The Denver Broncos lost a beloved and valued member of their family on April 5 with the passing of tight ends and special teams coach Fran Polsfoot. Not only is he missed as a friend, but as a co-worker and true professional. Fran was an assistant coach with the Broncos from 1977 through 1984.

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

PAT BOWLEN
President and Chief Executive Officer

A new era in Denver Broncos history began on March 23, 1984 when Pat Bowlen was introduced as the new majority owner of the National Football League team, which last year celebrated its 25th season in professional football.

He immediately put his own mark on the Broncos, establishing a solid administration and creating a positive atmosphere that was a major factor in Denver's 13-3 record and the AFC Western Division championship. His first Bronco team set franchise records for both victories (13) and consecutive wins (10), while leading the entire NFL in actual in-stadium attendance (585,233).

Bowlen, 41, acquired 100% ownership of the Broncos in July of 1985. He is active in day to day operations of the football club.

Born in Prairie du Chien, Wis., he attended high school there and went on to the University of Oklahoma, where he earned degrees in both business (1965) and law (1968).

Bowlen has real estate and natural resource holdings in Alberta, as well as real estate holdings in Colorado, Arizona, and California.

He is President and Director of Batoni-Bowlen Enterprises Ltd. and Bowlen Holdings Ltd., both of Edmonton, as well as Bowlen Holdings, Inc., which is a California firm. Bowlen also is Chairman of the Board and Director of Hambledon Estates Limited.

In addition, he is President and Director of Landsea Oil and Gas Ltd., College Plaza Development Ltd., Renaissance Development Ltd., and B.B.M. Properties Ltd. Bowlen serves as a director for several firms, including Regent Drilling Limited of Edmonton.

An outstanding athlete in his own right, he has competed in the Ironman Triathlon—an event in which one must swim 2.4 miles, ride 112 miles on a bicycle, and run 26.2 miles, all consecutively—as well as in other triathlon races and several marathons.

Bowlen is a member of several clubs and societies, including the Young President's Organization, the Canadian and Edmonton Bar Associations, and the Law Society of Alberta.

In addition to his Denver home, he also maintains residences in Honolulu, Hawaii, and Edmonton, Alberta.

VICE PRESIDENT/HEAD COACH

DAN REEVES
Vice President / Head Coach

Dan Reeves enters 1985 on the strength of a 13-3 record and the American Football Conference Western Division title in 1984, having earned Coach of the Year honors (Kansas City 101 Club, Pro Football Weekly, Sports Illustrated, Football News, College and Pro Football Newsweekly) for his efforts last year.

Reeves was named by Bronco President and Chief Executive Officer Pat Bowlen as a Vice President of the club on February 18.

Thus, the Denver mentor comes into 1985 with a broadened role after having presided over a campaign that saw his club set 13 team records, including most wins (13), most consecutive wins (10), and most touchdowns scored (42).

The Broncos' 1984 playoff appearance was their second straight under Reeves, who guided the youngest club in the National Football League to the best record in franchise history. The Denver coach led his club to a 9-7 mark and a wild card playoff berth in 1983, finishing second in the UPI AFC coach of the Year voting in that campaign.

Reeves, who enters his fifth season at the Broncos' helm this year, was the youngest coach in the NFL when he assumed command of the club in 1981, guiding Denver to a 10-6 record and barely missing a playoff berth in that inaugural campaign.

In the strike-shortened 1982 season Denver finished 2-7, so Reeves enters the coming year with a record of 34-23 and a winning percentage of .596, which ranks eighth among active NFL coaches.

Recognized as one of the most successful offensive coaches in the NFL, Reeves spent his earlier professional career, both as a player and as a coach, with the Dallas Cowboys. He was offensive coordinator for the Cowboys for three seasons, years when the Dallas offense was consistently at or near the top of the NFL.

Reeves had been a member of the Dallas coaching staff since 1970, when he undertook the difficult dual role of player-coach for two seasons. He was full-time offensive backfield coach in 1972, but spent the 1973 season in private business before rejoining the staff, again as backfield coach, in 1974.

In 1977, he took on the job of offensive coordinator where his duties included coaching the quarterbacks and wide receivers.

A native of Americus, GA. (1/19/44), Reeves began his pro career as a free agent running back in 1965. He had been a quarterback at the University of South Carolina as a college player and was inducted into South Carolina's Hall of Fame six years ago.

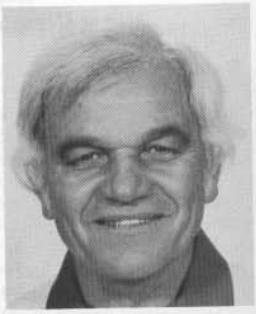

Reeves was an all-purpose offensive back during his eight seasons (1965-72) on the Dallas roster. He rushed for 1,990 yards and 25 TDs, and caught 129 passes for 1,693 yards and 17 TDs.

Because of his collegiate QB background, Reeves was also a respected halfback option passer, completing 30 such attempts for a pair of TDs during his career. In addition, he returned some kickoffs and punts along the way, and played in the NFL championship games of 1966, 1967, 1970, and 1971. He has played or coached in five Super Bowls.

Reeves and wife Pam are the parents of three children, daughters Dana (9/21/65) and Laura (9/19/70) and son Lee (11/4/67).

ASSISTANT COACHES

MARVIN BASS
Special Assistant

With over 40 years experience as a coach and administrator in college and pro football, Marvin Bass this year returns to the position of special assistant. He served the Broncos in that capacity in 1982-83, and was the head offensive line coach last year.

Bass came to Denver from the Canadian Football League, where he had been defensive coordinator of the Calgary Stampeders from 1978-1981.

A native of Norfolk, Virginia who was an All-American at William and Mary in 1942, he elected to go into college coaching after graduation and joined the staff at his alma mater in 1944.

In addition to William and Mary, Bass coached on the college level at North Carolina, Georgia Tech, South Carolina, and the University of Richmond. While head coach at South Carolina Bass coached Dan Reeves, who was the starting quarterback for the Gamecocks.

On the pro level, he was on the Buffalo Bills staff from 1969-71 and spent two years with the Birmingham franchise in the World Football League, including one season as head coach (1975). After the WFL ceased operations Bass rejoined the Buffalo Bills, this time as Director of Pro Scouting from 1975-77, prior to moving to Calgary in 1978.

Marvin and his wife, Audrey, have one son, Randy, and two grandsons, Lee and Rhett.

JOE COLLIER
Assistant Head Coach/Defense

The senior member of the Denver Broncos' coaching staff, Joe Collier was promoted to the position of assistant head coach/defense prior to the 1982 campaign. Recognized as the mastermind of Denver's strong defensive unit, Collier begins his 17th season with the Broncos in 1985.

Collier is one of only five original AFL coaches still active in the NFL. He is the only active coach who has spent all 25 years with AFL or AFC teams.

Collier was on Lou Saban's staff at Western Illinois from 1957 through 1959, then moved with Saban to the Boston Patriots in 1960-61, and on to Buffalo in 1962.

He served as head coach of the Bills in 1966-67-68, then rejoined Saban's staff with the Broncos in 1969.

Collier was an All-Big Ten selection as an end during his college days at Northwestern, and played in the Senior Bowl and the East-West Shrine game. Drafted by the New York Giants, he chose instead to spend the next two years in the Army, after which he joined the coaching ranks at Western Illinois.

Joe and his wife, Shirley, have three children, Julie, Lisa and Joe.

CHAN GAILEY
Special Teams/Defensive Assistant

Chan Gailey is in his first season as the Denver Broncos special teams coach and defensive assistant, having come to the club from Troy State in Troy, Ala., where he was head coach from 1983-84, winning the NCAA Division II national championship last season.

Gailey began his coaching career as the defensive backfield coach at Troy State in 1976-77, before moving on to the Air Force Academy as the Falcons' secondary coach in 1978. Gailey rose to the position of defensive coordinator with the Falcons in 1981, and returned to Troy State in 1983.

A native of Americus, Ga., Gailey earned 12 varsity letters at Americus High School before entering the University of Florida, where he earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1974. He earned three letters at Florida, two as a quarterback and one as a special teams player.

Gailey served as a graduate assistant at Florida in 1974 and 1975, with the Gators going to the Sugar Bowl in 1974 and the Gator Bowl the following year.

Chan and his wife Laurie have two sons, Tate and Andrew.

ALEX GIBBS
Head Offensive Line

Alex Gibbs is in his second year as offensive line coach for the Broncos, coming to the club from the University of Georgia, where he was offensive line coach in 1982-83.

Prior to moving to Georgia, he was the offensive coordinator at Auburn from 1979-81, also working as the offensive line coach and as quarterback coach during his tenure there.

Gibbs also is a former offensive coordinator and line coach at Ohio State (1975-78), and he has held coaching positions at West Virginia (1973-74), Kentucky (1971-72), and Duke (1969-70).

He began his career as the head coach at Mount Airy (N.C.) High School from 1966-68, where his teams won three conference championships and two state titles.

A graduate of Davidson College in 1963, Gibbs earned his master's degree from the University of North Carolina in 1964.

Alex is married (Woo) and has five children, daughter Sandy and sons Steve, David, Chuck and Mark.

STAN JONES
Defensive Line

One of the leading linemen in the National Football League in his playing days, Stan Jones is marking his 32nd consecutive year in pro football in 1985.

This is the 15th season as defensive line coach of the Broncos for Jones, who is on his second tour of duty in the Mile High City.

Jones served on the Bronco staff under Lou Saban from 1967 to 1971, spent the next four years with Saban in Buffalo, then rejoined the Broncos in 1976.

Jones was an All-American tackle at Maryland in 1953 and was named the nation's Lineman of the Year. In 1977, he was named to the Atlantic Coast Conference's 25-year All-Star team. He has been honored by the Maryland Alumni Association as Man of the Year, and is a member of Pennsylvania's Sports Hall of Fame.

He played 12 years with the Chicago Bears and one with the Washington Redskins, gaining All-Pro honors as an offensive guard four times and appearing in seven Pro Bowls.

Stan and his wife, Darlis, have a daughter, Sherrie, and two sons, Kevin and Troy.

AL MILLER
Strength/Conditioning

Al Miller joins the Broncos as the strength and conditioning coach in 1985, coming to Denver from the University of Alabama, where he held a similar position from 1982-84.

Prior to moving to Alabama Miller was the strength and conditioning coach at Northeast Louisiana in 1981 and Mississippi State in 1980. He spent 1979 in private business, after working as linebacker and strength coach at Northwestern Louisiana in 1974-78. Miller coached on the high school and junior high school levels in 1969-73.

Miller, a native of El Dorado, Ark., received his master's and bachelor's degrees from Northeast Louisiana, graduating from the school in 1970.

Al and his wife Janis have a son, Carey Brian, and a daughter, Lisa.

MYREL MOORE
Linebackers

Myrel Moore will be in his tenth season on the Denver Broncos' coaching staff in 1985, and this campaign will mark his eighth as the club's linebacker coach. He coached the linebackers in 1983-84 after having rejoined the Broncos as an offensive line coach in 1982.

His previous stint in Denver came from 1972-77. Moore coached the offensive line and special teams in 1972, then took over as linebacker coach the following year.

He was a tight end and linebacker at the University of California-Davis from 1954-56 and played defensive back for the Washington Redskins in 1957-58 before beginning his coaching career.

Moore joined the staff at Santa Ana JC in 1959 and became head coach in 1963 before moving on to the University of California, where he coached from 1964-71.

He was on the Oakland Raiders' staff in 1978-79 before returning to the Broncos as a scout in 1981.

Myrel is married (Sondra) and has four children, daughters Michelle, Meagan, and Mayce, and a son Michael.

NICK NICOLAU
Running Backs

Nick Nicolau once again will coach Bronco running backs this year, having assumed that role in 1982 after joining the club as a special assistant the previous season.

A veteran of 27 years as a coach on every level—high school, small college, major college, and both the NFL and Canadian Football League—Nicolau came to Denver from the New Orleans Saints, where he coached in 1980.

He was Director of Player Personnel and running back coach at Montreal (CFL) in 1978-79, with the Alouettes winning the conference championship and playing in the Grey Cup both years.

Nicolau was a running back at Southern Connecticut State College and began his coaching career there in 1960 after coaching in high school for two years.

Nick graduated from Southern Connecticut after serving in the United States Marine Corps. He went on to earn a master's degree from Indiana University and a doctorate from Springfield College.

Nicolau and his wife Eleanor have four daughters, Tracy, Shari, Vickie, and Wendy, and two sons, Duane and Randy.

MIKE SHANAHAN
Offensive Coordinator/Wide Receivers and Quarterbacks

Mike Shanahan is in his second season with Denver and his first as offensive coordinator, having come to the club from the University of Florida, where he was the offensive coordinator and assistant head coach in 1983.

Shanahan had been Florida's offensive coordinator since 1980, and in 1983 the Gators set an NCAA offensive record with 4,540 total yards, producing a 9-2-1 mark. Starting quarterback Wayne Peace set a national mark under Shanahan's tutelage, completing 70.7 percent of his passes.

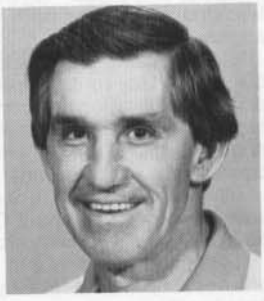

A native of Oak Park, Ill., Shanahan graduated from Eastern Illinois in 1974 and earned a master's degree there in 1975.

He began his coaching career at Oklahoma in 1975-76, serving as an offensive backfield and receivers coach for the Sooners.

Shanahan was Northern Arizona's offensive backfield coach in 1977 and served as offensive coordinator at Eastern Illinois in 1978 and at Minnesota in 1979.

Mike and his wife, Peggy, have two children, son Kyle and daughter Krystal, and the family makes its home in Aurora.

DOC URICH
Tight Ends/Assistant Offensive Line

Doc Urich takes over as Denver's tight end and assistant offensive line coach after having rejoined the Broncos during the 1984 preseason as a special teams coach. He was Denver's defensive line coach from 1972-75, offensive line coach in 1976, and director of pro scouting in 1977.

Urich began his coaching career at Miami (Ohio), where he played from 1948-50. He was a coach for the Redskins in 1951-54 before moving on to coach at Northwestern from 1955-63 and Notre Dame in 1964-65. Urich was the head coach at the University of Buffalo in 1966-68 and at Northern Illinois from 1969-70. He moved on to the NFL Buffalo Bills in 1971, where he coached the defensive line prior to coming to Denver.

After his first stint with the Broncos, Urich joined the Washington Redskins as the defensive coordinator and line coach in 1978-80. He became Green Bay's defensive line coach in 1981 and held the position through the 1983 season.

Urich and his wife Pat have a daughter, Cynthia, and a son, Danny.

CHARLIE WEST
Defensive Backs

Charlie West, who concluded his NFL playing career as a Bronco defensive back in 1978-79, is in his third year as the club's defensive backfield coach in 1985.

West came to Denver from the University of California, where he coached outside linebackers and coordinated special teams in 1982. He spent the previous season as the defensive backfield coach at Macalester College in St. Paul, Minn.

He had a 12-year NFL career that began with Minnesota from 1968-73 and continued with Detroit from 1974-77 before West was traded to the Broncos.

A second-round draft choice from the University of Texas at El Paso, West won 10 letters at UTEP, where he was one of that school's greatest athletes, and was named All-America by The Sporting News.

He has the unique distinction of also having played professional baseball, spending the 1968 baseball season in the Cincinnati Reds organization as an outfielder.

Charlie and his wife, Barbara, have two children, son Michael and daughter Sandra.

ADMINISTRATION

JOHN BEAKE
General Manager

John Beake begins his seventh Denver Broncos campaign in his new role as the NFL club's General Manager, capping a 16-year career in professional football as both coach and administrator.

As General Manager, he is responsible for all day-to-day operations of club administration and concentrates his efforts in the area of contract negotiations, an area in which he has considerable experience.

John was Assistant General Manager in 1984 and was the Broncos' Director of Football Operations the previous year, so his new role is the culmination of a steady rise within the organization.

He joined the Broncos in 1979 as the Director of Pro Personnel and became Director of Player Personnel in 1981, having concentrated on the coaching aspects of the game prior to coming to Denver.

An assistant coach for the Kansas City Chiefs from 1968 through 1974, John was the offensive backfield coach for the New Orleans Saints in 1976-77.

On the college level, he coached at Penn State in 1961-62 and was the offensive coordinator at Colorado State University in 1975. John coached on the high school level for six years prior to joining the Penn State staff in 1961.

He has a degree from Trenton State College in New Jersey and a master's degree from Penn State.

John and his wife, Marcia, have three children, Jerilyn, Chip, and Christopher, and the family makes its home in Fort Collins, Colo.

REED JOHNSON
Coordinator of College Scouting

Reed Johnson, who enters his fifth season with the Denver Broncos in 1985, is the Coordinator of College Scouting for the NFL club and as such is in charge of Denver's entire scouting program.

He came to Denver as special teams coach in 1981 and served as Coordinator of Pro Scouting in 1982.

Johnson spent eight years as a scout for the Dallas Cowboys before coming to Denver. Prior to his stint with Dallas, he was an assistant coach on the college level at New Mexico, Oklahoma State, and Tulsa.

A graduate of the University of Colorado, Johnson played in the Buffaloes' defensive backfield for four years and was a member of the school's Big Eight championship team in 1961.

He coached high school football in Texas for five seasons, including four at Highland Park High School in Dallas, where Johnson himself had played on a state championship team in 1957.

Reed has two daughters, Jill, 21, and Holly, 19. He and and his wife Peggy reside in Denver.

CARROLL HARDY
Coordinator of Combine Scouting

Carroll Hardy, the Coordinator of Combine Scouting for the Broncos, begins his 22nd year with the club in 1985.

A 10-letter winner at the University of Colorado, Hardy is considered one of the greatest athletes ever to play in the state of Colorado.

He played pro football for the San Francisco 49ers and major league baseball with the Cleveland Indians, Boston Red Sox, Houston Astros, and Minnesota Twins, in 1960 earning a niche in sports history by becoming the only man ever to pinch hit for Ted Williams.

A native of South Dakota, Hardy is a member of the Sports Halls of Fame in both South Dakota and Colorado.

Carroll and his wife, Janice, have three children, Jay, Jill, and Lisa, and make their home in Boulder.

VETERAN PLAYER PROFILES

Wide receiver Steve Watson, the Broncos' most valuable offensive player in 1984, posted his third 1,000 yard season in the past four years.

No. 80 VERNEST RAYNARD (Ray) ALEXANDER Wide Receiver

Birthdate—January 8, 1962
Birthplace—Miami, Fla.
Residence—Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired—FA, 1984
College—Florida A&M
High School—John S. Shaw HS, Mobile, Ala.
Height—6-3
Weight—180
Pro Year—2nd
Year with Broncos—2nd

Ray Alexander had a fine rookie season in 1984, catching eight passes for 132 yards and one touchdown. His first receptions as a professional came against San Diego (11/11), including one that set up the winning touchdown. Alexander caught his first scoring pass the next week against Minnesota (11/18), and followed that with a 41-yard reception against Seattle (11/25) that put Denver into position to tie the score before halftime. Bronco coaches were impressed with Alexander's ability to catch the football, noting that the receiver has "soft" hands. He joined the team five weeks into the season, after having been one of the last cuts of the 1984 training camp.

COLLEGE: Ray holds Florida A&M's career and single season receiving records, and he was a three-time Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference selection. The 1983 MEAC player of the year, Ray was a preseason All-American selection that year by Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News, and earned All-American honors by the Kodak-American Football Coaches Association. He majored in commercial art.

PERSONAL: Ray and his wife (Marcel) have a son, Vernest (4/29/82), and the family resides in Aurora, Colo. At John S. Shaw HS in Mobile, Ala., Ray lettered four times in football and basketball, and twice in track. A native of Miami, Fla., Ray lists boating, camping, and playing basketball as his hobbies.

NO. 54 KEITH BISHOP Center/Guard

Birthdate—March 10, 1957
Birthplace—La Jolla, Calif.
Residence—Englewood, Colo.
How Acquired—Draft #6, 1980
College—Baylor
High School—Lee HS, Midland, Tex.
Height—6-3
Weight—265
Pro Year—5rd
Year with Broncos—5th

Keith Bishop had another fine season as the Broncos' starting left guard in 1984, starting 14 of the 16 games in which he played. Bishop was unable to start twice due to a muscle tear in his right foot, although he continued to do all the long snapping in those contests. He was one of the key players in a line that allowed the fewest number of quarterback sacks (35) for Denver since the 1973 campaign. Bishop is recognized by Bronco coaches and trainers as an unselfish player, and last year he was named as Denver's winner of the Ed Block Memorial Award for Courage. He missed the entire 1981 season with a torn tendon on the bottom of his right foot and was hampered by tendonitis of the knee throughout the 1982 campaign. Bishop is known for his aggressive attitude and is a hard worker, which is reflected in the consistency of his play. In addition to his starting guard role, Bishop is also the Bronco's long snapper in all kicking situations and is considered by Denver coaches to be the best in the NFL in that capacity. Bishop can bench press his body weight over 17 times and participated in NBC's World's Strongest Man contest in 1981, placing sixth overall and winning the sumo wrestling championship of the United States Sumo Wrestling Association in the process.

COLLEGE: Keith began his career at the University of Nebraska. He played two years at Nebraska then transferred to Baylor, where he started every game at center in 1978 and was elected a tri-captain for 1979, but suffered a knee injury in the first game and missed the remainder of the season. He majored in physical education.

PERSONAL: Keith is married (Mary). At Lee HS in Midland, Texas, he lettered twice each in football and baseball. In football he played guard and center on offense and tackle on defense. Bishop was a pitcher in baseball. Keith lists hunting, fishing, and archery as his hobbies.

NO. 65 WALT NATHANIEL BOWYER, JR. Defensive End

Birthdate—September 8, 1960
Birthplace—Wilkinsburg, Pa.
Residence—Denver, Colo.
How Acquired—Draft #10, 1983
College—Arizona State
High School—Wilkinsburg HS, Wilkinsburg, Pa.
Height—6-4
Weight—252
Pro Year—3rd
Year with Broncos—3rd

Walt Bowyer was in on 58 tackles and had three quarterback sacks backing up Barney Chavous at left defensive end last year, and the third-year man is expected to challenge for more playing time in 1985. Bowyer is considered by Bronco coaches to be a fine run defender who is developing as a pass rusher. He started one game last year and three as a rookie, getting in on 45 tackles and posting two sacks in 1983. An outstanding athlete, Bowyer has worked hard in the team's weight room to build himself up to his present size and strength.

COLLEGE: Walt went to Arizona State as a linebacker but was converted to defensive end and started in his sophomore and junior season, also playing one year of varsity basketball for the Sun Devils. He was a liberal arts major at Arizona State.

PERSONAL: Walt and his wife Patty have a daughter, Tamera (7/29/82), and the family makes its home in Denver. At Wilkinsburg HS in his native Wilkinsburg, Pa., Bowyer earned eight prep letters in football and basketball. One of the nation's most highly regarded prep defensive players, he earned All-American honors as a senior. Walt was an outstanding high school basketball player and competed in the prestigious Dapper Dan Basketball Classic.

NO. 26 CHRISTOPHER (Chris) BREWER
Running Back

Birthdate—January 23, 1962
Birthplace—Denver, Colo.
Residence—Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired—Draft #9, 1984
College—Arizona
High School—George Washington HS, Denver, Colo.
Height—6-1
Weight—193
Pro Year—2nd
Year with Broncos—2nd

Chris Brewer played in 13 games in 1984, primarily on special teams, and is expected to compete for increased playing time in 1985. He played sparingly as a running back last season, rushing 10 times for 28 yards, and catching two passes for 20 yards. During the 1984 preseason, Brewer recorded a 66-yard touchdown run against San Francisco.

COLLEGE: Chris was a second-team All-PAC 10 selection in 1983 at Arizona, ranking seventh in the conference in rushing that year. His college career statistics are highlighted by his rushing average of 5.1 yards per carry, and he was also a valuable member of the Wildcat special teams.

PERSONAL: A Denver native, Chris was a prep star at Denver's George Washington HS, where he was a prep All-American as a junior and earned all-city honors as a senior. In addition to winning three letters in football, Chris also competed in basketball and track.

Billy Bryan had another outstanding season as the catalyst in Denver's offensive line in 1984 and once again started all 16 games, one of only eight Broncos to do so. He was a key member of the Denver offensive line that gave up the fewest number of sacks (35) since 1973. Bryan is considered by Denver coaches to be one of the best pass blocking centers in the NFL, in addition to being a good run blocker, and is a legitimate All-Pro candidate at his position. Praised by Bronco coaches for his on-field leadership and decision-making ability, Bryan twice has been voted by his teammates as Denver's offensive most valuable player (1980 and 1982). After joining the Broncos as a fourth-round draft choice in 1977, he missed all but one game that season because of injury, but took over the starting job in 1978 and has held it ever since. Aside from two games missed due to injuries in 1981, Bryan has started every game Denver has played from 1979 to the present and now has run his streak of consecutive starts to 46.

COLLEGE: Billy was a first team All-Atlantic Coast player at Duke, received several All-America honors, and earned four varsity letters, all at center. He capped his senior season by playing in the East-West Shrine game in San Francisco. Bryan graduated from Duke with a degree in economics.

PERSONAL: Billy is married (Susan), and they make their off-season home in Burlington, N.C. His father was a Little All-America at Elon College in North Carolina, and he has an uncle who was an outstanding player at Clemson. At Williams HS in Burlington, Bryan earned three football letters as a defensive tackle and two in track as a shot put and discus thrower. Billy lists sailing and target shooting as his hobbies.

NO. 58 STEVE RAY BUSICK
Linebacker

Birthdate—December 10, 1958
Birthplace—Los Angeles, Calif.
Residence—Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired—Draft #7, 1981
College—Southern California
High School—Temple City HS, Temple City, Calif.
Height—6-4
Weight—227
Pro Year—5th
Year with Broncos—5th

Steve Busick had an outstanding season in 1984, leading the team in tackles with 195 in his first year as a starter at the right inside linebacker spot. He was one of only eight Broncos to start every game last season, a campaign in which he intercepted two passes, recovered a fumble, recorded a quarterback sack and tallied four passes defensed. Bronco coaches regard Busick as an intelligent, aggressive player who has developed well as a starter. He moved into a starting role at the left inside linebacker position in 1983 and finished second on the team in tackles with 130, including two sacks for 16 yards. Busick started 15 games that season, missing his only start because Denver opened with a four-man front line against the Raiders. He has now played in 57 straight games, never having missed one as a pro. After his rookie season he underwent off-season surgery to correct a recurring shoulder problem that had begun in training camp.

COLLEGE: Steve was hampered by injuries during his freshman and sophomore seasons, but he played well as a junior and as a senior earned honorable mention Pac-10 honors. In 1980 he posted 102 tackles, second highest total on the USC defensive unit. Busick closed out his college career with an appearance in the Blue-Grey game.

PERSONAL: He graduated from Temple City (Calif.) HS, where he lettered three times as a linebacker. Steve is single and his hobbies include music, snow skiing, fishing, and when in California, going to the beach.

Rubin Carter had another fine season in 1984, starting all 15 games in which he played. He missed the game at Detroit (10/7) due to a back injury suffered in practice. Carter posted 84 tackles, second among defensive lineman, recovered three enemy fumbles, and had three sacks. Considered by Denver coaches to be one of the better nose tackles in the NFL, Carter has missed only two games in his career, playing in 145 of the last 147 Bronco games. Since winning a starting job midway through his rookie year, he has started 133 games. Carter's career tackle total now is 972, while his career sack total is 28. He has recovered 14 fumbles overall, returning one for a touchdown against New England in 1979. Carter gained acclaim in Super Bowl XII when he was credited with six tackles, two assists, two quarterback sacks, and a fumble recovery. Carter joined the team as a fifth-round draft pick in 1975.

COLLEGE: Rubin was a two-year letterman at the University of Miami (Fla.), and was selected to the Kodak and UPI All-American teams after his senior year. He also was selected his team's MVP on defense in the Hula Bowl. He graduated from Miami with a degree in business administration.

PERSONAL: Rubin is married (Diana), and he has a son, Rubin Andre (5/12/79), and a daughter, Diandra (12/31/84). He is very active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and in Pro Athletes Outreach. At Stranahan HS in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Carter earned three varsity football letters as a defensive tackle and three as a shot putter in track and field. Rubin lists chess, tennis, ping-pong, swimming, basketball, backgammon, and pool as his hobbies.

No. 79 BARNEY LEWIS CHAVOUS Defensive End

Birthdate—March 22, 1951
Birthplace—Aiken, S.C.
Residence—Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired—Draft #2, 1973
College—South Carolina State
High School—Schofield HS, Aiken, S.C.
Height—6-3
Weight—258
Pro Year—13th
Year with Broncos—13th

Barney Chavous, the senior member of the Broncos' defensive line corps, has missed just two games due to injury in the past seven seasons. He took over as Denver's starting left defensive end in the first game of his rookie year and has been there ever since. Chavous is second in team history in games played (166) and games started (162), needing just 16 in each category to tie former Bronco Billy Thompson for the team lead. One of the steadiest performers on the club, Chavous has had seven campaigns in which he started every game, and he is also the leader in career sacks for Denver with 63. In 1984, his 12th season, Chavous tallied 66 tackles, which raises his career total to 1,076, and his seven and a half sacks were good for second highest on the team. He was named the Pittsburgh Courier's NFL Defensive Lineman of the Year following the 1978 season, and he earned NFLPA Defensive Rookie of the Year honors in 1973.

COLLEGE: Barney was All-Conference and defensive MVP at South Carolina State, where he earned four varsity letters as a defensive end. A three-year starter, he was named All-America by AP, The Football News, and the Pittsburgh Courier, the latter of which also named him collegiate Defensive Lineman of the Year. Chavous capped his college play with appearances in the North-South game, the Senior Bowl, and the Coaches' All-America game. He graduated with a major in physical education.

PERSONAL: Barney is married (Odessa), and they are the parents of three children, son Shedric (2/10/70), and daughters Jasmine (11/18/76) and Nikeya Monique (6/28/78). At Schofield HS in his hometown of Aiken, S.C., he earned one letter in football, as a linebacker, but lettered twice in track and field as a weight man with the shot and discus. Barney works in real estate and does some farming in the off-season. His hobbies are hunting, fishing, target shooting, and pool.

NO. 59 DARREN COMEAUX Linebacker

Birthdate—April 15, 1960
Birthplace—San Diego, Calif.
Residence—San Diego, Calif.
How Acquired—FA 1982
College—Arizona State
High School—San Diego HS, San Diego, Calif.
Height—6-1
Weight—227
Pro Year—4th
Year with Broncos—4th

Darren Comeaux continued to be an excellent special teams player in 1984 and performed well in limited duty as an inside linebacker, intercepting his first enemy pass and recovering a fumble. He played in every game last year for the first time in his pro career. In 1983 Comeaux had been one of Denver's last cuts and rejoined the team in the third week of the campaign, playing in the last 14 games of the season, primarily on special teams. He originally signed with the Broncos after the 1982 draft and spent most of that season on injured reserve, having suffered a stress fracture in his lower right leg during training camp. A versatile athlete, Comeaux can play all four linebacker positions in Denver's defensive formation.

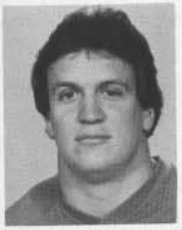

COLLEGE: Darren was honorable mention All-Pac 10 and earned Arizona State's Glen Hawkins Sportsmanship Award as a senior linebacker for the Sun Devils. He lettered in Arizona State in 1980 and 1981 after transferring from San Diego Mesa JC.

PERSONAL: Darren is single and makes his off-season home in his native San Diego where he is pursuing a degree in business administration at San Diego State. He also spends part of the off-season working as a youth counselor for the Southeast Involvement Program in San Diego. He lettered twice each in football, basketball, and track at San Diego HS. Darren likes to play racquetball and basketball in his spare time.

How Acquired—Draft #2, 1983
College—Miami (Fla.)
High School—Killian HS, Miami, Fla.
Height—6-5
Weight—267
Pro Year—3rd
Year with Broncos—3rd

Mark Cooper played in 15 games and started four last year, two each at left and right guard, performing very well in his starting assignments. He missed the final game of the season due to a knee injury sustained the previous week. Cooper is projected primarily as a guard again in 1985, although he is capable of playing tackle as well. Bronco coaches feel that he has all the qualifications necessary to be an outstanding offensive lineman and expect him to challenge for more playing time this year. The Broncos' second round draft choice in 1983, Cooper played in 10 games and started two as a rookie, missing six contests because of an ankle injury sustained in the season opener that year.

COLLEGE: Mark was a second team All-South Independent choice as a senior at Miami (Fla.), where he was a four-year letterman who capped his college career with East-West Shrine Game and Senior Bowl appearances. Cooper made the conversion to the interior line for the final game of the 1982 season, after having caught 19 passes for 214 yards and four touchdowns during his 33-game career as a tight end. He has a degree in communications from Miami.

PERSONAL: Mark is single and makes his off-season home in Aurora, Colo. He was a prep All-American selection (Adidas, Scholastic Coach) who also earned all-city and all-state honors. His father played pro football at Green Bay, and he has a cousin who pitched in the Oakland Athletics organization. Mark enjoys hunting, fishing, scuba diving, working on cars, and with his two horses. Mark did volunteer work with the Arapahoe County Sheriff's posse during the off-season.

Rick Dennison had an excellent campaign in 1984, recording 164 tackles and three sacks in his first season as a full-time starter at the left inside linebacker spot. His tackle total ranked third on the team and Bronco coaches feel Dennison developed excellent qualities of mental leadership last year. He saw action both inside and outside as a Bronco linebacker in 1983, getting in on 19 tackles on defense in addition to playing on Denver's special teams. He is a fine athlete who has not missed a game in his three pro campaigns. Dennison had a free agent tryout with the Buffalo Bills in 1980 and with Denver the following year, finally joining the Broncos after the Bills again cut him just prior to the start of 1982 regular season play.

COLLEGE: Rick was a second team Academic All-American at Colorado State University, where he played tight end for the Rams from 1976-79, graduating with a degree in civil engineering. He earned three letters at CSU.

PERSONAL: He and his wife Deborah make their home in Louisville, Colo. Rick is a native of Kalispel, Mont., and graduated from Rocky Mountain HS in Fort Collins, Colo., where he lettered twice each in football, basketball, and baseball. He received a master's degree in civil engineering in the spring of 1982, specializing in fluid mechanics. Rick likes fishing and music.

No. 7 JOHN ALBERT ELWAY Quarterback

Birthdate—June 28, 1960
Birthplace—Port Angeles, Wash.
Residence—Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired—Trade with Baltimore, 1983
College—Stanford
High School—Granada Hills HS, Los Angeles, Calif.
Height—6-3
Weight—210
Pro Year—3rd
Year with Broncos—3rd

John Elway last year took a major step forward in his development as an NFL quarterback, as the former Stanford All-American led the Broncos to a 12-2 record in his 14 regular season starts, finishing eighth among AFC passers with a 76.8 rating (214 completions in 380 attempts for 2,598 yards and 18 touchdowns). Not only was Elway's passing a factor in his leadership of the offense, but he finished third on the team in rushing with 237 yards on 56 carries, good for a 4.2 average. Elway tied the franchise record with five scoring passes in a single game (vs. Minnesota on 11/18) and established a personal pro high in completions with 26 against New England (11/4), also posting his only 300-yard game of the campaign against the Patriots (315). He had his best rushing performance as a Bronco in the team's final regular season game at Seattle, gaining 43 yards on nine carries in pacing Denver to the division title. Elway was not able to start two games due to injury and sat out one altogether (10/28 at Los Angeles Raiders). He worked very hard in the Bronco weight room during this off-season to build up his upper body, and is considered to be both heavier and stronger for the coming season. Elway started 10 games overall in 1983, including the first five before being replaced by Steve DeBerg and five more after DeBerg was injured at Seattle (11/6). Elway did not have impressive stats as a rookie, finishing 17th among AFC passers, but he carried a tremendous emotional burden all season, having come into the NFL as the most publicized college prospect since Joe Namath in 1965. John struggled for much of the season before putting outstanding performances back to back in December against Cleveland and Baltimore, both Denver wins and the latter of which clinched a playoff spot for the Broncos. He completed 16 of 24 for 284 yards and two touchdowns against the Browns and the following week brought Denver back from a 19-0 deficit with three fourth quarter scoring passes, leading the Broncos to a 21-19 win. He completed 23 of 44 for 345 yards in that game, all single game highs for his rookie year. Elway was the first player selected in the 1983 NFL draft and joined the Broncos by trade on 5/2/83. An exceptional pure passer, his talents were honed by the pro-style offense employed by Stanford.

COLLEGE: John concluded his college career with five major NCAA Division 1-A records and nine major Pac-10 marks. Elway completed 62.1 percent of his career passes (774 of 1,243, both NCAA highs) for 9,349 yards and 77 touchdowns, while setting an NCAA record for the lowest percentage of passes intercepted in a career (3.13 percent). He passed for over 200 yards in 30 of 42 games. As a senior, John was a consensus All-American and finished second in Heisman Trophy balloting while setting virtually every Pac-10 and Stanford career record for total offense and passing. In 1982 he passed for over 2,500 yards for an NCAA record third straight season capping his career as the East-West Shrine Offensive Player of the Game. He threw for two or more TDs in all but three games as a senior. As a junior Elway received All-America recognition and was named All-West Coast first team by UPI. John was the first sophomore ever named Pac-10 Player-of-the-Year and also the first sophomore ever named a first team All-American (The Sporting News). He compiled amazing 1980 statistics, completing 65.4 percent of his attempts for 2,889 yards and 27 TDS. In limited action as a freshman he completed 50 of 96 attempts for 544 yards, setting a school record for freshmen by hurling six TD passes. A two-sport star, John played baseball for the New York Yankees' Oneonta (N.Y.) single-A farm club in 1982, hitting for a .318 average and knocking in a team-high 24 runs batted in. He was the Yankees' first selection in the 1981 summer draft. He hit .349 with nine homers and 50 RBI in 49 games in his final college baseball season as a sophomore. Elway has a degree in economics from Stanford.

PERSONAL: John and his wife Janet make their home in Aurora, Colo. A native of Post Angeles, Wash., Elway was the most highly recruited prep athlete in the nation in 1979 and was listed on Parade, Scholastic Coach, Football News, and National Coaches Association All-America teams. He had an unparalleled football-baseball career at Granada Hills HS. John was 129 of 200 for 1,837 yards and 19 TDs as a senior, while leading the baseball team to the Los Angeles City championship with a .491 batting average and a 4-2 pitching record. He completed 60 percent of his high school passes for 5,711 yards and 49 TDS. The Kansas City Royals selected him in the 1979 summer draft, although he already had signed a national letter of intent with Stanford. John's father, Jack, now is the head coach at Stanford. Jack coached his son in the East-West Shrine contest in which John earned Offensive MVP laurels.

No. 43 STEPHEN JAMES (Steve) FOLEY

Safety

Birthdate—Nov. 11, 1953
Birthplace—New Orleans, La.
Residence—New Orleans, La.
How Acquired—Draft #8, 1975
College—Tulane
High School—Jesuit HS, New Orleans La.
Height—6-2
Weight—190
Pro Year—10th
Year with Broncos—10th

Steve Foley was one of only eight Broncos to start all 16 games last season, as the 10-year veteran intercepted six passes to tie Mike Harden for the team lead. He has a career total of 39 interceptions, which ties him for third in the league among active players and is the third highest total in team history behind Goose Gonsoulin (43) and Bill Thompson (40). Foley also scored his first pro touchdowns last year on a 40-yard interception return at Seattle (12/15) and a 22-yard fumble return on the first play from scrimmage against Green Bay (10/15) in a Monday night blizzard. He ranked second on the team and first among defensive backs in tackles with 167 and he broke up 10 passes. Foley intercepted five passes in 1983 while leading the defensive backs in tackles with 124 despite missing two games with an ankle injury. He returned to the starting lineup at free safety that year after having missed virtually all of 1982 due to a broken right forearm suffered in a goal line collision with San Diego wide receiver Wes Chandler on opening day. Foley was Denver's interception leader for four straight years (1978-81) and in 1981 picked off five passes in his first full year as a free safety. His shift to free safety for the eighth game of the 1980 campaign marked the second position change of his career — he was a college quarterback at Tulane. Drafted by the Broncos in 1975, he opted instead for the WFL as a quarterback, eventually was shifted to the defensive backfield at Jacksonville and subsequently came to Denver as an experienced defender. Foley did not miss a game from 1978-81 and was named to UPI's All-AFC team after the 1978 season.

COLLEGE: Steve lettered three times as a quarterback at Tulane and led the Green Wave to the 1973 Blue Bonnet Bowl. He holds Tulane's individual career total offense record and graduated with a degree in business.

PERSONAL: Steve and his wife Cindy have two children, son David (5/24/82) and daughter Natalie (1/1/84) and make their offseason home in his native New Orleans. He comes from a large family, with 12 brothers and sisters. At Jesuit HS in New Orleans, Foley was a two-year letterman at quarterback and earned two track letters as a long jumper, high jumper, and javelin thrower. Steve lists hunting, fishing, tennis and "most outdoor sports" as hobbies.

Pro Year—2nd
Year with Broncos—2nd

Scott Garnett had a fine rookie season in 1984 despite being hampered by injuries to his right knee, left ankle, and big toe. He played in every game last year and was named team most valuable player for his performance against Detroit (10/7) when he started for an injured Rubin Carter. Garnett finished the season with 41 tackles, a sack, and a fumble recovery, and was also credited with breaking up four passes. Bronco coaches are impressed with Garnett's size and quickness.

COLLEGE: Scott was plagued with three metatarsal injuries in a period of three months as a collegian and missed five games each in his sophomore and junior seasons, but he recovered to finish strong in the latter part of his senior campaign. He was an honorable mention All-PAC 10 selection in his junior year, and he played in two Rose Bowls, starting in his freshman season. Garnett majored in society and justice, and was a member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

PERSONAL: Scott is single and resides in his native Pasadena, Calif., where as a three-year letterman at John Muir HS he was named Carnation All-America, All-CIF Division II, and San Gabriel Valley MVP as a senior. He was All-Pacific League and All-San Gabriel Valley for two seasons, and also earned four letters in track, winning the California state shot put title with a 64'-8¾" effort, and earning Scholastic Coach Prep All-America honors in the process. Scott enjoys weight lifting, playing backgammon, and listening to music in his spare time.

How Acquired—Draft #5a, 1980
College—Michigan
High School—Central HS, Detroit, Mich.
Height—6-1
Weight—192
Pro Year—6th
Year with Broncos—6th

Mike Harden had a fine season in 1984 as he tied for the team lead in interceptions with a career-high six and led the team with 18 passes defensed. One of only eight Broncos to start every game last year, Harden scored the first touchdown of his career on a 45-yard interception return against Kansas City (9/23). In 1983 Harden moved from safety to cornerback and finished the year leading the AFC in interception return yards with 127, and his average of 31.8 was the highest in the NFL among players with four or more interceptions. Harden began the 1982 season as Denver's nickel back and became the club's starting free safety in the second week of the season, starting four games before a knee sprain sustained in practice forced him to miss the campaign's final four games. Harden played in five games and was in on 51 tackles in addition to making two interceptions and recovering a fumble. Along with Jim Ryan, he also was a co-captain of Denver's special teams. He played in every game of his first two pro seasons, primarily as a valuable special teams performer, making his first three starts late in the 1981 campaign. Harden was second on the club in kickoff returns with 11 in 1981.

COLLEGE: Mike was All-Big Ten in 1978 and 1979, closing out his college career with an appearance in the Japan Bowl. A four-year letterman at Michigan, Harden led Wolverine defensive backs in tackles with 50 as a senior and posted seven career interceptions. He also returned punts in college, handling 24 for a 7.4 average, and graduated from Michigan with a degree in political science.

PERSONAL: Mike is single and makes his off-season home in the Denver suburb of Aurora, and is very active in various community youth programs. He has worked with the Detroit police department as a youth counselor. Harden has taken law courses at the University of Michigan, and at the University of Denver in pursuit of a law degree. He once worked in the sports department of Detroit television WXYZ-TV, and Mike's interests include travel, sports cars, fashion modeling and horticulture.

NO. 60 PAUL EUGENE HOWARD

Guard

Birthdate—September 12, 1950
Birthplace—San Jose, Calif.
Residence—Redding, Calif.
How Acquired—Draft #3a, 1973
College—Brigham Young
High School—Central Valley HS, Central Valley, Calif.
Height—6-3
Weight—260
Pro Year—12th
Year with Broncos—12th

Paul Howard played in every game at his customary right guard slot once again in 1984, missing just two starting assignments due to injury. He was a key performer in the offensive line play which allowed Denver's fewest quarterback sacks (35) since the 1973 season. Bronco coaches feel that he had one of his better campaigns last year and that his experience is a factor in the offensive line. Howard, who comes into 1985 as the senior member of the offensive line and the oldest player on the team, now has played in 156 games for the Broncos since joining the club as a third round draft choice in 1973. He first earned a starting job halfway through the 1974 season and has been a fixture as right guard ever since, with the exception of the 1976 campaign, which he missed with a back injury. Howard has not missed a game during the last four seasons and is fourth in club history in games played.

COLLEGE: Paul earned three varsity letters during an outstanding career at BYU. He was first team All-WAC, played in the Senior Bowl and the East-West Shrine Game, and was selected for the Coaches' All-America and College All-Star games after his senior season. Howard played defensive end for two years in college before switching to the offensive line. A dedicated weight lifter, he set Brigham Young records for the bench press, squat, and dead lift.

PERSONAL: Paul and his wife Kathy have two daughters, Nicole (10/8/73) and Melissa (1/13/77). He works as a Vice President at Hydro-Petro Technology, Inc. during the off-season. At Central Valley HS in northern California he earned varsity letters in football as a guard, in basketball as a forward, and in track and field as a weight man.

No. 98 RICKY HUNLEY

Linebacker

Birthdate—November 11, 1961
Birthplace—Petersburg, Va.
Residence—Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired—Trade with Cincinnati, 1984
College—Arizona
High School—Petersburg, HS, Petersburg, Va.
Height—6-2
Weight—238
Pro Year—2nd
Year with Broncos—2nd

Ricky Hunley came to the Broncos by way of trade from Cincinnati in the middle of the 1984 campaign and played in the final eight games of the season, as well as in the playoff game against Pittsburgh, seeing most of his action on special teams. Cincinnati will receive three future draft choices from the Broncos in exchange for Hunley, who is considered to be a superb pro prospect whom the Broncos will look at outside as well as at the inside linebacker position which he played throughout his college career. Hunley was the eighth player taken in the 1984 player draft, but opted not to sign at that time. Bronco coaches feel that with the benefit of a full training camp he will be able to utilize his size, speed, and quickness to begin his development into an outstanding NFL linebacker.

COLLEGE: Ricky was a two-time consensus All-American (1982 and 1983) at Arizona, where he was the Wildcats' all-time tackle leader (566 in four years) and the most decorated player in school history. A heavy hitter who both stuffed the middle and played pass defense as well, he led the PAC-10 in interceptions in 1983 with seven and established a reputation for durability, starting the last 33 games of his career in addition to five as a freshman, missing just one college contest due to injury. As a senior he capped his Arizona career by leading the defense in five departments and intercepting passes in three consecutive games, as well as in five of the first seven. Hunley had three 21-tackle games in his career and in his last two seasons posted fewer than 10 tackles in just two games. He registered his career-high of 22 tackles (11 solo) vs. Washington as a senior, and scored two touchdowns in his final campaign, one vs. Oregon State and the other against California. In addition to his consensus All-American honors, Hunley was selected by Arizona coaches as the team's MVP and defensive MVP. As a sophomore he tied the school record with four forced fumbles while leading the squad in total tackles and solo tackles for the first of three straight seasons, earning All-PAC-10 conference honors all three seasons as well.

PERSONAL: Ricky is single and makes his home in Aurora, Colo., although he still spends considerable time in Tucson, Ariz., where he works as the vice-president of Wildcat Travel, Inc. in the off-season. A native of Petersburg, Va., Ricky earned three prep letters each in football and baseball at Petersburg HS, and was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 26th round of the 1980 baseball draft. He has three sisters and seven brothers, one of whom (Lamonte) was the other starter next to Ricky at inside linebacker for the Arizona Wildcats in 1982 and 1983.

Glenn Hyde signed with the Broncos before the regular season finale at Seattle, but did not play in that game or against Pittsburgh in the divisional playoff game. He played with Denver from 1976-81 at both the tackle and guard positions, as well as snapping for field goals and extra points. He was also a dynamic special teams player. Hyde was traded to Baltimore in 1982 and played five games for the Colts. He then joined the USFL Denver franchise and earned All-USFL honors in 1983. Hyde played for the Chicago Blitz in 1984, but was not drafted by another USFL club when the franchise folded. Hyde began his career in the World Football League in 1974 with Chicago, and then played for Charlotte in 1975.

COLLEGE: Glenn lettered at defensive tackle for three years at Pittsburgh and was an All-East selection in his senior season, and also played in the Coaches' All-America game. Glenn played hockey for four years while in college, and graduated with a degree in physical education and health.

PERSONAL: Glenn is single and resides in Denver. He is a strong skier and a skilled golfer. A native of Boston, Mass., Glenn earned two letters each in football, hockey, and baseball at Lexington (Mass.) Berwick Academy.

Pro Year—4th
Year with Broncos—4th

Roger Jackson played in every game for the third straight season in 1984, seeing most of his action in five-defensive back situations and as a key special teams performer for the Broncos, blocking a punt in the divisional playoff game vs. Pittsburgh. Jackson again played all defensive backfield positions and had a key interception in overtime to set up the winning field goal at Los Angeles against the Raiders on (10/28.) He started three games at free safety in 1983 and posted his pro high of 56 total tackles that season. He made the club as a free agent out of Bethune-Cookman and has always impressed Bronco coaches with his aggressive play and versatility.

COLLEGE: Roger earned four letters and made All-SIAC as a defensive back at Bethune-Cookman College in Daytona Beach, Fla. He also returned punts for the Wildcats, was a team captain in football, and competed in track as a long jumper, winning two letters. Jackson graduated from Bethune-Cookman with a degree in physical education.

PERSONAL: Roger has a daughter, Andrika (10/21/77), and makes his off-season home in his native Macon, Ga., where he lettered three times in both football and track and once in basketball at Macon's Central HS. No. 57 TOM JACKSON Linebacker

Birthdate—April 4, 1951
Birthplace—Cleveland, Ohio
Residence—Denver, Colo.
How Acquired—Draft #4, 1973
College—Louisville
High School—John Adams HS, Cleveland, Ohio
Height—5-11
Weight—220
Pro Year—13th
Year with Broncos—13th

Tom Jackson was named by his teammates as the Broncos' most inspirational player for the fourth consecutive season in 1984, a campaign in which he started every game and finished fourth on the team in tackles with 141. Last year Jackson also recorded six quarterback sacks and defensed 13 passes, the latter figure leading all club linebackers. He was named second team All-NFL by College and Pro Football Newsweekly and also earned All-AFC honors from Pro Football Weekly and UPI (second team). Jackson also was cited by the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame as its pro athlete of the year for 1984. He has 20 career interceptions, a figure which ties him with the retired Randy Gradishar for the all-time club record among linebackers. A big play performer throughout his Bronco career, Jackson has returned three interceptions for touchdowns in the NFL, including a 73-yarder to clinch a critical win against Baltimore in the 1977 Super Bowl campaign. His total of seven interceptions in 1976 is Denver's single season record by a linebacker, and Jackson's career interception return yardage of 340 and his return average of 17.0 both are team highs by a linebacker. He has made three appearances in the Pro Bowl (1977, 1978, and 1979) and has been named first team All-Pro twice (1977 and 1978). Jackson was named by his teammates as Denver's defensive most valuable player in 1974, 1976, and 1977. He now has played in 163 games, 16 short of the team record held by the retired Billy Thompson, and has started 158 in his 12 Bronco campaigns.

COLLEGE: Tom was one of the most publicized players in the history of the University of Louisville, having made All-Missouri Valley Conference for three consecutive years, and being named the Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year twice, as a sophomore in 1970 and again as a senior in 1972. He played in the American Bowl and Blue-Gray game following his senior season. Jackson majored in business.

PERSONAL: Tom lists chess, pool, and swimming as his hobbies. As a high school athlete at John Adams HS in Cleveland, Jackson earned two letters in football as a linebacker, two in baseball, and three in wrestling.

NO. 86 MICHAEL McCOLLY (Butch) JOHNSON Wide Receiver

Birthdate—May 28, 1954
Birthplace—Los Angeles, Calif.
Residence—Castle Rock, Colo.
How Acquired—Trade with Houston Oilers, 1984
College—California-Riverside
High School—Dorsey HS, Los Angeles, Calif.
Height—6-1
Weight—187
Pro Year—10th
Year with Broncos—2nd

Butch Johnson recorded his professional highs in receptions (42), yards (587), touchdowns (six), and starts (nine) in 1984, his first season with the Broncos. He came to Denver in a preseason trade with the Houston Oilers, who had acquired him several months earlier from the Dallas Cowboys. Johnson, who is going into his 10th NFL season, also established new personal single-game highs last season against New England (11/4) with nine catches for 156 yards, which was the best performance of any Bronco receiver during the 1984 regular season. He played in all 16 games for Denver and stretched his consecutive games played streak to 84, having missed only five games as a professional. Johnson had his best year with the Cowboys in 1983 with 41 receptions for 561 yards and three touchdowns. He played in five NFC championship games with Dallas and is also a veteran of two Super Bowls. Against Denver in Super Bowl XII he caught two passes for 53 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown pass from Roger Staubach that helped to secure the Cowboy win. Johnson led Dallas in punt and kickoff returns from 1976 through 1978. A third round draft choice of the Cowboys in 1976, Johnson that year tied the NFL record for most punt returns in a game (nine) against Buffalo on 11/15.

COLLEGE: Butch led the nation in receiving in 1975 at California-Riverside with 67 catches for 1,027 yards in only eight games. He was named All-American and team most valuable player that season with the Highlanders. Butch finished his college career with 139 receptions and 17 touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Butch and his wife Julie have two sons, Michael (9/8/80) and Jeremy (2/2/82), and make their home in Castle Rock, Colo. He has worked as a sports reporter for KUSA-TV in Denver and KDFW-TV in Dallas, and is vice-president of the Dallas-based Imperial Foods. Johnson's brother-in-law is singer-songwriter Bill Withers, and former Massachusetts Senator Edward Brooke is his second cousin.

No. 75 RULON KENT JONES

Defensive End

Birthdate—March 25, 1958
Birthplace—Salt Lake City, Utah
Residence—Thornton, Colo.
How Acquired—Draft #2, 1980
College—Utah State
High School—Weber HS, Ogden, Utah
Height—6-6
Weight—260
Pro Year—6th
Year with Broncos—6th

Rulon Jones had his best season in 1984 as he led the team with 11 sacks and paced Denver's pass-rush unit to a club-record 57 sacks. Jones has registered 38 sacks in the last five years and has been the team leader in that department in two of the last three seasons. He led all defensive linemen in tackles last year with 105, blocked a field goal against Kansas City (9/23), and scored his first pro touchdown on a five-yard fumble recovery at Detroit (10/7). Jones started every game last season, extending his consecutive games started streak to 25, and now has started the last 54 games in which he has played. He missed four games in the 1983 campaign with a knee injury but still posted 72 tackles and four sacks. He had 9½ sacks in 1981, and in the previous season earned All-Rookie honors (UPI, Pro Football Weekly) as he paced the squad with 11½ sacks, the most by any Bronco since 1971. Denver's first pick in the 1980 draft. Rulon's best single-game performance was against Oakland at Denver in 1980, when he recorded three sacks and seven tackles. Jones has also been credited with two safeties in his pro career.

COLLEGE: Rulon was a four-year letterman and starter at Utah State, where he missed only one game during his collegiate career. In 1979 he was selected to second team spots on both the AP and NEA All-America squads and was named honorable mention by UPI. As a senior he was All-Pacific Coast Athletic Assn. and was named PCAA Defensive Player of the Year. Rulon's best college performance was a game against Fresno State in which he posted 15 tackles and three sacks. Jones played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl.

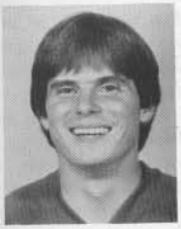

PERSONAL: Rulon and his wife Kathy have three sons, Garet (4/4/78), Dalton (11/23/81), and Chase (12/15/83), and the family makes its home in Thornton, Colo. At Weber HS in Ogden, Utah, he earned two letters each in football and basketball. Rulon loves to hunt and fish, and his hobbies include oil painting, particularly Western art, and sculpting.

No. 3 RICHARD JOHN (Rich) KARLIS

Kicker

Birthdate—May 23, 1959
Birthplace—Salem, Ohio
Residence—Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired—FA, 1982
College—Cincinnati
High School—Salem HS, Salem, Ohio
Height—6-0
Weight—180
Pro Year—4th
Year with Broncos—4th

Rich Karlis had another fine season as the Broncos' placekicker in 1984, connecting on 21 of 28 field goal attempts and pacing the club in scoring with 101 points, the first 100-point season of his career. His field goal percentage of .750 brings his career mark to .803, the all-time Bronco record, and Karlis holds three of the four best single season percentages in club annals. He has connected on 53 of 66 field goal attempts as a professional and is the only Denver kicker ever to reach the .800 level in accuracy. Last year Karlis hit the goal posts with game-tying field goal attempts in consecutive games (11/25 vs. Seattle and 12/2 at Kansas City), but rebounded strongly to finish the season with four consecutive successful attempts, including a game-winning kick vs. San Diego on 12/9. Karlis had five games in which he kicked three field goals last year. He twice has connected on 50-yard attempts as a pro, last year vs. San Diego (12/9) and in 1983 vs. Cleveland (12/4). Karlis was named to the Football Digest All-Rookie team in 1982 and connected on the first 11 field goal attempts of his pro career. A barefoot, soccer-style kicker, Karlis emerged from a 478-player free agent walk-on camp in May of 1982 to win the kicking job. He was in the Houston Oilers training camp in 1981.

COLLEGE: Rich earned three letters at Cincinnati and led the Bearcats in scoring as a senior with 41 points, including 12 extra points and 10 of 15 field goal attempts, six from beyond the 40-yard line. Primarily a kickoff specialist as a sophomore and junior, Karlis had a successful 50-yard field goal attempt as a senior. He has his degree in economics from Cincinnati.

PERSONAL: Rich and his wife Dena were married in May and make their home in the Denver suburb of Aurora. He worked with Sill-Terhar Ford during the off-season. He is a graduate of Salem HS in his native Salem, Ohio. Rich is extremely active in community service work and in 1984 was the Broncos' Lite Beer NFL Man of the Year, finishing among the top five in the national competition. Rich last year started a program called Points for People, which raises money for The Family Tree, an organization that provides shelter for abused women and children. Rich raised $65,000 through Points for People in 1984 and also was the 1984 Boy Scouts Service Award winner. He has worked for the benefit of numerous organizations, including Children's Hospital and Multiple Sclerosis.

No. 8 GARY KUBIAK

Quarterback

Birthdate—August 15, 1961
Birthplace—Houston, Tex.
Residence—Plantersville, Tex.
How Acquired—Draft #8, 1983
College—Texas A&M
High School—St. Pius HS, Houston, Tex.
Height—6-0
Weight—192
Pro Year—3rd
Year with Broncos—3rd

Gary Kubiak turned in another strong performance in 1984, starting two games in place of an injured John Elway and seeing duty in five more. He set a new Bronco single season interception avoidance record last season with a mark of .013, throwing just one interception in 75 attempts. Kubiak led the Broncos to a thrilling 22-19 overtime win over the Los Angeles Raiders (10/28), completing 21 of 34 passes for 206 yards and two touchdowns in his second start of the season. He suffered a concussion in his first start of the year at Chicago, knocking him out of the game. Kubiak also engineered a 75-yard drive that led to the winning score against Cincinnati (9/2) after Elway was injured. He also recorded a 20-yard reception against Buffalo (10/21) and scored on a three-yard run in the same game. As a rookie in 1983 Kubiak started in place of a flu-ridden Elway against Seattle (11/20), leading the Broncos to a 38-27 victory. He threw a 78-yard touchdown pass to Steve Watson and ran eight yards for another score in that game. For the season, he played in four games and he directed two fourth quarter scoring drives in the regular season finale at Kansas City (12/18). An eight-round draft choice of the Broncos, Kubiak impressed coaches with his knowledge of the game and his leadership abilities.

COLLEGE: Gary Kubiak made the Players' All-Southwest Conference team in 1982 and earned appearances in the Blue-Gray and Hula Bowl games for a season in which he led the SWC in attempts (324), completions (181), percentage (55.9), yardage (1,948), touchdowns (19), and total offense (1,885). As a junior at Texas A&M, Kubiak set conference records for single game TDs (six against Rice) and single game percentage (19 of 21 for 90.5 percent against Arkansas), and ranked second in the SWC in passing (1,908 yards) and total offense (1,986 yards). Gary has a degree in physical education.

PERSONAL: Gary and his wife Rhonda make their home in Plantersville, Tex. At St. Pius HS in his native Houston, Gary made all district, all-state, and All-America and set the state passing record with 6,190 yards. A brilliant prep athlete, he lettered all four years in football, basketball, and baseball, and made all-state in all three sports in both his junior and senior years. He was also all-state in track twice in high school.

Running Back

Birthdate—March 15, 1962
Birthplace—Pass Christian, Miss.
Residence—Pass Christian, Miss.
How Acquired—Draft #11, 1984
College—Louisiana State
High School—Pass Christian HS, Pass Christian, Miss.
Height—5-10
Weight—196
Pro Year—2nd
Year with Broncos—2nd

Gene Lang had a good rookie season with the Broncos, leading the club in kickoff returns with 19 for 404 yards, an average of 21.3. He saw action as a fullback when Denver used a two-back set, and also played in short-yardage situations. Lang scored three times despite handling the ball from scrimmage just 12 times. Denver's 11th-round draft choice in 1984, Lang impressed Bronco coaches with his quickness and running skills.

COLLEGE: Gene was a steady player at both tailback and fullback during his four seasons with Louisiana State, finishing with a 4.3 rushing average. As a senior he played in every game and finished third on the team in rushing with 252 yards while catching 15 passes for 113 yards and a touchdown. Gene started in the same backfield with third-year Bronco Jesse Myles.

PERSONAL: Gene is single and resides in his native Pass Christian, Miss. He had a brilliant high school career at Pass Christian HS, where he earned three letters each in track and football, rushing for over 3,000 yards in his career. Gene was all-conference twice in football and was the conference MVP as a senior, also being named the track team's most valuable runner all three years. Gene is one of nine children, and he spent the offseason studying at Louisiana State.

No. 76 KENNETH WAYNE (Ken) LANIER

Tackle

Birthdate—July 8, 1959
Birthplace—Columbus, Ohio
Residence—Denver, Colo.
How Acquired—Draft #5, 1981
College—Florida State
High School—Marion Franklin HS, Columbus, Ohio
Height—6-3
Weight—269
Pro Year—5th
Year with Broncos—5th

Ken Lanier started 15 games in 1984 and was a key member of the Denver offensive line that gave up the fewest sacks (35) since 1973. He played but did not start at the Los Angeles Raiders (10/28) because of an ankle injury that hampered him in the middle weeks of the season. A fulltime starter since 1982, Lanier has now started 40 of the last 41 games. In his rookie year Lanier had limited playing time, seeing action in eight games and starting one. He was named Denver's offensive player of the game for the only start of his rookie season. A fifth round draft choice in 1981, Lanier is a physically strong player, and Bronco coaches are looking forward to his continued development.

COLLEGE: Ken was known as the "Ironman" of Florida State's team because of his string of 46 consecutive games started during his four-year Seminole career. He was named to several All-America teams during his junior and senior seasons. In addition to his football career at FSU, Lanier performed weight duty for the Seminole track team and holds the school record in the shot put with a heave of 60'2". He was the Metro Conference champion in that event in his junior and senior years. Ken closed out his college football career with an appearance in the Senior Bowl, and graduated from Florida State with an industrial arts degree.

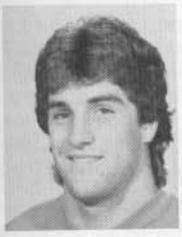

PERSONAL: Ken and his wife Vickie reside in Denver, where he has worked during the off-season as a sales representative for a local Chrysler dealership. A Columbus, Ohio native, he earned All-Ohio honors and three letters each in football and track at Marion Franklin HS in his hometown. Lanier set the Ohio state record with a heave of 66'5" in the shot as a senior.

How Acquired—Draft #3, 1984
College—Florida
High School—Woodbridge HS, Woodbridge, Va.
Height—6-0
Weight—199
Pro Year—2nd
Year with Broncos—2nd

Tony Lilly played in 13 games in 1984, primarily on special teams, although he did see some action at free safety. He intercepted a pass against Detroit (10/7) and stripped and recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half in the division-clinching victory at Seattle (12/15). The Broncos' third-round draft choice last year, Lilly is expected to battle for increased playing time in 1985.

COLLEGE: Tony was a three-time All-Southeast Conference player at Florida, and was named second-team All-America (Football News), and honorable mention All-America (AP) in his senior year. He was named 1983 Gator Bowl defensive Player of the Game for his two interception performances, which he duplicated in the Senior Bowl.

PERSONAL: Tony and his wife Peri Lynn make their offseason home in Aurora, Colo. A native of Alexandria, Va., Tony was first-team all-state, all-region, and all-district in his senior year at Woodbridge HS in Woodbridge, Va., where he earned four prep letters each in football and basketball, and one more in baseball. The national Punt, Pass, and Kick champion as an eighth grader, Tony was a management major at Florida.

Linebacker/Defensive End

Birthdate—September 1, 1960
Birthplace—Edina, Minn.
Residence—Wheat Ridge, Colo.
How Acquired—Draft #12, 1983
College—Minnesota
High School—Edina West HS, Edina, Minn.
Height—6-3
Weight—250
Pro Year—3rd
Year with Broncos—3rd

Karl Mecklenburg was one of 1984's biggest surprises, making an immediate impact in his conversion to linebacker from defensive end. He is expected to compete for a starting role in 1985 after a campaign that saw him record seven sacks, high among linebackers, and two interceptions for a club-leading 105 yards. Mecklenburg was used largely on third down and passing down situations last year, but also saw some action as a defensive end. He played in all 16 games in 1983, posting 24 tackles and two sacks after joining the Broncos as their 12th-round draft pick.

COLLEGE: Karl earned second team All-Big Ten Honors (AP and UPI) as a senior at Minnesota. He started his college career at Augustana College (South Dakota), but transferred to Minnesota in 1980, sitting out that season as a redshirt.

PERSONAL: Karl and his wife Kathi have a son, Luke (1/31/85), and the family makes its home in the Denver suburb of Westminster, Colo. Karl's mother is the former Deputy Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, and his father is a physician in the Washington, D.C. area. He was an all-conference selection, had also earned all-state honors at Edina West HS in his native Edina, Minn. Karl has a degree in biology and is an accomplished guitarist who also likes to hunt and fish.

No. 29 WILBUR LEE MYERS — Safety

Birthdate—August 17, 1961
Birthplace—Bassfield, Miss.
Residence—Bassfield, Miss.
How Acquired—FA, 1983
College—Delta State
High School—Bassfield HS, Bassfield, Miss
Height—5-11
Weight—195
Pro Year—2nd
Year with Broncos—2nd

Wilbur Myers will be rebounding in 1985 from a knee injury that kept him on injured reserve for all of last season. He suffered ligament damage in a car accident in the spring of 1984. Myers joined the Broncos as a free agent in 1983 and played in every game that season, seeing action primarily on special teams and as an extra defender in five and six-back alignments.

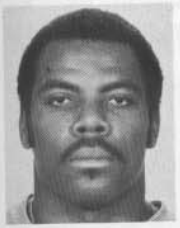

COLLEGE: Wilbur made All-Gulf South Conference as both a running back (1981) and as a safety (1982) at Delta State, earning four letters from 1979-82 for the Statesmen. He began his college football play at cornerback, then moved to running back for two years before returning to defense, also lettering twice in track at the Mississippi school. Wilbur earned Delta State's outstanding senior player award and graduated with a degree in business management.

PERSONAL: Wilbur is single and makes his off-season home in his native Bassfield, Miss., where he earned 12 prep letters—four each in football, basketball, and track—and was named the outstanding senior player at Bassfield HS. He lists swimming, fishing, hunting, dancing, and baseball as his hobbies.

No. 39 JESSE JAMES MYLES — Running Back

Birthdate—September 28, 1960
Birthplace—New Orleans, La.
Residence—Gray, La.
How Acquired—FA, 1983
College—Louisiana State
High School—H.L. Bourgeois HS, Gray, La.
Height—5-10
Weight—210
Pro Year—3rd
Year with Broncos—3rd

Jesse Myles saw limited action in 1984, spending 10 weeks on injured reserve after hurting his left shoulder in the season opener against Cincinnati (9/2). He returned to the active squad late in the season and played in the final five games. For the year Myles rushed five times for seven yards and gained 22 yards on two receptions. He is regarded by Denver coaches as a good receiver coming out of the backfield. In 1983 Myles caught seven passes for 119 yards and one touchdown during the regular season, and although he carried the ball only eight times, he compiled an impressive 6.5 yards per carry average. Myles scored the only Denver touchdown in Denver's 1983 playoff loss at Seattle, finishing the day as Denver's leading receiver with 73 yards on seven catches.

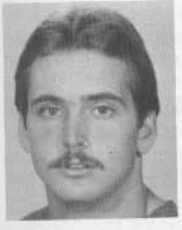

COLLEGE: Jesse was a productive running back at Louisiana State from 1979-82 and in his senior year averaged 5.7 yards per carry despite being switched from tailback to fullback. He suffered a broken leg in 1980 but came back to rush for 292 yards on 72 carries in 1981. Myles majored in criminal justice.

PERSONAL: Jesse is single and lives in Gray, La., where he attended H.L. Bourgeois HS. He earned three prep letters each in football, basketball, and track.

NO. 1 CHRIS COOPER NORMAN — Punter

Birthdate—May 25, 1962
Birthplace—Albany, Ga.

How Acquired—FA, 1984
College—South Carolina
High School—Dougherty HS, Albany, Ga.
Height—6-2
Weight—198
Pro Year—2nd
Year with Broncos—2nd

Chris Norman won the Broncos' punting job as a free agent in training camp and had an up-and-down rookie season, but still finished the year ranked in a fourth-place tie for best net punting average in the AFC with a 35.4 mark, good enough to tie for sixth-place in the entire NFL. Norman had eight punts inside the 20 and just one touchback in the last nine games of the season. He set records for longest punt (83 yards vs. Kansas City, 9/23) and best single game punting average (56.6 vs. Seattle, 11/25). Bronco coaches are impressed with Norman's hang time, and they feel he could be one of the league's better punters if he becomes more consistent.

COLLEGE: Chris was a punter at South Carolina from 1980-83. He majored in retail management while in college.

PERSONAL: Chris and his wife (Paula) make their home in Putney, Ga. He played football and baseball at Dougherty HS in his native Albany, Ga. Chris likes to hunt, fish, and play golf in his spare time.

No. 24 RICK U. PARROS Running Back

Birthdate—June 14, 1958
Birthplace—Brooklyn, N.Y.
Residence—Denver, Colo.
How Acquired—Draft #4, 1980
College—Utah State
High School—Granite HS, Salt Lake City, Utah
Height—5-11
Weight—200
Pro Year—5th
Year with Broncos—5th

Rick Parros returned to his original tailback position in 1984 after having been a fullback in his first three years in the Bronco system. He ran for 208 yards and two touchdowns on 46 carries last season, having his best day of the campaign against Minnesota (11/18) when he rushed seven times for 65 yards and a 9.3 average. In 1983 Parros played in only six games and spent the last eight games on injured reserve with a shoulder injury, carrying the ball only 30 times for 96 yards. He started every game in the 1981-82 seasons, leading the team in rushing in 1981 with 749 yards and in receptions with 37. Parros recorded his professional single-game bests that year with 20 attempts against Detroit (10/11) and 82 yards versus Seattle (12/13). Parros finished second on the team in rushing in 1982 with 277 yards, and he also caught his single game pro high of nine passes (for 59 yards) against San Diego in that season. A fourth round draft choice in 1980, Parros missed that entire season due to a training camp knee injury.

COLLEGE: Rick rushed for 3,621 yards and caught 70 passes in four years at Utah State, once gaining 252 yards on the ground against Fresno State. The all-time Utah State rushing leader, he scored 27 touchdowns and twice had 1,000-yard campaigns, and in 1979 led the Pacific Coast Athletic Conference in rushing and scoring. Parros made AP honorable mention All-America and first team All-PCAA in both 1978 and 1979, ending his college career as the leading rusher in both the Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray Game.

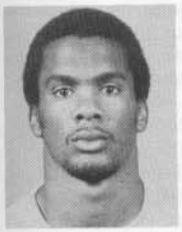

PERSONAL: Rick is single and resides in Denver. His hobbies include dogs, art, and water skiing. He won six letters, three each in football and track, at Granite HS in Salt Lake City.

Birthdate—September 14, 1962
Birthplace—Casa Grande, Ariz.
Residence—Casa Grande, Ariz.
How Acquired—Draft #4, 1984
College—Arizona
High School—Casa Grande Union HS, Casa Grande, Ariz.
Height—6-2
Weight—189
Pro Year—2nd
Year with Broncos—2nd

Randy Robbins is expected to compete for increased playing time in 1985 after a fine rookie season, recording one sack and two interceptions, including one for a 62-yard touchdown in a Sunday night game at Cleveland (9/16). Robbins played primarily in five-defensive back situations, but also saw action at the strong safety position. A superb athlete, Robbins played in all 16 games last year and started against Seattle (11/25) in place of the injured Dennis Smith. He knocked down nine passes and was in on 28 tackles in his limited playing time.

COLLEGE: Randy was an AP honorable mention All-American and earned first team All-PAC 10 honors in 1983, closing out his college career with a Senior Bowl appearance. A three-year starter at Arizona, Robbins intercepted 12 passes, returning a conference record four for touchdowns, as well as recording two fumble recoveries and a blocked punt.

PERSONAL: Randy is single and resides in his native Casa Grande, Ariz. At Casa Grande Union HS, he was a nine-letter winner, including two each in football, baseball, and track, and three in basketball. He saw action as a running back, defensive back, wide receiver, and kicker in high school. As a senior, Randy received all-league and all-county honors and was an Arizona Daily Blue Chip selection. He majored in business and public administration at Arizona.

No. 50 JAMES JOSEPH (Jim) RYAN Linebacker

Birthdate—May 18, 1957
Birthplace—Bellmawr, N.J.
Residence—Englewood, Colo.
How Acquired—FA, 1979
College—William and Mary
High School—Bishop Eustace HS, Pennsauken, N.J.
Height—6-1
Weight—218
Pro Year—7th
Year with Broncos—7th

Jim Ryan once again had a solid season at left outside linebacker in 1984, finishing with 106 total tackles, sixth on the team, and posting three quarterback sacks along with a pass interception and a fumble recovery. Ryan played in every game and started the last 14 after missing the first two starting assignments due to a knee injury suffered in training camp. The 106 tackles represent a career high for the one-time free agent who has missed just one game in his six-year pro career (he missed the 11/6/83 contest against Seattle due to an ankle injury). Ryan started all nine games of the strike-shortened 1982 season, his first campaign as a fulltime starter. He was a special teams captain in 1981 and 1982 and was named by his teammates as Denver's special teams most valuable player in 1981. A versatile athlete, Ryan has played all four linebacker positions for the Broncos.

COLLEGE: Jim won four letters as a linebacker at William and Mary, and as a senior he was player of the year and earned a berth on the Eastern College Athletic Conference all-star team. Ryan graduated with a degree in business management.

PERSONAL: Jim and his wife Sara reside in the Denver suburb of Englewood. He has his master's degree in business administration (MBA) from the University of Denver, where he concentrated his studies in real estate and construction management. Jim earned 12 varsity letters at Bishop Eustace HS in Pennsauken, N.J., four as a linebacker and tight end in football, four as a basketball forward, and four as a baseball catcher.

No. 84 CLINTON BERNARD (Clint) SAMPSON

Wide Receiver

Birthdate—January 4, 1961
Birthplace—Los Angeles, Calif.
Residence—Los Angeles, Calif.
How Acquired—Draft #3, 1983
College—San Diego State
High School—Crenshaw HS, Los Angeles, Calif.
Height—5-11
Weight—183
Pro Year—3rd
Year with Broncos—3rd

Clint Sampson will be coming back from a 1984 campaign in which he spent four weeks on injured reserve because of facial lacerations and a concussion suffered at Buffalo (10/21). He played primarily in a reserve role last year, although he started the first two games and the regular season finale, and caught nine passes overall for 123 yards and a touchdown. In the latter stages of 1983, Sampson moved into the starting lineup after an injury to Rick Upchurch. He finished the season with 10 catches for 200 yards and three touchdowns. Sampson's career-best performances came back to back in Denver's final home games that year against Cleveland and Baltimore. Against the Browns, Sampson caught three passes for 101 yards and scored twice on John Elway passes of 39 and 49 yards. The following week he had 36 yards on three catches and scored a touchdown in Denver's 21-19 come-from-behind victory over the Colts. Sampson played in all 16 games and was used primarily in three-receiver situations prior to becoming a starter.

COLLEGE: Sampson posted two-year totals of 52 receptions for 973 yards and eight touchdowns at San Diego State, earning honorable mention All-WAC honors in his senior year. He gained a starting role as a senior for the Aztecs, catching 32 passes for 685 yards and seven touchdowns, with his best day coming against Oklahoma State where he gained 141 yards and scored twice on only four receptions. He transferred to San Diego State from Mt. San Antonio JC, where he played football and ran track. Sampson was a member of the 440 relay team that broke the state JC record, and he was the 100 and 440-meter champion in the 1979 International track meet in Mexico. Clint has a degree in public administration and business management.

PERSONAL: Clint is single and lives in his native Los Angeles, Calif., where he was an Academic All-American at Crenshaw HS, lettering three times in track and twice each in football and basketball. His hobbies include swimming, cycling and music.

How Acquired—FA, 1983
College—Southern Mississippi
High School—Baker HS, Baker, La.
Height—6-2
Weight—230
Pro Year—9th
Year with Broncos—2nd

John Sawyer is expected to be fully recovered from a knee injury that forced him onto the injured reserve 11 weeks into the 1984 season. Prior to the injury, Sawyer was the starter at the Broncos' H-back position in Denver's one-back offense. His 17 receptions led all Broncos tight ends in 1984. Sawyer joined the Broncos in the tenth week of the 1983 season, playing in seven games and starting three when Denver opened with two-tight end formations. While with the Broncos, Sawyer caught three passes for 42 yards and was also a strong special teams performer. Sawyer played the first eight games of 1983 with Washington before being waived, subsequently signing with Denver. He was with Seattle from 1977-82, spending 1979 on injured reserve. An 11th-round draft choice of Houston in 1975, Sawyer played for the Oilers for two years before being waived prior to the 1977 season.

COLLEGE: John capped his college career with trips to the Senior Bowl and the All-America all-star game. Named to the All-Southern Independent team as a senior at Southern Mississippi, he was selected to the Golden Eagles' Hall of Fame in 1980.

PERSONAL: John and his wife Suzie have two sons, Wesley (2/28/79) and Mitchell (4/13/81), and they make their home in Ethel, La. He attended Baker HS in Baker, La., where he played football, basketball, and baseball. John has worked as a hunting consultant during the off-season.

No. 56 AARON CLAYTON SMITH

Linebacker

Birthdate—August 10, 1962
Birthplace—Los Angeles, Calif.
Residence—Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired—Draft #6, 1984
College—Utah State
High School—St. Bernard HS, Playa Del Rey, Calif.
Height—6-2
Weight—225
Pro Year—2nd
Year with Broncos—2nd

Aaron Smith played in 10 games in 1984, but suffered a knee injury against New England (11/4) and spent the remainder of the season on injured reserve. He played primarily on special teams but also saw limited action at linebacker. Denver's sixth-round draft choice in 1984, Smith impressed Bronco coaches with his toughness and mental approach to the game.

COLLEGE: Aaron was a second team All-Pacific Coast Athletic Association selection in 1983 after setting a new Utah State tackles record with 131. A three-year starter for the Aggies, he was regarded as a fine defender in man-to-man coverage and as a disciplined, intelligent player. Aaron graduated with degrees in sociology and health education and was a Dean's list student through high school and for all but two quarters in college.

PERSONAL: Aaron, who is single, is a native of Los Angeles, Calif. At St. Bernard HS in Playa Del Rey, Calif., he was named athlete of the year and was an all-league selection, lettering twice in football and track. He played tight end as well as linebacker in high school, and his track specialties were the shot put, mile relay and 400 relay. Aaron hopes to pursue interests in law enforcement and systems analysis. His younger brother Al plays football at Utah State.

No. 49 DENNIS SMITH

Safety

Birthdate—Feb. 3, 1959
Birthplace—Santa Monica, Calif.
Residence—Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired—Draft #1, 1981
College—Southern California
High School—Santa Monica HS, Santa Monica, Calif.
Height—6-3
Weight—200
Pro Year—5th
Year with Broncos—5th

Dennis Smith had another fine season as Denver's starting strong safety last year, and he was named All-NFL (Pro Football Weekly, College and Pro Football Newsweekly) and All-AFC (Pro Football Weekly, UPI-2nd team) for his efforts. Smith started all 15 games in which he played, sitting out the contest against Seattle (11/25) with a pinched nerve in his left shoulder, and he recorded three interceptions and nine passes defensed to go along with his 92 tackles and three sacks. Smith turned in one of the biggest plays of the season against New England (11/4) when he scooped up a Mosi Tatupu fumble and raced 64 yards for the winning score with less than two minutes remaining, his first touchdown as a professional. In 1983 Smith recorded professional highs of four interceptions, 114 tackles, and five quarterback sacks despite missing two games with a knee sprain. Smith led all club defensive backs in tackles with 65 in 1982 and as a rookie accounted for three turnovers to go along with 45 tackles. Dennis started the last three games of the 1981 campaign at right cornerback, and Bronco coaches have utilized him occasionally as a wide receiver in obvious long passing situations because of his great jumping ability. He made his first pro interception at Chicago in 1981 and returned it 65 yards, the longest interception return by a Bronco in the past four years. He took over as Denver's strong safety in 1982 and started eight of the nine contests in that strike-shortened campaign. Bronco coaches feel that Smith has the ability to dominate at strong safety and are looking forward to his continued development at that position.

COLLEGE: Dennis earned four letters in football and three more in track at Southern California, making several All-America teams following his senior season. His four-year totals included 205 tackles and 16 pass interceptions, including a team high of seven in 1978. Smith played in the Rose Bowl following the 1978 and 1979 seasons and in the Bluebonnet Bowl after the 1977 campaign. He demonstrated his athletic prowess as a seven-foot high jumper for the Trojan track team.

PERSONAL: Dennis and his wife, Andree, have a daughter, Tiffany Diamond (1/26/84), and they make their home in Aurora, Colo. Basketball and playing piano are Dennis' favorite hobbies. He works in the off-season with his own corporation. Smith lettered twice as a wide receiver and defensive back at Santa Monica HS, also earning three prep letters in track and one more in basketball.

Birthdate—November 22, 1955
Birthplace—San Antonio, Tex.
Residence—Littleton, Colo.
How Acquired—FA, 1979
College—Texas
High School—Pearsall HS, Pearsall, Tex.
Height—6-4
Weight—260
Pro Year—7th
Year with Broncos—7th

Dave Studdard had a superb season in 1984, allowing just one quarterback sack at his difficult left tackle position. He was a key member of the Denver offensive line that gave up the fewest number of sacks (35) since 1973. Studdard started every game last season, stretching his consecutive games started streak to 57, which ties him with Steve Watson as the team leader in that department. Studdard returned to his tackle position in 1983 after a year's experiment at guard. One of the best athletes on the offensive line, Studdard has recorded three pass receptions while playing tight end in short yardage situations, including one for a touchdown in a victory over Seattle in 1979. Originally a ninth round draft choice of the Baltimore Colts, he was waived by Baltimore at the end of their 1978 training camp and sat out that season. Studdard signed with Denver for 1979, became a starting tackle immediately and made the NFL All-Rookie team.

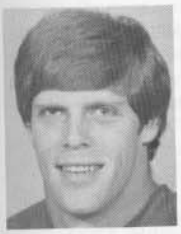

COLLEGE: Dave lettered three times and was an All-Southwest Athletic Conference player at the University of Texas, where he was a teammate of Houston running back Earl Campbell. He graduated with a degree in physical education.

PERSONAL: Dave and his wife Cecilia have a daughter, Katie (4/1/83); and a son, Kasey (7/1/84). They make their home in the Denver suburb of Littleton. An avid outdoorsman, he lists hunting as his favorite hobby. At Pearsall (Texas) HS he earned 11 letters, three in football as a tight end, three in basketball as a center, three as a weight man in track and field, and two more in baseball as a first baseman. Studdard is a nephew of Howard Fest, former guard with Cincinnati and Tampa Bay.

How Acquired—FA, 1984
College—Boise State
High School—Medford HS, Medford, Ore.
Height—6-4
Weight—226
Pro Year—2nd
Year with Broncos—2nd

Don Summers made the 1984 Bronco squad as a free agent. He play primarily on special teams, but also saw limited action at the H-back position, catching three passes for 32 yards. In preseason play Summers caught a 16-yard scoring pass against Washington. Summers is expected to compete for more playing time in 1985. He had a 1984 tryout with the Oakland franchise of the USFL.

COLLEGE: Don played two years of college football, 1982-83, as a tight end at Boise State. He redshirted in 1981 after transferring from Oregon Tech, which he attended from 1979-81. He majored in psychology.

PERSONAL: Don and his wife (Kenna) make their home in Boise, Idaho. A native of Grants Pass, Ore., Don graduated from Medford (Ore.) HS, where he lettered three times each in football, track, and basketball. Don enjoys hunting, fishing, cars, and planes.

NO. 61 ANDRE TOWNSEND
Defensive End/Nose Tackle

Birthdate—October 8, 1962
Birthplace—Chicago, Ill.
Residence—University, Miss.
How Acquired—Draft #2, 1984
College—Mississippi
High School—Aberdeen HS, Aberdeen, Miss.
Height—6-3
Weight—265
Pro Year—2nd
Year with Broncos—2nd

Andre Townsend had a good rookie season as Denver's first choice in the 1984 draft registered five sacks, which led all reserve linemen, and 51 tackles. He played primarily at defensive end last year and had his best game against New England, when he sacked the quarterback twice and was in on 13 tackles. Townsend impressed Bronco coaches with his outstanding play in short-yardage and goal-line situations.

COLLEGE: Andre was a three-year starter at the University of Mississippi, where he earned second team All-Southeastern Conference honors in his junior and senior years and was a third-team Football News All-America selection in his final collegiate campaign. He was named defensive MVP against Air Force in the 1983 Independence Bowl and also had an excellent game in the Senior Bowl that year, registering two sacks and blocking the game-tying extra point attempt in the South's 21-20 victory. He majored in urban administration.

PERSONAL: Andre is single and resides in University, Miss. He was born in Chicago, Ill., but grew up in Aberdeen, Miss., where he earned six varsity letters, two each in football, basketball, and track at Aberdeen HS. Andre received all-state honors as well as honorable mention All-America acclaim as a senior gridder, making All-Little 10 Conference on both offense (TE) and defense (DT). Andre also led his high school basketball team in scoring with a 19.9 average. He has a daughter, Devin Andrenet.

No. 81 STEPHEN ROSS (Steve) WATSON

Wide Receiver

Birthdate—May 28, 1957
Birthplace—Baltimore, Md.
Residence—Aurora, Colo.
How Acquired—FA, 1979
College—Temple University
High School—St. Mark's HS, Wilmington, Del.
Height—6-4
Weight—195
Pro Year—7th
Year with Broncos—7th

Steve Watson had another tremendous season last year, catching his pro high of 69 passes (sixth in the AFC) for 1,170 yards (fourth in the AFC), averaging 17.0 yards per catch and scoring seven touchdowns while recording his third 1,000-yard campaign in the past four years. He now has caught passes for 4,102 yards in that time frame, a figure exceeded only by James Lofton of Green Bay (4,651). Watson combined with running back Sammy Winder to give Denver 1,000-yard performers in both receiving and rushing for the first time in franchise history—the Broncos were one of only three clubs to have that combination last year. Watson's sterling 1984 performance included three regular season 100-yard games and one more in the playoffs, giving him a career total of 16, and he comes into 1985 having caught at least one pass in 58 of his last 60 games. His career average per catch of 18.3 is the second highest figure in team history. In the Broncos' division playoff game against Pittsburgh (12/30) he caught his pro high of 12 passes for 177 yards. Watson was named by his teammates as Denver's offensive most valuable player last year, an honor which he also received in 1981 and 1983. Watson had a brilliant season in 1981, leading the AFC in reception yardage with 1,244 and pacing the entire NFL in reception touchdowns with 13. His rise to prominence was one of the NFL's most remarkable stories in 1981, as the former free agent from Temple moved into the starting lineup in the second week of the season and rewrote the Bronco record books. He caught 60 passes and set new team records for reception yards (the previous record was 1,235, set by Lionel Taylor in 1960) and TDs (the previous record was 12 by Taylor in 1960). His 13 TDs tied the Denver single season total recorded by Floyd Little in 1972 and 1973. He was named All-AFC by UPI and earned a trip to the Pro Bowl in 1981. Watson has had 16 100-yard games, with his high yardage total of 183 coming at Los Angeles against the Rams in 1982, also posting his single game regular season reception high of 10 in that contest. He has caught touchdown passes of 95 and 93 yards, and holds the Denver record for longest non-scoring reception with an 86-yard play against Kansas City in 1981. Steve caught three TD passes against Baltimore in 1981, scored twice in three other games, and had a streak of at least one TD pass in five straight games that year. Not drafted, Watson signed with Denver in 1979 and has played in every Bronco game since then, being used primarily as a special teams player until two years ago.

COLLEGE: Steve was a four-year letterman at wide receiver for Temple and was selected to the All-East team, playing in the East-West Shrine Game to close out his college career. He also won three letters and two conference championships as a long jumper, graduating with a degree in parks administration.

PERSONAL: Steve and his wife Pam make their home in Aurora, Colo. He is presently studying for an associate degree in financial planning and plans to pursue a master's degree in business. Watson was a nine-letter man at St. Mark's HS in Wilmington, Del., earning three each in football, basketball, and track. Steve is extremely active in community service work and in 1983 was the Broncos' Miller NFL Man of the Year, finishing among the top five in the national competition. He was the honorary chairman of the American Cancer Society in Colorado for 1982 and also has been involved in promotional work for the Children's Hospital of Denver, the March of Dimes, and the Multiple Sclerosis Foundation.

No. 47 GERALD WILLIAM WILLHITE

Running Back

Birthdate—May 30, 1959
Birthplace—Sacramento, Calif.
Residence—Rancho Cordova, Calif.
How Acquired—Draft #1, 1982
College—San Jose State
High School—Cordova HS, Rancho Cordova, Calif.
Height—5-10
Weight—200
Pro Year—4th
Year with Broncos—4th

Gerald Willhite will move to the fullback position in 1985 and will also see action at Denver's H-back spot when the team goes to a one-back set. He had a fine season in 1984, ranking second on the club in rushing with a career-high 371 yards, third in reception yardage with 298, and his 200 yards in punt returns was the team high. Willhite had his career-best rushing performance against the Los Angeles Raiders (9/30) when he gained 82 yards on 21 carries, and then followed that with an 81-yard game against Detroit (10/7) in his only start of the season. Willhite, last year, had Denver's longest run from scrimmage (52 yards), longest punt return (35 yards) and kickoff return (40 yards), as well as the team's second longest reception (63 yards). A versatile athlete, he holds the Bronco career rushing average record with a 4.8 mark. Willhite had a disappointing season in 1983, missing the first eight regular season games with a strained hamstring. He led the team that year with a rushing average of 4.4 yards per carry and his 10.9 average on 10 receptions was tops among all backs who had 10 or more catches. As Denver's first-round draft choice in 1982, Willhite led the club in rushing with 347 yards, and he racked up 974 all-purpose yards in his strike-shortened rookie season.

COLLEGE: Gerald made honorable mention All-America and earned All-Pacific Coast Athletic Association honors as a senior at San Jose State, finishing his career as the leading ballcarrier in Spartan history. Willhite rushed for 2,364 yards in two seasons, also catching 107 passes for 927 yards and scoring 28 touchdowns. He had two consecutive seasons with over 1,000 yards rushing and more than 50 receptions, making him one of only two players ever to accomplish that feat. Gerald capped his college career with appearances in the East-West Shrine Game and the Olympia Gold Bowl. He also made All-PCAA in 1980 and was the conference's offensive player of the year as a junior. Willhite transferred to San Jose State from American River JC in Sacramento, which was where he first played organized football as a freshman. A recreation major, he also lettered four times in track as a sprinter.

PERSONAL: Gerald is single and makes his off-season home in Rancho Cordova, Calif. where he earned prep letters in track and wrestling at Cordova HS. His hobbies include fishing and horseback riding.

No. 45 STEVEN ANTHONY (Steve) WILSON Cornerback

Birthdate—Aug. 24, 1957
Birthplace—Los Angeles, Calif.
Residence—Westminster, Colo.
How Acquired—FA, 1982
College—Howard
High School—Northern HS, Durham, N.C.
Height—5-10
Weight—195
Pro Year—7th
Year with Broncos—4th

Steve Wilson had another fine year in 1984, intercepting four passes and leading all reserve defensive backs in tackles with 48. He started against Cincinnati (9/2) in place of the injured Louis Wright, and missed the game against New England (11/4) due to a hamstring injury, only the second time in his pro career that he failed to suit up. Although he has played primarily in a backup role since arriving in Denver in 1982, Wilson's 11 interceptions in that time frame tie him with Steve Foley for second-highest on the team. In 1983 Wilson started three of the 16 games in which he played when injuries forced a realignment of the defensive backfield. All five of Wilson's interceptions that year came during his three weeks as a starter, including a career-high three in Denver's 38-27 win over Seattle. Wilson was also second on the team in kickoff returns with 24 for 485 yards and a 20.2 average, and he also caught 12-yard pass in Denver's playoff loss to the Seahawks. Wilson joined the Broncos one game into the 1982 season and went on to play in eight games, starting three. He intercepted two passes in the 1982 campaign, one of which came in the closing seconds to secure a win over the Los Angeles Rams. Originally signed by Dallas as a free agent wide receiver, Wilson led the Cowboys in punt returns in 1979 while catching three passes for a 25.3 average. He converted to cornerback in 1980 and started 11 games there, intercepting four passes in the regular season and two more in the playoffs. He led the Cowboys that year in passes defended with 41 and started the first four games of 1981 before being displaced by Everson Walls. Wilson moved back to wide receiver in 1982, but was a late cut and subsequently joined the Broncos. He is an excellent athlete, as his pro experience on offense, defense, and special teams indicates. He has missed just one game in his pro career.

COLLEGE: Steve finished his four-year Howard University career as the Washington, D.C. school's all-time leading receiver and kick returner. Wilson caught 94 passes for 1,399 yards and 12 touchdowns, all Howard records. He earned All-Mid-Eastern Conference honors in 1978, and has a degree in marketing from Howard.

PERSONAL: Steve and his wife Cathy have a son, Ryen Anthony (11/2/82), and the family makes its home in Westminster, Colo. A Los Angeles native, he was raised in Durham, N.C., and graduated from Durham's Northern HS. Steve is the son of "Touchdown" Tommy Wilson, a two-time Pro Bowl running back with the Los Angeles Rams (1956-61) who also played for the Cleveland Browns and Minnesota Vikings.

No. 23 SAMMY WINDER

Running Back

Birthdate—July 15, 1959
Birthplace—Madison, Miss.
Residence—Jackson, Miss.
How Acquired—Draft #5, 1982
College—Southern Mississippi
High School—Ridgeland HS, Madison, Miss.
Height—5-11
Weight—203
Pro Year—4th
Year with Broncos—4th

Sammy Winder had an outstanding season in 1984, as the Southern Mississippi back rushed for over 1,000 yards and was tabbed as Denver's lone representative in the Pro Bowl. His 1,153 yards rushing ranked third in the AFC and 11th in the NFL, and was the second highest total in Bronco history. Winder was the first Bronco back since Otis Armstrong in 1976 to reach the 1,000-yard plateau, and he also set Denver records for number of attempts in a season (296) and in a single game (34 at Los Angeles Raiders, 10/28). Winder was second highest on the team in receptions as well, catching 44 passes for 288 yards, and his 1,441 total yards from scrimmage ranked second in the conference. He ran for two 100-yard games last season, bringing his career total to four, and had four more games in which he gained over 90 yards on the ground. Winder was also second on the team in touchdowns scored with six. Winder moved into a starting role in 1983, rushing for 757 yards despite missing two whole games and virtually all of another with a sprained ankle. He was ranked 12th in the AFC and his rushing total was the eighth highest in Bronco history. Winder's best day as a pro came that year at Houston, where he rushed 29 times for 165, the third highest single game total in Bronco history. He recorded his longest run from scrimmage as a pro with a 52-yard jaunt at Houston. Two weeks earlier he had rushed for 119 yards against the Los Angeles Raiders, which was the first time since 1980 that a Bronco back had gone over 100 yards in a game. Winder was drafted by the Broncos in the fifth round in 1982 and he rushed for 259 in his strike-shortened rookie season.

COLLEGE: Sammy was an extremely productive player at Southern Mississippi, setting school career records for rushing attempts (736), rushing touchdowns (39), and points (234). The second all-time leading Southern Mississippi rusher, he gained 3,114 yards there and led the nation in scoring in 1980 with 20 TDs for 120 points. A two-time All-South Independent selection and honorable mention All-America, Winder had nine 100-yard games in his career and had a personal high of 175 rushing yards against Memphis State in 1981. He earned four college letters.

PERSONAL: Sammy is single and makes his off-season home in Jackson, Miss. He graduated from Ridgeland HS in his native Madison, Miss., lettering three times as a fullback and four times in track and field. Sammy lists hunting and fishing as his favorite hobbies.

No. 52 KENNETH EMIL (Ken) WOODARD

Linebacker

Birthdate—Januaruy 22, 1960
Birthplace—Detroit, Mich.
Residence—Detroit, Mich.
How Acquired—Draft #10, 1982
College—Tuskegee Institute
High School—Martin Luther King HS, Detroit, Mich.
Height—6-1
Weight—218
Pro Year—4th
Year with Broncos—4th

Ken Woodard had his best season as a pro last year and is expected to battle for a starting spot in 1985. He recorded his first career interception at Detroit (10/7), his hometown, and returned it 27 yards for a touchdown. Woodard started against Cincinnati (9/2) and at Chicago (9/9), and played in every game for the third straight season. He finished the season with 49 tackles, three quarterback sacks, and three passes defensed. A consistent member of Denver's special teams, Woodard was named by teammates as that unit's most valuable player for the second consecutive year. He played in every game in 1983, making his first professional start against San Diego, in place of injured Tom Jackson. He was credited with two quarterback sacks and he recovered a fumble while playing at his right outside linebacker position. Woodard, a tenth round draft choice in 1982, has been timed at 4.5 seconds in the 40-yard dash.

COLLEGE: Ken was a four-year letter winner at Tuskegee Institute in Tuskegee, Ala., where recorded 10 quarterback sacks, intercepted three passes, and recovered two fumbles in a banner 1981 campaign. Woodard made All-Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference three times, won a berth on the Sheridan Black Network small college All-America team, and played in both the Blue-Gray and Black College All-Star games as a senior. He was team captain in his second year.

PERSONAL: Ken is single and makes his off-season home in his native Detroit, Mich., where he earned seven prep letters at Martin Luther King HS. He lettered three times each in football and swimming and once in track (440 and 880-yard relays). During the off-season, Ken worked toward completing his major in computer science. Ken lists swimming as his hobby.

No. 87 JAMES W. (Jim) WRIGHT — Tight End

Birthdate—September 1, 1956
Birthplace—Ft. Hood, Tex.
Residence—Houston, Tex.
How Acquired—FA, 1980
College—Texas Christian
High School—Brenham HS, Brenham, Tex.
Height—6-3
Weight—240
Pro Year—6th
Year with Broncos—5th

Jim Wright split his 1984 playing time between the tight end and H-back positions, catching 11 passes for 118 yards and scoring a touchdown in the division-clinching win at Seattle (12/15). Wright missed the final 10 games of the 1983 season because of a pinched nerve injury, but still managed to establish his professional highs in receptions (13) and yards (134) that year. Wright had his best game as a pro at Chicago in 1983 with 65 yards on five receptions, both marks being personal single-game highs. Wright played in every game during the 1981-82 seasons, starting the final three games of 1982. In 1981 he played primarily on special teams and in formations which called for two tight ends, scoring his first pro touchdown in Denver's 42-24 victory over San Diego that year. Wright joined the Broncos as a free agent at the end of the 1980 campaign, playing in the final game of the year. Drafted in the seventh round by Atlanta in 1978, he stuck with the Falcons as a rookie, catching two passes for 26 yards in a reserve role. Wright missed the entire 1979 season on injured reserve, then was waived by Atlanta at the close of the 1980 preseason, subsequently joining the Broncos.

COLLEGE: Jim played two seasons as a tight end at Texas Christian University, earning two letters while catching 26 passes for the Horned Frogs. He was used primarily as a blocking tight end in the TCU offense. Wright graduated with a bachelor's degree in psychology.

PERSONAL: Jim and his wife Glenda have a daughter, Stephanie (9/21/80), and a son, James III (9/28/82), and the family resides in Houston, Tex. Jim is enrolled in graduate school (public administration) at the University of Houston in the off-season, and he has also taken some computer programming classes at Houston. His hobbies are landscaping and classic cars — he has restored a 1952 Chevy coupe, a 1953 Ford pickup truck, and a 1963 Chevy Impala. He also does extensive work in youth programs. At Brenham HS in Brenham, Tex., Wright won three letters in football and two in track as a sprinter.

No. 20 LOUIS DONNEL WRIGHT — Cornerback

Birthdate—January 31, 1953
Birthplace—Gilmer, Texas
Residence—Los Angeles, Calif.
How Acquired—Draft #1, 1975
College—San Jose State
High School—Bakersfield HS, Bakersfield, Calif.
Height—6-3
Weight—200
Pro Year—11th
Year with Broncos—11th

Louis Wright had another outstanding season in 1984, giving up only one touchdown pass in the regular season, and scoring his first touchdown since 1977. Wright was named All-NFL by the Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly and earned second team honors from the College and Pro Football Weekly and NEA. He made the Pro Football Weekly All-AFC squad and was a second team All-AFC selection by UPI, and was named most valuable defensive player by his teammates for the second time in the last three years. Wright saw only limited action in the 1984 preseason due to a strained calf and a pulled thigh muscle that hampered him throughout training camp. He played but did not start in the season opener against Cincinnati (9/2), but he went on to start every game after that. Against Green Bay in a nationally televised contest Wright scored on a 27-yard fumble return on the Packers' second offensive play from scrimmage (Steve Foley scored on a fumble return on Green Bay's first play). He also recorded an interception last year and broke up 14 passes. Wright had a career-high six interceptions in 1983 and was named to the Pro Bowl for his efforts, also having been named to the team in 1977, 1978 and 1979. He enters his 11th season as a Bronco with 18 career interceptions and 10 fumble recoveries. A first-round draft choice by Denver from San Jose State in 1975, Wright has recorded a 4.4 second time in the 40-yard dash.

COLLEGE: Louis had an outstanding two-year career at San Jose State after transferring from Bakersfield JC, lettering twice as a defensive back and capping his career with appearances in the East-West Shrine Game and the College All-Star Game. He was an All-Coast football selection, and also won two letters as a 9.6 sprinter in the 100, posted a 21.2 time in the 220, a 47.6 in the 440, and had a long jump of 25'7" for the track team. Wright majored in business management.

PERSONAL: Louis and his wife Vicki have two daughters, Summer Marie (3/12/79) and Kyla Lynn (10/1/82) and the family makes its off-season home in Los Angeles, Calif. At Bakersfield (Calif.) HS, Louis played wide receiver and defensive end in earning two varsity letters, in addition to winning two track letters as a sprinter and long jumper.

Reserve List

The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Those players in the category of Reserve/Injured who were physically unable to play football for a minimum of four weeks from the date of going onto Reserve may be re-activated by their clubs upon clearing procedural recall waivers; in addition, each club will have five free re-activations for players meeting the four-week requirement, but only one of the free re-activations can be used for a player placed on Reserve/Injured prior to or concurrent with the final cutdown on September 2. Clubs participating in postseason competition will be granted an additional free re-activation. Players not meeting the four-week requirement may not return in the same season to the Active List of the club which originally placed them on Reserve, but may be assigned through the waiver system to other clubs. Players in the category of Reserve/Retired may not be reinstated during the period from 30 days before the end of the regular season on through the postseason.

Weight—190
Pro Year—4th
Year with Broncos—3rd

Wade Manning signed a 1985 free agent contract with the Broncos during the offseason and will return to the cornerback position, having played at that spot for his first two NFL seasons. He sat out the 1984 season after being released by the Cleveland Browns in the latter stages of their training camp. He tried out with the USFL's Denver franchise in early 1984 but did not make the final roster. Manning was a wide receiver and return specialist for the Broncos in 1981-82, leading the club in kickoff returns in both campaigns, and was one of the final cuts following Denver's 1983 training camp. He came to the Broncos just prior to the 1981 regular season in a trade with Buffalo, one week after he was traded to the Bills from Dallas. Manning did not play college football but earned a spot on the Dallas roster as a free agent cornerback and kick returner in 1979, playing in nine games for the Cowboys. He was on injured reserve in 1980, after having had cartilage surgery on his right knee.

COLLEGE: Wade was a three-year centerfielder at Ohio State, batting .325 with a team-leading six home runs and a school record 23 stolen bases to earn All-Big 10 honors as a senior. He stole 44 bases in his career.

PERSONAL: Wade and his wife Emma Jean reside in Aurora, Colo. He has a son, Jason Wade (10/27/78). An outstanding baseball player at Shaker Heights (Ohio) HS, Manning was drafted by the Cleveland Indians out of high school and by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1976. Prior to his pro career, the last time he played football was as a 5-11, 135-pound high school safety. Wade is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

RONALD CRAIG (Ron) ANDERSON LB
6-1, 215 DOB: Sept. 16, 1962 Southern Methodist
Draft Choice #10b

Ron Anderson played three seasons as an outside linebacker after starting his college career as a defensive back for Southern Methodist, where he was considered by coaches to be one of the strongest and quickest members of the Mustang defense. One of the best athletes on his college squad, Anderson recorded his career high of 59 tackles and three quarterback sacks as a senior, intercepting one pass and recovering a fumble. He played in every game over the last three years and finished with a career total of 128 tackles and five sacks. A native of Morton, Tex., Anderson was a star athlete at Levelland HS in Levelland, Tex., where he lettered three times each in football and basketball, twice in track, and once in baseball. He was all-district two years in high school as a safety and tailback. During his prep career he averaged 6.3 yards per carry, seven tackles a game, and intercepted nine passes, also anchoring the high school 400 and 1600 meter relays. Ron is married (Margarita), and majored in business at SMU.

DALLAS CAMERON NT Miami (Fla.)
6-2, 245 DOB: Nov. 6, 1962
Draft Choice #7

Dallas Cameron saw action all along the defensive line for the University of Miami last year, including middle guard, tackle, and end, recording 31 total tackles and one quarterback sack. Cameron posted his season high of 11 tackles at Michigan and closed out his career with a total of 102 tackles, 66 unassisted, and two fumble recoveries. He ended his college career with an appearance as a starter against UCLA in the Fiesta Bowl. Regarded by Miami coaches as a player with explosive quickness and tremendous upper body strength, Cameron earned three letters while playing for the Golden Hurricanes. A native of Lake City, S.C., he was a first-team all-state pick at offensive tackle as a senior at Melbourne (Fla.) HS, after having been a first-team all-Cape Coast selection at that position as a junior. As a prepster Cameron was a three-year two-way starter who earned all-conference honors on both sides of the ball during his final year of play, earning team most valuable player honors as well. A business management major at Miami, Dallas enjoys fishing as a hobby.

SIMON RAYNARD FLETCHER DE Houston
6-6, 245 DOB: Feburary 18, 1962
Draft Choice #2b

Simon Fletcher was a three-year starter at the University of Houston, where he posted career figures fo 142 unassisted tackles and 209 total, including 30 tackles for losses and 14 quarterback sacks. Fletcher also defensed 10 passes during a career in which he started 33 of the 37 games in which he played for the Cougars. In 1984 he was second on the team in tackles for losses (11 for 52 yards) and quarterback sacks (eight), despite playing the last six games with a pinched nerve in his shoulder. Fletcher saw just seven minutes of varsity action in 1980 and was a redshirt in 1981 before moving into the Cougar starting lineup, where he played both right tackle (1982 and 1984) and right end (1983). His final college game was against Boston College in the Cotton Bowl. He earned letters in both football and track at Bay City HS in his native Bay City, Tex., and has an older brother who played football at Texas A & I.

HAROLD GLEN (Buddy) FUNCK, JR. QB
6-2, 192 DOB: March 22, 1963 New Mexico
Draft Choice #10a

Buddy Funck was a two-year starter at New Mexico who passed for 2,497 yards and a 52.4 completion percentage for the Lobos, also rushing the ball for 1,118 yards. He scored 13 touchdowns on the ground and passed for 13 more, and his total career yardage figure of 3,685 is the sixth best ever in New Mexico history. An elusive runner, Funck rushed for 633 yards and eight scores as a junior, and that year had a combined yardage figure of 2,154, third best ever in Lobo annals. He missed four full games and part of another as a senior due to a cracked fibular suffered against Colorado State, and his club was winless without him. Funck's best day was a 261-yard performance (210 passing, 51 rushing) at home against San Diego State in 1983, while his best rushing performance was a 113-yard effort against New Mexico State in 1984. His longest completion was a 77-yarder against UTEP. A native of Albuquerque who returned there for his college career, Funck grew up in Ft. Worth, Tex., and attended Ft. Worth's Richland HS, where he was all-area, second-team all-county, and the district's offensive most valuable player as a senior quarterback. He earned six prep letters, three in football, two in basketball and one in baseball.

WILLIAM DEWAYNE (Billy) HINSON G Florida
6-1, 270 DOB: January 8, 1963
Draft Choice #5

Billy Hinson is a strong, durable athlete who started every game of his senior year and closed out his college career with an appearance in the Blue-Gray game. Hinson played offensive guard in his last two years at Florida, after having switched between that position and middle guard on defense during his first two seasons with the Gators. Hinson lettered three times overall and started 12 games as a collegian. As a senior he was named by USA Today as offensive player of the week (along with the rest of the Florida line) after the Auburn game. A native of Folkston, Ga., Hinson was a prep All-American and all-state as a senior at Hilliard HS in Hilliard, Fla., in addition to being the state weightlifting champion. He also lettered in track, specializing in the shot put. Billy is married (Dana), and likes lifting weights, hunting, and fishing.

VANCE EDWARD JOHNSON — WR — Arizona

5-10, 174 DOB: March 13, 1963
Draft Choice #2a

Vance Johnson was the University of Arizona's key player at tailback over his four-year career, finishing fifth in school career scoring (168 points), sixth in receiving (78), and fourth in all-purpose running (3,442 yards). The Wildcats' gamebreaker, he was a first team all-Pac-10 selection at running back in 1982 after leading the league in kickoff returns with a 27.2 average (including a 93-yard touchdown jaunt), also pacing the club in rushing with 443 yards and four scores. In 1983 Johnson posted the league high in touchdowns with 13, including 10 rushing. He made the Blue Chip Magazine 1981 freshman All-America second team, setting four school freshman records, including yards rushing (654), kickoff return yardage (592), and all-purpose yardage (1,557). He had his career high of 183 yards rushing against Fresno State in 1981. He twice led the team in rushing and at one point caught a touchdown pass in five straight games. As a senior Johnson posted his personal highs in reception yards (340), average per catch (13.1), and reception touchdowns (four), finishing his college career with 32 TDs (20 rushing, 11 receiving, one by kickoff return). Johnson closed out his career with appearances in the East-West Shrine Game (in which he caught seven passes and threw a touchdown pass) and the Senior Bowl. He possesses tremendous speed and was a great track athlete as well, capturing the 1982 NCAA long jump title with a 26'-11½" effort and winning the 1984 Pac-10 long jump title, finishing second in the NCAA last year. Johnson has blazing speed and was an alternate in the long jump on the 1984 Olympic team, missing the team by just one inch. He finished fourth in the Pac-10 100-meters in 1984 with a 10:28 mark and most recently was chosen to compete in the long jump with the American Olympic team in Monaco, France this spring, but decided to pass up the opportunity because of his football career. A native of Trenton, N.J., he was raised in Tucson, Az., and lettered twice in football and four times in track at Tucson's Cholla HS, where he scored 22 touchdowns as a senior and had a 9.1 yard rushing average while gaining 1,382 yards. He set school records in the long jump, high jump, 100 and 220-yard dashes, and was Arizona's state long jump champion in 1980. Johnson was all-state in football in 1980 as well. Vance was a commercial art major at Arizona.

DANIEL WALBRIDGE (Dan) LYNCH — G — Washington State

6-3, 265 DOB: June 21, 1962
Draft Choice #12

Dan Lynch started all 33 games over the last three seasons at Washington State, earning numerous All-America honors last year (AP, Football News, Football Writers of America second team, UPI honorable mention) and closing out his career with appearances in the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl, declining an invitation to play in the Blue-Gray Classic. Lynch played sparingly in 1980 as a freshman, was a reserve player in 1981, then became a starting guard in 1982, earning the first of three consecutive Pac-10 All-Academic citations. In 1983 he was Pac-10 first team, UPI All-West Coast second team, AP All-America honorable mention, and received an extra year of eligibility because he had played in less than 20 percent of his team's games as a freshman. Thus, Lynch is one of the few players in college history to have played in two Senior Bowl games (following the 1983 and 1984 campaigns). Born in Rochester, Minn., Lynch graduated from Lewis and Clark HS in Spokane, Wash., where he was selected all-Greater Spokane and all-state as a senior, also playing prep basketball and baseball. Dan's brother Pat was a teammate of his at Washington State, and his father is a neurosurgeon.

KELI SCOTT McGREGOR — TE — Colorado State

6-6, 250 DOB: January 23, 1963
Draft Choice #4

Keli McGregor finished his Colorado State playing career with 153 receptions, second best total in CSU history and fifth in WAC career records. In 1984 he was a preseason All-American choice of several national publications, including Playboy Magazine, and he went on to catch 47 passes, tops on the team for the second straight season, good for 479 yards and three scores. As a senior he had seven catches for 105 yards vs. Wyoming, then caught eight for 62 yards the following week against Utah. McGregor was named second-team All-WAC and earned second-team All-America honors (UPI). As a junior McGregor caught a school record 69 passes for 717 yards and two touchdowns on his way to second-team All-WAC honors and honorable mention All-America citation. In 1983 he had games of 12 catches for 120 yards (vs. Air Force Academy), 11 for 135 (vs. Utah), and nine for 132 (vs. San Diego State). He joined the Rams as a walk-on in 1981 and finished the season as the starting tight end, then caught 36 passes for 393 yards and three scores as a sophomore starter. McGregor was used as the "H-back" in CSU's single-back offense and caught at least one pass in 34 consecutive games during his college career, closing it out with appearances in the East-West Shrine Game and Japan Bowl. Keli is married (Lori). Born in Primghar, Iowa, McGregor lettered twice each in football and basketball at Lakewood HS in Lakewood, Colo., where he was named to all-city football and basketball squads in 1979, leading Lakewood to state grid runnerup honors that year. Keli's father, Brian, is one of Colorado's most successful prep coaches and is currently the head coach at Arvada West HS.

ERIC RILEY — CB — Florida State

5-11, 175 DOB: August 15, 1962
Draft Choice #8

Eric Riley started at both cornerback and safety during his Florida State career, finishing with 104 total tackles and five pass interceptions. He started as a safety in 1981, redshirted the following year, then performed at cornerback for the Seminoles, with his best season statistically coming in 1983. In that campaign Riley had his high marks in tackles (48), first hits (33), and interceptions (four), in addition to blocking a kick and recovering two fumbles. One fumble recovery came in the waning seconds and preserved a win over East Carolina, and it was against South Carolina that he blocked a field goal attempt and later recovered a blocked punt in the endzone for a touchdown. He defensed seven passes in each of the last two seasons. A track athlete as well, Riley was the Metro Conference 110 and 400 hurdle champion in 1983 and ran leg on the 1,600 meter relay that finished 11th in the nation at the 1982 NCAA championships. Eric participated in both football and track at Fort Myers HS in his native Fort Myers, Fla., and was a criminology major at Florida State.

GARY ROLLE — WR — Florida

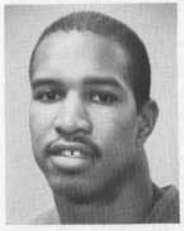

5-10, 170 DOB: February 16, 1962
Draft Choice #11

Gary Rolle started 15 games during his Florida career and caught 25 passes for 319 yards and a 12.8 average. He caught nine each in his sophomore and senior seasons, including a 44-yarder vs. Mississippi State in 1982 which was his career longest. Rolle was named as one of 11 recipients of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame scholar-athlete awards as a senior, and was named academic All-conference as well. A very intelligent and articulate athlete, he also earned academic All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1983. As a junior Rolle caught four passes for 36 yards vs. Mississippi State, his high reception game as a collegian. He began his career at West Point as a freshman in 1980, transferring to Florida in 1981. Born in Augsburg, Germany, Gary is a graduate of Carroll City HS in Miami, Fla., where he was a wide receiver and kickoff return man. He received Florida's highest ROTC award for combined excellence in the spring of 1983 and has been an honor student maintaining a 3.7 grade average while majoring in pre-med. Gary's father is a physician.

STEVEN EDWARD (Steve) SEWELL — RB — Oklahoma

6-3, 210 DOB: April 2, 1963
Draft Choice #1

Steve Sewell was the most versatile athlete on the Oklahoma squad, starting all but a few games during his four-year career and establishing a reputation for great attitude and intelligence, as well as athletic ability. Sewell was equally adept as a runner and receiver in college and earned second-team All-Big Eight honors (AP, UPI) as a senior, rushing for 577 yards on 98 carries and catching 16 passes for 315 yards and a 19.7 average despite missing most of three games due to a severe foot strain. A big play performer, Sewell scored seven touchdowns, five running and two via the pass. A slashing runner with the speed to go the distance, against Kansas State last year he became the only player in Oklahoma history to record more than 100 yards rushing and receiving in the same game, gaining 153 on the ground, including a 47-yard touchdown run, and 142 yards on six receptions, including a 79-yard scoring play. That performance earned him Big Eight player of the week honors. In OU's tie with Texas Sewell scored both TDs and caught five passes for 45 yards. He also demonstrated his big play capability against Colorado, scoring two touchdowns, one on a 68-yard pass play that broke open a tight contest. Against Iowa State Sewell gained 56 yards on a wingback reverse which he had suggested for insertion into the game plan. His career statistics show 170 carries for 1,113 yards (a 6.5 average), and 33 catches for 550 yards (a 16.7 average), and 14 TDs (10 rushing, four receiving). Sewell was voted the Don Key Award, the highest honor an OU player can receive. The award is given annually to the player who exhibits all the positive physical, academic, and mental traits of college football. Sewell played both halfback positions in the wishbone as well as wingback and tailback in the I formation, closing out his college career with appearances in the Orange Bowl and Senior Bowl. He also ran track as a sophomore at Oklahoma and was selected Academic All-Big Eight in 1982. A native of San Francisco, Calif., Sewell graduated from that city's Riordan HS, where he was All-Bay Area and all-league in a senior season which saw him rush for 1,000 yards. He earned three prep letters in football as a two-way starter (running back and safety), and lettered three more times in track, specializing in the long jump and relays. Steve is an avid movie buff.

DARYL DIMITRI SMITH — CB — North Alabama

5-9, 180 DOB: May 8, 1963
Draft Choice #9

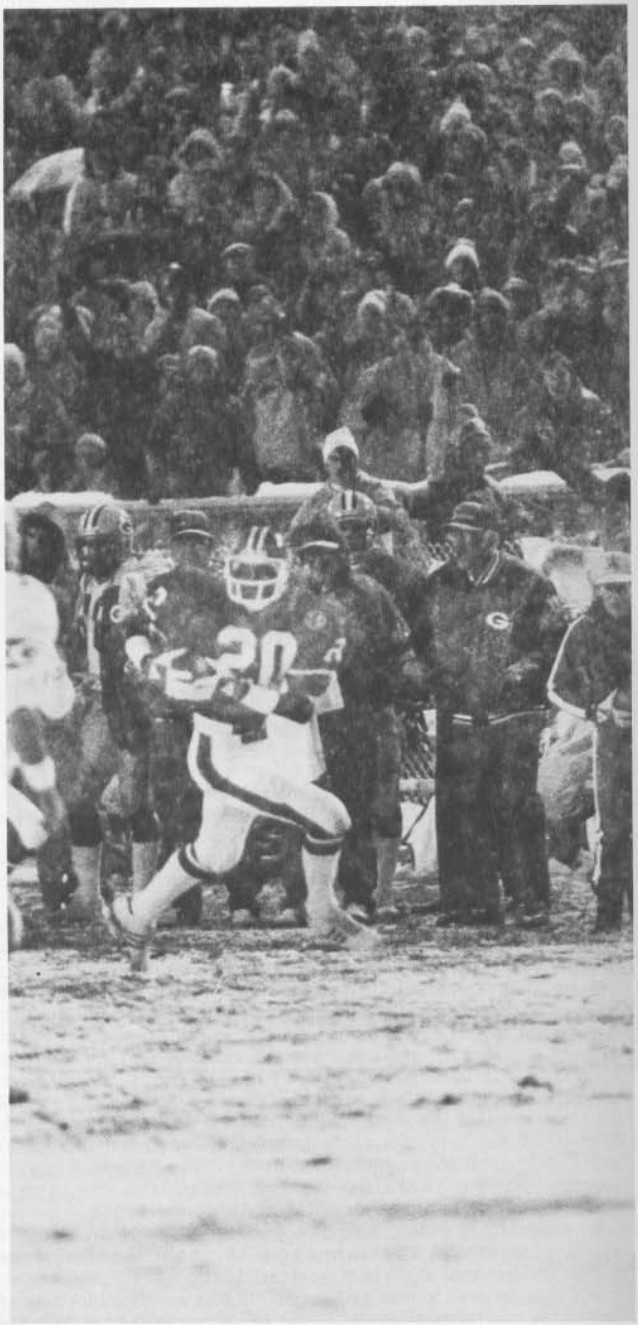

Daryl Smith was a three-year starter at cornerback for North Alabama and as a senior was named first team Kodak All-American, first team AP Little All-American, and first team Football News All-American as well, closing out his career with appearances in the Blue-Gray Classic and Senior Bowl. He blocked eight kicks in his career, including five punts, and had nine career interceptions for 31 yards. In 1983 Smith blocked punts in consecutive NCAA Division II playoff games against Virginia Union and Central State (Ohio). Smith made 43 tackles as a senior, recovering two fumbles and breaking up eight passes while earning All-Gulf South Conference accolades. In his career at North Alabama Smith had 134 tackles, including 81 solo hits, and defensed 27 passes while leading UNA to a 33-7-4 record over those four years. Smith has outstanding speed and demonstrated that by earning all-state track honors as a prepster at Opelika HS in his native Opelika, Ala.

GAME-BY-GAME REVIEW

DENVER 20, CINCINNATI 17

DENVER, CO., Sept. 2—Denver opened the 1984 campaign with a 20-17 win over the Cincinnati Bengals. The Broncos received fine performances from quarterbacks John Elway and Gary Kubiak, as well as running back Sammy Winder. With Denver trailing 3-0 in the second quarter, Elway drove the team 75 yards in 10 plays to their first score—a 25-yard pass to Butch Johnson. The extra point attempt failed, giving the Broncos a 6-3 lead. On Cincinnati's next drive, cornerback Steve Wilson intercepted a Ken Anderson pass and returned it to the Denver 45. On the next play, Elway hit Steve Watson on a 40-yard bomb, and two plays later, Denver scored on a one-yard run by rookie Gene Lang. The Bengals forced Elway out of the game when he injured a shoulder on a Ross Browner sack, two plays into the third quarter. Cincinnati scored on its first possession of the second half on a James Brooks one-yard TD run. The Bengals took a 17-13 lead early in the fourth quarter on another one-yard TD run, this one by Larry Kinnebrew. The Broncos then set out on a 13-play, 75-yard drive behind Kubiak, who threw an eight-yard pass to Clarence Kay for the winning score with 9:34 remaining in the game. Cincinnati's next two drives ended with a fumble and a Karl Mecklenburg sack of Anderson on fourth down and ten, which preserved the win for Denver.

CHICAGO 27, DENVER 0

CHICAGO, IL., Sept. 9—For the third time in four years, the Broncos were trounced by Chicago, the first time the Denver club had been shutout since 1978. The Broncos were without quarterback John Elway, who was nursing a shoulder injury, so Gary Kubiak got the starting nod. Chicago bolted out to a 17-0 lead early in the second quarter on a 61-yard pass from Jim McMahon to Willie Gault, a 72-yard run by Walter Payton, and a 38-yard Bob Thomas field goal. Chicago put an end to Denver's chances when Tyrone Keys sacked Gary Kubiak, knocking him out. Elway came in for just six plays, and rookie Scott Stankavage was called in to service, completing only 4 of 18 passes for the game. Chicago stretched the lead to 27-0 before halftime on a second Thomas field goal and a 4-yard touchdown run by Matt Suhey. For the game, Chicago gained 406 yards to Denver's 130. Walter Payton led all rushers with 179 yards, and the Bears amassed 302 yards on the ground.

DENVER 24, CLEVELAND 14

CLEVELAND, OH., Sept. 16—Rookie cornerback Randy Robbins returned an interception 62 yards for a touchdown with 37 seconds left in the game to insure the Denver victory. In the early stages of the nationally televised Sunday night game, neither offense moved the ball with much authority. Cleveland scored on two short runs by Mike Pruitt, bringing the score to 14-0 midway through the second quarter. Before halftime, however, Denver scored 17 points to take the lead. John Elway threw a 23-yard scoring toss to Clint Sampson, and later, an 18-yard TD pass to Butch Johnson. Rich Karlis added a 25-yard field goal before the end of the first half to take the lead for the Broncos . . Denver's defense intercepted three passes and recovered one fumble during the game. The Broncos victory was the seventh straight over the Browns in regular season play.

DENVER 21, KANSAS CITY 0

DENVER, CO., Sept. 23—The Broncos returned home after two weeks on the road, and the hometown crowd was treated to the first-ever Denver shutout of Kansas City, 21-0. Sammy Winder had a big day for the Broncos, rushing for 139 yards. On Denver's first scoring drive, midway through the second quarter, Winder ran the ball on five of the drive's seven plays, eventually scoring on a six-yard run. After the next Chief drive stalled, the Broncos drove to another score with Rick Parros scoring from three yards out. Despite a Kansas City aerial attack that saw receiver Henry Marshall gain 148 yards on eight catches, Denver's "bend-but-don't-break" defense kept the Chiefs from scoring. The defense, however, put points on the board after Mike Harden picked off a Todd Blackledge pass and carried it 45 yards for a score—the second week in a row in which the Broncos returned an interception for a TD. For the game, Denver gained 210 yards on the ground to Kansas City's 50.

DENVER 16, LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 13

DENVER, CO., Sept. 30—In one of the most physical games of the 1984 NFL season, the Broncos attacked the world-champion Raiders on the ground and through the air, winning their third straight game and nabbing a tie for first place in the AFC West. Denver's offense set the tone early in the first half, with John Elway challenging the heralded Raider cornerbacks and Sammy Winder chewing up big yardage on the ground. The Broncos struck first on a 27-yard Rich Karlis field goal early in the second period. The Raiders then mounted an 80-yard drive, culminating with a 19-yard scoring toss from Jim Plunkett to Todd Christensen. Just before halftime Denver pulled within 7-6 on another Karlis field goal, and then went ahead early in the third quarter when the barefoot kicker connected on a 19-yarder. The Raiders took the lead, 10-9, on a Chris Bahr field goal, but Denver's running game got hot. Rick Parros and Gerald Willhite, whose four-yard scoring run late in the third quarter proved to be the game winner, ran through gaping holes created by the offensive line's successful trap blocking. The Raiders added a field goal early in the fourth period, but their penchant for valiant comebacks was halted by a Denver defense that allowed only 12 first downs for the game. The Broncos' running game netted 233 yards, and defensively, Mike Harden added two interceptions on the day.

DENVER 28, DETROIT 7

PONTIAC, MI., Oct.7—Denver's ball-hungry defense had a feast against the Lions, netting seven interceptions, three fumble recoveries and two touchdowns in the Broncos 28-7 victory over Detroit. Denver's offense was the story early on, taking the ball 69 yards on its first possession and scoring on a one-yard plunge by Sammy Winder. Two plays into the Lions' next drive, Billy Sims fumbled into the air and Rulon Jones caught the loose ball and rambled five yards for his first career TD. Detroit came within seven points at the beginning of the second quarter when quarterback Gary Danielson bootlegged around the left side for a two-yard touchdown. With only :34 remaining in the half, John Elway hit Steve Watson for a 42-yard touchdown to make the score 21-7. Watson led all receivers on the day with seven catches for 111 yards. Detroit turned the ball over five times in the second half. Ken Woodard scored on a 27-yard interception return, and on the last play of the game, Karl Mecklenburg picked off a pass and lumbered 63 yards before being brought down.

DENVER 17, GREEN BAY 14

DENVER, CO., Oct. 15—Before a national television audience the Broncos beat the Packers in a Monday night blizzard, pushing Denver's record to 6-1. With only 37 seconds gone in the game, the Broncos led 14-0 after Green Bay fumbled on its first two plays and Steve Foley (22 yards) and Louis Wright (27 yards) scooped up the loose balls and returned them for touchdowns. Denver added a field goal early in the second period, which proved to be enough to win. Despite the terrible playing conditions, Green Bay quarterback Lynn Dickey and his ace receiver James Lofton performed superbly. Dickey threw for 371 yards and Lofton ended up with 11 catches for 206 yards. The Packers scored in the second half on a five-yard run by Gerry Ellis and a 54-yard Dickey to Lofton pass, but it wasn't enough to overcome the team's initial turnovers.

DENVER 37, BUFFALO 7

BUFFALO, NY., Oct. 21—Denver stretched its record to 7-1 with a 37-7 victory over the Buffalo Bills. The Broncos added to their early 3-0 lead in the second quarter, scoring 20 points on two Rich Karlis field goals and two John Elway touchdown passes—a three-yard toss to Clarence Kay and a 52-yard bomb to Steve Watson. Elway injured his shoulder late in the first half, which brought reserve quarterback Gary Kubiak into the game. Kubiak ran for a TD in the third quarter and in the fourth threw a 14-yard scoring pass to Sammy Winder to close out Denver's scoring. Buffalo added its only score of the day late in the game on a 70-yard Matt Kofler to Mitchell Brookins pass. The Bronco defense had another excellent game, intercepting four passes and holding the Bills to only 10 first downs. Denver's victory was marred by an injury to wide receiver Clint Sampson. Sampson was knocked out after taking a tremendous blow to the head, but he escaped with only loosened teeth and a few cuts.

DENVER 22, LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 19 (OT)

LOS ANGELES, CA., Oct. 28—Rich Karlis booted a 38-yard field goal with no time remaining in overtime as the Broncos won a nationally televised thriller, 22-19. The victory, played before a crowd of 91,020, was Denver's seventh straight. The Raiders pulled ahead early when Rod Martin sacked Gary Kubiak in the end zone on Denver's first possession. Los Angeles closed out the first quarter leading 9-0 on a 36-yard pass from Marc Wilson to Marcus Allen. In the second period, the Raiders added a field goal to make it 12-0 before the Broncos got their first break. Greg Pruitt muffed a punt, and the Broncos Gerald Willhite recovered on the LA 16-yard line. Rich Karlis kicked a 41-yard field goal to put Denver on the board. Raider running back Marcus Allen fumbled the ball on the Raiders next play, and Denver recovered. With only :28 on the clock, Karlis kicked his second field goal of the period, making the score 12-6 in favor of Los Angeles. In the third quarter, the Raiders pulled farther ahead with Allen taking it in from a yard out to make the score 19-6. Early in the fourth quarter, Denver struck back with a three-yard TD pass from Kubiak to Clarence Kay. With only 2:15 remaining in regulation, and Los Angeles driving toward another score, Allen fumbled at the Denver 16-yard line, and the Broncos recovery set off a frantic drive. Gary Kubiak passed nine straight times to bring the ball to the LA 29. On the tenth play of the drive, Kubiak dropped back to pass, and then took off with the ball on a 17-yard run, giving the Broncos a first down on the Raider's 12. Kubiak hit Watson in the end zone on the next play, sending the game into overtime. The Raiders wasted no time in positioning themselves for a quick overtime victory. With less than two minutes gone in the period, Los Angeles had the ball at the Denver 11. Raider coach Tom Flores decided to run the ball to the left in an effort to gain better field position, but Frank Hawkins had the ball stripped by linebacker Steve Busick, and Denver's Steve Foley recovered. Later in the period, Denver had a chance to win the game but Rich Karlis's 42-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right. With less than 20 seconds remaining, LA quarterback Wilson was intercepted by Roger Jackson, who returned it to the LA 22. Two plays later, Karlis kicked the game winning field goal. Denver's Sammy Winder set a new Bronco single game attempts record during the game, rushing 34 times for 126 yards. Denver's defense again grabbed more than its share of turnovers, with three interceptions and four fumble recoveries.

DENVER 26, NEW ENGLAND 19

DENVER, CO., Nov. 4—Denver safety Dennis Smith recovered a Mosi Tatupu fumble and raced 64 yards for a touchdown to give the Broncos a last-minute 26-19 victory over the Patriots. New England, which led for most of the game, scored first on two Tony Franklin field goals. Denver found the going tough on the ground, so John Elway's arm came to the rescue. Midway through the second quarter, Elway engineered Denver's first scoring drive, covering 84 yards in nine plays and ending with a 35-yard touchdown pass to Steve Watson, but the extra point attempt failed, making the score 6-6. Watson finished the day with eight receptions for 134 yards. New England's second-year quarterback Tony Eason fired a 15-yard TD pass to Clarence Weathers to put the Patriots back on top by 13-6 early in the third period. With the quarter coming to a close, Elway hit Butch Johnson for a 17-yard touchdown, but Denver was left a point behind when another extra point attempt failed. New England continued to move the ball in the fourth quarter, adding two more field goals to make it 19-12. Elway was not finished, however. He directed an eight-play, 78-yard drive that led to the tying score—a five-yard toss to Butch Johnson. Johnson had his best day as a pro, catching nine passes for 156 yards and two touchdowns. The Patriots moved to the Denver 37 on their next drive, but saw the game slip from their hands when Tatupu fumbled. Denver made all 18 of its first downs through the air in the game as Elway was 26 of 40 for 315 yards and 3 touchdowns. The Broncos managed only 28 yards rushing compared to the Patriot's 195.

DENVER 16, SAN DIEGO 13

SAN DIEGO, CA., Nov. 11—For the third week in a row the Broncos pulled out a victory in the game's final minute, beating San Diego 16-13. Denver's first drive resulted in three points as Rich Karlis nailed a 44-yard attempt. The Chargers took the lead midway through the quarter on a 25-yard pass from Dan Fouts to Charlie Joiner. Both teams traded field goals in the second quarter and at halftime, the Chargers led 10-6. Denver took off on a 13-play drive at the beginning of the second half, but it stalled at the Charger 16, and Karlis's field goal attempt was wide right. Neither team threatened until the opening of the fourth quarter, when San Diegos Rolf Benirshcke kicked a field goal to put the Chargers up 13-6. Denver's next drive netted three more points to close the gap to 13-9. The Broncos got the ball back with only 3:13 left on the clock and they drove 77 yards in 10 plays, mainly on the strength of John Elway's arm. With only 38 seconds left in the game, Sammy Winder scored from a yard out to give Denver the lead. The Chargers staged a desperate comeback drive, but Benirschke's 46-yard attempt was wide left, giving the Broncos their ninth straight win.

DENVER 42, MINNESOTA 21

DENVER, CO., Nov. 18—John Elway tied a club record, throwing five touchdown passes in Denver's 42-21 victory over the Vikings—the team's 10th straight win. Minnesota fumbled on the first play from scrimmage, and Denver's Rubin Carter recoverd. The Broncos drove 60 yards in nine plays, with Gerald Willhite scoring on a 13-yard run. Later in the first quarter after a Jim Ryan interception, Elway threw his first TD pass of the day—an eight-yard toss to Sammy Winder. He added a 26-yarder to Steve Watson, and at the end of the first period, the Broncos led 21-0. The Vikings scored early in the second period, but before halftime, Elway had thrown TD passes to Butch Johnson (19 yards) and Ray Alexander (12), giving Denver a 35-7 lead at the break. The third period opened with another long Denver drive, and Elway passed for his fifth TD of the day, hitting Steve Watson from 13 yards out. Minnesota scored two touchdowns late in the game, but they were not enough to offset Elway's success. For the day Elway completed 16 of 19 passes for 218 yards, five touchdowns, and no interceptions. Denver's defense intercepted three Minnesota passes.

SEATTLE 27, DENVER 24

DENVER, CO., Nov. 25—The Broncos lost to the Seahawks after Rich Karlis's field goal attempt, which would have sent the game into overtime, hit the right upright. The loss snapped Denver's 10-game winning streak and deadlocked Seattle and Denver atop the AFC Western division. Seattle quarterback Dave Krieg completed 30 of 44 passes for 406 yards and three touchdowns in the game. The first TD came on the game's opening play, when Krieg hit rookie Daryle Turner for an 80-yard touchdown. After a Denver field goal made it 7-3, Seattle embarked on a 14-play drive which resulted in a 33-yard Norm Johnson field goal. After a second attempt by Johnson failed, the Broncos needed just five plays to cover 80 yards, and John Elway threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to Butch Johnson to tie the game at 10-10. After the Seahawks recovered an Elway fumble, they drove to a score with Krieg hitting David Hughes for a six-yard touchdown. On the third play of Denver's next drive, Gerald Willhite caught a swing pass and took off around the right side for a 63-yard gain, down to the Seattle two. Gene Lang plunged in for the score on the next play, tying the game at 17-17. Krieg threw for another score early in the fourth period, a three-yard toss to Steve Largent. The Seahawks got the ball back when Jacob Green recovered a Clarence Kay fumble on a controversial play and drove the ball to the Denver six-yard line, settling for a 28-yard field goal to put them up 27-17. Denver came roaring back as Elway engineered a five-play, 78-yard drive that ended with a four-yard scoring pass to Gene Lang. After the next Seattle drive stalled, the Broncos got the ball back on their own 37 with a little over two minutes remaining. Denver drove to the Seattle eight yard line, but with only :39 left on the clock, Karlis's attempt hit the upright. Seattle's Steve Largent racked up 191 yards on 12 catches in the game.

KANSAS CITY 16, DENVER 13

KANSAS CITY, MO., Dec. 2—For the second straight week a Rich Karlis field goal attempt hit the upright in the final stages of the game, as Denver lost its second straight contest, 16-13 to the Chiefs. The Broncos dominated most of the first half, scoring on a 48-yard John Elway to Steve Watson pass in the first quarter and a 22-yard field goal by Karlis in the second. The Chiefs got on the scoreboard with only 13 seconds left before halftime on a 24-yard pass from Bill Kenney to Carlos Carson. Denver added a Karlis field goal in the third period to go up 13-7. Three fourth-period field goals by Kansas City's Nick Lowery put the Chiefs on top 16-13 with less than two minutes to go. Denver drove to the KC 25-yard line, where Karlis missed his final attempt.

DENVER 16, SAN DIEGO 13

DENVER, CO., Dec. 9—In contrast to the previous two weeks, Rich Karlis's final field goal attempt went through the uprights and provided the final margin in the Broncos 16-13 win over San Diego. Both teams kicked two field goals in the first half, and at intermission the score was 6-6. Denver's first drive of the second half covered 85 yards in seven plays, with Sammy Winder taking it in from four yards out. San Diego's next drive used up over eight minutes but it stalled at the Denver one-yard line after a tough goal-line stand by the Bronco defense. Denver, however, fumbled the ball two plays later, and San Diego recovered on the four-yard line. The Chargers then scored on a four-yard pass from Ed Luther to Buford McGee, tying the game at 13-13. Denver scored again with only 2:08 on the clock as Karlis split the uprights securing the win.

DENVER 31, SEATTLE 14

SEATTLE, WA., Dec. 15—The Broncos clinched the AFC Western Division championship with their 31-14 shellacking of the Seahawks. The win was the 13th of the season—the most in Bronco history. On the third play of the game, John Elway connected on a 73-yard pass play with Steve Watson, who carried the ball to the Seattle one-yard line. Elway dove in for the score two plays later, putting the Broncos up 7-0. Rich Karlis kicked a 34-yard field goal later in the period to stretch Denver's lead to 10-0. After Seattle safety John Harris picked off an Elway pass early in the second period, the Seahawks drove to their first score—a four-yard Dave Krieg to Dan Doornink pass. Despite four Elway-thrown interceptions, Denver led 10-7 at halftime. Elway's scrambling, however, continually kept the Seahawk's defense off-guard. Seattle fumbled the opening kickoff of the second half, and Denver's Tony Lilly recovered on the Seahawk's 34. Three plays later, Elway hit Jim Wright in the end zone to put Denver up 17-7. Midway through the third quarter, Steve Foley picked off a Krieg pass and ran untouched onroute to a 40-yard touchdown. Seattle narrowed the score to 24-14 late in the period on a 14-yard pass from Krieg to Charlie Young. The Broncos put the game away early in the final period when Rick Parros scored on a four-yard run, giving Denver a 31-14 lead. Seattle's hopes were ended when Karl Mecklenburg intercepted Krieg and returned the ball 42 yards with less than two minutes left in the game.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME
PITTSBURGH 24, DENVER 17

DENVER, CO., Dec. 30—Denver had two possessions in the final two minutes of the game but failed to score as Pittsburgh advanced to the Conference Championship game. Denver's opportunistic defense recovered two Steeler fumbles in the first quarter. The first one resulted in a Rich Karlis field goal attempt, but it sailed wide right. Pittsburgh fumbled on the next play, and the Broncos recovered again. That turnover led to a seven-yard touchdown pass from John Elway to Jim Wright. Pittsburgh scored on a 28-yard field goal on the first play of the second period, and just before intermission, the Steelers took the lead on Frank Pollard's one-yard TD plunge. Denver tied the game early in the third quarter on a 21-yard Karlis field goal. The Broncos regained the lead on their next possession, scoring on a 20-yard pass from Elway to Steve Watson. For the game, Watson gained 177 yards on 11 receptions. The Steelers mounted a scoring drive of their own, tying the game at 17-17 on a Mark Malone to Louis Lipps pass late in the quarter. Later, Pittsburgh's Eric Williams intercepted an Elway pass and returned it to the Denver two-yard line with only 2:45 left in the game. Pollard scored two plays later to give the Steelers the lead 24-17. Denver couldn't move the ball on its final two possession as time ran out.

Nineteen-eighty-four was the 25th anniversary season for the Denver Broncos, one of the eight original American Football League teams and a member of the National Football League since the 1970 merger between the two leagues.

Since the merger the Broncos are, in terms of won-lost record:

- the fourth most successful team in the American Football Conference.
- the eighth most successful team in the NFL.
- the second most successful team of the original AFL franchises.
- one of only 10 teams to post a winning record.

Following are the standings of the 10 most successful teams since the AFL-NFL merger, as well as the standings of the eight original AFL teams from 1970-1984.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1983
WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

SEATTLE 31, DENVER 7

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 24—Seattle broke open a close contest with two second-half Dave Krieg touchdown passes as the Seahawks beat Denver 31-7 in the AFC Wild Card playoff game. Seattle scored on its first possession of the day with a 17-yard pass from Krieg to Steve Largent. Later in the first quarter, Denver mounted a nine-play, 76-yard drive, scoring on a 13-yard pass from Steve DeBerg to Jesse Myles. Seattle cornerback Kerry Justin intercepted a DeBerg pass on Denver's next drive and the Seahawks drove to the Denver 20-yard line, with Norm Johnson converting a 37-yard field goal. Denver then drove down to the Seattle four-yard line, but Gerald Willhite fumbled and Seattle recovered, and then ran the remaining time off the clock. The second half belonged to the Seahawks as Krieg passed for two touchdowns and running back David Hughes ran for another, making the final score. 31-7.

1979
WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

HOUSTON 13, DENVER 7

HOUSTON, Tex., Dec. 23—Toni Fritsch kicked two field goals to provide the margin of victory as the Houston Oilers played strong second half defense and defeated the Broncos, 13-7, earning the Oilers advancement in the American Football Conference playoffs.

Fritsch opened the scoring with a 31-yard first period field goal, but Denver came back to take a 7-3 lead on a seven-yard pass from Craig Morton to running back Dave Preston, an 80-yard drive that took the Broncos 13 plays.

Houston went ahead to stay on a three-yard burst by Earl Campbell at 14:14 of the second period. However, Campbell was injured on the play and did not return to action in the second half. Oiler quarterback Dan Pastorini and wide receiver Ken Burrough also left the contest due to injuries, both early in the second half, putting a severe crimp in the Houston attack. But the Broncos were able to move the ball for only 216 yards total offense, and the tenacious Houston defense sacked Morton six times for 40 yards in losses as the Oilers held on to win.

Linebacker Bob Swenson intercepted a Gifford Nielsen pass at the Oiler 26-yard line midway through the fourth period, but two sacks of Morton led to a 50-yard field goal attempt by Fred Steinfort. Steinfort's kick hit the upright, and the Oilers later drove for a second field goal by Fritsch, this one of 20 yards, providing the final victory margin.

Denver drove to the Houston 27 at the two minute mark, but the Oiler defense again rose to the occasion to stifle the threat and secure the win, eliminating the Broncos from the playoffs.

1978
DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

PITTSBURGH 33, DENVER 10

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 30—Two fourth quarter touchdown passes by Pittsburgh quarterback Terry Bradshaw lifted the Steelers to a 33-10 victory over the Denver Broncos and into the American Football Conference championship game.

Bradshaw's scoring tosses included a 45-yard bomb to John Stallworth and a 38-yarder to Lynn Swann, capping a brilliant performance by the Pittsburgh passer.

The Broncos took the early lead on a 37-yard Jim Turner field goal, but Pittsburgh's Franco Harris ran one and 18 yards for touchdowns and Roy Gerela kicked a 24-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 16-3 advantage. Denver cut the margin to 16-10 on a three-yard Dave Preston TD, but Gerela kicked another field goal to make the halftime margin 19-10. Denver threatened to come closer in the third period, but Turner's 29-yard field goal attempt was blocked, and Bradshaw's passing sealed Denver's fate early in the final stanza. The Steelers rolled to 425 yards total offense, with Bradshaw accounting for 272 through the air, 156 on ten receptions by Stallworth. The eventual World Champion Steelers limited the Broncos' ground game to just 87 yards in earning the right to play the Houston Oilers for the AFC crown the following week.

SUPER BOWL XII

DALLAS 27, DENVER 10

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 15—The Dallas Cowboys evened their Super Bowl record at 2-2 by defeating the Denver Broncos 27-10 before a sellout crowd of 76,400, plus 90 million television viewers, the largest audience ever to watch a sporting event. Dallas converted two pass interceptions by safety Randy Hughes and cornerback Aaron Kyle into 10 points and Efren Herrera added a 35-yard field goal to give the Cowboys at 13-0 halftime advantage. The Denver offense had trouble getting untracked against the hard-hitting Cowboy defense. The Broncos lost three fumbles and were intercepted twice on their last five possessions of the first half. The Broncos came back momentarily at the outset of the third period. Craig Morton engineered a drive to the Cowboys 30-yard line from where Jim Turner booted a 47-yard field goal to make the score 13-3. After an exchange of punts, Dallas wide receiver Butch Johnson made a spectacular diving catch in the end zone to complete a 45-yard pass from Roger Staubach to put the Cowboys ahead 20-3. However, the momentum swung back to the Broncos as Rick Upchurch returned the kickoff 67 yards to the Dallas 26. On the second play of the series, Norris Weese relieved Craig Morton at quarterback. Morton, who was intercepted only eight times during the regular season, had thrown a Super Bowl record four interceptions. Weese guided the Broncos to a touchdown — a one-yarder by Ron Lytle — to cut the Dallas lead to 20-10 with 5:39 left in the third quarter. Dallas clinched the victory when running back Robert Newhouse threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Golden Richards on an option play with 7:04 remaining in the game. It was the first pass thrown by Newhouse since the 1975 regular season. The Cowboys offense amassed 325 yards while the defense limited the Broncos to 156 in a game which saw the Cowboys control the ball 38:34 to Denver's 21:26. Roger Staubach completed 17 of 25 passes for 183 yards while Harvey Martin and Randy White, who were named Co-MVPs, led the Cowboys defense which recovered four fumbles and intercepted four passes.

1978
AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DENVER 20, OAKLAND 17

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 1—Denver quarterback Craig Morton threw two touchdown passes to Haven Moses as the Broncos defeated the defending NFL Champion Oakland Raiders 20-17 and moved into their first Super Bowl. Morton, who was drafted and spent nine-and-a-half years with the Cowboys, would face his former Dallas teammates after completing 10 of 20 passes for 224 yards. It would be the second meeting in five weeks for these two teams — Dallas won 14-6 in the regular season finale as Morton played only the opening series due to a bruised hip. On a sunny, 18-degree day before 74,982 Denver partisans, the Raiders scored on their initial possession as Errol Mann kicked a 20-yard field goal to climax an 18-play drive. Morton hit Moses on their first scoring hookup two plays later on a 74-yard touchdown bomb, and the Broncos were on top to stay. Denver took advantage of two Oakland turnovers in the second half to win its second game in three meetings with the Raiders during the 1977 season. Defensive end Brison Manor recovered running back Clarence Davis' fumble at the Oakland 17 and running back Jon Keyworth scored from the 1-yard line to increase the margin to 14-3 in the third quarter. Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler hit tight end Dave Casper on the first of two scoring passes to narrow the lead to 14-10 with 39 seconds elapsed in the final period. But on Oakland's next possession, linebacker Bob Swenson intercepted a Stabler pass and ran to the Raiders' 14. Morton then threw 12 yards to Moses for the Broncos' final touchdown. Oakland finished the scoring on the next series as Stabler threw 17 yards to Casper for the game's last touchdown. Denver controlled the ball for the final 3:08 and gave Red Miller the AFC title in his first year as a head coach. Moses, a 10-year veteran, had five receptions for 168 yards. The Denver defense, which was No. 1 against the rush in the NFL during the regular season, held the Raiders to 94 yards on the ground.

DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

DENVER 34, PITTSBURGH 21

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 24—After ties at 7, 14, and 21, veteran Jim Turner kicked a 44-yard field goal to put Denver ahead to stay as the Broncos—in their first playoff game ever—beat the perennial AFC Central Champion Steelers. Leading 24-21, the Broncos capped their victory with two fourth-quarter interceptions by linebacker Tom Jackson, the last of which set up Craig Morton's 34-yard game-clinching touchdown pass to Jack Dolbin. Denver capitalized on a blocked punt and a fumble recovery for two scores in the first half, which ended 14-14. Morton and Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw traded touchdown passes in the second half before Turner's kick, Jackson's interceptions, and Morton's arm kept Pittsburgh from the AFC title game for the first time in four years. The Denver victory set up a third game between the AFC Western Champion Broncos and the AFC Wild Card Raiders, who split two regular season games.

1976

JANUARY 26—Tight end Riley Odoms and linebacker Randy Gradishar are the Broncos representatives in the Pro Bowl in New Orleans. MARCH 28—Quarterback Charley Johnson announces his retirement from the National Football League after a 15-year career. Johnson led the club to its first two winning seasons in 1973 and 1974. JUNE 27—Lyle Alzado is one of three finalists for the man of the Year Award and Rick Upchurch is honored as the American Conference Offensive Rookie of the Year by the NFL Players Association. SEPTEMBER 26—Rick Upchurch ties an NFL record by returning two punts for touchdowns in a 44-13 win over the visiting Cleveland Browns. OCTOBER 24—Rick Upchurch ties an NFL record with his fourth punt return touchdown of the season in a 35-26 win over Kansas City. NOVEMBER 7—With two field goals and six extra points, Jim Turner becomes the fifth player in pro football history to surpass 1,200 points. DECEMBER 12—The Broncos stop Chicago, 28-14, for the ninth win of the season, highest total in Denver history. Otis Armstrong rushes for 116 yards to reach 1,008 for the season, his second 1,000-yard in his career. DECEMBER 18—Fred Gehrke, long-time Bronco administrator, is named general manager.

1977

JANUARY 17—Rick Upchurch and Otis Armstrong are the Bronco participants in the annual AFC-NFC Pro Bowl in Seattle. JANUARY 31—John Ralston resigns as Head Coach of the Denver Broncos. FEBRUARY 1—Robert (Red) Miller, a former Bronco assistant coach, is named as the team's eighth head coach. JUNE 12—Lyle Alzado is named winner of the National Football League Players Association's Byron (Whizzer) White Award as the group's Man of the Year. OCTOBER 16—Pushing their season record to 5-0, the Broncos use seven interceptions and a touchdown pass to kicker Jim Turner to trounce the defending world champion Oakland Raiders, 30-7. NOVEMBER 27—In a showdown of the two best records in the NFL, the Broncos get a 73-yard interception return for a touchdown by Tom Jackson to dump Baltimore, 27-13, and run their record to 10-1. DECEMBER 4—With a 24-14 win at Houston the Broncos clinch a playoff berth, first in the club's history. Later in the day, the Broncos clinch the AFC Western Division championship when the Raiders fall to the Los Angeles Rams. DECEMBER 18—The Broncos lose to Dallas in the regular season finale, 14-6, but post the best record in the history of the franchise, 12-2, tied with Dallas for the best in the NFL. DECEMBER 24—Before the largest crowd ever to watch a sporting event in the state of Colorado, 75,011, the Broncos stop the Pittsburgh Steelers in the first round of playoff action, 34-21.

1978

JANUARY 1—In a hard-fought game at Mile High Stadium, the Broncos dethrone the Raiders, 20-17, for the AFC championship and a trip to the Super Bowl in New Orleans. JANUARY 15—Broncos fall to the Cowboys, 27-10, in the Super Bowl. JANUARY 23 —Lyle Alzado, Randy Gradishar, Tom Jackson, Billy Thompson and Louis Wright represent the Broncos in the Pro Bowl, the largest Denver contingent in history. MARCH—Only 143 season tickets are not renewed, a new all-time low. DECEMBER 3—Broncos win by 21-6 score at Oakland, holding the Raiders without a touchdown for the second time in the season, and moving within one game of AFC West crown. DECEMBER 10—Denver downs Kansas City, 24-3, winning second straight division championship, as QB Craig Morton goes 19-for-22 with 16 straight completions, both second best all-time NFL marks. DECEMBER 30—Denver loses in the playoffs to eventual Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers, 33-10.

1979

JANUARY 29—Broncos are represented by an all-time high of seven players in the NFL Pro Bowl, including Lyle Alzado, Randy Gradishar, Tom Jackson, Riley Odoms, Bill Thompson, Rick Upchurch, and Louis Wright. MARCH—Only 161 season tickets are not renewed, virtually assuring the Broncos of their tenth straight sellout season. OCTOBER 7—Denver shuts out San Diego, 7-0, marking first time ever for Broncos to record two shutouts in one season. Denver had opened the campaign with 10-0 win over Cincinnati. NOVEMBER 11—Rick Upchurch becomes the all-time pro football record holder in career punt return yardage. He set the record vs. New England, surpassing the late Emlen Tunnell's total of 2,209 yards. DECEMBER 17—Denver clinches a playoff berth for the third straight year. DECEMBER 23—Denver loses in wild card playoff game at Houston, 13-7.

1980

JANUARY 27—The Broncos are represented in the Pro Bowl game by Randy Gradishar, Tom Jackson, Rick Upchurch, and Louis Wright. MARCH—Only 146 season tickets are not renewed for 1980, virtually assuring the club of its 11th consecutive sellout campaign. OCTOBER 5— Randy Gradishar returns interception 93 yards for a touchdown vs. Cleveland, the longest such return in team history and the NFL's longest for 1980 season. OCTOBER 13—Fred Steinfort kicks 57-yard field goal, tying record for third-longest kick in NFL history.

1981

JANUARY—Fred Steinfort is named by Pro Football Weekly as that publication's Golden Toe Award winner for the 1980 season, having tied for the league lead with 26 field goals. FEBRUARY 25—Edgar F. Kaiser, Jr. is introduced as the new owner of the Denver Broncos, having purchased the club from principal owners Gerald H. Phipps and Allan R. Phipps. MARCH 10—Grady Alderman is named new General Manager and Dan Reeves is named as the new Head Coach. MARCH—The Broncos are sold out for their 12th consecutive season. SEPTEMBER—Craig Morton throws four touchdown passes in each of two consecutive games, vs. Baltimore and San Diego, a first in franchise history. Wide receiver Steve Watson ties a team record with three touchdown receptions against the Colts on September 20. NOVEMBER 22—Watson catches a touchdown pass at Cincinnati to set a new team record with 13 TD catches in one season. DECEMBER 20—Watson gains 82 yards on receptions at Chicago, establishng a new Bronco single season mark with 1,244 reception yards. Individually, Morton set single season records for yards gained (3,213), yards passing (3,195), and average gain per play (8.37), while Watson led the AFC in reception yardage and in touchdown receptions (13).

1982

JANUARY 31—The Broncos are represented in the Pro Bowl game by Randy Gradishar, Bob Swenson, Bill Thompson, and Steve Watson. MARCH—Only 49 season ticket accounts have not been renewed for 1982, virtually assuring the Broncos of their 13th consecutive sellout season in Mile High Stadium. SEPTEMBER 21—The NFL Players Association begins the first regular season strike in NFL history, resulting in the cancellation of games for eight consecutive weeks. DECEMBER 3—Hein Poulus is named Vice President and General Manager of the Broncos. DECEMBER 19—Rick Upchurch returns a punt 78 yards for a touchdown against Kansas City to tie the all-time pro football record of eight career touchdowns on punt returns.

1983

JANUARY 3—Final NFL statistics show Rick Upchurch as the NFL's punt return leader with a 16.1 average and Luke Prestridge as the league's leading punter with a 45.0 mark. FEBRUARY 6—The Broncos are represented in the Pro Bowl game by Randy Gradishar, Luke Prestridge, and Rick Upchurch. MARCH 15—Only 89 season ticket accounts have not been renewed for 1983, virtually assuring the Broncos of their 14th consecutive sellout season in Mile High Stadium. MAY 2—In the biggest trade in franchise history, Denver acquires quarterback John Elway, the first player taken in the NFL draft, and signs him to a five-year contract. DECEMBER 11—Elway throws three fourthquarter touchdown passes to erase a 19-0 deficit and lead the Broncos to a 21-19 playoff-clinching win over Baltimore. This marks the fourth Bronco appearance in playoff competition. DECEMBER 24—Denver loses the wild card game at Seattle, 31-7.

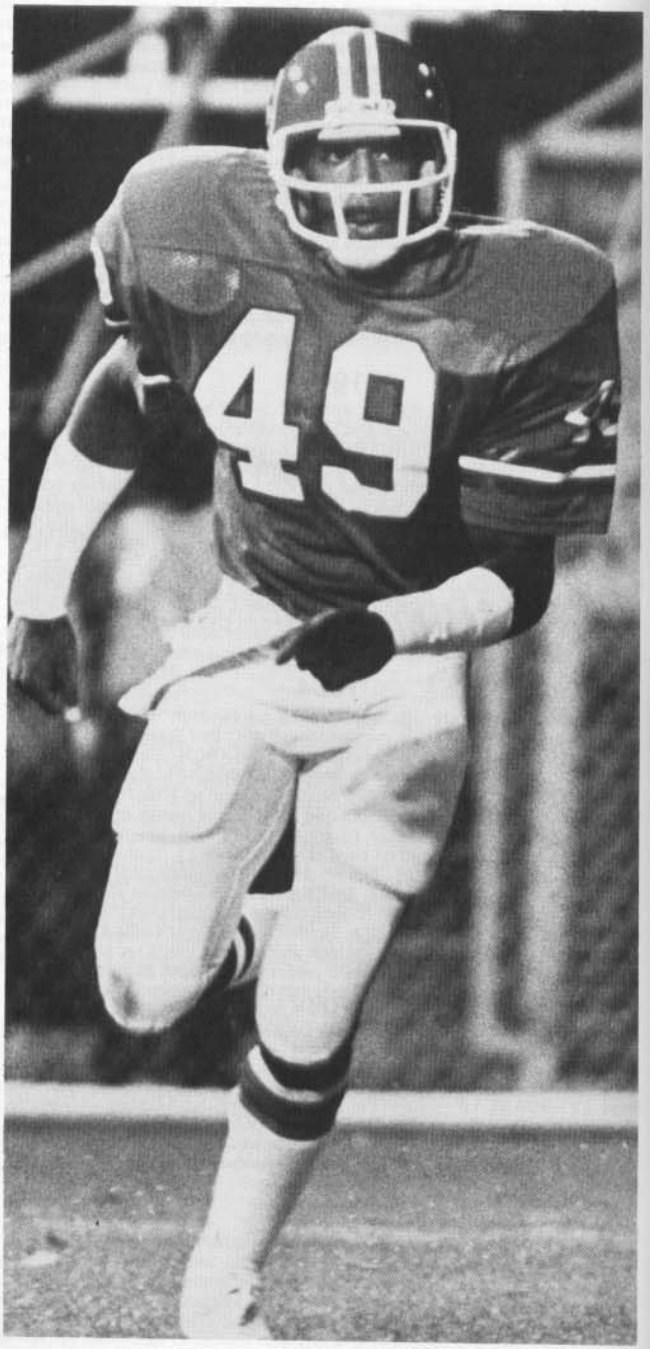

1984

JANUARY 29—Randy Gradishar makes his seventh Pro Bowl appearance. Louis Wright also was named to the AFC Pro Bowl team, but was unable to play because of a fractured finger. MARCH—Only 146 season ticket accounts have not been renewed for 1984, virtually assuring the Broncos of their 15th consecutive sellout season in Mile High Stadium. MARCH 23—Pat Bowlen is introduced as the new owner of the Denver Broncos, assuming the title of President and Chief Executive Officer. NOVEMBER 18—The Broncos beat Minnesota 42-21 for the club's 10th straight victory, a team record. John Elway ties a Denver record throwing five touchdown passes in the game. DECEMBER 15—Denver wins its 13th game of the season, the most in Bronco history, and captures the AFC West crown with a 31-14 win over Seattle. Sammy Winder finishes the season with 1,153 yards rushing, and Steve Watson gains 1,170 yards receiving — the first time Denver has had 1,000-yard performers in both categories in the same season. DECEMBER 30—Pittsburgh defeats Denver 24-17 in a divisional playoff game.

1985

JANUARY 27—Sammy Winder represents the Broncos in the NFL Pro Bowl. FEBRUARY 18—Owner Pat Bowlen names John Beake as General Manager and Dan Reeves as Vice President of the club. MARCH—Only 82 season ticket accounts have not been renewed for the 1985 season, virtually assuring the Broncos of their 16th consecutive sellout season in Mile High Stadium.

DENVER BRONCOS YOUTH

RANDY GRADISHAR
President

Randy Gradishar begins his second year in 1985 as President of the Denver Broncos Youth Foundation. In his position Gradishar works with the needs of youth and youth-serving organizations in the Denver area and the state of Colorado.

Gradishar graduated with a B.S. in Education from the Ohio State University in 1974, where he also played football (including two Rose Bowl appearances) under Coach Woody Hayes. He was the first draft choice of the Broncos in 1974 and played ten years without missing a game. He was voted the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1978 and was selected to seven Pro Bowls.

Before retiring from football in 1983, Randy completed a variety of aptitude, temperament and career tests. This confirmed he is happiest as well as best suited and most qualified to help people, and he has chosen to invest his energies in helping to meet the needs of youth leaders and the young people of our area.

Randy and his wife Janet are the parents of two daughters, Paige and Meredith, and a son, Mark. The family resides in the Denver suburb of Littleton.

The Denver Broncos Youth Foundation (DBYF) is a non-profit organization which was founded and incorporated in 1982 to meet the physical, mental, social and spiritual needs of young people by working in conjunction with existing youth-serving organizations to leverage available energy and resources to assist Colorado's young people and youth leaders. The "buzz word" of the Denver Broncos Youth Foundation which most accurately describes the focus of energy is the word "catalyst".

Although the Broncos Youth Foundation is a separate entity from the Broncos Football Club, Pat Bowlen, the Broncos' owner, serves on the DBYF Board of Directors and has allowed the Foundation the continued use of the Bronco name, as well as providing office space for DBYF. The Broncos Football Club makes an annual donation to DBYF from the Charity Game (first pre-season game). Contributions are also received from corporations and individual donors.

During its first year, the Broncos Youth Foundation has worked with a variety of youth leaders and youth-serving organizations, i.e., Drug & Alcohol, 4-H and other Leadership Programs, High School Journalists, Handicapped Programs, Urban, Minority, Prison and Juvenile Delinquent Programs, and various Christian youth organizations. DBYF has also given limited financial support to new programs and in some cases, existing programs in order to serve youth more effectively.

MILE HIGH STADIUM

Mile High Stadium, home of the Denver Broncos, once again was filled for every home date during the 1984 National Football League regular season. The Broncos brought their consecutive regular season sellout streak to 109 games and concluded 15 years of sellouts at Mile High Stadium.

Expansion of the stadium, begun in 1975, was completed for the 1977 season to give the Broncos the seventh largest home facility in the league.

Denver voters passed a $25 million bond issue in 1974 to expand and improve the stadium from its capacity of 51,706 to 75,100. The stadium held 63,532 for the 1976 season, halfway through the project.

Making Mile High Stadium unique, however, is its movable east stands. The east stands move in a single section which, when fully extended, is in a horseshoe configuration for football. When the section is retracted, the stadium is in position for baseball.

The dynamics involved in the move are fascinating. First, bear in mind that the east stands section is a three-tiered structure, 535 feet long, 135 feet tall and 200 feet deep, weighing nearly nine million pounds. Second, the stands must be moved a distance of 145 feet.

How is it done? The answer, says DMJM-Phillips-Reister, the engineering-architectural firm in charge of the project, is water.

More than 90,000 square feet of runways serve as the operating surfaces over which the stands will move. Water is pumped onto the runways and form a .003 inch sheet upon which the stands rest. Hydraulic rams then push the stands forward at the rate of three feet per minute, making the move last somewhere around two hours.

Originally called Bears Stadium, the facility was built in 1948 for the Denver Bears of baseball's old Western League, with long-range plans to utilize it for football as well. When Denver became a charter member of the American Football League in 1959, the south stands (8,100 seats) and portable east stands (9,616 seats) were added to give a capacity of 34,657 for football.

After Denver voters turned down a stadium bond issue to build an all-purpose metropolitan stadium in 1967, a non-profit group began a fund-raising drive with the goal of purchasing the stadium for the city.

In February of 1968, the group bought the stadium from Rocky Mountain Empire Sports for $1.8 million and presented it to the city of Denver. A 16,000-seat upper deck was immediately constructed over the west stands, raising the capacity to over 50,000 for the 1968 season. In December of 1968, the stadium was renamed Denver Mile High Stadium.

SCHEDULING

The master NFL schedule, as it applies to the Denver Broncos (and also to other AFC West teams), for 1985:

EACH TEAM:

A. Home-and-home games with the four teams in the AFC West (Kansas City, Los Angeles, San Diego, Seattle). Total: 8 games.

B. One game with teams #1-4 (referring to placings) in a division of the other conference. In 1986, this will be the NFC East. Sites will depend upon order of finish within the divisions (see subsequent notes). This step does not apply to the fifth place team in the AFC West.

FIRST PLACE TEAM IN AFC WEST:

B. Home: NFC East #2, NFC East #4; Away: NFC East #1, NFC East #3. Total: four games.

C. One game with each of the two other first place teams in the AFC and each of the two other fourth place teams in the AFC. Home: AFC East #4 and AFC Central #1; Away: AFC East #1 and AFC Central #4. Total: four games.

SECOND PLACE TEAM IN AFC WEST:

B. Home: NFC East #1 and NFC East #3, Away: NFC East #2 and NFC East #4. Total: four games.

C. One game with each of the two other second place teams and each of the other third place teams — Home: AFC East #3 and AFC Central #2; Away: AFC East #2 and AFC Central #3. Total: four games.

THIRD PLACE TEAM IN AFC WEST:

B. Home: NFC East #2 and NFC East #4; Away: NFC East #1 and NFC East #3. Total: four games.

C. One game with each of the two other second and third place teams — Home: AFC East #2 and AFC Central #3; Away: AFC East #3 and AFC Central #2. Total four games.

FOURTH PLACE TEAM IN AFC WEST:

B. Home: NFC East #1 and NFC East #3; Away: NFC East #2 and NFC East #4. Total: four games.

C. One game with each of the other first place and fourth place teams in the conference — Home: AFC East #1, and AFC Central #4; Away: AFC East #4 and AFC Central #1. Total four games.

FIFTH PLACE TEAM IN AFC WEST:

B. One game with each of teams #1-4 of the four-team division in the AFC — Home: AFC Central #2 and AFC Central #4; Away: AFC Central #1 and AFC Central #3. Total: four games.

C. Home-and-home games with the other fifth place team in the AFC — Home: AFC East #5; Away: AFC East #5. Total: two games.

C. One game with each of the fifth place teaams in the NFC — Home: NFC Central #5; Away: NFC East #5. Total: two games.

Broncos Radio Network

For the 16th consecutive season, Denver's 50-thousand watt station KOA (850) will serve as the flagship station for the Denver Broncos game broadcast network.

Bob Martin, radio voice of the Broncos since 1964, will again be calling the play-by-play account of the games, with Larry Zimmer, who joined the broadcast team in 1971, again doing the color commentary.

Martin was named Colorado Sportscaster of the Year for the 16th consecutive year in 1984.

When making requests for working press credentials, please allow time for mailing. Press credentials are normally issued approximately 10 days before the game. Should transmission facilities be required, please arrange for same through local representatives.

WORKING PRESS: Admittance to the Broncos' press box is restricted to the WORKING PRESS ONLY. Credentials are marked with a row and seat number. Passes are non-transferable.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are asked to take special note of the following conditions for use of press credentials, as set by the National Football League:

"This working credential is issued to an organization for the sole purpose of providing stadium access to an accredited individual who has a legitimate working function (media or game service) in connection with this game. It is non-transferable. Any unauthorized use of this credential subjects the bearer to ejection from the stadium and prosecution for criminal trespass.

Any secondary non-editorial use of any picture, film/tape or drawing of the game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including but not limited to use in advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the National Football League. Additionally, television stations are prohibited from making available game film or tape to any other organization even though the planned use may be editorial in nature without advance written permission from the NFL or one of its member clubs. Such film or tape may be aired only by the specific station or entity to whom this credential is issued.

Television stations filming or taping NFL games recognize that any films or tapes may only be used in connection with a regularly scheduled television newscast within a seven-day period following the game and the film clip or taped portion of each such showing will not exceed two (2) minutes in length.

Additionally, television stations agree not to use more than six (6) minutes of filmed or taped "same-day" highlights from NFL games on any regularly scheduled news programs (i.e. no more than six minutes of highlights on Sunday night). This is the only exception to the two-minute limitation.

Television stations wishing to use NFL film or tape in any other manner must obtain written permission for such usage from the National Football League.

Acceptance of the credential constitutes agreement by the bearer and his organization to abide by the foregoing conditions. Thank you for your cooperation."

Sideline photo passes will be tightly controlled by the Public Relations Department and are generally limited to photographers shooting for a daily newspaper, wire service, or magazine of national circulation on specific assignment, or television station.

RADIO-TELEVISION: In making requests for broadcast credentials, please specify requirements for spotters and/or statisticians.

CODE-A-PHONE: The Broncos' Code-A-Phone will be in operation after the club begins training camp at the University of Northern Colorado in Greeley. New entries, generally including an interview with a player or coach, will be made daily at approximately 6:00 p.m. This recorded interview service will continue throughout the season. Please check with the public relations office for an updated telephone number.

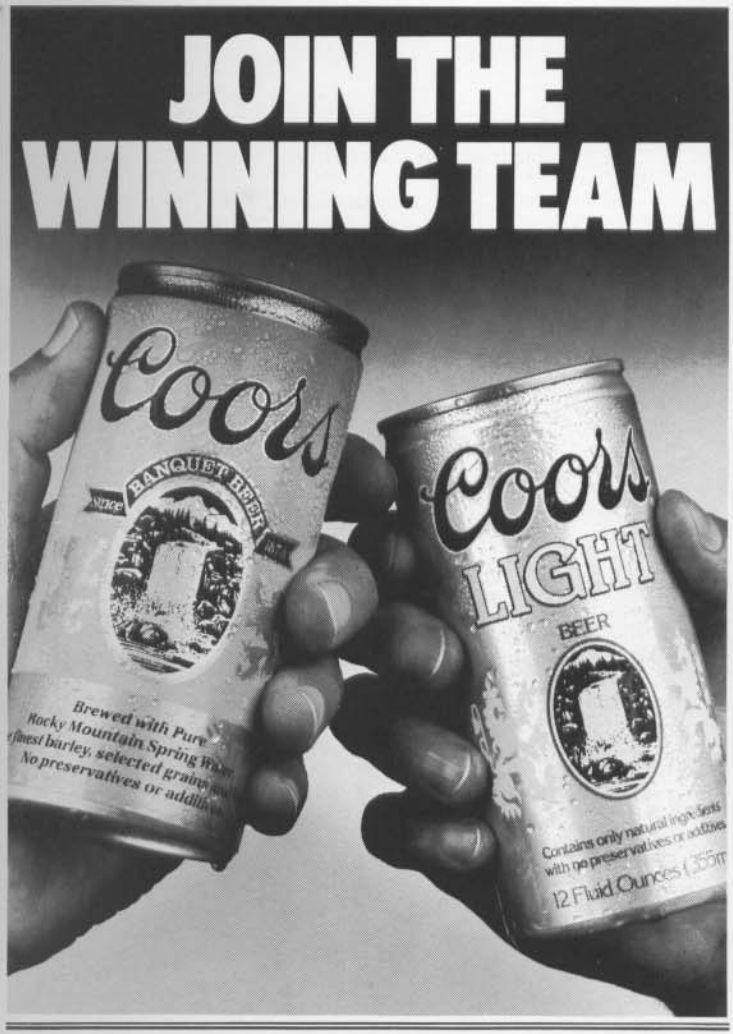

STADIUM ACCESS: To get to Mile High Stadium, which is located at 19th Avenue and Eliot Street, take Interstate 25 to the Mile High Stadium Exit (19th Avenue Exit). The Press Box is located on the West side of the stadium.

DRIVING INSTRUCTIONS TO MILE HIGH STADIUM FROM STAPLETON INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT: Exit airport on Quebec North and continue to Interstate 70. Take Interstate 70 West to Interstate 25 South, which will be a left lane exit. Continue West on Interstate 25 South until you come to Mile High Stadium Exit (19th Avenue Exit).

DRIVING INSTRUCTIONS TO STAPLETON INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT FROM MILE HIGH STADIUM: Take one of two routes depending on your parking lot location. You can take 20th Avenue East to Clay Street, turning left at Clay and proceeding to 23rd Avenue. Take a right at 23rd Avenue and continue to Interstate 25 entrances. Another route (Northbound) would be to take 17th Avenue East, which will continue beneath an overpass and will take you directly to Interstate 25 north. The alternate South bound route would be to take 17th Avenue East, turning left at Bryant Street and proceeding to the Interstate 25 South bound entrance, approximately two blocks.

TRANSMISSION FACILITIES: The Broncos provide three complimentary telephones in the visitors area of the working press box for use with VDT or telecopier equipment. Only collect, credit card or third party billing calls can be made from these telephones. Should you wish a private telephone installed at your seat, the Broncos will be pleased to assign you a seat location and provide you with a contact for you to make the appropriate arrangements with the local telephone company.

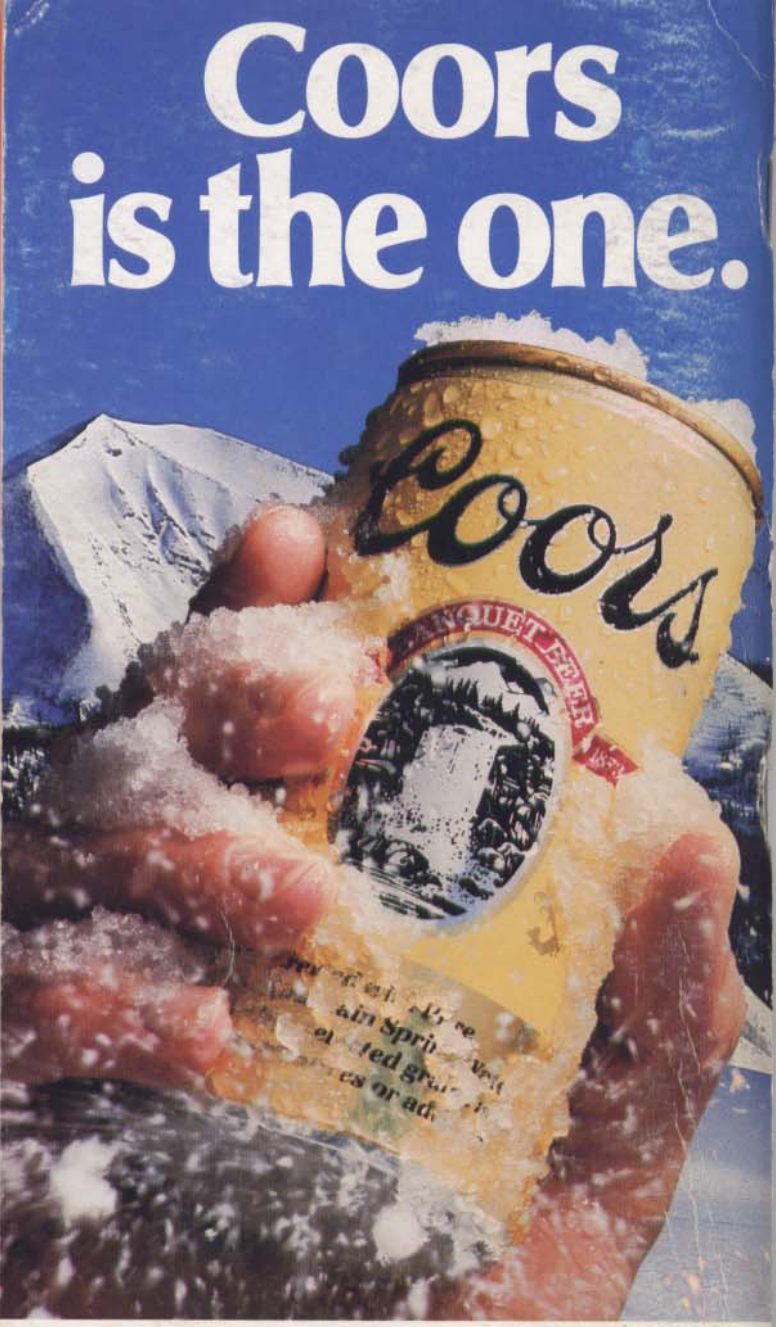

POST-GAME TRANSPORTATION: Please advise Broncos PR personnel as soon as possible should you require trasportation following the game. The amount of time you must wait will obviously decline as time goes by following the conclusion of the game. All taxis will make pick-ups curb side a the Ticket Office, which is located at 19th Avenue and Eliot Street. Should you wish to make your own arangements, the number for Yellow Cab Company is 292-1212.
