BILLS TRAIN AT FREDONIA STATE

The Bills will hold their 1985 training camp on the campus of the State University of New York at Fredonia. This will be the fifth straight year the club will hold its training camp at that school. The advance camp will open on Friday, July 19, and the regular camp on Friday, July 26. The club is scheduled to break camp on Thursday, August 22.

RALPH C. WILSON, JR. President and Owner

The only owner of the Buffalo Bills since they joined the American Football League as a charter member in 1960, Ralph Wilson has watched them grow from a struggling infant into the full flower of manhood.

He has tasted the sweet success of two American Football League championships (1964-65) and endured the frustration of the 1968 and 1971 seasons, when the Bills won only one game in each.

He watched one of his players, O.J. Simpson, become the dominant offensive player of the 1970's and saw another, quarterback Jack Kemp, win a landslide election to the U.S. House of Representatives.

For Ralph Wilson, football has been important since he was a young man, accompanying his father to University of Detroit and Detroit Lion games. "I was an avid fan in the early part of my teens," Wilson recalls. "I could see the interest developing in professional football in the days of Leon Hart, Bobby Layne and Doak Walker. We could see how popular the sport was becoming."

Wilson's enthusiasm for professional football led him to first purchase a minority share in the NFL Detroit Lions and later to join ranks with Lamar Hunt and the other members of "The Foolish Club" in an ambitious, but risky, venture known as the American Football League.

In the beginning there were indignities, like dressing in the boiler room below a high school gym because the principal didn't want "pros" using the locker room, but "The Foolish Club" persevered and finally merged with the older National Football League.

Looking back on the formative days of the AFL, Wilson says he "never thought about throwing in the towel, never considered selling the team. Of course, in the first three years we lost money. There were times when I reminded myself I used to pay five dollars for a ticket to the Lions' games and I enjoyed myself and had no headaches. I would ask myself what I was doing here."

It was Wilson and the late Carroll Rosenbloom, then owner of the Baltimore Colts, who had the first tentative talks in January, 1965, that eventually led to the AFL-NFL merger. A past president of the AFL, Wilson served as a member of the expansion committee and the AFL-NFL Negotiations Committee.

He was also prominent in the negotiations which resulted in a 1977 agreement between the NFL Management Council and the NFL Players Association. In 1984, Wilson was named to a two-year term on the Board of Directors of NFL Charities. He joins AFC President Lamar Hunt, NFC President Wellington Mara, NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, Congressman Jack Kemp, Lowell Perry and David Mahoney on the distinguished panel. Since its inception in 1973, NFL Charities has made grant commitments totaling more than $5 million.

A native of Detroit since moving there with his family as a youngster, Wilson earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Virginia and later attended the University of Michigan Law School. He enlisted in the Navy during World War II, earning his commission within a year and serving aboard minesweepers in both the Atlantic and Pacific theatres.

Among many business pursuits, Wilson is president of the Ralph C. Wilson Insurance Agency. Other enterprises under the "Wilson Industries" banner include two television stations, an oil drilling company, a construction firm, tool and die manufacturing companies and a number of other businesses.

Wilson's interest in sports extends beyond football. He owns a stable of thoroughbred race horses and is an avid tennis player, skier and golfer.

From the inception of the Bills, Wilson has played a dynamic and active role in the organization. He is determined in his effort to bring two things — "winning football and a Super Bowl trophy" — to the NFL faithful of Western New York.

The weekly publication, Football News, recognized Wilson's contribution to the game in 1973 when it named him NFL "Man-of-the-Year." "He has been a tower of strength in the administration of professional football," the newspaper said.

FRONT OFFICE STAFF

PATRICK J. MCGRODER, Jr.
Sr. Executive Vice President

Since the foundation of the Buffalo franchise in 1960, Pat McGroder has been a vital part of the Bills' operation. Ralph Wilson, his friend for 25 years, admits he's never met "a more dynamic personality or a more knowledgeable businessman." In 1983, McGroder stepped in on an interim basis to handle the delicate matter of player negotiations and did an outstanding job in what can be one of the most complex and sensitive assignments in all of professional sports.

McGroder coordinated many of the Bills' Silver Anniversary plans in 1984 in addition to supervising the club's activity in the marketing and promotion areas. He also conducts the advertising sales and handles a variety of other activities at the executive level.

A native of Buffalo, McGroder nearly landed an NFL franchise for the city during the late 1950's when he promoted a series of professional football games at War Memorial Stadium. Pittsburgh Steelers chairman of the board Art Rooney had been a friend of McGroder for more than 30 years. Rooney was impressed by Pat's love of his hometown:

"I've never met a man who cared more for his city and the people in his city than Pat McGroder . . . I don't believe anybody could think more of his city than Pat thinks of Buffalo."

In addition to Rooney, McGroder had a long-standing friendship with the late George Halas, president of the Chicago Bears and one of the founding fathers of the NFL.

When pro football came to Buffalo in 1960, it was the American Football League, not the NFL, that set up shop in War Memorial Stadium. The chairman of the city's Board of Stadium and Memorial Auditorium, McGroder reached agreement with Ralph Wilson on a lease for the fledgling pro football team and a new friendship was formed that endures to the present day.

An All-High guard and tackle for St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute, McGroder played for the University of Chattanooga. The son of a West Side grocer, he got into the liquor retailing business as a salesman for W.A. Taylor Importers, rising to National Sales Representative. He left Taylor to form his own firm, McKinley Liquor Company.

In addition to the stadium post he held at the time he met Ralph Wilson, McGroder also served the city as Parks Commissioner and Coordinator of Planning and Development. He was the winner of the Chamber of Commerce's "Good Government" award in 1958.

A past president of the Police Athletic League, McGroder was the Buffalo Athletic Club's choice as "Sportsman of the Year" in 1955.

At Wilson's insistence, McGroder joined the Bills' front office staff soon after the team's formation and he has remained involved in the club for each of its 25 years in Buffalo.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Attended St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute and Hutchinson High School, Canisius and Chattanooga Colleges . . . Excellent golfer . . . He and wife, Loretta, have two daughters, Carol and Kathleen, and a son, Patrick III . . . Son-in-law is John MacLeod, coach of the NBA Phoenix Suns . . . Lives in Buffalo.

TERRY BLEDSOE

General Manager and Vice President-Administration

Former New York Giants executive Terry Bledsoe, whose background includes such diverse subjects as sportswriting, labor-management negotiations and player contract bargaining, was appointed to the post of General Manager and Vice President-Administration on December 10, 1983.

Bledsoe, 51, has responsibility for the business operations of the team, handles player negotiations and serves with Owner Ralph C. Wilson as the Bills' representatives at National Football League meetings.

Assistant General Manager of the Giants for five and a half years (1978-83), Bledsoe first became acquainted with Wilson when he was working with the NFL Management Council and Wilson was a member of the League's labor committee. Bledsoe joined the Management Council in 1973 and, as assistant executive director, was one of the four negotiators who represented the clubs in talks leading to the landmark 1977 Collective Bargaining Agreement.

In 1982, Bledsoe was a member of Jack Donlan's negotiating team in bargaining toward a succeeding agreement.

"The vital part of a relationship, more specifically a negotiation, is to allow both sides to enter and leave it with dignity," Bledsoe said at the time of his appointment. "It is desperately important that the players and employees of an organization feel they're being treated fairly."

While born in Chicago, Bledsoe was raised in Clinton, Iowa, after his father was fatally wounded at the Battle of the Bulge.

He originally enrolled at St. Ambrose College in Davenport, Iowa, and transferred to the University of Iowa where he earned his degree in journalism in 1956.

Bledsoe was a sportswriter and columnist for the Milwaukee Journal for 11 years, covering the Green Bay Packers from 1962-73 and Marquette University from 1962-68. He wrote a sports column from 1966-73 and was chosen Wisconsin "Sportswriter of the Year" in four straight years, until he entered professional football in 1973.

Bledsoe and his wife, Shirley, have six children — Anne, Chris, Tom, Katie, Carolyn and Ellie.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born August 4, 1934, in Chicago, Ill . . . Attended St. Mary's High School in Clinton, Iowa, and the University of Iowa . . . Lives in Orchard Park.

NORM POLLOM

Vice President—Player Personnel

One of the most astute judges of football talent in the business, Norm Pollom was promoted to Vice President—Player Personnel in March, 1983, after serving for the previous five years as director of the Bills' college scouting department. In his capacity, Pollom will be responsible for the acquisition of talent, assist with player negotiations and continue to coordinate the team's college and pro scouting departments. Pollom joined the Buffalo organization in 1978. A native of Chehalis, Wash., was a scouting and personnel specialist with the Los Angeles Rams for 16 years and worked one year with the Tampa Bay Bucs. Pollom graduated from Puget Sound, where he played offensive and defensive end, in 1950. He coached seven years in Pacific Northwest high schools, putting together a scholastic won-lost record of 54-16-2. Named to Jim Owens' Washington staff in 1957, Pollom was with the Huskies for three seasons and had a hand in the 44-8 victory over Wisconsin in the 1960 Rose Bowl game. He left in 1960 to take a position on John McKay's Southern California staff. From SC, Pollom went into the educational field, serving four years as assistant principal of Palo Verdes, Calif., Unified High Schools. He started working for the Rams as a part-time scout while a school administrator and joined the Los Angeles organization fulltime in 1965. When he left the Rams in 1976, Pollom was Director of Player Personnel.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born August 20, 1925, in Chehalis, Wash . . . Attended Chehalis High School and University of Puget Sound . . . Lives in Hamburg with his wife, Bonnie.

KAY STEPHENSON

Vice President
Football Operations and Head Coach

Former Buffalo quarterback Kay Stephenson, a man familiar with the emotional peaks and valleys of professional sport, begins his third season as the Bills' head coach and vice president of football operations.

After bringing the Bills home at 8-8 and keeping playoff hopes alive until the final Sunday of the 1983 season, his first at the Buffalo helm, Stephenson suffered the disappointment of a 2-14 campaign in 1984. Still, his club managed to write one of the '84 season's major headlines by upsetting the heavily-favored Dallas Cowboys 14-3 in Week 12, a loss that eventually deprived the Cowboys of a playoff berth for the first time since 1974.

"I know and our players know that there is much work to be done," Stephenson said as he looked forward to the 1985 campaign. "We suffered last season but we stayed together and learned from the experience. We emerged from 1984 wiser, tougher and more determined than ever to restore a winning personality to the Buffalo Bills."

Those who know him have no doubt that the mild-mannered Stephenson, who has a steel resolve and an unflappable disposition, means exactly what he says. He's been an achiever as an athlete, an assistant coach in college and pro football and anywhere else his energies have been directed.

The second youngest head coach in the National Football League (only the Bengals' Sam Wyche is younger), Stephenson overcame the worst run of injuries in the history of the franchise to record a break-even season as a "rookie" skipper. Only John Robinson of the Rams (9-7) had a better record among coaches in their first NFL season.

After the 1983 season, Stephenson and his staff were selected to coach the North team in the annual Senior Bowl Classic at Mobile, Ala.

While Stephenson's maturity, boldness and judgment are new to many, such qualities came as no surprise to friends like Bill Carr and Bum Phillips and to Ralph Wilson, President of the Bills.

"Anyone who saw him under fire would see that he has a great capacity to perform under stress," Carr, a Pensacola HS teammate who is now athletic director at the University of Florida, said, “. . . You could see that resilience in him. Some of his better qualities were displayed under stressful situations.”

Phillips, whose friendship with Stephenson dates from the early 1960's in San Diego, says Stephenson “is a level guy, and those are the kind of guys I like — guys who aren't going to be up one minute and down the next. He's one of the more stable young people I've ever seen.”

At the February 1, 1983 press conference called to announce Stephenson's appointment as the successor to Chuck Knox, Wilson said “a young person like Kay should be given the chance and I know he'll do an outstanding job for us.”

No newcomer to Western New York, Stephenson was Buffalo's regular quarterback for three games in 1968, taking the starting job vs. Houston and calling the signals until he suffered a fractured collarbone against Miami on November 10, 1968. He completed 19 of 79 passes for 364 yards and four touchdowns.

Stephenson is the first former Buffalo player to serve as the Bills' head coach and the second youngest man ever to hold the position (Joe Collier was the youngest.)

A native of Pensacola, Fla., Stephenson was a prep All-State quarterback in high school who elected to enroll at the University of Florida which also recruited a promising youngster named Steve Spurrier. “He always had a great understanding of football,” says Ray Graves, Florida coach at the time. “You know, sometimes the guys on the sidelines, not in the game, can learn those fine points that turn you to coaching. He was a smart quarterback in college. He simply came along at the wrong time.”

Following his graduation, Stephenson earned a free agent contract with the San Diego Chargers where he spent one season before being traded to Buffalo in 1968. Injured again in 1969, he had brief stints with Oakland and Atlanta before retiring in 1970.

He broke into coaching as a college assistant at Rice University in 1971. Out of football in 1972, Kay returned as athletic director and head coach at Baker, Fla., High School in 1973. He played one year with the WFL Jacksonville Sharks in 1974 and, a year later, served in the dual capacity of offensive coordinator and director of player personnel for the Jacksonville franchise.

After a year away from the game in 1976, Stephenson was tapped for Knox's Los Angeles staff in 1977 and worked with Ram quarterbacks Pat Haden and Joe Namath during LA's Western Division championship season. He followed Knox from LA to Buffalo in 1978.

As the Bills' quarterback coach, he had a hand in assembling the most productive offense in the history of the franchise, which took Buffalo to a second straight playoff appearance in 1981 by accumulating 5,640 yards in 16 games.

Stephenson feels fortunate to have been associated with outstanding football coaches throughout his grid lifetime:

"It started at Pensacola High and at the University of Florida. I had great coaches at both places, including assistant coaches, and both programs were outstanding. I didn't play much at Florida, but I was there when the Gators were as good as they've ever been. Then I was under Sid Gillman as a player with the Chargers and he was instrumental in a lot of offensive things I picked up."

"Charlie Tate, coach of the Jacksonville team in the WFL, was one of the soundest football people I've ever been around. And, Chuck Knox was very special. He gave me coaching jobs with the Rams and here in Buffalo and there was so much I learned from him."

PERSONAL INFORMATION: Born December 17, 1944, at DeFuniak Springs, Fla . . . Attended Pensacola High School and the University of Florida . . . College degree is in Physical Education . . . Enjoys fishing as a hobby . . . Wife's name is Mary Jac . . . Has a daughter, Sheryl, 22 . . . Lives in Orchard Park.

Stephenson extends a warm welcome to New York State Governor Mario Cuomo on the governor's visit to the Bills' training camp last year.

PRO: Had his season cut to seven games last year after suffering a broken right ankle against Seattle (10/14) and spent the rest of the year on injured reserve . . . Until that point he had been the club's top reserve at tackle and also the snapper on all kicks . . . Figures to be one of the team's top reserves this year but is certainly capable of earning a starting berth . . . Will probably handle the Bills' kick snapping chores again in 1985 . . . Can also play guard if needed as he has done in the past . . . Was a starter in 13 games at right tackle in 1983 when veteran Joe Devlin went down with an ankle injury in the preseason . . . Slowed part of that season with a left knee injury which he suffered against the Raiders (11/19/83) . . . Missed one game and then shared duties with Tom Lynch the final three games . . . Has excellent size for his position and is also one of the fastest linemen on the club . . . Has run a 4.78 40-yard dash . . . Helped set up a Buffalo touchdown against the Jets in 1983 (10/6) when he recovered a fumble . . . Missed the entire 1981 season when he went on injured reserve with a back injury . . . He was the 273rd player chosen in the 1981 draft when the Bills took him in the 10th round.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Started three straight years at tackle at Western State College in Gunnison, Colorado where he was an All-America pick as a senior . . . Originally went to school intent on making the ski team . . . Helped the Mountaineers to a 32-8 record in his four seasons and twice was chosen to the All-Rocky Mountain Athletic conference team . . . His team averaged over 400-yards-a-game in total offense during that span and ranked nationally in that category . . . Majored in biology with a chemistry minor and graduated with a 3.25 grade point average . . . Born in Montreal, he is a graduate of Portsmouth, (N.H.) High School . . . Comes from an athletic family . . . His father played basketball at Colby College in Maine as did his sister, Kaye, who was a 1,000 point scorer there and an All-America . . . His younger brother, Jeff, was an HM All-America at Maine in 1984 before being drafted by the Dallas Mavericks after scoring over 1,000 points in his career . . . He played professionally in Spain last year . . . Full name is Justin Allen Cross . . . Is considering a career in orthopedics or sports medicine . . . Spent part of the winter of 1983 working at the Buffalo Medical Foundation Research Laboratories, a facility for cancer research . . . Enjoys skiing and obtained his pilot's license recently . . . Lives in Hampton, New Hampshire in the offseason.

PRO: Was a midseason acquisition for the Bills following the release of Joe Danelo after the ninth game . . . He had been a free agent after being waived by the Rams at the end of the 1984 preseason . . . Played in seven games for the Bills but tried just five field goals in that span . . . In fact, he had just one attempt over the final five weeks of the season which was successful and the longest of his pro career (47 yards vs. New York on 12/8) . . . Tried two field goals in each of his first two games with the Bills and was accurate on one in each game against Cleveland (42 yds.) and New England (34 yards) . . . Had misses from 37 and 43 yards . . . Was also successful on all 14 point after attempts . . . A fourth round pick by the Rams in the 1983 draft, he kicked for 12 games for the Rams before losing his job to Mike Lansford after that . . . Was five of 11 on field goals during that time with a long kick of 41 yards vs. San Francisco which helped the Rams to a 10-7 win . . . Also made 33 of 37 extra points and scored 48 points, second best on the Rams that year . . . Will need to develop consistency if he is to be a successful kicker in the NFL . . . Was plagued by several blocked kicks with the Rams but has worked on that aspect of his game in the offseason . . . When the Rams took him in the fourth round in 1983, he was the 87th player selected.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Had an outstanding college career at the University of Washington where he set an NCAA record for consecutive field goals by making 30 straight during his junior and senior seasons (five in '81; first 25 in '82) . . . Inside the 40, he was 46 of 52 (88.7%) during his career and scored more points (271) than any other Division I kicker during that period . . . Made all 34 conversions as a senior and was named first team All-America on virtually every A-A club . . . Twice kicked field goals of 51 yards for the Huskies . . . Played for coach Don James and participated in two Rose Bowl games and also an Aloha Bowl . . . Had a hand in 40 NCAA, Pac-10 and Washington records during his career . . . Twice named Academic All-America as a business major and was awarded an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship . . . A graduate of Everett High School in Washington . . . PRO: Will be a welcome addition to the Bills' defense if he is back at full strength this season . . . Has been troubled by knee problems since the 1980 season which has severely limited his effectiveness . . . Missed the last two seasons after undergoing surgery on his left knee in June, 1983 . . . Has progressed well with his rehabilitation and should go to training camp at full strength for the first time in nearly five years . . . Went through drills in training camp in 1984 but was still bothered with knee problems which ended up forcing him to be placed on injured reserve where he spent the whole season . . . Will be battling for the starting free safety spot in 1985 . . . Has started just nine games since the Bills plucked him in the fourth round from the University of Richmond in 1979 . . . Made four of those starts as a rookie when he led the Bills with six interceptions . . . Was off to a great start as the starter in 1980 but then suffered a knee injury the fifth week against San Diego (10/5) which forced him to miss eight games prior to his being reactivated later that year . . . When he went down with the injury, he was leading the NFL in interceptions with five, including three in the season opener that year against Miami (9/7/80) . . . Returned an interception 50 yards for a score against the Jets the following week . . . Tied a Buffalo record with that pass theft, giving him at least one interception in four consecutive games, including the final two games in 1979 . . . Was the NFL Defensive Player-of-the-Month for September that year as chosen by Pro Football Writers . . . Still finished second on the team in interceptions despite missing eight games . . . Instinctively always around the ball . . . However, since his first two seasons his balky knee has curtailed his playing time and effectiveness . . . Reinjured his knee in a basketball benefit just prior to training camp in 1981 which slowed him early that season and also hurt it again vs. Pittsburgh in 1982 . . . Had 61 tackles as a rookie and earned mention on some All-Rookie clubs . . . He was the 87th player chosen in the 1979 draft and was one of two Buffalo picks in that round (Ken Johnson the other).

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Had a very productive career at the University of Richmond which he capped by winning a number of All-America honors as a senior . . . Coached by Jim Tait, he was named the ECAC Division I Defensive Player-of-the-Year in 1978 . . . Also earned mention on All-America teams chosen by AP, Kodak, Football News, Walter Camp Football Foundation and College Football Writers . . . Had 23 career interceptions for the Spiders and ranked nationally in that category as a senior along with punt returns . . . His 160 return yards against Wisconsin in 1978 was the NCAA high that year for Division I . . . Set a school record as a senior with 34 returns for 342 yards . . . A three-time All-ECAC choice, he also participated in the East-West Shrine game and the Senior Bowl . . . Had 541 career tackles and two of his interceptions were for TD's . . . One of the NCAA all-time interception leaders . . . Still holds a number of school records . . . Full name is Jeffry Allen Nixon . . . He was born in Fursten Feldbruck, West Germany where his father was in the military . . . A graduate of Garfield High School in Woodbridge, Virginia . . . Has a degree in physical education . . . An accomplished guitar player, he has written some music . . . Made a number of appearances for the club throughout the year . . . Lived in Blasdell, N.Y. in the offseason with his wife, Dana and daughter, Jena, born last March.

DON WILSON

Safety

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 190

College: N. Carolina St.

Born: July 21, 1961

Year: 2nd

How Acquired: Free Agent

PRO: One of the rookie surprises for the Bills in 1984 . . . After beating the long odds with a strong training camp to earn a roster spot as a free agent, he moved into the starting lineup in the second week of the season and ended up starting 11 games at free safety . . . He was also the Bills' lone punt return man as a rookie, returning 33 kicks for 297 yards and a 9.0 average . . . Ranked fifth in the AFC in punt returns and had the second longest return of the season in the conference—65 yds. vs. Seattle (10/21) . . . It was one of just two touchdowns scored on punt returns in the AFC in 1984 (Louis Lipps the other of 76 yards) . . . Started at free safety in Weeks 2-11 before sharing time with Rod Kush over the final five weeks . . . One of the hardest hitters in the Bills' secondary, he had numerous big hits as a rookie . . . Was also utilized as a kickoff return man and ran back 34 for 576 yards (16.9 avg.) . . . His 34 returns were just five shy of the Buffalo record which was tied last year by Robb Riddick . . . His long kickoff return was 36 yards vs. St. Louis (9/9) . . . Finished the year with 93 tackles which ranked fourth on the club . . . Also recovered a fumble . . . Figures to be right in the middle of a battle for the starting free safety spot in 1985.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Played two seasons at North Carolina State University where he was the Wolfpack's starting strong safety as a junior and senior . . . Had 152 career tackles and three interceptions . . . Played one season at Ellsworth Junior College in Iowa where he won All-America honors . . . Originally enrolled at Midland Lutheran College in Nebraska as a freshman . . . Played for Bills' assistant coach Monte Kiffin as a junior while Kiffin was head coach at NC State . . . Played under Tom Reed as a senior . . . A graduate of Cardozo High School in Washington where he starred in football and baseball . . . Was a recreation major . . . Full name is Donald Wilson . . . A native of Washington, he lived there in the offseason.

1984 GAME SUMMARIES

NEW ENGLAND 21, BUFFALO 17

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Sept. 2—The Bills held the edge in almost every statistical category against the New England Patriots, but the Pats spoiled the Bills' 1984 home opener thanks in part to some early scoring and an opportunistic defense which produced a 21-17 Patriots' victory. Veteran quarterback Steve Grogan hurt the Bills early, hitting speedy Stephen Starring for a 65-yard score on the second play of the game and then teaming up with Derrick Ramsey on a three-yard pass two series later to help New England to a 14-0 lead. A four-yard TD run by Tony Collins increased the Pats' lead to 21-0 midway in the second period before Joe Danelo got the Bills on the board with a 27-yard field goal just before the half. The Bills' defensive adjustments paid some dividends in the second half as it limited New England to just 94 total yards but several missed scoring opportunities by Buffalo proved costly. Veteran quarterback Joe Ferguson played one of his finest games for the Bills, completing 27 of 40 for 263 yards and two second half touchdowns to Preston Dennard (8 yards) and Tony Hunter (9 yards) but his effort fell just short. Wide receiver Byron Franklin had his most productive day as a Bill as he caught 10 Ferguson passes for 96 yards in the loss.

St. LOUIS 37, BUFFALO 7

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 9—Quarterback Neil Lomax led a potent St. Louis offense and coupled with a stingy defense, they proved to be too much for the Bills in the Cardinals 37-7 win over Buffalo in their home opener. The Cardinals scored four of the first five times they had the ball and finished the game with 486 yards in total offense while holding the Bills to just 171 yards. Lomax completed 21 of 29 passes for 265 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while running back O.J. Anderson scored twice and rushed 20 times for 83 yards. The Cardinals built a 31-0 lead before the Bills finally got on the scoreboard in the third quarter when quarterback Joe Ferguson, who later left with an injury to his nose, found Preston Dennard from 22 yards out for Buffalo's only tally. The St. Louis defense sacked Buffalo quarterbacks four times and held the Bills to just eight rushes in the contest and 13 of 32 passing while intercepting three passes.

MIAMI 21, BUFFALO 17

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Sept. 17—Buffalo rebounded from its previous week's loss to St. Louis with an emotional effort on ABC's Monday Night Football contest with Miami, but it fell short in a 21-17 Dolphin victory. As in its opening day loss to New England, the Bills had to play catch-up with their AFC East rivals. Led by Dan Marino's three TD passes, the Dolphins built a 21-3 lead going into the third period before Buffalo began its comeback. Fullback Speedy Neal, a rookie from Miami, Fla., got the Bills on the board when he scored from a yard out to make it, 21-10, in the third period. Steve Freeman gave the Bills a golden opportunity when he intercepted Marino on the ensuing series and returned it 45 yards to the Miami 26-yard line. However, the big break Buffalo received went awry when Joe Ferguson fumbled when sacked by Charles Bowser and Doug Betters recovered on third down at the 25. Ferguson bounced back on Buffalo's next possession, however. Completing four passes in a 79-yard drive, Ferguson pulled Buffalo within four points, 21-17, when he hit Julius Dawkins from 37 yards out. Following a Reggie Roby punt the Bills continued to move against Miami on their next possession. Taking over at their own 32-yard line, the Bills moved into Dolphin territory for a possible go-ahead TD but a fumble by Byron Franklin on third-and-10 at the 38-yard line stalled that drive. Franklin's miscue came while lunging for a first down after a nine-yard grab and was caused by Mike Kozlowski and recovered by Don McNeal. The Dolphins then killed the remaining 5:16 on the clock as it won its third straight game, while the Bills fell to 0-3.

NEW YORK JETS 28, BUFFALO 26

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Sept. 23—The frustration continued for the Bills as they dropped their fourth straight contest, a 28-26 decision to the visiting New York Jets. The first quarter was all Buffalo as the Bills built a 10-0 lead thanks to a record-tying 52-yard field goal by Joe Danelo and a one-yard pass from Joe Ferguson to Van Williams. However, the momentum swung to the Jets favor on the final play of the first period when running back Tony Paige ran 23 yards on a fake punt on fourth-and-four to help keep a Jets' drive alive. Three plays later, Paige scored from two yards out and the Jets went on to score 21 unanswered points, including two TD receptions by Wesley Walker, to take a 21-10 halftime lead. Three Joe Danelo field goals pulled the Bills within two points, 21-19, at the close of the third quarter, but Walker scored his third touchdown of the afternoon midway in the fourth period on a 35-yard pass from Pat Ryan for the decisive points. Ferguson rallied Buffalo within two points with a 31-yard TD to Julius Dawkins with just under four minutes left but Buffalo couldn't push across another score after that. The offense suffered a severe blow late in the game when Ferguson was sacked by Joe Klecko and was forced to leave the game with a severe ankle sprain. Until that point, he had completed 31 of 46 passes for 340 yards and two scores. His replacement, Matt Kofler, was 0-5 in the final two series.

INDIANAPOLIS 31, BUFFALO 17

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 30—A twelve minute lapse late in the third quarter and at the start of the fourth quarter spelled doom for the Bills in their first contest with the Indianapolis Colts in the Hoosier Dome. Leading 17-10 with four minutes left in the third period, the Bills saw the hosts score 21 unanswered points to drop a 31-17 decision to the Colts. The Bills collapse started after Eugene Daniel intercepted a Joe Dufek pass at the Buffalo 42-yard line. Five plays later, Randy McMillan scored from 10 yards out to tie the score. Moments later the Colts struck again following a Buffalo punt. Although rookie John Kidd had pinned the Colts at their own four-yard line, it took them just seven plays to go 96 yards. Curtis Dickey bolted 30 yards on first down before running 15 more yards on his next carry. Four more runs moved the ball to the Buffalo 31, before McMillan capped the drive with a 31-yard scoring run on a draw play. The Colts finished off their scoring shortly after when safety Mark Kafentzis intercepted a Dufek pass and raced 59 yards for a score. The loss overshadowed a strong effort by Bills' rookie Greg Bell, who ran 29 times for 144 yards. Buffalo also got some solid play from Dufek, who was making his first start at quarterback in place of an injured Joe Ferguson. Dufek completed 15 of 35 passes for 204 yards and one TD and also ran 11 yards for another. Randy McMillan, who was held in check until late in the third period, finished with 114 yards for the Colts. He had just six yards on three carries in the first half as Buffalo limited the Colts to 15 net yards rushing on 11 carries.

PHILADELPHIA 27, BUFFALO 17

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Oct. 7—It was a day set aside to honor Buffalo's Silver Anniversary team but Philadelphia proved to be the spoilers as the Eagles posted a 27-17 win over the Bills. With such all-time greats as O.J. Simpson, Jack Kemp, Mike Stratton and Billy Shaw looking on, the Bills began the contest intent to win their first game of the year after five straight losses. Led by quarterback Joe Dufek, Buffalo scored on two of its first three possessions to grab a 10-7 lead but suffered a critical blow in the second period when Dufek left the game with a knee injury. Dufek's loss, coupled with the play of Philadelphia's Ron Jaworski, helped the Eagles grab a 17-10 halftime lead which they never gave up. Jaworski rallied the Eagles from the 10-7 deficit by hitting Vyto Kab with a four-yard scoring toss and then helped position Paul McFadden for a 36-yard field with just two seconds left in the half. McFadden added a 22-yard field goal late in the third period to up the lead to 20-10 before Greg Bell cut the margin to three points, 20-17, with his second TD of the game, a three-yard run. However, Philadelphia added an insurance touchdown on a one-yard run by Jaworski which put the game out of reach for the Bills. Jaworski finished the day with 24 of 38 for 234 yards and two scores, while Matt Kofler, who took over for Dufek, was 10 of 26 for 134 yards with one interception.

SEATTLE 31, BUFFALO 28

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 14—Seattle and Buffalo gave the 59,034 fans in the Kingdome a little bit of everything before the Seahawks finally prevailed 31-28 which sent the Bills down to their seventh straight defeat. Seattle started the contest as if they were going to run the Bills out of the Kingdome. Taking advantage of two consecutive blocked punts and a Buffalo fumble, the Seahawks quickly grabbed a 17-0 lead at the close of the first period, despite just 17 yards in total offense. However, Buffalo turned the tables on Seattle in the second quarter. First Lucius Sanford raced 46 yards with a fumble following a hit on quarterback Dave Krieg by Steve Freeman and just over a minute later, rookie Don Wilson returned a Jeff West punt 65 yards for a score to close the halftime margin to 17-14. The Seahawks and Bills exchanged third quarter touchdowns before Buffalo took the lead for the first time early in the final period when quarterback Joe Ferguson found Preston Denard on a three-yard scoring toss. Seattle answered Buffalo's score on their next series when it scored the decisive touchdown. Faced with a third-and-eight at its own 49, Krieg found Steve Largent all alone on the left side when Bills' cornerback Charles Romey fell down to complete a 51-yard TD. The loss ruined a strong effort by the Buffalo defense which limited Seattle to just 41 yards rushing and 238 yards in total offense. The defense also recorded three sacks and two interceptions. Also turning in a strong effort was rookie Greg Bell, who ran 28 times for 113 yards and caught six passes for 66 yards.

DENVER 37, BUFFALO 7

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Oct. 21—Although he played just the first half, quarterback John Elway made his presence felt as he led the Denver Broncos to a 23-0 halftime lead and a final verdict of 37-7 over the Bills. Before being replaced in the second half by his understudy, Gary Kubiak, Elway completed 12 of 23 passes for 148 yards and second period TD passes of three yards to Clarence Kay and 52 yards to Steve Watson. The Broncos led just 3-0 after the first period on a 45-yard field goal by Rich Karlis but exploded for 20 points in the second which included two more field goals by Karlis of 45 and 40 yards. In the meantime, the Broncos' defense was limiting the Bills to just 81 total yards in the first half. A three-yard run by Kubiak in the third quarter and a 14-yard pass from Kubiak to Sammy Winder pushed the Denver advantage to 37-0 midway in the final period before the Bills ended their scoring drought with a 70-yard pass from Matt Kofler to rookie Mitchell Brookins. The Broncos' defense intercepted four Buffalo passes and recorded six sacks in the win.

MIAMI 38, BUFFALO 7

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 28—Miami dominated nearly every phase of the game as it sent the Bills to their ninth straight defeat of the 1984 campaign, 38-7. The Dolphins, who came into the game with an 8-0 mark, used the passing of Dan Marino and the receiving of speedy Mark Clayton to keep their record unblemished. Marino completed 19 of 28 passes for 282 yards and three first half touchdowns, including two to Clayton, who finished the afternoon with 106 yards in receptions on just three catches. His two scoring grabs were seven and 65 yards. The other Dolphin touchdowns came on runs of a yard each by Woody Bennett and Pete Johnson and a 10-yard pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson. The lone Buffalo score came with just over a minute left when reserve quarterback Matt Kofler found wide receiver Preston Dennard in the end zone from five yards out. Dennard finished the day with eight catches for 72 yards, while running back Robb Riddick had six receptions for 61 yards. In the rushing department rookie Greg Bell ran for 62 yards on just 10 carries.

CLEVELAND 13, BUFFALO 10

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Nov. 4—It took one crazy play to decide the outcome of the battle between the winless Bills and Cleveland, which came into the game with just one win. When it was all over the Browns prevailed 13-10 thanks to a heads up play by running back Earnest Byner. Trailing 10-6 at rainy Rich Stadium with just over seven minutes left, Byner scooped up a fumble by teammate Willis Adams and tripped and skipped 55 yards for the decisive points. Byner's run stole some of the thunder from teammate Boyce Green who ran for 156 yards on 29 carries, the most ever by a visiting back at Rich Stadium. Buffalo appeared to have stopped Cleveland short at the start of the play when Paul McDonald's pass on third and 20 to Adams came up seven yards shy of a first down. However, Adams was hit by Buffalo's Lawrence Johnson short of the first down but Byner picked up Adams' fumble on the wet turf and ran untouched down the left sideline for Cleveland's lone touchdown. Buffalo had held the lead in the game ever since the second quarter when linebacker Chris Keating picked up a McDonald fumble and ran 34 yards for the lone Bill's TD. Cleveland's Matt Bahr pulled the Browns within a point just before the half on a 36-yard field goal after he had given Cleveland an early lead on a 28-yarder in the first period. Chuck Nelson moved Buffalo's lead to 10-7 with a 42-yard FG in the third quarter before Byner's run put the Browns back in front for good. For the Bills it was again a game of lost opportunities. Although they gained just 183 in total offense, they still squandered scoring chances with a pair of interceptions and a missed field goal. In three of their possessions they reached the Cleveland 18, 25 and 13, yet came away with just three points. Three other possession drives were stalled by holding penalties. Rookie Greg Bell led the Buffalo offense with 20 carries for 82 yards and six catches for 27 yards.

NEW ENGLAND 38, BUFFALO 10

FOXBORO, Mass., Nov. 11—The Bills battled New England on even terms for nearly three periods but a critical play — a pass interference call — turned things around for the Patriots who went on to post a 38-10 win over Buffalo at rainy Sullivan Stadium. With the game tied at 10-all, Buffalo's Brian Carpenter was called for interference against the Pats' Cedric Jones giving New England first and goal at the one-yard line. On the following play, Tony Collins scored the first of two touchdowns in just over two minutes which gave New England the lead for good. Moments later, following a Buffalo punt, Collins scored his second on another one-yard run and the Patriots moved in front 24-10 at the close of the third quarter. They later added two more scores in the fourth period thanks to a pair of Tony Eason TD passes and beat the Bills for the fifth straight time. The Bills suffered through one of their worst days in the passing department against New England. Joe Ferguson struck early with a 68-yard TD to Preston Dennard in the first period but that was the only bright spot. He finished with nine of 29 for 142 yards and three interceptions, while his back-up, Matt Kosler, was four of 19 for 64 yards. The pair were sacked eight times for minus 94 yards. The Bills defense did do a creditable job against the Patriots' running game, limiting New England to 68 yards on 33 carries.

BUFFALO 14, DALLAS 3

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Nov. 18—The Bills ended 11 straight weeks of frustration with a stunning 14-3 upset of the Dallas Cowboys before 74,391 fans at Rich Stadium and posted their first win of the 1984 campaign. Rookie Greg Bell was the offensive star for the Bills. The former Notre Dame running back served notice to the Cowboys on the first play of the game when he raced 85 yards for a touchdown which was the third longest in Buffalo history and the longest ever against the Cowboys. Bell finished the day with a second touchdown, a three-yard pass from Joe Ferguson, early in the fourth period. For the afternoon, Bell ran 27 times for 206 yards and caught two passes for 12 yards. His 206 yards was also the second best effort ever against a Dallas defense, topped only by Jim Brown's 232 yards in 1963. While the Bills' offense centered around Bell, the defense played its finest game of the season, Buffalo recorded three sacks, intercepted two passes and limited the Dallas running game to just 78 yards on 24 carries. Dallas was only able to get inside the Buffalo 30-yard line on two occasions and came up with its only score of the day one of those times—a 20-yard field goal by Rafael Septien. On the other possession, the Cowboys reached the Buffalo 10-yard line but a pair of penalties moved them back to the 30 and Brian Carpenter ended that second quarter threat with a pass interception. The win over Dallas was Buffalo's first over the NFC East member since 1971 and snapped a four game losing string to NFC foes.

WASHINGTON 41, BUFFALO 14

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 25—Quarterback Joe Theismann and wide receiver Art Monk were the culprits for the Washington Redskins as the defending NFC champions rolled to a 41-14 win over Buffalo at RFK Stadium. The 'Skins got out of the blocks early, building a 17-0 lead after just 12 minutes had gone by in the first period. An 18-yard TD from Theismann to Charlie Brown increased the lead to 24-0 in the second period before the Bills offense finally got untracked thanks to an eight-yard toss from Joe Ferguson to Byron Franklin. Trailing 27-7 in the third period, Buffalo got within 13 points on a 36-yard scoring pass from Ferguson to Preston Dennard at the start of the period, but that was as close as the Bills would get in the game. An 11-yard interception return by Vernon Dean in the third quarter and a three-yard run by Otis Wonsley in the final period sealed the verdict. Theismann finished with 26 completions in 33 attempts for 311 yards and two touchdowns, while Monk was just one catch shy of tying a record for receptions by a receiver against the Bills with 11 grabs which accounted for 104 yards. Calvin Muhammad caught four passes for 97 yards for the Redskins, while rookie Greg Bell finished the day with just 53 yards on 13 carries for Buffalo. The Redskins recorded seven sacks in the win, getting to Joe Ferguson four times and Matt Kofler three.

BUFFALO 21, INDIANAPOLIS 15

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y., Dec. 2—After scoring 21 first quarter points, Buffalo had to turn to its defense which held off a late Indianapolis surge as the Bills posted a 21-15 win over the Colts at Rich Stadium. A fumble recovery by Joe Azelby with two minutes left in the game iced the win for the Bills after a muffed punt by the Colts' Larry Anderson at the Buffalo 29. The Bills got all the points they needed in the first period. Making his first start at quarterback since the Philadelphia game, Joe Dufek led the Bills on scoring drives of 35, 89 and 70 yards in the opening stanza. Fred Smerlas' fumble recovery set up the first tally, a seven-yard run by Greg Bell and then Dufek drove the Bills for a second score which he capped with an 18-yard pass to Tony Hunter. Buffalo's third score came on the final play of the first quarter when Dufek teamed with Byron Franklin on a 64-yard scoring pass. A couple of Buffalo miscues led to Indianapolis' scores in the second period. The first was a muffed punt by Don Wilson which led to a safety early in the quarter and then a short punt by John Kidd with just under two minutes left helped set up a 14-yard pass from Art Schlichter to Frank Middleton. However, the Colts were only able to get two field goals following intermission when they trailed 21-9. The Colts had moved to the Bills' seven-yard line in the third quarter and to the four in the fourth, but the Buffalo defense forced the Colts to kick field goals each time. Greg Bell led the Buffalo rushing attack with 83 yards on 30 carries while Dufek completed 11 of 22 for 164 yards and two touchdowns. The Buffalo defense recovered three fumbles and had one pass interception.

NEW YORK JETS 21, BUFFALO 17

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J., Dec. 8—For the second week in succession Buffalo got off to a quick start in the first half but this time they failed to hold off a late surge as the New York Jets posted a 21-17 come-from-behind win over the Bills at Giants Stadium. The Bills had built a 17-7 lead in the first half thanks to a 36-yard return of a blocked punt by rookie Stan David, a three-yard run by Greg Bell and a career best 47-yard field goal by Chuck Nelson, but that was all the scoring the Bills could muster before a national television audience. Buffalo's second half numbers were just 43 total yards and three first downs as the Jets' defense completely stifled the Bills' offense. The Jets scored once in each of the final two quarters to post the win and snap their own six game losing string. The decisive touchdown, a three-yard run by Tony Paige, came early in the fourth quarter when the Jets drove 40 yards in just five plays. Two key plays which helped set up the winning score were an 18-yard punt return by Cedric Minter and a 30-yard pass from Ken O'Brien to Lam Jones. The Jets also took advantage of a personal foul penalty against Buffalo which gave them a first and goal at the five-yard line. New York had moved within three, 17-14, late in the third period on a 39-yard pass from O'Brien to Wesley Walker. If there was one bright spot in the loss for Buffalo it was the fact that rookie Greg Bell, who gained 54 yards to push him over the 1,000-yard mark at 1,042 yards. He also became the tenth Buffalo back to hit that plateau in the club's 25-year history.

CINCINNATI 52, BUFFALO 21

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 16—Buffalo struck paydirt first, on a five-yard run by Greg Bell on its initial possession, but there were very few bright spots beyond that in the season finale for the Bills who dropped a 52-21 decision to Cincinnati at Riverfront Stadium. The Bills opening drive was almost picture perfect as they mixed the run and the pass to go 77 yards in 11 plays while using four minutes and six seconds. However, the Bengals, who still clung to hopes of winning the AFC Central Division, roared back with 31 unanswered points and turned the game into a rout. Veteran Ken Anderson threw three first half touchdown passes and completed 16 of 20 tosses for 206 yards before intermission as Cincinnati built a 28-7 halftime lead. The closest the Bills were able to get after that was 31-14 late in the third period on a 16-yard pass from Joe Dufek to Byron Franklin. The Bengals then answered with three more scores, including a pair of interception returns for touchdowns in the final period, before Buffalo closed out the scoring on a one-yard run by Bell. The 58 pass attempts by the Bills set a new club mark and Dufek's 30 completions were the second best effort ever by a Bills' quarterback. Rookie Greg Bell rushed 16 times for 58 yards and finished his rookie season with 262 carries for 1,100 yards, while Franklin's seven catches gave him 69 for the season which was one shy of the Buffalo record.

PATRIOTS 26, BILLS 8

Buffalo, N.Y., Dec. 28, 1963 — Babe Parilli passed for 292 yards and a pair of touchdowns and Gino Cappelletti kicked four field goals to lead the Boston Patriots over Buffalo 26-8 in the Eastern Division playoff game. The Boston defense limited the Bills to just seven yards rushing and intercepted four Bills' passes to ruin Buffalo's first post-season playoff appearance. Buffalo had just 38 yards total offense in the first half as the Patriots broke to a 16-0 lead. The Bills' only scoring threat was set up by a 62-yard kickoff return by Elbert Dubenion, but Buffalo couldn't move and a 39-yard field goal attempt fell short. In the second half, Buffalo scored first on a 93-yard pass play from Daryle Lamonica to Dubenion late in the third quarter, but Boston answered with a 68-yard touchdown drive capped by a Parilli pass to Larry Garron that put the game out of reach.

BILLS 20, CHARGERS 7

Buffalo, N.Y., Dec. 26, 1964 — Buffalo made its first appearance in an AFL Championship Game a successful one with a 20-7 victory over the San Diego Chargers. The Bills used a punishing ground attack and stingy defense as its main weapons. The Chargers scored first and made it look easy, driving 80 yards in just four plays, but the momentum quickly changed hands. On the Chargers' second possession, the Bills' Mike Stratton crashed into San Diego running back Keith Lincoln, putting the Charger star out of the game, and a sense of excitement rippled through the Buffalo stands. The rest of the game belonged to the Bills. Cookie Gilchrist's 122 rushing yards complimented the varied Bills' passing attack as Buffalo scored 20 unanswered points. A pair of Pete Gogolak field goals and a four-yard run by Wray Carlton gave Buffalo a 13-7 halftime lead and Jack Kemp's 47-yard pass to Glenn Bass set up a Kemp sneak for a TD in the third quarter that finished the scoring.

BILLS 23, CHARGERS 0

San Diego, Calif., Dec. 26, 1965 — For the second straight year, the Buffalo Bills can thank their defense. Just ask the frustrated San Diego Chargers, who for the second time fell to the Bills in the AFL Championship Game, this time by a 23-0 count. In eight quarters of championship play, the Chargers have managed just seven points against Buffalo. After an uneventful first quarter, Buffalo scored all the points it needed in this game with a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter. Jack Kemp, voted the game's most valuable player, hit Ernie Warlick with an 18-yard touchdown pass to open the scoring and three minutes later the Bills' Butch Byrd returned a punt 74 yards for a score to put Buffalo on top 14-0. The rest of the game belonged to the Bills' defense as time and again they thwarted San Diego's explosive offense. Three Pete Gogolak field goals in the second half added icing to the Bills' championship cake.

CHIEFS 31, BILLS 7

Buffalo, N.Y., Jan. 1, 1967 — Led by the impeccable quarterbacking of Len Dawson, the Kansas City Chiefs earned the right to play the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I by defeating Buffalo 31-7. Dawson completed 16 of 24 passes for 227 yards and a pair of touchdowns while the Kansas City defense forced four Buffalo turnovers and limited the Bills to nine first downs and 40 yards rushing. It was a turnover that turned the game around. The teams traded early touchdowns as the Chiefs took advantage of a Buffalo fumble on the opening kickoff to grab a 7-0 lead. The Bills countered with a 69-yard bomb from Jack Kemp to Elbert Dusenbury to tie the game. Dawson hit Otis Taylor with a 29-yard TD pass in the second quarter to put the Chiefs on top, but Kemp moved Buffalo into scoring position near the end of the half. A Johnny Robinson interception and long return set up Mike Mercer's 32-yard field goal with three seconds left in the half and Kansas City had the momentum. Buffalo never penetrated the Chief's 40-yard line in the second half while Kansas City added a pair of scores by Mike Garrett to turn the game into a rout.

STEELERS 32, BILLS 14

Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 22, 1974 — A four-touchdown explosion in the second quarter propelled the Pittsburgh Steelers to a 32-14 win over the Bills, spoiling Buffalo's first post-season appearance in eight years. The Bills moved out to an early 7-3 lead on a 22-yard touchdown pass from Joe Ferguson to Paul Seymour. Buffalo's advantage was short-lived against the eventual Super Bowl Champions. Terry Bradshaw ran the Steeler offense to perfection in the second quarter, completing seven of eight passes for 143 yards and repeatedly hurting Buffalo with scrambling gains. Rocky Bleier began the Pittsburgh scoring avalanche with a 27-yard TD reception and Franco Harris scored three times from inside the five yard line as the Steelers moved out to an insurmountable 29-7 lead. In the second half Buffalo's comeback hopes were stymied by the tough Pittsburgh defense and a stubborn ball control offense that kept the ball away from the Bills.

CHARGERS 20, BILLS 14

San Diego, Calif., Jan. 3 — Making their first playoff appearance since 1974, the Bills had a victory within their grasp until the waning moments. Then, in dramatic fashion, the San Diego Chargers rallied from a 14-13 deficit as Quarterback Dan Fouts connected with Wide Receiver Ron Smith on a 50-yard scoring pass with just 2:08 remaining in the game. The reception was only the fifth of the season for Smith. Playing courageously on a badly sprained left ankle, Quarterback Joe Ferguson tried to direct a last ditch bid by the Bills. His efforts were thwarted, however, when a pass was picked off by a San Diego defender after Buffalo had reached midfield. Meeting for the second time at San Diego within a three-month span, the teams battled on even terms until the Chargers got a late first quarter field goal. Then the Bills took command with two second period scores. The first came on a one-yard burst up the middle by Roosevelt Leaks early in the quarter. With only 16 seconds remaining before halftime, Ferguson connected with wide receiver Frank Lewis on a 9-yard scoring play, upping the Bills' margin to 14-3. San Diego countered with a third quarter TD and fourth period field goal before the late heroics by Fouts and Smith. With Ferguson badly hobbled by his ankle injury, the Buffalo offense never got into gear in the second half, managing just 94 total yards. Even so, it took a spectacular play to keep the Bills from achieving their third consecutive win over the Chargers in playoff competition, the last one coming in the 1965 AFL title game.

BILLS 31, JETS 27

NEW YORK, N.Y., Dec. 27, 1981 — In a "wild card" game that lived up to its name, the Buffalo Bills stormed to a 24-0 lead but needed a last-second pass interception by Bill Simpson to preserve their first post-season victory since 1965. Charles Romes got the visitors off and winging by picking up Bruce Harper's fumble on the opening kickoff and returning it 26 yards for a touchdown. The play took 16 seconds and was the second fastest score in NFL playoff history. Touchdown passes of 50 and 26 yards to Frank Lewis, who caught seven for 158 yards in the game, were sandwiched around a 29-yard Nick Mike-Mayer field goal to put the Bills, who lost in New York 33-14 during the regular season, up by 24-0. The Jets hung up 10 points before halftime and trailed 24-13 after Pat Leahy's 19-yard field goal in the third quarter. Joe Cribbs, who rushed for 83 yards and caught passes for 64 more, staked the Bills to a 31-13 lead with his 45-yard scoring run five minutes deep into the final period. The Jets, however, refused to die. Richard Todd moved them 80 yards in eight plays, hitting Bobby Jones with a 30-yard touchdown toss. After Buffalo failed to move, Todd, helped by a big interference call against Mario Clark that wiped out an apparent interception, got New York on the board again with a 58-yard march that ended on Kevin Long's one-yard plunge to paydirt. Buffalo could not generate a first down and turned the ball back to New York at the Jets' 20 with 2:36 remaining. Todd passed the Jets downfield, reaching the Buffalo 11 with just 10 seconds to play. Simpson stepped in front of his second-and-ten try for Derrick Gaffney in the end zone to intercept at the Buffalo one to seal the Jets' doom.

BENGALS 28, BILLS 21

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Jan. 3, 1982 — AFC Champion Cincinnati, cashing in a long punt return and a pass interception, jumped to a 14-0 first quarter lead and held on to defeat Buffalo 28-21 in a divisional playoff game at Riverfront Stadium. It was the first post-season victory in the history of the Bengals' franchise and, for the second straight year, eliminated the Bills in the semi-finals of the NFL's post-season tournament. The Bengals' Mike Fuller returned a Greg Cater punt 27 yards to start Cincinnati's first possession at the Buffalo 42. Charles Alexander, who was a surprise rushing leader for the Central Division champs with 71 yards, capped a seven-play drive with his four-yard scoring run. After Ken Riley intercepted a Joe Ferguson pass, the Bengals marched 48 yards in eight plays and took a 14-0 advantage on Pete Johnson's one-yard run. Buffalo breathed new life before halftime, hitting a 54-yard pass from Ferguson to Jerry Butler, and drawing to within 14-7 on Joe Cribbs' one-yard run. Early in the third quarter, the Bills evened the issue on a 44-yard scoring run by Cribbs, a play that would later prove costly as the Buffalo rushing leader injured a knee and played only one more down before retiring for the afternoon. The teams traded touchdowns, Cincinnati scoring on a 20-yard run by Alexander and Buffalo on a 21-yard pass from Ferguson to Butler, to make it 21-21 after one play of the fourth quarter. Bengal quarterback Ken Anderson orchestrated a 78-yard drive in nine plays to put Cincinnati back in the driver's seat 28-21 on a 16-yard scoring pass to Cris Collinsworth. Buffalo's last gasp reached the Bengal 20 late in the final stanza but a controversial delay-of-game penalty wiped out an apparent third down conversion pass to Lou Piccone and Ferguson overthrew Roland Hooks in the end zone on fourth down.

STADIUM INFORMATION

Orchard Park is headquarters for NFL football in Western New York. Before a sellout crowd of 80,020, the Buffalo Bills dedicated their spanking new playing facility on August 17, 1973. While the visiting Redskins captured the inaugural game 37-21, even defeat could not dull the enthusiasm of fans who had long awaited completion of the project.

Built on a 113-acre tract approximately 30 minutes from downtown Buffalo, the stadium was constructed at a cost of $22 million, financed by the taxpayers of Erie County. From the ground-breaking on April 4, 1972, to the inaugural, actual construction time was slightly over 14 months.

To form the lower level of the stadium more than 370,000 feet of shale was removed—putting the field 50 feet below ground level. The outside of the stadium rises only 60 feet above the horizon. The Astro Turf field has an 18-inch crown to assure proper drainage.

Surrounding the stadium are parking facilities for 16,000 cars and 300 buses. Scattered throughout the concourses are 38 concession stands and 42 rest rooms.

Current capacity of the stadium is 80,290 which makes it the third largest in the NFL.
