CHASE

The official bank of the Bears.

OUR PROMISE

The Chicago Bears, a founding franchise of the NFL, uphold the values of the city and its people, uniting them as no other organization can.

WHO WE ARE

There is an indelible connection between the Chicago Bears, the city they call home and the fans who love them. Both Chicago and the Bears were founded on the belief that anything is possible if you're willing to work. And since the day George Halas started the franchise, that's what the Bears have done. Halas was a Chicago man. He was tough, fair and steadfast. He would not settle for second best. His city was second to none. The grit Halas showed while growing up in Chicago has carried through into a tenacity still seen at Soldier Field today. The Chicago spirit—a determined, authentic sensibility—lives inside every Bears player and every Bears fan. To understand the Bears, you have to understand Chicago. And to live in Chicago, you have to love the Bears.

GEORGE H. MCCASKEY Chairman

George Halas McCaskey became the fourth Chairman in Chicago Bears team history on May 5, 2011, following in the footsteps of grandfather, George Halas, father, Edward W. McCaskey and brother, Michael.

George is one of the 13 grandchildren – and namesake – of George Halas, the founder and patriarch of the Chicago Bears. Like his brothers and sisters, he grew up around the Bears. His first part-time job, at age 14, was as an office assistant at the team's headquarters in Chicago's Loop. He later worked for several summers as a ball boy at Bears training camp, calling it one of the best experiences of his life.

George will work to carry on the storied tradition of the Bears with a yearly goal of winning the NFL Championship, uphold the integrity and values established in the previous 94 years of the club and oversee the franchise's leadership role in the Chicagoland community.

He previously served as the team's Senior Director of Ticket Operations, working in the ticket office for 20 seasons, joining the Bears in 1991 as Ticket Manager. He has been a member of the Bears' Board of Directors since 2004. In 2010 he also held the duties of Vice Chairman of the team.

George attended Arizona State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in Broadcasting in 1978 and his law degree in 1981. He passed the Illinois bar exam in 1981, but now describes himself as a "recovering lawyer." He worked in television news in Phoenix, Peoria, Tulsa and Chicago, before serving as an Assistant State's Attorney in Lee County and DeKalb County, Illinois.

In his spare time, George enjoys officiating youth sports, including baseball, soccer and basketball.

McCaskey and his wife Barb have one child, a son, Conor.

THE UNIFORM

The Chicago Bears, originally called the Decatur Staleys when founded in 1920, wore blue jerseys with tan colored vertical striping in their inaugural season. The vertical stripes were actually strips of leather sewn onto the uniform to help the ball carrier secure the ball.

In 1935 the Bears introduced an orange jersey with black arm stripes and black helmet and by 1958 were wearing the familiar navy blue with burnt orange. The Bears unique "rounded" number style on the uniforms and numbers on the sides of the sleeves of the jerseys date back to the 50's. The Bears trademark 'C' logo appeared on helmets in 1962 and its use continues through present day although the mark has changed from white to orange and the shape has changed slightly. After 11 years, the white 'C' logo is colored orange with white trim in 1973 and still has the same look today. The initials GSH were added to the left sleeve in 1984 in honor of the late 'Papa Bear' George S. Halas, who passed away Oct. 31, 1983. The uniform has had a very consistent look from the 1970's with the exception of blue pants with white jersey introduced in 1984 as a road uniform. On Oct. 7, 2002 on a Monday Night Football game against Green Bay, the Bears wore their traditional home blue jerseys with the blue pants for the first time. On Nov. 25, 2004, for a Thanksgiving game at Dallas, the Bears wore a throwback orange jersey; then, on Nov. 13, 2005, introduced a new-look orange third jersey which the Bears wore from 2005-09 and 2011. In 2010 the team unveiled its current throwback uniform (pictured, right) which is modeled after the 1940s Bears uniforms. The "Monsters of the Midway" of the '40s won four league titles in seven seasons and were led by eight Hall of Famers (coach George Halas and players Danny Fortmann, Sid Luckman, George McAfee, George Musso, Bronko Nagurski, Joe Stydahar and Clyde "Bulldog" Turner. In 2014, the Bears will wear those uniforms during home games against Green Bay and Tampa Bay.

TED PHILLIPS President & CEO

Ted Phillips was named President and Chief Executive Officer on February 10, 1999. He is the fourth person to serve as president in the organization's storied 94-year history following Michael McCaskey, George "Mugs" Halas, Jr., and George S. Halas. Since taking on the top leadership role, Phillips has insisted on attention to detail and smooth execution at every level of the Bears' operation. He has solidified the long-term stability of the Club, while staying keenly focused on bringing a 10th championship to the NFL's premier franchise.

Phillips has revitalized both the business and football operations by hiring high character, intelligent and driven individuals who share common goals and philosophies on how to build a consistent winner. Drawing from 31 years of experience with the Chicago Bears, Phillips has shown effective leadership skills by empowering his executive staff to create an environment of collective responsibility in running the day-to-day operations of the Club. Phillips is involved in all critical decisions of the Bears and continues to strive to make all aspects of the Bears organization the best in the NFL. Always insisting on a team-first attitude, Phillips has surrounded himself with individuals who fit the organization's character, culture and values. The team dynamic was crucial in the Bears return to the Super Bowl for the first time in 21 years following the 2006 campaign.

To help set the team up for future success, Phillips oversaw a Halas Hall renovation project that added over 30,000 square feet to the team's headquarters, which opened in 1997. The renovations included additions to the weight and training rooms, an upgraded locker room, additional meeting spaces and offices, and a new event center which features a broadcast studio and conference space. Phillips' other highlights include creating and continuing a strong customer service mentality throughout the organization, returning the Bears training camp to Illinois and presiding over four division championships (2001, 2005, 2006 and 2010) after a decade-long drought. He is also a member of the NFL Fan Experience Club Working Group.

During the 2012 off-season, Phillips hired Phil Emery as the fifth general manager in franchise history, giving new direction to the Bears football operations. He also restructured the front office, promoting five key individuals to the level of Vice President with direct reporting to Phillips. Additional departmental emphasis was also placed on expanding various customer service initiatives along with placing a new emphasis on database management, marketing research and digital media efforts, in an effort to deliver added value to Bears fans, season ticket holders and business partners.

The Bears training camp returned to the State of Illinois in 2002, turning out in record numbers over the three-week training period on the campus of Olivet Nazarene University in Bourbonnais, IL. The 2014 camp marks the 13th year the important touchpoint for Bears fans has been in Illinois. Phillips' leadership was also key in negotiating a new home for the team at Soldier Field. Not only making the club more financially competitive, it provides the best fans in professional sports, with a stadium complete with all the amenities they deserve. The Soldier Field game-day experience is second to none, and fans have been critical in creating a great home-field advantage for the team as the Bears continue to maintain their proud history and tradition on Chicago's magnificent lakefront.

Among the many local and national awards, the Soldier Field project was selected by the New York Times as one of the nation's best architectural buildings in 2003, and Midwest Construction selected Soldier Field as "Overall Project of the Year." Phillips served as the Bears' Vice President of Operations for six seasons starting in 1993. Recognized for his many years of handling the Bears' contract negotiations and team finances, Phillips currently serves on the NFL's CEC Working Club Executive Committee whose mission is to analyze the economic, legal and operational aspects of both the salary cap system and the recently finalized 10 year Collective Bargaining Agreement between the NFL and the NFL Players Association. Phillips also serves as a member of the NFL Employee Benefits committee, and he was recently named a Trustee of the NFL Player Benefits Committee. Phillips also serves on the Board of Directors of the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce.

Before becoming Vice President of Operations, Phillips served as the Director of Finance from 1987 to 1993, handling all player contract negotiations and overseeing the club's business operations. Phillips joined the Bears staff on September 28, 1983, as the team's Controller, a position he held for four years.

Prior to joining the Bears, Phillips was employed as an auditor and tax accountant with the international accounting firm Ernst & Whinney (now Ernst & Young), from 1979-83. He graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1979 with a degree in business and accounting. Phillips earned a master of marketing and management degree from the Kellogg Graduate School at Northwestern University in 1989.

Phillips was born in Oneida, N.Y., grew up in Nashua, N.H., and he currently resides in Libertyville, IL. He has three sons, Matthew, Max and Frank.

PHIL EMERY General Manager

Phil Emery is in his third year as the Chicago Bears General Manager. Emery has brought leadership, a passion for winning, hard work, attention to detail and an acute eye for evaluating talent through 34 years of football experience into his position as Chicago Bears General Manager.

An intricate part of the Bears (1998-2004), Atlanta Falcons (2004-08) and Kansas City Chiefs (2009-11) organizations over 14 seasons within their college scouting departments, Emery helped develop a successful foundation at each franchise, learning to balance team needs with a "raise our own" mantra emphasizing building through the draft while working all avenues of player acquisition.

During the 2014 offseason with the Bears, Emery has shaped the roster by signing over 12 unrestricted free agents such as DE Jared Allen, C Brian de la Puente, DL Lamar Houston, DE Willie Young, S Ryan Mundy and LB Jordan Senn. He also continued the Bears philosophy of "rewarding their own" by re-signing and extending over 15 players including QB Jay Cutler, C Roberto Garza, K Robbie Gould, CB Tim Jennings, WR Brandon Marshall, G Matt Slauson, DT Jeremiah Ratliff, CB Charles Tillman and LB D.J. Williams. Prior to the 2012 season, he extended the contract of seven-time Pro Bowler Lance Briggs and signed two-time Pro Bowl running back Matt Forte to a four-year deal.

In his first two seasons with the team, Emery used multiple channels at his disposal to obtain new talent while keeping the veteran core of the Bears in place. Emery acquired wide receiver Brandon Marshall via trade during the 2012 offseason. Marshall was named to the Pro Bowl in his first two years with the team, setting franchise single-season records for receptions and receiving yards in his first season with the team. Emery also signed unrestricted free agents such as TE Martellus Bennett and T Jermon Bushrod.

Emery has produced a Pro Bowl player in each of his first two drafts as general manager of the Bears, selecting G Kyle Long in the 1st round of 2013 and WR Alshon Jeffery in the 2nd round of 2012. In 2013 with the additions through the draft of Kyle Long and T Jordan Mills the Bears went on to start the NFL's only pair of rookies to do so for all 16 games.

In his previous post, Emery was named director of college scouting for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2009, a year after the franchise went 2-14. Two years later in 2010, the Chiefs won their first division title since 2003 with a 10-6 record. Emery's first draft with the team produced Eric Berry, who was the team's first rookie Pro Bowl selection since Derrick Thomas in 1989, and Pro Bowl returner Dexter McCcluster. A year later, in 2011, he helped select Pro Bowl linebacker Justin Houston in the third round.

From 2004-08, Emery served as the director of college scouting for the Atlanta Falcons. During that time, two of the three Falcons first round draft picks developed into Pro Bowlers: WR Roddy White (2005) and QB Matt Ryan (2008). He also worked as an Eastern regional scout for the Falcons leading up to the 2009 draft. The Falcons made two trips to the playoffs during that time, including an appearance in the 2004 NFC Championship game.

This is Emery's second stint with the Bears after working as an area scout for the franchise from 1998-2004, working in the Northeast (1998-99) and Southeast (1999-2004) regions. During that time, the Bears drafted Pro Bowlers WR Marty Booker (third round of 1999), KR Jerry Azumah (fifth round of 1999), LB Brian Urlacher (first round of 2000), S Mike Brown (second round of 2000), CB Charles Tillman (second round of 2003), LB Lance Briggs (third round of 2003), DT Tommie Harris (first round of 2004) and CB Nathan Vasher (fourth round of 2004). Chicago won the NFC Central in 2001, its first division title since 1990 and first playoff appearance since 1994.

The fifth general manager in franchise history, joining George S. Halas, Jr. (1963-74), Jim Finks (1974-83), Jerome Vainisi (1983-87) and Jerry Angelo (2001-11), Emery oversees the Bears football operations, stressing a standard of expertise and excellence in every role. In 2013, he hired Marc Trestman as the 14th head coach in Chicago Bears history. With a belief in developing a trust in giving a voice to all members of the football operations staff, Emery has promoted longtime staff members Chris Hanks (Head Athletic Trainer), Kevin Turks (Director of Pro Personnel), Dwayne Joseph (Associate Director of Pro Personnel), Marty Barrett (Director of College Scouting) and Jeff Shiver (Executive Scout/Assistant Director of College Scouting) while expanding the scouting and player personnel departments.

The Michigan native is a 34-year football veteran, starting his career serving as a student assistant at his alma mater, Wayne State, before joining Central Michigan as a graduate assistant (1981-82). He went on to become the offensive line/strength and conditioning coach at Western New Mexico for three seasons (1982-84) before becoming a defensive line coach at Georgetown College from 1984-85. MARC TRESTMAN Head Coach

Named the fourteenth head coach in Chicago Bears history on January 16, 2013, Marc Trestman led the franchise to an 8-8 record in 2013, the most wins by a head coach in his first season with the Bears in the Super Bowl era and the most since John "Paddy" Driscoll had nine wins in 1956.

In its first year under Trestman, Chicago's offense rewrote the 94-year old franchise record book. In 2013 the Bears offense gained a franchise-best 6,109 net yards. The passing offense set single-season records in gross passing yards (4,450), net passing yards (4,281), completion percentage (64.4), passing touchdowns (32) and passer rating (96.9). The Bears offense also set a franchise mark with 344 first downs and finished second in team history with 445 points. At the quarterback position Jay Cutler and Josh McCown had career years. McCown set the franchise record in passer rating (109.0), completion percentage (66.5) and lowest interception percentage (0.4). Cutler finished second in franchise single-season history with a 63.1 completion percentage and sixth with a career-best 89.2 passer rating.

Pro Bowl RB Matt Forte finished second in the NFL with 1,339 rushing yards and third with 1,933 yards from scrimmage, both career-bests ranking ninth and fifth, respectively, in single-season franchise history and most among players other than Hall of Famer Walter Payton.

Pro Bowl WRs Alshon Jeffery and Brandon Marshall were sixth and 11th in the NFL, respectively in receiving yards, during the 2013 season. Jeffery's 1,421 receiving yards were second in franchise annals and Marshall's 1,295 were fifth.

The offensive line allowed just 30 sacks in 2013, tied for fourth fewest in the NFL, after allowing a combined 149 sacks in the three years prior to Trestman's arrival. Rookie guard Kyle Long was the first Bears offensive lineman to be named to the Pro Bowl since 2006.

Trestman joined the Bears with a champion head coaching pedigree and keen offensive expertise. In the five seasons prior to his arrival in Chicago, as a head coach in the Canadian Football League, Trestman led the Montreal Alouettes to back-to-back Grey Cup championships in 2009 and 2010 and was named the CFL's Coach of the Year in 2009. He also helped tutor quarterback Anthony Calvillo to back-to-back CFL MVPs in 2008 and 2009. During his time in Montreal, Trestman compiled a 59-31 (.656) regular season record, which included four East Division titles and a 5-3 (.625) record in the playoffs.

Overall, in his 29 years coaching, Trestman has been a part of 19 winning seasons, 16 playoff appearances and three championship teams.

Trestman has 18 years of coaching experience in the NFL, including eight as an offensive coordinator. During his time in the NFL, Trestman helped his teams to eight playoff appearances, two conference championship games and a Super Bowl appearance (XXXVII as offensive coordinator of the Raiders).

Trestman started his coaching career in 1981 at the University of Miami as a volunteer assistant while attending law school. He was named the school's quarterbacks coach in 1983 and helped direct the Hurricanes to their first-ever National Championship. Under Trestman's tutelage Hurricanes quarterback Bernie Kosar was selected in the first round of the NFL Supplemental Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

In 1985, Trestman got his first coaching experience in the NFL, under Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bud Grant as the running backs coach of the Minnesota Vikings, a position he held for two seasons.

Trestman moved on to become the quarterbacks coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1987 and would work as a quarterbacks coach in 13 of his 17 NFL seasons. In 1988 he was reunited with Kosar in Cleveland, before adding the title of offensive coordinator a year later, helping lead Cleveland to two playoff appearances including the AFC Championship Game in 1989.

Trestman rejoined the Vikings in 1990 as quarterbacks coach, working two seasons with quarterback Rich Gannon, who improved his QB rating from 68.9 in 1990 to 81.5 in 1991, 11th highest in the NFL.

George Seifert named Trestman the 49ers offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 1995 as he guided San Francisco to the No. 1 scoring offense (28.6 points per game) and passing attack (288.0 yards per game) and helped them rank second in total offense (380.4 YPG). A year later, San Francisco had the third-best scoring offense (24.9 PPG) and ranked sixth in total offense (344.1 YPG). In 1995 Jerry Rice broke the NFL single-season record for receiving yards with 1,848, a mark that stood for 17 seasons.

Trestman spent the 1997 season as quarterbacks coach of the Detroit Lions. Scott Mitchell threw for 3,484 yards that season, which at the time was second most in team history and now stands as the sixth most.

In 1998, Trestman left the Lions to become the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the Arizona Cardinals for three seasons. In his first season in Arizona, the Cardinals made the playoffs for the first time since 1982 and won their first playoff game since 1947.

Trestman was hired by Jon Gruden in 2001 to serve as a senior assistant on the Oakland Raiders staff before being promoted by new head coach Bill Callahan to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach a year later, holding the position for two seasons.

The 2002 Raiders led the NFL in total offense with 389.8 yards and 279.7 passing yards per game, finished second in scoring offense averaging 28.1 points per game and advanced to Super Bowl XXXVII, their first NFL title game appearance in 20 years. Quarterback Rich Gannon was named the NFL's MVP after throwing for 4,689 yards.

In 2004 he was the assistant head coach/quarterbacks of the Miami Dolphins.

From 2005-06, Trestman served as offensive coordinator of North Carolina State, helping recruit current Seattle Seahawks quarterback Russell Wilson to the Wolfpack.

In 2007, he worked as a consultant to New Orleans Saints head coach Sean Payton.

The 57-year old Trestman has also mentored collegiate quarterbacks, including current Bears quarterback Jay Cutler, as they prepared for the NFL Combine. In 2010, he authored a book entitled, "Perseverance: Life Lessons on Leadership and Teamwork."

Trestman received a bachelor's degree in political science from Minnesota in 1979. He went on to graduate from the University of Miami School of Law and then became a member of the Florida bar.

Trestman and his wife Cindy have two daughters, Sarahanne and Chloe.

BEARS IN SEASON OPENING HOME GAMES

The Bears open the regular season schedule at home for the fifth straight year, hosting the Buffalo Bills. The contest marks the first time since the 1992-96 seasons that Chicago will open the season in front of their home fans in five-straight campaigns.

Of Chicago's last 21 season openers at home dating back to 1984, the Bears are 18-3 (.857). This will mark the first time that the Bears opened their season versus Buffalo.

JOE DeCAMILLIS Asst. Head Coach/Special Teams Coord.

Joe DeCamillis is in his second season as Chicago's assistant head coach/special teams coordinator, after being hired by the franchise on January 16, 2013.

DeCamillis has 26 years of experience coaching special teams in the NFL. In 21 of his 26 years as an NFL coach, a player on DeCamillis' special teams unit has returned either a punt or a kickoff for a touchdown, with a total of 27 kick return touchdowns (17 punt and 10 kickoff). He has helped coach a punter (Mat McBriar) and returner (Allen Rossum) to Pro Bowl nods. In 2009, DeCamillis was named Dallas' Ed Block Courage Award winner as voted by the Cowboy players. In 2013, the Bears finished second in punt return average (14.2 yards per return), including an 81-yard punt return touchdown. Under DeCamillis' guidance, Chicago's average starting point after kickoffs ranked fourth in the league at the 24.2-yard line.

The Bears coverage units excelled under DeCamillis in 2013 as Chicago allowed a league low 18.8 yards per kickoff return and ranked sixth in punt coverage (7.4 yards per return), including allowing just one punt return of 20-plus yards.

Bears kicker Robbie Gould tied his own franchise record in field goal percentage in DeCamillis' first season with the team, connecting on 26-of-29 field goal attempts (89.7 percent). Gould hit a franchise record 58-yard field goal in Week 1 of the 2013 season.

Prior to his arrival in Chicago, DeCamillis spent four seasons as the special teams coordinator of the Dallas Cowboys. In 2012, Cowboys kicker Dan Bailey was tied for second in the NFL in field goal accuracy, connecting on 93.5 percent of his attempts (29 of 31) and Dwayne Harris finished second in the league in punt returns averaging 16.1 yards per return (354 yards and one touchdown on 22 returns). Bailey also set a franchise mark with 30 touchbacks on kickoffs, which are now second most in team history. The Cowboys were also sixth in kickoff coverage allowing just 22 yards per return.

A year earlier, under DeCamillis tutelage, Bailey, who joined the team as an undrafted free agent finished with 32 field goals made, fifth all-time among NFL rookie kickers.

DeCamillis oversaw McBriar's Pro Bowl campaign in 2010 when he led the NFL in both gross (47.9) and net (41.7) punting averages. The rookie combination of Dez Bryant (two) and Bryan McCann (one) combined for a team-record three punt return touchdowns. Kicker David Buehler was fourth in the NFL with 22 touchbacks.

In his first season with Dallas, DeCamillis led the unit to a fourth-place finish in the special teams rankings compiled by the Dallas Morning News' Rick Gosselin after the team finished 27th a year before his arrival. During 2009, Dallas ranked second in the NFL in opponent starting field position after kickoffs (22.8-yard line) and sixth in punt returns (10.9 yards per return), after finishing 20th and 30th respectively in 2008. Patrick Crayton had a punt return touchdown in back-to-back contests, the second player in franchise history to accomplish the feat. McBriar set a franchise record that year with 38 punts downed inside-the-20.

DeCamillis came to Dallas by way of Jacksonville, spending two seasons (2007-08) coaching the Jaguars special teams. In Jacksonville, DeCamillis' kickoff coverage units ranked fourth in the NFL in 2007 (25.8-yard line) and first in 2008 (24.5) in opponent starting point after kickoffs. His 2008 squad held the league's third lowest opponent kickoff return average at 19.9 yards per return.

Prior to his time in Jacksonville, DeCamillis led Atlanta's special teams units for 10 years (1997-2006). In those 10 seasons the Falcons punt coverage allowed an NFL-low 6.1 yards per return with just one touchdown, finishing first overall in 1997, 1999, 2000 and 2004 and second overall in 1998 and 2002. Atlanta was second in the NFL during DeCamillis' tenure with eight kickoff return touchdowns and 13 total return touchdowns.

Five different Falcons had kick return touchdowns under DeCamillis tutelage, led by Derrick Vaughn's four, which are second most in franchise history. In 2004, Rossum was named to the Pro Bowl after finishing second in the league with a 12.4 punt return average.

DeCamillis began his coaching career in Denver as defensive quality control and assistant special teams coach from 1989-92 before spending four seasons (1993-96) as special teams coach with the New York Giants.

AARON KROMER Offensive Coordinator

Aaron Kromer is in his second season as the Bears offensive coordinator after being hired by the franchise on January 16, 2013.

In his first season with the Bears, Kromer led the team to a major turnaround in offensive production as Chicago set franchise records in net yards (6,109), gross passing yards (4,450), net passing yards (4,281), completion percentage (64.4), passing touchdowns (32), passer rating (96.9), first downs (344) and passing first downs (215). The 445 points scored by the Bears were second-most in team history.

Chicago had 45 offensive touchdowns in Kromer's first season with the team, fifth-most in team history and the most in the Super Bowl era for the franchise. The 13-offensive touchdown increase from the 32 scored in 2012, a year prior to his arrival, is the 10th best single-season improvement in franchise history and fifth highest in the Super Bowl era for the club.

The Bears offense also saw a 1,140-yard improvement in total net yards in Kromer's first season with the team (from 4,969 in 2012 to 6,109 in 2013), the third biggest single-season jump in franchise history.

Kromer, who has 15 years of experience coaching offensive lines, has coached an offensive lineman to the Pro Bowl in each of the last five seasons. In 2013, Kromer oversaw a Bears offensive line - with four new starters, including two rookies - that allowed just 30 sacks, tied for fourth fewest in the NFL. In the three years prior to Kromer's arrival, the Bears offensive line allowed a combined 149 sacks. In 2013, under Kromer's tutelage, rookie guard Kyle Long was the first Bears offensive lineman to be named to the Pro Bowl since 2006 and the first Chicago rookie to be selected to the Pro Bowl at an offensive position since RB Gale Sayers in 1965. In each of the last five seasons, Kromer has overseen an offensive line that has finished in the top five for fewest sacks allowed in the NFL.

Chicago's four offensive Pro Bowl selections following the 2013 season (RB Matt Forte, WR Alshon Jeffery, Long and WR Brandon Marshall) were the most for the franchise since the 1985 Super Bowl season.

With 24 years of coaching experience, Kromer joined the Bears after spending five years with the New Orleans Saints where he worked with the offensive line and running backs. He had dual responsibility in his last four years with the Saints (2009-12) overseeing the offensive line/running game after tutoring the running backs in 2008. He also served as the interim head coach of the Saints for the first six games of the 2012 regular season. During his tenure as the Saints offensive line coach, five blockers were named to 10 Pro Bowls (T Jermon Bushrod 2012-13; G Jahri Evans 2010-13; C Jonathan Goodwin 2010; G Carl Nicks 2011-12 and T Jon Stinchcomb 2010) and New Orleans was tied for the fewest sacks in the NFL with 96.

During 2012, the New Orleans Saints ranked second in the NFL in total offense averaging 410.9 yards per game and third in scoring offense, putting up 28.8 points per game. The Saints offensive line allowed just 26 sacks in 2012, tied for third fewest in the league while Evans was named to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, all under Kromer's tutelage.

In 2011, the Saints set NFL records in total offense (averaging 467.1 yards per game, 7,474 yards) and passing yards (5,347 yards). New Orleans ranked second in the league in scoring offense (34.2 points per game) and tied for second in sacks allowed (24). Bushrod, Evans and Nicks were all named to the Pro Bowl, the second time under Kromer that three linemen were named to the Pro Bowl in a single season. In 2010, the offensive line allowed just 26 sacks in 2010, fifth-fewest in the league. Evans and Nicks were selected to the Pro Bowl.

During his first season as the Saints offensive line/running game coach, New Orleans earned its first Super Bowl Championship in franchise history as the offense led the NFL in total offense (403.8 yards per game) and scoring offense (31.9 points per game). The rushing attack ranked sixth in the NFL averaging 131.6 yards per game and the 20 sacks allowed were fourth-fewest in the league. Three players, Evans, Goodwin and Stinchcomb all were named to their first career Pro Bowls. In 2008, the Saints running backs combined for 2,472 yards from scrimmage and 28 touchdowns.

Kromer joined the Saints organization after three years in Tampa Bay working as the Buccaneers senior assistant/offensive line coach the final two seasons (2006-07) after joining the club as a senior assistant in 2005 with a focus on the offensive line. Two players, G Arron Sears (2006) and G Dan Buenning (2005), earned All-Rookie honors while Kromer was in Tampa Bay.

He joined Tampa Bay after a four-year stint with the Oakland Raiders, starting as assistant offensive line coach (2001) before being promoted to the offensive line coach (2002-04). From 2001-03 Kromer worked with new Bears head coach Marc Trestman on the Raiders offensive staff, including the 2002 campaign when Oakland led the NFL in total offense en route to its Super Bowl XXXVII appearance.

CHICAGO BEARS STAFF

While in Oakland, Kromer tutored two players to Pro Bowl selections: T Lincoln Kennedy (2001-02) and C Barrett Robbins (2002). He also coached T Robert Gallery to an all-rookie selection in 2004.

Kromer got his first coaching experience in the Chicagoland area serving as Northwestern's offensive line coach from 1999-2000. The Wildcats led the Big Ten in total offense in 2000.

He got his coaching start at his alma mater, Miami University (Ohio), where he worked for nine seasons (1990-98). Kromer coached the offensive line in 1998 after working with the tight ends/H-Backs, defensive line, special teams and as a graduate assistant during the course of the previous eight seasons.

One of only eight players in Miami history to serve as a two-time captain (1988-89), Kromer lettered for three seasons at offensive tackle from 1987-89. He was a recipient of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award, graduating with a degree in education before earning his master's degree in education administration in 1991.

Kromer and his wife, Dawn, have a son, Zachary, and a daughter, Brooke.

MEL TUCKER Defensive Coordinator

Mel Tucker is in his second season as defensive coordinator of the Chicago Bears after being hired by the franchise on January 18, 2013.

In 2013, the Bears defense recorded a league-best 11 takeaways over the first three weeks of the season, including three defensive touchdowns, en route to a 3-0 record. But injuries and inconsistency plagued the unit over the remainder of the season and the defense was unable to recapture the form that fueled its early season success.

CB Tim Jennings was named to the Pro Bowl after his eight combined interceptions (four), forced fumbles (three) and opponent fumble recoveries (one) in 2013 were tied for fourth most in the NFL and tied for the most among cornerbacks.

With 17 years of defensive coaching experience, prior to joining the Bears Tucker spent four seasons (2009-12) as the Jaguars defensive coordinator, adding the title of assistant head coach in 2012.

During the 2011 season, Tucker spent the final five games as interim head coach of the Jaguars. Over the course of that season, the Jaguars were sixth in the NFL in total defense (313.0 yards per game) up from 28th in 2010 (371.8). The 313.0 yards per game were the fewest allowed by Jacksonville's defense since 2006. In 2011, they also ranked eighth in passing defense (208.8 yards per game), ninth in rushing defense (104.2), allowed the second fewest completions of 20-plus yards (43), forced the second most three-and-out drives (57) and were third in first downs allowed (268) and plays of 20-plus yards allowed (51). During Tucker's tenure in Jacksonville, CB Derek Cox recorded 12 interceptions, fourth most in franchise history. Prior to his time in Jacksonville, Tucker spent four years with the Cleveland Browns (2005-08), serving as the defensive back coach for the first three seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 2008.

During those four seasons, the Browns were fifth in the NFL with 73 interceptions and seventh in gross passing yards allowed (212.8). They also allowed the fourth-fewest completions of 25-plus yards (78). As defensive coordinator in 2008, Cleveland was tied for third in the NFL with 31 takeaways and second in the league with 23 interceptions.

Before joining the NFL coaching ranks, Tucker spent eight seasons working at the collegiate level.

From 2001-04, Tucker was on the Ohio State coaching staff working with the defensive backs before serving as co-defensive coordinator during the 2004 season. Under his tutelage, two Buckeyes, safeties Michael Doss (2002) and Will Allen (2003), were named first-team All-Americans by the Associated Press, and cornerback Chris Gamble (2002) was a second-team selection by The Sporting News. The Buckeyes won the national title during the 2002 season with Doss earning Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and Fiesta Bowl MVP honors that year.

In 2000, Tucker served as the defensive backs coach at LSU under then-head coach Nick Saban. He got his coaching start under Saban at Michigan State working as a graduate assistant from 1997-98 before serving as the defensive backs coach at Miami (Ohio) in 1999. The Redhawks ranked 20th in the nation in pass efficiency defense in 1999 and 11th in turnover margin at +11, led by 27 takeaways.

Tucker was a four-year defensive back at the University of Wisconsin (1992-95), earning a degree in agricultural business management in 1995. An Ohio native, Tucker and his wife, Jo-Elyn, have two sons, Joseph and Christian.

ANDY BISCHOFF Tight Ends/Staff Coordinator

Andy Bischoff is in his second season as the Bears tight ends coach and staff coordinator after being hired by the team on January 18, 2013.

In 2013, under Bischoff's guidance, Martellus Bennett finished second in team single-season history among tight ends with 65 receptions. Bennett's 759 receiving yards and five touchdown receptions in 2013 ranked sixth and tied for sixth, respectively, in franchise single-season annals amongst his position. Bischoff helped Bennett rank in the top 10 among NFL tight ends in receptions (tied for eighth) and receiving yards (tied for ninth), while setting career-highs in each category.

Last season, Bischoff helped coach the tight ends in an offensive unit that set franchise records in net yards (6,109), gross passing yards (4,450), net passing yards (4,281), completion percentage (64.4), passing touchdowns (32), passer rating (96.9), first downs (344) and passing first downs (215). The 445 points scored by the Bears were second-most in team history.

Prior to coming to Chicago, Bischoff spent five seasons (2008-12) as the Montreal Alouettes running backs/tight ends coach. During that time he was also the assistant to current Bears Head Coach Marc Trestman and during the final three seasons (2010-12) in Montreal was the Alouettes special teams coordinator.

Bischoff joined the Alouettes following 14 years on the coaching staff of Cretin-Derham Hall High School (CDH), in St. Paul, Minnesota. CDH is also the alma mater of former Bears quarterback Steve Walsh. He started as the school's offensive line coach (1993-97) before adding additional duties and being named assistant head coach and co-offensive coordinator for his final four seasons (2004-07). During that time, the school compiled a 168-22 record, winning the state title in 1999 and playing in four championship games after reaching the state playoff tournament 13 times. During his years at CDH, he helped develop 18 offensive linemen and 3 tight ends who earned division I scholarships, including Ryan Harris of the Houston Texans. He was also the Dean of Students for 10 of his 14 years at the school.

During the offseason in Montreal, Bischoff worked the U.S. Army High School All-American Bowl as the Director of Football Operations for the West Team, a role he occupied for the last five years after coaching the game in 2008.

Bischoff graduated with a Bachelor's degree in education from the University of South Dakota in 1994. Following a playing career at the center position and earning 3 letters at USD, he went on to complete a Master's degree in Education Administration from Mankato State University in 1998 and a post master's license in administration from St. Mary's University (MN) in 2006.

He has two daughters: Makena Kaylynn (15) and Morgan Elizabeth (12) and is married to the former Brittany Leigh Fleming.

MATT CAVANAUGH Quarterbacks

Matt Cavanaugh is in his second year as Chicago's quarterbacks coach after being hired by the Bears on January 18, 2013.

This is Cavanaugh's second stint with the Bears, working as the team's offensive coordinator in 1997 and 1998.

Cavanaugh has 22 years of coaching experience, including 16 seasons in the NFL and 12 as an NFL or collegiate offensive coordinator.

In 2013, under Cavanaugh's tutelage, Bears quarterbacks rewrote the franchise single-season record books setting team records in passer rating (96.9), passing yards (4,450), passing touchdowns (32) and completion percentage (64.4). Their 7.69 yards per attempt was highest for the franchise since 1983. Chicago ranked fifth in the NFL in passing offense (267.6). Jay Cutler had a career-high 89.2 passer rating in 2013, which also ranks sixth in single-season franchise history. His 238.3 passing yards per game last season under Cavanaugh's guidance was second-highest in franchise annals. Cutler's 63.1 completion percentage in 2013 was second-best in franchise history and the second-highest of his NFL career. Fellow quarterback Josh McCown set the franchise record in passer rating (109.0), completion percentage (66.5) and lowest interception percentage (0.4).

Prior to joining the Bears, Cavanaugh spent four seasons (2009-12) in New York working with the Jets quarterbacks. During those four seasons, the Jets made two AFC Championship game appearances. In six postseason contests during that time, Jets signal caller Mark Sanchez had a 94.3 passer rating, ninth highest in NFL playoff history among quarterbacks with at least 100 postseason attempts. Sanchez's nine postseason touchdown passes are most in franchise history and his 1,155 passing yards in the playoffs are second.

Cavanaugh came to the Jets, after four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh (2005-08). It was his second stint at Pitt after making his coaching debut in 1993 working with the Panthers tight ends. As offensive coordinator, Cavanaugh helped tutor future NFL running backs LeSean McCoy and LaRod Stephens-Howlin. In 2006, quarterback Tyler Palko ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 163.25 rating. In 2007 as a freshman under Cavanaugh, McCoy was 21st in the nation in rushing averaging 110.7 yards per game. McCoy followed up that campaign by ranking 10th in the nation in rushing in 2008, averaging 114.5 yards per game. His 21 touchdowns as a sophomore were tied for third most in the NCAA that year and his 36 total touchdowns (35 rushing) in his two years under Cavanaugh set an NCAA record for touchdowns by a player through his sophomore campaign. McCoy's 2,816 rushing yards ranked fourth in school history, despite only playing for two seasons before leaving for the NFL.

Cavanaugh joined the University of Pittsburgh after working as the Baltimore Ravens offensive coordinator from 1999-2004, which included the franchise's Super Bowl XXXV victory in 2000. During that season, the Ravens ground game churned out a franchise-record 2,199 yards, fifth most in the NFL. Jamal Lewis had 1,364 rushing yards as a rookie that season, ranking seventh in the NFL. Under Cavanaugh's tutelage Lewis went on to produce 2,066 rushing yards in 2003, third-highest in NFL history, one of seven 2,000-yard rushers in league annals.

During his first stint with the Bears, Cavanaugh helped direct quarterback Erik Kramer to 3,011 passing yards in 1997, which at the time was fourth-highest in franchise history and still ranks as eighth best. The 3,501 gross passing yards in 1997 are fifth most in franchise history. That year, running back Raymont Harris had 1,033 rushing yards marking one of just five times in Bears history they produced a 3,000-yard passer and 1,000-yard rusher in the same season. Despite injuries to the quarterback position in 1998, the Bears offense produced 3,277 passing yards as wideout Bobby Engram had 987 receiving yards, 13th most in franchise single-season annals.

BEARS IN SEASON OPENING HOME GAMES

The Bears open the regular season schedule at home for the fifth straight year, hosting the Buffalo Bills. The contest marks the first time since the 1992-96 seasons that Chicago will open the season in front of their home fans in five-straight campaigns.

Of Chicago's last 21 season openers at home dating back to 1984, the Bears are 18-3 (.857).

This will mark the first time that the Bears opened their season versus Buffalo.

Cavanaugh served as quarterbacks coach for the San Francisco 49ers in 1996 as Steve Young led the NFL in passer rating (97.2) and completion percentage (67.7), which was the fourth highest of his career. He got his first taste of NFL coaching in 1994, working as the quarterbacks coach of the Arizona Cardinals, a position he held for two years.

Cavanaugh won two Super Bowl titles as a backup quarterback with the New York Giants (XXV) and the 49ers (XIX). He was a second-round selection (50th overall) of the Patriots in 1978 NFL Draft, spending five seasons with New England (1978-82) before stints with the 49ers (1983-85), Eagles (1986-89) and Giants (1990-91). He appeared in 112 contests with 19 starts, completing 305 of 579 passes for 4,332 yards, 28 touchdowns and 30 interceptions.

As a collegiate quarterback, Cavanaugh guided Pitt to the 1976 National Championship and was named the Sugar Bowl MVP after a 27-3 victory over Georgia. A year later, he earned All-America honors.

MIKE GROH Wide Receivers

Mike Groh is in his second season as the Bears wide receivers coach after being named to the position on February 23, 2013.

In 2013, Groh helped Alshon Jeffery and Brandon Marshall become the first pair of Bears wide receivers to be named to the Pro Bowl in the same year after the duo broke the franchise record for most combined receiving yards by two players in a single-season (2,716). Groh coached Jeffery, who was in his second NFL season in 2013, to 89 receptions for 1,421 yards. The 1,421 yards are second-most in franchise single-season history and the 89 receptions are sixth. Marshall's 1,295 receiving yards in 2013 are fifth-most in Bears annals and his 100 receptions are second. Jeffery finished sixth in the NFL in receiving yards in 2013 and Marshall finished 11th, while their 2,716 combined yards were the second most by an NFL duo that season. Marshall's career-high 12 touchdown receptions in 2013 are tied for third-most in franchise history.

In 2013, under Groh's tutelage, Jeffery also set the franchise record for receiving yards in a single-game with 218 versus New Orleans on October 6 before breaking it later that season at Minnesota on December 1 with 249 yards. Jeffery is the only player in franchise history with multiple 200-yard receiving games and just the eighth player in NFL history (nine occurrences) to have two 200-yard receiving games in the same season.

Last season, Groh helped coach the wide receivers in an offensive unit that set franchise records in net yards (6,109), gross passing yards (4,450), net passing yards (4,281), completion percentage (64.4), passing touchdowns (32), passer rating (96.9), first downs (344) and passing first downs (215). The 445 points scored by the Bears were second-most in team history.

Prior to joining the Bears, Groh spent two seasons as Alabama's wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator, helping lead the Crimson Tide to back-to-back national championships, his third overall at Alabama after serving as the offensive graduate assistant in 2009. In addition, Groh was recognized as the 2013 national recruiter of the year by Rivals and 24/7 Sports.

In 2012, Groh oversaw Amari Cooper's Freshman All-America season as the true freshman set a school record with 11 touchdown receptions and a school-freshman record with 59 receptions for 1,000 yards. Overall in 2012, the Crimson Tide offense set school records for points scored (542), passing touchdowns (31), total offense (6,237) and offensive touchdowns (68). In 2011, Groh coached seven wide receivers who averaged 10-plus yards per reception. Marquis Maze recorded 56 catches for 627 yards, earning second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors.

As the quarterbacks coach at Louisville in 2010, Groh developed seniors Adam Froman and Justin Burke, who had to share the starting role due to injuries. The duo improved from nine touchdown passes with 10 interceptions in 2009 to 21 TDs with just seven INTs in 2010.

Groh spent the 2009 season at Alabama as an offensive graduate assistant as the Tide recorded a 14-0 record en route to the national championship.

Prior to his time at Alabama and Louisville, Groh coached at his alma mater, Virginia, for eight seasons (2001-08), including the final three years as the offensive coordinator for the Cavaliers. Groh started as the wide receivers coach before added the role of overseeing the quarterbacks in 2003. He also added the title of recruiting coordinator in 2005.

In his first year working with the quarterbacks at Virginia, Groh coached NFL Pro Bowler Matt Schaub, who set a school record with a 69.7 percent completion percentage, throwing for 2,952 yards and 18 touchdowns. In 2004-05, Groh helped Marques Hagans transition from wide receiver to quarterback. Hagans finished his career with 4,877 passing yards, seventh-most in school history.

As the wide receivers coach in 2001 and 2002 seasons, Groh helped Billy McMullen become the second leading receiver in ACC history with a school-record 210 career receptions.

As the starting quarterback at Virginia in 1994-95, Groh is the only signal-caller in school history to lead the Cavaliers to nine wins and a bowl victory in consecutive seasons. In 1994, he led the ACC and was 13th nationally in passing, leading Virginia to a 9-3 record, while being named MVP of the Independence Bowl after a 20-10 victory over TCU.

CHICAGO BEARS STAFF

As a tri-captain in 1995, Groh helped lead Virginia to a share of the ACC championship with a 9-4 record, including a 34-27 victory over Georgia in the Peach Bowl. He earned second team all-ACC honors in 1995 and received Virginia's Joe Palumbo Award for self-sacrifice.

Groh played his final season at Virginia as a graduate student, after receiving his undergraduate degree in rhetoric and communication studies from Virginia in 1995. He attended the Baltimore Ravens training camp as a free agent in 1996 and later played in the World League for the Rhein Fire in 1997. Groh spent the 2000 season as an offensive assistant/quality control coach for the New York Jets.

Groh is married to the former Elena Montero.

Under Hoke's tutelage, cornerbacks Tim Jennings and Charles Tillman have been named to a total of four Pro Bowls over the last three seasons. Jennings has made two-straight Pro Bowls (following the 2012 and 2013 seasons) and ranks second in the NFL since 2012 with 13 interceptions. Tillman made two straight Pro Bowls after the 2011 and 2012 seasons and has 16 interceptions, six interception return touchdowns and 23 forced fumbles under Hoke's tutelage.

Since Hoke joined the Bears in 2009, Chicago ranks third in the NFL in interceptions (97), second in interception return yards (1,569) and leads the league with 19 interception return touchdowns. The Bears defensive backs have helped hold opposing quarterbacks to an 80.4 passer rating during that time, 10th lowest in the NFL.

Last season, Chicago tied for eighth in the NFL with 19 interceptions. Jennings was named to the Pro Bowl after his eight combined interceptions (four), forced fumbles (three) and opponent fumble recoveries (one) were fourth most in the NFL and tied for first among cornerbacks. In eight games last season, Tillman had three interceptions and three forced fumbles. Under Hoke's guidance in 2012, Jennings and Charles Tillman were both named as Pro Bowl starters, the first cornerback tandem to both be named Pro Bowl starters since Hanford Dixon and Frank Minnifield of the Cleveland Browns in 1988. Jennings led the NFL with nine interceptions in 2012, tied for second-most in Bears single-season history. Tillman became the first cornerback to be selected to back-to-back Pro Bowls in Bears history and the team's first defensive back since safety Mark Carrier in 1990-91. In 2012, Tillman led the NFL with a career-high 10 forced fumbles and was named All-Pro by the Associated Press.

In 2011, Tillman, a nine-year veteran at the time, earned his first career Pro Bowl.

In 2010, safety Chris Harris, who is now a defensive quality control coach for Chicago, was named second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press after recording five interceptions. Tillman returned his five interceptions in 2010 127 yards, third most in the NFL. Tillman's 25.4 yards per return was third highest in the NFL.

In 2009, second-year cornerback Zackary Bowman ranked tied for fifth in the NFL with six interceptions, the most by a Bears corner since Nathan Vasher had eight in 2006. Tillman ranked second in the NFL in 2009 with six forced fumbles, the most among defensive backs.

Prior to his time in Chicago, the 31-year coaching veteran spent the previous seven seasons (2002-08) as the Houston Texans defensive backs coach after spending three seasons (1999-2001) at the University of Florida as the Gators defensive coordinator/secondary coach. He added the title of assistant head coach in his final two seasons (2000-01) at Florida.

During his time with the Texans, Houston defensive backs accounted for 82.8 percent (72 of 87) of the teams' interceptions, seventh-highest percentage in the NFL during that span and third-highest in the AFC. In 2002, he coached CB Aaron Glenn to the Pro Bowl.

Prior to his time in Gainesville, Hoke tutored the defensive backs at Missouri for five seasons (1994-98) after spending five years in the same capacity at Kent State (1989-93), adding the title of defensive coordinator in his final season with the Golden Flashes.

Hoke started coaching at Bowling Green in 1983 as the Falcons' secondary/special teams coach. He spent four seasons in Bowling Green before coaching the defensive backs/special teams at San Diego State from 1987-88.

A four-year letterman at Ball State (1976-79), Hoke earned all-MAC honors as a defensive back. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education. Hoke played 11 games for the Chicago Bears in 1980, recording seven tackles.

A native of Kettering, Ohio, Hoke and his wife, Jody, have four children: Mallory, Kyle and twins Kendall and Carly.

FLEX SCHEDULING

For the first time, flexible scheduling may be applied in Weeks 5-10. During that period, flexible scheduling can be used in no more than two weeks by shifting a Sunday afternoon game into primetime and moving the Sunday night game to an afternoon start time.

Also, for the first time, a select number of games are being "cross-flexed," moving between CBS and FOX to bring potentially under-distributed games to wider audiences.

"Flexible scheduling" will be used in Weeks 11-17 as it has been in recent years. In Weeks 11-16, the schedule lists the games tentatively set for Sunday Night Football on NBC. Only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game would be moved to an afternoon start time. Flexible scheduling will not be applied to games airing on Thursday, Saturday or Monday nights. A flexible scheduling move would be announced at least 12 days before the game. For Week 17, the Sunday night game will be announced no later than six days prior to December 28. The schedule does not list a Sunday night game in Week 17, but an afternoon game with playoff implications will be moved to that time slot. Flexible scheduling ensures quality matchups in all Sunday time slots in those weeks and gives "surprise" teams a chance to play their way into primetime.

PAT MEYER Offensive Line

Pat Meyer is in his first year as offensive line coach for the Chicago Bears after spending one season as the team's assistant offensive line coach. Meyer was hired by the franchise on January 24, 2013.

In 2013, Meyer worked alongside offensive coordinator Aaron Kromer and helped coach an offensive line - with four new starters, including two rookies - that allowed just 30 sacks, tied for fourth fewest in the NFL. This marked a 14-sack improvement from a year prior and was the fewest sacks allowed by the Bears since allowing 29 in 2008.

Last season, Meyer helped rookie guard Kyle Long become the first Bears offensive lineman to be named to the Pro Bowl since 2006 and the first Chicago rookie to be selected to the Pro Bowl at an offensive position since RB Gale Sayers in 1965.

Meyer joined the Bears after one season in Montreal as the Alouettes offensive line coach. In 2012, the Alouettes were third in the league in scoring (26.6 points per game), tied for first in touchdowns (51), second in passing (293.2 yards per game) and tied for first in fewest sacks allowed (30). He was named offensive coordinator at the conclusion of that season.

Prior to his time in Montreal, Meyer spent four seasons at his alma mater, Colorado State (2008-11). In his first season he worked as the Rams offensive line coach before adding the title of run game coordinator a year later. In 2010, he became Colorado State's offensive coordinator.

Meyer spent the 2006 season at North Carolina State as the offensive line coach. He also has nine years of experience as a strength and conditioning coaching working at Florida State (2007), NC State (2000-05) and Memphis (1999-2000).

In 1997, Meyer made his coaching debut at Memphis as a graduate assistant before working as the offensive assistant in 1998 with a focus on the Tigers offensive line and tight ends. He was the school's assistant strength coach in 1999 before working as the director of strength and conditioning for the first five months of 2000.

Meyer was a four-year letterman at Colorado State (1991-94), earning all-WAC honors three-straight years. As a senior he was team captain, earning first-team all-conference accolades and was named an Academic All-American.

He went on to sign with the NFL's Arizona Cardinals as an undrafted rookie free agent in 1995 before playing in the Arena Football League with the St. Louis Stampede.

An all-state selection and a four-year starter at Girard (Ohio) High School, Meyer also lettered in wrestling, basketball, baseball and track.

Meyer and his wife, Erin, have three daughters, Christina, Emma and Sophia. He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science from CSU in 1995.

Plasman played for the Bears from 1937-41 and 1944 and was part of World Championship teams in 1940 and 1941. The NCAA made helmets mandatory in 1939 and the NFL followed shortly thereafter. Plasman never wore a helmet in high school, college or the pros but, after a stint in the armed forces, was required to wear a helmet when he returned to the NFL in 1944.

SKIP PEETE Running Backs

After being hired by the Chicago Bears on January 18, 2013, Skip Peete is in his second season as the team's running backs coach.

Peete has spent the last 16 seasons as an NFL running backs coach.

In 2013, under Peete's coaching, Bears running back Matt Forte was named to his second career Pro Bowl after finishing second in the NFL with 1,339 rushing yards and third with 1,933 yards from scrimmage. Both were career-bests for Forte, ranking ninth and fifth, respectively, in single-season franchise history and most among players other than Hall of Famer Walter Payton. With Peete's guidance, Forte added a career-best nine rushing touchdowns in 2013, which were tied for the sixth most in the NFL and his 12 overall touchdowns also tied a career-high. Peete also helped Forte set a franchise record among running backs for receptions in a season with 74 and his 594 receiving yards were second-most in franchise annals.

Prior to joining the Bears, Peete spent six seasons (2007-12) with the Dallas Cowboys.

During his tenure in Dallas, the Cowboys rushing attack set a franchise single-season record in 2009 with a 4.8 yards per carry average (2,103 yards on 436 attempts), which ranked second in the NFL that season. Dallas' 131.4 rushing yards per game was seventh in the league in 2009. His 2011 squad finished with the ninth-highest rushing average in franchise history at 4.4 yards per attempt (1,807 yards on 408 carries).

In 2009, under Peete's guidance, Felix Jones established a single-season franchise mark averaging 5.9 yards per carry (685 yards on 116 attempts). His rushing average led the league in 2009 and is 10th highest in NFL single-season annals among running backs since the 1970 merger. DeMarco Murray's 5.5 rushing average (897 yards on 164 attempts) in 2011 is third-highest in single-season franchise history and was third-highest in the NFL that season (second among running backs). It is the seventh highest rushing average by a rookie since 1970 and fifth highest during that time among rookie running backs.

In his first season with the club in 2007, Peete helped Marion Barber to his first career Pro Bowl nod as Barber rushed for a career-high 975 rushing yards to go along with 10 touchdowns.

Prior to his time in Dallas, Peete spent nine seasons (1998-2006) overseeing the Raiders running backs. During that time, Peete directed Tyrone Wheatley (1,046 in 2000) and LaMont Jordan (1,025 in 2005) to career highs in rushing yards. The 1,000-yard rushing seasons are two of just 14 such occurrences in franchise history and rank 10th and 11th, respectively in Raiders annals.

Oakland led the league in rushing in 2000 averaging 154.4 yards per game, ninth best in franchise history. During the Raiders 2002 AFC Championship season, Charlie Garner had 941 receiving yards on 91 receptions, fourth and fifth most all-time in NFL single-season history among running backs.

Before coming to the NFL, Peete spent 10 years (1988-1997) in the collegiate coaching ranks. He began his career at the University of Pittsburgh as a graduate assistant in 1988 before coaching the wide receivers for two seasons. He was the Panthers running backs coach for his final two seasons at Pittsburgh, coaching future NFL rusher Curtis Martin. Peete went on to coach the wide receivers at Michigan State (1993-94) and Rutgers (1995) before coaching the running backs at UCLA for two seasons (1996-97).

Collegiately, Peete played two seasons at Arizona (1981-82) before transferring to Kansas. During his time at Kansas, Peete was an All-Big Eight wide receiver (1985) and was voted team captain in his senior year of 1986. He played wide receiver and special teams for one season in the NFL with the New York Jets.

His father, Willie, is a longtime collegiate and NFL coach, including working with the Bears running backs from 1995-97 and as one of Chicago's pro scouts in 1998. His brother, Rodney, is a former NFL quarterback, who played 16 seasons. A Phoenix native, Peete and his wife, Rebeca, have twins, son Reeco and daughter Gisele.

BEARS TEAM CAPTAINS

Since 2007, at the recommendation of the NFL's six-member player advisory council, NFL teams could name up to six season-long captains. Captains are designated with a square patch with the letter "C" and four gold stars across the bottom. A player receives a gold star for each year he is a team captain. Teams are allowed to determine how they want to select their captains, some opting for weekly captains which do not wear the "C" patch, while others elect up to six.

In 2013 the offense was led by C Roberto Garza and QB Jay Cutler, the defense was directed by LB Lance Briggs and DE Julius Peppers while LS Patrick Mannely captained the special teams. The following is the Chicago Bears captains since 2007.

MARSHALL LAW

In two seasons in Chicago, Pro Bowl WR Brandon Marshall has rewritten the Bears record books in most major receiving categories. In 2012, Marshall established the Bears single-season record in receptions with 118 and receiving yards with 1,508. Marshall's 100 receptions in 2013 were second in franchise single-season history and his 1,295 receiving yards that season were fifth. His 12 receiving touchdowns in 2013 were tied for third in Bears single-season history while his 11 receiving touchdowns in 2012 were tied for sixth.

Marshall now has 712 receptions for 9,050 yards (12.7 ypc) and 57 touchdowns in eight NFL seasons.

Since joining the NFL in 2006, the five-time Pro Bowler ranks third in receptions and fifth in receiving yardage. Marshall is the only player in the NFL to have over 1,000 yards receiving in each season from 2007-13. Marshall is also the only receiver in the NFL to haul in 80-plus receptions in each of the last seven seasons.

NFL 2013 TV RECAP

Football fans tuned into the 2013 NFL season in BIG numbers. According to The Nielsen Company, the 2013 regular season reached 205 million unique viewers, representing 81 percent of all television homes and 70 percent of potential viewers in the U.S.

The 2013 NFL Regular Season averaged 17.6 million viewers per game telecast, the second most-watched season ever behind the 2010 season (17.9 million). NFL games accounted for 34 of the 35 most-watched TV shows among all programming last fall. Twenty-two NFL game telecasts this season were watched by at least 25 million viewers – nearly triple the total for the full 2012 season (eight). For the second consecutive year, an NFL game was the week's most-watched TV show in all 17 weeks of the season.

NFL games nearly tripled broadcast primetime viewership. NFL games on CBS, FOX and NBC averaged 20.3 million viewers – 190 percent higher than the average primetime viewership among the four major over-the-air networks (7.0 million average on ABC, CBS, FOX, NBC). That NFL advantage is more than triple the 56 percent edge of a decade ago.

Over the past decade, average viewership of NFL games on broadcast television has increased 31% from 15.5 million in 2003 to 20.3 million in 2013.

More 2013 NFL TV highlights:

- NBC Sunday Night Football ranked as the most-watched primetime program for the fourth consecutive fall season averaging 21.7 million viewers. For the past two years, Sunday Night Football ranked as the most watched television show for the full fall-spring TV season, becoming the first sports series to ever hold that position.
- FOX had its most-viewed season ever with an average of 21.1 million viewers per game.
- CBS' Thanksgiving Day Game (Oakland Raiders-Dallas Cowboys) was the most-watched show of the fall season with 31.7 million viewers. 2013 was CBS' second most-watched season ever with an average of 18.6 million viewers.
- NFL games accounted for 46 of the 50 most-watched telecasts (since Sept. 5) among adults aged 18-49 – with CBS, FOX, ESPN and NBC each represented on that list.
- ESPN's Monday Night Football was the most-watched series on cable for the eighth consecutive year with an average of 13.7 million viewers.
- NFL Network wrapped up its eighth season of Thursday Night Football with a record average of 8.1 million viewers (including the audience from over-the-air stations in local markets) and ranked as the most-watched Thursday program on cable last fall.
- NFL Network's average weekday primetime viewership jumped eight percent from a record 2012.

GOOD AS GOULD FROM LONG DISTANCE

Bears K Robbie Gould was short on a 66-yard field goal attempt at the end of the regulation in Week 13 of the 2013 season at Minnesota, snapping his streak of 12-straight field goal attempts from 50 yards or longer dating back to the 2010 season.

That streak is tied with Vikings kicker Blair Walsh for the longest such streak in NFL history as both kickers broke Tony Zendejas' record during the 2013 season. Walsh's streak came to an end in Week 7 of the the 2013 season at the New York Giants.

For his career, Gould is 16-of-21 on 50-plus yard field goal attempts (76.2 percent), tied for the third-most accurate kicker in NFL history from that range among kickers with at least 10 attempts from 50-plus yards. Gould's 16 field goals made of 50 yards or longer are tied for the most in franchise history with Kevin Butler (42 attempts).

NAMING THE BEARS

George Halas originally named the team the Decatur Staleys after A.E. Staley, a starch manufacturer and enthusiastic sports fan who sponsored a semi-pro team and commissioned Halas to organize the new squad.

One year later, trying to match the profitability of Chicago's baseball franchises, Staley asked Halas if he would take the team off Staley's hands and move it to Chicago for $5,000, while keeping the name Staleys for another year. With the help of legendary baseball pioneers Bill Veeck, Sr. and William Wrigley, Halas soon acquired a lease to play at Wrigley Field.

When Halas' obligation to Staley terminated in 1922, he considered re-naming the team the Chicago Cubs out of respect for Veeck and Wrigley who, according to Halas in his biography, "had been such a great help."

But, as Halas continued, "I noted football players are much bigger players than baseball players, so if baseball players are cubs, then football players must be bears!"

On January 28, 1922, the franchise was renamed the Chicago Bears.

The team colors have always been navy blue and orange after those of Halas' alma mater, the University of Illinois. Halas lettered in football, basketball and baseball for the Fighting Illini, and is honored as one of U of I's most distinguished alumni in the Illini Union in Urbana-Champaign.

CHICAGO BEARS HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

1920s

9/17/20—George Halas, representing the Decatur Staleys, meets with representatives of 11 other clubs at Ralph Hay's Hupmobile showroom in Canton, Ohio, forming the American Professional Football Association – which later became the NFL. Membership is set at $100.

1920—The Staleys shut out 10 of 13 foes, losing only to the Chicago Cardinals (7-6 at Normal Park), and post a 10-1-2 record. Each player is paid $1,900 for the season.

1921—A. E. Staley gives Halas the club with $5,000 to keep the Staleys name for the year. Decatur Staleys become Chicago Staleys, play in Cubs Park (re-named Wrigley Field in 1926), and win the APFA title with 9-1-1 record. Halas makes Dutch Sternaman his partner.

1/28/22—Franchise renamed Chicago Bears.

11/27/22—First Chicago player deal: Bears buy tackle Ed Healey's contract from the Rock Island Independents for $100—twice the going rate for a franchise that season.

11/22/25—Harold "Red" Grange signs with Bears and pro football leaves its cradle. His agent, C.C. (Cash & Carry) Pyle, negotiates a $100,000 deal with the Bears. Halas takes the Bears and Grange on a coast-to-coast tour that sees the club play 19 games from Nov. 26 through Jan. 31 interrupted only by a two-week rest. The Bears post a 13-5-1 record on the trip.

11/26/25—Grange's first game—36,000 see Bears and Cardinals tie 0-0 in Cubs Park. Grange held to 36 yards.

1/16/26—Grange gets two TDs as the Bears impress 70,000 in the LA Coliseum beating the LA Tigers 17-7.

3/1/26—Bears open offices at 111 W. Washington in Chicago.

1930s

1930—After a 4-9-2 1929 season, George Halas replaces himself as head coach with Ralph Jones. Jones posts a 24-10-7 record during his three seasons.

12/15/30—Bears and Cardinals play football's first indoor game on an 80-yard field in Chicago Stadium. The exhibition aids unemployment; Bears win 9-7 before 10,000 fans.

11/15/31—New Yorkers (including Gov. Alfred E. Smith and Mayor Jimmy Walker) in field boxes at $100 a seat watch Bears top Giants at Polo Grounds 12-6.

12/18/32—Bronko Nagurski hits Red Grange with a two-yard TD pass and the Bears top the Portsmouth Spartans 9-0 for the NFL championship. The game was played before 11,198, indoors at Chicago Stadium on an 80-yard field.

1932—Franchise loses $18,000, prompting Dutch Sternaman to unload his half of the Bears to George Halas.

1933—George Halas returns as head coach and takes club out of town for training camp for the first time. University of Notre Dame is the host.

11/5/33—Boston Redskins beat Bears, 10-0, ending Chicago's 16-game unbeaten string.

12/17/33—Bears use rookie Jack Manders' accurate kicking for 11 points and defeat the Giants 23-21 in the NFL's first championship game.

1934—Halas University, the Bears alumni association, begins. Annually, Bear veterans return during season for Homecoming Weekend.

1934—Bears hold training camp at Lane Tech High in Chicago.

8/31/34—A classic is born as 79,432 watch the NFL champion Bears held to a scoreless tie by the first College All-Star team in a game sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities at Soldier Field.

12/2/34—Rookie Beattie Feathers becomes first pro to rush for 1,000 yards in a season (1,004), leading the NFL.

12/9/34—Undefeated Bears slip before Giants in NFL title tilt at Polo Grounds 30-13 before 35,059. With Chicago leading 10-3 at the half, NY dons basketball sneakers and scores 27 points.

1935—Training camp is conducted at St. John's Military Academy in Delafield, Wisconsin.

1936—Bears make Joe Stydahar, a tackle from West Virginia, their first draft pick ever.

12/12/37—Bears win Western Division title but lose NFL Championship 28-21 to Redskins at Wrigley Field. Sammy Baugh hits 18 of 33 for 335 yards and three TDs. Jack Manders scores 15 of the Bears points. A Chicago player's share is $127.78.

7/25/39—Future Hall of Famer Sid Luckman signs his first contract after being selected by the Bears with the second pick of the 1939 NFL draft.

1940s

12/8/40—Ten Bears tally TDs as Chicago rips Washington 73-0 for the NFL title before 36,034 in D.C. The rout signals the beginning of pro football's modern era with the formal unweaving of the T-formation. Each player receives $873.

1941—Bear Down, Chicago Bears, the Bears new fight song, is published.

12/14/41—Bears and Packers agree their playoff game should be played to a "sudden death" finish in event of tie. NFL adopts plan 1/24/42.

12/21/41—Bears throttle the New York Giants 37-9 for the NFL Championship.

1942—George Halas departs in October after five games for the US Navy. The Bears win their remaining six games to finish the season 11-0 and advance to the title game but lose to Washington, 14-6.

1943—Hunk Anderson and Luke Johnsos co-coach the wartime Bears for the next three seasons, compiling a 15-11-2 record.

11/14/43—Sid Luckman becomes the first pro to pass for 400+ yards in a game, scorching the Giants for 433 yards and seven TDs.

12/26/43—The Bears blast Washington 41-21 in Wrigley Field for the NFL title before 34,320 fans. Sid Luckman throws five TD passes (2 each to Harry Clark and Dante Magnani). Bronko Nagurski scores his last Bear TD, a 3-yard run.

12/15/46—With George Halas around for the full season, the Bears whip the Giants 24-14 before a record NFL title crowd of 58,346 in the Polo Grounds. After opening with a 21-yard TD pass to Ken Kavanaugh, Sid Luckman gets the winning score on a 19-yard bootleg.

12/19/47—Bears make the first trade for a draft choice, then select QB Bobby Layne in the 1948 draft.

12/11/49—Johnny Lujack sets NFL passing record with 468 yards against the Cardinals.

1950s

12/17/50—Bears and Rams tie for Western Division title with 9-3 marks but Rams trip Bears in LA 24-14 to break the tie.

1956—Halas leaves coaching for a third time. Paddy Driscoll gets the position.

12/30/56—Giants, with their sneakers again, trounce Chicago 47-7 before 56,836 in Yankee Stadium for NFL title.

11/2/58—Bears and Rams establish NFL attendance record drawing 90,833 paid (100,470 actual) in the LA Coliseum. Rams win 41-35.

1960s

10/22/61—Bears destroy the scorching 49er shotgun formation 31-0 with Bill George playing middle guard and the defensive line stunting.

AIKMAN EFFICIENCY RATINGS

Established in 1995, the Aikman Efficiency Ratings measure offensive and defensive performance using a combination of seven key statistics identified by Troy Aikman, and then measured against league norms (and extremes). An offense or defense performing exactly at league norms in all categories will achieve a score of 75 while an exceptional unit would score 90 or more. Each unit starts with a base of 50 points and then has points added (or in two cases subtracted) to build the final ranking. (*Super Bowl winner; #Super Bowl loser)

GEORGE S. HALAS

FEBRUARY 2, 1895 — OCTOBER 31, 1983

Leading the Chicago Bears for more than a half-century, George S. Halas, the team's founder and head coach for 40 years, was one of the most enduring personalities in sports history. Halas was active with the Bears starting in 1920 when he founded the team as the Decatur Staleys.

Halas was born and raised on Chicago's west side and prepped at Crane Tech High School before attending the University of Illinois. In Champaign, he earned a B.S. degree while lettering in football, basketball and baseball. After graduation in 1918, Halas joined the Navy for the first of two tours of duty. He was named Player of the Game in the 1919 Rose Bowl, playing end on the Great Lakes team that beat the Marines 17-0. A commander when he left active duty in 1946, Halas retired as a captain in the Naval Reserve. He was also awarded the Distinguished Citizens Award—the highest honor the Navy can bestow on a civilian.

After leaving the Navy, Halas played right field for the New York Yankees, but a hip injury shortened his baseball career. Halas went to work for a Decatur (IL) corn products firm owned by an enthusiastic sports fan, Mr. A.E. Staley, who sponsored a semi-pro baseball team, and later commissioned Halas to organize an independent football team.

PRO CAREER: As a player, Halas set an NFL record (which stood 49 years until 1972) when he took a Jim Thorpe fumble 98 yards for a TD in a 26-0 win over the Oorang Indians at Cubs Park (11/4/23) (re-named Wrigley Field in 1926). He played end for the Bears from 1920-29 and was named to the NFL all-pro squad of the 1920s.

PRO COACHING CAREER: Three times Halas interrupted his coaching activities by his own volition. He first turned over the leadership to Ralph Jones from 1930 through 1932. In 1942 when he left for the Navy, Luke Johnsos and Heartley "Hunk" Anderson shared head coaching responsibilities through '45. John "Paddy" Driscoll coached in 1956-57. Coincidentally, in '33 and again in '46 when Halas resumed coaching, his Bears won world championships.

During the 1940s, his teams reached the height of their power with four straight Western Conference titles; three world championships; a fantastic four-season record (including pre-season games) of 62-7-1 (.899); scored 2,164 points and allowed just 842. The 1940 team, which defeated the Washington Redskins 73-0 for the world championship, was voted the greatest professional team of all-time by the National Academy of Sports Editors in 1963.

Resuming coaching in 1958, Halas needed five years to develop another champion, when in 1963 the Bears won their eighth championship. The Sporting News, AP, and UPI named him Coach of the Year after the 1963 and 1965 seasons. Halas retired from coaching on May 27, 1968, with a career record of 324-151-31. His win total was the best in NFL history until Don Shula broke the mark in 1993. Halas is a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

GEORGE S. HALAS, JR.

SEPTEMBER 4, 1925 — DECEMBER 16, 1979

George S. "Mugs" Halas was an integral part of the Bears before his untimely death in 1979. The son of pro football founder George S. Halas, Mugs spent 30 years in pro football. He joined the Bears' front office in 1950, was named treasurer in 1953, and became president of the club in 1963. He was also the first general manager in team history, serving in that capacity from 1963-74. In his first season as president, the Bears were NFL champions. Mugs was the second of just four presidents in the franchise history. He succeeded his father, George S. Halas, and was followed by Michael McCaskey and current president Ted Phillips. His numerous contributions on a league-level included membership on the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

Mugs learned football at a young age, serving as a ballboy while growing up. He earned a business degree from Loyola in 1949, before entering pro football on a full-time basis. Mugs is remembered for his love and devotion to the game.

McCaskey married Halas' only daughter, Virginia, in 1943 and joined the team at Halas' request in 1967.

McCaskey was a popular figure within the NFL and was referred to by many as the conscience of the League, as well as a sounding board for many of its leaders. FORMULA FOR QB RATING

Quarterback Rating uses five factors in determining a rating: attempts, completions, gross yardage, touch-downs and interceptions. It was designed so that a score of 100 would be great with 90 being very good, 80 being good - similar to an A-B-C grading scale. A passer rating of 158.3 is considered perfect.

The following is the formula which works when entered into Microsoft Excel:

$$=(\text{ROUND}(\frac{((\text{MAX}(\text{MIN}(2.375, ((\text{B1} * 100) / \text{A1}) - 30) * (0.05))), 0)) * (\text{MAX}(\text{MIN}(2.375, ((\text{D1} * 100) / \text{A1}) * (0.2))), 0)) * (\text{MAX}(\text{MIN}(2.375, ((\text{E1} * 100) / \text{A1}) - 9.5) * (-0.25))), 0)) + (\text{MAX}(\text{MIN}(2.375, ((\text{C1} / \text{A1}) - 3) * (0.25))), 0)) * 100) / 6, 1))$$

A1=ATTEMPTS; B1=COMPLETIONS; C1=GROSS YARDS; D1=TOUCHDOWNS; E1=INTERCEPTIONS

O-LINE RETURNS

For the first time since 2008, the Chicago Bears had the same five offensive linemen start all 16 games in 2013. The Bears were one of only three teams in the NFL (Philadelphia and Washington) to have the same starting offensive linemen start each game last season. The Bears offensive line had four new starters in 2013 from 2012. In 2013, C Roberto Garza anchored the line as the only returning starter from the 2012 season. The left side of the line consisted of free agent acquisitions Jermon Bushrod (tackle, New Orleans) and Matt Slauson (guard, New York Jets). The right side of the line had two rookie starters in Kyle Long (guard) and Jordan Mills (tackle). Long and Mills were the first two rookies to start along the offensive line for the Bears on opening day since 1983 when Jim Covert started at left tackle and Rob Fada started at left guard.

The Bears offensive line allowed just 30 sacks during the 2013 season, tied for fourth fewest in the NFL. It was the fewest sacks allowed by the Bears since allowing just 29 in 2008. The Bears had 609 total drop backs (579 pass attempts plus 30 sacks) for a 4.9 sack percentage. Since sacks became an official statistic in 1982, the 4.9 sack percentage is the sixth-lowest for the franchise and lowest since a 4.6 percentage in 2006.

In 2013, QBs Jay Cutler and Josh McCown combined to throw for 4,281 net passing yards, the most in team history. Neither passer eclipsed 3,000 yards last season, but Cutler has registered three of the Bears eight all-time 3,000-yard passing seasons and is the first player in team history with three such occurrences.

WRIGLEY RECORD

The Bears' all-time record at Wrigley Field stands at 221-89-22, a total of 332 games, 330 as the home team. (Two of those victories came with the Bears as the "road" team: twice in 1920 against the Chicago Tigers). The 330 Bears' home games at Wrigley Field appears to be a National Football League record, though unofficial. The Bears-Wrigley connection edges out Cleveland's Municipal Stadium as host for 324 home games of the Cleveland Browns, from 1950 through 1995. As the reincarnation of the Cleveland Browns play in a new stadium since their return in 1999, the Bears-Wrigley "record" appears safe.

In fact, Wrigley Field has hosted a total of 342 NFL games: 330 Bears home games, five home games of the Chicago Tigers in 1920, and seven home games of the Chicago Cardinals in 1931 and 1932. Besides the Browns' 324 home games at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, the Cleveland Indians played two home games there in 1931, and the Cleveland Rams played sixteen home contests in 1937 and 1939-1941. Municipal Stadium appears to have hosted a total of 342 total NFL games—same as Wrigley Field.

BEAR DOWN, CHICAGO BEARS

The Chicago Bears team fight song, "Bear Down, Chicago Bears," was introduced in 1941 by composer Al Hoffman under the pseudonym Jerry Downs. In a long-lasting and varied musical career, Hoffman earned immortality for writing words and music to "If I Knew You Were Coming I'd Have Baked a Cake" and "Mairzy Doats" among others.

Hoffman had little apparent connection to Chicago. He was born in Minsk, Russia in 1902. He grew up in Seattle after emigrating there with his family in 1908 and he moved to New York in the 1920s before starting a career as a music composer. Besides the aforementioned songs, he also wrote songs for Disney's original "Cinderella" cartoon, including "Bibbidi-Bobbidi-Boo," "A Dream Is A Wish Your Heart Makes," "The Work Song" and "So This Is Love."

The lyrics to "Bear Down, Chicago Bears":

Bear down, Chicago Bears, make every play clear the way to victory;

Bear down, Chicago Bears, put up a fight with a might so fearlessly.

We'll never forget the way you thrilled the nation, with your T-formation.

Bear down, Chicago Bears, and let them know why you're wearing the crown.

You're the pride and joy of Illinois, Chicago Bears, bear down.

CHICAGO BEARS WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR

Charles Tillman receives the Gladiator statue from NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell upon being named the 2013 Walter Payton Man of the Year.

The Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award is the only NFL award that recognizes a player for his community service activities as well as his excellence on the field. Renamed in 1999 for the legendary Chicago Bears Pro Football Hall of Fame running back, the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award has been given annually since 1970.

Chicago Bears cornerback Charles Tillman was named the 2013 Walter Payton Man of the Year, marking the fifth Chicago Bears player to be honored with the award joining Payton (1977), Dave Duerson (1987), Mike Singletary (1990) and Jim Flanigan (2000).

Tillman joins an esteemed list of winners of the annual award, including 17 Pro Football Hall of Famers. Recent winners of the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award include Jason Witten of the Dallas Cowboys (2012), Matt Birk, then of the Baltimore Ravens (2011), Madiou Williams, then of the Minnesota Vikings (2010). (A complete list of previous winners is below).

All 32 team nominees for the award receive a $1,000 donation from NFL Foundation to the charity of their choice. The three Man of the Year finalists received an additional $5,000 donation in their name. The selection panel is comprised of NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, former NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, Connie Payton, Pro Football Hall of Fame members Frank Gifford and Anthony Munoz, the previous year's winner and Sports Illustrated football writer Peter King.

The winner of the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award receives the Gladiator statue, an original art creation by the noted sculptor, Daniel Schwartz, and, the player's favorite charity receives a $20,000 donation in his name.

In memory of Brian Piccolo, each season since 1970 a Bears rookie has been honored with the Brian Piccolo Award. In 1992, the award was expanded to include a veteran as well. The Piccolo Award is a special honor voted on by Bears players only, who select a teammate they feel best exemplifies the courage, loyalty, teamwork, dedication and sense of humor of the late Brian Piccolo.

Brian Piccolo signed with the Bears as a free agent out of Wake Forest in 1965-the same year Hall of Famer Gale Sayers was drafted. The two became roommates, and Piccolo's support of Sayers through a devastating knee injury, as well as Sayers' devotion when Piccolo was stricken with cancer in 1969, became the stuff of legend. Piccolo was in his fourth season when a chest x-ray revealed a malignancy. Several months later on June 16, 1970, he died at age 26 from embryonal cell carcinoma.

Following his death, the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund was established and proceeds were sent to the Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York for research on embryonal cell carcinoma. At the time Piccolo died, the disease was 100% fatal, but today the cure rate is more than 95%.

With that victory, proceeds from the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund now benefits breast cancer research at Rush Medical Center and provides support to the Clearbrook Center for the developmentally disabled in Arlington Heights.

Since turning its attention to the fight against breast cancer, the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund, as well as all those who have generously joined in its efforts, has raised over $8 million for research since 1991. The fund remains active and welcomes the interest of contributions of others who share its commitment to breast cancer research and to the memory of Brian Piccolo.

CHICAGO BEARS ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award Foundation is dedicated to improving the lives of abused, neglected and at-risk children and ending the cycle of abuse. The purpose is to raise Awareness and Prevention of child abuse. That objective is coupled with the Foundation's commitment to celebrating players of inspiration in the NFL.

The award recipient symbolizes professionalism, great strength and dedication. He is also a community role model. With this honor he enters into association which contrasts his fierce profession by becoming a major component of the Courage House national support network. He becomes a crusader for victims of abuse, violence and neglect.

Each year, the Ed Block Courage Awards honors those National Football League players who exemplify commitments to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. This award is unique in that the recipients are selected solely by a vote of their teammates. Every fall, each of the thirty two teams conduct a vote which results in each team selecting their Ed Block Courage Award recipient for the year.

The Ed Block Courage Award began in Baltimore in honor of Eddie Block, former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts. Eddie Block and his wife dedicated their lives to helping children in distress as foster parents and advisers. There are 16 Courage Houses presently connected with NFL teams, locally the Maryville Academy in Des Plaines.

Ed McCaskey was the 1992 Honorary National Champion of the 14th Annual Ed Block Courage Awards. Each offseason Maryville Academy hosts a luncheon to promote awareness for the award and its causes. The proceeds go to the Ed McCaskey scholarship winners at Maryville which has been the Chicago Courage House since 1992.

Since its inception, the Foundation, through its charter with the Courage House National Support Network for Kids, and an affiliation with the National Football League and Professional Football Athletics Trainers Society, has helped to provide hope to countless children and raised millions of dollars.

Bears long snapper Patrick Mannelly was the Chicago Bears 2013 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award.

CHICAGO BEARS
INFORMATION

Bears President & CEO Ted Phillips led the franchise to one of the team's greatest off-field achievements with the construction of the Lakefront Improvement Plan which included the new football stadium within the confines of historic Soldier Field. The Bears are entering their 12th season in the new stadium, playing the inaugural campaign in 2003. The aggressive construction schedule lasted just 20 months-from the Bears last home game of the 2001 season (vs. PHI, Jan. 19, 2002) until re-opening against Green Bay on Sept. 29, 2003. The project earned many honors for design excellence and was named Midwest Construction magazine's overall Project of the Year in 2003.

- November, 2000-Bears President and CEO Ted Phillips and his team of experts answer questions and concerns of the Illinois General Assembly at the State Capitol. After three days of gathering support, the Illinois House and Senate passed Bill 1284 on Nov. 30, 2000, authorizing the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority to issue approximately $406 million in bonds to help finance the $630 million project.

The debt service on the bonds were paid from the surplus and projected growth of the existing two percent Chicago local hotel tax plus a local distributive tax and state hotel tax subsidy. The remaining $200 million was contributed by the Chicago Bears, including a $100 million loan from the National Football League.

- Nov. 15, 2000-The City of Chicago's Lakefront Improvement Plan was announced publicly by Mayor Richard M. Daley.

The project replaced parking lots with 17 acres of new parkland, built an underground parking structure to serve the Museum Campus and Soldier Field, created easier access to the Museum Campus and added other amenities giving Chicagoans and tourists the ability to enjoy the lakefront year-round.

- Jan. 5, 2001-Governor George Ryan signed House Bill 1284, designed to help fund a new stadium and enhance Chicago's lakefront.

The following is a number of facts concerning different elements of the Soldier Field project and the Lakefront Initiative:

LAKEFRONT IMPROVEMENTS

The project created approximately 17 acres of additional waterfront parkland for public enjoyment. This green space was programmed for year-round public uses such as a sledding hill, winter garden, a terraced park, an area for outdoor museum exhibits and other features.

The year-round parking facility created 2,500 new underground parking spaces immediately adjacent to the Field Museum and Shedd Aquarium and 3,100 outdoor spaces between the stadium and McCormick Place to ensure Chicago's great tailgating tradition continues.

SOLDIER FIELD IMPROVEMENTS

The stadium features increased sideline seating from 40% of seats to over 60%, an increased number of new and improved restrooms (over 1,000 restroom fixtures) plus more variety and access at over 350 concession points of sale, three-level United Club lounge, a Bears Ring of Honor throughout the mezzanine level, a Bears Den gallery depicting historical events from Soldier Field's past and a bas-relief of George Halas.

Above and beyond the Bears games, the new Soldier Field is capable of hosting an increasing number of athletic events, prime concerts, and large civic, cultural and educational gatherings. The unique design allows for easy stage setup and takedown, along with a field that can accommodate international soccer events.

FUNDING THE LAKEFRONT IMPROVEMENT PLAN

The Bears made a $224 million contribution to this project, pay annual rent of $5.7 million and accepted the cost overrun risks on the project. The entire cost of the Lakefront Project ($630 million) was raised without asking for taxpayers' money. The plan was supported through a local City of Chicago hotel tax. There was no extension or increase of any taxes and the hotel tax was principally paid by visitors and tourists.

PRESERVING HISTORY

The historic colonnades and historic South Wall remained untouched as the new stadium was built within the existing exterior of Soldier Field. The Memorial Water Wall honors all soldiers who have served in the United States Armed Forces. The Wall serves as an educational piece for families and visitors of the museum campus. A Doughboy statue was erected at the entrance of Gate O and the south concourse features a Medal of Honor tribute.

The Chicago Bears would like to thank our Hall of Fame Partners for their efforts toward making the fan experience exciting for all:

CHICAGO BEARS SOLDIER FIELD

Following 31 seasons of football along the shores of Lake Michigan (pictured, left), the Bears took a brief one-year hiatus from Soldier Field in 2002, playing home games at Memorial Stadium in Champaign so construction of the new Soldier Field (right) could be completed. The first game in the new stadium was Sept. 29, 2003 against division rival Green Bay. The Bears first season at the old venue was in 1971 after spending 50 seasons at Wrigley Field. Soldier Field was opened in 1924 as a 45,000-seat Municipal Grant Park Stadium. The first football game played on its field was November 22, 1924, as a capacity crowd watched Notre Dame edge Northwestern, 13-6.

It hosted the first boxing event which drew a gate of over $2.5 million (Dempsey-Tunney, 1927), the first ski meet held in a stadium, and the all-time largest football crowd (123,000). The largest crowd for any event in Soldier Field was 260,000 on Sept. 8, 1954, for the Catholic Church's Marian Year Tribute.

The 100,000-seat stadium was dedicated November 27, 1926, with Army battling Navy to a 21-21 tie. The all-time collegiate attendance record of 123,000-plus was established Nov. 26, 1927 as Notre Dame beat Southern Cal 7-6. In the first professional game at the then-mammoth stadium, the Bears defeated the Chicago Cardinals 10-0 on November 11, 1926.

Plans for the stadium started in 1919 as a memorial to the soldiers of WWI. Soldier Field stood on 10,000 pile foundations driving an average depth of 62.5 feet through fill that replaced the lake waters. The new stadium continues to be owned, maintained and operated by the Chicago Park District.

Other stadium notes since the Bears moved to Soldier Field:

- 1971 – September 19, Chicago defeats the Pittsburgh Steelers 17-15 before capacity crowd of 55,701 in the Bears' first game since moving from Wrigley.
- 1979 – The stadium undergoes major reconstruction and renovation prior to the season including new lighting, playing surface, and locker rooms; rebuilding of seating area (new chairbacks, armrests, seats); and improvement of sightlines.
- 1982 – Additional rebuilding of seating areas was completed as well as new concourses with more restrooms and concession areas. A new press box, 60 deluxe skyboxes, and a new scoreboard were also built. Capacity is increased to 66,030.
- 1988 – Surface was changed from artificial turf to natural grass, and 56 skyboxes were added along south rim (increasing the total to 116). Capacity is increased to 66,946.
- 1992 – Four seats are added increasing the capacity to 66,950.
- 1994 – The Park District spends millions to refurbish the stadium for the World Cup soccer tournament. Capacity is reduced by six to 66,944.
- 2000 – Mayor Daley announces Lakefront Redevelopment Project (11/15).
- 2001 – Project receives state and city approval.
- 2002 – Demolition begins on stadium immediately following playoff game (1/19).
- 2003 – Bears return to Soldier Field with Monday night re-opening on September 29 against Green Bay. Capacity is set at 61,500, over 5,000 fewer seats than the old stadium and the second smallest venue in the NFL.

Located on the west side of the stadium on the street-level main concourse, the bas-relief sculpture marks the gateway for a stadium visitor's trip through the history of the Chicago Bears.

Pure and simple, he loved this game that was as uncluttered and uncompromising as he was. Its requirements were courage, endurance, self-discipline and a competitive spirit. These were his prerequisites, too.

His teams played the game the same way he did—tough, aggressive and smart.

Often graced by a running back of exceptional ability, the Bears were always marked by a punishing defense that never stopped coming at you.

George Halas was a founder of the NFL and a pioneer of the Chicago Bears. His devotion to both over the decades helped them grow to prominence.

We will always remember his energy, his joy in competing, and his passion for his beloved Bears and Bear fans.

bas-relief inscription

The bas-relief is a time-line describing George Halas' contribution to the world of football and the history of the Chicago Bears.

Hall of Famers date back from the 1920's when George Halas founded the Chicago Bears, and represent different decades of team history.

The tremendous energy and influence of the two large George Halas reliefs tells the story and balances all of the action. George S. Halas is without doubt the overriding presence in the sculpture.

The laser-etched imagery shows the team in the 1920's - also Halas and his team celebrating a 1940's win against the Washington Redskins, fan images from Wrigley Field, a photo of Halas with George Jr. and Paddy Driscoll, and a fan grouping from the 1980's. Integrated in the composition is the famous "T" formation that George Halas invented.

THE DOUGHBOY STATUE

Just inside Gate 0 in the Grand Concourse stands the restored Doughboy Statue. Originally installed in Chicago's Garfield Park in the early 1930s, four decades later it was damaged, debased, but not forgotten. Chicago sculpture conservator Andrzej Dajnowski meticulously recast the missing parts and refurbished the entire statue and base to its original condition and it joins the other memorials to the American fighting men and women at Soldier Field.

Chicago Bears Hall of Fame greats are honored on the mezzanine level Ring of Honor. The 27 Chicago Bears enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, are the most of any team in the NFL.

THE MEMORIAL WATER WALL

The Memorial Water Wall, a 280-foot long wall of polished green granite with eight medallions honoring the different branches of the armed services, flanks the walkway that leads into the north entrance of the stadium. A veil of water continuously flows over the sculptured memorial.

New west addition to Halas Hall along with a new entry canopy leading to the main lobby.

The Chicago Bears moved into Halas Hall at Conway Park on March 3, 1997. The 38-acre complex is located in Lake Forest off of Route 60 just east of the Tri-State Tollway, approximately four miles from the former Halas Hall. The building is dedicated to Bears' founder, president and coach George Halas. The original Halas Hall, on the Lake Forest College campus, was dedicated by coach Halas in the name of his son, Mugs, in 1979.

The complex underwent a construction project following the 2012 season to expand and upgrade the Bears headquarters to enhance the football and business operations while providing new opportunities and experiences for fans visiting the team facility.

The upgrade increased the 100,000-square facility with an additional 43,500-square feet of working space to accompany 2 1/2 outdoor practice fields, surrounded by a jogging path. One of the two 100-yard outdoor fields is equipped with 14 miles of underground heating tubes, enabling the grass to remain soft and growing into early winter, as well as five miles of drain tubing that can capture and disperse nine inches of rainfall per hour and 2.5 miles of cooling pipes for the grass roots.

The construction of 2013 expanded the weight room from 7,000 to 8,500-square feet and features new lighting. The locker room was upgraded with additional and reconfigured lockers and new carpeting. Existing and newly-created meeting rooms feature enhanced technology.

ED McCASKEY MEMORIAL GARDEN AND THE WALTER PAYTON CENTER

The team's indoor practice facility, the Walter Payton Center, was renovated during the summer of 2005 while construction of the Ed McCaskey Memorial Garden was completed in June, 2005.

The Walter Payton Center is a rigid structure, opposed to the inflated "bubble" the team used from 1990-96, and includes a full 100-yard field. The structure is 85 feet high, 200 feet wide and 400 feet long. The renovation included removal of the existing fabric roof and cladding on the outside of the building, replacement of the end walls and installation of a new, state-of-the-art synthetic turf and two-lane running track. A new heating and de-humidification system was also installed.

Located south of Halas Hall, the Ed McCaskey Memorial Garden is a beautifully landscaped, clover-leaf-shaped garden bordered by a 30" stone seat wall and piers. A winding gravel road from Halas Hall leads to the opening of the garden where a variety of trees, shrubs and perennials have been planted.

Walter Payton Center (interior)

Ed McCaskey Memorial Garden

The south addition to Halas Hall includes a state-of-the-art broadcast studio and joining conference center allowing the team to bring in studio audiences for live programming.

A state-of-the-art event center includes a 4,000-square foot broadcast studio and conference center that can host as many as 200 people for both events and original programming. The two-level entryway to the event center features interactive digital displays, video monitors and memorabilia, including some never-before featured pieces of Bears history such as the 1963 NFL championship trophy. A new press conference room and a relocated media courtyard was also added along with increased work space for media members.

The previous Halas Hall on the campus of Lake Forest College had 32,000 square feet of space, while the new building has over 143,500. In fact, the entire former Halas Hall would fit into the basement of the new building. Furthermore, the old locker room was 1,400 square feet, while the new one is about 3,000, features new lighting and has 75 lockers and four natural light wells. The weight room is now almost five times the size of the 1,800-square foot workout area at the old building. The glass wall on the east side of the weight room is 28 feet high, perfect for viewing the white-tailed deer on their evening romps across the complex grounds. A two-lane lap pool is behind the weight room and its sixty-foot lanes have built-in resistance currents. The training room is over five times the size of its predecessor and boasts a doctor's office, x-ray facility, medical records storeroom, casting room, whirlpool, cold-dip plunge, steam room and sauna. The football needs are met with eight classrooms, two large meeting rooms/classrooms and a 150-seat auditorium capable of hosting seminars and press conferences.

The Bears also added a practice viewing suite on the second level of Halas Hall. The 40-person suite overlooks the team's practice fields and features many of the amenities of game suites at Soldier Field. A new kitchen and dining facility, including an outdoor patio was also added. The dining room has the ability to hold up to 100 people. Additional conference room and staff offices were also added throughout Halas Hall.

The Bears headquarters also has a new entry into the main lobby and 105 additional parking spaces. The architectural style is consistent with that of the original building. A main focal point is the entry point to the main lobby, featuring the classic Bears "C" on an impressive portico.

BEARS CARE®

About Bears Care

Bears Care, the charitable beneficiary of the Chicago Bears, conducts and partners in a variety of fundraising events throughout the year as part of its commitment to improving the lives of those in our community. Bears Care impacts thousands of Chicago area individuals and families annually, with grants to qualifying agencies that serve those in need. With the generous participation of Chicago Bears' players and staff, area businesses and organizations, as well as individual donors, Bears Care is able to bring together human and financial resources to help tackle the needs of Chicago.

CHICAGO BEARS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Chicago Bears Football Club is dedicated to making a difference in our community. Our organization inspires positive change and enriches the lives of others through outreach programs, initiatives and partnerships. We are proud to give back to the community that has supported us since 1920.

The Chicago Bears implement and support numerous community programs, which focus primarily on the areas of education, PLAY 60, Bear Hugs, volunteerism, military, and youth football. These initiatives provide essential support to schools, youth organizations, charities and community groups throughout the Chicago area.

EDUCATION

The Chicago Bears support thousands of students each year through our annual education programs. This support is provided through internal initiatives that the Bears develop and make available to schools and through strategic collaboration with community and business partners. The Bears organization and our players devote significant time and resources to developing and supporting these programs with the goal that they will have a positive and lasting effect on the individuals who participate in them.

VOLUNTEERISM

The Chicago Bears understand the importance of finding the time to actively make a difference in the lives of people who are most in need. Hands-on volunteerism is one of the most fulfilling and rewarding ways to give back to the community, and the Bears implement a variety of programs that encourage our players, coaches, staff and fans to join together to help deserving individuals, children and families throughout Chicagoland. Our efforts are primarily focused on collection drives, community assistance and donation programs.

PLAY 60

Maintaining good health has always been a top priority for the Chicago Bears in achieving success both on and off the football field. We are proud to join the NFL in spreading the PLAY 60 message by encouraging children to be active for 60 minutes per day in order to help reverse the trend of childhood obesity. The Bears implement the PLAY 60 message through a variety of in-school, after-school and youth-targeted programs.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Chicago Bears have always taken an active role in offering and supporting a variety of youth football programs and opportunities throughout Chicagoland. We also host several events that bring youth football coaches and leaders together to share ideas and promote safety and awareness that will help build a healthy and strong foundation for youth football players. Through our camps, tackle and flag leagues and skill development clinics, our goal remains the same – to teach and encourage children to safely play the great game of football.

BEARS CAMPS

Chicago Bears Youth Football Camps are the official youth camps of the Chicago Bears. Children between the ages of 6-14 learn to run, throw, catch, defend, form block, form tackle and explode out of a stance with proper technique and improved speed. These week-long camps feature safe, non-contact football instruction and athletic development as well as instruction about good nutrition, proper hydration, and rest and recovery. For more information about our youth camps, please visit BearsCamps.com or call (312) 226-7776.

MILITARY

The Chicago Bears are dedicated to supporting the men and women in the United States Military, and our ties date back to when our founder, George S. Halas, served in the U.S. Navy during both World War I and World War II. We are proud to continue this tradition through numerous programs and initiatives that provide support and show our sincere gratitude to those who serve our country and protect our freedom. We also honor the history and heritage of Soldier Field, which is a memorial to all the men and women who have served our country.

BEAR HUGS

The Chicago Bears continue to offer support to those affected by illness or disability through wish-granting experiences and hospital visits. The Bears work with local and national organizations to create unique, memorable experiences at Halas Hall and Soldier Field in order to grant the wishes of children who dream of visiting the Chicago Bears and spending time with their favorite players. The Bears also visit a different Chicago area hospital each month to deliver teddy bears and lift the spirits of young patients and their families.
