THE MANAGEMENT

MURCHISON

SCHRAMM

The Dallas Cowboys are owned by a former 130-pound halfback for Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The Cowboys are run by a former sports writer.

This combination has, while nursing along an expansion team until it became a division champion, proved to be a most effective combination.

The ex-halfback is Clint Murchison, Jr., the wealthy Dallas businessman, who originally served as president of the club. He is still chairman of the board.

Texas E. Schramm is the former sportswriter who served as vice-president and general manager until being named president two years ago.

There are few better qualified club presidents than the California native, who has become recognized as one of the most progressive administrators in professional sports.

Schramm holds a BA degree in Journalism from the University of Texas, acquired between 1939 and 1947 with timeout for a four-year hitch in the Air Transport Command where he made Captain.

While still in school, Schramm was a member of the sports staff of the Austin American Statesman and later sports editor.

In 1947 he joined the Los Angeles Rams as publicity director, and in a 10-year career there, rose to general manager.

He left the Rams to join Columbia Broadcasting System as Assistant Director of Sports in 1957 and was there until summoned by Murchison and Bedford Wynne to guide the Cowboys.

One of his major assets is to be a sound judge of men. It was Schramm who brought Pete Rozelle into pro football as publicity man for the Rams.

Aside from the development of the Cowboys, perhaps his major achievements have been his work with scouting systems, both with the Rams and Cowboys, and the merger of the NFL and AFL.

It was Schramm and Lamar Hunt, owner of the Kansas City Chiefs, who handled all of the preliminary negotiations for the merger.

THE COACH

It is difficult to picture youthful, imaginative Dallas Cowboys coach Tom Landry as the elder statesman of the National Football League coaches.

But his nine-year tenure with the Cowboys, the first and only coach the club has had, earns him that title. There are two — Sid Gillman of San Diego and Hank Stram of Kansas City — who have the same billing in the American Football League.

And in these nine years Landry has turned an expansion team — a team without benefit of a first year draft — into one of the NFL's powers.

After the humble beginning, the Cowboys turned the corner in 1965 and finished 7-7. Since that time there have been two Eastern Conference championships and one Capitol Division title and twice the Cowboys have been to the brink of the NFL championship, losing by the narrowest of margins to Green Bay in title games of 1966 and 1967.

And he has accomplished this with basic defensive concepts which he helped refine himself while with the New York Giants, and with multiple offense techniques which stamp the Cowboys as the most explosive and exciting team in the league.

The Cowboys finished as high as second in team offense in 1962 and second in team defense in 1964, but it was last year the Cowboys enjoyed their finest total effort while winning 12 of 14 games. The offense ranked first and the defense third in the NFL.

Despite the success there are goals which must be reached before Tom can begin to enjoy the measure of satisfaction he deserves. The championship, of course, is the ultimate. Another is a statistical pebble in his shoe. The circumstance of expansion has made it difficult to become a plus .500 coach. Tom's regular season record is 56-63-5 and an 11-3 season would rectify that.

It would be fitting if this were the season as Landry will be celebrating his 20th anniversary in professional football. And it is even more fitting that when the Cowboys do win that Tom should be the field architect as he is a native Texan.

Tom was born in Mission, Texas, in 1924 and became an all-Regional fullback prior to enrolling at the University of Texas.

He was at Texas only one semester before going into the Air Force. He spent the bulk of his service time in England where he flew 30 missions as a B-17 pilot for the Eighth Air Force.

Following his discharge in November of 1945, Tom returned to Texas where he carved out a solid scholastic and football career for the Longhorns. His stay there was marked by some of the strongest teams in Texas' history. He was co-captain his senior year and second team all-Southwest Conference his junior year. Landry was a mainstay on the Longhorn teams which whipped Alabama in the 1948 Sugar Bowl, 27-7, and Georgia in the 1949 Orange Bowl, 41-28.

In 1949 Landry joined the old New York Yankees, playing halfback, both offensively and defensively. When the two leagues merged in 1950, Landry began his long association with the Giants and began building the solid reputation he holds today.

He was an active player from 1950 through 1953 and player-coach in 1954 and 1955, handling the Giants' defense. As a player, he was a defensive halfback in Steve Owens' famed umbrella pass defense, and he played it well enough to be named to the All-Pro defensive team in 1954. In 1956 he retired as a player and became the full-time defensive coach.

The Giants enjoyed some of their greatest successes during Landry's stay with them. They lost a playoff to Cleveland in 1950 for the Eastern Division championship. In 1956, Landry's first year as a full-time coach, the Giants won the world championship in a 47-7 rout over the Chicago Bears. They won the division title in 1958 and 1959, after which Giant head coach, Jim Lee Howell called Landry "the best defensive coach in the business." During Landry's tenure as full-time defensive coach, the Giants fashioned a 33-14-1 record in regular league play.

Before moving here, he lived in Houston during the off-season. Landry received an industrial engineering degree from University of Houston in 1952 and was employed there as an engineer.

Landry enters his 20th professional football season this year and the way his contract reads, he'll still be with the Cowboys when he enters his 25th season. On February 5, 1964, Cowboys' owner, Clint Murchison, Jr., announced he had signed Landry to a contract running through the 1974 season. It was the longest contract in the history of pro sports, as well as newsmen could determine.

"It's in line with my philosophy that when you get a good man you want to hold on to him," Murchison explained.

Tom devotes what little non football and family time he has in the off-season to work with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

At Texas Tom met his wife, Alicia, and they were married in January, 1949, four months before he received a bachelor of business administration degree. They have three children, Tom, Jr., Kitty and Lisa. Young Tom is attending Duke on a football scholarship.

THE ASSISTANTS

ALLEN

FRANKLIN

ERMAL ALLEN Offensive Backfield Coach

Ermal Allen joined the Cowboys in 1962 after 14 years as a coach at his alma mater, Kentucky, and in his first Dallas season the Cowboys ranked second in the NFL in total offense, touchdowns and points scored.

He quarterbacked the Wildcats in his undergraduate days ('39-'41) and was a member of the Fort Benning and Army All-Star teams during World War II and a defensive back with the Cleveland Browns in 1947.

Returning to Kentucky, he worked under Bear Bryant from 1948 through 1953 and under Blanton Collier from 1954 through 1961.

Allen, 48, earned three letters each in football, basketball and golf in college. He won the Southern Amateur in 1938 and was Kentucky State Amateur champion in 1955 when he defeated Bobby Nichols in the semifinals, and again in 1958 when he defeated Frank Beard in the finals.

Allen and his wife, Allie, are grandparents, thanks to their son Ken, a former halfback for Georgia Tech. They have two other children, Mrs. Pat Cunningham, and Amy, 14.

RAYMOND BERRY Offensive End Coach

The all-time great receiver in the NFL, Berry is in his second season as a Cowboys assistant. Prior to last year, his coaching experience had been assisting former head coach John Bridgers in Baylor's spring workouts for several seasons.

Berry, 35, grew up in Paris, Texas. He was a star at SMU before joining the Baltimore Colts where he was to team with Johnny Unitas to form the deadly passing duo. A three-time All-Pro, he caught 631 passes for 68 touchdowns.

In back-to-back seasons in 1960 and 1961 he caught 74 passes for 1298 yards and 75 passes for 873 yards.

Berry and his wife, Sally, have two children, Suzanne, 5 and Mark Raymond 3.

BOBBY FRANKLIN

Defensive Backfield Coach

Bobby, who came to the Cowboys in 1968 after one season of coaching experience as an assistant at Georgia Tech, now has a year of NFL coaching experience under his belt to go with an excellent playing background.

A native of Clarksdale, Mississippi, he was a multisport star as a prep. He attended Ole Miss where he was the regular quarterback under Johnny Vaught for his two final years. The Rebels played in three bowls during his stay.

Drafted 11th by Cleveland in 1960, he was a regular in the secondary for three years and a sometimes starter thereafter in a career that went through the 1966 season.

He is married to the former Beth Koehler of Tunica, Mississippi. They have one son, Bobby Ray, Jr., 7.

JIM MYERS

Offensive Line Coach

A long-time coach in the collegiate ranks, Myers joined the Cowboys in 1962 after four years as head coach and athletic director at Texas A&M.

He was an assistant coach at Wofford College, Vanderbilt and UCLA and head coach at Iowa State before going to Texas A&M.

The 46-year-old Myers played his college ball at Tennessee ('41-'42 and '46) and Duke ('43). While at Duke in the Marine V-12 program, he was named All-Southern Conference guard.

Between his time at Duke and the return to Tennessee, Jim served in the Marine Corps and was discharged a captain. Jim and his wife, Carolyn, have three daughters and two grandchildren. Their daughters are Mrs. Harrison Jones, Mrs. Michael Daly, and Carol, 19, who attends North Texas.

RAY RENFRO

Pass Offense Coach

Ray brought with him a solid background of playing and coaching experience when he joined the Cowboys in 1968. Prior to joining the Cowboys he had last been with Washington as offense coach. The Redskins had the best passing game in the league that year.

He also coached at Detroit after wrapping up his 12-year playing career at Cleveland where he saw duty both as a running back and flanker, although he was used exclusively as a flanker after 1959. He was All-Pro six times.

The 39-year-old Whitesboro, Texas, native was a small college All-American at North Texas where he averaged 7.7 yards per carry and was a 9.5 sprinter.

Renfro and his wife, the former Sandra Clarke of Fort Worth, have three children, Mike 14, Mark 12 and Mitch 10. He makes his home in Fort Worth where he has a dry cleaning establishment.

MYERS

ERNIE STAUTNER

Defensive Line Coach

Ernie Stautner joined the Cowboys staff in 1966 after a season with the Washington Redskins, preceded by two years as player-coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

One of the most honored and popular interior linemen of modern times, Ernie was voted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame this year immediately after becoming eligible. He played 15 years with the Steelers as a 235-pound defensive tackle and appeared in nine Pro Bowl games. He was All-Pro in 1958 and 1959, and, along with former roommate Bobby Layne, is something of a legend in Pittsburgh.

Stautner played four seasons with Boston College after completing a 1943-46 hitch with the Marines.

He and his wife, Helen, have three children: Joseph Robert, 14; Teresa Anne, 13; Carol Anne, 8.

JERRY TUBBS

Linebacker Coach

Jerry became a full time coach in 1968 after serving two seasons as a player-coach for the Cowboys. The 34-year-old Breckenridge, Texas, native spent 11 seasons as an active pro after an outstanding collegiate career at Oklahoma.

Tubbs was a three-year regular for Bud Wilkinson and the recipient of the Walter Camp Award as the nation's outstanding player following his senior season in 1956.

He was drafted No. 1 by the Chicago Cardinals, but went to the San Francisco 49ers on waivers a year later. He was one of the 36 original Cowboys and played as a regular for six seasons, making All-Pro in 1962.

Jerry and his wife, Marlene, have two children, Alan, 11, and Kayla Lynn, 6.

GIL BRANDT — Player Scouting Director

Gil, who has headed the Cowboys scouting department since the formation of the club, is generally recognized to be leader in his field.

The 35-year-old Milwaukee native is moving into his 15th season of hunting professional football talent, his 11th year on a fulltime basis.

After his graduation from the University of Wisconsin in 1954, Gil scouted on a part-time basis for the Los Angeles Rams from 1955 until 1957. And part of that time he was a baby photographer in Milwaukee.

Under Brandt's direction the Cowboys have topped all clubs in the signing of free agents who made the grade, including some basketball players.

DON COCHREN — Trainer

Don Cochren joined the Cowboys in June 1965 after one year as head trainer at the University of New Hampshire.

A graduate of Purdue University who gained his physical therapy certificate from Pennsylvania, the 37-year-old Cochren spent two years as trainer at Case Institute in Cleveland and four years as trainer of the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian football league. He also spent two years as a physical therapy officer in the Air Force.

Don and his wife, Imogene, have three children, Diana, 12, Mickey, 10, and David, 9.

LARRY GARDNER — Trainer

When Larry, 30, joined the Cowboys in 1965, it wasn't the first time he'd been in Texas. The McNeese State alum had graduated from the Hermann Hospital School of Physical Therapy at the Texas Medical Center in Houston in 1962.

He spent two years at the University of California, with time out for a six-month tour of duty in the Army, before becoming football trainer at Stanford University in 1964.

Larry was named secretary of the Professional Football Trainers Assn., during the off season.

Gardner was born in Lake Charles, La., and attended school in Sulphur, La. He is married to the former Carol Burden. They have one daughter, Mimi Carol, 3, and Matthew James, 1.

JACK ESKRIDGE — Equipment Manager

A basketball player who holds one Kansas University scoring record that even Wilt Chamberlain never bettered, Jack Eskridge has been in most every phase of athletics since graduating from high school in Independence, Mo.

The 43-year-old Kansas City, Kan., native played pro basketball for two seasons (1949-50) with the Chicago Stags and Indianapolis Jets of the NBA, after playing at Kansas in 1946-47-48. He also coached five years in Iowa and Kansas high schools and five years at Kansas University. He joined the Cowboys for their first season in 1960.

Eskridge's KU basketball record: He scored 30 points in a half.

THE PLAYERS

ANDRIE, GEORGEDefensive End*Marquette*Ht: 6-7*Wt: 250*Born: 4-20-40*8th Year (D-6 for '62)

PRO: Andrie, along with sidekick Bob Lilly, has opened a football school for kids. At the opening, Andrie was reflecting on his play as a youngster: "What I remember is how the little guys kept running around me. I always thought I was just as fast and quick as any of the other kids. What I was, was bigger, period." Times change. Now a seven-year veteran, Andrie is still altering that. Just last season Pittsburgh tackle John Brown said he had never seen Andrie as quick as he is now. The result is he and Lilly represent as tough a tandem as there is in the league. He played on the left side at first, then was moved along side Lilly. The response was immediate and effective. The Cowboys annually are close to the top in trapping the quarterback and Andrie is the leader. Andrie has excellent speed for his size which is considerable. In the 1967 championship in Green Bay, Andrie scored one of two Cowboys touchdowns when he picked up a ball knocked loose from Bart Starr and scored from the seven-yard line.

COLLEGE: Missed his entire senior season when Marquette dropped organized football, yet the Cowboys took him in the 6th round. Played end in college under Coaches Lisle Blackbourne and John Druze.

PERSONAL: Native of Grand Rapids, Michigan, where he attended Catholic Central. Married Mary Lou Lorscheider of Waukesha, Wisconsin. They have two boys—George, 5 and Michael, 4 and another baby is due just before the start of this season. George makes his home in Dallas where he is co-director of Lilly-Andrie School of Fundamental Football and board member of Professional Enterprises.

BALES, LARRYSafety*Emory & Henry*Ht: 6-0*Wt: 190*Born: 8-29-47*1st Year (D-7 for '69)

Larry played a major role in his team's establishing a NAIA offense record of over 5,000 yards this season. Larry rushed 96 times for 648 yards and four touchdowns and caught 61 passes for 1,202 yards and 12 TD's. A four-year regular, he started out as a quarterback in the freshman eligible school and as a sophomore moved to running back and flanker. He also plays basketball, track and baseball and boasts 4.65 speed. He grew up in Marion, Virginia.

BAYNHAM, CRAIGRunning Back*Georgia Tech*Ht: 6-1*Wt: 202*Born: 7-24-44*3rd Year (D-12 for '66)

PRO: Baynham, who says as a rookie two years ago, "I worried about the mistakes I might make and went right out and made them," gained considerable confidence in his second season last year. It came with being a regular for the bulk of the last two-thirds of the season after regular Dan Reeves was lost for the season in game No. 4 at St. Louis. In addition to the confidence he also gained something else — an ability to set up blockers — as guard John Wilbur explained. "I could see it in their (would be tacklers) eyes. Craig got them leaning the wrong way. That makes it so much easier for us." . . . They leaned the wrong way enough for 438 yards rushing last season for a 4.3 yard average. He also caught 29 passes (third most in the club) for three touchdowns, making eight total. His good year could have been due partially to the fact foes weren't looking for him. "It's a peculiar thing about the league," says Tom Landry. "A fellow has to put in a full good season before the defenses really start taking him into account." But his year was also due to speed (4.6), size (6-1 and 206) and good hands. Baynham does not hide the fact he wants Reeves' job when Reeves is healthy, too. "My ambition is to make the Pro Bowl every year and you can't do that unless you start," he says simply. Baynham scored three TD's in the Eastern Playoff game in 1967.

COLLEGE: An outstanding sprinter at Georgia Tech, his 9.6 stood as a school record until last year. A two-year regular as a wingback, he caught 30 passes and set school record of seven touchdowns as a junior. He captained the track team and was a student leader during his stay. He played in both the Gator and Orange Bowls. Injuries hampered his senior season.

PERSONAL: Craig and his wife, Marti, live in Dallas where he is employed by Financial Service Corporation. He is quite active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and other religious activities. The Baynham's have two children, Wade, born April 4, 1966 and Matt, born December 1, 1967.

BELDEN, BOBQuarterback*Notre Dame*Ht: 6-2*Wt: 205*Born: 6-20-47*1st Year (D-12 for '69)

A reserve quarterback at Notre Dame for three seasons, Belden has size, intelligence and a strong arm going for him, plus the fact he's a capable drop back passer. Bob was an outstanding high school player, making All-Ohio at Canton. A member of the Blue Circle Honor Society, Bob played well when called upon and he had plus statistics in something of a mop-up role for the Irish.

BENHARDT, ELMERLinebacker*Missouri*Ht: 6-3*Wt: 223*Born: 2-10-47*1st Year (D-8 for '69)

Mobile and tough, Benhardt will face the test of conversion. He was a regular defensive end for three seasons for Missouri, but will be tried as a linebacker by the Cowboys. He was credited with 10 tackles behind the line his senior season and registered five traps in great effort against Alabama in the Gator Bowl. A Physical Therapy major, which caused Cowboys trainer Don Cochren to remark, "We've got to find a spot for this guy. We need help there, too." He has 5.05 speed.

BURKETT, JACKIELinebacker*Auburn*Ht: 6-4*Wt: 228*Born: 12-16-36*9th Year (D-1 for '59)
as future

PRO: Acquired in a trade with New Orleans for Jim Boeke, Burkett was brought in to supply much needed depth at linebacker. And no doubt he would have done that had he not been injured himself and missed the bulk of the season. It was a continuation of the misfortune which had plagued him since the beginning of his career. His ability is unquestioned and when at full speed can play with the best. He was a regular at one time for Baltimore and again in 1967 for New Orleans who took him from the Colts in the expansion draft.

COLLEGE: Burkett twice made All-America at Auburn and was drafted No. 1 as a future. He was also drafted by the New York Titans.

PERSONAL: A forestry major, Jackie now makes his home in New Orleans and is president of Saints Exterminators, Inc. and does some general construction work. He and his wife, Jacqueline, have three children — Jay, born October 8, 1958, Jon, born February 5, 1961 and Jud, born January 20, 1968.

CLARK, MIKEHt: 6-1*Wt: 205*Place Kicker*Born: 11-7-40*Texas A&M*7th Year (FA for '63)

PRO: The first Aggie to play for the Cowboys, Mike came to the club during training camp last season from Pittsburgh in a trade for center Mike Connelly. After three years of learning, Mike developed into one of the league's finest place kickers in 1966. Mike had one bad day last season and still finished with 17 of 29 field goals while leading all but Leroy Kelly in scoring with 105 points. Mike has kicked well over 50 yards in practice, but more important, has a 50-yard kick in competition at St. Louis. "Anytime we get to midfield," says Landry, "we'll let Clark go for it, unless there is a hurricane blowing in his face."

COLLEGE: Mike had never tried to kick a field goal until he went to college. He tried it on freshman team and after one game had the job. He says that was when the guy who was kicking ahead of him was knocked cold breaking up a wedge.

PERSONAL: Mike's hometown is Marshall, Texas. Mike and his wife, Darlena, have one son, Michael Kyle, born October 13, 1967. Mike is a representative for A. H. Robins Company and also sells airplanes in the off-season.

CLARK, PHILHt: 6-2*Wt: 207*Cornerback*Born: 4-28-45*Northwestern*3rd Year (D-3 for '67)

PRO: Except for a stint during his rookie season when he filled in for Mel Renfro at safety, Phil's first two seasons have been mostly a learning process. But perhaps his time is not far away, at least the coaches think so: "We believe that Phil is a much improved player," Landry says. "I'd like to see him force us to find a place for him." Clark has size and speed to be a good one.

COLLEGE: The fastest man on the Northwestern team, he was an all-Big Ten selection and made second team All-America. Big, he played roving linebacker as a junior before moving into deep spot for senior year. He intercepted three passes as senior. Played in East-West game and Hula Bowl.

PERSONAL: A native of Cincinnati, Clark spent part of the off-season in Evanston, Illinois, where he was a sales representative for a manufacturing concern and a wholesale distributor for Automotive Performance, Inc. The rest of the summer he spent in officer training school.

COLE, LARRYDefensive End*Hawaii*Hr: 6-4*Wt: 255*Born: 11-15-46*2nd Year (D-16 for '68)

PRO: Aside from being the only player ever drafted from the University of Hawaii, Larry has a couple of other distinctions. For one, he played more than any other 16th round selection. For another, he drew considerable comment from Landry, difficult for a rookie to do. "He's no Bob Lilly, of course. But he is so strong," says Landry. "The combination you seldom find is strength and quickness. Cole isn't all that quick. But he may be quick enough. He also has an instinct you can't coach. He moves on the ball in mysterious ways. This is a thing you don't see a lot. When a youngster has it, that's good. Because the only substitute for those who don't is playing experience." Cole got his chance to play last year when veteran Willie Townes injured his leg and was pretty much unfit from game No. 3 on. On one play at Minnesota, his pass rush forced an interception by Cornell Green. Cole then picked himself up and made over to the sidelines to throw the key block for Green to run all the way back with a TD. Cole also scored two TD's, one on an interception and one with a fumble.

COLLEGE: Larry was one of the better traveled collegians. After a strong high school career, he enrolled at Air Force. But during the cribbing scandals he failed to turn in a classmate and was forced to leave. He tried Houston for less than a semester and then wound up at Hawaii.

PERSONAL: Larry is a native of Granite Falls, Minnesota, also the home of Les Josephson. Larry answers to the name of Joe Palooka for obvious reasons. He attended University of Minnesota in the off-season and married Linda Kleinert shortly before camp opened.

CONRAD, BOBBY JOEFlanker*Texas A&M*Hr: 6-2*Wt: 200*Born: 11-7-35*12th Year (D-5 for '58)

PRO: The seventh all-time pass receiver in the NFL with 418 catches, Conrad came to the Cowboys shortly before training camp opened in a trade for a draft choice with St. Louis. Conrad had spent his entire career there and, in fact, has a string of 148 consecutive games alive. Conrad went into the league as a defensive back, played there one season and moved into the backfield for three more before becoming a fixture at flanker. He caught at least one pass in 93 consecutive games, missing the record of 94 held by Don Hutson. Conrad played in the Pro Bowl in 1965. His biggest season came in 1963 when he caught 78 passes.

COLLEGE: Bobby Joe played for Bear Bryant at Texas A&M where he was a collegiate quarterback, halfback and end. And he was a good kicker. In fact, he set the College All-Star game scoring record with 15 points, three conversions and four field goals.

PERSONAL: Conrad and his wife, Betty, have two children and make their home in Clifton, Texas, where he owns a farm and, until recently, had a store. He was a prep star at Clifton.

DANIELS, DICK

Safety

Pacific U. (Oregon)

Ht: 5-9

Wt: 180

Born: 10-19-44

4th Year (FA for '66)

PRO: Daniels, a free agent and the last man signed in 1966, matured in the 1968 training camp and before the season was out was a regular. A specialty teamer, only, for two seasons Daniels was, in Landry's view, "the highlight of training camp." He was injured in the pre-season, however, and out for four weeks. But when he returned he was a factor in the moving of Mel Renfro to corner-back as he took over the free safety role. He also used his speed as an asset in running back kickoffs.

COLLEGE: Was two-year All-Northwest Conference halfback choice at Pacific and made the All-District NAIA team . . . Majored in P. E.

PERSONAL: A native of Portland, Oregon, Dick is single and lives in Dallas in the off-season where he is a partner of Mel Renfro in Mel Renfro Enterprises.

DITKA, MIKETight End*Pittsburgh*Ht: 6-3*Wt: 228*Born: 10-18-39*9th Year (D-1 for '61)

PRO: Once upon a time Mike Ditka was the most feared tight end in football. The Cowboys not only know that story to be true, but also believe it can be continued. That's why they brought the rugged stockbroker in from Philadelphia to battle Pettis Norman, an equally rugged banker, for the tight end job. In the trade the Cowboys gave up youthful David McDaniel, the No. 2 draft pick of 1968. Ditka, No. 1 draft choice for the Chicago Bears in 1961, made All-Pro his first four seasons while catching 56, 58, 59 and 75 passes. But after that he slumped to 36 and 32 and the Bears dealt him to the Eagles for Jack Concannon. Ditka's years at Philadelphia were not happy ones. He was injured most of the time, played little and caught only 26 and 13 passes. The injury problems were a complete turn around as Ditka had played in 86 straight games before the jinx came. That's why the Cowboys feel that if he remains healthy, he can contribute. The trade to the Cowboys did not upset him. "I'm only 29 and my legs feel great," he says. "I've got the best attitude in years. I played on one championship team (Chicago in 1963) and I know a little bit about what it takes to win. Along with everything else, you have to be lucky. For a couple of years the Cowboys have been just plain unlucky—injuries, bad breaks at critical times. I figure their luck is about due to change. On our championship team at Chicago we had a great defense, a veteran quarterback, a pretty good offense—but almost no injuries and no bad breaks." Ditka played in the Pro Bowl from 1962 through 1966.

COLLEGE: A great collegian at Pittsburgh, Ditka was an All-America in 1960. He played in the College All-Star game. Eight of 10 Pitt foes his senior year picked All-Opponent teams and Mike made all eight. He also played some basketball at Pitt.

PERSONAL: A native of Aliquippa, Mike now lives in Downers Grove, Illinois, and works as a stockbroker for Shearson-Hamill & Company. The Ditkas have four children—Michael 7, Mark 6, Megan 4 and Matthew 2.

P. CLARK

EAST, RONHt: 6-4*Defensive Tackle*Wt: 242*Born: 8-26-43*Montana State*3rd Year (FA for '67)

PRO: In the last two seasons, the Cowboys have brought in two rookie defensive linemen — Ron East and Larry Cole. And each has gotten off to a fast start. In his first season in 1967 East was a free agent who got his opportunity when Willie Townes was injured in the pre-season. He played a lot and performed well. But as Landry says, the second year is a different matter. This season will tell for East. He would be hard to count out. His major assets are aggressiveness and hustle.

COLLEGE: As a 212-pound collegiate lineman, East didn't have too much chance of playing. But he went on a heavy work and eat diet and moved up to 247 pounds. A Cowboys scout who had discounted him earlier, decided he should be looked at again. He stuck.

PERSONAL: Worked as a salesman in the off-season in Montana. Married to the former Marcia Moen and they have one daughter, Erica Ann, born March 9, 1969.

EDWARDS, DAVEHt: 6-1*Linebacker*Wt: 228*Auburn*Born: 12-14-39*7th Year (FA for '62)

PRO: Edwards is involved in a slight alteration of the Cowboys defense this season. He'll be playing on the strong side at all times. "We like this," Landry says. "For Dave is one of our most solid performers." Edwards has been a regular for four seasons, but it wasn't until the 1967 season he began to exhibit the star qualities he does now. His explanation is a simple one: "Everything started to come clear to me. So much of the time I knew what was going to happen." Edwards came to the Cowboys as a free agent receiver after a good career at Auburn. But he flunked his first try on offense, but made it a year later on defense. Edwards has good speed and is extremely strong.

COLLEGE: All-SEC end at Auburn in '61, Dave played under Ralph Jordan . . . has a degree in physical education.

PERSONAL: Born in Columbia, Alabama, grew up in Abbeville, Alabama. Married Gail Toomey of Miami, Florida, in 1967. Dave lives in Dallas where he has gone into partnership in a class beauty salon called House of the Turtle. Dave and his wife have one son, Chris, born April 11, 1969.

FLOWERS, RICHMOND

Safety-WR

Tennessee

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 183

Born: 6-13-47

1st Year (D-2 for '69)

"Now," says Cowboys coach Tom Landry, "we'll see how fast Hayes is. That's one of the reasons we drafted Flowers. Hayes has never had to run before." There were, of course, other reasons. For instance, as a sophomore, Flowers caught 35 passes for 407 yards and five TD's. As a junior he caught 41 for 585 and four TD's. His senior season he caught only 25 for 180 and seven TD's. But that was because he was switched his final season from a wide receiver to tailback. He rushed 111 times for 375 yards. And all three seasons, he had good kickoff return averages. During his three seasons at Tennessee under Doug Dickey had 8-3, 9-2 and 8-2-1 records. Flowers' track records are also outstanding. He runs the low hurdles in 13.3, the 60-yard dash in 6.0, the 100 in 9.3 and the high hurdles indoors in 6.9. A liberal arts major, Flowers is the son of the Richmond Flowers who was the former attorney general of Alabama. He was one of the most heralded prep stars to ever come out of the South, having been an outstanding athlete at Sidney Lanier High in Montgomery, Alabama.

GAECHTER, MIKE

Safety

Oregon

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 190

Born: 1-9-40

8th Year (FA for '62)

PRO: There is little doubt, but what Mike will be the No. 1 booster for all clubs to use the artificial turf. He has what could best be described as an occupational hazard: he is allergic to grass. That he has overcome this to become an NFL star would be enough, but he has overcome other things, too. Perhaps the biggest thing was a small war with the Cowboys no farther back than 1965. The super fast, strong safety who lost his job in 1965 was mad, and told club brass he wanted to be traded. It was discussed and decided he would go to camp once more. It is undeterminable who is more the delighted with the decision: the Cowboys or Gaechter. Because of the system of defense, Mike for the most part does not share in the spotlight as he should and as a result is perhaps the most underrated player on the club. Not to all, however. Says Eagles General Manager

GARRISON, WALT

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 205

Running Back

Born: 7-23-44

Oklahoma State

4th Year (D-5 for '66)

PRO: Like many of the better rookies, the year Walt came up he played in the College All-Star game. When he got to camp, he noted it would take a full day just to thumb through a playbook, let alone read it. "Football is fun, but I'm gonna like it a lot more after I learn all them damn plays," Walt allowed. Walt has learned all them dammed plays, plus a lot more. And now that Don Perkins has ended his career, Walt is expected to step in and be a better fullback than most people realize. "Garrison has made a tremendous improvement in his blocking," says backfield coach Ermal Allen. "You know, he's already got that quick start and he breaks tackles well and he's an excellent receiver, great hands. Now he's blocking well, too." Walt has two hobbies. One is rodeoing which everyone thought was dangerous. The other is magic which all agreed was not. One day last summer Walt was doing his "trick" which calls for him to blow fire out of his mouth. He wound up in the hospital. "Tell me, Walt," said a caller. "Just what exactly is that trick you do?" "I don't do it anymore!" Walt said.

COLLEGE: All-time star at Oklahoma State . . . two-time all-Big Eight selection . . . rushed for 730 yards as junior and 924 as senior, including 121 against unbeaten Nebraska and 173 against Kansas State . . . played in East-West and Senior Bowl games.

PERSONAL: A native Texan from Lewisville, Walt returned to school in the off-season. Married Dallasite Pam Phillips and they have one son, Phillip Martin, born in June.

GREEN, CORNELL

Cornerback

Utah State

Ht: 6-3

Wt: 205

Born: 2-10-40

8th Year (FA for '62)

PRO: Late in the 1968 season some fan at a luncheon asked Cornell who were the toughest receivers he'd faced. Green started rattling off the list: "Carroll Dale, Charley Taylor, Gary Collins, Jerry Smith, Clif McNeil, Henry Schultz . . ." "Henry Schultz?" the fan interrupted. "I never heard of him." "Me neither," said Cornell, "but right now he'd be tough, too." The exchange came at the end of what has to be described as a slump, which in the All-Pro's case means only that a couple of passes were completed on him. The cause, it was determined, by Green and the coaches, was that he had become a little heavy, about nine pounds. Also, he was getting more action what with Mel Renfro on the other side. "I do get a bit more business," he says. "You know, if you haven't had any work in three years you do get a bit rusty." A slight exaggeration, but not much. Green's great career has been a product of his tremendous quickness, concentration, confidence and pain tolerance which makes it hard to get him out of there. Green has been All-Pro for three years and in the Pro Bowl for four in a row. Green was a great basketball player for Utah State and came into football as a free

1st Year (D-3 for '69)

"All of his football is ahead of him," says coach Tom Landry. Hagen played only one season at Ballard High in Seattle, one season at Shoreline Community Junior College and two seasons at Weber State. From spring ball until the start of the season his junior year, Hagen went from 210 pounds to 240. He added 10 more for his senior year. He has good speed at 5.0 and is recognized as a "hitter". He's a business administration major, likes to ski, and has a private pilot's license. He's single.

HAYES, BOBWide Receiver*Florida A&M*Hr: 5-11*Wr: 185*Born: 12-20-42*5th Year (D-7 for '65)

PRO: Sam Huff, as a player, once discussed Hayes: "Sure we can stop Hayes by overloading our defenses on him. Say the Cowboys have 63 plays. We can stop him on 60. On the other three he's liable to beat you. Now suppose we put the outside linebacker on him at the line of scrimmage to knock him down. The cornerback covers him on the outside, and maybe he bumps him a little more. The free safety takes him if he comes across the middle deep. Unfortunately, in this case, there are other Cowboys who can score." Teammate Dan Reeves put it differently: "If he never catches a pass, he's worth a couple of touchdowns." Said Tex Schramm: "The remarkable thing about Hayes is that he does something outstanding in every game. Something different each time." This is the picture of Hayes, who has scored—on pass receptions—12, 13, 10 and 10 touchdowns in his four years in the league. In addition, he's scored one rushing and three on punt returns, two of them last season. As a receiver, only Don Hutson caught more in his first four seasons. He bagged 47 to Hayes' 45 in the first four years. But what Hayes has also done is force so much double coverage that flanker Lance Rentzel has also been right at the top among NFL receivers the last two years. Hayes has been All-Pro once and missed the Pro Bowl only once in his time in the league. "Hayes is our game breaker," says Landry. "Even if most teams double team Bobby, we still have to hit him."

COLLEGE: Mixed football with track at Florida A&M where he became famous as "World's Fastest Human", set world records in both 100-yard and 100-meter dashes . . . won 1964 Olympic 100 meters. He was drafted as future in 1963, he signed after 1964 Olympics, was named to College All-Star game.

PERSONAL: Born in Jacksonville, Florida, where he grew up and played football (halfback) and track (best sprint time 9.6 . . . one of three children. Married to former Altamease Martin of New Brunswick, New Jersey. Partners with Pete Gent in National Graphics Printing Service. Bob and his wife have one adopted daughter, Adrienne LaRori, born December 31, 1968.

HILL, CALVINRunning Back*Yale*Ht: 6-3*Wt: 230*Born: 1-2-47*1st Year (D-1 for '69)

"Hill is a great athlete and certainly has a chance to be a super star," says coach Tom Landry. "I'm very, very excited. When you pick as late as we did (24th) and get a guy in this category I think it's tremendous." Landry says Hill, who has 4.6 speed, has three shots—running back, tight end or linebacker. He rushed for 1,512 yards during his career, caught passes for 858 and threw for 298. A native of Baltimore, he attended Riverdale Country School in the Bronx where he was a T-formation quarterback. As a freshman he scored five touchdowns against Princeton. He kicked in high school and once in practice kicked a 52-yard field goal. The History major holds the Yale records for broad jump (25-1½) and the triple jump (51-5¼). During his career Yale enjoyed 4-5, 8-1 and 8-0-1 records. He is interested in the ministry. "Hill hits three times as hard as Jimmy Brown did when he was at Syracuse," says former Columbia coach Buff Donelli. "He can do everything and his blocking is outstanding," says Colgate coach Neil Wheelwright.

HOMAN, DENNISFlanker*Alabama*Ht: 6-1*Wt: 181*Born: 1-9-46*2nd Year (D-1 for '68)

PRO: Homan played in the College All-Star game and lost considerable ground last year. As a result he was used sparingly and caught only four passes. Homan shows great promise, however, and should be solid back-up for Lance Rentzel. He was also looked at as a kick return man. Alabama coach Bear Bryant called him a "truly great receiver," adding: "If he can touch it, he can catch it." He can run a 4.6 40.

COLLEGE: Played on three straight bowl teams—Orange, Sugar and Cotton. He teamed one year with Ray Perkins of Baltimore. In his three seasons, excluding bowls, he caught 87 passes for 1,495 yards and 18 touchdowns.

PERSONAL: From Muscle Shoals, Alabama, Dennis is married to the former Charlotte Tomlinson of Jackson, Alabama. They have one child, Dennis Matthew born November 20, 1968. Dennis spent the off-season in basic training for the Air National Guard at San Antonio.

HOWLEY, CHUCKLinebacker*West Virginia*Hr: 6-2*Wt: 225*Born: 6-28-36*11th Year (D-I for '58)

PRO: After several years of wearing his hair in a crew cut, Chuck has decided to wear it long. Presumably it is so people will not consider him so young. After all, he is 33 and the Cowboys vet of vets in point of NFL time. But anyone watching him would not know it. Last year he scampered around like a small boy, picking off six passes and making big plays everywhere. "I feel younger, quicker and faster," he says. "People . . . writers and everybody . . . keep telling me I'm older. I keep telling them I don't agree. They say I'm losing speed and I just try to show them I'm not." Cotton Bowl fans cannot erase the memory of Howley catching Leroy Kelly from behind a season back. Once he returned a fumble 97 yards for a TD. In 1969 he will be playing the weak side on every play, alternating as necessary with Dave Edwards. This career is not bad considering he was about through before he started. Injured shortly after being drafted by the Chicago Bears, he went home and got into the service station business. But the Cowboys gave a second round choice for him and he has become a Pro Bowl fixture.

COLLEGE: Was a rarity of rarities—a five-sport letterman—at West Virginia, where as a junior in '56 he won letters in football, track, swimming, gymnastics and wrestling . . . Was a 10.1 sprinter in track and one-meter Southern Conference diving champ . . . 3-year All-Conf. as guard, center, and linebacker and All-America center in '57.

PERSONAL: Born in Wheeling, W. Va., and grew up in Warwood, where he was all-state fullback . . . Married childhood friend Nancy Welch in 1958 . . . they have two children, 7-year-old Scott and 3-year-old Robin . . . owns his own dry cleaning center in Dallas.

JOHNSON, MIKECornerback*Kansas*Ht: 5-11*Wt: 184*Born: 10-7-43*4th Year (FA for '66)

PRO: After coming on strong to take a starting job in 1967, Mike was the victim of an over-all change in the Cowboys secondary midway in the 1968 season. Free safety Mel Renfro was moved to the right cornerback job and Dick Daniels was made safety. As a result, Mike was back on the bench, but the question might be for how long. He is a genuine "hitter" and has tremendous recovery speed (4.7). A free agent, the youthful Kansan has a strong future as he moves into his fourth season, as his five interceptions in 1967 will attest. He took three more in 1968. Said Fran Tarkenton after an encounter with Johnson: "They said work on Mike Johnson. In my opinion Johnson is first rate and fixin' to be one of the best in the league."

COLLEGE: Played with Gale Sayers at Kansas for Jack Mitchell . . . scored final two points to enable KU to defeat Oklahoma, 15-14 . . . tough two-way player in college.

PERSONAL: Born in Denver, Colorado, but played high school ball at Garden City, Kansas, and was much sought after prep . . . majored in jewelry and design and works at it professionally. Works as a salesman for Earl Hayes in the off-season.

JORDAN, LEE ROYLinebacker*Alabama*Ht: 6-1*Wt: 218*Born: 4-27-41*7th Year (D-1 for '63)

PRO: Dallas partisans find it most frustrating, this idea of watching their middle linebacker go unnoticed because of the Nobises and the Butkuses. "There is no one playing it any better than Lee Roy," his teammates say. Trouble is, he weighs 218 pounds and there is a theory a guy that size can't play it as well as a bigger guy. Now the defensive signal caller, the aggressive hitter has reached the same heights in the NFL he achieved in college under Bear Bryant of Alabama. "Lee Roy takes it mighty personal when anybody comes at him with a football," the Bear said. "I mean downtown, in the backyard or in your living room." Jordan has played in two straight Pro Bowls and likely will become a fixture just as his running mate Chuck Howley has. Aside from being a striker, Lee Roy possesses excellent speed and most of all, football instinct.

COLLEGE: Named nation's outstanding lineman his senior year at Alabama . . . capped All-America season by making 31 tackles vs. Oklahoma in '63 Orange Bowl . . . went on to College All-Star game . . . Bear Bryant called him the best linebacker he had ever coached.

PERSONAL: Born in Excel, Alabama, one of 7 children . . . grew up as Excel farmboy and excelled as high school fullback . . . married to the former Mary Banks of Tuscaloosa and they have a 3 year old boy, David and Patrick Lee, born May 23, 1968. Lee Roy lives in Dallas and is in the restaurant business in Tuscaloosa and Dallas.

A three-year regular for the Boilermakers, Chuck was a UPI All-America as a middle guard and played in the East-West and Hula Bowl games. He was a good shot putter in high school at Highlands High in Ft. Thomas, Kentucky, where he also won a state high school diving championship. The Cowboys also have another diving champion at linebacker in Chuck Howley. Kyle has 4.95 speed. He's married and a B student in industrial economics. He wears a special order helmet size 8½. He was born in Covington, Kentucky.

LILLY, BOB

Hr: 6-5

Wr: 260

Defensive Tackle

Born: 7-26-39

TCU

9th Year (D-1 for '61)

PRO: "Nobody" says Tom Landry "is as quick as Lilly. A Lilly comes along once in a lifetime. The hardest combination to find in a defensive lineman is quickness and strength. You're talking about Lilly and Deacon Jones." Similar statements have been issued by friend and foe alike for sometime now and there appears no reason to believe it will change for Lilly who has made All-Pro five straight times. In fact the maturity of Jethro Pugh, the other tackle, and the stabilizing of the left end position should make it all the better. Somewhere there has to be a slowing of the double and triple teaming. As much as his play impresses Landry, there is something even more impressive: "Although he's been an outstanding tackle for a long time," says Landry, "Bob does nothing but get better every year." Perhaps the explanation comes from his view of the game: "You know I really like football. I mean I really LIKE it, if you know what I mean. I like the challenge that's there every week." He understands the game in other ways, too. "Your moves or nothing else are going to work until you run over a few people first. You've got to stomp your guys into the ground a few times to get their respect. Then the moves may work." A first round draft choice who started his career as an end and moved to tackle after a season, Lilly has no problems except not winning the championship. "Right now, the only thing I dread is getting too old to play," he says.

COLLEGE: All-American tackle at TCU, where he was two-time all-SWC choice, with defense his specialty . . . played in College All-Star game . . . Abe Martin called him the best tackle he had coached . . . nicknamed "Purple Cloud" at TCU.

PERSONAL: Born in Throckmorton, Texas, and lived there all his young life except as high school senior when the family moved to Pendleton, Oregon . . . Made All-State teams in both football (end) and basketball for Pendleton . . . married to the former Katharine Waltman of Fort Worth and they have three children — Bob, Jr., born July 19, 1962, Katharine, born March 22, 1964 and Christienne, born July 21, 1965. Bob lives in Dallas in the off-season and is a Director in Professional Enterprises Corporation of Arlington.

LISCIO, TONY

Ht: 6-5

Wt: 264

Tackle

Born: 7-2-40

Tulsa

6th Year (D-3 for '63)

PRO: "Tony is one of the strongest, most effective and consistent players we have," Landry says, leaving out another word which must accompany the Tulsa vet: underrated. While there has been action at most positions in the offensive line, Tony has quietly taken over one each of the last three years and handled it well. Originally taken by the Packers in the third round of the 1963 draft, Tony was tried on defense and barely missed, going on last cut. Dallas picked him up and made an offensive player out of him. He played some in 1963 and in 1964 was as good an offensive lineman as the Cowboys had. But he was hurt late in the season and had surgery. Complications kept him out the entire 1965 season. But in 1966, playing at guard, he was runner-up in the voting for the Comeback Player of the year behind Dick Bass. A strong pass blocker, he has good speed.

COLLEGE: A three-year regular as a two-way tackle at Tulsa, Tony made All-Missouri Valley the last two years and was team captain as a senior. Tony majored in industrial psychology and played for Bobby and Glenn Dobbs. Played basketball as a freshman.

PERSONAL: Tony was a 13-pounder at birth in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where he went on to stardom at Westinghouse High (All-East in football and All-City in basketball). Tony has five brothers and one sister and is married to Annette Nail of Shreveport. They have two children, Tony II, born April 26, 1964 and Michele, born March 8, 1966 and a baby is due just before the start of this season. Tony lives in Dallas and works for KVIL radio as a salesman.

LOGAN, OBERTWide Receiver*Trinity (Texas)*Ht: 5-10*Wt: 180*Born: 12-6-41*4th Year (FA for '65)

PRO: Although he was on the taxi squad last year, Obert was back home in Dallas where he played in 1965 and 1966 before going to New Orleans in the expansion draft. Signed as a defensive player, Obert had a fling at offense, went to defense and will give offense another try this season. He was the Saints regular safety in 1967.

COLLEGE: A four-year regular for Trinity, playing two as a halfback and two as a flanker. A three-time All-Texas college pick.

PERSONAL: Obert is a bachelor and makes his home in Dallas where he works for Independent American Life Insurance Company. A math major, he was born in Yoakum, but was an all-around sports star at Gonzales.

MANDERS, DAVECenter*Michigan State*Ht: 6-2*Wt: 250*Born: 2-20-41*5th Year (FA for '62)

PRO: Mandy has four active seasons under his belt in the NFL, but he has had more highs and lows than most 10-year vets. We'll start with high which was the Pro Bowl berth after the 1966 season. Before and since are something else. A free agent he reported to the Cowboys camp, then in Michigan, in 1962 and became so distressed he hitch-hiked home. After that there were two minor league seasons before he made it with the Cowboys in 1964. In 1965 his quickness and blocking ability made him a regular and in 1966 he was about to make believers of everyone. Then after his big year, he was hurt in a pre-season game in San Francisco and sat out the entire 1967 season. In 1968, a foot infection delayed his start at training camp and he lost his job to Malcolm Walker. So a comeback is in order. But it would be hard to count him out. "When we're trying to tell if a player is really putting out," says backfield coach Eral Allen, "we compare him with Manders, because we know Manders is always giving you 100 per cent."

COLLEGE: A top two-way lineman at Michigan State under Duffy Daugherty . . . played center and was named honorable mention All-America as senior.

PERSONAL: Native of Milwaukee, he was schoolboy star at Kinsford, Michigan . . . Married to the former Betty Ashenbrenner in '61 and has two children—Mark, 7, and Mike, 4 . . . lives in Dallas in the off-season and sells time for KBOX radio.

MORTON, CRAIGHt: 6-4*Wt: 215*Quarterback*Born: 2-5-43*California*5th Year (D-I for '65)

PRO: "A true athlete is ready to meet any challenge. I'm confident I can handle it." This was Morton's view after the 11th hour decision by Don Meredith to retire and leave the quarterbacking duties in the hands of Morton and Roger Staubach. But even before Meredith had decided to retire, Morton had said: "Don is one of my favorite people, but I'm going to camp with an entirely different attitude. I'm going to camp to win the job. I want it. I think I'm ready for it. I thought I was last season." If there was one word which wrapped up the Morton feeling going into camp it was "excited". "Morton is in his fifth year and is greatly improved," says Landry. "He should make a good one." "I think the big recent improvement in Craig is that he's now gained leadership qualities," says pass offense coach Ray Renfro. "Morton takes over." "I have no doubt he'll do a first class job like Don has done for us in the past," says Pettis Norman. Big and strong Morton possesses the super arm, is durable and hard to bring down. An adequate scrambler, he can be effective both as a roll out and drop back man. In almost all instances he has acquitted himself well in regular season games. His only real test last season came in the Chicago Bears game and the Cowboys, in that first half, generated a ton of offense, piling up 362 yards. Morton threw for 181 yards. Morton was a No. 1 draft choice and wooed heavily by Al Davis of Oakland who also drafted him.

COLLEGE: All-American QB at California in '64, Morton was three-year regular for Bears under Coaches Marv Levy and Ray Willsey . . . As senior, he hit 185 of 308 for 2,121 yards and 13 TDs . . . ranked second to Jerry Rhome in NCAA passing . . . spurned big baseball bonus to go pro football . . . played in All-Star game of '65.

PERSONAL: Raised in Campbell, Calif., where he developed into an all-state schoolboy in basketball, football and baseball . . . he was offered major college scholarships in all three sports . . . owns two bookstores—one at Berkeley—and a sporting goods company in California. Lives in Dallas in off-season, but spends considerable time on coast . . . bachelor.

NEELY, RALPHTackle*Oklahoma*Ht: 6-6*Wt: 265*Born: 9-12-43*5th Year (D-2 for '65)

PRO: "Neely," says teammate Bob Lilly, "is the only player I've seen who was never a rookie. He moved right in and did the job." There have been few one-man additions who have meant more to a club than Neely did in 1965. Since he played in the College All-Star game he arrived in camp only a week prior to the first pre-season game. He started playing immediately and hasn't stopped despite the lengthy court proceedings with Houston which also drafted him, along with Baltimore. Dallas traded Baltimore for the rights to Neely. Ultimately, the squabble with Houston was settled after game nine, but Dallas surrendered a first, second and two fifth round draft choices among other considerations. "If I had it to do over, I'd do the same thing," Tex Schramm said. He has become the symbol of our offensive line. Neely, All-Pro the last three seasons, has all the ingredients. "Neely is the finest offensive tackle I've ever played against," Willie Davis of the Packers said after the 1966 title game.

COLLEGE: A two-time All-America tackle at Oklahoma, including consensus selection as a '64 senior . . . Lettered three years, started in all 20 of his games as junior and senior . . . played at 6-5, 245 . . . double-majored in financing and accounting.

NILAND, JOHNGuard*Iowa*Ht: 6-3*Wt: 245*Born: 2-29-44*4th Year (D-1 for '66)

PRO: Shortly after the 1968 season ended John was walking in the downtown area when he spotted one man chasing another, the trailing one shouting, "Stop that man!" John set out in hot pursuit and did in fact "stop that man" who turned out to be a jewelry thief. As the jewelry thief discovered, it was not a year to mess with Niland. For in that third season, which, as they say, turned out to be a charm, the No. 1 draft choice of 1966 realized in part his potential. He became a star and was a Pro Bowl selection. "The way he played much of the time indicates he'll be an all-pro before long," Landry says. A mild mannered sort, John has it all. He's big enough, fast enough, quicker than enough and he has the proper approach to the game. In a hammed up version of chasing the jewelry thief John noted that he would have caught the guy sooner, but had to stop in a phone booth and change into his super man clothes. This he did in 1968.

COLLEGE: Three-year regular for Jerry Burns at Iowa . . . all-America as senior, playing guard final two seasons after working at fullback as sophomore . . . played in East-West and Hula Bowls . . . was Iowa school heavyweight weightlifting champion.

PERSONAL: Born in Quincy, Massachusetts, grew up in Amityville, New York, majored in Political Science at Iowa. Married Iree Van Cleve of Little Rock, Arkansas, in February 1967. John lives in Dallas in the off-season and is a public relations man for KDTV-TV.

NORDGREN, GEORGERunning Back*Houston*Ht: 6-0*Wt: 200*Born: 12-12-44*1st Year (D-17 for '68)

Served on the taxi squad last season and is expected to make a run at it. He has good hands and quickness. George and his wife have two girls, Greer 9-22-64 and Greta 3-8-69.

NORMAN, PETTISTight End*Johnson C. Smith*Ht: 6-3*Wt: 225*Born: 1-4-39*8th Year (FA for '62)

PRO: Tom Landry, defensive players from throughout the NFL and all who sit in the first rows are aware that Pettis blocks the way blocking is supposed to be done. But, enough is enough, says Pettis. "Being recognized as a good blocking end is a nice compliment, but I'd like to be recognized as the best tight end, period. I'd hate to have that blocking reputation embedded in everybody's mind so much that they get the impression I'm not a receiver also." The problem confronting Pettis is not of his doing. Partly, it is the fact that the Cowboys possess an outside tandem as good as there is and as a result, throwing to the tight end is infrequent. And, in Dan Reeves the Cowboys have a back who catches a few, also. Partly, too, it came from sharing duties with Frank Clarke prior to the 1968 season. Not only can Pettis catch the ball and block, he can also run with it. The Cowboys use the end around frequently and last year, he broke once for 55 yards in a pre-season game against the Colts.

COLLEGE: A standout as end at little-known Johnson C. Smith, where he was also top student . . . in one '61 game, he caught 5 passes for 133 yards and two TDs and made 14 tackles . . . also clocked a 9.7 time in the 100 in track.

PERSONAL: Born in Lincolnton, Georgia, and grew up in Charlotte, North Carolina . . . married to former Margaret Clinkscales of Charlotte and they have two daughters, Sharneen, 5, and Sedonna, 2. Pettis lives in Dallas in the off-season where he is a vice president in the loan department of South Oak Cliff State Bank.

NYE, BLAINE

Guard

Stanford

Ht: 6-4

Wt: 255

Born: 3-29-46

2nd Year (D-5 for '68)

PRO: Rookie year in 1968 was mostly a learning process as he had played his final two years in college as a defensive player. A competitor with size, Nye has a chance to see more action in 1969.

COLLEGE: Nye had been an offensive player as a sophomore, but four days before season opened his junior year he moved to defense and immediately won a job. Nye has good size and speed.

PERSONAL: A physics major, Nye spent the last off-season as a teaching assistant and graduate student in the physics department at the University of Washington. From Santa Ana, California, Nye and his wife, Annabelle, have one child, Melissa Madeline, born February 6, 1968.

PUGH, JETHRO	Defensive Tackle	Eliz. City St. (N. C.)
Ht: 6-6	Wt: 260	Born: 7-3-44
		5th Year (D-11 for '65)

PRO: Jethro is the classic example of patience. When the 11th round pick from Elizabeth City State arrived in camp four years ago he had size and little else. Today it is hard to find a better tackle once you get past his running mate, Bob Lilly. Jethro is the first to confirm that his rise to stardom has been enhanced tremendously by Lilly's presence and the double and even triple teaming which goes on there. Someone mentioned to Pugh last year that Lilly might someday retire and he would draw what Lilly does. "Don't you know I have ulcers?" Pugh asked. "Please don't mention anything to me about Bob not being there." Pugh does have ulcers but seems to be getting better now that his main concern is how quick he'll get to the quarterback and not if he will. Ernie Stautner has proved a good prophet: "He'll get aroused one of these days," Ernie has said, "and then you'll see a great one." Jethro divided time with Jim Colvin in 1966 and has been a regular the past two seasons.

COLLEGE: A two-year All-CIAA tackle at Elizabeth City State College, he was also the team's most valuable lineman his senior season . . . was first rookie to sign with Cowboys after '64 draft (11th round).

PERSONAL: A native of Windsor, North Carolina, where he was a schoolboy football star . . . Jethro married Dallasite Beverly Etter in June of 1966 and they have one son, Jethro, III. Jethro is employed by Ryan Mortgage Company.

REEVES, DAN	Running Back	South Carolina
Ht: 6-1	Wt: 200	Born: 1-19-44
		5th Year (FA for '65)

PRO: In the off-season in Dallas, the Cowboys type talk was of the competition there would exist at many of the positions. One of them was the running back spot Reeves had held from early in 1966 until he was knocked out of the 1968 season in game four at St. Louis. Reeves shrugged. Competition was not new to him. A free agent who had played quarterback in college, Dan was tried everywhere — secondary, as a receiver and as a running back. He made it big and it is difficult to figure out the exact reason why. He is not particularly big nor is he particularly fast. "Reeves' great quality is one of the intangibles of football," Landry says. "He just simply has the knack for doing the right thing at the right time. It's a gift. Doak Walker had it. Paul Hornung had it. But they were college All-Americans. I had never heard of Reeves until he came to camp that year." He has ordinary speed, but he does have, as Don Perkins says, "fantastic body control — whether he's running wide or straight into the line." In running parlance, he is a glider, but in people parlance Landry says: "He has a heart for the game." A major plus is his strong knowledge of the total offense. And Reeves believes that his playing at quarterback in college was a major asset to him learning the game.

RENFRO, MEL

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 190

Cornerback

Born: 12-30-41

Oregon

6th Year (D-2 for '64)

PRO: In game No. 8 last year at New Orleans, Renfro who had established himself as a super safety and, who might have done the same as a running back had he not been bugged by injuries, was moved to cornerback where he now teams with Cornell Green. He may become the best in the league. "Now they are going to have a problem knowing where to throw," says Landry. "Now they must decide — Renfro or Green." It will not be an easy matter as Renfro proved down the stretch and in the Pro Bowl last season. "When Renfro's in there," says 49'ers coach Dick Nolan, "the opponent doesn't only have to worry about him getting the ball, they have to be very concerned with what he does with it when he gets it." The risk of injury likely will prevent his return to kick return duties, but in his career he has scored five touchdowns running kicks and pass interceptions back. He has a 100-yard return against the 49'ers, that on an opening kickoff.

COLLEGE: One of the all-time performers at Oregon as an All-America halfback, also standout trackman with bests of 9.6 in 100, 13.8 in high hurdles and 25-11½ in the broad jump . . . Played in the 1964 All-Star game.

PERSONAL: Born in Houston but grew up in Portland where he was a legendary schoolboy athlete—all-state halfback and versatile trackman who set state records in both hurdle races and broad jump. Married to former Patricia Burch of Portland and has two boys, Mel, Jr., born January 25, 1964, Tony, born March 29, 1965 and a girl, Cindy, born March 14, 1968. Mel lives in Dallas in the off-season where he owns a record shop and is partners with Dan Reeves in Renfro-Reeves Enterprises which books various Cowboys players for television and radio commercials and personal appearances.

RENTZEL, LANCE

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 205

Flanker

Born: 10-14-43

Oklahoma

5th Year (D-2 for '65)

PRO: Funding team parties has always been easy for the Cowboys. First Willie Townes had weight problems. And when Willie solved these, Lance was having clock problems. An austerity program may be necessary, now, however, for Lance has taken himself a wife, namely Joey Heatherton. Presumably the curfew bending will slacken. At one time Ernie Stautner, the Cowboys night watchman, suggested that Rentzel just fork over $1,000 in advance and draw on it for his fine money. As it turned out that nice round figure was about what Lance spent. Also, that nice round figure was about how many yards he gained, too. Rentzel, for the second year in as many tried with the Cowboys, led the club in catches (54) and for the first time in yards (1,009). For the second straight year Rentzel has teamed with Hayes to give the Cowboys one of the league's finest outside receiving sets. Rentzel is quick to give a lot of the credit to Hayes, who continues to draw the double coverage. Rentzel is primarily a moves receiver and relies more on quickness and a great flare for running routes to get open. He does not boast any extreme speed. "He may not have Hayes' speed," says Herb Adderly, "but he knows how to get open." Rentzel came to the Cowboys from Minnesota two years ago in exchange for a third round draft choice. Rentzel holds the Cowboys record of 13 catches for 223 yards against Washington.

COLLEGE: All-Big Eight halfback at Oklahoma . . . broke into college football in Cotton Bowl against Texas as sophomore . . . came off injured list too late and hitchhiked to game, suited up and caught two long passes . . . caught TD pass against Cleveland in All-Star game.

PERSONAL: An All-America high schooler at Casady in Oklahoma City where he grew up . . . born in Flushing, New York, he is making his home in Dallas . . . math major and an accomplished pianist and organist who has played professionally . . . recording contract with Columbia Records, and pondering acting parts . . . has a younger brother at SMU . . . partner with Ralph Neely in a club called "Pearl Street Warehouse."

Running Back

Born: 4-5-44

Long Beach State

4th Year (D-12 for '66)

PRO: Les logged considerably more playing time than he had in his first two seasons, sharing with Craig Baynham the role of filling in for Dan Reeves. Shy in fact had one terrific day, piling up 89 yards against St. Louis after Reeves was injured. Strong in the open field, Shy has the hands, size and speed to make a splash. 1969 figures as a key year for Shy as he moves into his fourth season.

COLLEGE: Had outstanding collegiate career, rushing for 488 yards and seven TDs as senior despite being hobbled by injuries . . . picked up 354 and five TDs as junior . . . played for Don Reed, the team losing only three games in his two varsity seasons . . . honorable mention small college All-America.

PERSONAL: Born in Cleveland, Ohio . . . played his high school football at Ganesha High in Pomona, California . . . single . . . brother Don an outstanding hurdler and halfback, played for Pittsburgh last year. Les lives in Los Angeles in the off-season where he is planning to open a restaurant.

STAUBACH, ROGERHt: 6-2*Wt: 200*Quarterback*Born: 2-5-42*Navy*1st Year (D-10 for '64)

COLLEGE: Roger must be rated as one of the outstanding collegiate players of all time and certainly as great a figure as ever played for Navy. He won the Heisman Trophy as a junior and still holds 13 of the 28 Naval Academy records he set as a midshipman. Some are phenomenal. He hit 67.3 per cent of his passes as a sophomore and his career total was 63.6. He averaged 9.9 yards per attempt in 1962 and 9.2 the following year. His career record for total offense was 4,253 yards. Some of his awards were AP and UPI Back of the Year, Maxwell Trophy, Sport's Top Performer in College and Football, etc. The list is lengthy. In addition, he won a basketball letter and was a regular in baseball, batting .420 one season as a centerfielder.

PERSONAL: Roger completed a four-year hitch in the Navy, having spent one year in Vietnam and the bulk of the rest at Pensacola where he was able to play for the base team. He attended Purcell High in Cincinnati, but wasn't a quarterback until his senior season. He was twice All-City in basketball and once each in football and baseball. He was captain of the All-Star squad at Chicago. He is married to the former Marianne Hoobler and they have three girls, Jennifer 3, Michelle 1, and Stephanie Marie, born June 25 of this year.

STERLING, ERNESTHt: 6-7*Wt: 260*Defensive End*Born: 3-20-46*Grambling*1st Year (FA for '68)

Sterling is back for a second try after a year on the taxi squad and is what Ernie Stautner describes as "the kind of kid you like to work with. A young fellow like him could put it all together." Sterling lettered two years for Coach Eddie Robinson and was honorable mention NAIA All-America. The Baton Rouge, Louisiana, native also played basketball in college.

STINCIC, TOMHt: 6-2*Wt: 226*Linebacker*Born: 11-24-46*Michigan*1st Year (D-3 for '69)

From his time at John Marshall High in Cleveland until he completed his collegiate career at Michigan, Tom has shown not only excellent performance on the field, but also leadership qualities. He was recognized for this as a freshman defensive end by receiving an award given annually for leadership qualities. As a junior he was recognized as the team leader without being captain. He was captain his senior season and called defensive signals. He made All-Big Ten his last two seasons. He has 4.95 speed. He's single.

TOWNES, WILLIEHt: 6-4*Wt: 260*Defensive End*Born: 7-21-43*Tulsa*4th Year (D-2 for '66)

PRO: Willie, all would agree, was dealt a cruel blow in 1968. After having trouble making reporting weights for two years, Willie came into the '68 camp right on the dot, ran his Landry mile and was ready to achieve what had been forecast for him. "Willie," Ernie Stautner has said, "has a chance to be a great one. Willie just needs to apply himself." The season was barely underway when trouble flared up in his leg. He didn't play again and Larry Cole filled in while Willie went on the injured reserve list. Now there has been surgery and something of a comeback is in order if he is to regain his job back. Willie, a Cotton Bowl favorite, expects to do it. He worked hard in the off-season. He has exceptional quickness and good upper body strength. And he has a goal: "I want to make All-Pro and help the Cowboys win a championship."

COLLEGE: All-American and two-time Missouri Valley All-Conference choice . . . outstanding lineman in Bluebonnet Bowl against Mississippi as a sophomore . . . enrolled originally at Indiana, but transferred to Tulsa after freshman season.

PERSONAL: One of 10 children (seven sisters and two brothers), grew up in Hattiesburg, Miss. . . . prep whiz at end, tackle and full-back, playing at 6-3 and 220 . . . worked hurdles and weights in track and averaged 14 points per game in basketball . . . WALKER, MALCOLM

Center

Rice

Ht: 6-4

Wt: 250

Born: 5-24-43

4th Year (D-2 for '65)

PRO: Patience paid off in 1968 as Malcolm, a No. 2 draft choice in 1965, became a regular, the third regular center for the Cowboys in three years. He followed Dave Manders and Mike Connelly and faces a battle with Manders for the job in 1969. Walker's story, until he took the center job last year, was not a happy one. He was injured practicing for the All-Star game in Chicago and missed all of his rookie year following surgery. Still not sound, he didn't make his debut until late in 1966 on specialty teams. He also had some weight problems and worked hard at a better distribution of weight. He trimmed three inches off his thighs for instance.

COLLEGE: One of all-time great linemen at Rice where he was three-year two-way regular . . . twice all-Southwest Conference . . . made all-Academic team as math major.

PERSONAL: A Dallas native, he was a much-sought schoolboy player at South Oak Cliff, where he also played basketball . . . was All-City in both. Lives in Dallas during the off-season, working as an accountant for Evens, Steenson & Tudor. He is also attending SMU for a Master's in Accounting and CPA Certification. Married to former Mary Jo Holder of Houston and they have one son, Joel Wyane, born December 13, 1968.

WELCH, CLAXTONRunning Back*Oregon*Ht: 5-11*Wt: 203*Born: 7-3-47*1st Year (D-9 for '69)

A first rate inside runner, Welch piled up 525 yards rushing last season despite missing three of the last four games with injuries. As a junior he gained 474 yards rushing and caught seven passes for 109 yards. That junior season Welch was second only to O. J. Simpson in the All-Conference balloting. Blessed with 4.7 speed, Welch was an All-State football and basketball player for David Douglas High in Portland. A strong blocker, Welch is a sociology major. He is single.

WIDBY, RONPunter*Tennessee*Ht: 6-4*Wt: 210*Born: 3-9-45*2nd Year (D-4 for '67)

PRO: Drafted originally by New Orleans, Ron spent a season on the Cowboys taxi squad and punting for Oklahoma City in a minor league, but in 1968 became the punter and was good enough to finish fifth in the NFL. And he had the longest kick in the league, an 84-yarder at New Orleans. The same day he kicked one 56 yards against the wind. Widby was working with new techniques that rookie year and expects to challenge for the No. 1 spot in the NFL this fall. He also became the holder for place kicking buddy Mike Clark.

COLLEGE: Widby was the NCAA punting champion as a senior at Tennessee with a 43.8 yard average and was also a collegiate All-America as a basketball player.

PERSONAL: With the possible exception of coach Ermal Allen, Widby holds one distinction among the Cowboys family: he is the best golfer. He plays to a two handicap and is considering a professional career as a teaching pro. Ron also played pro basketball with New Orleans in the ABA after the 1967 season. Ron and his wife, Joan, have one son, Ronald Scott, born November 5, 1968.

PRO: Before the reporting date for veterans at training camp in 1968 John came to the California Lutheran Campus with two purposes in mind: one, he was still talking contract, and, two, he wanted to demonstrate that he could now touch his toes. Wilbur, aggressive, competitive and fast (5.0) had worked on weights to the point his body was stiff. Offensive line coach Jim Myers had sought to add to these characteristics a little more agility. Voila, Wilbur could touch his toes, a difficult feat before this. It came at a good time as Leon Donohue did not respond as quickly as hoped for to his surgery and was slow coming around. Wilbur, who had done a good job on specialty teams, was now ready to become the starter. He was the starter throughout and should do nothing but improve. "Wilbur," says Myers, "would attack Hell with a bucket of water." Wilbur is one of several free agents in key Cowboys positions. "I'm grateful for the break the Cowboys gave me," says John.

COLLEGE: Was three-year regular for Stanford . . . as junior in 1963, made 13 tackles playing defensive end against Notre Dame on national TV . . . also played rugby and wrestled.

WRIGHT, RAYFIELD

Ht: 6-7

Wt: 250

Tackle

Born: 8-23-45

Ft. Valley State (Ga.)

3rd Year (D-7 for '67)

PRO: Everyone's heard the yelling to "take it off." Rayfield's heard that one and also to "put it on." What they're talking about is weight and it's happened to him three different times while the decision was being made whether he should be an interior lineman or a tight end. "I'm glad they've settled on one position," Rayfield says. "With my frame it isn't easy to lose all of that weight." Originally, the thought was defensive line. Then it was tight end or offensive line, and now it is settled: tackle on offense. None of the thoughts were bad ones and it should be just a matter of time until he becomes a strong player.

COLLEGE: From Ft. Valley State in Georgia, "Big Tom" was all-Conference football and basketball player as well as track man. He logged 50 flat quarter.

PERSONAL: From Griffin, Georgia, Wright now makes his home in Dallas and was married in 1968 to long-time sweetheart, Andrea Joyce Lampkin in Atlanta.

Historical Highlights

NFL FRANCHISE—Clint Murchison, Jr., and Bedford Wynne were awarded an expansion franchise in the NFL at the annual league meeting in Miami Beach, Fla. The Cowboys were to play as a "swing" team, playing every other team one time during their first season, although listed in the Western Conference standings (January 28).

COWBOYS STOCKED—A player pool was set up in a league meeting at L.A., with each of 12 NFL teams freezing 25 names on its roster and the Cowboys allowed to pick three from each team for a total of 36 veterans. Dallas, once given the list, had to select its 36 players within 24 hours (March 13).

TRAINING STARTS—Rookies report to first Cowboys camp at Pacific U., in Forest Grove, Oregon (July 9).

FIRST PRE-SEASON GAME—The Cowboys, less than six months in existence, get their first test and drop a 10-16 pre-season game to San Francisco in Seattle (August 6).

FIRST HOME GAME—In their Dallas debut, in the Salesmanship Club pre-season game, the Cowboys led the World Champion Baltimore Colts into the final minute before a 71-yard pass from Johnny Unitas to Lenny Moore gave the Colts a 14-10 victory (August 19).

FIRST VICTORY—In a pre-season game at Louisville, Ky., the Cowboys beat New York's Giants, 14-3, with Frank Clarke catching touchdown passes of 73 yards (Eddie LeBaron) and 74 yards (Don Meredith). (August 27).

FIRST LEAGUE GAME—In their first league game, Dallas fell to Pittsburgh, 35-28, with Bobby Layne leading a fourth period Steeler rally (Sept. 24, Saturday night).

STREAK SNAPPED—Dallas snaps a 10-game loss streak by tying New York, 31-31, at Yankee Stadium (Dec. 4).

TRAINING STARTS—Rookies launch training at new campsite—St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. (July 9).

FIRST LEAGUE WIN—Scoring ten points in the final 56 seconds, the Cowboys score their first NFL victory, 27-24, over Pittsburgh in the '61 league opener in the Cotton Bowl. Allen Green's 27-yard field goal on the game's final play won it before 23,500 (Sept. 17).

1962

TRAINING STARTS—Team begins training at new campsite—Northern Michigan College in Marquette, Mich. (July 13).

PENALTY HISTORY—For the first time in anyone's memory in an NFL game, points were awarded for a penalty. The Cowboys were detected holding in the end zone on a 99-TD pass from LeBaron to Clarke, and Pittsburgh was awarded a safety. The Steelers eventually won, 30-28 (Sept. 23).

100-YARD FIRSTS—Cowboys Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter returned a pass interception 100 yards, both plays for fourth quarter TD's in a 41-19 win over Philadelphia in Dallas. It was the first time in NFL history that two 100-yard runs had been made in the same game, much less by the same team in the same quarter (Oct. 14).

SHIFT TO KANSAS CITY—The rival Dallas Texans of the AFL announce they are moving the franchise to Kansas City (Feb. 8).

CALIFORNIA TRAINING SITE—The Cowboys open training at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, Calif. (July 12).

HOWTON SETS RECORD—Bill Howton broke Don Hutson's all-time receiving mark with a 14-yard catch against Washington (there). Hutson's record was 7,991 yards and the catch gave Howton an even 8,000 yards (Sept. 29).

ANOTHER HOWTON MARK—Howton breaks another Hutson mark by catching his 490th NFL pass, against NY in Yankee Stadium (Oct. 20). Howton went on to stretch his career total to 503 for 8,459 yards during 1963, then retired.

1964

LANDRY CONTRACT—With one year to go on his original contract, Tom Landry is signed to a ten-year extension, in effect giving him an 11-year pact, possibly the longest in major pro sports history (Feb. 5).

1965

NEELY AWARDED TO COWBOYS—A U.S. District Court Judge ruled the contract of Oklahoma tackle Ralph Neely with Houston invalid. Neely had signed with Houston before the Gator Bowl game; Dallas signed Neely on Jan. 1 (June 22).

FIRST SELLOUT—An overflow crowd of 76,251 jams the Cotton Bowl for the Cleveland game, notching the team's first home sellout. Cleveland won, 24-17 (Nov. 21).

1966

PLAYOFF BOWL—After defeating New York, 38-20, in the season finale (and winning five of their last seven games) to get into the Playoff Bowl at Miami, the Cowboys fall to Baltimore, 35-3 (Jan. 15).

NEELY DECISION REVERSED—U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Denver reverses District Court decision, awards tackle Ralph Neely to Houston (May 18).

MERGER — Peace comes to pro football with Cowboys GM Tex Schramm completing two months of negotiations with AFL's Lamar Hunt, resulting in merger of the two leagues under the NFL banner (June 8).

SCHRAMM ELEVATED — Texas E. Schramm, Vice-President and General Manager of the Cowboys from the beginning, was named President of the club by owner Clint Murchison, Jr., who retained the title of Chairman of the Board.

NEELY CASE SOLVED — Dallas and Houston reached agreement in the Ralph Neely case. Neely remained with Dallas with Houston receiving the Cowboys Nos. 1, 2 and two fifth place picks in the 1967 draft (Nov. 17).

THE CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys won their first championship, capturing the Eastern Conference title with a 10-3-1 record, but lost the NFL Championship Game to Green Bay, 34-27.

TEXAS STADIUM — On Dec. 23, owner Clint Murchison, Jr., formally announced plans to build Texas Stadium in suburban Irving. The stadium, to be financed through a bond-option plan, would be ready for the 1970 season. The stadium would seat a minimum of 58,000.

SECOND CHAMPIONSHIP — Under the NFL's new format, the Cowboys easily won the Capitol Division and defeated Cleveland, Century Division winner, 52-14, in the Cotton Bowl for the Eastern conference championship. However, on Dec. 31 in Green Bay, the Cowboys lost their second bid for an NFL title, falling to the Packers, 21-17, in the 13 degree below weather.

TEXAS STADIUM — On December 26th, the Tecon Corporation bid of $17,964,000.00 was accepted by the Irving City Council and it was full speed ahead.

WIN CAPITOL — For the second straight year the Cowboys won the Capitol Division, but for the first time in three years the Cowboys did not win the Eastern Championship, being upset at Cleveland, 31-20, on December 21st. Dallas won the Runner-Up Bowl over Minnesota, 17-13.

1969

TEXAS STADIUM — On June 29th, Bert Rose was named general manager of Texas Stadium.

Eastern Conference Playoff

The Cowboys won the Capitol Division two straight years, but their quest for a third straight Eastern Conference championship was ended on a cold and bleak day in Cleveland when inspired Browns took a 31-20 victory.

It was only a year earlier in a similar game in Dallas, the Cowboys won, 52-14. But it was a different story in Municipal Stadium as the Browns defense throttled the Cowboys and Leroy Kelly had a two-touchdown day, a 45-yard pass and a 35-yard run.

Dallas led at 10-3 on a fumble recovery and 44 yard run by Chuck Howley, but just before the half Cleveland scored on a long pass play and the momentum and game belonged to the Browns.

NFL Playoff Bowl

It was not the game Dallas had intended to be in Miami for, the Cowboys nonetheless scored their first victory of 1969 by whipping Minnesota 17-13, in the Runner-Up Bowl.

On a wet and not so wonderful day in Miami, the Cowboys fell behind by 10 points when the Vikings Bob Bryant returned a punt 81 yards and Fred Cox kicked a field goal.

But Cowboys quarterback Don Meredith, who was the game's outstanding player, hit Bob Hayes with a 51-yard scoring pass and Mike Clark kicked a 10-yard field goal.

Craig Morton played the second half and passed 21 yards to Craig Baynham for that period's only touchdown.

At the finish when the Vikings were driving for what could have been trouble, the Dallas defense turned in its finest performance.

The Cowboys for the Eye

The Dallas Cowboys regional television network will again cover parts of six states with KRLL in Dallas originating the action for CBS affiliates in Arkansas, Arizona, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas. In addition, the Cowboys will be on at least three national telecasts, including Monday night, October 27th against New York; Thanksgiving Day, November 27th, against San Francisco and Saturday, December 13th, against Baltimore, all from the Cotton Bowl.

While the one-year-old CBS policy of eight broadcasting teams prevents any direct affiliation of talent and team, Frank Glibner and Eddie LeBaron will work most of the road games.
