STEVE BISCIOTTI

OWNER

COLLEGE: SALISBURY STATE UNIVERSITY
BORN: 4/10/60, PHILADELPHIA, PA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 22/22

Steve Bisciotti wants consistency. His goal is to have the Ravens in the playoff hunt every season, avoiding dips that plague some franchises.

The Ravens are one of only four teams (New England – 11, Green Bay – 10, Baltimore – 9 and Seattle – 9) to earn at least nine postseason berths in the last 13 years (2008-20), with Baltimore winning at least one game in seven of those nine playoff campaigns. Additionally, during this span, the Ravens have compiled the second-most postseason victories (11, tied with Green Bay), trailing only New England (16).

Baltimore has also captured playoff berths in 10 of the last 15 years, and during John Harbaugh's tenure, has advanced to three AFC Championship games (2012, 2011 and 2008), winning Super Bowl XLVII in 2012.

"We're proud of what we're giving to Baltimore," Bisciotti says. "You have to make the playoffs to have the opportunity to compete for championships, and championships are our goal. We want to be a consistent winner that avoids big lulls and not being in the playoffs for any length of time."

Under Bisciotti, the Ravens have joined an elite group: They are one of 14 NFL teams with multiple Super Bowl victories. Six franchises have won one title. Eight others have earned a berth in the game and lost, while four teams have never advanced to the Super Bowl. More importantly, with the Super Bowl XLVII Championship, the Ravens (two) joined the Patriots (six) and the Buccaneers, Giants and Steelers (two each) as the only teams that have won more than one NFL title since the turn of the century in 2000.

The passionate Bisciotti, who at 61 is the fourth-youngest owner in the NFL (Kansas City's Clark Hunt, 56, Arizona's Michael Bidwill, 56 and Washington's Daniel Snyder, 56), bought a minority interest in the Ravens from Art Modell in 2000, completing the purchase of the franchise on April 9, 2004. Steve's initial investment to the team provided funds to secure free agents for the 2000 Super Bowl XXXV Championship team. Today, his influence in the NFL continues to rise. He served for several years on two important ownership committees: Broadcast and Digital Media.

When Bisciotti, now in his 22nd year as an owner of the Ravens, hired Harbaugh as the team's head coach in January of 2008, some eyebrows were raised. Harbaugh had never been a head coach at any level. In fact, he had not been an offensive or defensive coordinator in the NFL. It was obviously the right choice. Along with the Super Bowl XLVII victory during the 2012 season, Baltimore advanced to the playoffs in its first five years with Harbaugh, who is the only modern-day (since 1970) head coach to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons. He is also the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons, while his 11 playoff victories rank as the fourth most ever by a head coach in the first 13 seasons of an NFL coaching career.

"We all saw something in John. And, you have to be willing to separate yourself from the masses – take some chances – to achieve great success," Bisciotti says of Harbaugh, who in 2019 was named NFL Coach of the Year after guiding Baltimore to a 14-2 record. "There's probably a little bit more perception that we took a risk with John. We don't think we did."

Since taking over as the Ravens' full owner, Bisciotti's teams have earned the playoffs 10 times, including the AFC's No. 1 seed in 2019 with a franchise-record 14-2 mark and second-straight AFC North title. His 2004 (9-7), 2013 (8-8) and 2017 (9-7) teams missed the playoffs by just one game. Baltimore has also captured five division crowns under his leadership.

Born in Philadelphia on April 10, 1960, Bisciotti moved with his family to Baltimore (Severna Park) in March of 1961 when Steve, the youngest of three children, was 11 months old. His father, Bernard, took the children to Orioles and Colts games.

QUOTE THE RAVEN: STEVE BISCIOTTI

"My responsibilities are not only to my family and the people who work for the Ravens. There are over a million stakeholders in the Baltimore area who we have an obligation to. They're the fans who invest more than three hours on Sunday to watch, listen to or attend our games. That's a big difference from owning a non-sports company."

– Steve Bisciotti on owning the Ravens

"What really strikes me about Steve is his loyalty to the friends he's had forever. A lot of people, when they become very successful like Steve, they move on. His friends are the same ones he grew up with. That's one of his strengths."

– Longtime Maryland basketball coach Gary Williams on Steve Bisciotti

"[Steve] is a great leader. The players love him. They love when he's around. He's an inspiration to all of our guys, to me, to this organization. He sets the tone here. It's a great organization because of his vision."

– John Harbaugh on Steve Bisciotti

STEVE BISCIOTTI

MOST SUPER BOWL TITLES SINCE 2000 SEASON

Titles	Team	Seasons
6	New England Patriots	2001, '03, '04, '14, '16, '18
2	Baltimore Ravens	2000, 2012
2	New York Giants	2007, 2011
2	Pittsburgh Steelers	2005, 2008
2	Tampa Bay Buccaneers	2002, 2020

Sadly, Bernard died of leukemia when Steve was 8. His mother, Patricia, a huge Ravens fan, then raised the children.

After graduating from Salisbury (MD) State University in 1982 with a degree in liberal arts, Bisciotti worked in the temporary help industry. In 1983 (at age 23), he started Aerotek with his cousin, Jim Davis. They offered aerospace and technology companies access to skilled temporary employees.

Aerotek grew into the Allegis Group, which currently is the largest staffing firm in the United States and the largest privately-held talent management firm in the world. The company – which is headquartered just outside Baltimore and has offices throughout North America, Europe and Asia Pacific – has over 15,000 internal employees and over 130,000 contract workers. Allegis Group places employees in positions from engineers, to computer programmers, accountants and attorneys.

Before purchasing the Ravens, Bisciotti's business success was not well known to the general public on a national level, or even notable in the Baltimore area, where he and his partners kept a low profile. "I'm OK if I'm one of the least known owners in pro sports," Bisciotti says.

Steve, an energetic visionary, is quietly dedicated to a number of important causes and projects, some associated with his deep Catholic faith. He is a board member for Catholic Charities and created The Stephen and Renee Bisciotti Foundation. Most of Bisciotti's extensive charity work and generous giving are done without public notice, although, in 2020, it was announced that the Foundation and the Ravens combined to donate $5 million to assist vital programs supported by Catholic Charities from more than 200 locations in Baltimore City and nine Maryland counties.

In August of 2020, the Foundation and the Ravens also jointly distributed $1 million to support social justice reform in Baltimore, with a committee of current and former Ravens players determining the 28 programs chosen to receive funds from the contribution.

Additionally, at the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, Steve and Renee's foundation and the Ravens combined to donate $1 million to support four non-profit organizations – the Fund for Educational Excellence, the United Way of Central Maryland, the Baltimore Community Foundation and the Maryland Food Bank – in their efforts to combat the public health crisis.

In June 2021, Steve and his wife, Renee, announced they would honor Ozzie Newsome – the Ravens' longtime personnel executive and Pro Football Hall of Famer – by making a $4 million gift in his name to Maryland's Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). Through their Foundation, the $4 million donation will create the Ozzie Newsome Scholars Program, which will fund scholarships for Baltimore City Public Schools graduates who attend an HBCU in Maryland.

Bisciotti enjoys golfing and boating. He and his wife, Renee (Foote), are the parents of two sons: Jason and Jack, both of whom reside with their families in the Baltimore area.

(Bisciotti is pronounced: bih-SHAH-tee.)

PRAISE FOR BISCIOTTI

CBS Sports on Steve Bisciotti: "Steve Bisciotti doesn't make himself a huge part of the story, but the decision to hire coach John Harbaugh in 2008 has worked out pretty well. According to Forbes, the team has doubled in worth since Bisciotti became owner, but he also understands how to raise morale."

Sports Illustrated on Bisciotti: "Bisciotti has become beloved in Baltimore as the local kid who made good and has turned the Ravens into one of the best-managed franchises in the NFL. He has become the epitome of the young, engaged owner who goes about his business the right way and puts a perennial winner on the field."

Longtime NFL writer Rick Gosselin on Bisciotti becoming one of the most influential NFL owners: "I think the obvious guy, if he wants that platform, is Steve Bisciotti with the Ravens. That's a model franchise. They win. They have continuity. They aren't making knee-jerk reactions, firing coaches right and left. They're probably one of the three or four model franchises in the NFL today. Now, he's a quiet guy, but if he wanted to have a voice and be a player in league matters, I think he's the guy that has the greatest opportunity to do it." (via The Athletic, July, 2020)

QUOTE THE RAVEN: STEVE BISCIOTTI

"I remember going to a couple of Colts games every season with my dad or mom and brother (Mike) and sister (Cathy Thomas). We were on the 10-yard line, lower deck. We'd go to O's games, too. My favorite player was Paul Blair, because my brother already claimed Brooks Robinson and would not let me take the same guy. We'd also go to Westminster for Colts training camp. We have pictures with various players, and I have one with me wearing Johnny Unitas' helmet. I would always ask the Colts players if I could wear their helmets."

DICK CASS PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: PRINCETON / YALE LAW SCHOOL
BORN: 1/13/46, WASHINGTON, D.C.
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 18/18

DICK CASS is in his 18th year as president of the Ravens, overseeing every area of the organization, including player and staff personnel, the coaching team, corporate sales, communications and business ventures. In addition to his tenure with the Ravens, Cass has served as counsel to a number of NFL owners, including the Washington Football Team and the Dallas Cowboys, as well as the NFL Office.

"Dick has had involvement with every aspect of an NFL team," Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti said. "His legal expertise, his working knowledge of the business, his relationships at the league office, and the respect he has earned around the league are significant assets for the franchise."

2004-21: (with Baltimore) 2020: With guidance from Cass, the Ravens and The Stephen and Renee Bisciotti Foundation (SRBF) combined to donate $2.85 million to support many organizations—including the Fund for Educational Excellence, the United Way of Central Maryland, the Baltimore Community Foundation, the Maryland Food Bank and the Salvation Army—during the COVID-19 public health crisis...The Ravens and SRBF also jointly distributed $1.45 million to positively impact social justice reform throughout Baltimore...As part of their commitment to seeking out opportunities that support, encourage and defend those who are most in need, since 2017, the Ravens and SRBF have granted $4.65 million to programs working to eliminate injustices that are prevalent in many Maryland communities. 2019: The Ravens produced a franchise-best 14-2 record, with John Harbaugh being named NFL Coach of the Year and QB Lamar Jackson earning league MVP honors...In September, the Ravens teamed up with the United Way of Central Maryland and a variety of charitable organizations for a community-wide day of service—the NFL Huddle for 100 Caw to Action—that featured over 25,000 people who generated 3.3 million minutes of service throughout Maryland. 2018: Spearheaded by Cass, the Ravens franchise and its players donated $500,000 to 11 different Baltimore-area organizations through the team's Social Justice Program...Cass, players and several Ravens executives also met with Maryland senator Ben Cardin to discuss criminal-justice reform. 2017: Led by Cass, the Ravens announced a three-year, approximately $120 million self-funded investment to enhance the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium...Improvements included new 4K ultra-high definition video displays, escalators and elevators to the upper deck, a new sound system, upgraded kitchen facilities and club level enhancements...Ravens also launched a $45 million construction project to upgrade their Owings Mills training facility (the Under Armour Performance Center). 2014: Baltimore reached the playoffs for the sixth time in seven seasons...Ravens completed a two-year, $35 million upgrade at M&T Bank Stadium...The team added 10 years to its stadium naming rights agreement

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: COLBY

BORN: 4/10/71, TAUNTON, MA

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 26/26

ERIC DeCOSTA's loyalty, love and pride for the Baltimore Ravens are unmatched. A pillar of the organization's well-laid foundation, DeCosta has been with the franchise since Day One, first beginning as an intern during the inaugural 1996 season and then ascending to the personnel department's chief decision-maker in 2019.

Prior to being named executive vice president and general manager – succeeding the legendary Ozzie Newsome – DeCosta, 50, received GM interview offers annually from multiple teams in recent years.

However, he never seriously considered leaving Baltimore. Simply put, Eric's respect for – and thorough understanding of – the Ravens' culture aligned perfectly with his pursuit of a dream job.

"I'm the kind of person who appreciates people who stick with things," DeCosta admits. "Even when I think about athletes I've admired, people I've admired, they've had long tenures in different places. But I love this community. My family is from this community. I love the people I work with day to day. Anyone who knows me knows that."

In 2007, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti first approached DeCosta about becoming general manager one day. Years later, they decided Eric would continue to serve as Newsome's top lieutenant through 2018, helping groom him for the GM role and setting up a seamless transition.

"Did I have chances [to leave]? Yes," DeCosta shares. "Did I have a lot? Yes. Did I ever really consider it? Not really, because every time I'd go to bed thinking that maybe I would consider something, I'd wake up and say, 'What are you, crazy? You know you're going to have the job someday that you've dreamed about, so just wait and make it perfect.'"

From an outside perspective, the imminent ascension might have spawned challenges in DeCosta's relationship with Newsome. That was never the case, however, because the duo

"He's an outside-the-box thinker, but his football beliefs are based on substance, history and collected wisdom. He can see the unintended consequences that come with certain big decisions. He'll push the envelope to make sure we're covering all possibilities."

– Ravens EVP Ozzie Newsome on Eric DeCosta

has always had a remarkable connection – one that forged a rare professional partnership and an extraordinary friendship.

"Ozzie basically took a 25-year-old kid who had no experience in the NFL, who was so different from him, and gave me a chance and accepted me," DeCosta says fondly. "He and I have always been very different in a lot of ways, but so aligned. It's a special relationship in my life. I've learned a lot of football, but honestly, just a lot more about being a good person."

A graduate of the Ravens' "20/20 Club," which includes members of the personnel staff who started with the team as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input, DeCosta quickly moved up the ranks. He was first a personnel intern (1996), then area scout (1997-2002), then director of college scouting (2003-08), then director of player personnel (2009-11) and then assistant GM (2012-18).

It became evident early in DeCosta's tenure that he was destined for NFL success. Brimming with passion, resourcefulness, a relentless attitude and an advanced aptitude, he quickly earned his co-workers' respect.

"When Ray Lewis walked into camp his first day, he never really was truly a rookie," Ravens SVP of football operations Pat Moriarty recalls. "He was Ray Lewis, our starting linebacker. [That same year of 1996], I think Eric was never 'Eric the Intern.' He was more than a scout."

Growing up in Taunton, MA, DeCosta set his sights on becoming an NFL GM from the age of 6. His interest first piqued in 1978, when, contrary to many of his friends who were Patriots and Broncos fans, he began to follow the Cowboys.

ERIC DeCOSTA

"I was fascinated by the Cowboys and Tom Landry, Gil Brandt, Tex Schramm – the whole notion of scouting and building a football team," DeCosta states. "Doing things differently than all the other teams did back then really appealed to me."

Throughout much of his upbringing, Eric would study the NFL – particularly the draft – in a detailed manner that continuously amazed friends and family members.

His passion for the game of football was also quite evident on the field. Though, admittedly, he was never the biggest, fastest, smartest or most talented athlete, DeCosta was undoubtedly the hardest worker – someone always seeking ways to make himself better and gain a competitive edge.

While attending Colby College in Maine, the undersized linebacker went on to become a three-year captain and starter. He knew every assignment on the gridiron, holding himself to the highest of standards, all while inspiring teammates to reach new levels.

After graduating from Colby in 1992, DeCosta took part in a graduate coaching fellowship for the football team at Trinity University, where he would also earn a master's in English. But as time passed, he became uncertain about where a coaching path would lead. Looking to maximize his options, Eric applied to law school and prepared to pursue a new career, rather than cling to his football passion.

However, a chance encounter reinvigorated DeCosta's football pursuits in 1995, when he met someone who had completed an internship with Washington's NFL team. Upon learning of such NFL opportunities, Eric immediately sent resumes and letters to all 32 clubs. In response, he received rejection notices from all but one team – Washington – which hired him to serve as a training camp intern.

Thanks to that experience, DeCosta had finally – and successfully – broken into the NFL. The following year (1996), he landed the Ravens' personnel internship during their first-ever season. Coincidentally, he accepted Baltimore's offer the same day he learned that he had been placed on the University of Connecticut Law School waitlist.

"I was willing to take a chance," DeCosta affirms, "because I knew that once I got to Baltimore, I'd do everything to make the most of my opportunity."

The rest, as they say, is history – something bolstered by loyalty, love and pride from a man who helped build an organization, just as much as the organization built him.

1996-2021: (with Baltimore) 2020: The Ravens earned their third-straight playoff berth by posting an 11-5 regular season record...Baltimore's rushing attack finished No. 1 in the NFL (191.9 ypg) and produced the third-most yards (3,071) in a 16-game NFL season...Three players – QB Lamar Jackson (1,005), rookie standout RB J.K. Dobbins (805) & RB Gus Edwards (723) – rushed for over 700 yards each, while Jackson became the first QB in NFL history to surpass the 1,000-yard rushing milestone in multiple seasons...Drafted by DeCosta in the 2020 second round, Dobbins posted a 6.01 ypc average, which ranked No. 1 among all NFL RBs... Baltimore allowed the NFL's second-fewest points (18.9) and seventh-fewest yards (329.8) per game...CB Marlon Humphrey,

"I think the perfect word is seamless. He's had the experience of watching how Ozzie [Newsome] takes over a room – building a consensus, but [knowing] you have to make the final call. Building that strong consensus with great football minds is what has allowed Ozzie to have the success he's had, and I think Eric obviously understands that very well. The Ravens should be in great hands."

JOHN HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: MIAMI (OH)

BORN: 9/23/62, PERRYSBURG, OH

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 24/14

Super Bowl-winning head coach John Harbaugh – the 2019 NFL Coach of the Year – has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in nine (2008-12, 2014 & 2018-20) of his 13 seasons in Baltimore, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second World Championship.

Though he never wants it to be about him, it's impossible to ignore Harbaugh's significant success. Here's a look, entering the 2021 campaign:

- Since his 2008 Baltimore arrival, the Ravens have posted the NFL's fifth-most total victories (140).
- Under Harbaugh, Baltimore is one of four teams (NE, GB & Sea.) to earn the playoffs in nine of the past 13 seasons. The Ravens are also one of four teams (KC, Sea. & NO) to make the postseason in each of the past three seasons (2018-20).
- Harbaugh's 11 playoff victories rank as the fourth most by a head coach in the first 13 seasons of an NFL coaching career (Joe Gibbs – 16, Bill Belichick – 15 & Chuck Noll – 14).
- Harbaugh owns the most road playoff wins (eight) by a head coach in NFL history. Tom Landry (Dal.) and Tom Coughlin (Jax./NYG) are second with seven each.
- The Ravens' 11 playoff wins since 2008 tie (GB) for the NFL's second most (New England, 16). Of those Ravens' victories, an NFL-best eight have come on the road.
- Harbaugh is one of 10 coaches to earn at least nine playoff berths in his first 13 seasons (Tony Dungy – 11; Bud Grant & Marty Schottenheimer – 10; Harbaugh, Pete Carroll, Bill Cowher, Mike Holmgren, Chuck Knox, Mike McCarthy & Andy Reid – nine each).
- The 2012 Ravens won Super Bowl XLVII, 34-31, over the San Francisco 49ers in one of the most dramatic games in NFL history. Baltimore jumped to a 28-6 lead, but needed a critical goal-line stand late in the fourth quarter to help seal the victory. The Ravens overcame a furious second-half comeback and a 34-minute power outage at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans to clinch the franchise's second World Championship.
- Under Harbaugh's guidance, the Ravens have appeared in three AFC Championship games (2008, 2011, 2012) and have won at least one playoff game in seven of their nine postseasons with him as head coach.

- Harbaugh has led the Ravens to 129 regular season wins since 2008, ranking as the NFL's fifth most.
- Harbaugh is the only head coach in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons. He is also the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career.
- John and his younger brother, Jim (2011, 2012 and 2013), the former 49ers' head coach, are the only NFL head coaches to reach three conference championships in the first five seasons of a coaching career.
- With Harbaugh, the Ravens have a 77-27 mark at M&T Bank Stadium over the past 13 seasons, ranking as the NFL's third-best home record during that span (2008-20).
- In 2019, the Ravens posted a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore won a team-record 12-straight games to close out the regular season, also earning the franchise's first-ever No. 1 playoff seed.
- Coach Harbaugh has led the Ravens to four AFC North Division titles (2011-12, 2018-19).

From his job interview with the Ravens, to his first press conference, to his consistent action and talk about Baltimore, it is all about "the team" for Harbaugh. Signs can be seen around the Ravens' complex:

"The Team, The Team, The Team."

Despite his early success, "Harbs" diffuses accolades: "It's about us. It's about the team. It's about the players, the coaches, Steve [Bisciotti], Ozzie [Newsome], Eric [DeCosta] and the scouts. It's about Dick [Cass] and the support staff. It's about all of us pulling together to win – to be the best."

Unlike other NFL head coaches, "Harbs" took the road less traveled. Most NFL field bosses graduate from pro jobs that include the word "coordinator" after "offensive" or "defensive," or they emerge from heading big-time college programs. Before becoming the Ravens' head coach in 2008, John was the Eagles' secondary coach (2007), and prior to that, Philadelphia's special teams coordinator (1998- 2006) and a 14-year collegiate coach. (Harbaugh grew up learning about the game from his father, Jack, a longtime college coach.)

In 1998, then-Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes hired Harbaugh, who quickly established a reputation as one of the NFL's top special teams coaches. Subsequently, he was one of four assistants retained by Andy Reid in 1999.

Prior to hiring Harbaugh, the Ravens talked with over 40 people about the energetic coach. "Did we take a chance by hiring John? My belief is that you have to be willing to do things the masses don't, or you'll never separate yourself from the masses," stated team owner Steve Bisciotti. "We obviously picked the right person."

Simply put, Harbaugh strives to be the best. "We don't want to just win a championship. We want to be a championship team," he stated. "We want to become something. We seek the highest levels."

His teams are balanced, disciplined and hard-nosed. "We want to be the most physical team, but we also want to be the cleanest. Hard-hitting and playing with physicality does not mean dirty," he added.

ADDITIONAL RAVENS NOTES DURING HARBAUGH ERA:

Maintaining a strong defensive tradition during his time in Baltimore (2008-20), Harbaugh's defense has allowed the NFL's fewest scrimmage touchdowns (387), fewest points per game (18.9) and the second-fewest net yards per game (315.4). In 2018, Baltimore produced the NFL's No. 1 defense (292.9 ypg) and the No. 2 scoring defense (17.9 ppg). The Ravens finished four-straight seasons (2008-11) as the NFL's No. 3 scoring defense (fewest points allowed) – tying an NFL record for consecutive seasons ranking in the Top 3. Additionally, from 2014-16, Baltimore's defense was one of three teams (Den. & Sea.) to rank in the NFL's Top 10 in yards allowed each season. Harbaugh's red zone defense has also finished in the Top 5 in seven of his 13 seasons, including first overall in 2011 and second in 2014, 2012 and 2008.

The Ravens' offense has also experienced record-setting success during the Harbaugh Era. In 2019, Baltimore finished No. 1 in the NFL in points (33.2) and rushing yards (206.0) per game, while it was No. 2 in total yards (407.6). In 2019, the Ravens also became the first team ever to average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season. Baltimore set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296 yards), besting the 1978 Patriots' 3,165. Additionally, in 2019, the Ravens set season team records for touchdowns (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296) and first downs (386). This attack was led by unanimous NFL MVP QB Lamar Jackson, who accounted for a league-high 43 total TDs, including a league-best (and franchise-record) 36 passing scores. Jackson also rushed for 1,206 yards, setting a new NFL single-season record by a QB. A year later, in 2020, Baltimore's attack posted the second-most total TDs (55), points (468) and rushing yards (3,071) in franchise history. The 2020 Ravens also produced the NFL's No. 1 rushing attack (191.9 ypg), with their 3,071 rushing yards standing as the third most in a 16-game NFL season. (The Ravens own two of the Top 3 marks.)

Veteran receivers have shined during the Harbaugh Era, with Baltimore witnessing five 1,000-yard receiving seasons – two by WR Derrick Mason (2008-09) and one each by WR Torrey Smith (2013), WR Steve Smith Sr. (2014) and WR Mike Wallace (2016). On the ground, the Ravens have had running backs eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing mark six times under Harbaugh's watch – four by RB Ray Rice (2009-12) and once each by RB Justin Forsett (2014) and RB Mark Ingram (2019). Entering 2021, Baltimore has rushed for 100-plus yards in 39-straight games, marking the second-longest streak in pro football history. Producing a revolutionary rushing attack the past several seasons, the Ravens have rushed for an NFL-high 8,808 yards (183.5 ypg) since QB Lamar Jackson's rookie season (2018).

On special teams, an impressive six Ravens have earned 12 combined Pro Bowl honors while playing for Harbaugh: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013, 2016 & 2019-20), LS Morgan Cox (2015-16 & 2019-20) and P Sam Koch (2015). A byproduct of the Ravens consistently producing one of the NFL's top special teams units during Harbaugh's tenure, senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin ranked the Ravens in the Top 6 of his annual comprehensive ratings system in seven-consecutive seasons (2012-18). (This includes a No. 1 ranking in 2015.)

NFL ASSISTANT COACH: 1998-2007 (with Philadelphia)

Harbaugh's special teams in Philadelphia were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. From 2000-05, the Eagles' units finished in the Top 10 in five of those seasons in The Dallas Morning News' special teams rankings. In 2001 and

"What separates John from a lot of different coaches is that he watches every player. He has a tremendous work ethic, he has a passion for it, and he works well [with the scouts]. He has tremendous credibility with the scouts because they know he's done the work. That's what I love; that's a joy. He has a strong opinion, but it's always backed up by the tape and by what he wants on this team, and the scouts and coaches always respect that."

– EVP & GM Eric DeCosta on John's involvement with the draft process

JOHN HARBAUGH

"I like the message that John brings. He doesn't talk like a guy who has been here for over 10 years. It's amazing how he tends to rejuvenate himself and his message, and we're lucky to have a leader like him."

– Ravens Owner Steve Bisciotti

2003, Philly ranked No. 1, according to senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin's composite (includes 22 kicking-game categories).

Following the 2001 season, Harbaugh was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was also named The Dallas Morning News Special Teams Coach of the Year that season. In just four seasons (1998-2001), Harbaugh elevated the Eagles' special teams from 29th to first in the NFL.

In 1999, the Eagles signed K David Akers, who had been working as a part-time waiter after brief kicking stints with Carolina, Atlanta and Washington. With Harbaugh's help, Akers became a three-time Pro Bowler. Harbaugh also worked with P Dirk Johnson, another "street" free agent, helping him record the then-Top 2 punting averages (38.4 in 2005 and 37.4 in 2004) in Eagles history. Under "Harbs," 15 Eagles earned Special Teams Player of the Week awards, while snapper Mike Bartrum was named to the Pro Bowl, and RS Reno Mahe led the NFL with a 12.8-yard punt return average in 2005.

COLLEGE COACHING CAREER: Among John's 37 years of coaching is a two-year stint (1995-96) as the assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati, finishing 6-5 both seasons with the Bearcats. He coached 10 years on offense and four on defense at the collegiate level, launching his coaching career in 1984 at age 21 as a graduate assistant for his father at Western Michigan. In his second position at the University of Pittsburgh (1987), he was mentored by the legendary Sid Gillman, a Pro Football Hall of Famer. John also coached the tight ends at Pitt under head coach Mike Gottfried. While at Cincinnati (1989-96), Harbaugh coached special teams, tight ends, outside linebackers, running backs and was the recruiting coordinator.

Over eight years, Harbaugh recruited 27 starters for the Bearcats and tutored both the NCAA's top return man (former Raven Robert Tate, 34.3 KOR average in 1995) and the second-ranked returner (current Ravens pass defense coordinator Chris Hewitt, 31.5 KOR average in 1993). John was part of a staff that helped Cincinnati produce three out of four winning seasons (1993, 1995-96) for the first time in 20 years.

"Harbs" also coached one season at Indiana in 1997 as the defensive backs coach/special teams coordinator, under former Ravens offensive coordinator Cam Cameron, and one year at Morehead State in 1988 as the defensive backs coach/special teams and strength and conditioning coordinator.

COACHING HONORS: Leading the 2019 Ravens to a franchise-record 14-2 season and No. 1 seed in the playoffs, Harbaugh was named The Associated Press and PFWA NFL Coach of the Year. He was also named AFC Coach of the Year by the NFL 101 Awards and "Greasy" Neale Pro Coach of the Year (Maxwell Football Club) in 2019. In April 2014, Harbaugh was inducted into Miami (OH) University's "Cradle of Coaches Association" and was immortalized with an on-campus statue (see below). Harbaugh's statue joins existing Cradle of Coaches statues for Earl "Red" Blaik, Paul Brown, Carm Cozza, Paul Dietzel, Weeb Ewbank, Ara Parseghian, John Pont and Bo Schembechler. The Cradle of Coaches honors Miami graduates who have earned recognition as national collegiate or professional Coaches of the Year, who have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame or the Pro Football Hall of Fame, or whose teams won national collegiate or professional/Super Bowl championships.

HARBAUGH COACHING FAMILY: Harbaugh is from a football family. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran who won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA football championship as the head coach at Western Kentucky. His younger brother, Jim, who was the Ravens' starting QB in 1998, played 14 seasons in the NFL and was the San Francisco 49ers' head coach from 2011-14. (The University of Michigan hired Jim as its head football coach following the 2014 NFL campaign.) In a showdown that featured the first-ever NFL game between

HARBAUGH IMMORTALIZED WITH STATUE AT ALMA MATER

In April 2014, Harbaugh was inducted into Miami (OH) University's "Cradle of Coaches Association" and was immortalized with an on-campus statue.

"I don't think you can even express what something like this means. I've been trying to figure it out," Harbaugh said. "There's nothing like Miami. There's nothing like being back here. Words can't describe my gratitude for being part of this."

The cross-country visit from Jim (then head coach of the 49ers) was a surprise: "There have been a lot of proud moments, but I've never been more proud of [John] than I am today," Jim said. "I always prided myself on being the tallest Harbaugh, but that all changed today when they unveiled that statue."

COLLEGE: Harbaugh earned a degree in political science at Miami (OH), where he won the Football Scholar Athlete Award as a defensive back for the Redhawks. He earned his master's in physical education at Western Michigan.

PERSONAL: Devoted to his family and his Christian faith, John is most active in helping the Baltimore area be better for families. He earned the 2011 "Power of Excellence Award" from the (Ben) Carson Scholars for "demonstrating excellence in life and being a role model." He served on the board of the Port Discovery Children's Museum and is a contributor to numerous Baltimore-area events and charities. Also a willing volunteer, his wife, Ingrid, contributes to both the Helping Up Mission and Sarah's House. In 2020, the couple made significant donations to help fund the distribution of meals to healthcare workers serving on the frontlines of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Harbaugh is an advocate of the U.S. Military. The NFL awarded him its 2013 Salute to Service Award, acknowledging exceptional efforts by those in the league who honor and support military members. (Harbaugh was also a finalist for the award in 2011.) In 2012, Army Chief of Staff General Raymond Odierno presented him with the Outstanding Civilian Service Award. Harbaugh has also visited numerous military installations, including bases in the Persian Gulf as part of the inaugural NFL USO Coaches Tour (2009), the Naval Special Warfare Center in Coronado, Calif., (2011), Andrews Air Force Base – just two days after the capture of Osama Bin Laden (2011) – and undisclosed locations in Turkey and Afghanistan.

In 2008, Harbaugh also helped institute Military Appreciation Day, an annual event that takes place during Ravens training camp. Since its establishment, over 10,000 service members have enjoyed preferred seating and opportunities to meet Ravens players and coaches. Once the season begins, Harbaugh then invites wounded warriors to be his guests at every Ravens home game. In 2017, he donated New Era hats to soldiers in Afghanistan. The hats represented all four of the major professional sports leagues and several from the NCAA as well. Additionally, he has purchased school supplies for children whose parents are serving in the military and has sent care packages to troops overseas.

A history buff, Harbaugh has taken the Ravens to Gettysburg, Pa., during offseason team activities to learn about the Civil War. Near the end of the 2017 training camp, he surprised the entire team by cancelling practice on two occasions, loading everyone on buses to visit The Pentagon and Arlington National Cemetery and another day visit to the National Museum of African American History and Culture in Washington, D.C. The trips were opportunities for players, coaches and staff to receive behind-the-scenes tours of the historic locations and show appreciation for what each represents.

John attended Pioneer (Ann Arbor, MI) HS, where he and brother, Jim, were inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2016. John and Ingrid have a daughter, Alison, who is a sophomore lacrosse player at the University of Notre Dame.

General Raymond Odierno, then-Chief of Staff of the Army, presented John Harbaugh with an Outstanding Civilian Service Award at Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall, VA, on May 23, 2012.

DON MARTINDALE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: DEFIANCE COLLEGE
BORN: 5/19/63, DAYTON, OH
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 17/10

DON "WINK" MARTINDALE is in his fourth season leading the Ravens' defense, which has continued its long-standing tradition of excellence by ranking consistently among the league's best defensive units. In 2020, Martindale's unit allowed the NFL's second-fewest points (18.9) and seventh-fewest yards (329.8) per game. Since Martindale was named defensive coordinator (2018), Baltimore has produced an NFL-best 12 defensive TDs (tied LAR) and has permitted both the league's fewest points per game (18.2) and total yards per game (307.8). Over the last three seasons (2018-20), Baltimore also leads the league in number of players to record a sack (33) and second-half points allowed (401), while ranking No. 2 in both fourth-down stops (41) and opponent QB rating (81.9). Martindale's 2019 group achieved a strong No. 4 ranking (300.6 ypg), helping the team to a franchise-best 14-2 record and second-straight AFC North Division title. The Ravens' 6 defensive TDs tied (with '06 and '08) for the second most in franchise history (2004 – 7) and also tied (TB) for the most in the NFL in 2019. After guiding his unit to a No. 1-overall ranking (allowed 292.9 ypg) in his first season as coordinator (2018), Martindale was recognized by Sports Illustrated/MMQB as the Assistant Coach of the Year and was the AP NFL runner-up (Bears DC Vic Fangio) for the same award. Baltimore established a modern-era mark by not allowing a second-half touchdown in the first six games of 2018. (The last team to do so was the 1934 Detroit Lions.) Baltimore was also among the best in other key defensive categories in 2018, including ranking third in third-down defense (34.1), fourth in rushing yards allowed (82.9 ypg) and fifth in passing yards permitted (210.0 ypg). The Ravens' 80.6 defensive passer rating stood second, only behind the Bears' 72.9 mark. Initially joining the Ravens in 2012, Martindale guided and helped grow a number of standout Ravens linebackers, most notably former ILB C.J. Mosley, who developed into one of the league's top linebackers, earning a lucrative contract with the New York

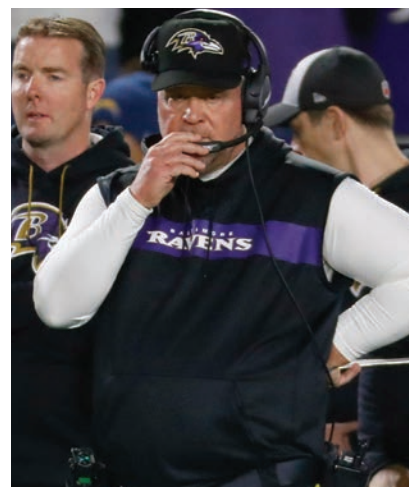

Jets in 2019. In 2017, the Ravens led the NFL in INTs (22), takeaways (34) and shutouts (3 – the most in a season since the 2003 Patriots). COLLEGE: JOHN CARROLL

BORN: 8/19/72, ATLANTIC CITY, NJ

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 24/7

GREG ROMAN is in his third season as the Ravens' offensive coordinator. Under Roman's leadership, Baltimore's rushing attack has been superb. In 2020, the Ravens' run game finished No. 1 in the NFL (191.9 ypg) for the second-straight season and produced the third-most yards (3,071) in a 16-game NFL season. (The Ravens own two of the Top 3 marks, setting the single-season rushing record in 2019 with 3,296.) Entering 2021, Baltimore has rushed for 100+ yards in 39-straight games, posting the second-longest streak in pro football history. Since 2018, the Ravens have averaged the most rushing yards per game (183.5) and scored the most ground TDs (64) in the NFL. The Ravens' 24 rushing TDs in 2020 set a new single-season franchise record. In his first season at the helm (2019), Roman led Baltimore's attack to record-setting heights, ultimately earning him NFL Assistant Coach of the Year honors. The "revolutionary" Ravens posted the best offensive season in team history, helping Baltimore to a franchise-best 14-2 record. Led by 2019 unanimous NFL MVP QB Lamar Jackson, the Ravens ranked No. 1 in points (33.2) and rushing yards (206.0) per game, while they finished No. 2 in total yards (407.6). The Ravens set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296), besting the 1978 Patriots (3,165). Baltimore became the first team ever to average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season. The 2019 Ravens also set season team records for TDs (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296), first downs (386) and fewest turnovers (15). tying a single-season team record (Ray Rice, 2011) and ranking fourth overall in the NFL. In 2018, Roman coached a young group of tight ends, all of whom played a role in the team's offense. Rookie Andrews (third-round draft pick) ranked No. 1 among rookie NFL tight ends in receiving yards (552) and No. 3 in receptions (34). In Roman's first season (2017) back with the team, the offense made significant strides, particularly in the latter part of the year. Following that season, Roman was promoted to assistant head coach/tight ends coach. Since his first term in Baltimore (2006-07), Roman became a successful NFL offensive coordinator both in San Francisco (2011-14) and Buffalo (2015-16). BOBBY ENGRAM

TIGHT ENDS COACH

COLLEGE: PENN STATE

BORN: 1/7/73, CAMDEN, SC

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 23/8 (14 PLAYING, 9 COACHING)

BOBBY ENGRAM, who enjoyed a 14-year NFL playing career, is in his eighth season with the Ravens and his third as the team's tight ends coach. Engram spent his first five seasons in Baltimore guiding the wide receivers. In 2020, the Ravens' offense continued to flourish, scoring the NFL's seventh-most points (29.3 ppg) and leading the league in rushing (3,071) for the second-straight season. Standout TE Mark Andrews, who earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl in 2019, tied for the team lead with 58 catches for 701 yards and 7 TDs in 2020, becoming the first TE in Ravens history with multiple seasons of at least 700 receiving yards and 7 receiving TDs. Baltimore suffered a blow when TE Nick Boyle, a crucial member of the Ravens' offensive attack, sustained a season-ending knee injury in Week 10, but Engram coached a combination of players, including versatile Pro Bowl FB Patrick Ricard and free agent TE Eric Tomlinson, to fill the void. In 2019, Ravens tight ends were an integral part of the team's record-setting offense and 14-2 franchise-best season. Andrews, who earned his first Pro Bowl, led the team with 64 receptions, 852 receiving yards and 10 receiving TDs. Boyle and TE Hayden Hurst rounded out the trio that accounted for three of the team's Top 5 receptions leaders. The 2019 Ravens ranked No. 1 in points (33.2) and rushing yards (206.0) per game, while they finished No. 2 in total yards (407.6). The Ravens set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296), besting the 1978 Patriots (3,165). Baltimore also became the first team ever to average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season. The 2019 Ravens also set season team records for TDs (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296), first downs (386) and fewest turnovers (15). In 2018, Baltimore's offense produced a then-franchise-record 5,999 total net yards. In Engram's third year (2016) guiding Baltimore's receivers, Engram's group helped record the second-most net passing yards in team history (4,100), including a franchise-best 4,317 passing yards by QB Joe Flacco. Engram also helped WR Mike Wallace achieve his third-career 1,000-yard campaign (1,017 yards on 72 receptions) in the receiver's first season with the team. WR Steve Smith Sr., in his 16th and final campaign, led the team with 5 TD receptions, adding 70 catches and 799 yards in 2016. Smith Sr. finished his illustrious career ranked seventh on the NFL's all-time receiving yards chart (14,731) and 12th in receptions (1,031). Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Engram's successful NFL playing career spanned 14 seasons (1996-2009) and three teams (Chicago, Seattle and Kansas City). Originally a second-round draft pick by the Bears, Engram played in 176 career games, totaling 650 receptions for 7,751 yards and 35 TDs.

ADDITIONAL COACHING HIGHLIGHTS: In 2015, the Ravens set a single-season record by averaging 266.9 passing yards per game despite several key injuries. In 2014, Engram's corps boasted both a 1,000-yard receiver (Smith Sr.) and a wideout who scored a team-leading 11 TDs (Torrey Smith). The Ravens finished eighth in the NFL in scoring with a then-franchise-record 409 total points (25.6 ppg). The longtime NFL wideout also spent two seasons (2012-13) coaching receivers at the University of Pittsburgh. In his first year with the Panthers, two of Engram's receivers (Mike Shanahan & Devin Street) earned All-Big East honors, the first time in school history the feat had been accomplished in the same season. Both players had the best statistical production of their careers. OZZIE NEWSOME

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: ALABAMA

BORN: 3/16/56, MUSCLE SHOALS, AL

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 44/26 (13 PLAYING / 31 FRONT OFFICE)

OZZIE NEWSOME's legacy is unlike any the game of football has produced. Simply put, "The Wizard" will forever remain in a class of his own.

Flourishing at every point of his football career, Newsome has not just followed a successful path, he has blazed the trail. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV and Super Bowl XLVII championship teams and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American general manager in 2002.

(In 2019, Newsome's longtime top lieutenant, Eric DeCosta, took over as the Ravens' EVP & GM. However, Newsome maintains a significant role within the organization as its executive vice president.)

"If Ozzie wasn't already in the Hall of Fame as a tight end, they would be putting him in as a general manager," Hall of Fame GM Bill Polian stated.

"Ozzie is special as a person," head coach John Harbaugh states. "Obviously, he's great at what he does – that's proven. He's been great at everything that he's done. If you look at his history, he's a Hall of Famer; he's in every Hall of Fame there is, and still counting. For me, it goes beyond that; it goes to who he is as a person – the type of husband he is, the type of father he is, the type of friend he is, confidant, advisor, just all-around good person with a great heart and a strong faith."

Newsome's remarkable football journey began in Leighton, AL, where he first stepped onto the gridiron with the hope of playing college football. That dream turned into a reality when he became a standout at Alabama under Bear Bryant from 1974-77. "Coach Bryant helped me grow up," states Newsome, who has a sideline portrait of the legendary coach and mentor on his office wall. "He pushed me further than I thought I could go, both on and off the field."

In 1978, Cleveland selected Newsome in the first round (23rd overall) of the NFL Draft. Playing 13 years for the Browns, he authored the most productive career for a tight end in the game's history. A three-time Pro Bowler, his 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 TDs stood as NFL records by a TE until Hall of Famer Shannon Sharpe surpassed those marks in 2001 (HOFer Tony Gonzalez now owns the catches and receiving yards marks, while Antonio Gates holds the TDs record).

Following his storied playing days, Ozzie joined Cleveland's front office. His initial non-player position came as an assignment scout in 1991. Two years later, he was promoted to a comprehensive role – assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel. "I had to find out which direction my career would go," Newsome explains. "Art [Modell] gave me the opportunity to work with the coaches, and I enjoyed that. At the same time, I increased my experience with the personnel department and decided that's where I wanted my career to head."

In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel. Although he continued to help on the field, Ozzie provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, Mr. Modell invited Newsome and promoted him to vice president of player personnel. From that point, Ozzie's reputation as a supreme talent assessor grew quickly.

In the Ravens' first-ever draft, Newsome tabbed T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis (fourth and 26th selections, respectively). Combining to produce an amazing 24 Pro Bowl honors, Ogden became the first Ravens' draft choice elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (2013), while Lewis was enshrined in 2018. Fittingly, the duo joined Newsome, who was inducted into the Hall as a Brown in 1999.

Another top Newsome draft pick, S Ed Reed (2002), received a gold jacket in 2019, giving the Ravens three first-ballot Hall of Famers – all selected by "The Wizard."

OZZIE NEWSOME

"He and I have always been very different in a lot of ways, but so aligned. It's a special relationship in my life. I've learned a lot of football, but honestly, just a lot more about being a good person. So, I am extremely happy that Ozzie is going to play such a significant role moving forward for this organization."

– Ravens EVP & GM Eric DeCosta on Ozzie Newsome

Starting with Ogden and Lewis, Newsome consistently compiled impressive draft classes for the Ravens. In the team's first 23 drafts (1996-2018) – all led by Newsome – Baltimore tabbed 24 first-rounders who have earned a total of 65 Pro Bowl honors. And when the Ravens had a high pick, they didn't miss. Of the eight players chosen in the Top 10 by Baltimore, five (Ogden, OLB Peter Boulware, CB Chris McAlister, RB Jamal Lewis, the 2003 NFL Offensive Player of the Year, and OLB Terrell Suggs, the 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year) earned Pro Bowl accolades. Additionally, Baltimore picked in the bottom half of the first round with uncanny success: Lewis was twice named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year; TE Todd Heap (31st) went to two Pro Bowls as a Raven; Reed (24th) was chosen an All-Star nine times and earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2004; QB Joe Flacco (18th) was named Super Bowl XLVII MVP, leading the Ravens to their second World Championship in 2012; LB C.J. Mosley (17th) became the first Ravens rookie to garner Pro Bowl honors following an exceptional 2014 season (and again in 2016-18); and QB Lamar Jackson (32nd) was named just the second-ever unanimous NFL MVP in 2019.

Amazingly, in the Ravens' brief history with Newsome at the helm, he drafted 25 players who earned Pro Bowl honors. When including 2006 Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott, Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker (2013, 2016 & 2019-20), Pro Bowl LS Morgan Cox (2015-16 & 2019-20) and Pro Bowl FB Patrick Ricard (2019-20), who signed as rookie free agents in 2002, 2012, 2010 and 2017, respectively, Baltimore produced 29 homegrown Pro Bowlers under Newsome's leadership.

In addition to his knack for evaluating talent on the field, Ozzie has also mastered the ability to develop and share insight with scouts who work under him. Over time, Newsome developed the Ravens' methodical and disciplined draft process, one that's foundation is laid years in advance. Now led by DeCosta, the "process" includes 25 members of the scouting department, but also has feedback from Ravens coaches. Much of Baltimore's staff has been with the team since the franchise started in 1996 or has graduated from the "20/20 Club," a group that consists of members who began with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. (The term "20/20" refers to hiring "20-year-olds for $20,000." "Actually, the guys started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them," Newsome adds.)

DeCosta and Newsome, who is on the NFL's Competition Committee and the NFL Player Care Foundation Board, encourage all scouts and coaches to have strong opinions, noting specifically that they want to hear what everyone in the room has to say. Because of this philosophy, one of the biggest strengths of the Ravens' personnel team is that "we respect and listen to each other."

"We've been fortunate to have guys who cut their teeth right here in Baltimore, and our methods and philosophies have become engrained," Newsome affirms. "We have had great guys with Phil Savage, 'Shack' [James Harris], George Kokinis, Eric DeCosta and other people who were helping these young scouts along the way. I think that's the secret. It's the way we do things, and the way these guys gravitate to the process of the Baltimore Ravens."

With leadership from Newsome, Baltimore also fosters an environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the "Raven Way," Baltimore creates a synergy that manufactures success among scouts, coaches and players. As a result, the Ravens have had many assistants move on to become or return as head coaches, both on the collegiate and NFL level: Jim Caldwell (Lions), David Culley (Texans), Jack Del Rio (Jaguars/Raiders), Vic Fangio (Broncos), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Thomas Hammock (Northern Illinois), Pat Hill (Fresno State), Hue Jackson

"[Ravens] guys love to play the game, and those are the guys you surround yourself with," states Ryan, who worked with Newsome from 1999-2008. "That's why you have a chance to be successful [in Baltimore]."

UNDER ARMOUR PERFORMANCE CENTER

The Ravens moved into their Owings Mills, MD, training facility in mid-October of 2004. The building, which was named the Under Armour Performance Center in June of 2012, features a brick and stone exterior. The fieldhouse is 83,962 square feet and includes a strength-training area and a full-size indoor practice field. The facility's outdoor practice fields and fieldhouse sit on 32 acres. Almost all of the project's physical construction was provided by Baltimore-area companies and workers.

When the 2016 season concluded, the Ravens launched a $45 million project to upgrade and expand the Under Armour Performance Center. The massive construction undertaking was fully completed in the summer of 2018.

Over an 18-month project, the Ravens demolished the facility's original one-story north wing, which housed much of the organization's business operations. A new two-story wing was constructed, increasing the area from 9,095 square feet to 23,000 square feet. That expansion created more space for the business side while also providing additional room to enhance the football team's facilities, including the players' locker room, team auditorium, position meeting rooms, scouting/coaching offices and cafeteria.

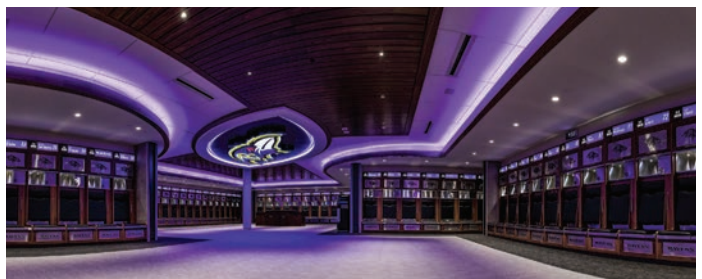

The Ravens have held training camp at their facility since 2011, and part of the recent renovation project included purchasing more land that surrounds the UAPC. The added space is used for parking and allows the organization to safely host nearly 2,000 fans per day during training camp. In all, there are 775 parking spaces at the facility (525 paved and 250 grass spots).

The Under Armour Performance Center's total building measures 232,864 sq. feet.

The Under Armour Performance Center's practice fields and new north wing.

In the spring of 2018, the Ravens renovated player meeting rooms and the team's locker room (new version shown above) as part of the facility's recent overall expansion.

The Under Armour Performance Center's new north wing (middle right) achieved the prestigious LEED Gold level certification, further recognizing the Ravens' commitment/dedication to sustainability and environmental stewardship.

UNDER ARMOUR PERFORMANCE CENTER

The facility includes an updated full-service kitchen/cafeteria, player support functions, basketball and racquetball courts, TV/radio studios, plus state-of-the-art requirements for NFL training. Also included at the facility are executive offices, meeting rooms, three outdoor fields and media areas that offer high-speed Internet capability.

"Everything a team needs to help prepare it to win is available to us. Steve [Bisciotti] delivered a first-class, state-of-the-art training facility and office complex."
– Ravens Executive Vice President Ozzie Newsome

The Ravens' have a world-class weight room and conditioning and recovery center, providing players everything they need to train at peak performance.

The Ravens have three Bermuda grass fields on the grounds of their training complex at the Under Armour Performance Center in Owings Mills.

The Under Armour Performance Center houses a state-of-the-art production studio the team utilizes for in-house digital and TV broadcasting purposes.

The Ravens' indoor facility has a full, 100-yard field made of Shaw Sports Turf that the team uses for offseason training purposes or when the weather becomes inclement.

The mission of the All Community Team (ACT) is to increase corporate and community awareness of the Ravens Foundation, player foundations and associated local charitable organizations. Through a wide variety of activities and events, the ACT makes a positive impact in the Maryland area while strengthening ties between the Ravens, their partners and the community. Title sponsor M&T Bank joins additional Baltimore corporations, as the ACT provides financial and volunteer support to many of the Ravens' community service projects.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

For its 2020 signature project, the Ravens Foundation partnered with KABOOM! to help build a new, child-designed playground for the students of Edgcombe Circle Elementary School in Baltimore City. This is the fifth time the Ravens have teamed up with KABOOM! – the nonprofit organization focused on ending playspace inequity – also building playgrounds at Douglass Homes (2018), German Park (2011), Good Samaritan Hospital Child Development Center (2009) and Collington Square School (2007).

Prior to construction, students from the school took part in a “virtual design day,” where they creatively compiled ideas to execute their dream playground. With the help of the Ravens and KABOOM!, their vision was turned into a reality a few months later.

Although COVID-19 safety precautions prevented Ravens players and staff from participating in the traditional outing in 2020, the team will be able to have a more hands-on involvement for the 2021 project hosted again at Edgcombe Circle Elementary, in addition to Curtis Bay Elementary School.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

MILITARY APPRECIATION

In association with the NFL's Salute to Service Campaign, the Ravens honor veterans and active duty members of the military all year in many ways, including hosting military members at training camp and practices, visiting veteran hospitals, hosting workouts for wounded warriors and paralyzed veterans, hosting deployment reunions at M&T Bank Stadium (right), and showing support through care packages, letters and daily communication. At each home game, the Ravens honor groups that include military representatives, first responders, veterans and/or wounded warriors through the CSX Seats for Service program. Additionally, the team honors active and veteran service members with the Cigna Hometown Hero Award during an in-game presentation.

COVID SUPPORT

The Baltimore Ravens have remained committed to supporting healthcare workers and nonprofits determined to help those in need during the COVID-19 pandemic. Since March of 2020, the Ravens donated over $2.35 million, including substantial donations to the Maryland Food Bank, the Fund for Educational Excellence, the United Way of Central Maryland and the Baltimore Community Foundation. Additionally, the Ravens donated $250,000 to the Baltimore Health Corps, which recruits, trains and employs more than 300 jobless residents to serve as contact tracers. In addition to financial support, the Ravens and M&T Bank Stadium hosted an emergency blood drive, and the stadium served as a COVID-19 mass vaccination site.

YOUTH FOOTBALL & CONCUSSION AWARENESS

Ravens RISE is the team's football outreach program that provides all youth and high school athletes opportunities to "Play Like A Raven." The program offers football clinics and 7-on-7 tournaments throughout the state, Ravens home game ticket donations, monetary donations to area football programs, opportunities to play at M&T Bank Stadium and recognitions including: High School Coach of the Week and Year as well as Team Mom of the Year. To date, there are over 500 youth football programs involved with Ravens RISE throughout the state of Maryland. Interested players, coaches and parents are encouraged to register at www.baltimore Ravens.com/rise and become part of the Ravens RISE youth football movement.

PLAY 60

Each year, the Ravens continue their commitment to promoting healthy and active lifestyles among today's youth through the NFL PLAY 60 campaign. Although the Ravens were unable to host traditional school assemblies in 2020, the team delivered virtual programming through the PLAY 60 Champion, Recipe of the month and instructional fitness activities and insight. Through special partnerships with the American Dairy Association North East, Carroll County Project ACES (Active Children Excel in School) and Baltimore and Howard County Public School Systems, the team annually delivers the PLAY 60 message to more than 125,000 local youth across the Baltimore metro area.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

BRLI

The Baltimore Ravens and T. Rowe Price have partnered once again to facilitate the High School Leadership Institute. In its third year, the program continued its mission to develop and empower high school students to become collaborative leaders and productive members of their communities. The institute works with ADDO, a leadership organization, to encourage students to learn valuable leadership lessons, introduce them to local industry leaders, expose them to leadership insights and equip them with tools needed to make an impactful difference in their communities. The 2020 programming included nearly 100 students from Baltimore County, Baltimore City and other select Baltimore-area high schools who participated in a detailed virtual leadership experience.

PURPLE

Purple is the official Baltimore Ravens club created just for women. The goal of Purple is to provide female Ravens fans a community entirely for themselves and a forum to stay involved with the team and each other through updates, special offers, events and more. Each year, members of Purple participate in the annual A Purple Evening. The capstone event, which traditionally draws over 5,000 female fans to M&T Bank Stadium, features on-field activities, Football 101 sessions, fan forums, autograph and photo stations with nearly 25 Ravens players, including Tyus Bowser (right), and exclusive stadium access. Members of Purple also annually have the opportunity to participate in various female-based events, such as the Purple Wine & Dine, Sip 'N Paint, Purple Poses & Pints and the Purple Away Game Trip.

SOCIAL JUSTICE EFFORTS

Since 2017, the Ravens have donated over $3.2 million to local organizations promoting social justice while encouraging players to be at the forefront of change. In June of 2020, the Ravens and The Stephen and Renee Bisciotti Foundation donated $1 million to support 28 Baltimore-area nonprofits who are committed to social justice reform. In addition to financial support, Ravens players and executives have facilitated discussions with several politicians including Maryland U.S. Senator Ben Cardin and the late Congressman Elijah Cummings. In August of 2020, Ravens players and coaches teamed up to write an impassioned statement advocating for specific systematic changes which they ultimately signed the next day and delivered to then-U.S. Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell.

HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS

Each year, Ravens players and alumni provide thousands of families with support, including food and presents, during the holidays. While 2020 assistance was mainly virtual, Ravens players continued to find new and unique ways to spread holiday cheer across the city. The 2020 food and gift distributions featured the support of more than 12 players, including Anthony Averett, Bradley Bozeman (right), Calais Campbell, Marlon Humphrey, Anthony Levine Sr., Pernell McPhee, Marcus Peters, Jimmy Smith and Ronnie Stanley. In November, the Ravens hosted the 17th Annual Helping Up Mission Coat Giveaway. Although players and coaches were unable to attend in person, the Ravens still made sure they continued the long-standing tradition of donating coats, hats and gloves to homeless men at the treatment center.

He's going to be able to play inside and outside for us. He's been productive every single year he's played. He's been reliable, available, healthy and pretty vibrant when you really look at the production he's had. He does a lot of things well, and that's hard to find. We're really excited about getting him, and I think we'll be able to use him in a lot of different ways."

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- The Ravens won their 14-straight regular season game. Not since Carolina (18-straight during the 2014-15 seasons) has an NFL team won as many regular season games in a row. Baltimore also captured its seventh-straight road victory dating back to 2019.
- Baltimore closed out the win in Houston with 17-straight rushes and held the ball for 9:41 in the fourth quarter.
- With 203 rushing yards (including 186 in the second half), the Ravens surpassed the 200-ground mark for the 26th time under John Harbaugh. Baltimore is 24-2 when tallying at least 200 under "Harbs."
- QB Lamar Jackson reached 2,000 rushing yards for his career, doing so in just 33 games. He became the fastest quarterback ever to reach the 2,000 mark, surpassing Michael Vick's record of 39 games.
- LB L.J. Fort's FR-TD (set up by CB Marlon Humphrey's FF), marked Baltimore's NFL-best 10th defensive TD since the 2018 season.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Kansas City snapped Baltimore's 14-game winning streak in regular season play. Prior to facing the Chiefs, the Ravens had not lost in the regular season since Week 4 of 2019.
- The Ravens finished with a 7.5 yards-per-carry average, which is the third-highest single-game clip in franchise history (8.37 vs. Cle. on 9/14/03 & 7.7 vs. Det. on 12/13/09).
- With 83 rushing yards, QB Lamar Jackson passed Cam Newton for the most rushing yards ever by a QB in his first three NFL seasons: Lamar Jackson – 2,083; Cam Newton – 2,032; Russell Wilson – 1,877; Robert Griffin – 1,480.
- Rookie WR Devin Duvernay produced a 93-yard KOR-TD in the second quarter. It marked the NFL's first KOR-TD of 2020 and was the Ravens' sixth KOR-TD since 2011. Only the Vikings (7) have more KOR-TDs since '11.
- Duvernay became the fifth rookie in Ravens history to return a kickoff for a TD: Patrick Johnson (1998), Yamon Figurs (2007), Lardarius Webb (2009) and David Reed (2010).

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Baltimore last played an OT game on 10/6/19 at Pittsburgh, winning 26-23. Prior to today, the Ravens' last OT loss occurred on 12/9/18, when Baltimore dropped a 27-24 decision at Kansas City.
- Since QB Lamar Jackson became the Ravens' starter in Week 11 of 2018, Baltimore has rushed for at least 100 yards in 33-straight games, marking the third-longest streak in NFL history.
- OLB Tyus Bowser recorded the second INT of his career, returning the theft 25 yards. His play led to a 30-yard K Justin Tucker, giving Baltimore its first points of the game. Bowser's first-career INT occurred in his second-ever NFL game on 9/17/17 vs. Cleveland.
- TE Mark Andrews recorded a season-high 93 receiving yards — including a 31-yard TD — on 5 catches. It marked the fifth time in his career that he's notched at least 90 receiving yards in a game. Andrews has now totaled 19-career receiving TDs, tying WR Torrey Smith for the most by a player who was drafted by the Ravens in his first three NFL seasons.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- This was the first time the Ravens have played on a Tuesday in franchise history, and it marks just the third Tuesday game since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.
- With a season-high 294 rushing yards (the fourth most in franchise history), the Ravens have now rushed for at least 200 yards in an NFL-high 17 games since QB Lamar Jackson became Baltimore's starter in Week 11 of 2018. This is more than double the number of games any other team has accomplished during that span. (Tennessee is second with eight.)
- QB Lamar Jackson finished with 107 passing yards and 94 rushing yards, becoming the first player in NFL history to reach 5,000 passing yards and 2,500 rushing yards in the first three years of a career.
- Rookie ILB Patrick Queen recorded his first-career INT. In doing so, Queen became the NFL's only defender to post at least 50 tackles, 1 TFL, 1 sack, 1 FF, 1 FR, 1 INT and 1 D-TD in 2020.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- QB Lamar Jackson and RB Gus Edwards are the only duo to have 2+ rushing TDs each in the same game in Ravens' franchise history. Edwards recorded his first-career multi-touchdown performance on the ground. Edwards and Jackson are tied for a team-high 6 rushing TDs in 2020.
- The Ravens are 26-3 when tallying at least 200 rushing yards under Coach Harbaugh (2008-20).
- K Justin Tucker now owns 16-career game-winning FGs (15 regular season and 1 playoff).
- CB Marlon Humphrey leads the NFL with 8 FFs in 2020. The 8 FFs are the Ravens' single-season record for forced fumbles (OLB Terrell Suggs had 7 in 2011).
- OLB Tyus Bowser recorded his team-high (tied, Marcus Peters) third interception and the fourth of his career. It marked Bowser's third INT in the Ravens' past four games.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- QB Lamar Jackson has eclipsed 800 rushing yards for the second time (2019) in his career. He joins Michael Vick (2004 & 2006) as the only QBs in NFL history to notch at least 800 rushing yards in multiple seasons. Jackson also became the first QB to rush for 800-plus yards in back-to-back seasons.
- DE Yannick Ngakoue (2 sacks, FF) has recorded 10 games with two or more sacks since 2017, tying for the NFL's third most (Aaron Donald, 13 & Cameron Jordan, 12). He has also registered 18 FFs since entering the league in 2016, marking the NFL's second most during that span (Khalil Mack, 20).
- With his sixth rushing TD, RB J.K. Dobbins tied RB Jamal Lewis (6 in 2000) for the most rushing TDs by a rookie in Ravens franchise history. Dobbins has now rushed for a touchdown in four-straight games, also a Ravens' rookie record (Jamal Lewis, three games, 2000).
- WR Dez Bryant hauled in an 11-yard TD reception in the victory. It marked his first TD reception since 12/10/17 as a member of the Dallas Cowboys.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- With their fifth-straight win, Baltimore clinched a playoff berth for the third-consecutive year and for the ninth time in 13 seasons during the John Harbaugh Era (since 2008).
- With 404 rushing yards, the Ravens set a new single-game franchise record, surpassing their previous single-game high of 343 vs. Cle. (9/14/03). Baltimore's 404 rushing yards are also the fourth most in a game since 1950 and the second most since the 1970 merger.
- Baltimore finished the regular season with the NFL's most rushing yards (3,071) for the second-straight season. Baltimore became just the fourth team since 1970 to rush for over 3,000 yards.
- QB Lamar Jackson became the first/fastest quarterback in NFL history to reach 30 wins in his first 37 starts. He is now 30-7 as a starter.
- RB J.K. Dobbins and RB Gus Edwards each surpassed 700 rushing yards for the season, while Jackson led the team with 1,005. The 2020 Ravens join the 2019 Ravens and 2011 Panthers as the only teams ever with three 700-yard rushers in an NFL season.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Since 2008, John Harbaugh has led Baltimore to eight road postseason wins, the most by a head coach in NFL history (Tom Landry & Tom Coughlin – 7).
- Baltimore's 236 rushing yards marked the most in franchise postseason history, eclipsing its previous high of 234 rushing yards (1/10/10 at NE).
- QB Lamar Jackson won the first postseason contest of his career. Via NFL Research, he joins Dan Marino and Patrick Mahomes as the only players in NFL history to have an MVP and a playoff win by the end of their age-23 season.
- WR Marquise Brown had 7 catches for 109 yards. He has now recorded 235 career postseason receiving yards, the most by a Raven in his first two playoff appearances.
- RB J.K. Dobbins rushed 9 times for 43 yards, including a 4-yard touchdown run. Dobbins, who has now rushed for at least 1 TD in his last seven overall games, joins Jamal Lewis (2000) as the only Ravens' rookie running backs to record a rushing touchdown in the postseason.

HISTORY

JOHN HARBAUGH
2019 NFL COACH OF THE YEAR

An emotionally-charged and thrilling six weeks kicked off the Baltimore Ravens' 2012 campaign. Despite playing their first four games in an 18-day span, the Ravens produced a 5-1 record, marking the best start ever under John Harbaugh. Highlighted by a season-opening victory on Monday Night Football against division foe Cincinnati and an exhilarating, last-second triumph over AFC rival

New England, the Ravens immediately demonstrated the type of heart and resolve that would allow them to conquer anything in an NFL season.

Climbing to 9-2, Baltimore tied (2006) the then-best record to begin a season in franchise history. Following their Bye Week, the battle-tested Ravens won four-straight games – three of which occurred in hostile road clashes. Though a rash of injuries to key contributors left them shorthanded, the Ravens remained relentless and emerged victorious in hard-fought contests at Cleveland and Pittsburgh. Baltimore's grit was never more on display than in Week 12 at San Diego, when Ray Rice converted a fourth-and-29 catch – later voted "NFL Play of the Year" – to send the game into overtime and help capture the comeback win.

While able to secure the AFC North Title with a decisive victory over the New York Giants in Week 16, the Ravens closed out the regular season by dropping four of their last five games. This stretch included three-consecutive defeats – two by three points – to begin December, all against emerging playoff contenders. Many outsiders perceived the run of losses to be Baltimore's late-season demise, but the Ravens felt otherwise. As each wintry week passed, the team's resilient chemistry never faded, nor did its genuine belief that the best was yet to come.

On Wild Card weekend, before a sellout M&T Bank Stadium crowd that celebrated and saluted Ray Lewis in his final home game, Baltimore pummeled the Colts, 24-9, kick-starting an incredible playoff run. Holding Indy without a touchdown, the Ravens' defense was led by Lewis, who returned to action for the first time since tearing his triceps in Week 6.

"I think we're all appreciative, grateful for the opportunity to be here and to witness this historic moment in sports," head coach John Harbaugh said after the win. "And, it wasn't just about one guy [Lewis]. Nobody understands it more than the one guy we're talking about. It was about a team. It was about a city, a fan base, a great sport, about a great career."

Fresh off an emotional victory over Indianapolis, Baltimore traveled to No. 1 seed Denver for a Divisional Playoff bout. Riding an 11-game win streak, the heavily-favored Broncos had beaten the Ravens, 34-17, in Charm City four weeks prior.

But despite its underdog status, Baltimore approached the game with the brazen attitude of a champion. It was a boldness reinforced by strength gained while facing adversity throughout the season. It was also a resiliency the team had developed and a brotherhood that leaders such as Harbaugh, Lewis, Terrell Suggs, Joe Flacco and Rice had cultivated from Day One.

In what became the fourth-longest game (4:11) in NFL history, the Ravens outlasted the Broncos, 38-35, in double OT, producing an electrifying victory-turned instant classic.

LB Ray Lewis emerges from the M&T Bank Stadium tunnel for the final home intro of his career prior to the Wild Card win over Indianapolis (1/6/13).

WR Jacoby Jones secures QB Joe Flacco's deep pass, connecting for a 70-yard TD to send the Divisional Playoff at Denver (1/12/13) into overtime.

As part of 21 unanswered points by Baltimore, WR Anquan Boldin scores a fourth-quarter TD in the 28-13 AFC Championship victory at New England (1/20/13).

Facing third-and-3 with 31 seconds remaining in regulation, Flacco found Jacoby Jones, who had blazed past defenders down the right sideline, to manufacture an improbable 70-yard touchdown bomb. The crowd-silencing connection cut the deficit to 1, with Justin Tucker then quickly tying the game at 35 to force overtime. Near the end of the extra period, Corey Graham intercepted Peyton Manning, ultimately setting up a 47-yard game-winning field goal by Tucker in double OT and sealing the Ravens' 38-35 win.

"Thanks for bearing witness to one of the greatest football games you're ever going to see," stated Harbaugh after the victory, which sent Baltimore to the AFC Championship for a second-straight season and third time in five years. "That football game did the game of football proud."

Next up was an AFC Title bout with the No. 2 seed Patriots, who just 12 months prior had knocked out Baltimore in the exact same setting. Though the Ravens' hearts were battered following the 2011 playoff loss, the defeat served as an influential lesson and a unifying force. It was an outcome that simultaneously marked the bitter end of a poignant journey, but also some inspiration for a determined 2012 Ravens team.

All season long, as they grinded away for a chance to finish what they had started the year before, the Ravens got what they wanted. And this time, they didn't disappoint.

The Patriots, who owned the NFL's No. 1-ranked and highest-scoring offense, were shut out in the second half by a dominant Ravens "D" that found ways to constantly frazzle Tom Brady and pummel his normally-potent attack. In defeating New England, 28-13, Baltimore clinched a berth in Super Bowl XLVII, seizing the franchise's second conference title.

"Congratulations to our players, to our coaches," Harbaugh said. "[Tonight] was about a football team playing really good football in one of the biggest moments that football has to offer, and that's what I am so proud of as a football coach."

On Feb. 3, 2013, the AFC Champion Ravens battled the NFC Champion 49ers in Super Bowl XLVII. It was the first time in NFL history that two brothers, John and Jim Harbaugh, faced each other as head coaches in a championship game.

"We've seen it all this year," Harbaugh stated before the game. "We've had injuries; we've had adversity; we've had exhilaration; we've had great moments. That's what a season is made of. The team that navigates all these things the best, in the end, will be the one true champion."

And in the end, no team navigated its voyage better than the 2012 Ravens. In what would become a timeless NFL masterpiece – one bursting with drama at every turn – Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, becoming the NFL's one true champion.

After taking an early 28-6 lead, the Ravens produced a valiant goal-line stand to clinch their second Super Bowl title. Overcoming a feverish 49ers' second-half comeback and a bizarre 34-minute power outage in the third quarter, Baltimore started fast and finished strong, all while entertaining millions of spectators around the globe.

Spurred by Flacco, who was named the game's MVP after completing 22-of-33 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns, the Ravens capped a remarkable journey – one that will forever live in football lore.

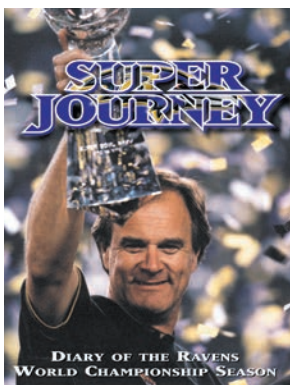

"We've got a lot of resolve. That's why we won the game," stated Harbaugh, who with the victory set an NFL record for most playoff wins (nine) in a head coach's first five seasons. "It wasn't perfect, it wasn't pretty, but it was us."

John Harbaugh hoists the Lombardi Trophy following the Ravens' thrilling 34-31 victory over San Francisco in Super Bowl XLVII (2/3/13).

SUPER BOWL XXXV

The young and brash Baltimore Ravens began the 2000 NFL season talking playoffs and ended the year as World Champions, thanks to one of the most dominant defenses in pro football history.

The Ravens' Super Journey began with an ominous regular season schedule that included five road games in seven weeks. In the middle of it all was a five-game streak without a touchdown.

Thankfully, the drought never divided the team.

The race toward the Lombardi Trophy was not without its hurdles: Ray Lewis rebounded from a trying offseason; Trent Dilfer, now a Raven, returned to Tampa Bay for the Super Bowl; an emotional Jermaine Lewis dedicated a superb performance to the memory of his stillborn son. Still, the team rallied through the season, and it made the hard-fought victory that much sweeter.

The journey was about the coming of age for talented young players like Jamal Lewis, Chris McAlister and Duane Starks. It also belonged to tough veterans like Rod Woodson, Ray Lewis, Rob Burnett, Shannon Sharpe, Matt Stover, Michael McCrary and Jonathan Ogden.

And the journey also belonged to the fans of Baltimore. The fans numbered in the thousands at the downtown sendoff at Harbor Place. Banners and promises hung in the air, and none would be broken.

While the hometown fans would celebrate with seven-straight days of purple pride, the team took off for Tampa for a week of preparation before the ultimate contest. On Sunday, Jan. 28, 2001, the Ravens kept their promise and defeated the New York Giants, 34-7.

Ray Lewis earned Super Bowl XXXV MVP honors, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. The Ravens tied a then-Super Bowl record with four INTs and became only the third team in NFL history to not commit a turnover in a Super Bowl. The most exciting new record? Perhaps three successive scores on three seesaw plays. The back-to-back kickoff returns for TDs were yet another new record.

Following the game, owner Art Modell lifted the Lombardi Trophy in the air and said: "To the people of Baltimore City, Baltimore County and the State of Maryland, this belongs to you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you."

When the Ravens flew home on that beautiful, blue-sky Monday after the Super Bowl, they heard about the parade scheduled in their honor for the next day. The icy downpour that Tuesday phased no one. Hundreds of thousands of fans ignored the rain and cold and waited for their heroes to ride by on Baltimore's crowded city streets.

Later, the entire organization was invited to the White House in June to meet President George W. Bush.

Francine Lubera and Kevin Byrne of the Ravens' public relations office chronicled the run to the Super Bowl in the book "Super Journey: Diary of the Ravens World Championship Season" (above left), published in July of 2001.

He finished the 2001 season with 692 career receptions for 8,604 yards, both then-all-time NFL highs for a TE.

12/2 - S Rod Woodson set an NFL record by returning a Peyton Manning INT 47 yards for a TD, his 10th career TD on an INT return, in a 39-27 win over Indy. Woodson's TD snapped a tie with Ken Houston (nine career INT-TDs).

12/23 - RB Corey Dillon of the Bengals rushed for 127 yards, snapping the Ravens' streak of 50 games (including playoffs) of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, the longest streak since the 1989-1992 Eagles kept a 53-game streak. The Ravens scored their third-consecutive home shutout over the Bengals (16-0), the first time in 24 years (1975-77, Oakland over San Diego) that a team had three straight home shutouts over the same opponent.

The victory gave the Ravens a 10-6 record and clinched a Wild Card spot as the AFC's fifth seed. LB Peter

Boulware set a team record with four sacks vs. the Vikings to finish as the AFC's leading sacker with 15.

1/13 - The Baltimore Ravens traveled to Miami and defeated the Dolphins, 20-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff game. Baltimore set a playoff team record with 226 rushing yards on 50 carries. The Steelers jumped to a 20-0 first-half lead and stifled Baltimore's offense. Baltimore's only TD came when RS Jermaine Lewis set a then NFL playoff record with an 88-yard punt return for a score in the third quarter.

5/15 - The Ravens and McDaniel College (formerly Western Maryland College) announced a three-year contract extension to keep Ravens training camp in Westminster, MD, through the 2004 season.

9/8 - With the youngest team in NFL history (19 first-year players), the Ravens dropped their first two games at Carolina (10-7) and at home (9/15) vs. the Buccaneers (25-0). A moving tribute was paid to Hall of Fame QB Johnny Unitas prior to the game, and QB Chris Redman, a close friend and admirer, wore black hightops in honor of his hero. Johnny Unitas passed away on 9/11.

9/30 - CB Chris McAlister ran into the NFL record books against Denver. With one second remaining in the first half, Broncos K Jason Elam's FGA was short. McAlister caught it in the end zone and returned it 107 yards for a TD – the then-longest play of any kind in league history. The previous record was 106 yards (3 KORs), last accomplished by Roy Green in 1979. Baltimore won 34-23. S Ed Reed blocked the first punt in Ravens history, leading to the Ravens' second TD of the second quarter against the Broncos.

10/20 - QB Johnny Unitas and seven of his Hall of Fame Colts teammates were enshrined into the Ring of Honor at Ravens Stadium in front of a sellout crowd of 69,173 fans. Enshrined with Unitas were: WR Raymond Berry, RB Lenny Moore, DT Art Donovan, DE Gino Marchetti, TE John Mackey, OT Jim Parker and LB Ted Hendricks. A bronze statue of Unitas' likeness was sculpted by local Baltimore artist Frederick Kail and dedicated at Gate A, newly-named Unitas Plaza. In a joint effort, the Baltimore Ravens, Art Modell, the Steve Bisciotti family, and others commissioned the project.

12/29 - The Ravens lost their final game of the season at Pittsburgh (34-31) in a heart-breaking nail-biter. Hopes of a playoff berth ended, as the Ravens finished with a 7-9 record. RAVENS HISTORY including two first-place finishes. From 2000-06, no team had a higher overall ranking (attribution: The Dallas Morning News). Harbaugh was originally hired by Ray Rhodes in 1997 and was then retained by Reid.

The Ravens beat Jacksonville in the season finale, 27-7, to earn their fifth-ever postseason appearance. After starting the year 2-3, the Ravens rallied to end the regular season with an 11-5 record to earn second place in the AFC North and a Wild Card Playoff berth. The 11 regular season wins set an NFL record for the most by a rookie QB (Joe Flacco) and a first-year head coach (John Harbaugh) tandem. Including the playoffs, Harbaugh and Flacco ended 2008 with 13 wins, a new NFL rookie benchmark.

1/4 - In the 27-9 Wild Card win at Miami, the Ravens' 4 INTs off Dolphins QB Chad Pennington (who threw only 7 during the regular season) tied for the most in team playoff history. S Ed Reed stole two from Pennington, returning the first pick 64 yards for a TD.

1/10 - The Ravens defeated the top-seeded Tennessee Titans at LP Field, 13-10, getting Joe Flacco his second playoff win – the most for a rookie QB in NFL history. A last-minute, 43-yard field goal by K Matt Stover gave Baltimore the win.

1/18 - In the AFC Championship, Baltimore suffered a narrow 23-14 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in a hard-hitting defensive battle, ending the Ravens' playoff run. The Ravens finished the season No. 2 in the NFL with 19 players on IR, the most in team history. According to Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, Baltimore lost 64 games by starters.

Baltimore's defense concluded the 2008 season ranked No. 2 in the NFL. In addition to not allowing a 100-yard rusher for the second-straight season (an NFL-best 35 games dating back to 2006), it set three team records: opponent QB rating (60.6), rushing TDs allowed (4) and rushing first downs allowed (58). 1/3 - To cap the 2009 regular season, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09), which ranked third best (tied with Pittsburgh) in the AFC behind Indianapolis (9) and New England (7).

With a 21-13 win at Oakland (1/3), John Harbaugh and Joe Flacco, who set the NFL record for most wins ever (13, including playoffs) by a rookie head coach starting a rookie QB in 2008, achieved the league mark for clinching the playoffs in their first two seasons by such a tandem.

Harbaugh also became the 10th coach since 1990 to reach the playoffs in his first two seasons as a head coach, while Flacco became the fourth starting QB since the 1970 merger to reach the playoffs in his first two NFL seasons.

The Ravens' "D" finished third in the NFL in total yards (300.5)

1/2 - To finish the 2010 season, Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4, but lost the AFC North on the division-record tiebreaker (5-1 to 4-2). Baltimore, Indianapolis (an NFL record nine in a row) and Philadelphia became the only teams to make the playoffs from 2008-10.

The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever clinched the postseason three years in a row.

This was the third year in a row – the best run in team history – that the Ravens finished third in the NFL in fewest points allowed (16.9 ppg). S Ed Reed missed the first six games of the season rehabbing a hip injury, and despite that, still led the NFL with 8 INTs and 183 INT return yards.

Joe Flacco became the third starting QB since the 1970 merger to make the playoffs in his first three seasons, joining Dan Marino and Bernie Kosar. Flacco posted a Ravens' then-season best 93.6 QB rating and established then-career highs with 3,622 yards and 25 TDs. RB Ray Rice bolted for an 83-yard TD run on the first play from scrimmage in the Ravens' Wild Card win over New England during the 2009 playoffs.

one playoff game in each of the last three seasons (2008-10). Harbaugh also became the first head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons (2008-10).

In the victory, the Ravens set then-franchise playoff single-game records for the following offensive marks: total net yards (390), first downs (26) and passing yards (248). Baltimore's stingy defense allowed just 161.0 yards of total offense. The Chiefs recorded just 53 net passing yards, which set a Ravens' postseason record.

He earned his fourth-career playoff win and tied Dan Marino for the most combined victories (36) by a QB in his first three seasons.

1/15 - After holding a 21-7 halftime lead, the Ravens fell at Pittsburgh in the Divisional Playoff, 31-24. OLB Terrell Suggs (10) became the Ravens' career postseason sacks leader with his 3-sack performance, and Baltimore's 6 total sacks on the night also set a team playoff record.

3/12 - NFL owners lock out the players – creating the NFL's first work stoppage since 1987.

RAVENS HISTORY

7/25 - Following an offseason that contained no minicamps, OTAs or workout programs due to the lockout, the NFL Players Association and the league's owners reached an agreement in principle on their 10-year labor deal, creating a new CBA. After a 31-0 vote by the owners to approve the deal on July 21 (the Oakland Raiders abstained), the NFLPA would later ratify the CBA on Aug. 5.

9/11 - Marking the 10th Anniversary of the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks, the Ravens honored all military and those whose lives have been lost in the home opener against Pittsburgh. Baltimore prevailed, 35-7, in a contest that saw the Ravens force a franchise-record 7 takeaways.

The Ravens, producing a second-straight 12-4 campaign, went 6-0 against playoff teams during the regular season, matching Green Bay as the only clubs to go undefeated in division play and against other postseason qualifiers.

QB Joe Flacco, who started every game under head coach John Harbaugh, produced his 44th regular season win as a starter, marking the most ever by an NFL QB in his initial four seasons (2008-11).

The Ravens, who finished No. 3 in the league in fewest points permitted (16.6 ppg) for the fourth-straight year, tied an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top

3 for points allowed. Overall, Baltimore's "D" ranked third in both yards allowed (288.9 ypg) and sacks (48).

Despite playing eight games against defenses ranked in the NFL's Top 8, the Ravens were 12th in scoring (23.6 ppg), seventh in third-down offense (42.4%) and 10th in rushing (124.8 ypg). RB Ray Rice produced a career-high and NFL-best 2,068 yards from scrimmage, ranking second in the league in rushing. Rice also set a team mark with 15 total TDs and was second in the NFL among RBs with a team-high 76 catches (704 receiving yards). WR Torrey Smith was third among NFL rookies with 841 receiving yards (50 catches); his receptions and yards, plus 7 TDs, set new Ravens first-year standards.

1/15 - Baltimore earned a 20-13 Divisional Round victory over Houston at home, helping John Harbaugh become the first head coach in NFL history (since the 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first four seasons (2008-11). The Ravens forced 4 turnovers against the Texans, and for the first time in team history (regular season or playoffs), Baltimore did not commit a single penalty.

1/22 - The Ravens' Super Bowl hopes came to a devastating end in New England with a 23-20 loss in the AFC Championship game. It came down to Baltimore's final drive in the fourth quarter, when the Ravens had a chance to win or tie the game. But, a QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Lee Evans pass fell incomplete, and K Billy Cundiff's last-second 32-yard FG attempt sailed wide left, sealing the victory for New England.

1/27 - Dean Pees was named the Ravens' new defensive coordinator after Chuck Pagano left to become head coach of the Indianapolis Colts.

1/12 - In what became the fourth-longest game in NFL history, the Ravens outlasted the Broncos, 38-35, in double overtime of the 2012 Divisional Playoff at Denver, producing a thrilling victory that will go down as one of the greatest wins in franchise history. Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The Ravens' "D" delivered the critical stand late in the fourth quarter, overcoming a furious second-half comeback and a 34-minute power outage.

With a 3-TD performance vs. the 49ers, QB Joe Flacco threw 11 TD passes in the postseason, tying the NFL single-postseason record shared by Joe Montana (1989) and Kurt Warner (2008). Flacco and Montana did not throw an INT during those respective postseasons. Flacco finished the game 22-of-33 for 287 yards to produce a 124.2 rating.

In 2012, Flacco also became the first starting QB in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to make the playoffs in each of his first five seasons. Also winning at least one playoff game in each of those postseasons, he compiled nine playoff victories, which tie (Tom Brady) for the most among QBs in the first five seasons of a career.

The Ravens produced one of the most electrifying postseasons in NFL history. Averaging 410.3 yards of offense (134.8 rush & 275.5 pass), Baltimore scored 31.0 points per game while allowing just 22.0. Because, during the year, they lost player after player to injury; they dropped four of their last five regular season games. In the playoffs, they trailed Denver by a touchdown with 70 yards and less than a minute to go. ... And then, in the Super Bowl, just when it looked like they had the momentum, the lights went out for a half hour. ... But these Ravens always pulled through."

8/3 - T Jonathan Ogden, an 11-time Pro Bowler and the Ravens' first-ever draft pick (fourth overall in 1996), was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame during a ceremony in Canton, OH. I watched us grow, myself as a player and the fans as an NFL city from infancy to one of – if not the best – football towns in the National Football League, with undoubtedly the best and most passionate fans that I've ever seen, and I want to thank you guys for being that."

In the span of 121 seconds late in the game, 36 points were scored, including the winning TD by Baltimore with 4 seconds left. That score came when Joe Flacco, who led the game-winning, 5-play, 80-yard drive, hit rookie WR Marlon Brown with a 9-yard TD strike. This wild battle started with a near-blizzard snowfall that made it difficult for QBs to find receivers beyond the line of scrimmage.

12/27 - For their 2013 season production, four Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: DT Haloti Ngata (fifth), OLB Terrell Suggs (sixth), K Justin Tucker (first) and G Marshal Yanda (third).

12/29 - For the first time since 2008 – the year the Ravens hired John Harbaugh – Baltimore did not make the playoffs, coming one game short with an 8-8 mark and placing third in the AFC North after falling 34-17 in the finale at Cincinnati. Tied 17-17 near the end of the third quarter of the game, Baltimore needed only that win to clinch a postseason berth.

WR/RS Jacoby Jones posted a 108-yard KOR-TD to open the second half of Super Bowl XLVII. Jones also added a 56-yard TD catch during the game, helping set a Super Bowl single-game record for most combined yards (290).

Note: The all-time alphabetical roster lists the last-known in-season jersey number worn by a player. The roster includes every year a player was on the team, whether active, IR or PUP list. Additionally, if a player was on the Ravens' 53-man roster at any time, he appears. (However, the roster does not include players who solely spent time on the practice squad or in training camp.)

The all-time numerical roster on the following pages lists all of the jersey numbers worn by a Raven. An example would be NT Kelly Gregg, who wore both 73 and 97 jerseys.

Note: Baltimore has played in Houston's Reliant/NRG Stadium six times (4-2), Indy's Lucas Oil Stadium three times (1-2), Dallas' Texas Stadium once (1-0) and Atlanta's Mercedes-Benz Stadium once (1-0). Four of those games at Reliant Stadium/NRG Stadium (12/13/10, 10/21/12, 12/21/14 & 9/20/20) came when the roof was closed, meaning those games were "indoors," while the other games listed are considered "outdoors" due to open roofs. One of these games at Lucas Oil Stadium (11/8/20) came when the roof was opened, deeming that an outdoor game.

GAMEDAY

M&T BANK STADIUM

M&T Bank Stadium is where NFL excitement begins any given gameday. And that's because Baltimore Ravens home games and M&T Bank Stadium have become synonymous with winning.

Since earning their first Super Bowl title in 2000, the Ravens have posted an impressive home record of 123-45, the NFL's second-best winning percentage (.732), entering 2021.

Located at the south point of Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium stands as a premier NFL sports facility. Fans – proud of their Baltimore heritage – enjoy the latest technology, including stunning 4K ultra-high definition displays on the RavensVision video boards, a high-density Wi-Fi network, state-of-the-art concourse designs and new LED Sports Lights. Combined with these exclusive amenities, the game's excitement gives fans, friends and families an opportunity to enjoy the day together. With a capacity of 70,745, this impressive structure draws its distinctive design from the best of Baltimore's architecture.

Completed in 1998 at a cost of $220 million, the stadium has 133 suites and 8,196 club seats. HOK architects designed both Oriole Park at Camden Yards and the Ravens' home. The latter was completed in less than two years and funded through a combination of proceeds generated from debt service paid by lottery proceeds, the sale of tax-exempt revenue bonds and the Ravens.

M&T BANK STADIUM ENHANCEMENTS

In 2019, the Ravens completed a three-year, approximately $120 million self-funded investment that enhanced the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium. Demonstrating a continued commitment to create an exceptional gameday atmosphere, the improvements included new 4K ultra-high definition video displays, escalators and elevators to the upper deck, a new sound system, upgraded kitchen facilities, a redesigned club level, updated suites and LED Sports Lights.

“Not only do these improvements keep the stadium fresh, but they enrich our gameday experience by delivering added convenience, entertainment and excitement,” Ravens president Dick Cass stated. “We constantly strive to create a ‘wow’ factor for our fans.”

The stadium, which originally cost $220 million to build, opened in 1998. Since then, the Ravens have spent approximately $100 million on past enhancements, including a $45 million investment from 2013-15 to install Wi-Fi capabilities, advanced LED video displays, redesigned concession stands and upgraded concourses.

PHASE ONE

Phase One of the three-year project was completed prior to the 2017 season and was highlighted by two dramatic, 4K ultra-high definition video displays (see photo above), which doubled the width of the stadium’s previous standard HD boards. The boards, measuring approximately 200 feet wide and 36 feet high, equal the highest resolution and clearest picture of any stadium video display in the U.S.

The Ravens also expanded the audio/video control room and installed 4K cameras, lenses and control equipment. An investment was also made in 11 manned cameras and additional robotic cameras, which provide fans with more angles of live action, statistics and replays than ever before.

New LED ribbon displays were also installed around the seating bowl’s suite level. In total, the Ravens installed more than 28,000 square feet of video displays.

PHASES TWO & THREE

Phases Two and Three of the M&T Bank Stadium enhancements project continued following the 2018 season and continued into the spring/summer of 2019. These improvements included the following:

Escalators & Elevators:

Escalators and elevators to the 500 level were installed to improve crowd flow and ensure convenience for fans accessing seats in the stadium’s upper level. (The first escalator to the upper concourse opened in November of the 2018 season.)

“Corner Notch” Suites & Video Boards:

New suites were built into each open notch of the stadium’s upper bowl. Large 4K ultra-high definition video boards (see photo below), measuring approximately 33 feet wide and 44 feet high, were installed atop each of the four suites, providing fans with additional in-game content, NFL highlights/scores, statistics and fantasy information.

Club Level:

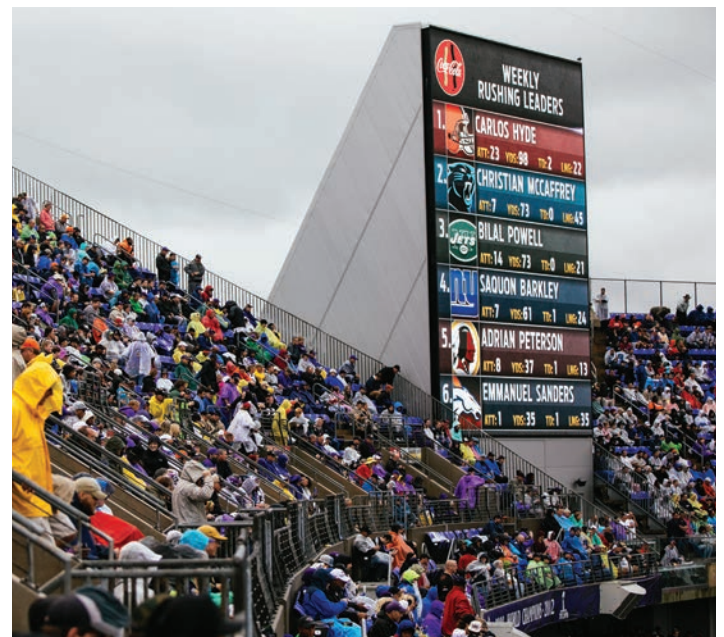

All concessions stands and bar/lounge areas on the stadium’s club level received upgrades. These developments enhanced the area’s general design/comfort, audio/visual capabilities, quality of service and food options.

Improved Kitchen Facilities:

The stadium underwent kitchen renovations to include new equipment improving the quality of food and providing more options at concessions stands throughout the entire venue.

Sound System:

A new sound system in the seating bowl was installed prior to the start of the 2018 NFL season.

VIDEO SCREENS, WI-FI AND NEW LED SPORTS LIGHTS

- In 2017, the Ravens made an investment to create a more immersive gameday experience for their fans. Designed and created by Prismview, a Samsung Electronics Company, the updated and enhanced RavensVision ultra-HD 4K video screens each measure 36 feet high and 201 feet wide. Each display is the equivalent of a 2,448-inch flat panel television. It would take over 1,000 40-inch flat screen TVs to equal one of these giant LED (light emitting diode) displays. Each display has extreme contrast face plastics combined with over 6 million individual LED pixels providing brilliant images in bright sunlight and during night events.

- The high definition resolution allows for some of the best graphics and game action video in the league, live game highlights from around the NFL, instant replays, scores, statistics, plus player updates and features.

- The two giant screens are made up of modular LED panels – 13 inches wide by 6.5 inches tall. Each of these premium LED modules contain 512 pixels, spaced only 10mm - 0.39" - apart. Due to the massive size of these displays, these panels were assembled from 50 sections. Each display weighs in at an amazing 76,500 pounds.

- In a historic launch of in-venue video technology, in 2017, the Ravens became the first team to have a permanently installed SkyCam. Typically reserved for the NFL's largest broadcasts, including the Super Bowl and other primetime games, SkyCam delivers its immersive and signature "Quarterback View" for every home game. Its nearly invisible support cables can withstand over 800 pounds each, while the camera system can reach speeds over 25 miles per hour.

- In addition to the main video boards, in 2018, the Ravens installed four new corner displays to add to the fan viewing experience. Each of the four LED video displays measure over 34 feet wide by 44 feet high – a bonus of over 6,081 square feet of screens.

- In cooperation with WJHW, VPC and the Ravens' production team, BeckTV, a leader in broadcast design and installation, created a leading-edge production facility for M&T Bank Stadium. The control room includes state-of-the-art systems for 4K/HD replay, graphics and cameras to help produce world class programming. In addition to 11 manned cameras, the Ravens have 15 robotic cameras contributing to the gameday production.

- The 2017 addition of four LED ribbon boards on the Club Level and Suite Level fascia further elevate the in-stadium atmosphere. These dynamic displays measure a combined 2,373 feet with almost three times the pixel resolution over the previous ribbon boards, providing amazing clarity throughout the stadium. This improvement adds excitement and aims to increase fan engagement.

- With over 28,000 square feet of total display area, the RavensVision displays, corner displays and LED ribbons combine over 20 million pixels to create one of the most captivating experiences in the NFL.

- Two high definition video boards measuring 8 feet high and 30 feet wide were installed at the concourse entrances of Gates A and D in 2013. (Approximately 60 percent of fans enter Gate A for all stadium events.)

- Prior to the 2015 season, the Ravens invested $5 million in a project to install Wi-Fi access for fans at M&T Bank Stadium. From 2015-17, the throughput capability was 2 gigabits per second (GBPS). In 2018, the stadium boasted a throughput capability of 10 GBPS, or an increase in capability that is five times greater than the previous three seasons.

- Additionally, in 2015, the Ravens installed the capability to show 360-degree replays with a newly-implemented and upgraded Intel freeD system. By using 38 cameras placed around the stadium, fans can view angles of action previously impossible to see. The Ravens were the first NFL franchise capable of providing 360-degree shots, and the technology won a Sports Emmy Award for best in Technical Achievement from Super Bowl 50.

- Lastly, in 2019, the top of the stadium was furnished with new LED Sports Lights. These lights provide more energy efficiency and the capability to instantly switch on and off. In all, Musco Sports Lighting installed 416 new light fixtures atop the stadium that produce a brighter light with less glare and the ability to create dynamic light shows.

SIGHTLINES

- Front row seating in the lower level is 6 feet above the grass playing field, high enough to eliminate any issue with obstructed views. In addition, the front row is only a short distance of 50 feet from the playing field sidelines and 20 feet from the back of the end zones.

SEATING

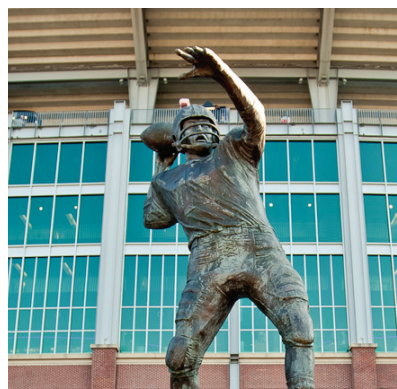

- With a seating capacity of 70,745, the stadium is substantially larger than its sister baseball park to the north. At 1.6 million square feet, it is nearly double Oriole Park at Camden Yards' size. ADA seating is located on every level.
- The 8,196 club seats at M&T Bank Stadium offer extra-wide comfort, plus VIP parking, access to the club lounges serving specialty foods, fully-staffed bars, concierge services and scenic views of downtown Baltimore.
- Each of the stadium's 133 suites are between 20-24 ticketed premier areas. Each features upscale lounge furniture, a private kitchen, high-definition TVs, Wi-Fi, a private restroom, VIP parking and personal catering. Many other exclusive amenities and events are also available to suite owners.

AMENITIES/DESIGN

- As part of a two-year, $35 million investment in 2013, the Ravens enhanced the fan experience with improvements to video boards, concessions stands and all concourses.
- All 16 lower concourse concessions stands were upgraded, with these enhancements improving the speed of service, and also the freshness and quality of food, much of which is prepared directly in front of fans.
- Additional concession stand improvements included digital menu boards and full upgrades to all condiment counters. Renovations to the 24 upper concourse concessions stands were completed prior to the 2014 NFL season.
- Additionally, in 2013 and 2014, all concourses were redesigned with a "Ravenized" theme, influenced by the brick and steel look of M&T Bank Stadium's exterior and buildings on the Camden Yards complex. These features include support columns wrapped in brick, purple accent lighting and enhanced directional signage throughout each of the venue's concourses.
- Extra-wide concourses (44-64 ft.) allow easier fan movement. Eight public elevators, numerous ramps and two escalators (to club level) assist the fan traffic. Two additional escalators (to upper concourse) opened in 2018 and 2019, respectively, to provide guests with easier accessibility to the upper level of the stadium.
- There are 44 concessions stands, including 601 total points of sale, in the upper, lower and club levels with gameday fare, including Baltimore's signature favorites, such as crab cakes.
- Club level decor features a historical perspective of football in Baltimore highlighting great games, teams and players from the area's rich football history.

TRANSPORTATION AND STADIUM SITE

- Located at 1101 Russell Street, M&T Bank Stadium is surrounded on all sides by the following elevated roadways: I-95 and the Hamburg St. bridge to the north; I-95 and I-395 (plus Light Rail line) to the east; the Ostend St. bridge to the south; and the Russell St. viaduct to the west.
- Fans can easily access the stadium using mass transit. The Light Rail has a drop-off point located directly outside Gate B and the transit system has stops within walking distance.
- Parking in stadium lots is limited to permit holders, but downtown garages are available for gameday parking, just a short walk away. Parking in offsite lots can be reserved in advance with Parking Panda at www.baltimoreravens.com/stadium/directions-parking.
- For a safe and convenient ride, fans may take advantage of two Lyft pick up zones. If exiting near Gate A, walk up Ravens Walk, cross Lee Street and meet a Lyft driver at Home Plate Plaza. If exiting near Gate D, head down Warner Street and meet a driver at the Horseshoe Casino pickup lane.
- Tailgating is welcomed in select lots at M&T Bank Stadium. For complete Tailgate Lot information, call the Ravens' Ticket Office at (410) 261-7283.

Baltimore Orioles and numerous others. One of the signature elements of the bronze work is the famous black high tops – John's favorite football shoe. Many Ravens fans touch the left shoe of the statue for good luck prior to every game.

- In 2014, the Ravens unveiled in this plaza area a second statue (left) – one of former LB Ray Lewis, another Baltimore icon and perhaps the greatest defender in NFL history. Original PSL season ticket holders also have the opportunity to locate their names etched in one of two PSL Walls of Honor. These names are a tribute to the great Ravens football fans who have supported the team that has brought Baltimore and Maryland two Super Bowl Championships (2000 and 2012).

M&T BANK STADIUM PLAYING SURFACE

In May of 2016, the Ravens switched from artificial turf to natural grass at M&T Bank Stadium. As team president Dick Cass stated, "The players really wanted to play on grass, and that was a key consideration." Baltimore had natural grass in the stadium when it first opened in 1998, but the Ravens changed to an artificial turf from Sportex Momentum Turf for the 2003 season, and then replaced that with a newer Shaw Momentum 51 turf prior to the start of 2010. The Ravens now play on this new strain of grass, developed on a sod farm in North Carolina, that is a mixture of Bermuda and some rye. Officials believe it is more robust than what was previously played on in the stadium. The Ravens also use special artificial lights/lamps to keep grass growing where the field is shaded, particularly during the winter months.

M&T BANK STADIUM

On May 21, 2014, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens announced a 10-year, $60 million extension of their partnership, which includes the continuation of naming rights to M&T Bank Stadium and an array of community-focused programs, including a new initiative focused on helping at-risk children in Baltimore.

The partnership, which began as a 15-year agreement in 2003 and was extended through 2027, has proven to reach far beyond the stadium and into the community through a range of joint initiatives.

"M&T Bank's partnership with the Ravens isn't about a name on a building – it's about combining the strengths of our two teams to build a better, stronger Baltimore," said the late M&T Bank president and COO Mark Czarnecki.

M&T Bank is a multi-state community-focused bank serving New York, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Connecticut, Virginia, West Virginia and Washington, D.C. Founded in 1856, M&T Bank and its affiliates provide banking, investment, insurance and mortgage financial services to consumer, business and government clients in over 750 branches and 1,800 ATMs.

"Our partnership with M&T is based on shared values and has produced impact on both companies and this community," said Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti. "This agreement is a natural extension of our strong relationship and mutual commitment to pursuing excellence and strengthening this region. We look forward to continuing to work with M&T and helping those in need."

A component of the partnership was the initiative to establish a Judith P. Hoyer Early Child Care and Family Education Center (Judy Center), which provides comprehensive services to increase school readiness for at-risk children under age five and their families. The Judy Center is located at Arundel Elementary/Middle School in the Cherry Hill section of Baltimore City and is being organized through the Baltimore Community Foundation (BCF). The Ravens and M&T provided a total of $600,000 in funding for the project.

M&T BANK HONOR ROWS

Since 2003, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens have honored over 14,000 young people from a range of organizations, including Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Greater Chesapeake, recognizing their outstanding volunteer work. For each Ravens home game, 125 young people receive tickets, Honor Rows t-shirts, a pre-game on-field visit and official in-game recognition on the RavensVision HD video screens.

M&T BANK TOUCHDOWN FOR TEACHERS

The Touchdown for Teachers program recognizes local teachers for outstanding service to their schools and communities. Three finalists are chosen annually based on their involvement in the school or community, degree of positive impact and their demonstrated commitment to education. The 2021 grand prize was awarded to Muhammad “Mr. Moo” Benyameen (pictured at right), who is a physical education and health education teacher at Hampden Elementary/Middle School (HEMS) in Baltimore. The three finalists each received a personalized Ravens jersey, Bose headphones, a Dunkin’ gift card. The runners-up were also awarded $1,000 in grant funds, while HEMS was surprised with a check for $4,000 in grant funds in Mr. Benyameen’s name. Additionally, “Mr. Moo” will receive a classroom visit by a Ravens player, accompanied by Ravens mascot Poe and cheerleaders, during the 2021-22 school year, as long as it is safe to do so.

In June 2021, the Ravens and Heart of America joined forces to transform two Baltimore city public schools into a COVID-friendly learning environment so classes can be held outdoors. In addition, peace and meditation rooms were installed to support students’ mental health and wellness. The day-long project was aided by over 100 Ravens staff members and executives, including team president Dick Cass.

PARTNERSHIP FACTS

On gameday, M&T Bank is featured on an array of interior and exterior stadium signage and branding, seen by 70,745 fans and millions more on TV. As the Ravens’ official bank, M&T Bank provides banking services through nine ATMs located throughout the stadium and an M&T booth on RavensWalk.

The partnership is based on shared values and reaches far beyond the stadium and into the community through a range of joint initiatives combining the strengths of the two organizations to build a better, stronger Baltimore.

RAVENS FOUNDATION PARTNER

Since the inception of the partnership with M&T Bank in 2003, more than $1 million has been allocated from M&T to the Ravens Foundation, Inc. to support a range of community initiatives.

Each year, M&T Bank employees volunteer to help at Ravens community events, including food drives, Habitat for Humanity builds, playground builds, back-to-school supply distributions and Earth Day clean-ups.

M&T BANK STADIUM: THE GOLD STANDARD

In 2013, the Ravens, in partnership with the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA), earned a LEED-certified Gold designation for M&T Bank Stadium from the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC). The venue then received LEED Gold re-certification in 2019.

LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) strives to deliver energy- and water-efficient, healthy, environmentally-friendly, cost-savings buildings, homes and communities.

M&T Bank Stadium became the first existing outdoor professional sports facility in the United States – including all NFL and Major League Baseball stadiums – to receive USGBC's Gold rating. A LEED certification is recognized across the globe as the premier mark of achievement in green building.

DHS SAFETY ACT DESIGNATION

In March 2020, the Ravens announced that M&T Bank Stadium had been recognized by the United States Department of Homeland Security (DHS) with a SAFETY Act Designation, acknowledging excellence in gameday security practices.

The Ravens received the SAFETY Act Designation for the M&T Bank Stadium Security Program, a comprehensive program that includes the screening of visitors and packages, emergency plans, threat assessments, physical and electronic security equipment, and trained personnel. The security program applies to the entire stadium property, including the seating bowl and suites, gates, loading dock, inner and secondary perimeters, field, locker rooms, utility and mechanical systems, and command center.

M&T Bank
STADIUM

"Understanding the very high level of scrutiny the stadium and the security program have been put through throughout the SAFETY Act review process, this is an achievement to be extremely proud of. The work that the team at M&T Bank Stadium does is of the highest caliber, and this achievement is a deserved recognition of that work."

- NFL Chief Security Officer Cathy Lanier
