching fraternity and the 2013 campaign marks his sixth NFL season with the Falcons.

His remarkable work with the tight ends in Atlanta has made the Falcons tight ends one of the most dangerous receiving groups in the NFL. Since 2009, TE Tony Gonzalez ranks second among tight ends in receptions (326), receiving yards (3,328), fourth in touchdowns (27) and first in first down receptions (211). Dating back to 2010, the future Hall of Famer has also earned three straight Pro Bowl appearances under the guidance of Scelfo.

In 2012, the 16-year NFL veteran continued to turn back the hands of time. Not only did Gonzalez earn his 13th career Pro Bowl nod, but he continued to re-write the NFL and Falcons record books for tight ends. With Scelfo guidance, he led Atlanta in receptions (93) while adding 930 receiving yards and eight touchdowns. His 93 catches in 2012 rank fifth in Falcons annals for the most receptions in a single-season. Gonzalez's impressive 2012 campaign also moved his total receptions mark as a Falcon to 326, which is the most by a tight end in franchise history. He was named a Associated Press first-team All Pro for his performance in 2012. It marked the ninth time in his career that he was named either first or second-team All Pro by the Associated Press.

Scelfo's work with the future Hall of Famer has also assisted in cementing Gonzalez's legacy. Entering the 2013 season, he is only the second player in NFL history to record more than 1,200 receptions (1,242) in addition to holding the NFL record for receptions (1,242), receiving yards (14,268), touchdowns (103), 100-yard games (30), Pro Bowl appearances (13) and 1,000-yard seasons (four) than any other tight end in League history. His 103 receiving touchdowns also rank sixth in the NFL history amongst all players. Gonzalez has also posted 70 or more receptions 10 consecutive seasons dating back to 2003. According to Elias Sports Bureau, he has tied Tim Brown's record for consecutive seasons with 70 or more catches.

Under Scelfo's direction, Tony Gonzalez was voted to the NFC Pro Bowl for the second straight season time and 12th All-Star game overall in his brilliant career in 2011. Gonzalez amassed his second-highest total as a Falcon with 80 receptions (fourth-highest total by all NFL tight ends) for 875 yards and seven touchdowns. He became the NFL's second all-time leading receiver behind WR Jerry Rice with his 1,149 catches and ranks 11th in League annals with 13,338 receiving yards.

Gonzalez continues to lead all tight ends in NFL history heading into the 2012 season in receptions (1,149), yards (13,338), touchdowns (95) and 100-yard games (28), as well as holding a streak of 179 consecutive games with a reception, the third longest active streak in the League.

Scelfo's determined work with undrafted free agent Michael Palmer also paid dividends again in 2011 as the ex-Parkview High School product caught 10 passes for 72 yards, including a clutch touchdown against Minnesota in Week 12 to contribute to a 24-14 victory.

In 2010, Gonzalez totaled 70 receptions for 656 yards and six touchdowns. He became the first player in NFL history to record 12 consecutive 60-plus catch seasons, surpassing Jerry Rice's previous mark of 11. Also, Gonzalez became the first tight end in NFL history and sixth player overall to register 1,000 career receptions.

Under the watchful eye of Scelfo in 2009, Gonzalez set a then Falcons franchise record for receptions by a tight end in a season with 83 in 2009 while adding 867 receiving yards and six touchdowns. In his first game in a Falcons uniform, Gonzalez not only scored a touchdown, but became the 21st player in NFL history to top 11,000 career receiving yards.

Scelfo came to Atlanta in 2008 after spending eight years as one of the most successful head coaches in the history of Tulane University.

In 2006, as Tulane University's head boss, Scelfo became the school's career leader for games coached with 94 and ranks second among coaches in victories with 37. He is the only Green Wave head coach in the school's history with two bowl victories after guiding the university to wins in the 1998 Liberty Bowl and the 2002 Hawaii Bowl. Less than a month after he was hired to lead Tulane (1998), the Green Wave's victory over BYU in the Liberty Bowl capped a perfect 12-0 campaign.

During his winning stint at Tulane, Scelfo sent nine players to the NFL, including first round draft pick quarterbacks Patrick Ramsey (2002) and J.P. Losman (2004). His teams performed well in the classroom as well, as Scelfo's student-athletes logged an average graduation rate of 75 percent (2003-06).

In Scelfo's two previous coaching stops at the University of Georgia (1996-98) and Marshall (1990-95), his teams advanced to postseason in seven of nine seasons while registering eight winning records. At Georgia, Scelfo served as the Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line coach while the Bulldogs recorded a 23-11 mark with appearances in the Outback Bowl (1997) and Peach Bowl (1998). He coached three offensive linemen who were first or second round NFL draft picks, including first round choice Matt Stinchcomb and second rounders Adam Meadows and Chris Terry.

During Scelfo's time at Marshall, the Thundering Herd reached the I-AA national semi-finals five times, the national finals four times and won the 1992 national championship. He coached the offensive line from 1990-92 and was promoted to offensive coordinator from 1993-95, as well as maintaining his offensive line duties. As offensive coordinator, Marshall led the Southern Conference in scoring all three years while grabbing the top spot in total offense for two seasons.

Scelfo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, now the University of Louisiana at Monroe. The Indians won the I-AA national title in 1987, which came on the heels of his playing career at the school then known as Northeast Louisiana. From 1988-89, Scelfo was a graduate assistant at Oklahoma.

As a NLU player, Scelfo was a three-year letterman at center who served as captain his senior season. Scelfo and his wife, Nancy, have one daughter, Sarah Beth and a son, Joseph, who is a redshirt freshman center at South Alabama.

Chris is the co-author of "Fourth And New Orleans", the story of the Tulane Green Wave during and after Hurricane Katrina. He is also a member of the Italian-American Hall of Fame.

ERIC SUTULOVICH

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Eric Sutulovich will continue to work with Special Teams Coordinator Keith Armstrong to make sure the Falcons units continue to be considered among the very best in the NFL. The 2013 season will be Sutulovich's fifth season in Atlanta.

With assistance from Sutulovich in 2012, Atlanta's kicking game was propelled by kicker Matt Bryant as the Falcons posted a 13-3 record and won their second NFC South Division crown since 2010. Bryant produced another solid season in 2012, by connecting on 33 of 38 field goals, all 44 PATs and tallied a career and franchise single-season high 143 points. Bryant not only set the franchise mark for points in a season, he also set a new franchise mark for most field goals made in a season (33).

Atlanta's kickoff and punt return teams continued to perform at a high level due to the coaching of Sutulovich. The Falcons ranked 10th in the NFL in average starting field position (29.0 yard line) in part to Atlanta's return game. On the flipside, Atlanta's coverage troops managed to help the Falcons rank fifth in opponents average starting field position (25.5 yard line) in 2012.

With Sutulovich's help, the Falcons special teams have finished in the top 10 in NFL rankings in each of his three seasons. In 2011, Atlanta's punt coverage unit led the League in punt return average by allowing just 4.8 yards per return. In addition to that impressive number, the Falcons special team's unit forced their opponents to start a NFL-high 62 drives inside their 20-yard line.

Individual achievements were also a highlight in 2011 for the Birds special teams. K Matt Bryant set a franchise record for most consecutive field goals made in team history with 27 when he connected on a 47-yarder in the third quarter at Detroit in Week 7. Rookie LB Akeem Dent collared 19 special teams tackles, which was tied for the second-highest total in a single-season in club history.

In 2010, through Sutulovich's assistance, the Falcons special teams continued to excel. Atlanta's kickoff unit held opponents to an NFL-best average starting position of their own 22.2-yard line after kickoffs.

The Falcons were led by specialist Eric Weems who averaged 27.5 yards per kickoff return, which ranked third in the NFL and earned his first Pro Bowl selection.

Sutulovich came to Atlanta after working for one season with the Detroit Lions as an Offensive Assistant in 2008. His original foray into the NFL came with the Houston Texans in its inaugural campaign in 2002. Sutulovich was the team's Assistant Special Teams Coach for four seasons (2002-05). During his time with the Texans, he helped Houston rank first in the League in punts downed inside the 20-yard line (120), fourth in opponent punt return yard average (7.4), sixth in the AFC in kickoff touchbacks (30) and seventh in the conference in kickoff return average (22.1).

Prior to his stint in the NFL, Sutulovich spent one season as a football assistant for the University of Kansas. He also spent time in the collegiate ranks with Fort Scott Community College as the Offensive Coordinator (2001), the University of Pittsburgh as the offensive graduate assistant (2000-01) and Louisiana Tech as the offensive graduate assistant (1997-99).

In his stopover at Pittsburgh, the Panthers finished third in the Big East Conference and competed in the 2000 Insight.com Bowl. The Pittsburgh offense ranked seventh nationally in pass efficiency and 18th in total passing.

Sutulovich and his wife, Melissa, have two daughters, Sage and Ellie, and two sons, Maddax and Gabe.

GLENN THOMAS

QUARTERBACKS

Glenn Thomas enters his second season as quarterbacks coach and sixth season with the Falcons. In his first four seasons, Thomas served as the team's offensive assistant. During his tenure in Atlanta the Falcons offense has seen its most production over a five-year span in franchise history. Thomas will work with offensive coordinator Dirk Koetter and two-time Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Ryan to continue to build the Falcons offense in 2013.

Thomas' work with the quarterbacks in 2012 led to one of the most productive offensive seasons in Falcons history, and helped QB Matt Ryan reach his second Pro Bowl. Ryan set career and franchise single-season highs in passing yards (4,719), attempts (615), completions (422), touchdown passes (32) and completion percentage (68.6) while starting all 16 games. Atlanta's offense ranked seventh in passing (292.0 ypg) in the NFL and sixth in scoring offense (26.2 ppg) in the NFL.

Atlanta's offense cemented itself as one of the most efficient units in the NFL in 2010, ranking third in time of possession (32:15) and third in third down conversion (46.7 pct.). The offense propelled Atlanta to its second playoff berth in three seasons and their first NFC South Division title since 2004.

Facing significant injuries in 2009, which included QB Matt Ryan, RB Michael Turner and WRs Harry Douglas and Michael Jenkins, the Falcons passing attack was still able to register 3,571 net yards, the sixth-best total in club annals and the highest mark since 1996. Thomas also witnessed WR Roddy White tally his third consecutive 1,000-yard receiving campaign (1,153 yards) while earning Pro Bowl honors for the second consecutive year.

With the input of Thomas, the Falcons offense soared to new heights in 2008. The offense finished the season ranked second in the NFL in rushing offense (152.7 yards per game) and ranked sixth in total offense (361.2 yards per game). The offense had three players earn postseason awards with QB Matt Ryan earning Associated Press and Sporting News Rookie of the Year, and both RB Michael Turner and WR Roddy White earning their first Pro Bowl selections.

From 2001-07, Thomas spent his coaching tenure at Midwestern State. As a graduate assistant coaching wide receivers (2001-04), the Mustangs won the Lone Star North Division Championship in his first season.

Thomas oversaw the school's passing game and quarterbacks in the 2004 campaign, and helped guide MSU to its first NCAA playoff appearance in school history while recording an 8-3 record.

Thomas transformed Midwestern State's offense into a powerhouse while serving as Offensive Coordinator from 2005-07. In 2007, his offense led the entire NCAA in total offense (550.0 yards per game) and rushing yards per game (317.0).

Thomas found time to work with the Baltimore Ravens in-between seasons at Midwestern State. He was responsible for working with wide receivers (2002-03, '05) and also helped out with Baltimore's quarterbacks. It was also in Baltimore where he was introduced to current Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith. The two also worked together during Smith's tenure with the Jacksonville Jaguars for one season (2004).

Following his graduation from Texas Tech, Thomas began his coaching career as a student assistant at his alma mater from 1998-2001 as a student assistant.

A native of Eastland, Texas, Thomas was an all-district selection in football, basketball and baseball at Eastland High. Thomas and his wife, Felicia, have two sons, Hayden and Dylan.

ANDREW WEIDINGER

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Andrew Weidinger enters his second season as the team's offensive assistant after serving four years as Assistant to the Head Coach/ Offense. His additional task as offensive assistant include managing data, research, daily practice scripts, schedules, calendars and assisting with the wide receivers.

In his first season as the offensive assistant, Weidinger assisted Terry Robiskie with the wide receivers in addition to his other responsibilities with the offensive coaching staff. In 2012, the Falcons offense ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in a number of categories, including third down effeiciency (45.1 pct, 2nd), scoring efficiency (44.0 pct., 2nd), red zone points scored (317, 3rd), red zone scoring efficiency (90.5 pct., 6th),first downs per game (21.4, 6th), scoring offense (26.2, 7th) and passing offense (292.0, 7th).

From 2008-2011, he assisted head coach Mike Smith as well as the offensive staff, in addition to lending support to running backs coach Gerald Brown.

He joined the Falcons in 2007 as a Personnel Scout and prior to arriving in Atlanta, he spent seven seasons at the University of Arizona, where he served in a number of positions, including Assistant Director of Football Operations.

He spent the previous five seasons as the club's Assistant Director of Player Personnel. Vital continues to work closely with General Manager Thomas Dimitroff on most college scouting matters as he is an integral part of the personnel decision making team. His responsibilities also entail evaluating the top 150 college players in a national scouting capacity. He will also grade the top unrestricted NFL free agents at all positions and work on comparatives, as well as special projects with Dimitroff.

From 2005-07, Vital served in his second stint with the Baltimore Ravens and covered schools across the country as a National Scout while being responsible for reporting on defensive linemen. During his time in Baltimore, he was honored with the inaugural Fritz Pollard Alliance Scouting Award, which is given to the top African-American scout each in the AFC and NFC.

Vital served as the Assistant Director of College Scouting with the New England Patriots from 2001-04 after maintaining duties as a National College Scout in 2000. It was during his tenure with New England that he worked directly with Vice President of Player Personnel Scott Pioli and Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff.

Prior to his stint in New England, Vital spent three seasons as a Talent Scout with the New York Jets, covering the Southeast region from 1997-99. He entered the scouting ranks with the Cleveland Browns in 1991 and spent five seasons as a Talent Scout, after being hired by Head Coach Bill Belichick. Vital followed Belichick and the Browns when the team moved to Baltimore for its inaugural season in 1996, working as a College Scout. For two seasons (1990-91), Vital was the Director of Player Personnel for the Montreal Machine in the World League of American Football.

A native of Loreauville, Louisiana, Vital graduated from Nicholls State and was selected by the Washington Redskins as a running back in the seventh round of the 1985 NFL Draft.

NICK POLK
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Nick Polk was promoted to Director of Football Operations on January 31, 2013. He spent the previous five seasons as the club's Director of Football Administration and enters his 10th year overall with the team. He works closely with General Manager Thomas Dimitroff on all contract proposals, negotiations and salary cap management. Polk also helps coordinate the Falcons compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement and labor related issues. From 2004-07, Polk served as the team's Director of Football Operations. Besides his Football Operations duties with the Falcons, Polk was responsible for all aspects of the Football Operations of the Georgia Force, namely; scouting, player selection and development, coach and player contracts. The Force won the Southern Division title, the National Conference Championship and advanced to Arena Bowl XIX in 2005. Prior to arriving in Atlanta, Polk served as the Senior Director of Football Operations for NFL Europe for three years where he directed all of the NFL Europe League Football Operations.

Polk's time at the League included serving on the NFL Diversity Committee, assisting in football operations at Super Bowl XXXVII and Super Bowl XXXVIII, as well as working as an NFL instant replay communicator for two seasons. He also participated in the inaugural class of the NFL Managers Training program at the Stanford Executive Education Graduate School of Business. Polk was previously head football coach at his alma mater, Lock Haven University of Pennsylvania, for four years. He earned a degree in health and physical education and went on to gain a master's degree in physical education/higher education from James Madison University. He spent five years at JMU as a graduate assistant/restricted earnings coach in the secondary, defensive line, and linebacker positions. He also served in different coaching roles at Brown University, Delaware State University and Southern Connecticut State University.

Born in Mineola, New York and raised in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, Polk and his wife, Michelle, live in Braselton, Georgia, with their two daughters, Maddie (13) and Michaela (11).

DEJUAN POLK
DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

DeJuan Polk begins his eighth season with the Falcons organization and second as the Director of Pro Scouting. Prior to that, Polk spent four seasons as a Pro Scout and was responsible for scouting all professional leagues; including 15 NFL teams as well as advance scouting. Polk also served as a College Scout for the Falcons during the 2008 season, covering the Midwest Region and conferences such as the Big Ten and MAC. Polk started his tenure with the organization in 2006 as a Pro Personnel Assistant and helped the personnel department coordinating free agent workouts, maintaining the "short-list" and advance scouting of future opponents. In 2005, Polk served as the Defensive Tackles Coach at South Carolina State. He was a four-year letterman at defensive tackle for Clemson University during his collegiate campaign from 1999-2003. DeJuan and his wife Katrina (Hutchinson) reside in Flowery Branch, Georgia.

MARK OLSON

He spent the last nine years as the Director of Football Systems/Special Projects, designing and developing systems for the Falcons personnel department and coaching staff. Prior to arriving in Atlanta, Pierburg worked for the Chicago Bears for three seasons as IT manager for football systems. During his time in Chicago, he handled extensive development work on coaching systems and college and pro scouting systems. He developed a system that allowed area scouts to manage rosters, write scouting reports and access other pertinent information. Karl is a graduate of Illinois Wesleyan University with a double major in Mathematics and Computer Science. He was a four-year letterman in football, earning first team honors as an offensive guard while also being named to the academic all-conference first team. Karl and his wife, Kathy, have two young daughters, Anna, and Ellie, and a young son, Jonathan.

CONTROLLER/CFO RETAIL

Rob Geoffroy begins his eighth season as the team's Controller with a strong background in sports business management, accounting, finance, and operations. Concurrently, Geoffroy is Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer for Atlanta Falcons Physical Therapy Centers, with twelve locations across the state of Georgia. Geoffroy began his career with the NBA's Boston Celtics in the finance department and then moved over to accounting for the NHL's New Jersey Devils' Stanley Cup Championship in 1995 before returning to the Celtics. He left the Celtics after a total of nine seasons as Director of Accounting & Operations to become the Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer of International Healthcare. A graduate of Bentley University, Geoffroy and his wife, Jennifer, have two daughters, Kathryn and Samantha. The Geoffroy family resides in Suwanee, Georgia.

DIRECTOR OF TICKET OPERATIONS

Mike Gilsenan begins his ninth season with the team and has more than 16 years of experience in the sports ticketing industry. In his current capacity, he oversees the management of all Falcons seat inventory and yearly seat relocation program, among other duties. He joined the Falcons in 2005 following a 10-year career with the NHL's Carolina Hurricanes where he most recently was the Director of Ticket Operations. Gilsenan started his career in sports in 1995 with the Hartford Whalers as a ticket sales intern and sales executive. When the team later relocated to Raleigh, North Carolina, he was tabbed to create and manage the team's ticket operations in the newly built RBC Center. Raised in Connecticut, he received his Bachelor's degree from Clemson University. Gilsenan and his wife, Keri, are proud parents of Mackenzie (7) and Jack (8). The Gilsenan's reside in Powder Springs, Georgia.

FRANK KLEHA
SENIOR DIRECTOR OF MEDIA RELATIONS

Frank Kleha embarks on his 27th season with the Falcons and ninth year in his role as Senior Director of Media Relations. Some of Kleha's duties include setting up media interviews for players, coaches and front office personnel with local and national reporters from newspapers, television, radio stations, and respected internet sites. Kleha works directly on the yearly programming needs of broadcasting partners, CBS Atlanta, and Star 94, and is also the club's publications Managing Editor for the media guide, NFL program, and yearbook. Kleha is a graduate of George Mason University. For the past five seasons, Kleha has been part of a department that was a finalist for Pete Rozelle Award by PFWA for outstanding service to media. He and his wife, Wendy, live with their son, Cody, and daughter, Allie, in Roswell, Georgia.

DEBBIE KNOWLAN
DIRECTOR OF SEASON TICKET SERVICES

Debbie Knowlan enters her sixth season with the Falcons after joining the team in November of 2008 as the Director of Season Ticket Services. In this role, she is responsible for the dedicated season ticket service team and the overall fan experience for Falcons season ticket holders. Prior to joining the organization, Knowlan served as the Director of Season Ticket Services and Retention for the Miami Heat of the NBA, working in a similar capacity. She also worked for The Ritz-Carlton Hotel Company in St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands as the Manager of Guest Activities and in Miami at the Caribbean & Mexico corporate office as a Sales and Marketing Coordinator. Knowlan graduated from Indiana University with a B.S. in Parks and Recreation with an emphasis toward management. She resides in Atlanta, Georgia.

DAN LEVAK
DIRECTOR OF DIGITAL MEDIA

Dan Levak begins his 14th season with the Falcons in 2013. In his current role, Levak directs the Falcons interactive marketing efforts, including the evaluation of emerging technology, managing the digital media staff and maintaining a cutting-edge postproduction digital video studio. Under his guidance, Atlantafalcons.com was named "best overall NFL website" by the NFL Internet Network in 2005. The Cleveland, Ohio native holds a bachelor's degree in Business Psychology and minor in Journalism from Miami University. He also completed his postgraduate work in public relations at Ohio State University. Following a year covering the Browns, Indians and Cavaliers for The Cleveland Plain Dealer's online property, www.cleveland.com, Levak joined the Falcons as an Interactive Producer in 2000. He and his wife, Christine have one son and reside in Flowery Branch, Georgia.

DON ROVAK
DIRECTOR OF TICKET SALES

Don Rovak enters his sixth season as Director of Ticket Sales and Service with the Falcons. In these six years, Rovak built the Falcons' ticket sales department, and helped reconstruct the premium sales team. In four of these years, including this season, his staff has led the NFL by selling more new season tickets than any other team in the league. In addition, the Falcons group sales department has achieved top results working with area youth leagues, non-profits, and other regional partners. Previously, Rovak was Vice President of Marketing & Ticketing for the Memphis Redbirds Triple A baseball team. Under his leadership, the Redbirds opened AutoZone Park. Rovak graduated from Indiana University and he and his wife, Corrie, reside in Atlanta with their two sons, Jared and Dustin.

DIRECTOR OF LOGISTICS & FACILITIES

Spencer Treadwell enters his 11th season as the Falcons Director of Logistics & Facilities. Treadwell continues to oversee all the logistical operations for the Falcons, including team travel, training camp, game operations and supervises the Falcons headquarters in Flowery Branch. Treadwell will also serve as a liaison between football operations and the organization as a whole. His main task will be to coordinate the team's various intradepartmental efforts. Treadwell also served as the NFL liaison for the league during Super Bowl XLIII. He joined the organization's marketing department in 1995 and transitioned into logistics during the Falcons run to Super Bowl XXXIII in 1998. Treadwell is a graduate of Tucker High School and received his Business Administration degree from Presbyterian College in 1995. Treadwell and his wife, Julie, are the proud parents of two daughters, Avery and Alli, and one son, Zach. The Treadwell's reside in Buford, Georgia.

KAREN WALTERS
DIRECTOR OF HUMAN RESOURCES

Karen Walters enters her 10th season with the Falcons and fourth as Director of Human Resources for the Blank Family of Businesses. Walters was hired by the club in 2003 as Human Resources Manager. She boasts over 20 years of service in the human resources field. After graduating from Oglethorpe University in 1989 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration and Behavioral Science, Walters joined Electrolux Corporation as a Benefits Administrator. After Electrolux, Walters held a Senior Business Partner role at Unisys, a Fortune 100 IT firm. Her current role with the Falcons involves implementing a comprehensive human resources strategy across all of the Arthur M. Blank Family of Businesses. Walters and her husband, Tommy, have one daughter, Madalyn (20), and a son, Ross (17), and reside in Dawsonville, Georgia.

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Kevin Winston begins his ninth season with the Falcons in 2013. Before his arrival in Atlanta, he spent five seasons with the New York Jets in the player development department. In 2008, Winston and the Falcons were the winners of the Outstanding Career Development Program, which focuses on players gaining exposure to business opportunities, interests outside of football and work in the community. He also oversaw an '08 rookie class that won the Rookie Class Commitment Award. Some of Winston's responsibilities include helping players with career counseling, financial & family matters and post-football career options. He also coordinates alumni relations for the club. The NFL has honored Winston with the "most outstanding player development department" in 2003-04 in New York. Kevin and his wife, Dana has one son, Matthew Kevin.

RODDY WHITE
DIRECTOR OF EVENT MARKETING

Roddy White is a veteran of 17 years in the NFL and various major sporting events. He begins his 12th season as Director of Event Marketing with the Falcons. White is responsible for the club's special events, game presentation, creative services, mascot program, cheerleading program, advertising and promotions. Under White's stewardship, the Falcons have attracted star acts in various music genres such as James Brown, Ashanti, Sugarland, The Temptations, Travis Tritt, Ludacris, LeAnn Rimes, NeYo and the Pointer Sisters as regular performers at home games. Prior to his appointment with the Falcons, he spent six seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars as the club's Director of Special Events and Promotions. A graduate of the University of Georgia, he lives with his wife, Patti, and daughters, Whitney and Sydney, in Alpharetta, Georgia.

HT: 6'2" WT: 300

NFL EXP: 9 ACQ: D2-'05 9th YEAR WITH FALCONS COLLEGE: UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

TRANSACTIONS

- Selected as a second round (59th pick overall) draft choice by Atlanta in 2005.

2012 (FALCONS)

- Started all 16 games, seeing action at both defensive tackle and end in 2012. Totaled 42 tackles (33 solo) with 3.5 sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, once fumble recovery and five passes defensed.
- Anchored a defensive line that produced 46 tackles behind the line of scrimmage, which ranked tied for seventh in the NFL.
- Collected four tackles (two solo) along with a sack and a fumble recovery in Atlanta's Divisional playoff win over Seattle (1/13).
- Sacked QB Russell Wilson on a third-down play at the Falcons six-yard line in Atlanta's NFC Divisional win over Seattle (1/13). Babineaux's sack allowed the clock to run out and kept the Seahawks off of the scoreboard at the end of the first half.
- Posted a season high seven tackles (five solo), one sack and a pass defense against Dallas (11/4).
- Recovered a fumble and returned it 15 yards for his second career touchdown against Arizona (11/18). Also added a pair of solo tackles in the win.
- Posted his third career interception, picking off Saints QB Drew Brees and notching two tackles in a win over New Orleans (11/29). Atlanta intercepted Brees five times in the game and snapped his NFL record streak of 54 straight games with a touchdown pass.

CAREER

- In eight seasons in a Falcons uniform, has compiled 321 tackles (226 solo), 22.5sacks, three interceptions, eight forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries and 20 passes defensed.
- Since he was drafted by the Falcons in 2005, Babineaux leads all defensive tackles with 49.5 tackles for loss.

Since 2005, Babineaux leads all defensive tackles with 49.5 tackles for loss. Last season, his 8.5 stops behind the line of scrimmage ranked second among all defensive tackles.

- Started all 13 games in which he appeared and posted 25 tackles (14 solo), three tackles for loss, and one sack in 2011.
- In 2010, posted 31 tackles (21 solo), one interception, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one defensive touchdown.
- Posted two tackles and recovered a fumble in the endzone for his first career touchdown at Seattle (12/19/10).
- Led the team with six sacks in 2009 while adding a career-high 58 tackles.
- In 2008, ranked fourth in the NFL in tackles for loss with 9.5 according to STATS, Inc.
- Selected to the 2008 USA Today All-Joe team.
- Ranked second among NFL defensive tackles in tackles for loss (8.5) in 2009 while ranking third in the category in 2006.

EXTRA POINTS

- In October 2010, attended the Falcons 2nd annual Dazzle and Dine event at Wildfire Grill in Atlanta. This event provides a special dinner for breast cancer survivors and their guests as they are given the opportunity to enjoy a special meal alongside several Falcons players. The ladies are also treated to a special pampering day at Jamison Shaw Hairdressers in Atlanta.
- Participated in the Extra Yard partnership program and purchased 40 season tickets and t-shirts for various charities in metro Atlanta.
- During the 2010 holiday season, Babineaux baked holiday cookies and distributed gifts to preschoolers from one of Easter Seals North Georgia's Early Education Centers.

COLLEGE

- Four-year letterman at Iowa, starting 31 of 42 games and recording 131 tackles, 19 sacks, five forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and one interception.
- Earned All-America and first-team All-Big Ten honors as the team's Most Valuable Player on defense after leading the conference with 11.0 sacks as a senior. Also named the recipient of the Big Ten Conference Sportsmanship Award.

PERSONAL

- Lettered in football, baseball and basketball at Lincoln (Port Arthur, TX) High School.
- First-team all-conference linebacker and team captain as a senior, while also competing at defensive end, fullback and punter. Also a member of the number one ranked basketball team in the state of Texas.
- Jonathan's brother, Jordan, is a defensive back for the Tennessee Titans.
- Born Jonathan Babineaux on October 12, 1981 in Port Arthur, Texas.

OFFENSIVE TACKLE

HT: 6'5" WT: 301

NFL EXP: 6 ACQ: D1B-'08 6th YEAR WITH FALCONS COLLEGE: UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

TRANSACTIONS

- Originally selected as a first round (21st pick overall) draft choice by Atlanta in 2008.
- Signed a six-year contract with Atlanta on March 14, 2013.

- Started all 16 games at left tackle, protecting QB Matt Ryan's blindside as the quarterback set franchise records for attempts, completions, completion percentage, yards, and touchdowns in 2012.
- According to Stats LLC, Baker was not flagged for a holding or false start penalty all season and allowed a career low 3.5 sacks despite facing some of the NFL's premier pass rushers.
- Was named to USA Today's All-Joe team for his unheralded performance.
- Started at left tackle and was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack against Seattle (1/13) in the NFC Divisional round.
- Helped Ryan post four consecutive games with a passer rating above 100 to open the season.
- Part of an offensive line that produced a 300-yard passer (Ryan), a 100-yard rusher (Michael Turner), and two 100-yard receivers (Julio Jones & Roddy White) in a win over Dallas (11/4), which was the third time in franchise history the Falcons have accomplished that feat.
- Anchored an offensive line that allowed 28 sacks, which ranked tied for seventh in the NFL.

CAREER

- Has played in 67 career games with 58 starts in five seasons with the Falcons. Part of an offensive line that has blocked for QB Matt Ryan as he has rewritten the Falcons record books.
- In 2011, he played in 13 games with seven starts and blocked for QB Matt Ryan who threw for 4,177 yards with 29 touchdowns and RB Michael Turner who ran for 1,340 yards and 11 touchdowns.
- Started in 16 games at left tackle and was part of an offensive line that averaged 222.9 passing yards per game and 118.2 rushing yards per game in 2010.
- Made 14 starts at left tackle in 2009, helping the Falcons produce back to back winning seasons for the first time in franchise history.
- In his rookie season, paved the way for the Falcons to finish second in the NFL in rushing, averaging 152.7 yards per game.

COLLEGE

- All-America first-team selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, adding second-team accolades from the Associated Press, College Football News and Sports Illustrated as a senior.

TRANSACTIONS

- Originally selected in the first round (13th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 1997 NFL Draft.
- Traded to the Falcons for Atlanta's second round selection in the 2010 NFL Draft on April 23, 2009.
- Re-signed with the Falcons on March 14, 2013.

- Continued to show he is one of the premire tight ends in football in 2012, posting a team-high 93 receptions for 930 yards with eight touchdowns.
- Was named to the Pro Bowl for the 13th time in his career and the third time as a Falcon. Also earned first-team All Pro honors from the Associated Press, marking the ninth time he's been named an All Pro.
- Caught six passes for 51 yards and a touchdown in the NFC Divisional Playoff game against Seattle (1/13), earning his first career playoff win.
- Tied WR Tim Brown's NFL record with his 10th consecutive 70-catch season. He has eclipsed 70 catches 13 times in his career and currently holds the longest active streak with a reception in 195 straight games.
- In 2012, Gonzalez became the first tight end in NFL history to record 90-or-more receptions in five seasons.
- Caught two touchdowns at New Orleans in Week 10, becoming the first tight end and eighth player in NFL history to catch 100 touchdown passes.
- Moved into sixth on the NFL's all-time touchdown receptions list with 103 career scores, passing WR Tim Brown and WR Steve Largent with his two touchdown performance at New Orleans (11/11).
- Joined WR Jerry Rice as the second player in NFL history to record over 1,200 career receptions.
- Became the first tight end in League history to have over 14,000 yards receiving in a career, accomplishing the feat at Tampa Bay (11/25).

Gonzalez has more career receptions (1,242), receiving yards (14,268), touchdown catches (103), 100-yard games (30), Pro Bowl appearances (12) and 1,000-yard seasons (four) than any other tight end in NFL history.

- Joined Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice as the only players in NFL history to record 15 seasons with 50-or-more receptions
- His 93 receptions in 2012 were tied for the fifth highest single-season total in Falcons history. Only WR Roddy White (115 &100), Terance Mathis (111), and Eric Metcalf (104) have caught more passes in a single season.

CAREER

- In 16 NFL seasons, has earned 13 Pro Bowl appearances and nine first or second-team Associated Press All-Pro selections.
- Will enter the 2013 season looking to extend his streak of catching at least one pass in a game, which currently stands at 195 contests. His streak, is the longest by a tight end in NFL history, passing Ozzie Newsome (150) in 2010.
- Holds NFL records for career receptions (1,242), receiving yards (14,268), touchdown catches (103), 100-yard receiving games (30), Pro Bowl appearances (13) and 1,000-yard seasons (four) among all tight ends.
- Is the only tight end to ever register six 100-yard receiving games in a single season (2000, 2004).
- Has recorded 13 70-catch seasons, 14 60-catch campaigns and 15 50-catch seasons, more than any other tight end in NFL history. Became just the second player and first tight end in League history to produce 15 consecutive seasons with 50-or-more receptions.
- His 1,242 career catches rank second in NFL history and first among active players.

- Ranks sixth in touchdown receptions (103) and seventh in receiving yards (14,268) among all receivers in NFL history.
- Is the only tight end in League history to record 900-or-more receiving yards in nine seasons and currently stands as only the third tight end (Ozzie Newsome, Cleveland and Shannon Sharpe, Denver) in NFL history to lead their respective franchises in all-time receiving.
- Started all 16 contests and posted 80 receptions, for 875 yards with seven touchdowns en route to his 12 Pro Bowl selection in 2011.
- Became just the seventh player and first tight end in league history to tally 1,000 career receptions after hauling in two passes at Pittsburgh (9/12/10).
- Started all 16 contests and finished the season ranked second on the team in receiving yards (656) and receptions (70) in 2010.
- Registered four catches for 26 yards at Seattle (12/19/10) and became the first player in NFL history to record 12 consecutive 60-plus catch seasons, surpassing WR Jerry Rice's previous mark of 11 seasons.
- Became only the 21st receiver in NFL history to reach 11,000 career receiving yards following the season opener of the 2010 season.
- Set a Falcons franchise record for the most receptions by a tight end in a single season (83) in 2009, topping Alge Crumpler's old mark of 65 (2005).
- Owns 11 career games with double-digit receptions, the most of any player in Kansas City history.
- No player in Chiefs history reached the 300-yard reception plateau quicker than Gonzalez, who got there in 71 games.
- Caught his 500th career pass in his 118th game, which marked the second-fastest pace by a tight end in NFL history.
- Ranks third in Chiefs history with 76 total touchdowns and fifth in total points with 460.
- Has missed just two starts over the past 12 seasons averaging 76.4 receptions, 890.2 receiving yards and 6.3 touchdowns per season over his 14-year career.
- Joined Kansas City wide receiver Carlos Carson (1983-84) as the only other player in team history to register back-to-back 1,000-yard campaign
- Received the Chiefs prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award bestowed annually to Kansas City's top rookie or first-year player after compiling 33 catches for 368 yards and two touchdowns during his initial pro season.
- Passed Ozzie Newsome for the most starts by a tight end in League history at Pittsburgh (9/12).
- Gonzalez's career receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns already top Pro Football Hall of Famers Charlie Sanders, Jackie Smith, Mike Ditka, John Mackey, Ozzie Newsome, Kellen Winslow and Dave Casper.
- Named to the Sporting News Magazine and Sports Illustrated NFL All-Decade teams.

TRANSACTIONS

- Selected as a first round (6th pick overall) draft choice by Atlanta in 2011.

2012 (FALCONS)

- Built on the success of his impressive rookie campaign to earn his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2012. Set career-highs with 79 receptions for 1,198 yards and 10 touchdowns.
- Posted four 100-yard games and two multi-touchdown games in 2012.
- Teamed up with WR Roddy White to form one of the NFL's top receiving tandems posting an NFL-best 2,549 yards on 171 catches with 17 touchdowns.
- Had the best game of his career, catching 11 passes for 182 yards with two touchdowns in the NFC Championship game against San Francisco (1/20).
- Set a Falcons franchise-record for the most receiving yards in a playoff game vs. San Francisco (1/20), topping Alfred Jenkins who posted 155 yards against the Cowboys in the NFC Divisional Playoff round in 1981.
- Tied White's club postseason record of 11 catches. White caught 11 passes in Atlanta's Wild Card game at Arizona following the 2008 season.
- Posted the first 100-yard playoff game by a Falcons receiver since WR Tony Martin posted 129 yards on five catches at Minnesota (1/17/99) in the NFC Championship game. Became the sixth Falcon receiver to post 100-plus receiving yards in a postseason game.
- Joined White to become the first Falcons teammates to post 1,000 receiving yards in the same season since WR Tony Martin (1,181) and Terance Mathis (1,136) each accomplished that feat in 1998.
- Jones and White each tallied over 100 receiving yards in Atlanta's Week 9 win over the Dallas Cowboys (11/4), marking the third time that the duo has recorded 100 yards each in a single game.

The Falcons were one of just four teams that boasted a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in 2012 as Jones (1,198) and WR Roddy White (1,351) each eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark last season.

CAREER

- In his first two seasons, Jones has established himself as one of the premier receivers in the NFL with 133 receptions for 2,157 yards (15.8 YPC) and 18 touchdowns.
- Has established himself as one of the most explosive receivers in the NFL over the last two seasons as his 27 receptions over 25 yards rank tied for third and his 16.2 yard per reception average ranks 11th during that span.
- His 18 touchdown receptions are tied for the ninth most in the NFL over the last two seasons.
- Posted the best season by a Falcons rookie receiver in 2011 after notching 54 receptions for 959 yards and eight touchdowns. Recorded more yards and touchdowns than any Falcons rookie before him and only Shawn Collins caught more passes in his first season when he pulled down 58 balls in 1989.
- Earned NFL Rookie of the Month honors for December/January after catching 24 passes for 461 yards and six touchdowns in the final five games of the regular season in 2011.
- Posted back-to-back 100-yard games at Tampa Bay in Week 3 and at Seattle in Week 4. Became the first Falcons rookie since Alfred Jenkins in 1975 to accomplish that feat and the first NFL rookie to do so since DeSean Jackson in 2008.
- Recorded five receptions for 71 yards in his NFL debut against Chicago (9/11/11), including a team-long 32-yard reception.
- Set career-highs in receptions (11) and receiving yards (127) and recorded his second-consecutive 100-yard receiving game at Seattle (10/2/11).

- Became the first Falcons rookie to record 11 receptions in a game when he posted 11 catches for 127 yards at Seattle in Week 4. Became the first rookie to post 11-or-more catches in a game since Denver's Eddie Royal in 2008.
- Hauled in three passes for 131 yards, including his first two career touchdowns, and added two carries for 33 yards at Indianapolis (11/6/11).
- Registered 104 yards and two touchdowns on three catches, including a long reception of 75 yards, at Carolina (12/11/11).
- Logged eight catches for 128 yards, including his third consecutive game with a touchdown, at New Orleans (12/26/11).
- Notched his third multi-touchdown game of the season after recording four catches for 76 yards and two scores vs. Tampa Bay (1/1/11).

EXTRA POINTS

- Participated as a celebrity waiter for the 4th annual Huddle Up for Miracles hosted by Head Coach Mike Smith at 103 West in Atlanta to benefit Children's Miracle Network.
- In 2011, a participant in the Atlanta Falcons Rookie Club sponsored by UnitedHealthcare of Georgia, this program gives the players the opportunity to take part in several charitable events.

COLLEGE

- Established himself as one of the premier wide receivers in college football at the University of Alabama. In 40 games he caught 179 passes for 2,653 yards with 15 touchdowns, and accumulated 3,084 all-purpose yards.
- His 179 receptions rank second all-time at Alabama, while his 2,653 receiving yards rank second in school history and his 15 touchdowns are tied for fourth in Crimson Tide annals.
- In 2010, garnered second-team All-American honors and was a first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection.
- Was a member of the watch lists for the Maxwell Award, given to the nation's top player, and the Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's top receiver in both his sophomore and junior seasons .
- Started all 13 games and led the Tide with 78 receptions for 1,133 yards (14.53 avg.) and seven touchdowns as a junior in 2010. Also added 135 yards with two scores on eight carries on the ground.
- Set a single-season school record with 78 receptions, breaking D.J. Hall's previous mark of 67 set in 2007.
- As a junior, set a new school record with 1,133 receiving yards, breaking Hall's mark of 1,056 yards set in 2006.
- Earned Freshman All-American first-team honors from the Football Writers Association of America and Sporting News.

COLLEGE: UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

TRANSACTIONS

- Selected as a second round (55th pick overall) draft choice by Atlanta in 2009.
- Signed a five-year contract extension on March 9, 2013.

- Earned his first Pro Bowl selection after posting 105 tackles (74 solo) with eight passes defensed, four interceptions, four tackles for loss, and one sack.
- Earned NFC Player of the Week honors after recording his first career multi-interception game vs. New Orleans (11/29). Also notched a game-high 13 tackles (10 solo) and two tackles for loss. The Falcons defense intercepted Saints' QB Drew Brees five times and held him without a touchdown pass for the first time in 54 games to snap his NFL record streak.
- Became the first Falcon to earn NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors since CB Brent Grimes in Week 15 of the 2010 season.
- Combined with fellow Pro Bowler S Thomas DeCoud to produce 11 takeaways, including 10 INTs & one fumble recovery, which resulted in 33 points.
- Joined DeCoud and CB Asante Samuel to give Atlanta three players with at least four interceptions for the first time since 1989 and the fifth time in team history.
- Notched double digit tackles in four games in 2012, including back to back games at Washington (10/7) and vs. Oakland (10/14).
- Opened the season with interceptions in back to back games for the first time in his career at Kansas City (9/9) and vs. Denver (9/17).
- His four interceptions in 2012 were tied for the fourth most among all safeties.

AUDIBLES

Moore attended the NFL's Business of Music Boot Camp at New York University in 2012 where he worked with top industry professionals to learn the ins and outs of the music business.

CAREER

- In three seasons as a starter, has amassed 275 tackles (184 solo), 25 passes defensed, 11 interceptions, five forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and 1.5 sacks.
- Earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2012.
- Posted 62 tackles (37 solo) with one half sack, two interceptions, two forced fumbles and nine passes defensed in his second season as a starter in 2011.
- Anchored a defense that created at least one turnover in 27 consecutive games between 2010 and 2011, which was the longest streak in the NFL since Chicago posted 25 straight games with a takeaway between 2007 and 2008.
- Was one of six Falcons players to record multiple interceptions in 2011.
- Became a starter at safety in 2010 and ranked third on the team with 108 tackles (73 solo), three quarterback hits, one forced fumble, and one fumble recovery.
- His five interceptions in 2010 were tied for the team lead and tied for third in the National Football League among safeties.
- Recorded his first career interception and added four tackles against Arizona (9/19/10).
- Logged eight tackles, one interception and two passes defensed at St. Louis (11/21/10). His INT snapped Rams QB Sam Bradford's rookie record streak of 169 consecutive pass attempts without an interception.

COLLEGE

- Started 32 of 48 games at Missouri and finished his career having totaled 284 tackles (182 solo. Also added 11 interceptions for 162 yards and broke Erik McMillan's school career record (three) by returning four of those for touchdowns.
- His eight interceptions in 2007 broke the old school season record of seven by Pro Football Hall of Fame safety, Roger Wehrli (1968).
- Voted a first and second-team All-America selection during his junior season.

PERSONAL

- Attended Hayti (Mo.) High School and earned all-state honors on both sides of the ball. Led his team to three conference titles before finishing second in Class 2A ranks during his junior year.
- Set school career-records with 74 catches for 1,768 yards and 34 touchdowns.
- Also competed on the school's basketball team and was a team MVP and all-conference selection on the hardwood as a junior.

HT: 5'10" WT: 185

NFL EXP: 11 ACQ: TR-'12 (PHI) 2nd YEAR WITH FALCONS COLLEGE: UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

TRANSACTIONS

- Originally selected by the New England Patriots in the fourth round (120th overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft.
- Signed by the Philadelphia Eagles as an unrestricted free agent on February 29, 2008.
- Acquired by the Falcons in exchange for an undisclosed draft choice in a trade with the Philadelphia Eagles on April 25, 2011.

2012 (FALCONS)

- Recorded 38 tackles (35 solo) with five interceptions, one touchdown and 18 passes defensed in his first season with the Falcons.
- According to Stats LLC., allowed just 39 completions on 74 defensive targets, with quarterbacks completing only 52.7 percent of passes thrown his way.
- Notched his first interception as a Falcon, picking off QB Carson Palmer vs. Oakland (10/14). Returned the pick 79 yards for a touchdown. Including postseason, his 10 interception returns for touchdowns rank fifth in NFL history.
- Intercepted QB Drew Brees' first pass attempt at New Orleans (11/11) for his second interception of the season. Added two tackles and three passes defensed.
- Picked off QB Eli Manning's first pass attempt of the game vs. New York (12/16), marking the fourth time he has intercepted Manning in 11 regular season meetings.
- Collared five tackles (five solo) and picked off his fourth pass of the season at Detroit (12/22). Picked off passes in back-to-back games for the first time as a Falcon.
- Closed out the regular season with interceptions in each of the final three games, including a pick in the season finale against Tampa Bay (12/30).

AUDIBLES

Samuel is the only player in NFL history to register at least one INT return for a TD in each of his first six NFL seasons (including postseason). His four postseason INT return TDs are an NFL record.

- Recorded his 50th career regular season interception in the 2012 season finale. Became one of 10 cornerbacks to intercept 50 passes in his career and just the 39th player in NFL history to accomplish the feat.
- According to Stats LLC., Samuel is the second fastest cornerback in NFL history to reach 50 career regular season interceptions, accomplishing the feat in just 146 games (Lem Barney, 114).

CAREER

- Has totaled 416 tackles (362 solo) with 152 passes defensed, 50 interceptions, 10 interceptions returned for touchdowns (including postseason), five forced fumbles, and three fumble recoveries in his career.
- Earned Pro Bowl honors in four consecutive seasons from 2007-2010, longest streak by an NFL cornerback during that time. Also earned Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors in 2009.
- Since joining the League in 2003, ranks second in interceptions with 50, first in interception returns for touchdowns with 10 (including playoffs), and according to Stats LLC., first in passes defensed with 160.
- Since 2006, he leads the NFL with 44 interceptions.
- Is the NFL's all-time leader with four postseason interception returns for touchdowns.
- His teams are 39-9 overall (.813) when he records an interception (20-2 with NE, 16-5 with Phi. & 3-2 with Atl.), including a 27-2 record at home (14-0 with NE, 12-1 with PHI, 2-1 with Atl.).

- Since 2003, leads the NFL with nine interceptions in the fourth quarter of close games, in which his team is winning or losing by seven points or less. Has returned two INTs for touchdowns in those situations.
- Has recorded eight multi-interception games in his career and his teams are 8-0 in those games.
- Was a two time Super Bowl Champion with the New England Patriots following the 2003 (XXXVIII) and 2004 (XXXIX) seasons.
- Has intercepted the Manning brothers eight times in his career (Eli five times & Peyton three times), including one from each in the playoffs. Is also the fourth player to pick them both off in the same season and the first player in the NFL to intercept each brother twice.
- Became just the third Eagle ever to post seven-or-more interceptions in back-to-back seasons in 2009 and 2010, joining Bill Bradley (1971-72) and Don Burroughs (1961-62).
- His 10 interceptions in 2006 led the NFL and were the second-highest single-season output in Patriots history behind Ron Hall's 11 in 1964.

EXTRA POINTS

- Growing up the son of a single mom, Samuel has been inspired to help other women faced with similar circumstances in life. His foundation, Bring it Home Single Moms, has a primary mission to provide low-income single mothers with the opportunity of affordable home ownership.

COLLEGE

- Recorded 127 tackles (102 solo), with eight interceptions, 38 passes defensed, 63 punt returns for 673 yards (10.8 avg.), and 10 kickoff returns for 168 yards (16.8 avg.).
- His 38 career pass breakups set a new school record, breaking the previous record of 34 set by Greg Atterberry (1981-85).
- Provided solid leadership in the secondary as well as on special teams, where he was chosen by his teammates to be a captain.
- As a senior in 2002, earned All Mid-American Conference first-team honors after recording 48 tackles (42 solo) with three tackles for loss and a team-high four interceptions. Also posted a team-high 15 passes defensed.
- Was named an All-Independent first-team selection by Football News as a junior in 2001. Made 41 tackles, (31 solo) with two interceptions and a team-high 13 passes defensed.
- Posted 26 tackles (23 solo) with two interceptions and six passes defensed as a sophomore.
- Played in every game at free safety during his freshman season in 1999.

PERSONAL

- Has four children, one son A.J. and three daughters, Ashante, Amaya and Aleesa. A.J. plays quarterback and safety for the Lauderhill Lions of a Pop Warner league and his team won the Super Bowl in 2010.
- Was a versatile athlete at Boyd Anderson High School, where he playered DB, QB, KR and PR. Earned All-State and All-County honors as a senior DB, tallying 75 tackles and four interceptions. Also saw significant action at QB. As a junior he threw for 1,800 yards and rushed for 500 yards.
- Ten minutes before his final high school game, he replaced his team's injured starting quarterback and went on to throw two touchdown passes, intercepted two more on defense, and also rushed for 80 yards.
- Also lettered in basketball and baseball and was an all-county selection as a point guard. Led his team in home runs despite his primary position being pitcher.

FALCONS RADIO NETWORK

For the third consecutive season, Lincoln Financial Media is Falcons flagship radio network for all preseason and regular season broadcasts. All 20 Falcons games will be heard on STAR 94, and Sports Radio 790 The Zone.

In addition to the game broadcast, STAR 94 and Sports Radio 790 The Zone will provide listeners with a pre-game show that will include interviews with Head Coach Mike Smith, General Manager Thomas Dimitroff, Quarterback Matt Ryan, and Falcons Team President Rich McKay.

Following the game, fans can stay tuned to STAR 94 and Sports Radio790 The Zone to catch post-game analysis and exclusive interviews with players and coaches. Fans will still hear the familiar voices of Falcons broadcasters Wes Durham (play-by-play) and former Falcons quarterback Dave Archer (color analyst) calling all of the Falcons action on both stations.

RISE UP

RANKIN M. SMITH — TEAM FOUNDER

"He was a pioneer and a quiet leader. He was a person of great integrity and had a lot of respect from me and my predecessor, Pete Rozelle, and from all of the other owners. He was such a high quality person. He was a person on whose work you could rely on. In the 1960s he was a pioneer in bringing the NFL to Georgia, and particularly in the Southeast." – Former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue

Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away from heart complications just hours before the Falcons October 26, 1997 game at Carolina. Some of the largest footprints on professional, college and high school sports in Atlanta belong to Smith, who founded the Atlanta Falcons in 1966.

Over three decades ago in the early 1960s, Smith began planting the seeds that saw professional sports finally blossom in Atlanta.

Smith was part of a group that formed "Major Sports, Inc.," with goals of pro sports franchises for Atlanta. That group helped get Atlanta Stadium built by 1965. Major Sports, Inc., later became the Stadium Authority that operated Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium.

Smith paid the highest price in NFL history at the time in 1965 for an NFL franchise. Former commissioner Pete Rozelle and Smith made the deal in about five minutes and the Atlanta Falcons brought the largest and most popular sport to the city of Atlanta.

Smith worked with the city, county and state to build one of the largest facilities for conventions, trade shows and other major events in the world. The spectacular Georgia Dome opened its doors in 1992, giving the Falcons one of the best fan-friendly stadiums in America. Having the Georgia Dome helped bring the Olympic games to Atlanta in 1992.

He was the catalyst and driving force in bringing the most prestigious of all sporting events, the Super Bowl, to Atlanta in 1994. The week-long fanfare and the most-watched TV sport in the world, added a huge economic value to the city and tons of free publicity to lure other events, conventions and meetings to the city. He lobbied hard to bring back the game to Atlanta in 2000.

The date June 30, 1965, will always be remembered as both a termination and a commencement in the history of Atlanta sports. For on that day the end came to the many and disparate struggles to place a professional football team in the Southeast's key metropolis. At the same time the Atlanta Falcons were born and began a storied tenure in the National Football League.

All that had gone before — the successes (an $18 million stadium to play in) and the near-misses (aborted attempts to place other franchises in the city) — was set aside for the immediate business of fielding a team in little over a year's time.

Prime mover in this task was Rankin Smith, a young insurance executive who had controlling ownership of the Falcons.

Virtually unknown to the general public before that June day, Smith immediately endeared himself to aficionados of the sport by asking a choice rhetor-ical question at a press conference following his acquisition of the franchise: "Doesn't every adult male in America want to own his own football team?" Not every adult male American has the wherewithal to swing such a deal, but it was comforting to hear that a man is capable of dreams like those of any other guy.

The day's proceedings threw the city into a happy delirium unequaled in the history of football. By the time Smith got back to his insurance office 24 hours later, there had been over 1,000 phone calls for tickets. He had to push his way through stacks of mail. By August, when a contest was completed which resulted in the nickname Falcons, a few of the avid fans even had come to blows in defense of what they believed their adopted team should be called. Several persons suggested the name "Falcons" in a contest, but a school teacher from nearby Griffin, Miss Julia Elliott, was selected winner because of her reasons: "the falcon is proud and dignified, with great courage and fight. It never drops prey. It is deadly and has a great sporting tradition."

By the middle of December, Smith had signed the most coveted college football player in the nation, Texas linebacker Tommy Nobis. By Christmas Eve, when the Falcons cut off a brief 54-day ticket sale requiring almost no promotion, an NFL record had been established for season tickets sold by a new club (45,000).

And in January, Smith surprised the entire athletic fraternity by naming a head coach who never had been mentioned in the perpetual stream of journalistic speculation about the job. But Green Bay Packer assistant Norb Hecker assumed his new post with vigor and immediately embraced the gigantic job of sifting — along with Director of Player Personnel Gene Cronin — a huge list of NFL players made available to the Atlanta expansion team by other teams in the league.

Finally, three men were chosen from each club and these 42 formed the nucleus of the roster Hecker had to work with when he took the team to summer training camp in Black Mountain, North Carolina in early July. Added to this group were the drafted rookies, scores of free agents and a few miscellaneous players obtained in trades. In all, Hecker and his staff were faced with evaluating over 130 men from July to September.

Then, on August 27, in Columbia, South Carolina, the Falcons recorded their first victory, defeating the San Francisco 49ers, 24–17, in a preseason game.

Once the stadium, Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was built, Atlantans felt the time was ripe to start pursuing professional football. One independent group which had been active in NFL preseason promotions in Atlanta applied for franchises in both the AFL and the NFL, acting entirely on its own with no guarantee of stadium rights. Another group reported it had deposited earnest money for a team in the AFL.

With everyone running in different directions, some local businessmen worked out a deal and were awarded an AFL franchise on June 7, 1965, contingent upon acquiring exclusive stadium rights from city officials. NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who had been moving deliberately in Atlanta matters, headed on the next plane down to Atlanta to protect his league's claim on the city of Atlanta. He forced the city to make a choice between the two leagues. Of course, on that memorable June 30, Rankin Smith and the NFL were the choice.

The huge void which had been the Southeast without an NFL team was beginning to close. Fans were looking now toward Atlanta. The Falcons expect to be filling that void for a long time.

A new chapter in the history of the Atlanta Falcons began on December 6, 2001. On that day, Arthur M. Blank, the co-founder and retired co-chairman of Atlanta-based Home Depot, reached a prelim-inary agreement with the Falcons' Taylor Smith to purchase the team. In a special meeting prior to Super Bowl XXXVI in New Orleans on February 2, 2002, NFL owners voted unanimously to approve the purchase.

YEAR BY YEAR HISTORY

Rankin M. Smith was awarded, by the National Football League, a franchise for the city of Atlanta for $8.5 million. At the time there were 14 NFL franchises in existence, eight AFL clubs. Officially, Atlanta became the 23rd professional football club in existence, the 15th in the NFL prior to the merger. An average of 56,526 people filled Atlanta Stadium to watch the Falcons finish their inaugural season at 3-11. The Falcons claimed their first victory on November 20, defeating the New York Giants, 27-16, at storied Yankee Stadium. Head Coach Norb Hecker's team, at the time, became the only expansion team in history not to finish in last place. The Falcons finished in seventh place in a field of eight teams in the NFL's Eastern Conference. The Falcons' first pick in the draft, LB Tommy Nobis, was voted to the Pro Bowl and named Rookie of the Year.

1967

A disappointing second year saw the Falcons finish the season at 1-12-1. While the broad picture looked bleak, there were cameos of excellence that led to a promising future. LB Tommy Nobis was named to his second Pro Bowl and RB Junior Coffey ended the year with 722 yards to finish as the eighth leading rusher in the league and the Falcons' Most Valuable Player.

1968

Norm Van Brocklin was named to replace Norb Hecker as head coach after three games in the season. The 2-12 Falcons won twice after Brocklin's arrival and finished short by a touchdown or less in three other games. DE Claude Humphrey, the Falcons first-round draft choice, was voted NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year for his play at left end. Billy Lothridge, despite having to start at safety, won his second consecutive NFL punting championship. LB Tommy Nobis was also named to his third-straight Pro Bowl.

1969

The Falcons doubled their best victory total ending the season at 6-8. Atlanta started the season with its first victory in a season opener, a 24-12 decision, vs. San Francisco at Fulton-County Stadium. Backup QB Randy Johnson was named NFL Offensive Player of the Week for his four-touchdown effort in the Falcons' 48-31 victory over the Chicago Bears on November16. RB Harmon Wages scored three touchdowns vs. New Orleans on December 7, as he threw, caught and ran for a touchdown in a 45-17 win. The club would finish the season in its highest place yet in the Coastal Division at third. Seven Falcons were named to the Pro Bowl: RB Jim Butler, QB Bob Berry, LB Greg Brezina, K Bob Etter, T George Kunz, TE Jim Mitchell and DB Ken Reaves.

1970

The Falcons completed their fifth season at 4-8-2, but were not far away from having their first winning season as four times Atlanta led deep in the fourth quarter (vs. San Francisco, Green Bay, Los Angeles and Philadelphia) only to lose or be tied in the final moments. Quarterback Bob Berry had the franchise's first 300-yard passing game vs. the Packers on September 27 and RB Jim Butler set a new club record in rushing with 127 yards on 17 carries in the home opener vs. the 49ers on October 4. Over 30 million viewers saw the Falcons face the Dolphins in Atlanta's first game nationally on Monday Night Football with Miami prevailing, 20-7. Defensive end Claude Humphrey, T George Kunz and LB Tommy Nobis represented the Falcons at the Pro Bowl.

1971

For the first time in team history, ticket prices are raised. Most seats increase in price from $6 to $7.50. Head coach Norm Van Brocklin was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Furman University in Greenville, South Carolina, becomes the third home of the Falcons' training camp. The Falcon uniform is also changed as the team switches to red jerseys. On November 22, Atlanta wins its first nationally- televised game with a 28-21 victory over Green Bay at home on Monday Night Football. The Falcons post their first winning season in history at 7-6-1, after WR Ken Burrow pulls in a winning touchdown pass from QB Bob Berry with 40 seconds remaining in a 24-20 victory over New Orleans on December 19 in the regular-season finale, but still do not qualify for the postseason. DE Claude Humphrey is named to his second-straight Pro Bowl.

1972

Draft rights for Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan of Auburn are obtained as the Falcons make four deals involving six veterans. RB Dave Hampton scores two touchdowns and rushes for a club record of 161 yards as the Falcons stop Los Angeles, 31-3, on October 1 for the team's first victory ever, in 11 games, over the Rams. Fellow RB Art Malone rushes for 103 yards, marking the first time in Atlanta's seven-year history that two backs

1973

Smashing 35 team records, the Falcons defeat New Orleans in the season opener, 62-7. In one of the most dramatic comebacks in the club's history, Atlanta rebounds to defeat the previously unbeaten Minnesota Vikings, 20-14, before a capacity crowd and national-television audience at Atlanta Stadium. The Falcons finish the season at 9-5 for their most wins and best record ever, but lose out for the playoffs by just one game. Rookie kicking specialist Nick Mike-Mayer, DE Claude Humphrey, DE John Zook and T George Kunz were named to the National Football Conference Pro Bowl team on December 18.

1974

Norm Van Brocklin is fired as head coach-general manager after eight games into the season on November 5. Marion Campbell, the Falcons' defensive coordinator since 1969, is named head coach the following day. A record low of 40,202 "no shows" is recorded at Atlanta Stadium as Los Angeles defeats the Falcons, 30–7, in sub-freezing weather on December 1. Rookie QB Kim McQuilken, making his second start of the year, leads the Falcons to a season-closing 10–3 victory over Green Bay to finish the team's record for the year at 3–11. DE Claude Humphrey and C Jeff Van Note are selected to represent Atlanta at the Pro Bowl.

1975

The Falcons trade veteran T George Kunz and a draft choice to Baltimore for the No. 1 pick in the 1975 NFL draft. Atlanta also got the Colts' sixth round choice. QB Steve Bartkowski of California, a consensus All-America, is selected by the Falcons as the No. 1 draft choice on January 28. On February 26, Pat Peppler, instrumental in the construction of two Super Bowl championships at Green Bay (1967 and 1968) and Miami (1973 and 1974), is named the Falcons' new general manager. RB Dave Hampton finally cracked the elusive 1,000-yard Club, by gaining 61 yards in the final game of the season against the Green Bay Packers. Those yards pushed his total to 1,002, making him the first back in Falcons history to gain 1,000 or more yards rushing. Atlanta ended the season at 4–10. The Falcons had two players selected to the Pro Bowl following the season: C Jeff Van Note and P John James.

1976

After the club's fourth loss in five starts, Marion Campbell is fired as head coach. Chairman of the Board Rankin M. Smith Sr. names Pat Peppler interim head coach on October 11. Atlanta exploded for 17 points in the fourth quarter to upset playoff-bound Dallas, 17–10, on Nov. 21, before 54,992 fans at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium. Under Peppler, the Falcons finish the season 4–10. P John James is selected to his second straight Pro Bowl.

1977

The Falcons begin a complete revamping of the front office. On February 1, former Washington Redskin and Dallas Cowboy QB Eddie LeBaron is named General Manager and Rankin M. Smith, Jr. is named President of the team. Leeman Bennett, an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Rams for four years, is named the Falcons' head coach on February 3. During the season, the Falcons defense established a modern-day NFL record of 129 points allowed in a 14-game season, as the club finishes 7–7. The defense gains the popular nickname "The Gritz Blitz". P John James, DE Claude Humphrey and DB Rolland Lawrence are named to the Pro Bowl.

On March 30, the Falcons announce plans for a new year-round training site and team headquarters to be constructed in Suwanee, Georgia. The team unveiled new uniforms, which featured silver-gray pants on August 19. The Falcons record their first ever shutout in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium on October 15, with a 14–0 defeat of Detroit. K Tim Mazzetti kicks five field goals to give Atlanta a 15–7 Monday Night victory over the Los Angeles Rams on October 30. On December 16, the Falcons clinch their first ever playoff berth when Chicago defeats Washington as the Falcons close out the season with a 9–7 record. QB Steve Bartowski throws two touchdown passes in the final eight minutes to spark a 14–13 Atlanta win vs. Philadelphia in the NFC Wild card Playoff Game on December 24 for the Falcons first-ever playoff victory. The Falcons lose the next week in the Divisional Playoff Game 27–20 at Dallas after squandering a 20–13 halftime lead.

1979

Rookie RB William Andrews establishes a new club single game rushing record with a 167-yard performance at New Orleans on September 2, in his NFL debut. On September 16, QB Steve Bartkowski sets a new franchise record for single game passing with 326 yards on 20 of 29 passing against Denver. Running back Lynn Cain becomes the first Falcon player to ever score three touchdowns in a single game as he catches two and rushes for another against Oakland on October 14. In a 31–21 victory over San Francisco on December 16, records were broken for the season by Andrews with 1,023 yards rushing, WR Wallace Francis with 74 catches for 1,013 yards and by Bartkowski with 2,502 passing yards (203–379). The Falcons finish the year at 6–10 and C Jeff Van Note is selected to play in the Pro Bowl.

1980

The Falcons go on a nine-game winning streak, starting with a 41–14 rout of New Orleans, to finish with a 12–4 record to capture the team's first-ever NFC Western Division title. The Falcons nine straight wins and 12 wins on the season are both club bests. In a battle of 12–4 teams in Atlanta, the Falcons build a 27–17 lead over Dallas in the NFC Divisional Playoff game, but are defeated by the Cowboys 30–27 in front of the largest crowd in stadium history (60,022). The year features club records in passing from QB Steve Bartkowski (3,544 yards and 31 TDs), rushing by RB William Andrews (1,308 yards) and receiving by WR Alfred Jenkins (1,025 yards) plus LB Al Richardson got a takeaway in nine consecutive games as the team garnered a total of 42 takeaways. A record six Falcons are selected to play in the Pro Bowl: Andrews, Bartkowski, Jenkins, C Jeff Van Note, T Mike Kenn and TE Junior Miller.

Trailing Green Bay 17-0 after three quarters on the road, the Falcons erupt for an NFL record tying 31 fourth quarter points in a 31-17 win. The team finishes the year at 7-9 and has a club-record seven members selected to the Pro Bowl: T Mike Kenn, QB Steve Bartkowski, C Jeff Van Note, WR Alfred Jenkins, RB William Andrews, TE Junior Miller and G R.C. Thielemann. The team will look back on seven losses of five points or less as to why they finished with the 7-9 record. The defeats were by 1,2,2,3,3,3 and 5 points.

Season ticket sales are halted after reaching a club record 55,144 as Atlanta finishes the strike-shortened season at 5-4. For the third time in five seasons, the Falcons go to the playoffs with a playoff-clinching 17-7 victory on national-television at San Francisco on December 19. In the opening round of the playoffs at Minnesota, the Falcons special teams score touchdowns on a blocked punt and a fake field goal to help build a 21-13 lead in the second half. But the Vikings rally for 14 points in the 4th quarter to win 30-24. T Mike Kenn, G R.C. Thielemann, C Jeff Van Note and RB William Andrews are selected to the Pro Bowl.

The Falcons end the year with a 7-9 record as new head coach Dan Henning takes over the team. DE Kenny Johnson became only the 12th player in NFL history to score two touchdowns in the same game on interception returns as Atlanta defeats Green Bay 41-34 in overtime. Running back William Andrews sets a new club record with 331 rushing attempts for 1,567 yards. QB Steve Bartkowski has his third 3,000-yard season and set a team mark with a 63.4% completion rate and just a 1.1% interception rate (5 interceptions in 432 passing attempts), while C Jeff Van Note starts his 200th game as a Falcon on December 18.

1984

RB Gerald Riggs takes over for the Falcons' all time leading rusher William Andrews who is out for the season after knee surgery. On opening day at New Orleans, Riggs sets a new club record with 35 attempts for 202 yards in a 36-28 win. This begins the first of three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons for Riggs who carries 483 times over 18 games without fumbling. The Falcons finish the year at 4-12.

1985

PR Billy "White Shoes" Johnson became the NFL's all-time leading punt returner as he gains 58 yards in the season opener versus Detroit on September 8. On the final game of the season, RB Gerald Riggs runs for 158 yards, his 9th 100-yard game of the year, in a 16-10 win at New Orleans to finish the season with 1,719 yards and leads the NFC in rushing, while being named to the Pro Bowl. The team ends their second straight season at 4-12.Eddie LeBaron, Vice President and CEO, is dismissed, while former Falcon head coach Marion Campbell is hired as defensive coordinator.

The Falcons soared to four straight wins by beating New Orleans, St. Louis, Dallas and Tampa Bay for the best-ever start in club history. On December 14, Atlanta Fulton-County Stadium played host to C Jeff Van Note day as the 18-year veteran center was honored after 246 games. With all his family present, Van Note was presented gifts including a vintage 1957 Chevy (symbolic of his jersey #57 and being a classic). K Mick Luckhurst extended his club record to 117 consecutive PATs, as the team lost seven of their last nine contests to end the year at 7-8-1. G Bill Fralic and RB Gerald Riggs were selected to represent the Falcons at the Pro Bowl.

For the second time in his career, Marion Campbell is named head coach of the team. After being defeated 48-10 at Tampa Bay in the season opener the Falcons rebound claiming victory over the eventual World Champion Washington Redskins 21-20 in front of over 50,000 fans at Fulton-County Stadium on September 20. Also on that day, PR Billy "White Shoes" Johnson added another milestone to his brilliant career by becoming the NFL's all-time leading punt returner by recording his 259th lifetime return. On September 22, the NFL Players Association walk off the job for the second time in five years, but only one game is cancelled. The League's owners decide to continue with replacement players. RB Gerald Riggs becomes the club's all-time leading rusher with 5,987 yards, surpassing William Andrews on December 6. P Rick Donnelly and WR Sylvester Stamps claim a pair of NFL individual titles as they finish the season with the league's punting title with a 44.03 average and a league-best 27.5 kickoff return average, respectively. The Falcons end the year with a 3-12 record, while G Bill Fralic and Riggs are named to the Pro Bowl.

An improving Falcons defense was among the best in the NFL during the second half of the season as Atlanta finishes the '88 campaign at 5-11. Atlanta's "baby boomers" (average age of 25) allowed only six touchdowns over the final seven games. CB Scott Case laid claim to a spot in the Pro Bowl by being named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for November. Case picked off 10 passes on the season to finish atop the league charts and set a Falcons record for interceptions in a season. Running back John Settle put his name in the league record book by becoming the first free agent in NFL history since the 1970 merger to gain 1,000 yards in a season with 1,024 yards. G Bill Fralic joined Case and Settle in the Pro Bowl following the season.

CB Deion "Prime Time" Sanders, who after a lengthy holdout, reports to camp and takes part in practice on Friday and a Saturday walk-through before the season opener versus the Los Angeles Rams. In the first quarter, Sanders returns a punt 68 yards for a touchdown. After hitting a home run for the New York Yankees earlier in the week, it makes him the only modern day athlete to hit a homerun and score a touchdown in the same week. G Bill Fralic goes to a fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, the only guard in the NFL to do so, and is named to the 2nd team of the All-NFL team of the 80's. Rookie WR Shawn Collins leads all NFL rookies and sets a club rookie mark with 58 catches, while Sanders gains post-season recognition by leading all rookie defensive backs with five interceptions and gaining over 1,000 yards in return yardage. Head coach Marion Campbell announces his resignation after 12 games (3-9); leaving assistant head coach Jim Hanifan to take over for the final four games. The team ends the season with a 3-13 mark.

Former Falcons defensive coordinator and Houston Oilers head coach Jerry Glanville accepts the offer to become the Falcons 9th head coach in franchise history. The team announces plans for their 25th Anniversary season that includes going back to the original black jerseys of 1966. In addition, black helmets are unveiled along with the anniversary logo patches for the uniforms. With the number one pick in the draft, Atlanta trades with Indianapolis for six-time Pro Bowl lineman T Chris Hinton, all-rookie WR Andre Rison and the following year's #1 pick. The Falcons close their first-ever undefeated preseason at 4-0 with a 45-14 win over New England. On September 9, Houston comes to town to face Atlanta and their former coach, but the Falcons prevail scoring three defensive touchdowns en route to a 47-27 victory. The Falcons led the NFL with a 3.3 per carry rush defense as the team moved up in over 20 statistical categories from the previous season to finish the year at 5-11. LB Jessie Tuggle led the NFL in tackles with 201 and Rison sets a club mark with 82 pass receptions on his way to a Pro Bowl berth.

The Falcons proved to be one of the most exciting and entertaining teams of the NFL in '91, winning six straight games down the stretch and eight of their last 11 contests, to earn a playoff berth at 10-6. Atlanta had the second most wins in club history with 11 and captured their first road playoff victory at New Orleans. The Falcons also made team history by sweeping through their NFC West road trips by defeating the Saints, Rams, and 49ers, giving San Francisco their only home loss on the season. A sellout crowd witnessed the Falcons final home game of the 1991 season, as well as Atlanta's final game in Fulton-County Stadium. The Falcons defeated Seattle, 26-13, to run their home win streak to five straight. CBs Deion Sanders and Tim McKyer both co-led the NFC in interceptions with six apiece. Sanders was joined at the Pro Bowl by teammates WR Andre Rison, QB Chris Miller and T Chris Hinton.

1992

On August 23, a sold-out crowd and a national TV audience saw the Falcons win the first-ever football game in the new Georgia Dome, 20-10, over the Philadelphia Eagles. In the regular season opener in the Dome, Atlanta scored on their first four possessions en route to a 20-17 win over the New York Jets before another sellout crowd. The Falcons led the NFL with a club record 33-touchdown passes and became the only team to have 30 or more touchdowns in both '91 and '92. The 336 pass completions were a club season best as were the 194 passing first downs. WR Andre Rison set a club record with 93 receptions and became the first player in NFL history to have 300 catches in their first four years in the league. The Rison-WR Michael Haynes tandem netted 21 touchdowns to lead the NFL for the second straight year (23 in '91). The team finished the season with a 6-10 record as Rison, DB Deion Sanders, LB Jessie Tuggle and special teams standout Elbert Shelley were named to the Pro Bowl.

Led by Pro Bowlers WR Andre Rison, QB Bobby Hebert, S Elbert Shelley and PK Norm Johnson, Atlanta's offense scored over 300 points for the fourth consecutive season. Rison scored a club record 15 TDs and set a new standard for the most receptions in his first five seasons with 394. Hebert finished third in the NFL with a career-high 24 touchdown passes and had the NFL's longest play of the year, a 98-yard strike to WR Michael Haynes. Johnson nearly had a perfect season, connecting on 26-of-27 field goals (.963), while stretching his consecutive FG streak to 26 in-a-row, the second best mark in NFL history. Pro Bowler CB Deion Sanders continued to be an impact player, picking off seven passes while shutting down the league's top receivers. Third-year RB Erric Pegram made a name for himself, rushing for 1,185 yards, the fourth highest total in '93 as the team ended the year for a second straight season at 6-10.

June Jones was named the Falcons' 10th head coach on January 24 replacing Jerry Glanville who resigned following the 1993 season. The '94 season was trademarked by the way the team started and ended each game. The Falcons came out ready to play in the first quarters, rolling up a combined 93-61 advantage in those first 15 minutes of play. Atlanta also had the lead in 14 of the 16 games they played in and led 12 of those 16 games, heading into the fourth quarter only to finish the year with a 7-9 record. In 11 of the 16 games, the Falcons had the lead at the two-minute warning only to falter in the end. Wide receiver Terance Mathis closes out a brilliant season with a club record 111 receptions, the fourth highest total of all-time. His 1,342 receiving yards ranks second on the Atlanta's all-time charts. For his efforts, he is voted to the '95 Pro Bowl along with teammates LB Jessie Tuggle and S Elbert Shelley.

In what would be Atlanta's first playoff season since 1991, the Falcons ended the regular season with a 9-7 mark, while establishing some club and league records along the way. K Morten Andersen, who was signed as a free agent from New Orleans before training camp, sets an NFL- mark with three field goals from beyond 50 yards in one game. Shots from 55, 55 and 51 capped a 19-14 victory over Andersen's former Saints teammates to give Atlanta their first sweep of New Orleans since 1985. Needing a win to make the playoffs, the Falcons pull off the improbable, defeating the defending World Champion 49ers, 28-27, in front of a frenzied crowd at the Georgia Dome on Christmas Eve. Quarterback Bobby Hebert connects with WR Terance Mathis on two touchdowns, including the game-winner, as Mathis makes an incredible run to the end zone with 1:45 remaining. Atlanta establishes an NFL record by having four players each gain 1,000 yards, including WRs Eric Metcalf (1,189), Terance Mathis (1,039), Bert Emanuel (1,039) and RB Craig Heyward (1,083). Quarterback Jeff George, meanwhile, became only the 18th quarterback in league history to have over 4,000 yards passing in a season by finishing with 4,143 yards. LB Jessie Tuggle, S Elbert Shelley, DE Chris Doleman, Andersen and Hayward were named to the Pro Bowl.

1996

Only one season after earning a wild-card berth, Atlanta tied a club-mark for most losses and finished with the third-poorest winning percentage (.188) in team history with a 3-13 mark. A 31-15 victory over the Saints on December 8 snapped a 10-game road losing streak and provided the team with its first NFC West win outside the Georgia Dome since an overtime win in New Orleans on September 17, 1995. In a lone bright spot, RB Jamal Anderson became the seventh Falcons player in club history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season, gaining 1,055 on the year. With Anderson's accomplishment, the Falcons were the only NFL team to have three different players in the past four years to gain 1,000 yards. On December 23, head coach June Jones was dismissed from the team.

On January 3, Dan Reeves is named the 11th head coach in franchise history as he comes to Atlanta as Executive Vice President of Football Operations/Head Coach. After a difficult 1-7 start, the Falcons went 6-2 in their final eight games to finish 7-9, marking one of the best second-half comebacks in NFL history. QB Chris Chandler came on strong and ranked second in the NFL in QB rating (95.1) on his way to his first Pro Bowl appearance, joining teammate LB Jessie Tuggle. The real story of the season, however, was the tremendous play of the defensive line, which established a club record 55 sacks to rank 2nd in the NFL. DE Chuck Smith (12.0 sacks) and DT Travis Hall (10.5 sacks) led the charge. Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away on October 26 from heart complications just hours before the Falcons were to play a nationally televised game at Carolina. The 72-year old was remembered at a Tuesday memorial service as a quiet, behind-the-scenes "pioneer" who helped bring professional sports, and other major contributions, to his beloved city of Atlanta.

The Falcons, who jumped from a 7-9 finish in 1997 to a franchise record 14-2 in 1998, specialized in quick turnovers. In one of the more heart felt stories of the year, head coach Dan Reeves underwent quadruple bypass surgery and a mere five weeks later coached his team to a 30-27 overtime victory against Minnesota to capture the NFC Championship that matched the Falcons against the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXXIII in Miami. The team accomplished many firsts in 1998 with the first-ever 8-0 home mark, best overall record at 14-2, most points in a season with 442 that included a best 53 touchdowns and a league-high 44 takeaways. Atlanta was paced by RB Jamal Anderson, who set a team record with 1,846 yards rushing, including an NFL high 12 100-yard games. The Falcons dubbed themselves the "Dirty Birds" and Anderson created a touchdown dance to fit the name. The dance, which even consisted of flapping arms to act like wings, was introduced when TE O.J. Santiago celebrated his two-touchdown effort following a 41-10 victory at New England in early November. The fever it generated captivated a national audience as well as brought the Falcons to the front of the Atlanta sports scene. Dan Reeves joining Anderson on stage for a rendition of the "Dirty Bird" following the NFC Championship trophy presentation was a lasting highlight of the team's journey to the Super Bowl. Reeves, who was named NFL Coach of the Year, guided his Falcons to just the second NFC West title in the 33-year history of the franchise. QB Chris Chandler, CB Ray Buchanan, S Eugene Robinson, LB Jessie Tuggle and T Bob Whitfield joined Anderson in representing the Falcons in the Pro Bowl.

The Atlanta Falcons entered the 1999 season with the hopes of defending their 1998 NFC Champ-ionship crown and becoming the first NFL team ever to reach the Super Bowl in its own stadium. The Georgia Dome was the site of Super Bowl XXXIV. Unfortunately the setbacks of an 0-4 start led the Falcons to a disappointing 5-11 finish. In Week 2 against the Dallas Cowboys in a Monday Night Football matchup at Texas Stadium, RB Jamal Anderson was lost for the season with a knee injury. The Falcons did reach some milestones through the season. WR Ternace Mathis became the club's all-time leader in receptions with a 12-catch, 166-yard performance in a Monday Night Football game at Pittsburgh. LB Jessie Tuggle had his 12th-straight 100-tackle season after finishing with a team-leading 122 total tackles.

After a 2-1 start that included victories over two key NFC West opponents, the Falcons season took a turn for the worse with a 4-12 final record. The Falcons suffered several key injuries including a season-ending foot injury to LB Keith Brooking after five games and LB Jessie Tuggle in the eighth game of the season. RB Jamal Anderson returned to action following a 1999 season-ending knee injury, starting all 16 games and finishing with his fourth 1,000-yard season with 1,024 yards. K Morten Andersen began the season with a five-field goal game vs. San Francisco and then ended the year with five field goals in the season-finale vs. Kansas City. In the process he became the Falcons all-time leader in both field goals and points. Wide receiver Ternace Mathis became the club's all-time leader in receiving yards to pass WR Alfred Jenkins in that category. Rookie CB Darrick Vaughn, the Falcons seventh round draft choice, led the NFL with a 27.7 average and three kickoff returns for a touchdown. That average and the three touchdowns are both Falcons single-season high marks.

The 2001 Atlanta Falcons entered Week 15 with a matchup at Miami with a 7-7 record and still alive in the NFC playoff race. Three controversial calls by the officials and two goal line stands by the Dolphins defense ended the Falcons postseason hopes with a 21-14 defeat. The next week the Falcons traveled to St. Louis and lost 31-13 to finish the year with a disappointing 7-9 record. Even with two overtime losses to San Francisco when the Falcons squandered fourth quarter leads, Atlanta jumped to a 6-4 record before winning just one of their remaining six games. Included in the wins was a big 23-20 victory over the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field, highlighted by a 352-passing effort by QB Chris Chandler. Long after memories of the disappointing 2001 season end, the year will be remembered for the nucleus of young players that emerged and will hopefully lead the Falcons to a successful future. Among the group of young players that stood out were Pro Bowl LB Keith Brooking, who had 10 or more tackles in 11 of the team's 16 games, and first-round draft pick QB Michael Vick. Vick had the normal growing pains of any rookie quarterback, but in the Miami game Vick, who played following an elbow injury to Chandler, showed flashes of his potential, completing 11 of 20 passes for 214 yards with a touchdown and gaining 63 yards rushing on five carries. Among his highlights were a 52-yard pass to WR Brian Finneran and a 23-yard scramble for a first down on a 4th and 15 play. A renewed Chandler led the team to a 6-4 record in games where he started and finished, and DE Patrick Kerney had a breakout year with a team-leading 12.0 sacks. The day before the draft, the Falcons obtained the first pick in a trade with San Diego and used the pick on Vick, who is expected to be the quarterback of the future. In another historical move, team President Taylor Smith agreed to sell the team to local businessman Arthur Blank, who was approved by the NFL owners the day before the Super Bowl. A week before the final preseason game the end of an era came upon the Falcons when LB Jessie Tuggle retired following 14 seasons in Atlanta. The example he set helped his replacement Brooking, who was moved from the weakside linebacker spot to the middle, spring to the top of the middle linebacker lists in the NFL with a career-high 167 tackles.

The Atlanta Falcons began the Arthur Blank era with a 9-6-1 record and a berth in the playoffs as a Wild Card participant. Blank helped resurrect the excitement in the Georgia Dome with added value to the fans with increased tailgating, parking and entertainment. The fans responded with every game being sold out. After beginning the year with a 1-3 record, head coach Dan Reeves and QB Michael Vick led the Falcons to an NFL-best eight-game unbeaten streak (7-0-1). The Falcons set records and showcased numerous highlights during that stretch. In a game at Pittsburgh, the Falcons rallied from a 34-17 deficit with just over eight minutes to play to tie the game at 34-34. The Falcons also shutout Carolina two times with a 30-0 victory at the Dome and a 41-0 win in Charlotte. The Falcons finished the season with a team-record 23 rushing touchdowns and a franchise-best eight games with 30 or more points. After finishing 30th in rushing in 1999, 28th in 2000 and 16th in 2001, the Falcons improved to 4th in the NFL in 2002. On the defensive side of the ball, new defensive coordinator Wade Phillips made a switch to a 3-4 defensive alignment that helped the team finish third in interceptions with 24, second in takeaways with 39 and fourth in sacks with 47. In his first season as a starter, Vick earned a Pro Bowl berth to become just the sixth quarterback to be voted to the Pro Bowl in his first year as a starter. Vick rushed for 173 yards in an overtime win at Minnesota, the highest single-game rushing total for an NFL quarterback ever. Vick also had the longest run ever by a Falcons quarterback with a 46-yard game-winning touchdown in overtime against the Vikings. LB Keith Brooking earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth after setting a career-high with 212 total tackles. In the postseason, the Falcons became the first team ever to defeat the Green Bay Packers in the postseason at Lambeau Field with a 27–7 win to advance to the second round of the NFC playoffs. The Falcons season came to an end the next week with a 20–6 loss against the Philadelphia Eagles at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Divisional playoff game.

One season removed from a playoff berth and a historical win over Green Bay in the playoffs, the 2003 Falcons fell to 5–11. Injuries and a lack of consistency punctuated the Falcons 2003 season. QB Michael Vick, who played a large role in the Falcons' push for the playoffs in 2002, suffered a broken right leg in the second preseason game against Baltimore and did not return until the 11th game of the regular season in a relief appearance at Houston. Strong first half efforts would give way to second half heartbreak as the Falcons went 2–6 in the eight games which they led at the half. The Falcons defeated the Dallas Cowboys in the regular season opener, 27–13, before losing their next seven contests. They did not win again until the ninth game of the season when they went on the road and defeated the New York Giants 27–7. The victory gave Falcons head coach Dan Reeves the 200th win of his career. One year after setting the NFL single-game record for most yards rushing by a quarterback, Vick went out and rushed for a 141 yards in his first start of the season against the Panthers. His rushing performance marked the third-highest single game rushing total by a quarterback in NFL history. Three days after the victory against the Panthers, Reeves, who coached the Falcons for seven seasons, was released from his contract on December 10. Defensive coordinator Wade Phillips took over as interim coach for the final three games. In the days leading up to the Buccaneers game in Week 16, Rich McKay, who for the previous eight seasons was general manager of the Buccaneers, was named president and general manager of the Falcons on December 15. Less than two weeks after the conclusion of the season, Jim Mora was named head coach on January 9, 2004. LB Keith Brooking and TE Alge Crumpler were named to the Pro Bowl, with Crumpler earning a starting nod on the NFC squad.

First year Head Coach Jim Mora's fiery, motivating style of coaching becomes contagious and resonates with his team as the Falcons match the best start ever in team history at 4–0 on their way to a 6–2 halfway record. The aggressive approach on both offense and defense pays off and masks the potential growing pains of new offensive and defensive systems being implemented. The birds clinch just their third division title in team history in high fashion in a 35–10 rout of the Oakland Raiders in Week 14 as RB T.J. Duckett establishes a new team record with four rushing touchdowns. The club finishes the regular season with an 11–5 record, a first round playoff bye, and sets numerous milestones, including leading the NFL in rushing for the first time ever with a team record 2,672 yards and a club-best a 5.1 per carry average, as well as a League-high 48 sacks, which also is the first time that feat has been accomplished. The Falcons defense soars 18 spots from the last in the League in 2003 to 14th in total defense and scoring defense under new architect Ed Donatell. Atlanta blasts St. Louis 47–17 in the Divisional Playoff game at the Georgia Dome in one of the most dominant rushing performances in postseason history, racking up 327 yards rushing, the fourth-highest total ever. The Falcons' dream of a Super Bowl trip is ended the following week in a 27–10 defeat at Philadelphia in the NFC Championship Game, the second NFC Title appearance in team history. Mora garners votes for NFL Coach of the Year and becomes just the 11th head coach in NFL history to capture a Division title in his first season. QB Michael Vick, TE Alge Crumpler, LB Keith Brooking, DE Patrick Kerney and returner Allen Rossum go to the Pro Bowl, the most Falcons players since 1998 Super Bowl season.

The Falcons soar to a 6–2 first half record despite numerous injuries on defense that force rookies into the starting lineup and a shuffling of linebacker positions after five games. Atlanta records a perfect 3–0 mark on Monday Night Football (and 4–1 record in nationally-televised games). The growing pains catch up to the Falcons in the second half of the season though and the team finishes 8–8. Atlanta's offense again leads the NFL in rushing yards with 2,546 yards and average at 4.8. RB Warrick Dunn enjoys a career year with a career-high 1,416 rushing yards en route to earning his Pro Bowl since 2000. TE Alge Crumpler leads the team in receptions with a career–best 65 catches for a career-high 877 receiving yards. QB Michael Vick passes for 2,412 yards with 15 touchdowns and rushes for 597 yards and six scores. LB Keith Brooking leads the club again in tackles with 150 as he moves over to MLB after a season-ending Achilles injury to Edgerton Hartwell in Week 5 forces a chain reaction of wholesale changes in the linebacker department. Rookies such as LB Michael Boley and DL Jonathon Babineuax, Chauncey Davis and Darrell Shropshire are pressed into major duty due to injuries. DT Rod Coleman leads all interior linemen with 10.5 sacks. Dunn, Crumpler, Vick, Brooking, Coleman and CB DeAngelo Hall are voted to the Pro Bowl by their peers and are the most Pro Bowlers since the 1998 Super Bowl season.

Similiar to the second half of 2005, the Falcons start out 5–2 in first half of play only to limp to 2–7 down the stretch. Head Coach Jim Mora is dismissed from his contract after three years following the 7–9 season. The Falcons lead the NFL in rushing again for the third straight year with a franchise record 2,939 yards, which is the ninth-highest total in NFL history. Michael Vick becomes the first quarterback in League history to rush for over 1,000 yards with 1,039. With RB Warrick Dunn's 1,140 rushing yards, Vick and Dunn become only the fourth set of backfield teammates to both eclipse the century mark in the same season in NFL history. Vick also adds a career-high 20 touchdown passes. TE Alge Crumpler is named to his fourth straight Pro Bowl as he leads the team in receiving and adds a career-high eight touchdowns. CB DeAngelo Hall also is voted to the Pro Bowl but first year as a starter. K Morten Andersen becomes the NFL's all-time leading scorer and all-time leader in career field goals.

2007

The Falcons placed a franchise record 16 players on injured reserve which included seven starters over the course of the season. Atlanta also witnessed its starting quarterback be suspended by the NFL prior to the start of the year while its Head Coach Bobby Petrino left the team following Week 14. With a 4-12 record, the Falcons did see some positive results however. Wide receiver Roddy White became the Falcons first 1,000-yard receiver since 1999 and running back Warrick Dunn became the 22nd player in league history to amass 10,000 career rushing yards. Kicker Morten Andersen and quarterback Chris Redman each received NFC Player of the Week accolades.

In just one season, the Atlanta Falcons rebounded from four wins in 2007 to an 11-5 regular season record and the team's first playoff berth since 2004. The '08 campaign was a year of firsts as first year Head Coach Mike Smith and first year quarterback Matt Ryan became the first rookie head coach and quarterback duo to compete in a playoff contest since 1945 when the Cleveland Rams accomplished the feat. In Smith's stellar first season, he also became only the fourth Head Coach in franchise history to record 11 or more victories in a single year en route to Associated Press Coach of the Year honors. The distinction marked only the second occasion a Falcons coach earned the award in franchise history. The Falcons witnessed an entire team effort in the turnaround as an organization with a fresh look that took the NFL by storm, winning five of their last six games on the way to a second place finish in the NFC South Division. Atlanta garnerned two Pro Bowl selections in running back Michael Turner and wide receiver Roddy White who also made their first visits to the league's all-star game. Quarterback Matt Ryan earned Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year honors and was named NFC Rookie of the Month (October), a first in both categories in team history. The Falcons also finished the regular season with five NFC Player of the Week accolades. Turner earned the honor on three occasions, while Ryan was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after his performance against the Oakland Raiders in Week 9 and wide receiver Harry Douglas was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after returning a punt 61 yards against Carolina in Week 12. In his first season with the Falcons, Turner was tied for second in the final NFL MVP voting as he finished second in the league in rushing (1,699 yards) while topping the 1,000-yard plateau for the first time in his career. Turner also posted 17 rushing touchdowns, which set a new franchise record. White also logged a career year as he set a new franchise record with 1,382 receiving yards in a single-season while becoming the first wide receiver in team history to post back-to-back 1,200-yard campaigns. Defensively, John Abraham set a new team record and a personal best with 16.5 sacks, topping the old record of 16.0 held by Joel Williams, which was set in 1980. At the conclusion of the year, Coach Smith (Coach of the Year), Matt Ryan (Rookie of the Year) and General Manager Thomas Dimitroff (Executive of the Year) all earned honors from Sporting News Magazine, becoming the first trio in the publication's 132-year history to sweep the awards.

The Falcons concluded the 2009 campaign with a 9-7 record and back to back winning seasons for the first time in the franchise's 44-year history, which includes an 11-5 record in 2008. Atlanta ended the season with three consecutive victories and a series sweep over NFC South Division rival Tampa Bay. After two seasons, Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith compiled a coaching record of 20-12 (.625), which is the second-best winning percentage for an Atlanta head coach in their first two seasons with the team. He sits behind Dan Reeves who totaled a 21-11 mark (.656) from 1997-98. As a starter, quarterback Matt Ryan finished the 2009 campaign with a 6-0 home record and after two seasons is 13-1 starting under center. The 2009 season featured many team and individual accomplishments, but none as impressive as wide receiver Roddy White who finished the season with 85 receptions for 1,153 yards and a career-high 11 touchdowns. He became only the second receiver in franchise history to register three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Tight end Tony Gonzalez, who led all tight ends in NFL history at seasons end in receptions (999), yards (11,807) and touchdowns (82), became the 21st player in NFL history to surpass 11,000 career receiving yards. Among other accomplishments, Gonzalez set the Falcons single-season reception record for tight ends with 83. Defensively, Jonathan Babineaux led the team with a career-high six sacks. Cornerback Brent Grimes finished the year with a team-leading six interceptions and safety Thomas DeCoud was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week (6) for his performance against the Chicago Bears.

The Atlanta Falcons finished the 2010 regular season with a 13-3 record, marking the team's second highest win total in franchise history. The Falcons also claimed the NFC South title and earned the top seed as well as home field advantage in the NFC Playoffs. Combined with an 11-5 record in 2008 and a 9-7 record in 2009, Atlanta has now posted three consecutive winning seasons for the first time in club history and has earned two playoff berths in the last three seasons. In 2010, the Falcons sent a franchise record and NFL-best nine players to the Pro Bowl with DE John Abraham, TE Tony Gonzalez, FB Ovie Mughelli, QB Matt Ryan, RB Michael Turner, WR/ST Eric Weems, and WR Roddy White all voted in, while T Tyson Clabo and CB Brent Grimes were added as alternates at the end of the season. The Birds went 7-1 at the Georgia Dome this season, which was tied for the second-best home record in a single-season in franchise history. This is the fifth time in club history that the team has posted a 7-1 home record, including twice under Head Coach Mike Smith. Only the 1998 team posted a better record, going 8-0 at home. Additionally, Atlanta posted a 5-1 record against NFC South opponents. Since 2008, the Falcons are 11-7 against division foes. Ryan had a breakout season in his third year under center, throwing for a career-high 3,705 yards, 28 touchdown passes and a 91.0 passer rating. Meanwhile, White set new franchise records with 115 catches and 1,389 receiving yards. White also posted his fourth straight 1,000-yard season and earned All-Pro honors. For the second time since 2008, the Falcons had a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver, and a 1,000-yard rusher, as Turner led the NFC with 1,371 yards and a team-high 12 touchdowns on the ground. Gonzalez continued his climb in the NFL record books, becoming the first tight end in League history to record 1,000 career receptions and his 1,069 catches ranks sixth all-time and second among all active players. His six touchdown catches in 2010 tied him with WR Don Maynard for 10th on the NFL's all-time touchdown receptions list with 88 career TDs and his 12,463 receiving yards are 15th all-time. Defensively, Abraham regained his 2008 form posting 13.0 sacks and two forced fumbles, while Grimes and S William Moore shared the team lead with five interceptions each and Grimes posted a franchise record 23 passes defensed. LB Curtis Lofton led the team in tackles for the second consecutive season with 142 total tackles (101 solo). Atlanta captured the NFC South title for the second time since the NFL's realignment in 2002 and it was the fourth time in team history that the Falcons won their division (1980, 1998, 2004, 2010).

The Atlanta Falcons concluded the 2011 season with a 10-6 record, marking the first time in franchise history that the team has recorded back-to-back seasons with at least 10 wins and third time in the last four seasons. The Falcons captured the fifth seed in the NFC, notching consecutive playoff berths for the first time in franchise history.

The Falcons also clinched a playoff berth for the third time in the last four seasons. Under Head Coach Mike Smith, the Falcons are the only NFC team to post winning records in each of the last four seasons (2008-11).

Smith has posted a four-year record of 43-21, which is not only the best four-year mark in team history, but ranks among the best records in NFL history for first-time head coaches. Smith is tied with Bill Cowher (Pittsburgh – '92-95), Mike Martz (St. Louis – '00-03), Mike Sherman (Green Bay – '00-03), and Mike Tomlin (Pittsburgh – '07-10) for the fourth-best four-year record among first-time head coaches.

The Birds wrapped up the 2011 campaign in record setting fashion, as QB Matt Ryan, RB Michael Turner and WR Roddy White all established new franchise bests. Ryan broke the franchise record for passing yards in a single season after eclipsing QB Jeff George's club record of 4,143 yards set in 1995. Ryan finished the 2011 season with 4,177 passing yards, 29 touchdown passes and a 92.9 quarterback rating, all career highs. White became the Falcons all-time leading receiver with 7,364 career receiving yards, breaking Terance Mathis' franchise record of 7,349 yards set between 1994 and 2001. The seventh year receiver out of UAB also finished the season with 100 receptions and became the first player in team history to record multiple 100-catch seasons. Turner also got in on the action, breaking Gerald Riggs' franchise record of 48 rushing touchdowns set between 1982 and 1988. "The Burner" led the NFC in rushing yards with 1,340 yards and added 11 touchdowns on the season.

In addition, TE Tony Gonzalez continued his ascension in the NFL record books, becoming the NFL's second all-time leading receiver with his 1,149 career receptions and climbed to 11th in League annals with his 13,338 career receiving yards and was named to his 12th Pro Bowl.

Defensively, the Falcons enjoyed a breakout season from LB Sean Weatherspoon, who finished the season with a career-high 127 tackles (86 solo) and four sacks. LB Curtis Lofton led the team in tackles for the third consecutive year with 167 tackles (101 solo) and added two interceptions. DE John

Abraham continued to wreak havoc on opposing quarterbacks, notching 9.5 sacks and four forced fumbles.

The Atlanta Falcons finished the 2012 season with a 14-4 overall record and hosted the NFC Championship Game for the first time in franchise history. In five seasons under Head Coach Mike Smith, the Falcons have posted five consecutive winning seasons and earned four trips to the playoffs. Under Smith, the Falcons have posted a 56-24 record and their 56 wins are the second most in the NFL during that time and Atlanta's .700 winning percentage is the second-best mark in the NFL over the last five seasons trailing only the New England Patriots (60-20, .750).

Smith earned NFL Coach of the Year honors from the Sporting News for the third time in the last five seasons after guiding the Falcons to an NFC best 13-3 record in 2012. He also set a franchise record for most career coaching wins (56).

QB Matt Ryan enjoyed his best season, setting single-season franchise records for passing yards (4,719), pass attempts (615), completions (422), touchdown passes (32) and 300-yard games (7) en route to his second career Pro Bowl selection. In 2012, additionally, Ryan's 56 career wins are the most by any quarterback in his first five seasons in NFL history.

TE Tony Gonzalez continued to show that he is one of the premier tight ends in the NFL, catching 93 passes for 930 yards with eight touchdowns in 2012. Gonzalez was selected to the Pro Bowl for the 13th time in his career last season. He currently ranks second in NFL history with 1,242 career receptions and his 103 career touchdown catches are the sixth most in League annals.

WR Roddy White became just the fifth player in NFL history to post three straight seasons with 90-or-more receptions and 1,200-or-more yards with his 92 catch, 1,351 yard out put in 2012.

WR Julio Jones joined White to create one of the NFL's best receiving tandems as the duo became the first set of Falcons teammate to post 1,000 receiving yards each since 1998. Jones finished 2012 with 79 catches for 1,198 yards and 10 touchdowns.

The Falcons boasted five Pro Bowlers in 2012, including Ryan, Gonzalez, Jones, S Thomas DeCoud and S William Moore. The duo of DeCoud and Moore combined for 11 takeaways, including 10 INTs & one fumble recovery, which resulted in 33 points during the 2012 season.

HISTORICAL CALENDAR

THE START
June 30, 1965

The NFL awards a franchise to 41-year-old Rankin M. Smith, Executive Vice President of Life Insurance Company of Georgia, for $8.5 million. At the time, there were 14 NFL franchises in existence, the 15th in the NFL prior to the merger of the leagues.

THE NICKNAME
Aug. 29, 1965

"Falcons" was suggested by many, with reasons from a school teacher from Griffin, Georgia singled out. Miss Julia Elliott said: "the Falcon is proud and dignified, with great courage and fight. It never drops its prey. It is deadly and has a great sporting tradition." A logo was designed by Wayland Moore Studios.

YOU NEED PLAYERS
Sept. 9, 1965

Halfback Bob Paremore and split end Gary Barnes, who had been in the NFL with the Cardinals and Bears, were the first two players to sign with the Falcons.

THE FIRST DRAFT
Nov. 27, 1965

With the first pick in the entire draft, the Falcons chose Outland Trophy winning linebacker Tommy Nobis from the University of Texas. After being drafted also by Houston of the AFL, he chose the Falcons on Dec. 14 and signed a contract. As the Falcons got two choices in each of the first five rounds, QB Randy Johnson of Texas A&I was the other first round pick by Atlanta. All told, the Falcons gained 25 players in the 20-round draft, the last one being defensive back Bob Riggle from Penn State.

THE HEAD COACH
Jan. 26, 1966

Norb Hecker, 39, left the Green Bay staff of Vince Lombardi to accept the job as the Falcons first Head Coach. He was with Lombardi seven years as they won three world titles and four conference titles. Gene Cronin, the Director of Player Personnel, deserves the distinction of being the first member of the Falcon organization named by Mr. Smith.

HEAD FOR THE MOUNTAINS
March 26, 1966

A YMCA Camp, Blue Ridge Assembly on Black Mountain, N.C. (near Asheville) is selected as the first summer training camp home.

THE MERGER OCCURS
June 8, 1966

The AFL and NFL agree to merge with a Championship Game to be played. The teams would not actually begin playing regular season games until 1970. Atlanta was assigned to the NFL's Western Conference, Coastal Division, with the Los Angeles Rams, Baltimore Colts and San Francisco 49ers.

THE FIRST PRACTICE
July 2, 1966

Training camp opened with some 130 players checking in for physicals and their chance to be an NFL player. One of the camp's visitors was Rev. Billy Graham, who lived just a few miles from the Blue Ridge Assembly. All told, 66 rookies reported with the vets checking in on July 9.

THE FIRST GAME
Aug. 1, 1966

Before 26,072 at Atlanta Stadium, Philadelphia claims a 9-7 win over the Falcons. Trivia fans might want to note that QB Dennis Claridge passed one yard to Tom Wilson for the Falcons first ever touchdown (second quarter) to provide a 7-6 halftime lead.

THIS GAME IS FOR REAL
Sept. 11, 1966

The Los Angeles Rams handed the Falcons a 19-14 loss before 54,418 at Atlanta Stadium. The Rams of George Allen were led by QB Roman Gabriel (294 yards). After a 16-0 lead, Atlanta rallied to make it 16-14 before a third quarter Rams field goal ended the scoring. Pregame ceremonies included Commissioner Pete Rozelle, Governor Carl Sanders, and Mayor Ivan Allen. Falcons running back Ernie Wheelwright ran for 91 yards and caught a pass for 25 more to lead the offense.

THE FIRST POINTS
Sept. 11, 1966

It was the second quarter when QB Randy Johnson hit Gary Barnes for a 53-yard touchdown to officially score the first points for the Atlanta Falcons.

THE FIRST OFFICIAL WIN
Nov. 30, 1966

After nine-straight losses, the Falcons claimed one for the W column at Yankee Stadium (62,746), 27-16. Former Giant Ernie Wheelwright scored two TD's receiving and ran for 51 more yards as QB Randy Johnson hit for a trio of TD's.

TYING AN NFL RECORD WITH FIRST HOME WIN

Dec. 11, 1966

The Falcons tied an NFL record for an expansion team (Minnesota) by winning a third game. This victim was the St. Louis Cardinals, 16-10, before 57,169. The second win had been at Minnesota with Bobby Riggle returning an interception 62 yards for a touchdown.

ATLANTA'S FIRST ALL-PRO

Dec. 15, 1967

Linebacker Tommy Nobis was named to the AP All-Pro team, a Falcons first. This honor followed his Rookie of the Year performance in 1966 (Bert Bell Award and Pro Football Writers Association).

A NEW REGIME

Oct. 1, 1968

Norm Van Brocklin, formerly head coach of the Vikings, is named to replace Norb Hecker after three games of the season. Two weeks later, his Falcons beat New York, 24-21, in the first meeting between Van Brocklin and his former QB, Fran Tarkenton.

STARTING ON THE RIGHT FOOT

Sept. 21, 1969

Falcons win first season opener ever, beating 49ers, 24–12, before home fans. Rookie Tight End Jim Mitchell scored two TD's and club set team record with 229 yards rushing.

TRIPLE PLAY

Dec. 7, 1969

Harmon Wages had a game to remember in this 45–17 rout of the Saints. The second year back threw for a TD in the first quarter (16 yards to Flatley), then caught a pass for a TD in the second quarter (88 yards), and then ran for a TD in the fourth quarter (66 yards).

A PASSING FEAT

Sept. 27, 1970

In Week Two at Green Bay, QB Bob Berry sets club records with the Franchise's first 300-yard passing game (28–44 for 302), but Packers rally for 27–24 win.

CANNONBALL EXPLODES

Oct. 4, 1970

Jim "Cannonball" Butler, just one week after Berry's passing record, sets a new club rushing record in the home opener against the 49ers. The seven-year veteran set two club records that day. One was for most yards (127 on 17 carries), the other was for most fumbles (4).

NATIONAL TV!

Nov. 30, 1970

Over 30 million Monday Night TV viewers saw their first game from Atlanta as the Miami Dolphins came to town with ABC-TV. Larry Csonka (108) and Mercury Morris (76) ran away with a 20–7 Miami victory.

A HALL OF FAMER

Feb. 23, 1971

Coach Norm Van Brocklin is elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

CATCH THIS ACT

Oct. 3 and Dec. 19, 1971

Rookie sensation Ken Burrow made more yardage receiving in one game than any NFC receiver, and he wrote his name in the club record book TWICE. He had 190 yards at Detroit and duplicated that feat at New Orleans. All of this was done playing the final 11 games with a broken wrist.

A WINNING SEASON

Dec. 19, 1971

In dramatic fashion with 40 seconds left, the Falcons score to beat New Orleans, 24–20, to finish the season at 7–6–1, thus giving them the first winning season in club history.

A COAST TO COAST WIN

Nov. 22, 1971

Falcons win their first Nationally televised game with a 28–21 triumph over Green Bay in Atlanta on Monday Night Football.

"UNOFFICIAL" 1,000

Dec. 17, 1972

Dave Hampton technically was the club's first 1,000-yard rusher. At Kansas City, the veteran running back scampered around end for his 1,000th yard. However, his next carry was a six-yard loss and his final carry a one-yard gain. Thus, he ended at 995, never officially getting his name in the Falcon record book.

LIGHTING UP SCOREBOARD

Sept. 16, 1973

"HARD LUCK" HAMPTON AND FALCONS
1973 Season

After missing by five yards for a 1,000-yard season in 1972, Dave Hampton comes even closer in 1973. Needing 87 yards in the finale, he gets just 84 and finishes three yards shy of the magic number. The Falcons are equally close, finishing 9–5 for their most wins and best record ever, but losing out for the playoffs by one game.

TRADING FOR THE FUTURE
Jan. 27, 1975

In order to obtain the rights to the number one pick in the college draft, the Falcons send offensive tackle George Kunz and a draft choice to Baltimore. Falcons also got a 6th round pick (and took LB Fulton Kuykendall).

THE FUTURE IS HERE
Jan. 28, 1975

With that top choice, the Falcons select all-America QB Steve Bartkowski from California.

HOORAY FOR HAMPTON
Dec. 21, 1975

RB Dave Hampton becomes first Falcon to gain 1,000 yards rushing (1,002) with 61 in final game vs. Green Bay.

FRONT OFFICE MOVES
Feb. 1–3, 1977

Former NFL quarterback Eddie LeBaron is named General Manager, with Rankin M. Smith, Jr. assuming the title of President. Two days later, Leeman Bennett, a Rams assistant becomes fifth Head Coach in club history.

ZERO HOUR
Nov. 27, 1977

In shutout of Bucs, Falcons set club record by allowing just 78 total yards. It is also the second '0' performance by the defense on the season, also a club first.

NFL RECORD!
1977 Defense

With 35–7 final win over Saints, Falcons establish new NFL modern day record for 14-game season by allowing just 129 points all year as club finishes 7–7.

JUNE JONES, GRITZ BLITZ GO NATIONAL
Oct. 30, 1978

In their first national TV game in four years, the Falcons lose Bartkowski in 2nd quarter. Enter June Jones, kicker Tim Mazzetti's five field goals, and the hard hitting Gritz Blitz defense and you have a 15–7 upset of the Rams.

"BIG BEN RIGHT"
Nov. 12, 1978

With 2:23 remaining the Falcons were trailing 17–6 at their own 20-yard line at New Orleans. An 80-yard march made it 17–13 with 59 seconds left. With 19 seconds left, Bartkowski threw 57 yards into a cluster where Alfred Jackson caught a pass deflected by Wallace Francis and the Falcons clock struck victory.

CLINCHING A PLAYOFF BERTH THE EASY WAY
Dec. 15, 1978

When Redskins lose to Bears, Falcons are ensured their first playoff berth. The next day, L.A. beat Green Bay to give the Falcons a home field game.

DEALING THE WILD CARD
Dec. 24, 1978

With two TD's in the final eight minutes, the Falcons overcame the rainy weather to win their Playoff game over the Eagles, 14–13. The Christmas Eve present to the fans was not complete until the Eagles missed a 34-yard FG in the final seconds. Merry Christmas!

VALIANT UNDERDOGS
Dec. 30, 1978

As 14-point underdogs in Texas Stadium, the Falcons came ready to win. They jumped out to a 20–13 halftime lead and knocked QB Roger Staubach unconscious just before the half. The home-team Cowboys regained the lead 27–20 as the Falcons marched for a tying score. With 4th-and-1 at the Cowboy 32, the Falcons came up inches short and never got the ball back.

WILIAM WHO?
Sept. 2, 1979

Third-round draft choice William Andrews made his NFL debut memorable with a 167-yard effort in a 40–34 overtime win at the Superdome. Each team gained over 500 yards offense before Falcons won with special teams interception TD.

ADDING UP THE TOTALS
Dec. 16, 1979

Records were broken for the season by William Andrews with 1,023 yards, by Wallace Francis with 74 catches for 1,013 yards and by Steve Bartkowski with 2,502 yards (203–379).

THE BIGGER THEY ARE, THE HARDER THE FALL
Sept. 28 – Oct. 5, 1980

Undefeated opponents fall on successive weekends to the Falcons. First, the 49ers are upset 20–17 at Candlestick, then with a record-breaking 34-point first half, the Lions fall, 43–28.

HOW THE WEST WAS WON
Dec. 14, 1980

Steve Bartkowski's 28th, 29th and 30th TD passes, William Andrews, sixth 100-yard game and a rugged defense led to a 35–10 rout of the 49ers and the Falcons had earned their first-ever NFC Western Division Title. The win was the Falcons ninth straight and 12th of the season, both club bests.

ALOHA
Feb. 1, 1981

Record six Falcons selected to Pro Bowl as Bartkowski passes for new high 178 yards (55 TD to Alfred Jenkins) to lead NFC to 21–7 win.

SEEING IS BELIEVING
Sept. 13, 1981

Green Bay Packer fans were enjoying a 17–0 lead after three quarters, but no one knew what was in store next. In a nine-minute span, the Falcons erupted for an NFL record tying 31 points (4 TD's, 1 FG) to win 31–17.

GOOD NEWS, BAD NEWS
Sept. 20, 1981

Atlanta fans were treated to a 34–17 thumping of the rival 49ers (soon to be Super Bowl bound) and the fastest start in club history, 3–0. The Falcons had now won 12 of the last 13 regular season games and 14 of last 15. Tommy Pridemore even set a club record with a 101-yard interception return. The bad news: three starters were lost in a five-minute span (LB Joel Williams, DE Jeff Merrow and T Warren Bryant).

NUMBERS TO REMEMBER
1981 Season

The team will look back on seven losses of five points or less as to why they were 7–9. The defeats were by 1, 2, 2, 3, 3, 3, and 5 points. Individually, records were set by Steve Bartkowski (3,830 yards), William Andrews (81 catches), Alfred Jenkins (1,358 yards, 13 TD's - 3 in one game), and Mick Luckhurst (114 points). A team high seven Falcons are picked for the Pro Bowl.

NO MORE TICKETS
May 17, 1982

BACK ON TRACK
Nov. 21, 1982

In first game after strike, William Andrews gains 207 yards (119 rush, 88 rec.) and rookie Gerald Riggs scores his first two NFL TD's in 34–17 win over Rams. Falcons are 2–1 and thinking playoffs in short season.

A NATIONAL CLINCH
Dec. 19, 1982

With a powerful 17–7 win over the Super Bowl Champion 49ers before a national Sunday Night audience, the Falcons become third NFC team to clinch a playoff berth as they up record to 5–2. Atlanta controlled ball for 43 minutes to 17 for 49ers and ran the ball 57 times for 223 yards.

INDOOR PLAYOFFS
Jan. 9, 1983

Falcons journeyed to Minnesota's Metrodome for the opening round Playoff game and led 7–3 after one quarter and 21–16 after three quarters, but Vikings rallied for 30–24 win. In an oddity, all 24 Falcon points were scored by the special teams (blocked punt for TD, pass to Luckhurst for TD, and FG) and the defense (Glazebrook TD interception).

A TWO-TIME HERO
Nov. 27, 1983

Kenny Johnson became only the 12th player in NFL history to score two TD's in the same game with interceptions. His first one put the Falcons ahead of Green Bay, 41–34, but the Pack came back to force overtime. With another chance to be the hero, Johnson returned an interception 31 yards to win the game.

STATS TO REMEMBER
Dec. 18, 1983

William Andrews sets new club record with 331 rushes for 1,567 yards, Steve Bartkowski has third 3,000-yard season and sets mark with 63.4% completion rate and just 1.1% interception rate (5 in 432), while C Jeff Van Note starts his 200th game as a Falcon.

A NEW LEADER
Sept. 2, 1984

Gerald Riggs gets the starting call and sets a then club records with 35 attempts for 202 yards in 36–28 opening win at the Superdome in New Orleans.

A CATCHY RECORD
Dec. 2, 1984

Receiver Alfred Jackson broke the club record with 11 catches for 193 yards vs. San Francisco in 35–17 loss.

"WHITE SHOES" IS #1
Sept. 8, 1985

Billy "White Shoes" Johnson becomes the NFL's all-time career punt returner with 58 yards against Detroit.

DETERMINED GERALD
Dec. 22, 1985

With 158 yards in the 16–10 win over New Orleans, Gerald Riggs had a club best nine 100-yard games and a season record 1,719 yards to lead the entire NFC.

A RECORD START
Sept. 1986

The Falcons came out roaring with four straight wins over New Orleans, St. Louis, Dallas and Tampa Bay for the best-ever start in club history. The Cowboys game featured a 10-point rally with a game-winning FG with 20 seconds left and the Bucs game featured a 20–7 come-from-behind win with an overtime FG the decider. Gerald Riggs ran for a touchdown in each game to tie a club mark. The opener also featured the return of William Andrews after a two-year layoff following knee surgery.

A NOTE OF THANKS
Dec. 14, 1986

It was Jeff Van Note day at Atlanta Fulton County Stadium as the 18-year veteran center was honored after 246 games. With all his family present, he was presented gifts, including a vintage 1957 Chevy (symbolic of his #57 and being a classic). Mick Luckhurst extended his club record to 117 consecutive PAT's.

RIGGS' RECORD BREAKING DAY DOOMS DALLAS
Dec. 6, 1987

Gerald Riggs becomes the club's all-time leading rusher, surpassing William Andrews with a five-yard run in the third quarter at Dallas, giving the six-year pro from Arizona State a career total of 5,987 yards. Riggs finishes up the day with 119 yards to help the Falcons break a seven-game losing streak and knock the Cowboys out of the playoffs for the second straight year with a 21–10 victory in Texas Stadium.

MAKING A CASE FOR HIMSELF
Nov. 6–27, 1988

CB Scott Case laid claim to a spot in the Pro Bowl by being named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for November. Case intercepted five passes (two each vs. Packers and Raiders), registered a forced fumble and QB sack and made 20 tackles with nine passes defensed to help the Falcons to a 3–1 record during the month.

SETTLE-ING FOR A PLACE IN HISTORY
Dec. 18, 1988

RB John Settle put his name in the League's record book by becoming the first undrafted free agent in NFL history since the 1970 merger to gain 1,000 yards in a season as he rushed for 66 yards against the Saints to finish with 1,024. Paul Lowe (Chargers) and Clem Daniels (Raiders) of the AFL were the only other undrafted players to accomplish the feat (in 1963 and 1965). The former Appalachian State star was fourth in the NFL in total yards (1,594) and the club leader in receptions with 68 as he garnered his first trip to the Pro Bowl.

A CASE OF A PERFECT 10
Dec. 18, 1988

CB Scott Case picked off his 10th pass of the year against the Saints to finish atop the NFL charts. Case set a new Falcon record for interceptions in a season eclipsing the old mark of nine by Rolland Lawrence in 1975. The Oklahoma product stole seven passes in the second half of the season when the Falcons defense began to gel.

PRIME TIME SCORES TWICE

Deion "Prime Time" Sanders ends his lengthy Sept. contract holdout and reports to camp. He takes a Friday practice and Saturday walk through and puts on the football pads for the first time in seven months in the season opener vs. the Rams. In the first quarter, Deion returns his second career punt 68 yards for a touchdown. After hitting a home run for the New York Yankees earlier that week, it makes him the only modern day athlete to hit a HR and score a TD in the same week.

GOOD JOB
Dec. 1989

Guard Bill Fralic goes to a fourth consecutive Pro Bowl (the only guard in the NFL to do so). Rookie

WR Shawn Collins leads all NFL rookies and sets a club rookie mark with 58 catches, while fellow rookie Deion Sanders gains post-season recognition by leading all rookie DB's with five thefts and gaining over 1,000 yards in returns.

BACK IN BLACK
March 20, 1990

The Falcons announce plans for their 25th Anniversary season that include going back to their original black jerseys of 1966. In addition, black helmets are unveiled along with the 25th anniversary logo patches for the uniforms.

SHOWSTOPPING TRADE
April 20, 1990

With the number one pick overall in the draft, the Falcons deal with the Colts for six-time Pro Bowl lineman, Chris Hinton, all-rookie WR Andre Rison, and next year's #1 pick.

THAT'S SUPER
May 23, 1990

Falcons owner Rankin Smith leads the way in sec-uring Super Bowl XXVIII for the city of Atlanta at the NFL Owners Meetings in Dallas.

NATIONAL TV
Oct. 28, 1990

With a national TV audience watching for the first time since 1984, the Falcons storm the Cincinnati Bengals, 38-17. The prime time viewers see "Prime Time" Deion Sanders set a club record with a 79-yard punt return TD in what was TNT's highest rated game of the season.

TWO-TIMER
Jan. 30, 1991

CB Deion Sanders becomes both an Atlanta Brave and an Atlanta Falcon as he signs a baseball contract. He's the first to play two sports in the same city in 30 years.

BIG BEN III RINGS
Nov. 3, 1991

QB Billy Joe Tolliver, subbing for injured Chris Miller, lofted a 44-yard "Big Ben" pass caught in a crowd of seven players by WR Michael Haynes with nine seconds remaining. That gave the Falcons a 17-14 victory and season sweep over the San Francisco 49ers. San Francisco had just taken the lead with only 53 seconds left in the game.

COMING UP 3'S
Nov. 17, 1991

The Falcons go on a scoring spree in the second quarter and set a new club record for most points in one quarter with 33. WR Andre Rison scores 3 TD's (18 of the 33 points) with scores of 39, 12 and 15 yards. Rison also tied a club record for most points scored by an individual in a game. The 33 in a quarter were seventh highest ever in NFL history.

WEST COAST SWEEP

Atlanta recorded an NFL rarity by sweeping all western opponents either on the road or at home. The Falcons were 7-0, defeating the Rams and the 49ers twice, along with the Raiders, Chargers and the Seahawks. Atlanta was the only team in 1991 to defeat the 49ers in Candlestick Park.

LONG FLIGHTS

WR Michael Haynes led the entire NFL in average yardage per catch with a 22.4 rate (the NFL's highest since 1983). Mike had 50 receptions on the year for 1,122 yards and 11 touchdowns. His 11 touchdown catches averaged 44.9 yards per play as he recorded 12 receptions over 30 yards.

PRINCE OF THIEVES

THE TUGGLE STRUGGLE
1991 Season

Falcon LB Jessie Tuggle, who had over 200 tackles the previous two seasons, had led the entire NFL in tackles, only to be forgotten when All-Pro teams and Pro Bowl selections were made. A 1992 Pro Bowl selection rejection, Tuggle was finally recognized as a first team All-Pro pick by Sports Illustrated.

ROAD KILL

The Falcons made club history as they swept through their NFC West road trips by defeating the Rams 31-14 in Anaheim, dropping New Orleans in overtime 23-20 at the Superdome, and by giving the 49ers their only loss in 1991 at Candlestick Park 39-34. This was the first time ever the birds had beaten all their division rivals on the road.

ONE LAST TIME A FINAL GAME OUTDOORS

Dec. 15, 1991

A sellout crowd witnessed the Falcons' final home game of the 1991 season, as well as the birds' final game in Fulton-County Stadium. Atlanta defeated the Seattle Seahawks 26–13, to run their home win streak to five straight. NFL thieves Tim McKyer and Deion Sanders combined on a 55-yard interception and lateral for a memorable touchdown. On hand with the 59,000 fans were entertainer MC Hammer, World Heavy Weight Champion Evander Holyfield, singer Wayne Newton, and popular country group Diamond Rio.

PLAYOFF WIN

Dec. 29, 1991

On the road at arch-rival New Orleans on ABC's national TV, the Falcons came from 10 points down to win their first-ever Playoff game away from home. New Orleans native Michael Haynes scored two touchdowns, including the game winning 61-yarder

THE FIRST GAME IN THE NEW DOME

Aug. 23, 1992

A sold-out crowd (66,834 actual) and a national TV audience (ABC) on this Sunday afternoon saw the Falcons win the first-ever game in the new Georgia Dome, 20-10, over the Philadelphia Eagles. While Eagles' Ian Howfield kicked a 33-yard field goal for the first points ever, the Falcons hooked up on their first play in the Dome for a 76-yard TD pass - Chris Miller to Michael Haynes. All fans received a special souvenir ticket and commemorative pin.

THIS FIRST ONE COUNTS AS A "W"

Sept. 6, 1992

In the regular season opener in the Dome, the Falcons scored on their first four possessions en route to a 20-17 win over the New York Jets before a sellout of 65,585. The first play saw rookie RB Tony Smith run for 32 yards and the first points came on a Norm Johnson 25-yard field goal. Just 17 seconds later, the Falcons scored the first TD in the Dome on a Chris Miller to Michael Haynes pass of 14 yards. Miller and Haynes hooked up again on an 11-yard play later in the first quarter as the Birds ran up a 17-0 lead. In the second period, Norm Johnson tied a club record with a 54-yard field goal. Miller's 72% passing (21-29) and 117 yards from the ground game led the Falcons to victory.

DOUBLE DUTY

Oct. 11, 1992

Deion Sanders pulled off yet another first by participating in two pro sports in the SAME DAY. On Saturday night, he played in the Braves playoff game in Pittsburgh, flew to Miami to play for the Falcons, then flew back to Pittsburgh for a game Sunday night. His presence helped the Falcons hold Dan Marino to a rare game without a TD pass, but the Falcons lost a 17-7 third quarter lead to bow, 21-17.

SHUT 'EM OUT

Nov. 29, 1992

The Falcons defense posted the first shutout since 1988 in a 34–0 rout of the New England Patriots. Atlanta allowed just 15 net yards passing, second best in club history, and just 105 total yards with five QB sacks, two pass interceptions (both by Deion) and two fumble recoveries. Rookie Tony Smith had another hot day with an 8.1 rush average (10–81–1 td) and a 15-yard average on PR (5–75) for 151 yards.

OF PASSING INTEREST

The Falcons led the NFL with a club record 33 TD passes and became the only team to have 30 or more TD's in both '91 and '92. The 336 pass completions were a club season best as were the 194 passing first downs. Andre Rison set a club record with 93 receptions and became the first player in NFL history to have 300 catches in their first four years in the League. The Rison-Haynes tandem netted 21 TD's to lead the NFL for a second straight year (23 in '91). Mike Pritchard's 77 catches were the 5th most in club history, 9th in the NFL. Wade Wilson finished with three consecutive 300-yard games (324, 342, 374) and 10 TD's in those three games and two consecutive 30-completion games.

OFFENSIVE WARFARE

1993 Season

Led by Pro Bowlers Andre Rison, Bobby Hebert and Norm Johnson, Atlanta's offense scored over 300 points for the fourth consecutive season. Rison scored a club-record 15 TD's, and set a new standard for most receptions in his first five seasons with 394. Hebert, meanwhile, finished third in the NFL with a career-high 24 TD passes and had the NFL's longest play of the year, a 98-yard TD strike to Michael Haynes. Johnson nearly had a perfect season, connecting on 26–of–27 field goals (.963), while stretching his consecutive FG streak to 26 in a row, the second best mark in NFL history. On defense, LB Jessie Tuggle led the team in tackles for the fifth consecutive season (183). Pro Bowl cornerback Deion Sanders continued to be an impact player, picking off seven passes while shutting down the league's top receivers. Third-year RB Erric Pegram more than made a name for himself, rushing for 1,185 yards, the fourth highest total in '93.

JUNE JONES NAMED HEAD COACH
Jan. 24, 1994

June Jones is named Atlanta's 10th head coach, replacing Jerry Glanville, who resigned following the 1993 season.

FALCONS LOSE LONGTIME FRIEND
Nov. 3, 1994

Whitey Zimmerman, the Falcons original equipment manager since 1966, passes away. Always a constant in the locker room, "Zeke" will always be remembered as former Falcon Tommy Nobis stated as, the "Original Falcon."

111 CATCHES!
Dec. 24, 1994

Terance Mathis closes out a brilliant season against Arizona, finishing the '94 campaign with a club-record 111 receptions, the fourth highest total of all-time. His 1,342 receiving yards ranks third on Atlanta's all-time charts. For his efforts, he is voted to '95 Pro Bowl.

MIKE KENN RETIRES
Dec. 24, 1994

Offensive lineman Mike Kenn finally closes out 17-year NFL career after being drafted by the Falcons in 1978. His last game against Arizona was his 251st game played, ranking sixth on the NFL's all-time list. He played in five Pro Bowls and six playoff games.

FALCONS LAND MORTEN ANDERSEN
July 21, 1995

The birds kick off camp by signing Morten Andersen, one of the best kickers in NFL history. Andersen, a long-time Falcons nemisis with New Orleans, had been cut by the Saints, who wanted to re-work his contract. The Falcons act swiftly by waiving Norm Johnson and bringing in the former Saint.

I-85 RIVALRY BEGINS
Sept. 3, 1995

The new Carolina Panthers make NFL debut in Georgia Dome and jump out to a 10-0 lead. Atlanta then takes over, building a 20-13 lead on first drive of third quarter. But, Carolina hits on a 44-yard bomb with 26 seconds left to force overtime. The Falcons register their record-tying ninth QB sack of the game, forcing a fumble, and go on to quickly kick the game-winning 35-yard field goal.

SWEET REVENGE
Sept. 17, 1995

K Morten Andersen goes against his former team for the first time as a Falcon and boots the game-winning field goal from 21-yards out in overtime at the Superdome.

MORTEN SETS NFL RECORD
Dec. 10, 1995

K Morten Andersen beats his old team again, but this time sets another NFL record in the process. Andersen establishes a new League mark with three field goals from beyond 50 yards in one game, including shots from 55, 55, and 51 yards, as Atlanta comes away with a 19-14 victory and sweeps the Saints for the first time since 1985.

PLAYOFF BOUND
Dec. 24, 1995

Needing a win to make the playoffs, the Falcons pull off the improbable, defeating the world champion 49ers, 28-27, in front of a frenzied crowd at the Georgia Dome on Christmas eve. Bobby Hebert connects with Terance Mathis on two touchdowns, including the game-winner as Mathis makes an incredible run to the end zone and dives in with 1:45 remaining. Hebert was filling in for an injured Jeff George, who was knocked out with a concussion and neck injury just before halftime. Atlanta finishes 7-1 at home, the second best home record in the NFL in '95.

FOUR 1,000-YARD PLAYERS
1995 Season

The Falcons establish an NFL record by having four players each gain 1,000 yards, including receivers Eric Metcalf (1,189), Terance Mathis (1,039), Bert Emanuel (1,039), and running back Craig Heyward (1,083). Jeff George, meanwhile, became only the 18th QB in League history to have over 4,000 yards passing (4,143).

JAMAL ANDERSON HITS 1,000
Dec. 15, 1996

RB Jamal Anderson becomes the seventh Falcon in club history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season. Anderson had previously signed a three-year contract extension, taking him through the 1999 season.

JONES LET GO AS FALCONS COACH
Dec. 23, 1996

Head Coach June Jones was fired with two years left on his contract following Atlanta's 3-13 season in 1996. During his three years (1994-96), he compiled a 19-29 record and led the Falcons to a playoff berth in 1995.

REEVES BECOMES 11TH FALCONS HEAD COACH

Jan. 20, 1997

Dan Reeves becomes the 11th head coach in franchise history, signing a 5-year contract as Exec. VP of Football Operations/Head Coach. He quickly assembles an impressive staff, including Rich Brooks as Asst. Head Coach/Defensive Coord. and Hall of Famer Art Shell as Offensive Line Coach.

FALCONS OWNER RANKIN SMITH PASSES AWAY

Oct. 26, 1997

Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away from heart complications just hours before the Falcons were to play a nationally-televised game at Carolina on TNT. The 72-year old was remembered at a Tuesday memorial service as a quiet, behind-the-scenes "pioneer" who helped bring professional sports, and other major contributions to his beloved city of Atlanta.

FALCONS FINISH SEASON 6-2 UNDER REEVES

1997 Season

After a difficult 1-7 start, the Falcons went 6-2 in their final eight games to finish 7-9, marking one of the best second-half comebacks in NFL history. QB Chris Chandler came on strong and ranked second in the NFL in QB rating (95.1) behind Steve Young en route to his first Pro Bowl appearance, joining teammate Jessie Tuggle. The real story of the season, however, was the tremendous play of the defensive line, which established a club-record 55 sacks to rank 2nd in the NFL. Chuck Smith (12.0 sacks) and Travis Hall (10.5 sacks) led the charge.

SCORING BARRAGE

Oct. 4, 1998

The Falcons sweep the Carolina Panthers for the first time with a 51-23 rout and set an NFL record in the process. Atlanta scores three touchdowns in just 48 seconds, the fastest in NFL history since the 1970 merger.

"DIRTY BIRD" TAKES FLIGHT

Nov. 8, 1998

The Falcons defense forces a club record five New England turnovers and limits the Patriots to a new club record low of just 13 rushing yards but it's what happened on offense that creates a buzz. The "Dirty Bird" touchdown dance is born as originators, RB Jamal Anderson and TE O.J. Santiago, each score twice with Santiago celebrating with the new end zone dances. The fever the dance generates captivates a national following as well as brings the Falcons to the front of the Atlanta sports scene throughout the rest of the season.

NFC WEST CHAMPS ARE CROWNED

Dec. 20, 1998

Without their ailing coach (Dan Reeves, heart surgery), Atlanta wins a close 24-17 victory on the road against the Lions after trailing 14-0 at halftime to capture their 13th win of the season and their second NFC Western Division title in team history. The historic win also helps the Falcons clinch a first-round

EXCLAMATION POINT ON FINEST SEASON

Dec. 27, 1998

By pounding the Dolphins of Dan Marino in the season-finale, 38-16, the Falcons win their club record ninth-straight game to finish the regular season with a club-best 14-2 record, including a first-ever 8-0 home record. The birds play inspired football after a pre-game visit from Head Coach Dan Reeves. The "Bomb Squad" defense also sets a new mark by allowing just 1,203 rushing yards by opponents on the season and finishes atop the NFL's charts with 44 total takeaways. Jamal Anderson registers his new team record and NFL-high 12th 100-yard rushing game with 103 yards. Anderson also breaks James Wilder's NFL record for carries in a season with 410 en route to the ninth highest rushing total ever in a single-season in league history with 1,846 yards. The team accomplishes many "firsts", including most points in a season with 442 on the heels of a Falcon-best 53 touchdowns.

"DIRTY BIRDS" DANCE TO NFC CHAMPIONSHIP

Jan. 17, 1999

After a clutch 20-18 victory at home vs. San Francisco in the Divisional playoffs with Dan Reeves back on the sideline, Atlanta travels to 15-1 Minnesota for the right to go to Super Bowl XXXIII. The Falcons upset highly favored Minnesota in a hostile Metrodome Stadium, 30-27, in overtime in one of the most memorable Championship games ever in NFL history. Atlanta fights back from a 10 point 4th quarter deficit by shutting down the NFL's record breaking Vikings offense with stingy defense and turns the table with an potent offense of their own. QB Chris Chandler throws a bullet to WR Terance Mathis in the end zone from 16-yards out with :49 seconds left to tie the score.

Minnesota wins the coin toss in OT but Atlanta's defense is stout and holds the Vikes in the extra period on two occasions. K Morten Andersen delivers "The Kick" from 38-yards out with 11:52 elapsed in overtime to claim the club's first-ever NFC Title and a trip to Super Bowl XXXIII as a wild "Dirty Bird" celebration erupts in the city of Atlanta and the state of Georgia.

FALCONS FALL SHORT IN FIRST SUPER BOWL

Jan. 31, 1999

Almost all of the Falcons' traditional factors for success in the 16-win season eluded them in a 34-19 loss to the Broncos. But the lasting images of the finest season in team history could not be diminished. Reeves is named NFL Coach of the Year and the birds send six players to the Pro Bowl (RB Jamal Anderson, QB Chris Chandler, CB Ray Buchanan, S Eugene Robinson, LB Jessie Tuggle, T Bob Whitfield).

MATHIS SETS MILESTONE

Oct. 25, 1999

WR Terance Mathis breaks the club record for career receptions in grand style at Pittsburgh on Monday Night Football, moving past Andre Rison (423), as he hauls in 12 catches for 166 yards to push his total to 427. He eclipses Rison's record with a two-yard catch on the fourth play of the fourth quarter.

MATHIS ADDS ANOTHER RECORD

Sept. 17, 2000

WR Terance Mathis becomes the club's all-time leader in receiving yards, surpassing Alfred Jenkins' mark of 6,257, by totatling 42 yards (on five catches) at Carolina. He establishes the record in the fourth quarter on a 15-yard reception to push his record totals to 6,262. Mathis now holds the record for career catches and yards in team history.

FALCONS MAKE VICK THE PICK

April 21, 2001

The Falcons trade WR/KR Tim Dwight, their #1 pick (5th overall) and 3rd pick in 2001, as well as a 2nd round choice in 2002, to San Diego for the #1 overall selection (a day before the NFL draft). With the top choice, Atlanta tabs QB Michael Vick of Virginia Tech. Excited fans in the thousands create a buzz by driving to the Falcons' new facility in Flowery Branch, Ga. for the team's draft day party to celebrate the choice. It marks the fourth time in franchise history that Atlanta selects the #1 overall player in a draft, following LB Tommy Nobis in 1966, QB Steve Bartkowski in 1975 and LB Andray Bruce in 1988.

"NOBLE WARRIOR" LAYS DOWN HIS HAMMER

Aug. 28, 2001

One of the all-time Falcon greats, Jessie "The Hammer" Tuggle, retires after a brilliant 14-year playing career. Tuggle played his entire football career in the state of Georgia from Griffin High School to Valdosta State to the Atlanta Falcons. "The Hammer" pounded out a team record 2,065 tackles in 209 games played, the third-most ever in team history. His 14 seasons played and 189 starts also are the third-highest total in team annals. Tuggle was honored with five Pro Bowl invitations from his peers (1992, 1994, 1995, 1997, 1998) during his consistent career that included 12 straight 100-taqckle seasons. Tuggle's place in Falcons history is even more special among his many fans because of his endearing commitment to the Atlanta community over the years. Fittingly, Tuggle's #58 jersey is honored by the team, because he will always be revered for his work on and off the field for the Falcons.

TRAGEDY FORCES NFL TO POSTPONE GAMES

Sept. 11, 2001

Commisioner Paul Tagliabue postpones all NFL games for the week of Sept. 16 after terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center on Sept. 11. The Falcons' contest at St. Louis is re-scheduled for Jan. 6, 2002 as the regular season finale. Atlanta management quickly arranges a flag football game to be played one week after the attacks with proceeds benefitting the families of New York firefighters and police officers. With the help of Falcons fans, players, coaches and Falcons front office staff, the succesful event raises over $243,000 as several thousand fans showed up at the team's facility, and supporters continued to send in donations even weeks after the event.

MATHIS BREAKS TOUCHDOWN MARK

Sept. 30, 2001

WR Terance Mathis places his name again in select company by breaking Andre Rison's club record of 56 career touchdowns at Arizona. Entering the contest with 55 career touchdowns, Mathis catches two scoring passes against the Cardinals to total 57 in his career (since 1994) to help the birds to a 34-14 victory. He already owns Falcons career marks for receptions and receiving yards. Mathis tied Rison at 56 touchdowns by hauling in a 17 yard scoring pass in the first quarter. The record breaking score came on a 10-yard touchdown in the third quarter when Mathis caught a pass over the middle near the Arizona goal line and ran over two Cardinal defenders for the score and the record.

FALCONS OWNERSHIP TO CHANGE HANDS

Dec. 6, 2001

For the first time in 36 years, the Falcons will be owned by someone other than the Smith family as Arthur M. Blank reaches a preliminary agreement to purchase the team from Taylor Smith. Blank, co-founder and retired co-chairman of Atlanta-based Home Depot, is a passionate sports fan, a Falcons season-ticket holder and has been a resident of Atlanta since 1978.

BROOKING REWARDED WITH PRO BOWL NOD

Jan. 31, 2002

LB Keith Brooking is selected to his first Pro Bowl as the NFC's "need" player by Head Coach Andy Reid of the Eagles. Brooking made the switch from weakside linebacker to middle linebacker in 2001 to fill the void left by the retirement of Jessie Tuggle. Brooking finished with a team-leading 167 total tackles, surpassing his previous season-best of 95 tackles in 1999. The 167 stops are the most by a Falcon since Tuggle's 184 tackles in 1996.

SALE OF THE FALCONS APPROVED

Feb. 2002

In a special meeting in New Orleans on February 2, 2002, NFL owners vote unanimously to approve the sale of the Falcons to Arthur Blank. "We want to create an organization that has a unique and special bond with the community," stated Blank after the sale was approved. "I personally will not rest until I have a chance to wear a Super Bowl ring on behalf of everybody in Atlanta and in the state of Georgia." At his press conference, Mr. Blank announces a new three-year contract for Head Coach Dan Reeves. On February 12, 2002, the sale of the franchise to Mr. Blank by the Smith family is completed. This marks the end of an era for the Smith family, who were pioneers in bringing professional football to the Southeast.

PASS THE MAGIC

After a sluggish 1–3 start, the Falcons become one of the hottest stories of 2002 as they mount an NFL- best eight-game unbeaten streak (7–0–1). Included in the Falcons run of success were a pair of victories over division rival New Orleans, who started the season 6–1, a pair of shutout wins (30–0, 41–0) over division rival Carolina and a 34–34 tie at Pittsburgh in which the Falcons overcame a 17-point deficit in the fourth quarter to force overtime and the eventual tie.

DOME SWEET DOME

2002 Season

For the first time in 10 years the Falcons sold out all eight of their regular season home games and they increased their season ticket base by more than 100 percent, which set an NFL record for the highest rate of increase in new season tickets sold. Included in the Falcons eight home games were three of the top 10 crowds in team history.

VICK RUNS INTO NFL RECORD BOOK

Dec. 1, 2002

Falcons QB Michael Vick single-handedly leads the Falcons to an OT victory over the Minnesota Vikings by establishing a new NFL rushing record for quarterbacks with 173 yards on 10 carries. He also set the NFL record for the highest per-carry average in a single game (17.3 yards). His 46-yard touchdown dash in overtime not only propelled the Falcons to a 30–24 victory, but also set the record for the longest run by a Falcons QB in team history.

FALCONS MAKE HISTORY IN GREEN BAY

Jan. 4, 2003

Despite losing three of their last four games of the regular season to end with a 9–6–1 record, the Falcons still managed to get into the playoffs thanks to some outside help. Facing seemingly insurmountable odds, the Falcons became the first team ever to defeat the Green Bay Packers in a playoff game at Lambeau Field with a 27–7 victory. Entering the game, the Packers had never lost a home playoff game in 13 tries. A solid performance by Vick, who accounted for 181 combined yards, a stingy outing by the Falcons defense, which forced five turnovers, and an opportunistic special teams unit, which blocked a punt for a touchdown and forced a fumble to set up another, would be all the Falcons would need. It marked the Falcons first playoff appearance and victory since the Super Bowl season of 1998.

FALCONS UNVEIL NEW LOGO

March 19, 2003

Before a large gathering of media and the entire Falcons organization, the Falcons unveiled their new logo. The logo was designed in conjunction with NFL Properties after a lengthy research process, which included conducting focus groups and polls with many fans. In addition, Falcons players, coaches and staff had the opportunity to give their thoughts.

REEVES WINS 200TH GAME

Nov. 9, 2003

Atlanta Falcons head coach Dan Reeves captures the 200th victory of his career as the Falcons defeat the New York Giants on the road 27–7. After the Falcons earned Reeves his 199th victory in the season's opening game against Dallas, the Falcons lost seven consecutive contests before snapping the losing streak against the Giants. Reeves became the seventh coach in NFL history to win at least 200 games in his career.

REEVES RELEASED FROM CONTRACT

Dec. 10, 2003

Arthur Blank announces that Falcons head coach Dan Reeves has been released from his contract and that defensive coordinator Wade Phillips will serve as interim coach for the final three games of the regular season. In his seven-plus seasons with the Falcons, Reeves accumulated a record of 49–69–1. He leaves the Falcons with the seventh-most wins (201) in NFL history.

MCKAY JOINS FALCONS

Dec. 15, 2003

Longtime Tampa Bay Buccaneers executive Rich McKay leaves the Buccaneers with two games remaining in the 2003 season to assume the role of Falcons president and general manager. Coincidentally, McKay was hired five days prior to the Falcons game against the Buccaneers in Tampa. It would be a pleasant homecoming for McKay as the Falcons upset the Buccaneers 30–28, knocking Tampa Bay from playoff contention.

JIM MORA NAMED HEAD COACH

Jan. 9, 2004

San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator Jim Mora is named the 12th head coach in team history. At the time of his hiring, Mora is the third-youngest coach in the NFL at 42 years of age.

BIRDS CLINCH 3RD DIVISION TITLE WITH ROUT

Dec. 12, 2004

Jim Mora becomes just the 11th rookie head coach to win a Division title since 1970 as the Falcons rout the Oakland Raiders 35–10 to claim the NFC South championship. It marks the club's third division title in team history and first since 1998 in the old NFC West. The win also gives the Falcons their fourth 10-win season in team history. RB T.J. Duckett sets team records for most touchdowns scored and most rushing touchdowns scored with four, as well as most points scored in a single-game with 24. RB Warrick Dunn rushes for 103 yards, his eighth 100-yard game as a Falcon, QB Michael Vick completes a crisp 13–20 for 145 yards and DT Rod Coleman punctuates the win with a 39-yard interception return touchdown against his former team.

FIRST TIME LEAGUE LEADERS

2004 Regular Season

For the first time in team history the Falcons lead the NFL in rushing yards and establish a new team record with 2,672 yards. RB Warrick Dunn tops 1,000 yards with 1,106 and QB Michael Vick adds 902 rushing yards to the explosive ground game. The club also paces the League in QB sacks with 48.

SETTING THE (PLAYOFF) RECORD STRAIGHT

Jan. 15, 2005

In their first home playoff game since 1999, the Falcons do not take any prisoners and blow-out the Rams 47–17 in a Divisional Playoff game at home where records fall. The Falcons running game dominates with a club record 327 rushing yards, which is the fourth-highest in NFL postseason history. The defensive effort was equally impressive as Ed Donatell's unit does not allow a single point in the second half. The "DVD Backfield" of Warrick Dunn (142 yards rushing, 2 TD's), Michael Vick (203 combined yards) and T.J. Duckett (66 yards, 1 TD) account for all of record 327 rushing yards. Vick's 119 yards is the most ever by a quarterback in a postseason game and combined with Warrick Dunn's 142 yards the duo becomes only the fourth set of backs in the Super Bowl era to account for more than 100 yards in the same game. DE Brady Smith does not let up and sacks QB Marc Bulger for a safety and Duckett's four-yard touchdown run ends the scoring in the fourth quarter as the Falcons advance to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in team history.

FALCONS FALL SHORT IN SUPER BOWL CHASE

Jan. 23, 2005

The Falcons fall short in the NFC Championship Game in frigid tempertures at Philadelphia after only trailing 14–10 at halftime as their season ends with a 27–10 final verdict. Atlanta finishes the 2004 campaign with an overall record of 12–6 and provide Falcons fans with plenty of thrills. Jim Mora garnered votes for Coach of the Year, as well as winning NFC Coach of the Year. QB Michael Vick, TE Alge Crumpler, LB Keith Brooking, DE Patrick Kerney and returner Allen Rossum go to the Pro Bowl, the most Falcons players since 1998 Super Bowl season. Among the notable season achievements include leading the NFL in rushing with 2,672 yards and quarterback sacks with 48, both firsts in club history. RB Warrick Dunn (1,106 yards) goes over 1,000 yards and QB Michael Vick just misses with 902 yards, the third-highest rushing total for a quarterback in NFL history. Vick's three 100-yard rushing games ties the modern day record for most 100-yard games in a single-season by a QB and his career total now of five establishes a new record.

NEW SELL-OUT STREAK
Nov. 13, 2005

With their 29th straight sold-out Georgia Dome against the visiting Green Bay Packers, the Falcons break the old club record of 28 consecutive regular season sell-outs between 1971–74. The club enters the 2006 season with 41 sell-outs in-a-row (counting preseason and postseason) at home.

DOIN' IT RIGHT ON "MONDAY NIGHT"
2005 Season

The Falcons take full advantage of the most national exposure in team history by posting a perfect 3–0 record on Monday Night Football with victories over the Eagles (on opening weekend), Jets and Saints. The birds also add a big win at Detriot on FOX in their first game ever on Thanksgiving Day and only lose at Chicago on ESPN Sunday Night football for an impressive 4–1 record on nationally-televised contests.

THE GREAT DANE'S HISTORICAL BOOT
Dec. 16, 2006

K Morten Andersen becomes the NFL's all-time leading scorer against Dallas in front of a nationally-televised audience on the NFL Network with his second extra point in the second quarter to move past Gary Anderson's old mark and into the record books with 2,435 points. (He boots four PAT's on the night in a 38–28 loss).

THE GREAT DANE CONNECTS AGAIN
Dec. 24, 2006

Morten Andersen puts his name in another NFL record book by breaking Gary Anderson's mark for career field goals a week later against Carolina. Andersen boots a 40-yard field goal in the first quarter at the Georgia Dome for his 539th of his career. (He finishes the season with 540 career, three-pointers.)

VICK SETS RUSHING STANDARD
Dec. 24, 2006

Michael Vick becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a single-season against the Carolina Panthers on Christmas Eve at the Georgia Dome. Vick runs into the record books with an 18-yard scamper on the Falcons' first possession. Vick eclipses Chicago Bears QB Bobby Douglass' 1972 all-time mark of 968 yards the week before against Dallas. He finishes the season with 1,039 rushing yards.

BOBBY PETRINO NAMED NEW HEAD COACH
Jan. 7, 2006

The club releases Jim Mora from his contract on January 1, 2007 and appoints Bobby Petrino from Louisville as the 13th head coach in Falcons history. Petrino would abruptly quit after 13 games into his first season.

DUNN HITS A MILESTONE
Nov. 22, 2007

Falcons running back Warrick Dunn topped 10,000 career rushing yards in a game against Indianapolis, becoming the 22nd player in NFL history to accomplish the feat.

DIMITROFF AND SMITH AT THE HELM
Jan. 2008

The Falcons hire General Manager Thomas Dimitroff followed by Head Coach Mike Smith (14th in team history) to lead the Falcons. Smith joined the team following a five-year stint as Jacksonville's Defensive Coordinator while Dimitroff previously served as the Director of College Scouting for the New England Patriots.

WELCOME "MATTY ICE"
Apr. 26, 2008

Dimitroff and Smith draft quarterback Matt Ryan with the third overall selection in the NFL Draft. In his first season, Ryan was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and Sporting News as he threw for 3,440 yards and 16 touchdowns. His passing total ranks sixth in a single-season in Falcons annals as he became only the second rookie quarterback ever in NFL history to amass over 3,000 passing yards (Peyton Manning). Ryan became one of two rookie quarterbacks in the NFL since 2003 to start a regular season opener. He guided Atlanta to an 11-5 record, which made him the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to win 11 games. Ryan also became the first quarterback in club history to reach the 3,000-yard passing plateau. On his first career NFL passing attempt against Detroit in Week 1, Ryan found wide receiver Michael Jenkins for a 62-yard touchdown to become the first quarterback in the NFL since 2000 to throw a TD on his first career passing attempt. He led the Falcons to a 7-1 record at the Georgia Dome and guided the Falcons to a 6-2 mark in games decided by one score or less. Other accomplishments this season included NFC Rookie of the Month accolades (October) and NFC Player of the Week honors (Week 9 at Oakland). Ryan joined linebacker Tommy Nobis and defensive end Claude Humphrey as the only other Falcons to earn rookie of the year honors.

TURNER MAKES GREAT FIRST IMPRESSION
Sept. 7, 2008

After being signed as a free agent in the offseason, running back Michael Turner logged a franchise and career single-game high 220 rushing yards in his Falcons debut against Detroit. Turner's total led to a franchise single-game high 318 total yards. His rushing total was the most in NFL history by a player in his first game with a new team and fell 30 yards short of tying an opening day rushing record held by O.J. Simpson (250 yards in 1973).

ABRAHAM SACKS A RECORD
Dec. 21, 2008

With his lone sack against the Minnesota Vikings in Week 16 of the season, defensive end John Abraham set a new team record and personal best with 16.5 sacks in 2008. He topped the old mark of 16.0 held by Joel Williams, which was set in 1980. On three occasions, Abraham finished a contest with three quarterback takedowns.

In just one season, the Falcons rebounded from four wins in 2007 to an 11-5 regular season record and the team's first playoff berth since 2004. The Falcons finished with a 7-1 home record and also earned road victories against Green Bay, San Diego and Minnesota. After finishing second in the NFC South, the Falcons earned a playoff berth, but fell to the eventual NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals.

TURNER AND WHITE REPRESENT FALCONS IN PRO BOWL

Running back Michael Turner and wide receiver Roddy White became the Falcons first Pro Bowl selections since 2006. In his first year with the team, Turner posted 1,699 rushing yards, which ranked second in the NFL and produced eight 100-yard contests. He set franchise records with 17 rushing touchdowns in a season and a 220-rushing yard performance in the season opener versus Detroit. White became the first Falcons receiver to total back to back 1,000-yard seasons since 1998-99, while his 1,382 receiving yards set a single-season franchise record.

WHITE GOES OVER 200
Oct. 11, 2009

Wide receiver Roddy White finished a contest against San Francisco with eight receptions for a franchise record 210 yards (26.3 avg.). His total topped Terance Mathis' previous mark of 198 yards which he set against New Orleans in 1998. In the same game, White recorded a 90-yard touchdown reception which marked the third longest pass completion in Falcons history.

BACK-TO-BACK
Jan. 3, 2010

With a 20-10 victory over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at Raymond James Stadium in the season finale, the Falcons posted back to back winning seasons for the first time in franchise history. Following an 11-5 record in 2008, Atlanta closed the '09 campaign with three consecutive wins en route to a 9-7 record.

WHITE MAKES SECOND STRAIGHT VISIT TO PRO BOWL
Jan. 27, 2010

Wide receiver Roddy White was added to the 2010 NFC Pro Bowl roster, making his second consecutive appearance to the NFL's All-Star game. White led the team in receiving with 1,153 yards on 85 receptions and recorded a career-high 11 touchdowns. He became only the second receiver in franchise history to total three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons. In a Week 5 meeting at San Francisco, White tallied a franchise single-game record with 210 yards while contributing with a 90-yard touchdown reception in that game.

TE TONY GONZALEZ HAULS IN 1,000
September 12, 2010

Gonzalez became the first tight end in NFL history to haul in 1,000 career receptions and only the seventh player in NFL history to eclipse the 1,000 catch mark.

102-YARD KICKOFF RETURN
December 5, 2010

WR/KR Eric Weems set a franchise record with a 102-yard kickoff return that sparked a 28-24 come from behind win at Tampa Bay. He was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week and NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for his performance.

13 WINS & 3 STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS
January 2, 2011

The Atlanta Falcons finished the 2010 regular season with a 13-3 record, marking the team's second highest win total in franchise history. The Falcons also claimed the NFC South title and earned the top seed as well as home field advantage in the NFC Playoffs. Combined with an 11-5 record in 2008 and a 9-7 record in 2009, Atlanta has now posted three consecutive winning seasons for the first time in club history and has earned two playoff berths in the last three seasons.

WR RODDY WHITE SETS SINGLE-SEASON RECORDS

January 2, 2011

White set new franchise records with 115 catches and 1,389 receiving yards. White also posted his fourth straight 1,000-yard season and earned All-Pro honors.

FRANCHISE-BEST 9 PRO BOWLERS

January 2011

In 2010, the Falcons sent a franchise record and NFL-best nine players to the Pro Bowl with DE John Abraham, TE Tony Gonzalez, FB Ovie Mughelli, QB Matt Ryan, RB Michael Turner, WR/ST Eric Weems, and WR Roddy White all voted in, while T Tyson Clabo and CB Brent Grimes were added as alternates at the end of the season.

DIMITROFF & SMITH EARN EXECUTIVE OF THE YEAR AND COACH OF THE YEAR FOR THE SECOND TIME

February 2011

General Manager Thomas Dimitroff, Head Coach Mike Smith and Offensive Coordinator Mike Mularkey were all recognized by the Sporting News for their accomplishments in 2010.

Dimitroff was named the Executive of the Year for the second time since arriving in Atlanta in 2008. Under his direction, the Falcons have posted three consecutive winning seasons for the first time in team history. Smith was named Coach of the Year after leading Atlanta to an NFC-best 13-3 record and NFC South title.

FALCONS TRADE-UP IN THE DRAFT

April 28, 2011

Atlanta selected Alabama WR Julio Jones in the first round (sixth overall) of the NFL Draft. The Falcons traded it's first (27th overall), second (59th overall) and fourth (124th overall) round selection in 2011, as well as it's first and fourth round selections in 2012 to the Clevland Browns to move up to take Jones with the sixt overall selection.

RECORD SETTING DAY

January 1, 2012

The Birds wrapped up the 2011 campaign in record setting fashion, as QB Matt Ryan, RB Michael Turner and WR Roddy White all established new franchise bests. Ryan broke the franchise record for passing yards in a single season after eclipsing QB Jeff George's club record of 4,143 yards set in 1995. Ryan finished the 2011 season with 4,177 passing yards, 29 touchdown passes and a 92.9 quarterback rating, all career highs. White became the Falcons all-time leading receiver with 7,364 career receiving yards, breaking Terance Mathis' franchise record of 7,349 yards set between 1994 and 2001. The seventh year receiver out of UAB also finished the season with 100 receptions and became the first player in team history to record multiple 100-catch seasons. Turner also got in on the action, breaking Gerald Riggs' franchise record of 48 rushing touchdowns set between 1982 and 1988. "The Burner" led the NFC in rushing yards with 1,340 yards and added 11 touchdowns on the season.

SECOND STRAIGHT PLAYOFF BERTH

January 1, 2012

The Atlanta Falcons concluded the 2011 season with a 10-6 record, marking the first time in franchise history that the team has recorded back-to-back seasons with at least 10 wins and third time in the last four seasons. The Falcons captured the fifth seed in the NFC, notching consecutive playoff berths for the first time in franchise history.

The Falcons also clinched a playoff berth for the third time in the last four seasons. Under Head Coach Mike Smith, the Falcons are the only NFC team to post winning records in each of the last four seasons (2008-11).

SMITH'S WINNING WAYS

January 1, 2012

Smith has posted a four-year record of 43-21, which is not only the best four-year mark in team history, but ranks among the best records in NFL history for first-time head coaches. Smith is tied with Bill Cowher (Pittsburgh – '92-95), Mike Martz (St. Louis – '00-03), Mike Sherman (Green Bay – '00-03), and Mike Tomlin (Pittsburgh – '07-10) for the fourth-best four-year record among first-time head coaches.

NEW COORDINATORS

January, 2012

Atlanta hired Dirk Koetter to become the team's offensive coordinator and two days later added 25-year coaching veteran Mike Nolan as the club's defensive coordinator.

50th WIN FOR MIKE SMITH

October 28, 2012

With Atlanta's Week 8 win over the Philadelphia Eagles, Smith became the club's all-time wins leader and the first coach in team history to record 50 coaching wins.

Smith reached the 50-win mileston in 71 games. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is the third fastest head coach to accomplish that feat since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Only George Seifert (62 games) and Chuck Knox (65 games) reached 50 wins faster than Smith.

WR RODDY WHITE TOPS THE CHARTS

November 4, 2012

White hauled in 7 receptions for 118 yards as the Falcons defeated the Dallas Cowboys. White's performance made him the franchise's all-time leader in receptions (577) and receiving yards. .He finished the season with 92 catches for 1,351 yards and has posted 622 career receptions for 8,725 career receiving yards.

100th WIN FOR ARTHUR BLANK & THIRD STRAIGHT PLAYOFF BERTH

December 22, 2012

Atlanta defeated the Detroit Lions, 31-18, securing their second NFC South Division title under Smith, their third consecutive playoff berth and Owner & Chairman Arthur Blank's 100th victory as an owner.

Under Blank, the Falcons have recorded a 100-75-1 record and a .571 winning percentage, better than the .394 winninig percentage that the franchise posted in the 35 years prior to Blank's purchase of the team.

QB MATT RYAN SETS SINGLE-SEASON TD RECORD

December 30, 2012

Ryan connected on 28 of 44 pass attempts for 238 yards with one touchdown in Atlanta's season finale vs. the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. His touchdown pass in the season's final game gave Ryan 32 for the season, which set a new single-season franchise record. His performance surpassed the previous mark of 31 set by Steve Bartkowski in 1980.

FIRST PLAYOFF WIN FOR SMITH

The Falcons advanced to the NFC Championship for the third time in franchise history (1998 & 2004) after defeating the Seattle Seahawks 30-28 in the NFC Divisional playoff round. Trailing 28-27 with 31 seconds remaining in the game, QB Matt Ryan drove the Falcons 41 yards in two plays to set up K Matt Bryant's game-winning 49-yard field goal.

Including playoffs, Ryan has led the Falcons on game-winning drives in the fourth quarter or overtime 22 times in his career. Ryan set a franchise record for career postseason touchdown passes (6) and tied the record for touchdown passes in a postseason game (3) en route to his first playoff win.

HOST FIRST NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

January 20, 2013

The Atlanta Falcons finished the 2012 season with a 14-4 overall record and hosted the NFC Championship Game for the first time in franchise history. The Falcons would fall short to the San Fransisco 49ers, 28-24.

UNIFORM HISTORY

1966-67

Black Jersey's with white numbers and red trim at home with a white Falcon crest on the sleeves. The away jersey was white with black numbers trimmed in red and a black Falcon crest on the sleeves. The Falcons had white pants with a red strip bordered by two black stripes for both home and away games. The helmet was red with a black Falcon crest logo trimmed in white, and there was a black strip trimmed in white down the middle of the helmet.

1968-70

In 1968, the Falcons removed the Falcon crest logo from the sleeves and replaced it with red and white stripes. Also, a red-black-red stripe combination was added to the sleeves.

1971-1989

In 1971, the Falcons switched to red jerseys for the first time and wore them all the way up to the 1989 season. The only other significant change to this uniform was the addition of silver-gray pants in 1978. Also in 1984, the Falcons switched to a black face mask. The home jersey was red with white numbers and black trim with white-black-white sleeve stripes. The away jersey was white with red numbers and black trim with red and black stripes on the sleeves. In 1979 the Falcon crest logo was added to the sleeves.

1990-2002

In 1990, the Falcons once again wore black jerseys as they did in their inaugural years. The 1990 season marked Atlanta's 25th anniversary season in the NFL, and the team wore a commemorative patch on their left shoulder. In addition, the Falcons switched to a black helmet with a black face mask and a white Falcon crest logo. From 1990-2002, the home jersey was black with white numbers trimmed in red with a black Falcon crest logo trimmed in red on the sleeves. The away jersey was white with red numbers trimmed in black with a black Falcon crest logo trimmed in red on the sleeves. The pants were Falcon silver with a black stripe down the middle trimmed in white and red.

2003 – PRESENT

The year 2003 continued to bring about many new changes for the Atlanta Falcons. Perhaps the biggest changes came with the introduction of the team's new logo and uniforms unveiled over the course of a two-month period.

On March 19, 2003, before a large gathering of media and the entire Falcons organization, the Falcons presented their new log

2003-PRESENT

"The new Atlanta Falcons logo is fresh, strong and dynamic, and yet appreciates the tradition and history of this franchise," said Falcons Owner & CEO Arthur Blank. "The new logo depicts a more powerful, aggressive Falcon - one of fast movement. It is also representative of the evolution and direction of our team."

The logo was designed in conjunction with NFL Properties after a lengthy research process, which included conducting focus groups and polls with many fans. In addition, Falcons players, coaches and staff had the opportunity to give their thoughts.

The home uniforms consisted of black jerseys and white pants, while the road attire featured white jerseys and white pants. The team also introduced modified versions of the uniforms, which included wearing black jerseys with black pants at home and white jerseys with black pants on the road.

The jerseys and pants included red piping down the side, which expand at the knee for a fast, streamlined look. They also have "Falcons" stitched at the neckline in a newly developed font and include a number font that was designed specifically for the Falcons, consisting of a drop shadow for more depth. The black jerseys contained white numbers with red trim, while the white jerseys contained red numbers with black trim. The new Falcons logo appeared on the sleeve of both jerseys on a red background. The helmet remained black, however it also featured a metallic flack compared to the previous flat black-colored helmet.

In 2004, the Falcons announced they would wear red jerseys at home and use the black jerseys as their alternate third jersey. Declared the team's alternate third jersey in 2003, red jerseys were worn twice in 2003, against the Tennessee Titans on November 23 and again in the Falcons nationally-televised 20–14 overtime win against the Carolina Panthers on December 7.

The Falcons unveiled throwback uniforms in a Week 2 meeting against the Carolina Panthers to honor the inaugural 1966 team as part of "Alumni Weekend." Atlanta again donned the retro uniforms in a Week 12 meeting against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at the Georgia Dome. Atlanta won both games with the throwback uniforms.

2009-PRESENT THROWBACK UNIFORMS

GEORGIA DOME

GEORGIA DOME (1992–PRESENT)
FALCONS HOME RECORD (74-54-0)

In 1992, the Atlanta Falcons and the state of Georgia unveiled to the rest of the world the latest crown jewel in an ever-shining southern skyline with the opening of the Georgia Dome.

The Georgia Dome is the culmination of efforts which began in earnest in June of 1984 as business, civic and governmental leaders gathered to discuss a new stadium in Atlanta. The project continued to gain steam in January of 1988 as a "consensus" of leaders agreed on using a hotel/motel tax increase to finance the local portion of construction.

In January of 1989, Rankin Smith and then-governor Joe Frank Harris signed a "memorandum of understanding" for the Falcons to play in the Dome under a 20-year lease.

The project came to fruition in the spring of 1989 when the state, the Atlanta City Council, and Fulton County Commission approved the construction of the $210 million Dome. Groundbreaking ceremonies took place on November 22, 1989, with construction getting underway on March 27, 1990.

As soon as the project was passed, the Dome became a major 'player' in the sporting community.Rankin Smith was determined to introduce the south's latest showpiece to the football world and he succeeded. With the determined backing of the Smith family, the Georgia Dome played host to the most significant sporting events in the world as global attention was focused on Atlanta for Super Bowl XXVIII played on January 31, 1994 between the Dallas Cowboys and the Buffalo Bills. The Georgia Dome hosted its second Super Bowl on January 30, 2000 between the St. Louis Rams and the Tennessee Titans.

ATLANTA-FULTON COUNTY STADIUM

(1966-91) FALCONS RECORD (85-106-2)

Twenty-six years of NFL football in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium came to an end on December 15, 1991 when the Falcons met the Seattle Seahawks for their final game in their very first home.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was built in 51 weeks and gave the city the foundation to support big-league baseball and pro football. Less than a year after construction, the stadium was primped for a cameo appearance by the baseball Braves, who were still playing in Milwaukee at the time, on April 9, 1965. On August 14 of that same year, the Minnesota Vikings defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in the first football game ever played at the stadium. Some local people deemed the Stadium "The Miracle on Capital Avenue."

RING OF HONOR

The Atlanta Falcons organization doesn't officially retire jersey numbers, but considers certain player's jerseys worthy of being honored. Currently, the Falcons do not use any of the jersey numbers honored below. The Falcons Ring of Honor which is featured in the rafters of the Georgia Dome honors individual players and not jerseys.

TOMMY NOBIS (1966-76) — 60

The first-ever player drafted by the Atlanta Falcons for the inaugural 1966 season, Nobis quickly became the first-ever Falcons player to be voted to the Pro Bowl after being selected as a rookie. The stellar middle linebacker was named the NFL Rookie of the Year for his efforts. "Mr. Falcon" led the team in tackles in nine of his 11 seasons, while earning five trips to the Pro Bowl. In a poll conducted in 1970 by ABC to pick the best athlete of the decade of the 1960s, running back O.J. Simpson was number one and Tommy Nobis was number two in the entire country. He had an astronomical 294 total combined tackles as a rookie, still the team's club record. Nobis also intercepted 11 passes during his pro career, returning two for touchdowns. His uniform #60 has been worn by only him during the team's existence. He retired in 1976.

JEFF VAN NOTE (1969-86) — 57

Holds Falcons team marks for most seasons played (18) and most consecutive games played (155). He is second in the team record books with 246 games played and 225 games started. Van Note originally came to the Falcons as a linebacker from Kentucky, but was moved to center by head coach Norm Van Brocklin and eventually earned the starting job at center in 1970. He earned the first of his six Pro Bowl berths in 1974. Van Note is tied with Claude Humphrey for most Pro Bowl appearances by a Falcons player with six. He retired in 1986.

STEVE BARTKOWSKI (1975-85) — 10

The No. 1 overall draft pick in 1975, he was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year after throwing for 1,662 yards and 15 touchdowns. He set every team record in passing, which included 23,468 career yards and 154 touchdown passes in 123 games. He produced three seasons of 3,000 yards or more passing, 12 games of more than 300 yards passing and two seasons of 30 or more touchdown passes. Bartkowski collected over 50 victories as a starting quarterback for the Falcons and guided the team to their first playoff victory in franchise history over the Philadelphia Eagles in 1978.

WILLIAM ANDREWS (1979-86) — 31

A third-round pick, Andrews was among the NFL's elite runners when a shocking knee injury prematurely ended his career. He became just the second running back in NFL history to have two 2,000-yard (combined yards) seasons (the only other player prior to Williams was O.J. Simpson). When he had his first 2,000-yard year, he joined just four other backs who had done so (Jim Brown, Walter Payton, Wilbert Montgomery and Simpson). In his first five seasons in the NFL (1979-83), Andrews outgained every other back in the entire NFL. The bullish Andrews had 8,382 total yards in those five years (an average of 1,677 per year) to lead all NFL runners. Andrews set 19 Falcons club records that began in his very first NFL game in 1979 when he ran for 167 yards in a game at New Orleans where he totaled 189 yards. He was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1983 and made the NFL All-Rookie team in 1979. He retired in 1987.

JESSIE TUGGLE (1987-2000) — 58

Jessie came to the Falcons as an undrafted free agent in 1987 and retired in August of 2001 as one of the all-time greatest players in franchise history. Nicknamed, "The Hammer", for his bone-jarring tackles, Tuggle is the club's all-time leader in total tackles with 2,065 and enjoyed 12 straight 100-tackle seasons. He led the team in tackles in a season 10 times and amassed 20 or more tackles in a single-game on four occasions with a personal-best of 24 stops. His 14 seasons played, 189 career starts and 209 total games played are third-most ever in Falcons history. Tuggle's five Pro Bowl appearances (1992, 1995, 1995, 1997, 1998) stand tied for the third-most ever by a Falcons player. The Falcons honored #58 with "Jessie Tuggle Day" during halftime of the Falcons game vs. the Detroit Lions on December 22, 2002.

LB JESSIE TUGGLE WAS HONORED AT GEORGIA DOME

The Atlanta Falcons Ring of Honor pays tribute to retired players who made significant contributions to the organization during their playing careers. During the 2003 season, long-time Falcons season-ticket holders nominated a group of players they would like to see inducted into the Atlanta Falcons Ring of Honor. The nine players receiving the highest number of nominations were then placed on a ballot for Falcons fans to cast their votes. The inaugural winners were QB Steve Bartkowski, LB Tommy Nobis, LB Jessie Tuggle and RB William Andrews.

In 2006, a local media contingent nominated four players; DE Claude Humphrey, T Mike Kenn, RB Gerald Riggs and C Jeff Van Note, for induction into the Ring of Honor. Falcons fans then voted and elected C Jeff Van Note as the fifth member of this exclusive club. On October 1, 2006, Van Note was honored at the Georgia Dome with a special halftime eremony as his likeness was raised to rooftops with the original four members. In it's latest Ring of Honor vote in 2008, defensive end Claude Humphrey and offensive tackle Mike Kenn became the sixth and seventh members to be hoisted in the Georgia Dome rafters.

The Falcons selected Bartkowski (1975-85), as the No. 1 overall draft pick in 1975 out of California. He was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year after throwing for 1,662 yards and 15 touchdowns. Bartkowski overcame numerous knee injuries to set every club record in passing, which included 23,468 yards and 154 touchdown passes in his 123 Falcons games. He produced three seasons of 3,000 yards or more passing, 12 games of more than 300 yards passing, and two seasons of 30 or more touchdown passes.

Nobis (1966-76), was the first player ever drafted by the Falcons in 1966. Later that year, he became the first Falcons player to be voted to the Pro Bowl in a season that also included Rookie of the Year honors. Nobis would go on to lead the Falcons in tackles in 9 of 11 seasons, including a team record of 294 tackles in 1966. A five-time Pro bowl selection, Nobis also intercepted 11 passes during his pro career, returning two of them for touchdowns.

Nicknamed "The Hammer" for the vicious way in which he pounded ball carriers, Tuggle (1987-2000) would go on to become the Falcons' career leader in tackles with 2,065 during his illustrious 209-game career. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Tuggle finished his career third on the team's all time lists in most seasons played (14), most games played (209) and started (189), fourth in most consecutive games played (110) and seventh in most consecutive games started (89). Tuggle led the Falcons in tackles for nine straight seasons from 1988-97 and recorded more than 100 tackles for a team record 12 consecutive seasons.

VAN NOTE JOINED THE RING OF HONOR

A third round draft choice of the Falcons in 1979 out of Auburn, Andrews (1979-86) was among the NFL's elite runners when a shocking knee injury prematurely ended one of the NFL's great playing careers. Andrews set 19 Falcons records that began in his very first NFL game in 1979 when he ran for 167 yards at New Orleans. In his first five seasons in the NFL (1979-83), he outgained every other back in the NFL. During that span, he helped lead the Falcons to the playoffs three times, including their first division title in 1980.

Van Note, a six-time Pro Bowler, played the most seasons (18) and most consecutive games (155) in Falcons history. His 246 career games played and 225 overall starts are second in team annuals. Van Note continues to be a presence in the Atlanta community upon his retirement in 1986 with a broadcasting career that includes the Falcons radio network.

Humphrey was a first round pick by the Falcons in the 1968 NFL Draft and completed his career as the all-time sack leader in franchise history with 94.5. Humphrey also ranks third in Atlanta annals with 15.6 sacks in a single season. He is tied for the franchise lead with six Pro Bowl selections including five straight from 1970-74.

Kenn was a mainstay on the Falcons offensive line aas the Michigan alum holds Falcons records in most games played and started (251) while ranking second in most seasons played with Atlanta (17). Kenn also posted a streak of 94 consecutive games played and earned Pro Bowl selections from 1980-84.

DEION SANDERS (1989-93) — 21 Cornerback Deion Sanders was the latest inductee into the team's prestigious Ring of Honor. Sanders was named the eighth member of this exclusive club by a vote of a local media selection committee.

"When I was dreaming as a kid, I couldn't oftentimes share those dreams because I thought they were so out of the box. Never would people think that a kid from Ft. Myers, Florida, who was small in stature, but big on confidence, would ever have his name recognized in a stadium in the only place he played in which he called home. I want to thank Falcons Owner Arthur Blank and the organization (ironically 21 years later from the year I was drafted) for making my dreams come true," Sanders said.

The induction and celebration of the newest member of the Falcons Ring of Honor will take place at halftime of the nationally-televised Thursday night game between the Falcons and Ravens at the Georgia Dome on November 11. Kick-off is set for 8:20 p.m. on NFL Network.

"Deion Sanders is widely regarded as one of the best cornerbacks in the 91-year history of the National Football League," Falcons Owner & CEO Arthur Blank said. "He epitomized excellence on the playing field and was a tremendously gifted athlete who possessed great speed. Deion excelled as a defender, kick returner, punt returner and on offense on his way to establishing 12 club records. He was an electrifying performer who put fans on the edge of their seats every time he manned his cornerback position or dropped back to receive a kickoff or field a punt. He is without question one of the greatest players in the history of our franchise."

Sanders was a three-time Pro Bowl starter during his Falcons career after being selected as the fifth overall player in the 1989 draft out of Florida State. Considered one of the best pure cornerbacks ever to lace up a pair of cleats, Sanders also doubled as a dangerous return man. He was recently tabbed the 34th best player in the history of the League by a new NFL Films-produced series, The Top 100: NFL's Greatest Players.

Sanders' Falcons career started in memorable fashion as he returned a punt 68 yards for a touchdown in his first NFL game as a rookie against the Los Angeles Rams at Fulton County Stadium. Sanders' All-Rookie season also included him leading all first-year defensive backs with five interceptions and becoming the first Falcons player to ever appear on the cover of Sports Illustrated (on November 13, 1989).
During his productive Falcons career from 1989-93, "Prime Time" established 12 club records for such marks as: most interceptions for touchdowns (2), longest punt return (79t yards), most punt return touchdowns (2), most KOR yards (3,063), most KOR touchdowns (3), longest kickoff return (100t), most combined return touchdowns (8), and most combined return yards (3,967), among others. The electrifying Sanders scored a total of 10 touchdowns in a Falcons uniform on five returns, three interceptions, and two receptions.

SANDERS JOINS THE ROH

"Deion Sanders was the pre-eminent cornerback of his era and perhaps of all-time," noted D. Orlando Ledbetter, sportswriter for the Atlanta Journal-Constitution and a member of the media committee that voted Sanders into the team's Ring of Honor. "No one could argue with his ability to play the game and what he meant to the Falcons."

"Deion was electricity in a football uniform," added Randy Waters, longtime sports reporter at WXIA-TV, who covered Sanders during his Falcons career and is also a member of the media committee. "He had a burning desire to win that helped the Falcons get back into the postseason, and his overall play throughout his career will ultimately help him through the front door in Canton (site of the Pro Football Hall of Fame)."
