CHICAGO BEARS FIGHT SONG

The Chicago Bears fight song, Bear Down, Chicago Bears, was introduced in 1941. Though Jerry Downs is listed as the composer, it actually is a pseudonym for Al Hoffman (who also wrote the words and music for the song If I Knew You Were Coming, I'd Have Baked a Cake).

Hoffman's words for the Bears' fight song:

Bear down, Chicago Bears, make every play clear the way to victory;
Bear down, Chicago Bears, put up a fight with a might so fearlessly.
We'll never forget the way you thrilled the nation with your T-formation.
Bear down, Chicago Bears, and let them know why you're wearing the crown.

2005 Chicago Bears
By the Decade

One of the world's most storied professional sports franchises, the Chicago Bears were established in 1920 as George Halas founded professional football with representatives from 11 other clubs in Canton, Ohio. Halas was not only the team's founder but served as head coach for 40 years, and was active with the Bears until his death in 1983. The franchise has won nine world championships, six of those coming between 1932-46, and in 1997 became the first club in NFL annals to notch its 600th victory. The team has participated in the playoffs 23 times, and sent 26 players, one coach, and one general manager to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the most of any team.

A native Chicagoan, Halas was a three-sport letterman at the University of Illinois. He joined the Navy after graduation before playing right field for the New York Yankees. A hip injury ended his baseball career and Halas moved to Decatur to work for a corn products firm owned by A.E. Staley, who sponsored a semi-pro baseball team and later commissioned Halas to organize an independent football team. One year later, Staley gave Halas the club and Halas made Dutch Sternaman his partner. Halas was a player-coach from 1920-29 and was named to the NFL all-pro squad of the 1920s. He holds three NFL coaching records and four Bears coaching records. Halas' 324 coaching victories was broken in 1994 by Don Shula of the Miami Dolphins. Halas led the Bears to six world championships – his first and last separated by 42 years (1921 and 1963). (See page 228 for more on George S. Halas.)

1920s: George Halas founded pro football and the Decatur Staleys in 1920 and set membership at $100 per club. The Staleys posted a 10-1-2 record in that inaugural season as each player earned $1,900 for the season. The Bears won their first title the next season (1921) with a 9-1-1 mark and went on to post winning records in all but one season in the entire decade (1929: 4-9-2). The first major signing took place in 1925 when the Bears signed Red Grange to a contract. Halas then took Grange and the Bears on a coast-to-coast barnstorming tour in which the club played 16 games in nine weeks. The first game of that stretch was played before 36,000 at the team's home site, Wrigley Field.

1930s: Halas left the coaching ranks in 1930 and Ralph Jones led the club to a 24-10-7 record from 1930-32. The Bears won the 1932 championship before 11,198 fans at Chicago Stadium. The franchise lost $18,000 that season and Sternaman sold his half of the club to Halas. The 1933 season marked Halas' return to coaching and the beginning of the "modern" National Football League. The Bears beat the Giants 23-21 in the NFL's first championship game that year. The Bears advanced to the NFL title game twice more in the 30's, but fell to the Giants in 1934 and the Redskins in 1937.

1950s: The Bears began the decade with a title run, but lost to the Rams in the 1950 Western Division title game, 24-14. Paddy Driscoll replaced Halas as coach in 1956 and the Bears lost to the Giants in the NFL Championship game at Yankee Stadium. Halas returned for his final stint as head coach in 1958.

1960s: The Bears won their final title under Halas in 1963, beating the NY Giants, 14-10, at Wrigley Field. A new era was signaled in 1965 when the club drafted Dick Butkus and Gale Sayers in the first round of the college draft. Sayers set a NFL record with 22 TDs as a rookie, including six in a single game against the 49ers. Prior to the 1968 season, Halas retired from coaching after 40 seasons and a 324-151-31 record.

NAMING THE BEARS

George Halas originally named the team the Decatur Staleys after A.E. Staley, a starch manufacturer and enthusiastic sports fan who sponsored a semi-pro team and commissioned Halas to organize the new squad.

One year later, trying to match the profitability of Chicago's baseball games, Staley asked Halas if he would take the team off Staley's hands and move it to Chicago for $5,000, while keeping the name Staleys for another year. With the help of legendary baseball pioneer Bill Veeck and William Wrigley, Halas soon acquired a lease to play at Wrigley Field.

When Halas' obligation to Staley terminated in 1922, he considered re-naming the team the Chicago Cubs out of respect for Veeck and Wrigley who, according to Halas in his biography, "had been such a great help."

But, as Halas continued, "I noted football players are much bigger players than baseball players, so if baseball players are cubs, then football players must be bears!"

On January 28, 1922, the franchise was re-named the Chicago Bears.

The team colors have always been blue and orange after those of Halas' alma mater, the University of Illinois. Halas lettered in football, basketball, and baseball for the Fighting Illini, and is honored as one of U of I's most distinguished alumni in the Illini Union in Champaign-Urbana.

Ed McCaskey was named team's vice-president and treasurer in 1967, a position he held for 17 years before being named Chairman of the Board in 1983 and eventually Chaiman Emeritus in 1999. Ed spearheaded the club's civic activities for many years and attends NFL meetings. Among his many civic contributions on behalf of the Bears was guiding the Brian Piccolo Fund from its inception in 1970 to 1987, raising millions of dollars for cancer research.

1970s: The Bears played their final season in Wrigley Field in 1970 before moving to Soldier Field. In the same year, Halas was elected president of the NFC as the NFL and AFL merged. In 1974, Jim Finks joined the Bears as General Manager. Finks named Jack Pardee, the first non-Bear in such a position, as head coach replacing Abe Gibron. In 1975, the Bears moved their training camp to Lake Forest after spending 31 years in Rensselaer, Indiana; and Walter Payton was the club's first-round draft choice. After a 14-year hiatus the Bears returned to the playoffs in 1977, winning their final six games to finish 9-5. The Bears again made the playoffs in 1979 under head coach Neill Armstrong. Chicago lost in the opening round in both 1977 and 1979. The organization suffered a major loss at end of the decade when team president George "Mugs" Halas, Jr. died at 54. Mugs joined the Bears front office in 1950, was named treasurer in 1953, and became president of the club in 1963. (See page 229 for more on "Mugs" Halas.)

1980s: Armstrong's tenure ended in 1982 and he was replaced by Dallas Cowboys' assistant Mike Ditka, a Bears tight end from 1961-66. In 1983, Jim Finks resigned and George Halas died at age 88. Michael McCaskey, the oldest son of Ed and Virginia McCaskey and the grandson of George Halas, became the third president in club history.

McCaskey was a business school professor and operated a consulting company in Boston before joining the Bears. In his 15 seasons as club president, the Bears posted nine winning seasons, made three trips to the NFC title game and won Super Bowl XX. McCaskey has served stints on the Finance, Long Range Planning, Stadium, and NFL Properties Executive committees during his tenure.

The Bears returned to the NFL elite in 1984. They advanced to the NFC Championship game (losing to San Francisco) and Walter Payton broke Jim Brown's all-time NFL rushing record. The loss in the '84 title game set the stage for the 1985 season in which the Bears posted shutouts in both playoff games before ripping the Patriots, 46-10, in Super Bowl XX. The Bears won the NFC Central division each of the next three seasons, but could never get past the NFC title game. Payton's jersey was retired following the '87 season.

1990s: The Bears made playoff appearances in 1990 and 1991. The 1992 season was marked by the retirement of Mike Singletary, the end of the Mike Ditka era and Kevin Butler becoming the club's all-time scoring leader. Dave Wannstedt was named the 11th coach in team history in 1993 and led the Bears to back-to-back winning seasons in 1994 and 1995. The uniform numbers of Dick Butkus (51) and Gale Sayers (40) were retired in 1994. The team moved into its new headquarters, Halas Hall at Conway Park, on March 3, 1997. The Bears became the first franchise in NFL history to win 600 games; number 600 was a 13-7 win over Tampa Bay at Soldier Field (11-23-97). On August 1, 1998, Mike Singletary became the 25th Bear inducted into the NFL Hall-of-Fame, the most of any franchise. Dick Jauron became the 12th head coach in Bears history on January 24, 1999. Two weeks later the Bears reshuffled the front office by naming Ted Phillips President and CEO, Michael McCaskey Chairman of the Board, and Ed McCaskey Chairman Emeritus. Chicago mourned the passing of legendary running back Walter Payton on November 1, 1999 as he lost his battle with a rare liver disease. The Bears named their indoor practice facility the "Walter Payton Center" in his honor the following spring.

2000s: The Bears won the NFC Central in 2001, the final year of the division, and also accomplished one of their greatest off-field achievements with the approval of the lakefront improvement plan which ended the Bears 44-year stadium effort on Jan. 5, 2001, with a new stadium set to open in 2003 built within the historic colonnades at Soldier Field. Demolition of the old Soldier Field began following a playoff loss to Philadelphia on Jan. 19, 2002. With expansion of the League to 32 teams in 2002 with the addition of the Houston Texans, the AFC and NFC each aligned to four divisions of four teams with Tampa Bay moving into the newly created NFC South leaving traditional rivals Chicago, Green Bay, Detroit and Minnesota in the NFC North. 2002 also marked a year of change as the Bears moved their training camp home from Platteville, Wis., which had hosted the summer training camp for 18 years, to Olivet Nazarene University in Bourbonnais, just 60 miles south of Chicago. The Bears also played all of their home games during the 2002 season at Memorial Stadium in Champaign while the new stadium at Soldier Field was being constructed. Defensive end/tackle Dan Hampton was the 26th Bear to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Aug. 3, 2002. The Bears made their debut in the new Soldier Field on Sept. 29, 2003, dropping a 38-23 decision to the Green Bay Packers. Later that same season (10/26/03), Chicago defeated the Detroit Lions 24-16 to become the first team in the NFL to win 650 games. Following the 2003 season, Dick Jauron's coaching tenure ended after five seasons and a 35-46 record. Lovie Smith became the 13th head coach in team history on Jan. 15, 2004.

TED PHILLIPS
President and CEO

A key member of the Bears front office since 1983, Phillips was named President and Chief Executive Officer on February 10, 1999. He is the fourth person to serve as president in the organization's storied 85-year history following Michael McCaskey, George "Mugs" Halas, Jr., and George S. Halas. Upon taking the reins of one of the historic teams in professional sports, Phillips set a course for the Bears to rejoin the NFL's elite. His plan revolves around creating the best fan experience possible and bringing a 10th championship to the league's premier franchise. In six years, Phillips has reorganized the team's football and business operations along with bringing one of the nation's top football stadiums to Chicago. With the foundation now in place, Bears fans have reasons to be excited.

Chicago waited over 40 years for a stadium built for football. Phillips envisioned a venue with the amenities and atmosphere the NFL's best fans craved. Tradition would not be sacrificed. The stadium would continue to be open-air to ensure "Bear weather" remained a home field advantage. It would stay on the lakefront where over 30 years of Bears legends have left their mark on Chicago. And it would continue to be called Soldier Field. In 2003, the vision became a reality as the doors to the new Soldier Field opened for the next era of Bears football and it proved to be a winner. The New York Times selected the project as one of the nation's best architectural buildings/plans in 2003 and Midwest Construction picked it as the "Overall Project of the Year."

Bears team founder George Halas began the search for a new stadium and Phillips ended the hunt, playing a lead role in the City of Chicago's Lakefront Redevelopment Plan, featuring 17 acres of new parkland, an underground parking structure and a new stadium within the historic confines of Soldier Field.

Phillips' mark on the Bears organization extends far beyond the new stadium. An NFL veteran with over 20 years of experience with the Chicago Bears, he is involved in all critical decisions of the Bears, overseeing all aspects of the organization. He has revived the team's proud tradition and orchestrated a team structure to deliver success on and off the field. Phillips has espoused a philosophy of surrounding himself with high character, intelligent and driven individuals who share common goals, striving to make all aspects of the Bears organization the best in the NFL. Emphasizing a team work ethic, Phillips believes that no one area is more important than the overall organization and that success at every level is key in the Bears' quest to return to the Super Bowl. His highlights include hiring the team's first general manager in over 14 years, reorganizing the club's business operations, returning the Bears training camp to Illinois and presiding over Chicago's first division championship (2001) in over a decade.

During the 2001 off-season, Phillips hired Jerry Angelo, the Bears' first general manager in fifteen years, giving new direction to the Bears football operations. He went on to extend Angelo's contract following the 2003 season, creating continuity and stability across the front office, which was critically important with the arrival of head coach Lovie Smith and his staff.

Phillips has also helped bring stability to the team's training camp situation by extending the organization's relationship with Olivet Nazarene University in Bourbonnais for two more seasons with an option for a third following the 2004 season. In 2002, the Bears returned their training camp to Illinois for the first time since 1983, moving to Olivet. The move fit into Phillips' goals of making Bears football more accessible to those who have supported the organization for decades. Fans have responded favorably over the first three years, turning out in record numbers over the three-week training period with some practice crowds exceeding 10,000 in attendance.

Displaying astute leadership and a solid work ethic, Phillips insists on strong internal communication and attention to detail. Taking great pride in the Bears organization, he allows individual departments to feel a sense of ownership in their areas, allowing his staff the freedom to make decisions, provide strategic input, in the process becoming valued members of the team. Many departments have begun to flourish under Phillips direction. Examples include the expertise of his Corporate Sales staff with the innovative Hall of Fame Partner program, which seeks to maximize the value and exposure to a limited number of key corporate partners. Broadcasting continues to grow their in-house capabilities, producing fresh and innovative ideas both in content and graphic design in various mediums such as print, television and radio and in stadium displays. Corporate Communications is continuously striving to improve the team's website to make it the premier site for up to the minute Bears news. Their creative ideas include providing "hands-on" perspectives from both management and players to Bears fans. He also continues to emphasize the importance of fan relations and customer service, insisting on personalized attention from both ticket operations and fan services staff, along with enhancing the Bears' game day experience and expanding the club's special events and community relations efforts. In February of 2005, Phillips recognized other community builders as the chairman of the 11th Annual Chicago Development Awards, established to celebrate Chicago's neighborhoods, the best community development projects and the not-for-profit organizations behind them. Phillips' other community activities include serving on the board of directors for the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce.

Phillips served as the Bears' Vice President of Operations for six seasons starting in 1993. Recognized for his many years of handling the Bears' contract negotiations and team finances, Phillips is currently one of only two individuals in the NFL to serve on both the NFL Working Club Executive committee and the NFL Senior Club Executive committee, whose mission is to analyze both the financial and football operations of the Collective Bargaining Agreement, including mechanics of the salary cap and to provide critical input to the NFL Management Council as the League attempts to extend the labor piece with the players union. The NFL salary cap system is widely regarded as the best overall financial system in professional sports. Before becoming Vice President of Operations, Phillips served as the Director of Finance from 1987 to 1993, handling all player contract negotiations and overseeing the club's business operations. Phillips joined the Bears staff on September 28, 1983, as the team's Controller, a position he held for four years.

Prior to joining the Bears, Phillips was employed as an auditor and tax accountant with the international accounting firm Ernst & Whinney (now Ernst & Young), from 1979-83. He graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1979 with a degree in business and accounting. Phillips earned a master of marketing and management degree from the Kellogg Graduate School at Northwestern University in 1989.

Phillips was born in Oneida, N.Y., and grew up in Nashua, N.H. He and his wife, Katie, have three sons: Matthew (10), Max (8) and Frank (6).

JERRY ANGELO
General Manager

Since joining Chicago prior to the 2001 season, general manager Jerry Angelo has brought a clear vision to Bears football. Rewarding core players, building through the draft and managing the salary cap are the cornerstones of Angelo's direction. His plan has created stability in Chicago and generated hope as the Bears continue to build upon a strong nucleus of young talent.

Continuity in the Bears football operations was solidified in the 2004 off-season when Angelo hired Lovie Smith to be the 13th head coach in Chicago Bears history. Angelo and Smith spent five years (1996-2000) together in Tampa Bay, helping build a team that went on to capture a championship in 2002.

Angelo's mantra for the past four years has been "reward your own" and he has followed through by taking a proactive approach with the team's key players. A total of 13 current players, including Pro Bowlers Brian Urlacher, Olin Kreutz and Jerry Azumah, have received contract extensions since Angelo's arrival and over 75 percent of the Bears 2005 roster is signed through the next two seasons (not including the six 2005 draft picks).

Managing the salary cap is a key element to maintaining a team's continuity and adding talent through free agency. Angelo and his staff have excelled in this area allowing the Bears to attract key additions through the free agent market. Chicago got a jump on the market prior to free agency in the 2005 offseason when they signed Pro Bowl wide receiver Muhsin Muhammad one day after he was waived by the Carolina Panthers. The Bears carried that momentum into free agency by signing offensive tackle Fred Miller, guard/center Roberto Garza and wide receiver Eddie Berlin. In 2004 Chicago landed current starters offensive tackle John Tait, running back Thomas Jones and guard Ruben Brown to bolster the team's offense. Free agency has not been the only means used to add talent under Angelo. A late-March trade with Washington in 2004 added fullback Bryan Johnson to the roster. Angelo's personnel department has also tapped the waiver wire (Qasim Mitchell) and opponent's practice squads (Steve Edwards) for key contributors.

The draft has been the primary means to bringing new talent to the football team. Angelo and his scouting staff focused on providing the offense with players possessing play-making ability in the 2005 draft and took offensive skill-position players with each of their first four picks. Leading the way was the fourth overall selection, running back Cedric Benson. The Bears drafted defensive players with each of their final two picks, looking to further bolster a defense that was improved upon in the 2004 draft when Chicago tabbed six defensive prospects in eight selections, including top pick Tommie Harris. In 2003, Angelo orchestrated the League's most significant draft trade sending the fourth overall pick to the New York Jets in exchange for two first round selections (Michael Haynes and Rex Grossman). By the end of the draft weekend, Chicago had selected 12 players, the most of any team in the NFL. Angelo's last two draft have produced a aggregate total of 12 rookie starters combining to make 68 starts, 38 in 2003 and 30 in 2004.

In his first season leading the Bears football staff, Angelo helped guide the team to its first division title in 11 years. He was handed the reins of the Chicago Bears football operations on June 12, 2001 as the team's first general manager since 1986 (Jerry Vainisi). Angelo has 36 years of football experience, including 20 as a NFL scout and 18 in the NFC North Division (includes 15 years in former NFC Central Division). He oversees the Bears entire football staff including football operations, personnel and coaching along with all decisions regarding the draft, free agency, trades and the salary cap.

Angelo accepted his current post after spending 14 years overseeing Tampa Bay's scouting department as the Buccaneers' Director of Player Personnel. In Tampa, Angelo helped turn a team that averaged under five wins a season in its first 21 years of existence into a perennial playoff contender, as the Buccaneers averaged almost 10 wins over his last four years with three playoff berths and one NFC Championship appearance (1999). The Youngstown, Ohio, native was a key member in carrying out the philosophy of Tampa's rebuilding process. He contributed to drafting Pro Bowlers Tony Mayberry (1990), John Lynch (1993), Trent Dilfer (1994), Warren Sapp (1995), Derrick Brooks (1995), Mike Alstott (1996), Donnie Abraham (1996), Warrick Dunn (1997) and Martin Gramatica (1999). He also was a pivotal player in recruiting free agents Hardy Nickerson (1993), Jeff Christy (2000) and Randall McDaniel (2000), all of whom made trips to Hawaii donning a Bucs uniform. Overall, Angelo had a hand in Tampa's 32 Pro Bowl appearances by 14 different players from 1989 to 2000.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay in 1987, Angelo spent five seasons (1982-86) as a regional scout for the New York Giants, including their Super Bowl XXI campaign. He spent 1981 in the Canadian Football League as the Calgary Stampeders linebackers coach. Angelo broke into the NFL as a scout for the Dallas Cowboys in 1980. After playing defensive tackle for three years (1968-70) at Miami of Ohio for coaches Bo Schembechler and Bill Mallory, Angelo graduated with a bachelor's degree in social sciences and a master's in secondary administration while working as a graduate assistant at the university in 1971. He went on to coach eight more years in the collegiate ranks beginning at Colorado State as a part-time defensive line coach (1972) and ending with a five-year stint as the D-line coach at Syracuse (1975-79). In 1973 and 1974, he served as the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for the University of Tampa before the Spartans cut the football program.

Jerry and his wife, Bernie, have two daughters, Leisa, who is married to Brad Rice, and Sutton.

Lovie Smith
Head Coach (2nd Season)

Lovie Smith is in his second season as the head coach of the Chicago Bears after being the 13th man named to that post in team history on January 15, 2004. Presiding over the youngest team in the NFL while battling through a spate of injuries that robbed the team of the services of several of its headline players, the Bears posted a 5-11 record in Smith's first season at the helm.

While striving to improve the team's record in 2005, Smith laid the foundation for success in Chicago in 2004 by establishing his cornerstone of aggressive defensive play. The Bears set a franchise record with six defensive touchdowns and matched another with three safeties en route to leading the NFC in defensive scoring. The Bears also nearly doubled their sack total from the previous season in 2004 while also forcing nine more turnovers than they did in 2003. Showing consistent in-game defensive improvement from the first half to the second half throughout Smith's inaugural season as a head coach, Chicago's defense held six opponents to three points or less in the second half while limiting five opponents to less than 100 yards of total offense after half-time. The Bears defense also led the NFL in third-down efficiency and paced the NFC (fourth in NFL) in red-zone defense.

Smith came to Chicago with the reputation for being proficient at instituting positive change after he engineered a dramatic turnaround as the defensive coordinator of the Rams from 2001 through 2003. Known for his acumen in teaching and motivating young talent, Smith took on the added responsibility of Assistant Head Coach with the Rams prior to the 2003 season.

In Smith's first season as an NFL defensive coordinator with St. Louis in 2001, Smith helped the Rams return to the Super Bowl after missing the playoffs the previous season as the Smith-led defense improved by 12 points and 68 total yards per game from the previous year. Smith coached on playoff teams in four of his last five campaigns as an assistant and has done so in five of his nine NFL seasons overall. The native Texan was sought out to take over the Rams defense after five seasons coaching linebackers under Tony Dungy from 1996-2000.

During his three years in St. Louis, Smith molded a young defensive group into one of the NFL's most aggressive units. The Rams ranked among the League leaders in takeaways and sacks during his three years in St. Louis. From 2001-03, the Rams ranked third in the NFL in takeaways and fumble recoveries, tied for sixth in sacks, and tied for eighth in interceptions. Smith helped steward St. Louis to shutouts in both 2001 and 2003, the first white-washings by the Rams organization since 1994. The efforts of Smith's defense were rarely lost in the outcome of St. Louis games during his tenure as the team's 33 wins ranked as the third-most in the NFL during that time (33; GB, 34; PHI, 35). He capped his stint in St. Louis in 2003 by orchestrating one of the NFL's most productive units in recent memory as the Rams were among the League leaders in takeaways, defensive touchdowns, and sacks in 2003. In that year, St. Louis led the NFL with 46 takeaways while tying for fourth with 24 interceptions and leading the NFL with 22 fumble recoveries. That season's takeaway total is tied with the 1999 Eagles for the third-highest single-season total in the NFL since 1993 (2000 Ravens, 49; 1993 Bills, 47). St. Louis ranked fourth in the NFL by scoring five defensive touchdowns in 2003 and also posted the fourth-most sacks in the NFL.

Lovie Smith - Head Coach
Born: 1958, Gladewater, Texas

Playing Experience
Linebacker, Tulsa, 1976; Strong Safety, 1977-79

Coaching Experience
Pro coach: Chicago Bears (head coach) 2004-present; St. Louis Rams (assistant head coach/defensive coordinator) 2003; St. Louis Rams (defensive coordinator) 2001-02; Tampa Bay Buccaneers (linebackers) 1996-2000. College coach: Ohio State (defensive backs) 1995; Tennessee (defensive backs) 1993-94; Kentucky (linebackers) 1992; Arizona State (linebackers) 1988-1991; Wisconsin (linebackers) 1987; Tulsa (linebackers) 1983-86.

Smith guided St. Louis to a defensive resurgence upon taking over in 2001. Inheriting a defense coming off a season in which it ranked 23rd in the NFL in total defense while allowing over 29 points per game, Smith improved the unit to third in the NFL in total defense while permitting only 17.0 points per game. In addition to leading the NFC in total defense in 2001 after ranking 10th the previous year, the Rams led the conference in fewest first downs allowed, fewest rushing first downs allowed, fewest first-down yards allowed, fewest first-down plays against, and fewest first-down yards per play allowed. Specifically, the St. Louis defense made one-year leaps to third from 13th in the NFL in run defense and 10th from 27th in the NFL in pass defense while improving to a conference-high 14 wins from 10 in 2000. Other highlights for the Rams defense in 2001 were ranking second in first downs allowed and seventh in points allowed per game while recording five defensive touchdowns. Smith and the Rams accomplished all this with seven new defensive starters in 2001, including two rookies.

In 2002, the Rams defense finished tied for fourth in the NFC and tied for fifth in the NFL in fewest touchdowns allowed. The unit was stingy on third down as well, ranking sixth in the NFC and eighth in the NFL in third-down efficiency. During three straight games that November, St. Louis' defense yielded a mere 418 passing yards, the lowest three-game total by the franchise since 1988. Smith's unit also contributed to a five-game winning streak that season by allowing just one offensive touchdown per game, the longest such streak for the team since 1999.

Preceding his success in St. Louis, Smith contributed to the revival of Tampa Bay's defense as the Buccaneers linebacker coach from 1996-2000. Tampa's defense hadn't ranked above 20th in the NFL in the four seasons prior to Smith's arrival under head coach Tony Dungy and defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin, but had ranks of 11th in 1996, third in 1997, second in 1998, third in 1999, and ninth in 2000. During the five seasons with Smith on the Bucs staff, the team allowed less than 300 points each year while permitting an average of 16.9 points and 258.8 yards per game. Tampa Bay posted only two defensive touchdowns in Smith's first three years, but improved with two in '99 and a franchise-record six in 2000.

Smith's tutelage has consistently brought out the best in his players. As linebackers coach at Tampa Bay, Smith helped Derrick Brooks develop into one of the NFL's best linebackers. Brooks had a pedestrian 79 tackles as a rookie in 1995 before Smith joined the staff for the 1996 campaign. That season Brooks went over 100 tackles and was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career, a pair of streaks that were extended to nine consecutive in 2004. Also in 1996, Smith guided Hardy Nickerson to his second career Pro Bowl appearance after not being named the two previous seasons. Brooks and Nickerson combined to be named to eight Pro Bowls under Smith.

Individual success has continued for players under Smith since he began overseeing the defensive operations for St. Louis in 2001. Defensive end Leonard Little received his first career Pro Bowl berth in 2003 after his third consecutive season with at least 12 sacks. In Smith's first year with the Rams, Little led the team with a career-high 14.5 sacks in only 13 games played while playing primarily on passing downs. The other starting defensive end during Smith's three years in St. Louis was Grant Wistrom, the owner of 45 sacks in seven NFL seasons. Wistrom ranked second on the Rams in sacks each of the three years under Smith with three of his four career multi-sack games coming during that time. With a career-high five sacks in 2003, safety Adam Archuleta set the St. Louis Rams sack record for defensive backs under Smith's guidance. Little and Aeneas Williams were named to the Pro Bowl under Smith's guidance in 2003 while Williams also did so in 2001. Williams and Wistrom were first-team All-Pro selections in 2001 while Archuleta and Tommy Polley earned All-Rookie status that season. Additionally, St. Louis defenders earned four NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors under Smith in 2001 with three more being received in 2003 along with a pair of NFC Defensive Player of the Month awards.

Overall, Smith has spent 22 years in coaching at the collegiate and professional levels. He began his coaching career at his hometown high school, Big Sandy High School, in 1980 before moving to Cascia Hall Prep in Tulsa the following year. Two years later, Smith made the jump to the college ranks at his alma mater of Tulsa as linebackers coach, where he stayed through 1986. Smith moved on to coach linebackers at Wisconsin (1987), Arizona State (1988-91), and Kentucky (1992). Smith was the defensive backs coach at Tennessee (1993-94) and Ohio State (1995).

A native of Big Sandy, Texas, Smith led the Big Sandy Wildcats to three consecutive state championships in high school and was all-state three years as an end and linebacker. Smith was a two-time all-America and three-time all-Missouri Conference defensive back at Tulsa.

Lovie and his wife, MaryAnne, have three sons, Mikal, Matthew, and Miles, and twin grandsons, Malachi and Noah.

RON RIVERA
Defensive Coordinator

Former Bears linebacker Ron Rivera is in his second season as Chicago's defensive coordinator, guiding a unit that led the NFC with a team-record six defensive touchdowns in his first campaign. Rivera was named to his current position on January 23, 2004, after spending five seasons as linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles (1999-2003). Rivera, who played nine seasons for the Bears (1984-92), was a member of Chicago's Super Bowl championship team in 1985 and began his coaching career as a defensive quality control assistant with the team in 1997.

In his first season as an NFL defensive coordinator, Rivera oversaw the highest scoring defense in team history and presided over an increase of nine takeaways from the previous year. The Bears thrived in third-down situations as well as inside its own 20-yard line during Rivera's first season at the helm. Chicago's defense led the NFL in third-down efficiency (30.5%) and led the NFC (fourth NFL) in red zone defense (42.6%). Most importantly, Rivera's young defense demonstrated in-game improvement from the first half to the second half throughout the 2004 campaign, holding six opponents to three points or less in the second half while limiting five opponents to less than 100 yards of total offense after half-time.

While in Philadelphia, the Eagles advanced to the NFC Championship game each of his final three seasons and during that stretch ranked near the top of the League in fewest points allowed (15.3 ppg), third down efficiency (32.4%), sacks (189), opponent quarterback rating (73.2) and takeaways (128). In 2001, the Eagles defense allowed fewer than 21 points in each of their 16 games for just the fourth time in League history and, during Rivera's first year on the job (1999), Philadelphia led the NFL with 46 takeaways including a team record five interceptions returned for touchdowns. Rivera helped develop LB Jeremiah Trotter into a two-time Pro Bowl performer with the Eagles. During Rivera's five years overseeing the Eagles linebackers, he worked with the top tacklers on the team as each of the three starters consistently ranked in the top five on the team in tackles and as a group averaged 387 tackles per season (129 tackles per starting linebacker).

Rivera, a second-round draft choice by the Bears in 1984, played in 149 games with 62 starts (including 12 postseason contests with six starts), posting 392 tackles (190 solo), nine interceptions, five forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries, 15 passes defended and seven quarterback sacks during his nine-year career.

Following his NFL playing career and prior to joining the coaching ranks in 1997, Rivera spent four years (1993-96) as an analyst covering the Bears and college football for SportsChannel, Chicago on television and on WSCR and WGN radio. He joined the Bears as the team's first defensive quality control coach (1997-98).

A consensus All-America selection as a linebacker at California, Rivera finished his collegiate career as the school's all-time sacks leader with 22 and first in career tackles with 336. Rivera still holds the Cal record for most tackles-for-a-loss in a season with 26.5 in 1983.

Rivera was born in Fort Ord, CA. With his father being an officer in the Army, Rivera lived in Germany, Panama, Washington and Maryland prior to moving to central California, where he attended Seaside High School. He and his wife, Stephanie, have one son, Christopher (19), and one daughter Courtney (12). Stephanie, a former basketball player at California, has served as an assistant women's basketball coach at Trinity International University (Deerfield, IL), the ABL's Chicago Condors (1997-98) and the WNBA's Washington Mystics (2000).

RON TURNER
Offensive Coordinator

Ron Turner began his second stint as the Bears offensive coordinator when he was hired on January 9, 2005, after eight seasons as the head coach at the University of Illinois. During his first tour with the Bears as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach from 1993-96, Turner guided some of the most prolific offenses in club history while serving as the last offensive coordinator to guide Chicago to a postseason win.

Working with a different starting QB each of his previous four years with the Bears, Turner helped Chicago to a 33-33 overall record while directing the offense. The Bears were 1-1 in the playoffs during that span, averaging 25.0 points per game. Chicago averaged 482 rushing attempts and 491 pass attempts per season under Turner and compiled over 4,600 total net yards each of his final three years. Team completion percentages in 1994 (61.4%) and 1995 (60.2%) rank as the highest in team history while the team's net passing yard total of 3,743 in 1995 and 3,185 in 1996 rank second and fourth, respectively, in team history.

In 1995, with Erik Kramer at QB, the Bears set a team record for passing yards per game with 233.9 while compiling the fourth-most points in team history with 392. Kramer set club records with 29 TD passes (most) and 10 INTs (least among 16-game starters) while standing as the last Chicago QB to start all 16 games in a season. The 1995 squad also produced the third-most total net yards (5,673) and the second-most first downs (340) in team history. The 1,930 rushing yards compiled in 1995 on 492 attempts (3.9 ypc) still stand as the team's highest single-season total since the Bears rushed for 1,949 yards on 502 attempts (3.9 ypc) in 1991. The offense featured a 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in 1995, the only such season in team history.

The 28-year coaching vet concluded his Illinois career as the school's fourth-winningest coach, going 35-57 while guiding the Illini to two bowl bids highlighted by a Big Ten championship in 2001 and a BCS Bowl bid to the 2002 Nokia Sugar Bowl. The unanimous 2001 Big Ten Coach of the Year presided over three of the Illini's all-time top five offenses in terms of total yards while four of his eight Illinois squads currently rank in the school's top 10 for scoring, including a school-record 390 points in 2001. Three of the top five all-time leading rushers at Illinois and three of the school's top 10 all-time leading receivers played during the Turner era. There were 20 former Illini who played under Turner on NFL rosters during the 2004 season.

A second-team junior college All-America wide receiver at Diablo Valley Community College, Turner earned a scholarship to the University of the Pacific where he led the Tigers in receiving in 1975 and 1976 and totaled 40 receptions for 666 yards and three touchdowns. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Pacific before earning his first full-time college job coaching running backs and receivers at Arizona (1978-80). Turner moved on to be an assistant at Northwestern (1981-82), Pittsburgh (1983-84), Southern California (1985-87), Texas A&M (1988) and Stanford (1989-91) before earning his first head coaching job at San Jose State (1992).

Turner was born in Martinez, CA. He and his wife, Wendy, have two sons, Morgan and Cameron, and two daughters, Callan and Madison.

DAVE TOUB
Special Teams Coordinator

Dave Toub brought a proven special teams plan with him from Philadelphia when he was hired as the Bears special teams coordinator on January 24, 2004, and implemented that plan successfully in his first season in Chicago. Toub is in his second season in his current position with the Bears following three years with the Eagles as an assistant on special teams while also aiding the defensive line.

Chicago finished Toub's first year ranked 10th in the NFL in the composite special teams rankings (as tabulated by the Dallas Morning News). The top-10 ranking marked the second in succession for the Bears and was highlighted by a League-low opponent net punt average which resulted from Chicago's third-ranked punt return unit. Arguably Toub's greatest accomplishment during his first season as an NFL special teams coordinator was molding one of the NFL's top kick coverage units despite losing the four leading special teams tacklers from the previous season. The Bears allowed the eighth-lowest punt return average in the NFL in 2004 and the 14th-lowest kickoff return average while their net punt yard average was the third-highest in the League.

During his stint with Philadelphia (2001-03), Toub helped Eagles special teams coordinator John Harbaugh earn 2001 NFL Special Teams Coach-of-the-Year honors. Twice during Toub's time in Philly (2001, 2003), the Eagles scored out as the top special teams unit in the NFL. A ninth-round draft choice of the Eagles in 1985, Toub returned to Philadelpha 16 years later (2001) as the team's special teams/quality control coach.

Toub spent 15 seasons coaching at the college level before making the jump to the NFL, highlighted by 12 years at Missouri (1989-2000). Bob Babich, in his second season as the Bears linebackers coach, was hired on January 17, 2004, after serving in the same capacity for the St. Louis Rams in 2003. Babich was the first coach to join head coach Lovie Smith's new staff in Chicago, following his former defensive coordinator from St. Louis to the Bears. Smith and Babich first worked together in the collegiate ranks at Tulsa (1984-86) where Smith oversaw the linebackers and Babich worked with tight ends and assisted with the offensive line.

The 19-year college coach, in his third year coaching NFL linebackers and ninth year overall at the position, had a successful first year with the Bears and his linebacker corps led by four-time Pro Bowler Brian Urlacher and 2005 Pro Bowl alternate Lance Briggs. His unit greatly contributed to Chicago's improved takeaway total in 2004 and the team-record six defensive touchdowns.

St. Louis defenders also ranked fourth in the NFL in sacks in 2003, up from seventh in 2002.

Prior to joining the Rams, Babich spent six seasons as head coach at North Dakota State University (1997-2002). In his first head coaching job, Babich amassed a 46-22 career mark by posting five winning seasons with two NCAA Division II playoff appearances. The Bison were 9-2 in the regular season in his first year in 1997 and 12-1 in 2000, reaching the national semifinals before losing to eventual national champion Delta State. Babich's son, Bobby, played for his dad at NDSU and is in his third season as a starting cornerback for the Bison.

A native of Aliquippa, Pa., Babich served 12 seasons as an assistant coach at the NCAA Division I level at five different schools, most recently instructing linebackers at Pittsburgh (1994-96). Babich began his career as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Tulsa (1984), before being promoted to tight ends coach (1985), assistant offensive line (1986) and strong safeties (1987). Babich was an assistant at Wisconsin for two seasons, one as an assistant offensive line coach (1988) and one as tight ends coach (1989). Babich coached linebackers at Bowling Green (1991) and East Carolina (1992-93) before joining the Panthers in 1994.

DARRYL DRAKE
Wide Receivers

Darryl Drake, in his second season as the Bears wide receivers coach, was hired by Chicago on February 6, 2004 as a veteran of 21 seasons as a coach at the collegiate level. Drake was charged with mentoring one of the youngest wide receiver corps in the NFL in his first season with the team and helped two players achieve career-highs in receiving yardage.

Drake joined the Bears after six seasons (1998-2003) as the receivers coach at the University of Texas, adding the title of associate head coach on Mack Brown's Longhorns staff prior to the 2003 season. Drake guided three different Longhorns wide receivers to first-team all-Big 12 honors and directed three of the most productive receiving duos in UT history. He also coached the only 1,000-yard receivers in the school's history.

During Drake's tenure with the Longhorns, Texas averaged nearly 10 wins a season, including 32 wins during the three seasons Drake mentored first-round draft pick Roy Williams, who finished his UT career as the leading receiver in school history with 251 receptions for 4,017 yards (16.0 yards per receptions) and 37 touchdowns. He also coached Wane McGarity, a fourth-round draft pick of the Dallas Cowboys in 1999, and Kwame Cavil who earned second-team All-America and first-team all-Big 12 honors in 1999.

Prior to his time at Texas, Drake spent one season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Baylor (1997) after five seasons coaching wide receivers at Georgia (1992-96). During his time with the Bulldogs, Drake tutored some of the top receivers in the Southeastern Conference: Andre Hastings, Brice Hunter and NFL Pro Bowler Hines Ward.

Drake began his coaching career at Western Kentucky as a graduate assistant coach (1983-84) and spent nine seasons with the Hilltoppers, working with the wide receivers for four seasons (1985-88), the secondary for two years (1989-90) and was the passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach for one season (1991). He starred as a wide receiver for WKU in 1975 and during the 1977 and '78 seasons. He helped the Hilltoppers to an 8-2 record and the Ohio Valley Conference Championship as a senior and was a member of their 11-2 OVC Championship squad that played in the NCAA Division II Championship game in '75.

Following his collegiate career, Drake spent time in professional football with the Washington Redskins (1979), Ottawa Roughriders of the Canadian Football League ('81) and Cincinnati Bengals ('83). The Louisville, Ky., native earned his bachelor's (1980) and master's (1984) degrees from Western Kentucky.

Drake was an all-state performer in football and an All-American in both track & field and basketball at Flaget High School in Louisville. He and his wife, Sheila, have three daughters, Shanice, Felisha and Marian.

Two of the NFL's ten-biggest single-game attendance totals have occurred at games involving the Chicago Bears.

The then-defending World Champs squared off against the College All-Stars on August 22, 1947, at Soldier Field, in front of 105,840—the third-highest total in NFL history, and the highest in a game played within U.S. borders. The 1942 College All-Star game at Soldier Field drew 101,100 fans—10th all-time.

The Cowboys and Oilers played in front of 112,376 paying customers in a pre-season game in Mexico City (August 15, 1994) for the NFL attendance mark.

PERRY FEWELL

Defensive Backs

Seven-year NFL veteran Perry Fewell is in his first season as the Bears defensive backs coach after being hired on January 20, 2005. Fewell spent the previous two seasons as the secondary coach for the St. Louis Rams after serving five seasons in the same position for the Jacksonville Jaguars (1998-2002).

Fewell has coached two Pro Bowlers during his NFL tenure: safety Carnell Lake with Jacksonville in 1999 and safety Aeneas Williams with St. Louis in 2003. In his first season in St. Louis where he coached under then-defensive coordinator Lovie Smith, Fewell helped the Rams tie for fourth in the NFL with 24 interceptions. In Jacksonville, he helped the Jaguars register a franchise-record 19 interceptions in 1999. Fewell has coached in the playoffs in four of his seven NFL seasons.

Prior to advancing to the NFL, Fewell spent 13 seasons as an assistant coach in college. As the secondary coach at Vanderbilt from 1995-97 (assistant head coach/secondary in 1997), Fewell tutored two players who are currently playing in the NFL. Minnesota's Corey Chavous, a 2003 Pro Bowler, finished his career in 1997 with the fourth-most interceptions in Commodores history before being drafted in the second round by Arizona. San Francisco cornerback and returner Jimmy Williams finished his career in 1997 with the seventh-most interceptions all-time at Vandy after beginning his career with one season under Fewell. Originally drafted in the sixth round by Buffalo in 2001, Williams started a career-high six of 12 games played for the 49ers in 2004.

Fewell began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at North Carolina from 1985-86, followed by a season as the defensive backs coach at Army in 1987. He coached wide receivers at Kent State from 1988-91, before returning to Army as the defensive line coach from 1992-94.

A four-year letterwinning defensive back at Lenoir-Rhyne College, Fewell was named the team's most improved player in 1983. He attended South Point High School in Belmont, N.C. and was inducted into the Belmont Sports Hall of Fame in 2001. Fewell and his wife, Kathleen, have one son.

HARRY HIESTAND
Offensive Line

Harry Hiestand, in his first season as the Bears offensive line coach, was hired on January 11, 2005, after serving in the same capacity at the University of Illinois the last eight seasons. A 22-year coaching veteran, Hiestand has been coaching offensive linemen and tight ends since 1983, and added the title of assistant head coach of the Fighting Illini in 2000. For the past 16 consecutive seasons, Hiestand has been the offensive line coach at three Division I schools.

During his tenure at Illinois, Hiestand tutored 12 all-Big Ten selections on the offensive line. Every senior starting offensive linemen in Hiestand's first seven years with the Illini was signed to an NFL contract for at least one season. After the 2002 season, seniors Tony Pashos and Dave Diehl were fifth-round picks in the 2003 NFL Draft. In 2004, former Illini Sean Bubin was drafted by Jacksonville and Duke Preston was a fourth-round pick by Buffalo.

Hiestand joined Illinois in 1997 after spending three seasons as the offensive line coach at Missouri (1994-96), helping the Tigers produce the ninth-leading rushing attack in the NCAA with a rushing average of 250.7 yards per game in 1996. In that same season, three of Hiestand's offensive linemen earned all-Big 12 honors. Prior to his stint at Missouri, Hiestand coached the offensive line at Cincinnati for five seasons (1989-93), was the run-game coordinator in 1992 and offensive coordinator in 1993. Hiestand also helped coach the offensive line at Toledo in 1988, was a graduate assistant at Southern California in 1987 and tight ends and assistant offensive line coach at Pennsylvania in 1986.

The Malvern, Pa., native began his coaching career at his alma mater, East Stroudsburg University, after an injury ended his playing career. Hiestand played two years at Springfield College before spending one season at East Stroudsburg. Of his seven previous coaching stops, Hiestand has been a part of a league championship team at five of those: East Stroudsburg (1982-82), Penn (1986), USC (1987), Cincinnati (1993) and Illinois (2001). He was also on the Trojan staff for the 1988 Rose Bowl.

Hiestand earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education from East Stroudsburg in 1983. He and his wife, Terri, have three sons, Michael, Matthew and Mark, and one daughter, Sarah.

Don Johnson, in his first season as the Bears defensive line coach, was hired on February 16, 2005, following five seasons at UCLA. Johnson served as the Bruins defensive line coach from 2001-04 and recruiting coordinator in 2004.

Johnson spent 18 seasons coaching at the collegiate level. Led by 2003 ABC-Chevrolet National Defensive Player-of-the-Year, defensive end Dave Ball, Johnson had three linemen invited to the NFL combine in 2004. He tutored several all-conference players during his tenure with the Bruins which began with one year as the interior defensive line coach in 2000.

Prior to his stint at UCLA, the New Jersey native coached defensive ends and the punt return unit at Nevada-Reno from 1995-99. The Wolfpack won three conference titles and made two bowl appearances during his tenure. While at UNR, Johnson spent two offseasons in the NFL minority coaching internship program with the San Francisco 49ers under then-head coach Steve Mariucci.

He spent eight years coaching at two different colleges in southern California. He began his college coaching career in 1987 as an assistant at Riverside Community College where he helped guide the team to four bowl appearances and a Junior College national championship in 1989, posting an 11-0 record. He spent two years at Cal State Fullerton from 1991-92 before the school dropped the football program then returned to Riverside for two seasons.

Johnson began his coaching career at Santa Ana (CA) Valley High School from 1977 to 1982 and then returned to coach linebackers at his alma mater, Jersey City State, for two years (1984-85). He went back to coach at Valley High in 1986 before moving up to Riverside College.

Johnson spent 25 years as a high school and college basketball official, including eight years at the Division I level. He spent four years as President of the Orange County (CA) Basketball Officials Association and two years as President of the California Basketball Officials Association. He and his wife, Deborah, have two daughters, Denise and Leanna, and one son, Don, Jr. A fourth, son Duane, died in an automobile accident in February of 2002.

TIM SPENCER
Running Backs

Tim Spencer, in his second season as the Bears running backs coach, was named to his current position on January 27, 2004 following 10 seasons of tutoring the ball carriers at his alma mater of the Ohio State University. Spencer was the position coach for Maurice Clarett during the Buckeyes national championship season in 2002 and Eddie George during his Heisman Trophy-winning season of 1995.

Spencer was part of three Big Ten championship teams (1996, 1998, 2003) as a coach at OSU and was part of an offensive attack which led the Big Ten in scoring offense and total offense three of his 10 seasons (1995, 1996, 1998). Including Clarett (1) and George (2), he produced 1,000-yard rushers six times during his 10-year tenure (Pepe Pearson, 1; Michael Wiley, 1; and Jonathan Wells, 1) including George's school single-season record of 1,927 yards in 1995.

Spencer brought that success with him to the NFL in his first season as he helped Thomas Jones establishing career-highs in rushing yards, 52 shy of his first 1,000-yard season, and receptions, setting a Bears single-season record for a running back with 56. Jones accounted for 36 percent of Chicago offensive yardage output while leading the team with a career-high seven touchdowns. Fullback Bryan Johnson also had a career season under Spencer's tutelage, setting a career-high with two touchdown catches to tie for the team lead.

A running back at Ohio State from 1979-1982, Spencer was the second player taken in the 1983 USFL draft where he played one year each for Chicago (1983), Arizona (1984) and Memphis (1985) before signing with the San Diego Chargers (1985-90) where he was a four-year starter at fullback. He returned to Ohio State in 1993 after retiring from professional football to finish his degree requirements and was named to John Cooper's coaching staff prior to the 1994 season.

The Buckeyes' starting fullback as a sophomore, he moved to tailback his final two years and led the team in rushing both of those seasons. He closed out his career with 3,553 yards rushing and still ranks third on OSU's all-time rushing list, trailing only Heisman Trophy winners Archie Griffin (5,589) and George (3,768).

Spencer was the Buckeyes' co-captain and MVP as a senior. He also was MVP of the 1982 Holiday Bowl, rushing for 167 yards and two touchdowns in the Buckeyes' 47-17 win over Brigham Young. During his four years at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 38-10 and played in four bowl games, including the 1980 Rose Bowl. Spencer and his wife, Gilda, have two sons, Cole (19) and Evan (12).

RARE ROAD OPENER IN 2005

The Bears open their 2005 season on the road for the third time in the last six seasons, but only the sixth time in the last 24 years, when they open in the nation's capital against the Washington Redskins on Sept. 11. The game will mark the first time in franchise history the Bears will open a season in Washington, D.C.

Chicago is 1-4 in its last five road games to open a season, including three consecutive losses with the most recent loss being at San Francisco in 2003. The Bears last opened a season with a win on the road in 1970 with a 24-16 triumph over the New York Giants at Yankee Stadium on Sept. 19.

WADE WILSON
Quarterbacks

Wade Wilson is in his second season as the Bears quarterbacks coach. The 23-year NFL veteran was named to his current position on February 9, 2004. Prior to joining the Bears, Wilson spent three seasons (2000-02) in the same role for the Dallas Cowboys following a 19-year playing career, which is surpassed by only seven other players in the history of the League (George Blanda, 26; Morten Andersen and Gary Anderson, 23; Earl Morrall, 21; Jim Marshall, Jackie Slater and Darrell Green, 20).

Wilson's first season with Chicago was marked by four quarterbacks starting at least three games for the Bears. Rex Grossman opened the season as the starter, but was lost for the year due to injury in the third game. Veteran Jonathan Quinn was called on to make the next three starts, but indifferent results led to the accelerated insertion of rookie Craig Krenzel. The fifth-round draft pick performed well and won his first three starts, but a season-ending injury in his fifth start led to Chad Hutchinson being made the starter for the last five games. Hutchinson's ascension marked the second time in Wilson's coaching career that he had to prep four different signal-callers to start in a single season. He previously did so in his second season with Dallas (2001) when the Cowboys had four different starting quarterbacks in a single season for the first time in their history.

Wilson's first season with the Cowboys coincided with veteran QB Troy Aikman's final year with the team. Wilson was called upon to prep four different quarterbacks for game action when Aikman started 11 games but was forced to miss five starts and parts of three other games with injuries. The four QBs in a season were a Dallas franchise record as Randall Cunningham relieved Aikman on two occasions and started three games, while Clint Stoerner and Anthony Wright also saw action under center during the 2000 season.

Drafted in the eighth round (210th overall) of the 1981 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings, the future Pro Bowler (1988) led the Vikings to three playoff appearances in 11 seasons (1981-91) including the 1987 NFC Championship game. Wilson also spent time with the Atlanta Falcons (1992), New Orleans Saints (1993-94), Dallas Cowboys (1995-97) and Oakland Raiders (1998-99). He served as Aikman's backup on the Cowboys Super Bowl XXX championship team in 1995. Wilson completed his pro career with a 75.6 quarterback rating, completing 1,391 passes on 2,428 attempts for 17,283 yards. In 1988 (with Minnesota) he led the NFC with a 91.5 quarterback rating, completing 204 of 332 passes (61.4%) for 2,746 yards, 15 touchdowns and nine interceptions. His 61.4 percent completion rate led the NFL that season.

Wilson was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at East Texas State University, where he earned NAIA All-America and Lone Star Conference MVP honors as a senior while leading the conference in passing and total offense, completing 338 of 668 passes for 4,414 yards and 32 touchdowns during his four years with the Lions.

Wilson majored in business management at ETSU, and has his real estate license and his SEC-series seven registration. He has four children; Travis Wade, Hayden, and twins Coleton and Sophie.

A native of Bloomington, Minn., Lee originally entered the NFL as a college free agent with the San Diego Chargers in 1998. Lee spent time on the Chargers roster and practice squad during the 1998 and 1999 seasons. He was a four-year starter at safety at Dartmouth College (1994-98), earning Division I-AA All-America honors and was an all-ECAC selection while helping lead Dartmouth to an undefeated season and Ivy League Championship in 1996. Lee, who was born August 10, 1976, in Minneapolis, Minn., is married to Katy.

RUSTY JONES
Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

A veteran of 20 NFL seasons, Rusty Jones was hired as the Bears strength and conditioning coordinator on February 3, 2005. Coming to Chicago from Buffalo, Jones is just the third full-time strength coach in team history since the position was created in 1974.

Jones had spent his entire NFL career with the Buffalo Bills after being hired in June of 1985. He spent 19 years as their strength and conditioning coordinator before being promoted to director of physical development/assistant to the head coach prior to the 2004 season.

During his tenure in Buffalo, Jones worked under six head coaches including Hall of Famer Marv Levy and worked with over 25 different Pro Bowlers including Hall of Famers Jim Kelly and James Lofton. The Bills qualified for the playoffs in 10 of Jones' 20 seasons with the team, including four consecutive Super Bowl appearances.

Recognized around the NFL as one of the finest strength, conditioning and nutrition experts in the business, Jones was instrumental in creating a nutritional program specifically designed for each Bills player to maximize performance and to maintain year-round health. Jones gained league-wide notoriety for getting Buffalo's players in top physical condition while the Bills enjoyed success running the "no-huddle" offense in the early 1990's. Prior to joining the Bills in June of 1985, Jones spent two years as the conditioning supervisor for the DeBartolo Corporation, working in Pittsburgh with the Penguins, Spirit and Maulers (1983-84).

Jones earned a physical education degree from Springfield College (Mass.) and taught for two years at Dover High School in New Hampshire. The native of Berwick, Maine and Noble High School returned to Springfield to earn a master's degree in exercise physiology (1979-82), serving as a graduate assistant with the football program during that time.

Jones and his wife, Sharon, have one son, Tyler. Sharon is a professional singer who often performed the national anthem at Bills games.

JIM ARTHUR
Strength & Conditioning Assistant

Jim Arthur enters his first season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Bears after spending three seasons as an intern with the Buffalo Bills. He makes the move to Chicago with his Buffalo mentor, Rusty Jones, who joined the Bears organization in 2005 after 20 years with the Bills.

Arthur will assist Jones with implementing and overseeing the team's strength, conditioning, speed, agility and nutritional programs. He will also perform flexibility enhancing techniques, measure and evaluate player body composition while educating the athletes on proper nutritional guidelines, including hydration and muscle glycogen repletion.

Arthur began his coaching career at his alma mater, Springfield College (MA), working as a student assistant until his graduation in 2000, then as a graduate assistant where he earned his Master of Education in Applied Exercise Science in 2002. He interned at Louisiana Tech University during the summer of 2001 and at Boston College while finishing his master's degree in 2002 before joining the Bills.

BOBBY DePAUL
Director of Pro Personnel

Bobby DePaul is in his fifth season as the Bears director of pro personnel, joining the organization prior to its 2001 NFC Central Division championship. Hired on June 19, 2001, the 16-year NFL veteran came to Chicago after serving as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles player personnel department for four years following an eight-year career as an NFL assistant coach.

DePaul evaluates players in the professional ranks, prepares the club for its acquisitions through free agency or the waiver wire and manages the advance scouting of Bears opponents. In addition to supervising the pro personnel department, DePaul has a hand in day-to-day football operations, assisting with salary cap maintenance, contract negotiations and overseeing the development of scouting football systems technology.

DePaul entered the NFL in 1989, hired by former Bears defensive back Richie Petitbon as a member of Joe Gibbs' coaching staff at Washington where he stayed until 1993 after winning an NFL championship with the Redskins' Super Bowl XXVI victory over Buffalo. The Bowie, Md., native then served on the Bengals coaching staff for three seasons before joining the Eagles as a scout.

Born on January 24, 1963, DePaul attended Archbishop John Carroll High School in Washington, D.C., where he played fullback and linebacker on a team that lost only once during his three-year varsity career. DePaul attended the University of Maryland and played linebacker on three Atlantic Coast Conference champion Terrapin squads and made four bowl appearances under former Detroit Lions head coach and current Army head coach Bobby Ross. Bobby and his wife, Lisa, have two daughters, Ariel (12) and Ashley (10).

GREG GABRIEL
Director of College Scouting

Greg Gabriel is in his fifth season of coordinating the team's college scouting operations, helping the Bears prepare for the last four NFL drafts. Gabriel's first three drafts yielded 21 players who played multiple games with Chicago in 2004, including six opening-day starters. Gabriel joined the Bears on June 19, 2001, after serving as the Director of Player Development for the New York Giants. The Buffalo native joined the Giants scouting department during the 1985 offseason and went to three Super Bowls with the Giants--winning two. Prior to entering football, Gabriel was an account executive with Prudential-Bach and Dean Witter Reynolds while working part-time in the scouting department of the Buffalo Bills.

In his current role with the Bears, Gabriel schedules scouting visits, coordinates the college scouting system, evaluates collegiate players and plays an instrumental role in the development of draft board and the draft itself.

A native of Buffalo, Gabriel prepped at Bishop Neumann High School in Williamsville, N.Y. He was a running back at Canisius College for three seasons while earning a B.S. degree. Gabriel played eight seasons for the Twin City Geminis, a semi-pro team in the Buffalo area where he also coached the running backs and special teams for one season.

Gabriel was married following the 2004 NFL Draft (Robin) and has three daughters (Liza, Ryan and Kelsey), three stepchildren (sons Ryan and Nolan and daughter Emily) and two grandchildren (Jordan and Herman).

INSTANT REPLAY'S PLAYERS

The new instant replay system reinstated in 1999 uses digital computer technology, not video tape as was employed from 1986-91. The new system affords quicker access to replays. The system is initiated by challenges from the head coaches (two per game) in all but the final two minutes of each half, and by the replay official in the booth in the final two minutes and overtime. The booth will operate under a "two-minute" mode the entire game, lining up replays of every play in case a challenge is issued.

The system begins with a "live feed" from the network television control truck covering the game. The technician controls the monitor, cuing the live play and replay screens during action. His monitor can accommodate six replay angles of a single play. The replay assistant decides which replays will be relayed to the field monitor and whether an official's time out be called for a review in the final two minutes of a half or overtime. Replay assistants will have an NFL or college football officiating background and is the only direct link to the referee on the field. The video operator, at the instruction of the replay assistant, controls which replays that the on-field referee will view. He can control the speed of the digital video playback. The communicator will advise the replay assistant—who is busy viewing the monitor—before the next play has started, negating the possibility of a replay. He will also report to the replay assistant if an official ruling (e.g., holding, illegal procedure, etc.) has been made on the field, eliminating the need for a replay.

RULES of INSTANT REPLAY

A "buzzer system" will be used to signal the call for a replay. Before the final two minutes, the head coach will buzz the referee and replay booth that he challenges a play and wants a review. Within the final two minutes and OT, the booth will buzz the ref. The head coaches will wear a belt pack containing a buzzer. When pressed, the buzzer will simultaneously signal the referee, umpire, and replay booth that a replay is being requested. If the buzzer is not working, the coach needs to throw a flag onto the field to signal his request for replay.

There will be three replay monitors at field level in open-air stadiums. Two will be positioned at opposite 20-yard lines near the sideline wall. A third will be in the runway, for use if the weather is inclement. Two monitors will be in domed stadiums.

COACHES CHALLENGE: Outside of the final two minutes of each half, each team will be permitted two challenges per game that will initiate referee reviews. Each challenge will cost a team a time-out. If a challenge is upheld, the time-out will be restored, but the challenge will not. No challenges will be recognized from a team that has exhausted its time-outs.

FINAL TWO MINUTES OF EACH HALF: After the two-minute warning of each half, and throughout any overtime period, any referee review will be initiated by the replay assistant in the replay booth in the press box. He can initiate as many review requests as he thinks necessary, no matter how many time-outs the teams have. No time-out will be charged for a review initiated from the replay booth.

REFEREE REVIEW: All replay reviews will be conducted by the referee on a field-level monitor after consultation with the other covering officials on the play. A decision will be reversed only when the referee has "indisputable visual evidence" that the call should be changed. The referee cannot initiate a replay review in any instance.

TIME LIMIT: Reviews will be a maximum of 90 seconds, timed from when the referee puts on the head phones to the replay booth.

REVIEWABLE PLAYS: The instant replay system will cover a variety of plays in three main areas—1) sideline, goal line, end zone, and end-line plays; 2) passing plays; and 3) other detectable infractions, such as a runner ruled down not by defensive contact, and the number of players on the field.

FORMULA for QB RATING

"Quarterback Rating" is the most complicated of the NFL's official statistics. The formula uses five factors: attempts, completions, gross yardage, touchdowns and interceptions. It was designed so that a score of 100 would be great with 90 being very good, 80 being good — similar to an A-B-C grading scale.

Here's the formula which works when entered into Microsoft Excel. Be careful, there are 196 characters which must be typed perfectly, without any spaces, in order for everything to calculate correctly:

(MIN(2.375,((D1*100)/A1)*(0.2)),0))+(MAX(MIN(2.375,(((E1*100)/A1)
-9.5)(-0.25)),0))+(MAX(MIN(2.375,((C1/A1)-3)(0.25)),0)))*100)/6),1))

A1 = ATTEMPTS; B1 = COMPLETIONS; C1 = GROSS YARDS; D1 = TOUCHDOWNS; E1 = INTERCEPTIONS

Following the example of Rex Grossman who became the first Bears rookie QB dating back to 1965 to win his first two NFL starts in 2003, Craig Krenzel did one better in 2004. Krenzel became just the seventh NFL rookie QB since 1970 to win his first three starts in the League. Grossman was the first QB, regardless of experience, to win his first two starts with the Bears since Steve Walsh in 1994 and Krenzel surpassed that in 2004.

DECEMBER ROAD WOES

The Bears' have struggled in December and January road games for over a decade and are in the midst of a seven-game December road losing streak. In the last 35 road contests in or after the month of December, Chicago has flown home as winners only four times, including two road losses in December during the 2004 season. The record includes an 18-game losing streak from 1988 to 1996. The Bears snapped the 18-game losing streak on Sunday evening, Dec. 14, 1997, with a win in St. Louis. The streak spanned nearly a decade, as it was their first road victory in the month of December since a 6-3 triumph over the LA Raiders at the Coliseum on December 27, 1987—Walter Payton's final regular season game. Since snapping the 18-game losing streak, the Bears have won only three of the next 14 December road games. The Bears December road record since 1988:

NFL WALTER PAYTON "MAN OF THE YEAR"

The NFL Walter Payton "Man of the Year" award is the only League award that recognizes a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence. This prestigious NFL award has been in existence since 1970 and honors players who demonstrate outstanding balance in their lives between civic and professional responsibilities. In 1999, the league renamed the NFL Man of the Year award after Walter Payton as a tribute to his greatness both on and off the field. Since the program's inception in 1970, four Bears have earned the title of NFL "Man of the Year" - which is the most of any team in the NFL.

Past NFL Walter Payton "Man of the Year" winners have included:

1970 - Walter Payton, Running Back
1987 - Dave Duerson, Safety
1990 - Mike Singletary, Linebacker

John Tait was the Chicago Bears Walter Payton "Man of the Year" nominee for the 2004 football season. Tait was nominated due to the tremendous effort he gave by volunteering his time and energy to various charities.

Fueled by a 2004 mid-season flourish where four defensive players record a touchdown in a span of seven games, the Bears defense established a franchise record by producing six touchdowns and three safeties to account for 42 points. The 2004 Baltimore Ravens defense equaled Chicago's scoring output as the co-League leaders set their own franchise record with seven defensive TDs, five on INT returns and two fumble returns. The Bears scored on a club-record five INT returns and one fumble return. Chicago's defense had previously registered five scoring plays in three other seasons since 1965: 2001, 1993, 1985. KICKOFF WEEKEND WINS

The Bears own 48 opening day victories overall, more than any NFL franchise. The Dallas Cowboys are 30-14-1 on opening day and their .678 opening-day winning percentage (with at least 11 opening-day games) is tops in league history. The two teams squared off on Kickoff Weekend in 1996 and the Bears beat the Cowboys 22-6 on Monday Night Football at Soldier Field.

Chicago, 48-32-5 (.594) in 85 previous season openers, lost its season opener in 2004, dropping a 20-16 decision to the Detroit Lions at Soldier Field and has lost two season openers in a row.

The Indianapolis Colts entered the 2004 season having won five consecutive opening-day games but dropped a 27-24 decision to the New England Patriots. The Denver Broncos take over the current streak of opening-day wins, four, following a 34-24 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Dallas, previously mentioned with the top opening-day winning percentage, and Arizona each hold five-game opening-day losing streaks entering the 2005 season.

GEORGE S. HALAS

February 2, 1895 – October 31, 1983

Leading the Chicago Bears for more than a half-century, George S. Hala the team's founder and head coach for 40 years, was one of the most endu. ing personalities in sports history. Halas was active with the Bears startin in 1920 when he founded the team.

Halas was born and raised on Chicago's west side and prepped at Cran Tech High School before attending the University of Illinois. In Champaign he earned a B.S. degree while lettering in football, basketball and baseball. After graduation i 1918, Halas joined the Navy for the first of two tours of duty. He was named Player of the Gam in the 1919 Rose Bowl, playing end on the Great Lakes team that beat the Marines 17-0. A com mander when he left active duty in 1946, Halas retired as a captain in the Naval Reserve. H was also awarded the Distinguished Citizens Award – the highest honor the Navy can bestow on a civilian.

After leaving the Navy, Halas played right field for the New York Yankees, but a hip injur shortened his baseball career. Halas went to work for a Decatur (IL) corn products firm owne by an enthusiastic sports fan, Mr. A.E. Staley, who sponsored a semi-pro baseball team, an later commissioned Halas to organize an independent football team.

PRO CAREER: As a player, Halas set an NFL record (which stood 49 years until 1972 when he took a Jim Thorpe fumble 98 yards for a TD in a 26-0 win over the Oorang Indian at Wrigley Field (11/4/23). He played end for the Bears from 1920-29 and was named to th NFL all-pro squad of the 20s.

PRO COACHING CAREER: Four times Halas interrupted his coaching activities by hi own volition. He first turned over the leadership to Ralph Jones from 1930 through 1932. I 1942 when he left for the Navy, Luke Johnsos and "Hunk" Anderson shared head coachin responsibilities until '45. John "Paddy" Driscoll coached in 1956-57. Coincidentally, in '33 an again in '46 when Halas resumed coaching, his Bears won world championships.

During the 1940s, his teams reached the height of their power with four straight Weste Conference titles; three world championships; a fantastic four-season record (including pre season games) of 62-7-1 (.899); scored 2,164 points and allowed just 842. The 1940 team, whic defeated the Washington Redskins 73-0 for the World Championship, was voted the greates professional team of all-time by the National Academy of Sports Editors in 1963.

Resuming coaching in 1958, Halas needed five years to develop another champion, when i 1963 the Bears won their eighth championship. The Sporting News, AP, and UPI named hin Coach of the Year after the 1963 and 1965 seasons. Halas retired from coaching on May 27, 1968 with a career record of 324-151-31. His win total was the best in NFL history until Don Shul broke the mark on 11/14/93. Halas is a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

- There was no division winner in 1982 because of a players' strike. The top eight teams from each conference advanced to the post-season. However, with a 5-3-1 mark, Green Bay had the best record.
- Tampa Bay left the division in 2002 to join the NFC South and compiled an overall record of 146-229-1 (.390) and a division mark of 67-110-1 (.374), winning Central Division titles in 1979, '81 and '99. The Bucs record is from the five-team NFC Central which formed in 1978 and ended in 2001 when the League moved to four teams in four geographical divisions (North, South, East and West) in both conferences.

FOLLOW THE LEADER

Establishing a new career-high with 948 rushing yards in his first season with the Bears, Thomas Jones became the first running back other than Anthony Thomas to lead the Bears in rushing since James Allen in 2000. With a 4.0-yard average on 240 carries, Jones equaled or bested the rushing average of six 1,000-yard rushers in 2004, including 1,454-yard rusher Rudi Johnson of Cincinnati (4.0 ypc) and San Diego's LaDainian Tomlinson (3.9 ypc). Breaking Walter Payton's team record for receptions by a running back with a career-high 56 for 427 yards, Jones became the first Bears running back to lead the team in receptions since FB Brad Muster had a team-high 47 in 1990. Jones is Chicago's first player with 50 catches out of the backfield since RB Neal Anderson had a career-high 50 in 1989.

COLD-WEATHER GAMES

Chicago has a reputation for its brisk lakefront weather, and both Wrigley Field and Soldier Field have hosted at least a few knee-knocking games. However, the NFL Record & Fact Book lists the four coldest NFL games on record, none of which were in Chicago. The four coldest:

- -13 degrees (-48 wind chill): 12-31-67, Lambeau Field, Green Bay; NFL Championship Game (Packers 21, Cowboys 17).
- -9 degrees (-59 wind chill): 1-10-82, Riverfront Stadium, Cincinnati; AFC Championship (Bengals 27, Chargers 7).
- 0 degrees (-32 wind chill): 1-15-94, Rich Stadium, Orchard Park, NY; AFC Divisional Playoff (Bills 29, LA Raiders 23).
- 1 degree (wind chill not recorded): 1-4-81, Cleveland Stadium; AFC Divisional Playoff (Oakland Raiders 14, Browns 12).

Here are the temperatures for a few, famed inclement weather games in the Windy City:

- 54 degrees (Rain, fog, S wind 15 mph): Sayers 6 TD game, 12-12-65, Wrigley Field (Bears 61, 49ers 20)
- 39 degrees (W wind 23 mph): NFC Championship Game, 1-12-86, Soldier Field (Bears 24, LA Rams 0)
- 29 degrees (SW wind 5 mph): "Fog Bowl" Playoff Game, 12-31-88, Soldier Field (Bears 20, Eagles 12)
- 20 degrees, (NW wind 23 mph): Regular Season Finale, (Bears must win by 30+ points for playoff berth), 12-16-79, Soldier Field (Bears 42, St. Louis Cardinals 6)
- 14 degrees (W wind 13 mph): Divisional Playoff game, 1-5-86, Soldier Field (Bears 21, Giants 0)
- 11 degrees (W wind 11 mph): NFL Championship Game, 12-29-63, Wrigley Field (Bears 14, Giants 10)

40 RUSHES vs. 40 PASSES

Over the past 22 seasons when the Bears have rushed 40 or more times in a single game they have a 58-2 record. Chicago has won 42 straight 40-rush games dating back to 1984 including a 27-24 win over Washington in 2003 (40 rushes for 191 yards).

During the same 22-season period, the Bears are 11-36 when throwing 40 or more passes in one game. Last season, the Bears did not have either 40 rush or pass attempts in a single game. In 2003, Chicago threw 40 or more passes in three games, posting a 0-3 record, dropping a 38-23 decision to Green Bay (44 attempts), a 34-21 setback to Packers (40) and a 31-3 loss to Kansas City (42). The Bears cracked the 40-attempt barrier in three games in 2002 and had a 1-2 record, 2000 with an 0-3 record and 10 of 16 games in 1999, going 3-7 in the process. The team finished with an 0-2 record in 1998 when throwing 40 times, had a 1-4 record in 1997 and was 0-4 in '96.

ALL TIED UP

The Bears have had 42 ties in their 84-year history. However, their last knotted game was a 13-13 final against the Rams on September 24, 1972 -- 507 games ago. The Bears streak is the fifth-longest current tieless streak, as well as the fifth-longest in NFL history. New England (557 games) has the longest current streak and longest in league annals, followed by Cincinnati (524) and Dallas (523) with Tennessee right behind (503).

Since 1974, when sudden death overtime was introduced, there have been just 16 ties in the entire NFL --none by the Bears. The Bears rank second to New England (34) of having played in the most overtime games (30) without a tie.

Before the '97 season, the last tie in the NFL was a 10-10 contest between Kansas City and Cleveland on Nov. 19, 1989. The league played 1,836 games after the Chiefs-Browns clash, (including 109 advancing to overtime), without another tie...until Nov. 16, 1997, when the Ravens and Eagles finished a game knotted 10-10. The NFL didnít have to wait long before getting tied up again: the Redskins and Giants ended in a 7-7 deadlock the following week (November 23, 1997). The last tie was Nov. 10, 2002 when Pittsburgh and Atlanta played to a 34-34 deadlock.

First-round pick Tommie Harris was inserted into the starting lineup on opening day and started each of the 16 games, ranking third on the defensive line with 58 tackles and 3.5 sacks. Second-round pick Tank Johnson played all 16 games with one start, totaling 26 tackles and half a sack. Bernard Berrian, the Bears third-round pick, tied for the team lead with two TD receptions, playing in all 16 games with one start. CB Nathan Vasher, a fourth-round selection, led the Bears with five INTs and led the NFC (2nd in NFL) with 177 INT return yards. QB Craig Krenzel, started five games and became one of only seven NFL QBs since 1970 to win his first three starts as a rookie.

All-Time Bears Jersey Numbers

This is a list of the jersey numbers and the players who wore them in the regular season (not pre-season or training camp!). The Bears are trying to update this to represent the years they wore the number (as opposed to the years they played with the Bears). If you have information, please write to: Bears PR, 1000 Football Drive, Lake Forest, IL 60045. Special thanks to Dallas Himm and Bob Wolf who helped compile this list.

THE UNIFORM

The Chicago Bears, originally called the Decatur Staleys when founded in 1920, wore blue jerseys with tan colored vertical striping in their inaugural season. The vertical stripes were actually strips of leather sewn onto the uniform to help the ball carrier secure the ball.

In 1935 the Bears introduced an orange jersey with black arm stripes and black helmet and by 1958 were wearing the familiar navy blue with burnt orange. The Bears unique "rounded" number style on the uniforms and numbers on the sides of the sleeves of the jerseys date back to the 50's.

The Bears trademark 'C' logo appeared on helmets in 1962 and its use continues through present day although the mark has changed from white to orange and the shape has changed slightly. After 11 years, the white 'C' logo is colored orange with white trim in 1973 and still has the same look today.

The initials GSH were added to the left sleeve in 1984 in honor of the late 'Papa Bear' George S. Halas, who passed away Oct. 31, 1983. The uniform has had a very consistent look from the 1970's with the exception of blue pants with the white jersey introduced in 1984 as a road uniform. On Oct. 7, 2002 on a Monday Night Football game against Green Bay, the Bears wore their traditional home blue jerseys with the blue pants for the first time.

INTERNATIONAL GAMES

The Bears were participants in the NFL's first overseas game when they met the Cowboys in London in 1986. Since that contest, the American Bowl has expanded to many international sites including Tokyo, Barcelona, Montreal, Sydney and Mexico City. Seven summers ago, the Bears' fourth trip abroad took them to Dublin, Ireland's Croke Park on July 27, 1997, to face the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Each of the above players spent time on the Bears' practice squad (or "developmental squad," as it was termed in 1989). BOLD indicates active player on Bears roster.

* Indicates player was signed to active roster, and played in at least one game.

- A player on the practice squad is not "protected". However, for another team to sign a practice squad player, that team must put the player on their active roster. The Bears have signed one player to their active roster off other teams' practice squads: Alfonso Boone (Det, 2000).

WRIGLEY RECORD

The Bears' all-time record at Wrigley Field stands at 221-89-22, a total of 332 games, 330 as the home team. (Two of those victories came with the Bears as the "road" team: twice in 1920 against the Chicago Tigers). The 330 Bears' home games at Wrigley Field appears to be a National Football League record, though unofficial. The Bears-Wrigley connection edges out Cleveland's Municipal Stadium as host for 324 home games of the Cleveland Browns, from 1950 through 1995. As the reincarnation of the Cleveland Browns play in a new stadium since their return in 1999, the Bears-Wrigley "record" appears safe.

In fact, Wrigley Field has hosted a total of 342 NFL games: 330 Bears home games, five home games of the Chicago Tigers in 1920, and seven home games of the Chicago Cardinals in 1931 and 1932. Besides the Browns' 324 home games at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, the Cleveland Indians played two home games there in 1931, and the Cleveland Rams played sixteen home contests in 1937 and 1939-1941. Municipal Stadium appears to have hosted a total of 342 total NFL games–same as Wrigley Field.

DIVISIONAL CHALLENGE

The Chicago Bears have not beaten every team in their division in the same year since 1991. In 2001, Chicago defeated three of its then-NFC Central rivals, but was unable to defeat the Green Bay Packers. Last season, for the second consecutive year, the Bears beat both Minnesota and Detroit but were swept by Green Bay. The Bears cleared the Packers hurdle in 2004, earning a 21-10 win at Lambeau Field and beat the Vikings at Soldier Field but were swept by the Detroit Lions for the first time since the 1997 season.

Soldier Field

Entering the third full season in the new Soldier Field in 2005, Bears President & CEO Ted Phillips led the franchise to one of the team's greatest off-field achievements with the construction of the lakefront improvement plan which included the new football stadium within the confines of historic Soldier Field. The aggresive construction schedule lasted just 20 months-from the Bears last home game of the 2001 season (vs. PHI, Jan. 19, 2002) until re-opening against Green Bay on Sept. 29, 2003. The project earned many honors for design excellence and was named Midwest Construction magazine's overall Project of the Year in 2003.

- November, 2000-Bears President and CEO Ted Phillips and his team of experts answer questions and concerns of the Illinois General Assembly at the State Capitol. After three days of gathering support, the Illinois House and Senate passed Bill 1284 on Nov. 30, 2000, authorizing the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority to issue approximately $406 million in bonds to help finance the $630 million project.
  The debt service on the bonds were paid from the surplus and projected growth of the existing two percent Chicago local hotel tax plus a local distributive tax and state hotel tax subsidy. The remaining $200 million was contributed by the Chicago Bears, including a $100 million loan from the National Football League.

- Nov. 15, 2000-The City of Chicago's Lakefront Improvement Plan was announced publicly by Mayor Richard M. Daley.
  The project replaced parking lots with 17 acres of new parkland, built an underground parking structure to serve the Museum Campus and Soldier Field, created easier access to the Museum Campus and added other amenities giving Chicagoans and tourists the ability to enjoy the lakefront year-round.

- Jan. 5, 2001-Governor George Ryan signed House Bill 1284, designed to help fund a new stadium and enhance Chicago's lakefront.

LAKEFRONT IMPROVEMENTS

The project created approximately 17 acres of additional waterfront parkland for public enjoyment. This green space was programmed for year-round public uses such as a sledding hill, winter garden, a terraced park, an area for outdoor museum exhibits and other features.

The year-round parking facility created 2,500 new underground parking spaces immediately adjacent to the Field Museum and Shedd Aquarium and 3,100 outdoor spaces between the stadium and McCormick Place to ensure Chicago's great tailgating tradition continues.

SOLDIER FIELD IMPROVEMENTS

The stadium features increased sideline seating from 40% of seats to over 60%, an increased number of new and improved restrooms (over 1,000 restroom fixtures) plus more variety and access at over 350 concession points of sale, three-level Cadillac Club lounge, a Bears Ring of Honor throughout the mezzanine level, a Bears Den gallery depicting historical events from Soldier Field's past and a bas relief of George Halas.

Above and beyond the Bears games, the new Soldier Field is capable of hosting an increasing number of athletic events, prime concerts, and large civic, cultural and educational gatherings. The unique design allows for easy stage setup and take down, along with a field that can accommodate international soccer events.

FUNDING THE LAKEFRONT IMPROVEMENT PLAN

The Bears made a $224 million contribution to this project, pays annual rent of $5.7 million and accepted the cost overrun risks on the project. The entire cost of the Lakefront Project ($630 million) was raised without asking for taxpayers' money. The plan was supported through a local City of Chicago hotel tax which is already in existence. There was no extension or increase of any taxes and the hotel tax was principally paid by visitors and tourists.

PRESERVING HISTORY

The historic colonnades and historic South Wall remained untouched as the new stadium was built within the existing exterior of Soldier Field. The Memorial Water Wall honors all soldiers who have served in the United States Armed Forces. The Wall serves as an educational piece for families and visitors of the museum campus. A Doughboy statue was erected at the entrance of Gate O and the south concourse features a Medal of Honor tribute.

Following 31 seasons of football along the shores of Lake Michigan (pictured, left), the Bears took a brief one-year hiatus from Soldier Field in 2002, playing home games at Memorial Stadium in Champaign so construction of the new Soldier Field (right) could be completed. The first game in the new stadium was Sept. 29, 2003 against division rival Green Bay as the Bears get set for their third full season in the new stadium in 2005. The Bears first season at the old venue was in 1971 after spending 50 seasons at Wrigley Field. Soldier Field was opened in 1924 as a 45,000-seat Municipal Grant Park Stadium. The first football game played on its field was November 22, 1924, as a capacity crowd watched Notre Dame edge Northwestern, 13-6.

It hosted the first boxing event which drew a gate of over $2.5 million (Dempsey-Tunney, 1927), the first ski meet held in a stadium, and the all-time largest football crowd (123,000). The largest crowd for any event in Soldier Field was 260,000 on Sept. 8, 1954, for the Catholic church's Marian Year Tribute.

The 100,000-seat stadium was dedicated November 27, 1926, with Army battling Navy to a 21-21 tie. The all-time collegiate attendance record of 123,000 plus was established Nov. 26, 1927 as Notre Dame beat Southern Cal 7-6. In the first professional game at the then-mammoth stadium, the Bears defeated the Chicago Cardinals 10-0 on November 11, 1926.

Plans for the stadium started in 1919 as a memorial to the soldiers of WWI. Soldier Field stood on 10,000 pile foundations driving an average depth of 62.5 feet through fill that replaced the lake waters. The new stadium continues to be owned, maintained and operated by the Chicago Park District.

Other stadium notes since the Bears moved to Soldier Field:

1971 – September 19th, Chicago defeats the Pittsburgh Steelers 17-15 before capacity crowd of 55,701 in the Bears' first game since moving from Wrigley.

1979 – The stadium undergoes major reconstruction and renovation prior to the season including new lighting, playing surface, and locker rooms; rebuilding of seating area (new chairbacks, armrests, seats); and improvement of sightlines.

1982 – Additional rebuilding of seating areas was completed as well as new concourses with more restrooms and concession areas. A new press box, 60 deluxe skyboxes, and a new scoreboard were also built. Capacity is increased to 66,030.

1988 – Surface was changed from artificial turf to natural grass, and 56 skyboxes were added along south rim (increasing the total to 116). Capacity is increased to 66,946.

1992 – Four seats are added increasing the capacity to 66,950.

1994 – The Park District spends millions to refurbish the stadium for the World Cup soccer tournament. Capacity is reduced by six to 66,944.

2001 – Project receives state and city approval.

2003 – Bears return to Soldier Field with Monday night re-opening on September 29 against Green Bay. Capacity is set at 61,500, over 5,000 fewer seats than the old stadium and the second smallest venue in the NFL.

Tribute to Halas and the Bears Lega

Located on the west side of the stadium on the street-level main concourse, the bas-relief sculpture marks the gateway for a stadium visitor's trip through the history of the Chicago Bears.

Pure and simple, he loved this game that was as uncluttered and uncompromising as he was. Its requirements were courage, endurance, self-discipline and a competitive spirit. These were his prerequisites, too.

His teams played the game the same way he did-tough, aggressive and smart.

Often graced by a running back of exceptional ability, the Bears were always marked by a punishing defense that never stopped coming at you.

George Halas was a founder of the NFL and a pioneer of the Chicago Bears. His devotion to both over the decades helped them grow to prominence.

We will always remember his energy, his joy in competing, and his passion for his beloved Bears and Bear fans.

--bas-relief inscription

Artist Description:

The bas-relief is a time-line describing George Halas' contribution to the world of football and the history of the Chicago Bears.

Hall of Famers date back from the 1920's when George Halas founded the Chicago Bears, and represent different decades of team history.

The tremendous energy and influence of the two large George Halas reliefs tells the story and balances all of the action. George S. Halas is without doubt the overriding presence in the sculpture.

The laser-etched imagery shows the team in the 1920's - also Halas and his team celebrating the 1940's win against the Washington Redskins, fan images from Wrigley Field, a photo of Halas with George Jr. and Paddy Driscol, and a fan grouping from the 1980's. Integrated in the composition is the famous "T" formation that George Halas invented.

THE BEARS DEN

Located on the lower concourse of the west grandstands, the Bears Den offers a dramatic, visual walk though Chicago Bears history.

THE DOUGHBOY STATUE

Just inside Gate O in the Grand Concourse stands the restored Doughboy Statue. Originally installed in Chicago's Garfield Park in the early 1930s, four decades later it was damaged, debased, but not forgotten. Chicago sculpture conservator Andrzej Dajnowski meticulously recast the missing parts and refurbished the entire statue and base to its original condition and it joins the other memorials to the American fighting men and women at Soldier Field.

THE RING OF HONOR

Chicago Bears Hall of Fame greats are honored on the mezzanine level Ring of Honor. The 26 Chicago Bears enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, are the most of any team in the NFL.

THE MEMORIAL WATER WALL

The Memorial Water Wall, a 280-foot long wall of polished green granite with eight medallions honoring the different branches of the armed services, flanks the walkway that leads into the north entrance of the stadium. A veil of water continuously flows over the sculptured memorial.

SOLDIER FIELD

The Chicago Bears moved into Halas Hall at Conway Park on March 3, 1997. The 38-acre complex is located in Lake Forest on Route 60 just east of the Tri-State Tollway, approximately four miles from the former Halas Hall. The building is dedicated to Bears' founder, President and Coach George Halas. The original Halas Hall, on the Lake Forest College campus, was dedicated by Coach Halas in the name of his son, Mugs, in 1979.

The complex includes a 100,000 square foot office building, indoor practice facility, and 2 1/2 outdoor practice fields, surrounded by a jogging path. One of the two 100-yard outdoor fields is equipped with 14 miles of underground heating tubes, enabling the grass to remain soft and growing into early winter, as well as five miles of drain tubing that can capture and disperse nine inches of rainfall per hour and 2.5 miles of cooling pipes for the grass roots.

The main building is almost two football fields long and 100 feet wide. The old Halas Hall had 32,000 square feet of space, while the new building has 100,000. In fact, the entire former Halas Hall would fit into the basement of the new building. Furthermore, the old locker room was 1,400 square feet, while the new one is about 3,000, has 62 lockers with room to quickly expand to 100, and 4 natural light wells. The weight room–perhaps the most spectacular aesthetic area of the complex– is 7,000 square feet, almost four times the size of the 1,800 square foot workout area at the old building. The glass wall on the east side of the weight room is 28 feet high, perfect for viewing the white-tailed deer on their evening romps across the complex grounds. A two-lane lap pool is behind the weight room, and its sixty foot lanes have built-in resistance currents. The training room is five times the size of its predecessor, and boasts a doctors' office, x-ray facility, medical records storeroom, casting room, whirlpool, cold-dip plunge, steam room and sauna. The football needs are met with eight classrooms, two large meeting rooms/classrooms, and a 150-seat auditorium capable of hosting seminars, television productions and press conferences.

ED McCASKEY MEMORIAL GARDEN AND THE WALTER PAYTON CENTER

Renovation and construction continues at Halas Hall as the team's indoor practice facility, the Walter Payton Center, is undergoing changes while construction of the Ed McCaskey Memorial Garden was completed in June.

The Walter Payton Center is a rigid structure, opposed to the inflated "bubble" the team used from 1990-96, and includes a full 100-yard field. The structure is 85 feet high, 200 feet wide and 400 feet long. The renovation included removal of the existing fabric roof and cladding on the outside of the building, replacement of the end walls and installation of a new, state-of-the-art synthetic turf and two-lane running track. A new heating and de-humidification system will also be installed.

Located south of Halas Hall, the Ed McCaskey Memorial Garden is a beautifully-landscaped, clover-leaf shaped garden bordered by a 30" stone seat wall and piers. A winding gravel road from Halas Hall leads to the opening of the garden where a variety of trees, shrubs and perennials have been planted.

Angels Among Us

Bears Care is expanding its work to maintain pace with the needs of Chicago's cancer patients. Bears Care and its corporate partners, Abbott Laboratories, Aon, Chicago Bears, Crate & Barrel, and Gas City, are proud to fund the program Angels Among Us: Creating Lifesaving Miracles. It is a compassionate care initiative designed to provide personal support and help defray expenses that are not covered by traditional cancer treatment programs. One of the most frustrating and frightening experiences someone may have, is to know that there is a lifesaving drug or treatment that is beyond their reach because they lack the necessary resources. Coach Lovie Smith said, "My family and I are very proud to be a part of the Chicago Bears organization, and to support Bears Care initiatives. Anybody in this business knows that our success depends on interest and support from the community, and that is one of the reasons it's so easy to want to give back to the people of Chicago. Bears Care has been an invaluable tool in the fight against cancer for almost a decade, and the Angels Among Us compassionate care fund is just a natural extension of the great work that Bears Care has already been doing. Miracles can, and will continue to happen!"

Bears Care Gala

The Bears Care Gala, "Brian's Song...So That Others May Live To Sing," supports researchers who are leaders in their field in the fight against breast and ovarian cancer, and helps them extend their breakthroughs to low income women. During the past ten years, the Bears Care Galas have raised over $5 million to support breast and ovarian cancer research programs such as those at Rush University Medical Center, Northwestern Memorial, and John H. Stroger, Jr. Hospital of Cook County. This year alone approximately 205,000 new cases of breast cancer and 24,000 new cases of ovarian cancer will be diagnosed in this country. Bears Care supports focused research aimed at preventing and screening these devastating diseases and improving current methods of treatment.

The Bears Care Gala will be held in early May, 2006 in the Cadillac Club at Soldier Field. We look forward to having many current players, coaches, and alumni join us to celebrate this magical evening in our fight against breast and ovarian cancer. Log on to chicagobears.com in 2006 to learn more about the fabulous and unique Gala drawing.

Rockford Area Habitat For Humanity

Habitat for Humanity is an ecumenical Christian housing ministry that works in partnership with people in need of shelter to build simple, decent and affordable homes. Habitat for Humanity homeowners purchase their houses through no-profit, no-interest mortgages while contributing hundreds of hours of "sweat equity" labor working on their house and the houses of others. Mortgage payments are then utilized to help build homes for additional families. Founded in 1988, Rockford Area Habitat for Humanity has built 54 homes, providing affordable housing to more than 227 adults and children.

Bears Care cooperates with Rockford Area Habitat for Humanity's "Super Bowl Sweeps" fundraiser. This raffle offers participants the opportunity to win four game tickets, round-trip airfare and hotel accommodations for Super Bowl XL in Detroit, MI. Proceeds benefit Bears Care, a fund of the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation. Bears Care has made nearly $500,000 in charitable distributions to the Rockford Area Habitat for Humanity. Ticket purchase information will be available online at www.chicagobears.com after October 19, 2005.

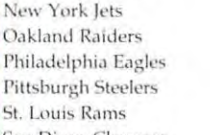

Youth For Life: Remembering Walter Payton

In 2001, four Chicago area teens joined forces to create Youth For Life: Remembering Walter Payton, an organ donation awareness program dedicated to the legendary Chicago Bears running back who passed away in 1999, while awaiting a liver transplant. Erin Kinsella, John McCaskey, and Mark Pendleton teamed up with Walter's daughter, Brittney, in founding this campaign, which provides the facts about organ and tissue donation to high school students preparing to apply for their driver's license. Youth for Life is conducted with the support of all 32 National Football League teams, and is proud to have Walgreens as a major corporate sponsor. By providing teenagers with the facts, as well as information on how to register as an organ donor, Youth for Life encourages them to make the right choice - the choice for life. If you are interested in bringing this outstanding program to your local high school, please contact Marge Hamm at hargeh@bears.nfl.com.
