Art Modell - 43rd NFL Anniversary

Art Modell's name has long been synonymous with the NFL. His signature is on some of the most important elements of the league, including broadcasting, collective bargaining and competition. As he marks this milestone year as an owner, the editorial staff is taking the liberty of offering a pictorial look at his career for the cover of his 43rd media guide.

Art has always adamantly advised us that he is to remain in the background in regard to his team's publications, taking a back seat to his players, coaches and staff. We hope he will forgive us for walking down memory lane at his expense.

For many years, we've admired two intriguing photographs in Art's office, that of three close friends—all comic geniuses—Walter Matthau, Jack Lemmon and Lucille Ball. One could have guessed that Art—always coming fast and furious with those unforgettable one-liners—would have three great comedic friends. Walter, Jack and Art met on the set of The Fortune Cookie, a film that was shot at Cleveland Stadium and released in 1966. Although we can't explain Lucy's photograph, we know it would make for an interesting story. The inscription on the photograph reads: For Pat and Art, who obviously live for beauty. Love, Lucy.

As for the front cover, from the top, it's a who's who directory of some of the important people who touched Art's NFL career. This is for you, Art, from our hearts, and we hope you enjoy.

• Art Modell; Ozzie Newsome and Art in the now-famous golf cart; Brian Billick and ABM

• Art and Pete Rozelle; Vince Lombardi and ABM; Baltimore Mayor Martin O'Malley and Art following Super Bowl XXXV; Johnny Carson, Buddy Hackett and Art

• Art on gameday in the late 70s; Jim Brown and Art Modell

• ABM at Raymond James Stadium holding the Vince Lombardi trophy following the Super Bowl victory over the New York Giants

• Art with Ray Lewis; Art with his wife, Patricia

Art Modell | Owner/CEO

Years with Ravens: 8
 Years in NFL: 43
 Purchased Browns: March 21, 1961
 High School: New Utrecht (Brooklyn, NY)
 Joined Air Force: 1943
 Born: June 23, 1925
 Birthplace: Brooklyn, NY

From dropping out of high school at the age of 15 to help his financially-strapped family after the death of his father, to ownership of NFL championship teams, to his generous contributions to community services, Art Modell embodies a true American success story. He's been described as bold, competitive, tough and imaginative. Caring, kind and humorous are also words associated with the 78-year-old NFL patriarch.

This is Art's 43rd year in the NFL. Perhaps no one knows more about the realities of competing in the league than Modell, one of 15 finalists for the league's Hall of Fame in 2001. He has lived much of the NFL's history. He doesn't just know about Vince Lombardi. He worked alongside the legendary coach to complete the league's first collective bargaining agreement. He doesn't just appreciate the powerful blending of the NFL and television, he negotiated, along with Pete Rozelle, the first standard-setting network TV contracts.

For Modell, the years and seasons have been dramatic and traumatic, exhilarating and disappointing, full of joy and heart-wrenching. He vacationed with George Halas, stood up for a falsely-accused Ray Lewis, and used every resource he could muster to help the dying Ernie Davis (Syracuse). His close friends include Wellington Mara and Jim Brown, the standout on Art's 1964 NFL title team. Shannon Sharpe, who was on the Ravens' Super Bowl XXXV championship squad, says: "Art talked with me every day. He knew everything about what was going on in my life. He showed real concern. But, it wasn't just me. He knew the practice squad players' names. He treated them the same. He was out at practice when it was 100 degrees and when the December snows came. I loved playing for him."

Art expects the highest level of effort from his associates, but he always applies his noted sense of humor. "Art wants to know everything we're doing, and he directs us every day. He's demanding, but he makes me laugh and smile at the same time. The tougher the situation, the better his humor." Ozzie Newsome, Ravens general manager and executive vice president, says, "One of the main reasons I came to Baltimore was to work for an icon like Art," Ravens head coach Brian Billick offers, "Certainly all of the selfish reasons you win a Super Bowl were there for us. But, I can assure you that all of us at the Ravens wanted to win that trophy for Art, too."

In his previous 42 seasons of NFL ownership, Modell won two NFL championships (1964 and 2000), and three other teams ('65, '68 and '69) played in NFL title games. Three more teams ('86, '87 and '89) lost memorable AFC Championship battles against John Elway and the Broncos. Nine other teams earned playoff berths, while six more entered the season's final week with a chance to make the postseason.

"I certainly believe Art belongs in the Hall of Fame. I don't know a person who has done more for the league than Modell, especially through television."

— Wellington Mara, NY Giants owner
 January, 2002

With his 27 winning seasons in 42 years, Modell has earned respect and recognition, but he might be more noted for his efforts on behalf of the league. In fact, his fellow owners surprised him with a salute at a league meeting in 1990 with this proclamation: "The league has always had its share of special people. They have been the founders, owners, officials and coaches who have stayed the course over long periods of years, and who have made special contributions to the welfare of the league and its members. Art, you are one of those special people."

Modell is the only elected NFL president in league history, serving in that capacity from 1967 through 1969. He chaired the negotiations for the first collective bargaining agreement with the players in 1968, leading a committee that included Lombardi and Jim Finks, another NFL Hall of Famer.

Modell might be most noted for his tenure as the NFL's broadcast chairman. The contracts he negotiated over a 31-year period (1962-93) set the standard for sports TV. "The money generated from our TV contracts made our league strong, and it helped convince our ownership of the importance of all teams competing from the same financial base," Modell says. "These contracts leveled the playing field. It gave us competitive balance that is our hallmark today. It meant that a small community like Green Bay could compete with a New York."

Modell, who purchased the Cleveland Browns for what was then an unprecedented price ($4 million in 1961), is the person who brought the NFL back to Baltimore on February 9, 1996. It was not an easy move to make for the proud Modell. "I didn't get into this business to go bankrupt. I'm in it to win, and I couldn't continue to make the best effort to win in Cleveland with the stadium situation we had. After I left, the politicians found the funds for a new stadium. I don't believe I could have gotten that done," Modell says.

Modell did not leave the fans of Cleveland empty handed. He left the name "Browns," the team colors and the great Browns' history. "That didn't happen in Baltimore with the Colts, in Brooklyn with the Dodgers, or in other cities that have lost sports teams," Modell explains. "I had to do something for the fans who had supported us for so long."

Art and his wife, Pat, (see page 8) are the parents of John and David. John, who coordinated the installation and use of the innovative scoreboards at M&T Bank Stadium, is a composer/producer and president of Modular Entertainment, a music and multimedia production company. John also coordinates the Ravens' home game entertainment schedule as the vice president of special projects. He and his wife, Tracy, an artist, live in Los Angeles with their son, Dylan Scot (3/21/92), and daughter, Isabella Sophia (4/28/98).

David, the Ravens' president and chief operating officer, lives in Baltimore and has four children: daughters, Breslin Ebright (2/5/90) and Collier Honora (10/6/93) and sons, Arthur Edward (11/23/91) and David Orrick Jr. (9/25/96).

"Art Modell has been a solid ambassador for the league. He has an exemplary track record for community service. And he's demonstrated great compassion for his players, including the establishment of the 'The Inner Circle' in Cleveland. Modell has also been proactive in minority hiring: two of the NFL's highest-ranking African-American front office executives are with the Ravens."

- Induction into the Cleveland Sports Hall of Fame (6/11/98)

"The first real hero I remember was in 1935, and he was a player with the Brooklyn Dodgers who played without a helmet—Roy 'Father' Lumpkin from Georgia Tech. I enjoyed all sports, but as a fan, I had a passion for football...I look back now at the NFL and marvel at the vision of George Halas, Dan Reeves, Art Rooney and the Mara family. And I have deep, deep regard and affection for the older players—players who made this game what it is today...players who played for the love of the sport. I'm proud to be a part of this game today."

COMMUNITY IMPACT

- Raised over $600,000 for Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Central Maryland ("Art of Caring Awards Banquet," photo previous page) and the Arthritis Foundation (Lifetime Achievement Award) through two events that saluted Art Modell in 2002
- Joined wife, Pat, to host major fundraiser for the Hospice of Baltimore in 2001
- Among the many Baltimore-area organizations Art generously funds are the United Way of Central Maryland, House of Ruth and Police Athletic League
- Serves on the Executive Committee of the Greater Baltimore Committee
- Served on the board of the world-renowned Cleveland Clinic for 20 years, including his last seven as president
- Served on the boards for Baldwin Wallace College and Cleveland State University
- Served on the board of Churchill Downs

"According to the individuals who run the clubs, the NFL's most respected owner is Art Modell. Modell, they say, makes it a point to get along with the many representatives of the league's many cliques and factions. He can be tough, but he plays fair. In a sense, they say Modell is the NFL."

— Los Angeles Times, Jan., 25, 1987

- Former board member of National City Bank, National City Corporation and the Ohio Bell Telephone Company
- Serves on the Board of the Eisenhower Medical Center (Palm Desert, CA)

PATRICIA MODELL

Like her husband, Art, and her sons, John and David, Patricia Modell believes in getting involved in the community. Pat is on the boards of the Kennedy Krieger Institute, the Walters Art Gallery, the Hospice of Baltimore and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. She helped establish and direct the Ravens Foundation for Families, and co-chaired (with Art) major fundraisers for Hospice (2001) and Cystic Fibrosis (1997). She is also instrumental in raising substantial funds and awareness for the House of Ruth, a shelter for abused women and children in Baltimore.

After graduation from college (New Rochelle), Patricia entered the acting profession. She soon appeared in three Broadway plays in her hometown of New York, where she also acted in over 200 live TV shows. The talented actress then moved to Los Angeles where she appeared in three series, including the long-running "People's Choice" and as Meg Baldwin in "General Hospital."

Patricia acted in other TV shows and movies. She retired from the entertainment industry in 1969, married Art Modell and moved to Cleveland with her two sons. Pat quickly became an important part of her new home, dedicating her time and energy to a variety of important projects. She co-chaired major fundraisers for the Hospice of the Western Reserve and the Diabetes Association of Greater Cleveland. She also helped raise funds for the Make-A-Wish Foundation, the Playhouse Square Foundation, the Cerebral Palsy Association, Ursuline College, the Cleveland Musical Arts Foundation and the Cleveland Ballet.

David Modell | President/ COO

Years with Ravens: 8

Years in NFL: 27

High School: The Gunnery (Washington, CT)

Born: August 16, 1961

Attended: Wittenberg University

Birthplace: Los Angeles, CA

Everything the Baltimore Ravens accomplished since the franchise began in 1996 includes David Modell's fingerprints. From the selection of the team name and colors, to the move to M&T Bank Stadium in 1998, to the hiring of Brian Billick, to the Super Bowl XXXV championship, to the dramatic roster transition of the last two seasons, David coordinated the efforts as team president.

Modell's efforts point to a clearly defined bottom line. "Our number one goal is to win. This oversimplification cannot be re-stated often enough. It shapes every decision and action this organization takes," Modell says. "I don't want us just to be the best football team. We aspire to be the best business organization. As our mission statement proclaims: 'Here, the extraordinary must be commonplace.' We want to set the standard on and off the field."

With consent and advice from his father, Modell set and organized the structure for the franchise after the team arrived in Baltimore in 1996. "You have to have a vision and set realistic goals. Like a coach has to get the players in the right position to make plays, we aim to get the rest of our associates in the right spots to make us efficient and winning," Modell says. "You have to communicate effectively internally, as well as externally, and hold everyone accountable. Plus, we continue to embody my father's philosophy of being first-class in every way and to have compassion in all we do. And, we try to have fun doing all of this."

David spearheaded the search for a new head coach after the '98 season and the subsequent hiring of Brian Billick. Modell organized a group of Ravens executives and detailed a profile of what the ideal head coach should be. The group then discussed and thoroughly researched approximately 50 possible candidates before focusing on Billick. "I was very impressed with David's approach, and he led the Ravens and me to Brian," Art Modell recalls.

David almost predicted the Ravens' Super Bowl XXXV victory. In an interview with NFL Films in the spring of 1999, Modell said: "How cool will it be to wake up in my house with the Super Bowl trophy next to my bed for a night? How cool will it be for others within the Ravens to do the same? How cool will it be for our fans to have that trophy in Baltimore?"

And the younger Modell was not selfish with the championship. The Ravens' Super Bowl trophy was touched by over 100,000 hands of fans before being placed in a trophy case. "We made sure that our fans knew that we understood that they are very much a part of our championship. Their support, their stadium and their investment in us are major factors to our winning. Sharing the trophy with them symbolized that union," Modell says.

Hang around David for a short time, and you're likely to hear the word "inclusive." "We try and make everyone in the organization understand that what they do is important to our success," Modell says. "At the same time, anything that involves the fans, we try to include the fans in the decision. Before we built the stadium, we asked our season ticket holders what was important to them at the new facility. We asked, listened, and then made sure we gave them what they wanted."

David coordinated the opening of M&T Bank Stadium in 1998, which included a 3-day football festival in downtown Baltimore that attracted over 100,000 fans. Modell then coached his associates at the Ravens to create an atmosphere at the first home games that would give fans the impression "that we've been in the stadium for years." He hired J.D. Powers to survey the fans at the first few home games to test the results. "We received high marks in everything from video boards, to ticket takers, to ingress and egress. It said a lot about our associates and the good people who work with us on game days." It also said a lot about Modell's ability to organize and motivate.

Both Baltimore Magazine and the Baltimore Business Journal have saluted Modell. Baltimore Magazine picked him as one of "40 Leaders Under 40" in May of 2001, and he was picked by the

ADMINISTRATION • 2003 BALTIMORE RAVENS FAN & MEDIA GUIDE

Baltimore Business Journal (January of 2000) as one of “40 Under 40” leaders who help Baltimore industry and the community in general. He received the Better Business Bureau of Greater Maryland’s “Outstanding Achievement Award” in the fall of 2001.

When the team arrived in Baltimore in 1996, David coordinated a fan vote through The Baltimore Sun to select the team nickname — the Ravens. Working with staff, NFL Properties and Baltimore area focus groups, he directed the process to select the team colors and uniform design. “It was a collaborative effort. The fans got involved, my family, obviously Art, plus many members of the organization.” In 1999, David once again involved the fans in the vote for a new Ravens’ logo.

No person in the Ravens’ organization has more hands-on experience in as many different areas of the company as David Modell. Starting in Cleveland Stadium and game-day operations when he was 14, the 42-year old has worked in every phase of the team except playing and coaching. He worked in the team’s ticket office, public relations department, and started the marketing division in 1985.

As the Ravens’ president and chief operating officer, he runs the club’s daily activities. He coordinated the many organizational details that came with the Ravens’ run through the 2000 playoffs and eventual Super Bowl title. David also serves on the NFL’s Stadium and Expansion Committees.

David made his first mark with the franchise and in league circles with the work he did marketing the Browns. The younger Modell developed a series of programs that enhanced the team’s image and provided needed revenues. Other teams have copied some of David’s innovations, including team television productions (weekly shows and preseason games produced by the team rather than selling those rights), an elaborate training camp magazine that is distributed to fans, and advertising moments of exclusivity at home games. The team’s original television ventures were both produced and sold by Modell.

Modell, who received the Ed Block Courage Award for Courage, Compassion, Commitment and Community in 2002, is an active member of 5 Baltimore boards of directors: the United Way of Central Maryland, the Port Discovery Children’s Museum, Father Martin’s Ashley, the University of Maryland Medical System’s Shock Trauma and the Maryland Public Television Foundation. David is also the chairman of the Ravens Foundation for Families. “Community involvement has always been a hallmark of Art Modell’s franchise. My father and mother (Patricia) set the example. They not only recognize where they can help, they get things done. I’m fortunate to be able to follow their lead,” David says.

In Cleveland, Modell was president of the Diabetes Association of Greater Cleveland, and he headed its development fundraising. He was a member of the Board of Trustees for the Cleveland Urban League and the Convention and Visitors Bureau. Modell also worked with the Lake County Boy Scouts Association and served on the Visiting Committee of the Athletic Department at Case Western Reserve University.

As a junior high school student, David worked Browns games as a member of the grounds crew. In the next few years, he spent time as a front office aide and training camp intern. He graduated from The Gunnery School (Washington, CT), where he delivered a stirring commencement address in May of 2001, and attended Wittenberg University.

Modell joined the Browns in a full-time capacity in the team’s ticket office in 1981. He then worked 2 years as the front office manager for the Fernwood Inn, a resort in the Pocono Mountains (1982-84), before returning to Cleveland in October of 1984.

David is the father of daughters, Breslin Ebright (2/5/90) and Collier Honora (10/6/93), and sons, Arthur Edward (11/23/91) and David Orrick Jr. (9/25/96).

When newcomers visit M&T Bank Stadium for a Ravens' home game for the first time, they often marvel at the spectacle that goes on beyond the game being played. From the dynamics of the giant SMARTVISION video screens, to the pageantry of pre-game introductions, to the sounds and fun of Baltimore's Marching Ravens, fans get a lot more than a football game. John Modell is responsible for all of this game-day orchestration that makes each Ravens home game a spectacular and memorable event.

Modell, who was named the Ravens' vice president of special projects in February of 1999, spearheads the Ravens' mission to provide the best game-day entertainment in professional sports. Modell, 43, is the eldest son of owner Art and Pat Modell and is president of Modular Entertainment, a music and multimedia production company in Los Angeles.

John was involved in the design and realization of the SMARTVISION video screens at M&T Bank Stadium. The two high-resolution displays are made up of over 9 million LEDs and measure 100-foot wide by 24-foot high—the largest screens in any sports venue. The visuals are used to combine graphics, scoring, stats and cutting-edge video into one multi-functional format that is brighter and more visually dynamic than anything previously experienced by fans. This new kind of video technology was the first of its kind in the world and has influenced scoreboards and video screens in every stadium built since M&T Bank Stadium opened in 1998.

Modell is very proud of the team's game-day presentations. "We've tapped into some of the finest talent from the video and film industry to create the bold visual look of the content seen on the SMARTVISION boards," Modell says. "Along with our outstanding sound system, the Ravens provide the best in-stadium experience in sports. That's what our fans deserve and have come to expect. We try to set the standard in everything we do."

John also plays a key role in bringing other kinds of entertainment to M&T Bank Stadium, securing concerts such as Metallica and the HFSival. "Our stadium was built with concerts in mind. With the best technical facilities and acoustics, we have, hands down, the best stadium concert facility in this part of the country. We are well-suited to compete in a marketplace that previously only included venues in the D.C. area," Modell says.

Modell majored in music composition at the California Institute of the Arts (Cal Arts). Prior to that, John attended high school at University School in Cleveland, where he played defensive tackle.

John is a composer and music producer, creating music for TV, commercials and records. With his company, Modular Entertainment, he is also involved in the design and production of live multimedia events and installations. He is the author of the Ravens Fight Song. John and his wife, Tracy, an artist, are the parents of Dylan Scot (3/21/92) and Isabella Sophia (4/28/98).

BALTIMORE RAVENS FIGHT SONG —John Modell, Composer

Flying High,
 Fierce pride in our eye —
 The Ravens of Baltimore.

On dark wings we fly,
 Honor bound for the sky —
 Over Maryland we'll always soar

For Glory we vie,
 And our town will stand high —
 To our foes we say, "Nevermore!"

'Cause it's FIGHT, FIGHT
 With all of our might —
 For our old Baltimore!

Steve Bisciotti is the minority owner of the Baltimore Ravens and plans to purchase the entire franchise from Art Modell in early 2004. Bisciotti is a lifelong Baltimore-area resident and a self-described avid Ravens fan. "I have the utmost respect for Art Modell, and I'm thrilled to be associated with the Ravens. I enjoy being involved with a team that is one of the NFL's top franchises," Bisciotti says. "I'm looking forward to owning the team. The way the Modells have allowed me to be involved over the last three years is the absolute optimal way to enter the NFL. I believe I'm ready, and they're delivering a quality team to me. Being part of a professional team in my hometown is very special to me, and I understand how important the Ravens are to the community."

Modell, who has owned the majority of his NFL franchise since he purchased it (as the Cleveland Browns) in 1961, is impressed with Bisciotti. "As we've become more familiar with Steve, it is apparent why he has enjoyed such business success. He is a quick study, bright, plus he's a pleasure to be around. He'll be passionate about the Ravens winning. The respect he's shown toward me, my family and to the NFL is impressive and appreciated. He's a winner," Modell says.

"In many ways, Art is the NFL. I'd be shortsighted not to take advantage of his expertise."

— Steve Bisciotti, Minority Owner

Bisciotti and Modell have become friends. "Art is a great resource for me, and I want to keep him involved with the team. I'll need his advice and direction over the next few years. In many ways, Art is the NFL. I'd be shortsighted not to take advantage of his expertise," Bisciotti adds.

An Anne Arundel County businessman and an enthusiastic supporter of Baltimore-area teams and the University of Maryland athletics, Bisciotti founded Aerotek, now known as the Allegis Group, in 1983. He helped build it into one of the world's leading technical staffing firms. As his businesses succeeded, Steve quietly contributed and continues to give generously to a variety of Baltimore-area community projects important to him and his family.

Bisciotti was born on April 10, 1960, in Severna Park, MD, and graduated from Salisbury State University in 1982. Steve and his wife, Renee, reside in Millersville, MD, with their two sons, Jason, 18, and Jack, 16.

Ozzie Newsome | GM/ Executive VP

College: Alabama
 Years with Ravens: 8
 Years in NFL/Franchise: 26

 High School: Colbert County (Leighton, AL)
 Born: March 16, 1956
 Birthplace: Muscle Shoals, AL

Ozzie Newsome, promoted to general manager and executive vice president in the fall of 2002, is a man who prefers to be in the background, but his credentials put him in the spotlight. He is the architect of the Ravens Super Bowl XXXV championship team, and he is the mastermind behind a dramatic roster change that rid the team of salary cap headaches while continuing to compete at a high level. Ozzie is legendary in his home state of Alabama, where he earned college Hall of Fame honors. Plus, he's counted among the elite players in NFL history, capped by his induction into the NFL Hall of Fame (1999).

Yet for all of his success and notoriety, Newsome's style is notable. Humble is his way. Gentle is his manner. Hard work is his mantra. As a player, he was about production without flamboyance. As one of the NFL's top executives, he credits those around him for the Ravens' success.

"We have the support of ownership to assemble the best rosters. We have a head coach who is an outstanding teacher and motivator, plus he has a year-round program for the players that works," Newsome says. "And one of our real strengths is that most of the personnel department has been together since the franchise started. We know each other well. We know how to evaluate what each of us reports as we go through the scouting process of bringing in new Ravens, either through the draft or free agency," Newsome says.

Newsome and his staff assembled the youngest team in NFL history in 2002, and most observers predicted the Ravens would win 2-to-4 games. Instead, Baltimore entered game 15 with a 7-7 mark and a chance to be the AFC's top Wild Card playoff team. Two last-minute losses to Cleveland (14-13) and at Pittsburgh (34-31) gave the Ravens a 7-9 mark a year ago. "When we started our roster change, I was worried that we wouldn't have 53 NFL-quality players. But, thanks to Ozzie and his group, we did. Every one of those rookies last season deserved to be in the NFL," head coach Brian Billick says.

Newsome is trying to win more titles and believes the heart of a Super Bowl champion comes from the draft. "You can't make many mistakes drafting, especially in the first rounds, and expect to win a title," Newsome says. "You then supplement your drafted players with selective use of free agency...the right veteran at the right price." If you spend any time with Newsome during the free agency period, you hear that mantra.

"Drafts are exciting," Newsome explains. "They remind me of getting ready for a big game, like the Steelers or a playoff game. We feel pretty good about the players we acquired over our 8 Ravens drafts. We have a certain type of player we want. Our scouts do a good job of finding 'Raven-type' players."

The first draft (1996) under Newsome's direction produced 2 perennial Pro Bowlers in LT Jonathan Ogden and ILB Ray Lewis, who was the MVP in Super Bowl XXXV and the NFL's Most Valuable Defensive player in 2000. Also making the Pro Bowl (twice) as a return specialist was Jermaine Lewis, a 5th-round pick in that draft. In his 2nd draft (1997), Newsome picked

"I'm not so sure I wouldn't start my franchise with Ozzie Newsome, the personnel whiz of the Ravens. In a salary-cap world, where rosters are overhauled every offseason, the guy in charge of finding the players may be the most important guy in any NFL building. The good talent evaluators allow you to compete. The great ones win you championships."

linebackers Peter Boulware and Jamie Sharper, S Kim Herring and C Jeff Mitchell—all 4 started against the Giants in the Super Bowl XXXV victory. Boulware was a consensus choice for the NFL's 1997 Rookie of the Year, made the Pro Bowl 3 times and led the AFC in sacks in 2001 with 15.

In 1998, Newsome coordinated the selections of CB Duane Starks and WR Patrick Johnson with the team's first 2 picks. Starks tied for the NFL's INT lead among rookies that year (equaling Charles Woodson's 5 thefts). Starks added 5 more thefts in his 2nd season, led the Ravens with 6 in 2000, and thrilled Ravens fans with a 49-yard INT for a TD against the Giants in the Super Bowl. Johnson caught the game-winning TD in the final minute of the Ravens' first win at Tennessee in 2000, allowing Baltimore to be the first visiting team to win at the Titans' new home.

Newsome continued his hot hand in 1999, when he tabbed Arizona CB Chris McAlister with the 10th pick in the 1st round. Most experts believe McAlister will be the next member of the Ravens' defense to earn Pro Bowl honors. Newsome and his staff also picked 2 starters, LG Edwin Mulitalo and WR Brandon Stokley, in the 4th-round of the '99 draft. Stokley opened the scoring in SB XXXV with a 38-yard TD grab.

Newsome and his staff hit the mark again with the 2000 draft, picking RB Jamal Lewis (the team's all-time leading rusher) with the 1st of 2 first-round choices. Lewis set a Ravens' team record with 1,364 rushing yards as a rookie, and added 1,327 rushing yards in 2002, his second active season with the Ravens. WR Travis Taylor was also selected in the first round of 2000, and he was the team's leading wide receiver until a fractured clavicle placed him on injured reserve after 9 games in his rookie season. Taylor came back with 42 catches for 560 yards in 2001, and led the Ravens with 869 receiving yards in 2002 when he caught 61 passes. Standout DE Adalius Thomas was a 6th-round selection in that draft.

The first 4 selections from the 2001 draft are standouts: TE Todd Heap (1) went to the Pro Bowl in 2002 after leading the Ravens with 68 catches; LB Ed Hartwell (4) and CB Gary Baxter (2) were Baltimore's top 2 tacklers last season; and G/C Casey Rabach (3) might be the NFL's top offensive line backup, and he started 5 games in 2002.

The 2002 draft, which produced 2 immediate starters, the punter and return specialist, might not top the Ogden/Ray Lewis/Jermaine Lewis draft, but it is notable already. First-round choice Ed Reed led the Ravens with 5 INTs and made every NFL all-rookie team. DE Tony Weaver (2), who started every game, was called the “best rookie defensive lineman I’ve seen,” by defensive coordinator Mike Nolan. P Dave Zastudil (4) tied for second in the NFL with 31 punts inside the 20. Return specialist Lamont Brightful (6) set a team record with a 95-yard punt return while averaging 16.1 and 20.6 yards on punt and kickoff returns, respectively. Two other 6th rounders, RB Chester Taylor and S

Chad Williams, made important contributions as rookies and are expected to be productive NFL players for a long time.

Not only have Ozzie's drafts been productive, but free agent signings have proven fruitful, too. One of the game's all-time great players, former CB Rod Woodson, made the Pro Bowl as a safety for 3 seasons, his 8th, 9th and 10th trips to Hawaii. DE Michael McCrary made the Pro Bowl twice and was a 1st alternate in 2000. Along with adding TE Shannon Sharpe (pictured below with Ozzie in 2001), Newsome recruited and signed DT Sam Adams, who produced his first 2 Pro Bowl seasons as a Raven (2000-01). "We've been able to recruit and sign veterans who helped us win a Super Bowl and kept us competitive in other seasons," Newsome says.

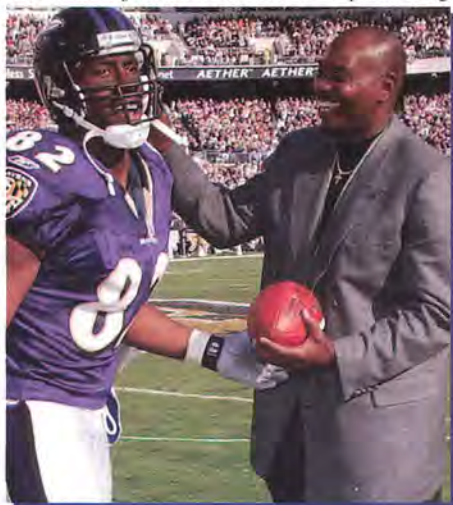

2000 EXECUTIVE OF THE YEAR OZZIE NEWSOME
"The Ravens needed help on offense, so Newsome signed the NFL's two all-decade tight ends, Shannon Sharpe and Ben Coates, and added QB Trent Dilfer for insurance. The Ravens cashed in the Dilfer policy in November. Newsome chose halfback Jamal Lewis in the draft ahead of Thomas Jones, and Lewis rushed for 1,364 yards. Newsome also signed Pro Bowl tackle Sam Adams for the defense."

Newsome's influence is not only on the Ravens' franchise, but in the NFL. Ozzie is a member of the NFL's Competition Committee, and he was one of the first persons selected by Commissioner Paul Tagliabue to serve on the NFL's Diversity Committee that was established in 2002.

One of the first things Art Modell did when he moved his franchise to Baltimore was invite Newsome to join him as the Ravens' vice president of player personnel. "I've known Ozzie for over 25 years," Modell says. "I knew him as a great player, a Hall of Fame-type athlete. He had tremendous abilities as an athlete, but he worked hard to be the best."

When Newsome retired following the 1990 season, his 13th with the Cleveland Browns, Modell asked him to join the front office as a special assignment scout. Two years later, "the Wizard" was promoted to assistant to the head coach/offense-pro personnel. "I had to find out what direction my career would go," Newsome explains. "Art gave me the opportunity to work with the coaches, and I enjoyed that. At the same time, I increased my experience with the personnel department and decided that's where I wanted my career to head."

In 1994, Newsome was named the team's director of pro personnel. While he continued to help on the field, Newsome provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended players the team should try to acquire. "I've seen some former players who can't make the transition to the front office. That has not been the case with Ozzie. He attacks his job the same way he became a great player—by working harder than those around him and learning everything he needs to know to be successful," Modell adds.

Newsome has gained induction into 4 halls of fame—the NFL's Pro Football HOF in Canton, OH (1999), the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame (1994), the NCAA Hall of Fame (1994) and the State of Alabama (1995). Placed prominently on the wall of Newsome's office is a sideline portrait of Paul "Bear" Bryant. "Coach helped me grow up. He pushed me further than I thought I could go, both on and off the field," Newsome says.

Until Sharpe broke his records in 2001, Newsome's pro career was the best of any tight end in NFL history. His 662 receptions (for 7,980 yards) are the 2nd most ever caught by a TE, and the most in Browns history. Ozzie ended his career as the 4th-leading NFL receiver of all time. He earned three Pro Bowls (1981, 1984-85) and was a four-time winner of the Cleveland Touchdown Club's Offensive Player of the Year award (1978, 1981, 1983 and 1984). His consecutive game reception streak of 150 is the second longest in NFL history.

Newsome, who was named to the All-NFL team of the 1980's (2nd team), consistently received All-AFC and All-NFL honors throughout his career. Ozzie was a 1978 number one draft choice, along with Clay Matthews, and the 2 are among an elite group of Browns to play in 3 decades. The others are Gene Hickerson (1958-60, 62-73), Dick Schafrath (1959-71) and Don Cockroft (1968-80).

Winner of the 1990 Byron "Whizzer" White Award as the NFL's top community volunteer, Newsome is widely known for his willingness to help those in need. Ozzie, who works out every day, his wife, Gloria, and their son, Michael Ryan, live in Cockeysville, MD.

Brian Billick | Head Coach

College: Brigham Young
 Years with Ravens: 5
 Years in Coaching: 25
 Years in NFL: 12
 High School: Redlands (CA)
 Born: February 28, 1954
 Birthplace: Fairborne, OH

Brian Billick, now in his 5th year as the head coach of the Ravens, embraces challenges in an enthusiastic and bold manner. In his 1st year as head coach of the Ravens in 1999, he took the team to its 1st ever winning season (8-8). Year two resulted in a 12-4 regular season mark and a sweep through the playoffs to the Super Bowl XXXV championship. In 2001, with a spate of injuries to important contributors, his team battled to a 10-6 mark and advanced to the Divisional Playoff round.

Despite the success in his first 3 seasons in Baltimore, Billick's coaching job a year ago may have been his best. After an unprecedented salary cap cleansing and equipped with the youngest team in NFL history (19 1st-year players on the opening day roster), the 2002 Ravens finished 7-9. Without LB Ray Lewis (5 games played) and starting QB Chris Redman, who missed the final 10 games of the season with a back injury, Baltimore scratched and clawed its way to a 7-7 mark and legitimate playoff aspirations, but lost heartbreaking games to Cleveland (14-13) and at Pittsburgh (34-31) in the final 2 games.

Billick has clearly demonstrated an ability to take NFL players to the highest levels of achievement. There's the Super Bowl victory following the 2000 season (see chart, pg.21), along with other successes in his 4 seasons as head coach. And there are the numbers, offensively and defensively: In 1998, Billick coordinated a Vikings' offense that scored the most points in NFL history (556); and the 2000 Ravens' defense set the NFL's 16-game standard for fewest points (165). Prior to Billick's arrival in Baltimore in 1999, the Ravens' defense had been ranked no higher than 22nd in the league over the team's first 3 seasons. In each of Coach Billick's first 3 years as the Ravens' head coach, Baltimore's defense ranked 2nd in the league.

"As a leader, your goals and aspirations must be strong enough to sustain you through the toughest of times. And trust me, if your goals are set high enough and your aspirations are worthy enough, there will be tough times."

— Billick, in his book,
Competitive Leadership

"Success in any sport at any level is based, on a large part, on talent. Usually, the teams with the most talent win," Billick says. "But, I do believe coaching makes a difference. If I didn't, I'd find another challenge. I believe coaching and teaching are synonymous. We are teachers. We have a staff of good teachers, and I do think we make a difference." Already, two of Brian's former assistants have become NFL head coaches – Cincinnati's Marvin Lewis (Ravens defensive coordinator, 1996-2001) and Jacksonville's Jack Del Rio (Ravens linebackers coach, 1999-2001).

Spend enough time with Coach Billick, and you're going to hear two words often: passion and accountability. They are cornerstones to his foundation of coaching and leadership. These are ingredients some players and staff lacked when he took over as head coach of the Ravens in 1999. You want passion? Watch the Ravens play games or practice. You want accountability? The team's performance under Billick speaks for itself.

"You have to have passion for the work you do to succeed. If a player doesn't like to study, practice or train, doesn't like the physicality of the game, he's going to have a very difficult time succeeding. Passion is a lubricant for success," Billick explains. "Accountability is obvious. You have to perform. Accountability is also a sign of respect for your team. It is a reflection of a team's integrity when individuals take responsibility for their actions."

In his 2nd year at any level of being a head coach, Billick directed the 2000 Ravens to the ultimate prize with a 34-7 Super Bowl victory over the New York Giants. Baltimore finished with a 16-4 record, blowing by opponents in the playoffs: 21-3 over Denver, 24-10 at Tennessee, and 16-3 at Oakland in the AFC Championship game.

The Super Bowl champion Ravens finished 1st in 5 important league-wide defensive categories, including shutouts (4), points allowed per game (10.3), rushing yards allowed per game (60.6), rushing yards allowed per attempt (2.7), takeaways (49) and fumble recoveries (26). The team's turnover ratio of +23 was also the NFL's best. Baltimore, with then-rookie RB Jamal Lewis gaining 1,364 yards, was the league's 5th-best rushing team and was 2nd in time of possession. K Matt Stover led the NFL with 35 field goals; RS Jermaine Lewis was first in punt returns (16.1-yard average) and P Kyle Richardson was first in the NFL with 35 punts inside-the-20.

The Ravens became the 4th Wild Card team to win the Super Bowl, following the '97 Broncos, the '80 Raiders and the '69 Chiefs. Brian's ability to keep the team unified and focused that October when the Ravens did not score a touchdown (5 straight games) and suffered a 3-game losing streak is notable.

The 2001 Ravens defended their title with passion, but fell short of the goal of winning consecutive titles when they dropped a 27-10 decision at Pittsburgh, one game short of the AFC Championship. "I'm proud of what our players accomplished that season. Every time we had a setback, they responded. They could have curled up in the fetal position and cried for help, but they kept fighting until the end," Billick says.

The list of injuries started early. Billick's hope to combine a power running game with the accurate passing of Elvis Grbac never happened. RB Jamal Lewis and RT Leon Searcy, the team's significant offseason free agent addition, suffered season-ending injuries in the 1st week of training camp. TE Todd Heap, the team's 2001 number one draft choice, who was expected to team with Shannon Sharpe in 2-tight end sets, sustained a high ankle sprain in week 2 and never fully recovered. There were games when none of the team's season-opening defensive front 4 could play. In all, Ravens starters missed a total of 54 regular-season games due to injuries, tops among the NFL's 12 playoff teams. Despite these obstacles, the Ravens finished the regular season at 10-6, and humbled the Dolphins in Miami, 20-3, in a Wild Card showdown.

There were clear signs in Brian's 1st year (1999) as the Ravens' head coach that he had special leadership abilities. The 8-8 Ravens produced the most victories in the franchise's 4 years, won the most consecutive games (4), the most road games (4), including the 1st victory at Pittsburgh, won 4 of the season's final 5 games, and finished with the best-ever Ravens' defense (2nd in the NFL).

"Brian knows how get a team ready to compete," says former Raven and future Hall of Famer Rod Woodson. "I joke that his training camps are 'Club Med' in comparison to others I've done. But, he knows how to condition a team and, at the same time, keep players fresh. He treats us like men, and he expects accountability in return."

In Billick's first 3 seasons, Baltimore had the best November/December record in the league (18-5), and the 2nd-best December mark (9-2). (With last season's youthful Ravens, Baltimore was 4-5 in November/December, including 2-3 in December). Brian is second to Joe Gibbs for consecutive play-off wins at the start of a career (5 to Gibbs' 6). Billick's 4-year record is 42-28 (.600), 8th best in the NFL over that time.

Billick became the 2nd head coach in Ravens history when he accepted a 6-year contract from owner Art Modell on January 19, 1999. Brian received a new contract in 2002 that extends through 2005. Before arriving in Baltimore, Billick was the highly successful offensive coordinator for the Minnesota Vikings from 1994-98. He directed a Vikings' attack that set a variety of NFL and team records in the NFL-best 15-1 1998 season. "When we began our search, we couldn't talk with Brian because his team was in the playoffs," Modell says. "Instead, we talked with 28 people who had some direct association with Brian."

"Everything we heard about Coach Billick told us to wait for him," explains David Modell, the

ADMINISTRATION • 2003 BALTIMORE RAVENS FAN & MEDIA GUIDE

Ravens' president. The younger Modell and Ozzie Newsome, the Ravens' general manager and executive vice president, helped Art during the head-coaching search. "We talked with everybody from the person who introduced Brian to his wife, Kim, to Dennis Green, to Tony Dungy, to Bill Walsh. All of these people painted a picture of a person and a coach ready to take the next step up in the NFL. Brian fit the profile of a coach with a set of skills and characteristics we wanted, and he's proven our assessment correct."

"I was very fortunate," Billick says. "Usually there is one 'hot' coordinator and one job available. I had other opportunities, but I picked Baltimore."

Billick, 49, was the architect of a Minnesota offense that in 1998 eclipsed the NFL record for most points scored in a season (556), breaking the old mark (541) set by the 1983 Washington Redskins. The '98 Vikings scored 53 of 56 times they were inside the 20. Minnesota tied for the NFL lead with 41 TD passes, shattering a team mark, and scored over 100 points in each quarter for the 1st time in team history. Minnesota ranked 2nd in the NFL (behind San Francisco) with a team-record 6,262 net yards, and 1st in the league with 4,328 yards passing. Over his 5 full seasons as coordinator, Billick guided the Vikings into the top five in the NFL in yards per game, passing yards per game, completions and 3rd-down conversions. Under Billick's guidance, the Vikings recorded their top 3 offensive seasons (1998, 1995 and 1994), and 5 of the top 10 offensive campaigns in team history. Most importantly, the Vikings advanced to the playoffs all but 1 season (1995) during Billick's tenure. Minnesota played postseason games in 1993-94 and 1996-98. Billick, of course, has followed a similar pattern with the Ravens, earning the playoffs 2 of his first 4 seasons.

Billick was hired in 1992 by Dennis Green as the Vikings' TE's coach. Brian was named offensive coordinator 3 games into the 1993 season, and Minnesota's production increased dramatically. The Vikings went from 264.8 yards per game over the first 6 weeks of the season to a 323.3-yard average over the final 10 games. In Billick's 1st full season as offensive coordinator in 1994, the Vikings won the NFC Central, while finishing 2nd in the NFL in passing yards (4,324) — now the 3rd-most in team annals.

In 1995, the Vikings failed to qualify for the postseason, but the offense scored a then-team record 412 points and gained 5,938 yards. WR Cris Carter set a Vikings' record with 17 TD receptions (later tied by rookie WR Randy Moss in '98). QB Warren Moon set a then-team mark with 33 TD passes (topped by Randall Cunningham's 34 in '98). The 1996 Minnesota team qualified for a Wild Card berth with a 9-7 mark, as Carter grabbed 96 passes, and Jake Reed placed 2nd in the NFL with 1,320 receiving yards.

Before his appointment with the Vikings, Brian was a Stanford assistant from 1989-91 under Coach Green. Prior to Stanford, Billick spent 3 seasons as offensive coordinator at Utah State (1986-88). When he arrived at Utah State, the team was ranked 107th out of 108 NCAA Division I-A teams offensively. In his final 2 seasons as coordinator, the Aggies ranked in the top 10 in total offense.

Brian coached receivers, TE's and QB's at San Diego State from 1981-85, and held the added responsibility of recruiting coordinator. Aztec QB Todd Santos set all-time NCAA passing records during Billick's tenure. "San Diego State gave me a great chance to learn from a good offensive mind like Doug Scovil (head coach), to learn what it meant to coach, to be a professional," Billick says. "Doug wasn't particularly interested in doing a lot of administrative things, so I absorbed a lot of those and continued to learn what an organization needs to do to function."

Brian began his coaching career as an assistant at the University of the Redlands in 1977, while helping coach a local high school team and working at a health club at the same time. He spent the following year (1978) as a graduate assistant at Brigham Young University. At BYU, he worked with tight ends and the offensive line. Following that season, Brian was assistant director of public relations for the San Francisco 49ers in 1979-80. Two years earlier (1977), Billick had been drafted by

"Brian really helped my development as a coach. I learned so much by being part of his staff—the way he treats the players, his organizational skills, his focus on everyone being accountable and bringing passion to what you do. He put me light years ahead of where I was. And he also encourages his assistants to learn about being a coordinator and head coach. He cultivates that. He wants players and coaches to reach for higher levels, to seek more responsibility, to prepare to succeed every day."

the 49ers in the 11th round, was released and had a brief stint with the Dallas Cowboys. Brian earned All-Western Athletic Conference honors and honorable mention All-America in 1976 as a TE at Brigham Young University. In 1976, he caught 20 passes for 338 yards and a TD. Brian played LB at Air Force as a freshman before transferring to BYU.

Since coming to Baltimore in January of 1999, Billick has enthusiastically helped improve the community. Billick gives extra time to the United Way of Central Maryland and to the Living Classrooms Foundation, where he serves on the board of directors. Brian has hosted significant fundraisers for the Living Classrooms, and has had a number of Raven players volunteer at this important educational facility. Brian has personally donated and raised over $1 million dollars for the Living Classrooms. In April of 2002, Billick was the honorary chair for the American Lung Association's Breath of Life Celebration. Billick was picked as the Maryland Chapter of Multiple Sclerosis 2001 "Champion of the Year." Brian's wife, Kim, joins him in many of these community works, especially at the Living Classrooms. Brian also hosts an annual clinic for Maryland and southern Pennsylvania high school football coaches.

Billick has co-authored two books: Competitive Leadership: Twelve Principles for Success (with Dr. James A. Peterson) and Finding the Winning Edge with NFL Hall of Fame coach Bill Walsh and Dr. Peterson. This last book is a blueprint for developing an NFL team, covering everything from practice schedules to front office structure.

Billick was born in Fairborne, OH on Feb. 28, 1954, but grew up in Redlands, CA. He is the 4th of 5 children. Billick earned 3 letters in both football and basketball at Redlands H.S. At Redlands, Billick played quarterback and safety. He still holds the California prep record for career INTs with 21. Redlands retired his jersey number 17 in March, 2001, and Brian has helped the school raise funds for the athletic department. He was a Helms Scholar-Athlete as a senior. Brian earned a B.A. in communications from BYU, where he also pursued a master's in communications.

Billick endows a scholarship at the communications college at BYU. He and Kim (who at one time was an assistant to NFL Hall of Famer Tex Schramm of the Dallas Cowboys) have 2 daughters: Aubree (3/5/84), a sophomore at Northwestern University, and Keegan (6/26/89).

Matt Cavanaugh | Offensive Coordinator

College: Pittsburgh
 Years with Ravens: 5
 Years in Coaching: 11
 Years in NFL: 25
 High School: Chaney (Youngstown, OH)
 Born: October 27, 1956
 Birthplace: Youngstown, OH

Matt Cavanaugh calls the offensive plays and enters his 5th Ravens season in that capacity. Matt owns the title to three Super Bowl rings, which he earned in his 25 years in the NFL—one as the offensive coordinator for the Baltimore Ravens and two as a player for two different teams (San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants). He served as an offensive coordinator with Chicago for 2 seasons (1997-98) prior to coming to Baltimore.

"We've successfully developed a chemistry with the guys on offense that is contagious. Our veterans don't hesitate to give these younger guys some guidance," says Cavanaugh. "I definitely see it begin to develop at our early camps between the players who have been here and the newcomers. They're all eager."

In 2002, Chris Redman's (182-97-1,034-53.3%-7TDs-3 INTs) back injury kept him out of action following the 6th game of the season. In his 4th game of 2002 at Cleveland, Redman did not throw an INT, nor was he sacked, leading to a career-high 106.0 QB rating. QB Jeff Blake (295-165-2,084-55.9%-13TDs-11 INTs) took over for Chris after the injury, starting 10 games. RB Jamal Lewis returned after missing the 2001 season with a knee injury and surprised critics with 1,327 rushing yards (6 TDs), finishing 6th in the AFC. TE Todd Heap (68-836) and LT Jonathan Ogden were voted to the Pro Bowl. Both WR Travis Taylor and Heap caught 6 TDs each, while younger receivers continued to develop.

"It's our job to find good players and develop them," says head coach Brian Billick. "Matt is particularly solid at teaching. He knows how to play the game, as well as coach it. He'll tell us if what we're asking a quarterback to do is possible. I've got tremendous confidence that Matt will get our young guys ready to play and learn how to execute what we teach."

A 14-year NFL veteran quarterback, Matt is in his 11th season coaching, his 7th as coordinator. Since his arrival in 1999, Cavanaugh has worked with a total of seven starting quarterbacks (Scott Mitchell, Stoney Case, Tony Banks, Trent Dilfer, Elvis Grbac, Chris Redman and Jeff Blake). Dilfer finished 11-1 as a starter in 2000, including the Ravens' 34-7 Super Bowl XXXV victory over the Giants. The Ravens set a new team rushing record that season with 2,199 yards, 5th in the NFL. The powerful ground game, led by rookie Jamal Lewis (1,364 yards), enabled the offense to rank 2nd in the NFL in average time of possession (33:19). The Ravens scored 333 points, 2nd-most in team history, despite a 5-game TD drought in October.

Cavanaugh spent the 1996 season as QB coach of the 49ers, where he initially coached former Ravens QB Elvis Grbac. Matt tutored quarterbacks for the Arizona Cardinals from 1994-95. He launched his coaching career in 1993 as tight ends coach at the University of Pittsburgh.

Matt was selected in the 2nd round of the 1978 draft by the New England Patriots. He spent 5 seasons with the Patriots before being traded to San Francisco in 1983, where he backed up Joe Montana. (The 49ers defeated Miami, 38-16, in Super Bowl XIX following the 1984 season). In 1986, Matt was traded to the Philadelphia Eagles, where he played 4 seasons. He played for the Giants in 1990-91, where he earned his 2nd Super Bowl ring as a player. In 112 career games, Cavanaugh completed 305 of 579 passes for 4,332 yards with 28 TDs.

Cavanaugh was named MVP of the 1976 Sugar Bowl in which the Pittsburgh Panthers won the National Championship. He has three children: Amy (a junior at Miami of Ohio), Andrew and Mollie. Matt lives in Baltimore, MD.

Mike Nolan | Defensive Coordinator

College: Oregon

Years with Ravens: 3

Years in Coaching: 23

Years in NFL: 17

High School: Woodside (CA)

Born: March 7, 1959

Birthplace: Baltimore, MD

Mike Nolan enters his second year as defensive coordinator of the Ravens, a position he held for 8 years with 3 other teams: New York Jets (2000), Washington Redskins (1997-99) and the New York Giants (1993-96). Mike, a Baltimore native, returned to Maryland in 2001 and spent that season coaching Ravens wide receivers. Nolan had been part of head coach Brian Billick's vision for the future.

"When we originally recruited Mike to join us, it was with the thought that Marvin Lewis would leave for a position as an NFL head coach, and Jack (Del Rio) would follow." Brian was right. Following Lewis' 1-year stint at Washington, Marvin was named the Cincinnati Bengals' head coach, and Del Rio became the head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars after 1 year as defensive coordinator with Carolina.

In 2002, the Ravens' young newcomers outnumbered the starting veterans on defense, and 8 rookies comprised the defensive roster by the end of the season. And despite the loss of LB Ray Lewis, who played in 5 games after suffering a shoulder injury in October, Baltimore finished 1st in the AFC with a team-record 25 INTs, 2nd in the NFL in yards per rush (3.7), 3rd in the NFL in fewest yards allowed on 1st down (4.87 yards—best in the AFC) and 3rd in the AFC with 31 take-aways. LB Peter Boulware was double- and triple-teamed with LB Ray Lewis (shoulder) and DE Michael McCrary (knee) out. He posted a career/team-high of 59 sacks, 7 on the season.

Nolan will continue to use some elements of a 3-4 defense this season, but the Ravens still plan to use a number of different defensive looks as well, including the 4-3. "We're going to use the best alignments for whatever given situation we're in during a game," says Nolan. "There are a lot of factors that come into play in a game situation. It's important to be both versatile and aggressive and to use the talent you have in the best possible way."

During his 1-year stint with the Jets (2000) as defensive coordinator, the defense rebounded to 10th (tied with Philadelphia) in the league—11 spots better than the previous year (21st). Prior to the Jets, Nolan spent 3 years as defensive coordinator for the Washington Redskins (1997-99). While Nolan was with Washington, the Redskins captured the NFC East title (1999) and advanced to a Divisional Playoff game following a Wild Card victory over Detroit. The Redskins have not returned to the playoffs since. In '97, Nolan's defense allowed the 8th-fewest points in the NFL and finished 3rd overall in pass defense.

Nolan spent 4 seasons (1993-96) as the defensive coordinator for the Giants under then-head coach Dan Reeves. In his 1st season, the Giants' defense allowed the fewest points in the NFL (205). Prior to that, Nolan joined the Denver Broncos (1987-88) as a special teams coach/defensive assistant and then moved to linebackers coach (1989-92).

He coached linebackers at LSU in 1986 and at Stanford in 1983, after a 1-year stint as The Cardinal defensive backs coach (1982). In 1984-85, he coached DBs at Rice. In 1981, Nolan made his coaching debut as a graduate assistant at Oregon, where he was a 3-year letterman at free safety. Nolan participated in the 1981 Broncos' training camp as a DB under Dan Reeves. Eventually, Reeves hired him as Denver's special teams coach in 1987.

Mike, one of six children and the son of former NFL head coach Dick Nolan (San Francisco and New Orleans), graduated from Woodside (CA) H.S. He and his wife, Kathy, have four children: sons, Michael and Christopher, and daughters, Laura and Jennifer.

Gary Zauner | Special Teams Coordinator

College: Wisconsin-La Crosse
 Years with Ravens: 2
 Years in Coaching: 23
 Years in NFL: 10
 High School: Hamilton (Milwaukee, WI)
 Born: November 2, 1950
 Birthplace: Milwaukee, WI

Gary Zauner was named the Ravens' 1st special teams coordinator in 2002. After 8 years of setting or breaking NFL records with the Minnesota Vikings as their special teams coach, it's no fluke that the Ravens produced 4 special teams TDs last season. Anchored by Matt Stover, one of the most consistent kickers in NFL history, special teams energized M&T Bank Stadium.

Matt was 21 of 25 in FGAs and did not miss an extra point. Chris McAlister stunned Denver, as well as Ravens fans and a national television audience after grabbing a Jason Elam missed FG, then racing a spectacular 107 yards for a TD, when he set the record for the longest play in NFL history.

Rookies dominated these units, but produced big plays and made their own history. RS Lamont Brightful, a 6th-round draft pick last season, had the longest PR in the NFL (95 yards for a TD against Cincinnati, also a Ravens' team record). In 2002, Ed Reed blocked the first two punts in team history, and Chad Williams added a third (2 of the 3 were returned for TDs). David Zastudil was 2nd in the NFL with 31 punts inside the 20. LB Bart Scott and Williams led the special teams in tackles with 17 each.

Zauner's Vikings career spanned 8 years (1994-2001) coaching special teams. He was named their special teams coordinator prior to the 2001 season. During his Vikings tenure, Zauner's special teams players set several NFL records, led the league in a number of categories, and Viking Mitch Berger became the 1st punter in their 39-year history to make the Pro Bowl (1999).

"Gary Zauner is one of that rare breed of special teams coach," says head coach Brian Billick. "He is unusual in that he has proven his expertise in not only special teams play, but in the specifics of kicking, punting and long snapping, which are such a huge part of this game. I know he's a tremendous resource to us."

In 2001, Gary Anderson added to his NFL scoring record by kicking 15 of 18 FGs and 29 of 30 PATs, and now has 2,133 career points scored. P Mitch Berger finished 7th among punters in the NFL and tied for 2nd in the NFC with a 43.5 yard punt average. Berger led the NFC in punting for the 2nd consecutive season (44.7). Anderson missed only one FG in 2000, finishing the season as the NFL's leader in FG percentage (.957, 22-23). Against Buffalo on 10/22/00, he surpassed George Blanda to become the NFL's all-time leading scorer.

Minnesota set a team record (1999) for returns for TDs in a season with 3 (KORs by Robert Tate and Moe Williams and a punt by Randy Moss). The Vikings also led the NFL in average opponents drive start on KOs (23.5-yard line).

Zauner guided Anderson to the 1st perfect kicking season in NFL history in 1998 (35 of 35 on FGAs and 59-of-59 on PATs). Also in '98, Anderson set the NFL record for most kicking points with 164. Berger led the NFL with 40 touchbacks in '98, an NFL record since the kickoff was moved to the 30-yard line in 1993. He was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week twice and NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for November. Berger set Vikings single-game records for punting average (55.8) and net punting average (48.2) vs. Cincinnati (11/15).

In 1997, K Eddie Murray surpassed the then-NFL record for consecutive extra points of 234, en route to 250 at season's end. Harold Morrow, who signed with the Ravens this offseason, set a team record with 32 special teams tackles and punt returner David Palmer led the NFC in PR average (13.1) for the 2nd time in his career. Zauner coached kicker Scott Sisson and P/KO specialist Berger in 1996, both in their 1st season with the Vikings.

In 1995, K Fuad Reveiz set then-league records of consecutive FGs (31) and consecutive FGs of 45-or-less yards (39). Zauner's special teams placed a player among the top 2 in the NFC in PR average (Palmer, 13.2) and KOR average (Qadry Ismail, 24.7) for the 1st time in the same season in team history. In his 1st season in Minnesota in 1994, Zauner guided Mike Saxon, who he tutored at San Diego State, to a team season record for punts inside the 20-yard line with 28. All-Pro Reveiz scored 132 points en route to his 1st Pro Bowl appearance.

Zauner was hired by George Allen at Long Beach State in 1990. He spent 2 seasons working with the 49ers' special teams program. From 1987-88, Zauner coached special teams at the University of New Mexico and guided former Falcons WR Terance Mathis, who tied a NCAA season record (1988) for TDs (3) on KORs for the Lobos. From 1981-85, he was with San Diego State and guided the Aztecs to become one of the best special teams units in the country. Zauner's coaching experience began at Brigham Young in 1979, where in his 2 years, he recruited P/PK Lee Johnson, a 5th-round draft choice by Houston in '85. From 1992-93 he worked as a consultant with many NFL teams and players on kicking and special teams.

Zauner spent time as a punter at training camps of the Vikings ('73) and the Houston Oilers ('74). He lettered in football and baseball at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse where he received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education (double major) and master's degree in physical education. Gary graduated from Hamilton (Milwaukee, WI) H.S.

Jim Colletto | Offensive Line

College: UCLA
 Years with Ravens: 5
 Years in Coaching: 37
 Years in NFL: 5
 High School: Monterey (CA)
 Born: October 2, 1944
 Birthplace: San Francisco, CA

Jim Colletto marks his 37th year in coaching and his 5th year as offensive line coach for the Baltimore Ravens in 2003. The highly-regarded Ravens offensive line experienced some adjustments at right tackle, center and left guard in 2002, but still effectively opened holes for a 1,000+ yard rusher and paved the way for 20 touchdowns by receivers. LT Jonathan Ogden, considered one of the best offensive linemen in the league, was voted to his 6th consecutive Pro Bowl.

"Jim brings to us a wealth of teaching that he's gained at big college football programs," says head coach Brian Billick. "He's such a great motivator, and Jim has fun with it. He communicates well with all the players."

Injuries to the Ravens' offensive line in the 2001 training camp forced numerous substitutions throughout the regular season. The Ravens' offense still managed a 14th overall NFL ranking, gaining a total of 1,810 yards (3.7 avg.), 2nd highest in team history, without top power rusher Jamal Lewis. Lewis sustained a left ACL tear in training camp and missed the entire season.

In 2000, the Ravens set a new team rushing mark with 2,199 yards and a 4.3-yard avg. Then-rookie RB Jamal Lewis set a new franchise mark by rushing for 1,364 yards. In spite of a sputtering start, the Ravens recovered after a 5-game TD drought and launched a November/December series that would take them into the playoffs and, ultimately, a victory in Super Bowl XXXV.

Colletto came to the Ravens in 1999 from Notre Dame, where he spent 2 seasons (1997-98) as offensive coordinator. In 1998, Jim coached TEs in addition to coordinating the offense.

Colletto has 11 seasons of head coaching experience, including 5 years (1975-79) at Cal State Fullerton and 6 years at Purdue (1991-96). He also spent 3 seasons (1982-84) as Purdue's offensive coordinator and OL coach. The 1984 Purdue team is the only Boilermakers' squad to beat Notre Dame, Michigan and Ohio State in the same season.

"Jim brings to us a wealth of teaching that he's gained at big-time college football programs."

— Head Coach Brian Billick

Prior to being named Purdue's head coach, Jim was the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Ohio State from 1988-90, where he also worked with OTs and TEs. From 1985-87, Colletto was offensive coordinator at Arizona State. The Sun Devils defeated Michigan in the 1987 Rose Bowl. Colletto joined head coach John Cooper at Ohio State in the winter of 1988.

Colletto entered the coaching ranks at his alma mater of UCLA as a graduate assistant in 1966. He coached the Bruins' OL (1967-68; 1980-81), Brown (1969), Xavier of Ohio (1970-71) and Pacific (1972-74). Colletto graduated from UCLA in 1967, where he played both football and baseball. He led the team in rushing as a sophomore fullback in 1963. In 1965, he was an All-League defensive end and captained the Bruins' team that beat Michigan State in the Rose Bowl. He was a two-time All-League pick in baseball with a .306 career average as a catcher and centerfielder. In January, 2000, Jim was inducted into the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame.

Jim and his wife, Suzanne, have three children: Dawn, Dan and Patrick. The Collettos live in Finksburg, MD.

Jeff Friday | Strength and Conditioning

College: Wisconsin-Milwaukee
 Years with Ravens: 5
 Years in Coaching: 14
 Years in NFL: 5
 High School: Marquette U. (Milwaukee, WI)
 Born: October 11, 1966
 Birthplace: Milwaukee, WI

Jeff Friday enters his fifth season in charge of the Ravens' strength and conditioning program. Following the 2000 season, when the Ravens became World Champions, Friday was named Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by a vote of his peers in the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

"Jeff is the one who keeps players in excellent condition," says head coach Brian Billick. "We start the program in March and it runs through June. Players follow Jeff's regimen and his signature is all over our strength and conditioning program. We've gone 12-6 in December over the last 4 seasons [two regular-season games played in January]. Jeff knows how to motivate the players and get the most out of their bodies over the long season."

Friday spent 3 seasons (1996-98) with the Minnesota Vikings as assistant strength and conditioning coach after 4 years in the same capacity at Northwestern University. While with the Wildcats, Jeff worked primarily with the men's and women's basketball teams, although he helped develop the football squad that won the Big Ten title in 1995. He spent 2 years (1990-91) as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Illinois State.

Photo: Strength and conditioning coach Jeff Friday worked on LB Peter Boulware before a preseason game at Giants Stadium. Friday and his assistant, Paul Ricci, work with the players in warmups prior to games in addition to supervising their conditioning and strength programs.

In 2002, Jeff received The President's Award from the Ricky Byrdsong Foundation, an organization that battles the growing epidemic of hate and violence in our society by and against youth.

Jeff met Northwestern's basketball coach, Ricky Byrdsong in 1993, during his tenure as strength and conditioning coach.

(A little history: In 1999, Byrdsong was walking a block from his home with 2 of his 3 children when he became the victim of a hate crime and was killed by a young man. Byrdsong was only 43.)

Friday earned his master's degree in exercise science from Illinois State University and his bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

A Milwaukee native, Jeff attended Marquette University (Milwaukee, WI) H.S. Jeff, his wife, Jennifer, daughter Hailey (3) and son Aidan James (born 3/10/03), reside in Ellicott City, MD.

Wade Harman | Tight Ends/O-Line

College: Drake University
 Years with Ravens: 5
 Years in Coaching: 17
 Years in NFL: 7
 High School: Wayne Community (Corydon, IA)
 Born: October 1, 1963
 Birthplace: Corydon, IA

Wade Harman enters his 5th year coaching tight ends and assists in tutoring the offensive line. Wade's special group of receivers may be the best TEs group in the NFL, and it includes Pro Bowler Todd Heap. "Todd is the whole package: pass protection, run blocking, catching the ball—and he can handle pressure," says Harman. The remaining TEs in the crew include Terry Jones, Jr., John Jones and Trent Smith (D7b-'03). In 2 of the past 3 seasons, a TE has led the Ravens in receptions.

"Wade is an inspiration, teacher and motivator to his players," says head coach Brian Billick. "He has been familiar with our offensive system since his introduction to the program when we were both at Utah State. His experience coaching the offensive line is also a plus. I can't think of a better coach for our young players."

Last season, the Ravens were the only team in the league to have a TE (Heap) lead his team in receptions (68-836 yards); Heap also tied for the team-lead with 6 TDs (WR Travis Taylor). He posted two 2-TD games (vs. Jax. and Den.) and 2 go-ahead TDs (at Pit. and at Cin.). Heap's 6 points at Paul Brown Stadium were the game-winners (27-23) with only minutes remaining. John Jones started 4 of 15 games (when the Ravens employed 2-tight end sets). Rookie Terry Jones, Jr. emerged, starting 6 of 14 games and catching 11 passes for 106 yards and 1 TD.

In 2001, future Hall of Famer Shannon Sharpe (who resigned with Denver in 2002 after 2 seasons with the Ravens) became the NFL's all-time pass-catching TE (on 11/18 vs. Cle.), eclipsing Ozzie Newsome's NFL marks (662 rec. for 7,980 yards). Sharpe had posted 690 career receptions for 8,553 yards, both all-time NFL records for a TE. Sharpe caught a dazzling game-winning TD pass at Jacksonville (11/25) with 9 seconds remaining. In 2000, the Ravens signed Sharpe, and he led the team with 67 catches for 810 yards and 5 TDs, plus added huge plays in the postseason, catching 6 passes for 230 yards and 2 TDs.

Harman spent 2 seasons (1997-98) with the Vikings as a coaching assistant, helping tutor their offensive line under OL coach Mike Tice. He assisted the coaching staff with playbook development, practice plans and schedules, game plans, opponents scouting reports and also assisted the pro personnel department. Harman went to the Vikings in April of 1997 after serving as offensive coordinator and OL coach at Morningside College in Sioux City, IA. He coached a variety of offensive positions at the University of the Pacific from 1992-95, and monitored administrative affairs for the football program.

He entered the coaching ranks in 1987 at Utah State, where he was a graduate assistant and worked under then-offensive coordinator Brian Billick. Harman was an LB at Utah State after transferring from Drake. He earned a master's degree in health, physical education and recreation from Utah State in 1988.

Wade (the reigning Ravens racquetball champion) and his wife, Angie, have two daughters, Madison (8) and Rylee (6), and a son, Hunter (3). The Harmans live in Reisterstown, MD.

Donnie Henderson | Secondary

College: Utah State
 Years with Ravens: 5
 Years in Coaching: 21
 Years in NFL: 5
 High School: Locke (Los Angeles, CA)
 Born: May 17, 1957
 Birthplace: Baltimore, MD

Donnie Henderson enters his 4th season as secondary coach for the Ravens and 21st year of coaching in 2003. He joined the Ravens in 1999 as assistant defensive backs coach. Henderson's secondary posted 17 interceptions last season, more than half of the 25 INTs grabbed by the Baltimore Ravens' defense. The defense ranked 1st in the AFC in INTs, also posting a team record.

Last season, CB Chris McAlister, who is developing into one of the NFL's elite corners, was the only veteran starter in the secondary. Chris led the DBs with 24 defended passes, 67 tackles and one INT, despite missing 3 games with an ankle injury. Rookie S Ed Reed (D1-'02, 24th overall) led the team with 5 INTs and was 4th on the team in tackles (86, 1 sack) and 1st-time starter CB Gary Baxter posted 90 tackles, one INT and 20 defended passes. S Anthony Mitchell had 3 INTs.

"Donnie is great at teaching technique to young players," says head coach Brian Billick. "The younger guys have no problem relating to Donnie. His 16 years in the college ranks gives him an edge to communicate to younger players. His passion and accountability works to his advantage, both on and off the field. Donnie lets them know they are accountable, too."

In 2001, the Ravens finished 2nd in the NFL in overall defense and 8th against the pass. The secondary intercepted 12 passes (plus 2 more in the postseason), forced 6 fumbles and recovered 6.

In 2000, the World Champion Ravens' defense set 16-game NFL records including fewest points allowed (165) and fewest rushing yards allowed (970). The secondary, led by S Rod Woodson, who was named to his 9th Pro Bowl, helped set a team mark with 23 INTs, making the Ravens the NFL leader with 49 take-aways. Baltimore allowed only 11 TD passes in 20 games (tops in the NFL).

Before joining Baltimore, Donnie spent the 1998 season coaching DBs at the University of Houston. While at Houston, he was promoted to assistant head coach. Donnie spent 6 seasons (1992-97) on the Arizona State coaching staff, coaching safeties from 1992-94 and DBs from 1995-97.

Henderson spent 2 years (1990-91) coaching LBs at California. Prior to that, Donnie was recruiting coordinator and DBs coach at Idaho in 1989. He started his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Utah State, in 1983 as a graduate assistant, then took over the Aggies' linebackers in 1986.

Henderson played 2 seasons at Santa Monica Junior College before transferring to Utah State. He earned first-team All-PCAA honors as a senior cornerback. Henderson was selected by the Detroit Lions in the 1980 NFL Draft. Donnie lives in Owings Mills, MD.

Mike Pettine | Coaching Assistant

College: University of Virginia
 Years with Ravens: 2
 Years in Coaching: 16
 Years in NFL: 2
 High School: Central Bucks West (Doylestown, PA)
 Born: September 25, 1966
 Birthplace: Doylestown, PA

Mike Pettine (pronounced PET-tin) enters his 1st year as a coaching assistant/quality control for the Baltimore Ravens after spending 1 year with football video operations and assisting the Ravens' coaching staff in 2002. Using computer technology, Pettine assisted in developing playbooks for offense and defense and analyzing game video of opponents, as well as operating a video camera for Ravens practices.

"Mike Pettine came to us with a thirst to be a part of a professional organization," says Brian Billick. "And by displaying his proven abilities, he's created a valued spot on our coaching roster."

Mike previously held the position of head football coach at North Penn H.S. in Lansdale, PA (1997-2001), where his team won 45 games in five seasons, including the first two playoff appearances in school history. His 1999 squad was featured on ESPN's original documentary The Season in August of 2000. Pettine also held the head coaching position at William Tennent H.S. in Warminster, PA, from 1995-96. His team established a school record with 9 wins in 1996. He served as a defensive graduate assistant under Johnny Majors at the University of Pittsburgh (1993-94).

From 1988-92, Pettine was an assistant coach for his father, Mike Pettine, Sr., who recently retired as the winningest coach in the history of high school football in the state of Pennsylvania with 326 wins, 42 losses and 4 ties in 33 seasons at Central Bucks West H.S. Mike also attended Central Bucks West, where he lettered in football and basketball. He was All-State at QB and DB.

Pettine is a graduate of the University of Virginia with a B.A. in economics. He played collegiately at UVA under Coach George Welsh (1984-1987) and was a 2-year letter winner at FS (1986-87), leading the team in INTs in 1986 with a school-record 3 INTs in 1 game (vs. NC State).

Mike and his wife, Marlene, live in Hampstead, MD, with their 3 children: Megan (8), Ryan (5) and Katie (1).

Paul Ricci | Assistant Strength/Conditioning

College: Temple
 Years with Ravens: 2
 Years in Coaching: 2
 Years in NFL: 3
 High School: Washington Township (Sewell, NJ)
 Born: November 15, 1969
 Birthplace: Elmer, NJ

Paul Ricci (pronounced RICH-ee), named assistant strength and conditioning coach in the spring of 2002, joins strength coach Jeff Friday in the Ravens' weight room for a 2nd consecutive year. The Ravens' highly-attended offseason strength and conditioning program for players begins in March and continues through June, followed by programmed workouts individualized for each player during the season.

Ricci had worked part-time with the Ravens since April of 1999, and had a 1-year stint as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Arizona Cardinals (1996). His experience includes part-time positions with the San Diego Padres (Spring Training, 1997), Philadelphia Eagles (1995-96), and Seattle Seahawks (1993).

He is a 1993 graduate of Temple and holds a bachelor of science degree. Paul also attended Penn State (1988-89), and specialized in a study course of exercise and sports science. In 1989, Ricci suffered a shoulder injury, which cut short his stint as an OL for the Nittany Lions. Ricci earned All-South Jersey honors as a senior captain at Washington Township (Sewell, NJ) H.S., where his team won the Group 4 championship in 1988. Paul and his wife, Elizabeth, make their home in Owings Mills, MD.

Rex Ryan | Defensive Line*College: SW Oklahoma StateYears with Ravens: 5Years in Coaching: 17Years in NFL: 7High School: Stevenson (Prairie View, IL)Born: December 13, 1962Birthplace: Ardmore, OK*

Rex Ryan, who enters his 5th year coaching the Ravens' defensive line, has a distinctive NFL bloodline when it comes to coaching defenses. The Ryan family has coached in 5 Super Bowls with 5 different NFL teams. Rex's father is the legendary Buddy Ryan; his brother is Rob Ryan, the linebackers coach of the New England Patriots.

Billick says: "Rex is considered one of the best young defensive minds in the game today, and he has a great rapport with his players. His enthusiasm is infectious. He gets a lot out of his guys, and they love to play for him."

Baltimore's defense held opponents to an AFC-best 3.7 yards per carry last season. In 2002, Ravens linemen averaged 2 years of experience and 24 years of age. Rookie DE Tony Weaver proved to be a new fixture on the line (65 tackles, 3.5 sacks), and versatile LB/DE Adalius Thomas logged 68 tackles, 3 sacks, a fumble recovery and 2 INTs, including 1 for a TD. Despite being double-and-triple-teamed, sometime-DE Peter Boulware was voted to the 2002 Pro Bowl as an LB (his 3rd) and produced a team-high 7 sacks. In the Ravens' rotation were DLs Kelly Gregg, Maake Kemoatu, Riddick Parker and Dave Nugent.

In 2001, Baltimore finished 2nd in the NFL in defense, 4th against the run and 8th against the pass. The Ravens' defense finished in the NFL's Top 4 in several important categories, including 1st in total yards allowed per play (4.4), 2nd in total yards allowed per game (277.9), and 3rd in rushing average allowed per play (3.4). Baltimore was 4th in the NFL in fewest points allowed with 265.

Baltimore's record-setting defense did not permit a 100-yard rusher in 50-straight games, including the playoffs, until the Bengals' Corey Dillon gained 127 yards on 24 carries (12/23/01). Baltimore's streak was the longest since the 1993-95 Chargers had a string of 34 games without allowing a 100-yard rusher. Prior to the Chargers, the Eagles' 53-game streak occurred from 1989-92. The Ravens set a 16-game NFL record in 2000 by allowing only 970 yards rushing and 2.68 yards per rushing attempt. In 2002, Ryan helped defensive coordinator Mike Nolan implement the 3-4 defense, and this season, the Ravens will continue to use a number of different defensive looks, including the 4-3.

Rex joined Brian Billick's staff in 1999 after spending the 1998 season as Oklahoma's defensive coordinator. Oklahoma's defense ranked 6th in the nation in total defense. Rex coached the Sooners' defense after spending 2 seasons as defensive coordinator at the University of Cincinnati. While at Cincinnati (1996-97), the defense ranked 5th and 13th, respectively, in his 2 seasons.

Ryan spent 2 seasons (1994-95) with the Arizona Cardinals under his father, then-head coach Buddy Ryan. In his 1st season, he coached the defensive line, and in his 2nd season, the linebackers. In 1994, the Cardinals ranked in the NFL's Top 5 in every major defensive statistical category, including 3rd in overall defense. Before entering the NFL, Ryan was defensive coordinator at Morehead (KY) State from 1990-93. In 1989, Rex was assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at New Mexico Highlands. He started his collegiate coaching career as DE coach at Eastern Kentucky in 1987.

Ryan played at Southwestern Oklahoma State. He earned both a bachelor of science and master's degree (1988) in physical education from Eastern Kentucky. Ryan attended Stevenson (Prairie View, IL) H.S. Rex and his wife, Michelle, have two sons: Payton (11) and Seth (9). The Ryans live in Ellicott City, MD.

David Shaw | Quarterbacks/Receivers

College: Stanford
 Years with Ravens: 2
 Years in Coaching: 9
 Years in NFL: 7
 High School: James Logan (Union City, CA)
 Born: July 31, 1972
 Birthplace: San Diego, CA

David Shaw joined the Baltimore Ravens in 2002, and replaced newly-promoted receivers coach Mike Nolan, who was named defensive coordinator in 2002. David's combined duties include coaching both receivers and quarterbacks, both very young groups, averaging 24-to-27 years of age and 2-to-6 years of experience.

"David's dual role with the Ravens makes sense," says head coach Brian Billick. "He's familiar with both positions, and I like the idea of combining receivers and quarterbacks. I feel comfortable with David, I've known him for a long time, and I know how capable he is."

David spent 4 seasons with the Oakland Raiders (1998-2001) prior to his move to Baltimore. In Shaw's first 3 years with the Raiders, he was a quality control assistant for the offense, then secured a promotion to quarterbacks coach in 2001. The Raiders won the AFC West that year and gained a playoff berth, but lost the Divisional Playoff contest at New England, 16-13, that season.

In 2002, QB Chris Redman started the first 6 games of the season (3-3), but his back injury gave Jeff Blake (295-165-2,084-55.9%-13TDs) the nod to start the final 10 games. Travis Taylor had a breakout season, leading wide receivers with 61 catches for 869 yards and 6 TDs, while an ankle injury to former Raven starter Brandon Stokley gave several rookies the opportunity to see action at the receivers position last season.

In 2001, Shaw helped coach Raiders QB Rich Gannon, who ranked 1st in the AFC and 2nd in the NFL (behind the Rams' Kurt Warner), with a 95.5 QB rating. Gannon completed 361 passes in 549 attempts (3,828 yards), and recorded 27 TDs and only 9 INTs. Oakland was 4th in the league in passing and 7th overall in offense. Gannon won consecutive Pro Bowl MVP honors (2000-01), and the 2002 NFL MVP award.

In 1997, Shaw jumped to the NFL ranks by joining the Philadelphia Eagles as an offensive assistant. He worked closely with then-offensive coordinator Jon Gruden (Bucs' head coach) and the other offensive coaches, studying tapes of opponents for game-planning, and assuming various on-field responsibilities.

Shaw spent the 1995-96 seasons at Western Washington and the early portion of 1997 at Idaho State. At WWU, he first tutored OLBs before moving over to the offensive side of the ball in '96 to oversee TEs and punt returners. Shaw then had a 1-month stint as WRs coach at Idaho State before joining the Eagles. He spent the summer of '96 with the Eagles as a training camp fellowship coach, working with TEs, WRs and PRs. One year prior, he worked with the Rams' LBs as a coaching intern in their 1995 training camp.

Shaw earned a sociology degree at Stanford. As a Cardinal, he recorded 57 receptions and 6 TDs at the flanker position and was a 4-year letter winner. A multi-talented athlete, Shaw became only the 3rd man in Stanford history to participate in 3 varsity sports (football, 1990-94; track, 1993; and basketball, 1994). Billick coached him in his first 2 seasons at Stanford. Shaw, a San Diego native, was a 3-sport star at James Logan (Union City, CA) H.S.

Shaw is the son of Willie Shaw, a 32-year coaching veteran entering his 15th year in the NFL.

David and his wife, Kori, live in Reisterstown, MD, with their newborn daughter, Keegan Mireya (5/5/03).

Matt Simon | Running Backs

College: Eastern New Mexico
Years with Ravens: 5
Years in Coaching: 25
Years in NFL: 5
High School: Burgess (El Paso, TX)
Born: December 6, 1953
Birthplace: El Paso, TX

Matt Simon is in his 5th season as the Ravens' running backs coach, and the strong rushing attack led by Jamal Lewis has showed steady improvement. Last season, the Ravens' ground attack included a healthy Lewis, who broke 1,000+ rushing yards for a 2nd season, finishing 6th in the AFC and posting a team record as the 1st player in team history to have two 1,000-yard seasons.

"Matt is the kind of coach who won't be satisfied with past success," says head coach Brian Billick. "He wants to go out and do it again and again. He has certain expectations, and he won't rest on the kind of success we had when we went to Super Bowl XXXV. His backs are hungry for the yards, and Jamal has said he won't be happy until he gets 2,000 yards in one season."

Despite missing Lewis in 2001 with his injury, the Ravens still earned rushing respectability in the NFL. As a team, Baltimore carried the ball 483 times for a total of 1,810 yards (3.7 average) and 11 TDs. The Ravens' rushing attack was 11th overall in the league, with a total offense that ranked 14th.

In 2000, Jamal Lewis broke the Ravens' single-season rushing mark with 1,364 yards. Counting the postseason, Lewis combined for an amazing 2,038 yards, rushing and receiving. Baltimore set a new team rushing record with 2,199 yards, 5th in the NFL. In 1999, Ravens running backs did not fumble once in 431 carries.

Simon served as a coaching intern in the Denver Broncos' 1998 training camp. Matt was head coach at the University of North Texas (1994-97), when he was named AFCA Region Coach of the Year in 1994 after the Mean Green won the Southland Conference Championship. The following season (1995), the football program moved up from Division I-AA to I-A.

Matt also won the 1994 Southland Conference Coach of the Year, the 1994 Black Coaches Association National Football Coach of the Year and the 1994 AFCA Region 4 Coach of the Year.

Prior to his post at North Texas, Matt was offensive coordinator at New Mexico (1992), when the Lobos averaged 413 yards and 30.5 points per game. From 1982-91, he was the running backs and kicking coach at the University of Washington. He is a 1997 inductee into the University of Washington Hall of Fame. During his tenure, the Huskies went to 9 bowl games and won a national championship in 1991. Matt coached several of the then-top 10 rushers in school history.

Simon coached TEs and LBs from 1979-81 at the University of Texas-El Paso. He entered the coaching ranks as an assistant coach at Borger (TX) H.S. Simon served as a graduate assistant at Eastern New Mexico in 1977 after lettering 4 seasons as an LB. He is a member of the ENMU Hall of Honors and holds both B.S. and master's degrees in physical education.

Simon is both a sponsor and chief fundraiser for the Howard County (MD) Bruins where he holds the post of GM. His 6th-to-8th grade youth football team plays a 10-game season plus a "Super Bowl," and they are part of the Mid-Atlantic Limited Football Association. "The goal was to put the team together, get them a place to play, get the equipment and do something positive for the community. My goal is to give as many kids as I can a chance to play football."

In April of 2003, he received a Community Service Award from the Maryland State Coaches Association for his involvement in Youth Sports in Maryland.

Matt attended Burgess H.S. in El Paso, TX, where he lettered in football and wrestling.

Mike Singletary | Linebackers

College: Baylor
 Years with Ravens: 1
 Years in Coaching: 1
 Years in NFL: 14
 High School: Evan E. Worthing (Houston, TX)
 Born: October 9, 1958
 Birthplace: Sunny Side, TX

Mike Singletary, an NFL Hall of Famer and 12-year middle linebacker for the Chicago Bears, enters both the coaching ranks and the Baltimore Ravens for the first time in 2003. Since 2001, Singletary is co-founder/ CEO of Leadership Zone, a company that provides leadership training to businesses, ministries and youth development. Singletary will coach one of the best LB corps in the NFL, including Ray Lewis, Peter Boulware, Ed Hartwell, Cornell Brown and Terrell Suggs (D1a-'03).

"Mike Singletary's proven passion and commitment to the game are well-documented. He will bring that same level of passion to the coaching profession and to this team, and he'll prove to be a huge asset for us," says head coach Brian Billick.

Singletary's career boasted 1,488 tackles (885 solo) during his career, finishing as the Bears' 1st-or-2nd-leading tackler each of his last 11 seasons. After being drafted out of Baylor (2nd round, 1981), Mike started a defensive team record 172 games for the Bears, trailing only RB Walter Payton's 184 career starts for the all-time team lead.

In 1985, Singletary led Buddy Ryan's Bears 46-defense to a 46-10 victory over the Patriots in Super Bowl XX. The Bears' defense allowed fewer than 11 points per game during the regular season and held New England to a Super Bowl record-low 7 yards rushing. In those playoffs, he totaled 13 tackles and a sack, and is tied for most fumbles recovered in a game in Super Bowl history with 2.

Singletary twice earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors (1985, 1988) and NFC Defensive Player of the Year 3 times (1984-85; 1988) on his way to being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1998. He was named to the NFL Team of the 80s after being selected to play in a team-record 10 consecutive Pro Bowls. Singletary was also named All-Pro 8 times (1983-89; 1991), and an All-NFC selection 9 consecutive times (1983-91).

Mike posted 662 tackles at Baylor, including a team-record 232 tackles (127 solo) during his sophomore year (1978). He was All-American in both his junior and senior seasons (1979-80) and a 3-time Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Mike won the Davey O'Brien Award in 1979 and 1980 in recognition of his academics and athletic ability. From its conception in 1977 until 1981, the Davey O'Brien Foundation Award was presented to the most outstanding college football player in the 5 Southwest states of TX, AR, OK, LA and NM. Beginning in 1981, the award went national and to strictly a quarterback, making Mike the final non-QB recipient.

Singletary was named 1990 NFL Man of the Year for playing excellence and off-the-field community contributions and the recipient of the 1991 "Athletes in Action" Bart Starr Award, the Byron "Whizzer" White Award (1989), and the Dapper Dan Farewell to Sports Award (1993), all recognizing quality achievements and high moral character (off the field) by players who excel on the field. In 2001, Mike won Walter Camp's "Man of the Year," based on his reputation for integrity and leadership within his profession and contributions benefiting his community, country and fellow man.

Singletary earned a management degree with a minor in broadcasting. He produced an award-winning training video, A Team of Eagles, and authored 4 books: Calling the Shots, Singletary on Singletary and Daddy's Home at Last, stressing the importance of father/children responsibilities and making family a priority. Mike's 4th book was published in May of 2003: On the Subject of Leadership. He is an international motivational speaker and business consultant on Diversity/Teamwork/Work and Life Balancing/Communication. Singletary was named "Father of the Year" by the National Fatherhood Initiative in 1998.

Singletary resides in Lutherville, MD, with his wife, Kim, and their 7 children: Kristen, Matt, Jill, Jackie, Brooke, Becky and John.

Bennie Thompson | Special Teams

College: Grambling
 Years with Modell Franchise: 10
 Years in Coaching: 4
 Years in NFL: 14
 High School: McDonough (New Orleans, LA)
 Born: February 10, 1963
 Birthplace: New Orleans, LA

Bennie Thompson marks his 4th season as the Ravens' special teams assistant and his 2nd with Gary Zauner, Ravens special teams coordinator. Thompson was one of the game's best-ever special teams performers for 11 NFL seasons (1989-99) and 3 CFL seasons (1986-88). Bennie was voted to 2 Pro Bowls as a special teams performer in 1998 (Ravens) and 1991 (Saints).

"Bennie knows what has to be done to perform on special teams," says head coach Brian Billick. "He is a tremendous measuring stick for players. Not only has he been an outstanding performer, but he's made the Pro Bowl. I've always said that special teamers are a unique breed with a special brand of courage. His involvement on special teams makes us tougher."

Thompson joined the Ravens' coaching staff in August of 2000 after a stellar playing career. He totaled an amazing 197 career special teams stops, 149 tackles in the secondary, 6 sacks and 7 INTs. He played for the Modell franchise from 1994-99, the Kansas City Chiefs in 1985 and from 1992-93; and the New Orleans Saints from 1989-91. Bennie played for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers from 1986-88 after being released by the Chiefs as a rookie free agent in 1985.

Dennis Thurman | Defensive Backs

College: Southern California
 Years with Ravens: 2
 Years in Coaching: 11
 Years in NFL: 20
 High School: Santa Monica (CA)
 Born: April 13, 1956
 Birthplace: Los Angeles, CA

Dennis Thurman marks his 11th year coaching and his 2nd year with the Baltimore Ravens as an assistant defensive backs coach. After serving as a coaching intern with Baltimore during its 2002 training camp, Thurman was named Donnie Henderson's assistant at the start of last season.

"Dennis has always made the most of every opportunity he's ever had," says Brian Billick. "He brings that same mentality to coaching. He's a solid teacher and has a leadership attitude."

Prior to joining the Ravens, Thurman was out of football for the 2001 season after spending 8 years as the DBs coach at his alma mater, USC. While at USC, Thurman coached many current NFL players, including the Lions' Chris Cash, the Seahawks' Kris Richard, the Browns' Daylon McCutcheon and the Buccaneers' Brian Kelly.

The Santa Monica, CA, native was the defensive coordinator for the World League's Ohio Glory Football Club for the 1992 season after being out of football for 4 years. Thurman's tenure as defensive backs coach for the Phoenix Cardinals lasted 2 seasons (1988-89).

As a cornerback and safety for both the St. Louis Cardinals (1986) and the Dallas Cowboys (1978-85), Thurman had 36 career INTs and played in the 1979 Super Bowl. He was originally selected in the 11th round of the 1978 NFL Draft by the Cowboys.

Cornerback Chris McAlister set the record for the longest play in NFL history when he grabbed Denver's missed field goal (K Jason Elam) in the end zone and raced 107 yards for a touchdown. Pandemonium broke out on the Ravens' bench and at M&T Bank Stadium, as the Ravens beat the Broncos 34-23 on Sept. 30, 2002.

A 2-time All-American safety (1976-77) and 4-year letterman (1974-77) at USC, Thurman played for John McKay and then for John Robinson. He was a member of the 1974 USC National Championship team and played on Trojan teams that won 4 bowl games. In his Trojan career, he had 13 INTs, returning 2 for TDs, and led the Pac-10 in INTs with 8 in 1976. He also had 169 career tackles, 11 passes defended and 4 fumble recoveries.

Dennis has 2 daughters, Chelsea, a sophomore at the University of Texas, and Jade, 14, who lives in Dallas, TX. Thurman lives in Owings Mills, MD.

Phil Zacharias | Outside Linebackers

College: Salem College
 Years with Ravens: 2
 Years in Coaching: 21
 Years in NFL: 2
 High School: Quaker Valley (Leetsdale, PA)
 Born: February 12, 1959
 Birthplace: Sewickly, PA

Phil Zacharias, who assumed the position of defensive assistant/defensive line and LBs coach in 2002, will concentrate on outside LBs and work with LBs coach Mike Singletary. Zacharias will also work closely with Ravens defensive coordinator Mike Nolan in various capacities, including game-planning, studying opponents video, and assuming various on-field responsibilities.

"I'm excited we added Phil to our staff last season," says head coach Brian Billick. "His college experience speaks for itself. It tells you what a great teacher he is. He'll bring some enthusiasm and energy. I'm confident he'll continue to contribute at a high level to the Ravens." While a member of the Stanford University staff, Zacharias held a coaching intern position at the 1st Baltimore Ravens' training camp (1996).

Prior to joining the Ravens, Phil was at Notre Dame, where he re-joined head coach Tyrone Willingham (named head coach on 1/2/02), briefly, as LBs/special teams coach. Prior to the move to Notre Dame, Phil spent 7 years at Stanford (1995-2001) coaching defensive ends and special teams under Willingham. Four out of the 7 years, Zach coached a Pac-10 leader in sacks (Kailee Wong and Rial Johnson). The Cardinal ranked 2nd nationally in punt returns (15.86 yards) in 2001. He coached Luke Powell, who ranked 2nd in the NCAA in punt returns, and earned first-team All-America honors as a kick returner from the Football Writers Association of America. In 1995, Zacharias' kickoff return unit ranked 2nd nationally. Kailee Wong, currently a member of the Minnesota Vikings, was a 1997 Lombardi Award finalist.

In 1995, Zacharias helped The Cardinal put together a 1st-ranked KOR team in the Pac-10 (2nd in the nation). The punt return team set a school record by blocking 4 punts during the season. In 1996 and '97, one of his students, (Wong), was named first-team All-Pac-10 after finishing among the league leaders in sacks and tackles-for-loss. In 1999, Zacharias' special teams unit included a First-Team All-Pac-10 placekicker (Mike Biselli) and a KOR specialist (Ryan Wells), who ranked 10th in the country.

Zacharias began his coaching career at Georgetown College (KY) as the secondary coach in 1981. From 1982-84, he coached the secondary at St. Paul College in Virginia. While at St. Paul, he also served as the head baseball coach in 1983. Phil was a part-time coach at the University of North Carolina in 1985 before accepting a position at Morehead State University (KY), where he remained for three seasons (1986-88). There, he coached OLBs and was the strength coach in '86, the outside linebackers and special teams coach in 1987, and in 1988, he was promoted to defensive coordinator.

From 1989-90, Zacharias coached outside linebackers at Eastern Michigan University and then at Rutgers from 1991-93. During the summer of '94, he served as an intern with the Los Angeles Rams before becoming the defensive coordinator for Asbury Park (NJ) H.S.

Zacharias was born in Sewickly, PA, and earned his bachelor's degree in physical education/health in '81 at Salem College (WV). A 4-year letterman in football, Phil earned 1 letter as a running back and 3 as an inside linebacker. Zacharias earned his master's degree in education from Georgetown College (KY). He played football, baseball and ran track at Quaker Valley (Leetsdale, PA) H.S.

Phil and his wife, Linda, have one son, Jameson (born 4/10/91).

Phil Savage | Director of Player Personnel

College: University of the South
 Years with Modell Franchise: 13
 Years in Scouting: 10
 Years in NFL: 13
 High School: Murphy (Mobile, AL)
 Born: April 7, 1965
 Birthplace: Mobile, AL

Phil Savage, one of the NFL's top football personnel experts, was named the team's director of player personnel last February and is in his 13th year with Art Modell's franchise. As player personnel director, Savage works with GM Ozzie Newsome to oversee both the college and pro scouting departments.

Continuing to scout collegiate players around the country, Phil is now more involved in the day-to-day operations of the team. In the last few years, Savage has negotiated later-round draft pick contracts, working with Pat Moriarty and the players' agents.

Last April, Baltimore received outstanding grades across the board for its 2003 NFL Draft. Savage and the scouting department, under the direction of Ozzie Newsome, selected 11 players in the NFL Draft. LB Terrell Suggs (Arizona State) was the 10th overall selection and QB Kyle Boller (California) was the 19th overall pick. Savage and the Ravens made a draft-day trade with New England for Baltimore's second-round pick this year (2003) and its 1st-round pick in 2004 for Boller.

In the third round, Baltimore selected RB Musa Smith (Georgia) at 77th overall, who the Ravens had as one of their top-rated backs. Smith was followed by DE Jarret Johnson (Alabama) and FB Ovie Mughelli (Wake Forest), both in the fourth round. DT Aubrayo Franklin (Tennessee) and OT Tony Pashos (Illinois) were Baltimore's two 5th-round picks and S Gerome Sapp (Notre Dame) was selected in the sixth round. The Ravens drafted their final 3 in the 7th round: TE Trent Smith (Oklahoma), C/G Mike Mabry (Central Florida) and S Antwoine Sanders (Utah).

"Nobody does a better job running the draft than the Ravens, and they just offered a refresher course for those who forgot."

— Clark Judge, FOXSports.com,
April of 2003

Since 1996, the Ravens have drafted Pro Bowlers OT Jonathan Ogden (D1a, 1996), LB Ray Lewis (D1b, 1996), WR/PR Jermaine Lewis (D5, 1996), LB Peter Boulware (D1, 1997), and TE Todd Heap (D1, 2001). Other major contributors include LB Jamie Sharper (D2a, 1997), CB Duane Starks (D1, 1998), CB Chris McAlister (D1, 1999), OL Edwin Mulitalo (D4b, 1999), RB Jamal Lewis (D1a, 2000), WR Travis Taylor (D1b, 2000), QB Chris Redman (D3, 2000), LB Adalius Thomas (D6, 2000), LB Edgerton Hartwell (D4, 2001), S Ed Reed (D1, 2002), and DE Tony Weaver (D2, 2002).

In a survey conducted by The Dallas Morning News in 2000, the Ravens' drafts over the 4-year span from 1996-1999 produced more Pro Bowlers (4) and a higher percentage of starters (38.5%) than any other NFL team. The survey also concluded that the Ravens had the highest percentage of drafted players still on the team at the time (69.2%). The survey included the years 1996-99, a period of time that Phil served as director of college scouting.

Phil joined the Cleveland Browns in '91, after a month-long stint as tight ends/running backs coach for the San Antonio Riders of the World League (coached by former Chargers head coach and current Oregon State head coach Mike Riley). His first 3 years with the Browns' coaching staff were spent as an assistant to former defensive coordinator Nick Saban (now head coach at LSU). The following year, Phil took on added duties in the personnel area when he began scouting college players, while continuing to break down coaching film and compiling scouting reports on upcoming opponents.

Savage, 38, launched his coaching career at the age of 21, when he served as a graduate assistant at Alabama under Bill Curry (current ESPN analyst) in 1987. From 1988-89, he coached the tight ends,

Alabama under Bill Curry (current ESPN analyst) in 1987. From 1988-89, he coached the TEs, including now-retired Giant Howard Cross. In 1990, Savage followed Alabama offensive coordinator Homer Smith to UCLA, where he coached TEs, analyzed opponent game video and helped with administrative duties for the Bruins' offense. Savage worked under then-Bruins head coach and current 49ers general manager Terry Donahue.

Last summer, Phil held his 13th annual football skills camp for high school players in his hometown of Mobile, AL, where Murphy H.S. (his alma mater) is located. Three of Phil's graduates are current NFLers: DT Eddie Freeman (UAB), drafted by the Chiefs (D2, '02), QB Tee Martin (Tennessee), drafted by the Steelers (D5, '00) and DL Leonardo Carson (Auburn), drafted by the Chargers (D4, '00).

During the 2001 offseason, Phil teamed with his brother, Joe, and traveled with 5 Ravens coaches, players and 2 scouts to Cancun, Mexico, for a combined football camp and mission with the Ninos Mexicanos football players.

RAVENS DRAFT SUCCESS (1996-2002)

Since 1996, 45 of the Ravens' 53 draft picks (84.9%) have made opening-day rosters.

2002 - 9 of 10	90%
2001 - 6 of 7	85.7%
2000 - 4 of 6	66%
1999 - 4 of 4	100%
1998 - 4 of 7	57.1%
1997 - 11 of 12	91.6%
1996 - 7 of 7	100%

Phil's website, philsavagefootball.com, features a monthly column written by Phil and details on his Take-A-Knee Ministry, where he shares his experiences and perspectives from the college and pro football world in order to reach people for Jesus Christ. Since the Ravens won Super Bowl XXXV following the 2000 season, Phil has shared his Christian testimony and background with over 30 audiences around the country, including churches, civic groups and college/high school sports teams.

Savage played football and baseball at the University of the South (Sewanee, TN) and earned a B.A. in English. As a senior, he was selected as the school's Fellowship of Christian Athletes Male Athlete of the Year. He received a master's degree in physical education from the University of Alabama.

Phil and his wife, Dorothy, married 5/31/03, reside in Baltimore.

Pat Moriarty | Football Administration

College: Georgia Tech

Years with Modell Franchise: 11

Years in NFL: 11

High School: Benedictine (Cleveland, OH)

Born: May 19, 1955

Birthplace: Cleveland, OH

Pat Moriarty, Ravens director of football administration, is responsible for negotiating player contracts, salary cap administration, roster management, and overseeing the day-to-day operations of the player personnel department. Moriarty is the team's top contract negotiator and main liaison with the NFL Management Council and Players Association.

Since the Ravens' arrival in Baltimore (1996), Pat has negotiated contracts and coordinated the signing of 11 Ravens 1st-round draft choices, as well as numerous important free agents. In addition, Moriarty has re-negotiated the contracts of several key players such as Pro Bowl LBs Ray Lewis and Peter Boulware, Pro Bowl OT Jonathan Ogden and G Edwin Mulitalo. Last offseason, he signed free agents S Corey Fuller and WR Frank Sanders to long-term contracts.

Pat is the Ravens capologist, responsible for the management and strategic planning of the Ravens' salary cap. He works closely with GM Ozzie Newsome, helping coordinate budgets of the scouting, coaching, equipment, football video, training, and strength and conditioning departments. Moriarty also analyzes draft-day trades during the 2-day NFL selection process.

"To use talent evaluation terms, Pat is an 'impact player' in our organization," Ozzie Newsome, Ravens executive vice president and general manager, says. "Pat is thorough and sound, plus creative in the structuring of contracts. He has a working knowledge of every team's salary cap structure and knows the ins and outs of working with the league office. His management of our cap helped us win the Super Bowl."

Moriarty earned a bachelor's degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech, where he was a 3-year starter at RB. He later earned his master's degree in business administration from John Carroll University. He worked for Key Bank in Cleveland in the corporate lending division before joining the Browns' front office in 1994.

Photo: At the 1st day of May 2003 minicamp, Pat Moriarty and assistant director of pro personnel Vince Newsome watch practice at the Owings Mills facility.

A Cleveland native, Pat earned All-State honors in both football and track at Benedictine (Cleveland, OH) H.S. and was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in the spring of 2002. After college, Moriarty had the opportunity to come back to his hometown to play football for the Browns. He played RB (scored 2 TDs) and special teams as a rookie free agent in 1979.

Pat, who serves on the advisory board for the National Aquarium (located in Baltimore), is currently enrolled in the University of Baltimore School of Law. He and his wife, Lynn, are the parents of 3 children: Kevin (15), Laura (12) and Katherine (9). The family lives in Hunt Valley, MD.

College: East Carolina
 Years with Modell Franchise: 15
 Years in NFL: 20
 High School: Baldwin (Milledgeville, GA)
 Born: September 15, 1962
 Birthplace: Milledgeville, GA

Earnest Byner knows what it takes to endure and succeed in the NFL. The Ravens' director of player development, Byner joined Art Modell's front office in 1998 after he retired in 1997 from his 14-year NFL career.

Keeping his plate full, Earnest oversees the Ravens' player programs and also assists the running backs on the field during the season. Last spring, Byner also worked with the players who took part in the team's offseason strength and conditioning program, and continues to spend time assisting the personnel department throughout the year.

As player programs coordinator, Byner administers continuing education, internship and financial planning programs for the team. "The Modell's are committed to helping players beyond the field, including post-career planning. It's my responsibility to make sure players use these resources to better themselves," Byner says.

Earnest, known for his toughness and determination, played 14 seasons and finished his stellar career ranked 16th on the NFL's all-time rushing list with 8,261 yards on 2,095 carries and 56 TDs. He is ranked 22nd entering 2003. He added 15 career receiving TDs and a TD on a recovered fumble for 72 total scores. Byner, who was originally selected in the 10th round (280th overall) of the 1984 draft by the Cleveland Browns, earned two trips to the Pro Bowl (1990 and 1991). He recorded 20 career 100-yard games and usually saved his best for big games.

A frequent contributor to charitable causes, Earnest also assists players with their involvement in the community. Byner has a long list of honors and awards, including his most recent appointment in 2002 as a member of the Washington Redskins' 70 Greatest Redskins. In 2000, he was named the first member of Baltimore's Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium. Earnest also received the Ed Block Courage Award in 1986, the 1991 Timmie Award (Washington, D.C.) for exceptional dedication to the game of football, the 1996 NFL Extra Effort Award, the NFLPA Unsung Hero Award award in 1997 and was the 1997 Ravens' recipient of the True Value NFL Man of the Year Award. Byner is the founder of the Good Samaritan Foundation in 1990.

He and his wife, Tina (who chairs the Ravens Wives Association), have four daughters: Smeria (21), Adriana Monique (19), Brandi (12) and Kyara (10). Smeria and Adriana are students at East Carolina (Earnest's alma mater). The Byners live in Reisterstown, MD.

Eric DeCosta

| College Scouting Director

College: Colby College

Years with Modell Franchise: 8

Years in Scouting: 6

Years in NFL: 8

High School: Taunton (MA)

Born: April 10, 1971

Birthplace: Taunton, MA

Eric DeCosta was named the Ravens' director of college scouting last February during a transition in the Ravens' personnel department. DeCosta, who has been with the Ravens' organization since the team's first year in Baltimore (1996), manages the Ravens' draft preparation and coordinates, along with the scouts, the evaluation and ranking process of hundreds of NFL prospects across the country.

Prior to his appointment as the team's college scouting director, Eric was the Ravens' Midwest area scout (1998-2002), covering the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences among others. DeCosta has scouted QB Chris Redman, DE Tony Weaver, LB Edgerton Hartwell and G Bennie Anderson. Also, while an area scout, DeCosta spent the last few years analyzing draft-day trades and helped evaluate free agent prospects for the pro personnel department.

From 1996-97, Eric was one of the Ravens' player personnel assistants, assisting both the college and pro scouting staffs with the college draft and free agency. In 1997, he started to visit colleges in the fall, evaluating athletes mainly in the midwest area of the country. Prior to the 1998 season, the Taunton, MA, native was promoted to area scout. Eric's earliest NFL experience came in 1995 with an internship in the Washington Redskins' player personnel department.

Prior to the Ravens and Redskins, DeCosta coached defensive linemen and linebackers at Trinity College (1994-96). He has a master's degree in English from Trinity. DeCosta completed his undergraduate work at Colby, where he holds degrees in English and the classics, earning Dean's List honors from 1990-92.

A 3-year football letterman and captain at Colby, Eric played LB for head coach Tom Austin. As a senior, he was selected as the Wadsworth Award recipient for outstanding athletic contribution over 4 years at Colby. DeCosta attended Taunton (MA) H.S., where he played FB and LB, earned 3 varsity letters, and as a senior, was voted team captain under head coach Bob Lane. An avid runner, Eric, his wife, Lacie, and their daughter, Jane Elizabeth (5/30/03), reside in Baltimore, MD.

George Kokinis | Pro Personnel Director

College: Hobart College
 Years with Modell Franchise: 13
 Years in NFL: 13
 High School: Wethersfield (CT)
 Born: February 27, 1967
 Birthplace: Wethersfield, CT

In his first year as director of pro personnel and his 13th season as a member of Art Modell's franchise, George Kokinis works closely with executive vice president and GM Ozzie Newsome and player personnel director Phil Savage in analyzing NFL rosters and evaluating free agent talent, including this year's acquisitions: Corey Fuller, Orlando Brown, Frank Sanders, Marcus Robinson and Harold Morrow. Kokinis, who has been a member of the pro personnel staff for 4 years, continues to oversee the advance scouting of Ravens opponents.

Kokinis was the Northeast area scout for 4 years (1996-99) and conducted "the box" workouts of college prospects before moving over to pro personnel. George began his career in 1991 after serving an internship in the operations department with the Cleveland Browns.

Kokinis graduated from Hobart College with a B.A. in psychology and earned his master's degree in sports management at the University of Richmond (1991), while working as a graduate assistant coach for the Spiders' baseball team. He played both football and baseball during his collegiate career earning ECAC Baseball Player of the Year honors in 1989 as a pitcher for the Statesmen, and was selected to represent the conference in a NY vs. NJ All-Star Game played at Yankee Stadium.

A 2-sport athlete at Wethersfield (CT) H.S., George received the John Warren Potter Memorial Award, which recognizes competitiveness, school and team spirit and outstanding character. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of the CFM Foundation, which grants a computer scholarship to a Wethersfield student athlete who has achieved expectations both on the field and in the classroom.

An avid golfer and racquetball player, Kokinis has been a member of 2 Ravens scouts scramble golf championships and won back-to-back racquetball titles among Ravens staff (2001-02). George, his wife Elizabeth, and daughter, Marissa (4), reside in Owings Mills, MD.

Vince Newsome | Pro Personnel

College: Washington
 Years with Modell Franchise: 13
 Years in Scouting: 11
 Years in NFL: 21
 High School: Vacaville (CA)
 Born: January 22, 1961
 Birthplace: Braintree, England

Vince Newsome, in his first year as the Ravens' assistant director of pro personnel, works closely with George Kokinis in evaluating NFL free agent talent. Vince also handles some advance scouting of upcoming Ravens opponents.

Newsome spent 3 seasons as the Ravens' western college supervisor, scouting players from colleges in the western half of the country. A former NFL standout defensive back for the Rams and Browns, Vince joined the Cleveland Browns' personnel department after retiring from the NFL in the spring of '93. His retirement came on the heels of a diagnosis indicating a high-risk spinal condition. Newsome had been a valuable "Plan B" acquisition for the Browns prior to the '91 campaign.

Newsome played with Cleveland for 3 years prior to his retirement. He totaled 233 tackles for the Browns, leading the defense in '91 with 127 stops. With the Rams, Newsome led the team in tackles each of his last 2 seasons and 3 times in his last 5 years. His 10-year career totals include: 763 tackles (526 solo), 4 sacks and 62 passes defended. Vince grabbed 17 INTs in his career, forced 7 fumbles and recovered 9. He originally was a 4th-round selection by the Rams in 1983. A former Ed Block Courage Award recipient (1989), Vince started 7 of his 10 years in the league and was a Pro Bowl alternate behind Ronnie Lott in 1986. In 1985, he was named the Rams' Special Teams Player of the Year.

Newsome earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior for Washington. He led the secondary with 69 tackles and recorded 4 INTs. Vince was president of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity at Washington and majored in psychology.

Born in Brantree, England, Vince attended Vacaville (CA) H.S., where he lettered in football, basketball and track. He held the nation's 2nd-best time in hurdles (36.3) as a senior, and had a personal best time of 48.0 in the quarter mile. Vince and his wife, Tasha, and their 3 daughters, Candace, Emerald and Victoria moved from the Seattle area to Baltimore this offseason.

NFL PLAYER EXPERIENCE: 1983-1990 (St. Louis Rams); 1991-1993 (Cleveland Browns)

Chad Alexander | Area Scout • West

College: Wake Forest
Years with Modell Franchise: 5
Years in Scouting: 1
Years in NFL: 5
High School: Coppell (TX) H.S.
Born: February 17, 1975
Birthplace: Memphis, TN

In his first year as the area scout of the West Coast for the Ravens, Chad Alexander covers the Pac-10, WAC, Mountain West and schools in the Big Sky Conference.

Alexander joined the Ravens in June, 1999 as a pro personnel assistant. Over the last 4 years, Chad has worked with the pro personnel staff to scout free agents and assisted with advance scouting reports of Ravens opponents and monitor NFL practice squads, ranking players for potential signings. Chad also has done college scouting in the fall, visiting a number of college campuses across the country for cross-checking duties.

After his 4-year career as a FB at Wake Forest, Chad spent a year working with behavioral disorder elementary school children in Minneapolis, MN.

An All-District football selection at Coppell (TX) H.S., Chad also ran track for the Coppell Cowboys. Chad is the son of Saints' wide receivers coach Hubbard Alexander, who won 2 championships while coaching receivers at Miami (1983, 1987) and 3 while coaching the Dallas Cowboys receivers (1992, 1993, 1995). Chad and his wife, Shonique, have a daughter, Morgan Aliyah (2).

Joe Douglas | Area Scout • Northeast

College: Richmond
Years with Modell Franchise: 4
Years in Scouting: 1
Years in NFL: 4
High School: Lee-Davis (Mechanicsville, VA)
Born: July 20, 1976
Birthplace: Richmond, VA

Joe Douglas, in his first year as the Northeast area scout for the Ravens, covers the Big East, ACC, Atlantic 10, Ivy League and the MEAC. In the spring, Joe performs the "the box" workout of players at schools across the country.

A personnel assistant his first 3 years with the team, Joe worked mainly with the college scouting staffs, performing a number of duties including coordinating college workouts and draft visits and spring and fall scouting. Joe was also in charge of the team's college video library and has assisted George Kokinis in the advance special teams evaluations of Ravens opponents and unrestricted free agent evaluations.

A communications major and sports administration minor at the University of Richmond, Joe was a 4-year starter at offensive tackle, earning All-Atlantic 10 honors his senior year. He spent the 1999 season as a vol-

Douglas, who was a 2-time All-State football player at Lee-Davis (Mechanicsville, VA) H.S., played center in the football movie, The Replacements, which was shot at M&T Bank Stadium in 1999. Joe, and his wife, Shannon, who were married last July, live in Baltimore.

Joe Hortiz | Area Scout • Southeast

College: Auburn
Years with Modell Franchise: 6
Years in Scouting: 3
Years in NFL: 6
High School: Salesianum (Wilmington, DE)
Born: November 8, 1975
Birthplace: Philadelphia, PA

In his first year as the Southeast area scout for the Ravens, Joe Hortiz covers the SEC, ACC and schools in the Conference-USA. Joe spent the previous 2 years scouting the Northeast for the Ravens and performed the "the box" workout at schools across the country the past 3 springs.

Hortiz' first 3 years with the team were as a personnel assistant, working both with the pro and college scouting staffs. His duties included assisting GM Ozzie Newsome and capologist Pat Moriarty in managing the salary cap.

While he was earning his B.S. in accounting from Auburn, Joe was an undergraduate assistant coach for Terry Bowden and the Tigers football team from 1995-98. He worked with both the QBs and WRs and also coached the scout team LBs and secondary. He compiled weekly scouting reports and breakdowns of upcoming opponents defenses, and also coordinated Auburn's summer football camps.

Son of Joe and Marlene Hortiz, Joe attended Salesianum H.S. in Wilmington, DE. Hortiz married Jennifer Cooper of Dallas, TX (6/28/03). The couple resides in Birmingham, AL.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1995-98 (Auburn)

Ron Marciniak | Area Scout • Southwest

College: Kansas State
Years with Modell Franchise: 13
Years in Scouting: 23
Years in NFL: 24
High School: St. George (Pittsburgh, PA)
Born: July 16, 1932
Birthplace: Pittsburgh, PA

A 24-year NFL veteran, Ron Marciniak has spent 13 seasons as part of the Modell organization. Ron, who was named a Pennsylvania Hall of Famer in 1995, brings an experience second to none on the Ravens' scouting staff. Having participated in 22 NFL Drafts, Marciniak scouts the southwestern section of the country, covering 11 states and a number of conferences, including the Big 12, SEC, WAC and Conference USA for the Ravens.

Marciniak also helps evaluate free agent prospects for the pro personnel department during the free agency period. His 10-year stint scouting for Tom Landry's and Jimmy Johnson's Dallas Cowboys (1982-91) followed 23 years of coaching on the collegiate level, plus 1 year with the NFL Scouting Combine.

The NY Giants drafted Marciniak in the 7th round in 1955, and traded him to Washington before his rookie season. In 1956, the Redskins traded him to the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL for kicker Sam Baker (who kicked for the Browns in 1960-61). In Toronto, he was moved to the defensive line and named defensive captain. A member of the U.S. Army Reserves, Marciniak was called to active duty (1957) and was a player/coach at Fort Bliss, TX. He then returned to the Argonauts to finish his playing career during the 1958 season.

A 4-time football letter winner as a guard at Kansas State, Marciniak was team captain as a senior. He also lettered 2 years in wrestling at KSU. Ron was a 4-sport star at St. George (Pittsburgh, PA) H.S., lettering in football, basketball, baseball and soccer. Dennis Dillon of The Sporting News spent a week with Ron in 2002, and wrote an in-depth feature on Ron's life as a scout in the weeks leading up to the NFL Draft. Ron, who lives in Garland, TX, has 5 children: Michael, Michelle, Melody, Mary Jo and Marie, and 9 grandchildren.

NFL/PRO PLAYER EXPERIENCE: 1955 (Washington Redskins); 1956, 1958 (Toronto Argonauts)

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1959-66 (Arizona); 1967-68 (Southern Illinois); 1969 (Tulsa); 1970-72 (Northwestern); 1973 (Purdue); 1973-76 (Dayton-head coach); 1977-79 (Miami, FL); 1980-81 (Colorado)

T.J. McCreight | National Scout

College: Liberty University
 Years with Modell Franchise: 7
 Years in Scouting: 4
 Years in NFL: 7
 High School: Willoughby (OH)
 Born: April 10, 1970
 Birthplace: Willoughby, OH

In his seventh year in the Ravens' personnel department, T.J. McCreight is in his 1st year as the team's national scout. After 3 years as an East area scout, T.J. received expanded coverage, and now scouts players across the country, focusing more on the southeast.

Prior to his appointment as area scout, T.J.'s duties with the team included assisting in pro scouting (some advance scouting of upcoming opponents, unrestricted free agency, NFL Europe and free agents), and assisting player personnel director Phil Savage in preparation for the NFL Draft. T.J. went on the road 2 weeks per month and helped perform "the box" workouts on college seniors.

McCreight gained his football experience in the college ranks both as a player and a coach. He was a 3-year starter at TE for Liberty University (Lynchburg, VA), where he played under former Cleveland Browns head coach Sam Rutigliano. T.J. graduated in 1992 with a degree in marketing.

His college coaching resume includes defensive line coach at Delaware State University from 1994-97 and receivers coach at Oberlin College from 1993-94. T.J. was an All-State WR at Willoughby (OH) H.S. before graduating in 1988. He and his wife, Linda, live with their 2-year-old son, Matthew, and their daughter, Maggie, born 6/02/03, in Willoughby, OH.

COACHING BACKGROUND: 1993 (Oberlin College); 1994-96 (Delaware State)

CITY OF CHAMPIONS

Baltimore is the only city that boasts champions in 3 different professional football leagues: the 2000 Ravens; the 1958, 1959 and 1970 NFL Colts; the 1984 and 1985 USFL Stars (Philadelphia/Baltimore) and the 1995 CFL Stallions.

Kevin Byrne | VP Public • Community Relations

College: Marquette
 Years with Modell Franchise: 23
 Years in NFL: 25
 High School: St. Edward (Lakewood, OH)
 Born: August 20, 1949
 Birthplace: Cleveland, OH

Kevin Byrne has been an integral part of the Modell organization for the past 23 years. "Kevin has earned respect around the league and among the reporters who cover the NFL. He has performed a wide variety of duties for us, and his responsibilities go well beyond the regular public relations functions," Art Modell says. Originally from Cleveland, Byrne currently directs the Ravens' public and community relations, plus the content for the team's various communications vehicles. Byrne's activities for the franchise through the years have included contract negotiations, directing the team's marketing department and serving on committees to interview and select head coaching candidates.

Byrne coordinated with David Modell to start the team's television productions in Cleveland. The Browns were the first NFL team to produce their own preseason games and weekly TV shows. When they left Cleveland, the team was producing 5 weekly TV shows, including Browns Insider, which was nominated for a local "Emmy" for "best sports programming" 3 of 5 years (1990-94). Byrne wrote most of the Browns' television shows over a 6-year span. In 1977, his 1st year in the NFL, Kevin was the public relations director for the St. Louis Cardinals. Two years later, he became the director of public affairs for Trans World Airline (1979-80).

Prior to the NFL, from 1974-77, Byrne was sports information director at his alma mater, Marquette University. He worked with Al McGuire and the Warriors' 1977 NCAA basketball champions. Byrne's 1st job after graduation was sports information director at the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Byrne earned a degree in journalism from Marquette University (1971), where he was selected to Alpha Sigma Nu, the National Jesuit Honor Society, and was a 4-year member of the Marquette wrestling team. Kevin is a graduate of St. Edward (Lakewood, OH) H.S., where he is a board member and former chairman of the school's Board of Trustees. He received the St. Edward Alumnus of the Year Award in 2000. Byrne is vice chairman of the Board of Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake and is the vice chairman of the Ravens Foundation for Families.

For 10 years (1985-96), he was the chairman of the NFL's Pro Football Writers' Liaison Committee. Byrne has been invited by the NFL to work 19 Super Bowls and 2 Pro Bowls. Along with the Ravens' publications director, Francine Lubera, Byrne co-wrote Super Journey: Diary of the Ravens World Championship Season, following the Super Bowl XXXV victory over the NY Giants, 34-7. Byrne has been selected by the NFL to make a number of presentations regarding media relations at league meetings, including presentations to head coaches and one to NFL front office managers last June at the Stanford Graduate School of Business.

Kevin and his wife, Sally, have 4 children: daughter, Shannon, and sons, Sean, Tim and Conor, a junior at Boston College.

Dennis Mannion | VP Business Dev • Marketing

College: Massachusetts
 Years with Modell Franchise: 4
 Years in NFL: 4
 High School: Mt. Lebanon (Pittsburgh, PA)
 Born: August 1, 1959
 Birthplace: Tarrytown, NY

Dennis Mannion joined the Ravens as vice president-business development and marketing, a newly created position, in December of 1999. Currently in his 23rd year of professional team sports, Mannion oversees corporate partnerships and development, broadcasting and production, consumer marketing and ticket and stadium operations, all contributing to the growth of the Ravens' fan base and revenues.

Prior to his appointment with the Ravens, Mannion served as senior vice president at Ascent Sports, where he handled all business operations of the National Hockey League's Colorado Avalanche and the National Basketball Association's Denver Nuggets. During his tenure, he transitioned the teams' operations to the newly-built Pepsi Center and inked the 2000 NHL All-Star Game agreement.

"The opportunity to work for passionate ownership, dedicated to winning, combined with the opportunity to further market and develop the NFL's already powerful game pushed me to come to the Ravens," Mannion says. "I am thrilled to be a part of an emerging team in an outstanding sports marketplace."

"We need to expand our horizons and produce more revenue to help provide funds for our football team to succeed. Dennis helps us do that," David Modell says. "Electronic and consumer marketing are just two examples where we can grow with Dennis' expertise and effort. Plus, he has tremendous experience in making home games a greater experience for our fans. We try to set the standard in everything we do, and Dennis helps us achieve the highest levels."

Photo: Dennis Mannion, the team's vice president of business development and marketing, is flanked by M&T Bank CEO Bob Saddler (left) and Ravens minority owner Steve Bisciotti at the announcement of the partnership between the Ravens and M&T Bank on Tuesday, May 6, 2003.

Prior to joining Ascent Sports (1998), Mannion served 16 seasons with the Philadelphia Phillies, including the last 8 years as vice president of marketing. Mannion was noted for enhancing the fan experience at Veterans Stadium and was named as a "40 Under 40" award winner in 1996 by the Philadelphia Business

Journal. The Phillies' organization received MLB Marketing Excellence awards in 1984 and 1986. He was instrumental in both the acquisition and the staging of the 1996 MLB All-Star Game in Philadelphia.

Mannion, who graduated from the University of Massachusetts in 1981 with a B.S. in Business and Sports Management, received the "Distinguished Alumnus Award" from his alma mater in 1998. Dennis currently serves on the NFL Marketing Committee, the Baltimore Better Business Bureau and is the founder of the Ravens All Community Team (see page 1).

The Tarrytown, NY, native and his wife, Pam, are parents of 5 children: Ryan (21), Kate (20), Allie (18), Kellen (17) and Tatum (7). The family resides in Reisterstown, MD.

Luis Perez | VP/ Chief Financial Officer

College: College of New Jersey
 Years with Modell Franchise: 6
 Years in NFL: 6
 High School: Carteret (NJ)
 Born: October 22, 1964
 Birthplace: Las Villas, Cuba

The Ravens' chief financial officer, Luis Perez, oversees all administrative functions of the club including finance, human resources, information technology and computer operations. One of four Ravens group operating heads (Kevin Byrne, Dennis Mannion and Ozzie Newsome), Luis joined the team's finance department in March of 1998, after a 2-year stint as controller for the New York Knicks and the New York Rangers (1997-98). Prior to joining the Knicks and Rangers, Luis was controller for the Philadelphia Phillies from 1992-1997. From 1986-92, Perez was a member of the international accounting firm of KPMG, becoming a CPA in 1990.

Perez brings valuable industry-related financial knowledge from his 11-plus years in the sports industry. "The public sees and hears from people like Brian and Ozzie, but someone very important to the Ravens who is not in the spotlight is Luis Perez," Ravens president David Modell says.

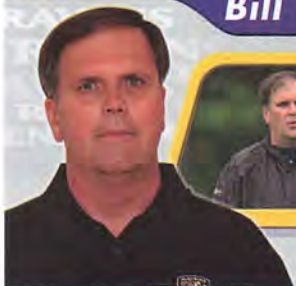

Perez graduated from the College of New Jersey in 1986 with a B.S. in accounting. While at the College of New Jersey, he was a captain of the baseball team and was an Academic All-America nominee after his junior and senior years.

Born in Las Villas, Cuba, Luis moved to the United States at the age of four. He and his wife, Joanne, reside in Owings Mills, MD, with their 3 daughters: Kelly (8), Allison (6) and Christina (2).

Did You KNOW?

In addition to NFL football, M&T Bank Stadium has hosted concerts, such as Metallica and the HFStival, sporting events such as the 2003 NCAA Lacrosse Championships and the Army-Navy Game (Dec., 2000) and is the sports home of the annual high school traditional games held each November between City and Poly and Calvert Hall and Loyola. M&T Bank Stadium also hosted the Navy-Notre Dame game in November, 2002.

Bill Tessendorf | Athletic Trainer

College: Northern Illinois
 Years with Modell Franchise: 31
 Years in NFL: 31
 High School: Luther H.S. North (Chicago, IL)
 Born: November 26, 1949
 Birthplace: Chicago, IL

Head certified athletic trainer Bill Tessendorf is in his 31st season with Art Modell's franchise. Bill and his assistants, Mark Smith (who has been with the club since 1986) and Mark Teeples, have earned reputations as one of the top training staffs in the league. Teeples joined the Ravens in 2002.

Bill was inducted into the Northern Illinois Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000 and also the Ohio Athletic Trainers' Hall of Fame in Athens, OH, in April, of 1999. Tessendorf also received the 1998 National Athletic Trainers Association's (NATA) Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award. In 1989, Bill's crew was honored as the "NFL's Athletic Training Staff of the Year" by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

"Bill Tessendorf is a dedicated worker who is a very, very valuable member of our organization," says owner Art Modell of the man who is entering his 18th season as head trainer. The Ohio Athletic Trainers' Association recognized Bill's talent by bestowing upon Bill the Clinical/ Professional Trainer of the Year Award in May of 1989.

Tessendorf first joined the Browns as an assistant trainer in 1973 while working towards his master's degree in exercise physiology, which he received in 1976 from Kent State. He did his undergraduate work at Northern Illinois University, graduating with a B.S. in education in 1971. Under Kent State coach Don James, Bill was a graduate assistant for a year, then took a job as an elementary school teacher in the DeKalb (IL) public school system (1972).

A year later, Tessendorf returned to KSU and began assisting former veteran Browns trainer Leo Murphy. Bill served as treasurer of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society for 10 years. He is also past President of

BALTIMORE RAVENS IN THE COMMUNITY

Art and Pat Modell, honored at the Boys and Girls Club event, September, 2002.

“Compassion is the greatest gift.”

● Baltimore Ravens owner Art Modell has made it his mantra over his 43-year ownership of the franchise to be involved in the community that supports his team. Art and his wife, Pat, have been recognized by numerous organizations for their involvement in the community, including various Touchdown Clubs, The Boys and Girls Club, United Way, Arthritis Foundation, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, and last June, the couple received the National Points of Light Leadership Award.

● The pair has hosted major fundraisers for a number of groups in the Baltimore area, including the Hospice of Baltimore (2001) and Cystic Fibrosis (1997). Art and Pat also have served on the boards of many community organizations: Executive Committee of the Greater Baltimore Committee (Art), Churchill Downs (Art), Kennedy Krieger Institute (Pat), Hospice of Baltimore (Pat) and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra (Pat).

Brian Billick addressed the crowd at the annual United Way Kickoff Luncheon, September, 2002.

● Ravens head coach Brian Billick, who joined the team in January of 1999, quickly became a staple in the Baltimore community. Baltimore locals soon found out how engaging he is, and local organizations responded with overwhelming requests for him to speak. He has made hundreds of appearances at local and national charity events, including the American Lung Association's Breath of Life Celebration and Ravens Roost events. Along with GM Ozzie Newsome, Billick hosted a "State of the Ravens" address for special friends of the Ravens in April, and in May, hosted the 5th Annual Coaches Clinic for area high school and college coaches. Brian adopted the Living Classrooms Foundation, which provides hands-on education and job training for students from diverse backgrounds, and has served as both a spokesperson and benefactor for the local organization.

● The Ravens' organization hosts and takes part in a number of charity events and activities benefiting the region. The Spring Football Festival, held each year at M&T Bank Stadium on draft day, features autograph and Q&A sessions with players, tours of the Ravens locker room, interactive games on the field and the live ESPN broadcast of the NFL Draft on the SMARTVISION boards. Fans have an opportunity to visit with players during Ravens Training Camp at nearby McDaniel College, as the team hosts community organizations, including church groups and summer camps. At training camp, the team participates in the Ed Block Courage Award's Ravens Rally for Kids, raising money for the St. Vincent's Center, a group close to the hearts of many in the Ravens organization.

Edgerton Hartwell and Anthony Mitchell explained the nickel defense to women at the Football 101 session in November, 2002.

In early September, the entire team attends the United Way Kickoff Luncheon, helping to ignite the group's annual campaign. Last year, the team hosted 4 sessions of Football 101 (Offense, Defense, Special Teams and Draft) and had an overwhelming response.

BALTIMORE RAVENS IN THE COMMUNITY

- In November, the Ravens host an annual Ravens Family Food Drive to benefit the Maryland Food Bank. Wives and other family members and friends of Ravens players, coaches and associates collect canned food and monetary donations prior to a Ravens' home game.

- Every Ravens player makes a commitment to spend Tuesdays in the community, either spending time working with groups through their own foundations, or supporting other causes important to them. Some of the local groups popular among the players include Big Brothers/Big Sisters, the Living Classrooms Foundation, Habitat for Humanity, St. Vincent's Center, Police Athletic League, Red Cross, Special Olympics of Maryland, youth ministry organizations, Baltimore City and County schools, Echo House Multi-Cultural Center and many other local community groups.

- G Edwin Mulitalo and TE Todd Heap hosted Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake's 3rd Annual Gridiron Halloween party last fall. The pair took over for the departed Shannon Sharpe, who hosted the event the first 2 years. Ravens teammates participated in a costume contest and helped raise over $100,000 for the event, also attended annually by Baltimore Mayor Martin O'Malley.

- Each year around Thanksgiving, Ravens players spend time donating money and food to families in need. LB Ray Lewis, who hosts an annual celebrity bowling event in May to raise money for his foundation, has distributed over 400 Thanksgiving meals to Baltimore families over the past two years. Families received Thanksgiving dinners from CB Chris McAlister, who has also participated the last 3 years.

- In December, Ravens players visited children at the University of Maryland Medical Center, spreading holiday cheer to the young patients. Team members also take part in the Police Athletic League's annual holiday party at ESPNZone and the Ravens host a holiday event for the youngsters from the St. Vincent's Center for abused children, the Ravens Courage House. Last year, the party took place at the Ravens facility, and players visited with the kids after practice.

BALTIMORE RAVENS IN THE COMMUNITY

● The Ravens All Community Team was formed in 2001 to increase corporate and community awareness of the Ravens Foundation for Families (RFF) and the foundations of Ravens players. Local companies partner with players in fundraising competition. Players are honored for their community service, each receiving awards for the efforts of their foundations at an annual December autograph and auction party. M&T Bank is a partner with the All Community Team. Players from the All Community Team are listed on the next page in the Player Foundations box.

LB Adalius Thomas shared a laugh with the crowd at the All Community Team autograph and auction party, December, 2002.

RAVENS FOUNDATION FOR FAMILIES

The Baltimore Ravens established the Ravens Foundation for Families (RFF) in their first season in Baltimore. The Foundation seeks to help change fundamental ills that hinder growth in Baltimore and Maryland families. RFF emphasizes gifts that improve the health and opportunities for children.

The foundation's programming and funding are intended to make a difference in the quality of life in Maryland. The funding priority of RFF is the physical and mental health of youth and the creation of environments for their positive social development.

The Foundation is a separate non-profit entity of the Ravens' community outreach. It has set the objective of full participation from players, coaches, their families and Ravens associates that crosses various social, economic and ethnic strata.

That participation includes, but is not limited to, motivational talks, social education, anti-drug and anti-delinquency programs, football clinics, mentoring and fundraising efforts.

Members of the Ravens, the City of Baltimore and LISC at the DeWees Park groundbreaking, November, 2002.

● The Ravens and the NFL committed a $100,000 grant to improve the DeWees Park football field in Baltimore and had a groundbreaking to announce the award in November, 2002. Along with the Baltimore City Department of Parks and Recreation, the field will be redeveloped as part of the NFL's Grassroots Program and the NFL's Youth Football Fund. The Grassroots program is a joint venture among the NFL, NFLPA and Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC).

TE Todd Heap, LB Ed Hartwell, DT Joe Salave'a, Ravens president David Modell and OT Damion Cook visited with a U.S. soldier and the Super Bowl trophy.

● Last spring, David Modell and Ravens players OT Damion Cook, LB Ed Hartwell, TE Todd Heap, DE Riddick Parker, DT Joe Salave'a, K Matt Stover and P Dave Zastudil, visited U.S. troops at the Bethesda Naval Hospital and the Walter Reed Memorial Hospital. The group was overwhelmed by the "Operation Iraqi Freedom" vets, including PFC Donald Robert Schaefer, of Northeast Baltimore, who was wounded in Iraq while saving an Atlanta journalist. One of the high-lights for the soldiers was being able to hold the Vince Lombardi Trophy. Ravens associates and cheerleaders were also there to show their support for the troops.

"Edwin's definitely the most consistent guy I've ever had. Before Edwin, I went through one or two guards a year. We don't have to think about what each other is going to do. All we need to worry about is what's [happening] on the other side of the ball. The first year, I was trying to get him to understand what was going on...But now he's all grown up. He is on his own now."

College: Alabama

H.S.: Chiefland (FL)

Born: 8/14/81, Homestead, FL

Joined Ravens: Draft 4a (109th overall), 2003

PRO: Jarret Johnson was selected with the 109th overall pick and was the 1st of 2 Ravens selections in the fourth round of the 2003 NFL Draft...With the 134th overall pick (4b), the Ravens chose FB Ovie Mughelli out of Wake Forest...Johnson, along with LB Terrell Suggs (Draft 1a, 10th overall) and DT Aubrayo Franklin (Draft 5a, 146th overall), will add depth to the Ravens' defensive front.

COLLEGE: Johnson's 23 sacks rank second on the Tide's career-record list, topped only by Derrick Thomas (52 for minus-408 yards, 1985-88)...His 25 stops for losses tied Leroy Cook (1972-75) for 2nd place on the school's career-record list behind Kindal Moorehead's record of 34 (1998-2002)...His combined sacks and tackles for losses (48) is surpassed only by Thomas (74) on Alabama's career-record chart...Recorded 190 tackles (110 solo) with 23 sacks for minus-194 yards and 25 stops of ball carriers for losses of 122 yards...A 3-year starter, Johnson joined Kenny King and Moorehead to form 1 of the premier D-lines in college football the last 3 years.

"When Rex Ryan read his report on Jarret Johnson, he said he plays like a Raven. That's the type of motor and intensity that Jarret plays with. He's a bit undersized that's been well-stated. But, he plays with a lot of heart, a lot of passion, and I think at the end of the day, he's going to give us a lot of production."

— Ozzie Newsome on Jarret Johnson

2002: All-American second-team choice by The NFL Draft Report...All-Southeastern Conference first-team pick by the Associated Press...The heart and soul of a defensive unit that held opponents to under 100 yards rushing in 7 games...Recorded 54 tackles (27 solo) with 5 sacks for minus-44

College: Illinois

H.S.: Lockport (IL) Township

Born: 8/3/80, Palos Heights, IL

Joined Ravens: Draft 5b (173rd overall), 2003

PRO: Tony Pashos was picked with the 173rd overall selection in the fifth round of the 2003 NFL Draft...Pashos was the 2nd of 2 Ravens picks in that round; DT Aubrayo Franklin (Tennessee) was the first, at 146th overall...The last offensive lineman drafted by the Ravens was C/G Casey Rabach (D3-92nd overall) in 2001, and the last offensive tackle selected was in 1999, T/G Edwin Mulitalo (D4b, 129th overall) out of Arizona. Later, in the seventh round, the Ravens selected C Mike Mabry (245th overall, 2003).

COLLEGE: Pashos earned first-team All-Big Ten honors his last 2 years and was a mainstay on the Illini offensive line, starting every game (47) at RT during his career...Known for his size and strength, he averaged 9.2 knockdown blocks per game in his last 2 years.

2002: All-American second-team pick by The NFL Draft Report...Earned All-Big Ten Conference first-team honors for the second-straight year...Added Academic All-Big Ten accolades...Recipient of the Bruce Capel Award, given to the Illini player who displays the most courage...Started every game at RT, registering 114 knockdowns as the offense gained over 5,000 yards (5,356) for the 2nd-straight year...Opened the season with 9 knockdowns and cleared a rush lane used by halfback Antoino Harris for a 2-yard TD as the Illini totaled 313 yards against Missouri...Delivered 14 knockdowns, including 1 that opened a hole used by Morris Virgil for a 2-yard scoring run as the offense generated 600 yards against Arkansas State...Cut-blocked LB Victor Hobson on a 46-yard TD pass from Jon Beutjer-to-Brandon Lloyd as the team gained 543 yards against Michigan...Against Purdue, the offense tallied 417 yards...The Fighting Illini amassed 459 yards against Indiana...Executed a cut-block to level Penn State's DE Michael Haynes on Beutjer's 1-yard scoring lob to Kenny Boyle...Shoved rush end Jake Sprague to the ground on Beutjer's 36-yard TD pass to Lloyd as the aerial game accounted for 319 yards.

"Illinois coach Ron Turner would tell you that Tony's one of the toughest, most-impassioned persons he has coached during his career. If you go back and look at where he was rated back in August and September, you'd find he was near the top of the offensive tackle board. He's in the mold of Jason Fabini, a tough guy, playing hard every play."

— Phil Savage on Tony Pashos

2001: All-Big Ten first-team selection...Lined up at RT, finishing 2nd on the team with 111 knockdowns as the offense generated over 5,000 yards (5,041) for the first time in school history...Paced a strong blocking effort as the front wall allowed only 16 sacks (2nd in the Big Ten)...Best game was against Louisville when he registered a season-high 17 knockdowns, including 1 that leveled DE Dewayne White on a 6-yard scoring run by tailback Antoino Harris as the offense generated 508 yards.

2000: Started every game at RT, participating in 575 plays as he registered 60 knockdowns as the offensive line allowed only 20 sacks...Helped the offense average 379.9 yards per game.

1999: Moved into the starting lineup at RT, posting 41 knockdowns as he led the way for an offense that generated 4,887 yards...The offensive line allowed only 27 QB sacks...Best game was against Michigan when Pashos took down DT Josh Williams on a 60-yard scoring pass from Kurt Kittner to FB Jameel Cook and later came up with the game-winning TD block as Rocky Harvey broke free for a 54-yard TD jaunt with 0:16 left to give Illinois a 35-29 decision...The offense gained 437 yards for the day while the front wall did not allow a sack.

TONY PASHOS 79

1998: Redshirted as a freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL, PERSONAL: Attended Lockport (IL) Township H.S....Played offensive tackle, helped to lead Lockport to a 9-2 mark and the IHSA Class 6A playoff berth as a senior...Led the team in pancake blocks as a senior, earning All-SICA Blue honors...Second-team All-State selection by the Chicago Tribune and first-team All-Area by pick from the Star and Herald News...Earned 9 varsity letters, including 4 in football, 3 in track and 2 in power lifting...Earned MVP honors in Rudy's 1997 Powerlifting meet, breaking the meet record for the dead-lift at 660 pounds and total weight at 1,610 pounds...Excelled in the classroom, earning conference academic honors...History major, who earned conference and district academic honors with a 3.2 grade point average...Enjoys studying Greek mythology and speaks fluent Greek...Helped Illini teammates conduct the 7th-inning stretch at Wrigley Field in 2002...Name is pronounced: PAH-shos...Full name: Anthony George Pashos.

Ht: 6'2" Wt: 202
 College: Utah
 H.S.: Terry Sanford (Fayetteville, NC)
 Born: 9/22/77, Fayetteville, NC
 Joined Ravens: Draft 7c (258th), 2003

PRO: Antoine Sanders was the 258th overall selection and 3rd of 3 players taken in the 7th round by the Ravens in the 2003 NFL Draft...TE Trent Smith (Oklahoma) was the first (223rd overall) and C Mike Mabry (Central Florida) was taken 250th.

COLLEGE: The 2-time All-Mountain West Conference and Academic All-MWC choice is expected to "complement Ravens S Ed Reed," according to college scouting director, Eric DeCosta...Sanders finished his Ute career with 143 tackles (87 solo), 4 stops behind the line of scrimmage, 6 INTs for 99 yards in returns and 8 passes defended in 22 games...Antwoine transferred (2001) from Arizona Western Junior College to Utah.

2002: Consensus All-Mountain West 1st-team selection...Rated the 15th-best player overall in college by College Football News...Started every game at FS, recording 65 tackles (39 solo) with a pair of stops behind the line of scrimmage...Intercepted 2 passes for 30 yards in returns and deflected 4 passes...Caused and recovered a fumble...Showed great concentration and skills against Nevada-Las Vegas when he returned an INT 25 yards, advanced a blocked field goal 54 yards and deflected 4 passes...Caused and recovered (Colorado State) a fumble.

"He's the type of kid we envision complementing Ed Reed very well, playing back in centerfield and making some plays downfield with Ed in the box. He's another guy we thought was an excellent value in the seventh round and could be an excellent special teams player for us, as well."

— Eric DeCosta on Antwoine Sanders

2001: Second-team All-Mountain West Conference and Academic All-MWC pick...Lined up at FS, recording 78 tackles (48 solo) with 2 stops for losses of 5 yards...Intercepted 4 passes for 69 yards in returns and defended 4 passes...Best game was against Brigham Young with a career-high 18 tackles (14 solo) and a defended pass.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: First-team All-Conference and All-Region DB for Arizona Western Junior College.

HIGH SCHOOL, PERSONAL: Attended Terry Sanford (Fayetteville, NC) H.S....Named one of top 50 players in North Carolina...Sociology major (3.43 grade point average)...Tim Morrison (uncle), played football at North Carolina and for the Super Bowl champion Washington Redskins (1987)...Has a daughter, Eytiana...Full name: Antwoine Sanders.

Panthers 10, Ravens 7
Ericsson Stadium

An INT with less than 2 minutes left in regulation foiled the Ravens' comeback hopes, as Baltimore lost to the Carolina Panthers at Ericsson Stadium in the first game of the 2002 season. Down 3 points, the Ravens had the ball on their own 40, but on third-and-3, Carolina's DE Julius Peppers hit QB Chris Redman while he was throwing, causing an INT by LB Dan Morgan that sealed the game. It was a hard way for Redman to finish a strong debut. He connected on 20 of 34 passes for 218 yards and a TD in his first NFL start. Redman worked his way into a comfort zone during the Ravens' second drive, connecting three times with TE Todd Heap and once with WR Brandon Stokley, who set career highs in receptions (6) and yards (83). Redman then fired a perfect deep ball to WR Travis Taylor for 36 yards, taking it down to the Carolina 11-yard line. Two plays later, Redman connected with rookie WR Ron Johnson for an 8-yard touchdown strike – a first for both players – giving the Ravens a 7-0 lead. On the possession, Redman showed poise under pressure, connecting on all 6 passes for 77 yards. The Panthers scored on the ensuing possession, as QB Rodney Peete – who was 12 of 19 for 136 yards in his first start since 1998 – completed passes of 9 and 33 yards before connecting with TE Wesley Walls on a 20-yard TD score to tie the game. A 27-yard FG by John Kasay in the second quarter completed the scoring.

 Buccaneers 25, Ravens 0
 Ravens Stadium

The Ravens' defense did not allow an offensive TD, but a turnover and big special teams plays propelled the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to a 25-0 victory in front of a sellout crowd of 69,304 at Ravens Stadium in week two. Members of the Unitas family and Colts teammate Lenny Moore were among those who took part in a moving tribute to Johnny Unitas before the game. Ravens QB Chris Redman, who was close to Unitas, wore black high tops in honor of his hero and close friend. Redman completed 16 of 38 passes for 141 yards and threw an INT that was returned for a TD. Tampa Bay's attacking defense also keyed on RB Jamal Lewis, who rushed for 53 yards on 17 carries. Lewis caught a team-high 5 passes for 38 yards. On the Bucs' opening possession, K Martin Gramatica booted a 36-yard FG to give Tampa Bay a 3-0 lead. Later in the quarter, the Buccaneers' WR Karl Williams returned Dave Zastudil's punt 54 yards for a TD. Gramatica hit a 30-yard FG in the second quarter that gave Tampa Bay a 13-0 lead. After halftime, both defenses clamped down. On the Ravens' first play from scrimmage in the third quarter, the handoff from Redman to Lewis was fumbled. Neither team could get possession of the ball until it went out of bounds in the Ravens' end zone, giving the Bucs a safety. On the ensuing possession, Tampa Bay drove from its own 40-yard line to inside the Ravens' 10, but a pair of false start penalties ended the drive. Gramatica booted another 30-yard FG, putting Tampa up 18-0. With less than 5 minutes left in the fourth quarter, the Ravens faced third-and-3 from their own 4-yard line when LB Derrick Brooks picked Redman off at the 3 and ran 97 yards for a TD. It was the longest INT return ever against Baltimore.

 Ravens 34, Broncos 23
 Ravens Stadium

The Ravens scored a team-record 31 points in the second quarter and cruised to victory over the Denver Broncos. Denver's K Jason Elam opened the scoring with a 40-yard FG in the first quarter. Just 45 seconds into the second period, the Ravens' offense came to life. QB Chris Redman connected with TE Todd Heap for a 23-yard score, giving the Ravens a 7-3 lead. After Baltimore's defense snuffed out the next drive, S Ed Reed blocked the 1st punt in Ravens history. RB Jamal Lewis, who had 78 yards on 25 carries, then scored from 2 yards out, giving the Ravens a 14-3 lead. Stover later kicked a 23-yard FG for a 17-3 advantage. On Denver's ensuing drive, LB Ray Lewis, who had a team-high 18 tackles, intercepted Griese's pass on the Denver 36. That set up a 3-yard TD pass from Redman to Heap. On the last play of the half, Elam missed on a 57-yard FGA, and CB Chris McAlister caught the ball on the fly and ran it back an NFL-record 107 yards for a TD, giving Baltimore a 31-3 lead. Stover kicked a 41-yard FG early in the second half to extend that advantage. Denver managed 3 TDs in the second half - FB Reuben Droughns barreled in from a yard out, Griese hooked up with TE Patrick Hape for a 2-yard TD pass, and Griese scored on a 1-yard run - but the rally fell short.

Ravens 26, Browns 21
Cleveland Browns Stadium

With a shout that silenced 73,688 faithful at Cleveland Browns Stadium, the Ravens' defense came up with play-after-game-saving play, as Baltimore outlasted the Browns 26-21. Clinging to a 5-point lead and playing without an injured LB Ray Lewis late in the game, Baltimore S Ed Reed picked off a pass from Cleveland QB Kelly Holcomb, tipped by CB Chris McAlister, in the end zone on the last play of regulation. Offensively, the Ravens churned out 409 yards and amassed 18 first downs. RB Jamal Lewis tied his career high by rushing for 187 yards, 75 of which came on 1 run, and again led the team in receptions with 5. QB Chris Redman was an efficient 19 of 30 for 208 yards and no INTs to help put the Ravens into first place of the AFC North. After a scoreless first quarter, Redman connected with WR Brandon Stokley on a 30-yard TD pass to give Baltimore a 7-0 lead. K Matt Stover later added a 43-yard FG, the first of 4 stretching the lead to 10-0. Stover also connected from 28, 27 and 28 yards on the night. Redman and Stokley hooked up on a 35-yard TD pass early in the second half to further widen the lead. Cleveland cut the lead into the lead thanks to 3 fourth-quarter TD passes – 2 by Holcomb, 1 by Couch – and the Browns were driving for the game-winner when Reed made the INT.

Colts 22, Ravens 20
RCA Dome

A late pass interference call in the game's final seconds set up a game-winning 38-yard FG by Indianapolis K Mike Vanderjagt, as the Colts eked out a 22-20 win over the Ravens at the RCA Dome. The Colts faced a 4th-and-10 from their own 36-yard line late in the fourth quarter when LB Peter Boulware pressured QB Peyton Manning into throwing the ball up for grabs. CB Gary Baxter was called for a controversial interference after a pass to WR Qadry Ismail fell incomplete. Playing without LB Ray Lewis and DE Michael McCrary, the Ravens held the Colts to just 1 TD and 60 yards rushing. The Colts scored on their first possession, an 11-yard TD pass from QB Peyton Manning to TE Marcus Pollard, but Baltimore clamped down after that. Baltimore K Matt Stover connected on FGs of 41 and 51 yards – the latter tied his own team record – in the first quarter, to pull the Ravens to within 7-6. Later in the half, Vanderjagt connected on a 39-yard FG, his 1st of 5, to extend the Colts' lead to 10-6. The kicker added a 50-yard FG late in the half to give the Colts a TD advantage (13-6) at the half. In the third quarter, the Ravens reached the end zone when Jamal Lewis ran in untouched from 5 yards out. Stover's extra point tied the game. Lewis rushed for a game-high 75 yards on 21 carries and caught a career-high 7 passes for 51 yards. But Indianapolis quickly regained the lead. On the first play of the fourth period, Vanderjagt split the uprights with a 43-yard FG, and after forcing a turnover, the Colts extended their lead to 19-13 when Vanderjagt kicked a 25-yard FG. The Ravens later drove down the field and Lewis again scored from 5 yards out to give the Ravens their only lead of the game.

Ravens 17, Jaguars 10
Ravens Stadium

With the game on the line, Ravens rookie S Will Demps stepped in front of a Jaguars' QB Mark Brunell pass on the goal line as time expired, and Baltimore earned a 17-10 victory to remain atop the AFC North. Demps, a rookie free agent, made his first-career INT at a critical time and helped the Baltimore defense limit the high-powered Jaguars to just 1 TD. Demps was symbolic of a new-look defense that pulled out a victory without the services of Pro Bowl LB Ray Lewis, who is still recovering from a shoulder injury. Led by devastating runs by RB Jamal Lewis – who totaled 119 yards on 28 carries – and a pair of TD receptions by TE Todd Heap, the Baltimore offense provided enough for the nail-biting victory. Ravens QB Chris Redman, who completed 14 of 28 passes for 152 yards, connected with Heap for scores of 1 and 20 yards. Redman did not throw an INT for the 4th time in the 2002 season. Jamal Lewis had his 7th-career 100-yard regular season rushing game despite running behind an offensive line riddled by injuries. The Jaguars scored just 1 TD despite churning out nearly 400 yards of offense. RB Fred Taylor had 197 all-purpose yards, including 151 on the ground, but Brunell threw 3 INTs on the day, his first INTs since week one. Ravens LB Bernardo Harris and DE Adalius Thomas both picked off Brunell once. Taylor did score on a 9-yard run in the second quarter to give Jacksonville its only TD. Baltimore K Matt Stover connected on a 30-yard FG, while the Jags' K Hayden Epstein connected from 22 yards out to complete the scoring.

 Steelers 31, Ravens 18
 Ravens Stadium

The Baltimore Ravens turned the ball over 5 times, committed 13 penalties for 100 yards and fell behind 28-3 at halftime, eventually losing to the Pittsburgh Steelers 31-18 in a battle for first place of the AFC North. The Ravens played without LB Ray Lewis (shoulder) and QB Chris Redman (back), both shelved with injuries, in just their second home loss of the season. Veteran QB Jeff Blake filled in for Redman and completed 29 of 50 passes (tied for 3rd-most in franchise history) for 298 yards and a TD, but did throw 3 INTs. On the game's opening possession, Steelers RB Amos Zereoue, who started in place of the injured RB Jerome Bettis, scored on a 35-yard TD run. Pittsburgh kept the pressure coming on its next possession, as QB Tommy Maddox hit WR Plaxico Burress on a 20-yard TD pass to give Pittsburgh a 14-0 advantage. Maddox later hit Burress for a second TD, this time from 9 yards out, and the Steelers led 21-0. On the Ravens' next drive, Baltimore K Matt Stover kicked a 28-yard FG to cut into the Pittsburgh lead. Late in the half, Zereoue leapt into the end zone from 1 yard out to give Pittsburgh a 28-3 lead. In the second half, Blake connected with TE John Jones from 18 yards for a TD and then hit TE Todd Heap in the end zone for the 2-point conversion to make the score 28-11. The Steelers' K Todd Peterson then hit a 34-yard FG to give Pittsburgh a 31-11 advantage. Early in the fourth quarter, Blake scrambled to the end zone from 1 yard out, pulling the Ravens to within 31-18. Ravens WR Travis Taylor pulled in a career-high 7 passes for 82 yards, while RB Jamal Lewis added 5 receptions for 50 yards.

Falcons 20, Ravens 17
Georgia Dome

The Baltimore Ravens, who fell behind by 2 TDs in the first half, played well the rest of the way, but still lost to the Falcons 20-17 at the Georgia Dome. Although injuries sidelined Pro Bowl LB Ray Lewis and DE Michael McCrary, Baltimore contained Falcons QB Michael Vick, who completed just 50 percent of his passes for 136 yards and rushed for minus-5 yards. He was also sacked 3 times and threw his first INT of the season. K Matt Stover drilled a 32-yarder for the Ravens to open the scoring, then K Jay Feely connected from 23 yards out for Atlanta (5-3). With 12 minutes, 30 seconds left in the first half, QB Jeff Blake, fumbled the ball while in the process of throwing it. Atlanta DE Patrick Kerney scooped it up and rumbled into the end zone from 4 yards out. Atlanta RB T.J. Duckett gave the Falcons a 14-point advantage when he barreled into the end zone from the 1-yard line midway through the second quarter. On the Ravens' next possession, Blake connected with WR Travis Taylor on a 64-yard bomb down the left sideline, the longest reception of the wide receiver's career. Later in the drive, Blake, who completed 14 of 27 passes for 229 yards, connected with Taylor on a 7-yard slant pattern for a TD. Taylor had a career-high 127 yards on the day. In the second half, Blake handed Taylor the ball on an end-around, but seeing no room to run, he bounced back the other way and sprinted 39 yards. Three plays later, FB Alan Ricard rumbled 19 yards to the end zone. Suddenly, the Ravens had the game tied at 17-17, but later in the quarter, Feely kicked a 40-yard FG, which was the difference in the game.

 Ravens 38, Bengals 27
 Ravens Stadium

Capitalizing on TDs from both the defense and special teams, the Ravens routed the Bengals 38-27 to snap a 2-game losing streak. In the second quarter, DE Adalius Thomas intercepted Bengals QB Jon Kitna and took it 25 yards to the end zone, while RS Lamont Brightful returned a punt for a franchise-record 95 yards and a score later in the period. The return was also the longest in the NFL in 2002. S Ed Reed added a career-high 2 INTs, while LB Edgerton Hartwell had his first 2 sacks of the year (15.0 yards). QB Jeff Blake moved the Ravens from their own 24-yard line all the way down to the Cincinnati 1-yard line in the first quarter. RB Jamal Lewis then took a pitch around the left side and slipped into the end zone untouched, giving Baltimore a 7-0 lead. On the ensuing kickoff, Cincinnati's KR Brandon Bennett raced 94 yards to the end zone, tying the game at 7. Thomas' INT return for a TD gave the Ravens a 14-7 lead on the first play of the second quarter. The Bengals scored again with 5:42 left in the half, as Kitna hit WR Chad Johnson in stride with a 39-yard TD pass, tying the game at 14. On the next possession, K Matt Stover booted a 33-yard FG, for a 17-14 lead. Brightful then followed that with his punt return for a TD, making the score 24-14 at the half. After the Bengals hit a FG, Blake then threw a 1-yard TD strike to WR Travis Taylor. On the scoring drive, RB Jamal Lewis passed former Raven RB Priest Holmes as the team's all-time rushing yards leader. Lewis, who finished with 135 yards on 21 carries, later added a 3-yard TD run. The Bengals added a late TD when Kitna connected with WR Peter Warrick for a 3-yard score, making the final, 38-27.

Dolphins 26, Ravens 7

Pro Player Stadium

The return of LB Ray Lewis was not enough for the Ravens to stop the resurgence of the Miami Dolphins. Despite the emotional and physical lift of having the 5-time Pro Bowler back on the field, Baltimore was dropped by the Dolphins 26-7 at Pro Player Stadium. Baltimore QB Jeff Blake completed 14 of 28 passes for 127 yards and threw 1 INT. He was also sacked 7 times. The Dolphins also had a lock on the Baltimore run game, as Miami limited RB Jamal Lewis to 47 yards. Playing with a harness on his injured left shoulder, Ray Lewis led the team with 18 tackles. RB Ricky Williams, who rushed for a game-high 102 yards on 26 carries, opened the scoring in the first quarter by spinning into the end zone on a 2-yard TD run. Baltimore later tied the game with a gutsy call. Set up by a 44-yard punt return by RS Lamont Brightful, the Ravens faced 4th-and-inches at the Miami 28-yard line. With the entire defense keying on Jamal Lewis, Blake faked the give to Lewis and threw it up top to WR Travis Taylor, who reeled in the 28-yard TD catch. K Matt Stover's extra point tied the game at 7-7. The Dolphins, who began on their own 40, struck back immediately. QB Ray Lucas completed 3 straight passes before leaping into the end zone from 1 yard out, putting Miami up 14-7. The Dolphins extended the lead to 17-7 when K Olindo Mare booted a 42-yard FG with 8 seconds left in the half. In the second half, Blake was intercepted by CB Patrick Surtain, who brought the ball back to the Ravens' 40. The pick led to a 49-yard FG by Mare, extending Miami's lead to 20-7. In the fourth quarter, Williams scored again, churning his way in from 4 yards out. Miami's 2-point conversion failed, but Miami picked up its 1st victory in 4 games.

Ravens 13, Titans 12
Ravens Stadium

Thanks largely to game-altering plays by rookies S Ed Reed, LB Bart Scott and S Chad Williams, Baltimore outlasted Tennessee, 13-12. Playing without defensive starters LB Ray Lewis, CB Chris McAlister and DE Michael McCrary, the Ravens held Tennessee to 4 FGs, snapping its 5-game winning streak and holding QB Steve McNair without a TD pass for the 1st time in 27 games. A minute into the game, Reed blocked Tennessee P Craig Hentrich's kick, scooped it up and ran 11 yards to the end zone. But it wasn't until another rookie DB broke up a 4th-down pass in the fourth quarter that the Ravens were truly in the clear. Trailing by a point, the Titans faced a 4th-and-2 on their own 33-yard line with 1:41 remaining. Williams, who already had an INT, read McNair's eyes and broke up a pass intended for TE Frank Wycheck to seal the game. On the Titans' 2nd drive, they marched inside the Ravens' 10, but on 3rd-and-goal, Scott picked off McNair's pass in the end zone. Later in the quarter, LB Peter Boulware recovered a McNair fumble on the Titans' 21-yard line, setting up a 26-yard FG by K Matt Stover. Tennessee went 69 yards on 14 plays to open the second quarter, but the Titans had to settle for a 32-yard FG by K Joe Nedney. Later, McNair directed the Titans into Ravens territory and set up a 37-yard FG by Nedney, making the score 10-6 at halftime. In the second half, the Titans and Ravens traded INTs (CB James Trapp had a pick for Baltimore, FS Lance Schulters for Tennessee), but neither could generate points off of them. Later in the third period, Williams was the final Raven to make an INT, and Baltimore was in business at its own 44-yard line. The Ravens strung together a drive to the Tennessee 25, and Stover kicked a 43-yard FG to extend the lead to 13-6. Nedney kicked a 40-yard FG and a 21-yarder late in the game to make the score 13-12.

 Ravens 27, Bengals 23
 Paul Brown Stadium

For the 2nd time in as many weeks, the Ravens thwarted a possible rally by closing down their opponents on 4th down. Cincinnati was the Ravens' latest victim in a 27-23 affair at Paul Brown Stadium. With the Bengals facing 4th-and-7 from the Ravens' 10-yard line with 34 seconds remaining, DE Adalius Thomas knocked down QB Jon Kitna's pass across the middle, helping the Ravens survive another heart-stopper. As he did the previous week, rookie S Chad Williams made a pair of game-altering plays. Williams returned an INT a franchise record-tying 98 yards for a TD and blocked a punt that resulted in another score, a 22-yard return by another rookie, WR Ron Johnson. With time winding down in the first half, Kitna threw an ill-advised pass to the left side. Williams stepped in front of the pass at the 2 and took it back the length of the field. Baltimore trailed 23-14 as the fourth quarter began when Williams blocked Nick Harris' punt and Johnson scooped the ball up for the TD. After a fumble recovery, on 2nd-and-2 from the Bengals' 22, QB Jeff Blake found TE Todd Heap in the end zone for the go-ahead score. Early in the first, Kitna hooked up with WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh for a 4-yard TD pass, but K Neil Rackers missed the point after, keeping the score at 6-0. Later in the half, RB Corey Dillon ran into the end zone from 5 yards out. Rackers connected this time on the extra point, giving the Bengals a 13-0 advantage. On Baltimore's next possession, RB Jamal Lewis put the Ravens in Bengals territory. Then, on 1st-and-10 from the Cincinnati 39-yard line, Blake hit a wide-open WR Travis Taylor for a TD, cutting the lead to 13-7. Rackers kicked a 40-yard FG, good for a 16-14 advantage at the half. On Cincinnati's first possession of the second half, the team again reached the end zone when Kitna connected with WR Chad Johnson on a 35-yard pass, giving the Bengals a 23-14 advantage.

 Saints 37, Ravens 25
 Ravens Stadium

New Orleans blocked 2 punts, recovered 3 fumbles and picked QB Jeff Blake off twice en route to a 37-25 victory. RB Deuce McAllister rushed for 3 TDs and churned out 127 yards (32 carries) on the ground for the Saints. On the Ravens' 1st possession of the game, Blake had the ball pop out of his hands as he cocked to throw. Saints DE Willie Whitehead recovered the ball, leading to a 34-yard field goal by K John Carney for a 3-0 lead. On the Ravens' next possession, things went awry with an aborted faked punt, as P Dave Zastudil looked to throw the ball on 4th down and then tried to kick it, only to have it blocked. Two plays later, QB Aaron Brooks drilled WR Donte Stallworth on a 28-yard TD pass, giving New Orleans a 10-0 advantage. Later in the quarter, the Ravens got their offense going, as they moved down the field on a pair of big-gainers. WR Travis Taylor broke loose for a 31-yard run on an end-around, then Blake found TE Todd Heap on a 43-yard bomb to the Saints' 1-yard line. On the next play, RB Jamal Lewis, who had 48 yards rushing and a career-high 108 yards receiving, barreled into the end zone, making it 10-7. The Saints answered right back with a 28-yard FG by Carney. In the waning seconds of the first half, McAllister scored his 1st TD of the game, going in from 1 yard out and giving the Saints a 20-7 lead. Early in the third, McAllister ran into the end zone from 3 yards out and the Saints assumed a 27-7 lead. On the 2nd play of the Ravens' next possession, Lewis took a swing pass from Blake, turned the corner and raced a career-long 77 yards to the end zone, pulling the Ravens to within 13 points. K Matt Stover drilled a 26-yard FG early in the fourth quarter to make the score 27-17. But the Saints strung together a time-consuming drive and a 28-yard FG gave the Saints a 30-17 advantage with 6:26 left in regulation. McAllister added a 3rd TD with just under 3 minutes left, to give the Saints a 37-17 lead. Blake added a TD pass to rookie TE Terry Jones Jr.

 Ravens 23, Texans 19
 Reliant Stadium

In the latest chapter of the Ravens' thrilling season, Baltimore's defense again made a game-saving stop and preserved the team's 23-19 victory over the Texans. The hero, again, was rookie S Chad Williams. With two minutes left in regulation and the Ravens leading by 4, Houston had the ball and needed a TD. On 3rd-and-10 from the Texans' 32, Williams dove and intercepted Texans QB David Carr's deflected pass, sealing the game. In the victory, Baltimore QB Jeff Blake completed 18 of 30 passes for 228 yards, 2 TDs and no INTs. The teams traded punts to open the game, but on the Texans' 2nd possession, S Ed Reed stepped in front of Carr's pass (tying a Ravens rookie record with his 5th INT) and returned it to the Houston 12-yard line. K Matt Stover kicked a 22-yard FG to give the Ravens a 3-0 lead. In the second quarter, the Texans faced a 3rd-and-4 from the Baltimore 25, when Carr connected with TE Jabari Holloway for 24 yards, setting up a 1-yard TD run by RB Jonathan Wells. On the Ravens' next possession, Stover again booted a 22-yard FG, making the score 7-6. The Ravens forced Houston to punt on its next possession and took over on their own 3-yard line. Blake then began to heat up, hitting WR Travis Taylor on passes of 23 and 30 yards. Then on 2nd-and-11 from the Texans' 26, Taylor hauled in a leaping TD reception, capping the longest drive of the season. On the possession, which gave the Ravens a 13-7 halftime lead, Taylor caught 3 passes for 79 yards and Blake was 4-for-5 for 94 yards. Early in the second half, Baltimore moved from its own 16 to the Texans' red zone, thanks to 3 consecutive completions by Blake. The QB then found RB Chester Taylor on an 11-yard pass and run for Taylor's first-career TD, putting the Ravens up 20-7. The Texans' WR Avion Black returned a punt 76 yards for a TD with just 4 seconds left in the quarter, cutting the lead to 20-14, but the Ravens responded in the 4th period when Stover nailed a 47-yard FG to extend the lead to 9. The Texans drew as close as they would get when K Kris Brown hit a 41-yard FG with 2 minutes, 56 seconds left in regulation.

Browns 14, Ravens 13

Ravens Stadium

The Browns ended Baltimore's AFC North title aspirations with a late TD drive and a 14-13 heart-breaking victory. Cleveland QB Tim Couch connected with TE Mark Campbell for a 1-yard TD pass with 29 seconds left in regulation, capping off a 92-yard drive that took just 1 minute, 49 seconds off the clock. On the drive, Couch completed 6 of 7 passes for 78 yards. The Ravens' last chance ended when QB Jeff Blake's Hail Mary was intercepted by DB Michael Jameson with 6 seconds remaining. It was a draining finish for a team that played a great all-around game for 58 minutes, only to let it slip away in the final moments. Leading 13-7 with 2:37 left in regulation, the Ravens faced 3rd-and-7 from the Cleveland 40. RB Jamal Lewis, who rushed for 100 yards on 21 carries, took the pitch around the end, and was forced out of bounds 2 yards short of a 1st down. The Ravens had to punt, pinning the Browns on their own 8-yard-line, but giving them 1 last chance. All of Cleveland's offense came on its first drive and its last drive. Couch, who completed 22 of 31 passes for 209 yards and a TD, was sharp early, moving Cleveland from its own 19-yard line into Baltimore territory with 4 consecutive completions. The Browns faced 4th-and-7 from the Ravens' 33-yard line, and Couch found WR Quincy Morgan for 16 yards and the 1st down. RB Jamel White then ran into the end zone on 3rd-and-goal from the 3, giving the Browns an early 7-0 lead. The Ravens opened their 1st drive with a unique play - twice. Baltimore called 2 straight end-arounds to WR Travis Taylor, putting the Ravens in Cleveland territory. Blake, who was 16 of 28 for 143 yards, connected on his first 2 passes, including a 9-yard throw to Pro Bowl TE Todd Heap that put the Ravens into the red zone. Heap led the Ravens with 7 catches for 61 yards. The drive set up a 31-yard FG by K Matt Stover. The Ravens later put together a 12-play, 84-yard drive that was capped when Blake passed to Taylor, who dove to make the catch, but was not touched. Taylor got up and ran to the end zone for a 17-yard score to give Baltimore a 10-7 advantage. The only points in the second half came when Stover drilled a 43-yard FG, until the Browns' final drive.

 Steelers 34, Ravens 31
 Heinz Field

A late turnover caused Baltimore to come up painstakingly short in its 34-31 loss to the Steelers. Down a FG with 18 seconds remaining, Ravens QB Jeff Blake's pass in the back of the end zone was intercepted by CB Dewayne Washington to end the game. Despite the painful finish, the Ravens had their most-prolific offensive day of the season. Blake completed 19 of 26 passes for 336 yards and 2 TDs to lead the team to a season-high 422 total yards, although he did throw 2 INTs. The Steelers got off to a quick start, as QB Tommy Maddox completed a 23-yard TD pass to WR Hines Ward for a 7-0 lead. The Ravens stormed right back. On 1st-and-goal from the 6, RB Jamal Lewis ran up the middle, but fumbled the ball forward into the end zone. FB Alan Ricard fell on it for a TD, tying the game at 7-7. In the second, K Jeff Reed hit a 23-yard FG, then RB Amos Zereoue scored on a 1-yard TD run to give the Steelers a 17-7 advantage. Ricard later scored on his own, barreling in from 6 yards out to make the score 17-14. The Ravens had a chance to get closer late in the half, but Blake fumbled after a hit by LB Jason Gildon. Reed connected on a 48-yard FG as the half ended to give the Steelers a 20-14 lead. Baltimore K Matt Stover narrowed the lead when he drilled a 43-yard FG. On the Ravens' next possession, Blake connected with TE Todd Heap for a 31-yard TD, giving Baltimore a 24-20 lead. On Pittsburgh's next drive, Maddox's throw into the end zone was intercepted by S Anthony Mitchell. It was the team's 25th pick of the season, a Baltimore record. Blake struck again early in the fourth period, as he connected with RB Chester Taylor for a 20-yard pass and run for a TD and a 31-20 lead. Zereoue then got going, scoring on a 5-yard rush to tie the game. The Ravens' defense stopped the 2-point conversion – as S Chad Williams tackled Zereoue at the goal line – and clung to a 31-26 lead with 7:51 on the clock. Chester Taylor muffed the ensuing kickoff, and Pittsburgh's Larry Foote recovered on the Baltimore 31. The Steelers scored on 3rd-and-goal from the 8, when Maddox found WR Antwaan Randle El in the end zone for the go-ahead score, then hit WR Plaxico Burress for the 2-point conversion.

BALTIMORE RAVENS - SUPER BOWL XXXV

“ It was surreal. You watched it all your life. The realization of this magnificent dream. There was noise and yelling all around you. Fireworks going off, people embracing, shoving. You knew you were in a special place and moment. It may never happen again. But it was happening to you... right now...

— Excerpt from the Ravens' Super Journey

The Baltimore Ravens began the 2000 NFL season talking playoffs and ending it as champions, thanks to one of the most dominant defenses in pro football history. The Super Journey began with an ominous regular season schedule that included five road games in seven weeks. In the middle of it all was a 5-game streak without a touchdown, but the drought never divided the team.

The race toward the Lombardi trophy was not without its hurdles: Ray Lewis rebounding from a trying offseason; Trent Dilfer returning to Tampa Bay for the Super Bowl; an emotional Jermaine Lewis dedicating a superb performance to the memory of his stillborn son. Still, the team rallied the season, and it made the hard-fought victory that much sweeter.

The Journey was about coming of age. It belonged to tough veterans like Rod Woodson, Ray Lewis, Rob Burnett, Shannon Sharpe, Matt Stover, Michael McCrary, Jonathan Ogden, and talented kids like Jamal Lewis, Chris McAlister, and Duane Starks.

“ The Journey belonged to every citizen in the State of Maryland and the City of Baltimore. The fans numbered in the thousands at the sendoff at Harbor Place in January. Banners, words and promises hung in the air and were not broken.

While the fans celebrated in Baltimore, the team went to Tampa and beat the New York Giants, 34-7, on January 28, 2001. After the Ravens came home on that sky-blue Monday following the Super Bowl victory, the team learned the city had scheduled a parade the next day. On a cold and rainy Tuesday, fans numbered in the hundreds of thousands and lined the city streets to welcome the team home.

Ray Lewis earned Super Bowl XXXV MVP honors, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. The Ravens broke or tied a number of records in the game, including tying a Super Bowl record with 4 INTs. They were the third team in NFL history to not commit a turnover in a Super Bowl, and most exciting of all—3 scores on 3 successive plays set a Super Bowl record. The back-to-back kickoff returns for TDs were also a new record.

After receiving the Vince Lombardi trophy, which was designed by Tiffany's, Art Modell lifted the silver prize in the air, and said:

“To the people of Baltimore City, Baltimore County and the State of Maryland, this belongs to you. From the bottom of my heart, Thank You.”

BALTIMORE'S HISTORY OF FOOTBALL

December 28, 1946 Baltimore was awarded the bankrupt Miami Seahawks franchise of the All-America Football Conference. The team was renamed Colts via a fan contest. Bob Rodenberg headed the purchasing group.

September 7, 1947 The Colts won their first-ever AAFC game over the Brooklyn Dodgers, 16-7, in front of 27,418 fans at Baltimore Stadium with Cecil Isbell as head coach. The Colts finished 2-11-1, drawing just under 200,000 fans.

April 28, 1948 The Colts reorganized, with over 200 stockholders. Jake Embry was named president and Walt Driskill was named general manager.

December 12, 1948 The Colts lose their first-ever playoff game, 28-17, against visiting Buffalo in a game marked by near riots after both teams finished tied for the Eastern Division title with 7-7 marks. Attendance totaled 244,502.

February 24, 1949 Walt Driskill was named president and general manager, while Robert C. Embry became vice-chairman of the board.

Fall, 1949 Isbell fired after four games and Driskill was named head coach. Colts finished 1-11.

December 8, 1949 AAFC and NFL reached merger agreement. The Colts entered the NFL for 1950 season.

December 18, 1949 Abraham Watner was named Colts president.

December 19, 1950 Under head coach Clem Crowe, the Colts finished 1-11 in their first NFL season with a 15-14 loss to the New York Yanks at Yankee Stadium. The Yanks later became the Baltimore Colts.

January 18, 1951 Watner withdrew the franchise due to financial distress and received $50,000 for his players by the NFL.

1951 and 1952 No Colts team existed.

December 3, 1952 Commissioner Bert Bell challenged Baltimore to sell 15,000 tickets in six weeks to re-enter NFL. The ticket drive reached its quota in four weeks, three days.

January, 1953 Carroll Rosenbloom headed an ownership group and Baltimore was awarded the Dallas Texan franchise. Don Kellett was named president and Keith Molesworth head coach.

March 25, 1953 Baltimore and Cleveland put together one of the largest trades in sports history, with the Browns trading 10 players to the Colts for five players.

September 27, 1953 The Colts upset the Chicago Bears, 13-9, in the NFL opener at Memorial Stadium.

Spring, 1954 Weeb Ewbank was named head coach.

December 28, 1958 The Colts defeated the New York Giants, 23-17, in Yankee Stadium in "sudden death" for the World Championship. This game sparked the emergence of the NFL as a televised sports giant.

December 27, 1959 The Colts won their second straight World Championship, again over the Giants, in Baltimore, 31-16.

December 11, 1960 The Rams snapped an NFL-record 47-game consecutive TD pass streak by Johnny Unitas.

January 8, 1963 Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as head coach. Gino Marchetti and Bill Pellington were named player-coaches.

January 20, 1964 Carroll Rosenbloom purchased the remaining shares of the club to gain 100% ownership.

December 13, 1964 Raymond Berry caught his 506th career pass and Lenny Moore scored his 20th touchdown of the season against Washington, both NFL records at the time.

December 27, 1964 The Browns defeated the Colts, 27-0, in Cleveland for the NFL title. Art Modell wins his first NFL title, with Blanton Collier as head coach.

December 26, 1965 The Packers beat the Colts, 13-10, in "sudden death" playoff for the Western Conference title. Tom Matte quarterbacked the club with plays written on his wristband, subbing for injured QBs Johnny Unitas and Gary Cuozzo.

June 8, 1966 The NFL and the AFL announced plans to merge in 1970. The Colts, Browns and Steelers would later join the AFC in the NFL's realignment.

March 17, 1967 Harry Hulmes, Colts publicity director, was named general manager, succeeding Joe Campanella, who passed away on February 15, after only 23 days in the GM capacity.

November 5, 1967 The Colts defeated the Packers, 13-10, snapping a 5-game losing streak.

- August 3, 1968 Art Donovan became the first Colt inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
- December 29, 1968 The Colts shut out the Browns, 34-0, for the NFL Championship. Earlier, the Colts had defeated Green Bay, 16-3, and Minnesota, 24-14, for the Western Conference crown.
- January 12, 1969 The Jets defeated the Colts, 16-7, in Super Bowl III at the Orange Bowl after Joe Namath "guarantees" a New York victory.
- April 3, 1970 Don Shula resigned to become head coach of the Miami Dolphins and was succeeded by Don McCafferty. In January, Don Klosterman was named GM.
- September 20, 1970 The Colts beat San Diego, 16-14, to win their first AFC game in the newly realigned NFL.
- December 13, 1970 The Colts clinched their first AFC Eastern Division title with a 20-14 win at Buffalo.
- December 26, 1970 The Colts beat Cincinnati, 17-0, in divisional playoff game.
- January 3, 1971 The Colts beat the Oakland Raiders, 27-17, to win the AFC championship.
- January 17, 1971 Jim O'Brien kicked a 32-yard field goal with five seconds to play as the Colts won Super Bowl V over Dallas, 16-13, in the first-ever AFC-NFC Super Bowl.
- January 2, 1972 Miami beat Baltimore, 21-0, in the AFC title game. The Colts had defeated Cleveland, 20-3, in the AFC playoffs to advance to the conference championship.
- July 26, 1972 Robert Irsay acquired the Colts from Carroll Rosenbloom in exchange for the Los Angeles Rams. Joe Thomas was named GM.
- July 29, 1972 Gino Marchetti was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
- October 16, 1972 John Sandusky replaced Don McCafferty as head coach after the fifth game of the season.
- February 14, 1973 Howard Schnellenberger was named head coach.
- July 28, 1973 Raymond Berry and Jim Parker were inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
- September 29, 1974 Joe Thomas replaced Howard Schnellenberger as head coach.
- January 15, 1975 Ted Marchibroda was named head coach.
- August 2, 1975 Lenny Moore was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
- December 21, 1975 Colts won the first of 3 straight AFC East Division crowns by defeating New England, 34-21, at Memorial Stadium. The season capped the greatest turnaround in NFL history (at that time), as Marchibroda led the Colts to a 10-4 mark after the team was 2-12 in 1974.
- December 12, 1976 The Colts won their 2nd straight AFC East crown by defeating Buffalo, 58-20, in last home game of regular season.
- January 25, 1977 Dick Szymanski was named GM and Ernie Accorsi assistant GM.
- December 18, 1977 The Colts won their 3rd straight AFC East title with a 30-24 win over New England that featured a 99-yard game-winning TD drive, longest in team history.
- July 28, 1979 Johnny Unitas was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, a year after Weeb Ewbank.
- January 16, 1980 Mike McCormack was named head coach, replacing Ted Marchibroda.
- December 21, 1981 Frank Kush was named head coach.
- May 16, 1982 Ernie Accorsi was named GM.
- April 26, 1983 The Colts selected John Elway with the first pick in the NFL draft, but traded him on 5/2 to Denver for OT Chris Hinton, QB Mark Herrmann and Denver's top pick in 1984.
- December 18, 1983 In the last NFL regular season game in Memorial Stadium—until 1996—the Colts beat the Houston Oilers, 20-10. TE Pat Beach scored the last TD of the game on a 12-yard pass from Mike Pagel.
- March 28, 1984 The Colts' franchise relocated to Indianapolis.

RAVENS HISTORY BEGINS

- November 6, 1995 The Cleveland Browns announced their intention to move to Baltimore for the 1996 season.
- February 9, 1996 NFL approved franchise move.
- February 15, 1996 Ted Marchibroda was named Baltimore Ravens head coach exactly 21 years after he was hired by the then-Baltimore Colts.
- March 29, 1996 Baltimore's NFL franchise was officially named the Ravens after a Baltimore Sun telephone poll received a record number of calls supporting the name Ravens.

HISTORY • 2003 BALTIMORE RAVENS FAN & MEDIA GUIDE

April 1, 1996 The Ravens opened operations at the Owings Mills training facility with the start of the offseason program.

April 20, 1996 The Ravens selected OT Jonathan Ogden (UCLA) with their first-ever draft choice (4th overall). University of Miami LB Ray Lewis was selected with the second pick in the first round (26th overall).

May 16, 1996 The Ravens announced season ticket and personal seat license policies in a press conference at Memorial Stadium.

June 5, 1996 The Ravens unveiled their new logo, colors and uniforms in a fashion show at Harborplace.

June 14, 1996 The Ravens sold over 50,000 season tickets in 14 days.

September 1, 1996 The Ravens first-ever regular season game is played before 64,124 fans at Memorial Stadium, the largest crowd in Baltimore professional sports history. QB Vinny Testaverde scored the first TD on a 9-yard run to propel the Ravens to a 19-14 win over the Oakland Raiders.

December 22, 1996 The Ravens concluded their inaugural season with a 4-12 record following a 24-21 loss to the Houston Oilers. The Ravens were 4-4 at home, but 0-8 on the road. The team sold out all 10 home games, including the 2 preseason games. Baltimore held a second-half lead in 10 of its 11 final games, but won only 2. QB Vinny Testaverde was voted to the Pro Bowl after throwing for 4,177 yards and 33 TDs. WRs Michael Jackson and Derrick Alexander both eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving mark and combined for 23 TD receptions.

March 18, 1997 The Ravens and Western Maryland College entered into a 5-year agreement to hold training camp at the Westminster, MD campus.

April 19, 1997 The Ravens selected LB Peter Boulware with their first pick in the 1997 draft (4th overall). Boulware went on to win NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and finished with 11.5 QB sacks, the 4th-best sack total by a rookie in NFL history.

September 21, 1997 The Ravens defeated the Tennessee Oilers, 36-10, to start the season 3-1.

December 14, 1997 Baltimore defeated Tennessee, 21-19, in the final game at Memorial Stadium. Ceremonies included a salute to former Colts, generations of season ticket holders and the Armed Forces. Thirteen of the 16 games played by the Ravens at Memorial Stadium were sold out.

December 21, 1997 Baltimore drops a 16-14 game at Cincinnati to finish the season 6-9-1. OT Jonathan Ogden is named consensus All-Pro and is voted as a starter to the Pro Bowl. LB Ray Lewis led the NFL in tackles with 210, was voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl, and then was selected as a "needs" player by coach Bill Cowher.

September 5, 1998 The new NFL Stadium at Camden Yards was the backdrop for an opening gala that included fireworks, a Stevie Wonder/Baltimore Symphony Orchestra concert and a spectacular laser show.

September 6, 1998 The Ravens opened their new NFL Stadium before a host of dignitaries, a packed house and the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Ravens lost, 20-13.

November 29, 1998 The Colts returned to Baltimore for the first time since 1983. The Ravens overcame two 14-point deficits and scored 25 second-half points to win a 38-31 thriller.

December 13, 1998 The Ravens and Minnesota Vikings set an NFL record with 3 kickoff returns for TDs, all in the first quarter. Ravens Corey Harris and Patrick Johnson and Minnesota's David Palmer all scored TDs on returns in the Vikings' 38-28 win. Gary Anderson set an NFL record when he kicked his 34th straight successful field goal, 1 of 6 three-pointers for Minnesota.

December 28, 1998 After a 6-10 finish, the Ravens did not renew Ted Marchibroda's contract. Six Ravens represented the AFC in the Pro Bowl: LB Peter Boulware, WR Jermaine Lewis, LB Ray Lewis, DE Michael McCrary, T Jonathan Ogden and S Bennie Thompson.

January 19, 1999 Brian Billick became the second head coach in Baltimore Ravens history when he accepted a 6-year contract from owner Art Modell. Billick, the highly successful offensive coordinator for Minnesota, directed a Vikings' attack that set a variety of NFL and team records, including the league's all-time scoring mark of 556 points in 1998.

January 26, 1999 PSINet Inc., the first and largest independent commercial Internet Service Provider (ISP), announced an innovative partnership with the Ravens to develop a global Internet-based network for the Ravens. Under the 20-year agreement, the NFL's new downtown stadium at Camden Yards was named PSINet Stadium.

January 30, 1999 Ravens Vice President of Player Personnel Ozzie Newsome was selected for induction into the Pro Football's Hall of Fame, along with Lawrence Taylor, Eric Dickerson, Tom Mack and Billy Shaw. Newsome was the NFL's all-time leading TE in pass receptions (until Shannon Sharpe eclipsed Ozzie in 2001).

February 4, 1999 Art Modell, Owner and CEO of the Baltimore Ravens, named David Modell as the Ravens' President and Chief Operating Officer and John Modell as Vice President of Special Projects.

April 17, 1999 The Ravens selected Arizona CB Chris McAlister with their first round pick (10th overall) and traded their second round choice for Atlanta's first pick in 2000. Baltimore also acquired veterans QB Tony Banks, OL Everett Lindsay and TE Lovett Purnell in trades involving '99 picks.

September 12, 1999 Brian Billick's debut as head coach was spoiled in the regular season opener, as the St. Louis Rams defeated the Ravens, 27-10, in the TransWorld Dome. QB Kurt Warner had his first NFL start.

September 26, 1999 Billick notched his first win, 17-10, over the expansion Cleveland Browns. Stoney Case started at QB replacing Scott Mitchell.

October 31, 1999 Tony Banks took over as the team's starting QB against Buffalo in a 13-10 loss. Banks went 6-4 as a starter, including 4-0 in December. He threw a career-high 17 TDs and a career-low 8 INTs.

December 26, 1999 The Ravens recorded their first-ever shutout, a 22-0 win over Cincinnati. The victory completed a perfect December and gave the Ravens a franchise-high 8 victories. Five players (LB Peter Boulware, LB Ray Lewis, DE Michael McCrary, T Jonathan Ogden and S Rod Woodson) were named to the Pro Bowl. The Ravens' defense finished ranked second in the NFL, and in the team's 6-3 finish, Baltimore outscored opponents, 229-142.

February 18, 2000 The Ravens signed 7-time Pro Bowl TE Shannon Sharpe, an unrestricted free agent who starred for 10 years with the Denver Broncos. Sharpe caught 552 passes for 6,983 yards and 44 TDs for Denver.

March 27, 2000 NFL owners approved the sale of 49% of the Ravens for $275 million to Anne Arundel County business executive Steve Bisciotti. Bisciotti has an option to purchase the remaining 51% for $325 million in 2004.

April 15, 2000 The Ravens went for offense in the 2000 NFL Draft, selecting Tennessee RB Jamal Lewis (5th overall), Florida WR Travis Taylor (10th overall) and Louisville QB Chris Redman (75th overall) with their first 3 picks.

September, 2000 The Ravens opened the 2001 season with a 16-0 win at Pittsburgh in their last visit to Three Rivers Stadium on September 3. They won 3 of their first 4 games, including a dramatic 39-36 win over Jacksonville (their first win over the Jaguars) and a 37-0 shutout over Cincinnati.

October, 2000 Baltimore finished October, 2-3, and did not score a TD during the month. Trent Dilfer replaced Tony Banks at QB on October 29 vs. Pittsburgh.

November/December, 2000 The Ravens won their final 7 regular season games by a combined score of 193-63. On November 26, Earnest Byner was the first person named to the Ravens' Ring of Honor during halftime of the 44-7 win over the Cleveland Browns. On December 10, owner Art Modell was honored in pregame ceremonies for his 40 years of ownership, and later that day was rewarded with the Ravens' first playoff berth after defeating San Diego, 24-3.

December 24, 2000 The Ravens' defense set a 16-game record by allowing only 165 total points. Baltimore also set an NFL record by allowing only 970 yards rushing. The Ravens finished 12-4 after beating the New York Jets, 34-20, on Christmas Eve. Rookie RB Jamal Lewis rushed for a team-record 1,364 yards.

December 31, 2000 The Ravens defeated the Denver Broncos, 21-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff Game at PSINet Stadium, the first home playoff game in Baltimore since 1977. Jamal Lewis rushed for 110 yards on 30 carries and scored twice, while the defense allowed Denver's rushing attack only 42 yards on the ground.

January 2, 2001 LB Ray Lewis won NFL Defensive MVP honors from the Associated Press.

January 7, 2001 The Ravens scored 14 fourth quarter points to defeat the Tennessee Titans, 24-10, at Adelphia Coliseum to advance to the AFC Championship game. The go-ahead TD was a 90-yard return of a blocked FG by Anthony Mitchell, then Ray Lewis scored on a 50-yard INT return to seal the win.

January 14, 2001 The Ravens traveled to Oakland and defeated the Raiders, 16-3, in the AFC Championship game to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. Shannon Sharpe scored on an NFL postseason record 96-yard pass from Trent Dilfer to give the Ravens all the points they would need. The Ravens limited the Raiders to 24 rushing yards.

January 28, 2001 The Ravens defeated the New York Giants, 34-7, to capture their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXV played at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, FL. Ray Lewis was named Super Bowl MVP and only Ron Dixon's 97-yard KOR for a TD averted a shutout for the Giants. A Super Bowl record was set when 3 TDs were scored in a span of 36 seconds, including Duane Starks' 49-yard INT return and Jermaine Lewis' 84-yard KOR.

January 30, 2001 Over 200,000 people turned out on a cold, rainy day to attend the Baltimore Ravens' Victory Parade. "This is the thrill of my life," exclaimed owner Art Modell.

March 6, 2001 The Ravens reached an agreement in principle on a 5-year contract with QB Elvis Grbac. Grbac threw for a career-high 4,169 yards and 28 TDs for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2000 and

HISTORY • 2003 BALTIMORE RAVENS FAN & MEDIA GUIDE

April 21, 2001 The Ravens selected Arizona State TE Todd Heap with their first choice (31st overall) in the 2001 draft, and Baylor S Gary Baxter in the second round (62nd overall). The Ravens held all of their own choices in each of the 7 rounds.

July/August, 2001 The Ravens opened training camp as defending World Champions under the scrutiny of the entire nation, as HBO's "Hard Knocks: Training Camp With the Baltimore Ravens" debuted with the Ravens as the featured team. RB Jamal Lewis and RT Leon Searcy suffered season-ending injuries in the first week of camp.

August 13, 2001 The Ravens first preseason game vs. the Eagles was cancelled by NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue at Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium because of hazardous field conditions.

September 9, 2001 The Ravens won their 12th consecutive game and 2nd consecutive opener with a 17-6 win over the Chicago Bears at PSI Net Stadium. Two days later, on Sept. 11, the World Trade Center collapsed following a terrorist attack. The Sept. 17 game was postponed.

October 21, 2001 Matt Stover broke the NFL record for most consecutive games with a field goal, snapping Fred Cox's old mark of 31 games, when he booted 2 three-pointers in a 24-14 loss to the Cleveland Browns in Cleveland Browns Stadium. Stover's streak ended at 38 games with a field goal on December 16 vs. Pittsburgh.

November 18, 2001 TE Shannon Sharpe became the NFL's all-time leading pass-catching TE (surpassing Ravens executive v.p. and general manager Ozzie Newsome's mark of 662), when Sharpe caught a 29-yard pass on the 5th play of the game vs. the Cleveland Browns. Sharpe finished the 2001 season with 692 career receptions for 8,604 yards—both all-time NFL highs for a TE.

December 2, 2001 S Rod Woodson set an NFL record by returning a Peyton Manning INT 47 yards for a TD, his NFL-best 10th career TD on an INT return in a 39-27 win over the visiting Indianapolis Colts. Woodson's TD snapped a tie with Ken Houston, who had 9 career INTs for TDs.

December 23, 2001 Corey Dillon of the Cincinnati Bengals rushed for 127 yards, snapping the Ravens' streak of 50 games (including playoffs) of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, the longest streak since the 1989-92 Philadelphia Eagles had a 53-game streak. The Ravens scored their 3rd consecutive home shutout win over the Bengals (16-0), the first time in 24 years—(1975-77, Oakland over San Diego) that a team had 3 straight home shutouts over the same opponent.

January 2, 2002 Six Ravens were selected to play in the Pro Bowl, tying the team mark set in 1998. Selected were LB Ray Lewis, T Jonathan Ogden, DT Sam Adams, RS Jermaine Lewis, TE Shannon Sharpe and S Rod Woodson.

January 7, 2002 The Ravens played a postponed regular season game against Minnesota at Ravens Stadium and defeated the Vikings, 19-3, allowing Baltimore to advance to the playoffs. The game was originally scheduled for Monday, Sept. 17, but was re-scheduled because of the Sept. 11 terrorist attack on the United States. The victory gave the Ravens a 10-6 record and clinched a Wild Card spot as the AFC's 5th seed. LB Peter Boulware set a team record with 4 QB sacks vs. the Vikings to finish as the AFC's leading sacker with 15.

January 13, 2002 The Ravens traveled to Miami and defeated the Dolphins, 20-3, in the AFC Wild Card Playoff game. Baltimore set a playoff team record with 226 rushing yards on 50 carries. The Ravens became the 1st team in NFL history to win its first 5 playoff games. Only Joe Gibbs, who won his first 6 playoff games surpassed Brian Billick's mark of 5 (tied with Tom Flores).

January 20, 2002 After 5 consecutive playoff wins (including the Super Bowl run in 2000), the Ravens were stopped at Heinz Field with a 27-10 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Steelers jumped to a 20-0 first-half lead and stifled Baltimore's offense. Baltimore's only TD came when RS Jermaine Lewis set an NFL playoff record with an 88-yard punt return for a score in the third quarter.

April 20, 2002 In the 66th Annual NFL Selection Meeting, the Ravens chose 10 players, many of whom made an immediate impact. Baltimore picked S Ed Reed (24th overall) out of Miami (FL) with its first pick and DE Tony Weaver (Notre Dame) with its second (52nd overall). The Ravens had a total of 10 picks, three compensatory. Four days later, the Ravens signed UFA QB Jeff Blake, who would replace QB Chris Redman (back) following the 6th game of the season.

May 15, 2002 The Ravens and McDaniel College (formerly Western Maryland College) announced a 3-year contract extension to keep Ravens training camp in Westminster, MD through the 2004 season. The team has trained at the Westminster campus since the 1996 inaugural season.

September 8, 2002 With the youngest team in NFL history (19 first-year players), the Ravens dropped their first 2 games of the 2002 season, at Carolina (10-7) and at home on September 15 vs. the Buccaneers (25-0). A moving tribute was paid to Hall of Fame QB Johnny Unitas prior to the game, and QB Chris Redman, a close friend and admirer, wore black high tops in honor of his hero. Johnny Unitas passed away on September 11, 2002.

September 30, 2002 Chris McAlister ran into the NFL record books against Denver. With one second remaining in the first half, Broncos K Jason Elam's FG attempt was short. McAlister caught it in the end zone and returned it 107 yards for a TD—the longest play of any kind in league history.

RAVENS OVERTIME GAMES

Record: 2-2-1

The previous record was 106 yards (3 KORs), last accomplished by Roy Green in 1979. Baltimore won 34-23. S Ed Reed blocked the 1st punt in Ravens history, leading to the Ravens' 2nd TD of the second quarter against the Broncos.

October 20, 2002 Johnny Unitas and 7 of his Hall of Fame teammates were enshrined by the Ravens into the Ring of Honor at Ravens Stadium in front of a sellout crowd of 69,173. A bronze statue of Unitas' likeness was sculpted by local Baltimore artist Frederick Kail and dedicated at Gate A, newly named Unitas Plaza. In a joint effort, the Baltimore Ravens, Art Modell, the Steve Bisciotti family, and others commissioned the statue. Enshrined with Unitas were: WR Raymond Berry, RB Lenny Moore, DT Art Donovan, DE Gino Marchetti, TE John Mackey, OT Jim Parker and LB Ted Hendricks.

November, 2002 RS Lamont Brightful's 95-yard punt return was the longest punt return in the NFL for the 2002 season; S Ed Reed recorded a second blocked punt, which he returned for a TD in the victory vs. Tennessee, 13-12. The Ravens were 4-0 when scoring a TD on special teams in 2002.

December 29, 2002 The Ravens lost their final game of the season at Pittsburgh (34-31) in a heart-breaking nail biter and their hope of a playoff berth, finishing with a 7-9 record. Three Ravens players traveled to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Peter Boulware and 1st-timer TE Todd Heap.

January/February, 2003 Ozzie Newsome was named the NFL's first minority general manager. The executive VP and GM promoted 3 members of his staff: Phil Savage, player personnel director; George Kokinis, pro personnel director; Eric DeCosta, college scouting director. Former Bears Hall of Fame LB Mike Singletary launched his coaching career when he was hired by the Ravens as LB coach. Art Modell entered his 43rd year in the NFL.

April 26-27, 2003 The Ravens had 11 draft picks going into the 67th Annual NFL Selection Meeting, 4 of which were compensatory picks. Baltimore made a huge trade with the Patriots early in the 1st round. LB Terrell Suggs (Arizona State) was selected with the first pick (10th overall). In a draft-day trade with the New England, the Ravens secured a second 1st-round pick (19th overall) and selected QB Kyle Boller (California) in exchange for their 2nd-round pick and their 1st rounder in 2004.

May 6, 2003 Ravens Stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium in a press conference held at the stadium at Camden Yards. The 15-year $75 million agreement includes naming rights, as well as important community-based programs that will be jointly administered. The 147-year old M&T Bank is headquartered in Buffalo, New York.

Photo: On May 6, 2003, Ravens Stadium officially became M&T Bank Stadium. At the press conference, Mayor Martin O'Malley spoke to the importance of the M&T partnership with the Ravens and Baltimore, as did M&T Bank president Robert Sadler, fifth from the right. Pictured are, from the right: Dennis Mannion, William Mabee (M&T), Brian Billick, Kevin Byrne, Sadler, David Modell, Art Modell, and Steve Bisciotti. Most Tackles, Rookie Season

142 Ray Lewis (1996)

Note: Tackles are not an official statistic recognized by the National Football League. Ravens tackles are determined by coaching staff after reviewing game video.

Ray Lewis holds all of the top 10 single-game tackling marks in team history. He has also led the team in tackles every year he has been in the league, except 2002, when he missed 11 games with a shoulder injury. He still finished 5th on the team with 85 tackles despite playing in only 5 games.

BALTIMORE PRO FOOTBALL RECORDS

Note: The following records reflect the performances of players on 2 professional football teams in Baltimore's past, plus the current NFL Ravens: The Baltimore Colts of the NFL, a team that played in Memorial Stadium from 1953-83; and the initial Colts franchise, which played in the All-American Football Conference from 1947-49, and then in the NFL in 1950. That franchise existed in 1950, but disbanded following that season. This set of statistics is not officially recognized by the National Football League, but is meant to honor and salute the players and teams that represented the citizens of Baltimore for so many years; plus, give a historical perspective to Baltimore pro football history.

BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE RAVENS • BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

M&T Bank Stadium, located at the south point of Camden Yards, is the crowning jewel of the NFL's premier sports facilities. M&T Bank Stadium offers Baltimore fans the latest in technology, including state-of-the-art SMARTVISION video screens, combined with extraordinary amenities, including a stunning view of the city's skyline. With a capacity of 69,084, this architecturally aesthetic home of the Baltimore Ravens draws its design from the community, and houses 109 suites and 7,900 club seats. The stadium was completed in 1998 at an estimated cost of $220 million. Developed by architectures from HOK, who also designed Oriole Park at Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium was completed in less than two years and funded through a combination of proceeds generated from the sale of tax-exempt revenue bonds, debt service being paid by lottery proceeds, and the Ravens.

Last October, following the passing of Baltimore legend Johnny Unitas, the Ravens re-named the area in front of Gate A Unitas Plaza. A statue sculpted by artist Frederick Kail was directed and funded by a grassroots group that included donations by Art Modell and the Baltimore Ravens, the Steve Bisciotti Family, the Baltimore Orioles, and numerous others. One of the most significant elements of the bronze work is the famous black high tops, Johnny's signature football shoes.

Although the statue is a huge tourist draw and a great picture-taking area for vacationers, PSL season ticket holders have the additional opportunity to locate their names etched on the PSL Walls on the plaza. These names are part of the young history of M&T Bank Stadium. They represent the great Ravens' football fans who have supported the team, which in 2000, brought their fans and the City of Baltimore a World Championship.

VIDEO SCREENS:

□ The 2 SMARTVISION video screens located in each end zone, measuring 100 feet by 24 feet, are the largest permanent video display screens located in any sports venue in the world. Basically, these video boards are giant computer screens.

□ A crew of 25 people operate the screens from a central control room located on the press level. Some of the dynamic features of the screens include some of the best graphics and game action video in the league, network pre-game shows, live video of game highlights from around the NFL, instant replays, up-to-date scores, statistics and player updates.

□ Each screen can be divided into as many as 16 different sections, augmented by over 1,894 custom-built speakers that produce crystal sound and dynamic, breathtaking special effects.

SIGHTLINES:

□ Front-row seating in the lower level is 6 feet above the playing field, high enough to eliminate any issue with obstructed views. In addition, the front row is only 50 feet from the playing field sidelines and 20 feet from the back of the end zones.

□ The distinctive upper seating area includes open notches in each corner of the stadium, creating scenic views of the City of Baltimore for fans to enjoy. This feature also enables upper-level end zone seating to be moved closer to the playing field.

SEATING:

□ With a seating capacity of 69,084, M&T Bank Stadium is substantially larger than its sister baseball stadium to the north. At 1.6 million square feet, it is nearly double Oriole Park's size. Seating for the disabled is located in every PSL Zone.

□ There are 7,900 club seats at M&T Bank Stadium, offering extra-wide comfort. VIP parking, access to the club lounges that provide specialty foods, fully-staffed bars, a concierge, and scenic views of downtown Baltimore.

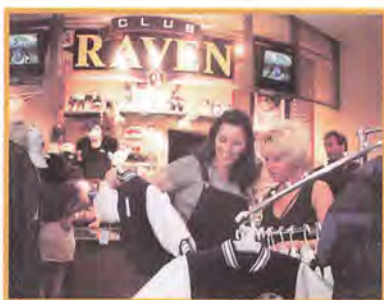

□ Each of the 109 suites at M&T Bank Stadium holds between 20-24 people, and features 3 televisions and a private restroom. VIP parking, personal waitstaff service, and many other amenities are available to suite holders.

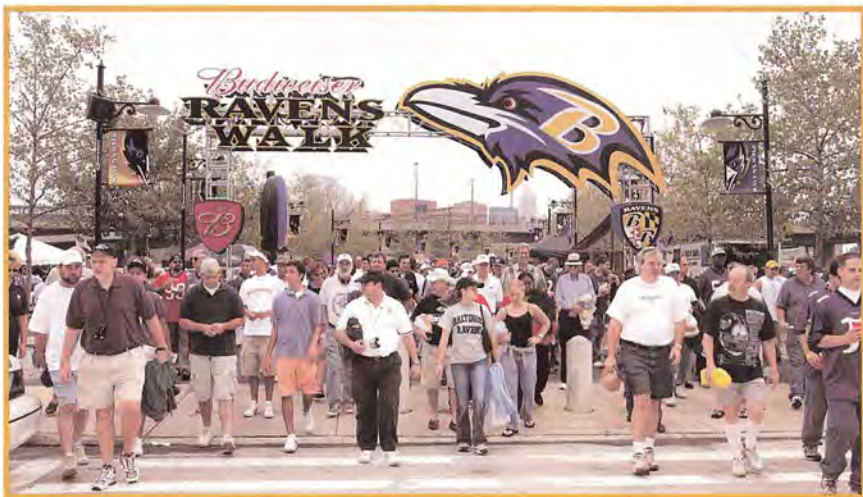

AMENITIES:

□ Extra-wide concourses (44 to 64 feet) allow easy movement. Seven public elevators (4 disabled accessible), ramps and 2 escalators (to club level) assist fan traffic.

□ There are 55 concessions stands in the upper, lower and club level with great football fare and delicious Baltimore favorites.

□ Ravens Team Stores allow fans to purchase all of the latest Ravens' merchandise. Six M&T Bank ATMs are located throughout the stadium.

TRANSPORTATION:

- ❑ Located at 1101 Russell St., M&T Bank Stadium is surrounded on all sides by the following elevated roadways: I-95 and the Hamburg St. bridge to the north; I-95 and I-395 (plus Light Rail line) to the east; the Ostend St. bridge to the south; and the Russell St. viaduct to the west.
- ❑ Fans can easily access M&T Bank Stadium using Mass Transit. The Light Rail has a drop-off point located directly outside of Gate B, and Park-and-Ride shuttles are available from various locations around the greater Baltimore area.
- ❑ Parking in stadium lots, managed by Central Parking Systems, is limited, but numerous downtown lots are available for game day parking just a short walk away.

- ❑ Tailgating fans are welcomed at M&T Bank Stadium. Fans may tailgate in all public lots. For Tailgate Lot parking information, call the Ravens' Ticket Office at (410) 261-RAVE

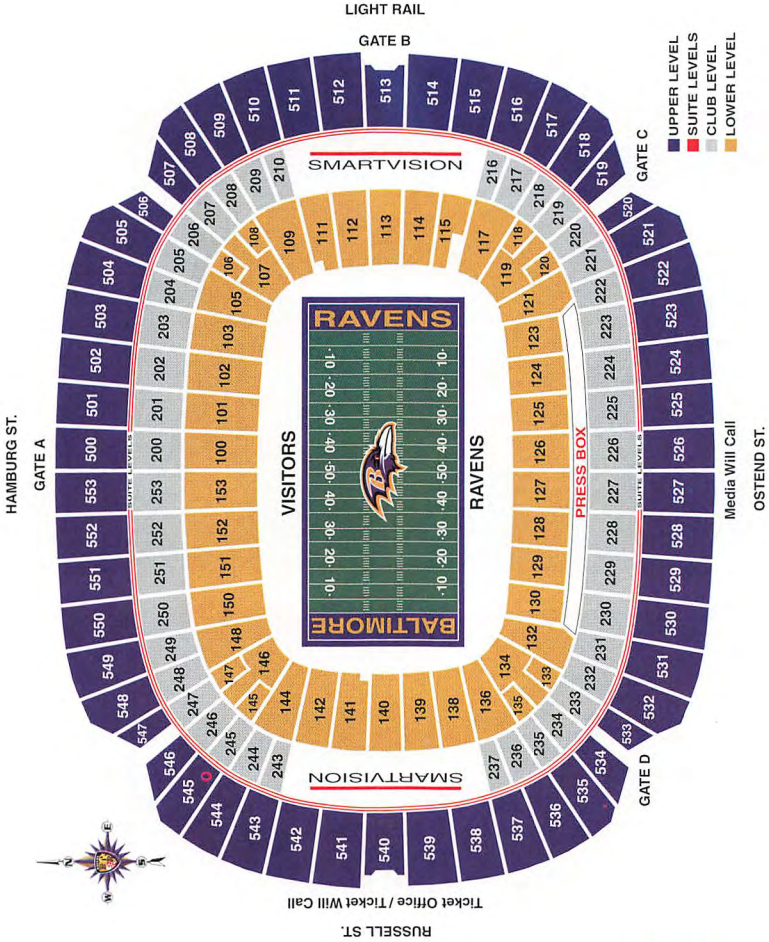

QUICK FACTS:

- ❑ M&T Bank Stadium is 185 feet high, which is 35 feet above Oriole Park.
- ❑ The SPORTEXE MOMENTUM playing surface is rated among the league's best.
- ❑ The 2 SMARTVISION video screens located in each end zone generate 16 million colors, and at peak output, consume up to 80,000 watts of electrical power.
- ❑ M&T Bank Stadium features various other forms of entertainment, including concerts and other sporting events. Several college football games have been played since 1998, including 2000's hugely successful Army-Navy clash. Other games, like Maryland vs. Georgia Tech, Salisbury State vs. Frostburg State, and 3 Morgan State games have been staged at the stadium. Also in 1998, the HFStival sold out in under 90 minutes and featured 15 bands, attracting over 90,000 fans. Heavy metal was in full force, as Metallica, Korn, Kid Rock, Powerman 5000 and System of a Down rocked the stadium on 7/4/02. Navy vs. Notre Dame played in 2002, and the NCAA LAX tournament was held in 2003.
- ❑ On the southwest corner plaza of the facility, in recognition of the Knaabe Piano factory, once located on the site of M&T Bank Stadium, a stone mosaic of a piano is displayed. A concrete pattern on the plaza represents the piano keys.

ON THE SIDELINES

MASCOTS:

The game day experience at M&T Bank Stadium is designed to offer fans a festive and colorful atmosphere providing a variety of entertainment, including the Baltimore Ravens Cheerleaders, Baltimore's Marching Ravens, presented by M&T Bank, and 3 mischievous mascots: Edgar, Allan and Poe. These zany triplets were hatched from 1 giant gold-and-purple raven's egg on 8/24/98. And although these birds are similar in appearance, each one has a unique, intriguing personality. If you would like to book a mascot to fly into your next function, please call (410) 986-5279 for information on how to schedule. You can also log on to baltimore Ravens.com.

CHEERLEADERS:

The Baltimore Ravens cheerleading squad has 29 members on the dance team and 36 members on the stunt team, 16 women and 20 men. The cheerleaders' head coach is Tina Simijoski, who also owns Spirit Unlimited, a cheerleading/ dance company. Scheduling a cheerleader for your next event is easy. Just call (410) 986-5274 or log onto baltimore Ravens.com for more information.

BALTIMORE'S MARCHING RAVENS:

Over 250 musicians and 50 flagline performers make up Baltimore's Marching Ravens, one of America's finest bands. They are presented by M&T Bank. BMR's distinctive purple and white uniforms are in the military-style with brass buttons and crisp white detail. Tall black hats with feather plumes finish the uniform. This electrifying band performs Script Ravens during the pre-game. At the special ceremony in memory of Johnny Unitas in the fall of 2002, they flawlessly performed Script Unitas. John Ziemann, a dedicated and tireless leader, directed the Baltimore Colts Marching Band, which evolved into the current Ravens musical organization.

For information on scheduling these dynamic performers, call John Ziemann at 410-557-8335. For more information, log on to baltimoreravens.com.

M&T BANK STADIUM

M&T BANK STADIUM

On May 6, 2003, the partnership between M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens was announced. The 15-year, $75 million agreement includes naming rights to the Ravens' home field, which became M&T BANK STADIUM, as well as several important community-focused programs that will be jointly administered.

"This is a win-win-win situation," said Ravens owner Art Modell. "The Ravens win, because we stay competitive financially with other NFL teams in our quest for another Super Bowl championship; M&T Bank wins, because they become instantly established in the hearts and minds of our fans; and the Baltimore region wins, because of our shared commitment to this great community."

"M&T believes in making meaningful, long-term commitments and investments in the communities we serve—and M&T believes that Baltimore has unlimited potential," Robert Sadler, president of M&T Bank, said. "The M&T/ Ravens partnership immediately and powerfully connects the combined strengths of our two teams."

"We knew from the onset that we did not want companies that are not established and without a great track record," Ravens minority owner Steve Bisciotti said. "There were other banks we were calling, because that was the category that we liked to fill, but the timing was perfect with [M&T], coming into the new market."

M&T Bank's long history began in Western New York, but the company has now expanded all over the East Coast. There are more than 700 branches throughout the Mid-Atlantic, including Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania. The bank was founded 147 years ago and is the nation's 18th largest bank.

The agreement is rooted firmly in the idea of community service. M&T Bank becomes the lead sponsor of the ALL COMMUNITY TEAM, which unites the Ravens with Baltimore's business leadership to help support the community in meaningful ways. This includes fundraising, volunteerism and involvement in projects that meet some of Baltimore's most pressing needs.

The corporation also will sponsor Honor Rows, a program that provides game tickets to underprivileged children, Football 101 and the renowned Baltimore's Marching Ravens. For more information, log on to baltimoreravens.com.

The Ravens All Community Team was formed in 2001. Its mission is to increase corporate and community awareness of both the Ravens Foundation for Families (RFF), M&T Bank and the foundations of Ravens players. Local companies partner with players in fundraising competition. Players are honored for their community service, each receiving awards for the efforts of their foundations at an annual December dinner.

MOMENTUM
TURF SYSTEMS

The new field at M&T Bank Stadium, installed in July, is called Momentum Turf and is produced by Sportex, a company known for producing quality safe fields around the world.

Momentum™ is Sportex's premier sand and rubber infill surface, designed to maximize player speed and performance. The turf's special mix of sand and granular rubber provides stability, traction and speed, simulating a perfect natural grass surface. This dual-infill mix works in unison with high quality polyethylene fibers and a unique multi-layered backing, to provide an extremely fast, yet safe playing field. Momentum was developed by Sportex technicians specifically for the intense, high caliber play seen at college and professional levels. The confidence in the surface expressed by the entire Ravens organization is testament to its quality. "You want three things from your field: safety, a consistent surface that allows these great athletes to compete at the highest level and durability," explained coach Brian Billick (at right). "We tested the Momentum Turf and we believe it's the best possible field for the Ravens."

One of several synthetic surfaces manufactured by Sportex, it is only now, after several years of refinement, that the company has chosen to launch what it feels is the best infill product available. The company's decision to invest resources into product research and manufacturing innovation, rather than marketing, has quickly won the respect of several other high profile clients since Momentum's recent introduction to the marketplace. The company claims the proof is all in the performance of the turf. "We're proud of this product, and we have tremendous confidence in it," explained Sportex president Mark Nicholls. "Other companies choose to be somewhat secretive about the manufacturing process, but we can't wait to show customers exactly how our turf is made and installed because we're convinced we do it better than anyone."

Momentum™ is a premier synthetic turf designed specifically to enable maximum player performance. The unique sand and rubber infill, polyethylene fibers, quad primary backing and urethane secondary backing, add up to the finest field sports surface available.

About Sportex

Utilizing its own highly-skilled manufacturing and installation crews, Sportex has become a leader in sports surfacing, with a reputation for competitive pricing and complete quality control at every stage of a job. The company has successfully completed countless installations at scholastic, commercial and professional levels.

RAVENS SWITCH TO TURF IN M&T BANK STADIUM

If an artificial turf gets Brian Billick's seal of approval, it's got to be good.

The Ravens' head coach has long made known his sentiments against playing on fake grass, including pulling his team out of a preseason game against the Eagles in 2001 due to seams in the Veterans Stadium turf.

"The differences between your father's Astroturf versus what this material now represents is like looking at old 16mm film to now and the digitization we're going through," Billick said at a press conference announcing the new partnership. "This technology has mirrored that technology.

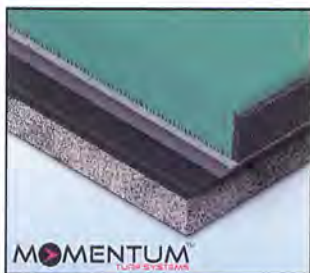

"We're excited about it," he added. "I think the players are going to be excited about it, having it both in our indoor facility, [which opens this fall], and the stadium, and we're looking forward to it."

Momentum is made from a mixture of sand and granular rubber, with the 2.5-inch "grass" comprised of polyethylene fibers, giving the surface a soft, natural feel.

Sportexe president Nicholls said that his product is distinct from similar realistic fields currently in the NFL, including Detroit and Seattle. "We have great pride in our product. We think it's the best, and we were excited to let the Ravens sample it and then choose us," Nicholls said.

The team installed the field in July. The surface is unique because its fibers are spaced the same across the field as they are down the field.

While most of the competing surfaces space the blades more like corn rows, Sportexe's Momentum closely duplicates the growing pattern of actual grass.

This is all in an attempt to create a consistent, lush playing environment, something that has proven difficult to grow, with the weather conditions in Baltimore, and the shading in the stadium.

"I think that M&T Bank Stadium now is a very flexible venue to have a number of events for our community," said team president David Modell.

"Previously, we would [have] a cut-off date in the middle of June where we really wouldn't have any other events, because the risk we would take with the natural grass field."

Modell also joked that the surface should be called "Stover Turf Systems," in honor of Matt Stover, the team's veteran place kicker.

"For a kicker, it's like a golfer. You like to have a nice playing surface all the time. This brings that consistency sideline to sideline that not only I look for, but all the players."

Stover was a member of a group of players that drew up a resolution requesting that the players' union promote either artificial turf, in the same vein as Momentum, or natural grass in climates that can sustain it, year-round.

Momentum can easily handle the regular wear and tear of football, and is expected to hold up for the next 15 years.

The Ravens picked Sportexe, which also provides the surfaces for the Arena Football League and various indoor soccer leagues, after an extensive search process. A patch of Momentum was placed at the Ravens practice facility, and players tested it before the team selected the product.

MEDIA ONLY INFORMATION

RAVENSMEDIA.COM AT M&T BANK STADIUM

The Ravens will establish an online credentialing service in the 2003 regular season, ravensmedia.com. A media advisory will be sent to all media who cover the team with information once the site has been launched. The site will be available for your convenience 24 hours a day. The following information is for accredited media who cover Ravens games:

CREDENTIAL PICK-UP/ SECURITY • Credentials will not be mailed for security reasons, therefore, each individual/ media group is responsible to pick up credentials at Media Will Call, which opens 3-1/2 hours prior to kickoff, or to make prior arrangements to pick up credentials at Owings Mills on Thursday or Friday.

Media Will Call is located between Gates C and D on the south side of M&T Bank Stadium.

All Media MUST

- Enter the Media Will Call Lobby
- Show a Government issued I.D. (passport, driver's license)
- Allow bags to be subject to search
- Wear an ARM BAND I.D. (issued at Media Will Call) if field access is given
- Write your name/ affiliation ON your credential at Media Will Call

Non-compliance with any of these security measures will result in the loss of the credential

RAVENS CREDENTIAL CRITERIA • The RAVENS decision to issue credentials to a professional media outlet for the purposes of covering a BALTIMORE RAVENS home or away game is determined by a variety of factors. They include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Size of readership or audience
- Intention/ ability to cover every RAVENS home game, including the preseason
- Attendance and coverage of RAVENS events year-round
- Interest in staffing RAVENS road games
- Distribution method of publication (free, subscription, sale on newsstands, etc.)
- Radio or TV station program format
- Amount of daily RAVENS or NFL coverage provided in-season
- Attendance at RAVENS IN-SEASON press sessions, especially Mondays and Wednesdays
- Attendance at RAVENS training camp
- Local coverage of the RAVENS before and after the NFL Draft

CREDENTIAL APPLICATION DEADLINES:

DEADLINE FOR SEASON (all preseason and home games) CREDENTIALS IS FRIDAY, AUGUST 1

DEADLINE FOR GAME-BY-GAME CREDENTIALS IS 10 DAYS PRIOR TO SPECIFIED GAME MEDIA OUTLET PLANS TO COVER

MEDIA PARKING: Contact LuberaF@Ravens.NFL.com

HOTEL / TRAVEL INFORMATION:

Hotel reservations may be made online via ravensmedia.com once the site is launched. Prior to that time, please contact EllerB@Ravens.NFL.com or SierackiJ@Ravens.NFL.com. Or call (410) 654-6200, and ask for Bob Eller or Joan Sieracki.

GAME DAY • 2003 BALTIMORE RAVENS FAN & MEDIA GUIDE

HOME OR AWAY GAME LOCKER ROOM ACCESS GAME DAY:

No media credential allows access to the RAVENS locker room without an Official PR escort on the day of the game.

Non-compliance with any of the RAVENS or NFL credential policies listed on the back of each credential will result in revocation of all credential privileges for that game and/or the season.

MEDIA CREDENTIAL CATEGORIES and ACCESS:

PRESS LEVEL • (Print, Radio or TV Talent) • NO Field Access until 5 minutes prior to the End of Game

TELEVISION • Videographer (must have ARM BAND) • Field Access + Post Game Locker Room

PHOTOGRAPHER • (must have ARM BAND) • Field Access Only

Network • Limited to 20 on-field personnel with ARM BAND during the game • Locker room access postgame only, unless accompanied by a RAVENS PR official.

FOOD SERVICE • Press Level Lounge is located to the right of the Press Level lobby • Videographers / Photographers Lounge is located on service level across concourse • Proper credentials are needed to access both areas and are not interchangeable.

GAME DAY:

SPECIAL MEDIA INTERVIEW REQUESTS SHOULD BE MADE PRIOR TO DAY OF GAME—LAST MINUTE REQUESTS FOR INTERVIEWS ON GAME DAY ARE UNLIKELY because of prior commitments. We'd like to help you, but please arrange in advance.

- Press Box Media are asked to sign-in at the receptionist table in the press box to obtain a program, flip card and game release.
- At least 12 pool phones are located throughout the press box. Three phones are allocated to the visiting team. Dial 9 to access an outside line in the press box. Three pay phones are available.
- No tickets will be left for pick up at Media Will Call. All tickets must be picked up at the Ticket Office Will Call window.
- Please contact one of the press box attendants located in the copy room to arrange fax service before the game.
- Flipcards for videographers/ photographers will be placed in the lounge area on service level. For dark room access or phone lines, prior arrangements must be made the week of the game.
- Players and coaches are available in the locker room following a brief cool down period. Head coach Brian Billick holds a postgame press conference in the interview room across the locker room hallway. Several key players of the game will follow him.
- The Ravens press level staff will provide quotes from both the RAVENS and visiting team following the game. Post game quotes may be picked up on press level along with statistics/ gamebooks/ play -by-plays and game notes.

BALTIMORE RAVENS MEDIA POLICIES & FAQs:

ravensmedia.com: Once launched, this password-protected, media-specific site provides credential and media policies, as well as travel and credential application forms 24 hours a day.

In-depth information on the Baltimore Ravens for both fans and media can be found at the club's official website www.baltimoreravens.com, which contains weekly news releases, statistics, rosters, depth charts, injury reports, quotes, feature articles and player bios. The site is updated daily during training camp and the regular season.

HOME GAME CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Only accredited members of the media who cover the RAVENS and the NFL on a regular basis may apply for credentials. ALL credential requests must be made ONLINE at ravensmedia.com and a minimum of one week in advance of the game, including pre-season contests. (Written, faxed or phone-in credential requests will no longer be accepted.) Media should call or e-mail to confirm credentials on Thursday after 1 PM preceding Sunday games or 72 hours prior to a game. Failure to utilize an issued credential without notifying the PR department will result in revocation of credential privileges.

PRESS WILL CALL: All game-by-game media MUST pick up their credentials in person at Media Will Call on game day. Photographers/ videographers and field only media should pick up credentials and enter M&T Bank Stadium at the Media Will Call Lobby. On-field credentials will require an ARM BAND, obtained at Media Will Call. Working Press, Television and Radio members having access to Press areas should pick up credentials and enter only through Media Will Call. Government-issued I.D. is required to enter M&T Bank Stadium. All bags are subject to inspection. These are security measures, for which we apologize for any inconvenience.

ROAD GAME CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: If you are a regular member of the RAVENS media corps and wish to cover the team on the road, ALL requests must be submitted ONLINE to ravensmedia.com no later than one game previous to a road contest. The RAVENS will then place a request to the opponent Monday AM prior to the next Sunday road game. Note that opponent credential availability may be limited.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS: Media Relations Manager CHAD STEELE coordinates all network TV, local and national media requests. ALL radio requests must be made via fax, including names of producers, talent, studio numbers and show times, live or tape info. Please fax to (410) 654-6249.

HEAD COACH AVAILABILITY: Please consult PR Weekly Release at baltimoreravens.com for times and location. Coach Brian Billick conducts a weekly press conference on Mondays during the season at 3 PM. Coaches are not available on Tuesday, the players' day off. On Tuesday, coaches are in meetings. Brian is available after walk-throughs on Wednesday and Thursday at 11:30 AM on the field. On Friday, Brian is available after practice at 1 PM. Coaches are not available for interviews on Saturday or Sunday, pre-game.

ASSISTANT COACH/ STAFF AVAILABILITY: RAVENS assistant coaches are available for interviews provided PR is notified in advance. Please consult Kevin Byrne or Chad Steele.

LOCKER ROOM POLICY/ PLAYER AVAILABILITY: During the regular season, players are available to the media after the conclusion of practice coming off the field. The RAVENS locker room is open to the media for a maximum of 45 minutes from NOON to 12:45 PM. Any additional interviews should be coordinated through RAVENS PR. The RAVENS locker room is NOT open on the players' day off (typically Tuesdays.)

PRACTICE: Consult baltimoreravens.com or RAVENS PR for practice times and access. Visiting team media are NOT permitted at practice. Videotaping is permitted ONLY during stretching, warm-up and the cool-down periods. For safety reasons, there is no between-field access.

CONFERENCE CALLS: The RAVENS will make Coach Billick and a player available to the visiting team media each Wednesday during the regular season. The player is usually available at 11:45 AM ET and Coach Billick is at NOON.
