GIVE BACK

TO NORTHEAST OHIO

WITH A COMMITMENT TO

EDUCATION AND YOUTH FOOTBALL

WHILE ENGAGING THE

COMMUNITY THROUGH THE

SIGNATURE FIRST AND TEN

VOLUNTEER MOVEMENT.

THE BROWNS HAVE UNIFIED AND STREAMLINED THEIR MANY PHILANTHROPIC EFFORTS THROUGHOUT NORTHEAST OHIO THROUGH "BROWNS GIVE BACK"

Giving back to Northeast Ohio is a core value of the Cleveland Browns organization, and Browns Give Back creates a measurable, thoughtful and impactful approach to enrich the communities in which we live, work and play through financial contributions and service projects.

The Browns' philanthropic efforts through the Cleveland Browns Foundation, Community Relations and personal giving from Dee and Jimmy Haslam, coaches, players and the rest of the Browns organization are unified together under the Browns Give Back platform. The target of these endeavors is devoted to three focus areas: EDUCATION, YOUTH FOOTBALL and the team's signature FIRST AND TEN volunteer initiative.

"As stewards of this franchise we recognize the platform our organization has to unify Northeast Ohio in so many ways," said Dee and Jimmy Haslam. "We take great pride in the responsibility of every member of our organization to positively impact this community which has provided an incredible amount of support during our time in Cleveland. Our Browns Give Back initiative is keenly focused through a streamlined approach on areas that we feel can improve the lives of children while engaging our community and inspiring others to get out and make an impact by volunteering their time to a cause."

The Browns focus on education and youth football is a direct reflection on supporting children first, who represent the future of our city. When the children of Northeast Ohio succeed and accomplish their goals on their way to becoming adults, everyone in the area, including the Browns, benefits and wins. The same goes for volunteerism, which is encouraged and amplified through First and Ten, not only locally but in the cities in which our fans and teammates live.

GET 2 SCHOOL PROGRAM

Did you know?

Chronic absence (missing 18 days or more of school) makes Ohio students less likely to graduate on-time from high school.

In 2018, over 260,000 Ohio students were chronically absent (16%).

Results After 3 Years

22% Reduced off-track attendance (10 or more days) by nearly 22%, translating to more than 4,100 Cleveland students improving their attendance record and chances of graduating high school.

Growing Our Impact

As part of its ongoing commitment to education, specifically school attendance, the Cleveland Browns Foundation is set to launch a statewide attendance campaign designed to both raise awareness and offer resources to help Ohio families, schools and community partners make attendance a priority. The goal is to increase attendance and decrease chronic absenteeism for all students. This will significantly increase the odds of students achieving inside the classroom and ultimately afford them a brighter future. By shifting grant making efforts to support select school districts, the data-driven approach looks to remove attendance-related barriers and create a school-going culture, ensuring Ohio's most valuable resource can learn, succeed and unlock their full potential.

By Getting to School Every Day, You're Preparing for a Succssful Future

"A group of us is smarter than any one of us...we all need to work hard to create schools where students like coming to learn, where they are challenged by people who care for them and where parents are invited to be partners in the process."

- Antwan Wilson, Council of Distinguished Education

BROWNS GIVE BACK - YOUTH FOOTBALL

CLEVELAND BROWNS FIELD PROJECTS

SINCE MAKING CLEVELAND OUR HOME, WE HAVE FOCUSED ON IMPROVING YOUTH FOOTBALL AND EDUCATION FOR THE ENTIRE REGION. BY INSTALLING THESE SYNTHETIC TURF FIELDS, WE ARE ABLE TO COMBINE THOSE TWO PASSIONS TO GIVE OUR YOUTH, SCHOOLS AND COMMUNITIES YEAR-ROUND ACCESS TO THE RESOURCES THEY DESERVE.

- DEE & JIMMY HASLAM

As part of the Browns' dedication to education, youth and high school football and Cleveland, Dee and Jimmy Haslam and the Browns organization announced in May 2016 the commitment to provide five Cleveland Metropolitan School District (CMSD) fields with high-quality synthetic turf over a two-year span. During the community impact project's planning stages, CMSD identified five fields that would provide the most significant results throughout the city. The team will add two more fields in 2019, bringing its total to nine in the past four years.

Three fields – Roye Kidd Field, James F. Rhodes Field and Bump Taylor – were completed for the start of the 2016 high school football season, while John Adams Field and John Marshall Field completed construction in fall 2017.

The Senate League fields, available to all CMSD schools, are lined to accommodate multiple sports to offer more students opportunities to benefit from the upgraded playing surfaces. Through the project, the Cleveland Muny League, CMSD physical education classes and local community members will now receive additional access to the fields, given many time limitations related to grass field maintenance have been eliminated with the implementation of synthetic turf.

In 2018, the Browns committed to providing two new high school fields – one at Toledo's Roy C. Start High School and one at Lorain High School's George Daniel Field. In 2019, the Browns have furthered their commitment by providing two new fields – one at Boys Hope Girls Hope of Northeast Ohio and one at Akron's Ellet High School.

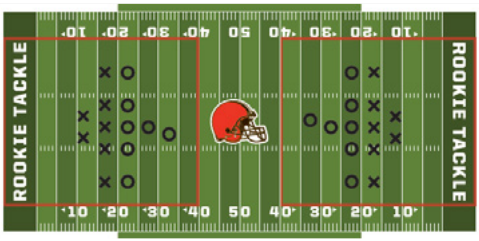

LEGENDS CLINIC

With the Browns new fields throughout Greater Cleveland, Lorain and Toledo, new opportunities to play football have been created. In Summer 2018, the Browns introduced the Cleveland Browns Legends Clinic. Nearly 1,000 kids had the opportunity to attend this free clinic.

Throughout the event, Browns alumni serving as Play Football Ambassadors and high school coaches offered tips and hands-on instruction, including lectures, fundamental football skills stations, contests and non-contact games in a high-energy, fun, and positive environment.

FOOTBALL DEVELOPMENT MODEL

FLAG FOOTBALL ► ROOKIE TACKLE FOOTBALL ► 11-PLAYER TACKLE FOOTBALL

JR. BROWNS NFL FLAG

Jr. Browns NFL FLAG is the Cleveland Browns official youth flag football program for children 5-14 years old. It provides boys and girls the opportunity to play in one of the NFL's largest organized non-contact football leagues. Started in 2018 with eight community programs throughout Northeast Ohio, it now extends to more than 70 programs throughout the region. Additionally, the Browns launched the new Jr. Browns NFL FLAG In-School program for 40 schools, impacting nearly 10,000 students.

ROOKIE TACKLE

Launched in 2017, the Browns and local youth football organizations across the country are hosting USA Football Rookie Tackle programs to further introduce and evaluate the new education and skills-progression focused version of the sport.

USA Football's Rookie Tackle was created to provide a playing structure and format to serve as a youth football development bridge between flag football and 11-player tackle. In line with other sports' models, Rookie Tackle offers young participants an opportunity to be introduced to or progressively learn more about football fundamentals, strategy and the game itself prior to advancing to full 11-on-11, 100-yard competition that is equivalent to the high school, collegiate and professional ranks.

The Cleveland Browns were the first NFL team to help coordinate USA Football's "modified tackle" football scrimmages and a Rookie Tackle pilot league within their home market as the two organizations continue their partnership and dedication to advance youth players' enjoyment of playing the country's most popular sport.

To help educate coaches, the Browns hosted a free Rookie Tackle Coaches Clinic at FirstEnergy Stadium, led by legendary St. Ignatius Head Football Coach and Browns Youth Football Ambassador Chuck Kyle. During the clinic, new and existing programs learned about the Football Development Model, 7 on 7 Rookie Tackle Coaching Techniques, on-field set up and more.

HELMETS PROGRAM

HELMETS, in association with University Hospitals and Xenith, aims to advance player safety by awarding an eligible Ohio area high school football program with $25,000 in new Xenith football helmets. As a prerequisite, programs must commit to enhancing player health and safety by enrolling in USA Football's medically endorsed Heads Up Football® program, which offers certification clinics to educate coaches about concussion recognition and response protocols, proper equipment fitting, shoulder tackling, heads up blocking, heat emergency preparedness and hydration and sudden cardiac arrest.

NORTHEAST OHIO YOUTH FOOTBALL SUMMIT

Cleveland Browns Head Coach Freddie Kitchens and Browns coaches Stump Mitchell, Chris Jones and Alonso Escalante welcomed nearly 200 youth football coaches to FirstEnergy Stadium for the 2nd Annual Northeast Ohio Youth Football Coaches Summit. During this event, each youth and high school football coach received their USA Football Heads Up Certification, courtesy of University Hospitals, and received coaching tips for youth football techniques, skills and drills.

BROWNS GIVE BACK - IMPACTING THE LAND

Impacting the Land -- Browns Social Justice Initiatives

During the past few years, Dee and Jimmy Haslam and a core team of Browns executives have met regularly with players to discuss and coordinate community engagement opportunities with organizations and in areas supporting social justice where players wish to make an impact.

Through those discussions, Browns players identified wanting to support police-community relations, including through local Neighborhood Equality & Unity Summits and collaborative visits to Cleveland Recreation Centers; addressing recidivism and creating job opportunities; and providing educational resources to students in need. In addition to the Neighborhood Equality & Unit Summits – designed for Browns players, CMSD students and Cleveland safety forces to talk about their shared community – the team and its players have made contributions to local non-profits who are focused on making a difference in areas related to social justice, as well as engaged with leaders in the community to understand how they can best make a difference in Cleveland and their hometowns.

"WHEN YOU ARE IN LINE WITH A LOT OF GUYS IN THE LEAGUE THAT ARE TRYING TO DO SPECIAL THINGS IN THE COMMUNITY AND TRYING TO DO THINGS TO BETTER PEOPLE, AND WHEN YOU HAVE THE NFL AND TEAMS BEHIND YOU MATCHING THAT EFFORT, WE WANT TO BE ALL HANDS IN. WE HAVE A POWER AND WE HAVE A RESPONSIBILITY TO HELP THOSE IN NEED AND HELP GET THINGS CORRECTED WITH SOCIAL INJUSTICES. IT IS IMPORTANT TO US AS PLAYERS ON THE TEAM, BUT IT IS AS IMPORTANT TO US AS CITIZENS, AS WELL, TO JUST BE THAT VOICE AND BE THOSE LEADERS."

- BROWNS 2018 WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR LB CHRISTIAN KIRKSEY

In May, the Browns dined at EDWINS restaurant following a tour of the organization's main campus, where the team provided a $75,000 grant towards its mission. Founded in 2007, EDWINS Leadership & Restaurant Institute gives formerly incarcerated adults a foundation in the culinary and hospitality industry while providing a support network necessary to their long-term success. Its objective is to teach a skilled and in-demand trade in the culinary arts, empower willing minds through passion for hospitality management and prepare students for a successful transition home.

Last December, the Browns social justice leadership group headed to Bloom Bakery to offer a $75,000 donation to Towards Employment, which supplies training and resources and assists in securing jobs for individuals who have been incarcerated. Prior to that date, multiple Browns players also visited Towards Employment's headquarters to learn about how those groups are impacted when seeking employment, as well as speak with multiple members enrolled in Towards Employment programs.

The Browns and Browns players also made additional contributions to City of Cleveland Recreation Centers in 2018 to help renovate spaces at three locations and create more opportunities for youth to learn and play in their own community.

This past offseason, Browns players also traveled to the City of Cleveland Courthouse downtown and witnessed bail hearings to better understand the process and its challenges, followed by a trip to interact with individuals incarcerated at Bedford Heights City Jail.

The Browns social justice leadership team will continue to expand its efforts in 2019 with the goal of Impacting the Land and inspiring positive change to help create social equality in local communities.

YEAR WITH THE BROWNS 8TH

Dee and Jimmy Haslam are committed to restoring championship football in Cleveland. To best position the team for success, the Haslams have consistently invested in the organization and its facilities to provide the best resources available, while working diligently and responsibly in partnership with the City of Cleveland and the City of Berea.

Prior to the 2016 season, the Haslams and the City of Berea agreed to invest nearly $15 million in the team's training facility. The development resulted in first-class amenities throughout the building, to create a best-in-class environment not only for the team's coaches and players, but for every member of the organization. Through the construction, the team renovated 25,000 square feet of space, added 25,000 square feet to the facility and redesigned the locker room, player meeting rooms, player lounge, cafeteria, training room and installed a lap pool and new hot and cold tubs. The renovation also included the addition of a 4,600 square-foot, fully-staffed wellness center to ensure the optimal social, mental and physical health of every Browns employee. Most recently, the Browns and the City of Berea agreed to a lease extension to keep their headquarters there through at least 2039.

From 2014-15, FirstEnergy Stadium, in partnership with the City of Cleveland, received $125 million of upgrades to modernize the interior and exterior of the stadium. All facets of the project – which included new videoboards, additional lower bowl seating, new and refurbished club and premium spaces, upgraded food and beverage selections and more – were incorporated with the mission to provide Browns fans an enhanced in-game experience, while also improving the team's home-field advantage.

HASLAMS CONTINUED

The Haslams have created three primary areas of focus to set the team's culture in Cleveland and help direct all important processes and decisions for the organization. The club's standard is centered on providing a consistently winning team on the football field; taking exceptional care of the team's fans by providing a premier experience throughout the year; and striving to make a positive impact in the Northeast Ohio community with an emphasis on education, youth football and community engagement through volunteerism.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Dee and Jimmy are immersed in numerous philanthropic and community endeavors to impact Northeast Ohio. Upon becoming owners of the Browns, they quickly engaged themselves in the Northeast Ohio community.

In 2017, the Browns' philanthropic efforts through the Cleveland Browns Foundation, Community Relations and personal giving from the Haslams, coaches, players and the rest of the Browns organization were unified with the launch of "Browns Give Back."

The Haslams established a focus and direction for the Browns Give Back initiative, with a commitment to make a continuing impact in education, youth football and community engagement through volunteerism. They have invested $10 million in Breakthrough Charter Schools, which helps provide equal educational opportunities for local youths throughout greater Cleveland. The couple also made a substantial gift to Cleveland's public schools, helping to refurbish many of the city's athletic fields. In 2016 as part of the their dedication to education, youth and high school football and Cleveland, Dee and Jimmy announced a commitment to provide five Cleveland Metropolitan School District (CMSD) fields with high-quality synthetic turf during the next two years. Three fields – Roye Kidd Field, James F. Rhodes Field and Bump Taylor Field – were renovated before the start of the 2016 high school football season. In 2017, renovations were completed on John Adams Field and John Marshall Field. The fields are available to all CMSD schools and are lined to accommodate multiple sports to offer more students opportunities to benefit from the upgraded playing surfaces. In 2018, the field project expanded beyond Cleveland with the refurbishments of a field at Roy C. Start High School in Toledo and George Daniels Field at Lorain High School. In 2019, the field project has continued with breaking of ground for fields at Ellet High School in Akron and Boys Hope Girls Hope in Garfield Heights. By the start of the 2019 high school football season, the Browns have installed nine turf fields as part of the program over a four-year period. The Haslams and Pilot Flying J have also initiated the turf field project in Knoxville, providing funding to transform 13 fields at area high schools.

In 2017, the Haslams announced that all net proceeds from items purchased in the Browns Pro Shop at FirstEnergy Stadium and during training camp in Berea will go towards supporting the Browns Give Back commitment to education and youth football.

The Haslams worked strategically and passionately to bring the NFL Draft to Cleveland, knowing the impact it could have on the community to host such a signature event. On May 22, 2019, Commissioner Roger Goodell announced that Cleveland would host the 2021 NFL Draft in partnership with the City of Cleveland, Greater Cleveland Sports Commission and Destination Cleveland.

Dee is also committed to the betterment of the Northeast Ohio community through her active involvement as a member of the board of directors for the Greater Cleveland Partnership; the United Way of Greater Cleveland (Executive Council); University Hospitals Systems; the Cleveland Orchestra; and the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame. She also serves on the boards of the University of Tennessee College of Business; the Emerald Youth Foundation; State Collaborative on Reforming Education (SCORE) in Tennessee; and is the acting chair of Lakeshore Park. Dee also serves on the board of the Greater Columbus Partnership.

In 2006, he served as Tennessee statewide campaign chair for Bob Corker, now a United States Senator. Jimmy was also the 2010 Tennessee statewide finance chair for Governor Bill Haslam. In October 2011, Jimmy was recognized as a "Significant Sig" by the Sigma Chi Foundation. Jimmy's additional civic involvement includes service on the boards of directors of Lakeshore Park in Knoxville, Tenn. He formerly served as campaign chair for both Knox Area Rescue Ministries and United Way of Greater Knoxville.

In June of 2017, Jimmy was honored by the Cleveland branch of the NAACP at its 105th Anniversary Celebration Freedom Fund Dinner.

Dee and Jimmy have pushed the Browns to make an impact in the social justice space. They have met with Browns players to support their ideas and efforts in determining the best ways to make an impact. The Browns have hosted three social justice summits; two that brought together the Cleveland Police Department with Cleveland Metropolitan School District high school students to create a forum for open and honest dialogue about social injustice and another that brought community and civic leaders to the Browns facility to engage players and the entire organization. Players have also participated in ride-a-longs with local police departments and the Haslams have provided written testimony in support of state criminal justice reform bills. Dee sits on the NFL's social justice committee that works directly with players to advise league on social justice initiatives and funding of programs.

In January of 2019, Dee participated in a panel discussion as part of the R.I.S.E. Super Bowl Champions of Change Town Hall at the King Center in Atlanta, Georgia to discuss team ownerships' role in the league's social justice initiative.

To help further advance the NFL, Jimmy is a member of the league's business ventures, media, and Hall of Fame committees and chairs the investment committee. Dee serves on the social justice, legislative and conduct committees.

The Haslams received their first award as members of the NFL in 2014 when they were recognized by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the Paul 'Tank" Younger Award for promoting diversity within NFL front offices.

BEYOND THE NFL

In January of 2019, the Haslams expanded their sports interests and investments when they reached an agreement with Major League Soccer to operate the Columbus Crew.

At that time, Pilot operated 100 convenience stores with annual fuel sales of about 125 million gallons. Today, Jimmy serves as CEO of Pilot Flying J, a position he has held since 1996 and the company has grown its network from seven states in the Southeast to 43 states in the U.S., and six Canadian provinces, with more than 750 travel centers and travel plazas. In October of 2017, Warren Buffet's Berkshire Hathaway acquired an investment-stake in Pilot Flying J. Jimmy was thrilled to collaborate with Berkshire Hathaway and expressed those feelings in a

The Haslams first became involved in the NFL by acquiring minority ownership of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2008, marking the first time ownership of the franchise expanded beyond the Rooney and McGinley families. The Haslams kept that stake until taking control of the Browns.

On Aug. 2, 2012, Dee, Jimmy and the Haslam family agreed to purchase the Cleveland Browns. The sale was unanimously approved by NFL owners on Oct. 16, 2012, and the closing took place on Oct. 25.

JOHN DORSEY
GENERAL MANAGER

YEAR IN THE NFL 22ND
YEAR WITH THE BROWNS 2ND

SUPER BOWLS WON XXXI XLV

John Dorsey was named General Manager of the Cleveland Browns on December 7, 2017. Following a six-year playing career as a linebacker with the Green Bay Packers, Dorsey has worked in NFL player personnel for 27 years, including four years as the General Manager of the Kansas City Chiefs. During those 27 seasons, he has helped his teams to 19 playoff berths, 11 divisional titles, three conference championships and two Super Bowl wins.

Dorsey has an impeccable draft record as a General Manager. He has selected a rookie that has made the Pro Bowl each year since 2015 (CB Denzel Ward in 2018, RB Kareem Hunt in 2017, WR Tyreek Hill in 2016 and CB Marcus Peters in 2015). He has also selected QB Baker Mayfield (set NFL rookie passing touchdown record in 2018), QB Patrick Mahomes (voted NFL MVP in 2018), RB Kareem Hunt (led NFL in rushing yards as a rookie in 2017) as well as first team All-Pro honorees and multiple-time Pro Bowlers: TE Travis Kelce, WR Tyreek Hill and CB Marcus Peters.

In his first season with the Browns, Dorsey built a roster that recorded the best turnaround in team history – a 7.5 game-win improvement – from 0-16 in 2017 to 7-8-1 in 2018. He orchestrated trades that landed Pro Bowl WR Jarvis Landry and former first-round CB Damarious Randall. In free agency, the team signed 10 unrestricted free agents and during the 2018 NFL Draft, the Browns selected nine players, including Mayfield (first overall) and Ward (fourth overall).

This offseason, Dorsey completed a blockbuster trade that netted the Browns Pro Bowl and All-Pro WR Odell Beckham Jr. and Pro Bowl DE Olivier Vernon. The club also added Pro Bowl DT Sheldon Richardson and Pro Bowl RB Kareem Hunt. The 2019 draft class consisted of seven players, including the club's first pick CB Greedy Williams.

With Dorsey as General Manager in Kansas City from 2013-16, the Chiefs recorded a 43-21 (.672) record, the fourth-highest winning percentage in the NFL during that span. Kansas City recorded at least nine wins each season and advanced to the postseason three times. In 2016, the Chiefs went 12-4, won the AFC West title and finished 6-0 in divisional play. After starting 1-5 in 2015, the Chiefs recorded the greatest turnaround in a single season in NFL history as the team won its final 10 regular season games and advanced to the postseason. In his first year with the Chiefs, Dorsey was named the 2013 Executive of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America after helping the club to an 11-5 record after the team went 2-14 the year prior to Dorsey's arrival.

During his five drafts with Kansas City (2013-17), every player Dorsey selected in the first round went on to earn Pro Bowl honors. He selected Mahomes (2017), Peters (2015), DL Dee Ford (2014) and OL Eric Fisher (2013). He also drafted Pro Bowlers in Hunt (third round, 2017), Kelce (third round, 2013), WR Tyreek Hill (fifth round, 2016) and LB D.J. Alexander (sixth round, 2015). Dorsey also traded for QB Alex Smith in 2013, who set a number of Chiefs passing records and was selected to multiple Pro Bowls.

Dorsey was first hired as a college scout by Green Bay in 1991. He spent 21 years as an executive with the Packers. He served as a college scout (1991-96), director of college scouting (1997-98, 2000-11) and director of football operations (2012). In 1999, he was director of player personnel with the Seattle Seahawks.

While overseeing Green Bay's college scouting department, the Packers found success building their team through the draft. Dorsey worked closely with Green Bay's general manager and helped the Packers select QB Aaron Rodgers in the first round of the 2005 draft. Rodgers led Green Bay to a victory in Super Bowl XLV and was named Super Bowl MVP. Dorsey also helped with the selections of Pro Bowlers LB A.J. Hawk, WR Greg Jennings, NT B.J. Raji and LB Clay Matthews.

Selected by Green Bay in the fourth round of the 1984 draft, Dorsey appeared in 76 career regular season games as a linebacker and on special teams. He was a special teams captain and set the Green Bay single-season club record with 35 special teams tackles in 1984.

A four-year starter at linebacker for Connecticut, Dorsey was named the Yankee Conference Defensive Player of the Year during his junior and senior seasons. He earned Division I-AA All-America honors and finished as the conference's all-time leading tackler. He graduated with degrees in economics and political science.

Dorsey has been active in making a difference in the community as a player and executive. He was voted the Packers Man of the Year in 1987 for his civic contributions.

In 2016, Dorsey was inducted in the Fork Union Military Academy Hall of Fame. Fork Union Military Academy is a nationally recognized school in central Virginia that Dorsey graduated from in 1980.

In June, Dorsey was announced one of 177 players listed on the 2020 College Football Hall of Fame ballot. The Hall of Fame class will be announced in January 2020.

A firm believer that football is more than just X's and O's, Kitchens' core beliefs are about trust, respect and the team over any individual. Kitchens used this philosophy when building his first coaching staff. He wanted a cohesive unit that bases everything on one thing – winning football games. He hired former head coach Steve Wilks as defensive coordinator, offensive guru Todd Monken as offensive coordinator, veteran special teams coach Mike Priefer as special teams coordinator and seasoned offensive line coach James Campen as offensive line/associate head coach.

In 2018, Kitchens took over as Browns' offensive coordinator following Week 9 and helped the team to a dramatic turnaround. During the second half of the season, the Browns finished among the league leaders in several categories including yards per game (fourth with 395.1), passing touchdowns (tied for fourth with 19) and total touchdowns (tied for sixth with 25). Cleveland surrendered just five sacks during the second half of the season - by far the lowest of any team in the league - compared to 33 in the first half. The Browns also scored touchdowns on 19 of 24 trips to the red zone en route to posting a 5-3 record over the final eight weeks.

KITCHENS CONTINUED

Kitchens played a key role in the development of several rookies, including QB Baker Mayfield. The No. 1 overall pick set an NFL rookie record with 27 touchdown passes and finished sixth in NFL rookie passing yards with 3,725, despite starting just 13 games. On the ground, RB Nick Chubb set a Browns rookie record with 996 yards, including recording the longest rush in Browns history and the second-longest run by rookie in NFL history (92 yards vs. Atlanta on Nov. 11). In addition, G Joel Bitonio was selected to his first career Pro Bowl and WR Jarvis Landry was named to his fourth Pro Bowl.

Prior to the Browns, Kitchens spent 11 seasons with the Arizona Cardinals. He spent 2017 as running backs coach. He was also quarterbacks coach for four years (2013-16) and tight ends coach for six seasons (2007-12).

"BENJAMIN E. MAYS HAD A QUOTE, 'THOSE WHO START BEHIND IN THE GAME OF LIFE MUST RUN FASTER TO CATCH UP.' I HAVE BEEN RUNNING FAST MY WHOLE LIFE. I THINK THAT IS GOING TO CARRY OVER INTO THIS PROGRAM. I THINK THE PROGRAM OF THE FOOTBALL TEAM, THE PRODUCT THAT YOU PUT ON THE FIELD, IS IN DIRECT CORRELATION OF HOW THE COACH IS. THAT IS THE WAY I HAVE BEEN MY WHOLE LIFE."

- FREDDIE KITCHENS INTRODUCTORY PRESS CONFERENCE, JAN. 14, 2019

In 2017, Arizona acquired Adrian Peterson during a midseason trade. Peterson, who ranks 12th on the NFL all-time rushing list, led the Cardinals in rushing yards despite playing just six games.

During his time as quarterbacks coach, Kitchens helped Carson Palmer establish multiple single-season team records, including passing yards (4,671), touchdown passes (35) and passer rating (104.6). Palmer also became the only player in Cardinals history to throw for 4,000 yards in multiple seasons (2013, 2015-16). In 2015, the Cardinals had the top-ranked offense in the NFL for the first time in team history and set numerous single-season team records including points (489), touchdowns (59), touchdown passes (35), total net yards (6,533) and first downs (373).

In his final season as tight ends coach, Rob Housler recorded 42 receptions, the third-highest figure by a tight end in Cardinals history. In 2007, Arizona finished tied for fourth in the league with 32 passing touchdowns with eight coming from the tight end group.

Kitchens began his NFL coaching career in 2006 as the tight ends coach with the Dallas Cowboys. In 2006, Kitchens worked with Jason Witten, who was selected to the Pro Bowl.

Prior to the NFL, Kitchens spent seven years coaching on the college level with stops at Mississippi State (2004-05), North Texas (2001-03), Louisiana State (2000) and Glenville State (1999).

A three-year starter at quarterback for the University of Alabama (1995-97), Kitchens finished his playing career with 4,668 yards and 30 touchdown passes for the Crimson Tide. He finished his collegiate career ranked third in school history in career attempts, fourth in career passing yards and fifth in career completions. Kitchens also played baseball at Alabama his freshman and senior seasons, but a pectoral injury forced him to miss his sophomore and junior campaigns.

Kitchens returned to Alabama in April 2019 for a coaching clinic hosted by Nick Saban. As one of the featured speakers, Kitchens stressed that everyone has five choices in life – be bad at what you do, be average, be good, be excellent or be elite. He emphasized if you want to be excellent or elite, you have to have commitment, drive, focus and the passion to do things at a high level and hold yourself to a high standard.

A native of Gadsden, Ala., Kitchens earned high school All-America honors and was named Mr. Football in the state of Alabama his senior season.

Kitchens and his wife, Ginger, have two daughters, Bennett and Camden.

HOW THE BROWNS WERE NAMED

One myth is that the team was named after the popular boxing champion, Joe Louis, "The Brown Bomber."

However, when owner Arthur McBride brought an AAFC team to Cleveland in 1945, he held a newspaper contest to name the team and offered a $1,000 war bond to the winner. Most of the entries submitted wanted the name Browns because the extremely popular Paul Brown was the team's head coach.

Coach Brown thought it wouldn't be proper to name the team after him, and the entry "Panthers" was selected. A few weeks later, a man approached McBride and said he owned a semi-pro team in the 1920s called the Cleveland Panthers and he still owned the rights to the name.

McBride could have bought the man off, but Brown vetoed the idea. The coach didn't want the new team to be associated with a losing franchise. Instead of holding a new contest, Brown reluctantly agreed on the name "The Browns."

JIM BROWN STATUE UNVEILED AT FIRSTENERGY STADIUM

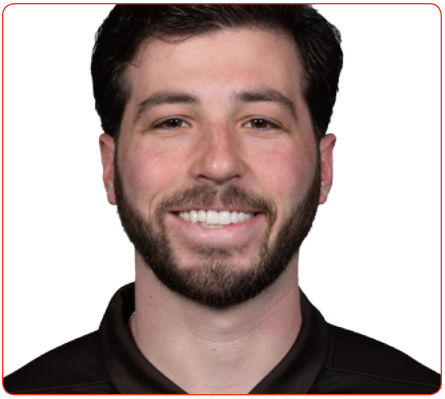

On September 18, 2016 during Browns Alumni Weekend, a statue of Jim Brown's likeness was unveiled outside the southeast corner of FirstEnergy Stadium.

"It's pretty hard to argue with what Jim did as a player," said Jimmy Haslam during the ceremony. "I'm sure you could argue with some various franchises whether he is the greatest NFL player of all time, even the greatest NFL running back, but it would be pretty hard to argue that he is not the greatest Cleveland Brown of all time."

The statue is a first for the Browns honoring a former player, and the team commissioned nationally-recognized sculptor David L. Deming of Lakewood, Ohio, for the statue.

"One of the reasons we have such a tremendous fan base today is that so many of us grew up watching Jim Brown play and remembered (No.) 32 and how he dominated for nine years," Haslam said.

Cleveland's No. 1 draft choice in 1957 from Syracuse, Brown starred in both football and lacrosse during his collegiate career. He went on to fulfill a storied NFL career, which included leading the NFL in rushing during eight of his nine seasons. He appeared in nine consecutive Pro Bowls and was named the NFL's MVP three times (1957, 1958 and 1965). Brown owns team records for most combined net yards (15,459), career rushing yards (12,312), most points in one season (126), career TDs (126), rushing TDs (106), most consecutive games scoring a TD (10) and most 1,000 yard seasons (seven).

Brown's No. 32 was retired by the club and he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971. A statue of his likeness was unveiled outside the southeast corner of FirstEnergy Stadium in 2016.

Brown is active with his Amer-I-Can Program, which works in schools, prisons and communities across the country. Born on Feb. 17, 1936, in St. Simons, Ga., Brown and his wife, Monique, live in California with their two children.

HATS OFF TO OUR HEROES

Following the tragedy on Sept. 11, 2001, the Cleveland Browns created the Hats Off to Our Heroes program to recognize and salute the accomplishments and services of those from the local community.

The Browns honor and salute each branch of the military, as well as every day local heroes, during each regular season home game. These men and women join the team as special guests seated in the Honor Row and are recognized at the end of the first quarter.

The Cleveland Browns Hats Off to Our Heroes program was awarded the 2003 Best Single Program Award from the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame.

BROWNS VS. AAFC ALL-STARS

In its four years of existence, the All-America Football Conference (AAFC) was dominated by the Browns as Cleveland won the league's championship every year and was named lifetime champions. In 1949, the final year of the AAFC, the Browns took part in an additional exhibition after being crowned league champions.

Six games after defeating the San Francisco 49ers and winning the league title, Cleveland took on the AAFC All-Stars in Houston, Texas. Named the Shamrock Charity Bowl All-Star Game, the contest was the creation of "Diamond" Glenn McCarthy, a Houston oil tycoon and huge football fan who hoped his city would be able to land an expansion team in the new and improved NFL.

The Browns all-star opponents featured rookie quarterback sensation Y.A. Tittle, who played for the Colts but would later go on to haunt the Browns in the early 1960s with the New York Giants, 49ers FB Joe Perry and HBs Buddy Young and Tom Landry of the New York Yankees. All but Young are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Less than a week off of winning the AAFC title, 12,000 fans in attendance watched the Browns fall to the league's All-Stars, 12-7, in cold and rainy conditions. The contest marked the first game in the city's history that featured integrated players and fans as the Browns had the first two African-American players of the modern era in Hall of Famer FB Marion Motley and OL Bill Willis and later added P Horace Gillom.

In the following year, the Browns, the 49ers and the Baltimore Colts joined the NFL after the AAFC disbanded, making the exhibition the final game in the league's short history. In their first year in the NFL, the Browns went on to win their fifth consecutive championship.

BROWNS COMPENSATORY PICK HISTORY

The Browns have been awarded 13 compensatory draft picks in team history. The 2017 NFL Draft marked the first year that compensatory selections could be traded to other teams. The Browns were awarded no compensatory picks for the 2019 NFL Draft.

Under the rules for compensatory draft selections, a team losing more or better compensatory free agents than it acquires in the previous year is eligible to receive compensatory draft picks. The number of picks a team receives equals the net loss of compensatory free agents up to a maximum of four. Compensatory free agents are determined by a formula based on salary, playing time and postseason honors. The formula was developed by the NFL Management Council. Not every free agent lost or signed by a club is covered by this formula.

SIGNIFICANT BROWNS UNIFORM CHANGES SINCE 1946

1946 – In the team's inaugural season, the Browns wore plain white helmets and sported white and brown jerseys with classy, shadow-boxed numbers. These jerseys were worn for only one season.
1947 – The Browns introduced what is now viewed as the "classic" Browns uniform.
1950 – The Browns introduced solid orange helmets for the first time as part of their uniform.
1953 – Orange uniforms are introduced for the first time when they don them for their home opener against the Philadelphia Eagles. They would appear again in exhibition games in 1954 and 1955 before being shelved for 47 years.
1957 – For three seasons, the Browns added brown jersey numbers to all of their helmets.
1960 – For one season only, the Browns incorporated two brown stripes that flank the existing white center striped helmets along with the brown jersey numbers on the side.
1969 – A commemorative patch was added to the uniform to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the NFL. This is the first time that a patch of any kind was worn on the uniform.
1970 – Names were introduced to the back of all jerseys and remained a permanent fixture.
1975 – Orange pants were introduced for the first time and worn regularly. All facemasks on helmets were also changed to white in color.
1984 – Jerseys were redesigned as solid orange pants were replaced by white pants that for the first time featured an orange center stripe outlined with brown stripes to go with solid orange or brown socks. Brown jerseys with orange numbers were worn for the preseason before being scrapped because numbers proved to be too difficult for spotters to recognize during the game.
1985 – The team returned to the "classic" Browns look.
2002 – Orange jerseys made a return to the field for the Browns.
2003 – An orange center stripe returned to the pants for first time since 1984.
2008 – Solid brown pants were introduced for the first time.
2016 – Browns introduce new uniform design.

NFL PLAYER LIMITS

The Active/Inactive List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract who are eligible for preseason, regular season and postseason games. Teams are permitted to open training camp with no more than 90 players under contract and thereafter must meet one mandatory roster reduction prior to the season opener. Teams will be permitted an Active List of 46 players and an Inactive List of seven players for each regular season and postseason game. Teams also are permitted to establish Practice Squads of up to 10 players who are eligible to participate in practice, but these players remain free agents and are eligible to sign with any other team in the league.

In addition to the squad limits described above, the overall roster limit of 90 players remains in effect throughout the regular season and postseason. The overall limit is applicable to players on a team's Active, Inactive, and certain Exempt Lists, players on the Practice Squad, and players on the Reserve List as Injured, Physically Unable to Perform, Non-Football Illness/Injury and Suspended by Club.

JOE THOMAS RETIREMENT

"This was an extremely difficult decision, but the right one for me and my family," said Thomas. "Playing in the NFL has taken a toll on my body and I can no longer physically compete at the level I need to."

"From the moment I was drafted, the city embraced me in a way that I could never fully describe. I am proud to call Cleveland home. The loyalty and passion of Browns fans is unmatched and it was an honor to play in front of them from the past 11 years. I would like to thank all of the coaches, teammates, staff, fans and everyone who has shown me support throughout my career. Even though I will be hanging up my cleats, I will always be a Cleveland Brown."

"Joe has been a pillar of our organization and one of the greatest to put on a Cleveland Browns uniform," said Dee and Jimmy Haslam. "We want to thank him for everything he has done for the Browns and the Northeast Ohio community. We should all strive for the standard Joe has set to always be available, put the team above yourself and always give maximum effort. One of the first ways we will acknowledge and honor his accomplishments is to enshrine the number 10,363 to recognize his consecutive snaps streak in the team's Ring of Honor at a home game this season. It also won't be long before he takes his rightful place down the road in Canton at the Pro Football Hall of Fame."

Thomas became the fifth player and the only lineman in NFL history to be selected to the Pro Bowl each of his first 10 seasons, joining Pro Football Hall of Famers Barry Sanders, Lawrence Taylor, Mel Renfro and Merlin Olsen. Thomas' 10 Pro Bowls are a team record, surpassing Hall of Famers Jim Brown (nine) and Lou Groza (nine). Thomas was also selected to the Associated Press All-Pro team eight times, including six first-team honors.

The third overall pick in the 2007 draft, Thomas played every offensive snap for the Browns from his rookie season through Week 7 in 2017, when he sustained a torn triceps that ended his consecutive snaps streak at 10,363. His Iron Man stretch, which consisted of 167 consecutive games, is believed to be the longest consecutive snaps streak in NFL history.

ADAPTED FOOTBALL LEAGUE

The Cleveland Browns Adapted Football League, established in 2011, provides children with disabilities the opportunity to participate in an organized, competitive and developmental sport. It is the first competitive adapted football program in Ohio that enables school-aged children and young adults with physical and/or cognitive disabilities the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to play football competitively. In 2018, more than 120 athletes and 100 volunteers participated in the eighth season with numbers expected to show more growth in 2019. The program offers a foundation for success by focusing on skill development, socialization and physical activity. Those building blocks help prepare participants for achievement and growth now and in the future.

BROWNS GIVE BACK FIRST AND TEN BLOOD DRIVE

Each year during training camp, the Browns support the Northeast Ohio community through Browns Give Back by hosting the Annual Cleveland Browns First and Ten Blood Drive at multiple sites across Northern Ohio to benefit the American Red Cross. Browns alumni are also onsite at select locations, where fans have the chance to win Browns memorabilia and preseason tickets. It also continues to be among the largest blood drives that aids Northeast Ohio. This year, the event will be hosted on Saturday, July 27. #give10

2018 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1, GAME 1

BROWNS 21
Sept. 9, 2018 (OT)
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns kicked off the 2018 season with a tie against the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-21. In the first tie for the Browns since 1989, the team's defense forced six turnovers for the first time since 2010. Rookie DB Denzel Ward became the first Browns DB to secure two interceptions in his NFL debut since 1971 (Clarence Scott). Browns DL Myles Garrett forced a career-best two fumbles, while matching career-best marks in tackles (six) and sacks (two). Following a scoreless first quarter, Steelers RB James Conner culminated a 10-play, 88-yard scoring drive ending in a four-yard touchdown run. After the 7-0 halftime break, Browns QB Tyrod Taylor led Cleveland on an opening-half possession that he ended with a 20-yard touchdown run by him, tying the game at 7-7. Pittsburgh answered as QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a 22-yard touchdown pass on the ensuing possession. After forcing the Browns to punt, Conner found the end zone again for his second score of the game, giving the Steelers their largest lead of the game, 21-7. After recovering the team's second fumble of the game, Browns RB Carlos Hyde punched in a one-yard score. Before the final whistle of regulation, Taylor found WR Josh Gordon for a 17-yard strike with 1:58 remaining in regulation to tie the game, 21-21. In the OT period, each team exchanged possessions with punts, before the Steelers put together an eight-play, 31-yard drive to set up a K Chris Boswell game-winning field goal attempt, but Boswell's try missed to the left. Following a Cleveland punt, Roethlisberger was strip-sacked by LB Genard Avery on the following possession. The ensuing Browns K Zane Gonzalez game-winning field goal attempt was blocked by Steelers LB TJ Watt, forcing the teams to tie, 21-21.

Sept. 20, 2018
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns defeated the New York Jets on Thursday Night Football, 21-17, securing the team's first win since Week 16 of the 2016 season. Browns rookie QB Baker Mayfield entered the game prior to the end of the first half due to an injury suffered by QB Tyrod Taylor, propelling Cleveland to 14 unanswered points and a fourth-quarter touchdown en route to a victory. Mayfield finished the game with 17 completions on 23 attempts for 201 yards, scoring on the receiving end of a two-point conversion attempt thrown by WR Jarvis Landry. Landry added eight receptions for 103 yards, his best single-game showing as a Brown. Following a scoreless first quarter, Jets RB Isaiah Crowell opened the scoring for New York, rushing in from seven yards out four seconds into the second quarter. After a Cleveland punt on the ensuing possession, Crowell scored for the second time of the evening from two yards out, capping a 10-play, 63-yard touchdown drive. Down 14-0, and following the Taylor injury, Mayfield entered the game and led the Browns on a six-play, 39-yard drive for a 45-yard field goal from newly-acquired K Greg Joseph. The Jets took their 14-3 lead into the intermission. Following a strip forced fumble by Browns DB Denzel Ward of Jets WR Robby Anderson, Joseph connected on his second field goal, this time from 27 yards out to draw the Browns within one score. Before the final whistle of the third quarter, Browns RB Carlos Hyde capped a 69-yard scoring drive with a goal-line plunge from one yard out. The ensuing two-point conversion attempt was successful, as Landry's end around pass found Mayfield in the corner of the end zone. Jets K Jason Myers ended Cleveland's 14-point burst with a field goal from 28 yards out, giving Cleveland the ball back with 8:55 remaining in regulation. On the next drive, Hyde scored his second one-yard touchdown rush of the game to end a 15-play drive, giving the Browns their first lead of the contest. On a third-down attempt, LB Joe Schobert intercepted Jets QB Sam Darnold's pass. Following a Browns punt, Darnold threw his second pick of the game, as DB Terrance Mitchell picked off his sixth career interception to secure the win for Cleveland.

RAIDERS 45

Sept. 30, 2018 (OT)
Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, Calif.

The Cleveland Browns fell to the Oakland Raiders, 45-42, in the team's second overtime game of the season. Though leading by 14 points midway through the fourth quarter, the Browns allowed the Raiders to score 21 fourth-quarter points and the eventual game-winning field goal in the overtime period. Rookie QB Baker Mayfield, in his first career NFL start, threw for 295 yards and two touchdowns on 21 completions. Fellow rookie, RB Nick Chubb, rushed for 105 yards and a pair of scores on just three carries, a franchise rookie record. DBs E.J. Gaines and Damarious Randall each had an interception, giving the Browns 13 takeaways through the first four games of the season for the first time since 1989. RB Carlos Hyde also scored on the ground for a league-best fifth time this season. Following an exchange of punts to begin the game, Mayfield's second drive ended in an interception returned for a touchdown by Oakland DB Gareon Conley. Down, 7-0, the Browns rallied by scoring 17 unanswered points before the end of the first half. A field goal from K Greg Joseph with two minutes remaining in the first quarter got Cleveland on the board, along with a 63-yard score by Chubb. Following an Oakland missed field goal, Mayfield found TE Darren Fells for a 49-yard passing score, capping a four-play, 70-yard drive. Mayfield's connection with Fells was his first career touchdown pass. The Browns' ensuing two-point conversion attempt was successful, as RB Duke Johnson Jr. ran around the left end to put the Browns ahead by 10 points. However, the Raiders answered with a receiving score from WR Amari Cooper, leading to the halftime score of 17-14 in favor of Cleveland. The Browns scored on each of their first two drives in the second half, with a Joseph field goal and a WR Jarvis Landry touchdown reception, the first in his Browns career. After two fumbles and three punts on five possessions, the Raiders scored 13 unanswered points to take a 34-28 lead with less than 11 minutes remaining in regulation. Returning the favor, Hyde capped a seven-play, 77-yard drive with a one-yard rushing score after WR Antonio Callaway's 59-yard reception to set it up. Later, Chubb scored again with a 41-yard touchdown before Oakland put together a six-play, 53-yard scoring drive with a touchdown pass to TE Jared Cook from QB Derek Carr. The Raiders converted the two-point conversion attempt with a WR Jordy Nelson catch, taking the game into overtime, 42-42. Raiders K Matt McCrane missed his first field goal attempt on the team's first possession, but after forcing a Browns punt on the following drive, he redeemed himself and connected on a 29-yard attempt to secure Oakland's first win of the season.

BROWNS 21

Oct. 7, 2018 (OT)
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns defeated the Baltimore Ravens in overtime, 12-9, the franchise's first win on a Sunday since 2015. With the win, Cleveland advanced to 2-2-1 on the season, the team's best start to a season since 2014 (3-2). Browns rookie QB Baker Mayfield threw for 342 yards on 25 completions and a touchdown. The 342 yards in a single game are the second most by a Browns rookie in franchise history. After a Mayfield pick on Cleveland's first offensive drive, Baltimore capped a four-play drive with a 44-yard field goal by K Justin Tucker to give the Ravens the early 3-0 lead. The three-point lead was Baltimore's only lead of the contest. With 40 seconds before the halftime whistle, Mayfield found WR Rashard Higgins for Higgins' first score of the 2018 season. Each team notched on a field goal in the third quarter, with Browns K Greg Joseph and Tucker connecting from 35 yards and 25 yards out, respectively. Later, Tucker would register his third field goal of the contest, this time from 32-yarder, to draw the score at 9-9. In the Browns' third overtime game of the year, each team exchanged punts after the Browns took the ball to start the overtime period. Getting the ball at the Cleveland 16 yard line, Mayfield orchestrated a seven-play, 65-yard drive to set up Joseph for a 37-yard game winner.

Oct. 21, 2018 (OT)
Raymond James Stadium, Tampa, Fla.

In Cleveland's fourth overtime game of the season, the Browns fell on the road to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 26-23. The overtime matchup tied a franchise record for overtime games in a season. Despite scoring two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and overcoming a 14-point halftime deficit, the Browns fell to 2-4-1 on the season when Buccaneers K Chandler Catanzaro made a 59-yard field goal in extra time. Browns QB Baker Mayfield completed 23 of 34 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. WR Jarvis Landry paced Cleveland's offense by setting a season-high mark of 10 receptions and accounted for 97 yards. Landry also caught his second touchdown of the season. The Browns forced four turnovers against the Buccaneers, advancing their season mark to 20 takeaways. Browns P Britton Colquitt averaged a season-best 51.7 yards per punt, notching a career-long 79 yard punt before the end of the first half to pin the Buccaneers at their own one-yard line. On Tampa Bay's opening drive, Browns DL Trevon Coley stopped Bucs RB Peyton Barber in the end zone for a safety, opening the afternoon's scoring. However, Cleveland would punt on each of their first six possessions, while Tampa Bay took a 16-2 lead after the first half. After the half and down by two touchdowns, Mayfield threw his first touchdown pass of the afternoon to TE David Njoku to bring the Browns within one score. Tampa Bay answered with RB Ronald Jones' rushing score from two yards out, capping a 13-play, 73-yard series. Cleveland answered by orchestrating their longest drive of the game, as rookie RB Nick Chubb rushed for a one-yard score less than three minutes into the fourth quarter. After a DB Jabrill Peppers 32-yard punt return to put the Browns inside of Tampa Bay's 20-yard line, Mayfield found Landry for the game-tying score with less than three minutes remaining in regulation. Set up for a game-winning field goal, Catanzaro missed wide right as time expired to force overtime. Browns LB Jamie Collins Sr. intercepted Bucs QB Jameis Winston on the first drive, but after an exchange of punts, Catanzaro redeemed himself by connecting on a 59-yard boot to down the Browns.

BROWNS 18
STEELERS 33
Oct. 28, 2018
Heinz Field, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Cleveland Browns fell to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 33-18, at Heinz Field in Pittsburgh, Pa. The loss was Cleveland's first in 2018 division play. The 1-1-1 start against division opponents is the club's best mark through the first three divisional games since 2013 (2-1). The Browns opened the game with an 11-play, 66-yard scoring drive that was capped by K Greg Joseph's 34-yard field goal, which was Cleveland's first score on an opening possession this season. Following Browns DB Derrick Kindred's interception, Joseph connected on his second attempt of the day from 45 yards out to give the Browns a 6-0 lead at the end of the first quarter. Pittsburgh answered early in the second quarter with a 43-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antonio Brown. Steelers DB Joe Haden intercepted Mayfield, as Pittsburgh orchestrated a 16-play, 87-yard drive, capped by a Brown receiving touchdown to lead 14-6 at the half. In the second half, Pittsburgh gained two points off a safety, as Browns OL Desmond Harrison was called for a holding penalty in the Browns' end zone. A free kick ensued, which the Browns recovered, setting up a WR Antonio Callaway one-yard receiving touchdown from Mayfield. After the missed extra point, Pittsburgh put together a five-play, 75-yard scoring drive, capped by a Conner 12-yard touchdown run. After regaining possession off of an exchange of punts, Steelers K Chris Boswell connected from 49 yards out, his longest kick of the season, to give Pittsburgh a 26-12 lead through three and a half quarters. Conner added an exclamation point to Pittsburgh's day, scoring a 22-yard rushing touchdown just before the two-minute warning. Browns TE Seth DeValve caught his first touchdown of the season with six seconds remaining in regulation to give Mayfield his second passing score of the game. A failed two-point conversion attempt drew the final tally to 33-18.

WEEK 15, GAME 14

BRONCOS 16

Dec. 15, 2018
Broncos Stadium at Mile High, Denver, Colo.

In the team's second primetime game of the season, the Cleveland Browns defeated the Denver Broncos, 17-16, to secure the team's fourth win in five games. QB Baker Mayfield threw for two passing touchdowns, his seventh multi-passing touchdown game in 11 career starts. RB Nick Chubb also collected his third 100-yard rushing performance of the season. On the offense's opening possession, Mayfield put together a four-play, 51-yard scoring drive, which was capped by a 31-yard touchdown reception from WR Breshad Perriman. The opening-drive touchdown was the unit's third in four games, which marks the first time that a Browns team has done so since the franchise returned in 1999. On the ensuing drive, Denver QB Case Keenum ran in a score from one yard out. Following a K Brandon McManus field goal early in the second quarter, Denver took their first lead of the game, 10-7. Cleveland then answered with a field goal of their own as K Greg Joseph connected from 40 yards out on the following possession. Each QB threw an interception before the half, drawing the halftime score to 10-10. Out of the intermission, Denver forced a fumble of Mayfield to end Cleveland's 15-play drive, turning the takeaway into points off another McManus field goal. Cleveland then capitalized off a DB T.J. Carrie interception, as WR Antonio Callaway caught his fourth touchdown of the season to help the Browns regain the lead, one the team would not relinquish. McManus then connected on his third successful attempt on the ensuing possession to draw the game within one point. Cleveland would then hold off Denver's final offensive push to secure the victory.

BENGALS 18
BROWNS 26

Dec. 23, 2018
FirstEnergy Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio

The Cleveland Browns defeated the Cincinnati Bengals, 26-18, in the club's home finale at FirstEnergy Stadium in the 2018 season. Cleveland's defense kept the Bengals scoreless through three quarters, as RB Nick Chubb rushed for 112 yards on 19 carries, breaking the franchise's rookie rushing yard record. Browns QB Baker Mayfield completed 27 passes for 284 yards and three TDs, which places the rookie at 24 TDs this season, the third-most by an NFL rookie in a season. Following a scoreless opening quarter, Browns TE David Njoku caught a three-yard pass from Mayfield to open the scoring for the Browns, capping a 13-play, 74-yard drive. After forcing a Cincinnati three-and-out, Mayfield tossed another TD pass, his second of the game, to TE Darren Fells for the veteran's third TD this season. K Greg Joseph's extra point hit off of the right up-right, but 10 seconds before halftime, Joseph redeemed himself with a 37-yard field goal to take a 16-0 advantage into the break. At halftime, the Browns held Cincinnati to minus-15 net passing yards in the first half, the first time an NFL team has done so since 2015. On Cleveland's lone third quarter drive, Mayfield connected with WR Rashard Higgins on a 17-yard TD pass for his third passing score of the afternoon. Bengals K Randy Bullock connected on a 51-yard FG to prevent the shut out of Cincinnati's offense early in the fourth quarter. Joseph matched Bullock's score with a 31-yarder of his own, giving the Browns a 26-3 lead midway through the fourth quarter. Bengals QB Jeff Driskel connected on two TD passes in the final five minutes to add 15 points, but it would not be enough to prevent the Browns from winning five out of their last six games.

BROWNS 24

Dec. 30, 2018
M&T Bank Stadium, Baltimore Md.

To finish the 2018 season, the Cleveland Browns fell to the Baltimore Ravens, 26-24, at M&T Bank Stadium. In the fourth quarter, QB Baker Mayfield recorded his third passing touchdown of the game, breaking the NFL rookie record for touchdown passes in a season with his 27. On Mayfield's first pass attempt of the game, Ravens CB Jimmy Smith picked off the rookie and Baltimore turned the takeaway into points off of a K Justin Tucker 38-yard field goal to take the early 3-0 lead. On the ensuing possession, Mayfield completed a 28-yard passing score to WR Breshad Perriman to take an early lead, 7-3. Baltimore answered as QB Lamar Jackson rushed in a score from 25 yards out to regain the lead, 10-7. Jackson followed suit on the Ravens' next possession, scoring another rushing touchdown, this time from eight yards away. Tucker then added another field goal with a little over six minutes remaining in the half. Baltimore took a 20-7 lead into halftime, as the Ravens offense scored on each of the unit's first four possessions to start the game. On Cleveland's first offensive possession of the second half, Mayfield faked a shovel pass to RB Duke Johnson Jr. and found WR Jarvis Landry for a 48-yard touchdown pass to draw the Browns within one score, 20-14. Tucker hit his third field goal of the game midway through the third quarter, which was matched by a Browns K Greg Joseph 35-yard field goal early in the fourth to keep the game within a six-point differential. Tucker then proceeded to connect on his fourth field goal of the game with 7:20 remaining in regulation. On the ensuing drive, Mayfield orchestrated a nine-play, 75-yard scoring series, capped by the history-making 27th passing touchdown of the season. Mayfield's throwing score to WR Antonio Callaway brought the Browns within two points down the stretch. The Browns defense forced Baltimore to a three-and-out, but the Ravens prevented a Cleveland rout with a game-clinching interception by ILB C.J. Mosley.

HISTORY

The Cleveland Browns have one of the richest traditions in professional football, boasting eight league titles, including four NFL championships. In addition, 16 former Browns have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, the ninth-most of any NFL franchise.

The Browns were founded in 1945 as a charter member of the All-America Football Conference (AAFC), under businessman Arthur B. "Mickey" McBride, who would name Paul Brown the team's general manager and head coach. The franchise conducted a team naming contest, and the No. 1 choice was "Browns," highlighting Paul Brown's popularity in the area. In addition to Brown, that first team consisted of future Hall of Famers in center Frank Gatski, quarterback Otto Graham, offensive tackle/kicker Lou Groza, receiver Dante Lavelli, fullback Marion Motley and lineman Bill Willis.

In their first season in the AAFC (1946), the Browns posted a 12-2 record and went on to defeat the New York Yankees in the league's inaugural championship game, 14-9. They were equally successful off the field, averaging more than 57,000 fans to their home games at Municipal Stadium. The Browns would go on to claim the AAFC title in all four years of the league's existence, including a 15-0 record in 1948.

In 1950, the Browns were one of only three AAFC teams to merge with the National Football League, along with the San Francisco 49ers and Baltimore Colts. Despite joining a more established league, Cleveland continued its success as they marched through the 1950 regular season with a 10-2 record before defeating the New York Giants in the playoffs and the Los Angeles Rams in the championship game. In fact, the Browns appeared in the NFL Championship game in each of their first seven years in the league (1950-56), coming away with three titles during that time (1950, 1954-55).

Quarterback Otto Graham guided the Browns to the championship game in all 10 of his professional seasons, helping the team capture seven titles (four AAFC and three NFL). Graham led the AAFC in passing all four years and led the NFL in passing twice (1953 and 1955), while totaling 23,584 passing yards combined in both leagues.

In 1957, the Browns selected Syracuse running back Jim Brown with the sixth overall pick of the NFL Draft. Brown would go on to lead the league in rushing that year with 942 yards in just 12 games as he was named NFL Rookie of the Year. He helped the Browns back to the NFL title game that season, although they dropped a 59-14 decision to the Detroit Lions. The following year, Brown again led the league in rushing, with 1,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. It marked one of seven times over the next eight years in which he rushed for more than 1,100 yards.

After going consecutive seasons without making the playoffs for the first time in franchise history (1961-62), Blanton Collier took over for Paul Brown as head coach in 1963, and guided the team to a regular season record of 10-4 as they returned to the postseason, led by Jim Brown's career-high 1,863 rushing yards. The following year, the Browns put together a record of 10-3-1, capped by a 27-0 victory over Baltimore in the NFL Championship game. The 1964 season marked the first of three NFL title game appearances for the Browns over the next five years.

Following the 1965 season, Brown unexpectedly announced his retirement to pursue an acting career. In his final year, Brown rushed for 1,544 yards, the third straight year and eighth time in his nine NFL seasons that he topped the league's rushing chart.

Following Brown's retirement, Cleveland could not be derailed as the team qualified for the postseason in three of the next four years, including two NFL Championship game appearances (1968-69). Running back Leroy Kelly, an eighth-round draft choice of the team in 1964, rushed for more than 1,000 yards in three of those seasons (1966-68).

On Sept. 21, 1970, the Browns became part of history as they had the distinction of hosting the New York Jets in the first-ever Monday Night Football game, emerging with a 31-21 victory.

Collier wrapped up his coaching career following the 1970 season. He registered a 76-34-2 (.688) regular season record and guided the Browns to four NFL Championship games.

The decade of the 1970s started with the Browns making two trips to the playoffs in the first three years. Then came a stretch in which the Browns missed the postseason seven straight seasons (1973-79). In the final year of that span, however, the Browns, under the guidance of second-year Head Coach Sam Rutigliano put together a record of 9-7 and affectionately earned the nickname of the "Kardiac Kids." Of the team's nine victories that year, seven came by seven points or less. Two of those wins occurred in overtime while three others were decided within the final two minutes of regulation.

This excitement continued into the following season of 1980. After starting the year 2-3, the Browns reeled off five straight wins and victories in eight of their next nine. Of those eight triumphs, six came by six points or less. On the final week of the season, Don Cockroft's

22-yard field goal with less than two minutes to play lifted the Browns to a 27-24 victory over the Bengals at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, as Cleveland captured its first AFC Central crown since 1971 and its first playoff berth since 1972.

In 1985, the franchise underwent a makeover as Marty Schottenheimer was named the team's sixth full-time head coach and the club selected University of Miami quarterback Bernie Kosar – a Youngstown native who grew up in Boardman, Ohio – in the NFL Supplemental Draft. By midseason of his rookie year, Kosar had cracked the starting lineup, leading the Browns to wins in four of his first six starts. Cleveland went on to post an 8-8 record that year, which was good for first place in the AFC Central division. That season, running backs Earnest Byner and Kevin Mack both topped the 1,000-yard rushing mark, a feat that would not be accomplished again by a pair of running backs on the same team in the same season until 2008.

The Browns seemed poised for their first playoff win since 1969 as they held a 21-3 third-quarter lead over the Dolphins at the Orange Bowl before Miami reeled off 21 unanswered points to come away with a 24-21 victory. With Kosar at the helm, the Browns would win three AFC Central division titles over the next four years (1986-87, 1989) and qualify for the playoffs on each occasion. Three of those four appearances resulted in a spot in the AFC Championship game, only to be stopped short of their ultimate destination by the Denver Broncos each time.

In Aug. of 1991, the Browns moved into a new administrative complex in Berea and began holding training camp there in July of the following year.

On Nov. 6, 1995, it was announced that the Browns had signed a deal to relocate to Baltimore for the following season. In Feb. 1996, the NFL announced that the Browns would be "deactivated" for three years and that a new stadium would be built for a new Browns team – either as an expansion team or one that would move from another city – that would begin play in 1999. Cleveland NFL Football (Cleveland Browns Trust) was formed by the NFL with Bill Futterer as President and NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue as Trustee. The Trust represented the NFL in the stadium design and construction, managed the sale of suites and club seats, and sold Permanent Seat Licenses and season tickets. In March 1998, at the owners meeting in Orlando, Tagliabue announced that the Browns would be an expansion team rather than a relocated team. On Sept. 8, 1998, the NFL awarded the new Cleveland Browns franchise to a group led by Alfred Lerner and the NFL formally transferred ownership on Oct. 23, 1998.

The new Cleveland Browns franchise played their first game on Aug. 9, 1999 when they edged the Dallas Cowboys, 20-17 in overtime, in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Fawcett Stadium in Canton to open the preseason. They played their first regular season game on Sept. 12 against their long-time rival Pittsburgh Steelers at FirstEnergy Stadium. Their initial regular season victory occurred in dramatic fashion as a 56-yard Hail Mary from quarterback Tim Couch to wide receiver Kevin Johnson as time expired lifted the Browns to a 21-16 decision over the Saints at the Superdome, in what would be the first of two wins in that first season back for Cleveland.

On Oct. 23, 2002, owner Alfred Lerner passed away and his son, Randy, took over control of the team. Later that year, the Browns won their final two regular season games to finish with a record of 9-7, earning them their first playoff berth since returning to the league just four years earlier.

With the third overall pick in the 2007 NFL Draft, the Browns selected left tackle Joe Thomas. He played every offensive snap for the Browns from his rookie season through Week 7 in 2017, when his streak ended at 10,363, the longest streak in NFL history. He also became the fifth player and the only lineman in NFL history to be selected to the Pro Bowl each of his first 10 seasons.

The team unveiled a Ring of Honor at FirstEnergy Stadium at halftime of the home opener against the Kansas City Chiefs on Sept. 19, 2010. The inaugural class consisted of the franchise's 16 Hall of Famers, as the name of each man was permanently displayed on the stadium's upper deck facade. In 2012, the years of the team's eight league championships were added to the southeast end of facade. In 2018, the number 10,363 was enshrined to honor Joe Thomas' snap streak.

On Aug. 2, 2012, Dee and Jimmy Haslam agreed to purchase controlling interest of the Cleveland Browns from Randy Lerner. The NFL approved the Haslams as the owners on Oct. 16.

The Browns and FirstEnergy Corp. announced that the team's venue will be called FirstEnergy Stadium, Home of the Cleveland Browns on Jan. 15, 2013.

On Oct. 29, 2017, the Browns played their first regular season game outside of the United States when they faced the Minnesota Vikings at Twickenham Stadium in London, England.

John Dorsey was named General Manager on Dec. 7, 2017.

The Browns selected QB Baker Mayfield with the first overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft and in just 13 starts, he set the NFL record for touchdown passes by a rookie with 27.

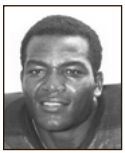

Freddie Kitchens was named the 17th full-time head coach in Browns history on Jan. 12, 2019.

#14 OTTO GRAHAM

From 1946-1955, Otto Graham guided the Browns to 10 league championship games and NFL Championships in 1950, 1954 and 1955. He led the NFL in passing for two seasons and recorded 23,584 career passing yards. In 1953, Graham finished the season with a 64.73 completion percentage, the highest in club history. He was an All-League selection from 1951-55. Graham was inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1965.

#32 JIM BROWN

Brown was the NFL's leading rusher in eight seasons and holds the Browns franchise record for career rushing yards, attempts and touchdowns. An All-America selection from Syracuse in 1956, Brown was named NFL Rookie of the Year in 1957. He participated in nine consecutive Pro Bowls from 1958-66 and was voted NFL most valuable player in 1957, 1958 and 1965. Brown was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971.

#45 ERNIE DAVIS

After being selected first in the 1961 NFL draft, the Browns acquired Ernie Davis in a trade with the Washington Redskins. Tragically, Davis passed away two years later from leukemia and never played a professional game. A star running back from Syracuse, Davis was the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy in 1961 and guided the Orangemen to their only national championship the same year.

#46 DON FLEMING

Don Fleming was selected by the Chicago Cardinals in the 28th round of the 1959 NFL draft. He was traded to the Browns in 1960 and was a mainstay at the safety position. From 1960-63, Fleming intercepted 10 passes and was named to The Sporting News All-AFC team in 1962. During the 1963 offseason, Fleming and a co-worker were sadly electrocuted working a construction job. His passing came a few weeks after Ernie Davis' death.

#76 LOU GROZA

Lou Groza is Cleveland's all-time top scorer with 1,349 points on 234 FGs, 641 PATs and one TD. He scored at least one point in 107 consecutive games and his last-second field goal sealed the 1950 NFL Championship for the Browns. Originally an offensive left tackle, Groza suffered a back injury which converted him into a kicking specialist from 1961-67. He was an All-NFL tackle on six occasions and was the NFL Player of the Year in 1954. Groza was inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1974.

CLEVELAND BROWNS RING OF HONOR

CLEVELAND BROWNS RING OF HONOR

To pay homage to their great history - one of the richest in the NFL - the Browns unveiled the Cleveland Browns Ring of Honor during a special ceremony at halftime of the 2010 regular season home opener, against Kansas City on Sept. 19. The initial group of inductees consisted of the 16 former Browns enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The names of these 16 greats are prominently displayed on the facade of the upper deck of the stadium. In 2012, the years of the team's eight league championships were added to the facade at the southeast end of FirstEnergy Stadium. On Oct. 14, 2018, Joe Thomas' streak of 10,363 was enshrined. Thomas played 10,363 consecutive offensive snaps over 167 games from his rookie season in 2007 until 2017.

PAUL BROWN'S INNOVATIONS

Hall of Fame Coach Paul Brown not only led the Browns to a 167-53-8 record, four AAFC titles and three NFL championships, but he was also an innovator who helped shape the NFL into the game it is today.

A Few Of Paul Brown's Innovations:

* First to use intelligence test as a hint to a player's learning potential.
* Set up complete film clip statistical studies and graded his own players based on film study.
* First use of a radio transmitter to communicate with players on the field.
* First to install face masks on helmets (at the professional level).

FIRSTENERGY STADIUM, HOME OF THE CLEVELAND BROWNS

FirstEnergy Stadium is home not only to a storied football franchise but also to a dedicated, passionate group of people who are the world's greatest fans. At FirstEnergy Stadium, fans take pride in supporting their team in a safe, enthusiastic and family-oriented atmosphere. This special combination of sportsmanship and exhilaration makes Sunday afternoons with the Browns a memorable experience.

FirstEnergy Stadium was built on the hallowed ground of the old Municipal Stadium. The lakefront is home of the Cleveland Browns, where the legendary Coach Paul Brown established Cleveland's first football dynasty in the 1940s and 16 Cleveland Browns established their credentials for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. In 2010, the team's Pro Football Hall of Fame enshrinees were further honored by the unveiling of their names in the Ring of Honor, which recognizes their contributions to the Cleveland Browns organization. The names of these 16 greats are now permanently displayed on the facade of the stadium's upper deck, while Joe Thomas' historic consecutive offensive snaps played streak was recognized when "10,363" was added to the Ring of Honor and unveiled in 2018.

FirstEnergy Stadium is a celebration of the city's renaissance, drawing people to the lakefront every day. The crown jewel of the North Coast Harbor, FirstEnergy Stadium is located next to the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame and the Great Lakes Science Center. While on the south side of the stadium, fans can grab items to represent their favorite team at the Pro Shop, where all of the the team's net proceeds from purchases within the location are then donated to benefit the Northeast Ohio community.

NOT JUST FOR BROWNS GAMES

FirstEnergy Stadium also plays host to various major events and is available for private functions such as wedding receptions, proms, holiday parties and business luncheons. In 2017 and 2019, the stadium played host to internatioal soccer doulbheaders featuring the U.S. Men's National Team during the Concacaf Gold Cup. Last year, FirstEnergy Stadium welcomed the U.S. Soccer Women's National Team for a friendly against China PR, as well as two major stadium tours – Taylor Swift's reputation tour and the JAY-Z and Beyoncé OTR II tour.

In 2017, the facility also hosted a U2 concert. On June 5, 2016, the stadium welcomed the U.S. Soccer Women's National Team for the second leg of a two-game friendly series against Japan.

In 2015, FirstEnergy Stadium welcomed One Direction and Luke Bryan for top-notch concerts. In 2012, "The Brothers of the Sun Tour," featuring Kenny Chesney and Tim McGraw, came to FirstEnergy Stadium. The stadium has also played host to Kenny Chesney concerts in 2007 and 2008, as well as The Three Tenors (2000), George Strait (2000) and *NSYNC (2001).

CONTINUED

On May 29, 2013, the U.S. Men's National Team hosted Belgium for the first international soccer match at the stadium since 2006. On six occasions since 2005, the High School Charity Games have been staged at FirstEnergy Stadium, showcasing some of the top area high school football talent. College football has been a regular on FirstEnergy Stadium's docket. On September 21, 2013, Tuskegee University and Winston Salem State University squared off in the Third Annual Cleveland Classic HBCU football game. From 2006-2013, a college game was played at the stadium each year except 2010.

FIRSTENERGY STADIUM RENOVATION, 2014-2015

In 2015, the Browns completed a two-year, $125 million modernization project that was launched by Dee and Jimmy Haslam in 2013. The Browns, with the City of Cleveland and Mayor Frank Jackson's support, now provide the team and its fans a top-tier NFL facility, one with a significant home-field advantage charged by the Dawg Pound.

"This renovation is a result of wanting to create the best fan experience in the NFL, and also to create a venue to attract other world-class events at FirstEnergy Stadium," said Jimmy Haslam. "We realize the transformative opportunity of this investment for the City of Cleveland. We're excited to reward our fans and the community with the experience they deserve."

All facets of the renovation were incorporated with the mission to provide Browns fans an enhanced in-game experience, while also improving the team's home-field advantage, bolstered by the NFL's most loyal and passionate fan base.

In 2015, the modernization revitalized the look and feel of the stadium's external and internal features, creating a vibrant environment that highlights Cleveland and the Browns' illustrious history. In addition to upgrading lighting, signage and way-finding throughout the concourses, high-definition graphics inside and outside the stadium now depict current players, Browns legends, the historic Dawg Pound and the best fans in the league.

During Phase II, the Browns also increased the availability of Cleveland chef partner options and general concessions for all fans, focusing on Cleveland tastes. Renovated dining locations and upgraded food and beverage amenities were added, including new concepts and offerings, in addition to modernized facades, signage, menu boards and way-finding throughout the stadium. All 35 permanent concession stands were remodeled.

Prior to the end of the 2015 season, the team installed and fully optimized a new WiFi system to offer fans increased access through their mobile devices, including to track stats and scores across the league and additional team information through the Browns Mobile App.

In an effort to further highlight the team's connection to Cleveland and its thriving food scene, celebrity chef concepts including Michael Symon's B Spot and Rocco Whalen's Great Lakes Cheesesteaks are now featured in the 100 and 500 levels of the stadium.

The Browns began their food and beverage transformation through an expanded partnership with Aramark, which in 2014 became FirstEnergy Stadium's general concessionaire after serving as the facility's premium dining and catering company since 2012. During Phase I, the team incorporated menu items from many of Cleveland's award-winning chefs that previously were only available in premium areas. The first stage of the renovation created new stands in general concession locations, highlighted by Symon's B Spot in the west end zone and a new concept from Whalen, Great Lakes Cheesesteaks, in the east end zone.

In the second phase, the team also modernized premium areas, including upgrading all club seats and suites, while adding more top-level entertainment areas. A field-level hospitality location has been constructed opposite of the Browns' locker room, while the Grille Club, north and south clubs and upper- and lower-level suites were restructured and refurbished, with every facet of each area receiving fresh upgrades.

The new video elements are complemented by an entirely new audio system, delivering crisper, clearer audio throughout the stadium. The main bowl's system was entirely replaced with best-in-class audio equipment, and is supported by additional speaker locations throughout the complex that improved clarity to previously shadowed areas. With the new video and audio systems, the Browns have incorporated state-of-the-art technologies that impress fans with high-level scoreboard programming and concert-quality sound.

In 2014, the project also increased the lower bowl's seating capacity while improving sightlines. Many Browns fans are now seated closer to the field and observe dramatically better views of the game, fostering a more intimate environment while enhancing the team's home-field advantage. In addition to creating more prime locations for fans, the Browns expanded ADA seating in the project's first phase.

Easing in-stadium access for fans was another priority in the renovation's initial stage. Two escalators were installed in both the east and west end zones to ensure the most fluid, convenient movement in and between stadium levels. There are now 12 escalators that provide access to stadium concourses, including direct access to the 300 and 500 levels.

For the first time in 2014, FirstEnergy Stadium featured fan decks that host unique engagement areas in both end zones. Each deck offers a special in-stadium viewing experience, with fans gaining access to new locations and activations while still being able to watch the game live.
