FRONT OFFICE

JERRY JONES

Owner
President
General Manager

In one of the most dramatic eras of ownership in professional sports, Jerry Jones' stewardship of the Dallas Cowboys has brought unprecedented results and success to one of the world's most popular sports entities.

Aside from being one of just two current owners to guide their franchises to at least three Super Bowl titles, Jones' efforts in the areas of sports marketing, promotion and the development of Cowboys Stadium have created a vivid imprint on the landscape of the NFL and the American sports culture.

Highlighted by Super Bowl victories following the 1992, 1993 and 1995 seasons, Jones became the first owner in NFL history to guide his team to three league championships in his first seven years of ownership. In 1995 Dallas also became the first team in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in four seasons while tying the then-NFL record for most Super Bowl victories by an organization with five.

The first decade of Jones' ownership closed with eight playoff appearances, six division titles, four conference championship game appearances and three world crowns as the Cowboys were named the NFL's Team of the 1990s. Dallas closed the first decade of the new millennium with division titles in 2007 and 2009 while the 2009 club secured the 11th playoff appearance in Jones' 23 seasons of leadership.

Along with the success of the Dallas Cowboys on the field, Jones' vision and leadership provided the driving influence behind the concept, design and construction of Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas - a venue that is recognized internationally as perhaps the most spectacular and state-of-the-art sports stadium in the world.

Opened to the public in May of 2009, Cowboys Stadium's dramatic first season of operation resulted in the venue being named the Sports Facility of the Year by the Sports Business Journal in May of 2010. Along with that achievement for the team's new home, Jones was also named the 2009 Sports Executive of the Year by the SBJ.

The 100,000-plus seat Cowboys Stadium established the attendance record for an NFL regular season game as 105,121 witnessed the September 20, 2009 home opener, while the 108,713 who attended the NBA All-Star Game on February 14, 2010 became the largest crowd to witness a basketball game in the history of the sport.

In just over three years of operation, more than five million fans have attended events that included high school and collegiate football, major college basketball, professional bull riding, Motocross, world championship boxing and concerts that featured world renowned recording artists. Nearly 1.5 million other visitors have passed through the twelve-story high doors of the stadium for daily public tours of the venue.

With its architectural versatility and cutting edge media capabilities, Cowboys Stadium has become a visible beacon that has established North Texas as a major focal point on the sports and entertainment canvas of North America.

The brilliant home of the Cowboys has become a powerful catalyst in attracting a wide range of national and international events that will define the future of the region for generations to come. After already playing host to Super Bowl XLV in February of 2011, other top flight events for the future include the annual AT&T Cotton Bowl, the 2014 NCAA Final Four in men's basketball, the Texas A&M-Arkansas football Southwest Classic and the annual "Cowboys Classic" collegiate football series just to name a few.

Since he took over as general manager in 1989, the Cowboys have drafted 25 different players who have gone on to appear in a combined total of 97 Pro Bowls. Dallas has also signed 11 free agent players who have made 28 Pro Bowl appearances while representing the Dallas Cowboys. Since 1989 the Cowboys have made 129 trades, the most celebrated of which was the 1989 deal that sent Herschel Walker to the Minnesota Vikings and provided the personnel foundation for three league titles.

In selecting the on-the-field leadership for the Cowboys, Jones hired a pair of coaches who won three Super Bowls in Dallas: Jimmy Johnson (1992-1993) and Barry Switzer (1995). Chan Gailey followed with a division title and playoff appearances in 1998 and 1999. In 2003 Jones successfully recruited two-time Super Bowl winner Bill Parcells to Dallas, and Parcells directed the team to three winning seasons and two playoff trips in four years. In February of 2007, Jones added another successful NFL head coach in Wade Phillips, who guided the club to a pair of division titles in his first three years (2007 and 2009) and a playoff victory in 2009. In 2011 Jones named Jason Garrett as the team's eighth head coach after the former Cowboys quarterback guided the club to a 5-3 record as the interim coach in the second half of the 2010 season.

In the last 34 years, 35 different owners have entered the National Football League. Of that group, only Jerry Jones and Robert Kraft of New England have guided their franchises to more than two Super Bowl championships. Moreover, Jones joins Art Rooney, Jack Kent Cooke, Al Davis, Eddie DeBartolo and Kraft as the only men to have won at least three Super Bowls as NFL owners.

On the league front, he actively contributes his vision and enthusiasm to enhancing the NFL's status as the world's premier professional sports league by serving on a wide range of league committees. In 2011 he was very involved – as a member of the Management Council Executive Committee – in the labor negotiations that resulted in the most recent Collective Bargaining Agreement between the NFL and its players. In addition to the CEC, Jones is currently the Chairman of the NFL Network Committee, and he is a member of the NFL Broadcasting Committee, the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee and the Health and Safety Advisory Committee.

Jones also served on the committee that was charged with overseeing the search for a successor to retired NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue – a process that successfully landed current NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell in September of 2006. In addition, Jones has served two prior terms as a member of the NFL's Competition Committee as well as a stint on the Business Ventures Committee.

His contributions and innovations in the areas of marketing, corporate sponsorships, television, stadium management, stadium development, labor negotiations and community service have made a visible imprint on the ever evolving face of professional sports in America. Since becoming involved with the Cowboys, Jones' accomplishments have been recognized through his induction into the Boys and Girls Clubs of America Hall of Fame, the Texas Sports Hall of Fame (2007), the Texas Business Hall of Fame (2005), the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame (1999) and the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame (1998). In July of 2012, Jones was recognized as the Lifetime Achievement Award recipient by the Arkansas Sportscasters and Sportswriters Hall of Fame. In August of 2007, he served as the presenter for Michael Irvin's induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame – a recognition he was also named for by Emmitt Smith as the NFL's all-time leading rusher was enshrined in Canton in August of 2010.

As a co-captain of the 1964 National Championship Arkansas Razorbacks, Jones is one of a very small number of NFL owners who actually earned a significant level of success as a football player. He is the only man in the history of the National Football League to play for a collegiate national championship football team and own a Super Bowl winner. In addition, Jones and the legendary George Halas are the only two men to become NFL owners after playing in a major college football bowl game. His current ties to the college game include membership on the Board of Directors for the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame.

A man of varied interests who will not rest on yesterday's achievements - he is a dedicated businessman and family man - sharing a vivid enthusiasm for both. Although Jones and his family are very involved in numerous civic and charitable causes, the Joneses have left an indelible local and national impression on the philanthropic landscape with their love and dedication to The Salvation Army.

For the past 15 seasons, the Jones family has dedicated the Cowboys Thanksgiving Day halftime show as a national showcase to kick off The Salvation Army's annual Red Kettle Drive. Through the donation of national television air-time, the event has created a holiday tradition, while helping to increase donations to The Salvation Army's annual fund raising efforts by hundreds of millions of dollars. Major George Hood of The Salvation Army states that "by presenting the National Kettle Kickoff on Thanksgiving Day, the Dallas Cowboys have helped The Army raise over one billion dollars in the past 15 years." Reba McEntire, Randy Travis, Clint Black, Jessica Simpson, Billy Gilman, Creed, LeAnn Rimes, Toby Keith, Destiny's Child, Sheryl Crow, Carrie Underwood, Kelly Clarkson, The Jonas Brothers, Daughtry, Keith Urban and Enrique Iglesias have provided the entertainment for the holiday extravaganzas.

The Salvation Army points to the annual Cowboys kickoff event as one of the most effective, creative and important innovations that has been developed in the long and storied history of the organization.

The Joneses received the Evangeline Booth Award in 1999, one of The Army's highest national community service awards and have been selected for membership into the prestigious Salvation Army William Booth Society. Gene and Jerry were also named to the Army's National Advisory Board in April of 1998 shortly after being named the organization's Partners of the Year in 1997. In April of 2007, Gene and Jerry Jones served as the honorary chairpersons for The Salvation Army's National Advisory Organizations Conference (NAOC) that was held in Dallas.

For 10 years, Gene and Jerry Jones served as hosts and underwrote the costs for the Super Lunch, a fundraising event for The Salvation Army Irving Corps Community Center. In 1998 the Gene and Jerry Jones Family Center for Children opened in conjunction with The Army.

As part of the Jones Family and the Dallas Cowboys commitment to Arlington, Texas, the home of the club's stadium, Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities will donate a total of $16.5 million to non-profit organizations serving youth in Arlington from 2009-2041.

In 2001 the Joneses were awarded the Chairman's Award by The Boys and Girls Clubs of America. In June of 2002, Gene and Jerry Jones were recognized as the recipients of the Children's Champion Award for Philanthropy that was presented by the Dallas for Children organization. In 2003 the Family Gateway organization of Dallas presented Gene and Jerry with the Annette G. Strauss Humanitarian Award. In April of 2005, Gene and Jerry were recipients of the Hope Award, the highest community service recognition awarded by the Lone Star Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. In 2010 the Jones Family and the Cowboys were selected by The Boys and Girls Clubs of America to receive the prestigious Chairman's Award that recognized the Cowboys long and dedicated history of supporting that organization.

The Jones family is very involved with several other community-related organizations, including Children's Medical Center of Dallas, Happy Hill Farm Academy/Home, the National Board for The Boys and Girls Clubs of America, the Kent Waldrep Paralysis Foundation, The Rise School of Dallas, The Family Place and The Family Gateway. In 2010 the Jones family endowed the North Texas Youth Education Town with a $1 million grant. Created as a lasting legacy of Super Bowl XLV, the North Texas YET will be administered by The Salvation Army and provide North Texas youth with education, mentoring, fitness and character enrichment programs.

Jerry (10/13/42) and Gene live in Dallas. They have three children, Stephen, Charlotte and Jerry, Jr., and nine grandchildren.

Stephen (6/21/64) is a graduate of the University of Arkansas and serves as the Cowboys Chief Operating Officer/Executive Vice President/Director of Player Personnel. Charlotte (7/26/66) is a Stanford graduate and serves as the Cowboys Executive Vice President/VP of Brand Management/President Charity Foundation. Jerry Jr. (9/27/69), a graduate of Georgetown University who earned his law degree from Southern Methodist University, is the Cowboys Executive Vice President/Chief Sales and Marketing Officer.

Chronology Since 1989:

February 25, 1989 – Jones purchases the Dallas Cowboys and the lease to manage Texas Stadium from H.R. "Bum" Bright. Jerry Jones names Jimmy Johnson as the new head coach.

April 20, 1989 – Jones completes negotiations on Troy Aikman's contract – a six-year deal that is completed four days before Aikman is the top overall selection in the 1989 NFL Draft.

With 23 years of NFL experience, Stephen Jones has established himself as one of the brightest and most versatile executives in professional sports. Recognized as Owner Jerry Jones' right-hand man, Stephen is the Cowboys Chief Operating Officer /Executive Vice President, as well as Player Personnel Director and President of Cowboys Stadium.

He oversees all elements of the scouting and player personnel departments for the Cowboys as well as all aspects of the stadium management operation. His work involves managing the organization's 400-plus employees, while also overseeing the club's salary cap and all major player contract concerns. He is also active in the recruitment - and management - of all major events that come to Cowboys Stadium. Jones' experience as a major college football player and his years as one of the NFL's top executives were instrumental in his recent appointment to the League's prestigious Competition Committee.

Jones spearheaded the club's new stadium efforts, overseeing every element of the development and construction of the venue while also working closely with local government, community and business leaders. He was directly responsible for the club's successful referendum campaign in the fall of 2004 that saw the City of Arlington agree to join forces with the Cowboys in building a new state-of-the-art stadium.

Opened to the public in May of 2009, Cowboys Stadium's dramatic first season of operation resulted in the venue being named the Sports Facility of the Year by the Sports Business Journal in May of 2010.

The 100,000-plus seat Cowboys Stadium established the attendance record for an NFL regular season game as 105,121 witnessed the September 20, 2009 home opener, while the 108,713 who attended the NBA All-Star Game on February 14, 2010 became the largest crowd to witness a basketball game in the history of the sport.

Another 1.5 million visitors passed through the twelve-story high doors of the stadium for daily public tours of the venue.

With its architectural versatility and cutting edge media capabilities, Cowboys Stadium has become a visible beacon that has established North Texas as a major focal point on the sports and entertainment canvas of North America.

The brilliant new home of the Cowboys has become a powerful catalyst in attracting a wide range of national and international events that will define the future of the region for generations to come. After already playing host to Super Bowl XLV in February of 2011, other top flight events for the future include the annual AT&T Cotton Bowl, the 2014 NCAA Final Four in men's basketball, the "Cowboys Classic" which features a marquee matchup of prominent schools at the beginning of each collegiate football season and Texas A&M-Arkansas football series just to name a few.

Prior to focusing much of his energy on the new venue in Arlington, Jones' stewardship of historic Texas Stadium left behind a legacy of facility management that maximized the use and visibility of the venue into a year-round destination for sporting, entertainment, community and corporate events on an unprecedented level. His vast experience in stadium management, design and development has landed him a standing appointment on the NFL's New Stadium Committee.

Jones played an integral role in the team's rise from a 1-15 record in 1989 to being the NFL's "Team of the Decade" with three Super Bowl titles in the 1990s. As he enters his 24th NFL season, Jones is a driving force behind the Cowboys push to return to the NFL's elite level of teams. His recent work has seen the club restock its roster with some of the game's top talent and the recent results have produced winning records in six of the last eight seasons - and division titles in two of the last five years (2007 and 2009).

Most recently he has negotiated contract agreements with a core group of veteran players with Pro Bowl experience. That group includes, Jason Witten, Tony Romo, DeMarcus Ware, Jay Ratliff and Miles Austin.

The last nine draft classes (2002-2011) are proving to be the foundation for the future of the Cowboys with 11 starters and 13 All-Rookie Team members coming out of those selections. Those same drafts also produced nine Pro Bowl players who have collectively combined for 32 all-star game appearances in Roy Williams (2002 draft), Andre Gurode (2002), Terence Newman (2003), Jason Witten (2003), DeMarcus Ware (2005), Marion Barber (2005), Jay Ratliff, Nick Folk (2007) and Mike Jenkins (2008).

In the ever-evolving strategy that dictates a team's competitiveness in the current collective bargaining agreement, Jones' performance in managing the Cowboys salary cap, and the club's activity in free agency, has played a prominent role in the team's ability to compete at the NFL's highest level. Most recently he has overseen the acquisition of veteran free agents such as Brandon Carr, Mackenzy Bernadeau, Nate Livings, Gerald Sensabaugh, Kyle Orton and Lawrence Vickers.

Jones' involvement in shaping the Dallas roster under the salary cap was critical in allowing the Cowboys to maintain one of the NFL's most talented core group of players throughout the decade of the 1990s. His creativity and care taking of the Cowboys cap played a key role in the team's six division titles and four conference championship game appearances.

During a historic two-year period of time, Jones was involved in signing five Cowboys stars who were considered the best players in the game at their respective positions. Between September of 1993 and September of 1995, Jones helped orchestrate contract agreements with running back Emmitt Smith, quarterback Troy Aikman, fullback Daryl Johnston, wide receiver Michael Irvin and cornerback Deion Sanders.

Jones has enjoyed a life-long association with the game of football. A four-year letterman as a linebacker and special teams standout at the University of Arkansas, Jones was a starter for the Razorbacks in the Orange Bowl Classic Game that followed the 1986 season. Prior to attending the University of Arkansas, Jones was an all-state quarterback and a three-year starter at Catholic High School in Little Rock, Arkansas.

He graduated from Arkansas in 1988 with a degree in chemical engineering, and immediately went to work in the oil and gas business for JMC Exploration as an engineer.

On Feb. 25, 1989, Jerry Jones purchased the Dallas Cowboys and installed Stephen into a key front office position as one-of-three vice presidents with the club.

Jones is a member and past president of the Dallas Chapter of the Young Presidents' Organization. He serves on the board of directors for the SMU Athletic Forum and Cotton Bowl Athletic Association. He also serves on the board for the Dallas Citizens Council and the Baylor Health Care System Foundation. He is a former member of the NFL's Business Ventures Committee, and he is also a member of the board of directors for Legends Hospitality - the joint stadium catering venture involving the Dallas Cowboys and the New York Yankees organizations that Jones was instrumental in creating.

Jones (6/21/64) was born and reared in Little Rock. He is married to the former Karen Hickman of El Dorado, Arkansas, and the couple has three daughters and a son: Jessica, Jordan, Caroline and John Stephen.

As one of the National Football League's most innovative and versatile front office executives, Charlotte Anderson's 23 years of NFL experience with the Dallas Cowboys have enabled her to assume a position of leadership among women in American professional sports.

In her role as the organization's primary brand management executive, Anderson oversees all strategies and applications surrounding the Dallas Cowboys identity as it is presented to a world-wide fan base.

Her vision and direction guides the Cowboys in the areas of stadium design, entertainment, merchandising, licensed apparel, uniform design, memorabilia, community service and philanthropy. She also supervises the fortunes and travels of the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders - considered to be the most recognized and accomplished organization of its kind in the world.

Recently, Anderson has played a prominent role in shaping the design, décor, sponsor integration and overall presentation of Cowboys Stadium, the state-of-the-art venue that opened in Arlington, Texas in 2009. Under her guidance, the venue plays host to some of highest profile sports and entertainment events in the world - among those are the Super Bowl, the NBA All Star Game, the NCAA Final Four and the annual AT&T Cotton Bowl.

A signature element of Anderson's service to the Cowboys has been her forthright approach to making a difference in the lives of others – and no where is that commitment more evident than the Thanksgiving Day halftime celebration that annually kicks off The Salvation Army's Red Kettle Campaign.

In 1997 Anderson introduced a groundbreaking approach to fund-raising on the world-wide stage by focusing a national television audience on Texas Stadium and the unique opportunity to kick off The Salvation Army's Red Kettle Campaign. By combining the powerful elements of network television, top-flight musical entertainers and the traditional appeal of the Cowboys Thanksgiving Day game, Anderson set the wheels in motion to help The Army raise hundreds of billions of dollars and touch lives across the globe.

Since that initial halftime presentation which featured the musical talents of Reba McEntire, the Cowboys and The Salvation Army have helped create a holiday tradition with the artistic assistance of Randy Travis (1998), Clint Black (1999), Jessica Simpson and Billy Gilman (2000), Creed (2001), LeAnn Rimes (2002), Toby Keith (2003), Destiny's Child (2004), Cheryl Crow (2005), Carrie Underwood (2006), Kelly Clarkson (2007), Jonas Brothers (2008), Daughtry (2009), Keith Urban (2010) and Enrique Iglesias featuring Pitbull (2011).

In May of 2010, Anderson was named to the position of Chairman of The Salvation Army's National Advisory Board - where she became the first woman in the history of the organization to hold that title. In recognition of her alliance with The Army, Anderson was also the recipient of the Exceptional Service Award at The SA's National Advisory Organizations Conference in 2007.

Along with brand development and stadium design, Anderson's involvement in the daily operation of the Cowboys organization extends over a wide range of responsibilities. She manages the Cowboys year-round efforts in community service, philanthropic involvement and the annual development and distribution of foundation funds produced by The Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities and the Gene and Jerry Jones Arlington Youth Foundation.

As president of the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders, Anderson has further developed the international profile of the world's premier professional sports cheerleading organization. In addition to their strong tradition of fulfilling community service obligations, the Cheerleaders are featured in numerous national television appearances, including "Making of the Team," an annual network series that airs nationally in conjunction with the selection of the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders.

Anderson's spirit of involvement in the local community extends far beyond the realm of professional football. As Executive Vice President and Chief Sales and Marketing Officer, Jerry Jones, Jr. is a key member of the Dallas Cowboys front office, overseeing the club's entire sales and marketing efforts. Jones was instrumental in the design and planning of Cowboys Stadium, viewed as one of the world's truly unique sports and entertainment venues. In its first three years of operation, Cowboys Stadium has already played host to Super Bowl XLV, the 2010 NBA All Star Game, the AT&T Cotton Bowl, and numerous other major events on top of being the home of the Dallas Cowboys.

In his current role, Jones is the guiding force behind all the club's sales and marketing efforts, both those directed at the team's loyal fans as well as its corporate partners. With the Cowboys unique vertical structure, Jones leads a team that is not only responsible for the sales and marketing of the club, but also its vast merchandising business as well as all digital and broadcast media.

Over the last few years, Jones guided the transition of 65,000 season ticket holders as well as over 300 suite owners from Texas Stadium to the club's new home. With a stadium capable of holding up to 100,000 fans, with eight club areas and 3.0 million square feet of space, this monumental effort required the expansion of the club's sales team to over 60 employees dedicated to personalized customer service. At the same time, Jones has also been deeply involved in the extension and expansion of the club's already sizable corporate sponsorship base. In recent years, Jones has directed the extension of long-term agreements with numerous valued partners like Miller Brewing, Ford, Bank of America, Pepsi and Dr Pepper as well as the addition of a new major member of the team, AT&T.

In both 2008 and 2009 these efforts were recognized by the Sports Business Journal when Jones was named to their 40 Under 40 List of executives under the age of 40 who are making the greatest contribution to their organization and the world of sports and entertainment.

On the broadcast front, Jones oversaw the 2006 move to bring the club's radio broadcast in-house. The move added English radio to the club's stable of English and Spanish television programming as well as the Spanish radio broadcast. Blue Star Media now originates over 25 hours a week of original television, radio and internet programming aired across the Dallas Cowboys Broadcasting Network in five states.

Jones has established a growing reputation at the league level as it relates to sales and marketing. In recent years he has been named to both the NFL's Marketing Executives Committee as well as the Internet Working Group Committee.

In 2001, to help further the Dallas Cowboys marketing and brand image initiatives, Jones became the President of Dallas Cowboys Merchandising, Ltd. (DCM), a company formed in 1996 to design, manufacture and distribute Dallas Cowboys merchandise throughout the world. To date, the Cowboys are still the only major league sports team to form such an entity, enabling their fans to have the unique opportunity to enjoy the authenticity of team merchandise and memorabilia, straight from the source. Under Jones' leadership, DCM and the Dallas Cowboys continue to thrive as one of the top teams in NFL sales over the past 20 years.

Today DCM mall stores have more than doubled to 40 retail locations throughout Texas and New Mexico, including the 15,000 square foot Pro Shop in Cowboys Stadium - the largest Pro Shop of any NFL team. In 2010 DCM moved into a new 400,000 square foot manufacturing and distribution headquarters near DFW Airport.

Jones took over as the club's Chief Marketing Officer in 2001 after first joining the club in 1996 as Vice President and General Counsel. He spent his early years negotiating rookie contracts, local radio and television broadcast rights fees and sponsorship agreements. He was also instrumental in launching the Dallas Cowboys official website, www.dallascowboys.com. The Cowboys website continues to be at the forefront of internet technology and has become one of the NFL's most comprehensive and innovative team pages. Following the 2005 season, the site won the NFL's award for best content which not only includes the quality of writing material, but also the video updates, video shows, and live internet broadcasts. To this day, www.dallascowboys.com receives more visits than any other team website in the NFL.

Jones, born Sept. 27, 1969, earned his law degree from Southern Methodist University in 1995. He completed his undergraduate coursework at Georgetown University, where he majored in political science and graduated with a BA in 1992. Jones and his wife, Lori, reside in Dallas, Texas with their children James and Mary Chambers.

JASON GARRETT

Head Coach

Princeton
Head Coach: 2nd Year • NFL: 8th Year • Cowboys: 6th Year

Jason Garrett was named the eighth head coach in Dallas Cowboys history on January 5, 2011. Garrett, who played for or worked alongside five of his predecessors, became the first former Dallas Cowboys player to become the team's head coach.

Having literally grown up around successful head coaches in the NFL and in the Dallas Cowboys family, Garrett was a member of three Super Bowl winning teams in the 1990s during his seven seasons as a Cowboys quarterback. His father, Jim, was a personnel scout for the team for 21 years and served under every Super Bowl winning head coach and ownership regime in franchise history.

As a player in Dallas, Garrett learned under championship coaches Jimmy Johnson and Barry Switzer, while serving as a backup to Troy Aikman in offenses directed by Norv Turner and Ernie Zampese. He went on to play for the New York Giants, who reached Super Bowl XXXV, while playing for offensive coordinator Sean Payton. Garrett finished his playing days while studying under Jon Gruden in Tampa Bay and started his coaching career with the Miami Dolphins, where he worked under three-time collegiate national championship head coach, Nick Saban.

Garrett was elevated to the Cowboys top job after taking over as the team's interim head coach at the midpoint of the 2010 season. He went on to guide a Dallas team that had started the season with a 1-7 record to a 5-3 mark down the stretch. In the season's second half, three of the Cowboys five victories were against teams that posted 10 regular season wins, while the three Dallas defeats were decided by a combined total of seven points.

In his first full year as head coach, Garrett guided the 2011 team to an 8-8 finish as the offense amassed 6,008 yards for the second-highest yardage output in franchise history. Quarterback Tony Romo returned to the helm and finished with one of his best statistical seasons, posting a career-best 102.5 quarterback rating, good for third in the NFC, fourth in the NFL and second in team history. He eclipsed the 4,000-yard mark for the third time in his career and the third time in team history with 4,184 on the year (third in club history). Romo's 66.28 completion percentage was also a career-best (second in team history), while his 31 touchdown passes (second), attempts (third) and completions (second) were all good for the second-most of his career. Tight end Jason Witten led the team in receptions (79) - for the fifth straight season and sixth overall - and receiving yards (942) while finishing fourth with five touchdown receptions. In his second season, Dez Bryant finished second on the team in catches (63), receiving yards (928) and touchdowns (nine), while veteran newcomer, Laurent Robinson led the team with 11 touchdown receptions on 54 catches for 858 yards. Rookie running back DeMarco Murray provided a mid-season spurt as he set a club rushing record with 253 rushing yards against St. Louis (10/23). Murray led the team with 167 carries for 897 yards and two touchdowns despite starting only seven games and missing the final three games after landing on Reserve/Injured with a broken ankle. With an offensive line in transition, rookie Tyron Smith emerged as a solid building block for the long term after starting all 16 games at right tackle and earning All-Rookie honors.

Garrett has served as the chief play caller on offense since joining the staff as the offensive coordinator for Wade Phillips in 2007. In 2008 he was assigned the additional duties of being the club's assistant head coach.

Under Garrett, the Dallas offense has reached high levels of productivity in several categories, and the unit has finished among the NFL's top-10 in total offense in three of his five years at the helm: 2010 (10th), 2009 (2nd) and 2007 (2nd). From the start of the 2007 season, the club has averaged 24.3 points-per-game and 369.9 total yards-per-outing. The team set single-season records in a handful of categories, and from 2007 to 2009 the cumulative numbers for total net yards (17,753), gross passing yards (12,761) and net passing yards (12,181) represented the best totals over a three-year span in the history of the organization. The club only bettered those figures over the next three-year span (2009-11), totaling 18,226 yards, 12,530 net passing and 13,144 gross passing yards. Under Garrett's tutelage, eight offensive players have earned trips to the Pro Bowl.

Although the 2010 club faced its share of challenges, the offense continued to put up big numbers, amassing 5,828 total yards for the seventh-highest yardage output in franchise history. Dallas also topped the 4,000 passing yard mark for the third time in four years with the third-most in club history (4,042). Romo started the season running the offense, but a fractured left clavicle suffered against the N.Y. Giants (10/25) led the way for Jon Kitna to take over. Before the injury, Romo completed 148-of-213 passes (69.5%) for 1,605 yards, 11 touchdowns and seven interceptions. At the time of his injury, he had a 94.9 quarterback rating that was sixth in the NFL and tops in the NFC. Witten also finished with 1,002 receiving yards and nine touchdowns. His 1,002 yards marked his third career 1,000-yard season and his second consecutive, while his nine touchdowns tied a team tight end record. Miles Austin notched his second straight 1,000-yard season (1,041) to give the Cowboys their fifth time with two pass catchers topping 1,000 yards. Rookie wide receiver Dez Bryant was well on his way to a record-breaking rookie season before fracturing his ankle at Indianapolis (12/5). Prior to his injury, Bryant collected 45 catches (second all-time among team rookies) for 564 yards (fifth) and six touchdown catches (tied for second). The club sent three offensive players to the Pro Bowl: Austin (second consecutive), Andre Gurode (fifth consecutive) and Witten (seventh consecutive).

En route to winning the 2009 NFC Eastern Division title, Dallas established club records for total offensive yards (6,390), net passing yards (4,287) and pass completions (347). Dallas ranked second in the NFL in yards-per-game (399.4), sixth in passing (267.9) and seventh in the league in rushing (131.4). Romo broke his previous single season records for completions (347) and passing yards

(4,483), while Austin (1,320 receiving yards) and Witten (1,030) became just the fourth pair of Cowboys pass catchers to gain more than 1,000 yards in a season in team annals. On the ground, second-year running back Felix Jones eclipsed a 47-year old record for rushing yards-per-carry with a season average of 5.9.

The 2009 club led the NFL in average gain on first down plays (6.52), and five offensive players made trips to the Pro Bowl in South Florida: Witten, Davis, Gurode, Romo and Austin.

In 2008 Dallas finished the season 13th in the NFL in total offense with an average of 344.5 yards-per-game. The team was ninth in the league in passing offense (236.8 yards-per-game), and the team's total of 3,789 net yards passing was the fifth-highest in club history since the 16-game NFL regular season was implemented in 1978. Following the season, offensive linemen Davis, Gurode and Flozell Adams were selected to represent the Cowboys in the Pro Bowl along with Witten.

In 2007 Garrett directed a Dallas unit that produced one of the most explosive seasons in club history. Following the season in which the Cowboys won the NFC Eastern Division crown with a team-record tying 13 victories, head coach Wade Phillips added to Garrett's responsibilities by naming him the club's assistant head coach on January 17, 2008. Regarded as one of the bright young offensive minds in the league, Garrett was named Pro Football Weekly's NFL's Assistant Coach of the Year in March of 2008. The award, which is presented annually at the Ed Block Courage Awards Banquet in Baltimore, is selected by a vote of the Pro Football Writers of America.

Dallas finished the 2007 season second in the NFL in scoring (first in the NFC) with an average of 28.4 points-per-game. The 455 points scored in 2007 marked the second-highest figure in club history behind only the 1983 club (479 points). The Cowboys scored at least 20 points in 14 of its 16 games in 2007, marking the most 20-plus point games since the 1995 club also had 14. The 2007 offense also set a club record by scoring 24-points-or-more in the first 13 games of the season.

With a 16-game average of 365.7 yards-per-game, the Cowboys were third in the NFL (second in the NFC) in total offense. Dallas closed the 2007 season fourth in the NFL (third in the NFC) in passing with an average of 256.6 yards-per-game. In the rushing offense category, the Cowboys were 17th in the NFL (seventh in the NFC) with an average of 109.1 yards-per-game. The 5,851 yards in total offense by Dallas in 2007 marked the fifth-highest total yardage output in team history at the time. The Cowboys established a club record with 217 passing first downs in 2007, while also leading the NFL in average yards gained on first downs. Dallas picked up an average of 6.24 yards on first down plays, while New England (6.09) was second.

In his first full season as an NFL starter, Romo finished the campaign as the NFC's top rated passer (97.4), marking the third-highest single season passer rating in club history. With 36 touchdown passes in 2007, Romo established a Cowboys record for single season scoring tosses - eclipsing the mark of 29 set by Danny White in 1983. Romo also set what were then season club marks for completions (335) and passing yardage (4,211).

Terrell Owens closed the year second in the NFC in receiving yardage with 1,355 (fifth in the NFL), and he led the NFC in touchdown catches (third in the NFL) with a club-record 15 scoring receptions. Witten finished the year second among all NFL tight ends (first in the NFC) in both receptions (96) and yardage (1,145). Both totals represented club records for a Dallas tight end in a single season.

Barber's 4.8-yard rushing average was fifth among all NFL backs, and his 10 rushing touchdowns tied for fifth in the NFL. The one-two punch of Barber and Julius Jones combined for 1,563 yards on the ground and a combined average of 97.7 yards-per-game.

Garrett returned to Dallas in 2007 as the offensive coordinator after spending the previous two seasons tutoring the Miami Dolphins quarterbacks. Garrett, who was a backup quarterback to Troy Aikman in Dallas from 1993 to 1999, rejoined the Cowboys with a great understanding of the championship heritage of the organization. As a player in Dallas, he was a member of teams that won six division titles and three Super Bowl championships.

He entered the coaching profession in February of 2005 as the quarterbacks coach for Nick Saban's first Miami Dolphins club. While in Miami, Garrett capably handled the challenge of having to work with five different starting quarterbacks over the course of 32 regular season games. In 2005 Miami quarterbacks threw 22 touchdowns with just 16 interceptions. Their plus-six differential was the team's best since the 1998 season when they were a plus-seven (23-16). In 2006 Garrett managed three starting quarterbacks for an offensive unit that produced four pass receivers who each had at least 55 receptions. It marked the first time in club history that four different receivers had at least 55 catches.

As a player, Garrett worked under highly successful offensive coordinators Norv Turner and Ernie Zampese in Dallas while providing sideline assistance to Aikman for the majority of his Hall of Fame career. After moving to New York in 2000, he helped guide starting quarterback Kerry Collins and the Giants to an NFC Championship and a Super Bowl berth while working along side Saints head coach Sean Payton, who was the team's offensive coordinator. Garrett also gained valuable experience in absorbing Jon Gruden's offensive philosophies during a stint with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the closing months of his playing career in 2004.

In his seven years as a player in Dallas, Garrett started nine of the 23 games in which he played. A key reserve player on three Super Bowl teams, he is best remembered for his Thanksgiving Day heroics in 1994. As the Cowboys third quarterback on the depth chart, he made his second career start against Green Bay after Aikman and backup quarterback Rodney Peete were felled with injuries in previous weeks. Garrett led Dallas to a thrilling 42-31 come-from-behind victory in which he directed the Cowboys to a club-record 36 second half points with six consecutive second half scoring drives. He finished the day with 311 passing yards on 15 completions with two touchdown tosses and was named the NFC's Offensive Player of the Week. He went on to start five games in 1998 and two games in 1999 to finish his days in Dallas with a 6-3 record as a starting quarterback.

Garrett served as the primary backup to Kerry Collins during the New York Giants run to the Super Bowl in 2000, and played the entire fourth quarter of the NFC Championship Game that year. He spent the next three seasons with the Giants (2000-03).

He concluded his career by splitting the 2004 season with Tampa Bay and Miami. Overall in his 12 NFL seasons, Garrett started nine of the 40 regular season games in which he played and completed 165-of-294 passes for 2,042 yards with 11 touchdowns and five interceptions.

As a senior at Princeton University in 1988, Garrett was named the Ivy League's Player of the Year and honorable mention All-American. He earned his degree in history in 1989, and moved on to the NFL as an undrafted rookie free agent with the New Orleans Saints developmental squad. After being released prior to the 1990 season, he spent the fall of 1990 as an assistant coach at Princeton. In 1991 Garrett moved on to play in the World League and the Canadian Football League before joining the Cowboys practice squad in 1992.

Garrett, who prepped at University School in Chagrin Falls, Ohio, followed in his family footsteps in 2005. His father, Jim, spent more than 30 years in the NFL as a coach and scout. His brother, John, is now the passing game coordinator/tight ends coach with the Cowboys. Another brother, Judd, was a practice squad player for the 1993 Cowboys Super Bowl Championship club and is now with the Cowboys scouting department as the director of pro scouting.

Jason and his wife Brill founded their charitable foundation, Jason Garrett Starfish Charities, in 1997 with the goal of enriching the lives of young people. The principle activity of the foundation is a one-day football camp and leadership forum for high school athletes, which is held each summer at Princeton University in conjunction with Play It Smart, a program administered by the National Football Foundation. In 2012 Garrett and the Cowboys organization introduced a similar one day football camp - Dallas Cowboys U – at the team's Valley Ranch training complex. The camp offered life skills sessions along with the opportunity for the high school players to be coached by the Dallas Cowboys players.

Born on March 28, 1966, Garrett resides in Dallas with his wife, Brill.

In his first season in Dallas, the defensive line helped the Cowboys rushing defense finish fourth in the NFC and seventh in the NFL as they gave up an average of 99.1 rushing yards-per-game, an improvement over the 108.6 rushing yards-per-game in 2010. Defensive end Kenyon Coleman led the group with 44 tackles, while nose tackle Jay Ratliff finished with 42 tackles, two sacks, six tackles for loss and 18 pressures as he earned his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl selection.

In 2010 Baker led the charges of the Panthers defensive line that had three of its members finish in the top-10 on the team in tackles. Defensive end Charles Johnson paced the team with 11.5 sacks - tied for fourth in the league - while also leading the team with 27 pressures. Defensive end Tyler Brayton's 14 pressures were good for second while defensive end Greg Hardy tied for the squad lead with two forced fumbles.

Baker was named the Panthers defensive line coach on Feb. 13, 2009 following three years in the same position with the St. Louis Rams. In his first season with the Panthers, Baker led a unit through a solid season as his line accounted for 25.5 of the team's 33 sacks. Feared pass rushing end Julius Peppers led the charges on the defense by notching 10.5 sacks to earn his fifth Pro Bowl selection. Baker's work with the line's pass rush allowed the defense to finish fourth in the NFL in both pass defense and percentage of passes intercepted.

Prior to arriving in Carolina, Baker spent three seasons coaching the Rams defensive line. In 2008 his squad tallied 20 of the defense's 30 sacks and finished 11th in the league in sacks-per-pass play. He coached both defensive end Leonard Little - tied for fifth in the league with 13 sacks - and tackle La'Roi Glover - finished sixth among NFC defensive tackles with 5.5 sacks - in 2006.

Leading up to his time with the Rams, Baker spent five years with the Minnesota Vikings serving as the defensive line coach (2001 and 2004-05) and as the team's linebackers coach (2002-03). His work with defensive tackle Kevin Williams led to Williams' first of six Pro Bowl selections in 2004. Williams also went on to earn AP All-Pro honors that same season, finishing with 11.5 sacks. Baker also mentored defensive end Lance Johnstone in 2004 to give the Vikings the third-most prolific sack duo in the league, totaling 22.5 on the year.

From 1997-2000 Baker coached the defensive line for the Detroit Lions. Under his tutelage, the Lions defensive line notched 120.5 sacks as defensive linemen Robert Porcher (1997 and 1999) and Luther Elliss (1999 and 2000) were selected to the Pro Bowl. Baker's 1998 and 1999 lines finished fifth and sixth, respectively, in the league in sacks-per-pass play, and, in 1999, Porcher finished fourth all-time in club history with 15.0 sacks.

Baker made his NFL coaching debut as the defensive line coach for the San Diego Chargers in 1996 after working on the collegiate level for 12 years. His first stint in coaching came in 1984 at his alma mater, Maryland, as he coached outside linebackers. He then went to Army as fullbacks coach (1986), followed by a move to Georgia Tech to again coach linebackers (1987-95). He added defensive coordinator responsibilities in 1995. Under his guidance, the Yellow Jackets went on to claim the National Championship as the nation's only unbeaten team (11-0-1) in 1990.

Baker played outside linebacker at Maryland from 1981-83 and helped the Terps win the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1983. He earned his degree in marketing in 1985. Baker and his wife, Nevada, have three daughters, Nicole, Jade and Jasmine.

He brings with him 16 years of NFL coaching experience and three years at the collegiate level.

In 2009 he was the defensive backs coach in Tampa Bay, and from 2010-11, Baker coached Buccaneers linebackers. Safety Tanard Jackson and cornerback Aqib Talib tied for the team lead with five interceptions.

Prior to landing with the Buccaneers, Baker spent two seasons (2007-08) with the Denver Broncos, first as an offensive assistant, then as the club's linebackers coach. He is in his second stint as a strength coach in the NFL after spending one season (2006) with the N.Y. Jets in a similar capacity. Brett Bech – Born August 20, 1971, Slidell, La. Wide receiver Louisiana State 1991-94. Pro: Wide receiver New Orleans 1996-99, Las Vegas Outlaws (XFL) 2000, Indiana Firebirds (AFL) 2002-04. Pro coach: N.Y. Jets 2006, Dallas Cowboys 2011.

The Dallas Cowboys hired Ben Bloom during the 2011 offseason to serve as the club's defensive quality control coach and assist linebackers coach Matt Eberflus. Bloom worked with both Eberflus and defensive coordinator Rob Ryan while they were all on the Cleveland Browns coaching staff in 2010.

In his first season with the Cowboys, Bloom aided with the breakdown of opposing offensive film while also helping put together the team's weekly defensive playbook. In his role assisting Eberflus with the linebackers, Bloom worked with outside linebackers DeMarcus Ware and Anthony Spencer who accounted for 25.5 of the club's 42.0 sacks – Ware, 19.5 (second in the NFL) and Spencer, 6.0. Another one of Bloom's linebackers, Sean Lee, led the squad with 131 tackles as the second-year pro started 15 of the 16 games at middle linebacker. Spencer finished fourth on the tackle chart (74) and Ware sixth (67).

As a defensive assistant for the Browns in 2010, Bloom helped prepare the defense during practice and with the breakdown of film for upcoming opponents. He spent the 2009 season with the Browns as an assistant in team operations.

Prior to joining the Browns, Bloom served as an assistant defensive line coach at Harvard University during the 2008 season. He earned his master's degree in education from Tufts University, while serving as a graduate assistant defensive line coach there from 2005-07. Bloom also earned a bachelor's in history from Tufts where he was a three-year letter winner on the football team. He is a native of Wellesley, Mass.

Ben Bloom – Born October 17, 1982, Wellesley, Mass. Offensive Line Tufts 2001-04. No pro playing experience. College coach: Tufts University 2005-07, Harvard University 2008. Pro coach: Cleveland Browns 2010, Dallas Cowboys 2011.

The Dallas Cowboys brought in one of their own when they hired Chris Boniol leading up to the 2010 season to help kicker David Buehler transition into his fulltime role as the club's place kicker. Boniol first came to Dallas as a rookie in 1994 as the club's placekicker and spent his first three NFL seasons with the club. In 2012 Boniol will continue his work with Dallas' kickers while also assisting Joe DeCamillis with the team's special teams units.

As a second year coach, Boniol tutored rookie kicker Dan Bailey, who responded well to the rigors of the NFL by establishing an NFL and club rookie record by connecting on 26 consecutive field goal tries. His 26 straight also tied Boniol for the second-longest field goal streak in franchise history. Along the way, Bailey was true on all six tries against Washington (9/26) to set a club rookie single-game record. He finished his rookie season with a selection to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie team, connecting on 32-of-37 (86.5%) field goals. With kickoff specialist David Buehler landing on Reserve/Injured at the midway point of the season, Bailey took over kickoff duties and finished the season with 24 touchbacks on 64 attempts.

In his first season as a pro coach, Boniol's mentorship of Buehler saw the second-year player finish 2010 converting 24-of-32 (75.0%) field goals and 42-of-44 PAT tries while also forcing 22 touchbacks. Buehler's .750 field goal percentage ranked sixth in Cowboys franchise history among Cowboy rookie or first-time kickers. Overall, his 114 points tied for fourth among the same group while his 22 touchbacks were third in a season in franchise history.

Boniol enjoyed a six-year pro career, playing for three different NFL teams. From 1994-96, Boniol converted 118-of-121 PATs and 81-of-93 (87.1%) of his field goals while helping the Cowboys to a Super Bowl XXX Championship. Boniol then played two seasons (1997-98) for Philadelphia and one (1999) with Chicago. Boniol enjoyed his finest season as a pro in 1995 as Dallas captured the Super Bowl XXX title. On the year, Boniol drilled 27-of-28 (96.4%) field goal attempts and 46-of-48 PATs to finish with 127 points – tying the fourth-most points in a season by a Cowboy. Boniol finished his pro career 128-of-163 (78.5%) on field goals and 183-of-189 on PATs for 567 total points.

Following his professional football career, Boniol returned to school and finished up his degree in general studies at Louisiana State University in 2001. In 2002 he began teaching high school math and coaching football in Lewisville, Texas. After two years, Boniol became a private football coach for high school and collegiate student-athletes. Boniol returned to teaching part time in 2008 where he remained until earning a spot on the Cowboys coaching staff leading up to the 2010 NFL season.

Boniol finished his collegiate career at Louisiana Tech third on the school's all-time scoring list. He attended Alexandria, La., High School and was the school's kicker while also playing catcher for the school's baseball team.

Boniol and his wife, Christine, have two sons, Gaige and Garin.

Chris Boniol – Born December 9, 1971, Alexandria, La. Kicker Louisiana Tech 1990-93. Pro: Kicker Dallas Cowboys 1994-96, Philadelphia Eagles 1997-98, Chicago Bears 1999. Pro coach: Dallas Cowboys 2010-11.

Dave Borgonzi began his NFL coaching career with the Dallas Cowboys during the 2011 season as an offensive/defensive assistant and will continue that role in 2012. As an assistant with the Cowboys, Borgonzi's primary duties consist of assisting with the weekly breakdowns and scouting reports of each opponent. He also assists with the scout teams during daily practices.

Before joining the Cowboys, Borgonzi spent five seasons in the college ranks, previously with Harvard University (2008-2010) and Syracuse (2006-07).

While at Harvard, Borgonzi served as an assistant defensive secondary coach and also helped with the school's recruiting efforts. In 2010 Harvard's defense ranked 16th nationally in total defense. In 2009 the Crimson ranked sixth nationally in pass efficiency defense while three players were named All-League and cornerback Matthew Hanson earned Rookie of the Year honors.

Prior to arriving in Cambridge, Borgonzi spent two seasons as a graduate assistant coach at Syracuse where he worked as the Orange's assistant defensive line coach while also assisting the program's recruiting and special teams efforts. While at Syracuse, Borgonzi obtained a master's degree in education.

Borgonzi was a three-year starter while an undergraduate at Amherst College. Named a team captain in his senior year, Borgonzi graduated with a degree in law, jurisprudence and social thought. He is married to Alyssa.

Dave Borgonzi – Born November 19, 1982, Everett Ma. Linebacker Amherst College 2001-04. No pro playing experience. College coach: Syracuse 2006-07, Harvard 2008-10. Pro coach: Dallas Cowboys 2011.

Bill Callahan joined the Dallas Cowboys on January 12, 2012 taking over the offensive line following the retirement of Hudson Houck. Callahan begins his 14th year in the NFL and first with the Cowboys after serving as the assistant head coach and offensive line coach for four years with the N.Y. Jets.

In his four seasons with the Jets, Callahan coached three players along the offensive line to nine

Pro Bowl appearances (Nick Mangold-4, Alan Faneca-2 and D'Brickashaw Ferguson-3) and one player to AP All-Pro honors (Nick Mangold - 2009, 2010).

Callahan followed up a N.Y. Jets club record-setting 2009 season by designing a scheme that recorded the club's fourth-best single-season rushing total (2,374) in 2010. The total was also the fourth-most in the NFL that season.

In 2010 Callahan developed second-year guard Matt Slauson into a full- time starter as the Jets rushed for 2,374 yards and 14 touchdowns on the season, while allowing only 28 sacks (tied for eighth-fewest in the NFL).

The 2009 Jets team set a franchise record and led the NFL with 2,756 rushing yards. The Jets rushing attack recorded two 300-yard games, while registering 175-or-more yards seven times during the season.

In his first season with the Jets in 2008, the improved Jets running attack averaged 4.7 yards-per-carry, ninth in the NFL, and featured the AFC rushing champion, Pro Bowler Thomas Jones, who ran for 1,312 yards and scored a team-record 13 rushing touchdowns. The offensive line also improved in pass protection, limiting defenses to 30 sacks, down from 53 sacks allowed in 2007.

Callahan joined the Jets in 2007 after he led Nebraska to a Big 12 Conference Championship game appearance (2006) and two bowl berths in four seasons (2003-06) while posting a 27-22 record.

He served as the head coach for the Oakland Raiders for two seasons (2002-03), logging a 15-17 regular-season record and a 2-1 postseason mark. In his first season as a head coach on any level, he led the Raiders to an 11-5 record, an AFC West title and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII. The trip to the Super Bowl made Callahan only the fourth first-year head coach to lead a team to the Super Bowl in NFL history.

Oakland led the NFL in passing and set team records for total offensive yards (6,237), first downs (366), first downs passing (226), passes attempted (619), passes completed (418), passing yards (4,689) and highest completion percentage (67.5) in 2002. His offense also ranked second in the NFL in points scored with 450 points (28.1 per-game). As a result of his accomplishments, he was named Coach of the Year by the Columbus (Ohio) Touchdown Club and 2002 Rookie Coach of the Year by Football Digest.

In a three-season span, all with Callahan as either the offensive coordinator or head coach, the Raiders went from leading the NFL in rushing, with 154.4 yards-per-game in 2000, to leading the league in passing in 2002, averaging 293.1 yards-per-game.

He directed an offense in 2000 that set a Raiders single-season record in fewest sacks allowed (28), only to break the record the next season, allowing just 27 sacks.

In 1999 Oakland ranked third in the NFL in rushing yards and fifth in total offense. From 1999 through 2002, Raiders offensive players earned 12 Pro Bowl appearances.

Before joining the Raiders, Callahan coached the offensive line for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-97. His unit helped the Eagles rank second in the NFC in passing, fifth in rushing and third in total offense in 1997. In 1996 the Eagles led the conference in passing, ranked second in rushing and led the NFC in total offense. In 1995 the Eagles placed fourth in the league in rushing.

Callahan started at quarterback for three seasons (1975-77) at Illinois Benedictine in lisle, Ill., where he earned honorable-mention All-America honors in 1976 and 1977 and graduated with a BA in Physical Education in 1978. He was born in Chicago, where he attended Mendel Catholic High School. He and his wife, Valerie, have two daughters, Cathryn and Jaclyn, and two sons, Brian and Daniel.

Bill Callahan – Born July 31, 1956, Chicago. Quarterback Benedictine 1975-77. No pro playing experience. College coach: Illinois 1980-86, Northern Arizona 1987-88, Southern Illinois 1989, Wisconsin 1990-94, Nebraska 2004-07 (head coach). Pro coach: Philadelphia Eagles 1995-97, Oakland Raiders 1998-2003 (head coach 2002-03), New York Jets 2008-11, joined Cowboys in 2012.

Now in his 25th season as an NFL coach, Joe DeCamillis enters his fourth season as the Dallas Cowboys special teams coordinator after three seasons in which Dallas' special teams units flourished under his guidance. DeCamillis has served as the team's special teams coach in 19 of his previous 24 years as an NFL coach, and in 15 of the last 18 seasons, a player on DeCamillis' special teams unit has returned either a punt or a kickoff for a touchdown. In total, DeCamillis coached units have racked up 25 returns for touchdowns (15 via punts and 10 via kickoff returns).

Rookie free agent placekicker Dan Bailey earned a spot on the 2011 roster with a solid training camp and preseason play. He went on to finish his rookie season 32-of-37 (85.6%) on field goals for the third-best percentage by a Cowboys rookie or first-year kicker while his 32 made were fourth all-time among NFL rookie kickers. He had a streak of 26 consecutive made field goals to tie Chris Boniol for the second-longest streak in club history. Bailey also took over kickoff duties after David Buehler suffered a groin injury. Punter Mat McBriar was limited throughout the year with a left foot injury as he averaged 43.8 yards-per-punt with a net of 36.1 and 21 downed inside the 20-yard line. Danny McCray led the unit with 19 special teams tackles – his second consecutive year to lead the team – to become the first player to lead the team in back-to-back years since Bill Bates (1989-90).

McBriar earned his second Pro Bowl nomination in 2010 as he led the league in both gross (47.9) and net (41.7) averages. It marked the first time in club history a Dallas punter led the league in both categories. Buehler picked up where he left off on kickoffs in 2010, adding 22 touchbacks to finish fourth in the league. As a first-timer on PATs and field goals, Buehler finished 42-of-44 and 24-of-32, respectively. DeCamillis broke in several rookies on special teams, including wide receiver Dez Bryant, who proved he is dangerous in the return game as well. Bryant had two punt returns for touchdowns - a 62-yarder and a 93-yarder – as he became the seventh Cowboy, second as a rookie, to return two punts for touchdowns in a season. Rookie Bryan McCann also had a punt return for a touchdown - a 97-yarder - for the second-longest punt return in team history. The three punt returns for touchdowns on the year established a single-season club record. Under DeCamillis' guidance, another rookie established a team-best when McCray finished the season with 28 special teams tackles – third-most all-time in team history.

The biggest jump seen in 2009 was in opponents' average starting field position as the Cowboys were second in the NFL in 2009 (22.8-yard line) after finishing 20th in the league in 2008 (29.3). Dallas also jumped spots in punt returns as the club was sixth in the league (10.9 yard-per-return) after finishing 2009 30th with a 6.4-yard average. Patrick Crayton had two punts returned for touchdowns in back-to-back games – one for 76 yards and the other for 82 – to make him the sixth Cowboy with multiple punt return touchdowns in a season and just the second to do it in back-to-back games. Dallas' field goal block team batted away two attempts – one in the season opener at Tampa Bay (9/13) when Gerald Sensabaugh tipped one in the first quarter, followed by Jay Ratliff's block in the fourth quarter in the overtime win at Kansas City (10/11). DeCamillis helped break in rookie kickoff specialist Buehler, who finished the season with a club-record 29 touchbacks. Three times in 2009 Buehler had four touchbacks in a game to tie the second-most in a game in club history. Despite finishing 10th in the league in gross average (45.1) and seventh in net yards (39.9), punter McBriar continued his punting prowess under DeCamillis as the Aussie finished third in the NFL with a career-best and club-record 38 punts downed inside opponents' 20-yard line. In Rick Gosselin's (Dallas Morning News) annual special teams rankings, Dallas improved to fourth in 2009 after placing 27th in 2008.

Before landing in Dallas, DeCamillis spent the previous two seasons coaching the Jacksonville Jaguars special teams units, helping the kickoff coverage unit finish fourth in opponents' average starting field position in 2007 (25.8-yard line) and first in 2008 (24.5). DeCamillis' 2008 unit also tied Washington for the fewest opponents' kickoff returns of 20-or-more yards (24) while finishing third in the league in opponents' kickoff return average (19.9). They trailed only Buffalo (19.8) and Pittsburgh (19.1). In 2007 DeCamillis' work with coverage specialist Chad Nkang allowed the rookie to set a single-season franchise record with 30 special teams tackles.

DeCamillis headed up the Atlanta Falcons special teams units from 1997-2006. During DeCamillis' tenure, the Falcons punt coverage team allowed an NFL-low 6.1 yards-per-return with only one return for a touchdown. The Falcons also had the third-most touchbacks (126), the second-most kickoff returns for touchdowns (eight) and the second-most total return touchdowns (13) during that span.

In 2006 the Falcons led the NFL as their opponents had an average starting position at the 23.6-yard line. They ranked fourth in the NFL with 47 kickoff returns of 20-plus yards and second in allowing only 26 kickoff returns of 20-plus yards.

In 2005 the Falcons were one of just four teams ranked in the NFL's top-10 in both kickoff coverage (first) and punt coverage (eighth). Kicker Todd Peterson made 18 consecutive field goals and converted 23-of-25 field goal attempts. His 92.0 field goal conversion percentage tied for fourth in the league and was second all-time in team record books. Punt returner Allen Rossum finished second in the NFL in punt returns in 2004 (12.4) and was named to the Pro Bowl. The 2003 Falcons special teams ranked second in the NFL for kickoff coverage, allowing 19.4 yards-per-return, and punt return average (14.3).

Jay Feely set Atlanta's team record for most field goals (32) and most points (138) in a season in 2002 while punter Chris Mohr led the NFL in net punting average (38.7). DeCamillis' punt return unit in 1999 had only 26 punts returned against them for 119 yards, which was the lowest in the NFL and 10th-lowest in the league since 1978. His 1998 unit surrendered only 112 punt return yards, the seventh-lowest in the NFL in a single season since 1978.

DeCamillis spent four seasons (1993-96) as special teams coach with the New York Giants under Dan Reeves, and in 1996, his punt coverage unit led the NFL with 32 punts downed inside the 20-yard line. The club's punt return unit was sixth in the NFL (11.4) with two touchdowns scored.

DeCamillis began his coaching career in Denver as defensive quality control and assistant special teams coach from 1988-92 when former Cowboys head coach Wade Phillips was the team's defensive coordinator (1989-92).

DeCamillis was an all-state quarterback and wrestler at Arvada, Colo., High School and went on to become an All-America wrestler at Wyoming.

DeCamillis and his wife, Dana, have two daughters, Caitlin and Ashley.

Joe DeCamillis – Born June 29, 1965, Arvada, Colo. Did not play football while at Wyoming. No Pro playing experience. Pro coach: Denver Broncos 1988-92, New York Giants 1993-96, Atlanta Falcons 1997-2006, Jacksonville Jaguars 2007-08, Dallas Cowboys 2009-11.

Matt Eberflus joined the Dallas Cowboys on January 26, 2011 as the club's linebackers coach. Eberflus, who enters his fourth season coaching in the NFL, returns for his second season with Dallas after spending the previous two seasons as the Cleveland Browns linebackers coach. He spent 17 years prior to that coaching in the collegiate ranks. In Dallas, Eberflus will again be working with defensive coordinator Rob Ryan, with whom he worked under with the Browns.

The 2011 season marked Eberflus' first year overseeing the Cowboys linebackers, inheriting a unit led by All-Pro DeMarcus Ware, who once again terrorized NFL quarterbacks with 19.5 sacks – good for second in the NFC and the NFL and tops amongst all linebackers in the league – en route to his sixth consecutive selection as a Pro Bowl starter. Eberflus also helped oversee the emergence of second-year linebacker Sean Lee, who led the team with a career-best 131 tackles and tied for the team-lead with four interceptions, which were the most by an NFL linebacker in 2011. The overall production of the linebacker unit was seen on the final stats sheet, with five of Dallas' top 10-tacklers – and three of the top-five – coming from the position: Lee (first – 131), Anthony Spencer (fourth – 74), Keith Brooking (fifth – 72), Ware (sixth – 67) and Bradie James (ninth – 53).

In 2010 Eberflus led the charges of the Browns linebacking corps that had four of its starters (ILB Eric Barton, 12 starts; ILB Scott Fujita, nine starts; ILB Chris Gocong, 16 starts; OLB Matt Roth, 16 starts) finish in the top-10 in tackles. Additionally, linebacker David Bowens became the second player in Browns history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in a single game (at New Orleans, 10/24).

In his first season with the Browns, Eberflus guided a unit through a solid season despite the loss of both starting inside linebackers due to injury by the season's midpoint. Under Eberflus' guidance, linebacker Bowens made a successful transition from an outside spot to the inside, finishing with a career-best 71 tackles, with 5.5 sacks - the third-highest sack figure of his career. With the injuries to his inside starters, Eberflus worked third-year backer Jason Trusnik into a starting role. Trusnik, acquired five weeks into the season, went on to make the first 10 starts of his career and tallied 54 tackles and 2.5 sacks.

Prior to entering the pro ranks, Eberflus coached at the University of Missouri (2001-08). He came to Missouri as the defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach in 2001 and became the associate head coach/defensive coordinator/safeties coach in 2006. While with Missouri, Eberflus guided the Tigers defense to the Big 12 North Division title in 2007 and 2008, compiling a 22-6 record over that span. Not being limited to his role with the defense, Eberflus helped recruit All-American quarterback Brad Smith and wide receiver Sean Coffey while also landing defensive back William Moore and linebacker Sean Weatherspoon.

Before arriving in Missouri, Eberflus spent nine years (1992-2000) at his alma mater, the University of Toledo. He served as a student assistant coach in 1992, then as a graduate assistant in 1993 before landing a full-time spot in 1994 as recruiting coordinator/outside linebackers coach. He held that position for two seasons before concentrating solely on the outside linebackers for two more seasons (1996-98). For his last two years at Toledo, Eberflus coached defensive backs. In his seven seasons as a full-timer, Toledo boasted a winning record each season, compiling a 56-22-2 record, including an 11-0-1 finish in 1995 and a 10-1 finish in 2000.

Eberflus was a four-year letterman and a three-year starting linebacker at Toledo. He earned first-team All-Conference honors as a junior and senior as he led the team in tackles both years. He also served as a team captain as a senior and took home the Nicholson Trophy for contributing the most towards the success of the team.

Eberflus earned his degree in education from Toledo in 1993 and was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004.

Eberflus and his wife, Kelly, have two daughters, Grace and Giada.

Matt Eberflus – Born May 17, 1970, Toledo, Ohio. Linebacker Toledo 1988-91. No pro playing experience. College coach: Toledo 1992-2000, Missouri 2001-08. Pro coach: Cleveland Browns 2009-10, Dallas Cowboys 2011.

John Garrett returned to the NFL in February of 2007 after a three-year collegiate coaching stint at the University of Virginia under head coach Al Groh. While helping to continue the dramatic production of perennial Pro Bowl tight end Jason Witten in Dallas, Garrett has also assisted in the development of depth and talent at the Cowboys tight end position behind Witten with players such as John Phillips and 2012 sixth round draft choice, James Hanna. In 2011 Garrett added duties as the passing game coordinator while continuing to coach tight ends.

Garrett's crop of tight ends in 2011 were once again highlighted by Witten, who for the fifth consecutive season, led the offense in receptions with 79 while also posting a team-best 942 receiving yards and added five touchdowns. Witten became only the second tight end in NFL history to top 60 receptions in eight consecutive seasons and the second to top 70 receptions during five straight seasons. He also topped 900 receiving yards for his fifth consecutive season to trail only Tony Gonzalez (six) among league tight ends to accomplish the feat. Behind Witten, both Bennett (17 receptions, 144 yards) and Phillips (15 receptions, 101 yards, one touchdown) provided support with their receiving and blocking abilities.

In his first season as the passing game coordinator, Garrett helped coach a passing offense that tallied 4,201 yards in the air – the second-most in team history – and saw Tony Romo boast one of the best statistical seasons in his career. Romo established a career-high mark with a 102.5 quarterback rating (second in team history), while his 31 touchdowns and 4,184 passing yards were the second-most of his career (third and second, respectively, in team history). Both his attempts (522) and completion (346) totals were the second-most of his career while both made the club record books – attempts (third) and completions (second) – and his 66.28 completion percentage was a personal-best and second in team history.

In 2010 Witten continued to set the bar for tight ends as he led the team for the fourth straight season with 94 catches - tied for third in team history. He also finished with his third career - second consecutive - 1,000-yard season (1,002). With his receptions total, Witten topped 60 catches for the seventh straight season - the second tight end in league history to accomplish the feat. Witten also topped 80 receptions for the third consecutive season - the second league tight end to do that as well. His five cumulative seasons with 80+ catches tied the second-most 80+ catch seasons by a league tight end. Witten's three 90-catch seasons are the second-most by a tight end in league history and he is just one-of-two with back-to-back 90-catch seasons. Witten also earned his seventh straight trip to the Pro Bowl. Bennett set a single-season career-high with 33 receptions in 2010 to go along with 260 yards. Phillips' season was cut short as he suffered a torn ACL in the first preseason game and spent the year rehabbing. The combination of Witten and Bennett boasted the league's highest production among a tight end duo as they combined for 127 catches and 1,262 yards.

Garrett's group of tight ends in 2009 was led once again by Witten, who finished with a team-best 94 catches (third in team history) while topping 1,000 yards for the second time in his career (1,030). Witten also earned his sixth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl - the most trips by a tight end in franchise history. Bennett contributed 15 catches for 159 yards while the rookie Phillips saw most of his time as a blocker, finishing with seven catches for 62 yards. Phillips did catch his first career touchdown pass on a one-yard dump in the Wild Card Playoff Game against Philadelphia (1/9/10).

Garrett's continued work with Witten in 2008 allowed the tight end to again lead the team in receptions (81) and finish second in yards (952). While celebrating yet another productive season, Witten earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl to tie Jay Novacek for the most trips to the game by a Dallas tight end. Garrett was also charged with working Dallas' second round draft pick Bennett into the mix, and he showed flashes of his potential as a pass catcher, finishing with 20 catches for 283 yards and four touchdowns. Bennett had a streak of three consecutive games with a receiving score to become just the third rookie in club history to have a touchdown catch in three consecutive games, joining Bob Hayes (twice in 1965) and Antonio Bryant (2002).

The trio of Witten, Anthony Fasano and Tony Curtis formed one of the most solid position groups on the Dallas roster in 2007 with each player making key individual contributions through the course of the season. While earning a trip to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl in 2007, Witten finished the year second among all NFL tight ends (first in the NFC) in both receptions (96) and receiving yardage (1,145). Both totals represented club season records for a Dallas tight end, and his reception total was the second-highest by any Dallas player, at any position, in team history. Among players at all positions in 2007, Witten was 10th in the NFL in receptions and seventh in receiving yardage. The 2007 season marked Witten's first career 1,000-yard receiving year and the first ever by a Dallas tight end. His career-high 15 receptions at Detroit also established a club record for catches in a game - while tying Kellen Winslow's NFL single game mark for tight ends.

Fasano continued his development as a formidable blocker in the running game and a solid compliment to Witten in the two-tight end set. Curtis also carved out a productive role in the short yardage offense and registered three receptions on the year - all of which resulted in Dallas touchdowns.

Garrett served as the Virginia wide receivers coach in all three of his seasons with the Cavaliers, and in 2006, he was handed the additional responsibilities of being Groh's assistant head coach. Prior to entering the collegiate ranks in 2004, Garrett had spent the previous 12 years in professional football, working both on the coaching and player personnel sides for three different NFL clubs.

In 2003 he was a scout for the Cincinnati Bengals after spending the previous two seasons (2001-2002) as a Bengals offensive assistant coach, working mostly with the tight ends.

In 1999 and 2000, Garrett was the quarterbacks coach in Arizona and was charged with guiding the development of Cardinals quarterback Jake Plummer. Plummer passed for over 5,000 yards in his two years under Garrett, and by the end of the 2000 season, he became the fastest Cardinal quarterback to reach the 10,000 career passing yard milestone in club history.

Garrett's first tour of duty in Cincinnati was spent exclusively as a member of the Bengals coaching staff from 1995 to 1998. He was the club's wide receivers coach in 1996 and was an offensive assistant who worked regularly with the receivers during the other three seasons.

Garrett's post-playing football career began as a pro personnel assistant for Sam Wyche's Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1992 to 1994. In addition to his personnel duties with the Bucs, Garrett prepared for his coaching career by providing on-field coaching assistance with the receivers during the week while assisting the defensive staff on game days.

After an outstanding Ivy League career as a wide receiver at both Columbia and Princeton, Garrett earned a degree in history from Princeton in 1988. He spent time in the Dallas Cowboys training camp in 1988 before earning a roster spot with the Bengals in 1989. He spent seven weeks on the Buffalo Bills practice squad (1991) after becoming one of the leading receivers for the San Antonio Riders of the World League of American Football the previous spring.

Garrett is a product of a football family that has enjoyed a long association with the National Football League. His father, Jim, spent 38 years as both a scout or assistant coach in the NFL, and 21 of those years were as a member of the Dallas Cowboys scouting staff. Garrett's brother Jason enjoyed a 12-year career as a back-up quarterback in the NFL including the 1993-99 seasons with the Cowboys and is now the head coach for the Dallas Cowboys. His brother Judd was a practice squad player for the Cowboys 1993 Super Bowl Championship club, and is the Cowboys director of pro scouting.

Born on March 2, 1965, in Danville, Pa, Garrett graduated from the University School in Cleveland, Ohio in 1983. He and his wife Honor have four children - son John Morgan and daughters Honor, Olivia and Caroline.

JEROME HENDERSON

Secondary

Clemson University
NFL: 6th Year • Cowboys: 1st Year

The Dallas Cowboys added Jerome Henderson to their staff on January 12, 2012 as a secondary coach. In Dallas, Henderson is re-united with defensive coordinator Rob Ryan, whom he worked with in Cleveland from 2009-10.

Henderson spent the previous three seasons as a secondary coach in Cleveland where his defensive backs recorded seven of the club's nine interceptions in 2011 and finished second in the NFL in passing defense.

He was instrumental in the development of cornerback Joe Haden and safety T.J. Ward, both of whom were consensus All-Rookie selections in 2010. Despite starting just seven games, Haden led the team with six interceptions, a figure that tied for fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL and was the second-highest figure among NFL rookies in 2010. Haden's total also tied the fourth-highest single-season figure by a Browns rookie and were the most since 2001. Ward started all 16 games, becoming the first Browns rookie defensive back to do that since Antonio Langham in 1994. In addition, Ward led the team with 105 tackles on defense, a figure that ranked first among all NFL rookies that year. He became the first rookie to lead the Browns in defensive tackles since 1999.

Prior to joining the Browns, Henderson spent three seasons as a member of the New York Jets staff. Under Henderson's guidance as defensive backs coach in 2008, cornerback Darrelle Revis earned a Pro Bowl berth after leading the team with five interceptions. In 2007 Henderson split duties as an assistant defensive backs coach and director of player development. He first joined the Jets in 2006 as the director of player development after serving as vice president of HomeBanc Mortgage Corp. in Raleigh, N.C. from 2002-05.

Henderson played eight seasons as a defensive back in the NFL after New England made him a second round draft choice in 1991. He played with the Patriots (1991-93, 1996), Buffalo (1993-94), Philadelphia (1995) and the Jets (1997-98) in his NFL career, during which time he appeared in 98 games with 34 starts. He recorded nine career interceptions. Henderson played in two Super Bowls, with the Bills in Super Bowl XXVIII and with New England in Super Bowl XXXI.

Henderson grew up in Statesville, N.C., and went on to play four years at Clemson University (1987-90). He and his wife, Traci, have three children, Jazmin and twins Taylor and Tyler.

LEON LETT

Defensive Assistant/Defensive Line

Emporia State
NFL: 2nd Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year

Leon Lett, a former Dallas Cowboys defensive lineman who won three Super Bowl titles and earned two Pro Bowl berths during his 10-year run with the club, now settles into the next phase of his NFL career as an assistant coach with the same organization that drafted him. Lett assisted the Cowboys during the 2011 training camp as a member of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program and was later hired on a full-time basis to assist with the team's defensive line as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach during the 2011 season.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Lett's only previous experience as a coach came in 2010 when he served as the defensive line coach at the University of Louisiana at Monroe. He also served as a volunteer assistant at UNLV in 2009.

Drafted in the seventh round (173rd overall) of the 1991 NFL Draft, Lett became the first and only player ever selected by the Cowboys out of Emporia State to make the squad's final roster. Nicknamed "Big Cat" by his teammates for his agility, Lett compiled 361 tackles, 22.5 sacks, 37 tackles for losses, 128 quarterback pressures, 26 pass breakups, eight forced fumbles, seven fumble recoveries and four blocked kicks while playing in 109 games with 73 starts during a 10-year career as a Cowboys player. He also appeared in 14 postseason contests with nine starts, including three Super Bowl victories.

Lett concluded his playing career with the Denver Broncos in 2001 where he totaled 15 tackles in 12 games.

During his collegiate career, Lett was a big part of a defense that held opponents to 4.1 yards-per-play and 3.1 yards-per-carry during his two years at Emporia State. He finished second on the team in sacks (four) and earned All-NAIA District 10 honors despite missing three games due to a leg injury as a senior. In his first season with the Hornets in 1989 after playing in junior college, Lett helped Emporia State to the Central States Intercollegiate Conference title and their first appearance in the NAIA Championship Game. He also earned honorable mention NAIA All-America, All-NAIA District 10 and ALL-CSIC honors after leading the team in passes defensed (10) and blocked kicks (two) and finishing second in tackles (83) and sacks (five) as a junior. In two previous seasons at Hinds (Miss.) Junior College, Lett recorded 141 tackles, 10 sacks, nine passes defensed and recovered three fumbles.

SKIP PEETE

Running Backs

Kansas
NFL: 15th Year • Cowboys: 6th Year

Skip Peete arrived in Dallas on February 15, 2007 to coach the club's running backs after spending nine seasons in the same capacity with the Oakland Raiders. In 2012 Peete will tutor a running back trio with the power, speed and aggressiveness to score from any part of the field as all three backs look to return to the field healthy after injuries in 2011. The club also added veteran fullback Lawrence Vickers in the offseason, who will help bolster the running game.

In 2011 Peete was forced to shuffle his running back corps as slated starter Felix Jones missed several games due to injury and his two rookie running backs finished the year on injured reserve. Peete saw rookie DeMarco Murray emerge as the club's featured back after Jones went down due to injury, as Murray set a club single-game rushing record with 253 yards against St. Louis (10/23). He finished the year as the team's leading rusher with 897 yards on 164 carries with two touchdowns. Jones rushed for 575 yards on 127 carries with one score, while rookie Phillip Tanner had 22 carries for 76 yards with a score.

The 2010 running back duties were by committee featuring Marion Barber, Felix Jones and Tashard Choice. Barber started the first eight games of the season, missing three games down the stretch with a calf injury, to finish with 374 rushing yards on 113 carries and a team-best four rushing touchdowns. Jones led the club with career-highs in carries (185) and rushing yards (800) while Choice finished with 66 carries for 243 yards and three scores with most of his action coming late in the season after Barber's injury.

In 2009 Peete had Barber as the club's starter, finishing with 214 carries for 932 yards and seven touchdowns while both Jones and Choice played pivotal roles in Dallas' ground assault. Jones led the team with a 5.9 yard-per-carry average (116 rushes for 685 yards) which established a team-record that had been untouched for 47 years, and finished second with three touchdowns while Choice finished with 64 carries for 349 yards and three scores seeing most of his rushes coming from the club's "razorback" package. While injuries cut into some playing time for each of the Cowboys backs, the club still finished seventh in the league (third in the NFC) averaging 131.4 yards-per-game. Dallas was second in the league, tops in the NFC, with a rushing average of 4.8 yards.

In 2008 Peete worked Barber into the starting tailback role. Barber was off to a solid start before dislocating a toe on Thanksgiving Day against Seattle. Barber's workload tapered off, but he still managed to lead the team with 238 carries for 885 yards and seven touchdowns. First round draft choice Jones suffered a hamstring injury that led to a toe injury during the rehab process. Jones still managed to turn heads in his limited time as the rookie and averaged 8.9 yards-per-carry on 30 runs with three touchdowns. Peete called on his experience as he was forced to use fourth round choice Choice, who started three of the final four games and finished with 472 yards and two touchdowns on 92 carries (5.1 avg.).

In his first season in Dallas, Peete's running back tandem of Barber and Julius Jones teamed for 1,563 yards and 12 touchdowns on 368 carries. They were one of just three running back pairs in the league to each have 150-or-more carries and 550-or-more rushing yards. Barber set career numbers with 204 carries for 975 yards to go with his 10 touchdowns and earned his first career Pro Bowl selection despite seeing time as a reserve through the entire regular season. In Barber's lone start of the season – the Divisional Playoff Game – he rushed for a career-best 129 yards and a score on a career-best 27 carries.

In 2006 Peete's work with the Raiders running backs allowed fourth-year man Justin Fargas to rush for his then single-season career-best yardage total (659). The prior season saw LaMont Jordan reach 1,025 yards – the first 1,000-yard season of his career. Jordan also rushed for nine touchdowns, a single-season personal best.

Peete's running back corps helped the Raiders lead the NFL in total offense, win the 2002 AFC Championship and move on to Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego. Charlie Garner led the charge in 2002 as he led the team in carries (182), yards (962) and average gain (5.3) while also finishing second on the team with 91 catches - just one behind Jerry Rice – for 941 receiving yards. Under Peete, the Raiders led the NFL in rushing in 2000 at almost 155 yards-per-game. Tyrone Wheatley led the 2000 team with 1,046 yards on the ground.

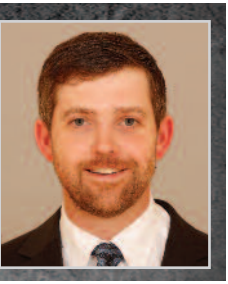

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Peete spent two seasons at UCLA, helping Skip Hicks to consecutive 1,000-yard and 20-plus touchdown seasons. He was the wide receivers coach at Rutgers (1995) and Michigan State (1993-94). Peete was on the University of Pittsburgh coaching staff from 1988-92. While with the Panthers, he coached the running backs (1991-92) and mentored future New York Jets rusher Curtis Martin. Peete worked with Pitt's wide receivers (1989-90) after serving one season as a graduate assistant in 1988.

The Phoenix native began his collegiate playing career at the University of Arizona before transferring to Kansas. While at Kansas, Peete was an All-Big Eight wide receiver in 1985 and was voted team captain as a senior in 1986. In 1987 Peete was a wide receiver and played on special teams for the N.Y. Jets. His father Willie is a longtime college and NFL coach and was also a member of the Chicago Bears pro player personnel department. His brother, Rodney, is a former NFL quarterback, who played 16 seasons, including the 1994 season with the Cowboys. Skip and his wife, Rebeca, have twins, son Reeco and daughter Gisele.

Skip Peete – Born January 30, 1963, Phoenix, Ariz. Wide receiver University of Arizona 1981-82, University of Kansas 1984-85. Pro: Wide receiver New York Jets 1987. College coach: University of Pittsburgh 1988-92, Michigan State 1993-94, Rutgers University 1995, UCLA 1996-97. Pro coach: Oakland Raiders 1998-2006, Dallas Cowboys 2007-11.

WES PHILLIPS

Assistant Offensive Line

Texas El Paso
NFL: 6th Year • Cowboys: 6th Year

Wes Phillips joined the Dallas Cowboys in 2007 as the club's quality control/offensive assistant coach after coaching quarterbacks at the collegiate level for four years. In 2011 Phillips relinquished his role as a quality control coach and was the club's assistant offensive line coach in addition to continuing to assist the special teams under special teams coordinator Joe DeCamillis. Phillips will again serve as the assistant offensive line coach this season under Cowboys offensive coordinator/offensive line coach Bill Callahan.

Phillips worked with a revamped offensive line in 2011 that saw new starters at four of the five positions. The only constant from 2010 was left tackle Doug Free. Kyle Kosier, who manned the left guard spot for five seasons, moved to the right side. Taking over Kosier's former position was Dallas' 2011 seventh round draft choice Bill Nagy, who started four of the first five games before landing on Reserve/Injured with a broken ankle. At center was first-time starter Phil Costa and at right tackle was Dallas' top draft choice Tyron Smith. Despite the changes, the Dallas offense racked up 6,008 total yards (second in team history) and 4,483 passing yards (second all-time). Behind the line, Tony Romo posted his third career 4,000-yard season and second 30-plus touchdown season while rookie running back DeMarco Murray established a single-game team rushing record with a 253-yard performance against St. Louis (10/23). In addition to his 253-yard game, the line blocked for Murray to record two more 100-yard games in the next three weeks while posting the club's greatest three, four and six-game rushing yards total. Phillips will again deal with a new offensive line in 2012 as the club parted ways with Kosier and welcomed in free agent guards Mackenzy Bernadeau and Nate Livings. Also expected in 2012 is a switch at the two tackle spots with Free moving to the right side and Smith to the left.

As part of the offensive coaching staff in 2010, the offense amassed 5,828 total yards for the seventh-highest yardage output in franchise history while topping the 4,000 passing yard mark for the third time in four years with the third-most in club history (4,042).

In 2009 Phillips was part of a coaching staff whose offense set single-season club records that included 6,390 yards of total offense – marking the first time a Cowboys team topped 6,000 yards in a season in team history – and 4,287 passing yards. The offense as a whole finished second in the league in total offense, averaging 399.4 yards-per-game, with both the rushing game (seventh with 131.4 rushing yards-per-game) and passing game (fifth with 267.9 passing yards-per-game) finishing in the top-10 in the NFL. Phillips also continued assisting DeCamillis on special teams during practices and in games, including overseeing the unit at Washington (12/27) when DeCamillis had an emergency appendectomy that forced him to miss the game.

In his second season as an NFL coach in 2008, Phillips and the offensive coaching staff oversaw an offense that finished the season 13th in the NFL in total offense with 344.5 yards-per-game. The team was ninth in the league in passing offense (236.8 yards-per-game), and the team's total of 3,789 net yards passing was, at the time, the fifth-highest in club history since the 16-game NFL regular season was implemented in 1978.

In 2007, Phillips' first season as a Cowboys coach, the offense rounded out the season second in the NFL in scoring (first in the NFC) with an average of 28.4 points-per-game. With 365.7 yards-per-game, the Cowboys were third in the NFL (second in the NFC) in total offense, and with 256.6 yards-per-game, the team finished fourth in the NFL (third in the NFC) in passing. In total, the 5,851 yards of offense amassed was then the fifth-highest total yardage output in team history.

Before landing in Dallas, Phillips coached quarterbacks at Baylor in 2006 under offensive coordinator Lee Hays. His work with quarterback Shawn Bell paid dividends as Bell established school single-season records despite missing the final three games with a knee injury.

Prior to his one-year stint at Baylor, Phillips spent two seasons as the quarterbacks coach at West Texas A&M University under Hays. The Buffaloes celebrated their most successful season in almost 55 years in 2005, finishing 10-2 to post their first winning season since 1998, and the program's first 10-win season since 1950. WTAMU won the Lone Star Conference with an 8-1 record, its first league title since 1986 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA D-II Playoffs for the first time in school history.

Phillips was an assistant coach at WTAMU and helped the school lead the 2005 Division II ranks in passing offense, racking up 363.8 yards-per-game. He tutored quarterback Dalton Bell who was a finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, which goes to the top Division II player.

Prior to joining the WTAMU staff, Phillips spent one season as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, UTEP, and played two seasons at quarterback for the San Diego Riptide of the af2.

A three-year letterwinner at UTEP (1999-2001), Phillips was a member of the 2000 Miners team that shared the WAC title, posted the school's highest win total in more than a decade and played in the Humanitarian Bowl. Phillips left the collegiate ranks among the school's single-season leaders in both pass efficiency (ninth – 120.0 in 2001) and completion percentage (eighth – 55.6 in 2001).

Phillips received his degree in philosophy from UTEP in 2001. Phillips and his wife, Anna, were married on July 4, 2009 and have one daughter, Ivy and a son, Mac.

Wes Phillips – Born February 17, 1979, Houston, Texas. Quarterback UTEP 1997-2001. Pro: Quarterback San Diego Riptide (af2) 2002-03. College coach: UTEP 2003, West Texas A&M 2004-05, Baylor 2006. Pro coach: Dallas Cowboys 2007-11.

JIMMY ROBINSON

Assistant Head Coach/Wide Receivers

Georgia Tech
NFL: 23rd Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year

Fresh off of a Super Bowl XLV Championship with the Green Bay Packers, Jimmy Robinson arrived in Dallas on February 11, 2011 to become the team's assistant head coach/wide receivers. Along with a Super Bowl Championship – and an appearance in Super Bowl XXXV while coaching with the N.Y. Giants - Robinson brought 27 years of NFL experience with him - 21 years as a coach and six as a player. Robinson also had a working knowledge of Jason Garrett's style after serving on the Giants coaching staff while Garrett was a backup quarterback for the club (2000-03).

In his first year in Dallas, Robinson managed a receiver corps that helped the offense post 58 receptions of 20-or-more yards which was the club's second-highest figure (61 in 2009) over the last 10 seasons. Overall, the offense had 4,453 receiving yards and 33 touchdowns, which were both second in a season in club history – 2009, 4,483 yards and 2007, 36 touchdowns. Opening the season with incumbent starters Miles Austin and Dez Bryant, Robinson was also charged with working in Dallas newcomer Laurent Robinson, who filled in for Austin (missed six games to injury) and settled in as the club's third receiver with Austin's return. Dallas' top-three receivers accounted for 27 of the club's 33 receiving touchdowns with Laurent Robinson atop the list with 11. He was just the eighth different Cowboy to top 10 touchdowns in a season. Bryant finished his second pro season with nine touchdown catches on 63 catches for 928 yards. Along with Laurent's 858 yards, the duo became just the eighth pair of Cowboys wide receivers to both top 800 yards in a season. Despite Austin's six-game injury absence, he finished with 43 catches for 579 yards and seven touchdowns.

Robinson arrived in Green Bay on Jan. 17, 2006 as the club's wide receivers coach and guided a unit that compiled the third-most receiving yards (21,299) over the five-year span. During that same period, receivers Greg Jennings (5,222 yards - eighth) and Donald Driver (4,981- 12th) placed in the top-15 of the NFL in receiving yards. Additionally, Jennings earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2010 and Driver his second and third (2006 and 2007).

During his 2010 championship season, Robinson's top receiver, Jennings, finished fourth in the NFL, second in the NFC, with 1,265 yards and tied for second in the league, tied for tops in the NFL, with 12 touchdown catches. Jennings also added two of the offense's three touchdowns in the 31-25 Super Bowl XLV win over Pittsburgh.

In his two seasons with the New Orleans Saints (2004-05), Robinson helped build up a receiving corps that eventually helped the club capture its first Super Bowl Championship (XLIV) after his departure. In 2005 under Robinson, Donte' Stallworth saw his best season as a pro, catching 70 passes for 945 yards with seven touchdowns. In his first season with the Saints, Robinson worked with Joe Horn, who tied a career-best and tied for the NFC lead with 94 catches. Horn also had career-highs and franchise records with 1,399 receiving yards and 11 touchdowns.

Robinson spent six seasons (1998-2003) as the wide receivers coach for the N.Y. Giants, helping the receiving corps to the most successful seasons in franchise history. Robinson's time with Amani Toomer helped the receiver garner the franchise record for career receiving yards while also posting single-season club records with 82 catches for 1,387 yards in 2002. Toomer became the first Giant to catch at least 70 passes in four straight years (1999-2002) and have five consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1999-2003). Robinson's receivers caught a team-record 186 passes for 2,680 yards and 15 touchdowns in 2001. Earlier that season, Toomer and Ike Hilliard became the first Giants receiving tandem to combine for more than 2,000 yards.

Robinson coached receivers in Indianapolis for four years (1994-97) before arriving in New York. While with the Colts, Robinson was a catalyst for Marvin Harrison's stellar career as he became only the third club rookie to lead the team in receiving yards.

While with Atlanta (1990-93), Robinson worked with some of the league's most explosive receivers during the 1990s. In 1991, and again the following season, Andre Rison and Michael Haynes combined to lead the league in touchdown catches by a receiving duo - 23 in 1991 and 21 in '92.

Robinson broke into the professional coaching ranks in 1984 as the receivers/tight ends coach for the Memphis Showboats of the United States Football League, a position he resumed in 1985 for the team. He then moved to the collegiate level as a receivers coach at his alma mater, Georgia Tech (1987-89). Robinson spent six years (N.Y. Giants, 1976-79; San Francisco 49ers, 1980 and Denver Broncos, 1981) as an NFL receiver after being selected in the 15th round of the 1985 NFL Draft. In 58 pro games, he caught 85 passes for 1,437 yards and six touchdowns while adding 27 kickoff returns and 59 punt returns. He twice led the Giants in receptions (1977-78) and most notably, scored the first Giants touchdown in Giants Stadium on a 30-yard Craig Morton pass against Dallas (10/10/76).

A standout wide receiver during his time with the Yellow Jackets (1971-74), Robinson finished his collegiate career with 101 catches for 1,633 yards and 13 touchdowns. The school inducted him into its Hall of Fame in 1981 and named him to the Yellow Jackets all-time team in 1992. He earned a degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech in 1975.

Robinson and his wife, Karen, have four children, Jamie, Jessica, Jim and Katie and a granddaughter, Avery.

Jimmy Robinson – Born January 3, 1953, New York, N.Y. Wide Receiver Georgia Tech. Pro: Wide Receiver N.Y. Giants 1976-1979, San Francisco 49ers 1980, Denver Broncos 1981. ROB RYAN

Defensive Coordinator

Southwestern Oklahoma State
NFL: 15th Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year

The Dallas Cowboys added a coach with an aggressive coaching style and fiery personality when they named Rob Ryan as the team's defensive coordinator on January 15, 2011. Ryan arrived in Dallas with 24 years of coaching experience and 13 years of NFL experience. Now in his 15th NFL season, he has spent the previous eight as an NFL defensive coordinator - Oakland Raiders (2004-08), Cleveland Browns (2009-10) and Dallas (2011) - and has four years of experience heading up defenses at the collegiate level.

In his first year with Dallas, Ryan was charged with preparing a new defense despite not having the luxury of an offseason to prepare his players. Nevertheless, under Ryan's guidance, DeMarcus Ware finished second in the league with the second-most sacks in a season in his career (19.5). It was also his seventh consecutive season leading or tying for the team lead in sacks and his sixth straight with 10-or-more sacks. In his first time as a starting middle linebacker, second-year pro Sean Lee paced the team with 131 tackles while former Pro Bowlers Mike Jenkins and Terence Newman tied for the team lead with four interceptions each.

In 2010 Ryan's defense in Cleveland tied for eighth in the NFL with 19 interceptions. Ryan's work as the head of the Browns defense saw six different players post multiple interceptions on the season to tie for the third-most players with two-or-more interceptions on a team that season. Rookie defensive back Joe Haden led the team, tied for fifth in the NFL and tied for second among rookies with six interceptions. Haden's six picks were the most by a Brown since Leigh Bodden had six in 2007, and they were the most by a Browns rookie since Anthony Henry had a team-record 10 thefts in 2001. Also among Ryan's secondary was the club's leading tackler in T.J. Ward. Ward, also a rookie, became the first Cleveland rookie to lead the team in tackles since linebacker Wali Rainer in 1999. On the ground, Cleveland allowed just seven rushing touchdowns, which tied for the fourth-fewest in the league.

In Ryan's first season in Cleveland, the club did not allow a touchdown in three games - the most games in which a Browns defense did not yield a touchdown since 2003. Ryan's defense posted 40.0 sacks to tie for eighth in the league and the most for a Cleveland defense since racking up 43 in 2001. Over the second half of the season, Ryan's defense saw an improvement as they yielded less points allowed (-5.3 per-game), total yards allowed (-39.9), rushing yards allowed (-52.0), sacks (+1.0) and first downs allowed (-2.7).

Before landing in Cleveland, Ryan spent five seasons as the Oakland Raiders defensive coordinator. In his time guiding the fortunes of the Raiders defense, Ryan tutored a pair of Pro Bowlers in defensive end Derrick Burgess and cornerback Nnamdi Asomugha. In his four seasons playing for Ryan, Burgess amassed 38.5 sacks, including an NFL-best 16.0 in 2005. Asomugha finished 2006 third in the league with eight interceptions. In that same season, the Raiders defense led the league in pass defense (150.8 yards-per-game) and third in total defense (284.8 yards-per-game). For his work in 2006, Ryan was named the USA Today All-Joe Coordinator of the Year.

Ryan spent four seasons (2000-03) as the linebackers coach for Bill Belichick's New England Patriots. In his time with the Patriots, Ryan was a part of two Super Bowl championship teams - XXXVI and XXXVIII - while working with one of the league's top linebackers in Teddy Bruschi. He also mentored 2003 Pro Bowl linebacker Willie McGinest.

Ryan began his NFL coaching career in 1994 as the defensive backs coach under his father, Buddy, for the Arizona Cardinals. In his first season in Arizona, the Cardinals boasted the NFL's third ranked defense. Under Rob, cornerback Aeneas Williams earned two trips to the Pro Bowl (1994 and 1995) and the Cardinals led the league with 42 takeaways in 1995.

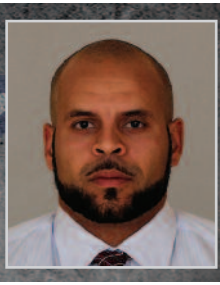

Ryan entered the coaching ranks in 1987 as a graduate assistant with Western Kentucky. He assumed similar responsibilities at Ohio State in 1988. He then spent five seasons (1989-93) at Tennessee State where he coached running backs (1989-91), linebackers (1992) and the defensive line (1993).

Ryan spent three years at outside linebacker with Southwestern Oklahoma State. His twin brother, Rex, is the head coach of the N.Y. Jets.

WALT WILLIAMS

Assistant Strength and Conditioning

Grambling State
NFL: 2nd Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year

Walt Williams returns for his second season with the Dallas Cowboys as an assistant strength and conditioning coach under Mike Woicik. Williams, no stranger to Woicik's strength and conditioning program, was coached by Woicik while the two were both in New England (2001-02) through Williams' first two NFL seasons.

Williams arrived in the NFL following the 2001 NFL Draft as a rookie free agent with the Patriots. As a rookie, he was part of the Patriots Super Bowl XXXVI Championship team. Williams also played for the New Orleans Saints (2003), Green Bay Packers (2004-05) and Oakland Raiders (2006). He also had a stint with the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe in 2004.

Following his playing career, Williams returned to Louisiana where he worked for Shintech as a process technician starting in 2007. From 2008 on, he was the head strength and conditioning trainer at the Baranco Clark YMCA in Baton Rouge, La.

Williams played only one year of football at Grambling State University, but started all 11 games (six at wide receiver, five at running back) to earn the team's Newcomer of the Year Award in 1999, playing both running back and wide receiver. He finished second on the team with 1,033 all-purpose yards, made 29 receptions (third on team) for 678 yards and six touchdowns and ranked third with 158 yards and one touchdown on 31 rushing attempts. While at Grambling, Williams majored in therapeutic recreation.

Williams was a 3A state performer in track and field and an all-district selection in basketball at Brusly, La., High School. He became the first student-athlete at Brusly to play in and coach in the NFL.

WADE WILSON

Quarterbacks

East Texas State
NFL: 12th Year • Cowboys: 9th Year

Wade Wilson returned to the Dallas Cowboys organization as the quarterbacks coach in 2007 after spending three seasons with the Chicago Bears in the same capacity. A native Texan with football roots that go back to his high school and collegiate career as a quarterback, Wilson, recognized around the NFL as a solid teacher of young quarterbacks, will again handle the responsibility of working with one of the top NFL quarterbacks in Tony Romo. Dallas added a familiar quarterback to Wilson during the 2012 free agency period to serve as Romo's primary backup with the addition of Kyle Orton, whom Wilson coached as a rookie in Chicago, and also returns Stephen McGee.

After losing Romo for most of the 2010 season, the quarterback returned to form in 2011 to produce one of his finest statistical seasons as a pro. Romo established a career-high mark with a 102.5 quarterback rating (second in team history), while his 31 touchdowns and 4,184 passing yards were the second-most of his career. Both his attempts (522) and completions (346) were good for the second-most of his career while both made the club record books – attempts (third) and completions (second) – and his 66.28 completion percentage was a personal-best and second in team history. The 2011 season wasn't without challenges as injuries to Romo opened opportunities for both Kitna and McGee. Kitna subbed for Romo (ribs) in the third quarter at San Francisco (9/18) and McGee entered the Philadelphia (12/24) game following the first offensive series after Romo suffered a bruised hand.

Wilson was challenged in 2010 as he had to prepare three different starting quarterbacks, with one making his first career start, and another seeing his first action since 2008. Romo started the season, but a fractured left clavicle suffered against the N.Y. Giants (10/25) led the way for Jon Kitna to take the helm. Before the injury, Romo completed 148-of-213 passes (69.5%) for 1,605 yards, 11 touchdowns and seven interceptions. In his first action since 2008, Kitna completed 209-of-318 passes (65.7%) for 2,365 yards, 16 touchdowns and 12 interceptions before suffering an abdominal injury at Arizona (12/25). Stephen McGee took over for an injured Kitna at Arizona, before making the first start of his career at Philadelphia (1/2/11). On the day, he completed 11-of-27 passes for 127 yards with one touchdown. With the win at Philadelphia, McGee became just the 14th Dallas quarterback to win in his first career start as a Cowboy.

Romo had one of his best seasons under Wilson in 2009 as the quarterback showed great maturity and ball protection. Romo had a single-season career-low nine interceptions while setting career-highs and club records in completions (347), attempts (550) and yards (4,483) and a then personal-best quarterback rating (97.6). Romo also earned his third Pro Bowl berth while setting a club record for 300-yard passing games in a season with eight. Wilson also worked with NFL veteran and Dallas newcomer, Kitna, who served as Romo's backup, while grooming fourth round draft choice McGee.

Wilson was charged with the task of preparing three different starting quarterbacks in 2008 - Romo, Brad Johnson and Brooks Bollinger - with Romo missing three games with a broken pinkie finger and Johnson filling in for two starts and Bollinger one start. Romo was unable to put up the same numbers as in Wilson's first year in 2007, but still managed to throw for 300-or-more yards in six games – good for the second-best total in club history. He also had six games with at least three touchdowns and finished with 26 touchdown passes on the year. Romo threw for 3,448 yards in 2008, marking the second consecutive year he topped 3,000 passing yards, becoming the first quarterback to do so since Troy Aikman had three (1995-97).

In his first season back with Dallas, Wilson's work with Romo allowed the first-time starter to rewrite club passing records. Under Wilson, Romo was the league's fifth-rated passer (97.4) – good for third in club annals. His 4,211 passing yards allowed the fifth-year veteran to become the first quarterback in club history to top 4,000 passing yards. Romo completed 335 passes which topped Danny White's single-season franchise record set in 1983 and shattered White's record of 29 passing touchdowns, finishing with 36. Romo also became the first signal caller in franchise history to throw four touchdowns in back-to-back games. On the season, he logged four games with four-or-more touchdown passes, also establishing a club record. Among the many other accomplishments of the young starter, Romo finished 2007 with seven games of 300-or-more passing yards, another team record.

In 2006 Wilson's guidance helped steer fourth-year quarterback Rex Grossman in leading the Bears to an NFC title and a berth in the Super Bowl. Prior to the season, Grossman had started just seven games in three injury-riddled years. Grossman threw 23 touchdown passes in his first full year as a starter, while directing Chicago to a 13-3 regular season record.

Through Wilson's first two seasons in Chicago (2004-05), rookie quarterbacks started 20 of the team's 32 regular season games while posting a 13-7 record. Under Wilson in 2005, rookie Kyle Orton was the Bears starter and went on to win nine of his first 12 starts. He finished the year with 10 wins – the most for a rookie drafted in the fourth round or later since the common draft was instituted in 1967. His 10 wins were also the second-best for a rookie passer during that span, behind Ben Roethlisberger in 2004. His eight-game win streak was also the second-longest by a rookie passer in the NFL dating back to 1970.

Wilson's first season in Chicago (2004) was marked by four starting quarterbacks each starting at least three games. Grossman began the season, but was lost for the year due to injury. Jonathan Quinn had the next three starts, but rookie Craig Krenzel took over for three games before an injury sidelined him for the season. Chad Hutchinson started the last five games.

Wilson made his coaching debut in Dallas in 2000 after 19 years as an NFL quarterback - including three years with Dallas (1995-97). Along with his playing experience, Wilson has overseen two of the most tumultuous seasons in Dallas quarterback history, coaching six different starting quarterbacks in his 32 games as the club's quarterback coach.

Wilson was forced to prepare four different starting quarterbacks during the 2001 season. It was the first time in club history four different players started at quarterback in the same season. Dallas opened the season with a rookie quarterback for just the third time in franchise history when Quincy Carter took the field against Tampa Bay. Injuries forced Carter from the lineup for eight of the next nine games. During that span, Anthony Wright earned three starts, Clint Stoerner led the club in two games and Ryan Leaf took the helm for three games in November. Carter returned to the lineup in December and guided the Cowboys to three wins in their final six games.

Wilson's first year on the job was just as hectic as four different quarterbacks saw action during the season, the first time in club history four different players saw action at quarterback in the same season. Troy Aikman started 11 games but missed five starts and parts of three other games with injuries. Randall Cunningham relieved Aikman on two occasions and started three other games in his place. His start at Washington (9/18) produced a 27-21 win for Dallas and gave Dave Campo his first win as a head coach and Wilson his first as an assistant. Stoerner, in his rookie year, saw action in one game before giving way to newcomer Wright.

A former Pro Bowler, Wilson joined the coaching ranks after a 19-year playing career. Only four other players in NFL history had played more seasons than Wilson. He was originally an eighth round draft choice (210th overall) of the Minnesota Vikings in 1981 and led them to three playoff appearances, including the 1987 NFC Championship Game, during his 11 years with the team. He also spent time with the Atlanta Falcons (1992), New Orleans Saints (1993-94), Dallas Cowboys (1995-97) and Oakland Raiders (1998-99). He served as Aikman's backup on the Cowboys Super Bowl XXX championship team in 1995.

Wilson completed his career with a 75.6 quarterback rating on 1,391-of-2,428 passing for 17,283 yards. His best statistical year was 1988 when he led the NFC with a 91.5 quarterback rating and completed 204-of-332 passes (61.4%) for 2,746 yards, 15 touchdowns and nine interceptions. During his three years in Dallas, Wilson threw for 585 yards, one touchdown and four interceptions on 58-of-96 passing for a 63.9 rating. He earned one start (at Washington, 12/22/96) in his three-year stay in Dallas.

He was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at East Texas State University, where he earned NAIA All-America and Lone Star Conference MVP honors as a senior while leading the conference in passing and total offense. He played high school football at nearby Commerce, Texas, High School.

Charles Wade Wilson was born on February 1, 1959 in Commerce, Texas. He majored in business management at ETSU, and he has his real estate license and his SEC-series seven registration. Wilson has four children; Travis Wade, Hayden, and twins Coleton and Sophie.

Wade Wilson – Born February 1, 1959, Commerce, Texas. Quarterback: East Texas State 1977-80. Pro: Quarterback Minnesota 1981-91, Atlanta 1992, New Orleans 1993-94, Dallas 1995-97, Oakland 1998-99. Pro Coach: Dallas Cowboys 2000-02, Chicago Bears, 2004-06, Dallas Cowboys 2007-11.

MIKE WOICIK

Strength and Conditioning

Boston College
NFL: 23rd Year • Cowboys: 9th Year

The Dallas Cowboys named Mike Woicik (WOY-sick) as the team's strength and conditioning coach for the 2011 season. Woicik, now in his second tour with Dallas, served as the club's strength and conditioning coach from 1990-96. Since his first stint with the Cowboys, Woicik headed up the strength and conditioning program for the New Orleans Saints (1997-99) followed by the New England Patriots (2000-10). Woicik now boasts 32 years of strength and conditioning experience, including 22 years in the NFL.

In his first year back with Dallas, Woicik and the strength staff were faced with getting players ready for the season during training camp without having an offseason of preparation due to the lockout. In 2012 Woicik will head up the offseason strength and conditioning program with the aim of helping rookies adjust to the rigors of the NFL while working to improve and lengthen playing careers for veterans.

Woicik also brings championship experience with him as he has claimed six Super Bowl Championships in his 21 NFL seasons - three with Dallas and three with New England. Woicik's six Super Bowl rings are more than any player or head coach has earned in NFL history. He was twice named the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Society's Coach of the Year Award (1992 and 2004). As a testament to the success of his strength and conditioning programs, from November through the end of the season, Woicik's teams have posted a 150-72 (.676) record - including playoffs.

Woicik was named the Patriots strength and conditioning coach on Feb. 16, 2000 and initiated programs that have contributed to the success of three Patriot Super Bowl teams. Under Woicik, the Patriots were able to sustain lengthy winning streaks during his tenure, compiling an NFL-record 21-game winning streak from 2003-04. In 2007 the Patriots became the first team in the NFL to win 18 consecutive games in a season.

Prior to New England, Woicik spent three seasons under head coach Mike Ditka with the Saints.

Woicik began his NFL coaching career in 1990 with the Cowboys and was voted the NFL's Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 1992. In seven seasons with Dallas, the Cowboys claimed 12 playoff wins, three Super Bowl Championships and garnered a 39-19 (.672) record through the second half of the season.

Woicik spent 10 years (1980-89) as the strength and conditioning coach at Syracuse University.

In his first coaching job, Woicik was the track coach and weight room coordinator at Springfield, Mass., College (1978-80). As a member of his collegiate track and field team at Boston College, Woicik set a then school record with a discus throw of 180 feet, five inches, earned All-East honors and qualified for the NCAA championships. He also competed in the shot put and hammer throw.

Woicik was a standout in football and track at Westwood High School. He earned his Bachelor's degree in history from Boston College and Master's in physical education from Springfield.

Mike Woicik – Born in 1956, Baltimore, Md. No college or pro football experience. College coach: Springfield College 1978-80, Syracuse 1980-89. Pro coach: Dallas Cowboys 1990-96, New Orleans Saints 1997-99, New England Patriots 2000-10, Dallas Cowboys 2011.

TOM CISKOWSKI

Assistant Director of Player Personnel

Tom Ciskowski (sis-COW-ski) was named the Director of College and Pro Scouting in 2008, and his title became Assistant Director of Player Personnel in 2011. In his first draft as the top scout in the 2008 NFL Draft, he helped the organization address two positions of concern in landing a pair of running backs and cornerbacks with Felix Jones and Mike Jenkins heading the list as two first round selections. The club also gained two additional picks in the 2009 NFL Draft through trades. Despite trading out of the second round in 2009 to leave Dallas without a first day selection, Ciskowski's second draft saw the club select 12 players to mark the most selections the club made since the draft was shortened to seven rounds in 1994. The team landed two players that they had high first-round draft grades on in the 2010 NFL Draft in wide receiver Dez Bryant (24th overall) and linebacker Sean Lee (55th overall). In 2011 Dallas selected an offensive lineman, Tyron Smith, with the ninth pick in the draft, the fourth time in club history Dallas selected an offensive lineman in the first round. The Cowboys acquired an athletic linebacker in Bruce Carter (40th) and a do-it-all running back in DeMarco Murray (71st) in the second and third rounds. The Cowboys were able to trade up in the first round of the 2012 NFL Draft to land arguably the best corner in the draft in Morris Claiborne with the sixth overall pick. The team did not have a second round choice due to the trade but added a big, athletic defensive end, Tyrone Crawford (81st), in the third round. On the final day of the draft the club added two linebackers, Kyle Wilber (113st) and Caleb McSurdy (222nd), a safety in Matt Johnson (135th), a wide receiver, Danny Coale (152nd) and tight end James Hanna (186th).

Ciskowski, who originally joined the Cowboys scouting department in 1992, finished his seventh season as the club's assistant director of college scouting in 2007. Ciskowski observed first-hand the top college prospects in the land and also helped organize the club's entire college scouting operation. In his first season with the Cowboys, he served as a scout administered by the BLESTO Scouting Combine. Ciskowski became an area scout in 1993, working in the west for five years before moving to the southeast from 1998-2000.

In 1979 he moved into the college coaching ranks, becoming the secondary coach at East Central University in Ada, Okla. While at ECU, he earned his master's degree in athletic administration. The following year, he moved to Arizona State University, working with the defensive line as a graduate assistant for the 1980-81 seasons.

In 1982 Ciskowski moved to Oklahoma State, joining the staff of former Dallas offensive line coach Tony Wise, before becoming the offensive line and tight end coach at Wichita State in 1984. After that season, Ciskowski joined the University of Miami as a volunteer assistant, working with former Dallas defensive coordinator Butch Davis and the defensive line.

From 1986-89 Ciskowski worked with the offensive and defensive lines, first at New Mexico State for two seasons, and then at UNLV for two more. Before coming to Dallas, he coached the defensive line at College of the Sequoias in Visilia, Calif., from 1990-91. Thirteen of the team's players went on from the junior college to play Division I football in 1992.

A native of Medford, Okla., Ciskowski attended Medford High School and earned his bachelor's degree from Cameron University, where he also played football. He and wife, Jan, live in Coppell, Texas, with sons, Jeremy and Joshua, and daughter Julianna.

PRO BOWLS

PRO: Perhaps one of the biggest surprises league-wide in 2009 was the emergence of Miles Austin as a viable threat to any defense around the league. After his breakout performance from Week 5 in 2009 through the end of the season, Austin earned his spot as a starting receiver for the first time in his career in 2010 and signed a six-year contract extension prior to the first game of the season. After topping 1,000 yards for the first time in his career in 2009, Austin repeated the feat by finishing 2010 with a team-best 1,041 yards to earn his second straight trip to the Pro Bowl - as an injury replacement - and become the 10th rookie free agent in NFL history - first in Cowboys history - with multiple 1,000-yard seasons. His production was slowed in 2011 as he was hampered by a nagging hamstring injury suffered early in the season that kept him inactive for six games. In his 10 games played, Austin finished fourth on the team with 43 catches and 579 yards while finishing third with seven touchdowns. Austin originally joined the club as one of just three rookie free agents to make the team out of training camp in 2006 and saw most of his time through his first four seasons as the club's kickoff returner. Leading up to the 2009 season, Austin's progress had him slotted as the club's third wide receiver, but after his breakout game at Kansas City, he moved into the starting lineup. By season's end, he led the team with 1,320 yards and 11 touchdowns while finishing second with 81 catches to earn his first career Pro Bowl selection. He first earned a roster spot as a kickoff returner and holds a 24.1 career average on returns - fourth all-time in team history. His 2,146 return yards are fifth in club history, and he is the only Cowboy to return a kickoff for a touchdown in the postseason.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

9/9/10: Signed a six-year contract extension with Dallas.
6/11/10: Signed one-year contract with Dallas.
4/23/09: Signed one-year contract with Dallas.
5/1/06: Signed with Dallas as a rookie free agent.

- Despite missing six games with a hamstring injury, finished fourth on the squad in both receptions (43) and receiving yards (579) while finishing third with seven touchdown catches.
- Opened the season at the N.Y. Jets (9/11) with five catches for 90 yards and a touchdown - a 36-yarder. His touchdown catch upped his career total to 22 and tied Jay Novacek for 12th in team history.
- In the overtime win at San Francisco (9/18), led the team with nine catches for 143 yards and a career-best three touchdowns. His nine catches gave him 182 for his career to pass Marion Barber and tie Walt Garrison for 22nd in team record books, while his 143 yards upped his career total to 2,948 which allowed him to pass Patrick Crayton (2,888) for 16th in team history. It also marked his 12th career 100-yard outing and the sixth-most yards in a game in his career.
- His three touchdown catches was the fourth time in his career he had a multiple touchdown game and first since his two against Detroit (11/21/10). It was the first three-touchdown catch game by a Cowboy since Terrell Owens had four against Washington (11/18/07). Austin also upped his career touchdown catch total to 24 to pass Jay Novacek (22) and Patrick Crayton (23) for 11th in club history.
- Missed the first two home games after re-aggravating his hamstring in the San Francisco game.
- Returned at New England (10/16) and led the team with seven catches for 74 yards. Upped his career receiving yards total to 3,022 to become the 16th Cowboy with 3,000 yards while also passing Emmitt Smith (3,012) for 15th in team history. His seven catches gave him 189 for his career to pass Lance Rentzel (183) and tie Preston Pearson for 20th.
- Had three catches for 27 yards at Philadelphia (10/30) then two for 53 yards before suffering a hamstring injury and missing the second half against Seattle (11/6).
- Returned against the N.Y. Giants (12/11) after missing four games with a hamstring injury and finished the game with four catches for 63 yards and a touchdown.
- Led the team with five catches for 53 yards and a touchdown in the win at Tampa Bay (12/17).

- His first catch at the Redskins marked his 100th career reception.
- Led the team with a career-high tying 10 catches for 142 yards in the home opener against Chicago (9/19).
- His 10 catches in consecutive games made him the second Cowboy with back-to-back double-digit reception games. The first was Michael Irvin (11/23/05 and 12/3/05).

- Had two catches for 20 yards in the win at Houston (9/26) before leading the team with nine catches for 166 yards with a career-long 69-yard touchdown reception against Tennessee (10/10).
- The 166 yards against the Titans were the third-most in a game in his career.
- Against Jacksonville (10/31) led the team with 117 yards on seven receptions - six in the first half - to give him his 10th career 100-yard outing.
- Had two catches for 16 yards at Green Bay (11/7) then finished the game at the N.Y. Giants (11/14) with two catches for 68 yards and a touchdown. His touchdown gave him 17 for his career to tie Mike Renfro, Bill Howton and Dan Reeves for 16th in club history.
- Had two catches for seven yards - both touchdowns - against Detroit (11/21). His two touchdown grabs gave him 19 for his career to pass Alvin Harper and tie Butch Johnson for 14th in club history.
- Had three catches for 25 yards to go along with a career-long 60-yard touchdown run - his first career touchdown run - against New Orleans (11/25) on Thanksgiving Day. It was the second-longest run by a club receiver behind Kelvin Edwards' 62-yard scoring rush against Philadelphia (10/11/87).
- Had four catches for 47 yards with a rush for six yards in the overtime win at Indianapolis (12/5) before finishing with two catches for 22 yards and a run for 26 against Philadelphia (12/12).
- His 22 receiving yards against the Eagles pushed him past 2,500 for his career.
- Caught three passes for 38 yards and a touchdown against Washington (12/19). His scoring catch gave him 20 for his career to tie Terry Glenn for 13th in club history while also making Austin the 14th Cowboy to reach 20 career touchdown catches.
- On Christmas night at Arizona (12/25), led the team with 115 yards and a touchdown on six catches. It was his fifth 100-yard performance of the season and the 11th of his career. His touchdown catch was his 21st to break a tie with Glenn for sole possession of 13th in franchise history.
- In the season-ending win at Philadelphia (1/2/11), caught two passes for 62 yards to give him 1,041 for the season. Jason Witten also crossed the 1,000-yard threshold in the game to mark the fifth time in team history two Cowboys pass catchers had 1,000 yards in a season. Both accomplished the feat in 2009 to mark the second time in franchise history Dallas had two receivers with more than 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons.

- Played in all 16 games with nine starts - first nine of his career - to lead the team with 1,320 receiving yards - his first career 1,000-yard season and the sixth-most in a season in team history - and 11 touchdowns while finishing second with 81 catches.
- Earned his first Pro Bowl selection following his breakout year, third in the NFL, tops in the NFC, in yards and 14th in the league, sixth in the conference, in touchdowns.
- Became just the 15th undrafted player in league history to top 1,000 yards and the 12th with 10-or-more touchdowns in a season.

His 250 yards eclipsed Bob Hayes' previous club record of 246 set at Washington (11/13/66).
- His 250-yard performance marked the first time in NFL history that a player reached 250 yards in his first career start and was just the third time a player reached 200 yards in his first start. Anquan Boldin (217 in 2003) and Mark Duper (202 in 1983) were the others.
- Austin's game-winning overtime touchdown marked the first time an NFL player scored an overtime touchdown in his first career start.
- Had his second career start the next game after the bye against Atlanta (10/25) and responded with six catches for 171 yards and two touchdowns. His 171 yards were the most by a Cowboys receiver coming off a 200-plus yard performance and were the second-most yards by an NFL receiver following a game with at least 250 yards. His 421 yards over the two games were also the most ever by a Dallas pass catcher.
- His back-to-back two-touchdown games were the first by a Cowboy since Terrell Owens had two at the N.Y. Giants (11/11/07) followed by four against Washington (11/18/07).

- With his 49 yards against the Eagles, upped his receiving yards total from the previous four games to 531 - the third-most over a four-game span in franchise history - Owens, 575 (10/21/07-11/18/07) and 537 (11/4/07-11/22/07).
- Paced the club with seven catches for 145 yards and a touchdown on Thanksgiving Day against Oakland (11/26). His 145 yards tied Lance Rentzel (11/23/67) for the second-most by a Dallas Cowboy on the holiday and marked his fourth 100-yard performance of the season.
- Tied his career high with 10 catches for 104 yards with one touchdown to mark the second time on the season he had back-to-back 100-yard performances. Over the last two games, Witten also had 100-or-more yards in each game to make the duo the first to each record 100 yards in consecutive games since Bob Hayes and Lance Rentzel in 1967.
- Played in his 50th career game against San Diego (12/13) and finished with six catches for 71 yards with a touchdown to make him the seventh different Cowboy receiver to reach 10 touchdowns in a season.

GAMES/STARTS (regular season, playoffs): 2008 (0/0-Car); 2009 (16/7-Car), 2010 (16/12-Car), 2011 (15/1-Car). Totals (47/20).

PRO: For the first time since 1995, the Dallas Cowboys selected a player in the annual Supplemental Draft, taking Illinois' Josh Brent in the seventh round in 2010. PRO: The Dallas Cowboys saw fortune fall their way in the bottom half of the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft when Dez Bryant was still on the board. Regarded by many as one of the top wide receivers and all-around collegiate athletes in the draft class, Bryant found a home with the Cowboys when Dallas traded its 27th overall pick along with a third round choice to New England for the 24th overall pick and a fourth round selection to move up to take the wide receiver. Despite playing just three games as a junior, missing the remainder of the season due to an NCAA mandated suspension, Cowboys personnel staff and coaches saw enough on Bryant's résumé to make the move in order to add a receiver with the ability to change the game. Bryant did not disappoint in his injury-shortened rookie season as he finished second all-time among club rookies with 45 catches, third with six receiving touchdowns, tied for fifth with eight overall touchdowns and fifth with 564 yards. As was the case at Oklahoma State, Bryant also proved to be a threat on special teams as he returned two punts for touchdowns, including a 93-yarder, averaged 14.3 yards-per-punt return and 22.4 yards-per-kickoff return. Bryant was healthy for the majority of his second season, battling a thigh bruise early which forced him to miss one game. Despite the injury, Bryant finished second on the team in all receiving categories with 63 catches for 928 yards and nine touchdowns. He also led the team with 103 yards on 15 punt returns for a 6.9-yard average. The native Texan (attended Lufkin High School, 175 miles southeast of Dallas) looks to carry on the strong tradition of Cowboys receivers wearing the number 88 as both Drew Pearson and Michael Irvin had storied careers in the number.

Giants (10/25) had a 93-yard punt return for a touchdown which was the second-longest punt return in Cowboys history and the second-longest by a rookie - Dennis Morgan, 98 yards, at St. Louis (10/13/74). It also was his second punt return for a touchdown on the season to make him the seventh Cowboy and the first league rookie to accomplish the feat since Devin Hester had three in 2006.
- Also against the Giants, hauled in two touchdown passes to mark his first career multiple-receiving touchdown game. With three overall touchdowns on the day, became the first Cowboys rookie with three touchdowns in a game since Emmitt Smith had four against Phoenix (12/16/90).
- On the day, had four catches for 54 yards, two touchdowns, one punt return for a 93-yard touchdown and two kickoff returns - the first of his career - for 25 yards.
- Had seven catches for 84 yards and a 12-yard punt return against Jacksonville (10/31).
- Led the team with a team rookie record nine catches for 86 yards with a touchdown and two punt returns for four yards at Green Bay (11/7).
- Led the team with his first 100-yard effort at the N.Y. Giants (11/14) with 104 yards and a touchdown along with four kickoff returns for 86 yards. His 104 yards marked the first 100-yard outing by a Dallas rookie since Antonio Bryant rattled off 170 yards at Washington (12/29/02).

- Against Detroit (11/21) caught three passes for eight yards and a touchdown with a kickoff return for 15 yards. Upped his season receptions total to 44 to tie Antonio Bryant (2002) for second among Cowboys rookies. His sixth receiving touchdown also tied Bryant for the second-most by a team rookie.

COSTA'S NFL TOTALS

GAMES/STARTS (regular season, playoffs): 2010 (4/1), 2011 (16/16). Totals (20/17).

DOUG FREE

68 • Tackle

6-6 • 325 • 1/6/84
Northern Illinois • D4b for '07 (122nd overall)
NFL: 6th Year • Cowboys: 6th Year
Games/Starts: 2011-16/16; Career-49/39
Postseason: 2011-0/0; Career-2/0

PRO: The Cowboys drafted Doug Free in the fourth round (122nd overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft with the hopes of him developing into a key player on the offensive line. He spent the first three seasons of his career learning from some of the best in the NFL, including 12-year veteran Flozell Adams and former first round draft picks Marc Colombo and Leonard Davis. The 2010 season was a welcomed change for Free, and a surprise outcome for the Cowboys, as he became the club's starting left tackle following the release of Adams in the offseason. After consistency and dependability at the position for the better part of 12 years, Free stepped up to the challenge and was one of the top performers on the offense through the season, displaying the same consistency and dependability the club has expected from its blind-side protector. After starting seven games at right tackle in 2009 in place of an injured Colombo, Free started all 16 games at left tackle in 2010. He again manned the left tackle position in 2011, starting all 16 games and helping the club to it's second-best offensive yardage output in the history of the organization (6,008 yards). With his four-year contract signed prior to the 2011 season, Free should be entrenched as one of the club's tackles for many years to come.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

7/29/11: Signed a four-year contract extension.
4/29/07: Drafted in the fourth round (122nd overall) by Dallas.

- For the second consecutive season, started all 16 games at left tackle and helped the club to 6,008 yards - the second-best yardage output in the history of the franchise.
- Allowed time for Romo to throw for 342 yards while improving his club record of consecutive games with a touchdown pass to 19 in the season opener at the N.Y. Jets (9/11.
- Romo threw for 345 yards, his 28th career 300-yard game - and a pair of touchdowns - his 20th straight game with a touchdown pass.
- Helped block for the first 100-yard rusher of the season - Felix Jones, 115 yards - in the home-opening win over Washington (9/26).
- Aided the offense in racking up 434 yards, the second-most yards to date, against Detroit (10/2).
- Opened holes for DeMarco Murray to rush for a club-record 253 yards as the team finished with the fourth-most rushing yards in a game in team history (294).
- The offensive line did not give up a sack in back-to-back games against Seattle (11/6) and Buffalo (11/13) as Romo completed a career-high tying 13 straight passes to open the game against the Bills. The offense also scored a touchdown on each of its first four possessions to open the Bills game for the first time in team history.
- Blocked for a new quarterback in Stephen McGee against Philadelphia (12/24) after Romo was out with a hand injury following the first series. McGee finished his first action of the season 24-of-38 for 182 yards and a touchdown behind the line's effort.

- Against Tennessee (10/10) the offense posted 511 yards to mark the team's first 500-yard game since racking up 502 against St. Louis (9/30/07). It was the most yards gained by Dallas since the club had 541 in an overtime win at Washington (9/12/99), and it was the most in a non-overtime game since going for 513 against Minnesota (11/26/98).
- The Titans managed a season-high six sacks, but the line blocked for Tony Romo's career-high 406 yards and Felix Jones topped 100 yards to mark the first time in team history a passer threw for 400 yards and a rusher topped 100.
- Was part of an offensive line against the N.Y. Giants (10/25) that had to adjust with three losses (Romo, fractured clavicle, Kyle Kosier, ankle, and Montrae Holland, groin). - Against Philadelphia (12/12) aided an offense that gained 349 yards with 22 first downs while giving up just one sack on 35 attempts.
- Helped rack up 434 yards while controlling the clock for 35:21 in the win against Washington (12/19).
- On Christmas night at Arizona (12/25), the offense converted 24 first downs and notched 382 yards despite Stephen McGee seeing his first career action at quarterback with the loss of Kitna (abdominal) through the second half.
- In the season-ending win at Philadelphia (1/2/11), offense protected McGee, who made the first start of his career, to complete 11-of-27 passes for 127 yards and a touchdown.

PRO: Mike Jenkins enters his fifth pro season, starting the previous three at right cornerback, after earning the job with his play early in the 2009 season. One-of-two first round draft picks (25th overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys, Jenkins was eased into the lineup during his rookie season due to injuries to Terence Newman and the mid-season suspension of Adam Jones. In 2009 he was given the opportunity to claim a starting spot in the Dallas defense after Anthony Henry was traded to Detroit for Jon Kitna, and he responded by leading the team in both interceptions (five) and pass breakups (23) along with a career-best 60 tackles en route to being named to his first career Pro Bowl. In 2011 Jenkins tied for the team-high with 10 pass breakups while picking off one pass and adding 22 tackles.

FELIX JONES

28 • Running Back

5-10 • 215 • 5/8/87
Arkansas • D1a for '08 (22nd overall)
NFL: 5th Year • Cowboys: 5th Year
Games/Starts: 2011-12/8; Career-48/16
Postseason: 2011-0/0; Career-2/0

PRO: Felix Jones, possessing the necessary physical tools and talent as a top runner in the NFL, now enters his fifth pro season seeking to be a key contributor in the Cowboys offensive arsenal. Jones, who was selected by Dallas with the team's first pick in the first round (22nd overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft, has complemented Dallas' corps of running backs the previous four seasons. Last season, he teamed with rookie DeMarco Murray to provide the Dallas run game with 1,472 yards and a 5.1-yard average. After starting the initial five games of the season, Jones suffered an ankle sprain and gave way to Murray, who started the next seven games. Jones reclaimed the starting role after Murray (ankle) landed on Reserve/Injured. As a rookie in 2008, Jones showed flashes of his versatility before injuries landed him on Reserve/Injured. His ability for explosive plays was in full display as Jones became the first club rookie to score a touchdown in his first three professional games with an 11-yard touchdown run on his first career carry in the season opener, a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the home opener, followed by a 60-yard touchdown rush in Week 3. Although he missed two games with a knee injury in 2009, Jones continued to show his ability for the big play as he tied Jamaal Charles with a league-best rushing average of 5.9 yards-per-carry. His threat of being able to take it the distance from any point on the field was on display in 2009 as he had four of the club's top-five longest runs (all 40-or-more yards) with two touchdowns from that distance. In total, Jones had 19 of the club's 66 runs of 10-plus yards (14 from 10-20 and five from 20-plus) and all five of the club's 10-plus yard playoff runs with two going for 20-or-more. In 2010 Jones began to see more time as the lead runner, playing in all 16 games for the first time in his career while earning a career-high seven starts to finish the season with career and team-highs in rushing yards (800) and carries (185). He also continued to build on his versatility, leading the team in all-purpose yards with 1,250 (800 rush; 450 rec.). Jones has also seen time at kick returner in Dallas, averaging 24.2 yards on 46 returns. In 2011 Jones again saw time returning kickoffs, taking seven back for 186 yards for a 26.6-yard average.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

11/26/08: Placed on Reserve/Injured with a toe injury.
4/26/08: Drafted in the first round (22nd overall) by Dallas.

2011:

- Started eight of 12 games played, missing four with an ankle sprain, and finished second on the team with 575 yards on 127 carries (4.5) and a touchdown.
- Led all rushers with 44 yards on 17 carries with a touchdown in the opener at the N.Y. Jets (9/11). Upped his career rush attempts total to 348 to pass Timmy Newsome (340) for 15th in team history.
- Was limited with a shoulder injury suffered in the first quarter at San Francisco (9/18) and rushed a team-high nine times for 25 yards with a catch for five.
- Led all rushers with a career-best 115 yards - second career 100-yard game - on 14 carries for an average of 8.2. Upped his career yardage total to 1,935 to pass Troy Hambrick for 14th in team history. It was also his career-best average when rushing more than 10 times. Also added three catches for 40 yards.
- Rushed 16 times for 57 yards with five catches for 19 against Detroit (10/2).
- At New England (10/16) ran eight times for 14 yards and caught two passes for 19 before leaving the game with an ankle sprain late in the first half. Upped his career rushing yards total to 2,006 to become the 13th Cowboy to reach 2,000 career rushing yards.
- Returned to the field at Washington (11/20) as the number two running back and rushed five times for 18 yards and caught a pass for four.
- Took over kick return duties against Miami (11/24) and had four returns for 74 yards while adding a catch for four yards on offense.
- Carried the ball six times for 36 yards, caught one pass for seven yards and had three kickoff returns for 112 yards, including a season-long 69-yarder in the overtime loss at Arizona (12/4).
- Stepped in for Murray (ankle) in the first and led the team with 16 carries for 106 yards - his third career 100-yard effort - against the N.Y. Giants (12/11).
- Started at Tampa Bay (12/17) after Murray was moved to IR and led all rushers with a season-high and career-high tying 22 carries for 108 yards. It was the first time in his career he had back-to-back 100-yard games.
- Had four carries for 24 yards, seeing limited time with a hamstring strain against Philadelphia (12/24).
- Finished the season at the N.Y. Giants (1/1/12) with 11 carries for 30 yards and seven catches for 47.

2010:

- Placed third on the team with 48 receptions for 450 yards and one touchdown - all career-highs.
- Led the team with a career-high 1,250 all-purpose yards (800 rush; 450 rec.).
- In the season opener at Washington (9/12), tied for the team lead with eight carries for 38 yards along with two catches for 26 yards.
- At Houston (9/26) had seven carries for 43 yards to top 1,000 career rushing yards and become the 22nd Cowboy to accomplish the mark.

- Led the team with 15 carries for a career-high 109 yards against Tennessee (10/10) to mark his first 100-yard rushing game in the regular season and the club's first 100-yard rushing game of the 2010 season. Jones' rushing tally coupled with Tony Romo's 400-yard passing day allowed the duo's accomplishments to mark the first time in club history that Dallas had a 400-yard passer and a 100-yard rusher in a game.
- At Minnesota (10/17) recorded a career-high 10 receptions for a then-career-high 61 receiving yards while also leading the team in rushing with 14 carries for 32 yards.
- Led the team with 14 carries for 51 yards and added three receptions for a career-high 85 yards with one touchdown - a 71-yard reception for the longest catch of his career - during his first start of the season at the N.Y. Giants (11/14). Jones' long touchdown catch was the longest pass completion by a Cowboy since Patrick Crayton caught an 80-yard touchdown at Tampa Bay (9/13/08) and was the longest reception by a club running back since Chris Warren hauled in a 76-yard scoring grab at Washington (9/18/00).
- Started against Detroit (11/21) in a two-back setup with Marion Barber and led the team with 51 rushing yards on 11 carries and added three receptions for 35 yards.
- Led the team with 13 rushes for 44 yards along with seven catches for 69 yards against New Orleans (11/25).
- Tallied a career-best 22 carries for 83 yards and caught three passes for eight yards at Indianapolis (12/5) while making his third start of the season.
- Made his fourth start of the season with Barber (calf) out and rushed 13 times for 41 yards with his first rushing touchdown of the year while also adding four receptions for 42 yards against Philadelphia (12/12). Jones' rushing total in the game allowed him to cross the 1,500-yard career rushing mark to become only the 16th Cowboy to do so.
- Once again started in place of Barber (calf) against Washington (12/19) and led the team with 70 rushing yards on 12 carries while adding two receptions for 47 yards.
- At Arizona (12/25) led the team with 16 rushes for 77 yards and added one catch for 11 yards as he made his sixth start of the season.
- Started at Philadelphia (1/2/11) and led the team with 11 carries for 81 yards.

PRO: Sean Lee, selected in the second round (55th overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys, was chosen with intentions of becoming an inside force at linebacker for years to come. After Lee spent his rookie season learning behind solid veteran inside linebackers Keith Brooking and Bradie James, he became a full time starter on the inside in 2011. Lee was also charged with quarterbacking the defense in his role as a first-time starter and excelled in the spotlight. He paced the defense with 131 tackles - 52 more than the second place finisher - and tied for the team lead in tackles for losses (eight), interceptions (four) and fumble recoveries (two). Lee started all 15 games he played in his second season, missing one with a wrist injury. As a rookie in 2010, he saw time in the club's nickel packages to gain a solid foundation of the pro-style 3-4 defense. He was plagued by injuries early in the preseason and in the first few weeks of the regular season, but rebounded and played in 14 games.

PRO: With their final selection of the 2010 NFL Draft, the Dallas Cowboys chose Sean Lissemore in the seventh round (234th overall). SINGLE-GAME BESTS

Spec. Tms. Tkls – 6, vs. Washington, 9/26/11

PRO: With their first pick of the fourth round (101st overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft, the Dallas Cowboys selected quarterback Stephen McGee to learn the ropes of the pro game behind Tony Romo. After seeing time in three games with one start through his first two pro seasons, McGee will begin 2012 as a candidate for the club's third quarterback position. In his first pro seasons, he has demonstrated his athleticism and ability as a strong-armed passer while being able to sidestep the rush and make the throw on the run. The Christmas holiday has been McGee's time as he earned playing time in 2010 as a reserve in the second half at Arizona on Christmas Day with an injury to Jon Kitna and again in 2011 in place of Romo, who injured his hand against Philadelphia on Christmas eve. In 2010 McGee went on to start the season finale at Philadelphia (1/2/11) to earn his first career NFL win in come-from-behind fashion.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

- Was inactive as the third quarterback the first six games of the season.
- Served as the backup quarterback to Kitna for the next eight games.
- Saw the first action of his career at Arizona (12/25) as he originally stepped in for one play in the second quarter after Kitna was slightly injured and handed the ball off to Marion Barber for a 25-yard run on his first career play. McGee then stepped back in for Kitna (hip) at the second quarter's 2:00 warning and finished the game, completing 11-of-17 passes for 111 yards and a touchdown for a 102.8 quarterback rating.
- Made his first career start at Philadelphia (1/2/11) to become the 35th different quarterback to make a start in a Cowboys uniform. Of the previous 35, was the 21st to be making his first career start, and with the win, it marked the 14th time a Dallas quarterback posted a win in his first start as a Cowboy. - Led the Aggies and all Big 12 quarterbacks in rushing with 899 yards on 181 attempts while also scoring five touchdowns on the ground and had four 100-plus yard rushing games.

McQUISTAN'S NFL TOTALS

GAMES/STARTS: 2006 (1/0-Dal), 2007 (16/0-Dal), 2008 (16/0-Dal), 2009 (7/0-Dal), 2010 (16/8-Mia), 2011 (10/0-NO).
Total: 66/8.

PRO: DeMarco Murray arrived in Dallas with the club's third round selection (71st overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft. Much like Dallas' 2008 first round draft choice Felix Jones, Murray regularly displayed big-play ability with the threat to score from anywhere on the field. After seeing spot action through the first five games of the 2011 season, Murray landed in team record books and NFL history when he filled in for Jones (ankle) against St. Louis (10/23). His mark was set early in the game when he took his first carry of the game 91 yards for a touchdown to register the longest first career touchdown run since the NFL merger in 1970. By game's end, Murray had a club-record 253 rushing yards which was good for 10th in a game in league history and second by a rookie. His 91-yard touchdown run was the second-longest rush in team history, second only to Tony Dorsett's 99-yard run at Minnesota (1/3/83). Murray's yardage total didn't end there as he continued to rack up the yards over the course of the next four games. For his effort through the month of November - 89 carries for 434 yards (4.9 avg.) and a touchdown - Murray became the fourth Cowboys rookie to earn Rookie of the Month honors. Unfortunately for Murray, his rookie season came to an end on Dec. 11 when he suffered a fractured right ankle and a high right ankle sprain in the first quarter. Despite missing the remainder of the game and the next three games, Murray finished the season with team rushing highs in carries (164), yards (897), average (5.5) and touchdowns (two). He will return in 2012 fully healthy and looking to pick up where he left off as a rookie.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

12/13/11: Placed on Reserve/Injured with a fractured ankle.
4/29/11: Drafted in the third round (71st overall) by Dallas.

2011:

- Played in 13 games with seven starts, missing the final three-plus games with a fractured and sprained right ankle, and led the team in all rushing categories with 164 carries for 897 yards, a 5.5-yard average and a pair of touchdowns.
- His 5.5-yard average was tops among NFL running backs with at least 150 carries.
- Established a club rushing record with his 253-yard performance against St. Louis (10/23) and scored his first career touchdown on a 91-yard run in the game to give him the longest first career touchdown run since the league merger in 1970.

- Earned Offensive Rookie of the Month (November) and was selected to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie Team.
- Made his NFL debut in the season opener at the N.Y. Jets (9/11) and had one catch for 13 yards, two runs for no gain and a 14-yard kickoff return.
- In the overtime win at San Francisco (9/18), finished with six runs for 21 yards with a long of eight and a catch for four yards.
- Saw extended playing time with Jones (ankle) sidelined and established a club record rushing with 253 yards on 25 carries and a touchdown against St. Louis (10/23). Broke Emmitt Smith's previous record of 237 (at Philadelphia, 10/31/93). His 253 yards was the 10th-most in a game in league history and second-most by a rookie.
- His first career touchdown came on a 91-yard run, the longest first career touchdown rush since the 1970 merger and the second-longest rush in club history behind Tony Dorsett's 99-yard scoring run at Minnesota (1/3/83).
- Made his first career start in the game at Philadelphia (10/30) and averaged 9.3 yards-per-carry (eight runs for 74 yards).
- In the win over Seattle (11/6), rushed for 139 yards - his second 100-yard effort of the season - to become the first Cowboy with multiple 100-yard games since Julius Jones had three in 2004. Rushed for 466 yards over the last three games to tie for fifth all-time by an NFL rookie and the most by a Cowboy over three games.
- Led the team with 20 carries for 135 yards and a touchdown in the win over Buffalo (11/13). It was his second straight and third overall 100-yard game and it was the first back-to-back 100-yard rushing performance by a Cowboy since Julius Jones' three straight in 2006. Murray's 601 yards in the last four games is the most by a Dallas Cowboy and tied for fifth all-time among NFL rookies.
- Led the team with a season-high tying 25 carries for 73 yards with six catches for 32 yards in the overtime win at Washington (11/20).
- On Thanksgiving Day against Miami (11/24), led the team with 87 yards on 22 runs (4.0 avg.) and caught four passes for 41 yards with a season-long 18-yard catch.
- Rushed 12 times for 38 yards at Arizona (12/4).
- Had five carries for 25 yards and a catch for six before fracturing his right ankle and suffering a right high ankle sprain against the N.Y. Giants (12/11). Underwent surgery on Dec. 12 and was placed on Reserve/Injured Dec. 13.

COLLEGE:

- All-American honorable mention from Sports Illustrated, consensus All-Big 12 first-team choice, second-team Academic All-Big 12, starting all 14 games for the first time during his career and finishing with 282 carries (fifth all-time in school history) for 1,214 yards and 15 touchdowns as a senior.

- Returned 10 kickoffs for 249 yards and had a tackle on defense.

- Led the team with 120 points, the ninth-best single-season total by a Sooner, while his 20 touchdowns were seventh in school record books.
- His 146.93 all-purpose yards-per-game were 18th in the nation and third in the conference as his 2,057 yards ranked fourth in Oklahoma annals.
- Rushed for 100-or-more yards in four contests, scored at least once in all but two games and had two rushing touchdowns in five games.
- Carried the ball 20-plus times in seven games and had five-or-more catches in eight.

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys added versatility to the interior of their offensive line when they drafted Bill Nagy with their second selection in the seventh round (252nd overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft. With his play through training camp and the preseason, Nagy earned a starting spot as Dallas' left guard on opening day in 2011. He improved through each of his first four games (missing one with a neck injury suffered in practice) and was on pace for a solid season before breaking his left ankle in the fourth quarter of the game at New England (10/16). He landed on Reserve/Injured and spent the remainder of the season recovering from and rehabbing his injury. He returns to the field fully healthy for his second pro season and looks to regain his spot as one of Dallas' starting guards.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

10/18/11: Placed on Reserve/Injured with an ankle injury.
4/30/11: Drafted in the seventh round (252nd overall) by Dallas.

2011:

- Started all four of the games he played, missing the Week 2 matchup in San Francisco with a neck injury, and helped the offense to 375 yards-or-more in each outing.

- Broke his left ankle at New England (10/16), was placed on Reserve/Injured two days later and spent the remainder of the season rehabbing his injury.
- Made his NFL debut at left guard in the opener at the N.Y. Jets (9/11) and allowed Romo the time to throw for 342 yards on 23-of-36 with two touchdowns and an interception.
- Along with fellow draft choice Tyron Smith, it was the first time in franchise history a Cowboys team started two rookies on the offensive line in the season opener. The pair also became the seventh and eighth rookie linemen to ever start a season opener and the first since Rob Pettiti in 2005. Overall, they were the 38th and 39th rookies to start an opener for Dallas.
- Inactive for the overtime win in San Francisco (9/18) with a neck injury suffered during the week in practice.
- Returned to the starting lineup and helped block for Felix Jones, who rushed for a career-best 115 yards in the home-opening win over Washington (9/26).
- Helped the offense to 434 yards for the second 400-yard game of the season against Detroit (10/2).
- Blocked for Romo's 30th career 300-yard outing but suffered a broken ankle in the fourth quarter of the game at New England (10/16).
- Placed on Reserve/Injured on Oct. 18 and was out the remainder of the season.

COLLEGE:

PRO: With their fourth round selection in the 2010 NFL Draft, the Dallas Cowboys selected Akwasi Owusu-Ansah. He has the ability to play cornerback and safety as well as excelling as both a kickoff and punt returner. During his first season as a pro, Owusu-Ansah contributed to the team as a kick returner with 25 kicks returned for 543 yards (21.7 avg.) before suffering a high ankle sprain that ultimately ended his rookie campaign. He was then placed on the Reserve/Injured list on Nov. 10, 2010. Along with working with the special teams units, he also saw limited duty on defense. He returned to Dallas for the 2011 season and spent the first two months of the season on the club's practice squad. He signed to the active roster on Nov. 12 where he played three games. Owusu-Ansah was released on Nov. 30 and signed to the Jacksonville Jaguars practice squad on Dec. 6. He remained with the Jaguars until May 7, 2011 and was claimed off waivers by Dallas on May 8. In returning, Owusu-Ansah will have another opportunity to compete for a spot in the defensive backfield and on special teams.

PRO: In a matter of seven seasons, Jay Ratliff's pro career has catapulted from backup contributor to Pro Bowl nose tackle with three selections as a starter in his four consecutive trips to the NFL's all-star game following superior performances from 2008-11. Now in his eighth season, the former seventh round draft choice continues his ascension as one of the best nose tackles in the league. Ratliff is a versatile athlete who began his collegiate career as a tight end before playing two seasons as a defensive end and his final season as a defensive tackle. He is a tough, aggressive lineman who can collapse the pocket and knife into the backfield to flush out the quarterback. Ratliff made the most of his opportunity during the 2007 season after the team lost Jason Ferguson to injury in Week 1, allowing him to step in and start 14 games at nose tackle where his production led to a five-year extension on December 14, 2007. As the unquestioned starter at nose tackle in 2008, Ratliff's dominance at the position earned him his first selection to the Pro Bowl as a starter on the defensive line of the NFC squad, a feat he followed up with another dominating performance at the position in 2009 to earn his second consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. He continued to impress in 2010 and 2011 as he earned his third and fourth consecutive Pro Bowl invites and third as a starter. He was again rewarded for his progress and dominance with his second five-year contract extension signed shortly before the 2011 season opener, keeping Ratliff in Dallas through the 2017 season.

PRO: In one of the more intriguing success stories in recent NFL history, Tony Romo ascended from the ranks of undrafted free agent - and three-year back-up quarterback - to a record setting, three-time Pro Bowl selection for the Dallas Cowboys. With 77 career regular season starts under his belt, Romo has already re-written Cowboys passing records with his stellar and unique style of quarterback play. Elusive and instinctive in the pocket, he relies on a quick release, solid arm strength and excellent accuracy. His greatest asset may be his ability to see the field and find the open receiver - regardless of whether he is in a stationary position or eluding the pass rush. With a 47-30 regular season record as the Dallas starter, Romo led the Cowboys to 13 wins in 2007 - tying the franchise record for victories in a season in his first season as the full-time starter. Along the way, he set single-season club marks for touchdown passes (36), completions (335), yardage (4,211) and 300-yard games (seven). He first set a Dallas mark for consecutive games with a touchdown pass with 17 straight between 2006 and 2007 only to up it to 20 (2009-11). His 2008 season was not as productive as 2007 after suffering a broken finger in his throwing hand at Arizona (10/12). Despite missing three games with the injury, Romo still threw for 300-or-more yards six times - second only to his seven from 2007 - while throwing for 3,448 yards - his second consecutive 3,000-plus yard season - to become the first quarterback with back-to-back 3,000-yard seasons since Troy Aikman (1995-97). Romo's third full season as a starter eclipsed his previous two as he became the first quarterback in club history to be on the field for every snap of the season. The 2009 season saw Romo set club records for attempts (550), completions (347), passing yards (4,483) and 300-yard games (eight) while throwing a career-low nine interceptions - tied for the fourth-fewest in a season in club history among quarterbacks with at least 300 attempts. He helped guide Dallas to an 11-5 record, the club's 17th NFC East Division title and Dallas' first playoff win since 1996. The 2009 season also saw Romo top 1,500 career attempts to make him eligible for career passing records. His season was cut short in 2010 as he suffered a broken left collarbone which eventually landed him on Reserve/Injured on December 22, 2010. Before suffering the injury, Romo was well on his way towards another solid season completing 148-of-213 passes (69.5%) for 1,605 yards, 11 touchdowns and seven interceptions. At the time of his injury, he had a 94.9 quarterback rating that was sixth in the NFL and tops in the NFC. Romo's 2011 season was only a continuation of his progress. While working through a rib injury for most of the season that he suffered in the Week 2 matchup at San Francisco, Romo still finished the year with his third career 4,000-yard season (4,184) while also placing second in team record books with 31 touchdowns and 346 completions and third with 522 attempts. He threw for 300-or-more yards five times and had 11 multiple-touchdown games. For his career, Romo has completed 1,672-of-2,592 (64.5%) passes for 20,834 yards and a passer rating of 96.9. He has thrown 149 career scoring passes against 72 interceptions. He ranks fourth in club history in attempts, completions, passing yards and touchdowns. Signed by the Cowboys as an undrafted free agent in 2003, he made his first career start at the Carolina Panthers on Oct. 29, 2006, and, by December of that year, he became Dallas' first Pro Bowl quarterback since Aikman in 1996. Romo rose to prominence during a stretch in which six of his first 11 starts were nationally televised. In his first 10 regular season starts, he led the Cowboys to six victories and a playoff berth. He also led the NFL with 8.6 yards-per-pass attempt in 2006. His 95.1 quarterback rating as a first-time starter was the third-best in Cowboys history. He exceeded that mark with a 97.4 rating in 2007. After joining the Cowboys in 2003, Romo showed enough potential during training camp to become the third quarterback. He split time with Drew Henson as the backup quarterback in 2004 but became the primary backup quarterback behind Drew Bledsoe throughout 2005. He also was the holder for field goals and extra points from 2004 to 2006 and volunteered to hold again in 2009.

It was his sixth career game with four touchdown passes to tie Don Meredith for second in club history.
- Notched his eighth game of the season with a rating over 100.0, finishing the game at Tampa Bay (12/17) with a 133.9 by completing 23-of-30 passes for 249 yards and three touchdowns. Also added a rushing score.

2010:

- Suffered a fractured left collarbone against the N.Y. Giants (10/25) and was eventually placed on Reserve/Injured on December 22 due to the injury.
- Prior to the injury, completed 148-of-213 passes (69.5%) for 1,605 yards, 11 touchdowns and seven interceptions. At the time of his injury, had a 94.9 quarterback rating that was sixth in the NFL and tops in the NFC.
- Combined with his output prior to the injury, Dallas' offense amassed 5,828 total yards for the seventh-highest yardage output in franchise history. Dallas also topped the 4,000 passing yard mark for the third time in four years with the third-most in club history (4,042).
- Completed 31-of-47 passes for 282 yards with one touchdown for an 89.1 quarterback rating at Washington (9/12). With his touchdown pass, extended his streak of consecutive games with a touchdown pass to 13 to break a tie with Don Meredith (1965-66) and Roger Staubach (1977-78) for the third-longest streak in club history (17-Romo, 2006-07 and 16-Aikman, 1993-94).
- Threw for 374 yards against Chicago (9/19) to give him the then second-most single-game passing yardage in his career behind the 392 he had at the N.Y. Giants (12/6/09). His 51 attempts were the second-most of his career behind the 55 at the N.Y. Giants (12/6/09) and his 34 completions were the third most in his career behind his 41 at the N.Y. Giants (12/6/09) and 35 at Detroit (12/9/07). With his touchdown pass, he extended his streak of consecutive games with a touchdown pass to 14.
- Extended his streak of consecutive games with a touchdown to 15, third-longest streak in team history, with his two touchdown tosses to Roy Williams at Houston (9/26). Finished 23-of-30 for 284 yards with a 76.7 completion percentage and a 127.8 quarterback rating, both season-highs.
- Completed 31-of-46 passes for 406 yards, three touchdowns - including a season-long 69-yard touchdown toss - and three interceptions against Tennessee (10/10). His 406 yards marked a career-high and the first time he eclipsed 400 passing yards in a game. It was the first time a Dallas quarterback crossed the 400-yard mark since Aikman threw for 455 against Minnesota (11/26/98). Romo's 406 tied Meredith (at Washington, 11/13/66) for the third-most passing yards by a quarterback in a game in franchise history as he became just the third different Cowboys passer to eclipse 400 yards in a game. His three touchdown passes extended his streak of consecutive games with a touchdown pass to 16 to tie Aikman for the second-longest streak in franchise history and marked his 18th career game with three-or-more touchdown passes, breaking a tie with Staubach for the second-most games with three-or-more touchdowns. Romo's 406 yards also upped his club record of career 300-yard outings to 26, while his 46 pass attempts gave him 2,031 for his career - the fifth Dallas passer to reach 2,000 career attempts. His 406 passing yards and Felix Jones' 109 rushing yards marked the first time in club history that Dallas had a 400-yard passer along with a 100-yard rusher in a game.
- Threw three touchdowns at Minnesota (10/17) to extend his streak of consecutive games with a touchdown pass to 17, tying his club record as well as give him 19 career games with three-or-more touchdown passes - good for second in team history. Finished the game with 220 yards on 24-of-32 passes and two interceptions and rushed three times for 31 yards.
- Suffered a fractured left clavicle in the second quarter against the N.Y. Giants (10/25) and missed the remainder of the game. Was five-of-seven for 39 yards and one touchdown prior to the injury. His touchdown pass extended his streak of consecutive games with a touchdown pass to a club record 18.
- Was inactive for the remaining eight games before landing on Reserve/Injured.

Also threw a 66-yard touchdown pass to Roy Williams for the fifth-longest pass completion of his career. His 353 passing yards also increased his club record of career 300-yard games to 17 and marked his third straight 300-yard outing on opening day. He became the first quarterback in club history to win the first three season-openers of his starting career.
- Finished with 127 passing yards on 13-of-27 completions with one touchdown and three interceptions against the N.Y. Giants (9/20) in the Cowboys Stadium debut. His quarterback passer rating of 29.6 marked the second-lowest of his career. He added one rush for a three-yard touchdown.

- Finished with 311 passing yards - marking back-to-back 300-yard games - on 21-of-29 attempts with three touchdowns against Atlanta (10/25). His back-to-back 300-yard games marked the third of his career and his third 300-yard game of the season, tying for the third-most 300-yard games in a season in club history. His 72.4 completion percentage and 141.6 quarterback rating both marked season-highs, while the quarterback rating was the third-highest of his career behind 148.9 (vs. Tampa Bay, 11/23/06) and 141.7 (at Philadelphia, 11/4/07). He also did not throw an interception at Kansas City and again against Atlanta, marking just the second time in his career he has had back-to-back games without an interception.

Also completed passes to 10 different receivers - the first Cowboys quarterback to do so since Chad Hutchinson on 12/15/02.
- At Philadelphia (11/8) threw for 307 yards - his 20th career 300-yard outing and fourth of the season, the third-most in team history, on 21-of-34 completions with one touchdown with one interception and a rating of 88.7. His streak of attempts without an interception came to an end in the third quarter and snapped the longest streak of his career at 143 straight passing attempts without an interception.

- In his 50th career start, against Oakland (11/26), completed 18-of-29 passes for 309 yards with two touchdowns. It marked his 21st career 300-yard game and fifth of the season - the third-most in a season in club history. It was also his third 300-yard game on Thanksgiving Day - the most by any Cowboys quarterback. His 12 Thanksgiving Day touchdown passes are second in team history behind Danny White's 14.
- Completed 41-of-55 passes for 392 yards to establish then single-game personal bests for attempts, completions and yards at the N.Y. Giants (12/6). His 74.5 completion percentage was the best of his season. He threw three touchdowns for the fourth time this season. It was his sixth 300-yard game of the season to tie the second-most in a season in club history, and 22nd of his career. His 55 attempts ranked second in team history behind Aikman's 57 against Minnesota, 11/26/98, while his 41 completions set a club record.
- Against San Diego (12/13) was 19-of-30 for 249 yards with two touchdowns and a rating of 111.7 - his third straight game with a rating over 100.0, the second such streak this season. His two touchdown passes gave him nine straight games with a touchdown - the third-longest streak of his career. He has also attempted 122 consecutive passes without an interception - the second-longest streak of his career.
- Led the team to a 24-17 win over the previously undefeated Saints (12/19) completing 22-of-34 passes for 312 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. PRO: The Dallas Cowboys moved up in the fifth round to grab Orlando Scandrick with the 143rd overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft, and he has since proven to be worth the move as a valuable contributor in the Dallas secondary and special teams units. The former Boise State standout, who left college after only three years, has served as the nickel cornerback since his rookie season. Scandrick briefly rotated starts with Mike Jenkins for the starting cornerback spot opposite Terence Newman at the beginning of the 2009 season before settling back into the nickel cornerback role. He continues his work to be a staple in the defensive back rotation for the Cowboys and was rewarded for his early efforts with a five-year contract extension signed during Dallas' 2011 training camp.

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys signed Gerald Sensabaugh on March 10, 2009 from Jacksonville to replace Roy Williams at strong safety. Sensabaugh, now entering his eighth pro season, settled in nicely in his new home in 2009, finishing sixth on the team with 81 tackles while setting a career-high with 10 pass breakups, starting all 15 games he played. In 2010 he helped show converted cornerback Alan Ball the ropes at safety, while recording single-season career-bests in interceptions (five - tied for team lead), sacks (2.0 - tied for fifth) and tackles (86 - fifth) and tied for third in pass breakups with nine, playing in all 16 games with 14 starts. Sensabaugh was a solid performer again in 2011, finishing third on the team with 77 tackles, and pair of interceptions, forced fumbles and fumble recoveries to go with four pass breakups. He was rewarded in early December with a five-year contract extension, keeping him with the Cowboys through 2016. With the versatility to play both safety positions, along with special teams, Sensabaugh has 412 career tackles, 37 pass breakups, 14 interceptions, 32 special teams tackles and three blocked kicks. Sensabaugh has started 69 of the 97 regular season games he has played and will help lead a secondary that was responsible for 10 of the club's 15 interceptions last season.

TYRON SMITH

77 • Tackle

(TIE-rin)

6-5 • 308 • 12/12/90
Southern California • D1 for '11 (9th overall)
NFL: 2nd Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year

PRO: For just the fourth time in team history, and first time since 1981, the Dallas Cowboys selected an offensive lineman in the first round of the draft when they picked Tyron Smith with the ninth overall pick in the 2011 NFL Draft. He also became the second-highest offensive lineman drafted in Cowboys history behind John Niland, who was selected fifth in the 1966 Draft. Smith, who started his collegiate career as a backup left tackle, eventually moved to the right side where he started the final 24 games in which he played at USC. In Smith, the Cowboys have a hard working, athletic lineman with good foot speed and the ability to stay on and finish blocks. Smith has proven himself as both an efficient run blocker and pass protector while demonstrating the ability to anchor a bull rusher and recover if he gets out of position. He stepped in and immediately took over the starting right tackle spot as a rookie, starting all 16 games he played. In 2012, Smith will continue to develop as a solid offensive tackle and is expected to man the blind side moving to left tackle for his second season after becoming the first rookie to start all 16 games along the offensive line since Rob Petitti in 2005 and third overall to do so.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/28/11: Drafted in the first round (ninth overall) by Dallas.

- Made his NFL debut at right tackle and helped Romo throw for 342 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 23-of-36 passes.
- Along with fellow draft choice Bill Nagy, it was the first time in franchise history a Cowboys team started two rookies on the offensive line in the season opener. The pair also became the seventh and eighth rookie lineman to ever start a season opener and the first since Rob Pettiti in 2005. Overall, they were the 38th and 39th rookies to start an opener for Dallas.
- Allowed time for Romo to throw for 345 yards and two touchdowns - his 20th straight game with a scoring toss and 28th career 300-yard game - in the overtime win at San Francisco (9/18).
- In the home-opening win over Washington (9/26), helped block for 125 rushing yards, including a career-best 115 yards by Felix Jones.
- Aided the offense in racking up 434 yards of offense - the club's second 400-yard game of the season - against Detroit (10/2).
- Blocked for Romo's 30th career 300-yard performance as the offense gained 377 yards of offense at New England (10/16).
- Opened holes for DeMarco Murray to rush for a club-record 253 yards as the team finished with the fourth-most rushing yards in a game in team history (294) against St. Louis (10/23).
- In the win over Seattle (11/6), the line did not give up a sack for the first time on the season as Romo threw for 279 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 19-of-31 attempts.
- The offense scored a touchdown on each of its first four possessions for the first time in team history and totaled 433 yards of offense while not yielding a sack in the win over Buffalo (11/13).
- At Washington (11/20) helped block for Murray, who rushed for 73 yards while allowing Romo to throw for 292 yards.
- The unit allowed a season-high five sacks of Romo as the quarterback threw for 299 yards on 28-of-42 passes with a touchdown in the overtime loss at Arizona (12/4).
- Against the N.Y. Giants (12/11), allowed Romo to finish with a quarterback rating of 141.3 - 21-of-31 for 321 yards and four touchdowns - while the running game racked up 139 yards on 24 attempts (5.8 avg.).
- In the Saturday night win at Tampa Bay (12/17), the offense jumped out to a 28-0 halftime lead while controlling the clock for 37:59.
- Blocked for a new quarterback in Stephen McGee against Philadelphia (12/24) after Romo was out with a hand injury following the first series. McGee finished his first action of the season 24-of-38 for 182 yards and a touchdown behind the line's effort.

ANTHONY SPENCER

93 • Linebacker

6-3 • 250 • 1/23/84
Purdue • D1 for '07 (26th overall)
NFL: 6th Year • Cowboys: 6th Year
Games/Starts: 2011-16/15; Career-76/53
Postseason: 2011-0/0; Career-3/2

PRO: Now entering his sixth pro season and fourth overall as a starter, Anthony Spencer will look to elevate his production at outside linebacker while combining with perennial All-Pro DeMarcus Ware to give the team a feared outside linebacker duo. Spencer took over the starting role in 2009 with the departure of Greg Ellis via free agency. In his first season as a starter, Spencer started all 16 regular season games and both playoff games to finish with then career-highs in tackles (98 – third on the team), sacks (6.0 – tied for second), pressures (36 – second on the team) and tackles for losses (nine - team-best) to go along with his first career interception. He once again started all 16 games in 2010 and set a career-high in tackles with 105, while finishing second to Pro Bowler Ware in sacks (5.0) and pressures (14) and tying for the team lead with two forced fumbles. Spencer was a solid choice as the 26th pick in the first round of the 2007 NFL Draft and played in all 16 games with six starts as a rookie. He saw time in 12 games in his second season, missing time due to injury. Although his first season as the full-time starter got off to a slow start in terms of sacks, Spencer proved he is a pressure player, racking up 19 quarterback hurries before notching his first two sacks of the season in Week 10. Spencer finished 2011 fourth on the team with 74 tackles while finishing second with 6.0 sacks, first with four forced fumbles and second with 31 pressures. He is strong enough to bull rush opposing linemen, fast enough to offer a change of pace and provides the Cowboys with another pass rushing threat opposite Ware.

PRO: When the Cowboys chose DeMarcus Ware with the 11th overall pick in the 2005 NFL Draft, they were looking for an explosive playmaker on defense. Through seven pro seasons, Ware has emerged as one of the most dominating defensive players in the league and has been named a starter to the NFC Pro Bowl squad in each of the previous six seasons. He owns the top four single season sack figures by a club linebacker, has started 111-of-112 games in his career and has logged a club-record 23 multiple-sack games. Ware posted double-digit sack numbers for each of the past six seasons and led the league in 2010 with 15.5. Along with his NFL-best 20.0 in 2008, Ware is only the fifth league defender to finish a season atop the sack list in multiple seasons. He is also just the fifth player with six-or-more 10-plus sack seasons since sacks became official in 1982. In 2008 he opened the season with a sack in seven straight games, and, with the three consecutive he had at the end of the 2007 season, he tied Simon Fletcher for the longest streak in league history (10) since sacks became official. Ware led the Cowboys with a then club linebacker record 11.5 sacks in 2006, becoming the first Cowboy to record 10-or-more sacks in a season since Tony Tolbert (12.0 in 1996). He upped that total in 2007 to establish a then-club linebacker record with 14.0 sacks while also becoming the first Cowboy to log back-to-back double-digit sack seasons since Charles Haley (12.5 – 1994, 10.5 – 1995). With registering a double-digit sack total again in 2009, Ware became the third Cowboy defender – first since 1971 – with three consecutive 10-plus sack seasons. As a rookie, Ware tied Greg Ellis for the team lead with eight sacks, becoming just the second rookie in club history to lead or tie for the team lead in sacks since Jimmie Jones in 1990. Ware is the first player in franchise history to lead or tie for the team lead in sacks through each of his first seven seasons with the team, and since entering the league in 2005, no player has more sacks than his 99.5. In 2011 Ware barely missed becoming the first ever league defender to reach 20.0 sacks in multiple seasons, finishing second in the league with 19.5. Despite coming short of 20 sacks on the season, Ware is paired up with Mark Gastineau as the only two men in league history with two seasons of 19-or-more sacks.

PRO: Through nine NFL seasons, Jason Witten has emerged as one of the top tight ends in NFL history and one of the most prolific pass catchers in Cowboys history. Coming into 2012, he is third all-time among league tight ends with 696 catches and is fifth with 7,909 yards - he is only 10 yards shy of taking the fourth spot. Among Dallas Cowboys pass catchers, Witten is second in receptions, behind only Michael Irvin (750) and third in receiving yards, behind Irvin (11,904) and Tony Hill (7,988). He appeared in seven consecutive Pro Bowl games for the most Pro Bowl appearances by a Cowboys tight end, a streak that ended following the 2011 season. Despite missing out on the Pro Bowl in 2011, Witten led the team for the fifth straight, sixth overall, season with 79 catches and a team-best 942 yards with five touchdowns. It was his sixth season with 75-plus catches - the second-most by a tight end in NFL history. The 2010 season was no different for the perennial Pro Bowler. En route to his seventh straight all-star appearance, Witten led the team in receptions for the fourth straight season with 94. His three career 90-plus catch seasons are the second-most by a tight end in league history. Along with his three 1,000-yard seasons, he is just the fourth tight end in league history with three career 1,000-yard years. He is also just the second league tight end to post three-or-more 90-plus catch, 1,000-yard seasons. In team history, he is tied for second among all pass catchers with three career 1,000-yard seasons, is second in receptions and fifth in receiving yards. Witten owns three of the top-five club spots for receptions in a season, and he has strung together seven straight seasons with at least 50 and 60 catches and four straight with at least 70 and 80. He became the first tight end in franchise history - 13th in league history - to top 1,000 yards in a season with his first 1,000-yard effort in 2007. Of his 696 career receptions, 376 have gone for first downs, including 143 on third down. A model of durability, Witten has appeared in 132 of a possible 133 games, missing just one game after breaking his jaw against Arizona (10/5/03) and undergoing surgery to have three plates put in on Oct. 6, 2003.

2012 DRAFT PICKS

COLLEGE: The Dallas Cowboys traded up eight spots in the 2012 NFL Draft in order to select the top defensive player available in the draft in Morris Claiborne. In Claiborne, Dallas gets the 2011 Jim Thorpe Award winner who proved himself not only in man coverage, but also with his ability to handle kick return duties. Claiborne started the last 26 games he played at Louisiana State, tallying 95 tackles, 11 interceptions with one returned for a touchdown while averaging 25.38 yards-per-kickoff return, returning 24 for 609 yards with a touchdown. His knack for intercepting passes should come as no surprise as Claiborne was recruited to play wide receiver, but moved to defensive back prior to his freshman season due to the recommendation of former teammate Patrick Peterson, who was taken by Arizona just one spot higher than Claiborne in the 2011 NFL Draft. Through his three collegiate seasons, Claiborne put his athletic talents on display. He has the innate ability of jumping routes and is capable of making quick reads and reacting to the ball. He excels in man coverage, and his quick hands and reaction time allow him to play the ball in the air. In teaming up with former first round pick Mike Jenkins (2008), Orlando Scandrick (2008) and 2012 free agent Brandon Carr, the Cowboys expect Claiborne to be a big force in their now deep cornerback group.

MetLife Stadium, September 11, 2011
Attendance: 78,702

The Dallas Cowboys began the 2011 season with a 27-24 loss on the road against the New York Jets. Dallas scored on its opening drive on a three-yard Tony Romo-to-Dez Bryant scoring toss. The Cowboys extended their lead to 10 points after a 34-yard Dan Bailey field goal in the second quarter. After shutting out the Jets offense through the entire first quarter and most of the second quarter, New York finally found the end zone on a four-yard Mark Sanchez-to-Dustin Keller scoring combo with 0:37 seconds left in the first half to make the score 10-7 in Dallas' favor.

The Cowboys upped their lead back to 10 points in the third quarter when Miles Austin caught a 36-yard scoring strike from Romo that made the score 17-7. The Jets trimmed the lead to 17-10 later in the quarter on a 34-yard Nick Folk field goal. In the closing seconds of the third quarter, Sean Lee intercepted a Sanchez throw and returned the pick 37 yards to the New York one-yard line. Two plays later, Felix Jones punched in the rushing touchdown to give the Cowboys their largest lead of the game, 24-10, in the beginning of the fourth quarter. However, the Jets struck back on the ensuing drive as Sanchez connected with Plaxico Burress for a 26-yard touchdown that cut the lead to 24-17. Two offensive series later, a Dallas punt was blocked by New York and returned by Isaiah Trufant for an 18-yard touchdown to tie the game at 24-24. With less than a minute remaining, the Jets completed their comeback with a 50-yard Folk field goal to cap a 17-0 fourth quarter scoring run and give them the 27-24 victory.

The Dallas Cowboys earned their first win of the season in a 27-24 overtime road win against the San Francisco 49ers. After a scoreless first quarter, San Francisco scored two touchdowns in the second quarter - a one-yard Frank Gore run and a 12-yard passing touchdown from Alex Smith-to-Kyle Williams - to take a 14-0 lead. Dallas answered before the end of the first half, as Tony Romo threw a 53-yard touchdown strike to Miles Austin that cut the 49er lead to 14-7 going into halftime.

With Romo out during the majority of the third quarter due to a rib injury, Jon Kitna stepped in at quarterback and tied the game at 14-14 with a five-yard connection to Austin. The 49ers answered later in the third quarter when Smith hit Delanie Walker for a 29-yard scoring strike and added another three points during the beginning of the fourth quarter on a 55-yard David Akers field goal which supplied 10 unanswered points to push their lead up to 24-14. With less than seven minutes remaining in regulation, Romo returned to the field to lead two scoring drives which included a 25-yard passing touchdown to Austin and a 48-yard Dan Bailey field goal with seconds remaining to tie the game and send the game into overtime. In extra time, the Dallas defense stopped San Francisco's offense, allowing Romo to find Jesse Holley for a 77-yard gain that set the team up at the San Francisco one-yard line, and on the next play, Bailey drilled the game-winning 19-yard field goal.

Cowboys During the Week

The Dallas Cowboys have a tradition of showing up on the football schedule just about any day of the week. Along with Sundays, the Cowboys have shown up on Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Mondays. When it comes to prime time, the Cowboys are also front and center on Sunday and Monday nights.

(All Games Regular Season Only Unless Indicated)

Thanksgiving Day Games (28-15-1)

Since 1966, the Cowboys have been a fixture on Thanksgiving Day, having hosted the annual contest for 44 of the last 46 years. In 1975 and 1977, the St. Louis Cardinals played host to the game in place of Dallas. In 1978, the game returned to Dallas for good. The Cowboys have posted a 28-15-1 record in the holiday classic and a 27-17 mark the following week. Here are the Cowboys annual Thanksgiving Day results:

Home team in CAPS

Monday Night Football (43-29)

The Cowboys will be making their 74th appearance on Monday Night Football during the 2012 season at home against Chicago (10/1). The majority of the Cowboys MNF games were played on ABC Monday Night Football from 1970-2005 when they appeared on the prime time telecast 67 times posting a 39-28 record including a 17-11 record at home and a 22-17 mark on the road. Only Miami, with 76 games, has appeared on MNF more. The 43 MNF wins by the Cowboys are the most in league history. ESPN landed the telecast in 2006, and since then, the Cowboys have appeared six times on MNF with a 4-2 record. The week after playing on MNF, the Cowboys are 32-29 (five times the Cowboys final game of the season was on a Monday night and six times they followed with a bye). 8 ★ TROY AIKMAN ★
Quarterback, 1989-2000
INDUCTED – 2006

In 12 NFL seasons, Troy Aikman became one of the game's great quarterbacks. As just the third player in NFL history to lead a team to three Super Bowl victories, Aikman rewrote virtually every passing record in Cowboys' history. He closed his career with 94 regular season wins, including 90 in the decade of the 1990s – making him the winningest starting quarterback of any decade in NFL history (Joe Montana held the record with 86 wins in the 1980s).

Along with that mark, Aikman held or was tied for 47 Dallas passing records, including the club's career records for attempts (4,715), completions (2,898), passing yards (32,942), touchdowns (165) and completion percentage (61.5% – third best in NFL history at the time of his retirement). He also posted a club-high 13 regular season 300-yard passing games during his career.

Along the way to these marks, Aikman guided Dallas from the cellar of 1-15 in 1989 to six NFC East titles (1992-96 and 1998), four NFC Championship Games (1992-95) and three Super Bowl titles (XXVII, XXVIII and XXX). He was one of the game's most accurate passers, completing at least 60 percent of his passes in 98-of-165 career games. In the postseason, he reached the 60% completion mark in 12-of-16 games. He completed 70 percent or more of his passes 42 times in his career, with Dallas posting a 37-5 record in those games, and he produced the top six single-season completion percentages in club history.

With his passing accuracy, Aikman was able to establish a club-record with a career interception rate of 2.99%. Although not known for his fleet feet, Aikman successfully ran for a first down 49-of-72 times on third or fourth down during career. That ability to avoid the sack also allowed him to post the highest career pass attempts per sack ratio (19.2) in team history. Despite winning just one of his first 15 NFL starts, Aikman went on to start a club-record 180 games (165 regular season) at quarterback and post a 105-75 (.583) record, which includes an impeccable 11-4 mark in the postseason – 3-0 in the Super Bowl.

For his career, Aikman led the Cowboys from behind 16 times in the fourth quarter, including six times in the final two minutes. Another six times, he led the team to wins after the score was tied in the fourth quarter. Five of his game-winning drives came in overtime.

In the postseason Aikman truly shined. His four 300-yard passing days were the third best total in NFL history, and he holds the club records for postseason pass attempts (502), completions (320), yards (3,849), and completion percentage (63.7%). In addition, Aikman's 23 career postseason passing touchdowns was just one shy of Staubach's club record of 24.

The first overall choice in the 1989 draft out of UCLA, Aikman completed 64.8 percent of his passes for 5,298 yards and 41 touchdowns while throwing only 17 interceptions in two seasons as the starter. He finished his career as the third rated passer in NCAA history. The All-America led the Bruins to a 20-4 record, including wins in the 1987 Aloha Bowl and the 1989 Cotton Bowl. He transferred to UCLA - where he received his degree in sociology in June, 2009 - after two seasons at Oklahoma (1984-85).

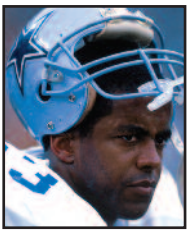

Aikman was born Nov. 21, 1966 in West Covina, Calif.

33 ★ TONY DORSETT ★

Running Back, 1977-87

INDUCTED – 1994

Tony Dorsett arrived in Dallas in 1977 via a draft-day deal the Cowboys swung with the Seattle Seahawks for the sole intention of selecting the Heisman Trophy winner from the University of Pittsburgh. Then Cowboys president and General Manager Tex Schramm paid what seemed like a bundle for the right to draft Dorsett: one first-round, and three second-round choices. As his 11-career turned out in Dallas, a steal of a deal for an eventual Pro Football Hall of Fame player.

The Dorsett deal paid dividends in his very first year with the Cowboys, the four-time All-American picked up where he left off in college, rushing for 1,007 yards to earn NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors and set the rushing bar for rookie running backs in Dallas.

"A lot of the people said I wouldn't last in this league," Dorsett said in 1987. "I was the skinny little kid from Aliquippa, Pa., who wasn't supposed to make it."

Dorsett did make it, in fact he became one of the greatest running backs in NFL history. On Sept. 26, 1988 while playing his final NFL season with the Denver Broncos, Dorsett moved into second place on the NFL all-time rushing list with 12,306 rushing yards, and eventually finished his career with 12,739 yards. At the time, Dorsett trailed only Walter Payton when he retired after suffering a knee injury the following summer, but now ranks eighth behind Emmitt Smith, Payton, Barry Sanders, Curtis Martin, LaDainian Tomlinson, Jerome Bettis and Eric Dickerson.

By the time Dorsett completed his 12-year career, he had collected a victory in Super Bowl XII, four Pro Bowl selections, one All-Pro honor and three All-NFC selections.

One of the most notable moments of Dorsett's career came on Jan. 2, 1983, before a Monday Night Football television audience playing against the Minnesota Vikings. Dorsett received a handoff from quarterback Danny White and proceeded to run 99-yards for a touchdown, thus recording an unbreakable NFL record. Dorsett's greatest season came in 1981 when he rushed for 1,646 yards, a franchise record at the time, a total that now ranks third to only Emmitt Smith's two, 1,700-yard seasons.

"When he came to us, we hadn't had a strong running attack for about three years," Hall of Fame quarterback Roger Staubach once said. "Tony Dorsett is one of the greatest backs in NFL history."

Dorsett was the Heisman Trophy winner in 1976 and was the first Pitt football player to have his jersey retired. Dorsett left Pitt as a four-time All-American and four-time 1,000-yard rusher. His final collegiate highlight was a 27-3 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl to claim the national title.

In 1994 Dorsett became the ninth Cowboys player inducted into the Ring of Honor, and that same year he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

He was born April 7, 1954, in Rochester, Pa.

22 ★ BOB HAYES ★
Wide Receiver, 1965-74
INDUCTED – 2009

In his 10 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys, "Bullet" Bob Hayes revolutionized the wide receiver position and the way defenses would play in the NFL. He began his 11-year NFL career after winning two olympic gold medals at the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo, Japan. He tied the world record (10.06 seconds) in the 100-meter dash and claimed his second gold medal running the anchor leg of the 400-meter relay to earn the title of "The World's Fastest Human." He arrived in Dallas in similar fashion to become – and remain – the only rookie in franchise history to ever lead the team in receptions (46), receiving yards (1,003) and a rookie club record of 12 touchdown catches. His 12 touchdown receptions as a rookie are currently tied for fourth in league history. His speed and threat of being able to go long forced teams to install the zone defense to corral Hayes.

Hayes finished his Cowboys career with 365 catches (seventh), for 7,295 yards (fifth) and 71 touchdowns (first). In club record books, Hayes still holds team receiving marks for most points in a game (24, tied), most touchdowns in a game (four, tied), most receptions by a rookie, season (46), most receptions by a rookie, game (eight, tied), yards, game (246), longest reception (95t), highest career receiving average (20.0), highest single-season receiving average (26.1), touchdowns in a season (71), touchdowns in a season by a rookie (12) and touchdowns in a game (four, tied).

Hayes was also a threat as a punt returner, returning 104 punts (fourth in team history) for 1,158 yards (fourth) and three touchdowns (tied for second). His 11.1 yard-per-return average is second in team record books only to Deion Sanders (13.3).

Hayes was a three-time Pro Bowl selection and became just the third rookie in club history (Don Perkins – 1961 and Mel Renfro – 1964) to be named to the Pro Bowl. He also earned All-Pro selections four times (1965-68) and was inducted into the Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor in a halftime celebration against San Diego on Sept. 23, 2001.

Hayes split his time between football and track and field at Florida A&M where he became famous as the "World's Fastest Human." In 1963 he set the world record (9.1 seconds) in the 100-yard dash, a record that stood for 11 years.

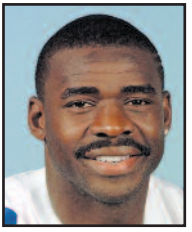

Hayes was born December 20, 1942.

HAYES' ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 3-Time Pro Bowler
- ★ Super Bowl VI title
- ★ 2 Eastern Conference Titles
- ★ 2 NFC East titles
- ★ 2 NFC titles
- ★ Holds or tied for 11 club records
- ★ 2 Capitol Division Titles
- ★ Won two olympic gold medals at the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo, Japan.
- ★ He tied the then world record (10.06 seconds) in the 100-meter dash

88 ★ MICHAEL IRVIN ★
Wide Receiver, 1988-99
INDUCTED – 2007

Despite having his career cut short due to a spine injury, Michael Irvin left the NFL following the 1999 season owning or tied for 20 Cowboys receiving records. Those marks included career receptions (750), yardage (11,904) and 100-yard receiving games (47). During his illustrious career, Irvin also etched his name in the NFL record books. In league history, only Jerry Rice (12) and Steve Largent (8) had recorded more 1,000-yard receiving seasons than the seven produced by Irvin at the time of his retirement. His 11 100-yard receiving games during the 1995 season is still the NFL standard, as is the seven consecutive 100-yard games he produced that same year. Irvin's 47 career 100-yard receiving games still stands as the third-most in NFL history, behind Rice (65) and Don Maynard (50), and the Cowboys posted a 36-11 record when Irvin topped the 100-yard mark. In the 1990s, Irvin's consistent ability to achieve at the highest level established his place among the game's elite receivers. He finished his career tied with Charlie Joiner for tenth in NFL history on the all-time reception list, and he was ninth in league history in receiving yardage.

Irvin was selected to five Pro Bowls between 1991-98, giving him two more Pro Bowl appearances than any other wide receiver in club history. He is one of only two Cowboys players (Jason Witten 2007-11) to top 75 catches in five straight seasons (1991-1995), and his reception and yardage totals for six of the years between 1991-98 represent six of the top nine single-season performances in club history: 1997 (75 receptions for 1,180 yards); 1995 (111 for 1,603); 1994 (79 for 1,241), 1993 (88 for 1,330), 1992 (78 for 1,396) and 1991 (93 for 1,523). Irvin also stands alone as the club record holder in terms of most consecutive seasons leading the team in receptions (eight, 1991-98) and most total seasons leading the club in receptions (eight). He led or tied for the team lead in catches in 85 of his last 130 regular season games. Including playoff games, he had a catch of 20-yards-or-more in 121 of the 175 NFL games he played. Irvin's career receiving average of 15.9 is the fourth highest in team history, and he is second on the club's all-time receiving touchdown list with 65 - trailing only Bob Hayes (71).

Of his 750 career regular season catches, 95 went for 20-29 yards, 38 for 30-39, 18 for 40-49, 10 for 50-59 and nine for 60 yards-or-more. After entering the League in 1988, he started 147-of-159 regular season games (163-of-175 including playoffs). Irvin did not miss a start due to injury after the 1990 season, when he was overcoming a 1989 knee injury. Always a clutch performer, he became Troy Aikman's go-to-guy on third or fourth down and prospered, leading the team in catches on third or fourth down for first downs in '92 (22), '93 (16), '94 (20), '95 (27), '97 (23) and '98 (16). He had 165 first down catches on third or fourth down in his last 121 games and 185 after returning from the knee injury in 1990.

His performance in the postseason was every bit as impressive as his consistent play throughout the regular season. His six career 100-yard receiving days in the postseason are two shy of the NFL mark of eight by Jerry Rice. Irvin's 87 postseason receptions place him second in NFL playoff history behind Rice (151) and his 1,315 postseason receiving yards also ranks second in league annals behind Rice (2,245).

Irvin was the 11th overall choice in 1988 draft out of Miami, Florida, where in just three seasons as a starter he set career records for catches (143), receiving yards (2,423) and touchdown receptions (26).

Irvin was born March 3, 1966.

★ TOM LANDRY ★
Head Coach, 1960-88
INDUCTED – 1990

Tom Landry paced the sidelines as the "only head coach" in Dallas Cowboys history for 29 years in his trademark fedora. By the time Landry's coaching career ended following the 1988 season, he had compiled a 270-178-6 record, the third most wins in NFL history.

That distinguished career was good enough for Landry to gain entry into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990 and the Cowboys Ring of Honor in 1993, thanks to leading the Cowboys to two Super Bowl titles, five Super Bowl appearances, five NFC Championships, 13 division titles and an incredible 20 consecutive winning seasons.

"This team has always played for me," Landry said. "That was the key to why I continued coaching. If they wouldn't play for me, I would have been out a long time ago. They always played hard and tried hard."

Landry's head coaching career did not start out very smoothly, coming over from the N.Y. Giants staff to take over the expansion Cowboys in 1960. That first year ended with an 0-11-1 in 1960, the tie coming against Landry's former team the Giants, preventing the Cowboys from going winless. The Cowboys went on to suffer through losing seasons in the first five years, before going 7-7 in 1965.

But from that point on, Landry turned the franchise into "America's Team," the Cowboys reeling off 20 consecutive winning seasons from 1966-85, one of the longest winning streaks in all of professional sports.

As a player-coach with the Giants before coming to the Cowboys, Landry helped to develop what would eventually become a base defense in the NFL, the 4-3. It was innovations like this that caught the attention of Cowboys owner Clint Murchison Jr. and president Tex Schramm when it came time to select the franchise's first head coach.

As head coach of the Cowboys, Landry introduced more innovations to the game, including offensive motion. Very seldom did the Cowboys run a play from the formation they initially lined up in after breaking the huddle. Landry brought back the shotgun formation, popularized situational substitutions and concocted the "Flex" defense.

Walking the sidelines characteristically stoic, Landry was always thinking a couple of plays ahead and what the long-term effects of each play he called might be. He coached football as if it were a chess match, positioning his team in the best way to win in the end. And in the end, no one coached with more success for a longer period of time than Landry. That success was the impetus for Landry's induction into Pro Football Hall of Fame less than two years after he coached his last game.

The legendary coach, born Sept. 11, 1924, in Mission, Texas, died Feb. 12, 2000 of leukemia.

74 ★ BOB LILLY ★
Defensive Tackle, 1961-74
INDUCTED – 1980

Before earning the nickname "Mr. Cowboy," Bob Lilly was the first player ever drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in 1961. So it is fitting that Lilly not only became the first Cowboys player inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1975, but also became the franchise's first player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1980.

During the course of 14 seasons with the Cowboys, Lilly was named Rookie of the Year in 1961, was selected to the Pro Bowl a club-record 11-times – 10 consecutive selections between 1964-74 – was named to the All-Pro team seven times and played in two Super Bowls, including the club's very first Super Bowl victory, 24-3 over Miami in Super Bowl VI.

As the foundation of the famed "Doomsday Defense," Lilly's intensity was readily apparent in an infamous scene after the Cowboys Super Bowl V loss to the Baltimore Colts when he ripped his helmet off and hurled it into the air. The following year, the Lilly-led Cowboys defense held Miami to only a field goal in Super Bowl VI, the fewest points every given up in Super Bowl history.

"The competition is what I love," Lilly once said. "That makes me a lot more intense. Personalities don't enter into it at all. My objective is to get the man with the ball. Nobody better get in my way."

Lilly is the Cowboys' all-time leader in consecutive games played at 196, is tied for second with 14 seasons played and second all-time with 194 games started. Lilly led the Cowboys in sacks three consecutive years, beginning with his rookie season.

"A man like that comes along once in a lifetime," late Cowboys head coach Tom Landry said in 1972. "He is something a little bit more than great. Nobody is better than Bob Lilly."

Lilly was a two-time All-American defensive end at Texas Christian University and a two-time all-Southwest Conference team selection.

He was born July 26, 1939, in Olney, Texas.

LILLY'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

20 ★ MEL RENFRO ★
Defensive Back, 1964-77
INDUCTED – 1996

Mel Renfro first came to the Cowboys a highly-acclaimed running back out of the University of Oregon. But Cowboys head coach Tom Landry saw Renfro as a defensive back when they selected him in the second round of the 1964 draft.

And what a defensive back he was during his 14-year career, becoming arguably the best safety-cornerback to ever play for the Cowboys, and one of the best to ever play in the NFL. His 52 career interceptions and 26.4-yard career kickoff-return average still stand as team records, both a tribute to his running ability.

The NFL certainly got to know Renfro in a hurry, having been elected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first 10 seasons in the NFL – the first six at free safety and the final four at cornerback. His 10 Pro Bowl appearances is second to only Bob Lilly's 11 for the Cowboys.

On top of his 10 Pro Bowls, Renfro was a four-time All-Pro, playing in four Super Bowls and eight NFC Championships. He became the fifth member of the exclusive Ring of Honor in 1981, and was finally elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996 in his 14th year of eligibility.

Renfro's 14 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys ties him for second in club history, just one shy of the record.

While at Oregon, Renfro led the team in rushing three consecutive years and was a two-time All-American. Despite coming to the NFL as an acclaimed runner, Renfro only ran the ball eight times during his career, all in 1966. Landry saw a free safety first, Renfro spending his first six seasons at safety and the final eight at corner.

In the middle of Renfro's All-Pro 1969 season, Landry was uncharacteristically complimentary toward one of his players, calling him "the best in the league at free safety."

But the Cowboys certainly figured out a way to capitalize on Renfro's running ability, having him return punts and kickoffs early in his career. He led the NFL in kickoff and punt returns his rookie season, and had seven interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. Renfro still is tied for the franchise lead with two career touchdown returns, and his 30-yard kick-off return average in 1965 still remains as the single-season high.

But it was interceptions Renfro was best known for during his career. In his first six years at free safety, Renfro totaled 30 interceptions. His interception totals declined somewhat when Landry moved him to cornerback for good in 1970. The decline had more to do with quarterbacks' reluctance to throw his way than any diminishing skills or quickness. His 626 interception return yards still stands as a career record for the Cowboys.

That 1971 Pro Bowl possibly was the greatest indication of Renfro's all-round ability. Not only did he play cornerback, but be also returned two punts for touchdowns, leading the NFC to a 27-6 win and earning the game's Most Valuable Player award.

He was born Dec. 30, 1941, in Houston, Texas.

RENFRO'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 4-Time All-Pro
- ★ 10-Time Pro Bowl
- ★ 3-Time All-NFC
- ★ Cowboys Career Record 52 interceptions
- ★ Cowboys Career Record 26.4-yard kickoff-return average
- ★ Cowboys Career Record 626 interception return yards

21 ★ DEION SANDERS ★
Cornerback, 1995-99
INDUCTED – 2011

On Sept. 9 1995, the Dallas Cowboys made the biggest free agent move in the franchise's history by signing Deion Sanders to a long term contract. In doing so, Dallas was able to secure the services of one of the most talented cornerbacks in the history of the NFL. His stardom in the NFL was apparent from his first career game when he returned a punt 68 yards for a touchdown. More of that spectacular play continued throughout his 14-season, 188-game career. Sanders, who spent time with five different NFL teams, scored a total of six touchdowns on punt returns, three on kickoff returns, and returned nine interceptions for scores. The multi-faceted athlete also returned one fumble for a touchdown and had 60 receptions for 784 yards and three touchdowns with the Falcons (1989-1993), San Francisco 49ers (1994), Dallas Cowboys (1995-99), Washington Redskins (2000) and Baltimore Ravens (2004-05). In all, he recorded 53 interceptions including five with the Ravens when he returned to the field after a three-year retirement.

Sanders was an extremely gifted and versatile athlete, who was also a Major League Baseball player. As a baseball player, Sanders spent time with the New York Yankees (1989-90), Atlanta Braves (1991-94), Cincinnati Reds (1994-95, 1997, 2001) and San Francisco Giants (1995). He is the only man in professional sports to play in both a World Series (batting at a .533 World Series clip with Atlanta in 1992) and in the Super Bowl (with victorious San Francisco and Dallas teams following the 1994 and 1995 seasons). To further validate his versatility, Sanders is the only man in NFL history who has recorded both a pass reception – a 47-yarder, the longest completion of the game in Super Bowl XXX – and an interception – returned for 15 yards in Super Bowl XXIX – in Super Bowl action. After helping the Cowboys win Super Bowl XXX, Sanders announced on Feb. 20, 1996 that he would play football exclusively for the entire 1996 season. As a result, Sanders started 16 regular season games at cornerback and another eight at wide receiver – becoming the first two-way starter in the NFL since the Philadelphia Eagles Chuck Bednarik, who retired in 1962. At the completion of the 1996 football season, Sanders returned to baseball, signing with the Reds, and led the league in stolen bases (56) in the 1997 season before returning to football on a full-time basis in September.

He was selected to eight Pro Bowls, and became a member of the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s as both a cornerback and a punt returner, leading the NFL in punt returns in 1998. He also led the NFC in kickoffs in 1992 and interceptions in 1991 and 1993. He was named first-team All-Pro nine times at cornerback in addition to receiving All-NFL acclaim by some media outlets as a kick returner in 1992 and as a punt returner in 1998. Sanders won two Super Bowls during his career. He started at right cornerback for the 49ers in their 49-26 victory over the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX and at left cornerback in the Cowboys 27-17 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XXX.

His 23 career touchdowns (including playoffs) have been scored in the following manner: interceptions (nine), pass receptions (three), rushes (one), kickoff returns (three), punt returns (six) and fumble recoveries (one). Sanders holds the NFL record for career touchdowns scored on any type of return with 18. Perhaps the one statistic that supports Sanders' status as one of the game's greatest playmakers is his 25.1-yard career interception average on 53 career thefts (1,331 yards), ranking him sixth all-time. He retired second all-time in interception return yardage (1,331) and tied for second for most interceptions returned for a touchdown in a career (nine) and a season (three). His career-high 303 yards gained on interception returns with the 49ers in 1994 was third best ever in the NFL at the time of his retirement. He also returned three picks for touchdowns (74, 93, 90 yards) that season to become the first player ever to have two 90-yard interception returns for touchdowns in the same season. He was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year.

Sanders was originally drafted by Atlanta in the first round (fifth overall) of the 1989 NFL Draft out of Florida State, just behind Troy Aikman (first overall selection in 1989).

SANDERS' ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ Only man in professional sports to play in both a World Series and in a Super Bowl
- ★ 8 -Time Pro Bowl
- ★ Member of the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s as both a cornerback and a punt returner.
- ★ Named first-team All-Pro nine times at cornerback
- ★ Holds the NFL record for career touchdowns scored on any type of return with 18

★ TEX SCHRAMM ★
Cowboys President and General Manager
1959-1989
INDUCTED – 1991

Texas Earnest Schramm Jr., better known as "Tex," rose to Professional Football Hall of Fame status during his 29 seasons as president and general manager of the Dallas Cowboys, turning a 1960 expansion franchise in Dallas into one of the most successful franchises in NFL history.

With Schramm overseeing the birth and growth of the Cowboys organization, the team reached five Super Bowls, winning two, made 18 playoff appearances and compiled an NFL-record 20 consecutive winning seasons, one of the longest such streaks in all of professional sports.

Schramm was an NFL pioneer and innovator. Under his watch, the Dallas Cowboys were always on the cutting edge with revolutionary ideas and visions. He was instrumental in creating the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders, the first of their kind in professional football, developing the Cowboys' Ring of Honor and bringing an annual Cowboys Thanksgiving Day game to the nation.

Schramm's work was not just focused on the Dallas Cowboys, as his tireless efforts changed the face of the entire NFL. He was a driving force behind the development and implementation of instant replay, giving the head referee a microphone for penalty announcements, shortening the play-clock and helping to develop the wild-card playoff system.

A tough negotiator, Schramm was the engineer in building the Cowboys foundation from the ground up. His tough stance in labor negotiations was also evident in his support for using replacement players during the 1987 NFL strike. After just three weeks, the move proved successful and the players returned to work. The benefits of this would be apparent in future years as lasting labor peace was reached with the NFL Players Association in 1992 and has continued since.

His position as chairman of the NFL Competition Committee from 1966 to 1988 aided his innovative efforts. Schramm's impact on the league was widespread, and probably his most cherished legacy since the one-time TV-executive at CBS who first came up with the idea of televising the Winter Olympics in 1960 from Squaw Valley was such a firm believer in preserving and making history.

One of Schramm's most significant accomplishments in the NFL was coordinating the merger of the established NFL and the fledging American Football League in 1966, holding what amounted to as secret meetings with Kansas City Chiefs owner Lamar Hunt at the insistence of NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

The merger of the two warring leagues led to what became known as the Super Bowl, and when the leagues combined in 1970, the most powerful sports league in the world.

After Schramm departed the Cowboys in 1989 when Jerry Jones bought the club, he went international, becoming president of the upstart World League of American Football, later to become know as NFL Europe. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1991.

"I'm not one of the great athletes like the men behind me," a jubilant Schramm said during his Hall of Fame induction speech. "But I'm thrilled to be standing in front of them. Many of the men in here were my heroes. To be rubbing shoulders with them, it's beyond my comprehension."

In all, Schramm spent 44 years of his life in professional football, starting as a sportswriter for the Austin American-Statesman in 1947 – a natural step for the California-born Schramm who earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Texas. Schramm spent 10 seasons with the Los Angeles Rams (1947-56), where Schramm first came in contact with Rozelle, who Schramm hired to be the Rams public relations director in 1952. Schramm then spent a brief period (1957-59) at CBS before being hired by Clint Murchison in 1959 to oversee the startup of the Dallas expansion franchise.

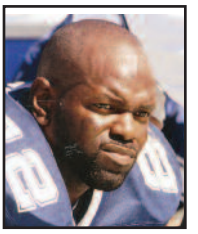

Schramm was born on June 2, 1920, in San Gabriel, Calif.

TEX SCHRAMM'S NFL LEGACY

During Schramm's 25 years as chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee, the NFL implemented the following:

Year	Contribution
1970	Moved the official game time to the scoreboard clock
1972	Moved the hash marks toward the center of the field to aid offense
1974	Implemented stricter pass defense rules to influence scoring
1974	Moved goalposts from the goal line to the end line for safety and to help offensive play
1974	Developed the sudden-death overtime concept for breaking ties
1975	Gave the referee a microphone to announce calls to the crowd and TV audiences
1977	Made defensive linemen's head slaps illegal
1979	Implemented the in-the-grasp rule to protect quarterbacks
1986	Instituted Instant Replay to aid officials

22 ★ EMMITT SMITH ★
Running Back, 1990-2002
INDUCTED – 2010

In 15 seasons - 13 with Dallas - Emmitt Smith made an impact on the NFL that few players can match at any position or in any era. As the NFL's all-time leading rusher, Smith also won four NFL rushing titles, three Super Bowl titles and a league (1993) and Super Bowl (XXVIII) MVP award. He was selected to the Pro Bowl eight times, and on the club's offense, only Larry Allen (10) was selected to more in club history. Among NFL running backs, only Barry Sanders (10) was selected more times. With 975 rushing yards in 2002, Smith became just the seventh player in NFL history to carry the title of all-time rushing leader, taking that designation from Walter Payton.

After 13 seasons in Dallas, Smith had 17,162 career rushing yards, and he moved past Payton's 16,726 career yard mark in Week Eight of the 2002 season against Seattle. Smith finished his pro career with 18,355 yards and is also the NFL's career rushing touchdowns leader (164), and second in league annals in total touchdowns (175), trailing Jerry Rice by 33. The first player in NFL history to post five straight seasons with over 1,400 yards rushing, Smith, Jim Brown and LaDainian Tomlinson are the only players with seven straight 10-touchdown seasons to start their career. With 1,021 yards rushing in 2001, Smith became the first player in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in 11 consecutive seasons and the first to post 11 1,000-yard rushing seasons in a career.

Smith holds the NFL record for career rushing attempts with 4,409, passing Payton (3,838) in Week Three of the 2002 season. With an NFL record 25 rushing touchdowns in 1995, Smith scored 100 career touchdowns in just six seasons, originally the fastest anyone in league history had reached that mark. Smith also tied Brown's NFL record by scoring 100 touchdowns in just 93 career games. Since Smith's accomplishment, Tomlinson reached the feat in 89 games. His 25 career scores against the Arizona Cardinals is tied for the third-best total by a player against an opponent since 1970, followed by his 24 scores against Washington and the N.Y Giants.

His value to the Cowboys success can be seen in the club's 99-26 mark (91-24 in regular season) when he carried the ball 20-or-more times a game and 64-19 record (57-19 in regular season) when he rushed for 100 yards. The century mark became a big number in Smith's career, having rushed for 100 yards in 155-of-326 games dating back to high school, including 83-of-218 games with Dallas, including playoffs. In NFL annals, Smith's 78 regular season 100-yard rushing games is a record. Included in Smith's club-record 76 100-yard rushing games are 11 of the top 15 performances in team history and 18 days with over 150 yards (the fourth highest total of 150-yard games in NFL history). Smith rushed for over 100-yards against 22 of the 32 NFL teams.

In addition, he rushed for 2,466 yards against the Philadelphia Eagles in his 15-year career, his best output against any single opponent. That total ranks second since 1970 for running backs against one team. Smith also has the third and fourth best totals in that category.

One reason Smith was such a workhorse in the Dallas offense over the years was his ability to answer the bell at game time, having started 216-of-218 career games - including playoffs. While in Dallas, he missed just four career games due to injury, and it was that durability that enabled Smith to lead the Cowboys in rushing in 178 of his 201 career regular season games. The lack of decline in Smith's game is also evidenced by the fact that he had rushed for 5,928 yards from 1998-2002 – the fifth highest yardage total in the NFL over that time span. His 41 rushing touchdowns during his last five years in Dallas was the third-best figure in the league.

Not limited to rushing and scoring, Smith is fourth on the Cowboys all-time reception list with 486 career catches, trailing Drew Pearson (489) by three receptions. Smith is one of only six NFL players who have amassed over 9,000 career-rushing yards and 500 career receptions. He is second on the NFL's yards from scrimmage list and fourth on the NFL's all-time combined yardage list with 20,174 yards.

Smith was born on May 15, 1969 in Pensacola, Fla.

12 ★ ROGER STAUBACH ★
Quarterback, 1969-79
INDUCTED – 1985

Good things come to those who wait, and certainly the Dallas Cowboys patience in the mid-60's was supremely rewarded, landing one of the best players in franchise history because they were willing to wait for Roger Staubach to fulfill his military commitment.

For those five years of patience, the Cowboys landed the guy who became better know as "Roger The Dodger" over the next 11 years when he was selected to six Pro Bowls – including five consecutively – and was named the NFL Players Association Most Valuable Player in 1971. Staubach led the NFL in passing four times and was selected to the All-NFC team four times.

"He is one of the finest to ever play the game," Green Bay Packers Quarterback Bart Starr once said of Staubach. "I think if I had some of that Staubach competitiveness, I'd have been much better."

Staubach, the 1963 Heisman Trophy winner, was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in 1964 from the Naval Academy, but did not join the team until 1969 due to his Navy commitment. Former president and general manager Tex Schramm signed Staubach to a futures contract in a hotel room in 1964, actually scribbling out the details on a legal-sized tablet that would have Staubach paid annually to participate in training camp practices when he had enough leave built up.

The 1963 Heisman Trophy winner showed up in Dallas as a 27-year-old rookie, but in those 11 seasons still managed to carve out the franchise's all-time leading quarterback rating of 83.42 and became a four-time NFL passing champion. But Staubach almost became better known for his scrambling ability, and to this day ranks 11th on the Cowboys' all-time rushing list with 2,264 yards.

Staubach owns the second-most passing yards in club history, 22,700, and his 3,586 in 1979 still ranks as the sixth most passing yards in a single season for the Cowboys. He also still leads the club with a career average of 7.67 yards-per-attempt.

Staubach also become known as "Captain Comeback" for his 23 fourth-quarter come-from-behind victories in regular season and playoff games, including 14 in the final two minutes or overtime. Never was this more apparent than in a 1975 playoff game against the Minnesota Vikings when Staubach connected with wide receiver Drew Pearson on a desperation 50-yard "Hail Mary" touchdown pass that knocked the Vikings out of the playoffs.

"You could never defeat Roger mentally or physically," late Cowboys head coach Tom Landry said in 1983. "He was like that in a game, in practice or in the business world."

Staubach ended his Cowboys career with four Super Bowl appearances, including wins in Super Bowls VI and XII. In Super Bowl VI, Staubach was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Following the 1979 season, Staubach retired, fearing the after-effects of recurring concussions.

In 1983, Staubach became the sixth member of the Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor and two years later was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

He was born Feb. 5, 1942, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

54 ★ RANDY WHITE ★

Defensive Tackle, 1975-88

INDUCTED – 1994

Randy White came to the Cowboys from the University of Maryland as the No. 2 pick in the 1975 NFL Draft. Before his career was over, 14 years later, he would become known as the "Manster" – half man, half defensive monster – setting numerous franchise records as the heart-and-soul of the famed "Doomsday Defense."

White struggled in his first two years with the Cowboys when then head coach Tom Landry moved White from his familiar defensive tackle position to linebacker. But, after Landry moved White back to right tackle in 1977, White became one of the NFL's most dominating defensive linemen and a coveted co-Super Bowl MVP.

"Coming out of college a lot was expected of me," White said. "But I never did feel comfortable playing linebacker. Those first two years I was fighting for my life out there. Then they switched me to defensive tackle, where I was a lot more comfortable and from there my career took off."

White played 14 seasons, tying him for second all-time in franchise history, and he set a franchise record with eight All-Pro selections. White also was selected to nine Pro Bowls, ranking third in franchise history for Pro Bowl appearances. White's 16 sacks in 1978 rank third in franchise history for a single season, and he still remains third all-time in career tackles with 1,104 and second with 701 career solo tackles.

"His performances range anywhere from spectacular to spectacular," Landry once said. "He could outmatch anybody's intensity from game to game."

In his career, White played in six NFC Championship Games and three Super Bowls, claiming victory in Super Bowl XII and co-MVP honors with teammate Harvey Martin. Even more astounding, White only missed one game in his 14-year career.

In 1994, White was inducted into the Ring of Honor with teammate Tony Dorsett, the same year he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

"Any honor I receive is a reflection on the great teammates and coaches I had in my career," White said. "There's a real special group of guys with the Cowboys, and to be a part of that was a great honor."

He was born Jan. 15, 1953, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

70 ★ RAYFIELD WRIGHT ★
Offensive Tackle, 1967-79
INDUCTED – 2006

Only nine players have played football for the Dallas Cowboys longer than Rayfield Wright, and only five players in the history of the Cowboys organization have been to more Pro Bowls than Wright's six.

After playing tight end, tackle and defensive end during his first three NFL seasons, Wright settled in at right tackle in 1970. Before undergoing knee surgery that forced him to miss most of the 1977 season, Wright was acknowledged as the NFL's premier offensive tackle. Wright was selected to six straight Pro Bowls (1971-76) as a tackle while earning All-Pro honors four times and earning recognition on the NFL's all-decade team for the 1970's.

During each of his 13 seasons, the Cowboys offense ranked in the top six in the NFL for total offense, including leading the league five times. Behind his blocking, Calvin Hill became the first 1,000 yard rusher in team history when he ran for 1,036 yards in 1972. All totaled, Dallas had a running back clear the 1,000 yard barrier five times during his tenure. Also behind his blocking, Roger Staubach became the first quarterback in franchise history to throw for more than 3,000 yards in a season when he totaled 3,190 passing yards in 1978, the year Wright returned from his knee surgery.

In his 13-year NFL career with the Dallas Cowboys, Wright was a key contributor to teams that had 13 straight winning seasons, made 12 playoff trips and won 10 division titles. He also played in eight conference championship games and won five NFC Championships (1970, 1971, 1975, 1977, 1978) and two Super Bowls (VI and XII). He was part of a team that had a 74.1% winning percentage in the regular season (137-48-1) and a 60.0% winning percentage in the post season (15-10).

During his 13 seasons, Wright was a participant in five Super Bowls, claiming the ultimate prize twice. Only one other player in NFL history has appeared in more Super Bowls than Wright, he is one of only 13 players in NFL history, and the only offensive tackle, to have played in five Super Bowls.

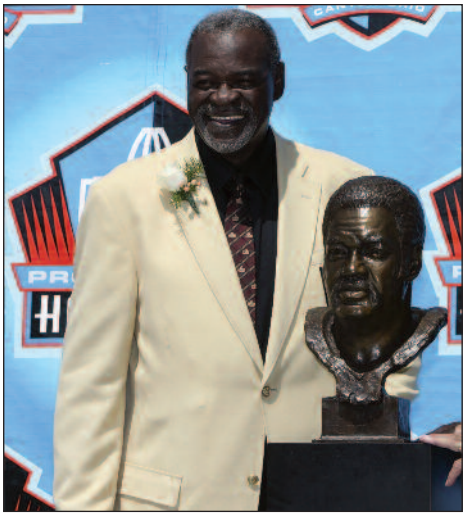

During Wright's career, the Cowboys were the only team to play in five Super Bowls in one calendar decade – or in any ten year period of time – advancing to the Super Bowl following the 1970, 1971 1975, 1977 and 1978 seasons.

Rayfield Wright was inducted into the Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor on October 10, 2004, joining Bob Lilly, Don Meredith, Don Perkins, Chuck Howley, Mel Renfro, Roger Staubach, Lee Roy Jordan, Randy White, Tony Dorsett, Tom Landry, Bob Hayes, Tex Schramm and Cliff Harris. Troy Aikman, Michael Irvin and Emmitt Smith were inducted in 2005.

He was born August 23, 1945, in Griffin, Ga.

WRIGHT'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 6-time Pro Bowl selection
- ★ 4-time All Pro
- ★ Super Bowl VI and XII titles
- ★ 5 NFC Championships
- ★ 10 Division Titles
- ★ 1970's member of NFL's All-Decade Team

Rayfield Wright became the first Cowboys offensive lineman selected to both the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Ring of Honor at Texas Stadium.

He was named All-Pro seven times, six times at guard and once at tackle. With his selection to the Pro Bowl at tackle in 1998, he became just the third player in league history to be selected to the all-star game at more than one offensive line position. He also holds the NFL record with a 99-yard touchdown run. Inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1994, Dorsett was also elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994. Charles Haley is the only player in NFL history to win five Super Bowls (two with San Francisco and three with Dallas). He arrived in Dallas after six seasons as a pass rushing threat for the 49ers. Upon his arrival, he was moved to defensive end and had back-to-back double-digit sack seasons (1994-95). He was a member of 10 division championship teams in his 12 NFL seasons and played for a team with a winning record through each of his first 11 years. In 63 games played for Dallas, Haley racked up 34.0 sacks and through his 169-game career, he amassed 100.5 sacks. Inducted during halftime of the Cowboys-Seahawks game on Nov. 6, 2011.

★ CLIFF HARRIS ★

He was named to six Pro Bowls and four All-NFL teams, and he was a member of two Super Bowl winning teams. Harris was at his best in the postseason, finishing his career with six interceptions in 21 playoff games. Harris was a member of the 1970s NFL all-decade team. Harris was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys-N.Y. Giants game on Oct. 10, 2004.

Wide Receiver, 1965-74

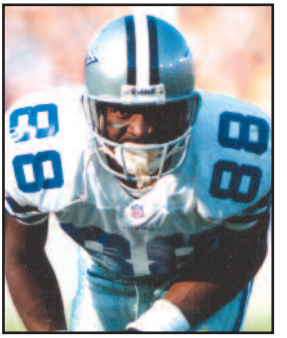

Bob Hayes led the Cowboys in receptions three times and accumulated 365 receptions for 7,295 receiving yards during his 10-year career. His 71 career touchdown receptions remains the Cowboys club record. Hayes also registered remarkable career numbers for average yards-per-catch (20.0) and average yards-per-punt return (11.1). He was a three-time Pro Bowl selection and four-time All-Pro. One of the greatest sprinters in the history of track and field, Hayes joined the Cowboys with the title of "World's Fastest Human" after winning the Olympic gold medal in the 100 meters in Tokyo in 1964. Hayes was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against San Diego on Sept 23, 2001. Hayes was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2009.

★ CHUCK HOWLEY ★
Linebacker, 1961-73

When Chuck Howley retired in 1973, Tom Landry said "I don't know that I've seen anybody better at linebacker than Howley." A six-time All-Pro, Howley was the most valuable player in Super Bowl V. The Cowboys traded for Howley, who was drafted by Chicago in 1958. He was an All-America center at West Virginia. A six-time Pro Bowl selection, Howley was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against Detroit, Oct. 30, 1977.

★ MICHAEL IRVIN ★
Wide Receiver, 1988-99

Michael "The Playmaker" Irvin helped lead the Dallas Cowboys to six division titles and three Super Bowl rings before a spinal injury cut his playing career short. Irvin was the team's top receiver for eight consecutive seasons and retired as the Cowboys all-time leader in receptions (750), receiving yards (11,904), playoff receptions (87) and playoff receiving yards (1,315). As a five-time Pro Bowl selection, between 1991-98, Irvin has two more appearances than any other receiver in club history. Irvin was inducted into the Ring of Honor with Emmitt Smith and Troy Aikman on Monday Sept. 19, 2005 at halftime of the Cowboys-Redskins game. Irvin was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2007.

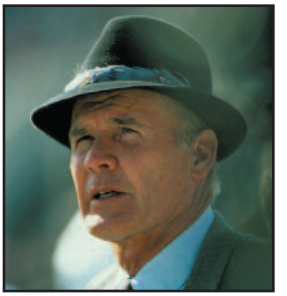

★ LEE ROY JORDAN ★
Linebacker, 1963-76

The inspirational leader of the Cowboys first championship teams was Lee Roy Jordan. The Cowboys first-round draft choice in 1963 following an All-America career at Alabama, Jordan anchored the "Doomsday Defense" from his middle linebacker position for 14 years. He was named to the Pro Bowl five times and All-Pro twice. Jordan was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against Arizona on Oct. 29, 1989.

★ TOM LANDRY ★
Head Coach, 1960-88

The first head coach of the Cowboys, Tom Landry led Dallas to two Super Bowl wins and five NFC titles in his 29 years at the Cowboys helm. He compiled a career record of 270-178-6, the third most wins in NFL history, and was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990. Landry was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against N.Y. Giants on Nov. 7, 1993.

★ BOB LILLY ★
Defensive Tackle, 1961-74

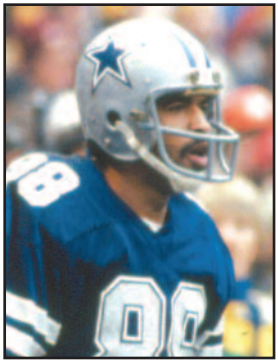

Nicknamed "Mr. Cowboy," Bob Lilly was the franchise's first draft choice in 1961, the first name in the Ring of Honor in 1975 and its first inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1980. A seven-time All-Pro, Lilly was named to a club-record 11 Pro Bowls. He was a two-time All-SWC pick and an All-America at Texas Christian University before being drafted by Dallas. Lilly was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against Philadelphia on Nov. 23, 1975.

★ DON MEREDITH ★
Quarterback, 1960-68

Don Meredith led the Cowboys to their first winning season and their first NFL Championship Game in 1966. Signed by Clint Murchison, Jr. before Dallas was granted its NFL franchise, "Dandy Don" played in two Pro Bowls and was named NFL Player of the Year in 1966. A two-time All-America at SMU, Meredith was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against N.Y. Giants on Nov. 7, 1976.

★ DREW PEARSON ★
Wide Receiver, 1973-1983

In 11 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys, Drew Pearson rose from unknown to legend. A former undrafted free agent, Pearson was named to the All-Decade Team of the 1970s as he earned a niche as one of the top clutch receivers in football history. He led the team in receptions and receiving yards four consecutive seasons (1974-77) and recorded two 1,000-yard campaigns. He has a resume filled with memorable game-winning catches. In 1980 he became the all-time leading receiver in receptions, and in 1983, he took the top spot for receiving yards. All three players earned Super Bowl rings in their years with the Cowboys, Allen - three; Haley - three and Pearson - one.

SETTING RECORDS – DeMarco Murray saw extended time against St. Louis (10/23) with an injury to Felix Jones. Murray seized the opportunity and established a single-game club record with 253 rushing yards, breaking Emmitt Smith's mark of 237 set in 1993. He scored his first career touchdown on a 91-yard run which was the longest first career rushing touchdown in NFL history and the second-longest run in team history. Over the course of the next four games, he rushed for 601 yards, the most in club history over that span.

COACHING STAFF ADDITIONS – The Dallas Cowboys welcomed three new coaches to their staff in the 2012 offseason starting with Bill Callahan, who was named the club's offensive coordinator/offensive line coach on Jan. 12. That same day, the club hired Jerome Henderson to lead the secondary and added Joe Baker as an assistant secondary coach on Feb. 13.

FREE AGENCY FRENZY – The Cowboys were active in free agency, signing seven veteran players, the most since 1990 when 16 were signed. The club targeted cover corner, Brandon Carr and locked him up with a five-year $50.1 million contract on March 14. The team also signed guard Mackenzy Bernadeau, quarterback Kyle Orton, and fullback Lawrence Vickers on the same day. Linebacker Dan Connor was added on March 15, guard Nate Livings on March 16 and safety Brodney Pool on March 19.

TRADE TO LAND IN TOP 10 – With the trade to move up to the sixth overall pick to select cornerback Morris Claiborne, the Cowboys traded into the top 10 in the NFL Draft for the first time since trading up to draft Russell Maryland with the top overall selection in 1991.

SIDELINES

Home to the Dallas Cowboys

The Dallas Cowboys called both the Cotton Bowl and Texas Stadium home for 49 years. In 2009 the Cowboys moved into their newest home, Cowboys Stadium, a state-of-the-art facility in Arlington, Texas.

Cotton Bowl

The original Fair Park football stadium was built in 1921 and seated 15,000. That wooden structure was razed in 1930 and construction began on what is now the Cotton Bowl. The original seating capacity of the stadium was 46,200 and built at a cost of $328,000. In January, 1936, Fair Park Stadium was officially renamed The Cotton Bowl in recognition of the fact that more cotton was raised within 200 miles of Dallas than any other town in America. In that era, Dallas was regarded as the largest interior spot cotton market in the world. Later additions of upper decks on each side increased capacity to 75,504 by the time the Cowboys arrived in 1960. From 1960 into the 1971 season, the Cowboys called the Cotton Bowl home, posting a 45-33-4 record, including a 2-2 mark in postseason. Until 2009, the largest home crowd in club history was the 80,259 that packed into the Cotton Bowl on Nov. 24, 1966 to watch the Cowboys defeat the Cleveland Browns 26-14, in the inaugural Thanksgiving Day game in Dallas.

Texas Stadium

Texas Stadium, a football facility built at a cost of $35 million in 1971, was the home of the Dallas Cowboys for 38 seasons and hosted its final game on Dec. 20, 2008 - a 33-24 win by the Baltimore Ravens. The Cowboys opened their facility on Oct. 24, 1971 with a 44-21 victory over New England. From that time, the Cowboys posted a 213-100 record (.681) overall, including a 16-6 (.727) mark in postseason, at home. Located in the Dallas suburb of Irving, Texas Stadium had a seating capacity of 65,581 and featured 381 luxury suites, three sports bars, 52 concession stands, 40 specialty stands, 86 restrooms, 115 drinking fountains and 130 acres of parking. Texas Stadium's most unique feature was the partial roof which covered fans from inclement weather, but left the game outdoors. The Cowboys incorporated the design feature in their new home which also includes a retractable roof.

Cowboys Stadium

The 2009 season rang in a new era for the Dallas Cowboys as the club moved to its new home in Arlington, Texas to kickoff the 2009 season. Officially opened on May 27, 2009 in a ribbon cutting ceremony, Cowboys Stadium hosted the first ever Cowboys game on Aug. 21 - a preseason contest against the Tennessee Titans. The first regular season Cowboys game was on Sunday night September 20 against the N.Y. Giants, and the game set an NFL attendance record at 105,121.

Not only is the stadium home to the Dallas Cowboys, but Cowboys Stadium played host to Super Bowl XLV on February 6, 2011, the first Super Bowl in the region. In addition, this venue is home to the annual AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic, as well as the 2009 and 2010 Big XII championship games, annual college football games, including the University of Arkansas and Texas A&M University in the Southwest Classic and the "Cowboys Classic" which helps kick off the college football season wth two major universities each year.

On Nov. 2, 2004 the voters of Arlington approved a public-private partnership with the Dallas Cowboys to build a state-of-the-art, retractable roof stadium in Arlington, Texas. Located in the heart of Arlington's entertainment district, construction on the new stadium began in April, 2006 and was completed early in the summer of 2009.

The largest NFL stadium ever built is designed to enhance the international Cowboys brand with its modern progressive architecture while incorporating elements of the Texas Stadium Cowboys heritage such as the shape of the roof's opening, the Ring of Honor and Tom Landry statue.

The 3.0 million square-foot stadium has a capacity of up to 100,000. The stadium features signature monumental arches, an expansive retractable roof, massive glass retractable end zone doors, a distinguishing canted glass wall, and the world's largest center-hung video board.

"The challenge for us with this new stadium was to innovate, but at the same time never forget to acknowledge tradition," said Jerry Jones, owner and president, Dallas Cowboys. "This new stadium embodies the spirit of the Dallas Cowboys and that starts with the familiar 'hole in the roof.' What we have designed is a building we believe is both architecturally significant and also reflects the emotion and competition that goes on inside."

The stadium is designed by HKS Architects, ranked one of the top-five sport/stadium designers in the world.

Key Design Highlights

★ Monumental Arches – The stadium features two monumental arches, soaring 292 feet above the playing field, which support a retractable roof. As the longest single span roof structure in the world, each boxed arch is 17 feet wide by 35 feet deep. Weighing 3,255 tons each, these impressive structures span a quarter mile (1,290 feet) in length. As one of the first components to be constructed, the arches form a striking silhouette on the Arlington landscape as sunlight reflects against the metallic surface during the day.

★ Retractable Roof – Designed to be open or closed, depending on weather conditions, the expansive retractable roof is the largest of its kind in the world and measures approximately 661,000 square feet. When closed, the roof encompasses 104 million cubic feet of volume, making it the largest enclosed NFL stadium. The retractable roof is designed specifically to emulate the opening at Texas Stadium, which was recognized around the world, and allows views inward and outward. Each panel can open or close in 12 minutes. The entire playing field can be seen from directly above.

★ Retractable Doors – The stadium features the largest retractable end zone doors in the world. Each has a five-leaf, clear, retractable opening measuring 120 feet high by 180 feet wide. The five 38-foot panels take only 12 minutes to open or close. By using clear glass for the door panels, spectators experience panoramic vistas from within the seating bowl and when circulating through the stadium concourses. Moreover, the operability provides air circulation during game-day and non-game-day events.

★ Center-Hung Videoboard – Within the seating bowl, Cowboys fans are provided with a one-of-a-kind feature unlike any other in the world, a center-hung video board. Hanging 90 feet above the field from the roof structure, the innovative video center spans between the 20-yard lines and features four individual boards – two facing the sidelines and two facing the end zones. The sideline boards measure 160 feet wide by 72 feet tall while those facing the end zones measure 53 feet by 30 feet. All four boards are angled toward the stands for optimal viewing. The stunning combination of these boards immerses spectators with video imagery, creating a premium on upper level seats and presenting the game in a way never before experienced.

★ Canted Glass Wall – One of the most compelling architectural features of the stadium design is the canted glass exterior wall. The 86-foot high glass, curtain-wall surface slopes outwardly at a 14 degree angle to create a luminescent glow day or night. A fritted glass system transitions up the elevation to create a dynamic, ever-changing aesthetic depending on the time of day. At night, a series of internal lights gently wash the glass wall to create a glow across the facade.

★ Suites – The design includes over 300 suites that have been decentralized and are in eight locations distributed across five separate levels of the stadium. The most unique are the field-level sideline suites for up-close and personal viewing of the games.

Design Statistics

Total Square Footage: 3.0 million square feet. The entire Statue of Liberty and its base could fit into the stadium with the roof closed. The stadium is also the world's largest column-free room. The American Airlines Center in Dallas could fit entirely into the stadium at field level.

Interior Cubic Volume: 104 million cubic feet. (By comparison, Reliant Stadium in Houston measures 90 million cubic feet.) Cowboys Stadium is the largest enclosed stadium (in cubic feet) in the NFL.

Seating Capacity: With ticketed areas in the end zone plazas and platforms, capacity can reach over 100,000.

Suites: There are over 300 suites in eight different locations on five separate levels of the stadium. Field-level suites are available on the sidelines as well as in the end zones for up-close and personal viewing of the games. The Hall of Fame level suites are 20 rows from the field, making them the closest elevated suites in the NFL.

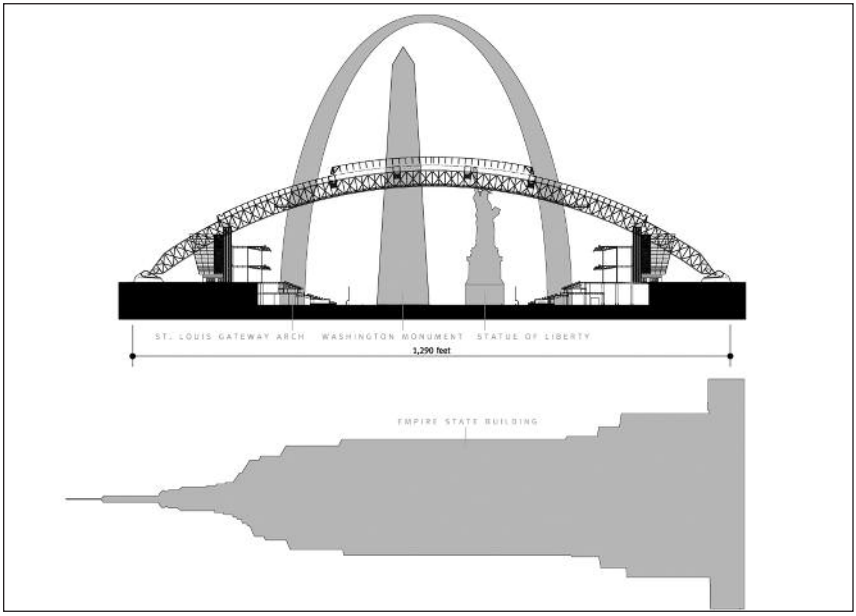

Domed Roof: At 661,000 square feet, the stadium is the largest domed structure in the world.

Retractable Roof: The open roof design that was a unique feature of Texas Stadium was carried over into the design of the new stadium, with the improvement of a new retractable feature, revealing an opening that measures 256 feet wide and 410 feet long. Two bi-parting mechanized roof panels are driven by a rack-and-pinion drive system consisting of 64 7.5 HP electric motors, making it the first of its kind in the world. The open/close time is 12 minutes.

Arches: The roof is supported by two 35-feet deep and 17-feet wide boxed arch trusses. Each truss spans nearly a quarter mile (1,290 feet) making the roof the longest clear-span structure in the world. The arches are more than twice the length of the Gateway Arch in St. Louis.

Glass Retractable Door: Each end zone features a five-leaf clear glass retractable door measuring 120 feet high and 180 feet wide, making it the tallest moveable glass wall in the world.

Parking: It is estimated that between parking owned or under control of the Dallas Cowboys as well as the entrepreneurial lots in and around the stadium area, that there are as many as 30,000 parking spaces available to fans on game day.

As the largest NFL venue ever built, the stadium boasts the most spectacular column-free room in the world, stretching a quarter-mile in length. Encasing 3.0 million square feet, the majestic scale of the stadium measures twice the distance of the St. Louis Gateway arch. In addition, the Statue of Liberty can stand completely inside the room structure. The length of the arches spans the same distance as the height of the Empire State Building. The magnitude of the stadium's size and scale places it on the world's stage of iconic structures.

What Fans Need to Know

Access

One of the great assets Arlington has is accessibility to the entire metroplex. There are 14 approaches from major highways into Cowboys Stadium in Arlington. From a regional standpoint, the stadium is one of the most accessible venues ever planned.

Parking

It is estimated that between parking under control of the Cowboys, as well as entrepreneurial lots around the stadium, there are as many as 30,000 parking spaces available to fans on game day.

Plaza Area and Open End Zones

The stadium design incorporates two open end zones with glass retractable doors measuring 120 feet high and 180 feet wide, making them the tallest glass retractable doors in the world. The plazas outside these doors, one in each end zone – along with the three party decks in each end zone – create over 420,000 square feet of entertainment space (approximately 10 acres). Media boards and large-screen monitors add entertainment to the area, and create a festival atmosphere, making these areas a great space for people to gather before, during and after events to socialize. The field is 50 feet below ground level, so fans entering on the plaza level will have a panoramic view over the field. The end zone area has the flexibility to convert from standing-room only to seating, based on specific event needs.

Video Boards

There are approximatley 3,000 televisions in the building. The most unique being the four board cluster that is suspended 90 feet directly over the center of the playing surface. The board runs from the 20-yard line to the 20-yard line – measuring 160 feet in length and 72 feet in height – making it the largest video board installation in the world, setting a Guiness Book World Record. The center video board allows fans on all levels to view the game in crisp, clear images during the game. This creates a premium on the value of the upper-level seats and makes the game more exciting for all fans.

Amenities and Restrooms

The stadium features 824 concession points of sale as well as more than 1,700 toilets. Some of the restrooms are reversible based on the needs of the event.

Ring of Honor

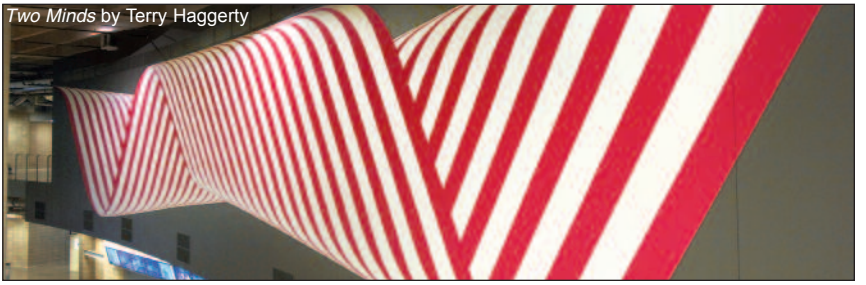

The Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor is a featured part of the new stadium. The Ring's members are forever honored on the wall surrounding the field, emblazoned with the same letters and numbers that originally hung proudly at Texas Stadium.

Dallas Cowboys Pro Shop and Stadium Tours

Stadium Tours allow fans to peek inside the home of the Dallas Cowboys year round. Introduced at Texas Stadium in 1972 to add glamour, excitement and entertainment value to the NFL game-day experience, the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders quickly became an American icon, creating an international phenomenon that was quickly replicated throughout the NFL. Their image and style continues to have a tremendous impact on sports entertainment, but while they are often imitated, no other organization has been able to achieve their prominence or popularity. The Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders are recognized around the world as an elite performance group, and their star spangled uniforms are one of the most well-known symbols of pop culture.

During the 70's, their national popularity generated such a sensation that two made-for-tv movies were developed about the squad and achieved top ratings. Today the Cheerleaders regularly make guest appearances on national television shows such as the "Oprah Winfrey Show," "American Idol," "The View," "The Today Show," "Saturday Night Live" and "David Letterman," and have competed for the benefit of charity on "1 versus 100," "Are You Smarter Than A Fifth Grader," and "Identity." For the past 17 years, they have also produced their own "The Making of the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders Swimsuit Calendar" television special for national network distribution. They are currently in the seventh season of the highly rated CMT "The Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders – Making the Squad" series that captures the entire DCC audition process and training camp. They have also teamed up with CMT on a new pilot called "Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders - Brides".

Kelli McGonagill Finglass
Director

The Cheerleaders are of course a regular feature on the sidelines of Cowboys Stadium, but they also are an ongoing demand at festivals, sporting events and corporate conventions around the country and frequently appear on national magazines covers, television commercials and Hollywood films. They are featured in four published calendars, three swimsuit issues and a sideline calendar, as well as a swimsuit magazine special in The Dallas Cowboys Star Magazine. Their appearances are not just limited to stages, but also include philanthropic and civic events throughout the year with annual visits to hospitals, nursing homes and schools and participation in telethons and fundraising events across the United States.

Choreographer

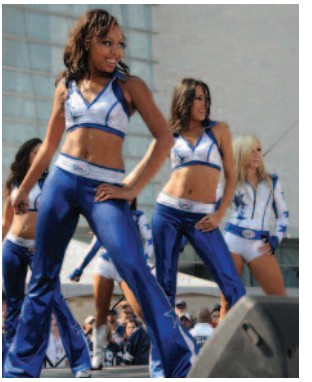

The DCC Show Group has proudly entertained U.S. military personnel around the world since 1979 – making more international tours with the USO than any other entertainment group. They bring their own special brand of goodwill and gratitude to the men and women in the military, traveling to locations as diverse as Iraq, Bosnia, Afghanistan, Cuba, Korea and the Persian Gulf. Their annual trips have become a special tradition for both the troops and the Cheerleaders. So special, in fact, that the USO presented the squad with both the first-ever "Spirit of Hope Award" and with the "USO's 50th Anniversary Award" in recognition of their distinguished service to American troops. They were also honored with induction into the Veteran of Foreign Wars Hall of Fame in 2002.

The Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders are truly extraordinary women chosen to exemplify the high standards of the Dallas Cowboys Football Club and to proudly represent their hometowns, their country and young women everywhere.

The Dallas Cowboys introduced the Rhythm and Blue in 2009, a high-energy hip-hop dance team and drum corps. Rhythm and Blue brings an innovative, unique and exciting element to the Cowboys legendary game-day entertainment line-up. Audiences have been entertained by the talented group of men and women upon entering the plazas of Cowboys Stadium before each game. After every Cowboys score during the game, the Rhythm and Blue dancers dazzle fans with thunderous celebration dance performances from their elevated placement on platforms in the west end zone. The Rhythm and Blue Dancers, presented by Miller Lite, were conceptualized under Dallas Cowboys Executive Vice President of Brand Management Charlotte Anderson and Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders Director Kelli Finglass, and is the first of its kind in the National Football League.

The Dallas Cowboys Rhythm and Blue is a two-part entertainment entity consisting of a percussion troop drum line to provide the rhythm and the dance team to provide the spirit of Dallas Cowboys true blue. The performances are electrifying with their unique blend of cutting edge music and drum cadences. The dance teams' dynamic routines feature breakdancing and hip-hop based movement requiring both strong musicality and level of dance ability and are already proving to be a fan favorite. Since the short time of their inception, the dance team has been requested to appear at both charity and corporate appearances in the DFW metroplex, Texas, New Mexico, Las Vegas, Nevada and Panama City, Panama.

Jenny Durbin
Director/Choreographer

Jenny Durbin lends her expertise and award winning choreography as director and choreographer for the team. Durbin has been choreographing for 12 years for teams such as the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders, Dallas Mavericks Dancers, Dallas Desperados Dancers, The "Groovement Crew" and numerous college, high school and studio competition teams. She has also lent her skills to several national television commercials, television shows, touring stage shows and promotions such as 'America's Got Talent', Mary Kay, Hasbro, MTV's 'TRL,' Harrah's Casinos and Monday Night Football. Durbin uses her extensive hip-hop dance experience and unique coaching style to influence the style of the innovative Rhythm and Blue.

The official one-piece uniform of the Rhythm and Blue Dancers was created by Robert Best, acclaimed designer for Barbie. The uniform is a sophisticated long-sleeved unit body garment that glistens in silver and blue. Jenny Durbin and Terra Watson created the official two-piece uniform. The uniforms evoke a stylish and hip Cowboy image while keeping the tradition and excellence of America's Team.

The Dallas Cowboys are long-heralded for their innovation, prestige and merit in game-day entertainment and were challenged with providing more entertainment to cover every area of Cowboys Stadium...the result is your much anticipated Dallas Cowboys Rhythm and Blue!

COMMUNITY
THE SALVATION ARMY

Community Outreach and the Dallas Cowboys

GENE AND JERRY JONES
FAMILY CHARITIES

For the past 23 years, Jerry Jones and his family have owned and operated the Dallas Cowboys with a management style that places just as much emphasis on community leadership as it does on the goal of winning the Super Bowl. The dominant theme which underscores the Cowboys role in the community is to maximize the visibility, energy and celebrity of the world's most recognizable sports franchise and use those dynamic forces as a powerful means to help others.

The results on the field have brought championships to Dallas. The results away from the field have touched the lives of thousands.

THE MISSION

"In the area of community service, our organization's mission is built upon an overall philosophy of helping those who don't have the strength, the resources or the means to help themselves with a primary focus on our partnership with The Salvation Army," says Jones.

THE VISION

As a sports entity that has enjoyed unprecedented success and recognition for more than five decades, the Jones Family feels a very strong obligation to transfer that championship tradition and the magic that it creates toward the bigger purpose of making a difference.

Jones enlists the talents, skills and resources of his entire family, all of the Cowboys players, cheerleaders and every member of the organization to provide a cutting edge approach to community outreach.

"Any personal contact with an individual member of our organization can provide help for hundreds of people in need," adds Jones. "The star on the helmet can move mountains."

THE ARMY AND THE STAR

The Jones family's dynamic association with The Salvation Army is a visible example of the creative and innovative manner in which the Cowboys can make a difference in the world.

For the past 15 seasons, the Jones family has dedicated the Cowboys annual Thanksgiving Day halftime show as a national showcase to kickoff The Salvation Army's annual Kettle Drive. The team's association with network television has spawned a donation of $20 million worth of airtime to present nationally televised entertainment extravaganzas that have created a new holiday tradition.

Under the direction of Charlotte Anderson, the Cowboys have produced the annual halftime event and welcomed nationally renowned entertainers Reba McEntire, Randy Travis, Clint Black, Billy Gilman & Jessica Simpson, Creed, LeAnn Rimes, Toby Keith, Destiny's Child, Sheryl Crow, Carrie Underwood, Kelly Clarkson, Jonas Brothers, Daughtry, Keith Urban and Enrique Iglesias to highlight each of the Kettle Kickoff celebrations since 1997. The efforts have helped raise $1.6 billion dollars for the Army, while reaching over 600 million people nation-wide.

In May of 2010, Charlotte Anderson was named to the position of Chairman of the Salvation Army's National Advisory Board - where she became the first woman in the history of the organization to hold that title. The appointment will see Anderson leading the efforts of the board for the nation's largest faith-based social service charity until 2014.

In April of 2007, Gene and Jerry Jones were the Honorary Chairs and their daughter, Charlotte Anderson chaired the National Advisory Organizations Conference (NAOC) for The Salvation Army. The International Conference hosted in Dallas, Texas provided delegates with valuable tools and ideas to implement in their hometowns as they heard from a host of remarkable speakers including Jerry Jones, Jim Collins - author of Good to Great - and were honored with a special appearance by The First Lady, Laura Bush. They were also treated to a celebration at Texas Stadium with Dallas Cowboys players, cheerleaders and live entertainment.

On the local Salvation Army front, the Gene and Jerry Jones Family Center for Children opened in November of 1998 in conjunction with The Army. The center offers low-income families accessibility to affordable childcare programs that meet the needs of quality care and intellectual development. For 10 years, Gene and Jerry Jones served as host and underwrote the costs for the Super Lunch, a fundraising event for The Salvation Army Irving Corps Community Center and its special projects including the Family Center for Children. That event helped raise over $1.2 million.

Gene and Jerry are members of The Salvation Army's Dallas County Board and the National Advisory Board, respectively. The family was presented The Army's Partner of the Year Award in 1997, and in 1999 received the Evangeline Booth Award, one of The Army's highest national community service awards. Annually, the Cowboys organization supports The Army's Corporate Angel Tree Program, helping those in need during the holiday season. Individuals in the organization, including front office staff, coaches and players adopt "angels" to provide clothing and toys to underprivileged families.

The week before Thanksgiving, Gene Jones leads a group of Dallas Cowboys players, mascot Rowdy and player's and coaches' wives to serve an "early" Thanksgiving meal to 200 families receiving assistance from The Salvation Army Carr P. Collins Social Service Center. In 2009 comedian Billy Crystal – in town to perform his TONY Award winning Broadway show 700 SUNDAYS – joined the team at the annual event.

In April 2012, Anderson joined The Salvation Army DFW Command in hosting The Salvation Army National Advisory Board (NAB) in Dallas for their yearly meeting. The event included a Leadership Breakfast for more than 300 Dallas-Fort Worth corporate leaders – the largest such event in NAB history. Speakers for the Breakfast included Anderson, First Lady Laura Bush and Dallas Cowboys Owner and General Manager Jerry Jones. Jones, the morning's keynote speaker, spoke to the attendees about the importance of The Salvation Army to the Dallas Cowboys and the Jones Family. Later that evening, Salvation Army board members from across the country congregated at Cowboys Stadium for an evening program that included President and Mrs. George W. Bush, Pat and Emmitt Smith and Gene and Jerry Jones. The Salvation Army representatives heard from each on topics such as the North Texas Youth Education Town – a lasting legacy of Super Bowl XLV which will be operated by The Salvation Army, Smith's childhood growing up utilizing Salvation Army services and the ever present Salvation Army shields which are highlighted throughout Cowboys Stadium – providing national television exposure to raise awareness for the charity during each Dallas Cowboys home game.

Charlotte Anderson speaks at The Salvation Army's 2012 National Advisory Board meeting in Dallas. Anderson is The Salvation Army's first woman NAB Chairperson and will serve in that capacity through 2014.

MAGIC BY ASSOCIATION

Maximizing the "magic" of the Dallas Cowboys celebrity, and using that influence to assist others through community service, is the backbone of the organization's mission away from the field of competition.

Make-A-Wish Foundation – Miles Austin welcomes "Wish" guests to Cowboys Stadium.

Each year, Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities – the active philanthropic arm of the organization – makes significant contributions to organizations on both the local and national levels. The team fulfills thousands of requests for memorabilia and unique auction packages that can produce proceeds ranging from $100 to tens of thousands of dollars per donation. Non-profit player appearances for charity and "Make-A-Wish" visits are a staple item for every Cowboys player.

In April of 1999, Gene and Jerry Jones made a $1 million gift to the Library of Congress for the purpose of promoting education on the national and international levels. In their continuing desire to enhance education and support young people in the community, the Jones family served as the underwriting sponsor for the Dallas Cowboys/Gene and Jerry Jones Family – Dallas Morning News All-State Scholar-Athlete Team in 2001. The program honored and provided scholarships for 12 college-bound student-athletes from across the State of Texas who distinguished themselves through academic and athletic excellence.

A wide variety of charitable efforts highlight the Jones family's continued activity in the local community. Some of those programs and events include support of The Rise School of Dallas, a unique school for children with down syndrome; a record setting celebrity roast of Jerry Jones for St. Philips School in Dallas; the Ticket Art Program, which featured the artwork of regional children's hospital patients on the 1997 Dallas Cowboys season tickets and raised money for the respective hospitals; the Cystic Fibrosis Sports Challenge was hosted at Texas Stadium; sponsorship and involvement in the Dallas Mayor's Back to School Fair that provides school supplies to 15,000 students in need; and support of the 2001-2007 Dallas Mayor's Summer Reading Programs. In 2004 the team partnered with the Irving and Dallas Fire Departments to fundraise for MDA with a Fill the Boot campaign at Texas Stadium; the Cowboys 1998-1999 "Be Cool, Go To School" program, rewarded Dallas elementary schools who boasted the best attendance with a visit from a Cowboys player and team mascot Rowdy; and from 2005-2006 showed support of Heart of a Champion – an in-school character education program.

USO / Military visit to Cowboys Stadium – Tony Romo

For the last eight years, the team has participated in the Taste of the NFL: The Ultimate Dallas Cowboys Tailgate Party benefiting the North Texas Food Bank hosted by celebrity chef Kent Rathbun of Abacus and chaired by Cowboys Pro Bowl Linebacker DeMarcus Ware (2006-2011), Defensive End Jason Hatcher (2012) and former Dallas Cowboys greats Preston Pearson (2009-2012) and Chad Hennings (2012). Since its inception, the event has raised more than three-quarters of a million dollars and provided nearly four million meals to hungry children in North Texas.

Jerry Jones' passion for helping those who have been hit with adversity has inspired him to enlist the assistance of his players on several goodwill missions that have touched the hearts of those in need. The organization's presence in these areas often extends far beyond the boundaries of the Dallas-Fort Worth area. In the spring of 1997, Jones joined Cowboys Troy Aikman, Herschel Walker and Charles Haley on a relief trip to the tornado-ravaged state of Arkansas. Three years earlier, the entire World Champion Cowboys team went to the Oklahoma City bombing site within two weeks of the tragedy. Immediately following Hurricane Katrina, which devastated the Louisiana and Mississippi coast, the team joined forces with Papa John's Pizza and served pizza and other food items to thousands of evacuees brought to Reunion Arena in Dallas for shelter. In conjunction with the NFL Disaster Relief Fund, Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities presented the United Way of Metropolitan Dallas $100,000 to support continued Hurricane Katrina and Rita relief efforts in the Dallas area. The team also joins forces with The Salvation Army to encourage cash donations through mobile texting programs and other digital promotions aimed at raising funds for recent earthquake and tornado disasters in Japan and the U.S. southern states.

For years, Gene and Jerry Jones have been avid supporters of the Susan G. Komen for the Cure and the Race for the Cure for Breast Cancer. In 2010 the team expanded their partnership through a donation of $1 million in promotional assets to the breast cancer charity including PSAs featuring Komen for the Cure Founder and CEO, Ambassador Nancy Brinker, and the creation of a co-branded "iPromise" merchandise line now sold in Old Navy retailers nationwide, whose proceeds benefited cancer research. Additionally, the Cowboys annually support and participate in the Komen Dallas Race for the Cure and honor breast cancer survivors during the month of October. In 1999 the Dallas Cowboys honored 450 breast cancer survivors in a special halftime tribute at Texas Stadium and since 2009 have created a special halftime performance with the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders which includes breast cancer survivors from Komen for the Cure, the American Cancer Society and volunteers from Bank of America creating a human "pink ribbon" on field. As part of the 2010 celebration, Ambassador Brinker joined Charlyn Aikman – breast cancer survivor and mother of Cowboys Hall of Fame quarterback Troy Aikman – as Honorary Captains of the team's awareness game.

The Cowboys are also very active in raising a large portion of annual funds for Happy Hill Farm Academy and Home. The Dallas Cowboys Family Cookbook and the team's annual Kickoff Luncheon serve as major revenue producers for the local academy that houses and educates abused and neglected children. The academy is also home to the Dallas Cowboys Ed Block Courage House. Cowboys partner UnitedHealthcare joins the luncheon in 2012 to present the Ed Block Courage Award.

Happy Hill Farm/Academy Christmas Choir at Valley Ranch – Jason Garrett and DeMarcus Ware

Under the enthusiastic guidance of Gene Jones, who serves as a member of the board of trustees for Children's Medical Center of Dallas, the entire Cowboys team has conducted annual Christmas visits to local children's hospitals in each of the past 23 years. The holiday visitation program, which involves not only every player, but also the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders, now extends to four different hospitals throughout Dallas and Fort Worth.

For eight years, the Cowboys underwrote and produced the "Dallas Cowboys Let Us Play! Sports Camp for Girls," a three-day camp for inner-city girls ages 12 to 15 which encouraged involvement in athletics with a focus on building character and self-esteem. From 1998-2002 and again in 2004-2008 Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities funded a free coaching clinic for more than 650 regional youth-league and middle school coaches which featured a day at Texas Stadium with the entire Cowboys coaching staff and lunch with Cowboys Owner Jerry Jones.

Holiday Hospital Visit – Jay Ratliff, Kenyon Coleman, Tony Romo, Jason Witten

In May 2012, current and former Cowboys players hit the baseball diamond at The Ballpark in Arlington – home of the Texas Rangers – to face off in the Reliant Home Run Derby benefiting Big Brothers Big Sisters. Head Coach Jason Garrett was joined by players John Phillips, Miles Austin, Kevin Ogletree, Dez Bryant, Doug Free, Jason Witten, Jason Hatcher, Sean Lee, DeMarco Murray and Hall of Fame quarterback Troy Aikman in hitting enough balls out of the in-field to raise $40,000 for the charity. Garrett walked away with the win as 150 "Bigs" and "Littles" – accompanied by members of the Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club presented by UnitedHealthcare – cheered from the stands.

The Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club, launched in 2001, is a program designed to introduce rookie team members to the importance of community service. In 2011, UnitedHealthcare joined the Dallas Cowboys in presenting this annual outreach initiative for the team's newest players. Over the last 12 years, rookie players have participated in monthly charity visits during the season to various non-profit organizations serving children and adults. Visits have included time with The Salvation Army, Children's Medical Center Dallas, Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Dallas, the United Way of Metropolitan Dallas, Tarrant County United Way, American Heart Association, ChildCareGroup, The Brady Center/Catholic Charities, Meals on Wheels, the Irving Public Library, Arlington All Stars Childcare Center and Kid's Café at The Voice of Hope Ministries. In 2012 the program officially launched the first-ever off-season Rookie Club program with drafted and rookie free agent players completing service projects weekly during the mini-camp and off-season training schedule.

The Dallas Cowboys Women's Association, an organization of players', coaches' and executives' wives and significant others, also works on behalf of the team to make a difference in the North Texas community. Since 2008, the group has raised more than $450,000 for local non-profits including the SPCA of Texas, Family Gateway, the Muscular Dystrophy Association and more. In 2012 the group – led by Candice Romo and Kristen Smith (Sensabaugh) – held a one-day charity Yard Sale that included gently used personal items donated by players, coaches and front office staff to benefit Nexus Recovery Center. The effort raised $22,000 to assist women and single mothers struggling with addiction. Additonally, the Women's Association annually joins Mrs. Gene Jones and Cowboys players in serving an early Thanksgiving Day meal at The Salvation Army, hosts a Christmas of Giving benefiting women and children who have escaped domestic violence issues by seeking assistance from The Family Place and visits children at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital.

Reliant Home Run Derby at Rangers Ball Park for Big Brothers Big Sisters – Jason Hatcher and Jason Garrett

The inaugural season at Cowboys Stadium was simultaneously the inaugural season of the newly formed Cowboys Legends – an alumni group that encompasses the great tradition and incredible history that is the Dallas Cowboys. This special group of alumni players was brought together to represent the Dallas Cowboys on game day at Cowboys Stadium and year round in the community. Over the course of the year, the Legends players have teamed up to support organizations like: the Muscular Dystrophy Association; American Diabetes Association; North Texas Food Bank; Children's Cancer Fund; The Salvation Army and many more.

POWERFUL PARTNERSHIP WITH THE NFL

Through national public service announcements, local promotional events and their association with the NFL, the Cowboys are responsible for $1 million in annual support of the United Way. In 2003 and again in 2006, former Cowboys safety Roy Williams was selected to serve as the Cowboys NFL United Way spokesman in the league's nationally televised PSA campaign. Pro Bowl tight end Jason Witten and the youth football camp he annually hosts for 1,000 children in his hometown of Elizabethton, Tenn., was the focus of a NFL United Way PSA in 2007.

Hispanic Leadership Award Presentation – Cowboys Exec. V.P. Charlotte Anderson, Former Cowboys Tony Casillas and Marco Rivera with Award Winner, Adelfa Callejo

The inaugural NFL United Way Hometown Huddle took place in 1999 when the Dallas Cowboys and NFL players showed support for their communities on a single day across the nation. For more than a decade, the Cowboys participation in Hometown Huddle has included: serving lunch to the homeless children at The Salvation Army's Carr P. Collins Social Service Center (1999); youth football camps at the club's training facility (2000-2001); bingo with senior citizens at the Brady Center in Dallas (2003); an early Thanksgiving Day feast at The Salvation Army (2004); preparing and distributing meals to clients served by Meals on Wheels (2005); refurbishing the courtyard and greenhouse at a local high school (2007); conducting exercise activities at Arlington's All Star Childcare Center (2007); painting the space for the Cowboys Youth Fitness Zone at The Salvation Army Arlington (2008); and hosting an NFL Play 60 football clinic (2010-2011). The 2011 Hometown Huddle showcased Dallas Cowboys players hosting a football clinic for elementary age students. As part of the event, the players presented the school with a $2,500 grant to be used to purchase much needed fitness equipment. The team also presented the YMCA of Fort Worth, a United Way of Tarrant County partner agency, with a $2,500 grant for fitness purposes.

Since 2006, the NFL and its member clubs have celebrated Hispanic Heritage Month from Sept. 15 - Oct. 15. The annual game day celebration features Mariachi and Ballet Folklorico groups from the Dallas and San Antonio areas welcoming fans to the stadium with cultural music and dance, a special presentation of the Colors – including flags from Latin American countries – and appearances from Hispanic dignitaries. Latin recording artists Los Lonely Boys, Paula DeAnda, Michael Salgado, Jay Perez and others have also participated in the annual extravaganza with special National Anthem and halftime performances. In 2008 the Dallas Cowboys Hispanic Heritage celebration was highlighted by ESPN as part of the team's Monday Night Football game against the Philadelphia Eagles. A big part of the celebration included the Cowboys and the NFL hosting the Los Diablitos (the Little Devils) from Mexico City over the weekend to play in local flag football games with area youth teams.

The game day festivities are only one part of the Cowboys month long celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month. During Hispanic Heritage Month, the Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club also performs community outreach. In 2007 the group visited the Irving Public Library for a puppet show celebrating the Hispanic culture, hosted a youth fitness clinic with preschoolers at MiEscuelita (2009) and in 2011 hosted a Futbol Americano Youth Clinic at Maple Lawn Elementary in Dallas in an effort to combat childhood obesity in Hispanic children. The club also uses its yearly Hometown Huddle outreach initiative to impact the Hispanic communities in Dallas, Arlington and Fort Worth.

The Cowboys long history of supporting the Hispanic culture starts at the very top of the organization. In November 2002, Jerry Jones' appreciation for the Hispanic culture earned him the title of "Honorary Mariachi" at the Mariachi Vargas Extravaganza that took place in San Antonio, Texas. The event's organizers selected Jones because of his love of the Latin culture, his contributions to education and the diverse fan base that he represents as the owner of the Cowboys. During the three years prior to Jones' recognition, the award was presented to someone who had made significant contributions to the mariachi industry – making Jones the first person who was not affiliated with the music industry to receive this unique award.

Through the NFL Youth Football Fund, the Dallas Cowboys and the National Football League designate approximately $15 million annually to support youth and high school football initiatives nationwide. Local Cowboys youth football initiatives include: the NFL Dallas Cowboys Flag Football leagues; NFL Punt, Pass and Kick competitions; Dallas Cowboys Gatorade Junior Training Camps; the NFL Dallas Cowboys Junior Player Development with The Salvation Army (2005-2007); the NFL Dallas Cowboys High School Player Development Camp; the Dallas Cowboys Coaches Clinic; the Dallas Cowboys High School Coach of the Week Award program; Texas high school football playoff games and Pee Wee football games at Texas Stadium and Cowboys Stadium and Dallas Cowboys Youth Football Camps. Through the community grassroots football field program (LISC), the Cowboys have made possible five new or refurbished football fields in the Dallas-Fort Worth area including: a $50,000 grant to the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Dallas' Grand Prairie location; a $100,000 grant to Pierce Football Field, located in Joppa, one of Dallas' most impoverished neighborhoods (2002); a $100,000 grant to St. Philip's School and Community Center (1999); and in 1998, the Cowboys presented Dallas Moorland YMCA with the funding to build new football fields to support their growing youth football program. A sixth grant has been allocated in the amount of $250,000 for construction of a football field in Arlington at the North Texas Youth Education Town which will be administered by The Salvation Army.

In June 2012, the Dallas Cowboys – led by Head Coach Jason Garrett – hosted the first Dallas Cowboys U high school football camp at their Irving, Texas training facility for 160 underserved youth from the North Texas area. Coached by Cowboys players, the youth players participated in 7-on-7 games officiated by the team's coaches. The camp was subsidized by in-kind donations from Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities, Nike, Albertson's, Papa John's, Pepsi, Gatorade, Borden, Dannon, Dunkin Donuts and the NFL.

In an effort to battle childhood obesity, the NFL and the Cowboys have adopted NFL Play 60. The platform includes an in-school program – Play 60 Challenge (a partnership with the American Heart Association, powered locally by Reliant), a PSA campaign with Jason Witten and the Ad Council, participation in various youth fitness promotions, as well as construction of Dallas Cowboys Play 60 Fitness Zones across North Texas – the Boys & Girls Clubs of Arlington (2007), The Salvation Army Arlington (2008), Boys & Girls Clubs of Grand Prairie (2011) and The Salvation Army Fort Worth (2012). The 2008 Fitness Zone build at The Salvation Army Arlington was featured by the NFL in a national Play 60 PSA with DeMarcus Ware aired on Thanksgiving Day. The team plans to construct another Dallas Cowboys Play 60 Fitness Zone in North Texas during the Fall of 2012.

Additionally, since 2008, the Dallas Cowboys have worked with The Salvation Army to name a Cowboys Play 60 All-Star Team – selected by their coaches based on the Salvation Army core values – who lead the Cowboys onto the field and represent all youth football players during the National Anthem of the team's annual Thanksgiving Day game. As part of their honor, linebacker DeMarcus Ware presents the All Star team with their game day jerseys at the Cowboys training facility prior to the Thanksgiving Day game. In 2011 Cowboys partner Xbox 360 with Kinect joined Ware in presenting the All-Star team with Xbox with Kinect gaming systems in honor of their recognition and to serve as a reminder to continue physical activity throughout the year. For Super Bowl XLV, the 2010 Cowboys Play 60 All-Star team from The Salvation Army was selected to join Ware and representatives from each NFL team for a special pre-game presentation of the Declaration of Independence shown worldwide on FOX Sports.

NFL Play 60 – Cowboys/Salvation Army Play 60 All Stars and DeMarcus Ware

In February 2012, Dallas Cowboys players DeMarcus Ware, Miles Austin, Felix Jones and DeMarco Murray and mascot Rowdy joined First Lady Michelle Obama and celebrity chefs from past seasons of Bravo's hit series "Top Chef" in highlighting the work of schools across America in providing healthier food choices for students as part of Mrs. Obama's three-day, four-state tour to celebrate the second anniversary of Let's Move! – a comprehensive youth health initiative launched by the First Lady in 2009 which is dedicated to solving the problem of obesity. Assisted by the players and judged by Mrs. Obama, the chefs competed in a healthy cooking competition with students from Nancy Moseley Elementary School in Dallas.

As part of the Cowboys commitment to the City of Arlington, Texas - home of Cowboys Stadium - Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities is scheduled to donate $16.5 million over 33 years to the Gene and Jerry Jones Family Arlington Youth Foundation (AYF) and projects which enhance the quality of life of the youth of the City of Arlington. The AYF will fund programs and facilities dedicated to sports, recreation and education while working to foster the growth and empowerment of the community through matching funds. As part of this dedication, the Jones Family and NFL Charities each endowed the North Texas Youth Education Town (YET) – a lasting legacy of Super Bowl XLV to be located in Arlington – with a $1 million grant to fund education, mentoring, fitness and character enrichment programs administered by The Salvation Army. The YET initiative is an annual NFL program put in place to serve the community once the big game has departed the Super Bowl host city.

USO / Military Visit – Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders

For more than a decade, the club has recognized outstanding community volunteers through the Dallas Cowboys Community Quarterback Award, a volunteer recognition program that awards recipients a $10,000 grant from the Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities for their nominating charity. Winning charities have included St. Philip's School & Community Center, Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children, Dallas CAN! Academy, Children's Medical Center Dallas, MDA Dallas, Assist the Officer Foundation, Bridges To Life, The Family Place and Family Gateway. In 2005 the Cowboys hosted the JUNIOR Community Quarterback Award recognizing student-initiated service projects (from students ages 13-21) from youth who exemplified leadership, dedication and a commitment to improving the communities they live.

AMBASSADORS OF GOOD CHEER

The world famous Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders organization is completely subsidized by the club for the primary purpose of providing goodwill and a sense of caring on a local, national and international platform. Aside from their obvious presence on game days and their diligent work in local hospitals and homes for the elderly, the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders have now made more U.S.O. visits to U.S. military troops stationed oversees than the legendary Bob Hope.

In 2011 the Dallas Cowboys expanded the team's military outreach to include a dedicated Salute to Service recognition game in the month of November in commemoration of Veteran's Day. The salute to both active and veteran military members included plaza displays representing each branch of service, a flyover by the U.S. Coast Guard Station Houston, a presentation of flags by a combined Armed Service color guard, U.S. Navy SEALS repelling from the stadium's center-hung video board to deliver the coin to referees, appearances by members of the original Tuskegee Airmen in honor of the movie Red Tails and a $10,000 grant provided to the Tuskegee Airmen Institute from Cowboys partner Reliant, the recognition of three military families, who received homes through the Military Warriors Support Foundation's "Homes 4 Wounded Warriors" program, a special pregame reception with USAA, Cowboys legend and Navy veteran Roger Staubach and a special presentation of the National Anthem from the U.S. Army Band from Fort Sill, Oklahoma with featuring USO supporter and country music recording artist Neal McCoy.

During halftime, McCoy also served as Master of Ceremonies for a unique halftime performance that included a muster of more than 250 servicemen, women and families of deployed soldiers on-field during a medley of patriotic music and the anthems of each of the five military branches. A card stunt, sponsored by USAA, concluded the halftime with a message of "Thank You." A special component of the halftime show was a surprise on-field reunion between Sergeant Justin Willits from the 1st Cavalry Division out of Fort Hood with his wife Maria and 10-month-old daughter Joanna. Sergeant Willits had been deployed to Bagram Airfield, Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom XII for more than 10 months. During the halftime celebration, Willits – who marched in with the U.S. Army representatives – surprised his family, who were attending the game without knowledge that he had been brought home early from overseas. This was Willits' second deployment as a 1st Cavalry Division Trooper since 2008. Following the reunion, the Willits Family was presented with a $5,000 college scholarship for young Joanna provided by Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities along with an all-expenses paid cruise for two courtesy of USAA.

The week prior to the Salute to Service game, the Dallas Cowboys and partner GlaxoSmithKline hosted a free health screening for veterans and their families at Cowboys Stadium. The event was open to men and women of the military, their families and the general public and included a free tour of Cowboys Stadium.

A FAMILY PASSION

The operation of the Dallas Cowboys is a very visible family passion for Gene and Jerry Jones and their three children. Jerry Jones serves as the club's owner, president and general manager, while Stephen Jones - Chief Operating Officer/Executive Vice President/Director of Player Personnel, Charlotte Jones Anderson – Executive Vice President/VP of Brand Management/President Charity Foundation and Jerry Jones, Jr. - Executive Vice President/Chief Sales and Marketing Officer are all actively involved with the daily management of the club. Their shared dedication to community involvement has been a family source of pride for several years, and it extends far beyond the realm of the athletic world.

In the spring of 1998, the Joneses hosted a celebrity fundraiser at their home with Lauren Bacall as the featured guest. On that one evening, for the benefit of Southern Methodist University's Meadows Foundation, the family helped produce the single largest fund raising event in University history. As a result of her efforts, the University established the Gene Jones Scholarship in her honor. More recently, the Jones Family has hosted fundraising affairs for the John G. Tower Center Medal of Freedom with President George H. W. Bush and the Dallas Center for Performing Arts with Beverly Sills.

The Lone Star Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society recognized Gene and Jerry Jones as community champions in the area of philanthropy at its annual Dinner of Champions during the 2005 offseason. The honorees impact the lives of men, women and children through their service to the community and were awarded the Hope Award, the highest honor bestowed on an individual by the National MS Society in recognition of civic and community service. The dinner chairman for 2005 was Bruce Hardy, General Manager of Texas Stadium.

Family Gateway, a Dallas community outreach organization, recognized the work of Gene and Jerry Jones in the spring of 2003 with the Annette G. Strauss Humanitarian Award. The award is given annually to recognize those who are dedicated to enhancing the well being of others, who champion causes for the betterment of individuals and by example, encourage people to do the same. In June of 2002, the Joneses were recognized as the recipients of the Children's Champion Award for Philanthropy that was presented by the Dallas for Children organization.

Gene Jones is also a member of the executive board for the Meadows School for the Arts at Southern Methodist University, the board of directors for the John G. Tower Center for Political Studies at SMU, the executive board for the Dallas Center for Performing Arts Foundation, the advisory board for Family Gateway and the Children's Medical Center Trustees. She has previously served on the advisory board for the March of Dimes, the executive board of TACA and the executive board of the Mental Health Center. She has also been a member of the Associates of the Dallas Museum of Art.

Jerry Jones has a lifetime association with the Boys and Girls Clubs of America. On May 5, 2010 Jones was inducted into the Boys & Girls Clubs of America Alumni Hall of Fame at the Annual Chairman's Dinner hosted at Cowboys Stadium. During the evening's festivities, Charlotte Anderson accepted the notable Chairman's Award recognizing the Cowboys longstanding support of youth. The dinner raised a record $2.3 million that kicked off the inaugural Great Futures Scholarship Fund for the Regional Youth of the Year candidates. Anderson was surprised with the Champion of Youth Award for her dedication to making a difference of the lives of youth in the community. In 2001 the Joneses were awarded the Chairman's Award by The Boys and Girls Clubs of America. This award is given to recognize individuals who made a positive difference in people's lives – particularly in the lives of children. The Chairman's Dinner, chaired by daughter, Charlotte Anderson, raised $1.9 million for The Boys and Girls Clubs. Jerry Jones currently serves as a national trustee for the Southwest region of the organization and was previously named the Man of the Year by the Boys and Girls Clubs of Little Rock, Arkansas.
