Note to Media: The "Dial-a-Cowboy" number is 214/487-1111. Dial that number any time of the day or night for a taped interview with a Dallas player or coach.

The Cowboys' 1988 media guide is dedicated to Ray Shafer, the man who prior to retiring this year — had produced all of the club's printed materials since Dallas joined the NFL in 1960. Ray, who was employed by Williamson Printing Corporation in Dallas, oversaw every Cowboys project from layout to final delivery. "Send it to Shafer, he'll come up with something," was the normal answer to any Cowboys printing question for 28 years. So long, Ray, and thanks.

THE MANAGEMENT

Bum Bright
General Partner

H. R. (Harvey Roberts) Bright, better known as "Bum," has smoothly guided the Cowboys into a new era since his limited partnership acquired the club in the spring of 1984.

Bright put together the ownership group and masterminded the complicated purchase of the Cowboys from founder Clint Murchison, Jr. Bright serves as general partner of the limited partnership.

With Bright at the helm, the Cowboys began their second 25 years by moving into their state-of-the-art headquarters and training facility. Bright also guided the renovation of Texas Stadium, including the addition of 118 Crown Suites and the installation of two DiamondVision color scoreboards.

Born in Muskogee, Okla., Bum moved to Dallas with his family when he was eight years old. He earned a degree in petroleum engineering from Texas A&M University in 1943 before serving 2½ years as a captain in the Army Corps of Engineers.

Bright entered the oil business following his military service. He is senior partner of Bright & Company, a Dallas-based oil and gas production firm. He also has extensive holdings in the banking industry.

Bright is chairman of the board of directors of Children's Medical Foundation of Texas and past chairman of the board of regents of Texas A&M. He and wife Peggy live in Dallas. Bum has four children — Carol, Margaret, Chris and Clay.

Tex Schramm
President-General Manager

The trademark stability of the Cowboys' front office team traces to the leadership of the club's first and only general manager, Texas E. Schramm.

Managing partner of the Cowboys' ownership group, Schramm has directed the daily operation of the Cowboys since 1960 when Clint Murchison, Jr., founded the franchise. Schramm is regarded as one of the greatest innovators in pro football history.

A native of Los Angeles with family roots in San Antonio, Texas, Schramm earned a degree in journalism from the University of Texas. He joined the Los Angeles Rams as publicity director in 1947 after two years as a sports writer and sports editor at the Austin American-Statesman. In a 10-year career with the Rams he rose from publicity director, to assistant to the president, to general manager. During his tenure he brought Pete Rozelle into the NFL as the Rams' publicity director.

Schramm left the Rams in 1957 to join CBS Television as assistant director of sports. He put together the first network telecast of the Olympics, but, following those Winter Games of 1960 in Squaw Valley, Calif., Schramm returned to pro football upon being hired by Murchison to run the NFL's new Dallas franchise.

After the Cowboys won Super Bowl XII, Schramm was named NFL Executive of the Year by The Sporting News, and in 1978 he received the Bert Bell Award for outstanding executive leadership in the NFL. Tex serves as chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee and on the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

Tex is well-known as a multi-media star by Cowboy fans. He writes a column ("Ask Tex Schramm") in the "Dallas Cowboys Official Weekly", hosts the weekly TV version of the Cowboys Weekly on a eight-state, 36-station network, and has three radio call-in shows each week during the season.

His book published by Prentice-Hall, "Tex: The Man Who Built the Dallas Cowboys," is to be released this fall.

Tex and wife Marty live in Dallas. They have three daughters — Mardee, Christi and Kandy. Tex was named a 1987 Father of the Year by the Dallas Father of the Year Committee and the New York based Father's Day Council, Inc.

Gil Brandt
Vice President-Personnel Development

Gil Brandt is the man responsible for finding the football players who have made the Cowboys a winning team for a remarkable 20 of the past 22 years.

Brandt has been the Cowboys' chief talent scout since the club's birth in 1960. He had served as a part-time scout for the Los Angeles Rams under General Manager Tex Schramm in the 1950s. When Schramm took command of the newly formed Dallas Cowboys in 1960, one of the first people he hired was Brandt. Schramm, Brandt and Coach Tom Landry form the triumverate which has guided the Cowboys since 1960.

Brandt helped pioneer many of the scouting techniques used by NFL clubs today, such as computer analysis of prospects, converting basketball players and track athletes into football players and finding top free agent rookies, such as Drew Pearson, Cliff Harris and Everson Walls.

A native of Milwaukee and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Brandt worked as a baby photographer before his flair of discovering football talent led him into the NFL.

Don Wilson
Vice President-Treasurer

Don Wilson has overseen the financial management of the Cowboys since joining the club in 1971 as treasurer.

A native of Tulsa, Okla., Wilson received his bachelor of science degree in business administration from the University of Tulsa in 1955.

Wilson began his accounting career with Arthur Andersen & Co. in Oklahoma City as audit manager from 1955-65. In 1965 he moved to Bath, Maine, to become controller of Bath Iron Works Corporation until 1969.

Wilson served as a vice president of Parkwood Laminates, Inc., in Lowell, Mass., from 1969-71 before joining the Cowboys. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Don and wife Gloria live in Irving, Texas. Don has two sons, Michael and David.

Joe Bailey
Vice President-Administration

Joe Bailey has served as the Cowboys' vice president in charge of administration since 1977. Reporting directly to Tex Schramm on the day-to-day operations of all departments, he also negotiates contracts of all drafted and veteran players. Bailey's career with the Cowboys has included a wide variety of assignments, beginning with four years as a summer training camp aide in the early 1960's.

Bailey joined the Cowboys full time in 1970 as a scout after two years with Merrill Lynch in Washington, D.C. Bailey became the Cowboys' business manager in 1971 and handled that post until 1977 when he was elevated to vice president.

The Washington, D.C., native attended the University of North Carolina on a football-baseball scholarship, graduating in 1968 with a degree in political science. He attended the University of Grenoble, SMU, and took a leave of absence in 1985 to complete the Advanced Management Program of the Harvard University Graduate School of Business.

Joe serves on various boards including NFL Properties, NFL Films and the Plaza National Bank in Dallas. He is a member of the Salesmanship Club of Dallas. Joe and wife Julie live in Dallas with their children — Joe IV, Tara and Tyler.

Bob Ackles
Vice President-Pro Personnel

Bob Ackles joined the Cowboys in July, 1986 as the club's first director of pro personnel following 11 years as general manager of the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions. He was considered one of the CFL's top administrators.

Ackles is responsible for scouting all NFL players and for dealing with other NFL teams on player personnel matters. He also supplies information on opposing players to the Cowboys' coaching staff.
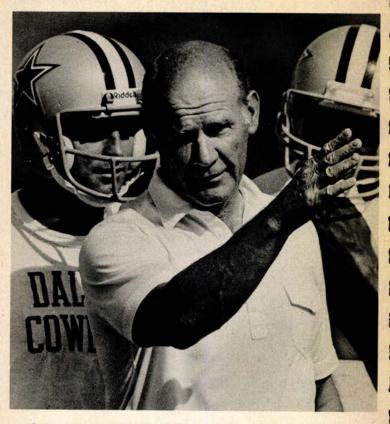

Bob performed virtually every administrative duty during a 32-year career with the B.C. Lions. He had the unique distinction of joining the club in its first year of operation in 1954 as a 16-year-old waterboy.

He worked his way through college as the Lions' equipment manager and became assistant general manager before being elevated to general manager in 1975. Part of Ackles' responsibilities was keeping tabs on NFL players, including annual visits to NFL training camps. He visited the Cowboys' training camp six times between 1978 and 1985.

Under Ackles' leadership, the Lions became one of the CFL's winningest teams, moved into a new stadium and built a new training facility. In 1985 the Lions won the Grey Cup, emblematic of the CFL championship.

Bob and wife Kay have two sons, Steve and Scott.

THE COACH

As he approaches the twilight of his glorious career, Tom Landry faces the same challenge he successfully confronted 30 years ago — building the Cowboys into a championship contender.

The dean of NFL coaches in his 29th season, Landry has built an extraordinary record of achievement that might have prompted another man to walk away from the unrelenting pressures of coaching.

Landry, however, is not the kind to walk away from a challenge.

"I signed a three-year contract last summer because I thought it would take three years to get things turned around," Landry says. "We are a very inexperienced football team. You don't gain experience overnight. We are in a rebuilding phase, no doubt about that, but given enough time we can get it done. I really don't want to leave the Cowboys when the team is down."

After posting a league-record 20 consecutive winning seasons, 18 playoff appearances and five Super Bowls from 1966-85, Landry's Cowboys have suffered through back-to-back losing seasons and have missed the playoffs three of the past four years.

Yet his enthusiasm toward coaching has not diminished and his stature in the profession remains unsurpassed.

"He's one of the guys who other coaches in the league would like to be like," says Washington Redskins Coach Joe Gibbs. "The true test of a coach is if a guy has done it over a long period of time and done it with different teams and proven he has a formula. That's what he's done."

Landry reaches another milestone this season by tying Curly Lambeau's NFL record of coaching the same team for 29 consecutive years. Lambeau coached the Green Bay Packers from 1921-49. George Halas coached the Chicago Bears for 40 years in four 10-year segments.

"The amazing and significant thing about Tom is his ability, both from a football and personal standpoint, to change with the times," Cowboys President Tex Schramm says. "The players coming out of college today are entirely different — in lifestyle and priorities — than they were when he started with the Cowboys. He has adapted to that and the changes in the game itself. He has been an innovator and that's hard to maintain over a 29-year period."

Under Landry, the one and only head coach in team history, the Cowboys have won 13 division championships and five NFC titles for a record five Super Bowl appearances. The Cowboys won Super Bowls VI and XII.

Thomas Wade Landry was born in Mission, Texas, on Sept. 11, 1924. He was an All-Regional fullback at Mission High School before enrolling at the University of Texas. Following one semester he joined the Air Corps and flew 30 B-17 missions with the Eighth Air Force in World War II.

In November 1945 he was discharged as a first lieutenant and returned to Texas where he became a star fullback and defensive back, earning All-Southwest Conference honors as a junior and co-captaining the Longhorns as a senior. With Landry's help, Texas beat Alabama in the 1948 Sugar Bowl and Georgia in the 1949 Orange Bowl.

Landry played for the New York Yankees of the All-America Conference in 1949 before joining the NFL's New York Giants the next year. He was a mainstay in the Giants' defensive secondary through 1955, the last two years as a player-coach. He earned All-Pro honors in 1954.

Following his retirement as a player in 1955, Tom served as the Giants' defensive coach through 1959. During that time, he developed the "4-3" defense that became the standard pro defensive formation. Giants Head Coach Jim Lee Howell called Tom "the best defensive coach in the business."

Coach Landry and wife Alicia met at the University of Texas. They have three children — Tom, Jr., Kitty and Lisa — and two grandchildren by Kitty and her husband, former Texas quarterback Eddie Phillips.

Landry earned a degree in business at Texas and one in industrial engineering from the University of Houston. He has received numerous honorary degrees and awards.

In 1980 California Lutheran University, home of the Cowboys' summer training camp, established the Landry Medal, awarded annually to a person who has distinguished himself in his profession and serves as an inspiration to American youth.

In 1984 Mission High School dedicated Tom Landry Stadium in honor of its native son.

Tom serves on the Board of Trustees of the National Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He gives his time to many other charity and civic causes.

In his spare time Tom enjoys playing golf and flying his Cessna Centurion 210 airplane.

THE COACHING STAFF
Neill Armstrong
Research and Development

Neill Armstrong studies and evaluates all players and teams in the NFL. His reports provide the basis for the formulation of the Cowboys' game plans. Neill joined the Cowboys in 1982.

Armstrong compiled a 30-34 record in four seasons (1978-81) as head coach of the Chicago Bears before coming to Dallas. Before joining the Bears he was an assistant coach with the Minnesota Vikings for nine years, seven as defensive coordinator.

Armstrong led Edmonton to the Canadian Football League playoffs three times during a six-year reign as head coach from 1964-69. Neill began his professional coaching career with the Houston Oilers in 1962-63 following seven years (1955-61) as an assistant at his alma mater, Oklahoma State.

A native of Tishomingo, Okla. (3/9/26), Armstrong was an All-America receiver at Oklahoma State (then Oklahoma A&M) from 1943-46. He was the Philadelphia Eagles' No. 1 draft choice in 1947. He played on two NFL championship teams in five seasons (1947-51) with the Eagles. He was a two-time all-star in three years with the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1951, '53-54).

Neill and wife Jane have three children — Neill Jr., David and Gail — and five grandchildren.

Jim Erkenbeck
Offensive Line

Jim Erkenbeck, who enters his third season as an NFL coach and second with Dallas, continues to mold the Cowboys' young offensive line into one of the largest and most powerful in the NFL. By the end of the 1987 season the offensive line had three new starters and the average weight went from 277 pounds in 1986 to 290 pounds last year.

Erkenbeck joined the Cowboys after reviving the offensive line in New Orleans. In 1985 the Saints were one of only two teams in the NFL to allow more than 55 sacks (58) and average less than four yards per rush (3.9). After Erkenbeck's arrival in 1986 the Saints became one of only four teams to allow less than 28 sacks (27) and average more than four yards per carry (4.1).

Prior to joining the Saints, Erkenbeck coached the offensive line of the Philadelphia Stars, who went to the USFL Championship game all three years of the league's existence and won the championship the last two seasons.

From 1972-76 Erkenbeck was the offensive line coach at the University of California where for four of those years (1972-75) he coached with Cowboys pass offense coordinator Paul Hackett.

After leaving California, Erkenbeck began his pro coaching career in the Canadian Football League. He was offensive coordinator at Winnipeg in 1977 and continued in that capacity with Montreal (1978-81) and Calgary (1982).

Following a college career at San Diego State where he earned three football letters and one track letter, Erkenbeck spent four years in the Marine Corps. He started his coaching career with El Capitan High School in San Diego.

His first college coaching experience came under Don Coryell at his alma mater where he coached the offensive and defensive lines from 1960-63. Erkenbeck went on to coach at Grossmont College in San Diego (1964-67), Utah State (1968) and Washington State (1969-71) before moving to California.

Erkenbeck (9/10/31) and his wife Jocelyne live in Roanoke, Texas. He has two sons — Jeffrey and Jim — and one granddaughter.

Paul Hackett
Pass Offense Coordinator • Quarterbacks

With Danny White hampered by a wrist injury, the emphasis turned to the development of Steve Pelluer in 1987. Under Paul Hackett's guidance Pelluer came on to lead the Cowboys to two season-ending wins and throw 94 straight passes without an interception. In Hackett's first season in Dallas in 1986 Danny White was leading the NFC in passing before suffering the broken wrist in midseason.

Paul Hackett joined the Cowboys in 1986 after three years as quarterbacks/receivers coach of the San Francisco 49ers. During that time, 49ers quarterback Joe Montana was the NFC's highest-rated quarterback and led the NFC in TD passes in both 1984 and '85.

As a senior at UC Davis in 1969 Paul led the Far Western Conference in passing. He began his coaching career the next year at his alma mater before moving on to the University of California in 1972. While at Berkeley Hackett coached All-America Steve Bartkowski, who led the NCAA in passing in 1974, and the late Joe Roth, who led the Pac 8 in passing in 1975.

Following a four-year hitch at Cal, Hackett was named quarterbacks coach at the University of Southern California. With the Trojans he coached Vince Evans and Paul McDonald, who set 17 USC, Pac-10 and NCAA records.

Hackett began his pro coaching career with the Cleveland Browns in 1981. He spent two years as the quarterbacks coach before moving to San Francisco in 1983.

A native of Burlington, Vt. (7/5/47), Paul and wife Elizabeth have two sons — David and Nathaniel.

Al Lavan
Running Backs

Following eight years of coaching in college and the pros, Al Lavan became the Cowboys' running backs coach in 1980. Under Lavan the Cowboys' running game has remained one of the most respected in the NFL.

Lavan coached running backs at Stanford in 1979 after two years at Georgia Tech handling receivers and running backs. He directed defensive backs and special teams for the Falcons in 1975 and '76.

Lavan began his coaching career in 1972 as receivers coach at his alma mater, Colorado State. He moved to Louisville to coach defensive backs in 1973 before being named receivers coach at Iowa State in 1974. The next season he returned to the Falcons as a coach.

A native of Pierce, Fla. (9/13/46), Lavan was a defensive back and place kicker at Colorado State and was drafted in the eighth round by Philadelphia in 1968. He played defensive back for the Eagles in 1968, then for Atlanta in 1969 and '70.

Al and wife Bessie have three children — Travis, Douglas and Maeleeke.

Alan Lowry
Receivers

Alan Lowry was named Cowboys receivers coach in 1987 after five years as their special teams coach and five seasons as defensive backfield coach of his alma mater, the University of Texas.

Lowry is one of the few football players in Southwest Conference history to earn All-Conference honors both as an offensive and defensive star. He was a defensive back at Texas in 1970 and '71 when the Longhorns won a national and two conference championships. Lowry was All-SWC in 1971.

In 1972 Lowry was switched to quarterback and earned conference honors again in leading Texas to a 10-1 season, including a come-from-behind victory over Alabama in the Cotton Bowl.

After receiving his degree in physical education, Lowry served as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech in 1974. He joined the Wyoming staff under Fred Akers in 1975, but resigned that post in the summer of 1976.

Lowry worked for the Cowboys' scouting department in the fall of 1976 before joining Akers' staff at Texas in December 1976.

Lowry is a native of Irving, Texas (11/21/50), home of Texas Stadium. Alan and wife Donna live in Roanoke, Texas with daughters Marta Jean and Lindsay.

Dick Nolan
Defensive Backs

After four years as receivers coach with the Cowboys, Dick Nolan returned to a familiar role as the Cowboys defensive backs coach in 1986, reuniting the original "Doomsday Defense" coaching staff of Nolan, Jerry Tubbs and Ernie Stautner. After a year as a player-coach in 1962, Dick coached the Cowboys defensive backs from 1963-67, developing All-Pros Mel Renfro and Cornell Green. He also served as defensive coordinator from '66-'67.

Nolan left the Cowboys to become head coach of the San Francisco 49ers from 1968-75. His teams won the NFC West championship in 1970, '71 and '72. He was NFC coach of the year in 1970.

Nolan joined New Orleans as linebackers coach in 1977 and was head coach of the Saints from 1978-80. Dick was the defensive coordinator of the Oilers in 1981 before returning to Dallas in 1982.

Nolan and Tom Landry were defensive back teammates with the New York Giants in 1954 and '55 when Tom was a player-coach. Nolan also played under Landry in 1956, '57 and '59 when Tom was New York's defensive coach. Nolan played for the Chicago Cardinals in 1958 before returning to the Giants for the next three seasons.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pa. (3/26/32), and raised in White Plains, N.Y., Nolan was a two-way star football player at the University of Maryland from 1951-53. He played offensive and defensive halfback on Maryland's 1953 national championship team.

Dick and wife Ann have six children — Richard Jr., Nancy, Michael, Kelly, Lisa and Jimmy — and six grandchildren.

Mike Solari
Special Teams

Mike Solari, who spent the 1986 season as offensive line coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh, joined the Cowboys as special teams coach in 1987.

Solari, who also helps Jim Erkenbeck with the offensive line, directed a Pittsburgh attack that averaged 371.7 yards per game in 1986.

After becoming offensive line coach at Cincinnati in 1981, Solari moved on with head coach Mike Gottfried in 1983 to Kansas and in 1986 to Pittsburgh where he was given the added responsibilities of offensive coordinator.

Following an outstanding career at San Diego State where he was named most valuable offensive lineman and received a National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Award for his academic and athletic excellence, Solari began his coaching career at Mission Bay High School in 1976 working with the offensive line and directing the wrestling team.

He joined the college ranks in 1977 as offensive line coach at Mira Vista Junior College in Oceanside, Calif. Solari then moved down the coast to U.S. International in San Diego in 1979. The following season he coached the offensive line at 1980 NCAA Division II champ Boise State.

A native of Daly City, Calif. (1/16/55), Solari and wife Patti have two daughters, Tamara and Stephanie.

Ernie Stautner
Defensive Coordinator ● Defensive Line

Under the direction of Pro Football Hall of Famer Ernie Stautner, the Cowboys consistently field excellent defenses and All-Pro defensive linemen like Bob Lilly, George Andrie, Harvey Martin, Randy White, Ed Jones and John Dutton.

The Cowboys' famed "Doomsday Defense" began to emerge shortly after Stautner's arrival as defensive line coach in 1966. Ernie also helped fashion "Doomsday II," which carried Dallas to its second Super Bowl title in 1977.

Stautner was an All-Pro defensive end and tackle with the Pittsburgh Steelers where he played for 15 years (1950-64) despite being relatively small at 6-0, 230 pounds. A veteran of nine Pro Bowls, he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, his first year of eligibility. In 1982 he was voted to the Steelers' 50th anniversary team.

Ernie was born in Cham, Bavaria (4/20/27), but grew up in Albany, N.Y. Following a World War II Marine Corps hitch (1943-46), he enrolled at Boston College and developed into a two-way star lineman.

Ernie directs the annual Ernie Stautner Football Camp for Boys every June at Texas Stadium.

Ernie has three children — Joe, Terri and Carol.

Jerry Tubbs
Linebackers

The only original Cowboys player still with the club is Jerry Tubbs, who came to Dallas in the 1960 expansion draft from the San Francisco 49ers.

Jerry was the Cowboys' first starting middle linebacker and one of four in club history. As a coach he developed his successors at the critical middle spot, Lee Roy Jordan, Bob Breunig and Eugene Lockhart. Tubbs, Jordan and Breunig all played in the Pro Bowl.

Tubbs played for the Cowboys for eight seasons (1961-67), serving as player-coach the last two. He was the Cowboys' first All-Pro and Pro Bowl linebacker (1962) and was known as one of the most aggressive players in the game.

Jerry has coached four Pro Bowl linebackers in Dallas — Jordan, Breunig, Chuck Howley and Thomas Henderson.

Born in Breckenridge, Texas (1/23/35), Jerry was inducted into the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in 1971. He was an All-America center-linebacker for Bud Wilkinson's unbeaten Oklahoma teams from 1954-56. Tubbs was the Walter Camp Award winner in 1956 as the nation's outstanding player.

In '85 Sooners Illustrated magazine ranked Tubbs No. 4 on the list of the 10 all-time greatest Oklahoma football players. In '87 he was honored by Southern Living magazine as one of the best southern college players of the past 50 years.

Tubbs was drafted in the first round by the Chicago Cardinals in 1957 and also played for the 49ers before coming to Dallas.
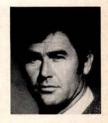

Jerry and wife Marlene have two children — Alan and Kayla.

Bob Ward
Conditioning

Dr. Bob Ward has Cowboys players enthusiastically participating in his innovative conditioning programs, which include weightlifting, aerobic conditioning, martial arts, flexibility training and nutrition.

Working with computers and emphasizing futuristic concepts, Ward directs the Cowboys' voluntary offseason conditioning program, using biomechanics to devise individual programs for each player. He also supplies each player with a training program during the season.

Ward was track coach for 11 years at Fullerton College in California before joining the Cowboys in 1975.

A graduate of Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash., Ward was an NAIA Little All-America in football and competed at the National NAIA track meet in the shot put and discus. He received his master's degree in physical education from the University of Washington and his doctorate from Indiana University.

Bob has trained extensively in the martial arts and taught Cowboys players various martial arts techniques that can be used in football. A member of Delta Force, a U.S. Army think-tank, he founded the National Association of Speed and Explosion with George Dintiman.

A native of Huntington Park, Calif. (7/4/33), Bob and wife Joyce have two children — Shannon and Erin.

DON COCHREN   KEN LOCKER   BUCK BUCHANAN

DON COCHREN, Trainer

Don Cochren joined the Cowboys in 1965 after experience in college, military and Canadian Football League training.

A graduate of Purdue, Cochren earned his physical therapy certificate at Pennsylvania. He was trainer at Case Institute (now Case-Western Reserve) in Cleveland for two years, with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL for four years and at University of New Hampshire for one year before coming to Dallas. He also served as a physical therapy officer in the Air Force for two years.

Don was one of 28 trainers selected from colleges and professional sports teams to serve the United States team at the 1980 Winter Olympics in Lake Placid, N.Y. In 1984 Don received the 25-year honor award from the National Athletic Trainers Association.

A native of Princeton, Ind. (2/6/32), Don and wife Jan have four children — Jan, Scott, Wendy and Chris.

KEN LOCKER, Assistant Trainer

Ken Locker works with Don Cochren and supervises the Cowboys' medical rehabilitation program. Locker came to the Cowboys in 1973 after four years as assistant trainer and interim head trainer at North Texas State University.

Locker received his master's degree in physical education from Texas Woman's University. He served two years as trainer of World Championship Tennis, traveling with the men's tour in 1975 and '76.

In 1982 Ken was trainer for NBC's "Survival of the Fittest" competition in New Zealand. He served as a group coordinator of the Dallas Blood Center and was on the executive board of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

Ken is a native of Seminole, Texas (7/23/51). He and wife Pam live in Roanoke, Texas, with daughters Baylee Arrena and Berkley Anne.

BUCK BUCHANAN, Equipment Manager

William T. "Buck" Buchanan joined the Cowboys in 1973 after supervising athletic programs in the Air Force for 20 Years.

SMSgt. Buchanan was a non-commissioned officer in charge of athletics and programs at the U.S. Air Force Academy Prep School in Colorado Springs for four years. He was awarded the Bronze Star for his performance during a 1968-69 tour of duty in Thailand.

Buck was born in Ballinger, Texas (5/24/33). He and wife Geraldine have two children — Bucky and Julie and a grandson William Thomas, II.

What To Look For In 1988

The Cowboys winning their 22nd league opener in the past 24 seasons. Dallas holds the NFL record of 17 straight opening-game victories from 1965-81. The Cowboys are the best opening-day team in NFL history with a 22-5-1 (.804) record.

The Cowboys improving their all-time Texas Stadium record of 103-33 (.757), including playoff games, from 1971-85. Dallas has sold out 88 of the past 100 games since 1976.

The Cowboys improving their NFC-best 41-19 (.683) record against the AFC in games against AFC Central foes Cincinnati, Cleveland, Houston and Pittsburgh.

The Cowboys posting a winning record for the 21st time in the past 23 seasons, but first since 1985. The team's 20 straight winning seasons from 1966-85 is the NFL's longest ever and the fourth longest ever in pro team sports behind the New York Yankees' 39 straight winning seasons from 1926-64, the Montreal Canadiens' 32 in a row from 1951-52 to 1982-83 and the Boston Bruins' 21 straight from 1967-68 to 1987-88. The Washington Redskins have the NFL's longest active streak of winning seasons at six.

Dallas improving its 14-5-1 (.725) record and breaking a two-game losing streak on Thanksgiving Day. In the game immediately following the Thanksgiving Day game the Cowboys are 16-4 (.800). In all games following the Thanksgiving Day game Dallas has a record of 39-21 (.650).

Tom Landry tying the NFL record held by Green Bay's Curly Lambeau of coaching the same team 29 consecutive years. Lambeau led the Packers from 1921-49. Landry's 267 career NFL victories trails only George Halas (325) and Don Shula (271). Landry's career record including playoffs is 267-165-6.

Everson Walls moving in on the Cowboys' career interception record. With 42 career steals he needs 10 to catch Mel Renfro, who holds the club record. Walls, who enters his eighth NFL season, is third among active interceptors in the NFC behind Green Bay's Dave Brown (53 in 13 seasons) and Minnesota's John Harris (47 in 10 seasons). He will also be looking to lead the NFL in interceptions for the fourth time. No other player has ever led the league more than two seasons. Walls led Dallas in intercepts in 1987 for the fourth time in his career, tying Cornell Green's club record. With an interception in each of the last three games of 1987, Walls needs two to tie Don Bishop's team mark of five straight.

Danny White adding two more career club passing records to his resume. White broke Roger Staubach's record for completions and touchdown passes last year. This season he is chasing two other Staubach records. White enters the 1988 season with career totals of 2,908 pass attempts and 21,685 passing yards. Roger Staubach finished his career with 2,958 attempts and 22,700 yards. With Danny White as the starting QB the Cowboys are 67-35 (.657), 41-11 (.789) at Texas Stadium.

Ed Jones and Randy White tying a club record for service by playing in their 14th NFL seasons. Bob Lilly (1961-74), Lee Roy Jordan (1963-76) and Jethro Pugh (1965-78) already share that team mark. Jones can also record his 100th NFL sack in 1988. Jones has 98 career sacks. With 10 sacks in 1987, including four against the Giants on Nov. 2, he led the Cowboys in sacks for the second time in the past three years. White has 112½ career sacks, 12½ away from the club record of 125 by Harvey Martin (1973-83).

Herschel Walker moving up the Cowboys' all-time rushing list. Already in the 10th spot with 1,628 yards, Walker can pass Dan Reeves (1,990), Amos Marsh (2,065), Ron Springs (2,180) and Roger Staubach (2,264) in 1988. Walker also can lead the Cowboys in receiving for the third straight season. Since coming into the NFL in 1986, Walker has gained 3,180 (1,628 rushing, 1,552 receiving) yards from scrimmage, second only to Eric Dickerson of the Colts with 3,485 yards (3,109, 376).

Vince Albritton ★ 36

SAFETY ● WASHINGTON ● 5th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 210 ● BORN: 7/23/62 ● FA FOR '84

PRO: "Vince Albritton is our most aggressive guy in the secondary," said Tom Landry during the off-season. "He's competing for a starting job." Albritton was the Oscar Mayer Special Teams Player of the Year in 1987, winning a game ball for his efforts against the Patriots (11/15). Going into training camp this summer, Vince was battling Bill Bates for the starting strong safety job after serving as Bates' backup the past couple of years and playing a key role in the Cowboys' special pass defenses. Albritton closed the '87 campaign with a rush, helping key two Dallas victories with big games against Los Angeles and St. Louis. Against the Rams he had six tackles, four unassisted, then capped the season with his biggest game — 11 tackles (six unassisted) against the Cardinals. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (16/0), 1985 (7/1), 1986 (16/1), 1987 (11/1). Total — 50/3.

COLLEGE: Vince played safety, linebacker and cornerback at Washington. Playing strong safety his senior year, he led the Husky secondary in tackling and played in the Japan Bowl. An honorable mention All-West Coast and second team All-Pac 10 pick in 1983, Albritton was a teammate of Steve Pelluer at Washington.

PERSONAL: Vince Denader Albritton attended McClymonds High School, where he concentrated mostly on baseball. He led the football team to the Oakland Athletic League title in his senior year when he intercepted a league-leading and school-record eight passes, earning him All-OAL honors. He majored in speech communications at Washington.

Gordon Banks ★ 87

WIDE RECEIVER ● STANFORD ● 6th YEAR
HT: 5-10 ● WT: 170 ● BORN: 3/12/58 ● FA FOR '85

PRO: The team's most experienced receiver after Mike Renfro, Gordon has proven to be a dependable player since joining the Cowboys. He also has proven to be a reliable starter when called on, as was the case four times last year. His diving, 34-yard catch at New York last year was one of the biggest plays in the victory over the Giants. A stress fracture to his foot, though, caused Banks to miss the final seven games last year. He signed with Dallas late in the '85 season after injuries decimated the receivers corps. Banks began his pro career with the Saints and played two seasons. After moving on to the Oakland Invaders, he became the only player to catch a pass in all 54 of his USFL games, totaling 187 receptions. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (7/0-N.O.), 1981 (6/1-N.O.), 1983 (18/18-USFL), 1984 (18/18-Oak., USFL), 1985 (2/0-Dallas), 1986 (16/5), 1987 (5/4). Total — 72/46 (36/10-NFL).

COLLEGE: Banks was a four-year letterman in both track and football at Stanford where he recorded a 10.33 100-meter dash. He started opposite All-America Ken Margerum at wide receiver for the Cardinal.

PERSONAL: A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Gordon Gerard Banks attended Loyola High School. He is president of GBI Enterprises, a Dallas company dealing in gold and silver commodities. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Doug Cosbie Youth Foundation and the David Albritton Finally Free Outreach program, which speaks out against drug abuse. He is chairman of the board of "Banks' Bunch," a youth-oriented ministry that hosts more than 500 youngsters at Cowboys home games. A member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Banks earned his degree in political science from Stanford. Gordon lives in Coppell, Texas, with his wife Derozette and new addition Danielle (3/17/88).

Rod Barksdale ★ 80

WIDE RECEIVER   •   ARIZONA   •   3rd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 193 • BORN: 9/8/62 • Trade, L.A. Raiders, '87

PRO: The Cowboys acquired Barksdale from the Los Angeles Raiders in the summer of '87 for cornerback Ron Fellows in an effort to add speed to the receiver corps. Rod, who did not play football in high school or college, boasts world-class speed, and was a three-time track All-America at Arizona. He also was a semifinalist in the 100-meter dash at the 1984 Olympic Trials. In his initial season with the Cowboys, Rod caught 12 passes for 165 yards while adjusting to the Dallas offense. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (IR), 1986 (16/15-Raiders), 1987 (12/1). Total — 28/16.

COLLEGE: Barksdale finished sixth in the 200-meter dash and was a member of Arizona's 4×100 meter relay team that finished third in the NCAA Championships in 1984. He had individual bests of 20.3 in the 200 and 46.1 in the 400.

PERSONAL: A native of Los Angeles, CA, Rod Barksdale earned track All-America honors at Compton High School. He finished second in state in the 440-yard dash in 1980. Barksdale majored in political science at Arizona.

Bill Bates ★ 40

SAFETY   •   TENNESSEE   •   6th YEAR
HT: 6-1   •   WT: 199   •   BORN: 6/6/61   •   FA FOR '83

PRO: Another example of the Cowboys' tradition of developing free agents, Bill has worked hard to improve each season. After making the club primarily because of superb special teams play, he moved into the starting lineup in 1986, and has added aggressive hitting, determination and intensity to the defense. Bates was second on the defense with 81 total tackles, while his three traps led the secondary. He also was third with 14 special teams tackles — evidence that his effort on the special teams did not decrease after he made the starting lineup. In 1984, Bill made the NFC Pro Bowl squad as a special teamer, and in 1983 and '84 he was the NFL Alumni's Special Teams Player of the Year. Before becoming a regular, Bill led all non-starters in tackles for three straight years. GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (16/1), 1984 (12/2), 1985 (16/0), 1986 (15/15), 1987 (12/11). Total: 71/29.

COLLEGE: Bates played both safety positions in four years as a starter at Tennessee. He was named second-team All-Southeastern Conference his junior and senior years. Bates was known as the Vols' hardest hitter, surest tackler and as a team leader. He intercepted nine passes and recovered six fumbles in his career.

PERSONAL: William Frederick Bates was born and raised in Knoxville, Tenn., where he excelled in football, basketball and as a sprinter on the track team at Farragut High School. He was all-state in football and basketball. A 1985 NFL Man of the Year finalist, Bill supports the United Way, the Dallas-area Boys Clubs, the Special Olympics in Tennessee, the United Children's Fund of Dallas, the Dallas Wednesday's Child Program benefitting orphans, and the March of Dimes. He's honorary chairman of the annual Wednesday's Child golf tournament. Bill participates in and is a supporter of the FCA. Bill and wife Denise, a fashion model, live in Dallas.

Kevin Brooks ★ 99

DEFENSIVE TACKLE ● MICHIGAN ● 4th YEAR
HT: 6-6 ● WT: 278 ● BORN: 2/9/63 ● D-1 FOR '85

PRO: Kevin Brooks took over the starting left tackle job during training camp in '87, replacing long-time starter John Dutton. He did not disappoint and continues to mature in his new role. Kevin led all Dallas defensive linemen with 67 tackles in '87, while proving to be an excellent run-stopper. He also contributed four traps. Coaches are counting on Brooks to give Dallas another long-tenured anchor for the defensive line. The Cowboys had hoped that Brooks would crack the starting lineup sooner, but a knee injury and subsequent surgery stopped his bid in '86. Since being Dallas' No. 1 pick in '85, Kevin has played all four line positions, but left tackle appears to be his permanent home. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (11/0), 1986 (9/0) 1987 (13/12). Total — 33/12.

COLLEGE: After spending his freshman year as a 6-4, 215-pound outside linebacker, Brooks matured physically and was switched to defensive tackle. He was a three-year starter, leading the Wolverines his senior year in tackles for losses (13) and sacks (6).

PERSONAL: Born and raised in Detroit, Kevin Craig Brooks was an All-America, all-state and team MVP his senior year at MacKenzie High School. He

Cornell Burbage ★ 15

WIDE RECEIVER ● KENTUCKY ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 5-10 ● WT: 181 ● BORN: 2/22/65 ● FA FOR '87

PRO: Signed as a free agent in the spring of 1987, Cornell Burbage led the Cowboys in receiving yards in preseason with 88 on five receptions and had the team's longest punt return (13 yards vs. Houston). He was released on the final cutdown day on Sept. 7, and was a big-play receiver when re-signed for the replacement team. GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (3/2).

COLLEGE: Burbage caught 24 passes for 331 yards for Kentucky in 1986. He finished third in the SEC in kickoff returns with a 23.1 average and fifth in the SEC in punt returns with a 6.7 average. In 1985 he caught a career-high seven passes for 131 yards against Mississippi State on his way to leading the Wildcats in receiving yards with 418 that year. He finished his career with 64 receptions for 988 yards and played in the Blue-Gray game following the 1986 season.

PERSONAL: Cornell Rodney Burbage earned all-state honors in football and track at Bryan Station High School in Lexington, KY. A math major at Kentucky, he has a son, Cornell Rodney Burbage II.

Ron Burton ★ 57

LINEBACKER ● NORTH CAROLINA ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-1 ● WT: 245 ● BORN: 5/2/64 ● FA FOR '87

PRO: The surprise of the 1987 rookie class was linebacker Ron Burton, an unheralded free agent who by season's end had thrust himself into the race for a starting job in 1988. Burton was the only rookie free agent to make the team coming out of training camp. He was a special teams standout most of the season before getting a chance to play linebacker in December. He led Dallas in special teams tackles with 19 and earned the Oscar Mayer/Cowboys special teams player of the week award twice, against New England and Atlanta. He also recovered a fumbled kickoff against the Giants to set up a field goal in the Cowboys' upset victory in November. But Burton made his biggest impact when a series of injuries to the linebackers forced Tom Landry to juggle his lineup and start Burton at middle linebacker for two of the last three games. Burton was nothing short of sensational, stuffing ball carriers at the line of scrimmage and making hits that left opponents wincing and teammates smiling. In the season finale against St. Louis, Burton recorded 17 tackles, knocked down three passes and forced a fumble. With Eugene Lockhart returning to his middle linebacker spot, Burton entered this season hoping to win a starting job at left linebacker. "He's built more like a middle linebacker," Landry says, "but he's got the speed to play outside and he's a football player and outside is where he can help us right away." GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (12/2).

COLLEGE: A two-year starter at defensive end, Burton was named North Carolina's outstanding defensive lineman in 1986 after leading the Tar Heels in sacks with eight. He had 15 sacks and 161 tackles during his career.

PERSONAL: Ronald Leon Burton was an all-state linebacker at Highland Springs, Va., High School, where he also starred in basketball. He received a degree from North Carolina in industrial relations. In his spare time Ron enjoys playing golf and listening to music.

Thornton Chandler ★ 89

TIGHT END ● ALABAMA ● 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-5 ● WT: 242 ● BORN: 11/27/63 ● D-6A FOR '86

PRO: Since making the Cowboys as the sleeper of the 1986 draft class, Chandler has been a solid backup to starter Doug Cosbie. Primarily known as a blocker at a run-oriented Alabama, Thornton has shown ability as a receiver with the Cowboys. Chandler has the prototype tight end features — good height, long arms, excellent hands and solid blocking ability. He now is looked upon as the eventual replacement for Cosbie. In his first two years with Dallas, Thornton caught just 11 passes. But of the 11 receptions, three went for touchdowns. GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (15/1), 1987 (12/1). Total — 27/2.

COLLEGE: Thornton Chandler finished third on the Alabama squad with 16 catches for 244 yards in 1985 and was considered one of the most improved players on the Crimson Tide. In three seasons Chandler averaged 15.8 yards per catch (32-504) including a career-long 52-yarder as a sophomore against Mississippi in 1983. He played at Florida A&M as a freshman in 1981 before transferring to Alabama.

PERSONAL: A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Thornton Greene Chandler was an All-America tight end at Raines High School. As a senior he caught 10 passes for 170 yards and two touchdowns against Lake City. Chandler's father Tommy was a defensive end on the same Matthew Gilbert High School team as former Cowboys receiver Bob Hayes. Chandler's father and Hayes also played together at Florida A&M. Thornton worked toward his degree in recreation administration at Alabama in the offseason. He has a son, Thornton Chandler, Jr. (6/10/80).

Steve Cisowski ★ 70

TACKLE	•	SANTA CLARA	•	2nd YEAR
HT: 6-5	• WT: 275	•	BORN: 1/23/63	• FA

PRO: Steve Cisowski was signed as a free agent by the Cowboys and released on the final cutdown day in '87, then re-signed for the replacement team. He was picked in the eighth round of the 1986 draft by the Giants and released in preseason. GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (3/3).

COLLEGE: A four-year starter at both guard and tackle at Santa Clara, Cisowski was a unanimous All-Western Football Conference pick at left tackle in 1985. Cisowski, who started 32 straight games, was part of the offensive line that propelled the Santa Clara offense to a school-record 751 yards against San Francisco State in 1985. He weighed 215 pounds when he entered Santa Clara.

PERSONAL: Cisowski (pronounced Siz-OW-skee) earned letters in football, basketball, wrestling and track at Westmont High School in Campbell, Calif. He earned his degree in economics at Santa Clara.

Darryl Clack ★ 42

RUNNING BACK	•	ARIZONA STATE	•	3rd YEAR
HT: 5-10	• WT: 220	•	BORN: 10/29/63	• D-2 FOR '86

PRO: Darryl Clack's opportunities to contribute while playing behind Herschel Walker and Tony Dorsett the past two years were limited, but with Dorsett's move to Denver the pace promised to quicken for Clack. When the opportunity presented itself, Darryl showed why the Cowboys used such a high draft pick on him. He has a smooth, gliding style that in 1987 produced the Cowboys' highest kickoff return average since 1982. His 21.9 average per return placed him seventh among NFC kickoff returners. In '86 as a rookie, Darryl averaged 22.2 yards per return. Tom Landry has been vocal in his compliments for Clack's skills as a return man, running back and receiver, and said after the '87 season the Cowboys made a mistake not utilizing Darryl more often. GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (16/0), 1987 (12/0). Total — 28-0.

COLLEGE: A four-year starter and two-time All-PAC 10 selection, Clack suffered a fractured fibula in the second game of his senior year and missed the final seven games of the regular season. He rushed for 1,052 yards and caught 32 passes for 385 yards as a junior. Clack became the first player in Arizona State history to gain over 100 yards rushing and receiving in the same game.

PERSONAL: A native of San Antonio, Texas, Darryl Earl Clack moved to Security, Colorado, following the eighth grade. He earned all-state football honors, was an eight-time Colorado dash champion and lettered in basketball at Widefield High School.

Doug Cosbie ★ 84

TIGHT END ● SANTA CLARA ● 10th YEAR
HT: 6-6 ● WT: 242 ● BORN: 2/27/56 ● D-3 FOR '79

PRO: The Cowboys' all-time leading receiver among tight ends, Doug Cosbie passed Billy Joe DuPree's former No. 1 total midway through the '87 season. Cosbie's 288 catches rank him fifth on the all-time Dallas receiving list. While his role in the Cowboys' offense diminished somewhat the past two seasons (28 and 36-reception years after 60 and 64-catch campaigns), Doug's abilities haven't. A three-time Pro Bowler, coaches said he would be more involved in the passing game in '88. A Dallas newspaper once described Cosbie as "the consummate Cowboy — the diplomat, the hard worker, the willing learner, the unknown collegiate with the unlimited talent, the draft find." Cosbie, who's never missed a game for which he was in uniform, was the fourth tight end taken in the '79 draft behind Kellen Winslow, Dan Ross and Ronnie Lee. GAMES/STARTS: 1979 (16/1), 1980 (16/0), 1981 (16/0), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/15), 1987 (12/12). Total — 133/85

COSBIE, Cont.

COLLEGE: Cosbie caught 120 passes for 1,721 yards and 10 touchdowns in four years at Santa Clara, three as a starter. In his senior year he served as team captain and was voted the club's offensive MVP and honorable mention All-Pacific Coast. He also attended Holy Cross College in Worcester, Mass., and DeAnza Junior College in Cupertino, Calif.

PERSONAL: Douglas Durant Cosbie is a native of Mt. View, Calif., where he attended St. Francis High and played football, basketball and track. Doug was the 1984 Cowboys winner of the NFL Man of the Year contest, which recognizes the NFL's top citizen-athletes. Doug gives his time to a variety of civic causes, including the Special Olympics for the handicapped, Multiple Sclerosis, the American Heart Association and Cystic Fibrosis. Doug also is forming the Doug Cosbie Youth and Family Growth Center for troubled adolescents and their families in the Dallas area. Doug has a degree in marketing. He enjoys horseback riding. He and wife Sherry live in McKinney, Texas, with children Matthew Douglas (8/19/80), Kari Kirrene (7/2/83) and Andrew Richard (8/17/86), who is called "Drew" after former Cowboys receiver Drew Pearson.

Steve DeOssie ★ 55

LINEBACKER ● BOSTON COLLEGE ● 5th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 249 ● BORN: 11/22/62 ● D-4 FOR '84

PRO: Steve DeOssie, the Cowboys' biggest linebacker, is most familiar to Cowboys fans as a big hitter on special teams and in short-yardage and goal-line situations. Last year DeOssie got a chance to play full-time in the last two games, and he made the most of the opportunity. Normally the backup to Eugene Lockhart at middle linebacker, DeOssie volunteered to move to left linebacker when a late season rash of injuries left the club short of outside backers. Making the first two starts of his career, Steve turned in an outstanding performance, helping the Cowboys win their final two games by making seven tackles in each game and knocking down two passes. DeOssie's late-season showing made him a candidate for a starting job in '88 and solidified the Cowboys' depth at linebacker. "Steve is an aggressive hitter," Tom Landry says. "He gives us experienced depth in the middle or outside, and he's one of our best special teams players." DeOssie was the Oscar Mayer/Cowboys special teams player of the week versus Detroit (11/15) and finished fourth on the team in special teams tackles with 13. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (16/0), 1985 (16/0), 1986 (16/0), 1987 (11/2). Total — 59/2.

COLLEGE: DeOssie was a four-year starter at middle linebacker for Boston College, earning All-East honors twice and being named second team AP All-America in 1983. A senior co-captain, Steve was the Eagles' leading tackler from 1981 through '83.

Steve was an All-State football, basketball and baseball player at Don Bosco High School in Roslindale, Mass. Steve was a full-time student last offseason, studying communications at Brookhaven College near Dallas. He contributes his time to the Winter Special Olympics in New Mexico and the Big Brothers program in Dallas. He and Diana also work with the American Red Cross. Steve's hobbies include motorized hang gliding.

Michael Downs ★ 26

SAFETY • RICE • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 212" • BORN: 6/9/59 • FA FOR '81

PRO: In 1987, for the seventh year in a row, Downs led the Cowboys' secondary in tackles and his 86 stops were the best total on the team. A model of consistency, he has played in 100 games and started 100 games as a pro. After a slow start, Michale finished the '87 campaign on an extremely strong note with 37 tackles, five passes defensed and an interception in the last four games. His four interceptions for the season were second on the club only to fellow '81 free agent discovery Everson Walls. The Cowboys are hoping for a return to the level Downs displayed in '84 and '85, when he was named to several All-Pro teams and established himself as one of the league's top free safeties. Michael finished the 1987 season with 32 career interceptions, tied with Lee Roy Jordan for sixth on the all-time Dallas list in that department. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (15/15), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/16) 1987 (12/12). Total — 100/100.

COLLEGE: Despite being a three-year starter and a co-captain at Rice, Downs' play as a senior was hampered by a pinched nerve in his shoulder and he was not drafted. The Cowboys signed him as a free agent, along with fellow Dallas native and fellow future All-Pro Everson Walls, making 1981 a vintage year for Cowboys free agents.

PERSONAL: Michael Lynn Downs attended South Oak Cliff High School in Dallas, the same school as former teammate Harvey Martin. Michael earned

Kelvin Edwards ★ 81

WIDE RECEIVER • LIBERTY • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 205 • BORN: 7/19/64 • FA FOR '87

PRO: The star of the replacement team last year was Kelvin Edwards, who caught 14 passes for 272 yards and three touchdowns and added a 62-yard touchdown run on a reverse in the three games during the strike. He was named the NFC offensive player of the week after catching six passes for 100 yards and scoring on the 62-yard reverse against Philadelphia (10/11). A few weeks after the regulars returned, Edwards found himself back in the starting lineup, where he remained the rest of the year as the Cowboys' primary deep threat. Kelvin is blessed with exceptional speed and size and the Cowboys are counting on him to be a key weapon in the passing attack. The Cowboys were interested in Edwards in the '86 draft, but he was snared by the New Orleans Saints in the fourth round. After catching nine passes in the Saints' final six games of '86, Edwards went to camp last year as a contender for a starting job. But he was released following the preseason. A month later he signed with the Cowboys. GAMES/STARTED: 1986 (14/3-N.O.), 1987 (13/9). Total — 27/12. (Dallas-13/9.)

COLLEGE: Edwards led Liberty Baptist in receptions, receiving yards, touchdown receptions, scoring, kickoff returns and punt returns as a senior. He also broke the school career records in those categories. Edwards caught a pass in 32 consecutive games and 39 of his 41 collegiate games. He also holds the school records in the 300 and 400-meter runs.

PERSONAL: Kelvin Mack Edwards attended Russell High School in Eastpoint, Ga. He received his degree in health and physical education from Liberty University. Kelvin and wife Dien live in Irving, Texas. Kelvin enjoys bowling, fishing, golf and speaking to church groups.

Steve Folsom ★ 85

TIGHT END ● UTAH ● 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-5 ● WT: 236 ● BORN: 3/21/58 ● FA FOR '87

PRO: Folsom provided solid support at tight end in 1987 as a surprise 29-year-old roster addition. Steve re-signed with Dallas in mid-season after he was released on the final cut of training camp. Although he did not catch a pass, he was considered perhaps the best block-ing tight end on the club. Replacing Doug Cosbie, Fol-som wound up springing a key block during Herschel Walker's 60-yard overtime dash that beat New England in November. Steve previously played three sea-sons with the Philadelphia/Baltimore team in the USFL and briefly with the Philadelphia Eagles (three games in '81) and New York Giants (two games in '82). GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (3/0-Phil.), 1982 (2/0-N.Y.G.) 1987 (9/0). Total — 14/0 (Dallas-9/0)

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at Utah, Folsom caught 56 passes for 853 yards and eight TDs in his career. As a senior in 1980 he caught 23 passes for 352 yards and one touchdown. He earned honorable mention All-WAC honors as a junior. Folsom attended Long Beach State as a freshman before transferring to Utah.

PERSONAL: Steven Mark Folsom attended Santa Fe (Calif.) High School. He earned his degree in commercial recreation from Utah and worked as a strength and conditioning coach for the U.S. Ski team. Folsom also was a reserve on the 1980 Utah basketball team that advanced to the NCAA playoffs.

a great competitor," Tom Landry says. "He'll block and catch and he'll run tough." In 1986 Fowler received a game ball for his special teams play against San Diego (11/16) and recovered a fumbled punt vs. Denver (10/5) to set up a Dallas touchdown. Todd was a top player in the USFL. In two seasons with the Houston Gamblers he rushed for 1,405 yards and 14 TDs in 262 carries. He also caught 51 passes for 540 yards and three touchdowns. He set a USFL single-game rushing mark of 208 yards vs. Denver in 1984. The record was broken by Herschel Walker. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (8/0), 1986 (16/0), 1987 (12/1). Total — 36/1.

COLLEGE: After two years as a strong safety and tight end at Henderson, Texas, Junior College, Fowler transferred to Stephen F. Austin. A second-team All-Lone Star Conference selection at tight end his senior year, Fowler caught 48 passes for 469 yards in two years with the Lumberjacks.

PERSONAL: A native of Van, Texas, 50 miles east of Dallas, Fowler was a second-team all-state tight end at Van High School where he was coached by his father Mal, who played fullback at TCU in the early '50s. After leading his team to the state championship his senior year, Todd, who also lettered in track, was named to the East Texas all-decade team as a strong safety. Fowler and his brother Jeff own Free State Drilling, an east Texas oil company.

Ron Francis ★ 38

CORNERBACK ● BAYLOR ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 5-9 ● WT: 199 ● BORN: 4/7/64 ● D-2 FOR '87

PRO: To say Ron Francis endured a pressure-packed first season in the NFL is a vast understatement. After Dallas traded cornerback Ron Fellows in August, Francis was pencilled in to replace him as the starting right cornerback. It didn't help matters any that Francis, who would already see plenty of passes his way because of his rookie status, was playing opposite All-Pro left cornerback Everson Walls. However, the first rookie to start a season opener for Dallas since Michael Downs in 1981 handled his extra burden quietly. As a matter of fact he did everything quietly. "If you took Francis and Ed Jones (also known for his silence) and put them together," says Cowboys assistant Dick Nolan, "You wouldn't hear a word for a month." Francis had his share of learning errors but he also showed why Dallas has so much confidence in him. Against New England (11/15) Francis returned his first NFL interception 18 yards for a touchdown. The following week against Dan Marino and the Miami air attack, Francis picked off one pass and had another bounce from his chest when he hit the ground. He tied for the team lead in forced fumbles and fumbles recovered and finished second to Walls in passes defensed with 12. Francis had a key part in Dallas' two victories over the Giants last year. At the Meadowlands he recovered a fumble and in Texas Stadium he caused a fumble that set up a Cowboys field goal. GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (11/11).

Kevin Gogan ★ 66

TACKLE ● WASHINGTON ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-7 ● WT: 310 ● BORN: 11/2/64 ● D-8 FOR '87

PRO: When Phil Pozderac decided to retire last Oct. 22 following the strike, the starting right tackle position was handed to a giant rookie from the University of Washington named Kevin Gogan. As if that wasn't already asking enough, Gogan's opponent in his first start was Philadelphia All-Pro left end Reggie White. Gogan made a good showing against White and held onto the starting position for the rest of the season. Gogan gained tremendous experience in his rookie year and gave the Cowboys reason to think they might have a solid pro. Kevin has the kind of size and toughness that offensive line coach Jim Erkenbeck favors. GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (11/10).

COLLEGE: Gogan was a three-year starter at right tackle at Washington. He earned honorable mention All-PAC 10 honors as a junior. He was an honorable mention All-America and second-team All-PAC 10 pick his senior year when he served as a team co-captain. Kevin played in the 1987 Hula Bowl.

PERSONAL: Kevin Patrick Gogan led Sacred Heart High School in Pacifica, Calif., to two city championships as an offensive and defensive tackle. He was also an outstanding baseball catcher and first baseman.

Tommy Haynes ★ 27

SAFETY ● SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-0 ● WT: 190 ● BORN: 2/6/63 ● FA

PRO: Tommy Haynes signed as a free agent with the Rams in 1987, was released on one of the final cutdown days and joined Dallas for the replacement season. He went to training camp with the Cowboys in 1986, injured his thumb and was placed on injured reserve. He was released midway through the season. Haynes also spent two weeks in the Cowboys camp in 1985 after playing with Portland of the USFL earlier that year. He started six games for the Breakers, intercepting one pass for 29 yards. Tommy led the Cowboys' replacement team in interceptions (3), passes defensed (6) and quarterback sacks (3). GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (3/3).

HAYNES, Cont.

COLLEGE: A two-year starter at USC, Haynes earned All-PAC 10 and honorable mention All-America honors in 1984. He capped off his Trojan career with a two-interception performance to help USC to a 20-17 victory over Ohio State in the Rose Bowl. Haynes attended Mt. San Antonio College for two years before transferring to USC.

PERSONAL: Tommy Haynes earned all-San Gabriel Valley honors as a defensive back at Covina (Calif.) High School. He also lettered in baseball and basketball.

Mike Hegman ★ 58

LINEBACKER ● TENNESSEE STATE ● 13th YEAR
HT: 6-1 ● WT: 226 ● BORN: 1/17/53 ● D-7 FOR '75

PRO: It came as no surprise towards the end of the 1987 season when Mike Hegman decided against the retirement he had announced earlier that spring. The dean of Cowboys linebackers, who had been a part of Cowboys teams that played in 18 playoff games, won six NFC East titles and appeared in two Super Bowls, didn't want to end his career on a losing note. Hegman contributed in several big games last year before suffering a broken leg against Washington (12/13) that ended his season. In each of the upset wins over the Giants Hegman recorded five tackles and a sack. In the Thanksgiving contest against a Vikings team that would advance to the NFC title game, he had a season-high eight tackles and a sack. In 1986 Hegman led all linebackers in passes defensed with six, even though he was replaced on passing downs. Against St. Louis (10/26) Hegman earned a game ball with a sack and two passes defensed. "Mike's the kind of football player who doesn't make many mistakes and he's got great football instincts," says linebacker coach Jerry Tubbs. The best evidence of those instincts came in Super Bowl XIII when Hegman swiped the ball from Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw and raced 37 yards for a second-quarter touchdown. A starter since 1979 when Thomas Henderson was released with four games left in the season, Hegman recovered a fumble in the endzone for a TD at Philadelphia (10/19) and had two interceptions against Seattle (11/27) in his first full season as a starter in 1980. He suffered a dislocated elbow in the playoff opener vs. the Ram (12/28) and missed the final two playoff games. His bad luck continued in the 1981 season-opener against Washington (9/6) when he broke a bone in his right forearm and missed the next five COLLEGE: Hegman transferred from Alabama A&M and made Tennessee State's football team as a walk-on. He played middle linebacker on the Tigers' 10-0 1973 team, led the club in tackles in '74 and played on the same defense with Ed "Too Tall" Jones.

PERSONAL: A native of Memphis (Northside High), Michael William Hegman has a degree from Tennessee State in physical education. Mike has participated in fund-raising events for St. Jude's Children's Hospital in Memphis, the Special Olympics and the Muscular Dystrophy Association. He has a daughter, Mikia (8/22/76).

Manny Hendrix ★ 45

CORNERBACK • UTAH • 3rd YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 181 • BORN: 10/20/64 • FA FOR '86

PRO: Manny Hendrix took a giant step forward last Dec. 27 in his quest to become a successful NFL cornerback. The former University of Utah basketball star received the first start of his young career, subbing for injured right corner Ron Francis against St. Louis in the final game of the season. Hendrix earned new respect and gained new confidence when he played an outstanding game in the victory over the Cardinals. His efforts earned him a game ball from the coaching staff. "Hendrix has a great chance to succeed because he has the speed and natural ability to cover," Tom Landry says. "He just has to learn the game." Prior to joining the Cowboys, Hendrix had not played football since high school when he was an All-America cornerback at South Mountain High in Phoenix. The Cowboys released Hendrix as a rookie on Aug. 26, 1986, but re-signed him on Sept. 23. He was used primarily as an extra defensive back in passing situations in his first two seasons. More than 20 years ago, the Cowboys successfully converted another basketball star from Utah into an All-Pro defensive back, Utah State's Cornell Green. GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (13/0), 1987 (12/1). Total — 25/1.

COLLEGE: Hendrix finished his basketball career as Utah's eighth all-time leading scorer with 1,493 points (12.1 per game). A four-year starter and senior co-captain, he was named honorable mention All-WAC his sophomore and junior years and second-team all-conference as a senior.

PERSONAL: Manuel Hendrix starred in football, basketball and track at South Mountain High School in Phoenix. Heavily recruited to play college football, he elected to play hoops instead and chose Utah, the only school to recruit him for basketball. Manny married his high school sweetheart, Kammie Baker. They have three daughters — Sharee (11/18/82), Sandra (2/13/84) and Crystal (6/13/85) — and live in Coppell, Texas. Manny supports the Big Brothers program in Salt Lake City and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

LINEBACKER • KANSAS STATE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 245 • BORN: 5/25/64 • FA FOR '87

PRO: Jeff Hurd was signed as a free agent by Dallas last year and released following the first preseason game. He was re-signed for the replacement team, released, then signed again late in the season. GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (5/0).

COLLEGE: Hurd was a starting defensive lineman for Kansas State the past two years. In 1986 he netted 57 tackles and five sacks as a defensive tackle and in 1985 he collected 62 tackles and four sacks as a defensive end. He played linebacker his first two years at Kansas State.

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Tonja Hurd starred in football, basketball and baseball at Lincoln Academy High School in Kansas City, MO. He was Kansas City prep athlete of the year in 1982. Hurd pitched for the Kansas State baseball team as a freshman compiling an 0-1 record with a 3.50 ERA. He and wife Debraniah have a daughter, Chassity (1/24/84).

LINEBACKER • FLORIDA STATE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 222 • BORN: 9/16/63 • D-11 FOR '86

PRO: A broken hand limited Garth Jax' 1987 season to just three games. He spent the last nine games of the season on injured reserve. Jax was a longshot to make the team in 1986 after an injury-riddled college career, but his athletic ability and hustling attitude caught Tom Landry's attention. "He has good mobility and instincts," Landry says. Garth was released on the last cut in '86, but one week later, when Mike Renfro was placed on injured reserve, Jax was re-signed. Garth was a solid special teams contributor as a rookie, while also backing up the right linebacker position. He received a game ball for his special teams play against St. Louis (9/29). GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (16/0), 1987 (3/0). Total — 19/0.

COLLEGE: Jax endured an injury-plagued career at Florida State, including a kidney and spleen injury his junior year that put his football future in question. Garth returned in '85 to start and lead the Seminoles with six quarterback sacks despite being hampered all year by a broken thumb and bruised shoulder.

PERSONAL: James Garth Jax is a Houston native who led his Jesuit High School team to the 4-A state title three of his four years. He was an all-stater as a senior. Garth is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Campus Crusade for Christ and other ministries. He lives in Newark, Texas.

Jim Jeffcoat ★ 77

DEFENSIVE END   •   ARIZONA STATE   •   6th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 263 • BORN: 4/1/61 • D-1 FOR '83

PRO: In the final two games of the 1987 season Jim Jeffcoat played better than he had all year. Against the Rams (12/21) he earned a game ball from the coaches for his constant pressure on quarterback Jim Everett. The next week against St. Louis he had five tackles, two sacks and knocked down two passes. In an effort to carry his final two games of 1987 over to the 1988 season, Jeffcoat worked out each morning in the offseason with Herschel Walker. Not only is Herschel the best person to help Jim improve his speed and thus his pass rushing ability, but he can teach Jeffcoat the ability to relax. "One thing about Jim, he's a workaholic," says Herschel. "He tries so hard at everything. But, I told him, you've got to first learn to relax." Many saw Jim's overzealousness as the reason for his slow start last season. "Sometimes he tries too hard," says Tom Landry. The New York Giants wish he wouldn't try at all. Twice in the past three seasons Jeffcoat intercepted a batted pass and returned it for a touchdown against the Giants. Last year he rambled 26 yards for the score after catching a Phil Simms pass that was batted down by Ed Jones. In that same game Jeffcoat also set up a field goal by returning a fumble eight yards. In 1985 the Simms-to-Jones-to-Jeffcoat tandem combined again for a 65-yard interception return for a touchdown. Earlier that season in Washington (11/10), Jeffcoat sacked Joe Theisman a club-record five times and had a club-season high 11 solo tackles. Over the past four years Jeffcoat has recorded more sacks (44½) than any other Cowboys player. After appearing in all 16 games as a rookie, mostly on special teams, Jeffcoat became a starter in 1984. In his first season as a starter he finished second to Randy White's 12½ sacks with 11½. He had the first of his three career TDs that year when he recovered a fumble in the endzone against the Saints to tie the score at 27 with 2:53 remaining in a game the Cowboys would win 30-27 in overtime. Jeffcoat recorded 12 sacks to finish second to Ed Jones who had 13 in 1985. He came through to lead the team in quarterback traps in 1986 with a career-high 14. GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/16), 1987 (12/12). Total — 76/60.
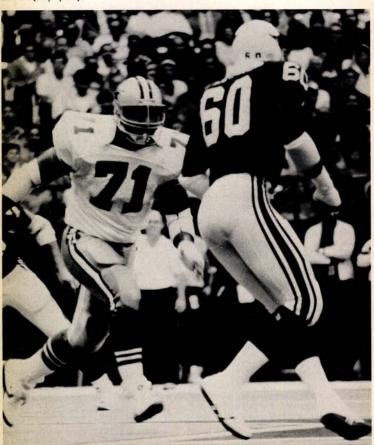

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at Arizona State, Jim earned All-Pac 10 and honorable mention All-America honors after anchoring the 1982 Sun Devil defense that led the nation. He was named outstanding defensive player in Arizona State's 1983 Fiesta Bowl victory over Oklahoma, making 16 tackles, causing a fumble and getting a QB sack.

PERSONAL: From a family of six children, James Wilson Jeffcoat, Jr., is a Cliffwood, N.J., native who earned high school All-America honors at Matawan Regional High. He also lettered in wrestling. Jim, who graduated from Arizona State with a degree in communication, works with Special Olympics, Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Leukemia Society in Dallas, and the Boys Club in Arlington. The past two seasons Jim has presented the Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation of Dallas with $100 for each of his sacks. He was the Cowboys' NFL Man of the Year in 1987. He lives in Carrollton with his wife Tammy, and son Jaren (10/1/87).

Ed Jones ★ 72

DEFENSIVE END ● TENNESSEE STATE ● 14th YEAR
HT: 6-9 ● WT: 275 ● BORN: 2/23/51 ● D-1A FOR '74

PRO: In the history of the Dallas Cowboys, Ed "Too Tall" Jones ranks as one of the unforgettables, a certifiably larger-than-life character. Preparing in 1988 to tie the club record of 14 seasons played (shared by Bob Lilly, Lee Roy Jordan and Jethro Pugh), Too Tall shows little evidence of slowing down. Last year he rebounded from a sub-par '86 season to lead the team in sacks for the second time in the past three years. Those 10 sacks, including a single-game career-high four to spark an upset victory over the Giants (11/2), left him two short of 100 for his distinguished career. He also knocked down seven passes, giving him 68 in the past eight seasons, including a career-high 16 in 1984. Too Tall was the first pick in the 1974 draft, the only time the Cowboys have had the first selection. He left football after the 1978 season to pursue a career in boxing and won all six of his fights before deciding to return to the Cowboys in 1980. He then rose to the stardom that had been predicted for him. He was voted to three straight Pro Bowls, in 1981-82-83, and was named All-Pro by NEA in '81 and AP in '82. He also has been indestructible, having never missed a game in his career (214 including playoffs). Jones always has been at his best in the biggest games. Three years ago, for example, when the Cowboys upset the Giants for the division title, Too Tall was the key figure in the biggest play of the year. He batted Phil Simms' pass into the hands of Jim Jeffcoat, who ran 65 yards for a touchdown to swing the momentum in the Cowboys' 28-21 December victory for the NFC East crown. Incredibly, Too Tall and Jeffcoat pulled off the exact same touchdown play against Simms last year in Texas Stadium. Too Tall's awesome performance in that game — four sacks, two passes deflected for interceptions, including one for a touchdown, and a forced fumble that was recovered by the Cowboys, earned him NFC defensive player of the week honors. GAMES/STARTS: 1974 (14/0), 1975 (14/14), 1976 (14/14), 1977 (14/14), 1978 (16/16) 1979 (DNP), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/16), 1987 (15/14). Total — 192/177.

COLLEGE: Jones was a two-time All-America at Tennessee State, where he also played two seasons of basketball. A college teammate dubbed him "Too Tall." Jones did not begin playing football until his senior year at Merry High in Jackson, Tenn.

PERSONAL: Edward Lee Jones, a native of Jackson, Tenn., is a partner in Dallas-based Imperial Investors with former teammate Preston Pearson. Too Tall has a degree in health and physical education, and all seven of his brothers and sisters also earned their degrees. The multi-talented Jones has appeared in two movies and made a guest appearance on the TV comedy "Diff'rent Strokes." He enjoys singing rhythm and blues at parties, especially "Stormy Monday," and he has released a record. He is active in promoting the Special Olympics and other charity causes.

Crawford Ker ★ 68

GUARD • FLORIDA • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 283 • BORN: 5/5/62 • D-3 FOR '85

PRO: The turning point in Crawford Ker's football career came when he departed for junior college in Arizona. His father, a native of Scotland and a former royal guard at Buckingham Palace, bought Crawford a one-way ticket and told him, "make it or else walk home." He returned home a JC All-America, starred at the University of Florida and became the Cowboys' third-round draft pick in 1985. By choosing Ker Dallas started a trend — in 1988 Dallas picked three linemen who average 297 pounds — in drafting bigger, stronger offensive lineman. After missing 11 games as a rookie due to a back injury, "Big Daddy" Ker became the starting right guard in training camp in 1986. Ironically, his first start came in the preseason game in London where Crawford's parents had lived before coming to the United States. "Crawford Ker is solid at guard and should get better," says Tom Landry. "He's been our only steady player in the offensive line over the past two years." Ker's regimen features some unique training techniques. He pushes a truck to simulate a blocking sled and boxes three times a week in the offseason to improve his footwork for pass protection. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (5/0), 1986 (16/16), 1987 (12/12). Total — 33/28.

COLLEGE: Ker was a walk-on at Western Arizona Junior College, earned a scholarship, then became a JC All-America. He transferred to Florida and started 13 games at tackle, earning second-team All-Southwestern Conference and honorable mention All-America honors from Associated Press in 1984. He was a college teammate of Cowboys guard Jeff Zimmerman at Florida where they were part of the Gators' "Great Wall" of 1984.

PERSONAL: Crawford Francis Ker was born in Philadelphia, but moved with his parents to Florida where he became an all-conference football star at Dunedin, Fla., High School. Crawford's parents, Anne and George Ker, are natives of Scotland who moved to the United States in 1956.

George Lilja ★ 67

CENTER • MICHIGAN • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 282 • BORN: 3/3/58 • FA FOR '87

PRO: The Cowboys signed George Lilja on Oct. 14, 1987 to add experienced depth and bulk at the center position. A month later Lilja was sharing the job with veteran Tom Rafferty, with Lilja playing on runnning downs and Rafferty replacing him in passing situations. Lilja played for three other NFL teams before joining the Cowboys. Drafted in the fourth round in 1981 by the Rams, Lilja spent his rookie year on injured reserve with an ankle injury. He played in all nine games of 1982, mostly on special teams. The Jets signed Lilja a month into the 1983 season after his release by the Rams. Toward the end of the 1984 season the Jets put George on waivers and he was signed by Cleveland. He started the final game of the '84 season for the Browns and played every down of the '85 season at left guard. But in 1986 Lilja returned to a reserve role with Cleveland, playing in all 16 games, mostly on special teams. GAMES/STARTED: 1981 (I.R.-Rams), 1982 (9/0-Rams), 1983 (1/0-Jets), 1984 (3/0-Jets, 4/1-Clev.), 1985 (16/16-Clev.), 1986 (16/0-Clev.), 1987 (5/0). Total — 54/17. (Dallas-5/0).

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman and two-year starter at Michigan, Lilja earned first-team All-America honors by Walter Camp after his senior season. He played in the Hula Bowl and Japan Bowl all-star games following the 1981 season.

PERSONAL: George Vincent Lilja earned All-Chicago honors as a center/defensive tackle at Carl Sandburg High in his hometown of Orland Park, Ill. His brother Dave played tight end for Indiana and signed a free agent contract with the Chicago Bears in 1988. Another brother, Larry, is the strength coach at Northwestern. George, wife Meg and children Danielle (8/19/87) and David (2/10/88) live in Chicago and Irving, Texas. George is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Athletes in Action. He and Meg serve as counselors for Young Life. In his spare time George buys, re-models and re-sells houses.

Eugene Lockhart ★ 56

LINEBACKER ● HOUSTON ● 5th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 230 ● BORN: 3/8/61 ● D-6A FOR '84

PRO: Before each game Eugene Lockhart goes through an unusual ritual. He mixes Ben Gay and Cramergesic lotion together then spreads it over his entire body. The mixture makes him more mean and irritable. Lockhart's temperament may be even worse this year after a broken fibula in his right leg against Atlanta (12/6) ended his 1987 season early. Prior to the injury Lockhart was having his best year. With a better understanding of the defenses and the athletic ability that earned him the nickname "The Hitting Machine," Lockhart is a strong candidate for Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors. "Eugene just understands the defense so much better than he used to," says Tom Landry. "He played better last season than he ever has. He is playing very well right now." Against the Patriots (11/15) Lockhart earned a game ball from the coaches for his 15-tackle performance. Two weeks later against Minnesota in what would be his final full game of the 1987 season, Lockhart tied his career-high with 17 tackles, had a sack, knocked down two passes and intercepted another which he returned 13 yards. Despite coming out on most passing downs and playing in only nine games, Lockhart led all linebackers in passes defensed with five. He also had four games with ten or more tackles. In 1986 Lockhart led the team in tackles for the second year in a row and led the linebackers in sacks with five. Lockhart led Dallas in forced fumbles and fumble recoveries in his first full season as a starter in 1985. After earning notice from coaches for his hitting ability in training camp in 1984, Lockhart became the only rookie to ever start at middle linebacker for the Cowboys when veteran Bob Breunig was sidelined with a back injury. Lockhart is only the Cowboys' fourth middle linebacker in 29 years (Jerry Tubbs, Lee Roy Jordan and Breunig). GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (15/8), 1985 (16/15), 1986 (16/16), 1987 (9/9). Total — 56/48.

COLLEGE: A two-year starter at outside linebacker, Lockhart led Houston in 1983 with 134 tackles. A tri-captain, he earned All-Southwest Conference honors and his team's most valuable player award his senior year. A 1981 reserve for the Cougars, Lockhart won a starting berth in 1982 following a strong 1981 finish and fine performance in the spring.

Paul McDonald ★ 14

QUARTERBACK ● SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA ● 9th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 182 ● BORN: 2/23/58 ● FA FOR '86

PRO: With Danny White's problem wrist and Steve Pelluer's inexperience, Paul McDonald provides valuable insurance for the Cowboys. Although he hasn't taken a snap at quarterback in a regular season game since joining the Cowboys in mid-season 1986, McDonald led the Cowboys in passing in preseason last year with a 92.0 rating. "If Paul got in, he would play well," says Tom Landry. "I wouldn't hesitate to use him. He's a top quarterback and a student of the game." When the Cowboys needed a veteran quarterback two seasons ago, McDonald proved to be the right choice. Having worked with Cowboys assistant Paul Hackett at USC and Cleveland, he was familiar with most of the offense and he was smart enough to learn what he didn't know in a short time. The lefthanded quarterback also boasted several years of NFL experience. After playing six years for Cleveland, McDonald was released by the Browns following the 1985 season. McDonald signed with Seattle for 1986 but was released by the Seahawks before the start of the regular season. A starter in all 16 games for the Browns in 1984, McDonald endured 53 sacks that year and still was able to complete 55% of his passes for 3,472 yards. His best passing day in the NFL came against New England (10/7) when he had a career-high 320 yards on 23 of 37 (62.2%) passing and 1 TD. McDonald also completed a career-high 75% (18 of 24) against New Orleans (10/28) and completed 13 straight passes vs. Houston (11/25). A backup to Brian Sipe for four years, McDonald led the Browns to the playoffs in 1982 after Sipe was injured. In his only appearance at Texas Stadium with the Browns, McDonald completed 9 of 15 for 151 yards, 1 TD, 1 interception. He did not throw a pass in 1985, spending the season behind Gary Danielson and Bernie Kosar. The seventh quarterback taken in the 1980 draft (Marc Wilson, Mark Malone, Gene Bradley, Eric Hipple, Rusty Lisch and Ed Luther), McDonald was chosen with the Browns' second pick in the fourth round. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (16/0-Clev.), 1981 (12/0-Clev.), 1982 (9/3-Clev.), 1983 (16/2-Clev.), 1984 (16/16-Clev.), 1985 (16/0-Clev.), 1986 (1/0), 1987 (0/0). Total — 86/21 (1/0-Dallas).

COLLEGE: McDonald led the Trojans to two Rose Bowl victories and a national championship. He completed his collegiate career holding the NCAA record for lowest interception percentage in a career at 2.3% (13 in 561 attempts). An All-PAC 10, second-team All-America and All-Academic selection as a senior, McDonald also set a PAC 10 record by throwing 143 straight passes without an interception. He played with an All-Heisman Trophy winning backfield in 1979 (Charles White-Marcus Allen).

PERSONAL: A native of Montebello, Calif., Paul McDonald attended Bishop Amat High School in La Puente, Calif. While in Cleveland he spearheaded "Paul's Pals" to benefit children with cancer, leukemia and other blood disorders. McDonald earned his degree in business from USC and is now working towards his MBA. Paul and wife Allyson have a son Michael (5/11/85) and a daughter Stephanie (5/9/88).

Kelvin Martin ★ 83

WIDE RECEIVER ● BOSTON COLLEGE ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 5-9 ● WT: 163 ● BORN: 5/14/65 ● D-4 FOR '87

PRO: The Cowboys have been looking for a top punt return specialist for a number of years. They may have finally found their man last year in Kelvin Martin. Injuries slowed Kelvin early in the season, but he came on strong the second half of the year, displaying the form that made him a feared punt returner in college. Martin averaged 9.8 yards per return, seventh in the NFC last year and the best by a Cowboy since James Jones' 10.1 in 1980. He nearly broke a couple for touchdowns, with his longest return being 38 yards against Minnesota (11/26). Martin was named the Oscar Mayer/Cowboys special teams player of the game two weeks in a row, versus Miami and Minnesota. Despite his diminutive stature, Kelvin is also a nifty pass receiver as he showed toward the end of the year when he caught a pair of passes against both the Redskins and Rams. GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (7/0).

COLLEGE: Martin finished among the nation's top 10 punt returners in each of his final three seasons at Boston College, including a 15.3 yards per return average in his last two years. Martin also led the nation's receivers with a 19.6 yards per catch average in 1985. He set a BC record with 10 touchdown catches in 1984. Martin finished his career with school records for receptions (133), receiving yards (2,377) and touchdown catches (28).

Timmy Newsome ★ 30

RUNNING BACK ● WINSTON-SALEM STATE ● 9th YEAR
HT: 6-1 ● WT: 235 ● BORN: 5/17/58 ● D-6 FOR '80

   PRO: Of Timmy Newsome Tom Landry says, "He does everything we ask." For a season and a half Newsome was asked to take a secondary role to the backfield of Walker and Dorsett. Newsome continued to contribute and against Detroit (11/8) rushed for two touchdowns including one from 24 yards, his longest run since 1984. He was named MVP for the Lions game by the Cowboys radio network and the following week regained the starting fullback job. A Dallas rushing attack that averaged 97 yards per game turned around to average 183 yards in Newsome's first two starts. He also contributed 13 catches for 102 yards in those games against New England (11/15) and Miami (11/22). Against the Dolphins Newsome also had the first two-touchdown reception game of his NFL career. Late in the season in a Monday night matchup against the Rams (12/21), Newsome put on a spectacular blocking show as the Cowboys had their best rushing day of the season with 194 yards. Last season's 4.8 rushing average was Newsome's best since 1982 and the highest on the team of anybody with 25-or-more carries. Only Walker had more touchdowns in 1987 than Newsome. In 1988 Newsome can climb the Cowboys' list of top ten all-time receivers. With 182 career catches, he can move past Lance Rentzel (183) in 10th place, Preston Pearson (189) in ninth and Ron Springs (222) in eighth. Among running backs Newsome trails only Pearson, Springs and Dorsett (382) in career receptions. A backup at both fullback and tailback his first four seasons, Newsome originally earned the starting fullback job with four games remaining in 1984. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (16/1), 1981 (15/0), 1982 (9/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (15/4), 1985 (14/14), 1986 (16/12), 1987 (11/8). Total — 112/39.

COLLEGE: Newsome was a two-time NAIA first-team All-America and 1979 player of the year in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association. In four years at Winston-Salem, Timmy rushed for 3,833 yards (6.1 per carry) and 38 touchdowns. He led the conference in rushing and scoring three times. Newsome earned his degree in business with a concentration in computer science.

PERSONAL: Timothy Arthur Newsome is a native of Ahoskie, N.C., and was a star athlete at Ahoskie High. In the offseason he works as a computer program analyst for Shared Financial Systems of Dallas. He has done public service work for the state of North Carolina's alcohol and drug abuse prevention program. Timmy and wife Audrey live in Dallas.

Nate Newton ★ 61

GUARD • FLORIDA A&M • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 315 • BORN: 12/20/61 • FA FOR '86

PRO: Nate Newton's toughest opponent isn't the guy he's facing across the line of scrimmage. It's his love affair with food. After each of the past two seasons, Newton has allowed his weight to balloon to more than 350 pounds. He then begins the battle to get down to the 300-pound mark, where he has a chance to become an NFL star. "This guy has the ability to become the best lineman who ever came through here," line coach Jim Erkenbeck says. "At 297, he's got All-Pro potential. At 320, he's just another fat guy running around. At 360, he's in the stands selling hot dogs . . . those he's not eating." Newton has a 33-inch vertical leap, can dunk a basketball, bench press 500 pounds and run faster than any other Cowboys offensive lineman. Nate signed with the Cowboys during '86 training camp after two seasons with the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits. He had been in camp with the Redskins in '83 as a free agent out of college, but he was released on the final cut. Newton was a reserve in '86 before winning the starting job at left guard last year. He injured a knee the second week of the season and missed the first game after the strike. GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (11/0), 1987 (11/11). Total — 22/11.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman at Florida A&M, Newton played in both the offensive and defensive lines. He was a team captain as a senior when he was named all-conference.

PERSONAL: Nathaniel Newton, Jr., grew up in Orlando, Fla., where he played fullback on the football team and also played on the basketball, wrestling and track teams (shot put). Nate's younger brother Tim is a defensive tackle for the Minnesota Vikings. Nate resides in Tampa, Fla., in the offseason.

Danny Noonan ★ 73

DEFENSIVE TACKLE ● NEBRASKA ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-4 ● WT: 270 ● BORN: 7/14/65 ● D-1 FOR '87

PRO: Affectionately called "Schwarzenegger" or "Danny the Barbarian" by teammates, Danny Noonan owns a bodybuilder's physique and the football skills to go with it, making him a candidate for future stardom. "Danny has two great assets, his strength and speed," Tom Landry says of his 1987 first-round draft choice. "He's fast for a lineman and he's powerful. He's stronger than anybody I've seen on the line of scrimmage since Bob Lilly. He can move people." Noonan was expected to take over the starting right tackle position this year, meaning the succession at that position for the Cowboys has been from Hall of Famer Bob Lilly to future Hall of Famer Randy White to Noonan. After beginning his rookie season as a reserve defensive end, Noonan was moved to right tackle. During the second half of the season, he shared the job with White, who was struggling with injuries. Noonan played in run situations, while Randy came in on passing downs. Noonan was the 12th player selected in the 1988 draft. He is the Cowboys' strongest player overall, able to bench press 505 pounds. GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (11/0).

COLLEGE: Noonan was a consensus All-America selection at nose tackle in 1986 after anchoring a Nebraska defense that ranked second in the nation, allowing just 235.5 yards per game and 2.4 yards per rush. Danny had 53 tackles and a team-high seven sacks. As a junior he earned honorable mention All-America and second-team All-Big Eight honors. Noonan weighed 220 pounds when he arrived at Nebraska, but he built himself up by spending long hours in the weight room. He was lifting weights when the Cowboys drafted him.

PERSONAL: A native of Lincoln, Noonan was born six miles from the University of Nebraska campus. He led his Lincoln Northeast High School team to the state championship in 1982 while earning all-state and All-America honors. Danny and wife Penny live in Coppell, Texas.

Steve Pelluer ★ 16

QUARTERBACK ● WASHINGTON ● 5th YEAR
HT: 6-4 ● WT: 208 ● BORN: 7/29/62 ● D-5A FOR '84

PRO: If Steve Pelluer goes on to lead the Cowboys into the '90s as the starting quarterback, everyone will look upon the final two games of the 1987 season as his turning point. In those games Pelluer played well in directing a turnover-free offense as Dallas knocked both the Rams and St. Louis out of the playoffs. He kept alive a non-interception streak that would reach 94 by season's end and ran for a total of 51 yards including a one-yard touchdown on a bootleg against the Cardinals. With regained confidence Pelluer earned the starting job heading into training camp. "In Steve, we see a guy who has taken his lumps," says quarterbacks coach Paul Hackett. "A guy who has now emerged with the knowledge that his time is coming. Now we see a guy who handles everything differently. He's more confident, he feels better about himself, he's much more prepared. He's much more committed to a work standpoint." Last year when Pelluer headed for Thousand Oaks he was still groggy from the season before when in nine starts he was sacked 47 times. An amazing number considering Pelluer's mobility. Even Tom Landry admitted that if Pelluer didn't have that scrambling ability, he would never have made it through the '86 season in one piece. Following a shaky preseason performance and two-and-a-half months of backing up Danny White, Pelluer began to shake off the cobwebs in his first start last season against Miami (11/22). On the Cowboys' final play of the first half he threw an interception, it would be his last of 1987 and touch off the streak of 94 straight passes without an interception that continued into the 1988 season. In the second half of that Dolphins game Pelluer completed 10 of 11 passes for 126 yards and a touchdown. He also finished the day with 79 yards rushing, the most by a Cowboys quarterback since 1971 when Roger Staubach ran for 90 yards, a club-record for quarterbacks. When Danny White broke his wrist early in the Giants game in 1986, Pelluer came on to complete 28 passes for 339 yards, both career highs. Against Seattle he completed 14 straight passes to break the team record of 12 set by Staubach in 1978 and tied by White in 1983. Pelluer made a dramatic NFL regular-season debut in the game that decided the NFC East title in 1985 against the Giants. With White and Gary Hogeboom both knocked out of the game with injuries, Pelluer entered in the fourth quarter with Dallas ahead 21-14. He then led the Cowboys 72 yards for what would be the winning touchdown in the 28-21 triumph. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (1/0), 1985 (2/0), 1986 (16/9), 1987 (12/4). Total — 31/13.

COLLEGE: En route to Pac 10 offensive player of the year honors in 1983, Pelluer set six Washington records, including season completion percentage (67.2) and most consecutive passes thrown without an interception (137). He also led Washington to a school total offense mark of 4,365 yards in '83. The Huskies' second all-time leading passer, Steve completed 436-of-755 passes for 4,603 yards and 30 touchdowns. He was All-Pac 10, All-West Coast and honorable mention All-America in '83. As a sophomore he led the Huskies to the Pac 10 title and a 28-0 victory over Iowa in the Rose Bowl.

PERSONAL: Born in Yakima, Wash., and raised in Bellevue, Wash., Steven Carl Pelluer (peh-LOO-ur) captained the football and basketball teams at Interlake High School. He was a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete in 1979 when he earned all-state honors as a quarterback. He has a degree in building construction. He is involved in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Special Olympics and serves on the board of the Doug Cosbie Youth and Family Growth Center. Steve's grandfather (Carl Gustafson), father (Arnie Pelluer) and brother (Scott) all played football at Washington State. Scott, linebackers coach at Boise State, was a 1981 Cowboys draft choice who went on to play linebacker for the Saints. Another brother, Arnie, is a junior linebacker at Stanford.

Tom Rafferty ★ 64

CENTER	●	PENN STATE	●	13th YEAR
HT: 6-3 ●	WT: 263 ●	BORN: 8/2/54 ●		D-4 FOR '76

PRO: The senior member of the Cowboys' offensive line, Tom has been a constant to the unit and provides the leadership that a young developing line needs. Excluding the strike season, Tom has never missed a game in his career, starting 179 of 180 regular season and playoff games since 1977. Rafferty came to the Cowboys as a top college guard in 1976, and was the starter on the right side for four years before switching to center in 1981. He delivered a key block that paved the way for Tony Dorsett's NFL record 99-yard run against Minnesota in January of '83. GAMES/STARTS: 1976 (14/0), 1977 (14/14), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (16/16), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/15), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/16), 1987 (12/12). Total — 177/162.

COLLEGE: A four-year starting guard at Penn State, Rafferty earned All-America honors from the Football News and the Football Writers Association in 1975. The Cowboys rated him the top pulling guard in the 1976 draft.

PERSONAL: Thomas Michael Rafferty was born in Syracuse and raised in Fayetteville, N.Y., where he became a high school All-America lacrosse player in addition to starring in football and basketball at Fayetteville-Manlius High School. He received a degree in physical education from Penn State and his master's in business from the University of Dallas. Tom and wife Donna live in Dallas with son J. PRO: Few father-son rivalries can match that of Mike Renfro and his father Ray, a former All-Pro wide receiver with Cleveland from 1952-63 and an assistant coach for the Cowboys from 1968 through 1972. Last season Mike passed Ray's career catch total of 281 and finished the year with 323 receptions in his 10 seasons. In 1988 Mike also can pass another of his dad's milestones. Ray finished his career with 5,508 receiving yards. Mike needs 337 receiving yards to reach the 5,000-yard plateau and 846 yards to pass Ray. Over the past three seasons Mike Renfro has been the player the Cowboys look to for the clutch reception. Last year against New England on a fourth-and-13 situation with 1:06 remaining, Renfro caught a 43-yard pass to set up the tying field goal in a game Dallas won 23-17 in overtime. Two weeks later on Thanksgiving Day in a game against Minnesota that would eventually decide an NFC wild card playoff berth, Mike caught three second-half touchdown passes including two in the final six minutes to bring Dallas back from a 38-24 deficit and send the game into overtime. He finished the day with seven catches for 100 yards in the Cowboys' 44-38 loss to the Vikings. Following his best pro season, Renfro was slowed by a preseason shoulder injury in 1986. Coach Landry called Renfro "as valuable a player as we had" in 1985 when Dallas captured the NFC Eastern Division championship. In the title clinching victory over the Giants (12/15), Renfro caught four passes for 123 yards and two touchdowns, including a 58-yarder. In other key division victories, he had a season-high 10 catches for 141 yards and two touchdowns against the Giants (10/6) and five receptions for 99 yards including a 55-yard touchdown in the season-opener against Washington (9/9). He received the coaches' offensive game ball for each of the three wins. "Mike is an excellent player for your team," says Landry. "He works hard. He's disciplined. And he comes up with the big play. He's a good guy to have on your football team and that sometimes is as important as anything." Entering 1985 Renfro had season highs of 39 catches in 1981, 583 receiving yards in 1984 and three touchdowns in 1982. He shattered those marks catching 60 passes for 955 yards and a team-high eight touchdowns. In his first seven years in the NFL Mike had never had a 100-yard receiving day. He's had four of them with the Cowboys. Acquired from Houston for Butch Johnson in the spring of 1984, Renfro was expected to play a role as a "possession" receiver in special situations. He performed beyond expectations, starting 11 games and catching 35 passes for 583 yards (a team-high 16.7 average) and two touchdowns. For good measure he threw a 49-yard scoring pass to Doug Donley in a 23-17 victory over the Eagles (9/16). Renfro's move to Dallas was something of a homecoming for him, since he was born and raised in the area. As a teenager, Mike was a Dallas ballboy. GAMES/STARTS: 1978 (14/10-Hou.), 1979 (15/2-Hou.), 1980 (16/15-Hou.), 1981 (12/12-Hou.), 1982 (9/4-Hou.), 1983 (7/7-Hou.), 1984 (16/11), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (12/6), 1987 (14/11). Total — 131/94 (58/44-Dallas).

COLLEGE: Renfro was a three-time All-Southwest Conference choice at TCU and ended his college career owning school records for career receptions (162), yards (2,739) and touchdowns (17). His 10 touchdown catches as a senior set a Southwest Conference record.

PERSONAL: Michael Ray Renfro was born and raised in Fort Worth, where he attended Arlington Heights High School. Mike has a degree in business management and works in the offseason for the Dugger Development real estate firm in Fort Worth. He and his wife Denise live on a 30-acre spread in Aledo, Texas, with daughter Klayton Alicia (12/19/85) and son Michael Clinton (7/21/87). Mike is spokesperson for the Edna Gladney Home in Fort Worth and works with Week of Champions where high school athletes in the metroplex learn about sportsmanship and leadership.

LINEBACKER ● YALE ● 7th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 222 ● BORN: 12/25/58 ● D-2 FOR '82

PRO: Jeff Rohrer has emerged as a solid performer at right linebacker since earning the starting role in 1985. Despite not playing on passing downs last year, Rohrer led all linebackers in sacks with four, more than his first five seasons combined. In the Cowboys' upset victory over the Giants at Texas Stadium, Rohrer had a sack and a team-high eight tackles. Against Miami (11/22) he had nine tackles and a sack then followed that four days later in the Thanksgiving Day game versus Minnesota with a season-high 10 tackles. Rohrer recovered two fumbles in the last four games to tie for the team lead in that category. "He's big, strong and very aggressive," says Tom Landry. "Jeff is a smart, steady player." In 1986 Rohrer led the team in tackles in four of the 16 games and caused a team-high four fumbles. He finished second to Eugene Lockhart in total tackles, 121-111. After three seasons of outstanding special teams play, Rohrer took over the starting right linebacker spot from Anthony Dickerson. GAMES/STARTS: 1982 (8/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/0), 1985 (15/12), 1986 (16/16), 1987 (12/12). Total — 83/40.

COLLEGE: Rohrer was the highest NFL draft choice from Yale since 1969 when the Cowboys chose Calvin Hill in the first round. In 1981 Jeff was named to the Coaches All-Ivy League and the Coaches All-New England first teams after leading Ivy co-champ Yale in tackles with a school-record 136 stops (71 solo).

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Charles Rohrer was a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete at Mira Costa High School in his native Manhattan Beach, Calif. He received his degree from Yale in administrative sciences. Last year Jeff started Bean Golf Designs for golf equipment and apparel. His hobbies include ceramics, scuba diving and karate. Jeff supports the Special Olympics program for the handicapped.

KICKER ● WEBER STATE ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-1 ● WT: 190 ● BORN: 12/17/60 ● FA FOR '87

PRO: Roger Ruzek established several firsts for a Cowboys player in 1987. He kicked five field goals in a game against the Rams (12/21), he tied an NFL record by making four field goals in one quarter against the Giants (11/2) and he made 88% (22-25) of his field goal attempts. However, considering all that he accomplished the most amazing first for Roger Ruzek is that he was the first Cowboys player to be released, re-sign in the same training camp and then make the final roster. An ankle injury forced him to use a new kicking style early in training camp and he was the first kicker released. Two weeks later he was re-signed and returned to his original kicking form. Ruzek went on to finish second in the NFL and first in the NFC in field goal percentage and his 92 points tied for fourth best among kickers in the league. In fourth quarters Ruzek made seven of seven field goal attempts including game winners in both Giants games and the game-tying three pointer against New England (11/15). His game-winning 49-yard field goal against the Giants at Texas Stadium was his longest of the season. Ruzek was awarded a game ball from the coaches for the Giants (11/2) and Rams (12/21) wins. "Roger Ruzek has a real consistent mechanical style," says Tom Landry. "His ball turns properly. He doesn't have the quirks in his kicking that inconsistent kickers have. He has a chance to be a top kicker for many years." In two seasons with the New Jersey Generals of the USFL, Ruzek made 70.8% (34-48) of his field goal attempts and 95.2% (100-105) of his extra point attempts. His first professional field goal came from 51 yards in 1984. GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (12/0).

COLLEGE: Ruzek holds Weber State records for consecutive PATs (30, 1979-80), PAT accuracy (27-28, 96.4% in 1982) and field goal accuracy (16-19, 84.2% in 1982). He also led NCAA Division I-AA in field goal accuracy in 1982. His career 221 extra points and 46 field goals stand as NCAA Division I-AA records. He earned All-Big Sky honors four straight years.

PERSONAL: A native of San Francisco, CA, Ruzek lettered in football, soccer and baseball at El Camino High School. He earned his degree in physical education at Weber State.

Mike Saxon ★ 4

PUNTER ● SAN DIEGO STATE ● 4th YEAR
HT: 6-3 ● WT: 193 ● BORN: 7/10/62 ● FA FOR '85

PRO: Mike Saxon is one of the finest placement punters in the NFL. In 1988 Saxon led the NFL in punts inside the opposing 20 for the second straight season. Since coming into the league in 1985, only the Rams' Dale Hatcher with 77 has had more punts inside the opponents' 20 than Saxon with 68. If he could consistently match his performance from each of his season-opening games, Saxon would be a perennial Pro Bowl selection. In the first game last year he earned a coaches game ball after averaging 46.0 yards per punt with a career-long 63-yarder, a net of 40.5 and four inside the 20 against St. Louis (9/13). His first NFL punt in the 1985 opener against Washington (9/9) went 55 yards which was his career long until last year. Overall in his three season openers Saxon averaged 45.9 yards per punt with 11 kicks inside the 20 and earned two game balls. Saxon's 86 punts in 1986 set a Cowboys record eclipsing Danny White's mark of 82 from 1984. In his only postseason appearance, following the 1985 season, Saxon set a club playoff record with a 46.9 average on seven kicks against the Rams (1/4). Saxon's 41.9 average for the '85 season was the best ever by a Cowboys rookie and the best by any Cowboys punter since Ron Widby's 43.3 average in 1969. An 11th round draft choice by Detroit in 1984, Saxon was released on the final cut after averaging 43.5 yards per kick in preseason. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (16/0), 1986 (16/0), 1987 (12/0). Total — 44/0.

COLLEGE: A walk-on at San Diego State, Saxon set school records for punting average in a game (54.8 vs. BYU in '83), a season (45.5 in '83) and a career (44.1). The honorable mention All-America pick also holds the record for the longest punt in Aztecs history with an 80-yarder against BYU in 1982. Mike attended Pasadena City College before moving on to San Diego State.

PERSONAL: A native of Whittier, Calif., Michael Eric Saxon starred in baseball and as a wide receiver, defensive back and punter at Arcadia High School. Mike spent the offseason in Newport Beach, Calif., and worked with Ben Agajanian's youth kicking camps in Long Beach and Dallas. Saxon majored in business management at San Diego State.

Victor Scott ★ 22

DEFENSIVE BACK ● COLORADO ● 5th YEAR
HT: 6-0 ● WT: 203 ● BORN: 6/1/62 ● D-2 FOR '84

PRO: Injuries have kept Victor Scott from a chance at a starting safety spot with the Cowboys and a possible all-star career in the NFL. Entering the past two training camps, Scott had been given a good shot of winning a starting job. However, a strained chest muscle last year and hamstring problems and a broken wrist in 1986 have kept him out of the lineup. "The guy you really have hopes for at safety is Victor Scott," says Tom Landry. "With his speed, good fundamentals and aggressive tackling ability, he could be a good one at that position. He has the talent to be a top player in this league. He just needs to work more to build his strength so he doesn't get hurt so much." When he is able, Scott contributes with some big plays. In his first game back from his chest injury last year, he intercepted a pass against the Giants (9/20). In the final three games of the season, he recovered a fumble, had nine tackles and knocked down three passes. After earning four special teams game balls in 1985, Scott's teammates voted him a special teams captain for 1986. However, injuries limited him to five games. He contributed a key play in 1985 when he intercepted Phil Simms' pass with 46 seconds remaining to kill the Giants' hopes in the 28-21 Dallas victory that crowned the NFC East champion. Victor led the secondary in quarterback traps with three and returned an interception 26 yards for a touchdown against Washington (9/9) that season. As a rookie in 1984 Scott made a diving interception, his first as a pro, to set up Dallas' winning TD against St. Louis (11/11). GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (16/0), 1985 (16/3), 1986 (5/0), 1987 (6/0). Total — 43/3.

COLLEGE: A two-time All-Big Eight selection and a 1983 second-team All-America, Scott set Colorado career records of 24 pass deflections and three interceptions returned for touchdowns in four years as a starting cornerback. He intercepted 10 passes and blocked four field goals and two extra point attempts in his career.

PERSONAL: Born in St. Louis, Mo., and raised in East St. Louis, Ill., Victor Ramone Scott starred in football, basketball and baseball at East St. Louis High School. Mike Sherrard ★ 86

WIDE RECEIVER • UCLA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 194 • BORN: 6/21/63 • D-1 FOR '86

PRO: The darkest moment the Cowboys have witnessed in recent years came last Aug. 5 when Mike Sherrard accidentally kicked himself during a training camp drill and sustained a compound fracture of both bones in his right leg. A brilliant young career suddenly was placed in jeopardy. Sherrard missed the season, then suffered another setback in March when he re-fractured the leg while jogging on the beach in Los Angeles. The second break was not nearly as severe as the original, but it did guarantee Sherrard would miss the 1988 season as well. It's been a tragic set of circumstances for a career that was about to skyrocket. As a rookie, despite missing most of training camp and the preseason schedule, Sherrard caught 41 passes, most by a Cowboys rookie since Bob Hayes had 46 in 1965. He finished the season with a team-high five touchdown catches, all from 20 yards or more, and was starting by the season's 13th week. Sherrard also led the team in average yards per catch (18.2). Against San Diego (11/16) Mike averaged 28.8 yards per COLLEGE: Sherrard progressed from a walk-on at UCLA to the school's all-time leading receiver with 124 career catches. He also holds school records for catches in a season (48 in 1983) and career receiving yards (1,937). Despite fracturing his clavicle in the fifth game of his senior season, the PAC 10 All-Academic pick came back to catch four passes, including a touchdown, in the Rose Bowl and earned a spot in the Hula Bowl.

PERSONAL: Michael Watson Sherrard is a native of Chico, Calif., where he lettered in football, basketball, track and baseball at Chico High School. His mother Cherie ran the 110-meter hurdles at the 1964 Olympic Games in Toyko, where she was a teammate of former Cowboys receiver Bob Hayes. Sherrard is also a cousin of Redskins cornerback Darrell Green. Mike earned his degree in history from UCLA. He works with the St. Philip's School and Community Center in Dallas and with the Dream Factory, which grants wishes to children who are ill.

Don Smerek ★ 60

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN ● NEVADA-RENO ● 8th YEAR
HT: 6-7 ● WT: 266 ● BORN: 12/20/57 ● FA FOR '80

PRO: Don Smerek battled back — as he has his entire career — from a training camp injury to start the three replacement games at defensive end last year. In his final start against Washington (10/19), Smerek had a season-high nine tackles. The remainder of the season he saw most of his playing time in passing situations. Smerek had his best season in 1983 when he had a career-high six sacks while playing only part time as left tackle in passing situations. In 1984 he was given a chance to battle Jim Jeffcoat for the starting right end job, but when Randy White held out, Smerek was forced to play tackle in preseason. A shoulder injury cost him six games in 1985. Despite a knee problem that forced him to miss five games in 1986, Smerek ranked just behind the Cowboys' four defensive line starters with 4½ sacks. Knee surgery in 1980 and broken ribs in 1981 allowed Smerek to play only two games in his first two seasons in the NFL. "Don Smerek is a good competitor," says coach Tom Landry. "He's tough and does a good job rushing the passer for us on third downs. He's an asset to our football team." GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (IR), 1981 (2/0), 1982 (7/0), 1983 (15/0), 1984 (16/0), 1985 (10/1), 1986 (11/0), 1987 (8/3). Total — 69/4.

COLLEGE: Smerek was an All-Big Sky choice at defensive end following his senior season at Nevada-Reno.

Daryle Smith ★ 79

TACKLE ● TENNESSEE ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-5 ● WT: 278 ● BORN: 1/18/64 ● FA FOR '87

PRO: Daryle Smith joined the Cowboys as a replacement player during the strike last year. He was so impressive at left tackle the coaching staff made a place on the squad for Smith when the strike ended. When Mark Tuinei injured a knee early in the Thanksgiving Day game against Minnesota, Smith suddenly found himself in the starting lineup for the final month of the season. Daryle performed well, particularly against the Redskins' feared pass-rusher, Dexter Manley. "Daryle is a fine prospect," offensive line coach Jim Erkenbeck says. "He's got the one quality you need to be an outstanding lineman–great balance." Smith went to training camp with Seattle as a free agent last year. He backed up the left tackle position in four preseason games before being released on the final cut. GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (9/7).

COLLEGE: Smith was a late bloomer at Tennessee, where he began as a tight end. He became a starter at left tackle midway through his junior year of 1985. He started his entire senior season of '86.

PERSONAL: Daryle Ray Smith was an all-state defensive end and tight end at Powell High School in Knoxville, Tenn. He averaged 23 yards per catch during his high school career. Daryle, wife Karen and son Joseph Lee (11/21/87) reside in Irving, Texas. Daryle is an avid golfer.

HT: 6-0 ● WT: 193 ● BORN: 11/16/63 ● D-7 FOR '87

PRO: After being released on the final cut last year, Kevin Sweeney returned to Dallas during the strike and led the Cowboys to a pair of victories. In those two weeks, Sweeney also captured the imagination of Cowboys fans with his "home run" arm that accounted for four touchdown passes and 20.8 yards per completion. and the Haggar Cowboys Star of the Game award against the New York Jets (10/4). His 77-yard touchdown pass to Cornell Burbage the following week against Philadelphia (10/11) was the Cowboys' longest pass completion of the season. Sweeney remained with the club for the rest of the season in a backup role. He was an impressive behind-the-scenes performer in leading the "scout" team against the first defense every week in practice. "Kevin has some awfully good qualities, as we saw in the replacement games," Tom Landry says. "He can really throw the football. We're going to see what he can do this summer." GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (3/2).
COLLEGE: Sweeney finished his Fresno State career as the most prolific passer in NCAA history with 10,623 passing yards. He also tied the NCAA mark for most games of 200 or more yards passing with 31. A four-year starter and son of Fresno State head coach Jim Sweeney, Kevin was a two-time PCAA co-offensive player of the year and holds the conference's career records for completions (781) and touchdowns (66).

PERSONAL: Born in Bozeman, Mont., Kevin Joseph Sweeney attended Fresno's Bullard High School, where he broke Pat Haden's California state record for TD passes in a season with 35 his senior year. As a coach's son, Kevin received an ideal football education. He threw the ball with John Elway at age 10 when both fathers coached at Washington State. He fielded punts for Danny White in the late '70s when Kevin's father visited the Cowboys' training camp. He attended Jim Hart's football camp when his father coached with the Cardinals. And while at Fresno, Kevin worked with Steve DeBerg, whom he credits with helping him most with his throwing motion. Kevin graduated from Fresno State with a degree in business administration. He and wife Karen reside in Fresno and Irving, Texas.

Glen Titensor ★ 63

GUARD • BRIGHAM YOUNG • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 275 • BORN: 2/21/58 • D-3 FOR '81

PRO: A training camp knee injury sent starting guard Glen Titensor to the injured reserve list for the 1987 season. Prior to the injury, Glen had started 44 straight games at left guard since earning the job five games into the 1984 campaign. Titensor followed Blaine Nye, John Fitzgerald, Pat Donovan and Kurt Petersen as college defensive linemen who were converted into starting offensive linemen by the Cowboys. Glen also has experience at center. His successful return from the knee injury would give the Cowboys' young offensive line some experienced depth. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (16/0), 1982 (3/0), 1983 (15/1), 1984 (15/12), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/16), 1987 (I.R.). Total — 81/45.

COLLEGE: After spending two years at UCLA backing up Manu Tuiasosopo, Titensor transferred to BYU and became a two-time All-Western Athletic Conference choice at defensive end. He also was AP honorable mention All-America in '79 and '80. Glen was named BYU defensive player of the week five times in '79 and led the team with 13 sacks in 1980.

PERSONAL: Glen Watson Titensor (TIGHT-en-sir), a native of Westminster, Calif., starred in football and track at Bolsa Grande High School in Garden Grove, Calif. Glen's hobby is making custom furniture. He has participated in the American Heart Association Jumpathon program and teaches classes to teens at a Dallas-area church. Glen and wife Sherry live in Carrollton, Texas, with sons Scott (3/21/86) and Bradley (1/8/88).

TACKLE • HAWAII • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 282 • BORN: 3/31/60 • FA FOR '83

PRO: Mark Tuinei was progressing nicely through his second season as starting left tackle when a knee injury cut short his season. Sustained in the Thanksgiving Day game against Minneosota, the injury sent Mark to the sidelines for the final month of the season. It took a few years before the Cowboys settled on a position for this talented athlete. He made the club in 1983 as a free agent defensive tackle, where he played for two years. Before '85 training camp, Tuinei was moved to the offensive line to back up center Tom Rafferty. In '86 Mark worked at all three offensive line positions in camp and it appeared he was going to stay at tackle. But injuries to Kevin Brooks and Don Smerek early in the season forced Tuinei to split time every week in practice between offensive and defensive tackle. Against Denver (10/5) Mark led all Cowboys defensive linemen with six tackles while playing for injured Randy White. The next week against Washington (10/12) he was named starting left offensive tackle and remained there for the rest of the year. GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (10/0), 1984 (16/0), 1985 (16/0), 1986 (16/11), 1987 (8/8). Total — 66/19.

COLLEGE: Tuinei played his first two collegiate seasons at UCLA. He started at defensive tackle his sophomore year, finishing fifth in tackles. He transferred to Hawaii, but was nagged by injuries his senior year and played in only seven games. He was then passed over in the NFL draft, but signed with Dallas as a free agent.

PERSONAL: Mark Pulemau Tuinei (TOO-ee-nay), was born in Oceanside, Calif., and raised in Honolulu, where he was an outstanding athlete at Punahou High School. Mark was Hawaii prep lineman of the year as a senior, a state shotput champion and an all-star basketball player. Mark's brother Tom was an All-WAC defensive tackle at Hawaii who played for the Detroit Lions in 1980 and now plays for Edmonton of the CFL. Mark and wife Ponolai live in Carrollton, Texas.

Mark Walen ★ 95

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN • UCLA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 262 • BORN: 3/10/63 • D-3 FOR '86

PRO: After proclaiming of Cowboys' number one need heading into 1988 as a pass rusher, and not finding one in the draft, Tom Landry will have to look to young veterans like Mark Walen to fill the gap. Walen, who spent the 1986 season on injured reserve after suffering a broken ankle in rookie orientation, played some at defensive end in passing situations last year. In the season opener against St. Louis (9/13) he recorded his first NFL sack. Walen also worked at defensive tackle in training camp in 1987. GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (IR), 1987 (9/0). Total — 9/0.

COLLEGE: The 1985 PAC 10 defensive player of the year, Walen led UCLA in sacks with nine and was third on the team in tackles with 74. He also earned All-West Coast and honorable mention All-America honors as a senior.

PERSONAL: Mark Hartley Walen was All-San Mateo County at Burlingame, Calif. High School. He also starred in soccer and basketball. Walen majored in history at UCLA. Walen's hobbies include car collecting — he drives a 1968 Citroen — and mountain biking. He lives in Irving with wife Maggie.

Herschel Walker ★ 34

RUNNING BACK ● GEORGIA ● 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-1 ● WT: 225 ● BORN: 3/3/62 ● D-5A FOR '85

PRO: Herschel Walker is well on his way to becoming one of the most prolific offensive forces in NFL history. In just two seasons his accomplishments already stagger the imagination. He is the only player in NFL history who has twice gained more than 700 yards both rushing and receiving in a season. His 3,180 yards from scrimmage during the past two seasons rank second in the league to Eric Dickerson. Last year Herschel became the first player ever to lead the Cowboys in rushing and receiving yards in the same season. His 1,606 yards from scrimmage topped the NFL and earned Walker his first trip to the Pro Bowl. In Herschel's first game as the Cowboys' starting tailback, he rushed for 173 yards, capped by the longest overtime run in NFL history, a 60-yard touchdown scamper to beat New England 23-17 on Nov. 15. Projecting his totals in those final seven games over a 16-game schedule, Walker would have rushed for 1,504 yards and caught 84 passes for 1,008 yards. That would be an unprecedented season. In 1986 Herschel led NFC running backs in receiving yards and yards per rushing attempt, had the NFL's longest run from scrimmage and second longest pass reception (both in same game vs. Philadelphia). He led the Cowboys in total yards, set club records of 76 receptions in a season and 292 yards from scrimmage in a game (vs. Philadelphia 12/14) and tied Tony Dorsett's club season mark of 12 rushing touchdowns. Herschel joined the Cowboys on Aug. 13, 1986 following the demise of the USFL. The Cowboys had used a fifth-round draft choice to acquire Walker's NFL rights in 1985 while he was playing for the USFL's New Jersey Generals. Herschel dominated the USFL, gaining more than 7,000 yards rushing and receiving and scoring 61 touchdowns in three seasons. His 2,411 yards rushing in 1985 is a pro football single-season record. He had 14 100-yard games in 1985, including 11 in a row and three of more than 200 yards. His top career rushing game was a league-record 233 yards against the Houston Gamblers in 1985. Walker led the USFL in rushing in '83 and '85 and was the league's MVP in '85. He topped the 100-yard mark 26 times in 53 games over three seasons. He broke long runs of 88, 83, 80, 69 and 62 yards, and caught two touchdown passes of over 50 yards, a 65-yarder and a 68-yarder. GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (16/9), 1987 (12/11) Total — 28/20.

COLLEGE: Walker won the 1982 Heisman Trophy to cap a magnificent three-year collegiate career that saw him rush for 5,259 yards, which ranks him third on the NCAA's all-time rushing list behind Pittsburgh's Tony Dorsett with 6,082 and Southern Cal's Charles White with 5,598. Walker finished third in the Heisman voting as a freshman behind George Rogers and Hugh Green, and he came in second as a sophomore in 1981 to USC's Marcus Allen. Herschel was only the seventh junior to win the award. A three-time unanimous All-America, Walker set 10 NCAA records, 15 Southeastern Conference records and 30 University of Georgia marks in his career. In 33 games he rushed for an average of 159.4 yards per game, 5.3 yards per carry, scored 52 touchdowns, had 266 runs for first downs and 162 runs of more than 10 yards each. In 1980 he rushed for 1,616 yards to break Dorsett's NCAA freshman record and lead Georgia to the national championship with a 12-0 record, including the 1981 Sugar Bowl victory over Notre Dame in which Herschel rushed for 150 yards and two touchdowns to earn MVP honors. Earlier that season Walker rushed for 283 yards in only his sixth college game. Herschel set the NCAA sophomore rushing mark of 1,891 yards in 1981. His 5,259 yards from 1980-82 is the NCAA record for rushing yards in three seasons. Walker rushed for over 100 yards in 28 games, including six of over 200 yards. Walker left Georgia after his junior year to sign with the Generals on Feb. 23, 1983.

PERSONAL: Herschel Junior Walker is one of seven children (four sons, three daughters) raised by Willis and Christine Walker of Wrightsville, Ga. Herschel was named for his grandfather. Herschel's father is a foreman at the Englehard chalk mine in Wilkerson, Ga. PARADE magazine named Herschel the national high school back of the year in 1979 after he rushed for 3,167 yards and 45 touchdowns as a senior at Johnson County High School. He rushed for 6,137 yards and 86 touchdowns in his high school career. He also excelled in track as a sprinter in high school and college. Herschel majored in criminal justice at Georgia, where he also met his wife, the former Cindy DiAngelis of Brooklyn, N.Y. Herschel has won the past two SuperStars competitions. He has a second degree black belt in Tae Kwon Do, a Korean form of martial arts. Herschel contributes to numerous civic and charitable groups. He is national spokesman for the Golden State Mutual Life Insurance Company's Golden Opportunity Foundation and Adopt-a-School program, which promotes education to young people. Last offseason Herschel danced with the Fort Worth Ballet. He and Cindy live in Irving, Texas, with their dog, Al Capone, a Rottweiler.

Everson Walls ★ 24

PRO: Already in the record books for being the only player in the 68-year history of the NFL to lead the league in interceptions three different seasons, Everson Walls has a chance to become one of the top pass-stealers in NFL history. With 42 interceptions in seven seasons Walls is the only player among the league's top five active interceptors with fewer than 10 years of experience. Walls entered 1988 averaging six intercepts per year. Paul Krause, who picked off an NFL record 81 passes in 16 seasons, averaged a little more than five per year. By leading the NFL in interceptions three different seasons (1981, 1982, 1985) Walls already has achieved what no other player in the history of the league has. Last season Walls intercepted a pass in the Cowboys' final three games to lead the team in interceptions for the fourth time, tying Cornell Green's club record. Already second on the Cowboys' all-time interception list, Walls needs 10 to catch record-holder Mel Renfro, who stole 52 passes in 14 seasons. Walls' accomplishments are even greater when given the fact he was almost overlooked coming out of college. "I took it as a challenge that nobody drafted me," says Walls. "From the first day, I wanted to prove they were wrong." Against St. Louis in the season finale Walls batted down three passes, intercepted another and recorded a season-high six tackles. Walls was an all-rookie choice in '81, an All-Pro in '82, '83 and '85 and a four-time Pro Bowl pick ('81, '82, '83, '85). Walls has intercepted 75 passes in 12 seasons since his senior year in high school. In 1984, Walls — then just 24 — became the youngest player voted by the fans to the Cowboys' 25th Anniversary All-Time Team. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (16/14), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/16), 1987 (12/12). Total — 101/99.

COLLEGE: Walls led the nation in 1980 with a Grambling-record 11 interceptions for 140 yards in 11 games. He was named first-team All-Southwestern Athletic Conference as a senior. In his junior year he picked off four passes for 91 yards and a touchdown.

WALLS, Cont.

PERSONAL: Everson Collins "Cubby" Walls was a football, basketball and track star at Berkner High School in the Dallas suburb of Richardson. He grew up within two miles of the Cowboys' old practice field. Walls earned a degree in accounting from Grambling. Everson supports the Big Brothers of Arlington, Texas, the American Heart Association and the Foster Parents program. He, wife Shreill, daughter Charis (8/16/84) and son Cameron (3/24/88) live in Dallas.

Randy Watts ★ 94

DEFENSIVE END	●	CATAWBA	●	2nd YEAR
HT: 6-6 ● WT: 303	●	BORN: 6/22/63	●	FA FOR '87

PRO: Another of the 1987 replacement team players who held on to finish the year after the regulars returned, Watts was seen as a huge, active player who could help the Cowboys' pass rush. Signed by Dallas after being released on the final cut by the Kansas City Chiefs in the summer of '87, Randy was a dominant player during the replacement games with three sacks in the three games. GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (5/0).

COLLEGE: Watts led Catawba's defensive line in both tackles (99) and sacks (7½) in 1986 with 99 tackles and 7½ sacks as starting defensive tackle. As a junior Watts started at defensive end and recorded 66 tackles and five sacks. He played at East Carolina for two seasons before transferring to Catawba.

PERSONAL: Randy Watts starred in football, basketball and track at Washington County High School in Sandersville, Ga. He was named the team's outstanding player and led the team in receiving three straight seasons. He majored in physical education at Catawba.

Bob White ★ 65
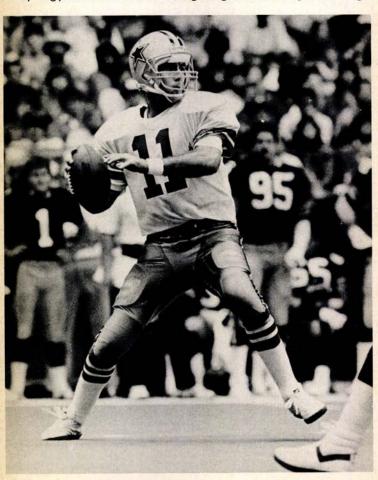

GUARD-CENTER	●	RHODE ISLAND	●	2nd YEAR
HT: 6-5 ● WT: 267	●	BORN: 4/9/63	●	FA FOR '87

PRO: A former New York Jets draft pick (seventh round, 1986), White was signed by the Cowboys last year but released on the final training camp cutdown. He rejoined the replacement team and was able to stick when the strike ended. Bob played center for the last two weeks of '87 training camp last year after four weeks at guard, and was praised by the coaches for the way he made the transition. Heading into training camp '88, White was listed as a backup at both guard spots as well as center. GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (4/3).

COLLEGE: A second-team All-America and first-team All-East pick in 1985, White started at right tackle as a senior, left tackle as a junior and center as a freshman and sophomore. URI finished first in the Yankee Conference in both 1984 and 1985. As a senior White anchored the line on an offense that passed 50 times a game, scored 42 touchdowns and featured Tom Ehrhardt, who led the nation in total offense that year.

PERSONAL: Bob White was a Watchusetts League all-star at Lunenburg (MA) High School. He earned his degree in journalism from URI. White worked as a sparing partner for local middle and lightweights his first two years in college.

Danny White ★ 11

QUARTERBACK ● ARIZONA STATE ● 13th YEAR
HT: 6-3 ● WT: 198 ● BORN: 2/9/52 ● D-3A FOR '74

PRO: The 1987 season should have been a season of milestones for Danny White. Instead it turned into a season of struggle as he was handicapped by an injured wrist. White played well in his final two starts of the year. Against Minnesota on Thanksgiving Day he threw for 341 yards and four touchdowns while breaking Roger Staubach's club record for career completions. Three times in that game against the Vikings, White led Dallas back from 14-point deficits only to lose in overtime. Two weeks later against the Redskins in RFK White broke Staubach's career mark for touchdown passes with two touchdowns while completing 27 of 49 passes for 359 yards, the third best yardage day of his career and the best yardage day by a Cowboy since 1985. Down 24-3 to Washington in the third quarter, White led a gallant comeback effort that fell short 24-20. Despite his efforts late in the season White's wrist, which was broken in the ninth game of the 1986 season, holds the key to his regaining the starting job in 1988. "It's a question of whether he can be consistent in his throwing motion, which is where he has trouble," says Tom Landry. White is within reach of two other Cowoys career passing marks. He entered the 1988 season with 21,685 yards and 2,908 attempts. Staubach holds both records of 22,700 passing yards and 2,958 attempts. Until the wrist injury, White was having his best season in 1986. He led the league in touchdown percentage, turning eight percent of his attempts into TDs and his 99.0 passer rating was tops in the NFC and second in the NFL. Against Atlanta (9/21) he completed 76.7% (23 of 30) of his passes and threw for four touchdowns. Despite injuries that forced him to miss two regular season games and parts of three other games, White led Dallas to the NFC Eastern Division title in 1985. Danny guided the Cowboys to three late-season victories over NFC East teams to key the Cowboys' division championship. In those games he completed 63% of his passes, threw for 10 touchdowns and was intercepted only three times. The Cowboys are 41-11 (.789) at Texas Stadium and 67-35 (.657) overall with White in the starting lineup. After being drafted in the third round by Dallas in 1974 (as part of a trade with Houston that also produced Ed Jones for Tody Smith and Billy Parks), White signed with Memphis of the now-defunct World Football League and spent two seasons there before joining the Cowboys in 1976. Danny punted for the Cowboys from 1976-84 and is a risk-taking type who ran for first downs 15 times in 19 attempts from punt formation. GAMES/STARTS: 1976 (14/0), 1977 (14/0), 1978 (16/1), 1979 (16/0), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/15), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (14/6), 1985 (14/14), 1986 (7/6), 1987 (11/9). Total — 163/92.

COLLEGE: White finished his career as the NCAA's all-time leading passer, setting seven NCAA passing records. His passing and running placed him second in the nation in total offense in 1973. Danny played the infield for ASU's baseball team and was drafted by four major league teams. Both Danny and his father, Wilford "Wizzer" White, a former ASU All-America halfback who played for the Chicago Bears in 1951 and '52, are in the Arizona State Sports Hall of Fame. NOTE: Danny White's father is NOT U.S. Supreme Court Justice Byron "Whizzer" White.

PERSONAL: Wilford Daniel White is a native of Mesa, Ariz., and graduated from Westwood High in that Phoenix suburb. Danny does public service work in the Dallas area for any number of worthwhile causes. He was named a 1982 Dallas Father of the Year and the 1983 Cowboys Man of the Year. Danny, wife Jo Lynn and their four children — Ryan (4/26/73), Geoffrey (1/4/76), Heather (9/3/78) and Reed (7/29/83) — live in Fairview, Texas, near Dallas.

Gerald White ★ 37

RUNNING BACK • MICHIGAN • 2nd YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 223 • BORN: 12/9/64 • FA FOR '87

PRO: Gerald White signed as a free agent, was released after the third preseason game, then re-signed as a replacement and started all three games at fullback, showing skill as a blocker and receiver. GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (3/3).

COLLEGE: White led Michigan and was eighth in the Big 10 in receiving in '86 with 35 catches for 385 yards. He earned honorable mention All-Big 10 honors in 1986. A starter at fullback in his final 27 games, White led Michigan in rushing touchdowns with seven and total touchdowns with 11 his junior year. Against Ohio State in 1985 White rushed for 110 yards on 29 carries. He finished his career with 1,295 yards on 332 carries and 61 catches for 541 yards. White, who played in the Hula Bowl following the 1986 season, scored 19 touchdowns in his final two seasons.

PERSONAL: Gerald White rushed for over 1,000 yards in each of his final three seasons at Titusville (FL) High School where he was a two-time All-America. He majored in sports management at Michigan.

Randy White ★ 54

DEFENSIVE TACKLE   ●   MARYLAND   ●   14th YEAR
HT: 6-4   ●   WT: 263   ●   BORN: 1/15/53   ●   D-1A FOR '75

PRO: Even though it's his 14th NFL season, new challenges await Randy White in 1988. Due to a neck injury that slowed him in 1987, White missed most of the contact drills and helped coach the defensive tackles in training camp. In Hall of Famer Ernie Stautner and future Hall of Famer White, the young Cowboys defensive linemen benefitted from a combined 29 years of NFL experience and 18 Pro Bowl appearances. Randy also took on a new position on the field in 1988 as a pass rusher from the outside rather than his familiar spot inside at defensive tackle. Despite the injury, White finished sixth on the team in tackles and second in sacks with six last year. In the upset win over the Giants, White grabbed his second career interception after Ed Jones had batted a Phil Simms pass in the air. His only other interception came against San Francisco in the 1981 NFC Championship game. While playing with a shoulder injury in 1986, White recorded 6½ sacks and still led the defensive line in tackles with 103. However, White's streak of nine straight Pro Bowl appearances and club-record eight straight All-Pro selections came to an end. Randy can tie the Cowboys' record for service by playing in his 14th season in 1988. When White first joined the team in 1975, the Cowboys spent two seasons trying to turn him into a middle linebacker. However, it is not in Randy's nature to backpedal into pass coverage. When he settled at right defensive tackle in '77, he was co-MVP (with teammate Harvey Martin) in the Cowboys' 27-10 Super Bowl XII victory over Denver and made the Pro Bowl for the first time. His march to the Hall of Fame since then has been relentless. "When Randy White lines up on you," Landry once said in a classic description of his great tackle, "he doesn't care whether you're All-Pro or whether you're a rookie. You're going to get the same treatment. That makes him unique in this game." GAMES/STARTS: 1975 (14/1), 1976 (14/0), 1977 (14/14), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (15/14), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/16), 1987 (15/14). Total — 193/164.

R. WHITE, Cont.

COLLEGE: A consensus All-America defensive end for the Terps in 1974, White won both the Outland Trophy and the Vince Lombardi Award as college football's top lineman that year. He was the second player selected in the 1975 draft with a choice obtained by the Cowboys from the New York Giants for quarterback Craig Morton. Atlanta selected quarterback Steve Bartkowski before the Cowboys took White.

PERSONAL: Randy Lee White was a football, basketball and baseball star at Thomas McKean High School in his hometown of Wilmington, Del. He is a fanatical bass fisherman. Randy, wife Vicci and daughter Jordan Leigh (5/6/79) live in Dallas. Randy received the 1980 Field Scovell Award for athletic excellence from the Dallas All-Sports Association. He supports the Association of Blind Athletes, the United Way, the American Heart Association and the Dallas County Foster Parents Association. He also has done work with the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Dallas, and hosts the Randy White celebrity Bass Tournament benefitting Easter Seals.

HT: 5-10 ● WT: 190 ● BORN: 10/2/62 ● FA FOR '87

PRO: Robert Williams provided valuable help to the Cowboys on special teams, backing up at cornerback and in the 4-0 pass defense last season. Against Philadelphia (10/11) Williams had the Cowboys' only blocked extra point of 1987. He saw time at linebacker in passing situations and late in the year replaced Ron Francis at right cornerback for most of the second half against the Rams (12/21). A starter at cornerback during the replacement season, Williams recorded 19 tackles, knocked down a pass and recovered a fumble in those three games. He had a season-high 10 stops against Washington (10/19). Originally signed by Dallas in the spring of 1987, Williams was released on the final cut prior to the regular season, then re-signed on Sept. 22. Washington signed Williams as a free agent wide receiver in 1986 but released him during training camp. GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (11/3).

COLLEGE: A running back at Baylor, Williams was used mainly as a receiver in passing situations. In 1985 he rushed for 409 yards on 119 carries and caught 19 passes for 210 yards. He backed up Alfred Anderson his first two seasons and Ron Francis to begin his junior year in 1984.

PERSONAL: Robert Williams was the football and track MVP at Ball High School in Galveston, Texas. He won the district high hurdles title as a senior. A business management major at Baylor, Robert donates his time to the March of Dimes in Dallas and speaks against drugs in Dallas and Galveston schools. He and his wife Tracy have a son Brandon (12/13/86).

Jeff Zimmerman ★ 76

GUARD ● FLORIDA ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 ● WT: 316 ● BORN: 1/10/65 ● D-3 FOR '87

PRO: Jeff Zimmerman is one of the new breed of mammoth offensive linemen now favored by the Cowboys. The heaviest player on the team last year, Zimmerman saw a good deal of playing time at left guard in his rookie year filling in when Nate Newton was hobbled by injuries. Zimmerman got himself noticed quickly early in the year in an upset victory at the New York Giants (9/20) when he knocked out Lawrence Taylor on a blitz. "Zoom" also started and went the distance at Philadelphia (10/25) and played most of the fourth quarter for Newton against Miami (11/22). Zimmerman possesses outstanding quickness and striking ability for such a big man. "He's very big and he's very talented," Tom Landry says. "If he can keep his weight under control, he'll be a top player." GAMES/STARTS: 1987 (11/1).

COLLEGE: Zimmerman was a two-time All-America and the first Florida lineman to earn All-America honors as an underclassman. He started for two years at guard before switching to tackle for his senior season of 1986. He was considered an excellent pass blocker and played in both the Senior Bowl and the Blue-Gray Classic following his senior year. In 1984 Zimmerman was part of the Florida line billed as "The Great Wall," which included his future Cowboys teammate Crawford Ker.

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Alan Zimmerman grew up in Orlando, Fla., where he was a PARADE All-America at Evans High School. He majored in physical education at Florida. Jeff enjoys fishing and boating.

IRVIN   NORTON

MICHAEL IRVIN • Wide Receiver • Miami Fla.
Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 198 • Born: 3/5/66 • D-1

Michael Irvin broke career receiving records at the University of Miami for catches (143), receiving yards (2,423), touchdown catches (26) and touchdown catches in a season (11 in 1986). However, the most telling numbers on Irvin are those in the big games.

With Irvin in the lineup, the Hurricanes beat perennial powerhouse Oklahoma three times, including the 1988 Orange Bowl for the national championship. In that Orange Bowl contest, Irvin caught the winning touchdown and finished his career against the Sooners with nine catches for 177 yards and four touchdowns.

Last season when Miami handed Florida State, who finished second in the polls, its only defeat, it was Irvin who keyed the 26-25 come-from-behind win with touchdown catches of 26 and 73 yards in the fourth quarter.

After Irvin became a starter in the first game of the 1985 season as a red-shirt freshman, Miami went 32-4 (10-2 in 1985, 11-1 in 1986 and 12-0 in 1987) and won 32 straight regular-season games. He finished his career by catching a pass in a school-record 34 straight games.

The third wide receiver taken in the draft behind Sterling Sharpe and Tim Brown, Irvin is the Cowboys' highest draft choice since Tony Dorsett was taken with the second pick in the 1977 draft.

Growing up in a family of 17 children, Irvin developed his strong character through his family. On the Friday following the draft, he graduated from Miami with a degree in business management.

"Being from a large family taught me that I can't always have what I want," says Irvin. "We weren't rich. My mother didn't work and my dad was a roofer. It teaches you a lot of values. I got out and started working when I was 12 or 13 years old. It taught me self discipline and unselfishness."

Irvin's father passed away shortly before Michael played his first game as a senior at St. Thomas Aquinas High School. After each touchdown Irvin scores he points to the sky in honor of his dad to whom Michael has devoted his football career.

An outstanding basketball player, Irvin earned all-state honors at St. Thomas Aquinas High School in Fort Lauderdale after averaging 21 points and 17 rebounds as a senior. He also won a number of slam dunk contests in the Florida area. Irvin was raised within three miles of fellow first-round draft choices Lorenzo White and Bennie Blades.

KEN NORTON ● Linebacker ● UCLA
Ht: 6-2 ● Wt: 224 ● Born: 9/29/66 ● D-2

The story of Ken Norton, Jr., is packed with irony. The son of a former heavyweight champion, Norton was never allowed to watch his father box. The only time he saw his dad fight was in a hospital bed following a car accident in 1986 when the elder Norton was battling for his life. Norton, Jr., stayed by his dad's side and was his constant companion through the long rehabilitation.

Norton, Sr., also kept his son from playing football until his junior year in high school. Upon entering UCLA, Norton, Jr., chose the jersey number 41, which his dad wore as a running back and defensive end at Northeast Missouri State. And now it is the father who admits to going through a second childhood through his son's football achievements.

An All-America inside linebacker at UCLA, Norton possesses the speed and the athletic ability to play on the outside in the pros. He was the fastest linebacker at the scouting combine in Indianapolis in February. He also broke up 18 passes in his UCLA career, including nine in 1986.

It was this athletic ability and the presence of All-America tailback Gaston Green that led UCLA head coach Terry Donahue to move Norton, who had averaged 8.8 yards per carry as a high school senior, from running back to linebacker before his freshman year.

The adjustment for Norton was a smooth one as he was named player of the game against California as a freshman with an interception and a fumble recovery to set up a field goal. As a reserve in 1985 he was named honorable mention All-PAC 10 and co-outstanding defensive player of the year for the Bruins.

Norton became a starter and captain as a junior and went on to lead UCLA in tackles his final two seasons. Last season he earned All-America honors (UPI, Sporting News, Football News and Walter Camp Foundation) and was the only west coast nominee for the Butkus Award, given to the nation's outstanding linebacker.

Norton was the sixth linebacker chosen (Aundray Bruce, Ken Harvey, Clifford Charlton, Marcus Cotton, Chris Spielman) in 1988. He also was drafted with the highest pick used on a UCLA linebacker since Jerry Robinson was taken in the first round by Philadelphia in 1979.

A basketball and baseball star at Westchester High School in Los Angeles, Norton majored in political science at UCLA.

MARK HUTSON   ●   Guard   ●   Oklahoma
Ht: 6-3   ●   Wt: 292   ●   Born: 8/29/66   ●   D-3

Mark Hutson earned All-America honors two straight years, All-Big 8 honors three straight years, was the top-rated offensive guard in the 1988 draft and played for an Oklahoma team that went 42-5-1 in his four years and won the national championship in 1985. But his biggest thrill may have been the touchdown he scored in the 1988 Orange Bowl. On a designed play, Hutson picked up the ball off the ground where the center had placed it and rumbled 29 yards for the score against Miami.

Called the most fundamentally sound lineman to ever play at Oklahoma by Sooners offensive line coach Merv Johnson, Hutson started 36 straight games, the longest streak ever for a player under Barry Switzer.

Hutson anchored an offensive line that powered Oklahoma to an average of 499.7 rushing yards per game to lead the nation in 1987. Against Kansas State on Oct. 17, the Sooners rolled up 518 yards on the ground. Two weeks later Oklahoma averaged 8.3 yards per carry while rushing for 565 yards and eight touchdowns against Kansas.

After spending his freshman season starting at left tackle, Hutson became a starting guard before the Texas-OU game in 1985. The Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award nominee blocked against Neil Smith, the former Nebraska defensive tackle and the second player picked in the 1988 draft, in the traditional Big-8 showdown. The Sooners beat the Cornhuskers each of the past four years and last season Hutson leveled Smith to spring tailback Patrick Collins for a 65-yard touchdown.

An all-state lineman at Northside High School in Fort Smith, Ark., Mark majored in communications at Oklahoma.

DAVE WIDELL   ●   Tackle   ●   Boston College
Ht: 6-6   ●   Wt: 297   ●   Born: 5/14/65   ●   D-4

The toughest job in the city of Hartford, Conn., over the past 20 years didn't belong to a politician or a local businessman. Five-foot, seven-inch Beverly Widell had the difficult task of not only feeding her mammoth sons, Dave (6-6, 297) and Doug (6-4, 277), but also had to referee their brotherly quarrels.

"Once we got over 250 pounds," says older brother Dave, "we stopped fighting. It got to be too dangerous. Mom was the only one with enough guts to get between us."

More recently the tandem teamed on the Boston College offensive line. Versatile Dave, who handled the Eagles' long-snapping duties the past 3½ years, became the starting right tackle in 1986. Last season Doug became the starter at right guard.

An All-East Coast and honorable mention All-America pick, Dave benefitted from playing in Boston College's pro-style offense. A noted pass blocker, Widell also led the way for an Eagles rushing attack that gained 343 yards and two touchdowns against Tennessee last year.

After backing up at left tackle in 1984, Widell shared the center duties in 1985. Midway through his freshman season, Widell took over the deep-snapping job that had been handled the year before by Steve DeOssie, who has performed the same role for the Cowboys on punts the past four years.

The 1988 draft marked the second straight year and the third time in the past five drafts that Dallas chose a player from Boston College in the fourth round (DeOssie in 1984 and Kelvin Martin in 1987). Widell and Martin also were born on the same day.

An all-state tight end and nose tackle for South Catholic High School in Hartford, Conn., Widell also played center on his high school basketball team. He majored in accounting at Boston College.

SCOTT SECULES • Quarterback • Virginia
Ht: 6-3 • Wt: 220 • Born: 11/8/64 • D-6

The whizzes at Hewlett-Packard are not the only ones asking "What if?" The coaches and followers of University of Virginia football are asking the same question about quarterback Scott Secules. What if he didn't break his foot in a high school all-star game the summer before entering Virginia? What if he had been the Cavaliers' starting quarterback for more than just his senior year?

After redshirting his freshman year due to the broken foot, Secules spent the next three years backing up Don Majkowski, who started five games as a rookie for Green Bay last year.

The Virginia faithful caught a glimpse of what was to come when Secules started three games in place of an injured Majkowski in 1986. Against Clemson in the second of those starts, he completed 30 of 49 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns to set school records for attempts and completions.

As the starter last year Secules set 14 more school records, including completions in a season (174), passing yards in a game (328 vs. North Carolina) and a season (2,311), completion percentage in a game (80.0, 20 of 25 vs. Wake Forest), in a season (58.8, 174 of 296) and in a career (56.0, 260-464).

In leading Virginia to only its second bowl appearance in 99 years and its first undefeated home season since 1951, Secules improved as the season progressed.

SECULES, Cont.

In the Cavaliers' final home game against North Carolina, Secules was impressive in leading Virginia back from a 17-7 deficit with 4:44 remaining. In that fourth quarter, he completed 11 of 19 passes for 157 yards and the game-winning touchdown with 30 seconds remaining. Secules finished the day with 328 passing yards while completing 28 of 50 attempts.

The first Virginia quarterback to be named All-ACC since Bob Davis in 1966, Secules led the conference in passing efficiency and finished his collegiate career by being named the offensive player of the game in Virginia's 22-16 victory over BYU in the All-America Bowl.

Secules has good size, arm strength and showed good intelligence in running the complicated Virginia pass offense, but the quality always mentioned first about him is his quick release, which he attributes to his days as a baseball catcher.

"Secules has an excellent delivery," says Tom Landry. "It is amazing how he throws the ball. He probably has the quickest delivery that we have seen. He is very smart and big."

Michael Dean Perry, the defensive lineman from Clemson who was drafted in the second round by Cleveland, voiced his opinion after the Tigers failed to sack Secules. "He doesn't let you get him. He gets rid of the ball and you end up real frustrated."

The third quarterback taken in the draft (Chris Chandler, Don McPherson) and the only player chosen from Virginia in 1988, Secules was rated the top quarterback in the draft by Cowboys assistant coach Paul Hackett.

A native of Centreville, Va., Scott Wescott Secules starred in basketball, baseball and football at Chantilly High School. He also earned membership to the National Honor Society. His father Tom played quarterback at William & Mary from 1956-59. Scott earned his degree in economics from Virginia.

OWEN HOOVEN   •   Tackle   •   Oregon State
Ht: 6-8   •   Wt: 302   •   Born: 8/11/66   •   D-7

Owen Hooven's favorite meal is his mom's barbecued chicken. He always eats two — not two pieces, two whole chickens. Judging from her son's six-foot, eight-inch, 302-pound frame, it appears Owen's mom spent a lot of time with a lot of chickens.

Hooven, the tallest player in college football last year, started only one season at right tackle for Oregon State due to a misunderstanding that cost him his junior year. After transferring from the College of the Redwoods, Hooven suffered a knee injury in spring drills in 1986. The Beaver coaches intended to redshirt him that fall, but he was mistakenly played in some junior varsity games and lost a year of eligibility.

An All-PAC 10 honorable mention selection in 1987, Hooven anchored the protection for Oregon State quarterback Erik Wilhelm, who led the conference in passing yards last year.

Hooven, who was the only player from Oregon State drafted in 1988, earned second-team All-Golden Valley Conference honors two times at the College of the Redwoods.

Felix Owen Hooven III was 21-5 as a wrestler at Arcata High School in Blue Lake, Calif. He also lettered in track and football. Hooven majored in liberal studies at Oregon State.

MARK HIGGS • Running Back • Kentucky
Ht: 5-7 • Wt: 188 • Born: 4/11/66 • D-8

Mark Higgs could become the Cowboys' designated leaper. Boasting a 43-inch vertical jump, "Higgs over the Top" could be the Dallas battle cry in short yardage and goalline situations.

Despite his lack of size, Higgs gained a reputation as a tough inside runner and an excellent blocker at Kentucky. With two of the five longest scoring plays in Wildcats history — an 85-yard TD run vs. Utah State in 1987 and an 84-yard TD run vs. Vanderbilt in 1984 — Higgs has shown he also has the speed to break the long gain.

Last season Higgs averaged 6.6 yards per carry to break the school record of 6.3, which he set as a freshman in 1984. Higgs also holds Kentucky marks for rushing average in a game (29.0, 4-116 vs. Rutgers in 1984) and in a career (5.4). In 1987 he had the best year ever by a Wildcat rusher by gaining 1,278 yards.

An honorable mention All-America and All-SEC second team pick last year, Higgs also is a fine receiver. In four years he caught 58 passes for 483 yards, including a career-high 20 receptions for 182 yards as a junior. In Kentucky's 10-3 win over Florida in 1986, Higgs caught six passes for 52 yards and rushed for 95 yards, including the game-winning TD on a one-yard plunge.

After seeing spot duty behind George Adams as a freshman, Higgs suffered a knee injury in spring drills in 1985. He recovered that fall to gain 611 yards rushing and catch 19 passes. He alternated with Ivy Joe Hunter in 1986.

A two-time All-America and all-state pick at Owensboro, Ky., High School, Higgs set state records with 6,721 yards rushing and 75 touchdowns in his career. As a senior he ran for 2,858 yards and 32 touchdowns with nine 200-yards games, including 297 yards against Boone County High School. As a junior he gained 325 yards against Owensboro Catholic High School. He majored in vocational industrial education at Kentucky.

BILLY OWENS • Defensive Back • Pittsburgh
Ht: 6-1 • Wt: 198 • Born: 12/12/65 • D-10

Billy Owens, Jr., grew up three blocks from the Syracuse University campus, where he attended basketball and football camps and was a ballboy for the Orangemen basketball team from 1977-80. However, when the time came to make a decision on college, Owens chose Pittsburgh over the hometown school.

The first Pittsburgh player to be drafted by Dallas since Tony Dorsett in 1977, Owens began his collegiate career as a running back. With limited playing time he averaged 8.3 yards per carry (14-116) as a freshman.

An honorable mention All-America and two-time All-East Coast pick, Owens redshirted the 1984 season due to a knee injury. The following spring, with great depth at running back, including Craig Heyward, the Pittsburgh coaches moved Owens to defensive back. He became the starting strong safety toward the end of the 1985 season.

Owens averaged 35.0 yards per interception return and took back three for touchdowns, from 43, 46 and 69 yards. His 69-yarder last year accounted for the only touchdown in the Panthers' 10-0 win over Penn State.

Against West Virginia last season, Owens recorded nine tackles, a sack and forced two fumbles, including the one that set up the winning field goal in Pittsburgh's 6-3 decision. In the Panthers' upset win over Notre Dame in 1987, Owens had a season-high 10 tackles. As a junior Owens had a career-high 16 tackles against North Carolina State.

As a part-time kickoff returner last year, Owens averaged 21.9 yards per return during the regular season. In the Bluebonnet Bowl against Texas, he returned five kicks for 117 yards including a 45-yarder to set up a touchdown.

An all-state football selection at Christian Brothers Academy in Syracuse, Owens also lettered in track and baseball. His father, Billy, Sr., played football at Hartwick College from 1961-65 and his brother, Duane, starred at wide receiver for Wake Forest from 1981-84. Billy earned his degree in information science from Pittsburgh and spent the 1987 season working toward his MBA.

CHAD HENNINGS • Defensive End • Air Force
Ht: 6-5 • Wt: 251 • Born: 10/20/65 • D-11

The good news is that the Cowboys drafted Chad Hennings, who in 1988 won the Outland Trophy, captured unanimous All-America honors, was the WAC defensive player of the year, and set a conference record for sacks in a season with 24. The bad news is Hennings has a military commitment of at least five years and possibly eight if he enrolls in flight school.

Dallas hopes Hennings follows in the footsteps of Roger Staubach, who served a five-year military commitment after graduating from Navy, joined Dallas as a 27-year-old rookie and led the team to four Super Bowls on his way to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Hennings doesn't hide his desire to play in the NFL, but he also wants to be a fighter pilot and realizes his commitment to the Air Force. "I'd like the opportunity to play professional football," said Hennings. "But I'm not going to go out of my way to cause any waves that would hurt the Air Force or my reputation."

In order to enter flight school, the two-time Academic All-America needed a waiver from the Air Force because he is two inches too tall. He also needed to lose weight because of the 242-pound weight limit.

After playing his freshman season as a 220-pound tight end, Hennings was moved to defensive line in spring drills in 1985. He earned honorable mention All-America and second-team All-WAC honors that season.

The following year he again was an honorable mention All-America and earned first-team All-WAC honors. Hennings led an Air Force defense that held Colorado State's All-America running back Steve Bartalo to 53 yards on 21 carries in 1986.

Against Wyoming in the 1987 season opener, Hennings put on a Superman performance with seven tackles, three sacks, one fumble recovery, one forced fumble and three batted passes, including one that was intercepted. He had a season-high 13 tackles against San Diego State and recorded 12 tackles and two sacks against both TCU and Notre Dame.

A native of tiny Elberon, Iowa (pop. 150), Hennings grew up on a 900-acre farm. He earned two-time all-state honors in football and was a state champion wrestler at Brenton Community High School. A former member of the 4-H club and the Future Farmers of America, Hennings majored in management at the Air Force Academy.

BEN HUMMEL ● Linebacker ● UCLA

Ht: 6-4 ● Wt: 234 ● Born: 8/22/66 ● D-12

Few football players have led a more confusing past two seasons than Ben Hummel. In 1986, after two years as a backup linebacker at SMU, Hummel was moved to defensive end, where he started 11 games and led the Mustangs in tackles for losses.

After SMU's football program was suspended, Hummel transferred to UCLA where he began the 1987 season as a backup outside linebacker. He started the final three games, including a 13-tackle performance against USC in the final regular-season contest.

Against Stanford, Hummel recorded a sack and returned an interception for a touchdown. He finished the year second on the Bruins with six sacks.

A highly sought-after recruit out of Rockwall High School (15 miles east of Dallas), Hummel chose SMU over Notre Dame. He is the first local player drafted by the Cowboys since Harvey Martin, who went to high school at South Oak Cliff in Dallas, was chosen in 1973.

Benjamin D. Hummel majored in political science at UCLA. His brother, Jon, was a freshman linebacker at Texas Tech in 1987.

Other Cowboys
With Pro Experience

RAY ALEXANDER, who signed with Dallas in 1987 after two seasons in the Canadian Football League, broke his left wrist in training camp and spent the '87 season on injured reserve. The 6-4, 190-pound wide receiver from Florida A&M finished second in the CFL in receiving yards (1,590) and third in catches (88) while playing for Calgary in 1986. He caught eight passes for 132 yards, 41 long and one touchdown in eight games with the Denver Broncos in 1984.

CURTIS BAHAM, a 5-11, 180-pound cornerback from Tulane, played three games with Seattle's replacement team last season. He originally signed as a free agent with Philadelphia in 1987 but was released in training camp. A four-year letterman at Tulane, Baham starred in football, baseball and track at Covington (La.) High School.

EVERETT GAY, the Cowboys fifth-round draft pick in 1987, spent the entire season on injured reserve after injuring an ankle in training camp. The 6-2, 204-pound wide receiver from Texas caught 49 passes for 789 yards in his collegiate career and led the Longhorns with 22 catches in 1985.

VICTOR JAMES, a 5-11, 190-pound running back from Colorado, was drafted in the 10th round by Buffalo as a defensive back in 1982 but was released in preseason. He played two seasons as a wide receiver in the USFL with Denver in 1983 and Chicago in 1984. A running back at Colorado, James rushed for 104 yards on 20 carries and caught 16 passes for 221 yards in two seasons.

HARPER LEBEL, who was drafted in the 12th round by Kansas City in 1985, was on San Diego's replacement roster for one game in 1987. The 6-4, 245-pound tight end caught 99 passes for 1,057 yards to finish fourth on Colorado State's all-time receiving list. He starred in track, football, baseball and basketball at Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks, Calif.

PAUL OSWALD, a 6-4, 275-pound center from Kansas, earned a spot on Pittsburgh's roster after the Steelers drafted him in the 11th round in 1987. He played in the first two games but was released after the seventh game. A two-year starter at center for the Jayhawks, Oswald played in the Blue-Gray Game following his senior year.

ROBERT SMITH, who was signed as a free agent by Dallas in 1987, broke his left arm in preseason and was on injured reserve for the year. The 6-7, 270-pound defensive end from Grambling came to the Cowboys after he was released by Minnesota before the start of the 1986 season. He played in 16 games as a reserve defensive end and tackle with the Vikings in 1985.

VERNICE SMITH, a 6-2, 275-pound guard from Florida A&M, signed as a free agent with Miami in 1987. He was released on the final cut of preseason. A three-year starter for the Rattlers, Smith played every offensive line position in college.

LEN STRANDLEY, who signed as a free agent with Seattle in 1987, was released by the Seahawks in training camp. The 5-11, 190-pound place-kicker from Cal State Fullerton made 34 of 41 extra point attempts and 17 of 29 field goal attempts for 85 points in two years with the Titans. Strandley transferred to Fullerton from the University of Washington.

CHARLES WRIGHT, who was drafted in the 10th round by St. Louis in 1987, played three games for the Cardinals last year. The 5-9, 178-pound corner-back from Tulsa was released following the seventh game of the season. A two-year starter at cornerback for Tulsa, Wright led the Hurricanes in interceptions in 1985 and 1986. He is the brother of Cleveland safety Felix Wright.

LUIS ZENDEJAS, a 5-9, 190-pound placekicker from Arizona State, played two games with Dallas in 1987. As part of the Cowboys replacement roster Zendejas made all 10 extra point attempts and three of four field goals, including a club season-long 50 yarder against Philadelphia (10/11). Zende-jas played one season for Arizona of the USFL making 36 of 41 extra points and 24 of 33 field goals. Part of the kicking Zendejas family, Luis Fernando attended Don Antonio Lugo High School in Chino, Calif.

Ring of Honor

The Cowboys honor former players who made outstanding contributions to the club by inducting them into the Ring of Honor at Texas Stadium. Their names and the years they played are prominently displayed in silver on the wall below the press box at Texas Stadium. Members of the Cowboys' Ring of Honor:

BOB LILLY, defensive tackle, 1961-74. Nicknamed "Mr. Cowboy," Bob Lilly was the franchise's first draft choice in 1961, the first name in the Ring of Honor in 1975 and its first inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1979. A seven-time All-Pro, Lilly was named to a club-record 11 Pro Bowls. He was a two-time All-SWC pick and an All-America at Texas Christian University before being drafted by Dallas.

DON MEREDITH, quarterback, 1960-68. Don Meredith led the Cowboys to their first winning season and their first NFL Championship Game in 1966. Signed by Clint Murchison, Jr., before Dallas was granted its NFL franchise, "Dandy Don" played in two Pro Bowls and was named NFL player of the year in 1966. A two-time All-America at SMU, Don's name was added to the Cowboys' Ring of Honor in 1976.

DON PERKINS, running back, 1961-68. Don Perkins was the first Cowboys player to rush for more than 6,000 yards. A six-time Pro Bowl selection, Perkins finished among the top ten NFL rushers in each of his eight seasons. He was named NFL rookie of the year in 1961 and All-Pro in 1962. Perkins was signed before Dallas was granted its NFL franchise. A three-time All-Skyline pick at New Mexico, he was inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1976.

CHUCK HOWLEY, linebacker, 1961-72. When Chuck Howley retired in 1973, Tom Landry said "I don't know that I've seen anybody better at linebacker than Howley." A six-time All-Pro, Howley was the most valuable player in Super Bowl V. The Cowboys traded for Howley, who was drafted by Chicago in 1958. He was All-America center at West Virginia. A six-time Pro Bowl selection, Howley was added to the Ring of Honor in 1977.

MEL RENFRO, defensive back, 1964-77. Mel Renfro was named to the Pro Bowl his first ten seasons in the NFL. He is the club's all-time interceptor with 52 and kickoff returner with a 26.4-yard career average. Renfro was drafted in the second round in 1964 after a career as an All-America halfback and world class sprinter at Oregon. A five-time All-Pro, Renfro was inducted into the Cowboys' Ring of Honor in 1981.

ROGER STAUBACH, quarterback, 1969-79. Roger Staubach led the Cowboys to six NFC Championship Games, four Super Bowls and two Super Bowl titles. A great clutch performer, Staubach led Dallas to comeback victories 23 times, 14 in the last two minutes or overtime. A five-time Pro Bowler, he was drafted by Dallas in 1964 after winning the Heisman Trophy and Maxwell Award at the Naval Academy. Inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1983, Roger was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1985.

"Blueprint For Victory"

The NFL Films production of "Blueprint For Victory," the new Cowboys highlights film, is available to groups free of charge from the Cowboys or GTE.

The 30-minute, 16mm sound and color movie tells the story of the Cowboys' 1987 season and looks ahead with Coach Tom Landry to the team's prospects for 1988.

"Blueprint for Victory" is the 22nd consecutive Cowboys highlights film produced and directed by Bob Ryan, vice president and editor in chief of NFL Films, based in Mt. Laurel, N.J., outside Philadelphia.

"Blueprint for Victory" is sponsored by GTE and may be obtained on film or videotape by calling the Cowboys at 214/556-9900 or GTE at 659-5858.

Historical Highlights
1960

NFL FRANCHISE — Clint Murchison, Jr., and Bedford Wynne were awarded an expansion franchise in the NFL at the annual league meeting in Miami Beach, Fla. The Cowboys were to play as a "swing" team, playing every other team one time during the first season, although listed in the Western Conference standings (January 28).

COWBOYS STOCKED — A player pool was set up in a league meeting at L.A., with each of 12 NFL teams freezing 25 names on its roster and the Cowboys allowed to pick three from each team for a total of 36 veterans. Dallas, once given the list, had to select its 36 players within 24 hours (March 13).

TRAINING STARTS — Rookies report to first Cowboys camp at Pacific U., in Forest Grove, Oregon (July 9).

FIRST PRE-SEASON GAME — The Cowboys, less than six months in existence, get their first test and drop a 16-10 pre-season game to San Francisco in Seattle (August 6).

FIRST HOME GAME — In their Dallas debut, in the Salesmanship Club preseason game, the Cowboys led the world champion Baltimore Colts into the final minute before a 62-yard pass from Johnny Unitas to Lenny Moore gave the Colts a 14-10 victory (August 19).

FIRST VICTORY — In a preseason game at Louisville, Ky., the Cowboys beat New York's Giants, 14-3, with Frank Clarke catching touchdown passes of 73 yards (Eddie LeBaron) and 74 yards (Don Meredith) (August 27).

FIRST LEAGUE GAME — In their first league game, Dallas fell to Pittsburgh, 35-28, with Bobby Layne leading a fourth-period Steeler rally (Sept. 24, Saturday night).

STREAK SNAPPED — Dallas snaps a 20-game loss streak by tying New York, 31-31, at Yankee Stadium (Dec. 4).

TRAINING STARTS — Rookies launch training at new campsite — St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. (July 9).

FIRST LEAGUE WIN — Scoring ten points in the final 56 seconds, the Cowboys score their first NFL victory, 27-24, over Pittsburgh in the '61 league opener in the Cotton Bowl. Allen Green's 27-yard field goal on the game's final play won it before 23,500 (Sept. 17).

1962

TRAINING STARTS — Team begins training at new campsite — Northern Michigan College in Marquette, Mich. (July 13).

PENALTY HISTORY — For the first time in anyone's memory in an NFL game, points were awarded for a penalty. The Cowboys were detected holding in the end zone on a 99-yd. TD pass from LeBaron to Clarke, and Pittsburgh was awarded a safety. The Steelers eventually won, 30-28 (Sept. 23).

100-YARD FIRSTS — Cowboys' Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter returned a pass interception 100 yards, both plays for fourth-quarter TDs in a 41-19 win over Philadelphia in Dallas. It was the first time in NFL history that two 100-yard runs had been made in the same game, much less by the same team in the same quarter. (Oct. 14).

1963

SHIFT TO KANSAS CITY — The rival Dallas Texans of the AFL announce they are moving the franchise to Kansas City (Feb. 8).

160

CALIFORNIA TRAINING SITE — The Cowboys open training at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, Calif. (July 12).

HOWTON SETS RECORD — Bill Howton broke Don Hutson's all-time receiving mark with a 14-yard catch against Washington (there). Hutson's record was 7,991 yards and the catch gave Howton an even 8,000 yards (Sept. 29).

1964

LANDRY CONTRACT — With one year to go on his original contract, Tom Landry is signed to a ten-year extension, in effect giving him an 11-year pact, possibly the longest in major pro sports history (Feb. 5).

1965

FIRST SELLOUT — An overflow crowd of 76,251 jams the Cotton Bowl for the Cleveland game, notching the team's first home sellout. Cleveland won, 24-17 (Nov. 21).

1966

PLAYOFF BOWL — After defeating New York, 38-20, in the season finale (and winning five of their last seven games) to get into the Playoff Bowl at Miami, the Cowboys fall to Baltimore, 35-3 (Jan. 15).

MERGER — Peace comes to pro football with Cowboys GM Tex Schramm completing two months of negotiations with AFL's Lamar Hunt, merging the two leagues under the NFL banner (June 8).

SCHRAMM ELEVATED — Texas E. Schramm, Vice-President and General Manager of the Cowboys from the beginning, was named President of the club by owner Clint Murchison, Jr., who retained the title of Chairman of the Board.

NEELY CASE SOLVED — Dallas and Houston reached agreement in the Ralph Neely case. Neely remained with Dallas with Houston receiving the Cowboys Nos. 1, 2 and two fifth place picks in the 1967 draft (Nov. 17).

THE CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys won their first championship, capturing the Eastern Conference title with a 10-3-1 record, but lost the NFL Championship Game to Green Bay, 34-27.

TEXAS STADIUM — On Dec. 23, owner Clint Murchison, Jr., formally announced plans to build Texas Stadium in suburban Irving. The stadium, to be financed through a bond-option plan, would be ready for the 1970 season. The stadium would seat a minimum of 58,000.

SECOND CHAMPIONSHIP — Under the NFL's new format, the Cowboys easily won the Capitol Division and defeated Cleveland, Century Division winner, 52-14, in the Cotton Bowl for the Eastern conference championship. However, on Dec. 31 in Green Bay, the Cowboys lost their second bid for an NFL title, falling to the Packers, 21-17, in the 13 degree below weather.

1968

WIN CAPITOL — For the second straight year the Cowboys won the Capitol Division, but for the first time in three years the Cowboys did not win the Eastern Championship, being upset at Cleveland, 31-20, on December 21st. Dallas won the Runner-Up Bowl over Minnesota, 17-13.

1969

TEXAS STADIUM — Ground was broken for Texas Stadium in suburban Irving on January 25, and on June 29 Bert Rose was named general manager of the stadium.

ORIGINALS RETIRE — An era ended for the Cowboys in July. On July 5th at a press conference in Dallas, quarterback Don Meredith, the last of the original Cowboys, announced his retirement. Then, on July 18th, the day the veterans were to report to training camp, all-time rushing great Don Perkins officially retired.

REPEAT CAPITOL WINS — Once again the Cowboys rolled to the Capitol Division Championship with an 11-2-1 season. However, the Cowboys failed to win the Eastern Championship when on Dec. 28, the Cowboys lost to Cleveland, 38-14, in the Cotton Bowl.

FIVE STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last five games to finish 10-4, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the fifth year in a row. They defeated Detroit, 5-0, in the opening round to get a shot at the National Conference championship.

FIRST NFC TITLE — The Cowboys captured the biggest prize of their 11-year history on Jan. 3 when they downed San Francisco, 17-10, for the NFC crown. A 16-13 loss to Baltimore in the Super Bowl Jan. 17 left Dallas with one major goal still unrealized.

TEXAS STADIUM — The Cowboys opened a new era in their sparkling Irving, Tex., home with a 44-21 victory over the New England Patriots on October 24. Duane Thomas scored the first touchdown in the new stadium, a 56-yard run just two minutes and 16 seconds after the opening kickoff. Attendance was 65,708.

SIX STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last seven games to finish 11-3, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the sixth year in a row. They defeated Minnesota, 20-12, in the opening round.

SECOND NFC TITLE — For the second consecutive year, the Cowboys met the San Francisco 49ers in the National Conference showdown. This time Dallas won, 14-3, to qualify for its second straight Super Bowl.

FIRST WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys downed the Miami Dolphins, 24-3, to win Super Bowl VI in New Orleans on Jan. 16. It was the 10th victory in a row for Dallas as Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns and was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

FIRST 1,000-YARD BACK — Calvin Hill became the first Dallas player to rush for 1,000 yards when he gained 111 on Dec. 9 against the Washington Redskins in Texas Stadium. Hill wound up with 1,036 yards for the season on a record 245 carries.

SEVEN STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys qualified for the NFL playoffs a record seventh consecutive year, their 10-4 record earning them the National Conference Wild Card berth. Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns in the last 1½ minutes to give the Cowboys a 30-28 victory at San Francisco in the first round. Then, at Washington on New Year's Eve, Dallas was foiled in its bid for a third straight NFL title when the Redskins won, 26-3.

100 VICTORIES — The Cowboys and Coach Tom Landry recorded their 100th victory with a 40-3 Texas Stadium win over the New Orleans Saints on Sept. 24. Landry, the only head coach the Cowboys have had, ended the season with a career mark of 108-80-6 to rank ninth on the list of the NFL's all-time winningest coaches.

EIGHT STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division title with a 10-4 record and broke their own NFL record by reaching the playoffs for the eighth year in a row. Dallas defeated Western Division champion Los Angeles in the first round, 27-16, but fell to Central Division winner Minnesota in the NFC Championship Game, 27-10.

1974

FIRST TOP DRAFT CHOICE — For the first time in their history, the Cowboys had the very first choice in the NFL college draft. The No. 1 pick came to Dallas from Houston in exchange for Tody Smith and Billy Parks. The Cowboys selected Ed "Too Tall" Jones, a 6-9, 260-pound defensive end from Tennessee State.

PLAYOFFS MISSED — The Cowboys' record-breaking string of eight straight years in the NFL playoffs was broken when the club's 8-6 record failed to qualify.

LILLY HONORED — "Mr. Cowboy" was honored on Bob Lilly Day at Texas Stadium at halftime of the Philadelphia game on Nov. 23. It was the first such recognition ever given to a Dallas player. Lilly never missed a game in 14 years with the Cowboys, earning All-Pro honors seven times at defensive tackle before retiring prior to the '75 season.

TEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys' 10-4 record earned them the NFC Wild Card berth in the playoffs. The composite record over 10 straight winning seasons was 101-37-2.

THIRD NFC TITLE — After shocking Minnesota in the first round, 17-14 on Roger Staubach's 50-yard "Hail Mary" pass to Drew Pearson, the Cowboys traveled to Los Angeles for the NFC showdown. Staubach threw four touchdown passes, three to Preston Pearson, and Dallas won, 37-7. Pittsburgh won Super Bowl X on Jan. 18 in Miami, 21-17.

1976

MEREDITH, PERKINS HONORED — Former Cowboys greats Don Meredith and Don Perkins joined Bob Lilly in the "Ring of Honor" at Texas Stadium during halftime ceremonies at the New York Giants game on Nov. 7.

ELEVEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys won the NFC Eastern Division title with their 11-3 record, giving them their 11th straight winning season and 10th playoff berth in that period. A 14-12 first round loss to Los Angeles — the first time Dallas had lost in the first round under the current playoff setup — ended the season.

1977

HOWLEY HONORED — Former All-Pro linebacker Chuck Howley, a Cowboy from 1961 through 1973, became the fourth member of the Ring of Honor. Howley was honored during ceremonies at halftime of the Detroit Lions game on Oct. 30.

TWELVE STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — Getting off to an 8-0 start, their best ever, the Cowboys rolled to a 12-2 record, the championship of the NFC East, and their 12th consecutive winning season. They opened their 11th visit to the playoffs in those 12 years with a 37-7 first-round victory over the Chicago Bears at Texas Stadium.

FOURTH NFC TITLE — Dallas crushed the Minnesota Vikings at Texas Stadium, 23-6, for National Conference crown No. 4 and the right to meet the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XII.

SECOND WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys stopped the Denver Broncos, 27-10, to win Super Bowl XII in New Orleans on January 15, 1978. In the process, Dallas tied Minnesota for most Super Bowl appearances (four) and Green Bay, Miami and Pittsburgh for most Super Bowl victories (two). Defensive linemen Harvey Martin and Randy White were named co-Most Valuable Players in the game.

THIRTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — After a mediocre 6-4 start, the Cowboys won six straight games to finish the expanded regular season with a 12-4 record and their 10th division crown. It marked the Cowboys' 13th consecutive winning season and 12th trip to the playoffs in that span. Dallas rallied to beat Atlanta 27-20 in a divisional playoff at Texas Stadium, sending the Cowboys to their seventh NFC championship game in the past nine years.

FIFTH NFC TITLE — Dallas shut out the Rams in Los Angeles 28-0 in the National Conference title game to advance to the Super Bowl a record fifth time, including three of the last four. In the first Super Bowl rematch, Pittsburgh edged the Cowboys 35-31 for the NFL championship on Jan. 21 in Miami's Orange Bowl.

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY — The Cowboys celebrated their 20th anniversary season at halftime of the St. Louis Cardinals game at Texas Stadium on Oct. 21. Stars from each of those 20 seasons plus Coach Tom Landry were introduced during the halftime ceremonies.

FOURTH STRAIGHT NFC EAST TITLE — Rallying from a mid-season slump, the Cowboys won their final three games to finish with an 11-5 record, their 11th division championship, including the past four NFC East titles, and 14th consecutive winning season. The Cowboys made their 13th trip to the playoffs in those 14 years, but were eliminated by Los Angeles 21-19 in a divisional playoff at Texas Stadium.

STAUBACH RETIRES — At a press conference at Texas Stadium on March 31, quarterback Roger Staubach announced his retirement after 11 record-breaking years with the Cowboys. Staubach held all major Cowboys' passing records and was the all-time leading NFL passer.

LILLY ENTERS HALL OF FAME — Bob Lilly, a seven-time All-Pro defensive tackle in his 14-year career with the Cowboys from 1961-74, became the first Cowboys' only player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Enshrined along with Lilly on Aug. 2 at Canton, Ohio, were Herb Adderley, who played for the Cowboys from 1970-72, Jim Otto and Deacon Jones.

FIFTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — Behind new starting quarterback Danny White, the Cowboys rolled to their 15th consecutive winning season with a surprising 12-4 record, tied for best in the league with Philadelphia and Atlanta. The Cowboys lost the NFC East title to Philadelphia on a tie-breaker, but entered the playoffs for the 14th game in 15 years, this time as a wild card team. The Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game and rallied past the Falcons at Atlanta 30-27 to advance to the NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia. But the Cowboys lost 20-7 in their bid for a sixth Super Bowl appearance.

LANDRY'S 200th VICTORY — Tom Landry joined George Halas and Curly Lambeau as the only coaches with 200 NFL victories when the Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 on Dec. 28 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game, raising Landry's record to 200-119-6, counting regular season and playoff games.

RENFRO HONORED — Former All-Pro defensive back Mel Renfro, the Cowboys' all-time leading pass interceptor, became the fifth member of the Cowboys' Ring of Honor. Renfro, who played for Dallas from 1964 through 1977, was honored during halftime ceremonies of the Cowboys-Miami Dolphins game at Texas Stadium Oct. 25.

TWELFTH DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division Championship, their 12th division title since 1966, with a 12-4 record and tied Oakland's NFL mark of 16 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for the 15th time in that span, the Cowboys advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the ninth time in 12 years by routing Tampa Bay 38-0 at Texas Stadium. But for the second year in a row Dallas lost the conference title game. San Francisco scored a last-minute touchdown at Candlestick Park to edge the Cowboys 28-27 for a berth in Super Bowl XVI.

200TH REGULAR-SEASON VICTORY — The Cowboys beat Washington 24-10 at RFK Stadium on Dec. 5 for the club's and Coach Tom Landry's 200th regular-season victory.

SEVENTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys finished the strike-shortened regular season with a 6-3 record to establish an NFL record of 17 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for a record-tying eighth straight year and for the 16th time in 17 years, the Cowboys beat Tampa Bay 30-17 and Green Bay 37-26, both at Texas Stadium, to advance to the NFC Championship Game for the third year in a row. But again the Cowboys come up short, losing 31-17 at Washington.

STAUBACH HONORED — Former quarterback Roger Staubach, who led the Cowboys to four Super Bowls, became the sixth member of the Ring of Honor during halftime ceremonies of the Cowboys-Tampa Bay game on Oct. 9.

NEW HEADQUARTERS — Ground was broken on Nov. 29 for the Cowboys' new headquarters and training facility at The Valley Ranch in northwest Dallas County.

EIGHTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys extended their NFL record to 18 consecutive winning seasons with a 12-4 finish. The club also set a league record with its ninth straight playoff appearance, qualifying as a wild card entry. The Los Angeles Rams eliminated the Cowboys from the playoffs, however, with a 24-17 upset victory at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game on Dec. 26.

SILVER SEASON — The Cowboys kicked off their 25th anniversary with a news conference at Texas Stadium on Jan. 27. Club President Tex Schramm announced the Cowboys would celebrate their 25th anniversary during 1984 under the theme "Silver Season."

OWNERSHIP CHANGES HANDS — The sale of the Cowboys from the Murchison family to an 11-member limited partnership headed by Dallas businessman H. R. "Bum" Bright was approved by NFL owners on March 19 at the league's annual meeting in Honolulu. The sale was completed on May 18.

COWBOYS CENTER — The Cowboys and Triland International announced plans on March 27 for Cowboys Center, an innovative joint venture that will develop business opportunities in a conference center, Cowboys ShowPlace, athletic club, sports arena, office park, housing, and retail and restaurant outlets on 200 acres at The Valley Ranch, adjacent to the Cowboys' new headquarters.

NINETEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys defeated the Eagles 26-10 in Philadelphia to extend their NFL record to 19 consecutive winning seasons. The Cowboys finished 9-7 and missed the playoffs for the first time in 10 years and only the second time in 19 years.

STAUBACH ENTERS HALL OF FAME — Roger Staubach, the master of the comeback victory during his 11-year career as a Cowboys quarterback, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. Enshrined with Staubach on Aug. 3 at Canton, Ohio, were Pete Rozelle, Joe Namath, O. J. Simpson and Frank Gatski. Staubach joined Bob Lilly as the only players who spent their entire career with the Cowboys to be elected to the Hall of Fame.

TEXAS STADIUM IMPROVEMENTS — Texas Stadium unveiled a new look when the Cowboys opened their preseason schedule against Green Bay on Aug. 10. The stadium became the first to have two DiamondVision color scoreboards, and the addition of 118 Crown Suites gave Texas Stadium more private suites, 296, than any stadium in the nation.

COWBOYS RANCH OPENS — Cowboys players and coaches reported on Aug. 27 to the team's new headquarters and training facility at Cowboys Center in Valley Ranch.

DORSETT PASSES 10,000 YARDS — On a 19-yard sweep around left end, Tony Dorsett became the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 10,000 yards. Dorsett's feat highlighted a 27-13 victory over Pittsburgh at Texas Stadium on Oct. 13.

THIRTEENTH DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys edged the New York Giants 28-21 on Dec. 15 at Texas Stadium to capture the NFC Eastern Division championship for the first time since 1981. Picked in most season previews to finish third or fourth in the division, the Cowboys rallied for their NFL record 20th consecutive winning season, a 13th division title in 20 years and a playoff berth for the 18th time in that span. But in their NFL record 36th playoff game appearance, the Cowboys fell 20-0 to the Los Angeles Rams in Anaheim Stadium on Jan. 4.

COWBOYS GO TO LONDON — The Cowboys began preparations for their first trip to a foreign country when the NFL announced on March 12 that the Cowboys would play the Super Bowl champion Chicago Bears in a preseason game at London's Wembley Stadium on Aug. 3.

100TH WIN AT TEXAS STADIUM — Dallas defeats St. Louis 37-6 for the club's 100th victory at Texas Stadium. Since the facility opened in 1971 the Cowboys have compiled a 100-25 (.800) record.

STREAK BROKEN — The Cowboys' streak of 20 consecutive winning seasons from 1966 through 1985, third longest in professional sports history, came to an end when the club finished with a 7-9 record after losing seven of its last eight games. Only baseball's New York Yankees (39 straight winning seasons, 1926-64) and hockey's Montreal Canadiens (32 from 1951-52 through 1982-83) surpassed the Cowboys' accomplishment. After the 1986 season, the Washington Redskins' five straight winning campaigns (1982-86) represented the NFL's longest active streak.

FOUNDER DIES — Cowboys founder Clint Murchison, Jr., died March 30 after a long illness. Murchison, 63, who owned the club until 1984, acquired the expansion Dallas franchise in the NFL in 1960. He hired Tex Schramm as general manager, gave Tom Landry a 10-year contract when his coaching career was in doubt in 1964 and was instrumental in the building of Texas Stadium.

DORSETT GETS 12,000 YARDS — Tony Dorsett became just the fourth rusher in NFL history to gain more than 12,000 yards when he registered 52 yards against the Rams on Dec. 21 for a career total of 12,036. The only runners left ahead of Dorsett were Walter Payton, Jim Brown and Franco Harris.

1988
DORSETT TRADED — Tony Dorsett, after 11 years with the Cowboys, was traded to the Denver Broncos on June 3 for a 1989 draft choice ranging from a fifth to a first depending on his 1988 performance in Denver.

COWBOYS CENTER

When Cowboys Center is completed, it will join the Cowboys, their fans and the business community in a unique setting on 200 acres in Valley Ranch, a 2,500-acre, master-planned commercial and residential community in northwest Dallas County.

Called "Emerald City for the Cowboys" in a Sept. 2, 1985 story in Newsweek, plans for Cowboys Center call for Cowboys ShowPlace, a hotel-conference center, tennis club, sports medicine clinic, retail and restaurant pavilion and office park to be added to the already existing Cowboys headquarters and North Texas Ice Arena.

The focus of Cowboys Center will be Cowboys Ranch and Cowboys Show-Place, giving the club an ideal working environment and Cowboys fans a wide range of opportunities to interact with the team.

COWBOYS RANCH:

The Cowboys moved into their state-of-the-art headquarters and training facility in August 1985. The complex includes three grass football fields, locker and training room facilities, meeting rooms, weight training and exercise areas, running trails, racquetball, basketball and tennis courts and a video lab. All coaching, scouting and administrative offices are located in the 80,000-square foot structure of Arizona sandstone, along with a ticket office, souvenir shop, Dallas Cowboys Travel Agency, Cowboys Cheerleaders Dance Academy, offices for the Cowboys Weekly, a press room with a research library, a television studio plus a variety of lounge areas. Tours are available (see page 172.)

COWBOYS SHOWPLACE:

The crown jewel of Cowboys Center, Cowboys ShowPlace will enable fans to spend an unforgettable day with the Cowboys through exhibits utilizing sight, sound and touch. Fans will enter ShowPlace through a seven-story glass star and a sculpture garden of 10-foot high football players in the foreground. Laser-disc projection, interactive videos, holograms and a Magic Motion Machine are some of the 80 planned attractions. The variety of displays and innovative gadgetry will make ShowPlace a must for all football fans.

Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders

When the Cowboys introduced the 'new' Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders at Texas Stadium in 1972, they wanted to have a bright new look on the playing field and add another form of entertainment for the football fan. Little did they know that they were starting something that one day would become what is now considered a phenomenon.

Those who participated in the Cheerleaders' formation couldn't have foreseen what would happen on a sunny day in Miami four years later when, at Super Bowl X, the cheerleaders would capture the imagination of a nation. With a stroke of luck and a winning football team it all came together.

The phenomenon, however, has not been restricted to Texas Stadium and the television eye that has carried their image across the country. Armed Forces in remote outposts throughout the world, children and veterans in hospital wards plus state fair and college audiences have all experienced the difference these ladies make in the world in which they live.

Cowboys on Television

"Dallas Cowboys Weekly"

Cowboys President Tex Schramm and co-host Lee Martin began their 11th season in 1988 bringing Cowboys fans the inside story on the team through the "Dallas Cowboys Weekly" television show. This popular look at the Cowboys is presented in a lively, half-hour, magazine-style format every week during the season from training camp through the playoffs. Produced and syndicated by Lee Martin Productions, "Dallas Cowboys Weekly" is seen on a regional network of 36 stations in eight states plus Washington, D.C., the largest network in the nation for a show about a sports team.

"The Tom Landry Show"

Coach Tom Landry gives fans a personal analysis of his team every week from the opening of the regular season through the playoffs in "The Tom Landry Show." Landry and host Brad Sham provide a video-taped review of each week's Cowboys game, a preview of the upcoming opponent, special features and interviews plus predictions of upcoming NFL games. The show is produced and syndicated by Lee Martin Productions and seen on more stations, 36 in eight states, than any coaches' show in the nation.
