STEVE BISCIOTTI

OWNER • 10TH SEASON

COLLEGE

Salisbury State University

BORN

4/10/60, Philadelphia, PA

NFL EXPERIENCE

10th Season

When Steve Bisciotti, now in his 10th year as an owner of the Ravens, hired John Harbaugh as the team's head coach in January of 2008, some eyebrows were raised. Harbaugh had never been a head coach at any level. In fact, he had not been an offensive or defensive coordinator in the NFL.

"I think leadership is difficult to define, but you can recognize leadership when you see it," Bisciotti says. "We all saw something in John. And, you have to be willing to separate yourself from the masses – take some chances – to achieve great success. There's probably a little bit more perception that we took a risk with John. We don't think we did."

Like many decisions Bisciotti has made, hiring Harbaugh proved to be the right one. The 2008 Ravens earned an 11-5 regular-season record and advanced to the AFC Championship game, where they lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers.

The passionate Bisciotti, who is 49 and the second-youngest owner in the NFL (to Washington's Daniel Snyder - 45), bought a minority interest in the Ravens in 2000 from Art Modell and completed the purchase of the franchise on April 9, 2004. Steve's initial investment to the team provided funds to secure free agents for the 2000 Super Bowl XXXV championship team. Steve's influence in the NFL continues to rise – he currently is a member of two important ownership committees: Broadcasting and Digital Media.

Owner Steve Bisciotti with Head Coach John Harbaugh.

Born in Philadelphia on April 10, 1960, Bisciotti moved with his family to Baltimore (Severna Park) in March of 1961 when Steve, the youngest of three children, was 11 months old. His father, Bernard, took the children to Orioles and Colts games. Sadly, Bernard died of leukemia when Steve was 8. His mother, Patricia, a huge Ravens fan, then raised the children alone.

After graduating from Salisbury (MD) State with a degree in liberal arts in 1982, Bisciotti worked in the temporary help industry. In 1983 (he was 23), he started Aerotek with his cousin, Jim Davis. They offered aerospace and technology companies access to skilled temporary employees. Starting with two employees and two clients, Bisciotti and Davis produced $1.5 million in sales in the first year.

A young Steve Bisciotti with the late Johnny Unitas at Colts training camp.

"I remember going to a couple of Colts games every season with my dad or mom and brother (Mike) and sister (Cathy Thomas). We were on the 10-yard line, lower deck. We'd go to O's games, too. My favorite player was Paul Blair, because my brother already claimed Brooks Robinson and would not let me take the same guy. We'd also go to Westminster for Colts training camp. We have pictures with various players, and I have one with me wearing Johnny Unitas' helmet. I would always ask the Colts' players if I could wear their helmets."

– Steve Bisciotti

Sports Illustrated recently named Steve Bisciotti one of the Five Best Owners in the NFL:

"Bisciotti has become beloved in Baltimore as the local kid who made good and has turned the Ravens into one of best-managed franchises in the NFL. He has become the epitome of the young, engaged owner who goes about his business the right way and puts a perennial winner on the field."

Aerotek grew into the Allegis Group, which currently is the largest staffing firm (revenue-wise) in the United States – fifth in the world. The company, which is based just outside Baltimore and has offices throughout the U.S., Canada and Europe, has over 10,000 employees and 80,000 high-end contract workers. Allegis Group, which, like Steve, does little self promotion or publicity, places employees in positions from engineers to cable installers, to computer programmers, to marketing specialists.

Until he bought the Ravens, Bisciotti's incredible business success was not well known to the general public on a national level. In fact, it wasn't even notable in the Baltimore area, where he and his partners kept a low profile. "I'm okay if I'm one of the least known owners in pro sports," Bisciotti says.

Steve, an energetic visionary, quietly is dedicated to a number of important causes and projects, some associated with his deep Catholic faith. He is a board member for Catholic Charities. Bisciotti recently (2007) purchased a collection of Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas memorabilia, which he immediately loaned to Baltimore's Sports Legends Museum. "It was important to keep those memories in Baltimore and for fans to get a chance to see them," Bisciotti explains.

Bisciotti enjoys golfing, boating and is devoted to University of Maryland athletics, especially the men's basketball team. He and his wife Renée (Foote) are the parents of two sons, Jason, who is pursuing a master's in business, and Jack, a senior in college. Renée helped design the interior and selected the furnishings at the Ravens' training complex. The family lives in Millersville, MD.

Bisciotti is pronounced Bih-SHAH-tee.

"My responsibilities are not only to my family and the people who work for the Ravens. There are over a million stakeholders in the Baltimore area that we have an obligation to. They're the fans who invest more than three hours on Sunday to watch, listen to, or attend our games. That's a big difference from owning a non-sports company."

— Steve Bisciotti on owning the Ravens

"What really strikes me about Steve is his loyalty to the friends he's had forever. A lot of people, when they become very successful like Steve, they move on. His friends are the same ones he grew up with. That's one of his strengths."

— Maryland basketball coach Gary Williams on Steve Bisciotti

GAME DAY

Art Modell – much like Steve Bisciotti – embodies the spirit of a true American success story. Both men have been described as bold, competitive, compassionate and highly-approachable entrepreneurs – generally, a rare combination of qualities for men who have risen to their level of accomplishment.

In April of 2004, Art finalized the sale of the World Champion Baltimore Ravens to Bisciotti. Also in 2004, Art was a semifinalist for that year's Hall of Fame class. He was one of 15 finalists for the Canton NFL Hall of Fame in 2001 and a semifinalist for the classes of 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2009.

Modell purchased the Cleveland Browns for what was an unprecedented price of $4 million in 1961, and three decades later, in February of 1996, he brought an NFL franchise back to Baltimore. For Art and his club, the move was not an easy one to make – and it was not easy for the team's fans to see their team go. Knowing this, Modell did not hesitate to leave the fans of Cleveland a legacy.

He announced that he would give the name "Browns" to Cleveland for a future team. He also left the team's colors (orange and brown) and the rich and storied 49-year history (1946-1995).

In his 43 seasons of full ownership of the Browns and the Ravens, more than half of Art's teams were in the playoffs. Modell won two NFL championships, 1964: 27-0 (over the Colts); and in 2000, 34-7 (vs. the NY Giants). Three other teams (1965, 1968 and 1969) played in NFL title games, and three more teams (1986, 1987 and 1989) lost memorable AFC Championship battles – all against John Elway and the Denver Broncos. Ten other teams earned playoff berths, while six more entered the season's final week with a chance to make the postseason.

Modell was the only elected NFL president in league history, serving a term from 1967-69. He chaired the negotiations for the first collective bargaining agreement with the players in 1968, leading a committee that included Vince Lombardi and Jim Finks, both NFL Hall of Famers. Modell may be most noted for his tenure as the NFL's broadcast chairman. The contracts he negotiated over a 31-year period (1962-93) set the standard for sports television.

Art's key career highlights include:

- Chairman of the Owners Labor Committee (1968), which successfully negotiated the NFL's first players' collective bargaining agreement.
- Served on the NFL-AFL Merger Committee, breaking the impasse for realignment of the two leagues by moving the Browns to the AFC.
- Worked closely with then-Commissioner Pete Rozelle to establish NFL Films and became its first chairman.
- In 1970, Art was an important negotiator with ABC to launch Monday Night Football and volunteered to host the first game in Cleveland. (The Browns won, 31-21, over the NY Jets.)

"I believe Art belongs in the Hall of Fame. I don't think I know a person who has done more for the league than Modell, especially through television."

– Wellington Mara former owner, NY Giants, 2002, deceased

Personal: In 1943, Modell joined the Air

Force ...Attended New Utrecht (Brooklyn, NY) HS...He and his wife, Patricia, are the parents of John and David and have six grandchildren...Art is the CEO of Modell Ventures...The Modells, residents of Cockeysville, MD, are active in our Baltimore community...The couple has donated millions of dollars to a variety of charities, most notably, the SEED School, a boarding school being developed in Baltimore for disadvantaged youth, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Kennedy Krieger Institute, St. Vincent's Center, a home for abused children, and the House Of Ruth...Modell has received numerous awards and honors, including the Generous Heart Award from the Dr. Ben Carson Scholarship Foundation, given annually for excellence in the community.

DICK CASS

PRESIDENT • 6TH SEASON

COLLEGE Princeton / Yale Law School
 BORN 1/13/46, Washington, D.C.
 NFL EXPERIENCE 6th Season

ORGANIZATION
FRONT OFFICE

Dick Cass is in his sixth year as president of the Ravens. Cass oversees every area of the organization, including player and staff personnel, the coaching team, corporate sales, communications and business ventures. In addition to his time with the Ravens, Cass has served as counsel to a number of NFL owners, including both the Washington Redskins and the Dallas Cowboys, as well as the NFL's league office.

"Dick has had involvement with every aspect of an NFL team," Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti said. "His legal expertise, his working knowledge of the business, his relationships at the league office, and the respect he has earned around the league are significant assets for the franchise."

2004-09: (with Baltimore) 2008: A regional business group awarded Cass its Regional Visionary Award for setting a high standard for community service in the Baltimore region...Among all NFL clubs, the Ravens ranked in the top tier in sponsorship revenue, new sponsorship deals and ticket renewal rate following the '08 season... Helped guide a committee of eight to interview and select head coach John Harbaugh. 2007: Even though Baltimore is the country's 26th-largest television market, the Ravens ranked in the NFL's top tier in total revenue...Forbes Magazine recognized the Ravens as having the NFL's second-fastest growing brand over the past three years (Aug. issue)...Cass keyed fundraising efforts for the $100,000 renovation of Collington Square School's playground. 2006: Saluted by former NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue for Dick's input to the revenue-sharing plan of the current NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement...Initiated fundraising after Hurricane Katrina that resulted in $1.2 million donated from the Ravens...Though dismissed by Cass, was mentioned prominently by media as a possible successor to Tagliabue... Instrumental in raising $1.2 million to refurbish Baltimore Polytechnic Institute's football stadium... The new field allows all 18 Baltimore City public high schools to play at two games per season at the venue. 2004: Cass was named president of the club in April and was Steve Bisciotti's first hire as new owner of the Ravens...Cass brought a wealth of business knowledge, plus legal and negotiating expertise to the club...Orchestrated a midseason move to the team's new facility in Owings Mills, coupling football operations and corporate into one complex.

1972-2003: (with Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering) A partner of the D.C.-based law firm of WCP for 31 years...Was chairman of the firm's Business Transactions Section and a member of its Management Committee...Had a general corporate and securities practice, representing companies and entrepreneurs in complex corporate partnership and securities transactions. 2003: Counsel to the Independent Commission of the US Olympics Committee. 2002: Was counsel to the owner of the NBA Charlotte Hornets in the team's relocation to New Orleans. 2000: Represented Steve Bisciotti in the purchase of the Ravens from the Modell family. 1999: Represented the estate of Jack Kent Cooke in the sale of the Redskins to Daniel Snyder. 1992-93: Retained by the NFL as an advisor pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement with players. 1980s: Represented Cowboys owner Jerry Jones in the acquisition of the team and Texas Stadium...Advised Jones on a variety of matters, including sponsorship contracts, the Collective Bargaining Agreement and salary cap, NFL broadcast arrangements, NFL Internet policies, stadium financing, estate planning, local broadcast partnerships, and the NFL substance abuse programs. 1979: Promoted to partner of Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering law firm. 1972: Served his first year as a member of WCP.

College: Graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Princeton in 1968...A knee injury, coupled with surgery, kept him from athletics his first two years...Played rugby as a junior and senior...Graduated from Yale Law School in 1971.

Personal: Clerked for a federal judge in Connecticut for a year before joining WCP, a firm with global offices...Father was in the Coast Guard...As a child, Dick moved around the country with his parents, making stops in Virginia, Maryland, Michigan, California, Washington, D.C., Florida and Massachusetts...Graduated from Mercersburg (PA) Academy, where he was student body president and captain of the football, basketball and baseball teams...He serves on boards for the Greater Baltimore Committee, Kennedy Krieger Institute, Maryland Science Center, Baltimore Community Foundation and Bert Bell NFL Players Pension Plan...He has served on the boards of trustees for both Princeton and Mercersburg Academy...He continues as chairman of the Ravens All Community Team Foundation...Dick's wife, Heather, owns an architecture firm, Cass and Associates...She is also a graduate of Yale (School of Architecture) and is a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects... Their daughter, Courtney, is a Columbia graduate who taught in New York City public schools for three years and has since earned a law degree from the University of Virginia...She is currently working with Teach for America...Their son, Willy, is a graduate of St. Albans HS in Washington, D.C. and a 2008 Yale University graduate (biomedical engineering)...He is currently working at Yale in a medical lab.

OZZIE NEWSOME

GENERAL MANAGER & EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT • 14TH SEASON

COLLEGE Alabama
BORN 3/16/56, Muscle Shoals, AL
NFL EXPERIENCE 32nd Season
13 playing / 19 front office

Ozzie Newsome's legacy is unlike any the game has seen.

Though he has flourished at every point of his football career, it's unfair to say that Newsome has followed a successful path. That's because, in all reality, he blazed the trail – one on which success has actually followed him. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV championship team and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American general manager.

"Ozzie's credibility is what stands out the most," Ravens head coach John Harbaugh states. "And it's not just about what he has accomplished. To me, it's his commitment and focus while striving to do more."

Newsome's remarkable football journey began in Leighton, AL, where he first stepped on the gridiron with the hope of playing for the University of Alabama. That dream turned into a reality when he went on to star for the Crimson Tide under Bear Bryant from 1974-77. "Coach Bryant helped me grow up," states Newsome, who has a sideline portrait of the legendary coach and mentor on his office wall. "He pushed me further than I thought I could go, both on and off the field."

"The Ravens are the NFL's gold standard on draft day, consistently making choices that stand the test of time."

– Don Banks
SportsIllustrated.com

In 1978, Cleveland selected Newsome in the first round of the NFL Draft. Playing 13 years for the Browns, he authored the most productive career for a tight end in the history of the game. A three-time Pro Bowler, his 662 receptions for 7,980 and 47 TDs stood as NFL records by a tight end until Shannon Sharpe surpassed those marks in 2001 (Tony Gonzalez has since broken those records).

Following his storied playing days, Ozzie joined Cleveland's front office. His initial non-player position came as an assignment scout in 1991. Two years later, he was promoted to a very comprehensive assignment – assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel. "I had to find out which direction my career would go," Newsome explains. "Art [Modell] gave me the opportunity to work with the coaches, and I enjoyed that. At the same time, I increased my experience with the personnel department and decided that's where I wanted my career to head."

In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel. Although he continued to help on the field, Ozzie provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, Mr. Modell invited Newsome and promoted him to vice president of player personnel. From that

OZZIE NEWSOME SNAPSHOT

- NFL's First African American General Manager (promoted in 2002)
- Architect of the Ravens' 2000 Super Bowl XXXV Championship Team
- NFL Executive of the Year (2000)
- Pro Football Hall of Fame (class of 1999)
- State of Alabama Hall of Fame (class of 1995)
- National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame and NCAA Hall of Fame (class of 1994)
- 13-Year NFL Tight End with Cleveland Browns (1978-90)
- Three-Time Pro Bowler (1981, 1984-85)
- Four-Time Cleveland Touchdown Club Offensive Player of the Year
- Current Member of 3 Major NFL Policy-Making Committees: Competition, Diversity and Player Care Foundation Committees point, Ozzie's reputation as a supreme talent assessor grew quickly.

In the Ravens' first-ever draft, Newsome and Co. tabbed T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis (the fourth and 26th selections, respectively). Combining to produce an amazing 21 Pro Bowls since then, each player is considered a likely Hall of Famer. Ogden, who retired in June of 2008, could become the first Raven ever elected to Canton. Fittingly, he would join Newsome, who was inducted into the Hall as a Brown in 1999.

Starting with Ogden and Lewis, Newsome has consistently compiled impressive draft classes for the Ravens. In the team's first 13 drafts (1996-2008), Baltimore selected first-rounders who have earned a total of 39 Pro Bowl honors. And when the Ravens have had a high pick, they haven't missed. Of the seven players chosen in the top 10 by Baltimore, five (Ogden, LB Peter Boulware, CB Chris McAlister, RB Jamal Lewis and LB Terrell Suggs) have earned Pro Bowl accolades. Additionally, Baltimore has picked in the bottom half of the first round with uncanny success: Lewis has twice been named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year; TE Todd Heap, chosen 31st, has been to two Pro Bowls; Ed Reed, the 24th pick, has gone to Hawaii five times and also earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2004.

"I'm not so sure I wouldn't start my franchise with Ozzie Newsome, the personnel whiz of the Ravens. In a salary-cap world, where rosters are overhauled every offseason, the guy in charge of finding the players may be the most important guy in any NFL building. The good talent evaluators allow you to compete. The real ones win you championships."

— Rick Gosselin
The Dallas Morning News

Amazingly, in the Ravens' brief history, Newsome and his staff have drafted 11 players who have earned All-Star honors. When including 2006 Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott, who signed as a rookie free agent in 2002, Baltimore has produced 12 homegrown Pro Bowl players in just 13 NFL seasons.

In addition to his knack for evaluating talent on the field, Newsome has also mastered the ability to develop and share insight with the scouts who work under him. The Ravens boast a methodical and disciplined draft process, one that's foundation is laid years in advance. The "process" includes 15 full-time members of the personnel department, but also has feedback from Ravens coaches. Most of Ozzie's staff has been with the team since the franchise started in 1996 or has graduated from the "20/20 Club," which is a group that includes members who began with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. (The term "20/20" refers to hiring "20-year-olds for $20,000." "Actually, the guys started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them," Newsome adds.)

The Ravens do not belong to the National Football Scouting group, which provides member teams a log of reports on players eligible for the draft.

Top 10 Thrives: The Ravens usually don't miss if they have a top 10 pick. Of the 7 players chosen in the top 10 by Baltimore, 5 have earned Pro Bowl honors.

Instead, they make their own list, and that means looking at every player on a collegiate roster. “We do a lot of cross-checking,” says Ravens director of player personnel Eric DeCosta, a graduate of Newsome’s “20/20 Club.” “A number of us look at everyone, and then we have the area scouts look at certain players from other regions so we get multiple grades and opinions on all the players.”

Newsome encourages all scouts and coaches to have strong opinions, noting specifically that he wants to hear what everyone in the room has to say. Because of this philosophy, Ozzie believes the biggest strength of the Ravens’ personnel team is that “we respect and listen to each other.”

“What sets us apart is that we have guys who cut their teeth right here in Baltimore, learning the way we do things,” Newsome affirms. “And we have had some great guys with Phil Savage, ‘Shack’ [James Harris], George Kokinis, Eric DeCosta and other people who were helping these young scouts along the way. I think that’s the secret. It’s not Ozzie. It’s the way we do things, and the way these guys gravitate to the process of the Baltimore Ravens.”

Newsome also fosters a working environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the “Raven way,” Newsome aims to create a synergy that manufactures success among the scouts, coaches and players. As a result, Baltimore has had many of its assistants move on to become head coaches on the collegiate and NFL levels: Jack Del Rio (Jaguars), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Marvin Lewis (Bengals), Eric Mangini (Browns/Jets), Rick Neuheisel (UCLA), Mike Nolan (49ers), Rex Ryan (Jets), Jim Schwartz (Lions), Mike Singletary (49ers), Mike Smith (Falcons) and Ken Whisenhunt (Cardinals).

“[Ravens] players believe, and that’s the beauty of it,” states Ryan, who worked with Newsome from 1999-2008. “Ozzie brings in the right kind of players, and one thing we’ve always talked about is we don’t want to coach effort. And that’s the thing – we don’t. [Ravens] guys love to play the game, and those are the guys you surround yourself with. That’s why you have a chance to be successful [in Baltimore].”

Newsome’s motivation and work ethic are also reasons many people respect him. One specific way that devotion shines through is in his everyday routine. If Ozzie’s not in his office or out on the practice field, he can be found on the treadmill in the Ravens’ weight room. Exercising daily (and often putting in two-a-days), Ozzie says his workouts are just another way he tracks the pulse of the team.

“By being around the coaches and players out at practice,” Newsome states, “and being in that weight room around those players, I think I get a chance to build some things in my mind of how I’d like the makeup of our football team.”

Here is a year-by-year look of Newsome’s football career:

2008: Along with owner Steve Bisciotti, president Dick Cass and several other front office executives, Newsome headed the search committee that hired first-year head coach John Harbaugh...Ravens posted an 11-5 regular season record and advanced to the AFC Championship game, where they fell to the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers...Led by Newsome and Harbaugh, Baltimore produced 13 total victories, which set an NFL record for most wins by a first-year head coach (Harbaugh) and rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco)...Baltimore’s stifling defense – ranked No. 2 in the NFL – set several franchise records, while the Ravens also had five players earn Pro Bowl honors: LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed, ST Brendon Ayanbadejo, LB Terrell Suggs and FB Le’Ron McClain...Flacco, who became the first rookie QB ever to win two playoff games, was named the Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote).

Not only have the Ravens’ drafts been productive, but also their free agent signings have proven masterful. “We’ve been able to recruit and sign veterans who helped us win the Super Bowl and kept us competitive in other seasons,” Newsome states.

2007: Despite producing a 5-11 record amidst an injury-marred season (Baltimore lost 77 games to starters), the Ravens sent four players to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed and RB Willis McGahee...Former free agent acquisition WR Derrick Mason (2005) set a Ravens' single-season record with 103 receptions...Ravens had six different rookies start a game, tying for the second most in the league.

2006: Baltimore produced the best record in franchise history with a 13-3 mark before falling to Indianapolis in the Divisional Playoff, 15-6...Thanks to key offseason free agent additions like 2003 NFL co-MVP QB Steve McNair, four-time Pro Bowl DT Trevor Pryce and Pro Bowl special teamer Gary Stills, the Ravens improved in all three phases of the game...Additionally, the Ravens had five rookie draft picks start at least one contest, including first-rounder DT Haloti Ngata (16 games) and fifth-round pick S Dawan Landry (14 games)...Both Ngata and Landry earned PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team honors and were integral pieces of Baltimore's No. 1-ranked defense...Ravens produced eight Pro Bowl players, including McNair...After the Ravens' 27-26 win at Tennessee, keyed by McNair's 376-yard, three-TD effort and Pryce's game-clinching FG block, Newsome was awarded the game ball for his efforts in building the 2006 team.

2005: A disappointing season ended with a 6-10 record...The Ravens lost 67 games to starting players with injuries, which were third most in the NFL...Pro Bowlers WR Derrick Mason and CB Samari Rolle were added for the 2005 campaign...T Jonathan Ogden made his ninth-straight Pro Bowl appearance...First-round draft choice WR Mark Clayton set rookie records with single-season franchise highs in catches (44) and yards (471).

2004: Baltimore, with key starters missing a total of 53 games, fell one game short of the playoffs, finishing with a 9-7 mark...S Ed Reed, the Ravens' first pick in 2002, was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year...Reed, LB Ray Lewis, CB Chris McAlister, T Jonathan Ogden and OLB Terrell Suggs all made the Pro Bowl...In June 2004, the Pro Football Writers Association honored Newsome with the Jack Horrigan Award for his cooperation and understanding of the media.

2003: The Ravens won their first division title with a 10-6 record...Baltimore hosted the Titans in the Wild Card game, but fell 20-17...Ravens sent an NFL-best (tied with Kansas City) eight players to the Pro Bowl, all of whom were originally drafted by Baltimore...In the '03 draft, Newsome and his staff picked LB Terrell Suggs (first round, 10th overall), who posted a Ravens' rookie-record 12 sacks and earned the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year...RB Jamal Lewis was named the NFL's Offensive Player of the Year for posting the second-most rushing yards in league history (2,066)...LB Ray Lewis earned his second (2000) NFL Defensive Player of the Year honor.

"But for those who study the draft, the Ravens are considered almost unmatched because of their acumen in the middle rounds, where the remaining players have greater shortcomings. Football Outsiders analyzed the Ravens' draft picks from 2001 through 2007 to determine the value of each pick, based on games started, compared with players at the same position chosen within 10 spots by other teams. During that time, the Ravens' picks had the best average value."

The New York Times*

2002: Newsome and his staff assembled the youngest team in NFL history...Most observers predicted the Ravens would win very few games, but Baltimore entered Week 15 with a 7-7 mark and a chance to be the AFC's top Wild Card playoff team...Two last-minute losses to Cleveland (14-13) and at Pittsburgh (34-31) gave Baltimore a 7-9 mark...That year's draft produced two immediate starters (S Ed Reed and DE Anthony Weaver) and standout returner Lamont Brightful...Reed led the Ravens with five INTs and made every NFL All-Rookie team.

2001: Picking late in each round after winning Super Bowl XXXV, Newsome and his staff continued to draft well by selecting TE Todd Heap (first round, 31st overall), who entering 2009 is the team's all-time leading receiver in every major category...Ravens finished the season with a 10-6 record and won at Miami (21-3) in the Wild Card game before falling in the Divisional Playoff at Pittsburgh (27-10)...Six Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors.

2000: Newsome was voted the NFL's Executive of the Year...Finishing 12-4, the Ravens earned a Wild Card berth and won Super Bowl XXXV, 34-7, over the New York Giants...Baltimore's bruising defense, considered one of the best in league history, permitted just 960 rushing yards and 165 points – both NFL records in a 16-game season...The architects of the Ravens' Super Bowl championship team, Newsome and his staff hit gold with the selection of RB Jamal Lewis (the team's all-time leading rusher) with the fifth pick in the first round...As a rookie, Lewis set a then-Ravens' team record with 1,364 rushing yards...The Ravens sent five players to the Pro Bowl, including key free agents DT Sam

Adams and S Rod Woodson, whom Newsome signed to the team.

1999: The Ravens finished 8-8 in Brian Billick's first season as head coach and had five players named to the Pro Bowl...Newsome continued a hot hand at drafting by tabbing Arizona CB Chris McAlister (10th-overall pick), who went on to earn three Pro Bowls (2003-04 and 2006) while in Baltimore.

1998: Coordinated the selection of CB Duane Starks with the Ravens' first pick (10th overall)... Starks tied for the NFL's INT lead among rookies that year (equaling Charles Woodson's 5)... Stark then added five more thefts in his second season and led the Ravens with six picks in 2000, including a 49-yard INT for a TD against the Giants in Super Bowl XXXV.

1997: In his second draft, Newsome picked eventual four-time Pro Bowl LB Peter Boulware, LB Jamie Sharper, S Kim Herring and C Jeff Mitchell – all four of whom became starters against the Giants in the Super Bowl XXXV victory...Boulware, the Ravens' all-time sacks leader (70), was the consensus choice for NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and also led the AFC in sacks (15) in 2001.

1996: Art Modell invited Newsome to join him as the Ravens' vice president of player personnel when the team moved from Cleveland to Baltimore...Under Newsome's direction, the '96 draft produced two perennial Pro Bowlers in T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis, who was MVP in Super Bowl XXXV and the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 2000 and 2003... Also earning the Pro Bowl as a returner was Jermaine Lewis (1998 and 2001), a fifth-rounder in that draft...Jermaine still holds many franchise career return records, including combined TDs (six) and combined yards (5,883).

1991-95: (with Cleveland) First position in the Browns' front office was as a special assignment scout...Two years later (1993), Newsome was promoted to a very comprehensive assignment – assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel...In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel...Although he continued to help on the field, Newsome provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire.

NFL Player Experience: 1978-90: (with Cleveland) Newsome retired after 13 years as a premier NFL tight end...Entering 2009, his 662 receptions for 7,980 yards are the third most ever by a TE and the most in Browns history... Newsome ended his career as the fourth-leading NFL receiver of all time...He earned three Pro Bowls (1981, 1984-85) and was a four-time winner of the Cleveland Touchdown Club's Offensive Player of the Year award (1978, 1981 and 1983-84)...His streak of 150 consecutive games with a catch is the second longest in NFL history...Winner of the 1990 Byron "Whizzer" White Award as the NFL's top community volunteer...Newsome, who was named to the All-NFL team of the 1980's (second team), consistently received All-AFC and All-NFL honors throughout his career...He was a 1978 No. 1 draft choice (23rd overall), along with LB Clay Matthews (12th overall), and the two are among an elite group of Browns to have played for three decades...The others are Gene Hickerson (1958-60, 62-73), Dick Schafrath (1959-71) and Don Cockroft (1968-80)...Until former Raven Shannon Sharpe broke his records in 2001, Newsome's pro career was the most productive of any TE in NFL history...Newsome was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1999...Calvin Hill (RB - Dallas, Washington, Cleveland), a close friend of his, introduced Newsome at the induction ceremony.

College: Newsome graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in recreation administration...During his four-year collegiate career with the Crimson Tide, he posted 102 receptions for 2,070 yards and 16 TDs...Newsome also helped Alabama capture three SEC Championships...As a senior in 1977, he was named team captain and the SEC Lineman of the Year...Newsome also earned All-America honors at WR...Was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame (South Bend, IN) in 1994.

Personal: Attended Colbert County (Leighton, AL) HS...Winner of the 1990 Byron "Whizzer" White Award as the NFL's top community volunteer, he is widely known for his willingness to help those in need...In 2008, Newsome was honored by Little League Baseball – a sport he competed in as a child – for his lifetime athletic achievements by being inducted into its Hall of Fame...In 2007, along with Tony Dungy, Herm Edwards and Lovie Smith, Newsome received the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Johnnie Cochran Salute to Excellence Award, which honors African Americans in the NFL who make the biggest impact on the field and in the front office...Newsome also received the FPA's Paul "Tank" Younger Award, acknowledging his dedication and achievement in building a successful organization...Newsome has gained induction into five halls of fame: the NFL's Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, OH (1999), the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame (1994), the NCAA Hall of Fame (1994), the State of Alabama Hall of Fame (1995) and the Little League Baseball Hall of Fame (2008)... An avid golfer, Ozzie says his dream foursome would include Bear Bryant, Tiger Woods, Michael Jordan and himself...Newsome's wife, Gloria, and their son, Michael Ryan, live in Cockeysville, MD.

JOHN HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH • 2ND SEASON

COLLEGE Miami (OH)
 BORN 9/23/62, Perrysburg, OH

ORGANIZATION
COACHES

During John Harbaugh's first season (2008) as the Ravens' head coach, he would often thank those in the organization who were instrumental in hiring him. He would say: "Thanks for this opportunity. This is the best. I love everything about this job. I won't let you down."

Certainly, he let no one down.

Taking over a team that produced a 5-11 mark in 2007, Harbaugh guided the '08 Ravens to the AFC Championship game where they lost a heart-stopping battle to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Steelers. He tied the NFL record (since 1978) for turnarounds for head coaches taking over a sub-.500 team when Baltimore earned an 11-5 regular season mark. The Ravens' 2-1 playoff record established a new league standard in this same category.

With the 13 total victories, Harbaugh set the NFL record for the most wins ever by a rookie head coach playing a rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco).

The Ravens did all this despite placing 19 players on Injured Reserve, the second most in the league. Baltimore lost 64 games to starters, according to Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, 14 more than any other '08 playoff team.

Despite the first-season success, "Harbs" diffuses accolades: "It's not about me, it's about us. It's about the team. It's about the players, the coaches, the owner, Ozzie [Newsome] and the scouts. It's about the support staff. It's about all of us pulling together to win – to be the best," Harbaugh says.

Under Harbaugh, the 2008 Ravens were balanced and effective:

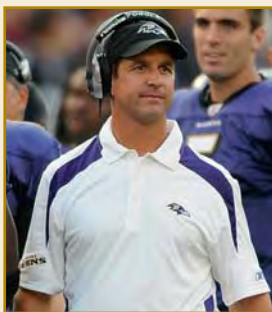

- No. 1 in point differential with 141 (385 points scored to 244 allowed)
- No. 2 in the NFL in overall defense
- No. 1 in time of possession (33:10)
- No. 1 in average margin of victory (18.1 points)
- No. 3 in turnover ratio with a +13 take-away/give-away margin
- No. 1 in interceptions (26)
- No. 1 in take-aways (34)
- No. 4 in rushing yards per game (148.5 yard average)

Harbaugh, who established a reputation as one of the NFL's top special teams coaches, is the third head coach in team history, following Ted Marchibroda (1996-98) and Brian Billick (1999-2007). Coach Harbaugh arrived in Baltimore with 24 years of pro and college coaching experience, including the previous 10 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. John was the Eagles' special team coach from 1998 through 2006 and headed Philly's secondary in 2007. He was originally hired by then-head coach Ray Rhodes and, subsequently, was one of four assistants retained by Andy Reid in 1999.

Prior to hiring John, the Ravens talked with over 30 people about the energetic Harbaugh, who had never been a head coach, nor an NFL offensive or defensive coordinator. "Did we take a chance by hiring John? My belief is that you have to be willing to do things the masses don't, or you'll never separate yourself from the masses," stated team owner Steve Bisciotti. "We're totally confident we picked the right person."

HISTORY

GAME DAY

Harbaugh's Philadelphia special teams were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. From 2000-05, Philly's units finished in the top 10 in five of those seasons in the comprehensive special teams rankings. In 2001 and 2003, the Eagles were ranked No. 1 according to the Rick Gosselin composite (includes 22 kicking-game categories). Following the 2001 season, Harbaugh was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was also named The Dallas Morning News Coach of the Year that season. In just four years (1998-2001), Harbaugh elevated the Eagles' special teams units from 29th to first in the league.

In 1999, the Eagles signed K David Akers, who had been working as a part-time waiter after brief kicking stints with Carolina, Atlanta and Washington. With Harbaugh's help, Akers became a three-time Pro Bowler. Harbaugh also worked with P Dirk Johnson, another "street" free agent, helping him record the top two net punting averages (38.4 in '05 and 37.4 in '04) in Eagles history. Under coach Harbaugh, 15 Eagles earned Special Teams Player of the Week awards, snapper Mike Bartrum was named to the Pro Bowl, and RS Reno Mahe led the NFL with a 12.8 punt return average in 2005.

Harbaugh, a graduate of Miami (Ohio) – where he played defensive back – is from a football family. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran who won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA football championship as the head coach at Western Kentucky. His brother Jim, who was the Ravens' starting QB in 1998, played 14 seasons in the NFL and is the current head coach at Stanford. (His sister Joani is married to Indiana basketball coach Tom Crean.)

Among John's 24 years of coaching is a two-year stint as the assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati (1995-96). (The Bearcats finished 6-5 both seasons.) John coached 10 years on offense and four on defense at the college level, launching his coaching career in 1984 at the age of 21 as a graduate assistant for his father at Western Michigan. In his second position at the University of Pittsburgh (1987), he was mentored by the legendary Sid Gillman, the Pro Football Hall of Famer. John coached the TEs at Pitt under head coach Mike Gottfried.

While at Cincinnati (1989-96), Harbaugh coached special teams, TEs, OLBs, RBs and was also the recruiting coordinator. Over eight years,

"I'm a football coach. That's what I wanted to be, and that's what I am. I'm excited to be the head coach of the Ravens. It's a big job that provides the opportunity to work with some outstanding people. I grew up as a coach's son, and I understand the core and fundamental principles that define a great football team. At the heart of football are three foundations: first is the team, second is the team and third is the team. We'll stick with that from beginning to end. We will take care of one another. We will push each other to the highest levels. We will lift each other up. Our style of play will be tough, fast, physical and smart."

– John Harbaugh

Following the Ravens' 36-7 victory over Philadelphia (11/23/08), Pro Bowlers S Ed Reed (20), CB Samari Rolle (22), ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (51) and LB Ray Lewis (52) gave head coach John Harbaugh a Gatorade shower. Harbaugh spent 10 years (1998-2007) as an Eagles' coach.

John recruited 27 starters for the Bearcats, and tutored both the NCAA's top return man (former Raven Robert Tate, 34.3 KOR avg. in '95) and the second-ranked returner (Chris Hewitt, 31.5 KOR avg. in '93). John was part of a staff that helped Cincinnati produce three out of four winning seasons (1993, 1995-96) for the first time in 20 years.

"Harbs" also coached one season at Indiana in 1997 as the DBs coach/special teams coordinator under Cam Cameron, the Ravens' current offensive coordinator, and one year at Morehead State in 1988 as DBs/special teams and strength and conditioning coordinator.

Harbaugh earned a degree in political science at Miami (OH), where he won the Football Scholar Athlete Award. He earned his master's in physical education at Western Michigan. John, who attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer HS, his wife, Ingrid, and their daughter, Alison, live in Reisterstown, MD.

John Harbaugh was hired as the Ravens' head coach on Jan. 18, 2008.

WASTING NO TIME

The Ravens and Falcons each posted an 11-5 record in 2008 with a rookie head coach and rookie QB leading the charge. The 11 victories are an NFL record for most regular season wins by a team with a rookie QB and first-year head coach.

JERRY ROSBURG

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR • 2ND SEASON

COLLEGE North Dakota State
BORN 11/24/55, Fairmont, MN
NFL EXPERIENCE 9th Season

Jerry Rosburg, in his second year as the Ravens' special teams coordinator, was awarded the assistant head coach title by head coach John Harbaugh in Jan. 2009. The 31-year coaching veteran guided a strong Ravens' special teams unit in 2008 that featured Pro Bowl special teams ace Brendon Ayanbadejo and exceptional punter Sam Koch, who had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9). Prior to his arrival in Baltimore, Rosburg had built a successful NFL special teams resume both with the Browns (2001-06) and Falcons (2007) after a strong collegiate coaching career. In his year in Atlanta, the Rosburg-led Falcons' special teams units held a number of top 10 rankings. Also, under his leadership, the Browns' special teams units were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. Over a five-year span (2002-06), the Browns' special teams were ranked as the top NFL team in average ranking in the comprehensive annual special teams report created by Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News. (Gosselin's report is recognized by NFL teams as the special teams measuring stick.) In their first year with Rosburg as their mentor, Koch (2008), Atlanta's Michael Koenen (2007) and Cleveland's Dave Zastudil (2006) each tallied their career-best gross and net punting averages.

2008: (with Baltimore) Directed the Ravens' special teams units that produced a Pro Bowl season for special teamer Brendon Ayanbadejo (third trip)...P Sam Koch had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9) and set a Ravens' record...Koch also led the league with 18 punts inside the 10-yard line and was second with 34 punts inside the 20...He was ninth in gross punting average (45.0), which is also a franchise record.

GAME DAY

Cam Cameron, in his second year as the Ravens' offensive coordinator, made an immediate impact in 2008, building a creative offense that ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (148.5 ypg), first in time of possession (33:10) and 11th in points per game (24.1 ppg). After one year as the Miami Dolphins' head coach, Cameron brought his unique offensive mind to Baltimore. His successful stints with the NFL's Chargers and Redskins and the NCAA's Indiana Hoosiers and Michigan Wolverines have been celebrated. While in San Diego, Cam was instrumental in the development of Pro Bowlers QBs Drew Brees and Philip Rivers, RB LaDainian Tomlinson, and TE Antonio Gates. During Cam's tenure (1984-93) as an assistant under Michigan's legendary head coach Bo Schembechler, the Wolverines won six Big Ten titles and played in 10 bowl games.

2008: (with Baltimore) Was chosen by head coach John Harbaugh, who has known Cameron for more than 28 years, to lead Baltimore's offense...Cameron's unit was a significant contributor to the team leading the NFL in time of possession (33:10 avg.)...Helped guide rookie QB Joe Flacco to a highly-acclaimed first season...Flacco won the Diet Pepsi (fan vote) Rookie of the Year award...Ravens' 18.1 average margin of victory ranked second in the NFL...Ravens 24.1 points per game was second most in team history...Created an inventive offense that included WRs throwing TD passes, QBs catching passes and NTs lining up on offense in goal-line situations...Baltimore's 20 rushing TDs set a single-season franchise record (18 in '03),

Cameron was named as the NFL's top offensive coordinator by The Sporting News:

"Being innovative is only part of the job. Putting your best players in a position to be successful is another. Cameron, despite his reputation taking a beating in his one year in Miami, is a great coach who took a Division I-AA quarterback (Joe Flacco) and turned him into a productive NFL starter as a rookie."

and the Ravens were the only NFL team to have a player with over 450 (Ray Rice), 650 (Willis McGahee) and 900 (Le'Ron McClain) rushing yards...Baltimore finished with the fourth-overall rushing attack (148.5 ypg).

2007: (with Miami) Named head coach of the Miami Dolphins...A 1-15 record was a harsh reality for Cam's lone head-coaching season, whose only win (22-16 OT) came against the Baltimore Ravens on Dec. 16...Depleted by injuries, including QB Trent Green, Miami was at or near the bottom of almost all of the significant statistical categories, including 28th overall on offense and 23rd overall on defense, with a run defense ranking 32nd in the league...Miami did finish fourth against the pass behind Tampa, Indianapolis and Pittsburgh...K Jay Feeley (21-of-23) ranked 2nd in the NFL in field goal percentage...Contributing significantly to the Dolphins' malaise were a spate of injuries

2008 STANDOUT "O" NOTES

In his first year as the Ravens' offensive coordinator in 2008, Cam Cameron was instrumental in developing one of the most productive offenses in Ravens history. Here are several key "O" notes from the 2008 regular season:

The Ravens ranked 4th (NFL) in rushing yards per game (148.5).

The Ravens totaled a franchise-record 20 rushing TDs in 2008, tied for 5th most in the NFL. Baltimore also produced 3 rushing plays of at least 50 yards, tying for 2nd most in the league.

Baltimore's "O" converted 23 of 26 3rd-and-1 plays. The Ravens' 88.5% success rate on 3rd-and-1 ranked 2nd in the NFL.

The Ravens produced 10 pass plays of 40 or more yards, 5 of which went for TDs. The Ravens' 10 "big" aerial plays were the most in a single season since 1999 (10).

Rookie QB Joe Flacco improved with each snap he took. Over the last 11 games -- when the Ravens went 9-2 -- Flacco posted a 90.2 QB rating while tossing 13 TDs and just 5 INTs.

Mark Carrier launched his NFL coaching career as a Raven in 2006 and has helped Baltimore's lauded defense combine to produce the most INTs (71) in the NFL over the past three seasons. Led by five-time Pro Bowl safety Ed Reed's NFL-high nine INTs in 2008, Baltimore's defense ranked second against the pass. Carrier was one of six coaches retained by John Harbaugh in 2008. Carrier, an 11-year NFL player and three-time Pro Bowler, was selected sixth overall by the Chicago Bears in the 1990 NFL Draft. Mark retired after the 2000 season and became a sports commentator with various radio and television outlets, including WGN in Chicago, ESPN's XTRA-910 in Phoenix and the USC Football Radio Network.

2006-08: (with Baltimore) 2008: Ravens were No. 2 both in total defense and pass defense...S Ed Reed was voted to his fifth Pro Bowl and was the NFL's only unanimous All-Pro selection... He stole an NFL-high nine picks, returning one an NFL-record 107 yards for a TD...His 43 INTs, a franchise best, rank first among all active NFL players since entering the league in 2002...Reed's 1,144 return yards are also first in the NFL since 2002, while his 26.6 average per return among players with at least 30 picks is first in NFL history...Ravens defense returned 5 INTs for TDs (second to GB's six), tying team record ('04 and '06). 2007: Reed earned his fourth Pro Bowl nod after leading team with seven INTs...S Dawan Landry started every game, posting 91 tackles, one sack and seven PD...CB Corey Ivy subbed for a number of injured DBs and started 13 games, contributing 63 tackles, three sacks, one INT, 16 PD, one FF and one FR. 2006: the Ravens ranked first in overall defense, including first against the run...Totaled a franchise-best 28 picks...Both Reed and CB Chris McAlister earned their third Pro Bowl honors...Five INTs were picked off by Baltimore's rookie S Dawan Landry (one for a TD), the most in the NFL for a rookie DB in 2006...It tied a Ravens' rookie record for picks in a single season with Reed ('02), McAlister ('99) and CB Duane Starks ('98)...Baltimore dominated the turnover battle, earning a +17 ratio, producing the NFL's second-most take-aways with 40 (Chi. was tops with 44)...Was best in the NFL on third down, limiting opponents to just a 28.8% success rate... Ravens produced 22 sacks on third down (second in the NFL) and eight INTs, tying for the fourth most.

2004-05: (with Arizona State) Coached the Sun Devils' cornerbacks...ASU won back-to-back bowl games for the first time in nearly 20 years. 2005: ASU won 45-40 over Rutgers in the Insight.com Bowl. 2004: ASU defeated Purdue, 27-23, in the Sun Bowl.

2003: (with Brophy College Prep) Spent one season as secondary coach.

John "Mother" Dunn was named assistant strength and conditioning coach by head coach John Harbaugh in February of 2008. Having built a reputation for producing some of the strongest and best-conditioned players in the NFL, John was voted by his peers as the NFL's Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 1994, while with San Diego. Dunn has 23 years of professional coaching experience. "Mother" has an uncanny knack of getting players to buy in to his programs. Dunn's energetic, open-minded approach to conditioning keeps him open to and researching for new training protocols.

2008: (with Baltimore) Assisted Bob Rogucki in instituting the Baltimore Ravens Competition Day, an offseason event where players participate in different strength-related competitions...Over 50 players took part in the voluntary offseason training program.

2007: (with Army) Dunn served a brief stint at West Point, after being recruited in December, but signed on with Harbaugh and the Ravens (2/12/08).

2004-05: (with Washington) 2005: Served a second year in the same role for the Redskins.

2004: Tapped by head coach Joe Gibbs for a second time (1984-86) as head strength and conditioning coach.

1997-2003: (with NY Giants) Spent seven years as the Giants' head strength and conditioning coach... Players experienced minimal injuries under Dunn's guidance and were well prepared to stay healthy throughout the season. 2001: Introduced mandatory yoga classes to the team to provide flexibility, breathing, concentration exercises and diversity. 2000: Highlights included winning the NFC Championship and advancing to Super Bowl XXXV against the Ravens. 1999: Offered martial arts as part of the players' training regimen.

1990-96: (with San Diego) Three of Dunn's assistants from the Chargers went on to become head strength coaches in the NFL: Chris Clawson (L.A. Rams), former Raven Chip Morton (Bengals) and John Hastings (Redskins).

1994: Was part of their championship run, as the Chargers advanced to play San Francisco in Super Bowl XXIX...Voted by his peers as the NFL's Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year.

1987-89: (with Oakland) 1987: Hired and posted a three-year stint to lead the Raiders' strength and conditioning program.

1984-86: (with Washington) 1984: Hired and served as assistant strength and conditioning coach under Joe Gibbs in Dunn's first NFL position.

College: Named one of the Lions' co-captains as a senior...Played defensive line at Penn State for two seasons before switching to the O-line in his junior and senior years...Graduated with a degree in health and physical education...An undrafted free agent with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1978 who was later released following the preseason.

Personal: A three-sport star at Taconic Hills (Philmont, NY) HS...Lettered in football, basketball, and track and field...Was nationally ranked in the shot put as a senior...Served as a graduate assistant O-line coach at his alma mater in 1979...Dunn founded his own gym - "Mother" Dunn Nautilus - which had locations in PA and NY in 1980...Nicknamed "Mother" by PSU teammates as a freshman...Named after former Nittany Lions' first All-American at Penn State William Thomas Dunn (1906)...John and his wife, Julia, have two daughters: Jessica and Taylor.

 NFL EXPERIENCE 24th Season

Vic Fangio was named the team's linebackers coach in January 2009. Fangio, one of six assistant coaches retained by John Harbaugh in 2008, spent 11 years in the NFL as a defensive coordinator for three teams (Carolina, Indianapolis and Houston). Prior to joining the Ravens in 2006, Fangio-coordinated defensive units led the league or were in the top three in seven or more major statistical categories. His defenses ranked in the top seven in the takeaway category three times (1995-96, 1998). Coached the "Dome Patrol," the stellar corps of LBs that led the Saints' defense: Ricky Jackson, Pat Swilling, Sam Mills and Vaughan Johnson.

2006-08: (with Baltimore) 2008: Served as special assistant to the head coach/defense for Harbaugh...Defense finished second in the NFL overall, third against the run and second in pass defense. 2006: The Ravens' "D" ranked first overall in the NFL, second against the rush, sixth against the pass and set several franchise records...Baltimore earned a 13-3 record and a first-round bye...Was hired as special assistant to the head coach/defense.

2002-05: (with Houston) 2004: Defense set a team record with 22 INTs (fifth in NFL), scoring five TDs...Kept opponents out of the end zone for 13-straight quarters, from Week 13 to Week 16...That scoreless run was the NFL's best of the season. 2003: Five opening day defensive starters landed on IR, including two Pro Bowlers: CB Aaron Glenn and DE Gary Walker. 2002: Named defensive coordinator for Texans under head coach Dom Capers...Ranked eighth in the AFC in total defense and fourth in the conference in pass defense...Ranked seventh in the NFL in third-down defense, eighth in red zone defense, fourth in penalties and ninth in yards per play... At Heinz Field in Week 14, the young Texan team beat the Steelers, 24-6, with the defense scoring all three TDs.

1999-2001: (with Indianapolis) 2001: Colts posted a 6-10 record. 2000: Finished season with a 10-6 record...Defense tallied 42 sacks...Vic's defense made strides in all statistical categories, allowing Indy to post a stellar 23-9 record in two seasons (1999-2000)...Fangio helped turn around a Colts' team that had been 6-26 in the two previous seasons (1997-98). 1999: Colts posted a 13-3 record in Fangio's first season, in what was the greatest one-year turnaround in NFL history...Named defensive coordinator and marked his third hire under Jim Mora...Indy won its first division championship in 15 seasons... Defense improved from last to 15th.

1995-98: (with Carolina) 1996: Posted a 12-4 mark...Ranked first in third-down defense, first in sacks, second in first downs allowed and fifth in take-aways...Defense allowed just 218 points, which ranked second in the NFL...Panthers yielded five TDs and 56 points after halftime for the season, breaking Chicago's 1985 record of 71 points...Record still stands today...Coached three All-Pro LBs in Lamar Lathon, Sam Mills and Kevin Greene...Won the NFC West title in their second season...Reached the NFC Championship Game. 1995: Named defensive coordinator for expansion Panthers under head

Wade Harman is in his 11th year of coaching the Ravens' tight ends and is the only remaining coach from Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV-winning team. He was one of six assistants retained by head coach John Harbaugh in 2008. Under Harman's guidance, Pro Bowl TE Todd Heap became the all-time franchise leader in receptions, yards and receiving TDs in 2005. From 2002-08, Heap caught the fifth-most receptions (358) and TDs (29) among NFL TEs. Previously, Harman also assisted coaching the O-line.

1999-2008: (with Baltimore) 2008: Heap started all 16 games and finished third on team in receiving (35-403)...Ravens led NFL in time of possession (33:10) and were second in average margin of victory (18.1). 2007: The injury-depleted offense ranked 22nd overall in the league and started three different QBs – also because of injuries...Heap (thigh) missed six games...By Week 17, there were five TEs listed on the roster...Quinn Sypniewski, who started nine of 15 games subbing for Heap and Dan Wilcox, ranked fourth on the team in receptions (34 catches-246 yards). 2006: Heap completed a Pro Bowl-deserving season, ranking first on the team (73-765) and posting a team-best six TDs...Wilcox started six of 14 games (20-166) and caught a career-high three TDs...Sypniewski was instrumental in pass protection, with the Ravens allowing just 17 sacks all season (second-lowest total in the NFL). 2005: Heap became the Ravens' all-time receiving leader in receptions, yards and receiving TDs...Voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl, Heap was third among active

NFL TEs in catches and yards from 2002-05 (behind Tony Gonzalez and Jeremy Shockey)...He ranked second in the AFC in third-down receptions, behind WR Derrick Mason's 30...The tremendous tandem of Mason and Heap formed the hottest WR/TE combination in the NFL with 161 receptions, leading all duos in that category...Finished third in the NFL among TEs (75-855), posting seven TDs (behind Antonio Gates and Gonzalez). 2004: The Ravens struggled all season with injuries to key Pro Bowl-type players, especially on offense...Heap missed 10 games and most of two others, but still managed to lead Ravens TEs (27-303 and three TDs)...LT Jonathan Ogden missed four games...C Mike Flynn missed the first seven games of the season, but returned to start four games at RG and one at center. 2003: Heap led the team in receptions for the second consecutive season (57-693)...He also made second-straight trip to the Pro Bowl. 2002: Ravens were the only team in the NFL to have a TE (Heap) lead his team in receptions (68-836)...The Arizona native also tied for the team lead with six TDs...He posted two dual-TD games (vs. Jax. and Den.) and two go-ahead TDs (at Pit. and at Cin.)...His game-winning TD at Cin. (27-23) occurred with only minutes remaining...Heap made his first trip to the Pro Bowl...Rookie TE Terry Jones emerged, starting six of 14 games (11-106). 2001: Future Hall of Famer Shannon Sharpe became the NFL's all-time pass-catching TE (11/18 vs. Cle.), eclipsing GM Ozzie Newsome's NFL marks (662-7,980)...(Records have since been eclipsed by Gonzalez) ...Sharpe earned a spot at the Pro Bowl. 2000:

GAME DAY

Jim Hostler is in his second year as the team's WRs coach, after joining head coach John Harbaugh's staff in February, 2008. Hostler came to Baltimore after a three-year stint with the San Francisco 49ers, serving as offensive coordinator in his final year (2007) with the NFC West club. His experience as an offensive coordinator helps guide the solid corps of Ravens wide receivers. As WRs coach for the New York Jets (2004) and assistant WRs coach for the Saints (2001-02), the gifted former college cornerback helped develop players like Santana Moss, Wayne Chrebet and Justin McCareins.

2008: (with Baltimore) WR Derrick Mason turned in another stellar season, leading the team with 80 catches for 1,037 yards and five TDs, marking his seventh 1,000-yard receiving season...Mason also surpassed the 10,000 receiving yards, extended his consecutive games played mark to 106 and produced his ninth-straight 60-catch season...Versatile WR Mark Clayton caught three TDs, including a 70-yarder, and threw a 32-yard pass to Mason.

2005-07: (with San Francisco) 2007: Hostler was promoted to offensive coordinator after extensive work on offense and strong tutoring of 2005 No. 1 overall pick QB Alex Smith...Smith battled through injuries and started seven games before being placed on IR (shoulder). 2006: Smith became the franchise's first QB to take every snap in the regular season...In the season kickoff vs. Arizona (9/10) on MNF, he completed 15 of 31 passes for 126 yards, while also rushing for 36 yards on three carries...Led team on game-winning drive, completing six of 10 passes for 60 yards to go along with a 25-yard rush on fourth down...Engineered a fourth-quarter comeback with two TD passes and an 18-yard TD run at Seattle (12/14) in a nationally-televised 24-14 win...Finished with single-season career highs in every category; attempts (442), completions (257), yards (2,890) and TDs (16). 2005: Hostler was hired as QBs coach by Mike Nolan, then-49ers head coach and former Ravens defensive coordinator...Smith amassed 875 yards (84-of-165) in his seven starts (nine games played) as a rookie.

2003-04: (with NY Jets) 2004: Re-assigned to wide receivers coach...Justin McCareins had arguably his best season under Hostler, starting 16 games and finishing with a career-high 56 receptions and 770 receiving yards...Santana Moss finished the season as a starter in 14 of 15 games, posting 45 catches for 838 yards and five TDs...His 838 receiving yards were a team high...Under Hostler's guidance, Moss also recorded a game-high 157 receiving yards against Detroit (11/7), which remains the fourth-highest total in his career. 2003: Named quarterbacks coach.

2001-02: (with New Orleans) 2002: Added assistant WRs coach to responsibilities. 2001: Hired as the offensive assistant/quality control.

2000: (with Kansas City) 2000: Launched NFL coaching career as an offensive assistant/quality control.

COLLEGE University of the Pacific
BORN 10/22/65, Los Angeles, CA
NFL EXPERIENCE 9th Season

Hue Jackson, who is in his second year as quarterbacks coach for the Ravens, made an immediate impact in Baltimore, guiding rookie QB Joe Flacco in 2008. Flacco became the first rookie QB to win two playoff games and also won the Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year Award via an NFL.com fan vote. The versatile Jackson has built an impressive resume over the course of his 24-year coaching career. He served as offensive coordinator for two NFL teams (Atlanta - 2007 and Washington - 2003) and two NCAA teams (USC - 1997-2000 and California - 1996). Under Hue's tenure in Cincinnati (2004-06), Chad Ochocinco and T.J. Houshmandzadeh became one of the most prolific wide-receiving tandems in Bengals and NFL history.

2008: (with Baltimore) Joined head coach John Harbaugh's staff as quarterbacks coach and guided first-round draft pick QB Joe Flacco to a standout rookie year...Flacco led the Ravens to the AFC Championship game, becoming the first rookie in NFL history to win two playoff games... He won the Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year Award (NFL.com fan vote), finishing 257-of-428 for 2,971 yards and 14 TDs...Flacco also ran for two TDs and caught a 43-yard pass from fellow QB Troy Smith...The versatile Smith contributed a 14-yard TD pass and lined up under center, at WR and at RB in special packages.

2007: (with Atlanta) Spent one season as the Falcons' offensive coordinator amidst unusual adversity...Starting QB Michael Vick was lost for the season and head coach Bobby Petrino resigned in mid-December to rejoin the college ranks.

2004-06: (with Cincinnati) 2006: Tutored a talented Bengals WR corps...Chad Ochocinco (1,369) and T.J. Houshmandzadeh (1,081) became the first pair of Bengals to eclipse the 1,000-yard receiving mark in a single season... Ochocinco led the NFL in receiving yards and for the fourth-consecutive season, his yards topped the AFC...It marked the first time a player had led his conference in receiving yards in four straight seasons...Established an NFL record for most receiving yards in consecutive games (450) and a Bengals' record for most single-game receiving yards (260 against Chargers)...The Pro Bowl receiver also set the top four marks for receiving yards in a single season...Houshmandzadeh peaked in Jackson's final year when he totaled then-career highs (90-1,081)...T.J. improved each year under Hue's tutelage...In 2007, Jackson's first year away from the wideout, T.J. tied for the NFL lead in catches (112-1,143 yards), earning his first Pro Bowl nod...Jackson also worked with talented young receiver Chris Henry, helping him to produce career highs in receptions (36), yards (605) and TDs (9) in 2006. 2005: In his second year, the Ochocinco-Houshmandzadeh tandem combined to total 175 receptions for 2,388 yards, while helping team secure the AFC North title and a playoff berth for the first time in a decade...The duo scored 27 of the team's 48 TDs, helping the Bengals finish fourth in the NFL in scoring (26.3 ppg). 2004: Hired by head coach Marvin Lewis (together at Redskins in 2002) and provided immediate leadership for the young receivers.

ROOKIE GUNSLINGER

In 2008, QB Joe Flacco improved with each snap he took. In his last 11 games -- when the Ravens went 9-2 -- Flacco posted a 90.2 QB rating while tossing 13 TDs and just 5 INTs. Here are his stats from the last 11 regular season games and opening 5.

FLACCO REGULAR SEASON STATS BREAKDOWN

Games	Cmp-Att	Pct.	Yards	TD	INT	Rate	Record
Last 11	167-284	58.8	2,127	13	5	90.2	9-2
First 5	90-144	62.5	844	1	7	60.6	2-3

Flacco Quick Hits: Flacco's streak of 124 passes attempted without throwing an INT (which was snapped in Week 11 vs. NYG) is 3rd best in team history. Steve McNair is 2nd with 162 and Eric Zeier is 1st with 175.

Flacco had 2 rushing TDs in the regular season: a 38-yard run vs. Cincy (9/7) that was the longest TD run in NFL history by a QB making his debut and a 12-yard bootleg vs. Oakland (10/26). He added a 5-yard rushing score in the Wild Card win at Miami.

In Week 8 vs. Oakland, Flacco reeled in a 43-yard pass from Troy Smith. Flacco's grab was the 3rd longest by an NFL QB since Stats Inc. began tracking the stat in 1991 (Kordell Stewart had receptions of 71 and 48 yards in 1995 and 1996, respectively).

Flacco threw at least 1 TD in 8 straight games between 10/19-12/7.

He threw at least 1 TD pass in each of the Ravens' last 6 road games, tossing 9 TDs passes and just 2 INTs for a 101.8 rating.

JOHN MATSKO

OFFENSIVE LINE • 2ND SEASON

COLLEGE Kent State University
BORN 2/2/51, Cleveland, OH
NFL EXPERIENCE 18th Season

ORGANIZATION
COACHES

John Matsko, a 36-year coaching veteran, is in his second year leading the Ravens' offensive line. He guided a youthful group of O-linemen in 2008 that blocked for rookie QB Joe Flacco, allowing only 33 sacks, the second-lowest single-season total in team history. At the forefront of teaching offensive linemen, Matsko has a tremendous track record, and his forte has always been developing players. Matsko presided over the blocking unit of one of the most prolific offenses in NFL history the St. Louis Rams. John has tutored a number of Pro Bowl linemen and was a coach on the high-powered St. Louis offense for seven years (1999-2005). Matsko had tenure at Kansas City, the NY Giants, New Orleans and the Phoenix Cardinals.

2008: (with Baltimore) Matsko's solid unit helped the Ravens' running game rank fourth (148.5 ypg) in the NFL...Ravens were the only NFL team to have a player with over 450 (Ray Rice), 650 (Willis McGahee) and 900 (Le'Ron McClain) rushing yards...Team permitted only 33 sacks, second fewest in team history...Provided leadership for the NFL's youngest starting O-line to begin the season and dealt with injuries that eventually broke up the opening day lineup.

2006-07: (with Kansas City) 2007: Spent his second season as offensive line coach. 2006: The O-line helped pave the way for a KC rushing attack that ranked fifth in the AFC, averaging 133.9 rushing yards per game...Injuries forced the Chiefs to utilize five different starting combinations on the offensive front, but Chiefs linemen still opened plenty of holes for Pro Bowl RB Larry Johnson...Johnson established a franchise single-season record with 1,789 rushing yards and set an NFL single-season record with 416 carries...Also established a team record with 11 100-yard rushing performances... Under Matsko, G Will Shields earned his 12th Pro Bowl berth, while G Brian Waters was named to the AFC Pro Bowl squad for a third consecutive year.

1999-2005: (with St. Louis) St. Louis led the NFL in total offense for the first three seasons of Matsko's tenure with the club, while producing three NFL MVPs in the process – QB Kurt Warner (1999, 2001) and RB Marshall Faulk (2000)...John was instrumental in the development of seven-time Pro Bowl T Orlando Pace and two-time Pro Bowl honoree G Adam Timmerman. 2004: Rams made a run for the postseason, despite injuries that ravaged the O-line...Offense lost starting T Kyle Turley prior to the season and starting C Dave Wohlabaugh in the opening game...St. Louis was forced to start nine different players along the line that season... Rams still reached the postseason and claimed a 27-20 Wild Card win at Seattle (1/8/05). 2000: Was part of the Rams' offensive juggernaut that posted a franchise-best 540 points and averaged a league-best 442.2 yards per game. 1999: Part of a Rams' club that steamrolled its way to a 13-3 regular season record and a victory over Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV.

1997-98: (with NY Giants) Spent two seasons as the O-line coach.

T.O.P. LEADERS

Part of the Ravens' success in 2008 can be attributed to sustaining long drives and controlling the clock. Baltimore's 33:10 average time of possession was the highest in the NFL:

NFL TIME OF POSSESSION LEADERS (2008 Season)

RK. TEAM	T.O.P AVG.	RECORD
1. Baltimore	33:10	11-5
2. NY Giants	32:56	12-4
3. New England	32:09	11-5

T.O.P Quick Hit: The Ravens held the ball an average of 17:30 in the 2nd half to rank as the highest mark in the NFL.

RUNNING IT DOWN

The Ravens' offense produced a clock-killing drive in all 11 of the team's wins in 2008. Baltimore totaled a league-high 18 clock-killing drives on the year:

CLOCK-KILLING DRIVES (2008 Season)

RK. TEAM	DRIVES	GAMES	WINS
1. Baltimore	18	11	11
2. Carolina	17	8	8
3. Tennessee	16	9	9

Note: Clock-killing drives are drives that begin with 5 minutes of time to play or less in the 4th quarter and with the driving team winning. Drives where the team in the lead gets possession with more than 5 minutes to play in the 4th quarter and successfully runs the clock all the way to 0:00 are also included.

COACHES

Andy Moeller is in his second season as the Ravens' assistant offensive line coach. Moeller, who has 22 years of coaching experience, joined the NFL ranks for the first time in 2008. During his six years coaching Michigan's offensive line, Moeller coached two All-Americans: C David Baas (2004) and T Jake Long (2006-07), the first-overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft by Miami. Under Moeller, Michigan dominated the All-Big Ten selections list for O-linemen, and many of his pupils moved on to successful NFL careers. In four out of five seasons, Moeller's offensive line helped pave the way for a 1,000-yard rusher, twice by 2003 Doak Walker Award winner Chris Perry (2002-03) and a pair of Michigan's top 10 season rushing performances from Mike Hart (2004, 2006). In 2004, the Wolverines' line was anchored by Baas, the co-recipient of the Rimington Trophy (the nation's outstanding center). Baas was joined by teammates RG Matt Lentz and LT Adam Stenavich on the first-team All-Big Ten team. Long was awarded second-team honors that same year.

2008: (with Baltimore) Worked with John Matsko in coaching the offensive line...The solid unit helped the Ravens' running game rank fourth (148.5 ypg) in the NFL...Ravens were the only NFL team to have a player with over 450 (Ray Rice), 650 (Willis McGahee) and 900 (Le'Ron McClain) rushing yards...Team permitted only 33 sacks, second fewest in team history...Helped guide the NFL's youngest starting O-line and dealt with injuries that eventually broke up the opening day lineup.

2000-07: (with Michigan) 2007: From 2004-07, 11 of 25 All-Big Ten first-team selections along the O-line were Wolverines...Michigan was the only team to have multiple first-team All-Conference selections during that five-year stretch. 2004: O-line was anchored by C David Baas, the co-recipient of the Rimington Trophy as the nation's outstanding center...Baas earned consensus All-America honors and was named the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year after switching from guard to center...RG Matt Lentz and LT Adam Stenavich received All-Big Ten first-team honors, with RT Jake Long collecting second-team accolades. 2003: O-line was among the nation's best, balancing a strong running game led by All-America tailback Chris Perry and the passing arm of All-Big Ten first-team QB John Navarre...Offense set school records for total offensive plays (1,014) and yards (5,807)...Moeller's O-line helped pave the way for 1,000-yard rushers in five out of six years: twice by 2003 Doak Walker Award winner Perry (2002-03) and three times by Michigan's all-time leading rusher Mike Hart (2004, 2006-07). 2002: Named offensive line coach. 2001: As Wolverines OTs/TEs coach, Moeller led another strong group...TEs unit caught 52 passes for 471 yards and three TDs. 2000: TEs overcame an opening-game injury to co-captain Shawn Thompson to produce another solid collective season, both in pass-catching and run-blocking...Hired to coach OTs and TEs.

SI'S FAN EXPERIENCE SURVEY

On Oct. 15, 2008, SI.com unveiled the 2nd annual NFL Stadium Rankings. For the 2nd straight year, Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium ranked in the Top 5 of best NFL game experiences. (In 2007, the Ravens were 5th, and in '08 the team ranked 4th.) The Web site asked readers to fill out a survey about their hometown NFL stadium and broke down the answers into the following categories:

Affordability and Food • Tailgating Team Quality • Atmosphere • Accessibility

Rankings were based on how satisfied, on a scale of 1-5, each of the respective fan bases was with their game-day experience. More than 12,000 people completely filled out the survey, and about 30 percent of them were season ticket holders.

Wilbert Montgomery joined the Ravens as their running backs coach in 2008. Montgomery has 22 years of NFL experience (nine as a player) and has built an impressive track record in his 13 years of coaching. Montgomery, who led the Ravens' run game to a No. 4 NFL ranking (148.5 ypg) in 2008, has earned a solid reputation for developing well-rounded RBs who excel as receivers and pass-protectors, adding more depth to their skills. Wilbert joined the Ravens after two seasons with the Detroit Lions (preceded by nine stellar seasons with the St. Louis Rams). Montgomery helped construct one of the most prolific offenses in NFL history, when the Rams boasted the NFL's No. 1 offense on the road to their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXIV (1999). From 1999-2001, St. Louis became the only NFL team to amass at least 500 points in three consecutive seasons (526 in '99, 540 in '00 and 503 in '01).

2008: (with Baltimore) Guided a Ravens' run game that improved from a No. 16 NFL ranking in 2007 to a No. 4 ranking in 2008...FB Le'Ron McClain earned his first Pro Bowl after a 902-yard, 10-TD season...McClain also was honored as an AP All-Pro...He teamed with RBs Willis McGahee (671 rush yards) and rookie Ray Rice (454 yards) to become the only NFL team with a trio of RBs with over 450, 600 and 900 yards...The team's 20 rushing TDs set a franchise single-season record (18 in 2003) and the Ravens' 592 rushing attempts were an NFL season high...The Ravens' run game was a key factor in the team leading the NFL in time of possession (33:10)...Baltimore's 132 first downs were also the league's second most.

2006-07: (with Detroit) Injuries forced Montgomery to work with a total of five different starting RBs, including three in 2007. 2007: RBs Kevin Jones and T.J. Duckett each recorded 100-yard games. 2006: Helped Jones evolve into one of the NFL's best dual-threat RBs...He was fourth among RBs with 61 receptions before being placed on Injured Reserve in Week 13...Was also sixth in the NFC with 1,209 yards from scrimmage (689 rushing, 520 receiving).

1997-2005: (with St. Louis) During his tenure, Wilbert helped cultivate two of the league's elite RBs: Marshall Faulk and Steven Jackson. 2005: Coached Jackson to his first 1,000-yard season... Jackson finished with 1,046 yards and eight TDs on 254 attempts (4.1 avg.) while emerging as one of the bright young stars in the NFL under Montgomery's tutelage. 2004: Wilbert teamed Jackson, in his rookie year, with Faulk, to form a dynamic RB tandem, combining for nearly 1,500 rushing yards...Jackson finished third among NFL rookies with 673 rushing yards and four TDs on 134 attempts (5.0 avg.). 2003: Switched back to coaching RBs. 2000-02: Coached the Rams' TEs. 1999: Rams acquired a Pro Bowler in Faulk, who posted his first 1,000-yard season...Also compiled an NFL-record 2,429 yards from scrimmage and was named NFL Offensive Player of the Year...Rams boasted the NFL's No. 1 offense (fifth in rushing) on the way to their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXIV. 1997: Hired as RBs coach.

Chuck Pagano joined the Ravens' coaching staff as secondary coach in 2008 and works with Mark Carrier to guide the defensive backfield. Ravens led the NFL with 26 INTs in 2008, including Pro Bowl S Ed Reed's NFL-high nine picks. Reed, the league's only unanimous (50 votes) All-Pro in 2008, was also coached by Pagano at the University of Miami. Reed grabbed a Miami career-record 21 INTs and blocked four punts in his four-year career under Pagano. Chuck coached the No. 1 pass defense at Oakland in 2006 and mentored outstanding secondaries in Cleveland and Miami, bringing 25 years of coaching experience to the Ravens' defense.

2008: (with Baltimore) Guided Baltimore's standout secondary, which ranked No. 2 against the pass, improving dramatically from a No. 20 finish in 2007...Unit allowed only 179.7 yards per game...Five-time Pro Bowler Ed Reed was the NFL's only unanimous All-Pro selection...Reed led the NFL with nine INTs and scored three defensive TDs, plus another (64-yard INT-TD) in the Wild Card victory at Miami...Defense finished No. 2 overall making, it the sixth consecutive season with a No. 6 or better finish.

2007: (with North Carolina) Posted a one-year stint as the defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach, where Pagano rejoined Butch Davis (Browns and Hurricanes)...Under Pagano, the defense improved from 92nd in 2006 to 35th in 2007.

2005-06: (with Oakland) Spent two seasons as the Raiders' defensive backs coach...2006:

Raiders led the NFL in pass defense, allowing just 150.8 yards per game, and ranked third in total defense, surrendering only 284.8 yards per contest...CB Nnamdi Asomugha was third in the NFL with eight INTs.

2001-04: (with Cleveland) Coached the Browns' secondary under then-head coach Butch Davis...Spent four years coaching alongside Ravens current assistant head coach/special teams coordinator Jerry Rosburg. 2003: DBs helped Cleveland tie the franchise record for allowing the fewest passing TDs (13). 2001: Under Pagano's guidance, the Browns' secondary accounted for 28 of the team's NFL-leading and team-record 33 INTs, which set a new mark...Rookie CB Anthony Henry led NFL with 10 picks.

1995-2000, 1986: (with Miami) Coached the Hurricanes' secondary and was special teams coordinator...Pagano coached four NFL first-round DBs: Reed (Ravens, 24th-2002), Phillip Buchanon (Raiders, 17th-2002), Duane Starks (Ravens, 10th-1998) and Mike Rumph (49ers, 27th-2002)...The Hurricanes blocked a surreal 39 kicks in 59 games. 2000: Secondary was tabbed the nation's best by Football News. 1999: DBs did not allow a passing TD in the last 27 quarters of the season, en route to a 9-4 record. 1996: Posted a single-season school-record 12 blocks. 1986: Was a G.A. at Miami for one year before moving on to Boise State...Returned to Miami in 1995 to coach the secondary and as special teams coordinator.

Bob Rogucki (pronounced row-GUS-key) is in his second year as the Ravens' head strength and conditioning coach. Rogucki is a 35-year coaching veteran, who has 19 years experience as a strength and conditioning coach in the NFL. His philosophy is to direct a training regimen specific to the game of football involving protocols that build both muscular strength and endurance. Bob works with every player and believes strength and conditioning is the basis of success for a team. Old school philosophies and hard work prevail in the weight room, but Rogucki makes the program competitive, challenging and fun for the players. His track record shows that he has a reputation for getting players to buy in to his programs.

2008: (with Baltimore) Joined the Ravens coaching staff as the team's head strength and conditioning coach...Instituted the Baltimore Ravens Competition Day, an offseason event where players participate in different strength-related competitions...Over 50 players took part in the voluntary offseason training program.

NFL EXPERIENCE

Craig Ver Steeg (pronounced ver-STEEG) is in his second year with the Ravens as the team's offensive assistant. Ver Steeg has 26 years of coaching experience. Craig has established himself as an elite coach of quarterbacks, receivers and running backs, in addition to his tenure as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Rutgers (2003-06). Two current NFL players who benefited under his tutelage on the college level include RB Ray Rice (Ravens) and QB Alex Smith (49ers). Ver Steeg's knowledge and experience is an invaluable asset to the development of the Ravens' offense.

2008: (with Baltimore) Assisted Cam Cameron's offense with game preparation for a unit that ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing yards (148.5 ypg) and 11th in points per game (24.1)...Ravens led the NFL in time of possession (33:10 avg) and their 18.1 margin of victory ranked second.

2003-07: (with Rutgers) Ver Steeg tutored some of the most productive players in school history. 2007: Served as RBs coach and tutored Ravens 2008 second-round draft pick, All-American RB Ray Rice, who rushed for a school-record 2,012 yards and 24 TDs on 380 carries (154.8 ypg)... Part of an offensive unit that produced 456.3 net yards per game...The Scarlet Knights averaged 198.0 rushing yards per game...Rice finished his career holding several Rutgers records, including career yards rushing (4,926), career rushing TDs (49) and single-game rushing yards (280)...He became the 13th player in NCAA history to gain more than 2,000 rushing yards in a season...Was also a Doak Walker Award finalist (nation's top running back) and earned team MVP honors for the second straight year. 2006: Rutgers rushing attack ranked 15th in the country, averaging 180.2 ypg...The Scarlet Knights also produced 29.8 points per game, ranking 22nd among Division I teams. 2005: Rutgers was second in the Big East in both total offense (406.3 ypg) and passing (234.6 ypg). 2004: Scarlet Knights boasted the nation's No. 6 overall and Big East's top-ranked passing attack (310.5 ypg)...Rutgers also finished third in the Big East in total offense (407.7 ypg). 2003: As offensive coordinator (2003-06), oversaw a unit that scored 329 points, the fifth-highest point total in school history...Scarlet Knights produced 4,423 total yards of offense, fifth-most in Rutgers annals...Also coached Rutgers QBs (2003-06)... In dual roles, he tutored QB Ryan Hart, who established nearly every school passing mark in three starting seasons...Hart's career records include: passing yards (8,482), attempts (1,217), completions (735) and TDs (52).

2001-2002: (with Utah) Served as offensive coordinator and QBs coach for two seasons... Helped recruit QB Alex Smith (49ers) to Utah and coached the young signal caller in his first season...With Ver Steeg guiding the Utes' attack, Utah's offense improved 50-or-more spots nationally in nearly every offensive category. 2001: Utes finished 24th in the nation in total offense, including 12th in rushing.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

Pat Moriarty, the team's vice president of football administration, has been a key part of the franchise since 1994. A longtime member of the Ravens' personnel staff, Moriarty was one of the NFL's original capologists. He is responsible for the management and strategic planning of the Ravens' salary cap. Moriarty's NFL career began as a rookie free agent RB for the Browns in 1979. The Cleveland native negotiates all of the Ravens' player contracts, oversees salary cap administration, roster management and the day-to-day operations of the player personnel department. Moriarty is the key liaison with the NFL Management Council and Players Association. Over the course of 16 years, Moriarty has negotiated player contracts totaling over $988 million. Has negotiated contracts of 17 Ravens first-round draft choices, as well as numerous free agents. He also analyzes draft-day trades during the NFL selection process each spring. Pat works closely with GM Ozzie Newsome in many areas, including helping to coordinate the budgets of the scouting, coaching, equipment, football video, training, and strength and conditioning departments. In 2008, Moriarty was part of an eight-member committee to select head coach John Harbaugh.

"Pat is an 'impact player' in our organization. He is thorough and sound, plus creative in the structure of contracts. He has a working knowledge of every team's salary cap structure and knows the ins and outs of working with the league office. His management of our cap helped us win the Super Bowl in 2000."

— GM Ozzie Newsome

1996-2009: (with Baltimore) 2009: The team resigned Ray Lewis to finish his career in Baltimore and added quality free agent veterans, including six-time Pro Bowl C Matt Birk, CB Domonique Foxworth and CB/RS Chris Carr, to improve the roster. 2008: Ravens signed Pro Bowl special teamer Brendon Ayanbadejo and Pro Bowl T Willie Anderson to bolster the roster. 2005-07: Ravens traded for QB Steve McNair in 2006, and in 2007, for RB Willis McGahee, who earned his first Pro Bowl with Baltimore...Moriarty also re-negotiated the contracts of two key Ravens defensive players: NT Kelly Gregg and Pro Bowl S Ed Reed...Also re-signed OLB Jarret Johnson and Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott...In free agency, Moriarty negotiated the contracts for key additions DT Trevor Pryce, WR Derrick Mason and CB Samari Rolle. 1997-2004: Re-negotiated the contracts of several other pivotal players, including Pro Bowlers TE Todd Heap, LB Ray Lewis and the now-retired T Jonathan Ogden, allowing the team to remain competitive while staying within the confines of the salary cap. 1996: When the franchise moved to Baltimore, Moriarty was named the organization's chief financial officer.

1994-95: (with Cleveland) Joined the Browns' front office in 1994 as the director of business operations.

1982-93: Was involved in commercial banking in the Cleveland area. 1988-93: Worked for Key Bank in Cleveland in the corporate lending division.

1980-81: Spent NFL training camps with the Cleveland Browns and Miami Dolphins.

NFL Player: 1979: Signed as a rookie free agent RB with Cleveland...Scored two TDs and also played special teams.

College/Personal: Earned a bachelor's degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech, where he was a three-year starter at RB...He later earned his master's degree (1993) in business administration from John Carroll University...Earned All-State honors in both football and track at Benedictine (Cleveland, OH) HS and was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in 2002...Pat's brother, Tom, played five years in the NFL as a DB, four with Atlanta and one with Pittsburgh...Moriarty, who is on the NFL Management Council's Working Club Executive Committee for the sixth-straight year, is a graduate of the University of Baltimore School of Law...He has been a guest speaker at numerous events, including Loyola College, University of Maryland Law School, University of Maryland Business School and the University of Baltimore School of Law, where he spoke on sports and entertainment law...Pat has also participated in the annual Ravens' event, A Purple Evening (football sessions for women), speaking on the NFL's salary cap...Moriarty is on the board of the American Red Cross of Central Maryland...He and his wife, Lynn, are the parents of son, Kevin (21), and daughters, Laura (18) and Katherine (15).

RAVENS DRAFT WIZARDRY

"If I had to pick one guy to draft a team, I'd take Ozzie Newsome. He's the best I've seen since Ron Wolf. No matter where the Ravens draft, a good player seems to fall to them."

— Rick Gosselin, The Dallas Morning News (September, 2008)

"The Ravens are the NFL's gold standard on draft day, consistently making choices that stand the test of time."

— Don Banks, SI.com

"Newsome and owner Steve Bisciotti have an excellent relationship, and Newsome figures to be running the Ravens' drafts for years to come. The Ravens' track record of draft success is no secret, and it's the envy of many clubs that are low on blue-chip players."

— ProFootballWeekly.com (January, 2008)

"With an organizational philosophy that heavily emphasizes successful drafts and a scouting structure and process that facilitates that goal, Baltimore has established the model for maintaining a successful team during the salary cap era."

— Rich Campbell, The Washington Post (April, 2007)

VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Jeff Goering, who joined the club in 1999, oversees all functions of the Ravens' finance department, including the organization's financial reporting and budgeting processes. He is also the chief financial liaison with the club's audit/tax advisors and various stadium partners.

Goering was named senior director of finance in 2004 after spending his first five years with the Ravens as the team's controller.

As a senior consultant for PricewaterhouseCoopers in Dallas, Goering worked with many sports entities, preparing financial feasibility studies, market assessments and economic impact analyses for proposed new or expanded sports venues.

He received his master's of science in sports management from the University of Massachusetts in 1998. During that time, he also served as a consultant in the evaluation and preparation of Boston Red Sox salary arbitration cases.

Goering spent a year in the Philippines as a community development volunteer for the Presbyterian Church, USA, in 1995-96. He received a B.S. in business administration from Rockhurst (Kansas City, MO) University.

Jeff, who serves as the treasurer for the Ravens All Community Team Foundation, earned his CPA certificate in 1992. He and his wife, Sheryl, have two daughters, Olivia (8) and Caroline (6), and a son, Daniel (3).

BILL JANKOWSKI

VICE PRESIDENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Bill Jankowski has been with the franchise in a full-time role since 1986. He was one of 28 to join Art Modell in the move to Baltimore with the team in 1996. Jankowski guides the Ravens' information technology department to support many technological functions for the organization, including business, coaching, stadium, scouting, public relations and training operations. He helped the team through the transition of moving to Baltimore and has kept the organization on par with today's ever-changing technology world.

The Cleveland native works with director of I.T., Nick Fusee, to support both the coaching and scouting staffs, assisting with their unique software programming. The software assists the coaches in game-planning and game analysis, combining with the football video department.

They also help manage the scouting player personnel database, integrating the system with the NFL Management Council.

Jankowski spent two years as the chair of the NFL's Technical Advisory Committee and was a member of the committee to help design the NFL's Game Statistics & Information System (GSIS) in 1996.

Bill, who attended St. Ignatius HS and John Carroll University, (Cleveland, OH), lives in Reisterstown, MD, with his German Shephard, Macie.

BAKER KOPPELMAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF TICKET SALES & OPERATIONS

Baker Koppelman has been with the Ravens since their first year in Baltimore (1996). Koppelman oversees the team's PSL, season ticket and hospitality sales, ticket operations, ticket distribution, customer service, club level service and retail sales.

Born and raised in Baltimore, Koppelman has worked in professional sports ticketing operations since 1987, selling Baltimore Orioles tickets at Memorial Stadium during the summer while earning his sports management and economics degrees at Guilford College (Greensboro, NC).

He worked his way to a full-time position with the Orioles in 1991, helping manage the stadium box office and contributing with the seating relocation from Memorial Stadium to Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992. He then spent a season with the San Diego Padres in 1995, before returning to his hometown to join the Ravens.

Koppelman serves on the advisory board of the Michael A. Fiorelli Foundation for Esophageal Cancer Awareness. Fiorelli, who passed away from cancer in 2007, was Koppelman's colleague at both the Orioles and Ravens. Baker is also a member of the St. Paul's School (Baltimore) Alumni Board.

Baker's wife, Reba, is a senior accountant in the Ravens' finance department.

KEVIN ROCHLITZ

VICE PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS & SALES

Kevin Rochlitz, who joined the Ravens in 2003, oversees all national partnerships and promotions for the team.

He is the primary contact for the team's MedStar Health partnership and works with national partners – such as Visa, AirTran, Miller and Anheuser Busch – on promotions and brand visibility. Rochlitz also created and sold the Bacardi Bar and Talon Pub at M&T Bank Stadium.

Prior to working for the Ravens, Rochlitz spent five years as senior vice president of sales for Mandalay Sports and Entertainment/Mandalay Pictures, owners of the Dayton Dragons and Frisco Rough Riders (minor league baseball). He oversaw new stadium construction, selling the naming rights for each (Fifth Third Field in Dayton, OH and Dr Pepper Park in Frisco, TX).

From 1996-97, Rochlitz was one of the youngest assistant athletic directors in NCAA Division I-A for the University of Miami. He crossed paths with secondary coach Chuck Pagano and former Ravens CB Duane Starks.

Rochlitz serves on the boards of Union Memorial Hospital Foundation and the Matt Katula Foundation. He has served on the National Sports Forum Steering Committee since 2001.

Kevin graduated from Wyoming with a degree in marketing. He and his wife, Melissa, have a daughter Riley (6).

LARRY ROSEN

VICE PRESIDENT OF BROADCASTING

Larry Rosen enters his 10th year with the Ravens after joining the club prior to the team's Super Bowl season in 2000. In that time, his broadcasting team has earned 19 regional Emmy Awards for its excellence in producing original television shows such as Wired, Ravens Report, Ravens Kickoff and preseason football coverage. Larry also produces "game day" for the SMARTVISION video boards at M&T Bank Stadium during Ravens home games.

Rosen won his first Emmy while with the Ravens for his feature reporting on the team's 2001 visit to Ground Zero in New York City.

Prior to his Ravens tenure, Rosen was the play-by-play voice and executive producer of both Philadelphia Phillies baseball and Atlantic 10 basketball games for PRISM-TV. Inducted into Temple University's Hall of Fame in 2005, Rosen won multiple Emmys in his 16 years at PRISM.

Rosen began his career as a news reporter for KYW Newsradio Philadelphia. He was honored several times as National Reporter of the Year by multiple organizations, including The AP and the Columbia School of Journalism, for his coverage of the Three Mile Island nuclear accident, the MOVE shootout and Pope John Paul II's visit to Philadelphia in 1979.

Larry has two daughters, Sunni (16) and Inde (14), who are die-hard Ravens fans. They celebrated the team's Super Bowl XXXV victory in Tampa by gazing up at the falling purple confetti.

ROY SOMMERHOF

VICE PRESIDENT OF STADIUM OPERATIONS

Roy Sommerhof joined the Ravens during their inaugural season in Baltimore (1996). He manages all aspects of

M&T Bank Stadium, including game day parking, security, custodial services, catering, medical services and stadium maintenance.

Since the stadium opened in 1998, Sommerhof has spearheaded the team's efforts to make it one of the best in the NFL, supervising improvements to both the suite and club levels, the installation of the spectacular LED boards, the addition of 15 new suites, and the design and installation of the M&T Bank Stadium signage.

Prior to joining the Ravens, the Baltimore native spent 16 years working in both ticket sales and stadium operations for the Orioles. He played a significant role in the planning, development and execution of the opening of Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992.

During his career, he has been involved with numerous special events, including hosting both Pope John Paul II at Oriole Park (1995) and the Queen of England at Memorial Stadium (1991), and the MLB All-Star Game at Oriole Park (1993).

He is also the president of the Gridiron Stadium Network, a consortium of 10 NFL facilities and one MLS facility that creates awareness and promotes the assets of its member stadiums. The GSN works to optimize opportunities to expand the use of the state-of-the-art facilities for new sports, entertainment, public and private events. Through Roy's efforts and those of GSN, M&T Bank Stadium and the Ravens hosted a Kenny Chesney concert in 2008 and hosted an international soccer match between Chelsea and AC Milan in July of 2009.

Sommerhof graduated from St. Thomas (Miami, FL) University in 1979 with a degree in sports administration. Roy, who serves on the board of Baltimore Youth Hockey, and his wife, Lina, have two sons, Drew (15) and Cole (7).

The Official
Medical Team for the Baltimore Ravens

Meet Jim.

A 35-year-old computer programmer, father, and avid Ravens fan.

This morning, he showed his son the fine art of a good tackle. This afternoon, he'll call UNION MEMORIAL SPORTS MEDICINE for his sports injury.

Why? Because we're the official medical team of the Baltimore Ravens. And, even though Jim's not a pro, he can be sure that he'll be treated by a specialist with more than 25 years of experience. And since we're trusted by the Ravens, Jim knows we'll have him back in the game in no time.

Call 1-888-44SPORT for more

HISTORY

GAME DAY

The Ravens moved into their 200,000-square-foot training facility in mid-October of 2004. The building features a brick and stone exterior. The field house is 90,000 square feet and includes a strength-training area and a full-size indoor practice field. The headquarters' outdoor practice fields and fieldhouse sit on 32 acres, and the entire complex was completed in December of 2004. Almost all of the physical construction on the project was provided by Baltimore-area companies and workers.

The facility includes a full-service kitchen, cafeteria, player support functions, basketball and racquetball courts, TV/radio studios, plus state-of-the-art requirements for NFL training. Also included at the facility are executive offices, meeting rooms, three outdoor fields and media areas that offer wireless Internet capability.

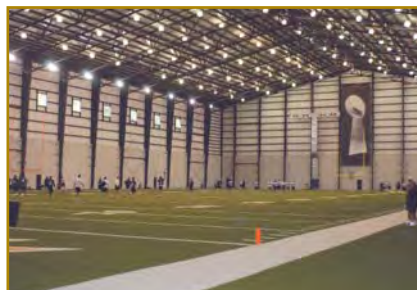

Approximately 200 Ravens are housed at the headquarters in Owings Mills. The ticket office and stadium operations remain at M&T Bank Stadium.

"Everything a team needs to help prepare it to win is available to us," executive vice president/general manager Ozzie Newsome stated. "Steve [Bisciotti] has delivered a first-class, state-of-the-art training facility and office complex."

The Ravens have three grass practice fields – one Kentucky Bluegrass and two Bermuda Grass – at their Owings Mills facility.

The Ravens' indoor facility has a full, 100-yard field with the same surface (Sportex Turf) used at M&T Bank Stadium.

RAVENS ACT FOUNDATION

The Baltimore Ravens All Community Team Foundation is committed to improving, encouraging and enabling the healthy development of youth in the Baltimore area, as well as other parts of the state of Maryland. The foundation focuses on programs that help youth, and in some cases their families, with various needs, including housing, hunger, education, athletics and mentoring.

Recent projects include:

- The construction of a KaBOOM! playground for over 50 children at Baltimore's Good Samaritan Hospital
- Financial support to St. Vincent's Center, Boys Hope Girls Hope and United Way
- The Plan in Motion project, which supports nonprofits that are fighting childhood obesity through physical fitness and nutrition education programs, with grants of up to $5,000

The team's charitable arm also partners with Ravens player foundations (see below) and the many staff members who volunteer with other nonprofit organizations, working to improve the quality of life for youth in our community.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

RAVENS ALL COMMUNITY TEAM

The Ravens All Community Team (ACT) brings the Ravens organization, players and members of the corporate community together to improve the quality of local communities. Through volunteerism and fundraising, the ACT supports Habitat for Humanity efforts, the Ravens Family Food Drive and the ACT Auction Party (Todd Heap, right), in addition to the annual participation in a season kickoff and postseason ceremony. In 2008, more than $500,000 was raised for charitable causes.

SPRING FOOTBALL FESTIVAL

Close to 30 Ravens players, including Ben Grubbs, Chris Carr (right), Domonique Foxworth and Steve Hauschka joined over 15,000 fans to celebrate the beginning of a new season for Ravens football. The festival included coverage of the NFL Draft, interactive on-field games, a locker room tour and autograph signings. With their SFF ticket, fans also received entrance to the Orioles vs. Rangers game that evening.

2008 REVIEW

HISTORY

RAVENS FAMILY FOOD DRIVE

In November of 2008, the Ravens hosted the 13th annual Ravens Family Food & Funds Drive. The Radio City Rockettes assisted with the game-day collection, sponsored by Snapple and Von Paris Moving and Storage, on Nov. 23 vs. the Eagles. Along with donations accepted at Baltimore-area Shoppers stores, the more than 24,000 lbs. went to the Maryland Food Bank, which distributed donated items to soup kitchens, food pantries and emergency shelters throughout the holiday season.

RECORDS

GAME DAY

GRIDIRON HALLOWEEN PARTY

Mark Clayton and Todd Heap annually co-host the Gridiron Halloween Party to benefit Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake. In 2008, teammates Joe Flacco (right), David Hale, Jameel McClain, Haruki Nakamura and Adam Terry, among others, dressed in costume and joined more than 500 supporters for the event which included food, a silent auction and plenty of fun and games. Close to $140,000 was raised for the Goodwill programs in 2008. The nine-year partnership between Goodwill and the Ravens has raised more than $1 million.

RAVENS ON THE MOVE

The What Moves U program, developed by the NFL and American Heart Association in 2006, is part of a movement to fight childhood obesity. Ravens What Moves U team representatives Mark Clayton, Brendon Ayanbadejo (right), Todd Heap, Justin Harper, Haruki Nakamura, Le'Ron McClain and Ravens cheerleaders visited four Baltimore-area middle schools to launch the 2008 campaign. Students charted their physical activity for six weeks, and top performers received the grand prize of lunch with players in the M&T Bank Stadium locker room.

SPREADING HOLIDAY CHEER

Derrick Mason (right), along with teammate Samari Rolle and former teammate Kyle Boller, donated $15,000 for his 4th Annual Holiday Helpers event in December of 2008. The players provided 60 Baltimore-area youth with Target gift certificates, and joined teammates and more than 40 Ravens cheerleaders as personal shoppers for the children.

"A PURPLE EVENING"

Each year, "A Purple Evening" celebrates the Ravens' female fans with a night of football and fun. In October of 2008, over 1,500 women filled M&T Bank Stadium and enjoyed instructional field drills, Football 101 sessions, fan forums, autograph sessions, locker room tours, appearances by Ravens cheerleaders and much more. More than 20 players attended the event, including Ray Lewis (right), Willis McGahee and Terrell Suggs.

CELEBRATING HISPANIC HERITAGE

To celebrate the 2008 Hispanic Heritage Month, the Ravens combined forces with the Worldwide Day of Play to host a Gatorade Junior Training Camp at Wolfe Street Academy on Sept. 23, 2008. International practice squad member from Mexico Salomon Solano, Haruki Nakamura, David Hale and Chris Chester (all right) promoted nutritional education and fitness, while engaging the predominantly Hispanic youth in the sport of football.

RAVENS GO KABOOM!

On June 8, 2009, more than 60 players and coaches, in addition to volunteers from the Ravens' organization and Baltimore community, joined forces with Good Samaritain Hospital to build an entire playground for its Child Development Center - all constructed in less than eight hours. The effort was made possible by the Ravens ACT Foundation and KaBOOM!, a national non-profit organization that envisions a great place to play within walking distance of every child in America.

The new playground, which was based on designs from the children, will provide a safe place to have fun for more than 50 children served by the center every day.

it starts with a

4 SAM KOCH

PRIME PUNTING

The Ravens' punt coverage unit was outstanding in 2008, helping allow P Sam Koch to own the NFL's No. 5 net average of 39.9. In Week 7 at Miami, Koch posted a career-best 59.0 gross average (and 55.7 net), which included a long punt of 67 yards. In Week 10 at Houston, Koch had 4 punts for 200 yards (50.0 avg.), including 3 inside the 20 with a Ravens-record 74-yarder.

3.	Mike Scifres (SD)	40.9
4.	Jeff Feagles (NYG)	40.2
5.	Sam Koch (Bal.)	39.9

Koch Quick Hits: He placed an NFL-best 18 punts inside the 10 and 34 boots inside the 20 (2nd only to the 40 by Chicago's Brad Maynard).

Koch's 45.0 gross average ranked 9th in the NFL and set a Ravens' record, breaking the 43.9 mark by Kyle Richardson in 1998. His 39.9 net average is also a single-season Ravens record.

His 74-yard punt in Week 10 at Houston was the 3rd longest in the NFL in 2008 and longest in Ravens history.

Koch currently boasts a 43.8 career gross average and 37.9 career net average, both marks that rank 1st in Ravens history.

CRUCIAL 4TH QUARTERS

When the Ravens won in 2008, it usually meant they were able to put up big numbers in the 4th quarter. Baltimore was 10-2 when leading after 3 quarters. The Ravens also outscored opponents 115-60 in the final period (including 108-27 in their last 9 victories). Impressively, Baltimore only allowed 40 points in the final period of its last 12 games. Below is the game-by-game 4th-quarter production from 2008:

91 BRANDON MCKINNEY

DID YOU KNOW?

Dating back to 1996, the Ravens have posted 40 defensive TDs. Baltimore has scored a "D-TD" in each year of its existence -- including 6 in 2008 -- and boasts a 34-5 record when doing so (the Ravens were 6-0 in 2008).

Since 2003, the Ravens (27) have totaled more D-TDs than any other NFL team. In those games, Baltimore is 23-3.

1999: (with Denver) Earned his 1st Pro Bowl as a starter and was named 1st-team All-NFL by the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated and College & Pro Football Newsweekly; 2nd-team All-NFL by Football Digest and All-AFC by Pro Football Weekly...Started at RDT in 15 games and ranked 8th on the Broncos (tops on the DL) with 50 tackles (36 solo), including a team-leading and career-high 13 sacks (-75 yards), as well as 1 INT, 3 FFs and 1 FR...Ranked 2nd in the AFC (5th in NFL) in sacks and posted more than any other DT in the league...Tied his single-game career high with 3 sacks (-11 yards) in game 13 at Jax. (12/13)...Turned in perhaps the most important play of the game in Denver's 27-21 OT win in game 11 vs. Oak. (11/22), when he stripped the ball from Raiders QB Rich Gannon on a sack in OT and recovered the fumble to give Denver possession at Oakland's 24-yard line to set up a game-winning score...Established a career high with 3 sacks in game 3 at TB (9/26).

1998: (with Denver) Started at RDT in 15 of 16 regular season games and ranked 7th on the team (No. 1 on the DL) with 59 tackles (48 solo), including a then-career high 8.5 sacks (-56.5 yds) to tie for the team lead and tie for 10th in the AFC...Started and posted 2 tackles in the Broncos' 34-19 win in Super Bowl XXXIII vs. Atl. (1/31), as Denver repeated as Super Bowl champions...Recorded his 1st-career INT in game 4 at Was. (9/27), picking off a QB Trent Green pass in Broncos territory to stop a Redskins' drive just before halftime...Blocked his 1st-career FG, which came early in the 2nd quarter of the season opener vs. NE (9/7) when he penetrated the Patriots' line to stop a 37-yard FGA by Adam Vinatieri, making the recovery as well, to set up a Denver drive that would result in a TD.

1997: (with Denver) Played the final 8 games of the regular season as a rookie and started 3 at RDT in place of Maa Tanuvasa (ankle)...Finished his 1st NFL season with 28 tackles (20 solo), including 2 sacks (-9.5 yards)...Posted an assisted tackle in the AFC Championship game at Pit. (1/11)...He made his 1st-career start and netted 3 solo tackles in game 13 at SD (11/30).

COLLEGE: Pryce played 1 season (1996) as a DE for Clemson University...Started all 11 games and earned 1st-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors...Transferred from the University of Michigan, where he played LB from 1993-94 (20 games with 8 starts)...He sat out the 1995 season due to NCAA

DT Trevor Pryce has 19.5 sacks in 3 seasons as a Raven, including a team-leading 13 in 2006.

2008 REVIEW

HISTORY

GAME DAY

PRO: Paul Kruger was selected in the 2nd round (57th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft...“He’s a tough guy, a tenacious guy,” Ravens director of player personnel Eric DeCosta stated. “He’s got a great motor. I think he’s a guy that’s going to have a chance to play defensive end, possibly SAM backer, possibly rush backer. He’s good with his hands. We love tough football players on defense, and he fits the bill.”...Kruger was tabbed a “red star” player by the personnel department, meaning every Ravens scout agreed he personifies the true characteristics of being a Raven...“Guys who get this distinction have a temperament and countenance we want – toughness, high character and intelligence, leadership and competitiveness,” DeCosta added.

COLLEGE: A 2-year starter at DE, Kruger declared for the NFL Draft after his redshirt sophomore season...Finished his Utes career with 124 tackles (55 solo), 10.5 sacks (-74 yards), 3 FFs, 3 FRs and 2 INTs...Originally recruited to play QB, he switched to defense following a 2-year (2005-06) LDS Church mission in Kansas City, MO...When he returned to the gridiron, he quickly established himself as a standout D-lineman, earning several All-American honors during both his redshirt freshman and sophomore campaigns...Majored in sociology while attending Utah.

2008: As a sophomore, Kruger helped the Utes compile a 13-0 record that included a Sugar Bowl victory over Alabama...Starting all 13 games, he ranked 5th on the team with 61 tackles (31 solo) and also posted 16.5 TFL (2nd most in the Mountain West Conference)...Kruger also tallied a team-high 7.5 sacks (-32 yards), 2 FFs, 1 FR, 7 PD and 1 INT en route to earning honorable mention All-American honors by Sports Illustrated and College Football News...Was also an All-Mountain West Conference 1st-team selection...Kruger helped lead a Utes’ defense that ranked 11th in the nation against the run (99.2 ypg) and 11th overall in total defense (289.2 ypg).

2007: Starting 11 of 13 games as a redshirt freshman, Kruger earned 2nd-team Freshman All-American honors by The Sporting News and Scout.com...He ranked 4th on the team with 63 tackles (24 solo), adding 3 sacks (-22 yards) and 7.5 TFL (-33 yards)...His 63 stops were the most among MWC freshmen linemen and the 2nd-best freshman total at any position...Posting 2 FRs and 1 FF, he also returned an INT 24 yards and produced 5 PD.

2005-06: Served on an LDS Church Mission in Kansas City, MO.

2004: Spent his freshman season with the Utes playing QB on the scout team.

HIGH SCHOOL, PERSONAL: Attended Timpanogos (Orem, UT) HS, where he lettered 4 years as a QB...A team captain his senior season, he earned All-American and All-Conference honors from several publications...Kruger was rated as one of the nation’s top 30 QBs by Student Sports Magazine...At Utah, he was joined on the Utes’ defensive line by his younger brother, Dave...Their father, Paul, played football at Oregon State, where their mother, Jennifer, was a member of the track and field team.

21 LARDARIUS WEBB

DEFENSIVE BACK • ROOKIE

HT 5-10 WT 175
COLLEGE Nicholls State
HIGH SCHOOL Beauregard (Opelika, AL)
BORN 10/12/85, Opelika, AL
JOINED RAVENS Draft 3 (88th), 2009

PRO: Lardarius Webb was selected in the 3rd round (88th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft...“In Lardarius Webb, we got a young man that can help us on defense and also help us with special teams because he’s also a returner,” said general manager/executive vice president Ozzie Newsome. “You get a player like that who has the versatility who he has, you can see so many roles that he can play in, and a guy that has the potential to be both a safety and a corner. When John [Harbaugh] and the coaches are putting together their 45-man squad, to have someone with that type of flexibility makes their job easier.”

COLLEGE: Two-time Division I-AA All-American choice by The Associated Press, Sports Network, the Walter Camp Foundation (as a junior) and AFCA (as a senior) and was a 2-time College Sporting News Fabulous Fifty selection...Was also an All-Southland Conference honoree at DB and returner as a senior...Named the Nicholls State 2008-09 Outstanding Male Student Athlete of the Year...Transferred to Nicholls State from Southern Mississippi after his sophomore season...Played in 46 total games (26 at Southern Miss. and 20 at Nicholls State), starting 23 (20 at Nicholls State and 3 at Southern Miss.)...Recorded 179 tackles (144 solo), 24 PD, 8 TFL, 7 INTs, 3 sacks, 2 FRs and 1 FF, while also amassing 1,060 yards and 3 TDs on KORs, and added 425 punt return yards.

GAME DAY

PRO: Jason Phillips was selected in the 5th round (137th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft...“I think you all have gotten to know that when we take a defensive player, that player has some special traits about him – the way he plays – and Jason plays that way,” Ravens general manager and executive vice president Ozzie Newsome stated. “I think he’ll come in, and he’ll get the opportunity to compete with Jameel [McClain] and Tavares [Gooden].”

COLLEGE: An anchor of one of college football’s premier defenses while at TCU, Phillips is the only player in league history to earn All-Mountain West Conference honors in 4 consecutive seasons...In 3 of those seasons, he led the team in tackles (and was 2nd the year he didn’t lead the team)...Phillips started all 50 games he played, recording 315 tackles (194 solo), 7.5 sacks (-63 yards) and 38 TFL (-131 yards)...Also posted 1 FF, 2 INTs and 11 PD during his career...Graduated in Dec. 2008 with a degree in criminal justice...Phillips was unable to attend the on-campus commencement, because he was in San Diego preparing for the Poinsettia Bowl...Instead, he attended a special ceremony held at the team hotel the night before the game.

2008: An All-American Honorable Mention selection by The NFL Draft Report and Sports Illustrated, he also earned All-Mountain West Conference 1st-team honors his senior season...Appeared on the watch lists for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Dick Butkus Award and Rotary Lombardi Award...Started 12 games at MLB, leading the team for the 3rd time in his collegiate career with 84 tackles (57 solo), including a career-high 3.5 sacks (-29 yards) and 13 TFL (-44 yards)...Phillips guided a unit that led the nation in total defense (217.8 ypg) and rush defense (47.1 ypg), while also ranking 2nd in scoring defense (11.3 ppg)...Recorded double-digit tackles in 4 games on the season.

2007: As a junior, he lined up as the starting MLB in all 13 games, leading the team with a career-high 87 tackles (58 solo)...Also registered 2 sacks (-20 yards) and 10.5 TFL (-47 yards) en route to earning 2nd-team All-Mountain West Conference accolades...Was named to the watch lists for the Lombardi Award and Dick Butkus Award to begin the season...Phillips helped the Horned Frogs rank 15th in the nation in both total defense (323.6 ypg) and 11th in rush defense (103.5 ypg).

2006: A 1st-team All-Mountain West Conference selection his sophomore season, he started all 13 games at MLB, ranking 2nd on the squad with 73 tackles (38 solo)...Added a 9-yard sack and 6 TFL (-22 yards), also forcing 1 fumble...Spurred the Horned Frogs’ defense, which finished 2nd in the nation in total defense (234.9 ypg) and rush defense (60.9 ypg).

2005: Earned 2nd-team Freshmen All-American honors by The Sporting News, becoming the 1st freshman defensive player in Mountain West Conference history to earn any All-Mountain West Conference honors (2nd-team selection)...Starting 12 games at MLB, he led the Horned Frogs with 71 tackles (41 solo), including a 5-yard sack and 8.5 TFL...Named the MWC Freshman of the Year by College Football News.

2004: Redshirted as a true freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL, PERSONAL: Phillips attended Waller (TX) HS, where he played QB and LB...A 2-time team captain, he earned District 18-4A MVP honors in 2003 and was a member of Team USA in the 2004 Global Bowl...Was also selected to play in the 2004 Bayou Bowl, a regional high school All-Star game...Rushed 172 times for 1,291 yards and connected on 61 of 138 passes for 1,070 yards as a senior...In his initial varsity season (2001), Phillips was named the District 18-4A Newcomer of the Year...Also lettered in track, where he was a regional qualifier in the 110-meter hurdles...Graduated with Texas Scholar honors.

HT 5-9	WT 210
COLLEGE	Virginia
HIGH SCHOOL	William Campbell (Gladys, VA)
BORN	10/10/86, Lynchburg, VA
JOINED RAVENS	Draft 6 (185th), 2009

PRO: Cedric Peerman was selected in the 6th round (185th overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft...“Cedric is a downhill guy with very, very good speed,” Ravens director of player personnel Eric DeCosta noted. “He’s as tough as they come with good hands. He’s been a very productive special teams guy. He’s got a tough mindset. He’s a lunch-pail type guy. He was another ‘red star’ for us this year. Guys who get this distinction have a temperament and countenance we want – toughness, high character and intelligence, leadership and competitiveness.”

COLLEGE: Played 41 games with 18 starts over his career, becoming the 36th Cavalier to rush for over 1,000 career yards...Finished with a total of 1,749 rushing yards and 15 TDs, adding to that 1,256 yards from 50 KORs and 67 receptions for 344 yards and 1 TD...Peerman’s 3,349 all-purpose yards rank 10th in Virginia’s annals...His career-long 79-yard run vs. East Carolina in 2008 tied Ray Brown (vs. Hampden-Sydney, 1946) and Barry Word (vs. Georgia Tech, 1985) for the 7th-longest run from scrimmage in Cavalier history...In his career, Virginia went 11-2 when Peerman had at least 15 rushing attempts...Graduated in May 2008 with a sociology degree.

2008: Named to the All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorable mention squad after leading the team with a career-high 774 yards on 153 carries (5.1 avg.) and 7 TDs...Was named the ACC Offensive Back of the Week after recording his career-long 79-yard run against ECU in Week 5...Ranked 4th in the ACC with an average of 70.4 rushing yards per game, and he ran for over 100 yards 3 times...Ranked 3rd on the team with 44 receptions for 193 yards (4.4 avg.) and returned 5 KO’s for 108 yards (21.6 avg.)...Led the Cavaliers with 1,075 all-purpose yards (9th in the league), averaging 97.4 yards per game.

2007: Had a dynamic start to the season before a foot injury in Week 6 required surgery...Led the team with 585 rushing yards and 5 TDs on 113 carries (5.2 avg.) during a season that culminated with the Cavaliers’ appearance in the Gator Bowl...Finished the year with 771 all-purpose yards, catching 13 passes for 99 yards (7.6 avg.) and returning 5 KO’s for 87 yards (17.4 avg.)...Was the 1st Cavalier since 2004 to run for over 100 yards in 3 games.

2006: Played in 12 games with 1 start...Ranked 12th in the nation with 19 KORs for 519 yards (27.3 avg.)...Rushed for 153 yards on 46 carries (3.3 avg.) and caught 7 passes for 38 yards (5.4 avg.).

2005: Saw action in all 12 games, making his 1st-career start vs. Syracuse...Virginia won the Music City Bowl during a season that saw Peerman accumulate 70 carries for 237 yards (3.4 avg.) and 3 TDs...He caught 3 receptions for 14 yards (4.7 avg.) and 1 TD and was 22nd in the nation with 21 KORs for 542 yards (25.8 avg.).

2004: Redshirted his freshman year.

2008 PLAYER MILESTONES

ST BRENDON AYANBADEJO

Pro Bowl - 3rd Appearance

He led the team with a career-high 30 special teams tackles, helping P Sam Koch average the NFL's No. 5 net avg. (39.9).

QB JOE FLACCO

Diet Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote)

Flacco became the 1st rookie QB to ever win 2 playoff games, leading the Ravens to the AFC Championship game. He finished the year 257-of-428 for 2,971 yards and 14 TDs.

NFL Offensive Rookie of the Month - November

Flacco completed 83 of 140 passes (59.3%) for 1,060 yards, 9 TDs and just 2 INTs, leading the Ravens to a 4-1 record.

NFL Rookie of the Week (Week 8 and Week 17)

In Week 8 vs. Oakland, Flacco completed 12 of 24 passes for 140 yards, including a 70-yard TD pass. He also ran for a 12-yard TD and caught a 43-yard pass from fellow QB Troy Smith. In Week 17 vs. Jacksonville, Flacco completed 17 of 23 passes for 297 yards in Baltimore's 27-7 victory, leading the Ravens into the postseason.

AFC Offensive Player of the Week

In Week 9 at Cleveland, Flacco led the Ravens back from a 14-point deficit, finishing 17-of-29 for 248 yards and 2 TDs.

P SAM KOCH

AFC Special Teams Player of the Week

In the win at Dallas, he punted 5 times for a 52.2-yard average (2 in the 20). One of his best plays came on 4th-and-6 when the Ravens lined up for a FG at Dallas' 22. Taking the snap, he bolted 9 yards for a 1st down, a play that led to a Baltimore TD.

LB RAY LEWIS

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 10th Appearance / 1st-Team All-Pro (AP)

Lewis led the Ravens' No. 2 defense with 160 tackles (84 solo). He also had 3.5 sacks, 3 INTs and 2 FRs on the season.

AFC Defensive Player of the Week

In Week 10 at Houston, Lewis registered 9 tackles and 2 INTs in the Ravens' 41-13 win over the Texans.

PFW's 2008 Midseason All-Pro Team

In 8 games, Lewis posted a team-high 83 tackles, 1 sack, 5 PD and 1 FF, leading one of the NFL's top defenses.

WR DERRICK MASON

Pro Bowl 3rd-Alternate

Mason had team highs of 80 catches for 1,037 yards and 5 TDs. The 2008 season marked his 7th 1,000-yard campaign, also surpassing 10,000 career receiving yards (790 for 10,061). He became the 31st player in NFL history to surpass the milestone.

FB Le'RON McCLAIN

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 1st Appearance / 1st-Team All-Pro (AP)

McClain rushed for a team-high 902 yards and 10 TDs this season, also helping pave the way for the Ravens' No. 4-ranked rush attack, which averaged 148.5 yards per game.

DT HALOTI NGATA

Pro Bowl 1st-Alternate / 2nd-Team All-Pro (AP)

Ngata, who finished the season leading the D-line with 77 tackles, also posted 2 INTs and 1 sack.

S ED REED

Pro Bowl (Starter) - 5th Appearance / 1st-Team All-Pro (AP) - Only Unanimous Selection

In 2008, Reed totaled an NFL-high 9 INTs for 264 return yards. He also had 2 INT-TDs, including an NFL-record 107-yarder.

NFL Defensive Player of the Month - December

In 4 December games – when the Ravens went 3-1 – Reed posted 16 tackles and 6 INTs, adding 1 FF, 2 FRs (1 returned for a 22-yard TD) and a sack.

AFC Defensive Player of the Week

In Week 14 vs the Redskins, Reed forced a fumble, scooped the ball up and returned it for a 22-yard TD. Reed also had 2 INTs in the game, 1 of 3 dual-pick performances in 2008.

AFC Defensive Player of the Week

In Week 12 vs. the Eagles, Reed posted 2 INTs, a PD and 2 tackles. The picks (returned a total of 150 yards) included his 107-yarder, which is the longest in NFL history.

LB BART SCOTT

Pro Bowl - 2nd-Alternate

Scott totaled 104 tackles for the Ravens' No. 2-overall defense, posting his 4th consecutive season of at least 100 stops.

LB TERRELL SUGGS

Pro Bowl - 3rd Appearance / 2nd-Team All-Pro (AP)

He was No. 3 on the team with a career-high 102 tackles and 1st with 8 sacks. He also had 2 INTs, returning both for TDs.

AFC Defensive Player of the Week

In Week 7 at Miami, Suggs returned an INT 44 yards for his 1st-career TD. He also finished with 1 sack, 8 tackles and 3 QB hits.

2008 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 • RAVENS 17, BENGALS 10

Cincinnati (0-1) Baltimore (1-0)

Sunday, September 7, 2008 • 1:06 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 78°; Sunny, Wind NW 7 mph • Attendance 70,978 • Time 3:09

Rookie QB Joe Flacco helped the Ravens to a 17-10 victory in his NFL debut. Baltimore's defense limited Cincinnati to only 154 total yards and 8 1st downs (2 from penalties) in John Harbaugh's 1st game as a head coach. Rookie QB Joe Flacco finished 15-of-29 for 129 yards, threw a key block on WR Mark Clayton's 42-yard TD run on a reverse that opened the scoring, and then Joe sprinted down the right sideline 38 yards for another TD in the 3rd quarter. Bengals QB Carson Palmer produced only 99 yards on a 10-of-25 showing. Palmer was sacked twice but hit many other times, and his 35.2 QB rating was a personal worst out of 61 career games. Flacco's 1st pass, a 9-yard completion to TE Todd Heap, was fumbled away. Both teams traded punts before CB Chris McAlister stole a tipped (S Ed Reed) Palmer pass on Baltimore's 17-yard line. Flacco then marched 78 yards, the last 42 coming on Clayton's surprise play around the left edge. K Matt Stover and Bengals K Shayne Graham matched FGs in the 1st half. Flacco then extended the lead to 17-3 when he rolled right on a naked bootleg and kept going 38 yards to paydirt. RB Ray Rice (64 yards on 22 carries) fumbled on a 4th-quarter drive, which Bengals CB Johnathan Joseph returned 65 yards for a TD. But Baltimore got a 4th-down stop and held the ball 13:17 in the 4th quarter, owning a 36:15 to 23:45 time advantage for the game.

2008 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 2 • RAVENS 28, BROWNS 10

Cleveland (0-3) Baltimore (2-0)

Sunday, September 21, 2008 • 4:16 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 77°, Sunny, Wind E 2 mph • Attendance 71,104 • Time 3:09

The Ravens defeated the Cleveland Browns with a massive 2nd-half surge by the defense and a power running game. Baltimore turned 2 QB Derek Anderson INTs into TDs and grabbed a 3rd in the game's closing moments to seal the victory. K Matt Stover banged a 48-yard FG off the right upright on the Ravens' 1st drive, and rookie QB Joe Flacco tossed his 1st-career INT on their 2nd series, which the Browns converted into an opening TD. Baltimore tried to answer with a flea-flicker, but a 53-yard bomb to WR Derrick Mason ended up costing Flacco his 2nd pick. On the 3rd play of the period, LB Ray Lewis leveled Cleveland TE Kellen Winslow and dislodged the football, which landed in CB Chris McAlister's hands for an INT. McAlister's return to the 12-yard line set up FB LeRon McClain's 1-yard TD plunge. Less than 1 minute later, S Ed Reed pounced on another Anderson INT and raced 32 yards to the end zone. A botched punt on the next series gave the Ravens a short field on Cleveland's 35, which led to McClain's 2nd TD. Flacco only threw 5 passes in the 2nd half, while the Ravens held the ball for 13:18 in the 4th quarter. Baltimore's defense, which allowed just 169 net yards, totaled 5 sacks - 2 by LB Terrell Suggs - and capped the night with CB Samari Rolle's INT on the Browns' final offensive play.

GAME 3 • STEELERS 23, RAVENS 20 (OT)

Baltimore (2-1) Pittsburgh (2-2)

Monday, September 29, 2008 • 8:40 PM ET • Heinz Field • Pittsburgh

Weather: 65°, Fair, Wind SSW 3 mph • Attendance 64,038 • Time 3:36

The Ravens came back from 2 deficits, but it wasn't enough, as Baltimore fell 23-20 on Monday Night Football. Rookie QB Joe Flacco played his 1st road game and found TE Daniel Wilcox for his 1st-career passing TD. The Steelers posted 2 TDs within 15 seconds in the 3rd quarter. QB Ben Roethlisberger hit WR Santonio Holmes with a short pass over the middle, and Holmes escaped tackles from CB Chris McAlister and S Ed Reed en route to paydirt. On the next play from scrimmage, Flacco was sacked from behind by LB James Harrison, who knocked the ball away. LB LaMarr Woodley scooped up the fumble and went 7 yards for a TD. Pittsburgh made it 20-13 on K Jeff Reed's 19-yard FG in the 4th after Steelers RB Mewelde Moore was stuffed at the 1-yard line. Then, Flacco went to work late in the 4th quarter, connecting with WR Derrick Mason from 15, 10 and 35 yards. FB Le'Ron McClain capped the scoring march from 2 yards out. The Ravens won the OT coin toss, but 2 penalties and 1 sack forced P Sam Koch to punt out of his own end zone. That allowed Pittsburgh to start from its own 43-yard line, gain a 1st down and prepare for Reed's 46-yard game-winner. The Ravens harassed Roethlisberger for 3 sacks, while the Steelers felled Flacco 5 times.

GAME 4 • TITANS 13, RAVENS 10

Tennessee (5-0) Baltimore (2-2)

Sunday, October 5, 2008 • 1:02 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 69°; Partly Cloudy; Wind NNW 3 mph • Attendance 71,131 • Time 3:04

Titans QB Kerry Collins directed a game-winning TD drive that ended with 1:56 left in the game. Collins was 10-of-20 for only 91 yards and 2 INTs through 3 quarters. And when Collins got the ball with 6:07 remaining, even he was forced into 3 straight incomplete passes. But LB Terrell Suggs was flagged for roughing the passer - a call questioned both by the Ravens and the media after the game - during the 3rd-down attempt. The penalty garnered a new set of downs. Suggs' flag came after Titans LT Michael Roos had a 5-yard false start, but since play continued after the whistle, the 15-yard penalty could still be considered. K Matt Stover opened the scoring with a 38-yard boot to cap Baltimore's opening drive. The Ravens traveled 46 yards in 11 plays after DT Haloti Ngata tipped Collins' 3rd pass of the game, which fell to DT Justin Bannan. Titans K Rob Bironas then answered when QB Joe Flacco was intercepted in Baltimore territory midway through the 2nd quarter (the 2nd of 4 Tennessee drives that began on the Ravens' side of the field). Coming out of the break, Flacco mounted his best series, going 71 yards in 11 plays. Flacco hit WR Demetrius Williams for a 22-yard connection. FB LeRon McClain capped the march with a 1-yard plunge. Bironas thinned the margin to 10-6 with his 26-yard FG 2:11 into the 4th quarter. After Collins' game-winning 11-yard TD pass to TE Alge Crumpler, Flacco tossed his 2nd INT with 1:16 remaining.

GAME 5 • COLTS 31, RAVENS 3

Baltimore (2-3) Indianapolis (3-2)

Sunday, October 12, 2008 • 1:02 PM EDT • Lucas Oil Stadium • Indianapolis

Weather: 69°, Fair, Wind ESE 6 mph • Attendance 66,153 • Time 3:00

QB Peyton Manning threw 3 TD passes in the 1st half to build a 24-0 lead over the Ravens who were missing starting S Dawan Landry (neck), CB Samari Rolle (neck/shoulder), plus 3rd CB Fabian Washington (shoulder). On his 7th snap of the day, Manning unleashed a 67-yard TD bomb to Pro Bowl WR Marvin Harrison, who sped past CB Chris McAlister down the right sideline. The Ravens answered with a 3-and-out before Manning hit his 2nd Pro Bowl WR, Reggie Wayne, with a 22-yard TD strike. Manning added a 5-yard TD dart to Harrison 1:48 before halftime to cap a 52-yard drive. FB LeRon McClain lost a 1st-quarter fumble in Baltimore territory that led to a 37-yard FG from K Adam Vinatieri. Indianapolis' lead stretched to 31 when Manning came out of halftime to direct an 11-play, 80-yard scoring drive. He connected with Wayne through the hands of CB Frank Walker for 34 yards, and RB Dominic Rhodes plunged 1 yard for the TD. QB Joe Flacco then directed a 15-play drive to the 19-yard line for a K Matt Stover 37-yard FG and the only 3 Ravens points. Flacco hit 7 different receivers, completing 29 of 38 for 241 yards. Flacco was also sacked 4 times and tossed the 3 INTs, although none of them led to Colts points. Rookie RB Ray Rice led the team with 7 catches for 64 yards, and WR Derrick Mason had 6 grabs for 70 yards.

GAME DAY

2008 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 6 • RAVENS 27, DOLPHINS 13

Baltimore (3-3) Miami (2-4)

Sunday, October 19, 2008 • 1:02 PM EDT • Dolphin Stadium • Miami

Weather: 80°; Partly Cloudy, Wind ENE 13 mph • Attendance 64,972 • Time 2:49

Rookie QB Joe Flacco posted a passer rating of 120.0, a personal best, leading Baltimore to a 27-13 victory. Both teams traded FGs to open the scoring before LB Terrell Suggs pounced in front of RB Patrick Cobbs to pick off Miami QB Chad Pennington. With nothing but daylight in front of him, Suggs raced 44 yards down the right sideline to paydirt. The Dolphins followed with another FG before Baltimore's offense came alive. Flacco went 6-of-8 for 68 yards on the next series, capping it with an 11-yard TD pass to WR Derrick Mason. The grab was a do-over from the previous play, when Miami CB Will Allen dropped a sure INT at the goal line. With a 17-6 lead heading into halftime, the Ravens cut through a run defense that entered the weekend only allowing 89.0 yards on the ground (8th in the NFL). RB Willis McGahee gained 80 yards in the 2nd half, adding a bruising 5-yard TD run - this despite not having starting RT Adam Terry (with a knee injury) and losing RG Marshal Yanda for the season to torn knee ligaments, the week prior. The Dolphins closed within 7 points after Pennington hit rookie WR Davone Bess for a 7-yard score, but Baltimore bounced back with a 9-play scoring drive in the final period. When McGahee plowed through the Dolphins for his 4th-quarter TD, Baltimore had comfortably stopped a 7-game road losing streak.

2008 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 7 • RAVENS 29, RAIDERS 10

Oakland (2-5) Baltimore (4-3)

Sunday, October 26, 2008 • 1:02 PM EDT • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 65°, Sunny, Wind SW 6 mph • Attendance 71,254 • Time 3:05

Ravens LB Terrell Suggs sacked QB JaMarcus Russell the 1st time he dropped back to pass, 1 of 4 Ravens sacks, setting the tone for the game. On the next attempt, rookie LB Jameel McClain logged a safety on Russell. QB Joe Flacco's most exciting connection might have been a 43-yard catch from QB Troy Smith in the 3rd quarter that led to a 30-yard FG from K Matt Stover. Following McClain's safety, Baltimore had 3 2nd-quarter scoring drives, started by S Jim Leonhard's 46-yard PR with around 2 minutes left in the 1st. Five plays later, RB Willis McGahee scored a 1-yard TD for a 9-0 lead. McGahee, followed 2 consecutive blocks from 340-pound DT Haloti Ngata. CB Frank Walker's INT at the Ravens' 3-yard line got the ball back. From his own 30, Flacco navigated pressure before launching a 70-yard TD to WR Demetrius Williams. Then, the Ravens forced a 3-and-out that set up a 61-yard drive to a 38-yard FG 15 seconds later to give the Ravens a 19-0 halftime advantage. Oakland finally crossed midfield on its 1st drive after the break. Russell found WR Chaz Schilens for 60 yards, setting up a 22-yard FG. The Ravens struck back with Flacco's grab and the Stover FG. Both Flacco and Smith lined up in the backfield, and after Flacco pitched to Smith, he sprinted left past LB Ricky Brown. Smith tossed a 43-yarder into Flacco's extended arms.

GAME 8 • RAVENS 37, BROWNS 27

Baltimore (5-3) Cleveland (3-5)

Sunday, November 2, 2008 • 1:02 PM EST • Cleveland Browns Stadium • Cleveland

Weather: 55°, Sunny, Wind SE 8-16 mph • Attendance 73,078 • Time 3:20

The Ravens' 24-point rally to bring the team back from a 14-point deficit began after Cleveland posted 2 TDs on its initial 2 series of the 3rd quarter to take a 27-13 lead. Browns QB Derek Anderson found WR Braylon Edwards for a 28-yard TD, and then returned after a Ravens' 3-and-out to engineer an 8-play, 72-yard march that ended with RB Jason Wright's diving 7-yard TD. QB Joe Flacco responded out of the no-huddle, moving 79 yards in 11 plays to Cleveland's 1, where FB Le'Ron McClain ran in for a TD. Baltimore's defense forced a 3-and-out as the 3rd quarter expired, allowing Flacco to connect with WR Derrick Mason from 28 yards to even the score at 27. Rookie RB Ray Rice - 154 yards on 21 carries (7.1-yard average) - then broke a 60-yard run, setting up Matt Stover's 22-yard FG. The ground game was aided by Mason, 136 yards on 9 catches, and WR Mark Clayton, 4 grabs for 87 yards. Flacco threw no INTs for the 3rd straight week. The Ravens jumped to a 10-0 lead with a 41-yard FG on their opening drive, and Flacco followed that with a 47-yard strike to Clayton. WR Joshua Cribbs took the ensuing KO 92 yards to paydirt. Stover and Browns K Phil Dawson traded FGs before Dawson tied the score at 13 with another boot with 3 seconds left in the 1st half. The Browns still had a chance in the 4th until Suggs picked off Anderson and raced 42 yards for a TD. For the 27th consecutive game, the Ravens' "D" also did not allow a 100-yard rusher.

GAME 9 • RAVENS 41, TEXANS 13

Baltimore (6-3) Houston (3-6)

Sunday, November 9, 2008 • 12:02 PM CST • Reliant Stadium • Houston

Weather: 69°, Sunny, Wind ESE 11 mph • Attendance 70,552 • Time 3:06

Baltimore posted 22 4th-quarter points, and Texans QB Sage Rosenfels was intercepted 4 times, including 2 from LB Ray Lewis. It marked the 4th consecutive game that the Ravens posted at least 27 points, a team record. The Ravens scored only 12 1st-half points, but poured it on in the 2nd half. Out of the break, the Ravens ran 9 times on a drive culminating in RB Willis McGahee's 1-yard TD behind 345-pound DT Haloti Ngata. On the ensuing series, Ngata pressured Rosenfels, who threw directly to Lewis. K Matt Stover then missed a 50-yard FG, setting up a 60-yard catch and run to Houston WR Kevin Walter 1 snap later, which cut the Ravens' lead to 19-13. Flacco and the Ravens' offense responded with a 78-yard march. Just 1 minute into the final period, Flacco hit a stumbling TE Todd Heap for a score. It was a tight game until the Ravens' stellar 2nd half. Following a 43-yard TD from Flacco to WR Yamon Figurs on Baltimore's 2nd drive of the game, the Texans pushed to Baltimore's 1-yard line. On 1st down, Rosenfels looked for TE Owen Daniels in the end zone, but Ngata tipped the pass to himself for an INT. Texans LT Duane Brown was also called for holding in the end zone on LB Terrell Suggs, which qualified as a safety. Baltimore K Steven Hauschka added a 54-yard boot, marking the 2nd-longest FG in franchise history.

2008 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 10 • GIANTS 30, RAVENS 10

Baltimore (6-4) New York (9-1)

Sunday, November 16, 2008 • 1:02 PM EST • Giants Stadium • East Rutherford

Weather: 49°, Cloudy, Wind WNW 19 mph • Attendance 78,849 • Time 2:57

In a matchup of the NFL's top rushing offense and run defense, the Ravens gave way. New York rushed for 207 total yards, the most allowed all season by a Baltimore unit that went into the contest giving up an average of 65.4 yards per game. On his 1st run of the day, the 265-pound RB Brandon Jacobs cut off the left side and sprinted 36 yards. The play set the stage for Jacobs' ensuing 1-yard TD. The Ravens had a chance to answer, but K Matt Stover's 32-yard FG was blocked by DT Fred Robbins. Jacobs then popped off a 15-yard run before crossing the goal line from 1 yard out. After Jacobs' 2nd TD, Baltimore P Sam Koch pinned the Giants at their own 10-yard line. But QB Eli Manning marched New York 90 yards in 12 plays, finding TE Darcy Johnson for a 1-yard TD pass. The Ravens finally scored as Stover split the uprights with a 38-yard FG. The Giants moved the ball back into the red zone, but LB Ray Lewis negated the drive with an INT. The Ravens' defense tightened to hold New York to only 4 rushing yards in the 3rd quarter. Baltimore even closed the margin to 20-10 with a 10-yard TD pass to FB Le'Ron McClain midway through the period. But following a Giants' punt, CB Aaron Ross corralled a deflection off Derrick Mason and raced untouched 50 yards to paydirt, snapping Joe Flacco's 4-game streak of INT-free football. New York later posted a 77-yard run from Bradshaw that set up K Lawrence Tynes' 19-yard FG, making the final outcome 30-10.

GAME 11 • RAVENS 36, EAGLES 7

Philadelphia (5-5-1) Baltimore (7-4)

Sunday, November 23, 2008 • 1:02 PM EST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 39°; Sunny, Wind WSW 5 mph • Attendance 71,379 • Time 3:27

The Ravens' defense notched 4 INTs and 1 FR from Eagles QBs Donovan McNabb and Kevin Kolb. McNabb tossed 2 INTs and lost a fumble before he was removed at halftime after posting a 13.2 passer rating. Kolb completed 10 of 23 for 73 yards and a 15.3 rating in the 2nd half. LB Jameel McClain blocked a punt in the end zone for a safety giving the Ravens a 12-7 lead midway through the 3rd quarter. CB Samari Rolle's INT at Baltimore's 49-yard line set up Matt Stover's 42-yard FG 3 seconds into the 4th quarter. WR Mark Clayton hauled in a short slant from QB Joe Flacco and raced 53 yards for a TD. S Ed Reed put the game out of reach when he picked off Kolb and sprinted an NFL-record 107 yards for a TD. Baltimore didn't open the scoring until the 3:05 mark of the 2nd quarter, when K Matt Stover hit a 44-yard FG. By that time, Baltimore had already picked off McNabb once and pounced on a McNabb fumble both forced and recovered by LB Jarret Johnson. The Ravens didn't convert either of the 1st 2 Eagles turnovers into points, but after the 3rd TO, Flacco delivered a 1-yard TD pass to TE Daniel Wilcox. The Eagles answered with S Quintin Demps' 100-yard KOR-TD. The 10-7 battle continued into the 3rd quarter, when Baltimore backed the Eagles deep into their own territory and McClain got his 2nd-career safety. Then the floodgates opened. Flacco finished with a 95.5 QB rating.

2008 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 12 • RAVENS 34, BENGALS 3

Baltimore (8-4) Cincinnati (1-10-1)

Sunday, November 30, 2008 • 1:02 PM EST • Paul Brown Stadium • Cincinnati

Weather: 42°; Cloudy & Showers, Wind SSW 3 mph • Attendance 63,871 • Time 3:00

Baltimore cruised to a 34-3 victory at Paul Brown Stadium by stomping out the Cincinnati Bengals for the Ravens' 6th win in the past 7 contests. This game may have been their most dominating performance. The Ravens hammered Cincinnati's defense with FB LeRon McClain, who opened downfield opportunities for QB Joe Flacco. With the offense clicking, Baltimore amassed 451 yards, only 28 less than a franchise record. WR Mark Clayton was a major factor in that production. Clayton caught 5 passes for 164 yards (the 3rd-best total in team history), hauled in 1 of those catches for a 70-yard TD, and even threw a 32-yard scoring strike to WR Derrick Mason. His TD grab and toss came within 2:19 of each other in the 3rd quarter, pushing the margin to 27-3 in a flash. S Jim Leonhard capped the outing when he picked off QB Jordan Palmer and ran 35 yards for a TD late in the 4th quarter. Only 2 of Cincinnati's 1st 10 drives lasted more than 3 plays. The Bengals tallied only 155 yards, 89 of which came on a march just before halftime that was capped with a 21-yard FG from K Shayne Graham. As the Bengals' only points, it was the 2nd consecutive week that the Ravens' "D" did not give up a TD. Baltimore K Matt Stover opened the scoring with 27- and 21-yard FGs, which were followed by a 4-yard TD from Flacco to TE Todd Heap. The 9-play scoring drive was keyed by a 33-yard reception by Clayton. The Ravens kept possession for 38:58, compared to Cincinnati's 21:02.

2008 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 13 • RAVENS 24, REDSKINS 10

Washington (7-6) Baltimore (9-4)

Sunday, December 7, 2008 • 8:23 PM EST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 29°, Clear, Cold, Wind WNW 20 mph • Attendance 71,438 • Time 3:08

Baltimore ground out a 12-play, 83-yard drive late in the 4th quarter that had 10 bruising runs from 260-pound FB Le'Ron McClain en route to QB Joe Flacco's clinching 28-yard TD pass to WR Derrick Mason. The Ravens jumped out to a 2-TD lead in the 1st quarter because of 2 spectacular plays from S Ed Reed. The Pro Bowler snared an INT on the opening series to set up an 8-yard TD run for McClain, and then Reed returned a fumble 22 yards to the end zone 2:29 after that. On the 3rd play of the night, Reed grabbed a fluttering throw from Redskins QB Jason Campbell around midfield after the ball was tipped by LB Terrell Suggs. McClain rumbled across the goal line for a TD 5 plays later. Both teams traded punts before Reed stripped RB Clinton Portis on an 11-yard rush and scored with the FR, his 11th-career TD. K Matt Stover extended the lead to 17-0 with a 32-yard FG, but the Redskins then capitalized on 2 Ravens turnovers. Flacco tossed his 1st INT in 3 weeks at the Baltimore 26-yard line just before the 4th quarter, leading to K Shaun Suisham's 43-yard FG. On the Ravens' next series, RB Willis McGahee - who left the game in the 4th with a shoulder stinger and mild concussion - lost a fumble on Baltimore's 43-yard line. Campbell then found WR Antwaan Randle El for a 5-yard TD, trimming the margin to 7. But the Ravens responded, ruggedly moving downfield on McClain's legs and capping their night at the 3:35 mark with Flacco's TD throw to Mason.

2008 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 14 • STEELERS 13, RAVENS 9

Pittsburgh (11-3) Baltimore (9-5)

Sunday, December 14, 2008 • 4:15 PM EST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 45°, Mostly Cloudy, Wind SSE 14 mph • Attendance 71,502 • Time 3:11

In an epic clash of the NFL's top 2 defenses, it was the Pittsburgh Steelers' offense that captured a victory over the Ravens. Pittsburgh drove 92 yards in 12 plays to score a controversial winning TD with 43 seconds left in the game. WR Antonio Holmes hauled in a 4-yard scoring pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to cap the Steelers' final march. Facing 3rd-and-goal on Baltimore's 4-yard line, Roethlisberger bought time with his legs before finding Holmes, who had 2 feet in the end zone but seemed to grasp the ball outside of it as S Ed Reed tackled him to the 1. It was originally ruled that Holmes did not score, but after a booth review, the call was reversed. K Matt Stover booted 3 FGs for the Ravens, while Pittsburgh came away with 2 FGs before the game's only TD. The Ravens were clinging to a 9-3 lead when LB Terrell Suggs sacked Roethlisberger on the 1st play of the 4th quarter and jarred the ball loose into the hands of DT Brandon McKinney. But Baltimore could not convert the TO into points and had to punt after a 3-and-out. The Steelers then drove to the Ravens' 12 with the help of a 30-yard completion to Hines Ward, setting up a FG from K Jeff Reed. The Ravens were forced to punt again when QB Joe Flacco was sacked by LB Lawrence Timmons and fumbled. The play had started on Pittsburgh's 27-yard line, but the Ravens were pushed out of Stover's range when RB Willis McGahee recovered the ball at the 41. Pittsburgh then took possession on its own 8 and rallied for the TD.

GAME 15 • RAVENS 33, COWBOYS 24

Baltimore (10-5) Dallas (9-6)

Saturday, December 20, 2008 • 7:15 PM CST • Texas Stadium • Dallas

Weather: 45°, No wind • Attendance 63,800 • Time 3:24

Baltimore defeated the Dallas Cowboys to spoil the celebration at the final game at Texas Stadium. Dallas closed to within 2 points twice in the 4th quarter, but the Ravens broke a pair of long TD runs to extend their lead both times. RB Willis McGahee burst up the middle to sprint 77 yards for a TD at the 3:32 mark, countering a 7-yard TD strike from QB Tony Romo to WR Terrell Owens. Then, after Romo answered McGahee with a 21-yard TD pass to TE Jason Witten, the Ravens' very next offensive play saw FB Le'Ron McClain bounce off the right side of the OL for an 82-yard TD scamper. McClain's run was the longest ever for an opponent at the Cowboys' venerable home. The Ravens had their share of early troubles, however. QB Joe Flacco, who finished with a 96.9 passer rating, was sacked 5 times in the 1st half, losing a fumble on his initial drive of the game when he was sack-stripped by LB DeMarcus Ware. The Cowboys converted the positive field position to open the scoring on a RB Tashard Choice TD plunge. Baltimore kept close with 2 FGs from K Matt Stover, and then took a 9-7 lead when Stover hit from 37 yards. The score was set up by S Ed Reed's 2nd INT (7th of the season) and return to midfield. A 13-yard TD pass from Flacco to WR Derrick Mason in the 3rd quarter put the Ravens ahead 16-7. The courageous Mason left the game on 3 separate occasions because of a painful shoulder injury and couldn't even lift his left arm in celebration.

GAME 16 • RAVENS 27, JAGUARS 7

Jacksonville (5-11) Baltimore (11-5)

Sunday, December 28, 2008 • 4:16 PM EST • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 62°, Cloudy, Wind WSW 18 mph • Attendance 71,366 • Time 2:48

With a victory over the Jacksonville Jaguars, the Ravens clinched the 6th AFC playoff spot. The Jaguars held a brief 7-3 lead in the 1st quarter, but with postseason hopes at stake, it was all Ravens from there. Baltimore mounted 3 long scoring drives in the 2nd quarter. During that game-changing outburst, rookie QB Joe Flacco completed 12 of 13, setting up 2 TD runs from FB LeRon McClain and another by RB Willis McGahee. Jaguars QB David Garrard answered K Matt Stover's opening 32-yard FG with a TD pass to RB Alvin Pearman. But the Ravens went no-huddle after Pearman scored, and Flacco completed 6 of 7 passes for 69 yards to set up McClain's 5-yard rumble. McClain's 2nd TD, a 1-yard plunge, came following a 47-yard bomb from Flacco to WR Mark Clayton. In between, McGahee added a 13-yard TD, capping a 77-yard march where Flacco found Derrick Misfired from 39 yards and then on a 16-yard flea flicker. Jacksonville marched to Baltimore's 20-yard line after the break, but turned the ball over on downs when Garrard misfired on a 4th-and-4 pass to WR Dennis Northcutt. Baltimore then added a 41-yard FG from Stover. The Jaguars never made it to Ravens territory again until their last drive. Even then, a shot to the end zone was intercepted by S Ed Reed, his 2nd of the game and NFL-best 9th of the season. Baltimore's defensive effort was also aided by Ray Lewis' 2 FRs. Mason posted 6 receptions for 77 yards, going over 10,000 yards for his career (10,061).

WILD CARD • RAVENS 27, DOLPHINS 9

Baltimore (12-5) Miami (11-6)

Sunday, January 4, 2009 • 1:03 PM EST • Dolphin Stadium • Miami

Weather: 79°, Cloudy, Wind ESE 16 mph • Attendance 72,240 • Time 2:53

The Ravens forced 5 turnovers in their 27-9 win over the Miami Dolphins. Miami tied an NFL record with only 13 giveaways in 2008, but that didn't matter when S Ed Reed lined up across from QB Chad Pennington. Reed snared 2 INTs from Pennington, who only threw 7 INTs in the regular season. Reed took the 1st 64 yards for a TD, the 12th score of his career. Both teams traded FGs before the INTs began accumulating. At 8:56 in the 2nd quarter, S Jim Leonhard returned the 1st theft of the day 20 yards to Miami's 45-yard line, but the Ravens punted after a 3-and-out. On the following series, Reed ran under a rainbow from Pennington and weaved 64 yards for the TD. Baltimore added another K Matt Stover FG (31 yards) before the 1st half ended. CB Fabian Washington posted the 3rd INT just after halftime, which resulted in another Ravens 3-and-out. But DT Marques Douglas stripped RB Patrick Cobbs to end the Dolphins' ensuing drive, and LB Terrell Suggs recovered on Miami's 19-yard line. Four plays later, FB Le'Ron McClain, scored from 8 yards out. Reed continued to terrorize Pennington, who drove to Baltimore's 15-yard line when Reed grabbed his 2nd INT at the 8-yard line in the 3rd. The Dolphins closed the margin with a 5-play drive culminating in a TD pass to RB Ronnie Brown, but it wasn't enough to overcome the deficit. The Ravens' offense put the margin out of reach when a 71-yard drive ended with a 5-yard scoring run from QB Joe Flacco.

DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF • RAVENS 13, TITANS 10

Baltimore (13-5) Tennessee (13-4)

Saturday, January 10, 2009 • 3:33 PM CST • LP Field • Nashville

Weather: 53°, Cloudy, Wind NNW 11 mph • Attendance 69,143 • Time 3:07

Two fierce defenses were featured in this hard-fought battle. It wasn't until K Matt Stover's 43-yard FG with 53 seconds remaining that the outcome was decided. To get there, QB Joe Flacco, who became the NFL's 1st rookie signal caller to win 2 playoff games, led a 9-play, 51-yard drive to set up the clinching kick. On their 1st drive, Titans Pro Bowl RB Chris Johnson took a short pass from Kerry Collins in the left flat, and then ripped off a 28-yard gain. Johnson then finished the march with an 8-yard TD run. On the ensuing series, Flacco hit WR Derrick Mason for a 48-yard TD bomb. Just before the 1st half ended, Tennessee marched to the Ravens' 22-yard line, but RB LenDale White was stripped by LB Jarret Johnson, and the Ravens recovered. The Titans tried a 51-yard FG on 4th down instead of punting in the 3rd, and K Rob Bironas pushed it WL. In the 4th, Stover hit a 21-yard FG to make it 10-7. Later, Titans TE Alge Crumpler fumbled on the Ravens' 6-yard line. Tennessee tied the game again after stopping the Ravens and taking advantage of field position for Bironas' 27-yard FG. The Ravens made the most of their last possession. Flacco completed a 23-yard pass to TE Todd Heap for a critical 3rd-and-2 conversion. RB Willis McGahee then made an 11-yard run, and Flacco found WR Mark Clayton for 8 yards to pull within Stover's range. With less than 1:00 remaining, Collins completed 1 pass (5 yards to Brandon Jones), but his last 3 attempts fell to the turf.

2008 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP • STEELERS 23, RAVENS 14

Pittsburgh (14-4) Baltimore (13-6)

Sunday, January 18, 2009 • 6:43 PM EST • Heinz Field • Pittsburgh

Weather: 26°; Cloudy, Wind W 12 mph • Attendance 65,350 • Time 3:35

It was a battle of the NFL's top 2 defenses, and Baltimore fought through multiple injuries. S Daren Stone suffered a concussion on the opening kickoff, but he returned in the 2nd half. CB Frank Walker (dislocated shoulder) and CB Corey Ivy, who was blindsided by a downfield block, both left for brief moments before returning. However, RB Willis McGahee, who rushed for a game-high 60 yards and 2 TDs on 20 carries, was carted off in the 4th quarter because of a helmet-to-helmet shot from S Ryan Clark. After not committing a TO in his 1st 2 playoff games, QB Joe Flacco threw 3 INTs and lost a fumble. Pittsburgh took a 13-0 lead on 2 K Jeff Reed FGs and a 65-yard TD pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antonio Holmes. S Jim Leonhard returned a punt 45 yards to the Steelers' 17, which - along with a pass interference call in the end zone - set up McGahee's 3-yard TD run in the 2nd quarter. After another Reed FG, McGahee pulled the Ravens within 2 points (16-14 in the 4th quarter) with his 2nd TD. A botched punt from Pittsburgh's P Mitch Berger gave Baltimore the ball at midfield, and another end zone pass interference call led to McGahee's 1-yard TD run. On their ensuing series, the Ravens drove for a go-ahead score, but S Troy Polamalu jumped in front of WR Derrick Mason with 4:24 left and raced 40 yards to paydirt with Flacco's 2nd INT. His last INT - on an attempt over the middle to RB Ray Rice - sealed the outcome with 1:11 remaining.

RAY LEWIS

This image shows a single page of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

The young and brash Baltimore Ravens began the 2000 NFL season talking playoffs and ending the year as World Champions, thanks to one of the most dominant defenses in pro football history.

The Ravens' Super Journey began with an ominous regular season schedule that included five road games in seven weeks. In the middle of it all was a five-game streak without a touchdown. Thankfully, the drought never divided the team.

The race toward the Lombardi Trophy was not without its hurdles: Ray Lewis rebounded from a trying offseason; Trent Dilfer, now a Raven, returned to Tampa Bay for the Super Bowl; an emotional Jermaine Lewis dedicated a superb performance to the memory of his stillborn son. Still, the team rallied the season, and it made the hard-fought victory that much sweeter.

The journey was about the coming of age for talented young players like Jamal Lewis, Chris McAlister and Duane Starks. It also belonged to tough veterans like Rod Woodson, Ray Lewis, Rob Burnett, Shannon Sharpe, Matt Stover, Michael McCrary and Jonathan Ogden.

And the journey also belonged to the fans of Baltimore. The fans numbered in the thousands at the downtown sendoff at Harbor Place. Banners and promises hung in the air and none would be broken.

While the hometown fans would celebrate with seven-straight days of purple pride, the team took off for Tampa for a week of preparation before the ultimate contest. On Sunday, Jan. 28, 2001, the Ravens kept their promise and defeated the N.Y. Giants, 34-7.

Ray Lewis earned Super Bowl XXXV MVP honors, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. The Ravens tied a Super Bowl record with four INTs, and they were only the third team in NFL history to not commit a turnover in a Super Bowl. Most exciting new record? Perhaps three successive scores on three seesaw plays. The back-to-back kickoff returns for TDs were yet another new record.

Following the game, owner Art Modell lifted the Lombardi Trophy in the air and said: "To the people of Baltimore City, Baltimore County and the State of Maryland, this belongs to you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you."

When the Ravens flew home on that beautiful, blue-sky Monday after the Super Bowl, they heard about the parade scheduled in their honor for the next day. The icy downpour that Tuesday presented phased no one. Hundreds of thousands of fans ignored the rain and cold and waited for their heroes to ride by on Baltimore's crowded city streets.

Later, the entire organization was invited to the White House in June to meet President George W. Bush.

Kevin Byrne and Francine Lubera of the Ravens' public relations office chronicled the run to the Super Bowl in the book Super Journey: Diary of the Ravens World Championship Season (above), published in July of 2001.

BALTIMORE FOOTBALL HISTORY

COLTS HISTORY BEGINS

12/28/46 - Baltimore awarded bankrupt Miami Seahawks franchise of the All-America Football Conference. Re-named Colts via a fan contest.

12/8/49 - AAFC/NFL reached merger agreement. Colts entered the NFL for 1950 season.

12/19/50 - Colts finished 1-11 in their first NFL season with a 15-14 loss to the New York Yanks at Yankee Stadium. The Yanks later became the Baltimore Colts.

1/18/51 - Franchise withdrew from league and received $50,000 for players by the NFL.

1951-52 - No Colts team existed.

12/3/52 - Commissioner Bert Bell challenged Baltimore to sell 15,000 tickets in six weeks to re-enter NFL. The ticket drive reached its quota in four weeks, three days.

10/1/53 - Carroll Rosenbloom headed an ownership group and Baltimore was awarded the Dallas Texans' franchise.

12/28/58 - Colts defeated NYG, 23-17, at Yankee Stadium for World Championship. That game sparked the emergence of the NFL as a televised sports giant.

12/27/59 - Colts won their second straight World Championship over Giants, in Baltimore, 31-16.

1/08/63 - Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as head coach.

12/27/64 - Browns beat Colts, 27-0, in Cleveland for NFL title. Art Modell wins first title.

6/8/66 - NFL and AFL announced plans to merge in 1970. Colts, Browns and Steelers later joined AFC in NFL's realignment.

12/1/69 - Jets defeated Colts, 16-7, in Super Bowl III at Orange Bowl after Joe Namath guaranteed a New York victory.

3/3/70 - Don Shula resigned to become head coach of Miami Dolphins.

1/17/71 - Jim O'Brien kicked 32-yard FG with five seconds left as Colts won Super Bowl V vs. Dallas, 16-13, in first AFC-NFC Super Bowl.

7/26/72 - Robert Irsay traded the L.A. Rams to Carroll Rosenbloom for the Colts.

1/15/75 - Ted Marchibroda named head coach.

4/26/83 - Colts selected John Elway with No. 1 pick in NFL draft, but traded him to Denver for T Chris Hinton, QB Mark Herrmann and Denver's top pick in 1984.

12/18/83 - In the last NFL regular season game in Memorial Stadium (until 1996), the Colts beat the Oilers, 20-10. TE Pat Beach scored the last TD on 12-yard pass from QB Mike Pagel.

3/28/84 - Colts franchise relocated to Indianapolis.

RAVENS HISTORY BEGINS

11/6 - Cleveland Browns announced intention to move to Baltimore for 1996 season.

1996

2/9 - NFL approved franchise move.

2/15 - Ted Marchibroda was named the Ravens' first head coach 21 years and one month to the day he was hired by the Baltimore Colts in 1975.

3/29 - Baltimore's NFL franchise was officially named "Ravens" after a Baltimore Sun telephone poll received a record number of calls supporting the name.

4/1 - Ravens opened Owings Mills training facility with start of offseason program.

6/5 - The new Ravens' logo, colors and uniforms were unveiled in a fashion show at Harborplace in downtown Baltimore.

6/14 - Ravens sold over 50,000 season tickets in 14 days.

9/1 - The Ravens' first-ever regular season game was played before 64,124 fans at Memorial Stadium, the largest crowd in Baltimore professional sports history. QB Vinny Testaverde scored the first TD on a 9-yard run to propel the Ravens to a 19-14 win over the Raiders.

12/22 - The Ravens concluded their inaugural season with a 4-12 record following a 24-21 loss to the Houston Oilers. The Ravens were 4-4 at home, and 0-8 on the road. The team sold out all 10 home games, including the two preseason games. Baltimore held a second-half lead in 10 of its 11 final games, but won only two. QB Vinny Testaverde was voted to the Pro Bowl after throwing for 4,177 yards and 33 TDs. WRs Michael Jackson and Derrick Alexander both eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving mark and combined for 23 TDs.

3/18 - The Ravens and Western Maryland College (now McDaniel College) entered into a five-year agreement to hold training camp at the Westminster, MD campus.

12/14 - Baltimore defeated Tennessee, 21-19, in the final game at Memorial Stadium. Of the 16 regular season games played by the Ravens at Memorial Stadium, 13 were televised and all were sold out.

12/21 - Baltimore dropped a 16-14 game at Cincinnati to finish the season 6-9-1. T Jonathan Ogden was named consensus All-Pro and voted as a starter to the Pro Bowl. LB Ray Lewis led the NFL in tackles with 210 and was voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl, then selected as a "needs" player by coach Bill Cowher.

2/14 - The Ravens traded for QB Jim Harbaugh (from Ind.), the first of several key offseason acquisitions, including RB Errict Rhett (2/17), CB Rod Woodson (2/25) and FB Roosevelt Potts (2/24).

9/5 - The new NFL Stadium at Camden Yards (later named PSINet Stadium) was the backdrop for an opening gala that included fireworks, a Stevie Wonder - Baltimore Symphony Orchestra concert and a spectacular laser show.

9/6 - The Ravens opened their new NFL Stadium in downtown Baltimore before a host of dignitaries, a packed house and the Steelers. The Ravens lost, 20-13.

1/19 - Brian Billick became the second head coach in Ravens history when he accepted a six-year contract from owner Art Modell. Billick, the highly successful offensive coordinator for Minnesota, directed a Vikings' attack that set a variety of NFL and team records, including the league's single-season scoring mark of 556 points in 1998.

1/26 - PSINet Inc., the first and largest independent commercial Internet provider, announced a 20-year partnership to develop a global network for the Ravens. Under the agreement, the new facility was named PSINet Stadium.

1/30 - Ravens executive vice president of player personnel Ozzie Newsome was selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, along with Lawrence Taylor, Eric Dickerson, Tom Mack and Billy Shaw. Newsome was the NFL's all-time leading TE in pass receptions until Shannon Sharpe eclipsed Ozzie Newsome's record in 2001.

9/12 - Brian Billick's debut as head coach was spoiled in the regular season opener, as St. Louis defeated the Ravens, 27-10, in the TransWorld Dome. QB Kurt Warner had his first NFL start.

12/26 - The Ravens recorded their first-ever shutout, a 22-0 win over Cincinnati. The victory completed a perfect December and gave the Ravens a franchise-high eight victories. Five players (LB Peter Boulware, LB Ray Lewis, DE Michael McCrary, T Jonathan Ogden and S Rod Woodson) were named to the Pro Bowl. The Ravens' defense finished second in the NFL, and in the team's 6-3 finish, Baltimore outscored opponents, 324-277.

2/22 - The Ravens signed seven-time Pro Bowl TE Shannon Sharpe, an unrestricted free agent who had starred for 10 years with the Denver Broncos. Sharpe caught 552 passes for 6,983 yards and 44 TDs for Denver.

3/27 - NFL owners approved the sale of 49% of the Ravens to Anne Arundel County (MD) business executive Steve Bisciotti. In it, Bisciotti had an option to purchase the remaining 51% for $325 million in 2004.

Sept. - The Ravens opened the 2000 season with a 16-0 win at Pittsburgh in their last visit to Three Rivers Stadium on 9/3. They won three of their first four games, including a dramatic 39-36 win over Jacksonville (their first win over the Jaguars) and a 37-0 shutout over Cincinnati.

Oct. - Baltimore finished October at 2-3, and did not score a TD during the month. Trent Dilfer replaced Tony Banks at QB on 10/29 vs Pittsburgh.

Nov./Dec. - Baltimore won its final seven regular season games with a combined score of 193-63. On 11/26, Earnest Byner was the first inductee to the Ravens' Ring of Honor (Ravens won 44-7 vs. Cleveland). On 12/10, Art Modell was honored in pre-game ceremonies for his 40 years of ownership. That day, the Ravens' earned their first playoff berth, defeating San Diego, 24-3.

12/24 - The Ravens' defense set a 16-game record by allowing only 165 total points. Baltimore also set an NFL record by allowing only 970 yards rushing. The Ravens finished 12-4 after beating the New York Jets, 34-20, on Christmas Eve. Rookie RB Jamal Lewis rushed for a team record 1,364 yards in 2000.

12/31 - The Ravens defeated the Denver Broncos, 21-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff game at PSINet Stadium, the first home playoff game in Baltimore since 1977. Jamal Lewis rushed for 110 yards on 30 carries and scored twice, while the defense allowed Denver's rushing attack only 42 yards on the ground.

1/2 - LB Ray Lewis won NFL Defensive MVP honors from the Associated Press.

1/7 - The Ravens scored 14 fourth-quarter points to defeat Tennessee, 24-10, at Adelphia Coliseum to advance to the AFC Championship. The go-ahead TD was a 90-yard return by Anthony Mitchell off a blocked FG; then Ray Lewis scored on a 50-yard INT return to seal the win.

1/14 - The Ravens traveled to Oakland and defeated the Raiders, 16-3, in the AFC Championship game to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. TE Shannon Sharpe scored on an NFL postseason record 96-yard pass from Trent Dilfer. The Ravens limited the Raiders to 24 rushing yards.

1/28 - The Ravens defeated the New York Giants, 34-7, to capture their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXV, played at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, FL. Ray Lewis was named Super Bowl MVP and only Ron Dixon's 97-yard KOR for a TD averted a shutout against the Giants. A Super Bowl record was set when three TDs were scored in a span of 36 seconds, including Duane Starks' 49-yard INT return and Jermaine Lewis' 84-yard KOR.

LB Ray Lewis was named Super Bowl MVP after the Ravens' win (34-7) over the New York Giants.

1/30 - Over 200,000 people turned out on a cold, rainy day to attend the Baltimore Ravens' Victory Parade.

July/Aug. - The Ravens opened training camp as defending World Champions with the entire nation watching, as HBO's Hard Knocks: Training Camp With the Baltimore Ravens debuted with the Ravens as the featured team.

9/9 - The Ravens won their 12th consecutive game and second consecutive opener with a 17-6 win over the Chicago Bears at PSINet Stadium. On 9/11, the World Trade Center collapsed and the Pentagon was hit, following terrorist attacks.

10/21 - Matt Stover broke the NFL record for most consecutive games with a FG, snapping Fred Cox's old mark of 31, when he booted two three-pointers in a 24-14 loss to the Browns at Cleveland Browns Stadium. Stover's streak ended at 38 games with a FGA on 12/16 vs. Pittsburgh.

11/18 - TE Shannon Sharpe became the NFL's all-time leading pass-catching TE (surpassing Ravens executive VP and GM Ozzie Newsome's mark of 662), when Sharpe caught a 29-yard pass on the fifth play of the game vs. the Cleveland

Browns. He finished the 2001 season with 692 career receptions for 8,604 yards, both all-time NFL highs for a TE.

12/2 - S Rod Woodson set an NFL record by returning a Peyton Manning INT 47 yards for a TD, his 10th career TD on an INT return, in a 39-27 win over Indy. Woodson's TD snapped a tie with Ken Houston (nine career INTs for TDs).

12/23 - Corey Dillon of the Bengals rushed for 127 yards, snapping the Ravens' streak of 50 games (including playoffs) of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, the longest streak since the 1989-1992 Eagles had a 53-game streak. The Ravens scored their third consecutive home shutout over the Bengals (16-0), the first time in 24 years (1975-77, Oakland over San Diego) that a team had three straight home shutouts over the same opponent.

1/2 - Six Ravens from the 2001 season were selected to play in the Pro Bowl, tying the team mark set in 1998. Selected were LB Ray Lewis, T Jonathan Ogden, DT Sam Adams, RS Jermaine Lewis, TE Shannon Sharpe and S Rod Woodson.

1/7 - The Ravens played a postponed regular season game against Minnesota at Ravens Stadium and defeated the Vikings, 19-3, allowing Baltimore to advance to the playoffs. The game had been scheduled for Monday, 9/17, but was re-scheduled because of the 9/11 terrorist attack on the United States. The victory gave the Ravens a 10-6 record and clinched a Wild Card spot as the AFC's fifth seed. LB Peter Boulware set a team record with four sacks vs. the Vikings to finish as the AFC's leading sacker with 15.

1/13 - The Baltimore Ravens traveled to Miami and defeated the Dolphins, 20-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff game. Baltimore set a playoff team record with 226 rushing yards on 50 carries. The Ravens became the first team in NFL history to win its first five playoff games. Only Joe Gibbs, who won his first six playoff games, surpassed Brian Billick's mark of five (tied with Tom Flores).

1/20 - After five consecutive playoff wins (including the Super Bowl run in 2000), the Ravens were stopped at Heinz Field with a 27-10 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Steelers jumped to a 20-0 first-half lead and stifled Baltimore's offense. Baltimore's only TD came when RS Jermaine Lewis set an NFL playoff record with an 88-yard punt return for a score in the third quarter.

5/15 - The Ravens and McDaniel College (formerly Western Maryland College) announced a three-year contract extension to keep Ravens training camp in Westminster, MD through the 2004 season.

9/8 - With the youngest team in NFL history (19 first-year players), the Ravens dropped their first two games at Carolina (10-7) and at home (9/15) vs. the Buccaneers (25-0). A moving tribute was paid to Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas prior to the game, and QB Chris Redman, a close friend and admirer, wore black hightops in honor of his hero. Johnny Unitas passed away on 9/11.

9/30 - Chris McAlister ran into the NFL record books against Denver. With one second remaining in the first half, Broncos K Jason Elam's FGA was short. McAlister caught it in the end zone and returned it 107 yards for a TD – the then-longest play of any kind in league history. The previous record was 106 yards (3 KORs), last accomplished by Roy Green in 1979. Baltimore won 34-23. S Ed Reed blocked the first punt in Ravens history, leading to the Ravens' second TD of the second quarter against the Broncos.

10/20 - Johnny Unitas and seven of his Hall of Fame Colts teammates were enshrined into the Ring of Honor at Ravens Stadium in front of a sellout crowd of 69,173 fans. Enshrined with Unitas were: WR Raymond Berry, RB Lenny Moore, DT Art Donovan, DE Gino Marchetti, TE John Mackey, OT Jim Parker and LB Ted Hendricks. A bronze statue of Unitas' likeness was sculpted by local Baltimore artist Frederick Kail and dedicated at Gate A, newly named Unitas Plaza. In a joint effort, the Baltimore Ravens, Art Modell, the Steve Bisciotti family and others commissioned the project.

12/29 - The Ravens lost their final game of the season at Pittsburgh (34-31) in a heart-breaking nailbiter. Hopes of a playoff berth ended, and the Ravens finished with a 7-9 record. Three Ravens players traveled to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Peter Boulware and 1st-timer TE Todd Heap.

Jan./Feb. - Ozzie Newsome was named the NFL's first minority general manager. The Executive VP and GM promoted three members of his staff: Phil Savage, player personnel director; George Kokinis, pro personnel director; Eric DeCosta, college scouting director. Former Bears Hall of Fame LB Mike Singletary launched his coaching career when he was hired by the Ravens as LB coach. Art Modell entered his 43rd (and final) year in the NFL as a franchise owner.

5/6 - Ravens Stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium in a press conference held at the stadium. The 15-year $75-million agreement included naming rights, as well as, jointly administered community-based programs. The then 147-year old M&T Bank was headquartered in Buffalo, NY.

9/2 - The average age of the Ravens was only 25.8 years at roster cutdown. Baltimore had 11 first- and second-year players on the roster; seven rookies and 11 second-year veterans. The average years of experience was just four. The Ravens were the third youngest team in the NFL (Cleveland, 24.8 and Chicago, 25.3).

9/14 - Baltimore rolled over the Cleveland Browns, 33-13, at M&T Bank Stadium. In that home opener, RB Jamal Lewis broke a then-NFL record with 295 yards rushing on 30 carries and two TDs – nailing for 82 yards. In the game at Cleveland (12/21), Lewis rushed for 205 yards, setting the NFL mark for rushing yards in a season vs. the same team – 500 yards.

12/18 - A team-record eight players were voted to the Pro Bowl (most in NFL, tied with the Chiefs): LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed, LB Peter Boulware, T Jonathan Ogden, TE Todd Heap, RB Jamal Lewis, CB Chris McAlister and LB/Special Teamer Adalious Thomas.

12/26 - Art Modell was inducted into the Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium at the final game of the season, a 13-10 OT win over Pittsburgh. Baltimore finished 10-6, winning its first-ever AFC North Division title.

12/31 - Jamal Lewis and Ray Lewis were named the Associated Press NFL Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, respectively, while LB Terrell Suggs was named AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

1/3 - The Ravens lost, 20-17, to the Titans in the AFC Wild Card game at M&T Bank Stadium on Gary Anderson's game-winning kick (46-yard FG), with 29 seconds remaining.

2/4 - Jim Fassel, former head coach of the NY Giants, was named senior consultant/offense for the Baltimore Ravens. It marked the first time two Super Bowl head coaches (Brian Billick the other) were on the same team.

4/9 - The NFL approved Ravens new owner Steve Bisciotti's purchase of the club.

The NFL approved Ravens new owner Steve Bisciotti's purchase of the club in April of 2004.

4/13 - Ravens and McDaniel College extended their partnership six years to keep training camp in Westminster through 2010. The deal includes installation of Sportex Momentum Turf on the college's main athletic field with both parties sharing costs.

10/4 - Former Ravens Pro Bowler DE Michael McCrary, who retired in 2002, was inducted into the Smyth Jewelers Ring of Honor at halftime of the Ravens' Monday Night ABC contest vs. KC. The Chiefs won, 27-24.

10/15 - Ravens moved into their new 200,000-sq. ft. training facility in Owings Mills, MD during the bye week. The new state-of-the-art headquarters is home to 200 Ravens employees.

12/22 - Five Ravens were named to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden (eighth), LB Ray Lewis (seventh), S Ed Reed (second), CB Chris McAlister (second) and LB Terrell Suggs (first).

1/2 - Finishing the 2004 season with a 9-7 record, the Ravens fell one game short of the playoffs. Baltimore produced a 6-2 mark at M&T Bank Stadium and a 3-5 record on the road. Injuries caused regular starters to miss 53 games, including the entire season for Pro Bowl LB Peter Boulware. Other Pro Bowlers who missed considerable time included: TE Todd Heap (10), RB Jamal Lewis (four), LT Jonathan Ogden (four), and CB Deion Sanders (seven). C Mike Flynn missed the first seven games.

1/07 - S Ed Reed was named the 2004 NFL Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press, becoming the second Raven in as many years to win the award. LB Ray Lewis won the award twice (2000, 2003).

1/12 - Jim Fassel and Rex Ryan (1/20) were promoted to offensive and defensive coordinators, respectively. Clarence Brooks (formerly with Miami) replaced Rex Ryan as D-line coach. Chris Foerster (former Miami offensive coordinator) was named offensive line/assistant head coach. Rick Neuheisel was named QB coach. Fassel's son, John, was hired as an offensive assistant.

1/1 - Baltimore finished 2005 with a disappointing 6-10 record, going 6-2 at home and netting zero wins on the road. The 67 games lost to injured starters were third most in the NFL, with 10 games to Ray Lewis (thigh), six to Ed Reed (ankle) and seven to Kyle Boller (toe). Season highlights included two national games, a 48-3 win over Green Bay (12/19) and a 30-23 win against Minnesota (12/25) on Christmas night that knocked the Vikings out of the playoffs. One of the victories was a 16-13 OT win over the eventual Super Bowl Champion Steelers. T Jonathan Ogden was selected to his ninth-straight Pro Bowl appearance.

6/8 - Three-time Pro Bowler and 2003 co-MVP QB Steve McNair joined the Ravens in a trade with Tennessee in exchange for a 2007 Baltimore draft pick. McNair would go on to start at QB for the Ravens in 2006, and he became just the third player in NFL history to throw for 30,000 career passing yards and 3,500 rushing yards. He joined Hall of Famers Fran Tarkenton and Steve Young in that group.

9/10 - Baltimore shut out Tampa Bay (27-0) in the opener at Raymond James Stadium and posted a second shutout versus Pittsburgh (also 27-0) on Nov. 26.

10/16 - Head coach Brian Billick took over coordinating the offense after the Ravens lost two in a row, falling to 4-2. Baltimore won five straight games and four out of the last five contests on the season.

11/5 - Former LB Peter Boulware was inducted into the Smyth Jewelers Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium in an emotional halftime ceremony. In addition to family and former teammates, he was joined by Steve Bisciotti and Art Modell (Ravens owner and former owner). Peter's younger brother Michael, a Seahawks' safety, spoke in personal terms to his brother in a pre-recorded message that was shown on the Smartvision video boards. Boulware, genuinely moved, spoke to the crowd of 69,143 Ravens fans. Baltimore defeated Cincinnati, 26-20, and carried a 6-2 record into the second half of the season.

12/22 - Three Ravens were named as starters in the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Adalius Thomas and S Ed Reed. CB Chris McAlister and LB Terrell Suggs received Pro Bowl nods as reserves. LB Ray Lewis and QB Steve McNair were named as backups, but were replaced [because of injuries] with LB Bart Scott and the Titans' QB Vince Young, respectively.

12/24 - For the first time in Ravens history, Baltimore swept AFC North rival Pittsburgh at Heinz Field, 31-7, after posting an earlier shutout on Nov. 26, 27-0, at M&T Bank Stadium. The Ravens' defense dominated Pittsburgh in both games, sacking QB Ben Roethlisberger 14 times and intercepting him four.

12/31 - The Ravens finished 13-3, earning the AFC North Division title and a bye week prior to the AFC Divisional Playoffs. The Ravens' No. 1-ranked defense was elite: first in points allowed (201, including just 64 [9.1 per game] in the final seven games - 26 teams allowed 300 or more points for season); first in total defense

In 2006, Baltimore swept the Steelers, 27-0 (M&T Bank Stadium) and 31-7 at Heinz Field, for a 58-7 point differential. LB Bart Scott posted 1.5 sacks on QB Ben Roethlisberger.

(264.1 yards); first in red zone (33.3% TDs allowed); fewest third downs converted (28.8%) and fewest first downs permitted (236); first in takeaways/giveaways (+17) and second in takeaways (40 to Chicago's 44); first in INTs (28, including five for TDs); and second in sacks (60 to San Diego's 61). The offense led the NFL in time of possession (32:49) and sack ratio (+43); the 17 sacks allowed was a franchise record and second in the NFL to the Colts' 15.

1/13 - In a Divisional Playoff game that provided great angst for Baltimore's loyal fans, the Ravens were on the wrong side of a 15-6 decision vs. Indianapolis. Not a single TD was scored in this kicking contest between Baltimore's Matt Stover and the Colts' Adam Vinatieri.

1/17 - Head coach Brian Billick signed a new four-year contract with the Ravens. Defensive coordinator Rex Ryan signed a new two-year deal with the team.

12/18 - T Jonathan Ogden was named to his 11th-straight Pro Bowl, along with LB Ray Lewis (ninth), S Ed Reed (fourth) and RB Willis McGahee (first).

12/31 - Prompted by a dismal 5-11 season in 2007, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti, president Dick Cass and GM Ozzie Newsome held a press conference announcing the decision to relieve head coach Brian Billick and his staff of their coaching duties. Despite an injury report that would have paralyzed most teams, the Ravens never quit. In 2007, the number of games missed by starters was 77, up from just 24 in 2006. By the final gun, the Ravens had started three different QBs, including rookie Troy Smith. Baltimore had 12 rookies and one first-year player on the roster, which (13) was the third-most in the NFL to close the year. Baltimore started six different rookies, tying four teams for second most in the NFL. Smith posted only one win versus the AFC North, a 27-21 nailbiter vs. Pittsburgh on 12/30.

1/19 - Steve Bisciotti hired his first – and just the third head coach in Ravens history – John Harbaugh – former special teams/defensive backs coach for the Philadelphia Eagles under Andy Reid. Harbaugh's special teams ranked in the top 10 of special teams rankings every year from 2000-06, including two first-place finishes. From 2000-06, no team had a higher overall ranking (attribution: Dallas Morning News). Harbaugh was originally hired by Ray Rhodes in 1997 and was then retained by Reid.

1/23 - Cam Cameron, head coach of the Dolphins in 2007, was hired to be the Ravens' new offensive coordinator by John Harbaugh.

1/28 - Rex Ryan was retained as defensive coordinator and also named the team's assistant head coach by John Harbaugh.

4/17 - QB Steve McNair retired from football after a 13-year NFL career.

6/12 - T Jonathan Ogden retired after a 12-year NFL career.

9/7 - John Harbaugh won his first game as an NFL head coach with a 17-10 victory over Cincinnati in Week 1 at M&T Bank Stadium. A pair of rookie players started the game on offense: QB Joe Flacco and RB Ray Rice.

9/14 - The Ravens' bye week was unexpectedly moved to Week 2 after Hurricane Ike ravaged Texas' Gulf Coast area and forced the postponement of Baltimore's game at Houston until Week 10. Due to this schedule change, Baltimore would play 18 consecutive games, including three in the playoffs, before the season concluded.

10/26 - Longtime Ravens T Jonathan Ogden was inducted into the Ravens' Symth Jewelers Ring of Honor just four months after his retirement from football.

12/20 - In the last NFL game to ever be played at the Cowboys' historic Texas Stadium, the Ravens defeated Dallas, 33-24, with FB Le'Ron McClain recording the longest run in Texas Stadium history with a career-long 82-yard TD scamper.

12/28 - With a Wild Card playoff spot on the line, Baltimore closed out the regular season with a 9-2 record to earn a No. 6 seed in the postseason. The Ravens beat Jacksonville in the season finale, 27-7, to earn their fifth-ever postseason appearance. After starting the year 2-3, the Ravens rallied to end the regular season with an 11-5 record to earn second place in the AFC North and a Wild Card Playoff berth. The 11 regular season wins set an NFL record for the most by a rookie QB (Joe Flacco) and a first-year head coach (John Harbaugh) tandem. Including the playoffs, Harbaugh and Flacco ended 2008 with 13 wins, a new NFL rookie standard.

1/4 - In the Wild Card game at Miami, the Ravens' four INTs off Dolphins QB Chad Pennington (who threw only seven during the regular season) tied for the most in team playoff history. S Ed Reed stole two from Pennington, returning the first pick 64 yards for a TD.

1/10 - The Ravens defeated the top-seeded Tennessee Titans at LP Field, getting Flacco his second playoff win – the most for a rookie QB in NFL history. A last-minute field goal by K Matt Stover gave Baltimore the 13-10 advantage.

1/18 - In the AFC Championship, Baltimore suffered a narrow 23-14 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in a hard-hitting defensive battle, ending the Ravens' playoff run. John Harbaugh solidified himself as one of 12 first-year head coaches in the Super Bowl era to lead his team to the conference championship game.

The Ravens finished the season No. 2 in the NFL with 19 players on IR, the most in team history. According to Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, Baltimore lost 64 games by starters.

Baltimore's defense concluded the season ranked No. 2 in the NFL. In addition to not allowing a 100-yard rusher for the second-straight season (an NFL-best 35 games dating back to 2006), they set three team records: opponent QB rating (60.6), rushing TDs allowed (four) and rushing first downs allowed (58). A league-high nine INTs by S Ed Reed contributed to the team's NFL top-ranked status for INTs with 26.

1/21 - Rex Ryan, Baltimore's defensive coordinator from 2005-08 and a member of the coaching staff since 1999, was hired by the New York Jets as their head coach.

1/26 - Having served as LBs coach in 2008, Greg Mattison was named the Ravens' new defensive coordinator. Also, special teams coordinator Jerry Rosburg earned the title of assistant head coach.

2/8 - The Baltimore coaching staff led the AFC squad in the Pro Bowl. Five Ravens were voted into the All-Star game for the 2008 season, including ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (third), LB Ray Lewis (10th), FB Le'Ron McClain (first), S Ed Reed (fifth) and LB Terrell Suggs (third).

The all-time alphabetical roster (above) lists the last-known jersey number worn by a player. The above roster includes every year a player was on the team, whether active, IR, PUP list, et al. Additionally, if a player was on the Ravens' 53-man roster at any time, he appears on this list.

The all-time numerical roster on the following pages lists all of the jersey numbers worn by a Raven. An example would be NT Kelly Gregg, who has worn both 73 and 97 jerseys.

Ravens DT Haloti Ngata returns an INT during his rookie year (2006). Entering 2009, he has 3 picks in his career.

10 LARGEST RAVENS CROWDS

The Ravens played in Memorial Stadium from 1996-1997 and PSINet Stadium from 1998-2001. In 2002, the facility was known as Ravens Stadium. In 2003, the Ravens entered a partnership, and the stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium. (Capacity was increased in 2007 to 71,008 from previous listings of 70,107 and 69,084.)

ABBREVIATION CHART

To the media: In an effort to make the Baltimore Ravens Fan and Media Guide reader friendly, "to green" the book, to lessen the total weight of the book and reduce the number of pages, we adopted some non-traditional methods. We abbreviated certain football terms and used numbers in our player bios and charts instead of spelling out numerical words, including numbers 1-9.

100 HARD TO COME BY

Baltimore's defense, which in 2008 ranked No. 3 against the run (81.4 ypg), enters 2009 owning the NFL's longest current streak of not allowing a 100-yard rusher. The Ravens have not permitted a RB to hit the century mark in 35 games:

LONGEST STREAK / NOT ALLOWING 100-YARD RUSHER (Current NFL Streaks Entering 2009)

RK. TEAM	GAMES STREAK	LAST 100 (DATE)	YARDS
1. Baltimore	35	Larry Johnson (12/10/06)	120
2. Minnesota	23	Ryan Grant (11/11/07)	119
3. Pittsburgh	18	Fred Taylor (12/16/07)	147

Quick Hit:

Entering 2009, the Ravens have only allowed 2 100-yard backs in their last 52 games (Larry Johnson on 12/10/06 & Travis Henry on 11/12/06).

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

M&T Bank Stadium – without a doubt – is where NFL excitement begins on any given Sunday. Ravens home games and M&T Bank Stadium have become synonymous with winning.

Since winning the Super Bowl in 2000, the Ravens have presented a daunting home record for opponents, 52-20, entering 2009.

Located at the south point of Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium stands as the crowning jewel of NFL sports facilities. Fans – proud of their Baltimore heritage – enjoy the latest technology, including state-of-the-art SMARTVISION video screens. Combined with exclusive amenities, the game's excitement gives fans, friends and families an opportunity to enjoy the day together. With a capacity of 71,008, this impressive structure is the home of the Ravens and draws its distinctive design from the best of Baltimore's architecture.

Completed in 1998 at a cost of $220 million, the stadium has 128 suites and 8,196 club seats. HOK architects designed both Oriole Park and the Ravens' home at Camden Yards. The latter was completed in less than two years and funded through a combination of proceeds generated from debt service paid by lottery proceeds, the sale of tax-exempt revenue bonds, and the Ravens.

QUICK STADIUM FACTS

- M&T Bank Stadium is 185 ft. high, 35 ft. above Oriole Park
- The two SMARTVISION video screens, located in each end zone, generate 16 million colors
- M&T Bank Stadium has featured other events since it opened in 1998:
 - ACC Lacrosse Tournaments - 2005-06
 - Army-Navy Football - 2000, 2007
 - Baltimore Bayhawks Lacrosse - 2002 season
 - HFStivals - 1998, 2005
 - Maryland vs. Georgia Tech Game - 1998
 - Maryland vs. Navy Game - 2005
 - Morgan State Football - 1998-2000
 - Navy vs. Notre Dame Game - 2002, 2006, 2008
 - Salisbury vs. Frostburg Game - 1999
 - NCAA Lacrosse Championships - 2003-04, 2007
 - Calvert Hall-Loyola & City-Poly Games - 1998-2008
 - MPSSAA* State HS Football Championships - 2003-08
 - Kenny Chesney Concert - 2008
 - NCAA Lacrosse Kickoff Classic - 2009
 - Chelsea vs. AC Milan International Soccer Match - 2009

*Maryland Public Secondary Schools Athletic Association

VIDEO SCREENS:

- The two SMARTVISION video screens, located in each end zone, measuring 100 ft. x 24 ft., are two of the largest permanent computer-operated video display screens in the NFL.
- A staff of 25-plus people operate the screens from a central control room located on the press level. Some of the dynamic features of the screens include, arguably, the best graphics and game action video in the league, plus network pre-game shows, live game highlights from around the NFL, instant replays, scores, statistics, plus player updates and features.
- Each screen can be divided into as many as 16 different pictures, augmented by over 1,894 custom-built speakers that produce crystal-quality sound and dynamic, breathtaking special effects.
- Providing even more information to fans are LED boards (800 linear feet) surrounding the field.

SIGHTLINES:

- Front row seating in the lower level is six feet above the playing field, high enough to eliminate any issue with obstructed views. In addition, the front row is only a short distance of 50 feet from the playing field sidelines and 20 feet from the back of the end zones.
- The distinctive upper seating area includes open notches in each corner of the stadium, allowing scenic views of Baltimore.

SEATING:

- With a seating capacity of 71,008, M&T Bank Stadium is substantially larger than its sister baseball ballpark to the north. At 1.6 million square feet, it is nearly double Oriole Park's size. Seating for the disabled is located on every level.
- The 8,196 club seats at M&T Bank Stadium offer extra-wide comfort, plus VIP parking, access to the club lounges serving specialty foods, fully-staffed bars, concierge services and scenic views of downtown Baltimore.
- Each of the 128 suites at M&T Bank Stadium hold between 20-24 people and features three televisions, a private restroom, VIP parking and personal waitstaff service. Many other amenities are available to suite holders.

AMENITIES:

- Extra-wide concourses (44-64 ft.) allow easier fan movement. Seven public elevators, numerous ramps and two escalators (to club level) assist the fan traffic.
- There are 55 concessions stands in the upper, lower and club levels with delicious game day fare, including some of Baltimore's signature favorites.
- Club Level decor features a historical perspective of football in Baltimore highlighting great games, teams and players from the area's rich football history.

M&T BANK STADIUM HIGHLIGHTS

TRANSPORTATION AND STADIUM SITE:

- Located at 1101 Russell Street, M&T Bank Stadium is surrounded on all sides by the following elevated roadways: I-95 and the Hamburg St. bridge to the north; I-95 and I-395 (plus Light Rail line) to the east; the Ostend St. bridge to the south; and the Russell St. viaduct to the west.

- Fans can easily access M&T Bank Stadium using mass transit. The Light Rail has a drop-off point located directly outside of Gate B.

- Parking in stadium lots, managed by Central Parking Systems, (410) 347-9330, is limited to permit holders, but city lots are also available for game-day parking, just a short walk away.

- Tailgating fans are welcomed at M&T Bank Stadium. Fans may tailgate in all of the lots in the complex. For complete Tailgate Lot parking information, call the Ravens' Ticket Office at (410) 261-RAVE (7283).

- In October of 2002, following the passing of legendary Colts' quarterback Johnny Unitas, the Ravens named the area near Gate A Unitas Plaza. A statue sculpted by local artist Frederick Kail was commissioned by a grassroots group that included donations from the Steve Bisciotti family, the Art Modell family, the Baltimore Orioles and numerous others. One of the signature elements of the bronze work is the famous black high tops – John's favorite football shoe. Many Ravens fans touch the left shoe of the statue for good luck prior to every home game.

- Unitas Plaza is a great picture-taking area for Baltimoreans and vacationers. Original PSL season ticket holders also have the opportunity to locate their names etched in one of two PSL Walls of Honor. These names are a tribute to the great Ravens' football fans who have supported the team that brought Baltimore and the State of Maryland the NFL World Championship with Super Bowl XXXV.

Ravens Team Stores offer fans all of the latest Ravens merchandise (modeled by DT Dwan Edwards and his family) and are conveniently located throughout M&T Bank Stadium. ATMs are available on the club, upper and lower concourses.

GAME DAY

MASCOT POE

The game-day experience at M&T Bank Stadium is designed to offer Ravens fans a festive and colorful atmosphere providing a variety of entertainment and excitement. And it wouldn't be complete without the Ravens' mischievous mascot, Poe. If you would like to book Poe to fly into your next function, please visit www.baltimoreravens.com/mascots.

BALTIMORE'S MARCHING RAVENS

Over 230 musicians and flagline performers comprise Baltimore's Marching Ravens. John Ziemann directed the Colts' Marching Band, which evolved into the current Ravens' musical performers. BMR is deeply involved in charitable causes and raises funds to help support the Baltimore community. For information on scheduling these dynamic performers, call John Ziemann at (410) 557-8335. For more information, visit www.baltimoreravens.com/band.

RAVENS CHEERLEADERS

The Ravens' cheerleading squad has 21 members on the dance team and 36 members on the stunt team. The cheerleading squad is the only NFL team with both a dance and stunt team. Ravens cheerleaders are in our community helping the team raise funds for charities and foundations in the Baltimore area. Scheduling an appearance for your next event is easy: visit www.baltimoreravens.com/cheerleaders.

LIVE RAVENS

As much as we love Poe, we have two members of the Ravens' family who actually belong to the species, Rise and Conquer. The two birds live at the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore and can be visited by fans. Fans also have an opportunity to see the birds appear at home games and a number of different Ravens events throughout the calendar year. For more information, visit www.baltimoreravens.com/mascots.

HISTORY

GAME DAY

On May 6, 2003, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens announced their partnership, which included a 15-year, $75 million agreement with naming rights to the Ravens' home field, M&T Bank Stadium, as well as several important community-based programs that are jointly administered.

At the announcement, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti said: "We knew from the onset that we did not want a company that wasn't established and without a great track record. There were other banks that we were calling about naming rights, because that was the category we wanted to fill, but the timing was perfect [with M&T] because they were coming in to a new market [Maryland]."

M&T Bank's long history began in western New York, but the company has expanded throughout the East Coast. There are more than 700 branches in the Mid-Atlantic, including Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania. The bank was founded 153 years ago and is one of the 20 largest commercial bank corporations in the nation.

The partnership is deeply rooted in the idea of community service. M&T Bank became the lead sponsor of the Ravens All Community Team, which unites the Ravens with Baltimore's business leaders to support our community in meaningful ways. This support includes fundraising, volunteerism and involvement in projects that meet some of its most pressing needs.

"M&T Bank's relationship with the Ravens goes far beyond our name on the stadium," said Mark Czarnecki, president of M&T Bank. "M&T and the Ravens have become community partners, working together to strengthen communities through a variety of initiatives. Employees from the two organizations work side-by-side as volunteers renovating homes, distributing food to the hungry and building neighborhood playgrounds. M&T Bank is proud to be the official bank of the Ravens, and we're proud to be part of the fabric of the community."

M&T Bank also sponsors Honor Rows, a program that provides game tickets to youth service organizations and the nationally-renowned Baltimore's Marching Ravens. For more information about this community service, log on to baltimore Ravens.com.

The Ravens training camp is located at McDaniel College in Westminster, MD. This is the Ravens' 14th summer-training session at the campus. McDaniel College is a private liberal arts and sciences college with an enrollment of 1,600 students. MDC is located 30 minutes from the Ravens' Owings Mills practice facility and 50 minutes from downtown Baltimore. Training camp practice information is updated daily via recorded message at (410) 261-RAVE (7283) and on the team's Web site: www.baltimoreravens.com, where fans may get both the latest practice schedule and the weather. Practice dates and times are subject to change.

"The Ravens have partnered with McDaniel College since 1996, and we truly enjoy our relationship with the Westminster community. Our plan is to keep our training camp at McDaniel."

— Steve Bisciotti,
Ravens Owner

Note to Media: A workroom with wireless capability is available at the Best Western Hotel in Westminster (410) 857-1900. Players and coaches are available for interviews after morning practices, usually at 11:00 am. Contact Chad Steele at Chad.Steele@Ravens.nfl.net for 2009 training camp credentials.

Practices are free and open to the public with times and conditions subject to change. All fans and media are reminded to check the latest practice information by calling (410) 261-RAVE or by logging on to www.baltimoreravens.com.

Joe Flacco (above) and Ray Lewis (below) are two of the many players and coaches who spend countless hours throughout camp signing autographs for fans. Most players will sign items until they have to leave for meetings, media interviews or weightlifting sessions. Fans should call in advance of driving out to camp to check for updates on weather and practice times.

Ed Reed signs autographs at Training Camp.

DIRECTIONS FROM BALTIMORE VIA I-695:

Take Exit 19 to I-795 N. Follow the signs to Westminster via Route 140 W.

FOR FANS: Follow 140 West to Rte. 31 South; at the flashing traffic light turn left; then at the first traffic light, take another left on to Main St. Proceed up the hill; enter the Visitor Parking Lot on the left.

Ravens games can be heard on 98 Rock WIYY and WBAL 1090 AM and on 12 regional affiliates (listed below). This network broadcasts each Ravens game live and reaches from York, PA to Washington, D.C. Gerry Sandusky, WBAL-TV 11 sports director, gives the play-by-play and serves as the executive producer for the broadcast team of Sandusky, Rob Burnett and Stan White. Burnett, a member of the Ravens' 2000 Super Bowl XXXV team, provides on-field experience and knowledgeable insight on defensive plays, players and situations. White, a former NFL standout for the Baltimore Colts, fills the role on the offensive side of the ball, adding his comments and analysis of offensive strategies.

RAVE-TV, the Ravens' Emmy award-winning broadcasting group (16 Emmys), produces daily programming Monday through Friday during the football season.

1 WINNING DRIVE (7 AND 10:30 PM MONDAY ON MASN)

Gives fans an inside look at Sunday's game with exclusive RAVE-TV video and audio from the bench, the sidelines and locker room, plus a player-guest to talk about Sunday's game.

THE JOHN HARBAUGH SHOW (10:30 PM TUESDAY ON MASN)

Gives it to you straight with the head coach's insight and perspective, answering fans calls on air.

RAVENS REPORT (7 AND 10:30 PM WEDNESDAY ON MASN)

Offers an insider's look, featuring edge-of-your-seat Ravens action, access to the team, dynamic Ravens star players, coaches, and a closer look at game strategy.

RAVENS GAME PLAN (7 AND 10:30 PM THURSDAY ON MASN)

Is a chalkboard-style, coach's Xs and Os show featuring coordinators Greg Mattison (defense) and Cam Cameron (offense).

PURPLE PASSION (7 PM FRIDAY ON MASN)

Keith Mills and a host of former Ravens players, including Jonathan Ogden, Mike Flynn, Qadry Ismail and Kyle Richardson, reconnect fans with Ravens alumni. The show also gets fans ready for the football weekend ahead.

MASN POST-GAME SHOW features live post-game press conferences and live interviews with Ravens players and coaches. Reporters Amber Theoharis and Mark Viviano are live from the stadium.

RAVENS KICKOFF, a half-hour (preseason) pre-game show, airs 30 minutes before kickoffs on WBAL-TV and MASN. This show is a Ravens' fan's best friend. Learn about game-time information with pre-game updates and live interviews before Ravens preseason games.

RAVENS PRESEASON GAME telecasts air on WBAL-TV. The games are simulcast on WBAL-TV, WBAL Radio and on 98 Rock (WIYY) FM. The unique simulcast features the Ravens radio team of Gerry Sandusky, Stan White and Rob Burnett offering play-by-play and color commentary. The games are produced by the Ravens' Don DiRaddo and directed by Chris Glass.

EMMY AWARDS

In June, RAVE-TV was honored at the 51st annual NATAS dinner in Washington, D.C. with another Emmy award.

In its short 13-year history, Rave-TV owns 16 Emmys. all presented to the team's Broadcasting Department.

Ravens Report was honored for Outstanding Achievement in Sports Programming/Feature. Larry Rosen, Don DiRaddo, Matt Brevet, Jay O'Brien and Eddie Coughlan were presented with the award for a feature where RAVE-TV followed LB Antwan Barnes around his childhood home and his former college campus at Florida International University during the 2008 offseason.
