ARTHUR B. MODELL, President

Born: June 23, 1925 at Brooklyn, New York

Art Modell is a man of action. He thrives on challenges. So he is facing the 1971 National Football League season with renewed zest and enthusiasm.

His immediate object is to see the Browns as champions of the Central Division of the American Football Conference. The ultimate goal, of course, is a spot in the Super Bowl.

No Cleveland football follower would bet against his achievement of both objectives. His success since taking over the club has been such that the fans, even if they don't agree with a move, are willing to go along because of it.

The Browns' boss is an innovator. If there were any doubts about this, they must have vanished in the spring of 1969 when he broke a deadlock among NFL owners. He agreed to move the Browns, one of the powers of the NFL, over to what had been the American Football League side of the fence.

The lengthy problem of realignment was solved. The move enabled the merger of the two leagues to go ahead smoothly.

It wasn't a popular shift at first but the rugged competition of the 1970 season sold most of the fans on the switch. The games against Cincinnati and Pittsburgh were highlights of Central Division play and the Houston Oilers could be on their way to becoming a big attraction on the shores of Lake Erie.

The switch to the American Conference was not unsimilar to the leap taken back in 1961. That's when he decided to sell his interest in a lucrative New York advertising agency and purchase the Browns.

Since that time, interest in the Browns has soared. Attendance at mammoth Cleveland Stadium has steadily increased. The season ticket sale, which was 17,000 in 1961, has been over 50,000 in 1970 and 1971. Ticket locations have been left in wills, disputed in divorce suits.

During one recent stretch the Browns ran up a string of 17 consecutive home games attended by more than 80,000. That means standing room only since the Stadium has only 79,282 seats.

One of Modell's first innovations was the novel and daring pre-season doubleheader, something new in the game. There was some scoffing as the Browns' president first tried to line up teams for the initial one in 1962.

The late summer attraction proved an instant success, however. Nine double bills have attracted over 700,000 fans and have proved a fine springboard to each new season.

Since moving into pro football, Modell has been a vital factor in the growth and prosperity of the game. He served as president of the NFL from May of 1967 until relinquishing the post in March of 1970. Those were turbulent but progressive years.

Art has made Cleveland his home since first taking over the Browns and has become an active force in the community. His prime concern for the fans and their convenience has been evidenced by his continuing efforts to gain improvements at the Cleveland Stadium.

Joining Modell as a full-time activist in the community has been the former Patricia Breslin of television and film fame. They were married on July 25, 1969. They have two sons, John 11, and David 10, from Mrs. Modell's previous marriage. The Modells reside in the Cleveland suburb of Shaker Heights.

NICK SKORICH, Head Coach

8th Season with Browns, 23rd in Coaching

Born June 26, 1921 at Bellaire, Ohio

Graduated University of Cincinnati '43

The changing of the guard is quite an event with the Cleveland Browns. Which, in turn, makes Nick Skorich a unique man in his profession.

Skorich is only the third person to be head coach of the Browns in a team history dating back to 1946. It has been an illustrious history, too, highlighted at numerous points by league, conference and division championships.

Skorich is fully aware of the size of the task he inherited from Blanton Collier this year. He has a foundation of 22 years coaching experience, knows the personnel, knows the problems and knows about Cleveland's winning tradition.

"I fundamentally believe in aggressiveness both offensively and defensively, a team on the attack either way," says Skorich in explaining his basic approach to pro football.

"Rushing is the basis of establishing a balanced attack. You must make the other team aware that you can hurt them running. That sets up the passing attack. If the defensive team feels it can rush the passer without fear of the run, it hurts you.

"On the other hand, a strong defensive unit is a vital key to real success for any team. That was underlined in all the playoffs right up to and through the Super Bowl last winter. It's almost impossible to come up with a strong enough offense to overcome a great defense. A team must have turnovers provided by the defense."

Such is the philosophy of Cleveland's new field boss, a man with a gravel voice and somewhat gruff looking exterior but at the same time understanding, considerate and totally dedicated to his life's work.

There is another side to coaching, too, and Skorich expresses it this way: "I think players must be emotionally inspired. I'd say 75 percent of pro football is emotion. Players have to be driven in some cases.

"That drive has to start with the coaching staff, then picked up by the leaders who occur. It will grow from the players—we have to develop it."

Skorich joined the Browns in 1964, the year they last won the National Football League title. He coached the defensive line for four years, then moved over and took charge of the offensive backfield and overall offensive planning. Only two clubs in the NFL scored more points than the Browns in 1969.

Skorich was a lineman throughout his playing career and he still has a rugged, down-in-the-trenches appearance. His approach to coaching is along the same lines, as the Browns' players have discovered from the first day of training camp.

"I believe in a lot of aggressive, physical work," says Skorich. "I intend to practice longer and tougher and it will carry into the season."

Although the Browns finished 7-7 last season, Skorich said, "I don't think we're too far away from being champions. A major shakeup isn't necessary, although some areas need fortification. If there is any area of no great concern, it's the defensive line."

So that is Skorich, the coach. But what about Skorich, the man?

A totally different picture comes into focus in scrutinizing life away from the football field for Skorich, although he seldom is very far away or for very long.

Fishing and gardening are his favorite forms of relaxation along with being just an everyday, devoted family man. Except for a brief annual "men only" fishing expedition to Canada, all of Nick's activities are in the company of wife, Teresa, and daughters, Joanne Marie and Paula Jean. The Skoriches live in suburban Brecksville, Ohio, a short trip from downtown Cleveland.

"My fishing days go back to when I was a youngster," says Skorich. "I was raised along the Ohio River (Bellaire, Ohio) and spent a good part of my time going after catfish and carp. Now I love trout fishing best."

Each June when Skorich returns from Canada, the family immediately goes on another fishing trip. Last year it was to the East Coast, the previous summer to Yellowstone Park. Last Christmas, just before Nick was named head coach, the Skoriches went ice fishing in Michigan.

As for the gardening, Nick says, "I grow a lot of little vegetables, flowers and evergreens. It's very relaxing and enjoyable working around the yard. I look forward to spring every year."

Skorich came up the hard way and long ago learned to appreciate life and any successes he found. His father, Peter, was a coal miner for 35 years. The depression hit hard and when Nick was a sophomore in high school his father was permanently disabled by a leg injury.

Being the second oldest of nine children, much of the burden of providing for the family fell on Nick's shoulders. "Construction jobs, work around the coal mines, bridge painting, bartending, concrete worker, sweeping streets, gas station attendant — you name it, I've tried it," he says.

The mostly physical jobs had their compensations, other than monetary. They taught him responsibility, for one thing. "And they helped build my strength," he says. "It made me capable of competing with people my age."

In sports, that included summer baseball on a city team and football, basketball and track in high school. He started as a center and was a 5-9, 170-pounder upon graduation. At the University of Cincinnati he played guard at 195 pounds, finishing as team captain with All-Ohio and All-American mention.

It was while at Cincinnati that Skorich first began to think about coaching as a career, although all football had to be set aside when he went into the Navy in 1943. Three years later he came out a commissioned officer and decided to give pro football a try with the Pittsburgh Steelers, who had drafted him.

"I was at 193 with the Steelers, but that was in the era of the single wing," says Skorich. "There wouldn't be a place for me as a pro player now. I would be too small for a lineman or linebacker and too slow for running back or defensive back."

After three years as a pro player, Skorich moved into coaching with Pittsburgh Central Catholic High School as the starting point. He stepped up to head coach at Rensselaer Poly in Troy, N.Y., in 1953 and returned to the Steelers as line coach from 1954 through 1957.

Skorich became Green Bay's offensive line coach and boss of the Packers' overall offense in 1958, then was put in charge of Philadelphia's running game in 1959 and 1960. When Buck Shaw retired, Skorich was promoted to head coach of the Eagles in 1961.

The Eagles posted a 10-4 record in 1961 and missed the conference title by a half-game, but a series of crippling injuries to key players led to losing seasons the next two years and a change of ownership ended his Philadelphia chapter after 1963.

It was then that Skorich was hired by Collier, the man he now is succeeding. Nick had other offers, but says, "I was most impressed with the Browns' organization. Knowing the personnel, I thought it would be a good place to coach. I'd heard a lot of good things about Blanton, the assistant coaches and the ownership."

In naming Skorich, Browns president Art Modell said, "I believe in continuity, succession and growth from within."

I like Nick's style. He is good people.

"Ever since he started his seven-year tenure with the Browns, I observed him, got to know him and found him very qualified to coach the Browns.

"He is a man of high character, God-fearing and religious. That is a sign of inner strength and conviction."

So that's Skorich, the coach and the man. More than likely you will find him puffing on one of his several dozen pipes and in the late spring and early summer you may encounter him on the golf course hacking away with the style of a typical occasional linksman that produces scores between 90 and 110.

"When training camp opens, the clubs go into the closet," says Skorich. He also says of the Browns this year and in coming seasons, "We must win. I intend to win. I hope to be here a long time, something like 10 years."

The message and the intent are loud and clear.

HAROLD SAUERBREI, General Manager

Born: March 28, 1916 at Berea, Ohio

Ever since the Browns were organized, Harold Sauerbrei has been involved with the football team. He started with them in that summer of 1946 as a sports writer for The Plain Dealer sent to the Bowling Green University training camp.

Sauerbrei had only a short time previously returned from service with the United States Navy when he was tapped for coverage of the new football squad. Cleveland then was a member of the old All-America Conference.

The general manager has seen every game involving the Browns either as a newspaper reporter or as a member of the club's front office. That is a distinction shared only with the team's equipment manager, Morrie Kono.

Sauerbrei's coverage of the club through the first eight years of its existence won him the respect of other reporters around the league as well as players and coaches. Some of his old time associates still call him "Scoop" on occasion.

Thus when Paul Brown needed a public relations director in 1954 he approached Sauerbrei about the post. The late Russ Gestner had been promoted to business manager to create the opening.

Upon the death of Gestner in 1961, Sauerbrei took over his duties. Subsequently he was appointed general manager by Art Modell in 1963 and also serves as one of the team's vice presidents.

A deliberate, soft-spoken person with a sense of humor, Sauerbrei has a depth of experience in professional football. His opinions on a variety of matters are highly valued not only by Modell but also by other executives in the National Football League.

The Browns' general manager started out in the newspaper business with a weekly paper in Berea after a brief stint at Baldwin-Wallace College. He moved to The Plain Dealer after one of his columns won him an award from the Ohio Newspaper Publishers Association. During part of the time that he covered the Browns, he also handled the scholastic beat for that morning newspaper.

Sauerbrei resides in Aurora, a community some 25 miles southeast of Cleveland, with his wife Virginia and their three children. He also has an older son, Tom, and three grandchildren who now live in Fresno, California.

Golf is his hobby and he consistently shoots in the low 80's although the press of Browns' business keeps him from the links through most of the summer months.

THE COACHES

HOWARD BRINKER

Coach, Over-All Defense

BIRTHDATE—March 31, 1914
BIRTHPLACE—Canal Fulton, Ohio
COLLEGE—Miami (O.) '39
SEASONS IN COACHING—30
SEASONS WITH BROWNS—20

Howard Brinker long has been regarded as one of the soundest defensive coaches in professional football. He's a master at teaching the wide variety of man-to-man, zone and combination pass defenses used today.

The one-time Miami of Ohio center has the complete respect of the players with his quiet, scholarly manner. He believes in adapting his defenses to the material at hand and among the more recent players he has developed are Mike Howell, Ernie Kellermann, Ben Davis and Walt Sumner.

Howard began his playing career on Paul Brown's first Massillon teams. After completing his collegiate career at Miami, he moved into the coaching ranks at the junior high level in Massillon in 1939.

He was head coach at Steubenville (O.) High School in 1941-42, spent 1943-45 in the Army, and returned to Steubenville for three more years. In 1949, he moved to Ohio University as line coach.

Brinker came to the Browns in 1952 as assistant coach and chief scout. He was put in charge of overall defensive strategy when Blanton Collier departed for Kentucky in 1954.

Howard has a Master's Degree in Physical Education from Ohio State and plays golf as a hobby. He married Mary Constant, October 7, 1939, and has two sons, David and William. The Brinkers reside in Shaker Heights, Ohio.

HOWARD KEYS

Coach, Offensive Backfield

BIRTHDATE—January 24, 1935
BIRTHPLACE—Orlando, Okla.
COLLEGE—Oklahoma State '59
SEASONS IN COACHING—7
SEASONS WITH BROWNS—3

Howard joined the Browns in 1969 as assistant to personnel director Paul Bixler and was put in charge of the club's offensive backfield last year. He had a fine record as an offensive coach during four seasons with Calgary in the Canadian League before coming to Cleveland.

The former offensive lineman was a standout as a player at Oklahoma State and later with the Philadelphia Eagles until his retirement in 1965. He taught and coached for one season at Eloy (Arizona) High School before joining the Eagles.

Howard married Jacquelyn Holland, January 2, 1954, and has four children: David, Elizabeth, Michael and Kathy. The Keys reside in Twinsburg, Ohio, about 15 miles southeast of Cleveland.

RICHIE McCABE

Coach, Defensive Backfield

BIRTHDATE—March 12, 1934
BIRTHPLACE—Pittsburgh, Pa.
COLLEGE—Pittsburgh '54
SEASONS IN COACHING—8
SEASONS WITH BROWNS—1

Head coach Nick Skorich lined up an old adversary when he hired Richie McCabe to be one of two new assistants on his staff. McCabe had been a star performer at North Catholic High School in Pittsburgh when Skorich was coaching at Central Catholic in the Steel City.

After a six-year career as a defensive back in both professional leagues with Pittsburgh, Washington and Buffalo, McCabe began his coaching career at Carnegie Tech in 1964. In 1966, he joined the Buffalo Bills' staff and his coaching talents were quickly recognized. Following three seasons with Buffalo, he transferred to the Oakland Raiders in 1969 and then joined the Browns this past winter. His scholarly-like appearance belies the aggressive attitude he displayed as a player and what he now demands as a coach.

He married Judith Hanlon, October 20, 1968. They have a daughter, Kelly Kathleen, born late last year. His home is in Solon, Ohio.

DICK MODZELEWSKI

Coach, Defensive Line

BIRTHDATE—February 16, 1931
BIRTHPLACE—West Natrona, Pa.
COLLEGE—Maryland '53
SEASONS IN COACHING—4
SEASONS WITH BROWNS—7

Dick still has all the enthusiasm and dedication he displayed as a player, along with the ability to transmit them to the men he coaches. He enjoys teaching by example on occasion and usually carries the bruises to prove it. Personalized coaching is one of his trademarks.

When Nick Skorich became head coach of the Browns last winter he cited the defensive line as one of the club's strongest points and most of the credit goes to Dick. He helped in the development of Walter Johnson and more recently has brought along young Jack Gregory, Jerry Sherk and Joe Jones.

Dick spent the last three seasons of his outstanding 14-year playing career with the Browns after being obtained from the New York Giants in a 1964 trade. Receiver Bobby Crespino went to the Giants in the deal for one of the game's most respected defensive tackles.

Affectionately dubbed "Little Mo," he proved invaluable to the Browns from the start in helping them drive to the Eastern Conference and NFL titles that first year. Later, at the time of his retirement after the 1966 campaign, he had a record string of 180 consecutive pro games to his credit.

Dick was drafted out of Maryland by the Washington Redskins in 1953, traded to Pittsburgh in 1955 and went to the Giants a year later. He was a member of New York's famed "Fearsome Foursome" defensive line for many seasons. Brother Ed, nicknamed "Big Mo," preceded him to the Browns as a fullback from 1955 through 1959.

Dick married Dorothy Welsh, January 23, 1954, and has four children: Mark, Laurie, Terry and Amie. The Modzelewskis reside in South Euclid, Ohio.

BOB NUSSBAUMER

Coach, Receivers

BIRTHDATE—April 23, 1924

BIRTHPLACE—Oak Park, Ill.

COLLEGE—Michigan '46

SEASONS IN COACHING—15

SEASONS WITH BROWNS—7

Bob, nicknamed "Hawk," has become an excellent tutor of receivers and was important in the rapid development of tight ends Milt Morin and Chip Glass and wide receiver Fair Hooker. He also was greatly instrumental in the steady improvement of Paul Warfield and Gary Collins over the years.

He came to the Browns in 1965 as a scout after gaining recognition as one of pro football's top talent sleuths with the Detroit Lions. Eight of his 12 years with the Lions were spent coaching receivers. His scouting ability hasn't been forgotten by the Browns, since he still does occasional ivory hunting on college campuses.

Bob was a three-sport star at Michigan following graduation from Oak Park (Ill.) High Schools. He hauled in 47 passes for the Washington Redskins as a rookie in 1946 and two years later intercepted 12 passes as a defensive back with the Chicago Cardinals.

An injury ended his playing career in 1951 while with Green Bay, but the Cardinals signed him as promotion director. In 1954 he switched to Detroit as director of player personnel.

Son, John, is an all around athlete and is in his third year at the Air Force Academy. He played with the Falcons in the Sugar Bowl game last January. Bob married Marie Murray, June 27, 1947, and the family resides in Aurora, Ohio.

RAY PROCHASKA

Coach, Offensive Line and Offensive Co-Ordinator

BIRTHDATE—August 9, 1919

BIRTHPLACE—Ulysses, Neb.

COLLEGE—Nebraska '41

SEASONS IN COACHING—25

SEASONS WITH BROWNS—1

Ray Prochaska is one of two new aides Nick Skorich appointed to his staff following his designation as the Browns' new head coach.

Last year Prochaska (the "c" is silent) rounded out 25 years of coaching and is recognized as one of the bright offensive minds of the NFL. After nine seasons at his alma mater, Nebraska, he joined the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian League in 1954. When Eskimos' head coach Frank Ivy took over with the Chicago, later the St. Louis Cardinals, Prochaska moved with him. He was offensive coach for eight years with the Cardinals, then went to the Los Angeles Rams in 1966. He came to the Browns from the Rams.

A 1941 graduate of Nebraska, Prochaska was an offensive end for three seasons with the Cornhuskers, capping his career by playing in the 1941 Rose Bowl Game. After one season with the Cleveland Rams, he entered the Army for four and a half years.

Ray married JoAnn Macoy, November 10, 1943, and they have four children: Craig, Mark, Judy and Scott. He and his family reside in Brecksville, Ohio.

ED ULINSKI

FILM COORDINATOR

BIRTHDATE — December 7, 1919

BIRTHPLACE — Pittsburgh, Pa.

COLLEGE — Marshall

SEASONS WITH BROWNS — 18

Ed Ulinski takes over new duties this year as the man in charge of the Browns' films. He will handle the film exchange with other teams and work on the breakdown of the Browns' game films.

Eddie was a small but rugged guard with the Browns from 1946 through 1949. He coached at Santa Clara and Purdue University before joining the Browns' staff in 1954.

Ulinski is married to the former Gerry Kelly. They reside in Cleveland Heights with their two children.

PAUL O. BIXLER

PLAYER PERSONNEL DIRECTOR

BIRTHDATE — January 25, 1907

BIRTHPLACE — Louisville, Ohio

COLLEGE — Mt. Union

SEASONS WITH BROWNS — 18

A strong draft has been a vital factor in the Browns' consistency over the years. Bixler has been important in this department as head of the scouting system for more than a decade. He is on a first name basis with the majority of the college coaches and welcomed on campuses from the Ivy League to the Golden Gate.

Bixler served as head coach at Ohio State and Colgate before joining the Browns as end coach and scout in 1954. He became player personnel director in 1960 and a full time talent sleuth two years later.

Bixler is married to the former Mary Alice Callahan and they reside in Bainbridge, Ohio. They have six children and 14 grandchildren.

BLANTON COLLIER

SPECIAL ASSIGNMENTS

BIRTHDATE — July 2, 1906

BIRTHPLACE — Millerburg, Kentucky

COLLEGE — Georgetown (Ky.)

SEASONS WITH BROWNS — 18

Blanton Collier, head coach of the Browns from 1963 through 1970, has a new assignment with the team he has served for 17 seasons. The genial Kentuckian is a special scout who will work on a variety of assignments.

Rated by many as the finest technician in the game, the coach decided to give up the reins at the end of the 1970 season. The decision came after a very successful tenure as head coach during which the Browns won a National Football League title, four Eastern Conference championships, three Century Division titles and a pair of second place finishes.

Blanton was one of the original Browns' coaches after having been discovered by Paul Brown at Great Lakes during World War II. He left to head the University of Kentucky staff from 1954 through 1961 but was back as Brown's aide in 1962. It was the next season that he became the second head coach in the team's history. He now will tutor the 1971 College All-Stars in addition to scouting.

Collier and his wife, Mary Forman, reside in Aurora, some 27 miles southeast of Cleveland. They have three daughters and six grandchildren.

MIKE NIXON

NFL PERSONNEL SCOUTING

BIRTHDATE — November 21, 1911

BIRTHPLACE — Masontown, Pa.

COLLEGE — Pittsburgh

SEASONS WITH BROWNS — 3

Mike Nixon has concentrated the past two years on scouting veterans on other National Football League teams. He has done this through viewing games live and with the aid of films. The information has been important in game preparations and also when trade talks are in progress.

A veteran of 24 years in the coaching profession, Mike has been head coach with both Pittsburgh and Washington. He was an All-America performer under Jock Sutherland at Pittsburgh and played for both the Brooklyn Dodgers and the Chicago Cardinals. He and his wife Thelma reside in Brecksville, Ohio; they have one daughter.

FRITZ HEISLER

SPECIAL SCOUTING

BIRTHDATE — May 18, 1915

BIRTHPLACE — Massillon, Ohio

COLLEGE — Miami, Ohio

SEASONS WITH BROWNS — 26

Uncovering good young offensive linemen is one of the most difficult jobs for any pro football team. Fritz Heisler, former offensive line coach and a member of the staff since the team was organized, has been given that assignment.

Heisler began coaching under Paul Brown at Massillon. He moved on to Ohio State with Brown and after a stretch in the Navy joined the Cleveland staff. A regular guard on the first of Massillon's super teams, Heisler filled the same bill at Miami at 155 pounds.

Fritz is married to the former Evelyn Anton. They have four sons, one of whom, Kim, is currently the Ohio Class AA scholastic golf champion. The family home is in Aurora, Ohio.

ERNIE GREEN

COLLEGE SCOUTING

BIRTHDATE — October 15, 1938

BIRTHPLACE — Columbus, Ga.

COLLEGE — Louisville

SEASONS WITH BROWNS — 10

Ernie Green will continue his concentration on the Big Eight Conference. He retired as an active player with the Browns in June, 1969 after a career that spanned seven years.

Noted for his rugged blocking, he also had a sparkling lifetime rushing average of 4.9 yards. This former football and baseball star at the University of Louisville is assistant vice-provost for student services at Case-Western Reserve University and also much in demand as a speaker. He and his wife, Wylene, and their three sons reside in Shaker Heights, Ohio.

LOU GROZA
COLLEGE SCOUTING

BIRTHDATE — January 25, 1924
BIRTHPLACE — Martins Ferry, Ohio
COLLEGE — Ohio State
SEASONS WITH BROWNS — 25

Lou Groza scouts the Big 10. The Toe generally is recognized as the greatest placekicker in the history of the game. When he retired in 1969 after 22 seasons as an active player he had scored 1,603 points. Of that total, 1,349 were in the NFL.

In addition to holding most of the NFL scoring and placekicking records, Groza won fame as a regular offensive tackle. He played the position for 12 years and was All-Pro several times.

Lou is a highly successful insurance counsellor and resides in Berea, Ohio with his wife, Jackie, and four children. The oldest boy, Jeff, entered Ashland College this year.

LEO MURPHY
TRAINER

BIRTHDATE — October 24, 1923
BIRTHPLACE — Elmira, N. Y.
COLLEGE — Notre Dame
SEASONS WITH BROWNS — 22

Leo Murphy joined the Browns in 1950, the year the team entered the National Football League. He has been a valuable member of the staff not only because of his medical knowledge but also because of a sparkling sense of humor.

A 1947 graduate of Notre Dame, he worked with the Chicago Rockets and the New York Yankees before arriving on the Browns' scene. He resides in Lyndhurst with his wife, Betty, and their two children.

MORRIE KONO
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

BIRTHDATE — July 14, 1912
BIRTHPLACE — Cleveland, Ohio
COLLEGE — NONE
SEASONS WITH BROWNS — 26

Morrie Kono is one of the original Browns. He joined the club after five years in the Army Quartermaster Corps in World War II.

A good humor man, Kono has a wealth of stories with which he livens up training camp and practice sessions. He is a bachelor and makes his home in Cleveland.

BILLY ANDREWS — Linebacker

BIRTHDATE—June 14, 1945
BIRTHPLACE—Clinton, La.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (13th in '67)
COLLEGE—Southeastern Louisiana
HIGH SCHOOL—Clinton H. S.
HEIGHT—6-½
WEIGHT—225
YEARS PRO—5

PRO: A vital interception for the clinching touchdown in the 1970 season opener against the New York Jets earned him his first chance to be a full-time performer after three years of waiting . . . picked off a Joe Namath pass and raced 25 yards to wrap up a 31-21 Cleveland victory.

Was given the starting right linebacker assignment the following week and was a steady, dependable performer all season . . . had prepared for the chance by understudying co-captain Jim Houston on the left side his first three pro seasons.

"I was real pleased at the opportunity to prove I can play," was all Andrews said in his typically quiet, reserved way . . . alertness, intelligence and a sure-handed tackling ability more than make up for his rather light weight as a linebacker . . . recovered his fourth enemy fumble last season.

PERSONAL: Married Kathryn Kell Munson of Clinton, La., April 24, 1965 . . . two daughters, Bridget Shaune (6-12-69) and Kathryn Adelle (9-29-70) . . . he and brother operate 2,000 acre beef and dairy farm in Clinton.

ERICH BARNES — Cornerback

BIRTHDATE—July 4, 1935
BIRTHPLACE—Elkhart, Ind.
HOW ACQUIRED—Trade (see bio.)
COLLEGE—Purdue
HIGH SCHOOL—Elkhart H. S.
HEIGHT—6-3
WEIGHT—212
YEARS PRO—14

PRO: One of the more remarkable men in pro football today . . . looks and acts anything but like the oldest player on the Browns with enthusiastic attitude and hard-nosed style of handling defensive backfield assignments.

"Aggressiveness is the only way I know how to play this game," he admits. "I've never played football any other way. Remember, defensive backs have so much to do in such a short period of time. Being a hard-nose helps. Defensive backs have to be able to react in a split second."

Affectionately called "The Old Man" by teammates and is one of the team's unofficial leaders . . . "Show others your desire to keep going, keep driving, the idea of never quitting," says Barnes. "I can't conceive of a player quitting on the field. I know I'm going to do the best I possibly can at all times."

At the age of 36 and starting his 14th pro season, he says, "I really think all football players are aggressive at heart. They almost have to be to play this game. The harder you hit a person, the better it is. It's still a contact sport."

"I figure the rougher I play and the harder I hit the better it is for me. It's true for an individual, or a team" . . . regarding his slam-bang way of handling receivers, he says, "It might give them something else to think about next time they come down-field and give me a better chance."

Led the Browns with five interceptions in 1970 and now has career total of 45 . . . included last year was a 38-yard return for a touchdown in a 15-7 victory over Pittsburgh . . . total return yardage now stands at 853, with seven TD's . . . now tied with Herb Adderley of Dallas for most lifetime TD's on interceptions in NFL . . . tied with Bob Smith of Detroit for longest return in NFL of an intercepted pass, 102 yards against Dallas in 1961.

Also recovered his 10th enemy fumble, a string dating back to his sophomore season as a pro with the Chicago Bears in 1959 . . . was drafted in fourth round by Bears the previous year and traded in 1961 to New York Giants in a three-way deal also involving Los Angeles . . . the Rams got quarterback Zeke Bratkowski from Chicago in exchange for passer Billy Wade, while the Giants sent defensive back Lindon Crow to L.A. and received Barnes and linebacker John Guzik.

Barnes came to Cleveland in another three-way deal in September, 1965 . . . Browns sent linebacker Mike Lucci to Detroit and Lions sent quarterback Earl Morrall to the Giants.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in New York . . . heads Barnes Enterprises, a public relations organization which numbers among its clients several large industrial corporations.

MIKE CILEK — Quarterback

BIRTHDATE—August 7, 1948
BIRTHPLACE—Iowa City, Iowa
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (6th in '70)
COLLEGE—Iowa
HIGH SCHOOL—Iowa City H. S.
HEIGHT—6-1
WEIGHT—205
YEARS PRO—1

Selected in 1970 draft but had to forego football because of college shoulder injury that required surgery and rest ... coaches at Iowa voted him the player who contributed the most to his team as a senior ... this attested to his exceptional qualities as a leader since he was not the regular quarterback ... actually had been used more in his first two seasons at Iowa ... played in 1969 Blue-Gray Game ... was a five sport star in high school ... member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes and president of Iowa chapter of this group plus Lettermen's Club ... married Judith Ann Whipple of Iowa City, December 20, 1968 ... resides in Iowa City.

DON COCKROFT — Kicker

BIRTHDATE—February 6, 1945
BIRTHPLACE—Cheyenne, Wyo.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (3rd in '67)
COLLEGE—Adams State
HIGH SCHOOL—Fountain (Col.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-1
WEIGHT—190
YEARS PRO—4

PRO: "I've relaxed a lot more in my punting and that's a vital part of all kicking."

The only double-duty kicking specialist in pro football proved how right his analysis was by registering by far his best mark yet as a punter ... average of 42.6 yards was seventh highest in the American Conference and topped every kicker in the National Conference ... his 71 punts second only to Horace Gillom's 73 for Browns in 1951.

Also made good on 12 of 22 field goal attempts and led Cleveland in scoring with 70 points, good enough for 10th place in the AFC ... set a personal record with a 71-yard punt against Houston.

"I'd been careful kicking ever since I hurt my knee the very first time I kicked for the Browns my rookie year," said Cockroft. "Now I've got a lot more pop or snap in the leg. I feel I can be a little more reckless. It's a great feeling not to worry about the knee."

The four-year pro was worried prior to training camp a year ago, however. "I was at the point where if the Browns had another punter in camp I was prepared to ask to be allowed to concentrate on field goals if it meant keeping my job. I'm amazed the way everything worked out. The good Lord works in strange ways."

Cockroft is blond and boyish looking and although rather slender in build, has strong kicking power ... longest pro field goal was a 50-yarder against St. Louis in 1968 ... his 45 extra points led the NFL in 1969.

PERSONAL: Married Dianna Gayle Heikes of Fountain, Col., December 19, 1964 ... daughter Michelle Lee (9-7-70) ... is member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes and does much public speaking in connection with this group ... named in 1969 as Colorado's Pro Athlete of Year by State's Sports Hall of Fame ... resides in Fountain.

GARY COLLINS — Wide Receiver

BIRTHDATE—August 20, 1940
BIRTHPLACE—Williamstown, Pa.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (1st in '62)
COLLEGE—Maryland
HIGH SCHOOL—Williamstown H. S.
HEIGHT—6-4
WEIGHT—210
YEARS PRO—10

PRO: Last season was one of those physically torturing ones Collins has learned to expect every so often. And forget, too.

"Except for getting pregnant, I had just about everything," he exclaimed when it was all over . . . in 1968 a shoulder separation shelved him most of the campaign . . . last year he played despite a broken rib in his back and bruised ribs in front, but finally bowed to a case of pleurisy because of the danger of it going into pneumonia.

"I catch the type of passes on which I get clobbered all the time," he points out. "Catching the ball over the middle is rugged, but I've always tried to do a creditable job."

The injuries cost him considerable practice time and some game time in 1970, making his final figures of 26 catches for 351 yards and four touchdowns well below his career average . . . but even after nine pro seasons and all the damage suffered, he's far from ready to hang up his cleats.

BEN DAVIS — Cornerback

BIRTHDATE—October 30, 1945
BIRTHPLACE—Birmingham, Ala.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (17th in '67)
COLLEGE—Defiance
HIGH SCHOOL—Fair Lawn (N. J.) H. S.
HEIGHT—5-11
WEIGHT—185
YEARS PRO—4

PRO: Unwavering determination brought him all the way back after two knee operations in 1969 had placed career in jeopardy . . . activated off taxi squad before the sixth game last season and regained a starting role at right cornerback toward the end of the campaign.

"I didn't do a thing in the off-season except work on my leg," he said in looking back at his post-operative rehabilitation. "Believing I would play again is what kept me going."

Finished off 1970 with his 10th pro interception in final game and could be key man in Browns' plans to inject more speed into the defensive backfield.

"I got a lot of satisfaction with that interception," he admits. "It had been almost two years since I handled the ball like that. I had to dot the "i" to make the catch with both feet in bounds."

"I can think of other good games I've had that meant more, but it meant a lot to me just the same. I'm going to play this next season by ear. I want to be evaluated more as a player than a player with an injured knee. That's all I really want."

Ben has overcome long odds a number of times, including his first time in pro camp in 1967 when he began a drive which earned him recognition as one of the fine young defensive backs in the league . . . although drafted in the last round, he won a starting assignment his second pro season and led the Browns with eight interceptions . . . string of thefts in seven straight games set a club record.

Led the NFL in punt returns with a 12.7-yard average as a rookie and was seventh in kickoff returns with a 26.2 mark . . . first injured knee in third pre-season game in 1969 against San Diego and underwent surgery . . . missed entire 1969 season . . . second operation was necessary late the same year.

PERSONAL: Married Sylvia Easley, January 24, 1970 . . . son, Benjamin Frank III (9-10-70) . . . member of public relations staff of Cleveland Coca-Cola Bottling Co. in off-season . . . owns home in Cleveland Heights, Ohio.

HIGH SCHOOL—LaGrange (Lake Charles, La.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-3
WEIGHT—255
YEARS PRO—5

PRO: Has become one of the better men at his position in three seasons as a regular . . . never had played guard until the Browns moved him over as successor to veteran John Wooten.

Played defense in college and found pass blocking the most difficult part of his assignment when the Browns installed him at offensive tackle as a rookie . . . "You just have to make up your mind to take to the punishment," he says.

His size, strength, quickness and bull-like neck make him resemble the classical pro lineman . . . youngest regular on the Browns' offensive line the last three years.

PERSONAL: Married Barbara Salter of Lake Charles, La., July 16, 1966 . . . three children: John Paul (1-13-68), Rebecca Ann (1-13-69) and David Jared (3-21-71) . . . continued work on his degree and assisted football coaching staff at McNeese State in Lake Charles where he resides.

YEARS PRO—2

PRO: Ready to make a delayed bid for the Browns' roster after missing out last year because of a damaged knee suffered in college . . . was on the taxi squad most of the season and finally underwent surgery for the second time in December.

Potentially one of the biggest, strongest ball carriers Cleveland has had in a long while . . . "I was excited Cleveland was willing to take a chance on me in the draft," he says. "It makes you want to try that much harder."

Browns' personnel man Mike Nixon says, "There's a lot of talent in him. You just take a chance on a man like that and hope he makes it back."

PERSONAL: Averaged almost five yards a carry in college in 1968 and played in the 1967 Bluebonnet Bowl and 1969 Liberty Bowl . . . all-state performer in football and track in high school and majored in marketing in college . . . single, lives in Englewood, Colo.

JOHN GARLINGTON — Linebacker

BIRTHDATE—June 5, 1946
BIRTHPLACE—Jonesboro, La.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (2nd in '68)
COLLEGE—Louisiana State
HIGH SCHOOL—Jonesboro-Hodge H. S.
HEIGHT—6-1
WEIGHT—225
YEARS PRO—4

PRO: Looking forward to a brighter season after encountering problems from several sources last year . . . fastest of the Browns' veteran linebackers and defensive boss Howard Brinker has said, "I don't want to run him against my defensive backs. He might give them an inferiority complex."

Was moved to left linebacker at training camp in 1970 after spending his first two pro seasons on the right side . . . the switching of Jim Houston to the middle was the reason for Garlington returning to his college position at left linebacker.

Was still readjusting when he suffered a pulled hamstring muscle early in the season . . . while off the roster for a month, Houston was returned to the left side, Dale Lindsey moved over into the middle and Billy Andrews took charge of the right side post . . . Garlington backed up Andrews the balance of the season.

Intercepted one pass and recovered one fumble in 1970 . . . agile and a good hitter . . . much help on specialty teams while waiting for chance to win back a regular assignment.

PERSONAL: Married Karon Walker of Jonesboro, La., May 29, 1965 . . . two sons: Moses (6-29-67) and Seth (2-11-69) . . . his home in Jonesboro, La. burned down this past winter and he is planning to build in Lucky, La. . . employed this year by Continental Can Co.

CHARLES "CHIP" GLASS — Tight End

BIRTHDATE—June 25, 1947
BIRTHPLACE—Homestead, Fla.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (3rd in '69)
COLLEGE—Florida State
HIGH SCHOOL—Chamberlain
 (Tampa, Fla.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-4
WEIGHT—240
YEARS PRO—3

PRO: Made great strides his second year in pro ball and, combined with Milt Morin, now gives Cleveland one of the best sets of tight ends in the league . . . "I've been playing enough now so I'm getting the feel of things and pretty much know what I'm doing," says Glass.

Was on the receiving end of the Browns' longest pass play of 1970, a 78-yarder against Houston . . . now has scored four touchdowns despite having caught only 23 passes as a pro . . . read a blitz by the weak safety on the long TD and said, "Being able to read the defenses is something you pick up from playing. Also, I played in a pro type offense in college at Florida State."

Started his first game against Miami last year and divided time with Morin the remainder of the season . . . the two tight ends also were "messengers", taking in plays when rookie Mike Phipps was at quarterback.

His good height and weight are valuable in short-yardage situations when two tight ends are used . . . "Blocking is a lot tougher in the pros," he admits. "In college, I was about the same size as the fellow I was trying to block. Now, I'm often 20 to 30 pounds lighter."

Lived up to his nickname "Chip" shortly before camp opened last year by suffering a chipped bone in a big toe while on duty with the National Guard . . . has been clocked in 4.7 seconds for 40 yards and says, "I think I can run faster when I catch the ball."

PERSONAL: His home town is Tampa, Fla. but remained in Greater Cleveland area this past off-season and maintained apartment in Euclid . . . is single.

JACK GREGORY — Defensive End

BIRTHDATE—October 3, 1944
BIRTHPLACE—Okolona, Miss.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (9th in '65—future)
COLLEGES—Chattanooga, Delta State
HIGH SCHOOL—Okolona H. S.
HEIGHT—6-5½
WEIGHT—250
YEARS PRO—5

PRO: It has been said that this raw-boned southerner was born to play professional football and he tends to agree . . . "Now that I think about it, I guess it was all planned right from the beginning," he says.

After four years with the Browns, there is no doubt Jack and pro ball were made for each other . . . and what helps him keep getting better each season is an inner determination . . . he describes it this way: "I don't like to lose, that's what drives me."

His dad, Jack Sr., played with the Cleveland Rams in early 1940's and now Jack Jr. has come along to first equal and then surpass the elder Gregory's accomplishments . . . named the Browns' defensive player of the year by Cleveland Touchdown Club and voted to American Football Conference second team by UPI last year.

Recovered a key fumble in the fourth quarter of the Browns' 31-21 opening night victory over the New York Jets in 1970 . . . did so well the previous year in first full season as regular end that he was selected for the Pro Bowl . . . says of his improvement, "I'm getting a little wiser and more confident in myself."

Broke in as back-up man for Paul Wiggin and moved into starting lineup his second season after Bill Glass suffered broken ribs in the eighth game of 1968 . . . a fine pass rusher, but handles all phases of the defensive end position with authority.

PERSONAL: Played his college football at two schools, three seasons at Chattanooga and one at Delta State . . . single, he resides in Okolona where he raises cotton, soybeans and cattle on a ranch he owns.

COLLEGE—Houston
HIGH SCHOOL—Yoakum High School
HEIGHT—6-3½
WEIGHT—215
YEARS PRO—1

Team leader in tackles the past two seasons in college and a very aggressive player . . . observers have indicated that all he needs to make the grade with pros is to build up weight to between 220 and 225 pounds . . . also very effective on pass defense . . . earned honorable mention last two years in All-America selections . . . chosen as outstanding freshman player in 1967 and played in a manner the next three years to justify this honor . . . team co-captain as senior.

Came to Houston mainly on his ability in basketball . . . had been high school fullback but was switched to defensive end in college, then transferred to linebacker because of a shortage there . . . has remarkable endurance and runs the mile in 4:30 . . . ran a 1:59.6 half mile in high school . . . married Ruby Riley of Houston, July 1, 1968 . . . resides in Yoakum, Texas.

GENE HICKERSON — Guard

BIRTHDATE—February 15, 1936
BIRTHPLACE—Trenton, Tenn.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (7th in '57—future)
COLLEGE—Mississippi
HIGH SCHOOL—Trevezant (Tenn.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-2
WEIGHT—248
YEARS PRO—14

PRO: One of those Old Man River types who keeps going on and on delivering in a thoroughly efficient, effective manner . . . was named to the Pro Bowl for the sixth straight time last winter after being placed on the UPI and AP all-star teams in the American Football Conference.

"I know there isn't as much drive at my age and I've lost some speed," says the 35-year-old southerner. "But I haven't lost any quickness. There is nothing more important than quickness for an offensive lineman, especially the first 10 yards."

Prefers to keep a "book" on opposing defensive linemen in his head, rather than on paper, and says, "You learn a lot after feeling out an opponent in the first couple series in a game."

Was voted the NFL's outstanding blocker in a poll for the National 1,000-Yard Foundation in Menasha, Wis., in 1969 . . . has helped provide some of the best quarterback protection found on any team in the league.

Played tackle in college and switched to guard as a pro rookie . . . alternated as one of the Browns' so-called "messenger guards" first four seasons.

PERSONAL: One of the most eligible bachelors on squad . . . manufacturer's rep in off-season for Monarch Electric Co. and Accurate Machine Tool Co. . . . resides in Bratenahl, eastern Cleveland suburb.

FRED HOAGLIN — Center

BIRTHDATE—January 29, 1944
BIRTHPLACE—Alliance, Ohio
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (6th in '66)
COLLEGE—Pittsburgh
HIGH SCHOOL—East Palestine (O.) H.S.
HEIGHT—6-4
WEIGHT—250
YEARS PRO—5

PRO: The anonymity that goes hand-in-hand with being a football center doesn't bother Hoaglin in the least, even though he has developed into one of the better, more dependable ball-snappers in the business during the last five years.

"I'm used to not being known," he says. "It's been that way all my life. Sometimes it's even good—I don't get booed, either.

"I get a certain amount of satisfaction if we do a good job protecting the passer. We have a good attitude of togetherness on the offensive line and when the newspapers mention the quarterback wasn't dropped once it makes us feel good."

Got his initial opportunity with the varsity when John Morrow suffered a broken leg midway through 1966 campaign . . . Fred hasn't been out of the lineup since and now has started 62 consecutive regular season games.

Always has played either center or offensive tackle . . . stood six feet, four inches as far back as junior high school . . . weighed 160 then, but was up to 200 when he entered college and about 250 when the Browns got him.

Elected the Browns' player representative last season . . . was in a group of pro gridgers who visited U.S. troops in Vietnam last winter.

PERSONAL: Married Janet Ann Wolbert of Sharon, Pa., April 30, 1966 . . . daughter, Patricia Jo (3-5-68) and son, George Frederick III (9-23-70) . . . member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes . . . resides in newly purchased home in Solon, Ohio and is employed by Cleveland investment firm of McDonald & Co. in off-season.

Taking his crack at pro football after having spent the past two summers in professional baseball with Decatur, Ill. and Fresno, Cal. farm club teams of the San Francisco Giants . . . was flanker and cornerback in college where he was voted most valuable player in senior season . . . even more outstanding in baseball, winning All-America and All-Conference honors . . . very fast and quick, was timed in 4.6 seconds for 40-yard dash in Browns' rookie camp last May . . . married Sally Hechinger of Elmhurst, Ill., June 14, 1969 . . . son Andy (7-20-70) . . . now resides in Elmhurst, Ill.

FAIR HOOKER — Wide Receiver

BIRTHDATE—May 22, 1947
BIRTHPLACE—Los Angeles, Cal.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (5th in '69)
COLLEGE—Arizona State
HIGH SCHOOL—Monrovia (Cal.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-1½
WEIGHT—190
YEARS PRO—3

PRO: Showed tremendous improvement his second pro season and should be even better in 1971 with a full campaign as a successor to Paul Warfield under his belt . . . has excellent speed and jumping ability and runs fine patterns.

"He worked so hard on his moves for four or five months before coming to camp last year," said receiver coach Bob Nussbaumer. "He matured a great deal from the previous year" . . . said quarterback Bill Nelsen, "The second year really makes a big difference."

Hooker had the biggest day of any Browns' receiver last year with 157 yards on four catches against San Francisco . . . also was the club's leading receiver in three other games . . . final figures of 28 catches for 490 yards and a 17.5 average rated well up in the team's statistics.

Had the advantage of playing pro style ball in college . . . used sparingly as a rookie, but has made it all the way now . . . started every game in 1970 and established himself as a full-fledged NFL regular.

PERSONAL: Single . . . spent past off-season in Cleveland area . . . resides in Euclid, Ohio . . . holds the 120-yard high hurdles record of 13.8 seconds at Arizona State.

COLLEGE—Ohio State
HIGH SCHOOL—Massillon H. S.
HEIGHT—6-3
WEIGHT—240
YEARS PRO—12

PRO: Back at his old position again and mighty glad of it after trying on the middle linebacker assignment for size in training camp and first part of 1970 season . . . did so well when returned to familiar left side job that he was named to the Pro Bowl for the fourth time.

One of the team's leaders and co-captain with Leroy Kelly the last three campaigns . . . has quiet confidence, determination and is an inspiration to teammates on and off the field . . . unusually quick for a man his size.

One of the backbones of the Browns with 11 years pro experience . . . "Being a captain is important to me in that knowing what I say might help a rookie become a better player," he says. "But it doesn't really matter who leads the team—it's togetherness, everyone concentrating, that produces a winning attitude."

Intercepted a Joe Namath pass in 31-21 victory over New York Jets in season opener last year . . . now has total of 14 thefts, three for touchdowns . . . also scored on a 10-yard pass in 1966, the only aerial he has caught as a pro . . . recovered his 10th enemy fumble last year.

MIKE HOWELL — Safety

BIRTHDATE—July 5, 1943
BIRTHPLACE—Monroe, La.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (8th in '65)
COLLEGE—Grambling
HIGH SCHOOL—Carroll (Monroe) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-1
WEIGHT—190
YEARS PRO—7

PRO: "He has such great range. He comes from a mile away to make tackles."

Howard Brinker, the Browns' over-all defensive strategist, made the comment about the one-time Grambling quarterback who has become one of the best safeties in the club's history . . . has 24 interceptions and two fumble recoveries in six pro seasons.

Mike has played the corner, but prefers free safety . . . "Instead of covering only one man as a cornerback, I can help cover all five potential receivers as a safety," he points out. "I can help the team more there."

It's hard to believe that he almost gave up the sport after his first exposure . . . "I knew I was in trouble the first time I put on full gear in the ninth grade. I could hardly run. I weighed only 135 pounds and it felt as though I was carrying a ton. I took a beating for a while, then cut out until I got heavier."

After making reputation as high school and college passer, put his good height and speed to use as a defensive back with the Browns . . . played sparingly as a rookie, but was moved from safety to right cornerback in 1966 when Walter Beach was injured in third game . . . has been a starter ever since.

Suffered broken collarbone in January 1968 Playoff Bowl game with Los Angeles and underwent surgery . . . returned to safety the following autumn and helped Browns set team record of 32 interceptions . . . rated one of the surest tacklers on the team.

PERSONAL: Married Dorothy Lafaye Kimp, June 3, 1967 . . . three children: Michelle Lafaye (2-24-68), Michael Lionel Jr. (2-1-69) and Mark Lane (10-7-70) . . . moved his permanent residence to this area last year, purchasing home in Beachwood, Ohio.

WALTER JOHNSON Defensive Tackle

BIRTHDATE—November 13, 1942
BIRTHPLACE—Cincinnati, Ohio
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (2nd in '65)
COLLEGE—California State
 (Los Angeles)
HIGH SCHOOL—Taft (Cincinnati) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-4
WEIGHT—260
YEARS PRO—7

PRO: The building block around which the Browns have assembled what promises to be their strongest defensive line in many years . . . quick, agile and considered the best defensive tackle in the club's history.

Was tried briefly at right tackle during 1970 training camp, but was quickly returned to his familiar spot on the left side . . . "After playing the position so long, I feel I can do better on the left side," he explained. "One of my main assets is reading blocks quickly. On the right side I was seeing things altogether differently."

Something that did change, though, was Walter's weight . . . after five seasons of being the largest man on the team, he slimmed down from 275 pounds to 257 by camp time and didn't go much above that all year . . . he suddenly cut quite a svelte picture.

"I hadn't been 250 (his figure at the low point before camp) since my senior year at California State," he said. "After I was drafted I lifted weights a lot and put on 25 pounds in six months. Actually, I never ate that much, just enough to maintain my weight. So taking off pounds wasn't difficult."

The idea behind his reducing was to boost his speed, agility and endurance even more than they had been . . . part of the payoff was registering one of the Browns' record three safeties in 1970 . . . Walter's two points were more than a little valuable in a 30-27 victory over Cincinnati.

Never played on the defensive line until Cleveland drafted him . . . played fullback in four years of high school and college ball, then as college senior handled offensive guard and middle linebacker assignments.

Became Cleveland's starting left tackle in 1966 after backstopping Dick Modzelewski (now his coach) and Jim Kanicki as a rookie . . . has appeared in three Pro Bowl games.

Performed above and beyond the call of duty in the 1969 title game against the Vikings in Minnesota . . . insisted on continuing to play despite suffering frozen fingers in eight-degree weather with a chill factor of 18 below zero.

PERSONAL: Married Gayle Combs of Cincinnati, June 30, 1962 . . . two children: Jeanne (6-24-64) and Walter Jr. (10-10-65) . . . owns home in Beachwood, eastern Cleveland suburb.

COLLEGE—Kansas State
HIGH SCHOOL—Sherman Community (Goodland) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-1½
WEIGHT—193
YEARS PRO—3

PRO: Has been an excellent specialty team man for two years while waiting for opportunity to prove himself as a wide receiver . . . somewhat on the slender side, but has fine speed and probably the best pass-catching hands on the team.

Also has precision moves . . . quiet, determined athlete . . . confident and dependable, just needs the chance . . . receiver coach Bob Nussbaumer says, "He has great desire and you can sense he's a winner."

PERSONAL: Married Elaine Eye, January 25, 1969 . . . son Jeffrey Michael (10-28-70) . . . completed work for his degree at Kansas State past off-season . . . home is in Goodland, Kansas.

COLLEGE—Texas Southern
HIGH SCHOOL—Pittsburg H. S.
HEIGHT—6-2
WEIGHT—215
YEARS PRO—8

PRO: Should be ready for much more pass catching activity this season now that he has adjusted to the Browns' style . . . receiver coach Bob Nussbaumer says, "Homer knows our offense now, although it was a big change from the type of passing attack he had at New York."

Last year was an unusual one for the veteran speedster, commencing with the trade in which Cleveland sent defensive tackle Jim Kanicki, running back Ron Johnson and linebacker Wayne Meylan to the Giants . . . that set up the deal sending Paul Warfield to Miami for the opportunity to draft quarterback Mike Phipps.

Jones' only touchdowns came in the opening and closing games in 1970 . . . his dazzling 94-yard runback of the second half kickoff helped spark the Browns to a 31-21 inaugural triumph over the New York Jets . . . in the last game at Denver, Homer grabbed a 43-yard TD pass from Bill Nelsen.

Finished with only 10 catches for 141 yards in occasional appearances as a receiver, but set Cleveland records with 29 kickoff returns for 739 yards . . . Ben Davis had 27 returns in 1967 and Bo Scott 722 yards in 1969 for previous marks . . . Jones' 94-yarder was club's longest since Carl Ward went 104 against Washington in 1967 . . . also was only the sixth in Cleveland history.

PERSONAL: Married Betty Brown, December 30, 1968 . . . a sprinter on college track team, he has run the 100-yard dash in 9.3 seconds and has a 20.7 clocking for the 220 . . . won a Gold Medal for the U. S. team that defeated the Russians in a dual meet at Los Angeles in 1950 . . . resides in Pittsburg, Texas in the off-season where he pursues his favorite pastime — fishing.

JOE JONES — Defensive End

BIRTHDATE—January 7, 1948
BIRTHPLACE—Dallas, Texas
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (2nd in '70)
COLLEGE—Tennessee State
HIGH SCHOOL—Dalworth (Grand Prairie, Texas) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-6
WEIGHT—246
YEARS PRO—2

PRO: The tall, gangling fellow they call "Turkey" is the most exciting defensive lineman turned out by the Browns in many years . . . continued development this year should add much to the pass rush.

Made first start as a pro last November 22 against Houston and was instant success . . . "Once he settled down, he became a veteran overnight," said line coach Dick Modzelewski . . . Joe was a special project for Mc after missing early training camp because of College All-Star Game.

Glenn Ray Hines, Houston offensive tackle, was the first to face Joe and said, "He's going to be one hell of a defensive end. That guy looks like he's been watching films of Deacon Jones in his spare time. He's got some of the same characteristics.

"He gives you that head slap on the helmet and then blows by you. He's got some unbelievable speed for a big guy, awfully quick. And I wouldn't exactly call him a weakling as far as the physical part of it goes, either."

Joe pressured the passer and swatted down aials as a regular the last five games of the 1970 season and intends to keep the left end job this year . . . step-brother of Washington Redskins' Charley Taylor . . . rated by college coach John Merritt as most outstanding of a long list of defensive linemen sent to the pros.

Browns made him first of club's two second-round draft picks after he was named on AP small college All-American team . . . was all-state in football and basketball in high school, also high jumped 6-9 . . . hobbies are hunting, fishing, boating and music.

PERSONAL: Single . . . home is in Grand Prairie, Texas outside Dallas but he established residence in Bedford Heights, Ohio here past off-season.

ERNIE KELLERMANN — Safety

BIRTHDATE—December 17, 1943
BIRTHPLACE—Cleveland, Ohio
HOW ACQUIRED—Free Agent
COLLEGE—Miami (O.)
HIGH SCHOOL—Chanel (Bedford, O.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-0
WEIGHT—185
YEARS PRO—6

PRO: Leg problems contributed to a troublesome season last year . . . intercepted only one pass and now has career total of 14 . . . rated one of the team's more dependable tacklers and is a totally dedicated player.

"It's always a question of proving yourself over again every year," he says. "Thinking about your past record doesn't do any good. The coaches want results now. I don't think I'm any slower than a few years ago and I take pride in playing the position."

Signed as a free agent in 1965 after being drafted by Dallas and released in final cut . . . spent rookie year on Cleveland taxi squad . . . stepped in at safety when injury to Walter Beach caused Mike Howell to be moved up to right cornerback.

Strong and wiry, but faces a constant battle to maintain weight . . . "I eat as much food as I can fork down — meat, potatoes, three or four eggs and bacon in the morning, lots of desserts and other goodies," he says. "I drink a lot of liquid, too, especially milk. But I still can't put weight on. Too much nervous energy, I guess."

Has additional job of calling most of the Browns' "forces" for defensive backs and linebackers on opponents' sweeps.

PERSONAL: Single, lives in newly purchased home in South Russell, a small community southeast of Cleveland . . . lone member of squad to have been born in Cleveland . . . sales representative in off-season for Milrob Corp. of Cleveland . . . was a fine southpaw quarterback at Miami where he played defense for only three plays of college career.

LEROY KELLY — Running Back

BIRTHDATE—May 20, 1942
BIRTHPLACE—Philadelphia, Pa.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (8th in '64)
COLLEGE—Morgan State
HIGH SCHOOL—Simon Gratz (Philadelphia) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-0
WEIGHT—200
YEARS PRO—8

PRO: One of the finest runners in pro football is coming off a frustrating season in which sprained ankles and a strained Achilles tendon reduced his effectiveness considerably.

"Leroy wasn't better than 80% most of the season," said coach Nick Skorich. "The injuries affected his quick moves when openings occurred on the line. They also affected his pass patterns, the quick breaks into the secondary and his blocking on sweeps by Bo Scott."

It all added up to 656 yards rushing, lowest since Kelly succeeded Jim Brown in the Cleveland backfield five years ago . . . the figure still was good enough for eighth place in the conference, however . . . also gained 311 yards on passes

Kelly's best rushing days in 1970 were 108 yards against Houston and 106 against Detroit . . . he now has a career total of 22 games in which he gained 100 or more yards on the ground . . . had total offense of 163 yards and 2 TD's in 30-27 victory over Cincinnati.

Became one of the few ball carriers in pro football history to reach lifetime total of 5,000 yards rushing November 22, 1970 against Houston . . . starts 1971 with a 5,209 and could surpass Hugh McElhenny, Dick Bass, Rick Casares and Steve Van Buren with only an average season . . . that would put Kelly sixth on all-time list.

Asked what makes an outstanding running back, Kelly says, "Many things are involved, but I think the most important aspect is the timing between a back and his offensive line. If I know what the linemen are going to do, and when they are going to do it, it's much easier for me to find the hole and get through, or turn the corner on a sweep or pitchout."

The two-time league rushing champion (1967 and 1968) is second only to Jim Brown in club records with 70 touchdowns over-all, 57 TD's rushing, 1,137 rushing attempts, 1,397 combined carries and 9,278 combined net yards (rushes, catches, runbacks).

Enjoys playing on "off" fields and says, "I'd rather run in mud, or at least on a wet field. I know what I'm going to do, the defensive man doesn't. This gives me an advantage."

The multi-talented halfback has thrown 11 passes, including two for touchdowns, and also has done some punting in emergencies . . . spent first two years on Browns' specialty teams and led NFL in punt returns in 1965 . . . named to the Pro Bowl last winter for fifth consecutive year.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in East Cleveland, Ohio . . . his favorite hobby is listening to records and playing golf with Browns' teammates . . . younger brother Pat is outfielder with Chicago White Sox of American League . . . comes from a large family most of whose members reside in Philadelphia.

RICHARD "RICK" KINGREA Linebacker

COLLEGE—Tulane
HIGH SCHOOL—Baton Rouge (La.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-1
WEIGHT—233
YEARS PRO—1

Outstanding defensive performer at Tulane who led the Green Wave to an upset 17-3 win over Colorado in last year's Liberty Bowl Game . . . Tulane's leading tackler past two seasons and nailed enemy quarterbacks 10 times behind line of scrimmage . . . Jim Pittman, Tulane coach, has been quoted as saying that "If all players were like Rich Kingrea, coaching would be a piece of cake. The biggest problem he gives us is trying to keep paint on his helmet." . . . first Tulane player since 1904 named a team captain for two straight years . . . first team A. P. All-Southern Independent and second team A. P. All-American . . . played in this year's Blue-Gray and Senior Bowl Games . . . married Joan Duhe' of Kenner, La., August 9, 1968 . . . son Rock (2-27-70) . . . resides in New Orleans.

WILMER LEVELS — Safety

BIRTHDATE—August 21, 1949
BIRTHPLACE—Teague, Texas
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (9th in '71)
COLLEGE—North Texas State
HIGH SCHOOL—Teague H. S.
HEIGHT—6-1
WEIGHT—193
YEARS PRO—1

Speedy and aggressive, he negotiated the 40-yard dash in 4.5 seconds at the Browns' rookie day last May . . . no Brown has ever surpassed this figure and not many have equalled it . . . started in college as a wide receiver, moved to cornerback as junior and played last fall at strong safety

... captained his team as senior ... has bettered 24 feet in the long jump ... was one of the state's outstanding school-boy athletes in high school ... lettered in three sports and won state long jump title ... his brother was outstanding basketball player at Howard Simmons College ... single, lives in Teague, Texas.

DALE LINDSEY — Linebacker

BIRTHDATE—January 18, 1943
BIRTHPLACE—Bedford, Ind.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (7th in '65)
COLLEGE—Western Kentucky
HIGH SCHOOL—Bowling Green (Ky.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-2½
WEIGHT—225
YEARS PRO—7

PRO: Has been Mr. Dependable whenever the Browns needed help at middle linebacker in recent years ... was returned there from the outside for the second straight time at mid-season last year and did his usual steady work.

"He has the biggest, fightingest heart of anyone his size that I know," Blanton Collier said numerous times ... the six-year pro is hard-hitting, mobile and intelligent ... only drawback in the middle is a lack of weight, which usually is down to 220 or less by the end of each campaign.

Pulled off the Browns' longest interception of 1970 with a 56-yard scoring gallop against Miami ... was inserted for defensive tackle Walt Johnson as a fourth linebacker in a prevent defense for the spectacular theft ... had two pick-offs for the season to bring career total to seven ... also recovered a fumble.

Can't help being a "worry wart" and the nervous energy expended contributes to his weight problem ... really more qualified to play the outside ... originally recruited by Collier at the University of Kentucky ... starred on specialty units until 1967, when he did so well the Browns traded Vince Costello to the New York Giants.

Underwent mid-winter knee surgery in 1969 ... highlight of career was interception of a Don Meredith pass on first play of third quarter in 1968 conference playoff with Dallas ... ran 27 yards to break a 10-10 tie and start the Browns on the road to a 31-20 upset.

PERSONAL: Married Pam Jacobi of New Albany, Ind., July 25, 1962 ... three children: Blanton (9-6-63), Jennifer (3-6-65) and Kimberley (7-19-67) ... lives in Bowling Green, Ky. and is in real estate.

BOB MATHESON — Linebacker

BIRTHDATE—November 25, 1944
BIRTHPLACE—Boone, N. C.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (1st in '67)
COLLEGE—Duke
HIGH SCHOOL—Appalachian (Boone) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-4
WEIGHT—240
YEARS PRO—5

PRO: Back for a fresh start at his old, more familiar middle linebacker position after a three-month test at defensive end last training camp and early regular season . . . showed promise on the line, but eventually his experience was needed more to back up the middle.

Believes his term at end will prove valuable . . . "It helped attitude-wise and technique-wise," he says. "Playing end, you are forced to get rid of the blocker in a hurry. I proved to myself that I can handle big men. I also got a better concept of the whole team defense by working at another position."

This is Matheson's fifth season with the Browns and he has the build and know-how to be of much help . . . "This is a game of attitude, the power of positive thinking," says Bob. "I'm still making some mistakes, but I'm just trying to forget about them."

Spent rookie years as a valuable member of the specialty teams and still does good work there . . . became a starter the second year when Johnny Brewer was traded and Dale Lindsey moved from the middle to right linebacker . . . gave way to Lindsey during the 1969 season . . . recovered four enemy fumbles in 1968 and has four interceptions to his credit.

PERSONAL: Married Pam Hamby of Boone, N. C., June 17, 1967 . . . son Todd McRae (8-19-70) . . . Bob's father, retired dentist, was All-Southern wrestling champion at Duke . . . resides in Cleveland suburb of Mayfield Heights . . . established football camp for boys in his home town of Boone, N. C. this year.

BOB MCKAY — Offensive Tackle

BIRTHDATE—December 27, 1947
BIRTHPLACE—Seminole, Texas
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (1st in '70)
COLLEGE—Texas
HIGH SCHOOL—Crane (Texas) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-5
WEIGHT—260
YEARS PRO—2

PRO: This could be the year the big, young Texan comes into his own after absorbing knowledge and techniques as a rookie in 1970 . . . saw limited duty his first year, but has all the physical qualifications to be a fine pro lineman.

Lingering effects of a shoulder injury suffered in college hampered him somewhat last season, but an off-season exercise program was designed to tighten and strengthen the area . . . has fine speed, blocks well and is learning the pass protecting phase.

Browns regarded him as the best offensive lineman to come out of the college ranks in 1970 and made him their second of two picks in the first round . . . named on every All-America team his senior year and chosen for Hula Bowl, Coaches' All-American Game and College All-Star Game.

Was all-state in football and basketball in high school and earned letters in track and baseball . . . majored in physical education and hopes eventually to coach.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in Crane, Texas.

MILT MORIN — Tight End

BIRTHDATE—October 15, 1942
BIRTHPLACE—Leominster, Mass.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (1st in '66)
COLLEGE—Massachusetts
HIGH SCHOOL—St. Bernard
(Fitchburg, Mass.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-4
WEIGHT—240
YEARS PRO—6

PRO: "I never realized how much I enjoyed pro football until I thought I might not play again," says the big tight end, looking back to a herniated disc operation in the summer of 1969. "It humbled me quite a bit."

Since making a miraculous recovery in less than three full months, he has put together a pair of 37-catch seasons for a total of 1,106 yards . . . last year's 611 yards were by far the most gained by any Cleveland receiver . . . also has a career total of nine touchdowns.

"I'm grateful to be playing again and I've got to play my best," he says. "I have a better concept of the picture, a better knowledge of the game now. I'm being paid for giving good performances and I owe it to the Browns to give my best efforts."

Injuries have held back his progress at various times, but his determination has helped overcome the obstacles . . . damaged a foot as a rookie and the following year had a ligament torn away from the bone in his knee . . . only last season and in 1968 has he remained completely healthy.

"I feel good physically and my speed is back to what it was as a rookie," he says. "That is, if you want to use the term speed" . . . the comment is an example of his dry, New England type of humor . . . blocks well and combined with younger Chip Glass helps give Cleveland a solid pair of tight ends.

Has four brothers and four sisters and says, "Coming from a large family, sports were an important part of my life and development as a youngster. It was just about the only thing I could do that didn't cost money."

Recorded the longest catch in Cleveland history in 1968 with an 87-yarder against Philadelphia . . . named to Pro Bowl team after 1968 season . . . also has carried the ball four times on end around plays.

PERSONAL: Married Ellen Lyons of Cambridge, Mass., August 21, 1965 . . . son, Monte (11-8-66) . . . field representative for Allied Chemical Co. in off-season . . . owns home in Mentor in neighboring Lake County just east of Cleveland.

"He's built like Lew Carpenter (former Browns' back), reads linebackers well and is a good blocker," says head coach Nick Skorich . . . also fine pass catcher and last year took a toss from rookie Mike Phipps and ran 53 yards for a touchdown against Pittsburgh.

The player strike followed by two weeks of military service set him back last summer, but still finished with 556 yards total offense . . . led team in punt returns and was second in kickoff returns.

Assistant coach Bob Nussbaumer scouted him in college and said, "I like the fact he was always fighting for those extra yards, not running for the sidelines" . . . it's a trait Reece hasn't lost as a pro with his quiet determination.

PERSONAL: Married Beverly Ann Posey of San Marcos, Texas, May 31, 1968 . . . son, Preston Reece (2-4-70) . . . attended Southwest Texas State past off-season . . . makes his home in San Marcos.

BILL NELSEN — Quarterback

BIRTHDATE—January 29, 1941
BIRTHPLACE—Los Angeles, Cal.
HOW ACQUIRED—Trade (see bio.)
COLLEGE—Southern California
HIGH SCHOOL—El Rancho (Cal.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-0
WEIGHT—195
YEARS PRO—9

PRO: "Bill is an outstandingly courageous man," says Browns' president Art Modell. "Talk about gutsy. You hear all that talk about Joe Namath's knees, but Nelsen has had it much rougher."

One need go back only to last season for the most recent evidence of the 30-year-old quarterback's courage and determination . . . despite having his already badly damaged right knee injured again in the second game of the season at San Francisco, Nelsen played out the schedule and missed starting only two times.

Although sorely hobbled, he came through with final figures more than just respectable . . . only four AFC passers did better than Nelsen's 159 completions for 2,156 yards . . . and only Daryle Lamonia and John Hadl topped his 16 touchdowns in the conference . . . Bill finished eighth in the over-all AFC quarterback ratings.

The Browns have enjoyed most of their recent success with Nelsen at the controls . . . 25 victories, 11 losses and one tie in regular season games he started, plus two division and conference titles . . . not bad for a fellow promoted to No. 1 as recently as the fourth game of the 1968 season.

Nelsen admits that joining the Browns in a May, 1968 trade with the Pittsburgh Steelers provided him with a big boost . . . "There's no doubt I've become a better quarterback because of it," he says. "I've had a great deal of confidence in my team and they've had a great deal of confidence in themselves. This has helped me and helped the Browns."

Nelsen's biggest day in 1970 came in that fateful day at San Francisco . . . before being forced out, he completed 14 passes for 308 yards . . . later he threw for 239 yards in the rain and mud against Dallas, 229 against Miami and Houston, 226 against Cincinnati and 215 against Denver.

Pittsburgh drafted him in the 10th round in 1963 and he replaced Ed Brown as starting quarterback two years later . . . injuries forced Nelsen to miss portions of the next three seasons, however . . . he had knee surgery twice in that span and a third operation nine months after joining Cleveland . . . the Browns sent quarterback Dick Shiner and defensive tackle Frank Parker to Pittsburgh in return for Nelsen and defensive back Jim Bradshaw.

Has thrown 85 TD passes and gained 11,705 yards as a pro . . . appeared in 1970 Pro Bowl game and completed 12 tosses for 98 yards and one touchdown . . . tied NFL record with Pittsburgh by completing 13 consecutive passes (Dec. 18, 1966, 11 vs. Atlanta, and Sept. 17, 1967, 2 vs. Chicago) . . .

also set league records of only one interception in 1966 and lowest percentage of passes intercepted, 0.89, same year.

Finest hour was the 38-14 upset of heavily favored Dallas in 1969 conference playoff . . . threw six third-down passes for first downs in opening half.

PERSONAL: Married Susan Rew Peters of Alhambra, Cal., September 11, 1963 . . . three children: Keith (4-1-64), Deborah (10-13-65) and Timothy (12-30-67) . . . owns home in Chagrin Falls, Cleveland suburb . . . had his own radio show each Monday morning during football season and is sports commentator on the NBC television station in Cleveland.

HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (4th in '71)
COLLEGE—Massachusetts
HIGH SCHOOL—Lawrence
 (Falmouth) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-2
WEIGHT—250
YEARS PRO—1

Outstanding offensive lineman who was selected on All-East, All-New England and small college All-America first teams . . . rates as one of greatest interior lineman in his school's history . . . in recent years Greg Landry of Detroit and Milt Morin of Cleveland have come from Massachusetts . . . has fine speed and agility and his coach, Vic Fusia, rates him a likely prospect for pros . . . plays trumpet, listens to music as hobbies . . . single, resides in West Falmouth, Mass. . . comes from large family and several of his brothers are also athletically inclined.

MIKE PHIPPS — Quarterback

BIRTHDATE—November 19, 1947
BIRTHPLACE—Shelbyville, Ind.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (1st in '70)
COLLEGE—Purdue
HIGH SCHOOL—Columbus (Ind.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-3
WEIGHT—207
YEARS PRO—2

PRO: "Mike is going to get the full shot, the experience he so badly needed last year and couldn't get," says head coach Nick Skorich. "He's the starting quarterback right now for the first exhibition game."

What happens from then on this second pro season is pretty much up to the young passer from Purdue, a first-round pick by the Browns a year ago as only the third collegiate player in the entire nation to be drafted . . . Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw and Green Bay's Mike McCoy were chosen ahead of him.

Mike did just enough to get his feet wet as a rookie with one start, one save and 29 completions in 60 attempts . . . his passes gained 529 yards and one touchdown . . . he helped pull an early season game with Pittsburgh out of the fire, 15-7, on a rainy, windy night and went the route in a 14-10 loss at Cincinnati in November.

It was a year of learning on the field, on the sideline and in practice . . . there was enough on-the-job training to give the promising quarterback an idea what to expect in this year's opportunity to win the job from veteran Bill Nelsen and his troublesome knees.

Mike has all the tools—height, a strong arm, mobility, intelligence—but was forced into a slow start last year by a commitment with the College All-Stars and the Browns' need to use veterans extensively in pre-season games following the players' strike.

Purdue won 22 of 27 games Mike started, including one against Stanford in which he completed 28 of 39 passes for 424 yards total offense . . . set 24 Purdue career, season, single game and Big Ten records . . . was first Boilermaker player ever to gain over 5,000 yards in a career (5,883 yards total offense in 27 games).

Completed 375 of 733 passes for 5,423 yards and 37 TD's in three seasons at Purdue . . . Boilermaker season marks set in 1969 were 169 completions, 321 attempts, 2527 yards and 23 touchdowns . . . averaged 6.57 yards on 418 total offense plays . . . Big Ten records were 1,699 yards total offense on 302 as senior.

Was Purdue's most valuable player and honorary tri-captain in 1969, named All-American by American Football Coaches Association, UPI, Sporting News and New York Daily News . . . finished second in Heisman Trophy voting.

Named to North-South and Hula Bowl games . . . majored in economics and carried B-plus average . . . was All-Big Ten Academic three years . . . won All-American honors in high school and was all-state in baseball in 1965 and 1966.

PERSONAL: Married Carole Cota, January 24, 1970 . . . home is in Columbus, Ind. but settled this past year in Cleveland suburb of Euclid.

CHUCK REYNOLDS — Center

BIRTHDATE—October 5, 1946
BIRTHPLACE—Ft. Worth, Texas
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (8th in '69)
COLLEGE—Tulsa
HIGH SCHOOL—Arlington Heights (Ft. Worth) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-3
WEIGHT—240
YEARS PRO—3

PRO: Another of the young offensive linemen who have been developing in supporting roles . . . has been valuable as a backup center and guard in addition to his work with the specialty units . . . led the team in fumble recoveries as a rookie two years ago by falling on three enemy miscues.

PERSONAL: Married Maneen Grigsby, February 6, 1970 . . . insurance sales representative in Tulsa, Okla. in off-season.

JOE RIGHETTI — Defensive Tackle

BIRTHDATE—December 31, 1947
BIRTHPLACE—Fredericktown, Pa.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (6th in '69)
COLLEGE—Waynesburg
HIGH SCHOOL—Bethlehem Center (Fredericktown) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-2½
WEIGHT—260
YEARS PRO—2

PRO: Has provided backup strength at defensive left tackle the last two seasons after making surprising progress in training camp as a rookie from a small college . . . certainly has the size and strength for the job.

"I was bigger than most opponents in college," he recalls. "The coach would say, 'Go get 'em any way you can' and mostly it was a case of overpowering a 220-pound guard. In pro football, though, it's most a case of techniques."

PERSONAL: Has done high school teaching between seasons and last year he realized a dream by purchasing his own single engine plane . . . often flies between Cleveland and his hometown 50 miles from Pittsburgh the day after a game . . . a bridegroom, having married Rachel Herrman of Chatham, N. J., June 12, 1971 . . . she is sister of his ex-teammate at Waynesburg, Don Herrmann, now tight end with New York Giants.

LARRY ROBERTS — Running Back

BIRTHDATE — August 31, 1948
BIRTHPLACE — Kansas City, Mo.
HOW ACQUIRED — Draft (13th in '70)
COLLEGE — Central Missouri
HIGH SCHOOL — Manual (Kansas City) H. S.
HEIGHT — 6-2½
WEIGHT — 195
YEARS PRO — 1

Decided to cast his lot with Winnipeg of Canadian League last year after Browns had drafted him . . . played in all pre-season games but was released at start of season . . . a powerful hard-running back in college . . . married Cora Carter of Desoto, Mo., August 3, 1968 . . . son Larry Jr. (5-30-69) . . . resides in Kansas City.

DICK SCHAFRATH — Offensive Tackle

BIRTHDATE—March 2, 1937
BIRTHPLACE—Canton, Ohio
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (2nd in '59)
COLLEGE—Ohio State
HIGH SCHOOL—Wooster (O.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-3
WEIGHT—258
YEARS PRO—13

PRO: Returning for his 13th season with the Browns and in the best physical condition he has been in since suffering a painful elbow injury early in 1969 campaign . . . few could have played with the agony he endured most of that season.

Wore a specially designed elbow pad last year and said, "The arm bothered me the first part of the season, but it seemed to get stronger from mid-season on. It really felt good during the last half."

The original injury was a torn tricep muscle and an infected bursa sac . . . the elbow device fit the contour of the arm and was flexible. It looked bulky, but weighed only a few ounces.

Dick's weight held up well last season and he should be set to contribute his gridiron knowledge and muscle as the Browns seek to develop youngsters such as Bob McKay . . . no one tries harder, or pushes himself more than this almost self-made lineman.

One of the better pass protectors the team has had over the years . . . broke in as a 220-pound defensive end, built himself up through extensive weight-lifting and became regular offensive left tackle as successor to Lou Groza in 1960.

Was on active duty with the Ohio National Guard in 1961 and 1962 . . . missed most practices, but only one game . . . was All-Pro in 1964 and 1965 and has appeared in six Pro Bowl games.

PERSONAL: Married Judith Ann Grimm, July 7, 1968 . . . daughter, Heidi (5-26-69) and son, Bruin Phillip (3-19-71) . . . resides in Bedford, Ohio and is associated with International Management Corp. of Cleveland in off-season . . . was one of 27 pro football players who visited U.S. troops in Vietnam in 1969.

CLARENCE SCOTT — Cornerback

BIRTHDATE—April 9, 1949
BIRTHPLACE—Atlanta, Ga.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (1st in '71)
COLLEGE—Kansas State
HIGH SCHOOL—Trinity (Decatur, Ga.)
H. S.
HEIGHT—6-0
WEIGHT—175
YEARS PRO—1

Rated best defensive college back in the nation last year by CEPO, Cleveland's scouting group . . . has been timed in 4.5 seconds for the 40-yard dash, a time unsurpassed in Browns' history . . . co-captained Kansas State and was outstanding team leader . . . intercepted 12 passes in his career and had 105 unassisted tackles and 80 assists . . . selected on many All-America first teams and every All-Big Eight team.

A durable performer, he played in each of Kansas State's games during the past three seasons . . . candidly states that his ambition is to become the best cornerback in professional football . . . has a quiet confidence that seems to indicate he has a chance to fulfill this ambition . . . was a wide receiver in high school but was with the defense in college . . . Browns had always been his favorite pro team and was delighted to learn he was drafted by Cleveland . . . single, lives in Atlanta, Ga.

ROBERT "BO" SCOTT—Running Back

BIRTHDATE—March 30, 1943
BIRTHPLACE—Connellsville, Pa.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (3rd in '65)
COLLEGE—Ohio State
HIGH SCHOOL—Connellsville H. S.
HEIGHT—6-3
WEIGHT—210
YEARS PRO—3 NFL, 4 Canada

PRO: "He's everything we hoped he would be."

So said Nick Skorich, now the Browns' new head coach as Scott came on strong in his second NFL season last year . . . narrowly missed beating out Leroy Kelly for team rushing title with 625 yards, good for 10th place in the conference . . . rushing average of 4.1 yards best among Cleveland regulars.

Also was the club's pass receiving leader . . . his 351 yards on passes gave him grand total of 976 by air and land . . . topped all Cleveland receivers with 40 catches.

"There was no doubt in my mind about being able to play in the NFL," says Scott, who led the Canadian League in rushing four straight years before returning to American brand of pro ball. "But there were a lot of things to learn when I joined the Browns. I feel much more relaxed now. My aim is to keep learning and improving."

First NFL touchdown helped Cleveland jump off to 14-0 lead over New York Jets in last season's opener which the Browns went on to win 31-21 . . . his 63-yard TD run against Oakland was Browns' longest of year.

"I don't consider myself any special type of rusher," says Scott. "If I'm told to run up the middle I believe I've got enough power to do it. And if I have to go outside, I can do that, too."

His philosophy is, "Nothing comes easy. A lot depends on how hard you work for it" . . . was originally drafted third by Cleveland in 1965, but went north to Ottawa because the Browns already had Jim Brown and Ernie Green.

Gained 2,993 yards in 539 carries for a 5.5-yard average in Canada . . . first year with Browns in 1969 he finished third in league in kickoff returns with club records of 722 yards and 28.9-yard average.

PERSONAL: Married Mary Jane Mitchell of Columbus, Ohio, November 16, 1964 . . . three children: Robin (8-13-65), Shawn (1-6-67) and Eeron (9-14-69) . . . now spends off-season in Columbus where he is recreation director for BOYS INC., a social service agency.

JERRY SHERK — Defensive Tackle

BIRTHDATE—July 7, 1948
BIRTHPLACE—Grants Pass, Ore.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (2nd in '70)
COLLEGE—Oklahoma State
HIGH SCHOOL—Grants Pass H. S.
HEIGHT—6-4½
WEIGHT—253
YEARS PRO—2

PRO: Work of this 22-year-old giant was the biggest and most satisfying surprise of the 1970 season for the Browns . . . became the only rookie to win a regular assignment and was greatly responsible for the general improvement of the defensive line.

Won a starting job at right tackle during the exhibition season and performed so well that second-year candidate Marvin Upshaw, a top draft choice in 1969, was traded to Kansas City . . . proved a strong pass rusher and showed good lateral pursuit along the line.

"He showed outstanding potential right away," said line coach Dick Modzelewski. "He has good size, tremendous strength, particularly in his arms, and quickness. I'm very pleased with Jerry's progress."

Jerry still is learning and says, "There are lots of things I have to work on. I need to learn more about techniques of pass rush and how to key on the tackle in front of me so I can recognize the play."

Recovered one enemy fumble in 1970 . . . difficult to realize he once tried out for quarterback in junior high school at 141 pounds and gave up the sport until his senior year in high school because he thought he was too small . . . proved instant success upon his return as a defensive tackle and has been coming on strong ever since.

PERSONAL: Named to 1970 Coaches' All-American and Blue-Gray games . . . conference heavyweight wrestling champion and posted 28-0 record at Gray's Harbor (Washington) Junior College . . . straight B average student in college and enjoys hunting and fishing . . . married Connie Hodges, June 15, 1968 . . . completed his active military service with National Guard Unit this year at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.

BIRTHDATE—March 13, 1949
BIRTHPLACE—Chicago, Ill.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (11th in '71)
COLLEGE—Northwestern
HIGH SCHOOL—LaGrange (Ill.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-2
WEIGHT—243
YEARS PRO—1

Described by Alex Agase, his coach at Northwestern, as the finest pulling guard he has ever coached . . . has great agility and earned high praise from his opponents who have been among the nation's top teams . . . selected All-Big Ten and second and third team All-America . . . had knee surgery after 1969 season but held up well in 1970 . . . did not play baseball in college but was an outstanding prep third baseman for LaGrange High School's 1967 Illinois state champs . . . played in this year's East-West Shrine Game . . . married Peggy Owen of Janesville, Wis., June 15, 1971 . . . resides in McCook, Ill.

RON SNIDOW — Defensive End

BIRTHDATE—December 30, 1941
BIRTHPLACE—Newport News, Va.
HOW ACQUIRED—Trade (see bio.)
COLLEGE—Oregon
HIGH SCHOOL—San Rafael (Cal.) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-3
WEIGHT—250
YEARS PRO—8

PRO: Starting his fourth season with the Browns and ninth in pro football faced with a strong challenge from second-year man Joe Jones . . . played some of his best ball yet in 1970, but gave way to the rookie toward the end of the campaign as Cleveland sought to bolster its pass rush.

"Ron plays better under competition," says line coach Dick Modzelewski . . . Snidow says, "The one edge I've had from the start is experience, and that's a very important thing. It gives me the opportunity to do many things a younger man can't accomplish right away . . . it has taken me eight years to get the final relationships between mind and body."

Was obtained from Washington in exchange for a second round draft choice just prior to opening of 1968 season . . . has recovered nine enemy fumbles, intercepted one pass and last year registered one of three safeties Cleveland made.

Could back up at both defensive end and tackle this year if Jones comes through . . . originally drafted in third round of 1963 selections by Redskins and missed only one game in five years . . . also did some punting in 1965 and had a 37.3-yard average for nine kicks.

PERSONAL: Married Marcia Ann Williams, December 22, 1963 . . . two sons: Todd (8-3-67) and Evan (10-18-69) . . . associated with Insurance Co. of North America . . . resides in Bay Village, Ohio, western Cleveland suburb.

HEIGHT—6-3
WEIGHT—204
YEARS PRO—1

Michigan's leading receiver last season with 35 catches for 519 yards and 14.8 average . . . led the Big Ten and established a Michigan punting mark with an average of 41.5 yards per boot . . . bettered the old Wolverine mark by more than two yards . . . scored two touchdowns on passes in post-season All-American Game at Tampa, Fla. . . . also played in Blue-Gray Game . . . chosen for the All-Big Ten team . . . was four sport star (football, basketball, baseball, track) in high school.

Played a lot as sophomore, started as junior at Michigan only to lose out in mid-season when he began dropping the ball . . . former Michigan stars Ron Johnson and Frank Nunley helped him back on the track with summer-time touch football . . . developed his punting ability playing with his father and four brothers . . . used to play games kicking the ball over the telephone wires . . . has been likened in build to Gary Collins . . . married Wendell Ann Ryan of Flint, May 29, 1971 . . . his home is still in Flint.

RICKEY STEVENSON — Cornerback

BIRTHDATE—June 27, 1948
BIRTHPLACE—St. Louis, Mo.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (4th in '70)
COLLEGE—Arizona
HIGH SCHOOL—McKinley
 (St. Louis) H. S.
HEIGHT—5-11
WEIGHT—188
YEARS PRO—1

Exceptionally fast cornerback is resuming his bid for a full-time assignment after missing practically all of his rookie season because of knee surgery . . . was injured in regular season opener against the New York Jets.

Looked so well in training camp that defensive strategist Howard Brinker said, "He's the best cornerback we've had come along in a long, long while" . . . this year he faces stiff competition from No. 1 draftee Clarence Scott, however.

Played halfback in high school, two years of junior college and first year at the University of Arizona before shifting to defensive backfield.

Was second in state low hurdles in high school and ran the 100-yard dash in 9.7 seconds in college . . . married Saretha Parker of Eloy, Ariz., June 9, 1970 . . . returned to Arizona past off-season to continue work toward his degree . . . home is still St. Louis.

FREDDIE SUMMERS — Cornerback

BIRTHDATE—February 16, 1947
BIRTHPLACE—Columbia, S. C.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (4th in '69)
COLLEGE—Wake Forest

Took over for Ernie Kellermann at strong safety when the veteran broke a thumb the summer of 1969, but has seen most service with the specialty units . . . played quarterback in college and needed a period of adjustment when switched to the secondary as a pro.

Suffered a hairline ankle fracture against Green Bay late in his rookie season but was sound as ever last year . . . recovered a punt return fumbled by Lem Barney in the Detroit game.

PERSONAL: Married Turquoise Brown, April 4, 1970 . . . recreation director at Dorchester Community Center this past off-season.

WALT SUMNER — Cornerback

BIRTHDATE—February 2, 1947
BIRTHPLACE—Ocilla, Ga.
HOW ACQUIRED—Draft (7th in '69)
COLLEGE—Florida State
HIGH SCHOOL—Irwin County
 (Ocilla) H. S.
HEIGHT—6-1
WEIGHT—180
YEARS PRO—3

PRO: Has developed into a steady, dependable performer in two busy seasons . . . was second only to veteran Erich Barnes in interceptions last year with four . . . now has a pro total of eight.

A 34-yarder he pulled off in the opener against the New York Jets was the Browns' third longest of the season . . . uses his height and speed to good advantage in covering the right cornerback post.

Walt was hurried into a starting job during the pre-season schedule his rookie year when Ben Davis injured a knee and required surgery . . . won praise from the coaching staff for his coolness under fire in a pressure situation for a young player.

Has sure hands and makes an additional contribution as a punt return man . . . ran back 17 in two seasons, plus making 22 free catches . . . takes his job seriously, but isn't really as glum as his face usually appears . . . says, "I just look that way."

PERSONAL: Married Sandra Coley, June 11, 1968 . . . two children: Chad Wesley (7-27-69) and Andrea D'Lyn (4-2-71) . . . worked with accounting firm past year in his home town of Ocilla, Ga. . . . was a fine hitting outfielder at Florida State but turned down major league baseball career for football.

1970 REVIEW

Monday (N), Sept. 21 Browns 31, Jets 21 (85,703) at Cleve.

A record crowd of 85,703 saw the Browns jump out to a 14-0 first quarter bulge and stay on top all the way in defeating the Jets. Cleveland scored the first time it got the football on a nine-play, 55-yard drive with Gary Collins taking a pass over the middle from Bill Nelsen for eight yards and the touchdown.

Fullback Bo Scott went around end for two yards and six points in that same period. The Jets' Emerson Boozer rammed two yards for the only score of the second quarter and it was 14-7 in the Browns' favor at the half.

Homer Jones' 94-yard return of the second half kickoff for a touchdown quickly hiked the margin. The Browns also scored on a 27-yard field goal by Don Cockroft but the Jets closed the gap in that third quarter with two touchdowns.

Cleveland led, 24-21, early in the final period when linebacker Billy Andrews intercepted a pass by Joe Namath and returned 25 yards for a touchdown that clinched the decision.

Nelsen hit on 12 of 27 passes for 145 yards for the opportunist Browns while Namath clicked on 19 of 32 for 299 yards as the visitors won the statistical battle, 455 yards to 221 in total offense. The Browns had no interceptions or fumbles, however. Namath had three passes stolen and the Jets had another turnover on a fumble.

Sunday, Sept. 27 49ers 34, Browns 31 (37,502) at S. F'cisco.

This perhaps was the most costly defeat of the season for the Browns. They not only lost to the 49ers after holding a fourth quarter lead but also saw Bill Nelsen suffer an injury that was to bother him throughout the year.

Before going to the sidelines in the fourth period with that knee damage, Nelsen had been in the groove. He had completed 14 of 25 passes for 308 yards. Don Gault replaced Nelsen and was at the helm as Leroy Kelly, who gained 74 yards, went eight yards for Cleveland's final touchdown and a 31-27 lead.

It was an interception of a Gault pass by linebacker Dave Wilcox that set the stage for the 49ers' winning touchdown drive a few minutes later, however.

Fair Hooker, who won the starting job as Paul Warfield's replacement during training camp, grabbed four passes for 157 yards and a touchdown. The Cleveland defense had some problems, too, and the 49ers' Ken Willard found holes for 105 yards on 22 carries.

Saturday (N), Oct. 3 Browns 15, Steelers 7 (84,349) at Cleve.

Rookie Mike Phipps made his regular season debut in this game and led the Browns to the winning touchdown. The newcomer from Purdue University went in after starter Don Gault failed to move the team the first half and through one series of downs after the intermission.

Cleveland, which trailed by a 7-2 count when Phipps took over, went 90 yards in nine plays under his guidance. The payoff was a 53-yard aerial effort to Reece Morrison. Don Cockroft's try for the extra point was blocked but the Browns had an 8-7 lead. The bulge was hiked minutes later when Erich Barnes stepped in front of a pass by Terry Bradshaw and returned 38 yards for a score.

Cleveland's first two points came in the first quarter when defensive end Ron Snidow tackled Bradshaw in the end zone for a safety. The Steelers' rookie passer accounted for the lone Pittsburgh touchdown with a 22-yard scrambling run in the second quarter.

This was another costly victory. Leroy Kelly went out in the first quarter with an ankle injury. This was to bother him for a number of games and played a part in a less productive season than usual for the halfback.

Sunday, Oct. 11 Browns 30, Bengals 27 (83,520) at Cleve.

The Browns had to come from behind in the last quarter to win in this first regular season meeting with the new Ohio rival. Cincinnati jumped off to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter on a 50-yard field goal by Horst Muhlmann and a two-yard plunge by Jess Phillips.

Blanton Collier's team got on the board near the end of the period when Walter Johnson slammed through to tackle Virgil Carter for a safety. Then the Browns outscored the Bengals two touchdowns to one to move within one point at the half.

Leroy Kelly and Bo Scott hit for one-yard touchdowns in the fourth quarter as the Browns took a 30-20 lead. Then after the Bengals scored on a touchdown pass from Carter to Speedy Thomas, the Cleveland attack took charge. With the help of a big third down pass from Bill Nelsen to Gary Collins, the Browns were able to insure the victory by using up all but 10 seconds of the clock.

Kelly rambled for 84 yards and Scott had a 4.4 yard average per carry in this third victory of the season. Leroy also caught five passes for 79 yards. Nelsen, a doubtful starter through the early part of the week, clicked on 17 of 29 passes for 226 yards.

Sunday, Oct. 18 Lions 41, Browns 24 (83,577) at Cleve.

The Browns scored first in this loss on a 14-yard pass from Bill Nelsen to Gary Collins. They kept it close midway through the second quarter when a 16-yard pass from Nelsen to Fair Hooker and Don Cockroft's extra point pulled them within three points of the Lions, 17-14.

Then came 21 quick points by Detroit and the game was out of reach, 38-14 at the half. Cleveland outscored the Lions 10-3 after the intermission but Detroit had its 11th victory in 13 games that counted against Cleveland.

The Lions came up with five interceptions. Three were at the expense of Nelsen and two were stolen from Mike Phipps who took over in the second half. Leroy Kelly had a fine day, gaining 106 yards and finishing with a 4.4-yard average.

It was during the second half of this game that a number of defensive changes were made. Jim Houston went back to his old familiar outside linebacking position in a shift that was to be permanent.

Sunday, Oct. 25 Browns 28, Dolphins 0 (75,313) at Miami

This was one of the big victories of the season for the Browns. They had been beaten badly the week before and were playing a team tied for first place in the Eastern Division of the American Conference.

The Browns, a team that often bounced back over the years, turned in a brilliant defensive performance. The Dolphins were held to eight first downs and a total of 161 yards. Miami accumulated only 42 net yards passing and Dolphin passers were smothered four times for losses totaling 32 yards.

Bob Matheson and Walter Johnson led the surge with five unassisted tackles each. Young Jerry Sherk had four with a couple of assists. Thefts were made by Erich Barnes, Walt Sumner and Dale Lindsey.

Lindsey ran his back 56 yards for a second quarter touchdown after Bo Scott had opened the scoring in that period by taking a 13-yard pass from Nelsen. Gary Collins grabbed a 21-yard pass from Nelsen for a third quarter touchdown and Randy Minniear scored from a yard out in the fourth stanza.

There was one ominous note. Leroy Kelly suffered a leg injury and limped to the sideline in the second quarter.

Sunday, Nov. 1 Chargers 27, Browns 10 (80,047) at Cleve.

Fumbles proved costly to the Browns as they fell before the Chargers after jumping off to a 3-0 lead on Don Cockroft's 11-yard field goal. It was third down and three to go on the San Diego eight-yard line when Bo Scott fumbled in the second quarter after making the first down. The Chargers recovered the ball in the end zone for a touchback.

San Diego promptly moved to its first touchdown. Later in that same second quarter, Walt Sumner bobbled the ball as he tried to field a punt. It was picked up by Chuck Detwiler who dashed 20 yards for six more points.

The Chargers scored on a one-yard plunge by Brad Hubbert and two field goals by Mike Mercer after the intermission. The Browns threatened just once in those last two periods but that ended when Bill Nelsen's pass, intended for Chip Glass, was intercepted by safety Jim Tolbert.

Cleveland played this game without the injured Leroy Kelly but Bo Scott got 82 yards for a 6.3-yard average and Reece Morrison accumulated 76. Mike Phipps saw some late action and hit on his only throwing attempt for 20 yards.

Thus the Browns hit the halfway mark of the season with a 4-3 record. They remained in first place in the Central Division.

Sunday, Nov. 8 Raiders 23, Browns 20 (54,463) at Oakland

George Blanda opened and closed the scoring with field goals. It simply was too much of the old man as the Browns suffered their toughest loss of the season.

With just over four minutes remaining Cleveland moved out to a 20-13 lead on Don Cockroft's 32-yard field goal. It was then that Blanda, in the game for the injured Daryle Lamonica, went to work.

Starting on the Oakland 31-yard line, he moved to the tying touchdown in eight plays. He completed four passes, the payoff being a 14-yard effort into the end zone to Warren Wells. Blanda converted and it was 20-20 as the Browns took over with 1:19 left.

Cleveland made one first down but Bill Nelsen's pass intended for Milt Morin, was intercepted by Kent McCloughan. There were only 34 seconds left and the Raiders were on the Cleveland 49 but Blanda came through with a 52-yard field goal.

Almost forgotten was the fact that Bo Scott made a beautiful 63-yard touchdown run and finished with 101 yards. The Browns flew back home in a tie with Pittsburgh in the Central Division and with hopped-up Cincinnati next on the agenda.

Sunday, Nov. 15 Bengals 14, Brown 10 (60,007) at Cincin.

Mike Phipps made his first start for the Browns and the club moved to a touchdown the first time it had the football. Leroy Kelly swept end for eight yards and the six points in the first quarter. That lead was hiked to 10 points on a field goal of 15 yards by Don Cockroft early in the second quarter.

Cincinnati, however, came back to score touchdowns in the second and third quarters. And Cleveland was held scoreless after the intermission. The Bengals got into the end zone first on a 13-yard pass from Virgil Carter to Jess Phillips. So it was 10-7 in the Browns' favor at the half.

The winning touchdown came late in that third quarter. The Bengals traveled 85 yards in nine plays. Paul Robinson rammed through the left side of the Cleveland line for a yard and the six points.

The Browns had one more big opportunity when Dave Jones recovered a fumble by Lamar Parrish on the Cincinnati 37. Cleveland made seven yards in three plays but a fourth down pass from Phipps, intended for Milt Morin, was knocked down to end the threat.

The Browns remained tied with Pittsburgh for the Central lead after this defeat. The victory bounced the Bengals back into contention, however.

Sunday, Nov. 22 Browns 28, Oilers 14 (74,723) at Cleve.

The Browns had something of a new look as they rebounded from three straight defeats to whip the Oilers, 28-14, and stay in the division race. Three interceptions by the Cleveland secondary, some wild pass rushing by rookie Joe Jones and pin-point passing by Bill Nelsen were part of the ingredients for victory.

Jones made his first start at defensive end as the Browns moved back into the Central lead. The thefts were made by Walt Sumner, Ernie Kellermann and Erich Barnes. The one by Barnes put the Browns in position for their second touchdown.

Nelsen hit on 10 of 22 passes. Those were good for 229 yards and three touchdowns. Bo Scott paced the Browns running game with 63 yards and a 4.2 yard average.

Chip Glass was the leading receiver with three catches for 102 yards and two touchdowns. One of those scores came on a 78-yard aerial effort and hiked the Cleveland lead to 21 points with the third quarter just about over.

The Browns defense sacked quarterback Charley Johnson of the Oilers three times for losses of 20 yards.

Sunday, Nov. 29 Steelers 28, Browns 9 (50,214) at Pittsburgh

The Steelers took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when Terry Hanratty connected to Ron Shanklin on an eight-yard pass. Cleveland moved within a point on field goals of 16 and 38 yards by Don Cockroft but that was the closest the Browns came.

The Browns failed to score a touchdown in this game. The last three points also were made by Cockroft on a 46-yard field goal. The Steelers struck with two big second half plays after holding a 14-6 bulge at the intermission.

Terry Bradshaw collaborated with Shanklin on an 81-yard pass play in the third quarter. Early in the fourth quarter, the quarterback clicked with John Fuqua who went 57 yards for a touchdown.

This was one of the Browns' poorest performances of the season. The close of the long afternoon saw Cleveland in a three-way tie for first place in the Central Division with three games left. That top rung was shared by Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, all with 5-6 records.

Lopsidedness of the game was indicated by the fact that the Browns had a total offense of only 175 yards to 425 yards for the Steelers. Their average gain also was only 2.6 yards as compared to 7.6 for the winners.

Monday (N), Dec. 7 Browns 21, Oilers 10 (50,582) at Houston

This was the second Monday night game of the season for the Browns and a second victory. It could have been in part motivated by the fact that the Browns were responding to the announcement from Blanton Collier earlier in the week that he was retiring as of the end of the season.

Such emotion demonstrates itself frequently on defense. The Browns had a great goal line stand in the second quarter when they already were trailing by three points. The Oilers were held for two downs within the one-yard line and after that the tide turned toward Cleveland in this first showing in the Astrodome.

Cleveland's rally showed touchdowns in each of the last three quarters. The touchdowns came on a short pass from Bill Nelsen to Gary Collins, a two-yard run by Bo Scott and a one-yard effort by Leroy Kelly.

Houston scored first on a field goal of 43 yards by Roy Gerela. They didn't get on the board again until the last quarter when Jerry Rhome, an ex-Brown, passed to Jim Beirne for nine yards.

Leroy Kelly again went over the 100-yard mark with 108 yards on 20 carries. Bo Scott had a 5.5 average. Bill Nelsen snapped back after a slow start to hit on 15 of 27 passes for 161 yards. And now the Browns and Bengals were in a tie for first place in the Central Division.

Saturday, Dec. 12 Cowboys 6, Browns 2 (75,458) at Cleve.

The Browns came out of the Monday night game in Houston ailing. Fair Hooker suffered a sprained ankle and both Walt Sumner and Gene Hickerson had knee problems. And they had to face a Saturday afternoon game at home.

Cleveland broke on top when Bob Hayes fumbled a punt by Don Cockroft inside the 10 and then swung back into the end zone after recovering the ball. He was tackled for a safety by the Browns' Chuck Reynolds, Bob Matheson and Fred Hoaglin.

That two-point margin held up through the first half of the damp defensive battle. It vanished before third and fourth quarter field goals of 39 and 37 yards by the Cowboys' Mike Clark.

The Browns really beat themselves with errors, however. Dallas intercepted three passes. There was a blocked punt that led to the first field goal. Gary Collins also lost the ball inside the Dallas 10-yard line in the third quarter on a fumble and he had two costly interference calls against him.

So the Browns wound up the afternoon a half game behind Cincinnati in the standings. The Bengals were to hike that margin to a full game with a victory over Houston the next afternoon.

Sunday, Dec. 20 Browns 27, Broncos 13 (51,001) at Denver

The 1970 season really ended for the Browns in the locker room in Denver in advance of the game against the Broncos. Before taking the field the players knew that Cincinnati had wrapped up a victory over the Boston Patriots to clinch the Central Division title.

So the only question that remained for the Browns—second place finishers in the division—was what their reaction might be. Perhaps it was because Blanton Collier was coaching the team for the last time, that the response was so good.

The Browns came to life after a slow start. Ahead by only six points at the half, they cracked things wide open in the third quarter with 17 points. So they wound up the 1970 campaign with a 7-7 record. And young Mike Phipps was able to get additional experience at quarterback in the last period.

The Broncos kept trying but their last threat was ended when Ben Davis intercepted a pass. And that could have been a good omen for the Browns as it appeared that the defensive back—out all of 1969 with a knee injury and on the cab squad at the start of the 1970 season—may have come all the way back.

Collier was hoisted on the shoulders of some of his players and given a ride from the field. His last game with the Browns was a victorious one.

NOTES

PICK-N-PAY GIVES EAGLE STAMPS

EAGLE STAMPS ARE BETTER THAN COOKIE JAR MONEY

Saving Eagle Stamps is like having a little money put aside in the cookie jar . . . only better. So nice for buying those little things you want for yourself. And they don't come out of your budget . . . they're bonus savings for shopping at Pick-N-Pay.

More Browns fans buy their meat at  than at any other market!

Every beef cut is naturally aged
