1998 Hall of Fame Inductee

MIKE SINGLETARY

The Chicago Bears boast the NFL's greatest linebacking tradition, and Mike Singletary is the latest in this long line to be considered among the league's all-time best players. "Samurai" Mike's induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2, 1998, culminates a championship career that included selection to ten straight Pro Bowls (1983-92) and the most starts by a defensive player in team history (172; second to Walter Payton's 184 for most by any player). Singletary was a leader on and off the football field and was known for ferocious hits and heady play—not to mention the familiar intensity of his eyes—for which he was named to the NFL Team of the 80's by the Pro Football Hall of Fame Board of Selectors. Singletary was voted AP Defensive Player of the Year in 1985 and 1988, and was the 1990 NFL Man of the Year for playing excellence and off-the-field contributions to the community. The Bears' defensive captain from '83-'92 finished as the team's first or second leading tackler in his final 11 seasons, and missed just two games in his 12-year career (both in 1986). He finished with 1,488 tackles, 19 sacks, and seven interceptions, and his ten Pro Bowls are the most ever by a Chicago Bear. In 1992, Singletary's final season, he led the team with 135 tackles, finished with double-digit stops in seven of 16 games, and was selected to his tenth straight Pro Bowl.

Singletary was drafted in the second round (38th overall) by the Bears in 1981; Chicago swapped second-round picks with San Francisco—moving past rival Minnesota—in exchange for a fifth-rounder, to select the two-time consensus all-American from Baylor. A two-year team captain, Singletary was the Southwest Conference Player of the Year in 1979 and 1980, and was the only junior selected to the SWC Team of the '70's. He averaged 15 tackles per game over his career, set the school record with 232 tackles in 1978, and never had fewer then ten tackles in a single game. Singletary moved swiftly into the flow of the pro game, breaking into the starting lineup for the final nine games of his rookie year. He earned all-rookie honors from the Pro Football Writers Association, UPI, Pro Football Weekly, and Football Digest—and his Hall of Fame Bears career was underway.

Singletary's community service continued after he left the playing field, and includes speaking to various youth groups in Chicago and Houston: FCA, Hemophilia Foundation of Illinois, and Drug and Substance Abuse. He resides in Barrington, Illinois with his wife Kim and seven children. Kim was the presenter at Mike's Hall of Fame induction.

The Bears

One of the world's most storied professional sports franchises, the Chicago Bears were established in 1920 as George Halas founded professional football with representatives from 12 other clubs in Canton, Ohio. Halas was not only the team's founder but served as head coach for 40 years, and was active with the Bears until his death in 1983. The franchise has won nine world championships, (six of those coming between 1932-46), and in 1997 became the first club in NFL annals to notch its 600th victory. The team has participated in the playoffs 22 times, and sent 24 players (including 1998 inductee Mike Singletary), one coach, and one general manager to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the most of any team.

A native Chicagoan, Halas was a three sport letterman at the University of Illinois. He joined the Navy after graduation before playing right field for the New York Yankees. A hip injury ended his baseball career and Halas moved to Decatur to work for a corn products firm owned by A.E. Staley, who sponsored a semi-pro baseball team and later commissioned Halas to organize an independent football team. One year later, Staley gave Halas the club and Halas made Dutch Sternaman his partner. Halas was a player-coach from 1920-29 and was named to the NFL all-pro squad of the 1920s. He holds three NFL coaching records and four Bears coaching records. Halas' 324 coaching victories was broken in 1994 by Don Shula of the Miami Dolphins. Halas led the Bears to six world championships — his first and last separated by 42 years (1921 and 1963). (See the index for more on George Halas.)

1920s: George Halas founded pro football and the Decatur Staley's in 1920 and set membership at $100 per club. The Staley's posted a 10-1-2 record in that inaugural season as each player earned $1,900 for the season. The Bears won their first title the next season (1921) with a 9-1-1 mark and went on to post winning records in all but one season in the entire decade (1929: 4-9-2). The first major signing took place in 1925 when the Bears signed Red Grange to a contract. Halas then took Grange and the Bears on a coast-to-coast barnstorming tour in which the club played 16 games in nine weeks. The first game of that stretch was played before 36,000 at the team's home site, Wrigley Field.

1930s: Halas left the coaching ranks in 1930 and Ralph Jones led the club to a 24-10-7 record from 1930-32. The Bears won the 1932 championship before 11,198 fans at Chicago Stadium. The franchise lost $18,000 that season and Sternaman sold his half of the club to Halas. The 1933 season marked Halas' return to coaching and the beginning of the National Football League. The Bears beat the Giants 23-21 in the NFL's first championship game that year. The Bears advanced to the NFL title game twice more in the decade, but fell to the Giants in 1934 and the Redskins in 1937.

NAMING THE BEARS

George Halas originally named the team the Decatur Staleys after A.E. Staley, a starch manufacturer and enthusiastic sports fan who sponsored a semi-pro team and commissioned Halas to organize the new squad.

One year later, trying to match the profitability of Chicago's baseball games, Staley asked Halas if he would take the team off Staley's hands and move it to Chicago for $5,000, while keeping the name Staleys for another year. With the help of legendary baseball pioneer Bill Veeck and William Wrigley, Halas soon acquired a lease to play at Wrigley Field.

When Halas's obligation to Staley terminated in 1922, he considered re-naming the team the Chicago Cubs out of respect for Veeck and Wrigley who, according to Halas in his biography, "had been such a great help."

But, as Halas continued, "I noted football players are much bigger players than baseball players, so if baseball players are cubs, then football players must be bears!"

On January 28, 1922, the franchise was re-named the Chicago Bears.

The team colors have always been blue and orange after those of Halas' alma mater, the University of Illinois. Halas lettered in football, basketball, and baseball for the Fightin' Illini, and is honored as one of U of I's most distinguished alumni in the Illini Union in Champaign-Urbana.

The Bears

1950s: The Bears began the decade with a title run, but lost to the Rams in the 1950 Western Division title game, 24-14. Paddy Driscoll replaced Halas as coach in 1956 and the Bears lost to the Giants in the NFL Championship game at Yankee Stadium. Halas returned for his final stint as head coach in 1958.

1960s: The Bears won their final title under Halas in 1963, beating the NY Giants, 14-10, at Wrigley Field. A new era was signaled in 1965 when the club drafted Dick Butkus and Gale Sayers in the first round of the college draft. Sayers set a NFL record with 22 TDs as a rookie, including six in a single game against the 49ers. Prior to the 1968 season, Halas retired from coaching after 40 seasons and a 324-151-31 record.

Ed McCaskey was named team's vice-president and treasurer in 1967, a position he held for 17 years before being named to his current position of Chairman of the Board in 1983. Ed spearheaded the club's civic activities for many years and attends NFL meetings. Among his many civic contributions on behalf of the Bears was guiding the Brian Piccolo Fund from its inception in 1970 to 1987, raising millions of dollars for cancer research.

1970s: The Bears played their final season in Wrigley Field in 1970 before moving to Soldier Field. In the same year, Halas was elected president of the NFC as the NFL and AFL merged. In 1974, Jim Finks joined the Bears as General Manager. Finks named Jack Pardee, the first non-Bear in such a position, as head coach replacing Abe Gibron. In 1975, the Bears moved their training camp to Lake Forest after spending 31 years in Rensselaer, Indiana; and Walter Payton was the club's first-round draft choice. After a 14-year hiatus the Bears returned to the playoffs in 1977, winning their final six games to finish 9-5. The Bears again made the playoffs in 1979 under head coach Neill Armstrong. Chicago lost in the opening round in both 1977 and 1979. The organization suffered a major loss at end of the decade when team president George "Mugs" Halas, Jr. died at 54. Mugs joined the Bears front office in 1950, was named treasurer in 1953, and became president of the club in 1963. (See the Index to find more on "Mugs" Halas.)

1980s: Armstrong's tenure ended in 1982 and he was replaced by Dallas Cowboys' assistant Mike Ditka, a Bears tight end from 1961-66. In 1983, Jim Finks resigned and George Halas died at age 88. Michael McCaskey, the oldest son of Ed and Virginia McCaskey, and the grandson of George Halas, became the third president in club history.

McCaskey was a business school professor and operated a consulting company in Boston before joining the Bears. In his 14 full seasons with the club the Bears have posted nine winning seasons, made three trips to the NFC title game and won Super Bowl XX. McCaskey has served stints on the Finance, Long Range Planning, Stadium, and NFL Properties Executive committees during his tenure.

The Bears returned to the NFL elite in 1984. They advanced to the NFC Championship game (losing to San Francisco) and Walter Payton broke Jim Brown's all-time NFL rushing record. The loss in the '84 title game set the stage for the 1985 season in which the Bears posted shutouts in the both playoff games before ripping the Patriots, 46-10, in Super Bowl XX. The Bears won the NFC Central division each of the next three seasons, but could never get past the NFC title game. Payton's jersey was retired following the '87 season.

1990s: The Bears made playoff appearances in 1990 and 1991. The 1992 season was marked by the retirement of Mike Singletary, the end of the Mike Ditka era and Kevin Butler becoming the club's all-time scoring leader. Dave Wannstedt was named the 11th coach in team history in 1993 and led the Bears to back-to-back winning seasons in 1994 and 1995. The uniform numbers of Dick Butkus (51) and Gale Sayers (40) were retired in 1994. The team moved into its new headquarters, Halas Hall at Conway Park, on March 3, 1997. The Bears became the first franchise in NFL history to win 600 games; number 600 was a 13-7 win over Tampa Bay at Soldier Field (11-23-97). On August 1, 1998, Mike Singletary became the 24th Bear inducted into the NFL Hall-of-Fame, the most of any franchise.

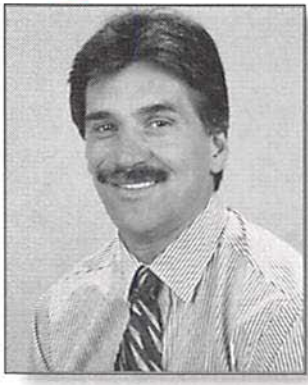

CHICAGO BEARS FIGHT SONG

The Chicago Bears fight song, Bear Down, Chicago Bears, was introduced in 1941. Though Jerry Downs is listed as the composer, it actually is a pseudonym for Al Hoffman (who also wrote the words and music for the song If I Knew You Were Coming, I'd Have Baked a Cake).

Hoffman's words for the Bears' fight song:

Bear down, Chicago Bears, make every play clear the way to victory;
Bear down, Chicago Bears, put up a fight with a might so fearlessly.
We'll never forget the way you thrilled the nation with your T-formation.
You're the pride and joy of Illinois, Chicago Bears, bear down.

Head Coach

DAVE WANNSTEDT
SIXTH SEASON

Dave Wannstedt enters his sixth season in Chicago with 36 wins – the third most victories by a coach in the team's storied 77-year history. Wannstedt was named the 11th head coach in team annals on January 19, 1993. Club President Michael McCaskey chose Wannstedt after his four-year tenure as defensive coordinator of the Dallas Cowboys was culminated with a Super Bowl victory following the 1992 season. In 23 seasons of coaching at major colleges and in the NFL, Wannstedt has been on 15 winning teams, 10 Bowl teams, three NFL playoff teams and one Super Bowl champion.

The Bears posted back-to-back winning seasons in 1994 and 1995, but managed just 11 wins in the last two seasons as Chicago fell out of the post-season picture. In 1996, the Bears won five of nine games after the bye week and posted a 6-2 record at Soldier Field enroute to a 7-9 mark. Last season, the team couldn't overcome a disastrous start while posting a 4-12 record. Working with his third personnel director in five years (Bill Tobin, Rod Graves, Mark Hatley), Wannstedt has seen a major overhaul to his roster. Since Vice President of Player Personnel Mark Hatley joined the Bears in 1997 (May 8), only 24 players from the 1996 roster remain in 1998. The Bears have 47 new faces heading to Platteville, WI for training camp in '98. John Mangum and James Williams are the only players left from the pre-Wannstedt era.

In 1995, the Bears finished a 9-7 season strong, winning their final two games for the first time since 1986. Chicago's 4-4 mark in the NFC Central was their best since 1991. The Bears also led the league in fewest penalties in the NFL for the second straight season. Just minutes after the club finished the season with a 20-14 win over Philadelphia, the Atlanta Falcons upset the 49ers to claim the final wild card spot as playoff tiebreakers separated teams that finished 9-7.

In 1994, Wannstedt led the Bears back to the playoffs after a three-year hiatus. The team's 9-7 regular season mark earned a wild card berth which led to a first round upset of NFC Central champion Minnesota. Wannstedt was named NFC Coach of the Year by Football News, UPI and Kansas City's 101 Club and was among the top three finishers for the NFL Coach of Year by AP, Pro Football Writers, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest.

The Bears were one of four NFC Central teams in the playoffs, a berth earned after a four-game winning streak at midseason moved the team from 4-4 to 8-4. The Bears posted a season-high 35 points in beating the Vikings in the playoffs, only to lose to eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco the next week. Six of Chicago's seven losses in 1994 were against playoff teams, and among the Bears wins were triumphs over four-time defending AFC Champion Buffalo and at Miami.

In 1993, Wannstedt's first season, the Bears finished with a 7-9 record highlighted by two impressive winning streaks. After an 0-2 start, the Bears won three straight games including a 17-6 win against the then undefeated Philadelphia Eagles (4-0) at Veterans Stadium. A four-game winning streak, which included a NFL-first three road wins in 12 days, had Chicago in a first-place tie in the NFC Central with four games remaining. The Bears were in the midst of the playoff chase until the 17th week of the season as the team improved two games from their 5-11 record in 1992. In just his first season as a head coach, Wannstedt was among the top vote getters in the NFL Coach of the Year award.

The exclamation point to Wannstedt's tenure in Dallas came in Super Bowl XXVII when his defense forced nine turnovers as the Cowboys routed the Buffalo Bills, 52-17. Wannstedt's '92 defense was the youngest in the NFL yet ranked first in the league, allowing an average of just 245.8

yards per game. Amazingly, the Cowboys did not have a defensive player named to the Pro Bowl. The Cowboys improved from a 1-15 team when Wannstedt became defensive coordinator in 1989, to a 16-3 club in his final season.

Wannstedt was named The National's NFL Assistant of the Year in 1990 as his club led the league against the pass and was 18th against the run. In 1991, the Cowboys improved to ninth against the run and in 1992 they were tops in the NFL allowing just 77.8 yards rushing per game. Wannstedt's success made him a finalist for the Pittsburgh Steelers head job following the 1991 season, prompting Jimmy Johnson to give Wannstedt the additional position of Assistant Head Coach in January, 1992.

Wannstedt began his coaching career in 1975 as defensive line coach at the University of Pittsburgh under his college coach, Johnny Majors. After four years at Pitt he followed fellow Panther assistant Johnson to Oklahoma State where he served two years as defensive line coach and two years as defensive coordinator. He joined Ted Tollner's staff at USC (1983-85) before becoming defensive coordinator at the University of Miami (1986-88). At Miami, his defense held opponents to 2.2 yards-per-carry and 10.9 points-per-game while averaging 48 sacks a season. Wannstedt's defenses produced 11 players who were drafted by the NFL, five in the first two rounds. As a collegiate assistant, Wannstedt's teams had a 106-45-4 record, including a 6-4 mark in Bowl games. Combined with a 5-2 mark in NFL playoff games, his overall post-season record is 11-6.

A Pittsburgh native, David Raymond Wannstedt was born on May 21,1952, and graduated from Baldwin High. He attended the University of Pittsburgh where he earned a bachelors degree in physical education and a masters in curricular supervision. Wannstedt played offensive tackle (1970-73) and captained the team his senior year which featured freshmen Tony Dorsett and Matt Cavanaugh. Wannstedt was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 15th round of the 1974 draft but spent the season on Injured Reserve with a neck injury. He subsequently joined Majors' staff at Pittsburgh.

Wannstedt is active in several charitable endeavors and serves on the board of directors of Children's Memorial Hospital. He and his wife, Jan, have two daughters — Keri (21), and Jami (17), both students at Indiana University.

Assistant Coaches

MATT CAVANAUGH
Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks

Matt Cavanaugh enters his second season on the Bears staff after being named offensive coordinator on January 21, 1997. Cavanaugh also coaches quarterbacks and calls plays from the press box. Prior to joining the Bears, Cavanaugh spent 14 years as a NFL quarterback and four years coaching at both the collegiate and professional level.

Last year, the Bears' offense posted the second most passing yards (3,253) and first downs (166) in franchise history while establishing club marks for pass attempts (595) and completions (336).

Before joining the Bears, Cavanaugh spent the 1996 season as quarterbacks coach of the San Francisco 49ers following two seasons in a similar role for the Arizona Cardinals. He began his coaching career in 1993 as tight ends coach at the University of Pittsburgh.

In 1996, the 49ers passing attack ranked eighth in the NFL despite losing two-time NFL MVP Steve Young for five games due to injury. Under Cavanaugh's guidance, Young finished that season as the NFL's highest rated quarterback. Cavanaugh was also instrumental in developing Young's backup, Elvis Grbac, into a productive starter. The 49ers were eliminated in the second round of the playoffs in 1996 by Green Bay — a game in which Young played just two series because of a rib injury.

Cavanaugh was the New England Patriots' second-round selection in 1978 after graduating from Pitt, where he was a three-year starter. He spent five seasons with the Patriots before being traded to San Francisco in 1983. He was a member of the 49ers Super Bowl XIX team as a back-up to Joe Montana. In 1986, Cavanaugh was traded to Philadelphia where he played four seasons. Cavanaugh earned a second Super Bowl ring when he concluded his career with the New York Giants (1990-91). In 112 career contests, Cavanaugh started 19 games completing 305 of 579 passes (52.7%) for 4,332 yards, 28 TD's and 30 interceptions. He also rushed 60 times for 213 yards and three scores.

Born in Youngstown, Ohio on October 27, 1956, Cavanaugh attended the University of Pittsburgh. He was MVP in the Sugar Bowl victory which clinched the Panthers' 1976 national championship. Cavanaugh's career at Pitt coincided with Dave Wannstedt's stint as a player and assistant coach with the Panthers.

BEARS CARE
...and its Million Dollar Gala

In 1995, Bears President Michael McCaskey established "Bears Care", the charitable arm of the Chicago Bears and a fund of the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation. Bears Care supports programs designed to positively impact people in the areas of education, youth and families, athletics, and health. It also supports cancer research at Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center and Northwestern Memorial Hospital's program for the early detection and treatment of colon and prostate cancer.

The third annual Bears Care Gala was held on May 15, 1998, and was as successful as the first two galas. The three events have raised a total in excess of $1 million. This year's black-tie event was entitled "Brian's Song — So That Others May Live to Sing", in memory of former Bear Brian Piccolo, who died of cancer. A sell-out crowd of 550 people included several current and former Bears players. The auction featured cash prizes, shopping sprees, and vacations, as well as trips to a Bears road game on the team charter and the 1999 Super Bowl in Miami.

Assistant Coaches

BOB SLOWIK
Defensive Coordinator

Bob Slowik begins his sixth season as defensive coordinator and first in charge of the nickel package. Slowik coached the linebackers the past two seasons and the defensive backs from 1993-95 in addition to his coordinator duties. Slowik came to the Bears from the Dallas Cowboys, where he was a defensive assistant in 1992 on a team that finished 16-3 and won Super Bowl XXVII.

For the second straight year the Bears defense finished 12th in yards allowed last season, yielding 305 yards per game - the fewest yards/game allowed since 1993. The unit improved during the season and allowed just one of its last six opponents more than 275 yards. The Bears have finished in the top five in rush defense in three of Slowik's five seasons and in the top half in total defense in four of his five seasons.

At Dallas, Slowik's primary responsibility was the nickel defense which proved to be the league's best in 1992 — allowing teams an NFL-low 27.2% on third down attempts. The Cowboys defense led the league in fewest yards allowed (249.5/game), rushing yards allowed (77.8/game), first downs (241), rushing first downs (68), third down conversions (50), and third down defense (27.2%), and was second in the league in average gain per play.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Slowik coached outside linebackers at East Carolina from 1990-92, helping the Pirates to their highest national ranking (ninth) and best record (11-1) in school history in his final year. Following a Peach Bowl victory over NC State on Jan. 1, 1992, Slowik was named defensive coordinator; soon thereafter he joined the Cowboys.

Slowik was a two-year starting cornerback at the University of Delaware where he helped the Fightin' Blue Hens to a 16-6 record his final two seasons. Delaware reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division 1-AA playoffs his senior season. Slowik received both his undergraduate and master's degree in physical education from Delaware.

His coaching career started as a grad assistant for Delaware (1977). He then became a part-time defensive assistant at Florida (1979-82) where wife Carol was the Head Women's Track Coach. Slowik became the secondary coach at Drake in 1983 before joining the Rutgers staff in 1984 in the same capacity.

Slowik was born in Pittsburgh on May 16, 1954. He and his wife, Carol, have four children: Ryan, Andrea, Bobby, and Steven.

TONY WISE
Assistant Head Coach / Offensive Line

Tony Wise joined the Bears on February 4, 1993 as offensive line coach and was promoted to Assistant Head Coach following the 1994 season. Prior to coming to Chicago, Wise served four seasons (1989-92) as offensive line coach of the Dallas Cowboys.

Chicago's starting offensive line was intact for just nine games last year when it surrendered an uncharacteristically high 43 sacks. In 1996, the Bears were second in sacks per pass attempt (23 sacks in 551 attempts). It allowed a league-low 15 sacks in 1995 and committed just two holding penalties which was part of a 16-game stretch (1994-95) without a hold.

In his final season in Dallas, Wise's unit produced two Pro Bowl players in guard Nate Newton and center Mark Stepnoski. None of the Cowboys' starters on the 1992 offensive line was higher than a third-round pick. The Cowboys led the NFL in rushing in 1992, and were second in fewest sacks allowed. Wise joined the Cowboys in 1989 where he immediately endured a 1-15 season. There was a bright side as his line allowed just 30 sacks, tying the Cowboys record for fewest sacks allowed, set in the 14-game season of 1974.

Wise coached with Jimmy Johnson for four seasons at the University of Miami, where the Hurricanes had their two best offensive seasons ever in 1985 (461.5 yards per game) and 1988 (452.5). In the 1988 Orange Bowl, the Hurricanes started three linemen at new positions but still beat Oklahoma, 20-14.

Wise began his career at Albany State in 1973 coaching the outside linebackers. He served one-year stints at Bridgeport, Central Connecticut State, and Washington State before joining the Pittsburgh staff in 1977, where he first coached with Dave Wannstedt. Two seasons later he moved to Oklahoma State for a five-year stint, where his line blocked for national rushing leader Ernest Anderson in 1981. He spent the 1984 season at Syracuse before joining Miami in 1985.

Anthony Charles Wise was born in Albany, NY on December 28, 1951, and graduated from Shaker High in Latham, NY. He lettered in football, lacrosse, and hockey at Ithaca College.

IVAN FEARS
Wide Receivers

Ivan Fears begins his sixth season as Chicago's receivers coach after spending the previous two years in the same capacity with the New England Patriots. Fears also begins his third season signaling offensive plays from the sideline to the Bears quarterback.

Fears receiving corps had the injury bug in '97 as Curtis Conway missed nine games while Bobby Engram sat out five contests. Four different WR's caught 30+ passes last season, even though none of the four started more than 10 games. Even Fears fell victim to injury - a lower back problem forced him to miss the last four games.

In 1996, Conway became the first Bear receiver to record back-to-back 1,000 yards seasons. The previous year, Conway and Jeff Graham became the Bears first-ever receiving tandem with 1,000 yards each. The Bears last 1,000-yard receiver prior to that was Dick Gordon in 1970. Graham broke Johnny Morris' club record of 1,200 yards (1964) while Conway's 12 TDs were just one shy of the club record. Conway caught a TD in seven straight games which tied a 48-year mark.

Before joining the pro ranks, Fears spent the previous 11 seasons as receivers coach at Syracuse (1980-1990) under ex-Patriots coach Dick McPherson. Two of Fears' coaching mates at Syracuse were current Bears' assistants Tony Wise and Clarence Brooks.

A three-year letterman at William and Mary (1973-75), Fears career as a running back was cut short by three knee operations. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for his alma mater in 1976, coached the wide receivers in 1977, and handled the quarterbacks for two years (1978-79) before joining the Orangemen.

Fears is a native of Suffolk, Virginia. He starred at John Yates High and was twice named the school's Outstanding Player of the Year. He also earned all-state honors as a senior.

Born November 15, 1954 in Portsmouth, VA, Ivan and his wife Beverly have two sons (Joshua and Aaron) and one daughter (Kimberly).

JOE BRODSKY
Running Backs

A Dallas Cowboys assistant the past nine seasons, Joe Brodsky begins his first year as the Bears running backs coach. Brodsky was named to his current post on February 2, 1998, reuniting with former Cowboys aides Dave Wannstedt, Tony Wise and Bob Slowik. Brodksy will welcome newcomers Ty Hallock and Edgar Bennett via free agency, and first-round draft choice Curtis Enis.

Brodsky was instrumental in drafting and developing Dallas all-pro running backs Emmitt Smith and Daryl Johnston during his Dallas tenure. Smith was named rookie of the year in 1990, has three rushing titles and was the NFL's MVP in 1993. Johnston has made two Pro Bowl appearances while gaining a reputation as a tenacious blocker from his fullback position. When injuries sidelined Smith, reserves such as Derrick Lassic, Lincoln Coleman and Sherman Williams filled in admirably under Brodsky's guidance.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Brodsky spent 11 seasons as running backs coach at the University of Miami. There, he groomed 10 NFL draft picks, including three - Ottis Anderson, Alonzo Highsmith and Cleveland Gary - chosen in the first round. Before entering the college ranks, Brodsky was one of south Florida's most successful high school coaches. He posted a 104-32 record and won five Greater Miami Athletic Conference titles and one state title while serving at Miami Jackson (1965-70) and Hialeah-Miami Lakes High (1971-77).

Brodsky has won a state title as a high school head coach, two national titles as a collegiate assistant and three Super Bowl titles as a Cowboys assistant.

A native of Miami, Brodsky was a four-year letterman in football and track at the University of Florida, where he started at fullback and linebacker for the Gators.

Born June 9, 1934, Brodsky and his wife Joyce have three grown sons - Joe Jr., Larry and Jeffrey.

Assistant Coaches

TOM ROSSLEY
Tight Ends

Tom Rossley is the most recent addition to Dave Wannstedt's staff, named as tight ends coach on June 2, 1998. A veteran pro football assistant and former head coach at the major college level, Rossley brings a wealth of experience to the offensive staff.

Rossley spent the 1997 season as a volunteer coach/player personnel assistant on the Bears staff. He replaced Ivan Fears (back injury) as receivers coach the final four weeks of the season. Prior to joining the Bears, Rossley spent six years as head coach at SMU. He served as quarterbacks coach for the Atlanta Falcons for one season (1990) prior to joining the Mustangs.

At SMU, Rossley posted a 1-10 record in his first season before following it with a 5-6 record in 1992 earning him Southwest Conference Coach of Year honors. The four-game improvement was the best for SMU since 1968.

Rossley had been SMU's offensive coordinator (1988-89), finishing 9th in the country in passing in 1989. He also had been offensive coordinator at Holy Cross in 1986 (10-1) and 1987 when the undefeated Crusaders (11-0) won the NCAA IAA championship and led all NCAA schools in total yards (552) and points (46) per game.

Rossley's other pro experience included stops in the CFL (Montreal Concorde) in 1982-84, the USFL (San Antonio) in 1985 and the Arena League (Denver Dynamite) in 1987. He also coached at his alma mater, Cincinnati, in 1977 and at Rice in 1978-80.

A standout wide receiver at Cincinnati from 1966-68, Rossley set school game records for receptions (13) and receiving yards (254) as well as a season record for catches (80) in 1968 when he was second in the nation in receptions.

Born August 9, 1946 in Painesville, Ohio, Rossley and his wife, Kristine, have three children: Max, Mick and Kristi.

CLARENCE BROOKS
Defensive Line

Clarence Brooks enters his sixth season as the Bears defensive line coach after spending the previous 16 years as an assistant at the collegiate level.

The Bears defensive line consists of recent draft choices such as Carl Simpson ('93), John Thierry ('94), Jim Flanigan ('94), and Paul Grasmanis ('96) who have all developed and continued to improve under Brooks' tutelage. The Bears added free agent tackle Mike Wells from Detroit and traded for veteran Shawn Lee (San Diego) during the off-season, which should bolster the defensive line.

Before joining the Bears, Brooks spent three seasons in the same capacity at the University of Arizona. In 1992 - Brooks' final season - the 'Cats allowed opponents just 1.9 yards per rush and recorded 40 sacks.

Prior to joining the Arizona staff, Brooks spent nine seasons at Syracuse (1981-89): the first six in charge of outside linebackers and the final three with the defensive line. He worked under Dave Wannstedt in 1989 when he was the Cowboys minority fellowship coach during training camp.

A native of New Bedford, Mass., Brooks earned several honors as an offensive guard at Massachusetts. He was the team captain in his senior season, leading the team to a victory in the Boardwalk Bowl. After graduating from Massachusetts in 1973 with a bachelor's degree in sociology, Brooks was a coach and teacher in the New Bedford school system. He got into coaching full time when Dick McPherson hired Brooks in 1976 as the defensive ends coach at Massachusetts.

Born in New York on May 20, 1951, Clarence L. Brooks and his wife, Justa Gomes, have one son (Jason) and one daughter (Adrienne).

GREG SCHIANO
Defensive Backs

Greg Schiano enters his third season on the Bears coaching staff after spending seven years as a major college assistant. Schiano was promoted to defensive backfield coach during the off-season after serving as a defensive assistant the previous two seasons. Prior to joining the Bears on February 26, 1996, Schiano spent six years as defensive backfield coach at Penn State. As a Nittany Lions aide, he recruited Curtis Enis to Penn State.

Schiano's primary responsibility with the Bears the last two seasons was coordinating the nickel package. The Bears 3rd down defense was highly successful last season, finishing first in the NFC and fourth in the NFL, as opponents converted just 31.7% on 3rd down (60 of 189). In 1996, the Bears pass defense made a significant improvement, climbing from 27th to 11th in fewest yards allowed.

At Penn State, the Nittany Lions had 58 wins in Schiano's six years and made a bowl appearance each season. The 1994 squad went 12-0 in just its second season in the Big Ten, and went on to beat Oregon in the Rose Bowl. Prior to joining the Nittany Lions staff, Schiano served as a graduate assistant for one year at Rutgers after beginning his coaching career at New Jersey's Ramapo High School, his alma mater. At Rutgers, Schiano worked with Bears' defensive coordinator Bob Slowik.

Schiano was a three-year letterman at linebacker for Bucknell and was named to The Sporting News 1987 all-America pre-season team as a senior. He was also team captain in his final season and earned an award for "best exemplifying the winning spirit of the University's athletic program". CARLOS MAINORD
Linebackers

A 32-year veteran of the coaching ranks, Carlos Mainord begins his sixth season on the Bears staff and his first as linebackers coach. Mainord's first three seasons were spent as a defensive assistant coordinating the nickel package and the last two years coaching the defensive backs.

The Bears' pass defense has improved each of the last three seasons, finishing 11th in the NFL last year. The Bears total defense and pass defense have finished in the top half in four of the five years Mainord has been in Chicago.

The Bears finished among the league's best pass defenses in Mainord's first two seasons, ranking fifth against the pass in 1994 after finishing third in 1993. On third downs, opponents converted 37.2% in 1994 and 37.4% in 1993 — both in the NFL's top 10.

Mainord spent six years as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Texas Tech before joining the Bears staff. He had three different stints with the Red Raiders, totaling 10 years at the school. In 1986, Mainord worked as the secondary coach for the national champion Miami Hurricanes with Dave Wannstedt after spending the three previous seasons in the same capacity at Texas Tech.

An all-district linebacker at Greenville (TX) High School, Mainord starred at Navarro Junior College before garnering all-America honors at McMurry College in 1965. Upon graduation he coached the linebackers at McMurry for two years before making his first appearance at Texas Tech as linebackers coach (1968). The following season he took the defensive coordinator position at Ranger Junior College, rising to the head job in 1972. He capped his six seasons with 7-2-1 and 9-1 marks, including a Top 10 ranking, before taking a position as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator with Rice in 1978. He returned to Texas Tech in 1983 as the Red Raiders led the NCAA in pass defense and finished second in 1984.

Born in Greenville, TX on August 26, 1944, Mainord is married (Judy) and has four sons: (Matt, Mark, Tommy, and Cody) and one daughter (Cari).

KEITH ARMSTRONG
Special Teams

Keith Armstrong joined the Bears staff on January 23, 1997 as special teams coach after spending the previous three seasons with the Atlanta Falcons. The strength of Armstrong's units last year was the performance of kicker Jeff Jaeger, who connected on 21 of 27 field goals and became the first kicker in club history to have back-to-back seasons of making better than 80% of his attempts.

Armstrong spent his first season (1994) in Atlanta as a defensive assistant and helped Frank Gansz coach special teams. In 1995 he coached the safeties, and in 1996 he was responsible for the defensive secondary.

He first met and coached with Wannstedt the following season on Jimmy Johnson's staff at the University of Miami, where he worked with the defensive backs and assisted with special teams. In 1989, Armstrong joined the Akron staff as the wide receivers coach before taking a position at Oklahoma State where he served three seasons coaching the defensive backs.

He moved to Notre Dame in 1993 where he coached linebackers and special teams. That summer, Armstrong spent six weeks on the Bears' staff as part of the NFL's minority internship program working with linebackers and special teams.

Armstrong was a four-year letterman at Temple and was voted captain during his senior season. He started at running back as a freshman before switching to defensive back for his final three seasons.

MARK HATLEY
Vice President of Player Personnel

After helping build the Kansas City Chiefs into a perennial playoff team, Mark Hatley was named the Bears Vice-President of Player Personnel on May 8, 1997. In his current role, Hatley oversees the Bears scouting efforts at both the collegiate and pro level.

Hatley spent 10 years (1987-97) in Kansas City: five as Director of Pro Personnel, four as a scout, and one as linebackers coach.

In addition to his pro personnel duties, Hatley also directed the Chiefs' college draft in 1992, and assisted in 1991 when Whitey Dovell temporarily relinquished his post due to illness. In his final two years in Kansas City, Hatley also graded the top players at the position of the Chiefs' primary needs (defensive backs in 1996; tight ends in 1997).

Hatley's primary focus for the Chiefs in his role as pro personnel director was scouting players with pro experience, including both NFL free agents and players from other pro leagues. The Chiefs made the playoffs in six of Hatley's final seven seasons in Kansas City. Among the players Hatley helped bring to Kansas City during his tenure are NFL free agents Marcus Allen, Derrick Walker, James Hasty, Dan Saleaumua, Elvis Grbac, Pete Stoyanovich, Anthony Davis, Kimble Anders and Mark Collins, the team's MVP in 1996. He also brought in Tamarick Vanover , Vaughan Booker (CFL), and Tracy Simien (WLAF) from other pro leagues.

The 49-year old Hatley played linebacker at Oklahoma State and coached for the Cowboys for three years (1973-75). He subsequently coached collegiately at Tulsa (1976), Texas Christian (1977-82) and Baylor (1983), before joining the NFL in 1984 as a scout and defensive quality control assistant with the New Orleans Saints. He also assists in player contract negotiations.

Spielman joined the Bears after spending seven seasons in the player personnel department of the Detroit Lions, including his final two years as a pro scout and advance scout for the Lions' next opponent.

• Miami has hosted the Super Bowl seven times and is currently tied with New Orleans for the most ever: Super Bowls II, III, V, X, and XIII were played at the Orange Bowl, and Super Bowls XXIII and XXIX kicked off at Joe Robbie Stadium, now called Pro Player Stadium.

• Super Bowl XXVIII was played at Atlanta's Georgia Dome on January 30, 1994. Dallas beat Buffalo 30-13; it was the Cowboys' second consecutive title, and the Bills' fourth straight Super Bowl defeat.

• Tampa has twice hosted a Super Bowl: The Los Angeles Raiders beat Washington 38-9 in Super Bowl XVIII on January 22, 1984, (the AFC's last triumph before Denver's victory over Green Bay last season). On January 27, 1991, the New York Giants edged Buffalo in the Bills' first Super Bowl, 20-19. Both games were played at Tampa (now Houlihan's) Stadium.

• The San Francisco area has hosted one previous Super Bowl, on January 20, 1985. The San Francisco 49ers didn't have to travel very far to defeat the Miami Dolphins 38-16 in Super Bowl XIX, played at Stanford Stadium in Stanford, California.

CHICAGO BEARS FAN CONVENTION

The Chicago Bears Fan Club hosted the first ever Chicago Bears Fan Convention on March 14-16, 1998, at the Chicago Hilton & Towers on south Michigan Avenue in Chicago. The event was a tremendous success, and the date is already set for the Second Annual Fan Convention:

February 26-28, 1999 Chicago Hilton & Towers

Over 7,000 fans attended the first convention, including Bears backers from 40 states and three foreign countries. Fifty-four current and former Bears players—and four Hall-of-Famers—came out, along with 93 exhibitors, to mill about the seven autograph stages (running simultaneously), six interactive inflatable games and NFL Youth Football area, and various seminars, trivia contests, and Q & A sessions. The '99 version will boast an additional 40,000 feet of convention space—allowing for more of everything—and current players, Bears from championship teams of the 40's, as well as members of the '63 title team and the '85 Super Bowl champs, will all return. Special activities including "Opening Ceremonies" on Friday night with player intros by Bears broadcasting personalities, and an even bigger Saturday Night Bears Party, will again entertain. Bear rooters who stay at the Hilton & Towers will be invited to a private tour and reception at new Halas Hall on Thursday, February 25, 1999.

Fans can already make their plans for the 1999 Bears Fan Convention by reserving a room at the Hilton & Towers with the special Chicago Bears Convention rate, or contacting the Fan Club (847 / 615-9600) for passes to the event ($20 for Fan Club members; $30 for non-members; passes are $5 / $10 for guests of the Hilton & Towers).

GIVING UP SAFETIES

On November 20, 1988, Bears punter Bryan Wagner watched a snap sail over his head. He recovered the ball in the endzone for a safety, resulting in two points for Tampa Bay. Since that game, the Bears have not been tackled in the endzone – a span of 147 regular season games (they haven't been caught in the endzone in any of their seven playoff games either). It's the longest such current streak in the NFL. For perspective, note that prior to the 1996 season, Pittsburgh had not been caught in their endzone since December 2, 1990 (an impressive stretch, but still over two years shorter than the Bears'). Their streak ended abruptly, however, as the Steelers endured three safeties in 1996.

40 RUSHES vs. 40 PASSES

Over the past 15 seasons when the Bears have rushed 40 times, they have a 54-2 record. Chicago has won 38 straight 40-rush games dating back to 1984. Chicago pounded out 40 rushes twice last season—42 rushes for 169 yards in a 13-7 win vs. Tampa Bay (11-23-97); and 42 - 120 yards in a 20-3 victory vs. Buffalo (12-7-97). The Bears did not have 40 rushing attempts in any game in '96; their last 40 rush contest had been the 1995 season finale, when they carried 47 times in beating the playoff-bound Eagles.

During that same period, the Bears are 5-18 when throwing 40 passes in a game. Last season, the Bears were 1-4 when they attempted 40 passes: Erik Kramer had 41 attempts in the Opening Night loss at Green Bay 9-1; Kramer and Rick Mirer combined for 40 passes in the home loss to Detroit 9-14; Kramer threw 50 passes in the comeback OT win at Miami 10-27; Kramer and Steve Stenstrom combined for 42 attempts in a home defeat to Washington 11-2; and the same tandem tossed a team record 65 passes in a home loss to the Jets 11-16. The Bears had an 0-4 record in '96 when throwing 40 times.

JAEGER IS BEARS' FIRST 80/80 MAN

Bears' kicker Jeff Jaeger became the first kicker in franchise history to record back-to-back seasons booting better than 80% of his field goal attempts. Jaeger was 21 of 26 in '97, good for 80.8%, not quite matching his 82.6% in 1996 (19 of 23). His Bears career field goal percentage is 81.6%. Jaeger, who led the team in scoring last year with 83 points, was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after kicking four field goals at Miami (10-27-97), including the game winner in overtime. His first miss of the season was in Week 11 against the Jets (11-15-97), breaking a streak of 21 consecutive field goals made dating back to 11-3-96.

AIRING IT OUT

The Bears broke a long standing team mark on November 16, 1997 when they had 65 passing attempts in a single game (vs. NY Jets). Chicago broke the team mark of 59 (set 10-23-49 at NY Giants). Quarterback Erik Kramer threw 60 passes, which broke the individual record held by Bill Wade, (57 at Washington 10-25-64), while Steve Stenstrom tossed five.

The Bears' 33 completions on 11-16-97 were second all-time in one game; the team completed 34 in the 1949 Giants contest. Kramer's 32 completions were the second best ever by an individual (Wade, 33 in the Washington game in '64).

SHORT DRIVES & TURNOVERS

While the Chicago Bears gave up a franchise most 421 points last season, the Bears' defense often was not at fault for foes' points on the scoreboard. In fact, returns for TDs against the Bears, or drives of under 6-yards against the Chicago defense, accounted for 88 points. Foes scored another 12 points on field goal drives of 19, 16, 12, and 10 yards, making an even 100 points scored on returns or drives of under 20 yards.

A separate but similar note: When the Bears' offense turned the ball over inside Chicago's 30-yard line, the defense allowed 81 points. An additional 41 points were scored off of other turnovers—122 points off turnovers in all. The defense may also consider the 49 points scored on returns for TDs—plays on which the defense was not even on the field. (Five offensive turnovers were returned for scores, as were two punts).

MINT OF A DEAL

Bears linebacker Barry Minter is one of five players on the Bears' roster who was acquired via trade. Minter was originally a 7th-round draft choice (168th overall) by Dallas in 1993. The Cowboys sent Minter as well as LB Vinson Smith and a draft choice to the Bears for LB John Roper, TE Kelly Blackwell, and DB Marcus Paul in August, 1993.

Also acquired via trade by the Bears: DL Shawn Lee (from San Diego, for a 5th round draft pick in June 1998); WR Chris Penn (from Kansas City, for a 5th round draft pick last August); T Jimmy Herndon (from Jacksonville, for a 7th-round choice, also in 8-97); and QB Rick Mirer (from Seattle, with a 4th-round choice for a 1st-rounder in February 1997. RB Darnell Autry was drafted with the 4th-round pick from Seattle).

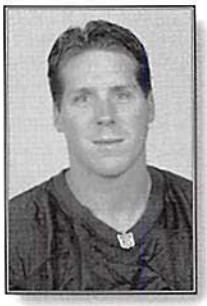

QB RATING

"Quarterback Rating" is the most complicated of the NFL's official statistics. The formula uses five factors: attempts, completions, gross yardage, touchdowns, and interceptions. It was designed so that a score of 100 would be great with 90 being very good, 80 being good — similar to an A-B-C grading scale. It is possible to score over 100, a feat that only 49ers' QB Steve Young accomplished in 1997 (104.7).

Here's the formula which works when entered into Microsoft Excel. Be careful, there are 196 characters which must be typed perfectly, without any spaces, in order for everything to calculate correctly:

(MIN(2.375,((D1*100)/A1)*(0.2)),0))+(MAX(MIN(2.375,(((E1*100)/A1)
-9.5)(-0.25)),0))+(MAX(MIN(2.375,((C1/A1)-3)(0.25)),0)))*100)/6),1))

CONWAY MOVIN' ON UP

Bears wideout Curtis Conway missed seven games with a broken collarbone in 1997, but still moved into the Top Ten in Bears history in receptions and receiving yards. Conway began the season 12th with 2,863 yards receiving, and his 476 yards last season give him 3,339—surpassing Wendell Davis, Jim Keane, Jim Dooley, and James Scott—good for eighth all-time. Should Conway gain 312 yards in 1998, he'll move into 5th on the all-time list. He needs 1,164 yards for fourth place.

Conway started '97 with 201 catches—11th all time—and surpassed Keane, Davis, Dooley, and Harlon Hill with his 30 grabs to move into 7th with 231. Conway can jump to 4th all-time with 72 catches in 1998. 29 grabs will move him into 5th; 86 would bump Conway to third, passing Mike Ditka.

The Bears were 3-0 in Conway's 100-yard receiving games in 1997 (at Miami, vs. Buffalo, and at St. Louis).

SCORING STREAK

The Chicago Bears have scored in every game this decade, last being shutout in the 1989 season finale in San Francisco, 26-0. The streak of 128 straight games (133 including playoffs) is third-best in the NFL, but more than 11 seasons behind the 49ers. San Francisco has scored in every game for nearly two decades. The Bears and Oilers began their streaks within a month of one another.

New Orleans had the second-longest streak heading into the '97 season, and Miami the third. However, the Saints suffered back-to-back shutouts in October, and Miami was shut out in Indianapolis in Week 15.

HALAS HALL at CONWAY PARK

The Chicago Bears moved into Halas Hall at Conway Park on March 3, 1997. The 38-acre complex is located in Lake Forest on Route 60 just east of the Tri-State Tollway, approximately four miles from the former Halas Hall. The building is dedicated to Bears founder, President and Coach George Halas. The original Halas Hall, on the Lake Forest College campus, was dedicated by Coach Halas in the name of his son, Mugs, in 1979.

The modern complex includes a 100,000 square foot office building, indoor practice facility, and 2 1/2 outdoor practice fields, surrounded by a jogging path. The remaining land will be unused, allowing the team flexibility for future expansion. One of the two 100-yard outdoor fields is equipped with 14 miles of underground heating tubes, enabling the grass to remain soft and growing into early winter, as well as five miles of drain tubing that can capture and disperse nine inches of rainfall per hour, and 2.5 miles of cooling pipes for the grass roots. The indoor facility is a rigid structure, as opposed to the inflated "bubble" the team used from 1990-96, and includes a full 100-yard field, an all-purpose floor for basketball, and a racquetball court. The structure is 85 feet high, 200 feet wide, and 400 feet long–20 feet higher and 140 feet longer than the Bubble. Remote controlled video cameras film the action below for coaches' use.

The building sits on a wetlands site; the architect chose an open-feeling design with features reminiscent of Frank Lloyd Wright's work. Halas Hall itself covers just three acres of the property, while wetlands cover six. The east side cladding of the building is 83,000 linear feet of cedar, while the west side is constructed of precast panels. The panels were made by an architectural precasting firm that laid rough sawn cedar in the casting beds. When the panels dried, the cedar was stripped from the concrete, giving the panels their board-formed or wooden look.

The main building is almost two football fields long and 100 feet wide. The old Halas Hall had 32,000 square feet of space, while the new building has 100,000. In fact, the entire former Halas Hall would fit into the basement of the new building. Furthermore, the old lockerroom was 1,400 square feet, while the new one is about 3,000, has 62 lockers with room to quickly expand to 100, and 4 natural light wells (allowing full lighting without electricity on sunny days). The weight room–perhaps the most spectacular aesthetic area of the complex– is 7,000 square feet, almost four times the size of the 1,800 square foot workout area at the old building. The glass wall on the east side of the weight room is 28 feet high, perfect for viewing the white-tailed deer on their evening romps across the complex grounds. A two-lane lap pool is behind the weight room, and its sixty foot lanes have built-in resistance currents. The training room is five times the size of its predecessor, and boasts a doctors' office, x-ray facility, medical records storeroom, casting room, whirlpool, cold-dip plunge, steam room, and sauna. The football needs are met with nine classrooms, one large meeting room / classroom, and a 150-seat auditoreum capable of hosting seminars, television productions, football players, or Chicago Bears Fan Club members.

RECORDS AFTER BYE WEEKS, 1990-97

The Bears are tied for second in the NFL with a 7-2 record after the Bye Week since the rest period was instituted in 1990 (there were two bye weeks in 1993). Last October 27, 1997, the Bears beat the Miami Dolphins 36-33 in overtime in Miami after the week off. (The game was moved from Sunday afternoon until Monday night, due to Game Seven of the World Series being played at Pro Player Stadium).

Buffalo leads the NFL with an 8-1 post-bye record, including a 22-13 win over Detroit last season. Also tied with the Bears at 7-2 are Atlanta, Dallas, Denver, Kansas City, Miami, and Minnesota.

UNDRAFTED FREE AGENTS

The Bears signed 16 undrafted free agents, an increase from the 12 signed last year, and more than the 14 signed in 1996. (One of the fifteen, however, will not go to Platteville: he failed his physical and was cut). The Bears signed 17 undrafted free agents before the 1994 campaign.

Two undrafted rookie free agents saw playing time in 1997: tight end Tremayne Allen, and cornerback Terry Cousin. Allen, undrafted out of Florida, was signed to the active roster for the season in Week 7, and was active for four games. He caught the first pass of his NFL career in Week 16 at Tampa Bay (12-21). Cousin was signed to the practice squad prior to Week One and first saw action in Week 8, and spent the final six weeks on the active roster, seeing extensive special teams, nickel back, and cornerback action in five games. In addition, linebacker Daryl Carter and center Emmett Zitelli remain on the current roster from last season's rookie free agent class.

In 1996, Michael Lowery made the Opening Day roster and played in all 16 games; Bobby Neely played in eleven games and started five before going out for the year with an injury; and Chris Martin saw action before also suffering a season ending injury. In addition, Jason Augustino was injured in Platteville and spent the year on IR, and participated in training camp last summer.

1995 found Fabien Bownes, Marlon Forbes, and Octus Polk were all signed to the practice squad, with Bownes and Polk moving to the 52-player roster late in the season. All remain on the current roster.

In 1994, Tony Carter made the Opening Day roster as an undrafted free agent, while Greg Primus, Darwin Ireland, and Anthony Marshall saw action later in the season. In addition, Dwayne Joseph and Todd Norman became part of the practice squad; Robert Bass, Garland Hawkins, and Marcus Durgin were placed on IR with training camp injuries; and Cedric Walker was invited back to camp the following year.

The following players on the Chicago roster were also signed as undrafted free agents, though not all were originally signed by the Bears: Ryan Wetnight (1993), James Williams (1991), Erik Kramer (1987 by New Orleans), Tim Tindale (1994 with Buffalo), Ricky Bell (1996 by Pittsburgh), Aaron Kanner (1996 by Carolina), Mark Lee (1996 by Minnesota), Eric Smith (1996 by Kansas City), Casey Wiegman (1996 by New York Jets), James Allen (1997 by Tennessee), Clyde Johnson (1997 by Kansas City),and Tyrone Williams (1997 by St. Louis Rams).

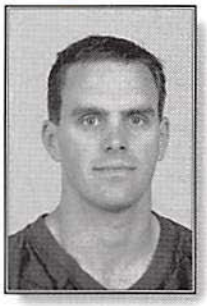

On the Bears' 85 player training camp roster, 34 were never drafted.

BEARS AND NFL SINGLE GAME ATTENDANCE RECORDS

Three of the NFL's ten biggest single game attendance totals have occurred at games involving the Chicago Bears.

The defending World Champs squared off against the College All-Stars on August 22, 1947, at Soldier Field, in front of 105,840—the second highest total in NFL history, and the highest in a game played within U.S. borders. The 1942 College All-Star game at Soldier Field drew 101,100 fans—ninth all-time. The Bears were defeated by the Los Angeles Rams at the LA Coliseum on November 2, 1958 (41-35 final) in front of 100,470, good for tenth on the list.

The Cowboys and Oilers played in front of 112,376 paying customers in a pre-season game in Mexico City (August 15, 1994) for the NFL attendance mark.

W'S AROUND THE LEAGUE

The Bears have a chance this season to become the second team in the NFL with victories over each of the 29 NFL franchises. Chicago has defeated every existing franchise—including the soon-to-be-re-introduced Cleveland Browns—except for the Baltimore Ravens, who play in Soldier Field on December 20, 1998. The Ravens commenced play (after leaving Cleveland) in 1996, and have never played Chicago.

Denver is the only NFL team to have defeated every other squad (including Cleveland). Green Bay, like the Bears, has a chance as they face the Ravens this season.

In 1995, the inaugural season for Jacksonville and Carolina, the Bears were one of just four teams to play both expansion teams. The Jets and Indianapolis split their games, while both the Bears and Tampa Bay defeated the Jaguars and Panthers that season. Seven NFL teams have victories over both the Jags and Panthers since their 1995 inception: the Bears, Denver, Green Bay, New Orleans, St. Louis, Tampa Bay, and Washington.

While Denver is the only club with victories against everybody, other teams have had chances to join that list: Washington lost to the Ravens last year, and New Orleans and St. Louis were defeated by Baltimore in '96. And While Tampa Bay has notched a victory over the two newest entries, they have yet to beat the Cowboys, Ravens, Seahawks, or Steelers—or the Browns, who will be reintroduced to the league in 1999.

- The Bears selected with the fifth overall pick in the draft twice before 1998. In 1982, Chicago chose BYU quarterback Jim McMahon. The 1961 fifth selection landed Pittsburgh tight end Mike Ditka.
- The Bears' selection of Curtis Enis was the 25th time they have used their 1st-round pick on a running back in the 63 years of he draft (and 78 Bears first-round selections). The Bears have also drafted 12 offensive linemen, 13 D-linemen, seven QBs, seven WRs, five LBs, two safeties, two cornerbacks, and one tight end. Four choices have been traded.
- This year's selection was only the third top ten selection by the Bears in the last fifteen drafts: safety Mark Carrier was taken sixth in 1990; and wide receiver Curtis Conway was the seventh pick of the '93 draft.
- Choice 6b and 7c were compensatory picks. 30 such picks were awarded in 1998 to teams which suffered a net loss of certain quality unrestricted free agents. Compensatory picks cannot be traded.

SEASON OPENERS

The Bears own 46 opening day victories overall, more than any NFL franchise. The Dallas Cowboys are 28-9-1 on opening day, and their .757 opening day winning percentage is tops in league history. The Bears beat the Cowboys 22-6 at Soldier Field to open the season in 1996.

This year, Chicago opens against an AFC opponent for the first time since 1990, when the Bears hosted the Seahawks (17-0 win). Jacksonville visits Soldier Field on September 6, 1998. Week Two in '98 also features an AFC foe, as the Bears travel to Pittsburgh to face the Steelers. The last time the Bears opened the season with consecutive AFC opponents was 1988, when Chicago defeated Miami 34-7 at Soldier Field, before beating the Colts 17-13 in Indianapolis in Week Two.

STATE OF THE BEARS

As was the case last year, more Bears on the current (training camp) roster hail from California than any other state. Fourteen Bears are from California. The Bears have seven players each from Georgia and Texas, and four each call Florida, Ohio, New Jersey, and New York home. Three Bears are from Illinois, and the midwest is further represented with three Michigonians, two Wisconsin natives, one Indiana "hoosier," and one Iowan.

GETTING TO HALAS HALL AT CONWAY PARK

FROM THE LOOP – Take 90/94 (Kennedy Expressway) west to 94 north (Edens Expressway). Continue on 94 (the "spur"), which becomes the Tri-state Tollway. Exit at Town Line Road (IL Route 60) and turn right (east). Take a left at the first light, which is Field Drive (be careful: there is a Field Court further east, though not at a stoplight). Drive about 1.2 miles north along Field Drive. Turn right onto Football Drive (the last road on your right) and proceed to the entry gate.

FROM O'HARE AIRPORT – Take 294 (the Tri-state Tollway) north. Exit at Town Line Road (IL Route 60), turn right (east), and proceed as directed with underlined text, above.

GEORGE S. HALAS

Feb. 2, 1895 – Oct. 31, 1983

Leading the Chicago Bears for more than a half-century, George S. Halas, the team's founder and head coach for 40 years, was one of the most enduring personalities in sports history. Halas was active with the Bears starting in 1920 when he founded the team.

Halas was born and raised on Chicago's west side and prepped at Crane Tech High School before attending the University of Illinois. In Champaign, he earned a B.S. degree while lettering in football, basketball, and baseball. After graduation in 1918, Halas joined the Navy for the first of two tours of duty. He was named Player of the Game in the 1919 Rose Bowl, playing end on the Great Lakes team that beat the Marines 17-0. A commander when he left active duty in 1946, Halas retired as a captain in the Naval Reserve. He was also awarded the Distinguished Citizens Award—the highest honor the Navy can bestow on a civilian.

After leaving the Navy, Halas played right field for the New York Yankees, but a hip injury shortened his baseball career. Halas went to work for a Decatur (IL) corn products firm owned by an enthusiastic sports fan, Mr. A.E. Staley, who sponsored a semi-pro baseball team, and later commissioned Halas to organize an independent football team.

PRO CAREER: As a player, Halas set an NFL record (which stood 49 years until 1972) when he took a Jim Thorpe fumble 98 yards for a TD in a 26-0 win over the Oorang Indians at Wrigley Field (11/4/23). He played end for the Bears from 1920-29 and was named to the NFL all-pro squad of the 20s.

PRO COACHING CAREER: Four times Halas interrupted his coaching activities by his own volition. He first turned over the leadership to Ralph Jones from 1930 through 1932. In 1942 when he left for the Navy, Luke Johnsos and "Hunk" Anderson shared head coaching responsibilities until '45. John "Paddy" Driscoll coached in 1956-57. Coincidentally, in '33 and again in '46 when Halas resumed coaching, his Bears won world championships.

During the 1940s, his teams reached the height of their power with four straight Western Conference titles; three world championships; a fantastic four-season record (including pre-season games) of 62-7-1 (.899); scored 2,164 points and allowed just 842. The 1940 team, which defeated the Washington Redskins 73-0 for the World Championship, was voted the greatest professional team of all-time by the National Academy of Sports Editors in 1963.

Resuming coaching in 1958, Halas needed five years to develop another championship, but in 1963 the Bears won their eighth championship. The Sporting News, AP, and UPI named him Coach of the Year after the 1963 and 1965 seasons. Halas retired from coaching on May 27, 1968, with a career record of 324-151-31. His win total was best in NFL history until Don Shula broke the mark on 11/14/93. Halas is a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Historical Bios

GEORGE S. HALAS, JR.
Sept. 4, 1925 – Dec.16, 1979

"Mugs" Halas was an integral part of the Chicago Bears before his untimely death in 1979. The son of pro football founder George S. Halas, Mugs spent 30 years in pro football. He joined the Bears' front office in 1950, was named treasurer in 1953, and became president of the club in 1963. In his first season as president, the Bears were NFL champions. Mugs was the second of just three presidents in the franchise's 70-year history. He succeeded his father, George S. Halas, and was followed by current president Michael McCaskey. His numerous contributions on a league-level included membership on the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

"Mugs" learned football at a young age, serving as a ball boy while growing up. He earned a business degree from Loyola in 1949, before entering pro football on a full-time basis. "Mugs" is remembered for his love and devotion to the game.

MVP-EUROPE

Bears first-year wide receiver Marcus Robinson was named the Offensive MVP of the NFL Europe League for the 1998 season. Robinson, who led the Rhein Fire to an 8-2 record and a 34-10 World Bowl Title in Frankfort, caught 41 passes for 925 yards (a 22.6 yards-per-catch average) and six touchdowns. Robinson was originally a fourth-round draft choice (108th overall, the Bears' second 4th-rounder in the 1997 draft) out of South Carolina. He injured his thumb last September and spent the remainer of the '97 campaign on injured reserve.

The NFL Europe League, incidentally, is the NFL-run American football league overseas, formerly known as the World League of American Football. The new official name "NFL Europe League" sounds redundant, but was so termed because European fans of American football know the NFL by its initials only, not as the "National Football League." NFLEL, therefore, wanted to capitalize on the term NFL—thus the redundant sounding moniker to American fans.

DID YOU KNOW?

THE FRIENDLY CONFINES AS HOST FOR BEARS GAMES MAY BE A RECORD HOLDER

The Bears all-time record at Wrigley Field stands at 221-89-22, a total of 332 games, 330 as the home team. (Two of those victories came with the Bears as the "road" team: twice in 1920 against the Chicago Tigers). The 330 Bears home games at Wrigley Field appears to be a National Football League record, though unofficial. The Bears-Wrigley connection edges out Cleveland's Municipal Stadium as host for 324 home games of the Cleveland Browns, from 1950 through 1995. As the reincarnation of the Cleveland Browns will play in a new stadium beginning in 1999, the Bears-Wrigley "record" appears safe.

In fact, Wrigley Field has hosted a total of 342 NFL games: 330 Bears home games, five home games of the Chicago Tigers in 1920, and seven home games of the Chicago Cardinals in 1931 and 1932. Besides the Browns 324 home games at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, the Cleveland Indians played two home games there in 1931, and the Cleveland Rams played sixteen home contests in 1937 and 1939-1941. Municipal Stadium appears to have hosted a total of 342 total NFL games–same as Wrigley Field.

The Bears record at Soldier Field stands at 131-84-1. The Bears have also played home games at Decatur (1921, victory over Rock Island); DePaul (1925, victory over Hammond); Mills (1930, tie versus Brooklyn); Loyola (1931, victory over Cleveland); Chicago Stadium (1932, victory over Portsmouth); and Dyche Stadium (1970, victory over Philadelphia).

- Bears record at Wrigley Field: 221-89-22 (.699)
- Bears home record at Wrigley Field: 219-89-22 (.697)
- Bears record at Soldier Field: 131-84-1 (.609)
- Bears combined home record: 355-173-24 (.672)

Each of the above players spent time on the Bears' practice squad (or "developmental squad," as it was termed in 1989). Bold players are on the current Bears roster.
* Indicates player was signed to active roster, and played in a game;

- The following current Bears spent time on other teams' practice squads: James Allen (Phi), Ricky Bell (Jax), Mark Lee (Wash), John Mangum (TB), Chris Miller (Det), Eric Smith (KC), Tim Tindale (Buf), Casey Wiegman (Ind), and Tyrone Williams (StL).
- A player on the practice squad is not "protected". However, for another team to sign a practice squad player, that team must put the player on their active roster. The Bears have signed nine players to their active roster off other teams' practice squads: John Mangum (TB), Kevin Miniefield (Det), Trevor Cobb (Pit), Willie Harris (Buf), Chris Holder (GB), Kenny Shedd (NYJ), and Mark Butterfield (Ariz), as well as James Allen (Philadelphia) and Tyrone Williams (St. Louis) last year. Tackle Kerry Jenkins was signed off of the Bears practice squad by the New York Jets last season.
- Thirty of the fifty-five players signed to the practice squad have played in at least one game for the Bears. Only two players (Willie Harris and James Lott) have been signed to the active roster from the practice squad, but did not play in a game. At least three players did not play with the Bears, but saw action in a regular season game for another team: Dewell Brewer (Ind), Steve Hyche (Phx), and Keenan McCardell (Clev, Jax).

INTERNATIONAL GAMES

The Bears were the first team to play overseas when they met the Cowboys in London in 1986. Since that game, the NFL has expanded the American Bowl to several sites including Tokyo, Barcelona, Montreal, and Mexico City. Last season, the Bears fourth trip abroad took them to Dublin, Ireland's Croke Park on July 27, 1997, to face the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Soldier Field

The Chicago Bears enter their 28th year at Soldier Field after playing their first 50 seasons in Chicago at Wrigley Field. Soldier Field was opened in 1924 as a 45,000-seat Municipal Grant Park Stadium. The first football game played on its field was November 22, 1924, as a capacity crowd watched Notre Dame edge Northwestern, 13-6.

It hosted the first boxing event which drew a gate of over $2.5 million (Dempsey-Tunney, 1927), the first ski meet held in a stadium, and the all-time largest football crowd (123,000). The largest crowd for any event in Soldier Field was 260,000 on Sept. 8, 1954, for the religious Marian Year Tribute.

The 100,000-seat stadium was dedicated November 27, 1926, with Army battling Navy to a 21-21 tie. The all-time collegiate attendance record of 123,000 plus was established Nov. 26, 1927 as Notre Dame beat Southern Cal 7-6. In the first professional game at the then-mammoth stadium, the Bears defeated the Chicago Cardinals 10-0 on November 11, 1926.

Plans for the stadium started in 1919 as a memorial to the soldiers of WWI. Soldier Field stands on 10,000 pile foundations driving an average depth of 62.5 feet through fill that replaced the lake waters. The stadium is maintained and operated by the Chicago Park District.

Other stadium notes since the Bears moved to Soldier Field:

1971 — September 19th, Chicago defeats the Pittsburgh Steelers 17-15 before capacity crowd of 55,701 in the Bears' first game since moving from Wrigley.

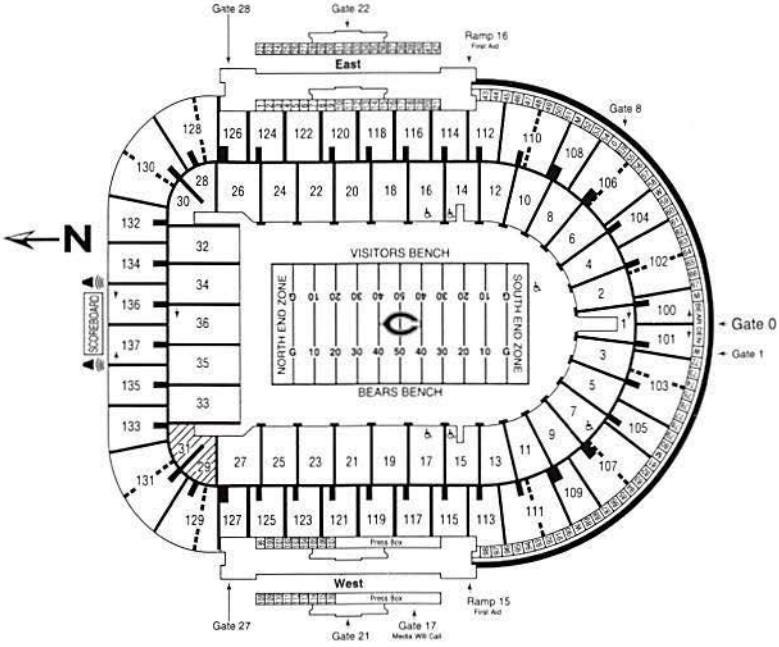

1979 — The stadium undergoes major reconstruction and renovation prior to the season including new lighting, playing surface, and locker rooms; rebuilding of seating area (new chairbacks, armrests, seats); and improvement of sightlines.

1982 — Additional rebuilding of seating areas was completed as well as new concourses with more restrooms and concession areas. A new press box, 60 deluxe skyboxes, and a new scoreboard were also built. Capacity is increased to 66,030.

1988 — Surface was changed from artificial turf to natural grass, and 56 skyboxes were added along south rim (increasing the total to 116). Capacity is increased to 66,946.

1992 — Four seats are added increasing the capacity to 66,950.

1994 — The Park District spends millions to refurbish the stadium for the World Cup soccer tournament. Capacity is reduced by six to the current figure of 66,944.

FINALLY, EIGHT: IT WASN'T SO GREAT

The Bears had played 1,070 games in their storied 78 seasons before finishing a game with a final score of "eight" for the first time. It finally happened on November 2, 1997: the Bears lost to the Redskins 31-8 at Soldier Field, scoring on an Erik Kramer-to-Ricky Proehl TD toss, and a two-point conversion by the same duo, for the final score. Chicago's opponents have only once totalled eight points in a contest: on November 6, 1932, the Giants scored a touchdown, missed the extra point, and recorded a fourth quarter safety in losing to the Bears, 28-8.

ALL TIED UP

The Bears have had 42 ties in their 76-year history. However, their last knotted game was a 13-13 final against the Rams on September 24, 1972 — 378 games ago. Since 1974, when sudden death overtime was introduced, there have been just 15 ties in the entire NFL — none by the Bears. The other four NFC Central teams have each had at least one tie, led by the Packers with four.

Before last season, the last tie in the NFL was a 10-10 contest between Kansas City and Cleveland on November 19, 1989. The league played 1,836 games between the Chiefs-Browns clash, (including 109 advancing to overtime), without another tie...until November 16, 1997, when the Ravens and Eagles finished a game knotted 10-10. The NFL didn't have to wait long before getting tied up again: the Redskins and Giants finished in a 7-7 deadlock the following week (November 23, 1997).

Chicago has the distinction of having played in the most overtime games (22) without a tie.

Bears TV / Radio Programs

PRE-SEASON TV

For a fifth season, the Chicago Bears have teamed with WBBM-TV (CBS — Channel 2 in Chicago) in televising all four Bears pre-season games to Chicago and surrounding markets. The Bears are responsible for production and advertising sales of the games. Kevin Harlan will handle play-by-play duties for the games, while Bears Hall-of-Fame running back Walter Payton will provide the analysis.

The Bears-Baltimore game on Saturday, August 8 starts at 6:30 PM; followed by the Bears-Cardinals contest on Friday, August 14 at 9:00 PM. The Bears-Bills game on Friday, August 21 begins at 7:00 PM, and the pre-season concludes with the Bears hosting the Jets on Friday, August 28 at 7:00 PM. Each game is re-broadcast the same evening at 11:30 PM.

CHICAGO BEARS WEEKLY

For the ninth season, the Chicago Bears will produce a 30-minute television show, Chicago Bears Weekly. The show airs each Saturday night at 10:30 PM on WBBM-TV in Chicago, beginning August 29 and continuing throughout the season.

Every week the program presents an insider's view of the Bears organization including interviews with Bears players and coaches. Each episode reviews the latest Bears game and analyzes the upcoming opponent.

CHICAGO BEARS INSIDER

The Bears radio coverage on game day begins three hours prior to kickoff, and for the seventh season Chicago Bears Insider opens the program (on WMAQ radio). Hosted by Wayne Larrivee and Hub Arkush, CBI is a 45-minute show which gives Bear fans an in-depth preview and analysis of the upcoming opponent. The program includes discussion of hot NFL issues, an in-depth interview with a player or coach, team related features and information, and analysis of the season to date.

DAVE WANNSTEDT RADIO SHOW

Bears Head Coach Dave Wannstedt conducts his weekly radio show on WMAQ (670 AM) each Monday evening from 6:00 to 7:00 PM. Hosted by Hub Arkush, the hour-long Dave Wannstedt Radio Show allows the Coach to look at the latest news from Halas Hall and around the NFL. Fans have the opportunity to talk with the Coach during the program's call-in segment.

CHICAGO BEARS EXTRA

The pre-eminent Bears wrap-up show will debut a new format in 1998, serving as a nightcap for all Bears fans. Chicago Bears Extra will be broadcast on Sunday nights at 10:30 PM on WBBM-TV in Chicago, and as always will feature a segment with Coach Dave Wannstedt. Coach will appear via satellite or join WBBM broadcasters Tim Weigel and Howard Sudberry in Chicago. A Bears player will also contribute analysis about the day's events in the NFL.

BEARS AROUND TOWN

Bears Around Town is a spontaneous, fun-filled program broadcast with a live audience from Stanley's in Lincoln Park (at Lincoln, Armitage, and Sedgwick streets). Airing Monday nights from 7:00 - 8:00 PM on WMAQ radio, the show is hosted by Wayne Larrivee and Tom Thayer and features a different Bears player each week. The live audience is treated to "inside" information about the players, coaches, strategies, and personalities of the 1998 Chicago Bears.

'LUNCHEON' SERIES

The Chicago Bears / Chicago Sun-Times Luncheon Series is the "official" Chicago Bears luncheon held every week throughout the season. Each Monday night or Tuesday, a current Bear player, coach, or representative will appear along with a prominent Chicago sports anchor at one of the four Maggiano's locations in the Chicagoland area (downtown, Skokie, Oak Brook, Schaumburg). For the sixth season the event will be televised on Fox Sports Chicago on Tuesday evenings at 10:30 PM, with re-broadcasts on Wednesdays at 4:00 PM and Thursdays at noon.

Bears Radio Play-By-Play

WMAQ 670-AM

One of the nation's top all-news stations, WMAQ Radio enters its second season as the radio home of the Chicago Bears in 1998. WMAQ has a tradition rich in Chicago sports broadcasting history. The station also is the home of the Dave Wannstedt Radio Show. Wayne Larrivee calls play-by-play, with analysis from Pro Football Weekly's Hub Arkush and former Bear Tom Thayer. Pre-game shows begin three hours prior to kickoff. The post-game show from the lockerroom features analysis from Dave Wannstedt and key players from the game.

WAYNE LARRIVEE

The play-by-play voice of the Bears since 1985, Wayne Larrivee is one of the most versatile and talented broadcasters in the country. Larrivee is a broadcaster for two Chicago pro sports teams — also serving as the play-by-play voice of the Chicago Bulls on WGN-TV. Larrivee's credits also include Big Ten football and basketball on Raycom and ESPN. A native New Englander, Larrivee attended Emerson College in Boston and handled play-by-play for the University of Iowa, University of Colorado, and the Missouri Valley Conference. Before joining WMAQ two winters ago, Larrivee was with WGN Radio for 11 years, and was sports director of KCMO-radio in Kansas City where he served as the Kansas City Chiefs' play-by-play voice.

HUB ARKUSH

Hub Arkush begins his 12th season as a member of the Bears radio team. Arkush is publisher of Pro Football Weekly, a periodical devoted to pro football that is widely read in NFL circles. Arkush also serves as the founder and co-host of the syndicated radio and television shows with the same name. Arkush joined WGN Radio in 1985 as a pre-and post-game analyst before filling in during Bears broadcasts in 1987, and moving to WMAQ last spring. He is a highly sought after guest on sports talk shows nationwide. Arkush is a lifetime Chicagoan who attended Deerfield High School and the University of Michigan.

TOM THAYER

Tom Thayer retired from the Bears in 1992 after a distinguished 8-year career at offensive guard. Originally a Bears fourth-round draft pick in 1983 after an All-American career at Notre Dame, Thayer played for two-plus seasons with the USFL Chicago Blitz before joining the Bears. One of the team's strongest players, Thayer earned his starting role at right guard four games into the 1985 season, and eventually compiled consecutive game and consecutive start streaks that led the Bears during the late 1980s. Before joining the WMAQ team last season, Thayer worked for two seasons as a Bears analyst on WFLD-TV's pro football programming. A former all-state lineman at Joliet Catholic High, Thayer resides in Chicago.

TICKET INFORMATION and BEARS SHARE

TICKET OFFICE – The Bears ticket office is located on the first floor of Halas Hall at Conway Park. Single game tickets are sold through the mail beginning June 1 of each year. After the mail order sale concludes, individual game tickets are available at the ticket office, or by calling TicketMaster (312 / 559-1212).

The Bears Ticket Office telephone number is (847) 615-BEAR (2327).

BEARS SHARE – In 1993, the Bears created Bears Share, their ticket donation program benefiting the Boy Scouts of America, Boys and Girls Club of Chicago, and Clearbrook Center for the Handicapped. The idea is simple: if a season ticket subscriber or single ticket purchaser cannot attend a game, he or she donates those tickets to one of the three agencies. The agency either arranges for a responsible adult to escort one of their program participants to a Bears game, or re-sells the tickets at face value. For more information, call the Bears Ticket Office.

BEARS PRESS RELEASES, STATS, & ROSTERS AVAILABLE BY FAX

In order to better serve the media with the distribution of press releases, the Chicago Bears have employed a Fax-On-Demand service. This system benefits the media in two ways: 1) Instead of waiting for the weekly press release to arrive through the mail or waiting for us to fax it, you can receive it immediately; and, 2) Several other NFL teams have also signed up for the same service, so you can receive their information at the same time you request information about the Bears.

The system works as follows:

- From the handset of your fax machine, call 800 / 300-2050.
- The automated message will ask for your PIN Number. Enter it. If you need a PIN Number, call 800/300-8587.
- (To obtain a current directory of all NFL documents, press 2#).
- To receive a Bears fax, choose from the following: 2101 Upcoming Game Release (4-6 pages); 2102 Current Roster (2 pages); 2103 Current Statistics (2 pages); 2104 Depth Chart (1 page); 2105 Schedule and Results (1 page); 2106 Wednesday Update and Injury Report (1 page); 2107 Latest News (1 page); 2108 Latest game play-by-play (10 pages).
- Once you have ordered your documents, press 2#
- After the tone, press the START button on your fax machine; your documents will be sent immediately.

Media Information

CREDENTIALS: News media representatives who have not been issued season press credentials should request single game credentials in advance by writing or calling Bryan Harlan, Director of Public Relations, Halas Hall, 1000 Football Drive, Lake Forest, IL 60045. (847) 295-6600. Credentials will be left at the PRESS WILL CALL window located at Gate 17 on the west side of the stadium. PRESS WILL CALL opens three hours before kickoff. Space is extremely limited in the Soldier Field Press Box, so guests are NOT permitted and credentials are limited to working press only.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline credentials for field photographers are issued by the Bears' PR department. Space limitations make it impossible to accredit free lance photographers who are not on specific assignment by a recognized sports or news publication. Sideline credentials must be reserved five days before the game and can be picked up at Gate 17.

PARKING: Media parking is limited at Soldier Field. Applications must be made in writing on company letterhead to Bryan Harlan.

TELEPHONES: The Bears provide a limited number of co-op credit card phones for copy transmission. To order phone lines in the Soldier Field Press Box call: Debbie Bordeaux at Ameritech at (888) 270-6565.

FROM SOLDIER FIELD TO O'HARE AIRPORT: Take Lake Shore Drive South to I-55 (on right). Take I-55 to I-90/94. Exit North / West to Wisconsin. Follow signs to O'Hare (take the Kennedy / I-90).

DIRECTIONS OUT OF PRESS BOX AFTER GAME: Take press box elevator to first level concourse inside stadium; follow inside concourse to south end of stadium. Exit at Gate O. All taxi cabs are instructed to pick up at Gate O.

POST-GAME TRANSPORTATION: Please advise Bears' PR personnel as soon as possible should you require post-game transportation. Phone: (312) TAXI-CAB (829-4222).
