AUSTIN E. KNOWLTON — Chairman of the Board

Austin E. Knowlton is Chairman of the Board of the Cincinnati Bengals, and has been a firm supporter since the franchise's inception.

Knowlton, a well-known builder and sportsman, has been a founder, owner and director since the franchise began, and often can be found watching his team play at some of the farthest way stops on the NFL map, in addition to his regular attendance at games at Cinergy Field.

Knowlton's avid interest in sports has not been limited to the Bengals. During the glorious days of the '70s, he was the largest shareholder in the Cincinnati Reds. He is also a trustee of the Brown Jug Society, which runs the Triple Crown for standardbred pacing horses.

After receiving a degree in architecture and civil engineering from Ohio State University, Knowlton joined his father's construction company and later assumed ownership of the construction business, operating it under the name of Knowlton Construction Company.

In 1995, the Board of Trustees of Ohio State University conferred upon Mr. Knowlton a Doctorate of Architecture.

During the expansion of the state college program, he designed, built and financed 54 college dormitories and other buildings for various colleges and universities in several states. He built the major portion of Ohio University and Bowling Green State University, and many college buildings at Ohio State University, Miami University, Capital University, Otterbein College and numerous other schools and universities.

His office is located in Dublin, Ohio, and he resides at Emerald Farms in Delaware County, Ohio.

MIKE BROWN — President

Mike Brown is in daily charge of the Bengals franchise. He works closely with the team's coaches and administrative staff. The Bengals are the Brown family's sole business interest.

While maintaining his input on the operation of the team itself, Brown has been deeply involved throughout this decade in an effort to secure the franchise's future in Cincinnati. He helped form a broad coalition of Hamilton County interests to work for the March, 1996 passage of public funding for stadiums and downtown redevelopment. Voters approved by a margin of 61 to 39 percent, and the first realization of their wishes is now evident on the western Cincinnati riverfront.

Paul Brown Stadium, designed to set new standards for state-of-the-art NFL facilities, is rising from a site approximately five blocks west of Cinergy Field, and remains on schedule to open with the first home game of the 2000 preseason schedule.

A former Dartmouth quarterback, Brown was instrumental in bringing the NFL to Cincinnati. He worked with his father, football legend Paul Brown, to close the deal which brought Cincinnati a pro franchise for the 1968 season. Mike Brown's efforts with civic leaders also made a reality of construction plans for Riverfront Stadium (now Cinergy Field), which opened in 1970.

From the Bengals' inception until August of 1991, Brown was assistant general manager, supervising the team's day-to-day operations. He assumed the position of team president after his father's death on Aug. 5, 1991. He played a major role in the building of the Bengals teams which reached the Super Bowl following the 1981 and 1988 seasons. Since 1994, Brown has been a member of the NFL's Competition Committee, the primary body for analysis and consideration of rules changes. He also is a longtime member of the NFL Management Council's Executive Committee.

Mike and his wife, Nancy, have a daughter, Katherine Brown Blackburn, and a son, Paul H. Brown. Katie is the team's executive vice president, and Paul is a vice president, working with scouting and personnel as well as joining Katie on the team's Board of Directors.

JOHN SAWYER — Vice President

John Sawyer was one of the founders of the Bengals. He joined Paul Brown and Mike Brown in representing Cincinnati during the city's bid to gain the franchise, logging much hard work and travel. He played a part in the 1970 NFL-AFL realignment plan, which created the Bengals' divisional home, the AFC Central.

He is president of the J. Sawyer Company, a multi-faceted agricultural and real estate firm. He recently formed and is chairman of Sawyer Industries, Inc., a national company marketing Boomer's BBQ Sauce and Boomer's Salsa, raising money to help find a cure for Cystic Fibrosis.

Sawyer was a B-17 pilot in World War II, and was a pioneer in the aerial application of crop pesticides. In 1983, he was inducted into the Ohio Agricultural Hall of Fame.

John and his wife, Ruth, have been instrumental in the creation and development of The Ensemble Theatre of Cincinnati, and both serve on the board of directors. He is a past president of Easter Seals, and a member of the board of trustees of Children's Hospital.

He's also active with Springer School, the Boy Scouts and the Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio.

Sawyer is a graduate of Princeton University, and is the son of the late Charles Sawyer, former U.S. Secretary of Commerce. John and Ruth live in Indian Hill, and have four daughters — Anne Wetherill, Elizabeth Selnick, Catherine Ryall and Mary Stephens. They enjoy 12 grandchildren — John Putnam, Meredith, Daniel and Matthew Wetherill; William III and Anna Selnick; Nicholas, Christina, Jonathan and Patrick Ryall; and Robert IV and Charles Stephens.

PETE BROWN — Vice President

Pete Brown is the architect of the Bengals' annual draft of college players. He supervises the year-round effort to prepare for the team's most important source of player talent.

Brown keeps tabs on the efforts of the Bengals' scouting staff from his Spinney Field office, and scouts players himself when time allows. In the 1980s, his draft selections led the team to two Super Bowls.

The 1998 draft brought the Bengals three immediate contributors in linebackers Takeo Spikes and Brian Simmons and cornerback Artrell Hawkins. Record-breaking rusher Corey Dillon was the highlight pick of the 1997 draft and all seven players drafted by the Bengals in 1996 were still with the team entering 1999 training camp.

Brown is also among the club's owners, and is a member of the Board of Directors.

A graduate of Denison University, Brown is the son of football legend Paul Brown and the brother of Bengals president Mike Brown.

KATHERINE BLACKBURN — Executive Vice President

Katie Blackburn joined the Bengals in October, 1991, following her graduation from the University of Cincinnati law school and a period of practicing law with the Cincinnati firm of Taft, Stettinius and Hollister.

Her role in the management of club affairs has grown steadily, and she works daily with Bengals president Mike Brown as a key executive in all of the club's major operations. She played a significant role in lease negotiations for the new Paul Brown Stadium, which were concluded May 29, 1997, and she oversees player acquisition opportunities under the NFL salary cap system.

She personally handles many high-profile contract negotiations, and also supervises the team's radio and television networks.

Named in March of 1996 to the board of the United Way & Community Chest, she is active in events supporting the United Way and will serve on the board at least through 1999.

Katie is the daughter of Mike Brown. She received her bachelor's degree from Dartmouth.

Katie's husband, Troy, also has practiced law for the Taft firm, and in 1996, Troy joined the Bengals as Director of Stadium Development. The Blackburns have two daughters, Elizabeth, 6½, and Caroline, 4.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

In Games 12-15 of the 1997 season, the Bengals became the first Cincinnati team to score 30 or more points in four straight games.

Cincinnati scored 31 vs. Jacksonville on Nov. 23, posted 42 at Philadelphia on Nov. 30, scored 41 vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4 and notched 31 vs. Dallas on Dec. 14.

PAUL H. BROWN — Vice President

Paul Brown enters his seventh full season in the Bengals' front office in 1999. His primary responsibilities are evaluating college talent and negotiating player contracts.

Brown works closely with team vice president Pete Brown in the team's scouting efforts in preparation for the NFL draft each April. He visits colleges to work out potential Bengal players, travels to numerous college games to survey football skill, and attends the NFL combine to assess future pro talent. He handles contract negotiations with prominent free agents as well as draft choices.

Brown, a graduate of Purcell Marian HS in Cincinnati and Regis University in Denver, Colo., has been close to pro football his entire life. His father is Bengals president Mike Brown. Paul's grandfather, Paul E. Brown, founded the Bengals in 1967 and doubled as the team's first head coach (1968-75) and its first general manager (1968-91).

TROY BLACKBURN — Director of Stadium Development

Troy Blackburn joined the Bengals in May of 1996 to coordinate planning and construction of the new football stadium approved in March of that year by Hamilton County voters.

Blackburn worked with architects to create plans for a cutting-edge NFL facility, then joined key Bengals advisors in lease negotiations with Hamilton County. That complex task was completed on May 29, 1997, when team president Mike Brown signed a lease committing the team to the new Paul Brown Stadium until 2026.

Blackburn now is working daily to oversee the actual construction, which is to be completed in time for the 2000 NFL season. Work has proceeded steadily since demolition began on the stadium site in early 1998, and forecasts in the summer of 1999 called for the stadium to be ready in plenty of time for the opening of the 2000 football season.

Paul Brown Stadium is already the winner of a major honor, as its design plans led to its inclusion among 15 projects selected for a 1998 American Architecture Award. Paul Brown stadium was the only stadium among the winners, whose ranks included the Sendai (Japan) International Airport, the New Jersey Performing Arts Center in Newark and the IBM Corporate Headquarters in Armonk, N.Y.

Blackburn also played a lead role in working with Georgetown (Ky.) College to develop a state-of-the-art athletic complex that serves as the Bengals' training camp site. The team will hold its third training camp at Georgetown in 1999.

A Cincinnati native, Blackburn attended St. Xavier HS. He graduated from Duke University in 1989, and from the University of Cincinnati law school in 1992. From 1992 until joining the Bengals, he practiced law for the Cincinnati firm of Taft, Stettinius & Hollister.

Blackburn's wife, Katie, is the Bengals' executive vice president. The couple has two daughters, Elizabeth, age 6½, and Caroline, 4.

PERFECT IN CRUNCH TIME

Former Bengal Jim Breech never missed a field goal attempt in overtime. He provided the winning kick nine times in OT, more than any kicker in NFL history.

"In that type of situation (overtime), your adrenaline is pumping so much that you just want to make sure not to overkick the ball," Breech said. "The key is to be real deliberate on that first step to just gather everything together."

STREAKS TO REMEMBER

The Bengals' record for consecutive made field goals is 13, first set by Jim Breech in 1990 and later tied by Doug Pelfrey in 1993 and 1995. But two other Bengals FG streaks are clearly worthy of note:

• While tying the record in '95, Pelfrey also put together a streak of 19 made FGs in 20 attempts. His only miss among the 20 came on a try of 63 yards just before halftime Oct. 29 vs. Cleveland — a boot that would have tied the NFL distance record set in 1970 by Tom Dempsey of New Orleans. Take away that low-percentage attempt, and Pelfrey would have a record-smashing Bengals streak of 19 straight FGs.

• Over the 1973-74 seasons, Horst Muhlmann knocked home 14 straight field goals. But three of the kicks came during a 1973 season playoff game against Miami, and postseason games form a separate category in record-keeping.

Bengals' New Home on Target for 2000

Paul Brown Stadium, the first visible sign of Cincinnati's plan to dramatically refashion its riverfront, is rising in clockwork fashion as the 1999 football season begins. As the Bengals prepare for their final season in Cinergy Field, all signs point to the team's new home being ready for its scheduled 2000 opening with no need for a frantic rush to the finish line.

In the space of one year — from July of 1998 to July of 1999 — the western riverfront site has been transformed from a giant hole in the ground to a massive structure with the clear outlines of a football stadium. By this fall, steel and concrete work on the stadium's basic structure will be completed, leaving plenty of time for the finishing work that will transform the 1.8 million square foot building into the finest new stadium in the NFL.

"Everything associated with the project has gone exceedingly well," said Troy Blackburn, Bengals director of stadium development, who has worked on the project with Hamilton County officials and designing architects NBBJ Sports & Entertainment of Los Angeles. "Our weather has been excellent, and we've had tremendous cooperation and effort from everyone involved."

Approximately 600 workers are on duty daily at the site as the summer progresses. That number will reach a maximum of approximately 1000 during the fall, when carpenters, painters and other workers will begin finishing the lower levels while concrete and steel work is being finished on the upper levels.

The Bengals will begin moving into the new building in the spring of 2000.

Already the winner of a major architectural award, Paul Brown Stadium will form the western "bookend" of Cincinnati's "Rebirth of the Riverfront." A new Reds baseball stadium, slated for completion in 2003, will be the eastern "bookend." In between, plans are underway for the National Underground Freedom Center, celebrating Cincinnati's role as a transit point for runaway slaves during mid-1800s. Park land and other attractions will surround the major developments.

"We will have an incredibly changed skyline and 'front porch' to the city when this project is completed," said Bob Bedinghaus, Hamilton County Commissioner. "Paul Brown Stadium is serving as a catalyst for other exciting riverfront developments, and it's becoming increasingly evident that it will be a facility so spectacular, it will positively stun Bengals fans."

More than a year ago, a distinguished architectural panel recognized the stadium's potential from studies of its design. In May of 1998, Paul Brown Stadium was one of 15 projects selected for an American Architecture Award. There were more than 300 entries, from both the United States and abroad, and Paul Brown Stadium was the only stadium among the winners.

"The award gave us an early affirmation that the project was on the right path," Blackburn said. "We wanted to provide Cincinnati with a breakthrough design that showcases our city and riverfront, and it looks like we will. Our fans deserve that."

Beyond its futuristic design, the stadium will serve as a premier venue for watching football. Almost 70 percent of the seats will be along the sidelines, positioned for superior sight lines to the field. The stadium's open-ended design will allow for stunning views of the downtown skyline and the riverfront.

"We didn't want to just march down the path of other cities and do what everyone else did," said Bedinghaus. "We set out to design a state-of-the-art stadium, one that other cities would be copying in years to come, and I believe we've done that."

In the area of fan amenities, Paul Brown Stadium will set new industry standards. Stadium features will include:

- Two super-sized video boards with state-of-the-art LED technology.
- More than 1200 restroom fixtures — one for every 50 fans, which will be the best ratio in the NFL.

• More than 400 "points of sale" for food and beverages, again the best ratio in the NFL.

• Seats in most areas of 20 inches in width, larger than the industry standard of 19 inches.

• Extra-wide concourses — more than twice as wide as those at Cinergy Field — to help fans visit concession stands and restrooms without crowding.

• A distributed sound system to provide crystal-clear audio for fans seated in all areas.

• Three complete kitchens to provide all fans with first-class food, ranging from traditional ballpark fare to a variety of fresh new options.

Dan Meis, NBBJ's principal designer for the stadium, has said that comparing traditional, bowl-shaped football stadiums to the new Bengals facility is like comparing a dump truck to a Ferrari. "You have no doubt which one is the fast one," Meis said.

The new stadium, however, also carries a crucial link to the past. In an era when many new stadiums and arenas carry corporate names in payment for naming rights fees, the new Cincinnati stadium will bear the name of the late Paul Brown, the pro football Hall of Famer who capped an already glorious career by bringing pro football to Cincinnati in 1968 as Bengals founder, general manager and head coach.

"With so many stadiums being named for enterprises that don't have anything to do with the game, we decided it was time to make a statement," said Bengals president Mike Brown. "This honors the tradition of our game, and I remember how my father never made a speech or endorsed a product for money. He did that for a principle, and we stood up for a principle by having the stadium reflect his name and the tradition he represents."

The Paul Brown Stadium project has been a true team effort by the people of Greater Cincinnati.

"We have been able to include all segments of the community by having almost every major contract go to a local company," said Bedinghaus. "We paid close attention to the need for minority workers to benefit from these job opportunities, and we're proud to say that they comprise 25% of the work force. That's the same percentage as the work force on the Cleveland football stadium project, and the minority population percentage here is not as large to draw from."

Additional facts and figures on Paul Brown Stadium:

LOCATION: The stadium site is approximately five blocks west of the current Cinergy Field. It will be bordered by Pete Rose Way on the north, Mehring Way on the south, Elm Street on the east and Central Avenue on the west. The southern border of the stadium will be one block from the Ohio River, and will be connected to the riverfront with a public park.

DIMENSIONS: The stadium site covers approximately 22 acres, and the stadium itself will reach a height of 157 feet.

SEATING CAPACITY: The stadium will have 65,600 seats — all with unobstructed views — on three levels, including 7,600 club seats and 114 private suites.

PLAYING SURFACE: Heated natural grass.

PRIVATE SUITES: Each of the 114 suites will feature retractable glass windows, allowing fans the option to watch in climate-controlled comfort or to bring in the outdoor experience. Suite holders will enjoy premium parking, an exclusive entrance, specialized catering, personalized concierge service and elegant interior designs. Suites include 12 spacious fixed stadium seats and four elevated seats at a drink rail with a view of the game.

CLUB SEATING: Club patrons will enjoy extra-wide, padded seats at the prime football viewing level with in-seat food and beverage service, and access to the Club Level Lounges featuring fine dining as well as prime views of the downtown skyline or riverfront.

PAUL BROWN

Paul Brown Stadium will honor not only the founder and first coach of the Bengals, but a man who was one of the great innovators in pro football history.

"Whether they know it or not, nearly everyone in football has been affected by Paul Brown," former NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle said in 1991. "His wealth of ideas changed the game."

Elected in 1967 to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Brown also was founder and first coach of the Cleveland Browns, whom he guided to seven league championships in their first 12 seasons. He posted a .660 winning percentage over 25 years of pro coaching (222-112-9, including playoffs). Earlier in his career, he created an Ohio dynasty at Massillon High School and coached Ohio State to a national championship (1942).

Brown pioneered coaching as a year-round profession, invented the draw play, introduced the use of face masks on helmets, initiated film study and classroom instruction of players, and was the first coach to call plays from the sidelines. He also broke the color barrier in modern American pro sports, as his Cleveland team featured black stars Marion Motley and Bill Willis in 1946, a year before Jackie Robinson's debut in major league baseball.

Born in Norwalk, Ohio, and reared in Massillon, Brown was Bengals coach and general manager from 1968-75. He stepped down as coach following an 11-3 season in 1975, and continued in the GM's role until his death at age 82 on Aug. 5, 1991.

BENGALS COACHING STAFF

BRUCE COSLET — Head Coach

Bruce Coslet enters the 1999 Bengals season with no desire to dwell on the problems of 1998, and with no illusions about what's on the line in the campaign to come.

"Pride of performance and professionalism is a big motivator for me," says the Bengals head coach. "Coaching is what I do. I want to be known for being good at what I do. Before last season, I had the best winning percentage (.560) of any Bengals coach ever. So for us to go 3-13, to go through what we did last year, that is just unacceptable.

"It was a devastating season, and I'm highly motivated to see it doesn't happen again. I know we have to do a heck of a lot better."

Coslet draws a hard line for himself and the team even though he is not far removed from one of the most positive team turnarounds in NFL annals. In October of 1996, he was named head coach of a Bengals team that had struggled to a 1-6 start under Dave Shula, and the club went 7-2 under his direction for an 8-8 overall finish.

"That was a great experience," Coslet says, "but it's ancient history now."

Bengals fans will join Coslet in hoping that the virtually unprecedented injury problems that plagued the Bengals in 1998 will also be consigned strictly to history.

Cincinnati finished the season with nine players on the Injured Reserve list, including Nos. 1-2 QBs Jeff Blake and Neil O'Donnell, starting guards Ken Blackman and Rich Braham and starting LB Tom Tumulty. Starting DE John Copeland missed most of the season while recovering from an off-season injury, and veteran LB Jerry Olsavsky was waived on an injury settlement after a training camp injury.

Starting fullback Brian Milne was hampered much of the season by back trouble, talented halfback Ki-Jana Carter suffered a season-ending wrist fracture in the season opener, long snapper Greg Truitt battled injuries much of the season, and play-making veteran cornerback Corey Sawyer missed 13 games with a knee injury.

All of the above contributed to the Bengals fielding the NFL's third-youngest team, with three full-time rookie starters on defense (Takeo Spikes, Brian Simmons, Artrell Hawkins), two other rookies who saw major defensive playing time (Steve Foley, Glen Steele) and three other rookies with major roles on offense or special teams (Mike Goff, Damon Gibson, Adrian Ross).

"You would never go into a season planning to play rookies as much as we did, but we basically had no choice," Coslet said. "It was painful, but we saw promise. Hopefully, it will pay dividends this year."

Bengals newcomers brought in by Coslet and his staff already have begun to set the tone for a new wave of locker room leadership in '99.

"They've started to assert themselves publicly, and I'm all for it," Coslet says. "We're talking about Takeo (Spikes), Artrell (Hawkins), Brian (Simmons) and Myron (Bell) saying, 'Hey, let's get this thing going, this isn't going to happen next year, and let's get our butts in shape in the off-season. Do whatever workouts we need and let's go.' I like the sound of that stuff.

"I'll never quit on this team, and I know these guys won't quit on me. I said from Day One of last season that these guys are fighters, and after going through a tough season, I still believe that."

Mike Brown, Bengals president, believes that Coslet and his largely intact assistant coaching staff present the Bengals their best chance of quickly moving away from the disappointment of 1998.

"Bruce is demanding, as a head coach should be, and the players respect both his knowledge and the fact that he played in this league for eight years himself (1969-76)," Brown says. "Our guys (coaches) have a good scheme. They work hard. Their hearts are in it, and I think they can turn this around and make it work."

Says quarterback Jeff Blake:

"We respect Bruce because he's a real person. He'll tell you what's up, whether it's good or bad. He's not a phony."

Mike Brown calls Coslet "a true member of the Bengals family." The coach has deep roots in the organization, and learned the pro game from Hall of Famers such as Bengals founder Paul Brown and former Bengals assistant coach Bill Walsh. During his eight seasons as a Bengals tight end, Coslet earned a reputation for toughness and competitiveness while catching 61 passes for 878 yards and 9 touchdowns. A native of Oakdale, Calif., he began his coaching career with the San Francisco 49ers in 1980, but moved the following year to the Bengals, where he would spend the next nine seasons.

He was special teams and tight ends coach from 1981-83, wide receivers coach in 1984-85, and was offensive coordinator from 1986-89. He was on the staffs of both AFC Champion Bengals teams (1981 and '88 seasons).

During his first term as offensive coordinator, the Bengals twice had the NFL's No. 1 offense (1986, 1988), twice had the league's top rushing attack (1988 and '89) and three times led the AFC in total offense (1986, 1988 and '89).

Following the 1989 season, Coslet was named head coach of the New York Jets. With the Jets from 1990-93, he oversaw an offense that finished in the NFL's top 10 two of his last three years. Posting a 26-39 record in New York, he led the 1991 club to the playoffs, the franchise's only postseason appearance in an 11-year period (1987-97).

Coslet returned to the Bengals in 1994 as offensive coordinator, assigned to recharge an attack which had fallen in 1993 to a franchise-low in overall punch. Two seasons later, the Bengals offense under Coslet stood as the NFL's most-improved unit.

The 1994 Bengals scored 89 more points than the '93 club, and the 1995 team topped the '94 total by another 73 points. The 162-point difference between the 1993 total (187 points) and the 1995 total (349 points) represented the biggest gain in the league during that time period.

When the Bengals went 7-2 in 1996 following Coslet's appointment as head coach, they were more than just the turnaround story of the NFL season. They were the comeback kids of the era.

The Coslet mark in '96 reflects the best job by a head coach appointed during a regular season since 1970, when the league took its present form with the NFL-AFL merger.

Among 43 coaches appointed in-season since 1970, only Ron Meyer with the 1987 Colts had a winning percentage better than Coslet's. But Meyer's 1.000 percentage covered only three games (3-0).

Coslet finished his nine games with a .778 winning percentage, and his victory total of seven also ranks second among the 43 coaches in this category. Don Coryell posted eight wins with the 1978 Chargers, but Coryell lost four. His winning percentage (.667) was more than 100 points below Coslet's.

Most importantly, Coslet took over a 1-6 team and kept it alive for the playoffs into the 16th week of the 17-week season.

Coslet particularly enjoys the in-season weekly grind of preparing himself for a game.

"I love the strategy of football, sitting with your coaching staff the week before a game and brain-storming how you're going to attack the other team," he says. "It's challenging, and very rewarding when you accomplish the goal."

On Dec. 15, 1996, the Bengals announced an agreement to extend Coslet's contract for four years, through the 2000 season. The contract automatically extends through 2001 if the Bengals make the playoffs in 1999 or 2000.

Coslet is an avid golfer. He's a member of the Oakdale (Calif.) Sportsman Hall of Fame, and also a member of the University of the Pacific Sports Hall of Fame.

Coslet's wife, Kathy, is a Cincinnati native. They have two children, son J.J., 24, and daughter Amy, 22. In 1996, J.J. was a member of Dartmouth College's undefeated Ivy League champion football team.

Coslet's birth date is Aug. 5, 1946. He was a football standout at Joint High in his hometown of Oakdale, Calif., and he played in college from 1965-67 at the University of the Pacific.

DICK LeBEAU — Asst. Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator

Dick LeBeau, architect of the zone-blitz scheme that made Pittsburgh one of the NFL's top defensive teams in the mid-1990s, is entering the third season of his second stint as a member of the Bengals coaching staff.

The former All-Pro cornerback is entering his 40th NFL season, including 14 as a player and 26 as a coach. He has brought the zone blitz to Cincinnati, and the 1998 season was a learning year for a group of talented newcomers who will be expected to form the foundation for seasons to come.

Starting inside linebackers Takeo Spikes and Brian Simmons, starting cornerback Artrell Hawkins and starting nickel linebacker Steve Foley all were in their rookie seasons in '98. Other rookies seeing significant action included DL Glen Steele and LB Adrian Ross.

"The thing we set out to do (prior to '98) was improve our team speed," LeBeau says. "We weren't a playoff-caliber defense last year, but with a lot of young people and some veterans in their first season with us, there were flashes of where we want to be.

"Because of the speed we acquired, I'm confident we're not that far away. That's the hard ingredient to get. You have to get some top athletes, and we did."

Without question, LeBeau (pronounced "luh-BO") and the team's other draft scouts earned rave reviews on the first-round selections of Spikes and Simmons and the second-round pick of Hawkins. Spikes led the team in tackles, Simmons tied for second despite an early-season injury, and Hawkins started every game at right corner, tying for the team lead with 3 interceptions and leading the team in passes defensed.

The rookie trio not only excelled on the field, they expressed the desire to form a new core of locker room leadership for the team.

"They did a good job, and the upside is that they're going to get a lot better for several years to come," LeBeau said of the three. "Their attitude is excellent. They were very professional, very mature for first-year players."

Spikes, who was compared to a young Mike Singletary in a Sports Illustrated story on top NFL rookies, credited LeBeau's coaching style with helping him to a fast start.

"Coach LeBeau told me, 'Don't worry about messing up. Just do what you do best, and if it doesn't work, we'll go back and try to correct it,' " Spikes said. "Starting in training camp, he gave me the confidence to be at my best. Plus, he was a great player himself, so you know he understands what a player sees out on the field."

In 1997, the Bengals welcomed the return of LeBeau, an Ohio native who played on an Ohio State national championship team, starred as an All-Pro defensive back, coached the Bengals defense as coordinator in Super Bowl XXIII and later coached the Steelers defense in Super Bowl XXX.

LeBeau spent the 1992-96 seasons with the Steelers, including 1995-96 as defensive coordinator. Employing the 3-4 zone blitz, he made the Steelers the NFL's third-ranked defense in their Super Bowl season of 1995. In 1996 under LeBeau, Pittsburgh ranked second to eventual world champion Green Bay with 272.6 yards allowed per game. The '96 Steelers also ranked second in the NFL in takeaways, with 40.

"It gives people fits," Bengals head coach Bruce Coslet said of LeBeau's scheme. "It limits what you can do on offense. It creates one-on-one matchups continuously, and if you can bring the right people, you can create havoc. We want to build the same aggressive, take-the-ball-away type of defense."

Born Sept. 9, 1937, in London, Ohio, LeBeau played at Ohio State from 1954-57, closing his career on a national championship team. He went on to play 14 seasons (1959-72) for the Detroit Lions and was voted to three Pro Bowls.

He set an all-time durability record for cornerbacks by playing in 171 consecutive games for the Lions, and at the time of his retirement, his 62 interceptions ranked third in NFL history.

He began his NFL coaching career as special teams coach for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1973-75, and coached defensive backs at Green Bay for four years before accepting the same position with the Bengals under Forrest Gregg in 1980. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1984, when Sam Wyche was hired as Bengals head coach, and his unit allowed an average of only 11 points per outing in three postseason games as the Bengals advanced to Super Bowl XXIII against San Francisco following the 1988 season. LeBeau left the Bengals after the 1991 season, in conjunction with the departure of Wyche, and was hired by the Steelers.

Dick and his wife, Nancy, have a son, Brandon Grant, age 20.

KEN ANDERSON — Offensive Coordinator

Ken Anderson brings a keen football mind and a stellar history as a player to the position of offensive coordinator on the Bengals coaching staff.

Anderson is entering his seventh year as a pro coach in 1999, and will be in his third full season in a coordinator's role. The former Bengals Pro Bowl quarterback was promoted from the position of quarterbacks coach on Oct. 21, 1996, when Bruce Coslet took over as Bengals head coach.

"I feel very fortunate to have Kenny, because I consider him one of the top offensive minds in the NFL today," says Coslet. "He played for so many years (16), so he sees the game through a quarterback's eyes. He's worked under some great offensive coaches, Bill Walsh and Lindy Infante just to name a couple, and he's taken what they taught him to another level.

"Kenny and I are not only fellow coaches, we're good friends, and I believe you need that personal connection because in our jobs, we spend so much time together. We love to talk strategy and game plan. He's a great idea guy."

The Bengals' overall offensive numbers were down in 1998 as injuries plagued quarterbacks, running backs and the offensive line. But the offense made great strides under Anderson after his appointment to the coordinator position midway through the 1996 season.

In 1996, the Bengals rallied for a 7-2 finish following Coslet's appointment as head coach and Anderson's move to the coordinator's position. The Bengals averaged 27.1 points per game over the final nine weeks, almost nine points more than the 18.3 mark of the first seven games. The offense's average yardage jumped from 282 to 361, and the average passing yardage went from 180 to 241.

The Bengals finished 10th in the NFL in total offense in 1996, averaging 326.6 yards per game for the full season, and they matched that No. 10 ranking again in 1997, pushing their per-game mark to 330.1 yards. The back-to-back No. 10 rankings are the team's highest since the 1990 club finished 9th. The Bengals also finished 10th in the NFL in scoring in 1997, averaging 22.2 points per game, and their No. 9 finish in rushing yardage (122.9 yards per game) was the club's highest since 1992.

In the key area of third-down play, the Bengals' 1996 percentage of successful conversions took a leap from 36.1% prior to Anderson's appointment to 53.5% after it. In 1997, the Bengals' conversion rate of 41.1% ranked 7th in the NFL.

As a player, Anderson had a career passing performance that dominates the Bengals record book. He leads the club in completions (2654), passing yards (32,838) and touchdown passes (197).

Twice in the last four years, he has been among the 15 finalists for election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He holds the NFL record for highest completion percentage in a season — 70.55 in 1982.

He won four NFL passing titles, which is tied for second-most all-time behind Sammy Baugh, and was named five times to the Pro Bowl. He led the league three times in lowest interception percentage, which also is tied for second-most all-time behind Baugh.

Anderson joined the pro coaching ranks as Bengals quarterbacks coach in 1993, and in that role he helped Jeff Blake chip away at a few of his own Cincinnati marks. In 1995, Blake supplanted Anderson in the categories of most completions in a season (326) and most consecutive games with a TD pass (21).

"I like Kenny; he's helped me pay more attention to detail," says Blake. "Where he helps the most is with his experience. Any situation you might face as a quarterback, you know he's been there at least once."

Anderson has played and coached only for the Bengals since completing his college career at Augustana (Ill.) in 1970. He was a third-round pick from the small school, the 67th selection in the draft. His 16 years of service as a player (1971-86) are the most in Bengals history, and he has held no other coaching position. Prior to joining the Bengals as a coach, he worked six years in Cincinnati as a sportscaster.

"Kenny is very cool, very calm, almost emotionless in his approach to the game, and I don't mean that in a negative way," says FOX analyst Cris Collinsworth, for years a favorite passing target of Anderson. "I knew he was going to do very well with the Xs and Os of being a coordinator."

Anderson's birth date is Feb. 15, 1949. He was born in Batavia, Ill. Ken's wife's name is Cristy. Ken has a son, Matt, 24, and two daughters, Megan, 20, and Molly, 16.

WORST TO FIRST (FREQUENTLY)

Four times in their history, the Bengals have finished first in their division after finishing last the season before. The only other NFL franchise to make such a climb more than once is the Colts, who did it twice.

The Bengals followed a cellar season with a division title in 1970, 1981, 1988 and 1990.

PAUL ALEXANDER — Offensive Line

Paul Alexander enters his fifth season as Bengals offensive line coach in 1999, directing an aggressive unit whose goals include helping produce a 1000-yard rusher in three consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history.

HB Corey Dillon has used the support of Alexander's troops to rush for 1129 yards in 1997 and 1130 yards in 1998. James Brooks is the only other Bengal with back-to-back 1000-yard rushing seasons.

"I'm not going anywhere without my guys up front," Dillon said. "I give them a big share of the credit for everything I've been able to accomplish."

Bengals head coach Bruce Coslet praises Alexander as one of his most promising coaching proteges.

"Paul's only 39 years old and already very experienced as an offensive line coach. I have all the confidence in the world in him," Coslet says. "He did a great job under tough circumstances last year, because he virtually didn't have a healthy starting guard. (Rich) Braham and (Ken) Blackman were struggling with physical problems all year. If we can stay healthy up front this year, we could have a real breakthrough."

Dillon favors a bruising running style, and Alexander has made it clear that he favors big, aggressive linemen with a defensive sort of mindset.

"You have to play with poise and intelligence to be a successful offensive lineman," Alexander says, "but believe me, it's a lot easier to teach a guy poise than it is to teach him aggressiveness. I'm looking first at guys who are naturally aggressive."

Alexander has much the same personnel as he did in 1997, when the line showed its potential with a strong finish. The Bengals ended that season as the NFL leaders in rushing touchdowns (23). Cincinnati also finished with No. 10 league rankings in scoring (22.2) and total offense (322.1). In rushing yards, Cincinnati ranked 9th in the league with an average of 122.9.

Alexander began his NFL coaching career in 1992 as tight ends coach of the New York Jets. He was instrumental in the development of TE Johnny Mitchell, a rookie All-Pro in 1992. Alexander's first Bengals season was 1994, when he was named Cincinnati's tight ends coach.

But Alexander has always said his first love in football was coaching the offensive line, and he was afforded the chance to take over that job for the Bengals in 1995.

His 1995 unit produced the team's best-ever performance in sacks allowed — only 1.6 per game (total of 25).

This will be Alexander's seventh season in the offensive system of Coslet, who was Jets head coach when Alexander was in New York.

Alexander is a product of distinguished teachers. He coached under Joe Paterno at Penn State and Bo Schembechler at Michigan. He also was offensive line coach at Central Michigan, a school whose coach, Herb Deromedi, ranks with Paterno and Schembechler among the winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history.

Alexander's birth date is Feb. 12, 1960. He's a native of Rochester, N.Y., where he attended Cardinal Mooney High School. He was an academic All-American at Cortland State (N.Y.) and holds a master's degree in physiology from Penn State. He and his wife, Kathy, have two daughters, Mary Beth and Carolyn.

JIM ANDERSON — Running Backs

The dean of Bengals position coaches in years of service, Jim Anderson enters his 16th Cincinnati season in 1999. No position coach in Bengals history has served as many years on the staff, as this year Anderson eclipses the 15-year mark he had shared with former offensive line coach Jim McNally.

Anderson faced a tough career decision following the 1998 season. The Chicago Bears pursued him with an attractive offer that included the job of running backs coach plus a supervisor's designation. But after considering the Bears' pitch and reconsulting with Bengals management, Anderson elected to stay in Cincinnati.

"We didn't want to lose Jim, and we're glad it turned out this way," said Mike Brown, Bengals president. "He's a good guy, an excellent coach and a very integral part of what we do here. Jim is very important to us in a lot of areas. People listen to him, and we count on him very much at the personnel end — not just with the running backs."

A reason for Anderson's longevity is his reputation for effectively handling all types of running backs.

The latest feather in Anderson's coaching cap has been the 1997-98 performance of Corey Dillon. With 1129 rushing yards as a rookie and 1130 more last season, Dillon became the first back in Bengals history to reach 2000 yards in his second season. His 2259 yards are the most by a Bengal in any span of two consecutive seasons. On Dec. 4, 1997, Dillon rushed for 246 yards against Tennessee, breaking the legendary Jim Brown's 40-year-old NFL record for most rushing yards in a game by a rookie.

"Coach Anderson knows as much as anyone I've ever been around," Dillon told The Cincinnati Enquirer after

Anderson's decision to bypass the Chicago offer. "To think he would want to come back and help us and teach us makes me pretty proud."

In six of nine seasons between 1986-94, Anderson's backs led the Bengals to finishes among the NFL's top ten teams in rushing yardage. The Bengals returned to the top 10 in 1997, finishing 9th with an average of 122.9 yards per game, and the running backs scored 20 of Cincinnati's NFL-leading 23 rushing touchdowns in '97.

Anderson's troops won NFL rushing titles in 1988 and '89, and copped an AFC rushing championship in '86. From 1986 through 1990, the Bengals finished 2-4-1-1-5 in league rushing.

James Brooks, Cincinnati's all-time leading rusher, blossomed under Anderson. Brooks and Anderson both came to the Bengals in 1984. Brooks set a Bengals record with 1239 yards in 1989, and Harold Green, another Anderson pupil, had the runner-up total of 1170 yards in 1992. Anderson also oversaw the brief but spectacular career of Ickey Woods, which was derailed by a 1989 knee injury. In 1996, Anderson effectively worked Garrison Hearst into the Bengals offense after the team's acquisition of Hearst in late August.

Anderson's birth date is March 27, 1948. He was born in Harrisburg, Pa. He graduated from Cal Western with a degree in physical education, and holds a lifetime teaching certificate in California. Jim and his wife, Marcia, have a son, Derek, 24.

SIGISMONDO CIOFFI — Defensive Staff Assistant

Sigismondo "Louie" Cioffi enters his third season in the role of Bengals defensive staff assistant in 1999. It's believed that at age 25 as of Kickoff Weekend, he retains the distinction of being the youngest full-time assistant coach in the NFL.

Cioffi (pronounced "CHOE-fee") is charged with supervising the weekly distribution of information regarding how to attack the upcoming opponent's offense.

"Anything we have that is distributed to the players during the week is a product of Louie's work and research," says defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau. "He breaks down film, studies opponents' statistics and puts it all in a very useful package. Whatever you need in a logistical sense to get ready for an opponent, he can handle it."

Cioffi also works daily on the practice field, concentrating his efforts on drills with the linebackers and defensive backs.

"Frankly, Louie's very capable of being a position coach right now," says Bengals head coach Bruce Coslet. "We're fortunate to have him."

Cioffi's association with Coslet dates back to 1993, when Coslet was head coach of the New York Jets and Cioffi was a 20-year-old coaching assistant. His responsibilities then included assembling play books and running video printers on game days. Cioffi also worked with the Jets in 1994, after Coslet had returned to the Bengals.

Cioffi was wide receivers coach at C.W. Post University in Brookville, N.Y. in 1995 and 1996. The '96 team employed a run-and-shoot offense and posted a 7-3 record en route to the ECAC Division II championship. In addition to his on-field responsibilities at C.W. Post, Cioffi prepared computer game analyses and scouting reports. He did all the computer work at Post for the offense and defense.

Cioffi's birth date is Sept. 21, 1973. His hometown is Queens, N.Y. He graduated from the University of Stony Brook in 1995 with a degree in political science and a minor in philosophy.

MARK DUFFNER — Linebackers

Mark Duffner enters his third season as Bengals linebackers coach in 1999, having spent the previous 11 seasons as a head coach in the college ranks.

The former Holy Cross and Maryland head coach played a central role in the Bengals' 1998 decision to spend first-round draft picks on linebackers Takeo Spikes of Auburn and Brian Simmons of North Carolina. After the draft, Duffner's enthusiastic, hands-on coaching style helped both players turn in outstanding rookie seasons.

Spikes led the team in tackles (112), becoming the first rookie to grab the Bengals crown since James Francis in 1990, and he led the team by a wider margin than any winner since Tim Krumrie in 1988.

Simmons, playing inside linebacker alongside Spikes, missed the season's first two games due to preseason arthroscopic knee surgery, and his play was limited in Games 3 and 4. But Simmons took over as a starter in Game 5, and wound up tied for second place on the team with 78 tackles.

Asked to describe his year under Duffner, Spikes said: "Let me tell you, 'Duff' is intense. He's focused, and he's determined. Even when we had a long losing streak last season, he was on the field every day, working to get people motivated. He made sure we kept in mind we had something to play for, even if we weren't going to the playoffs. I love to play for Duff. I could see myself being a lot like him if I went into coaching someday."

Duffner was head coach at Maryland from 1992-96. His 20-35 record included an 11-11 mark over his final two seasons, Maryland's best two-season record since 1984-85.

From 1986 through 1991, he led the most successful era in Holy Cross football history, posting a dazzling 60-5-1 record that included two 11-0 marks.

Duffner has Ohio ties. He was a graduate assistant under Woody Hayes at Ohio State in 1975-76. In 1977, he was named defensive coordinator at the University of Cincinnati, becoming at age 23 the youngest defensive coordinator in the Division I ranks.

At Maryland in 1995, Duffner oversaw the Terps' first national ranking in nine years when his team climbed as high as No. 17. His teams set more than 100 offensive school records, and he improved Maryland's player graduation rate with three classes in a row in the national Top 20 (1994-96).

His term at Holy Cross was nothing short of remarkable. He took over a team that had been 4-6-1 in 1985, and immediately posted a 10-1 mark in '86. Duffner was chosen for five national coach of the year honors at Holy Cross, won two Division I-AA national titles, and was chosen New England Coach of the Year five times.

A native of Annandale, Va., Duffner played college football as a defensive lineman at William & Mary, and was chosen All-Academic Southern Conference as a senior. He graduated with a degree in physical education, and was inducted into the William & Mary Hall of Fame in 1990. He was inducted into the Fairfax County (Va.) Football Hall of Fame on Feb. 28, 1999.

Duffner was born July 19, 1953. He and his wife, Kathy, have three children, Christina, 20, Carolyn, 18, and John, 15.

RAY HORTON — Defensive Backs

Ray Horton returns in 1999 for his third season as defensive backs coach of the Bengals. Last season, Horton's efforts were highlighted by the rapid development of cornerback Artrell Hawkins, Cincinnati's second-round draft pick.

Hawkins, the 43rd selection in the draft, was considered a questionable selection at that high a level by some draft analysts. But the Bengals were sold on his nearly unlimited potential, and Horton directed Hawkins to a season that dispelled doubts regarding his readiness for NFL play. Hawkins had his share of rookie woes, but showed impressive athleticism and aggressiveness. He led the Bengals in passes defensed (17) and tied for the team lead in interceptions (3) and forced fumbles (2).

"Coach Horton pumped me up when I needed it and took me down when I needed it," Hawkins said. "One game that sticks out in my mind was (Nov. 8) at Jacksonville. Nothing was going right for me, and he pulled me from the game.

"I was upset. I didn't think I'd gotten a fair shot. But in the end, getting pulled made me stand up and face my mistakes, and it increased my drive. I came back the next week and had my first two interceptions (against Minnesota's Randall Cunningham)."

An NFL defensive back himself with the Bengals and later with the Dallas Cowboys, Horton draws on his own experience to give players a realistic picture of what to expect on the field.

"As a former player, I think I have certain things I bring to this job," Horton says. "I understand the psyche of what players are going through, maybe more so than a coach who hasn't played in the NFL."

Horton is entering his sixth season in NFL coaching, having served from 1994-96 as assistant defensive backs coach with the Washington Redskins.

"Ray's the perfect guy for us," says Bengals defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau, Horton's position coach during Horton's six seasons as a Bengals player. "He was like a coach on the field when he played. He played cornerback for us, and then was a safety for the Super Bowl team in Dallas. You can't beat a guy with the experience of having played both positions."

Horton played in two Super Bowls. He was on the 1988 Bengals team that lost a close decision to San Francisco in Super Bowl XXIII, and was on the 1992 Dallas team that defeated Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII. He left the Bengals as a free agent following the 1988 season, and his Dallas career spanned 1989-92. He was a Bengals starter at cornerback in 1984-85 and '87, and a Dallas starter at free safety from 1989-91.

Horton's 14 interceptions as a Bengal place him 10th on Cincinnati's all-time list. He had two returns for TDs.

He had five interceptions with Dallas, two for TDs, and also had a fumble recovery for a touchdown with the Cowboys. He became the first player in Cowboys history to score defensive TDs in back-to-back games (in 1991), and during his term as a Dallas starter, he led the team in forced fumbles and fumble recoveries.

Born April 12, 1960, in Tacoma, Wash., Horton played at the University of Washington, where he earned All Pac-

(Ray Horton — cont'd)

10 honors. He was a second-round Bengals selection in the 1983 draft, the 53rd overall choice.

Ray and his wife, Leslie, have a daughter, Taylor, 11, and a son, Jarren, 7.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1979-82: Played DB at University of Washington. 1983-88: Defensive back, Bengals. 1989-92: Defensive back, Dallas Cowboys. 1994-96: Assistant coach (AC), Washington Redskins. 1997-99: AC, Bengals.

TIM KRUMRIE — Defensive Line

Tim Krumrie enters his fifth season as an NFL coach in 1999, following a 12-year Bengals playing career during which his relentless work at nose tackle made him one of the most admired players in club history.

Krumrie's goals for this season include working right end John Copeland back into a key role, as well as getting more consistent run-stopping power out of the nose tackle position.

Copeland, one of Cincinnati's top defensive performers from 1993-97, played only in the last five games in '98 and logged no starts, due to a ruptured Achilles tendon suffered in an off-season workout. His full return should bolster the line as he works with left end Michael Bankston, who came to Cincinnati last year as an unrestricted free agent and finished '98 as the line's leading tackler.

At nose tackle, Krumrie's former position, the starting job should be up for grabs from a group including returning starter Kimo von Oelhoffen, unrestricted free agent signee Oliver Gibson and second-year player Glen Steele.

Krumrie (pronounced "KRUM-rye") will be looking for a nose tackle to emulate his own former style of play.

"I had the privilege of coaching Tim when he was a player," says Bengals defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau, "and his trademark was 100 percent involvement and participation in every endeavor we ever asked of him. And he coaches exactly the same way. He does a great job leading his group and setting a high work tempo. His enthusiasm spills over. The personal attributes that enabled him to become an outstanding player are the same assets that make him a very productive coach."

A Bengals goal this season will be to match or beat the rushing defense performance of 1996, Krumrie's first year as defensive line coach. Cincinnati allowed only 102.7 yards per game, 12th-best among the 30 teams, and the best in more than a decade by a Bengals club.

The last Cincinnati defense to do better was the 1983 team, which allowed 93.7 rushing yards per game. That was Krumrie's rookie season as a Bengals player.

Krumrie never missed a game during his Bengals playing career (excluding 1987 players strike). He started 166 of his 193 games (including playoffs), and at one point had a streak of 160 starts in 161 games. He led the team in tackles five times — a most unusual feat for any interior lineman — and was selected as an AFC starter for two Pro Bowls.

He suffered a severe leg fracture at the height of his career — during Super Bowl XXIII — but returned from the injury to start the opening game of the next season. He retired as a player after the 1994 season, and joined the coaching staff in 1995 as a defensive staff assistant.

Summing up Krumrie's attitude as a player, Bengals general manager Mike Brown once said: "It wouldn't matter if you put Timmy out there with 10 nuns on his side. He'd still be playing just as hard, and be just as confident he was going to win."

It's an attitude Krumrie has taken into his coaching career.

Krumrie's birth date is May 20, 1960. He was born in Menomonie, Wis., and grew up in Mondovi, Wis., where he attended Mondovi HS. He and his wife, Cheryl, have a daughter, Kelly, 15, and a son, Dexter, 10. Tim's hobbies include riding his Harley-Davidson motorcycles and spending time at his home in Cody, Wyo.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1979-82: Played defensive tackle at Wisconsin. 1983-94: Pro defensive tackle, Bengals. 1995-99: Assistant coach, Bengals.

STEVE MOOSHAGIAN — Wide Receivers

Steve Mooshagian, an instrumental figure in the University of Pittsburgh's emergence as one of the Big East's most exciting offensive teams, resigned the offensive coordinator's position at Pitt to sign with the Bengals as wide receivers coach on Feb. 20, 1999.

Mooshagian (pronounced "moo-SHAIG-ee-un") concentrated on coaching Pitt's wide receivers in addition to his coordinator's duties, and his units produced the top receiver in the Big East in each of the last two seasons. The Panthers' Terry Murphy led the conference with 79.4 receiving yards per game in 1997 and set a league record with 13 TD catches. In 1998, Latef Grim led the conference with 90.4 yards per game and set a Pitt record with 6 catches per game.

Mooshagian came to Pittsburgh from Nevada-Reno, where he was offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 1996. Under his direction, the Wolfpack led the nation that season with an average of 527 yards total offense per game and closed the year with a victory over Ball State in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Before joining Nevada-Reno, Mooshagian served one season as head coach at Fresno (Calif.) City College. He also spent 10 years as the wide receivers coach at Fresno State, his alma mater, and was recruiting coordinator for five of those seasons.

During his tenure at Fresno State, he had eight wide receivers drafted by the NFL, and three players he recruited and/or coached went on to start in a Super Bowl. The three are WR Stephen Baker (Super Bowl XXV with the N.Y. Giants), CB James Williams (Super Bowl XXVII with Buffalo) and LB Ron Cox (Super Bowl XXXI for Green Bay). Eleven of Mooshagian's Fresno State receivers earned all-conference honors.

"I've known Steve for quite a few years," says Bengals head coach Bruce Coslet. "I was early in my (NFL) coaching career when he was at Fresno, and that school was always on my scouting list because he always had receivers with good pro potential. He's also a natural fit for us because he knows our system. He worked at Pittsburgh with Walt Harris, who was my quarterbacks coach with the Jets, and they ran virtually the same offense as we do in Cincinnati."

As a player, Mooshagian was one of Fresno's top receivers, and he later signed a free-agent contract with the Los Angeles Express of the U.S. Football League.

Mooshagian's birth date is March 27, 1959. His hometown is Downey, Calif. Steve and his wife, Rene, have three children — daughters Janaye, 15, and Danielle 11, and son Robert, 13.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1978-79: Played wide receiver at Cerritos (Calif.) College. 1980-81: Played wide receiver at Fresno State. 1983: Assistant coach (AC), Washington Union HS (Calif.). 1984: Head coach, Washington Union HS. 1985-94: AC, Fresno State. 1995: Head coach, Fresno City College. 1996: Offensive coordinator, Nevada-Reno. 1997-98: Offensive coordinator, University of Pittsburgh. 1999: Joins Bengals.

AL ROBERTS — Special Teams

A veteran of 12 years as an NFL special teams coach, Al Roberts has seen high points and low points. In 1999, the second year of a two-year rebuilding plan for Bengals special teams, he looks forward to reaping the benefits from a 1998 season that was one of the most intensive teaching seasons of his career.

"We got what we were looking for last year in terms of bringing in better athletes," Roberts says, "but the drawback was that they were young. We had to start from scratch in getting them to understand the system.

"Our statistics were not productive, but we invested a lot of time and energy in building for this year. Our challenge is to show the results of that investment early and to keep improving all year long."

Strong kick coverage teams have been a Roberts trademark during his NFL career, and returning young linebackers are expected to form the core of the Bengals' 1999 units. Second-year players Adrian Ross and Steve Foley, and third-year man Canute Curtis are key figures in the plan. Roberts also will continue to get special teams contributions from young defensive starters such as linebackers Takeo Spikes and Brian Simmons and cornerback Artrell Hawkins.

The kickoff return game was the strength of the special teams last season, as Tremain Mack set team records for average per return (25.9 yards) and total yards (1165). Roberts will hold preseason auditions for a new No. 1 punt returner, as the Bengals must replace the loss of 1998 leader Damon Gibson to Cleveland in the expansion draft.

One of Roberts' past NFL special teams assignments was from 1991-93 with the New York Jets, when Bengals head coach Bruce Coslet was Jets head coach. In 1997, when Coslet entered his first full season as Bengals head coach, he sought out Roberts to rejoin him.

"Al is a no-nonsense, take-no-prisoners kind of guy," Coslet said. "I know how he works, and I knew he'd fit in here. He's my kind of guy."

During Roberts' term in New York, the Jets special teams were known for their excellent kick coverage. In 1991, New York led the NFL in kickoff coverage (15.4 average yards allowed) and was second in punt coverage (5.7). In 1992, the kickoff coverage (16.7) and punt coverage (7.3) were both in the league's top five.

Roberts broke into the NFL in 1984-85 as running backs and special teams coach with the Houston Oilers. He was in the NFL again from 1988-90 as special teams coach at Philadelphia under Buddy Ryan. Coslet is the second NFL head coach to ask Roberts back for an encore stint after the head coach changed teams, as Ryan brought Roberts to the Arizona Cardinals for the 1994-95 seasons.

Roberts has 11 seasons of college coaching experience. In seven of those seasons, his teams advanced to bowl games, most recently the 1996 Washington Huskies.

Born in Fresno, Calif., on Jan. 6, 1944, Roberts played high school football in Merced, Calif., and played in college at Washington (1964-65) and Puget Sound (1967-68). He holds a bachelor of arts degree from Puget Sound. He and his wife, Arvella, have two sons, Kali, 28, and Kyle, 24, and a daughter, Genesis, 23.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1964-65: Played at University of Washington. 1967-68: Played at University of Puget Sound. 1969-72: Assistant coach (AC), Mercer Island (Wash.) High School. 1973-76: Head coach, Garfield High School (Wash.). 1977-82: AC, University of Washington. 1983-84: AC, L.A. FRANK VERDUCCI — Tight Ends

Frank Verducci, a veteran of 19 seasons in college coaching with 10 major bowl appearances, brings a well-rounded resume to his new assignment as Bengals tight ends coach for 1999.

Verducci (pronounced "vur-DOO-chee") spent the last seven seasons as offensive line coach in Hayden Fry's successful program at Iowa. He also coached tight ends under Jerry Claiborne and later under Bobby Ross at Maryland (1981-83), and spent two years as receivers coach under Francis Peay at Northwestern (1987-88).

"Frank is a good fit for what we're looking for as a tight ends coach," said Bengals head coach Bruce Coslet. "He's proven himself as an offensive line coach with a major program, and he also has experience coaching tight ends as well as wide receivers. We were looking for an all-around coach who can not only work with blocking, but who can help get our tight ends more involved in the passing game."

The Bengals last season had only 36 combined catches from three tight ends, the team's lowest total in that category since 1977. Verducci will work with returning veterans Tony McGee, Marco Battaglia and Steve Bush to make the position more of an offensive threat. The Bengals are particularly interested in expanding the offensive role of McGee, who had 55 catches for 754 yards as recently as 1995, and averaged 42 catches per year for his first five seasons.

Verducci's credentials to work with tight ends on blocking are evident from his work at his most recent coaching stop.

At Iowa, seven offensive linemen Verducci coached and/or recruited went on to enter the NFL from 1993 through 1998. The list includes Bengals third-round draft pick Mike Goff in 1998 and Packers first-round pick Ross Verba in 1997. Goff started five games for the Bengals last season, and the previous season, Verba became the first rookie ever to start at left tackle in a Super Bowl.

Verducci's lines paved the way for record-setting performances by Iowa skill position players. Running back Tavian Banks set school records for rushing yards in a game (314) and a season (1691) during Verducci's tenure, and Sedrick Shaw set the career rushing record (4156).

The Hawkeyes established rushing records for the Sun Bowl in 1995 and the Alamo Bowl in 1996, the 1994 line established a school record for fewest sacks allowed (10), and the 1997 line led the Hawkeyes to the Big Ten rushing title.

At Maryland, Verducci helped coach the Terps to berths in the 1982 Aloha and 1983 Citrus bowls. His bowl experience at Iowa included two berths each in the Rose (1986, 1991), Holiday (1986, 1991), Alamo (1993, 1996) and Sun (1995, 1997).

Verducci's birth date is March 17, 1957. His hometown is Glen Ridge, N.J. He played tight end and fullback in 1975 at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy-Kings Point, and went on to receive his bachelor's degree from Seton Hall University. Frank and his wife, Noel, have a son, Jack, 7,and a daughter, Cameron, 2.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1975: Played TE and FB at U.S. Merchant Marine Academy-Kings Point. 1980: Assistant coach (AC), Colorado State. 1981-83: AC, Maryland. 1984: AC, Northern Illinois. 1985-86: AC, Iowa. 1987-88: AC Northwestern. 1989-98: AC, Iowa. 1999: Joins Bengals.

KIM WOOD — Strength & Conditioning

Entering his 25th season with the Bengals, Kim Wood is the dean of NFL strength and conditioning coaches. A hard-driving coach who still maintains an easy rapport with his players, Wood has set up strength and conditioning programs for a number of NFL teams.

He is known nationwide for his outspoken stance against the use of steroids in strength training. The Bengals' training program was aggressively steroid-free long before official sanctions against the drugs became a nationwide norm.

Wood has seen many of his athletes perform impressive feats in the weight room, but that's not his goal.

"We train very hard, but we're not training our people to be weight lifters or power lifters," Wood says. "We always keep the perspective that we're working with these guys to be the best football players they can be."

An outstanding running back at the University of Wisconsin during his college days, Wood has worked under all seven head coaches in Bengals history. He joined the club in 1975, Paul Brown's final season as head coach, and has since coordinated strength training for Bill Johnson, Homer Rice, Forrest Gregg, Sam Wyche, Dave Shula and Bruce Coslet.

Wood's birth date is July 12, 1945. His hometown is Barrington, Ill. He has four children: John, 20; twin daughters Becky and Alyssa, 18; and Jacqueline, 15. John Wood is a freshman nose tackle at the University of Michigan.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1964-66: Played running back at Wisconsin. 1975-99: Strength and conditioning coach, Bengals.

Aggressive and intensely competitive, former college defensive lineman faces comeback challenge after missing final eight games of '98 season with left knee injury ... Underwent two surgeries, including articular cartilage graft, and hopes to be cleared for play during preseason ... Starter when healthy since early in rookie NFL season, Blackman has been among Bengals' most powerful interior linemen at point of attack.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "We're hopeful Ken can come off his knee surgery in fine shape, but he did have some significant damage that needed to be repaired. Prior to the injury, he was establishing himself as a very good guard. He's a tough guy with good range who had become an effective pass blocker. I've always liked his attitude. He's a very aggressive player who enjoys the physical nature of football."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Started season's first eight games at RG ... Missed only three offensive snaps in season opener Sept. 6 vs. Tennessee, then played every offensive snap for six straight games until suffering left knee injury Nov. 1 vs. Denver ... Injury occurred on a third-and-10 play with less than 5 minutes remaining, with the Bengals completing an 11-yard pass to Willie Jackson for a first down.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Cited in coaches' reports for physical play Sept. 20 vs. Green Bay ... Displayed excellent work on both run and pass blocking as Bengals gained 143 yards passing and 132 rushing on Sept. 27 at Baltimore ... On weekly inactive list for Games 6-7 due to ankle and knee injuries, and on inactive list for Game 16 with strained left elbow ... Played every offensive snap in nine of the 13 games for which he was healthy, and missed only 18 offensive snaps overall for those 13 games ... Ranked fifth on offense with 809 scrimmage snaps ... Earned offensive Game Ball along with other members of offensive line for Dec. 4 game vs. Tennessee, when Corey Dillon rushed for 246 yards ... Helped lead Bengals rushing game to No. 9 NFL ranking in total yardage (1966) and a No. 7 ranking in yards per rush (4.35) ... Solid job as pass protector as team allowed only seven sacks over final five games ... Graded "excellent" (90% or better) by coaches for efforts on Sept. 28 vs. Jets, Nov. 9 at Colts, Nov. 23 vs. Jaguars and Nov. 30 at Eagles.

BLACKMAN ON BLACKMAN: "I am a real physical guy. I've got an attitude. It's the only attitude I've ever had, just a natural attitude. I play physical and with a lot of emotion."

I'm not comparing those two as NFL players, obviously, but my point is that Roosevelt has some physical ability. He came from a small school and had a learning year in 1998. Now it's up to him to show people he knows our system and can use that ability to function on the field as a football player. A realistic goal for him this year would be to challenge to be our third corner."

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION

The Bengals amassed a club-record 621 yards net offense in a 52-21 victory over the New York Jets on Dec. 21, 1986. No NFL team has since matched that total in a regulation-time game.

The only higher output since then came in an overtime game in 1990, as Washington produced 676 yards in a 41-38 victory over Detroit.

QB

JEFF BLAKE

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 210
College: East Carolina
8th year in NFL

1998 Games-Starts: 8-2; Career Games-Starts: 64-54
Contract status as of 7-5-99: In final season of a five-year deal
Acquired: W (NYJ) '94
Born: 12-4-70

Strong-armed, mobile veteran returns for '99 as incumbent starting QB, having regained that role by virtue of his final performance of the '98 season ... Passed for 367 yards in leading Cincinnati victory Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh, second-most yards of a career that saw him start 52 straight for Bengals between October '94 and November '97 ... A former Pro Bowl starter (1995 season), Blake began '98 campaign in No. 2 role behind Neil O'Donnell ... Blake holds Bengals records for most consecutive games with a TD pass (21) and most completions in a season (326).

ONE TOUGH CUSTOMER: Blake's 367-yard passing performance at Pittsburgh last season was not only exciting, it was subsequently revealed as truly remarkable. Doctors later discovered he had played most of the game with a chipped bone in his right wrist (passing hand). He suffered the injury, initially thought to be just a bruise or mild strain, with six minutes remaining in the second quarter. Blake also fought through a bout of leg cramps and a bruised right shin in leading the win. The wrist injury forced him out of the lineup for the season finale the following week against Tampa Bay. The durable performer, who once held an AFC-long streak of 52 consecutive starts, had never previously missed a game due to injury.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "Jeff had to wait through most of last year to get another chance as the starter, and he used the opportunity he got in Pittsburgh to have a marvelous game. He showed tremendous toughness by turning in that performance even though it turned out he broke his wrist in the first half. Now he's going to get another chance to go into a season as the No. 1 veteran guy, and it's up to him to show he can do it consistently, like he did in '96 when he led us to seven wins in the last nine games. He's got the talent to do that."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Was in No. 2 QB role for Games 1-10, and saw brief action behind Neil O'Donnell in Games 3-4 and 6-7 ... Was designated No. 3 QB on inactive list for Games 10-11, after Paul Justin was promoted from No. 3 to No. 1 and O'Donnell was placed in No. 2 role ... Returned to No. 2 role behind starter O'Donnell for Game 12 on Dec. 6 vs. Buffalo, and played briefly in fourth quarter after O'Donnell was sidelined with season-ending hand fracture ... Returned to No. 1 role for Game 12 on Dec. 13 at Indianapolis and Game 13 on Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh ... Suffered chipped bone in right wrist (passing hand) in Pittsburgh game and placed Dec. 24 on Injured Reserve list, missing season finale vs. Tampa Bay.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Posted Bengals' most passing yards of the season with his 367-yard effort while leading 25-24 victory at Pittsburgh on Dec. 20 ... Blake's only game with more yards was Oct. 6, 1994, when he passed for 387 at Seattle ... Completed 20 of 36 passes at Pittsburgh, with 1 TD and 1 INT ... TD pass at Steelers was 61 yards to Darnay Scott, putting Bengals ahead 22-21 in fourth quarter ... Directed 12-play, 62-yard drive to winning FG after Steelers had taken 24-22 lead ... Rushed for 49 yards at Pittsburgh, most by a Bengals QB all season, and his combined rush-pass yardage of 416 in that game was 98 more than second-best total of 318 (by Neil O'Donnell in OT on Sept. 13 at Detroit) ... In first of Blake's two starts, Dec. 13 at Indianapolis, he completed 16-of-29 for 180 yards, 1 TD and no INTs ... TD pass at Indy was 6-yarder to Carl Pickens in third quarter. Blake's 43rd career TD connection with Pickens ... Also had a 67-yard TD pass to Pickens in fourth quarter Sept. 27 at Baltimore ... Entered Baltimore game late in third quarter after O'Donnell was sidelined with bruised ribs.

HITTING THE RIGHT TARGETS: Blake's ratio of TD passes to interceptions is the best in Bengals history (minimum 500 attempts). In 1998, Blake ran his career totals with Cincinnati to 77 TD passes against 50 interceptions, a ratio of 1.54-to-1. Boomer Esiason ranks second at 1.43-to-1 (187 TDs; 131 INT), and Ken Anderson is third at 1.23-to-1 (197 TDs; 160 INT).

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1992: Drafted by N.Y. Jets in sixth round (166th overall) ... Played in 3 games as a rookie, completing 4 of 9 passes ... Made NFL debut Nov. 29 vs. Kansas City and went 3-for-3 passing ... Inactive for Games 1-9 and Game 11 ... Active but DNP in Games 10 and 14-15. 1993: Saw action in preseason, but was on Jets inactive list for all 16 games, backing up Boomer Esiason and Browning Nagle. 1994: Acquired by Bengals on waivers Aug. 29 ... Inactive third QB for Games 1-6 ... Also designated third QB for Game 7, Oct. 23 at Cleveland, but made brief Bengals playing debut in that game after injuries to David Klingler and Don Hollas ... In Bengals starting debut Oct. 30 vs. Dallas, passed for 2 TDs, 0 INT and 243 net yards, Bengals' most net yards in last 16 games ... Starter for team's first victory Nov. 6 at Seattle, producing most passing yards (387) and directing most total offense (496) since 10-7-90, span of 68 games; Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week ... Passed for 4 touchdowns Nov. 13 vs. Houston, first Bengals quarterback to notch 4 since Boomer Esiason on 12-17-89 ... Named AFC Offensive Player of Month for November ... Led AFC passing ratings with 90.7 mark through games of Week 13 (Nov. 27-28) ... Directed comeback from 27-10 deficit in 33-30 season finale victory over Philadelphia; threw for two TDs and had key run of 16 yards on fourth-and-16 in fourth quarter ... His eight completions of 50-plus yards were most in NFL ... Passing total of 741 yards from Seattle and Houston games ranks as most in Bengals history for back-to-back games. 1995: Threw often, with club-record 567 attempts, but didn't succumb to wildness. His plus-11 differential in TD passes (28) to interceptions (17) was just one off the AFC-best performance of plus-12 by John Elway and Jim Harbaugh ... Elected to AFC Pro Bowl squad as No. 2 QB vote-getter behind Dan Marino; named to start Pro Bowl when Marino withdrew due to injury ... Top pick from 1995 NFL draft has had an injury-plagued career, but is expected to be at full speed for '99 training camp ... Played only in the season opener in '98, suffering season-ending wrist fracture in the Sept. 6 contest vs. Tennessee ... Having scored 16 TDs in his 32 NFL games, Carter can bring Bengals improved scoring punch in goal-line situations ... Still has the potential to far exceed his current rushing totals.

COACH JIM ANDERSON SAYS: "I think Ki-Jana has tremendous ability. The thing he has to shake is the injury bug. He's had some very bad fortune, but he's relatively a fresh player in the NFL, and all signs are that he's making a full recovery from the wrist injury last year. I expect him to come in and not only relieve Corey (Dillon), but complement Corey. We need to put Ki-Jana and Corey in the same backfield at times, and if we can do that in a consistent manner, we'll be in very good shape back there."

1998 RECAP: Opened season as No. 2 HB behind Corey Dillon ... Led team with 6 receptions (for 24 yards) on Sept. 6 vs. Tennessee, but suffered season-ending wrist fracture in fourth quarter after falling while attempting an off-balance reception ... Placed on Injured Reserve list on Sept. 7.

Cited by coaches for superior blocking in Arizona game, and overall performance vs. Cardinals earned him the offensive Game Ball ... Rushed for career-high 104 yards on 13 carries Sept. 21 at Denver, snapping Bengals streak of 67 straight games without a 100-yard rusher ... Essex Johnson was the first, rushing for 121 yards on 21 carries and getting 116 yards on two receptions on Sept. 30, 1973 at San Diego. Cincinnati won both games.

Bengals opponents also have managed double 100-yard performances twice, and Cincinnati lost both of those games.

On Nov. 23, 1976, Cleveland's Greg Pruitt had 121 yards on 17 rushes and 106 yards on seven receptions vs. Cincinnati at Cleveland Stadium. 1998 Games: 3; Career Games: 3
Contract status as of 7-5-99: In second season of a four-year deal
Acquired: FA '98
Born: 12-12-74

Powerful young prospect heads into '99 with inside track for punter's job ... Saw first NFL action late in '98 season, and launched a club-record 73-yard punt in his first game ... Believed to be the first kicker in NFL history to average more than 50 yards per punt (51.5) in his first game ... Also handled kickoffs ... Last player from the discontinued Boston Univ. football program to enter the NFL.

COACH AL ROBERTS SAYS: "Brad has a very strong leg and can be a wonderful kicker in this league. We think it usually takes a rookie punter 12 to 18 months before he's fully ready to kick in the NFL, and Brad's right on schedule going into his second season. What you're looking for is a big, strong kid who can be consistent, and they're hard to find, but we think we've got one in Brad."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Signed April 23 as a rookie free agent ... Waived Aug. 25 ... Signed Nov. 11 to Bengals practice squad ... Signed Dec. 7 to Bengals 53-player roster ... Played in Games 14-16.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Made NFL debut Dec. 13 at Indianapolis, where his team-record 73-yard punt came late in third quarter as Bengals faced fourth down at their 27-yard line ... Record kick nearly went 72 yards and downed at the Colts 1-yard line, but ball just trickled into end zone for a touchback ... Averaged 51.5 yards on 4 kicks at Indianapolis, and research indicates Costello is the first punter in NFL history to average more than 50 yards in his first game ... Also had a 60-yard punt Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh and a 52-yarder Dec. 27 vs. Tampa Bay ... Averaged 49.5 yards on 10 punts, with no inside-20 kicks and 3 touchbacks.

COLLEGE: At Boston University, was Atlantic 10 punting champion in 1996 and '97 ... Averaged 44.4 yards per kick in '97 (73-3239), ranking third overall in Division I-AA and setting school records for average and total yards ... Finished career as BU's all-time leader with 42.3-yard average (194-8206) ... Began college career at Michigan State, transferring to BU after freshman year.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Moorestown, N.J. ... Attended Holy Cross HS in Deltran, N.J. ... Was enrolled in the Metropolitan College at BU.

* — Costello did not earn an accrued year of experience toward NFL free agency in 1998 because he was not on the 53-player roster, the Injured Reserve list or the PUP list for the required minimum of six games. He is designated a first-year player in 1999.

Contract status as of 7-5-99: In final season of a three-year deal
Acquired: D2 '97 (43rd overall)
Born: 10-24-75

A runner whose punishing style invites comparisons to the great Jim Brown, Dillon will bid this season to become the 11th player to rush for 1000 or more yards in each of his first three NFL seasons ... Had third-most rushing yards (1130) in team history in '98, topping by a nose the 1129 he had gained as a rookie ... Is one of 16 players to top 1000 rushing in first two NFL seasons ... Became first back in Bengals history to reach 2000 career yards in his second season ... Was on pace for 10 weeks to set team season records for rushing yards and attempts, but was held to an average of 35.4 yards over final four games as injuries cut his playing time ... Played through a series of injuries before lower back bruise caused him to miss his first game as a pro on Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh ... Led RBs in receiving with 28 for 178 yards.

COACH JIM ANDERSON SAYS: "Corey commands the respect of the defensive players he goes up against every Sunday. They realize he's a force to be reckoned with. He's a physical player, but he can also make you miss. He can block, and he made great strides last year in becoming a threat as a receiver. He can do all the things you want. He just has to keep growing and maturing, and I think he learned a lot last year. He didn't surprise people like he did as a rookie, but he still had a consistently productive season."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-14 and 16 ... Led RB corps with 610 snaps played, 62.3% of offensive total ... Missed a portion of playing time, but returned to finish game, due to twisted right knee Sept. 13 at Detroit ... Also returned to action after missing time with a left hip pointer Nov. 15 at Minnesota ... Left game in third quarter and did not return due to sprained left big toe suffered Nov. 22 vs. Baltimore ... Missed most of first half and most of fourth quarter on Dec. 13 at Indianapolis, due to lower back bruise ... On weekly inactive list for Game 15, Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh, due to lower back bruise.

GOING UP: Dillon in '98 pushed his rushing total for his brief career to 2259 yards, most in a two-season span by any Bengal. Second-most is James Brooks with 2243 yards over 1989 and '90. Dillon moved into the No. 10 spot on the team's all-time rushing list, and with 812 yards in 1999, he would rise to fourth place. Going up the ladder, Dillon needs 183 yards to pass No. 9 Paul Robinson (2441), 324 yards to pass No. 8 Larry Kinnebrew (2582), 387 yards to pass No. 7 Charles Alexander (2645), 550 yards to pass No. 6 Archie Griffin (2808), 720 yards to pass No. 5 Boobie Clark (2978), and 812 yards to pass No. 4 Essex Johnson (3070). Dillon would need 1468 yards this season to pass No. 3 Harold Green (3727). The all-time Bengals rushing leader is James Brooks (6447), and the runner-up all-time is Pete Johnson (5421).

OTHER 1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Became second player in Bengals history to rush for 1000-plus yards in consecutive seasons; joined James Brooks, who ran for team-record 1239 yards in '89 and added 1004 in '90 ... Dillon's 262 carries were third-most in team history, behind Pete Johnson's 274 in 1981 and Harold Green's 265 in '92 ... Had four 100-yard rushing games for second straight season, topped by 124 yards on 14 carries Oct. 18 at Tennessee ... Season-long run was 66 yards in third quarter Oct. 18 at Tennessee, and he scored on 12-yard run in third quarter of that game ... Season-long scoring run was 18 yards in third quarter Sept. 13 at Detroit; TD tied score at 21-21 in game Bengals went on to win by 34-28 in OT ... Also scored rushing TDs of 3 yards Sept. 6 vs. Tennessee and 3 yards Dec. 6 vs. Buffalo ... Had first career TD pass reception Oct. 25 at Oakland, scoring on 17-yard toss from QB Neil O'Donnell ... Rushed for 110 yards on 35 carries Nov. 1 vs. Denver, posting second-most carries of career ... Passed 1000-yard mark for the season in Game 13, Dec. 6 vs. Buffalo, gaining 43 yards to finish day at 1031 ... Led team with career-high 6 pass receptions Nov. 8 at Jacksonville ... Had season-high 44 receiving yards (on 4 catches) Nov. 29 vs. Jacksonville ... Had career-long 41-yard reception from QB Paul Justin on Dec. 27 vs. Tampa Bay.

DILLON ON HIS SOPHOMORE SEASON: "I knew in my heart and mind it would be a tough challenge. Defenses refuse to let a second-year guy run wild. When you see an eight-man front, it's not nice. But I saw that they were thinking of me, and I took that as a little bit of a compliment."

MOVE OVER, JIM BROWN: Dillon's highlight among highlights in his rookie season of 1997 came Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee in a Thursday night Bengals victory seen by a national ESPN audience. He rushed for 246 yards on 39 carries, breaking the NFL rookie record of 237 set by Cleveland's Jim Brown against the L.A. Rams in 1957. It was the fifth-highest total by any player in league history, just 29 yards shy of Walter Payton's all-time mark of 275, and was the highest by any player in 19 years, since O.J. Simpson gained 273 in 1978. The performance easily set a new Bengals mark for rushing yards in a game, topping the standard of 201 established by James Brooks in 1990. Dillon broke Pete Johnson's former team record of 38 carries in a game, and he became the first Bengal to score

4 rushing TDs in a game (runs of 2, 31, 1 and 2 yards). He had 30 receiving yards, and his scrimmage total of 276 surpassed a 1986 record set by Brooks, who totaled 264 yards vs. New England (163 rush, 101 receiving).

OTHER 1997 HIGHLIGHTS: Season rushing total of 1129 broke the Bengals' rookie record of 1066 set by Ickey Woods in 1988 ... Named AFC Rookie of the Year in peer voting conducted by NFL Players Association ... Only NFL rookie to top 1000-yard rushing mark for the season ... Led Bengals RBs in receiving yards (259), and his 1388 total yards from scrimmage was most since '89, when Brooks had 1545 ... Finished sixth in rushing in AFC, but his per-carry average of 4.85 yards was higher than the five players who had more total yards ... Rushed for 100 or more yards three weeks in a row (Games 13-15), becoming the first Bengal to record three straight since Pete Johnson in Games 13-15 of the '80 season ... Scored 10 of Cincinnati's NFL-leading 23 rushing TDs, the most rushing scores by one player since Ickey Woods' team-record 15 in '88 ... Fell one yard short of posting seven straight games of 100-plus combined yards (rushing and receiving); the only time he was under 100 during Games 9-15 was Nov. 16 at Pittsburgh, when he totaled 99 (78 rushing, 21 receiving) ... Tied team record for total TDs in a game with his 4 rushing scores Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee, equaling Larry Kinnebrew's 3 rushing and 1 receiving from 10-28-84 at Houston ... Earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for his performance vs. Tennessee ... Awarded offensive Game Ball by coaches twice, for record-breaking performance vs. Tennessee and for 123-yard rushing game Nov. 2 vs. San Diego, his first 100-yarder as a pro ... Five of Dillon's 10 TDs came on runs of 20 or more yards ... Longest TD run was 71 yards Nov. 2 vs. San Diego; also had TD runs of 46 at Indianapolis, 39 vs. Jacksonville, 31 vs. Tennessee and 21 at Tennessee... Missed by 3 yards tying Bengals record of five 100-yard rushing games in a season; had four 100-yard games, plus 97-yarder at Indianapolis ... Used as kickoff returner early in season, and averaged 30.3 yards on 6 attempts.

OT WILLIE ANDERSON SAYS: "Corey's mentality is, 'If you're not out of the way, I'm going to run over you.' His two or three-yard gains are so powerful that when he gets into the secondary, defensive backs are remembering the last time he ran on them. They're saying, 'I can't tackle him by myself. I need some help.'"

COLLEGE: Played at Washington only in 1996, designated as a junior, and departed with a remarkable list of school season records — rushing yards (1555), attempts (271), TDs (23), rushing TDs (22), all-purpose yards (2185) and scoring (138) ... Posted multiple records despite starting only 8 of 11 games, as he was backup to Rashaan Shehee until Shehee was sidelined with ankle injury in Game 3 ... In Holiday Bowl vs. Colorado, rushed for 140 yards and added 2 more TDs to his regular-season total of 23 ... Scored 5 TDs in 41-21 conquest of UCLA, earning Sports Illustrated National Player of the Week honors as he rushed for 145 yards and added 53 yards in receptions ... Played JC ball at Dixie College in St. George, Utah, in 1995, and was chosen JC Offensive Back of the Year by College Sports magazine after rushing 279 times for 1899 yards and 20 TDs ... In 1994, rushed for 1165 yards and 16 TDs at Garden City (Kan.) JC.

PERSONAL: Hometown and off-season residence is Seattle, Wash. ... Played at Franklin HS, where he won All-State honors in football and also was named All-Metro Player of the Year ... Also earned All-Metro honors in baseball ... Senior year in high school was 1992-93 ... Sat out 1993 football season before enrolling at Garden City JC for '94 season ... Physical education major at Washington ... Selected by San Diego Padres in 1993 free agent baseball draft ... Has a daughter, Cameron.

Contract status as of 7-5-99: In first season of a two-year deal
Acquired: FA '98
Born: 2-18-75

Massive tackle who was a mainstay in Notre Dame offense, Doughty seeks first NFL playing time in '99 after spending last season on Bengals practice squad ... Signed as rookie free agent, he finished '98 on Reserve/Injured Practice Squad Player list after suffering knee injury in practice ... Passed his end-of-season physical and cleared for all 1999 activities.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "Mike is a huge guy with very strong hands that are a big asset to him. He still has a lot of development ahead of him, particularly since he was hurt the second half of last year. But in our off-season program, he showed the most improvement of any offensive lineman."

1998 RECAP: Signed with Bengals on April 20 as rookie free agent ... Played in all four preseason games ... Waived Aug. 30, and signed Aug. 31 to Bengals practice squad ... On practice squad for Games 1-8, but suffered sprained ligament (MCL) in left knee in practice on Oct. 29; placed Nov. 5 on Injured Practice Squad Players list.

1998 Games-Starts: 10-1; Career Games-Starts: 10-1
Contract status as of 7-5-99: In second season of a four-year deal
Acquired: D3a '98 (75th overall)
Born: 9-9-75

Outstanding physical specimen with an enthusiastic attitude, Foley has breakout year potential in second pro season ... Nation's leading sack artist (18.5) in 1997 as a college end at Northeast Louisiana, he made a promising transition in '98 while changing positions as well as making the jump from a mid-major college program to the NFL ... Limited to 10 games due to injuries, but notched 2 sacks and was active on special teams.

COACH MARK DUFFNER SAYS: "I have high expectations of Steve Foley. He's a real explosive athlete who could bring a lot to our defense as a pass rusher and as a run-stopper. He'll play outside linebacker, and we just want to keep him healthy. He was just getting into a productive mode last year when he had an ankle sprain that set back his development a little bit."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Drafted by Bengals in third round (75th overall) ... Played in all four preseason games, with 8 tackles (6 solo), a sack and a forced fumble ... Played in regular season in Games 1-7, 9 and 15-16, including first NFL start in Game 7, Nov. 8 at Jacksonville, subbing for injured James Francis ... Had 2 solo tackles subbing for James Francis in starting assignment at LOLB on Nov. 8 at Jacksonville, and added an 8-yard sack on Mark Brunell in first quarter, overpowering blocking back Fred Taylor ... Tied his season high for total tackles with 3 (2 solo) in victory Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh, returning to action after five weeks on inactive list due to ankle sprain ... Closed season with 2 solo tackles Dec. 27 vs. Tampa Bay ... Tied for team lead in preseason with 2 solo special teams tackles ... Had 8 tackles (6 solo) in preseason with 1 sack.

COLLEGE: Primarily a defensive end at Northeast Louisiana, Foley played many of his best games in NLU's marquee matchups against Southeastern Conference competition ... As a senior, dropped QBs for 134 yards in losses with his 18.5 sacks, pushing his career yardage-lost total to a school record 159 ... 1998 Games-Starts: 16-0 (Pitt.); Career Games-Starts: 60-0
Contract status as of 7-5-99: In first season of a three-year deal
Acquired: UFA (Pitt.) '99
Born: 3-15-72

Young veteran entering what should be his prime NFL years, Gibson heads for Bengals camp after signing as unrestricted free agent from Pittsburgh on 3-8-99 ... Consistent player who has increased his size and strength since entering the NFL as a fourth-round draft pick in 1995 ... Likely to open camp in competition for starting NT position, but can also play DE ... Knows Cincinnati's 3-4 zone blitz scheme, as he was coached in 1995-96 at Pittsburgh by Bengals defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau ... Motivated to prove himself as an NFL starter after backing up Pro Bowl NT Joel Steed in Pittsburgh.

COACH TIM KRUMRIE SAYS: "Oliver brings more size and run-stopping power to our defensive line. I scouted him coming out of Notre Dame and liked him. The Steelers got him first (in the draft), but now he's ours. He'll challenge to start at all three spots. He'll upgrade everyone, make everyone better. Competition is the ticket, and his addition is a real key this training camp."

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Played in every Steelers game for the third straight season ... Logged his most extensive playing time of the season at LE and in dime package on Sept. 20 at Miami, with 3 tackles (2 solo) and one tackle for 1-yard loss ... Had 2 of Pittsburgh's 7 sacks in victory Oct. 18 vs. Baltimore, causing 13 yards in Ravens losses ... Also had 3 tackles and a QB pressure vs. Baltimore ... Had 2 tackles Nov. 1 vs. Tennessee, and also had a 9-yard kickoff return ... Played Nov. 9 vs. Green Bay despite suffering from ankle injury and had 2 QB pressures ... Had 3 tackles Dec. 13 at Tampa Bay and combined with a teammate for tackle for a 3-yard loss.

One of six rookies to make the 53-player roster, he saw action in 13 games ... Made NFL debut Sept. 13 at Houston, playing backup DE, and had 2 tackles (1 solo) ... Used at times on offense during the season as a blocking back ... Inactive for Games 15-16 and for all Steelers playoff games. 1996: Played every game and logged career-best 2.5 sacks ... Had first career sack in victory Oct. 13 vs. Cincinnati, dropping Jeff Blake for 3-yard loss in 4th quarter ... Also had 2 tackles vs. Bengals ... Came back on Oct. 20 at Houston with a sack against Chris Chandler ... Had 3 tackles in victory Oct. 27 at Atlanta, and posted career-high 5 tackles with a half-sack in helping lead 42-6 rout of visiting St. Louis Rams on Nov. 3 ... Closed regular season with 3 tackles Dec. 22 at Carolina ... Made his NFL postseason debut Dec. 29 vs. Indianapolis and also played 1-5-97 at New England. 1997: Had 7-yard sack against Mark Brunell Sept. 22 at Jacksonville ... Had first career fumble recovery Nov. 9 vs. Baltimore, covering Eric Zeier fumble to set up Steelers field goal ... Played in both Steelers postseason games, 1-3-98 vs. New England and in AFC Championship Game 1-11-98 vs. Denver.

GIBSON ON JOINING THE BENGALS: "It's been frustrating for me behind (Pittsburgh NT) Joel Steed, because I know I can play. So this is a great move for me. I think the Bengals have one of the fastest defenses in the NFL, and it's great to be back with Coach (Dick) LeBeau. I just like his style and the way he coaches."

COLLEGE: Started every game at nose guard as a Notre Dame senior and earned first-team All-Independent honors from The Sporting News ... Had 60 tackles and 3 sacks in senior season ... MIKE GOFF

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 316
College: Iowa
2nd year in NFL

63

1998 Games-Starts: 10-5; Career Games-Starts: 10-5
Contract status as of 7-5-99: In second season of a four-year deal
Acquired: D3b 98 (78th overall)
Born: 1-6-76

An aggressive, intelligent performer with solid basic techniques, Goff saw significant action as a rookie last season and could contend for a starting job in '99 ... His development was held back early last season because of a knee injury, but he returned to play the last seven games and start the last five at RG ... Posted the second highest score (38) on the Wunderlich intelligence test among offensive linemen in the 1998 draft.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "With the injury situation we had at guard, Mike had the chance to play a lot last year. He struggled at times, but no more than you'd expect, considering that he was a rookie and that he'd been hurt himself for five or six weeks earlier in the year. The bottom line is, he got his feet wet in the NFL, and now he comes back with some knowledge of what he has to improve as a second-year guy. He has a chance to develop into a fine player, because he's strong and smart, with good balance and the right temperament."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Drafted by Bengals in third round (78th overall) ... Signed July 20 ... Played on special teams only in Games 1-3 ... Inactive for Game 4 ... Suffered partial ligament tear (PCL) in left knee during practice Oct. 7, and inactive due to injury for Games 5-9 ... Returned to action in Game 10, Nov. 15 at Minnesota, and saw first action with offensive line ... Also played as offensive line reserve in Game 11, Nov. 22 vs. Baltimore ... Replaced Anthony Brown as starting RG in Game 12, Nov. 29 vs. Jacksonville, and also started Games 13-16.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Played every offensive snap in 355-yard offensive effort Nov. 29 vs. Jacksonville, offense's fourth-best output of season ... Also played every snap in offense's top game, a 483-yard output in victory Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh.

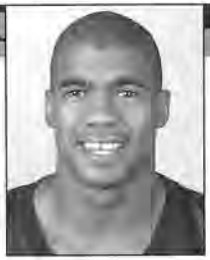

COLLEGE: Started every game as an Iowa senior, playing on the nation's eighth-ranked rushing offense ... Credited with 72 knockdown blocks in senior year as Hawkeyes rushed for 235 yards per game and set a school scoring record with 36.7 points per game ... Played in every game as a true freshman in '94 and started the last 11 games in '95, but suffered back injury in '96 opener vs. Arizona and was relegated to reserve duty for the remainder of season ... Position coach at Iowa was Frank Verducci, now Bengals tight ends coach.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Peru, Ill. ... Played defensive tackle at LaSalle-Peru HS, serving as team captain as a senior and earning All-America honors from Blue Chip Illustrated ... General studies major at Iowa.

The top defensive producer from Bengals' 1997 crop of college free agents, Granville played every game in his second pro season ... Was a standout on special teams, tying for tackles lead, and made regular contributions in goal-line defense ... Primarily an inside LB, but can also play outside.

COACH MARK DUFFNER SAYS: "Billy is a very versatile and coachable player. He's effective at the inside and outside linebacker positions, and he's one of our most productive people on special teams. THE HARD WAY: Granville, on the challenge of achieving long-term NFL success as an undrafted free agent: "How I play and what I do isn't defined by how I got here or what my salary is. I'm just a man on the field with a helmet on, like anybody else. I expect to play as well as Junior Seau or whoever. I'm not going to limit myself. I'm not saying that out of vanity or being cocky, but I'm a professional, and I believe in what I do."

COLLEGE: Undisputed leader of the Duke defensive unit, he called all signals as a senior in '96 and led the team in tackles (134) and forced fumbles (3) ... Finished his Duke career with 374 tackles, 6th on the school's all-time list.

College: Cincinnati
2nd year in NFL

27

1998 Games-Starts: 16-16; Career Games-Starts: 16-16
Contract status as of 7-5-99: In second season of a three-year deal
Acquired: D2 '98 (43rd overall)
Born: 11-24-75

Athletic, aggressive young corner enters second pro season as a key figure in Bengals' defensive plans ... Started every game at RCB as a rookie ... Led team in passes defensed (17), tied Sam Shade for interceptions lead (3) and tied for lead in forced fumbles (2) ... Hawkins and rookie LB Brian Simmons were the only Bengals to notch at least one entry in every column of the defensive stat sheet (tackles, sacks, interceptions, passes defensed, forced fumbles and fumble recoveries) ... Earned defensive Game Ball for performance Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh that included victory-clinching interception ... Finished tied for fourth on team in tackles (70), and ranked second on team in solo tackles (65) ... Personable player with team leadership skills.

COACH RAY HORTON SAYS: "My big goal for Artrell is just that he keeps growing mentally and matures. He has all the physical attributes, there's no worry about that. He was tested repeatedly as a rookie, and he responded to the challenge. He just needs to continue the learning process about the pro game and reach that level where you're never satisfied and trying to improve every week, even when you've had some success."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Drafted by Bengals in 2nd round (43rd overall) ... Started every game at RCB ... Suffered right ankle sprain Nov. 15 at Minnesota and was listed questionable-to-doubtful during the ensuing practice week, but played entire game Nov. 22 vs. Baltimore. "We learned a little bit about Artrell," said head coach Bruce Coslet, who was short on CBs due to an injury to Ashley Ambrose. "He gets paid to play, and he sucked it up and played. Good for him" ... Played 903 defensive snaps, 87.1% of total and third-most among defensive players.

DOUBLING HIS FUN: Hawkins made his first NFL interception Nov. 15 at Minnesota, and liked it so much he snagged a second one the same day. Both thefts came against Pro Bowl selection Randall Cunningham, who began the day with only 3 INT all season. In the second quarter, Hawkins outfought Jake Reed for the ball at the Cincinnati 39, returning 9 yards to the 48. In the third quarter, Hawkins flagged down an errant Cunningham pass at the Bengals 12 and returned 12 yards to the 24. "(Cunningham) was one of my childhood idols," Hawkins said, "so it was great to play against him, and to be successful was even better." In addition to his two interceptions against the Vikings, Hawkins led the team with 6 tackles and 3 passes defensed.

OTHER 1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Made NFL debut Sept. 6 vs. Tennessee, with 3 tackles (2 solo) and a pass defensed ... Had 4 solo tackles Sept. 20 vs. Green Bay, and a pass defensed when he broke up a reception bid by Antonio Freeman in the end zone ... Sacked Eric Zeier for 9-yard loss in third quarter Sept. 27 at Baltimore, forcing a fumble (Ravens recovered) ... Sack on Zeier led to Ravens punt ... Demonstrated his speed Oct. 11 vs. Pittsburgh, chasing down Steelers' swift Kordell Stewart in open field to stop Stewart after 56 yards, 13 yards short of a 69-yard TD run ... Had 7 tackles, tied for season-high, and 2 passes defensed Oct. 18 at Tennessee ... Forced a fumble by Ed McCaffrey in second quarter Nov. 1 vs. Denver (Broncos recovered) ... Recovered Mark Brunell fumble, forced by Reinard Wilson, in second quarter Nov. 8 at Jacksonville, returning 25 yards to Jaguars 15 ... Showed his open field speed again Nov. 22 vs. Baltimore, chasing down Priest Holmes at Bengals 16 after 56-yard gain ... Tied season high with 7 solo tackles Nov. 29 vs. Jacksonville ... Clinched Bengals victory Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh, intercepting Mike Tomczak pass at Bengals 18 with 0:17 remaining; also had 3 passes defensed and was voted the defensive Game Ball ... Tied for secondary lead with 6 solos Dec. 27 vs. Tampa Bay.

HAWKINS ON HAWKINS: "I had my share of learning experiences last year. I did some good things, and I showed some good flashes. My goal this year is to be more consistent, and to be a leader of the team. In my mind, part of leading is playing every play with emotion. I'm going to do my dances. When I make a play, I'm going to let everybody know I made a play, and that's so my teammates can feed off it."

COLLEGE: Came on strong in second half of his senior season at UC and impressed scouts with his performances at the Senior Bowl and Indianapolis scouting combine ... Became eighth player in UC history to make Bengals regular-season roster, and was the earliest UC selection in the draft (43rd overall) since Alex Gordon was taken in No. 42 spot by N.Y. Jets in 1987 ... Had 46 tackles, 14 passes defensed and 2 interceptions as a senior, helping lead Bearcats to their first bowl appearance since 1950 ... Had 4 solo tackles and 2 passes defensed in 35-19 Humanitarian Bowl victory vs. Utah State.

1998 Games-Starts: 9-3; Career Games-Starts: 30-3
Contract status as of 7-5-99: One-year contract for 1999
Acquired: FA '96
Born: 4-9-71

Lanky receiver made his first 3 NFL starts in '98 and has the speed to add a consistent deep threat to Bengals receiving corps ... His hopes for a breakout campaign last season were hampered by injuries, but he showed in May '99 minicamp that those troubles are behind him ... Played every game in '97 and made key contributions to Bengals' 6-2 record in season's second half.

COACH STEVE MOOSHAGIAN SAYS: "I'm excited about James after seeing him in minicamp. The coaches who have been here told me it was clearly his best minicamp since coming to the team. He knew there were two things he needed to improve, which were his consistency in catching the ball and his ability to get off the jam at the line of scrimmage. He was very focused about making those improvements, and when you combine that with his natural speed, you've got a player who should be greatly improved over last season."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Suffered severe ankle sprain in second preseason game, Aug. 17 vs. Indianapolis, and missed the last two preseason games plus Game 1 of regular season ... Ankle injury slowed him off-and-on throughout the season ... Played in Games 2 and 5-12, including starting assignments in place of injured Darnay Scott on Nov. 1 vs. Denver, Nov. 8 at Jacksonville and Nov. 22 vs. Baltimore ... On weekly inactive list for Games 1, 3-4 and 13-16.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: On Nov. 1 vs. Denver, in his first NFL start, Hundon sustained a cracked rib from a crunching end zone tackle in the fourth quarter, but held the ball for an 11-yard TD from QB Neil O'Donnell that gave Cincinnati an 18-13 lead ... Had 2 catches for 20 yards vs. Broncos ... Led team with 43 receiving yards (on 4 catches) in starting role Nov. 8 at Jacksonville ... Was 2-for-17 receiving in start on Nov. 22 vs. Baltimore ... Season-long catches were a pair of 17-yarders, one Nov. 8 at Jacksonville and the second Nov. 29 vs. Jacksonville.

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1996: Signed with Bengals April 23 as college free agent ... Waived Aug. 27 and signed Aug. 28 to Bengals practice squad ... On practice squad through Game 11, and signed Nov. 19 to Bengals' 53-player roster ... Played in Games 12-16 ... Did not earn an accrued year of credit toward free agency ... Scored on his first NFL reception (and only reception of the season), a 14-yard pass from Jeff Blake in victory Dec. 15 at Houston; the TD catch came on third-and-12 play in third quarter as Bengals erased a 6-0 deficit and went ahead to stay in 21-13 victory ... Made NFL playing debut Nov. 24 vs. Atlanta and had 4 KOR for 85 yards ... Also led special teams in tackles in Atlanta game with 3 (2 solo) ... Had 5 KOR for 134 yards in victory Dec. 22 vs. Indianapolis, averaging 26.8 yards ... Season KOR average of 23.7 was best on the team, though with 10 returns he didn't qualify for AFC rankings. 1997: Played as reserve in Games 1-16 ... Led WRs with 148 special teams snaps ... Scored 2 TDs on Nov. 30 at Philadelphia, on passes from Boomer Esiason of 36 yards in first quarter and 13 yards in fourth quarter ... Posted a 5-catch, 118-yard day in the Philly game, including gain of 52 yards, and also was the intended receiver when Eagles' Charles Dimry was flagged for interference in the end zone with 1:03 to play, setting up a TD that gave Bengals 42-41 lead ... Broke into season receiving column with a team-leading 4 catches (for 42 yards) on Oct. 26 at N.Y. Giants, including 21-yarder for first down on third-and-seven play during Bengals' first TD drive ... Had key 6-yard catch on third-and-four during fourth quarter of victory Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville, producing a first down that allowed Bengals to kill all but 0:22 of final two minutes while protecting lead ... Had season-long 61-yard catch Dec. 14 vs. Dallas, but fumbled into end zone and Cowboys recovered for touchback.

COLLEGE: Dangerous receiver and kick returner for Portland State's Division I-AA national playoff qualifiers ... Caught 83-for-1406 in two seasons with Vikings, and averaged 25.3 yards on 21 KOR ... T

ROD JONES

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 325
College: Kansas
4th year in NFL

60

1998 Games-Starts: 6-2; Career Games-Starts: 22-11
Contract status as of 7-5-99: One-year contract for 1999
Acquired: D7 '96 (219th overall)
Born: 1-11-74

Powerful player with good foot movement, Jones has worked to add discipline and poise to his game, and could make a run at starting lineup spot in '99 ... Slated to work primarily at left tackle in training camp, but can also play guard ... Saw sporadic action over first 12 weeks of last season, and later replaced injured Rich Braham as starting LG for two games.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "Rod did some nice things last year. I was pleased with his progress. He's always been aggressive, and early in his career, he was like a heat-seeking missile. He'd either kill his man or miss him completely. But he's learned to temper that and be more consistent. He can play tackle or guard, and that helps our options as a coaching staff. I don't know where he'll wind up after training camp, but it could be somewhere in our starting lineup."

1998 RECAP: Active but did not play for Games 1-6 and 9-10 ... Played as reserve and/or on special teams in Games 7-8 and 11-12 ... Started at LG, substituting for injured Rich Braham, in Game 13, Dec. 6 vs. Buffalo, and Game 14, Dec. 13 at Indianapolis ... Sidelined during Indianapolis game with quad strain and bruised elbow, and on inactive list for Game 15, Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh ... Played season-high 59 offensive snaps in start vs. Buffalo.

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1996: Drafted by Bengals in 7th round (219th overall) ... Signed July 15 ... Played in all 4 preseason games, starting last 3 at LG, and started at LG in season opener Sept. 1 at St. Louis ... Also played Sept. 8 at San Diego and Nov. 24 vs. Atlanta ... Active but DNP for Game 11 at Buffalo and Game 15 at Houston ... On weekly inactive list for Games 3-10, 13-14 and 16. 1997: Started Games 1-8 at LT before yielding spot upon Kevin Sargent's full recovery from neck injury ... Played every offensive snap in Games 3-6 ... Missed only 5 offensive snaps in Bengals' season-opening win Aug. 31 vs. Arizona ... Aided Ki-Jana Carter's 104-yard rushing effort Sept. 21 at Denver, which broke Cincinnati's 67-game streak without a 100-yard rusher ... Also played in Games 9-12 and 10-14 ... Active but DNP in Games 11 and 15-16 ... Graded perfectly in area of missed assignments on coaches' film reviews, with none in 361 offensive snaps.

COLLEGE: Missed most of junior season ('94) due to injured right knee ligaments, but came back as a senior to earn first-team All-Big Eight honors ... Credited with 93 knockdown blocks as a senior and graded 86% for blocking consistency, playing a major role as Kansas averaged 206.9 rushing yards per game ... Played in every game as a freshman, breaking into starting lineup near end of season, and started every game at LT as a sophomore for Jayhawk team that averaged 213.9 rushing yards and 33:12 possession time ... Originally recruited as a defensive lineman.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Detroit, where he attended Henry Ford HS and had 17 sacks as a senior defensive lineman ... Holds bachelor's degree from Kansas, with major in human development/family living ... Motivational speaker in elementary and high school classrooms ... An avid moviegoer, he also enjoys bowling, billiards and golf.

Accurate thrower with good size and strength spent his second partial season with Bengals in '98, and put himself in team's '99 QB mix with promising performance ... Prolific college passer led Marshall to 1996 NCAA Division I-AA title and developed reputation for mistake-free performance in crucial situations.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "Eric had only limited opportunities last year, but when he did get in a couple of times, he moved the team. We like what we see of this young guy because he made some plays. He found himself in situations where he was playing without having gotten any practice snaps during the week, and he took the team down the field. We like the way he moved the team with his passing ability."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Saw action in preseason, posting 118.2 passer rating with 10 completions in 15 attempts for 138 yards, 1 TD and no INT ... Completed 7 of 17 passes for 102 yards, no TDs and 2 INTs vs. Bucs.

1997: Signed with Bengals April 25 as rookie free agent ... Posted 97.7 passer rating in preseason, completing 16-of-24 for 151 yards, 1 TD and no INT ... Completed 18-of-28 (64.3%) for 324 yards and 4 TDs in Thundering Herd's 49-29 victory over Montana in national championship game ... Transferred to Marshall from Florida, where he had posted excellent numbers in limited action as backup to Danny Wuerffel (1996 Heisman Trophy winner) ... Played for Gators from 1993-95, completing 93-of-160 (58.1%) for 1572 yards, 18 TDs and 5 INT ... PERSONAL: Born in Cincinnati, but moved with family as a youth to Palm Beach Gardens, Fla. ... Attended Palm Beach Gardens HS, where he finished with school records for passing yards (5364) and TD passes (44) and was named one of nation's Top 40 players by Atlanta Journal-Constitution ... Off-season residences are Palm Beach Gardens and Huntington, W.Va. ... Hobbies include basketball and artwork ... Single ... Full name is Eric Joel Kresser.

* — Kresser did not earn an accrued year of experience toward NFL free agency in 1997 or 1998 because he was not on the 53-player roster, the Injured Reserve list or the PUP list in either season for the required minimum of six games. He again is designated a first-year player in 1999.

CB-FS TREMAIN MACK

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 193
College: Miami (Fla.)
3rd year in NFL

34

1998 Games-Starts: 12-0; Career Games-Starts: 16-4
Contract status as of 7-5-99: In first season of a two-year deal
Acquired: D4 '97 (111th overall)
Born: 11-21-74

Explosive kick returner with high potential on defense as cornerback or safety ... Set Bengals records for kickoff return average and total KOR yards in '98 before his season was ended after 12 games by legal action stemming from alcohol-related violations ... Rejoined Bengals in June '99 after resolving his legal difficulties ... Transferred from Reserve/Left Squad list to off-season roster on 6-7-99 ... Has been listed as a safety on defense in first two pro seasons, but slated to work primarily at LCB entering '99 training camp.

COACH RAY HORTON SAYS: "It's no secret Tremain has had off-field problems, and his first priority is to decide what he wants in life. If he wants to be a pro football player and can make that commitment for 20 weeks, he can soar very high. He has great natural ability to roam and catch and make plays. With the right focus, he could be a significant player for us at cornerback or safety."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Played in Games 1-12 ... Removed from Bengals roster Dec. 3 to the Exempt/Left Squad list ... Transferred Dec. 23 to the Reserve/Left Squad list.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Averaged 25.9 yards on his 45 KO returns, breaking Bengals record of 25.4 set by Willie Shelby in 1976 ... Has enough returns to also qualify as Bengals career leader in KO return average, passing former mark of 24.7 yards by Lemar Parrish ... Ranked fourth in AFC and seventh in NFL for season in KO return average ... Totaled 1165 KO return yards, second-most in AFC and most in Bengals history, topping Deacon Turner's output of 1149 yards in 1979 ... Mack tied with Ravens' Pat Johnson for AFC's longest KO return of season — Mack with a 97-yard TD in third quarter Sept. 27 at Baltimore, cutting 21-10 deficit to 21-17 ... Had three other returns of 50-plus yards, gaining 51 in second quarter Sept. 20 vs. Green Bay, 54 yards in first quarter Oct. 25 at Oakland and 61 yards in fourth quarter Nov. 1 vs. Denver ... The 61-yarder vs. Denver put the Bengals on Broncos' 32-yard line with 48 seconds left, but Denver's defense held for 33-26 victory ... Mack had 212 KO return yards vs. Denver (on 7 returns), breaking Bengals record of 201 established by Eric Bieniemy on 10-26-97 at N.Y. Giants ... Finished third on club with 216 special teams snaps ... Saw action as a nickel CB on Nov. 22 vs. Baltimore because Bengals CB corps was thinned by injuries ... Had 2 solo tackles in Ravens game ... Made a key clearing block during Damon Gibson's 65-yard punt return for TD in victory Sept. 13 vs. Detroit.

COACH AL ROBERTS SAYS: "As a kickoff returner, Tremain has vision, speed and strength. He anticipates. He can see where a hole will develop before it actually opens. Then he hits that hole with a lot of speed and pretty good size and strength. He's fearless, not afraid of a collision, and when you put all that together, some nice things can happen."

1997: Entered draft after junior season at Miami, and selected by Bengals in fourth round (111th overall) ... Started first three preseason games, but diagnosed Aug. 18 with small cartilage tear in right knee, and underwent arthroscopic surgery Aug. 20 ... Missed final preseason game, but returned to start in Games 1-4 of regular season

... Had 3 tackles (2 solo) in NFL debut Aug. 31 vs. Arizona; played despite having undergone arthroscopic knee surgery Aug. 20 and missing preseason finale ... Tied for team lead with 9 tackles Sept. 7 at Baltimore ... Had 29-yard INT return Sept. 21 at Denver, picking off John Elway pass 3 yards deep in end zone and returning to Bengals' 26; game was scoreless at the time, and Bengals responded with 74-yard TD drive ... BENGALS' WORST IS BEST

The most points ever allowed by the Bengals was 51 — in a 51-24 loss to Buffalo on Sept. 9, 1979. That game is no highlight in team lore, but it's significant in one positive sense.

The Bengals are one of only three NFL teams never to allow more than 51 points in a game. The other two clubs, Seattle and Kansas City, also show 51 as their all-time highest yield.

Cincinnati has allowed 50 points only one other time, in a 50-34 loss at San Diego in 1982.

1998 Games-Starts: 16-16; Career Games-Starts: 95-95
Contract status as of 7-5-99: In final season of a four-year deal
Acquired: D2 '93 (37th overall)
Born: 4-21-71

A fixture at TE, McGee returns for '99 with a string of 87 consecutive Bengals starts, by far the longest on the team ... His 16.5-yard reception average led the team in '98 (minimum 10 catches), and his 363 yards were third-most behind starting WRs Carl Pickens and Darnay Scott ... Receptions total (22) was down compared to past seasons, but coaches have said getting him the ball more often will be an offensive priority in '99 ... McGee's blocking last season helped HB Corey Dillon to third-best rushing season (1130) in Bengals history.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "Tony's a talented receiver, and we just didn't get him the ball enough last year. Improving his role in the passing attack was one of the things we worked on during the off-season. You'll see him getting more chances this year, and he'll be ready. He's a smart, solid pro who prepares all the time. He works hard at his job."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Started every game for fifth consecutive season ... Ranked fifth on the offense and second among "skill position" players with 782 snaps played, 79.9% of total ... Only significant missed playing time came Oct. 18 at Tennessee, when he was ejected in second quarter for making contact with an official ... Has started 95 of a possible 96 games in Bengals career, missing only 11-14-93 vs. Houston, when sidelined with lower back contusion ... Streak of 87 consecutive starts dates to Game 10 of rookie season, 11-21-93 at N.Y. Jets.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Had 2 catches for 53 yards in victory Sept. 13 at Detroit, including 38-yarder to Lions 18 in third quarter that helped set up TD that tied score at 21-21 ... Led team with 35 receiving yards Oct. 25 at Oakland, and tied for lead in receptions with 3 ... Led team in receiving yards for a second consecutive week Nov. 1 vs. Denver, picking up 73 on 4 catches, including gain of 17 on a second-quarter TD drive and gains of 7 and 9 on second-half TD drive ... Also had season-long gain of 40 yards in Denver game ... Scored on 7-yard pass from Neil O'Donnell in third quarter Nov. 29 vs. Jacksonville, cutting Jaguars lead to 20-17.

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1993: Drafted by Bengals in second round (37th overall) ... 44 catches were the most by a Bengals tight end since 1989, and his 525 yards the most by a Cincinnati TE since 1990 ... Named to three NFL All-Rookie teams ... Caught 7 for 102 yards Sept. 26 vs. Seattle, and keyed Bengals' victory over Rams on Dec. 19 with six for 90 yards ... Missed one game, Nov. 14 vs. Houston, with lower back contusion ... Led Bengals TEs with 111 special teams plays. 1994: Best overall receiving day (5-70) came Nov. 20 vs. Indianapolis ... Also had five catches Sept. 18 vs. New England and Nov. 27 at Denver ... Scored first NFL touchdown Dec. 24 vs. Philadelphia, with an eight-yard catch from Jeff Blake ... Had career-long receiving gain (54) Dec. 18 at Arizona ... Caught 2 or more passes in 12 games ... Allowed only three pressures and no sacks in 124 pass protection situations ... Flagged for only two penalties, and coaches considered one of those an incorrect call. 1995: 55 receptions and 754 yards were the second-most in Bengals history by a TE, topped only by Dan Ross (71-910) in 1981 ... Finished third in yards and fourth in catches among TEs leaguewide ... Second on Bengals to Carl Pickens in receptions ... Yards-per-catch average of 13.7 was tops among the top four TEs in receptions leaguewide ... Named as TE on Sports Illustrated's mid-season All-Pro team, chosen by a poll of NFL personnel directors ... Scored 4 TDs, after totaling just 1 in first two seasons ... Had career-high 118 yards Sept. 3 at Indianapolis (on 6 catches); also had season-long 41-yard reception in that game ... Career-high 8 catches Sept. 24 vs. Houston (for 109 yards); included 1-yard TD catch ... Scored 2 TDs against Pittsburgh, 12-yarder Oct. 19 at Steelers and 20-yarder Nov. 19 vs. Steelers ... Sidelined in 4th quarter Nov. 3 at Baltimore with mild concussion, but returned to start the following week. 1997: Led club with 6 receiving TDs, and tied for third in TD catches among NFL tight ends ... One of seven Bengals to start every game ... Finished third on team in receptions (34) and receiving yards (414) ... Solid year as blocker for Bengals' ninth-ranked rushing game ... Had first 2-TD game of his career in victory Nov. 9 at Indianapolis, making tough catch from Jeff Blake for 15-yard score in first quarter and grabbing 5-yarder from Boomer Esiason midway through fourth quarter to put Bengals on top 28-10 ... Was held to 1 catch the following week against Pittsburgh, but came back to score in each of the next three games, giving him 5 TDs in five weeks ... Total of 6 TDs for season was his career-high ... Caught 9-yard TD from Esiason in first quarter of victory Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville, putting Bengals ahead 14-0 ... Also had 9-yard TD catch from Esiason in fourth quarter Nov. 30 at Philadelphia ... Scored on 1-yard pass from Esiason in first quarter Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee, giving Bengals 14-0 lead ... First TD of season came Sept. 21 at Denver, on 7-yard pass from Blake for game's first score ... Season high for receptions was 4, on Sept. 7 at Baltimore and on Nov. 2 vs. San Diego ... Capped Bengals' winning TD drive in fourth quarter Aug. 31 vs. Arizona with 2-point conversion catch on pass from Blake ... Graded by coaches with only 2 dropped passes all season, and none in last 12 games.

COLTS BEWARE: A native of Terre Haute, Ind., and a former resident of Indianapolis, McGee has made a habit of saving top performances for the Indianapolis Colts. For three consecutive seasons (1994-96), he posted his yearly high in receiving yardage against the Colts (70 yards in '94, career-high 118 yards in '95, and 93 yards in '96). In the '96 game, he also tied his career high for catches, with 8. McGee managed only 20 yards receiving in the 1997 Bengals-Colts game, but both his catches were for touchdowns, marking the first 2-TD game of his career. The Colts finally got a handle on McGee last season, holding him to 1 catch for 8 yards on Dec. 13 at Indianapolis. But McGee will get the chance to start a new streak of stellar performances against the Colts when the teams meet on Oct. 24 of this season in Indianapolis.

COLLEGE: Blossomed as a Wolverine senior, with 32 receptions for 350 yards and four touchdowns ... Added six more catches for 117 yards and two touchdowns in Michigan's 38-31 Rose Bowl victory over Washington.

FB BRIAN MILNE

44

1998 Games-Starts: 14-14; Career Games-Starts: 36-35
Contract status as of 7-5-99: One-year contract for 1999
Acquired: W (Ind.) '96
Born: 1-7-73

Primary lead blocker as HB Corey Dillon rushed for more than 1100 yards each of the last two seasons, Milne aims in '99 to help Dillon become only the 11th back to gain 1000 or more in each of his first three NFL years ... Milne had career-high 26 pass receptions in '98 and averaged career-best 4.1 yards per rush ... Started final 14 games after missing first two due to back soreness which also had sidelined him for the final three preseason games ... Praised by coaches as one of the team's most exemplary year-round hard workers.

COACH JIM ANDERSON SAYS: "Last season was an uphill climb for Brian. He had a back injury in training camp that hampered him most of the year, but he made the journey. He worked through some things and endured some things. I don't think people fully realize what kind of man he is — how tough he is — because he went out and played when a lot of guys wouldn't have. He got better near the end of the year, and I expect that to be a springboard for him, to help him back to the form of two years ago. He can be a dominant blocker, and his running and receiving skills are very solid for the fullback position."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Missed final three preseason games and Games 1-2 of regular season due to back soreness ... Started Games 3-16 ... Has started at FB in 33 of Bengals' last 35 games.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Was starting FB for all four of HB Corey Dillon's 100-yard rushing games ... Finished third among RBs with 26 receptions and fourth among RBs with 124 receiving yards ... Broke Steelers' tackles to make 8-yard pass reception gain for key first down on Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh, as Bengals were killing fourth-quarter clock in 25-24 victory ... Had career-long 10-yard rush Nov. 29 vs. Jacksonville, and scored Bengals first TD vs. Jaguars on 1-yard run in second quarter ... Also vs. Jacksonville, had 4 receptions (for 8 yards) to tie his career high ... Led team with 3 receptions (for 16 yards) Oct. 18 at Tennessee ... Had 5-yard reception to Ravens' 5-yard line on Bengals' first TD drive Sept. 27 at Baltimore ... Had season-high 29 receiving yards (on 3 catches) Nov. 15 at Minnesota, including season-long 18-yarder.

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1996: Drafted by Indianapolis in 4th round (115th overall) ... Waived Aug. 20, and acquired by Bengals on waiver claim Aug. 21 ... On Bengals weekly inactive list for Games 1-4 and 8-11 ... Played on special teams in Game 5 ... Active but DNP in Games 6-7 ... Started Games 12-16 ... Made first NFL start Nov. 24 vs. Atlanta when FB Jeff Cothran was inactive with leg injury, and played well enough to lock up starting job for remainder of season ... Milne's 1-yard TD run in Atlanta game put Bengals ahead 34-24, providing eventual winning points in 41-31 victory ... Had long receiving gain of 15 yards Dec. 1 at Jacksonville, and made excellent belly fake on third-and-goal play from Jaguars 1-yard line that froze defense for a TD pass from Jeff Blake to Carl Pickens ... Had 2 receptions for 14 yards in victory Dec. 8 vs. Baltimore ... Had rushing high of 8 yards on 2 carries in victory Dec. 15 at Houston. 1997: Had 2 receptions for 22 yards in season opener vs. Arizona, including 20-yard gain in third quarter to help spark first TD drive of Bengals' comeback victory ... Posted career-high 33 receiving yards on 3 catches Oct. 26 at N.Y. Giants ... Scored on 2-yard run in victory Nov. 2 vs. San Diego, putting Bengals ahead to stay at 17-14 in second quarter ... Had career-high 4 receptions (for 12 yards) in victory Nov. 23 vs. Jacksonville ... Credited by coaches for superior pass protection work in team's season-high 373-yard passing effort Nov. 30 at Philadelphia; scored on 1-yard run at Philadelphia, giving Bengals 42-41 lead with 1:00 remaining before Eagles came back for winning field goal ... Credited for numerous key blocks Dec. 4 vs. Tennessee as HB Corey Dillon set NFL rookie record with 246 rushing yards ... Starting FB for all 16 games ... Sidelined in third quarter Nov. 2 vs. San Diego with mild concussion, but returned to start the following week.

PUTTING IT IN PERSPECTIVE: Milne has become an NFL starter after surviving a life-threatening attack of Hodgkin's Disease as a teenager. "There isn't a hit in football that will make me say, 'That was worse than six months of chemotherapy,'" Milne says. "Life is gravy after you conquer cancer. If people think of me as a guy who overcame cancer, maybe they'll be inspired. Maybe they'll say to themselves, 'My job is tough, but I'm not going to quit. I'm going to keep going.'"

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman at Penn State ... Scored 16 rushing TDs while gaining 512 yards on 114 carries (4.5 avg.) and catching 32 passes for 229 yards ... Closed his college days with a career-high 82 rushing yards on 12 carries in Penn State's 43-14 Outback Bowl victory over Auburn.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Waterford, Pa. ... Attended Fort LeBoeuf HS, where he set state records in discus and shot put, but missed senior football season due to Hodgkin's Disease ... Won gold medal in discus at 1992 World Junior Track Championships in Seoul, South Korea ... Off-season residence is Cincinnati ... Holds B.S. degree from Penn State in labor and industrial relations, with minor in exercise and sports science ... Hobbies include music, hunting and target shooting ... Full name is Brian Fitzsimons Milne ... The 'e' is silent in his last name.

MATT O'DWYER

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 300
College: Northwestern
5th year in NFL

72

1998 Games-Starts: 16-16 (NYJ); Career Games-Starts: 60-50
Contract status as of 7-5-99: In first season of a two-year deal
Acquired: UFA (NYJ) '99
Born: 9-1-72

A fiery, physical performer who started all 50 games (including playoffs) as the N.Y. Jets developed from last-place team to AFC power during 1996-98 ... Signed with Bengals (two-year contract) as unrestricted free agent on 6-22-99, and projected entering training camp as team's starting LG ... An avid weight lifter, considered among the NFL's strongest interior linemen, he enters what should be his prime playing years ... Started at RG last season, but was at LG in '97, helping Jets' Adrian Murrell rush for 1086 yards.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "Our goal in 1999 is putting the toughest offensive line in the league on the field, and signing Matt puts us very close to that. He's my kind of guy. Smart, tough, competitive. I want guys who don't have to be coached to be aggressive, and he definitely fits that mode."

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Capped season of starting every game at RG with two playoff starts ... Played a big role in Jets' 429 yards and 39:16 possession time in Divisional Playoff on 1-10-99 vs. Jacksonville, and helped offense total 370 yards in AFC Championship Game on 1-17-99 at Denver ... Opened regular season with fine pass-blocking performance as Glenn Foley passed for 415 yards Sept. 6 at San Francisco ... Helped lead Jets to 302 rushing yards, second-most in team history, in 44-6 win Sept. 20 vs. Indianapolis ... Helped pave the way for Curtis Martin's 2nd straight 100-yard rushing day in victory Oct. 4 vs. Miami ... O'Dwyer and Jets line helped Martin to six more 100-yard games later in the season, and a total of eight for the year ... O'Dwyer's consistent play helped Jets to a 6-0 finish in the regular season, including a streak of no sacks against QB Vinny Testaverde during Games 12-14 against Carolina, Seattle and Miami.

O'DWYER SAYS: "I've been taught to play hard. If you truly play 100 percent, you have to be a little fiery. But I think you can be controlled and fiery. It's all about field position, and you can't hurt your team with a 15-yard penalty."

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 1995 — Drafted by Jets as first selection in Round 2 (33rd overall) ... Second guard selected in draft, behind Ruben Brown (taken No. 14 by Buffalo) ... Selected with pick acquired from Jacksonville for Jets picks at Nos. 40 and 71 ... Played in 12 games and made 2 starts before suffering a season-ending knee injury Dec. 3 vs. St. Louis ... Made first start in victory Nov. 26 at Seattle ... Played both LG and RG in Jets' line rotation. 1996: In Bill Parcells' first year as Jets coach, O'Dwyer was one of eight players to start all 16 games ... Had big day Sept. 29 at Washington, opening holes for RB Adrian Murrell's 31-132-1 TD outing and allowing Neil O'Donnell time to throw for 292 yards ... On Oct. 6 at Oakland, helped pave the way for Murrell's 2nd consecutive 100-yard rushing game (the 1st time a Jets RB accomplished that feat since Freeman McNeil in 1987) ... Worked to hold foes without a sack in consecutive games Oct. 13 at Jacksonville and Oct. 20 vs. Buffalo ... Suffered stomach cramps midway thought the 3rd quarter Oct. 27 at Arizona, but was able to return and was a key man in opening holes in Murrell's 31-199-1 TD rushing effort ... Helped open holes for Murrell's fifth 100-yard day of the season rushing Nov. 24 at Buffalo ... Started at LG on Dec. 8 at New England, and played the entire game, despite being hobbled by a sprained ankle suffered earlier in the game. 1997: Started and played all 16 Jets games at LG ... Opened with strong effort Aug. 31 at Seattle as Jets won 41-3, keeping QB Neil O'Donnell free of sacks and paving way for 434 total yards ... Credited by coaches for superior job pass blocking in victory Sept. 21 vs. Oakland ... In Sept. 28 win at Bengals, contributed to effort that included 42:50 possession time, no sacks allowed and 190 rushing yards ... Contributed to line's allowing only 1 sack each in Games 6 and 8-9 ... Chicago-area native started against his hometown Bears at Soldier Field on Nov. 16 as Jets posted 23-15 win ... In victory Dec. 14 vs. Tampa Bay, helped the Jets to control the game by holding the ball for 37:31 and allowing no sacks.

IT'S DESTINY, OR SOMETHING: In a sense, O'Dwyer and current Bengals line mate Brian DeMarco were traded for one another in 1995. The N.Y. Jets traded the 40th and 71st picks in the draft to Jacksonville for the No. 33 pick, and N.Y. used No. 33 to select O'Dwyer. With the No. 40 pick, Jacksonville selected DeMarco. Both DeMarco and O'Dwyer were signed by the Bengals early this year as unrestricted free agents, after playing four years with the clubs that drafted them. Entering the Bengals' 1999 training camp, they are projected as the club's starting guards — O'Dwyer on the left side and DeMarco on the right.

COLLEGE: Earned all-Big Ten honors as both a T and a G during his junior and senior seasons at Northwestern ... Played an integral part in head coach Gary Barnett's major turnaround of the football program... Played 4 of the 5 offensive line positions during his 4-year tenure with the Wildcats.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Lincolnshire, IL ... Helped lead Stevenson HS to state football playoffs, earning all-area and academic all-conference honors ... Also earned all-conference track honors in discus ... Has been active in visiting both pediatric units and elementary schools during his pro career ... Single ... Majored in organizational studies at Northwestern ... Full name is Matthew Phillip O'Dwyer.

1999 INSTANT REPLAY RULES

COACHES' CHALLENGE:

Outside the final two minutes of each half, each team will be permitted two challenges per game that will initiate referee reviews. Each challenge will cost a team a time-out. If a challenge is upheld, the time-out will be restored, but the challenge will not. No challenges will be recognized from a team that has exhausted its time-outs.

FINAL TWO MINUTES OF EACH HALF:

After the two-minute warning of each half, and throughout any overtime period, any referee review will be initiated by the replay assistant in the replay booth in the press box. He can initiate as many review requests as he thinks necessary, no matter how many time-outs the teams may have. No time-out will be charged for a review initiated from the replay booth.

REFEREE REVIEW:

All replay reviews will be conducted by the referee on a field-level monitor after consultation with the other covering officials on the play. A decision will be reversed only when the referee has indisputable visual evidence that the call should be changed. The referee cannot initiate a replay in any instance.

TIME LIMIT:

Reviews will be a maximum of 90 seconds, timed from when the referee puts on the head phones to the replay booth.

REVIEWABLE PLAYS:

The instant replay system will cover a variety of plays in three main areas:

1. sideline, goal line, end zone, and end-line plays;
2. passing plays;
3. other detectable infractions, such as a runner ruled down not by defensive contact, and the number of players on the field.

COACH AL ROBERTS SAYS: "Doug has proven himself over his career to be one of the most accurate field-goal kickers in the business. He's meticulous about the routine he follows in practice, before games and before each kick, and it pays off for him. He knows that last year his consistency fell off a little. Part of that was due to some inconsistencies and changes we had with snappers and holders, but we're going to fix that and hold Doug to the high standards he's set for himself. We look for him to come back with an excellent year."

HARD ON HOUSTON

The Bengals' all-time high score in a game is 61. It has been done twice, and both times against Houston (now Tennessee). Cincinnati won 61-17 at the Astrodome in 1972, and 61-7 at Riverfront Stadium (now Cinergy Field) in 1989.

To further the coincidence, the date for both games was December 17.

The 54-point margin from the 61-7 game is the largest winning margin in Bengals history.

1998 Games-Starts: 14-1; Career Games-Starts: 14-1
Contract status as of 7-5-99: In final season of a two-year deal
Acquired: CFA '98
Born: 2-19-75

The top defensive producer among Bengals' 1998 crop of college free agents, Ross was a key reserve on defensive unit and the club's fourth-leading tackler on special teams ... Made a quick transition from college defensive lineman to pro LB, ranking second among Bengals LBs with 4 passes defensed ... Made impact as a pass rusher in college and has pro potential as a blitzer.

COACH MARK DUFFNER SAYS: "I liked this guy's brightness right from the start. He was alert. I took to him instantly because of his personality. He was calling me at home and at the office during the summer to ask questions about the playbook. When we got into the season, things developed where he had a chance to get in the games and even start one. Now he's back with a year's experience, and he's going to greatly enhance the competition we have at the outside linebacker position."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Signed April 21 as rookie free agent ... Played in all four preseason games ... Played in Games 1-2 and 5-16 of regular season, including starting assignment Nov. 15 at Minnesota as sub for injured James Francis and Steve Foley at LOLB ... On inactive list for Games 3-4.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Saw first significant action on defense Nov. 8 at Jacksonville, platooned with Steve Foley as replacement for injured James Francis at LOLB, and had 4 tackles (3 solo) ... With Foley also injured, made first start Nov. 15 at Minnesota, and had 3 tackles ... Stopped Bills scoring threat by intercepting Doug Flutie pass in 2nd quarter Dec. 6 vs. Buffalo, returning 11 yards to Bengals 29 ... Also vs. Bills, had 4 solo tackles and 3 passes defensed, including a deflection of a Flutie fourth-quarter pass that John Copeland intercepted at Bills 24 to set up Bengals TD drive ... Ranked 16th on defense with 14 tackles (12 solo) ... Ranked fourth on special teams with 11 tackles ... Had 2 special teams tackles in three consecutive games — Nov. 1 vs. Denver, Nov. 8 at Jacksonville and Nov. 15 at Minnesota.

COACH AL ROBERTS SAYS: "We look for Adrian to be one our key guys on the kick coverage teams. He's smart, and if there's an area he knows he's responsible for, he'll take care of it. He can be a playmaker, too, but the thing I really liked last year was the discipline and responsibility to his assignments that he showed as a rookie."

COLLEGE: Joined Colorado State program as a walk-on in 1993, and departed with a No. 5 ranking on school's all-time sacks list (18.0) ... Started his last 25 games as a DE, including 1997 Holiday Bowl, and was named All-WAC Pacific Division as a junior and senior ... Had 3.5 sacks and 15 tackles for loss as a senior, and 9.5 sacks and 12 tackles for loss as a junior.

Consistent, technically sound veteran returns after starting every game for the first time in his NFL career in '98 ... Held starting spot down the season's stretch despite playing with a painful injured left elbow that prevented him from fully extending his arm ... Underwent surgery on 1-8-99 for the removal of bone chips from left elbow ... Has battled back to continue his career despite injuries that cost him all but one game in 1993, the entire 1996 season and the first six games of '97.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "Sarge came back and started every game for us last year, and that was significant since he's had some tough injuries. He's a reliable player. He's a technically solid NFL pass blocker who can play the key position of left tackle."

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Graded "excellent" (90% or better) in five games, tying C Darrick Brilz for most games in that category on the season ... Games with grades of "excellent" were Nov. 1 vs. Denver (92%), Nov. 15 at Minnesota (91%), Dec. 13 at Indianapolis (90%), Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh (92%) and Dec. 27 vs. Tampa Bay (90%) ... Spent the next 11 weeks on inactive status, and was transferred to the Injured Reserve list Dec. 3. 1994: Opened training camp as candidate for starting C job, but was switched to LT in preseason shakeup caused by injury to Joe Walter ... Played 93.1% of offensive snaps for the season (924 of 992), second-best percentage on the offensive unit ... Played every offensive snap in 13 games ... Started first five games, lost job to Mark Dennis for Game 6, but won it back the next week and held it the remainder of the season ... Consistent play helped Bengals improve nine spots from 1993 in NFL total offense rankings (27th to 18th). 1995: Opened season at LT with fine effort at Indianapolis against pass rush threat Trev Alberts ... Also credited by coaches for particularly effective jobs against Miami's Marco Coleman on Oct. 1 and against Tampa Bay's Shane Curry on Oct. 8 ... Cited for only 1 missed assignment in 852 total snaps ... Coaches rated him "exceptional" at LG in season finale Dec. 24 vs. Minnesota, given that he had not worked at G until the week of the game, and was matched against Pro Bowl DT John Randle ... Played every snap at LT in Games 1-12 ... Sidelined after 13 plays Dec. 3 at Green Bay with ankle sprain, causing him to miss Dec. 10 game vs. Chicago. 1996: Opened

Remained on PUP list for Games 1-5 ... Granted a roster exemption to return to practice on Oct. 8, and remained off roster for Game 6, Oct. 12 at Tennessee ... Added to 53-player roster on Oct. 18, and on Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh he played in reserve role, seeing first game action since 1996 preseason opener ... WR

DARNAY SCOTT

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 205
College: San Diego State
6th year in NFL

86

1998 Games-Starts: 13-13; Career Games-Starts: 77-72
Contract status as of 7-5-99: In second season of a five-year deal
Acquired: D2 '94 (30th overall)
Born: 7-7-72

Boasting one of the NFL's best blends of size and raw speed, Scott is poised for chance to take over Bengals' No. 1 wideout role in '99 ... Scored career-high and team-leading 7 TDs last season, and though he missed three games due to injuries, he still posted his customary productive numbers with 51 catches for 817 yards ... Durable performer has missed only those three games in his five-year NFL career, and has started 72 of his 77 games played ... Only Bengal to be voted two Game Balls in '98, earning honor for performances Sept. 13 at Detroit and Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh ... Scott has topped 50-catch mark for four straight years after catching 46 as rookie ... Has topped 800-yard mark in every season of his career except 1997, when he just missed with team-leading 797 yards ... Only receiver in Bengals history to top 800 yards in each of his first three seasons.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "Darnay's our big-play receiver, our burner. He has the speed every team needs. He was nicked up a little last year, but he still made big plays. This year, we may be counting on him to carry even more of the load. He'll have the challenge to step up and elevate his game to the very top level of the league."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-7, 10 and 12-16 ... On weekly inactive list for Game 8 (Nov. 1 vs. Denver) and Game 9 (Nov. 8 at Jacksonville) with left Achilles tendon strain ... On inactive list for Game 11 (Nov. 22 vs. Baltimore) due to turf toe ... Had played in 71 straight games and started 65 of last 66 before missing Nov. 1 Denver contest.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Caught 2 passes for 30 yards in season opener Sept. 6 vs. Tennessee, including 23-yard TD from Neil O'Donnell for team's first score in first quarter ... Won offensive Game Ball for victory Sept. 13 at Detroit with 5 catches for 130 yards, including TDs from O'Donnell of 70 yards in first quarter and 36 yards in second quarter ... Made 3 receptions for 58 yards on Sept. 20 vs. Green Bay, including acrobatic catch for 41 yards to Packers 4-yard line in second quarter, setting up Bengals FG ... Caught 3 passes for 79 yards in victory Oct. 11 vs. Pittsburgh, including 2 TDs from O'Donnell, 44-yarder in second quarter and 30-yarder in fourth quarter for 18-17 lead ... Returned from two weeks on injured list to lead team with 4 catches and 31 yards Nov. 15 at Minnesota ... Made 6 receptions for 93 yards on Dec. 6 vs. Buffalo, including 8-yard TD from O'Donnell in second quarter that gave him career-high 6 TDs for season ... Led team with 6 catches (for 70 yards) Dec. 13 at Indianapolis ... Voted the offensive Game Ball for leading team with 7 receptions for 152 yards in victory Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh, including 61-yard TD pass from Jeff Blake for 22-21 lead in third quarter ... Yardage total at Pittsburgh was second-highest of his career, topped only by 157 at Seattle on 11-6-94, and it raised to eight his career total of 100-yard games.

SCOTT SAYS: "My best year has yet to come. I know I'm a high-profile receiver, not a basic receiver. I'm fast. I can catch. I run good routes. When my time comes, I'm going to shine."

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1994: Drafted by Bengals in second round (30th overall) ... Tied teammate Carl Pickens for NFL lead in receptions of 50-plus yards (5) ... Led AFC in yards per catch (18.8) ... Became only player in Bengals history to record back-to-back games of 150 receiving yards when he caught 4 for 155 on Oct. 30 vs. Dallas and 7 for 157 on Nov. 6 at Seattle ... Had team's longest catch of season (76) at Seattle, setting up game-winning field goal in OT ... Scored TDs on passes of 67 and 55 yards vs. Dallas, joining Isaac Curtis (1973) as only Bengals to score on two passes of 50-plus in the same game ... Threw one pass, Nov. 20 vs. Indianapolis, and completed it for 53 yards to Carl Pickens ... Caught at least one pass in every game ... Second of two Cincinnati picks in first round of '98 draft, Simmons is a cornerstone in Bengals' plans to develop dominant defense ... Finished tied for second on team in tackles despite missing two games and failing to start two others due to preseason knee surgery ... Showed toughness to play inside LB along with exceptional speed and graceful athletic skills ... Simmons and rookie CB Artrell Hawkins were the only Bengals to notch at least one entry in every column of the defensive stat sheet (tackles, sacks, interceptions, passes defensed, forced fumbles and fumble recoveries).

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "Brian had a difficult start last year with a (preseason) knee injury that put him about four weeks behind, but once he got into the regular rotation, he developed at a rapid pace. He has so much athleticism. He showed that he's definitely one of the fastest linebackers in the league. And he's very agile, intelligent and competitive. With Brian and Takeo Spikes holding down our inside linebacker positions, we feel we really have something to build around."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Drafted by Bengals in first round (17th overall) ... Played in first 3 preseason games, but diagnosed before preseason finale with small cartilage tear in left knee ... Underwent arthroscopic surgery Aug. 27 ... Missed preseason finale and Games 1-2 of regular season ... Played as reserve in Games 3-4 and started Games 5-16.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Ranked 16th on team with only 4 tackles through the first four games, but averaged more than 6 tackles per game over the final 12 games ... Total of 78 tackles for season was tied with Sam Shade for second on team behind Takeo Spikes ... Total of 62 solo tackles was third behind Spikes and CB Artrell Hawkins ... Made NFL debut Sept. 20 vs. Green Bay, with 1 solo tackle ... Made first start Oct. 11 vs. Pittsburgh and contributed to 25-20 victory with 6 tackles (5 solo) and 2 special teams tackles ... Covered field for 13 tackles (11 solo) on Oct. 25 at Oakland, posting what would be the most total tackles by a Bengal in a game all season ... His 11 solos at Oakland would tie for most in a game by any Bengal in 1998 ... Had first pro sack Nov. 8 at Jacksonville, dropping Jamie Martin for 3-yard loss in fourth quarter ... Had 9 tackles (8 solo) Nov. 22 vs. Baltimore, tying for team lead in total tackles and leading team in solos ... Also vs. Ravens, forced a fumble against Roosevelt Potts in third quarter, made recovery and returned 22 yards to Baltimore 36 ... Posted second consecutive game with 9 tackles Nov. 29 vs. Jacksonville (7 solo) ... Opened second quarter Dec. 6 vs. Buffalo with 4-yard sack on Doug Flutie, and intercepted Flutie pass on next play at the Bills' 21-yard line, returning 18 yards to the Bills' 3 to set up the Bengals' first TD of game ... Also had 4 solo tackles vs. Buffalo ... Posted 6 tackles (5 solo) Dec. 13 at Indianapolis ... Had 4 tackles (3 solo) in victory Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh, and helped force a Steelers punt with an 11-yard sack on Kordell Stewart in the first quarter ... Posted his second double-figure tackles game of the year with 10 (9 solo) on Dec. 27 vs. Tampa Bay ... Had 7 total tackles on special teams, ranking tied for seventh.

COACH MARK DUFFNER SAYS: "Brian is an outstanding athlete. He runs real well, can cover well, and is a sideline-to-sideline pursuit player. I look for him to continue to improve after what we thought was a really good first year. He also proved he can be a good blitzer, so we'll be working to develop that."

COLLEGE: Headliner of a North Carolina defense that ranked No. 2 in the nation ... Earned first-team All-America honors from Associated Press, Football News and Walter Camp Foundation ... As a senior, had 3 sacks, 1 safety, 17 QB pressures and 13 tackles for loss ... Termed "a guided missile" by head coach Bruce Coslet, Spikes faces challenge of improving on a rookie season in which he started every game from the preseason opener and dominated Bengals tackling statistics ... Became first rookie to lead the team in tackles since James Francis in 1990, and he led the tackle totals by a wider margin over the second-place player than any Bengals tackling leader since Tim Krumrie in 1988 ... Led team in tackles or tied for team lead in seven of the 16 games; led or tied for the lead among LBs in four other games ... Also led the team in total snaps played on offense or defense (997) ... Expressed and showed the desire to become a leader in the locker room as well as on the field.

COACH DICK LeBEAU SAYS: "Takeo was a joy to coach last year, and he's going to get a lot better. His attitude is excellent — he's mature beyond his years — and he's a player who's driven to excel for his team and also to meet his own high standards for himself."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Drafted by Bengals in first round (13th overall) ... Started all four preseason games and all 16 regular season games ... Played 96.1% of the 1037 total snaps played by defense.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Spikes' 112 tackles led the team by 34 over LB Brian Simmons and SS Sam Shade, who tied for second place with 78 ... The last time a tackling leader led the club by more than 34 was the Super Bowl season of 1988, when Tim Krumrie posted a 43-tackle margin over David Fulcher (152-109) ... Spikes led the team by 30 in solo tackles, with a 95-65 edge over CB Artrell Hawkins ... In NFL debut Sept. 6 vs. Tennessee, Spikes led the team with 8 solo tackles and tied for the team lead in total tackles (8) ... Led team in victory Sept. 13 at Detroit with 8 tackles (5 solo) ... Got first NFL sack Sept. 20 vs. Green Bay, dropping Brett Favre for 12-yard loss on fourth-and-three play from Bengals 33 with 1:53 to play ... Sack against Favre gave Bengals possession at their 45 with a chance to close a 13-6 deficit, but Green Bay's defense held to preserve Packers victory ... Led team Sept. 27 at Baltimore with 11 solo tackles, which would tie for most solos in any game by a Bengal all season ... Also at Baltimore, had 2-yard tackle for loss against Priest Holmes, and sacked Eric Zeier for 7-yard loss in fourth quarter, leading to punt and subsequent Bengals TD drive ... Made key play in victory Oct. 11 vs. Pittsburgh, helping force Steelers to settle for field goal in fourth quarter with tackle that held Richard Huntley to a 1-yard gain; had 5 solo tackles vs. Steelers and was voted the defensive Game Ball ... Tied for team lead with 10 tackles (8 solo) Oct. 18 at Tennessee ... Led LBs with 6 tackles (5 solo) Nov. 1 vs. Denver ... Led LBs and tied for team lead with 6 tackles (4 solo) Nov. 8 at Jacksonville ... Tied for lead among LBs with 5 solos Nov. 15 at Minnesota, including stop for 2-yard loss on Robert Smith on play from Bengals 1-yard line ... Tied for team lead with 9 tackles (7 solo) Nov. 22 vs. Jacksonville ... Led LBs with 7 tackles (5 solo) Dec. 13 at Indianapolis, and led LBs again the following week with 6 tackles (4 solo) Dec. 20 at Pittsburgh ... Closed the season with a team-leading 11 tackles (9 solo) Dec. 27 vs. Tampa Bay, tying his high total tackle figure for the season.

IS TAKEO LIKE MIKE? Spikes was named among the NFL's Top 10 rookies in a 1998 Sports Illustrated feature that compared his playing style to Mike Singletary, the former Chicago Bear who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August 1998. "What linebacker wouldn't be happy with a comparison like that?" Spikes said. "I've got a long way to go before I could really be compared with Mike Singletary, but my goal is to keep improving and eventually wind up where he is now (the Hall of Fame)."

COACH MARK DUFFNER SAYS: "Takeo plays with a lot of emotion and intensity. He has good balance, and a knack for getting to the ball. He led us in tackles by a wide margin, and that's great for a rookie. This year, I know he's dedicated to becoming a leader and helping us become a better team in terms of total defense against the run."

COLLEGE: Chose to enter the draft after his 1997 junior season at Auburn, year in which he was named national Defensive Player of the Year by Football News and first-team All-American by The Sporting News ... Led the '97 Auburn club with 136 tackles as Tigers advanced to SEC Championship game ... Tied for team lead in '97 with 9 tackles for loss ... As a sophomore, had 119 tackles and was the only sophomore named a semifinalist in competition for Dick Butkus Award (top college LB).

Earned All-America honors from Parade and USA Today during prep career at Washington County HS, and was named Georgia's "Mr. Football" by state's coaches as a senior ... Does volunteer work for Children's Hospital in Cincinnati, and is a spokesman for the hospital's eye screening program ... Chosen to represent Bengals in NFL's 1999 United Way public service television announcements ... Hobbies include fishing, traveling and meeting people ... Single ... Full name is Takeo Gerard Spikes ... First name is pronounced "tuh-KEE-oh," and means "great warrior" in Japanese.

Former college DE played for Bengals in '98 preseason and was recalled to Cincinnati practice squad for final two weeks of regular season ... Made practice squad as a college free agent in '97 and saw action in five games after promotion to 53-player roster ... Key to his gaining a roster foothold is development of overall game to complement natural pass rushing ability.

COACH MARK DUFFNER SAYS: "Tim is a naturally good pass rusher. That's what got him into the NFL as an undrafted rookie. The key for him is to improve his ability to stop the run. He has a great work ethic, and he's made that his goal heading into training camp."

1998 RECAP: Opened training camp with Bengals and played in first two preseason games with 3 tackles (2 solo) ... Waived Aug. 19 ... Signed to Bengals practice squad Dec. 15 ... On practice squad for Games 15-16.

Special teams veteran handled Bengals punt snaps for fifth consecutive year in '98, and did place-kick snaps for third straight season ... Also a solid blocker and coverage player, with 29 career tackles ... Missed time due to injuries for first time in career during '98 season, but is set to return at full strength for '99 training camp ... Late discovery by NFL scouts, Truitt was in his first pro football training camp in 1994, when he made Bengals roster at age 28 to become the NFL's oldest rookie player in 48 years.

COACH AL ROBERTS SAYS: "After four years of being almost perfect as a snapper, Greg finally ran into some struggles last year. He had some injuries that threw him out of his natural rhythm, and he's worked hard through the off-season to get that natural feel back. As far as blocking and covering kicks, we know he can do that, and we ask a little more of that from our snapper than some teams do."

1998 RECAP: Played in Games 1-5 and 11-16 ... On inactive list for Games 6-10 ... Streak of missed games began Oct. 18 at Tennessee, due to a neck and back strain suffered during previous practice week ... Had played in 69 consecutive Bengals games prior to injury ... Appeared set to return after three weeks, but suffered ankle injury in practice and missed two additional games — Nov. 8 at Jacksonville and Nov. 15 at Minnesota ... Returned to action Nov. 22 vs. Baltimore ... Credited with 4 special teams tackles ... Was among five Bengals made available for Cleveland expansion draft in early 1999, and was recalled by Bengals from expansion draft pool after Cleveland selected Cincinnati receiver Damon Gibson.

Credited in coaches' stats with 17 "total hits" on punt coverage team, second-most on unit ... Had 13 tackles (8 solo) on punt coverage in coaches' stats, and 6 tackles (4 solo) in press box special teams stats ... Helped set up game-winning FG Nov. 6 at Seattle by teaming with Roger Jones to down a 64-yard punt at Seahawks 2 during OT ... Backup snapper on field goals, and saw spot duty on KOR unit. 1995: Snapped on 70 Bengals punts without having a snap bounce or sail over the punter ... Ran total for career to 149 punt snaps without a miscue ... Aided P Lee Johnson's second-place NFL finish in net punting average (38.6) ... Tied for third on punt coverage unit in coaches' statistics with 4 tackles (3 solo, 1 assist) ... Credited with 2 special teams tackles in press box stats. 1996: In 80 snaps to P Lee Johnson, had no serious miscues ... Precise snapping helped Johnson post career-best punting average (45.4) ... As place-kick snapper, Truitt helped K Doug Pelfrey to 41-for-41 reading on PATs and to 23-of-28 FG performance which pushed Pelfrey into NFL's all-time FG accuracy lead (81.25%) ... Had 6 tackles (5 solo) on punt coverage, and earned coaches' rating as special teams Player of the Week for combined snapping and coverage in victory Nov. 24 vs. Atlanta ... Earned special teams Hit of the Week from coaches for hit on Darrius Johnson on punt coverage work Sept. 29 vs. Denver. 1997: Played every game for fourth straight season ... Made only one punt snap that punter was unable to handle, a high delivery to Lee Johnson on Sept. 21 at Denver, and for his career to that point, Truitt had only that one snap elude a punter in 310 total tries ... Led special teams with 2 tackles Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh, including stop on Steelers' Aaron Coleman at Pittsburgh's 20 for no gain in second quarter ... Bengals' leading tackler through first three games of '98, Tumulty's challenge in '99 is to come back from a serious knee injury ... Suffered torn ligaments in left knee on 9-27-98 at Baltimore and missed the remainder of the year, but was on schedule during rehab to be cleared for participation in training camp ... Sixth-round pick from '96 draft has impressed coaches with his physical play at inside LB, as well as his desire to be a leader on the field ... Has been called a "downhill player" because of his aggressive thrusts at the scrimmage line in the role of run defender.

COACH MARK DUFFNER SAYS: "I think the world of this guy. He's a bright, aggressive inside linebacker who really attacks the line of scrimmage. He suffered a serious knee injury last year, but he's had an excellent off-season in rehab, and he could be ahead of schedule. After missing most of last year, he's like a tiger waiting to come out of a cage. We'll guard the amount of his participation as he goes through preseason, but we're looking for him to return to form and really help our run defense when we start playing for keeps."

1998 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-4 ... Suffered two torn ligaments (MCL and ACL) in left knee in first quarter of Game 4, Sept. 27 at Baltimore ... Placed on Injured Reserve list on Oct. 1, and underwent surgery Oct. 6 ... One of five Bengals made available for Cleveland expansion draft in early 1999, but was not selected by Browns.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS: Battled first-round draft pick Brian Simmons for starting LILB job in training camp, and took sole possession of job when Simmons was sidelined late in preseason with torn knee cartilage ... Had 8 tackles (5 solo), tied for team lead, in Sept. 6 opener vs. Tennessee ... Posted 4 tackles (2 solo) in victory Sept. 13 at Detroit ... Also had 2 passes defensed vs. Lions, batting down one Scott Mitchell pass and breaking up another with hit on receiver Walter Rasby ... Led the team Sept. 20 vs. Green Bay with 10 tackles (all solo), and teamed with Mike Thompson for a 12-yard sack against Brett Favre in third quarter ... Also vs. Packers, helped keep Bengals in the game by dropping Raymont Harris for 8-yard loss in fourth quarter, forcing a fumble that Sam Shade recovered at Bengals 30 ... His 22 tackles led the team through three games.

PREVIOUS SEASONS — 1996: Drafted by Bengals in 6th round (178th overall) ... Played as reserve in Games 1-13 ... Started in Games 14-16 as sub for injured Steve Tovar ... Made first NFL start in victory Dec. 8 vs. Baltimore, and led LBs with 5 tackles (all solo) while adding 2 passes defensed ... Led LBs again Dec. 15 at Houston, with 8 tackles (5 solo) and excellent zone pass coverage ... Had season-high 6 solos and 8 total tackles in season finale Dec. 22 vs. Indianapolis, as Colts were held to 35 rushing yards on 19 carries ... Prior to Tovar's injury, saw his most significant scrimmage action on Sept. 8 at San Diego, playing 22 second-half snaps and recording 6 tackles (4 solo) ... Played 162 special teams snaps, second-most among LBs ... Ranked 5th on team in special teams tackles with 12 (7 solo) and had 1 forced fumble on special teams. 1997: Started Games 1-3 and 6-13 at LILB ... Suffered severe thigh bruise in Game 3, Sept. 21 at Denver, and on inactive list for Games 4-5 ... Suffered sprained foot in Game 13, Nov. 30 at Philadelphia, and placed on Injured Reserve Dec. 1, missing final three games ... Tied for team lead with 8 solo tackles Aug. 31 vs. Arizona ... Ohio native from Miami (Ohio) University will bid for a 53-player roster spot after spending his first NFL season on Bengals practice squad ... Impressed coaches in May '99 minicamp with his grasp of the offense ... Started every game his last two seasons at Miami, and blossomed as a receiver as a senior, when team's offensive philosophy shifted from a primarily run-oriented mode.

COACH FRANK VERDUCCI SAYS: "Damian was with the team all last year on the practice squad, and I'm impressed with his understanding of what we want done on the offense. He impresses you with his toughness and intelligence. He wasn't a high draft pick, but he's added strength in our off-season program and he's improved his speed times. He's made a lot of progress to get ready for his second year."

1998 RECAP: Drafted by Bengals in seventh round (222nd overall) ... Played in first three preseason games with one catch, a 21-yarder from Eric Kresser in fourth quarter on Aug. 8 at N.Y. Giants ... Catch carried to Giants 6 and helped set up Cincinnati TD ... Waived Aug. 30, and signed Aug. 31 to Bengals practice squad ... On practice squad for Games 1-16.

THE MIAMI CONNECTION: Vaughn is bidding to become the eighth player from nearby Miami University to make the Bengals' all-time roster. The previous seven were S Ron Carpenter (1993), LB Brad Cousino (1975), S Ernie Kellerman (1972), LB Brian Pillman (1984), G Ken Smith (1987), WR Milt Stegall (1992-94) and CB Sheldon White (1993). To qualify for the all-time roster, a player must be in uniform for at least one regular season or postseason game.

COLLEGE: Earned first-team All-Mid-American Conference honors as a senior, and also was the recipient of team's RedHawk Award for spirit, enthusiasm and special contributions ... Earned a scholarship after making the team as a walk-on in 1993 ... Finished career with 47 receptions for 533 yards and 2 TDs, including 27-340-1 as a senior.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Orrville, Ohio ... Attended Orrville HS, where he was named all-conference and all-region in football ... Spanish major at Miami ... Speaks Portuguese as well as Spanish.

* — Vaughn did not earn an accrued year of experience toward NFL free agency in 1998 because he was not on the 53-player roster, the Injured Reserve list or the PUP list for the required minimum of six games. He is designated a first-year player in 1999.

We picked him up late last year and he didn't have a chance to get fully involved in the offense, but this year will be a different story. He should challenge for a lot of playing time on offense, and we'll look at him on kickoff returns and punt returns, too."

Produced first down on 21 of his 30 catches ... Replaced injured Michael Irvin in base offense in victory Sept. 15 vs. Philadelphia, and made an 18-yard catch to help set up a FG while also drawing a fourth-down pass interference penalty against Eagles on Cowboys' go-ahead scoring drive ... QB AKILI SMITH

College: Oregon

Round 1 (#3 overall)

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 220

Birthdate: 8-21-75

Bengals "quarterback of the future" has sufficient talent and maturity that he could be QB of the present for '99 ... Produced one of the most impressive years of any passer in NCAA history in '98 ... Averaged 314 yards per game, with 32 TDs against just 8 interceptions and 10.14 yards-per-attempt ... Possesses rare arm strength, and posted 58% completion rate in '98 ... Widely regarded as one of the finest athletes in college football, he displayed ability to play under control and throw accurately while on the move ... Was a high school Parade All-American in football, but spent three years in professional baseball before resuming his gridiron career, and will be 24 years old as '99 season begins.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "Akili put his team over the hump and won games for them. He showed the ability to carry a team on his shoulders. He's got a lot of athletic ability, a great arm, and he's very creative. When things break down, he can make something happen on his own. We think he's special, that he can prove to be the best passer of a very strong draft."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS — 1998: Set Oregon season records in passing yards (3763), TD passes (32), and total offense (3947), and did it with ease. His passing yards topped the former record by 539, his TD pass total was 10 better than the old mark, and his total offense set a new standard by 860 yards ... Scored 4 rushing touchdowns, and his 36 total touchdowns scored-and-passed set another Oregon season record ... Became first QB in school history to throw for more than 400 yards in three games, getting 442 vs. Washington, 430 vs. Oregon State and closing career with 456 vs. Colorado in Aloha Bowl ... Passed for 2 TDs and ran for another in Aloha Bowl ... Passed for 4 TDs and ran for another against Oregon State, completing 35-of-53 ... Produced his 442-yard day vs. Washington despite playing in a driving rain, completing 19-of-32, three for TDs ... Nearly had four 400-yard games on the season, as he completed 21 of 30 for 397 yards with 4 TDs against Arizona State. 1997: Played his first season at Oregon as a junior, having transferred from Grossmont (Calif.) JC ... Started season's first two games, limited to reserve duty for next four contests, and returned to starting role for final five games ... Threw for 3 TDs vs. Washington, including game-winning 29-yard toss to Pat Johnson with 2:33 to play ... Passed for 3 TDs in regular season finale vs. Oregon State, and closed season with a 69-yard TD pass vs. Air Force in Las Vegas Bowl.

MIKE BROWN SAYS: "I think Akili is as good a passer or better than anyone taken in the draft. He has good mechanics, he's strong and athletic, and we like his personality. This was our opportunity to solidify the quarterback position to the standard that it has to be. We had an offer to trade down instead of taking him, and honestly, it was as good an offer as any ever put to us. But that should tell you even more just what we think of Akili."

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Following a three-year stint in professional baseball, Smith resumed his football career in 1995-96 at Grossmont (Calif.) JC ... As a freshman in '95, passed for 2162 yards and 17 TDs, earning team's Most Valuable Player award and All-Foothill Conference honors ... As a sophomore in '96, named first-team All-American, completing 199 of 363 passes (55%) for 3212 yards, 32 TDs and 9 INT.

PRO BASEBALL: Smith elected to play pro baseball after high school, signing with Pittsburgh after Pirates selected him in 7th round of June, 1993 amateur draft. A right-handed-hitting outfielder, Smith batted .200 with 1 HR & 9 RBI in 29 games for Pirates' Gulf Coast League rookie-level team in Bradenton in 1993 and hit

.174 with 2 HR & 10 RBI in 19 games for Bradenton in '94. He hit .125 with 1 HR & 1 RBI in 14 games for Class A Erie in the NY-Penn League in 1995.

SMITH ON SMITH: "The Bengals gave up a lot to get me. They could have traded down for a lot of (draft picks). I plan to live up to the expectations. I want to come in and be a leader right away, and not to brag, but I throw an awesome ball. The key for me is to get into the playbook and learn the system as quickly as possible, so the game will seem like it's in slow motion to me."

HIGH SCHOOL: Earned Parade All-American honors at Lincoln HS in San Diego, which also produced NFL standouts Marcus Allen and Terrell Davis ... Passed for 1582 yards and 12 TDs as a senior ... Multi-sport star, was named city's prep Athlete of the Year.

PERSONAL: Hometown is San Diego ... Sociology major at Oregon ... Full name is Kabisa Akili Maradu Smith ... Kabisa Akili Maradu is Swahili for power, creativity and intelligence, and is pronounced "kuh-BEE-sa uh-KEE-lee muh-RAH-doo."

CHARLES FISHER

College: West Virginia

Round 2 (#33 overall)

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 185

Birthdate: 2-2-76

Tall and strong, Fisher comes to the NFL with excellent potential as a cover corner with the ability to handle receivers in single bump-and-run coverage ... A late-blooming prospect, he was not widely known entering 1998 season, but had an excellent senior campaign topped by impressive performance at the Senior Bowl ... A former wide receiver who takes advantage of that experience in pass coverage, he added 10 pounds to his frame during his final year at WVU ... Invited to Senior Bowl following 1998 season in which he started all 12 games with 33 tackles (27 solo), 3 interceptions, 2 forced fumbles and 6 passes defensed ... Earned team's Scott Shirley Award as special teams player of the year for work on punt, punt return and kickoff units.

COACH RAY HORTON SAYS: "We thought Charles was right up there with some corners who were taken in the first round, the only difference being that (the first-rounders) had been starters longer in a major program. Charles closes on the ball tremendously. You hear the phase 'shadow ability' for guys who can stay close, and this guy can. He was also the last corner still on the board with what we call 'NFL size.' "

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS — 1998: Earned second-team All-Big East honors in his first season as a starter ... Posted 4 solo tackles vs. Ohio State and caused a fumble with crunching hit on WR David Boston ... Had a 22-yard interception return vs. Miami, and made 2 interceptions with a pair of passes defensed in victory over rival Pittsburgh ... Had 6 solos in win over Syracuse, grading 90 percent for game ... Closed his career with 4 solos vs. Missouri in Insight.com Bowl. 1997: Played behind Perlo Bastien at 'wide' CB position during the regular season, but earned starting assignment for Carquest Bowl against Georgia Tech, contributing 1 solo tackle and a pass defensed ... Regular-season high in tackles was 4, against East Carolina and Miami, and he added a muffed punt recovery vs. East Carolina. 1996: Played in every game as a sophomore ... Had a fourth-quarter

INT vs. Pittsburgh ... Started vs. Temple and scored on 30-yard run with a fumble recovery. 1995: Lined up in preseason drills as a WR, but shifted to CB as season began ... Played in three games with two starts ... Had 5 tackles vs. Maryland. 1994: Redshirt year.

FISHER SAYS: "Speed is what really got me here. Thank God I have speed. Going into the Senior Bowl, I think a lot of people still weren't sure how physical I was, but that gave me the chance to show a lot of people what Charles Fisher can bring to the table. I think I bring hard work and intensity, and that I'm a player who hasn't really reached his full potential."

HIGH SCHOOL: First-team All-State selection at Aliquippa, Pa., HS ... Played wide receiver and cornerback ... As a senior, caught 39 passes for 706 yards and 9 TDs and added 3 interceptions ... Played with Bengals CB Artrell Hawkins of Johnstown, Pa., in Pennsylvania Big 33 all-star game ... Also excelled in track and basketball.

'99 BENGALS DRAFT CHOICES

HALL SAYS: "I hope to prove to the Bengals that I'm a safety who runs exceptionally well and will hit you straight out. I like to think I can be a safety like Steve Atwater. From my sophomore year to my senior year, I tried to pattern my hitting ability after his. I also admire Carnell Lake for his versatility, and I'm confident I have the size and speed to be versatile like that, too."

HIGH SCHOOL: Named football Most Valuable Player and school Athlete of the Year while playing cornerback and tailback at South HS in Bakersfield, Calif. ... Lettered two years in football and two years in track.

CRAIG YEAST

College: Kentucky

Round 4 (#98 overall)

Ht: 5-7 Wt: 160

Birthdate: 11-20-76

84

The all-time Southeastern Conference receptions leader (208) and the SEC's second-ranked player in receiving yards (2899), Yeast has the makings of a fourth-round draft steal ... Only his size, not his production, kept him from going earlier in the draft ... Favorite receiver of record-setting Kentucky QB Tim Couch, Yeast was known for using his 4.39 speed to turn short passes into long gains ... Earned reputation as a fearless target over the middle, and played every game his final three seasons after missing only one as a freshman ... Will challenge for Bengals' kickoff return and punt return duties after returning 3 kickoffs and 1 punt for TDs at Kentucky.

COACH STEVE MOOSHAGIAN SAYS: "One thing that sold us on Craig was the way he played against Champ Bailey (of Georgia) and Fred Vinson (of Vanderbilt), two of the top cornerbacks in this draft. He had 16 catches against Vinson for 269 yards and caught 8 for 100 against Bailey. That's a pretty good mark of his athleticism. He's very quick, very shifty, and is a great receiver in the red zone."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS — 1998: Earned unanimous first-team All-SEC honors while setting Kentucky season records with 85 catches, 1311 yards and 14 TDs ... No previous Wildcat had topped the 1000 mark in receiving yards ... Went over 100-yard receiving mark in seven games and led the team in scoring (90) ... Averaged 29.3 yards on 14 kickoff returns, including a 100-yarder (tie for school record) for a TD vs. Florida ... TD return vs. Florida helped push him to 331 all-purpose yards for the day, as he also caught 6 passes for 206 yards (TDs of 97 and 74) while totaling 125 yards on kick returns ... Opened season with 9-for-150 receiving and 2 TDs vs. Louisville ... Caught 7-for-122 with 2 TDs vs. LSU ... Set school records with his 16 catches and 269 yards vs. Vanderbilt, including scores of 20 and 74 yards ... Had 306 all-purpose yards vs. Vanderbilt, becoming first Wildcat to top 300 twice in his career ... Had 7 catches for 102 against eventual national champ Tennessee, and closed his career with 164 all-purpose yards vs. Penn State in Outback Bowl, including 67-yard KO return. 1997: All-SEC first-team choice after leading conference and ranking 9th in nation with 6.6 catches per game ... Paced Wildcats with 73 catches for 873 yards and 10 TDs ... Had 85-yard punt return vs. South Carolina and 97-yard KO return vs. Vanderbilt, becoming first Wildcat since 1967 to return a punt and a kickoff for scores in the same season ... Tied school record with 4 TD catches (12, 6, 7, 10) vs. Indiana ... Had season-high 10 catches (for 125 yards) vs. Florida ... Had season-high 130 receiving yards (on 7 catches) vs. Northeast Louisiana, including TDs of 38 and 31 yards. 1996: Led team as a sophomore with 26 catches for 378 yards and 2 TDs ... Scored on 95-yard KO return vs. South Carolina ... Had season-high 89 yards, including 55-yard TD, on 4 catches vs. Mississippi State ... Season high in catches was 7 (for 73 yards) vs. LSU. 1995: His 24 catches for 337 yards and 2 TDs landed him Freshman All-SEC honors from Knoxville News-Sentinel ... Made first career start vs. Florida and had a 30-yard TD catch while totaling 4-for-44.

YEAST ON YEAST: "I've always been the smallest guy on the field since Little League, and I've overcome the odds. It's whoever wants it more and has the biggest heart, and I put up my numbers against some of the best cornerbacks in the country. I'm going to try to bring some excitement and big-play capability to the Bengals. I like to get the ball, and the more I get the ball, the more I feel like I can make things happen with it."

HIGH SCHOOL: Played QB, RB and DB as a four-year starter at Harrodsburg (Ky.) HS ... As a senior, rushed for 1629 yards and 29 TDs, and completed 43 of 84 passes for 739 yards and 8 TDs ... Scored on an 83-yard kickoff return for a TD the first time he touched the ball as a freshman ... Also lettered four years in track, three years in basketball and two years in baseball ... NICK WILLIAMS

Round 5 (#135 overall)

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 267

Birthdate: 3-30-77

30

A fullback with nearly the size of an offensive lineman, Williams has the strength and power to immediately contend for a starting job in the NFL ... Cited by draft analyst Mel Kiper for his "rugged mentality" as well as raw power, he was the lead blocker at Miami for Edgerrin James, a 1000-yard rusher two seasons in a row and the first RB taken in the '99 draft ... Williams was used infrequently as a runner and receiver in college, but improved his draft standing by showing scouts excellent hands at the Gridiron Classic all-star game in Florida ... Signed a three-year contract with Bengals on 5-19-99.

COACH JIM ANDERSON SAYS: "This guy will put a hit on people, and I don't mean just because of his size. He has the ability to get through the line of scrimmage and attack the second level of the defense. There are a lot of guys who don't have that natural ability or natural movement. He's an athletic guy, and we feel he can catch the ball and carry it. But fullback is a blue-collar position, and he fills the blueprint for it."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS — 1998: Started eight games, serving as lead blocker for RB Edgerrin James, who finished with 1416 yards and 5.9 yards per carry... Rushed seven times for 42 yards (6.0) and had seven receptions for 85 yards (12.1) ... Against Cincinnati, keyed a 12-yard scoring pass by QB Scott Covington (also a Bengals '99 draftee) when he upended safety Tinker Keck on a cut block to kill the blitz ... Led the way on a 1-yard TD run by James vs. Rutgers, and set up another score with a 17-yard run ... Keyed a 45-yard James TD run vs. UCLA with a block on LB Larry Atkins ... Had season-high 26-yard reception vs. N.C. State in Micron PC Bowl. 1997: Played in 10 games as reserve FB, helping RB Edgerrin James to 1098-yard season ... Had 2 receptions vs. Pittsburgh and leveled a pair of defenders to give QB Ryan Clement time to throw 57-yard TD pass to Carlo Joseph ... Had 2 receptions for 37 yards vs. Florida State. 1996: Played every game as a sophomore, and started final six, including Carquest Bowl vs. Virginia ... Lead blocker for a 1000-yard season by Daniel Ferguson ... Had career-high offensive totals for a season with 67 rushing yards on 17 carries and 149 receiving yards on 12 catches ... Scored his first career TD on 17-yard reception from Ryan Clement vs. Pittsburgh ... Ran for a 1-yard TD vs. Temple. 1995: Saw limited action as a freshman, appearing in eight games.

WILLIAMS ON WILLIAMS: "I'm looking to improve in all areas, because if you don't feel you can improve, you're cheating yourself. But I believe I have the size and natural talent that should have made me a second or third-round draft pick. Now it's up to me to prove that. I'm a natural fullback — I've played the position all my life — and I'm ready for the competition."

HIGH SCHOOL: Two-time All-State selection at Harrison HS in Farmington Hills, Mich. ... Rated the fourth-best prospect in the Midwest by Blue Chip Illustrated ... Led the team to a state Class A title as he rushed for 1358 yards and 21 TDs, and set a state championship game record with a 90-yard run from scrimmage ... Also played LB, logging 94 tackles, 3 sacks, 3 fumble recoveries and an interception as a senior.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Farmington Hills, Mich. ... Advertising major at Miami ... Full name is James Nicolas Williams.

KELLY GREGG

College: Oklahoma

Round 6 (#173 overall)

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 285

Birthdate: 11-1-76

Rated as the top heavyweight wrestler in the nation during his high school career, Gregg shifted his focus to football at Oklahoma and became one of NCAA's best interior defensive linemen ... Stocky, physical player who fits Bengals blueprint for improved run defense, but also an effective pass rusher ... Led Big 12 as a senior with 24 tackles for loss, breaking Sooner record set by Tony Casillas (No. 2 overall pick in 1986 NFL draft) ... Gregg also had 9 sacks last season, sixth-best in school history, and ranks second in Sooner career sacks with 24 ... Became first Sooner defensive lineman since 1983 to top 100 mark in tackles (117), and first Sooner in more than 30 years to lead line in tackles two consecutive seasons ... Signed three-year Bengals contract on 6-23-99.

COACH TIM KRUMRIE SAYS: "This kid is in great shape and he runs to the ball, the typical Tim Krumrie nose tackle. Every day he'll bring his work boots and his lunch bucket, and that's the type of player I wanted. I thought he would go earlier, but I guess some teams backed off because he's short and doesn't have real fast running times. But I can remember once when I was short and slow. It means nothing to me. I didn't want an athlete, per se. I wanted a football player."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS — 1998: His 117 tackles ranked third in the Big 12, and he had only one less tackle than highly-touted LB Dat Nguyen of Texas A&M ... Earned national Defensive Player of the Week honors from The Sports Network for his effort vs. Baylor, which included 15 tackles (9 solo), 2 sacks for minus-18, 4 tackles for loss for minus-19, 4 QB pressures, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery ... Manhandled powerful Texas A&M line with 8 tackles (5 solo), 2 sacks for minus-6, 4 tackles for loss for minus-15, 2 QB pressures and a forced fumble. 1997: Started every game, and became first Sooner down lineman to lead the team in tackles (98) since Kevin Murphy in 1983 ... Had career-high 10 sacks ... Plagued rival Nebraska with 14 tackles (9 solo) and 2 tackles for loss ... Earned national Defensive Player of the Week from The Sports Network with 14 solo tackles and 2 sacks vs. Oklahoma State. 1996: Logged 80 tackles (53 solo) as a sophomore and earned All-Big 12 first-team honors from Dallas Morning News ... Closed season with a sack and 2 tackles for loss vs. Texas Tech. 1995: Only true freshman to play in every game for Sooners ... His 24 tackles were the most among Sooner reserves, and he added 3 sacks ... In first college game, sacked San Diego State QB Billy Blanton and dropped TB George Jones for 3-yard loss.

GREGG ON GREGG: "I think my strong point is playing the run, and I know the Bengals are looking for help in that area. I'm not the flashiest and I'm not the tallest, but I just try to go out and get the job done. I'm a hard worker. That's all I know how to do. My family is a lot of hard workers."

HIGH SCHOOL: Outstanding defensive lineman and wrestler at Edmond (Okla.) HS ... Two-time All-State pick as a defensive lineman, and named All-City Defensive Player of the Year as a senior by The Daily Oklahoman ... Posted 332 tackles over his junior and senior seasons ... Signed a three-year contract with Bengals on 5-6-99.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "Tony was head-and-shoulders the highest rated player on our draft board when this pick came up. He's a real smart guy with good range, and he's flexible and tough. Ht: 6-2 Wt: 217

Impressive drop-back passer with good arm strength and touch on the ball. Covington comes from a top QB school and brings an impressive overall skills package for a 7th-round pick ... Had little resume for NFL selection as the '98 season began, but played his way into the draft with a strong finish ... Led Hurricanes to a 6-1 finish, including Micron PC Bowl win over North Carolina State, and outdueled first-round QB pick Cade McNown in 49-45 shootout win over UCLA to end regular season ... Also impressed scouts at Senior Bowl ... Played behind Ryan Clement for most of his Hurricane career, but took over as No. 1 last season ... Signed a three-year contract with Bengals on 6-14-99.

COACH KEN ANDERSON SAYS: "Scott still has a lot to prove regarding whether he can be an NFL quarterback, but we're very interested to see what he can do. He came on strong at the end of the year. He didn't have the chance to show a lot over the bulk of his college career, and he didn't start out all that well last year. But instead of going in the tank, he stuck with it. He kept working and was the real leader of their offense by the end of the season."

Round 7 (#249 overall)

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 295

COACH TIM KRUMRIE SAYS: "Donald's a big, strong guy who can run. He's 300 pounds and ran 4.9 in the 40, so he has the physical ability to make it in the NFL. When he's at his best, I really like his effort and his desire to get to the ball. But he has to prove he can have that consistency on every play. It was probably a lack of consistency that caused him not to go higher in the draft."

Game 4 Baltimore 31, Bengals 24

Sunday night, Sept. 27, at Ravens Stadium at Camden Yards

The Bengals climbed from an early 21-0 deficit, closing to within 21-17 in the third quarter and 28-24 in the fourth quarter. But a final drive for a tying score fell short when Cincinnati was unable to convert a fourth-and-one play at the Ravens' 32-yard line with 1:46 to play. Rod Woodson broke up Jeff Blake's pass to Carl Pickens to seal the Baltimore win. Pickens had 7 catches for 120 yards and took the all-time franchise lead in receptions (418) and TD receptions (54). Cincinati's Corey Dillon rushed for 116 yards on 25 carries. But Baltimore's Priest Holmes ran for 173 yards on 27 carries, and QB Eric Zeier completed 15 of 20 passes for 254 yards. Tremain Mack had a 97-yard KO return for a Bengals TD in the third quarter, but Baltimore's Jermaine Lewis answered with an 87-yard punt return for a score. The Bengals fell to 1-3 and Baltimore improved to 2-2.

Game 9 Jacksonville 24, Bengals 11

Sunday, Nov. 8, at ALLTEL Stadium

The Jaguars took advantage of three crucial Cincinnati mistakes to mount a 24-0 halftime lead and held on for the victory. The Jaguars set up an early TD on a 55-yard pass play when Bengals CB Artrell Hawkins fell down, set up another short TD drive when Zack Crockett tipped a Lee Johnson punt, and pushed ahead 24-0 when Joel Smeenge's tackle and forced fumble against Corey Dillon resulted in a 90-yard TD return by Aaron Beasley. The Bengals scored in the second half on Doug Pelfrey's 50-yard field goal and on a 9-yard TD pass from Paul Justin to Damon Gibson. The Bengals fell to 2-7 and Jacksonville improved to 7-2.

Game 10 Minnesota 24, Bengals 3

Sunday, Nov. 15, at Metrodome

The Vikings broke open a tight game late in the third quarter, increasing their lead from 7-3 to 14-3 on Dwayne Rudd's 63-yard return of a fumble by QB Neil O'Donnell. O'Donnell's arm was hit while passing by DE John Randle, and officials ruled he had not started a forward throwing motion. The Vikings added a fourth-quarter TD on a 61-yard pass from Randall Cunningham to Randy Moss. The Vikings had taken a 7-0 first quarter lead on Cunningham's 3-yard run. Cincinnati's only score came on a 37-yard field goal in the second quarter by Doug Pelfrey. The Bengals managed only 91 net yards passing, their lowest total of the season. Bengals rookie CB Artrell Hawkins recorded the first interceptions of his NFL career, picking off two Cunningham passes. Cincinnati fell to 2-8 and Minnesota improved to 9-1.

Game 15 Bengals 25, Pittsburgh 24

Sunday, Dec. 20, at Three Rivers Stadium

Jeff Blake passed for 367 yards, second-most of his career, in leading the Bengals to their first season sweep of Pittsburgh since 1990. Cincinnati's defense allowed only 1 TD, as Pittsburgh scored on a kickoff return and an INT return, and the Bengals allowed opponent-lows for the season of 211 yards and 11 first downs. Sam Shade's 55-yard return of a fumble forced by Reinard Wilson sparked Cincinnati to a 13-0 lead. The Steelers fought back to lead 21-16 midway through the third period, but the Bengals answered in less than 30 seconds with a 61-yard Blake TD strike to Darnay Scott. Cincinnati HB Brandon Bennett set a club record for RBs with 119 receiving yards and totaled 182 yards from scrimmage. The Bengals improved to 3-12 and the Steelers fell to 7-8.

Game 16 Tampa Bay 35, Bengals 0

Sunday, Dec. 27, at Cinergy Field

The Bengals suffered their worst-ever shutout loss, as Tampa's victory margin surpassed 34-0 Bengals losses to Oakland in 1968 and Cleveland in 1987. The Bengals had gone 105 consecutive games without suffering a shutout, since a 20-0 loss at Pittsburgh on Oct. 19, 1992. Tampa Bay scored on its first possession, on a 50-yard pass from Trent Dilfer to Robb Thomas, and the Bucs moved to a 28-0 halftime lead by cashing in for TDs after a muffed Bengals punt snap, a Bengals fumble on a kickoff return and a blocked punt. The Bengals finished the season 3-13, which tied for the worst mark in club history (also in 1991, '93 and '94). The Buccaneers finished 8-8.

BENGALS '99 COLLEGE FREE AGENT (from page 127)

ROB MURPHY – G

75

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 300
College: Ohio State
Born: 1-18-77

An All-American for Ohio State in 1997 and '98, Murphy is a Cincinnati native from the outstanding football tradition of Moeller HS ... Signed a two-year Bengals contract on 7-9-99 ... Aside from Orlando Pace, top overall pick in the 1997 NFL Draft, Murphy had as decorated a Buckeye career as any offensive lineman of the '90s ... His All-American ratings last season included Associated Press and consensus honors ... Did not leave Ohio State and become eligible for NFL until June ... Was key player in an offensive line effort that led '98 Buckeyes to averages of 199 rushing and 305 passing yards per game, each figure ranking second in the Big 10 ... Played in Rose Bowl after 1996 season, and in Sugar Bowl after 1997 and '98 seasons ... Rated by scouts as possessing outstanding football desire, and showed it after suffering a knee injury against Bowling Green in 1997; underwent arthroscopic surgery, and missed only one game before returning to the lineup against Missouri ... Had further knee surgery in January '98 and played all 12 games in '98, though knee still pained him ... Did not play as a redshirt in 1995 ... Rated widely as the top offensive line prospect in Ohio during his senior season at Cincinnati Moeller ... Also played hockey and wrestled in high school ... Father (Bob) played FB at Miami (Fla.) and later signed contract with San Diego Chargers.

A RARE RUNNER

The only Bengals quarterback ever to rush for 100 yards in a game was Virgil Carter, who gained 110 on nine carries against Cleveland on Nov. 15, 1970.

The game was the first Bengals-Browns match in Riverfront Stadium (now Cinergy Field), and marked Cincinnati's first victory (14-10) over its Ohio rival.

NO TDs; NO PROBLEM

Three times in their history, the Bengals have won without scoring a touchdown:

• On Sept. 24, 1972, Horst Muhlmann's five field goals (41, 32, 20, 32, 34) fueled a 15-10 victory over Pittsburgh at Riverfront Stadium (now Cinergy Field).

• On Oct. 21, 1984, Jim Breech kicked four field goals (24, 23, 25, 33) for all the points in a 12-9 victory over Cleveland at Riverfront.

• On Nov. 6, 1994, the Bengals won their only road game without a TD. Cincinnati used Doug Pelfrey's club-record six field goals (36, 44, 36, 47, 28, 26) plus a safety by Alfred Williams to post a 20-17 overtime victory at Seattle.

DILLON BETTER BY ONE

Bengals HB Corey Dillon did his 1129-yard rookie season one better in 1998, finishing with 1130 rushing yards after a 70-yard effort in the season finale against Tampa Bay.

Dillon now has the third and fourth-best rushing seasons in team history. James Brooks still holds the club record, with 1239 yards in 1989, and Harold Green's 1170-yard year in 1992 ranks second.

Dillon averaged 4.3 yards per carry, toting the ball 262 times. That's the third-most carries in club history, behind Pete Johnson's 274 in 1981 and Harold Green's 265 in 1992.

Dillon is only the second player in team history to post consecutive 1000-yard rushing years, and his 2259 yards for 1997-98 are the most by any Bengals rusher in consecutive seasons. The only previous back-to-back 1000-yard rushing seasons in Bengals history were posted by Brooks, who followed his 1239-yard record year with 1004 in 1990. Brooks had 2243 yards combined for the two years.

P.B. AND THE HALL OF FAME

Paul Brown, founder of the Cincinnati Bengals, was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967, and 19 other Hall of Fame members played and/or coached under Brown.

The most recent addition to P.B.'s disciples in the Hall of Fame was Bengals tackle Anthony Munoz, considered by many to be the greatest offensive lineman in NFL history. Munoz, a 1998 inductee, played his entire 13-year pro career (1980-92) with the Bengals. Some analysts thought he was too risky a prospect for an early first-round draft selection because he had experienced knee injuries in college. But Brown, as Bengals general manager in 1980, selected Munoz with the No. 3 overall pick.

The 1997 Hall of Fame class included Don Shula, winningest coach in NFL history, who played defensive back in the NFL and was a rookie on Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951.

WR Charlie Joiner, who played for the Bengals under Brown from 1972-75, was elected to the Hall of Fame in the 1996 class of inductees. Also, 13 other players Brown coached for the Cleveland Browns are in the Hall of Fame. They are: Doug Atkins, DE, 1953-54; Jim Brown, FB, 1957-65; Willie Davis, DE, 1958-59; Len Dawson, QB, 1960-61; Len Ford, WR, 1948-58; Frank Gatski, C, 1946-56; Lou Groza, T/PK, 1946-59; Dante Lavelli, WR, 1946-56; Mike McCormack, T, 1954-62; Bobby Mitchell, RB/WR, 1958-61; Marion Motley, FB/LB, 1946-55; and Bill Willis, G, 1946-53.

Former assistant coaches under Paul Brown who are in the Hall of Fame are Weeb Ewbank and Bill Walsh. Also in the Hall of Fame is Forrest Gregg, hired by Brown as Bengals head coach in 1980.

THE LONGEST SHOTS

The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals roster for a regular-season game was placekicker/punter Dave Green of Ohio University.

Green was the 418th selection in the 1972 draft, taken in the 17th round. He didn't make the roster in '72, and had a brief stint (no games played) with Houston in '73 before being re-acquired by Cincinnati.

Green played for the Bengals in 1974-75, scoring 70 points and averaging 40.1 yards on 134 punts. He was acquired by Tampa Bay in 1976, and stayed in the NFL through 1979.

The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals roster in the same season of his selection was RB Ted Washington of San Diego State. Washington was the 354th selection in 1968, a 13th-round pick. He played in the NFL only in 1968.

Though not among the very latest draft picks in team history, tight end/wide receiver Bob Trumpy of Utah stands out most for the way he exceeded the potential accorded him by the pro football world on draft day. Trumpy was the 301st selection in the 1968 draft, a 12th-round pick. He went on to play 10 years with Cincinnati (1968-77) and played in two AFL All-Star Games and then two Pro Bowls.

Two notably successful late draftees on recent Bengals teams are tackle Joe Walter of Texas Tech and kicker Doug Pelfrey of Kentucky. Walter, who played for the Bengals from 1985-97, was a 7th-round pick in '85, the 181st player selected. Pelfrey, now a seventh-year pro, was an 8th-round draft choice in 1993, the 202nd player selected.

BUCKEYES STILL RULE ON ALUMNI LIST

The Bengals added no new players from Ohio State to their all-time roster in 1998, but the Buckeyes remain easily the top all-time producer of Cincinnati talent. Seventeen former Buckeyes have gone on to wear Bengals stripes.

Tied for second place, with 11 Bengals alumni each, are Arizona State and Florida. Arizona State added QB Paul Justin to the list last season, while Florida kept pace with the addition of WR Willie Jackson. Auburn and Penn State are tied for fourth place with 10 Bengals alumni. Auburn last season added LB Takeo Spikes, Cincinnati's top draft pick.

Michigan and West Virgina are tied for sixth place with nine Bengals alumni, while the Univ. of Cincinnati and Miami (Ohio) join Houston and Miami (Fla.) with eight. CB Artrell Hawkins last season became the eighth UC Bearcat to play for the Bengals.

BENGALS ALL-TIME ROSTER

NOTE: To be eligible for the all-time roster, a player must have been in uniform for at least one regular season or postseason game, or spent a minimum of four games on the roster (including inactive status) or on other player lists (Injured Reserve, PUP, etc.).

DEFENSE DOES ITS PART

The Bengals' 61-17 victory at Houston on Dec. 17, 1972 — tied for most points ever scored by Cincinnati — stands also as the only game in which the Cincinnati defense has scored three touchdowns.

All three TDs came on interception returns. Lemar Parrish scored on returns of 25 and 33 yards, and Neal Craig scored from 63 yards.

CINERGY FIELD FINALE

The 1999 season is the 30th and final campaign for Cinergy Field as the home of the Bengals. Formerly called Riverfront Stadium, the facility opened in 1970 and was re-named Cinergy Field in September, 1996. The Bengals played their first game in the stadium on Aug. 8, 1970, defeating Washington, 27-12.

Situated on a 48-acre site on the banks of the Ohio River, Cinergy Field has a seating capacity of 60,398 when the field is in full football configuration. Capacity for football during dual-use periods with baseball is 56,759.

The stadium has an AstroTurf-8 playing surface, installed in the early spring of 1997. This is the fourth AstroTurf surface in the stadium's history. The first surface was used from 1970-78, the second surface from 1979-87, and the third from 1988-96.

Parking facilities on the immediate site will hold 4,500 automobiles. The stadium is surrounded by three parking decks — each a 12-acre area — and the third parking deck is covered by the plaza level, where most fans enter the stadium.

There are an estimated 20,000 parking spaces within a 12-block radius of the stadium. Cinergy Field has been named in major studies as one of the nation's best for incoming and outgoing traffic flow.

The stadium has a main scoreboard 20 feet high by 180 feet long, with 24,000 lamps. In 1987, a video board was added for fans' enjoyment, and a new video board replaced the original in 1999.

The largest crowd ever at a sporting event in Cincinnati was the 60,284 who saw the Bengals and Cleveland Browns at Riverfront on Oct. 17, 1971.

The Bengals played their first two seasons, 1968 and 1969, at Nippert Stadium on the University of Cincinnati campus.

GRAY HAS SEEN 'EM ALL

The Bengals have played 624 games through 1998 — preseason, regular season and postseason — and to the best of the club's knowledge, only equipment manager Tom Gray has been on the scene for every one.

"The first thing that comes to mind about this is that I've been very lucky," says Gray, who joined the Bengals for the 1968 inaugural season after previously serving as assistant equipment manager for the Cleveland Browns. "A lot of things could have happened to make someone miss a game, but I've managed to avoid them."

Bengals president Mike Brown has attended 623 of the 624 games through 1998. He missed only the 1991 preseason opener at Detroit to remain in Cincinnati with his father, Paul Brown, who was gravely ill.

A NO-WIN SITUATION

The Bengals' Nov. 9, 1969 game at the Astrodome in Houston is unique in club history. It's the only game nobody won.

Cincinnati played its only regular-season tie that afternoon, catching the Oilers at 31-31 on Horst Muhlmann's 18-yard field goal with 0:22 left in the fourth quarter. Regular-season overtime was not in the rule book at that time.

BENGALS TOUGH IN OVERTIME

The Bengals are among the NFL's elite teams in regular-season overtime games with a 13-7-0 record and .650 winning percentage. No team has more overtime wins and only Pittsburgh has a better winning percentage (.711).

Other teams with 13 overtime victories are Pittsburgh (13-5-1), Denver (13-9-2) and Minnesota (13-12-2).

Former Bengals kicker Jim Breech kicked an NFL-record nine winning field goals in overtime, never missing one in an extra period.

Overtime for regular-season games was instituted in the NFL in 1974.

ROAD IS SWEET IN OT

Recent Bengals results have shown the home field "advantage" to be no edge at all in overtime games. The visiting team has won the last six overtime games involving Cincinnati, as well as nine of the last 10. In those 10 games, the Bengals are 5-0 as the overtime visitor and 1-4 as the overtime home team.

Paul Brown, who left the Cleveland Browns following the 1962 season with an NFL record of 115-49-6, seven conference titles, and three NFL championships, had the urge to get back into football. His son Mike did a study on pro football expansion and recommended Cincinnati as a potential site. In 1965, Brown met with Ohio Governor James Rhodes and the two agreed the state could accommodate a second pro football team

1966 Fearful the Reds baseball team would leave town and feeling pressure from local businessmen pushing for a pro football franchise, Cincinnati's city council approved the construction of Riverfront Stadium.

1967 Brown's group was awarded an AFL expansion franchise. Brown called the team the Bengals, the name of Cincinnati's pro teams in the old AFL of the late 1930s. The Bengals acquired their first player late in the year when they traded two draft picks to Miami for quarterback John Stofa.

1968 The Bengals were awarded 40 veteran players in the allocation draft. In the college draft, they selected Tennessee center Bob Johnson as their first pick. Other draftees included running backs Jess Phillips and Essex Johnson, tight end Bob Trumpy, linebacker Al Beauchamp, and tackle Howard Fest. The Bengals lost their first preseason game 38-14 to Kansas City before 21,682 fans at Nippert Stadium. The Bengals upset Denver 24-10 and Buffalo 34-23 in their first two regular season home games. Paul Robinson led the AFL in rushing with 1,023 yards and was named Rookie of the Year.

1969 Brown drafted quarterback Greg Cook of the Univ. of Cincinnati in the first round. The same draft also produced linebacker Bill Bergey. The Bengals jumped out to a 3-0 record, but the club finished 4-9-1. Brown was named AFL Coach of the Year. Bergey was honored as the AFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, and Cook won the AFL passing title.

1970 The NFL-AFL merger took place before the season, and the Bengals made their first NFL campaign a memorable one. After losing 6 of their first 7 games, they rallied for an 8-6 finish and won the new AFC Central Division. In their first playoff game, they lost 17-0 to Baltimore, which would go on to beat Dallas in the Super Bowl. QB Greg Cook was forced to the Injured Reserve list in training camp with a shoulder injury that would end his career, and Virgil Carter took over as the starter.

1971 The Bengals picked up QB Ken Anderson and tackle Vernon Holland in the draft, then went 5-0-1 in preseason play. After starting the regular season with a 37-14 win over Philadelphia, the Bengals lost seven in a row on the way to a 4-10 record.

1972 Looking for defensive help, Brown drafted end Sherman White, safety Tommy Casanova, linebacker Jim LeClair, and cornerback Bernard Jackson. Anderson unseated Carter as starting quarterback and the Bengals won three of their last four to post an 8-6 record. Chip Myers set a club record with 57 pass receptions.

1973 Brown drafted wide receiver Isaac Curtis and runners Boobie Clark and Lenvil Elliott. The Bengals split their first eight games, then swept their last six and won their second AFC Central Division title. Cincinnati lost to Miami 34-16 in the AFC playoffs. Clark, who finished the year with 988 yards rushing and 45 pass receptions, was named AFC Rookie of the Year. Essex Johnson led Cincinnati with a career-high 997 yards rushing and Curtis caught 45 passes.

1974 Cincinnati traded Bill Bergey to Philadelphia for two first-round draft choices and a third-round pick in 1977. LeClair replaced Bergey at middle linebacker. The Bengals won four of their first five games but couldn't keep pace with Super Bowl-bound Pittsburgh. Anderson won the NFL passing championship and completed a club-record 64.9 percent of his attempts. Cornerback Lemar Parrish led the NFL in punt returns.

1975 The Bengals opened with six straight wins. LeClair preserved a 21-19 victory over Houston, making all four tackles in a goal-line stand. The Bengals won their eighth game in nine starts against Buffalo as Anderson completed 30 of 46 passes for 447 yards, the tenth-highest one-game total in NFL history. Cincinnati scored 27 points in the first quarter to crush San Diego 47-17 and finish 11-3, its best regular-season record. The Bengals qualified as the AFC wild card team for the playoffs, but their losing postseason record continued with a 31-28 setback to Oakland. Anderson won his second NFL passing championship. A serious blow was the loss of defensive tackle Mike Reid, who retired at age 26 to pursue a career in music.

1976 Brown announced his retirement after 41 seasons of coaching and named Bill Johnson, his long-time assistant, as the successor. Brown continued to serve as the club's general manager and vice president. The Bengals acquired defensive end Coy Bacon in a trade with San Diego and drafted halfback Archie Griffin, the two-time Heisman Trophy winner from Ohio State. The Bengals set a fast pace in the AFC Central Division, winning nine of their first 11 games. The season came down to games against Pittsburgh and Oakland and the Bengals lost both. Those defeats not only cost Cincinnati the division title, but the AFC wild card spot as well. Cornerback Ken Riley led the AFC with nine interceptions.

1977 A loss to Houston in the final game cost the Bengals a spot in the playoffs. The team finished with an 8-6 record. Curtis missed the final six games with a knee injury. Bob Trumpy retired.

1978 QB Ken Anderson missed the first four games with a broken bone in his right hand, and Homer Rice replaced Bill Johnson as head coach after the team started 0-5. The team dipped to marks of 0-8 and 1-12 before rebounding under Rice to win the last three games. In the season finale, the Bengals blasted Cleveland 48-16, setting series records for points and victory margin.

1979 After six straight losses to open the season, the Bengals stunned Pittsburgh 34-10, recovering seven Steeler fumbles. CB Ray Griffin ran back an intercepted pass a club-record 96 yards in a 26-24 loss to San Diego. Pete Johnson powered his way to 15 TDs, but the Bengals struggled to their second straight 4-12 record. Former Cleveland coach Forrest Gregg was named to replace Rice as head coach.

1980 Scoring touchdowns was the major problem as the Bengals went 6-10 in 1980. They managed only 244 points, lowest in the AFC. Anderson had a sub-par year with only six touchdown passes. The Bengals won only one of their first five games, but upset defending Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh twice. First-round draft choice Anthony Munoz impressed at offensive tackle.

1981 The Bengals unveiled new uniforms with tiger-striped helmets, jerseys and pants. They had at least a share of the AFC Central lead the entire season and, on December 13, Anderson threw two touchdowns as the Bengals clinched the division with a 17-10 victory over the Steelers. Cornerback Louis Breeden tied an NFL record when he returned an interception 102 yards for a touchdown in a 40-17 victory over the Chargers in San Diego. Anderson led the NFL in passing with a 98.5 rating. On January 3, the Bengals beat the Buffalo Bills 28-21 in an AFC divisional playoff game. A week later, playing in their first AFC Championship Game, the Bengals defeated San Diego 27-7 at Riverfront Stadium in a temperature of nine degrees below zero with a wind-chill factor of minus 59. In Super Bowl XVI on January 24 in Pontiac, MI, the Bengals trailed 20-0 at halftime and couldn't make up the deficit, losing to San Francisco 26-21.

1982 The Bengals followed up their Super Bowl season with another strong showing. They finished the strike-shortened season behind only the Raiders with a 7-2 mark. The Jets caught them sleeping in the first round of the playoffs, though, beating the Bengals 44-17. Anderson led the AFC in passing for the fourth time as the Bengals boasted the second-best offense in the NFL.

1983 The Bengals' season looked promising at the start of 1983, but a horrendous opening brought about a premature ending. Cincinnati started the season by losing six of its first seven games. The Bengals never recovered and finished 7-9. Despite the losing record, the Bengals claimed the top overall defense in the NFL. In the off-season, Gregg resigned as head coach and Sam Wyche was named as his replacement.

1984 Pete Johnson was traded to San Diego for running back James Brooks. The Bengals lost their first five games, then bounced back to win eight of the last 11 and force the AFC Central Division championship race into the final week of the season, only to fall a game short of Pittsburgh. Cincinnati finished 8-8.

1985 Wide receiver Eddie Brown from Miami (Fla.) was the Bengals' top draft choice. Wide receiver Isaac Curtis, a premier Bengal for 12 years, retired shortly before training camp opened. Cincinnati finished 7-9 and was in the thick of the AFC Central race, which Cleveland won with an 8-8 record. Second-year quarterback Boomer Esiason replaced Ken Anderson. Offensive tackle Anthony Munoz was named to the AFC Pro Bowl team for the fifth consecutive time. The Bengals set a club scoring record with 441 points.

1986 Cincinnati's No. 1 choice in the college draft was Washington linebacker Joe Kelly. Wide receiver Tim McGee of Tennessee was drafted later in the first round. Punter Pat McInally retired. The Bengals unleashed a high-powered offense in their battle for the AFC Central Division title and finished 10-6, narrowly missing a playoff berth. Tackle Anthony Munoz was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl team for the sixth year in a row. He was joined by guard Max Montoya, running back James Brooks and quarterback Boomer Esiason. Linebacker Reggie Williams was selected "One of the Top 10 Young Men in America" by the United States Jaycees. Later, Williams was selected NFL Man of the Year for his efforts to charity and the community. Munoz was named Seagrams' top offensive lineman of 1986.

1987 The Bengals won their season opener in Indianapolis, but then the season turned sour. They lost the next week to San Francisco, suffered the turmoil of the NFL players' strike for the next three weeks, and were unable to regroup when the strike was over. Their 4-11 record was their worst since 1979. Individual bright spots included Jim Breech leading the AFC in scoring with 97 points, Anthony Munoz being voted to his seventh straight Pro Bowl, and nose tackle Tim Krumrie making his first Pro Bowl.

1988 The Bengals brought about the biggest turnaround in NFL history by rising from their 4-11 finish of 1987 to a 12-4 regular-season record. They won the AFC Central Division title, and defeated Buffalo 21-10 for the AFC Championship on January 8 (1989). On January 22 (1989), they appeared in their second Super Bowl and lost 20-16 to San Francisco when the 49ers scored a touchdown with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Coach Sam Wyche's team posted a 14-5 mark in regular and postseason play, best in the NFL. Wyche received numerous honors for his brilliant coaching and nine Bengals were selected for the Pro Bowl — quarterback Boomer Esiason, nose tackle Tim Krumrie, tackle Anthony Munoz, guard Max Montoya, tight end Rodney Holman, wide receiver Eddie Brown, running back James Brooks, safety David Fulcher and cornerback Eric Thomas. Esiason was voted the NFL's Most Valuable Player and Munoz the top offensive lineman. In January of '88, linebacker Reggie Williams received the "Sportsman of the Year" award from Sports Illustrated. Defensive back Rickey Dixon, an All-American from Oklahoma, was the Bengals' first selection in the 1988 draft. "Ickey" Woods, the top rusher in college football in 1987 while at Nevada-Las Vegas, was Cincinnati's second choice. Woods led the Bengals in rushing in 1988 with 1,066 yards.

1989 The Bengals traded their first round draft choice to Atlanta for three later selections. Eric Ball, a running back from UCLA, was Cincinnati's first selection, coming in the second round. The Bengals, hit hard by injuries throughout the season, went 8-8 and narrowly missed gaining a spot in the playoffs. Six Bengals were selected for the Pro Bowl — tackle Anthony Munoz, quarterback Boomer Esiason, strong safety David Fulcher, running back James Brooks, tight end Rodney Holman and guard Max Montoya.

1990 The Bengals drafted Baylor linebacker James Francis in the first round of the draft. Running back Harold Green of South Carolina was the second-round choice. Cincinnati posted a 9-7 regular-season record to win the AFC Central Division Championship and move into the playoffs, where the Bengals defeated the Houston Oilers 41-14 before losing to the Los Angeles Raiders 20-10 in the second round. Three Bengals were selected for the Pro Bowl game — tackle Anthony Munoz, tight end Rodney Holman and safety David Fulcher.

1991 Cincinnati selected outside linebacker Alfred Williams, an All-American from Colorado, in the first round of the 1991 draft. Paul Brown, founder of the Bengals and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, died August 5. The Bengals had a 3-13 season record. Dave Shula replaced Sam Wyche as head coach following the season.

1992 The Bengals made quarterback David Klingler, who played in college for the University of Houston, their No. 1 draft choice. Klingler started four of the final five games of the season in which the Bengals finished 5-11. Harold Green rushed for 1,170 yards and was selected to play in the Pro Bowl. All-Pro Anthony Munoz played his final game for the Bengals. Michael Pope was named offensive coordinator after the season and Ken Anderson was signed as coach of the quarterbacks.

1993 Defensive lineman John Copeland, an All-American from Alabama, was the Bengals' first-round draft choice. The Bengals acquired cornerbacks Sheldon White and Mike Brim and quarterback Jay Schroeder, who were unrestricted free agents, and lost cornerback Eric Thomas, wide receiver Tim McGee, safety Barney Bussey and tight end Jim Riggs. Quarterback Boomer Esiason was traded to the New York Jets for a third-round draft choice. The young Bengals lost their first 10 games before defeating the Los Angeles Raiders 16-10. Cincinnati then had wins over the Los Angeles Rams 15-3 and the Atlanta Falcons 21-17 in the final weeks of the season to finish 3-13.

1994 The Cincinnati coaching staff underwent a change when Bruce Coslet, former head coach of the New York Jets, returned as the offensive coordinator and Larry Peccatiello became defensive coordinator after Ron Lynn resigned. The Bengals signed eight veteran free agents while losing only one and they used the top pick in the draft on Ohio State defensive tackle Dan Wilkinson. The team lost its first eight games of the season. With quarterbacks David Klingler and Erik Wilhelm sidelined with injuries in the eighth contest, third-string quarterback Jeff Blake started against two-time defending Super Bowl champion Dallas and nearly pulled off the upset victory before losing, 23-20. Blake went on to amaze the league with his performances and never relinquished his starting role. The Bengals finished 3-13.

1995 The Bengals traded up in the first round of the draft for the first time, and selected Penn State RB Ki-Jana Carter with the No. 1 overall pick, obtained from Carolina. Carter suffered a knee injury in the third preseason game and missed his entire rookie season. Nonetheless, the Bengals made a dramatic improvement over the previous four years, going 7-9 with five losses by just three points each. QB Jeff Blake, WR Carl Pickens and PK Doug Pelfrey posted record Bengal seasons, and Blake and Pickens went on to start in the Pro Bowl.

1996 On March 19, Hamilton County voters approved a half-cent sales tax increase to fund two new stadiums, taking a major step to ensure the Bengals' future in Cincinnati. The team lost six of its first seven games, but Cincinnati's fortunes took a U-turn after offensive coordinator Bruce Coslet was promoted to head coach Oct. 21, replacing Dave Shula. Coslet directed the team to a 7-2 finish, including a 5-0 mark at Cinergy Field, and the final 8-8 record was Cincinnati's first .500-or-better season since 1990. On Dec. 15, it was announced Coslet had agreed to a four-year contract extension through the 2000 season. The defense set a team record with 34 interceptions, and CB Ashley Ambrose was named a Pro Bowl starter along with WR Carl Pickens, who caught 100 passes to break his own team reception record.

1997 The Bengals and Hamilton County officials reached agreement on a western riverfront site for a new football stadium, and on May 29, team president Mike Brown signed a lease committing the team through 2026. The team and county declined to sell naming rights, christening the facility Paul Brown Stadium in honor of the Bengals' founder. The team held training camp in a new complex at Georgetown (Ky.) College, ending its 29-year arrangement at Wilmington (Ohio) College. On the field, the team suffered a 1-7 start but rallied to finish 7-9 by going 6-2 in the second half. Rookie HB Corey Dillon rushed for 1129 yards, third-most in club history, and his 246-yard effort vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4 broke Jim Brown's 40-year-old NFL single-game rookie record. Boomer Esiason started the last five games at QB and posted a 106.9 passer rating for the season. Bruce Coslet finished his first full season as head coach, and his overall .560 winning percentage (14-11 record) stood as the best for a head coach in club history.

1998: Demolition work for Paul Brown Stadium began early in the year, and official groundbreaking for the new facility was held April 25. Stadium work continued on schedule through the year, and the visible structure of a stadium had emerged by year's end. The Bengals had two choices in the first round of the draft, and used them to select LBs Takeo Spikes of Auburn and Brian Simmons of North Carolina, both of whom were starters in their first NFL season. Just before training camp, the team signed free agent QB Neil O'Donnell, who won the starting job in training camp and started the first 10 games. But by the end of an injury-plagued 3-13 season, Jeff Blake had re-emerged as the No. 1 QB. WR Carl Pickens caught 82 passes, five for touchdowns, and set club career records for receptions (473) and receiving TDs (57). HB Corey Dillon rushed for 1130 yards, third-most in team history, and became the first Bengal to top the 1000-yard rushing mark in each of his first two seasons.

EARLY 1999: Construction work on Paul Brown Stadium continued on schedule, leading to confidence that the new facility would be ready in plenty of time for the Bengals to open the 2000 season there. The team had the No. 3 overall selection in the draft, and used it to select Oregon QB Akili Smith.

CINCINNATI PRO FOOTBALL HISTORY

Cincinnati was home to two other football teams in the National Football League prior to the present-day Bengals.

One of the teams, known as the Cincinnati Celts, was a member of the NFL — then known as the American Professional Football Association — in the league's second season in 1921. That team finished with a 1-3-0 record in their only season.

In 1933, the NFL granted the city another franchise, this time called the Cincinnati Reds. They competed in the league for two seasons before folding. The Reds finished with a 3-6-1 record and fourth place in the league's Western Division in 1933. In 1934, they lost their first eight games before suspending operations. The St. Louis Gunners, an independent team, joined the NFL by buying the Cincinnati franchise and went 1-2 the last three weeks of the season.

It was a third team, however — one which was not a member of the NFL — that eventually proved to be the closest link to today's modern-era team.

In 1937, a team known as the Cincinnati Bengals was formed as a member of the rival American Football League. It was that team's nickname which was later adopted by today's NFL franchise.

The 1937 Bengals finished with a 2-4-2 record in their first year, but the AFL folded after the season. The Bengals continued as an independent team in 1938, playing three NFL teams that year. They beat the Chicago Bears, 17-13, and the Pittsburgh Pirates, 38-0, and tied the Chicago Cardinals, 7-7.

In 1939, the Bengals joined a new AFL, finishing in second place with a 6-2 record. But again, the league folded after the season.

Once again in 1940, another new AFL emerged, and again the Bengals joined. They recorded 1-7-0 and 1-5-2 marks in 1940 and 1941, respectively. That AFL suffered the fate of the two AFLs before it, folding after the 1941 season as the United States entered World World II. Only this time, the Bengals folded along with it.

Pro football returned to Cincinnati 26 years later in 1967 when Paul Brown headed an ownership group which landed an expansion franchise in the modern-era American Football League. Brown, a Pro Football Hall of Famer who founded and coached the Cleveland Browns from 1946-62, picked the name Bengals for the new team "to give it a link with past professional football in Cincinnati."

Hundreds of names were suggested by fans in an effort to name the new Cincinnati team, the most popular being Buckeyes. It was rejected to avoid confusion with the Ohio State Buckeyes.

The Bengals began play in the AFL in 1968. The AFL merged with the NFL in 1970, and the Bengals have been members ever since.

BENGALS IN SUPER BOWL XVI

San Francisco 26, Bengals 21
Jan. 24, 1982, at Pontiac Silverdome

Coach Forrest Gregg's Bengals outgained San Francisco by 81 yards (356-275), marking the first time in the game's history the losing team led in yardage. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson set Super Bowl records (since surpassed) for completions (25) and completion percentage (73.5), and Anderson's 300 passing yards nearly doubled the 157 by Joe Montana of the 49ers. But Cincinnati suffered four turnovers to San Francisco's one, and three of those giveaways led to 17 first-half points for the 49ers, who led 20-0 at intermission.

Leading 20-7, the 49ers staged a memorable goal-line stand late in the third quarter, stopping the Bengals for no gain on three straight plays from the one-yard line. The Bengals still closed the gap to 20-14 with 10:06 left in the fourth quarter, but the 49ers moved to a 26-14 lead on two Ray Wersching field goals before the Bengals crept within 26-21 on the game's second Anderson-to-Dan Ross TD pass with 16 seconds to play. Dwight Clark's recovery of a Bengals onside kick sealed the victory for San Francisco.

BENGALS IN SUPER BOWL XXIII

San Francisco 20, Bengals 16
Jan. 22, 1989, at Joe Robbie Stadium

Commissioner Pete Rozelle termed it the most exciting of the first 23 games in Super Bowl history, and the result regained some respect for the AFC, which had lost the last four games by an average of more than 27 points. But the dominant emotion of the day still was heartbreak for coach Sam Wyche's underdog Bengals, who took a 16-13 lead with 3:20 to play on Jim Breech's 40-yard field goal before succumbing to a 92-yard, 11-play TD drive led by San Francisco QB Joe Montana. John Taylor's game-winning 10-yard TD pass from Montana came with just 34 seconds remaining. Never before had a Super Bowl been won on a TD so late in the game.

The teams were tied 3-3 at halftime, tied again at 6-6 late in the third quarter, and then swapped touchdowns in quick succession. A 93-yard kickoff return by Cincinnati's Stanford Jennings was countered by a four-play San Francisco TD drive. The third of Breech's three field goals gave Cincinnati its third lead of the day before Montana's final heroics saved the day for San Francisco. The victory made San Francisco the first NFC team to win three Super Bowls.

Anthony Munoz Puts Bengals Stamp On Pro Football's Hall of Fame

Anthony Munoz, an athletically gifted giant who defined the art of playing offensive tackle in the National Football League, is the first primary Bengals player to gain entry to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Munoz was inducted, along with four other players, on Aug. 1, 1998, at the Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Munoz chose his son, Michael, 17, as his presenter for the Hall of Fame induction ceremony. Munoz and his wife, DeDe, have been married for 21 years, and also have a daughter, Michelle, 16.

1998 was the first year of Hall eligibility for Munoz, whose final NFL season was 1992 with the Bengals. Including the 1999 class, only 25 percent of Hall inductees had the honor of first-ballot election (50-of-199).

"Anthony's induction was very gratifying to our organization and to all of our fans," said Mike Brown, Bengals president and general manager. "It was particularly so because the selectors recognized Anthony as a truly special player and person who deserved election on his first try. During his playing days, no one in the NFL was better. It's justifiable to consider him as the best offensive lineman ever, and he has conducted his personal and family life in a way that is a great credit to the Bengals and the NFL."

Munoz' off-field efforts earned him the NFL's prestigious Man of the Year Award in 1991.

Munoz was a consensus All-American at the University of Southern California, and the Bengals claimed him with the 3rd overall pick in the 1980 draft, despite the fact some teams considered him damaged goods due to past knee surgery. The move turned out as the best draft gamble in franchise history, as Munoz went on to play 13 Bengals seasons (1980-92), including 11 seasons (1981-91) in which he was chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game. Among all NFL players, only Reggie White has been selected to more Pro Bowls (12) since the game took its current form in 1970.

Peter Brouillet/NFL Photos

Munoz played for the Bengals in each of their Super Bowl appearances, as a second-year player in Super Bowl XVI and as a ninth-year veteran in Super Bowl XXIII. In 1994, he was one of three offensive tackles named to the NFL's official 75th Anniversary Team. He now joins his fellow tackles from that 75th Anniversary Team — Forrest Gregg and Roosevelt Brown — in the Hall of Fame.

Munoz' exceptional agility and athleticism is reflected by his entry line in the Bengals' all-time pass receiving statistics. He caught seven passes, playing as a tackle-eligible, and four of those catches were for touchdowns.

In six of his 13 Bengals seasons, Munoz earned at least one major award as NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year. One award citation, issued by NFL Alumni, reads: "The NFL has three levels of offensive linemen. The bottom rung is for players aspiring to make the Pro Bowl. The next step is for those who have earned all-star status. Then there's Anthony Munoz. He's alone at the top, a sure Hall of Famer."

Though there are Hall of Fame members with some Hispanic ancestry, Munoz is generally considered the first player of primarily Hispanic background to gain entry to the Hall. Munoz was born in Ontario, Calif. His parents also are native Californians, and his grandparents were born in Chihuahua, Mexico.

One other Hall of Fame player, WR Charlie Joiner, has a Bengals connection. But Joiner played the bulk of his NFL career with San Diego. Paul Brown, founder of the Bengals and the Cleveland Browns, also is in the Hall of Fame, but was inducted before the Bengals' first season.

The other 1998 Hall of Fame inductees were defensive back Paul Krause, wide receiver Tommy McDonald, center Dwight Stephenson and linebacker Mike Singletary.

WHAT THEY'VE SAID ABOUT ANTHONY MUNOZ

- Ritter Collett, Dayton Daily News columnist: "Anthony Munoz is one of those rare athletes you wish could go on playing forever. Not just because he may be as fine a tackle as ever played in the NFL. Tackles come and go. Quality human beings who put more back into society than they take out are something else."
- Former Bengals head coach Forrest Gregg, recalling a pre-draft workout in 1980: "I was pass-rushing him. I put a couple of moves on him and thought I had him set up. But he just jammed me with that big right paw, and I landed right on my rear. I didn't need any more. Right then, I knew we would take him in the draft if he was available. He apologized for knocking me down, but I said, 'Son, don't worry. It was a great move.' "
- Jim McNally, Bengals offensive line coach, 1980-94: "The key word is 'athlete.' In the offensive line, you see a lot of guys who are big and strong and fine players, but they're not great athletes. Anthony is a great athlete."
- Joe Walter, Bengals OT, 1985-97: "Anthony played great every Sunday for 13 years. Every Monday, I was in the film room, watching him. It was awesome."

Place all requests to the attention of Jack Brennan, Bengals public relations director. Submit all season-long credential requests by mail or fax by July 31. All per-game requests should be faxed by 5 p.m. on the Monday preceding all games. Please specify the types of credentials required — reporter, photographer or otherwise — and note whether locker room access is necessary. Also note whether you wish to have the credentials mailed or left at Press Will-Call. Credentials will not be issued to persons managing Internet sites, unless those sites are represented by an accredited media outlet or an accredited Internet service. Contact the Bengals' public relations department or the league office for information. Scouts from other NFL teams should contact the Bengals' public relations department for information regarding credential policies. All credentials are non-transferable. The Bengals cannot guarantee that every credential request will be granted.

PRESS WILL-CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE: Press Will Call and the media entrance at Cinergy Field is located on the south side of the stadium (the river side) next to Gate 9.

PRESS BOX: To reach the press box, take the elevator just inside the media entrance to Level 5. Turn right out of the elevator and walk approximately 75 yards. The football press box entrance will be on the right. Food, soft drinks and coffee are available to the media before the game and during halftime.

— BENGALS PRESEASON TELEVISION —

For the 11th time in the past 12 years, Cincinnati's WKRC-TV (Channel 12) will be the flagship station of the Bengals Preseason TV Network.

Brad Johansen returns for his second year as the preseason TV voice of the Bengals, and he will again be joined by Anthony Munoz, Bengals Hall of Fame offensive tackle.

Johansen is sports anchor for WKRC-TV. Munoz will be working his third season as a Bengals preseason analyst.

Three additonal stations again join WKRC-TV on the Bengals Preseason Network — WBNS-TV (Channel 10) in Columbus, Ohio; WDTN-TV (Channel 2) in Dayton, Ohio; and WTVQ-TV (Channel 36) in Lexington, Ky.

— BENGALS RADIO NETWORK —

Pete Arbogast, Dave Lapham and Bruce Kozerski will team up on the Bengals Radio Network for the third consecutive season in 1999, again under the banner of twin Cincinnati flagship stations WBOB-AM (All Sports 1160) and WUBE-FM (105.1).

Arbogast, a five-time winner of the California Associated Press "Best Play-by-Play" award, left the Los Angeles market in 1997 to accept an offer to become the new "Voice of the Bengals."

Lapham, a former Bengals offensive lineman (1974-83), has been radio analyst for Bengals games since 1986.

Kozerski, also a former Bengals offensive lineman (1984-95), became the first regular sideline reporter on Bengals broadcasts in 1997.

At press time, the Bengals Radio Network included 40 stations covering four states:

TRAINING CAMP — GEORGETOWN COLLEGE

Bengals players report July 30 to training camp at Georgetown College in Georgetown, Ky. The training camp facility is one of the finest in use by an NFL team, and it has been recognized for a major award by a national sports management magazine.

Athletic Management, published in Ithaca, N.Y., selected the facility, officially known as the East Campus Athletic Complex, for its 1998 "Excellence in Outdoor Facilities" award.

The Bengals moved their training camp to Georgetown in 1997 after 29 seasons of training at Wilmington (Ohio) College. Georgetown's commitment to meet state-of-the-art standards has brought unprecedented media attention to training camp and has helped the Bengals develop their Central Kentucky fan base.

"There isn't a team in the league that wouldn't like to have its training camp in a facility like this one," said Bengals president and general manager Mike Brown. "The reaction of our players has been dramatic, particularly in regard to how much they appreciated the improved housing as compared to past camps. We feel very comfortable now at Georgetown and our third year here should be the best yet."

The centerpiece of the complex is Rawlings Stadium/Applebees Field, which offers permanent stands for 5,000 and is built in a bowl shape that can accommodate seating for up to 20,000 fans. The stadium is designed to provide fans with a festival-like atmosphere, concessions, merchandise, interactive pavilion areas and promotional activities developed by corporate sponsors. For the team, it houses locker rooms and showers, weight and aerobic rooms, training facilities, a press box and guest booths.

Applebee's Field has the newest advancement in playing surfaces: SportGrass, a combination of both natural grass and synthetic materials. SportGrass consists of three levels of materials — a natural sand base, a middle level of loosely woven artificial turf and a layer of natural grass on top. The natural grass is able to root itself into and become embedded in the loose synthetic turf, making a surface which is safer and softer than artificial turf and easier to maintain than natural grass.

The training camp complex, located about a one-hour drive south from downtown Cincinnati, also includes a conference center used for coaches' classroom instruction and meals, two additional full-size practice fields, apartment-style resident quads for player housing and executive guest townhouses.

The new complex joins the already existing tennis courts, soccer field and the Robert N. Wilson baseball field.

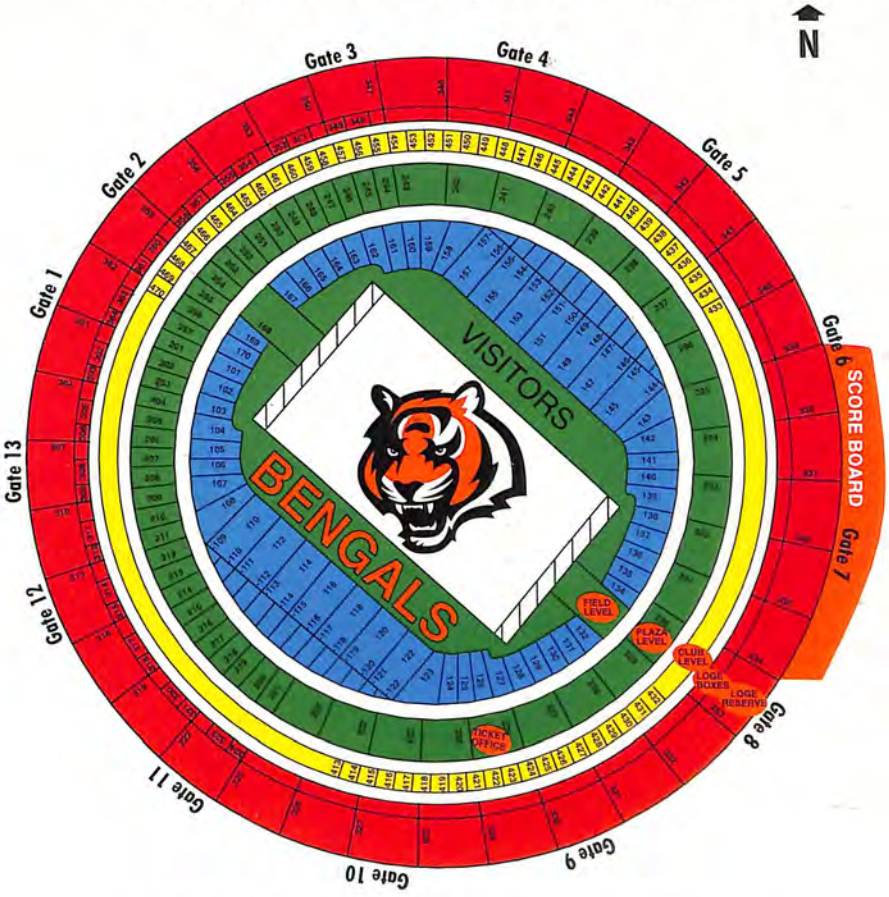

Major sponsors for 1999 training camp are: Applebee's; Bank One; BellSouth; BellSouth Mobility; Coca-Cola; Cumulus Broadcasting; Georgetown Community Hospital; Georgetown News-Graphic; Hershey's; John Deere; Kentucky American Water; Kentucky Utilities; Lexington Herald-Leader; Papa John's; Toyota; and WKYT-TV.

TRAINING CAMP DATES: July 30 - August 28.

DIRECTIONS: From downtown Cincinnati, take I-75 South approximately 70 miles to exit 126. Turn right off ramp onto U.S. 460 West. Go through four traffic lights; turn right at the fifth traffic light onto Lemons Mill Rd. (Route 1962 West). Go about one-half mile and look for the large Bengals sign and driveway to the complex on the right.

TRAINING CAMP TELEPHONE: (502) 868-6300.
