WILLIAM CLAY FORD

President

For the third time in the history of the Detroit Lions, the ownership of the company is in the hands of a single owner, William Clay Ford, Vice President of the Ford Motor Co.

Ford took over sole ownership of the Lions on January 10, 1964, from the stockholders of the Detroit Football Co., and formed his own corporation, the Detroit Lions, Inc., to run the Motor City franchise.

He follows in the footsteps of other single Lion owners dating back to 1934, when the franchise was transferred to Detroit from Portsmouth, O. by the late George A. Richards. Richards, in turn, sold his franchise to Fred Mandel in 1940 and retained ownership until 1948 when a syndicate of Detroit businessmen took over the franchise. This same syndicate, which numbered 144 stockholders in November of 1963, sold the franchise to Ford for $6,000,000.

Ford, a youthful 39-year-old industrialist, is one of the most avid pro football fans in America, and his interest in the game has been passed along to his young family.

Despite his duties as President and Owner of the Lions, Ford continues his duties with the Ford Motor Co. in product planning and styling, being responsible for the coordination and review of all the company's forward product programs.

Ford, 39, became president of the Lions in January, 1961, after the resignation of Edwin J. Anderson. Anderson still serves as Vice President and General Manager of the new organization and directs the operation of the club on a day-to-day basis.

Ford has been a director of the Detroit Football Company since 1956. He is the grandson of the late Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Co. and the youngest of four children of the late Edsel B. Ford.

A graduate of Yale University in 1949, Ford has held positions in sales and advertising and in industrial relations, and was general manager of the Continental Division before assuming his present duties at the company staff level in 1956. He has been a member of the Ford Motor Co. board of directors since 1948.

An avid sports enthusiast, Ford played varsity tennis and soccer at Yale and is a member of the Country Club of Detroit.

In addition to his duties with the Ford Motor Co., since 1951, Mr. Ford has been president of the Edison Institute, which operates the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village in Dearborn, Mich. He is secretary-treasurer of the Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, president of the Edsel B. Ford Institute for Medical Research, and a trustee of the Michigan Heart Association. He has been national campaign chairman of the United Cerebral Palsy Association four times and is a director of the United Foundation, having served as 1953 chairman of its major industry unit.

Ford is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio, and they have daughters, Martha, Sheila, Elizabeth and one son, William Clay, Jr. The Fords live in Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan. He was born March 14, 1925.

EDWIN J. ANDERSON

Vice President and General Manager

The one individual who has been directly involved with all Detroit Lions activities since the franchise was taken over in 1948 by a syndicate of local sports enthusiasts is E. J. "Andy" Anderson.

Anderson is serving in his 17th year with the Lions, and he presently is in his seventh season as general manager. In addition to his general manager's duties, Anderson also is a Vice President of the new corporation, The Detroit Lions, Inc., the organization founded by William Clay Ford when he obtained control of the company in January, 1964.

Anderson was part of the original group of Detroit leaders who purchased the franchise in 1948 from Fred Mandel. He was elected president of the company in 1949 and held the post until January, 1961, when he resigned the dual role of president and general manager to concentrate on the GM's duties. Following his resignation, William Clay Ford was elected to the post.

Anderson developed his interest in athletics by playing all sports at Rockford, Illinois, high school. He continued his football at Beloit College at a time when the little Wisconsin school was playing a tough schedule which included such powers as Notre Dame, coached by Knute Rockne.

After college, Anderson entered the advertising field and later held executive positions at Marshall Field in Chicago and with the Hiram Walker Co. before he joined the Goebel Brewing Co. as vice president in charge of sales. He was named president of the brewery in 1941 and held the position until June of 1958 when he resigned to devote full time to the Lions as president and general manager.

Anderson has an enviable record of civic accomplishment, including the general chairmanship of the 1945 Community Fund, the presidency of the Children's Hospital of Detroit for three years, and the presidency of the Birmingham Community Center for two years. He still is a member of the board of the Lumberman's Mutual Casualty Company and the American Motorist Insurance Company.

Anderson lives in Bloomfield Hills, Mich., with his wife, Sunny. They have two daughters, Susan Jane Stenglein of Saginaw, Mich., and Marynell Williams of Birmingham, Mich., and four grandchildren. Anderson was born August 3, 1902.

1964 Detroit Lions Coaching Staff

GEORGE WILSON — Head Coach

After suffering through one of the most frustrating years in his coaching career in 1963, George Wilson has high hopes that '64 will bring better things.

A succession of injuries to key personnel, beginning in pre-season play, were the big factors in the Lions' slip from second place during the 1960, '61, and '62 seasons to the 5-8-1 record of '63.

With the return to full-time duty of most of the vets who were sidelined last year, Wilson figures '64 could be the Lions' year to rebound.

Wilson is in his eighth season as head coach of the Lions, after taking over the top spot just two days before the opening of the pre-season campaign in 1957, when Buddy Parker suddenly resigned. The team responded to the change and went out to win the NFL title with a sensational 59-14 decision over Cleveland, after tying San Francisco in the regular season race and coming through with a 31-27 playoff victory.

The team suffered through injuries and personnel shortages to win only seven games in 1958 and 1959. The Lions have been real contenders the last three seasons, compiling 7-5, 8-5-1, and 11-3 records. The 1962 team lost three games by a mere eight points, while winning more games in a single season than any other Lions team in history.

During the three seasons the Lions finished second, they won the Playoff Bowl three straight years, 17-16 over Cleveland in '61, 38-10 over Philadelphia in '62 and 17-10 over Pittsburgh in '63.

The 1964 season marks the 28th year in professional football for Wilson. He started with the Chicago Bears as a player in 1937, was a key performer during the glory days of the early '40's, and concluded his active career in 1946 as a player-coach. He remained with George Halas' staff through the 1948 season and came to Detroit in 1949 as an aide to the late "Bo" McMillin. He continued as an assistant under McMillin and then with Parker until 1957 when he took over his first head coaching job and proceeded to win the championship his first year.

A native of Chicago, Ill., Wilson attended Northwestern University after attending prep school at St. John's Military Academy. He now resides in Dearborn, Mich. His family includes his wife, Claire, and three children still at home, Lynn, 17, Kathleen, 13, and Laurie, 10. Two other children, Susan and George, Jr., are now married.

Wilson was born Feb. 3, 1914.

LIONS '64 PROSPECTS

After three straight second place finishes, in 1960, 1961, 1962, the Detroit Lions saw an unprecedented rash of injuries to key players cut their team chances to the bone last season, and the club wound up in a fourth place tie with a 5-8-1 record.

A series of off-season operations seems to have repaired most of the damages and hopes are again high for the 1964 season. Several of the "ifs" that were prevalent in the early spring have worked themselves out in training camp so it now appears that the Lions will be primarily a veteran aggregation, with three or four rookies seeing reserve duty for the '64 season.

Defensive halfback Gary Lowe, out with Achilles heel surgery in '63 has come back strong, as has defensive end Darris McCord, and flanker Pat Studsill, to lead the list of '63 injured who have returned to full-time duty.

At the outset, it appears that the entire offensive unit will be manned by holdovers, with but one new face in the lineup. Right tackle J. D. Smith, obtained from the Philadelphia Eagles, has the right offensive tackle spot to himself. The remainder of the starting unit probably will include Gail Cogdill and Jim Gibbons at the ends, Daryl Sanders and Smith at the tackles, John Gonzaga and John Gordy at the guard posts, and Bob Whitlow at center. In the backfield, Coach George Wilson has veterans Earl Morrall and Milt Plum ready for the quarterback's job, and Tom Watkins and Dan Lewis give the team depth at the running back position. Terry Barr and Pat Studsill handle the flanker post with authority and the fullback post again figures to belong to Nick Pietrosante, backed up by sophomore Nick Ryder and rookie Pat Batten.

The return of Alex Karras to the defensive line should be a tremendous boost to the entire team. Karras has shown in practice that he hasn't lost any of his desire or determination in his year away from the game.

Joining Karras in the defensive line will be Roger Brown at the other tackle, while Darris McCord and Sam Williams rate the edge at the end posts. Bill Quinlan, an off-season acquisition from the Eagles, is pushing hard for a spot here.

Linebacking appears to be a strong suit for the Lions with an abundance of talent in veteran All-Pro Joe Schmidt, Pro Bowl performer Wayne Walker, sophomore Ernie Clark, Dennis Gaubatz, and Monte Lee. Also on hand is veteran Carl Brettschneider who missed most of the pre-season activity due to the knee he injured in '63.

The defensive backfield also is heavily veteran in flavor with the "Four-L's" a solid unit composed of Dick Lane, Yale Lary, Gary Lowe, and Dick LeBeau, backed up by Bruce Maher, Larry Vargo, Dick Compton, and a couple of newcomers of note, Bobby Thompson and Wayne Rasmussen.

It boils down basically to the fact that most of the Lions playing for '64 figures to be done by veterans, but Wilson has been impressed with several rookies who bear watching for the future and could contribute heavily as the season progresses. Included in this group are defensive backs Thompson and Rasmussen, guard Wally Hilgenberg, an All-Star game performer, fullback Pat Batten, end Warren Wells, and a defensive lineman, Roger LaLonde.

IF YOU'RE NOT SATISFIED, BLOW THE WHISTLE ON US.

We'll give you your money back.

You see, we back all our products and dealer services with a guarantee. So if you're not satisfied, you get your money back. It's that simple.

But our guarantee isn't the only protection you'll get at your Marathon dealer's. Try our Super-M premium or Mile-maker regular gasolines.

They both will protect your car against fuel line freeze-up and stalls due to carburetor icing.

Would you give us a chance to prove it?

Around the world

Around the corner

(Thank you for reading this message from Marathon. We hope you enjoy our broadcasts of Detroit Lions football games on radio and television.)
