BILLS TRAIN AT NIAGARA UNIVERSITY

For the twelfth consecutive year, the Bills will train on the campus of Niagara University at Niagara Falls, N. Y. An advance camp will open on Sunday, July 9, and the regular camp will convene on Friday, July 21.

RALPH C. WILSON, Jr.
President and Owner

The face of modern professional football has been shaped by men like Ralph C. Wilson, Jr., only owner of the Buffalo Bills since their induction as an original member of the American Football League in 1960.

A sports interest that dated from boyhood stimulated Wilson to first purchase a minority interest in the NFL Detroit Lions and later to join ranks with Lamar Hunt and the other principals of the new AFL. The youthful owner chose Buffalo as the home for his fledgling franchise on October 17, 1959, and six weeks later named it "the Bills."

In the 20 years that have passed since, professional football has enjoyed explosive popularity and expansion, completed a major merger and experienced first labor strife and, more recently, labor peace. Ralph Wilson has remained involved.

It was Wilson and Carroll Rosenbloom, then owner of the Baltimore Colts, who had the first tentative talks in January, 1965, that would ultimately lead to the AFL-NFL merger. A past president of the AFL, Wilson served as a member of the expansion committee and the AFL-NFL Negotiations Committee.

The Bill's owner was prominent in the negotiations which resulted in a new agreement between the NFL Management Council and the Players Association.

A resident of Detroit since moving there with his family as a youngster, Wilson won his undergraduate degree from the University of Virginia and later attended the University of Michigan law school. He enlisted in the Navy during World War II, earning his commission within a year and serving aboard minesweepers in both the Atlantic and Pacific theatres.

Among many business pursuits, Wilson is president of the Ralph C. Wilson Insurance Agency and Motorcar, an auto transport business. His interest in sports, however, extends beyond football. He owns a stable of thoroughbred race horses and is an avid tennis player, skier and golfer.

From the inception of the Bills, Wilson has played a dynamic and active role in the organization. He is determined in his effort to bring two things—"winning football and a Super Bowl trophy"—to the NFL faithful of Western New York.

Wilson's contribution to the game was recognized by the weekly publication, Football News, which named him "Man of the Year" in 1973. "He has been a tower of strength in the administration of professional football," the newspaper said.

Vice President-Gen. Mgr.

PAT MCGRODER
Vice President

ROBERT T. LUSTIG
Vice President — General Manager

Bills' Vice President and General Manager Bob Lustig has been an associate of Owner Ralph Wilson since 1948. When Wilson became one of the original members of the newly-born American Football League in 1960, he entrusted Lustig with the responsibility for signing many of the players on the original Bills roster. Four years later, Lustig was devoting fulltime to the Bills operation as a Vice President. He took on the additional title of General Manager in 1967. In addition to directing the Buffalo organization's administrative, ticket, and stadium operations, Lustig also represents the club at official League meetings and sits on the Board of Directors of National Football League Properties, Inc. The Bills' General Manager was a key figure in the drive for a new stadium to house Buffalo's NFL franchise — a dream finally realized in 1973 with the dedication of a magnificent 80,020— seat facility in Orchard Park, N.Y. "We built the stadium with the comfort of the fan as our foremost concern," Lustig says. "We feel we have the finest football facility in the League." For all of his present association with football, Lustig's first love was baseball — a sport he played on the American Legion level as a high school student in Detroit and, later as a freshman at the University of Detroit. His college career was interrupted by Army service in World War II, where he saw action in the European theater as a member of the 104th Infantry Division. He returned to Detroit following the war to complete his college education, then went to work for the Ralph Wilson Agency.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born July 12, 1924 . . .
Attended Catholic Central High School in Detroit,
Mich., and the University of Detroit . . . He and wife
Eileen have four children, Bob, Christine, Mike and Tom
. . . Makes his home in Kenmore.

PATRICK J. McGRODER, Jr.
Vice President

An early champion of Buffalo's AFL franchise was Patrick J. McGroder, the city's sports coordinator at the time Ralph Wilson brought the young Bills to Western New York. At Wilson's insistence, McGroder joined the club's front office staff in 1962 as Vice President. The longtime Buffalo native serves as the organization's advertising sales coordinator and handles other special duties at the management level. McGroder attended St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute and Hutchinson High School, Canisius and Chattanooga Colleges. He founded McKinley Liquor Company in 1942 after achieving the position of National Sales Representative for W. A. Taylor Importers. McGroder was the Buffalo Athletic Club's "Sportman of the Year" in 1955 and winner of the Chamber of Commerce "Good Government Award" three years later. His efforts in promoting professional football games for Buffalo nearly enabled him to secure an NFL franchise for the city. He has remained fast friends with such legendary pro football figures as George Halas of Chicago and Art Rooney of Pittsburgh. In addition to sports coordinator, McGroder also served as Buffalo Parks Commissioner and President of the Police Athletic League.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Attended St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute and Hutchinson High School, Canisius and Chattanooga Colleges . . . Excellent golfer . . . He and wife Loretta have two daughters, Carol and Kathleen, and a son, Patrick III . . . Son-in-law is John McLeod, coach of Phoenix Suns of NBA . . . Lives in Buffalo.

STEW BARBER
Assistant General Manager

An All-AFL lineman in his playing days, Stew Barber was appointed to the new position of assistant general manager in December, 1976. The Bill's fourth round draft choice out of Penn State in 1961, Barber was also drafted by Dallas of the NFL in the third round. He elected Buffalo and over the next nine seasons played in 112 consecutive regularly-scheduled games, was a five-time All-AFL selection and appeared in four League all-star games. Barber was a member of both the Bills' AFL Championship teams. An All-East tackle for the Nittany Lions, Barber played in the Liberty Bowl, the Blue-Grey game, the College All-America and College All-Star games. He earned his college degree in Economics and Real Estate. After a stint in private business and some part-time scouting duties for the Bills, Barber landed a pro coaching job with the New York Stars of the World Football League. He moved with the WFL franchise when it transferred to Charlotte before finally folding. Barber caught on with the WFL Chicago Wind in 1975 but left to accept a scouting position with the Bills.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born June 14, 1939 at Bradford, Pa. . . . Attended Bradford, Pa. High School and Penn State University . . . Penn State degree is in Economics and Real Estate . . . Stew and wife, Vicki, have five daughters — Tracey, Jennifer, Michelle, Rebekah and Alicia . . . Lives in East Aurora.

JIM CIPRIANO Ticket Director

Tickets have always been Jim Cipriano's business. Starting with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad following World War II service in the U.S. Marine Corps, later with the Pennsylvania Railroad and the University of Pittsburgh athletic department, Jim Cipriano has accumulated 30 years of experience in his profession. The likable native of Youngstown, Ohio, was named Bills' Ticket Director in April, 1969. Prior to his Buffalo appointment, Cipriano was Assistant Business Manager of Athletics for 12 years at the University of Pittsburgh.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born June 19, 1925 in Youngstown, Ohio . . . Attended North High School in Youngstown and the University of Pittsburgh . . . He and his wife, Angelina, have a daughter, Adrienne . . . Lives in the Boston Hills

L. BUDD THALMAN Vice President — Public Relations

Budd Thalman came to the Buffalo organization in 1973 after 11 years as Sports Information Director at the U.S. Naval Academy. A native of Wheeling, W. Va., he is a 1957 Journalism graduate of West Virginia University. He worked for one year in the Associated Press Bureau at Huntington, W. Va., before entering the Army where he served from 1958-60 as Public Information Officer for Fort Jay, Governor's Island, N. Y. Thalman returned to the AP in 1960, transferring to the Annapolis, Md., Bureau in January, 1962.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Oct. 6, 1935 . . . Attended Central Catholic High School in Wheeling, W. Va., and West Virginia University at Morgantown, W. Va. . . . Married, he and wife Pattie have two sons, Mark and Scott and a daughter, Kelly . . . Resides in Orchard Park.

CHUCK KNOX

Vice President in Charge of Football Operations

Chuck Knox has a perspective for history, an appreciation of poetry and a reputation for winning football.

The last of these qualities has brought Knox to Buffalo as the new head coach of the Bills, a winner only rarely the past two seasons.

It is a move reminiscent of six years ago when the Los Angeles Rams turned to Knox, then offensive line coach of the Detroit Lions, to pump new life into a team that limped home 6-7-1 in 1972.

Knox wasted no time. He turned the Rams into a 12-2 Western Division champion in 1973, an achievement that earned him NFL "Coach of the Year" honors. It was only the beginning.

In five years as LA coach, Knox orchestrated five consecutive division titles, a string unmatched in NFL coaching annals, and won a stunning 77 per cent of his regular season games.

"When the possibility developed that Chuck might be available," Bills' president Ralph C. Wilson, Jr., said, "we dropped all other consideration of candidates and concentrated exclusively on making Chuck Knox the new Buffalo coach."

Wilson's powers of persuasion paid off when Knox accepted a long-term contract on January 11, 1978. "Chuck has the kind of imagination and experience that will give our program the leadership it requires to again be successful," Wilson said.

Knox immediately put the priorities in order.

"The Buffalo Bills exist for one reason — to win," he said. "I look on this as a great opportunity. We have a chance here to build a program, to take a new fresh approach and structure an organization that, week in week out, will be competitive with the best in professional football.

"I'm no miracle worker," he continued, "but hard work can make up for a lot of things. No staff in football will outwork the Buffalo Bills."

Anyone who knows Chuck Knox can attest to his appetite for hard work. It has been a hallmark since his childhood days in the steel mill town of Sewickley, Pa.

The eldest of two sons of immigrant Scotch-Irish parents, Knox was an 180-pound high school tackle. He received an athletic scholarship to Juniata College in Huntington, Pa., where he won four varsity letters and was football co-captain as a senior.

After break-even seasons as freshman and sophomore, Knox played on two winning Juniata elevens, including the 7-0-0 1953 club that fashioned the first undefeated record in the history of the school.

"I got a quality education," Knox, an American History major recalls. "I've always been interested in things of a historical nature. I think the past can give you guidance in dealing with the present."

For Knox, there wasn't any question about the future. "I wanted to be a coach for as long as I can remember," he says. "I wasn't good enough to play in the pros so I started coaching in high schools and moved up. It's more difficult that way."

Success was instantaneous for Chuck Knox, football coach. In 1954, he was the only assistant to Juniata skipper Bob Hicks and, together, they guided the Indians to a perfect record of 8-0-0.

The next season, Knox was an assistant at Tyrone, Pa., High School, departing in 1956 for a three-year turn as head coach at Elwood City, Pa., High School where his teams were 10-16-2.

He landed his first college job at Wake Forest in 1959, working for Deamon Deacon coach Paul Amen. After two seasons in Greensboro, it was off to Kentucky for the 1961-62 campaigns with Blanton Collier and the Wildcats.

New York Jet skipper Weeb Ewbank gave Knox his first pro position in 1963. The AFL Jets of those years played second fiddle in the Eastern Division to the Buffalo Bills, who collected back-to-back championships in 1964-65. Knox quickly gained respect as an offensive line coach and developed a well-disciplined forward wall that would be a Jet strength for years to come.

From New York, Knox went to the Detroit Lions. He coached Joe Schmidt's offensive lines from 1967-72, creating the kind of credentials that won him the Los Angeles job in 1973.

For all of his success, Knox remains low key and takes pride in his reputation as a "player's coach."

"I try," he has said, "never to get too low or too high. I have a saying that regardless of what is written about you or your team no one is as good or as bad as he is made out to be. No one likes criticism but you have to understand it's a part of this business."

Tom Catlin

Jack Donaldson

Steve Moore

Defensive Coordinator — Linebackers

An All-America for Bud Wilkinson at Oklahoma, Tom Catlin will be the defensive coordinator and linebacker coach for the 1978 Buffalo Bills. Catlin spent the last 12 seasons (1966-77) with the Los Angeles Rams, the longest continuous coaching assignment in the club's history. His linebackers were a key element in six Western Division title teams. A native of Ponca City, Okla., Catlin played center and linebacker for the Sooners during the 1950-51-52 seasons. He was drafted by Baltimore but traded to Cleveland where he started midway through his rookie season and called defensive signals for the 1954 NFL Champions. He was in the Air Force during the 1955-56 seasons but stayed in touch with football by coaching the West Point Plebes for one year under Army skipper Earl "Red" Blaik. Returning to the NFL in 1957 with Cleveland, Catlin played there two more seasons before finishing his career in Philadelphia in 1959. Catlin broke into coaching with Hank Stram and the Dallas Texans, moved with the franchise to Kansas City in 1963 and spent three seasons there before going to LA in 1966. In Los Angeles, Catlin handled the linebackers for three different Rams coaches — George Allen, Tommy Prothro and Chuck Knox. His expanded duties of defensive coordinator are new this fall.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born September 8, 1931 in Ponca City, Okla. . . . Attended Ponca City High School and the University of Oklahoma . . . Married, he and wife Betty have a daughter, Kim, 18, and a son, Tom, 17 . . . Lives in Orchard Park.

JACK DONALDSON

Receivers

The Jack Donaldson-Chuck Knox relationship dates from their days as assistant coaches with the New York Jets. Donaldson handled the defensive line and backfield for Weeb Ewbank, Knox the offensive line. They started together in 1963 and Donaldson remained five seasons, one more than Knox. When Paul Brown was putting together his new Cincinnati franchise in 1968, Donaldson was the first coach he hired. The new Buffalo assistant spent 10 seasons (1968-77) with the Bengals, one working with the defensive line and the next nine the offensive backfield. A 1949 graduate of Ohio State University, Donaldson was a highly-successful high school coach in Ohio for 10 years. He had teams at McArthur, Xenia, Carey and achieved particular success at Perrysburg HS, near Toledo, where he fashioned a 38-8 won-lost mark that included two undefeated seasons and two conference championships. Donaldson was an assistant at the University of Toledo for two years before joining the Jets.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born February 28, 1927, in Columbus, Ohio . . . Attended Pataskala High School and Ohio State University . . . He and wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Mrs. Deborah Koenig, and Mrs. Nettie Lou Wieth, and a son John . . . Lives in Orchard Park.

Special Assignments

A college assistant for the past three seasons, Steve Moore joined the Bills' staff in April as special assignments coach. His duties will include responsibility for tight ends and off-field work in film breakdown, scouting of the upcoming opponent and coordination of computer analysis. The 30-year-old Moore spent the 1976-77 seasons at Rice University where he coached the Owl's passing game, working with quarterbacks and receivers. Prior to Rice, Moore was quarterback and receiver coach at the U. S. Military Academy under Homer Smith. A native of Southern California, Moore was born in Los Angeles and attended high school and junior college in Glendale. A junior college All-America at Glendale JC, Moore transferred to the University of California-Santa Barbara where he finished his undergraduate career by winning All-Coast honors and appearing in the Coaches All-America game. Moore's first two years of coaching (1970-71) were as a graduate assistant at UC-Santa Barbara. In 1972, he was named assistant football and head track coach at Temple, Tex., HS. After two seasons there, he became head football coach at Mesa Verde, Calif., HS, a job he left in 1975 to join the West Point staff.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Aug. 19, 1947, in Los Angeles, Calif. . . . Attended Glendale High School, Glendale JC and University of California-Santa Barbara . . . College degree is in Physical Education . . . Married, he and wife, Carol, have three children: Steve, Jr., 12; Kim, 8, and Christy, 6 . . . Lives in Orchard Park.

Elijah Pitts

Ray Prochaska

Kay Stephenson

Offensive Backs — Special Teams

A 13th round draft choice out of Philander Smith College in Little Rock, Ark., Elijah Pitts played for 11 years in the National Football League. He was on six Green Bay title teams — the NFL Champions of 1961-62, 1964, 1966 and the 1967-68 Super Bowl winners. A running back and return specialist, he scored one of the Packers' touchdowns in the 35-10 win over Kansas City in Super Bowl I. Traded to Chicago in 1970, Pitts also played briefly with the Rams, New Orleans and, finally, returned to Green Bay before finally retiring in 1971. In his pro career, Pitts averaged 3.5 yards per rushing attempt, gained nearly 1,000 yards on kick returns, caught more than 100 passes and scored 35 touchdowns. He went to work as a fulltime scout for the Packers in 1972 then joined Chuck Knox's new Los Angeles coaching staff in 1973. In his five seasons as a Ram assistant, Pitts was instrumental in the development of All-Pro running back Lawrence McCutcheon, who passed Dick Bass as Los Angeles' all-time rushing leader this past fall.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Feb. 3, 1928, in Mayflower, Ark. . . . Attended Conway, Ark., Pine Street High School and Philander Smith College at Little Rock, Ark. . . . Wife's name is Ruth . . . Has three children: Ronnie, 15; Kimberly, 7, and Anthony, 4 . . . Lives in Orchard Park.

Offensive Coordinator — Offensive Line

Ray Prochaska's association with football spans nearly 40 years. An offensive end at Nebraska, he capped his college career by playing in the 1941 Rose Bowl against Stanford and the College All-Star game. Prochaska played one season for the Cleveland Rams before departing for 4½ years of Army service, reaching the rank of Major prior to his separation. He went back to Nebraska as an assistant coach in 1946 and stayed nine years. Pop Ivy introduced Prochaska to professional football with the Edmonton Eskimos of the CFL. A member of Ivy's staff from 1955-57, Ray joined the Chicago Cardinals for the 1958 season as offensive line coach. He stayed with the Cards for seven seasons, moving with the club to St. Louis in 1960. George Allen hired Prochaska at Los Angeles in 1966 where he remained until Allen went to Washington after the 1970 season. Two years in Cleveland (1971-72) followed before Prochaska's return to LA with Chuck Knox. This is Prochaska's second season as an offensive coordinator. He had similar responsibilities with the Rams a year ago.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Aug. 9, 1919, at Ulysses, Neb. . . . Attended University of Nebraska . . . He and wife, Mary Jo, have three sons and a daughter: Craig, 31; Mark, 26; Judy, 23, and Scott, 14 . . . Lives in Hamburg.

KAY STEPHENSON

Quarterbacks

A former Buffalo quarterback himself, Kay Stephenson returns to work with the Bills' signal-callers. Originally signed as a free agent by the San Diego Chargers, the former Florida quarterback played with Buffalo during the 1968 season. Inserted as the starter against Houston, Stephenson was the regular for three weeks before suffering a season-ending fracture of the collarbone against the Miami Dolphins. In his abbreviated season, Stephenson completed 29 of 79 passes for 364 yards and four touchdowns. Kay spent time with Atlanta and Oakland in 1969-70 before his first coaching position at Rice in 1971. He was away from football in 1972 but returned as Athletic Director and Head Coach at Baker County, Fla., HS in 1973. Stephenson played a year with the WFL Jacksonville Sharks (1974), then became the team's Director of Player Personnel and offensive coordinator in 1975. He had been out of football for a year when Chuck Knox tapped him to join the Rams' staff last fall.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born December 17, 1944 at DeFuniak Springs, Fla. . . . Attended Pensacola High School and the University of Florida . . . He and wife, Mary Jac, have a 14-year-old daughter, Sheryl . . . Lives in Orchard Park.

Jim Wagstaff

Willie Zapalac

JIM WAGSTAFF Defensive Backfield

One of the original Buffalo Bills, Jim Wagstaff was a defensive mainstay of the 1960-61 teams. The graduate of Idaho State, where he played running back and cornerback, intercepted nine passes and had 166 yards in returns during his two seasons in Buffalo. A Detroit draft choice, Wagstaff never played there but did spend one season with the NFL Chicago Cardinals (1959). He got into the coaching profession at South Fremont, Idaho, High School in 1962, later moved on to head coaching jobs at Pocatello HS (1963-65) and Idaho Falls HS (1966-68). He was the defensive coordinator, secondary and linebacker coach at Boise State University for four seasons (1969-72). Named to the Los Angeles staff by new coach Chuck Knox in 1973, Wagstaff turned a suspect Ram secondary into the League Leader in 1976 when LA backs picked off 32 passes and had the NFL's interception leader—Monte Jackson with 10.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born June 12, 1936, at American Falls, Idaho . . . Attended Idaho State University . . . Married . . . He and wife, Nancy, have two daughters: Cary, 21, and Geniel, 20 . . . Lives in Orchard Park.

WILLIE ZAPALAC Defensive Line

A coach in the football-rich Southwestern Conference for 23 years, Willie Zapalac comes to the Bills after two seasons on Don Coryell's St. Louis Cardinals staff. At St. Louis, Zapalac worked with the Big Red defensive line, the same assignment he will fill for Chuck Knox. A native of Sealy, Tex., Willie was a legendary high school running back at Bellville, Tex., where he scored a record 265 points his senior season. His college football career at Texas A&M was sandwiched around World War II military service. A fullback for the Aggies, he played in two East-West Shrine and two College All-Star games. Zapalac coached for eight seasons at his alma mater (1953-60), was at Texas Tech for two years and Oklahoma State for one before landing at the University of Texas in 1964. He worked for 12 years under the Longhorns' Darrell Royal, first as a defensive coach and later as offensive coordinator and line coach. Zapalac's two sons both played at Texas — Bill on the National Championship teams of 1969-70 and Jeff in 1971. He left Texas to accept his first pro job in St. Louis.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born December 11, 1922, at Sealy, Tex. . . . Attended Belleville, Tex. High School and Texas A&M University . . . He and wife, Dorothy, have two sons and a daughter . . . Lives in Orchard Park.

Norm Pollom

Doug Hafner

NORM POLLOM Director of College Scouting

A scouting and personnel specialist with the Los Angeles Rams for 16 years, Norm Pollom takes over responsibility for Buffalo's college scouting setup this season. He was the Rams' Director of Player Personnel in 1976 after serving five years as Director of College Scouting. Pollom first joined the Rams in 1961 on a part time basis, became a permanent member of the staff in 1965. He spent the 1977 season scouting and doing special assignments for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. A native of Chehalis, Wash., Pollom graduated from Puget Sound in 1950. An offensive and defensive end in college, he coached seven seasons in Pacific Northwest high schools, putting together a scholastic won-lost record of 54-16-2. Named to Jim Owens' Washington staff in 1957, Pollom was with the Huskies for three seasons and had a hand in the 44-8 victory over Wisconsin in the 1960 Rose Bowl game. He left in 1960 to join John McKay's Southern California staff. From SC, Pollom went into the educational field, serving four years as assistant principal of Palos Verdes, Calif., Unified High Schools. He left the school system to pursue a fulltime scouting career. While in LA, Pollom isolated such prospects as Rams All-Pro Jack Youngblood, Lawrence McCutcheon and Isiah Robertson. Twenty-seven of the 31 Ram choices in the first five rounds of the 1973-76 drafts won positions in the National Football League.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born October 20, 1925, in Chehalis, Wash. . . . Attended Chehalis High School and University of Puget Sound . . . Married, he and wife, Janis Teresa, live in Hamburg.

DOUG HAFNER
Director of Pro Scouting

With a dozen years experience in professional football personnel matters, Doug Hafner was Chuck Knock's choice as the Bills' pro scouting boss. Prior to his appointment here, Hafner, 47, was director of player personnel for the Green Bay Packers. In his two years with the Packers, Hafner was a key figure in the Green Bay draft, including the especially-productive 1977 selection meeting. Doug worked under Paul Brown as Cincinnati's assistant director of player personnel from 1969 through 1976. A graduate of the University of Miami (Fla.), Hafner was assistant football and assistant baseball coach at his alma mater and assistant football and head baseball coach at Tulane University. Hurricane baseball teams won the Florida State championship twice and the Miami gridders appeared in the Liberty Bowl during Hafner's coaching tenure. He was also on a Coral Gables HS football staff that coached two national championship teams. The new member of the Bills' staff landed his first job in professional football at Oakland, where he was the Raiders' chief talent scout in 1966. A year later, he moved to Florida State University as Director of Athletic Recruiting, a position he held for two seasons before joining Brown in Cincinnati.

Harvey Johnson

Elbert Dubenion

Tom Sherman

HARVEY JOHNSON
College Scout

Harvey Johnson has served the Bills as an assistant and head coach, director of player personnel and, now, as college scout. A part of the Buffalo organization from the first days of the franchise, Johnson was the Bills' defensive backfield mentor in 1960-61. Harvey was appointed Director of Player Personnel in 1962, succeeding Lou Saban when Lou took over the football program. Harvey was Buffalo's head coach for 12 games of the 1968 season, following the departure of Joe Collier, and for the entire 1971 campaign. A product of William & Mary, Johnson played for the Bainbridge, Md., Naval Training Center from 1943-45. A draft choice of the All-American Conference New York Yankees, Johnson played regularly in the pros as a defensive back but earned his principal recognition as a placement specialist, once stringing together 146 consecutive conversions. Harvey remained with the New York franchise when it joined the NFL in 1950 but retired as a player in 1953 to take an assistant coaching job with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats. He became head coach of the Kitchener team (Rugby Football Union) in 1954 and guided them to four titles in as many years. He left Kitchener to coach with the Montreal Alouettes in 1958-59.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born June 22, 1919 . . . Attended William and Mary College . . . Has a growing stable of thoroughbred horses . . . He and wife Molly have five children, Linda Louise, Harvey Jr., Helen, Dan, and Cathy.

ELBERT DUBENION

College Scout

The Bills' career leader in every pass receiving category is Elbert "Golden Wheels" Dubenion, one of the most popular players ever to wear a Buffalo uniform. Dubenion, a member of the 1960 club, retired as a player midway through the 1968 season to accept a full-time position with the scouting department. He was, at the time, the last remaining member of the original Bills. In his eight seasons as a player, Dubenion caught 296 passes for 5,304 yards and 35 touchdowns. All are Buffalo lifetime highs as are his marks of TD receptions in five consecutive games and pass receptions in 42 straight appearances. Duby is third in the all-time standings as the Bills' career scoring champion. A little All-America at Bluffton College in 1958, Dubenion set a school record with 53 touchdowns in his four varsity seasons. He signed with the Browns in 1959 but was injured at the College All-Star camp. He was an instant success with the fledgling Bills in 1960, winning MVP honors his first season.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Feb. 16, 1933 . . . Attended Bluffton College . . . He and his wife, Marilyn, have four daughters, Debra, Carolyn, Susan, and Lisa . . . Resides in Gahanna, Ohio.

TOM SHERMAN

College Scout

Former Penn State quarterback Tom Sherman, who played briefly for the Bills in 1969 marks his second season as a member of the Buffalo scouting staff. Sherman, 33, spent the 1976 season as starting quarterback for the CFL Calgary Stampeders. As a Penn State senior, Sherman was one of the NCAA's total offense leaders and was voted MVP in the 1967 Gator Bowl game. He was signed as a free agent by the Boston Patriots and started the Pat's final seven games of 1968, completing 90 passes for 1,199 yards and 12 touchdowns. Picked up by the Bills on waivers late in 1969, he appeared in one game for Buffalo (San Diego) and threw a touchdown pass. Sherman joined the ACFL Hartford Knights in 1970 after receiving his release from the Bills. He played four seasons in Hartford, helping the Knights to the 1972 ACFL championship. Signed by the WFL New York Stars in 1974, he spent two seasons in the World League, moving to Charlotte with the franchise before it finally folded.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born December 5, 1945, in Bellvue, Pennsylvania . . . Attended Union-Joint High School in Rimersburg, Pennsylvania and Penn State University . . . Undergraduate degree is in Health and Physical Education . . . He and wife, Ruth Ann, have three children—Heide, Tom, Jr., and Tim . . . Lives in Derby, N. Y.

Ed Abramoski

Bud Tice

Tony Marchitto

EDDIE ABRAMOSKI Trainer

Since their formation in 1960, the Buffalo Bills have had only one trainer—Eddie Abramoski. An outstanding high school guard in his hometown of Erie, Pa., Abramoski went to Purdue University on a football scholarship. A back injury, which required surgery, wrote an early end to his playing career and led to an interest in becoming an athletic trainer. Following graduation, Eddie landed his first training job at the United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y. He later moved to the University of Detroit as head trainer. While in Detroit, he moonlighted as a trainer with the Lions. He struck up an acquaintance with Detroit assistant coach Buster Ramsay, who took Abe with him to Buffalo when he was named first head coach of the Bills in 1960.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born Nov. 5, 1933 . . . Attended Erie, Pa., East High School and Purdue University . . . Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Purdue in Physical Education . . . Races homing pigeons as a hobby . . . He and his wife Patricia have five daughters, Sophia, Cynthia, Carolyn, Jennifer, Rebecca . . . Lives in Amherst.

BUD TICE
Assistant Trainer

Assistant trainer Bud Tice begins his second season as a member of the Bills' football staff. Immediately prior to his appointment, Tice, 32, worked for two seasons as football trainer at West Virginia University in Morgantown, W. Va. A native of Hart, Mich., Tice is a 1968 graduate of Indiana State University. He began his training career as a undergraduate there and, after a two-year interruption for military service in Vietnam, won his Master's Degree from Eastern Michigan in 1970. Tice was head trainer at Northwest Missouri State University just prior to accepting a position at West Virginia.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born June 22, 1945 . . . Attended Hart High School in Hart, Mich. . . . Earned his Bachelor's from Indiana State in 1968 and a Master's from Eastern Michigan in 1970 . . . College major was Physical Education . . . Single . . . Lives in Orchard Park.

TONY MARCHITTE
Equipment Manager

One of the essential people behind the scenes in the Bills' football operation is equipment manager Tony Marchitte. His responsibilities include maintaining the large stockpile of gear required to outfit the Buffalo squad. Marchitte has been with the Bills almost as long as they've been in business, first joining the organization in 1961. Born in Buffalo, Marchitte is a life-long resident of Western New York. Tony's easy manner and pleasant personality make him a popular member of the staff.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: He has two daughters, Mrs. Phyliss List and Mrs. Judith Anne Jordan . . . Lives in Cheektowaga.

To compensate for the loss of two pre-season dates in in the League's revised 16-game schedule format, Coach Chuck Knox has lined up a pair of controlled training camp scrimmages with the Cleveland Browns. The first, which will involve principally rookie players, will be held on Saturday, July 22, at Edinboro State University near Erie, Pa. A second session is on tap for Sunday, July 30, at the Browns' Kent State, O., University training site.

Quarterback Joe Ferguson and return specialist Keith Moody accounted for nine new Buffalo records in 1977. Ferguson's 25 completions vs. Miami represented a new high as did his season's totals of 457 attempts and 221 completions. Moody rewrote six punt and kickoff return marks, including the longest punt return in Buffalo history—91 yards vs. Cleveland.

FREE AGENTS

They are the unknown soldiers of NFL training camps. Often they are considered nothing more than extra bodies, obtained to fill in spaces in the lineup and to give veterans a breather during the grueling two-a-day practice grind. Free agents. They pass unnoticed in and out of training camp.

Thousands seek tryouts with NFL teams. Hundreds get that tryout. Most are cut long before the championship season begins. But some hang on. There are 17 former free agents on the Bills squad. Some have made it big.

All-Pro safety Tony Greene is a proven NFL star. Last year an aggressive, smallish linebacker from Baylor came from nowhere to lead all Bills' defenders in tackles. Shane Nelson earned mention on several all-rookie teams in 1977.

This year, there will be over 40 free agent hopefuls in the Buffalo Bills training camp.

Some of the free agents have experience; some have been around. They include kicker Tom Dempsey, tackle Randy Young, wide receiver Don Clune and punter Rusty Jackson.

Most, though, are rookies. Some have had tryouts with other teams. Many are fresh out of college, taking their first shot at professional football. One of the best-known free agent rookies is wide receiver Randy Simmrin. Too slow, too small to be drafted, this USC Trojan enjoyed spectacular success as a receiver last year. Throwing often to Simmrin in training camp will be quarterback David Fowler, who is familiar with coach Chuck Knox; Fowler was in the Rams training camp in 1977.

They are the products of football programs, large and small. Buffalo free agents include players from powerful USC (Simmrin, g Bruce Brooks and te Joe Shipp) and a defensive backfield prospect from Livingston College, John Stoudamaier.

Many have been in NFL training camps previously. Linebacker Willie Blackwell of Morris Brown, for instance, was cut in the Redskins' camp a year ago. Another linebacker, Pat Curto of Ohio State, had a trial with Atlanta in 1976. The Cowboys took a look at receiver Gerald Johnson of Johnson C. Smith and the Rams considered defensive back Lester McNealy of Boise State.

Receiver Willie Zackery of Central State, O., University spent time in the Bengals camp last summer. Zackery, incidentally, is one of four Central State players signed by the Bills. The others are linebackers Harold Gilkey and James Ladd and running back Kevin Scott.

Some of the hopefuls come out of the defunct World Football League. Kicker Earl Sark once played for the Chicago Wind and linebacker Steve Colavito of Wake Forest tolled for the Philadelphia Bell. Colavito was also with Edmonton of the Canadian League, a circuit that produced receiver Gary Seamans, who was with the Ottawa Rough Riders.

Semi-pro football is represented by Curto and Sark, ex of the Columbus Stingers, and David Harvey, who previously did his punting for the Long Beach Mustangs.

PRESS-RADIO-TV INFORMATION AND FACILITIES

The Bills' yearbook was prepared to assist in coverage of Buffalo 1978 NFL season. Should additional materials, information, or services be required, contact:

When making requests for working press credentials, please allow time for mailing. Press tickets are normally issued approximately 10 days before the game. Should transmission facilities be required, please arrange for same through local representatives.

WORKING PRESS: Admittance to the Bills' press box is restricted to the WORKING PRESS ONLY. Credentials are marked with a row and seat number. Passes are non-transferable.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are asked to take special note of the following conditions for use of press credentials:

"Any secondary non-editorial or commercial use of any picture, film, or drawing of the game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including but not limited to use in advertising, sales promotion, or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval by the Buffalo Bills football club of the National Football League. Television stations filming or taping NFL games recognize that any films or tapes can be used only in connection with regularly scheduled television newscasts within a seven-day period following the game and the film clip or tape portion of each such showing will not exceed two (2) minutes in length."

Sideline photo passes will be tightly controlled by the Public Relations Department and generally limited to photographers shooting for a daily newspaper, wire service, or magazine of national circulation. No tripods are permitted on the field. Photographers may also shoot from a camera platform that runs the length of the press box.

RADIO-TELEVISION: There are spacious radio and television accommodations in the Bills' new press box. In making requests for broadcast credentials, please specify requirements for spotters and/or statisticians.

For the seventh consecutive season, WKBW Radio (1520 kc) will be flagship station for the Buffalo Bills football network. Al Meltzer will do the play-by-play with Ed Rutkowski and Rick Azar providing color and commentary. Network stations include: WDOE, Dunkirk; WJTN, Jamestown; WHDL, Olean; WGGO, Salamanca; WWWG, Rochester, and WHHO, Hornell.

STADIUM INFORMATION

Orchard Park is headquarters for NFL football in Western New York. Before a sellout crowd of 80,020, the Buffalo Bills dedicated their spanking new playing facility on August 17, 1973. While the visiting Washington Redskins captured the inaugural game 37-21, even defeat could not dull the enthusiasm of fans who had long awaited completion of the project.

Built on a 113-acre tract approximately 30 minutes from downtown Buffalo, the stadium was constructed at a cost of $22 million, financed by the taxpayers of Erie County. From the ground-breaking on April 4, 1972, to the inaugural, actual construction time was slightly over 14 months.

To form the lower level of the stadium more than 370,000 feet of shale was removed—putting the field 50 feet below ground level. The outside of the stadium rises only 60 feet above the horizon. The AstroTurf field has an 18-inch crown to assure proper drainage.

The Bills have approximately $3 million of their own money in the attractive physical plant. The scoreboard, most technically advanced in the nation, was purchased by the team for $1.3 million. Rising 30 feet in the air and extending a length of 105 feet, the scoreboard has a computerized matrix of nearly 10,000 light bulbs. Using the advanced techniques built into the system, the scoreboard operators are able to show instant replays of the action on the field.

Another million dollars of the club's money went to build and furnish 34 luxury private suites, which are leased on an annual basis. In addition, there are more than $700,000 in other capital expenses that were paid directly by the team.

Terms of the lease agreement, which gives the Bills an exclusive 25-year tenenacy, also gives the club financial responsibility for maintenance and operation of the stadium, a figure estimated at approximately $800,000 annually.

Surrounding the stadium are parking facilities for 16,000 cars and 300 buses. Scattered throughout the concourses are 38 concession stands and 42 rest rooms.

THE SEASON IN REVIEW

DOLPHINS 13, BILLS 0

Orchard Park, N. Y., Sept. 18—The Bills' frustrations with the Miami Dolphins were never more evident than in the 13-0 season-opening loss in the rain. The Bills were their own worst enemy as turnovers, penalties, fumbles and other assorted mistakes led to Buffalo's fifteenth straight loss to the Dolphins. Six times the Bills moved inside the Miami 35-yard line and six times Buffalo came up empty-handed. Meanwhile, a short punt, a pass interception, and a fumbled kickoff gave the Dolphins good field position and they converted each of these opportunities with two field goals and a touchdown. Joe Ferguson connected on 19 of 37 passes for over 200 yards, but was hindered by his receivers' inability to hold on to the ball. The Buffalo defense turned in its best performance in four years, limiting Miami to 10 first downs and 148 total yards.

BRONCOS 26, BILLS 6

Denver, Colo., Sept. 25—The Orange Crush defense totally stymied the Bills and the Broncos cashed in on their scoring opportunities to stop Buffalo, 26-6. For the second week in a row the Buffalo offense failed to produce any points, while the Bills' defense seemingly played well enough to win. Buffalo led 6-3 early in the second quarter after Bo Cornell picked up a Lonnie Perrin fumble and rambled 22 yards for a touchdown, but Bill Thompson's interception and return to the one-yard line set up Craig Morton's roll-out TD which put the Broncos ahead to stay in the second quarter. After an 11-yard Buffalo punt, Otis Armstrong needed just two running plays to cover 36 yards and Denver increased its lead to 16-6. The Bills managed just three first downs in the second half as the swarming Denver defense dominated action.

COLTS 17, BILLS 14

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 2—A last-gasp Buffalo comeback was foiled by the clock and the Bills dropped a hard-fought 17-14 decision to Division-leading Baltimore. A 45-yard field goal by Toni Linhart with four seconds remaining in the first half provided the winning margin, while Buffalo's efforts at a last second field goal attempt in the fourth quarter went for naught as time ran out. Each team tallied a TD in the opening half as, for the third week in a row, Buffalo's offense was hurt by turnovers. Buffalo's fifth turnover of the game set up a Baltimore score late in the third quarter which gave the Colts a 17-7 lead. The Bills answered with an 80-yard, nine-play drive that ended when Curtis Brown grabbed a deflected pass in the Colts end zone. Buffalo then held off the Colts for the rest of the fourth quarter and moved into Colts territory as the final gun sounded.

JETS 24, BILLS 19

Orchard Park, N. Y., Oct. 9—A fumbled snap created the opportunity; the New York jets capitalized, and the Bills absorbed their fourth straight loss, 24-19. The teams traded long touchdown drives in the first half, but the Jets appeared to take control of the game with 10 unanswered points in the third quarter. A 55-yard pass play from Richard Todd to Bruce Harper set up the Jets TD giving them a 17-7 lead. Three minutes into the fourth quarter the Bills came back with Joe Ferguson hitting Bob Chandler with a five-yard TD pass. After holding the Jets the Bills moved again, principally on the ground, and Neil O'Donoghue tied the game with a short field goal. After holding New York again, Buffalo took over on their own 16-yard line. Two plays later the Jets Richard Neal pounced on the mishandled snap and Clark Gaines took two running plays to get across the goal line with the winning points.

BILLS 3, FALCONS 0

Orchard Park, N. Y., Oct. 16—A charged-up Buffalo defense made the big plays when it had to and let a second quarter Neil O'Donoghue field goal stand up, giving the Bills a 3-0 victory over Atlanta. It was the Bills first win of the season and first shutout in 35 games. The biggest play of the game came with four minutes remaining when the Falcons, faced with a fourth and one situation on the Buffalo four yard line, disdained the tying field goal and went for the first down. Keith Moody and Doug Jones stopped quarterback Scott Hunter on a roll-out play to preserve the Bills victory. O'Donoghue's field goal came after the Falcons were pinned deep in their territory (two yard line) by a Marv Bateman punt. After stopping Atlanta, Buffalo started a drive on the Falcons' 35-yard line and four running plays set the stage for the winning kick. O. J. Simpson enjoyed his best day of the season, rushing for 138 yards against the tough Atlanta defense.

BROWNS 27, BILLS 16

Orchard Park, N. Y., Oct. 23—The Cleveland Browns used first half turnovers and second half ball control to stymie Buffalo and score a 27-16 victory over the Bills. Buffalo outgained the Browns 256-153 in the first half, but trailed 13-10 thanks to a long deflected pass play for a touchdown to Paul Warfield and four Buffalo turnovers in Cleveland territory, including two inside the 20-yard line. The game remained close through three quarters as the teams traded touchdowns, Buffalo's Keith Moody electrified the crowd with a 91-yard punt return, longest in Bills' history, but it was the last gasp for the Bills. The Browns shut the door on Buffalo's comeback hopes in the fourth quarter by holding on to the ball. Cleveland ran 27 offensive plays in the fourth quarter, holding the ball for better than 13 and a half minutes. Cleo Miller enjoyed his best day as a pro for the Browns, gaining 117 yards in 21 carries.

SEAHAWKS 56, BILLS 17

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 30—It all started well enough for Bills' followers: a Tony Greene interception and return set up a Carson Long field goal and the Bills took an early 3-0 lead, midway through the first quarter. What followed, though, was a nightmare. The Seattle Seahawks exploded with an avalanche of points, and when the smoke cleared the Bills faced a 42-3 halftime deficit. Four TD passes by Jim Zorn and a pair of rushing scores accounted for the six touchdowns as Seattle rolled up 18 first downs and 365 yards before the second quarter ended. With O. J. Simpson watching from the sidelines with a knee injury that would require surgery, Seattle added 14 more points in the second half. The Seahawks finished the game with 559 yards of total offense, the most ever against a Buffalo team. One bright note for Buffalo was three interceptions by Greene, tying a club record.

BILLS 24, PATRIOTS 14

Foxboro, Mass., Nov. 6—The Bills startled the pro football world with a stunning 24-14 upset of New England. As disbelieving Patriots' fans watched in dismay, Buffalo combined a balanced, ball-control attack with aggressive, ball-hawking defense to completely outplay New England. Roland Hooks, subbing for the injured O. J. Simpson, shredded the Patriot defense for 155 rushing yards while Joe Ferguson picked the New England secondary apart, completing 15 of 22 passes for 201 yards. Ferguson had 188 passing yards in the first half as the Bills outgained the Patriots 303-101 while moving out to a 17-7 lead. Reuben Gant caught seven passes for 97 yards in the first half. Doug Jones' interception and return for a touchdown on the first play of the second half increased Buffalo's lead to 24-7. New England's late comeback bid was thwarted by the Bills' ball control offense, which ate up over 11 minutes of the fourth quarter.

COLTS 31, BILLS 13

Orchard Park, N. Y., Nov. 13—The Baltimore Sack Pack had a field day and the Colts dominated the Bills in a 31-13 victory. Buffalo quarterback Joe Ferguson was decked 10 times trying to bring the Bills back from an early 24-7 deficit. Buffalo opened the scoring on a 73-yard punt return by John Kimbrough, but the Colts roared back. A fumble and two interceptions set up 17 of the Colts 24 first half points. Carson Long connected on one field goal with three seconds left in the first half, and another after a Tony Greene interception early in the third quarter to close the gap to 24-13, but the rest of the game belonged to the Baltimore defense.

PATRIOTS 20, BILLS 7

Orchard Park, N. Y., Nov. 20—A pair of fourth quarter touchdowns by Sam Cunningham lifted the New England Patriots to a 20-7 victory over the Bills, avenging a loss to Buffalo two weeks earlier. In a first half dominated by defense, Patriots kicker John Smith accounted for the only three points. Smith upped the New England lead to 6-0 midway through the third quarter, but Buffalo responded by moving 73 yards for a go-ahead touchdown as Joe Ferguson hit Jim Braxton on a 24-yard TD pass. Patriots quarterback Steve Grogan then took matters into his own hands. It was his running that set up both of Cunningham's fourth quarter scores. Grogan, the game's leading rusher with 12 carries for 81 yards, rushed six times for 57 yards in the decisive final quarter to spark the Patriots offense which had been effectively bottled up by Buffalo through three quarters.

RAIDERS 34, BILLS 13

Oakland, Calif., Nov. 28—Ken Stabler directed an Oakland attack that moved at will as the Raiders rolled over Buffalo 34-13 in a Monday Night game. Mark Van Eeghen sparked the Oakland rushing attack with 143 yards in 26 carries while Stabler connected on seven of 12 passes for 166 yards and three touchdowns. Meanwhile, the Bills tried 43 passes and receiver Bob Chandler had an outstanding night in a losing cause with nine receptions for 120 yards. The Raiders scored on their first possession, driving 80 yards in seven plays, and whenever the Bills closed the score, Oakland responded with a touchdown. The Raiders ran 64 rushing plays, gaining 307 yards on the ground.

REDSKINS 10, BILLS 0

Orchard Park, N. Y., Dec. 4—The opportunistic Washington Redskins cashed in on two scoring chances and let their defense do the rest while frustrating Buffalo, 10-0. The Bills outgained Washington 326-264, but every time Buffalo threatened, the Redskin defense came up with a big play. Three times in the first half Buffalo penetrated the Washington 30-yard line. A dropped ball, an interception and blocked field goal stopped the Bills threats. It was more of the same in the second half as the Bills squandered several scoring chances. Redskin quarterback Joe Theisman engineered an 11-play, 53-yard drive in the second quarter, successfully converting two third and long situations before hitting tight end Jean Fugett with an eight-yard touchdown pass. Mark Moseley's field goal after a short Buffalo punt late in the fourth quarter iced the Redskin win.

BILLS 14, JETS 10

New York, N. Y., Dec. 11—A clutch last-minute touchdown drive engineered by Joe Ferguson and Bob Chandler lifted the Bills to a 14-10 win over the Jets. The Bills, who led most of the game, fell behind 10-7 with 1:57 left when Richard Todd connected with Wesley Walker on a nine-yard scoring pass. Buffalo had 92 yards to go after muffing the kickoff, and it took Ferguson nine plays. The Buffalo quarterback connected on seven of nine passes (the other two were dropped) in the winning drive, including four completions to Chandler. The game winner to Chandler in the right corner of the end zone came within 40 seconds remaining. Ferguson, who finished with 17 completions in 32 attempts for 238 yards, had hit Chandler with an earlier TD pass to give the Bills a lead which was protected by clutch play by the Buffalo defense until late in the final quarter.

DOLPHINS 31, BILLS 14

Miami, Fla., Dec. 17—The Miami Dolphins' big-play offense overshadowed a brilliant passing performance by Joe Ferguson as the Dolphins scored their sixteenth straight win over Buffalo, 31-14. Ferguson completed 25 of 40 passes for 331 yards, breaking several club records, but the Bills were undone by turnovers and the Dolphins' explosiveness. In the first half Miami drove 80 yards in four plays, 71 yards in six plays, and 72 yards in three plays for a 21-0 lead. Nat Moore caught two 67-yard passes and Fred Solomon grabbed a 54-yarder from Bob Griese to key the Dolphin attack. Meanwhile the Bills moved inside Miami's 10-yard line on three different occasions only to be stopped by turnovers. Miami's explosiveness continued in the second half when Gary Davis scored on a 60-yard run. Buffalo was again frustrated inside the Miami 10 before Ferguson finally engineered a pair of TD drives in the fourth quarter.

Buffalo had the number one pass offense in the National Football League a year ago. The Bills moved through the air for 2,803 yards. Quarterback Joe Ferguson led the NFL in attempts, completions and yardage and wide receiver Bob Chandler caught, for the second consecutive year, more balls than any man at his position in the entire League. Overall, the Buffalo offense ranked eighth among the League's 28 clubs. A final rushing total of 1,861 yards—the lowest by a Buffalo team since 1971—put the Bills in a tie with Cincinnati for 18th position. The club was 23rd overall defensively, 25th against the rush and 16th vs. the pass.

BILLS HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

It all began with Lamar Hunt's dream, and a meeting in Chicago on August 14, 1959. Eight days later, the American Football League came into being. On October 17, Buffalo was granted the seventh franchise in the upstart AFL.

The new league started its initial draft on November 22, and Buffalo selected Penn State's Richie Lucas in the first round.

On November 30, Buffalo owner Ralph C. Wilson, Jr., named his team the Bills. In December Buster Ramsey was named the first Head Coach of the Bills and Dick Gallagher was appointed General Manager.

The Bills opened their first training camp in East Aurora, N. Y., on July 10, 1960, and 20 days later played their first preseason game, bowing to the Boston Patriots 28-7, before 16,000 at War Memorial Stadium.

Buffalo finished its first season with a 5-8-1 record, drawing 111,860 fans in seven home games. The Bills improved to 6-8 in 1961 and home attendance grew to 133,408.

In January, 1962, Lou Saban replaced Buster Ramsey as the Buffalo Head Coach and Saban led the Bills to their first winning season, 7-6-1. In 1963 the Bills duplicated the 7-6-1 record, and home attendance grew to 209,719. On December 7, 1963, Buffalo fullback Cookie Gilchrist set a pro rushing record with 243 yards while scoring five touchdowns in a 45-14 rout of New York.

Buffalo's 1963 season ended in disappointment as the Bills lost an Eastern Division playoff game to Boston 26-8.

The next two years were glory years for the Buffalo Bills. In 1964 the Bills won their first nine games en route to a 12-2 season, capped by a 20-7 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFL Championship game on December 26 in Buffalo.

Buffalo repeated as AFL champions exactly one year later, scoring a 23-0 shutout of the Chargers in the championship game in San Diego. Buffalo's home attendance jumped to 257,324 in 1964 and 306,675 in 1965.

In January, 1966, Lou Saban resigned and was replaced by Joe Collier. Buffalo won its third straight Eastern Division title by defeating Denver 38-21 in the 1966 season's finale, but the Kansas City Chiefs stopped the Bills, 31-7, in the AFL Championship Game.

On August 14, 1967, the Bills, playing their first game against a team from the National Football League, dropped a 17-14 decision to the Detroit Lions in Tiger Stadium.

Joe Collier's tenure as the Bills Head Coach ended on September 15, 1968 and he was replaced by Harvey Johnson. On January 17, 1969 John Rauch signed a four-year pact to lead the Bills. Rauch lasted until July 20, 1971 when he resigned and Johnson once again stepped in.

Six months later Lou Saban returned to Buffalo after a six-year absence. On December 23, 1971 Saban was named Vice President in Charge of Football and Head Coach of the Bills.

After a lengthy controversy over the sight and type of stadium, ground breaking ceremonies for a new home for the Buffalo Bills were held in Orchard Park, N. Y., on April 4, 1972.

1973 saw a resurgence in the Bills' fortunes. On August 17 a sell-out crowd of 80,020 watched the Washington Redskins defeat Buffalo 37-21 in the inaugural game in the new stadium in Orchard Park. It was the first of six sell-outs that year as the Bills drew 531,270 fans at home, leading the NFL in attendance.

In the opening game of the 1973 season, September 16, O. J. Simpson set an NFL rushing record with a 253-yard performance against New England. Simpson surpassed the 1,000-yard plateau in the seventh game of the season, October 29, in the Bills' Monday Night debut, a 23-14 victory over Kansas City.

Simpson ended the 1973 season in spectacular style on December 16, gaining 200 yards against the New York Jets to up his season total to 2,003 yards, bettering Jim Brown's NFL season rushing mark. On that day the Bills became the first NFL team to rush for over 3,000 yards in a single season.

The Buffalo resurgence continued in 1974 as the Bills finished with a 9-5 mark and qualified for the post-season playoffs. Again Buffalo topped the NFL in attendance, attracting 547,237 fans to Orchard Park (six sell-outs). On December 22, 1974, the Pittsburgh Steelers, eventual Super Bowl Champions, crushed the Bills 32-14 in an AFC Divisional Playoff game in Three Rivers Stadium.

In 1975 the Bills again led the NFL in attendance with a home total of 514,386. The team record slipped to 8-6, but Simpson continued his assault on the record book. On December 20, in a 35-13 loss to the Minnesota Vikings, Simpson scored his 23rd touchdown of the year, an NFL mark.

Lou Saban's second term as the Bills Head Coach ended on October 15, 1976 and Jim Ringo was appointed his successor. On November 25, 1976, Simpson broke his own single game rushing record with a 273-yard performance against the Detroit Lions on Thanksgiving Day.

Another Bills' coaching change was initiated on December 22, 1977 when Ringo was relieved of his responsibilities. The man assigned the job of rebuilding the Buffalo Bills was Chuck Knox, winningest coach in the history of the Los Angeles Rams. Knox's appointment as Bills Vice President and Head Coach was announced on January 12, 1978.

A Bills era ended on Friday, March 24 when O. J. Simpson was traded to the San Francisco 49ers for a package of draft choices.

BILLS IN POST-SEASON GAMES

Mike Stratton's famed "tackle heard round the world" against Keith Lincoln sparked the Bills' 20-7 victory over San Diego in the 1964 AFL Championship Game.

PATRIOTS 26, BILLS 8

Buffalo, N.Y., Dec. 28, 1963 — Babe Parilli passed for 292 yards and a pair of touchdowns and Gino Cappelletti kicked four field goals to lead the Boston Patriots over Buffalo 26-8 in the Eastern Division playoff game. The Boston defense limited the Bills to just seven yards rushing and intercepted four Bills' passes to ruin Buffalo's first post-season playoff appearance. Buffalo had just 38 yards total offense in the first half as the Patriots broke to a 16-0 lead. The Bills' only scoring threat was set up by a 62-yard kickoff return by Elbert Dubenion, but Buffalo couldn't move and a 39-yard field goal attempt fell short. In the second half, Buffalo scored first on a 93-yard pass play from Daryle Lamonica to Dubenion late in the third quarter, but Boston answered with a 68-yard touchdown drive capped by a Parilli pass to Larry Garron that put the game out of reach.

BILLS 20, CHARGERS 7

Buffalo, N.Y., Dec. 26, 1964 — Buffalo made it's first appearance in an AFL Championship Game a successful one with a 20-7 victory over the San Diego Chargers. The Bills used a punishing ground attack and stingy defense as its main weapons. The Chargers scored first and made it look easy, driving 80 yards in just four plays, but the momentum quickly changed hands. On the Charger's second possession, the Bills' Mike Stratton crashed into San Diego running back Keith Lincoln, putting the Charger star out of the game, and a sense of excitement rippled through the Buffalo stands. The rest of the game belonged to the Bills. Cookie Gilchrist's 122 rushing yards complimented the varied Bills passing attack as Buffalo scored 20 unanswered points. A pair of Pete Gogolak field goals and a four-yard run by Wray Carlton gave Buffalo a 13-7 halftime lead and Jack Kemp's 47-yard pass to Glenn Bass set up a Kemp sneak for a TD in the third quarter that finished the scoring.

BILLS 23, CHARGERS 0

San Diego, Calif., Dec. 26, 1965 — For the second straight year, the Buffalo Bills are champions. And for the second straight year, the Bills can thank their defense. Just ask the frustrated San Diego Chargers, who for the second time fell to the Bills in the AFL Championship Game, this time by a 23-0 count. In eight quarters of championship play, the Chargers have managed just seven points against Buffalo. After an uneventful first quarter, Buffalo scored all the points it needed in this game with a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter. Jack Kemp, voted the game's most valuable player, hit Ernie Warlick with an 18-yard touchdown pass to open the scoring and three minutes later the Bills' Butch Byrd returned a punt 74 yards for a score to put Buffalo on top 14-0. The rest of the game belonged to the Bills' defense as time and again they thwarted San Diego's explosive offense. Three Pete Gogolak field goals in the second half added icing to the Bills' championship cake.

CHIEFS 31, BILLS 7

Buffalo, N.Y., Jan. 1, 1967 — Led by the impeccable quarterbacking of Len Dawson, the Kansas City Chiefs earned the right to play the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I by defeating Buffalo 31-7. Dawson completed 16 of 24 passes for 227 yards and a pair of touchdowns while the Kansas City defense forced four Buffalo turnovers and limited the Bills to nine first downs and 40 yards rushing. It was a turnover that turned the game around. The teams traded early touchdowns as the Chiefs took advantage of a Buffalo fumble on the opening kickoff to grab a 7-0 lead. The Bills countered with a 69-yard bomb from Jack Kemp to Elbert Dubenion to tie the game. Dawson hit Otis Taylor with a 29-yard TD pass in the second quarter to put the Chiefs on top, but Kemp moved Buffalo into scoring position near the end of the half. A Johnny Robinson interception and long return set up Mike Mercer's 32-yard field goal with three seconds left in the half and Kansas City had the momentum. Buffalo never penetrated the Chief's 40-yard line in the second half while Kansas City added a pair of scores by Mike Garrett to turn the game into a rout.

STEELERS 32, BILLS 14

Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 22, 1974 — A four-touchdown explosion in the second quarter propelled the Pittsburgh Steelers to a 32-14 win over the Bills, spoiling Buffalo's first post-season appearance in eight years. The Bills moved out to an early 7-3 lead on a 22-yard touchdown pass from Joe Ferguson to Paul Seymour. Buffalo's advantage was short-lived against the eventual Super Bowl Champions. Terry Bradshaw ran the Steeler offense to perfection in the second quarter, completing seven of eight passes for 143 yards and repeatedly hurting Buffalo with scrambling gains. Rocky Bleier began the Pittsburgh scoring avalanche with a 27-yard TD reception and Franco Harris scored three times from inside the five yard line as the Steelers moved out to an insurmountable 29-7 lead. In the second half Buffalo's comeback hopes were stymied by the tough Pittsburgh defense and a stubborn ball control offense that kept the ball away from the Bills.

Only two opposing players gained 100 or more rushing yards against the Bills' defense in 1977. They were Mark van Eeghen of Oakland (143 yards) and Cleo Miller of Cleveland (177).

The Bills' cheerleaders, the Buffalo Jills, are under the direction of Chris Sullivan, a member of the group for six seasons. Under newly-revised eligibility requirements, membership in the Jills is open to anyone 18 or over. For information on the Jills and interviews or photographs, call the Bills' offices.

Both of the Bills' pre-season road games—at Detroit on August 5 and in Minnesota on August 25—will be telecast in the Buffalo area by WKBW Television, Channel 7. The broadcast team will be announced at a later date.

Buffalo has met New England in more pre-season games than any other opponent. While the Bills and Pats have played 12 times, they have not been scheduled in the pre-season since 1971. Dallas, San Diego, San Francisco and Seattle are the only NFL teams the Bills have never faced in the pre-season.
