THE COACHES

Dick Nolan • Jim Myers • Tom Landry • Red Hickey • Ermal Allen

TOM LANDRY — Head Coach

Tom Landry enters his seventeenth professional football season this year and the way his contract reads, he'll still be with the Cowboys when he enters his 26th season.

A native Texan, he was a natural choice to coach Dallas' entry in the National Football League when the club franchise was granted in 1960. On Feb. 5, 1964, Cowboys owner Clint Murchison announced he had signed Landry to a contract running through the 1974 season. It was the longest contract in the history of pro sports, as well as newsmen could determine.

"It's in line with my philosophy that when you get a good man you want to hold onto him," Murchison explained.

Landry played college football at the University of Texas, with time out for World War II bomber service, and joined the New York Yankees of the old All-America Conference in 1949.

When the two leagues merged in 1950, Landry went to the New York Giants where he was to spend the next ten years as a player, player-coach and defensive backfield coach.

A native of Mission, Texas, Landry has made his home in Dallas for the past nine years with his wife Alicia and three children — Tom Jr., 15; Kitty, 12; and Lisa, 7.

ERMAL ALLEN — Offensive Backfield Coach

Ermal Allen joined the Cowboys in 1962 after 14 years as a coach at his alma mater, Kentucky, and in his first Dallas season the Cowboys ranked second in the NFL in total offense, touchdowns and points scored.

He quarterbacked the Wildcats in his undergraduate days ('39-'41) and was a member of the Fort Benning and Army All-Star teams during World War II and a defensive back with the Cleveland Browns in 1947.

Returning to Kentucky, he worked under Bear Bryant from 1948 through 1953 and under Blanton Collier from 1954 through 1961.

Allen, 44, earned three letters each in football, basketball and golf in college and is a top amateur golfer. His son, Ken, is a half-back at Georgia Tech. The other Allen children are Ann, 19, and Amy, 10.

HOWARD (RED) HICKEY — Offensive End Coach

Red Hickey, now in his second year with the Cowboys, has been around the NFL since 1940.

A native of Clarksville, Ark., Red graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1941 and was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers. He was traded to the Cleveland Rams before the 1941 season and played with them five seasons ('41 and '45-'48) in Cleveland and Los Angeles.

He remained with the Rams for six more seasons as an assistant coach, then joined the San Francisco 49ers in 1955 as an assistant coach, taking the head job in 1959 and remaining as 49er head coach through part of the '63 season.

Red's family—wife Celia and three sons—moved to Dallas in the summer of 1964.

JIM MYERS — Offensive Line Coach

A long-time coach in the collegiate ranks, Myers joined the Cowboys in 1962 after four years as head coach and athletic director at Texas A&M.

He was an assistant coach at Wofford College, Vanderbilt and UCLA and head coach at Iowa State before going to Texas A&M.

The 42-year-old Myers played his college ball at Tennessee ('41-'42 and '46) and Duke ('43). While at Duke in the Marine V-12 program, he was named All-Southern Conference guard.

Jim and his wife have three daughters — Susan, 18; Kathy, 15; and Carol, 14.

DICK NOLAN — Defensive Backfield Coach

Nolan joined the Cowboys as a player-coach in 1962, retiring as a player the following season to limit himself to coaching.

The 33-year-old Maryland product was reunited with Landry last year. They were teammates in 1954 and '55 when Landry was a player-coach for the New York Giants. Nolan was also Landry's pupil in 1956, '57 and '59 when the latter was full-time defensive coach. Nolan was with the Chicago Cardinals in 1958, returning to the Giants for the three following seasons.

A native of White Plains, N.Y., Dick is the father of five children—Richard Jr., 10; Nancy, 9; Michael, 6; Kelly, 5; and Lisabeth, 3.

DON COCHREN — Trainer

Don Cochren joined the Cowboys in June 1965 after one year as head trainer at the University of New Hampshire.

A graduate of Purdue University who gained his physical therapy certificate from Pennsylvania, the 33-year-old Cochren spent two years as trainer at Case Institute in Cleveland and four years as trainer of the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian football league.

Married and the father of three children, he also spent two years as a physical therapy officer in the Air Force.

LARRY GARDNER — Trainer

Almost a native Texan, Larry Gardner was born and reared in Louisiana and graduated from McNeese State in 1961. The 26-year old, who joined the Cowboys staff in June of 1965, graduated from the Hermann Hospital School of Physical Therapy at the Texas Medical Center in Houston in 1962.

He spent two years at the University of California, with time out for a six-month tour of duty in the Army, before becoming football trainer at Stanford University in 1964.

Still single, Gardner was born in Lake Charles, La., and attended school in Sulphur, La.

JACK ESKRIDGE — Equipment Manager

A basketball player who holds one Kansas University scoring record that even Wilt Chamberlain never bettered, Jack Eskridge has been in most every phase of athletics since graduating from high school in Independence, Mo.

The 39-year-old Kansas City, Kan., native played pro basketball for two seasons (1949-50) with the Chicago Stags and Indianapolis Jets of the NBA, after playing at Kansas in 1946-47-48. He also coached five years in Iowa and Kansas high schools and five years at Kansas University. He joined the Cowboys for their first season in 1960.

Eskridge's KU basketball record: He scored 30 points in a half.

GIL BRANDT — Player Scouting Director

A native of Milwaukee, Gil Brandt is a 31-year-old who has managed to crowd a maximum of experience into a few years.

This is his 11th season of professional football talent hunting, his eighth year at it on a full-time basis.

After his graduation from the University of Wisconsin in 1954, Gil scouted on a part-time basis for the Los Angeles Rams from 1955 through '57.

COWBOYS FAN CLUB

Dallas fans of the Cowboys have organized the Cowboys Club. Memberships are $6.00. Its features include a Stadium Club where members can relax with snacks and refreshments before and after games, in-season luncheons, admission to certain practice sessions and trips to out-of-town games. Memberships are restricted to season-ticket holders.

TICKET INFORMATION

Season tickets to the Cowboys' seven home National Football League games sell for $38.50. All season tickets are reserved and when someone purchases a season ticket, he has the right to claim the same seat in future seasons. He also retains an option on that seat for the Salesmanship Club's pre-season game and championship playoffs. Single-game reserved seat tickets sell for $5.50, general admission tickets for $3.50 and student tickets for $1.00.

The Cowboys' Free Football for Kids Program allows up to three children 12 years of age or younger to accompany each adult who buys a $3.50 general admission ticket.

ON WITH THE SHOW

Following is a list of pre-game and halftime shows at Cowboys home games in 1965:

Giants Game—Sept. 19

The Plano (Texas) High School band will present the pre-game show. At halftime, the Tyler Junior College Apache Belles perform some of their dance routines, accompanied by the Tyler JC Band.

Redskins Game—Sept. 26

Pre-game show will be a precision drill by the Cisco (Texas) High School Band. Grambling (La.) College's band makes its first appearance at a Cowboys game at halftime.

Eagles Game—Oct. 10

One of Texas' finest high-school marching bands, Ennis, is featured in the pre-game show. The halftime will be the fourth annual Circus Day with the Cowboys. It features eight rings of acts by the Gil Gray International Circus.

49ers Game—Nov. 7

The 100-piece Many (La.) High School Band will handle the pre-game entertainment, followed at halftime by a precision drill and pageantry show staged by the Arlington State College Band.

Steelers Game—Nov. 14

Navarro Junior College's band and Senioritas, a dance group, are the pre-game entertainers. The halftime show, "The Dance Is the Thing", will display several types of dances.

Browns Game—Nov. 21

The pre-game show will be the Dallas division of the NFL-Ford Motor Pass, Punt & Kick contest. At halftime, it will be the 200-piece Lamar College Band in a program of marching to music.

Cardinals Game—Dec. 11

The Eastern Finals of the National PP&K Contest will be held before the game. During halftime, the Temple (Texas) High School Band and Pepperettes will make their third appearance at a Cowboys game. The show will also feature a musical tour of the U.S. by 225 youngsters.

For the fourth year, the Greater Fort Worth Lions Club Band will provide music during the game, for pre-game introductions and for other special features. The Cowboys' official cheerleaders, the Cowbells, also appear at all home games.

Jim Skinner of Dallas is director of special events at all Cowboys home games.
