BLANTON COLLIER

13th season with Browns, 38th in coaching

Born July 2, 1906 at Millersburg, Ky.

Graduated Georgetown (Ky.) College, '27

One world's championship, two Eastern Conference titles and a close second place finish in three seasons stamp the Browns' Blanton Collier as one of the highly successful head coaches in the National Football League.

The soft-spoken Kentuckian, possibly not as flamboyant or dramatic as some of his coaching contemporaries, has implanted himself in the fore of the coaching fraternity with a remarkable .744 record on 32 victories, 11 defeats and one tie since he took over the reins.

He has presented to Cleveland's football filberts three extremely exciting seasons of football. He has restored the Browns to their former position as one of the NFL's premier teams, a spot they had relinquished for several seasons prior to his appointment as head coach in 1963.

Preferring to use a warm approach to his players but able to become the stern task-master when he has to, Collier is further proof that nice guys don't have to finish last. He has a favorite bit of philosophy which eloquently characterizes the man: "You can accomplish anything you want as long as you don't care who gets the credit."

When Collier succeeded his former boss, Paul Brown, early in 1963, few football followers were sanguine about the team's prospects in light of what had transpired in 1962.

The Browns had compiled an unimpressive 7-6-1 mark, their second worst in the club's history. Ernie Davis was dying and veteran defensive halfback Don Fleming had been killed in an accident. Two of the best linemen in Browns history, Mike McCormack and Jim Ray Smith, had announced that they would not be back.

Many questions had to be answered by Collier's 1963 Browns and the answers came fast. He permitted his quarterback to call the plays and instructed him to play exciting, daring football.

Opponents quickly learned to expect the unexpected from Collier but before adjustments could be made, the team had won its first six games. Although the Browns finally wound up one game out of first place, opposing coaches in the league knew that Collier had upgraded the club into a contender.

The 1964 edition of the Browns won the Eastern Conference title, the first for Cleveland since 1958, and then whitewashed Baltimore, 27 to 0, in the championship affair for a most stunning upset victory.

Last year's club clinched the Conference title three weeks before the end of the season but dropped a 23-12 decision to Green Bay in a muddy, snowy championship meeting at Green Bay.

The past season was actually Collier's 37th as a coach and his 12th with the Browns. His association with the Browns occurred as a result of his Navy service in World War II.

As an athletic specialist and Petty Officer 2nd Class, Collier was stationed at Great Lakes Naval Station. He had been the football coach at Paris (Ky.) High School for 16 years following his graduation from Georgetown (Ky.) College.

Hungry for football knowledge and well equipped with the capacity to absorb it, Collier spent all of his spare time at the practice field, taking notes. Finally, Paul Brown, then head coach at Great Lakes, became curious about the unofficial observer and thus began a long-time coaching association.

Although Collier was making plans to work on his Master of Arts degree while he served as an assistant to Paul Bryant at the University of Kentucky, Brown changed all this by inviting him to join his staff at Great Lakes and later the Browns as they started play in the All-America Conference in 1946.

Among Collier's early special assignments was that of working with rookie quarterback Otto Graham. The latter, who went on to become one of the greatest passers in football, still credits Collier for his development.

Collier also concentrated on pass defense strategy for the Browns and he shared with Brown much of the credit for many defensive tactics which were then revolutionary.

After Cleveland swept to its first title in 1946, Collier received a new assignment for the winter—devise a system of grading players by studying their performances on film. Three months later he turned in an incredibly comprehensive report which dwarfed any efforts made previously. It was so thorough and revealing it became a prototype for every study later on in the NFL.

Following four AAC titles plus one NFL championship and three Eastern Division first place finishes, Collier, drawn by loyalty for his home state, accepted the position as head coach at Kentucky in 1954. It was not generally known at the time that he had turned down one head coaching job in the NFL.

Collier spent the next eight seasons at Kentucky where he managed to compile a very creditable 41-36-3 record in one of the toughest college circuits in the nation, a conference that included Mississippi, Louisiana State, Alabama, Tennessee and others. Collier's material, however, wasn't deep enough for championships and his Kentucky era ended early in 1962. In the spring of that year, he accepted an offer from Brown to return to Cleveland as an assistant.

Back with the Browns, Collier again tutored the offensive backs, one of whom was quarterback Frank Ryan just acquired from the Los Angeles Rams. After four fruitless seasons at Los Angeles, Ryan bloomed under Collier's tutelage and when Collier decided upon the former Rice Institute star as his number one passer in 1963, Ryan came through with a very rewarding performance.

There is a perfect relationship between Ryan, a bright pupil, and Collier, the patient teacher who is a master football technician with the rare ability to instruct the finer points of just about every position. Ryan describes Collier as "the most complete coach I've ever known."

During Collier's nine years as an assistant with the Browns, they compiled a record of 101 victories, 21 defeats and four ties. Including his two seasons as a head coach, it's 133-32-5.

Collier and his attractive, personable wife, Mary Forman, whom everyone calls Forman, reside in suburban Aurora, about 27 miles southeast of Cleveland. His private life finds him as great a family man as he is a coach. He and his wife have three daughters. The youngest, Jane, is now a stewardess with Pan American Airways. The other two are married and living in Kentucky, Carolyn (Mrs. Sam Ware) in Ashland and Kay (Mrs. Robert Slone) in Lexington. A very close family, the joy of the Colliers are their four granddaughters.

In the off-season Collier's favorite recreation is golf and he approaches the game with the same studious thought which typifies his football. Thus far, however, his success on the links is not comparable with that which he has enjoyed on the gridiron as his golf game fluctuates between 80 and 100.

Signed as free agent to very unusual pact last year by Browns' owner Art Modell ... club agreed to finance living and education expenses of Archie and his wife, Barbara, at medical school of Western Reserve University in Cleveland for subsequent two years and signed Archie to an active player's contract for 1967 ... however, Archie has made such fine progress in medical school that his program can be arranged this year to free him for full time duty with the Browns should he earn a place on the roster ... Roberts cracked just about every Columbia and Ivy League passing record in his three years with the Lions ... completed 313 passes in his career, more than any other player in Eastern collegiate history ... stands 14th in career national rankings for completions ... his 313 completions in 530 attempts for 3,704 yards and 59% mark plus 29 TD's were outstanding efforts ... was fine defensive performer and ranked third behind two linebackers in tackles made ... turned down large bonuses from major league baseball clubs as his prime goal in life has always been the medical profession ... maintained a good scholastic record at Columbia, twice being selected to the All-Ivy academic squad ... his father, Arthur Henry Roberts, is a former N. Y. U. athletic great who coached Archie (correct name is Arthur same as his father) throughout his athletic career at Holyoke (Mass.) High School ... married Barbara Hudson, August 8, 1964 ... a daughter, Dorie, was born last November 17 ... Archie aspires to be a surgeon while his wife hopes to become a gynecologist.

1965 REVIEW

Sun., Sept. 19 Browns 17, Redskins 7 (48,208) at Wash.

Sparked by their defensive unit which didn't permit a score until the final moments of the game, the Browns opened their season in victorious fashion.

The thermometer on the field hovered around the 100-degree mark in a very warm, humid day as Cleveland led throughout the game after Lou Groza opened the scoring with a 20-yard field goal late in the first period.

A long 80-yard pass play involving Frank Ryan and Walter Roberts accounted for the Browns' initial touchdown in the second period. With the ball on the Cleveland 20-yard line, Roberts got a step on Washington rookie Rickie Harris. Going at full tilt, he grabbed Ryan's pass at the Washington 35 and beat Harris into the end zone. It was to be the Browns' longest scoring play of the 1965 campaign.

In the third period, Ryan hit Gary Collins for 35 yards and Cleveland's final touchdown. Washington's lone score occurred in the final two minutes of the game as Angelo Coia caught a 21-yard pass from second string quarterback Dick Shiner who had replaced Sonny Jurgensen.

Captain Galen Fiss of the Browns had to be helped off the field in the second half with a severe calf muscle pull that was to keep him out of action for five weeks.

Sun., Sept. 26 Cardinals 49, Browns 13 (80,161) at Cleve.

It was one of those days when everything went wrong as the Browns went down to defeat at the hands of the club which many experts had selected to dethrone them as Eastern Conference champions.

Quarterback Charley Johnson of the Cardinals threw six touchdown passes while his teammates intercepted six Browns' aeriels and this pretty much told the tale of the game. Frank Ryan suffered a severe bruise of his left foot in the first period and never played in the second half.

Late in the first period, St. Louis grabbed the lead on a stirring pass play that covered 78 yards when fullback Willis Crenshaw grabbed a Johnson pass and galloped through the Browns' secondary.

The Browns narrowed the margin later in the quarter on Lou Groza's 34-yard field goal, the 200th of his illustrious career. Ryan's 13-yard TD pass to Gary Collins put the Browns ahead early in the second quarter.

However, less than two minutes later, the Cards went ahead to stay on Johnson's 32-yard pass to Sonny Randle. Three more touchdowns by the Cardinals in the second period followed quickly to give them a 35-10 halftime lead. Bill Triplett tallied on a four-yard plunge and Randle and Bobby Joe Conrad caught passes from Johnson to account for these scores.

Groza's 47-yard field goal and Johnson touchdown passes to Billy Gambrell and Randle concluded the day's scoring in the second half.

Sun., Oct. 3 Browns 35, Eagles 17 (60,759) at Phila.

Although Frank Ryan and linebackers Galen Fiss and Vince Costello were out of action due to injuries, the Browns bounced back in the final period to win.

Cleveland trailed, 17 to 14, with less than seven minutes remaining when the Eagles halted a Browns' march and forced Gary Collins to punt. Timmy Brown fumbled the kick and Sidney Williams, filling in for Fiss, pounced on the ball on the Eagles' two-yard line from where Jim Brown roared across for a touchdown. The Browns then broke the game open by intercepting two passes which were quickly converted into scores. Ross Fichtner snared one pass and returned it 32 yards for a TD and Larry Benz intercepted shortly thereafter to set up Jim Brown's third touchdown of the day.

Philadelphia was first to score in the game when Pete Retzlaff took a short pass from King Hill who entered the game in the first period after Norm Snead sustained a badly bruised knee.

Jim Brown's 106th touchdown of his career, which established a new NFL mark, followed a few minutes later in the second period to even the score. Dave Lloyd kicked a 42-yard field goal to give Philadelphia a 10-7 lead at the intermission.

Jim Ninowski, who did a good job subbing for injured Ryan, sent Cleveland ahead in the third period with a 13-yard scoring pass to Collins but Hill's two-yard pass to Earl Gros put the Eagles ahead early in the final canto.

Lou Groza, holder of oodles of NFL records, added another spot for himself in the record book by playing in his 177th game. The old mark of 176 was set in 1964 by Y. A. Tittle.

Sat. night, Oct. 9 Browns 24, Steelers 19 (80,187) at Cleve.

Last minute heroics were needed for the Browns to surge from behind in a game played under very adverse weather conditions and with four regulars on the injured list.

Frank Ryan returned to action after one week's absence and his 14-yard pass to Gary Collins with only 44 seconds remaining settled the issue in the usual hard-fought battle between the Browns and Steelers.

Another hero of this bruising affair, played on a mucky field in a driving rainstorm, was halfback Leroy Kelly who gained 67 yards on the ground and 60 yards via passes. His two long gains in the Browns' 78-yard march to their winning touchdown were highly important.

The Browns started off well and held a first period 10-0 lead on Lou Groza's 38-yarder and Jim Brown's touchdown after taking a short toss from Ryan.

Bill Nelsen's one-yard sneak in the second period and Dick Hoak's 42-yard jaunt in the third period put Pittsburgh ahead. Jim Brown's second touchdown of the game which climaxed a 79-yard march sent Cleveland to the fore, 17 to 12.

The complexion of the game changed rapidly, however, on rookie Roy Jefferson's spectacular runback of a Cleveland punt for 67 yards. This brought the ball to the Browns' 26 and four plays later Hoak rammed across for his second touchdown at 3:57 of the final period.

Then came Cleveland's game-winning march, highlights of which were 22 and 18-yard gains by Kelly.

Sun., Oct. 17 Browns 23, Cowboys 17 (80,432) at Cleve.

This game actually wasn't as close as the final score indicated but the Cowboys did manage to give the Browns a scare in the final minutes.

The Browns built up a 17-0 lead just before the half on Jim Brown's 10-yard touchdown run and Lou Groza's 48-yard field goal in the first period plus Frank Ryan's 29-yard pass to Walt Roberts in the second quarter. Another Cleveland touchdown—a 59-yard scoring pass from Ryan to Gary Collins—was nullified by a penalty.

Dallas, however, got back into the game with less than four minutes of the half remaining on Danny Villanueva's 16-yard field goal and Don Meredith's five-yard touchdown pass to Pettis Norman.

Two more Groza field goals made the score 23-10 entering the final period. That was it until Pete Gent took a 20-yard scoring pass from Meredith with 1:17 remaining to conclude the scoring.

With a record of four wins and one loss, the Browns remained deadlocked with St. Louis for first place in the Eastern Conference.

Sun., Oct. 24 Browns 38, Giants 14 (62,864) at New York

Everything fell into place for the first time this season as the Browns rolled to their most impressive victory of the year. By winning, Cleveland took over lone possession of first place as St. Louis dropped a 24-20 decision to Washington.

Jim Brown, as is particularly the case when the Browns and Giants tangle, was superb as he gained 177 yards and averaged 7.4 yards per carry. The club's total yardage for the afternoon was a hefty 526 yards.

Lou Groza opened the scoring with a field goal but just before the first period ended, New York went ahead when its star young rookie, Tucker Fredrickson, bulled across on a one-yard plunge.

Cleveland built up a commanding lead in the second quarter as Walt Roberts twice fooled veteran defender Dick Lynch to catch touchdown passes from Frank Ryan.

In the third period, Gary Collins scored when Brown hurled a 39-yard pass on the option play and later Brown himself took a short touchdown pass from Ryan to make the score 31-7 entering the last quarter.

Ernie Green's short plunge and Chuck Mercein's two-yard run finished the day's scoring.

Ryan, with three touchdown passes and 10 completions in 15 attempts, had his best day of the year. Brown went over the 100-yard rushing mark for the fourth time in 1965.

Sun., Oct. 31 Vikings 27, Browns 17 (83,505) at Cleve.

Quarterback Fran Tarkenton lived up to his advance notices as the Vikings downed the ailing Browns in the first meeting ever between the two clubs. Although linebacker Jim Houston and defensive halfback Erich Barnes had to leave the game in the first half because of injuries, the Browns' defensive unit performed nobly in keeping the game from becoming a runaway.

Lou Groza's field goal opened the scoring, the three-pointer being set up on a 67-yard pass from Frank Ryan to Gary Collins. Bill Brown gave the Vikings their initial TD on a one-yard smash late in the period. Leroy Kelly's recovery of a fumbled punt paved the way for Cleveland's first touchdown in the second period which came on Ernie Green's short plunge.

On the very first play after the kickoff, Tarkenton passed to Tommy Mason who romped 72 yards for a score. Toward the end of the half, Tarkenton gave his team a commanding 21-10 lead with a short toss to Brown.

The Browns' defense halted Minnesota in the third period but Cleveland could not mount an offense of its own. Early in the fourth period, Fred Cox gave Minnesota a 24-10 lead with a 30-yard field goal.

Here Jim Ninowski entered the game. He sparked a 76-yard march that brought Cleveland its second touchdown, Jim Brown going the final yard to score. Tarkenton, however, brought his mates back down the field to set up another field goal by Cox with slightly over a minute remaining to put the game out of reach.

Sun., Nov. 7 Browns 38, Eagles 34 (72,807) at Cleve.

Their defense crippled by injuries, the Browns had to come from behind on five different occasions before squeezing out victory in the most exciting home game of the season.

Gary Collins was the game's hero, enjoying one of the finest days of his career as he caught eight passes for 128 yards and two TD's. Late in the contest, Gary suffered a dislocated and badly lacerated finger which handicapped him for the next few games.

Tim Brown of the Eagles gained 186 yards rushing and Pete Retzlaff snared seven passes for 151 yards and three touchdowns to spark Philadelphia.

Brown's 54-yard run gave the Eagles an early lead but Collins equallized this when he caught a short pass from Frank Ryan. Near the end of the period, Retzlaff took a six-yard pass from Norm Snead but Jim Brown's seven-yard scoring run early in the second quarter tied the score.

Again the Eagles went ahead, this time on a Sam Baker field goal, but Jim Brown's second touchdown of the period on a 32-yard pass from Ryan enabled the Browns to own a 21-17 halftime lead.

Retzlaff's second touchdown on a pass from Snead for 39 yards put the Eagles ahead in the third period. Lou Groza's 49-yard field goal, his longest of the season, again tied the score but Baker's 39-yarder moved the Eagles into the lead for the fifth time. In the waning seconds of the period, Jim Brown scored his third touchdown on a one-yard run and Cleveland led, 31-27 going into the final period.

The Browns got a break when George Tarasovic ran into Collins as the latter punted on fourth down after the Eagles had held for downs early in the final quarter. Cleveland maintained possession and marched to a touchdown that came on Ryan's seven-yard pass to Collins.

Philadelphia came back to make it close again when Snead passed 28 yards to Retzlaff but this concluded the scoring.

Sun., Nov. 14 Browns 34, Giants 21 (82,426) at Cleve.

Ernie Green caught six passes for 158 yards in the first half and Jim Brown ground out 93 yards in the second half as the Browns stretched their margin over St. Louis to two games. Brown romped for 156 yards during the entire game to pass the 1,000-yard mark for the seventh time in nine seasons.

With Gary Collins bothered by his mangled fingers, Frank Ryan chose to use Green as his favorite target and his 26-yard aerial to the Browns' half-back opened the scoring in the initial period. The Giants bounced right back to score with Aaron Thomas taking a 21-yard pass from Earl Morrall.

The Browns then moved 77 yards to go ahead on Brown's short run but 69 of the yards came when Green caught a short pass from Ryan. Groza's field goal in the second period gave Cleveland a 17-7 margin. Homer Jones scored New York's second TD near the end of the half by taking a pass from Morrall and racing for a 79-yard TD.

Brown tallied on a four-yard run in the third period but Bobby Crespino caught Morrall's two-yard pass in the end zone to make things close once more.

Brown's third touchdown of the day and Groza's 37-yard field goal in the final period gave the Browns their final points. The victory was the Browns' fourth straight in two years over their traditional foe.

Sun., Nov. 21 Browns 24, Cowboys 17 (76,251) at Dallas

A record Cotton Bowl crowd of 76,251 watched the Browns win to up their conference lead to three games. It was also the team's 10th win over the Cowboys in 11 meetings.

After a scoreless first period, the Cowboys broke the ice on Danny Villanueva's 10-yard field goal. The Browns then came up with a field goal and two touchdowns on Jim Brown's three-yard run and Leroy Kelly's 67-yard punt return.

Brown's short run was one of his greatest in a career highlighted by so many sparkling plays. It was fourth down and one yard to go at the Dallas three-yard line when Jim took a handoff and swung to his left.

Three opponents penetrated Cleveland's blocking to force Jim deep. Linebacker Dave Edwards actually had Brown in his clutches at the 5. Brown broke the tackle, saved his balance by touching the ground with his right hand and reached the end zone with a lunge.

The teams exchanged scores in the third quarter on a Don Meredith-Pettis

Norman pass and a Frank Ryan to Gary Collins aerial. Bob Hayes, the Cowboys' rookie sensation, narrowed the gap in the final period with a 45-yard TD pass from Meredith. Later the Cowboys had a first down on the Browns' 1 but Vince Costello grabbed Meredith's first down pass attempt to save the day.

Sun., Nov. 28 Browns 42, Steelers 21 (42,757) at Pitts.

With St. Louis losing to Philadelphia, the Browns clinched their second straight Eastern Conference title on a second half outburst after the Steelers had limited them to one score in the first half.

Leroy Kelly's 56-yard punt return for a touchdown early in the second period accounted for the lone score of the first half.

Jim Brown came through with the first of his four touchdowns of the game on a two-yard run early in the third period and plunged two yards seven minutes later to make the score 21-0. Brown had set the stage for his initial tally with a 67-yard jaunt around end, his longest trip of 1965.

Bill Nelsen put Pittsburgh on the board with the first of three long scoring passes of the game, an 87-yard play to Gary Ballman.

In the final period, Brown ran 15 yards for his third TD which was offset by Nelsen's pass to Jim Butler good for 43 yards and a score. Jim Ninowski passed to Johnny Brewer for Cleveland's next score but Nelsen collaborated with Clendon Thomas on an 80-yard scoring pass. A Ninowski to Brown pass for 27 yards accounted for Cleveland's last score.

Sun., Dec. 5 Browns 24, Redskins 16 (77,765) at Cleve.

Performing like true champions, the Browns overcame a nine-point half-time deficit to conclude their home season on a victorious note.

The defensive unit didn't permit a score in the final two periods and didn't allow the enemy beyond the Cleveland 47-yard mark until the final minute.

Jim Brown's 20th touchdown of the year in the final two minutes clinched the game and also tied the NFL record held by Baltimore's Lenny Moore.

Charley Taylor opened the scoring in the first period on a two-yard run but Bob Jencks' extra point effort was blocked. Gary Collins took a seven-yard pass in the end zone from Frank Ryan halfway through the second period and Lou Groza converted to put Cleveland ahead. However, Washington scored twice in the final minute of the period on Sonny Jurgensen's six-yard pass to Pat Richter and Jencks' field goal.

A 42-yard field goal by Groza in the third period narrowed the gap and early in the final period, Ryan threw a 14-yard pass to Tom Hutchinson who made a fine catch in the end zone for Cleveland's go-ahead score.

Sun., Dec. 12 Rams 42, Browns 7 (49,048) at L. A.

Quarterback Roman Gabriel of the Rams proved too much for the Browns who sustained their third setback of the year and their first in a regular season game with Los Angeles.

Gabriel threw five touchdown passes as the Rams led throughout after Marlin McKeever caught Gabriel's five-yard pass in the end zone near the end of the first period.

Willie Brown took a 22-yard aerial in the second period for the Rams' second score and Gabriel's 46-yard heave to Tommy McDonald netted another minutes later. Ernie Green caught a three-yard pass from Jim Ninowski, who went all the way in this game at quarterback for the Browns, to cut the deficit.

Cleveland couldn't get its offense going on the field made slippery by heavy rains throughout the game but the condition of the field failed to hamper Gabriel who threw two more touchdown passes to McDonald and scored once himself in the second half.

The game marked the first appearance in a regular season game by Cleveland's sophomore star, Paul Warfield, who had fractured his collar bone in the College All Star Game on August 6. The speedy flanker, however, reinjured his clavicle shortly after he entered the game although the injury was not serious.

Sun., Dec. 19 Browns 24, Cardinals 21 (29,348) at St. Louis

The Browns managed to defeat the Cardinals for the first time in five games, rallying to win in the final period after dissipating a 17-point lead amassed in the first half.

Cleveland had to play the entire second half minus two of its biggest scoring guns as Gary Collins suffered a rib injury early in the game and Jim Brown was ousted by an official just before the half after an altercation with Joe Robb.

Collins took a 13-yard TD pass from Frank Ryan in the first period and Brown's three-yard plunge and Lou Groza's 44-yarder in the second period made it 17-0. Just before the half, however, Larry Wilson picked off a Ryan pass and raced 95 yards for the Cards' first score.

With Collins and Brown on the sidelines, Cleveland's attack bogged down in the third period. St. Louis came to life and tied the score on Terry Nofsinger's short touchdown run and Jim Bakken's field goal.

In the final period, Nofsinger passed to Bill Triplett to send St. Louis into the lead. Groza's 45-yarder later made it 24-20 and Ryan's 24-yard pass to Tom Hutchinson with less than five minutes remaining clinched it.

Sun., Jan. 2 Packers 23, Browns 12 (50,852) at Green Bay

The Green Bay running attack, which features power off-tackle plunges, was better able to cope with the slippery field than were the Browns whose end sweeps were nullified by the sudden snow that fell the morning of the game.

After an evenly played first half, the Packers prevailed during the final two periods as they held the Browns scoreless while adding a touchdown and field goal to dethrone the Browns as World Champions.

Green Bay took the opening kickoff and scored with less than four minutes gone. The touchdown came on a 47-yard pass play when Walter Beach, defending against Carroll Dale, slipped on the wet turf. Dale took Bart Starr's pass on the 13-yard line and raced in for a touchdown.

Cleveland roared back to tally a touchdown in three plays. Frank Ryan passed to Jim Brown for 30 yards, to Paul Warfield for 19 and then threw a 17-yard pass to Gary Collins in the end zone. Collins faked Herb Adderley very cleverly on this play to break free.

However, on the try for extra point, the ball was fumbled and Green Bay led, 7 to 6. Cleveland held for downs on the next kickoff and Don Chandler's kick was downed on his own 39. The Browns moved to the Packers' 17 and Groza's 24-yard field goal sent Cleveland ahead, 9 to 7.

Early in the second period, the first of Chandler's three field goals, a 15-yarder, sent Green Bay ahead. Minutes later, a 23-yard field goal by Chandler made it 13-9.

Late in the period, Beach intercepted Starr's pass to set up a 28-yard Groza field goal which made the score 13-12 at halftime.

A 90-yard Packer march that consumed better than half the third period accounted for Green Bay's second and final touchdown of the game. Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung featured this drive with Hornung finally scoring on a 13-yard off tackle play.

Green Bay's rugged defense thwarted the Browns while Taylor and Hornung spearheaded another Packer march in the final period which was culminated on Chandler's 29-yard field goal.

With slightly less than five minutes remaining, the Browns held Green Bay deep in Packer territory but a roughing the punter penalty on fourth down ended Cleveland's hopes.
