ABE GIBRON . . . Football Career Man

Abe Gibron is an authentic pro football career man with close to a quarter of a century devoted to his life's work. This is his eleventh year with the Bears. Before 1972, when he became head coach, he had been an assistant seven years (1965-'71) and before that, a player for two (1958-'59).

GIBRON

As a player, he was co-captain and offensive guard. As an assistant, he spent three seasons coaching the offensive line (and in his first year a Bears team scoring record was set with 409 points) and then four handling the defensive forwards.

Abe is as closely identified with the immediate Chicago territory as Lake Michigan . . . born Sept. 22, 1925, at Michigan City, Ind., which still is his permanent, year-around home with wife, Susie; sons, William Abraham, 12; James Kahlil, 6; and daughter, Matina Frances, 10.

He is a colorful, earthy phrase-maker and a delight to the media as well as a blunt but understanding realist at human relations that brings his players close to him.

Gibron lettered at and graduated from Purdue in 1949 and Buffalo of the old All-American Conference was his first pro venture. From there, he went on to seven great seasons with the Cleveland Browns, winning all-NFL offensive guard honors three times and playing in five Pro Bowls.

The last three games of 1956 and all of 1957 were spent with the Philadelphia Eagles, just before he came to the Bears.

Retiring as an active player, he went to the Washington Redskins as an assistant for five years beginning in 1960 before coming back here.

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

So Gibron has been around football too long to become an overnight bubbling, babbling optimist. In only his second year as the Bears' head coach, he sees his off-season personnel moves as the practical way to betterment rather than the prelude to instant miracles that will make all problems disappear.

He is sure the Bears of 1973 have higher quality talent in all sectors, and more of it than the Bears of 1972.

Dealing for NFL-experienced help and selection of blue-chip college prospects all happened on the last two days of January 1973, during the annual college draft session.

Trading of draft choices brought two sound, seasoned offense players —running back Carl Garrett from New England, and tight end Craig Cotton from Detroit. Their statistical credentials are included in the Bearo-

First Two Rounds Most Productive

graphical section elsewhere in this year-book but here's how they became Chicagoans:

The Bears had an extra first round choice (from Kansas City as compensation for George Seals) and it came seventeenth. Gibron traded that plus a Bears' third round choice to Detroit for the Lions' nineteenth position on the round and Cotton. Then he sent the nineteenth round right of selection to New England for Garrett.

Actually, the Bears produced FIVE players off the first two rounds. Besides the NFL-seasoned pair, they got Wally Chambers, massive defensive lineman from Eastern Kentucky, on their initial first round draft as well as two on the second round—quarterback Gary Huff of Florida State and another outsized defensive lineman, Gary Hrivnak, from Purdue. The extra second round pick came from Dallas as part of the compensation for Jack Concannon a year ago. The other two-thirds of the compensation were offense tackle Bob Asher and defense tackle Bill Line, each of whom became a regular shortly after reporting August 19, 1972.

The draft choices overall pretty much reflected needs pinpointed by Gibron after he lived with and looked at a 1972 team that wound up 4-9-1, although at the halfway point, the Bears were 3-3-1. Yet, Abe had neither regrets nor did he second guess any decisions he made along the route. He was quick to learn and faster even to improve during his playing days and the knack still was with him as a coach.

He detected those who didn't measure up to his standards of NFL team competence (". . . forty guys who want to play football that punishes . . . spectators don't belong with those forty.").

He got a little more out of what he had than seemed possible and the Bears were exciting to watch in all but two flat outings during the season.

The first Gibron-imprint Bears team was an old-fashioned one that accented rushing—the 2,360 yards along the ground led the National Conference and was fourth in the league overall. Since 1932, when statistics began to have some meaning, the Bears have led the NFL in rushing eleven times, the best 2,835 yards in 1934.

Bobby Douglass' 968 yards—most ever by any NFL quarterback—won him team individual rushing leadership and his total is the fifth best for any Bear in history. He averaged 6.9 yards per carry, second best of all time in the NFL. Beattie Feathers, another Bear, had 9.9 in 1934.

The special teams provided a lot of the excitement. Two kickoffs were run back for touchdowns, one by Ron Smith (league leader in KO returns) and the other by Earl Thomas. As a team, the Bears averaged 29.3 per KO return to break the old NFL record of 28.9 set by Pittsburgh in 1952.

In the season final at Oakland, rookie Craig Clemons broke through, blocked Jerry De Poyster's punt and Ross Brubacher fell on the ball in the end zone for a touchdown.

And for the second time in two years, the Douglass-to-Dick Butkus battery collaborated on a point after touchdown. This time, it was at

'72 Bears a Team With Stamina

Philadelphia on a bad pass from center and (just as he had against Washington in 1971) Bobby pitched to Butkus in the end zone (just as Dick had been the receiver against the Redskins the year before).

There was trickery too. In a fourth down punt situation against Detroit, Butkus, the up-man, took a direct pass from center, ran 28 yards. Against Minnesota here on another punting situation, Bobby Joe Green passed instead to Cecil Turner for 23 yards. Earlier in that game, on a fake field goal try, Douglass, the holder, arose as he took the ball and ran six yards for a first down.

The Bears had to have stamina as well as competitive heart because in virtually every outing, they began as trailers—in eleven of fourteen games, opponents scored first... in ten games the Bears were behind at the half and in another they were in a tie... one time, they were 31-7 in arrears at the half; another time, 21-0 in the third quarter; still another, 27-7 in the third, and so on.

For the season overall, the Bears allowed only ninety-nine points in the third and fourth quarters while they scored 147.

That contrasts with the first half cumulative total of 176 for opponents to the Bears' 78, alarming evidence of a season-long slow start in every game. In fact, after three or four games in which that scoring pattern was pronounced, a suggestion was made that the Bears warm up two full scrimmage periods in private before going on the field for the formal first half.

The 99 second half points by opponents came from ten touchdowns, nine extra points and ten field goals. In nine games, the enemy didn't even score a third or fourth quarter touchdown so belated though the defensive efforts were, they did show the Bears were capable of halftime adjustment.

Injuries, inevitable probably yet never brought up by Gibron as an explanation for a sub—.500 year, struck savagely at key people. In the final pre-season game at St. Louis, Joe Moore (no. 1 draft choice of 1971) went out for the year with a knee injury requiring surgery.

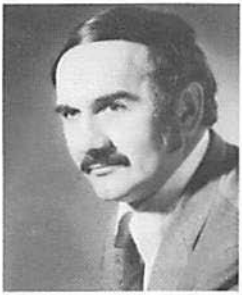

Garry Lyle, finally getting his chance as a starter at safety, was wiped out for the season after a knee injury received in the third game. The next week, defensive end Willie Holman received an Achilles tendon injury and played no more in 1972. Finally, Lionel Antoine, the no. 1 draft choice, needed surgical repair for knee cartilage injured in pre-season and didn't get back till the last two games of the regular schedule.

Moore's loss was a deep blow to the offense since he had a great preseason record (233 yards rushing, a 4.2 average) before his injury.

To wrap up 1972, in the matter of turnovers (which is a euphemism for mistakes) the Bears and opponents were an exact standoff—35 apiece. The Bears lost the ball on 22 fumbles and 13 interceptions; opponents on 14 fumbles, 21 interceptions.

BRATKOWSKI

CARR

CHERUNDOLO

The Staff

EDMUND "ZEKE" BRATKOWSKI came back as a coach last year to the Bears for whom he played for five seasons. A native of Danville, Ill., he attended the University of Georgia, was NCAA punting leader as a senior and then was drafted by the Bears on the fifth round as a 1953 future. From 1963 through 1968, he was backup quarterback to Bart Starr with the Green Bay Packers, played on three consecutive world championship teams as well as being in the first two Super Bowls. Bratkowski was a Packer backfield coach for two years but was activated as a player again in 1971. His service with the Bears began in 1954, was interrupted by two years in the Army followed by four more playing seasons. He went to the Los Angeles Rams in 1961 and got to the Packers early in 1963. His fourteen NFL seasons show 762 pass completions out of 1,484 attempts for 10,291 yards and 65 touchdowns. He and his wife, Mary Elizabeth, have two sons, Bobby and Steve, and a daughter, Cassie.

JIM CARR, regarded as one of the NFL's sharpest defensive coaches, returns to the Bears' staff this season after having been with the Philadelphia Eagles for three years. Previously, he had been with the Bears in 1969 following three years on the Minnesota Vikings staff. Nicknamed "Gummy", Jim is a native of Kayford, W. Va., who played his collegiate football at Morris Harvey (Charleston, W. Va.) and then had a busy pro career beginning in 1955. He was an outstanding defensive back for the Chicago Cardinals, the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian League, the Baltimore Colts and the Eagles before winding up as a linebacker with the Washington Redskins in 1964-'65. He, his wife, Lila Lee, and their two children, Kenneth and Gwendolyn, live in Roselle, Ill.

CHARLES "CHUCK" CHERUNDOLO is a pro football career man whose name is well known in NFL circles as a coach and a player. He returned to the Bears' staff the past two seasons following a previous tenure, 1966 through '68. Between those two periods, he was head coach in 1969 of the Tri-City Apollos (Midland, Mich.) of the Continental League and in 1960-'71, was scout for the Quadra scouting combine that functions for Dallas, Los Angeles, San Francisco and San Diego. His previous coaching career included assignments with Pittsburgh, 1948-'61; Philadelphia, 1962-'63; and Washington, 1964-'65. He was an All-American center at Penn State and then was a line star for the Cleveland Rams, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh from 1937-'48 with four years in the U.S. Navy. He and his wife, Margaret, live in Chicago and are parents of a son, John, a June graduate from Syracuse University law school, and a daughter, Mary Pat.

WILLIAM "WHITEY" DOVELL (pronounced "Doe-Vell") is in his second year with the Bears, following the '72 season in which the offensive line coached by him was a strong factor in winning the team's rushing leadership in the National Conference. Previously, he had been with the Denver Broncos for five seasons after fifteen years at the University of Maryland where he lettered in varsity football under Coach Jim Tatum. An offensive guard, Dovell played in the Gator Bowl twice and the Sugar Bowl once and after graduation, he became freshman coach for three years. Then, for the next twelve years, he coached receivers, both offensive and defensive lines and linebackers at various times. Twenty-two of the players he coached went into pro football. Dovell, a native of Newark, N.J., interrupted his high school education in 1944 to enlist in the Seabees and serve until 1946. He and his wife, Claire, have three daughters, Audrey, Patricia and Lisa, and the family resides in Cary, Ill.

PERRY MOSS is in his fourth season on the Bears' staff. His football career has been a colorful one, beginning at the age of seventeen when, as quarterback for Tulsa University, he played in the 1945 Orange Bowl. He transferred to the University of Illinois and led the 1946 Big Ten champions to a Rose Bowl victory. Moss also was in two College All Star games and after graduation, he played one year with the Green Bay Packers before going into coaching. He has been athletic director-head coach at Florida State and head coach-general manager of the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian League among other assignments. Moss, his wife, Jeannette, and two children, Less and Penny Lee, live in Park Ridge, Ill.

JERRY STOLTZ, who grew up on Chicago's South Side, joins the Bears staff this season, following four as a New England Patriots assistant preceded by eight in the collegiate field. He was born in Belleville, Ill., but came to Chicago with his parents and in 1952-'53-'54 was an outstanding prep athlete at Fenger high school. He enrolled at the University of Toledo, lettering and seeing service as a quarterback, a running back or a defensive back with All-Mid-America Conference honors at the latter position. After graduation, he went into coaching and was on staffs at Toledo, Notre Dame, Miami of Ohio and Purdue before going to New England in 1969. He and his wife, Rosemary, and children, Mike, Jeri Marie, Kelly and Patrick, make their home now in Hinsdale.

JOHNSOS

LUKE JOHNSOS leads all the rest in continuity of service with the Bears, first as a player, then coach and, since 1969, director of technical research. He began it all back in 1929 and his name looms large in all accounts of the Bears from that time on. As a player, Luke starred nine seasons, three times winning all National Football League honors at end. In his forty-four years with the Bears organization, he figured as player or assistant coach in seven of their eight championships. Johnsos even was co-head coach from 1942-'45. He was a three-year regular in football and baseball at Northwestern and turned down an offer from the Cincinnati Reds to go with the Bears. His home is Evanston and he and his wife, Rosemary, are parents of a son, Luke, Jr., of Deerfield; four daughters, Judy (Mrs. John Wolford of River Forest); Janet (Mrs. Dean Traflet of La Grange Park); Barbara (Mrs. Brian Kocher of Minneapolis); and Ann (Mrs. Gary Smith of Kansas City). They also have thirteen grandchildren.

Assistant to President . . . Player Personnel Director

WALSTON

BOBBY WALSTON has been with the Bears since 1968, and this is his third year of dual responsibilities. He not only is assistant to the club president but director of player personnel as well. He heads the important department involving acquisition of talent with Ed Cody (professional) and Jim Parmer (collegiate) as his aides. His overall responsibility covers the collegiate draft, signing of players and negotiating deals with other NFL teams. Walston was an All-American at the University of Georgia before going to the Philadelphia Eagles where, between 1951-'62, he compiled one of pro football's greatest place kicking records—eighty field goals and 365 conversions. He also caught 46 touchdown passes. After retirement, Walston was player personnel director at Philadelphia two years and assistant at Miami for two years before coming to the Bears. He and his wife, Nell, live in Schaumburg, Ill., with their daughter, Bobbie; and sons Mark and Michael.

Director of Training Services

ROZY

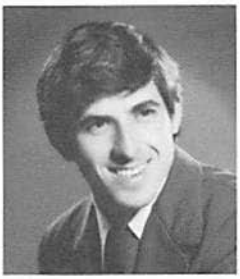

ED ROZY is in his twenty-sixth year with the Bears organization and his third as director of training services. He had been trainer of the Bears beginning in 1947 and continuing through 1970 when he was assigned new responsibilities that still are in the general area in which he is most familiar. Rozy had been longest service active trainer in the NFL and is one of the best known and respected men in his profession in sports. A graduate of Marquette University in 1933, he lettered in football there and then became intramural director of athletics, head trainer of all major sports and coach of a half dozen minor sports teams. From 1944 through 1947, he was a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy. Rozy and his wife, Jo, live in Niles with their two daughters, Mary and Julie.

CODY

Director of Professional Talent

ED CODY has been director of professional talent since 1971 after six straight seasons as offensive backfield coach. He came to the Bears first in 1949 as an offensive back and defensive linebacker after beginning his pro career with the Green Bay Packers. Cody earned both bachelor's and master's degrees at Purdue where he captained the football team and won both the Big Ten scoring and ground gaining championships. His coaching career includes the assignment of defensive coach of the Oakland Raiders as well as collegiate positions at the University of California, Santa Barbara; and Washington State. Ed has three daughters, Chris, Kim and Tracey, and all live in Mount Prospect.

Director of Collegiate Talent

JIM PARMER, named director of collegiate talent last February, has top credentials at every level of football. He had been associated with the Blesto-VIII scouting combine, of which the Bears are members, since 1967. The past two years, he has had regional responsibilities. Parmer, lettering in football at Oklahoma A. & M. 1944-'47, was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles and was a starting back for nine seasons. After retirement, he coached three seasons at Texas Tech, went into insurance work for four years and then joined the Washington Redskins' personnel department. He and his wife, Mary Jean, have two daughters, Sandy and Jaime; and a son, Rich. They have been living in Lubbock, Tex.

Head Trainer

FRED CAITO is new head trainer of the Bears this season, succeeding Bernie Lareau who resigned to become business manager and trainer of the San Antonio, Tex., Spurs of the American Basketball Association. Caito, like Lareau, is a protege of Ed Rozy as well as a graduate of St. Joseph's College, Rensselaer. He assisted Rozy at the Rensselaer training camp in the summers of 1967 and 1968 and, after graduating with a bachelor's degree from St. Joseph's in 1969, he became full-time assistant. Caito also has a master's degree in physical education from Northwestern. A native of Tiffin, O., his home now is Chicago.

LIONEL ANTOINE T 6'6" 255 S. Illinois 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-1-a Born: 8-31-'50, Biloxi, Miss.

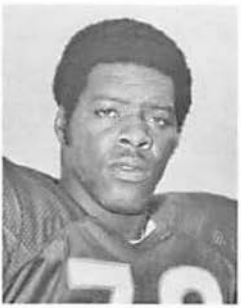

Antoine suffered a knee injury in a 1972 pre-season game at Houston that required repair of cartilege involvements after the third contest of the regular NFL schedule. He had been on the active list as an offensive tackle but did not play in any of those three games. He returned for the season's final pair, at Philadelphia and at Oakland and saw some action on the defensive line in each. At Southern Illinois, Antoine was used at various times at both end and tackle on defense as well as tackle and tight end on offense. Home: Chicago.

BOB ASHER T 6'6" 260 Vanderbilt 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, T-Dallas Born: 6-13-'48, Falls Church, Va.

Asher was a starter in all fourteen games of his first season here and his rapid development and consistent improvement stabilized the right side of the Bears' offensive line. He graded out over ninety percent against some of the toughest defensive linemen in the NFL and is considered one of the Bears' best acquisitions through trade in quite a few years. Asher, an all-American at Vanderbilt, was Dallas' second round choice for 1970 and he got into six games. A knee injury sidelined him all of 1971 but he had an impressive training camp and pre-season schedule record with the Cowboys before joining the Bears August 19, 1972. Home: Chicago.

TOM BEARD T-C 6'6" 260 Michigan St. 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1973, W-Buffalo Born: 6-10-'48, Findlay, O.

Beard, eighth round draft choice of the Denver Broncos for 1971 was on their reserve squad all that season. Traded to Buffalo for a draft choice in September 1972, he got into twelve games, chiefly at offensive tackle and on special teams although he was also used at center occasionally. Home: Battle Creek, Mich.

ANTOINE

ASHER

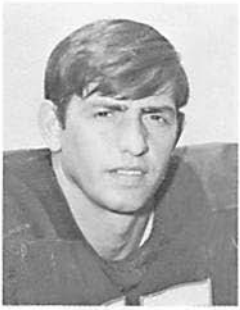

BEARD

DOUG BUFFONE LB 6'2" 225 Louisville 8th Season
Joined Bears: 1966, D-4 Born: 4-27-'44, Yatesboro, Pa.

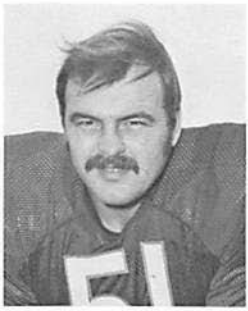

Buffone is widely respected as one of the best outside linebackers in pro football and durability is one of his outstanding qualities. He now has played 98 consecutive NFL games for the Bears and has been starting left linebacker since 1967. The previous season, as a rookie, he was an alternate for then defensive captain Joe Fortunato but he got in most of his playing time with special units, particularly the goal line defense platoon. Buffone's six-year record (covering his career as a starter) shows 452 tackles, 350 assists as well as thirteen interceptions. In 1970, his four interceptions were the most ever by any Bears outside linebacker and his 90 assists were high for the team. His name also shows up in scoring statistics because in 1967, he recovered a Detroit Lions' fumble and carried in for a touchdown. Buffone was Bears player representative at the Conference of the President's Commission on Drug Abuse. He also has conducted a summer football school at North Central College, Naperville, Ill. Home: Deerfield, Ill.

DICK BUTKUS LB 6'3" 245 Illinois 9th Season
Joined Bears: 1965, D-1 Born: 12-9-'42, Chicago

Refer to the Bears career statistics, later in this book, and you'll find Butkus' name in several different categories, including such unlikely ones (for a defense practitioner) as rushing and scoring. He also is in the records section with his four recoveries of opponents fumbles last season lifting his career total to twenty-four, an NFL mark. Some of the fumbles he caused himself since he's an accomplished stripper. It is no wonder then that he has been all-NFL middle linebacker (on major selections) seven times out of eight . . . Pro Bowl participant eight straight seasons . . . team leader in tackles-assists eight straight times, too, with a career total of 956-463. Only year he missed all-NFL MLB was 1971. The omission followed surgical reconstruction of loose knee ligaments the previous winter that

BUFFONE

CLEMONS

"reduced his efficiency" to a mere 117 tackles, 68 assists; three enemy fumble recoveries and three created; four pass interceptions plus a conversion point when he caught a Bobby Douglass pass in the end zone that beat Washington, 16-15. Last season, on a similar situation at Philadelphia (bad pass from center on a conversion try), Butkus again caught a pass for a point. Earlier in the year, against the Detroit Lions here, he turned a fourth down punting situation into a fake—slickered everybody by taking the snap from center and rushing 28 yards. Home: Chicago Heights.

WALLY CHAMBERS DE 6′6″ 250 E. Kentucky 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-1 Born: 5-15-'51, Phenix City, Ala.

Chambers was the big man of Eastern Kentucky's defense as he led the team in tackles and assists three straight seasons—65-57 in 1970; 85-64 in '71; and 73-44 last season. He's huge physically but his head coach, Roy Kidd, looks beyond height and weight as he remarks admiringly: "He has the quickness, intelligence and aggressiveness to make it big in the NFL." Chambers has 4.8 speed in the forty and climaxed his collegiate eligibility by playing in both the North-South and the Senior Bowl postseason games. He was defensive captain his senior year at Eastern Kentucky. Home: Mt. Clemens, Mich.

CRAIG CLEMONS S 5′11″ 200 Iowa 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-1-b Born: 6-1-'49, Sidney, Ohio

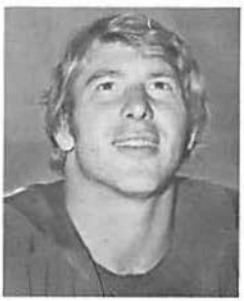

High point of Clemons' rookie NFL season—after he had been the second of two Bears' selections on the first round of the college draft for 1972—came at Oakland in the finale. He blocked Jerry De Poyster's third quarter punt and Ross Brupbacher recovered in the end zone for the touchdown that brought the Bears into a 14-14 tie at the time. He was not a starter but saw most of his service as a backup man or on special units. Home: Iowa City.

DOUGLASS

RICH COADY C 6'3" 245 Memphis St. 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1968, D-11 Born: 12-17-'44, Chicago

Coady was shifted from tight end (his college position) to center just before the start of the 1971 schedule so he has had only two seasons experience at the job. His improvement has been marked and the coaches especially note his fine job of calling blocking patterns. Coady is a native Chicagoan, who graduated from Taft high school before going to Memphis State. He was on the Bears' reserve squad his rookie season, then had a year in the Army before returning in 1970 as a tight end and backup center. Home: Park Ridge, Ill.

CRAIG COTTON TE 6'2" 225 Youngstown 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1973, T-Detroit Born: 7-7-'47, Elizabeth, Pa.

Cotton welcomed the trade that brought him to the Bears from Detroit where he had always been in the shadows as backer-up for Charlie Sanders. He functioned chiefly for the Lions on special teams his first couple of seasons with them but always responded in emergencies on offense. Last season, filling in for an injured Sanders, Cotton had a big day against the Bears at Soldier Field, catching four passes for 67 yards and a touchdown. He's an excellent blocker. As a collegian at Youngstown (Ohio) State, he had 76 pass receptions for 1,163 yards and ten touchdowns in three seasons. Home: Madison Heights, Mich.

MIKE CREANEY C 6'4" 232 Notre Dame 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-6 Born: 10-15-'51, Towson, Md.

Creaney is the adaptable sort who lettered at tight end three years at Notre Dame although he had been an All-American High School selection as an offensive and defensive lineman. He played defense his first year at South Bend before he was shifted to tight end. His wide ranging versatility is rounded out by experience at snapping the ball from center in kicking situations. Creaney also is a fine blocker. Home: Towson.

BOBBY DOUGLASS QB 6'4" 221 Kansas 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1969, D-2 Born: 6-22-'47, Manhattan, Kan.

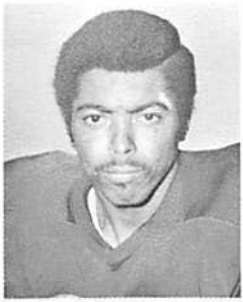

The way Douglass accumulated 968 yards rushing (most in NFL history by a quarterback) is a testimonial to consistency. His 6.9 yards per carry average is second best of all-time, back of the NFL single season record 9.9 by Beattie Feathers, also a Bear, in 1934. Twenty-eight of Douglass' 141 rushes were in double figures and might be called "first down" runs, ranging as they did from as few as ten yards (four times) or eleven (also four) up to a high of 57, followed by an assortment including a forty-three, a thirty-four, a thirty-two, a twenty-six, a pair of twenties, and so on. Twice, he had 100-yard plus days, 127 on 14 at Oakland and 11 on 117 at Cleveland, as well as coming close against Detroit here, 97 on 12. Only twice did he gross less than thirty yards in a game, 29 on nine at St. Louis and 23 on five at Minnesota. But against the Cardinals, he had his best passing day of the season—eight completions out of nine for 182 yards and a touchdown. Douglass' passing statistics for the year were not impressive, yet there were these productive incidents in half a dozen individual games that defy explanation—two touchdowns out of only four completions against Atlanta; one each out of two against Cleveland and in the second game against Minnesota; one each out of three against Los Angeles and in the first game against Minnesota. At Philadelphia, he completed only ONE pass—but it was for 44 yards to the Eagle one and the Bears scored on the next play. He accounted for seventeen of the Bears' twenty-seven touchdowns, eight on runs and nine on pass completions. Home: Chicago.

FARMER

GARRETT

ALLAN ELLIS CB 5'10" 178 UCLA 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-5 Born: 8-19-'51, Los Angeles

Ellis really came into his own as a UCLA senior with three pass interceptions, 81 tackles and assists, eight passes broken up, four others deflected and two opponents fumbles caused. Only Fred McNeill, defensive end and captain, had a better tackle-assist mark, with 89. As a junior, Ellis' only pass interception was returned 35 yards for a touchdown. He was captain and a starting cornerback on UCLA's 1969 freshman team and also was captain two years at Compton, Cal., Centennial high school. Home: Compton.

GEORGE FARMER WR 6'4" 214 UCLA 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1970, D-3 Born: 4-19-'48, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Farmer's two touchdown pass receptions in 1972 bombed the enemy—an 85-yarder against San Francisco and one for 73 against the St. Louis Cardinals. The latter was one of five he caught in the 27-10 Bears' victory that day. However, his biggest single game performance was in the 1971 finale against Minnesota when he caught seven for 128 yards. Besides lettering in football three years at UCLA, Farmer was a reserve on the school's 1968-'69 NCAA basketball champions. Home: Los Angeles.

CHARLIE FORD CB 6'3" 195 Houston 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1971, D-2 Born: 12-10-'48, Beaumont, Tex.

For the second straight season, Ford led the Bears in interceptions, his seven bringing his two-year total to an even dozen. He also was fifth in tackles, fifty, and again more than justified his no. 2 draft rating. For his two NFL seasons, he has 97 tackles and 40 assists. Ford was one of the aces of Houston's great defensive team of 1970 and he also was a starter for the Gray team against the Blue in that postseason game. Home: Missouri City, Tex.

CARL GARRETT RB 5'11" 210 N. M. Highlands 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1973: T-New England Born: 8-31-'47, Denton, Tex.

Garrett, one of the two experienced NFL performers obtained in trades during the NFL player selection meeting, had a remarkable four-season yardage total of 6,923 in four categories—rushing, 2,235; pass receiving, 1,158; kickoff returns, 3,043; punt returns, 487. He was an instant success in pro football at Boston after a spectacular collegiate career at New Mexico Highlands University. In 1969, he beat out O. J. Simpson of Buffalo for AFL rookie-of-the-year honors off an all-around showing that totaled 1,909 yards; 691 rushing; 792 kickoff returns; 267 pass receiving; and 159 punt returns. Despite loss of three games playing time in 1972, Garrett had a total offense of 1,344 yards and was fifth in the American Conference in kickoff returns. In July, 1972, he was key-man from the Patriots' end in a trade with Dallas for Duane Thomas that was later called off. He led the nation in scoring with 26 touchdowns as a sophomore at New Mexico Highlands. For his collegiate career, he scored 418 points and gained 3,862 yards rushing. Garrett also was the first three-time Little All-American since Eddie Lebaron. Home: Norwood, Mass.

CONRAD GRAHAM S 6'1" 184 Tennessee 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-8 Born: 7-10-'51, Winston-Salem, N.C.

Graham was an ace of Tennessee's secondary with seven interceptions in 1972, including one against Georgia in the end zone and another late in the Kentucky game that set up the second Vol touchdown. The Vols defeated Louisiana State, 24-17, in the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston in December. Graham was a three year regular in a secondary that set two Southeastern Conference records. In 1971, when he had five interceptions, one was a 76-yarder for a touchdown against Penn State. Home: Winston-Salem.

HARRISON

HOLLOWAY

HOLMAN

BOBBY JOE GREEN P 5'11" 175 Florida 14th Season
Joined Bears: 1962, T-Pittsburgh Born: 5-7-'36, Vernon, Tex.

Green is a man with a many faceted personality—oldest Bear in years (37); longest active service, his fourteenth in the NFL and twelfth with the Bears, including membership on the 1963 world champions; holder of NFL career records for most punts, 888; and most yards, 37,996; and he not only plays a guitar but also intones country and western ballads. In the offseason, he operates a large cattle ranch in Florida as well as a thriving premium distributorship. He has come back admirably from knee surgery required in 1968 when an enemy blocked one of his punts. That was only the third blocked kick of his career. Bobby Joe's name also can be found in the Bears' career passing and rushing statistics because he likes to be a tricky faker on fourth down occasionally. Home: Gainesville, Fla.

JIMMY GUNN LB 6'1" 220 Southern Cal. 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1970, D-13 Born: 11-27-'48, Augusta, Ark.

Gunn was captain of the Bears' 1972 specialty teams that provided the cast for such achievements as two touchdowns on kickoff returns . . . a blocked punt recovered in the end zone for a score . . . an NFL record high single season average of 29.4 per kickoff return. He's a hard hitter and though he's listed formally as a linebacker—an area of Bears where there's a crowd of super performers—he saw action and statistically, shows 13 tackles, five assists plus two quarterback sacks and two assists. At Southern Cal, Gunn was a consensus All-American defensive end. Home: Los Angeles.

DAVE HALE DE 6'8" 255 Ottawa (Kansas) 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1969, D-12 Born: 6-21-'47, McCook, Neb.

A fractured ankle suffered in the final 1972 preseason game, at St.

Louis, sidelined Hale for the entire schedule. He had returned to the defensive line during the preseason training after having been considered earlier for offensive assignments. He also has seen a lot of service on special units since leaving the Ottawa campus. Hale was a three-sport man in college, defensive end in football, discus thrower and member of the mile relay team in track and regular in basketball. Home: Hickory Hills, Ill.

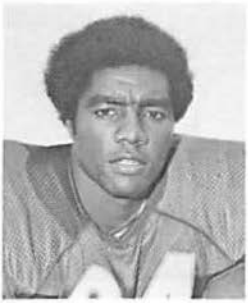

JIM HARRISON RB 6'4" 235 Missouri 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1971, D-2 Born: 9-10-'48, San Antonio, Tex.

Harrison, who saw no competitive action whatever until the last two games of his rookie season, was a starter in all fourteen in 1972. He wound up the year as rushing runnerup to Bobby Douglass, with 622 yards on 167 carries but 473 of those yards came in the first six games of the schedule. He had two 100-yard plus performances (20-113 Atlanta; 31-103 in the first game against Minnesota) as well as an 18-for-91 showing in the first date against Detroit. Jim cooled off considerably as far as running for gain was concerned in the final stages of the schedule but his blocking was crisp and effective. Basically a blocking back at Missouri, he got his big chance in the fifth game of 1970 when Joe Moore suffered an injury sidelining him the rest of the way. Moore and Harrison were the Bears' 1-2 draft choices for 1971. Home: San Antonio.

HORTON

HUARTE

GLEN HOLLOWAY G 6'3" 250 N. Texas St. 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1970, D-10 Born: 9-16-'48, Corpus Christi, Tex.

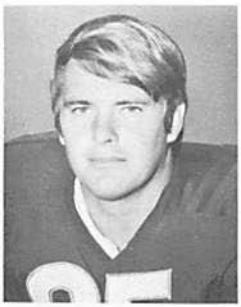

Holloway has progressed steadily since joining the Bears (and being voted rookie-of-the-year by his teammates in 1970) and has been a starter at guard in 37 of a possible 42 games, nine in his first season and 28 straight the last two. He's an outstanding pass blocker, along with the other qualifications of a top NFL guard. Holloway is interested in youth work during the offseason and the past two years, has been an athletic counselor at Audy Juvenile Home here. He became involved in this activity in his home town, Corpus Christi, where he worked with high school drop-outs. Home: Chicago.

WILLIE HOLMAN DE 6'3" 250 S. Carolina St. 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1968, D-7 Born: 2-17-'45, St. Mathews, S.C.

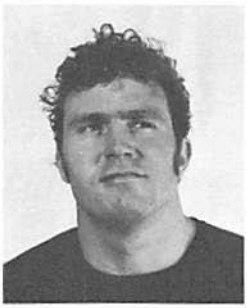

Holman comes back after having suffered an Achilles tendon rupture in the fourth game of 1972 that incapacitated him for the remainder of the year. Surgery was not required but the area of injury had to be immobilized in a cast. At the time, he had 13 tackles, 14 assists for four games, well on his way to another fine season as a defensive lineman. He had played in sixty consecutive games for the Bears after having joined them following two years with the U.S. Army in Germany. Offseason home: Chicago.

ROBERT HOLMES RB 5'10" 216 Southern 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1972, F A Born: 10-5-'45, Huntsville, Tex.

Holmes was on the Bears reserve squad in the closing stages of last season after having signed as a free agent. He got into half a dozen games earlier with Houston, rushing 43 times for 172 yards and catching six passes for 32. Drafted originally by Kansas City on the fourteenth round for 1968, Holmes won the Chiefs' Outstanding Rookie award as well as the Third Down Most Valuable Player trophy in his first season.

JACKSON

JANET

JETER

He played in the 1969 AFL All Star game and in the 1970 Super Bowl but in 1971, was traded to Houston for tight end Willie Frazier. Home: Texas City, Tex.

LARRY HORTON DE 6'5" 255 Iowa 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-9 Born: 4-29-'49, Gary, Ind.

Horton got into ten games as a rookie, most of his playing time coming in the closing stages of the schedule. He has excellent speed for his size—a 4.75 time for the forty. He's a product of Froebel high at Gary who played two years at Centerville, Ia., junior college before transferring to the University of Iowa. With the Hawkeyes, he was regarded as one of the top men on the defensive line. Home: Gary.

GARY HRIVNAK DE 6'5" 248 Purdue 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-1-b Born: 3-3-'51, Johnstown, Pa.

Hrivnak is one of the most versatile of all the Bears' draft picks for 1973. All-Big Ten defensive end as a junior when he led the conference in number of tackles for a loss (fifteen), he was shifted to tight end last fall mainly for blocking duties. With the Bears, he'll be restored to defense for in two years at Purdue, he saw 555 minutes of varsity action in that area, had 124 tackles, 26 quarterback sacks and broke up 16 passes. The five passes for 65 yards he caught as a senior were only incidental to his overall career value. In the Shrine East-West game, Hrivnak saw action both ways and had the odd distinction of catching one pass on offense and intercepting an enemy's on defense. Home: Johnstown.

JOHN HUARTE QB 6'0" 185 Notre Dame 7th Season

Huarte, second round draft choice by the New York Jets for 1965 after having won the Heisman Trophy and all-American honors in his senior year at Notre Dame, was backup quarterback for Len Dawson at Kansas City for two seasons prior to joining the Bears. He also was with Philadelphia and New England after leaving the Jets. Huarte got into the late minutes of two games with the Bears last season. Home: Anaheim.

GARY HUFF QB 6'1" 200 Florida St. 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-2-a Born: 4-27-'51, Natchez, Miss.

Huff had a whopping collegiate career completion record of close to 55 percent. His 436 completions include 52 touchdowns out of 795 attempts for 6,378 yards. As a junior, he was NCAA total offense leader with 241.2 per game average that came about solely on passing since his rushing total was a minus 83 yards. He had a five-touchdown day against South Carolina in 1971 and four-TD afternoons against Tulsa that year and against Miami and Kansas last season. Huff's single game yardage high is 409, against Houston last seaon, and in five other outings, he had 300 or more yards each. At Florida State, he operated out of a pro-style offense. Home: Tampa.

RANDY JACKSON T 6'5" 250 Florida 7th Season
Joined Bears: 1966, D-4 Born: 3-6-'44, Lake City, Fla.

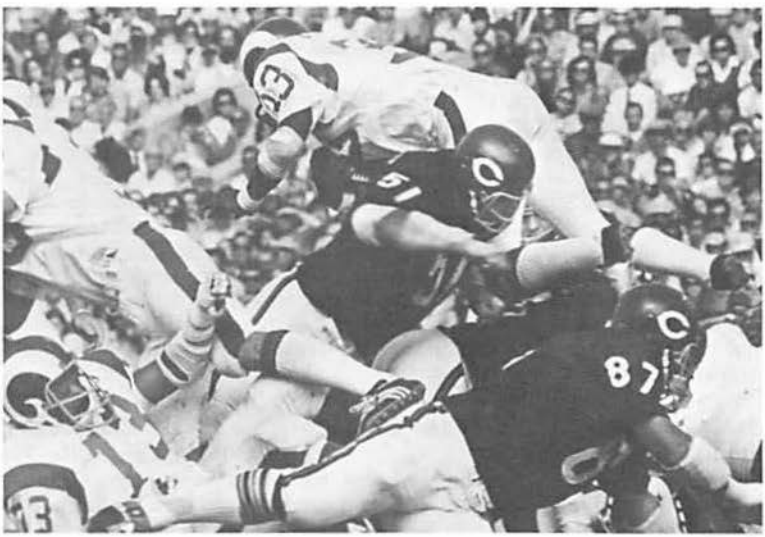

Jackson is the strong man of the interior offensive line, bringing experience and steadiness to his job. Experts see him as just about the most under-rated offensive tackle in the NFL because he not only has all of the physical qualifications but he also provides consistent leadership. Jackson's rookie year was spent on the reserve squad. Breaking in as a regular in 1967, he got into 655 offensive plays that year and has comparable or better annual durability records. He's versatile, too—able to play either side tackle as well as center or guard if needed. Home: Altamonte Springs, Fla.

ERNIE JANET T 6'4" 250 Washington 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, T-San Francisco Born: 7-22-'49, Renton, Wash.

Janet was San Francisco's second round draft choice for 1971 after having lettered three years at Washington. He spent his rookie season on the Forty Niners' reserve squad and after coming to the Bears, he saw similar service here but got into three late games. Home: Seattle, Wash.

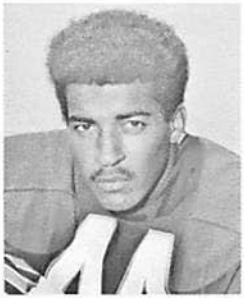

BOB JETER CB 6'1" 200 Iowa 11th Season
Joined Bears: 1971, T-Green Bay Born: 5-9-'37, Union, S.C.

Jeter has been a valuable back-up man on defense since coming to the Bears, filling in ably at safety or a corner. His three interceptions in the two seasons he has been a Bear have all been most helpful. Two years ago, one of them stopped a Detroit drive and saved a Bears' 28-23 victory over the Lions. Last year, one of his two interceptions came against Green Bay here and set up a Bears' third quarter touchdown. Before he was traded for a draft choice, he had played eight straight seasons with the Packers, winning All-Pro honors once and selection to the Pro Bowl twice. Home: Chicago.

DAVE JUENGER WR 6'2" 195 Ohio University 1st Season

Juenger is a young man of varied attainments. As an Ohio "U" sophomore flanker, he caught 46 passes for 540 yards and three touchdowns . . . his junior year, he was a quarterback who completed 80 out

He also ran back 17 kickoffs 292 yards and punted for a 34-yard average. At Chillicothe Unioto high school, he quarterbacked his team to 24 consecutive victories. Home: Chillicothe.

GARY KOSINS RB 6'2" 220 Dayton 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, W-Miami Born: 1-21-'49, Dayton, O.

Kosins was Miami's third round draft choice last year after having broken virtually all of Dayton University's rushing records during three varsity seasons—2,812 yards running and 39 touchdowns, among other items. In the Dolphins' 1972 pre-season, he carried the ball 18 times for 50 yards and caught one pass for 14. With the Bears, Kosins was used mainly on special teams and got into all fourteen games. He also caught a seven yard touchdown pass against Minnesota. As a collegian, he played in both the Blue-Gray and the Senior Bowl post-season games. Home: Dayton.

ROGER LAWSON RB 6'2" 215 W. Michigan 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-15 Born: 9-28-'49, Detroit

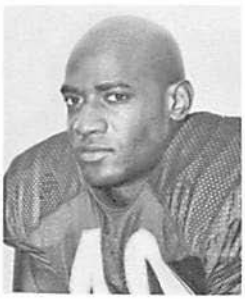

Most of Lawson's rushing in his first year with the Bears was packed into the last two games when he carried eight for 40 and a touchdown against Philadelphia and 13 for 34 against Oakland. For the year overall, he had 106 yards on 33 rushes and also caught eight passes for 120. At Western Michigan, he set two school records, 2,018 yards career rushing and 1,205 single season rushing in 1970. Home: Detroit.

BILL LINE DT 6'7" 260 S. Methodist 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, T-Dallas Born: 8-11-'48, San Angelo, Tex.

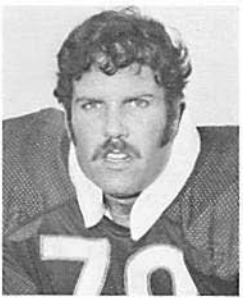

As a rookie, Line made significant contributions to a defensive line that had to be rebuilt. He missed only one game and his height, weight and speed were especially intriguing to the coaches. After lettering three years at Southern Methodist, and appearing in the 1968 Bluebonnet Bowl, Line was signed by the New Orleans Saints for 1971 and spent the pre-season with them. Last year, he signed as a free agent with the Dallas Cowboys who traded him to the Bears. Home: Thousand Oaks, Cal.

GARRY LYLE S 6'2" 198 George Washington 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1967, D-3 Born: 10-20-'45, Martinsville, W. Va.

Lyle, whose versatility is brought out in career statistics where his name appears in seven different categories, had won a starting job at safety last season for the first time in his pro career. But in the third game of the '72 schedule, he suffered knee ligament injury that required surgery and sidelined him for the season. At the time, he had two interceptions as well as eleven tackles and eight assists in three games. Home: Lanham, Md.

TONY McGEE DT 6'4" 250 Bishop (Dallas) 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1971, D-3 Born: 1-18-'49, Battle Creek, Mich.

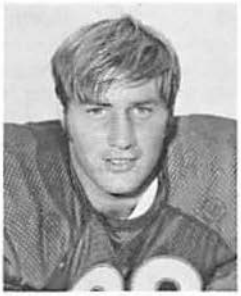

The steadily improving McGee was starter at defensive end last season after having been a starter at tackle in his rookie season. In both years, he got into all fourteen games. Statistically, his record shows 66 tackles, 49 assists as well as four quarterback sacks and assists on three others. McGee played two seasons at the University of Wyoming before transferring to Bishop College in Texas. Home: Chicago.

BILL McKINNEY LB 6'1" 226 W. Texas St. 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-16 Born: 7-14-'45, Borger, Tex.

McKinney saw action, mostly on special teams, in eight games of 1972 before he required knee surgery sidelining him the rest of the season. At 27, he was oldest of the Bears' rookies last season but his collegiate career had been interrupted twice by tours of duty in Vietnam where he was an underwater demolition man and won a Purple Heart. After graduation from high school in 1964, McKinney was headed for Oklahoma State but took a job that fall instead and a year later, enlisted in the Navy, serving until 1969. Home: Borger.

JERRY MOORE S 6'3" 208 Arkansas 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1971, D-4 Born: 3-16-'49, Belleville, Ill.

Moore was a starting safety in 1972, pairing with Ron Smith, after he had been one of two rookie starters (with Charlie Ford) the previous season. In two seasons, he has been in twenty-four games and his overall record shows 63 tackles, 41 assists, three opponents fumbles recovered and an interception. Coincidentally, his dad, Jerry, Sr., was drafted by the Bears on the tenth round for 1944, following a career as halfback-punter at Vanderbilt. However, Moore, Sr. went into the Army Air Force and never played pro football. Teammates voted Jerry, Jr. Bears rookie-of-the-year for 1971, for which he received the Brian Piccolo award. Home: Benton, Ark.

JOE MOORE RB 6'0" 205 Missouri 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1971, D-1 Born: 6-29-'49, St. Louis

Moore comes back from knee surgery, resulting from an injury received in the final 1972 preseason game, and he's confident he will finally get the full season shot at showing why he was the no. 1 pick for 1971. He missed all of last year's schedule after torn ankle ligaments (that didn't require surgery) kept him out of five games in 1971. In the '72 preseason, he displayed drive and running skills with 233 yards and a 4.2 yard average rushing and a touchdown plus three pass receptions for 82 yards, including one for a touchdown. Then came the sidelining injury at St. Louis. Moore was a big one at Missouri, with 2,306 rushing yards for his career. The past two offseasons, he has been a high school teacher here. Home: Chicago.

BOB NEWTON G 6'4" 250 Nebraska 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1971, D-3 Born: 8-16-'49, LaMirada, Cal.

At the rate of his development so far, Newton is expected to come into his own as one of the NFL's top offensive guards this season. He has size, strength and durability and the coaches feel that he now needs only work on the technique of his position. He was a member of Nebraska's 1970 national champions and virtually a unanimous all-American selection. As a senior, he also set a Big Eight Conference record when he was named Lineman of the Week four times. Bob's nickname, as obvious as it's unimaginative, is "Fig". Home: Chicago.

JIM OSBORNE DT 6'4" 240 Southern U. 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-7-b Born: 9-7-'49, Sylvania, Ga.

Osborne was a big help as a starter on a rebuilt defensive line in his rookie season. He wound up his first year in the NFL with 54 tackles, 28 assists. He also led in quarterback sacks with five and two assists, high among front line defense men fourth overall back of the Bears' three linebackers. Teammates voted him 1973 Bears Rookie-of-the-Year and winner of the Brian Piccolo award. Osborne's coach at Southern U was ex-Bear lineman, Harry Gunner. He is the first Southern U player ever to be selected for the East-West Shrine game. Home: West Hollywood, Fla.

PIFFERINI

RICE

BOB PARSONS TE 6'5" 235 Penn State 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-5 Born: 6-29-'50, Bethlehem, Pa.

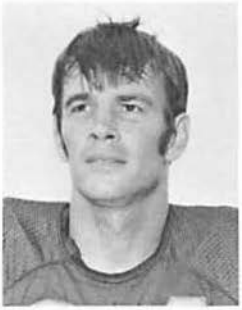

Parsons got in playing time in thirteen games of his rookie season, called upon mainly for blocking purposes from tight end. He did score a touchdown in his very first NFL game, a six-yarder against Atlanta. That followed by a week his score on a seven yard catch in the final preseason contest at St. Louis. He has versatility going for him, including an ability to punt. Parsons' kicking was tested in the Green Bay preseason date and he averaged 41.5 on eight punts, including one for 53 yards. At Penn State, he was a quarterback his first two seasons of eligibility but was moved to tight end as a senior and he led the team in pass catching with 30 for 489 yards, including five touchdowns. Home: Wheaton.

MAC PERCIVAL K 6'4" 220 Texas Tech 7th Season
Joined Bears: 1967, T-Dallas Born: 2-26-'40, Garland, Tex.

Percival's place kicking has enabled him to lead the Bears in scoring six straight seasons of which his best were 25 field goals of 36 in 1968 and 20-34 in 1970. The past two years, however, his completion percentage has dipped with 27 field goals out of 57 attempts. He hasn't missed a conversion try since 1967 and for his career, has 149 out of 152. Nov. 19, 1967, the St. Louis Cardinals blocked a second quarter attempt and he hasn't missed since, a consecutive skein of 133 extra points. Home: Garland.

BOB PIFFERINI LB 6'2" 226 UCLA 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1972, D-6 Born: 6-27-'50, San Jose, Cal.

Pifferini was one of the stalwarts of the Bears' excellent special units. As a rookie, he concentrated on those assignments and improved steadily. He has a thorough football background and his dad, Bob, Sr., was center with the Detroit Lions in 1949 and in recent years, has coached at De

CYRIL PINDER RB 6'2" 210 Illinois 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1971, T-Philadelphia Born: 11-13-'46, Ft. Lauderdale

Pinder, who cost the Bears two draft choices to Philadelphia, has averaged 4.1 yards rushing (611 yards on 150 carriers) in two seasons here. He had led the Eagles in rushing with 3.9 average in 1970. Last year, Pinder's best afternoon was against his former teammates at Philadelphia when he had 86 yards on 19 rushes. He had a 9-for-40 day (with one touchdown) at Detroit and 6-for-52 and a TD at Green Bay in the course of the year. Home: Chicago.

ANDY RICE DT 6'2" 250 Texas Southern 8th Season
Joined Bears: 1972, W/Kansas City Born: 9-6-'41, Hallettsville, Tex.

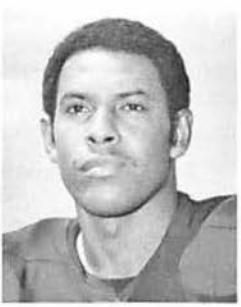

Rice brought solidity and experience to give the Bears defensive line depth last season. Until he came here, all of his play was in the AFL (now the AFC) with Kansas City, Houston, Cincinnati and San Diego. He was with Kansas City in the 1966 AFL championship game and the Super Bowl against Green Bay that followed and with Houston in the 1967 AFL title contest. His record shows that he got into 88 of a possible 98 games in his seven pro years. Home: Hallettsville.

DON RIVES LB 6'2" 215 Texas Tech. 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-15 Born: 8-30-'51, Shamrock, Tex.

Rives led Tech in tackles and assists in both of his last two seasons there. Along the way of his collegiate career, he also became noted for the big play special—such efforts as a pass interception and 38 yards return and, later, a blocked punt in the Sun Bowl, both as a sophomore; and, against Texas A. & M. as a junior, causing a fumble, catching the Against Southern Methodist last fall, he had thirteen unassisted tackles, six of which resulted in 42 yards of losses. In high school, Rives was a fullback who rushed for 1,475 yards and scored 106 points as a senior. Home: Wheeler, Tex.

EDDIE SEIGLER PK 6'0" 173 Clemson 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1973, D-11 Born: 4-7-'51, Greenwood, S. C.

In three seasons at Clemson, Seigler booted thirty field goals and 44 of 46 conversions. He's a soccer style place kicker who gets such distance, that he was used frequently in long range fourth down situations instead of a punter. For his career, he connected for two field goals of 52 yards each and, statistically, had 12-22 from 40-49 yards; eight from 30-39 and seven from 20-29. As a junior, his field goals defeated Duke, Wake Forest and Maryland. Home: Greenwood.

JIM SEYMOUR WR 6'4" 210 Notre Dame 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1970, T-Los Angeles Born: 11-24-'46, Detroit

Seymour's 17 yard third down pass reception against Minnesota here kept a drive alive that led to a Bears' scoring situation in the 13-10 win over the Vikings. He also scored a touchdown on a 35-yard play that was one of his three catches against the San Francisco Forty Niners. Seymour's NFL debut after he joined the Bears in 1970 was delayed to mid-season because of a muscle injury. However, from there to the finish of the schedule, he had an unusual record of six pass receptions of which four were touchdowns. Home: Deerfield, Ill.

DON SHY RB 6'1" 215 San Diego St. 7th Season
Joined Bears: 1970, FA Born: 11-15-'45, Cleveland

Shy was the Bears' third high rusher last year, averaging 3.8 with 342 yards on 91 tries. His average was better but the yardage total less than in 1971 (3.6 and 420, respectively). Shy's best single game was the 27-10 defeat of the St. Louis Cardinals when he picked up 77 yards on an even dozen rushes. He was Pittsburgh's second round draft choice for 1967 and after two seasons there, he was traded to New Orleans in 1969. Home: Chicago.

JOE TAYLOR CB 6'0" 200 N. Carolina A&T 7th Season
Joined Bears: 1967, FA Born: 12-28-'40, Miami

Seven of Taylor's ten pass interceptions since taking over as a regular cornerback in 1968 have come in the last two years. Four of those (for no return) occurred in 1972 after he had picked off three for 69 yards in 1971. But the one he feels he should have had was the three-point loss at Green Bay Oct. 8 when a Scott Hunter pass from the Bears' 48 was deflected off his fingertips to Jon Staggers on the eleven and the Packer raced in for the score. Home: Chicago.

EARL THOMAS WR 6'2" 215 Houston 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1971, D-6 Born: 10-4-'48, Greenville, Tex.

Thomas started all fourteen games of 1972 at tight end after having served basically as an alternate play carrier with Bob Wallace in '71. The responsibilities brought out the best in him—he led the team in pass receptions, twenty for 365 yards and three touchdowns, plus an 82-yard return of a kickoff for another score after taking a handoff from Ron Smith. He will be moved to wide receiver from tight end this year. As a rookie, he caught only three passes, one for 28. Thomas alternated at tight end at University of Houston his first two years, but became a starter as a senior and got in 244 minutes playing time. He is a brother of Jimmy Thomas, San Francisco running back. Home: Chicago.

CECIL TURNER WR 5'10" 176 Cal. Poly Obispo 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1968, D-5 Born: 4-2-'44, Washington, D.C.

Ever the speedster, Turner raised his career kickoff return average to a fraction under 25 per haul with his 409 yards on 16 in 1972. His longest returns were 57 against Minnesota and 37 against St. Louis, both away. The six touchdowns he has scored have come in clusters—four kickoff returns (95, 96, 94 and 88) in 1970 after he had caught and returned two passes (80 and 11, respectively) in 1968. Turner was an NCAA 100-meter dash and long jump champion in college. Home: Houston.

BOB WALLACE WR 6'2" 208 Texas El Paso 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1968, D-2 Born: 10-7-'45, Phoenix, Ariz.

Wallace, again at the more familiar job of wide receiver this year, was tight end two seasons ago and caught 27 passes long with acting as a play messenger. He added weight which had to be pared off last season when he went back to wide receiver and in the process, he saw but little playing time and caught only one pass. In 1969, he led the team with 47 pass receptions but 1970 was a hex year as he suffered a broken hand in preseason and then was sidelined after a knee injury in the fifth game. Home: Phoenix.

The Bears on the Air . . . and in Print

Bears games are on the schedule of the three major television networks again this season with CBS-TV covering all but four. NBC-TV will originate two games from Chicago and one from Denver while ABC-TV will bring the Monday night, Nov. 12 game against the Chiefs at Kansas City.

BRICKHOUSE

WGN radio again will carry all fourteen games, both home and road, for the twenty-first consecutive season.

Nationally famous, widely respected veteran play-by-play announcer Jack Brickhouse again will be teamed with color man Irv Kupcinet, syndicated columnist of the Sun-Times and a former professional and college player.

KUPCINET

For the fourteenth straight season, WBBM-TV (channel 2) will carry five of the Bears' road games telecast by CBS-TV. The Bears-Broncos contest at Denver will be seen in Chicago on WMAQ-TV (channel 5). The Monday night feature involving the Bears and Chiefs at Kansas City will be seen on WLS-TV (channel 7).

Complete Hall of Fame Lineup

The Bears could field a complete lineup, with two men to spare, from the thirteen former stars now enshrined in Pro Football's Hall of Fame at Canton, Ohio. Some minor adjustments might be needed among the interior offensive linemen, where there are three nominal tackles and one guard, and there might even be some competitive fireworks surrounding selection of a starting some fireworks over selection of a starting center. Tackles: Joe Stydahar (9) and Link Lyman (9)

Guards: Danny Fortmann (8) and Ed Healey (6)

Centers: George Trafton (13) or Bulldog Turner (12)

Quarterback: Sid Luckman (12)

Halfbacks: Red Grange (8); George McAfee (8) and Paddy Driscoll (5), also drop kicker.

Fullback: Bronko Nagurski (9)
