IN MEMORIAM

LUKE JOHNSOS
1905-1984

The 1985 Chicago Bears Media Guide is dedicated to the memory of late Bear player/coach Luke A. Johnsos.

Luke A. Johnsos, a Bears legend as a player and coach who became one of the first press-box quarterbacks passed away last December after devoting 40 years of his life to the Chicago Bears. Johnsos was the starting split end on the 1928 team and became an assistant coach in 1938. During WWII he served as co-head coach with "Hunk" Anderson for four seasons (1942-45) while Bear founder George Halas served in the Navy. Anderson and Johnsos led the team to an NFL championship in 1943. He was an assistant to Halas for the 1963 championship season. During his years with the Bears, the team won six NFL titles. "Luke was my coach when I played with the Bears," said Bear coach Mike Ditka. "He was good and very thorough because he played the game, and in his day he was a pretty darn good receiver." Johnsos was the Bears top receiver in 1932, with 24 catches, 321 yards and two touchdowns. In 1935, he was again the team's most valuable receiver.

Edward W. McCaskey
Chairman of the Board

On November 11, 1983, Edward McCaskey was named the second Chairman of the Board in the 66-year history of the Chicago Bears. He succeeded Club founder George Halas in that role.

An executive with the Bears since 1967, McCaskey has been the spearhead for the Club's civic projects. Community involvement programs were a natural for him because of his warm, outgoing manner.

A close friend of the late Brian Piccolo, McCaskey worked closely with Screen Gems in the production of the movie "Brian's Song." He represents the NFL owners on the Brian Piccolo Golf Tournament Committee that has donated over $1 million to the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York, as a memorial to Brian Piccolo.

Entering the business world after World War II, McCaskey was in the music publishing business in New York and associated with the late Jimmy Dorsey.

Since coming to Chicago in 1949, he has been merchandising manager for the National Retail Tea and Coffee Association, executive vice-president of Merchandise Service, Inc., an account executive for E.F. MacDonald Co., and vice president-treasurer for the Bears.

Born April 27, 1919, in Philadelphia, McCaskey sang with dance bands before enrolling at the University of Pennsylvania in 1940.

He was a football tackle at Lancaster (PA) Catholic High prior to graduation in 1937.

He continued a singing career during his collegiate days and was elected a class president at Penn. After graduation in 1943 in absentia, McCaskey served with the 80th infantry in France—enlisting as a private and leaving the Army with Captain's rank.

In addition to the Piccolo Committee, McCaskey serves on the board of trustees of Rosary College, as trustee of the Piccolo Children's Fund, the Illinois Chapter of the National Hemophilia Foundation, the Chicago Association for Retarded Citizens, and the Charlie Conacher Cancer Research Fund at the Toronto General Hospital. He is also on the Board of Directors of the Michigan Avenue National Bank, NFL Films, and the Central States Institute of Addiction.

McCaskey and his wife Virginia have 11 children, 13 grandchildren, and reside in DesPlaines, IL.

BRIAN PICCOLO AWARD

Bear veterans vote the award to the rookie who best exemplifies the courage, loyalty, teamwork, dedication and sense of humor of the late Brian Piccolo.

A running back who died of cancer June 16, 1970, Piccolo was in his fourth season with the club when forced from the lineup because of the malignancy. He was 26 years old when he died and left a wife and three daughters, and legions of friends.

He signed with the Bears as a free agent following the '64 collegiate season. As a senior at Wake Forest, Piccolo led the nation in scoring (111) and rushing (1,044).

Michael B. McCaskey
President & Chief Executive Officer

On November 11, 1983, Michael McCaskey became the third president in the sixty-six year history of the Chicago Bears, following his grandfather, George S. Halas, and his uncle, George S. Halas, Jr.

In his first year and a half at the helm, McCaskey initiated changes that helped return the Bears to their traditional place of pro football respect. The Bears won the NFC Central Division title in 1984, their first championship of any kind since 1963, and followed with a playoff win at Washington.

As a result of his accomplishments, McCaskey received consideration in voting for "NFL Executive of the Year," an award made by The Sporting News.

Organizational realignment strengthened the team's bid for success on the field. McCaskey reorganized the Bears so that the Head Coach, General Manager and Director of Player Personnel report directly to him. Placing new importance on evaluating player talent led to the appointment of Bill Tobin as Director of Player Personnel and to the expansion of the scouting staff.

McCaskey is working to shape the Bear organization into one that can meet the challenges of pro football in the 1980's. He says, "We won't win the Super Bowl by copying other teams or by outspending them. Our distinctive edge must be capable people working together to find new and better ways to do things. We are young in spirit, hungry to be the best team in football."

Michael McCaskey's management background led him to add in-house computer capabilities that have enhanced the Bears operation in the areas of coaching analysis, ticketing, accounting and word processing. Two other significant changes in the McCaskey tenure have been the return to WGN as the radio broadcast station and moving training camp to the University of Wisconsin-Platteville.

Fan welfare is high on McCaskey's priority list. Last year he founded a new fan advisory panel that formulated a tough new stadium policy with regard to disorderly behavior. He notes, "Fans are the heart of our business. I want everyone in the Bears organization striving to build a championship team and to provide fine service for our fans."

McCaskey held several club meetings with fans in the greater Chicagoland area and initiated the first Bear fan appreciation night in club history. The work continues this year with a creation of a "family" section in Soldier Field. Meetings with season ticketholders have also been held to explore ways to make the trip to Soldier Field more enjoyable.

Last year Commissioner Pete Rozelle named McCaskey to the NFL's newly formed Long Range Planning Committee. After surveying the challenges facing the League, the Committee chose to emphasize the development of a more acute business awareness on the part of the member clubs. As a concrete step, the Committee recommended, and the Clubs voted, to require each of the 28 clubs to prepare three year financial projections.

McCaskey was born December 11, 1943, and grew up in Des Plaines, Illinois. He graduated from Notre Dame High School in suburban Niles, where he played safety and quarterback on the football team. He then attended Yale University, where he majored in philosophy and psychology and lettered in football as a wide receiver.

Following graduation from Yale in 1965, McCaskey taught for two years as a Peace Corps volunteer in Ethiopia. He later earned a doctorate in business at Case Western Reserve University. He taught for three years at UCLA's Graduate School of Management (1972-75) and then joined the faculty of the Harvard Business School (1975-82).

While at Harvard, McCaskey and his wife, Nancy, founded their own consulting firm. Their clients included Scott Paper Co., Digital Equipment Corp., AT&T and the New England Medical Center. He also authored a book, The Executive Challenge: Managing Change and Ambiguity, published by Pitman, 1982.

McCaskey and his wife have one son, John, (born June 5, 1984) and reside in Winnetka, IL.

Jerry Vainisi

Vice-President and General Manager

Success enjoyed by the 1984 Chicago Bears was built upon the efforts of many people. Less visible than some, but no less vital was the contribution of General Manager Jerry Vainisi.

The prominence the Chicago Bears attained in winning the NFC Central Division title and ousting favored Washington in the divisional playoff was built upon a strong foundation...a sense of unity and cohesiveness within the entire organization...that was due in large part to Vainisi's efforts and energies.

An accountant and attorney by background, Vainisi's skill in developing player contracts in a demanding time has earned him the respect of other NFL club executives as well as player representatives. In addition to contract negotiations, Jerry has impacted upon Bear progress in many areas of operation. He helped establish the Bears early training camp at the University of Wisconsin/Platteville, a move that was a key to the club's fast start in '84. Vainisi's input and effort contributed to important personnel moves, like the acquisition of quarterback Steve Fuller, who led the Bears into the playoffs after Jim McMahon was injured.

In addition to his club responsibilities, Vainisi also serves on the League's captive insurance company, as an officer of NFL Insurance Limited.

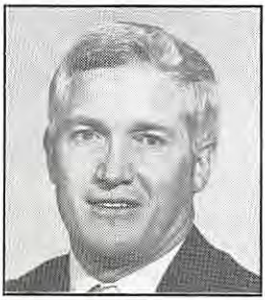

Vainisi was named general manager on August 24, 1983, succeeding Jim Finks. He had joined the Bears in 1972, serving as controller, treasurer and club counsel before being chosen by the late George Halas to replace Finks.

A graduate of Georgetown University and Chicago Kent College of Law, Jerry is a Chicago native. His older brother, Jack Vainisi, was personnel director for the Green Bay Packers.

After completing his education, Vainisi worked briefly as a radio sports announcer in Monmouth, Illinois, before joining the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen & Company in 1966. Vainisi, 44, and his wife, Doris, have five children: Mary, 19; Jerry, 18; Jack, 16; Mark, 13; and Melissa, 5.

Bill Tobin

Director of Player Personnel

A man who was instrumental in supplying the Bears' coaching staff with the manpower that won the NFC Central Division Title in 1984 is Bill Tobin, who begins his 11th season with the Bears and second as Director of Player Personnel.

Tobin's scouting expertise is well documented having assisted in drafting several all-pro's in his 14 years of scouting in the NFL. Tobin has been in charge of the college draft since club President, Michael McCaskey, named him to his current position in 1984. Previously, Tobin served as Director of Pro Scouting (since 1975) and assisted in the draft. Among his discoveries is Richard Dent, who became all-pro last season after being an 8th round choice in 1983.

A star running back at the University of Missouri under Dan Devine (1959-62), Tobin was MVP in the 1962 Bluebonnet Bowl in which he led the Tigers to a 14-10 win over Georgia Tech. He played for the Houston Oilers in 1963 and scored a touchdown the first time he carried the ball. The next year he joined the Edmonton Eskimos where he played for three seasons while serving as a graduate assistant at Missouri (1964-66). Tobin headed to Central Connecticut State College in 1968 where he was offensive backfield coach for three years.

Tobin joined the Green Bay Packers in 1971, serving as a regional scout for two years before being named Director of Pro Scouting (1973-74). He assisted in drafting four "Rookies of the Year"—John Brockington, Chester Marcol, Willie Buchanon and Don Woods.

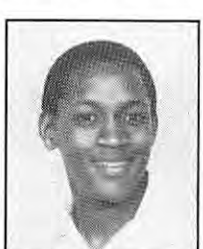

Born February 16, 1941 in Burlington Junction, Missouri, Tobin and his wife, Dusene, have three children and reside in Arlington Heights, IL.

Mike Ditka
Head Coach

"I think it's important that this game go to the man who deserves it the most, and that's Mr. Halas. Somewhere, he's smiling pretty good right now." (Mike Ditka after Bears' 34-3 win over Vikings November 25 giving Chicago NFC Central Title)

Mike Ditka, who had trod the frozen turf of Wrigley Field in victory as a tight end on the Bears' last championship in 1963, put it into historical perspective when he awarded the game ball to the late "Papa Bear" following the Bears' 1984 NFC Central Division clincher. It was Halas who founded the team and the league, Halas who coached the NFL champions of 1963 and Halas who hired Ditka to be head coach in 1981 to lead the Bears out of mediocrity to its traditional place of respect.

In 1984, Mike Ditka paid back the man who hired him three years ago by leading the Bears to their first divisional title and first championship of any kind in 21 years. Their 11-7 record included a divisional playoff win over the Washington Redskins (23-19) and an appearance against the World Champion San Francisco 49ers in the NFC Championship game (23-0 loss). But more important, 1984 was a year in which Mike Ditka silenced the critics who openly questioned his style of coaching, inexperience and leadership ability.

The 45-year old Ditka, the Bears' 10th head coach, owns a 22-21 record since taking the helm on January 20, 1982. Perhaps the mark that is more indicative of the direction that the Bears have taken in the last two years is his winning 16 of the last 24 games, including nine of the last 11 home games.

Ditka is a 24-year veteran of the NFL as both a player and coach. He has been in league playoffs in 14 of these seasons and been a member of teams that have been NFC Champions five times and NFL champions three times. While serving nine years as an offensive coach under Tom Landry at Dallas, the Cowboys were in the playoffs in all but one season and won NFC Championships in 1975, 1977, and 1978 with the NFL crown following the 1977 season.

Born October 18, 1939, in Carnegie, Pennsylvania, Ditka enjoyed a 12-year NFL playing career with the Chicago Bears (1961-66), the Philadelphia Eagles (1967-68), and the Dallas Cowboys (1969-72), as a tight end. During those seasons, the Bears were in the playoffs once and the Cowboys four times. The Bears won the NFL Championship over the New York Giants 14-10, a game in which Ditka made a key third quarter catch that set up the winning touchdown. In 1970, the Cowboys were the NFC Champs and after the 1971 season, they were NFL Champions.

Ditka's versatility brought him college all-American honors in 1960 at Pittsburgh where he was a solid two-way performer, defensively at end and middle linebacker, offensively as a receiver. He was also one of the nation's leading collegiate punters with a three-year average of 40 yards per boot. He starred in the East-West game and was voted the outstanding lineman of the Hula Bowl.

The Bears first round draft choice in 1961 (5th pick), Ditka was the NFL Rookie of the Year, all-NFL 1961-64, and played in five Pro Bowls (1962-66). In 1964, he set an NFL record for tight ends by catching 75 passes in a Bear uniform. The mark was broken in 1980 by San Diego's Kellen Winslow.

Ditka joined the Cowboys' coach staff in 1973. In addition to handling the Dallas special teams, he has coached Pro Bowl performers at each receiver position—wideouts Drew Pearson and Tony Hill plus tight end Billy Joe Dupree.

Mike is actively involved in the Little City Foundation, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Sports Teams Organized for the Prevention of Drug Abuse. He and his wife Diana have four children: Mike (24), Mark (23), Megan (21) and Matthew (18).

Buddy Ryan
Defensive Coordinator

Gaining national recognition as one of the most innovative minds in football history, Buddy Ryan enters his eighth season as the Bears' defensive coordinator.

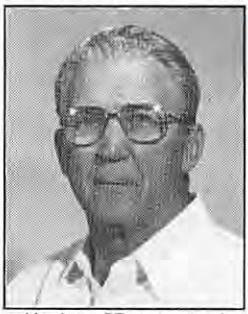

Ryan's 1984 unit developed into one of the best defenses in NFL annals, leading the entire league in fewest yards allowed (241.3 per game) and fewest rushing yards allowed (86.1) while establishing a NFL record 72 sacks. Despite their reputation as vicious hitters, the Bears defense was the least penalized team in the NFL in 1984. The Bears pass defense ranked second in the league, just 33 yards shy of the top spot and the distinction of leading the league in all three major defensive categories—a feat accomplished by just four teams in NFL history. In Ryan's seven years with the Bears, the defense has ranked in the NFL's top 10 five times.

Ryan, who also handles the linebackers in addition to his duties as coordinator, is a strategist who employs multiple variations of alignments and coverages. His popular "46" defense is a 5-1-5 set that is named after its original middleman, former safety Doug Plank, who wore uniform number 46. The scheme forces offensive linemen into one-on-one blocking and opens up avenues for blitzing.

A 17-year veteran of NFL coaching, Ryan joined the Bears in 1978 after coaching the Minnesota Vikings defensive line for two years. From 1968 through 1975, he was on the defensive staff of the New York Jets under Hall of Fame coach Weeb Ewbank.

The stocky Oklahoman was a four-year letterman at Oklahoma State from 1952-55 as an offensive guard before beginning his coaching career as defensive coordinator at the University of Buffalo from 1961-1965. He served in a similar role the next two years with Vanderbilt (1966) and the University of Pacific (1967) before joining the Jets.

Born February 17, 1934, in Frederick, Oklahoma, Ryan is an outdoor enthusiast and owner of a horse farm in Kentucky where he spends much of his spare time. He and his wife, Joan, have three children and reside in Lincolnshire, IL.

Ed Hughes
Offensive Coordinator

If there is one thing that Ed Hughes deserves in 1985, it is the opportunity to work with one healthy quarterback. Due to the woes of QB's Jim McMahon and Steve Fuller, the Bears used a total of six different signal-callers at one time or another last season, including the NFL's all-time leading rusher, Walter Payton. Despite the QB misfortunes, the Bears again led the NFL in total rushing for a second straight year and finished a respectable seventh in overall offense in 1984. In addition, the Hughes-led offense held the edge in possession time in each of their 18 games and were outgained by opponents only twice during the 1984 campaign.

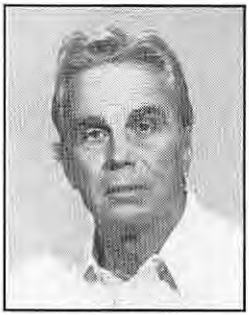

Hughes, 57, came to the Bears February 1, 1982 from the Philadelphia Eagles marking a reunion for him and head coach Mike Ditka, who were coaching mates in Dallas, (1973-76). In those years, the Cowboys made the playoffs three times including a Super Bowl trip.

Prior to joining the Bears, Hughes was an offensive assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles after serving as offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints (1978-80), where he was a coaching mate of Dick Stanfel.

Born October 23, 1927, in Buffalo, New York, Hughes played collegiately at Tulsa and professionally for the L.A. Rams and New York Giants as a defensive back. He began his coaching career with the Dallas Texans (1960-62). He also coached with the Denver Broncos (1963), the Washington Redskins (1964-67), the St. Louis Cardinals (1972), and the Detroit Lions (offensive coordinator, 1977).

Ed and his wife, Nancy, have five children and reside in Libertyville, IL.

Jim Dooley
Research & Quality Control

Seeing the Chicago Bears win the NFC Central Division Title and advance in the playoffs last season was special for Jim Dooley. Because he was part of the Bears' last championship season in 1963, it brought back some fond memories and comparisons for the veteran NFL coach and administrator. Dooley, 55, was an offensive coach on the Bears' last championship team, a squad that like the 1984 Bears, was known for its ball control offense and stout defense.

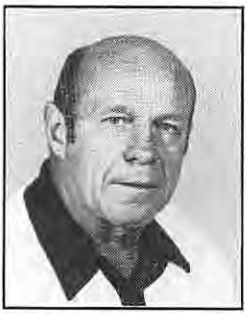

Dooley enters his 25th season with the Bears and has worn many hats since joining the organization as a player in 1952. His career with the Bears includes time spent as a player, (1952-55, 57, 59-62), offensive coach (1963-65), defensive coach (1966-67), head coach (1968-71) and in his current position since 1981. He is currently in charge of studying and evaluating all players and teams in the league. His reports are used in the development of the Bears' weekly game plan.

After starring as a halfback for Miami (FL), Dooley was a first round draft pick of the Bears in 1952. He was used on defense as a rookie and led the team in interceptions. After shifting to flanker in 1953, he led the team in pass receptions, an achievement he also reached in 1957 and 1959.

Dooley played nine seasons for the Bears and is the club's sixth all-time leading receiver. His playing days were interrupted twice: when he served the Air Force in 1955-56 and in '58 when he was sidelined with a broken ankle.

Dooley was born February 8, 1930 in Stoutsville, Missouri. He and his wife have 5 children and reside in Chicago.

Dale Haupt
Defensive Line Coach

Like photographs, numbers and statistics don't lie. And the statistics and ranking that the 1984 Bears' defense amassed clearly indicate that last season was a year in which the Bears' defense came of age. They finished the season ranked number one in fewest yards yielded in the NFL and set an NFL standard for most sacks in a season (72). The Bears broke the previous mark of 67 set by the 1967 Oakland Raiders. A principal architect behind this record-setting defense is line coach Dale Haupt.

Haupt's line accounted for 50.5 of the Bears' 72 sacks, were instrumental in the Bears' league leading yield of 86.1 yards rushing per game, as well as their number one rankings in QB sack percentage, opponent first downs allowed and third down efficiency. The Bears tenacious front line was also influential in the team finishing second in opponent passing yards per game (155.4), third in average gain per pass play and second in yards yielded per defensive play.

Since Haupt's arrival in 1978, the Bears' defense has averaged 45 sacks a year. Born April 12, 1929 at Manitowoc, Wisconsin, the three-time University of Wyoming letterman spent six years tutoring linemen in the Atlantic Coast Conference prior to joining the Bears. His one year at Duke was preceded by a five-year stint at North Carolina State (1972-76). He coached in the 1968 and 1971 Tangerine Bowls, the 1972 and 1975 Peach Bowls, the 1973 Liberty Bowl, and the 1974 Astro-Blubonnet Bowl.

Haupt began his college coaching career at Tennessee where he was head freshman coach from 1960-63. He joined the staff at Iowa State (1964-65) for two seasons before a six-year tour at the University of Richmond.

He and his wife, Francis, have two children and reside in Libertyville, IL.

Steve Kazor
Special Teams

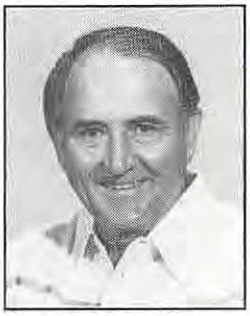

The man in charge of assembling the Bears kamikaze units is Steve Kazor, who enters his fourth year on the Bears staff.

Handpicked by Mike Ditka upon the head coach's arrival in 1982, Kazor helped veteran kicker Bob Thomas enjoy his best season in 1984, while rookie Dave Finzer developed into an effective punter. Under Kazor's guidance, Thomas kicked 22 of 28 field goals while Finzer led the NFL with 26 punts inside the 20-yard line. Kazor's challenge this season will be to upgrade the team's effectiveness on punt and kickoff returns—an area that was inconsistent last season partly due to injuries.

Kazor joined the Bears prior to the 1982 season after spending three years in the Dallas Cowboys scouting department where he worked for Gil Brandt. Kazor also has been an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Colorado State (1975), Wyoming (1976), and Texas El Paso (1979-80). He was head coach at Emporia College in 1973, where he was the youngest college coach in the country.

Kazor also held assistant coaching jobs at Texas-Arlington (1974), Texas-Austin (1976-79) and Westminister College (1970), where he played nose tackle for four years as a collegian.

Born February 24, 1948, in New Kensington, Pennsylvania, Kazor and his wife, Colleen, have two children and reside in Vernon Hills, IL.

Jim LaRue
Defensive Secondary

Beginning his 35th year of coaching and eighth with the Bears is secondary coach Jim LaRue.

A coach of expertise, having tutored virtually every position in football, LaRue's knowledge has paid dividends for a Bears' defense which has ranked among the best in the NFL including a top ranked position last season. Both of LaRue's safeties, Gary Fencik and Todd Bell, have made Pro Bowl appearances under LaRue's tenure, while cornerback Leslie Frazier was enroute to that plateau in 1984 before suffering a foot injury which bothered him the remainder of the season. In addition, LaRue has developed a rookie cornerback in each of the past two seasons to assume a starting role—Mike Richardson in 1983 and Shaun Gayle last season.

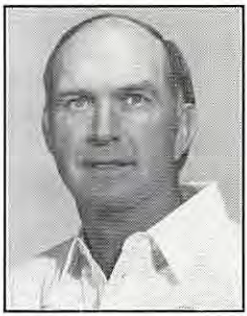

LaRue joined the Bears in 1978 after serving two seasons as an offensive assistant with the Buffalo Bills. Prior to entering the NFL in 1975, he was an assistant coach at six major colleges and a successful head coach at the University of Arizona.

As the Wildcats boss for eight years (1959-66), LaRue posted a 41-37-2 record and compiled an 8-1-1 mark as an independent in '61 and shared the WAC title in 1964. The 8-1-1 mark is the best one-year record in Arizona football history.

A two-way halfback in college at Carson-Newman, Duke and Maryland during the WWII years, LaRue is a Duke mathematics graduate, who holds a master's degree in education from Maryland.

Born August 11, 1925 in Clinton, Oklahoma, LaRue and his wife, Betty, have three children and reside in Libertyville, IL.

Ted Plumb
Receivers

Developing the Bears young wide receivers and utilizing the talents of a veteran corps of tight ends will be Ted Plumb's task in 1985.

Plumb, who enters his sixth season as the team's receivers coach, is looking for consistency in the team's aerial attack that showed flashes of brilliance in 1984.

A veteran coach highly respected among his peers in the NFL, Plumb began his pro coaching career in 1974 as offensive backfield coach of the New York Giants. After three years, Plumb left to join Leeman Bennett's Atlanta Falcons as quarterback/receivers coach until joining the Bears in 1980.

Plumb played wide receiver on Baylor teams that played in the 1960 Gator Bowl and 1961 Gotham Bowl where they split with Utah State (24-9) and Florida (13-12 loss).

After playing one season with the Buffalo Bills in 1962, Plumb coached five years in the high school and junior college ranks before joining the TCU staff in 1968. After three years with the Horned Frogs, Plumb coached at Tulsa (1971) and Kansas (1972-73) before joining the Giants.

Raised in northern California, Plumb was born August, 20, 1939 at Reno, Nevada. He and his wife, Marianna, have three children and reside in Buffalo Grove, IL.

Johnny Roland
Offensive Backfield

After an outstanding eight-year career as a player, Johnny Roland begins his seventh year in NFL coaching.

Since joining the Bears in 1983, Roland has directed a ground attack that has paced the NFL in each of his two years with Chicago. Roland has utilized the talents of fullbacks Matt Suhey and Calvin Thomas to complement all-pro Walter Payton.

A fourth-round draft choice of the St. Louis Cardinals in 1965, Roland's playing career included trips to the Pro Bowl in both 1967 and 1968. He finished his career with 3,750 yards on 1,015 carries and 28 TD's; 153 receptions, 1,430 yards and 6 TD's.

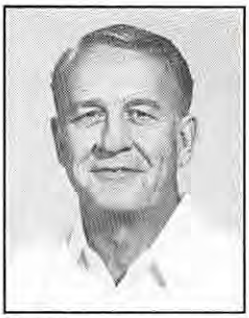

Born May 21, 1943, in Corpus Christi, Texas, Roland was a versatile collegian at Missouri, starring as a running back and cornerback from 1963-65. As a senior, Roland earned all-American honors. He was among five finalists for the Missouri head coaching vacancy last year.

In 1974, Roland assisted his former college coach, Dan Devine, on the Green Bay Packers' staff and followed Devine to Notre Dame in 1975. Roland was on the staff of the Philadelphia Eagles from 1976-78 before entering private business until his assignment with the Bears.

Roland has three children and resides in Vernon Hills, IL.

Dick Stanfel
Offensive Line

Few coaches in the NFL have a resume that can match that of Dick Stanfel's. Often described by Mike Ditka as "the best offensive line coach in football," Stanfel begins his fifth year with the Bears.

In 1984, Stanfel's line cleared the way for the NFL's top ground attack for the second straight year. Equally impressive is the fact that he did it with a line that had no one with more than four years of experience.

Stanfel joined the Bears in 1981 after serving as the New Orleans Saints interim head coach for the final four games of 1980. He began his coaching career at Notre Dame (1959-62) and spent one season (1963) on the California staff before taking his initial pro coaching assignment with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1964.

After seven seasons with the Eagles, Stanfel joined the 49ers as line coach in 1971 and stayed there until joining the Saints in 1976.

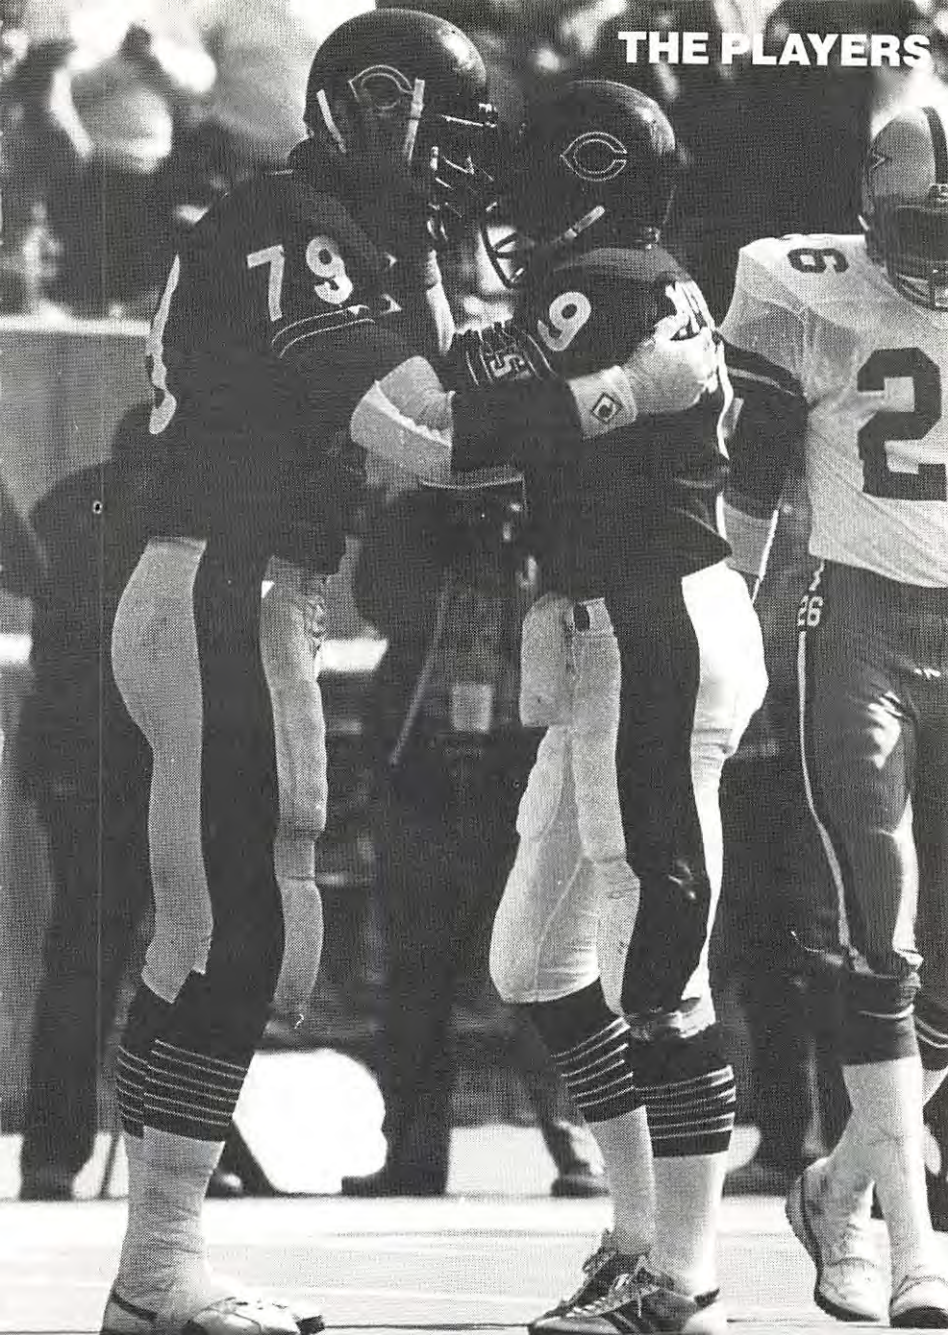

As a player, Stanfel followed a collegiate career at the University of San Francisco with nine years in the pros. A second round draft pick by Detroit, Stanfel played four years with the Lions and was the league's most valuable player in 1954 when the Lions won the NFL Championship. The four-time all-pro guard also played with the Washington Redskins (1956-58).

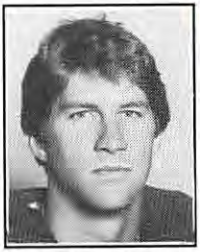

One of Stanfel's top accolades as a coach came in 1979 when his offensive line at New Orleans allowed a record low 17 sacks during a 16-game season.

Born July 20, 1927 at San Francisco, Stanfel has three children and resides in Libertyville, IL.

BEAR DRAFT NOTES

Chicago has had 63 first round draft picks in the 50 years the collegiate player selection meeting has been called to order. The Club has made 15 trades involving those 1st round draft spots acquiring 12 rookie players and three times sending away choices for veteran players.

Rookie WR Willie Gault, T Dennis Lick, and DE Dan Hampton came to the Club on first round picks acquired from other teams as did three Hall of Famers (Sid Luckman, Bob Layne, and Dick Butkus.)

Center Bob Hyland has the distinction of both joining the Bears and leaving them in multiple player trades involving 1st round picks.

The early '50s saw the Bears make two unusual 1st round selections taking a junior college player (HB Billy Anderson of Compton JC) in '53 and an established veteran (HB Billy Stone) when the Baltimore Colts disbanded in 1951.

SOLDIER FIELD

Home to the Chicago Bears for 15 years, Soldier Field was opened for use in 1924 as 45,000-seat Municipal Grant Park Stadium.

The Bears home has undergone reconstruction and renovation since the '78 campaign which has included new lighting, new playing surface, lockerrooms, and rebuilding of the stadium's seating area—new chairback, arm-rest seats and new sightlines.

Following the 1981 season, the project was completed with the rebuilding of the remaining seating areas, new concourses with new restrooms and concession areas, press box, deluxe sky boxes, and scoreboard.

The first football game played on its field was Nov. 22, 1924 as a capacity crowd watched Notre Dame edge Northwestern 13-6. It hosted the first boxing event which drew a gate of over $2.5 million (1927; Dempsey–Tunney), the first ski meet held in a stadium and the all-time largest football crowd (123,000). The largest crowd for any event in the history of Soldier Field was 260,000 on Sept. 8, 1954 for the religious Marian Year Tribute.

The new 100,000-seat stadium was dedicated November 27, 1926, with Army battling Navy to a 21-21 tie. The all-time collegiate attendance record of 123,000 plus was established Nov. 26, 1927 as Notre Dame beat Southern Cal 7-6.

In the first professional game at the then mammoth stadium, the Bears defeated the Chicago Cardinals 10-0 in 1926.

The Bears began using the facility as a regular season home Sept. 19, 1971 when capacity was cut to 57,000 to bring season ticketholders closer to the field. The new capacity is 65,793.

Plans for the stadium were begun in 1919 as a memorial to the soldiers of WWI. Soldier Field stands on 10,000 pile foundations driving an average depth of 62 and one-half feet through fill that replaced the lake waters.

Soldier Field is operated by the Chicago Park District.

HALAS HALL

Located on the picturesque campus of Lake Forest College, Halas Hall is the Bears year-round home.

Named to honor the late George S. Halas, the Bears founder and one of the pioneers of the present day NFL, the building is dedicated to the memory of George Halas, Jr., who died Dec. 16, 1979.

Halas Hall was opened to the players in September of '79. Coaches and other staff members moved into the top of the three-level complex in November. Finishing touches were completed in May of 1980. In the spring of 1985, the Bears corporate offices were moved to Halas Hall from downtown. Today, only the team's ticket operations are housed at 55 E. Jackson Blvd.

A regulation-sized grass football field and one field some 70 yards long are located 15 yards from the players' lockerrooms.

The building was designed by Allan M. Pickus Architects and built by Pickus Construction of Waukegan, Ill.

The lower floor of the building houses team meeting rooms, a player lounge, racquetball court, rookie lockers and shower areas, storage and utility rooms. The central floor features the lockerroom, showers, sauna, training and weight rooms, coaches' lockerroom, equipment rooms, laundry, photo lab,and media workrooms.

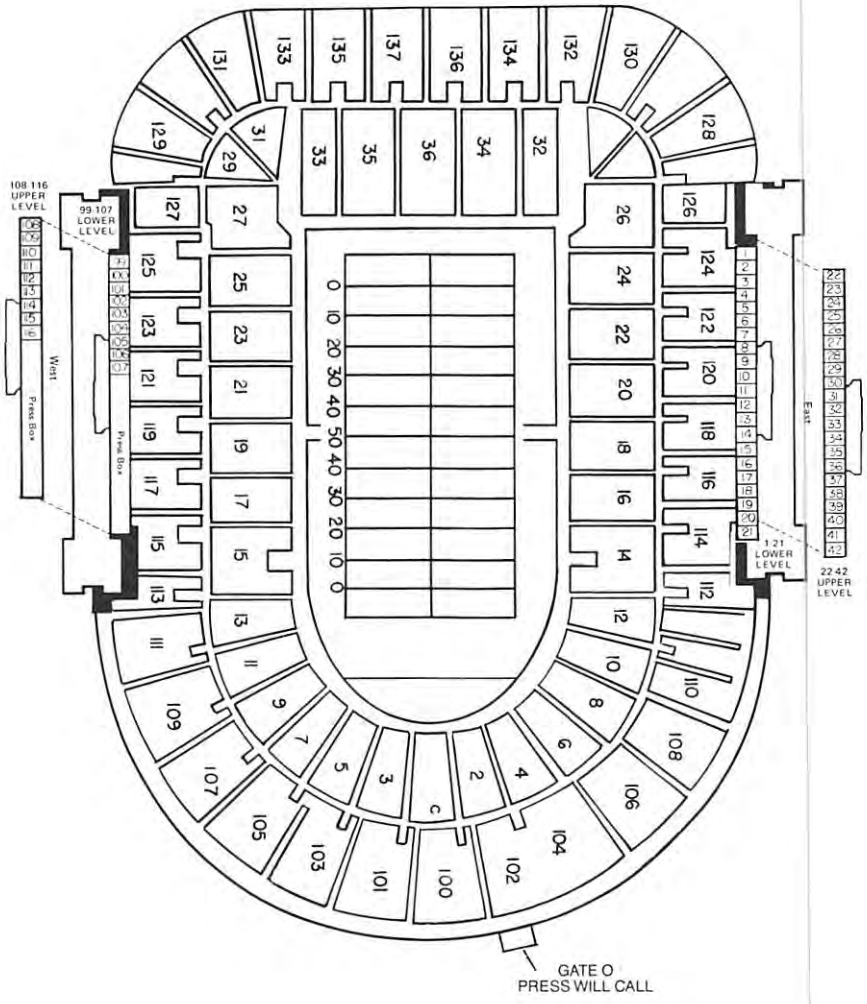

The top floor holds the reception areas, staff offices along with work rooms including duplicating room and computer department.

GEORGE S. HALAS

February 2, 1895–October 31, 1983

Leading the Chicago Bears for more than a half-century, George S. Halas, the team's founder and head coach for 40 years, was one of the most enduring personalities in sports history. Halas was active in the Bears since 1920 when he founded the team and 1985 represents the 66th year since the Bears came into being as the Decatur Staleys. No other football coach, professional or college, has equalled his personal winning record. The 40 years he had been coach break down into four separate tenures: 1920-29, 1933-42, 1946-55 and 1958-67. In those years, the Bears won 326 games, including playoff wins.

Halas was born and raised on Chicago's west side, prepped at Crane Tech High School before attending the University of Illinois where he earned a B.S. degree and lettered in football, basketball and baseball. After graduation in 1918, he went into the Navy for the first of his two tours of duty. He was named player of the game in the 1919 Rose Bowl as an end on that Great Lakes team that beat the Marines 17-0. A commander when he left active duty in 1946, Halas retired as a captain in the Naval Reserve. He was also awarded the Distinguished Citizens Award, the highest honor the Navy can bestow on a civilian.

After leaving the Navy, Halas played right field for the New York Yankees. A hip injury shortened his baseball career. Halas went to work for a Decatur, Illinois corn products firm owned by an enthusiastic sports fan, Mr. A. E. Staley. Mr. Staley, who sponsored a semi-pro baseball team and later that summer, commissioned Halas to organize an independent football team.

The Decatur Staleys were forerunners of the Bears. In 1921, they were known as the Chicago Staleys and in 1922, the team officially became known as the Chicago Bears.

PRO CAREER: As a player, Halas set an NFL record that stood for 49 years. He ran 98 yards for a TD with a Jim Thorpe fumble in a 26-0 win over the Oorang Indians at Wrigley Field November 4, 1923. He played end for the Bears from 1920-29; he was named to the NFL All-Pro squad of the 1920's.

PRO COACHING CAREER: Four times, Halas interrupted his coaching activities of his own volition. He turned over the leadership to Ralph Jones from 1930 through 1932. When he left for the U.S. Navy on November 1, 1942, Luke Johnsos and "Hunk" Anderson shared head coaching responsibilities through '45. John "Paddy" Driscoll coached in 1956-57. Coincidentally, in '33 and again in '46 when Halas resumed duties after having been away, his Bears' won world championships immediately. During the 1940's, Halas' teams reached the height of its power with four straight Western Conference titles; three world championships; a fantastic four-season record (including preseason games) of 62 wins, 7 losses, 1 tie for a winning percentage of .899; 2,164 points against 842. The 1940 team, which defeated the Washington Redskins 73-0 for the world championship, was voted the greatest professional team of all time by the National Academy of Sports Editors in 1963. Resuming coaching in 1958, Halas needed a little more time to develop another championship and in 1963, the Bears won their eighth championship. The Associated Press, The Sporting News, and the United Press International named him Coach-of-the-Year after the 1963 and 1965 seasons. He is a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He retired from coaching May 27, 1968.

RECORDS INTRODUCTION

When the National Football League was formed in 1920, probably the last thing the founders had to worry about was the compiling of statistics and records. Accordingly, a complete statistical history of the league, dating from 1920, is an impossibility. However, here are some reference points for when various statistical categories were first compiled officially:

Scoring: Scores of all games are available starting in 1920, for purposes of records, however, totals date from 1932. Individual scoring statistics also date from 1932. Extra point and field goal attempts start in 1937.

Rushing: Statistics begin in 1932.

Passing: Statistics begin in 1932. Until 1947, what is now called "yards lost attempting to pass" was recorded in the rushing statistics. From 1947 to 1951, "yards lost attempting to pass" was recorded, but was not included in either the net rushing or the net passing yardage totals (and consequently was not a part of "total net yards gained"). Starting in 1952, passing yardage team totals include "yards lost attempting to pass," although sacks were not recorded before 1963. Lateral passes were maintained as a separate category until 1950, at which time yardage gained or lost as a result of lateral passes was included in the category initiating the action (e.g., rushing).

Pass Receiving: Statistics begin in 1932.

Interceptions By: Individual statistics begin in 1940, but individual touchdowns are available from 1932. Team totals for interceptions and touchdowns start in 1932, and team yardage totals start in 1940.

Punting: Complete seasonal statistics begin in 1939, although frequently during the period 1933-1938 individual and/or team punting totals are listed on official score blanks. Such game totals are included as official records, where applicable.

Punt Returns: Complete individual totals date from 1941, although team yardage figures date from 1936. Touchdowns are available since 1932.

Kickoff Returns: Complete individual totals date from 1941, although team yardage figures date from 1940. Touchdowns are available since 1932.

Fumbles: Individual totals start in 1945. Team totals for fumbles and for total fumbles recovered begin in 1935, and the breakdown of own and opponents' recoveries dates from 1938.

First Downs: Statistics begin in 1933, while the rushing—passing—by penalty breakdown commences in 1939 (although some games in 1937-1938 include this information).

Penalties: Yards penalized dates from 1936, penalties start in 1941.

Long Plays: Since the "Long" category was not always listed on official score blanks (longest run, longest punt, etc.), an attempt has been made to verify reports of long plays through newspaper accounts—even if they are not listed on the official sheets. Reliable newspaper findings have been included in this record section.

"BEAR DOWN CHICAGO BEARS"

The lyrics to "Bear Down Chicago Bears", the Club's fight song since 1941 are:
"Bear Down, Chicago Bears, Make every play clear the way to victory: Bear Down, Chicago Bears, Put up a fight with a might so fearlessly. We'll never forget the way you thrilled the nation with your T-formation. Bear Down, Chicago Bears, and let them know why you're wearing the crown. You're the pride and joy of Illinois, Chicago Bears, Bear Down."

Bear Overtime Game History
Overall: Won 4, Lost 7
Home 1-2; Road 3-5

At Metropolitan Stadium 10/16/77

Chicago	0	6	10	0	0—16
Minnesota	10	3	0	3	6—22

With 1st and 10 at the Bear 11 on their first possession, and the Vikings lined up in FG formation, Paul Krause pitched a TD pass to TE Stu Voight just 2:36 into overtime.

After winning the OT coin toss and receiving, Chicago was forced to punt after 3 downs—the key play a 2nd and 3 sack on Bob Avellini by Viking Alan Page.

Minnesota's TD drive covered 80 yards on 10 plays with QB Fran Tarkenton 3 of 4 for 46 on the march. The Vikings tied the game with 12:24 left in regulation on Fred Cox' 21-yard FG.

At Giants Stadium 12/18/77

Chicago	3	0	0	6	3—12
New York	3	0	0	6	0—9

Bob Thomas' 28-yard FG with just 9 seconds left in the OT period kicked the Bears into their first playoff since 1963.

On a field made treacherous by a mid-morning ice storm and sleeting throughout the game, Doug Plank ended the first possession of the OT with an interception. The Bears then forced 3 NY punts taking possession with 1:22 remaining. Bob Avellini passes to Greg Latta (18) and Walter Payton (14) set up Thomas' game-winner.

Chicago had missed 36- and 27-yard FG opportunities after 2 of their first three OT drives.

Joe Danelo's 27-yard FG with 41 seconds to go in regulation capped a 14-play, 72-yard drive that knotted the game at 9-9. The Bears had taken a 9-6 lead midway through the 4th quarter on FB Robin Earl's 4-yard run.

At Soldier Field 10/1/78

Oakland	3	3	3	10	6—25
Chicago	0	9	0	10	0—19

Arthur Whittington's 2-yard run, 3 plays after Neal Colzie returned an interception of a Bob Avellini pass to the Bear 3, ended Chicago's upset plans 5:19 into OT.

Led by Ken Stabler on a 55-yard 2-minute drill, the Raiders had tied the game at 19 with 5 seconds to play on Errol Mann's 29-yard FG. The teams traded punts after Chicago won the OT coin toss with Colzie's theft ending the second Bear possession.

Bob Thomas' 24-yard FG with 2:36 in regulation after Lenny Walterscheid's 81-yard kickoff return had given the Bears a 19-16 lead.

At Lambeau Field 9/7/80

Chicago	3	0	3	0	0—6
Green Bay	0	6	0	0	6—12

Packer kicker Chester Marcol ran 25 yards with a rebound of his game-winning FG attempt, which Alan Page blocked, for the TD to upset the Bears on opening day.

After winning the OT toss and taking the ball, the Bears were flagged with four penalties before punting. On the first GB OT play, Lynn Dickey hit James Lofton with a 32-yard strike to the Bear 18.

Marcol came in on a 4th and 3 situation at the Bear 17.

At the Silverdome 11/27/80

Chicago	0	3	0	14	6—23
Detroit	3	7	7	0	0—17

Dave Williams ended the NFL's shortest OT game returning the opening kickoff 95 yards in 21 seconds crowning a Bear rally from a 17-3 hole.

Chicago scored 10 of its points with no time on the scoreboard clocks: Bob Thomas' 24-yard FG to end the 1st half and Vince Evans' 4-yard run and the PAT to knot the game on the final play of the 4th quarter.

The Bears' 2 4th quarter TDs capped 86- and 94-yard drives—the last one taking 3:37.

At Soldier Field 12/14/80

Cincinnati	7	7	0	0	3—17
Chicago	0	7	0	7	0—14

Cincinnati marched 62 yards in 8 plays to Jim Breech's 28-yard FG after receiving the OT kickoff.

Down 14-0 early in the 2nd quarter, the Bears scored on Alan Page's endzone fumble recovery and Roland Harper's 1-yard run (midway through the 4th quarter).

Chicago's 2-minute drill produced a 58-yard drive that got to the Cincy 18 where the Bengals' Lewis Breeden ended it with his 3rd interception of the game with 9 seconds remaining in regulation.

San Diego	0	3	0	14	0 —17
Chicago	7	3	0	7	3 —20

John Roveto's 26-yard field goal 9:30 into overtime knocked off the highly favored San Diego Chargers 20-17 at Soldier Field. The Bears owned a 48:50-20:40 possession time advantage in their first Soldier Field overtime victory and out-gained the Chargers 414-356. Interceptions by CB Reuben Henderson and SS Gary Fencik ended San Diego's two OT possessions. WR Brian Baschnagel (5 for 80) played the game with a broken arm.

Chicago	7	3	0	3	3 —16
Kansas City	3	3	0	7	0 —13

John Roveto's 22-yard FG 13:07 into sudden death overtime gave Chicago a 16-13 victory in the wind and rain at Kansas City. The winners ground out 201 rushing yards against the number one rushing defense in the AFC. Walter Payton (70), Willie McClendon (63), and Matt Suhey (58) combined for 191 of the yards. But the day belonged to the Bear defense limiting the Chiefs to 249 yards, and recovering five KC fumbles to go with Terry Schmidt's interception. DE Al Harris had 11 tackles, MLB Mike Singletary had 10, and LB Brian Cabral made 9 solos in his first start.

CHICAGO	3	3	10	7	—23
GIANTS	0	7	7	7	—21

BEARS — Jack Manders, 16 FG. BEARS — Manders, 40 FG. GIANTS — Red Badgro, 29 pass from Harry Newman (Ken Strong kick). BEARS — Manders 28 FG. GIANTS — Max Krause, 1 run (Strong). The Bears winning drive started with 3 minutes left after an 8-yard (Giants') Ken Strong punt. Chicago took over on New York's 46-yard line. Keith Molesworth passed 9 yards to Carl Brumbaugh. Bronko Nagurski, the Bears' leading rusher with 65 yards in 14 carries, gained 4 to the 33. On the next play, Nagurski threw a jump pass to Bill Hewitt. Hewitt gained 14 yards and lateraled to Bill Karr who covered the remaining 19.

1932 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP

BEARS 9 SPARTANS 0

At Chicago Stadium, 12/18/32; Att. 11,198

CHICAGO	0	0	0	9	—9
SPARTANS	0	0	0	0	—0

BEARS — Red Grange 2 pass from Bronko Nagurski (Tiny Engebretsen kick). BEARS — Portsmouth fumble rolled out of the endzone for an automatic safety.

Super Bowls played indoors are common now. But when the Bears met the Portsmouth Spartans (now Detroit Lions) indoors to settle the 1932 NFL championship . . . man bites dog.

Snow and minus 30 temperatures forced the game from Wrigley Field to Chicago Stadium—now home to the Chicago Bulls and Blackhawks—where dirt was hauled in to make an 80-yard field.

That field and its proximity to the concrete stands brought about the use of hashmarks for starting scrimmage rather than from where the ball was downed.

The game's lone TD also caused a rule change. The Spartans protested Bronko Nagurski was less than the prescribed 5 yards from the line of scrimmage when he threw the winning TD pass. The following year, a pass thrown anywhere behind the line was legal.
