COMMUNITY RELATIONS

BEYOND FOOTBALL: ATLANTA FALCONS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Atlanta Falcons create a winning team off the field by building a strong bond in the community. Each year the club typically logs more service hours and makes more community appearances than most other NFL teams. Through the Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation, the team contributes more than $1 Million annually to improve fitness and reduce youth obesity in the state of Georgia. Players, coaches, cheerleaders, associates and the Atlanta Falcons Women's Association all contribute to making a meaningful difference in the lives of others.

AFYF AFTER SCHOOL ALL-STARS

ATLANTA FALCONS YOUTH FOUNDATION

The Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation (AFYF) was established in 1985 to serve as the philanthropic arm of the Atlanta Falcons. Since Arthur Blank acquired the Atlanta Falcons in 2002, AFYF has grown to be the largest owner-funded foundation in the National Football League, providing more than $22 million in grants to nonprofit organizations across the state of Georgia.

AFYF is improving youth fitness across Georgia by investing in nonprofit organizations that are increasing the time kids spend in physical activity and increasing access to healthy, affordable food.

ARTHUR BLANK

OWNER & CHAIRMAN

Falcons Owner & Chairman Arthur Blank, widely known in the business community for building the world's largest home improvement retailer as co-founder of The Home Depot, employed the same business skills that made Home Depot a success during his 2015 offseason recalibration of the Falcons football team.

After releasing former Head Coach Mike Smith from the final year of his contract, Blank and key members of his executive team embarked upon a 36-day search for a new head coach. Blank emerged from that process on February 2 to publicly introduce former Seattle Seahawks Defensive Coordinator Dan Quinn as the Falcons' 16th head coach as the club enters its 50th season of football.

"This is an exciting day for the Atlanta Falcons franchise and our fans," Blank said at Quinn's introductory news conference. "Dan is a talented football coach who has a deep and diverse history in the game, which will serve us well. As we got to know Dan during the interview process, it became clear that he has a definitive plan for our football team and what it will take to win on a consistent basis.

"He also has a proven ability to develop players by maximizing their individual strengths. For these and many other reasons, Dan was our top pick, and I'm confident our players, staff, fans and community will be proud to have him represent the Falcons."

Quinn, 44, was the architect of Seattle's top-ranked defense which helped propel the Seahawks to back-to-back Super Bowl appearances including a 43-8 rout of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XLVIII. He rolled into Atlanta armed with three key components all coaches in professional football must have – confidence, commitment and a plan for success.

The affable and charismatic Quinn, a disciple of Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll, quickly went to work in Atlanta to retool every facet of his Falcons team.

"I'm about finding all of the unique stuff our players have, and it's our job as a coaching staff to find ways to feature each player," Quinn said. I am not interested in what a guy can't do; I am interested in what he can do, and that's going to be our approach as we move our program forward."

Quinn, Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff and their staffs spent the offseason together evaluating and planning the roster for the 2015 season.

"I can't tell you how pleased I am with how well Thomas and Dan and their respective staffs worked together this offseason in evaluating our roster and adding players via free agency and the draft," Blank said at the club's state of the franchise event in June. "There was a real spirit of collaboration among both groups, and I thought the outstanding results of our 2015 draft class clearly reflected that."

In just four months, Quinn, dubbed by several of his players as "the coolest coach in the NFL" has created an intensely competitive environment in Flowery Branch where energy, enthusiasm and competition are now hallmarks of Falcons football.

"We've got three rules here for everyone associated with our football team," Quinn said. "First and foremost, we are always going to protect the team and you do that by being a good teammate. Second, we will offer no excuses and no explanations. And third, we will all be on time. Those are our rules and we all will follow them."

One of Quinn's immediate tasks is rebuilding a Falcons defensive unit that finished at or near the bottom in most NFL defensive statistical categories last season. He brings to Atlanta a proven 4-3 under front seven scheme aided by a three-deep secondary and a movable chess piece in the strong safety. Quinn's defenses in Seattle were aggressive and attacking units that emphasized stopping the run and affecting the quarterback. The Seahawks were one of the NFL's best at forcing turnovers and giving the football back to their offense.

"The roster is different here in Atlanta, but the emphasis will remain the same," Quinn said. "When our fans watch us play, I want them to walk away saying that we are a fast team, we are a physical team, and we are a team that understands how to finish games."

Prior to the 2013 and 2014 NFL seasons, the Falcons had been a team that definitely knew how to successfully close out and win tight games. From 2008-12 and before a rash of bad breaks and injuries led to a cumulative 10-22 record in 2013 and 2014, Atlanta was one of the NFL's elite teams at closing out opponents when holding the lead over three quarters.

Atlanta's impressive six year run from 2008-2012 included two number one seeds in the NFC playoffs (2010, 2012), a team-record three consecutive playoffs berths (2010-12), four double-digit winning seasons (2008, 2010-12), two 13-wins seasons (2010, 2012), two NFC South Division championships (2010, 2012), and 20 players named to the NFC Pro Bowl team.

"This is a tough and competitive league," Blank said. "No one connected with our organization was happy about how things transpired for our team last season. We didn't perform very well for a variety of reasons, including injuries player assessment miscalculations, and we needed to make some significant changes.

"We've been one of the top teams in the league," Blank added. "We've been a big part of playoff discussions that are reserved for the NFL's elite teams. We've got the internal infrastructure in place to quickly get back to where we belong. I will make no predictions, but I like the direction our team is headed in for the 2015 season."

IT TAKES A TEAM

Since Blank acquired the Falcons in 2002, the team has made the playoffs six times in 13 seasons. Under Blank's leadership, the Falcons front office has also seen unprecedented success. Three years before he purchased the Falcons, the club averaged about 37,000 season ticket holders per year. Since 2002, the Falcons have never sold fewer than 50,000 season tickets in any year. Additionally, during the same period of time, the club has sold out 102 of 104 regular season games and is currently riding a streak of seven consecutive sellout seasons.

"I have been blessed here with a great team of people," Blank said. "I have always believed in bringing the best people together, creating the right environment, giving them the resources they need, being a cheerleader for them and making sure the culture is set in place before getting out of the way and allowing them to do what they need to do."

Blank is also a key contributor to many of the NFL's major committees. He currently chairs the NFL Audit Committee and Compensation Committee, and he is a member of the league's Finance, Legislative, and Workplace Diversity committees.

ARTHUR BLANK

The increasing relevance of the Falcons has provided numerous opportunities for the franchise and city of Atlanta to be showcased on nationally-televised games. With two prime time games on national television this season, Atlanta will have participated in 17 prime time regular season games over the past five years.

"Our exposure through prime time games over the years speaks directly to the outstanding performances of our players and coaches," Blank said. "Make no mistake, however, that our larger goal remains to perform under the worldwide spotlight of the Super Bowl. There are 31 other teams out there that want the Lombardi Trophy just as much as we do, so we have to stay diligent to remain a relevant team."

NEW ATLANTA STADIUM

In May 2014, Blank and the Falcons broke ground on a new retractable roof stadium that will open in 2017. In addition to being a new home for the Falcons, the stadium will also be home to Atlanta United FC, a new Major League Soccer team that was awarded to Blank in April 2014 and will begin play in 2017. The facility will also host other premier sports and entertainment events throughout the year.

"Our goal is for the new building to become a destination site for sports and entertainment guests from all over the world," Blank stated. "We not only want the new stadium to become a landmark for the city of Atlanta and the state of Georgia, we want it to be a game changer when it comes to stadium design and the guest experience inside the building."

The new stadium provides an enhanced opportunity to attract new marquee events to the city of Atlanta, such as the FIFA World Cup, College Football National Championship Game and, of course, a Super Bowl.

"Atlanta has all of the attributes needed to successfully host a Super Bowl," Blank said. "The new stadium adds another premier element to a successful bid for a future game."

MAKING A DIFFERENCE/IMPROVING LIVES

Starting with The Home Depot and continuing with his current businesses – the Falcons, PGA TOUR Superstore, Mountain Sky Guest Ranch, The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation and Atlanta United – Blank's business and personal values underscore the importance of giving back and becoming part of the community.

During his 23 years with The Home Depot, the company donated more than $113 million to communities, and Home Depot associates provided hundreds of thousands of hours of personal volunteer time.

Since its inception in 1995, The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation has granted more than $300 million to charitable organizations, with approximately two-thirds of the total focused on metro Atlanta, including the Historic Westside neighborhoods of Vine City, English Avenue and Castleberry Hill.

In 2013, Blank publicly committed to making further significant investments in these communities by creating the Westside Neighborhood Prosperity Fund, which will invest in catalytic projects that ignite positive change and improve the quality of life in the neighborhoods surrounding the new Atlanta stadium. The foundation has pledged $15 million to contribute to large-scale transformational projects that result in lasting impact for community residents.

In 2014, Blank's foundation launched its first major project, Westside Works, a long-term neighborhood-based program focused on creating job training and employment opportunities for residents. Westside Works placed nearly 200 men and women in living wage jobs in construction, health care, culinary arts and auto technician sectors during its first 12 months of operation.

"We've been committed to the Westside neighborhoods for many years," Blank noted. "Building a new stadium is the relatively easy part of our overall project in that area; the larger challenge is in having a positive and meaningful impact on the surrounding communities in the process. My family, along with the Falcons, feels a sense of responsibility to be part of that positive change."

Community engagement is a priority for the Falcons, as well. The Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation invests in innovative approaches to increase time kids spend in physical activity, and to give more children access to healthy foods. Since 2002, the foundation has awarded more than $20 million in grants to nonprofit organizations serving children across Georgia. As a leader in the Georgia SHAPE initiative, the youth foundation is helping Georgia elementary schools reach more than 350,000 students through the Power Up for 30 program, which adds 30 minutes of physical activity during the school day. The foundation also has donated $730,000 worth of equipment to 131 groups in 46 counties across Georgia, expanding opportunities for 68,000 youth to be physically active.

In addition, Atlanta Falcons players, coaches, cheerleaders, associates and their spouses remain among the most active community citizens in the NFL, contributing an average of 3,000 hours of their collective time each season. Much of this time is spent participating in Atlanta Falcons community relations programs and initiatives that support a variety of issues and activities, including health and fitness, breast cancer awareness, combating hunger, the development of youth/prep football, Salute to Service and outreach in underserved communities.

"It's important to that everyone in our family of businesses understands our collective responsibility to contribute to the communities in which we all live and work," Blank stressed.

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

A native of Flushing, N.Y., Blank attended Stuyvesant High School in Manhattan, where he competed on the football, baseball and track teams. He received his bachelor of science degree in business administration with distinction from Babson College, where he was active in a variety of extracurricular activities. Blank co-founded The Home Depot in 1978 and retired from the company as co-chairman in 2001. At the time of his retirement, The Home Depot was a component of the Dow Jones Industrial Average and one of Fortune magazine's "Global Most Admired Companies." During Blank's last year as CEO of the company, The Home Depot ranked first in social responsibility in an annual survey conducted by Harris Interactive, Inc.

Blank is recognized throughout the country for his personal and professional achievements. In 2012, he received an honorary doctor of laws degree from the University of Georgia. In 2011, he was the recipient of the Freeing Voices, Changing Lives Award from the American Institute for Stuttering, and in 2010, he was recognized by the Council for Quality Growth for his philanthropic endeavors as well as his significant contributions to economic development and quality of life. In 2005, he was named National Entrepreneur of the Year by Ernst & Young. In 2003, for the second time in three years, Blank was named Georgia's Most Respected CEO by Georgia Trend magazine, and in 2002, he was inducted into Georgia State University's Business Hall of Fame.

Blank serves on the board of trustees of The Carter Center, Inc., and The Cooper Institute.

Blank has six children and four grandchildren. He is engaged to Angie Macuga, who has three children. A strong believer in work-life balance, Blank makes time daily for physical activity and spending time with family.

JOHN IMLAY

IN MEMORIAM

John Imlay passed away at the age of 78 in March. He had been a minority owner of the Falcons since 1991 and was universally loved by everyone at the club. Imlay was the Chairman of Imlay Investments, Inc., a private investment firm; Chairman, of The Imlay Foundation; and a member of Atlanta Rotary.

We will remember John as a highly successful entrepreneur and pioneer in the technology industry; a loving husband, father and grandfather; a true friend; and someone who was sure to make us laugh. His frequent presence in Flowery Branch brightened our days.

John made many contributions to the Falcons since 1991, and we were proud that he continued his relationship with the Falcons as a limited partner when Arthur acquired the club in 2002. John was instrumental in that transaction and remained one of our most ardent supporters.

Our hearts and prayers go out to his wife Mary Ellen and all the other family members and friends who had the opportunity to share life with John.

RICH MCKAY

PRESIDENT & CEO

Falcons President & CEO, Rich McKay, a notable fixture in the National Football League for the past 30 years as one of the League's most decorated executives, begins his 12th season with the Atlanta Falcons. The son of late legendary University of Southern California head football coach John McKay, Rich has held the title of NFL General Manager or team president for 22 consecutive seasons (Tampa Bay and Atlanta).

After serving the first eight years as President of the Falcons, McKay was promoted to President and CEO of the club by Owner and Chairman Arthur M. Blank on September 1, 2011.

McKay's long-term involvement in the NFL includes many notable achievements. He is the only executive to have led two successful stadium negotiations (Atlanta and Tampa Bay), he was General Manager and chief football architect for a Super Bowl championship team in Tampa Bay (XXXVII), he has served as an active participant within the NFL's committee system to help advance the game and the NFL's business and was substantially involved in the Collective Bargaining Agreement negotiations which led to the current multi-year agreement signed in 2011 with the NFL and the NFL Players Association.

The affable McKay is also the only General Manager in NFL history to have had his first two draft picks go on to be first ballot members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Warren Sapp and Derrick Brooks).

Additionally, McKay has been a member of the NFL's Competition Committee for the past 22 years. He was named Co-Chairman of the Committee in 1998 and on March 1, 2011, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell named McKay Chairman of the committee which is comprised of NFL head coaches and League executives who study the game and recommend rules changes and modifications to ensure player safety while promoting competitiveness among all 32 of the League's franchises.

McKay's contributions to the overall on-field and business success of two NFL franchises can be summed up by the fact that no NFL executive in League history has ever drafted two members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame with his first two selections as an NFL GM. As the GM of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995, McKay's first round selections of Warren Sapp (12th overall) and Derrick Brooks (28th overall) in the 1995 NFL Draft, respectively, set the Buccaneers on a championship course that culminated in sun-splashed San Diego during the 2002 season when the Bucs defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 in Super Bowl XXXVII.

McKay's career success also includes notable accomplishments in the executive suite, as well. According to several League insiders, McKay is believed to be the only executive in League history who has been the political and business point man on the successful negotiation and construction of two NFL stadiums – Raymond James Stadium – Tampa Bay's state-of-the-art, open-air stadium which hosted Super Bowl XXXV in 2001 and Super Bowl XLII in 2009 and the Falcons new state-of-the-art stadium currently under construction next to the Georgia Dome in downtown Atlanta.

McKay, working closely with Blank, the city of Atlanta, the state of Georgia, and the Georgia World Congress Center Authority, secured approval and financing for the Falcons new stadium project after nearly two years of intense negotiations. The new stadium project is a true example of a successful "public private" partnership.

The club broke ground on the new stadium May 19, 2014 with NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, Major League Soccer Commissioner Don Garber, and Atlanta Mayor Kassim Reed all in attendance for the historic announcement which will keep the Falcons playing their games in downtown Atlanta. The Falcons will begin playing in their sparkling new building in time for the start of the 2017 NFL season.

"The interesting aspect about both of those projects is how dramatically different they both are from a negotiation and planning perspective," McKay said. "The fortunate thing in both instances is that we've worked and are working with people who want what's best for the city, the state, and the team. When you have that kind of partnership, you are usually able to resolve various differences and come up with workable solutions that benefit all parties."

Following the conclusion of the 2014 season, Blank released former Falcons head coach Mike Smith from the final year of his contract.

At Blank's request, McKay took the reins as point man for the 36-day coaching search that resulted in the hiring of former Seattle Seahawks defensive coordinator, Dan Quinn, as Atlanta's new head coach.

"We took our time and we spoke with a lot of people during a very thorough process," said McKay. "Dan's positive traits kept coming through; his organizational skills, his passion for the game, his positive energy, his keen ability to recognize and evaluate NFL personnel, and the way he connected with not only the players and coaches, but with everyone in the building. He was the top choice of everyone on our search committee, and we're excited about our future with Dan at the helm."

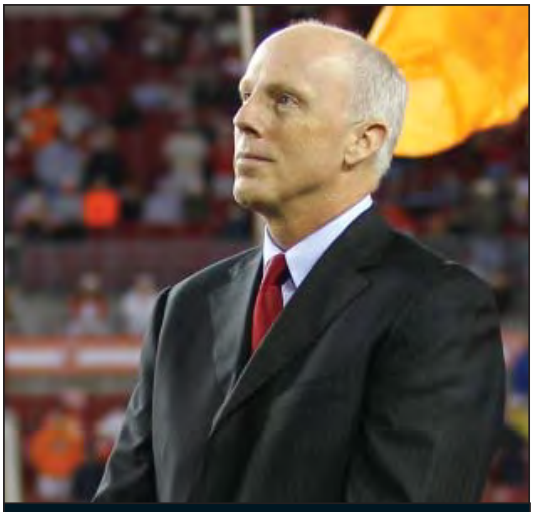

McKay's 24 seasons as an NFL executive have been marked by several other significant highlights:

- During 13 seasons as an NFL General Manager, McKay was the football architect who built six teams that reached the NFC playoffs, three that reached the NFC Championship Game and one team that won a Super Bowl title. His overall record as an NFL General Manager was 112-96 with a winning playoff record of 6-5.

- Sports Illustrated Senior Writer Peter King, author and creator of the widely read Monday Morning Quarterback (MMQB) national column recently constructed a list of the 100 most influential people in the NFL for the 2015 season and McKay came in at No. 10.

- As an NFL GM, McKay worked with three different NFL head coaches who have guided their respective teams to NFC Championship Games (Tony Dungy in 1999 with Tampa Bay; Jon Gruden in 2002 with Tampa Bay; and Jim Mora in 2004).

- In the spring of 2008, McKay assisted Blank in the hiring process that landed current Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff and former Head Coach Mike Smith. That impressive seven-year run included two number one seeds in the NFC playoffs (2010 & 2012), a team-record three consecutive playoffs berths (2010-12), four double-digit winning seasons (2008, 2010-12), two 13-wins seasons (2010 & 2012), two NFC South Division championships (2010 & 2012), hosting the 2012 NFC Championship Game, and 20 players who were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team.

RICH MCKAY

- McKay's personnel scouting acumen was a successful formula which produced 59 players that played in the Pro Bowl during his time as an NFL General Manager. Tampa Bay's 41 Pro Bowl selections between 1997 through 2002 were the most in the NFL. To put it into perspective, the Buccaneers only had 19 Pro Bowl selections in the first 21 years of their history leading up to 1997.

- As a GM, 11 of McKay's top former lieutenants have risen through the ranks to sit in the General Manager's chair at other NFL franchises. The men currently occupying those roles in the NFL include Ruston Webster (Tennessee Titans), Dennis Hickey (Miami Dolphins), Ray Farmer (Cleveland Browns), and Les Snead (St. Louis Rams).

- While many of the players McKay drafted developed into NFL stars on the field, several have been Pro Bowl performers from a charitable standpoint, as well. Atlanta Falcons Limited Partner Warrick Dunn, whom McKay drafted in 1997, was the recipient of the 2004 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year award. This award is presented annually to the NFL's most philanthropic player. Derrick Brooks was also a co-recipient of the award in 2000.

- Arguably one of the brightest moments of McKay's distinguished NFL career took place in sunny San Diego, California on January 26, 2003 when he completed the overhaul of the Buccaneers – long considered one of the worst franchises in professional sports. Tampa Bay's 48–21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII vaulted the Buccaneers from the basement of professional sports to the top of the NFL universe.

- McKay was the 2005 recipient of the Jack Horrigan Award. This award is presented annually by the Pro Football Writers of America to the club or League office executive who is the most helpful and cooperative with the local and national news media that report on the NFL.

The McKay family is arguably one of the most successful football families with substantial roots in both the collegiate and professional game. Rich's late father, the legendary John McKay, led the University of Southern California Trojans to four National Championships in 16 seasons. Rich's older brother J.K. McKay, who is an executive in the USC athletic department, was a starting wide receiver for the Trojans and was part of two national championship teams (1972 & 1974) and played in three Rose Bowl games while playing for his father John McKay. Between the three McKay's, they have won six National Championships, participated as a player or coach in 12 Rose Bowls, participated as a coach, player or team executive in six NFL Conference Championship Games, won two National Collegiate Coach of the Year Awards, won one XFL Championship as a General Manager, won one Super Bowl Championship as a General Manager and had their first two draft picks selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Lee Roy Selmon – the first pick for John McKay as a NFL Head Coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1976 and Warren Sapp – the first pick for Rich McKay as an NFL General Manager in 1995).

Coach McKay's legacy was honored in 2013 with the opening of the $70 million, 110,000 square-foot new Athletic Center at USC named The John McKay Center. The center opened during the summer of 2012 and serves as the home of all USC athletics. Coach McKay had also previously been inducted into the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Ring of Honor as its second member in 2010.

Rich earned his Bachelor's degree in Economics in 1981 from Princeton University. He graduated from Stetson's College of Law in 1984 and clerked for two years for Tampa's U.S. District Judge William Terrell Hodges, and was inducted into the Stetson Law Hall of Fame this past fall.

RICH MCKAY

McKay worked at the Tampa law firm of Hill, Ward, and Henderson, P.A., from 1986-1992 where he served as General Counsel for the Buccaneers.

Born March 16, 1959 in Eugene, Oregon, McKay grew up in Los Angeles and Tampa, graduating from Tampa's Jesuit High School.

As an avid long distance runner, Rich has participated in and finished two New York City Marathons, an Atlanta Marathon, and the Los Angeles in Marathon in 2013.

McKay and his wife, Terrin, have two sons; Hunter, a 2012 graduate of Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama who is now employed in the Sports Information Office at Kennesaw State University in Kennesaw, Ga., and John, a recent graduate of the University of Southern California who will begin working at NFL headquarters in New York City later this fall.

THOMAS DIMITROFF

GENERAL MANAGER

Since his arrival in Atlanta on January 13, 2008, Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff has been committed to bringing a sustainable winning team to the city of Atlanta. During his first six seasons, the architect of the Falcons roster witnessed the team win 60 games, post five consecutive winning seasons between 2008 and 2012 and earned three consecutive playoff berths for the first time in franchise history from 2010 to 2012. But following the 2014 season, Dimitroff was tasked with assisting Owner & Chairman Arthur Blank with finding a new head coach.

Follwing a lengthy search, Blank decided on former Seattle Seahawks Defensive Coordinator Dan Quinn. So the Super Bowl pedigree that Dimitroff learned from New England will now be teamed with Quinn and his consecutive Super Bowl appearances in Seattle (2013 & 2014), including a win in Super Bowl XLVIII against the Denver Broncos. It was very clear to Quinn early on how he envisioned his relationship with Dimitroff.

"When I had a chance to talk to some other clubs as I went through it, this one was the best fit for me. Starting with Mr. Blank and then with Thomas. He was the guy that I connected with right away, that I knew I wanted to partner with. I saw that relationship work strongly in Seattle with Pete (Carrol) and John (Schneider). That's what I was looking for, somebody to partner up with to do it together. When I had a chance to connect with Thomas, we had a lot of mutual friends, guys that I respect in the business, but it was that partnership made this one so unique for me."

Dimitroff has been named Executive of the Year by Sporting News two times (2008 & 2010) during his seven seasons in Atlanta. In the draft, he has selected franchise cornerstones QB Matt Ryan, WR Julio Jones, T Jake Matthews, S William Moore, CB Desmond Trufant and OLB Vic Beasley, in addition to adding key veterans via free agency like G Jon Asamoah, DT Paul Soliai, WR Devin Hester and DE Tyson Jackson, LB Justin Durant and OLB Brooks Reed to shore up key positions. In 2008 and 2009, his acquisitions of RB Michael Turner and TE Tony Gonzalez sparked the Falcons most successful five-year run in Falcons history.

Last season, Atlanta finished 6-10 and was eliminated from the playoffs after a Week 17 loss to the Carolina Panthers. The disappointing season not only led to a change at head coach, but it meant revamping the roster to fit Coach Quinn's schemes both offensively and defensively. Dimitroff and his personnel department made 21 moves prior to the draft as they re-calibrated the roster. Atlanta re-signed nine of their own players including; K Matt Bryant, RB Antone Smith, WR Eric Weems, FB Patrick DiMarco and S Charles Godfrey.

When the free agency period began, Atlanta focused on adding speed to both sides of the ball. Dimitroff and the Falcons signed 12 players in free agency including; LB Justin Durant, G Mike Person, OLB Brooks Reed, WR Leonard Hankerson, CB Phillip Adams, DE O'Brien Schofield and DE Adrian Clayborn.

With the focus turned to the Draft, Dimitroff and Quinn honed in on the defensive side of the ball and addressing the team's pass rush. With the eighth overall pick, Atlanta selected Adairsville, GA native and Clemson DE/OLB Vic Beasley. Beasley amassed 101 tackles, 52.5 tackles for loss, 33 sacks, 29 quarterback pressures, 11 passes defensed, seven forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and scored two touchdowns in 48 career games as a Tiger. Dimitroff and Quinn went defense again in the second round when they added LSU cornerback Jalen Collins before addressing a couple of offensive needs in the third (RB Tevin Coleman, Indiana) and fourth (WR Justin Hardy, ECU) rounds. The Falcons went back to Clemson University for their fifth round selection and added Conyers, GA native DT Grady Jarrett. Atlanta finished out the 2015 Draft with two seventh round picks (T Jake Rodgers, Eastern Washington and CB Akeem King, San Jose State).

With the roster re-tooled for the 2015 season and the hiring of Quinn, Dimitroff has taken the initial steps to bring the Falcons back into the relevant conversation and has painted a very clear picture for the future of this team.

The 2013 season proved to be the most challenging for Dimitroff and the Falcons. The team faced a number of injuries to key players and finished the year with a 4-12 record. There were changes to the coaching staff, but Dimitroff was focused on adjustments to his personnel department and the roster. He added two former general managers to his staff, Billy Devaney and Scott Pioli. Shortly after adding experienced talent evaluators to his staff, Dimitroff's focus turned to improving the roster.

He was very open about his evaluation of the offensive and defensive lines performance in 2013 and he knew there needed to be upgrades to both sides.

Dimitroff was true to his word as he re-worked the Falcons roster in the offseason. On the first day of free agency, the Falcons added G Jon Asamoah, NT Paul Soliai, and DE Tyson Jackson. The three men joined the previously signed OL Gabe Carimi to add grittiness and stoutness to both the offensive and defensive lines. Atlanta also re-signed five players that play along either the offensive or defensive lines. Dimitroff orchestrated 13 moves in free agency and nine of them were along the lines. Atlanta also signed the most prolific returner in NFL history when they added WR Devin Hester.

Once the dust settled after free agency, Dimitroff and his staff dialed into their draft preparation. He continued to stay true to the plan and selected Texas A&M tackle Jack Matthews with the sixth pick overall. At the top of the second round, Atlanta selected DE Ra'Shede Hageman from Minnesota to continue to bolster the defensive line. After making 11 total moves in the offseason to address the lines, Dimitroff's focus in the draft switched to other positions and needs. Atlanta also added CB Dezmen Southward, RB Devonta Freeman, OLB Prince Shembo, CB Ricardo Allen, LB Marquis Spruill, LB Yawin Smallwood and OLB Tyler Starr.

Dimitroff's calculated, yet aggressive tactics on draft day came into play once again during the 2013 Draft. Since arriving in Atlanta, the Falcons have made at least one trade during the draft and that approach continued in 2013. Atlanta held the 30th pick in the first round, but they knew the player they coveted would not make it past the 23rd selection. Dimitroff called one of his former lieutenants and now General Manager of the St. Louis Rams, Les Snead, who held the 22nd pick. The trade allowed the Falcons to acquire CB Desmond Trufant from the University of Washington. Trufant was the player Atlanta had their sights set on the entire time, but Dimitroff knew they would have to be aggressive to make sure they obtained their target.

Dimitroff's drive to excel and Coach Smith's guidance on the field propelled the Falcons to an NFC-best 13-3 record in 2012. Prior to the 2012 Draft, Dimitroff made another aggressive move to help fill a need on the roster. The Falcons did not have a first round selection, but Dimitroff did not let that deter him from adding an impact player to the fold. As the Draft approached, he reached out the Philadelphia Eagles to see if there was any way he could re-unite with former New England Patriots CB Asante Samuel. The move was made to acquire the four-time Pro Bowl corner and two-time Super Bowl Champion on April 25, 2011 when the Falcons sent a seventh round selection to the Eagles for Samuel. The move paid dividends immediately as Samuel started 15 games and tallied 39 tackles, a team-high 19 passes defensed and five interceptions in his first season with the Falcons.

Samuel was not the only Dimitroff acquisition that led the Birds to the NFC Championship Game for the first time since 2004. Atlanta had three players voted to the Pro Bowl and all three were acquired by Dimitroff. His first ever draft pick, QB Matt Ryan, future Hall of Fame tight end Tony Gonzalez, and 2011 first round draft pick Julio Jones all made the Pro Bowl and played key roles in the Falcons securing their first playoff victory in the Dimitroff and Smith regime.

Ryan, the third overall selection in the 2008 Draft, flourished under the guidance of Offensive Coordinator Dirk Koetter in their first season together. Ryan set career and franchise single-season highs in passing yards (4,719), attempts (615), completions (422), touchdown passes (32) and completion percentage (68.6) while starting all 16 games. He also helped guide the Falcons offense to the seventh ranked passing attack (292.0 ypg) in the NFL and the sixth ranked scoring offense (26.2 ppg) in the League. Ryan earned his second Pro Bowl appearance in 2012 while leading Atlanta to the NFC Championship Game for the first time since 2004.

Despite suffering a first round playoff loss to the New York Giants in 2011, Atlanta's 2011 regular season was filled with memorable moments and significant accomplishments. Ryan produced a solid season by setting at that time the franchise- record for passing yards (4,177) in addition to throwing 29 touchdowns and finishing the season with a 92.2 passer rating. Ryan's record-setting performance was joined by RB Michael Turner and WR Roddy White who entered the pages of Falcons history. Turner broke RB Gerald Riggs' franchise record of 48 rushing touchdowns with two scores against Tampa Bay in Week 17, giving him 50 as a Falcon. "The Burner" also led the NFC in rushing yards with 1,340 yards and added 11 touchdowns on the season.

In each season since ascending to the General Managers position in Atlanta, Dimitroff has astutely engineered key moves and deftly drafted a solid nucleus of players to bolster the Falcons roster.

Dimitroff did not rest on his laurels during the 2011 Draft. His philosophy of addressing the needs of the team and being aggressive if the organization believes it is the right move was put on display once again. Atlanta held the 27th overall pick entering the draft. While most thought Dimitroff would stay put and take the best player available at 27, he had a different thought. Dimitroff reached out to the Cleveland Browns, who held the number six pick, in hopes of landing an impactful player to help the team. With Dimitroff's keen sense for the draft and talent evaluation, the Falcons manufactured a trade with the Browns and selected University of Alabama wide receiver Julio Jones with the sixth pick.

In 2010, Atlanta's 13-3 mark was spearheaded by Ryan. He set then career highs in passing attempts (571), touchdowns (28), yards (3,705), completion percentage (62.5), quarterback rating (91.0) and set a franchise record for completions (357). His performance earned him his first Pro Bowl appearance and was joined by eight of his teammates. Ryan enjoyed the company of defensive end John Abraham, tackle Tyson Clabo, tight end Tony Gonzalez, cornerback Brent Grimes, fullback Ovie Mughelli, running back Michael Turner, specialist Eric Weems and wide receiver Roddy White in Hawaii. The Falcons roster, which Dimitroff and his staff devote countless hours into also produced four players who earned All-Pro honors in 2010. Abraham and White were each All-Pro first team selections, while Mughelli and Turner garnered second team recognition.

Dimitroff's forward thinking and aggressive but calculated nature has allowed the Falcons to be players in the free agency market each year, and the 2010 offseason was no different. He knew he wanted to upgrade the defense and Dimitroff and his staff wasted little time in doing so.

With an eye towards improving a young Falcons secondary, Dimitroff targeted and signed talented five-year veteran cornerback Dunta Robinson from the Houston Texans two days after free agency opened. An Athens, Georgia native, Robinson brought a veteran presence and a stalwart reputation back home with him. His impact was felt throughout the defense as DE John Abraham collected 13 sacks and the corner opposite of Robinson, Brent Grimes, posted a franchise-high 23 passes defensed and tied for the team lead in interceptions with five.

The Robinson signing allowed Dimitroff important flexibility when entering his third draft. Dimitroff enjoyed another successful needs-based draft in 2010, selecting speedy, playmaking outside linebacker Sean Weatherspoon from Missouri with the 19th overall pick in the first round. Additional picks included defensive tackle Corey Peters (Kentucky) and offensive lineman Michael Johnson (Alabama), as well as offensive lineman Joe Hawley (4th round, UNLV), cornerback Dominique Franks (5th round, Oklahoma), wide receiver Kerry Meier (5th round, Kansas), and safety Shann Schillinger (6th round, Montana).

Every move Dimitroff makes is well-thought out and calculated and forward-thinking with one goal in mind. Assembling the best football team he can is paramount in his daily thought process and he's aggressively determined to get the Falcons to the next level.

That inherent, tireless drive is one of the main reasons why Dimitroff has been so successful throughout his 20-plus years in the NFL. A product of the championship producing ways in New England, Dimitroff is all about building a winner who is able to compete at the highest level each and every season. He has an acute ability to not only focus on the team's needs of the present, but to plan for a sustainable future for the franchise.

The 2009 Atlanta Falcons capped off their first back-to-back winning seasons in the history of the franchise with a 20-10 victory at Tampa Bay in the season finale. For long-time Falcons fans, this was quite a monumental feat. But for Dimitroff and his staff, this was just another block in the foundation for this Falcons team.

Before the 2009 season kicked off, Dimitroff went looking for another target for Ryan and the Falcons offense to improve their efficiency when he traded for future Hall of Fame tight end Tony Gonzalez of the Kansas City Chiefs on the eve of the 2009 draft. Gonzalez delivered in a big way with 83 receptions, second-best on team, and six touchdowns, including the game-winner at the New York Jets on a fourth down with 1:38 remaining. Gonzalez was also a positive and winning presence in the Falcons locker room. He possesses the type of leadership qualities Dimitroff looks to add to the roster each season.

Part of Dimitroff's master plan also includes adding other veterans when needed to shore up his units. For example in 2009, he signed savvy veteran players like linebacker Mike Peterson and cornerback Brian Williams. Peterson finished second on the team with 140 tackles, starting all 16 games, while Williams supplied a punch to the secondary for the first five starts to the season before being lost with a knee injury.

When he feels he needs to make a move to bolster the roster or retain core players, the decisive Dimitroff doesn't stand idle for very long. He extended the contract of veteran wide receiver Roddy White prior to the start of the 2009 regular season. White responded with another stellar campaign that landed him in his second straight Pro Bowl with a team leading 85 catches for 1,153 yards and a career-best 11 touchdowns.

In 2008, Dimitroff's first move was signing talented free agent running back Michael Turner from San Diego. Turner fittingly exploded onto the scene as a full-time starter for the first time in his career, finishing with 1,699 rushing yards with a club record 17 touchdowns on his way to his first Pro Bowl, while finishing second in MVP voting.

Dimitroff's initial '08 draft was a windfall, delivering franchise quarterback Matt Ryan, the consensus NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, starting left tackle Sam Baker, starting middle linebacker and All-NFL rookie selection, Curtis Lofton, and eventual starting free safety Thomas DeCoud. His adept choices also included solid contributors in wide receiver Harry Douglas and defensive end Kroy Biermann.

Dimitroff's belief that the NFL draft is a major building block to establish a team's foundation for years to come has been the impetus for the Falcons' winning ways since 2008.

Dimitroff is responsible for all aspects of football operations with the Falcons and working with Head Coach Dan Quinn when constructing the roster. He has final authority over all the signing of free agents, the selection of players in the draft, and trades. He will also handle coordinating other football-related activities with Coach Quinn.

Dimitroff earned his climb up the NFL mountain to General Manager by working his way through the scouting ranks as a combine/BLESTO Scout, an Area Scout, National Scout, and College Director of Scouting.

His father was a big influence on his life. Tom Dimitroff was a high school, college, and pro coach turned NFL scout (and a former NFL quarterback for the old Boston Patriots). Other key influences that have also helped shape Dimitroff's philosophy today and aided in his rise to his current post include Falcons Assistant General Manager Scott Pioli and New England Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick.

The younger Dimitroff took a genuine desire for scouting players to the ultimate level early in his life. He became the Canadian Scouting Coordinator for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL in 1990 as his first taste into the world of scouting. In 1992, he moved on to the World League of American Football, where he scouted all NFL, CFL and World League rosters while tracking player transactions for the NFL's developmental league.

Dimitroff's career aspirations brought him to the NFL and the Detroit Lions where he became a College Scout in 1994. It was in his years as Scout for the Lions that he was introduced to Atlanta for the first time (living in the Virginia Highlands area) while evaluating the Southeastern part of the country. From there, Dimitroff made his way back to Cleveland in 1998 as a College Scout for the Browns for four years before landing in New England in 2002.

During his five years as the Director of College Scouting in New England (2003-07), he was responsible for overseeing area scouts who evaluated all of the nation's college prospects while scouting and tracking the development and availability of drafted players. The Patriots had a 77–17 overall record in Dimitroff's tenure and they won back to back Super Bowls in 2003 (XXXVIII) and 2004 (XXXIX), while making a historic march on a perfect 2007 regular season.

Dimitroff captained his college team as a defensive back at the University of Guelph (Canada) from 1987–1989. He was born in Barberton, Ohio, in 1966. Thomas and his wife, Angeline, have one son, Mason and one daughter, Aja Neve, and live in Atlanta.

SCOTT PIOLI

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Scott Pioli has spent 23 years in the NFL. He has been named NFL Executive of the Year by various national media outlets five times during his career, including honors from Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, CBS Sports, and Pro Football Weekly/PFWA in 2010. In nine-years with the New England Patriots, Pioli and Head Coach Bill Belichick compiled an NFL-best 102-42 (.708) regular season record, won Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, claimed four AFC championships, and won six AFC East titles.

In addition to his front office experience, Pioli spent the 2013 season as an analyst on NBC's Football Night in America where he offered fans behind the scenes insight into the NFL. Pioli also serves as a member of the NFL's Bill Walsh Minority Fellowship Advisory Council, helping to make the NFL a more diverse and inclusive league.

Pioli was the architect of one of the greatest turnarounds in Kansas City Chiefs history as the club won the AFC West with a 10-6 record in his second season at the helm. It was Kansas City's first division title and home playoff appearance since 2003. In four seasons with the Chiefs, Pioli drafted Pro Bowl players such as Eric Berry (3), Justin Houston (2), Dontari Poe, and Dexter McCluster. In addition to the Pro Bowlers he selected in the NFL Draft, four players Pioli signed to contract extensions went on to earn Pro Bowl honors. Matt Cassel (2010), Jamaal Charles (2010), Tamba Hali (2011), and Derrick Johnson (2011) all earned their first career Pro Bowl selections after Pioli signed them to extensions.

Pioli joined the Chiefs after serving as the Vice President of Player Personnel with the New England Patriots. With New England, the Patriots became widely recognized as one of the NFL's model franchises. Working in close concert with Head Coach Bill Belichick, the duo rapidly developed the Patriots into a consistent championship contender. Pioli and Belichick' s collaborative efforts over nine seasons in New England resulted in 14 playoff victories, tying the Pittsburgh and Dallas squads of the 1970s for the most playoff wins by a franchise in a single decade. New England accumulated 11 playoff victories from 2003-07, the highest total by any team over a five-year span in NFL history.

Pioli was named the George Young NFL Executive of the Year by Sporting News following the 2003 and 2004 seasons, an award voted on by other NFL executives. The youngest individual ever to win that accolade, Pioli joined Bobby Beathard (Washington '82-83) and Bill Polian (Carolina '95-96) as just the third person to ever win that honor in consecutive seasons. During the 2000's, Sports Illustrated named Pioli the number one GM/Pro Sports Executive, Sporting News named him the NFL Executive of the Decade, and ESPN named him the NFL Personnel Man of the Decade.

Pioli and Belichick became the first personnel director/head coach tandem in league annals to win three Super Bowls during a four-year span (2001-04). They also helped the Patriots register nine or more victories in eight consecutive seasons, including the NFL's first 16-0 regular season in 2007.

Pioli began his NFL career when he was hired by Belichick as a Scouting Assistant for the Cleveland Browns in 1992. He spent the next three seasons working as the Browns Pro Personnel Assistant. He was promoted to Pro Personnel Coordinator when the team moved to Baltimore In 1996.

In just two seasons working with Head Coach Bill Parcells, the Jets completed a worst-to-first turnaround, rebounding from a 1-15 campaign in 1996 to a 12-4 record in 1998. Those 12 wins in 1998 were the most in franchise history and gave the Jets their first division title since 1968.

Pioli played defensive tackle at Central Connecticut State (1983-87), where he was a three-time All-New England selection and graduated with a degree in Communications. From 1988-89, he served as a Graduate Assistant at Syracuse University, where he also earned a master's degree from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications.

While he has made his living in the arena of professional sports, Pioli is passionate about the importance of education and the arts. He supports a number of non-profit organizations which focus on those two cornerstones. Pioli serves on the Board of Directors for College for Every Student (CFES), a nonprofit organization committed to raising the academic aspirations and performance of underserved youth. CFES works with more than 200 rural and urban schools and districts in 24 states to help kids prepare for, gain access to and succeed in college. In conjunction with this study, Smith developed the award winning "Rise Up" campaign which includes an inspiring television commercial featuring Hollywood star and "A-list" actor Samuel L. Jackson.

The campaign, which focuses on a team, an organization, a fan base, and a community rising up together to try win a championship, was unveiled in the spring of 2010 to impressive reviews and culminated with a television spot featuring Jackson's impassioned speech for Atlanta and the Falcons to "Rise Up" together. It became an instant hit for fans and Falcons players alike as the club posted a 7-1 record at the Georgia Dome.

Under Smith's direction, the Falcons capitalized on the team's success and Rise Up momentum to set an all-time franchise record for season ticket sales and sponsorship sales for the 2013 season. KEITH ARMSTRONG

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Keith Armstrong returns to the Falcons for an eighth season as the club's special teams coordinator. His units have been a staple of the Falcons success over the last five seasons. His teams have proven to be one of the most consistent units in the NFL over his six years in Atlanta and his coverage units have finished in the top 10 each seasons. Since 2008, Armstrong's punt return coverage group ranks third in total return yards (1,221) and second in punt return average against (7.4 yards per return). His kickoff coverage unit ranks in the top 10 since 2008 as well, allowing 22.3 yards per kickoff return on 312 attempts, while also posting the sixth most touchbacks during that time (187) and are tied for second in NFL in touchdowns against (two).

The Birds special teams have been guided by Armstrong since 2008 and Falcons kickers have reaped the benefits of his coaching. The Falcons kicking game has been at or near the top under Armstrong and rank seventh in the NFL in field goal percentage since 2008 (86.5 pct.) and have produced the eighth most points in the NFL (736) over that same period of time.

Last year, the Falcons added the NFL's all-time top returner WR Devin Hester. Under the guidance of Armstrong, Hester made an immediate impact on the Falcons return units, ranking among the League leaders in kickoff and punt return average. He set the NFL record for career return touchdowns with a 62-yard punt return TD against Tampa Bay in Week 3. He was named to his fourth Pro Bowl for his performance last season.

Last season, also saw the return of WR Eric Weems to Armstrong's unit. Weems played a key role on Atlanta's coverage units since returning to the Falcons in 2014. The Pro Bowl special teams ace notched a team record six special teams tackles (according to STATS LLC.) in Atlanta's Week 11 win over the Carolina Panthers. Since 1994, Weems is one of 11 players in the NFL to post six special teams tackles in a single game. According to STATS LLC.,

K Matt Bryant has been with the team since 2009, and has experienced his best success since teaming up with Armstrong. Since 2009, Bryant has connected on 148 of his 167 fi eld goal attempts. His 88.6 fi eld goal percentage ranks third in the NFL and fi rst among kickers with at least 150 attempts. In 2014, Bryant hit 29 of 32 fi eld goal attempts, including an NFL leading seven kicks of 50+ yards.

Under the tutelage of Armstrong, the Falcons special teams unit continued to thrive in 2013. Armstrong's groups were a consistent corps each and every week. Every season, Armstrong seems to find a new special teams maven and 2013 was no different. RB Antone Smith led the team in special teams tackles (11) and WR Drew Davis was close behind with seven. The duo helped the Birds allow 7.6 yards per punt return, which ranked among the NFL leaders.

Another player that made big strides in 2013 under the coaching of Armstrong was third-year punter Matt Bosher. He experienced a career and single-season franchise-best 41.1 net punting average Bosher has developed into one of the top punters in the NFL. His 41.1 net average in 2013 ranked sixth in the League. He has also handled the Falcons kickoff duties the last three years, and in 2013 Bosher proved to be a valuable weapon. Bosher's consistency led to touchbacks on 68.5 percent of his kickoffs, a mark that ranked third in the NFL last season.

In 2012, Atlanta's kicking game was propelled by Bryant and Bosher as the Falcons posted a 13-3 record and won their second NFC South Division crown since 2010. Bryant produced another solid season in 2012, by connecting on 33 of 38 field goals, all 44 PATs and tallied a career and franchise single-season high 143 points. Bryant not only set the franchise mark for points in a season, he also set a new franchise mark for most field goals made in a season (33). Bryant kicked three game-winning field goals in 2012, including a 49-yard field goal against the Seahawks in the Divisional Round of the playoffs. He has connected on six game-winning field goals since joining the Falcons.

Atlanta's kickoff and punt return teams continued to flourish under Armstrong. The Falcons ranked 10th in the NFL in average starting field position (29.0 yard-line) in part to Atlanta's return game. On the flipside, Armstrong's coverage troops managed to help the Falcons rank fifth in opponents average starting field position (25.5 yard -line) in 2012.

In 2011, Armstrong used two rookies to propel his coverage units in LB Akeem Dent and Bosher. Dent, a linebacker out of the University of Georgia, led the Falcons in special teams tackles (19) and Bosher finished the season with the highest single-season net punting average for a rookie in Falcons history (38.9 net yards per punt).

Armstrong's staple on special teams was Bryant.. Bryant finished 27 of 29 on field goal attempts and made all 45 PATs. For the second straight year, Bryant led the Falcons in scoring (126) and his 93.1 field goal pct. marked the third best single-season field goal percentage in team history.

His special team units were a big contributor to the Falcons winning the NFC South division title and posting the best record in the NFC with a 13-3 mark in 2010.

Armstrong's troops led the League in some key categories such as kickoff return average (28.5), opponents starting field position (22.2) on kickoffs, overall opponent field position (24.3), opponent's field goal percentage (65.2%) and fewest penalties (seven).

In 2010, WR/KR Eric Weems became the first Falcons player in team history to score touchdowns on both a kickoff return (102) and punt return (55) in the same season under Armstrong's direction. Through Armstrong's steady influence, Weems was voted to the Pro Bowl by his peers to become the first Falcons special teamer to be afforded such honors since Allen Rossum in 2004. He also garnered All-NFL accolades by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America.

Among his notable achievements with the Falcons, Armstrong's punt coverage team boasted an NFL record-low 43 opponent punt return yards allowed in 2008 and a first place ranking in opponent starting field position on kickoffs (21.4 average start) in 2009. In 2008, Atlanta ranked second in opponents starting field position, eighth in kickoff coverage, eighth in field goals made and first in points allowed on returns.

The 48 year-old native of Levittown, Pa. joined the Falcons following seven seasons in the same capacity for the Miami Dolphins. The 21-year NFL coaching veteran was instrumental in 2007 in helping punt returner Ted Ginn, Jr. finish fourth in the AFC with a 9.6 return average. The average was also the 10th best mark in the entire NFL among all punt returners. With Armstrong's coaching, K Jay Feely connected on 21 of 23 field goals for 91.3 percent, which ranked second in the League.

From 2001-2006, the Dolphins finished in the top eight in the NFL in punt return defense all but one season under Armstrong's positive direction. During that same time frame, Miami opponents averaged 6.1 yards per punt return, including a 4.5-yard mark in 2001 when they led the League in the category, and a 4.9-yard average (third in NFL) in 2005. In 2003, the Dolphins ranked first in the NFL in opponents' average starting field position with a 25.0-yard line mark and finished second in the same category in 2006 with a 24.9 figure.

Prior to landing in Miami, Armstrong served in the same role with the Chicago Bears from 1997-2000. In 2000, Chicago's special teams unit ranked fourth in the NFL in punt return defense, allowing an average of just 7.0 yards per return.

Armstrong earned his start in the NFL with Atlanta in 1994 as Safeties Coach. In 1996, he was promoted to run the entire secondary. Before his full-time positions in the NFL, he was part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program during training camps with the New York Jets (1991), Dallas Cowboys (1992) and Chicago Bears (1993).

Armstrong coached his way through the collegiate ranks before joining the NFL. He garnered four letters as a running back and defensive back at Temple University from 1983-1986 before joining the school as a graduate assistant in 1987.

Armstrong then joined the University of Miami as the Defensive Backs and Special Teams Coach for one season (1988) before coaching the wide receivers at the University of Akron (1989). His last two stops in college before joining the Falcons came at Oklahoma State as the Secondary Coach from 1990-1992 and Notre Dame as the Linebackers and Special Teams Coach in 1993.

TERRY ROBISKIE

WIDE RECEIVERS

Terry Robiskie's experience in the NFL spans over three decades, and one of the most respected wide receiver coaches in the NFL, will continue to tutor the Falcons wide receivers for a eighth season in 2015.

The return of WR Julio Jones sparked the Falcons passing game in 2014 and under the watchful eye of Robiskie earned Jones his second Pro Bowl nod. In his fourth season, Jones emerged as one of the top wide outs in the NFL. Jones fi nished the season among the League leaders in receiving yards and receptions, posting 104 receptions and 1,593 yards.

His 1,593 receiving yards marked a single-season franchise-high, breaking WR Roddy White's previous mark of 1,389 set in 2010. Jones is the first receiver in franchise history to post 1,500 yards in a single season.

In 2013, Robiskie's receiving corps was marred by injuries to the Birds top-two receivers, WR Roddy White and WR Julio Jones. With the two of them missing a combined 14 games, sixth-year WR Harry Douglas stepped up and produced a career season. Douglas led the Falcons in receptions (85) and receiving yards (1,067) with two touchdowns.

Robiskie's tireless efforts with White have allowed White to emerge as one of the top wide receivers in the NFL. From 2010-12, White had one of the most impressive runs by any receiver in NFL history. He finished the 2012 regular season with 92 catches for 1,351 yards, becoming just the fifth player in NFL history to record three consecutive seasons with 90+ receptions and 1,200+ yards (2010-12). White joined WR Marvin Harrison (1999-2002), WR Tory Holt (2002-05), WR Jerry Rice (1993-96) and Chad Johnson (2003-05) as the only players to accomplish the feat. By accomplishing this feat, White also became the sixth receiver in NFL history to record six consecutive seasons with at least 80 catches and 1,000 receiving yards (2007-12).

Under the watchful eye of Robiskie, White has also soared up the Falcons record books and currently sits atop in almost every category. White is currently the Falcons all-time leader in receptions (685) and receiving yards (9,436) and ranks third in career receiving touchdowns (55). He also played in four straight Pro Bowls under Robiskie (2008-12) and only three other Falcons in team history have performed in more in consecutive seasons.

In 2012, Robiskie's duo of White and Jones were the best in the NFL according to statistics. White and Jones combined for an NFL-best 2,549 receiving yards on 171 catches with 17 touchdowns. White led the Falcons in receiving yards (1,351) while hauling in 92 receptions, while Jones posted career highs in receptions (79), receiving yards (1,198) and touchdowns (10). Jones earned his first Pro Bowl nod for his performance, marking the fifth straight season the Falcons have had a wide receiver voted into the Pro Bowl under Robiskie.

White and Jones teamed to make the Falcons one of just four teams in the NFL with two 1,000-yard receivers in 2012. They were the first Falcons teammates to post 1,000 receiving yards in the same season since WR Tony Martin (1,181) and Terance Mathis (1,136) each accomplished the feat in 1998. It also marked the fourth time in team history two players have eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark in the same season. In a Week 9 win over the Dallas Cowboys, White and Jones each tallied over 100 receiving yards, marking the third time that the duo as recorded 100 yards each in a single game. Jones and White accomplished the feat twice in 2011.

Through Robiskie's help in 2011, the former UAB product hauled in a team-high 100 receptions for 1,296 yards and eight touchdowns. White's performance garnered him his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl berth.

The veteran coach also tutored talented rookie Julio Jones in 2011. Under Robiskie's direction, Jones enjoyed the best season by a Falcons rookie receiver with 54 receptions for 959 yards and an NFL rookie-high of eight scores, including a streak of touchdown catches in each of the final four games. Jones' fantastic rookie campaign also included five, 100-yard receiving games with a season-high of 138 yards on the heels of a sterling 80-yard touchdown at Indianapolis in Week 9.

The 2011 season also witnessed the return of another Robiskie pupil with tons of potential in Harry Douglas. Douglas hauled in 39 catches for 498 yards and one score after sitting out 2009 with a knee injury.

In 2010, White set career and franchise highs in receptions (115) and receiving yards (1,389), in addition to adding 10 touchdown grabs. White tallied five 100-yard receiving games on his way to his third consecutive Pro Bowl selection. Under Robiskie's watchful eye, White became the first Falcon wide receiver to record at least 80 catches and 1,100-plus yards in four consecutive seasons.

Robiskie's constant work with White enabled the veteran to haul in 85 catches for 1,153 yards with a career-high 11 touchdowns en route to his second career Pro Bowl nod in 2009. His 210-yard receiving day at San Francisco set a new club record and his 90-yard touchdown grab that day was the third-longest in team history. Robiskie's receivers also collectively helped the offense post the second-most total first downs in a single-season in team history with 330.

With Robiskie's excellent coaching in 2008, White produced his first Pro Bowl invitation by breaking the Falcons' single-season receiving yardage record with 1,382 yards. In the process, he became the first receiver in team history to post back-to-back 1,200-plus yard seasons. White also set a career-best with seven 100-yard receiving games. He led the NFL in the all-important category of third down receiving yards (516) while finishing second in the League in third down catches (29).

With Robiskie as the Passing Game Coordinator in 1999, QB Brad Johnson was voted to the NFC Pro Bowl squad.

Robiskie earned his start in the NFL with the then Los Angeles Raiders in 1982 where he coached with the team for 12 seasons. During that time, he served in a variety of roles with the Silver & Black, including Assistant Special Teams Coach (1982- 84), Assistant Running Backs Coach (1985-87), Tight Ends Coach (1988) and Offensive Coordinator (1989-1992). ERIC SUTULOVICH

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Eric Sutulovich will continue to work with Special Teams Coordinator Keith Armstrong to make sure the Falcons units continue to be considered among the very best in the NFL. The 2015 season will be Sutulovich's seventh season in Atlanta.

Last season, saw the return of WR Eric Weems to Atlanta. Weems played a key role on Atlanta's coverage units since returning to the Falcons in 2014. The Pro Bowl special teams ace notched a team record six special teams tackles (according to STATS LLC.) in Atlanta's Week 11 win over the Carolina Panthers. Since 1994, Weems is one of 11 players in the NFL to post six special teams tackles in a single game. According to STATS LLC.,

In 2013, Atlanta's special teams unit allowed 7.6 yards per punt return, which ranked among the NFL leaders. Under the guidance of Sutulovich, top-tier gunners WR Drew Davis and RB Antone Smith led the coverage units. Davis and Smith combined for 18 special teams tackles while forcing oppenets to settle for 23 fair catches with 26 of P Matt Bosher's kicks landing inside the 20-yard line.

With assistance from Sutulovich in 2012, Atlanta's kicking game was propelled by kicker Matt Bryant as the Falcons posted a 13-3 record and won their second NFC South Division crown since 2010. Bryant produced another solid season in 2012, by connecting on 33 of 38 field goals, all 44 PATs and tallied a career and franchise single-season high 143 points. Bryant not only set the franchise mark for points in a season, he also set a new franchise mark for most field goals made in a season (33).

With Sutulovich's help, Atlanta's punt coverage unit led the League in punt return average by allowing just 4.8 yards per return in 2011. In addition to that impressive number, the Falcons special team's unit forced their opponents to start a NFL-high 62 drives inside their 20-yard line.

Individual achievements were also a highlight in 2011 for the Birds special teams. K Matt Bryant set a franchise record for most consecutive field goals made in team history with 27 when he connected on a 47-yarder in the third quarter at Detroit in Week 7. Rookie LB Akeem Dent collared 19 special teams tackles, which was tied for the second-highest total in a single-season in club history.

In 2010, through Sutulovich's assistance, the Falcons special teams continued to excel. Atlanta's kickoff unit held opponents to an NFL-best average starting position of their own 22.2-yard line after kickoffs. The Falcons were led by specialist Eric Weems who averaged 27.5 yards per kickoff return, which ranked third in the NFL and earned his first Pro Bowl selection.

Sutulovich came to Atlanta after working for one season with the Detroit Lions as an Offensive Assistant in 2008. His original foray into the NFL came with the Houston Texans in its inaugural campaign in 2002. Sutulovich was the team's Assistant Special Teams Coach for four seasons (2002-05).

Prior to his stint in the NFL, Sutulovich spent one season as a football assistant for the University of Kansas. He also spent time in the collegiate ranks with Fort Scott Community College as the Offensive Coordinator (2001), the University of Pittsburgh as the offensive graduate assistant (2000-01) and Louisiana Tech as the offensive graduate assistant (1997-99).

Sutulovich and his wife, Melissa, have two daughters, Sage and Ellie, and two sons, Maddax and Gabe.

BOBBY TURNER

RUNNING BACKS

Bobby Turner joins the Falcons staff as running backs coach after holding the positions of Assistant Head Coach and running backs coach with the Washington Redskins from 2010-13. Under Turner's tutelage, RB Alfred Morris set the Redskins single-season rushing record with 1,613 yards on 335 carries while adding 13 touchdowns in 2013. His 1,613 rushing yards were the third most in NFL history by a rookie behind Eric Dickerson (1,808) and George Rogers (1,674).

During Washington's run to the NFC East title in 2012, Turner transformed rookie Alfred Morris from a sixth-round pick into the team record holder for rushing yards in a season (1,613). Morris' rushing total was second in the NFL to only league MVP Adrian Peterson, and his 1,613 yards were the third-most by a rookie in NFL history. In total, Washington rushed for a team-record 2,709 yards, earning the Redskins their first team rushing title since 1933.

In 2011, Turner was responsible for developing a young running back corps that included rookies Roy Helu and Evan Royster. Helu finished the season as the team's leading rusher, carrying 151 times for 640 yards, thesecond-highest yardage total by an NFL rookie running back that season. In Weeks 12-14, Helu became the first rookie running back in Redskins history to post three consecutive 100-yard games. Royster followed in Weeks 16-17, rushing for 100 yards in each game, making Helu and Royster the first rookie running back tandem in NFL history to each post consecutive 100-yard rushing games in a season.

Turner came to Washington in 2010 after spending the previous 15 seasons (1995-2009) as the Broncos' running backs coach, where he was part of teams that earned two Super Bowl victories (1997-98), three AFC West titles (1996, 98, 2005) and seven playoff berths (1996-98, 2000, 03-05). Turner worked with RB Terrell Davis, who was named AP Offensive Player of the Year in 1996 and 1998 and helped lead the Broncos to back-to-back Super Bowl championships.

During his 15 seasons in Denver, the Broncos produced the most rushing yards (32,829) and the most total yards (86,523) in the NFL. Over that span, six different running backs rushed for at least 1,000 yards in a single season, including Tatum Bell, Terrell Davis, Reuben Droughns, Clinton Portis, Mike Anderson and Olandis Gary.

Turner helped the Broncos record 11 individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons during his tenure, a total that tied for the third-most in the league and one that includes an NFL-record four-year streak of having a different 1,000-yard rusher (2003-06). Under Turner, the Broncos ranked among the NFL's top five in rushing during 10 of his 15 seasons, and 16 different running backs posted at least one 100-yard rushing game in the regular season or playoffs under Turner's guidance, a total higher than any other team in the NFL since 1995. In addition, Turner helped Denver become the only franchise since the inception of the common NFL Draft in 1967 to have two undrafted rookies reach 500 rushing yards in their first season with Selvin Young (2007) and Mike Bell (2006) accomplishing this feat in back-to-back campaigns.

In his final season in Denver, Turner helped Knowshon Moreno lead all rookies in rushing (947 yards), yards from scrimmage (1,160) and touchdowns (seven). The Broncos posted 105 individual 100-yard rushing games in the 15 seasons under Turner, whose list of 100-yard running backs includes: Davis (41 100-yd. games), Portis (18), Anderson (12), Tatum Bell (nine), Droughns (six), Gary (four), Travis Henry (three), Correll Buckhalter (two), Quentin Griffin (two), Young (two), Mike Bell (one), Aaron Craver (one), Peyton Hillis (one), Derek Loville (one), Glyn Milburn (one) and Michael Pittman (one).

HISTORY

RANKIN M. SMITH — TEAM FOUNDER

"He was a pioneer and a quiet leader. He was a person of great integrity and had a lot of respect from me and my predecessor, Pete Rozelle, and from all of the other owners. He was such a high quality person. He was a person on whose work you could rely on. In the 1960s he was a pioneer in bringing the NFL to Georgia, and particularly in the Southeast." – Former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue

Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away from heart complications just hours before the Falcons October 26, 1997 game at Carolina. Some of the largest footprints on professional, college and high school sports in Atlanta belong to Smith, who founded the Atlanta Falcons in 1966.

Over three decades ago in the early 1960s, Smith began planting the seeds that saw professional sports finally blossom in Atlanta.

Smith was part of a group that formed "Major Sports, Inc.," with goals of pro sports franchises for Atlanta. That group helped get Atlanta Stadium built by 1965. Major Sports, Inc., later became the Stadium Authority that operated Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium.

Smith paid the highest price in NFL history at the time in 1965 for an NFL franchise. Former commissioner Pete Rozelle and Smith made the deal in about five minutes and the Atlanta Falcons brought the largest and most popular sport to the city of Atlanta.

Smith worked with the city, county and state to build one of the largest facilities for conventions, trade shows and other major events in the world. The spectacular Georgia Dome opened its doors in 1992, giving the Falcons one of the best fan-friendly stadiums in America. Having the Georgia Dome helped bring the Olympic games to Atlanta in 1992.

He was the catalyst and driving force in bringing the most prestigious of all sporting events, the Super Bowl, to Atlanta in 1994. The week-long fanfare and the most-watched TV sport in the world, added a huge economic value to the city and tons of free publicity to lure other events, conventions and meetings to the city. He lobbied hard to bring back the game to Atlanta in 2000.

The date June 30, 1965, will always be remembered as both a termination and a commencement in the history of Atlanta sports. For on that day the end came to the many and disparate struggles to place a professional football team in the Southeast's key metropolis. At the same time the Atlanta Falcons were born and began a storied tenure in the National Football League.

All that had gone before — the successes (an $18 million stadium to play in) and the near-misses (aborted attempts to place other franchises in the city) — was set aside for the immediate business of fielding a team in little over a year's time.

Prime mover in this task was Rankin Smith, a young insurance executive who had controlling ownership of the Falcons.

Virtually unknown to the general public before that June day, Smith immediately endeared himself to aficionados of the sport by asking a choice rhetor-ical question at a press conference following his acquisition of the franchise: "Doesn't every adult male in America want to own his own football team?" Not every adult male American has the wherewithal to swing such a deal, but it was comforting to hear that a man is capable of dreams like those of any other guy.

The day's proceedings threw the city into a happy delirium unequaled in the history of football. By the time Smith got back to his insurance office 24 hours later, there had been over 1,000 phone calls for tickets. He had to push his way through stacks of mail. By August, when a contest was completed which resulted in the nickname Falcons, a few of the avid fans even had come to blows in defense of what they believed their adopted team should be called. Several persons suggested the name "Falcons" in a contest, but a school teacher from nearby Griffin, Miss Julia Elliott, was selected winner because of her reasons: "the falcon is proud and dignified, with great courage and fight. It never drops prey. It is deadly and has a great sporting tradition."

By the middle of December, Smith had signed the most coveted college football player in the nation, Texas linebacker Tommy Nobis. By Christmas Eve, when the Falcons cut off a brief 54-day ticket sale requiring almost no promotion, an NFL record had been established for season tickets sold by a new club (45,000).

And in January, Smith surprised the entire athletic fraternity by naming a head coach who never had been mentioned in the perpetual stream of journalistic speculation about the job. But Green Bay Packer assistant Norb Hecker assumed his new post with vigor and immediately embraced the gigantic job of sifting — along with Director of Player Personnel Gene Cronin — a huge list of NFL players made available to the Atlanta expansion team by other teams in the league.

Finally, three men were chosen from each club and these 42 formed the nucleus of the roster Hecker had to work with when he took the team to summer training camp in Black Mountain, North Carolina in early July. Added to this group were the drafted rookies, scores of free agents and a few miscellaneous players obtained in trades. In all, Hecker and his staff were faced with evaluating over 130 men from July to September.

Then, on August 27, in Columbia, South Carolina, the Falcons recorded their first victory, defeating the San Francisco 49ers, 24–17, in a preseason game.

Once the stadium, Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was built, Atlantans felt the time was ripe to start pursuing professional football. One independent group which had been active in NFL preseason promotions in Atlanta applied for franchises in both the AFL and the NFL, acting entirely on its own with no guarantee of stadium rights. Another group reported it had deposited earnest money for a team in the AFL.

With everyone running in different directions, some local businessmen worked out a deal and were awarded an AFL franchise on June 7, 1965, contingent upon acquiring exclusive stadium rights from city officials. NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who had been moving deliberately in Atlanta matters, headed on the next plane down to Atlanta to protect his league's claim on the city of Atlanta. He forced the city to make a choice between the two leagues. Of course, on that memorable June 30, Rankin Smith and the NFL were the choice.

The huge void which had been the Southeast without an NFL team was beginning to close. Fans were looking now toward Atlanta. The Falcons expect to be filling that void for a long time.

A new chapter in the history of the Atlanta Falcons began on December 6, 2001. On that day, Arthur M. Blank, the co-founder and retired co-chairman of Atlanta-based Home Depot, reached a prelim-inary agreement with the Falcons' Taylor Smith to purchase the team. In a special meeting prior to Super Bowl XXXVI in New Orleans on February 2, 2002, NFL owners voted unanimously to approve the purchase.

YEAR BY YEAR HISTORY

Rankin M. Smith was awarded, by the National Football League, a franchise for the city of Atlanta for $8.5 million. At the time there were 14 NFL franchises in existence, eight AFL clubs. Officially, Atlanta became the 23rd professional football club in existence, the 15th in the NFL prior to the merger. An average of 56,526 people filled Atlanta Stadium to watch the Falcons finish their inaugural season at 3-11. The Falcons claimed their first victory on November 20, defeating the New York Giants, 27-16, at storied Yankee Stadium. Head Coach Norb Hecker's team, at the time, became the only expansion team in history not to finish in last place. The Falcons finished in seventh place in a field of eight teams in the NFL's Eastern Conference. The Falcons' first pick in the draft, LB Tommy Nobis, was voted to the Pro Bowl and named Rookie of the Year.

1967
A disappointing second year saw the Falcons finish the season at 1-12-1. While the broad picture looked bleak, there were cameos of excellence that led to a promising future. LB Tommy Nobis was named to his second Pro Bowl and RB Junior Coffey ended the year with 722 yards to finish as the eighth leading rusher in the league and the Falcons' Most Valuable Player.

1968
Norm Van Brocklin was named to replace Norb Hecker as head coach after three games in the season. The 2-12 Falcons won twice after Brocklin's arrival and finished short by a touchdown or less in three other games. DE Claude Humphrey, the Falcons first-round draft choice, was voted NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year for his play at left end. Billy Lothridge, despite having to start at safety, won his second consecutive NFL punting championship. LB Tommy Nobis was also named to his third-straight Pro Bowl.

1969
The Falcons doubled their best victory total ending the season at 6-8. Atlanta started the season with its first victory in a season opener, a 24-12 decision, vs. San Francisco at Fulton-County Stadium. Backup QB Randy Johnson was named NFL Offensive Player of the Week for his four-touchdown effort in the Falcons' 48-31 victory over the Chicago Bears on November16. RB Harmon Wages scored three touchdowns vs. New Orleans on December 7, as he threw, caught and ran for a touchdown in a 45-17 win. The club would finish the season in its highest place yet in the Coastal Division at third. Seven Falcons were named to the Pro Bowl: RB Jim Butler, QB Bob Berry, LB Greg Brezina, K Bob Etter, T George Kunz, TE Jim Mitchell and DB Ken Reaves.

1970
The Falcons completed their fifth season at 4-8-2, but were not far away from having their first winning season as four times Atlanta led deep in the fourth quarter (vs. San Francisco, Green Bay, Los Angeles and Philadelphia) only to lose or be tied in the final moments. Quarterback Bob Berry had the franchise's first 300-yard passing game vs. the Packers on September 27 and RB Jim Butler set a new club record in rushing with 127 yards on 17 carries in the home opener vs. the 49ers on October 4. Over 30 million viewers saw the Falcons face the Dolphins in Atlanta's first game nationally on Monday Night Football with Miami prevailing, 20-7. Defensive end Claude Humphrey, T George Kunz and LB Tommy Nobis represented the Falcons at the Pro Bowl.

1971
For the first time in team history, ticket prices are raised. Most seats increase in price from $6 to $7.50. Head coach Norm Van Brocklin was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Furman University in Greenville, South Carolina, becomes the third home of the Falcons' training camp. The Falcon uniform is also changed as the team switches to red jerseys. On November 22, Atlanta wins its first nationally- televised game with a 28-21 victory over Green Bay at home on Monday Night Football. The Falcons post their first winning season in history at 7-6-1, after WR Ken Burrow pulls in a winning touchdown pass from QB Bob Berry with 40 seconds remaining in a 24-20 victory over New Orleans on December 19 in the regular-season finale, but still do not qualify for the postseason. DE Claude Humphrey is named to his second-straight Pro Bowl.

1972
Draft rights for Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan of Auburn are obtained as the Falcons make four deals involving six veterans. RB Dave Hampton scores two touchdowns and rushes for a club record of 161 yards as the Falcons stop Los Angeles, 31-3, on October 1 for the team's first victory ever, in 11 games, over the Rams. Fellow RB Art Malone rushes for 103 yards, marking the first time in Atlanta's seven-year history that two backs

1973
Smashing 35 team records, the Falcons defeat New Orleans in the season opener, 62-7. In one of the most dramatic comebacks in the club's history, Atlanta rebounds to defeat the previously unbeaten Minnesota Vikings, 20-14, before a capacity crowd and national-television audience at Atlanta Stadium. The Falcons finish the season at 9-5 for their most wins and best record ever, but lose out for the playoffs by just one game. Rookie kicking specialist Nick Mike-Mayer, DE Claude Humphrey, DE John Zook and T George Kunz were named to the National Football Conference Pro Bowl team on December 18.

1974

Norm Van Brocklin is fired as head coach-general manager after eight games into the season on November 5. Marion Campbell, the Falcons' defensive coordinator since 1969, is named head coach the following day. A record low of 40,202 "no shows" is recorded at Atlanta Stadium as Los Angeles defeats the Falcons, 30–7, in sub-freezing weather on December 1. Rookie QB Kim McQuilken, making his second start of the year, leads the Falcons to a season-closing 10–3 victory over Green Bay to finish the team's record for the year at 3–11. DE Claude Humphrey and C Jeff Van Note are selected to represent Atlanta at the Pro Bowl.

1975

The Falcons trade veteran T George Kunz and a draft choice to Baltimore for the No. 1 pick in the 1975 NFL draft. Atlanta also got the Colts' sixth round choice. QB Steve Bartkowski of California, a consensus All-America, is selected by the Falcons as the No. 1 draft choice on January 28. On February 26, Pat Peppler, instrumental in the construction of two Super Bowl championships at Green Bay (1967 and 1968) and Miami (1973 and 1974), is named the Falcons' new general manager. RB Dave Hampton finally cracked the elusive 1,000-yard Club, by gaining 61 yards in the final game of the season against the Green Bay Packers. Those yards pushed his total to 1,002, making him the first back in Falcons history to gain 1,000 or more yards rushing. Atlanta ended the season at 4–10. The Falcons had two players selected to the Pro Bowl following the season: C Jeff Van Note and P John James.

1976

After the club's fourth loss in five starts, Marion Campbell is fired as head coach. Chairman of the Board Rankin M. Smith Sr. names Pat Peppler interim head coach on October 11. Atlanta exploded for 17 points in the fourth quarter to upset playoff-bound Dallas, 17–10, on Nov. 21, before 54,992 fans at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium. Under Peppler, the Falcons finish the season 4–10. P John James is selected to his second straight Pro Bowl.

1977

The Falcons begin a complete revamping of the front office. On February 1, former Washington Redskin and Dallas Cowboy QB Eddie LeBaron is named General Manager and Rankin M. Smith, Jr. is named President of the team. Leeman Bennett, an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Rams for four years, is named the Falcons' head coach on February 3. During the season, the Falcons defense established a modern-day NFL record of 129 points allowed in a 14-game season, as the club finishes 7–7. The defense gains the popular nickname "The Gritz Blitz". P John James, DE Claude Humphrey and DB Rolland Lawrence are named to the Pro Bowl.

1978

On March 30, the Falcons announce plans for a new year-round training site and team headquarters to be constructed in Suwanee, Georgia. The team unveiled new uniforms, which featured silver-gray pants on August 19. The Falcons record their first ever shutout in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium on October 15, with a 14–0 defeat of Detroit. K Tim Mazzetti kicks five field goals to give Atlanta a 15–7 Monday Night victory over the Los Angeles Rams on October 30. On December 16, the Falcons clinch their first ever playoff berth when Chicago defeats Washington as the Falcons close out the season with a 9–7 record. QB Steve Bartowski throws two touchdown passes in the final eight minutes to spark a 14–13 Atlanta win vs. Philadelphia in the NFC Wild card Playoff Game on December 24 for the Falcons first-ever playoff victory. The Falcons lose the next week in the Divisional Playoff Game 27–20 at Dallas after squandering a 20–13 halftime lead.

1979

Rookie RB William Andrews establishes a new club single game rushing record with a 167-yard performance at New Orleans on September 2, in his NFL debut. On September 16, QB Steve Bartkowski sets a new franchise record for single game passing with 326 yards on 20 of 29 passing against Denver. Running back Lynn Cain becomes the first Falcon player to ever score three touchdowns in a single game as he catches two and rushes for another against Oakland on October 14. In a 31–21 victory over San Francisco on December 16, records were broken for the season by Andrews with 1,023 yards rushing, WR Wallace Francis with 74 catches for 1,013 yards and by Bartkowski with 2,502 passing yards (203–379). The Falcons finish the year at 6–10 and C Jeff Van Note is selected to play in the Pro Bowl.

1980

The Falcons go on a nine-game winning streak, starting with a 41–14 rout of New Orleans, to finish with a 12–4 record to capture the team's first-ever NFC Western Division title. The Falcons nine straight wins and 12 wins on the season are both club bests. In a battle of 12–4 teams in Atlanta, the Falcons build a 27–17 lead over Dallas in the NFC Divisional Playoff game, but are defeated by the Cowboys 30–27 in front of the largest crowd in stadium history (60,022). The year features club records in passing from QB Steve Bartkowski (3,544 yards and 31 TDs), rushing by RB William Andrews (1,308 yards) and receiving by WR Alfred Jenkins (1,025 yards) plus LB Al Richardson got a takeaway in nine consecutive games as the team garnered a total of 42 takeaways. A record six Falcons are selected to play in the Pro

Trailing Green Bay 17–0 after three quarters on the road, the Falcons erupt for an NFL record tying 31 fourth quarter points in a 31–17 win. The team finishes the year at 7–9 and has a club–record seven members selected to the Pro Bowl: T Mike Kenn, QB Steve Bartkowski, C Jeff Van Note, WR Alfred Jenkins, RB William Andrews, TE Junior Miller and G R.C. Thielemann. The team will look back on seven losses of five points or less as to why they finished with the 7–9 record. The defeats were by 1,2,2,3,3,3 and 5 points.

1982

Season ticket sales are halted after reaching a club record 55,144 as Atlanta finishes the strike-shortened season at 5–4. For the third time in five seasons, the Falcons go to the playoffs with a playoff-clinching 17–7 victory on national-television at San Francisco on December 19. In the opening round of the playoffs at Minnesota, the Falcons special teams score touchdowns on a blocked punt and a fake field goal to help build a 21–13 lead in the second half. But the Vikings rally for 14 points in the 4th quarter to win 30–24. T Mike Kenn, G R.C. Thielemann, C Jeff Van Note and RB William Andrews are selected to the Pro Bowl.

1983

The Falcons end the year with a 7–9 record as new head coach Dan Henning takes over the team. DE Kenny Johnson became only the 12th player in NFL history to score two touchdowns in the same game on interception returns as Atlanta defeats Green Bay 41–34 in overtime. Running back William Andrews sets a new club record with 331 rushing attempts for 1,567 yards. QB Steve Bartkowski has his third 3,000-yard season and set a team mark with a 63.4% completion rate and just a 1.1% interception rate (5 interceptions in 432 passing attempts), while C Jeff Van Note starts his 200th game as a Falcon on December 18.

1984

RB Gerald Riggs takes over for the Falcons' all time leading rusher William Andrews who is out for the season after knee surgery. On opening day at New Orleans, Riggs sets a new club record with 35 attempts for 202 yards in a 36–28 win. This begins the first of three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons for Riggs who carries 483 times over 18 games without fumbling. The Falcons finish the year at 4–12.

1985

PR Billy "White Shoes" Johnson became the NFL's all-time leading punt returner as he gains 58 yards in the season opener versus Detroit on September 8. On the final game of the season, RB Gerald Riggs runs for 158 yards, his 9th 100-yard game of the year, in a 16–10 win at New Orleans to finish the season with 1,719 yards and leads the NFC in rushing, while being named to the Pro Bowl. The team ends their second straight season at 4–12.Eddie LeBaron, Vice President and CEO, is dismissed, while former Falcon head coach Marion Campbell is hired as defensive coordinator.

1986

The Falcons soared to four straight wins by beating New Orleans, St. Louis, Dallas and Tampa Bay for the best-ever start in club history. On December 14, Atlanta Fulton-County Stadium played host to C Jeff Van Note day as the 18-year veteran center was honored after 246 games. With all his family present, Van Note was presented gifts including a vintage 1957 Chevy (symbolic of his jersey #57 and being a classic). K Mick Luckhurst extended his club record to 117 consecutive PATs, as the team lost seven of their last nine contests to end the year at 7–8–1. G Bill Fralic and RB Gerald Riggs were selected to represent the Falcons at the Pro Bowl.

1987

For the second time in his career, Marion Campbell is named head coach of the team. After being defeated 48–10 at Tampa Bay in the season opener the Falcons rebound claiming victory over the eventual World Champion Washington Redskins 21–20 in front of over 50,000 fans at Fulton-County Stadium on September 20. Also on that day, PR Billy "White Shoes" Johnson added another milestone to his brilliant career by becoming the NFL's all-time leading punt returner by recording his 259th lifetime return. On September 22, the NFL Players Association walk off the job for the second time in five years, but only one game is cancelled. The League's owners decide to continue with replacement players. RB Gerald Riggs becomes the club's all-time leading rusher with 5,987 yards, surpassing William Andrews on December 6. P Rick Donnelly and WR Sylvester Stamps claim a pair of NFL individual titles as they finish the season with the league's punting title with a 44.03 average and a league-best 27.5 kickoff return average, respectively. The Falcons end the year with a 3–12 record, while G Bill Fralic and Riggs are named to the Pro Bowl.

1988

An improving Falcons defense was among the best in the NFL during the second half of the season as Atlanta finishes the '88 campaign at 5–11. Atlanta's "baby boomers" (average age of 25) allowed only six touchdowns over the final seven games. CB Scott Case laid claim to a spot in the Pro Bowl by being named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for November. Case picked off 10 passes on the season to finish atop the league charts and set a Falcons record for interceptions in a season. Running back John Settle put his name in the league record book by becoming the first free agent in NFL history since the 1970 merger to gain 1,000 yards in a season with 1,024 yards. G Bill Fralic joined Case and Settle in the Pro Bowl following the season.

YEAR BY YEAR HISTORY

1989

CB Deion "Prime Time" Sanders, who after a lengthy holdout, reports to camp and takes part in practice on Friday and a Saturday walk-through before the season opener versus the Los Angeles Rams. In the first quarter, Sanders returns a punt 68 yards for a touchdown. After hitting a home run for the New York Yankees earlier in the week, it makes him the only modern day athlete to hit a homerun and score a touchdown in the same week. G Bill Fralic goes to a fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, the only guard in the NFL to do so, and is named to the 2nd team of the All-NFL team of the 80's. Rookie WR Shawn Collins leads all NFL rookies and sets a club rookie mark with 58 catches, while Sanders gains post-season recognition by leading all rookie defensive backs with five interceptions and gaining over 1,000 yards in return yardage. Head coach Marion Campbell announces his resignation after 12 games (3-9); leaving assistant head coach Jim Hanifan to take over for the final four games. The team ends the season with a 3-13 mark.

1990

Former Falcons defensive coordinator and Houston Oilers head coach Jerry Glanville accepts the offer to become the Falcons 9th head coach in franchise history. The team announces plans for their 25th Anniversary season that includes going back to the original black jerseys of 1966. In addition, black helmets are unveiled along with the anniversary logo patches for the uniforms. With the number one pick in the draft, Atlanta trades with Indianapolis for six-time Pro Bowl lineman T Chris Hinton, all-rookie WR Andre Rison and the following year's #1 pick. The Falcons close their first-ever undefeated preseason at 4-0 with a 45-14 win over New England. On September 9, Houston comes to town to face Atlanta and their former coach, but the Falcons prevail scoring three defensive touchdowns en route to a 47-27 victory. The Falcons led the NFL with a 3.3 per carry rush defense as the team moved up in over 20 statistical categories from the previous season to finish the year at 5-11. LB Jessie Tuggle led the NFL in tackles with 201 and Rison sets a club mark with 82 pass receptions on his way to a Pro Bowl berth.

1991

The Falcons proved to be one of the most exciting and entertaining teams of the NFL in '91, winning six straight games down the stretch and eight of their last 11 contests, to earn a playoff berth at 10-6. Atlanta had the second most wins in club history with 11 and captured their first road playoff victory at New Orleans. The Falcons also made team history by sweeping through their NFC West road trips by defeating the Saints, Rams, and 49ers, giving San Francisco their only home loss on the season. A sellout crowd witnessed the Falcons final home game of the 1991 season, as well as Atlanta's final game in Fulton-County Stadium. The Falcons defeated Seattle, 26-13, to run their home win streak to five straight. CBs Deion Sanders and Tim McKyer both co-led the NFC in interceptions with six apiece. Sanders was joined at the Pro Bowl by teammates WR Andre Rison, QB Chris Miller and T Chris Hinton.

1992

On August 23, a sold-out crowd and a national TV audience saw the Falcons win the first-ever football game in the new Georgia Dome, 20-10, over the Philadelphia Eagles. In the regular season opener in the Dome, Atlanta scored on their first four possessions en route to a 20-17 win over the New York Jets before another sellout crowd. The Falcons led the NFL with a club record 33-touchdown passes and became the only team to have 30 or more touchdowns in both '91 and '92. The 336 pass completions were a club season best as were the 194 passing first downs. WR Andre Rison set a club record with 93 receptions and became the first player in NFL history to have 300 catches in their first four years in the league. The Rison-WR Michael Haynes tandem netted 21 touchdowns to lead the NFL for the second straight year (23 in '91). The team finished the season with a 6-10 record as Rison, DB Deion Sanders, LB Jessie Tuggle and special teams standout Elbert Shelley were named to the Pro Bowl.

1993

Led by Pro Bowlers WR Andre Rison, QB Bobby Hebert, S Elbert Shelley and PK Norm Johnson, Atlanta's offense scored over 300 points for the fourth consecutive season. Rison scored a club record 15 TDs and set a new standard for the most receptions in his first five seasons with 394. Hebert finished third in the NFL with a career-high 24 touchdown passes and had the NFL's longest play of the year, a 98-yard strike to WR Michael Haynes. Johnson nearly had a perfect season, connecting on 26-of-27 field goals (.963), while stretching his consecutive FG streak to 26 in-a-row, the second best mark in NFL history. Pro Bowler CB Deion Sanders continued to be an impact player, picking off seven passes while shutting down the league's top receivers. Third-year RB Erric Pegram made a name for himself, rushing for 1,185 yards, the fourth highest total in '93 as the team ended the year for a second straight season at 6-10.

1994

June Jones was named the Falcons' 10th head coach on January 24 replacing Jerry Glanville who resigned following the 1993 season. The '94 season was trademarked by the way the team started and ended each game. The Falcons came out ready to play in the first quarters, rolling up a combined 93-61 advantage in those first 15 minutes of play. Atlanta also had the lead in 14 of the 16 games they played in and led 12 of those 16 games, heading into the fourth quarter only to finish the year with a 7-9 record. In 11 of the 16 games, the Falcons had the lead at the two-minute warning only to falter in the end. Wide receiver Terance Mathis closes out a brilliant season with a club record 111 receptions, the fourth highest total of all-time. His 1,342 receiving yards ranks second on the Atlanta's all-time charts. For his efforts, he is voted to the '95 Pro Bowl along with teammates LB Jessie Tuggle and S Elbert Shelley.

1995

In what would be Atlanta's first playoff season since 1991, the Falcons ended the regular season with a 9-7 mark, while establishing some club and league records along the way. K Morten Andersen, who was signed as a free agent from New Orleans before training camp, sets an NFL- mark with three field goals from beyond 50 yards in one game. Shots from 55, 55 and 51 capped a 19-14 victory over Andersen's former Saints teammates to give Atlanta their first sweep of New Orleans since 1985. Needing a win to make the playoffs, the Falcons pull off the improbable, defeating the defending World Champion 49ers, 28-27, in front of a frenzied crowd at the Georgia Dome on Christmas Eve. Quarterback Bobby Hebert connects with WR Terance Mathis on two touchdowns, including the game-winner, as Mathis makes an incredible run to the end zone with 1:45 remaining. Atlanta establishes an NFL record by having four players each gain 1,000 yards, including WRs Eric Metcalf (1,189), Terance Mathis (1,039), Bert Emanuel (1,039) and RB Craig Heyward (1,083). Quarterback Jeff George, meanwhile, became only the 18th quarterback in league history to have over 4,000 yards passing in a season by finishing with 4,143 yards. LB Jessie Tuggle, S Elbert Shelley, DE Chris Doleman, Andersen and Hayward were named to the Pro Bowl.

1996

Only one season after earning a wild-card berth, Atlanta tied a club-mark for most losses and finished with the third-poorest winning percentage (.188) in team history with a 3-13 mark. A 31-15 victory over the Saints on December 8 snapped a 10-game road losing streak and provided the team with its first NFC West win outside the Georgia Dome since an overtime win in New Orleans on September 17, 1995. In a lone bright spot, RB Jamal Anderson became the seventh Falcons player in club history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season, gaining 1,055 on the year. With Anderson's accomplishment, the Falcons were the only NFL team to have three different players in the past four years to gain 1,000 yards. On December 23, head coach June Jones was dismissed from the team.

1997

On January 3, Dan Reeves is named the 11th head coach in franchise history as he comes to Atlanta as Executive Vice President of Football Operations/Head Coach. After a difficult 1-7 start, the Falcons went 6-2 in their final eight games to finish 7-9, marking one of the best second-half comebacks in NFL history. QB Chris Chandler came on strong and ranked second in the NFL in QB rating (95.1) on his way to his first Pro Bowl appearance, joining teammate LB Jessie Tuggle. The real story of the season, however, was the tremendous play of the defensive line, which established a club record 55 sacks to rank 2nd in the NFL. DE Chuck Smith (12.0 sacks) and DT Travis Hall (10.5 sacks) led the charge. Team owner and founder Rankin M. Smith passed away on October 26 from heart complications just hours before the Falcons were to play a nationally televised game at Carolina. The 72-year old was remembered at a Tuesday memorial service as a quiet, behind-the-scenes "pioneer" who helped bring professional sports, and other major contributions, to his beloved city of Atlanta.

1998

The Falcons, who jumped from a 7-9 finish in 1997 to a franchise record 14-2 in 1998, specialized in quick turnovers. In one of the more heart felt stories of the year, head coach Dan Reeves underwent quadruple bypass surgery and a mere five weeks later coached his team to a 30-27 overtime victory against Minnesota to capture the NFC Championship that matched the Falcons against the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXXIII in Miami. The team accomplished many firsts in 1998 with the first-ever 8-0 home mark, best overall record at 14-2, most points in a season with 442 that included a best 53 touchdowns and a league-high 44 takeaways. Atlanta was paced by RB Jamal Anderson, who set a team record with 1,846 yards rushing, including an NFL high 12 100-yard games. The Falcons dubbed themselves the "Dirty Birds" and Anderson created a touchdown dance to fit the name. The dance, which even consisted of flapping arms to act like wings, was introduced when TE O.J. Santiago celebrated his two-touchdown effort following a 41-10 victory at New England in early November. The fever it generated captivated a national audience as well as brought the Falcons to the front of the Atlanta sports scene. Dan Reeves joining Anderson on stage for a rendition of the "Dirty Bird" following the NFC Championship trophy presentation was a lasting highlight of the team's journey to the Super Bowl. Reeves, who was named NFL Coach of the Year, guided his Falcons to just the second NFC West title in the 33-year history of the franchise. QB Chris Chandler, CB Ray Buchanan, S Eugene Robinson, LB Jessie Tuggle and T Bob Whitfield joined Anderson in representing the Falcons in the Pro Bowl.

The Atlanta Falcons entered the 1999 season with the hopes of defending their 1998 NFC Champ-ionship crown and becoming the first NFL team ever to reach the Super Bowl in its own stadium. The Georgia Dome was the site of Super Bowl XXXIV. Unfortunately the setbacks of an 0-4 start led the Falcons to a disappointing 5-11 finish. In Week 2 against the Dallas Cowboys in a Monday Night Football matchup at Texas Stadium, RB Jamal Anderson was lost for the season with a knee injury. The Falcons did reach some milestones through the season. WR Ternace Mathis became the club's all-time leader in receptions with a 12-catch, 166-yard performance in a Monday Night Football game at Pittsburgh. LB Jessie Tuggle had his 12th-straight 100-tackle season after finishing with a team-leading 122 total tackles.

2000

After a 2-1 start that included victories over two key NFC West opponents, the Falcons season took a turn for the worse with a 4-12 final record. The Falcons suffered several key injuries including a season-ending foot injury to LB Keith Brooking after five games and LB Jessie Tuggle in the eighth game of the season. RB Jamal Anderson returned to action following a 1999 season-ending knee injury, starting all 16 games and finishing with his fourth 1,000-yard season with 1,024 yards. K Morten Andersen began the season with a five-field goal game vs. San Francisco and then ended the year with five field goals in the season-finale vs. Kansas City. In the process he became the Falcons all-time leader in both field goals and points. Wide receiver Ternace Mathis became the club's all-time leader in receiving yards to pass WR Alfred Jenkins in that category. Rookie CB Darrick Vaughn, the Falcons seventh round draft choice, led the NFL with a 27.7 average and three kickoff returns for a touchdown. That average and the three touchdowns are both Falcons single-season high marks.

2001

The 2001 Atlanta Falcons entered Week 15 with a matchup at Miami with a 7-7 record and still alive in the NFC playoff race. Three controversial calls by the officials and two goal line stands by the Dolphins defense ended the Falcons postseason hopes with a 21-14 defeat. The next week the Falcons traveled to St. Louis and lost 31-13 to finish the year with a disappointing 7-9 record. Even with two overtime losses to San Francisco when the Falcons squandered fourth quarter leads, Atlanta jumped to a 6-4 record before winning just one of their remaining six games. Included in the wins was a big 23-20 victory over the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field, highlighted by a 352-passing effort by QB Chris Chandler. Long after memories of the disappointing 2001 season end, the year will be remembered for the nucleus of young players that emerged and will hopefully lead the Falcons to a successful future. Among the group of young players that stood out were Pro Bowl LB Keith Brooking, who had 10 or more tackles in 11 of the team's 16 games, and first-round draft pick QB Michael Vick. Vick had the normal growing pains of any rookie quarterback, but in the Miami game Vick, who played following an elbow injury to Chandler, showed flashes of his potential, completing 11 of 20 passes for 214 yards with a touchdown and gaining 63 yards rushing on five carries. Among his highlights were a 52-yard pass to WR Brian Finneran and a 23-yard scramble for a first down on a 4th and 15 play. A renewed Chandler led the team to a 6-4 record in games where he started and finished, and DE Patrick Kerney had a breakout year with a team-leading 12.0 sacks. The day before the draft, the Falcons obtained the first pick in a trade with San Diego and used the pick on Vick, who is expected to be the quarterback of the future. In another historical move, team President Taylor Smith agreed to sell the team to local businessman Arthur Blank, who was approved by the NFL owners the day before the Super Bowl. A week before the final preseason game the end of an era came upon the Falcons when LB Jessie Tuggle retired following 14 seasons in Atlanta. The example he set helped his replacement Brooking, who was moved from the weakside linebacker spot to the middle, spring to the top of the middle linebacker lists in the NFL with a career-high 167 tackles.

2002

The Atlanta Falcons began the Arthur Blank era with a 9-6-1 record and a berth in the playoffs as a Wild Card participant. Blank helped resurrect the excitement in the Georgia Dome with added value to the fans with increased tailgating, parking and entertainment. The fans responded with every game being sold out. After beginning the year with a 1-3 record, head coach Dan Reeves and QB Michael Vick led the Falcons to an NFL-best eight-game unbeaten streak (7-0-1). The Falcons set records and showcased numerous highlights during that stretch. In a game at Pittsburgh, the Falcons rallied from a 34-17 deficit with just over eight minutes to play to tie the game at 34-34. The Falcons also shutout Carolina two times with a 30-0 victory at the Dome and a 41-0 win in Charlotte. The Falcons finished the season with a team-record 23 rushing touchdowns and a franchise-best eight games with 30 or more points. After finishing 30th in rushing in 1999, 28th in 2000 and 16th in 2001, the Falcons improved to 4th in the NFL in 2002. On the defensive side of the ball, new defensive coordinator Wade Phillips made a switch to a 3-4 defensive alignment that helped the team finish third in interceptions with 24, second in takeaways with 39 and fourth in sacks with 47. In his first season as a starter, Vick earned a Pro Bowl berth to become just the sixth quarterback to be voted to the Pro Bowl in his first year as a starter. Vick rushed for 173 yards in an overtime win at Minnesota, the highest single-game rushing total for an NFL quarterback ever. Vick also had the longest run ever by a Falcons quarterback with a 46-yard game-winning touchdown in overtime against the Vikings. LB Keith Brooking earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth after setting a career-high with 212 total tackles. In the postseason, the Falcons became the first team ever to defeat the Green Bay Packers in the postseason at Lambeau Field with a 27–7 win to advance to the second round of the NFC playoffs. The Falcons season came to an end the next week with a 20–6 loss against the Philadelphia Eagles at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Divisional playoff game.

One season removed from a playoff berth and a historical win over Green Bay in the playoffs, the 2003 Falcons fell to 5–11. Injuries and a lack of consistency punctuated the Falcons 2003 season. QB Michael Vick, who played a large role in the Falcons' push for the playoffs in 2002, suffered a broken right leg in the second preseason game against Baltimore and did not return until the 11th game of the regular season in a relief appearance at Houston. Strong first half efforts would give way to second half heartbreak as the Falcons went 2–6 in the eight games which they led at the half. The Falcons defeated the Dallas Cowboys in the regular season opener, 27–13, before losing their next seven contests. They did not win again until the ninth game of the season when they went on the road and defeated the New York Giants 27–7. The victory gave Falcons head coach Dan Reeves the 200th win of his career. One year after setting the NFL single-game record for most yards rushing by a quarterback, Vick went out and rushed for a 141 yards in his first start of the season against the Panthers. His rushing performance marked the third-highest single game rushing total by a quarterback in NFL history. Three days after the victory against the Panthers, Reeves, who coached the Falcons for seven seasons, was released from his contract on December 10. Defensive coordinator Wade Phillips took over as interim coach for the final three games. In the days leading up to the Buccaneers game in Week 16, Rich McKay, who for the previous eight seasons was general manager of the Buccaneers, was named president and general manager of the Falcons on December 15. Less than two weeks after the conclusion of the season, Jim Mora was named head coach on January 9, 2004. LB Keith Brooking and TE Alge Crumpler were named to the Pro Bowl, with Crumpler earning a starting nod on the NFC squad.

2004

First year Head Coach Jim Mora's fiery, motivating style of coaching becomes contagious and resonates with his team as the Falcons match the best start ever in team history at 4–0 on their way to a 6–2 halfway record. The aggressive approach on both offense and defense pays off and masks the potential growing pains of new offensive and defensive systems being implemented. The birds clinch just their third division title in team history in high fashion in a 35–10 rout of the Oakland Raiders in Week 14 as RB T.J. Duckett establishes a new team record with four rushing touchdowns. The club finishes the regular season with an 11–5 record, a first round playoff bye, and sets numerous milestones, including leading the NFL in rushing for the first time ever with a team record 2,672 yards and a club-best a 5.1 per carry average, as well as a League-high 48 sacks, which also is the first time that feat has been accomplished. The Falcons defense soars 18 spots from the last in the League in 2003 to 14th in total defense and scoring defense under new architect Ed Donatell. Atlanta blasts St. Louis 47–17 in the Divisional Playoff game at the Georgia Dome in one of the most dominant rushing performances in postseason history, racking up 327 yards rushing, the fourth-highest total ever. The Falcons' dream of a Super Bowl trip is ended the following week in a 27–10 defeat at Philadelphia in the NFC Championship Game, the second NFC Title appearance in team history. Mora garners votes for NFL Coach of the Year and becomes just the 11th head coach in NFL history to capture a Division title in his first season. QB Michael Vick, TE Alge Crumpler, LB Keith Brooking, DE Patrick Kerney and returner Allen Rossum go to the Pro Bowl, the most Falcons players since 1998 Super Bowl season.

The Falcons soar to a 6–2 first half record despite numerous injuries on defense that force rookies into the starting lineup and a shuffling of linebacker positions after five games. Atlanta records a perfect 3–0 mark on Monday Night Football (and 4–1 record in nationally-televised games). The growing pains catch up to the Falcons in the second half of the season though and the team finishes 8–8. Atlanta's offense again leads the NFL in rushing yards with 2,546 yards and average at 4.8. RB Warrick Dunn enjoys a career year with a career-high 1,416 rushing yards en route to earning his Pro Bowl since 2000. TE Alge Crumpler leads the team in receptions with a career–best 65 catches for a career-high 877 receiving yards. QB Michael Vick passes for 2,412 yards with 15 touchdowns and rushes for 597 yards and six scores. LB Keith Brooking leads the club again in tackles with 150 as he moves over to MLB after a season-ending Achilles injury to Edgerton Hartwell in Week 5 forces a chain reaction of wholesale changes in the linebacker department. Rookies such as LB Michael Boley and DL Jonathon Babineuax, Chauncey Davis and Darrell

YEAR BY YEAR HISTORY

Shropshire are pressed into major duty due to injuries. DT Rod Coleman leads all interior linemen with 10.5 sacks. Dunn, Crumpler, Vick, Brooking, Coleman and CB DeAngelo Hall are voted to the Pro Bowl by their peers and are the most Pro Bowlers since the 1998 Super Bowl season.

2006

Similiar to the second half of 2005, the Falcons start out 5–2 in first half of play only to limp to 2–7 down the stretch. Head Coach Jim Mora is dismissed from his contract after three years following the 7–9 season. The Falcons lead the NFL in rushing again for the third straight year with a franchise record 2,939 yards, which is the ninth-highest total in NFL history. Michael Vick becomes the first quarterback in League history to rush for over 1,000 yards with 1,039. With RB Warrick Dunn's 1,140 rushing yards, Vick and Dunn become only the fourth set of backfield teammates to both eclipse the century mark in the same season in NFL history. Vick also adds a career-high 20 touchdown passes. TE Alge Crumpler is named to his fourth straight Pro Bowl as he leads the team in receiving and adds a career-high eight touchdowns. CB DeAngelo Hall also is voted to the Pro Bowl but first year as a starter. K Morten Andersen becomes the NFL's all-time leading scorer and all-time leader in career field goals.

2007

The Falcons placed a franchise record 16 players on injured reserve which included seven starters over the course of the season. Atlanta also witnessed its starting quarterback be suspended by the NFL prior to the start of the year while its Head Coach Bobby Petrino left the team following Week 14. With a 4-12 record, the Falcons did see some positive results however. Wide receiver Roddy White became the Falcons first 1,000-yard receiver since 1999 and running back Warrick Dunn became the 22nd player in league history to amass 10,000 career rushing yards. Kicker Morten Andersen and quarterback Chris Redman each received NFC Player of the Week accolades.

2008

In just one season, the Atlanta Falcons rebounded from four wins in 2007 to an 11-5 regular season record and the team's first playoff berth since 2004. The '08 campaign was a year of firsts as first year Head Coach Mike Smith and first year quarterback Matt Ryan became the first rookie head coach and quarterback duo to compete in a playoff contest since 1945 when the Cleveland Rams accomplished the feat. In Smith's stellar first season, he also became only the fourth Head Coach in franchise history to record 11 or more victories in a single year en route to Associated Press Coach of the Year honors. The distinction marked only the second occasion a Falcons coach earned the award in franchise history. The Falcons witnessed an entire team effort in the turnaround as an organization with a fresh look that took the NFL by storm, winning five of their last six games on the way to a second place finish in the NFC South Division. Atlanta garnerned two Pro Bowl selections in running back Michael Turner and wide receiver Roddy White who also made their first visits to the league's all-star game. Quarterback Matt Ryan earned Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year honors and was named NFC Rookie of the Month (October), a first in both categories in team history. The Falcons also finished the regular season with five NFC Player of the Week accolades. Turner earned the honor on three occasions, while Ryan was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after his performance against the Oakland Raiders in Week 9 and wide receiver Harry Douglas was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after returning a punt 61 yards against Carolina in Week 12. In his first season with the Falcons, Turner was tied for second in the final NFL MVP voting as he finished second in the league in rushing (1,699 yards) while topping the 1,000-yard plateau for the first time in his career. Turner also posted 17 rushing touchdowns, which set a new franchise record. White also logged a career year as he set a new franchise record with 1,382 receiving yards in a single-season while becoming the first wide receiver in team history to post back-to-back 1,200-yard campaigns. Defensively, John Abraham set a new team record and a personal best with 16.5 sacks, topping the old record of 16.0 held by Joel Williams, which was set in 1980. At the conclusion of the year, Coach Smith (Coach of the Year), Matt Ryan (Rookie of the Year) and General Manager Thomas Dimitroff (Executive of the Year) all earned honors from Sporting News Magazine, becoming the first trio in the publication's 132-year history to sweep the awards.

2009

The Falcons concluded the 2009 campaign with a 9-7 record and back to back winning seasons for the first time in the franchise's 44-year history, which includes an 11-5 record in 2008. Atlanta ended the season with three consecutive victories and a series sweep over NFC South Division rival Tampa Bay. After two seasons, Falcons Head Coach Mike Smith compiled a coaching record of 20-12 (.625), which is the second-best winning percentage for an Atlanta head coach in their first two seasons with the team. He sits behind Dan Reeves who totaled a 21-11 mark (.656) from 1997-98. As a starter, quarterback Matt Ryan finished the 2009 campaign with a 6-0 home record and after two seasons is 13-1 starting under center. The 2009 season featured many team and individual accomplishments, but none as impressive as wide receiver Roddy White who finished the season with 85 receptions for 1,153 yards and a career-high 11 touchdowns. He became only the second receiver in franchise history to register three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons.

YEAR BY YEAR HISTORY

Tight end Tony Gonzalez, who led all tight ends in NFL history at seasons end in receptions (999), yards (11,807) and touchdowns (82), became the 21st player in NFL history to surpass 11,000 career receiving yards. Among other accomplishments, Gonzalez set the Falcons single-season reception record for tight ends with 83. Defensively, Jonathan Babineaux led the team with a career-high six sacks. Cornerback Brent Grimes finished the year with a team-leading six interceptions and safety Thomas DeCoud was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week (6) for his performance against the Chicago Bears.

The Atlanta Falcons finished the 2010 regular season with a 13-3 record, marking the team's second highest win total in franchise history. The Falcons also claimed the NFC South title and earned the top seed as well as home field advantage in the NFC Playoffs. Combined with an 11-5 record in 2008 and a 9-7 record in 2009, Atlanta has now posted three consecutive winning seasons for the first time in club history and has earned two playoff berths in the last three seasons. In 2010, the Falcons sent a franchise record and NFL-best nine players to the Pro Bowl with DE John Abraham, TE Tony Gonzalez, FB Ovie Mughelli, QB Matt Ryan, RB Michael Turner, WR/ST Eric Weems, and WR Roddy White all voted in, while T Tyson Clabo and CB Brent Grimes were added as alternates at the end of the season. The Birds went 7-1 at the Georgia Dome this season, which was tied for the second-best home record in a single-season in franchise history. This is the fifth time in club history that the team has posted a 7-1 home record, including twice under Head Coach Mike Smith. Only the 1998 team posted a better record, going 8-0 at home. Additionally, Atlanta posted a 5-1 record against NFC South opponents. Since 2008, the Falcons are 11-7 against division foes. Ryan had a breakout season in his third year under center, throwing for a career-high 3,705 yards, 28 touchdown passes and a 91.0 passer rating. Gonzalez continued his climb in the NFL record books, becoming the first tight end in League history to record 1,000 career receptions and his 1,069 catches ranks sixth all-time and second among all active players. His six touchdown catches in 2010 tied him with WR Don Maynard for 10th on the NFL's all-time touchdown receptions list with 88 career TDs and his 12,463 receiving yards are 15th all-time. Defensively, Abraham regained his 2008 form posting 13.0 sacks and two forced fumbles, while Grimes and S William Moore shared the team lead with five interceptions each and Grimes posted a franchise record 23 passes defensed. LB Curtis Lofton led the team in tackles for the second consecutive season with 142 total tackles (101 solo). Atlanta captured the NFC South title for the second time since the NFL's realignment in 2002 and it was the fourth time in team history that the Falcons won their division (1980, 1998, 2004, 2010).

The Atlanta Falcons concluded the 2011 season with a 10-6 record, marking the first time in franchise history that the team has recorded back-to-back seasons with at least 10 wins and third time in the last four seasons. The Falcons captured the fifth seed in the NFC, notching consecutive playoff berths for the first time in franchise history.

The Falcons also clinched a playoff berth for the third time in the last four seasons. Under Head Coach Mike Smith, the Falcons are the only NFC team to post winning records in each of the last four seasons (2008-11).

Smith has posted a four-year record of 43-21, which is not only the best four-year mark in team history, but ranks among the best records in NFL history for first-time head coaches. Smith is tied with Bill Cowher (Pittsburgh – '92-95), Mike Martz (St. Louis – '00-03), Mike Sherman (Green Bay – '00-03), and Mike Tomlin (Pittsburgh – '07-10) for the fourth-best four-year record among first-time head coaches.

The Birds wrapped up the 2011 campaign in record setting fashion, as QB Matt Ryan, RB Michael Turner and WR Roddy White all established new franchise bests. Ryan broke the franchise record for passing yards in a single season after eclipsing QB Jeff George's club record of 4,143 yards set in 1995. Ryan finished the 2011 season with 4,177 passing yards, 29 touchdown passes and a 92.9 quarterback rating, all career highs. White became the Falcons all-time leading receiver with 7,364 career receiving yards, breaking Terance Mathis' franchise record of 7,349 yards set between 1994 and 2001. The seventh year receiver out of UAB also finished the season with 100 receptions and became the first player in team history to record multiple 100-catch seasons. Turner also got in on the action, breaking Gerald Riggs' franchise record of 48 rushing touchdowns set between 1982 and 1988. "The Burner" led the NFC in rushing yards with 1,340 yards and added 11 touchdowns on the season. Under Smith, the Falcons have posted a 56-24 record and their 56 wins are the second most in the NFL during that time and Atlanta's .700 winning percentage is the second-best mark in the NFL over the last five seasons trailing only the New England Patriots (60-20, .750). Smith earned NFL Coach of the Year honors from the Sporting News for the third time in the last five seasons after guiding the Falcons to an NFC best 13-3 record in 2012. He also set a franchise record for most career coaching wins (56). TE Tony Gonzalez continued to show that he is one of the premier tight ends in the NFL, catching 93 passes for 930 yards with eight touchdowns in 2012. Gonzalez was selected to the Pro Bowl for the 13th time in his career last season. The Atlanta Falcons finished the 2013 season with a 4-12 overall record, marking the club's first losing season since 2007. Despite their struggles in 2013, the Falcons have compiled a 60-36 regular season record (.625) which is tied for the sixth best record in the NFL over the last six seasons. TE Tony Gonzalez closed out his career with another strong season, catching 83 passes for 859 yards, and a team-leading eight touchdowns to earn his 14th career Pro Bowl selection. He exits the game as one of its all-time greats ranking second on the NFL's all-time receptions list (1,325), fifth in League history in receiving yards (15,127), and sixth in touchdown catches (111). Gonzalez owns nearly every NFL record at the tight end position including, receptions, receiving yards, touchdowns, 100-yard games, Pro Bowl appearances, and 1,000-yard seasons (four). DOME SWEET DOME

2002 Season

For the first time in 10 years the Falcons sold out all eight of their regular season home games and they increased their season ticket base by more than 100 percent, which set an NFL record for the highest rate of increase in new season tickets sold. VICK RUNS INTO NFL RECORD BOOK

Dec. 1, 2002

Falcons QB Michael Vick single-handedly leads the Falcons to an OT victory over the Minnesota Vikings by establishing a new NFL rushing record for quarterbacks with 173 yards on 10 carries. He also set the NFL record for the highest per-carry average in a single game (17.3 yards). FALCONS MAKE HISTORY IN GREEN BAY

Jan. 4, 2003

Despite losing three of their last four games of the regular season to end with a 9–6–1 record, the Falcons still managed to get into the playoffs thanks to some outside help. Facing seemingly insurmountable odds, the Falcons became the first team ever to defeat the Green Bay Packers in a playoff game at Lambeau Field with a 27–7 victory. Entering the game, the Packers had never lost a home playoff game in 13 tries. A solid performance by Vick, who accounted for 181 combined yards, a stingy outing by the Falcons defense, which forced five turnovers, and an opportunistic special teams unit, which blocked a punt for a touchdown and forced a fumble to set up another, would be all the Falcons would need. It marked the Falcons first playoff appearance and victory since the Super Bowl season of 1998.

Ryan also became the first quarterback in club history to reach the 3,000-yard passing plateau. On his first career NFL passing attempt against Detroit in Week 1, Ryan found wide receiver Michael Jenkins for a 62-yard touchdown to become the first quarterback in the NFL since 2000 to throw a TD on his first career passing attempt. "The new logo depicts a more powerful, aggressive Falcon - one of fast movement. It is also representative of the evolution and direction of our team."

The logo was designed in conjunction with NFL Properties after a lengthy research process, which included conducting focus groups and polls with many fans. In addition, Falcons players, coaches and staff had the opportunity to give their thoughts.

The home uniforms consisted of black jerseys and white pants, while the road attire featured white jerseys and white pants. The team also introduced modified versions of the uniforms, which included wearing black jerseys with black pants at home and white jerseys with black pants on the road.

The jerseys and pants included red piping down the side, which expand at the knee for a fast, streamlined look. They also have "Falcons" stitched at the neckline in a newly developed font and include a number font that was designed specifically for the Falcons, consisting of a drop shadow for more depth. The black jerseys contained white numbers with red trim, while the white jerseys contained red numbers with black trim. The new Falcons logo appeared on the sleeve of both jerseys on a red background. The helmet remained black, however it also featured a metallic flack compared to the previous flat black-colored helmet.

In 2004, the Falcons announced they would wear red jerseys at home and use the black jerseys as their alternate third jersey. Declared the team's alternate third jersey in 2003, red jerseys were worn twice in 2003, against the Tennessee Titans on November 23 and again in the Falcons nationally-televised 20–14 overtime win against the Carolina Panthers on December 7.

The Falcons unveiled throwback uniforms in a Week 2 meeting against the Carolina Panthers to honor the inaugural 1966 team as part of "Alumni Weekend." Atlanta again donned the retro uniforms in a Week 12 meeting against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at the Georgia Dome. Atlanta won both games with the throwback uniforms.

GEORGIA DOME

GEORGIA DOME (1992-PRESENT)
FALCONS HOME RECORD (74-54-0)

In 1992, the Atlanta Falcons and the state of Georgia unveiled to the rest of the world the latest crown jewel in an ever-shining southern skyline with the opening of the Georgia Dome.

The Georgia Dome is the culmination of efforts which began in earnest in June of 1984 as business, civic and governmental leaders gathered to discuss a new stadium in Atlanta. The project continued to gain steam in January of 1988 as a "consensus" of leaders agreed on using a hotel/motel tax increase to finance the local portion of construction.

In January of 1989, Rankin Smith and then-governor Joe Frank Harris signed a "memorandum of understanding" for the Falcons to play in the Dome under a 20-year lease.

The project came to fruition in the spring of 1989 when the state, the Atlanta City Council, and Fulton County Commission approved the construction of the $210 million Dome. Groundbreaking ceremonies took place on November 22, 1989, with construction getting underway on March 27, 1990.

As soon as the project was passed, the Dome became a major 'player' in the sporting community.Rankin Smith was determined to introduce the south's latest showpiece to the football world and he succeeded. With the determined backing of the Smith family, the Georgia Dome played host to the most significant sporting events in the world as global attention was focused on Atlanta for Super Bowl XXVIII played on January 31, 1994 between the Dallas Cowboys and the Buffalo Bills. The Georgia Dome hosted its second Super Bowl on January 30, 2000 between the St. Louis Rams and the Tennessee Titans.

ATLANTA-FULTON COUNTY STADIUM (1966-91) FALCONS RECORD (85-106-2)

Twenty-six years of NFL football in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium came to an end on December 15, 1991 when the Falcons met the Seattle Seahawks for their final game in their very first home.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was built in 51 weeks and gave the city the foundation to support big-league baseball and pro football. Less than a year after construction, the stadium was primped for a cameo appearance by the baseball Braves, who were still playing in Milwaukee at the time, on April 9, 1965. On August 14 of that same year, the Minnesota Vikings defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in the first football game ever played at the stadium. Some local people deemed the Stadium "The Miracle on Capital Avenue."

RING OF HONOR

The Atlanta Falcons organization doesn't officially retire jersey numbers, but considers certain player's jerseys worthy of being honored. Currently, the Falcons do not use any of the jersey numbers honored below. The Falcons Ring of Honor which is featured in the rafters of the Georgia Dome honors individual players and not jerseys.

TOMMY NOBIS (1966–76) — 60

The first-ever player drafted by the Atlanta Falcons for the inaugural 1966 season, Nobis quickly became the first-ever Falcons player to be voted to the Pro Bowl after being selected as a rookie. The stellar middle linebacker was named the NFL Rookie of the Year for his efforts. "Mr. Falcon" led the team in tackles in nine of his 11 seasons, while earning five trips to the Pro Bowl. In a poll conducted in 1970 by ABC to pick the best athlete of the decade of the 1960s, running back O.J. Simpson was number one and Tommy Nobis was number two in the entire country. He had an astronomical 294 total combined tackles as a rookie, still the team's club record. Nobis also intercepted 11 passes during his pro career, returning two for touchdowns. His uniform #60 has been worn by only him during the team's existence. He retired in 1976.

JEFF VAN NOTE (1969–86) — 57

Holds Falcons team marks for most seasons played (18) and most consecutive games played (155). He is second in the team record books with 246 games played and 225 games started. Van Note originally came to the Falcons as a linebacker from Kentucky, but was moved to center by head coach Norm Van Brocklin and eventually earned the starting job at center in 1970. He earned the first of his six Pro Bowl berths in 1974. Van Note is tied with Claude Humphrey for most Pro Bowl appearances by a Falcons player with six. He retired in 1986.

STEVE BARTKOWSKI (1975-85) — 10

The No. 1 overall draft pick in 1975, he was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year after throwing for 1,662 yards and 15 touchdowns. He set every team record in passing, which included 23,468 career yards and 154 touchdown passes in 123 games. He produced three seasons of 3,000 yards or more passing, 12 games of more than 300 yards passing and two seasons of 30 or more touchdown passes. Bartkowski collected over 50 victories as a starting quarterback for the Falcons and guided the team to their first playoff victory in franchise history over the Philadelphia Eagles in 1978.

WILLIAM ANDREWS (1979–86) — 31

A third-round pick, Andrews was among the NFL's elite runners when a shocking knee injury prematurely ended his career. He became just the second running back in NFL history to have two 2,000-yard (combined yards) seasons (the only other player prior to Williams was O.J. Simpson). When he had his first 2,000-yard year, he joined just four other backs who had done so (Jim Brown, Walter Payton, Wilbert Montgomery and Simpson). In his first five seasons in the NFL (1979–83), Andrews outgained every other back in the entire NFL. The bullish Andrews had 8,382 total yards in those five years (an average of 1,677 per year) to lead all NFL runners. Andrews set 19 Falcons club records that began in his very first NFL game in 1979 when he ran for 167 yards in a game at New Orleans where he totaled 189 yards. He was selected to the Pro Bowl in 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1983 and made the NFL All-Rookie team in 1979. He retired in 1987.

JESSIE TUGGLE (1987–2000) — 58

Jessie came to the Falcons as an undrafted free agent in 1987 and retired in August of 2001 as one of the all-time greatest players in franchise history. Nicknamed, "The Hammer", for his bone-jarring tackles, Tuggle is the club's all-time leader in total tackles with 2,065 and enjoyed 12 straight 100-tackle seasons. He led the team in tackles in a season 10 times and amassed 20 or more tackles in a single-game on four occasions with a personal-best of 24 stops. His 14 seasons played, 189 career starts and 209 total games played are third-most ever in Falcons history. Tuggle's five Pro Bowl appearances (1992, 1995, 1995, 1997, 1998) stand tied for the third-most ever by a Falcons player. The Falcons honored #58 with "Jessie Tuggle Day" during halftime of the Falcons game vs. the Detroit Lions on December 22, 2002.

LB JESSIE TUGGLE WAS HONORED AT GEORGIA DOME

RING OF HONOR

The Atlanta Falcons Ring of Honor pays tribute to retired players who made significant contributions to the organization during their playing careers. During the 2003 season, long-time Falcons season-ticket holders nominated a group of players they would like to see inducted into the Atlanta Falcons Ring of Honor. The nine players receiving the highest number of nominations were then placed on a ballot for Falcons fans to cast their votes. The inaugural winners were QB Steve Bartkowski, LB Tommy Nobis, LB Jessie Tuggle and RB William Andrews.

In 2006, a local media contingent nominated four players; DE Claude Humphrey, T Mike Kenn, RB Gerald Riggs and C Jeff Van Note, for induction into the Ring of Honor. Falcons fans then voted and elected C Jeff Van Note as the fifth member of this exclusive club. On October 1, 2006, Van Note was honored at the Georgia Dome with a special halftime eremony as his likeness was raised to rooftops with the original four members. In it's latest Ring of Honor vote in 2008, defensive end Claude Humphrey and offensive tackle Mike Kenn became the sixth and seventh members to be hoisted in the Georgia Dome rafters.

The Falcons selected Bartkowski (1975-85), as the No. 1 overall draft pick in 1975 out of California. He was named the NFL's Rookie of the Year after throwing for 1,662 yards and 15 touchdowns. Bartkowski overcame numerous knee injuries to set every club record in passing, which included 23,468 yards and 154 touchdown passes in his 123 Falcons games. He produced three seasons of 3,000 yards or more passing, 12 games of more than 300 yards passing, and two seasons of 30 or more touchdown passes.

Nobis (1966-76), was the first player ever drafted by the Falcons in 1966. Later that year, he became the first Falcons player to be voted to the Pro Bowl in a season that also included Rookie of the Year honors. Nobis would go on to lead the Falcons in tackles in 9 of 11 seasons, including a team record of 294 tackles in 1966. A five-time Pro bowl selection, Nobis also intercepted 11 passes during his pro career, returning two of them for touchdowns.

Nicknamed "The Hammer" for the vicious way in which he pounded ball carriers, Tuggle (1987-2000) would go on to become the Falcons' career leader in tackles with 2,065 during his illustrious 209-game career. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Tuggle finished his career third on the team's all time lists in most seasons played (14), most games played (209) and started (189), fourth in most consecutive games played (110) and seventh in most consecutive games started (89). Tuggle led the Falcons in tackles for nine straight seasons from 1988-97 and recorded more than 100 tackles for a team record 12 consecutive seasons.

VAN NOTE JOINED THE RING OF HONOR

A third round draft choice of the Falcons in 1979 out of Auburn, Andrews (1979-86) was among the NFL's elite runners when a shocking knee injury prematurely ended one of the NFL's great playing careers. Andrews set 19 Falcons records that began in his very first NFL game in 1979 when he ran for 167 yards at New Orleans. In his first five seasons in the NFL (1979-83), he outgained every other back in the NFL. During that span, he helped lead the Falcons to the playoffs three times, including their first division title in 1980.

Van Note, a six-time Pro Bowler, played the most seasons (18) and most consecutive games (155) in Falcons history. His 246 career games played and 225 overall starts are second in team annuals. Van Note continues to be a presence in the Atlanta community upon his retirement in 1986 with a broadcasting career that includes the Falcons radio network.

Humphrey was a first round pick by the Falcons in the 1968 NFL Draft and completed his career as the all-time sack leader in franchise history with 94.5. Humphrey also ranks third in Atlanta annals with 15.6 sacks in a single season. He is tied for the franchise lead with six Pro Bowl selections including five straight from 1970-74.

Kenn was a mainstay on the Falcons offensive line aas the Michigan alum holds Falcons records in most games played and started (251) while ranking second in most seasons played with Atlanta (17). Kenn also posted a streak of 94 consecutive games played and earned Pro Bowl selections from 1980-84.

RING OF HONOR

DEION SANDERS (1989-93) — 21 Cornerback Deion Sanders was inducted into the team's prestigious Ring of Honor in 2011. Sanders was named the eighth member of this exclusive club by a vote of a local media selection committee.

"When I was dreaming as a kid, I couldn't oftentimes share those dreams because I thought they were so out of the box. Never would people think that a kid from Ft. Myers, Florida, who was small in stature, but big on confidence, would ever have his name recognized in a stadium in the only place he played in which he called home. I want to thank Falcons Owner Arthur Blank and the organization (ironically 21 years later from the year I was drafted) for making my dreams come true," Sanders said.

The induction and celebration of the newest member of the Falcons Ring of Honor will take place at halftime of the nationally-televised Thursday night game between the Falcons and Ravens at the Georgia Dome on November 11. Kick-off is set for 8:20 p.m. on NFL Network.

"Deion Sanders is widely regarded as one of the best cornerbacks in the 91-year history of the National Football League," Falcons Owner & CEO Arthur Blank said. "He epitomized excellence on the playing field and was a tremendously gifted athlete who possessed great speed. Deion excelled as a defender, kick returner, punt returner and on offense on his way to establishing 12 club records. He was an electrifying performer who put fans on the edge of their seats every time he manned his cornerback position or dropped back to receive a kickoff or field a punt. He is without question one of the greatest players in the history of our franchise."

Sanders was a three-time Pro Bowl starter during his Falcons career after being selected as the fifth overall player in the 1989 draft out of Florida State. Considered one of the best pure cornerbacks ever to lace up a pair of cleats, Sanders also doubled as a dangerous return man. He was recently tabbed the 34th best player in the history of the League by a new NFL Films-produced series, The Top 100: NFL's Greatest Players.

Sanders' Falcons career started in memorable fashion as he returned a punt 68 yards for a touchdown in his first NFL game as a rookie against the Los Angeles Rams at Fulton County Stadium. Sanders' All-Rookie season also included him leading all first-year defensive backs with five interceptions and becoming the first Falcons player to ever appear on the cover of Sports Illustrated (on November 13, 1989).

During his productive Falcons career from 1989-93, "Prime Time" established 12 club records for such marks as: most interceptions for touchdowns (2), longest punt return (79t yards), most punt return touchdowns (2), most KOR yards (3,063), most KOR touchdowns (3), longest kickoff return (100t), most combined return touchdowns (8), and most combined return yards (3,967), among others. The electrifying Sanders scored a total of 10 touchdowns in a Falcons uniform on five returns, three interceptions, and two receptions.

SANDERS JOINS THE ROH

"Deion Sanders was the pre-eminent cornerback of his era and perhaps of all-time," noted D. Orlando Ledbetter, sportswriter for the Atlanta Journal-Constitution and a member of the media committee that voted Sanders into the team's Ring of Honor. "No one could argue with his ability to play the game and what he meant to the Falcons."

"Deion was electricity in a football uniform," added Randy Waters, longtime sports reporter at WXIA-TV, who covered Sanders during his Falcons career and is also a member of the media committee. "He had a burning desire to win that helped the Falcons get back into the postseason, and his overall play throughout his career will ultimately help him through the front door in Canton (site of the Pro Football Hall of Fame)."

GERALD RIGGS (1982-88) — 42 Running back Gerald Riggs was the latest inductee into the club's Ring of Honor. Riggs was selected as the ninth member of this exclusive club by a local media selection committee.

"I was surprised and thrilled when Mr. Blank called me to give me the news. To be drafted by the Falcons and spend most of my career here, and then now to be recognized as one of the all-time greats in team history, is truly an honor and a blessing," said Riggs."

RING OF HONOR

"Gerald Riggs is without question one of the greatest players in the history of our franchise," said Falcons Owner & Chairman Arthur Blank. "He was one of the finest players of his time and left an indelible mark on this club as our all-time leading rusher."

Riggs was selected by the Falcons as the ninth overall pick in the 1982 NFL Draft out of Arizona State. He was a three-time Pro Bowler in his seven seasons in Atlanta and finished his Falcons career as the franchise's all-time rushing leader with 6,631 rushing yards. Riggs tallied 48 career touchdowns, which puts him second in team history in terms of rushing touchdowns and fifth in overall touchdowns. Riggs' name litters the Falcons record books as he was one of the most prolific rushers of his time.

Riggs ascended to the starting role in 1984 and made an early statement by setting a new club record with 35 attempts for 202 yards in a 36–28 opening day win over New Orleans. He went on to rush for 1,486 yards and set a club record with 13 touchdowns that year, which set in motion one of the best three-year runs by any running back in franchise history. Riggs followed his breakout 1984 season by earning his first of three Pro Bowl selections, a first-team All-NFC nod from UPI, and second-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press the next year. In 1985, he finished second in the League in rushing and set a franchise record, which would stand for 13 years, with 1,719 yards. Riggs averaged 107.4 yards per game and tallied 10 touchdowns that season while leading the NFL and setting a franchise record with 397 carries.

A third straight 1,000-yard season and a second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance capped the 1986 season, in which Riggs ran for 1,327 yards and nine touchdowns on 343 carries. Riggs tied William Andrews' record for consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, and to this day he remains one of four backs in club history to rush for 1,000 or more yards in three straight seasons.

Riggs ended his Falcons career as the club's all-time leading rusher and held records for career rushing touchdowns (48), rushing touchdowns in a season (13), 100-yard games in a season (9), career 100-yard games (25), single-game rushing attempts (41), rushing attempts in a season (397), career attempts (1,587), yards in a game (202), 1,000-yard seasons (3), consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (3), and rushing yards in a season (1,719). He currently ranks 10th on the Falcons all-time scoring list with 288 points
